Doct. for January, 1980

FEB 11 1980
Trenton, N. J.

January may be a traditional slow month in the casino gaming industry, but January, 1980, was the second best month for the fledgling New Jersey casino industry.

The three operating casinos reported a combined gross casino revenue of $38,976,599 for January. The only better month in the 20-month history of New Jersey gaming was last August, when Resorts International and Boardwalk Regency reported a combined revenue of $42,265,890.

This past month, Resorts International won $15,375,616. Boardwalk Regency reported casino gross revenue of $14,214,314, while Park Place, in its first full month of operation, won a total of $9,386,669.

Park Place opened officially on December 29, 1979, and phased into full operation in a number of steps during January.

The three casinos paid in to the State's Casino Revenue Fund $4.6 million during January. This brings the total to $49.7 million since the first casino opened.

The daily averages for the three casinos during January were as follows: Resorts, $495,987; Boardwalk Regency, $458,526 and Park Place, $302,795. The industry average for the month was $1,257,299.

In January, 1979, when only Resorts International was operating, the casino revenue was $13,628,774, which was the lowest industry-wide figure for New Jersey casinos for any full month of operation.

The 21-month old casino industry in New Jersey has topped the half-billion dollar mark in gross earnings. The three operating casinos in Atlantic City have grossed $538.9 million in casino revenues since Resorts International opened in May, 1978.

During February, Resorts International, Boardwalk Regency and Bally's Park Place posted higher win figures over the previous month even though there were two fewer days.

Resorts International won $15,786,922, compared to $15,375,616 in January. Boardwalk Regency recorded a win of $14,815,774 in February, compared to a January total of $14,214,314. Bally's Park Place won $10,247,840 in February, almost a million dollars more than the January total of $9,386,669.

The three casinos won a total of $40,850,536, making February the second best month in New Jersey's casino history. Only August, 1979, was a better month when Resorts International and Boardwalk Regency combined for a total of $42,265,890.

March, 1980, was the best month in the 22-month history of the New Jersey casino industry. The three Atlantic City casinos posted combined gross earnings of $47,854,916 for last month. The industry daily average was $1,543,707.

Resorts International again led the casino hotels with a total of $18,052,161, a daily average of $582,327 for March. Boardwalk Regency posted a total of $16,695,444, averaging $538,562 a day. Bally's Park Place had its best month since opening last December with a total of $13,107,311 and a daily average of $422,816. The previous high month for the industry was $42.2 million in August, 1979.

The three casinos added $5,653,220 to the Casino Revenue Fund, which aids senior citizens and disabled persons. During the first three months of this year, the 12 per cent tax has brought $15,187,333 to the state and since the first casino opened in May, 1978, New Jersey has collected a total of $60,272,000 in taxes.

During March, Park Place deducted $330,000 for uncollected patron checks. Boardwalk Regency deducted $340,000 and Resorts International deducted $74,741.

All three casinos reported substantially higher revenue figures in March as compared to February. The combined increase was slightly more than $7 million. Individually, Park Place posted an increase of $2.8 million more than in February. The increases for Boardwalk Regency and Resorts were $1.8 million and $2.2 million, respectively.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

JULY 8, 1980

BEN BOROWSKY 609--984-6749

The three operating casinos in Atlantic City reported a combined gross casino revenue of $51,125,006 for June. This was slightly under the record set in May, $51,806,496. However, the daily average for the industry was up in June over May, $1,704,166 to $1,671,177, because of the one less day last month.

According to figures released today by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission, Resorts International Casino Hotel posted a win of $18,126,703 in June. This is down six per cent from the $19,296,682 total in May, 1980, and down 18 per cent from the June, 1979 total of $22,024,825. Resorts was the only casino in operation in June, 1979, until Boardwalk Regency opened on a limited basis on June 26.

