Shell fisherman did not have right to adjudicatory hearing on proposed coastal development by reason of his occupation. N.J.S.A. 12:5-1 et seq., 13:19-1 et seq., 52:14B-2(b), 52:14B-9. Spalt v. New Jersey Dept. of Environmental Protection, 237 N.J.Super. 206, 567 A.2d 264 (A.D.1989), certification denied 122 N.J. 140, 584 A.2d 213.

Lessees of shellfish bottoms were not entitled to adjudicatory hearing on proposed coastal development. N.J.S.A. 12:5-1 et seq., 13:19-1 et seq., 50:1-5 et seq., 52:14B-2(b), 52:14B-9. Spalt v. New Jersey Dept. of Environmental Protection, 237 N.J.Super. 206, 567 A.2d 264 (A.D.1989), certification denied 122 N.J. 140, 584 A.2d 213.

Residents near proposed coastal development did not have sufficient particularized property right to be entitled to adjudicatory hearing. N.J.S.A. 12:5-1 et seq., 13:19-1 et seq., 52:14B-2(b), 52:14B-9. Spalt v. New Jersey Dept. of Environmental Protection, 237 N.J.Super. 206, 567 A.2d 264 (A.D.1989), certification denied 122 N.J. 140, 584 A.2d 213.

Administrative Procedure Act does not establish right to hearing in those who otherwise do not have such right. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-9. Spalt v. New Jersey Dept. of Environmental Protection, 237 N.J.Super. 206, 567 A.2d 264 (A.D.1989), certification denied 122 N.J. 140, 584 A.2d 213.

Nonaggrieved third parties did not have right to challenge coastal development under Coastal Area Facility Review Act or Waterfront Development Act. N.J.S.A. 12:5-1 et seq., 13:19-1 et seq. Spalt v. New Jersey Dept. of Environmental Protection, 237 N.J.Super. 206, 567 A.2d 264 (A.D.1989), certification denied 122 N.J. 140, 584 A.2d 213.

Procedural mode choice (rulemaking v. adjudication) turns on which is best suited to achieve goals and fulfill responsibilities of an agency in a given case (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.6 as N.J.A.C. 1:11-1.6). State Dep't of Environmental Protection v. Stavola, 103 N.J. 425, 511 A.2d 622 (1986).

Public utility ratemaking procedures, although quasi-legislative in origin, are conducted like quasi-judicial proceedings (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-6(a)3). Mortgage Bankers Association v. New Jersey Real Estate Commission, 102 N.J. 176, 506 A.2d 733 (1986).

Public utility ratemaking procedures, although quasi-legislative in origin, are conducted like quasi-judicial proceedings (cites former N.J.A.C. 1:1-6(a)3). Rate schedule approval hearing, as a non-adjudicative proceeding, does not require a plenary hearing. New Jersey Builders Assn. v. Sheeran, 168 N.J.Super. 237, 402 A.2d 956 (App.Div.1979), certification denied 81 N.J. 293, 405 A.2d 837 (1979).

Denial of hearing in uncontested case affirmed. Camden County v. Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System, 97 N.J.A.R.2d (TYP) 105.

Order of remand signed by assistant director; valid. O.F. v. Hudson County Welfare Agency, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (DEA) 57.

SUBCHAPTER 3. COMMENCEMENT OF CONTESTED CASES; JURISDICTION OF THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

1:1-3.1 Commencement of contested cases in the State agencies

(a) A contested case shall be commenced in the State agency with appropriate subject matter jurisdiction. A contested case may be commenced by the agency itself or by an individual or entity as provided in the rules and regulations of the agency.

(b) A request for a contested case hearing may not be filed with the Office of Administrative Law by the individual or entity requesting the hearing.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Inserted designation (a); and added (b).

Case Notes

New Jersey limitations for disputing individualized education plan did not bar reimbursement claim. Bernardsville Bd. of Educ. v. J.H., C.A.3 (N.J.)1994, 42 F.3d 149, rehearing and rehearing in banc denied.

1:1-3.2 Jurisdiction of the Office of Administrative Law

(a) The Office of Administrative Law shall acquire jurisdiction over a matter only after it has been determined to be a contested case by an agency head and has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law or as otherwise authorized by law, except as provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-17. The Office of Administrative Law shall not receive, hear or consider any pleadings, motion papers, or documents of any kind relating to any matter until it has acquired jurisdiction over that matter, except as provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.

(b) When the Office of Administrative Law acquires jurisdiction over a matter that arises from a State agency's rejection of a party's application, and at the hearing the party offers proofs that were not previously considered by the agency, the judge may either allow the party to amend the application to add new contentions, claims or defenses or, if considerations of expediency and efficiency so require, the judge shall order the matter returned to the State agency. If the matter is returned to the agency and thereafter transmitted for hearing, the agency's response to any new contentions, claims or defenses shall be attached to the transmittal form required by N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2.

(c) Matters involving the administration of the Office of Administrative Law as a State agency are subject to the authority of the Director. In the following matters as they relate to proceedings before the Office of Administrative Law, the Director is the agency head for purposes of review:

1. Disqualification of a particular judge due to interest or any other reason which would preclude a fair and unbiased hearing, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.12;
2. Appearances of non-lawyer representatives, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4;
3. Imposition of conditions and limitations upon non-lawyer representatives, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.5;
4. Sanctions under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 or 14.14 and 14.15 consisting of the assessment of costs, expenses, or fines;
5. Disqualification of attorneys, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.3;
6. Establishment of a hearing location pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.1(b); and
7. Appearance of attorneys pro hac vice pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.2.

Amended by R.1991 d.34, effective January 22, 1991.

See: 22 N.J.R. 3278(a), 23 N.J.R. 194(a).

Added (c)6.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

In (c)4: revised N.J.A.C. citation.

Amended by R.1996 d.133, effective March 18, 1996.

See: 27 N.J.R. 609(a), 28 N.J.R. 1503(a).

In (c)4 added fines.

Amended by R.2001 d.180, effective June 4, 2001.

See: 33 N.J.R. 1040(a), 33 N.J.R. 1926(a).

In (c)4, inserted "or 14.14" following "1:1-14.4"; added (c)7.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (c)4, inserted "and 14.15".

Case Notes

State Department of Education, rather than administrative law judge, had jurisdiction to conduct due process review of responsibility for education of blind, retarded child. L.P. v. Edison Bd. of Educ., 265 N.J.Super. 266, 626 A.2d 473 (L.1993).

Agency, rather than Superior Court, was proper place for challenge to special education being provided to blind, retarded child. L.P. v. Edison Bd. of Educ., 265 N.J.Super. 266, 626 A.2d 473 (L.1993).

Administrative agencies enjoy a great deal of flexibility in selecting the proceedings most suitable to achieving their regulatory aims. A high degree of discretion in exercising that choice reposes in the administrative agency (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.2). Crema v. N.J. Dep't of Environmental Protection, 94 N.J. 286, 463 A.2d 910 (1983).

Taxes paid to state, jurisdiction of the Office of Administrative Law. Linden Disposal, Inc., v. Edison Township, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EPE) 1.

1:1-3.3 Return of transmitted cases

(a) A case that has been transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law shall be returned to the transmitting agency if the transmitting agency head so requests in written notice to the Office of Administrative Law and all parties. The notice shall state the reason for returning the case. Upon receipt of the notice, the Office of Administrative Law shall return the case.

(b) A case shall be returned to the transmitting agency by the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law if, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative of the party appears at a proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or a judge (see N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4). Any explanations regarding the failure to appear must be in writing and received by the transmitting agency head within 13 days of the date of the Clerk's notice returning the case. A copy of the explanation shall be served on all other parties. If, based on such explanations, the agency head believes the matter should be rescheduled for hearing, the agency head may re-transmit the case to the Office of Administrative Law, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2.

(c) Upon returning any matter to the transmitting agency, the Clerk shall issue an appropriate notice to the parties which shall advise the parties of the time limit and requirements for explanations as set forth in (b) above.

(d) The agency head may extend the time limit for receiving explanations regarding the failure to appear when good cause is shown.

Amended by R.1989 d.605, effective December 18, 1989.

See: 21 N.J.R. 3207(a), 21 N.J.R. 3914(a).

Deleted language stating that an initial decision shall be entered returning the case.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

Added new subsections (b) and (c), recodifying original rule text as subsection (a).

Amended by R.1991 d.513, effective October 21, 1991.

See: 23 N.J.R. 1728(a), 23 N.J.R. 3133(a).

Explanation for failure to appear to be submitted within 13 days.

Case Notes

Case remanded from state superior court requires remand to Office of Administrative Law for determination of whether constitutional claims were within scope of remand order. R.D. v. Bernards Township Board of Education, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 481.

SUBCHAPTER 4. AGENCY RESPONSIBILITY BEFORE TRANSMISSION TO THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

1:1-4.1 Determination of contested case

(a) After an agency proceeding has commenced, the agency head shall promptly determine whether the matter is a contested case. If any party petitions the agency head to decide whether the matter is contested, the agency shall make such a determination within 30 days from receipt of the petition and inform all parties of its determination.

these standards, the judge may revoke a non-lawyer representative's right to appear in a case or may order sanctions as provided in (c) above.

Amended by R.1989 d.158, effective March 20, 1989.

See: 20 N.J.R. 2845(a), 21 N.J.R. 749(a).

Exceptions allowing non-lawyer representatives to sign consent orders or stipulations, added at (f).

Correction in (c): changed 1:11-4.4 to 1:1-14.4.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

In (c): revised N.J.A.C. citation.

Amended by R.1992 d.213, effective May 18, 1992.

See: 24 N.J.R. 321(a), 24 N.J.R. 1873(b).

Added (g).

Amended by R.1997 d.158, effective April 7, 1997.

See: 29 N.J.R. 282(a), 29 N.J.R. 1295(a).

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (c), inserted "and 14.15" twice.

Case Notes

Testimony by lay advocate for parents was only arguably relevant under federal discovery rules. Woods on Behalf of T.W. v. New Jersey Dept. of Educ., D.N.J.1993, 858 F.Supp. 51.

Attorney-client privilege extended to lay advocate. Woods on Behalf of T.W. v. New Jersey Dept. of Educ., D.N.J.1993, 858 F.Supp. 51.

1:1-5.6 Appearance without representation: State agencies

(a) In those cases where a State agency does not send a representative who has been approved under N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4 to a hearing, but merely rests its case on papers presented to the judge:

1. The agency shall include in the transmittal form a statement which verifies the agency's intention to proceed without a representative qualified under N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4 and lists the papers upon which the agency intends to rely.

2. The judge shall, where appropriate, accept into the hearing record the agency's papers.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Section was "Appearance without representation: State agencies or county or municipal welfare agencies; corporations". In the introductory paragraph of (a), deleted "or a county or municipal welfare agency" following "State agency" and "and/or on witnesses" preceding "presented to the judge."; in (a)1, deleted "and/or witnesses" preceding "upon which"; rewrote (a)2; and deleted (b).

SUBCHAPTER 6. PLEADINGS

1:1-6.1 Pleading requirements

(a) Specific pleading requirements are governed by the agency with subject matter jurisdiction over the case. Except as otherwise provided by this subchapter, parties in contested cases should refer to the rules of the appropriate agency for guidance.

(b) Pleadings shall be filed as required by the rules of the agency with subject matter jurisdiction over the case.

(c) Pleadings shall be served in the manner permitted by N.J.A.C. 1:1-7.1(a) on all parties and on any other person required by the rules of the agency with subject matter jurisdiction over the case.

Case Notes

Thirty day period in which the Commissioner of Education was required to determine whether to retain case filed by local school board challenging amount of state aid school district received, or transfer case to Office of Administrative Law (OAL), was never triggered, where Department of Education never filed an answer to school board's petition and Commissioner never determined that school board's petition presented a contested case. Sloan v. Klagholtz, 776 A.2d 894 (2001).

Notice of appeal or cross-appeal is deemed complaint and tolls running of statute of limitations when aggrieved party in state administrative proceeding elects not to file complaint in state court alleging federal civil rights claims but raises such claims in notice of appeal or cross-appeal from the decision of the agency. Maisonet v. New Jersey Dept. of Human Services, Div. of Family Development, 140 N.J. 214, 657 A.2d 1209 (1995).

The "letter report" also serves as the "first pleading" in the administrative hearing process. The significance of the letter report at this stage of the administrative process is to put the applicant on notice of the affirmative qualification criteria which he or she is obligated to prove by clear and convincing evidence. Davis v. Div. of Gaming Enforcement, 8 N.J.A.R. 301 (1985).

1:1-6.2 Amendment of pleadings

(a) Unless precluded by law or constitutional principle, pleadings may be freely amended when, in the judge's discretion, an amendment would be in the interest of efficiency, expediency and the avoidance of over-technical pleading requirements and would not create undue prejudice.

(b) A judge in granting pleading amendments may permit a brief continuance to allow an opposing party additional preparation time.

Case Notes

Where parents challenged a school board's decision to deny their daughter transportation services, and the daughter had completed middle school during the course of the appeal, no reasonable purpose would have been served by requiring the parents to file an entirely new petition to substitute their younger daughter; irrespective that delays in the movement of the appeal were attributable to the parents' own dilatoriness, in light of the stage of record development and given that all of the underlying facts of the matter, other than the name of the specific child involved, were identical, amendment was permitted. T.F.S. ex rel. C.M.S. v. Bd. of Educ., South Brunswick Twnshp., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 6674-02, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1285, Commissioner's Decision (November 2, 2005).

First pleading may be amended anytime, even after presentation of proofs (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.3). Roberts v. Keansburg Bd. of Educ., 5 N.J.A.R. 208 (1983).

1:1-6.3 Public officers; death or separation from office

When any public officer who is a party to a contested case, whether or not mentioned by name in the pleadings, dies, resigns or for any reason ceases to hold office, his or her successor in office shall be deemed to have been substituted in his or her place. However, on motion, the judge may otherwise order or may specifically order the retention as a party of the predecessor in office.

SUBCHAPTER 7. SERVICE AND FILING OF PAPERS; FORMAT

1:1-7.1 Service; when required; manner

(a) Service shall be made in person; by certified mail, return receipt requested; by ordinary mail; or in any manner which is designed to provide actual notice to the party or person being served.

