IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF JAMES LANG,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	DECISION
TOWNSHIP OF WOODBRIDGE,	:
MIDDLESEX COUNTY.	:

SYNOPSIS

The Board certified four tenure charges of conduct unbecoming against James Lang – a tenured teacher employed by the school district since 2003 – for alleged unprofessional and inappropriate comments toward students and fellow staff members over the course of several school years. The Board alleged, inter alia, that respondent exhibited unbecoming conduct when he: referred to a female student as "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho" and yelled "tap that" when she bent down; referred to another female student as "Jizzman"; and repeatedly made unwanted advances toward a female co-worker, subjecting her to distasteful sexual innuendos. The Board sought removal of the respondent from his tenured position.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the testimony of the respondent was less credible than that of the students and teachers presented by the Board; the honest and forthright testimony of the student witnesses revealed consistent stories of a raucous classroom environment rife with name-calling, sarcasm, and sexual innuendo; respondent's references to several female students as prostitutes and whores disrespected and demeaned these students in a personal way, and violated all standards of decency in relating to his students; the preponderance of credible evidence established that the respondent's conduct toward one of his co-workers, a female teacher, included sexual innuendo and direct sexual references to his desire to view her kissing another female staff member, as well as repeated unwanted invitations on Facebook and in person; teachers are required to exercise a high degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior as they are entrusted with the custody and care of children; respondent in this matter failed to uphold the implicit standards of good behavior expected of a teacher, as his remarks offended publicly accepted standards of decency. The ALJ concluded that the preponderance of the credible evidence established that the respondent committed unbecoming conduct and insubordination, and that the appropriate penalty is termination from his tenured employment.

Upon consideration and review of the full record of this matter, the Assistant Commissioner – to whom this matter has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34 – adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. Accordingly, the respondent was dismissed from his tenured position and a copy of this decision was forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for action as that body may deem appropriate.

Issued 1/13/14

The respondent's inappropriate conduct was not only directed at the students; his conduct towards another staff member, Valerie Joao, was similarly unacceptable, and culminated with an email that was sent to Ms. Joao after the administration specifically directed him to cease from having any contact with her. Further, the record as a whole indicates that respondent maintained a classroom atmosphere that was rampant with sexual innuendo and disrespect toward students, which is clearly not conducive to a productive learning environment. Although respondent appeared to express remorse concerning his treatment of Ms. Joao, he never admitted to the actual statements that he made to her or the distasteful sexual innuendos. In light of the respondent's failure to adequately accept responsibility for any of the problems described herein, it cannot be reasonably predicted that respondent will significantly change his attitude or style. As a result, the Commissioner finds that the respondent is unfit to discharge the duties and functions of his position as a teacher.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Respondent is hereby dismissed from his tenured position with the Woodbridge Township School District. This matter will be transmitted to the State Board of Examiners for action against respondent's certificate(s) as that body deems appropriate.

BEFORE TIFFANY M. WILLIAMS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about March 27, 2012, Dr. John A. Crowe, the superintendent of the Woodbridge Township School District, filed Sworn Tenure Charges and a Sworn Statement of Evidence against respondent, James Lang. The charges alleged that Lang, on multiple occasions, had engaged in unprofessional and inappropriate comments towards staff members Valerie Jaoa and Dr. Maria Pereira, as well as towards several students, including J.C., B.C., J.T., C.A., H.A., Y.C., A.S., K.M., J.K.,

M.B. and M.G. The charges allege that several of the comments to teachers and students were sexual in nature and unwanted. In summary form, the charges allege the following:

CHARGE I—Unbecoming and insubordinate conduct towards students

- Count 1—alleges that Lang made inappropriate comments to J.C., including calling her "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho" and a "dirty ho," and uttering the words "tap that" when she bent over to pick up a piece of paper.

- Count 2—alleges that Lang referred to J.T. as a prostitute and called her "Jizzman."

- Count 3—alleges that Lang told B.C. after she kicked another student that she was "giving him a show," and that Lang asked her to perform cartwheels in class and remarked, "Oh yeah," afterwards. Lang is also alleged to have failed to inform B.C. of the proper spelling of a website, which resulted in her accessing a pornographic site. Lang is alleged to have laughed when B.C. reported the site's content and to have repeatedly referenced the incident.

- Count 4—alleges that Lang referred to C.A. as a "ho."

- Count 5—alleges that Lang told H.A. that "her mouth was fast and on the weekends it runs extra fast."

- Count 6—alleges that Lang flirtatiously said to Y.C., "Oh, behave," after she danced excitedly in the class.

- Count 7—alleges that Lang used derogatory language in referring to A.S. as "slow."

- Count 8—alleges that Lang told K.M. that another student, J.L., would be "better off working the streets."

- Count 9—alleges that Lang referred to J.K. as a "kitty cat."

- Count 10—alleges that Lang referred to M.B. as a whore and suggested that she should wear less clothing on dress-down day.

- Count 11—alleges that Lang told M.G. that he wished that she were older, and that she "looked like she could work the corner."

- Count 12—alleges that Lang asked students during class whether they would be afraid if his snake were in their bed.

- Count 13—alleges that Lang told his students that he used to watch students shower at a former job at a community center.

CHARGE II—Unbecoming and insubordinate conduct towards staff (Dr. Pereira)

- Count 1—alleges that Lang told students that he saw Dr. Pereira out drinking and dancing.

- Count 2—alleges that Lang told students that something was wrong with Dr. Pereira's bladder because she went to the bathroom often.

CHARGE III—Unbecoming and insubordinate conduct towards staff (Valerie Joao)

- Count 1—alleges that Lang made comments expressing a desire to see Joao in her bathing suit because "her body must be so hot," and that Lang wished she was like Lady Gaga so that he could watch her "hook up" with another female teacher. Lang is alleged to have also referred to Joao as a "b*tch."

- Count 2—alleges that Lang made numerous unwanted advances, including sending Facebook friend requests and repeatedly asking Joao to go dancing.

CHARGE IV—Unbecoming and insubordinate conduct

- Lang is alleged to be unfit to serve in a position of educational leadership.

On March 28, 2012, the Board secretary served the respondent with the charges, through his legal representative. On April 19, 2012, the Board determined that the charges were sufficient to warrant Lang's dismissal. On or about April 23, 2012, the Sworn Tenure Charges were certified to the Commissioner of Education, together with a Certificate of Determination. Lang was suspended without pay for 120 days. On or about April 25, 2012, Lang filed an Answer to the Sworn Tenure Charges denying the allegations. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed as a contested case on April 26, 2012. A hearing was conducted over the course of six days and concluded on June 18, 2013[1]. After receiving post-hearing briefs and re-opening the record to receive several additional exhibits, I closed the record on October 28, 2013.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

James Lang is a graduate of Seton Hall University with a degree in education. He holds two State licenses in K–12 and certified elementary education K–8. Lang has been employed as a teacher in the Woodbridge Township school district since September 2003. He began his career as an English teacher at the Colonia Middle School and moved to the Woodbridge Middle School from 2004–2011. He has been at the Fords Middle School since the 2011–2012 school year. His performance evaluations have consistently been satisfactory.

[1] Hearings were conducted on January 23, 2013, January 24, 2013, May 8, 2013, June 18, 2013 and August 14, 2013

Allegations of Lang's inappropriate conduct towards students

The following testimony was presented regarding the Board's allegations of Lang's inappropriate conduct towards various students.

Glenn Lottman

Glenn Lottman is the principal at the Fords Middle School. In or around December 2011 he was made aware of complaints regarding James Lang. One of Lang's students, J.T., reported that Lang had called her inappropriate names. J.T. had reported the complaint to another teacher, as well. Another student, Y.C., met with Lottman for an unrelated meeting and shared that he was aware that several girls were going to make up stories about Lang. Y.C. indicated that the girls were upset that Lang was going to call their parents regarding their classroom behavior. Lottman advised Lang of the allegations later the same day, and Lang admitted that he had called several of the parents of students who had been misbehaving.

As Lottman returned to his office from a monthly leadership team meeting, he encountered two students, J.C. and B.C., who were waiting to see him. J.C. and B.C. complained that they were afraid to go to Lang's class because he was inappropriate. Vice principal Doug Sealander was present as well. The next day, Lottman interviewed several students from the class, including D.P. and Y.C., who both confirmed that they heard Lang say "dirty whore" and "Jizzman." Lottman also interviewed another student, D.C., whose story coincided with the other four students' version of the events. Lottman met with Y.C. again and asked about Y.C.'s former statement in which he indicated that he was aware that girls were going to make up allegations against Lang. Y.C. began to cry and admitted that he had lied previously about the girls fabricating stories about Lang.

On January 11, 2012, Lottman separated each student and asked them to make written statements regarding the allegations against Lang. Based on Lottman's review of the statements, he found that the statements were consistent with the oral versions that had been previously reported to him.

John Blasena

John Blasena is a social studies teacher at the Woodbridge Middle School. Near the end of the first marking period of the 2011–2012 school year, Blasena had a discussion with a student, K.M., about her grades in his class. During the discussion, Blasena asked K.M. about her grades in her other classes. K.M. revealed that she was struggling in language arts and that her teacher, Mr. Lang, had told her that she would be "better off working the streets." The next day, Blasena reported the incident to the school's guidance counselor, Mrs. Torrella, who in turn directed him to speak with Principal McLaughlin. Blasena drafted a memorandum memorializing the conversation with K.M. (P-1.)

M.G.

M.G. was a seventh-grade female student at the Woodbridge Middle School during the 2010–2011 school year, where she was Lang's student. M.G. received a "B" in Lang's class. She testified that close to the end of the 2011–2012 school year, students were signing her shirt during class. When Lang went to sign the back of her shirt he placed his hand on her stomach, which caused her to back away from him. M.G. described that Lang was seated at his desk and that she had been standing in front of him when he placed his hand on her abdomen area. M.G. also testified about comments that she heard Lang say in the classroom about another student, M.B. Lang said that M.B. was a "whore, thirteen and pregnant," and should wear less clothing on dress-down day. M.G. remembered that Lang made the comment when M.B. stopped by the classroom on her way to the bathroom, which she had done in the past on a regular basis. M.G. recalled that the incident occurred near the end of the school year, in approximately May or June. M.G. recalled that Lang was seated at his desk, which was approximately ten feet away from the doorway, when he made the comment.

M.G. testified to comments that Lang made about her in the classroom. Specifically, he said that she looked like she "could work on the corner." She recalled that Lang made the comment while she was at her desk, approximately halfway across the classroom from where his desk was located. She recalled that the tone of his voice was projected, but not loud. She did not respond to his comment. Other students tried to talk to her about the comment, but she did not report it initially. After speaking with other students, M.G. became uncomfortable with Lang's comments.

Finally, M.G. described that after she presented Lang with a birthday cake on behalf of the class, he indicated that he wished that she were older. M.G. reported the events after Principal McLaughlin approached her in February 2012. She had been reticent to report each incident as it occurred because she did not want to become involved in reporting them. She was aware that a classmate had spoken to McLaughlin about the events with Mr. Lang. M.G. drafted a written statement at McLaughlin's request. (P-3.)

J.C.

J.C. was a female student in Lang's class at the Fords Middle School during the 2011–2012 school year. J.C. testified that during class, she went to pick up trash that had missed the garbage can. The garbage can was located in the front of the room, in close proximity to where Lang stood. As she bent down, she heard Lang say, "tap that," which she interpreted to refer to "tapping" her backside. J.C. recalled that Lang was standing behind her as she bent over to pick up the trash. J.C. testified that she was disgusted and told Lang, "Don't say that to me." Lang replied that he didn't care how she felt, and then whispered, "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho." J.C. could not recall the exact date of the incident, but estimated it to have taken place between Thanksgiving and Christmas break. J.C. told two other students, B.C. and Y.C., about the incident, but was nervous about telling an adult. B.C. accompanied J.C. to report the incident to Mr. Lottman. J.C. wrote a statement memorializing her recollection of Lang's conduct. (P-4.) J.C. has never been disciplined by Lang in class. On cross-examination, J.C. explained that she had written Lang an apology note during the school year because she had called him an unpleasant name after he asked her, "Why do you look so ugly that way?" (P-4.)

J.T.

J.T. is a fourteen-year-old female student who had previously been a student in Lang's reading and writing class at Fords Middle School. J.T. testified that on several occasions throughout the year, Lang referred to her as "Jizzman," and had called her a "prostitute." Other students in the class had also referred to her as "Jizzman" in front of Lang. When Lang referred to J.T. as a prostitute, some boys in the class laughed and made jokes. J.T. believed that other students in the class heard, including N.M., N.L., S.S., H.A. and C.A. J.T. also recalled Lang telling another student, H.A., that her "mouth runs extra fast on the weekends." J.T. reported the incident to her parents and her homeroom teacher, Mrs. Bobel. (R-2.) She disclosed that she was uncomfortable telling her parents and went directly to her room afterwards because of the awkward nature of the subject. J.T. reported the incident to Mr. Lottman and drafted a statement memorializing her version of the events. (P-5.)

H.A.

H.A. is a fourteen-year-old ninth-grade female student who had been a student in Lang's class at Fords Middle School. H.A. testified that during class, Lang made a comment that her mouth runs faster on the weekends. She also heard Lang refer to J.T. as "Jizzman." H.A. described that Lang would often make inappropriate comments in class, and she became uncomfortable going to him for teaching assistance. H.A. reported the incident to Mr. Lottman and drafted a written statement. (P-6.) H.A. had never been disciplined by Lang in class.

B.C.

B.C. is a fourteen-year-old female who had previously been a student in Lang's language arts class at the Fords Middle School. B.C. testified that during class she asked Lang if she could do a cartwheel. Lang agreed and remarked, "Oooh, [B.]." The next day, Lang requested that B.C. perform another cartwheel. B.C. also mentioned that Lang told her about a website called NetZero that provided free internet access. B.C. did not know the correct spelling, and typed the numeral "0" rather than spelling out the word "zero." As a result, an inappropriate pornographic website appeared on her computer screen. B.C. closed her laptop upon seeing the website. B.C. also recalled on several occasions hearing Lang refer to another student as "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho," in front of the entire class. B.C. also recalled that during one class she jokingly lifted her leg to pretend to kick another student at the front of the room, and Lang remarked, "Oooh, [B.], you are giving me a show." B.C. later reported both incidents to Mr. Lottman and drafted a written statement. (P-7.) B.C. is friends with J.T., H.A. and J.C. B.C. had spoken with J.C. and another student in the bathroom on one occasion about reporting one of the incidents to Mr. Lottman prior to writing her statement. On cross-examination, B.C. revealed that she and another classmate had made a sign for Lang that was hanging in the classroom that stated, "Mr. Lang, Block 2, is awesome."

D.P.

D.P. is a male student who had been in the same class and heard Lang call J.C. a "dirty ho," and "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho." D.P. was angry and uncomfortable at hearing Lang's remarks. D.P. described what he perceived to be sexual tension in the classroom. D.P. also observed B.C.'s cartwheel and Lang's response of "Oooh, [B.]." Lang also asked B.C. to perform another cartwheel. D.P. heard Lang jokingly bring up the fact that H.A. had accessed a pornographic internet site accidentally when trying to access the NetZero website. Lang also referred to a female student as "slow," and referred to a male student as a "kitty." D.P. spoke up and told Lang that he should refrain from calling the female student "slow." In January 2012, D.P. reported his observations to Mr. Lottman. (P-10.) Prior to speaking to Mr. Lottman, D.P. had a discussion with several students in the class about reporting Lang's behavior. D.P. had been disciplined by Lang in December 2011 because Lang thought that D.P. was too interested in guns, and he had brought in a gun magazine to class. (R-4.) (R-25.) D.P. had told his mother about the "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho" comments and the cartwheel incidents.

Robert McLaughlin

Robert McLaughlin is the principal of the Woodbridge Middle School and was Lang's supervisor. Prior to becoming principal, he served as a teacher, athletic director, administrative assistant and vice principal. McLaughlin recalled meeting with John Blasena regarding Blasena's meetings with K.M. and M.G. Blasena disclosed that the students reported inappropriate comments made by Lang. In approximately February 2012, McLaughlin met with K.M. and M.G. separately and asked each to give written statements, which included specifics about what had occurred. McLaughlin also spoke with parents of each student. McLaughlin then submitted the students' statements to the Office of Personnel Services. He also confirmed that he was previously unaware of any complaints against Lang while serving at the Woodbridge Middle School.

Lang's denial of the allegations

Lang denied calling J.T. a prostitute or "Jizzman." He acknowledged having spoken with J.T.'s father about his concerns that she was disruptive, unprepared, always talking in class and not demonstrating her potential. Lang indicated that he heard other students in the class refer to her as Jizzman and that J.T. admitted that it was her nickname. Lang researched the word "Jizzman" in the urban dictionary and discovered that it refers to a male secretion.

Lang also denied referring to J.K. as a "kitty," but explained that J.K. would make purring noises in class. On one occasion, Lang asked sarcastically, "Is there a cat in the room?" Lang denied calling C.A. a "ho" and denied referring to J.C. as a "ho-ho." Lang denied that he said to H.A. that her "mouth runs fast and must run faster on the weekends." He explained that H.A. had been continually talking to J.T. during class and he warned her several times that he wanted to start class. Lang admitted that he sarcastically commented that she "talks so much here, she must talk twice as much on the weekend." Lang also denied asking B.C. to do cartwheels in class. Lang admitted that he wrote a reference to the website NetZero.com on the homework board and told B.C. verbally about the site, but denied knowing that the students would access anything inappropriate until B.C. told him.

Similarly, Lang denied referring to M.B. as "thirteen and pregnant," or stating that she should wear less clothing during dress-down day. Lang recalled that M.B. would stop by often, and that at times he had difficulty getting her to leave. He believes that it was possible that she wore a hoodie one day, and he asked her to take it off.

Lang denied telling M.G. that he wished that she were older, or that she looked like she could "work the corner." He denied touching her inappropriately while signing her t-shirt. Lang recalled signing the shirt in the back center while he was seated at his desk. The only physical contact that he recalled was putting his hand on the back of her shirt to secure it so that he could sign it.

N.V.G.

N.V.G. was a student in Lang's third-block English class at the Fords Middle School, where he was classmates with J.T. N.V.G. testified that he did not hear Lang call J.T. a prostitute or use the term "Jizzman."

N.N.

N.N. was a student in Lang's second-block English class at the Fords Middle School and was classmates with J.C. Similarly, N.N. did not hear Lang refer to J.C. as "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho" or a "ho." N.N. admitted that the classroom was typically rowdy and students did not typically do their work, but instead were using their cell phones. N.N. only missed a few days of school, and was otherwise regularly present in class.

A.A.

A.A. was a student in Lang's language arts class at the Woodbridge Middle School, where he was classmates with M.G. He was present when the birthday cake was brought in for Lang, and he did not hear Lang say that he wished M.G. were older. A.A. also indicated that he never heard Lang say that M.G. should wear less clothing or that she looked like she could work the corner. A.A.'s desk was in the back of the class, while M.G.'s desk was in the front of the class. From A.A.'s vantage point in the classroom, he was not able to hear Lang if Lang were seated at his desk in the front of the room. A.A. knows M.B. and had observed her outside of Lang's classroom. A.A.

did not hear Lang refer to M.B. or any student as a whore, or say that she was pregnant.

A review of Lang's performance evaluations revealed that his performance was satisfactory and he was recommended for reappointment annually. However, his 2005-2006 evaluation noted that he should broaden his student management skills. (R-6.) In 2007-2008, Pricipal James Sullivan again recommended that Lang become a more affective student manager and continue to improve his skills in the area. (R-8.)

Allegations of Lang's inappropriate conduct towards staff members

Valerie Joao has been a French teacher in the District since 2009. Initially, Joao shared a classroom with Lang. During the course of the year, Joao received several emails from Lang on her personal email account and several Facebook "friend requests," which she declined. In June 2010, Joao requested of the vice principal, Ms. Balog, that she not be required to share a classroom with Lang in the future because he had made several comments that made her uncomfortable. Specifically, Lang had said that he would "love to see her in a bikini," and that he wished that she were like Lady Gaga because he wanted to see her "make out" with the art teacher. Joao also reported these comments to Principal Sullivan and Patricia Rock, the District's affirmative action chair. Upon receipt of the complaint, Vice Principal Balog immediately moved Joao's classroom. After changing classrooms, Joao did not receive any further comments from Lang, but did receive an email from him on July 4, 2010, with an apology and other explanatory statements regarding his conduct. (P-27.)

Several members of the administration testified as to their conversations with Joao about her complaint against Lang. Vice principal Barbara Balog testified that Joao had requested not to share a room with Lang because he had made inappropriate comments about her clothing, called her a "daddy's girl," and pursued her as a friend on Facebook. Balog had requested that Sullivan and Rock be notified as well. She described Joao as uncomfortable to have to make the complaint, and said that she wanted to try to minimize the incident if possible. As a result of an investigation, Balog was aware that an affirmative action grievance was filed and that Lang was advised that he should have no further contact with Joao. (P-25.) Balog believed that Lang complied with all directives.

Principal James Sullivan testified that Balog had reported the complaint made by Joao. He interviewed Joao, who appeared nervous but reiterated that she did not want to share a room with Lang in the future because his comments had made her uncomfortable. Sullivan directed Lang not to contact Joao and to specifically refrain from making any similar comments in the future. Lang denied making the comments, but indicated that he understood the directive. Additionally, Glenn Lottman, the principal of the Fords Middle School, testified that he recalled that Joao's teaching schedule required her to split her time between Fords Middle School and Woodbridge Middle School. Accordingly, she had requested of him that she not interact with or cross paths with Lang during their schedules because she felt uncomfortable around him.

At the hearing, Lang denied making the comments to which Joao had testified. Specifically, he denied saying that she was a "daddy's girl," making any lesbian or Lady Gaga comments, or making any reference to how she would look in a bikini. Lang explained that in his interactions with Joao he had never gotten the impression that she was uncomfortable, and she had never requested that he leave her alone. He believed that their interactions had evolved into a professional friendship. He admitted sending her a Facebook friend request repeatedly because he thought that perhaps there had been a technological glitch after she had not initially responded. He also explained that he had sent her emails from his personal email account after having exchanged email addresses in the event that questions arose about the location of materials in their shared classroom. Lang explained that on a day that Joao had called out sick prior to a holiday weekend during which she travelled to Las Vegas, they had an email exchange in which Joao provided her cell phone number in order for Lang to vouch for her.

Lang described several other interactions with Joao. Lang admitted that he had asked Joao whether she was interested in hanging out socially, and specifically suggested going to a nightclub. Joao responded that she would be open to it, but that her schedule was very busy. On another occasion, Joao had invited him to a dinner, but he declined because he was unavailable. Lang acknowledged that he wanted Joao to be more responsive to his desire to further their friendship through his outreach.

On or about June 9, 2010, Lang had a confrontation with Joao in which Joao described another teacher as "a slutty b*tch," and indicated that she "hated her." Joao also mentioned that she hated Ms. Neary and asked if she was a "dyke." Lang felt uncomfortable, but revealed to Joao that Neary had made a comment about another teacher, whom he described as smelling like "dirty diapers."

Later in his testimony, Lang described that he had mentioned Lady Gaga to Joao in conversation because he was aware that she liked Lady Gaga. He also admitted having complimented her as she sang along with music that played during her prep time. Lang admitted that he complimented her on swimwear when she brought up the fact that she had brought "a new cute swim outfit." Lang also described having told Joao that he wrote her a poem, although he admitted that he had not, but he wanted to see her reaction upon hearing that he had written her a poem.

On June 14, 2010, Lang was advised of Joao's complaints during a meeting with Sullivan and Rock. He was aware that he was not supposed to have any further contact with Joao, but admitted contacting her by email on July 4, 2010. (P-27.) He described that he was very emotionally distraught about the incident because it should not have escalated. He sent the email because he needed a spiritual catharsis and closure because he is very religious. He recalled mentioning in the email that he had said many hurtful things that he regretted.

On cross-examination, Lang explained several aspects of his statements in the email. First, he explained that when he apologized, "if I judged you in any way," he meant that he believed that Joao felt judged that he did not permit her to use all of his belongings in the classroom and that he had made a negative comment about her friend (i.e., the "dirty diapers" comment). Next, Lang explained that when he "apologized for not treating her with dignity," he was referring to the fact that she wanted to occasionally use his classroom materials and he had been very protective of them, often asking her to meticulously replace them. Lang further explained that his reference to "apologiz[ing] for intruding on her personal life" was a reference to the fact that she had initiated several discussions about her personal life. Lang added that his reference to acting in an "irrational and "aggressive" manner was a reference to both his overreaction to the use of his classroom materials and his hyperactivity due to the diabetic medication that he had been taking during that time period. The medication made him jittery and caused irrational thoughts during that time period, and he had lost forty pounds due to stress. Lang admitted that during that time he had been emotionally unstable and sought treatment for depression. He confirmed that he took steps to avoid Joao as much as possible.

Dr. Maria Pereira is currently the principal of Woodbine Avenue elementary school in the township of Woodbridge. Prior to serving as principal, she served as the language arts supervisor for the District. During the 2003–2004 school year, Dr. Pereira served as a language arts teacher in the Woodbridge Middle School with Lang. Lang and Dr. Pereira shared a reading/writing workshop block of students. During Dr. Pereira's professional period she would pass Lang's classroom to go to the ladies restroom. A group of students inquired as to whether Dr. Pereira had a bladder infection. Upon further inquiry, the students revealed that Lang had told them that she had a bladder problem and should see a doctor because she used the bathroom at the same time every day. On another occasion, the students reported that Lang had told them that he had seen Dr. Pereira out dancing at a bar. The students also reported that they had heard from their peers that Lang asked the class whether they would be afraid if his snake were in their bed.

Dr. Pereira reported the incidents to her principal, James Sullivan, and expressed that she no longer wanted to share a block with him. Sullivan granted her request. Dr. Pereira also confronted Lang personally and requested that he not mention her name in his class again. Lang responded that he did not know what Dr. Pereira was talking about.

Credibility Findings

The relevant factual disputes that must be resolved with respect to this incident involve whether Lang made the comments alleged by Joao, Pereira and the students who testified. In order to resolve the inconsistencies, the credibility of the witnesses must be determined. Credibility contemplates an overall assessment of the story of a witness in light of its rationality, internal consistency, and the manner in which it "hangs together" with other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F. 2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). Inferences may be drawn concerning the witness's expression, tone of voice and demeanor. MacDonald v. Hudson Bus Transp. Co., 100 N.J. Super. 103 (App. Div. 1968). Additionally, the witness's interest in the outcome, motive or bias should be considered. A fact finder "is free to weigh the evidence and to reject the testimony of the witness . . . when it is contrary to circumstances given in evidence or contains inherent improbabilities or contradictions which alone or in connection with other circumstances in evidence excite suspicion as to its truth." In re Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 521–22 (1950). The choice of rejecting the testimony of a witness, in whole or in part, rests with the trier and finder of the facts and must simply be a reasonable one. Renan Realty Corp. v. Cmty. Affairs Dep't, 182 N.J. Super. 415, 421 (App. Div. 1981).

Having examined the evidence and observed the demeanor of all of the witnesses, I FIND that Joao's version of the events is more credible than Lang's version. First, I found Joao's demeanor and presentation as a witness to be credible and forthcoming. Her recitation of the incident was detailed, yet poignant, and did not deviate from the recollections of corroborating witnesses Sullivan, Balog and Lottman. Moreover, I found no credible evidence that Joao had any motive to lie or that she exhibited any bias. While Lang described an interaction days prior to her complaint where she made negative comments about other teachers, I do not conclude that this was sufficient to demonstrate bias—particularly where Lang admitted offering a listening ear and adding a negative comment about a teacher himself.

Additionally, Lang admitted that he had mentioned Lady Gaga and had complimented Joao about her swimwear. His version of the context of these comments is not believable. It defies logic that Joao would bring up the subject of swimwear and that Lang would blanketly compliment her swimwear, sight unseen, as he described. Based on my observations of the witnesses, Joao's vivid and detailed descriptions of Lang's comments, which were remarkable, were accurately and consistently repeated over the course of the investigation and these proceedings. I found no evidence of bias or contradiction.

Student Allegations

Further, I credit the testimony of students M.G., J.C., J.T., H.A., B.C. and D.P. regarding their observations of Lang and the comments that he made in the classroom. In evaluating each student's credibility individually, I found each student to be confident, cogent and credible. Their individual testimony was detailed and consistent with prior statements and corroborated by other witnesses. Overall, I found no evidence that would otherwise convince me that each student individually would fabricate the denigrating and offensive comments about themselves that were alleged. No compelling evidence of motive or bias was presented by Lang. In fact, the credible evidence revealed that the students liked aspects of Lang's class and Lang personally. Nonetheless, I do not find that their mixed sentiments were evidence of any improper motive in their live testimony.

Specifically, J.T. was credible and confident when she testified to Lang calling her "Jizzman" and a prostitute. Without hesitation, J.T. was able to name several other students in the class that she believed were present during times that Lang made these comments. Her credibility was bolstered by the fact that she disclosed the comments to her parents. Moreover, her statements were corroborated by H.A.'s credible testimony that she too heard Lang refer to J.T. as "Jizzman," and she was consistent when she reported the incident to Mr. Lottman. While N.V.G. testified that he did not hear these comments, I am not persuaded based on N.V.G.'s demeanor and testimony that he was confident that the statements could not have been uttered under the circumstances that J.T. and H.A. described.

Similarly, H.A.'s testimony was cogent and detailed about Lang's reference to her mouth running faster on the weekends. H.A.'s testimony was corroborated by J.T. and was consistent with her report to Mr. Lottman. While according to Lang, H.A. talked a lot in class and had been reported for such, I did not find that this lessened her credibility to this point. Lang admitted that he made a statement that was substantially similar to the one that H.A. reported. I find H.A.'s version of the exact words to be more credible than Lang's.

J.C. was a believable witness as she described the incident where Lang made the comments "tap that" and "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho." J.C. described in detail the attending circumstances and never wavered from her report of the nature of the statements that she heard. Two other students corroborated her testimony—D.P. and B.C.—each indicating that they personally heard the same words from Lang.[2] D.P. was very confident and forthright in his observations. He also admitted that Lang had recently called his parents because of in-class conduct. However, D.P. did not present himself as someone with a vendetta, but rather as an extremely mature student who was outraged at Lang's behavior. I credit D.P.'s observations that Lang called other students "slow" and "kitty." I specifically reject Lang's explanation that he asked whether there was a cat in the room as a denial that he called the student "kitty." Lang's statement caused me to further believe D.P.'s recollection that Lang called the same student "kitty," given Lang's proclivity towards sarcasm. I also credit D.P.'s observation of Lang coaxing B.C. to do cartwheels in class and making comments to the effect of, "Oooh, [B.]."

B.C. was very credible and cogent in her testimonial description of having elicited comments from Lang after having performed cartwheels and playfully kicked another student in class. Additionally, B.C. gave very detailed testimony about having accessed an inappropriate website after Lang directed her to a free-internet-access site. B.C. was consistent in her report of the incident to Mr. Lottman. The fact that B.C. also made a sign for Lang expressing that his second-block class was awesome did not erode her credibility in describing the negative aspects of her experience in the class. B.C. was also credible in corroborating that she heard Lang refer to J.C. as "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho."

[2] Although N.N. testified on Lang's behalf that he did not hear these comments, I do not find N.N. persuasive, in that he also described that the room was often rowdy and noisy.

Finally, M.G. exhibited excellent demeanor in relaying that Lang had told her that she looked like she could work the corner, and that he had touched her stomach while signing her shirt. M.G. gave details as to where she was standing and where Lang was positioned in the classroom, as well as the volume of his voice. In describing the comments that she heard Lang utter about M.B. and her recitation of Lang's comments after being presented the birthday cake, M.G. was equally confident, detailed and consistent. Her testimony was consistent with the prior report that she had made to Mr. McLaughlin. Her honesty at her initial reticence to report her teacher bolstered her credibility. I did not find A.A.'s testimony of not hearing the comments to undermine M.G.'s credibility. Although A.A. was credible, A.A. admitted that he sat in the back of the classroom and was not able to hear Lang if he were seated at his desk.

With respect to the totality of his testimony, I do not find Lang to be credible in his account of any of the incidents alleged, nor his denials of the allegations. Lang's overall demeanor was unusual, in that at times his demeanor appeared as if he were detached from reality and fabricating as each question progressed. He was often evasive, and at other times presented unresponsive dramatizations. The culmination of Lang's demeanor was demonstrated during cross-examination when he began to explain the meaning of the email statements that he had drafted to Joao on July 4, 2010. Lang's explanation as to why he was contacting Joao after having been forbidden by the school's administration was farcical. Based on my observations of his demeanor and my evaluation of the explanations that he gave, I determined that his testimony was untruthful. Specifically, I found that Lang's explanation that his references in the email to aggressive, intrusive and irrational behavior were based on interactions about classroom materials was fabricated. To the contrary, I credit the content of the email in its context to the credible allegations made by Joao—that Lang had been, in his own words, aggressive, irrational and intrusive into her personal life in an inappropriate manner as a professional colleague. Taking into account Lang's statements about his medical condition and mental state during the time period at issue as having been jittery, aggressive, and irrational, I am further inclined to discredit his version of the events with respect to each allegation against him. I am concerned that he never reported his medical difficulties to the administration during the time in which he was educating students—particularly where he described depression and irrational thoughts.

Moreover, in his denials of the allegations of the inappropriate student comments, I found the students' versions of the events to be more credible than his. In the instances of the most egregious name-calling, Lang denies using any of the language alleged. He does acknowledge making sarcastic remarks in several instances, including regarding H.A. "running her mouth," B.C. raising her leg and "giving a show," and the student who was making cat-like sounds. Lang acknowledges that several of these circumstances occurred, but his description was of sarcastic comments, while the students' descriptions were of offensive comments. Weighing Lang's credibility versus that of the students, when he has an interest in the outcome, I find the students to be more credible because they have no reason to fabricate the recitation of detailed derogatory language about themselves.

Accordingly, based on my evaluation of the credibility of the witnesses and my evaluation of the evidence, I resolve the inconsistent testimony[3] and FIND the following as FACT:

1. During a conversation with Joao, Lang commented that he would "love to see her in a bikini," and that he wished that she were like Lady Gaga because he wanted to see her "make out" with the art teacher.

2. Lang contacted Joao via email on July 4, 2010, after having been advised in the affirmative-action investigation not to have any further contact with her. (P-27.)

3. During class, Lang referred to M.G. as looking like she could "work the corner."

4. During class, Lang referred to a student who passed by his classroom, M.B., as a "whore, thirteen and pregnant."

5. During class, Lang referred to J.C. as "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho," and said "tap that" as she bent over to pick up a trash item.

[3] The portion of the factual recitation that is not disputed is FOUND as undisputed FACT.

6. During class, Lang referred to J.T. as "Jizzman," which he knows from the urban dictionary refers to a male secretion. Lang also called J.T. a prostitute during class.

7. During class, Lang told H.A. that her mouth "runs faster on the weekends."

8. During class, Lang encouraged B.C. to do cartwheels and commented, "Oooh, [B.]!" During another in-class incident, Lang remarked to B.C., after she playfully kicked a classmate, "Oooh, [B.], you are giving me a show."

9. During class, Lang told B.C. about a website that offered free internet access—NetZero. After attempting to access the site, B.C. accidentally accessed a pornographic site with a similar spelling and reported it to Lang. On several occasions afterwards, Lang jokingly referred to the incident.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In the State of New Jersey, a tenured teacher shall not be dismissed from his or her position or reduced in compensation "except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or other just cause." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. In tenure cases in which a teacher is alleged to have committed unbecoming conduct, the Board of Education has the burden of establishing the allegations supporting the charges by a preponderance of the evidence. In re Polk License Revocation, 90 N.J. 550, 560 (1982); In re Tenure Hearing of Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478 (App. Div. 1989); In re Tenure Hearing of Marrero, 97 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 104. The term "preponderance of the evidence" means "the greater weight of credible evidence in the case. It does not necessarily mean the evidence of the greater number of witnesses but means that evidence which carries the greater convincing power to our minds." State v. Lewis, 67 N.J. 47, 49 (1975).

In the New Jersey Supreme Court case of Karins v. Atlantic City, 152 N.J. 532, 554 (1998), the term "unbecoming conduct" is found to be a broadly defined, elastic term encompassing any conduct which has a tendency to destroy public respect for government employees and competence in the operation of public services. Indeed, in Laba v. Newark Board of Education, 23 N.J. 364, 384 (1957), the Court established that the touchstone of unbecoming conduct is the teaching staff member's fitness to discharge the duties and functions of his or her office or position. Moreover, it has been held that a finding of unbecoming conduct does not require a violation of any specific rule or regulation, but, rather, may be based primarily on an implicit standard of good behavior "which devolves upon one who stands in the public eye as an upholder of that which is morally and legally correct." In re Emmons, 63 N.J. Super. 136, 140 (App. Div. 1960).

According to the Commissioner of Education, teachers are professional employees "to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of . . . school children with the hope that this trust will result in the maximum educational growth and development of each individual child. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." In re Tenure Hearing of Thomas, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 2908-07 (October 11, 2007) (quoting In re Tenure Hearing of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302).

Based on the preponderance of the credible evidence, I CONCLUDE that Lang committed unbecoming and insubordinate conduct as alleged in Charge I by making inappropriate comments to students. The honest and forthright testimony of the student witnesses revealed consistent stories about the raucous classroom environment rife with sarcasm, name-calling and sexual innuendo. His particular references to several female students as prostitutes and whores disrespected and demeaned those students in the most personal way. Specifically, in commenting that M.G. could "work the corner," commenting that J.T. was a prostitute and calling her "Jizzman"—which he admitted can mean a male secretion—and referring to J.C. as "Jo-Jo the Ho-Ho" and a "dirty ho," and uttering "tap that" after she bent over, Lang violated all standards of decency in relating to his students. The reference to "tap that" constituted an inapproapriate refereance particulary becaous of the context of J.C. bending over and his comments following. As their teacher, Lang should have provided them with educational enrichment, academic support and confidence to pursue their life goals. Instead, his conduct contributed to a sexually demeaning environment.

Additionally, the preponderance of the evidence revealed that Lang made sarcastic references to students that were unbecoming and insubordinate. In referring to A.S. as "slow," and to J.K. as "kitty," Lang demeaned each student. As a professional and a leader in the classroom, Lang should have called each student by their proper names at all times. Similarly, Lang demeaned J.C. by commenting, after her in-class cartwheel, that she was "giving him a show" and "Oh yeah." While Lang may have merely intended to demonstrate sarcasm, the impact of his actions was to demean each student through his sarcastic commentary. Lang's sarcasm was misplaced in an educational environment designed to empower students.

While I believe that Lang's sarcasm reared its head in his comment that H.A.'s mouth "runs faster on the weekends," I do not find this remark to be demeaning or constitute unbecoming conduct absent corroborating evidence to support that it was meant as a sexual innuendo. Similarly, I did not find sufficient credible evidence to conclude that Lang made the comments from 2003–2004 regarding his snake in their beds or watching students at a prior job shower. Accordingly, those aforementioned comments do not form the basis of the conclusions that Lang's conduct was unbecoming and insubordinate.

Further, I CONCLUDE that the preponderance of the credible evidence established that Lang's conduct towards staff member Valerie Joao was unbecoming and insubordinate, as alleged in Charge III. Joao credibly testified to the course of conversations between her and Lang, which contained sexual innuendo and direct sexual references to his desire to view her kissing another female staff member. Lang's references to Joao's body coupled with his repeated unwanted invitations on Facebook and in person created a tense and uncomfortable environment for Joao, as evidenced by her request to no longer share a room block with Lang.

However, the preponderance of the credible evidence did not establish that Lang's conduct was unbecoming towards Dr. Pereira because of the lack of direct witness testimony to that point. Dr. Pereira credibly testified to what her students told her in 2003–2004, but her testimony constituted uncorroborated hearsay, which cannot be relied upon to make a finding. Nonetheless, I found Dr. Pereira credible in her testimony that the report of the comments prompted her to request not to share a room block with Lang. Despite her credible testimony that she had seen Lang out the prior Friday at a bar and that she used the ladies room daily, the ultimate determination as to whether Lang made the elleged comment rests upon uncorrobated hearsay. N.J.A.C.1:1-15.5(b). Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the allegations in Charge II cannot be sustained.

Having found Lang to have committed insubordinate and unbecoming conduct, I further CONCLUDE that the appropriate penalty is termination of his employment as a teacher, because of the nature of the violations and the pattern of misconduct that they established. Based on the content and nature of the demeaning remarks that Lang made to numerous students, he is not fit to lead in an educational institution among moldable young minds. The grotesque and sexual nature of referring to middle school students as whores is inexcusable. The totality of the sexually inappropriate comments and the sarcastic comments that were not sexually tinged compels the result that Lang cease teaching students.

In evaluating the appropriateness of dismissal, the teacher's lack of a prior disciplinary record, present attitude, and the effect of such conduct on the maintenance of discipline among students and staff are prevailing factors. In re King, EDU 4241-00, Final Decision (February 25, 2002), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. Admittedly, Lang has no prior disciplinary record and a generally positive reputation. Lang's students that testified against him had some positive things to say about certain aspects of the class—as evidenced by having him sign their shirts at the end of the year, making him signs and bringing him a birthday cake. However, popularity alone cannot save Lang's position. His missteps were grave and detrimental to the development of the students who were the recipients of his remarks, as well as the students who overheard the remarks. I find it compelling that several of the student witnesses corroborated the comments that were made against other students. Lang's comments were not made in a vacuum and will have an impact that will continue beyond this case. The only just and fair mitigation of the damaging legacy that Lang has left is to terminate his employment as a teacher in the District.

ORDER

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner – a tenured physical education teacher employed in respondent's school district since 2002 – appealed the determination of the respondent Board to withhold his 2010-2011 salary increment, alleging that the respondent denied him the increment to which he was entitled pursuant to the negotiated salary guide between the Jersey City Education Association and the Board. Petitioner argued that the Board's decision to withhold his increment was arbitrary and capricious because the Board did not have information sufficient to permit an informed decision, and never allowed him the opportunity to demonstrate improvement. Respondent contended that petitioner's 2010-2011 increment was withheld for good cause pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioner bears the burden of proving that the withholding of his increment was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; petitioner's increment was withheld based on several performance evaluations; credible testimony at hearing supported the respondent's determination that petitioner's classroom instruction during the year in question was lacking, particularly in pedagogical skills; and petitioner's contention that his problems stemmed in part from a lack of curriculum materials was without merit. The ALJ concluded that the Board's action in withholding petitioner's 2010-2011 increment was reasonable given his classroom performance during the period in question. Accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon independent review and consideration, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board's decision to withhold petitioner's increment was not arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable; accordingly, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

Before the Commissioner is a challenge to the respondent Board of Education's decision to withhold petitioner's increment for the 2011-2012 school year. Petitioner claims that the withholding of his increment was improper because respondent did not have sufficient information to make an informed decision about his performance, because he was not given an opportunity to make progress, and because the respondent did not follow up to see if his performance had improved. Upon review of the record and Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this case.

Petitioner's supervisor, Jacalyn Kaszuba – who served as respondent's district health education supervisor during the relevant time period – testified for respondent; petitioner testified on his own behalf. Reports of classroom observations of petitioner by Kaszuba, and by the principal and vice-principal of the school in which petitioner teaches, were entered into evidence, as well as written evaluations and other documents identifying the efforts of petitioner's supervisors to help him with his teaching skills.

The referenced documents and Kaszuba's testimony indicate that multiple school administrators observed deficiencies, not in petitioner's knowledge of subject matter, but in his pedagogical skills. Those skills are crucial to the delivery to students of the knowledge a teacher is employed to impart. While three different supervisors met periodically with petitioner throughout the 2010-2011 school year and discussed the pedagogical issues with him, the same deficiencies continued through the end of the year.

The documents and testimony also make it clear that: respondent had sufficient information to draw conclusions about petitioner's performance in the 2010-2011 school year; petitioner received regular consultations, feedback and advice from various school administrators; and that it was petitioner who did not take the opportunity to improve. Thus, the Commissioner concludes that in the year in question, petitioner did not earn an increment – which has been defined as a "reward only [for] those who have contributed to the educational process thereby encouraging high standards of performance." Bd. Of Educ. v. Bernards Twp. Educ. Ass'n, , 79 N.J. 311, 321 (1979). Accordingly, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's finding that petitioner failed to meet his burden to show that respondent acted arbitrarily or capriciously in withholding an increment, and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this case. The petition is dismissed.

The hearing was rescheduled for October 22, 2012. Respondent requested an adjournment due to counsel's travel out of the country. The matter was rescheduled for November 7, 2012, which was adjourned due to Hurricane Sandy. The matter was rescheduled for March 18, 2013. The hearing was adjourned at the request of petitioner's counsel due to a conflict with a trial in Superior Court and was rescheduled and held on September 30, 2013.

3. Lopez was hired by the District, as a physical education teacher, effective September 1, 2002.

4. On or about October 29, 2010, Lopez received a Formative Observation report dated October 25, 2010, wherein the evaluator, Jacalyn Kaszuba, health education supervisor, gave Lopez an overall rating of "NI" or "Needs Improvement" in Planning and Preparation, Students and Learning, Instruction, and the Classroom Environment. (R-5).

5. On or about February 28, 2011, Lopez received a Formative Observation report dated February 24, 2011, wherein the evaluator, Doris Fuentes, vice principal of Dickinson High School, gave Lopez an overall rating of "U" or "Unsatisfactory" in the Classroom Environment. 7. On or about June 16, 2011, Lopez received a Summative Evaluation and Professional Development Plan dated June 9, 2011, wherein the evaluator, Arlene Farrell, principal of Dickinson High School, gave Lopez an overall rating of "NI" or "Needs Improvement" in Planning and Preparation, Students and Learning, Instruction, and the Classroom Environment. (R-10.)

8. In the June 9, 2011, Professional Development Plan, Ms. Farrell recommended the withholding of Lopez's increment. (Ibid.)

9. By letter dated August 24, 2011, Lopez received notification from the District that his increment was being withheld for the 2011-2012 school year based on performance. (R-11.)

SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY

Jacalyn Kaszuba

Jackalyn Kaszuba worked for the Jersey City Board of Education for thirty-seven years. She retired in September 2012, after spending the last seven years as the District Supervisor of Health Education. In that capacity, she was responsible for ensuring that the curriculum was written according to State standards, supervising teachers from kindergarten to the twelfth grade, professional development, and mini-workshops/morning meetings. Supervising teachers includes providing "support" through 10-20 minute in-class observations. The amount of time that she can spend in a classroom is limited by the union contract. Kaszuba was also responsible for writing teacher-improvement plans. Kaszuba testified that Lopez was placed in Dickinson High School which is one of forty-two schools that she supervises. In 2010, she supervised him when he taught health education.

Kaszuba testified that the District's evaluation process includes her giving teachers three "supports" per year. A "support" is a meeting with the teacher before the formal evaluation which gives the teacher an idea of what will be expected during the evaluation–the Pre-Observation Conference Form (R-9) is reviewed. A "support" is also provided when an evaluator provides their comments of their evaluation through the Record of Support Activities. Kaszuba conducted one such "support" on September 9, 2010. (R-1.) This activity was the result of her observing Lopez in the classroom for 25 minutes.

Kaszuba testified that she observed Lopez in class for 20 minutes and provided another "support" on September 23, 2010. (R-2.) Kaszuba observed Lopez for "a couple of minutes" and provided a "support" on October 22, 2010. (R-4.) On March 17, 2011, she observed Lopez for an hour and provided another "support." (R-7.) In three of the four Record of Support Activities, Kaszuba noted in the "Suggestions for Teacher" section that Lopez needs to improve his use of the curriculum. Also, poor classroom management was a common theme in her "observations" or in the "suggestions" sections of the reports. In the March 17, 2011, report, the only "observation" that Kaszuba made was "teacher has received 2 unsatisfactory evaluations."

Kaszuba testified about other deficiencies in Lopez's performance, including, but was not limited to: failure to engage all of the students in the class activity; lack of planning; and no differentiation for student's learning style. She noted that Lopez could have used certain teaching techniques such as: "classroom rules" (general classroom rules developed by both the students and teacher); "1-mic" (a rule that only one person speaks at a time); "word wall" (placing new words on a "wall" for students to define); use of "facilitating questions" (a tool used to engage student participation); and use of teacher comments on work kept in students' folders – Kaszuba noted the absence of teacher comments but acknowledged that she did not review more than 3 or 4 student folders. She stated that Lopez did attempt to refocus students who were not fully engaged in classroom activities. Kaszuba noted that Lopez did not offer any rebuttal or challenge any of his evaluations.

Kaszuba also provided "supports" through group meetings with the entire health staff from 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. These "supports" were considered "mini-workshops" or professional development meetings. Kaszuba conducted one such mini-workshop on October 22, 2010, which Lopez attended. (R-3.) The second and last mini-workshop for the 2010-2011 school year was held on January 6, 2011, which Lopez did not attend. (R-6.) Kaszuba noted that the last agenda item for each of these meetings is "Comments/Questions" and Lopez never asked any questions or made comments. It should also be noted that Lopez's supervisor did not attend either of the mini-workshops.

Kaszuba worked with Lopez in his former school, Public School 39. He was a physical education teacher and Kaszuba was the acting principal. At the time that Lopez was transferred to Dickinson, she was aware that Lopez was a P.E. teacher and that he had no classroom experience. They discussed this during the first "support" meeting.

Kaszuba testified that the curriculum was completed before the school year began. The high school health education coordinator, Ms. Murdan, had responsibility for distributing it. Murdan also had support materials in her office that could have assisted Lopez. Kaszuba did not recall whether she instructed Murdan to provide those materials to Lopez. Kaszuba did not recall ever giving a copy of the curriculum to Lopez. She did not recall instructing anyone else to provide the materials to Lopez. Kaszuba did not know whether Lopez ever received the curriculum during the 2010-2011 school year.

Kaszuba testified that Lopez asked her if he was allowed to observe another health teacher in the high school. She advised Lopez that it was fine with her but that he had to get permission from his vice principal.

Delano A. Lopez

Delano Lopez received a Bachelor's Degree in education from Montclair State University. He has been employed by the Jersey City Board of Education since September 2002. He became certified as a teacher in 2003. He became tenured in 2005.

Lopez began his teaching career at P.S. 39 Elementary School (grades K-8). He was a physical education teacher in the gym. There was no health course offered at the elementary school level. As such, Lopez did not have any classroom experience until he was assigned to teach at Dickinson High School for the 2010-2011 school year.

Lopez testified that he had not requested the transfer but that he received a letter in August advising him of the transfer to Dickinson High School. The letter also advised him that he would be teaching P.E. but he learned that he would be teaching health on the first day of school when Department Supervisor Susan Murdan gave him his schedule. His schedule included ninth grade health I, tenth grade health careers I, and twelfth grade health IV; however, he did not receive any course materials or the curriculum on the first day of his assignment. On the second day of school he received textbooks, and the students arrived on the third day. Lopez testified that when he asked Murdan for course materials, she stated that she did not have materials for him and that she would have to contact Kaszuba.

Lopez testified that he used lesson ideas from his colleagues to get through the first few days. He said that he asked for copies of the curriculum from his colleagues, however, he does not recall which teachers he asked. He never received the curriculum materials from any of his colleagues. He did not have the curriculum for any of his classes on September 9, 2010, the date of "introductory" meeting before students came into the building. Lopez stated that he advised Kaszuba during the meeting that he did not have the curriculum. During the meeting she told him that if Murdan did not have it Kaszuba would make it available. He also sent several emails to Kaszuba requesting the curriculum.

Lopez testified that, during the September 9 meeting, when he asked Kaszuba why he was assigned to teach health, she stated that "if you're in the building you are certified to do it so that's what you'll do." Kaszuba further stated that she would provide "Blooms Taxonomy" to Lopez before the October mini-workshop. She did give him some ideas about how to write lesson plans. Lopez testified that he disagreed with Kaszuba's observations of his classroom management; he used the text books to plan class activities but he did not have the curriculum.

Lopez testified that on September 23, 2010, he still did not have the curriculum for any of his courses. He did not receive the curriculum for the ninth and twelfth grade classes until the end of the second marking period in January 2011. He used the same text book for both grades and attempted to simplify it for the ninth grade. He never received the curriculum for the tenth grade class.

Lopez testified that the health department met every Tuesday. Sometimes there were general discussions about school but not about support. He stated that Kaszuba told him about videos that were in the gym that he could use; however, he stated that they were not relevant to the lessons or activities in the textbook.

Lopez testified that he did not recall anything about the October 22, 2010, health department meeting.

Lopez testified that he asked Kaszuba if it was permissible for him to observe "excellent" teachers as a part of his "professional development." She agreed that this was a good idea. However, his principal did not allow him to do this. Lopez asked one of his colleagues to observe him in his classes during a period that she had off. The principal came into his classroom while the teacher was there and Lopez explained why the teacher was in his classroom. However, the principal "made the teacher leave."

Lopez testified that he disagreed with Kaszuba's observations on October 22, 2010. He felt that his students were engaged and believed that she doesn't understand the "modern student." He disagreed with the criticism about students talking in class; he did have classroom rules that were not initially posted.

Lopez testified that during the 20-30 minute meeting with Kaszuba on October 25, 2010, he advised her that he still did not have the curricula for his courses. She advised him to speak with his supervisor about it.

Lopez testified about the meeting that he had with Kaszuba on February 24, 2011. He opined that differences of opinion could result from him being new to teaching health in the high school and still "getting my feet under me." Lopez also acknowledged and conceded Kaszuba's comments about him not using a rubric. He stated that the reason was that he had not received a rubric to use. He stated that he asked two of his colleagues, including Ms. Costello, for help with developing a scoring rubric. He did not ask his supervisor or Kaszuba.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14, "[a]ny board of education may withhold, for inefficiency or other good cause, the employment increment, or the adjustment increment, or both, of any member in any year by a recorded roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board of education." Over fifty years ago, the Appellate Division explained that pursuant to this standard, "[t]he only question open for review by the Commissioner would be whether the Board had a reasonable basis for its factual conclusion." Kopera v. Bd. of Educ. of W. Orange, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 295 (App. Div. 1960). Specifically, the Commissioner must determine > (1) whether the underlying facts were as those who made the evaluation claimed, and (2) whether it was unreasonable for them to conclude as they did upon those facts, bearing in mind that they were experts, admittedly without bias or prejudice, and closely familiar with the mise en scene; and that the burden of proving unreasonableness is upon the appellant.

Furthermore, a board of education's decision to award a salary increment is "dependent upon an evaluation of the quality of the services which the teacher has rendered. The purpose of the statute is thus to reward only those who have contributed to the educational process thereby encouraging high standards of performance." Bd. of Educ. v. Bernards Twp. Educ. Ass'n, 79 N.J. 311, 321 (1979).

In the present case, Lopez concedes that "[t]here are not too many cases where a board's decision to withhold an increment was reversed by the Commissioner." (Pet'r's Br. at 11.)[1] However, the Commissioner has repeatedly rejected Initial Decisions that restore increments. See Andino v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of Jersey objective, organizing activities to match the objective of the lesson, and motivating and engaging students in the classroom activities." Id. at *30. The Commissioner agreed, and concluded that "it is undeniable that, on two separate occasions during the school year, petitioner's performance was found to be below that considered acceptable for an elementary teacher in the District." Id. at *31. The Commissioner explained that her negative evaluations "go to the very core of her job as a teacher, irrespective of the grade she is responsible for instructing." Ibid. Finally, the Commissioner concluded that the record did not support the ALJ's conclusion that the "evaluation was based on criteria, standards, or 'new techniques' of which [the teacher] was unaware." Ibid.

In that same case, the ALJ rejected similar arguments by another teacher, and the Commissioner adopted that part of the Initial Decision. See Id. at *30. The teacher argued "that she had been a Basic Skills reading teacher for ten years. She also had taught the second grade about twelve or fourteen years prior to becoming a Basic Skills teacher." Andino, supra, EDU 9801-95, Initial Decision at *18. However, "due to budget cuts and her experience as a regular second grade classroom teacher, Principal Walker advised her that she would be assigned to a regular second-grade class in September 1994." Ibid. The teacher "claimed that she was not given any instructional materials until two days after school started. She admitted, however, that she did not ask for the curriculum guide when she left for the summer." Id. at *18-19. Moreover, the teacher "blamed the problems noted in Principal Walker's evaluation on the classified students whom she claimed were disruptive." Id. at *19. The ALJ rejected these arguments, and reasoned that the teacher "knew in June 1994 that she would be teaching the second grade in September 1994. She made no effort whatsoever to prepare herself over the summer to teach this class." Ibid. Finally, as a basic skills teacher, she "should have known how to handle classified students and students who were below grade level." Ibid.

In Moore, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's decision to restore an increment, and noted "that in reaching her conclusion, the ALJ effectively shifted the burden of proof from petitioner to the District." Moore, supra, EDU 9909-00 at *3. Specifically the ALJ

> 1) faulted District evaluators for failing to support their statements regarding Core Curriculum Content Standards and State mandates with documents at hearing, while making no comparable demand on petitioner; 2) required the District to present affirmative evidence that it had given individual teachers specific instruction as to what was expected of them by way of lesson plans, while ignoring undisputed evidence that general instructions and models were available to all teachers in the district; 3) sought proof from the District that, prior to the evaluations in question, petitioner had been specifically instructed to change her lesson plan format and had further been offered suggestions for improvement, ignoring the fact that the areas of need identified in petitioner's January 2000 evaluation remained uncorrected at the time of her subsequent evaluation in May; 4) expected the District to explicate precisely how and by whom the final decision to withhold petitioner's increment was made, notwithstanding the signatures of the Principal and Vice Principal - both of whom had evaluated petitioner - on the summative evaluation document recommending withholding (R-3) and the recognition that any withholding must ultimately be directed by the State District Superintendent, as it was in this instance (R-4); and 5) favored petitioner in matters where her testimony was deemed as credible as that of District's witnesses, rather than giving the benefit of equipoise to the District, as the burden of proof properly demanded. In short, the ALJ's analysis required the District to justify its action, rather than requiring petitioner to prove its arbitrariness.

Moreover, the Commission rejected the Initial Decision because "the ALJ made numerous substitutions of her own judgment for that of District evaluators and the State Superintendent." Id. at *4. Such impermissible opinions included in the ALJ's conclusion that "contrary to the opinion of evaluators, petitioner's lesson plans were sufficiently detailed, and that they comported with District requirements because the District offered no evidence of a specific written mandate for use of particular techniques on a daily or other time-specific basis." Ibid. Similarly, the ALJ impermissibly concluded "that because petitioner's ratings overall were generally satisfactory or 'needing some improvement,' withholding of increment was not

In Andino, one teacher argued that > she had been transferred to the first grade only a few days before Supervisor Ricci evaluated her on March 16, 1995. The students in this class were disruptive, they had low comprehension and they were behind other first graders. In fact, the Principal assigned [the teacher] to this class because of her experience in teaching the first grade and because he knew that she could get these students to grade level. The problem was, however, that Supervisor Ricci had given a workshop on new techniques to be used by the first grade teachers and [the teacher] had not attended it because she was still teaching the third grade. Thus, [the teacher] was unfamiliar with those techniques at the time Supervisor Ricci evaluated her. [The teacher] later attended workshops and changed her teaching methods.

> [Andino, supra, EDU 9801-95 at *14-15.]

In support of her position, the ALJ concluded that

> Although the District has the authority to establish the criteria by which it evaluates the performance of a teacher, it is unreasonable to use criteria with which the teacher is unfamiliar and has received no training. In Ms. Stoney's case, Supervisor Ricci evaluated her using techniques with which Ms. Stoney was unfamiliar. After the evaluation, Ms. Stoney attended workshops and changed her teaching methods. However, she was never re-evaluated to see if her performance thereafter was satisfactory.

However, the Commissioner reversed that portion of the Initial Decision. Andino, supra, EDU 9801-95, Final Decision at *31. In exceptions, the District argued that "change in elementary grade — from third to first grade should not affect the basic elements rightfully expected of any teacher, such as, planning a lesson with an warranted on balance, preferring [the teacher's] mechanistic approach to the District's individualized weighing of factors and contexts." Ibid.

In Gnatt v. Board of Education of the Manalapan-Englishtown Regional School District, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 589, 592-94, ALJ Law and the Commissioner rejected a teacher's argument that her increment should be restored because the district did not timely provide a curriculum. There, a veteran teacher who had previously taught elementary grades requested a transfer to another school after an extended leave of absence. Id. at 590. She appealed the denial of her increment at the end of that school year, and contended, inter alia, that while she had previously taught second grade, "when she was assigned as a reading teacher at the Pine Brook School commencing in September 1990, she was assigned to teach seventh and eighth grade pupils." Id. at 592. She asserted that "[w]hen she arrived at Pine Brook prior to the opening of the school year, petitioner located the textbooks in the classroom, however, there was no information about the reading curriculum provided nor was there a class list of pupils assigned to her various classes." Ibid. Notably, ALJ Law did not address this argument in his findings of fact or his conclusion of law. See Id. at 593-94. However, he concluded that "[t]he facts in the instant matter clearly demonstrate that [the teacher] had, among other things, difficulty with classroom management which interfered with the teaching-learning process." Id. at 594. Moreover, "[t]he overall assessment of [the teacher's] performance for the 1990-91 school year demonstrates that petitioner did not meet the expectations or standards of excellence required by the Board in her assignment as reading teacher for the 1990-91 school year." Ibid. Accordingly, ALJ Law concluded that "the Board had a reasonable basis for its action to withhold petitioner's employment and/or adjustment increment for the 1991-92 school year," and that the teacher "failed to meet her burden of proof, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the Board's action was unreasonable, arbitrary and/or capricious." Ibid.

Lopez only cites two unpublished administrative cases, both nearly thirty years old, which are distinguishable. (See Pet'r's Br. at 11-12.) First, Lopez cites Carney v. Freehold Regional High School Board of Education, EDU 6356-83, Initial Decision, (June 14, 1984), adopted, Comm'r. (July 25, 1984), affirmed, State Board (February 6, 1984), affirmed, Appellate Division (November 8, 1985).[2] However, the undersigned disagrees with Lopez mischaracterization of the ALJ's conclusions. (See Pet'r's Br. at 12.) Lopez writes that ALJ Duncan "determined that an increment can be withheld only when the board has information sufficient enough to permit an informed decision and the employee has been given advance notice of his or her deficiencies and an opportunity to correct them." Ibid. In fact, ALJ Duncan articulated the proper test to determine whether increment withholding is proper as: "1) whether the underlying facts were as those who made the evaluation claimed, and 2) whether it was unreasonable for them to conclude as they did based upon those facts." Carney, supra, EDU 6356-83, Initial Decision at *15 (quoting Kopera, supra, 60 N.J. Super. at 295.)) ALJ Duncan determined that "[t]he ultimate problem herein, and the one which finally precludes a determination that the Board had a reasonable basis for its factual conclusions lies in the contents of the written evaluations which were presented to it." Carney, supra, EDU 6356-83 at *17. Specifically, the Board considered only two evaluations and a professional improvement plan, all written in the same month. Ibid. ALJ Duncan concluded that a "reasonably prudent reader" could not interpret the evaluations negatively and that "it was unreasonable for the Board to conclude from what was before them that the withholding of petitioner's increment was warranted." Id. at *17-18.

After reaching such conclusions, ALJ Duncan, admittedly, opines that an increment should not be withheld without fair notice to an employee, and the opportunity to improve. Ibid. However, she cites no authority for this proposition, and her conclusions are not predicated on such comments. See Ibid.; but see Rexach v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of Newark, EDU 12304-07, Initial Decision, (Januray 7, 2009), adopted, Comm'r. (February 23, 2009) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>

[2] The Initial Decision, Commissioner's decision, State Board's Decision, and Appellate Division decisions are all unpublished and unavailable online. See Ibid. The OAL library retained copies of the Initial Decision, Commissioner's decision, and Appellate Division decision, but does not have a copy of the State Board decision. See Ibid. Lopez did not attach a copy of either unpublished decision. (See Pet'r's Br.) Counsel may be reminded that citations to unpublished decision is governed by R. 1:36-3, which provides "[n]o unpublished opinion shall be cited to any court by counsel unless the court and all other parties are served with a copy of the opinion and of all contrary unpublished opinions known to counsel." Ibid. The Appellate Decision notes that the State Board affirmed the Commission, but does not provide a date or citation. Carney, supra, A-3190-84 (slip op. at 2). The date of the State Board decision included herein is taken from Lopez's brief. (See Pet'r's Br. at 11.)

(board's decision is arbitrary and capricious because contrary to the collective bargaining agreement, teacher was only evaluated once, her supervisor did not conduct that evaluation, the teacher was not given an opportunity to correct her deficiencies, the teacher's properly documented disability absences were counted against her, and the board's own witnesses conceded the teacher was treated unfairly).

In further reference to Carney, Lopez argues that "[t]here was evidence that the counselor's performance was unsatisfactory, but the board's action had been based solely on a single evaluation report, and the plain language of that report indicated that the counselor's performance was adequate." (Pet'r's Br. at 12.) However, while ALJ Duncan noted that a rational fact finder could "determine from all of the evidence presented at the hearing that [the counselor's] performance was unsatisfactory," she further noted that such determination was irrelevant, because "the Commissioner cannot properly redetermine herein for himself whether [the counselor] had, in fact, been unsatisfactory as a teaching staff member." Carney, supra, EDU 6356-83, Initial Decision at *17. Rather, the only question is whether the Board had a reasonable basis to withhold an increment. Ibid.

Lopez also cites D'Amico v. Board of Education of East Brunswick, EDU 5145-83, Initial Decision (June 18, 1984), adopted, Commissioner (July 31, 1984).[3] In D'Amico, ALJ Duncan reasoned

> [t]he cumulative effect of the extreme contrast between [the counselor's] evaluations from his previous principal and from [his current principal], the somewhat hostile and sarcastic manner in which [his current principal] testified about [the counselor], the vast differences between [a former supervisor's] perception of the [counselor's] professional performance for [the previous school year] and [his current principal's] perception, and [the current principal's inability to articulate exactly what specific things he had expected [the counselor] to do as an elementary guidance person that he wasn't doing, lead me to the distinct impression that a serious personality conflict existed between [his current principal] and [the counselor], and I conclude that that > conflict impaired [his current principal's] ability to fairly assess the petitioner's performance.

[3] Again, the Initial Decision and Commissioner's decision are unpublished and unavailable online. See Ibid. The OAL library retained copies of the Initial Decision and the Commissioner's decision. See Ibid. Lopez did not attach a copy of either unpublished decision. (See Pet'r's Br.)

Accordingly, she concluded "that the underlying facts were not as [the current principal] claimed them to be and since the Kopera test is two-pronged and the second part of the test requires an affirmative answer on the first part, there is no need to proceed with any further determination." Id. at *19. Specifically, "[s]ince the evaluator's conclusions upon which the Board relied are not supported by the evidence, [ALJ Duncan] concluded that [the Board] did not have a reasonable basis for withholding [the counselor's] increment . . . ." Ibid.

In the present case, Lopez argues that the District's decision was arbitrary, because > the purpose of a formal evaluation is an instrument by which a teacher can be guided as to what of his/her performance administration has concerns. Here there was absolutely no follow up by administration. [Lopez] submits to the [ALJ] that [the District] did not have information sufficient enough to permit an informed decision and the employee has been given an opportunity to correct them. In the instant matter, [Lopez] may very well have corrected the deficiencies but administration had no interest in determining whether or not such was the case and in any event never afforded him the opportunity to show his improvement.

To the extent Lopez suggests he was not given notice of his deficiencies, this argument is not supported by the facts, and irrelevant as a matter of law. As a matter of fact, Lopez received four informal "Supports" from Kaszuba, on September 9, 2010, September 23, 2010, October 22, 2010, and March 17, 2011, which clearly indicate deficiencies in his classroom management and lesson planning. (R-1, R-2, R-4, R-7.) He received three formal evaluations on October 25, 2010, February 24, 2011, and June 9, 2011, which further indicate problems with classroom management and lesson planning. (R-5, R-8, R-9.) Moreover, these formal evaluations are almost entirely negative and progressively worse, though addressing the very same issues. Unlike the Board in D'Amico, there is no evidence that a supervisor had a personality conflict with Lopez; here, three different administrators reached markedly similar conclusions. D'Amico, supra, EDU 5145-83, Initial Decision at *18. Unlike the Board in Carney, the District had an ample, and certainly reasonable, basis to reasonably conclude that Lopez's service did not merit the reward of an increment. See Carney, supra, EDU 6356-83, Initial Decision at *15. Finally, as a matter of law, whether Lopez had adequate notice is of questionable significance. Kopera, supra, 60 N.J. Super. at 295.

Alternatively, Lopez argues the District's decision was arbitrary because > Lopez was certified by the State to teach Health Education. He holds a joint certification in Physical Education and Health Education. However, in all of his experience as a teacher he never taught a Health Education course. When he was assigned to teach Health Education at [Dickenson] it is akin to having a lawyer who is certified by his license to practice in any field of the law but who had experience only in criminal defense to be asked to start practicing bankruptcy law, or securities law, or probate law. Certainly such a lawyer would be, as Lopez is [sic] in this instance, scored a needing improvement. Lopez did not receive an inordinate, or even many, unsatisfactory ratings. It is reasonable to surmise that such a lawyer would not be punished by a supervisor. It is equally reasonable to determine that Lopez should not be punished.

To the extent Lopez suggests he was unqualified to teach health because he had not taught health before, he undermines his own argument by conceding he is certified to teach this class. See Ibid. Despite his degree in education, his formal evaluations focus on his lack of pedagogical skills. (R-5, R-8, R-9.) In fact, his latter two evaluations begin by noting that Lopez "exhibited knowledge of the facts being presented but he demonstrated a lack of pedagogical skills," and "Lopez demonstrates knowledge of the curriculum content, but exhibits little knowledge of effective instructional techniques." (R-8, R-9.) Moreover, like the teacher in Andino, these deficiencies "go to the very core of [Lopez's] job as a teacher, irrespective of the grade [or subject he] is responsible for instructing." See Andino, supra, EDU 9801-95, Final Decision at *31.

These arguments do not address the relevant considerations in increment withholding cases. Specifically, "(1) whether the underlying facts were as those who made the evaluation claimed, and (2) whether it was unreasonable for them to conclude as they did upon those facts . . . " See Kopera, supra, 60 N.J. Super. at 295. Lopez does not appear to dispute the facts underlying the conclusions of the evaluations, or whether such facts warranted such conclusions. (See Pet'r's Br. at 11-14.) Rather, Lopez blames his negative performance on his purported inexperience and the failure of the District to properly support him. See Ibid. Indeed, his characterization of an increment withholding as "punishment" mischaracterizes the nature of an increment as a "reward only [for] those who have contributed to the educational process thereby encouraging high standards of performance." Bernards Twp. Educ. Ass'n, supra, 79 N.J. at 321.

Finally, to the extent that Lopez suggests that his deficiencies were predicated on his alleged failure to receive a curriculum, his argument fails as a matter of fact and law. See Andino, supra, EDU 9909-00, Initial Decision at *18. First, he concedes he received a curriculum in January, and does not explain why his deficiencies persisted after January. (Cf. Pet'r's Br. at 5; R-8, R-9.) Second, as a veteran teacher, Lopez should have been able to prepare himself for his change in assignment, and cannot merely blame the District's failure to promptly provide a curriculum for his numerous deficiencies. See Andino, supra, EDU 9909-00, Initial Decision at *18; Final Decision at *31.

CONCLUSION

After hearing the testimony and considering the other evidence submitted, I CONCLUDE that the District's decision to withhold Lopez's increment was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable due to its failure to provide a curriculum, because the only relevant inquiry is to determine (1) whether the underlying facts were as those who made the evaluation claimed, and (2) whether it was unreasonable for them to conclude as they did upon those facts. I CONCLUDE that there were sufficient underlying facts on which to base its determination. Even after petitioner received the curriculum materials in January 2011, his evaluations did not improve.

Accordingly, I ORDER that respondent's decision to withhold petitioner's salary increment was proper and is hereby AFFIRMED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner filed an appeal in July 2013 which sought to impose disciplinary action and mandatory policy education training on Thomas DeMaio, the principal of petitioner's former high school, in connection with DeMaio's actions which barred the petitioner from attending his senior prom on June 1, 2012. Petitioner had been among a group of approximately 25 students who arrived at the prom location in a mini-bus, and who were denied admission to the prom after DeMaio determined that the bus occupants had been using alcohol prior to arriving at the prom. Petitioner also sought reimbursement for his expenses related to the prom. The respondent filed a motion for summary decision, arguing that the petition was untimely filed and that the relief sought cannot be granted by the Commissioner.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the within dispute is now moot because the petitioner's prom occurred in June 2012; further, the relief sought by the petitioner is not within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner to order. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that the petition should be dismissed.

Upon full consideration, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

THOMAS DEMAIO, PRINCIPAL OF THE PASCACK VALLEY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL, BERGEN COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The instant appeal was precipitated by respondent's actions in barring petitioner from attending the June 1, 2012 school prom. The disciplinary action was, in turn, the result of respondent's discovery of evidence of alcohol usage by students on a minibus in which petitioner and others arrived for the prom. As it is undisputed that the experience of attending the prom cannot be restored, petitioner asks for reimbursement of prom expenses, and for training and discipline of respondent.

In the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) recommends dismissal of the petition on jurisdictional grounds. First, the ALJ points out that petitioner filed his appeal on July 19, 2013. This was over a year after the prom incident and, consequently, far outside the time allowed by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) for the filing of appeals to the Commissioner of Education. Second, the ALJ correctly advises that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to award consequential money damages of the nature that petitioner requests. Third, the ALJ rightly asserts that the Commissioner does not impose upon local school administrators the type of discipline which petitioner demands. A request for discipline or training of a school administrator is, rather, properly made to the superintendent or board of education of the relevant school district, i.e. the administrator's employer.

In sum, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this case. Accordingly, the petition is hereby dismissed.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Erik Tracy, filed an appeal seeking to impose disciplinary action and mandatory policy education training on Thomas DeMaio, principal of Pascack Valley Regional High School, in connection with DeMaio's actions in barring Tracy from his senior prom. The appeal was filed on July 19, 2013, and filed as a contested case with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on August 12, 2013. Prehearing status conferences were conducted on September 24, 2013, and October 8, 2013. During the October 8, 2013, conference, the petitioner, through his father, asked for an opportunity to obtain legal counsel prior to the scheduling of a hearing. To date, petitioner has not secured legal counsel and proceeds pro se. On September 30, 2013, DeMaio filed a motion for summary decision to which the petitioner filed a response on October 23, 2013.

The facts in this matter are undisputed. Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) and Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995), I CONCLUDE that there are no genuine issues of material fact and that this matter is ripe for summary decision.

On June 1, 2012, Tracy was a senior at Pascack Valley Regional High School. He prepared for his senior prom and arrived at the location at approximately 7:55 p.m., along with approximately twenty-five other students in a mini-bus. Tracy, along with other students on the bus, were denied admission to the prom because DeMaio had detected the smell of alcohol on the students and in several bottles discarded in the vehicle. DeMaio determined that Tracy and the other students on the bus had possessed and consumed alcohol prior to arriving at the prom. Tracy was not tested or medically treated for the consumption of alcohol. Tracy's parents were notified of the incident at approximately 9:00 p.m.

In support of summary decision, DeMaio argues that the matter was filed untimely and that the relief sought cannot be granted by the Commissioner of the Department of Education. DeMaio does not dispute Tracy's version of the events but argues that notwithstanding a determination of whether DeMaio followed policy, the matter must be dismissed because it is untimely and jurisdiction lacks to afford the remedy requested.

In opposition, Tracy argues that DeMaio failed to follow State law and the school's policy in handling instances of suspected alcohol use at school-sponsored events. Specifically, Tracy cited several policy citations and State statutes which uniformly require school officials to notify parents and seek medical treatment immediately for any students that are suspected to have consumed alcohol. Tracy contends that had DeMaio properly followed the policy, he may have discovered earlier that Tracy had not consumed alcohol—resulting in him not having missed his prom. Accordingly, Tracy demands that DeMaio be subject to discipline and training. Additionally, Tracy requests that his prom expenses be reimbursed.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Preliminarily, I am sensitive to the fact that this matter involves Tracy's concern that the unique experience of participating in his high school prom was taken away from him because DeMaio casted a wide net of accusation and did not follow required policies for suspected student alcohol use. Nonetheless, I CONCLUDE that this matter must be dismissed. As an initial matter, the locus of the dispute is moot because the petitioner's prom occurred in June 2012. As the petitioner acknowledged, the experience cannot be returned to him. It is unfortunate that the circumstances occurred in a manner that prevented him from seeking emergent relief prior to the prom, as customarily occurs in these matters. Nonetheless, the matter is now moot and is not ripe for adjudication.

Additionally, the relief sought by the petitioner is not within the jurisdiction of this court to order, nor in the power of the Commissioner himself to order. In the context of this administrative matter, the Commissioner, lacking equitable jurisdiction, does not afford the reimbursement of prom expenses nor direct the discipline of school administrators. Typically, in a matter involving denial to the prom, the Commissioner would afford the petitioner an opportunity to be heard on an emergent basis to determine whether the denial to the prom was just. Therefore, the allowable remedy would be a decision prior to the occurrence of the prom, that a petitioner is allowed admission. However, on these facts, the issue is moot since the prom occurred over a year ago. Accordingly, where resolution would not afford the remedy sought, it is only appropriate to summarily dismiss this matter for lack of jurisdiction.

ORDER

Based on the aforementioned, the matter is DISMISSED. It is so ORDERED.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Sidney A. Sayovitz, Esq., for respondent (Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP, attorneys)

BEFORE RONALD W. REBA, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner City of Asbury Park Board of Education challenges the decision of respondent Carol Morris, State monitor, that overrode the petitioner's decision to award a contract to Gregory Allen to serve as the district's superintendent of schools for the 2013–2014 school year. On December 6, 2013, petitioner filed a petition of appeal requesting emergent relief. The emergent-relief application was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on December 10, 2013. Oral argument was held on the emergent-relief application on December 18, 2013.

DISCUSSION

The authority to grant emergent relief is governed by the seminal case of Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). That case sets forth the standards that must be met for emergency relief to be granted. In order to prevail, the petitioner must demonstrate all of the following: (1) the petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted; (2) the legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled; (3) the petitioner has the likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and (4) when the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

At issue in this case is the award of a contract to Gregory Allen to serve as superintendent of schools in Asbury Park, and the decision of the State monitor to override the Board's decision. The position of the Board is that the State monitor has no authority to question the authority of the Board in its hiring practices, if the State monitor's concern is not related to a fiscal issue that she was appointed to monitor, and that it is solely the Board's prerogative to choose an individual to fill the superintendent's position without interference from the State monitor.

Petitioner cites N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-54, and asserts that the salary of the superintendent had already been decided upon and approved, and all that was left was the ministerial act of the Board, as a representative of the community, to select the applicant perceived to be the best qualified to be superintendent of schools.

Respondent also cites N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-54, as well as case law, in support of her position that the appointment of a superintendent was certainly fiscal in nature because of the salary concerns, as well as benefits and merit bonuses, and that she, as State monitor, exercised her duty to ensure that the superintendent position was well filled.

Morris's certification is replete with her concerns that the Board was not fulfilling its obligation to appoint the best candidate. For example, she pointed out that a superintendent search committee, which was paid $15,000, put forth a different candidate, who was ignored by the Board in favor of Mr. Allen, whom the search committee had placed low on its recommended list. Also, her own interview of Mr. Allen did not result in a conclusion on her part that he was the best candidate for the job.

It appears to me that the law may not be settled in this area, and that each party may be correct under certain factual scenarios. Testimony must be taken in order to arrive at findings of fact to which the applicable law may be applied. This cannot be done at this early state, and, accordingly, the request for emergent relief must be denied.

Petitioner claims that it will suffer irreparable harm if the emergent relief is not granted. However, other than an assertion that the Board's independence is somehow usurped by not allowing the immediate appointment, nothing has been presented showing that the quality of the education of the student body is somehow in peril, or that the Board is facing financial sanctions or other immediate similar problems if relief is not granted at this time. My review of the submissions by both parties reveals that an experienced and well respected acting superintendent has been serving without any complaints from the parties. Therefore, this argument must fail.

Petitioner's argument that the legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled, in that N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15 indicate that the Board has the right to "carry out all acts" for the proper conduct and maintenance of the public schools in the district, including appointment of the superintendent, has been challenged by the appointment of the State monitor and its statutory powers, and, therefore, as previously stated, the law is not settled and must be addressed in a full plenary hearing.

As to the requirement that the petitioner must demonstrate that it has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits on the underlying claim, petitioner argues that the fiscal monitor cannot interfere with matters that do not have a direct or substantial fiscal consequence. It continues that the State monitor's position is based on a flawed analysis of the authority to override the Board's decisions in personnel matters, such as the appointment of a superintendent. Regarding this position, I note that the State monitor has expressed great concerns over what can only be described as a very generous superintendent contract containing merit bonuses being awarded to a candidate that the search committee, as well as the State monitor, did not put at the top of the qualified-applicants list. It is argued by respondent that fiscal responsibility must be considered in the awarding of such a contract. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-54, the statute that provides for the appointment of a State monitor, clearly allows the monitor to intercede if, in her opinion, fiscal responsibility is not being exercised. Therefore, under what has been presented so far, I cannot find that petitioner would most likely prevail on the merits of its claim, and this argument must also fail at this juncture.

In discussing the last prong of the Crowe v. DeGioia test, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-55(b)(4) and (5) give the State monitor the authority and power to oversee all district staffing, including the ability to hire, promote and terminate employees, as well as the authority to override the Board of Education on any matter set forth in this subsection. Respondent argues that based on that law, she has total authority to oversee personnel matters, and petitioner is incorrect when it says that her oversight is limited to matters having direct or substantial fiscal consequences. She asserts that there is nothing in the enabling statute that limits her authority to matters having direct or substantial fiscal consequences.

Respondent further argues that as to the equities involved, it is a monitor's obligation to consider fiscal consequences, and disagreements with her decisions must be resolved in her favor. Granting of the relief requested by petitioner under the circumstances could cause a greater harm, because the action could result in a fiscal deficiency, which she is charged with preventing.

At this stage of the proceeding, I must agree that the appointment of an unqualified candidate to a long-term contract would not be in the best interest of Asbury Park and its educational system, and the potential harm of the appointment of the candidate chosen by the Board outweighs whatever harm the Board may suffer from being denied its choice.

For all of the reasons set forth above, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not met the burden of demonstrating its entitlement to emergent relief.

ORDER

I ORDER that petitioner's application for emergent relief is DENIED.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on January 14, 2011, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Mary Kate Cullinan, ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Mary Kate Cullinan v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10228-2010N, Agency Ref. No.:715-12/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows;

amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations, and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development ("LWD") in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 12,000.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 22,108.80.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through February 2, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 19,897.92. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Mary Kate Cullinan."

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $ 8,902.00 as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from September 1, 2010 to February 2, 2011 that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "Mary Kate Cullinan" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deduction since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to February 2, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Lauren Beth Hermann vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No. EDU-10189-2010N, Agency Reference No. 339-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $19,610.00, for the period from September 1, 2010 through December 7, 2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through December 7, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through December 7, 2010 was $7,800.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through December 7, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $9,849.00. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Lauren Beth Hermann".

5. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to December 7, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material.

This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

MARIA BARTOLOMEO,

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Michael T. Barrett, Esq. for petitioner (Bergman and Barrett, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 9, 2013 Decided: December 9, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 28, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 10, 2013 Decided: December 10, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on December 13, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

LARRY MORGAN,	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
Petitioner,	OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10228-2010 N
v.	AGENCY REF. No.: 664-11/10
ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.	SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Larry Morgan, ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Larry Morgan v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10228-2010N, Agency Ref. No.:664-11/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows;

This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations, and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development ("LWD") in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 6,000.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 9,468.83.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 19, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 8,521.95. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Larry Morgan."

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to November 19, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 21, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The petition was filed on behalf of sixteen school district teaching staff members.

As to nine of those petitioners, the parties have agreed to settlements and have prepared Settlement Agreements indicating the terms thereof, which are attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlements as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlements, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

These settlements fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolve the claims raised in the petition and are in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlements fully dispose of all issues in controversy and are consistent with the law.

5. The following petitioners have executed settlement agreements: Jane Colford, Adriana DeLaRosa, Nicole Kovacs, Janil Llano, Allison Mutchler, Diana Oviedo-Cruz, Catherine Simon, Kimberly Waugh, and James Villarino.

Six petitioners withdrew their claims, as reflected in letters forwarded by counsel. These petitioners include Theresa Mazza, Carla Borges, Melissa Floczak, Susan Kania, Anthony Santo, and Lorraine Gilbert.

The claims of the remaining petitioner, Helen Bufis, were dismissed via order dated August 1, 2012, after she failed to appear at a duly noticed hearing date.

I CONCLUDE that the settlement agreements meet the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlements should be approved. I approve the settlements and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms. In view of the withdrawal of the remaining claims, and the dismissal of the claims filed by Ms. Bufis, these proceedings are hereby concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. JANE COLFORD, Petitioner,	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
	OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10228-2010 N
	AGENCY REF. No.: 384-8/10
v.
ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,
	SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE
Respondent.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Jane Colford, ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Jane Colford v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10228-2010N, Agency Ref. No.:384-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows;

September 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations, and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development ("LWD") in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 3,240.00. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2011-2012 school year was $ 0.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 138,088.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner earned $105,829.00 from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2012 and that this amount shall be subtracted from the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner so that the remaining gross amount of back pay due to Petitioner is $32,259.00. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 29,033.10. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Jane Colford."

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $ 1,146.52 as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from September 1, 2010 to October 30, 2010 that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "Jane Colford" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deduction since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to June 30, 2012. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for two full years for the entire 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school year and that those years shall be treated as two full years of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year and 2011-2012 school years, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 14,580.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 21,719.26.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through March 17, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 19,547.33. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Janil Llano."

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $ 2,420.00 as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from September 1, 2010 to November 1, 2010 that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "Janil Llano" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deduction since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to March 17, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner earned $ 14,935.51 from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through January 2, 2011 and that this amount shall be subtracted from the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner so that remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner is $ 5,593.69. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 5,034.32. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Kimberly Waugh."

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to January 2, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, James Villarino, ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned James Villarino v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10228-2010N, Agency Ref. No.:384-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows;

This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations, and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development ("LWD") in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 6,600.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 9,493.83.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 19, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 8,544.45. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "James Villarino."

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to November 19, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 28, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

	: AGENCY REF. No.: 326-10/11
v.	:
ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,	:
	: SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE
Respondent.	:

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Margherita Martino-Avella, ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Marghertia Martino-Avella v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10228-2010N, Agency Ref. No.:326-10/11 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows;

amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations, and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development ("LWD") in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2011-2012 school year. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2011, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2011 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2011.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2011-2012 school year was $0.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $3,538.92.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2011 through September 12, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $3,185.03. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Margherita Martino-Avella."

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2011-2012 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2011 to September 12, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2011-2012 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2011-2012 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2011-2012 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2011-2012 school year or thereafter.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2011-2012 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that if has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

Record Closed: December 9, 2013 Decided: December 9, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on October 5, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefits reimbursed due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/20/2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The Parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from 09/01/2010.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulations of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of his/her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights he/she may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties, and all terms of the Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the Parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with laws of the State of New Jersey.

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 28, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Susan Hernandez ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Hernandez v Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No.: EDU 10573-2010N, Agency Docket No: 386-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefits reimbursed due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The Parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from 09/01/2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010 was $6,600.00.

3, The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $8,990.10.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010. This the final gross amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $8,990.10. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to Susan Hernandez.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from 09/01/2010 to 11/22/2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to, as applicable, sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent	: Agency Ref. No.: 391-8/10 : : SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Gail Bates ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Bates v Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No.: EDU-10563-100, Agency Docket No: 391-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the Parties agree as follows.

