

1 Come all you Bold farmers come Listen a while I will sing you A song will Cause you to smile Come all that will Fight for your houses and land Come Join in this mob and we will you Befriend

2 = It was in July About the tenth day Away to Perth Amboy we All take our way
We all take our Way if Our Courage dont fail Resolving to take John Bambridge Out of Jail & We will Make them Comply Boys and soon set him free for the Heat of this Weather dont with him Agree Besides I do think it a Shame and disgrace Such a Gentlemans son should be kept in such a place

4 = They saw us A coming they were All surprised They all stood A Gasseing With tears in their Eyes With tears in their Eyes not a word for to say for fear we would Carry their whole town away

5 = We march'd to the Gail and there did appear And who should we meet there But Bold Esquire Deer ~~Come all you Bold Rebels and what do you mean~~
He — Reading Commission he swore he woud not fail Resolving to keep John Bambridge in Jail

6 = Come all you Bold Rebels and what do you mean
I have Read my Commission and that you have seen And here I will keep him in spite of you all then down In an Instant this poor man did fall

7 = The locks split a sunder the Doors Opened wide this man he Came Guarded on Every side And sweet pleasant Musick was played Ore and Ore this man was Conducted to the Navesink shore

8 = And when they all found the Mob they were Gone
They Granted out Warrants and them Very strong And Between the two Judges they did it contrive to have him Brought Back again Dead or Alive

9 = the Constable Being Crafty as now you will find Resolved to leave not a Justice Behind He Read over his warrant and found it Run soe Commanded Judge Nevill with him for to Goe

107 Judge Nevill Being Crafty he look'd Down with a smile Dont Boys we had Best to tarry A while for all these Bold Rebels they will have their will so if we are wise Boys we had best to be still