(b) Any paper filed shall be served in the manner provided by (a) above upon all attorneys or other representatives and upon all parties appearing pro se, either before filing or promptly thereafter unless otherwise provided by order.

(c) Service by mail shall be complete upon mailing.

(d) The standards of personal service contained in R. 4:4-4 of the New Jersey Court Rules shall apply to contested cases when personal service is required and this section is inapplicable.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), deleted "or" preceding "by certified mail" and preceding "by ordinary mail".

1:1-7.2 Proof of publication and service

(a) Whenever these rules or the applicable rules of any agency provide for publication, mailing or posting of public notices in contested cases, proofs thereof shall be filed within 20 days after the publication, mailing or posting.

(b) Except for service by publication or as otherwise required by this chapter or by State or Federal statute, proof of service shall not be necessary unless a question of notice arises.

(c) Where necessary to prove service, proof may be made by an acknowledgment of service signed by the attorney, any other representative or party, or by an affidavit of the person making service, or by a certificate of service appended to the paper to be filed and signed by the attorney or other representative for the party making service. Where appropriate, other competent proof that actual and timely notice existed of the contents of the paper may be considered as a substitute for service.

1:1-7.3 Filing; copies

(a) A paper shall be filed with the Clerk if the matter has not been assigned to a judge, or, if a judge has been assigned, with the judge assigned to the case.

(b) The Clerk or the judge, upon receiving papers for filing that do not conform to the requirements of these rules, may either return the papers with instructions for refileing or cure the defects and accept the papers for filing.

(c) All papers filed with the Office of Administrative Law shall be in duplicate. If the filer submits an additional copy of the paper to be filed with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, the Clerk or judge will return the paper to the filer marked with the date of filing.

(d) Evidence of filing shall be a notation showing the date of filing. When a paper is filed with a judge, the notation shall also identify the judge. A copy of such papers shall be forwarded by the filing party to the Clerk immediately.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Rewrote (a); in (c), inserted "or judge"; and added (d).

1:1-7.4 Format of papers

(a) Every paper filed shall contain:

1. The Office of Administrative Law docket number of the proceeding or, if the case has not been transmitted, the agency docket number;

2. The name, address and telephone number of the person who prepared the paper; and

3. A caption setting forth the title of the proceeding and a brief designation describing the paper filed.

(b) All papers shall be on 8 1/2" x 11" stock of customary weight and quality insofar as is practicable.

1:1-7.5 Filing by facsimile transmission

(a) A paper may be filed by facsimile transmission unless prohibited by the judge.

(b) Facsimile transmissions must comply with all requirements of this subchapter except N.J.A.C. 1:1-7.3(c) and 1:1-7.4(b).

(c) The party filing a document by facsimile transmission must include a certification indicating the method of service upon each party and stating that the original document is available for filing if requested by court or a party.

(d) Facsimile transmittals are filed as of the date of receipt by the Clerk or the judge, provided that the complete transmittal is received by 5:00 P.M. Facsimile transmittals received after 5:00 P.M. shall be deemed to be filed as of the next business day.

(e) A party requesting a facsimile transmittal from the Clerk or the judge shall be assessed a charge at the rate provided in the Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq.

New Rule, R.1992 d.213, effective May 18, 1992.
See: 24 N.J.R. 321(a), 24 N.J.R. 1873(b).
Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), substituted “unless prohibited by the judge.” for “if:”; deleted (a)1 and (a)2; and in (e), substituted “Open Public Records Act” for “Right to Know Law”.

4. All parties and the agency shall be notified of any action taken under this section.

(b) Cases may not be placed on the inactive list to await an appellate court decision involving other parties unless the appellate decision is so imminent and directly relevant to the matter under dispute so that some reasonable delay would be justified.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), substituted "demonstrates good cause" for "is mentally or physically incapable of proceeding or is with other just excuse unable to proceed without substantial inconvenience or inordinate expense"; in (a)4, substituted "All parties and the agency shall be notified" for "The Clerk shall notify all parties and the agency"; and in (b), inserted "so" preceding "that".

SUBCHAPTER 10. DISCOVERY

1:1-10.1 Purpose and function; policy considerations; public documents not discoverable

(a) The purpose of discovery is to facilitate the disposition of cases by streamlining the hearing and enhancing the likelihood of settlement or withdrawal. These rules are designed to achieve this purpose by giving litigants access to facts which tend to support or undermine their position or that of their adversary.

(b) It is not ground for denial of a request for discovery that the information to be produced may be inadmissible in evidence if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) In considering a discovery motion, the judge shall weigh the specific need for the information, the extent to which the information is within the control of the party and matters of expense, privilege, trade secret and oppressiveness. Except where so proceeding would be unduly prejudicial to the party seeking discovery, discovery shall be ordered on terms least burdensome to the party from whom discovery is sought.

(d) Discovery shall generally not be available against a State agency that is neither a party to the proceeding nor asserting a position in respect of the outcome but is solely providing the forum for the dispute's resolution.

Amended by R.2004 d.287, effective August 2, 2004.
See: 36 N.J.R. 1857(a), 36 N.J.R. 3523(a).

Deleted former (d) and recodified former (e) as new (d).

Case Notes

1:1-10.2 Discovery by notice or motion; depositions; physical and mental examinations

(a) Any party may notify another party to provide discovery by one or more of the following methods:

1. Written interrogatories;
2. Production of documents or things, including electronically stored information provided that a party need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the party identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. The party from whom discovery is sought shall demonstrate that the electronically stored information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost;
3. Permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection or other purposes; and
4. Requests for admissions.

(b) Any party may request an informal, nontranscribed meeting with witnesses for another party in order to facilitate the purposes of discovery as described in N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1. The other party and his or her representative must be given notice and the opportunity to be present. Such meetings are voluntary and cannot be compelled. Failure to agree to such meetings will not be considered good cause for permitting depositions pursuant to (c) below.

(c) Depositions upon oral examination or written questions and physical and mental examinations are available only on motion for good cause. In deciding any such motion, the judge shall consider the policy governing discovery as stated in N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1 and shall weigh the specific need for the deposition or examination; the extent to which the information sought cannot be obtained in other ways; the requested location and time for the deposition or examination; undue hardship; and matters of expense, privilege, trade secret or oppressiveness. An order granting a deposition or an examination shall specify a reasonable time during which the deposition or examination shall be concluded. The parties may agree to conduct depositions without the necessity of filing a motion; however, the taking of any depositions shall not interfere with the scheduled hearing date.

(d) A party taking a deposition or having an examination conducted who orders a transcript or a report shall promptly, without charge, furnish a copy of the transcript or report to the witness deposed or examined, if an adverse party, and, if not, to any adverse party. The copy so furnished shall be made available to all other parties for their inspection and copying.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Rewrote (a)2; and in (c), inserted the final sentence.

Case Notes

Administrative agency discovery practice limits available methods of discovery on notice to written interrogatories, production of documents or things, property inspection, physical and mental examinations and requests for admissions (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-11.2). Depositions upon oral examination are available on motion for good cause shown (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-11.3). Div. of Consumer Affairs v. Acme Markets, Inc., 3 N.J.A.R. 210 (1981).

1:1-10.3 Costs of discovery

(a) The party seeking discovery shall pay for all reasonable expenses caused by the discovery request.

(b) Where a proponent of any notice or motion for discovery or a party taking a deposition is a State agency, and the party or person from whom such discovery or deposition is sought is entitled by law to recover in connection with such case the costs thereof from others, such State agency shall not be required to pay the cost of such discovery or deposition.

1:1-10.4 Time for discovery; relief from discovery; motions to compel

(a) The parties in any contested case shall commence immediately to exchange information voluntarily, to seek access as provided by law to public documents and to exhaust other informal means of obtaining discoverable material.

(b) Parties shall immediately serve discovery requests.

(c) No later than 15 days from receipt of a notice requesting discovery, the receiving party shall provide the requested information, material or access or offer a schedule for reasonable compliance with the notice; or, in the case of a notice requesting admissions, each matter therein shall be admitted unless within the 15 days the receiving party answers, admits or denies the request or objects to it pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4(d).

(d) A party who wishes to object to a discovery request or to compel discovery shall, prior to the filing of any motion regarding discovery, place a telephone conference call to the judge and to all other parties no later than 10 days of receipt of the discovery request or the response to a discovery request. If a party fails without good reason to place a timely telephone call, the judge may deny that party's objection or decline to compel the discovery.

(e) The parties shall complete all discovery no later than 10 days before the first scheduled evidentiary hearing or by such date ordered by the judge.

Amended by R.1989 d.190, effective April 3, 1989.

See: 20 N.J.R. 2845(b), 21 N.J.R. 889(a).

See: 35 N.J.R. 4349(a), 36 N.J.R. 1355(a).

In (e), substituted "10 days" for "five days" following "no later than".

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (b), deleted "and notices and make discovery motions" from the end; rewrote (d); and in (e), deleted "at the prehearing conference" from the end.

1:1-10.5 Sanctions

By motion of a party or on his or her own motion, a judge may impose sanctions pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14 and 14.15 for failure to comply with the requirements of this subchapter. Before imposing sanctions, the judge shall provide an opportunity to be heard.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

SUBCHAPTER 11. SUBPOENAS

1:1-11.1 Subpoenas for attendance of witnesses; production of documentary evidence; issuance; contents

(a) Subpoenas may be issued by the Clerk, any judge, or by pro se parties, attorneys-at-law or non-lawyer representatives, in the name of the Clerk, to compel the attendance of a person to testify or to produce books, papers, documents, electronically stored information or other objects at a hearing, provided, however, that a subpoena to compel the attendance of the Governor, an agency head, Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, or Division Director may be issued only by a judge. A subpoena for the Governor, an agency head, Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, or Division Director shall be issued only if the requesting party makes a showing that the subpoenaed individual has firsthand knowledge of, or direct involvement in, the events giving rise to the contested case, or that the testimony is essential to prevent injustice.

(b) The subpoena shall contain the title and docket number of the case, the name of the person to whom it has been issued, the time and place at which the person subpoenaed must appear, the name and telephone number of the party who has requested the subpoena and a statement that all inquiries concerning the subpoena should be directed to the requesting party. The subpoena shall command the person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony or to produce books, papers, documents or other designated objects at the time and place specified therein and on any continued dates.

(c) Subpoenas to compel the attendance of a person to testify at a deposition may be issued by a judge pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.2(c).

(d) A subpoena which requires production of books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein shall not be used as a discovery device in place of discovery procedures otherwise available under this chapter, nor as a means of avoiding discovery deadlines established by this chapter or by the judge in a particular case.

(e) Subpoena forms shall be available free of charge from the Office of Administrative Law. Subpoena forms may be obtained from the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law or on the State of New Jersey Office of Administrative Law website www.state.nj.us/oal/.

(f) Upon request by a party, subpoena issued by the Clerk or by a judge may be forwarded to that party by facsimile transmission. Facsimile transmitted subpoenas shall be served in the same manner and shall have the same force and effect as any other subpoena pursuant to this subchapter. A party requesting a facsimile transmittal shall be charged for such transmittal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-7.5(e).

Amended by R.1992 d.213, effective May 18, 1992.

See: 24 N.J.R. 321(a), 24 N.J.R. 1873(b).

Added (d).

Amended by R.1994 d.293, effective June 6, 1994.

See: 26 N.J.R. 1276(a), 26 N.J.R. 2255(a).

Amended by R.2002 d.198, effective July 1, 2002.

See: 34 N.J.R. 983(a), 34 N.J.R. 2309(a).

In (e), added the second sentence.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), inserted “, electronically stored information”.

1:1-11.2 Service; fees

(a) A subpoena shall be served by the requesting party by delivering a copy either in person or by certified mail return receipt requested to the person named in the subpoena, together with the appropriate fee, at a reasonable time in advance of the hearing.

(b) Witnesses required to attend shall be entitled to payment by the requesting party at a rate of $2.00 per day of attendance if the witness is a resident of the county in which the hearing is held and an additional allowance of $2.00 for every 30 miles of travel in going to the place of hearing from his or her residence and in returning if the witness is not a resident of the county in which the hearing is held.

1:1-11.3 Motions to quash

The judge on motion may quash or modify any subpoena for good cause shown. If compliance with a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence would be unreasonable or oppressive, the judge may condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the requesting party of the reasonable cost of producing the objects subpoenaed. The judge may direct that the objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the judge at a time prior to the hearing or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may upon their production permit them or portions of them to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys.

1:1-11.4 Failure to obey subpoena

A party who refuses to obey a subpoena may be subject to sanctions under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 or may suffer an inference that the documentary or physical evidence or testimony that the party fails to produce is unfavorable.

1:1-11.5 Enforcement

A party who has requested issuance of a subpoena may seek enforcement of the subpoena by bringing an action in the Superior Court pursuant to the New Jersey Court Rules.

SUBCHAPTER 12. MOTIONS

1:1-12.1 When and how made; generally

(a) Where a party seeks an order of a judge, the party shall apply by motion.

1. A party shall make each motion in writing, unless it is made orally during a hearing or unless the judge otherwise permits it to be made orally.

2. No technical forms of motion are required. In a motion, a party shall state the grounds upon which the motion is made and the relief or order being sought.

(b) A party shall file each motion with the judge. If a case has not yet been assigned to a judge, motions may be filed with the Clerk.

(c) In a motion for substantially the same relief as that previously denied, a party shall specifically identify the previous proceeding and its disposition.

Amended by R.1991 d.44, effective February 4, 1991.

See: 22 N.J.R. 3278(b), 23 N.J.R. 293(a).

In (b): deleted text explaining Clerk's procedures regarding motions. Added text: "If a case ... with the Clerk."

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a)2, substituted "and" for the comma following "made", deleted "and the date when the matter shall be submitted to the judge for disposition" following "sought" and deleted the last sentence; and deleted (d). Administrative correction.

See: 40 N.J.R. 6957(a).

1:1-12.2 Motions in writing; time limits

(a) Proof of service shall be filed with all moving and responsive papers.

(b) With the exception of emergency relief applications made pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6, summary decision motions made pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, and when a motion is expedited pursuant to (f) below, the opposing parties shall file and serve responsive papers no later than 10 days after receiving the moving papers.

(c) The moving party may file and serve further papers responding to any matter raised by the opposing party and shall do so no later than five days after receiving the responsive papers.