1. The Parties mutually agree that the Petitioner, a tenured teacher, is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $15,544.10, for the period from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefits reimbursed due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2012 through 11/21/2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The Parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from 09/01/2010.

3, The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $8,643.69.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from 09/01/2012 through 11/21/2010. This the final gross amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $8,643.69. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to Gail Bates.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period ~~from 09/01/2010 to 11/22/2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited~~ for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to, as applicable, sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising our of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This Release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or ~~any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future~~ employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulations of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of his/her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights he/she may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties, and all terms of the Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the Parties.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with laws of the State of New Jersey.

Record Closed: December 10, 2013 Decided: December 10, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on October 18, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Mindy Pistol, ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Mindy Pistol v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10228-2010N, Agency Ref. No.: 561-9/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows;

amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations, and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development ("LWD") in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 14,400.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 16,405.04.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through March 11, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 14,764.54. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Mindy Pistol."

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $ 5,878.76 as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from September 1, 2010 to March 11, 2011 that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "Mindy Pistol" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deduction since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to March 11, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on November 9, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

v	:
ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent	: OAL Dkt. No.: EDU 12475-2010N : Agency Ref. No.: 592-10/10 : : SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Rachel Ceus ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Ceus v Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No.: EDU 12475-2010N, Agency Docket No: 592-10/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the Parties agree as follows.

1. The Parties mutually agree that the Petitioner, a tenured teacher, is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $17,607.45, for the period from 09/10/10 through 11/21/2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefits reimbursed due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The Parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from 09/01/2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010 was $6,050.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $10,401.71.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from 09/01/2010 through 11/21/2010. This the final gross amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $10,401.71. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to Rachel Ceus.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from 09/01/2010 to 11/21/2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to, as applicable, sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising our of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This Release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulations of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of his/her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights he/she may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties, and all terms of the Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the Parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the Sate or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF TINTON FALLS, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

The petitioning parent, J.M., appealed the decision of the respondent Board that certain acts of the head cheerleader coach, Meredith McGee, did not constitute harassment, intimidation or bullying as those terms are defined under New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1 The petitioner sought a finding that McGee did engage in acts of harassment, intimidation, bullying and retaliation, and that the coach be relieved of her coaching duties. During the pendency of the appeal, the Board notified the Office of Administrative Law and the petitioner that McGee had been relieved of her coaching duties effective September 25, 2013. The Board subsequently moved for summary decision, contending that the case had been mooted by the removal of McGee as a coach.

The ALJ found that: there are no material facts at issue in this matter, and the case is ripe for summary decision; and the relief J.M. sought has already occurred with the removal of McGee from her position as head cheerleader coach. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that the case is now moot, and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner disagreed with the ALJ's conclusion that the controversy is now moot as a result of McGee's exit from the coaching position. Petitioner's appeal clearly included the request for a finding that McGee engaged in harassment, bullying, intimidation and/or retaliation; this request for relief has not been addressed, nor has it been mooted by McGee's departure from the coaching position, and there are conflicting accounts of the facts in the record. Accordingly, the case was remanded to the OAL for proceedings to determine whether McGee's conduct constituted harassment, bullying or intimidation.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

J.M. on behalf of minor child T.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF TINTON FALLS, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The instant appeal flows from the petitioner's allegations that one of respondent's employees – who served as a cheerleading coach – bullied certain of the students who were or wished to be cheerleaders. Petitioner asked for 1) the removal of the cheerleading coach – Meredith McGee – from her position, and 2) a finding that McGee had engaged in acts of harassment, intimidation, bullying and/or retaliation. The petition was filed on May 13, 2013, answered on June 6, 2013, and transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for proceedings on June 7, 2013.

On or about September 25, 2013, during the pendency of the appeal proceedings, McGee was relieved of her coaching duties. Subsequently, respondent moved for summary dismissal of the appeal, contending that McGee's removal rendered the petition moot. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found 1) that the parties' papers presented no material issues of fact, thereby allowing summary disposition, and 2) that the controversy was moot as a result of McGee's exit from the coaching position. The Commissioner disagrees.

It is undisputed that petitioner's requests for relief included both the termination of McGee's coaching privileges and a finding that she had engaged in harassment, bullying, intimidation and/or retaliation. Thus, the former request has been rendered moot. However, the latter request for relief has not.

The challenge to respondent's finding that McGee's conduct did not rise to the level of harassment or bullying has not been addressed, and the record includes conflicting accounts of the facts. Since it appears that McGee is still employed by respondent in its schools, resolution of petitioner's challenge is needed – for the sake of all of the parties. If the ALJ's fact findings support petitioner's allegations, a finding of HIB should be entered into McGee's personnel file and reported to the Department of Education, and corrective measures should be taken so that students are not exposed to inappropriate behavior by McGee or other coaches and teaching staff. If the ALJ's weighing of all the facts does not support an HIB determination, there should be an express finding of same in an Initial Decision.

Accordingly, this case is remanded to the OAL for proceedings in keeping with this decision.

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7871-13

AGENCY DKT. NO. 96-5/13

J.M., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, T.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF TINTON FALLS, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

Respondent.

J.M., petitioner, pro se

Patricia Reilly, Esq., for the respondent (Wolf, Helies, Spaeth & Lucas, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 26, 2013 Decided: December 12, 2013

BEFORE RONALD W. REBA, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner J.M. appeals the decision of respondent Board of Education of the Town of Tinton Falls that certain acts of the head cheerleader coach, Meredith McGee, during a joint varsity and junior varsity cheerleader practice on November 19, 2012, did not constitute "harassment, intimidation or bullying" as those terms are defined under the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1 to -37. In her petition of appeal, J.M. requests as relief a finding that Ms. McGee engaged in acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying and retaliation, and that Ms. McGee be relieved of her coaching duties. This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on June 7, 2013, as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Shortly thereafter, the Director of the OAL assigned the undersigned to hear the case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-5(o).

On October 1, 2013, during the pendency of the appeal, the Board notified the OAL and J.M. that Ms. McGee had been relieved of her coaching duties effective September 25, 2013. As a result, the Board moved for summary decision on the ground that the contested case between J.M. and the Board has become moot. The Commissioner does not decide moot cases. Weehawken Educ. Ass'n v. Bd. of Educ. of Weehawken, 1978 S.L.D. 924, 925. A case is moot if, for example, "a judgment cannot grant effective relief." Anderson v. Sills, 143 N.J. Super. 432, 437 (Ch. Div. 1976). Here, the relief that J.M. seeks has taken place, as Ms. McGee has been removed from her position as head cheerleader coach. Therefore, the contested case has become moot.

STANDARD FOR SUMMARY DECISION

The rules governing motions for summary decision in an OAL matter are embodied in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. These provisions mirror the summary-judgment language of R. 4:46-2 and the Supreme Court's decision in Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954). Under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), the determination to grant summary decision should be based on the papers presented, as well as any affidavits that may have been filed with the application. The burden of persuasion rests with the moving party, and in order for the non-moving party to prevail in such an application, responding affidavits must be submitted showing that there is indeed a genuine issue of fact that can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. The Court in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995), set the standard to be applied when deciding a motion for summary judgment:

> a determination whether there exists a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party.

To avoid entry of summary judgment, the non-moving party must come forward with legally competent facts essential to proving an element of its cause of action. Brill, supra, 142 N.J. at 536–37. If the non-moving party fails to do so, the moving party is entitled to summary judgment. Moreover, even if the non-moving party comes forward with some evidence, the courts must grant summary judgment if the evidence is "so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Id. at 540 (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 252, 106, S. Ct. 2505, 2512, 91 L. Ed. 2d 202, 214 (1986)). If the non-moving party's evidence is merely colorable, or is not significantly probative, summary judgment should not be denied. See Bowles v. City of Camden, 993 F. Supp. 255, 261 (D.N.J. 1998). The New Jersey Supreme Court's standard for summary judgment is thus designed to "'liberalize the standards so as to permit summary judgment in a larger number of cases,'" due to the perception that we live in "'a time of great increase in litigation and one in which many meritless cases are filed.'" Brill, supra, 142 N.J. at 539 (citation omitted).

CONCLUSION

Based on the briefs and affidavits and other information presented by the parties, I CONCLUDE that there exists no genuine issue of material fact and this matter can be decided by summary decision. I further CONCLUDE that since the varsity coach has been removed, the case before me has become moot.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, I ORDER that the Board's motion for summary decision is GRANTED and that J.M.'s petition is DISMISSED AS MOOT.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this matter, the Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision on Remand of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. On October 18, 2013, the Commissioner remanded this matter to OAL based upon a determination that the prior settlement agreement recommended for adoption by the Administrative Law Judge did not include the requisite signature of petitioner, A.P.

Upon review of the revised record on remand, the Commissioner finds that the Agreement now contains A.P.'s signature. According to the Agreement, payment from the petitioners was due within 30 days of the Board's approval of the settlement, which date has preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms, or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for the effectuation of the settlement payment. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

Record Closed: August 28, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

On February 26, 2013, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13.

The matter was scheduled for hearing on July 12 and July 15, 2013, but was adjourned and rescheduled for August 8, 2013 at the request of the parties. On August 6, 2013 the parties notified the undersigned that the matter had been settled.

On September 5, 2013, an Initial Decision Settlement was issued. However, on October 21, 2013, the matter was remanded alleging that A.P. was not a signatory to the settlement. In fact, A.P. was a signatory but her signature was on a separate page as the parties signed the agreement on different dates and was inadvertently overlooked by the Department. Attached hereto is the original stipulation of settlement that was executed on August 7 and 13, 2013 and the Board Resolution approving same.

I have reviewed the record and terms of the settlement and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by the signatures of the parties or their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with law.

I CONCLUDE that the agreement meets the safeguard requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and, accordingly, I approve the dismissal and ORDER that the parties comply with the dismissal terms and that these proceedings be CONCLUDED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 27, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent	: Agency Ref. No.: 387-8/10 : : SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Giuliano Farina ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Farina v Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No.: EDU 10475-10, Agency Docket No: 387-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the Parties agree as follows.

1. The Parties mutually agree that the Petitioner, a tenured teacher, is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $14,413.62, for the period from 09/01/2010 through 11/17/2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefits reimbursed due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/17/2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The Parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from 09/01/2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from 09/01/2010 through 11/17/2010 was $5,400.00.

3, The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $8,112.26.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from 09/01/2010 through 11/17/2010. This the final gross amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $8,112.26. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to Giuliano Farina.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from 09/01/2010 to 11/18/2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to, as applicable, sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising our of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This Release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulations of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of his/her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights he/she may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties, and all terms of the Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the Parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the Sate or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of the Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, if applicable, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the 2010-2011 school year was $ 7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $ 10,399.45.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 19, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $ 9,359.50. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Elizabeth Dressler."

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September, 2010 to November 19, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal right he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2010-2011 school year or thereafter.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the Sate of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understands the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education, and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CAMDEN, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

Petitioners – parents of students in the Camden School District – alleged that the respondent Board failed to provide a thorough and efficient education for their children as required under the Constitution of the State of New Jersey (Count One) and the New Jersey Civil Rights Act (Count Two). The Board filed several motions to dismiss in lieu of an answer. Subsequent to the filing of the instant petition, a full takeover of the Camden School District was initiated by the State.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the Commissioner has jurisdiction to determine whether the Board is providing petitioners with a thorough and efficient public education; as to Count Two, while the Commissioner does have jurisdiction to decide claims of discrimination when such claims arise under the school laws, he does not have jurisdiction to hear a controversy which was filed under the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, as was the case herein; and Count One of the petition – in light of the intervening State takeover of the Camden School District – should be dismissed as premature, moot and precluded by the principle of res judicata. The ALJ concluded that respondent's motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction should be denied in part as related to Count One, and granted in part as related to Count Two, but Count One should be dismissed as premature, moot and precluded by the principle of res judicata. The ALJ ordered the petition dismissed.

Upon a full and independent review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision, and the petition was dismissed.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioners and the Board of Education (Board), as well as the Board's reply to the petitioners' exceptions.

This matter involves a petition of appeal filed by the parents of three students enrolled in the Camden School District claiming that their children are being denied a thorough and efficient education pursuant to the Constitution of the State of New Jersey (Count One) and the New Jersey Civil Rights Act (Count Two).[1] Following oral argument on several motions filed by the Board, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that Count One of the petition should be dismissed as premature, moot and precluded by the principles of res judicata; and that Count Two of the petition should be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction and for failure to state a cause of action. In their exceptions, the parties reiterated all of the arguments advanced at the

Upon the review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision for the reasons set forth therein. Accordingly, the petition is hereby dismissed.

BEFORE EDWARD J. DELANOY, JR., ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners, S.V., M.R. and G.R. on behalf of K.V., E.R. and F.H., allege that respondent, Board of Education of the City of Camden, Camden County (hereinafter Board or District), does not consistently or effectively provide the basic skills or knowledge necessary for the petitioner schoolchildren to achieve proficiency in the State's educational standards defined by the Core Curriculum Content Standards. (Petition ¶ 165.) As a result, petitioners allege that respondent fails to fulfill the State's constitutional obligation to educate petitioner schoolchildren and equip them to participate as informed citizens and productive members of society. (Ibid.)

Respondent counters by filing three motions in lieu of an answer to dismiss with opposition to the motions having been filed by petitioners. The undersigned having considered the moving papers in support of the motions to dismiss and exhibits submitted by the respondent, and opposition papers and exhibits submitted by petitioners, as well as the intervening full State takeover of the District, undertaken subsequent to the filing of the Petition herein, and for good cause shown, has determined from the proofs that respondent has proven that dismissal is warranted, for the reasons as more particularly set forth herein.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On October 15, 2012, petitioners filed the Petition with an application for emergent relief with the Commissioner of Education to consider this controversy that arose under the school law, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. The case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on October 18, 2012. Following oral argument at the OAL, emergent relief was denied on October 23, 2012, on the basis that petitioners failed to show irreparable harm, or that the legal rights underlying petitioners' claims were settled in their favor, or that there was a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of their claim, or that on balance they would suffer greater harm than would the respondent if emergent relief were granted.

On November 21, 2012, the Commissioner of Education adopted and confirmed the Order denying emergent relief and mandated that the proceedings continue at the OAL for a decision on the merits. On November 15, 2012, respondent filed three motions in lieu of an answer to dismiss the Petition. The three motions are based upon allegations of a lack of jurisdiction, failure of petitioners to join indispensable parties, and failure by petitioners to advance a cause of action. On December 28, 2012, petitioners filed an omnibus answer in opposition to which respondent replied on January 30, 2013. Finally, petitioners filed an omnibus sur-reply on February 22, 2013, to respondent's reply.

On March 25, 2013, while a decision on respondent's three motions was pending, the Commissioner of Education, in a separate, independent action, issued an Order for respondent to "Show Cause why an Administrative Order placing the Camden City School District . . . under full State intervention should not be implemented . . . " (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. A; Resp. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. A.) The Commissioner issued the Order based on his findings that the "educational metrics garnered from the performance results of Camden demonstrate an unfortunate and unacceptable educational failure on the part of the Camden School District." (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. A, ¶ 1.) Additionally, a "[c]omprehensive review of the District pursuant to the New Jersey Quality Single Accountability Continuum Act (New Jersey's QSAC), N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-10 et seq., reveals a pervasive educational failure." (Ibid.) "Both the [respondent] and its administration have failed to implement proper policies and provide personnel to adequately educate the children of Camden." (Ibid.) "Because of these glaring and ongoing failures to properly educate the youth of Camden, the Department must immediately engage in full State intervention of the failing Camden School District pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-10 et seq. to raise the level of educational attainment to acceptable levels." (Ibid.)

On April 30, 2013, the Commissioner and respondent entered into a Consent Order whereby respondent waived its right to a plenary hearing on the Commissioner's Order to Show Cause, and agreed to an administrative order placing respondent under full State intervention. (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. B; Resp. Supp. Brief of

6/26/2013, Ex. C.) On June 5, 2013, pursuant to the Consent Order, the State Board of Education issued an Administrative Order placing the Camden City School District under full State intervention pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-15, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-15.1, and N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-34, effective June 25, 2013, or the day after the last day of school for teachers in the 2012-2013 academic year, whichever is the later date. (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. C; Resp. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. D.)

The State Board based its decision on the same underlying allegations as petitioners, in that the respondent has failed to satisfy at least fifty percent of the quality performance indicators in the key component areas of Instruction and Program, Operations Management, Personnel and Governance. (Compare Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. C at 1 with Petition ¶ 2, 3, 4.) The State Board further referenced the Commissioner's August 9, 2012, report upon which the petitioners also rely that confirmed severe deficiencies in the respondent's educational program. (Compare Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. C at 1 with Petition ¶ 7.) The State Board ultimately determined that respondent "is not providing a thorough and efficient system of education". (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. C at 3.)

On April 4, 2013, the parties in the within matter were requested to provide supplemental briefs addressing the full State takeover of respondent's school district and its effect upon this dispute. Upon request for postponement by the parties, the requested supplemental briefs were ultimately submitted from both sides on June 26, 2013. While respondent reiterates that its three motions to dismiss remain viable, it also argues now that the State intervention renders the Petition moot. By contrast, petitioners' supplemental brief argues that the State intervention renders moot the respondent's motions and also requests summary decision in its favor. (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013 at 6.) As a result, petitioners request a declaratory ruling that the petitioner schoolchildren attend a school district that does not provide a thorough and efficient education and that a hearing only remains necessary to determine a remedy to the petitioners' educational deprivation. (Ibid.)

The matter was orally argued on October 1, 2013. A transcript of the October 1, 2013, oral argument was requested by this tribunal and received on December 2, 2013. The record closed on that date.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

After carefully considering the arguments and documentary evidence presented, I FIND the following to be the relevant and credible FACTS in this matter: All three petitioning students are residents of Camden, New Jersey. They are assigned to public schools operated by respondent pursuant to N.J.S.A 18A:8-1 to 42, and N.J.S.A 18A:38-1 to 36, which sets school district boundaries in conformity with municipal boundaries. Petitioner K.V. is twelve years old and attends seventh grade at the respondent's Pyne Point Family School in Camden, New Jersey. (Petition ¶ 22.) K.V. is not proficient in Language Arts or Mathematics. (Id. ¶ 94.) Petitioner E.R. is eight years old and attends fourth grade at the respondent's Dudley Elementary School in Camden New Jersey. (Id. ¶ 23.) E.R. is not proficient in Language Arts or Mathematics. (Id. ¶ 95.) Petitioner F.H. is five years old and attends first grade at the respondent's Davis Elementary School in Camden, New Jersey. (Id. ¶ 24.) F.H. is not proficient in Language Arts or Mathematics. (Id. ¶ 96.)

LEGAL ANALYSIS

I. The Commissioner has jurisdiction to determine whether respondent is providing petitioners a thorough and efficient public education.

As an initial matter, the issue of jurisdiction must be determined in order for the OAL to hear and decide this case. Count One of the Petition alleges that respondent violated Article 8, § 4, ¶ 1 of the New Jersey Constitution which requires the Legislature to "provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of free public schools for the instruction of all the children in the State between the ages of five and eighteen years." (Petition ¶ 176.) Respondent argues that the Commissioner of Education lacks jurisdiction over this claim because it alleges a constitutional violation for which the Department of Education does not have original jurisdiction.

While as a general rule, administrative agencies do not have jurisdiction to decide purely constitutional claims, "[a]dministrative agencies are clearly empowered to determine issues within their jurisdiction even though the resolution of those issues implicates constitutional claims." Desilets ex rel. Desilets v. Clearview Reg'l Bd. of Educ., 137 N.J. 585, 595 (1994) (citing Christian Bros. Inst. v. N. N.J. Interscholastic League, 86 N.J. 409, 416 (1981) (noting "[a]dministrative agencies have power to pass on constitutional issues . . . [when] relevant and necessary to resolution of a question concededly within their jurisdiction")); Hunterdon Cent. High Sch. Bd. of Educ. v. Hunterdon Cent. High Sch. Teachers' Ass'n., 174 N.J. Super. 468, 474-75 (App. Div. 1980) (ruling "administrative agencies are competent to pass upon constitutional issues germane to proceedings before them") aff'd o.b., 86 N.J. 43 (1981). Furthermore, the New Jersey Appellate Division has held that "the bare assertion or generalized allegations of infringement of a constitutional right does not create a claim of constitutional dimensions." Winston v. Bd. of Educ. of S. Plainfield, 125 N.J. Super. 131, 144 (App. Div. 1973), aff'd 64 N.J. 582 (1974).

The Commissioner of Education has "the constitutional duty . . . to assure the maintenance and support of a 'thorough and efficient system of public schools.'" M.P. and G.P., parents of R.P. v. Bd. of Educ. of Delran, Burlington County, 1985 S.L.D. 1817, 1830 (citing N.J. Const., art. 8, § 4, ¶ 1), adopted, 1985 S.L.D. 1834 (holding that Delran denied R.P. a thorough and efficient education and ordering the Board to reimburse petitioners for the unilateral placement in the Cinnaminson School District). Thus, the Commissioner has the "'affirmative obligation to see to it that the statutory objectives are met' and that local school boards and governing bodies fulfill their delegated duties." In re Upper Freehold Reg'l Sch. Dist., 86 N.J. 265, 273 (1981) (citing Robinson v. Cahill, 62 N.J. 473, 509 n.9 (1973)).

In exercising his jurisdiction, "[t]he Commissioner [of Education] is charged with the duty of supervising State schools and enforcing the rules prescribed by the State Board." In re Bd. of Educ. of the City of Trenton, 176 N.J. Super. 553, 563 (App. Div. 1980), aff'd 86 N.J. 327 (1981) (emphasis added) (citing N.J.S.A. 18A:4-23); see also

In performing his duties, the Commissioner must determine whether a school board's actions are violative of the law, and if so, "the proper discharge of his duty requires corrective action." Kopera v. Bd. of Educ. of the Town of W. Orange, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 296 (App. Div. 1960) (citing Masiello Jr. v. State Bd. of Exm'rs, 25 N.J. 590, 607 (1958)). It is recognized by the Supreme Court of New Jersey that the Commissioner has broad remedial powers in the administration of public education law. Balsley v. N. Hunterdon Reg'l Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ., 117 N.J. 434, 442-43 (1990); Dunellen, supra, 64 N.J. at 23 ("in a series of decisions this Court reaffirmed the great breadth of the Commissioner's powers") (citations omitted); In re 1999-2000 Abbott v. Burke Implementing Regulations, 348 N.J. Super. 382, 390 (App. Div. 2002).

The New Jersey Supreme Court and Appellate Division have specifically upheld the Commissioner's legal authority to address claims alleging a violation of the State's constitutional obligation to provide a thorough and efficient public education. See In re Bd. of Educ. of the City of Trenton, supra, 86 N.J. 327, 330 (affirming the Commissioner's power to determine that Trenton was not providing a thorough and efficient education and his power to issue an administrative order specifying a remedial plan); Contini v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 286 N.J. Super. 106, 128-29 (App. Div. 1995), certif. denied, 145 N.J. 372 (1996) (affirming the Commissioner's power to determine that Newark was not providing a thorough and efficient system of education and his power to remove the local school board and create a State-operated school district). As articulated by the New Jersey Supreme Court in Abbott v. Burke, 100 N.J. 269 (1985), the Commissioner has an obligation to apply his expertise to a controversy such as the present matter, where petitioners are alleging that respondent denied them a through and efficient public education, and to develop a complete and informed record reflecting determinations of the administrative issues as well as to resolve factual matters material to the ultimate constitutional issues. Id. at 303.

Abbott v. Burke involved the claim that the statutory framework as applied to the property-poor urban districts was unconstitutional. In that case, the New Jersey Supreme Court rejected the plaintiffs' assertion that the matter should not be the subject of an administrative proceeding because a constitutional issue "invokes solely the jurisdiction of the courts." Id. at 297. Rather, the Court reaffirmed its approval of administrative handling of educational controversies in the context of constitutional litigation. Id. at 300. Concluding that the case could and should be considered in the first instance by the "appropriate administrative agency," the Court therefore remanded and transferred the matter to the Commissioner of Education. Id. at 301. In doing so, the Court recognized that "although an agency may base its decision on constitutional considerations, such legal determinations do not receive even a presumption of correctness on appellate review." Id. at 299. However, the Court stressed that a court may need a factual development that will help it resolve the constitutional issue so that the New Jersey Supreme Court had at times required plaintiffs to exhaust their administrative remedies notwithstanding allegations of a constitutional violation. Ibid. In this regard, the Court pointed out that in previous education cases raising or implicating constitutional issues, the New Jersey Supreme Court had required the exhaustion of administrative remedies when administrative adjudication served "to develop a fully informed factual record and maximize the soundness of determinations through the agency's expertise." Ibid. (citations omitted).

Hence, recognizing that it is a judicial court, not the administrative agency, which has the jurisdiction ultimately to decide the constitutional claim here, nevertheless, the Commissioner has jurisdiction to hear and decide Count One of the Petition as a result of both his obligation to develop a complete and accurate factual record and his responsibility under the New Jersey Constitution to ensure that the statutory framework for public education as implemented in fact results in the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Accordingly, respondent's motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction should be denied in regards to Count One of the Petition.

II. The Commissioner has no jurisdiction to hear a controversy which states a claim under the New Jersey Civil Rights Act.

Count Two of the Petition alleges a violation of the New Jersey Civil Rights Act (CRA), N.J.S.A. 10:6-1 to -2, because respondent, "acting under color of state law, deprived petitioner schoolchildren of their substantive right to a thorough and efficient education . . . " (Petition ¶ 179.) Respondent argues that the Commissioner of Education lacks jurisdiction over this claim because it does not constitute a dispute arising under the school laws.

As previously discussed, the Commissioner's jurisdiction is defined by statute, and is limited to "controversies and disputes arising under the school laws." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9; Balsley v. North Hunterdon Reg'l. School Dist. Bd. of Educ., 117 N.J. 434, 438 (1990); Bd. of Educ. of East Brunswick v. Twp. Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 102 (1966). It has been recognized that, "[t]he sweep of the Department's interest and the Commissioner's jurisdiction does not extend to all matters involving boards of education." Archway Programs v Pemberton Twp. Bd. of Educ., 352 N.J. Super. 420, 424-25 (App. Div. 2002). Claims against local school boards that "do not arise under the school laws but rather from statutory or common law [are] typically and appropriately adjudicated in the courts." Id. at 425.

"In 2004, the Legislature adopted the CRA for the broad purpose of assuring a state law cause of action for violations of state and federal constitutional rights and to fill any gaps in state statutory anti-discrimination protection." Owens v. Feigin, 194 N.J. 607, 611 (2008). "[T]he CRA's sole procedural component is found in N.J.S.A. 10:6-2(d), which states that CRA actions "may be filed in Superior Court," and directs a court to hold a jury trial "[u]pon application of any party." Ibid.

As a preliminary matter, the CRA does not arise under the school laws codified under Title 18A of the New Jersey statutes. Furthermore, the plain language of the CRA does not appear to grant jurisdiction to any administrative entity. Petitioners argue that the CRA does not confer exclusive jurisdiction in Superior Court and that respondent has not requested a jury trial. The Appellate Division has rejected similar arguments in an unpublished decision where it reaffirmed the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear claims under the Conscientious Employee Protection Act (CEPA), N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 to -14, as such a claim does not arise under school laws. Raimondi v. Bd. of Educ. of Westwood Reg'l. Sch. Dist., Docket No. A-5555-05T3 at 18-19 (N.J. App. Div., Aug. 7, 2007). The Court stated that the jurisdiction of CEPA claims is vested in the courts, even though the language does not confer exclusive jurisdiction. Id. at 19. "Furthermore, the parties to a CEPA claim have a right to trial by jury . . . and that right may not be denied merely because there might be some factual overlap between issues before the [Commissioner] and issues that belong in the courts." Ibid. Just as the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear CEPA claims, the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear CRA claims, if for no other reason than because the CRA does not arise under the school laws of Title 18A.

In addition, like in Raimondi, petitioners here argue that as long as the matter is before the Commissioner on an issue appropriately before him, he must exercise additional incidental jurisdiction over all aspects of the matter, relying on Sukin v. Northfield Bd. of Educ., 171 N.J. Super. 184, 187 (App. Div. 1979). In Sukin, the Court relied on the Commissioner's jurisdiction over school law-related disputes to find that the Commissioner had incidental jurisdiction over school-law controversies arising under the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA). Ibid. Thus while Sukin establishes the Commissioner's jurisdiction to determine claims arising under the OPMA as they relate to school law controversies, this case is simply not broad enough to also encompass a CRA claim such as in the present matter.

To clarify, the Commissioner unquestionably has jurisdiction to decide claims of discrimination when such claims arise under the school laws. Hinfey v. Matawan Reg. Bd. of Educ., 77 N.J. 514, 525 (1978) ("[T]he Commissioner of Education has not only the power to decide controversies under the school law which entail invidious discrimination practices, but indeed he may be regarded as having an affirmative duty to do so."). The Supreme Court has later reiterated that "discrimination complaints involving the subject matter of public school curricula and courses of study should be handled by the Commissioner . . . and that such complaints, though filed originally in the Division [on Civil Rights] . . . should be transferred to the Commissioner of Education . . . " Balsley v. N. Hunterdon Reg'l Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ., 117 N.J. 434, 439 (1990). However, in both Hinfey and Balsley, the petitioners brought the discrimination claims under the school law providing that "[n]o pupil in a public school in this State shall be discriminated against in admission to, or in obtaining any advantages, privileges or courses of study of the school by reason of race, color, creed, sex or national origin." N.J.S.A. 18A:36-20. Such is not the case here as petitioners do not bring their discrimination claim under the school laws, but have instead, filed a claim under CRA. Finding no Superior Court decision determining that the Commissioner has jurisdiction over a CRA claim, and because the CRA does not arise under the school laws of Title 18A, jurisdiction in the administrative forum is not proper over Count Two of the Petition.

Therefore, as to respondent's motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction, it should be denied in part relative to Count One of the Petition. However, I CONCLUDE that respondent's motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction is granted in part relative to Count Two of the Petition.

III. Count One of the Petition should be dismissed as premature, moot, and precluded by the principle of res judica.

As a result of the aforementioned analysis, Count One of the Petition contains the only surviving claim. By virtue of the State Board of Education expressly finding that respondent did not provide a thorough and efficient education in its school district, the factual dispute alleged in the Petition is resolved and petitioners' request for declaratory judgment is moot[1]. In light of the findings by the State Board and Commissioner, the issue of whether respondent has denied petitioner schoolchildren a thorough and efficient education is moot and should not be addressed unless there is some overriding public interest in doing so. The doctrine of mootness is a judicially-created tool utilized for reasons of judicial economy and restraint as well as the fundamental principle that courts will not decide cases in which the issue is hypothetical, a judgment cannot grant effective relief, or the parties do not have concrete adversity of interests. Anderson v. Sills, 143 N.J. Super. 432, 437 (Ch. Div. 1976). An issue is moot when the decision sought in a matter, when rendered, "can have no practical effect on the existing controversy." Greenfield v. N.J. Dep't of Corrections., 382 N.J. Super. 254, 257-58 (App. Div. 2006). Therefore, a case will be deemed moot only when the determination sought cannot have any practical effect on the existing controversy and where the conflict between the parties has become merely hypothetical. In re Conroy, 190 N.J. Super. 453, 458 (App. Div. 1983). Finally, the New Jersey Supreme Court has recognized that court-fashioned doctrines for handling litigation are applicable to administrative proceedings. City of Hackensack v. Winner, 82 N.J. 1, 29 (1980).

[1] In regards to count one, a word must be said about the effort to bring this petition as a class action on behalf of "all children attending public school in Camden." (Petition ¶ 17.) As a non-judicial tribunal in the OAL tasked with adjudicating individual disputes, the uniform rules for administrative practice contain no counterpart to the New Jersey court rule authorizing class actions. More importantly, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(a) expressly states that "court rules regarding third party practices and class action designations may not be applied unless such procedures are specifically statutorily authorized in administrative hearings." This limitation is acknowledged by petitioners who withdrew allegations in support of class certification. See Pet. Omnibus Answer of 12/28/2012 at 26, n.13. Therefore, consideration of count one and any possibility for relief is limited to the three named petitioner schoolchildren.

Here, as noted by petitioners in their supplemental brief, it is admitted that it "is beyond dispute that the Commissioner and the State Board of Education have resolved this issue [of whether or not respondent is providing a thorough and efficient system of education]." (Pet. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013 at 5.) "That determination is a final decision of the State on the matter, binding upon all parties, including the Office of Administrative Law." (Ibid. (citation omitted).) The decision by the Commissioner and State Board therefore renders moot any need for the OAL to conduct an evidentiary hearing as there are no adjudicatory facts that can be disputed. The circumstances between petitioners and respondent have dramatically changed since the filing of the Petition, and granting a declaratory judgment in this matter would be duplicative of the findings by the Commissioner and State Board. In addition, such a declaratory judgment would have no practical effect on the existing controversy. Therefore, Count One of the Petition should be dismissed as moot.

There are exceptions to this general rule that courts should not decide a moot issue. A moot question may be adjudicated when "there is a reasonable likelihood that the parties or those in privity with them, will be involved in a suit on the same issues in the future." Klein v. Califano, 586 F.2d 250, 256 (3d Cir. 1978). Moot questions may also be adjudicated when their determination is necessary to the disposition of an actually pending controversy. Patrolman's Benevolent Assoc. v. Montclair, 70 N.J. 130, 135 (1976). Furthermore, an exception to the mootness doctrine exists when the case presents an issue of public importance, Transamerica Insurance Co. v. Nat'l. Roofing, Inc., 108 N.J. 59, 64 (1987), and when the wrong alleged is one capable of repetition yet evading review. See Resnick v. E. Brunswick Twp. Bd. of Educ., 77 N.J. 88, 95, n.4 (1978). None of these exceptions apply in this case.

Assuming, arguendo, that Count One of the Petition is not moot, the principle of res judicata also warrants dismissal. Res judicata "refers broadly to the common-law doctrine barring relitigation of claims or issues that have already been adjudicated." Velasquez v. Franz, 123 N.J. 498, 505 (1991). Res judicata, like its close relative collateral estoppel, serves "important policy goals" of "'finality and repose; prevention of needless litigation; avoidance of duplication; reduction of unnecessary burdens of time and expenses; elimination of conflicts, confusion and uncertainty; and basic fairness.'" Hennessey v. Winslow Twp., 183 N.J. 593, 599 (2005) (quoting City of Hackensack v. Winner, 82 N.J. 1, 31-33 (1980)). The Velasquez Court noted:

> The doctrine evolved in response to the specific policy concerns of providing finality and repose for the litigating parties; avoiding the burdens of relitigation for the parties and the court . . . and maintaining judicial integrity by minimizing the possibility of inconsistent decisions regarding the same matter.

Here, under res judicata, the decision of the Commissioner and State Board precludes relitigating the question of whether respondent's system of public education is in violation of the "thorough and efficient" clause of the New Jersey Constitution. Res judicata requires (1) that a judgment in a prior action must be valid, final and on the merits; (2) the parties in the later action must be identical or in privity with those in the prior action; and (3) the claim in the prior action must grow out of the same transaction or occurrence as the claim in the earlier one. Watkins v. Resorts. Intern. Hotel and Casino, Inc., 124 N.J. 398, 412 (1991) (citing Federated Dep't Stores v. Moitie, 452 U.S.

393, 398 (1981)). Here, there is no dispute that the first and third factors are clearly satisfied between the present matter and the Order of the State Board. It is acknowledged that the specific petitioners in this matter were not a party to the action between respondent and the Department of Education. Nonetheless, they are in privity as determined by the United States Supreme Court which "recognized the 'familiar doctrine . . . that members of a class not present as parties to the litigation may be bound by the judgment where they are in fact adequately represented by parties who are present, or . . . the relationship between the parties present and those who are absent is such as legally to entitle the former to stand in judgment for the latter.'" Richards v. Jefferson County, Ala., 517 U.S. 793, 800-01 (1996) (quoting Hansberry v. Lee, 311 U.S. 32, 42-43 (1940)). Here, it is unquestionable that the petitioners were adequately represented by the Commissioner and State Board in their action to assume State intervention of the Camden School District by finding exactly what petitioners seek here, i.e. that respondent did not provide a thorough and efficient education. Under Richards, despite the fact that the petitioners were not a party to the State Board action, the decision of the Commissioner and State Board is binding and conclusive as res judicata on all residents and citizens and precludes the ability of petitioners to litigate an issue that has already been addressed in a separate action[2]. See McNeil v. Legislative Apportionment Comm'n, 177 N.J. 364, 393-400 (2003) ("because of the potentially large number of plaintiffs with standing in public law cases, were they allowed to raise issues continually, public law claims 'would assume immortality.'")

In addition to being moot and precluded by the principle of res judicata, the Petition must also be dismissed because it would be premature to grant any of the requested relief in light of the State intervention. See Crawford v. Davy, Docket No. A-1297-07T2 (N.J. App. Div., Nov. 23, 2009). In Crawford, like here, plaintiffs sought an injunction requiring failing defendant school districts to permit students in their districts to withdraw from the district's schools and attend other schools of their choice, whether public or private, at the district's expense. Id. at 5. However, at the time of the lawsuit, there was recent action by the legislative and executive branches to achieve a thorough and efficient education for every child, regardless of where he or she lives through the School Funding Reform Act of 2008 (SFRA). Id. at 14-15. The Appellate Division affirmed dismissal of the plaintiffs' lawsuit on the grounds that it was premature until "SFRA has had the opportunity to operate [and] supply a factual record of testing results and corresponding remedial measures at the local and State level to facilitate an evaluation of SFRA's performance in constitutional terms." Id. at 37. Under virtually identical circumstances here, the Petition should be dismissed as premature until the State intervention has had an opportunity to operate under its plan to improve the key component areas of Instruction and Program, Operations Management, Personnel, Governance, and Finance, and thus make meaningful change in the educational future of Camden's more than 13,000 students. (See Dep't of Ed. Amended District Improvement Plan, Resp. Supp. Brief of 6/26/2013, Ex. B.) Just as in Crawford where plaintiffs could not pursue their claim until the SFRA had an opportunity to operate, petitioners here cannot pursue their claim at this moment until the State intervention is given an opportunity to operate. As such, I agree with respondent, and CONCLUDE that Count One of the Petition should be dismissed as premature, moot, and precluded by the principle of res judicata.

IV. The present controversy is between petitioners and the Camden Board of Education and they are the only indispensible parties to resolve that dispute.

The foregoing conclusions render unnecessary a decision on respondent's additional motions to dismiss for failure to join indispensible parties and failure to state a cause of action. However, they will be analyzed so that a complete record is available.

As to respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to join indispensible parties, the Department of Education's Controversies and Disputes regulations require that a "petitioner shall name as a party any person or entity indispensable to the hearing of a contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(b). "Failure to name an indispensable party may be grounds for dismissal of the petition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10." Ibid. (emphasis added). Title 6A defines an "indispensable party" as one "without whose inclusion a matter cannot proceed or adequate judgment cannot be entered." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2.

The Supreme Court has described an indispensable party as a party having 'an interest inevitably involved in the subject matter before the court and a judgment cannot justly be made between the litigants without either adjudging or necessarily affecting the absentee's interest." Allen B. DuMont Labs., Inc. v. Marcalus Mfg. Co., 30 N.J. 290, 298 (1959); see also N.J. Ct. R. 4:28-1(a).

In its motion, respondent argues that the State of New Jersey and unidentified, prospective receiving districts are indispensable parties and that the Petition should be dismissed for failure to join them. Respondent contends that the State is an indispensible party to this matter because it is the entity charged with the legal obligation to provide for the thorough and efficient education that petitioners allege they are not receiving and that such failure necessarily implicates the conduct of the State. See Resp. Brief in Support of Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Join Indispensible Parties of 11/15/2012 at 10. At first glance, it might appear that joinder of the State and all potential receiving districts would ensure a complete and final hearing process. Nevertheless, before they can be determined to be indispensible parties, it must be determined that the matter cannot proceed or an adequate judgment cannot be entered without their inclusion. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2. When viewed under this standard, no other party is necessary to resolve the present controversy between the petitioners and respondent in regards to whether the Camden Board of Education failed to provide petitioners a thorough and efficient public education. Petitioners have made no allegation that any action or omission of the State or any other school district has caused the deprivation of petitioners' civil rights in Camden. See Neil v. Klein, 141 N.J. Super. 394, 406 (App. Div. 1976) ("it is the nature and character of the claim in an action which governs the classification of the parties as indispensable") (citation omitted). Petitioners have also presented no claim to declare any state statute or regulation unconstitutional. Furthermore, to the extent that respondent would seek to use any action or omission of the State or any other school district as an affirmative defense, it will not be precluded by the absence of those entities as a named party. Respondent retains its rights to produce whatever evidence, including witness testimony, that it deems relevant to its case.

Simply stated, the present controversy is between petitioners and the Camden Board of Education, and as such, they are the only necessary parties to resolve that dispute. Although the allegations are made only against Camden, the requested relief does seek an order for the petitioners to be sent to other, unidentified school districts that could, arguably, provide a thorough and efficient public education. On this prong, because such relief would clearly affect the interest of those school districts, they would be an indispensible party to the crafting of any such relief. However, because such districts have not been identified, no other district beyond Camden has any interests in the outcome of this case at the moment. See Chubb Custom Ins. Co. v. Prudential Ins. Co. of Am., 394 N.J. Super. 71, 82 (2007) (holding that a party, whose role is speculative until the fact-finding process is complete, cannot be considered an indispensable party). Furthermore, that other school districts may become indispensible once the issue of relief is addressed does not preclude an adjudication of the matter before this forum. See Ross v. Ross, 308 N.J. Super. 132, 144 (App. Div. 1998). In Ross, the Court held that:

> Even if the court is mistaken in its decision to proceed in the absence of an interested person, it does not by that token deprive itself of the power to adjudicate as between the parties already before it through proper service of process. But the court can make a legally binding adjudication only between the parties actually joined in the action. It is true that an adjudication between the parties before the court may on occasion adversely affect the absent person as a practical matter, or leave a party exposed to a later inconsistent recovery by the absent person. These are factors which should be considered in deciding whether the action should proceed, or should rather be dismissed; but they do not themselves negate the court's power to adjudicate as between the parties who have been joined.
> [Ibid. (quoting Pressler, Current N.J. Court Rules comment 1 on R. 4:28-1 (2007) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 19 introductory comment of advisory committee's note)) (emphasis in original.]

Here, the necessary parties are present to decide the claims stated in the Petition, thus respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to join indispensible parties should be denied. This conclusion is exemplified by the fact that no other parties were necessary to the Commissioner and State Board's finding that Camden has denied its students a thorough and efficient public education in ordering the previously discussed State intervention. It is noted though that, should this matter proceed to a hearing, any potential relief to be crafted would be limited to the parties actually joined in the action.

V. Granting all reasonable inferences to petitioners' factual allegations, they suggest a cause of action that respondent violated their right to a thorough and efficient public education.

Finally, as to respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action, under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10, the Commissioner of Education may dismiss a petition for lack of jurisdiction, or, "on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true . . . " Since evaluating such a motion is a quasi-judicial responsibility, state agencies may look to judicial principles for guidance. See City of Hackensack v. Winner, 82 N.J. 1, 29 (1980) ("[S]ince there are pronounced similarities in the exercise of judicial and quasi-judicial powers . . . court-fashioned doctrines for the handling of litigation . . . have some genuine utility and relevance in administrative proceedings."); see also N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3 (permitting the OAL and the ALJ to look to court rules for guidance).

Under the court rules, when a court reviews a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim pursuant to N.J. Ct. R. 4:6-2(e), it must assume the truth of the non-moving party's allegations and give the non-moving party the benefit of all factual inferences that its allegations support. "The standard traditionally utilized by courts to determine whether to dismiss a pleading for failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted is a generous one." Green v. Morgan Props., 215 N.J. 431, 451 (2013). As the Court explained:

> "[i]n reviewing a complaint dismissed under Rule 4:6-2(e) our inquiry is limited to examining the legal sufficiency of the facts alleged on the face of the complaint. The essential test is simply whether a cause of action is suggested by the facts. In exercising this important function, a reviewing court searches the complaint in depth and with liberality to ascertain whether the fundament of a cause of action may be gleaned even from an obscure statement of claim, > opportunity being given to amend if necessary. Moreover, the court is not concerned with the ability of plaintiffs to prove the allegation contained in the complaint, rather, plaintiffs are entitled to every reasonable inference of fact. As we have stressed, the examination of a complaint's allegations of fact required by the aforestated principles should be one that is at once painstaking and undertaken with a generous and hospitable approach."

> [Id. at 451-52. (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).]

In the present matter, I CONCLUDE that respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action should be granted as to Count Two of the Petition because, regardless of the facts alleged, the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to decide a claim under the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, as previously discussed. Respondent contends that Count One of the petition must be dismissed for failure to state a cause of action by arguing that there is no basis in law affording petitioners a right to attend alternative schools outside of district boundary lines. A basic understanding of New Jersey's education structure would support respondent's view. See N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 (defining a school district's obligation to educate, at its own expense, only persons between the ages of five and twenty who are domiciled within the district). However, by focusing on portion of the requested relief, respondent ignores the Commissioner's authority to craft an appropriate remedy once a deprivation is established. Instead, granting all reasonable inferences to petitioners' factual allegations, they suggest a cause of action that respondent violated their right to a thorough and efficient public education. That the OAL does not have jurisdiction to order an unidentified, non-participating school district to accept the students does not relieve it of its obligation to hear and decide the allegations relative to Count One of the Petition and to develop a complete and informed record so that the Commissioner may develop an appropriate remedy. Accordingly, respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action should be denied relative to Count One.

CONCLUSION

Respondent's motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction should be DENIED in part relative to Count One, and GRANTED in part relative to Count Two. Respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to join indispensible parties should be DENIED. Respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action should be DENIED in part relative to Count One and GRANTED in part relative to Count Two. Count One of the Petition, however, should be dismissed as premature, moot, and precluded by the principle of res judicata.

IT IS therefore on this 6th day of December, 2013, ORDERED that Count Two of the Petition is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction and for failure to state a cause of action. Count One of the Petition is DISMISSED as premature, moot, and precluded by the principle of res judicata.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Stephen B. Hunter, Esq. for petitioner (Detzky and Hunter, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 11, 2013 Decided: December 11, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 20, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:
	:	SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE
Respondent.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Gail Smith ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Gail Smith vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No. EDU-10231-2010N, Agency Reference No. 323-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $55,107.73, for the period from September 1, 2010 through March 15, 2011. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 15, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 15, 2011 was $16,200.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through March 15, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $35,016.96. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Gail Smith".

5. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to March 15, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 16, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

DIANA LOPEZ	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/ OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
vs.	:	AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 355-8/10
ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:
Respondent.	:	SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Diana Lopez ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Diana Lopez vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as Agency Reference No. 355-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary as a classroom teacher (including extended hours) in the amount of $65,959.00, for the period from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011 was $15,000.00.

3. The parties further agree that the Petitioner received $14,735.11 as a Teacher Assistant/Aide employed by the Board for the time period between February 28, 2011 until June 30, 2011.

4. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits and the receipt of the salary as a Teacher Assistant/Aide as referred to in paragraph 3 of this Agreement is $36,223.89.

5. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $32,601.30. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Diana Lopez".

6. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $2,637.50 as money damages paid by Petitioner to maintain her insurance coverage and to satisfy co-payments for doctors' visits and prescription costs during the period from September 1, 2010 to February 28, 2011. This amount will be paid in a separate check payable to "Diana Lopez" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since this sum does not constitute back salary.

7. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority as a teacher will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise.

8. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

9. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year.

10. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

12. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

13. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

14. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $14,657.26, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010 was $6,650.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $7,206.55. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Virginia Tropeano".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $2,014.49 as money damages paid by Petitioner to maintain her health insurance coverage through COBRA during the period from September 1, 2010 to November 22, 2010. This amount will be paid in a separate check payable to "Virginia Tropeano" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since this sum does not constitute back salary.

6. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 22, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

NANCY MARTINEZ,

v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Stephen B. Hunter, Esq. for petitioner (Detzky and Hunter, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 11, 2013 Decided: December 11, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 24, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

: SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Nancy Martinez ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Nancy Martinez vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as Agency Reference No. 414-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner was entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $86,938.09, for the period from September 1, 2010 through December 1, 2011 when she was reappointed as a Spanish Teacher within the Elizabeth School District. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through December 1, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and

August, 2010 and 2011 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through December 31, 2010 and from September 1, 2011 through November 30, 2011 was $16,364.49.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $70,573.60.

4. The parties further agree that the Petitioner received $25,381.89 from the Franklin Township Board of Education as a classroom teacher from January 1, 2011 through June 30,2011 reducing the gross amount of back pay due to Petitioner to $45,191.70.

5. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $40,672.54. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Nancy Martinez".

6. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to December 1, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and with an additional three months for the period between September 1, 2011 through November 30, 2011 and that this additional time shall be treated as one full year plus three months of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to claims to employment for the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 11, 2013 Decided: December 11, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 17, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Respondent.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Jessica Serafin ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Jessica Serafin vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No. EDU-10185-2010N, Agency Reference No. 306-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $35,928.00, for the period from September 1, 2010 through March 20, 2011. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 20, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 20, 2011 was $10,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $25,728.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through March 20, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $23,155.00. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Jessica Serafin".

5. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to March 20, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Bayliss Johnson ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Bayliss Johnson vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as Agency Reference No. 294-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through January 3, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $11,920.00. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Bayliss Johnson".

5. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to January 3, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of his Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

JESUS FERNANDEZ,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Stephen B. Hunter, Esq. for petitioner (Detzky and Hunter, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 11, 2013 Decided: December 11, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 23, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

10. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

Record Closed: December 11, 2013 Decided: December 11, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 24, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:
	:	SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE
Respondent.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Qiana Davis ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Qiana Davis vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No. EDU-10344-2010N, Agency Reference No. 396-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $38,264.00, for the period from September 1, 2010 through March 14, 2011. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 14, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 14, 2011 was $16,800.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $21,464.20.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through March 14, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $19,317.78. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Qiana Davis".

5. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to March 14, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Gloria Sempervive ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Gloria Sempervive vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as Agency Reference No. 588-10/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $57,239.00, for the period from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011 was $18,360.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $38,879.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $34,991.78. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Gloria Sempervive".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $3,070.08 as money damages paid by Petitioner to maintain her insurance coverage (Chapter 75 premium costs) during the period from September 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011. This amount will be paid in a separate check payable to "Gloria Sempervive" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since this sum does not constitute back salary.

6. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

ROBERT LANGAN, JR.,

v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Stephen B. Hunter, Esq. for petitioner (Detzky and Hunter, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 11, 2013 Decided: December 11, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 20, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

: OAL DOCKET NO. EDU-10232-2010N
AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 356-8/10

: SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Robert Langan ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Robert Langan vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No. EDU-10232-2010N, Agency Reference No. 356-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $17,901.85, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 29, 2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 29, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 29, 2010 was $7,800.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $10,101.00.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 29, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $9,091.67. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Robert Langan".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $908.98 as money damages paid by Petitioner to maintain health insurance benefits through COBRA during the period from September 1, 2010 to November 29, 2010. This amount will be paid in a separate check payable to "Robert Langan" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since this sum does not constitute back salary.

6. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 29, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of his Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

vs.	:	OAL DOCKET NO. EDU-10180-2010N AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 309-8/10
ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:
	:	SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE
Respondent.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Brenda Green ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education (the "Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Brenda Green vs. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Docket No. EDU-10180-2010N, Agency Reference No. 309-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $15,468.75, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an option from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010

at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010 was $7,300.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment Benefits is $8,168.75.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner has no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. The parties further agree that this Final Gross Amount shall be reduced by 10%. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to Petitioner is $7,351.88. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Brenda Green".

5. The parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the educations and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 22, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present, or future employee of the Board regarding any school years subsequent to the 2010-2011 school year.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this Agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 7, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Bridget Turano ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding caption Bridget Turano v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. EDU 09673-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 247-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

amount has already been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $6,480.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $8,157.24.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 2, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

MARIESTELLE MAGLIANO, Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09625-2010N Agency Ref. No. 404-8/10

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Mariestelle Magliano ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Mariestelle Magliano v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09625-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 404-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $7,509.24, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This

amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $7,509.24.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $7,509.24. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Mariestelle Magliano" .

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Anabela Silva ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding caption Anabela Silva v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. EDU 09660-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 263-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $7,577.05, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This

amount has already been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $6,480.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $7,577.05.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and fi[illegible] settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued si[illegible] leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

MICHELLE LORENCO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Gregory T. Syrek, Esq. for petitioner (Bucceri and Pincus, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 13, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

MICHELE LOURENCO, Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU Agency Ref. No. 320-8/10

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Michele Lourenco ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Michele Lourenco v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU _____, Agency Dkt. No. 320-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $7,509.24, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This amount has been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $7,509.24.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 15, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Vera Matos-Periera ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Vera Matos-Periera v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10163-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 385-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $3,009.26, for the period from September 1, 2010 through September 27, 2010. This amount has been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through September 27, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through September 27, 2010 was $2,400.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $3,009.26.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through September 27, 2010. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $3,009.26. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Vera Matos-Periera" .

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to September 27, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this agreement.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

JASMINE SANTIAGO Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU-10166-2010 Agency Ref. No. 330-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, __JASMINE SANTIAGO__ ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned __JASMINE SANTIAGO__ v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU __10166-2010____, Agency Dkt. No. _330-8/10__ (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $ _58,730_, for the period from __September 1, 2010__ through __February 1, 2011__. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from __September 1, 2010__ through _February 1, 2011___. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, __2010__, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, _201-_ at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from _September 1, 2010_.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from _____ through _____ was $ ___0_____.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $ ___0_____.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had earnings from other employment during the period from _September 2010__ through __February 1, 2011_. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $ __7,065____. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "__Jasmine Santiago___".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $_____0_____ as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from _____ to _____ that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "_____NA_____" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the __2010-2011__ school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from __September 1, 2010__ to __February 1, 2011___. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the _2010-2011_ school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when

Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the ___2010-2011_ school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the _2011-2012____ school year or thereafter.

8. The Parties agree that Petitioner's seniority as of __January 31, 2013__ as a result of this settlement is:

a) __6.42_____ years as an __elementary school teacher__.

b) _____ years as a _____.

9. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the __2010-2011_ school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

10. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

12. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

13. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

14. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding

ANGELA PECORARO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY
Respondent.

Gail Oxfeld Kanef, Esq. for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 20, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

ANGELINA PECORARO Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU-10229 Agency Ref. No. 332-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, ___ANGELINA PECORARO_ ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned _ANGELINA PECORARO__ v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU __10229-2010_____, Agency Dkt. No. __332-8/10___ (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $ _10,285.04_, for the period from _September 1, 2010__ through _October 20. 2010___. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from __September 1, 2010__ through __October 20, 2010__. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, _2010_, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, _2010_ at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from _September 1, 2010__.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from __September 1, 2010___ through __October 1, 2010___ was $ __0___.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $ _10, 285.04_.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had earnings from other employment during the period from ___September 1, 2010_ through __October 20, 2010__ in the amount of $8190. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $ _1,639.84__. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "__Angelina Pecoraro_".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $__0_____ as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from _____ to _____ that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "_____NA_____" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the __2010-2011__ school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from __September 2010___ to __October 20, 2010__.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the __2010-2011__ school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the __2011-2012___ school year or thereafter.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the __2010-2011_ school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this agreement.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that the figure set forth in paragraph one of the settlement agreement as representing petitioner's gross back pay before the deduction of $7,200 of paid unemployment benefits is identical to the figure in paragraph 3 which represents the net amount of back pay due after the deduction of $7,200 in unemployment benefits. Consequently, the Commissioner is constrained to remand this matter for reformation of the settlement agreement.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BARBARA L. MANDELA-CANTA, Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09669-2010N Agency Ref. No. 419-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Barbara L. Mandela-Canta ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Barbara L. Mandela-Canta v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09669-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 419-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $8,551.66, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This

amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $8,551.66.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 1, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. 6. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 2, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

KEITH D. DEPRE, Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09653-2010N Agency Ref. No. 224-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Keith D. Depre ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Keith D. Depre v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09653-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 224-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $7,509.24, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This amount has been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $7,509.24.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, JEANNINE ALFANO ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned JEANNINE ALFANO v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10149-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 350-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $ _31,385_, for the period from _September 1, 2010___ through __February 1, 2011_. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from _September 1, 2010___ through ___February 1, 2011__. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, _2010__, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, _2010_ at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from _September 1, 2010__.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from _September 1, 2010__ through _February 1, 2011___ was $ 0_.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $ _31,385_____.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had earnings from other employment during the period from _September 1, 2010__ through _February 1, 2011__. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $ _3,427.20__. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "__Jeannine Alfano__".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $___0_____ as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from _____ to _____ that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "_____NA_____" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the __2010-2011___ school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from __September 2010___ to ____February 1, 2011___. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the __2010-2011_ school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when

Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the __2010-2011__ school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the __2011-2012__ school year or thereafter.

8. The Parties agree that Petitioner's seniority as of _January 31, 2013__ as a result of this settlement is:

a) ___8.42____ years as an _elementary school teacher__.

b) _____ years as a _____.

9. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the _2010-2011_ school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

10. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

12. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

13. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this agreement.

15. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

NATALIA GALCZYNSKI,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY

Respondent.

Gregory T. Syrek, Esq. for petitioner (Bucceri and Pincus, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq. for respondent

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 17, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

NATALIA GALCZYNSKI , Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10188-2010N Agency Ref. No. 358-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Natalia Galczynski ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captione Natalia Galczynski v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10188-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 358-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $16,861.82, for the period from September 1, 2010 through February 2, 2011. This amount has been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through February 2, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through February 2, 2011 was $12,100.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $16,861.82.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to February 2, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 8, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

MILDRED LORENZO , Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09847-2010N Agency Ref. No. 418-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Mildred Lorenzo ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Mildred Lorenzo v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. EDU 09847-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 418-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

amount has already been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 21, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through March 1, 2011 was $17,400.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $17,009.33.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to March 21, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

GERALDINE CALHOUN , Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11478-2010N Agency Ref. No. 568-9/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Geraldine Calhoun ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Geraldine Calhoun v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. EDU 11478-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 568-9/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $7,509.24, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This

amount has already been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 1, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 1, 2010 was $7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $7,509.24.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that the figure set forth in paragraph one of the settlement agreement as representing petitioner's gross back pay before the deduction of $12,000 of paid unemployment benefits is identical to the figure in paragraph 3 which represents the net amount of back pay due after the deduction of $12,000 in unemployment benefits. Consequently, the Commissioner is constrained to remand this matter for reformation of the settlement agreement.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 2, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Melissa Ortiz ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding caption Melissa Ortiz v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09658-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 226-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $14,044.48, for the period from September 1, 2010 through January 23, 2011. This

amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through January 23, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through January 23, 2011 was $12,000.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $14,044.48.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to January 23, 2011. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 14, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. CARA CARUANO Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. Agency Ref. No. SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, _CARA CARUANO_ ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned _CARA CARUANO v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU __10153___, Agency Dkt. No. __353-8/10___ (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $ $5,940, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010 was $0.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $ $5,940.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $ 5,940. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Cara Caruano".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $0 as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from September 1, 2010 to November 22, 2010 that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "Cara Caruano" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 22, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for September 1, 2010 through November 22, 2010 for the entire school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the 2011-2012 school year or thereafter.

8. The Parties agree that Petitioner's seniority as of January 31, 2013 as a result of this settlement is:

a) _8.42__ years as an __elementary school teacher__.

b) _____ years as a _____.

9. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

10. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

12. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

13. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

14. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education including the obtaining of any approval necessary from the State or County offices of the New Jersey Department of Education and the issuance of any required "Action Notices" or resolutions required to bind the Board to the terms of this agreement.

15. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 2, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

THOMAS COYLE , Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09656-2010N Agency Ref. No. 216-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Thomas Coyle ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Thomas Coyle v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09656-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 216-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $4,667.17, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This amount has been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $6,480.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $4,667.17.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $4,667.17. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Thomas Coyle."

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $5,460.16 as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from September 1, 2010 to November 1, 2010 that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "Thomas Coyle" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

8. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

9. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

14. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

Record Closed: December 13, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 1, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated November 21, 2013, and attached letter of Board counsel confirming that the resolution was duly passed by the Board.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Robin Pier ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Robin Pier v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. EDU 09662-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 238-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $8,056.66, for the period from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. This

amount has already been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through November 21, 2010 was $7,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $8,056.66.

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and fi settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to November 21, 2010. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire 2010-2011 school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sic leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall iss the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and the Initial Decision with the proviso that the language on page 2 of the Initial Decision – indicating that the parties' settlement agreement became effective on June 11, 2013 – was premature.

Similarly premature were sections 8 and 9 of the Agreement, which identified actions targeted to take place prior to consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves same.

The foregoing notwithstanding, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this case, providing that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms, or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for effectuation of same. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision on Remand of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. On December 2, 2013, the Commissioner remanded this matter to OAL based upon a determination that the prior settlement agreement recommended for adoption by the Administrative Law Judge did not include the transcript from the August 1, 2013 proceeding at the OAL that is referenced in the Agreement.

Upon review of the revised record on remand, the Commissioner finds that the Agreement now contains the August 1, 2013 transcript. According to paragraph 8 of the Agreement, the petitioner was to begin making payments toward the outstanding tuition on September 1, 2013, which date has preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms, or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for the effectuation of the settlement payment. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

Record Closed: December 5, 2013 Decided: December 13, 2013

BEFORE EDWARD J. DELANOY, JR., ALJ:

This matter was previously heard under OAL Docket No. EDU 10689-12. The record closed on October 15, 2013, and the undersigned issued an Initial Decision Settlement on October 16, 2013. However, the Commissioner REMANDED the matter because the transcript of the original stipulations to which the parties agreed on the record on August 1, 2013, was not provided, and as such, the Commissioner could not ascertain whether the August 21, 2013, Settlement Agreement articulated all of the settlement terms or rather, set forth terms in addition to the original stipulations. This Amended Initial Decision Settlement addresses that deficiency. In addition, it should also be noted that the August 21, 2013, Settlement Agreement does articulate all of the settlement terms and stipulations.

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on remand on December 2, 2013, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The transcript of the proceedings which took place on the record before this tribunal on August 1, 2013, is now attached. As a result, all of the terms of the settlement between the parties have now been provided.

The parties have agreed to a consent order entered at the return date of trial on August 1, 2013 (J-1), and a resulting settlement, and have prepared a Settlement Agreement dated August 21, 2013, indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein, (J-2).

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The August 21, 2013, Settlement Agreement articulates all of the settlement terms, and no additional terms have been added.

3. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision (on remand) with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

The Settlement Agreement and Release ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Petitioner H.R., individually and on behalf of his son H.L.R. ("Petitioner"), and the Moorestown Township Board of Education (the "Board") to resolve and settle all outstanding issues involved in this matter between Petitioner and the Board (Petitioner and the Board, collectively the "Parties") as follows:

WHEREAS, following a student residency hearing conducted on June 18, 2013, the Board determined that Petitioner did not reside within the Moorestown Public Schools District (the "District"); and

WHEREAS, Petitioner appealed the Board's determination by filing a Petition of Appeal (the "Petition") and commencing the instant matter; and

WHEREAS, after engaging in discovery and motion practice in this matter, the Parties appeared for hearing on August 1, 2013 at the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL"); and

WHEREAS, following good faith negotiations, the Parties amicably agreed to resolve the disputes raised in the Petition while present at the OAL on August 1, 2013; and

WHEREAS, the terms of the Parties' settlement were placed on the record before the Honorable Edward J. Delanoy, A.L.J., which included extensive questioning of Petitioner as to his understanding and acceptance of the terms of the Agreement and that same were binding upon him as of August 1, 2013; and

WHEREAS, a Consent Order was entered on August 1, 2013 between the Parties, which was entered by the Court that same day, incorporating and attaching the terms of the settlement as placed on the record, and which is attached hereto as Exhibit "1" and incorporated by reference herein; and

WHEREAS, in order to further memorialize in writing the Parties' agreement reached on August 1, 2013, and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties enter into this Agreement to more fully outline their agreement, release claims, and express the full and complete terms of same.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE THAT:

1. In order to enroll H.L.R. in the District for the 2013-2014 school year, Petitioner must present the Board with all of the following proofs of residency to the Board Administration Building, 803 North Stanwick Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057, Attention:

Business Administrator, on or before September 1, 2013:

a. a copy of a valid lease/deed in Petitioner's name for a property where he currently resides within the District (the "Moorestown Property");

b. copies of cancelled checks/proof of payment of the lease/mortgage for the Moorestown Property;

c. Petitioner's driver's license changed to reflect the address of the Moorestown Property;

d. copies of utility bills in Petitioner's name for service to the Moorestown Property;

e. copies of cancelled checks/proof of payment of the utilities reflected in the bills noted above; and

f. a copy of a bank or credit card statement in Petitioner's name and reflecting the Moorestown Property address.

2. In order to verify his continued residency in the District going forward, Petitioner shall provide to the Board Administration Building, 803 North Stanwick Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057, Attention: Business Administrator, a copy of a utility bill(s) in his name for service to the Moorestown Property and proof of payment of same on a monthly basis, commencing on October 1, 2013, and continuing until H.L.R. graduates from the District.

3. In the event Petitioner fails to provide any of the above required proofs of residency, he consents, individually and on behalf of H.L.R., to the immediate entry of an Order of Removal for H.L.R. to be removed from the District.

4. In addition, if Petitioner fails to provide the ongoing proofs of residency specified in paragraph 2 above, he shall pay tuition, via certified funds and/or money order, to the Board for the entire school year in which he failed to provide such documentation in the amount of the daily tuition rate for H.L.R. for each school day from the date of the failure to provide the proofs, back to the first day of school for that given year.

5. In light of the outstanding tuition amounts (the "Outstanding Tuition") which Petitioner and H.L.R.'s mother owe to the Board in connection with the Board's residency proceeding against Petitioner and H.L.R.'s mother in 2010, and for the additional tuition amounts for which the Board was seeking payment in this matter, Petitioner and H.L.R.'s mother consent to the entry of a money judgment (the "Judgment") against them in the amount of Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00). The Board shall hold the Judgment and not take action to collect upon same unless Petitioner defaults on the payment requirements set forth below.

6. In addition, the mortgage lien (the "Mortgage"), in the amount of Thirty-Two Thousand Thirty-Nine Dollars ($32,039.00) that was recorded on the home owned by Petitioner and H.L.R.'s mother in Hainesport, New Jersey pursuant to the 2010 Agreement in Lieu of Further Residency Proceedings (the "2010 Agreement"), shall remain in full force and effect.

7. Of the Thirty-Two Thousand Thirty-Nine Dollars ($32,039.00) in tuition owed from the 2010 residency proceedings involving Petitioner, it is the Board's position that Eighteen Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty Dollars ($18,830.00) remains unpaid and owing at the time of this Agreement. It is Petitioner's position that he made additional cash payments resulting in a lower Outstanding Tuition amount. As such, the Parties agree that if Petitioner is able to produce documentary proof satisfactory to the Board that additional cash payments which Petitioner purports to have made towards the Outstanding Tuition were actually received and accepted by the Board, then the amount of the Outstanding Tuition shall be adjusted accordingly.

8. In order to satisfy the Outstanding Tuition, commencing on September 1, 2013, Petitioner shall make payments, via certified funds or money order, payable to the "Moorestown Township Board of Education" and deliver same to the Board Administration Building, 803 North Stanwick Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057, Attention: Business Administrator, in the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) every month on the first of the month until such time as the Outstanding Tuition amount has been paid in full. If the first of the month falls on a day on which the District is closed, Petitioner shall make the payment no later than the immediately following day the District is open.

9. Notwithstanding the above, if Petitioner is able to produce a lump sum payment of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00), via certified funds or money order, to the Board Administration Building, 803 North Stanwick Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057, Attention: Business Administrator, on or before September 1, 2013, the Board will accept same as full satisfaction of the Outstanding Tuition.

10. Once the Outstanding Tuition amount is satisfied, either pursuant to the payment mechanisms specified in paragraphs 8 or 9 above, the Board will discharge the Mortgage and the Judgment.

11. In the event that Petitioner at any time fails to make the payments toward the Outstanding Tuition as specified above, the Board may immediately move to collect upon the Judgment, and the Mortgage shall remain in place and be paid according to its terms.

12. At Petitioner's request, the Board will not involve H.L.R. directly (i.e., interviewing him) in any future residency investigations which may take place.

13. Notwithstanding the above, Petitioner acknowledges and understands that the Board is not waiving any other right which it may have to commence further residency investigations or proceedings against Petitioner where warranted or deemed necessary.

14. In exchange for the above, Petitioner, individually and on behalf of H.L.R., hereby forever and fully waives and releases the Board from all claims that have accrued as of the date of this Agreement which he and/or H.L.R. have or may have against the Board, including all legal, contractual, common law, statutory and/or equitable claims under state and/or federal law through the date of this Agreement. Nothing in the release set forth above shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

15. Neither the Board nor Petitioner will be considered to be a "prevailing party" for any purpose.

16. Petitioner, individually and on behalf of H.L.R., waives any claims for advocate, attorney or other professional fees which he may have incurred in connection with this matter, with the understanding that each Party shall be responsible for their own fees and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, incurred in connection with this matter, to the extent applicable.

17. Petitioner, individually and on behalf of H.L.R., hereby consents to the dismissal and withdrawal of the Petition filed in this matter with prejudice. In this regard, counsel shall notify the Court and the Department of Education in writing within five (5) days of Petitioner's execution of this Agreement of his request to withdraw the Petitioner with prejudice.

18. The Parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement is subject to approval by the Board during its next regularly scheduled meeting following the execution of this Agreement.

19. The Parties acknowledge that they have read and understand the terms of this Agreement, that they have had the opportunity to have the Agreement reviewed by counsel, and that they are entering into this Agreement knowingly, freely, voluntarily, without coercion and not under the influence of anything or anyone.

20. Petitioner represents that he has sole authority to enter into this Agreement, and that it shall be binding as if entered into by any other parent and/or guardian of H.L.R. not a party hereto.

21. This Agreement shall be interpreted, enforced, and governed under the laws of the State of New Jersey. The language of all parts of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the Parties.

22. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Board and Petitioner with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior written or oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements, understandings, and negotiations.

23. This Agreement may only be amended in writing by way of a document signed by all Parties.

NORTHERN BURLINGTON REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
PETITIONER,	:	DECISION
V.	:
NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND BRET SCHUNDLER,	:
RESPONDENTS.	:

SYNOPSIS

The Appellate Division charged the Commissioner with determining the amount of reimbursement, if any, to which the petitioning Board is entitled as a result of the respondent Department's withholding of equalization aid following Governor Christie's Executive Order 14 on February 11, 2010 – which declared a fiscal emergency and, inter alia, ordered the Commissioner to withhold State aid payments to districts based upon any surplus and reserve account monies available to them at the end of the 2009 fiscal year. Citing 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709, the Board asserted that the Department's withholding of "excess surplus" violated federal law and was ultra vires because, in the Board's case, its excess surplus wholly consisted of federal impact aid. The petitioner demanded reimbursement in the amount of $1,672,507; respondent contended that the Board failed to prove entitlement to reimbursement of the withheld funds.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioning Board receives federal impact aid based upon the presence of the joint military base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst within its boundaries; this impact aid essentially serves as payment in lieu of local property taxes for the children of military families; the Board has proven by a preponderance of the credible evidence that its excess surplus – upon which the Department's withholding of state aid in 2010 was based – consisted entirely of unanticipated federal impact aid; and the Federal Impact Aid Law prohibits a state from providing less State aid to a local school district than it would have received if the district did not receive federal impact aid. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that the respondent must restore to the petitioner $1,672,507 in State aid that was withheld in the 2010 fiscal year in violation of the Federal Impact Aid Law.

Upon review of the record of the remand proceedings in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and the Initial Decision of the ALJ, the Commissioner concluded that petitioner has provided expert evidence in support of its position that the withheld funds were comprised of unanticipated federal impact aid received prior to FY 2009, and that respondent has been unable to persuasively rebut the Board's evidence. Accordingly, the Commissioner found that, under 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709, respondent must reimburse the petitioning Board in the amount of $1,672,507. In so finding, The Commissioner noted that, under 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709(b), the respondent may apply for certification from the United States Secretary of Education that the State has in effect a program of State aid to equalize expenditures for free public education among local educational agencies in the State; such certification is a prerequisite that can enable the respondent to reduce State aid to an agency which receives federal impact aid, and may thereby eliminate the potential for future litigation over the issues in the present case.

V.	:
NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND BRET SCHUNDLER,	:
RESPONDENTS.	:

The Commissioner has been charged by the Appellate Division with determining the amount of reimbursement, if any, to which the petitioning Board of Education of the Northern Burlington Regional School District in Burlington County (the Board) is entitled as a result of the respondent Department of Education's (the Department) withholding of equalization aid in 2010. Petitioner demands reimbursement in the amount of $1,672,507 and respondent contends that petitioner has failed to prove entitlement to same. Upon review of the record and Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law[1] the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's determination that, within the framework of the law of the case as articulated by the Appellate Division, the weight of the evidence is in petitioner's favor.

The above-referenced withholding of equalization aid payments was a consequence of Governor Christie's Executive Order 14 (EO14), dated February 11, 2010, which declared a state fiscal emergency and, inter alia, ordered the Commissioner of Education to reserve district state aid payments based upon the respective surpluses and reserve account monies available to districts at the end of Fiscal Year 2009 (FY 2009). The Department posited that petitioner's 'excess surplus' for the 2009 fiscal year had amounted to $1,672,507, and withheld State aid in that amount.[2]

Petitioner asserts that the Department's withholding of the 'excess surplus' was ultra vires because it violated a federal statute. More specifically, the Board cites 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709, which provides as follows:

> State consideration of payments in providing State aid
> (a) General prohibition. Except as provided in subsection (b), a State may not –
> (1) consider payments under this title [20 USCS §§ 7701 et seq.] in determining, for any fiscal year:
>
> (A) the eligibility of a local educational agency for State aid for free public education; or > (B) the amount of such aid; or
> (2) make such [federal] aid available to local educational agencies in a manner that results in less State aid to any local educational agency that is eligible for such payment than such agency would receive if such agency were not so eligible.

Contending that any surplus which might have existed for the 2009 fiscal year consisted primarily of federal impact aid, petitioner urges that the Department violated 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709 when it included such 'surplus' in its determination concerning the withholding of $1,672,507 of State aid.

The controversy was brought before then Commissioner Bret Schundler, who ruled in favor of the Department's withholding of the $1,672,507 of State aid. However, the Appellate Division of New Jersey Superior Court reversed the Commissioner's decision. In a ruling which constitutes the law of this case only, the Appellate Division of New Jersey Superior Court advised:

> ...U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 1 includes the congressional power to "provide for the . . . general Welfare of the United States. . . [.]" "Incident to this power, Congress may attach conditions on the receipt of federal funds." South Dakota v. Dole, 483 U.S. 203, 206, 107 S. Ct. 2793, 2795, 97 L. Ed. 2d 171 (1987).

[2] The Department withheld an additional $468,762, which was the equivalent of 25% of petitioner's reserve account balances, but petitioner does not seek reimbursement of same.

The Appellate Division concluded that:

> the Commissioner lacked authority under the Act to reduce state aid by offsetting it against the district's "excess surplus" to the extent that "excess surplus" included Impact Aid, even if not set aside in a "legal reserve." The District asserted that its excess surplus is comprised entirely of unanticipated Federal Impact Aid dating back to the [sic] 1999. In its submissions to the ECS and Commissioner, it included its auditor's report in which the auditor reviewed budget reports and fund balances for a ten-year period and concluded "impact aid is a major contributor to any fund balance being on hand." In view of the Commissioner's determination that Federal Impact Aid becomes part of the general fund, the Commissioner made no findings as to whether the $2,141,169 withheld was all attributable to the Federal Impact Aid, as the District contends.

Thus, the Appellate Division remanded the case for further proceedings addressing the source of the District's 'excess surplus' funds.

Upon review of the record of the remand proceedings in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the Initial Decision of the officiating Administrative Law Judge (ALJ),[3] the Commissioner concludes that the Department has not been able to rebut expert evidence provided by petitioner that the withheld funds were likely comprised of unanticipated federal aid received by petitioner prior to FY 2009. Thus, the Department's withholding of the disputed $1,672,507 would appear to have negated the intended salutary effect of 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709(a)(1)(B) and 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709(a)(2).

Petitioner's auditor, Rodney Haines, was qualified in the OAL as an expert witness in public school accounting without objection from the Department. 2T 34-35.[4] He performed an audit of petitioner's finances for FY 2000 through FY 2009, and testified about his conclusions. It appears undisputed that for fiscal years 2000 through 2009, monies received by the district during a particular fiscal year – whatever the source – were counted as additions to the district's general fund. Consequently, for those years, receipts could not be tracked from their source to their ultimate use, making it difficult to prove whether a particular federal dollar was used on a computer or went into surplus – which was ultimately used to provide tax relief.

However, Haines was able to draw certain pertinent conclusions from his audit of petitioner's finances for fiscal years 2000 through 2009, and his review of petitioner's budget for subsequent years. For example, he noted that following the district's segregation of its unanticipated federal aid into a separate legal reserve account in FY 2010, its accounting statements no longer revealed any excess surpluses. 2T49. Petitioner's Exhibit P-21 shows that this was the case for FY 2010, FY 2011 and FY 2012. Haines viewed this as an indication that petitioner's excess surpluses had been primarily comprised of unanticipated federal aid payments. 2T54-57.

Haines also pointed out that petitioner's fund balance for FY 2009 ($9,031,737) minus the sum of all the allowable reserves ($3,183,192) was $5,848,545, an amount comparable to the total of unanticipated federal impact aid which the district had received over the prior ten fiscal years (i.e., $6,403,266). 2T49-53. Thus he concluded that – assuming petitioner had maintained all of its programs – it would not have had any appreciable surplus funds at the end of FY 2009, were it not for the infusions of unanticipated federal aid. 2T50-53.

Haines also drew conclusions from his knowledge of the nature of school districts' categories of income, how those income categories are received, how budgets are created and how surpluses are calculated. Thus, he noted that when a district formulates its budget, it already knows the amount of local revenues it can count on and the amount of state aid it will receive. By way of contrast, it has no idea how much federal aid it will receive, and typically budgets far less than it ultimately receives for the budgeted year. Consequently, excess funds are more likely attributable to federal aid than to the other major contributing budget categories, i.e., local taxes and state aid. 2T64-65.

Finally, there appeared to be no significant disagreement among the witnesses for both petitioner and respondent[5] about the budgetary fact that unanticipated federal impact aid received by a district in a given fiscal year is allowed as an adjustment (subtraction) to the calculation of the district's allowable surplus for that fiscal year and is not usually spent in that year; rather, it is rolled over into surplus for a subsequent year, after which it can be used, inter alia, to lower the amount of taxes required to support the district's next school budget. See, e.g., the testimony of Richard Kaz, Jr., petitioner's business administrator, at 2T21-22, and the testimony of Patricia Scott, at 2T110.

In light of the foregoing, the petitioner has made a showing that it is more likely than not that its 'excess surplus' calculated for FY 2009 was attributable to the receipt of unanticipated federal impact aid. Respondent did not present a persuasive rebuttal to petitioner's showing. Therefore, in accordance with the mandate of the Appellate Division, all of the $1,672,507 which respondent withheld from petitioner in FY 2010 should be returned, since it made federal "aid available to [a] local educational agenc[y] in a manner that result[ed] in less State aid to [the] local educational agency that [was] eligible for such payment than such agency would [have] receive[d] if such agency were not so eligible." 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709(a)(2).

The Commissioner further notes that under 20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 7709(b),[6] respondent – being a State educational agency which has in effect a program of state aid that equalizes

However, certification by the United States Secretary of Education is a prerequisite to such an action on the part of a state. Application by respondent for such certification might eliminate the need for future litigation over the issues in the present case.

In summary, the Commissioner finds that, under the federal law discussed supra, respondent must reimburse to petitioner the $1,672,507 withheld as a result of EO 14 in 2010.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This case is before the Office of Administrative Law on remand from the Appellate Division. On February 3, 2012, the Appellate Division issued a decision, Northern Burlington County Regional School District Board of Education v. Bret Schundler, Commissioner, New Jersey Department of Education, No. A-0607-10T3 (App. Div. February 3, 2012). The Appellate Division reversed the decision of the Commissioner of Education to withhold $1,672,507 in State aid from the petitioner, Northern Burlington County Regional School District, and remanded the case to the Commissioner of the Department of Education for factual findings on how much of the State aid withheld as excess surplus was based on federal Impact Aid. A hearing was held on February 13 and March 25, 2013. The record was held open for written summations and replies. The record closed on May 13, 2013.

STIPULATION OF FACTS

1. The Northern Burlington County Regional School District (District) is a regional school district serving children in grades seven through twelve who reside in Chesterfield Township, Mansfield Township, North Hanover Township, and Springfield Township, along with the children of United States Armed Forces service members residing on the joint military base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst.

2. The Board is the local educational agency responsible for the operations of the District.

3. The District, along with several adjoining school districts, receives federal Impact Aid based upon the presence of the joint base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst within its boundaries.

4. The intended purpose of federal Impact Aid is to subsidize local school districts that educate children from families who reside on federal property within the districts, since those families do not pay local property taxes. In essence, federal Impact Aid payments serve as payments in lieu of taxes for the children of military families.

5. Under the current regulations of the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE), the amount of federal Impact Aid received can be set aside and reserved for one year. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-8.5(b), in calculating the amount of excess surplus that must be designated in the budget for tax relief in the subsequent year, a district must include an estimate of its unreserved general fund balance as of June 30 of the pre-budget year in excess of the two percent statutory limitation contained in N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-7, but less, among other allowable adjustments, the amount of any federal Impact Aid anticipated to be received in the pre-budget year. In other words, federal Impact Aid is permitted to be held in reserve for one year, as it is set aside as an allowable adjustment to the excess-surplus calculation only in the year in which it is received. However, after being set aside for the initial year, the federal Impact Aid funds flow into the fund balance.

6. On February 11, 2010, Governor Chris Christie signed Executive Order 14, which effectively froze State aid to local school districts in amounts not exceeding excess surpluses and certain portions of reserve accounts available to local school districts. As a result, the NJDOE withheld monthly State aid payments to the District for the period February 2010 through June 2010, based on the District's excess surplus and certain portions of its reserve accounts as they were reported in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) for fiscal year 2008–2009 as of June 30, 2009.

7. Following the issuance of Executive Order 14, each district was notified of the amount of its withholding and the amount of unanticipated surplus and reserve-account balances on which the allocation was based.

8. The District was notified that its State aid would be withheld in the total amount of $2,141,269, which was based on the NJDOE's calculation that the District had excess surplus in the amount of $1,672,507 and that twenty-five percent of its reserve-account balances and under-projected-fund balance was $468,762. The sum of those two numbers comprised the State's total State aid withholding of $2,141,269.

9. In calculating the District's excess-surplus figure, 100 percent of which was withheld by the State, the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) relied upon the District's June 30, 2009, CAFR and Auditor's Management Report (AMR). The CAFR indicated that the District's excess surplus was $1,672,507 as of June 30, 2009.

10. The District was notified that its State aid would be withheld in the total amount of $2,141,269, which was based on the numbers submitted by the District indicating an excess surplus in the amount of $1,672,507, and that twenty-five percent of its reserve-account balances and under-projected-fund balance was $468,762. The sum of those two numbers comprised the State's total State aid withholding of $2,141,269.

11. The calculation of excess surplus began with the adjusted 2008–2009 general fund expenditures ($29,729,860).

12. The adjusted 2008–2009 general fund expenditures ($29,729,860) were then multiplied by two percent ($594,597), and then increased by the allowable adjustment ($2,512,905). The allowable adjustment included, among other things, the total amount of federal Impact Aid received during the 2008–2009 school year ($2,238.903).

13. The sum of the allowable adjustment ($2,512,905) and two percent of the adjusted 2008–2009 general fund expenditures ($594,597) is the maximum unreserved/undesignated-fund balance ($3,107,502), i.e., maximum amount of surplus that could be maintained as such for the upcoming year.

14. The maximum unreserved/undesignated-fund balance ($3,107,502) is then compared to the total unreserved/undesignated-fund balance ($4,780,009) to arrive at the amount of excess surplus. For the District, as of June 30, 2009, the amount of excess surplus was $1,672,507.

15. Thus, the $1,672,507 in excess surplus for fiscal year 2008–2009 did not include the $2,238,903 of federal Impact Aid received during fiscal year 2008-2009, since that amount was an allowable adjustment. It did include federal Impact Aid received during prior years, since those amounts were included in the undesignated-fund balance upon receipt and were thus included in the $4,780,009 that comprised the total unreserved/undesignated-fund balance as of June 30, 2009. Also included in the unreserved/undesignated-fund balance were local levy, State aid, and other miscellaneous revenue.

16. In calculating twenty-five percent of the District's reserve-account balances and under-projected-fund balance, the Commissioner calculated the sum of the reserve-account balances and under-projected-fund balance.

17. The total amount of the District's reserve-account balances was $749,365, which figure was comprised of $699,365 in capital reserve and $50,000 in emergency reserve.

18. The District's under-projected-fund balance was $1,125,682. This amount was calculated by taking the amount of unreserved/undesignated surplus as of June 30, 2009 ($2,656,038) and subtracting the amount of excess surplus budgeted in the 2008–2009 budget ($1,530,356).

19. Next, the sum of the reserve-account balances and under-projected-fund balance ($1,875,047) was multiplied by twenty-five percent, thereby equaling $468,762.

20. Accordingly, the Commissioner advised the District that State aid would be withheld in the amount of $2,141,269 ($1,672,507 + $468,762).

21. Once received by the District, federal Impact Aid revenue is included in the District's general fund.

22. Following the issuance of Executive Order 14, the NJDOE issued "Guidelines for County Review of Requests for Adjustments of Surplus and Reserve Accounts," which allowed local school districts to request an adjustment of the amount of State aid to be withheld pursuant to Executive Order 14. Following this recommended procedure, on February 16, 2010, the Board passed a resolution authorizing and directing the District administration to contest the withholding of its State aid on the grounds that the excess-surplus amounts being withheld were generated by the District's receipt of federal Impact Aid and were protected by federal law on that basis.

23. On February 17, 2010, the District's superintendent of schools, Dr. James Sarruda, sent a letter to the Burlington County executive superintendent, Dr. Lester Richens, requesting an adjustment of the District's State aid reductions on the grounds that such monies were derived from federal Impact Aid.

24. By letter dated February 25, 2010, Dr. Richens approved the District's request in the amount of $1,953,928, thereby recommending restoration of all $1,672,507 withheld as excess surplus and that portion of the other withholding that was based upon a percentage of the $1,125,682 in under-projected-fund balance for surplus activity after June 30, 2009. Dr. Richens found that both withholdings were due to surplus that consisted of unanticipated federal Impact Aid.

25. Dr. Richens's recommendations were forwarded to the Commissioner.

26. By email dated March 26, 2010, Dr. Richens notified Dr. Sarruda that, despite his earlier recommendation, the excess surplus would not be restored.

27. On April 19, 2010, Dr. Sarruda and District business administrator Richard Kaz met informally with Commissioner Bret Schundler and Yutse Thomas to discuss the situation further. The parties discussed the withholding at that meeting, but did not come to a resolution.

28. On June 23, 2010, having received no decision from the NJDOE, the District filed a formal petition of appeal with the Commissioner.

29. On August 17, 2010, the Commissioner sent a letter to Dr. Sarruda notifying the District that its appeal was denied in part and approved in part.

