Trenton, NJ – Governor Chris Christie released the following statement on the passing of Pastor Ron Christian:

"Mary Pat and I were deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Pastor Ron Christian. Ron was a warm and compassionate friend. In 2012, Pastor Christian opened the doors of Christian Love Baptist Church where he hosted me for a town hall in the Irvington community he served, an act that was emblematic of the way he lived his life and the work he sought to do. He was committed to opening doors and always keeping people moving forward in their understanding and love for each other. Mary Pat and I send our thoughts and prayers to his family, his congregation, and all of his loved ones today."