(d) All motions in writing shall be decided on the papers unless oral argument is directed by the judge.

(e) With the exception of motions for summary decision under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, motions concerning predominant interest in consolidated cases under N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.6, and motions for emergency relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6, all motions shall be decided within 30 days of service of the last permitted response.

(f) A party may request an expedited schedule for disposition of a motion by arranging a telephone conference between the judge and all parties. If the judge agrees to expedite, he or she must establish a schedule for responsive papers, submission and decision.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Section was "Motions in writing; generally, no oral argument; time limits". Deleted former (a), recodified former (b) through (g) as (a) through (f); in (a), deleted the former first sentence and substituted "all moving and responsive" for "the moving"; rewrote (b); in (d), substituted "decided" for "submitted for disposition"; and in (e), substituted a comma for "and" following the first N.J.A.C. reference and "30 days of service of the last permitted response" for "10 days after they are submitted for disposition", and inserted "and motions for emergency relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6,".

1:1-12.3 Procedure when oral argument is directed

All motions for which oral argument has been directed shall be heard by telephone conference unless otherwise directed by the judge. All arguments on motions shall be sound recorded.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Rewrote the section.

1:1-12.4 Affidavits; briefs and supporting statements; evidence on motions

(a) Motions and answering papers shall be accompanied by all necessary supporting affidavits and briefs or supporting statements. All motions and answering papers shall be supported by affidavits for facts relied upon which are not of record or which are not the subject of official notice. Such affidavits shall set forth only facts which are admissible in evidence under N.J.A.C. 1:1-15, and to which affiants are competent to testify. Properly verified copies of all papers or parts of papers referred to in such affidavits may be annexed thereto.

(b) In the discretion of the judge, a party or parties may be required to submit briefs or supporting statements pursuant to the schedule established in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.2 or as ordered by the judge.

(c) The judge may hear the matter wholly or partly on affidavits or on depositions, and may direct any affiant to submit to cross-examination and may permit supplemental or clarifying testimony.

1:1-12.5 Motion for summary decision; when and how made; partial summary decision

(a) A party may move for summary decision upon all or any of the substantive issues in a contested case. Such motion must be filed no later than 30 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date or by such date as ordered by the judge.

(b) The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits. The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. Such response must be filed within 20 days of service of the motion. A reply, if any, must be filed no later than 10 days thereafter. If the adverse party does not so respond, a summary decision, if appropriate, shall be entered.

(c) Motions for summary decision shall be decided within 45 days from the due date of the last permitted responsive filing. Any motion for summary decision not decided by an agency head which fully disposes of the case shall be treated as an initial decision under N.J.A.C. 1:1-18. Any partial summary decision shall be treated as required by (e) and (f) below.

(d) If, on motion under this section, a decision is not rendered upon all the substantive issues in the contested case and a hearing is necessary, the judge at the time of ruling on the motion, by examining the papers on file in the case as well as the motion papers, and by interrogating counsel, if necessary, shall, if practicable, ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and shall thereupon enter an order specifying those facts and directing such further proceedings in the contested case as are appropriate. At the hearing in the contested case, the facts so specified shall be deemed established.

(e) A partial summary decision order shall by its terms not be effective until a final agency decision has been rendered on the issue, either upon interlocutory review pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10 or at the end of the contested case, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6. However, at the discretion of the judge, for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary litigation or expense by the parties, the order may be submitted to the agency head for immediate review as an initial decision, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.3(c)12. If the agency head concludes that immediate review of the order will not avoid unnecessary litigation or expense, the agency head may return the matter to the judge and indicate that the order will be reviewed at the end of the contested case. Within 10 days after a partial summary decision order is filed with the agency head, the Clerk shall certify a copy of pertinent portions of the record to the agency head.

(f) Review by the agency head of any partial summary decision shall not cause delay in scheduling hearing dates or result in a postponement of any scheduled hearing dates unless the judge assigned to the case orders that a postponement is necessary because of special requirements, possible prejudice, unproductive effort or other good cause.

Amended by R.1990 d.368, effective August, 6, 1990.
See: 22 N.J.R. 3(a), 22 N.J.R. 2262(a).

In (e): added text to provide for an agency head to remand partial summary decisions to judge when deemed appropriate that decision will be reviewed at the end of contested case.

Amended by R.2008 d.151, effective June 16, 2008.
See: 40 N.J.R. 915(a), 40 N.J.R. 3617(a).

Rewrote (a); in (b), added the fourth and fifth sentences; and in (c), substituted "due date of the last permitted responsive filing" for "date of submission".

Initial Decision (2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 972) adopted, which concluded that there was no genuine issue as to a material fact in mother's action challenging, under the No Child Left Behind Act, 20 U.S.C.A. 6301 et seq., a school district's placement of her child. Since the NCLB Act provides no private right of action for any individual and enforcement authority under the NCLB Act rests solely with the Secretary of Education, the school district was entitled to prevail as a matter of law and its motion for summary decision was granted. F.R.P. ex rel. A.D.P. v. Bd. of Educ. of East Orange, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 9951-08, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1097, Final Decision (December 8, 2008).

Initial Decision (2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 806) adopted, which concluded that a teacher's case was moot, where the teacher alleged that her tenure and seniority rights were violated by the board's notice that her employment would be reduced from full-time to 60% but she had been reinstated with no loss of compensation or benefits and thus suffered no loss of position or damage; the board's motion to dismiss on mootness grounds was controlled by N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. Price v. Bd. of Educ. of Washington, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 6121-07, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 259, Commissioner's Decision (January 23, 2008).

When confronted in a disciplinary action with a motion that seeks summary decision both on the issue of liability for the alleged violations and on the quantum of sanctions to be imposed, an opposing party is required to establish the existence of a genuine issue of material disputed fact and, if the opposing party fails to do so, summary decision may be entered without the need for a further hearing on the issue of penalties. Goldman v. Nicolo, OAL Dkt. No. BKI 10722-04, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 943, Final Decision (October 12, 2006).

While N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) states that a motion for summary decision may be filed "with or without supporting affidavits," licensees had to file an affidavit or certification denying some or all of the facts set forth by the Commissioner in order to create an issue of material fact. Bakke v. Binn-Graham, OAL Dkt. No. BKI 483-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 60, Initial Decision (February 17, 2006).

Initial Decision (2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 440) adopted, which concluded that where Racing Commission suspended horse trainer for 30 days as a result of positive drug test of horse (for Ketorolac) and disqualified horse from sharing purse, summary decision in favor of Commission was appropriate where, following a stay of his suspension, horse trainer failed to respond to certifications by the Commission; summary decision is the administrative counterpart to summary judgment in the judicial arena. *Carter v. Motion for summary decision granted on grounds that doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel barred re-litigation of issues (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-13.1). Lukas v. Dep't of Human Services, 5 N.J.A.R. 81 (1982), appeal decided 103 N.J. 206, 510 A.2d 1123 (1986).

1:1-12.6 Emergency relief

(a) Where authorized by law and where irreparable harm will result without an expedited decision granting or prohibiting some action or relief connected with a contested case, emergency relief pending a final decision on the whole contested case may be ordered upon the application of a party.

(b) Applications for emergency relief shall be made directly to the agency head and may not be made to the Office of Administrative Law.

(c) An agency head receiving an application for emergency relief may either hear the application or forward the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing on the application for emergency relief. When forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law, the application shall proceed in accordance with (i) through (k) below. All applications for emergency relief shall be heard on an expedited basis.

(d) The moving party must serve notice of the request for emergency relief on all parties. Proof of service will be required if the adequacy of notice is challenged. Opposing parties shall be given ample opportunity under the circumstances to respond to an application for emergency relief.

(e) Where circumstances require some immediate action by the agency head to preserve the subject matter of the application pending the expedited hearing, or where a party applies for emergency relief under circumstances which do not permit an opposing party to be fully heard, the agency head may issue an order granting temporary relief. Temporary relief may continue until the agency head issues a decision on the application for emergency relief.

(f) When temporary relief is granted by an agency head under circumstances which do not permit an opposing party to be fully heard, temporary relief shall:

1. Be based upon specific facts shown by affidavit or oral testimony, that the moving party has made an adequate, good faith effort to provide notice to the opposing party, or that notice would defeat the purpose of the application for relief;

2. Include a finding that immediate and irreparable harm will probably result before adequate notice can be given;

3. Be based on the likelihood that the moving party will prevail when the application is fully argued by all parties;

4. Be as limited in scope and temporary as is possible to allow the opposing party to be given notice and to be fully heard on the application; and

5. Contain a provision for serving and notifying all parties and for scheduling a hearing before the agency head or for transmitting the application to Office of Administrative Law.

(g) Upon determining any application for emergency relief, the agency head shall forthwith issue and immediately serve upon the parties a written order on the application. If the application is related to a contested case that has been transmitted to Office of Administrative Law, the agency head shall also serve the Clerk of Office of Administrative Law with a copy of the order.

(h) Applications to an agency head for emergent relief in matters previously transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law shall not delay the scheduling or conduct of hearings, unless the presiding judge determines that a postponement is necessary due to special requirements of the case, because of probable prejudice or for other good cause.

(i) Upon determining an application for emergency relief, the judge forthwith shall issue to the parties, the agency head and the Clerk a written order on the application. The Clerk shall file with the agency head any papers in support of or opposition to the application which were not previously filed with the agency and a sound recording of the oral argument on the application, if any oral argument has occurred.

(j) The agency head's review of the judge's order shall be completed without undue delay but no later than 45 days from entry of the judge's order, except when, for good cause shown and upon notice to the parties, the time period is extended by the joint action of the Director of the Office of Administrative Law and the agency head. Where the agency head does not act on review of the judge's order within 45 days, the judge's order shall be deemed adopted.

(k) Review by an agency head of a judge's order for emergency relief shall not delay the scheduling or conduct of hearings in the Office of Administrative Law, unless the presiding judge determines that a postponement is necessary due to special requirements of the case, because of probable prejudice or for other good cause.

Case Notes

Parents of an autistic child, with severe language disorder and classified as preschool disabled, failed to satisfy all of the criteria for the granting of emergent relief relative to the change in speech therapy; however, as the board of education admitted that it had not provided the occupational therapy required by the child's IEP, the motion for emergent relief was granted as to those services. J.W. and E.W. ex rel. B.W. v. Tinton Falls Bd. of Educ., OAL DKT. NO. EDS 2200-08, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 165, Emergent Relief Decision (March 24, 2008).

Adult classified special education student with disciplinary problems was precluded from attending Senior Prom. P.P. v. Westwood Board, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDS) 165.

1:1-12.7 Disposition of motions

Disposition of motions which completely conclude a case shall be by initial decision. Disposition of all other motions shall be by order.

SUBCHAPTER 13. PREHEARING CONFERENCES AND PROCEDURES*1:1-13.1 Prehearing conferences

(a) A prehearing conference shall be scheduled in accordance with the criteria established in N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.1(d).

(b) The prehearing notice shall advise the parties, their attorneys or other representatives that a prehearing conference will cover those matters listed in N.J.A.C. 1:1-13.2 and that discovery should have already been commenced. At the time of the prehearing conference, the participants shall be prepared to discuss one or more alternate dates when the parties and witnesses will be available for the evidentiary hearing. The judge may advise the parties that other special matters will be discussed at the prehearing conference.

(c) In exceptional circumstances, the judge may, upon no less than 10 days' notice, require the parties to file with the judge and serve upon all other parties no later than three days before the scheduled prehearing conference, prehearing memoranda stating their respective positions on any or all of the matters specified in N.J.A.C. 1:1-13.2 set forth in the same sequence and with corresponding numbers or on other special matters specifically designated.

(d) A prehearing conference shall be held by telephone conference call unless the judge otherwise directs.

1:1-13.2 Prehearing order; amendment

(a) Within 10 days after the conclusion of the prehearing conference, the judge shall enter a written order addressing the appropriate items listed in (a)1 through 14 below and shall cause the same to be served upon all parties.

1. The nature of the proceeding and the issue or issues to be resolved including special evidence problems;
2. The parties and their status, for example, petitioner, complainant, appellant, respondent, intervenor, etc., and their attorneys or other representatives of record. In the event that a particular member or associate of a firm is to try a case, or if outside trial counsel is to try the case, the name must be specifically set forth at the prehearing. No change in such designated trial counsel shall be made without leave of the judge if such change will interfere with the date for hearing. If the name of a specific trial counsel is not set forth, the judge and opposing parties shall have the right to expect any partner or associate to proceed with the trial on the date of hearing;
3. Any special legal requirements as to notice of hearing;
4. The schedule of hearing dates and the time and place of hearing;
5. Stipulations as to facts and issues;
6. Any partial settlement agreements and their terms and conditions;
7. Any amendments to the pleadings contemplated or granted;
8. Discovery matters remaining to be completed and the date when discovery shall be completed for each mode of discovery to be utilized;
9. Order of proofs;
10. A list of exhibits marked for identification;
11. A list of exhibits marked in evidence by consent;
12. Estimated number of fact and expert witnesses;
13. Any motions contemplated, pending and granted;
14. Other special matters determined at the conference.

(b) Any party may, upon written motion filed no later than five days after receiving the prehearing order, request that the order be amended to correct errors.

(c) The prehearing order may be amended by the judge to accommodate circumstances occurring after its entry date. Unless precluded by law, a prehearing order may also be amended by the judge to conform the order with the proofs.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In the introductory paragraph of (a), substituted "enter" for "prepare" and "addressing the appropriate items listed in (a)1" for "specifically setting out the matters listed in 1".

SUBCHAPTER 14. CONDUCT OF CASES*1:1-14.1 Public hearings; records as public; sealing a record; media coverage

(a) All evidentiary hearings, proceedings on motions and other applications shall be conducted as public hearings unless otherwise provided by statute, rule or regulation, or on order of a judge for good cause shown. Prehearing conferences and informal discussions immediately preceding the hearing or during the hearing to facilitate the orderly and expeditious conduct of the case may, at the judge's discretion, be conducted in public or in closed session and may or may not be recorded. Mediations and settlement conferences shall be held in closed session but may be recorded. All other proceedings in the presence of a judge shall be recorded verbatim either by a stenographic reporter or by sound recording devices. All discussions off the record, no matter how brief, except settlement discussions and mediations, shall be summarized generally for the record. The record of all hearings shall be open to public inspection, but the judge may, for good cause shown, order the sealing of the record or any part thereof.