30. In his August 17, 2010, decision, the Commissioner denied the Board's request to restore the $1,672,507 in State aid withheld as excess surplus.

31. The Commissioner approved the District's appeal of the $1,125,682 in under-projected-fund balance based on surplus activity after June 30, 2009, finding that amount to be based on Impact Aid.

32. As a result, the reservation of State aid was recalculated to reflect a restoration of $281,421 ($1,125,682 x 25 percent). In other words, the sum of the District's -balances and under-projected-fund balance as set forth in Paragraph 24 above was recalculated as $749,365 (comprised entirely of $699,365 in capital reserve and $50,000 in emergency reserve) and the twenty-five percent withholding was reduced by $281,421 (from $468,762 to $187,341).

33. The Commissioner's partial restoration of withholdings is reflected in the 2009–2010 General Fund and Special Revenue Fund State Aid Payments—Payment Schedule Final, which was attached as Exhibit A to the Board's petition of appeal. In that final payment schedule from the Division of Finance, the State's $2,141,269 in State aid withholdings is shown in seven withholdings of $305,896 each from February 2010 to May 2010, while the Commissioner's approved adjustment of $281,421 is reflected in three restorations of $93,807 each from April 2010 to May 2010. The District did not appeal the Commissioner's restoration based upon the $1,125,682 in surplus activity after June 30, 2009.

34. With respect to the contested $1,672,507 of State aid based on excess surplus that the Commissioner refused to restore, Commissioner Schundler reasoned:

> Impact Aid is recorded in the general fund with other sources of revenue such as state aid, tax levy, and miscellaneous revenue. Once received, it becomes part of the overall resources for use by the district. There is no authority, either in New Jersey statute or generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) to set these funds in a legal reserve. The department does allow impact aid as an adjustment to the excess surplus calculation for the year in which it is awarded and your district utilized an allowance of $2,238,903 Impact Aid for the June 30, 2009 calculation.

35. The District's petition of appeal was never transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing. Instead, the NJDOE determined that the Commissioner's letter of August 17, 2010, constituted a "final agency decision" appealable to the Appellate Division.

36. The District thereafter withdrew its formal petition of appeal and filed a timely notice of appeal with the Appellate Division on September 27, 2010.

37. On February 3, 2012, the Appellate Division issued a decision. The Appellate Division reversed the Commissioner's decision to uphold the withholding of $1,672,507 in State aid to the extent that such withholding was based on excess surplus that included federal Impact Aid, regardless of when the Impact Aid was received or whether it was set aside or comingled in the general fund in prior years.

38. Noting that the Commissioner failed to make any findings as to whether the entire amount of the State aid withholding was attributable to federal Impact Aid, as the Board contended, the Appellate Division remanded for further proceedings to determine how much of the State aid withholding of excess surplus was based on the presence of federal Impact Aid received by the District.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

James Sarruda, Ed.D., testified that he has been the superintendent in Northern Burlington Regional since August 1993. He has a bachelor's degree, a master's degree and a doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania. He has certifications as an administrator, principal/supervisor, teacher of English, and secondary-school principal. As superintendent, he oversees a $35,000,000 budget. He also has served as an adjunct professor at Georgian Court College and Rowan University. He is the former national director of Region 1 and former New Jersey State chairperson of the National Association of Federally Impacted Schools (NAFIS), which is an organization that addresses issues of schools that receive federal-government appropriations for serving military children. His school district serves grades seven to twelve, and has an enrollment of 1,950. The percentage of military students is twenty-four percent. The school is in the DE factor group, which is an indication of the wealth of a community. DE is fifth out of eight in socioeconomic wealth. Since the military live on federal land that is not taxable, the federal government provides federal Impact Aid to local school districts that serve the military children as a payment in lieu of taxes. Congress determines the amount of Impact Aid. The money is unrestricted, without guidelines as to how to spend it. The Board's job is to anticipate the revenue and build it into the budget. Since Impact Aid is never guaranteed, he has learned not to overestimate the anticipated revenue amount. Doing so could cause layoffs mid-year, which would be disastrous. If the District received no federal Impact Aid, it would be short hundreds of thousands of dollars and it would have to revise programs and reduce costs drastically.

He noted that every computer purchased by the District has been bought with unanticipated federal aid. The aid has also gone to buses, facility work, and supplemental educational materials.

Dr. Sarruda explained the auditor's analysis of federal Impact Aid agreements dating back to 2000. (P-12.) There was a time when the impact aid used to pay 100 percent of the appropriate costs. However, since the 1970s, they have created a distribution formula, so now the District receives a local opportunity threshold (LOT), which is a formula for how the Department distributes Impact Aid. It is a needs-based formula, so the District's portion was at 100 percent. In Northern Burlington, the tax revenue per pupil is approximately $8,800. The District gets a percentage of the LOT. This year, it may be fifty percent, depending on the effects of the sequester. The District will get a payment for the fiscal year and the federal Department of Education will go back and look at available revenue from a prior year and decide if it can distribute more money. The excess is equal to the unanticipated payments from prior years. For instance, they received an extra 2006 payment in the year 2009. The District is not able to anticipate when such payments will arrive. The unanticipated revenue is a windfall that helps the District to be closer to being fully funded for the military students. The funds are moved forward to offset taxes in the next year rather than being accounted for separately. The District did not separate federal funds because the State Department of Education would not allow for it.

Dr. Sarruda continued that, after the executive order came into play, they went back and looked at their process and decided that they could no longer be vulnerable like this to the State claiming the excess. Therefore, they put unanticipated funds into a reserve account as of the 2010–2011 fiscal year. After Executive Order 14, the State withheld $2.1 million from the District. (P-2.) The guidelines of the State say that they can only have a two percent excess of unreserved, undesignated funds. Dr. Sarruda explained how the maximum two percent of excess surplus was calculated. (P-4.) The District had a surplus of $3,107,502. This is the figure that the Commissioner based its withholding on. Although Dr. Sarruda explained in a letter to the executive county superintendent that the surplus consists of federal Impact Aid and prohibits the State from withholding it, the State still withheld State aid from the District. (P-8.) The executive county superintendent reviewed the matter and then reinstated the State aid withholding by letter dated February 25, 2010. He stated that Impact Aid is not an entitlement, but a program funded by the federal government. Richens approved the request to restore the State aid. (P-9.) It never happened, however, because the Commissioner reconsidered it and sent a letter to that effect. The District then contacted its auditor, who put together an analysis for the ten years prior to the 2009 fiscal year. The auditor concluded that the entire District's surplus can be attributed to the Impact Aid. Dr. Sarruda further testified that Dr. Richens noted that the appeal was not granted, nor was the surplus going to be restored. However, he did not give an explanation, he just denied the request. (P-13.) The Board next met with members of the Department of Education, including Yutse Thomas. They next met with Commissioner Schundler and Thomas, along with the business administrator and Congressman Smith. Dr. Sarruda prepared a PowerPoint presentation that laid out the law, the economic impact, and the federal Impact Aid and explained the consequences of their actions and the impact on State aid and violation of federal law. Dr. Sarruda felt that he had not been heard in the meeting. The Commissioner upheld the decision denying the appeal and advised them to appeal. There was never any full hearing, but the Department treated the Commissioner's letter denying the relief sought as a final decision, which they appealed to the Appellate Division. (P-20.) The Board directed the auditor to issue a full report that sets forth "New Jersey state aid withholding calculations" to understand the years assigned and years received.

On cross-examination, Dr. Sarruda said that Impact Aid comes to the District unrestricted and can be used for any purpose the District deems necessary. A surplus occurs when a district does not spend all of its total revenues for the fiscal year. The surplus is identified in an annual audit which is due out in early December. No portion of the excess was spent in 1998 going through the years in question. The District has an excess surplus every year. Even if the District spends the Impact Aid, it is allowed an adjustment for it. Dr. Sarruda noted how the $2,238,903 in Impact Aid included both anticipated Impact Aid, which they budgeted for, as well as unanticipated aid. The District never disputed the amount of the allowable adjustment.

Richard Kaz, Jr., testified that he has been the business administrator and Board secretary for Northern Burlington Regional School District for over ten years. He is certified as a school business administrator and is responsible for managing the budget, running the transportation department, running the technology department, payroll and personnel divisions, benefits and anything regarding the budget. His involvement with Impact Aid is that he anticipates revenue, when it is received deposits it in the bank, reports it to the Board, and budgets and plans for its use. The Impact Aid goes into a general fund and is intermingled with other revenue. He files an application for aid every year as a state that is federally impacted by having military families. (P-27.) He completed the application in question on October 15, 2012. Each year the federal Impact Aid has not been appropriated. When there is no budget crisis, the District can get a current payment in January. Sometimes, however, it comes in March or April. He is not able to predict the size of the payment. He budgets what he receives for the current year based on years prior. The District does not depend on unanticipated aid. The District's auditor developed an analysis of the Impact Aid received as of June 30, 2009. (P-12.) The $5.88 million that is designated as excess funds is actually unanticipated revenue. Mr. Kaz further explained how there was a $3.1 million permitted surplus in savings in the District. (P-4.)

Mr. Kaz noted that the auditors' report indicated that over ten years the District accumulated $5.88 million in excess Impact Aid. The 2009 fiscal year alone resulted in $1.398 million in excess aid because the District had anticipated only $744,588. When one makes an adjustment to the excess-surplus calculation by subtracting $2.238 million received in just 2009, it comes to $3.6 million in unallocated excess Impact Aid. From that figure the auditor subtracted $1.67 million in withholding, and also subtracted $1.52 million as the fund balance designated for the fiscal year. It was easy for him to track the federal Impact Aid funds by just going through the revenue accounts. Each year the Impact Aid was received as current-year revenue. The Impact Aid can be held in an undesignated unreserved fund, but it does not change its character as Impact Aid. The revenue rolls forward into the general-fund balance from year to year. After the executive order issued and the District's aid was reduced, the District started to reserve federal funds separately. Once they stopped commingling funds they had no excess surplus for three years. In order to separate their money, they had to get a qualified audit opinion letter because the District was not adhering to accepted accounting principles. They have received qualified audit opinions since 2010. All of the financial statements from the auditors have been filed with the Department and other federal agencies.

Mr. Kaz explained that under general accounting principles, State aid, tax levy funds, and federal Impact Aid go into a fund, and excess surplus is deemed to roll over to lower taxes such that Impact Aid that was not budgeted for 2009 will be used to offset the 2011 budget, for example. The District's accountant was able to track the federal Impact Aid payments setting forth the year received and the year for which they were designated. (P-7, at P-2, at 2.) Impact Aid payments are listed under "totals" and the budgeted amount is set forth for each of the fiscal years in the third row from the top. The grand totals of Impact Aid are set forth at the bottom line of the worksheet. (P-7, at P-2, at 2.) If the District had not received Impact Aid, the fund balance contribution would have been less and would have resulted in cuts in programs or increase of the tax levy to offset the lack of revenue. In his opinion, the District would not have had excess to surplus if it were it not for receipt of unanticipated Impact Aid. This is shown by the fact that since they changed their accounting for it, there has been no excess surplus. The District prepared another general-fund revenue analysis that indicates the percentage of the fund balance that the federal aid represents and the amount of excess surplus generated. (P-21). In 2009 alone, there was $1,672,507 in excess surplus because the District had under-budgeted for federal Impact Aid in the amount of $1,494,315. He explained that the excess surplus is now $0 for 2010–2012 because the District is now reserving federal Impact Aid as part of his accounting practice. This means that the 2009 surplus was a result of not reserving federal Impact Aid. He admitted that the reservation of unanticipated federal Impact Aid is not provided for in Title 18A or Department of Education regulations. It is not part of generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The District began to receive a qualified opinion on audits made after 2009, which was the year the State went after the District's federal Impact Aid. The effect of a qualified opinion was that their bond rating with the State of New Jersey could be hurt. Federal Impact Aid was always less than ten percent each year. (P-21). Before 2009, the District's general fund was a comingled fund with federal aid, State aid, and local aid. Expenditures were paid out of the general fund. He further explained that the excess-surplus calculation for 2009 had a maximum of $3,107,502 that the District could have maintained going into the next year. The total unreserved undesignated-fund balance was greater than the maximum at $4.7 million. The difference is the excess surplus.

Mr. Kaz agreed that the allowable adjustment for $2.2 million adjusted the fund balance for the year 2009. Without the allowable adjustment for Impact Aid, the maximum unreserved amount would be less and the surplus would be lower. The State's withholding was due to the calculation of excess surplus. If the adjustment for Impact Aid received in 2009 lowers the excess surplus, the money is excluded from excess surplus and there has never been a deficit in Impact Aid. The District did not immediately appropriate the extra money; rather, it was budgeted in the next year, which is two years from receipt of it. The amount the District budgeted for in federal Impact Aid was spent in 2009. In 2009, the adjustment was for the entire amount of Impact Aid received. The excess surplus was designated for subsequent years of expenditures.

Rodney Haines, CPA, the District's auditor, testified as an expert in public-school accounting. He does the review of the District's financial statements in line with the guidelines and prepares the CAFR. He prepared the District's excess-surplus calculation that was required by the State in the 2008–2009 school year. (P-7 at P-1.) He explained the document stating that the District had received $5,882,785 in unanticipated federal Impact Aid and $520,481 in unanticipated Department of Defense (DOD) funds over the past ten fiscal years. Those funds were held in the Board's unreserved, undesignated-fund balance after being reserved during the year in which they were received. The amount of State aid withheld pursuant to Executive Order 14, $1,672,507, was based on the District's excess surplus as of June 30, 2009. After 2009, the District began to set aside the federal Impact Aid, which made him give a qualified audit, in that there was an exception to the finance statements in GAAP. There is no legal guidance that allows the District to set up an Impact Aid reserve. The letter that he issued to the executive county superintendent set forth his position that the excess surplus was unanticipated Impact Aid and DOD funds received over a period of time. His ten-year analysis illustrates the amount of unanticipated revenue from 2001 to 2009. (P-12.) There were two categories of funds, but they were both associated with federal impact students. His conclusion was that Impact Aid and DOD funds put $2,000,000 of funds into the District. He tried to explain this at a meeting with the Department of Education, but the NJDOE attendees were not interested in hearing his concerns. The District then requested that he prepare a thorough report, which he did. (P-7.)

Haines concluded that the District's excess surplus was fully attributable to the Impact Aid. He added that this becomes clear because when the District changed its method of accounting to reserve the Impact Aid, its excess went to zero. Without Impact Aid, it would be hard for any excess surplus to be calculated. In 2009, the District received $1,494,315 in unanticipated federal Impact Aid, which was 7.36 percent of the total revenue. Thus, the amount of Impact Aid associated with the excess surplus is "all of it." At most, Impact Aid made up 9.8 percent of all revenue. In any given year, Impact Aid made up less than 10 percent of revenue for the District.

Haines admitted that his opinion relies on Impact Aid not being spent that year and the assumption that it was not spent in subsequent years. The balance of the fund was comingled. The excess surplus had to be budgeted in subsequent years. Originally, the District budgeted for the excess in order to give tax relief. The District used the fund balance to balance its budget. Haines explained that, although one cannot determine how much of the funds being spent were State aid, State aid is a set figure prior to building the budget so there is not going to be excess. Excess revenue is limited to Impact Aid since it is unknown and miscellaneous. It is the only significant source contributing to revenue. When last asked in his expert opinion, how much of the excess surplus balance as of June 30, 2009, was due to unanticipated federal Impact Aid, he said, "probably all of it." This is despite that the total-fund balance of $9,000,000 decreased by encumbrances, excess surplus from prior years, and other reserve-fund balances brings the excess to $6,400,000. Yet he cannot say that the $2,600,000 difference is something other than unanticipated federal Impact Aid. If the fund balance is greater than the total dollar amount that is attributable to Impact Aid, the aid had to come from somewhere, so it could not be from Impact Aid. Money had to be in the original budget.

Patricia Scott testified that she has been the director in the Department of Education's Office of School Finance since September 2011. She has been with the Department since 1999. Prior to working at the Department, she worked with a local accounting firm for twelve years doing audits of nonprofit corporations, including private schools. Her responsibilities have included drafting recommendations for school audit procedures and assisting with designing the financial statements used by school districts. School districts must follow GAAP.

Regarding the excess surplus, Scott testified that revenue is categorized as: State aid; local tax levy; federal sources; other local sources; and budget surplus from the prior year. These funds are comingled, that is, placed in the same bucket. They are unrestricted. However, there are limited circumstances in which a particular expenditure or transfer can be traced to Impact Aid revenue. A district can transfer Impact Aid without Commissioner approval. One can tell if it is attributable to Impact Aid by looking at prior statements.

Ms. Scott continued, testifying that districts can carry a surplus in the budget subject to the limitation of twenty percent of expenditures. The budget excess must go to the subsequent year. It was built into the software. The purpose of the statute is that if a district raised too much money, it has to go back into the budget. The allowable adjustments are those allowed by code to the expenditures. They allowed an adjustment for extraordinary aid. Impact Aid was included in the calculation. It does not matter if the aid was unanticipated; the district still gets the full adjustment. She further explained that the legal reserves are those that are statutory, debt service and GAAP, where there are external constraints that are legally binding. If there was a surplus, the State would withhold State aid in such a way that the District had funds to offset it. Ms. Scott testified that N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-13.3(d)(6) permits a district to transfer funds from its fund balance or under-budgeted revenue and use the funds without Commissioner approval, if the funds were excluded as an allowable adjustment to the District's excess-surplus calculation in the pre-budget year. She explained that at one point $6,000,000 had already been adjusted out and was sitting in the fund balance.

On cross-examination, Ms. Scott testified that she had no involvement in preparation for auditing of a school district budget. She agreed there was no law providing for a reserve for federal Impact Aid. Although she knew that 110 districts appealed from Executive Order 14, withholding of excess surplus, she did not recall how many had their aid restored. She testified that Impact Aid set aside in initial receipt falls to surplus.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION OF LAW

The Federal Impact Aid Law was designed to strengthen and improve elementary and secondary schools educating "children who reside on Federal property and whose parents are employed on Federal property." 20 U.S.C.A. § 7701. The law allows for payment in lieu of property taxes. The law prohibits states from considering the amount of federal Impact Aid provided to local school districts in determining eligibility for and the amount of State aid to local school districts. 20 U.S.C.A. § 7709. Specifically, the law prohibits a state from offsetting federal Impact Aid by reducing its own State aid to the local district. Zuni Pub. Sch. Dist. No. 89 v. Dep't of Educ., 550 U.S. 81, 85, 127 S. Ct. 1534, 1538, 167 L. Ed. 2d 449, 456 (2007). Because the Appellate Division held that "the Commissioner lacked authority under the Act to reduce state aid by offsetting it against the district's 'excess surplus' to the extent that 'excess surplus' included Impact Aid, even if not set aside in a 'legal reserve,'" it directed the Commissioner to make fact findings through this court to determine how much of the $1,672,507 that the State withheld as excess surplus from the June 2009 CAFR was the result of federal Impact Aid received by the District.

Petitioner asserted that its excess surplus is comprised entirely of unanticipated Impact Aid for ten years between 2000 and 2010. In support of its assertion, petitioner presented the report of its auditor, Haines, which concluded that "impact aid is a major contributor to any fund balance being on hand." After being qualified as an expert in public accounting, Haines gave his expert opinion to a reasonable degree of accounting certainty that "probably all" of the $1,672,507 excess surplus was due to unanticipated Federal Impact Aid." He was less equivocal in stating that when the District changed its method of accounting to reserve the Impact Aid, its excess went to zero, so without Impact Aid, it would be hard to calculate any excess surplus. Haines's opinion on that point was not refuted by the respondent's witness. However, the Department counters that, pursuant to Executive Order 14, the Department withheld $1,859,848 in State aid in the 2010 fiscal year and beyond, and that withholding is the reason for the depletion of the District's excess surplus, not the change in accounting method. No witness from the Department testified to that opinion. Further, despite that argument, the Department had no alternative figure for the amount of surplus attributable to federal Impact Aid. Rather, it asserts that it is entitled to retain the entire surplus that it took regardless of the Appellate Division opinion. The record does not support this. I FIND the expert opinion of Haines to be credible and proven by his auditor's report. The withholding of State aid was not shown by substantial credible evidence in the record to account fully for the excess surplus going to zero after the change in accounting. I FIND that the District would have had less money in excess surplus as of June 30, 2009, if it did not receive unanticipated federal Impact Aid, and the reason the excess surplus went to zero after 2010 was due to the change in accounting method.

The Department focused greatly on the funds that the Department returned as an allowable adjustment to the 2009 excess-surplus calculation. However, as it readily admits, the allowable adjustment was only for the unanticipated Impact Aid for the 2009 year, not the previous ten years totaling $5,882,785 of Impact Aid. The Department continues to assert the position the Commissioner originally took that was reversed by the Appellate Division. It continues to assert that because the impact aid was placed in the general fund and comingled with the other revenue streams, it became part of the overall resources for the District, and the District was not authorized to set aside those funds in a legal reserve. The Department asserts that the District received the only adjustment to the excess-surplus calculation to which it was entitled, which was for the year 2009. This was rejected by the Appellate Division. The adjustment for Impact Aid in any given year does not change the fact that the entire excess-surplus balance being rolled over from year to year below the statutory adjusted two percent maximum amount is still derived from federal Impact Aid received in previous years. The fact that the unanticipated Impact Aid was not separated does mean that one cannot trace the total amounts in order to reach the conclusion that the excess surplus is attributable to unanticipated Impact Aid. This was testified to by business administrator Kaz and reiterated by Mr. Haines. The State's witness, Ms. Scott, also had no other explanation for where the unanticipated federal Impact Aid from prior years would go, other than the excess surplus in the June 30, 2009, CAFR and AMR. Thus, I FIND that the excess surplus consisted entirely of federal Impact Aid.

As set forth above, the Federal Impact Aid Law prohibits a state from providing less State aid to a local school district than it would have received if the district did not receive federal Impact Aid. 20 U.S.C.A. § 7709(a)(2). Although there is no way to determine which funds of the revenue stream are being used to pay for any District expenditure, the fact remains that the genera-fund balance on hand at the end of each fiscal year is higher as a result of the amounts of federal Impact Aid received in that fiscal year and in prior years. I therefore CONCLUDE that the petitioner proved by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the $1,672,507 in withheld excess-surplus was attributable to unanticipated federal Impact Aid.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that the Department of Education restore $1,672,507 in State aid that was withheld in the 2010 fiscal year in violation of the Federal Impact Aid Law.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner filed an appeal of the determination of the Union County Executive Superintendent of Schools (County Superintendent) that she and her children, M.K. and V.K., were not homeless and therefore not entitled to a free education in the Cranford school district during the 2012-2013 school year; further, the County Superintendent identified Trenton as the family's district of residence. The children were enrolled in Cranford schools in August 2012 and attended until January 22, 2013. The respondent Board filed a counterclaim for tuition reimbursement. The matter was transmitted to the OAL for hearing.

The ALJ found that: telephone conferences in this matter were held in April 2013, during which petitioner contended that the family continued to be homeless, but that the children had begun to be home schooled after January 22, 2013; petitioner agreed verbally to settle the appeal and counterclaim, and counsel for respondent agreed to present a draft settlement for petitioner's signature; thereafter, counsel for respondent advised that petitioner would not agree to the settlement; petitioner failed to make herself available for a mandatory telephone conference scheduled for December 2013 despite appropriate notice of the date and the fact that petitioner's failure to make herself available for the conference would subject her appeal to dismissal for failure to prosecute. The ALJ concluded that there is just cause to dismiss the appeal with prejudice because of petitioner's lack of communication and cooperation; further, the ALJ concluded that the counterclaim for tuition should also be dismissed because petitioner's children only attended Cranford schools from their Trenton residence for a short period of time, which can be deemed transitional.

The Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the matter is appropriately dismissed for failure to prosecute, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

Record Closed: December 18, 2013 Decided: December 20, 2013

BEFORE GAIL M. COOKSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner is the parent to two minor children who were previously enrolled in the school district of the Township of Cranford Board of Education (BOE). After the family claimed to have become homeless but entitled to a free education in Cranford, the County Superintendent entered a determination after investigation that the family was not homeless but residing in Trenton. Therefore, the children were no longer entitled to remain in Cranford schools. Petitioner appealed that decision and the BOE filed a cross-claim for tuition reimbursement. The BOE filed an Answer and Counterclaim to the petition asserting a demand for tuition reimbursement from petitioner. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -13 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 15.

I initiated a case management conference with the parties telephonically on April 5, 2013. On that date, the petitioner explained, albeit not under oath or subject to cross-examination, that she had registered the children in Cranford in August 2012 because she, her three children[i] and the children's father (J.K.) had moved into the home of her guardians. Both she and her partner had lost their jobs a few years ago. Apparently, on or about New Year's Eve, a family fight broke out and they all left. J.K. took the youngest child to stay with his parents and petitioner and the other two children moved in with some friends. The couple does own a home in Trenton but it might have been in foreclosure. From the end of the holiday school break until on or about January 22, 2013, petitioner drove the children from Trenton to Cranford every day for school. Petitioner then stated that she is now home schooling the children.

We established another telephonic conference for April 19, 2013. At that time, petitioner still maintained that they were homeless for the month of January but agreed to settle the appeal and counterclaim. Counsel for respondent agreed to present a draft settlement agreement to petitioner. Thereafter, in response to inquiries by my office, counsel for respondent advised the office that he had sent petitioner a proposal but could not get her agreement to it. Since that time, I have tried to communicate with petitioner.

Although not on the record or under oath, petitioner has on more than one occasion told myself or my secretary that her children are not attending Cranford schools, that the case can be closed but she refused to sign the draft settlement or even to confirm in writing her withdrawal of the matter, and I so FIND. Accordingly, on November 21, 2013, I scheduled a mandatory telephonic conference call for December

[i] The youngest child was just five years old so was not yet registered for school.

18, 2013. Petitioner was advised of the date and also advised that her failure to make herself available for that conference would subject her appeal to dismissal for failure to prosecute. On that date and time, petitioner again failed to make herself available, and has to date failed to explain her absence or in any manner to communicate with either counsel or the OAL.

I CONCLUDE that there is just cause, under all the circumstances, to dismiss this appeal with prejudice because of appellant's lack of communications and cooperation; however, I also CONCLUDE that there is good cause to also dismiss the counterclaim for tuition because it would appear that petitioner's children only attended Cranford schools from their Trenton residence for a short period of time, which could be deemed transitional.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the appeal of petitioner M.K. be deemed dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute. Based upon the above findings, however, it is further ORDERED that the cross-claims of the Board of Education of the Township of Cranford also be dismissed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner appealed the non-renewal of his employment contract as a principal in respondent's school district for the 2011-2012 school year, and sought reinstatement to that position. Petitioner had been appointed as principal in 2010 after many years of employment as a teacher in the district; the Board contended that petitioner's non-renewal was performance-based and linked to his alleged mishandling of an April 2011 incident in which a student brought a pellet gun to school. Petitioner asserted that the Board's actions in non-renewing his contract were driven by political motivations, and were specifically in response to petitioner's failure to follow an alleged patronage directive from a community leader.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: in the course of his employment as principal, petitioner complied with requests made of him by community leaders regarding personnel recommendations, and modified his own personnel recommendations to his superintendent based on the choices of others; petitioner also supported community and political events he was encouraged to attend, and on one occasion in March 2011, failed to comply when requested not to attend a fundraiser for political reasons; although petitioner alleges that he felt his job security was threatened in retribution for not complying with a politically motivated directive, neither party presented testimony from the Board and community members who allegedly made the threats; unrelated to the foregoing, petitioner failed to follow district policy and procedures when a student brought a pellet gun to school in April 2011; such failure to follow the district's weapons policy was potentially harmful to students and staff, and was sufficient in and of itself to justify petitioner's non-renewal as principal; petitioner's three evaluations for the 2010-2011 school year documented declining confidence in his leadership as principal; and a school board has virtually unlimited discretion in hiring or renewing non-tenured staff. The ALJ concluded that the Board's action in non-renewing petitioner's contract for the 2011-2012 school year was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, and petitioner was given a written statement of reasons why he was not offered another contract. Accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon independent review, the Commissioner found no reason to reject the credibility determinations of the ALJ, and concurred with the ALJ that the Board's decision to non-renew petitioner's contract was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable given the missteps documented in petitioner's evaluations and other work related documents. The Commissioner also determined that petitioner failed to show a nexus between the community leader who made political requests of him and the district superintendent who recommended his non-renewal. Accordingly, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

GABRIEL NAZZIOLA,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
	:	DECISION
V.	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

Petitioner in the instant controversy has challenged the respondent board of education's decision not to renew his employment as principal of one of the district's elementary schools. After a fact-finding hearing in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) assigned to the case found that respondent's decision was not arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable or – as petitioner alleged – improperly driven by political motivations. Upon review of the record, Initial Decision of the OAL, petitioner's exceptions and respondent's replies thereto, the Commissioner is constrained to agree with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ.

At the outset, the Commissioner notes that in a case – such as the instant one – where resolution of the controversy relies heavily on the analysis of the facts presented by the parties, the head of an agency must give substantial weight to the ALJ's credibility determinations and to all findings based on these determinations, since it was the ALJ who had an opportunity to hear the testimony of the witnesses and to assess their demeanor. See Clowes v. Terminix International, Inc., 109 N.J. 575, 587 (1988); Renan Realty Corp. v. Department of Community Afairs, 182 N.J. Super. 415, 419 (App. Div. 1981). The ALJ was further able to make determinations about the viability of each witness's testimony and about both the overall internal consistency of witness testimony, and its consistency with all of the evidence presented at the hearing. See, e.g., Congleton v. Pura-Tex Stone Corp., 53 N.J. Super. 282, 287 (App. Div. 1958). Thus, the Commissioner will not reject the ALJ's determinations concerning the credibility of witness testimony in this controversy unless it is first determined from a review of the record that the findings are arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, or are not supported by sufficient, competent, and credible evidence in the record. S.D. v. Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services and Monmouth County Board of Social Services, 349 N.J. Super. 480, 484 n.1 (App. Div. 2002). The Commissioner can make no such determination here.

To the contrary, the Commissioner's independent consideration of the facts of this case leads to the same conclusions as those drawn by the ALJ in the Initial Decision. First, it is undisputed that petitioner had already been warned in the second of three evaluations in his first year as a principal that he needed to improve his management and relationship skills. Second, shortly after that second evaluation, petitioner failed to properly handle an incident in which a student brought a weapon to school. Third, by the end of the school year, multiple parents had registered complaints about aspects of petitioner's performance as principal.

The above three factors present a reasonable basis for a non-renewal, but the pellet gun incident, in particular, lends legitimacy to respondent's non-renewal decision. At 9:30 a.m. on April 15, 2011, petitioner learned from a student's mother that her son had brought a pellet gun to school. Petitioner retrieved the gun from the student, gave it to his mother to bring home, and sent the student back to class. At least five hours passed before petitioner took the actions required by district policy, i.e., notification of the police and the superintendent of schools, relinquishment of the gun to the police, and segregation of the student from the rest of the student body, pending a psychological evaluation.

In his exceptions, petitioner attacks the Initial Decision on two fronts. First, he minimizes respondent's stated reasons for the non-renewal. Petitioner attempts to minimize the significance of the pellet gun incident by 1) asserting that he had not been given the district policy on weapons, and had not received training on same, and 2) alleging that the district superintendent was equally ignorant of the policy. Petitioner also casts aspersions on his third and final evaluation for the year by noting that it was "the mirror opposite" of his first evaluation, in which he was praised for sound judgment and ability to be a leader.

The latter argument is meritless, as certain flaws in petitioner's performance only became apparent over the course of time, e.g., the parent complaints and the pellet gun incident. Nor is the Commissioner persuaded by petitioner's attempts to minimize the significance of the pellet gun incident. When an incident as grave as the discovery of a weapon in school comes to the attention of a school administrator, the prudent response is immediate notification of the district superintendent and authorities, and immediate reference to district policy if the administrator is not already familiar with that policy. Ignorance is not an acceptable excuse in regard to a policy as important as response to the discovery of a weapon in school. The onus is on the administrator to apprise himself of the relevant policy. Whether or not the district superintendent was familiar with the policy is not germane to the instant controversy, since petitioner waited over five hours to contact him. See, Petitioner's Exhibit P-10.

Petitioner does not seem to appreciate the risk to student and staff safety posed by his actions. Giving the gun back to the student's mother could have led to the student's continued access to it. Failing to require the student to be evaluated left undetermined whether the student was experiencing difficulties that could pose a risk to other students – and staff. Failing to notify the authorities of a weapon opened the district to liability. In sum, petitioner's actions and his lack of appreciation of the gravity of the incident demonstrate a lack of good judgment.

As regards petitioner's alternate argument – i.e., that political considerations had underlain his nonrenewal – initially, the Commissioner emphasizes that such political machinations have no place in the administration of public schools and notes that petitioner's own cooperative behavior as a school administrator in that regard was contrary to the spirit and the letter of the School Ethics Act. See N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22 and 12-24b. Review of the evidence as a whole, however, leads the Commissioner to the conclusion that petitioner did not make a showing that political motivations were a basis for the non-renewal. Most importantly, petitioner did not prove a nexus between political leader Yanuzzi and Superintendent Picardo, the individual who was responsible for making – and who did make – the non-renewal recommendation adopted by the respondent Board of Education. Petitioner had the right to call both Picardo and Yanuzzi to question them about their statements, actions and possible interactions, but did not do so. The Commissioner also notes that petitioner maintains that he did Yanuzzi's bidding in all but one instance, i.e., attendance at a fund raiser for the ailing mother of a student. Thus, the petitioner urges that he was non-renewed for one diversion from Yanuzzi's directions. The Commissioner finds this to be a less likely explanation for the non-renewal than the missteps documented in petitioner's evaluations and other work related documents.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision of the OAL. The petition is herewith dismissed.

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10984-11
AGENCY DKT. NO. 210-8/11

GABRIEL NAZZIOLA, Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

Robert M. Schwartz, Esq., for petitioner (Monroe Centre at Forsgate, attorneys)

Derlys Maria Gutierrez, Esq., for respondent (Adams, Stern, Gutierrez & Lattiboudere, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 31, 2013 Decided: December 16, 2013

BEFORE EVELYN J. MAROSE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Gabriel Nazziola (Nazziola), was not recommended for a second renewal of his employment contract as the principal of School #5 for the 2011-2012 by Joseph Picardo (Superintendent Picardo), the superintendent of the Belleville Public Schools. After receiving a statement of the reasons for his non-renewal, Nazziola requested a hearing before respondent, the Belleville Board of Education (Board). At the hearing, the Board chose to sustain Superintendent Picardo's decision, and Nazziola's contract was not renewed.

On July 26, 2011, Nazziola petitioned the Commissioner of Education challenging the Board's decision, and the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case on September 15, 2011. The Board filed a Motion for Summary Decision on January 27, 2012. After considering the opposition filed by Nazziola, a reply submitted by the Board and oral argument, the Motion for Summary Decision was denied. Hearings were conducted on September 24, 2012, November 30, 2012, January 7, 2013, and May 1, 2013.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDING OF FACTS

Numerous facts are not in dispute. Nazziola has been employed by the Board for more than twenty years. He was appointed to the position of principal to Belleville Elementary School No. 5 by the Board based on the recommendation of Superintendent Picardo. (P-1, P-2, P-3.) Nazziola's performance was evaluated by Superintendent Picardo on December 8, 2010, and April 7, 2011, through the use of "Administrators – Evaluation" forms. During the first evaluation, dated December 10, 2010, he obtained "Meets District Standards" (the highest mark) in thirty-three categories; "Suggested Improvements" (the second-highest mark) in four categories; and three "Non-applicable" marks. (P-4.) During the second evaluation, dated April 7, 2011, he received "Meets District Standards" in twenty-eight categories; "Suggested Improvements" in two categories; and three "Non-applicable" marks. (P-5.) He received no "Unsatisfactory" marks during either evaluation.

On April 15, 2012, at around 9:30 a.m., Nazziola was told by a mother of one of his students that her son had brought a pellet gun to school. Nazziola called the student down to his office. The student had a pellet gun in his bookbag. Nazziola gave the pellet gun to the mother and permitted the student to return to his classroom. At approximately 2:30 p.m. on that same date, Nazziola called the Belleville Police Department (Police Department). Police officers came to the school and questioned the mother, who had been asked to return to school. An incident report and complaint were prepared by the Police Department. Nazziola memorialized his handling of the pellet gun incident in a letter to the superintendent, dated April 15, 2011.

On April 29, 2011, Superintendent Picardo sent Nazziola a letter detailing his concerns about Nazziola's handling of the pellet-gun incident. Among other things, the superintendent stated that Nazziola did not immediately inform the police or the superintendent about the incident, he allowed the parent to remove the weapon from the premises, he did not secure and document possession of the weapon, he did not report the incident to the superintendent in a timely manner, and he was not aware that the student should have been removed from the regular education program and provided with home instruction until the results of a psychiatric evaluation and a Board hearing could be conducted. (P-11.)

On May 11, 2011, Superintendent Picardo completed an End-of-Year Evaluation for Nazziola. He received eight "Does Not Meet District Standards" marks; eleven "Meets District Standards" marks; and zero "Exceeds District Standards" marks. (P-6.) On May 12, 2011, the superintendent notified Nazziola that his contract as principal at School No. 5 would not be renewed for the 2011-2012 school year. On May 13, 2011, Nazziola requested a statement of reasons for his non-renewal. In a letter dated June 13, 2011, the superintendent stated the decision to non-renew Nazziola's contract was based upon the following five reasons:

> a. need to demonstrate positive communication with parents, students and staff, > b. does not effectively communicate and utilize resources to improve management skills, > c. does not effectively utilize processes for gathering, analyzing and using data for decision making, > d. does not demonstrate and or communicate problem solving [sic] strategies, and > e. compromised the safety and well being of students and staff by failing to comply with state statute and district weapon policy.
> [P-11.]

On June 14, 2011, petitioner requested a public Donaldson Hearing before the Board. At the time of the hearing, Nazziola made a presentation to the Board. The Board did not make a motion to renew Nazziola's contract. On July 18, 2011, a letter was sent to Nazziola by Alfonse DeMeo, Esq., indicating that Superintendent Picardo's decision to not renew petitioner was upheld by the Board. Nazziola is presently a music teacher in the middle school.

In addition to addressing the foregoing facts, the witnesses stated the following during the hearing:

Nazziola

Nazziola had a pending application for principal in the Spring of 2010. He had previously applied for various principal positions in Belleville but was not selected. In June, though not a planned meeting, Nazziola had the opportunity to speak with a Board member, Joseph Longo (Longo), in the presence of another district teacher, Eugene Moriello (Moriello). They discussed various "openings" in the school system including superintendent and the principal position for which Nazziola applied. Nazziola stated that the essence of Longo's statements to him were that Nazziola had a good chance of becoming principal and that Richard Yanuzzi (Yanuzzi) would contact his father through the Optimist Club, in which his father and Yanuzzi were both members. Yanuzzi would tell his father if Nazziola was being appointed to the principal position.[1] The Optimist Club was a community service organization that, among things, provided scholarships to graduating Belleville seniors. Yanuzzi was also chairperson of the Belleville Athletic Council, which Nazziola asserted was a recognized committee by the Board.

In August 2010, Longo, Yanuzzi, and Board President Peter Zangari met with Nazziola and his father in a Belleville Deli. During that meeting, Yanuzzi pulled out a piece of paper containing two names and told Nazziola, "These are the people you are going to recommend for the two open physical education teacher positions." That summer, after Nazziola had been appointed principal, he served on a committee to interview candidates for two open physical education positions and one open music position. The named individuals were two of the nine candidates reviewed. Neither candidate was recommended by the committee for hiring. In fact, one of the named candidates received the lowest of all committee ratings.

[1] In fact, it was Superintendent Picardo that telephoned Nazziola and told him that he was selected to be principal of School #5.

Nazziola asked Yanuzzi where he "got the names from," informed him that neither of the two candidates was among the best interviewees, and that another candidate, also a town resident, was found to be the best candidate. Yanuzzi informed him that the "best candidate" was not of the "right side of the fence." The candidates that Yanuzzi identified were "on their side" and Nazziola was to recommend those two candidates.

After being so advised by Yanuzzi, Nazziola spoke with the other members of the selection committee members individually and basically asked them, "Did you - I guess you got the call also." The committee members smiled and nodded their heads, indicating that they received the hiring/recommendation instruction that Nazziola had received from Yanuzzi. Nazziola said that, fearing retribution, he forwarded the two names of the candidates identified by Yanuzzi as his own recommendations. One of those candidates began working at School #5, where Nazziola was principal, that September.

Later in August 2010, Longo telephoned Nazziola's cell phone regarding an opening for a music teacher. He told Nazziola that he was to recommend a certain candidate for the job. Again, the candidate that Longo wanted him to recommend was not the first choice of the selection committee or Nazziola. Nazziola began to feel uneasy because this was the second interaction that he had where someone was dictating who he should hire and that recommendation was not based upon qualifications of the candidate. Nazziola told Longo that there was somebody else that he was going to recommend. In response, Longo told him that the previous person in his position was removed for not recommending "who they asked her to recommend for a teaching position." Nazziola assumed that if he did not comply, he would lose his job.

He recommended the candidate Longo identified in his cell call and that person was the successful job candidate.

Upon cross-examination, Nazziola acknowledged that the Board made appointments to education positions at the recommendation of the superintendent. Any parents, teachers, or administrators who interviewed candidates provided their recommendations to the superintendant for consideration, but the superintendent was not obligated to chose a candidate based upon the recommendations that he received.

On September 7, 2010, Yanuzzi telephoned Nazziola and asked him if he received an invitation to the "Hall of Fame" dinner, and if he planned to go. Nazziola attended the event, although he thought the $125 event fee was expensive, because he felt he "had to go" after Yanuzzi's called him. Most, if not all of the other principals, also attended the event, that was sponsored by the Belleville Athletic Council that Yanuzzi chaired.

Around October 2010, Longo approached Nazziola about a teacher who was filling a temporary position caused by a maternity leave. Nazziola told Longo that he had been in the teacher's classroom several times and thought the temporary teacher was doing an excellent job. Longo told Nazziola to distance himself from her and not to recommend her because one of her family members failed to make a political contribution when asked to do so.

Around February 11, 2011, Yanuzzi requested that Nazziola attend a fundraising dinner for the re-election of Longo and another member to the Board. He again attended because he felt that he had no other choice.

Around March 1, 2011, Yanuzzi called Nazziola and told him that he should not support a PTA fundraiser for a third-grade student at School No. 5 whose mother had terminal cancer, because the event was being organized by PTA President Carmen Vellon (Vellon), whose husband was an opposing candidate from Longo for the Board. Nazziola, who initially proposed having the event, for the first time failed to follow Yanuzzi's directions and supported the fundraiser.

Nazziola received an invitation to a fundraiser for the re-election of Longo. Though he did not receive a telephone call directing him to support the fundraising, Nazziola remembered the previous telephone call that he received from Yanuzzi regarding the Hall of Fame event and felt compelled to attend. Nazziola does not remember his exact contribution, but it was in the range of $75 to $100. Nazziola saw other principals and administrators at the fundraiser.

Fearing retribution, Nazziola did not report any of the requests that Longo or Yanuzzi made to him regarding school personnel, though he did discuss the requests with the athletic director.

All of Nazziola's evaluations as principal took about ten minutes. At his first evaluation, Superintendent Picardo told Nazziola to keep up the good work, that he was hearing good things about him, and that he was doing a great job. (P-4.) At his second evaluation, Superintendent Picardo again told Nazziola that he was doing a good job. The only suggestions that he received were in the categories of "fostering positive student/parent/teacher relationships" and "improving management skills." (P-5.) No teacher had ever filed a grievance against Nazziola. A few parents had complained to him in person or on the telephone during the school year, but not relating to Nazziola himself. Most of the complaints were related to disagreements with their child's teacher. One complaint concerned bullying. Nazziola believed that he handled all of the complaints to the satisfaction of the parents. He did not learn until June 2011 that the parent who complained that his child was being bullied was dissatisfied with the manner in which Nazziola handled his complaint. (P-7.) At his third evaluation in May 2011, Superintendent Picardo told Nazziola, "You just imploded." Nazziola was in shock and signed the evaluation "not in agreement." Nazziola acknowledged that an incident occurred in his school regarding a pellet gun on April 15, 2011, but he did not believe that his handling of the incident merited the evaluation that he received in May.

Nazziola testified in detail about how he handled the incident. After confirming that a student had a pellet gun in his backpack, Nazziola took the gun from the student, gave it to his mother, and sent the student back to class. Then he looked for the policy that related to a student and weapons in the building, which he had to obtain online. (P-8.) When he found the policy, it was already later in the afternoon. The time it took him to locate the policy online was impacted by the regular principal duties that Nazziola performed that day.

Once he located and reviewed the policy, Nazziola contacted the Police Department and called Superintendent Picardo. Nazziola told Superintendent Picardo about the incident and informed him that the student had to be suspended until there was a board hearing. Superintendent Picardo told Nazziola, "I have to check that. I'll get back to you." Thereafter, Nazziola's secretary, at his direction, contacted the student's mother and asked her to bring the pellet gun back to the school. By the time the mother arrived at school, police officers were also at the school and the gun was given to the police. Later that day, Superintendent Picardo advised Nazziola to document the incident in writing. Nazziola documented the incident that day and forwarded it to Superintendent Picardo. (P-9.)

On April 29, 2011, Nazziola received a letter from Superintendent Picardo stating that he had great concerns with the manner in which Nazziola handled the pellet gun incident on April 15, 2011. In the letter, Superintendent Picardo stated that Nazziola did not act in accordance with Board's policy for the following reasons:

1. He did not immediately inform the police or the superintendent about the incident.
2. He allowed the parent to remove the weapon from the premises.
3. He did not secure and document the possession of the weapon.
4. His reporting of the incident to the superintendent was not in a timely manner.
5. He was not aware that the student was to be removed from the regular education program and provided with home instruction until the results of a psychiatric evaluation and a Board meeting could be conducted.

[P-10.]

Superintendant Picardo further stated that Nazziola's disregard of the policy had the potential to be detrimental and harmful to students and staff, and that he created a situation that placed the District at financial liability and severely compromised the safety of students and staff. (P-10.)

In rebuttal, after Rivera, current Board president, testified Nazziola stated that the superintendent had never complained to him about how he interacted with parents. He did acknowledge that there were two occasions that the superintendent called Nazziola and asked how he handled a situation with a parent. However, after they conferred, the superintendent did not indicate that Nazziola's handling of the interaction was an issue or problem. Nazziola did not believe that the interactions reflected negative parental communication, but rather incidents that he appropriately handled as principal.

Also in rebuttal of Rivera's testimony, Nazziola described an incident wherein he went into his office and did not continue to communicate with a parent. The incident occurred after a snow fall, when the line to drop off students at school was particularly jammed. One father, whose son was marked tardy, came into the school office in an angry rage. He accused Nazziola of failing to shovel the street. When Nazziola told the parent that it was not his job to clean the streets of snow, but the job of the town, the parent charged at Nazziola. The staff had to block the parent's charge. The parent remained in the school office for some time after Nazziola went into his own office. The parent did not leave until he learned that a call to the police had been made. Weeks later Nazziola and the parent conferred regarding the incident, which Mr. Nazziola never felt merited reporting to the superintendant.

Eugene Morriello (Morriello)

Morriello has been employed by the Board for more than twenty-two years. He teaches and is the orchestra director for the middle school and the high school. He has been friends with Nazziola since 1979.

Just before lunch, in June 2010, Morriello and Nazziola were standing in the foyer of the school music room when they saw and greeted Longo. At the time, Longo was a Board member, but Nazziola had not yet become a principal. Nazziola had given Longo the name of someone he thought was a good candidate for the open position of superintendent and they discussed who might become superintendent. Nazziola also told Longo that he wanted to be a principal. Longo replied, "If I can help you in any way, I will." Longo recommended that if Nazziola needed any information that he speak with his father who could speak with Yanuzzi. Yanuzzi had been a Board member, but his term had ended. However, Yanuzzi was still involved in numerous organizations in Belleville, including the Olympic Advisory Council and the Optimist Club.

Morrelli believed that the superintendent made personnel recommendations, including for teachers and administrators, to the Board and the Board would select and then ratify candidates.

Gabriel A. Nazziola, petitioner's father

Nazziola's father (Nazziola Senior) served three terms on the Board. The last two years of his last term, he served as Board President. The last year that he served was 1995. He is not a member of any organization that has an official affiliation with the Board. Nazziola Senior is a member of the Optimist Club, which is similar to the Elks, Lions, or Kiwanis. Nazziola Senior has known Yanuzzi, who is also a member of the Optimist Club, since the 1980's. Yanuzzi served one term on the Board during one of the Board terms of Nazziola Senior.

In August 2011, Nazziola Senior and Nazziola were eating at a town deli. At that time, Nazziola had already been appointed principal. During some of the time that they were eating, Yanuzzi, Board Member Longo, and then Board President Peter Zangari joined them. Longo told Nazziola that he had to recommend two identified persons to be teachers. Yanuzzi "chimed" in with, "these are our people." Nazziola Senior is uncertain if the candidates recommended by Yanuzzi for hiring were given the teaching positions.

Joseph Petrillo (Petrillo)

Petrillo was employed by the Board for thirty-eight years. His last position was principal of Belleville Senior High School for sixteen years until he retired in 2011.

Petrillo did not initially intend to retire in 2011. He was planning to work several more years. However, in May 2011, he received a telephone call from Yanuzzi, who requested, in a stern way, that Petrillo submit his retirement "ASAP." When Petrillo said he had no intention of retiring, Yanuzzi, who held no position that gave him the authority to request Petrillo's retirement, replied, "we'll deal with this." Petrillo knew Yanuzzi, who was a former student of Petrillo, to be involved in numerous town organizations. He was a director or "in some capacity" involved with the flea markets that raise funds for various organizations and clubs in the high school. Yanuzzi was involved with the Connie Francis Auditorium and represented the Belleville Education Foundation. Yanuzzi was also a former Board member.

A few days after Yanuzzi told Petrillo that he wanted him to retire, Petrillo was told by Superintendent Picardo to contact a representative from the Principal Supervisor Association and was directed to attend a meeting. Petrillo contacted Marilyn Hawthorn, his field representative and they met with Superintendent Picardo and the Board Attorney, Alfonse DeMeo, Esq. Petrillo was told that he was being suspended because he was "not meeting the requirements of principal since not all of his staff evaluations were complete." Petrillo acknowledged that some staff evaluations were not complete. However, his staff involved in evaluations—numerous supervisors, one administrator, and one vice-principal—had been drastically cut.

Petrillo had always received exemplary evaluations and was never spoken to before regarding any problems at the high school. He asked Superintendent Picardo and Board counsel directly, "You want me to leave? Let me finish out the 2011 school year." He was told, "No. We want your retirement immediately." Rather, than tarnish his clean record when "the writing was on the wall," Mr. Petrillo reluctantly retired.

Upon, cross-examination, Mr. Petrillo acknowledged that Picardo was a new Superintendent and that he had not completed the evaluations "to the satisfaction of the Board."

Yesenia Osorio (Osorio)

At the time of the hearing, Osorio was a member of the School #5 PTA. She had previously served as its president. In May or June 2011, she was in attendance at a meeting of the PTA, when the pellet-gun incident was discussed. Osorio asked John Rivera (Rivera), the Board liaison to the PTA, who was also present, "Is the reason he, [Nazziola] is being reassigned or not remaining our principal is because of the pellet gun situation?" Rivera replied that it was not the only reason. He did not identify any other reasons, but said that, because of privacy issues, "he couldn't put everything on the table." Osorio usually attended the monthly PTA meetings, was not aware of any complaints made by parents and had never even heard any negative comments about Nazziola's performance.

John Rivera

Rivera has been a member of the Board since April 2010. He currently serves as president. Each Board member serves as a liaison to one of the schools. When Nazziola served as principal of School #5, Rivera was that school's liaison. A liaison attends the PTA meetings, brings Board issues to the PTA president and the parents, and listens to concerns of the PTA and brings those back to the Board.

Riviera voted not to renew Nazziola's contract as principal after Superintendent Picardo did not recommend his renewal. Two of reasons given for the Superintendant's decision not to renew were that Nazziola "was ineffective relating to parents and due to the weapon's issue." The Superintendent provided examples to support his decision, including a complaint from an angry parent, who said that Mr. Nazziola refused to speak with him and remained in his office when the parent came to the school to see him.

Rivera did not personally observe or evaluate Mr. Nazziola or see any of his evaluations, but relied upon the recommendation of the Superintendent. Rivera had never received any complaint from parents about Nazziola. Rivera remembered being questioned by several parents as to why Nazziola was not being renewed as principal. He remembered Osorio asking if the only reason that he was not being renewed was "the pellet gun issue." He remembered telling her that matters of personnel are confidential and that he couldn't answer. If she liked, she could ask Mr. Nazziola and he could elaborate.

In summation, Petrillo, former senior high principal, testified regarding numerous out-of-hearing statements that were made to him. Hearsay is admissible subject to the "residuum rule," which mandates that the administrative decision cannot be predicated on hearsay alone. There must be a residuum of legal competent evidence in the record to support it. Weston v. State, 60 N.J. 36, 51 (1972). In assessing hearsay evidence, it should be accorded "whatever weight the judge deems appropriate taking into account the nature, character and scope of the evidence, the circumstances of its creation and production, and, generally, its reliability." N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(a). While I saw nothing in Petrillo's demeanor to detract from his credibility, there was no legally competent evidence admitted to support admission of the statements that he stated were made to him by Yanuzzi and Superintendent Picardo, who further did not testify at the hearing. In addition, the statements were made were regarding his position as principal and not on point to the failure to renew Nazziola's contract.

While I make no findings as to the accuracy of the statements contained in a letter dated June 14, 2011, from a parent who also did not testify at the hearing, I admit the parent's letter for the limited purpose of indicating that a parent, who was dissatisfied with the manner in which Nazziola handled a complaint that his son was bullied, advised the Board of his dissatisfaction with Nazziola's handling of a bullying complaint. (P-7.) The letter is supported by Rivera's testimony that he was aware of a parental complaint that Nazziola did not handle a bullying complaint to the satisfaction of a parent and by Nazziola's own testimony that a parent complained to him that his son was bullied.

The testimony of Osorio regarding a conversation about Nazziola's failure to be offered another principal's contract was consistent with the testimony of Board president Rivera. Both stated that Rivera acknowledged that the "pellet gun incident" was a stated reason for the failure to renew and that Rivera felt that "he could not put everything on the table" because of privacy concerns.

A careful analysis of credibility is necessary in order to make critical findings of fact. For testimony to be believed, it must not only come from the mouth of a credible witness, but it also has to be credible in itself. "'[T]he interest, motive, bias, or prejudice of a witness may affect his credibility and justify the [trier of fact], whose province it is to pass upon the credibility of an interested witness, in disbelieving his testimony.'" State v. Salimone, 19 N.J. Super. 600, 608 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 10 N.J. 316 (1952) (citation omitted). A credibility determination requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, internal consistency and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963).

Both Nazziola and Morriello describe a meeting that they had in the spring of 2011 with Board member Longo, in which they discussed Nazziola's application for principal. Both agree that Longo referred to Yanuzzi and the fact that Nazziola's father was a member of the Optimist Club with Yanuzzi. However, Moriello states that Longo offered to help Nazziola with his application in any way that he could, and referred him to Yanuzzi if he needed any additional information. In contrast, Nazziola states that Longo told him that he had a good chance of being appointed and that if his father contacted Yanuzzi, Yanuzzi could tell his father if Nazziola was being appointed to the principal position.

Moriello's description of the substance of the conversation is more credible. In this matter, Nazziola has presented Yanuzzi as someone who has influence over personnel decisions in Belleville, including Nazziola's principal assignment. He has a vested interest in characterizing statements of others to indicate that influence. In contrast, Moriello has no personal motivation to cast Yanuzzi with influence over personnel decisions. He also has no bias against Nazziola, with whom he has been friends and music colleagues for many years. Finally, it is uncontroverted that Nazziola did not first learn of the approval of his application from Yanuzzi, or by Yanuzzi informing his father. Superintendent Picardo advised Nazziola that his application for principal was approved.

After Nazziola was appointed principal, both Nazziola and his father testified that while they were eating at a town deli, Yanuzzi, Longo and then Board President Zangari stopped by or joined them. Both state that Nazziola was directed to recommend two candidates for three teaching openings. Nazziola testified that he was called on a second occasion by Board member Longo and directed to make certain teaching personnel recommendations. On that occasion, when Nazziola indicated that he wanted to recommend another, Nazziola's job security was essentially threatened.

Neither party called the Board member who allegedly threatened Nazziola to testify at the OAL hearing. Nazziola never reported that he had been threatened. However, Nazziola testified that, fearing retribution, he recommended the candidates that Longo and Yanuzzi directed him to recommend, rather than the candidate that he thought best. Nazziola also testified that he received telephone calls urging him to attend, and once not to attend, certain town fundraisers and board election campaigns.

Based upon a review of the documentary evidence presented and having had the opportunity to observe the demeanor and asses the credibility of the witness, I FIND the following pertinent FACTS:

Nazziola complied with requests that were made to him by community leaders, regarding personnel recommendations, and modified his own personnel recommendation to the Belleville superintendent. Instead of recommending the candidate he evaluated to be best qualified, he recommended the choices of others. Nazziola did not have final decision making power as to personnel.

Nazziola financially and by his attendance supported community and political events that he was encouraged to attend. On only one occasion, in March, 2011, did he not comply with a request that not attend a fundraiser that would benefit an ill parent because of one of the key persons working on the fundraiser was related to a Board candidate challenging the incumbents.

Nazziola received three performance evaluations in his first year as principal. While the first evaluation was very positive in December 2010, by his second evaluation, in April 7, 2011, Nazziola was on notice that Superintendent Picardo wanted him to improve in student/parent/staff relationships, management skills, and use of technology. By his third evaluation on May 11, 2011, more than one parent had complained to Superintendent Picardo about Nazziola. Nazziola failed to keep the superintendent apprised of parental/student incidents that he had to handle. Nazziola failed to handle a pellet-gun incident in accordance with Board policy, which policy Nazziola stated he had difficulty locating online. Superintendent Picardo indicated on the evaluation that he would recommend non-renewal of contract as principal. Later, he provided Nazziola with a written statement of areas in which he evaluated him as deficient and upon which he based his recommendation to the Board that Nazziola's contract to be principal not be renewed.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

By statute, a board of education "shall renew the employment contract of a certified or non-certified officer or employee only upon the recommendation of the chief school administrator." N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b). A school board has virtually unlimited discretion in hiring or renewing non-tenured staff. "A non-tenured staff member may only litigate his non-renewal if the facts he alleges, if true, would constitute a violation of constitutional or legislatively conferred rights." Getz v. N. Hunterdon-Voorhees Reg'l Dist. Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 606; see also Dore v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Bedminster, 185 N.J. Super. 447, 551 (App. Div. 1982).

To present a prima facie case in a "claim of discrimination based on political patronage in violation of the First Amendment[,]" one "must show that (1) he was employed at a public agency in a position that does not require political affiliation, (2) he was engaged in constitutionally protected conduct, and (3) this conduct was a substantial or motivating factor in the government's employment decision." Galli v. N.J. Meadowlands Comm'n, 490 F.3d 265, 270 (3d Cir. 2007); see also Travisano v. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders for Union County, A-2312-09 at *35-36 (App. Div. January 27, 2012), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/. If a prima facie case is established, the respondent may "avoid a finding of liability by proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the same employment action would have been taken even in the absence of the protected activity." Galli, supra, 490 F.3d at 271.

I CONCLUDE that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner when it supported Superintendent Picardo's recommendation that Nazziola not be offered a contract as principal for the 2011-12 school year. Nazziola was given a written statement of reasons why he was not offered another contract. By his own admission, Nazziola failed to follow Board procedures when a student brought a pellet gun to school. By his own admission, Nazziola failed to advise Superintendent Picardo that he had to telephone the police and/or indicate to an angry parent that the police had been called in connection with a parent's anger over his child being marked tardy when snow delayed the parent's drop off. By his own admission, he handled a complaint by a parent that his child was being bullied. Although Nazziola thought he handled the complaint to the parent's satisfaction, the parent was very dissatisfied with Nazziola's handling of the matter and complained to Superintendent Picardo.

In contrast, Nazziola presented no credible evidence that Superintendent Picardo's failure to recommend him and the Board's acceptance of his recommendation was based politically motivated or a result of Nazziola's engaging in constitutionally protected conduct. Further, though no such evidence was presented, the substantial detailed reasons as why Nazziola was not recommended by Superintendent Picardo for renewal would have sufficient for me to CONCLUDE that the Board could, in its discretion, not renew his contract as principal.

SYNOPSIS

In October 2013, the Commissioner of Education issued an Order to Show Cause upon respondent, requiring her to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate for unprofessional conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.9 – for resigning her position on inadequate notice. The respondent failed to answer the order. Respondent was duly advised that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e), failure to respond would cause each allegation raised by the Board to be deemed admitted, and might result in summary decision by the Commissioner.

There being no response to the order to show cause, the Commissioner concluded that the allegations – which respondent has chosen not to deny – may be deemed admitted, and justify suspension of respondent's certification. Accordingly, summary decision was granted to petitioner, and respondent's certificate is suspended for a period of one year from the date of the filing of this decision – a copy of which has been forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for the purpose of effectuating this order.

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
CERTIFICATION OF DIANE WASHER,	:	DECISION
RED BANK SCHOOL DISTRICT,	:
MONMOUTH COUNTY.	:

For Petitioner, McComber & McComber

Respondent: No appearance by or on behalf of Diane Washer

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on October 30, 2013, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner, Red Bank School District, upon respondent, Diane Washer, requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and 18A:28-8, for resigning without providing the amount of notice required by her contract with respondent, and for failing to provide the 60 days notice required by law. By notice dated October 30, 2013, the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes (the Bureau) acknowledged receipt of proof of service upon respondent of the order to show cause.

On December 5, 2013, the Bureau sent respondent a final notice, via regular and certified mail, directing respondent to file an answer within ten days. The final notice advised that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e), failure to respond would cause each allegation in petitioner's papers to be deemed admitted, and might result in summary decision by the Commissioner. Neither the notice sent by certified mail nor the notice sent by regular mail was returned., and no answer to the order to show cause has been filed as of this date.

As stated above, the final notice to respondent clearly advised that if an answer was not filed within ten days of receipt of same, each allegation in the papers supporting the order to show cause would be deemed to have been admitted and the Commissioner might decide the matter on a summary basis. The Commissioner now concludes that the allegations, which respondent has chosen not to deny, may be deemed admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e), and are sufficient to justify an order suspending respondent's teaching certification.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that summary decision is granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certification is suspended for a period of one year pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and 18A:28-8.[1] This order shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for effectuation of same.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS DKT. NO. 1011-189;
OAL DKT NO. EDE 5595-11
COMMISSIONER APPEAL NO. 2-3/13A

CHERYL SLOAN,	:
APPELLANT,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
NEW JERSEY STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

Appellant Cheryl Sloan challenges the determination of the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (Board of Examiners) that her actions warranted the suspension of her teaching certificates for one year. The Commissioner has reviewed the evidence and legal discussion presented in the proceedings before the Board of Examiners, as well as the parties' appellate briefs and appendices, and concurs with the Board of Examiners' determinations.

The material facts underlying this controversy were established by way of a hearing in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and were adopted by the Board of Examiners. Namely, on two separate occasions appellant allowed a personal friend, P.B., into the school building where she taught, so that he could lunch with her in her classroom. A student, B.B., asked to join them, and appellant facilitated B.B.'s participation in the lunches by way of notes excusing B.B. from class. Appellant did not have permission or authority from either B.B.'s parents or the school administrators to pull B.B. out of class or facilitate such a social encounter with P.B. In fact, although appellant did not know it, B.B.'s mother did not wish her daughter – a fifteen year old girl – to be in contact with P.B., a twenty-eight year old man. She had repeatedly advised PB to stay away from her daughter.

Based upon these findings, the administrative law judge (ALJ) who conducted the hearing in the OAL determined, inter alia, that appellant had violated school policy in failing to secure the principal's permission before allowing a visitor access to a student. The ALJ concluded from this that appellant's conduct had been unbecoming, in that it adversely affected the public's trust in school employees and confidence in school operations. However, the ALJ balanced appellant's long and previously unblemished record against the unbecoming conduct, and recommended a three month suspension of appellant's teaching certificates.

The Board of Examiners concurred with the ALJ that appellant's conduct had been unbecoming, and that the appropriate remedy was a suspension of appellant's teaching certificates. However, it determined that the conduct warranted a more serious penalty.

More specifically, the Board of Examiners cited the established principle that teachers who are entrusted with the care of the public's children bear a heavy duty requiring "a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." IMO Tenure of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. By way of contrast, appellant – in the Board of Examiner's view – "overstepped the proper boundaries that a teacher must maintain with students" and "exercised extremely poor judgment," placing B.B. "at possible risk by not following school policy." In the Matter of the Certificates of Cheryl Sloan, State Board of Examiners Docket No. 1011-189 (September 21, 2012) at 4. The Board of Examiners, therefore, ordered that appellant's certificates be suspended for a year instead of three months.

The arguments in appellant's papers do not persuade the Commissioner that the penalty imposed by the Board of Examiners was unsupported by the record. First, appellant contends that the Board of Examiners ignored the ALJ's factual findings. By way of example, appellant cites the ALJ's finding that some of B.B.'s testimony was unreliable and inconsistent with other testimony and evidence. The Commissioner notes that the testimony which was deemed by the ALJ to be unreliable was B.B.'s assertion that appellant had let P.B. into her classroom through a fire door.[1] But this "finding" of unreliable testimony was not central to the issue of the propriety of appellant's conduct. What is significant is the undisputed fact – which the ALJ did find – that appellant "arranged for B.B. to be present at th[e] lunch meeting [between appellant and P.B.]" (Initial Decision at 15)

Second, appellant maintains that the Board of Examiners ignored the ALJ's articulation of mitigation factors, such as appellant's long, unblemished record, the fact that appellant did not know about P.B.'s criminal record, the fact that appellant never left B.B. alone with P.B., and the fortunate circumstance that nothing 'inappropriate' happened. The Commissioner acknowledges that appellant's previously unblemished record should be weighed in deciding upon a penalty for appellant's conduct. However, the other three factors mentioned by appellant do not really mitigate in her favor.

It is undisputed in the record that appellant arranged a meeting between a fifteen-year old student and a twenty-eight year old male non-family member without the principal's knowledge or permission and, more importantly, without the knowledge or permission of B.B.'s parent. The purposes underlying the policies which appellant violated were fully in play. Common sense precludes any assumptions that there are good reasons for a fifteen year old girl to socialize with a twenty-eight year old man to whom she is not related. Any good reasons that might exist should properly be provided by the young girl's parent or guardian, and not be presumed by a teacher.

The result of appellant's conduct was that B.B. socialized with a man who has a criminal record, who paid improper attention to B.B. – including inappropriate postings on B.B.'s Facebook page and inappropriate requests to have her visit him overnight – and whose contact with B.B. had been forbidden by B.B.'s mother. This result is not an unforeseeable consequence of allowing contact between a teen-aged girl and a fully grown man without the imprimatur of the teenager's parent. Thus, it is not significant that appellant may not have known about P.B.'s criminal record or the nature of P.B.'s history with B.B.

Finally, appellant's denial that she put B.B. at risk is unpersuasive. It is fortunate that B.B. was not left alone with P.B. or physically harmed. However, appellant undisputedly put B.B. at risk by facilitating 1) her absence from a class which she should have been taking and 2) her socialization with a grown man whose behavior toward her had not been wholesome. Again, even without the knowledge that P.B. had a criminal record and had interacted inappropriately with B.B., appellant should have understood that it was reckless to facilitate a meeting between a fifteen year old girl and a twenty-eight year old man who was not a family member. Nor is the fact that B.B. may have advocated for said social encounter relevant to this controversy. She is a minor.

In sum, the Commissioner finds that the evidence in the record supports the Board of Examiner's determination that appellant's unbecoming conduct warrants a one-year suspension of her certificate. Accordingly, the Board's determination is affirmed and the appeal is dismissed.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. v.
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,
Respondent.

James O. Mboya, petitioner, pro se

Caroline Jones, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (John J. Hoffman, Acting Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

BEFORE BARRY E. MOSCOWITZ, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner applied for a substitute credential and respondent denied the application because petitioner had been charged with murdering his roommate and committed to confinement in a psychiatric hospital for ten years. Did respondent act arbitrarily, capriciously, or contrary to law? No. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.2, respondent may refuse to issue a certificate or credential if it determines that the applicant is not suitable for employment in the public schools, including for conduct unbecoming.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 6, 2013, petitioner applied to the State Board of Examiners for a substitute credential, which was denied.

Significantly, Petitioner did not, and still does not, possess a teaching certificate.

On January 15, 2014, petitioner filed a petition of appeal, as well as a motion for emergent relief, and the motion was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law the following day under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the Office of Administrative Law, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

The return date was scheduled for January 22, 2014, but was rescheduled for January 24, 2014, because the office was closed on January 22, 2014, due to a snow storm.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the papers the parties submitted, and their representations on the return date, I FIND the following as FACT:

By way of background, petitioner is currently receiving disability benefits, medication, and on-going therapy for mental illness. Petitioner states that he has been receiving this medical treatment for the past ten years without incident, that his mental illness is in remission, and that he is no longer a danger to himself or others. Nevertheless, petitioner acknowledges that he had been hospitalized for his mental illness, that this hospitalization was ordered by the Superior Court, and that his release is currently being monitored by two court-appointed agencies.

What petitioner does not make clear in his application, the Board makes clear in its opposition: Petitioner was arrested in 2004, charged with murdering his roommate, adjudicated "not guilty by reason of insanity," and committed to confinement in a psychiatric hospital for ten years. In 2010, petitioner was released from his confinement, but remains under supervision for life, including the monitoring of his medication and his therapy. Incidentally, this monitory includes medication by injection every two weeks and medication by mouth every night.

I.

Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6, a motion for emergent relief shall address the following standards to be met for granting such relief under Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), namely: (1) The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted; (2) The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled; (3) The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and (4) When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

A.

In his motion for emergent relief, petitioner seeks an order that the Board issue him a substitute credential so he can seek employment as a substitute teacher.

Petitioner also alleges that the Board has denied him this credential in violation of the Americans with Disability Act.

In support of his motion, petitioner argues that his doctor, his therapist, and representatives of the two-court appointed agencies will testify that he is in compliance with court orders and that his is no longer a danger to himself or others. Toward this end, petitioner submits a letter from Comprehensive Behavioral Healthcare, Inc., that his mental illness is in remission, as long as he is taking his medication, which petitioner has done "impeccably," and that petitioner is now fit for employment. In fact, the psychotherapist/social worker writes that petitioner is a "dedicated worker and family man," and possesses advances skills in math and science, which would be an "asset" to any school district.

Petitioner also argues that he will suffer mental anguish if his motion for emergent relief is not granted.

B.

More comprehensively, the Board argues that petitioner is not entitled to the relief he seeks because he has not met any of the standards he must meet under Crowe for the grant of such relief.

First, the Board argues that petitioner will not suffer irreparable harm. More specifically, the Board argues that petitioner does not possess a teaching certificate. Therefore, he will not suffer the harm of no longer being able to teach if his motion is not granted.

The Board also argues that petitioner will not suffer irreparable harm because it is not denying him the opportunity to appeal its decision, which is currently before the Board.

Second, the Board argues that the legal rights underlying petitioner's claim is not well-settled because petitioner has made a non-specific or unarticulated allegation that respondent has violated the Americans with Disabilities Act in denying him his substitute credential and that it based its decision on petitioner's past conduct, not on his disability.

Third, the Board argues that petitioner does not have a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of his underlying claim because he will have difficulty proving that its determination was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. Indeed, the Board argues that it properly exercised its authority under N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.2, which states, "Notwithstanding that a candidate may meet all requirements for certification, the Board of Examiners may refuse to issue a certificate to that candidate if, based on the record before it, the Board of Examiners determines that, for reasons set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.5, the candidate is not suitable for employment as a teaching staff member in the public schools." Meanwhile, N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.5 states, "The Board of Examiners may revoke or suspend the certificate(s) of any certificate holder on the basis of demonstrated inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming a teacher or other just cause.

In short, the Board argues that it properly exercised its authority under N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.2, because of the severity and recency of petitioner's conduct.

In addition, the Board argues that its determination is made independent of a determination made by a treating physician, especially since it is well-settled that the term "conduct unbecoming" is an elastic term, citing the Appellate Division's decision in In re Emmons, 63 N.J. Super. 136, 140 (App. Div. 1960), and borrowing its language, by writing that such conduct includes conduct, "which adversely affects the morale or efficiency" of the public entity or "has a tendency to destroy public respect for [its] employees and confidence in [its operations]."

Fourth, respondent argues that when the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, it will suffer greater harm than petitioner will suffer if the requested relief is granted because of the public interests at issue.

II.

Given my preliminary findings of fact, and this discussion of the law, I readily agree with the Board that petitioner is not entitled to the relief he seeks because he has not met any of the standards he must meet under Crowe. Indeed, I agree for the reasons the Board so plainly states. In addition, the fact that petitioner states he will suffer mental anguish if his motion is not granted raises the specter whether petitioner truly has the capacity to be entrusted with children at school. At the very least, it does not support his argument that he has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of his claim and that the equities and interests of the parties favor him. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not met the standard for emergent relief and that his motion for emergent relief should be denied.

ORDER

Given my preliminary findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that petitioner's motion for emergent relief is DENIED.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

WHEREAS, Petitioners R.K. and N.K. are the parents of A.K. (collectively referred to as "Petitioners"); and

WHEREAS, A.K. is a student residing within the Westfield School District ("District") who is eligible to receive special education and related services under the classification category of Autistic; and

WHEREAS, a dispute existed with regard to a reported incident of alleged harassment, intimidation and bullying ("HIB") involving A.K., which was investigated by the District in accordance with the procedures set forth in its HIB policy; and

WHEREAS, following the District's investigation, A.K. was determined to have engaged in an act of HIB against another student and that HIB determination was affirmed by the Board, culminating in the filing of a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner"), which was assigned Agency Reference Number 105-5/13 and OAL Docket Number EDU 08453-2013N; and

WHEREAS, a dispute also existed with regard to A.K.'s educational program for the 2012-2013 and 2013-2014 school years, culminating in the filing of a petition for due process with the Office of Special Education Programs ("OSEP"), which was assigned Agency Reference Number 2013-19718 and OAL Docket Number EDS 8502-13; and

RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision on Remand of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. On December 5, 2013, the Commissioner remanded this matter to OAL based upon a determination that the prior settlement agreement recommended for adoption by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) did not include the requisite approval of the Atlantic City Board of Education.

Upon review of the revised record on remand, the Commissioner finds that the Agreement contains the requisite Board approval. According to the Agreement the settlement payment was due on a date that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms, or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for the effectuation of the settlement payment. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

WHEREAS, MBOE and ACBOE have reached a full and complete compromise of these matters, and wish to resolve them amicably and without the expense associated with further litigation;

NOW THEREORE Margate and Atlantic City agree as follows:

1 The MBOE will make a lump-sum payment to the ACBOE in the amount of $75,000.00 no later than thirty (30) days after the date that this Agreement is approved and executed by both Boards and adopted by the Administrative Law Judge presiding over the above-captioned case.

2. All claims and causes of action asserted in the matter captioned City of Margate BOE, Atlantic County v. City of Atlantic City BOE, Atlantic County, (OAL Docket No.: EDU 09182-2012 S; Agency Ref. No.: 590-10/10) will be withdrawn with prejudice by MBOE and ACBOE, respectively, within seven (7) days of the making of the payment described in paragraph 1 above.

3. Both the ACBOE and MBOE, for and in consideration of the undertakings as set forth herein, and intending to be legally bound, do hereby remise, release and forever discharge each other (inclusive of their respective past, present and future officers, members, employees and agents) of and from any and all manner of actions and causes of action, suits, debts, losses, claims and demands whatsoever in law or in equity, including but not limited to attorney's fees and costs, which they ever had, now have, or hereafter may have, by reason of or related directly or indirectly to the education of K.C., the litigation captioned F.M. o/b/o K.C. v. Atlantic City Public School Board of Education, (OAL Docket No.: EDS 723-09; Agency Reference No.: 2009-14300) and the litigation captioned City of Margate BOE, Atlantic County v. City of Atlantic City BOE, Atlantic County, (OAL Docket No.: EDU 09182-2012 S; Agency Ref. No.: 590-10/10), including but not limited to Atlantic City's claim for reimbursement of the $175,000.00 settlement payment made to the parent of K.C.

4. Both MBOE and the ACBOE agree and acknowledge that this Agreement does not constitute an admission of any kind.

5. This Agreement is contingent upon approval by the MBOE and ACBOE.

6. This Agreement shall be governed by the law of the State of New Jersey and shall not be modified or amended except by a writing duly executed and signed by the parties.

7. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous agreements, representations or understandings.

8. Except for paragraphs 1 and 3 which are deemed to be essential and material parts of this Agreement, in the event that any provision of this Agreement is deemed invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable. Such provisions shall be regarded as stricken from this Agreement and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the Agreement.

SYNOPSIS

In August 2010, petitioner – formerly employed as a technology teacher in respondent's school district – appealed the decision of the respondent Board to terminate her employment through a reduction in force (RIF) in June 2010. Petitioner asserted that the Board terminated her employment in contravention of her tenure and seniority rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 et seq., and sought reinstatement and back pay retroactive to the date of her termination.

The ALJ found that: petitioner failed to appear for a hearing in this matter on January 29, 2014, despite having received appropriate notice; attorney for the petitioner appeared at the hearing and confirmed on record her ongoing inability to reach her client, stating that the petitioner last communicated with her in October 2012. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that petitioner had abandoned this matter and ordered the case returned to the Department for appropriate disposition.

Upon review, the Commissioner found that petitioner had filed no explanation for her failure to appear despite having had the opportunity to do so. Accordingly, this matter is no longer a contested case before the Commissioner, and was dismissed with prejudice.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Lissette Alfonso (Alfonso), who was formerly employed by the Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth (the Board) as a technology teacher, asserts that the Board terminated her employment in contravention of her tenure and seniority rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 et seq. She seeks reinstatement and back pay retroactive to the date of her termination.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND STATEMENT OF FACTS

Alfonso filed her appeal with the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) on August 9, 2010. An answer was filed on behalf of the Board, and the contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), on September 16, 2010.

In or about June 2010, the Board terminated several hundred employees pursuant to a reduction in force (RIF); more than eighty of these employees challenged their terminations as violative of the tenure laws. Discovery and settlement discussions relative to these cases were the subject of bi-monthly status conferences between counsel and me. In the aftermath of the RIF, many of the petitioners were reinstated by the Board or secured alternative employment, and most of the claims raised by these petitions have been recently resolved through settlement or withdrawal. Alfonso was among the petitioners who neither settled nor withdrew her claim and accordingly, a notice of hearing was issued on August 12, 2013, requiring Alfonso's appearance on January 29, 2014. She failed to appear.

Her attorney did appear and advised me that she has experienced ongoing issues in communicating with her client. These difficulties are not new. Indeed, via a Case Management Order dated May 15, 2012, I had directed counsel to supply me with a list of petitioners with whom they have been unable to communicate regarding the nature and extent of their claims. Alfonso was among these petitioners, per correspondence from her attorney dated May 23, 2012, and I had noticed a hearing that required her appearance on July 30, 2012. Alfonso did not appear at that time, but her attorney nonetheless asked that I not dismiss her claim. Via letter dated August 29, 2012, counsel advised that she had gotten in touch with Alfonso, who had advised that she indeed wished to pursue her claim against the Board.

Counsel advised me on the record on January 29, 2014, that she last communicated with Alfonso in October 2012. Alfonso had continued to be uncooperative in supplying the information needed to pursue her claim, and her attorney had advised her in writing that she was prepared to withdraw the petition if her client's cooperation was not forthcoming. Counsel heard nothing further from Alfonso. Last week counsel again attempted to reach Alfonso via phone and email to alert her to the proceeding on January 29, 2014, but without success.

The hearing was scheduled for 9:00 a.m. and we waited for Alfonso to appear until 10:20 a.m. An additional twenty-four hours have elapsed, and I have not heard from Alfonso or her attorney with an explanation for her non-appearance.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that Alfonso has abandoned this matter and that it should be returned to the transmitting agency.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) provides that, if, after appropriate notice, a party does not appear in any proceeding scheduled by a judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge may direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition. Alfonso failed to appear at the scheduled proceeding, and she failed to provide an explanation one day following her nonappearance. Accordingly, the Clerk should return this matter to the Department of Education.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the Clerk return this matter to the Department of Education for appropriate disposition.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner challenged the respondent Board's elimination of her non-tenured position as Supervisor of Special Education in March 2010, as part of a reduction in force (RIF). Petitioner was employed by the district under separate one-year contracts for the 2007-2008, 2008-2009 and 2009-2010 school years. The Board contended that petitioner was properly terminated for reasons of economy. Petitioner asserted that she was terminated without a vote of the school board in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(a), and without receipt of a formal statement of reason for her termination; accordingly, she maintained that she was wrongfully terminated. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no genuine issues of material fact in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner's arguments regarding the Board's failure to follow the dictates of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(a) are overly simplistic given the complexity of the situation, wherein Jersey City was under partial State intervention at the time of the RIF; under the unique circumstances, the process used to terminate petitioner's employment was proper; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, the Board had every right to terminate petitioner as part of a reduction in force; petitioner failed to establish an entitlement to back pay; petitioner's claim to tenure is without merit, as she was discharged from employment prior to working the full length of time required by law to achieve tenure in Jersey City; and petitioner had no entitlement to a statement of reasons for her termination nor a hearing, as she was discharged mid-contract and therefore not protected under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b). The ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision, and dismissed the petition.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, Elizabeth Jimenez, and the Board of Education's (Board) reply thereto.

The respondent's exceptions substantially reiterated the substance of her submissions at the OAL, recasting the arguments therein to support the contention that the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) erroneously granted summary decision in favor of the Board. Specifically, the petitioner maintains that the ALJ wrongfully found that the Board acted properly and was not required to vote to terminate petitioner's employment. The petitioner also takes exception to the ALJ's determination that the Board was not required to provide the petitioner with a statement of reasons for her termination and a hearing before the Board. Therefore, the petitioner asserts that the ALJ erroneously dismissed the petition. In reply the Board also reiterated the positions advanced in its submissions at the OAL, and stressed that the petitioner offered nothing in her exceptions to justify the modification of the Initial Decision.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the Board is entitled to summary decision for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision. The objections raised in the exceptions filed by the petitioner mimic the arguments previously raised before the ALJ and clearly taken into account by her in determining that the Board was entitled to summary decision. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition is hereby dismissed.

Howard Nirenberg, Esq., for respondents (Nirenberg and Varano, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 5, 2013 Decided: January 15, 2014

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Elizabeth Jimenez (Jimenez), challenges the termination of her employment as a non-tenured supervisor of special education by respondent, Jersey City Public Schools (Jersey City). Jersey City replies that its actions relative to Jimenez's employment were at all times a proper exercise of its discretion, and compliant with all applicable statutes and regulations.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter came before the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) via transfer from the Superior Court, Hudson County, where Jimenez had filed a four-count complaint on December 20, 2010. She alleged violations of the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 et seq.; violations of her Equal Protection Rights as guaranteed by the New Jersey Constitution and the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 10:6-2(c); and violations of her due process rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1. On January 24, 2012, the Honorable Maureen Mantineo, J.S.C., entered an order dismissing the OPMA claims, and directing that the school law claims be transferred to the Commissioner. Judge Mantineo directed in her order that, after the completion of the "administrative action before the Commissioner of Education the matter can be returned to the Law Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey, if necessary."

Via letter dated May 3, 2012, the Department of Education (the Department) confirmed receipt of the file from the Superior Court, and the following day transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case. A motion for summary decision was filed by Jersey City on July 24, 2012. Jimenez filed a cross-motion on August 22, 2012. She relied heavily on the Department's February 2012 determination that Jersey City had failed to satisfy Governance Indicator G-3 of the New Jersey Quality Single Accountability Continuum (QSAC) by improperly ceding the local board's authority to approve personnel recommendations to the superintendent of Schools. Upon reviewing his adversary's submissions, counsel for Jersey City conferred further with his client and alerted me to the fact that the district had appealed the Department's QSAC determination. He asked that I hold the motions in abeyance pending the outcome of that appeal and I felt it appropriate to do so, as to do otherwise could risk inconsistent determinations and confuse the issues in the case.[1]

[1] Jimenez unsuccessfully sought to intervene in the QSAC appeal.

Via letter dated December 12, 2013, the Department determined that Jersey City was indeed compliant with Quality Indicator G-3. On July 15, 2013, Jersey City renewed its motion for summary decision. Jimenez filed a cross-motion for summary decision on September 16, 2013. Jersey City replied via letter memorandum dated October 4, 2013. Oral argument was conducted on December 5, 2013, at which time the record closed.

ISSUES PRESENTED

The Superior Court complaint raises the following school law claims under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1:

1. Did Jersey City violate Jimenez's rights by failing to have its local board publicly vote to terminate her; and if so, what should be the remedy?

2. Did Jersey City violate Jimenez's rights by failing to supply her with a formal statement of reason for her termination, and/or to afford her a "Donaldson Hearing"; and if so, what should be the remedy?

Counsel agreed at oral argument that Jimenez's due process, equal protection and New Jersey Civil Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 10:6-2, claims all flow from the alleged violation of her rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1, and are viable only upon successful adjudication of Jimenez's school law claims.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Jimenez's Employment with the District

The following salient facts are not in dispute, and I FIND:

Jimenez was employed by Jersey City from June 25, 2007, until March 29, 2010, as a supervisor of special education. She supervised instructional programs for special education students and oversaw the work of the child study teams. During her final year of employment, Jimenez was the highest paid special education supervisor. Her salary would have been $130,000 had she continued in her position during the 2010-2011 school year.

Jimenez's initial contract employed her for the period from June 25 2007, through August 31, 2008, and was terminable on sixty days notice. Jimenez was not given notice under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-11 that her initial contract would not to be renewed; accordingly, until her termination in 2010 the original contract automatically renewed on identical terms for the 2008-2009 and 2009-2010 school years. Had she been reemployed for the 2010-2011 school year, Jimenez would have earned tenure. But via letter from Executive Assistant of Human Resources Hermione McNeil dated March 29, 2010, Jimenez was informed that "as a result of the district's budgetary situation and due to economic reasons," her contract was being terminated effective immediately. In accordance with the contract terms, Jimenez was paid for sixty additional days, but she was asked not to report for work.

Jersey City has consistently asserted that Jimenez was terminated for reasons of economy. Superintendent of Schools Charles Epps made the decision which positions to cut based on a variety of factors, including tenure and seniority considerations and assessing "where you can save a dollar." Each department gave Epps recommendations for staff reductions; cutting one special education supervisor was the recommendation made by the co-directors of the special services department who determined that the greatest impact on the budget would come from eliminating the highest paid non-tenured supervisor, Jimenez. Three other non-tenured supervisors, in addition to earning less than Jimenez, were tenured special education teachers who would have had bumping rights upon their termination from their supervisory positions. Jimenez was not the only special education department staffer who was laid off; that year some thirty social workers were terminated as well. Other District departments likewise made reductions in staff.

In a certification filed in support of her cross-motion for summary decision, Jimenez does not so much challenge the District's rationale for her RIF, as the manner in which it took place. Jimenez asserts, and the record includes no evidence to the contrary, that she received more than satisfactory performance reviews and thus fully expected to earn tenure. She relates that her termination was harsh and hurtful. On March 29, 2010, Jimenez was abruptly taken to her office by a security guard, told to retrieve her personal effects, and escorted out of the building in front of her peers and superiors. While she received a letter that attributed her discharge to budgetary constraints, Jimenez urges that the letter did not offer a satisfactory explanation for her termination. It did not specify the budgetary shortfalls that led to her lay-off, or explain why she was selected for termination rather than the various other supervisors in her department. Jimenez was afforded no opportunity to wind down her responsibilities or appropriately transition them to colleagues.