Boardwalk Regency posted its second best month with a win total of $17,222,909 last month. This was up one per cent over May's total of $17,071,008. Bally's Park Place registered its best month in its six-month history with a win of $15,775,394. This was up two per cent over May's total of $15,438,806.

The daily averages in June for the three casinos follow: Resorts, $604,223; Boardwalk Regency, $574,097 and Park Place, $525,846.

The three casinos contributed $5,890,672 into the Casino Revenue Fund, upping the grand total to $77,556,215. This dedicated fund aids eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief.

JUNE 6, 1980

JUN 1 1980

New Jersey's casino industry celebrated its second birthday in May by establishing a new monthly gross revenue record, the Casino Control Commission reported today.

The three Atlantic City casinos combined for a gross revenue total during May of $51,806,496. This bettered the previous high, set in April, by $3.4 million. The daily average for the industry in May was $1,671,177.

Resorts International posted a win total of $19,296,682 last month. This was an increase of $568,028 over April, but was $1,227,516 less than May, 1979, when Resorts was the only casino open.

Boardwalk Regency won $17,071,008 in May, an increase of $865,520 over April. Park Place had its best month since opening last December. It posted a win total of $15,438,806, an increase of $2,000,591 over April.

The average daily win totals in May were $622,474 for Resorts, $550,678 for Boardwalk Regency and $498,026 for Park Place.

The three casinos added $6,054,076 to the Casino Revenue Fund, which aids senior citizens and disabled persons through property tax and utility bill programs established by the Legislature.

There were seven million ^{dollar} days reported in May, three each by Resorts International and Boardwalk Regency and one by Park Place.

The first casino opened on May 26, 1978 and after two years and one week of operation, the three casinos have won a gross revenue total of $681 million and the state has collected $71.6 million for the Casino Revenue Fund.

Even without the opening of Atlantic City's fourth casino, August was the best month yet, according to figures released today by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission.

The four casinos grossed $76,898,655, a 15 per cent increase over July's $65.3 million. The combined daily average was $2,480,602, compared to $2,107,944 in July.

For the first time since casino gaming started in Atlantic City in May, 1978, Resorts International did not post the highest revenue figures. The honor in August went to Caesars Boardwalk Regency, which grossed $24,835,328. Resorts International was second, with $24,270,041, followed by Bally's Park Place, which grossed $22,891,768. Greate Bay's Brighton, which opened on a limited basis on August 13 after three test nights posted a win of $4,901,518.

The daily averages are as follows for August: Boardwalk Regency, $801,140; Resorts International, $782,905; Park Place, $738,444; and Brighton, $257,975 (for 19 days).

The Casino Revenue Fund, the dedicated fund to aid senior citizens and disabled persons, has now grown to $93.1 million. During 1980, the casinos have paid $47.9 million into the fund. In 1979, $34.4 million was collected and in 1978, $10.6 million.

The gross revenue figure which Boardwalk Regency posted was the second highest in New Jersey's history, although the best for the company. Resorts International holds the record for one month, grossing $24,876,788 in July, 1979.

The total for Park Place was that company's highest so far.

Boardwalk Regency won $14.3 million at the table games, establishing a new high, while Resorts International set a new standard for slot machine revenue at $12.4 million.

Boardwalk Regency's August total was 10 per cent higher than July and 26 per cent higher than August, 1979. Resorts was six per cent higher than in July and two per cent higher than a year ago. Park Place was 12 per cent higher than in July and was not open a year ago.

The four operating Atlantic City casinos reported combined gross casino revenues of $55,317,997 for September, according to figures released today by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission.

Resorts International posted a win of $16,944,674; followed by Caesars Boardwalk Regency, $16,647,829; Bally's Park Place, $15,970,857 and Greate Bay's Brighton, $5,754,637.

The daily averages posted by the individual casinos during September were as follows: Resorts International, $564,822; Caesars, $554,928; Bally, $533,362 and Brighton, $191,821.

