Governor Celebrates Historic Preservation at Brearley House in Lawrenceville

Governor Christie Whitman tomorrow will declare May 9th - 15th Historic Preservation Week in New Jersey and will highlight preservation efforts at the Brearley House in Lawrenceville. Lawrence Township is receiving a matching grant of over $360,000 from the NJ Historic Trust to help fund the project.

This week is also National Historic Preservation Week. The Governor will join eighth graders from Lawrence Middle School on an archeological tour of the Brearley House property. The students are in the process of an historical archaeological mission.