Letters to the superintendent of schools and to her direct supervisors requesting a statement of reasons for her discharge and a hearing went unanswered. Jimenez's termination was not made public via either a superintendent's report or discussion at a Board meeting as memorialized in Board minutes.

The District Take-Over and its Return to Partial Local Control

It is uncontroverted and I FIND:

By administrative order dated October 4, 1989, the New Jersey State Board of Education removed the local board of education in Jersey City and created a State-Operated School District. The local board's authority was placed entirely in the hands of a State-appointed superintendent of schools. This action followed a determination that Jersey City was failing to provide its students with a thorough and efficient education.

In 2007, the State Board adopted a resolution partially returning local control to Jersey City. The decision to do so came in the aftermath of an assessment of district performance in five key components of school effectiveness: operations management, personnel, instruction and program, governance, and fiscal management. The resolution noted that the district had been evaluated by a team of "highly skilled professionals," who had determined that it met requisite performance indicators in the areas of governance and fiscal management; accordingly, these functions were returned to local control. (Nirenberg Certification, Exhibit K.)

A transition plan for the return of the governance and fiscal management functions was adopted on April 17, 2008. (Nirenberg Certification, Exhibit L.) That plan set forth with specificity the sort of activities that were now to be locally controlled; to include negotiating a contract with and evaluating the superintendent of schools; reviewing and revising the board policy manual; and planning and approval of the annual school budget. Epps testified at deposition that it was his understanding that since the district remained under State control in the area of personnel, he retained the exclusive authority to make personnel decisions, including the decision to hire, terminate, or non-renew professional staff like Jimenez. The deposition testimony of other top district officials, to include McNeil and board member Angel Valentin, was in accord.[2] I FIND that consistent with this understanding no board action was taken relative to the termination of Jimenez's contract.

QSAC is the current statutorily mandated system of school district assessment, which is completed by all New Jersey public schools. Quality Performance Indicator G-3 asks districts to reflect on their compliance with the following requirement:

> The school board approves appointments and transfers and removes or renews certificated and non-certificated officers and employees only by a roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board upon the recommendation of the Chief School Administrator and the board acts within 60 days of the Chief School Administrator's recommendation. (N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1)

[2] Jimenez asserts that she later talked via telephone with Valentin; he explained that the Board had been "duped" by the superintendent into thinking it had no authority to act on personnel decisions.

Jimenez urges that her termination was at odds with this procedural requirement. But the certification of former counsel Paula Hak confirms that the Jersey City approach to personnel matters was transparent, and indeed, shared openly with the Department each time the district completed a performance review. Prior to November 2010, Jersey City's QSAC review was completed by field representatives from the Hudson County Superintendent's office.[3] A September 2009 Interim Placement Review Report reflects that the County Office marked Jersey City as compliant with indicator G-3. Notes on the document candidly share that "[a]t personnel committee meetings all areas are discussed but the final decision is the superintendent's . . . [t]he Board does not approve personnel recommendations by the CSA, it simply accepts certification . . . [r]ecommendations discussed at Personnel Committee level and results shared with the Board. No vote." (Hak Certification, Exhibit A.) The County Superintendent's office thus was well aware that the Jersey City Board was not voting on personnel matters and approved this approach to personnel decision-making by finding the district compliant with Indicator G-3.

In November 2010, for the first time after the board regained local control of governance in April 2008, Jersey City self-assessed as part of the QSAC evaluative process. Hak completed the required documentation for the district that year; she again ranked Jersey City as compliant for Indicator G-3, straightforwardly noting her understanding that, "[t]he Board does not have the power of personnel . . . [n]ot having local control in the area of personnel, the Board does not vote on these items and the CSA has final decision making power regarding personnel matters." (Hak Certification, Exhibit B.) Hak reiterated that Jersey City was functioning in this fashion during a subsequent interview with Executive County School Business Administrator for Hudson County William Takacs.

In October 2011, the Hudson County Executive Superintendent asked all county districts to complete a Statement of Assurance (SOA), an additional regulatory requirement designed to monitor school performance. This form also assesses compliance with the requirement that local boards vote on personnel matters; Jersey

[3] The Hudson County office is a part of the New Jersey Department of Education.

City responded "N/A," noting that "[t]he Board does not have local control over the area of personnel. As a result, it does not approve such actions." (Hak Certification, Exhibit C.) Hak certified that as of December 2011 no one from the Department or its Hudson County Office had ever questioned "or taken issue with the manner in which the Jersey City Public School District handled personnel decisions." It is uncontroverted, and I FIND, that at no time prior to December 2011 had Jersey City been advised that upon return of partial local control the Board was now authorized to vote on personnel matters such as appointments, transfers, removals, or renewals.

In or about January 2012, Jersey City first learned that the Department was questioning its procedures in the area of personnel. Correspondence between the Department and then Interim Jersey City Superintendent of Schools Franklin Walker makes reference to meetings in which Jersey City's placement on the QSAC continuum was discussed; preliminarily, the Department had questioned the practice of placing full authority for personnel actions in the hands of the superintendent. (Nirenberg Certification, Exhibit P.) Walker took exception on behalf of the district, citing the QSAC score referenced in the Hak certification. But on February 1, 2012, the Commissioner formally found Jersey City non-compliant on Governance Indicator G-3. Jersey City submitted a reconsideration request. (Nirenberg Certification, Exhibit S.) On December 12, 2012, the Commissioner concluded, based on the information supplied by Jersey City, that:

> As a result of this reconsideration review, the rating for G3 has been changed to reflect compliance. In February of 2012, the board was not informed that it had the authority to vote on personnel matters upon restoration of the governance indicator. This authority included board appointments, transfers, removals and renewals of certificated and non-certificated officers and employees. Since the board was never informed of this authority prior to February 2012, the district should have been rated compliant for indicator G3.
> [Nirenberg Certification, Exhibit V.]

Jimenez points to Board policies that were in effect at the time of her termination that specifically required Board action on personnel matters; asserting that accordingly, the Board violated its own policies. She additionally makes note of the district policy relative to reductions in force, which provides as follows:

> Should it become necessary to reduce the number of employees in the district, the laws and regulations of the state shall be the controlling guides. If, in any case of such reduction, candidates for termination are non-tenured personnel only, the primary basis for selection for termination or reduction shall be the needs of the district's educational program and the individual's contribution toward achievement of that program based on properly completed observations and evaluations.
> [Gomez Certification, Exhibit X.]

John T.M. Chester, an executive assistant in the Business Division, clarified via certification that upon return of the governance function to local control, a policy manual was adopted for the district, as required by the district transition plan. The policy manual was based upon a model offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association and was intended to ensure that all mandatory policies were in place. But the policy manual did not address, nor was it intended to address, the unique circumstances of a district like Jersey City, which remained under partial State intervention.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The parties seek relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, which provides that summary decision should be rendered "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." Our regulation mirrors R. 4:46-2(c), which provides that "the judgment or order sought shall be rendered if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment or order as a matter of law."

A determination whether a genuine issue of material fact exists that precludes summary decision requires the judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the allegedly disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. Our courts have long held that "if the opposing party . . . offers . . . only facts which are immaterial or of an insubstantial nature, a mere scintilla, 'fanciful frivolous, gauzy or merely suspicious,' he will not be heard to complain if the court grants summary judgment." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995) (quoting Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co., 17 N.J. 67, 75 (1954)).

The "'judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Brill, supra, 142 N.J. at 540 (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 242, 249, 106 S. Ct. 2505, 2511, 91 L. Ed. 2d 202, 212 (1986)). When the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Liberty Lobby, supra, 477 U.S. at 252, 106 S. Ct. at 2512, 91 L. Ed. 2d at 214. I CONCLUDE that this matter is ripe for summary decision; that the motion filed by Jersey City should be granted; and that the petition should be dismissed in its entirety.

The Process Used to Terminate Jimenez's Employment

In support of her wrongful termination claims, Jimenez relies on N.J.S.A. 18A: 27-4.1(a), which provides in pertinent part:

> A board of education shall appoint, transfer or remove a certificated or non-certificated officer or employee only upon the recommendation of the chief school administrator and by a recorded roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board. The board shall not withhold its approval for arbitrary and capricious reasons.
> [Emphasis supplied.]

Jimenez argues that the statute clearly and unequivocally requires that the local board of education publicly vote to terminate employees; and of course, she is correct. Since the Jersey City Board failed to vote here, Jimenez contends she was never properly terminated and is entitled to reinstatement, back pay, and tenure. See e.g. Martell-DiMaio v. Dennis Twp. Bd. of Educ., EDU 10500-07, Initial Decision (March 28, 2008), adopted, Comm'r (May 9, 2008), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. But Jimenez's arguments are overly simplistic and ignore the complexity of the situation Jersey City found itself in as a school district under partial State intervention. I CONCLUDE that the process used to terminate Jimenez's employment was proper under the totality of the highly unique circumstances presented here.

An appreciation of why Jersey City might have mistaken the parameters of its local authority must start with a review of the statutes and regulations that permitted the Commissioner to take control of its schools. Jersey City was a failing district when in 1989 the then applicable Public School Education Act of 1975 (PSEA), L. 1975, c. 212, as amended by L. 1987, c. 398, authorized the Commissioner to place the district under state control, removing the local board of education and stripping it of any authority for the operations of the school district. See In re Newark QSAC Appeal, A-6295-10T4 (App. Div. July 8, 2013), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/>. In 2005, the PSEA was amended and QSAC was established, "thereby altering the manner in which the State evaluated the thoroughness and efficiency of all public schools in the State . . . ." Id. at page *3. Under QSAC, public school districts are evaluated in five areas of district effectiveness. Ibid.; N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-10. A school district's capacity and effectiveness are assessed through the use of "quality performance indicators"; based upon district compliance with these indicators, the Commissioner assesses "district capacity and effectiveness and place[s] the district on a performance continuum that . . . determine[s] the type and level of oversight and technical assistance and support the district receives." N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-10.

Intervention is required where the Commissioner determines, based upon a variety of factors, that there exists an "insufficient local capacity to ensure that the public school district will provide a thorough and efficient education to the students in the public school district." N.J.A.C. 6A:30-6.2(b)(5). The regulatory language makes it plain that intervention will have nuances particular to each school district's strengths and deficits. Indeed, while the Commissioner will intervene in each of the five areas of school district functioning during a complete take-over, the specifics of that intervention are discretionary and "may include" appointment of a State District Superintendent; appointment of one or more "highly skilled professionals" to provide oversight; and appointment of up to three additional members of the district board of education. N.J.A.C. 6A:30-6.1. The State District Superintendent is authorized by statute to "perform such duties and possess such powers as deemed appropriate by the Commissioner," including the authority to make personnel decisions relative to the employment and removal of professional and non-professional employees. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-35; see also N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-38; N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-42(A)(3). Upon assuming State control of a local district, the Commissioner likewise retains broad discretion to determine when, and to what extent, it is appropriate to return school district operations to local control. In re Newark QSAC Appeal, supra, A-6295-10T4; N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-15.

A move to partial local control, as took place here, allows for even more discretion. The Department, in collaboration with the local district, must develop a formal plan that outlines the particulars of the transition process. N.J.A.C. 6A:30-7.2. The Commissioner fully retains the authority and discretion to determine the scope of the powers of a partially autonomous district. Indeed, even if governance is not returned to local control, the State Board of Education may, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner, "return some voting functions to the board of education as part of and in furtherance of the process of a transition to local control." N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-49(c); N.J.A.C. 6A:30-7.5. Jersey City's termination of Jimenez's employment must be considered against this statutory and regulatory backdrop. Precisely because the statutory scheme vests broad discretion in the Commissioner to determine the scope of his intervention, the local board must follow his lead in determining where its authority begins and ends.

It is thus significant that the formal plan that returned finance and governance to local control in Jersey City did not specify that a return to local control for any aspect of personnel action; and indeed, the district continues to perform poorly in the area of personnel to date.[4] Consistent with the understanding that the State District Superintendent thus continued to retain authority to hire and fire staff, both the district and the County Office of the State Department of Education repeatedly ranked Jersey City compliant with governance indicator G-3, this despite the fact that the local board openly failed to ratify the superintendent's personnel recommendations. It was not until February 2012 that the Commissioner advised that the local board could and should vote on matters of personnel.

Accordingly, the Commissioner rightly determined that the failure of the Jersey City Board to act on personnel recommendations did not constitute non-compliance with QSAC Quality Indicator G-3. Indeed, Jersey City had been simply following the Commissioner's lead, as it had been required to do since 1989. I am thus likewise unable to conclude that Jersey City violated Jimenez's rights when it acted to terminate her for reasons of economy without formal board action. What transpired here must be viewed through the lens of simple common sense. Jimenez's termination came at a time of transition in a troubled school district that was operating under a unique governance model.[5]

Jimenez asserts that in reversing itself relative to Quality Indicator G-3 the Department never determined that Jersey City acted correctly in ceding personnel determinations to the superintendent, only that its lack of knowledge of its obligations should be excused under the circumstances. Jimenez cites well-established case law and urges that "ignorance of the law will not excuse non-compliance with its requirements." See State v. Moran, 202 N.J. 311, 320 (2010). But what happened here was not "ignorance of the law"; rather it was confusion regarding how much authority had been returned to a local board that for eight years had no autonomy whatsoever. I CONCLUDE that Jersey City acted properly when it terminated Jimenez.[6]

[4] The Commissioner notes in his February 1, 2012, letter that the district remains only 63% compliant with the performance indicators under personnel in QSAC. (Nirenberg Certification, Exhibit R.)

[5] For this reason, the argument that local policy required board action on personnel matters is without merit; such policy would not supersede the authority of the Commissioner.

[6] It is noteworthy that the current statutory language vests a good deal of authority in the chief school administrator even in a normally functioning district. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1. While the board acts on personnel, it does so only upon the recommendation of its superintendent.

Granting Jimenez the monetary relief she seeks would unjustly penalize a struggling school district and unfairly enrich her. Indeed, the technicalities of the termination process aside, it is well-established that Jersey City had every right to terminate Jimenez as part of a reduction in force. N.J.S.A. 18A: 28-9 provides that:

> Nothing in this title or any other law relating to tenure of service shall be held to limit the right of any board of education to reduce the number of teaching staff members, employed in the district whenever, in the judgment of the board, it is advisable to abolish any such positions for reasons of economy or because of reduction in the number of pupils or of change in the administrative or supervisory organization of the district or for other good cause upon compliance with the provisions of this article.

The record offers ample evidence of a legitimate rationale for doing so relative to Jimenez's continued employment. Conversely, she proffered no evidence of any ulterior or proscribed motive for her discharge, instead focusing on her contention that the action of her employing school district was procedurally flawed. To the extent that Jimenez contends the district violated local policy governing reductions in force, her arguments are unpersuasive. Although the policy language elaborates on the considerations used in making difficult lay-off decisions, it nonetheless clearly and unequivocally directs that "the laws and regulations of the state shall be the controlling guides." (Gomez Certification, Exhibit X.) These laws and regulations give non-tenured staff such as Jimenez no seniority or other rights that would restrict the school district in deciding where to make needed staff cuts.

I thus CONCLUDE that Jimenez has not established an entitlement to back pay. Moreover, the law supports Jersey City's action in paying the sixty days owed Jimenez under her contract in lieu of permitting her to continue to work. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-9, upon termination of an employment contract on notice, "it shall be optional with the board whether or not the member shall continue to perform his duties during the period between the giving of the notice and the date of termination of employment thereunder." Although Jimenez's abrupt termination understandably felt cruel and harsh, Jersey City acted within its legal discretion to end her service immediately and thus deny her tenure. Indeed, it is well-established that "tenure is statutory and arises only by passage of the time fixed by the statute, and the discharge of an employee before the passage of the required time bars tenure . . . ." Canfield v. Pine Hill Bd. of Educ., 97 N.J. Super. 483, 490 (App. Div. 1967), rev'd on dissent, 51 N.J. 400 (1968); Picogna v. Cherry Hill Bd. of Educ., 143 N.J. 391 (1995). Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that Jimenez's claims to tenure are meritless.

Jimenez's Right to a Statement of Reasons and a Hearing

Jimenez was terminated mid-contract, and accordingly, she had no entitlement to the procedural protections of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b), which provides:

> An officer or employee whose employment contract is not renewed shall have the right to a written statement of reasons for nonrenewal pursuant to section 2 of P.L. 1975, c. 132 (C.18A:27-3.2) and to an informal appearance before the board. The purpose of the appearance shall be to permit the staff member to convince the members of the board to offer reemployment.

The Commissioner has confirmed that these statutory due process rights extend only to employees whose contracts have been non-renewed and has rejected claims that a statement of reasons and board level hearing must be afforded to employees terminated mid-contract. Wonsetler v. Woodbury Bd. of Educ., EDU 04504-11, Initial Decision (July 8, 2011), adopted, Comm'r (August 17, 2011), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. Jersey City additionally relies on Dore v. Bedminster Bd. of Educ., 185 N.J. Super. 447 (App. Div. 1982). There, where a local board failed to comply with the dictates of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.1 in evaluating a non-tenured staff member, the court held that the school laws afforded no remedy. Plaintiff's demand for reinstatement and back pay was rejected by the court. Jimenez makes the somewhat remarkable assertion that she was both terminated and non-renewed; this is a specious argument, but even if it had any merit, Dore makes it plain that the relief she seeks would nonetheless be unavailable to her. The court there emphasized a local district's "virtually unlimited discretion in hiring or renewing non-tenured teachers." Dore, supra, 185 N.J. Super. at 453; see also Sheridan v. Pitman Bd. of Educ., EDU 8068-03, Final Decision (December 1, 2004), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

I CONCLUDE that Jimenez's claims that her rights were violated by Jersey City's failure to provide her with a statement of reasons for her termination and a hearing before the local board are without merit and should be dismissed.

ORDER

Counsel have stipulated that the remaining claims of the complaint are viable only upon successful adjudication of the school law claims raised by Jimenez. Having found the claims raised under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1 and its interpretive case law to be without merit, it is hereby ORDERED that Jersey City's motion for summary decision is GRANTED and the petition of appeal is DISMISSED. Jimenez's motion for summary decision is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on March 26, 2013, for determination as a contested case.

Prior to hearing, the parties agreed to an amicable resolution of the matter and submitted a written Settlement Agreement and General Release. Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND as follows:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the parties comply with the terms of the settlement, and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the proceedings in this matter be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

In August 2010, petitioner filed an appeal of the termination of her employment as a world language teacher through a reduction in force (RIF) in June 2010, contending that the Board violated her tenure and seniority rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 et seq. Petitioner sought reinstatement and back pay retroactive to the date of her termination.

The ALJ found that: petitioner failed to appear for a hearing in this matter on January 29, 2014, despite having received appropriate notice; attorney for the petitioner appeared at the hearing and confirmed on the record that she had communicated regularly with her client, and had confirmed by telephone and email the day before the hearing that petitioner's appearance was mandatory if she wished to continue the pursuit of her claim; notwithstanding, the petitioner failed to appear, and offered no explanation for her non-appearance. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that petitioner has abandoned this matter and ordered the case returned to the Department for appropriate disposition.

Upon independent review, the Commissioner determined that this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case, and accordingly dismissed the matter with prejudice.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, dismissing the petition for petitioner's failure to appear at the scheduled hearing, have been reviewed. The Initial Decision recites that petitioner's counsel, who attended the hearing on January 29, 2014, had advised petitioner of the hearing but had received no commitment from petitioner that she would attend same. Nor did petitioner contact her counsel or the OAL on the day of the hearing or the next day to explain her absence. As over thirteen days have passed without any communicaton from petitioner, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case before the Commissioner of Education and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.[1]

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH,

Respondent.

Gail Oxfeld Kanef, Esq., for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, attorneys)

Marvin Lehman, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: January 29, 2014 Decided: January 30, 2014

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Nieves Pita (Pita), who was formerly employed by the Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth (the Board) as a world language teacher, asserts that the Board terminated her employment in contravention of her tenure and seniority rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 et seq. She seeks reinstatement and back pay retroactive to the date of her termination.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND STATEMENT OF FACTS

Pita filed her appeal with the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) on August 13, 2010. An answer was filed on behalf of the Board, and the contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), on September 9, 2010.

In or about June 2010, the Board terminated several hundred employees pursuant to a reduction in force (RIF); more than eighty of these employees challenged their terminations as violative of the tenure laws. Discovery and settlement discussions relative to these cases were the subject of bi-monthly status conferences between counsel and me. In the aftermath of the RIF, many of the petitioners were reinstated by the Board or secured alternative employment, and most of the claims raised by these petitions have been recently resolved through settlement or withdrawal.

Pita was among the petitioners who neither settled nor withdrew her claim and accordingly, a notice of hearing was issued on January 10, 2014, requiring Pita's appearance on January 29, 2014. She failed to appear. It is uncontroverted that she was aware of the hearing date, because Pita's attorney appeared at the hearing and confirmed on the record that she had communicated regularly with her client; had made her aware of the January 29, 2014, proceeding; had confirmed with her client via telephone and email only the day before that the hearing was proceeding as planned; and had advised Pita that her appearance was mandatory if she wished to continue to pursue her claim. According to counsel, Pita's response was somewhat ambivalent and she made no commitment that she would appear at the hearing. Hence, counsel indicated that she was unsurprised by her non-appearance. At my request she checked her phone one last time to assure that Pita had not gotten in touch with her to explain her non-appearance. She had not done so.

The hearing was scheduled for 9:00 a.m. and we waited for Pita to appear until 10:20 a.m. An additional twenty-four hours have elapsed, and I have not heard from Pita or her attorney with an explanation for her non-appearance.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that Pita has abandoned this matter and that it should be returned to the transmitting agency.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) provides that, if, after appropriate notice, a party does not appear in any proceeding scheduled by a judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge may direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition. Pita failed to appear at the scheduled proceeding, and she failed to provide an explanation one day following her nonappearance. Accordingly, the Clerk should return this matter to the Department of Education.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the Clerk return this matter to the Department of Education for appropriate disposition.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal on behalf of her children in August 2013. A hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) was scheduled for January 24, 2014, but petitioner failed to appear despite having received appropriate notice and provided no explanation for her nonappearance. Having received no explanation from petitioner for her failure to appear, the OAL returned the file to the Commissioner.

There being no explanation filed, the Commissioner dismissed the petition with prejudice. In so doing, the Commissioner noted that the Board's Answer in this residency matter contained a counterclaim for tuition which was left unresolved by the Administrative Law Judge. Accordingly, the matter was remanded to the OAL for resolution of the tuition issue.

The record of this matter and advisement of petitioner's failure to appear transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, along with copies of the notification sent to the parties by OAL on January 28, 2014, providing petitioner thirteen days to submit an explanation for such nonappearance, have been reviewed. There being no explanation filed by petitioner, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed with prejudice due to petitioner's failure to appear at hearing or provide an explanation for her nonappearance.

Notwithstanding the dismissal of the petition, the Commissioner notes that the Board's Answer in this residency matter contained a counterclaim for tuition which was left unresolved by the Administrative Law Judge. In that the record before the Commissioner contains no affidavit of a responsible Board official attesting to the amount of tuition claimed by the Board as a consequence of the ineligible attendance of petitioner's children in its schools, this matter must be remanded to the OAL for supplementation of the record in this regard and an appropriate recommended order regarding the payment of tuition.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this case, with the following observation. Section 1 of the Agreement makes reference to a January 2014 effective date for the implementation of the settlement terms. That date has preceded consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves same.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this case, providing that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms, or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for the effectuation of same. Assuming the foregoing, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

Nonetheless, Ms. Martin understands that, by signing this Agreement, she waives any rights she may have to recover money or other relief in any lawsuit or proceeding she brings or that is brought on her behalf by any agency or third party against any of the Released Parties based on events arising out of or relating to the Action through the date of this Agreement. STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS DKT. NO. 1112-201
AGENCY DKT NO. 8-8/13A

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
SUSPENSION OF THE CERTIFICATES	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF MARY LOU FORSELL BY THE	:	DECISION
STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS	:

Order of Suspension by the State Board of Examiners, July 25, 2013

For the Respondent-Appellant, Michael T. Barrett, Esq.

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, Caroline Jones, Deputy Attorney General (John J. Hoffman, Acting Attorney General of New Jersey)

Appellant challenges the determination of the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (Board of Examiners) that her actions warranted the suspension of her teaching certificates for a period of two years. Specifically, appellant maintains that the decision should be reversed because the penalty imposed by the Board of Examiners is unreasonably harsh in light of her lengthy career and otherwise unblemished record.

In reviewing appeals from decisions of the Board of Examiners, the Commissioner may not substitute his judgment for that of the Board so long as the Board's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record. Further, the Board of Examiners' decision should not be disturbed unless the appellant demonstrates that it is arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a).

After full consideration of the record and all submissions, the Commissioner finds that the record adequately supports the Board of Examiner's determination that the appellant engaged in unbecoming conduct and that the suspension of the appellant's certificates was the appropriate penalty. In the underlying tenure matter, appellant was found to have engaged > ...in conduct unbecoming a tenured educator and exhibited a lack of concern for the privacy of students. She failed to properly manage > her classroom and in so doing allowed the posting of many entirely inappropriate pictures depicting matters not properly exhibited in a school classroom, pictures which, in many cases, included the images of students. She allowed students to leave class early and did so herself. She on more than one occasion failed to exhibit either the awareness of, or ability to carry out her responsibility to protect the privacy of her students and their families in regard to financial information to which she had become privy. Finally, she made remarks that were simply inappropriate in the context in which they were expressed, regardless of her right to hold such views as she might have in respect to matters regarding special education, disability issues and matters relating to personal family decisions. (Initial Decision at 25), (Commissioner's Decision at 2)

The Board's characterization of appellant's behavior as unbecoming conduct necessitating the suspension of her certificates is fully consistent with applicable law.

Moreover, the Board's decision makes clear that, in assessing the appropriate penalty, the Board not only considered the gravity of appellant's conduct, but also took into account appellant's otherwise unblemished career and willingness to accept responsibility for her conduct. These mitigating factors persuaded the Board of Examiners that a two-year suspension was more appropriate than revocation. As a result, there is nothing in the record to suggest that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, and the Commissioner finds no basis upon which to disturb the decision of the Board of Examiners.

Accordingly the decision of the State Board of Examiners is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.[1]

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
MARY LOU FORSELL	:	ORDER OF SUSPENSION
_____	:	DOCKET NO: 1112-201

At its meeting of April 5, 2012, the State Board of Examiners (Board) reviewed a decision forwarded by the Acting Commissioner of Education that had dismissed Mary Lou Forsell from her tenured position with the West Windsor-Plainsboro Regional School District (WWP) for charges of unbecoming conduct, lack of professionalism and failure to respect the privacy rights of students. In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Mary Lou Forsell, Docket No. 50-2/11 (Acting Commissioner's Decision, January 9, 2012). Forsell currently holds a Teacher of Comprehensive Business Certificate of Eligibility With Advanced Standing, issued in July 1994 and a Teacher of Comprehensive Business certificate, issued in March 1997.

This case originated when WWP certified tenure charges of unbecoming conduct, lack of professionalism and failure to protect the privacy of students against Forsell. Specifically, the district alleged that Forsell displayed a huge collage in her classroom, comprised of more than one hundred photographs, many of which were objectionable. These photos had all been Photoshopped, many of which had students' faces visible. Many of the photos were drug or alcohol-related, homophobic, racially insensitive or insensitive as to economic status or ethnicity. The district also alleged that, during an observation of Forsell's class in June 2010, Forsell did not interact with the class for the first 20 minutes. In addition, two students were kissing during the class, other students were talking about a videogame and profanity was being used. At several times during the observation, Forsell left the classroom. Students began to leave the classroom with five minutes remaining in the period and Forsell, herself, left the room before the discrimination and bullying" led ALJ Masin to conclude that Forsell's conduct warranted her removal from her tenured position. Ibid.

In a decision dated January 9, 2012, the Acting Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) concurred with the ALJ that WWP had sustained all but one of its charges against Forsell. (Acting Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 2). Accordingly, the Commissioner ordered Forsell's removal from her tenured position in WWP and transmitted the matter to the Board for appropriate action regarding Forsell's certificates. (Acting Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 3-4).

Thereafter, on May 17, 2012, the Board issued Forsell an Order to Show Cause as to why her certificates should not be revoked. The Order was predicated on the charges that had been proven in the tenure hearing. The Board sent Forsell the Order to Show Cause by regular and certified mail on May 24, 2012. The Order provided that Forsell's Answer was due within 30 days. Forsell filed an Answer on June 12, 2012.

In her Answer, Forsell admitted that WWP had certified tenure charges against her but disagreed with the characterization of the charges, including the allegation that she "allowed" inappropriate photos to be displayed in her classroom. (Answer, ¶ 3). Forsell also "vehemently contest[ed]" that there was sufficient or just cause for any action against her teaching certificates and requested that the matter be dismissed or transmitted to the OAL for hearing. (Answer, ¶ 9).

Thereafter, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.7(e), on June 14, 2012, the Board sent Forsell a hearing notice by regular and certified mail. The notice explained that it appeared that no material facts were in dispute. Thus, Forsell was offered an opportunity to submit written arguments on the issue of whether the conduct addressed in the Order to Show Cause constituted conduct unbecoming a certificate holder as well as arguments with regard to the appropriate sanction in the event that the Board determined to take action against her certificates. It also explained that upon review of the charges against her and the legal arguments tendered in her defense, the Board would determine if Forsell's offense warranted action against her certificates. Thereupon, the Board would also determine the appropriate sanction, if any. Forsell was also offered the opportunity to appear before the Board to provide testimony on the sanction issue. Forsell filed a response on July 25, 2012.

In that response, Forsell recounted her many positive evaluations and achievements in the district. (Hearing Response, pp. 2-4). Forsell stated that she had never been the subject of discipline prior to the tenure charges. (Hearing Response, p. 4). Forsell acknowledged that she had a collage in her classroom consisting of Photoshopped pictures and noted that she would purge the wall of distasteful pictures periodically. (Hearing Response, p. 4). She also admitted that she would remove photos when she passed the wall and noticed something distasteful but did not purge the collage "on a daily, or even weekly, basis." (Hearing Response, p.4). At the time of her classroom observation in June 2010, Forsell had been busy with end-of-the-year activities and had not purged the wall collage in several weeks. (Hearing Response, p. 4). In her Hearing Response, Forsell acknowledged that many of the photos were inappropriate and noted that she took responsibility for the collage at her tenure hearing. (Hearing Response, p. 5). Forsell also claimed that her conversation about the payment for prom tickets and a student's "special circumstances" were not public conversations and that there was no evidence that any third party overheard her conversation. (Hearing Response, pp. 5-6). Forsell denied that she made a derogatory comment about a special education student in the student's presence and denied making the "abortion" comment about another special education student to a colleague. (Hearing Response, p. 6). Finally, Forsell argued that there was no evidence presented that demonstrated that she discriminated against classified students and that, but for the collage incident, her actions should not automatically result in any action against her certificates. (Hearing Response, pp. 6-7).

The threshold issue before the Board in this matter, therefore, is whether Forsell's conduct and her subsequent loss of tenure constitute conduct unbecoming a certificate holder. At its meeting of May 16, 2013, the Board considered the allegations in the Order to Show Cause[2] as well as Forsell's Answer and Hearing Response. The Board determined that no material facts related to Forsell's offense were in dispute since she did not deny that she had lost her tenured position as a result of the tenure proceedings brought against her. Thus, the Board determined that summary decision was appropriate in this matter. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.7(h). It is therefore ORDERED that the charges in the Order to Show Cause are deemed admitted for the purpose of this proceeding.

The Board must now determine whether Forsell's conduct, as set forth in the Order to Show Cause, represents just cause to act against her certificates pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.5. The Board finds that it does.

The Board may revoke or suspend the certification of any certificate holder on the basis of demonstrated inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming a teacher or other just cause. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.5. As the ALJ noted and the Acting Commissioner agreed, Forsell was guilty of conduct unbecoming a tenured educator by demonstrating a lack of concern for the privacy of her students and failing to manage her classroom properly. The Acting Commissioner also affirmed the ALJ's findings that Forsell had made inappropriate comments regarding "special education, disability issues and matters relating to personal family decisions." (Acting Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 2). There can be no dispute that Forsell's conduct, in its totality, falls short of that expected of a role model for students. However, the Board cannot conclude that it has been demonstrated that Forsell's behavior warrants the revocation of her certificates. Rather, her otherwise long and unblemished record, coupled with her willingness to accept responsibility for the display of inappropriate photographs in her classroom, merits a less severe punishment. The Board therefore determines that the appropriate response to Forsell's conduct is a two-year suspension of her certificates.

[2] As noted in Footnote 1, supra, the Board did not consider any allegations arising out of the classroom observation other than those related to the photo collage. The Board also mistakenly noted in paragraph 6 of the Order to Show Cause that Forsell was cited for chronic absenteeism; that allegation was not considered by the Board in its deliberations. Accordingly, when the decision refers to the Order to Show Cause, it should be understood that the above-mentioned allegations are excluded.

Accordingly, on May 16, 2013, the Board voted to suspend Mary Lou Forsell's Teacher of Comprehensive Business Certificate of Eligibility With Advanced Standing and her Teacher of Comprehensive Business certificate for a period of two years. On this 25th day of July 2013 the Board voted to adopt its formal written decision and it is therefore ORDERED that the two-year suspension of Forsell's certificates be effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that Forsell return her certificates to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Licensure, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within 30 days of the mailing date of this decision.

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF MONICA SCHVAMBERG, SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PISCATAWAY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY.

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

In May 2013, the Piscataway School District filed a petition requesting that the teaching certificate of respondent be suspended for unprofessional conduct in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 for failure to honor the terms of her employment agreement with the district. In June 2013, an Order to Show Cause was served upon respondent – a non-tenured teacher – requiring her to show cause why her teaching certificate should not be suspended for resigning her position as a learning disability teaching consultant six weeks after she began working in the district.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is to provide notice to the school district that a member of its teaching staff will not complete the terms of his or her teaching agreement, thereby allowing the district time to arrange for a suitable replacement without adversely impacting students; at no time in this matter did the district consent to relieving respondent of her contractual duties; and, accordingly, the respondent unilaterally breached her employment contract with the district. The ALJ concluded that this action constitutes unprofessional conduct warranting a one-year suspension of respondent's teaching certificate.

Upon independent review of the record, the Commissioner concurred with the findings of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. Accordingly, respondent's certificate was suspended for a period of one year from the date of the filing of this decision – a copy of which was forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for the purpose of effectuating this order.

David B. Rubin, Esq., for petitioner School District of the Township of Piscataway, Middlesex County

Lisa M. Regan, Esq., for respondent Monica Schvamberg (Regan Law, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 6, 2013 Decided: January 21, 2014

BEFORE MICHAEL ANTONIEWICZ, ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On May 22, 2013, the Piscataway School District filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey requesting that the teaching certificate of respondent Monica Schvamberg be suspended for unprofessional conduct in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 for failure to honor the terms of her employment agreement with the district.

On June 1, 2013, the Commissioner signed an Order to Show Cause requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate. On or about July 10, 2013, respondent filed an answer to the Order to Show Cause contesting the matter. On July 12, 2013, the matter was transmitted to and filed with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case. On November 8, 2013, a hearing was held and the parties filed post-hearing briefs on or before December 6, 2013.

ISSUES

Did respondent engage in unprofessional conduct within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10? If so, should respondent's teaching certificate be suspended for one year?

FINDING OF FACTS

1. The Piscataway Board of Education appointed Monica Schvamberg as a learning disability teaching consultant at the Children's Corner School, effective January 25, 2013, via a contract signed by respondent on December 20, 2012.

2. The employment contract contained a start date of January 25, 2013.

3. Respondent was hired after an extensive interview process and was selected as one of two final candidates.

4. At the time of her hire, the respondent did not reveal to the petitioner that there were any issues going on in her personal life which might have a negative impact on her professional job duties.

5. On March 8, 2013, Schvamberg submitted a letter of resignation, effective March 12, 2013, to Catherine Sousa, the Human Resources Director. (P-2.) In addition, respondent took a sick day on Monday, March 11, 2013.

6. The contract signed by the respondent contained the following verbiage: "It is hereby agreed by the parties hereto that this contract may at any time be terminated by either party given to the other 60 days notice in writing of intention to terminate the same." (P-1.)

7. The Piscataway School District responded to the respondent by informing her that she was required to work sixty more days after she gave notice of her intent to resign or face suspension of her teaching certificate. (P-3.)

8. Respondent responded to the petitioner on March 9, 2013, requesting a meeting in order to provide the petitioner with her reasons for her resignation. (P-4.)

9. After a meeting between Schvamberg and a representative from the petitioner (Phyllis Regnaud), Schvamberg submitted another letter stating that she felt she had no other option than to resign. (R-2.)

10. In the meeting petitioner advised respondent if she was willing to reconsider her letter of resignation. In addition, she was advised that she did not work long enough to qualify for either the federal leave of absence or New Jersey Family Leave, but she could request an unpaid leave of absence from the Board of Education and that in the past, the Board had granted such leaves to employees.

11. Respondent advised the petitioner that her mother was very ill and that she was the caregiver for her mother. Based on this information, the petitioner once again advised respondent that she could request an unpaid leave of absence from the Board of Education.

12. Other than her mother's illness being very stressful for her, the respondent did not advise of any other personal health problems she was having at this time.

13. After the above meeting, respondent re-submitted her letter of resignation via email, dated March 13, 2013. (R-2.)

14. Petitioner began the necessary proceeding seeking the respondent's suspension of her teaching certification for one year. (P-8; P-9.)

15. On May 21, 2013, petitioner sent an Order to Show Cause and supporting certifications to the Commissioner of Education seeking to have respondent's teaching certificate suspended pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. (P-8.)

16. On June 6, 2013, the petitioner served upon the respondent an Order to Show Cause from the Commissioner of Education seeking suspension of her teaching certification. (P-10.)

17. Petitioner suffered a net additional cost of $5,601.14 based on the respondent's resignation in a time frame of less than sixty days. (P-13.)

LAW AND ANALYSIS

The applicable statute for this case is N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, which provides in pertinent part as follows:

> Any teaching staff member employed by a board of education or an approved private school for the disabled, who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may, upon receiving notice thereof, suspend his certificate for a period not exceeding one year.

The purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is to provide notice to the school district that a member of its teaching staff will not complete the terms of the teaching agreement, thereby providing the district with time to arrange for a suitable replacement without adversely impacting students. The ultimate objective is to protect the students. Penns Grove-Carneys Point Bd. of Educ. v. Leinen, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 405, 407.

The language of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 "is clear and explicit as to the requisite conditions for a cause of action to arise under its terms, namely, 1) a teaching staff member ceases to perform his [or her] duties before the expiration of the term of his [or her] employment, and 2) the board does not consent to the teaching staff member's action." In re Fesolowich, EDU 11608-05, Comm'r (September 14, 2006), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

The Commissioner of Education has further explained that "[I]t is well-grounded in education law that determination of the sufficiency of a term of notice pursuant to this statute is dictated by the terms of the parties' employment contract and any resignation or termination must be in accordance with the terms of such agreement." In re Van Pelt, EDU 11556-07, Comm'r (May 29, 2009), <http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/>, aff'd, 414 N.J. Super. 440 (App. Div. 2010); In re Carrelle, EDU 1852-03, Comm'r (February 9, 2004), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

A non-tenured teacher, such as the respondent herein, who violated the notice/termination requirements set forth in his or her contract of employment will general be found to be guilty of "unprofessional conduct" within the intent of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, warranting the suspension of the teacher's certificate. See In re Creekmur, EDU 4041-11, Initial Decision (November 21, 2011), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (January 4, 2012), <http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/>.

In Penns Grove-Carneys Point Board of Education v. Leinen, supra, 94 N.J.A.R.2d at 407, the ALJ discussed at length the sorts of circumstances warranting leniency:

Most cases have resulted in the suspension of any and all teaching certifications for the maximum, one-year permitted if the Commissioner finds the teacher guilty of violating N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. (See In re Russo, 33 C.D. 92; Collingswood Borough Board of Education v. Cashel, 88 S.L.D. 1898; In re Matthews, 267 C.D. 88; Dunellen Borough Board of Education v. Drake, 87 S.L.D. 2016; In re Evans, 249 C.D. 87; In re Horter, 170 C.D. 97; Acken, 86 S.L.D. 2803; In re Langford, 142 C.D. 84; In Re Minnich, 218 C.D. 83; In re Cohen, 27 C.D. 83; In re Reehill, 66 S.L.D. 201; In re Finkelstein, 60 S.L.D. 75.) However, the court has held that "the Legislature did not intend the suspension of a teacher's certificate to be automatic even if the board's consent is not obtained." Mooney, at 814. The word "may" in N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 implies that the Legislature intended that the Commissioner of Education consider all the circumstances presented in an individual's case. Mooney at 814; see also, Board of Education of the Township of Clinton v. Burgess, 83 S.L.D. 183, 190, regarding similar provision for tenured staff under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

However, circumstances which justify giving relief to a teacher when she has not given the required statutory notice are rare. In Mooney the Commissioner held that Mooney should not be suspended because she had a compelling need to resign, she had given immediate notice to the Board in writing, and she had assisted the school by developing a program for the completion of the school year. She met with her replacement to review the program and provided final grades. The school was fortunate to be able to replace Mooney with the teacher who would have been chosen to fill her position regardless of whether or not Mooney had left a week later. Moreover, the Commissioner stressed that Mooney left her teaching position in New Jersey not to seek employment elsewhere in the State, but to be with her husband. He had been transferred unexpectedly to California. The Commission concluded that Mooney's resignation was not wrongful and her conduct did not warrant punishment.

Similarly, in Burgess, the Commissioner found circumstances which justified exercising discretion. Although Burgess did not give the required sixty (60) day notice, the Board told Burgess that "they would do all in their power to try to replace him" by the date he had requested. During the transition, Burgess prepared lesson plans, offered to meet on Saturdays with his replacement and left many of his personal items with his successor for use in the > classroom. He discussed his plans with the principal and with other sixth grade teachers. The Commissioner emphasized that Burgess was not attempting to take employment at another school, but had acted in exemplary fashion under the circumstances which required his immediate resignation. Although Burgess made every effort to effect a smooth transition, neither the Board nor its school administrator acted upon the promise made to Burgess to do all in their power to replace him. The Commissioner concluded that the Board was obligated to take action to honor the promise made to Burgess. A fully qualified teacher, who was later chosen to replace Burgess, was available a week prior to Burgess's intended resignation. Nevertheless, action to approve her employment was delayed. Since no attempt was made, the Commissioner found no grounds for imposing a penalty on Burgess.

> The Commissioner exercised discretion in another case because mitigating factors were very strong. In re Rogers, Jr., 89 S.L.D. 1962, the Commissioner did not suspend the teacher's certificate for the entire year. Three factors influenced his decision. First, the Board was fortunate to be able to replace the teacher within one week. Second, the teacher honestly believed he was not "under contract" because his prior employment with the State did not require notice of resignation until work had begun. Finally and most significantly, the teacher was not motivated by a desire "to feather his own nest." Id. at 1966. The teacher chose a position with less pay under very difficult conditions because he felt more fulfilled when working with the profoundly and multiply handicapped. Ibid. Although the Commissioner felt suspension for a full year was inappropriate under these circumstances the teacher was still suspended for a three-month period . . . .

In this case the respondent was aware of the impediments to her taking on the position which she accepted and yet failed to advise the petitioner of same. Respondent was fully aware of the problems arising in her personnel life, yet choose to not disclose those issues to the School District. In addition, the amount of notice given to the School District was extremely short. This presented little time for the School District to properly address the loss of a teacher in this matter. Furthermore, the respondent made no effort to find a substitute or to provide any assistance to realize a smooth transition from her as the hired teacher to a new teacher taking over that position in her absence.

Despite being advised by the representatives from the School District that the respondent had the option of applying before the School Board for an unpaid leave of absence, Schvamberg did not apply for such a leave of absence before the Board of Education. Generally, the respondent took no steps to limit the impact of her resignation upon the School District. Based on this, the respondent needs to be held accountable for her actions.

Here, respondent entered into an employment contract for a school term set to begin January 25, 2013. She resigned by e-mail dated March 8, 2013, effective the following Tuesday, March 12, 2013. At no time did she receive the consent of the district relieving her of her contractual duties. I FIND that respondent unilaterally breached her employment contract with the district, and I CONCLUDE that such action constitutes unprofessional conduct.

Petitioner seeks a one-year suspension of respondent's teaching certificate, and cites multiple cases in support of such action. Prior precedent can be summed up as follows:

> Generally, the Commissioner of Education has imposed the full one-year suspension of a teaching certificate for leaving a district without adequate notice. Only in rare circumstances has the Commissioner seen fit to lessen the suspension period. When a suspension period has been for less than one year it has been for compelling reasons, or there have been significant mitigating factors justifying a lesser suspension. Alpine Bd. of Educ. v. Yuz, EDU 1116-06, Initial Decision (July 17, 2008), adopted, Commissioner of Education (September 23, 2008), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

In this matter, respondent has not provided any compelling reason(s) or mitigating factors as to why her teaching certificate should not be suspended for one year. Respondent simply stated that she could not work for the Piscataway School District as a result of a personal mental health emergency, i.e., that her mother was diagnosed with breast cancer which resulted in the respondent having major depressive disorder, recurrent moderate type, generalized anxiety disorder, stomach pain, and identified deficits in her primary support due to her mother's cancer. Respondent's action constitutes unprofessional conduct, and I CONCLUDE that her unprofessional conduct warrants a one-year suspension.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the teaching certificate of respondent, Monica Schvamberg, is suspended for a period of one year.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. IN THE MATTER OF STERLING WATERMAN, :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY. : DECISION

SYNOPSIS

The School Ethics Commission (Commission) found probably cause to credit allegations that respondent – a member of the Jersey City Board of Education – violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) of the School Ethics Act and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members through a series of events that occurred between October 2011 and February 2012 wherein respondent, inter alia, used his official position to secure unwarranted privileges for himself and his son, a student in one of the Board's schools. Respondent contended that the charges were frivolous. The matter was scheduled for hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on two dates in October 2013. Although his attorney appeared on the hearing dates, the respondent failed to report and offered no explanation for his non-appearance.

The School Ethics Commission subsequently determined that, by virtue of his failure to appear, respondent admitted the factual allegations underlying the claims transmitted to the OAL for hearing. Further, the Commission determined that such admissions supported a finding that the respondent had violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) of the School Ethics Act and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and recommended a penalty of reprimand.

Upon review, the Commissioner – whose jurisdiction is limited to reviewing the Commission's recommended sanction – concurred that reprimand is the appropriate penalty for the violations found. Accordingly, the Commissioner directed that respondent be reprimanded as a school officer found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

AGENCY DKT. NO. 24-1/14

IN THE MATTER OF STERLING WATERMAN,	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (Commission) have been reviewed. The matter comes before the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c) and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-9.1 to impose a sanction upon respondent, Jersey City Board of Education member, Sterling Waterman. In its decision, the Commission noted that Waterman failed to appear for hearing at the Office of Administrative Law. The Commission determined that, by virtue of his failure to appear, Waterman had admitted the factual allegations underlying the claims transmitted to OAL for hearing. The Commission further determined that such admissions supported a finding that Waterman had violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) of the School Ethics Act and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members. The Commission recommended that respondent be reprimanded for the violations.

Respondent was afforded thirteen (13) days from the date of mailing of the Commission's decision to file written comments for the Commissioner's consideration respecting the recommended penalty. No comments were filed.

Initially, it must be emphasized that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c) and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-9.1, the determination of the Commission as to violation of the School Ethics Act is not reviewable by the Commissioner herein. Rather, the Commissioner's jurisdiction is limited to review of the sanction recommended by the Commission upon its determination that a violation has occurred. Accordingly, this decision is restricted solely to a review of the Commission's recommended penalty.

Upon a thorough review of the record, the Commissioner determines to accept the Commission's recommendation that a reprimand is the appropriate penalty in this matter for the reasons expressed in the Commission's decision.

Accordingly, IT IS hereby ORDERED that Sterling Waterman be reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

	:	Docket No. C10-12
	:	OAL Dkt. No. EEC 13641-12
	:	DECISION

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a complaint filed before the School Ethics Commission (Commission) on March 21, 2012 by complainant, Terry Watkins-Williams. By letter dated March 26, 2012, the Commission notified the complainant that the complaint lacked certain requirements in that she failed to set out specific violations of the School Ethics Act in separate paragraphs as required. On April 2, 2012 the complainant filed an amended complaint, alleging that respondent, Sterling Waterman, a member of the Jersey City Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. Specifically, the complainant alleges that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), as well as N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), (d), (i), and (j) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code). Complainant's narrative includes dates of violations that exceeded the 180-day filing requirement provided in N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.5(a). Consequently, the Commission dismissed that part of her complaint, which included events beyond the 180-day limit and commenced its review with events occurring after September 23, 2011.

On April 30, 2012, the respondent filed an answer, which did not include a Certification under Oath. On May 18, 2012, the respondent amended his answer, alleging that the complaint was frivolous. By letter dated July 3, 2012, the complainant and respondent were notified that the Commission would review this matter at its meeting on July 24, 2012 in order to make a probable cause determination, in accordance with procedures set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.9, as well as a determination on the allegation of frivolousness. The complainant was accorded an opportunity to respond to the claim of frivolousness, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-7.2(b), but she did not do so.

At its July 24, 2012 meeting, the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegation that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The matter was revisited again at its next meeting on August 28, 2012 to review alleged violations of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members. In addition ~~to its~~ prior determination, the Commission also found cause to credit the allegation that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and dismissed all other allegations. Moreover, the Commission found that the complaint was not frivolous, in accordance with the standard set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.2. Finally, the Commission voted to transmit the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a de novo hearing where the Commission prosecuted those allegations in the complaint, for which it found probable cause.

Thereafter, this matter was scheduled for hearings on October 30, 2013 and October 31, 2013 before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). Although the respondent's attorney appeared on both days, the respondent failed to report on either day, and as of November 4, 2013, he did not provide a reason for his non-appearance. The ALJ issued an Initial Decision dismissing the matter on November 1, 2013 and mailed same to the parties on November 4, 2013. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, the ALJ returned the file to Commission to determine whether a violation of the Act occurred in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29. Additionally, the Commission requested and obtained an extension of time until January 30, 2014 in which to consider the full record of this matter.

The Deputy Attorney General, prosecuting the complaint on behalf of the Commission, submitted exceptions on November 13, 2013. He maintains that a dismissal of the complaint was inappropriate since there had been no adjudication on the probable cause finding. Respondent argued in his reply exceptions, received November 25, 2013, that his non-appearance should not be construed as a waiver of defenses or his Answer as there is no provision to support such a penalty. He further argues that any of the alleged violations, on which the Commission did not previously find cause should be considered dismissed, and the Commission's decision considered final as to those issues.

At its meeting on November 26, 2013, the Commission rejected the ALJ's Initial Decision, dismissing the complaint and instead issued a default against the respondent for his failure to appear at the hearings. For his conduct as alleged in the complaint and pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2)(i), the Commission voted to find that Sterling Waterman violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) of the Act and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) of the Code. In so finding, the Commission recommended a penalty of reprimand.

ANALYSIS

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(b) and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7 et seq., upon a finding of probable cause, the complainant shall no longer be a party to the complaint. Where the Commission transmits a complaint to the OAL pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.1(c)2, the attorney for the Commission shall prosecute those allegations in the complaint which the Commission found probable cause to credit.

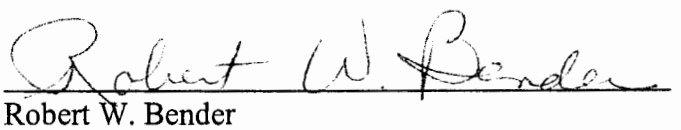
Where a matter is transmitted to the OAL and the respondent fails to appear before the OAL, the matter is returned to the Commission for disposition. At such time, the allegation(s) that the Commission found probable cause to credit shall be deemed admitted and the Commission may proceed to a determination of a violation on a summary basis. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2)(i). N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a).

In early November2013, the ALJ returned the case to the Commission, noting the respondent failed to appear for the hearings scheduled on October 30, 2013 and October 31, 2013. The Commission's review of the record also reveals that the respondent failed to respond to requests from his counsel and refused to participate in the preparation of his defense. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) states that the sanction for unreasonable failure to comply with any order from a judge or with any requirements of this chapter warrant, inter alia the suppression of a defense, exclusion of evidence or the imposition of any other appropriate case-related action. Respondent's conduct during the hearing process warrants the imposition of these sanctions.

Moreover, the respondent's failure to appear is deemed an admission of the factual allegations asserted in support of the two claims transmitted to the OAL for hearing. Consequently, the Commission finds a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A: 12-24.1(d).

DECISION

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission rejects the Initial Decision of the ALJ dismissing the complaint and issues a default against the respondent for his failure to appear at the hearings. The Commission also determines that by his conduct, the respondent has admitted the facts as alleged in the complaint and establishes a finding that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A: 12-24.1(d).



PENALTY

The Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the School Ethics Commission's recommended sanction. Parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of violation may file, within 13 days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the School Ethics Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4 within 30 days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (13 days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

SYNOPSIS

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, the petitioner – on February 14, 2012 – requested reimbursement in the amount of $68,425.79 from the respondent Board for the legal fees and costs expended in the defense of a criminal complaint against him which had been dismissed by the court. The Board denied the reimbursement, on the grounds that the request lacked proof of payment of the legal fees by the petitioner. As petitioner is a member by the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA), his legal fees and expenses were paid by the NJEA pursuant to its practice of providing a legal defense fund for its members. The petitioner filed the within appeal in March 2012, and his attorney subsequently revised the reimbursement amount to $46,176, representing a calculation of fees based on a reduction in the rates charged to reflect the NJEA unified hourly rate ($149 or $150 per hour) for firm associates, and a $250 per hour rate for services performed by the lead defense attorney. The Board contended, inter alia, that petitioner has no standing because the NJEA financed his defense, and as such petitioner has no costs to be reimbursed.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioner in this matter was charged with a criminal offense that arose out of his official duties as a teacher, which was ultimately dismissed; it is undisputed that petitioner was completely exonerated of the charge; accordingly, under N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, the respondent Board is legally obligated to indemnify the petitioner; hours related to both the unfounded investigation by the Institutional Abuse Investigation Unit (IAIU) and the municipal court criminal matter were reasonable for reimbursement; however, the reimbursement rate should be the NJEA rate in effect at the time of performance of the legal services, i.e.: either $149 or $150 per hour depending on date of service. The ALJ ordered that respondent reimburse the petitioner for legal fees immediately upon receipt of a revised bill, as follows: $694.01 for expenses; $676.78 for investigator fees; and 267.5 hours of attorney fees at the NJEA hourly rate of $149 for work performed from September 2010 to August 2011, and $150 for the period from September 2011 to August 2012.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the ALJ's determination that petitioner is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees from the Board, and found that the billed hours related to the IAIU investigation were part and parcel of the defense of the criminal complaint. However, the Commissioner found that: the ALJ summarily determined that the NJEA unified rate should be the reasonable rate at which the respondent must reimburse; in so doing, the ALJ failed to complete the required analysis of evidence in the record to determine whether the hours billed were reasonable; the record supports that the rates billed by the lead attorney were reasonable, but is devoid of evidence relating to the reasonableness of the billing for associate hours. Accordingly, the Commissioner adopted the decision of the OAL with modification, and directed the Board to reimburse petitioner for expenses and fees as itemized above, and for 47.8 hours of attorney work at $250 per hour.

V.		COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Respondent's exceptions – filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 – were fully considered by the Commissioner in reaching his determination herein.

This matter arises out of a claim by petitioner, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, for reimbursement of legal fees and costs incurred in the successful defense of a criminal harassment charge filed against him in the Irvington Municipal Court. The criminal complaint was signed on March 8, 2011 and alleged that petitioner had made improper sexual advances toward a student during class at respondent's Mt. Vernon Avenue School. The allegations that formed the basis of the criminal complaint were also the subject of a related investigation by the Department of Children and Families, Institutional Abuse Investigations Unit (IAIU). Ultimately, the IAIU determined the allegations were unfounded, which determination served as a basis for dismissal of the criminal complaint on January 17, 2012.

Petitioner was represented by Timothy R. Smith, Esq., of the law firm of Caruso Smith Edell Picini, P.C. Smith and various associates of the Caruso firm performed legal services in connection with the matter from December 20, 2010 through January 27, 2012. Itemized billing records reflect a total of 267.5 hours expended on the matter, including 47.8 hours of work by Smith and 219.7 hours of work by associates. In addition, $694.01 of expenses and $676.78 in investigator fees were incurred.

Petitioner is a dues-paying member of the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA). The Caruso firm participates in the NJEA Legal Services Program, pursuant to which NJEA provides a legal defense pool for its members. The fees and expenses associated with the legal services provided to petitioner by the Caruso firm were paid by the NJEA, at the then-applicable unified rate of $149 per hour for services performed prior to September 1, 2011, and $150 per hour for services performed from that date forward. The demand for reimbursement seeks a total of $46,176.00, inclusive of $694.01 of expenses, $676.78 in investigator fees, and payment for services at a rate of $250 per hour for all services performed by Smith, and at the applicable NJEA unified rate for services performed by associates of the Caruso firm.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Initial Decision in which she determined that the petitioner was entitled to reimbursement from respondent for all reasonable counsel fees and expenses pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1. In reaching that determination, the ALJ specifically found that the allegations underlying the criminal charge and the IAIU investigation arose out of petitioner's official duties as a teacher, and that petitioner had obtained a favorable result since the IAIU investigation was unfounded and the criminal charges were ultimately dismissed. The ALJ further determined that petitioner's attorney provided adequate proof that 267.5 hours were spent on this matter, and that the number of hours was reasonable; however, in calculating the recoverable fees, the ALJ reduced the hourly rate for services performed by Smith from $250 to the applicable NJEA unified rate – the same rate at which the associates sought to be reimbursed. In so doing, the ALJ took note of Smith's substantial skill and experience, and acknowledged that a $250 hourly rate would be warranted in other contexts. Nevertheless, the ALJ concluded that where, as here, Smith accepted the matter through the NJEA Legal Services Program at the applicable unified rate, the unified rate should also be used for reimbursement purposes.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's determination that petitioner is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable attorneys' fees from respondent. Respondent does not dispute that petitioner meets the statutory requirements, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, for reimbursement of reasonable counsel fees and expenses. Respondent, however, challenges the "reasonableness" of the legal fees at issue. More specifically, respondent argues in its exceptions that the ALJ should have excluded from petitioner's indemnification award those hours that were devoted to the IAIU investigation since they were not "inherently connected to the criminal proceeding." The Commissioner disagrees.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, the board of education is required to reimburse legal fees associated with the defense of both criminal and quasi-criminal actions. Moreover, the record reflects that the IAIU investigation, and the results thereof, were an integral part of the successful defense of the criminal complaint against petitioner. Accordingly, the Commissioner finds that the hours devoted to the IAIU investigation were part and parcel of the Caruso firm's efforts in defense of the criminal complaint, and the ALJ properly included those hours in the reimbursement calculation.

Respondent further argues that the ALJ failed to consider the appropriate factors in determining that the Caruso firm's fee was reasonable. In analyzing a fee application, it is necessary to begin with the calculation of the "lodestar" – which is the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate. Rendine v. Pantzer, 141 N.J. 292, 324 (1995). In order to complete the calculation, the reasonable hourly rate must be evaluated according to prevailing market rates. Therefore the court must compare the hourly rate sought to those of attorneys in the community with "comparable skill, experience, and reputation." (Id. at 337, citations omitted) Although the determination "need not be unnecessarily complex or protracted," the court must also ensure that the hourly rates are "fair, realistic, and accurate." (Id.)

The Commissioner finds that the ALJ failed to complete the required analysis vis-à-vis petitioner's fee application. In that regard, the ALJ began the analysis by reviewing the number of hours expended, and concluding that the number was reasonable. The ALJ failed, however, to complete the analysis by evaluating the evidence in the record to determine whether it supported a finding that the hourly rates charged by Smith and his associates were reasonable. Instead, the ALJ summarily determined that the NJEA unified rate "should be the reasonable rate at which the respondent must reimburse."

The notion that the NJEA unified rate must be used for reimbursement purposes where an attorney accepts a matter through the NJEA Legal Services Program has been rejected. See Salaam v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Irvington, Commissioner's Decision No. 264-12, decided June 25, 2012, aff'd, Dkt. No. A-5592-11T4 (App. Div. 2014). Respondent is statutorily obligated to pay "reasonable" counsel fees. That obligation is not altered by the fact that NJEA financed petitioner's defense. Thus, the ALJ should have completed the analysis, and determined whether the evidence in the record establishes that the billing rate of each attorney that worked on Greene's case is reasonable considering the rates of other attorneys in the relevant community with comparable skill, experience and reputation.

The Commissioner is satisfied that Smith's $250 hourly rate is reasonable, given his considerable skill and experience, as established by information contained in his certification and the affidavit of Paul DaSilva, Esq. However, with respect to the associates who also appear in the time records submitted by petitioner, the Commissioner finds the record devoid of evidence which would allow a determination as to whether their experience, skill and reputation would justify a conclusion that the hourly rates charged for their time was "reasonable." Accordingly, the charges attributable to these individuals must be excluded from petitioner's indemnification award. See Salaam, supra.

With the exception of an untimely argument that the NJEA should have been joined as an indispensible party[1], the remainder of respondent's exceptions essentially recast and reiterate its arguments advanced below. In that it is determined that the ALJ fully considered and addressed them in her decision, further elaboration on these arguments is unnecessary here.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL, as modified above, is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board of Education of the Township of Irvington is hereby directed to reimburse petitioner for legal fees as follows: 1) expenses of $694.01; 2) investigator fees of $676.78; and, 3) 47.8 hours of attorney work at the hourly rate of $250.

DANA GREEN,

v.
IRVINGTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Adam M. Epstein, Esq., for petitioner (Caruso, Smith, Edell & Picini, attorneys)

Albert Asphall, Esq., for respondent (Hunt, Hamlin & Ridley, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 19, 2013 Decided: June 19, 2013

BEFORE TIFFANY M. WILLIAMS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petitioner, Dana Green, files the instant appeal seeking indemnification from the respondent, Irvington Board of Education in connection with a criminal complaint that was instituted against him and subsequently dismissed. The respondent refuses payment of petitioner's legal fees on grounds that he provided no proof that he had already paid his legal fees and therefore he lacks standing to seek indemnification in this appeal.

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on April 12, 2012 and was initially assigned to Administrative Law Judge Tahesha Way. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13. The matter was reassigned to this ALJ and the parties consented to submit certifications and briefs in summation of legal arguments.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

Based on my review of the exhibits and briefs submitted by counsel, the following are FOUND as undisputed FACT:

1. On March 8, 2011, a criminal charge of harassment was signed against the petitioner, a tenured teacher employed by the respondent. The complaint alleged that the petitioner made several improper sexual advances towards a ten-year old student during art class at the Mt. Vernon Avenue School.

2. On January 17, 2012, the criminal charges were dismissed against the petitioner in the Irvington Municipal Court.

3. On or about February 14, 2012, the petitioner, through his attorneys, submitted a bill to the respondent demanding reimbursement of attorneys' fees in the amount of $68,425.79, in connection with the municipal court criminal matter (R-1), (R-2).

4. On February 23, 2012, the respondent denied the request on grounds that the request lacked proof of payment of the legal fees by the petitioner. (R-3).

5. On or about March 12, 2012, the petitioner filed a petition seeking reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees under N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1. (P-1).

6. Subsequently, petitioner reconsidered and revised his demand to $46,176.00, which represented a calculation of fees based on reduction the firm's rates. Specifically, the demand includes (1) $694.01 of expenses, (2) $676.78 in investigator fees, (3) 47.8 hours of work by Timothy R. Smith, Esq. at an hourly rate of $250 and 219.7 hours of work by associates, including 99.7 hours at the NJEA standard rate of $149.

7. Timothy R. Smith, Esq. is a partner with the firm Caruso Smith Edell Picini, P.C. and served as the lead attorney representing the petitioner in the municipal court matter. He has been licensed for 15 years and is admitted to practice in New York, New Jersey, the District of Columbia and various federal courts. He is a certified criminal trial attorney in New Jersey, of which less than 1% of attorneys in NJ hold this certification. (P-7).

8. Mr. Smith had tried cases of the first, second, third and fourth digresses, including disorderly persons and petty disorderly persons. He has handled hundreds of cases involving teachers charged in the municipal courts of New Jersey with a variety of offenses, including harassment allegations arising from their duties. Mr. Smith utilizes a rate of $250/ hour as a lower end rate on his billing spectrum. (P-7).

9. NJEA's unified rate for representing union members in criminal and civil matters was $149 per hour from September 1, 2010 to August 31, 2011, and $150 per hour from September 1, 2011 to August 31, 2012. (P-8).

10. Mr. Smith's representation of the petitioner was reflected in the itemized bill and was necessary to defend him against the criminal harassment charge as well as the related investigation by the Institutional Abuse Investigations Unit (IAIU) of the Division of Families and Children. The IAIU investigation was unfounded and served as a basis to seek dismissal of the criminal complaint. (P-7).

11. Mr. Smith directed associates and an investigator to perform work under his direction in connection with the petitioner's charges. (P-7).

12. NJEA paid the fees and expenses in connection with Mr. Smith's representation pursuant to their practice in providing a legal defense pool for their members. (P-5).

13. Petitioner is a dues paying member of the NJEA.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, petitioner is entitled to reimbursement from the respondent for reasonable counsel fees and expenses in connection with a hearing, trial and appeals of any criminal or quasi-criminal action that may be instituted against him should the proceeding be dismissed or result in a final disposition in his favor. N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1. The two-part test to determine eligibility for reimbursement of expenses and counsel fees contemplates that: (1) any act or omission on which the criminal charges are based must arise out of and in the course of the performance of the duties of the employee; and (2) the charges must be either dismissed or result in a final disposition favorable to the employee. Bower v. Bd. of Educ. Of the City of East Orange, 149 N.J. 419 (1997). Moreover, the reasonableness of attorney fees is a calculation of the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate. Singer v. State, 95 N.J. 487, 499, cert. denied, 469 U.S. 832 (1984).

Based on the preponderance of the undisputed evidence, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable attorneys' fees from the respondent. The credible evidence demonstrates that the petitioner was charged with a criminal offense arising out of his official duties as a teacher, which was ultimately dismissed. He was also the subject of a related quasi-criminal IAIU investigation which was ultimately unfounded. Respondents do not refute these facts nor produce any credible evidence to demonstrate that the petitioner did not successfully obtain a favorable result. To the contrary, it is undisputed that petitioner was completely exonerated. Accordingly, respondent's obligation to indemnify the petitioner was legally triggered.

Further, I CONCLUDE that the hours spent on both the IAIU and the municipal court matters were reasonable. However, I also CONCLUDE that the reasonable rate that should be applied is the NJEA rate in effect at the time of the performance of the legal services to the petitioner—$149 per hour from September 1, 2010 to August 31, 2011, and $150 per hour from September 1, 2011 to August 31, 2012. The NJEA notes in its memos to retained counsel, dated October 6, 2010 and November 2, 2011, that the applicable rate is a unified rate for civil and criminal matters. Therefore, notwithstanding Mr. Smith's experience as an elite certified criminal attorney, the reasonable rate that the respondent should expect to reimburse would be the stated NJEA rate. The fact that petitioner's counsel revised the demand from $68,425.79 to $46,176.00, based on a reduction in the associates' rates down to the NJEA rate, furthers the proposition that the NJEA rate was the reasonable rate. The petitioner provided no justification for reducing the associate rate but leaving Mr. Smith's rate at $250. While I credit Mr. Smith's experience as warranting a $250 per hour rate in other contexts, in this instance the reasonable rate would be the unified rare proscribed by NJEA. Unified or blended rates are typical for firms in representing bulk maters on behalf of one client where multiple attorneys with varying levels of experience will be working on the matter. In the instant case, the NJEA specifically developed a unified rate for both civil and criminal matters and that rate should be the reasonable rate at which the respondent must reimburse. In light of the decision to award fees at the NJEA rate, the issue of whether the $250 an hour rate by Mr. Smith is reasonable in light of the attorney affidavits submitted, need not be reached.

Further, I am not persuaded by the respondent's argument that the appeal wants of standing. The relevant statutory authority for reimbursement and its case progeny do not support a conclusion that reimbursement only follows if there is direct payment of the fee by the client first. Moreover, respondent failed to provide sufficient evidence that the bill was either not bona fide or a sham which would serve as the only basis to justify stopping the district from paying a bona fide bill. It is undisputed that the firm had a retainer agreement with NJEA to provide representation to its members and the respondent presented no evidence to refute this fact. Accordingly, standing lies and the respondent is obligated to provide reimburse under the guiding legal authority.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the respondent reimburse the petitioner for legal fees constituting: (1) $694.01 of expenses, (2) $676.78 in investigator fees, and (3) 267.5 hours of attorney work, inclusive of Mr. Smith's and his associates' hours, at the NJEA hourly rate of $149 for work performed from September 1, 2010 to August 31, 2011 and at $150 per hour for work performed from September 1, 2011 to August 31, 2012. Petitioner is ORDERED to remit a revised bill to respondent reflecting the aforementioned rates immediately. Upon receipt, respondent is ORDERED to remit full payment immediately.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE NORTHERN BURLINGTON COUNTY REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner alleged, inter alia, that the respondent Board violated her son's due process rights relative to the imposition of a long-term suspension on L.K. following an incident that occurred on December 19, 2011. Petitioner sought to have any reference to a long-term suspension from December 20, 2011 to January 25, 2012 expunged from L.K.'s student records, and requested compensatory education for the period when he was denied educational services while on suspension. Respondent asserted that L.K. was not entitled to formal due process because he was given only a short-term suspension of five days, and that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to decide the claim for compensatory education since the petition was not filed with the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP). The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner's appeal does not contest the basis for the discipline which was meted out in this matter, but rather challenges the respondent's imposition of a de facto long-term suspension without consideration of L.K.'s due process rights; summary decision in favor of petitioner is appropriate as it relates to petitioner's request that L.K.'s disciplinary record be expunged of any mention of a suspension exceeding five days for the alleged December 19, 2011 incident; however, summary decision cannot be granted regarding the request for compensatory education, as the petition does not allege a violation of the IDEA, and even if it did, the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction to decide a matter arising under the IDEA. Likewise, the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to decide if L.K. is entitled to any compensatory education as a result of a violation of the IDEA or New Jersey special education laws. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered respondent to expunge any reference to a long-term suspension and verify that L.K.'s student record reflects that a suspension of only five days was imposed, for the period from December 20, 2011 through January 4, 2012. The ALJ dismissed the balance of the petition for lack of jurisdiction.

Upon a full and independent review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision, petitioner's motion for summary decision was partially granted, and respondent's cross-motion for summary decision was denied.

PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE NORTHERN BURLINGTON COUNTY REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

Before the Commissioner are petitioner's allegations that respondent's imposition of discipline upon her minor child, L.K., failed to satisfy due process and other requirements relative to long-term suspensions. The Commissioner notes that the question of whether L.K. committed an infraction was not adjudicated in the OAL and is therefore not at issue before the Commissioner. The instant controversy centers wholly upon the nature of the imposed discipline and whether respondent's actions complied with the category of discipline which was meted out. Upon review of the record and Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL),[1] the Commissioner concurs with the OAL that respondent violated L.K.'s rights.

It is undisputed that, although respondent may have intended to impose upon L.K. the minor discipline of five days of suspension, in actuality, L.K. was kept out of school for well over ten days – ultimately creating a long-term suspension. Thus, as the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found, L.K.'s de facto long-term suspension entitled him to, among other things, a formal hearing with proper notice, a formal decision by the board of education, and home instruction within five days of the beginning of the suspension. See, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-5, and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-10.2(b).

Since none of the above-mentioned rights were afforded to L.K., he was entitled to the relief prescribed in such cases as Asia Robinson v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of the City of Paterson, Commissioner Decision No. 47-11, decided January 25, 2011, aff'd. Appellate Division, Dkt. No. A-2914-10T1, November 17, 2011. (stating that the remedies of reinstatement and expungement are possible if a suspension violates a student's due process rights); see also N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7 (providing for the ability to "expunge inaccurate, irrelevant or otherwise improper information from the student record"). Thus, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's recommendation that any document referencing a long-term suspension between December 20, 2011 and January 25, 2012 be expunged from L.K.'s school records. Since L.K. is currently attending school, there is no need to order the remedy of reinstatement.

Finally, the Commissioner is in accord with the ALJ's denial of petitioner's request for "compensatory education" for L.K. Setting aside the fact that L.K. appears to have been without educational instruction for no more than ten school days, the remedy of compensatory education has been judicially fashioned to compensate special education students for violations of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 20 U.S.C.S. § 1400 et seq. See, e.g. Ferren C. v. Sch. Dist. of Philadelphia, 612 *F.*3d 712, 717 (3d Cir. 2010) (Compensatory education . . . . is not defined within the IDEA and is a judicially created remedy. . . . The Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has stated that compensatory education serves to "replace [] educational services the child should have received in the first place" and that such awards "should aim to place disabled children in the same position they would have occupied but for the school district's violations of IDEA." Reid v. District of Columbia, 401 F.3d 516, 518, 365 U.S. App. D.C. 234 (D.C. Cir. 2005)). As the Commissioner of Education does not have jurisdiction to adjudicate challenges to the IDEA, he may not award remedies designed to compensate students for IDEA violations.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this case, petitioner's motion for summary decision is partially granted as set forth infra, and respondent's cross-motion for summary decision dismissing the petition is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED. [2]

L.K. AND A.K. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, L.K.
Petitioners,

v.

NORTHERN BURLINGTON COUNTY REGIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION
Respondent.

Sean M. Benoit, Esq., for petitioners (Disability Rights New Jersey, attorneys)

Brett E.J. Gorman, Esq., for respondent (Parker McCay, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 27, 2014 Decided: January 27, 2014

BEFORE JOHN F. RUSSO, JR., ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioners, L.K. and A.K., bring this matter on behalf of their minor son, L.K., asserting that respondent, Northern Burlington County Regional Board of Education ("Board" or "District"), violated L.K.'s due process rights in imposing a "long-term" suspension on the student. On April 5, 2012, petitioners filed a Verified Petition of Appeal ("Petition") with the New Jersey Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes ("Commissioner"), to which the respondent answered on May 8, 2012. In the six (6) Counts specified in the Petition, the petitioners contend that:

- Count 1 – respondent imposed a long-term suspension without providing a formal hearing and written notice in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3.

- Count 2 – respondent issued a long-term suspension without a formal decision by the Board of Education in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-5.

- Count 3 – respondent failed to provide home instruction within five (5) days of the start of the suspension in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:16-10.2(b).

- Count 4 – respondent failed to provide L.K. with formal due process as guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

- Count 5 - respondent failed to provide L.K. with formal due process as guaranteed by Article I, Paragraph 1 of the New Jersey Constitution and N.J.S.A. 10:6-2.

- Count 6 – the long-term suspension of L.K. without formal due process violated his right to a public education under Article VIII, Section IV, Paragraph 1 of the New Jersey Constitution.

For relief, petitioners seek to expunge any reference to a long-term suspension from December 20, 2011, to January 25, 2012, from all of L.K.'s school records. Petitioners also request compensatory education for the period when L.K., who is classified as eligible for special education services, was denied educational services while on suspension. In opposition, respondent asserts that L.K. was not entitled to formal due process because he was only given a short-term suspension of five (5) days and that this tribunal does not have jurisdiction to decide the claim for compensatory education because the Petition was not filed with the Office of Special Education Programs ("OSEP").

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") on May 9, 2012, as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23. A pre-conference hearing was held on June 20, 2012, at which time a settlement conference was tentatively scheduled for July 12, 2012. By letter dated July 2, 2012, respondent requested an adjournment because the District superintendent was not available. The settlement conference was rescheduled for and held on August 9, 2012, however the parties were unable to reach a settlement.

Status conferences were subsequently held on September 12, 2012, and November 28, 2012. Pursuant to the briefing schedule agreed to by the parties during the November 28, 2012, phone conference, petitioners filed a Motion for Summary Decision on or about January 18, 2013. Respondent filed an Answer in Opposition as well as a Cross-Motion for Summary Decision on or about February 19, 2013, to which the petitioners replied on or about February 27, 2013.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I FIND, based upon a review of the Petition, Answer, and Cross-Motions for Summary Decision, the following relevant facts:

1. L.K. and A.K., the petitioners in this matter, are the parents of L.K., whose date of birth is April 6, 1999.

2. Petitioners are residents of the Board's school district and have remained so at all times relevant to the matter.

3. L.K. is classified for special education and related services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act, 20 U.S.C. §§ 1400 to 1482 ("IDEA"). His classification is Communication Impaired and he has been diagnosed with ADHD.

4. During the 2011-12 school year, L.K. was in the 7th grade and was enrolled in the Northern Burlington Regional School District. His Individualized Education Program ("IEP") placed him at the Northern Burlington Regional Middle School in a general education setting with pull out replacement services and a one-to-one assistant.

5. On December 19, 2011, L.K. is alleged to have verbally threatened his assigned one-to-one assistant by stating that he was going to get his older brother to beat the assistant up after school.

6. As a result of the allegation, on December 20, 2011, L.K. was suspended from school pending a re-entry meeting before the superintendant.

7. The District sent two letters, both dated December 20, 2011, to L.K.'s parents informing them that L.K was being immediately placed in out of school suspension pending a meeting with the superintendent and that such a meeting would be held on January 4, 2012, which was five (5) school days after L.K.'s suspension began.

8. L.K.'s parents never received the letters because both letters were addressed to a Fort Dix, New Jersey address and L.K.'s parents do not live in Fort Dix.

9. On January 3, 2012, L.K., the father, went to the Northern Burlington Middle School in person to meet with Ms. Treese, the assistant principal, and Ms. Sutter, his son's case manager, to discuss his son's suspension. A.K., the mother, participated in the meeting via a conference call.

10. L.K. was handed both of the December 20, 2011, letters that contained the wrong address and was verbally informed that his son was suspended until the meeting the following day with the superintendant on January 4, 2012.

11. L.K. verbally informed Ms. Treese and Ms. Sutter that he wanted to have an attorney present at the meeting with the superintendant. L.K. was then informed that since he would be bringing an attorney, the meeting would have to be postponed.

12. By letter dated January 6, 2012, the middle school principal, Mr. Kearns, wrote to the parents at their correct address confirming a conversation that he had with the parents on the prior day, January 5, 2012. As a follow up to that phone conversation, it was Mr. Kearns' understanding that the parents were declining to meet with the superintendant at this time while they investigated and visited potential alternative placements recommended by the child study team.

13. As a result of the failure to have the re-entry meeting, Mr. Kearns stated in the letter that L.K. will "continue his suspension and home instruction will be provided."

14. On January 11, 2012, the home instruction commenced, which was ten (10) school days after L.K. was suspended.

15. An IEP meeting for L.K., the student, was scheduled and held on January 17, 2012. This meeting was attended by L.K.'s parents and the participants discussed L.K.'s suspension, possible placement at New Hope Academy, and the need for a manifestation determination meeting to be scheduled.

16. Following the IEP meeting, L.K.'s parents agreed to have L.K.'s records sent to the New Hope Academy, an out-of-district placement.

17. A manifestation determination meeting was scheduled for January 20, 2012, however, L.K.'s parents did not receive proper notification of the meeting and it was rescheduled for January 27, 2012.

18. On January 25, 2012, L.K. began school at the New Hope Academy.

19. Although never being issued a long-term suspension, prior to starting at New Hope Academy, L.K. effectively served a long-term suspension from December 20, 2011, through January 25, 2012, totaling 19 consecutive school days.

20. L.K. currently receives educational services at Newgrange, an out-of-district placement, which he has now attended since October 2012.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Presently before this tribunal are cross motions for summary decision filed by both petitioners and respondent. The rules governing motions for summary decision in an OAL matter are embodied in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. These provisions mirror the language of R. 4:46-2 of the Rules Governing the Courts of New Jersey. Under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), the motion for summary decision "... may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." The opposing party must submit responding affidavits showing that there is indeed a genuine issue of material fact, which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding, and that the moving party is not entitled to summary decision as a matter of law. Failure to do so, entitles the moving party to summary judgment. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995). Moreover, even if the non-moving party comes forward with some evidence, the Courts must grant summary judgment if the evidence is "so one-sided that [the moving party] must prevail as a matter of law." Id. at 536 (citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 251-52 (1986)). Under Brill, once the movant has presented competent evidence tending to show the absence of any genuine issue for trial, the nonmovant must do more than simply point to any fact in dispute. Id. at 529. Moreover, the nonmoving party cannot rely on disputed issues of fact that are insubstantial. Id. at 530. Rather, Brill requires the nonmovant to raise a factual issue substantial enough to sustain a reasonable conclusion in the nonmovant's favor if a hearing were held. Ibid.

As set forth more fully below, based upon the relief requested and the undisputed material facts, summary decision is appropriate, in part, for petitioners. Petitioners are entitled to summary decision on their request that L.K.'s disciplinary record be expunged of any record of a suspension exceeding five (5) days for the alleged December 19, 2011, incident. As to the request for compensatory education, this relief must be denied because the Petition does not allege a violation of the IDEA, and even if it did, this tribunal lacks jurisdiction to decide a matter arising under the IDEA where a due process petition was not filed with OSEP.

While the parties remain in disagreement as to the verbal threat allegedly made on December 19, 2011, the parent's Petition does not specify that the petitioners' are contesting the fact that any discipline was issued. Instead, in the six (6) Counts specified in the Petition, the parents only contest the procedures of the respondent in imposing a long-term suspension – specifically that the respondent violated L.K.'s constitutional rights when it imposed a long-term suspension and failed to offer home instruction within five days of the start of the suspension. Thus the material fact relevant to the Petition is not whether the alleged incident occurred, but simply whether L.K. was subjected to a long-term suspension in which his due process rights were violated. This is a critical distinction because this tribunal does not have jurisdiction to decide the basis of the suspension if it is not contested in the Petition. Instead, the heart of the matter is whether petitioners were denied appropriate due process.

Reviewing the procedures the respondent followed begins with the rule that formal due process rights are triggered by a long-term suspension. See R.R. v. Bd. of Educ. of Shore Reg'l H.S., 109 N.J. Super. 337, 347 (Ch. Div. 1970) (construing statutes that permit public school officials to impose serious sanctions, such as suspension or expulsion, to also require such officials to afford those students the procedural due process guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment). Accordingly, under New Jersey school law, when a school district suspends a student for more than ten (10) consecutive days, they are required to provide the student with formal due process procedures, including written notification to the parents of the charges and alleged facts and the opportunity for a formal hearing before the district board of education. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3. By contrast, a short-term suspension is governed by the less formal procedures specified under N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.2. The Petition in this matter contains no allegation that the respondent violated N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.2.

If a student's formal due process rights are violated, the student is entitled to a remedy, which can range from the immediate reinstatement of the student back in school to having the student's record expunged. See C.F. v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Wildwood, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 619 (order to reinstate a student who was suspended without being noticed of the charges against her or a timely hearing); Asia Robinson v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of the City of Paterson, EDU 9407-09, Initial Decision (Dec. 14, 2010), adopted, Comm'r (Jan. 25, 2011) (stating that relief of reinstatement and expungement are possible if a suspension violated a student's due process rights); see also N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7 (providing for the ability to "expunge inaccurate, irrelevant or otherwise improper information from the student record").

In this case, as a matter of fact, petitioner was effectively suspended for 19 school days, which constitutes a long-term suspension because it was for more than ten (10) consecutive days. It is also undisputed that respondent failed to provide petitioners with a written notice of the facts alleged or the opportunity for a hearing before the Board. Thus, as a matter of law, I FIND that no material question of fact exists to determine the respondent violated N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3 by failing to comply with the formal due process procedures once L.K.'s suspension became a long-term suspension after it exceeded ten (10) consecutive days. Furthermore, the respondent cannot contest that L.K. was not assigned to suspension between January 5, 2012, and January 25, 2012, because the principal, Mr. Kearns, in his letter dated January 6, 2012, stated that L.K. would "continue his suspension" beyond the five (5) days imposed, pending an alternative placement. The principal states that L.K. cannot return to school because the parents have declined to meet with the superintendant. No authority under New Jersey school law has been identified for respondent to continue L.K.'s suspension, and thereby punish the student, for actions or inactions of the parents in not attending a re-entry meeting with the superintendant. Therefore, I FIND that after stating that L.K. would continue his suspension and conditioning his return to school on his parents attending a re-entry meeting, the District ultimately subjected L.K. to a long-term suspension of 19 school days.

If L.K. was only suspended for five (5) days, respondent cannot deny that it was obligated to resume his education at the conclusion of that term. Of course respondent retained its rights to continue to pursue its dispute with the parents over a re-entry meeting, but this dispute should not have denied the student his right to receive a public education immediately at the conclusion of his five (5) day suspension. The actions of the parents in this matter do not relieve the respondent of its duty to provide L.K. with a public education at the conclusion of his suspension. Respondent cannot escape its liability for failing to provide L.K. with home instruction until ten (10) school days after the suspension began, in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:16-10.2(b), by alleging that the parents are at fault for failing to attend a re-entry meeting. The respondent's obligation to provide a public education to the student must supersede any dispute it had with the parents.

As a matter of relief, it is undisputed that L.K. has already returned to school in an out-of-district placement, thus petitioners request that L.K.'s school record be expunged of any reference to an improper long-term suspension is the only possible relief remaining. On this issue, respondent contends that L.K. was only suspended for five (5) days. Accordingly, L.K.'s student record should already reflect the requested relief by containing no reference to a suspension longer than five (5) days. However, since the respondent did not certify the contents of L.K.'s record, I cannot determine that there is nothing to expunge. As such, petitioners are entitled to an Order that respondent expunge any reference to a long-term suspension and verify that L.K.'s student record reflects that a suspension of only five (5) days was imposed for the period of December 20, 2011, through January 4, 2012.

Petitioners also include in their Motion for Summary Decision that the District failed to provide L.K. with a timely manifestation determination. This issue was not included in the Petition in this matter, which contains no reference to the IDEA or any allegation that L.K. was denied a timely manifestation determination. This proceeding is limited to the Petition transmitted by the Commissioner. However, assuming, arguendo, that the Petition was amended to include a claim that L.K. was denied a timely manifestation determination, the Commissioner, and thus this tribunal, would not have jurisdiction to decide the issue because it is the State Director of the Office of Special Education Programs who determines whether a local education agency has violated the requirements of state and federal laws regarding the provision of special education and related services. N.J.A.C. 6A:14-9.2. The final decision reached by OSEP under the procedures set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:14-9.2 cannot be appealed to the Commissioner. Bd. of Educ. of the Lenape Reg'l High Sch. Dist. v. New Jersey Dep't of Educ., Office of Special Educ. Programs, 399 N.J. Super. 595, 606 (App. Div. 2008). The finality of the decisions respectively reached by OSEP and the OAL "is consistent with IDEA, which requires expeditious decisions on complaints [and] is also consistent with the State's adoption of legislation implementing IDEA ... and with the State Board's statutory authority to adopt regulations necessary to implement the school laws." Id. at 604.