Approximately $5.5 million was added to the Casino Revenue Fund, bringing the grand total since the start of casino gaming in New Jersey to $98,491,032. This money is used to pay for the "lifeline" (utility bill credit) and property tax credits for eligible senior citizens and disabled persons.

The September totals for the industry were 28 per cent less than the $76.8 million recorded in August, the best month to date, but were 53 per cent higher than September, 1979, when the two casinos in operation at the time, posted gross revenue totals of $36.2 million.

In August, Resorts ($24,270,041), Caesars ($24,835,328) and Bally ($22,891,768) all topped the $20 million mark for the first time together. The Brighton opened on August 13 and added a win of $4,901,518. (copies of monthly reports attached)

The New Jersey Casino Control Commission reported today that Atlantic City's casinos grossed $59,464,003 during November, a daily average for the industry of $1,982,133.

CASINO	NOV. 1980	OCT. 1980	NOV. 1979
Caesers	$18,716,497	18,347,373	15,820,889
Boardwalk Regency	(623,883)	(591,851)	(527,363)
Bally's Park Place	16,234,517 (541,151)	17,594,302 (567,558)
Resorts International	15,829,311 (527,644)	16,474,495 (531,435)	18,226,073 (607,536)
Brighton (Greate Bay)	6,752,138 (225,071)	6,321,954 (203,934)
Harrah's (Holiday Inns)	1,931,540 (193,154)

(Daily averages are in parenthesis)

During November, the casinos collectively went over the one billion dollar mark in gross revenue since the first casino opened in May, 1978. That total now stands at $1,035,539,723. During this two-and-a-half year period, the State of New Jersey collected $109.7 million for the Casino Revenue Fund, which is used to aid senior citizens and disabled persons through programs established by the Legislature.

Four million dollar days were posted during November. Caesers Boardwalk Regency had three, on the 15th, 25th and 29th. Resorts International grossed more than a million dollars on the 8th. All the dates were Saturdays, except the 25th, which was the night of the Leonard-Duran fight, which was seen on closed-circuit television in Atlantic City.

Harrah's opened the fifth operating casino on Nov. 23 after test nights. The Commission allowed Harrah's to open with 70 of its 111 tables and 838 of its 1100 slot machines open to the public.

Atlantic City's six operating casinos grossed $67,849,267 during February, according to figures released today by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission. The daily average for the industry for the 28-day month was $2,423,188.

The State of New Jersey collected $5,349,068 for the Casino Revenue Fund, which aids senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief. This brings the grand total that the state has collected in taxes on gross casino revenue since May, 1978 to $123.8 million.

February was the second best month in the industry's New Jersey history. The best month was August, 1980, when it grossed $76.9 million. Gross revenue figures represent what the casinos win from the patrons before taxes and expenses are deducted.

Dear Subscriber:

In addition to the monthly reports from the casino hotels which you receive, the casino hotels in Atlantic City are also required to submit quarterly and annual reports to the New Jersey Casino Control Commission.

In the past, these reports have only been available for public inspection in my office in Trenton.

There has been a great demand for copies of these documents, especially the annual reports. Effective now, the Commission will make copies of the 1980 annual reports of the six operating casinos available to subscribers.

The charge for copying the six annual reports is 25 cents per page, plus one dollar for mailing.

These reports, plus the previous ones, are of course, still available for inspection in the Trenton office. I suggest, however, that you call for an appointment first.

An order form is attached for those who wish to order copies by mail.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to telephone me at (609) 984-6749.

Sincerely,

Ben A. Borowsky

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

APRIL 10, 1981

BEN BOROWSKY (609) 984-6749

The New Jersey Casino Control Commission reported today that Atlantic City's six operating casinos grossed $73,991,299 during March. The daily average for the industry was $2,386,816.

The State of New Jersey collected $5,809,924 for the Casino Revenue Fund, which aids senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief. This brings the grand total that the state has collected in taxes on gross casino revenue since May, 1978, to $129.6 million.