(b) In considering whether to close a hearing and/or seal a record, the judge shall consider the requirements of due process of law, other constitutional and statutory standards and matters of public policy. The judge shall consider the need to protect against unwarranted disclosure of sensitive financial information or trade secrets, to protect parties or witnesses from undue embarrassment or deprivations of privacy, or to promote or protect other equally important rights or interests.

(c) When sealing a record, the judge must specify the consequences of such an order to all material in the case file including any evidence, the stenographic notes or audiotapes and the initial decision. The treatment of testimony or exhibits shall be on such terms as are appropriate to balance public and private rights or interests and to preserve the record for purposes of review. The judge shall also indicate what safeguards shall be imposed upon the preparation and disclosure of any transcript of the proceedings.

(d) All public hearings may be filmed, photographed and recorded, subject to reasonable restrictions established by the judge to avoid disruption of the hearing process. The number of cameras and lights in the hearing room at any one time may be limited. Technical crews and equipment may be prohibited from moving except during recesses and after the proceedings are concluded for the day. To protect the attorney/client privilege and the effective right to counsel, there shall be no recording of conferences between attorneys and their clients or between counsel and the judge at the bench.

Amended by R.1988 d.115, effective March 21, 1988.
See: 20 N.J.R. 127(a), 20 N.J.R. 642(a).

Added text to (d) "and the effective right to counsel".

Public disclosure required of electric utility's settlement agreement. In Matter of Westinghouse Electric Corporation Motion for Protective Order. 92 N.J.A.R.2d (BRC) 73.

There is a presumption that all adjudicative proceedings were open to the public and that any deviation from this norm must be tested by a standard of strict and inescapable necessity. A case involving allegations of sexual misconduct could not, on its own, be sufficient to create the compelling circumstances necessary to seal the record (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.1). Sananman v. Bd. of Medical Examiners, 5 N.J.A.R. 310 (1981).

1:1-14.2 Expedition

(a) Hearings and other proceedings shall proceed with all reasonable expedition and, to the greatest extent possible, shall be held at one place and shall continue, except for brief intervals of the sort normally involved in judicial proceedings, without suspension until concluded.

(b) The parties shall promptly advise the Clerk and the judge of any event which will probably delay the conduct of the case.

Case Notes

1:1-14.3 Interpreters; payment

(a) Except as provided in (d) below, any party at his or her own cost may obtain an interpreter if the judge determines that interpretation is necessary.

(b) Taking into consideration the complexity of the issues and communications involved, the judge may require that an interpreter be taken from an official registry of interpreters or otherwise be assured that the proposed interpreter can adequately aid and enable the witness in conveying information to the judge.

(c) The judge may accept as an interpreter a friend or relative of a party or witness, any employee of a State or local agency, or other person who can provide acceptable interpreter assistance.

(d) In cases requiring the appointment of a qualified interpreter for a hearing impaired person pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:1-69.7 et seq., the administrative law judge shall appoint an interpreter from the official registry of interpreters. The fee for the interpreter shall be paid by the transmitting agency.

Amended by R.1989 d.159, effective March 20, 1989.
See: 20 N.J.R. 2845(c), 21 N.J.R. 749(b).

(d) added requiring appointment of interpreter for hearing impaired, transmitting agency to pay fee.

Amended by R.2002 d.198, effective July 1, 2002.
See: 34 N.J.R. 983(a), 34 N.J.R. 2309(a).

In (c), substituted "The" for "If all parties consent, the".

1:1-14.4 Failure to appear; sanctions for failure to appear

(a) If, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge shall, unless proceeding pursuant to (d) below, direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c).

(b) If the nonappearing party submits an explanation in writing, a copy must be served on all other parties and the other parties shall be given an opportunity to respond.

(c) If the judge receives an explanation:

1. If the judge concludes that there was good cause for the failure to appear, the judge shall reschedule the matter for hearing; or

2. If the judge concludes that there was no good cause for the failure to appear, the judge may refuse to reschedule the matter and shall issue an initial decision explaining the basis for that conclusion, or may reschedule the matter and, at his or her discretion, order any of the following:

i. The payment by the delinquent representative or party of costs in such amount as the judge shall fix, to the State of New Jersey or the aggrieved person;

ii. The payment by the delinquent representative or party of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, to an aggrieved representative or party; or

iii. Such other case-related action as the judge deems appropriate.

(d) If the appearing party requires an initial decision on the merits, the party shall ask the judge for permission to present ex parte proofs. If no explanation for the failure to appear is received, and the circumstances require a decision on the merits, the judge may enter an initial decision on the merits based on the ex parte proofs, provided the failure to appear is memorialized in the decision.

Amended by R.1987 d.462, effective November 16, 1987.
See: 19 N.J.R. 1592(a), 19 N.J.R. 2131(b).

See: 23 N.J.R. 639(a), 23 N.J.R. 1786(a).

Amended failure to appear rules; recodified provisions of original subsection (c) as new rule, N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14.

Recodified original subsection to subsections (a) and (b), deleting original subsection (b). In (a), changed "10" to "one" day for time limit of receipt of an explanation for nonappearance. Added additional text to (a) and new (b)2. Added new subsection (c).

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), substituted "shall, unless proceeding pursuant to (d) below" for "may, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c)", and inserted "pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c)"; recodified (b)1 as (c); in the introductory paragraph of (c), deleted "the judge shall reschedule the matter and may, at his or her discretion, order any of the following" from the end; added (c)1 and (c)2; deleted former (b)2; recodified former (c) as (d), and in (d), deleted "because of the failure to appear" preceding "the party shall ask".

Case Notes

1:1-14.5 Ex parte communications

(a) Except as specifically permitted by law or this chapter, a judge may not initiate or consider ex parte any evidence or communications concerning issues of fact or law in a pending or impending proceeding. Where ex parte communications are unavoidable, the judge shall advise all parties of the communications as soon as possible thereafter.

(b) The ex parte communications preclusion shall not encompass scheduling discussions or other practical administrative matters.

(c) Ex parte discussions relating to possible settlement may be conducted in the course of settlement conferences or mediations when all parties agree in advance.

(d) Where an agency or agency staff is a party to a contested case, the legal representative appearing and acting for the agency in the case may not engage in ex parte communications concerning that case with the transmitting agency head, except for purposes of conferring settlement authority on the representative or as necessary to keep the agency head as a client informed of the status of the case, provided that no information may be disclosed ex parte if it would compromise the agency head's ability to adjudicate the case impartially. In no event may the legal representative participate in making or preparing the final decision in the case.

1:1-14.6 Judge's powers in presiding over prehearing activities, conducting hearings, developing records and rendering initial decisions

(a) The judge may schedule any form of hearing or proceeding and establish appropriate location areas and instruct the Clerk to issue all appropriate notices.

(b) When required in individual cases, the judge may supersede any notice issued by the Clerk by informing the parties and the Clerk of this action.

(c) Depending on the needs of the case, the judge may schedule additional hearing dates, declare scheduled hearing dates unnecessary, or schedule any number of in-person conferences or telephone conferences.

(d) When required in individual cases, the judge at any time of the proceeding may convert any form of proceeding into another, whether more or less formal or whether in-person or by telephone.

(e) The judge may bifurcate hearings whenever there are multiple parties, issues or claims, and the nature of the case is such that a hearing of all issues in one proceeding may be complex and confusing, or whenever a substantial saving of time would result from conducting separate hearings or whenever bifurcation might eliminate the need for further hearings.

(f) The judge may establish special accelerated or decelerated schedules to meet the special needs of the parties or the particular case.

(g) The judge may administer any oaths or affirmations required or may direct a certified court reporter to perform this function.

(h) The judge may render any ruling or order necessary to decide any matter presented to him or her which is within the jurisdiction of the transmitting agency or the agency conducting the hearing.

(i) The judge shall control the presentation of the evidence and the development of the record and shall determine admissibility of all evidence produced. The judge may permit narrative testimony whenever appropriate.

(j) The judge may utilize his or her sanction powers to ensure the proper conduct of the parties and their representatives appearing in the matter.

(k) The judge may limit the presentation of oral or documentary evidence, the submission of rebuttal evidence and the conduct of cross-examination.

(l) The judge may determine that the party with the burden of proof shall not begin the presentation of evidence and may require another party to proceed first.

(m) The judge may make such rulings as are necessary to prevent argumentative, repetitive or irrelevant questioning and to expedite the cross-examination to an extent consistent with disclosure of all relevant testimony and information.

(n) The judge may compel production of relevant materials, files, records and documents and may issue subpoenas to compel the appearance of any witness when he or she believes that the witness or produced materials may assist in a full and true disclosure of the facts.

(o) The judge may require any party at any time to clarify confusion or gaps in the proofs. The judge may question any witness to further develop the record.

(p) The judge may take such other actions as are necessary for the proper, expeditious and fair conduct of the hearing or other proceeding, development of the record and rendering of a decision.

Case Notes

Merit System Board authorized ALJ on remand to identify and take testimony of witnesses regarding chain of custody of drug specimen in the event the appointing authority did not call those witnesses. In re Brown, OAL Dkt. No. CSV 8874-04, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 892, Merit System Board Decision (October 20, 2006).

Respondent moved to bar counsel for petitioner because of alleged conflict of interest due to N.J.S.A. 52:13D-16(b) that prohibits members of the Legislature and their partner and employees from representing any person other than the State in connection with any cause or matter pending before a State agency. Cited N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.1 and 14.6(p), which authorize an administrative law judge to rule on the propriety of appearance of counsel. Held counsel was barred (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.7 and 3.9). Stone Harbor v. Div. of Coastal Resources, 4 N.J.A.R. 101 (1980).

1:1-14.7 Conduct of hearings

(a) The judge shall commence hearings by stating the case title and the docket number, asking the representatives or parties present to state their names for the record and describing briefly the matter in dispute. The judge shall also, unless all parties are represented by counsel or otherwise familiar with the procedures, state the procedural rules for the hearing. The judge may also permit any stipulations, settlement agreements or consent orders entered into by any of the parties prior to the hearing to be entered into the record at this time.

(b) The party with the burden of proof may make an opening statement. All other parties may make statements in a sequence determined by the judge.

(c) After opening statements, the party with the burden of proof shall begin the presentation of evidence unless the judge has determined otherwise. The other parties may present their evidence in a sequence determined by the judge.

(d) Cross-examination of witnesses shall be conducted in a sequence and in a manner determined by the judge to expedite the hearing while ensuring a fair hearing.

(e) When all parties and witnesses have been heard, opportunity shall be offered to present oral final argument, in a sequence determined by the judge.

(f) Unless permitted or requested by the judge, there shall be no proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, briefs, forms of order or other dispositions permitted after the final argument. Whenever possible, proposed findings or other submissions should be offered at the hearing in lieu of or in conjunction with the final argument.

1. When proposed findings or other submissions are permitted or requested by the judge, the parties shall conform to a schedule that may not exceed 30 days after the last day of testimony or the final argument or as otherwise directed by the judge.

2. When the judge permits proposed findings or other submissions to be prepared with the aid of a transcript, the transcript must be ordered immediately. The submission time frame shall commence upon receipt of the transcript.

3. Any proposed findings of fact submitted by a party shall not be considered unless they are based on facts proved in the hearing.

4. Any reference in briefs or other such submissions to initial and final decisions shall include sufficient information to enable the judge to locate the initial decision. This shall include either the Office of Administrative Law docket number, or a reference to New Jersey Administrative Reports or another published and indexed compilation or to the Rutgers Camden Law School website at <http://lawlibrary.rutgers.edu/oal>. A copy of any cited decision shall be supplied if it is not located in any published compilation or on the foregoing website.

(g) A telephone hearing is begun by the judge placing a conference call on a designated date and time to the parties in the case. In all other respects, the procedures applicable to hearings shall apply.

Amended by R.1991 d.44, effective February 4, 1991.

1:1-14.13 Proceedings in the event of death, disability, departure from State employment, disqualification or other incapacity of judge

(a) If, by reason of death, disability, departure from State employment, disqualification or other incapacity, a judge is unable to continue presiding over a pending hearing or issue an initial decision after the conclusion of the hearing, a conference will be scheduled to determine if the parties can settle the matter or, if not, can reach agreement upon as many matters as possible.

(b) In the event settlement is not reached, another judge shall be assigned to complete the hearing or issue the initial decision as if he or she had presided over the hearing from its commencement, provided:

1. The judge is able to familiarize himself or herself with the proceedings and all testimony taken by reviewing the transcript, exhibits marked in evidence and any other materials which are contained in the record; and

2. The judge determines that the hearing can be completed with or without recalling witnesses without prejudice to the parties.

(c) In the event the hearing cannot be continued for any of the reasons enumerated in (b) above, a new hearing shall be ordered by the judge.

(d) An order or ruling issued pursuant to (b) and (c) above may only be appealed interlocutorily; a party may not seek review of such orders or rulings after the judge renders the initial decision in the contested case.

Amended by R.2008 d.151, effective June 16, 2008.

See: 40 N.J.R. 915(a), 40 N.J.R. 3617(a).

Added (d).

1:1-14.14 Sanctions; failure to comply with orders or requirements of this chapter

(a) For unreasonable failure to comply with any order of a judge or with any requirements of this chapter, the judge may:

1. Dismiss or grant the motion or application;
2. Suppress a defense or claim;
3. Exclude evidence;

4. Order costs or reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, to be paid to the State of New Jersey or an aggrieved representative or party; or

5. Take other appropriate case-related action.

Respondent's answer and cross-petition dismissed for persistent discovery failures. Absolut Spirits Co., Inc. v. Monsieur Touton Selection, Ltd., OAL Dkt. No. ABC 4217-04, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 508, Final Decision (May 10, 2006), aff'd in part, and rev'd in part on other grounds, A-5453-05 (App.Div. Oct. 22, 2007) (unpublished opinion) (affirming dismissal of respondent's answer and cross-petition, but reversing the granting of affirmative relief to petitioner as an evidentiary hearing was necessary).