Because the OAL is not a court, but an administrative agency designated to hear disputes transmitted from other agencies, it derives its jurisdiction from the transmitting agency. "The judge may render any ruling or order necessary to decide any matter presented to him or her which is within the jurisdiction of the transmitting agency conducting the hearing." N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.6(h). Since this tribunal derives its jurisdiction from the transmitting agency, the lack of jurisdiction for the Commissioner to decide the issue of a manifestation determination precludes this tribunal from exercising such jurisdiction in a case transmitted by the Commissioner and not OSEP. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that, even if the Petition were amended to include a claim regarding the timeliness of the manifestation determination, this issue, as a matter of compliance with the IDEA, would not be properly before me and I would not have jurisdiction to decide such an issue in this case. For the same reasons, I further CONCLUDE that I do not have jurisdiction to grant the relief of compensatory education because this is a judicially created equitable remedy intended to "'compensate [the student] for rights the district already denied ... because the School District violated [the IDEA]....'" Ferren C. v. Sch. Dist. of Philadelphia, 612 F.3d 712, 717 (3d Cir. 2010) (citations omitted). As discussed, since this tribunal does not have jurisdiction to decide if respondent violated the IDEA or New Jersey special education laws because the Petition was not filed with OSEP, this tribunal does not have jurisdiction to decide if L.K. is entitled to any compensatory education as a result of any violation of the IDEA or New Jersey special education laws.

DECISION AND ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that petitioners' motion for summary decision is GRANTED, in part, and DENIED, in part. Accordingly, respondent is ORDERED to expunge any reference to a long-term suspension and verify that L.K.'s student record reflects that a suspension of only five (5) days was imposed for the period of December 20, 2011, through January 4, 2012. Additionally, petitioners' Petition of Appeal is DISMISSED to the extent that it seeks compensatory education or alleges any violation of special education laws because, while the Commissioner has broad jurisdiction to hear and decide cases arising under the school laws, such jurisdiction does not extend to special education matters such as those raised in this case.

I further ORDER that respondent's cross-motion for summary decision is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Petitioner appealed the non-renewal of his employment as a teacher of mathematics in respondent's school district, contending that he was employed under tenure and therefore could not be summarily terminated through non-renewal. Petitioner was initially employed by the district in September 2001 under a Provisional Certificate. His employment continued in August 2002 with the issuance of a Standard Certificate for Teacher of Mathematics, subtitled "Non-Citizen" at the bottom of the certificate, which expired in August 2007. Petitioner's standard certificate was renewed in September 2007. In May 2008, petitioner became a naturalized American citizen, and continued teaching in Newark schools. In May 2011, the Board informed the petitioner that his contract would not be renewed "based on performance." The Board asserted that petitioner had never achieved tenure in the district.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioner achieved tenure when he became a naturalized citizen, since a Standard Certificate for Non-Citizens – when held by a citizen – is an appropriate certificate; the time the respondent employed the petitioner while a non-citizen may be tacked on to time the respondent employed the petitioner after he became a citizen; since respondent employed the petitioner continually from September 2001 through May 2011, petitioner was employed considerably longer than is required for the conferring of tenure under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b); petitioner therefore acquired tenure before respondent notified him of the non-renewal. The ALJ concluded that petitioner was tenured in respondent's district when he was improperly non-renewed in May of 2011.

Upon independent review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter, with further explanation. The Commissioner found, inter alia, that the petitioner, as a citizen, served the statutorily-required period of time for tenure in respondent's district, even without tacking on his pre-citizenship service. Accordingly, the Commissioner granted the petition and ordered the Board to restore petitioner's employment, together with back pay, benefits and emoluments to which he would have been entitled had he not been terminated in May of 2011.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

Petitioner in the instant controversy requests reversal of the non-renewal of his employment, on the grounds that he had earned tenure prior to respondent's non-renewal decision. After consideration of the record, Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law, respondent's exceptions and petitioner's replies to same, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision with the following further explanation.

There is no disagreement between the parties as to the underlying facts of this matter. Respondent hired petitioner in September 2001, at which time petitioner received a provisional teaching certificate. While petitioner was not at that time a United States citizen, he had submitted to the Department of Education (the Department) an affidavit of intent to become a citizen. In August 2002, after a year of teaching mathematics in respondent's district, petitioner received a "Standard Certificate" for "Teacher of Mathematics," subtitled "Non-Citizen Certificate." (Joint Exhibit 5) That Certificate expired in August 2007, but was renewed. (See Joint Exhibit 7) Both certificates included the following provision:

> Has met all of the requirements established by the State Board of Education and is authorized to serve in the public schools of New Jersey

Examination of petitioner's performance observation reports and evaluations from the end of his fourth year of teaching forward reveals that each report and evaluation designated petitioner as tenured.[1] On May 5, 2008 petitioner became a United States citizen. However, three years and five days after petitioner attained citizenship, i.e., on May 10, 2011, respondent's interim State District Superintendent wrote to petitioner stating that his employment contract would not be renewed for the 2011-2012 school year due to performance issues. (Joint Exhibit 9)

No reference was made in the May 10, 2011 letter to petitioner's citizenship status, but respondent now appears to contend that because – upon attaining citizenship on May 5, 2008 – petitioner had not immediately applied to replace his Non-Citizen Standard Certificate with a Standard Certificate for Citizens, he was somehow ineligible for tenure privileges.[2] In the Initial Decision, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) disagreed. Reminding the parties that tenure is bestowed by statute, see, e.g., Spiewak v. Bd. of Educ. of Rutherford, 90 N.J. 63, 72 (1982), and that the Tenure Act should be liberally construed to achieve its beneficent ends, the ALJ found that the statutory requirements for tenure had been satisfied by petitioner.

Crucial to an understanding of this controversy is the text of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a), which is applicable to petitioner because his employment began before 2012. It provides as follows:

> The services of all teaching staff members employed prior to the effective date of *P.L.*2012, *c.*26 (*C.*18A:6-117 et al.) in the positions of teacher . . . and such other employees as are in positions which require them to hold appropriate certificates issued by the board of examiners, serving in any school district or under any board of education, excepting those who are not the holders of proper certificates in full force and effect . . . , shall be under > tenure during good behavior and efficiency and they shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming such a teaching staff member or other just cause and then only in the manner prescribed by subarticle B of article 2 of chapter 6 of this Title, after employment in such district or by such board for:

[1] See, Joint Exhibit 7, wherein reports and evaluations dated June 16, 2005, January 12, 2006, June 20, 2006, December 19, 2006, June 15, 2007, June 25, 2008, June 25, 2009, October 15, 2009, April 15, 2010, June 22, 2010, November 16, 2010, January 14, 2011, February 24, 2011, April 15, 2011 and June 7, 2011, list petitioner as a tenured employee.

[2] Petitioner applied for a 'regular' Standard Certificate on August 2011, well before his non-citizen standard certificate was to expire, but after receipt of the non-renewal letter.

>
> (1) Three consecutive calendar years, or any shorter period which may be fixed by the employing board for such purpose; or
>
> (2) Three consecutive academic years, together with employment at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year; or
>
> (3) The equivalent of more than three academic years within a period of any four consecutive academic years.
> [Emphasis added.]

The ALJ found that petitioner held an "appropriate certificate issued by the board of examiners" throughout his employment. (Initial Decision at 4) More specifically, the ALJ referred to the undisputed facts that petitioner had held a provisional certificate during his first year of service with petitioner and a Standard Certificate (for Non-Citizens) for his next nine years of service. Respondent argues that petitioner's Standard Certificate for Non-Citizens was not an "appropriate" certificate. In so doing, it ignores the express language of petitioner's certificate and also misconstrues statutory requirements.

As mentioned above, and as explained by the ALJ, petitioner's Standard Certificate expressly stated that he had met all of the requirements established by the State Board of Education and was authorized to serve in the public schools of New Jersey. There is nothing in statute or regulation that deems such a clear credential to be less than the "appropriate certificate" called for in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a). Further, as pointed out by the ALJ, it cannot be disputed that, as of the date of petitioner's citizenship, his eligibility for a regular Standard Certificate was not in doubt. (Initial Decision at 10) Thus, the Commissioner turns to consideration of 1) petitioner's achievement of citizenship and 2) petitioner's length of service in his position.

As to citizenship, petitioner achieved that on May 5, 2008. The precise wording of the statute (and regulation) which addresses the citizen requirement for tenure is "no teaching staff member shall acquire tenure unless he or she is, or until he or she shall become, a citizen of the United States." N.J.S.A. 18A:28-3; N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5). It is notable that the statute and regulation simply mandate citizenship. They do not require – as a precondition to tenure – the replacement of a Standard Certificate for Non-Citizens with a regular Standard Certificate.[3] As petitioner became a citizen over three years before respondent's notice of nonrenewal, citizenship posed no bar to petitioner's tenure.[4]

The remaining consideration regarding petitioner's claim to tenure is his length of service. Petitioner worked in respondent's district under a Standard Certificate (for Non-Citizens) for nine years. Further, petitioner worked in respondent's district as a citizen for the equivalent of more than three academic years within a period of four consecutive academic years (i.e. three academic years plus five days within the academic years of 2007-2008, 2008-2009, 2009-2010 and 2010-2011). Thus, petitioner had met the tenure requirement for length of service – set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a)(3) – before the issuance of the non-renewal letter.

[3] Nonetheless, petitioner did apply for a standard certificate well before the expiration of his valid and "proper" Standard Certificate for Non-Citizens.

[4] The Commissioner is not persuaded by respondent's assertion that a ruling in favor of petitioner would create chaos. If a district wishes to ascertain whether an employee has become a citizen, it can simply ask for a copy of the employee's naturalization certificate.

Finally, the Commissioner approves of the ALJ's analogizing of petitioner's situation to those of the petitioners in Ruiz v. Bd. of Educ. of Fort Lee, Commissioner Decision No. 322-11, decided August 17, 2011, aff'd Appellate Division (July 8, 2013) and Anson v. Bd. of Educ. of Bridgeton, 1972 S.L.D. 638. In those cases the Commissioner held that, notwithstanding the fact that the petitioners only held provisional certificates, if they had actually satisfied the conditions imposed by the provisional certification, their service could count toward tenure.[5] The ALJ in this case reasoned that, similarly, notwithstanding the fact that the instant petitioner held a Standard Certificate for Non-Citizens, his actual satisfaction of the citizen requirement for tenure entitled him to tenure credit for his post-May 5, 2008 service.

Accordingly, the petition is granted, petitioner's employment in respondent's district shall be restored, and respondent shall provide petitioner with the back pay, benefits and emoluments to which he would have been entitled had he not been terminated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[6]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/24/14

Date of Mailing: 3/25/14

[5] The respondent in the instant case misapplies the holding of the Appellate Division in Ruiz. The fact that petitioner Ruiz was ultimately denied tenure as a result of a determination that he had failed to satisfy the requirements of provisional certification does not negate the Commissioner's and Appellate Division's conclusions that individuals who have, in fact, satisfied the conditions of provisional certification may count their service toward tenure, regardless of whether they have received their Standard Certificates in a timely manner. Indeed, respondent's legal analysis throughout its exceptions fails to acknowledge the distinctions in the cited cases between earning standard certification and acquiring the document which evidences same.

[6] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

AGENCY DKT. NO. 226-08/11

JOEL BLEAH,

Petitioner,

v.

CITY OF NEWARK, STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT, CITY OF NEWARK

Respondent.

Eugene Liss, Esq. for petitioner

Bernard Mercado, Esq., for respondent (Newark Public Schools)

Record Closed: November 1, 2013 Decided: November 6, 2013

BEFORE JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ:

FACTS

The State Board of Examiners (the Board) issued the petitioner, a non-citizen at the time, a "Certificate of Eligibility as a Teacher of Mathematics in June 2001." (Joint Stipulation of Facts ¶ 1-2.) As a non-citizen, the petitioner submitted an "Affidavit of Intent to Become a Citizen." (Joint Stipulation ¶ 2.) After the respondent hired the petitioner in September, 2001, the Board issued the petitioner a Provisional Certificate. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 3-4.) The following August, the Board issued the petitioner a "Standard Non-Citizen Certificate for Teacher of Mathematics which was scheduled to expire in August 2007." (Joint Stipulation ¶ 5.) The Board renewed the Standard Non-Citizen Certificate in September, 2007. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 7.)

The petitioner's first Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, issued in 2002, explained, > [n]on-citizen Certificates are valid for five years. When United States citizenship is obtained the holder must apply for a standard certificate prior to the expiration date of the non-citizen certificate. If citizenship is not obtained, the holder must apply for renewal of the five year certificate prior to the expiration date of the non-citizen certificate. If this certificate expires prior to issuance of standard certification or renewal, the applicant is subject to the certification requirements in effect. Certification requirements are subject to change.

> [Joint Stipulation Ex. 5.]

The petitioner's second Standard Non-Citizen Certificate does not include similar language. (Joint Stipulation Ex. 7.) The face of both Standard Non-Citizen Certificates declare, "[the petitioner] has met all of the requirements established by the State Board of Education and is authorized to serve in the public schools of New Jersey . . . " (Joint Stipulation Ex. 5, 7.)

The petitioner became a citizen in May, 2008. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 8.) In May, 2011, the respondent informed the petitioner that his contract would not be renewed, "based on performance." (Joint Stipulation ¶ 9.) From 2005 until 2011, the petitioner's evaluations and observation reports noted that the petitioner was tenured. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 6.) Finally, in August, 2011, the petitioner applied for a Standard Certificate. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 11.) The Board issued the petitioner a Standard Certificate in October, 2011. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 12.), several months after the non-renewal of his contact in May 2011.

DISCUSSION

I. The petitioner achieved tenure when he became a naturalized citizen, because a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, held by a citizen, is an appropriate certificate, and time the respondent employed the petitioner while a non-citizen may be tacked on to time the respondent employed the petitioner while a citizen.

Tenure is conferred by statute, not contract. Spiewak v. Bd. of Educ. of Rutherford, 90 N.J. 63, 72 (1982). To acquire tenure, "a teacher must comply with the precise conditions articulated in the statute." Zimmerman v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 38 N.J. 65, 72 (1962). However, "because of its remedial purpose, the Tenure Act should be liberally construed to achieve its beneficent ends." Spiewak, supra, 90 N.J. at 74. Nevertheless, "as the agency ultimately charged with implementation of the school laws, the [State] Board[] [of Education's] statutory interpretation is entitled to considerable weight, where not inconsistent with the statute and in harmony with the statutory purpose." Kletzkin v. Bd. of Educ. of Spotswood, 136 N.J. 275, 278 (1994) (quoting Kletzkin v. Bd. of Educ. of Spotswood, 261 N.J. Super. 549, 553 (App. Div. 1993)).

Pursuant to statute, teachers acquire tenure when employed, "in positions which require them to hold appropriate certificates . . . after employment in such district or by such board for . . . [t]hree consecutive academic years, together with employment at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year . . . " N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b) (emphasis added). The Board "issues three categories of educational certificate: the Instructional Certificate, the Administrative Certificate, and the Educational Services Certificate. Breitwieser v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of Jersey City, 286 N.J. Super. 633, 638 (App. Div. 1996). Furthermore, the Board issues "three types of certificate." Ibid. First, the Board can issue a "standard certificate, a permanent certificate issued to persons who have met all requirements for State certification." Ibid.[1] See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.1.

[1] This Chapter was recodified since Breitwieser, without any significant change to the relevant provisions. See 35 N.J.R.

Second, the Board can issue a "provisional certificate, which is a temporary one-year certificate issued to those who have met the requirements for initial employment as part of a state-approved district training program or residency leading to standard certification." Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 638. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.2. Finally, the Board can issue an "emergency certificate, which is issued only in the field of educational services, teacher of the handicapped, teacher of the blind and partially-sighted, and teacher of the deaf and hard-of-hearing," and "only on the application of a public-school district when the district is unable to locate a suitable standard-certified teacher due to unforeseen shortages or other extenuating circumstances." Ibid. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.2. Notably, though both parties refer to the petitioner's certificate as a "Standard Non-Citizen Certificate," no such designation appears in the relevant section of the New Jersey Administrative Code (Code). (Joint Stipulation ¶ 5.) See N.J.A.C. 6A:9.1-6. However, the term "Non-Citizen Standard" is included in the list of teacher certificates on the Department of Education's website, and is defined as, "[a] five-year certificate issued to an individual who has met all requirements for state certification, but is not a US citizen. This certificate can be renewed by showing progress toward US citizenship. Copies of official documentation from the INS would be required for an additional renewal." New Jersey Licensure & Credentials – Teachers, http://www.state.nj.us/education/educators/license/teacher/ (last visited June 18, 2012).

Here, the Board issued the petitioner a Provisional Certificate in 2001, after he was hired by the respondent. (Joint Stipulation of Facts ¶ 3-4.) Subsequently, the Board issued the petitioner a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate in 2002, which expired in 2007. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 5.) In 2007, the Board renewed the petitioner's Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, which expired in 2012. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 7.) Therefore, the petitioner held a Board issued Certificate throughout his employment with the respondent. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 3-5, 7).

4352(a) (October 6, 2003); 36 N.J.R. 469(a) (January 20, 2004); Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 633.

Except as provided by statute, teachers must be citizens. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-1. Nevertheless, a non-citizen may obtain a teacher's certificate if he "has declared his intention of becoming a United States citizen and [] is otherwise qualified . . . " N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.1; N.J.S.A. 18A:6-39. However the Board may revoke a non-citizen's certificate if "the holder thereof has abandoned his efforts to become a United States citizen, or has become disqualified for citizenship, or shall not have become a United States citizen, within five years of the date of its issuance." Ibid. The Code, in turn, provides, "[i]f the holder of the noncitizen certificate has not become a United States citizen within the initial five-year certification period, the certificate may be renewed for an additional five-year period upon demonstration that an application for citizenship is in process but has not yet been granted." N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1). Furthermore, "[w]hen the certificate expires after the second five-year period, the certificate may be renewed for a third and final time upon demonstration that an application for citizenship continues to be in process and has been actively pursued by the applicant but has not yet been granted." Ibid. However, "[t]he Board can revoke any such certificate . . . if the Board is satisfied that the holder thereof has abandoned his or her efforts to become a United States citizen or has become disqualified for citizenship." Ibid. (citation omitted). Crucially, the same provision provides, "no teaching staff member shall acquire tenure unless he or she is, or until he or she shall become, a citizen of the United States. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5) (citing N.J.S.A. 18A:28-3.) Notably, the Code provision allowing certification of noncitizens was recently amended twice. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5). First, in 2006, the Code was amended to allow one renewal of the Non-Citizen Standard Certificate after the initial five-year period. See 37 N.J.R. 4612(a) (December 19, 2005); 38 N.J.R. 2126(a) (May 15, 2006). Then, in 2009, the Code was amended again to allow second renewal, "if a citizenship application continues to be in progress and has been actively pursued by the applicant." See 40 N.J.R. 4856(a) (September 2, 2008); 41 N.J.R. 128(a) (January 5, 2009).

Furthermore, the statutory provisions permitting certification of non-citizens appear twice in Title18A, in Chapter 26, Certification and Qualifications, and Chapter 6, Educational System and Institutions. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.1; N.J.S.A. 18A:6-39. While each provision largely mirrors the other, the provisions include one critical difference. Op. N.J. Att'y. Gen. No. 18 (Oct. 6, 1980).[2] If the teacher abandons efforts to achieve citizenship, the Board "may" revoke the certification pursuant to Chapter 26, but "shall" cancel the certification pursuant to Chapter 6. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.1; N.J.S.A. 18A:6-39. The Attorney General reviewed the legislative history to resolve this inconsistency. Op. N.J. Att'y. Gen. No. 18 (Oct. 6, 1980). While the provisions were both adopted in a recodification of Title 18 in 1967, Chapter 6 is "is substantially the same as an earlier statutory section," Chapter 26, "appears for the first time in the recodification . . . " Ibid. The Attorney General resorted to "the rule of statutory construction that the legislature should not be deemed to have enacted repetitious or surplus legislation," and concluded the legislature, "intended its latest and newest expression of legislative policy on the subject to govern." Ibid. Therefore, "[a] certificate may be revoked in the discretion of the Board of Examiners on a case by case basis if the holder shall not have become a citizen of the United States within five years." Ibid. However, "notwithstanding a decision by the Board of Examiners not to revoke the certificate of a noncitizen in an individual case, no person shall be deemed to have acquired tenure in the public schools unless he shall become a United States citizen." Ibid.

Here, the petitioner did not become a naturalized citizen until May, 2008. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 8.) However, the petitioner submitted an "Affidavit of Intent to Become a Citizen" to the Board in July, 2001. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.1; (Joint Stipulation ¶ 2.) Subsequently, the respondent hired the petitioner, and the Board properly issued a Provisional, and then Standard Non-Citizen Certificate to the petitioner. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1); (Joint Stipulation ¶ 4-5.) Furthermore, the Board properly renewed the petitioner's Standard Non-Citizen Certificate in 2007, for another five year term. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1); (Joint Stipulation ¶ 7.) Finally, the Board did not exercise its discretion to revoke the petitioner's Standard Non-Citizen Certificate. (See Joint Stipulation ¶ 10.) Critically, the petitioner became a naturalized citizen in May 2008. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 8.) Nevertheless, the petitioner failed to submit an application for a [2] Available at http://www.nj.gov/oag/ag-opinions.htm.

Standard Certificate until August, 2011. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 11.) In May, 2011, the respondent notified the petitioner his contract would not be renewed. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 9.) Therefore, the petitioner held a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, but had been a citizen for three academic years, when his contract was not renewed. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 7-9.) While the petitioner was employed for "[t]hree consecutive academic years" as a citizen, he was not employed "at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year . . . " Ibid.; N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b). Therefore, two distinct issues must be resolved in order to determine whether the petitioner acquired tenure. First, is whether the petitioner held an "appropriate certificate," for purposes of the tenure statute, when his contract was not renewed. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b). The second issue is whether time the petitioner was employed by the respondent, while a non-citizen, can be "tacked on" to the time the petitioner was employed as a citizen. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b).

A. The petitioner held an appropriate certificate for purposes of the tenure statute, because a citizen holder of a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate has fulfilled all of the requirements necessary to receive a Standard Certificate.

No provision of Title 18A, section of the Code, or case law discusses the process of acquiring tenure after a non-citizen becomes a naturalized citizen. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5); Op. N.J. Att'y. Gen. No. 18 (Oct. 6, 1980). Instead, the relevant provisions merely state, "no teaching staff member shall acquire tenure unless he or she is, or until he or she shall become, a citizen of the United States." N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5) (citing N.J.S.A. 18A:28-3.). Consequently, both the petitioner and respondent analogize to Breitwieser, a case analyzing Emergency Certification and tenure. Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 639. (See Pet'r's Br. 11; Resp't's Br. 6-7.) Specifically, the respondent incorrectly suggests that a teacher can only acquire tenure after securing Standard Certification. However, as the Breitwieser court noted, "the 'proper certificate' which N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 requires a teacher to hold when claiming tenure must be either a standard certificate or a provisional certificate." Ibid.

The Breitwieser court considered "whether a teaching staff member can acquire tenure for service under a permanent certificate combined with a prior period of service under an emergency certificate in a different field." Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 639.

First, the Breitwieser court noted, "[n]o matter how long a teacher serves under an emergency certificate, tenure is unavailable." Id. at 640. The court explained that teachers with emergency certificates are ineligible for tenure because, > holders of emergency certificates 'have not fully satisfied the educational prerequisites for standard certification, nor are they entitled to automatic renewal of the privilege to teach accorded them by the emergency certification process. Because of the uncertainty surrounding continued eligibility to teach, the protection of tenure laws was not intended to extend to holders of substandard certificates and has not been so extended.'

Critically, the Breitwieser court noted a "teacher must either obtain or become eligible for a standard certificate in the appropriate field before the termination of employment." Id. at 643, n.2 (citing John J. Smith v. Bd. of Educ. of Atlantic County Vocational-Technical Sch., 1985 S.L.D. 704, 710, 717, adopted, Comm'r 1985 S.L.D. 720 (petitioner was eligible and filed an application for a Standard Certificate prior to notice of non-renewal, and therefore achieved tenure.)) See Veronica Smith v. Bd. of Educ. of Sayreville,1974 S.L.D. 1095, 1099, aff'd, St. Bd. 1975 S.L.D. 1160, aff'd, App. Div. 1976 S.L.D. 1170 (petitioner achieved tenure because she applied for Standard Certification prior to non-renewal, and was issued a Standard Certificate prior to the expiration of her contract).

Here, the Standard Non-Citizen Certificate is similar to the Emergency Certificate, because holders of Standard Non-Citizen Certificates are not "entitled to automatic renewal of the privilege to teach accorded them by the [Standard Non-Citizen Certification] process. Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 640 (quoting Kubas v. Bd. of Educ. of Linden, 1980 S.L.D. 172); N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1). As in Breitwieser,

"[b]ecause of the uncertainty surrounding continued eligibility to teach, the protection of tenure laws was not intended to extend to holders of substandard certificates and [should not be] so extended." Ibid. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5). Therefore, a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, held by a non-citizen, should not generally qualify as an "appropriate certificate[]" for purposes of the tenure statute. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b). Indeed the petitioner's first Standard Non-Citizen Certificate specifically states,

> [n]on-citizen Certificates are valid for five years. When United States citizenship is obtained the holder must apply for a standard certificate prior to the expiration date of the non-citizen certificate. If citizenship is not obtained, the holder must apply for renewal of the five year certificate prior to the expiration date of the non-citizen certificate. If this certificate expires prior to issuance of standard certification or renewal, the applicant is subject to the certification requirements in effect. Certification requirements are subject to change.
> [Joint Stipulation Ex. 5.]

However, the petitioner in the instant case was certainly eligible for a Standard Certificate any time after May 2008, when he became a naturalized citizen. See Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 643; John J. Smith, supra, 1985 S.L.D. at 710, 717; Veronica Smith, supra, 1974 S.L.D. at 1099; (Joint Stipulation ¶ 8.) Furthermore, the instant case is distinct from the Emergency Certificate eligibility cases in two ways. See John J. Smith, supra, 1985 S.L.D. at 710, 717; Veronica Smith, supra, 1974 S.L.D. at 1099. First, the petitioner, herein, did not submit an application for a Standard Certificate until after he was notified that his contract was not renewed. See Smith, supra, 1985 S.L.D. at 710, 717; Smith, supra, 1974 S.L.D. at 1099. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 9, 11.) Second, not only was the petitioner not entitled to an automatic renewal of his Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, he was not entitled to a renewal at all. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1). Since he was a citizen by 2008, before his Standard Non-Citizen Certificate expired in 2012, he would not be able to demonstrate that, "an application for citizenship continues to be in process and has been actively pursued by the applicant but has not yet been granted." Ibid. On the other hand, the Board probably did not have the power to revoke his Standard Non-Citizen Certificate after the petitioner became a citizen, because the Board could not logically determine, "the holder thereof has abandoned his or her efforts to become a United States citizen or has become disqualified for citizenship." Ibid. Therefore, petitioner's eligibility to teach was certain through September 2012, when his Standard Non-Citizen Certificate expired. (See Joint Stipulation ¶ 7.) Unlike the Emergency Certificate cases, while the petitioner did not apply for his Standard Certificate prior to receiving notice that his contract would not be renewed in May 2011, his eligibility to teach during the 2011-2012 school year was not in doubt. See Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 643; (Joint Stipulation ¶ 7.) Furthermore, both of the petitioners' Standard Non-Citizen Certificates state, "[the petitioner] has met all of the requirements established by the State Board of Education and is authorized to serve in the public schools of New Jersey . . . " (Joint Stipulation Ex. 5, 7.) While the petitioner did not apply for a Standard Certificate until August 2011, his eligibility for a Standard Certificate was not in doubt. (See Joint Stipulation ¶ 11-12.) Indeed, after the petitioner became a citizen, he was not required to apply for a Standard Certificate immediately, but was permitted to apply any time "prior to the expiration date of the non-citizen certificate." Therefore, pursuant to the reasoning of the Emergency Certificate case, a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate held by a naturalized citizen is an appropriate certificate, for purposes of the tenure statute. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b).

Furthermore, the cases that analyze eligibility for tenure under a Provisional Certificate are instructive. Most recently, in Ruiz, an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded "the provisional certificate as it is issued today is a substandard certificate that allows its holder to pursue the required mentoring and experience needed to qualify for standard certification. Only standard certification is the 'proper certification in full force and effect' contemplated by the tenure law." Ruiz v. Bd. of Educ. of Fort Lee, EDU 08187-10, Initial Decision, (May 19, 2011) <http://lawlibrary.rutgers.edu/new-jersey-administrative-decisions-0>. However, the Commissioner declined to adopt this view, and cited a case in which a teacher with only a provisional certificate, who had satisfied all the requirements for standard certification, acquired tenure. Ruiz v. Bd. of Educ. of Fort Lee, EDU 08187-10, Final Decision, (August 17, 2011) <http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/commissioner/index.html> (citing Anson v. Bd. of Educ. of Bridgeton, 1972 S.L.D. 638, 639). Specifically, the Commissioner held in Anson, "[t]he holder of a provisional teaching certificate accepts a conditional requirement of earning four academic credits per year, and the validity of a provisional certificate cannot be questioned as it relates to tenure, so long as this requirement is met." Anson, supra, 1972 S.L.D. at 638. While the Ruiz respondent argued the Anson holding was superseded by significant changes in licensure requirements, the Commissioner noted, "[i]nsofar as respondent has not identified specific changes that might be germane to the present controversy, the Commissioner declines to regard Anson's holding as obsolete or in any way superceded [sic]." Ruiz v. Bd. of Educ. of Fort Lee, EDU 08187-10, Final Decision, (August 17, 2011) <http://lawlibrary.rutgers.edu/new-jersey-administrative-decisions-0>. Furthermore, the Commissioner analogized to the reasoning of the Emergency Certificate cases, and concluded such cases are "consonant with the holding in Anson that [the petitioner's] tenure was conditioned not just upon his years of service under provisional certification, but also upon his timely completion of the academic and professional requirements for standard certification." Ibid. The Commissioner ultimately remanded the case for fact finding, because the petitioner could not establish he completed the requirements for a Standard Certificate, and "under such circumstances there is no way to be sure that such a candidate will ultimately receive standard certification in the field." Ibid. (citing Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 645).

Likewise, a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate includes a conditional requirement to obtain citizenship. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.19(a). Specifically, a holder of a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate must declare his intention to become a citizen, and pursue citizenship. Ibid. Conversely, the Board should only revoke a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, "if the board is satisfied that the holder thereof has abandoned his efforts to become a United States citizen, or has become disqualified for citizenship, or shall not have become a United States citizen, within five years of the date of its issuance." Ibid.

Indeed, the statute only permits issuance of a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate to non-citizens "who [are] otherwise qualified." N.J.S.A. 18A:26-8.19(a). A Standard Non-Citizen Certificate includes no other conditional requirements, such as additional education requirements. See Anson, supra, 1972 S.L.D. at 638.

Here, the petitioner submitted an "Affidavit of Intent to Become a Citizen" in 2001. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 2.) Furthermore, the petitioner attained citizenship on May 5, 2008. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 8.) The petitioner's Standard Non-Citizen Certificate states the petitioner, "[h]as met all of the requirements established by the State Board of Education . . . " Finally, after attaining citizenship, the petitioner was merely required to, "apply for a standard certificate prior to the expiration date of the non-citizen certificate." (Joint Stipulation Ex. 5.) Petitioner was not required to apply for a Standard Certificate immediately after attaining citizenship, and in fact applied for a Standard Certificate over a year before his Standard Non-Citizen Certificate was set to expire. (Joint Stipulation ¶ 7, 11.) Therefore, like a Provisional Certificate, "the validity of a [Standard Non-Citizen Certificate] cannot be questioned as it relates to tenure, so long as [the citizenship] requirement is met." Anson, supra, 1972 S.L.D. at 638.

B. Time the respondent employed the petitioner, when he held a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate as a non-citizen, may be tacked on to the time the respondent employed the petitioner, as a citizen, because petitioner's service as a non-citizen is analogous to service pursuant to an Emergency Certificate.

The Breitwieser court analyzed the narrow issue of "whether prior service under an emergency certificate may be counted towards the service-period needed for tenure." Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 640. The court began by analyzing "at least six reported instances, referred to as the K'Burg line of cases, [in which] a teacher has been allowed to tack emergency service to service under a standard certificate." Id. at 641 (citing John J. Smith, supra,1985 S.L.D. 704; Amato v. Hudson County Area Vocational-Technical Schs. Bd. of Educ., 1984 S.L.D. 1721; Salerno v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 1980 S.L.D. 439; Veronica Smith, supra, 1974 S.L.D. 1095; Givens v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 1974 S.L.D. 906, 907; K'Burg v. Bd. of Educ. of Lower Alloways Creek, 1973 S.L.D. 636). The court concluded, "service under an emergency certificate may be counted towards the service needed for tenure only when that service is followed by the teacher ultimately obtaining a permanent certificate in the same field as the emergency certificate." Id. at 644. The court noted, "[w]e perhaps could hold that emergency service can never be service under "a proper certificate" for purposes of tenure, and such a holding would eviscerate [the Emergency Certificate tacking] cases. But such a harsh rule does not comport with the need to construe our teacher-tenure law sensibly and practically." Id. at 646

Here, the relevant provisions do not outline the process for calculating tenure after citizenship is acquired, but merely state, "no teaching staff member shall acquire tenure unless he or she is, or until he or she shall become, a citizen of the United States." N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(5); N.J.S.A. 18A:28-3. However, the petitioner obtained a permanent certificate "in the same field as the [Standard Non-Citizen Certificate]." See Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 644. (See Joint Stipulation ¶ 5, 12.) Moreover, by May 2008, the petitioner had attained citizenship, and the Board could no longer revoke his Standard Non-Citizen Certificate pursuant to the criteria outlined in the Code. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1); (Joint Stipulation ¶ 8.) However, the respondent only employed the petitioner for three academic years after the petitioner became a citizen, one day short of the period required for tenure. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b). Furthermore, prior to attaining citizenship in 2008, the petitioner's certification was revocable if the petitioner, "abandoned his or her efforts to become a United States citizen or has become disqualified for citizenship." N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.7(a)(1). Therefore, the petitioner's employment with the respondent before May 2008, is analogous to the Emergency Certificate Cases. See Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 641. As in Breitwieser, a non-citizen's "service under a[] [Standard Non-Citizen Certificate] may be counted towards the service needed for tenure only when that service is followed by the teacher ultimately obtaining a permanent certificate . . . " Id. at 641. Since the Board could not revoke the petitioner's Standard Non-Citizen Certificate after the petitioner became a citizen in May, 2008, for purposes of the tenure statute, the Standard Non-Citizen Certificate was a "permanent certificate[]." Ibid. See Part 1.A., supra. Consequently, the years the respondent employed the petitioner as a non-citizen with a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate may be tacked on to the years the respondent employed the petitioner as a citizen. See Breitwieser, supra, 286 N.J. Super. at 641. Since the respondent employed the petitioner from September 2001 through May 2011, the respondent has employed the petitioner considerably longer than required by the tenure statute. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b). Therefore, the petitioner acquired tenure before the respondent notified the petitioner of the non-renewal.

CONCLUSION

The petitioner acquired tenure, because the petitioner held a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate, and became a naturalized citizen, when the respondent decided not to renew the petitioner's contract. Moreover, while the respondent only employed the petitioner for three academic years after the petitioner became a citizen, one day shy of the period required by the tenure statute, the petitioner's previous employment as a non-citizen with a Standard Non-Citizen Certificate may be tacked on to calculate the time the respondent employed the petitioner for purposes of the tenure statute.

SYNOPSIS

The petitioner, Pinelands Learning Center (PLC) is a private, for-profit institution providing services to students with disabilities. PLC receives tuition from sending public school districts commensurate with its actual cost per pupil, as determined by a certified audit. Pursuant to governing regulations, certain specified items may not be included in the computation of the annual tuition rate for sending districts. The controversy herein involves the respondent Department's disallowance of $36,498 from PLC's audit for the 2006-2007 school year, reflecting compensation paid to Redonna Bowles (Bowles), a teacher of the handicapped who taught at PLC from September 1, 2006 to April 30, 2007 without a valid New Jersey teaching certificate. Petitioner contended that PLC substantially complied with the certification process, and that the delay in obtaining the required teaching certificate was due to errors on the part of the NJDOE, Office of Licensure and Credentials. Respondent asserted that PLC violated the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5 by knowingly employing an uncertified teacher, and failing to take the necessary steps to ensure that Bowles held a certificate prior to the start of the 2006-2007 school year.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the Department, pursuant to the doctrine of substantial compliance, should not have disallowed Bowles's compensation, as the purpose and intent of the underlying regulations was fulfilled as of September 2005, when her application for certification was perfected; the delay in issuance of the certificate was due to admitted missteps by the NJDOE; PLC is entitled to remedy under the excusable neglect doctrine; equity mandates that PLC be compensated for services it rendered; and the NJDOE conceded that Bowles was eligible to receive her certificate in September 2005, making possession of the certificate by the PLC "largely insignificant and an impermissible obstacle to the PLC receiving payment for services rendered". The ALJ concluded that PLC meets the requirements for relief under the substantial compliance doctrine, and ordered the determination of the NJDOE disallowing Bowles' salary for the period in question reversed.

Upon review, the Commissioner rejected the OAL's Initial Decision, finding, inter alia, that PLC did not comply with the mandate of N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.4(a)(22) to ensure that Ms. Bowles was properly certified at the start of the 2006-2007 school year; further, the ALJ improperly relied on Archway Programs, Inc. v. Department of Education, et al., – a case with readily distinguishable circumstances – to determine that the doctrine of substantial compliance applied in this case. The Department's disallowance of $36,498 from PLC's 2006-2007 audit was affirmed.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the Department of Education, Division of Administration and Finance (Department), and the Pineland Learning Center, Inc.'s (petitioner) reply thereto.[1] In this matter, petitioner, an approved private school for students with disabilities (private school), challenges the Department's determination that the salary and fringe benefits of Redonna Bowles (Bowles) between September 1, 2006 and April 30, 2007 cannot be included in the school's calculation of the tuition rate for the 2006-2007 school year. The Department did not allow Bowles' salary and fringe benefits because it found that she did not possess the requisite certificate for her teaching position until May 2007. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the Department's decision was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. The ALJ applied the doctrine of substantial [1] After the time for filing exceptions expired, the petitioner submitted a "supplemental reply to exceptions" which offered additional proposed evidence, and the Department also filed a response thereto. The regulatory provisions do not permit the filing of a reply to exceptions beyond 5 days after the original exceptions are filed. Further, N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(c) specifically prohibits the presentation of evidence in exceptions that was not presented at the OAL. Therefore, the supplemental submissions submitted by both parties were not considered by the Commissioner.

compliance to the facts in this case and determined that Bowles' salary and fringe benefits for the entire 2006-2007 school year should be included in the calculation because: Bowles' certificate application was "perfected" in September 2005; the Department of Education, Office of Licensure and Credentials caused delays during the application process; and the purpose of the underlying regulations were fulfilled.

In its exceptions, the Department stresses that a finding by the Department that certain costs are non-allowable in the calculation of the tuition rate cannot be overturned unless it can be characterized as arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. The Department maintains that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(6) and (10), the salary and fringe benefits of a teacher who does not hold a proper New Jersey teaching certificate for her position is not allowable in the calculation of a private school's per pupil cost. Additionally, the Department emphasizes that it is undisputed that the petitioner was fully aware that Bowles' Teacher of the Handicapped Emergency certificate expired on June 30, 2006, and that she did not possess a standard Teacher of the Handicapped certificate at the beginning of the 2006-2007 school year. Further, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.4(a)(22), "[a]n approved private school for students with disabilities shall ensure that school staff ... hold the proper school certification ... to provide the services being rendered." Therefore, the Department maintains that it was the obligation of the petitioner to ensure that Bowles held a Teacher of the Handicapped certificate before the start of the 2006-2007 school year.

The Department also argues that the ALJ erroneously applied the doctrine of substantial compliance to allow the salary and fringe benefits of Ms. Bowles in the calculation of the tuition rate. The Department contends that the ALJ wrongfully relied on Archway Programs, Inc. v. Department of Education, et al., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 6956-00 (decided September 2, 2008), Adopted, Comm'r (December 4, 2008). Additionally, the Department reiterated the arguments advanced below contending that the petitioner did not satisfy the requirements necessary for the application of the doctrine of substantial compliance. Therefore, the Department requests that the Initial Decision be rejected.

In reply, the petitioner reaffirmed its position at the OAL, arguing that – when the case law is examined, along with the conduct of the Office of Licensure and Credentials – the ALJ correctly concluded that the doctrine of substantial compliance should be applied to allow the full 2006-2007 salary and fringe benefits of Ms. Bowles. Specifically, the petitioner maintains that there is no prejudicial effect to the Department or the sending districts because the students were properly educated by a qualified, and what should have been formulaically-certified teacher; the petitioner took steps to comply with the statute; the purposes of the statute were achieved because there is no dispute that Bowles was qualified, but rather when the qualification was clerically recognized by the Department; and because of the Department's clerical errors, there was a reasonable explanation as to why strict compliance was not achieved. Therefore, the petitioner requests that the Initial Decision be adopted as the final decision in this matter.

Upon a review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the Department's decision disallowing the salary and fringe benefits of Ms. Bowles between September 1, 2006 and April 30, 2007 in the calculation of the petitioner's tuition rate for the 2006-2007 school year was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Additionally, the Commissioner finds that the ALJ erroneously applied the equitable doctrine of substantial compliance in this case. [2]

[2] For the reasons discussed below, the Commissioner also rejects the ALJ's conclusion that the petitioner is entitled to relief in this case under the excusable neglect standard. Similarly, the Commissioner does not find that the petitioner is entitled to submit a quantum meruit claim.

The applicable regulatory provisions establish an intricate formula for the calculation of the tuition rate that can be charged to sending districts by private schools. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.1-18.16. The regulations specifically identify certain costs that are not allowable in the calculation, including the salary and fringe benefits of a teacher who is not certified but is functioning in a position requiring certification. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)6 and 10. Additionally, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.4(a)(22), "[a]n approved private school for students with disabilities shall ensure that school staff ... hold the proper school certification ... to provide the services being rendered."

Since it is undisputed that Ms. Bowles did not hold a Teacher of the Handicapped certificate when the 2006-2007 school year commenced[3], it is necessary to determine whether the petitioner established that the doctrine of substantial compliance should be applied to excuse the petitioner's noncompliance with the applicable regulatory provisions. The following factors must be considered when determining the applicability of the doctrine of substantial compliance: "(1) lack of prejudice to the defending party; (2) a series of steps taken to comply with the statute involved; (3) a general compliance with the purpose of the statute; (4) a reasonable notice of petitioner's claim; and (5) a reasonable explanation why there was not strict compliance with the statute." Judith Berstein v. Board of Trustees, 151 N.J. Super. 71, 76-77 (App. Div. 1977) (citations omitted). The purpose of the doctrine "is to avoid the harsh consequences that flow from technically inadequate actions that nonetheless meet a statute's underlying purpose." Simone Galik, et al. v. Clara Mass Medical Center A Hospital Corporation, et al., 167 N.J. 341, 352 (2001) (citations omitted).

[3] Pursuant to the amended regulations, Teacher of the Handicapped Emergency certificates were no longer issued after the 2005-2006 school year, and individuals that were teaching in the field of special education under an emergency certificate could only do so until August 31, 2006. See, N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.3 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9-11.3.

Upon review of the Bernstein factors, the Commissioner finds that the petitioner did not establish that it had taken any steps to ensure that Ms. Bowles had a Teacher of the Handicapped certificate at the start of the 2006-2007 school year. In the joint statement of facts submitted by the parties, the petitioner states that it was aware that Bowles' Teacher of the Handicapped Emergency certificate expired on June 30, 2006, and that it was also aware that she did not have a standard Teacher of the Handicapped certificate at the beginning of the 2006-2007 school year.

Under the regulations that govern the calculation of the tuition rate, it is the petitioner's obligation to ensure that Ms. Bowles held the proper certificate, not Bowles. As such, any steps that Bowles took during the certificate application process do not equate to steps taken by the petitioner for purposes of determining whether the doctrine of substantial compliance should apply, nor does it negate the general obligation on the part of the petitioner to ensure its teachers actually hold the proper certificates. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.1-18.16. Notably, the petitioner did take steps to ensure that Bowles had a Teacher of the Handicapped Emergency certificate for the 2005-2006 school year. Thus, it is contradictory for the petitioner to also suggest that it had a reasonable explanation for failing to ensure that she likewise possessed a certificate at the beginning of the 2006-2007 school year.

Although the ALJ recognized the petitioner's obligation to ensure that Ms. Bowles held the proper certificate, he erroneously concluded that the underlying goals of the regulations were not compromised. The ALJ found it compelling that Bowles had essentially completed her application for a Teacher of the Handicapped certificate in September 2005, and since she eventually was issued the certificate, he concluded that neither the students nor the sending districts suffered any harm. However, by alleviating the regulatory obligation of private schools to demand that the teachers hold the requisite certificates, the purpose of the provisions are undoubtedly affected. Regardless of whether, as petitioner argues, Bowles was eligible for a certificate and there were delays in processing her application, the fact remains that – in September 2006 – Ms. Bowles did not hold a certificate, and the petitioner had no way of knowing whether or not she would in fact be subsequently issued a certificate. Further, when a private school submits information during an audit, it is not the burden of the Division of Administration and Finance to conduct extraneous investigations to determine if a teacher is a candidate for certain certificates, but instead it is reasonable for the Division of Administration and Finance to simply check to see if a teacher possesses a certificate or not. The regulations require the school to ensure that the teachers have a certificate, not anticipate that a certificate will be issued in the future. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.4(a)(22).

The Commissioner also finds that the ALJ improperly relied on Archway, supra, in determining that the doctrine of substantial compliance should be applied to this case. The circumstances under which the doctrine of substantial compliance was applied in Archway, supra, are readily distinguishable from this case. Significantly, the salaries in dispute in Archway, supra, where those for the 1998-1999 school year when the regulations governing emergency certificates were different, and during a time when there was a general shortage of special education teachers in New Jersey. The regulations in place at the time of the dispute in Archway, supra, (N.J.A.C. 6:11-4.3(b)) did not permit the filing of an application for an emergency certificate until August 1 for the next school year. Archway, supra, EDU 6956-00 at 66-67. In Archway, supra, the school had to hire staff to fill vacancies in July or during the school year if there was an unexpected vacancy in order to make sure that it had teachers who could comply with the students' Individualized Educational Programs (IEP). Id. Significantly, in Archway, supra, the school had in fact taken steps to comply with the regulations by submitting an application for an emergency certificate for each of the teachers in question. Id. In this case, the petitioner took no action at the start of the 2006-2007 school year to ensure that Bowles held the requisite certificate. Additionally, there has been no evidence presented in this case showing that the petitioner was forced to employ Ms. Bowles to comply with the students' IEPs. As such, the application of the doctrine of substantial compliance in Archway, supra, does not dictate a similar result under the circumstances in this matter.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is rejected; and the Department's decision disallowing the inclusion of the salary and fringe benefits of Redonna Bowles – for the period between September 1, 2006 and April 30, 2007 – in the school's calculation of the tuition rate for the 2006-2007 school year is hereby affirmed.

Record Closed: November 13, 2013 Decided: December 23, 2013

BEFORE W. TODD MILLER, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Pinelands Learning Center (PLC) challenges a July 13, 2012, determination by the New Jersey Department of Education, Division of Administration and Finance (NJDOE) that the salary and fringe benefits billed by the PLC to its sending districts for one of its teaching staff members be disallowed for the 2006-2007 school year. For the reasons discussed below; the determination of the NJDOE is REVERSED.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petitioner requested a hearing and the matter was filed at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on September 13, 2012, to be heard as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and 14F-1 to 13. The parties agreed to disposition on cross-motions for summary decisions. Motions, briefs and supplemental submission were submitted in September 2013. After reviewing the submission, the undersigned ordered an in-person settlement conference for October 22, 2013. The settlement negations were unsuccessful. The undersigned requested a supplement certification from the NJDOE delineating why the application and issuance of a standard certificate for the teacher in question was delayed for over two years. This submission was received November 13, 2013.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The NJDOE disallowed the PLC to bill its client districts for the salary and fringe benefits of Redonna Bowles[1] for the school year September 1, 2006 to April 30, 2007, due to problems connected with the issuance of her standard teaching certificate. The amount at issue is $36,498. The PLC claims that Bowles substantially complied with certificating process, that the NJDOE caused substantial delays in examining and issuing Bowles her certificate, failed to provide notice of its intent to delay the matter, and therefore the PLC should be permitted be compensated for her services (i.e. not punished due to NJDOE errors). The joint stipulation of facts and certification of Dr. Robert R. Higgins offer the following undisputed background.

[1] On July 18, 2013, the NJDOE abandoned similar claims against benefits billed to the PLC client districts for Teana Kelley and Melissa Moore.

The PLC is a private for-profit institution providing educational services to students with disabilities sent to it by public school districts. The PLC received students from twenty-two public school districts and had an average daily enrollment of public school placements students of 76.3 for 2006-2007. Each of those twenty-two public school districts was charged tuition for the student(s) it placed at the PLC.

In October 2003, Redonna Bowles was certificated as a teacher of the handicapped (TOH) by the State of New York. Bowles sought a certification from the NJDOE based upon reciprocity with New York.

On September 15, 2004, Redonna Bowles applied for a certificate for TOH with the NJDOE. The case was not assigned to an examiner until February 8, 2005 (five months), due to manpower issues at the NJDOE. Bowles made all lawfully required submissions by September 15, 2005. Bowles' application was sufficient to be approved, going forward from September 15, 2005. But no decision or certificate was issued until May 2007 (almost two years later), due to the NJDOE bureaucratic procedures, maternity leaves, manpower issues, and filing fees procedures. None of these were directly in the control of Bowles or the PLC. Nor did any of these bureaucratic issues relate to the merits of Bowles eligibility to be certificated in New Jersey. Finally, Bowles was not provided any notice of the internal problems, delays, filing fee issues, evolving within the NJDOE.

In September 2005, Bowles applied for an emergency certificate due to the NJDOE delay. This would have been unnecessary had the NJDOE timely and efficiently evaluated her application.

In October 2005, the NJDOE approved Bowles' application for an emergency certification as a TOH. The emergency certificate expired in June 2006.

Bowles' pending application for the TOH certificate was not timely approved, even though it was ready for disposition on September 15, 2005. Complicating matters, the NJDOE took the $75 application fee from Bowles' original (non-emergent) standard certificate application filed on September 15, 2004, and applied it to her emergent certificate application. Indeed, Dr. Robert Higgins, Director of the Board of Examiner explained in his certification that "Bowles should have been issued her standard TOH certificate with a date of September 2005, instead of being issued an emergency certificate that was dated October 2005" (Higgins Cert. ¶ 23).

On February 7, 2005, Bowles was employed by the PLC as a TOH, under her emergency certificate. She was again employed at the PLC as a TOH for the 2005-2006 and 2006-2007 school years. Bowles did not apply for TOH emergency certificate for the 2006-2007 school year. Consequently, Bowles possessed neither an emergency certificate nor a standard certificate for 2006-2007. But she was fully eligible for a TOH certificate, with a completed application pending at NJDOE since September 15, 2005.

The PLC was required to ensure that Bowles held a TOH certificate before the start of the 2006-2007 school year. The PLC did not request a copy of Redonna Bowles' New Jersey TOH certificate before the start of the 2006-2007 school year.

Included in 2006-2007 certified actual cost per student ("CACPS") calculation were the salary and fringe benefit costs for Redonna Bowles. The PLC client districts were charged tuition for the 2006-2007 school year, and thereby paid for the salary and fringe benefits of Bowles, while she was not certificated but fully and completely eligible to be certified, but for the inaction of the NJDOE.

CONCLUSIONS

The PLC must comply with the administrative regulations relating to tuition rates and billing. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.1 to -18.6. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.2, the tuition charged to each of PLC's sending districts is determined by the certified actual cost per student ("CACPS"), as defined in N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.1.

N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5 sets forth non-allowable costs for tuition. These include the salary of a professional staff that is not certified but is functioning in a position requiring certification in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:9 and N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)6.

The NJDOE asserts the PLC violated the aforementioned regulation, notwithstanding it severely delayed issuing the standard TOH certificate to Bowles.

The NJDOE admittedly made serious errors that significantly prejudiced Bowles and the PLC (See, Certification of Higgins). There was no notice to Bowles or the PLC regarding her filing fee transfer, or the NJDOE maternity leave or manpower issues. It was the NJDOE that substantially delayed the issuance of Bowles' certificate. Most importantly, Bowles was eligible to be certificated by the NJDOE in September 2005, which is well in advance of the billing period at issue herein (2006-2007).

This is a case of form trampling substance. Petitioner was equitability or effectively certified as of September 2005. The mere lack of a piece of paper stating that Bowles was certified, was not a substantive violation of the scope, intent or purpose of the applicable regulations as viewed by the unique facts of this case. The regulatory goal is to make sure that handicapped children attending the PLC receive a competent education from qualified instructors. The regulations also ensure that client districts are not billed for services that do not meet the NJDOE teaching standards. Neither of these safeguards was violated.

It is undisputed that Bowles was competent to teach handicapped children based upon her submissions to the NJDOE through September 2005, by the issuance of emergency certificate by the NJDOE, and based upon her licensure in New York. The delays thereafter were directly caused by the NJDOE and do not amount to a substantive violation.

The NJDOE claims the responsibility of the PLC is separate and distinct from that of Bowles and that notwithstanding its errors; and that the PLC remained responsible for ensuring it had a standard TOH certificate on file for Bowles. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2; N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.1(b). In a technical sense, the NJDOE is correct. But this conclusion ignores the other more compelling issues that remain in this case.

I would be more persuaded that the PLC committed a serious violation that must deprive it the right to bill its client districts for services if; 1) NJDOE was not the substantial contributing cause that created this problem; and 2) if Bowles, in fact, lacked the appropriate credentials during the billing period in question, thus undermining the goal of the applicable regulations. But Bowles was more than qualified as a TOH by September 2005, and it was the NJDOE that put in motion a cascade of delays. Moreover, the NJDOE did not provide any notice to the PLC or Bowles that her filing fee was transferred and it was delaying a decision on her TOH certificate (See, Certification of Higgins).

The PLC asserts that the doctrine of substantial compliance must apply. The elements of this doctrine are:

1. The lack prejudice to the defending party
2. A series of steps taken to comply with the statute involved
3. A general compliance with the purpose of the statute
4. A reasonable notice of the claim
5. A reasonable explanation as to why there was not strict compliance with the statute.

Bernstein v. Bd. of Trustees of the Teachers' Pension & Annuity Fund, 151 N.J. Super. 71, 77 (App. Div. 1977).

This doctrine was applied in Archway Programs, Inc. v. N.J. Department of Education, OAL Dkt No. EDU 6956-00 (decided September 2, 2008); Adopted, Comm'r (December 4, 2008). Archway was a private school for the handicapped, much like the PLC. In Archway, the ALJ and Commissioner, invoking the doctrine of substantial compliance, permitted the salaries of several teachers without certifications to be billed to client districts pending review of their eligibility for certification.

The facts in this matter are even more compelling for invoking the doctrine of substantial compliance. These include, the status of Bowles' application being "perfected" as of September 2005, the NJDOE errors in failing to act on the application, the lack of notice to Bowles and PLC regarding the filing fees being the only issue holding up the application, substance being more important than form, the prejudice visited upon the PLC resulting in the loss of income due to a technical violation, and the purpose and intent of the underlying regulations being fulfilled as of September 2005. I CONCLUDE that the PLC meets the requirements for relief under the substantial compliance doctrine.

The PLC is entitled to a remedy under excusable neglect standard. R. 4:50-1. Under this standard a party must show that the neglect was excusable under the circumstances. The Court is then called upon to review the circumstances and if necessary, use its discretion in order to avoid an unjust result. Mancini v. EDS, 132 N.J. 330, 334 (1993). Bowles submitted her application for certification with the NJDOE on September 15, 2004. It was reasonable for the PLC to expect a decision from the NJDOE by the 2006-2007 school year. The misfeasance by the PLC was de minimus; the denial of payment for competent services is extraordinarily prejudicial; and the underlying regulations were not offended because Bowles was eligible for a certificate two years before the billing period; and but for the delays caused by the NJDOE this case would not exist. For these reasons, I CONCLUDE that the excusable neglect doctrine is applicable and that equity mandates the PLC be compensated for services it rendered, to prevent an unjust result.

Finally, equity also permits the PLC to submit a quantum meruit claim regardless of the regulations, under the special facts of this case. The PLC provided the services of a competent and qualified teacher of the handicapped to its clients, and therefore it is entitled to be compensated for that service. Stated differently, the NJDOE cannot deprive the PLC its right to receive payment for services it competently rendered, merely because a teacher staff member did not hold a as piece of paper that the NJDOE delayed issuing after September 2005. The NJDOE concedes that Bowles was eligible to receive her certificate on September 15, 2005, making possession of the certificate by the PLC largely insignificant and an impermissible obstacle to the PLC receiving payment for services rendered.

ORDER

I ORDER that the determination of the NJDOE be REVERSED and the PLC be permitted to recover the salary and fringe benefits for Redonna Bowles, from its client districts, for the disputed years at issue.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF DOMINIC COSTANZO,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE BOROUGH	:	DECISION
OF LEBANON, HUNTERDON COUNTY	:

SYNOPSIS

The Board certified tenure charges of conduct unbecoming against Dominic Costanzo – then employed as the tenured Superintendent of the Lebanon School District – on the basis of alleged retaliation and intimidation directed against his former administrative assistant – Leah Driscoll – after she allegedly lodged a harassment complaint against him. The charges also claim that respondent subsequently sought to deceive the Board of Education in connection with letters of support which respondent allegedly co-authored and pressured Driscoll to sign. The Board sought removal of the respondent from his tenured position.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: respondent and Ms. Driscoll worked together amicably from the date of her hire in March 2008 until June 2011, during which time they became good friends who routinely joked and bantered with one another regarding each other's physical appearance or condition; the charges herein stem from a single verbal exchange in June 2011, to which Driscoll took offense and became upset; an administrative investigation was subsequently launched after Driscoll confided in another staff member, who then reported the incident to the President of the Board of Education; the Board bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of credible evidence that the respondent is guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member; in this matter, the Board failed to demonstrate sufficient credible evidence that respondent engaged in either retaliation or dishonesty as charged; Driscoll never filed a complaint against respondent and suffered no adverse consequence with regard to her position, salary or benefits; after the investigation ensued, respondent followed the advice of counsel to conduct himself in a business-like manner at the office, and his behavior did not constitute harassing, retaliatory, threatening, or intimidating conduct. Accordingly, under the specific charges, facts, and circumstances of this matter, the Board did not prove by a preponderance of credible evidence any of the allegations contained in the tenure charges. The ALJ ordered that the tenure charges be dismissed in their entirety.

Upon consideration and review of the full record of this matter, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. The Commissioner ordered that Dominic Costanzo be reinstated to tenured employment, together with any back pay and emoluments that are due him, less mitigation.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5782-12
AGENCY DKT NO. 100-4/12

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF DOMINIC COSTANZO,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE BOROUGH	:	DECISION
OF LEBANON, HUNTERDON COUNTY	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The District's exceptions and respondent's reply thereto, filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, were fully considered by the Commissioner in reaching his determination herein.

This matter involves tenure charges alleging unbecoming conduct brought by the Lebanon Borough School District against Dominic Costanzo, former Superintendent of Schools for the District. The charges allege that, between July and October 2011, respondent engaged in conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member when he undertook a pattern of actions designed to intimidate and retaliate against Leah Driscoll, his administrative assistant, for allegedly lodging a harassment complaint against him. The charges further allege that respondent thereafter sought to deceive the Board of Education, intending that it believe that Ms. Driscoll had written letters in support of respondent when, in fact, he had co-authored the letters and pressured her to sign them. The Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") found that the District failed to prove any of the charges by a preponderance of the credible evidence and, therefore, dismissed the charges.

On exception, the District challenges each of the ALJ's factual findings, as well as the credibility determinations upon which they are based. The District maintains that the ALJ failed to fulfill his duties as an impartial fact finder, virtually ignoring Driscoll's testimony and relying entirely on the testimony of respondent's witnesses. The District further maintains that the ALJ incorrectly attributed testimony to Driscoll, mischaracterized her testimony, took her testimony out of context, and overemphasized Driscoll's lapse of memory respecting trivial details. The District contends that Driscoll's testimony was generally consistent and was corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses and reliable circumstantial evidence. Finally, the District argues that, contrary to the ALJ's finding that respondent's testimony was "forthright," respondent's answers were evasive and inconsistent.

In reply, respondent urges the Commissioner to adopt the Initial Decision as the final agency decision in this matter. Respondent underscores that the ALJ's factual findings were largely driven by his credibility determinations, and that such determinations are entitled to the Commissioner's deference absent a finding that they are arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable, or unsupported by the record. Respondent argues that the ALJ's credibility determinations cannot be found to have been arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, since he painstakingly detailed his method for making credibility determinations. Respondent further argues that each of the ALJ's factual findings is supported by ample evidence in the record. Moreover, respondent identifies specific evidentiary support in the record for each of the ALJ's findings of fact.

Upon careful and independent review of the record of this matter, which included transcripts of the hearing conducted at the OAL between August 14, 2012 and June 7, 2013, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the District has failed to establish that respondent is guilty of unbecoming conduct. The Commissioner finds the ALJ's fact-finding analysis and conclusions to be fully supported by the record and consistent with applicable law.

The Commissioner finds the District's exceptions unpersuasive, largely reflecting disagreement with the ALJ's credibility determinations. The ALJ had the opportunity to assess the credibility of the various witnesses who appeared before him, and made findings of fact based upon their testimony. In this regard, the clear and unequivocal standard governing the Commissioner's review is:

> The agency head may not reject or modify any findings of fact as to issues of credibility of lay witness testimony unless it is first determined from a review of the record that the findings are arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable or are not supported by sufficient, competent, and credible evidence in the record. [N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c)].

The Commissioner's considered review of the entire record – which includes transcripts of nine days of hearing – provides no basis for alteration of the ALJ's factual determinations. Rather, the Commissioner is satisfied that the ALJ appropriately measured the plausibility of content in deciding the credibility of witnesses, as well as the proper weight to assign to testimony and documentary evidence in reaching his factual findings and conclusions. Notwithstanding the District's contentions to the contrary, the Commissioner finds no basis in the record to reject either the ALJ's recitations of testimony or his determinations of witness credibility. Moreover, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that the record as a whole does not support a finding of unbecoming conduct.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL, finding that the District did not prove by a preponderance of the credible evidence that respondent engaged in unbecoming conduct is adopted for the reasons stated therein. It is hereby ordered that Dominic Costanzo be reinstated to tenured employment, with any back pay and emoluments that are due him, less mitigation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

BEFORE ROBERT BINGHAM II, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, the School District of the Borough of Lebanon, Hunterdon County (the District), charged respondent, Dominic Costanzo, a tenured superintendent employed by the District, with conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member on the basis of alleged retaliation and intimidation directed against his administrative assistant.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 17, 2012, the Board filed certified tenure charges, dated March 16, 2012, with the Commissioner of Education. Respondent filed an Answer to the charges on April 27, 2012, and the Commissioner transmitted the contested case for hearing to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on April 30, 2012. The hearing commenced on August 14, 2012, and concluded on June 7, 2013, and the record remained open for post-hearing briefs. The record closed on October 4, 2013, following receipt of post-hearing submissions. The time for filing the Initial Decision was extended until January 2, 2014.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Many of the material facts are undisputed. Accordingly, I FIND as FACT the following:

Dominic Costanzo is employed as superintendent of schools of the Lebanon Borough School District and has an employment contract whose term commenced November 12, 2009. He has the following certificates and endorsements: (1) instructional certificate with the endorsement of elementary school teacher, issued August 1978; (2) administrative and supervisory certificate with the endorsement of principal/supervisor issued September 1986; and (3) a second endorsement as school administrator, issued March 1992. Respondent worked as a principal in the Lebanon Borough School District beginning in 2003. Leah Driscoll is employed by the Lebanon borough Board of Education. The preceding facts were stipulated by the parties.

Respondent is a tenured school principal who became superintendent of District schools in November 2009. In March 2008, Leah Driscoll was hired as his administrative assistant. Respondent had recommended her for the position, had been aware that she was pregnant at the time she was hired, and had accommodated an advancement of vacation and sick leave. Respondent and Driscoll worked together in close quarters within the Lebanon Borough school building. Between March 2008 and June 2011 they enjoyed a close working relationship and became friends. They also often joked with one another and their banter occasionally included reference to each other's physical appearance or condition.

In early June 2011, respondent asked Driscoll whether she had gained weight or had become pregnant, or words to that effect. Driscoll took offense and became upset, as the comment was made in front of a teacher and Driscoll was in fact pregnant but not prepared to disclose it and had not informed respondent. Driscoll confided in another staff member, Pat Leonhardt, who then told the Board President Christine Burton. Consequently, an investigation was launched.

On July 14, 2011, Leonhardt notified respondent of the investigation, which was being conducted by Frank Custode, Esq., counsel at the law firm that represented the Board. Custode interviewed Driscoll, respondent, and two other school employees, and on August 17, 2011, he issued a report containing findings of fact and recommendations.

Between July 14 and October 6, 2011, Driscoll alleged various words and actions on the part of respondent that purportedly created a hostile work environment. The Board assumed control of the ongoing investigation and filed the following tenure charges against respondent. Ultimately, pursuant to the procedures under the Tenure Hearing Laws, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 to 18.1, the Board provided a sworn statement of charges to respondent specifying eight (8) charges as summarized below:

> Charge I: In this charge, the Board alleges, in pertinent part, that respondent engaged in harassing, retaliatory, threatening, and intimidating conduct when his attitude toward Ms. Driscoll changed after learning of her harassment complaint and that, as a result of her complaint, on July 18, 2011, respondent told Ms. Driscoll that "work is not getting done. I may have to hire someone else part-time and reduce your salary." When Ms. Driscoll replied that she would go to the Board on this, respondent told her that she "can't go to the Board . . . . I'm your boss."
> Charge II: In this charge, the Board alleges, in pertinent part, that on July 19, 2011, respondent attempted to push Ms. Driscoll out of her job because he drafted an advertisement for Ms. Driscoll's maternity-leave position for Thereafter, respondent acted "mad," or "cold . . . very tense" toward her (T1, 47.) On or about July 18, 2013, without explanation, he told her that "work wasn't getting done, and that he was going to have to reduce my salary." (T1, 48-9.) Driscoll felt angered and threatened. When she replied that it was his work that was not getting done and that she would fight him "tooth and nail" and "go to the Board with this," he said, "You can't go to the Board. I'm your boss." (T1, 49-50.) According to Driscoll, after he "simmered down," she "think[s]" that he said "Well, we'll have to figure something out. Maybe we can shift things around." (T1, 49-50.)

On cross-examination Driscoll testified that she and respondent joked a lot and the topics included appearances, such as his bald head, but she felt that his comment about her weight went too far. On or about June 10 or 11, she told respondent of her pregnancy and that she was not particularly happy about it.

By July 18, 2011, he had become "cold" by no longer smiling, making eye contact, saying "good morning," or asking about her day or events in her life. Admittedly though, she may have described respondent has "business-like" instead when interviewed by the Board'\'s investigating attorney, Frank Custode. Driscoll was upset with his tone and the tense environment; however, "it wasn't him being nasty." (T1, 150.) Though respondent did raise his voice when asking whether she was involved, after Leonhardt had called, he had not yelled at her any more that summer. And she did not recall him using any foul language. Also, in July when she went to speak to him to clear the air, respondent never said that she could not approach him; it was, instead, her perception of the situation.

Driscoll also testified that she spoke with respondent relative to feeling stressed because she had to do with things that were not her job, such as being told to "handle things" relative to other employees,[2] and felt overwhelmed with the extent of work.

[2] Driscoll gave the example of having to deal with an employee who arrived late.

They had discussed the possibility of bringing on an additional staff member that, she believed, would involve shifting an in-house staff position rather than paying an additional salary. But relative to any reduction of her salary, they did not speak of adding another employee that would require the District pay more money. And she did not at all understand, or ask respondent about, his alleged statement about figuring out a way to shift some things or some money around, and "didn't take it to mean anything." (T1, 168.) Further, Driscoll did not recall telling Custode that she inferred that alleged statement to mean that he would not try to reduce her salary, but testified that, in any event, she was unclear. Neither her salary nor her benefits were ever reduced and no tenure charges were filed against her.

Driscoll further described that in June or July she was very emotional and "hormonal," specifically, easily upset about things that might not otherwise have upset her. Further, her husband's unemployment and the threatened foreclosure of their home admittedly affected her emotional state at the time. However, she was not imagining the "tone" in the office (T1, 192) and believes that she perceived things as they were, though she agrees that she is not the best person to determine whether her state affected her perception of events. (T2, 14-15.)

On or about July 19, 2011, respondent asked when she planned maternity leave to which she replied, Thanksgiving through June. He composed an advertisement for, she believes, a twelve-month position with benefits, and that made her feel like her job was threatened. She worried because she was pregnant and her husband was unemployed.

On cross-examination Driscoll testified that, when respondent asked her about maternity leave, she gave him an approximate period of time that was between Thanksgiving and June, but the exact time of her absence was uncertain. Respondent prepared an advertisement (R-25) and asked her to proofread it but it was not discussed in substance. The advertisement was for a full-time twelve-month secretary position, including benefits, that required secretarial and computer experience. Driscoll

Though potentially embarrassing for respondent, it was not until after the mail incident that he stated, "You're killing me. You're ruining me. You're ruining my reputation." However, according to her affidavit, regarding the problem with the mail he stated, "It's all your fault. You are ruining my reputation and my career."

On the following Sunday Board President Christine Burton telephoned Driscoll and instructed that she not return to work on Monday. Driscoll arranged with Burton to work at another location, the Clinton business office, and Driscoll did not have any direct communication with respondent until October 3. At that time, she spoke with a co-worker, Karen Ivin, and was transferred to respondent at his request. He was upset and wanted to talk to resolve the situation, in other words, make things better at work.

Consequently, they met at the Readington Diner. Driscoll testified that at that time, three months from giving birth, "I was mentally shot from all this." (T1, 80-81.) She described her emotional state as "not good." He was upset as well. She believes that he said she could return to work, but testified, "It's very convoluted in my mind that period of time, because I was just an emotional - - I was very stressed out." (T1, 83.) In any event, she returned to the Lebanon office on or about October 5.

On October 5 preparations were being made for a Board meeting when, according to Driscoll, the following occurred.

> I'm not sure what happened. I know that we -- I let him know that -- or we were -- this is hard for me to remember, but I know that he wanted me to write a letter to Christine, because -- I was in the agreeance [sic], because I thought, you know, I would do anything to help his situation at that point. I just wanted this out of my life. So, we worked on a letter for Christine . . . I think I relayed my feelings. He drafted a letter. I made changes to it.

According to Driscoll, he made suggestions as to the contents of the letter. He wanted her to mention that they had a good working environment, and might have asked her whether she thought that he was a good boss. He emailed a letter to her and she made some changes.[4] After making the changes, Driscoll believes that she signed the letter (P-6) and put it in Burton's mailbox.

On cross-examination Driscoll testified that on October 3 at the Readington Diner she volunteered to write a letter to the Board, but does not believe that two letters were discussed. As to whether she was in school the next day, Driscoll testified "I have a bad recollection of that week." However, she believes that on October 5 they worked on the letter to Christine Burton in respondent's office, though at some point she made changes at her desktop, as the best she could recall. When letter writing was discussed, "it wasn't plural,"—discussion of a second letter came up sometime later. However, at paragraph 16 of her affidavit, which does not mention the Readington Diner, it reads "Mr. Costanzo asked me to sign a letter to Board President Christine Burton as well as another letter that he wanted me to read aloud at a Board meeting." (T3, 115-116.) Driscoll explained that they spoke about the Burton letter Burton on October 3 and spoke about both letters on October 5. Furthermore, though she testified that she had never read the second letter before her testimony on August 14, 2012, her affidavit at paragraph 18 states that "A true and accurate copy of the second letter dated October 5, 2011, is attached hereto as Exhibit C." (T3, 118-120.) As to how she could swear that the second letter, attached to her affidavit as Exhibit C, was a true and accurate copy if she had never read it before her testimony on August 14, 2012, Driscoll testified, "I guess I didn't . . . . I guess it's just what I believed it to be." (T3, 120.)

[4] Specifically, she inserted the word "intentionally" into the sentence "Dominick would never do anything to hurt me." They each authored "some things" in the letter, but she did not write the letter (P-5) and does not list her name as Leah E. Driscoll. In the second paragraph, she changed "There are no issues between Dominick and me" to "There don't have to be any issues." In the third paragraph, she changed "I know Dominic, and he has never done anything to hurt me," to include "intentionally." She changed "There aren't any issues," because there were. She believes that she deleted last sentences, "Dominick is a true professional. He treats everyone with kindness and respect," because that was the manner in which he ended sentences for evaluations. Also, she inserted: "we need to get together and talk this out," and "I have no idea how my responses could have created such a problem for Dominic. My responses were not unfavorable." She also wrote, "My intention is to sit down with Dominic and work out this misunderstanding so we can get back to work."

October 6, 2011, Driscoll spoke with respondent, but the only thing that she can recall is that she signed a letter that he handed her that she did not read. (P-7.) According to Driscoll, she was concerned about losing her baby and does not remember the specifics. However, respondent appeared "sad" and "sullen." (T2, 105.) Driscoll thinks that he wanted her to read it at the Board meeting. She told him that she could not and he requested that she have a teacher, Rich Costa, read it. She complied and left a voicemail for Costa. Subsequently, she replied to Board member Jackie Caruthers that she did not in fact write the second letter (P-7), and told the same thing to both Burton and Caruthers on the following day, October 7.

On cross-examination Driscoll testified that she believed she worked at the school on October 6, the day of the Board meeting, but left for a doctor's appointment. She had the understanding that Costa read the second letter, that either she or respondent had placed in his mailbox, at the meeting. On October 7, she spoke with a teacher about having signed a letter that she had not read and was advised to disclose the matter. She subsequently spoke with Jackie Cruthers and Christine Burton but does not recall whether she told them that she did not write either letter. In any event, she did not compose the first letter but contributed by making changes to it.

Also, Driscoll made handwritten notes voluntarily, and notes made by respondent as well appear beneath Driscoll's notes. Driscoll's notes indicated that the two had talked and reconciled, and that she was ready to resume work in harmony. Her notes also posed a question whether they could settle the matter with Burton but no meeting with either her or the Board ensued despite her willingness to have had one. Her notes further state, "want to resolve, believe miscommunication was the demise" (R-6) and that admittedly was Driscoll's actual sentiment. Finally, Driscoll gave a sworn statement in December 2011 but did not feel any pressure at that time to retract previous statements supportive of respondent.

On re-direct-examination, Driscoll testified that respondent gave her the second letter (P-7) and asked her to read it at the Board meeting. She signed it within about two seconds. She wrote her personal notes because she "wanted this whole issue to go away . . . [T]his was a harrowing experience. I hated all of it and I felt guilty. I felt horrible. I just wanted it to end . . . . I didn't want to have to deal with this anymore." (T3, 168-169.) On re-cross-examination, Driscoll testified that she chose not to read the second letter when respondent gave it to her.

Christine Burton, then Board president, testified that during the summer of 2011 she learned from Pat Leonhardt, business administrator, of the allegation by Driscoll that respondent had asked her whether she was pregnant or had gained fifty pounds. Burton arranged with Leonhardt to confer with the Board attorney who recommended that an investigation be conducted. Frank Custode, Esq. conducted the investigation and filed a report recommending that respondent participate in training. However, that did not occur, as another incident came to Burton's attention.

On or about September 17, 2011, Driscoll told Burton about an incident involving the mailing of test scores, in which respondent told her, "It's all your fault. You're ruining my reputation in my career." Driscoll told Burton that being in the office was making her upset and Burton arranged for her to work in the Board's Clinton office. On September 22, she met with Driscoll who reiterated that information at that time.

Burton and another Board member, Greg Pardo, met with respondent on September 20, 2011. He denied the above-alleged statement and did not understand the purpose of the investigation. He shared handwritten notes made by Driscoll on September 8 (P-4). Burton described his demeanor as very angry and upset, red in the face, and absolutely not himself. Consequently, Burton raised concerns about her confidence in respondent based upon what she perceived as a "lack of judgment, the fact that he took no responsibility for his actions, didn't show any remorse." (2T, 216-217.)

Burton testified that she was shocked to receive Driscoll's letter dated October 5, 2011, because it contradicted what had transpired, as she came to believe it, based upon Driscoll's description and reaction regarding the circumstances. Rich Costa, a teacher, read the second letter dated October 5, 2011, (P-7) at the Board meeting and it was in support of respondent. No one had indicated whether respondent had any part in writing it. However, Driscoll subsequently told Burton that respondent created a letter that he wanted her to sign because there would be a Board meeting on October 6. Driscoll said she looked at the letter, edited it and signed it. However "she did not make any edits or deletions to P-7. She simply signed it." (T2,234.)

According to Burton, the Board sustained tenure charges based upon "the retaliatory actions, the lack of judgment as affirmative action officer, the abuse and misuse of his power as the chief school administrator and deceiving the Board . . . ." (T2,234.)

On cross-examination Burton acknowledged that respondent typically is not a person who becomes angry and upset. She has no personal knowledge of exactly what happened between respondent and Driscoll between June and October 2011. She also has no personal knowledge about what Driscoll told her regarding the facts and circumstances surrounding creation of the letters. Burton also acknowledged that in or about December 2010, the District had hired a substitute secretary named Amy Pardo to assist in the Board office, and she did work there at times in 2011. Burton also confirmed the existence of Driscoll's position being a full-time twelve-month position.

Burton further testified that the recommendation made by Custode was reviewed but no formal Board action was taken with regard to the recommendation. Burton first explained that no action was taken because the matter was confidential, but conceded that the confidential nature of the matter did not in any way prevent the Board from formally acting upon the Custode's recommendations.

Frank Custode, Esq., is employed as counsel at the Porzio law firm where the principal, Vito Gagliardi, is the Board's attorney. Custode testified that he has a background in employment-discrimination matters, and was assigned by Gagliardi to conduct the investigation as an impartial fact-finder, becausehe had no dealings with the school district personnel. He interviewed Driscoll, respondent, Karen Ivan (nurse), and Jerry Haag (custodian).

Custode's report reflects the following. On July 20, 2011, Driscoll informed him that respondent had asked whether she was pregnant or had gained fifty pounds. At the time, he did not know that she was actually pregnant. She was angered and told him the comment was inappropriate. A week later she told him that she was pregnant but not ready to tell anyone, and apologized for "freaking out" at him and he said "okay." (R-19 at 3.) Thereafter, however, she was bothered because his attitude became "distant and business-like," which she felt created "an uncomfortable work atmosphere." (R-19 at 3.) She confided in Ms. Leonhardt, but Leonhardt reported the matter and the investigation ensued. On July 14, when Leonhardt informed them of the investigation, respondent remarked something to the effect of it having to do with her and she told him that she had never filed a grievance or complaint against him. She thought that he was upset because she was pregnant, and he had made a comment like "I haven't been disrespectful, it's all professional. I can't joke around with you anymore." (R-19 at 3.)

On July 18, respondent had an attitude and stated that things were not getting done and he might have to take away some of her responsibilities and reduce her salary. She threatened to go to the Board and, later he commented "maybe we can figure out how to shift some money around." Also, on July 19, 2011, respondent created an advertisement for a twelve-month maternity-leave position and when she questioned him about it, he said something to the effect of "I need to be covered."

Custode's report reflects the following regarding his interview of respondent. Respondent described his relationship with Driscoll as "friendly" and her job performance as "good," though there were times when she did not follow up on issues or keep filing updated. He acknowledged asking her, in early June, "Leah did you gain weight or are you pregnant?" He denied asking whether she had gained fifty pounds and said that the statement was in response to her asking about his weight, and that they often joked about each other's weight. Days later she said that she was sorry if she had hurt his feelings but she was upset because she thought that she may be pregnant. He congratulated her but she said that it was "not good," there were certain health risks. He advised her to see a doctor.

On July 14, Leonhardt notified him of a complaint but without details. He acknowledged the possibility that it may have been related to the pregnancy comment to Driscoll, though that was not his first thought. He did ask Driscoll whether it was her and she said no. Since July 14, "he has conducted himself differently, meaning strictly professional, and does not joke around with anyone anymore."[5] (R-19 at 6.) Further, the issue of splitting her job responsibilities had been discussed over the years, and they had discussed the need for rationalizing to the Board hiring another person, which could ultimately result in a reduction of her salary. He agreed that she had become upset when the issue of a possible salary reduction was mentioned. Finally, respondent acknowledged raising the question of the length of her expected maternity leave and preparing an advertisement for the position. He wanted to have someone available for training as soon as possible had to be sure that he had "security in place." (R-19 at 6.)

On August 2, 2011, Karen Ivan, the school nurse, described respondent, her direct supervisor, as someone with a "friendly demeanor," a "good sense of humor," and "very family oriented." She described Driscoll as "nice" and "friendly." Driscoll and respondent had a friendly relationship and respondent was supportive of Driscoll and her baby. Ivan learned of the pregnancy-related comment from Driscoll, who seemed embarrassed by it. Ivan was aware that Driscoll was pregnant, because Driscoll had told her, but Driscoll had said she did not want to tell respondent until after the school year ended. Ivan stated that she never witnessed respondent engaged in any type of behavior that she thought was discriminatory, harassing, or inappropriate. (R-3 at 7.)

On August 2, 2011, Jerry Haag, school custodian, described respondent as having a "concerning" demeanor and providing a "positive" work experience. He described Driscoll as "very open." She and respondent had a friendly working relationship but they took care of business as well. He became aware of the pregnancy-related comment when Driscoll, who was upset, told him about it as she left the building.[6] Haag stated that he had never witnessed respondent engage in any type of behavior he thought was discriminatory, harassing or inappropriate. (R-19 at 7.)

[5] According to the report, he acknowledged being concerned about Driscoll and "everyone" in the District because he "wants to know who his enemies are." (R-19 at 6.)

Custode's report concluded that respondent's pregnancy-related comment was isolated and did not rise to the level of and actionable hostile work environment or any unlawful pregnancy discrimination. However, his conduct after the comment "may be construed" as retaliatory in nature. (R-19 at 9.) Custode recommended that respondent attend harassment, discrimination, and anti-retaliation training. It was further recommended that respondent and Driscoll meet, with Board counsel, respondent's counsel, and the Board president if preferable, to "discuss the issues and their working relationship going forward" especially in light of the "sensitivity of their job functions and the frequency of their daily interaction." (R-19 at 9.) By letter dated September 7, 2011, Custode informed Babiak of the report's conclusions and recommendations. According to Custode, the training did not take place because of an objection by respondent's counsel and a new alleged incident had occurred in the interim. Burton and Board member Greg Pardo conducted follow-up interviews and, buy supplementary report dated October 6, 2011, (P-11) Custode recommended consideration of disciplinary action by the Board in consultation with special counsel.

Patricia Leonhardt, former business administrator and secretary for the Board, and current Board secretary for Warren Township BOE, testified that on July 7, 2011, Driscoll came to her office and described an uncomfortable exchange wherein respondent made a pregnancy-related comment. Her relationship with him changed afterward, particularly after she later informed him of her pregnancy. Leonhardt advised her to speak with respondent, but Leonhardt also informed Burton who mentioned that pregnancy was a "protected class" and the Board attorney should be contacted. Leonhardt thus contacted the Board attorney and consequently facilitated the investigation by arranging for interviews to be conducted at the Board's Clinton Township office, and notifying respondent accordingly.

[6] Driscoll's description of respondent's comment to both Haag and Ivan referenced gaining weight or being pregnant, but nothing relative to gaining fifty pounds.

On July 18, 2011, Driscoll called Leonhardt and said respondent had commented about a reduction in her work hours. Leonhardt advised her to add that information to the investigation. In September 2011, Leonhardt received a call from Driscoll, who was crying and said respondent had made some "pretty heavy comments to her, that she was ruining everything for him." (T3, 153.) Leonhardt then went and consoled her because "she was feeling guilty." (T3, 154.)

Leonhardt admittedly had not witnessed any of the incidents that Driscoll had reported. She did not recall any specific conversation with respondent about getting assistance for Driscoll at work, but recalls that at some point Amy Pardot had been brought in to provide back up support.

Respondent's Witnesses

Richard Costa testified that he is a certified physical education and health teacher, and special education teacher, and was a staff member at Lebanon between September 2009 and June 2012, during which time he taught special education. At that time, respondent was his supervisor and the superintendent of Lebanon Borough School.

On October 6, 2011 Driscoll contacted him and asked whether he would be present at the Board meeting. He told her he had not planned on going. She told him that she would not be able to attend but had a letter that she wanted to be read there. She asked if he would read it for her and he agreed. She said that it would be in his mailbox in the school's main office, the same building in which the Board meets. Costa retrieved the letter from the mailbox, read it at the meeting, and then gave it to the Board president, Christine [Burton]. The next day, he saw Driscoll and she asked how it went, and wanted to know whether he read the letter and "how was their response?" (4T 8/22, 9). He told her that the response was "quiet" and asked her if everything was all right. She said, "Yeah, I had a doctor's appointment, I couldn't make it." (T4, 9.)

On cross-examination, Costa testified that respondent was his seventh-grade science teacher and subsequent soccer coach, and Costa later worked at a middle school where respondent was vice principal. Additionally, Driscoll admittedly had spoken to him between five and ten times about arriving late to school. Further, he was last employed with the Board on June 30, 2012, because his contract was not renewed. At the time, he was told that there was insufficient need for two special education teachers. He did not appeal. He currently teaches special education in Montville and respondent, among others, provided a recommendation for his current teaching position.

Costa testified that all of his testimony, in every particular, was true to the best of his knowledge and ability.

Andrew Babiak testified that his first contact with respondent regarding representation was around July 14, 2011. On that date, respondent had received a notice about an unspecified investigation and around July 25; he received a notice informing him of a related meeting on July 27. Upon receiving an e-mail from respondent regarding the meeting, Babiak sent an e-mail dated July 26, 2011, to Vito Gagliardi, Esq. asking about the nature of the investigation (R-20). On July 27, respondent and Babiak attended the meeting with Frank Custode, who was conducting the investigation.

At the meeting it became clear that the investigation was about a complaint alleging discrimination by respondent against an administrative staff member, Leah Driscoll. Babiak's understanding was in that during the summer 2011, respondent and Driscoll worked together and were the only administrative staff at Lebanon. Thus, respondent had concerns regarding interaction with Driscoll, as did Babiak.

On August 3, 2011, Babiak sent an e-mail to Gagliardi (R-29) regarding Babiak's prior call to him seeking input on how to address the work environment because respondent and Driscoll had to work together where one had accused the other of impropriety; it did not seem tenable. The e-mail stated, "I've informed [respondent] to generally remain in his office. I have no other practical advice to offer." By that, Babiak meant that there did not appear to be any other solution to them working together, and Babiak did not want respondent to face further accusations. Babiak did not recall whether the charge included an accusation of respondent being "cold," but it included something about an effect on what had been a good relationship between them.

On August 23, 2011, Babiak sent an e-mail to Custode (R-30b) due to a concern over the passage of time with respondent and Driscoll still working in the same environment and a lack information regarding status of the investigation. Babiak received a letter from Custode dated September 7, 2011, with conclusions from the investigation (R-3) and he notified respondent by the quickest means of communication (unspecified). Babiak had expected a reconciliation, because Custode's letter indicated that the Board was in agreement with the recommendations and conclusions. Nonetheless, on September 26, 2011, Babiak sent an e-mail to Gagliardi (R-31) regarding the "need to have secretarial staff in Lebanon addressed ASAP" because respondent was overwhelmed with the amount of work and Babiak was not sure whether staffing had been addressed or whether Driscoll was coming to work. Further, Babiak had conversations with Gagliardi which included a comment by Gagliardi that the Board was not satisfied with respondent, was not going to renew his contract, and that the decision had preceded the subject complaint.