March was the second best month in the industry's New Jersey history. The largest monthly total was August, 1980, when the industry grossed $76.9 million. Gross revenue figures represent what the casinos win from the patrons before taxes and expenses are deducted.

Atlantic City's seven operating casinos grossed $89,239,224 during May, according to figures released today by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission. This represents the highest industry total for a single month, surpassing the August, 1980 total of $76.9 million. There were four casino/hotels open last August.

The daily average for the industry in May was $2,878,685.

The May total was $16 million higher than the previous month's $73.2 million. Playboy opened April 14, after four test nights.

The casinos paid $7,049,888 into the Casino Revenue Fund, which aids senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief. Since May, 1978, the State of New Jersey has collected $142.4 million in casino taxes.

Gross revenue figures represent what the casinos win from the patrons before taxes and expenses are deducted.

JULY 10, 1981

BEN BOROWSKY (609) 984-6749

The New Jersey Casino Control Commission announced today that the seven operating casinos in Atlantic City grossed $91,868,578 during June. This represents the highest total for a single month, surpassing the previous high of $89.2 million, established in May.

The daily average for the industry in New Jersey was $3,062,286 in June, compared to $2,878,685 in May.

The casinos paid $7,629,625 into the Casino Revenue Fund in June. This brings the grand total since May of 1978 to $149.6 million. This money is used by the Legislature to aid eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief.

Gross revenue figures represent what the casinos win from the patrons before taxes and expenses are deducted.

NOTICE

In the May reports, which were mailed last month, there were two typographical errors.

On Caesars Boardwalk Regency, the win for Big Six should read $228,185 (instead of $238,185). The total for table games and the total for casino revenue were correct.

On the Bally's Park Place report for baccarat, the win figure should read $573,546 (instead of $537,546). The totals for table games and casino revenue were correct.

185 W. State Street
Trenton, N. J.

The New Jersey Casino Control Commission announced today that the eight operating casinos in Atlantic City grossed $118,029,938 during July. This represents the highest total for a single month, surpassing the previous high of $91.9 million, established in June.

The Claridge, Atlantic City's newest casino, opened on July 20 for test nights and was permitted to open without any restrictions on July 23. The daily average for the industry in July was $3,925,003. This was based on 11 days for the Claridge and 31 days for the other seven casinos.

The casinos paid $9,273,662 into the Casino Revenue Fund in July. This brings the grand total since May, 1978 to $158.9 million. The money in this fund is used by the Legislature to aid eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief.

There were seven million dollar days reported by individual casinos last month, four by Caesars Boardwalk Regency (July 4, 18, 21 and 31) and three by Resorts International (July 4, 18 and 28). Resorts established a one-day record for a New Jersey casino when it grossed $1,349,117 on July 4.

Gross revenue figures represent what the casinos win from the patrons before taxes, wages, fringe benefits, debt service and other expenses are deducted.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

SEPTEMBER 11, 1981

BEN BOROWSKY (609) 984-6749

August proved to be the best month in the three-year-old history of New Jersey's casino industry and the eight operating casino hotels in Atlantic City paid $10,439,330 into the Casino Revenue Fund.

This money is used by the State of New Jersey to aid eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief.

In the first eight months of 1981, New Jersey has collected $55.9 million in casino taxes. The grand total collected since May 1978 when the first casino hotel opened now stands at $169.3 million.

According to reports filed today with the New Jersey Casino Control Commission, the eight operating casinos grossed $132,303,552 during August. This is a daily average of $4,267,857. Both figures are new industry records for New Jersey.

The August total was $14.3 million higher than July, the previous best month and $55.4 million more than the August 1980 total when only four casinos were operating.