Initial Decision (2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 397) adopted, which ordered insurance producer's defenses stricken where, for almost seven months, the producer failed to respond to requests for discovery, failed to comply with the ALJ's order to comply with the discovery requests, and demonstrated a flagrant disregard for the rules and the OAL's orders. Bryan v. Bellissima, OAL Dkt. No. BKI 10040-2004S, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1154, Final Decision (August 30, 2005).

1:1-14.15 Conduct obstructing or tending to obstruct the conduct of a contested case

(a) If any party, attorney, or other representative of a party, engages in any misconduct which, in the opinion of the judge, obstructs or tends to obstruct the conduct of a contested case, the party, attorney, or other representative may be fined in an amount which shall not exceed $1,000 for each instance.

(b) Where the conduct deemed to obstruct or tending to obstruct the conduct of a contested case occurs under circumstances which the judge personally observes and which he or she determines unmistakably demonstrates willfulness and requires immediate adjudication to permit the proceedings to continue in an orderly and proper manner:

1. The judge shall inform the party, attorney or other representative of the nature of the actions deemed obstructive and shall afford the party, attorney or other representative an immediate opportunity to explain the conduct; and

2. Where the judge determines, after providing the party, attorney or other representative, an opportunity to explain, that the conduct does constitute misconduct and that the conduct unmistakably demonstrates willfulness, the judge shall issue an order imposing sanctions.

i. The order imposing sanctions shall recite the facts and contain a certification by the judge that he or she personally observed the conduct in question and explain the conclusion that the party, attorney or other representative engaged in misconduct.

(c) Where the conduct deemed to obstruct or tending to obstruct a contested case did not occur in the presence of the judge or where the conduct does not require immediate adjudication to permit the proceedings to continue in an orderly and proper manner, the matter shall proceed by order to show cause specifying the acts or omissions alleged to be misconduct. The proceedings shall be captioned "In the Matter of _____, Charged with Misconduct."

(d) In any proceeding held pursuant to (c) above, the matter may be presented by a staff attorney of the Office of Administrative Law, or by the Attorney General. The designation shall be made by the Director of the Office of Administrative Law. The matter shall not be heard by the judge who instituted the proceeding if the appearance of objectivity requires a hearing by another judge.

SUBCHAPTER 15. EVIDENCE RULES

1:1-15.1 General rules

(a) Only evidence which is admitted by the judge and included in the record shall be considered.

(b) Evidence rulings shall be made to promote fundamental principles of fairness and justice and to aid in the ascertainment of truth.

(c) Parties in contested cases shall not be bound by statutory or common law rules of evidence or any formally adopted in the New Jersey Rules of Evidence except as specifically provided in these rules. All relevant evidence is admissible except as otherwise provided herein. A judge may, in his or her discretion, exclude any evidence if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the risk that its admission will either:

1. Necessitate undue consumption of time; or
2. Create substantial danger of undue prejudice or confusion.

(d) If the judge finds at the hearing that there is no bona fide dispute between the parties as to any unstipulated material fact, such fact may be proved by any relevant evidence, and exclusionary rules shall not apply, except for (c) above or a valid claim of privilege.

(e) When the rules in this subchapter state that the qualification of a person to be a witness, or the admissibility of evidence, or the existence of a privilege is subject to a condition, and the fulfillment of the condition is in issue, the judge shall hold a preliminary inquiry to determine the issue. The judge shall indicate which party has the burden of producing evidence and the burden of proof on such issue as implied by the rule under which the question arises. No evidence may be excluded in determining such issue except pursuant to the judge's discretion under (c) above or a valid claim of privilege. This provision shall not be construed to restrict or limit the right of a party to introduce evidence subsequently which is relevant to weight or credibility.

Exclusion of chiropractor's testimony in a Lemon Law proceeding was within the realm of the ALJ's discretion, where the chiropractor, who had not examined the claimants, was prepared to testify as to whether the driver's seat of their vehicle provided sufficient support; the ALJ had observed that the chiropractor would be testifying without reference to any particular standards. Krinick v. Ford Motor Co., OAL Dkt. No. CMA 7868-05, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1068, Final Decision (September 9, 2005).

Appeal from license suspension for refusal to submit to breath test (N.J.S.A. 39:4-50.4). Administrative law judge is able to consider unpublished appellate opinion. No provision in the Administrative Procedure Rules of Practice prohibits this. Absent a ruling requiring otherwise, an agency is not free to ignore relevant unpublished appellate opinion of which it is aware unless the respondent can show surprise. Division of Motor Vehicles v. Festa, 6 N.J.A.R. 173 (1982).

1:1-15.2 Official notice

(a) Official notice may be taken of judicially noticeable facts as explained in N.J.R.E. 201 of the New Jersey Rules of Evidence.

(b) Official notice may be taken of generally recognized technical or scientific facts within the specialized knowledge of the agency or the judge.

(c) Parties must be notified of any material of which the judge intends to take official notice, including preliminary reports, staff memoranda or other noticeable data. The judge shall disclose the basis for taking official notice and give the parties a reasonable opportunity to contest the material so noticed.

Amended by R.1996 d.343, effective August 5, 1996.

Parties must be notified before or during the hearing of the material noticed and the parties will be afforded an opportunity to contest that material of which the judge is asked to take official notice (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.3). In Re: Perno Bus Co., 1 N.J.A.R. 402 (1980).

1:1-15.3 Presumptions

No evidence offered to rebut a presumption may be excluded except pursuant to the judge's discretion under N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.1(c) or a valid claim of privilege.

1:1-15.4 Privileges

The rules of privilege recognized by law or contained in the following New Jersey Rules of Evidence shall apply in contested cases to the extent permitted by the context and similarity of circumstances: N.J.R.E. 502 (Definition of Incrimination); N.J.R.E. 503 (Self-incrimination); N.J.R.E. 504 (Lawyer-Client Privilege); N.J.S.A. 45:14B-28 (Psychologist's Privilege); N.J.S.A. 2A:84-22.1 et seq. ### 1:1-15.5 Hearsay evidence; residuum rule

(a) Subject to the judge's discretion to exclude evidence under N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.1(c) or a valid claim of privilege, hearsay evidence shall be admissible in the trial of contested cases. Hearsay evidence which is admitted shall be accorded whatever weight the judge deems appropriate taking into account the nature, character and scope of the evidence, the circumstances of its creation and production, and, generally, its reliability.

(b) Notwithstanding the admissibility of hearsay evidence, some legally competent evidence must exist to support each ultimate finding of fact to an extent sufficient to provide assurances of reliability and to avoid the fact or appearance of arbitrariness.

Case Notes

Community-supervised-for-life offender, who, for some time, has been released into the community, must be afforded due process of law before the New Jersey State Parole Board can impose a curfew confining the offender to his home. The level of process will depend on a number of variables and the unique circumstances of each case but, at a minimum, a supervised offender must be provided reasonable notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard. Jamgochian v. New Jersey State Parole Bd., 196 N.J. 222, 952 A.2d 1060, 2008 N.J. LEXIS 899 (2008).

While the writings of an administrative analyst with the New Jersey Division of Pensions and Benefits were hearsay, as they appeared highly reliable, they were admissible in an administrative hearing under the residuum rule, N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b), to corroborate a retiree's un rebutted testimony about the advice the retiree received from the Division; therefore, an administrative law judge erred in concluding that there was no corroboration for the retiree's testimony. Hemsey v. Board of Trustees, Police & Firemen's Retirement System, 393 N.J. Super. 524, 925 A.2d 1, 2007 N.J. Super. LEXIS 176 (App.Div. 2007).

"Residuum rule" requires that findings be supported by residuum of competent evidence. Matter of Tenure Hearing of Cowan, 224 N.J. Super. 737, 541 A.2d 298 (A.D.1988).

Facts did not need to be proved by residuum of competent evidence, so long as combined probative force of relevant hearsay and relevant competent evidence sustained ultimate finding. Matter of Tenure Hearing of Cowan, 224 N.J. Super. 737, 541 A.2d 298 (A.D.1988).

Written, sworn statements of evidence to support charges against tenured, public high school teacher could be hearsay. Matter of Tenure Hearing of Cowan, 224 N.J. Super. 737, 541 A.2d 298 (A.D.1988).

Notwithstanding the admissibility of hearsay evidence, some legally competent evidence must exist to support each finding of fact (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.8(b)). In the Matter of Tanelli, 194 N.J. Super. 492, 477 A.2d 394 (App.Div.1984), certification denied 99 N.J. 181, 491 A.2d 686 (1984).

Although parents who had articulated some very serious concerns about the extended school year for their nine-year-old emotionally disturbed son, presented and moved into evidence letters from providers of services to their son, those letters were hearsay because the writers were not available for cross-examination. While it is well established that hearsay is admissible in an administrative proceeding, some legally competent evidence had to support each ultimate finding of fact which did not occur in the immediate case. M.M. et al v. Ramsey Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDS 9036-08, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 827, Final Decision (August 29, 2008).

Audiotaped statement of non-testifying female dancer admitted at hearing, but would not be used to impute actual knowledge of prostitution to ABC licensee's management because the licensee did not have the opportunity to cross-examine her. N.J. Div. of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. S.B. Lazarus, Inc., OAL Dkt. No. ABC 2309-07, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 342, Initial Decision (June 2, 2008).

In an automobile insurance cancellation case, the insurer's contention that water incursion could not cause a digital odometer rollback, presented only by hearsay evidence, could not be found as fact without legally competent evidence to support it, and the insurer's subsequent submission of affidavits attesting to the same bare conclusion did not cure the residuum rule deficiency. Nguyen v. NJ Re-Insurance Co., OAL Dkt. No. BK1 2981-06, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 309, Initial Decision (April 23, 2008).

Initial Decision (2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 202) adopted, which considered the out-of-court statements of a cognitively impaired victim as to the source of the injury to his jaw, though there was a question as to whether the victim understood truth from a lie; testimony of witnesses and exhibits corroborated the hearsay statements. In re Murphy, OAL Dkt. No. CSV 12287-07, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 604, Final Decision (April 23, 2008).

In a special education case, there was no legally competent evidence in the record to support the hearsay assertions made in a parent's written statement that the consortium school bus drivers speed on the roadways, that her autistic son may be subject to an assault and could not yell out in his own defense because he does not speak, and that the driver assigned to the child's bus spoke only one English word; for that reason and because of the lack of opportunity for cross-examination, the statements were inadmissible. W.S. and P.S. ex rel. W.S. v. Ramsey Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDS 1544-08, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 89, Final Decision (February 20, 2008).

ALJ dismissed one charge of abuse against a certified nurse aide because it was based entirely on hearsay. N.J. Dep't of Health & Senior Services v. O.B., OAL Dkt. No. HLT 2051-07, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 263, Initial Decision (May 15, 2007).

Initial Decision (2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 725) adopted, which concluded that it could not be found that a certified nurse aide threw a wet pad at a resident of a long-term care facility where there was no competent legal evidence to corroborate the resident's hearsay statement that the act had occurred. N.J. Dep't of Health & Senior Services v. Turner, OAL Dkt. No. HLT 2091-06, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 872, Final Decision (September 20, 2006).

Administrative cases are unique in that N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b), entitled the "residuum rule," allows hearsay to be admitted, but it also requires the ultimate findings be supported by residuum of competent evidence; the residuum rule is consistent with the principle that, like judicial proceedings, administrative adjudication must include procedural safeguards, including notice and an opportunity to be heard and opportunity for cross-examination, defense, and rebuttal — essential for reliable fact finding. 2 Lars, LLC v. City of Vineland, OAL Dkt. No. ABC 8875-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 730, Initial Decision (September 12, 2006).

Competent evidence refers to evidence that would ordinarily be admissible in a court under the rules of evidence; while hearsay is admissible in an administrative proceeding, the ultimate finding must be based upon competent evidence and may not be based solely upon hearsay. 2 Lars, LLC v. City of Vineland, OAL Dkt. No. ABC 8875-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 730, Initial Decision (September 12, 2006).

Hearsay cannot be "boot strapped" from a municipal hearing into an administrative hearing by shifting the burden of proof to the licensee; if the municipal hearing was built entirely upon hearsay and the hearsay was accepted by the ALJ at an administrative hearing, it would turn it into a rubber stamp and the administrative process would be rendered meaningless. 2 Lars, LLC v. City of Vineland, OAL Dkt. No. ABC 8875-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 730, Initial Decision (September 12, 2006).

Where the city's case relied solely on hearsay, as the city's witness to a fight in the licensee's establishment was not presented as a witness at the administrative hearings and her admissions or statements made to the officers were thus out-of-court statements offered for the truth, the licensee was not afforded procedural safeguards, including opportunity for cross-examination, defense and rebuttal; the city therefore failed to establish by competent evidence that the licensee violated N.J.A.C. 13:2-23.1(a). 2 Lars, LLC v. City of Vineland, OAL Dkt. No. ABC 8875-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 730, Initial Decision (September 12, 2006).

In disability discrimination case, although letter from employer's counsel was hearsay, such evidence is admissible in administrative hearings, subject to the residuum rule. Williams v. State Shuttle/Top Ten Leasing, Inc., OAL Dkt. No. CRT 5188-04, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1094, Final Decision (August 17, 2006).

Student accused of possessing marijuana with intent to distribute failed to present any evidence rebutting the police detective's report that he possessed six bags of marijuana, and the fact that the detective's account of the marijuana found with the student was hearsay did not automatically render the evidence incompetent under N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(a) and (b). The student himself offered into evidence three exhibits that described circumstances leading to the student's apprehension and possession of marijuana, and while the reports were all hearsay, they nonetheless corroborated each other and were from three separate individuals, one of whom was a witness to the car stop and police activity, and while the witness's statement did not directly refer to the student, it did corroborate facts in police reports. P.G. ex rel. M.G. v. Bd. of Educ. of Woodcliff Lake, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 7495-03, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 572, Commissioner's Decision (June 28, 2006).

In a proceeding against respondent for operating a solid waste facility without a permit, respondent's exception to an investigator's hearsay testimony failed, where the investigator had testified that the individual he observed dumping solid waste (who did not testify) said he had permission from respondent to do the dumping. Applying the residuum rule requires identifying the ultimate finding of fact that must be supported by a residuum of competent evidence, and here, the Solid Waste Management Act imposes strict liability. Thus, the ultimate finding of fact that the dumping occurred was well supported by the investigator's sworn testimony of observed actions corroborated by photographs taken by the investigator depicting the individual dumping solid waste into a container on the property occupied by respondent. N.J. Dep't of Env'tl. Prot. v. Circle Carting, Inc., OAL Dkt. No. ESW 05939-03, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 227, Final Decision (February 21, 2006).

