

11. Cooperate in any medical and/or psychological examination or tests as directed by the assigned parole officer;

12. Participate in and successfully complete an appropriate community or residential counseling or treatment program as directed by the assigned parole officer;

13. Submit to drug or alcohol testing at any time as directed by the assigned parole officer;

14. Obtain the permission of the assigned parole officer prior to securing, accepting or engaging in any employment, business or volunteer activity and prior to a change of employment;

15. Notify promptly the assigned parole officer upon becoming unemployed;

16. Refrain from any contact (verbal, written or through a third party) with the victim(s) of the offense unless contact is authorized by the assigned parole officer;

17. Comply with any curfew established by the assigned parole officer;

18. Refrain from behavior which results in the issuance of a final restraining order pursuant to the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act, N.J.S.A. 2C:25-17 et seq.;

19. Refrain from any contact (written or otherwise) with any group, club, association or organization that engages in, promotes or encourages illegal or sexually deviant behavior;

20. Submit to a search conducted by a parole officer, without a warrant, of the offender's person, place of residence, vehicle or other real or personal property within the offender's control at any time a parole officer has a reasonable articulable basis to believe that the search will produce contraband or evidence that a condition of supervision has been violated, is being violated or is about to be violated and permit the confiscation of any contraband; and

21. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-123.88, the State Parole Board, on at least an annual basis, may administer a polygraph examination to all offenders serving a special sentence of community supervision for life. You shall submit to a polygraph examination as directed by the District Parole Supervisor.

(c) If the victim(s) of an offense specified in (a) above is a minor, an offender serving a special sentence of community supervision for life shall, in addition to the conditions specified in (b) above, be subject to the following conditions. The offender shall:

1. Refrain from initiating, establishing or maintaining contact with any minor; and

2. Refrain from attempting to initiate, establish or maintain contact with any minor; and

3. Refrain from residing with any minor without the prior approval of the assigned parole officer.

(d) The following circumstances are deemed exceptions to the conditions specified in (c) above:

1. When the minor is engaged in a lawful commercial or business activity, the offender may engage in the lawful commercial or business activity, provided the activity takes place in an area open to the public view;

2. When the minor is in the physical presence of his or her parent or legal guardian;

3. When the offender is present in a public area, as long as the offender is not associating with a minor, and the public area is not one frequented mainly or exclusively by minors; or

4. When the appropriate court may authorize contact with a minor.

(e) If the sentencing court determines that the conduct of the person convicted of an offense specified in (a) above was characterized by a pattern of repetitive and compulsive behavior and commits the offender to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center for a program of specialized treatment, the offender serving a special sentence of community supervision for life shall, in addition to the conditions specified in (b) and (c) above, participate in and successfully complete any program of counseling or therapy identified by the treatment staff of the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center.

(f) If the sentencing court determines that the conduct of the person convicted of an offense specified in (a) above was characterized by a pattern of repetitive and compulsive behavior and commits the offender to the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center and if upon release from confinement the appropriate county prosecutor determines pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:7-8 that the offender is a high risk to re-offend, and if the appropriate court affirms the determination of the county prosecutor, the offender serving a special sentence of community supervision for life shall, in addition to the conditions specified in (b), (c) and (e) above, submit every two years to an evaluation at the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center and participate in and successfully complete any program of counseling or therapy identified by treatment staff.

(g) If the sentencing court determines that the conduct of the person convicted of an offense specified in (a) above was characterized by a pattern of repetitive and compulsive behavior and if upon release from confinement the appropriate county prosecutor determines pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:7-8 that the offender is a high risk to re-offend, and if the appropriate court affirms the determination of the county prosecutor, the offender serving a special sentence of community supervision for life shall refrain from the use of alcohol, in addition to the conditions specified in (b), (c), (e) and (f) above.

(h) Prior to an offender, subject to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6.4, being released from custody at the expiration of the term of incarceration or being terminated from probation or parole supervision at the expiration of the term of probation or incarceration respectively, the appropriate Board panel shall issue a written certificate which shall be delivered to the offender by a designated representative of the Board.

(i) The certificate shall include the conditions of community supervision for life as specified in (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) above.

(j) At the time of delivery of the certificate, the conditions of community supervision for life shall be explained to the offender.

(k) The offender shall be required to acknowledge in writing receipt of the certificate. If the offender refuses to acknowledge in writing receipt of the certificate, the designated Board representative shall make a written record of the delivery of the certificate and the refusal of the offender to acknowledge receipt of the certificate.

(l) Additional special conditions may be imposed by the District Parole Supervisor, an Assistant District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the District Parole Supervisor when it is the opinion that such conditions would reduce the likelihood of recurrence of criminal behavior. The offender and the Board shall be given written notice upon the imposition of such conditions.

1. Upon notice being received by the Board, the appropriate Board panel shall review the offender's case and determine whether to vacate, modify or affirm the additional special condition(s).

2. The Board panel shall notify the District Parole Supervisor of its determination within three working days of receipt of notice of the imposition of the additional special condition(s).

3. The District Parole Supervisor shall notify the offender in writing of the determination of the Board panel and shall cause a written record of such notice to be made in the offender's case file.

4. A special condition shall not be deemed effective until affirmed by the appropriate Board panel.

(m) Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6.4(d), an offender who violates a condition of a special sentence of community supervision without good cause is guilty of a crime of the fourth degree.

(n) An offender shall remain under community supervision for life until such time as the appropriate court shall terminate the supervision status pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6.4(c).

(o) The search of an offender serving a special sentence of community supervision for life shall be conducted in accordance with N.J.A.C. 10A:72-6.

Case Note

Statute requiring persons subject to community supervision for life (CSL) be treated in accordance with laws and regulations pertaining to paroled persons, when read in conjunction with Parole Act, and CSL regulations, was not unconstitutionally vague, as it provided adequate notice that use of controlled dangerous substance (CDS) by defendant, who was subject to CSL, was prohibited, and defendant received full written notice of conditions of CSL, one of which proscribed use of a CDS. State v. Bond, 365 N.J.Super. 430, 839 A.2d 888.

10A:71-6.12 Parole supervision for life

(a) Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6.4(a), any enumerated offense committed on or after January 14, 2004, a court imposing sentence on a person who has been convicted of aggravated sexual assault, aggravated criminal sexual contact, kidnapping pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:13-1(c)2, engaging in sexual conduct which would impair or debase the morals of a child pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:24-4(a), endangering the welfare of a child pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:24-4(b)3, luring or an attempt to commit any of these offenses shall include, in addition to any sentence authorized by the Code of Criminal Justice, N.J.S.A. 2C:1-1 et seq., a special sentence of parole supervision for life.

(b) The special sentence of parole supervision for life shall commence pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6.4(b) immediately upon the offender's release from incarceration. If the offender is serving a sentence of incarceration for another offense at the time the offender completes the custodial portion of the sentence imposed on the present offense, the special sentence of parole supervision for life shall not commence until the offender is actually released from incarceration for the other offense.

(c) Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6.4(b), an offender sentenced to a special sentence of parole supervision for life shall remain in the legal custody of the Commissioner. The of-