There were nine million dollar days reported during August, four by Caesars Boardwalk Regency, four by Resorts International and one by Bally's Park Place. On August 1, Caesars grossed $1,380,974, the highest one day total recorded by any New Jersey casino, surpassing the $1,349,117 total posted by Resorts on July 4, 1981.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

OCTOBER 13, 1981

BEN BOROWSKY (609) 984-6749

The State of New Jersey collected $8,352,066 for the Casino Revenue Fund during September. This brings the total collected for 1981 to $64.3 million and the total since casino gaming began in Atlantic City in May, 1978 to $177.7 million.

The money in the Casino Revenue Fund is used by the State Legislature to aid eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief.

According to monthly financial statements released today by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission, the eight operating casino hotels in Atlantic City reported a combined gross revenue total of $105,899,580 for September. The daily average for the industry was $3,529,986.

Although the September total was $26.4 million less than the previous month's record of $132.3 million, it represents the third best month in the industry's 40-month history in New Jersey. The July 1981 total of $118 million was the second highest month.

There were six million dollar days reported in September, three by Resorts (Sept. 5, 6 and 26), two by Bally (Sept. 6 and 12) and one by Caesars (Sept. 26).

Gross revenue figures represent what the casinos win from the patrons before taxes, wages, fringe benefits, debt service and other expenses are deducted.

The eight operating casino hotels in Atlantic City paid $8,029,171 into the Casino Revenue Fund during October. This raised the fund's total for 1981 to $72.3 million and the total since the start of casino gaming in New Jersey, 41 months ago, to $185.7 million.

The money in the Casino Revenue Fund is used by the State Legislature to aid eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief. Last week, the voters in New Jersey overwhelmingly approved a Constitutional amendment which would allow money in the Casino Revenue Fund to be used for other programs for senior citizens and disabled persons. It is up to the Legislature to decide how this money is to be expended.

The Atlantic City casinos reported a combined gross revenue total in October of $101,892,609. This represents a daily average for the industry of $3,286,858. October was the fourth highest total for the industry.

The October total was $4 million less than the previous month, when the casinos grossed $105.9 million, but was $43.2 million higher than the October, 1980 total of $58.7 million, when only four casinos were in operation.

There were five million dollar days recorded during October, four of them by Caesars Boardwalk Regency and one by Bally's Park Place. On October 9, Caesars grossed $1,929,174, the highest one day total recorded by any New Jersey casino, surpassing by almost $550,000 the $1,380,974 total posted by Caesars on August 1, 1981.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BEN BOROWSKY (609) 984-6749

The operating casino hotels in Atlantic City reported a combined profit of $40,325,167 for the three-month period ending September 30. according to quarterly reports filed with the New Jersey Casino Control Commission.

During the first six months of 1981, the industry reported a combined loss of $3,273,973. Figures for the first nine months of the year place the combined profit total at $37,051,194.

All the operating casinos, except the Claridge, which opened on July 23, were in the black during the summer months, however, for the first nine months of 1981, three casinos reported overall losses. They are: The Sands (Greate Bay), $6.3 million; Playboy ($1.7 million), and the Claridge ($5.1 million).

Golden Nugget ($19.3 million) and Resorts International ($17.1 million) were the most profitable during the January to September period, followed by Caesars Boardwalk Regency ($7.4 million), Bally's Park Place ($5 million) and Harrah's Marina ($1.4 million).

Each month the Commission reports the gross casino revenue figures from the casinos. The State collects eight percent of the gross figures for the Casino Revenue Fund, which aids eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief.

The State Legislature may broaden the use of the money in the Casino Revenue Fund, following the passage of a referendum on that subject earlier this month.

During the first nine months of 1981, the casinos reported a combined gross win of $815,858,687. After deducting $12,430,958 for bad debts, the casinos paid a state tax of $64,273,871.

The gross figure should not be confused with profit. It is the amount won from the patrons before taxes, wages, fringe benefits, debt service and other expenses are deducted.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

DECEMBER 11, 1981

BEN BOROWSKY (609) 984-6749

The ninth casino hotel, Tropicana, opened fully on Thanksgiving Day and helped the Atlantic City casino gaming industry go over the $190 million mark in total taxes paid into the Casino Revenue Fund.