On cross-examination, Babiak testified that during the July 27 conference with Custode, he believes that he heard respondent say that he suspected the complaint involved Driscoll somehow, but he was not 100 percent sure. He further testified that Gagliardi was his contact in matters involving the Board's clients, but he nonetheless expected that Custode would make the investigation report. And respondent was the source of information that Babiak had conveyed in his September 26 e-mail to Gagliardi (R-31) regarding the "need to have secretarial staff in Lebanon addressed ASAP."

Dominic Costanzo testified that as superintendent his responsibilities included evaluating staff members, ensuring bills were submitted to the business administrator, and completion of all State and county reports. He had first hired Driscoll in 2004 or 2005 as a substitute teacher on an as-needed basis. She left to teach at a private school, but when respondent's secretary took another job, Driscoll applied for what then became a twelve-month year-round position. When she was hired in March 2008, she made him aware that she was pregnant. She requested and he recommended the accommodation of advancing sick and vacation days, which the Board authorized.

Background

Costanzo described their relationship as "excellent" between 2008 and 2011, and they "became good friends." (T5, 39.) He helped her with transportation to the store, hospital, and her daughter's school. He gave her $400 to help financially and neither sought nor expected repayment. There was usually banter in the small main office and they both joked about things like his bald head.

In June 2011 during lunch in a conference room, Driscoll was "a little edgy" and he said something to the effect of "Did you gain fifty pounds?" or "Did you gain weight, are you pregnant?" in hopes of having her "joke back with me," but it backfired. (T5, 42.) A teacher, Amy Adamaitis, was present and Driscoll became visibly upset. He asked what was wrong. She told him that she did not think it was a nice comment and he apologized. He admittedly should not have said it. She later explained that she was upset because she thought she might be pregnant. He congratulated her but she said it was not good, that it was unplanned, and there were medical issues. He advised that she make a doctor's appointment and she did.[7] Thereafter, he "gave her some space," not wanting to approach her about it, but their relationship did not change.[8] In the end of June, he found out that she was actually pregnant when he overheard some of the teachers talking.

On July 14, the business administrator, Pat Leonhardt, telephoned respondent and told him someone had filed an affirmative action complaint against him,[9] though she could not tell him who it was or what it was about. Respondent called Burton but she did not divulge the particulars and indicated that he might want to get an attorney.

[7] According to respondent, Driscoll initially wanted to get a pregnancy kit from Walmart.

[8] According to Costanzo, they had even discussed her joining his family for a reunion at Lake George in the summer, but he only went for one day and she did not attend.

[9] Respondent was the District's affirmative action officer but, as the complaint was against him, Leonhardt was fulfilling that role for the first time.

Respondent thus engaged Andrew Babiak, Esq., as his attorney for purposes of the affirmative action investigation.

On July 27, 2011, respondent and Babiak attended a scheduled interview conducted by Frank Custode, Esq., who informed respondent for the first time that Driscoll was the source of the investigation. Prior to that time he did not know that she was involved, as she had denied any connection.

On cross-examination respondent testified that in early June 2011, he neither noticed a weight gain nor suspected pregnancy and believes that his actual statement was, "Leah, did you gain weight or are you pregnant?" The statement was made in a joking manner and not intended to be hurtful, as they had joked all the time. As to whether he thinks it appropriate for the workplace, respondent testified that he should not have said it, but their relationship was such that they would joke about things including physical appearance.

Respondent denied being unhappy about her pregnancy and feeling that it would impact his responsibilities. After learning of the investigation, respondent considered the possibility that his comment to Driscoll was related. But when he asked her about it and she denied involvement on July 14, when he learned of the investigation, he believed her.

After July 14, respondent changed his conduct but not against Driscoll. He was quiet and followed the advice of his counsel. He had given her space after she had initially mentioned pregnancy by being, as he could best describe it, "quiet" and not inquiring, but was not cold toward her. (T6, 125). Also, after July 14, the work environment did not become less pleasant. They still communicated about school business, though he "joked a lot less, it was more businesslike" (T6, 131). That was not the result of the affirmative action investigation but rather "the result of the advice of my counsel."[10] At some point he communicated with Babiak about Driscoll, but doesn't know if that was before July 27, and he does not recall if before July 18 they discussed respondent's intent to speak with her about work not getting done. However, respondent did make personal notes that indicate he had communicated with Babiak relative to the investigation and that specifically mention Driscoll. The notes (R-33) bear the date July 26, 2011, but respondent believes the date is mistaken, and should correctly be July 27, the date he met with Babiak and they met with Custode. Other notes (R-32) dated July 27 reflect some of respondent's questions for Babiak relative to the investigation as well as notes respondent took during the meeting with Custode. Respondent generated even more notes after the meeting with Custode (R-34), reflecting additional questions for Babiak relative to interaction with Driscoll in terms of getting work done. At the time he was not sure that he could trust her, as she was connected to the investigation and was acting different, more quiet.

[10] Responded testified that he had initially spoken with Babiak on July 14 and relayed the fact that he had been informed of an affirmative action investigation. He does not recall whether they discussed the

After the meeting with Custode, he discussed with Babiak his concern as to how to conduct school business in the somewhat small and isolated office setting. Babiak advised him to be cautious, do his job, act professional, make sure people were around, and to close his door if needed to limit contact with Driscoll. (T6, 183). His general advice was to do his job and not talk to anyone about the complaint. He may also have provided advice about not taking any retaliatory action against Driscoll.

Respondent typically would say "Hello, how are you" rather than "Good morning," but does not recall whether he greeted Driscoll on the morning of July 18, 2011. He did not, however, have any negative attitude toward her. Rather, he was quiet and kept to himself, because he had a lot on his mind and was concerned about the complaint.

Also, during that approximate time he did not tell her that "work is not getting done. I may have to hire someone else part-time and reduce your salary." Rather, she had been overwhelmed and he said, "You know, things need to get done." (T5, 56.) They discussed the fact that her having a higher salary, which she desired, could not be possible reasons for the investigation at that time, as he did not know what the investigation was about, or whether he mentioned Driscoll's name.

justified to the Board in light of the work-load issue, and that perhaps someone could be brought in to help.[11] However, splitting responsibilities would likely mean a reduction in salary, as it was likely that only one salary would be spread between both employees. Nothing said was meant to threaten her position, as they were friends and worked well together and he wanted her there. Additionally, she was a tenured employee in July 2011 and respondent had no power to alter the salary of a tenured staff member.

On or about July 18, there was also a discussion in which she said that it was respondent's work that was not being done, which to him bordered on insubordination. He had addressed to her the fact that files were not being maintained in an orderly and confidential manner and had spoken to her about it previously.

On cross-examination respondent testified that on July 18, he had a conversation with Driscoll in his office about work not getting done, but did not recall what he said to her at that time. When attention was brought to his prior testimony, he testified that he may have said, "You know things need to get done," but was not certain that was the exact phrasing. He further clarified that he did not suggest splitting her job and decreasing her income, rather he suggested she needed help. Respondent absolutely denied that any discussion about splitting her job responsibilities and a potential reduction in salary, to accommodate an additional assistant, was a threat to her job security. The initial conversation, regarding help in the office, was not unfriendly and respondent was not upset at the time. The subsequent conversation, when Driscoll alleged his work was not getting done, occurred after she had left but then re-entered his office. That conversation was "moving toward unfriendly" and her statement had concerned him. (T5, 27-28.)

Regarding maternity leave, Driscoll was unable to say definitively the time period that she would be out, but it was important to have timely coverage and an orderly transition. He asked her to use the same advertisement from when she was hired (R-12) to advertise for maternity-leave coverage, since it was the same position. The result was an advertisement for the same position (R-25) that only differed with regard to the return date of September 30, 2011, respondent's title as superintendent, and the phrase "maternity leave position."

On cross-examination respondent explained that he prepared to post an advertisement for a "maternity leave" twelve-month position because Driscoll's position was in fact a twelve-month position, rather than to specifically accommodate a transition, which he did want but was something different. He and Driscoll discussed it but it was never posted.

In August 2011, respondent prepared and presented to Driscoll a memorandum regarding filing and confidentiality. (P-3.) It was intended to demonstrate his seriousness about the issue after he noticed that a number of items, including confidential files, had not been properly filed or maintained as her job required and as he had discussed with her on prior occasions. According to respondent, she often did not take responsibility for things and shifted blame to others. He did not, however, deem it necessary to place the memo in her personnel file.

On or about September 7, 2011, respondent received a letter indicating that the Board had concluded its investigation, and had accepted the recommendation of Mr. Custode that he and Driscoll meet with Board counsel to discuss the issues and their future working relationship. However, the meeting never occurred and he does not know why.

On September 8, the date of the alleged incident, he had a conversation with Driscoll in his office and explained that he had been quiet because of the complaint and the information from Custode that she had filed it. She assured him that she had not filed a complaint and that things had become twisted around. She voluntarily wrote questions (P-4) and wanted him to speak with his attorney about them.

Also, on or about September 8, he did speak with her about leaving a staff member's personnel file at her desk. It was the same situation that he had just spoken to her about a couple of weeks earlier. And this was a second incident involving the same file. His discussion with her about the file had nothing to do with the complaint or the investigation.

On cross-examination respondent testified that on August 18, 2011, he discussed with Driscoll the memorandum regarding file maintenance and security and gave her a copy, which did not require her signature as it was not an evaluation. He adamantly denied that it was prepared to discredit her after he was suspended. On September 8, the day following Custode's recommendation, he brought to Driscoll's attention, in a professional manner, the issue of having left out a file. Respondent does not recall whether he had first received Custode's recommendation. But Driscoll was upset and began to talk and write notes about the investigation, which respondent allowed because she was crying, not because he was desperate for a favorable outcome to the investigation.

Count 4

In September respondent had given Driscoll the charge of mailing to parents the test score results for the New Jersey Assessment of Skills Knowledge test, or NJ ASK test, with a cover letter. He thought she mailed them but parents began to telephone and visit inquiring as to the whereabouts of the test results. She confirmed posting the mail and respondent discovered that she had placed them in the mailbox which the custodian knocked down and the mail and ended up in the school, not the post office.[12] Consequently, an instant alert was issued notifying parents of a mix up with the mail. Respondent felt it reflected poorly upon him particularly at a time when his contract was up for renewal. Driscoll said it was the custodian's fault and respondent told her, [12] Further, there had been occasions when Driscoll actually mailed items at the post office and it was not unusual for them to get stamps there.

"You're killing me, what are you doing to me? Because you're killing me. You're not helping me on any of this. You're doing the opposite. I don't understand." (T5, 129)

On cross-examination respondent testified that it was customary to take bulk mail to the post office and he had assumed that is what Driscoll had done with the test scores. Respondent was upset but did not scold Driscoll, though he blamed her over the fact that the test scores had not reached the parents. Respondent was also upset with the custodian and spoke with him about the incident.

Count 5

Between September 19 and October 3, 2011, Driscoll did not work in the building. On October 3 respondent requested that Karen Ivan call Driscoll with an inquiry relative to classroom coverage. When he then spoke to her, she asked whether they could meet at the Readington Diner to talk.[13] He met her there and she asked what she could do to help resolve the situation. At her request, he called his attorney, who was unavailable, and left a message. Driscoll thought that perhaps they could write a letter. She wanted to write a letter to the Board or to Christine Burton, and started to make notes. (R-6) She then said, "I want to ask -- these of the questions you should be asking your attorney." (T5, 132.) Respondent did not ask her to write anything in particular. Rather, she was upset because she thought the whole thing was "ridiculous." Her handwriting included the notation, "Would it be beneficial to write a letter to Board."[14]

Respondent testified that Driscoll returned to the school on October 5, and in the privacy of his office "we wrote the letters . . . . She wanted to do the Board and wanted to write one to Christine Burton, Board President." (T5, 137-138.) According to respondent, Driscoll wanted to personally deliver Burton's letter (P-6). Respondent e-mailed it to her house, as she had to leave work early. She was going to sign it and place it in Burton's home mailbox. Thus, he did not see her sign that letter.

[13] According to respondent, he had never been there before.

[14] Before the left restaurant, respondent's attorney returned his call and they spoke, but the testimony does not delve into the content of their conversation.

On cross-examination respondent testified that in September 2011, he was frustrated after Driscoll's worksite changed because the coverage was sporadic and running the office was difficult. On October 3, Ivan called Driscoll early in the day at respondent's request due to an issue with assignment to the office of a substitute who had requested to be assigned to the classroom. Then, he spoke with Driscoll who asked that he meet her at the diner and, ignoring the advice of counsel, he did so. When they met, she was upset with the Board. Respondent absolutely denied pressuring her into helping him with the Board. At that time he informed her that she could return to the Lebanon administrative offices, knowing that his instruction in that regard was contrary with to that given to her by the Board President. His understanding was that she would call Christine Burton and he contacted Babiak.

On October 5, 2011, she returned to work at Lebanon Borough School and respondent agreed with her suggestion that she write a letter supporting his reappointment. Respondent denied asking her to return to the building for his benefit or to sign letters on his behalf. Respondent also denied sending an email to Driscoll (P-5) to make it appear that she drafted the letter contained therein. According to respondent, regarding composition of the letter, "It was mostly her. I mean, I might have put a line in it. That's about it." He may have also "contributed words," if she asked for a word, but the only specific line that respondent put in the letter was "Where is this coming from?" She was dictating and he was typing, not him writing it and reading it for her approval.

Respondent does not recall whether he informed either Burton or the Board that he drafted the letter with Driscoll, but had no intention of leading the Board to believe that she wrote the letter on her own.

Driscoll did not read the letter to the Board because she began to have contractions and would arrange for either Amy Adamaitis or Rich Costa to read it. She called respondent and said that she spoke with Costa, and instructed respondent to leave the letter in her mailbox and that Costa would to read it to the Board. The content of the letter had been discussed on October 5 and it contained what she wanted. However, on October 6 respondent and Driscoll met again at the Readington Diner where they had sodas and she signed that letter (P-7). She appeared to read the letter, and they discussed it, before she signed it. A receipt dated October 6 from the diner (R-8) reflects his payment for the beverages. The time on the receipt, 17:16:56, or 5:16:56 p.m., reflects approximately the end of their meeting from which she was going to the doctor's office for an appointment. Respondent did not do anything to get her to sign the letter. Respondent attended the Board meeting on the evening up October 6 and witnessed Costa read the letter.

Driscoll's absence after September 19 created administrative difficulties, given the extent of her responsibilities. Respondent contacted Babiak who, in turn, sent an email to Vito Gagliardi regarding the need for secretarial support for respondent. (R-31.) However, that issue remained unresolved through October 6, the last that respondent had seen of Driscoll and when, at the Board meeting, respondent was suspended. Respondent further testified that he has had an impeccable record and had never had any issues with staff, parents, or students.

On cross-examination respondent denied drafting and typing the letter intended to be read at the Board meeting. (P-7.) He also denied that he presented it to Driscoll in the Board office and that was the first time she ever saw it. He also denied requesting that she read it aloud at the Board meeting.

On redirect-examination respondent further testified that the contents of Babiak's email dated July 26, 2011, to the Board's attorney, Vito Gagliardi, were true: that on July 14 respondent received a message from the business administrator that he was subject of an unspecified affirmative action complaint and, on July 25, was informed of a scheduled interview on July 27 at the Clifton Township business office with someone from the Porzio law firm named Frank. He met with Babiak on the morning of the July 27 at his office and they drove to the meeting with Frank Custode, stopping at Dunkin' Donuts on the way.

Respondent testified that he prepared the reprimand memo (P-3) on August 16 and, on or about August 17 or 18 when Driscoll returned from her days off, discussed it with her in a regular, professional, friendly tone of voice. (T6, 28.) Respondent never raised his voice. He gave her the memo to read and spoke to her about it and was going to destroy it afterward, so there was no confidentiality breach.

On September 8, at the school building, Driscoll seemed upset and wanted to speak with respondent in his office. He told her that "we can't discuss this," but she proceeded to tell him her belief that there had been miscommunication and wanted to speak to respondent's attorney. (T6, 38.) She voluntarily made handwritten notes (P-4) that respondent did not ask her to write. He did not stop her because she was crying and upset. She took a sheet with a note from the pad upon which she had written them, and gave it to respondent to get to his attorney. Respondent sent a note to Babiak.

With regard to communicating with Burton as to whether he was involved with preparation of the letters, respondent testified that he did not speak with her or anyone from the District after October 6, and she had not contacted him. Respondent was unaware that Driscoll had disclaimed responsibility for the letters on October 7, and he was not asked about it by the Board President, Jackie Carruthers.

Respondent does not regard as dishonest or deceitful the "common practice" whereby the person for whom a letter of recommendation is prepared contributes to its content and he, as the person recommending the individual, reviews it for accuracy and signs it.

On re-cross-examination, respondent testified that on July 18, 2011, Driscoll did not directly request of him a salary increase when they discussed options for additional help, though she was interested in one. In any event he was not interested in recommending that the Board split the positions. Respondent absolutely denied that the only reason splitting of the positions was mentioned was to intimidate Driscoll.

Further, respondent maintained a copy of the memorandum to Driscoll regarding file maintenance, despite having told her that he would discard it and his intent to discard it. He does not recall however telling her that he retained a copy. It was not his practice to retain copies of documents that he said would be discarded, but he had spoken to Babiak about this particular memorandum. He told her that it would not be in her personnel file and it was not, and it was not a lie when he told her that he would dispose of it. Respondent admitted that as superintendent he was ultimately responsible for personnel records at the Lebanon Borough Board of Education.

Summary of Testimony

Factual determinations often turn on credibility. When the testimony of witnesses is in disagreement, it is the obligation and responsibility of the fact-finder to weigh the credibility of the witnesses in order to make factual findings. Credibility, or more specifically, credible testimony, must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness, but it must be credible in itself as well. Spagnuolo v. Bonnet, 16 N.J. 546, 554-55 (1954). Credibility is the value that a fact-finder gives to the testimony of a witness. The word contemplates an overall assessment of the story of a witness in light of its rationality, internal consistency, and manner in which it "hangs together" with other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718 (9th Cir. 1963). The process of evaluating the credibility of witnesses entails: (a) observing demeanor; (b) evaluating the ability to recall specific details; (c) considering the consistency of the testimony under direct and cross-examination; (d) determining the significance of any inconsistent statements or evidence; and (e) otherwise developing a sense of the witness' candor. In assessing credibility, the interests, motives or bias of a witness are relevant, and a fact-finder is expected to base decisions on credibility on his or her common sense, intuition or experience. Barnes v. United States, 412 U.S. 837, 93 S. Ct. 2357, 37 L. Ed. 2d 380 (1973). Frequently, the trier of fact relies on the innate sense of whether the testimony has the ring of truth.

Driscoll's testimony was crucially flawed by inconsistency and faulty recollection. She was uncertain as to exactly what respondent said about "shift things around." (Count 1).) She was similarly uncertain about their exact exchange concerning the mailbox incident, and was admittedly very stressed at the time (Count 4). The week of October 3, 2011, was quite unclear. She testified, "I was mentally shot . . . . It's very convoluted in my mind that period of time, because I was just an emotional -- I was very stressed out." "I have a bad recollection of that week." Regarding the events of October 5, 2011, she testified, "I'm not sure what happened. I know that we -- I let him know that at -- or we were -- this is hard for me to remember . . ." She had poor and selective memory of October 6, as the only thing that she could recall was signing a letter that respondent handed her that she did not read.

Further, Driscoll's testimony in that regard is inconsistent with her statement to Burton and Carruthers on or about October 7 that, in addition to the letter to Burton that he forwarded on October 5, he "forwarded the second letter, which was ultimately read by Costa at the Board meeting." (P-12 at 2.) What is more, Driscoll's testimony regarding never having read the second letter prior to testifying at the hearing on August 14, 2012, is inconsistent with her sworn affidavit dated December 13, 2011, stating that a "true and accurate copy of the second letter dated October 5, 2011 is attached hereto as Exhibit C." (R-22.) This is not a minor inconsistency; clearly, both statements cannot be true. As to how she could swear that the second letter, attached to her affidavit as Exhibit C, was a true and accurate copy if she had never read it prior to her testimony, she testified, "I guess I didn't. I guess it's just what I believed it to be."

Driscoll's testimony in this regard also conflicts with that of Costa, who, even if somewhat biased toward respondent, gave credible testimony that Driscoll approached him and asked if he would read a letter to the Board for her because she was unable to attend. She thereafter left the letter in his mailbox and on the following day asked whether he had read it and how it went.

Respondent presented a forthright demeanor. His testimony that Driscoll voluntarily participated in writing and reviewing both letters, with his input, was more credible. The diner receipt dated October 6 corroborates his testimony that Driscoll voluntarily met him there on that date and voluntarily reviewed, discussed and signed the second letter that she then delivered to Costa to read at the Board meeting. Further, it is neither illogical nor unreasonable that one letter addressed confidential matter of the investigation and the other dealt with the more public issue of the renewal of respondent's contract as superintendent.

In a direct and straightforward manner, respondent adamantly denied pressuring Driscoll into helping him with the Board or asking Driscoll to return to work for his benefit or to sign letters. In a similarly credible fashion, he testified that he had no intention of leading the Board to believe that Driscoll wrote the letter on her own. Further, his testimony explaining the circumstances as well as his conduct between July 14 and October 6, 2011, was reasonable and corroborated by other evidence and testimony in the record, and therefore credible.

After assessing the credibility of the witnesses, and based upon the preponderance of the credible evidence in the record, I FIND as FACT the following:

1. On July 14, 2011, respondent was informed of the investigation and asked Driscoll, who was nearby, whether she was involved and she replied no; respondent believed her and was unaware of her connection to the investigation.

2. On July 18, 2011, respondent was unaware of Driscoll's connection to the investigation. On that day, he did not display a cold or hostile attitude toward Driscoll. He discussed with her, as he had previously, the need for keeping up with the workload because she was overwhelmed. His discussion with her at that time was in the context of reviewing options for addressing that issue and his statements were neither hostile nor threatening and did not objectively pose any threat to Driscoll or her job security. He took no action against her, retaliatory or otherwise, and there was no adverse impact regarding her position, salary or benefits.

3. On July 19, 2011, respondent's drafting of a maternity leave coverage advertisement was for the sole purpose of getting coverage for, not replacing, Driscoll during her maternity leave absence. At that time, respondent was unaware of Driscoll's connection to the affirmative action investigation. The proposed advertisement appropriately described the position as a twelve-month "maternity leave" position, including benefits, and it did not represent that the substitute would prevent or interfere with Driscoll's return from maternity leave. It was not intended to harass or intimidate Driscoll, or retaliate against her, and viewed objectively it did not threaten or impact her job security or create a hostile work environment.

4. Respondent discovered that the investigation was based upon Driscoll's report of his comment about gaining weight or being pregnant on or about July 27, 2011, when, in the presence of his attorney, Andrew Babiak, he was interviewed by Frank Custode. At that time, Custode notified respondent of the prohibition against retaliation and that the matter should be kept confidential.

5. Babiak had advised respondent to maintain as much distance as possible from Driscoll and to generally remain in his office. He further advised respondent to do his job in a businesslike fashion.

6. On August 17, 2011, Custode issued his findings and recommendations based upon the investigation, providing a summary to respondent's attorney. The Board could have acted upon the recommendation that the parties meet to discuss and resolve the issues and the future working relationship between respondent and Driscoll, but it chose not to do so and, instead, took over the ongoing investigation.

7. On August 17, 2011, Driscoll was absent from work and respondent noticed a number of materials that were either misplaced or not properly filed. At that time, he prepared a memorandum addressed to Driscoll regarding proper maintenance and security of files and documents. He did not manufacture the memo at a later time to discredit her after he was suspended. He discussed the memo with her on the following day, but did not place it in her personnel file as that was not deemed necessary.

8. On September 8, 2011, respondent spoke to Driscoll about having left a staff member's confidential personnel file out in the open. Driscoll's job responsibility included maintaining a "well organized up-to-date filing system" and "preserving confidentiality." This was not the first occasion on which respondent discussed with Driscoll the issue of properly maintaining documents and files. Further, respondent did not make any harassing, retaliatory, threatening, or intimidating statement toward Driscoll.

9. Also, on September 8, 2011, Driscoll voluntarily drafted a handwritten note, without pressure or coercion from respondent, indicating that she had reported that she never felt sexually harassed or discriminated against in any way, that she never filed any complaint against him with regard to sexual harassment, retaliation, or intimidation, and that she had informed Pat Leonhardt that she felt that she was being used as a "pawn" to get to respondent. After Driscoll wrote the note, respondent's attitude did not change to become "nicer," rather, has Driscoll herself testified, "he listened."

10. On September 16, 2011, respondent charged Driscoll with mailing NJ ASK test scores to parents. She placed the correspondence, with test scores, in the school mailbox, rather than deliver them to the post office, but the custodian knocked over the mailbox and unwittingly took the mail. Parents complained and respondent was made to issue an alert regarding the mail and apologize. Upon discovering what had happened with the mail, respondent addressed Driscoll because the mail was her responsibility, but he also addressed the custodian, Jerry Haag. Under the circumstances, his comments to the effect "You're killing me" or "It's all your fault. You're ruining my reputation," were unrelated to the affirmative action investigation, and did not constitute harassing, retaliatory, threatening, or intimidating conduct.

11. On October 3, 2011, Driscoll and respondent agreed to meet at the Readington Diner. At that time she offered to do whatever she could because she had "never filed [a] complaint," believed that the whole matter involved "miscommunication," and wanted to sit down with Christie [Burton] and settled this," as reflected by her voluntary handwritten notes made at that time. (R-6.) Respondent indicated that he did not see why she could not return to work at the school building.

12. On October 5, 2011, she voluntarily returned to work. At that time she voluntarily went into respondent's office and worked with him on two letters that she wanted to submit: one that dealt with confidential matters involved in the investigation that she would deliver to Christine Burton's home mailbox; and another that focused on the more public issue of respondent's qualifications and performance as superintendent, to be read at the Board meeting.

13. Both Driscoll and respondent participated in the drafting of the letters. Driscoll left early, for family reasons, and respondent sent her, by email, the draft of the letter to Burton (P-6), which Driscoll then edited. Her editing included inserting "intentionally" to relay that respondent had "never done anything intentionally to harm [her]," (P-6) but the content was primarily hers and reflected her sentiments regarding the matter.

14. The second letter (P-7) was likewise drafted on October 5, but signed by Driscoll on the following day, when she arranged for Richard Costa to read the letter aloud at the Board meeting after deciding not to attend for medical reasons.

15. Respondent did not impose retaliatory pressure upon Driscoll to draft, sign or present either letter.

16. Respondent did not engage in a pattern or practice of harassing, intimidating, or retaliatory conduct toward Driscoll. Further, he did not prevent her from filing any complaint or from participating in the Board's investigation of alleged harassment.

17. Respondent did not present letters to the Board that Driscoll did not author and did not intend to mislead the Board to believing that she authored them alone. The letters express her sentiments, and were reviewed, signed and either delivered or arranged to be delivered by her. Further, respondent did not impose pressure upon her, retaliatory or otherwise, with regard to the letters.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The New Jersey Legislature has provided standards for dismissal of a school district superintendent under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2. Instead of "career tenure" for superintendents, the statute provides tenure for the duration of the contract between the local board of education and the superintendent, i.e., "[d]uring the term of any employment contract with the board, a superintendent shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming a superintendent or other just cause . . . ." N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2.

In the present matter, petitioner alleges that respondent engaged in "conduct unbecoming" a teaching staff member as the basis for his dismissal.[15] Conduct unbecoming a public employee has been described as an "elastic" phrase that includes "any conduct which adversely affects the morale or efficiency" of the public entity or "which has a tendency to destroy public respect for . . . [public] employees and confidence in the operation of . . . [public] services." In re Emmons, 63 N.J. Super. 136, 140 (App. Div. 1960) (citation omitted); see Karins v. City of Atl. City, 152 N.J. 532 (1998). Behavior rising to the level of unbecoming conduct need not be predicated upon a violation of any particular rule or regulation and may be based simply upon a violation of the implicit standard of good behavior. City of Asbury Park v. Dep't of Civil Serv., 17 N.J. 419, 429 (1955); In re Tuch, 159 N.J. Super. 219, 224 (App. Div. 1978). Therefore, the elements of conduct unbecoming a public employee such as a school superintendant include that the employee's position is in the public eye, that the position is subject to a promulgated or implicit standard of good behavior, that the position requires the employee to uphold that which is morally and legally correct, and that the subject conduct demonstrates that the employee is unsuitable for his or her duties as a public servant. Karins, supra, 152 N.J. at 554-55 (1998); see also In re Vitacco, 347 N.J. Super. 337, 344 (App. Div. 2002); Bd. of Educ. of Middletown v. Witmer, A-5128-07T3 at *46-47 (App. Div. Aug. 17, 2009), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/. Succinctly stated, "the touchstone is fitness to discharge the duties and functions of one's office or position." In re Grossman, 127 N.J. Super. 13, 29 (App. Div. 1974), certif. denied, 65 N.J. 292 (1974).

It is the obligation of the Board as petitioner to prove the tenure charges by a preponderance of the credible evidence. Atkinson v. Parsekian, 37 N.J. 143, 149 (1962); In re Polk, 90 N.J. 550, 560-61 (1982). Precisely what is needed to satisfy this standard must be decided on a case-by-case basis. The evidence must be such as to lead a reasonably cautious mind to a given conclusion. Bornstein v. Metro. Bottling Co., 26 N.J. 263, 274-75 (1958). Preponderance may also be described as the greater weight of credible evidence in the case, not necessarily depending on the number of witnesses, but the evidence having the greater convincing power. State v. Lewis, 67 N.J. 47, 49 (1975).

Here, the Board has not proved the tenure charges by a preponderance of the credible evidence. Indeed, there does not exist a greater weight of credible evidence that respondent engaged in either retaliation or dishonesty as charged.

Notably, Driscoll never filed a complaint against respondent and she suffered no adverse consequence with regard to her position, salary, or benefits. Respondent was unaware of her connection to the affirmative action investigation until July 26 or 27, 2011. Following the advice of counsel, respondent conducted himself in a business-like fashion at the office and did not direct animosity toward Driscoll. Respondent's interactions with Driscoll regarding the maternity-leave advertisement, maintenance of files, and mailing of test scores, did not constitute harassing, retaliatory, threatening, or intimidating conduct. Further, respondent did not impose retaliatory pressure upon Driscoll to draft, sign, or present either letter. And he did not present letters to the Board that Driscoll did not author, or intend to mislead the Board to believing that she authored them alone.

Therefore, under the specific charges, facts and circumstances of this matter, the Board has presented insufficient credible evidence that respondent did not uphold the "implicit standard of good behavior which devolves upon one who stands in the public eye as an upholder of that which is morally and legally correct." Hartmann, supra, 258

N.J. Super. at 40 (citation omitted). Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Board has not proven by a preponderance of credible evidence any of the allegations contained in the sworn statement of tenure charges.

DECISION AND ORDER

Petitioner has not proven by a preponderance of credible evidence that respondent's conduct constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. Therefore, it is ORDERED that the tenure charges in their entirety be and hereby are DISMISSED.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF TRENTON, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioners sought to compel the respondent Board to allow Loving Care Agency (LCA) to continue to provide the medically necessary clinical nursing services required by A.A. while she attends school in the Trenton school district, pursuant to the Parent Choice Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3(b). The respondent Board contends that K.S. and K.A. are required to use the home nursing service that the school district is now contracted with to provide services to students during school hours. LCA has agreed to provide the services to A.A. at the same rate the Board has agreed to pay the other agency, regardless of how that rate is calculated. Both parties filed motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue here, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the Parent Choice Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3(b), governs the employment of nursing personnel for medically fragile students, and provides that the parents or legal guardian shall have the option to choose a provider to render clinical nursing services so long as the cost to the school district remains neutral; under the circumstances in this matter, the District's cost for LCA's services would be the same as its contracted rate with the other agency; and the Board's contention that the parents' chosen service provider must bid for the entire district runs counter to the purpose of the Parent Choice Act, which serves to protect parents from having a winning bidder forced upon them. The ALJ granted the petitioners' motion for summary decision, denied the Board's motion for summary decision, and ordered that the parents of AA be allowed to choose LCA as the provider of medically necessary clinical nursing services for their daughter.

Upon a full and independent review of the record, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter, for the reasons expressed therein.

at the same rate respondent agreed to remit to its current contracted service provider for the same services.

Furthermore, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ's conclusion that the parents' choice must be honored notwithstanding the fact that the district has contracted with a different service provider through the public bidding process outlined in the Public School Contract Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59. A contrary holding would render the Parent Choice Act nugatory.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein; the petitioners' motion for summary decision is hereby granted; and the respondent's motion for summary decision is hereby denied. A.A. shall receive required clinical nursing services through Loving Care Agency, Inc., while she attends school in respondent's district, so long as the cost of those services remains the same as, or less than, the cost of those services by respondent's contracted service provider.

BEFORE LISA JAMES-BEAVERS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners Loving Care Agency (LCA) and parents K.S. and K.A. on behalf of their minor child, A.A., seek an Order to require the respondent Trenton Board of Education (Board) to allow LCA to provide the medically necessary clinical nursing services to A.A. while she attends school in the district pursuant to the Parent Choice Act, N.J.S.A.18A:40-3.3(b).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about February 7, 2013, petitioners filed a complaint in the Superior Court Chancery Division. On April 29, 2013, the parties entered into a Consent Order to allow the case to be transferred to the New Jersey Department of Education pursuant to R. 1:13-4(a). On May 23, 2013, the Department of Education filed the complaint with the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. On October 15, 2013, the parties submitted a Joint Stipulation of Facts. Pursuant to an extension for good cause, on November 15, 2013, the Board filed a motion for summary decision. On December 2, 2013, petitioners cross-moved for summary decision and opposed the Board's motion for summary decision. On December 3, 2013, the Board opposed petitioners' motion for summary decision. I heard oral argument on January 10, 2014.

STIPULATED FACTS

1. Petitioners K.S. and K.A. are the parents and legal guardians of their minor daughter, A.A.[1]
2. A.A. is a medically-fragile minor child for purposes of N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3(b).

[1] The parents and minor child are identified simply by their initials to maintain the confidentiality of the child's identity to the extent practicable.

3. A.A. is enrolled as a student within the Trenton Public School District, located in Mercer County, New Jersey.
4. Respondent Board administers the Trenton Public School District.
5. LCA is engaged in the business of providing clinical nursing services to medically-fragile children.
6. LCA provides the services throughout New Jersey and, specifically, within the geographic area under the control and supervision of the Board.
7. At the request of K.S. and K.A., LCA provided A.A. with the necessary services she required while attending classes in the Trenton Public School District during the 2012-2013 school year.
8. On or about July 11, 2012, the Board entered into an agreement with Bayada Home Health Care (Bayada) wherein Bayada agreed to provide the Board with RNs and LPNs to administer services to the students enrolled within the Trenton Public School District.
9. On or about October 15, 2012, subsequent to the July 11, 2012, Agreement between the Board and Bayada, K.S. and K.A. sent correspondence notifying the Board that they wanted LCA to continue to provide the services to A.A. during school hours. (See correspondence dated October 15, 2012, from K.S. and K.A. to the Board, attached hereto as Exhibit A).
10. Following their October 15, 2012, request, the Board advised K.S. and K.A. that they were required to use Bayada to administer the necessary services to A.A. during school hours. (See correspondence from the Board to "Parents/Guardians" dated October 18, 2012, attached hereto as Exhibit B).
11. On or about November 1, 2012, LCA sent correspondence to the Board reiterating K.S. and K.A.'s desire to have LCA continue to provide the services to A.A. during school hours. (See correspondence dated November 1, 2012, attached hereto as Exhibit C).
12. In that November 1, 2012, correspondence, LCA also informed the Board that it was willing to provide the services to A.A. during school hours at the same rate the Board agreed to remit to Bayada to provide the same services. (Ibid.)

13. Although the Board's October 18, 2012, correspondence explicitly informed K.S. and K.A. that, effective November 1, 2012, A.A. would start receiving her services through Bayada, to date, such a transfer has not yet occurred.

DECISION

Summary Decision Standard

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12-5 governs motions for summary decisions. The provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:1-12-5 mirror the language of R. 4:46-2 of the New Jersey Court Rules governing motions for summary judgment. Pursuant to these rules, a case may be dismissed before it is heard if, based on the papers and discovery which have been filed, it can be decided "that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12-5(b). "An issue of fact is genuine only if, considering the burden of persuasion at trial, the evidence submitted by the parties on the motion, together with all legitimate inferences therefrom favoring the non-moving party, would require submissions of the issues to the trier of fact." R.4:46-2.

When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, the burden shifts to the adverse party to set forth, by affidavit, specific facts showing there is a genuine issue resolvable only by an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). To survive summary decision, the opposing party must show that "there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid. Failure to do so entitles the moving party to summary judgment. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995). A judge is to scrutinize the competent evidential materials presented, in a light most favorable to the non-moving party, and consider whether a rational fact-finder could resolve the disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. Id. at 540.

The New Jersey Supreme Court's standard for summary judgment is thus designed to "liberalize the standards so as to permit summary judgment in a larger number of cases" due to the perception that we live in "a time of great increase in litigation and one in which many meritless cases are filed." Brill, 142 N.J. at 539.

Legal Analysis

In May 2012, the Legislature enacted the Parent Choice Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3(b), which governs the employment of nursing personnel for medically fragile students. A "medically fragile student" is a "school-aged child who suffers from a life-threatening medical condition, and as a result of such condition, requires more individualized and continuous care than is available from a school nurse." N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3. The Parent Choice Act provides that:

> [t]he parent or legal guardian of a medically fragile student shall have the option to choose a provider to render clinical nursing services to the student, and the State Board of Education shall allow the provider chosen by the parent or legal guardian to render such services to the student only if the cost to the school district remains neutral.
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3(b).]

The legislative history of this provision has been codified as N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.2, which states that

> [m]edically fragile students who require clinical nursing services while attending school should expect and receive the same level of care they receive at home. Maintaining a continuity of care for medically fragile students creates a safer environment at school, fosters learning, and gives parents confidence that their children's medical needs are being met by qualified health care providers . . . [t]herefore, it is in the public interest that, in order to guarantee the health and safety of medically fragile students while attending school, . . . parents should be given the option to choose the provider who will render clinical nursing services to their children while attending school, if the cost remains neutral to the school district.

The Board has raised two issues in its motion. First, the Board argues that LCA's offer to match Bayada's hourly rate is not cost-neutral, because the contract with Bayada is capped at $300,000 per year. Therefore, the Board garners a cost benefit by Bayada's servicing as many students as possible. However, LCA has agreed to accept the same rate as Bayada, regardless of how that rate is calculated. Thus, if the $300,000 cap is met, thus reducing the per-student cost, LCA has agreed to accept the reduced rate. Further, the Board has not produced evidence to indicate that the cap is close to being met this year. Because LCA has agreed to accept a pro rata reduction in costs, the parent's choice to use LCA is cost-neutral to the Board.

The second issue raised by the Board is that the Parent Choice Act must be harmonized with the Public School Contract Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59. The Board is concerned about maintaining a fair bidding process. Specifically, the Board fears that some providers will not place bids for fear of bidding too low, but then, after a low bid has been selected, the non-bidding provider will urge parents to "choose" them as service provider, and then offer to match the low bid. The Board's position is that if a provider is servicing a child in the district, it should plan to bid competitively for the entire district. However, the Board is imposing a hurdle in the Parent Choice Act that is not expressed in the statute. The statute does not express a precondition that an agency compete in the RFP process. This is an issue that the Board would need to raise with the Legislature, not at the OAL.

The Legislature is presumed to be familiar with its own past enactments and judicial interpretation. In re Petition for Referendum on City of Trenton Ordinance 09-02, 201 N.J. 349, 359 (2010); Coyle v. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders, 170 N.J. 260, 267 (2002). In M.C. o/b/o B.C. v. Trenton Bd. of Educ., EDS 6948-13, Initial Decision (June 10, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, the Board entered into a public contract bid with Bayada to provide services at the rate of $49 per hour. However, the mother of a medically fragile student was not satisfied with Bayada's services, and sought to have Newborn Nurses provide care. Newborn Nurses agreed to match the $49 per hour rate. At issue was who has the right to choose a provider under the Parent Choice Act. ALJ Schuster determined that the parents had the right to choose, reasoning that the Legislature could be presumed to have been aware of the Public School Contract Law when it enacted the Parent Choice Act, and that "the Legislature intended the Public School Contract Law to be superseded by the Parent Choice Act when there would be a conflict between the two." M.C. o/b/o B.C., supra.

The Board's contention that the parents' chosen Service provider must bid for the entire district runs counter to the purpose of the Parent Choice Act. The Act serves to protect parents from having a winning bidder forced upon them, giving them greater control over the day-to-day care of their medically fragile children.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners' motion for summary decision is GRANTED. The express language of the Parent Choice Act gives the parents the right to choose A.A.'s Service provider so long as it is cost-neutral to the Board. Because LCA has agreed to match the rate the Board would otherwise pay to Bayada under its contract, the parents' choice to utilize LCA is cost-neutral. Additionally, nothing in the statutory language of N.J.S.A. 18A:40-3.3(b) required LCA to place a bid for the entire district. Conversely, the Board's motion for summary decision is DENIED.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that the parents of A.A. be allowed to choose LCA as the provider of medically-necessary clinical nursing services to A.A. while she attends school in the Trenton Public School District since LCA has agreed to provide such services at the same fixed hourly rate as that paid to the Board's contracted provider.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE WESTWOOD REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BERGEN COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
RUSSELL MILLER,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

The petitioning Board sought a declaratory ruling that respondent, Russell Miller, is ineligible to serve as a member of the Board due to a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. Respondent, who was elected to the Westwood Board of Education in November 2012, is either an owner or employee of a company – Westwood Truck Center – that has provided vehicle maintenance services to the Board since at least 2004. Both parties argued that the dispositive issue in this matter is whether the respondent owns Westwood Truck Center.

The ALJ found that: N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 governs this dispute, as the New Jersey Supreme Court has held that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 imposes ongoing qualifications for membership on a board of education, and the provisions of the subsequently-enacted School Ethics Act do not supersede N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2; regardless of whether respondent is an owner or employee of Westwood Truck Center, an impermissible conflict of interest existed under the regulations; however, the disqualifying conflict of interest was cured, and thereby mooted, when the contract with Westwood Truck Center terminated on June 30, 2013; and after that date, no conflict of interest existed. Accordingly, because the contract has been terminated, the ALJ concluded that the respondent is not required to forfeit his seat on the Board.

The Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the respondent, Russell Miller, had an impermissible and disqualifying conflict of interest pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 when he was sworn in as a member of the Westwood Regional Board of Education (Board). The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that the disqualifying conflict of interest was cured, and thereby mooted, once the Board's contract with Westwood Trucking Center terminated on June 30, 2013. Accordingly, the recommended decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein.

BEFORE LESLIE Z. CELENTANO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE[1]

Petitioner, Westwood Regional Board of Education (the Board), requests a declaratory ruling that respondent, Russell Miller (Miller), is ineligible for membership on the Board, due to a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. (Pet. 1.) In November 2012, Miller was elected to the Board. (Id. at 2.) Miller is either an owner or employee of SJI Inc. t/a Westwood Truck Center (Westwood Truck Center). (See ibid.; Mot. to Dismiss.) On February 20, 2004, on behalf of Westwood Truck Center, Miller submitted a bid for a vehicle maintenance contract to the Board.[2] (Pet. 2.) The Board awarded the contract to Westwood Truck Center, which has provided vehicle maintenance services to the Board ever since. (Ibid.) Miller signed all documents related to that contract, on behalf of Westwood Truck Center, and was the designated bidder. (Ibid.) The parties agree that "[a]t all time[s] during the contractual relationship between the Board and Westwood Truck Center, Miller was the sole individual who dealt with the Board on all business matters. Miller signed all business vouchers for payment of services rendered by Westwood Truck Center for the Board." (See ibid.; Answer.) During the 2013 election campaign, Miller presented himself as an "owner and operator of the Westwood Truck Center."[3] (Ibid.)

[1] The relevant facts in this matter are entirely undisputed, though Miller disputes a number of irrelevant facts. (See Answer.) For the sake of completeness, such irrelevant, but contested, facts are footnoted.

Before Miller assumed his membership on the Board, the Board secretary, Keith A. Rosado (Rosado), informed Miller that unless Westwood Truck Center rescinded the contract, Miller had an impermissible conflict of interest that precluded his membership on the Board. (Ibid.) Miller responded, "there would be no issue due to the fact I do not own the company." (Answer 2.) Accordingly, the Board requested, and Miller submitted, documentation that purported to establish Miller does not own Westwood Truck Center. (Pet. 4-5.) Subsequently, but before resolving the conflict-of-interest issue, Miller certified that he was eligible for membership on the Board, and was sworn in on January 3, 2013. (Id. at 5.)

In reply, Miller provided additional factual assertions, which underscore the proper resolution of this matter. (Answer 3.) First, he generally asserts that he had the authority to terminate the contract with the Board on behalf of Westwood Truck Center,

[2] Miller alleges that the contractual relationship between the Board and Westwood Truck Center dates back even earlier, to 1997. (Answer 1.) Furthermore, he asserts that he does not recall whether he personally submitted the bid. (Ibid.)

but that the Board refused to allow him to cancel the contract. (Ibid.) Specifically, he asserts:

> [P]rior to the reorganization meeting, I was seated in the Board room with [Rosado], [Rodney T. Hara, another board member], and the balance of the seated board. This problem was discussed and at that point, to avoid this situation, I volunteered the termination of the contract. In an email from [Rosado] (included), [Rosado] states: "Due to the fact that Westwood Regional BOE has been doing business with Westwood Truck Center for [sic] since 1997 and that you have been the sole contact of said business it has been an understanding that ownership lied [sic] directly with you." I have been the sole contact since 1997 and that indicates that I am the representative for [Westwood Truck Center]. This also indicates that I was the person who approved the current contract and would be the person who would terminate the contract. [Hara] refused me the opportunity. [Hara] also answered his own question if I was [sic] an interest. [Hara] instructed me that if I claim to have no interest, I cannot surrender the contract. At that point this issue could have been resolved. Either I am the interest [sic] and will surrender the contract, or I have no authority to do so, the reason being I am not an interest [sic]. It is also very disappointing that [Rosado] and [Hara] do not understand the basics of a family business. That concept that I was unable to make a decision on behalf of the company by [Hara] is very insulting. [Hara] has no influence on the company where I am employed.

Additionally, Miller asserts, "[m]y offer still stands that the company will offer to surrender the contract with no prejudice. If there is no prohibited act present, when the contract comes out for bid again, the Westwood Truck Center will rebid it." (Ibid.)

Second, Miller generally asserts that any financial gain he might receive from the contract is de minimis. (Ibid.) Specifically, he asserts that the Westwood Truck Center financial records reveal that "the amount of revenue from [the Board] is about one and one half of a percent of the operation. This also translates to about one tenth of one percent of [the Board's] operating budget. The possible financial gain, if there was one, is very limited." (Ibid.)

PARTIES' ARGUMENTS

Both Miller and the Board appear to argue that the dispositive issue is whether Miller "owns" Westwood Truck Center. (See Pet.; Answer.) Miller additionally argues that "N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24, prohibited acts[,] is a much more accurate statute in this circumstance. Again, the documents that were provided validate that nobody in my immediate family has any interest in [Westwood Truck Center], removing the possibility of prohibited acts between [Westwood Truck Center] and [the Board]." (Answer 3.) Miller explains that "[e]ven if I had an interest in the company, I had to the minute that I was being sworn in to surrender that interest. As long as I surrender the interest to anybody but my immediate family, there would be no conflict. [N.J.S.A.] 18A:12-24 is explicit." (Ibid.)

TESTIMONY

Keith Rosado

Keith Rosado has been employed by the Westwood Board of Education as the business administrator and Board secretary since January 1, 2007. As Board secretary he maintains records related to the Board and minutes of Board meetings. As administrator he is responsible for the finances of the district and maintains all of the contracts the district has with providers.

Rosado testified that respondent was the lead representative for Westwood Truck, the company that services all the district vehicles, and he believed respondent to be the owner. Westwood Truck submitted a Time and Material Bid for maintenance of vehicles in the district (P-1) which was signed by respondent as the representative for SJI, t/a Westwood Truck Center. Respondent also signed the affidavit of non-collusion as president, and under the list of owners indicated that he owned 100 percent of the company. He also signed the affirmative-action questionnaire as president, and the contract was ultimately awarded to SJI.

There were five years of renewals of the contract for services for the repair and maintenance of district vehicles. (P-2.) All of the purchase orders and signed vouchers for the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 budget years were signed and submitted by respondent. (P-4; P-5; P-6; P-7.) As the school administrator he dealt with respondent only, who was the sole contact person.

In November 2012 there was a school board election at which respondent was a candidate for the Board. Rosado testified that he spoke to respondent about his candidacy and about the conflict, and indicated that he advised respondent that if he were to win election, there would be a conflict of interest, and that he could either keep the contract or keep the seat on the Board. During the election respondent held himself out to the public as the owner of the truck company (P-8), and eventually won election to a seat on the nine-member board. The Board is comprised of five members from Westwood and four from Washington Township, Bergen County.

Rosado testified to an email he received from respondent on November 30, 2012, (P-9) wherein respondent indicates he has "no interest" in SJI. Rosado believed this was something they needed to investigate, as respondent had been listed as owner on all of the paperwork that the district had. Rosado responded to respondent's email (P-10) indicating that he would need more information regarding stockholder equity and breakdown of ownership percentages. Respondent thereafter replied with an email purporting to attach his certificate of incorporation; however, the document was actually captioned at the top as a "corporation status sheet" and was unsigned. It indicated that SJI was incorporated October 29, 1981, and that Robert Miller is the incorporator and owns 100 shares. (P-11.) Rosado testified, however, that respondent had signed the notarized affidavit of non-collusion as president and the affirmative-action questionnaire as owner. Also, the bid documents that respondent submitted all indicated he was 100 percent owner. A series of emails ensued (P-12, P-13, P-14 & P-15) whereby Rosado requested corporate and individual tax returns, which he did not receive. Schedule G of a 2010 tax return was provided and respondent was asked for additional information and more detail. He ultimately provided his 2011 Form 1040 and one page of the corporation tax return from 2010, neither of which was signed and neither of which resolved the ownership issue. By this time, however, respondent had been elected to the Board as of November 2012. Rosado again asked via email for form E from the corporate return, which he believed would list ownership, and ultimately received a Schedule E with no indication as to what year it was for, although it appeared to be for the 2000–2001 tax year. Nothing else was provided by respondent. (P-16.) Rosado testified that this information did not match the information they had already regarding who was president and owner, which respondent had previously certified to. Indeed, this information contradicted the documents that respondent had submitted in connection with the bidding process.

Rosado testified that an executive session was convened before the Board meeting on January 3, 2013, and the Board felt that respondent should not take the oath at that meeting, but should wait until the second meeting in January. Ownership could be clarified in the interim, and the contract terminated if respondent still owned the company. Rosado testified that respondent was asked to wait to be sworn in; however, respondent did not wish to wait, and as such took the oath of office at the January 3, 2013, reorganization meeting. (P-17.) Nothing was ever received from respondent's father, who respondent claimed was the owner of the company, disavowing the contract. Additional purchase orders and signed vouchers were submitted covering the period of time from February 25, 2013, through August 21, 2013 (P-18), during which period respondent was a sitting member of the Board. The purchase orders and vouchers were submitted by respondent and signed by him and the conflict was never resolved.

Ultimately, on January 24, 2013, a resolution was passed authorizing the township attorney to petition the Commissioner of Education for a declaratory ruling as to the existence of a conflict. (P-19.) This was the meeting the Board wanted respondent to wait for before being sworn in, but respondent declined to do so. The contract with SJI ended on June 30, 2013.

On August 29, 2013, the Board approved an interlocal agreement between the district and the Borough of Westwood for the repair and maintenance of district vehicles, and the Board felt that this resolved the conflict. (P-20.)

Carol Mountain

Carol Mountain has been a trustee of the Westwood Board of Education for ten years and at the 2012 election was elected president of the Board of Education. She was aware of the concerns regarding the conflict that she believes precluded respondent from being a Board member. Mountain testified that she had seen the contracts before and had to approve them, and knew respondent was the owner of SJI. He always represented himself as the owner, and when respondent was on the ballot she knew they would have a conflict.

Mountain testified that during the election respondent held himself out as owner and operator of SJI (P-8), and ultimately the documents they requested of him were untimely and did not answer their questions. She could not understand the delay in resolving this issue, which she articulated to Rosado. Mountain indicated that the Board was extremely conscious of ethical standards and Board policy because they had just been through a difficult and public removal of the superintendent and a huge public outcry. She wanted to be sure that they were complying with all ethical standards and did not want to seat someone with a conflict of interest. She testified that it was unclear to the Board and they wanted to be sure; however, respondent wanted to be seated at the reorganization meeting. The Board unanimously felt he should wait, but ultimately they wanted a ruling from the Commissioner. She testified that the Board discussed the conflict at a closed session and respondent offered to "suspend" the contract and then offered to rescind it, all the while indicating he did not own SJI, and so the Board did not understand how he could then rescind the contract. Mountain indicated that respondent could have addressed the conflict before the meeting later in January and choose not to. He was given the opportunity to provide documents from his father, who he indicated owned the company, so that the contract could be disavowed, but he never did so. She stated that she believes that if Miller's father had been able to disavow the contract and did so, that would have resolved the conflict.

Russell Miller

Russell Miller testified that he made sure he had no interest in the company. He manages and maintains it and handles all municipal contracts. He testified that at the reorganization meeting he offered to terminate the contract. He indicated that he continued to service the district vehicles so that they had coverage, but that he is only a salaried employee and not an owner. Miller stated that he signed all of the other documents as president and owner to "facilitate things," because his father is often away, but indicated he did not do so "with malice." He testified that the labor provided to the district vehicles is at cost, and that they only mark up parts, and, as such, are performing a service to the community. He also testified that they service the ambulances and fire trucks at no charge to the municipality. Miller testified that he knows he should not have signed documents as owner and president. He also agreed that he never provided any documents to the Board to indicate that he had the authority to cancel the contract, and knew there was a question regarding ownership. He agrees that he was given the chance to provide documentation. Miller testified that it was suggested that he defer taking the oath so that the contract could be cancelled, but he did not agreed to that because he "shouldn't have had to." He felt that there was no problem and no conflict, and that is why he voted for the resolution to seek clarification from the Commissioner. Miller agreed that he represented himself to the public as the owner and operator of SJI.

DISCUSSION

I. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 governs this dispute, because the New Jersey Supreme Court squarely held that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 imposed ongoing qualifications for membership on a board of education, and the provisions of the later-enacted School Ethics Act do not supersede N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2.

The applicable statute provides that "[n]o member of any board of education shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract with or claim against the board . . . ." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. Therefore, "in rather plain language, the statute sets out clear prohibitions against board members having inconsistent claims against the board, interests in contracts with the board, and specific office-holding." Bd. of Educ. of Sea Isle City v. Kennedy, 196 N.J. 1, 13 (2008). Clearly, "the Legislature intended that no one be permitted to commence their service in office as a local board of education member without swearing that he or she meets all qualifications for office at the time of taking office." Id. at 13–14. Nevertheless, the New Jersey Supreme Court has noted that "a qualification to assume office does not necessarily equate to a required forfeiture of office when a like issue arises during the term of a sitting member." Ibid.

The School Ethics Act (SEA) governs the conduct of sitting board members. See N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22. While the requirements of the SEA and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 largely overlap, the SEA appears to be more lenient. Cf. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24; N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. For example, while N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 creates a blanket prohibition on even indirect interests in claims against the board, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 provides that "[n]othing shall prohibit any school official, or members of his immediate family, from representing himself, or themselves, in negotiations or proceedings concerning his, or their, own interests." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(j). Similarly, while N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 appears to create a blanket prohibition on even indirect interests in contracts with the board, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a) provides that "[n]o school official or member of his immediate family shall have an interest in a business organization or engage in any business, transaction, or professional activity, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest." The same regulation further prohibits a school official from acting "in his official capacity in any matter where he, a member of his immediate family, or a business organization in which he has an interest, has a direct or indirect financial involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment," or "in any matter where he or a member of his immediate family has a personal involvement that is or creates some benefit to the school official or member of his immediate family." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Accordingly, the enactment of the SEA suggests that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 merely outlines threshold requirements for membership on a board, while the SEA outlines the ongoing obligations of board members. Cf. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22; N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. In Sea Isle, the Court addressed this ambiguity with respect to the prohibition on inconsistent claims. Sea Isle, supra, 196 N.J. at 17. After a board member filed a special-education claim against the board on behalf of his son, the board petitioned for a declaratory ruling that such claim created an impermissible conflict of interest in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, which required the board member's removal. The board member argued that by enacting the SEA, the Legislature intended "for board members to be able to represent their personal interests in 'negotiations and proceedings' involving their school boards. However, by treating N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 as an ongoing and absolute requirement for sitting board members, the Commissioner rendered N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(j) inapplicable for board members." Id. at 11. The board member urged that "[e]ither the later N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(j) could be read to have impliedly repealed N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, or the later-enacted statute could be read in pari materia with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, in which case N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(j) would require that his conduct be held not to constitute a disqualifying conflict of interest under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2." Ibid. First, the Court noted that numerous administrative decisions that addressed N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 > demonstrate a willingness to engage in a careful examination of a board member's asserted conflicting interest in a claim against a board and, further, to find that not all claims in which a board member has an interest constitute a "substantial conflict" requiring removal from office as the sole remedy.

The Court noted that "[r]ead broadly, the later-enacted SEA could contradict N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2's interest in prohibiting substantial conflicting claims that pit a board member's interest in a claim against the interests of the board." Ibid. Nevertheless, the Court concluded that "the two statutes are readily capable of being harmonized." Id. at 17. The Court explained that the Legislature's approval of a board member's right "to pursue resolution of some personal issues, interests, or disagreements with a school district through negotiations and even 'proceedings' is not repugnant to the earlier recognition by the Commissioner that not all 'claims' against a board will require disqualification and removal from office under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2." Ibid. Therefore, the Court characterized "the SEA's exemption as a legislative expansion of that previously recognized, limited case-law exception to the rule against inconsistent claims." Ibid. Accordingly, the Court held that "a board member should not be removed from office merely because he or she has advanced any claim 'in a proceeding' against a school district involving that individual or an immediate family member's interests." Id. at 17–

18. Rather, "[s]ubstantial, disqualifying conflicts of interest should be identified either by type of claim, i.e. specific monetary claims by the member or a family member as in a tort claim, or by type of proceeding." Id. at 18. Finally, the Court concluded that "[u]ltimately, however, the line between acceptable and prohibited activities by board members, in respect of the advancement of personal or a family member's interests in proceedings against a board of education, may be resolved through the prism of a fact-specific inquiry." Ibid. Because that specific claim included a claim for "substantial monetary relief," the Court concluded that removal was appropriate. Id. at 22.

Here, Miller claims that "N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24, prohibited acts[,] is a much more accurate statute in this circumstance. Again, the documents that were provided validate that nobody in my immediate family has any interest in [Westwood Truck Center], removing the possibility of prohibited acts between [Westwood Truck Center] and [the Board]." (Answer 3.) Miller explains that "[e]ven if I had an interest in the company, I had to the minute that I was being sworn in to surrender that interest. As long as I surrender the interest to anybody but my immediate family, there would be no conflict. [N.J.S.A.] 18A:12-24 is explicit." (Ibid.) Miller is apparently referencing N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a), as he focuses on the term "immediate family." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23. Indeed, while Miller fails to cite such, the SEA defines an "interest" as "the ownership or control of more than 10% of the profits, assets, or stock of a business but shall not include the control of assets in a labor union." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23. However, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 provides that "[n]o school official or member of his immediate family shall have an interest in a business organization or engage in any business, transaction, or professional activity, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a) (emphasis added). Assuming, arguendo, that Miller divested any ownership interest in Westwood Truck Center, the SEA further prohibits Miller from engaging "in any business, transaction, or professional activity, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a). The parties agree that Miller is engaged in the business of Westwood Truck Center, either as an owner or employee. (See Pet.; Answer.) Moreover, the regulations further provide that he may not act "in his official capacity in any matter where he . . . has a direct or indirect financial involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment," or "in any matter where he or a member of his immediate family has a personal involvement that is or creates some benefit to the school official or member of his immediate family." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Presumably, employment with a vendor qualifies as a "direct or indirect financial involvement" and "creates some benefit to the school official." See ibid. Therefore, even if N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 controlled this matter, rather than N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, I FIND that Miller's employment with Westwood Truck Center creates a conflict of interest.

II. Miller had an impermissible conflict of interest, because Miller is indisputably either an owner or employee of Westwood Truck Center, and because the specific facts of this case suggest an impermissible conflict of interest whether Miller is a an owner or mere employee.

Moreover, as with claims against a board, the Legislature's apparently more lenient approach in the SEA "is not repugnant to the earlier recognition by the Commissioner that not all [contracts with] a board will require disqualification and removal from office under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2." Ibid. For example, administrative decisions have concluded that a board member's employer's successful bid on a contract with the board violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. See Oehlke v. Tewksbury Twp. Bd. of Educ., 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 792, 797. In Oehlke, a board member was employed as a bus driver with a bus company that bid on a contract with the board. Notably, the contract was not awarded until after the board member was elected to his seat. In modifying the Commissioner of Education's (Commissioner's) final decision, the State Board of Education (State Board) concluded that "the prohibition under the statute was not, as the Commissioner conclude[d], respondent's employment with a bus company bidding for contracts with the Board. Rather, it was his employment with the bus company once it was actually under contract with the Board." Ibid. The State Board explained that > [n]otwithstanding any possible constraints on respondent's conduct as a board member while his employer pursued a transportation contract therewith, he was not subject to potential disqualification from service on the Board under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 until such time as [the bus company] and the Board entered into a contractual relationship, in which respondent had a direct interest.

[Ibid.]

Nevertheless, the State Board agreed with the Commissioner that "pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, the conflict in [that] case was of such a substantial, material and pervasive nature as to disqualify [the bus driver] from continued service on the Board." Ibid. Finally, the State Board noted that "it is evident from the express and unambiguous language of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 that a board member may not continue in office if he or she has a conflict prohibited thereunder. Id. at 798.

However, the State Board later clarified that Oehlke did not create a per se rule prohibiting board members' employment with contractual vendors, but rather, a fact-sensitive inquiry. Bd. of Educ. of Union v. Andrews, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 350, 351. In Andrews, the State Board explained that "[c]ontrary to the Commissioner's assertion, Oehlke does not stand for the proposition that employment as a bus driver with a transportation company under contract with a district board automatically renders such employee ineligible for board membership pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2." Ibid. Rather, the State Board explained, "[o]ur decision in Oehlke was expressly predicated upon the particular facts therein following a hearing in the Office of Administrative Law." Ibid. The State Board noted that in Oehlke, the ALJ found that > the respondent board member therein worked as a school bus driver for the company which was the successful bidder for the board's transportation contract. At the time, the respondent "additionally held the significant position of power as President of the Board. He neither withdrew from his employment nor totally abstained from all participation in deliberations which affected his employer." The ALJ found that respondent had participated in discussions "which no doubt influenced colleague votes, especially as they related to school transportation issues." The ALJ further found that various members of the board's transportation committee asked respondent questions and sought his advice and suggestions concerning route alignments. In addition, the ALJ found that respondent allowed the use of his farm property within the township for the storage of the company's buses.

The State Board emphasized that "our determination disqualifying the respondent [in Oehlke] from board membership was expressly predicated on the particular facts established in that case, including respondent's position and leadership responsibilities on the board and the manner in which he had exercised such responsibilities." Ibid. Accordingly, the State Board remanded the case to the Commissioner "to determine whether Andrews had an inconsistent interest under the particular facts of this case of such a 'substantial, material and pervasive nature' as to disqualify her from membership on the Board." Ibid.[4]

Additionally, the Commissioner has found a disqualifying interest arising from a landlord/tenant contract with a board. Thomas v. Edwards, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 369. In Thomas, the owner and operator of a private day-care center, located in a building owned by the board, filed a petition for candidacy for election to that board. Id. at 371. Accordingly, a potentially disqualifying conflict arose from the landlord/tenant contract (lease) between the day-care-center owner and the board. Ibid. The day-care-center owner argued, among other things, that "although the conflict of interest does exist, it is not one that is substantial and material which would preclude her candidacy for election or disqualification as a board member. As a result, it does not have the effect of an automatic disqualification upon the existence of a conflict." Ibid. Specifically, the day-care-center owner conceded that the lease was a commercial contract, but argued that the lease did "not really take the form of the type of commercial contract contemplated by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 since the intended focus of that section involves contracts that have been awarded and which bestow special economic advantage on an individual." Ibid. The ALJ stated that he failed "to understand the logic behind that argument. School boards of education are not allowed to lease their premises at a loss." Id. at 372. Rather, he noted that "a leasehold agreement is the type of contract contemplated in N.J.S.A. 18A:18-2(c), which defines contracts as meaning 'contracts or agreements for the performance of work or for the furnishing or hiring of services, materials or supplies as distinguished from contracts of employment.'" Ibid. The day-care-center owner's argument that the lease did "not confer upon her special advantage begs the question. She maintains an ongoing contract with the BOE to maintain her day care enterprise at the Garfield School. This is precisely the type of activity which is prohibited by a school board member and, as indicated hereinabove, serves as an automatic bar to election to the Board." Ibid. The ALJ further noted that in Oehlke, "the only viable solution was removal from service as a board member so long as the conflict continued. Abstention from transportation-related types of questions as a board member did not satisfy that requirement." Ibid. He noted that as in Oehlke, it was "easy to envision any number of potential issues which could come up for Board consideration which could reasonably impact upon the Landlord Tenant relationship which presently exist[ed] between the Board and Edwards." Ibid. He emphasized that "[b]oards of education need fully functional board members. Under the facts of this case, Edwards's participation would seriously and potentially compromise the Board from exercising that function." Finally, he noted that "the opportunities for the appearance of impropriety due to the conflict are so replete that Edwards's participation on the Board under such circumstances would constitute a disservice to herself as well as to the community at large." Ibid. In affirming the Initial Decision, the Commissioner expressly agreed that the day-care-center-owner's lease created a disqualifying conflict, "as the factors affecting the contract to which she is a party . . . are so inherently widespread and diffuse as to make it difficult, if not impossible, to adequately remove herself by absention [sic] from actual or potential conflict." Ibid.

[4] The parties settled the matter after the remand was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, but prior to an Initial Decision on remand.

Most recently, and perhaps most strikingly, the Commissioner has found a disqualifying conflict of interest arising from a contract to pay individualized retirement benefits. Saxton v. Luthman, EDU 898-08, Initial Decision (March 5, 2008), adopted, Comm'r (March 14, 2008), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. The board argued that the collective bargaining agreement and the individual retirement contract were "binding contracts, such that if the [b]oard failed to pay, pursuant to the terms, then [the potential candidate for board membership] would have the right to sue the [b]oard." The matter could not be cured by the board impermissibly accelerating payments pursuant to the retirement contract, in order to complete performance of the contract prior to the election. Moreover, the only other way the conflict could be cured was if the retiree waived the remaining payments, which the retiree refused to do. The retiree argued that the contract was merely "'an agreement'; and that the conflict is remote, in that the conflict would not arise unless the Board failed to pay him pursuant to the terms of what he calls 'only an agreement.'" The retiree argued that if the board failed to perform, "he would resign from the Board and then file suit against the Board." The ALJ concluded that the retiree was "not eligible to be a candidate for the [b]oard at the April 2008 election because of an impermissible conflict of interest which deem[ed] him unqualified ab initio and to which cannot be cured prior to the election or prior to the respondent being sworn, if elected."

Here, the parties' mutual confusion over the applicable law and misguided focus on the ownership issue presents a unique factual predicament. (See Pet.; Answer.) Certainly, the contract between Westwood Truck Center and the Board was a commercial contract that presented a disqualifying conflict of interest for Miller, whether he is an owner or merely an employee. See Oehlke, supra, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) at 797; Andrews, supra, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) at 351. To the extent that Miller argues that the contract bestowed a de minimis financial benefit to him, such argument was rejected in prior case law. Thomas, supra, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) at 372. Whether Miller is an owner or merely an employee, he has negotiated contracts with the Board on behalf of Westwood Truck Center since at least 2004, or, as he asserts, 1997. (See Pet.; Answer.) Moreover, throughout his Answer and Motion to Dismiss, Miller insisted that he had the authority to rescind the contract. (See Answer; Mot. to Dismiss.) Indeed, attached to his Motion to Dismiss is a candid series of emails between Miller and counsel for the Board, in which Miller writes:

> [t]he Westwood Truck Center has been taking care of the [Board's] equipment from somewhere around 1997. Never has there been an issue with anything that has transpired between the [Board] and [Westwood Truck Center]. Many times we have done favors for the [Board], such as when you need to purchase parts from a vendor not on your list. We have purchased them, and passed on the invoice, without the negotiated fifty percent markup. Every . . . time Dean sends somebody down to see if we just happen to have something laying around, and it is here and we give it to you is very convenient. When the [Board] was "broke" in the early 2000's, we gave the [Board] a truck that was used for about 12 years. We saved the [Board] a ton of money getting rid of hundreds of old computers. Nobody in the area ever bids against us and we are the only shop in the area > that can handle all the needs of the [Board]. The additional costs in transportation alone to get repairs done would be ill-spent monies. Before you spite me, think about what you are trying to accomplish. The comment at the last board meeting that "I can still get out" was not proper. The [Board] would be at a loss without the service of this shop. If you think that the relationship between [Westwood Truck Center] and the [Board] in any way would change, you need to look in the mirror and see the only place a change would take place.

> [Answer.]

Miller's email vividly illustrates his conflict. Whether owner or mere employee, Miller repeatedly refers to Westwood Truck Center with the first person plural pronoun "we." He references repeated "favors" Westwood Truck Center has done for the Board, and seems to insinuate that the Board owes Westwood Truck Center (or Miller, personally) impermissible favors in return. Indeed, the reference to purchasing parts from an unapproved vendor through Westwood Truck Center at least suggests that Miller believes that Westwood Truck Center and the Board have conspired together in unlawful conduct. Miller's assertion that Westwood Truck Center is the only viable bidder for contracts with the Board, and his further assertion that the Board would be materially disadvantaged by Westwood Truck Center's decision not to bid on such contracts, only emphasizes the extremity of the conflict. Finally, the remaining sentences appear to be a thinly veiled threat for the Board to accept his membership, or suffer the loss of a valuable commercial contract.

This disturbing email may illustrate why mere rescission of the contract may not have been an option in this case. See Luthman, supra, EDU 898-08, Initial Decision, <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. Typically, Westwood Truck Center could have rescinded the contract, prior to Miller being sworn, thereby curing any conflict for Miller. See ibid. Indeed, Miller asserts that he offered to rescind the contract. (Answer; Mot. to Dismiss.) However, both parties mistakenly believed that Miller's ownership of Westwood Truck Center was dispositive. (See Pet.; Answer.) Accordingly, counsel for the Board apparently believed that either Miller had the authority to rescind the contract, in which case he had an incurable conflict, or did not have the authority to rescind the contract, in which case he had no conflict, regardless of his employment status. (See Pet.; Answer.) Rather, I FIND that Miller unquestionably had both a conflict of interest and the authority to rescind the contract, curing such conflict. See Luthman, supra, EDU 898-08, Initial Decision, <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. Here, however, the Board may have been materially prejudiced by such rescission, as is so disturbingly illustrated by Miller's email. (See Answer). Nevertheless, Miller certainly had an impermissible conflict of interest, whether he was an owner or merely an employee of Westwood Truck Center. See Oehlke, supra, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) at 797.

In the Oehlke matter, the State Board concluded:

> [w]e therefore conclude that, although respondent was qualified for service on the Board at the time of his election thereto, he subsequently had an inconsistent interest pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 when Fleming's entered into a contractual relationship with the Board, and that the conflict under the facts in this particular case was of such nature as to disqualify him from continued service as a member of that Board. Accordingly, with the modification indicated herein, we affirm the Commissioner's ultimate determination which required that respondent either cure the conflict by giving up his position as a driver for the bus company under contract with the Board or forfeit his seat on the Board.
> [Id. at 798 (emphasis added).]

The within matter presents a converse situation, in that the conflict was mooted by virtue of the contract expiring on June 30, 2013, rather than arising during the course of Miller's term. The same logic articulated in the State Board Decision in Oehlke, however, applies. Specifically, a board member only has a duty to cure a conflict of interest, so long as a current conflict of interest exists. Once the conflict is mooted, the duty to cure is mooted.

CONCLUSION

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 governs this dispute, because the New Jersey Supreme Court squarely held that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 imposed ongoing qualifications for membership on a board of education, and the provisions of the later-enacted School Ethics Act do not supersede N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. Based upon all of the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that Miller had an impermissible, disqualifying conflict of interest as of the moment he was sworn in as a Board member, because he was indisputably either an owner or employee of Westwood Truck Center, and because the specific facts of this case suggest that an impermissible conflict of interest existed whether Miller is an owner or merely an employee. I FURTHER CONCLUDE that the disqualifying conflict of interest pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 was cured, and thereby mooted, once the contract terminated on June 30, 2013. After that date, no conflict of interest existed, and, as such, I CONCLUDE that Miller is not required to forfeit his seat on the Board.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal challenging the respondent Board's determination that E.H. and J.H. were not entitled to a free public education in the Township of North Brunswick schools for the period between October 2011 and February 2013. Petitioner asserted that he is domiciled in respondent's school district, but had been evicted from his former apartment in North Brunswick and sublet a one bedroom apartment – also in North Brunswick – where he lived during most of the above period. Petitioner further claimed that his two older sons sometimes spent part of the week sleeping at a friend's home in another town because the one bedroom apartment was too crowded for the family. The respondent Board contended that petitioner did not reside in the school district, and sought tuition reimbursement for the 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 school years.

The ALJ found that: based on the documents submitted by the petitioner and his credible testimony at hearing, E.H. resided within the North Brunswick school district, in a sublet apartment, during much of the period at issue here, and has resided in an apartment on Georges Road in North Brunswick since October 2012. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that petitioner's children are entitled to a free public education in North Brunswick schools, and that E.H. is not liable for tuition to the North Brunswick school district. The ALJ ordered the within counterclaim for tuition dismissed with prejudice.

Upon review of the record and the Initial Decision, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the petitioner established that his children were entitled to attend school in the North Brunswick School District between October 2011 and February 2013. BEFORE MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN, ALJ:

Petitioner appeals the residency determination of respondent Board of Education of the Township of North Brunswick, Middlesex County (Board of District) with regard to minor children E.H. and J.H. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on March 9, 2012 and hearing held on December 3, 2012 and May 23, 2013, on which date the record closed. For good cause, extensions of time to file the initial decision were granted nunc pro tunc until February 20, 2014. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c); N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8.

ISSUE

Whether the children were eligible to attend the North Brunswick Township School District free of charge, between October 2011 and February 2013, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b). If not, what amount of tuition is owed to the District?

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

The District presented Greg Maurer, the residency investigator, who investigated the residency of petitioner's children E.H. and J. H. On October 4, 2011, Maurer waited in the Parsons School's parking lot and observed E.H. pick-up one of the children after school. Then, E.H. and his son entered an apartment building on Laurel Place. Shortly thereafter, the father and child left the building, drove off in a red Mustang and parked near Linwood School. (R-1). The next day, Maurer observed the Mustang parked outside the Laurel Place apartment building. Maurer spent the next several days observing the site. (R-1.) On October 11, 2011, Maurer spoke with a resident of the building, who told him that E.H. also lived in the building. On October 18, 2011, Maurer entered E.H.'s apartment and Maurer observed two mattresses on the floor. E.H. informed Maurer that he and his wife had recently moved into the one bedroom apartment with their three children. E.H. also told Maurer that some nights his sons, E.H. and J.H., stay with friends in Franklin Township due to the small and crowded apartment. (R-1.) E.H. could not provide any proof of tenancy, e.g. lease, utility bills. (R-1.) Further investigation revealed that the apartment was leased to A.G. and managed by Midlantic Property Management, Inc. (R-1).

Susan Irons is employed by the District as the Business Administrator and Board Secretary. The District is seeking tuition for E.H. for school year 2011-2012 in the amount of $9,452.04 and for school year 2012-2013 in the amount of $10,000. Irons also provided a detailed account of daily rates. (R-2.) With regard to J.H., the District is seeking tuition for school year 2011-2012 in the amount of $9,624.04 and for school year 2012-2013 in the amount of $10,000. (R-3.)

E.H. testified that he suffered a "financial set-back" and the family was evicted from their prior apartment on Parson Road in North Brunswick in 2008. Since then, he rented a one bedroom apartment at Laurel Place from a friend, who held the lease. E.H., his wife and the three children sleep on two mattresses, which Maurer had observed on the floor. E.H. acknowledged that several times per week, perhaps three, the older boys, E.H. and J.H. spend the night with a friend in Franklin Township because their apartment was too small. However, the family never separated and lived in the one bedroom apartment on Laurel Place, North Brunswick. At the hearing on May 23, E.H. further testified that in October 2012, the family moved to an apartment on Georges Road, North Brunswick.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

Attendance at public schools shall be free to any person who meets the requirements set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. A child who is domiciled within the school district and satisfies other requirements may attend the public schools free of charge. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). If the board of education denies admission to the child, the resident or parent may contest that determination and has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence to establish that the child meets the requirements for eligibility. If the evidence does not support the claim, the parent shall be assessed tuition for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance within the district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2).

A person may have many residences but only one domicile. Somerville Bd. of Educ. v. Manville Bd. of Educ., 332 N.J. Super. 6, 12 (App. Div. 2000), aff'd, 167 N.J. 55 (2001). A child's domicile is normally that of his or her parents. Ibid. Indeed, the domicile of a minor child follows that of his parents. See V.R. on behalf of A.R. v. Bd. of Ed. of Hamburg, 2 N.J.A.R. 283, 286.

The domicile of a person is the place where he has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning, and from which he has no present intention of moving. In re Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374 (Law Div. 1991), aff'd, 311 N.J. Super. 589 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 157 N.J. 541 (1998), cert. denied, 526 U.S. 1051, 119 S. Ct. 1357, 143 L. Ed. 2d 518 (1999). Specifically, a person's domicile "is the place where a person dwells and which is the center of his domestic, social and civil life." Ibid. (citations omitted). Acquiring another residence does not result in a person having multiple domiciles. Id. at 375. Although the person's intent with respect to domicile is very important, there needs to be objective indicia that a particular residence is that person's domicile. Id. at 376. Also important where a person has more than one residence are the following factors: "the physical characteristics of each [place], the time spent and the things done in each place, the other persons found there, the person's mental attitude towards each place, and whether there is or is not an intention, when absent, to return." Mercadante v. City of Paterson, 111 N.J. Super. 35, 39-40 (Ch. Div. 1970), aff'd, 58 N.J. 112 (1971).

Here, E.H. was evicted from his former residence and sublet a one bedroom apartment in North Brunswick for purposes of establishing a home for his family; not for the purposes of his children receiving a free public education in North Brunswick. While E.H.'s two older sons might spend a portion of the week sleeping at a friend's home located in another town, petitioner credibly testified the arrangement was made because of the crowded living situation in the one bedroom apartment on Laurel Place. I am also mindful that respondent submitted documents revealing that E.H. was a subtenant at Laurel Place and the landlord had served A.G. (the lessee) a notice to cease the overcrowding property, dated December 21, 2011. However, the record does not reveal how that situation was resolved. Nevertheless, I am persuaded by the evidence presented by petitioner.

Therefore, I FIND that E.H. resides in North Brunswick as do his children E.H. and J.H.

Based on the whole of the record, I CONCLUDE that E.H. satisfied the residency requirements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 18A:38-1(b)1. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that E.H. is not liable for tuition to the District.

ORDER

I ORDER that the District's claim for payment of tuition is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons set forth in the recommended Order – that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This case shall proceed to a plenary hearing at the OAL to determine the underlying claim on the merits.

BEFORE ELIA A. PELIOS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner seeks an order on emergent relief compelling respondent to undergo a psychological evaluation with petitioner's chosen psychologist.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 7, 2014, petitioners' petition of appeal was filed with the Office of Controversies and Disputes of the New Jersey Department of Education, along with a request for emergency relief seeking an order compelling respondent to undergo the sought-after psychological evaluation. On February 11, 2014, the emergent matter was filed along with the due process request with the Office of Administrative Law. The emergent relief request was scheduled for oral argument, which was held on February 20, 2014.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Claudine Hayes (respondent) is a tenured teacher of the handicapped employed by the Camden City School District (petitioner). On December 11, 2013 an incident occurred, which resulted in respondent being transported during the school day away from the school by EMT. Subsequent to the incident, petitioner directed respondent to undergo a mental health fitness for duty evaluation with its chosen psychologist. Respondent did not appeal the directive and on January 9, 2014 respondent reported to the office of petitioner's chosen psychologist, Dr. Jennifer Kelly. While at Dr. Kelly's office, respondent was presented with three forms to sign, including a release of medical records. Respondent refused to sign the forms. After discussions between the parties' respective counsel failed to resolve the matter, on January 17, 2014, respondent communicated her preference that the evaluation be conducted by the psychologist of her choosing, Dr. Steven Barnett. The district rejected the choice of Dr. Barnett on January 28, 2014, and reiterated its position that petitioner must be examined by Dr. Kelly and that respondent must sign the requested release, regardless of who conducted the examination. Petitioner offered to enter into an agreement whereby it waived its ability to see any records provided to Dr. Kelly and only receive the final report. Respondent rejected this offer.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The standards which must be met by the moving party in an application for emergent relief in a matter concerning a special needs child are embodied in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6 and Crowe v. DeGoia, 90 N.J. 126, 132-34 (1982). Emergency relief may only be granted if the judge determines that:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the relief is not granted;
2. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled;
3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

The petitioner must satisfy all four prongs of the Crowe test.

N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2(b) provides in pertinent part that, "[t]he Board may require individual psychiatric or physical examinations of any employee, whenever, in the judgment of the Board, an employee shows evidence of deviation from normal physical or mental health." N.J.S.A. 18A:16-3 states:

> Any such examination may be made by a physician or institution designated by the Board, in which case the cost thereof. . . shall be borne by the Board or, at the option of the employee, they may be made by a physician or institution of his own choosing, approved by the board, in which case said examination shall be made at the employee's expense.

The parties do not dispute that the district can require that the psychological examination be conducted, and that one must now occur.

Petitioner argues that petitioner and its students will suffer irreparable harm if emergent relief is not granted in that delay in providing children with an adequate education constitutes irreparable harm. Petitioner further argues that respondent has been on leave since December 11, 2013 which has required the services of a substitute, and that her students are harmed every day that they do not have a permanent teacher. Respondent argues that deprivation of education cannot be proven by broad allegations and general statements, and that the district is required to ensure that students receive adequate education from qualified substitute whenever a teacher is forced to miss time. Respondent further argues that petitioner could end any perceived harm to the students by allowing petitioner to see the evaluator of her choice and that petitioner is therefore creating and perpetuating the perceived harm alleged. Petitioner counters that given the anticipated cooperation of the respondent, petitioner has not engaged the services of a long term substitute teacher and prohibited by regulation from keeping a non-long-term substitute in place beyond a specified number of days.

There are many instances in which a district may be faced with extended absence by a teacher. Whether it is for reasons of illness, discipline, created at the direction of the district or the request of the teacher, extended absences can and do occur, and districts are expected to continue to provide for the appropriate educational needs of the students. There is no controlling authority which stands for the proposition that extended absence by a teacher on its face constitutes irreparable harm. Presumably, the underlying nature of or reason for the absence itself, absent some very fact-sensitive and specific showing, cannot be said to create the harm to the students or exacerbate it to the point of irreparability. While both parties have laid out a litany of alleged facts which cover approximately two years prior to the decision to seek the psychological evaluation, and while petitioner seeks to view the potential for harm through the cumulative prism of that entire background, we are dealing with the decision, not contested by either party, on December 13, 2013 to seek the evaluation. Any analysis of impact or harm for purposes of emergent relief will be viewed from that point forward. If petitioner is of the belief that harm is exacerbated or created by the number of substitute teachers respondent's students have experienced, it is free to engage a long term substitute and mitigate any such harm. In the meantime, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to demonstrate that either it, or its students, will suffer irreparable harm if emergent relief is not granted.

As to the second and third prongs, petitioner argues that the law is well settled and that petitioner will likely succeed on the merits because petitioner is required by law to undergo a mental health fitness for duty evaluation with the district's chosen psychologist. Respondent argues that the law is settled that respondent may have the evaluation performed by a psychologist of her choosing, and therefore petitioner is unlikely to succeed on the merits.

Petitioner argues that respondent acted unreasonably in agreeing to be evaluated by the district's chosen psychologist and then "backing out" of that evaluation before invoking her option to choose her evaluator. Petitioner cites Bd. Of Educ. Of the City of Pleasantville v. Chambers, 95 N.J.A.R.2d 291, 1995 (Dept. of Education) as supporting its position, stating that in that case respondent refused to provide the district's evaluator with access to medical records before ever meeting with the doctor, while noting that in the present matter respondent did not so refuse until after she met with the doctor and then chose to invoke her right to choose an evaluator.

Respondent argues that she was not notified that she would have to provide access to her records until she met with the district's doctor, and cites the same case as standing for the proposition that approval of her choice of psychologist may not be unreasonably withheld. Respondent further notes that the State Board of Education subsequently rejected the Commissioner of Education's ruling in Pleasantville that upon rejecting the employee's choice of psychologist the Board could then require that its choice of psychologist be used. 96 N.J.A.R.2d 447, 1996.

The parties essentially are citing two decisions in the same case, one reversing the other, as supporting their respective positions. Both decisions may be considered persuasive but neither decision is precedential. Clearly the statute offers the option for respondent to choose her evaluator, and it is equally clear that the same statute empowers the district to approve or disapprove of the respondent's choice. It is not clear, however that upon rejection of the respondent's choice the petitioner may compel that its doctor would be utilized. This could lead to a potentially absurd reality which frustrates the intent of giving respondent the option to begin with if all petitioner needs to do is say no. Viewed through the prism of the current emergent relief application, the legal question is at best unsettled.

Petitioner also seeks to compel respondent to sign a release of medical records provided by its chosen psychologist. Respondent argues that that N.J.A.C. 6A:32-6.3, which addresses psychiatric evaluations required by a district pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2 and 16-3, provides that a respondent may refuse to release such records. Specifically, respondent invokes N.J.A.C. 6A:32-6.3(d)(3) which provides that "The employee may, without reprisal, refuse to waive his or her right to protect the confidentiality of medical information, in accordance with P.L. 104-191, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996."

The arguments and case law put forth by the parties show that the law is not settled on this matter, and as such petitioner cannot claim a likelihood of success on the merits. Additionally, the State Board in Pleasantville indicated that this decision is subsequent to agreement among the parties as to the identity of the evaluator. While the district is entitled to have some comfort that the evaluation and the methods utilized are thorough and valid, the respondent is also entitled to the rights provided by the administrative code. While the protections may not be, as petitioner argues, absolute, such determination is likely extremely fact sensitive and requires some degree of testimony by medical professionals as to what records, if any, are required to be provided. Given that the petitioner has not demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits as to requiring that its doctor of choice be utilized, the question of records is not ripe to this emergent relief request. If it were, however, it is likely determination of that issue would require further fact finding provided by plenary hearing or expert testimony.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to demonstrate that the legal right underlying its claim is settled or that it has a likelihood of succeeding on the merits of the underlying claim.