Physician's note was properly admitted into evidence in support of employee's claim for pain and humiliation damages, although physician was not available for cross-examination. ALJ correctly ruled that hearsay is admissible in administrative hearings and that he would consider employer's inability to cross-examine the author and lack of advance notice when deciding the weight to accord this evidence (adopting in part, and rejecting in part Initial Decision, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 228). Ryan v. Freehold Reg'l High School Dist., OAL Dkt. No. CRT 6101-03, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1167, Final Decision (November 10, 2005).

Hearsay medical reports not sufficient to show police officer permanently and totally disabled for accidental disability retirement purposes. Mercier v. Board of Trustees, Police and Firemen's Retirement System, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (TYP) 94.

Residuum rule requires that notwithstanding the admissibility of hearsay evidence, some legally competent evidence must exist to support each ultimate finding of fact (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.8). Div. of Medical Assistance v. Kares, 8 N.J.A.R. 517 (1983).

Letters from real estate agents held admissible hearsay (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.8(a)). Country Village v. Pinelands Commission, 8 N.J.A.R. 205 (1985).

Casino Control Commission determined that the residuum rule did not apply to hearings conducted pursuant to the Casino Control Act. The standard to be applied (N.J.S.A. 5:12-107(a)(6)) permits the Commission to base any factual findings upon relevant evidence including hearsay, regardless of the fact that such evidence may be admissible in a civil action, so long as the evidence is the sort upon which responsible persons are accustomed to rely upon in the conduct of serious affairs (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.8). Div. of Gaming Enforcement v. Merlino, 8 N.J.A.R. 126 (1985), affirmed 216 N.J.Super. 579, 524 A.2d 821 (App.Div.1987), affirmed 109 N.J. 134, 535 A.2d 968 (1988).

Hearsay evidence allowed subject residuum rule. In Re: White Bus Co., 6 N.J.A.R. 535 (1983).

1:1-15.6 Authentication and content of writings

Any writing offered into evidence which has been disclosed to each other party at least 10 days prior to the hearing shall be presumed authentic. At the hearing any party may raise questions of authenticity. Where a genuine question of authenticity is raised the judge may require some authentication of the questioned document. For these purposes the judge may accept a submission of proof, in the form of an affidavit, certified document or other similar proof, no later than 10 days after the date of the hearing.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Substituted "10" for "five".

Case Notes

Physician's note was properly admitted into evidence without authentication, because employer raised absolutely no issues or objections regarding the authenticity of the note at the hearing. Ryan v. Freehold

Reg'l High School Dist., OAL Dkt. No. CRT 6101-03, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1167, Final Decision (November 10, 2005).

1:1-15.7 Exhibits

(a) The verbatim record of the proceedings shall include references to all exhibits and, as to each, the offering party, a brief description of the exhibit stated by the offering party or the judge, and the marking directed by the judge. The verbatim record shall also include a record of the exhibits retained by the judge at the end of the proceedings and of the disposition then made of the other exhibits.

(b) Parties shall provide each party to the case with a copy of any exhibit offered into evidence. Large exhibits that cannot be placed within the judge's file may be either photographed, attached to the file, or described in the record and committed to the safekeeping of a party. All other admitted exhibits shall be retained in the judge's file until certified to the agency head pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.1.

(c) The standard marking for exhibits shall be:

1. P = petitioner;
2. R = respondent;
3. A = appellant;
4. J = joint;
5. C = judge;
6. I = intervenor; or
7. Such other additional markings required for clarity as the judge may direct.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (b), substituted "shall" for "should, whenever practicable,".

1:1-15.8 Witnesses; requirements for testifying; testifying by telephone

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this subchapter, by statute or by rule establishing a privilege:

1. Every person is qualified to be a witness; and
2. No person has a privilege to refuse to be a witness; and
3. No person is disqualified to testify to any matter; and
4. No person has a privilege to refuse to disclose any matter or to produce any object or writing; and
5. No person has a privilege that another shall not be a witness or shall not disclose any matter or shall not produce any object or writing but the judge presiding at the hearing in a contested case may not testify as a witness.

(b) A person is disqualified to be a witness if the judge finds the proposed witness is incapable of expression concerning the matter so as to be understood by the judge directly or through interpretation by one who can understand the witness, or the proposed witness is manifestly incapable of understanding the duty of a witness to tell the truth. An interpreter is subject to all the provisions of these rules relating to witnesses.

(c) As a prerequisite for the testimony of a witness there must be evidence that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter, or has special experience, training or education, if such is required. Such evidence may be provided by the testimony of the witness. In exceptional circumstances, the judge may receive the testimony of a witness conditionally, subject to evidence of knowledge, experience, training or education being later supplied in the course of the proceedings. Personal knowledge may be obtained through hearsay.

(d) A witness may not testify without taking an oath or affirming to tell the truth under the penalty provided by law. No witness may be barred from testifying because of religion or lack of it.

(e) Testimony of a witness may be presented by telephone if, before the hearing begins, the judge finds there is good cause for permitting the witness to testify by telephone. In determining whether good cause exists, the judge shall consider:

1. Whether all parties consent to the taking of testimony by telephone;
2. Whether credibility is an issue;
3. The significance of the witness' testimony;
4. The reason for the request to take testimony by telephone; and
5. Any other relevant factor.

(f) Testimony of a witness may be given in narrative fashion rather than by question and answer format if the judge permits.

Amended by R.2008 d.151, effective June 16, 2008.
See: 40 N.J.R. 915(a), 40 N.J.R. 3617(a).

In the introductory paragraph of (e), deleted "all parties agree and" preceding "the judge" and inserted the final sentence; and added (e)1 through (e)5.

Except as otherwise provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-15, by statute or by rule establishing a privilege, every person is qualified to be a witness (citing former N.J.A.C. 15.2(e)). De Vitis v. New Jersey Racing Commission,

Initial Decision (2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 202) adopted, which considered the out-of-court statements of a cognitively impaired victim as to the source of the injury to his jaw, though there was a question as to whether the victim understood truth from a lie; testimony of witnesses and exhibits corroborated the hearsay statements. In re Murphy, OAL Dkt. No. CSV 12287-07, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 604, Final Decision (April 23, 2008).

1:1-15.9 Expert and other opinion testimony

(a) If a witness is not testifying as an expert, testimony of that witness in the form of opinions or inferences is limited to such opinions or inferences as the judge finds:

1. May be rationally based on the perception of the witness; and
2. Are helpful to a clear understanding of the witness' testimony or to the fact in issue.

(b) If a witness is testifying as an expert, testimony of that witness in the form of opinions or inferences is admissible if such testimony will assist the judge to understand the evidence or determine a fact in issue and the judge finds the opinions or inferences are:

1. Based on facts and data perceived by or made known to the witness at or before the hearing; and
2. Within the scope of the special knowledge, skill, experience or training possessed by the witness.

(c) Testimony in the form of opinion or inferences which is otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces the ultimate issue or issues to be decided by the judge.

(d) A witness may be required, before testifying in terms of opinions or inference, to be first examined concerning the data upon which the opinion or inference is based.

(e) Questions calling for the opinion of an expert witness need not be hypothetical in form unless, in the discretion of the judge, such form is required.

(f) If facts and data are of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, those facts and data upon which an expert witness bases opinion testimony need not be admissible in evidence.

Adopting and modifying on other grounds Initial Decision (2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1070), which found the testimony of the manufacturer's witness to be lacking in foundation and not credible where the witness testified that the after-market installation of a snowplow on the consumer's truck could have been the cause of the vehicle's intermittent shutting down without warning; although the administrative rules give an ALJ latitude in admitting evidence, an expert's opinion must still be based on factual evidence. Marago v. Daimler Chrysler Motors Co., OAL Dkt. No. CMA 8775-05, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1070, Final Decision (December 22, 2005).

1:1-15.10 Offers of settlement inadmissible

Offers of settlement, proposals of adjustment and proposed stipulations shall not constitute an admission and shall not be admissible.

1:1-15.11 Stipulations

The parties may by stipulation agree upon the facts or any portion thereof involved in any controversy. Such a stipulation shall be regarded as evidence and shall preclude the parties from thereafter challenging the facts agreed upon.

1:1-15.12 Prior transcribed testimony

(a) If there was a previous hearing in the same or a related matter which was electronically or stenographically recorded, a party may, unless the judge determines that it is necessary to evaluate credibility, offer the transcript of a witness in lieu of producing the witness at the hearing provided that the witness' testimony was taken under oath, all parties were present at the proceeding and were afforded a full opportunity to cross-examine the witness.

(b) A party who intends to offer a witness' transcribed testimony at the hearing must give all other parties and the judge at least 10 days notice prior to the commencement of the hearing of that intention and provide each with a copy of the transcript being offered.

(c) Opposing parties may subpoena the witness to appear personally. Any party may produce additional witnesses and other relevant evidence at the hearing.

(d) Provided the requirements in (a) above are satisfied, the entire controversy may be presented solely upon such transcribed testimony if all parties agree and the judge approves.

(e) Prior transcribed testimony that would be admissible as an exception to the hearsay rule under Evidence Rule 63(3) is not subject to the requirements of this section.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), inserted "or a related"; in (b), substituted "10" for "five" and inserted "prior to the commencement of the hearing".

(b) Persons or entities permitted to intervene shall have all the rights and obligations of a party to the proceeding.

Initial Decision (2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 79) adopted, which concluded that where petitioner, who was denied a waterfront development permit, no longer owned the subject property and the successor owners had not responded to notification of the opportunity to seek leave to intervene, there was no longer a justiciable controversy; accordingly, the petitioner's appeal was moot and would be dismissed. *Spalliero v. 1:1-16.2 Time of motion

(a) A motion for leave to intervene may be filed at any time after a case is initiated.

(b) If made before a case has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law, a motion for leave to intervene shall be filed with the head of the agency having jurisdiction over the case. The agency head may rule upon the motion to intervene or may reserve decision for action by a judge after the case has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law.

(c) If made after a case has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law, a motion for leave to intervene shall be filed with the judge or, if the case has not yet been assigned to a judge, with the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (c), inserted "the judge or, if the case has not yet been assigned to a judge, with".

1:1-16.3 Standards for intervention

(a) In ruling upon a motion to intervene, the judge shall take into consideration the nature and extent of the movant's interest in the outcome of the case, whether or not the movant's interest is sufficiently different from that of any party so as to add measurably and constructively to the scope of the case, the prospect of confusion or undue delay arising from the movant's inclusion, and other appropriate matters.

(b) In cases where one of the parties is a State agency authorized by law to represent the public interest in a case, no movant shall be denied intervention solely because the movant's interest may be represented in part by said State agency.

SUBCHAPTER 16. INTERVENTION AND PARTICIPATION

1:1-16.1 Who may apply to intervene; status of intervenor

(a) Any person or entity not initially a party, who has a statutory right to intervene or who will be substantially, specifically and directly affected by the outcome of a contested case, may on motion, seek leave to intervene.

(c) Notwithstanding (a) above, persons statutorily permitted to intervene shall be granted intervention.

Telephone company's motion to intervene in proposed modification of a lease agreement between cable television operator and alternative competitive access provider granted. In the Matter of the Petition of Suburban Cablevision to Lease Excess Capacity, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (BRC) 125.

1:1-16.4 Notice of opportunity to intervene or participate

Where it appears to the judge that a full determination of a case may substantially, specifically and directly affect a person or entity who is not a party to the case, the judge, on motion of any party or on his or her own initiative, may order that the Clerk or any party notify the person or entity of the proceeding and of the opportunity to apply for intervention or participation pursuant to these rules.

1:1-16.5 Alternative treatment of motions to intervene

Every motion for leave to intervene shall be treated, in the alternative, as a motion for permission to participate.

1:1-16.6 Participation; standards for participation

(a) Any person or entity with a significant interest in the outcome of a case may move for permission to participate.

(b) A motion to participate may be made at such time and in such manner as is appropriate for a motion for leave to intervene pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.2. In deciding whether to permit participation, the judge shall consider whether the participant's interest is likely to add constructively to the case without causing undue delay or confusion.

(c) The judge shall determine the nature and extent of participation in the individual case. Participation shall be limited to:

1. The right to argue orally; or
2. The right to file a statement or brief; or
3. The right to file exceptions to the initial decision with the agency head; or
4. All of the above.

Case Notes

The administrative law judge may determine the extent of participation once it is found a participant has a significant stake in the outcome. The Division of ABC granted participant status and allowed to file a brief (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6(c)). Canal St. Pub v. City of Paterson, 6 N.J.A.R. 221 (1982).

SUBCHAPTER 17. CONSOLIDATION OF TWO OR MORE CASES; MULTIPLE AGENCY JURISDICTION CLAIMS; DETERMINATIONS OF PREDOMINANT INTEREST

1:1-17.1 Motion to consolidate; when decided

(a) As soon as circumstances meriting such action are discovered, an agency head, any party or the judge may move to consolidate a case which has been transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law with any other contested case involving common questions of fact or law between identical parties or between any party to the filed case and any other person, entity or agency.

(b) This rule shall apply to cases:

1. Already filed with the Office of Administrative Law;
2. Commenced in an agency but not yet filed with the Office of Administrative Law; and
3. Commenced in an agency and not required to be filed with the Office of Administrative Law under N.J.S.A. 52:14F-8.

(c) Upon transmitting the record, the agency with the predominant interest shall pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8 request an extension to permit the rendering of a final decision by the agency which does not have the predominant interest.

SUBCHAPTER 18. INITIAL DECISION; EXCEPTIONS; FINAL DECISION; REMAND; EXTENSIONS OF TIME LIMITS

1:1-18.1 Initial decision in contested cases

(a) When a case is not heard directly by an agency head, the judge shall issue an initial decision which shall be based exclusively on:

1. The testimony, documents and arguments accepted by the judge for consideration in rendering a decision;
2. Stipulations; and
3. Matters officially noticed.

(b) The initial decision shall be final in form and fully dispositive of all issues in the case.

(c) No substantive finding of fact or conclusion of law, nor any concluding order or other disposition shall be binding upon the agency head, unless otherwise provided by statute.