The eight per cent tax on gross casino revenue has resulted in $193.3 million dollars being paid to the State of New Jersey since the first casino opened in May, 1978.

The money collected goes into a dedicated fund to aid senior citizens and disabled persons in the form of property tax and utility bill relief. It is up to the State Legislature to decide how this money should be distributed. Last month, New Jersey voters approved a public referendum which will allow these funds to be used for other programs to aid eligible senior citizens and disabled persons, such as transportation and medical care.

The Atlantic City casinos reported gross revenue totals of $97,065,978 during November. This represents a daily average of $3,235,533 or if weighted by the fact that the Tropicana was operational for only five days in the month, the daily average rises to $3,614,920.

During November, the casinos paid a combined tax to the State's Casino Revenue Fund of $7,625,852.

There were two million dollar days reported in November, both at Caesars Boardwalk Regency, on Nov. 7 and 14.

The gross casino revenue totals represent what the casinos win from the patrons before deductions are made for salaries, fringe benefits, debt service and other expenses.

Dear Subscriber:

It is time to renew your subscription for copies of the monthly financial statements which the Atlantic City casino hotels must submit to the New Jersey Casino Control Commission.

The cost of this service for 1982 is $30.

Many of you are also interested in receiving the quarterly and annual reports which the casinos submit to the Commission.

At the request of some of you, we will now make it possible for you to order at one time the monthly, quarterly and annual reports for the whole year. The quarterly reports are priced at $4 each and the annual reports at $7 each.

Complete the attached order form and mail your check to the New Jersey Casino Control Commission. Please mail to my attention.

The monthly statements are due from the casinos by the 10th of the following month and are normally mailed to you within one working day.

The quarterly reports are due at the Commission 45 days after each of the first three quarters (March 31, June 30 and September 30). There is no fourth quarter report. The annual report is due 90 days after the end of the calendar year. The quarterly reports are about 12 to 14 pages while the annual reports run about 23 to 26 pages.

To order the full package for 1982 the total cost is $201. This includes $30 for the monthly statements, $63 (9 casinos x $7) for the 1981 annual reports which will be available sometime in April, and $108 for the three sets of quarterly reports (9 casinos x $4 x 3 times) which will be available in May, August and November.

Of course, you can order separately any portion of the package of reports. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (609) 984-6749.

Sincerely,

Ben A. Borowsky

NEW JERSEY PROPERTY OF
MARCH 1980
Trenton, N. J.

The 21-month old casino industry in New Jersey has topped the half-billion dollar mark in gross earnings. The three operating casinos in Atlantic City have grossed $538.9 million in casino revenues since Resorts International opened in May, 1978.

During February, Resorts International, Boardwalk Regency and Bally's Park Place posted higher win figures over the previous month even though there were two fewer days.

Resorts International won $15,786,922, compared to $15,375,616 in January. Boardwalk Regency recorded a win of $14,815,774 in February, compared to a January total of $14,214,314. Bally's Park Place won $10,247,840 in February, almost a million dollars more than the January total of $9,386,669.

The three casinos won a total of $40,850,536, making February the second best month in New Jersey's casino history. Only August, 1979, was a better month when Resorts International and Boardwalk Regency combined for a total of $42,265,890.

The daily averages for the three casinos in February were as follows: Resorts International, $544,377; Boardwalk Regency, $510,889 and Park Place, $353,374. The daily average for the New Jersey casino industry was $1,408,639.

The three casinos added $4.8 million to the state's Casino Revenue Fund, which aids senior citizens and disabled persons. This brings the total collected in this fund since the first casino opened to $54.5 million.

During February, Boardwalk Regency recorded a higher win figure from the table games than Resorts International, $9.6 million to $9.4 million. However, Resorts won $1.2 million more from its slot machines. The Resorts' total was almost one million dollars higher than its February, 1979 total of $14,819,620.