As to the fourth and final prong, each party argues that they will suffer greater harm if they do not prevail on the question of emergent relief. Petitioner argues that students continue to be harmed by the absence of a permanent teacher, and that the district is forced to continue to pay two individuals for one job while respondent is receiving her full salary and benefits while not working and that the administrative leave designation is non-punitive. Respondent argues that the district could get the sought after evaluation by using a psychologist of respondent's choosing, thereby obtaining exactly what it seeks even though losing on emergent relief. Meanwhile, respondent argues that if she loses she is forced to sign a release which discloses personal medical information to a psychologist who clearly works for her employer or face the loss of her job if she refuses to comply.

Considering the forgoing, it is apparent that if emergent relief is denied, petitioner still will get the psychological evaluation it seeks. The same cannot be said for respondent, who may give up rights and arguments she may ultimately prevail upon at plenary hearing. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the balance of equities argument favors respondent, and that petitioner has FAILED to satisfy this prong.

Consequently, the petitioners' request for emergency relief is DENIED.

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners are not entitled to the requested emergent relief and that the Petitioners' request for emergency relief is DENIED. The matter will now be scheduled for plenary hearing on the underlying due process petition.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioners challenged the findings and conclusions reached by the Department's Office of Fiscal Accountability and Compliance (OFAC) subsequent to a request from the Office of Educational Data (OED) that OFAC investigate the work hours recorded for Ann Murphy-Garcia, the Executive Director of Vineland Public Charter School (VPCS). In February 2011, OED had recorded that Murphy-Garcia was working the equivalent of 2.7 full-time positions in two public school districts and three charter schools. OFAC's investigation determined that Murphy-Garcia was not, in fact, working more than one full-time position, but also concluded that Murphy-Garcia had "orchestrated what appeared to be a hastily developed and ill-conceived plan intended to provide misinformation to the OFAC investigators." Based upon this conclusion, the matter was referred to the State Board of Examiners and the Division of Criminal Justice. The Board of Examiners subsequently initiated a separate case alleging that Murphy-Garcia's conduct was inappropriate and provided cause for the revocation of her certificates. Petitioners in this case have asserted that OFAC's findings are not supported by competent evidence. The State Board of Examiners' action seeking to revoke her New Jersey certificates is in abeyance while the instant controversy is adjudicated.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the initial investigation into whether Murphy-Garcia was working in more than one full-time position was resolved favorably for the petitioners, as the evidence credibly and overwhelmingly confirmed that her employment agreement was part-time; since the evidence confirmed that Murphy-Garcia was always treated and paid as part-time, the written contracts in the school files needed to be corrected to reflect the true nature of her employment; Murphy-Garcia worked with staff and the VPCS Board to correct her erroneous contracts and forward the corrected ones to the OFAC. The ALJ concluded that OFAC's finding that Murphy-Garcia thwarted its investigation is wrong as a matter of fact and law; it was undisputed by all witnesses that Murphy-Garcia and her staff were attempting to "right a wrong" in regard to her employment contracts; and there was no attempt to confuse or thwart OFAC's investigation. Accordingly, the ALJ recommended that the OFAC's August 2011 fact finding report be rejected.

Upon review, the Assistant Commissioner – to whom this matter was delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34 – rejected the specific conclusions found in the OFAC's report, i.e., that Murphy-Garcia acted without the VPCS Board's knowledge and tried to thwart OFAC's investigation. However, the Assistant Commissioner cautioned VPCS to improve its business practices and administrative oversight to ensure that its contracts are properly memorialized and that all of its records are secured and accessible. Further, the Assistant Commissioner expressed concern that Murphy-Garcia may have contracted with more employers than she can properly serve. Petitioners' appeal was granted subject to the above, and copies of this decision were forwarded to the State Board of Examiners and the Division of Criminal Justice.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

The petitioners in this controversy challenge the findings and conclusions of the report of an investigation conducted by the Office of Fiscal Accountability and Compliance (OFAC) of the New Jersey Department of Education. The report found that petitioner Murphy-Garcia had attempted to thwart OFAC's investigation into her hours of employment, and referred the matter to the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (Board of Examiners) and the Division of Criminal Justice. Based upon OFAC's findings, the Board of Examiners concluded that Murphy-Garcia's certificates should be revoked.[1] Both OFAC's report and the Board of Examiners' determination were appealed. The instant proceeding consists exclusively of the appeal of the OFAC report.

After a six-day hearing in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), during which two representatives of the New Jersey Department of Education (the Department) and four witnesses affiliated with petitioners testified, and over forty exhibits were entered into evidence, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) assigned to the case determined that the findings and conclusions of the OFAC report were not supported by the record, and thus recommended that the Commissioner reject the OFAC report. Upon review of the record, Initial Decision of the OAL (Initial Decision), OFAC's exceptions and petitioners' replies thereto, the Commissioner[2] concurs that the facts do not sufficiently support OFAC's conclusion that Murphy-Garcia single-handedly – i.e., without the knowledge of the Board of Trustees of the Vineland Public Charter School (VPCS) – took action to misinform OFAC and thwart its investigation.

[1] The Board of Examiners commenced an action to revoke Murphy-Garcia's certificates, which is still pending – but in abeyance – at the OAL under docket number EDE 1237-12. It relied on OFAC's findings and did not do its own investigation. The record does not indicate whether any action has been taken by the Division of Criminal Justice.

As set forth in the Initial Decision, in February of 2011, the Office of Educational Data (OED) of the New Jersey State Department of Education recorded that Murphy-Garcia had been working the equivalent of 2.7 full-time positions in 1) the Winslow Township and Voorhees Township public school districts and 2) in three charter schools: VPCS,[3] Charter-Tech High School for the Performing Arts, and Environment Community Opportunity Charter School.[4] The OED asked OFAC to investigate.

Thomas Martin of OFAC was assigned the case. To ascertain Murphy-Garcia's hours of employment, Martin interviewed administrators from the schools at which she was employed and requested documents from her various employers, including copies of her 2009-10 and 2010-11 employment contracts for her job at the VPCS. The VPCS's business administrator, Jonathan Houdart, forwarded copies of contracts which had been given to him by

[3] Murphy-Garcia is a founding member of VPCS.

[4] The record includes a copy of a letter dated July 25, 2010, from several individuals to Deborah Yanez, who was the President of the Winslow Township Board of Education, complaining about the high salary drawn by Murphy-Garcia and questioning how she could be putting in the hours to warrant that salary while also serving four other schools or school districts. See, twentieth document attached to the interrogatory answers of Gary Stanker, in the Department's Exhibit P-38. The letter was copied to Governor Christie and two media organizations.

VPCS secretary Colleen Colclough. The copy of the contract for the 2009-10 school year consisted of one page, and the copy of the contract for the 2010-11 school year was three pages long. The contract for the 2010-11 school year indicated that Murphy-Garcia was a full time employee. When Martin compared that contract with Murphy-Garcia's contract with the Winslow Township Board of Education, which also listed her as a full-time employee, Martin set up interviews with VPCS employees to ascertain Murphy-Garcia's actual hours.

Soon after Houdart's transmission of the contract copies, petitioners learned that an error had been made. As Colclough ultimately testified, when she was originally asked to pull Murphy-Garcia's employment contracts, she took them out of a file marked "voided." 5T12.[5] Since she was not able to find copies of Murphy-Garcia's contracts anywhere else, she thought they must have been misfiled in the "voided" folder. 5T13-14. When Colclough had given Houdart the contract copies, she had not told him that she had retrieved the copies from the "voided" file, 5T22, and he sent them off without reviewing them. 3T159.

After the mistake was caught, on March 11, 2011, Colclough sent Martin an email, which carried a letter signed by Houdart. The letter advised that Houdart was transmitting corrected contracts for the 2009-10 and 2010-11 school years. In the corrected 2010-11 contract, Murphy-Garcia's employment was designated as part-time. Martin was suspicious of the replacement contracts.[6]

[6] The ALJ asked Colleen Schulz-Eskow, of the Department's Charter School Office, whether replacement contracts had ever been submitted by other charter schools, and she testified in the affirmative. 6T71. She further stated that charter school Boards of Trustees have the prerogative to change contracts without the Department of Education's approval. 6T73. If the change is detrimental to the school's financial position, that is revealed when the Department does its annual audit of budgets submitted on March 31 of each year. 6T74.

The record also reveals that in March 2011, Gary Stanker, president of the VPCS Board of Trustees, and the other Board members learned of the issue with Garcia's employment contracts. It is undisputed that 1) Murphy-Garcia undertook to reconstruct her original contracts; 2) on March 9 or 10, 2011, Stanker knowingly signed the reconstructed contracts (OFAC's Exhibits P-9 and P-12) for submission to OFAC; and 3) Murphy-Garcia drafted the March 11, 2011 letter, which was signed by Houdart (OFAC Exhibit P-7) and attached to Colclough's March 11, 2011 email to Martin (OFAC Exhibit P-6), transmitting the reconstructed contracts.

Stanker testified that he executed the contracts after the Board members had conferred with each other informally. 4T59-60. Everyone on the board had understood that, since neither Murphy-Garcia nor the VPCS staff could find the original operative contracts for Murphy-Garcia, she was attempting to produce corrected contracts. 4T200-01. The Board was also aware of the fact that Stanker would sign P-9 and P-12. 4T85. No one felt that it was necessary to have a board meeting, because even if the contracts erroneously sent to Martin had contained incorrect provisions, everyone knew that Murphy-Garcia had always worked part-time. 4T54; 4T59. Further, the Board had consulted with its attorney, Hope Blackburn, who had advised that since no changes were being made to the original terms of Murphy-Garcia's contracts, there was no need for a formal Board resolution authorizing the reconstruction and submission of the contracts. 4T55.

Stanker further recalled that at a March 27, 2011 public Board meeting, about two weeks after Murphy-Garcia's reconstructed contracts had been sent to OFAC, Murphy-Garcia reported her actions to the Board. She advised that she had reconstructed the contracts, had gotten them signed by Stanker and the present and former VPCS business administrators, and had seen to it that they were forwarded to Thomas Martin at OFAC. 4T162. An excerpt from the minutes of the March 27, 2011 Board meeting, which made reference to Murphy-Garcia's report to the Board, was entered into evidence as VPCS Exhibit R-7.

However, according to Stanker, the submission of the reconstructed contracts did not resolve OFAC's inquiry. Further requests for information were made by Martin, and the Board decided to get a second opinion from different legal counsel about how the Board might handle the problem. 4T201. It was stipulated that the second opinion came from Joan Josephson, Esq. 4T85. During a June 19, 2011 Board meeting, Josephson counseled the Board that it would be prudent for them to formally ratify the March 2011 actions of Murphy-Garcia, Stanker, et al. by way of a resolution. 4T163-65. The Board did so; its act was memorialized in the minutes for the June 19, 2011 Board meeting. 4T164; P-35.

The record contains other indications that Murphy-Garcia was not attempting to hide from OFAC an improper simultaneous employment in two full-time jobs. According to Martin's final report (OFAC Exhibit P-36), in June 2011 attorney Blackburn had told him that it was always intended that Murphy-Garcia be a part-time employee. (Exhibit P-36 at 8) To support her assertion, Blackburn emailed Martin a copy of the template she had provided to VPCS in June 2009 to serve as the basis of Murphy-Garcia's contract. (Exhibit P-36 at 9) Also, when Martin interviewed VPCS Principal Yvonne Cribbs, Stanker, and two other VPCS board members,[7] they all told him that Murphy-Garcia had always worked part-time at VPCS. (Exhibit P-36 at 7 and 10) And Randy Ostrow, the business administrator who worked for VPCS in the first half of 2009, testified that the original 2009-10 contract for Garcia, which was lost, was similar to P-33 (a template of P-9, the corrected contract sent to Martin on [7] Stanker further testified that he had communicated to Martin at two separate meetings that Garcia was always part-time. 4T149-50.

March 11, 2011) as opposed to the one-page document erroneously sent to Martin on March 3, 2011 (OFAC Exhibit P-4). 3T261-64. Ostrow corroborated that Murphy-Garcia's contract had been drafted by Hope Blackburn, and that it had contemplated part-time employment. 3T264.[8]

Nonetheless, on an unspecified date in August 2011, OFAC issued a report accusing Murphy-Garcia of orchestrating a "hastily developed and ill-conceived plan intended to provide misinformation to the OFAC investigators and thwart the OFAC investigation." (Exhibit P-36 at 11) The report further found that Murphy-Garcia, "of her own accord and without the knowledge or consent of the VPCS Board, undertook the following:

> Modified her original employment contracts....
> Sought out and received witnessing signatures from both a current subordinate and a former subordinate on incomplete signature pages of those modified contracts via late night emails.
>
> Authored a document to the OFAC that indicated the replacement contracts developed by her were, in fact, the original employment contracts.
> (Exhibit P-36 at 11. [Emphasis added.])

In the OFAC report, great weight was placed on a sentence in the March 10, 2011 letter (OFAC's Exhibit P-7) transmitting the corrected contracts to him. That sentence stated: "We have attached the contracts for Dr. Garcia that were in our minute books and also I have certified an excerpt for your records." The '"certified excerpts," entered into evidence as OFAC Exhibits P-10 and P-13, are portions of the VPCS Board's June 14, 2009 and May 2, 2010 meeting minutes in which approval of Murphy-Garcia's contracts for the 2009-10 and 2010-11

[8] Ostrow testified that she did not mind signing Murphy-Garcia's corrected 2009-10 contract (by signing a signature page, OFAC Exhibit P-15, which Murphy-Garcia had scanned and emailed to her) because she knew that there had been such a contract for Murphy-Garcia in 2009. 3T265-66; 3T274. When she signed the corrected contract she was no longer working at VPCS and Murphy-Garcia had no influence over her. 3T271. She signed the emailed signature page (P-15) in 2011 to replace the 2009-10 contract, which could not be found. 3T273-74.

school year are memorialized.[9] Martin's interpretation of the above-quoted sentence appears to be that Murphy-Garcia was purporting to send him the exact physical contracts authorized by the VPCS Board at its June 2009 and May 2010 meetings. The Commissioner is not persuaded that the above referenced language necessitates such an interpretation.

Considering the foregoing, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ's finding that:

> ...the VPCS Board was fully aware and authorized the action taken by Garcia to correct her employment contracts, consistent with the advice of legal counsel. Garcia collaborated with the Board and school administrators to effectuate the correction plan; albeit in an informal or piecemeal way. The overarching intent was to recreate the lost contracts with the same terms and conditions that existed at the time they were originally approved by the Board.
>
> (Initial Decision at 11)

Thus, as stated above, the Commissioner must reject the conclusions of the OFAC report, which attribute to Murphy-Garcia an intent to mislead Martin and thwart the OFAC investigation into her hours.[10]

The Commissioner notes that the bulk of OFAC's exceptions to the Initial Decision pertain to Murphy-Garcia's and Houdart's invocation of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution. The Commissioner has reviewed the exceptions, but rejects them. First, the Commissioner declines to draw a negative inference relating to Houdart's decision to terminate his testimony. While the possibility that his statements about his transmittal of incorrect contracts might subject him to criminal sanctions seems remote, it nonetheless existed by virtue of OFAC's transmittal of its report to the Division of Criminal Justice. The Commissioner is further unpersuaded that a negative inference flowing from Houdart's actions can be imposed

[9] While the approvals disclose the salary to be received by Murphy-Garcia, they do not mention her hours.

[10] Since the OFAC report did not expressly allege impropriety by the VPCS Board, the Commissioner does not find it necessary to comment on the ALJ's analysis of the Board's actions vis-à-vis the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-15 et seq. See, OFAC's Exception VI to the Initial Decision.

upon Murphy-Garcia. Most importantly, however, is that Houdart's testimony would add little to this controversy. It is undisputed that Murphy-Garcia gave Houdart reconstituted contracts to transmit to Martin, and that Stanker testified that the Board knew of Murphy-Garcia's actions. Houdart is not in a position to divine what the Board did or did not know.

For similar reasons, the Commissioner is not inclined to draw a negative inference from Murphy-Garcia's invocation of her Fifth Amendment right not to testify against herself. OFAC does not argue that Murphy-Garcia did not have that right, but rather argues that it was abrogated by her responses to discovery. The Commissioner is, however, reluctant to withhold from Murphy-Garcia a constitutional right in a controversy where her testimony is unnecessary to a resolution. Murphy-Garcia does not deny reconstituting the contracts and asking Board President Stanker and the former and present VPCS business administrators to execute the signature pages of same. The chief issue is whether she acted clandestinely, or with the knowledge of the VPCS Board. Stanker testified multiple times that the Board knew that Murphy-Garcia was trying to reconstruct the lost contracts and send them to Martin. Murphy-Garcia is in no position to rebut Stanker's representation about what he and the Board knew.

Notwithstanding that the Commissioner finds the OFAC report's conclusions about Murphy-Garcia to be unsupported, the Commissioner finds much of concern in the OFAC report. It is clear that the investigation was a very frustrating exercise for Martin. Multiple copies of contracts for Murphy-Garcia were given to OFAC and the Charter School Office of the Department of Education. The copies conflicted in every respect – from format and content to dates and signatures – and Martin's interviewees did not offer much clarity. While the Commissioner finds that the reconstructed contracts submitted to Martin on March 11, 2011, were valid representations of Murphy-Garcia's relationship with VPCS, he is dismayed at the disorganization evident in VPCS's administration, especially as regards record-keeping, and the casual manner with which the Board oversaw the administration.

The record does not include any direct evidence that Murphy-Garcia reconstituted the VPCS contracts to hide financial irregularities. Indeed, Stanker testified that Murphy-Garcia, who was a founder of VPCS, donated back to VPCS all of her 2009-10 salary and half of her 2010-11 salary. 4T167 However, the Commissioner is concerned about the collective number of hours of Murphy-Garcia's employment.

Colleen Schulz-Eskow, of the Department's Charter School Office, testified that it was common for business administrators – but not lead personnel – to work at multiple charter schools. 6T52-53. Since she was aware that – at the time VPCS was starting up – Murphy-Garcia was doing business administrator work at other schools or districts, Schulz-Eskow questioned Murphy-Garcia about whether her time and commitment to VPCS would be sufficient to adequately oversee the school. 6T44-47. Ultimately, when the DOE approved VPCS, they were not worried about Murphy-Garcia being at the school on a part time basis. 6T55.

It is not clear to the Commissioner, however, whether Schulz-Eskow was aware of how many schools employed Murphy-Garcia. If she was, it appears that she did not share the concerns of her Department of Education colleague, Martin, about the implications of Murphy-Garcia's multiple employment. However, as a matter of common sense, the Commissioner must register misgivings about Murphy-Garcia's – or anyone else's – ability to actively devote to each of five employers the respective number of hours of work which were promised them. It is likely that such a concern motivated OFAC's continuation of its investigation into Murphy-Garcia's employment.

In sum, after a full review of this case, the Commissioner rejects the specific conclusions about Murphy-Garcia on page 11 of OFAC's report. However, the Commissioner cautions petitioner VPCS to improve its business practices and administrative oversight and to ensure that its contracts are properly memorialized and that all of its records are secure and accessible. The Commissioner also reiterates his concern that petitioner Murphy-Garcia may have contracted with more employers than she can properly serve.

Accordingly, the petition seeking rejection of the August 2011 OFAC report is granted, subject to the Commissioner's cautions contained herein. Copies of this decision will be forwarded to the New Jersey State Board of Examiners and the Division of Criminal Justice.

Record Closed: November 21, 2013 Decided: January 2, 2014

BEFORE W. TODD MILLER, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF CASE

Petitioner, Vineland Public Charter School (VPCS) Board of Trustees (Trustees) challenges the findings and conclusions reached by Department of Education's Office of Fiscal Accountability and Compliance (OFAC). In February 2011, the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Educational Data ("OED") recorded that petitioner Dr. Ann Murphy-Garcia ("Garcia") was working the equivalent of 2.7 full-time positions in one public school district and three charter schools (P-1). Based on this information, the OED requested OFAC investigate whether Garcia did, in fact, hold two (2) full-time positions among the five (5) schools where she was employed. The OFAC concluded that Garcia was in fact, not working 2.7 full-time positions (P-36).

The OFAC concluded however that Garcia "orchestrated what appeared to be a hastily developed and ill-conceived plan intended to provide misinformation to the OFAC investigators and thwarted the OFAC investigation" (P-36). Based upon this conclusion the matter was referred to the State Board of Examiners and the Division of Criminal Justice (P-36). These findings by the OFAC are docketed as EDU 9938-12.

In a separate case docketed as EDE 1237-12, the State Board of Examiners alleges that Garcia's conduct was inappropriate and provides cause for the revocation of her certificates.

The VPCS asserts that the finding in the investigation report of the OFAC is not supported by competent evidence. Garcia also appeals the State Board of Examiner's action seeking to revoke her Teacher of Bookkeeping and Accounting, Teacher of Data Processing, Teacher of General Business, School Business Administrator, Assistant Superintendent for Business and School Administrator certificates.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petitioner requested a hearing and the matter was filed at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on July 24, 2012, to be heard as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and 14F-1 to 13. The prehearing order dated October 12, 2012, provides that the VPCS challenge to the OFAC findings and conclusions will proceed first since any further action is entirely predicated upon the findings therein (EDU 9938-12). The State Board of Examiner's action does not contain any independent findings but merely recites the OFAC findings. The Board of Examiners is seeking to suspend or revoke Garcia's certificates. This appeal was tabled pending the outcome of the challenge to the validity of the OFAC findings (EDE 1237-12). The matters were not consolidated.

Hearings were held in EDU 9938-12 on January 22 and 31, 2013, March 14 and 21, 2013, May 24, 2013, and August 7, 2013. The parties agreed to submit written closings after receipt of the hearing transcripts. The last submission was received on November 21, 2013.

SUMMARY OF THE REVELANT EVIDENCE AND TESTIMONY

VPCS is located in Vineland, New Jersey. The VPCS Board President is Gary Stanker (T. 3/21/13, p. 9). Randy Ostrow was the former School Business Administrator/Board Secretary who worked for the VPCS Board from approximately March to July 2009, during the VPCS start-up period (T. 3/14/13, p. 221-2). Ostrow was replaced by Jonathan Houdart, who began working at the VPCS as the School Business Administrator/Board Secretary on or about August 2009 until January 2012 (T. 3/14/13, p. 150). Donna Colclough was the Receptionist/Secretary/Administrative Assistant at VPCS from 2009 through the end of 2011, and she handled many of the day-to-day administrative duties (T. 5/24/13, p. 9-10).

Garcia is the Executive Director of the VPCS. She holds various educational degrees and certifications (P-36). Garcia did not need to hold any certificate issued by the New Jersey Board of Examiners to act in her capacity as the Executive Director of the VPCS (T. 8/7/13, p. 56-7).

Garcia was the Business Administrator/Board Secretary for the Winslow School District during the relevant period of this matter. Her employment at the Winslow School District was a full-time position. Garcia's position as Executive Director at VPCS was a part-time position. In addition, Garcia was employed in a part-time position in the Voorhees School District as the Treasurer, the Charter-Tech High Charter School as the Business Administrator, and the Environment Community Opportunity Charter School as the Business Administrator. During the approval process for the VPCS, the Office of Charter Schools was aware of Garcia's multiple positions and knew that she was not going to be at the school on a day-to-day, full-time basis (T. 8/7/13, p. 49-50, 55-6).

Thomas Martin ("Martin"), Manager of the Investigations Unit of the OFAC received the OED's request from his supervisor, Robert Cicchino ("Cicchino"), Director of OFAC (P-1; T 1/22/13, P-26). Martin worked as Manager of the Investigations Unit since August 2008 (T 1/22/13, p. 25). Martin was employed with the New Jersey State Police for thirty (30) years, prior to being employed with the OFAC (T 1/22/13, p. 25). Martin is responsible for the day-to-day administration and personnel administration of the Investigation Unit. He also receives the complaints that come into the Unit, assigns each complaint to an investigator for handling; works on investigations with investigators; and reviews and disseminates final investigative reports (T 1/22/13, p. 25).

On February 28, 2011, OFAC received a request from the Division of Field Services to investigate an allegation that Garcia held four employment positions that totaled 2.7 full-time equivalent hours ("FTE") (P-1). The OFAC initiated an investigation of Garcia because she had "an unusually high number" of full-time hours (T. 1/22/13, p. 26-7). The issue regarding Garcia's employment came from the Department of Educational Data seeking clarification of her FTE based on the hours she was performing, according to Martin.

Martin requested Garcia's employment contracts with the VPCS for school years 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 (P-2; T. 3/14/13, p. 153). On March 3, 2011, Mr. Houdart forwarded an e-mail to Martin, which was originally sent to Mr. Houdart from VPCS's Administrative Assistant, Donna Colclough, attaching the requested contracts (P-3). Mr. Houdart did not review the attachments when he forwarded Ms. Colclough's e-mail to Martin (T. 3/14/13, p. 159). The wrong or voided contracts were initially sent to Martin.

Martin was unable to determine whether Garcia was a full- or part-time employee because the contract was silent as to her employment status. (T 1/22/13, p. 31). Upon reviewing Garcia's contract for the 2010-2011 school year (P-5), however, Martin observed that paragraph 2 of the contract stated she was a full-time employee, and paragraph 8 of the contract set forth full-time hours—8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday (T 1/22/13, p. 32). Because Garcia's 2010-2011 employment contract for Winslow also specified that she was a full-time employee, Martin decided to investigate the matter further (T 1/22/13, p. 33). He set up interviews with employees of the VPCS to determine whether Garcia was actually working full-time at VPCS (T 1/22/13, p. 33).

On March 11, 2011, Martin received an e-mail from Donna Colclough ("Colclough"), VPCS's administrative assistant, attaching: a letter signed by Houdart; the contracts Houdart had previously sent to Martin marked "void" and stricken through with a line; and another set of revised contracts for Garcia for the 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 school year (T 1/22/13, p. 33-34; P-6; P-7; P-8; P-9; P-10). Martin speculated that parts of this letter were untrue and that the revised contracts were a ruse to throw off his investigation.

Martin compared Garcia's original and corrected contracts for the 2010-2011 school year (T 1/22/13, p. 44-47). Although the original 2010-2011 contract indicated that Garcia was full-time, the corrected contracts for 2010-2011 indicated she was employed on a "part-time basis" (T 1/22/13, p. 44; P-12 at ¶1). Martin also reviewed the excerpt of the May 2, 2010, VPCS Board of Trustees meeting minutes that Houdart had certified (T 1/22/13, p. 45). This excerpt indicated the Board's acceptance of Garcia's contract for the 2010-2011 school year (P-13). The minutes did not specify whether Garcia's contract was for full- or part-time employment (P-13). The minutes also did not specify that the contract being approved was a new or modified contract based on a prior voided contract (T 1/22/13, p. 45; P-13).

Colclough testified how the wrong contracts for Garcia were sent to the OFAC on March 3, 2011. Colclough explained that she obtained the documents (P-4, P-5) from a pendaflex file marked "voided" in Mr. Houdart's office (T. 5/24/13, p. 12). Colclough thought Garcia's contracts were misfiled in the "voided" file and she could not find Garcia's contracts anywhere else (T. 5/24/13, p. 13-4). She did not tell Houdart that the contracts came from this voided file. Id. Since Mr. Houdart did not review and/or authenticate the documents that were provided to him by Colclough, the incorrect contracts were forwarded to Martin (T. 3/14/13, p. 159).

The March 11, 2011, e-mail from Colclough to Martin was explored in detail during direct and on cross-examination. Colclough e-mailed Martin (P-6) corrected contracts reflecting the original and true intent of the VPCS Board regarding Garcia's part-time employment terms. The cover letter was signed by Mr. Houdart (P-7; P-20). The March 10, 2011, letter was authored by Garcia, signed by Mr. Houdart and the substance of the letter was true (T. 3/14/13, p. 175-6; T. 3/14/13, p. 120-21; T. 3/21/13, p. 138).

Under cross-examination Martin's conclusion that the VPCS engaged in a ruse to thwart his investigation, was itself undermined:

> Martin: No. T. 1/31/13, p. 126.

In March 2011, the VPCS Board President, Gary Stanker, became aware that there was a potential problem regarding Garcia's employment contracts. He received a phone call from Garcia's husband (who was also a Board member) reporting that Garcia was rumored to be employed full-time in two positions (T. 3/21/13, p. 150). Mr. Stanker was also informed that Garcia's husband called the other Board members and shared with them what he had learned (T. 3/21/13, p. 153). Thereafter, VPCS and Garcia discovered that the March 3, 2011, e-mail attached the wrong contracts for the Executive Director (T. 3/21/13, p. 50-2). The incorrect one-page contract sent to the OFAC for 2009-2010 (P-4) did not mention full- or part time status. The incorrect three-page contract for 2010-2011 (P-5) stated that Garcia was a full-time employee. The VPCS Board and Garcia knew that she was part-time and it was always the intent of the parties for her position to be part-time (T. 3/21/13, p. 50).

The VPCS staff could not locate the correct contracts, and nor could Garcia. They sought the advice of the VPCS Board Solicitor, Hope Blackburn, Esq. (T. 3/21/13, p. 50-2, 55, 84-5). Blackburn advised the Board members and administrators that the Board could correct the contracts, without convening a new meeting (Id.). The Board had already approved the terms of Garcia's employment for school years 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 (T. 3/21/13, p. 55, 154; T. 3/21/13, p. 59-60). The Board members had informal discussions amongst themselves about the course of action recommended by Blackburn, but the Board did not convene an official meeting under the Sunshine Law to discuss the corrective actions being taken by Garcia (T. 3/21/13, p. 57-61). The issues were discussed by all involved in a "piecemeal" fashion (T. 3/21/13, p. 60). The Board was aware that Board President Stanker would sign the corrected contracts as reflected by this colloquy:

> Q. How was the Board made aware that you were signing these contracts?
>
> Mr. Stanker: We discussed how we were going to handle it and we were told that all we had to do is make up a contract that has the right provisions in it for her part-time employment and we can sign them and that's all we needed to do. So we did it. T. 3/21/13, p. 85.
>
> Q. . . . On that point you - - you testified that there was a second solicitor who was brought in to give you a second opinion.
> Mr. Stanker: Right. Correct.

Based on the advice of counsel, the Board members worked together with its administrators to correct Garcia's contracts to reflect the intent of the Board that she was always a part-time employee (T. 3/21/13, p. 98-100, 154). Garcia coordinated with Stanker in March 2011 to sign the corrected employment contracts because she was trying to correct a mistake (T. 3/21/13, p. 151-4).

On March 27, 2011, Garcia provided a summary of the status of the OFAC investigation during the Board meeting (T. 3/21/13, p. 158, 162, R-7). She told the Board that she had Mr. Houdart and Ms. Ostrow sign the corrected contracts and that Mr. Stanker signed them as well (T. 3/21/13, p. 162; R-7). There was no formal Board action or approval at that meeting (T. 3/21/13, p. 163; R-7).

Martin did review the excerpt of the June 14, 2009, VPCS Board of Trustees' meeting minutes that Houdart had certified. (T 1/22/13-42; P-10). This excerpt indicated the Board's acceptance of Garcia's contract for the 2009-2010 school year (T 1/22/13, p. 42; P-10). The excerpt of the minutes did not specify whether Garcia's contract was for full- or part-time employment (T 1/22/13, p. 43; P-10). The excerpt of the minutes did not indicate that another contract for Garcia for the same year had been voided. (T 1/22/13, p. 43; P-10). At a later point in the investigation, Martin reviewed the full minutes from the June 14, 2009 Board meeting. Nothing in the full minutes indicated whether Garcia's contract was for full- or part-time employment or whether another contract for Garcia for that year had been voided (T 1/22/13, p. 132; P-34).

By April 20, 2011, Martin interviewed three or four employees from the VPCS who indicated to him that Garcia's position was always part-time (T. 1/31/13, p. 129-30). Similarly, on April 20, 2011, Martin spoke to Blackburn, attorney for the Board, who had stated that Garcia was always part-time. Id. By this time Martin was sufficiently convinced that Garcia was a part-time employee of the VPCS.

On June 29, 2011, VPCS Solicitor Blackburn e-mailed Martin the template (P-33) of the agreement from 2009 that she prepared as the attorney for the VPCS Board regarding Garcia's employment contract with a word document number of 419545 (P-32). Martin admitted that Blackburn prepared a contract in June 2009 for Garcia for the position of Executive Director which says Garcia is part-time (T. 1/31/13, p. 117). Martin also admitted that the contract e-mailed to him by Mr. Houdart on March 11, 2011, (P-9, P-23) has the exact word document number (419545) setting forth Garcia's contract terms for the 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 school years (T. 1/31/13, p. 118-9, 126). Martin did not dispute that in June 2009, the Board's attorney prepared the contract for Garcia for the 2009-2010 school year (T. 3/14/13, p. 143).

By June 2011, the Board sought a second legal opinion from another attorney, Joan Josephson, Esq. (T. 3/21/13, p. 57, 85-6). Josephson provided a different legal opinion than Blackburn and recommended at the June 19, 2011, that the Board formally approve the corrected contracts at its June 19, 2011, meeting (T. 3/21/13, p. 163-5; P-35).

Mr. Stanker testified that he knew of Garcia's actions and she was not doing anything without the Board's knowledge (T. 3/21/13, p. 200). The other members of the Board knew and understood Garcia's attempts to correct the void/mistaken documents that were initially sent to OFAC. Mr. Stanker stated:

> Nobody was out in the dark as far as the Board members were concerned. Everybody knew what was going on. We all talk to one another and we were told like I said before by our Board solicitor at that time to just change the contract. We didn't need to do it at a meeting . . . Board member kept discussing that . . .Then when we were told with the second lawyer . . . the best thing you can do is do it at a Board meeting, re-adopt it, get it over with. (T. 3/21/13, p. 201-2).

Consistent with Ms. Josephson's legal advice, the Board formally approved Garcia's corrected contracts at the June 19, 2011, Board meeting (P-35). Indeed, the Board's formal motion made clear that:

> The position of Executive Director has always been a part-time position. The contracts that were executed in March 2011 are consistent with the terms and conditions of employment that the Executive Director has always followed. The prior contracts that describe the > Executive Director as a full-time employee were done in error and have never been followed. (P-35).

> [Emphasis added]

In August 2011, the OFAC issued its Report of the investigation regarding Garcia's employment positions (P-36). The OFAC accepted that Garcia's position at VPCS was developed and intended to be a part-time position. The OFAC nevertheless concluded that Garcia "orchestrated what appeared to be a hastily developed and ill-conceived plan intended to provide misinformation to the OFAC investigators and thwart the OFAC investigation" (P-36).

CONCLUSIONS

The OFAC charges that Garcia "orchestrated a hastily developed and ill-conceived plan" intended to provide "misinformation" and "thwart" the OFAC investigation by:

> (1) modified her original employment contracts;
>
> (2) sought out and received witnessing signatures from the former and current school business administrator on these modified contracts via late night emails; and
> (3) authored a document to OFAC that indicated the replacement contracts developed by her were, in fact, the original employment contracts.

I CONCLUDE that the VPCS Board was fully aware and authorized the action taken by Garcia to correct her employment contracts, consistent with the advice of legal counsel. Garcia collaborated with the Board and school administrators to effectuate the correction plan; albeit in an informal or piecemeal way. The overarching intent was to recreate the lost contracts with the same terms and conditions that existed at the time they were originally approved by the Board.

The OFAC initial investigation questioned whether Garcia was working in more than one full-time position. This question was resolved favorably for Garcia midway through the OFAC investigation. All board members, administrators, former board members or employees, and legal counsel confirmed that Garcia was always part-time with VPCS.

Nevertheless, the OFAC charged Garcia with undermining and thwarting its investigation, because she aided in sending corrected contracts to the OFAC during the course of the investigation. I CONCLUDE the OFAC investigation was not undermined or thwarted by Garcia when she aided in sending corrected employment contracts to the OFAC. There was no misleading modification of any contractual term by Garcia that was inconsistent with her actual employment relationship. Indeed, Martin performed an exhaustive investigation and independently concluded that Garcia was never employed, or intended to be employed, as a full-time employee with the VPCS. This conclusion was reached by Martin after interviewing current and former employees and checking with the Board Solicitor. Witness statements received by Martin were corroborated by contract templates prepared by outside counsel, covering the period under investigation. Without any doubt, Garcia was at all times, intended to be a part-time employee with the VPCS. The investigation should have ended here. But the sloppy record keeping by the VPCS raised questions as the accuracy and authenticity of the documents provided during the OFAC investigation. Therefore Martin pursued matters further with his focus solely upon Garcia. But the documents were supplied by many individuals, not just Garcia.

Garcia did not submit anything directly to the OFAC, made no admissions to the OFAC, and provided nothing that was false to the OFAC. Moreover, Garcia never made any statements or admissions to the OFAC investigator. Consequently, the OFAC Investigation Report contains no competent evidence regarding Garcia's motives or intentions concerning her corrected contracts. It only espouses inferences and supposition which are not the same as facts.

Indeed, the OFAC investigation put the VPCS on notice that many of its document retention procedures, particularly for contracts, was in need of substantial improvement. Staff contracts were misplaced or lost and/or the wrong contracts were executed and kept on file as authentic ones. As the investigation moved forward, so did the VPCS move ahead regarding its responsibility to correct Garcia's employment contracts. Corrected contracts were prepared, signed and submitted to Martin by the VPCS business administrator, not Garcia. And the terms of the contracts for Garcia were already approved by the VPCS Board during the contract years 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 (P-10; P-13). Indeed, the VPCS Board had already voted on Garcia's contract and the corrections were merely being implemented, without any further vote as suggested by the Board solicitor. The business administrator was therefore authorized to forward the corrected agreements to Martin. I CONCLUDE that substantively, Garcia's employment with the VPCS was always part-time (See, P-35). Martin came to the same conclusion, after an extensive investigation (T. 1/22/13, p. 134-136). Martin was questioned as follows:

> The Court: But, you're telling me from your investigation she was part-time, the contracts in place said she was full-time and once OFAC got involved, that is you, she realized there was a mistake in her contracts and she was trying to clean them up to be factually accurate with her job title and duties.
> Martin: That would be part of the characterization, yes sir.
> T. 1/22/13, p.136.

While it appeared that Garcia was employed full-time, the evidence credibly and overwhelming established that substantively her employment agreement was part-time. Indeed the evidence confirmed that Garcia was always treated and paid as part-time and that her written contracts needed to be corrected. Therefore, the OFAC's assertion that Garcia "modified her original contracts," is without merit. Her "original" employment terms were that she was hired as a part-time employee. Her written contracts were wrong. Therefore, Garcia worked with her staff and the Board to correct her erroneous contracts and forward the corrected ones to the OFAC.

The VPCS and Garcia were responsible for correcting erroneous written contracts and replacing them with corrected ones. The Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA) found at N.J.S.A. 10:4-15a provides public boards with extensive flexibility to take corrective action when it makes errors. In Gandolfi v. Town of Hammonton, 367 N.J. Super. 527, 539-540, (App. Div. 2004) the Appellate Division explained:

> In any event, N.J.S.A. 10:4-15a provides that [a]ny action taken by a public body at a meeting which does not conform with the provisions of this act shall be voidable in a proceeding in lieu of prerogative writ[s]. . . ." (Emphasis added). Here, no "action" was taken by the Board during the November 1, 2000 closed session. The transcript of the session makes clear that although a settlement proposal was discussed, it was never voted upon. In fact, there was no quorum of available and eligible Board members to take such action.
>
> N.J.S.A. 10:4-15a provides further that when action taken by a public body does not conform to the provisions of the act, it "may take corrective or remedial action by acting de novo at a public meeting held in conformity with this act. . . ." This remedial section of the act "contemplate[s] maximum flexibility in rectifying governmental action which falls short of the standards of openness prescribed for the conduct of official business." Polillo v. Dean, 74 N.J. 562, 579, 379 A.2d 211 (1977). "While the purpose of the act is to secure public access to the meetings of public bodies, N.J.S.A. 10:4-15 'provide[s] a means to balance the rights of an informed citizenry against the need of government to function effectively.'" Council of NJ State College Locals v. Trenton State College Board of Trustees, 284 N.J. Super. 108, 115, 663 A.2d 664 (Law Div.1995) (quoting Aronowitz v. Planning Board, 257 N.J. Super. 347, 358-59, 608 A.2d 451 (Law Div.1992)).
>
> Here, subsequent to the November 1, 2000 closed session, the Board and its attorney held executive sessions on two occasions to discuss the entry of a consent order for the purposes of settling the matter. At the public portion of the hearing held on November 15, 2000, a resolution was adopted authorizing the Board's attorney to "pursue" the consent order for the purpose of settling the SMA action. Thereafter, public hearings were held on SMA's by-right subdivision, which was the centerpiece of the settlement proposal. In our view, even if any "action" was taken during the November 1, 2000 meeting, the subsequent de novo actions taken during the public hearings cured any technical violation of the OPMA.

I CONCLUDE the OFAC's fact finding and conclusions reached in its report, holding that Garcia thwarted its investigation, is wrong as a matter of fact and law. The facts presented at the de novo OAL hearing, as developed through the adversarial process, persuasively and credibly established that Garcia was correcting errors in her employment contracts which helped the OFAC understand what her actual contractual terms were. The adversary system "is a procedural system involving active and unhindered parties contesting with each other to put forth a case before and independent decision maker." Black's Law Dictionary (9th ed. 2009, at page 63). This process includes challenging the proofs offered by the opposing sides by direct and cross-examination of witnesses as recollection, competence, bias, believability, vantage point, logic, and other similar techniques designed to cull out the truth. It is vital to contested case.

Here Garcia had implicit and apparent authority to make these corrections to her contract under the OPMA since the VPCS Board had already voted to hire her as a part-time employee in 2009. In fact, Garcia was required to correct her written contracts and fix them so they conform to the terms under which she was hired. The fact that Garcia, together with the VPCS Board and staff all made corrections to these contracts during the OFAC investigation, does not make Garcia guilty of obstructing or misleading an ongoing investigation.

Conversely, if Garcia failed to correct the erroneous contracts initially provided to the OAFC, she would be guilty of thwarting the investigation. When a (public) employee takes action to cure an error, and is thereafter charged with wrongdoing for taking corrective action, such a charge is repugnant to public policy. This type of charge chills public employees from doing what is right and creates the perception that correcting mistakes will come with substantial charges and penalties.

I also CONCLUDE that Garcia did not falsely or improperly attest to the signature of Randy Ostrow (Ostrow). Ostrow's 2009-2010 employment does not contain her signature (P-17). Garcia was a witness to the document's execution by the Board president. The inference suggested by the OFAC is that Garcia must have improperly attested to Ostrow's signature (P-17). Garcia's counsel sufficiently rebutted any inference that she witnessed Ostrow's signature. I CONCLUDE that OFAC failed to establish this claim beyond mere speculation.

The signature page for Ostrow's contract is arranged as follows:

President /s/ Gary Stanker
Attest /s/ Dr. Garcia
Issue date July 1, 2009

Employee /s/ Randy Ostrow
Date 7/1/10

(P-17)

The contract layout and the evidence indicate that Garcia only attested to the signature of Board President Stanker and not to Ostrow's signature (P-17). The testimony revealed that the OFAC investigator was simply speculating that Garcia witnessed Ostrow signature:

> Petitioners' Counsel: Now how do you know that that particular attestation of Dr. Garcia had nothing to do with Randy Ostrow's signature and everything to do with president Gary Stanker's signature?
>
> Martin: I do not know that.
>
> Petitioners' Counsel: "...[I]t certainly can suggest that Dr. Garcia was witnessing Gary Stanker's signature, couldn't it?"
> Martin: It could. T. 1/31/13, p. 168-9.

School law has very specific procedures, rules and regulations regarding employment contracts. Unless otherwise specified in the Charter School Program Act or its implementing regulations, or unless otherwise exempted by the Commissioner of Education, "[a] charter school shall operate in accordance with its charter and the provisions of law and regulation which govern other public schools." N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-11(a).

On or before April 30 of each year, every board of education must notify its non-tenured staff whether they will be reappointed or terminated. The non-tenured staff member must notify the board of education by June 1, that they are going to accept employment with the board for the succeeding year. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.1. Likewise, school business administrators such as Ostrow are hired and fired under a similar process. N.J.S.A. 18A:17-14.1.

Employment contracts are distributed to the employees; the employee signs the contract and returns it to the Board for approval. There is no evidence that Ostrow's fabricated signature occurred at the Board meeting or at any other time when Garcia could have witnessed the agreement. The layout of the contract plainly indicates that Garcia was only witnessing Stanker's signature as Board President. Employees can return their executed contract to the Board in the mail or in person. Thereafter, the employee contract must be voted on and approved at a Board meeting, with or without the employee being present. When it is finally approved by the Board, it is signed by the president and witnessed. Thus, there is no evidence that Garcia intended her signature to be anymore than an authentication of Board President Stanker's signature. I CONCLUDE based upon the record herein, that the OFAC assertion that Garcia falsely or improperly witnessed Ostrow's signature is mere speculation. Indeed, Martin was not aware of school law or the process of how contracts are disseminated to employees and returned for approval and execution by the Board.

Finally, the OFAC urges that an adverse interest be drawn against Garcia because she did not testify. Garcia did not testify because Martin referred his final OFAC Report to the Division of Criminal Justice. Garcia exercised her Fifth Amendment right not to testify, based upon the referral.

The Fifth Amendment establishes the privilege against self-incrimination in providing that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself . . ." U.S. CONST. Amend V. The privilege against self-incrimination applies to both civil and criminal matters. See Lefkowitz v. Turley, 414 U.S. 70, 77 (1973) (stating that the witness can refuse to testify in a civil proceeding if their testimony can incriminate them in a future criminal matter). It is well settled that the privilege against self-incrimination may be lost if it is not invoked. See Garner v. United States, 424 U.S. 648, 653 (1976); Rogers v. United States, 340 U.S. 367, 371 (1951). Furthermore, the privilege may be "lost by not asserting it in a timely fashion." Maness v. Meyers, 419 U.S. 449, 466 (1975) [dictum]. Waiver is only one of several manners in which this privilege may be lost. Garner, supra, 424 U.S. at 654.

The consequences of Dr Garcia's assertion of her Fifth Amendment right is found in State Department of Law & Public Safety v. Merlino, 216 N.J. Super. 579, 587 (App. Div. 1987), certif. granted, 107 N.J. 657, aff'd, 109 N.J. 134 (1988). It states:

> It is well settled that in administrative and civil proceedings, it is permissible for the trier of fact to draw adverse inferences from a party's plea of the Fifth Amendment. But the inference may be drawn only if there is other evidence [competent and credible] supporting an adverse finding; it must not alone constitute the evidence of guilt.
> [Emphasis added; Citations omitted.]

I have declined to draw an adverse inference based upon the overwhelming weight of evidence in favor of Garcia's actions. It was undisputed by all witnesses that Garcia and her staff were attempting to "right-a-wrong", in regard to the contracts at issue. They were not attempting to obfuscate, confuse or thwart an investigation. Consequently, there is no reason to draw an adverse inference.

ORDER

I ORDER that the fact-finding report by the OFAC be rejected as it is not supported by sufficient and competent evidence to support the findings made therein.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." [1] The exhibits for the OFAC case under EDU 9938-12 are marked as "P" even though the OFAC is the respondent. This happened because they were premarked before the case started. The Board of Examiners has a companion case under docket number EDE 1237-12 wherein it is the petitioner while the OFAC is the respondent in EDU 9938-12. It was anticipated by the OFAC and the Examiners that both cases would be presented together even though they were not consolidated. The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons set forth in the recommended Order – that petitioners have failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioners' application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This case shall proceed to a plenary hearing at the OAL to determine the underlying claim on the merits.

BEFORE EDWARD J. DELANOY, JR., ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

By request for an emergent relief hearing received by the New Jersey Department of Education, petitioners August Daleo (Daleo), Gina M. Frasca (Frasca), and Matthew Maleski (Maleski), (collectively "petitioners"), who are members of the Little Egg Harbor Township Board of Education ("Board" or "District"), request emergent relief seeking a determination that a failed motion for non-renewal of the employment contract of Dr. Frank Kasyan (Kasyan), the superintendent of the District, be overturned, and that the motion be declared as approved or carried. The matter was filed at the Office of Administrative Law on February 14, 2014. The Commissioner of the Department of Education requested that an administrative law judge be assigned to conduct a hearing in this matter. I was assigned to conduct the hearing, and the matter for emergent relief was heard on February 24, 2014. At the commencement of the hearing, this tribunal granted Kasyan's motion to intervene as a party due to his interest in the outcome of the matter. The record closed at the conclusion of the hearing.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

For purposes of deciding this application for emergent relief, the following is a summary of the relevant facts not in dispute as derived from the contents of the petition and from the arguments of petitioners and counsel adduced at the hearing. Petitioners, as members of the Board, seek emergent relief as a result of a Board vote respecting the renewal of the contract of respondent Kasyan. On January 7, 2014, the Board, which has seven members, held a reorganization meeting. On January 27, 2014, the Board held a regular meeting, but the agenda for the meeting did not include the subject of Kasyan's contract, which was set to expire on June 30, 2014. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.1, and the terms of Kasyan's contract, he would have had to have been notified of the non-renewal of his contract no later than January 30, 2014.

At the January 27, 2014, meeting, Daleo made a motion to issue a letter of non-renewal to Kasyan, and Frasca seconded the motion. Three of the seven Board members could not vote on the motion because of conflicts of interest: the husband of the Board president, Lorraine Perrino (Perrino), works as a custodian for the school district; the wife of Board member Carmine Cimino (Cimino) also works as a custodian for the school district; and, the daughter of Board member Martha Palan (Palan) also works for the school district. The remaining non-conflicted Board members were Daleo, Frasca, Maleski, and respondent John Bellone (Bellone).

Before roll call to vote on the motion, the Board attorney, Terry Brady (Brady), stated that, in his opinion, four "yes" votes would be necessary to carry the motion. Thus, all four of the non-conflicted members would have to vote in the affirmative for the motion to carry. Daleo and Frasca disagreed, instead arguing that only a majority of a quorum, or three out of four members, would need to vote in the affirmative in order for the motion to pass. When asked, Brady could not cite any legal authority for his opinion. As a result, Brady directed the Board secretary to call the roll in order to vote on the motion.

However, before the roll was called, Bellone left the meeting and did not return. Since Bellone's absence resulted in a lack of a quorum of non-conflicted members, Brady directed the Board to invoke the doctrine of necessity.[1] This allowed the conflicted members of the Board to vote on the motion to non-renew Kasyan's contract. The vote resulted in three "yes" votes (Daleo, Frasca, and Maleski) and three "no" votes (Cimino, Perrone, and Palan). Bellone remained absent from the meeting and did not vote. As a result of the split vote, the motion did not carry.

As a result of the actions that took place at the January 27, 2014, Board meeting, petitioners in their petition seek the following relief:

[1] The doctrine of necessity "allows an official to participate in public business notwithstanding an otherwise disqualifying conflict." Allen v. Toms River Reg'l Bd. of Educ., 233 N.J. Super. 642, 644 (Law Div. 1989).

> We ask you to please consider Mr. Bellone's decision to walk out of the meeting after the motion and the second was on the table as an abstention to the vote; therefore negating the 'doctrine of necessity' and the three votes from the conflicted board members. Therefore, the motion to send the superintendent a letter on non-renewal would carry.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

As a preliminary matter, there are procedural concerns with petitioners' petition and motion for emergent relief. First, petitioners named only Bellone as a respondent. Petitioners failed to name the Board, as a body, as a party in this matter. The Board is arguably an indispensable party in this matter since petitioners herein seek relief that would affect the Board's business, and the failure to name the Board as a party could be grounds for dismissal in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3. Second, Bellone questions whether this matter is moot because Kasyan's contract automatically renewed, by statute and by contract, on January 30, 2014, when the Board failed to issue him a letter of non-renewal, and since that date has passed, petitioners cannot obtain effective relief. This may also be grounds for dismissal.

Although the petition could arguably be dismissed on procedural grounds, petitioners' motion for emergent relief fails on substantive grounds. According to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6,

> [a] motion for a stay or emergent relief shall be accompanied by a letter memorandum or brief which shall address the following standards to be met for granting such relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):
>
> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

The burden of proving each of these factors rests with the party seeking emergent relief. Garden State Equal. v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013) (citation omitted). "Each of these factors must be clearly and convincingly demonstrated" by the moving party. Waste Mgmt of N.J. v. Union County Util. Auth., 399 N.J. Super. 508, 520 (App. Div. 2008). Here, petitioners have failed to carry their burden, and the petitioners cannot make the requisite showing.

Petitioners will suffer irreparable harm

According to petitioners, "[t]his newly hired board should have the opportunity to fully discuss [Kasyan's] contract and potential rehire and perform their due diligence so that the district is not bound financially to this superintendent's current contract for another five years." Petitioners argue that since the new Board did not have the opportunity to discuss Kasyan's contract between January 7, 2014, when the Board reorganized, and January 30, 2014, when Kasyan's contract automatically renewed, petitioners will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted because they will be deprived of the ability to perform their duties as members of the Board, which is tasked with selecting the superintendent of the school district. Petitioners also have concerns that Bellone's actions have impacted the Board's future, including a financial impact to the District and to the community. According to petitioners, if the Board had voted to issue a letter of non-renewal at the January 27, 2014, meeting, the Board would have had time to subsequently consider whether to offer Kasyan a new contract or to appoint a new superintendent at the expiration of Kasyan's term on June 30, 2014.

Respondent Bellone argues that petitioners have provided no facts to suggest that the District's future and/or finances will be adversely impacted by the renewal of Kasyan's contract. In addition, petitioners' argument regarding irreparable harm cannot succeed because the contemplated harm is at best, speculative.

I agree that petitioners have shown that they will suffer irreparable harm if they are not given the opportunity to perform their duties as Board members and consider the propriety of renewing Kasyan's contract. Bellone's actions in walking out of the meeting deprived these petitioners the ability to, at the very least, have a vote taken by the necessary quorum of four non-conflicted Board members in attendance at the meeting. His absence left three non-conflicted members, and no voting quorum. Had Bellone not left the meeting, his presumptive "no" or "abstain" vote would have maintained the quorum, and the motion could have been considered carried by a three vote majority, assuming four "yes" votes were not required as advised by attorney Brady. In that case, the Board would have had time to subsequently consider whether to offer Kasyan a new contract or to appoint a new superintendent at the expiration of Kasyan's term on June 30, 2014. Bellone's actions effectively did deprive petitioners of the ability to perform their duties as members of the Board, which is tasked with selecting the superintendent of the school district.

The legal right underlying petitioners' claim is not settled

The legal right underlying petitioners' claim is not settled because there is a question whether the Board needed a majority of the full board, and not just a majority of the non-conflicted members of the Board, to vote in the affirmative in order to issue the letter of non-renewal. According to Frasca, "[my] understanding is that there is current debate in the courts regarding this very issue." N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.1, which governs the reappointment of superintendents, is silent on this issue and petitioners have offered no case law that is dispositive of this issue. Thus, petitioners have failed to show that the law is settled with respect to whether the Board could have voted to non-renew Kasyan's contract without four affirmative votes from non-conflicted members.

Petitioners have also failed to show that the legal right underlying their claim is settled with respect to considering Bellone's action in leaving the meeting as an abstention. Petitioners have pointed to no case law, statute, or regulation that supports the conclusion that a board member who leaves a board meeting before roll is called in order to vote on a matter, and whose absence results in the lack of a quorum to vote on the matter, is deemed to have abstained from the vote. Even if the fact that Bellone left the meeting before a vote could be taken on the issue of Kasyan's contract did not affect the quorum such that the non-conflicted members of the Board could have voted on the motion to non-renew Kasyan's contract, and even if Bellone's vote is counted as an abstention, petitioners have failed to show that a majority vote of the quorum, or three affirmative votes, is enough to carry a motion to non-renew the contract of a superintendent. Thus, petitioners have failed to show that the legal right underlying their claim is settled.

Petitioners have not shown a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim

Based on the aforementioned analysis regarding petitioners' claim being unsettled, the same conclusion must be reached regarding petitioners' likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim. A decision cannot be made based solely on what is currently before this tribunal for the purpose of deciding the application for emergent relief. To state at this point that petitioners' should prevail, without any legal authority, and without having a full and complete record of evidence upon which to base such a decision, would be arbitrary and unreasonable. Thus, based upon all of the above, the petitioners have failed to establish a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim.

Petitioners will suffer greater harm than Bellone, but not Kasyan

Finally, petitioners will suffer greater harm than Bellone if the requested relief is not granted. However, Kasyan, who has intervened in this matter, may lose his job if the requested relief is granted. And, whether he ultimately loses his job or not, his employment record would reflect that he was issued a letter of non-renewal if the requested relief is granted. Thus, on balance, greater harm will occur to Kasyan if emergent relief is granted, than to petitioners if emergent relief is not granted.

As a result of the analysis of the emergent relief required four prong test and determinative factors, petitioners have been able to satisfy only one of the prongs, that is, that petitioners will suffer irreparable harm. To succeed on a request for emergent relief, petitioners must meet all four prongs. I CONCLUDE that petitioners have been unable to meet their burden of proof that emergency relief should be granted herein.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, upon consideration of the petitioners' request under the previously enumerated emergent relief standards, I ORDER that the petitioners have failed to prove that they meet all the standards for emergent relief, and I DENY the petitioners' Motion and DISMISS the application for emergent relief against Board member Bellone.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner alleged that his removal from the position of vice–principal in respondent's school district was a violation of the tenure statute. Petitioner had been appointed to the position of "acting" vice-principal in August 2010, and subsequently to the position of vice-principal in January 2012. He did not acquire the provisional administrative certificate required for the position of vice-principal until May 2012. In June 2013, petitioner was reassigned to a teaching position during a district reduction in force (RIF). Petitioner contends that he is tenured as a vice-principal. The respondent asserted that petitioner had not acquired tenure in the position of vice-principal in the district. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue, and the matter is ripe for summary judgment; under the tenure statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, a teaching staff member must hold the standard certificate and serve the required number of years to attain tenure; the petitioner herein worked for less than one year under a provisional certificate as part of his required residency, and had not yet completed the requirements for the standard certificate; therefore, petitioner had not been granted tenure as a vice-principal because he did not hold the standard administrative certificate required for that position. Accordingly, the ALJ determined that the respondent district is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law, and ordered the petition dismissed.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's finding that petitioner has not earned tenure as a vice-principal in respondent's district. The Commissioner clarified that tenure can be achieved through service under a provisional certificate, but only if the candidate satisfies all requirements for the standard certificate prior to termination from the position for which tenure is sought. Petitioner in this case had not yet completed the required two-year State-approved residency program when the district implemented a RIF and reassigned him to a teaching position. Accordingly, petitioner did not earn tenure as a vice-principal in the Camden school district. Summary decision was granted in favor of the respondent, and the petition was dismissed.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF CAMDEN, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:

Before the Commissioner is petitioner's claim that his removal from the position of vice-principal was a violation of the tenure statute. Upon review of the record and Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL),[1] the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner had not earned tenure as a vice-principal in respondent's district. He was consequently not entitled to remain in the position of vice-principal after a district reduction in force (RIF) precipitated his reassignment to a teaching position.

It is undisputed that although petitioner was appointed as an "acting" vice-principal in August 2010, and subsequently as a vice-principal in January 2012, he did not acquire the provisional administrative certificate required for the position of vice-principal until May 2012. In June 2013, thirteen months after petitioner obtained the provisional certificate, he was reassigned to a teaching position.

[1] Neither party filed exceptions to the Initial Decision.

In Anson v. Bridgeton Bd. of Educ., 1972 S.L.D. 638, the State Board of Education determined that tenure can be achieved through service under a provisional certificate only so long as the teacher satisfies specific conditional requirements of the provisional certificate.[2] Subsequent cases have held that, while service under provisional or emergency certificates may be counted toward the total amount of service required for tenure in a district, this is only the case where an employee obtains a permanent certificate in the same field prior to the termination of his or her employment. Breitwieser v. State-Operated School Dist. of Jersey City, 286 N.J. Super. 633, 644-45 (App. Div. 1996); Raymond Ruiz v. Board of Education of the Borough of Fort Lee, Bergen County, Commissioner Decision No. 109-12R, decided March 26, 2012.

To serve in the position of vice-principal in New Jersey, an employee must earn an administrative certificate with a principal endorsement. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-12.3(b). N.J.A.C. 6A:9-12.5(e) sets out the requirements for that credential. A candidate must first obtain a provisional certificate, which petitioner did. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-12.5(e)(1). Then a candidate must "[c]omplete a two-year State-approved residency program while employed under provisional principal certification in a school or district." N.J.A.C. 6A:9-12.5(e)(2). [Emphasis added.]

Petitioner had not satisfied the latter requirement when the RIF occurred and he was reassigned to a teaching position. His service as a vice-principal in the district under the proper certificate for his position had not lasted the requisite two years for tenure upon promotion pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, and he had not satisfied all requirements for a standard certificate prior to his termination from the vice-principal position. Thus, petitioner did not earn tenure as a vice-principal in respondent's district.

[2] That holding is in keeping with N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.1, which instructs that a standard certificate – the only permanent certificate – is issued only to candidates who have met all requirements for state certification.

Accordingly, summary disposition is granted in favor of respondent and the petition is dismissed.

BEFORE LISA JAMES-BEAVERS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Troy Jackson alleges that he was entitled to retain the position of vice principal from which respondent State-Operated School District of Camden (District) removed him.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a petition with the Department of Education Bureau of Controversies and Disputes on August 22, 2013. The District filed an answer on September 30, 2013. The Bureau transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case where it was filed on October 2, 2013. On October 8, 2013, the District filed a motion for summary decision seeking judgment as a matter of law and dismissal of the petition. On December 6, 2013, after the file was assigned to me, I sent correspondence to petitioner's counsel giving him fifteen days to file a reply brief. Because the deadline was just before the holiday, I waited for a response until January 7, 2014. I now render a decision granting the motion for summary decision.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Troy Jackson is a tenured staff member of the Camden School District, having begun as a technology coordinator, a position requiring an instructional certificate, in 2001. In August of 2010, Jackson was appointed to be an "acting" vice principal and became a vice principal in January of 2012. In May of 2012, Jackson obtained a provisional certificate for the administrative certification required for the position of vice principal. He then began his required, two-year residency under the certificate. Before he could complete the residency, in June of 2013 Jackson was reassigned to a teaching position by the district following a reduction in force.

DISCUSSION

Summary Decision Standard

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12-5 governs motions for summary decisions. The provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:1-12-5 mirror the language of R. 4:46-2 of the New Jersey Court Rules governing motions for summary judgment. Pursuant to these rules, a case may be dismissed before it is heard if, based on the papers and discovery which have been filed, it can be decided "that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12-5(b). "An issue of fact is genuine only if, considering the burden of persuasion at trial, the evidence submitted by the parties on the motion, together with all legitimate inferences therefrom favoring the non-moving party, would require submissions of the issues to the trier of fact." R. 4:46-2.

When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, the burden shifts to the adverse party to set forth, by affidavit, specific facts showing there is a genuine issue resolvable only by an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). To survive summary decision, the opposing party must show that "there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid. Failure to do so entitles the moving party to summary judgment. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995). A judge is to scrutinize the competent evidential materials presented, in a light most favorable to the non-moving party, and consider whether a rational fact-finder could resolve the disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. Id. at 540.

The New Jersey Supreme Court's standard for summary judgment is thus designed to "liberalize the standards so as to permit summary judgment in a larger number of cases" due to the perception that we live in "a time of great increase in litigation and one in which many meritless cases are filed." Brill, 142 N.J. at 539. As no material facts are in dispute in the present case, summary decision is appropriate.

Legal Analysis

Respondent seeks summary decision on the grounds that a tenured teacher, who has served as acting vice principal and then vice principal for at least three years, but who has only completed a year of his provisional certificate, has not acquired tenure in the position of vice principal. The tenure statute provides that tenure status is acquired when a teaching staff member holds a position, "which require[s] them to hold appropriate certificates issued by the board of examiners," that the certificates be "proper" and "in full force and effect" when in this position, and that the teaching staff member serve the required number of years. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5.

The certificates required are issued in categories, which are distinguished by the kind of work performed, and types, which refer to the holder's attainment of the requirements of the certificate. The categories of certificate are the instructional, administrative, and educational services certificates, within which endorsements for particular skills, i.e., classroom subjects, are issued. See N.J.A.C. 6A:8, 6A:12, 6A:13. The types of certificates are standard, provisional, and emergency. The standard certificate is issued to persons who have met all requirements for State certification. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.1. The provisional certificate is typically a temporary certificate, issued to those who have met the requirements for initial employment as part of a state-approved district training program or residency leading to standard certification. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.2. The emergency certificate is issued only within the educational services category of certificates, and is issued to fill positions left open due to unforeseen or extenuating circumstances. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-6.3.

The case law interprets N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 as placing two conditions on the attainment of tenure with regards to category and type of certificate. First, a teaching staff member must serve the required time only in positions for which their category of certificate is proper. Regardless of whether the certificate begins as provisional or emergency and becomes a standard certificate, so long as time is accrued within the same proper category of certificate, all of that time may be used to satisfy the tenure requirements. Breitwieser v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of City of Jersey City, Hudson Cnty., 286 N.J. Super. 633, 644 (App. Div. 1996) ("service under an emergency certificate may be counted towards the service needed for tenure only when that service is followed by the teacher ultimately obtaining a permanent certificate in the same field as the emergency certificate"). For instance, in Breitwieser, a teacher had served in an elementary school position under a standard certificate in the category of elementary school teaching for only a few weeks less than the required number of years to attain tenure. Id. at 635-636. The teacher argued that time she spent under an emergency certificate in educational services should be "tacked on" to her time in order to attain tenure. Id. at 640. The court found, however, that because the emergency certificate was in a different category from the teacher's standard certificate, the time served under the emergency certificate could not be counted toward the satisfaction of the tenure requirement. Id. at 644.

Second, and more importantly for this case, when a teaching staff member eventually claims tenure after the required amount of time, he or she must hold a standard certificate. Id. at 640 ("[A] teacher must hold a standard certificate when seeking tenure..."); see Ruiz v. Bd. of Ed. of the Boro. of Fort Lee, No. A-4443-11 (App. Div. July 8, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/> (lacking a standard certificate allowed a teacher with four years of experience under a provisional certificate to be denied tenure's protections against dismissal).

Petitioner cannot be granted tenure as vice principal because he has not attained the standard certificate. Petitioner has worked only under a provisional certificate for less than a year as part of his required residency and has not yet completed the requirements for the standard certificate. In each case in which a teaching staff member has attained tenure despite serving time under different types of certificates, he has been able to properly claim tenure because he finally possessed a standard certificate. Without the standard certificate, petitioner cannot claim tenure. Petitioner did not have his provisional certificate for serving as a vice principal long enough to acquire the standard certificate, which is the certificate required in order to properly claim tenure.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the District is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. Thus, the State-Operated School District of Camden's motion for summary decision is GRANTED.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that petition of Troy Jackson be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

DECISION

On June 14, 2013, James A. Bridge filed three unfair practice charges with the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) against the North Warren Regional School District Board of Education (Board). All of the unfair practice charges filed against the Board allege violations of the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act, N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4(a)(1)[1/] The first charge, CI-2013-59, alleges the Board violated the Act when the Superintendent issued a verbal and written warning to Bridge regarding a union-related flier he distributed to North Warren Regional Education Association (Association) members. The second charge, CI-2013-60, alleges the Board violated the Act when the Principal informed Bridge that he was being investigated for violating the Affirmative Action (AA) policy. The allegations for the investigation were that Bridge showed Association members an e-mail authored by the Association Vice-President, and rival for the Association presidency, that contained an anti-Semitic reference to the Superintendent. The third charge, CI-25013-61, alleged the Board violated the Act when it processed an AA complaint against Bridge relating to his Association activities. A fourth charge, CI-2013-62, was filed against the Association.[2/]

On August 26, 2013, Bridge filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education asserting similar allegations set forth in his unfair practice charges and an appeal of the withholding of his salary increment by the Board. Bridge filed another petition with the Commissioner related to the AA Office findings.

2/ The Director of Unfair Practices refused to issue a Complaint on the charge against the Association as it related to internal Association matters. D.U.P No. 2014-13, 40 NJPER __ (¶__ 2014).

This petition was consolidated with the first and transferred to the Office of Administrative Law on November 18, 2013.

On January 30, 2014, the PERC Director of Unfair Practices consolidated the unfair practice charges against the Board and issued a Complaint.

On January 13, 2014, the Board filed a motion with the Administrative Law Judge to consolidate the PERC and Commissioner of Education matters and for a predominant interest determination. On January 23, 2014, Bridge filed an answer opposing the motion.

On March 20, 2014, Administrative Law Judge Irene Jones issued an Order for Consolidation and Determination for Predominant Interest finding the matters should be consolidated and that PERC has the predominant interest.

Having independently evaluated the record, the Chair of the Public Employment Relations Commission, acting pursuant to authority delegated to her by the full Commission and the Commissioner of Education issue the following:

JOINT ORDER

The matters should be consolidated before PERC Hearing Examiner Wendy L. Young designated as a Special Administrative Law Judge pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-6(b). The Public Employment Relations Commission has the predominant interest. The Hearing Examiner will first offer recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law to both the Public Employment Relations Commission and the Commissioner of Education, disposing of all issues in controversy through a single initial decision under N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.3 and consistent with N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.8(a). Upon transmittal of the initial decision to both agencies, the underlying record will be forwarded to the Public Employment Relations Commission to resolve the unfair practice issues within its jurisdiction. PERC's decision and the complete record will then be sent to the Commissioner of Education who will decide any remaining education law issues.

If necessary, the matter will then be returned to PERC for any specialized relief necessitated by the Commissioner of Education's decision.

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about June 14, 2013, petitioner James A. Bridge (Bridge), a tenured teacher for the respondent, North Warren Regional School District (Board), filed unfair labor practice charges with the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) against the respondent. The charges stemmed from an investigation conducted by the District's Affirmative Action Officer (AAO) into the complaints that alleged Bridge had engaged in inappropriate conduct for disseminating an e-mail that contained a racial epithet directed at the District's Superintendent and that he creating a hostile work environment for his colleagues. The AAO found Bridge guilty of the two charges and recommended that the Board withhold Bridge's employment and adjustment increment for the 2013-2014 school year. Further, the AAO recommended that Bridge be required to attend a Board-approved workshop for sensitivity to discrimination in the workplace. Finally, the AAO recommended that a copy of the findings be maintained in Bridge's employment file.[1]

In the unfair labor charge Bridge alleged that the Board had impinged on his right to engage in political speech within the North Warren Regional Education Association in violation of N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4(a)(1). The second charge contained a second violation of N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4(a)(1) by the Board for interfering with his right to engage in political speech based on an incident that occurred on May 8, 2013. A third charge filed on that same day alleged that on May 24, 2013, the Board violated N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4(a)(1) by interfering with his right to engage in political activity/speech. A fourth charge was filed alleging violation of N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4(a) from incidents that also occurred on May 24, 2013. The PERC accepted the complaints and they were assigned charge numbers: CI-2013-059, CI2013-060, CI-2013-061, and CI-2013-062, and were consolidated by PERC. All charges, save, CI-2013-062, were filed against the Board.[2] On August 14, 2013, the Board filed an Answer to the charges.

On August 26, 2013, Bridge filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education seeking to appeal the same actions that he alleged in his unfair labor charges. Bridge also appealed the recommendation that his salary and employment increments be withheld.[3]

[1] Bridge did not file an appeal with the District from these filings.
[2] The fourth charge was filed against the North Warren Regional Education Association.
[3] Notably, Bridge not file an appeal at the District level. Thus, there was no hearing after the findings were issued by the AAO. Respondent also submitted a letter from Bridge's attorney appealing his increment withholding through the grievance procedure in the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

On September 27, 2013, the Board moved to dismiss the petitions, which were filed with the Commissioner under agency docket number 215-9/13. However, the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the OAL for hearing as a contested case on October 1, 2013, without deciding the Motion to Dismiss. The matter was assigned OAL docket number EDU 14001-13 and assigned to the undersigned. A prehearing conference was scheduled for November 13, 2013, but was adjourned.

On October 15, 2013, Bridge filed yet another petition with the Commissioner, which again appealed the findings of the AAO. This petition requested consolidation with his August 26 petition. The petition was accepted by the Commissioner and assigned agency docket number 257-10/13. On November 13, 2013, the Board moved to dismiss the second petition. Like the first petition, the Motion to Dismiss was not decided and it too was transmitted to the OAL on November 18, 2013, and assigned OAL docket number EDU 16637-13.

On or about January 13, 2014, the Board filed a Motion seeking to consolidate OAL docket numbers EDU 14001-13 and EDU 16637-13 with PERC docket numbers CI-2013-059, CI-2013-060, and CI-2013-061. It also requested a predominant interest determination order. On January 23, 2014, petitioner filed an Answer in opposition to the motion to consolidate and the predominant interest determination.

DISCUSSION

A party or the judge may move to consolidate a case that has been transmitted to the OAL with any other contested case involving common questions of fact or law between identical parties or between any party to the filed case and any other person, entity or agency. N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.1. The following shall be considered:

1. The identity of parties in each of the matters;
2. The nature of all the questions of fact and law respectively involved;
3. To the extent that common questions of fact and law are involved, the saving in time, expense, duplication and inconsistency which will be realized from hearing the matters together and whether such issues can be thoroughly, competently, and fully tried and adjudicated with and as a constituent part of all other issues in the two cases;

4. To the extent that dissimilar questions of fact or law are present, the danger of confusion, delay or undue prejudice to any party;
5. The advisability generally of disposing of all aspects of the controversy in a single proceeding; and
6. Other matters appropriate to a prompt and fair resolution of the issues, including whether a case still pending in an agency is contested or is ripe to be declared contested.

[N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.3.]

In this matter, I FIND that the Motion for Consolidation meets the criteria for consolidation. In this regard, I CONCLUDE that the charges and the petitions raise the same issues and arose out of the same issues and out of the same facts. As noted by the Board, the PERC Commission has already consolidated all four charges filed by Bridge, concluding that they are appropriate for consolidation.

Further, the petitioner requested that his petitions filed with the Department of Education be consolidated. I FIND that the petitions arise out of the same facts that were alleged in charges filed with the PERC. They, too, involve identical parties and questions of fact and law as those filed with PERC. Consolidation saves time and expense and avoids duplication and inconsistent determinations. Thus, I CONCLUDE that the within matters should be CONSOLIDATED.

The only remaining issue is which agency has the predominant interest pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.5. According to the regulation, the ALJ shall determine which agency, if any, has the predominant interest in the conduct and outcome of the matter by applying the following factors:

1. Whether more than one agency asserting jurisdiction over a common issue has jurisdiction over the issue, and if more than one agency has jurisdiction, whether the jurisdiction is mandatory for one of the agencies;
2. Whether the common issue before the two agencies is, for either agency, the sole, major or dominant issue in dispute and whether its determination would either serve to moot the remaining questions or to affect substantially their resolution;

3. Whether the allegations involve issues and interests which extend beyond the immediate parties and are of particular concern to one or the other agency;
4. Whether the claims, if ultimately vindicated, would require specialized or particularized remedial relief available in one agency, but not the other;
5. Whether the common issue is clearly severable from the balance of the controversy and thus will permit non-duplicative factual and legal determinations by each agency.

[N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.5.]

I FIND that the instant controversy arose out of disciplinary penalties imposed by the District against the petitioner. The District concluded that petitioner had engaged in inappropriate conduct and had created a hostile work environment. Thus, it proposed to withhold his salary and employment increments. In direct response to this action, petitioner filed four (4) charges with the PERC alleging that the District's actions infringed on his right to engage in free speech and interfered with his right to engage in political activity.

I FIND that while concurrent jurisdiction exists over the increment withholding, exclusive jurisdiction lies with PERC over petitioner's claims of infringement of his free speech and his allegations of unfair labor practices. I further FIND it is PERC who is vested with exclusive power to prohibit public employers from interfering with a public employee's right to exercise their rights under N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4. Since petitioner alleges that the District has engaged in and interfered with his rights under N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5.4, I FIND that the issue of unlawful/unfair labor practices is paramount, thus I CONCLUDE that PERC has the predominant interest in this matter. Moreover, this tribunal has no jurisdiction on petitioner's claim that the District violated and infringed on his right to engage in political activity and free speech.

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons, I ORDER that this matter lies with the PERC, who has the predominant interest over claims of interference with the petitioner's right to engage in political activity/political speech and his allegations of unfair labor practices and the denial of his salary increment. The PERC also has jurisdiction over the denial of his salary increments pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:13S-27(d)—as this issue arises predominantly from the Board's imposition of disciplinary actions.

This order may be adopted, modified or rejected by the PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION and COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law are authorized to make a final decision in this matter. THE PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION and THE COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION are encouraged to consult and coordinate with each other before issuing a final order. If the PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION and COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION do not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended order shall be deemed adopted by the PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION and COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. If the agency heads determine that THE PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION has the predominant interest, and that agency wishes to have the case heard by its personnel, it should so state in the final order.

NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WHARTON, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION

SYNOPSIS

The petitioning Board challenged the determination of the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of School Funding (NJDOE) that Boonton is the district with financial responsibility for the educational services provided to Z.M. – a special education student placed in a residential facility by the Department of Children and Families – during the 2011-2012 school year, pursuant to the State Facilities Education Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-1 et seq. Petitioner also asserted that the Wharton Board of Education was responsible for Z.M.'s educational costs because Z.M. and his mother had resided in Wharton prior to September 2010. Additionally, petitioner argued that the State Facilities Education Act is unconstitutional as applied to Boonton because the NJDOE and wealthier school districts have greater resources to finance Z.M.'s education; accordingly, the instant matter raises an "as applied" constitutional challenge rather than a "facial" constitutional challenge.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner has withdrawn its challenge as to which local district is required to pay for Z.M.'s tuition under N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12; therefore, only petitioner's constitutional challenge needed to be addressed; the Appellate Division, rather than the OAL, is the appropriate forum to decide the constitutionality of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a) as there are no material facts in dispute; because petitioner raises a purely legal, facial challenge to the statute, the Commissioner of Education does not have jurisdiction. The ALJ concluded that because the petitioner withdrew its challenge regarding which local district is responsible for Z.M.'s tuition, this appeal is moot.

Upon an independent review of the record, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter and dismissed the petition as moot.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction to rule on petitioner's facial challenge to the constitutionality of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a), and that the remaining issues raised in the Petition of Appeal have been rendered moot. BEFORE IMRE KARASZEGI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Z.M. is a student eligible for special education services who had been placed in a residential facility by the Department of Children and Families (DCF). Petitioner, the Boonton Board of Education (Boonton), challenges the determination of the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of School Funding (NJDOE), that Boonton is the district with fiscal responsibility for Z.M.'s educational services during the 2011-2012 school year, pursuant to the State Facilities Education Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-1 et seq. Boonton also maintained that the Wharton Board of Education (Wharton) was responsible for Z.M.'s educational costs because Z.M. and his mother, K.M, had resided in Wharton prior to September 2010. On April 13, 2013, Boonton filed a Voluntary Dismissal with Prejudice as to respondent, Wharton, with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL).

Petitioner also argues that the instant matter raises an "as applied" constitutional challenge, rather than a "facial" constitutional challenge, noting that the State Facilities Education Act is unconstitutional as applied to Boonton because the NJDOE, and wealthier school districts, have greater resources to finance Z.M.'s education.

Boonton filed its appeal before the Commissioner of Education on August 6, 2012. NJDOE filed its answer on August 27, 2012. On September 6, 2012, the matter was transmitted to the OAL for hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. On June 11, 2013, Boonton filed an Order affirming that the OAL has the authority to determine whether the State Facilities Education Act is unconstitutional as applied in this case. On August 6, 2013, NJDOE filed a letter brief in opposition to Boonton's assertion that N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-1 et seq. is unconstitutional as applied in this case and in support of NJDOE's cross-motion for summary decision. Boonton filed its reply brief on August 23, 2013. By letter dated November 21, 2013, and reiterated by telephone conference of the parties on December 9, 2013, Boonton advised that it had "withdrawn its challenge as to the legal mechanisms under N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12, regarding a hearing, as to which local district would be required under that statute to pay for this tuition for Z.M." With no factual issue in dispute as to the fiscal responsibility for Z.M.'s educational services during the 2011-2012 school year, only the constitutional challenge needs to be addressed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Generally, "in administrative proceedings, petitioners can attack the constitutionality of rules as applied, but may not mount facial attacks." 37 New Jersey Practice, Administrative Law and Practice, § 3.8 at 107 (Steven L. LeFelt, Anthony Miragliotta & Patricia Prunty) (rev. 2d ed. 2000). Facial challenges cannot be resolved in administrative hearings, because "[p]ure legal questions are exclusively reserved for the courts. Accordingly, an agency has no power to determine the constitutionality of a statute on its face." Id. at 108. Rather, "[t]he proper procedure was to raise these claims before the Appellate Division upon appeal from an adverse decision of the [agency]." Christian Bros. Inst. v. N. New Jersey Interscholastic League, 86 N.J. 409, 415-416 (1981); see also Wendling v. New Jersey Racing Comm'n, 279 N.J. Super. 477, 485 (App. Div. 1995). Nevertheless, when confronted with a facial constitutional challenge, the agency may "either express its opinion on the constitutionality question or simply note its lack of jurisdiction to determine the matter." 37 New Jersey Practice, Administrative Law and Practice, § 3.8 at 109 (Steven L. LeFelt, Anthony Miragliotta & Patricia Prunty) (rev. 2d ed. 2000).

Of course, whether a constitutional challenge is facial or "as applied" may be difficult to determine. See Jones v. Dep't of Cmty. Affairs, Div. of Codes and Standards, Bureau of Rooming and Boarding Hous. Standards, 395 N.J. Super. 632, 635-36 (App. Div. 2007). The Appellate Division warned that > [w]hether the constitutional issues are framed as facial challenges to statutes or regulations, or asserted deprivations of the claimant's rights in the manner in which such provisions have been applied, or arguments that due process violations have occurred in the enforcement of those provisions, the factual background of the matter must be developed either through stipulated facts or in a litigation process.

However, "[i]f any issues of facial unconstitutionality exist that turn out to be independent of the facts in the case and survive the contested case process, they can be addressed on judicial review." Id. at 636. In other words, to determine whether a challenge is purely legal, and therefore facial, a record must be developed at the administrative level to establish that no factual disputes render the challenge "as-applied." See Ibid.

However, "[a]s applied" has a meaning different from a mere claim that a regulation has worked a unique, unwarranted hardship on certain individuals; if that were the criteria, virtually all constitutional claims by petitioners would be as applied. Giordano v. New Jersey Pinelands Comm'n, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EPC) 25, 27. For example, in Giordano, property owners contested the decision of the Pinelands Commission that applicable regulations precluded development on the subject property, and the property did not qualify for a waiver. Id. at 26. ALJ Reback noted that "petitioners [did] not dispute the property's failure to meet the minimum depth to seasonal high water level, nor [did] they dispute their failure to meet all of the criteria to qualify for a waiver." Id. at 27. Therefore, because the petitioner was "challenging the validity of the rule itself rather than the way in which it is being applied against her, this [was] a facial constitutional challenge and cannot be heard in the OAL. The proper forum for petitioner to assert such a claim [was] the Appellate Division." Ibid.

Here, Boonton argues that this is an "as applied" challenge to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b). However, Boonton does not specify any relevant contested facts that render the application of this statute unconstitutional as applied to Boonton. See Ibid. Whether a constitutional challenge is facial or "as applied" cannot be determined by the parties' characterization of the challenge, but only by consideration of whether the matter presents questions of fact, or purely legal issues. See Jones, supra, 395 N.J. Super. at 635-36.

The relevant statute provides that

> [t]he district of residence for children who are in residential State facilities, or who have been placed by State agencies in group homes, skill development homes, private schools or > out-of-State facilities, shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency.

> [N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b).]

In turn, the implementing regulation provides that "[t]he 'present district of residence' of a child in a residential State facility . . . referred to in the first paragraph of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) means the New Jersey district of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the last school day prior to October 16." N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2(a)(1).

Boonton argues that the interplay between this statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a),[1] and N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 renders this statute unconstitutional as applied to Boonton. Specifically, Boonton argues

> [p]ursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33, State Aid is provided to districts based upon student rolls, including those students in a State facility, as of October 15 of the preceding year. For students in State facilities, the aid is then deducted for the student's education costs in accordance with [N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a).] In this case, it is undisputed that Z.M.'s mother, ("K.M."), was not living in Boonton on October 15, 2010. Thus the District is requested to reimburse the State for the cost of a resident child's tuition when the District did not receive funding pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 by which to pay it.

First, N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 does not specify that State aid is calculated from the previous year's report, but merely requires that the board of education secretary must file a report by October 20 of each school year "containing all data necessary to effectuate the aid provisions of P.L. 2007, c. 260 (C.18A:7F-43 et al.), which shall include but not be limited to . . . the number of pupils in State facilities . . . on the last school day prior to October 16." N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33. In turn, N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-43 to -63, the School Funding Reform Act of 2008, is silent as to when State aid is calculated and released. Furthermore, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a) provides that

[1] Boonton cites N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(c), though clearly refers to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a). (Emphasis added.)

> [f]or each State-placed child who is resident in a district and in a State facility on the last school day prior to October 16 of the prebudget year, and for each district-placed child who is resident in a district and in a State facility on the last school day prior to October 16 of the budget year, the Commissioner of Education shall deduct from the State aid payable to that district an amount equal to the approved per pupil cost . . . .

Moreover, at least one administrative decision suggests that these two provisions actually refer to October 15 of the same school year. See Bd. of Educ. of Piscataway v. New Jersey Dep't of Educ., Office of Sch. Funding, EDU 05063-10, Initial Decision, (October 4, 2010), adopted, Comm'r (November 8, 2010), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, aff'd, A-1916-10 (App. Div. April 19, 2012), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/>. In Piscataway, a district argued that if a parent of a child placed in a State institution moves subsequent to October 15, the district the parent moves to should bear the financial responsibility for the child's placement. See Piscataway, supra, Initial Decision at *9. ALJ Bass explained the district's argument was > inconsistent with the statutory scheme for awarding State aid, which is based on a once-annual report of student enrollment data. No other approach would be practical or workable, as, indeed, in every district there are children who leave and those who enter during a given school year. As it must, N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 fixes a point in time upon which to assess enrollments, and that point in time is the last school day prior to October 16. Consistent with that approach, N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2 fixes the same point in time, the last school day prior to October 16, for making a residency determination from which a grant of State aid will flow.

> [Ibid. (emphasis added).]

Therefore, at least one decision interprets these two provisions to refer to October 15 of the same year. See Ibid.

Second, assuming, arguendo, that N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 awards State aid calculated from the previous year's report, but deducts State aid calculated from the current year's report, Boonton will still receive funds to account for Z.M. K.M.

incontrovertibly lived in Boonton on October 15, 2011. Therefore, Boonton would still receive State aid to account for Z.M., at worst, one year after State aid is deducted to account for Z.M. Indeed, the statute contemplates a more dire potential outcome for districts, and provides that > [i]f, for any district, the amount to be deducted pursuant to subsection a. of this section is greater than State aid payable to the district, the district shall pay to the Department of Education the difference between the amount to be deducted and the State aid payable to the district.