(d) All initial decisions shall be issued and received by the agency head no later than 45 days after the hearing is concluded unless an earlier time frame is mandated by Federal or State law.

(e) In mediations successfully concluded by initial decision, the decision shall be issued and received by the agency head as soon as practicable after the mediation, but in no event later than 45 days thereafter.

(f) Within 10 days after the initial decision is filed with the agency head, the Clerk shall certify the entire record with original exhibits to the agency head.

(g) Upon filing of an initial decision with the transmitting agency, the Office of Administrative Law relinquishes jurisdiction over the case, except for matters referred to in N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.2(c)1 through 5.

Amended by R.1987 d.462, effective November 16, 1987.

In (d), deleted the last sentence.

Case Notes

Administrative Law Judge's finding of fact rejecting the conclusion of a witness, a firefighter for a local fire department and the team leader in the arson investigation unit, regarding the cause of the fire as "not persuasive" and relying instead upon the ALJ's own involvement in fire investigations and teaching a course on fire investigation, was totally improper; the witness was an expert witness, he had specialized knowledge and experience in fire investigations, he was on the scene of the incident as "suppression efforts were just being completed," he was a firsthand witness to the damage which he carefully reviewed to determine the cause, he took pictures of the damage at that time and contemporaneously recorded his observations in a report, his presence at the fire scene was to determine the cause, and he made a determination after reviewing the fire scene that the improper use of an extension cord in the bedroom, which improperly ran under the bed caster and a rug, caused the fire and burnt away the rug in that area, proceeding in a "classic V-pattern" toward the outlet, window, and air conditioner. Div. of Developmental Disabilities v. Cruz, OAL Dkt. No. HDD 777-2005S, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 524, Final Decision (June 22, 2007).

1:1-18.2 Oral initial decision

(a) The judge may render the initial decision orally in any case where the judge determines that the circumstances appropriately permit an oral decision and the questions of fact or law are sufficiently non-complex.

(b) The decision shall be issued, transcribed, filed with the agency head and mailed to the parties with an indication of the date of receipt by the agency head.

(c) In an oral decision, the judge shall identify the case, the parties, and the issue or issues to be decided and shall analyze the facts as they relate to the applicable law, and make findings of fact, conclusions of law and an appropriate order or disposition of the case. The decision shall include the statement at N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.3(c)12, and the judge shall explain to the parties that the decision is being forwarded to the agency head for disposition pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10, and that exceptions may be addressed to the agency head. The judge need not specifically include in the oral decision the other material required by N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.3(c) as long as it is otherwise contained in the record.

Amended by R.1996 d.57, effective February 5, 1996.

See: 27 N.J.R. 4039(a), 28 N.J.R. 813(a).

In (a) deleted "on the record before the parties" following "orally", and in (b) substituted "the conclusion of the hearing" for "rendering an oral decision".

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Rewrote (b).

1:1-18.3 Written initial decision

(a) If an oral decision is not issued, the judge shall issue a written initial decision.

(b) The written initial decision shall be filed with the agency head and shall be promptly served upon the parties with an indication of the date of receipt by the agency head.

(c) The written initial decision shall contain the following elements which may be combined and need not be separately discussed:

1. An appropriate caption;
2. The appearances of the parties and their representatives, if any;
3. A statement of the case;

4. A procedural history and list of hearing dates;
5. A statement of the issue(s);
6. A factual discussion;
7. Factual findings;
8. A legal discussion;
9. Conclusions of law;
10. A disposition;
11. A list of witnesses and of exhibits admitted into evidence; and

12. The following statement: "This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by (the head of the agency), who by law is empowered to make a final decision in this matter. However, if (the head of the agency) does not so act in 45 days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10."

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

Rewrote (b).

Amended by R.2009 d.112, effective April 6, 2009.
See: 41 N.J.R. 5(a), 41 N.J.R. 1391(a).

In (c)4, inserted "and list of hearing dates"; and in (c)11, inserted "witnesses and of".

Administrative law judge delayed petitioner's application to the DEP for approval of construction of a mobile home park. Petitioner may meet with DEP to formulate method of testing for nitrates acceptable to both parties within 30 days of order. Normally, once an initial decision is rendered, it is returned in its entirety to the agency for final disposition. The OAL would retain sufficient jurisdiction, with the permission of the agency, to resolve disputes arising out of the development and implementation of the testing program (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.3 and 4). Andover Mobile Home Park v. DEP, 4 N.J.A.R. 420 (1981).

1:1-18.4 Exceptions; replies

(a) Within 13 days from the date the judge's initial decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the agency head. A copy of the exceptions shall be served on all other parties and the judge. Exceptions to orders issued under N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.2(c)4 shall be filed with the Director of the Office of Administrative Law.

(b) The exceptions shall:

1. Specify the findings of fact, conclusions of law or dispositions to which exception is taken;
2. Set out specific findings of fact, conclusions of law or dispositions proposed in lieu of or in addition to those reached by the judge;
3. Set forth supporting reasons. Exceptions to factual findings shall describe the witnesses' testimony or documentary or other evidence relied upon. Exceptions to conclusions of law shall set forth the authorities relied upon.

(c) Evidence not presented at the hearing shall not be submitted as part of an exception, nor shall it be incorporated or referred to within exceptions.

(d) Within five days from receipt of exceptions, any party may file a reply with the agency head, serving a copy thereof on all other parties and the judge. Such replies may address the issues raised in the exceptions filed by the other party or may include submissions in support of the initial decision.

(e) In all settlements, exceptions and cross-exceptions shall not be filed, unless permitted by the judge or agency head.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (d), substituted "may address the issues raised in the exceptions filed by the other party or may include" for "may include cross-exceptions or".

Case Notes

State Interscholastic Athletic Association regulation excluding males from female athletic teams did not violate federal equal protection, State Constitution, or statute prohibiting sex discrimination in education. B.C. v. Cumberland Regional School District, 220 N.J.Super. 214, 531 A.2d 1059 (App.Div.1987).

Within 10 days from the receipt of the judge's initial decision, any party may file written exceptions with the agency head and with the clerk (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.4). De Vitis v. New Jersey Racing Commission, 202 N.J.Super. 484, 495 A.2d 457 (App.Div.1985), certification denied 102 N.J. 337, 508 A.2d 213 (1985).

Error in failing to serve jockey in administrative proceeding was harmless. Moiseyev v. New Jersey Racing Com'n, 239 N.J.Super. 1, 570 A.2d 988 (A.D.1989).

N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 makes no provision for replies to reply exceptions, and thus they were not considered. El-Hewie v. Bd. of Educ. of Bergen County Vocational School Dist., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 7673-06, Commissioner's Decision (April 10, 2008).

Because the Board did not file exceptions to the ALJ's June 6, 2007 decision until June 25, 2007, the exceptions were untimely and were not considered by the Commissioner. Kohn v. Bd. of Educ. of Orange Twp., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10582-06, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 532, Commissioner's Decision (July 19, 2007).

Because there was no indication that a letter to the Commissioner of Education "taking exception" to the Initial Decision was also served on either the Board of Examiners or the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner did not consider petitioner to have filed exceptions. Muench v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., State Bd. of Examiners, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08369-06, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 96, Commissioner's Decision (January 9, 2007).

Exceptions are required to be filed within 13 days after the Initial Decision, including partial summary decisions, and although an end-date for filing exceptions was not specified in the order for extension, it was not reasonable to assume that the exception period could run until the date established for the Final Decision on the matter; in addition, the bases for many of licensee's exceptions were improper. Bakke v. Prime Ins. Syndicate, OAL Dkt. No. BKI 1168-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 985, Final Decision (May 24, 2006).

Respondent's Exceptions to the Initial Decision did not even come close to meeting statutory requirements where: (1) its motion to compel and for sanctions was heard by the ALJ on three separate occasions, but each time the respondent was warned that it should provide more complete discovery and was given additional time to comply, but each time it failed to do so; (2) the ALJ did not merely accept petitioner's representations about the inadequacy of respondent's discovery responses, but reviewed the interrogatory responses himself and thus did not reach his conclusion that the discovery provided was inadequate based on de minimis and conclusory data, as respondent suggested; (3) respondent failed to provide complete discovery although ordered by the ALJ to do so and its former counsel fully understood the consequences of a failure to do so; and (4) although respondent raised certain substantive claims, they became irrelevant due to respondent's own failure to comply with the ALJ's orders. Absolut Spirits Co., Inc. v. Monsieur Touton Selection, Ltd., OAL DKT. NO. ABC 4217-04, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 508, Final Decision (May 10, 2006).

Exceptions were not timely filed when they were addressed and directed to the Administrative Law Judge but not filed with the Commissioner of Education; instructions for the filing of exceptions were clearly set forth on the last page of the Initial Decision, and this was not a case of clerical error, where the exceptions were simply placed in an incorrect envelope. D.B.R. ex rel. N.R.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Morris, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 12060-04, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1147, Commissioner's Decision (August 18, 2005).

1:1-18.5 Motions to reconsider and reopen

(a) Motions to reconsider an initial decision are not permitted.

(b) Motions to reopen a hearing after an initial decision has been filed must be addressed to the agency head.

(c) Motions to reopen the record before an initial decision is filed must be addressed to the judge and may be granted only for extraordinary circumstances.

Case Notes

Commissioner's adoption of the administrative law judge's recommended decision had the effect of denying the request to reopen the record (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.4(e)). Dep't. of Labor v. Titan Construction Co., 102 N.J. 1, 504 A.2d 7 (1985).

Motion to reopen Lemon Law hearing at which respondent failed to appear was denied; respondent did not satisfy its burden of proving that it did not have actual notice of the hearing. Mitchell v. Hillside Auto Mall, OAL Dkt. No. CMA 05407-05, 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1125, Final Decision (October 14, 2005).

1:1-18.6 Final decision; stay of implementation

(a) Within 45 days after the receipt of the initial decision, or sooner if an earlier time frame is mandated by Federal or State law, the agency head may enter an order or a final decision adopting, rejecting or modifying the initial decision. Such an order or final decision shall be served upon the parties and the Clerk forthwith.

(b) The agency head may reject or modify conclusions of law, interpretations of agency policy, or findings of fact not relating to issues of credibility of lay witness testimony, but shall clearly state the reasons for so doing. The order or final decision rejecting or modifying the initial decision shall state in clear and sufficient detail the nature of the rejection or modification, the reasons for it, the specific evidence at hearing and interpretation of law upon which it is based and precise changes in result or disposition caused by the rejection or modification.

(c) The agency head may not reject or modify any finding of fact as to issues of credibility of lay witness testimony unless it first determines from a review of a record that the findings are arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, or are not supported by sufficient, competent, and credible evidence in the record.

(d) An order or final decision rejecting or modifying the findings of fact in an initial decision shall be based upon substantial evidence in the record and shall state with particularity the reasons for rejecting the findings and shall make new or modified findings supported by sufficient, competent and credible evidence in the record.

(e) If an agency head does not reject or modify the initial decision within 45 days and unless the period is extended as provided by N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8, the initial decision shall become a final decision.

(f) When a stay of the final decision is requested, the agency shall respond to the request within 10 days.

Amended by R.2001 d.180, effective June 4, 2001 (operative July 1, 2001).

See: 33 N.J.R. 1040(a), 33 N.J.R. 1926(a).

Rewrote (b); added new (c) and (d), and recodified existing (c) and (d) as (e) and (f).

Case Notes

Refusal to grant nursing home an open-ended lease pass-through was protected by qualified immunity. Stratford Nursing and Convalescent Center, Inc. v. Kilstein, 802 F.Supp. 1158 (D.N.J. 1991), affirmed 972 F.2d 1332 (3rd Cir. 1992).

Exercise of quasi-judicial function in application of state appellate court decision to specific years encompassed therein; judicial immunity from civil rights liability. Stratford Nursing and Convalescent Center, Inc. v. Kilstein, 802 F.Supp. 1158 (D.N.J. 1991), affirmed 972 F.2d 1332 (3rd Cir. 1992).

Commissioner has 45 days to affirm, modify or reverse an administrative law judge's decision (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.5(a)). Wichert v. Walter, 606 F.Supp. 1516 (D.N.J.1985).

The over one-year delay between the issuance of Commissioner of the Department of Environmental Protection's (DEP) summary order and the final decision in action seeking compensation for an under recovery incurred by solid waste utility due to use of interim rates was not in bad faith, or was inexcusably negligent, or grossly indifferent so as to automatically required the administrative law judge's initial decision to be deemed approved, where the subject matter of the administrative proceeding was very complex, involving many days of complicated testimony, and there was a voluminous record, which was made even more problematical by the utility ending its relationship with county utilities authority after the hearings. Penpac, Inc. v. Passaic County Utilities Authority, 367 N.J.Super. 487, 843 A.2d 1153 (App. Div. 2004).

Three month delay in providing findings and legal conclusions for decision itself untimely; equitable factor against reconsideration of administrative law judge's (ALJ) decision. Mastro v. Board of Trustees, Public Employees' Retirement System, 266 N.J.Super. 445, 630 A.2d 289 (A.D.1993).

Agency decision was not invalid for failure to include findings and conclusions within 45 day limit. DiMaria v. Board of Trustees of Public Employees' Retirement System, 225 N.J.Super. 341, 542 A.2d 498 (A.D.1988), certification denied 113 N.J. 638, 552 A.2d 164.

Civil Service Commission had no duty to review findings of administrative law judge prior to acceptance or rejection of judge's findings and recommendations (citing N.J.A.C. 4:1-5.4). In the Matter of Morrison, 216 N.J.Super. 143, 523 A.2d 238 (App.Div.1987).

Decision was affirmed despite the absence of findings in support of determination as required by N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6 (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.5(b)). O'Toole v. Forestal, 211 N.J.Super. 394, 511 A.2d 1236 (App.Div.1986).

Within 45 days after the receipt of the initial decision, the agency head may enter an order or final decision adopting, rejecting or modifying the initial decision (former rule cited N.J.A.C. 1:16.4 and 16.5). De Vitis v. New Jersey Racing Commission, 202 N.J.Super. 484, 495 A.2d 457 (App.Div.1985), certification denied 102 N.J. 337, 508 A.2d 213 (1985).

