Trenton, NJ – Brian Murray, Press Secretary for Governor Chris Christie, released the following statement regarding the Governor's travel to Boston:

"Due to delays and cancellations of flights into Boston, Governor Chris Christie will be unable to attend the International Conference on Opioids at Harvard Medical School, where he was scheduled to provide the keynote remarks at 5:30 P.M. tonight. The Governor sends his regrets to the conference organizers, its attendees and to everyone joining in the fight to resolve this nation's opioid addiction crisis."
