Statement by Governor Murphy on New Jersey Gubernatorial Primary Election Results

Posted on - 06/10/2025

"After a hard-fought primary campaign, New Jersey voters have spoken, and they have selected Mikie Sherrill and Jack Ciattarelli as the Democratic and Republican nominees for Governor, respectively. I want to offer my congratulations to both Mikie and Jack for earning the trust and support of primary voters all across our state.

"I would also like to thank every candidate – on both sides of the aisle – who stepped up to run in this year's election and participate in our sacred democratic process.

"Over the next few months, as the general election ramps up, I know we will see a spirited campaign for Governor and all 80 Assembly seats. And I look forward to working with the winner of this November's election to ensure the smoothest possible transition for the next Governor.

"For the next seven months, our Administration is going to spend every minute we have left running through the tape to continue building the stronger, fairer, and more affordable New Jersey that the people of our state deserve."