In age and sex discrimination case under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1 et seq., brought by 68-year-old male adjunct professor, there was no basis in the record for rejecting the ALJ's emphatic conclusion that employer's witness, the department chairperson, was a compelling and credible witness, notwithstanding: (1) the fact that chairperson's testimony concerning the number of times professor announced his retirement might have been inconsistent with certain other evidence on that point; or (2) professor's argument that chairperson's testimony reflected "sexist attitudes." Although chairperson observed that many adjuncts were homemakers who wanted to teach only one day a week, this statement in no way reflected an intent to replace male adjuncts with females. Sergent v. Montclair State Univ., OAL Dkt. No. CRT 03318-05, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 958, Final Decision (December 24, 2007).

After an initial decision by administrative law judge, the agency head may enter an order or a final decision adopting, rejecting or modifying the initial decision (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.5). Kurman v. Fairmount Realty Corp., 8 N.J.A.R. 110 (1985).

Granting of partial summary judgement is not effective until a final agency review has been rendered on an issue, either upon interlocutory review pursuant to a request by respondent or at end of the contested case (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.7 and 1:1-16.5). Kurman v. Fairmount Realty Corp., 8 N.J.A.R. 110 (1985).

1:1-18.7 Remand; procedure

(a) An agency head may enter an order remanding a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law for further action on issues or arguments not previously raised or incompletely considered. The order of remand shall specifically state the reason and necessity for the remand and the issues or arguments to be considered. The remand order shall be attached to a N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2 transmittal form and returned to the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law along with the case record.

(b) The judge shall hear the remanded matter and render an initial decision.

Case Notes

Administrative law judge without authority to refuse to comply with an order of remand of an agency head (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.5(c)). In Re Kallen, 92 N.J. 14, 455 A.2d 460 (1983).

Remand was appropriate and necessary, where the public interest would clearly not be served if the Racing Commission were compelled to determine trainer's suitability for license on incomplete record. Record indicated the evidence before ALJ was limited where: (1) no testimony was taken; (2) record did not indicate if burden of demonstrating suitability for license was placed on trainer as it should have been; and (3) it was not clear if trainer was given opportunity to prove his suitability for licensure. Height v. N.J. Racing Comm'n, OAL Dkt. No. RAC 06380-07, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1113, Final Decision (March 20, 2008).

Order of remand signed by assistant director; valid. O.F. v. Hudson County Welfare Agency, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (DEA) 57.

Order for remand by Director of agency rejected by administrative law judge since Department had ample opportunity to develop proofs at prior hearing; Director rejected ALJ's decision and reopened case (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.5). Cash Services, Inc., v. Dep't of Banking, 5 N.J.A.R. 103 (1981).

1:1-18.8 Extensions of time limits

(a) Time limits for filing an initial decision, filing exceptions and replies and issuing a final decision may be extended for good cause.

(b) A request for extension of any time period must be submitted no later than the day on which that time period is to expire. This requirement may be waived only in case of emergency or other unforeseeable circumstances.

(c) Requests to extend the time limit for initial decisions shall be submitted in writing to the Director of the Office of Administrative Law. If the Director concurs in the request, he or she shall sign a proposed order no later than the date the time limit for the initial decision is due to expire and shall forward the proposed order to the transmitting agency head and serve copies on all parties. If the agency head approves the request, he or she shall within 10 days of receipt of the proposed order sign the proposed order and return it to the Director, who shall issue the order and cause it to be served on all parties.

(d) Requests to extend the time limit for exceptions and replies shall be submitted in writing to the transmitting agency head and served on all parties. If the agency head approves the request, he or she shall within 10 days sign and issue the order and cause it to be served on all parties. If the extended time limit necessitates an extension of the deadline for the final decision, the requirements of (e) below apply.

(e) If the agency head requests an extension of the time limit for filing a final decision, he or she shall sign and forward a proposed order to the Director of the Office of Administrative Law and serve copies on all parties. If the Director approves the request, he or she shall within ten days of receipt of the proposed order sign the proposed order and return it to the transmitting agency head, who shall issue the order and cause it to be served on all parties.

(f) Any order granting an extension must set forth the factual basis constituting good cause for the extension, and establish a new time for filing the decision or exceptions and replies. Extensions for filing initial or final decisions may not exceed 45 days from the original decision due date. Additional extensions of not more than 45 days each may be granted only for good cause shown.

Amended by R.1992 d.213, effective May 18, 1992.
See: 24 N.J.R. 321(a), 24 N.J.R. 1873(b).

Amended by R.2003 d.306, effective August 4, 2003.
See: 35 N.J.R. 1614(a), 35 N.J.R. 3551(a).

In (e), rewrote the last sentence.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (d), deleted "with a proposed form of extension order" following "writing" and "and the Director of the Office of Administrative Law" following the second occurrence of "parties"; and in (f), deleted "set forth the dates of any previous extensions," preceding "and establish", and substituted "for good cause shown" for "in the case of extraordinary circumstances".

Case Notes

Decision by ALJ recommending that college board of trustees follow its written procedures for denying reappointment to director of educational opportunity fund was "deemed adopted" by the board, where the board took no action to adopt, reject, or modify the ALJ's decision within 45 days, and did not seek an extension of time to do so within that period, there was no emergency justifying delay. Newman v. Ramapo College of N.J., 349 N.J.Super. 196, 793 A.2d 120.

Automatic approval of administrative law judge's recommendations was not applicable. Rollins Environmental Services (NJ), Inc. v. Weiner, 269 N.J.Super. 161, 634 A.2d 1356 (A.D.1993).

Provision for automatic adoption of administrative law judge's recommendations will not be literally enforced where agency head is not dragging his feet in issuing final decision. Rollins Environmental Services (NJ), Inc. v. Weiner, 269 N.J.Super. 161, 634 A.2d 1356 (A.D.1993).

It was proper exercise of discretion to grant nunc pro tunc extension of time for Hackensack Meadowlands Development Commission (HMDC) to issue its final decision regarding intermunicipal tax-sharing obligations under Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation and Development Act. Town of Secaucus v. Hackensack Meadowlands Development Com'n, 267 N.J.Super. 361, 631 A.2d 959 (A.D.1993), certification denied 139 N.J. 187, 652 A.2d 175.

Three month delay in providing findings and legal conclusions for decision itself untimely; equitable factor against reconsideration of administrative law judge's (ALJ) decision. Mastro v. Board of Trustees, Public Employees' Retirement System, 266 N.J.Super. 445, 630 A.2d 289 (A.D.1993).

Initial decision of administrative law judge (ALJ) shall be "deemed adopted". Mastro v. Board of Trustees, Public Employees' Retirement System, 266 N.J.Super. 445, 630 A.2d 289 (A.D.1993).

Board of Trustees of Public Employee Retirement System failed to make showing justifying setting aside decision. Mastro v. Board of Trustees, Public Employees' Retirement System, 266 N.J.Super. 445, 630 A.2d 289 (A.D.1993).

Challenge to extension of time under N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8 for the Commissioner to issue a ruling on an appeal was actually a motion for leave to appeal an interlocutory order, rather than a "motion for emergent relief"; interlocutory review of an administrative ruling may be granted in the interest of justice or for good cause shown, and petitioner failed to demonstrate good cause. Toddertown Child Care Center v. Bd. of Educ. of Irvington, OAL Dkt. Nos. EDU 3041-07 and EDU 5430-07 (CONSOLIDATED), SB No. 35-07, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 974 (December 19, 2007).

Exceptions are required to be filed within 13 days after the Initial Decision, including partial summary decisions, and although an end-date for filing exceptions was not specified in the order for extension, it was not reasonable to assume that the exception period could run until the date established for the Final Decision on the matter; in addition, the bases for many of licensee's exceptions were improper. Bakke v. Prime Ins. Syndicate, OAL Dkt. No. BKI 1168-05, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 985, Final Decision (May 24, 2006).

SUBCHAPTER 19. SETTLEMENTS AND WITHDRAWALS

1:1-19.1 Settlements

(a) Where the parties to a case wish to settle the matter, and the transmitting agency is not a party, the judge shall require the parties to disclose the full settlement terms:

1. In writing, by consent order or stipulation signed by all parties or their attorneys; or
2. Orally, by the parties or their representatives.

(b) Under (a) above, if the judge determines from the written order/stipulation or from the parties' testimony under oath that the settlement is voluntary, consistent with the law and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy, the judge shall issue an initial decision incorporating the full terms and approving the settlement.

(c) Where the parties to a case wish to settle the matter and the transmitting agency is a party to the case, if the agency head has approved the terms of the settlement, either personally or through an authorized representative, the parties shall:

1. File with the Clerk and the assigned judge, if known, a stipulation of dismissal, signed by the parties, their attorneys, or their non-lawyer representatives when authorized pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.5(f); or
2. If the parties prefer to have the settlement terms incorporated in the record of the case, then the full terms of the settlement shall be disclosed in a consent order signed by the parties, their attorneys, or their non-attorney representatives when authorized pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.5(f). The consent order shall be filed with the Clerk and the assigned judge, if known.

(d) The stipulation of dismissal or consent order under (c) above shall be deemed the final decision.

Amended by R.1987 d.461, effective November 16, 1987.
See: 19 N.J.R. 1593(a), 19 N.J.R. 2131(c).

(b)1.-2. added to clarify that in those cases where the agency head, either in person or through counsel, has consented to the settlement terms.

Amended by R.1995 d.300, effective June 19, 1995.
See: 27 N.J.R. 1343(a), 27 N.J.R. 2383(a).
Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In the introductory paragraph of (a), substituted "transmitting agency is not a party" for "agency head has not consented to the settlement terms"; and rewrote (c).

Case Notes

Emotionally disturbed child and his parent were "prevailing parties". E.P. by P.Q. v. Union County Regional High School Dist. No. 1, D.N.J.1989, 741 F.Supp. 1144.

Initial Decision (2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 261) adopted, which concluded that the terms of an unsigned "draft" agreement between a teacher and board of education constituted the terms of an agreed upon settlement that bound both parties, subject to approval by the Commissioner; the teacher's attorney had advised the school board that the settlement was acceptable, but the teacher objected to it. In re Tenure Hearing of Jones, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8618-05S, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 494, Commissioner's Decision (August 9, 2007).

N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 does not require that respondent specifically state under oath that the settlement was voluntary. The ALJ may determine from the entirety of the sworn testimony (including certifications) of all the parties whether a voluntary settlement exists (decided under former version of rule). In re Tenure Hearing of Jones, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8618-05S, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 494, Commissioner's Decision (August 9, 2007).

1:1-19.2 Withdrawals

(a) A party may withdraw a request for a hearing or a defense raised by notifying the judge and all parties. Upon receipt of such notification, the judge shall discontinue all proceedings and return the case file to the Clerk. If the judge deems it advisable to state the circumstances of the withdrawal on the record, the judge may enter an initial decision memorializing the withdrawal and returning the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition.

(b) When a party withdraws, the Clerk shall return the matter to the agency which transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law for appropriate disposition.

(c) After the Clerk has returned the matter, a party shall address to the transmitting agency head any motion to reopen a withdrawn case.

Amended by R.1990 d.71, effective February 5, 1990.
See: 21 N.J.R. 3589(a), 22 N.J.R. 334(b).

In (a): deleted language specifying the entering of an initial decision for withdrawals and added, "discontinue ... for appropriate disposition".

In (b): specified that Clerk shall return matter to agency which had transmitted the case to OAL.

In (c): deleted language referring to decision granting withdrawal.
Amended by R.1991 d.44, effective February 4, 1991.
See: 22 N.J.R. 3278(b), 23 N.J.R. 293(a).

In (a): deleted "in writing" from withdrawal procedure request.

SUBCHAPTER 20. MEDIATION BY THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

1:1-20.1 Scheduling of mediation

(a) Mediation may be scheduled, at the discretion of the Director, when requested by the transmitting agency, or by all parties to a hearing or when requested by an agency with regard to a matter which has not been transmitted as a contested case. Mediation may be scheduled in any matter where the transmitting agency has a mediation program available to the parties to the case only upon request of the agency head for good cause and with the consent of the Director.

(b) When a request for mediation is granted, the Office of Administrative Law shall supply the parties with a list containing not less than six administrative law judges as suggested mediators. Each party may strike two judges from the list and the Office of Administrative Law will not assign any judge who has been stricken from the list to conduct the mediation. The Office of Administrative Law shall notify the parties of the assigned mediator.

New Rule, R.1999 d.413, effective December 6, 1999.

See: 31 N.J.R. 2290(a), 31 N.J.R. 2717(a), 31 N.J.R. 3999(a).

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (a), inserted "or when requested by an agency with regard to a matter which has not been transmitted as a contested case".

Amended by R.2008 d.151, effective June 16, 2008.

See: 40 N.J.R. 915(a), 40 N.J.R. 3617(a).

In the second sentence of (a), substituted "may" for "shall not" and inserted "only upon request of the agency head for good cause and with the consent of the Director".

1:1-20.2 Conduct of mediation

(a) Mediation shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

1. Discovery to prepare for mediation shall be permitted at the discretion of the judge.
2. All parties to the mediation shall make available for the mediation a person who has authority to bind the party to a mediated settlement.
3. Parties may not use any information gained solely from the mediation in any subsequent proceeding.
4. Parties may not subpoena the mediator for any subsequent proceeding.
5. Parties may not disclose to any subsequently assigned judge the content of the mediation discussion.
6. Parties shall mediate in good faith.
7. Any agreement of the parties derived from the mediation shall be binding on the parties and will have the effect of a contract in subsequent proceedings.

(b) If any party fails to appear at the mediation, without explanation being provided for the nonappearance, the mediator shall return the matter to the Clerk for scheduling a hearing or for return of the matter to the agency and, where appropriate, the mediator may consider sanctions under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14.

(c) The mediator may at any time return the matter to the Clerk and request that a hearing be scheduled before another judge or that the matter be returned to the agency.

(d) No particular form of mediation is required. The structure of the mediation shall be tailored to the needs of the particular dispute. Where helpful, parties may be permitted to present any documents, exhibits, testimony or other evidence which would aid in the attainment of a mediated settlement.

(e) In no event shall mediation efforts continue beyond 30 days from the date of the first scheduled mediation unless this time limit is extended by agreement of all the parties.

Amended by R.1991 d.279, effective June 3, 1991 (operative July 1, 1991).