Third, regardless of the interplay between N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 and N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12, such interplay applies identically to all districts. If Boonton faces a hardship because State aid will be deducted from the 2011-2012 school year, and will not be recouped until the 2012-2013 school year, all districts face the same hardship. See N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 and N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12. Because Boonton is "challenging the validity of the rule itself rather than the way in which it is being applied against [Boonton], this is a facial constitutional challenge and cannot be heard in the OAL." Giordano, supra, 96 N.J.A.R.2d at 27. The other argument Boonton raises similarly challenge the validity of the statutory scheme itself. Boonton argues that it "is subject to a 2% tax levy cap by the State, while its per student budget for the 2011-12 school year was vastly reduced by well more than half of the State Aid [Boonton] had been receiving in prior years." However, all school districts are subject to the 2% tax levy cap. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-38. Moreover, Boonton does not explain why it received less State aid for the 2011-2012 school year than past years, but presumably, such changes reflect changes in statewide funding, or changes in Boonton's need for such funding. Boonton does not argue that such reduced State aid is a unique circumstance not faced by other districts. Similarly, Boonton argues that the deduction for Z.M.'s placement "equates to one, if not two teachers' salaries in [Boonton] . . . " and such funds "could be utilized for educational programs, school repairs, and a variety of other worthwhile expenditures to improve the education for in-district students." However, the same is true of every deduction for a student placed in a State facility, and the district of residence that is financially responsible for that placement. Finally, Boonton asserts that "the inequities herein are especially significant in light of the fact that Z.M. did not reside in [Boonton], and was not educated by [Boonton], directly prior to his incarceration." However, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a) does not consider whether the student actually attended the district of residence, for Boonton or any other district. Thus, to the extent Boonton raises a constitutional challenge, the challenge is purely legal, and does not depend on any fact finding to establish that this statute is uniquely unconstitutional as applied to Boonton. Giordano, supra, 96 N.J.A.R.2d at 27. As such, Boonton may appeal an adverse decision by the Commissioner and raise a facial challenge to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a) before the Appellate Division. See Jones, supra, 395 N.J. Super. at 635-36. However, I CONCLUDE that as the parties do not dispute any material facts, the Appellate Division, rather than the OAL, is the appropriate forum to decide the constitutionality of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2(a).

In summary therefore, I CONCLUDE that the Commissioner of Education does not have jurisdiction to determine Boonton's constitutional challenge, because Boonton raises a purely legal, facial challenge to a statute, which does not require any fact finding to determine. The Commissioner does have jurisdiction to determine the district of residence of a student placed in a State facility by another State agency, because that determination is addressed by the school laws. Because Boonton has withdrawn its challenge as to the legal mechanism under N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 regarding which local district would be responsible to pay for the tuition of Z.M., the issue raised by Boonton in this appeal has been rendered moot.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that Boonton's appeal is DISMISSED.

It is further ORDERED that the Commissioner of Education does not have jurisdiction to rule on Boonton's purely legal, facial claim that N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 is unconstitutional.

In light of the above, it is no longer necessary to decide respondent's cross-motion for summary decision.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 2, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated December 23, 2013.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

WILFREDO ROMERO , Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09657-2010N Agency Ref. No. 299-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, Wilfredo Romero ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned Wilfred Romero v. Elizabeth Board of Education , which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. EDU 09657-2010N, Agency Dkt. No. 299-8/10 (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $38,869.83, for the period from September 1, 2010 through October 3, 2011. This amount has already been reduced in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD). The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through October 3, 2011. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, 2010 and July and August, 2011 do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, 2010 or September, 2011 at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from September 1, 2010.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from September 1, 2010 through October 3, 2011 was $28,200.00.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $38,869.83.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from September 1, 2010 through October 3, 2011. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $38,869.83. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "Wilfredo Romero."

5. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from September 1, 2010 to October 3, 2011. In addition, Petitioner will receive full seniority for the period September 1, 2010 through October 3, 2011. This period shall also be treated as active employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

6. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board.

7. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 school years. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

8. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

11. Petitioner represents that he/she is freely entering into this Agreement, that he/she is acting with the advice of counsel of his/her choosing, and that he/she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

12. The Board represents that it has taken all action necessary for the adoption of this settlement as a binding action of the Elizabeth Board of Education.

13. This settlement is subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received. Upon approval of this Settlement and Release by the Commissioner of Education, the Board shall issue the payments required herein within 30 calendar days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, or their duly authorized representatives, do set forth their hands and seal as of the date(s) set forth below.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

The petitioners challenged the determination of the respondent Board that their son, K.H., engaged in behavior that fell under the school district's policy against harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB). This case stems from incidents which arose during the week of October 1, 2012, wherein K.H. – an eighth grader at the time – was among a group of boys who chanted "kool-aid" to tease and taunt an African-American classmate when he walked by in the school hallways and in the locker room. K.H. received a one-day, in-school suspension and counseling as discipline for violating the Board's policy prohibiting HIB. Petitioners asked that their son's "conviction under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.2 and the District's policies be reversed and vacated". The Board contended that its actions were at all times compliant with applicable statutes and regulations governing student conduct, and a reasonable and appropriate exercise of its authority.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: pursuant to New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, K.H.'s actions in October 2012 constituted HIB as that term is defined by law; K.H.'s use of the word "kool-aid" was directed at a fellow student because of his race, thereby insulting and demeaning him; petitioners' argument that K.H.'s conduct was a single incident and thus cannot rise to HIB was unpersuasive, as it ignored the factual record and the explicit statutory definition of HIB; the actions of school personnel and the Board were consistent with the letter and spirit of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.9; and the petitioners have failed to prove that the Board's actions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the ALJ recommended dismissal of the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the petitioners failed to sustain their burden to show that the Board's actions regarding K.H.'s conduct in October 2012 were arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.[1]

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the Board's decision to impose a one-day suspension on K.H. for violating N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 and the Board's Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying policy was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Record Closed: January 31, 2014 Decided: February 24, 2014

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioners, residents of Franklin Lakes, challenge the determination of the Franklin Lakes Board of Education (the Board) that their eighth-grade son, K.H., engaged in behavior statutorily defined as harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB). In their prayer for relief, petitioners ask that their son's "conviction under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.2 and the District's policies be reversed and vacated." The Board replies that its actions were at all times compliant with applicable statutes and regulations governing student conduct and was a reasonable and appropriate exercise of its authority.

The petition of appeal was filed with the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) on September 3, 2013. An answer was filed on September 10, 2013, and the matter transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on September 11, 2013. A plenary hearing was conducted on December 10 and 11, 2013. Post-hearing submissions were filed on January 24, 2014, and January 31, 2014, at which time the record closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS OF FACTS

On July 19, 2011, the Board adopted a formal policy prohibiting HIB on school premises and at school functions. The policy states:

> The board of education believes that a safe and civil environment in school is necessary for students to learn and achieve high academic standards . . . . Harassment, intimidation or bullying, like other disruptive or violent behaviors, is conduct that disrupts both a student's ability to learn and a school's ability to educate its students in a safe environment . . . . The board prohibits acts of harassment, intimidation, or bullying against any student. School responses to harassment, intimidation and bullying shall be aligned with the board-approved code of student conduct which establishes standards, policies and procedures for positive student development and student behavioral expectations on school grounds, including on a school bus or at school sponsored functions . . . .

A student handbook reiterates the district's lack of tolerance for bullying. (R-1.) The issue of bullying and harassment is discussed at student assemblies and is reinforced by faculty and staff throughout the school year.

The events pertinent to this dispute arose during the week of October 1, 2012, when K.H. was a student at Franklin Avenue Middle School and enrolled in Cory Banta's seventh-grade physical education class. Banta is an eight-year veteran of the Franklin Lakes School District, who had dismissed her seventh-period class on October 5, 2012, when a student who had remained behind in the boys' locker room, C.H., reported that he had been "five starred" by a classmate, A.S. Banta was unfamiliar with this term, and C.H. explained that it meant hitting someone hard with an open hand, so that it left a mark. He lifted his shirt and showed Banta the imprint of a hand on his back.

Banta knew that no school counselors or administrators were in the building, so she sent C.H. to his next class. She was surprised by C.H.'s story, because A.S. was an eager class participant; a quiet and compliant boy; and this sort of behavior seemed out of character for him. Banta confronted A.S., who immediately burst into tears. A.S. advised her that C.H., K.H., and K.C., had been saying "kool-aid" to him for several days. A.S. is Black, and he perceived that this phrase was directed at him because of his race. He had asked his classmates to stop and he let them know he felt offended; but they persisted. A.S. hit C.H. in frustration. Banta replied that she wished he had let her know sooner, so that she could have intervened on his behalf. She checked whether any school counselors or administrators had become available, but none had; accordingly, she sent A.S. to class after admonishing him that disputes are not best resolved through physical violence. Banta in turn sent an email to Principal Joseph Keiser, Vice Principal Eva Prunk, and Anti-Bullying Specialist Kaitlin Brennan, in which she summarized the events that afternoon.[1]

Monday, October 8, 2012, was a school holiday. On October 9, 2012, after consulting with building administration, Brennan opened an investigation. She interviewed A.S., the three boys alleged to have bullied him, nine additional student

[1] Banta related that sometime prior to October 5, 2012, K.C. asked her if it was alright to use the word "kool-aid." The question came out of context, and according to Banta, K.C. was a student who typically engaged in chitchat in an effort to delay leaving for his next class. She quickly told him that use of that expression was alright so that he would continue to his next class. This exchange was offered as proof that the conduct of K.H. and his classmates had been sanctioned by his teacher. But Banta persuasively urged that K.C. knew that what he and his friends were doing was wrong and were using her to validate their poor behavior.

witnesses, and Banta. While Brennan did ask each interviewee to identify any other students who might have knowledge of the events, the nine student witnesses were largely selected at random based upon a review of the class roster. Indeed only A.S. and one other student identified additional witnesses by name; most of the interviewees informed Brennan that anyone in the locker room that day would have knowledge of the relevant events. Each student was interviewed by Brennan alone and in her office.[2] Brennan explained that she supplied no factual prompts to the students; rather, she simply stated that she had heard there had been an incident in gym class, and asked the students if they had any information to share with her. If a student offered that others were teasing or bullying A.S., Brennan would ask who was doing so, but would not suggest any particular students by name. She started her investigation by talking with A.S. Brennan noted that she would typically begin an HIB investigation in this way so that she could best understand the alleged victim's concerns, and make those concerns her focal point.

Brennan related that A.S. was visibly upset when she spoke with him; was reserved and quiet; and readily admitted that he had hit C.H. Brennan found him credible, and indeed, his story was consistent with that earlier shared with Banta. A.S. reiterated that K.H., K.C., and C.H. were saying "kool-aid" to him, and had started doing so during the week of October 1, 2012. He reiterated that he had asked them to stop. Two other young men who had joined in teasing him, D.G. and H.G., respected A.S.'s request; but the other students persisted. A.S. "five-starred" C.H. after he again said "kool-aid" to him in the locker room on October 5, 2012. A.S. identified two classmates who could corroborate his concerns—P.B. and E.L. Brennan memorialized his statement on an investigation form. (J-1(C)(4).)

From there, Brennan conducted nine witness interviews. Every student she spoke to confirmed that A.S.'s classmates were repeating the words "kool-aid." Seven of the students were aware that this was upsetting to A.S., although quite a few did not understand why. Two students heard the words being used, but saw no one that was upset by it. One student, D.G., admitted to engaging in the controverted behavior himself, and confirmed that he stopped upon being advised by A.S. that it was offensive. D.G. confirmed that other students continued to taunt A.S.; but he declined to identify these classmates. Two students shared that their classmates were teasing A.S. by chanting "kool-aid" and "fried chicken." V.E. did not understand the meaning behind these phrases, so he asked K.H., who explained, "That's what Black people eat and drink." (J-1(C)(15).) An additional interviewee, E.L. likewise confirmed that these words were being said to A.S. because of his race, and because these foods are "stereotypical" for Black people.

A review of the investigation forms completed by Brennan reveals that M.E. specifically named K.H. as one of the students who was taunting A.S. He is the sole interviewee to have done so. But M.E. was selected at random, and like all the interviewees, he was not prompted to identify K.H. as one of the students taunting A.S. M.E. shared that he heard K.H. and two other boys saying "kool-aid" loudly in the locker room. He was among those confused as to the meaning of "kool-aid," but was aware that his classmates were upsetting A.S. M.E. noted that A.S. sometimes ignored his tormentors, and other times "defended himself" by asking them to stop. (J-1(C)(13).) M.E.'s comments to Brennan were hearsay, but were nonetheless admissible in an administrative proceeding.

However, in accordance with the "residuum rule," a factual finding cannot be based on hearsay alone. Weston v. State, 60 N.J. 36 (1972). As the Weston court stated:

> Hearsay may be employed to corroborate competent proof, or competent proof may be supported or given added probative force by hearsay testimony. But in the final analysis for a court to sustain an administrative decision, which affects the substantial rights of a party, there must be a residuum of legal competent evidence in the record to support it.
>
> [Id. at 51.]

The Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules are in accord, and require that "some legally competent evidence must exist to support each ultimate finding of fact to an extent sufficient to provide assurances of reliability and to avoid the fact or appearance of arbitrariness." N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b). Corroboration of M.E.'s hearsay statements to Brennan came from A.S. himself.

A.S. was competent to testify, albeit only thirteen-years old. Our courts have held that "[w]itness disqualification is the exception to the general rule of witness competency." Germann v. Matriss, 55 N.J. 193 (1970); see also State v. Butler, 27 N.J. 560, 602 (1958) (citing State v. Mohr, 99 N.J.L. 124, 127 (E. & A. 1923)). The determination as to whether a particular witness is competent lies within the discretion of the judge. State v. R.W., 104 N.J. 14, 19 (1986). N.J.R.E. 601 likewise provides for the general presumption of competency to testify, unless the proposed witness is incapable of expression concerning the matter so as to be understood by the judge and jury either directly or through interpretation; or is incapable of understanding the duty of a witness to tell the truth. See State v. Scherzer, 301 N.J. Super. 363, 463-64 (App. Div. 1997). I discussed the responsibility to tell the truth with A.S. and was convinced that he was mature enough to understand his obligations as a witness in a legal proceeding.

A.S.'s demeanor was much as Banta and Brennan had described him, quiet and so soft spoken that I had to repeatedly coax him to speak up. When asked if he and K.H. were friends A.S. replied with adolescent naiveté that he was unsure, they talked a bit in seventh grade, but not so much anymore. He seemed to derive no particular joy from testifying against K.H., and he told his story in a shy but firm and consistent manner. As a result, he was utterly believable, and I heard nothing that would evidence a motivation for him to lie. Indeed, the record revealed that A.S. was punished with the imposition of a detention for striking C.H. He did not challenge that penalty, and indeed, his mother, Dr. S., testified that she had advised her son that he deserved his detention because regardless of what is said to you, "you do not raise a hand."

According to A.S., K.H. was one of five boys who, during the week of October 1, 2012, began to chant "kool-aid" when he would walk by in the school hallways and in the locker room. A.S. was adamant that these comments were racially motivated; he noted emphatically that they only chanted this phrase for his benefit. Upon informing two of the boys that this offended him they asked why, urging that "kool-aid" was only a beverage. A.S. replied, "Then why do you only say it to me?" He testified that K.H., K.C., and C.H. all were taunting him in the locker room on October 5, 2012. A.S. forthrightly admitted that he finally felt pushed too far and hit C.H. According to A.S., K.H. and C.H. were both in the locker room when he "five starred" C.H.; C.H. left and alerted Banta about the incident; and A.S. confirmed that he was then called into Banta's office.

K.H. also testified at the hearing. He likewise presented as a youngster of sufficient maturity to testify competently. K.H. is a personable and intelligent fourteen-year-old young man, who by all accounts has no prior record of misbehavior in school. But his testimony was a bit rehearsed and emotionless. K.H. was present during A.S.'s testimony and that of Dr. S. and I was able to further observe his reaction. K.H. remained emotionless.

K.H. admitted saying "kool-aid" in the locker room, although he denied saying it on October 5, 2012. But K.H. testified that he said the word softly to himself, and not within earshot of A.S. He urged that he never directed the word at A.S., but rather, had repeated it as a joke in regard to a television program, Family Guy. In that program, the "Kool-Aid Man" bursts through a wall and says "oh yeah." K.H. and his group of friends find this amusing. Several other students interviewed by Brennan confirmed that this is a scene in the Family Guy program that some of the students enjoy, and a few even reported that they wished to be the "Kool-Aid Man" for Halloween. But K.H. readily conceded that "kool-aid" also could have a different and derogatory meaning, and clearly knew that this expression also alluded to a racial stereotype.

K.H.'s testimony lacked credibility. Our courts have held that "credibility findings . . . are often influenced by matters such as observations of the character and demeanor of witnesses . . . that are not transmitted by the record." State v. Lourito, 157 N.J. 463, 474 (1998). A credibility determination requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, internal consistency and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). K.H.'s assertion that he softly stated "kool-aid" into his locker as a reference to Family Guy simply made no sense. He would have done so only to elicit a reaction from friends who shared the inside joke. If A.S. could not hear him, his friends likely would not have either. But in any event, the record amply confirms that K.H. did not say these words softly, or as he put it "not loudly enough for anyone to hear"; indeed, both A.S. and M.E. heard him. K.H. denied that he knew A.S. was offended, and he moreover denied that A.S. had requested that the teasing stop. Both assertions fell flat. Indeed both M.E. and D.G. had informed Brennan that A.S. asked his tormentors to stop chanting "kool-aid."[3] I FIND that K.H. was one of a group of boys who chanted "kool-aid" to tease A.S. because of his race.

In an investigation summary report dated October 16, 2012, Brennan concluded that K.H.'s actions constituted HIB as defined by law. She recommended a one-day in-school suspension and counseling as the appropriate disciplinary response. In a letter dated October 25, 2012, Superintendent of Schools Frank Romano confirmed that the results of the investigation had been reported to the Board at its executive session meeting. (J-1(E).) Romano approved the discipline to be imposed and advised K.H.'s parents that they had a right to request a hearing before the Board. Petitioners appeared before the Board on May 28, 2012. Brennan reviewed the results of her investigation. K.H. chose not to testify on his own behalf. The Board concluded that he made the offending remark within earshot of A.S. and that K.H. knew that the remark was racially derogatory. The discipline imposed was upheld, as was the finding that K.H.'s conduct constituted HIB. (J-1(G).)

Dr. S.'s testimony served to underscore how deeply cruel words hurt, particularly when those words are racially charged. Dr. S. was a compelling and poignant witness. She described how upset she and her family were to learn that A.S. had been teased in school, and that he had reacted by hitting a peer. She was deeply troubled that he felt unable to confide in her sooner so that she could have intervened on his behalf. Even after the incident came to light, A.S. would not share the names of his tormentors; he not want to get them in trouble. Always a lively participant in sports, A.S. left a recent game early and without explanation. He always welcomed his mother's attendance at school musical concerts; A.S. now asked her not to come. Dr. S. testified through tears that she feared he may be embarrassed by her because she is Black. I thus FIND that K.H.'s conduct was upsetting to A.S. and that A.S. was made to feel uncomfortable in his school and extra-curricular environments.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Franklin Lakes' HIB policy was adopted in response to comprehensive amendments to the New Jersey Anti-Bullying Law. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. The 2010 amendments, which were approved on January 5, 2011, and took effect with the 2011-2012 school year, strengthened the definition of HIB to include:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act . . . whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic such as race, color . . . or by any other distinguishing characteristic . . . that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging a student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or be severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.]

Districts are required by law to adopt policies that prohibit HIB; that outline expectations for student behavior; that set forth consequences for inappropriate behavior; and create procedures for reporting HIB related concerns. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15. A school anti-bullying specialist must be assigned to each school, and the results of HIB investigations must be shared with the Superintendent of Schools and the Board of Education. Parents are entitled to receive written information about the investigation within five school days after the results of the investigation have been reported to the board. Parents may request a board-level hearing, to be conducted within ten days of the request. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(6)(d). Regulations promulgated by the Department of Education further assist local districts in complying with these statutory requirements. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.9.

I CONCLUDE that K.H.'s actions constituted HIB, as that term is defined by law. The Board correctly points out that "in order to constitute HIB, K.H.'s conduct need only satisfy one of the three prongs of the sub-parts of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14"; this is plain from the statute's use of the word "or" as a conjunction. But the Board likewise correctly points out that K.H.'s conduct satisfied all three prongs. K.H.'s use of the word "kool-aid" was directed at A.S. because of his race; insulted and demeaned A.S.; and his actions interfered with A.S.'s education. Upset and embarrassed children are not fully available for learning. Petitioners' unpersuasive argument that at worst K.H.'s conduct was a single incident and thus cannot rise to HIB ignores both the factual record and the explicit statutory definition to the contrary.

I recognize that in October 2012 K.H. was only thirteen years old and in every other respect a solid school citizen. He certainly impressed me as a well-mannered child, and one with a bright and promising future. But K.H.'s behavior relative to A.S. was inappropriate and hurtful, and the intent of the HIB law is to ensure that such misconduct is properly redirected at an early age. Every action has a reaction; better to learn young and in school that racial epithets are intolerable and will garner a negative reaction then later, in the workplace or on the street. In light of K.H.'s spotless school record, the discipline imposed by the district was measured and appropriate. I CONCLUDE that the actions of school personnel, and the Board, were consistent with the letter and spirit of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.9.

Petitioners disagree, urging that administration and the Board were unfair to their son. The Commissioner will not overturn a local board in the absence of a finding that its actions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of

Educ., EDU 2780-07, Initial Decision (February 6, 2008), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (citing Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581(1966)). The Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board of education, whose exercise of its discretion may not be disturbed unless shown to be "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). Our courts have held that "[w]here there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Thus, in order to prevail, petitioners must demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it. T.B.M., supra, EDU 2780-07. It is a weighty burden; one which I CONCLUDE these petitioners have not met. This record has presented me with no evidence that would suggest that the actions of this Board, or its personnel, were taken in bad faith or in utter disregard of the circumstances presented.[4]

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that the petition of appeal be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

[4] Petitioners unpersuasively argue that the Board carried the burden of proving the charges against K.H. by a preponderance of the credible evidence, citing In re East Park High School, 314 N.J. Super. 149, 168 (App. Div. 1998). East Park High School pertains to charges against a school employee and is inapposite. The provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 expand upon the existing body of statutory provisions governing student conduct. These provisions make it clear that it is necessary for school administration and staff to control student conduct in the interest of orderly and effective schools. See N.J.S.A. 18A:37-1. Since local Boards must be afforded the discretion to operate their schools in a manner that best serves their unique communities, the Commissioner has consistently declined to interfere with local discretion and has consistently applied the arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable standard to appeals of student disciplinary matters, including HIB matters. See J.D. and E.D. o/b/o B.D. v. Toms River Bd. of Educ., EDU 6009-97, Initial Decision (November 19, 1997), adopted, Comm'r (December 29, 1997), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>; J.M.C. v. E. Brunswick Bd. of Educ., EDU 4144-12, Initial Decision (November 26, 2012), adopted, Comm'r (January 10, 2013), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD, UNION COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner observes that in paragraph 5 of the Agreement, the parties stipulate that:

> The District will never report H.H.L.'s name, initials, student number, or any other identifying information to the State of New Jersey in connection with its obligation to provide data regarding incidents of violence or vandalism or incidents of HIB, and the District represents that it is not obligated to provide any student's name, initials, student number, or any other identifying information to the State of New Jersey regarding incidents of violence or vandalism or incidents of HIB.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-5.3(d)1, the chief school administrator is required to submit each instance of HIB to the Commissioner of Education utilizing the Electronic Violence and Vandalism Reporting System (EVVRS). The reports must be submitted twice each year, once for incidents occurring between September 1 and January 1 and once for incidents occurring between January 1 and June 30. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-5.3(d)1i. The HIB incident in this case occurred on or about April 26, 2013; therefore, the incident should have already been entered into EVVRS. More importantly, districts are not authorized to waive the reporting requirements. See, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-5.3(d)1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:17-46.

Moreover, the EVVRS requires that the district enter the NJSMART number of each victim and offender involved in all HIB incidents. Therefore, the Commissioner cannot approve an Agreement wherein the district represents that it is not obligated to provide the student's identifying information to the State of New Jersey. It should be noted, however, that the data in EVVRS and NJSMART are not connected in any way; therefore it is not possible for the data entered into EVVRS to be accessed by another district or any other unauthorized user.

Additionally, in paragraph 14 of the Agreement it states that the "Agreement is not subject to approval by the Springfield Board of Education." Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13, "[w]here a district board of education is a party to a contested matter, any proposed settlement ... shall indicate, by signature of the board attorney or inclusion of the district board of education's resolution authorizing settlement, that the district board of education has consented to the terms of the settlement." Therefore, the Commissioner cannot approve an Agreement containing language expressly stating that the Agreement is not subject to approval by the district board of education.

Accordingly, the Commissioner hereby remands this matter to the OAL for revision of the Agreement consistent with the concerns set forth above. If the parties are unwilling or unable to reach accord on a modified agreement for submission to the Commissioner, the matter shall proceed to hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

This consolidated matter involves an application to change where the Borough of Interlaken – a non-operating school district – sends its pre-K through 12th grade students to receive a public education. The Interlaken Board of Education (Interlaken) filed a petition of appeal in April 2012 which sought to sever its send-receive relationship with the Asbury Park Board of Education (Asbury Park), and permission to establish send-receive relationships with the West Long Branch and Shore Regional Boards of Education (Interlaken I). Petitioner also sought and received an order permitting those Interlaken students who were registered to attend school in West Long Branch and/or Shore Regional – as of the date of the order – to attend school in those districts pending the final outcome of the case. Interlaken II was filed by a group of Interlaken parents after this initial order was granted, and sought permission to allow their children to also be registered in West Long Branch and/or Shore Regional. The Commissioner's Order in Interlaken II granted relief to all children residing in the Borough of Interlaken and permitted them to attend school in West Long Branch and Shore Regional pending the final outcome of Interlaken I. Subsequently, Asbury Park submitted a letter – in response to a motion for summary decision from petitioners in the now consolidated matter – stating that it did not oppose the severance of its send-receive relationship with Interlaken.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: although there is no party opposing the petitioners' motion for summary decision, a change in a sending/receiving relationship cannot be made "except upon application made to and approved by the commissioner," N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13; as no facts are contested in this matter, a hearing is not warranted; however, the record must be reviewed to determine if petitioners' request satisfies the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13; summary decision is appropriate here as a feasibility study and accompanying certifications and exhibits demonstrate that petitioners have satisfied all of the statutory elements required for severance of the relationship with Asbury Park and entrance into new sending/receiving relationships with the West Long Branch and Shore Regional school districts; the demographic enrollment in Asbury Park schools will not change if severance is granted; dissolution of the sending/receiving relationship and creation of the new relationships will have no negative impact upon the education of students in any of the implicated school districts; and the proposed changes to Interlaken's sending/receiving relationship will have little financial impact on any of the districts involved, with the exception of a possible tax increase for Interlaken residents. The ALJ concluded that petitioners have satisfied the criteria of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, and accordingly recommended granting their request to sever the sending/receiving relationship with Asbury Park, and to enter into new sending/receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional.

Upon review, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that – pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1(f) – there is not a sufficient adversarial perspective in the record for the Commissioner to assess Interlaken's compliance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13; and the record does not include a response or opposition to the March 2013 feasibility study that provides the Commissioner with any adversarial perspective on Interlaken's proposed change in its send-receive relationship. The Commissioner determined that this matter must be treated as an unopposed application for termination and a change in the allocation under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1. Accordingly, the Commissioner ordered that the boards of education of Interlaken, Asbury Park, West Long Branch, and Shore Regional shall each, at their next respective public meeting, announce that the record before the Commissioner shall remain open for a period of 20 days from the date of the announcement in order for interested persons or entities to submit written comments to the Commissioner; thereafter, the remaining procedures outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1 shall be followed.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

This consolidated matter involves an application to change where the Borough of Interlaken, a non-operating district, sends its students to be educated from pre-K through 12th grade.[1] In April 2012, the Interlaken Board of Education (Interlaken) filed a petition of appeal seeking severance of its send-receive relationship with respondent Asbury Park Board of Education (Asbury Park), and the Commissioner's permission to establish send-receive relationships with the respondents West Long Branch Board of Education (West Long Branch) and Shore Regional Board of Education (Shore Regional). Interlaken also filed a motion for emergent relief seeking an order permitting those Interlaken students who were registered to attend school in West Long Branch and/or Shore Regional to continue attending school in those districts pending the final outcome of the petition. On June 14, 2012, Interlaken's request for emergent relief was granted by the Commissioner (Interlaken I).

In August 2012, M.L., on behalf of minor children, J.F. and D.F., et. als. (parent petitioners), filed a petition of appeal and a motion for emergent relief (Interlaken II). The parent petitioners were the parents of minor children who resided in Interlaken but who had not registered to send their children to West Long Branch or Shore Regional prior to the Order in Interlaken I. The parent petitioners sought emergent relief from the Commissioner to allow their children to register in West Long Branch and/or Shore Regional pending the final outcome of Interlaken I. On August 30, 2012, the Commissioner issued an Order in Interlaken II granting relief to all children residing in Interlaken and permitting them to attend school in West Long

[1] The procedural history is thoroughly outlined in the Initial Decision and will not be fully repeated here.

Branch and Shore Regional pending the final outcome of Interlaken I. On January 9, 2013, Interlaken I and Interlaken II were consolidated.

After the cases were consolidated, Interlaken filed a motion for summary decision seeking to sever its current relationship with Asbury Park and to enter into a new send-receive relationship with West Long Branch and Shore Regional. The motion for summary decision included a feasibility study, dated March 2013, that was conducted on behalf of Interlaken. This study evaluated the potential educational, financial and racial implications that Interlaken's request would have on each of the districts. The parent petitioners joined Interlaken in its request for summary decision, and neither West Long Branch nor Shore Regional opposed the motion. Additionally, Asbury Park submitted a response to the motion for summary decision at the OAL, stating that it no longer opposed the severance of the send-receive relationship. The Administrative Law Judge determined that there was no substantial negative impact on the districts under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, and recommended granting Interlaken's request to sever its current relationship with Asbury Park and enter into a new send-receive relationship with West Long Branch and Shore Regional.

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1(f), the Commissioner finds that there is not a sufficient adversarial perspective in the record for the Commissioner to assess Interlaken's compliance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13. Although Asbury Park opposed the requests for emergent relief made by Interlaken and the parent petitioners, Asbury Park withdrew its opposition to the severance of the sending-receiving relationship at the OAL. As a result, the record before the Commissioner does not include a response or opposition to the March 2013 feasibility study that provides the Commissioner with any adversarial perspective on Interlaken's proposed change in its send-receive relationship.[2] Therefore, each of the district boards of education must follow the process set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1 before Interlaken's application to sever its current relationship with Asbury Park and enter into a new send-receive relationship with West Long Branch and Shore Regional can be granted.

Accordingly, this matter will now be treated as an unopposed application for termination and a change in allocation under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1. At the next public meeting of each board of education, Interlaken, Asbury Park, West Long Branch and Shore Regional shall announce that the record before the Commissioner shall remain open for a period of 20 days from the date of the announcement in order for interested persons or entities to submit written comments to the Commissioner. Thereafter, the remaining procedures outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1 shall be followed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

BEFORE PATRICIA M. KERINS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The moving parties in this action for summary decision are the Board of Education of the Borough of Interlaken (hereinafter referred to as "Interlaken") and parent petitioners: M.L. o/b/o minor children J.F. and F.F.; E.O. and B.O. o/b/o minor children D.O. and G.O.; J.P. and M.P. o/b/o minor children A.P. and M.P.; and L.R. and M.R. o/b/o minor children S.R. and F.R. (hereinafter collectively referred to as "petitioners"). Interlaken, the "sending district" in a sending-receiving relationship with respondent-Asbury Park Board of Education (hereinafter "Asbury Park"), the "receiving district", seeks withdrawal from any sending-receiving relationship which exists between the parties and a ruling that severance further satisfies the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. Interlaken further requests authorization to enter into new sending-receiving relationships with respondent-West Long Branch Board of Education (hereinafter "West Long Branch") and respondent-Shore Regional School District Board of Education (hereinafter "Shore Regional").

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 12, 2012, the Executive County Superintendent ("ECS") for Monmouth County advised Interlaken by letter that approval by the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") was necessary to validate the sending-receiving relationships it had established with West Long Branch and Shore Regional and that any action implementing the arrangements for the upcoming 2012-13 school year would be done at their own peril. After receipt of the letter, Interlaken chose to file a Verified Petition of Appeal and a Motion for Emergent Relief with the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes ("Bureau") of the New Jersey Department of Education ("Department"). The request for emergent relief was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") on April 25, 2012, and scheduled for oral argument on April 30, 2012. At the request of all parties, the oral argument was rescheduled to, and held on, May 3, 2012. The parties' request to file additional pleadings on the emergent motion was granted until the end of day on May 10, 2012.

On May 11, 2012, an Order on Emergent Relief was issued in Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Interlaken, Monmouth County v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Asbury Park, Monmouth County; Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of West Long Branch, Monmouth County and Bd. of Educ. of Shore Regional School District, Monmouth County, EDU 5340-12, adopted, Comm'r (June 14, 2012) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (hereinafter referred to as "Interlaken I"). The Order on Emergent Relief granted Interlaken's request to permit those Interlaken students who were registered to attend school in West Long Branch and/or Shore Regional, as of the date of the Order, to attend school in those districts pending the final outcome of the Petition. Ibid. Accordingly, the Commissioner returned the matter to the OAL for a hearing on the merits. Ibid.

In a separate matter, on August 17, 2012, M.L., on behalf of minor children, J.F. and D.F., et. als. (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "M.L. petitioners"), filed a Verified Petition of Appeal and a Motion for Emergent Relief with the Bureau. The M.L. petitioners were the parents of minor children who resided in Interlaken but who had not registered to send their children to West Long Branch or Shore Regional prior to the Order in Interlaken I. The M.L. petitioners sought emergent relief from the Commissioner to allow their children to register in West Long Branch and/or Shore Regional pending the final outcome of Interlaken I. The request for emergent relief was transmitted to the OAL on August 21, 2012, with oral argument held on August 27, 2012. Thereafter, also on August 27, 2012, an Order on Emergent Relief was issued in the case of M.L. o/b/o minor children J.F. and D.F.; E.O. and B.O. o/b/o minor children D.O. and G.O.; J.P. and M.P. o/b/o minor children A.P. and M. P.; L.R. and M.R. o/b/o minor children S.R. and F.R. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Interlaken, Monmouth County; Bd. of Educ. of the City of Asbury Park, Monmouth County; Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of West Long Branch, Monmouth County and Bd. of Educ. of Shore Regional School District, Monmouth County, EDU 11302-12, adopted, Asst. Comm'r (August 30, 2012) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (hereinafter referred to as "Interlaken II"). The Order in Interlaken II granted relief to all children residing in the Borough of Interlaken and permitted them to attend school in West Long Branch and Shore Regional pending the final outcome of Interlaken I. Ibid.

Subsequently, Asbury Park filed a Motion to Stay the Assistant Commissioner's August 30, 2012, Decision in Interlaken II pending an appeal of the matter with the Appellate Division of the New Jersey Superior Court. On September 14, 2012, the Assistant Commissioner issued a decision denying Asbury Park's Motion to Stay because Asbury Park failed to establish justification for reconsideration of the August 30, 2012 Decision. No appeal was made after the denial of the Motion to Stay.

On January 9, 2013, an Order consolidating the Interlaken I and Interlaken II matters was entered and counsel for Interlaken assumed representation of the petitioners in Interlaken II. On August 1, 2013, the OAL received a motion for summary decision from petitioners in Interlaken I and II arguing that there is no material fact in dispute and that petitioners' request to terminate any sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park should be granted as a matter of law. On August 29, 2013, the OAL received a responsive letter from Asbury Park stating that it did not oppose petitioners' motion. Respondent-West Long Branch also filed a response on August 20, 2013, stating that it did not oppose petitioners' motion. Respondent-Shore Regional does not oppose the motion.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

As Asbury Park has not filed a response in opposition to the motion for summary decision, the facts in the matter are not contested. As such, based upon a review of the certifications and exhibits presented by petitioners, with significant review given to the statutorily required feasibility study, the following facts are determined:

1. The Borough of Interlaken is a small community located in Monmouth County, New Jersey, comprising a total land area of .383 square miles of which .330 square miles is land and .053 square miles is water. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 9.)

2. The 2010 U.S. Census reported 820 residents in the Borough of Interlaken with a racial breakdown as follows: 807 Whites, 4 Asians, 3 Other, and 6 identified by two or more races. (Ibid.)

3. The Board of Education of the Borough of Interlaken is a non-operating school district which sends its students to other districts in the area to be educated from Pre-K through 12th grades by paying tuition to those districts. (Id. at 7.)

4. Asbury Park is a seaside community of Monmouth County with a population of 16,116 according to the 2010 U.S. Census and a racial breakdown as follows: 5,875 Whites, 8,275 African-Americans, 79 American Indians and Alaska Natives, 77 Asians, 20 Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islanders, 1,232 Other, and 558 identified by two or more races. (Id. at 10-11.)

5. Asbury Park School District provides Pre-K through 12th grade educational services and in 2011-12 school year, it served 1,985 students. (Petitioner Feasibility Study, Appendix 17 at 1.)

6. For the 2011-12 school year, Asbury Park School District was comprised of 1,936 minorities (97.53%) and 49 non-minorities (2.47%). (Ibid.)

7. For the 2011-12 school year, Asbury Park School District's racial summary was 64.69% African-American, 32.54% Hispanic, 2.47% White, and 0.3% Asian and Native American.

8. Asbury Park School District is an Abbott district as identified by the New Jersey Department of Education and each of its five schools have been designated by the State as "Schools in Need of Improvement" for a range of 4-11 years through the 2010-11 school year. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 8,10.)

9. Based upon the federal standards under the "No Child Left Behind Act", the educational program in Asbury Park is currently failing and it has been identified as a "District In Need of Improvement" continuously since the 2003-04 school year. (Id. at 28.)

10. West Long Branch is a suburban, residential community of Monmouth County with a population of 8,097 according to the 2010 U.S. Census and a racial breakdown as follows: 7,647 Whites, 179 African-Americans, 5 American Indians and Alaska Natives, 96 Asians, 1 Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander, 77 Other, and 91 identified by two or more races. (Id. at 12-13.)

11. West Long Branch Board of Education operates a Pre-K through 8th grade school system and in the 2011-12 school year, it served 592 students. (Petitioner Feasibility Study, Appendix 17 at 20-21.)

12. For the 2011-12 school year, West Long Branch School District was comprised of 68 minorities (11.49%) and 524 non-minorities (88.51%). (Ibid.)

13. For the 2011-12 school year, West Long Branch School District's racial summary was .51% African-American, 6.42% Hispanic, 88.51% White, 2.03% Asian, and 2.53% identified by two or more races. (Ibid.)

14. Shore Regional School District Board of Education operates a regional high school for grades 9 through 12 and serves students from Monmouth Beach, Sea Bright, and Oceanport. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 13.)

15. For the 2011-12 school year, Shore Regional High School served 634.5 students comprised of 40 minorities (6.3%) and 594.5 non-minorities (93.7%). (Petitioner Feasibility Study, Appendix 17 at 17.)

16. For the 2011-12 school year, Shore Regional High School's racial summary was .78% African-American, 4.1% Hispanic, 93.7% White, .16% Asian, and 1.26% identified by two or more races. (Ibid.)

17. From the early 1940s until the 1997-98 school year, a sending-receiving relationship existed between Interlaken and Asbury Park with regular education public school students residing in Interlaken attending Asbury Park schools on a tuition basis. The relationship existed without a formal sending-receiving agreement, but has historically been effectuated by tuition contracts of which the last known instance occurred for the 1996-97 school year. (See Certification of Paul E. Griggs, Esq., ¶ 15 (citing Ex. L).)

18. From the 1997-98 school year through the present, Interlaken has not sent any regular education students to Asbury Park. (Id. at ¶ 16.)

19. Interlaken students requiring special education services have attended and still attend pre-school handicapped classes in Asbury Park but transfer out into various other schools and districts as they age out of the district's pre-school program. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 7.)

20. The per pupil 2012-13 tuition rate Interlaken would have paid to Asbury Park if it had sent a regular education student to Asbury Park schools during the 2012-13 school year was $19,506 for PreK-K, $17,595 for Grades 1-5, $18,022 for Grades 6-8, and $18,945 for Grades 9-12. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 38.)

21. The per pupil 2012-13 tuition rate for grades PreK-K at West Long Branch was $5,000. (Ibid.)

22. The per pupil 2012-13 tuition rate for grades 9 through 12 at Shore Regional was $10,000. (Ibid.)

23. Interlaken has paid tuition to send students to Red Bank Regional High School and Monmouth County Technical Vocational School District under approval of the Monmouth County Superintendant of Schools since Asbury Park did not offer these specialized programs. (Ibid.)

24. In the 2012-13 school year, Interlaken sent twenty Pre-K to high school students to various local public schools, with four students going to Asbury Park for Pre-K special education services. (Id. at 33.) Four of the students went to Monmouth County Vocational High School and seven attended Red Bank Regional High School. (Id. at 33-34.) Five other special education students from Interlaken were sent to Howell Township, Point Pleasant Beach and Hawkswood, a private school for the disabled. (Id. at 34.)

25. In the 2012-2013 school year, Interlaken paid Asbury Park a total of $19,506 per student in tuition for the four students going to Asbury Park for Pre-K special education services. (Ibid.)

26. This revenue source from Interlaken was of such insignificance to Asbury Park that it was not listed as part of their approved budgets for the last three years ending with the 2012-2013 school year. (Ibid.) This is demonstrated by the fact that the evidence of the tuition payments comes from Interlaken.

27. Asbury Park will not see any impact to its state and federal aid if severance is granted because Interlaken students do not attend Asbury Park schools beyond the preschool disabled program. (Id. at 40.)

28. When legislation concerning the elimination of non-operating school districts took effect in 2009,[1] Interlaken was advised by the Department that it was scheduled for elimination or consolidation. (See Certification of Meredith Fox Wong (hereinafter referred to as "Wong"), ¶ 8.)

29. Interlaken was notified on April 29, 2010, by the then ECS for Monmouth County that "the proposed plan to eliminate and/consolidate has been officially suspended" but that Interlaken was encouraged to "investigate all opportunities to create jointures or shared services", with an admonition to be mindful of costs. (Id. at ¶ 9 (citing Ex. A).)

30. Interlaken then began to review its educational options and, in June 2011, Interlaken entered into tuition contracts with West Long Branch and with Shore Regional such that students residing in Interlaken could be sent to the respective districts on a tuition basis. (See id. at ¶ 10-14.)

31. After Interlaken, West Long Branch, and Shore Regional approved the contracts, they were reviewed by the new ECS for Monmouth County, Joseph F. Passiment, who informed Interlaken by letter of August 19, 2011, that the contracts implicated at least three statutes and any change in a sending-receiving relationship required the approval of the Commissioner of Education. (Id. at ¶ 15 (citing Ex. C).)

[1] N.J.S.A. 18:7-8(g) provides that the Executive County Superintendents (ECS) shall eliminate districts not operating schools on the effective date of N.J.S.A. 18A:8-43, which in turn defines a non-operating district. See also N.J.S.A. 18A:8-44.

32. Passiment instructed that, in the absence of Commissioner approval, Interlaken must rescind the contracts with West Long Branch and Shore Regional. (Wong, Ex. C.)

33. Based on the contracts, Interlaken sent students to West Long Branch and Shore Regional schools during the 2011-2012 school year. (Id. at ¶ 22.)

34. As a result of the Assistant Commissioner's September 14, 2012, decision denying Asbury Park's Motion to Stay, Interlaken continued to send students to West Long Branch and Shore Regional during the 2012-13 school year. (Id. at ¶ 23.)

35. Interlaken, as the district seeking to sever any relationship, employed Dr. Maria Nuccetelli and Cathie Sousa to conduct and prepare a feasibility study that analyzed the educational and financial implications for the sending and receiving districts, the impact on the quality of education received by pupils in each of the districts, and the effect on the racial composition of the pupil population of each of the districts.

36. The feasibility study recommends that Interlaken be permitted to sever any sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park and form new sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional because the severance would not result in a substantial negative impact on the education, finances, or racial composition of any of the involved districts. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 46-47.)

37. The study examined Asbury Park's failing status under the "No Child Left Behind Act" and concluded that Interlaken students are unable to receive a thorough and efficient education in Asbury Park. (Id. at 14-34.)

38. In part due to the increased tuition costs under the proposed sending-receiving relationships, for the 2013-2014 school year, the school tax for the average assessed home in Interlaken would be $1,339 for a net increase over the last five years of $323 or $27 per month. (Id. at 40.)

39. The study examined the financial impact of a severance and finds that none of the involved districts would experience a substantial negative impact as a result of Interlaken's formal withdrawal from any relationship with Asbury Park, despite the expected tax increase for Interlaken. (Id. at 33-40.)

40. Finally, the study concludes that neither Asbury Park nor any of the involved districts will experience a substantial negative impact on the racial composition of its school district if Interlaken formally severs its sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park. (Id. at 40-44.)

41. The primary reason for the severance request is to ensure the Interlaken Board of Education can provide its district with the option of a thorough and efficient free public education in high performing schools. (Id. at 45-46.)

42. If the severance request was denied, Interlaken parents will not send their children to Asbury Park schools except for the Pre-K disabled program, but will continue to send their children to private schools or public schools accepting outside tuition payments. (Id. at 46.)

43. West Long Branch received 17 Interlaken students in the 2011-2012 school year pursuant to tuition agreements. (Certification of Anthony Sciarrillo, Ex. C, Certification of Herbert Massa, ¶ 5.)

44. West Long Branch has sufficient capacity to continue the enrollment of Interlaken students. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

45. On the 2010-11 New Jersey Assessment of Skills and Knowledge (NJASK), for language arts, math, and science, West Long Branch students in Grade 8 outperformed their counterparts both statewide and in their District Factor Group, which categorizes demographically similar school districts for comparison. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 21.)

46. On the 2010-11 NJASK, West Long Branch students in Grade 6 and 7 outperformed their counterparts in Math both statewide and in their District Factor Group. However, they were slightly lower than their peers in language arts in their District Factor Group, but exceeded the statewide average. (Id. at 22, 24.)

47. On the 2010-11 NJASK, West Long Branch students in Grade 5 were on par with their counterparts in Math in their District Factor Group, but exceeded the statewide average. They were slightly lower than their peers in language arts in their District Factor Group, but again exceeded the statewide average. (Id. at 25.)

48. On the 2010-11 NJASK, West Long Branch students in Grade 4 outperformed their counterparts both statewide and in their District Factor Group in language arts and science. However, they scored below their peers both statewide and in their District Factor Group in Math. (Id. at 27.)

49. On the 2010-11 NJASK, West Long Branch students in Grade 3 had a lower proficiency than their counterparts both statewide and in their District Factor Group in language arts and math. (Id. at 28.)

50. Shore Regional also has sufficient resources, capacity, and professional staff to accept and enroll Interlaken students. (Certification of Anthony Sciarrillo, Ex. D, at 1.)

51. On the 2010-11 New Jersey High School Proficiency Assessment (HSPA), for language arts and math, Shore Regional students outperformed their counterparts both statewide and in their District Factor Group. (Petitioner Feasibility Study at 19.)

52. For the 2010-11 school year, Shore Regional had a 91.4% graduation rate with students passing the HSPA. (Id. at 32.)

53. Under the New Jersey Quality School Assessment Continuum (NJQSAC), both West Long Branch and Shore Regional are "high performing districts" since they scored 80% or higher in all areas of review: Operations, Personnel, Instruction and Program, Governance, and Fiscal Management. (Ibid.)

54. Because only a minimal number of Interlaken students could attend West Long Branch and Shore Regional, spread over various grade levels, their attended would have no noticeable impact on the budgets of the respective school districts. (See id. at 34.)

55. West Long Branch and Shore Regional's support of the petitioners' motion for summary decision indicates they are ready, willing, and capable of receiving Interlaken students through a sending-receiving relationship. Additionally, Interlaken contends that it effectively abandoned any sending receiving relationship that once existed with Asbury Park. Nevertheless, it seeks summary decision formally dissolving any relationship that may exist in law in compliance with New Jersey law on sending-receiving relationships.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Summary Decision Standard

A motion for summary decision shall be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). If "a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid.

A motion for summary decision before the OAL must be analyzed "in accordance with the principles set forth by the New Jersey Supreme Court in Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995)." Nat'l Transfer, Inc. v. New Jersey Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 347 N.J. Super. 401, 408 (App. Div. 2002). The rule the Court announced was that a determination that there is a genuine issue of material fact:

> requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The 'judge's function is not himself (or herself) to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial.' Credibility determinations will continue to be made by a jury and not the judge. If there exists a single, unavoidable resolution of the alleged disputed issue of fact, that issue should be considered insufficient to constitute a 'genuine' issue of material fact for purposes of Rule 4:46-2. The import of our holding is that when the evidence 'is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law,' the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. It is critical that a trial court ruling on a summary judgment motion not 'shut a deserving litigant from his [or her] trial.' ... To send a case to trial, knowing that a rational jury can reach but one conclusion, is indeed 'worthless' and will 'serve no useful purpose.'
> [Brill, supra, 142 N.J. at 540-41 (emphasis added).]

In this case, although no party opposes petitioners' motion for summary decision, a change in a sending-receiving relationship cannot be made "except upon application made to and approved by the commissioner." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13. In this matter, the facts are not contested, and a plenary hearing is not warranted. However, to grant the relief requested by petitioners the record must be reviewed to determine if petitioners' request satisfies the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13. As set forth more fully below, summary decision is appropriate here as the feasibility study and accompanying certifications and exhibits demonstrate that petitioners have satisfied all the required elements set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 to sever any relationship with Asbury Park and to enter into new sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch Board of Education and Shore Regional School District Board of Education.

Statutory Analysis

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-11 mandates that any school district that lacks high school facilities, like Interlaken, must designate a high school for its pupils through a sending-receiving relationship[2]. To subsequently change or sever such relationship between school districts requires the approval of the Commissioner of Education. Bd. of Educ. of Englewood Cliffs v. Bd. of Educ. of Englewood, 257 N.J. Super. 413, 458 (App. Div. 1992), aff'd 132 N.J. 327 (1993), cert. den. 510 U.S. 991 (1993) ("termination of a sending-receiving relationship is subject ... to the approval of the Commissioner of Education") (citing N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13). Approval requires satisfaction of the criteria of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, which provides in pertinent part:

> [To change a sending-receiving relationship requires an] application made to and approved by the commissioner. Prior to submitting an application the district seeking to sever the relationship shall prepare and submit a feasibility study, considering the educational and financial implications for the sending and receiving districts, the impact on the quality of education received by pupils in each of the districts, and the effect on the racial composition of the pupil population of each of the districts. The commissioner shall make equitable determinations based upon consideration of all the circumstances, including the educational and financial implications for the affected districts, the impact on the quality of education received by pupils, and the effect on the racial composition of the pupil population of the districts. The commissioner shall grant the requested change in designation or allocation if no substantial negative impact will result therefrom.
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 (emphasis added).]

"[W]hen a local board of education applies for permission to alter or terminate a sending-receiving relationship with another board [,the] commissioner is required to grant the requested change in designation or allocation if no substantial negative impact will result." Englewood, supra, 257 N.J. Super. at 459 (quoting Assembly Statement accompanying Assembly Bill No. 2072, L.1986, c.156 (1986)). The statutory analysis pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 for evaluating a modification request does not follow a [2] Although the statute expressly states that it applies to high schools, the Commissioner has expanded the scope of the statute to include elementary schools as well. Bd. of Educ. of Mine Hill v. Bd. of Educ. Dover, EDU 1147-99, Comm'r (Feb 15, 2001), remanded, State Bd. (Aug 3, 2001), Comm'r on remand (Dec. 15, 2004), adopted, State Bd. traditional balancing process. Id. at 462. Instead, any finding of a substantial negative impact, regardless of the benefits or positive impacts in other areas, defeats the petition for termination of the sending-receiving agreement. Ibid. "The focus of the Commissioner's inquiry is whether a substantial negative impact exists at all; if it does, severance is to be denied.... There is simply no place in this analysis for the weighing of positive impacts once a substantial negative impact has been found." Ibid. (emphasis in original). In determining the impact of changing a sending-receiving relationship, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 specifies the factors to consider "including: the educational (offerings) and financial (budgetary) implications for both districts, the impact on the quality of education in both districts, and the effect on the racial composition of the pupil population in both districts. Ibid. (emphasis in original). Therefore, once a party has established that there would be no substantial negative impact on the racial composition, quality of education, or the financial standing of either district, the Commissioner shall grant the petition.

a. Impact on Racial Composition

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 requires that the Commissioner consider the impact on the racial composition of the pupil population of both districts. To determine whether granting severance will result in upsetting the racial balance of the present receiving district, it is necessary to examine the demographic composition of students. In the present matter, the enrollment statistics for the three school districts involved clearly indicates that, statistically, they are racially unbalanced. For the 2011-12 school year, minorities comprised 97.53% of the student population in the Asbury Park School District. By contrast, in the 2011-12 school year, West Long Branch School District was 11.49% minority and Shore Regional High School was 6.3% minority.

The case law on sending-receiving disputes indicates that exacerbation of a racially imbalanced student population necessitates a finding of a substantial negative impact on the racial composition. See Longport Bd. of Educ. v. Atlantic City Bd. of Educ. and Ocean City Bd. of Educ., EDU 8152-12, Initial Decision (June 26, 2013)[3] (citing Bd. of Educ. of Merchantville v. Bd. of Educ. of Pennsauken, 93 N.J.A.R.2d

[3] As of the date of this decision, no final was issued in this matter.

(EDU) 464, modified, State Bd. (Jan. 7, 1998), <http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/> and North Haledon Bd. of Educ. v. Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District, 181 N.J. 161, 165 (2004)). In Merchantville, the Commissioner and State Board denied Merchantville's severance petition where if granted it would have resulted in a decrease in the proportion of white students by 1.7%, resulting in an increase in the minority population from 42% to 43.7%. Merchantville, supra, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) at 486–47. The State Board stated that "given the substantial negative educational implications of permitting our State's student populations to be separated by race and because of the difficulties involved in correcting such a situation once it has developed, it would be counterproductive to allow an existing sending-receiving relationship to be disturbed where the change may contribute to the development of racial imbalance." Id. at 12–13. Similarly, in North Haledon, the New Jersey Supreme Court denied severance where "[t]he withdrawal of North Haledon from [Manchester Regional would] result in a decrease in the school-wide white population by 9% and increases of 1% of African-American students, 7% of Hispanic students and 1% of Asian students." North Haledon Bd. of Educ., supra, 181 N.J. at 171.

However, in the present matter, the severance will not result in a substantial negative impact as no Interlaken students attend Asbury Park Schools beyond Pre-K. Further, if the severance request was denied, attendance history since 1996 shows that Interlaken parents likely will not send their children to Asbury Park schools beyond Pre-K. No precedent was found evaluating a change to a sending-receiving relationship where the only students potentially involved were preschool disabled students. In this matter, from the 1997-98 school year through the present, Interlaken has not sent any regular education students to Asbury Park and, the conclusion of the feasibility study is uncontested that the demographic enrollment in Asbury Park schools will not change if the severance is granted. While the severance will clearly not improve the racial balance, there is no evidence in the feasibility report that severance will contribute to the development of further racial imbalance as no students will be removed from Asbury Park beyond the pre-school disabled program. Thus despite the present racially unbalanced school districts, petitioner has established that termination of any sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park would cause no substantial negative impact on the racial composition of the districts.

b. Impact on Quality of Education

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 requires that the Commissioner consider the impact on the quality of the education of both districts. As Asbury Park will not experience a substantial negative racial impact if severance is granted, as no students from Interlaken attend Asbury Park schools beyond the preschool disabled program, similarly Asbury Park also will not experience a substantial negative educational impact. As no regular education student has attended an Asbury Park school in over fifteen years, there will be no impact upon the education the Asbury Park students upon formal dissolution of the sending-receiving relationship.

Turning to West Long Branch and Shore Regional, the feasibility study demonstrates that those districts also will not experience any substantial negative impact on education as a result of forming a sending-receiving relationship with Interlaken. The superintendents of both districts have confirmed they have the capacity and resources to accept and educate Interlaken students. Secondly, the NJQSAC and NJASK/HSPA test scores indicate that Shore Regional and West Long Branch are high-performing school districts capable of offering Interlaken students an appropriate public education. Although West Long Branch has some deficiencies in the Grade 3 compared to its peer groups, it shows strong improvement by Grade 8, where it outperforms its peer group and the state in language arts, math, and science. Furthermore, the report provides no evidence that the introduction of the Interlaken students will have any negative impact on the educational programs in either district. This is evidenced by the fact that both districts have already been receiving Interlaken students for the past two school years without issue. Consequently, the feasibility study has established that termination of the sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park and the proposed new sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional would cause no substantial negative impact on the educational program or the quality of education in each of the districts.

c. Impact on Financial Conditions

Finally, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 requires that the Commissioner consider the impact on the financial conditions of both districts. Again, because Interlaken students have not attended Asbury Park schools beyond the preschool disabled program, the financial impact to Asbury Park would be the loss of the $19,506 per student in tuition dollars paid on behalf of the four students. The absence of these expected tuition payments from the Asbury Park school budget indicates that it is not a significant revenue source for the district and that it will not have an impact to its budget by the loss of the four preschool students because their tuition is not budgeted. The feasibility report also states that Asbury Park will not see any impact to its state and federal aid because no Interlaken students have attended the district beyond the preschool disabled program. Thus, as demonstrated by the feasibility report, Asbury Park will not have a substantial negative financial impact if the sending-receiving relationship is formally terminated.

As for West Long Branch and Shore Regional school districts, the feasibility report indicates that the minimal number of Interlaken students that could attend, spread over various grade levels, would have no noticeable impact on the budgets of the respective school districts. In fact, there would be a monetary benefit in that the districts would realize additional revenues without a significant increase in students.

The impact on Interlaken is somewhat different because it is expected that the district will see a tax increase due, in part, to the increase in tuition payments as Interlaken students participate in the proposed sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional. As of June 30, 2011, Interlaken school taxes were the second lowest in Monmouth County and among the lowest in the state because Interlaken parents have sent their children to private schools or to public school districts in the area that accept parent-paid tuition students. (See Petitioner Feasibility Study at 34.) As a result of the new costs anticipated for the 2013-14 school year, the feasibility study indicates that the school tax for the average assessed home in Interlaken would be $1,339 for a net increase over the last five years of $323 or $27 per month. (Id. at 40.) As a result of the budget increase, Interlaken may have to propose a separate question to the residents for approval to raise the necessary taxes in excess of the 2% cap imposed by state law. While the report notes that a majority of this increase can be attributed to the new sending-receiving relationships, this is not the sole factor as there has been an increase in other costs, such as special education. (See id., Appendix 16 at 1.) Additionally, the feasibility report notes that the Interlaken school board budget is artificially low because so many Interlaken parents have borne the burden of individually paying their child's tuition because the district has not offered a free and appropriate public education alternative for them. (Id. at 34.)

While it cannot be denied that the residents of Interlaken will likely see a tax increase as a result of the district entering new sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional, there is no known case law precedent demonstrating that the circumstances in this case rise to the level of a substantial negative impact. See I/M/O Application of the Bd. of Educ. of the Town of Boonton and the Borough of Lincoln Park, EDU 5623-04, Initial Decision, (Dec. 23, 2005), adopted, Comm'r. (April 25, 2006) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (finding no substantial negative financial impact where the average homeowner in Boonton would see a tax increase of $175 in the first year and $368 in the second if severance were granted.) As stated by the ALJ there, "an increase in taxes does not automatically translate into a substantial negative impact." Ibid. Thus, in the absence of any contravening precedent, the conclusion in the feasibility report is uncontested. Therefore, petitioner has established that termination of the sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park and the proposed new sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional would cause no substantial negative impact on the financial conditions in each of the districts.

Having satisfied the criteria of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, petitioners' request to terminate any existing sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park and to enter into new sending-receiving relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release (Settlement Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 have been reviewed.

According to the Settlement Agreement, the parties agreed that the gross amount of back pay owed to the petitioner for the period between September 1, 2010 and December 6, 2010 is $19,131.21. The Settlement Agreement further states that the gross amount of back pay owed to the petitioner must be reduced by $8,400.00 in unemployment benefits received by the petitioner during the same period. The Settlement Agreement then states that the remaining gross pay – after the reduction for unemployment benefits – is $10,731.90; further, the agreement goes on to state that petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period in question. Finally, the Settlement agreement states that the Final Gross Amount of back pay owed to the petitioner is $9,657.90. Based on the proper calculation of the numbers listed above, the petitioner would actually be owed $10,731.21 in back pay for the period between September 1, 2010 and December 6, 2010. Therefore, the Commissioner cannot approve the within Settlement Agreement as it is currently written.

Accordingly, the Commissioner hereby remands this matter to the OAL for revision of the Settlement Agreement consistent with the concerns set forth above. If the parties are unwilling or unable to reach accord on a modified agreement for submission to the Commissioner, the matter shall proceed to hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Record Closed: March 17, 2014 Decided: March 19, 2014

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 14, 2010, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement. The Elizabeth Board of Education has approved the settlement, as evidenced by the attached certified Board resolution dated December 23, 2013.

2. I have been advised by counsel that the settlement was executed by the Board Secretary, Harold Kennedy, on behalf of the Board.

3. This matter was one of nearly one hundred challenges to a reduction in force that took place effective with the 2010-2011 school year. These cases were filed in the fall of 2010 and were case managed together via regular case management conferences with counsel. The attached settlement is thus the culmination of years of discussion and negotiation, and is consistent with an agreed upon global approach to the resolution of these cases. This settlement fairly, reasonably, and efficiently resolves the claims raised in the petition and is in the best interest of the parties and the taxpayers of Elizabeth.

4. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. DEBRA STALLONE Petitioner, v. ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL Dkt. No. EDU-10009-2010N Agency Ref. No. 331-8/10 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE is made by and between Petitioner, __DEBRA STALLONE__ ("Petitioner"), and the Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education ("the Board"), (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner is a tenured employee of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner has commenced an administrative proceeding captioned _DEBRA STALLONE_ v. Elizabeth Board of Education, which is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU _10009-2010N___, Agency Dkt. No. __331-8/10_ (the "Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all disputes between them under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that Petitioner is entitled to gross back salary in the amount of $ _19131.21_, for the period from _September 1, 2010_ through _December 6, 2010__. This amount is subject to reduction in an amount equal to the Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner which the Board will repay pursuant to the statutes, regulations and policies of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (LWD) in a manner which is consistent with the Board's use of a self-insured trust for the payment of Unemployment Benefits. The Board takes sole responsibility for the repayment of all Unemployment Benefit reimbursement due from Petitioner for the period specified and agrees to release Petitioner from any liability to the State, the Board or any other party for the repayment of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from __September 1, 2010_ through __December 6, 2010_. The Board will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless as to any such claim to repayment of said benefits. The parties have obtained an opinion from the LWD stating that Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner during the months of July and August, _2010_, do not have to be repaid because Petitioner had no reasonable expectation of employment for September, _2010_ at that time and the back pay due to Petitioner runs from _September 1, 2010_.

2. The Parties agree that the total gross amount of Unemployment Benefits received by Petitioner from _September 1, 2010_ through __December 6, 2010__ was $ __8,400__.

3. The Parties agree that said total gross amount of such benefits must be repaid pursuant to the regulations of the LWD. As a result, the remaining gross amount of back pay due to the Petitioner after the reduction for repayment of Unemployment benefits is $ _10,731.90_.

4. The Parties agree that Petitioner had no earnings from other employment during the period from __September 2010_ through _December 6, 201___. Thus, the Final Gross Amount of back salary due to petitioner is $ __9,657.90__. Said amount shall be paid to Petitioner, subject to all applicable payroll taxes and normal payroll deductions, in the form of a check made payable to "__Debra Stallone__".

5. In addition to back salary, the Board shall pay Petitioner the sum of $_0_ as money damages based on amounts paid by Petitioner for medical bills during the period from _____ to _____ that were not covered by insurance during that time period. These amounts will be paid in a separate check payable to "_____N/A_____" and will not be subject to income tax withholding or payroll deductions since they do not constitute back salary.

6. The Parties agree that the payments specified herein shall constitute full and final settlement of all claims to money damages for salary or on any other basis which were or could have been asserted against the Board in the Litigation with respect to the __2010-2011___ school year. The back pay amounts specified represent back salary due (after the reductions and deductions specified above) for the period from ___September 1, 2010____ to __December 6, 2010_____. In addition, Petitioner's seniority will be credited for one full year for the entire school year and that year shall be treated as a full year of employment for purposes of all benefits and emoluments of employment which are impacted by years of service (including but not limited to (as applicable), sick leave accrual, other forms of leave, salary guide step advancement, terminal leave, sick leave cash-in and longevity, as well as any benefit or emolument which may become available in the future which is based on years of service) whether it be based upon rights that arise from statute, regulation, contract, policy, practice or otherwise. Petitioner's accrued sick leave will be credited with a full complement of sick days for the __2010-2011__ school year, less any days used during any portion of that year when Petitioner was allowed to return to active employment in the Board.

7. Petitioner hereby releases the Board, its agents, servants and employees, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been brought or could be brought, now and in the future, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the subject matter of the within controversy, except to enforce the terms of this Agreement. This release only relates to Petitioner's claims arising out of the above-captioned matter which relates solely to a claim to employment for the ___2010-2011__ school year. Petitioner does not waive or release any existing rights he/she may have to tenure, seniority, recall or any other contractual or legal rights he/she may have as a past, present or future employee of the Board, including but not limited to, the right to claim employment for the _2011-2012__ school year or thereafter.

8. The Parties agree that Petitioner's seniority as of __January 31, 2013_ as a result of this settlement is:

a) __7.42_____ years as an __elementary school teacher___.

b) _____ years as a _____.

9. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of the matter hereby agrees to a dismissal, with prejudice, of her Petition of Appeal in this matter as to all claims related to the _2010-2011_ school year. Said dismissal shall have no effect on Petitioner's on-going tenure, seniority or recall rights, as well as any rights she/he may have as a current or future employee of the Board.

10. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

12. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

SYNOPSIS

Chancellor Academy (Chancellor) appealed the Department's determination that petitioner – a private school for students with disabilities (PSSD), which is authorized to receive special education students from public school districts on a tuition basis – may not include in its tuition charges for the 2008-09 school year: 1) the cost of health insurance premiums paid on behalf of the school nurse while she was on an unpaid leave of absence, and 2) that portion of the salary paid to a teacher, Lisa McConagly, which exceeded the maximum salary permitted for vocational teachers under Department regulations. Petitioner asserted that these costs should be allowed in the calculation of its actual cost per pupil for the year in question. The Department contended that these costs must be disallowed under applicable regulations.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: regarding the cost of health care premiums for Chancellor's school nurse while she was on an unpaid leave of absence, N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(7) is clear and unambiguous in precluding a PSSD from passing such an expense on to the taxpayers of New Jersey; regarding the salary paid to McConagly during the 2008-09 school year, credible testimony supported Chancellor's assertion that McConagly was employed during that year as a "general teacher" who provided instruction in home economics/food preparation; McConagly did not serve as a vocational teacher, and therefore her job category was not misclassified as the Department contended; further, the April 8, 2013 letter from the school's former principal, John Syvertsen – which stated that he had made an error in McConagly's job description for the 2008-09 school year – conflicts with the Department's claim that Chancellor failed to offer any information that would have permitted it to change its determination that McConagly was a vocational teacher. The ALJ concluded that: 1) the Department correctly disallowed the expenses related to the school nurse's health benefits for the period in question; and 2) the Department erred in disallowing the portion of McConagly's salary that exceeded the maximum permitted for a vocational teacher. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered the Department to reverse the disallowance associated with McConagly's salary.

Upon a thorough review of the record, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion in regard to the disallowance of the cost of health insurance for the school nurse during her unpaid leave of absence. However, the Commissioner disagreed with the ALJ's determination to overturn respondent's disallowance of a portion of McConagly's salary, as he found that the disallowance was in accord with N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(8), and was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The Commissioner found that petitioner's ex post facto presentation of contradictory evidence at the OAL did not undermine the reasonableness of respondent's determination during the internal appeal process. The Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as modified, and the petition was dismissed.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, DIVISION OF FINANCE,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties' exceptions and respondent's reply to petitioner's exceptions – submitted in accordance with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 – were fully considered by the Commissioner in reaching his determination herein.

Petitioner is a private school for students with disabilities (PSSD), authorized by the New Jersey Department of Education (Department) to receive special education students from public school districts on a tuition basis. Petitioner appeals from respondent's September 21, 2012 determination that the following costs, which petitioner included in the calculation of its certified actual cost per student (CACPS) for the 2008-09 school year, were non-allowable costs: 1) health insurance premiums paid on behalf of the school nurse while she was on an unpaid leave of absence, and 2) that portion of the salary paid to Lisa McConagly which exceeded the maximum salary permitted for vocational teachers under Department regulations.

In the Initial Decision, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) upheld respondent's disallowance of the health insurance premiums paid on behalf of the school nurse, finding that N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(7) clearly and unambiguously precludes a PSSD from passing such an expense on to the taxpayers of New Jersey. However, regarding McConagly's salary, the ALJ found that respondent's disallowance was in error and should be reversed. To that end, the ALJ was persuaded by testimony at the hearing that McConagly's actual job function during the 2008-09 school year was that of a "general teacher" rather than a "vocational teacher," notwithstanding statements to the contrary in her job description and employment contract. Accordingly, the ALJ determined that the maximum allowable salary for vocational teachers was inapplicable to McConagly's salary, and the disallowance should, therefore, be reversed.

On exception, with respect to the issue of the health insurance premiums paid on behalf of the school nurse, the parties essentially recast and reiterate the arguments they advanced before the ALJ below. In that the Commissioner finds that those arguments were fully considered and appropriately addressed in the Initial Decision, they will not be revisited here.

On the issue of McConagly's salary, respondent takes exception to the ALJ's factual and legal conclusions, underscoring that its determination may not be overturned unless it can be characterized as arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Respondent argues that its determination to disallow a portion of McConagly's salary was reasonable based upon the documentation petitioner had submitted for respondent's review, and that the ALJ failed to properly consider the evidence that was before respondent at the time it made its determination.

More specifically, respondent cites page 10 of the Initial Decision, where the ALJ states:

> The Department urges that Chancellor failed to offer any information that would have permitted it to change its > determination that McConagly was a vocational teacher. But Syvertsen's letter made it plain that any provisions of the contract or job description that would lead the Department to so conclude was in error. So did subsequent correspondence from counsel for Chancellor.

Respondent points out that, contrary to the ALJ's implication, respondent did not have the benefit of Syvertsen's letter prior to issuing the September 21, 2012 decision on petitioner's internal appeal. In fact, Syvertsen's mea culpa letter of April 8, 2013, postdated respondent's decision by more than six (6) months. Thus, the information contained therein could not possibly have informed respondent's decision.

More generally, respondent argues that it must be permitted to rely upon the accuracy of the documents submitted by a PSSD during the desk review process. Respondent emphasizes that PSSDs are well aware of the audit program and the significance of the review process. Thus, respondent has every reason to believe that PSSDs submit accurate documentation for its review. Respondent further emphasizes that PSSDs are afforded multiple opportunities to submit documentation and information for its consideration during the review and internal appeal processes. Respondent contends that, in this case, despite having been afforded those opportunities, petitioner failed to offer anything that would have permitted it to change its determination respecting the disallowance of a portion of McConagly's salary. Respondent further contends that it did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in issuing a decision based upon the evidence that was submitted to it by petitioner.

Upon a review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(7), petitioner was not permitted to pass on to the taxpayers of New Jersey the expenses incurred in continuing the school nurse's health insurance benefits during her unpaid leave of absence. Accordingly, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ's determination to uphold respondent's disallowance of those expenses. The Commissioner disagrees, however, with the ALJ's determination to overturn respondent's disallowance of a portion of McConagly's salary. The Commissioner finds that the disallowance was in accord with N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(8), and was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

As a PSSD, petitioner is required to set its tuition rate annually in accordance with the Department's regulations. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-21, the tuition rate may not exceed the actual cost per pupil, as determined in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.1 et seq. Those regulations specify that certain enumerated costs are not allowable in the calculation of the CACPS. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5. Among the enumerated costs that are not allowable in the CACPS are "[t]he salary and fringe benefits of a staff member for time not expended and/or services not performed" and "[a] salary in excess of the associated maximum allowable salary...for a staff member or consultant whose position requires certification." N.J.A.C. 6A: 23A-18.5(a)(7); N.J.A.C. 6A: 23A-18.5(a)(8).

Like all PSSDs, petitioner is required to annually submit to the Department a Fiscal and Program Information Form, as well as audited financial statements. The Department reviews that documentation to, inter alia, verify the calculation of the CACPS, ensuring that non-allowable expenses are not included in the tuition rate. Here, upon the Department's request for additional information, petitioner submitted an employment contract and job description for McConagly, which indicated that McConagly was employed as a teacher of "Family and Consumer Sciences-Foods/Nutrition & Food Science," and that she was responsible for implementing various elements of the "Food Service/Culinary Arts Program Curriculum." On this basis, the Department reasonably concluded that McConagly was a vocational teacher, and disallowed a portion of her salary.

Although petitioner requested an internal appeal on the issue, it submitted no evidence during the appeal process upon which respondent could base a determination to overturn the disallowance. Rather, the only thing offered in support of the appeal was a statement by counsel that, while McConagly's job description listed her as being "partially involved with the school's culinary arts program," she also "taught the Earth science program that year, substituted in any courses that required a substitute during the year, and supervised and ran the testing and curriculum development programs." In the absence of anything more than the bald assertion of counsel, respondent reasonably declined to overturn the disallowance.

The ALJ correctly asserted that, in making disallowances involving job duties, respondent must be guided by the actual job functions of the PSSD employee at issue. It is, however, incumbent upon the PSSD to submit documentation and information that accurately reflects the employee's job functions. It would be inappropriate to place the burden upon respondent to conduct extraneous investigations to determine the accuracy or inaccuracy of the information contained in documentation submitted by a PSSD. Rather, it is reasonable for respondent to expect that a PSSD has submitted accurate documentation for its review, and to rely upon the information contained therein in making its determination.

Furthermore, a determination that is reasonably based upon the documentation submitted by a PSSD is not rendered arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable by the PSSD's subsequent presentation of contradictory documentary and/or testimonial evidence at an administrative hearing before the Office of Administrative Law. The reasonableness of respondent's determination must be assessed in light of the evidence before it at the time of its decision.

The Commissioner finds respondent's initial determination, disallowing the portion of McConagly's salary that exceeded the maximum salary permitted for vocational teachers, reasonable in light of the documentation and information petitioner submitted for respondent's desk review. The Commissioner further finds that petitioner failed to submit sufficient information and/or documentation during the internal appeal process to serve as a reasonable basis to overturn the disallowance. Petitioner's ex post facto presentation of contradictory evidence at the OAL does nothing to undermine the reasonableness of respondent's determination.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL, as modified above, is adopted as the final decision in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

Record Closed: November 21, 2013 Decided: December 9, 2013

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Chancellor Academy (Chancellor), is a private school for the disabled, that has been approved by the State of New Jersey, Department of Education (the Department), to receive public school special education students on a tuition basis. Chancellor challenges the Department's disallowance of certain expenses during the 2008-2009 fiscal year. These expenses factor into Chancellor's calculation of its "actual cost per pupil," and form the basis of its tuition rate. The Department replies that the disallowances in question are required by applicable regulation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Chancellor filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) on December 12, 2011. An answer was filed and the contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 4, 2013. A hearing was conducted on September 16, 2013. Counsel filed post-hearing submissions and the record closed on November 21, 2013.[1]

ISSUES PRESENTED

The petition challenges two disallowances by the Department, raising the following issues for consideration:

1. Did the Department properly disallow moneys paid for the school nurse's health insurance premiums from October 10, 2008, through March 14, 2009, when she was on an unpaid leave of absence due to illness? If not, what should be the remedy?

2. Did the Department properly characterize the services of Lisa McConagly during the 2008-2009 school year as that of a "vocational teacher," and thus properly disallow that portion of her compensation deemed in excess of that permitted by regulation? If not, what should be the remedy?[2]

[1] Chancellor filed a brief on October 31, 2013, and the Department did so on November 7, 2013. The record remained open until November 21, 2013, to permit Chancellor to file a reply brief, but it chose not to do so.

[2] Correspondence between the parties reveals that there were additional disallowances in contention; at the hearing I was advised by counsel that only the disallowances in regard to the school nurse's medical benefits and McConagly's salary remain controverted.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The events leading up to the dispute between Chancellor and the Department are uncontroverted, and I FIND:

Chancellor is a private school that has been approved by the Department to receive special needs students from local public school districts. As such, Chancellor must abide by Department regulations governing the setting of tuition rates. Chancellor is required to share fiscal and program information with the Department; and did so in 2008-2009 via a "Private Schools for Students with Disabilities Annual Fiscal and Program Information" form (R-1), and through submission of an annual audit, completed on Chancellor's behalf in 2009 by David A. Kaplan, CPA. (R-2.) Approval of the audit typically lags behind its submission by several years. Accordingly, it was not until January 2012 that Kaplan received a letter from the Department seeking clarification regarding several matters. (R-3.) Elise Sadler-Williams is employed by the Department as the supervising planning associate in the Division of Finance. She conducted a "desk review" of the information supplied by Chancellor, and in a letter dated January 17, 2012, expressed concern that Chancellor had made an expenditure of $23,919 for fringe benefits for the school nurse, when this employee's salary was about the same amount, $25,711. (R-3.) This seemed incongruous to her. Sadler-Williams also inquired about Lisa McConagly's job functions and responsibilities.

Kaplan replied via letter dated January 30, 2012. (R-4.) He explained that in or about October 2008, Chancellor's school nurse, B.H., was diagnosed with breast cancer. She began a regimen of medical interventions, and went on an unpaid leave of absence effective October 10, 2008. B.H. resumed active employment on March 14, 2009. During her leave, B.H. was unpaid and entered the State Disability program. But Chancellor continued to pay her medical insurance premiums through the school's group health insurance program. Relative to Lisa McConagly, Kaplan enclosed her job description and contract, as requested. He noted that upon further review it was determined that the payroll expenditure for her position had been improperly coded, and was being changed from "special education instruction" to "other professional staff."

Chancellor next heard from the Department via letter dated March 16, 2012. (P-1.) Relative to the insurance premiums paid on behalf of the school nurse, Sadler-Williams advised that these amounts must be disallowed, citing N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(7). She wrote that the "Chancellor Academy administrative team's decision to pay medical insurance premiums during a period in which the employee was unable to perform their [sic] work duties is a non-allowable cost and a cost that would not be incurred by an ordinarily prudent person in the administration of public funds." (P-1.) The letter went on to state that "[w]hile it is unreasonable for such expenses to be paid with public funds of the sending districts, Chancellor Academy's administrative team may elect to fund the school nurse's insurance premiums through a direct charge to retained earnings." (P-1.) Sadler-Williams advised that McConagly's position remained improperly classified, as in actuality she was a "vocational teacher." The maximum allowable salary for vocational instructors in 2008-2009 was $120,858. Since McConagly was paid $126,841, the excess salary and any related fringe benefits were considered a non-allowable expense by the Department.

Chancellor filed an internal appeal via letter dated April 16, 2012. (P-2.) The Department replied via letter dated September 21, 2012, and declined to change its position. (P-3.)

The Medical Benefits Paid to the School Nurse

Robert Molinaro has been the business manager for Chancellor for the past eleven years. The additional facts he shared were uncontroverted, and I FIND:

The Chancellor Board elected to continue B.H.'s health insurance coverage based upon Molinaro's recommendation, which he made in a thoughtful and business-like way. B.H. had been working for Chancellor for a mere year and a half, but was nonetheless considered a valuable employee when she became ill. She was unsure how long her treatment would take; how she would respond to it; and when she would be physically able to return to her duties. But B.H. knew that she wanted to return to work and Chancellor's leadership team knew that it wanted her to do so.

Molinaro reviewed materials related to the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA); these gave the impression that although Chancellor employed fewer than fifty employees, the FMLA was applicable and required continued coverage. (P-8.) Employee rights under the FMLA are referenced in the Chancellor Employee Manual. (P-9.) Molinaro considered the fact that health benefits continue for his teachers during the summer months, even though they provide services only during the academic year. He reviewed the matter with his insurance broker, who advised that continuing coverage under the circumstances would be a fairly standard business practice.

During B.H.'s leave, nursing services were supplied to Chancellor's students through a temporary agency.

Lisa McConagly's Salary

McConagly has worked at Chancellor for twenty years, and is a part-owner of the school. She holds certificates issued by the State Board of Examiners as a supervisor, teacher of the handicapped, and teacher of home economics. McConagly shared copies of her contracts of employment dating back to 2007. These revealed that she had been employed as a "teacher of the handicapped" until the 2008-2009 school year, when her contract described her position as teacher of "Family and Consumer Sciences-Food/Nutrition and Food Science," at a salary of $126,841 per annum. McConagly explained that until 2008 she taught special education science, provided in-class support for other academic subjects, and served as the test coordinator. She also taught an elective foods class, which focused on practical living skills and was not a trade oriented class. In 2009-2010, McConagly again was issued a contract as a teacher of the handicapped.

McConagly's 2008-2009 contract came following the retirement of Phil O'Grady. "Chef O'Grady" was a professional cook who instructed upperclassmen with an interest in a career in food preparation. His class was presented at an off-campus location that had access to an industrial kitchen. Conversely, McConagly's elective class was offered to younger students. Instruction took place in a kitchen that replicated one that would be found in the average home. When O'Grady retired, it was decided to expand the scope of the living skills class taught by McConagly, and to offer that class in lieu of the one previously taught by O'Grady. McConagly convincingly testified that while her new class met more frequently, and was offered to older students, it was never intended to be a vocational offering. Rather, it remained a life-skills course, akin to the class traditionally taught by her. McConagly stressed that she lacked the skill, training, and licensure needed to instruct students in quantity food production.

McConagly's contract and job description were drafted by Chancellor Principal John Syvertsen. Syvertsen confirmed that while Chancellor operated a vocational foods program prior to the 2007-2008 school year, the program ended with the retirement of Chef O'Grady. The certification that was required for McConagly's position was changed to "Teacher of Home Economics" both in the job description and the contract, and according to McConagly, this was the appropriate certification for the course she taught. But Syvertsen neglected to revise those parts of the job description which assigned McConagly responsibility for the culinary-arts program, a vocational program. Syvertsen's testimony was a mea culpa reiteration of his April 8, 2013, letter to the Department in which he admitted that, "I committed an error in my writing and/or reviewing of Lisa McConagly's job description for School Year 2008-2009," by failing to make it reflective of the school's goal of "[maintaining] some of the positive aspects of teaching students about nutrition, food handling, food preparation, food economics, etc. within the certification limits of Ms. McConagly [sic] Home Economics Certification . . . ." (P-5.)

Sadler-Williams shared a salary chart that reflected that the maximum salary for a "vocational teacher" in Morris County was $120,858 during 2008-2009. (R-8.) The maximum salary for a "Special Education Teacher" was $124,009; for a "general teacher" it was $128,915 that year. The Department viewed McConagly as a "vocational teacher"; her salary of $126,841 thus exceeded the maximum permitted. Sadler-Williams explained how she determined that McConagly was employed as a "vocational teacher." She made inquiries with the County Superintendent's office, a representative of which confirmed that the position would be considered vocational.[3] Sadler-Williams was unpersuaded that the job description contained vocational duties in error, urging that she would have wanted to have seen an amended contract and job description. But I was so persuaded. McConagly and Syvertsen both testified in a credible, professional, and consistent manner that McConagly did not, and could not, teach a vocational cooking class.

Conversely, the amended documents Sadler-Williams had hoped to receive would have post-dated the events in question by several years; both witnesses credibly stated that they were unaware of an error at the time. Any advice supplied by County Office personnel was uncorroborated hearsay; moreover, the record left it unclear how the County Office could have reached such a conclusion about a class its representatives had neither taught nor observed. Indeed, Sadler-Williams ultimately retreated from her earlier testimony, stating, "I don't know if they specifically said that [McConagly] was providing [vocational instruction], but the employment contract indicate[d] that she was providing [vocational instruction]." Accordingly, I FIND that McConagly was employed during 2008-2009 as a "general teacher," who provided instruction in home economics/food classes. She did not serve as a vocational teacher.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Chancellor is approved to receive public school special needs students pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-15, and as such, must comply with complex statutory and regulatory provisions which govern the tuition it may charge. N.J.S.A. 18A:46-21 states that Chancellor may determine a tuition rate to be paid by its sending boards of education, "but in no case shall the tuition rate exceed the actual cost per pupil as determined under rules prescribed by the commissioner and approved by the State Board of Education." The statute recognizes that tuition is paid to schools like Chancellor with public funds, and that these funds are utilized to educate public school students with multifaceted needs that cannot be met within their home school districts. Council of Private Sch. for Children with Special Needs v. Cooperman, 205 N.J. Super. 544 (App.

[3] Chancellor points out that in answers to interrogatories, Sadler-Williams made no mention of her inquiries to the County Superintendent.

Div. 1985). Accordingly, the clear intent of the statute is that the tuition charged be fair and reasonably related to the educational services actually provided by the private school. Regulations promulgated by the Department are designed to implement this statutory intent. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.1 to -18.16.

Chancellor bears the burden of demonstrating that the Department's disallowance of certain expenditures in its calculation of actual cost per pupil was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Titusville Acad. v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., EDU 00651-06, Initial Decision (May 21, 2007), adopted, Comm'r (July 6, 2007), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>; Catholic Family and Cmty. Servs. v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., EDU 01051-01, Initial Decision (January 14, 2003), adopted, Comm'r (March 3, 2003), adopted, State Bd. (July 2, 2003), <http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/>. I CONCLUDE that Chancellor has met its burden as to the salary paid to Lisa McConagly, but has not done so as to the medical benefits paid to the school nurse.

The Benefits Paid to the School Nurse

In disallowing the moneys paid to continue medical benefits for B.H. while she was on a medical leave of absence, the Department relied on N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(7), which provides that "[c]osts that are not allowable in the calculation of the certified actual cost per student include . . .[t]he salary and fringe benefits of a staff member for time not expended and/or services not performed . . . ." Since it is uncontroverted that the school nurse provided no services during the controverted time period, the Department asserts that it correctly disallowed this expense. Moreover, the Department asserts that these were not funds that would be expended by "an ordinarily prudent person in the administration of public funds." N.J.A.C. 6A: 23A-18.2(a)(iv).

It is well-established that an administrative regulation is subject to the same canons of construction as a statute. In re N.J.A.C. 14A:20-1.1, 216 N.J. Super. 297, 306 (App. Div. 1987). When interpreting a statute or regulation, our courts assume that the framers intended to ascribe to words their ordinary meaning. Jablonowska v. Suther, 195 N.J. 91, 105 (2008). The intent of a statute or regulation should be gleaned from a view of the whole and of every part of the statute, with the real intention prevailing over the literal sense of its terms. Schierstead v. City of Brigantine, 29 N.J. 220 (1959). An agency's interpretation of its own regulations is entitled to deference. Matturi v. Bd. of Tr. of the Judicial Ret. Sys., 173 N.J. 368, 381 (2002).

I disagree with the Department's determination that the expenditure of these funds was not prudent, or that assisting a valued employee who has fallen ill, as Chancellor did here, is not businesslike, appropriate, and even commonplace. Chancellor acted with compassion and respect for the dignity of its employee; attempted to preserve for her the thing she needed most at the time, access to medical care; and its actions unequivocally were morally sound. But the regulation is clear and unambiguous and allows me no leeway to support Chancellor's claims. Chancellor's Board of Directors and administrators were within their rights to assist B.H. by paying her health insurance premiums when she was ill, but were not permitted under N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(7) to pass that expense on to the taxpayers of New Jersey.

Chancellor's arguments to the contrary were compelling, but in the end unpersuasive. It urges that an annualized salary can no longer be viewed as a "day's work for a day's pay," and points out that ten-month employees continue to receive health benefits during the summer months. But these employees fully fulfill the requirements of their contract; conversely, the Chancellor nurse was absent from her post of duty for about six months. It is uncontroverted that the Family Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C.A. § 2611(2)(B), did not require continued health coverage here; likewise, the cases cited by Chancellor do not stand for the proposition that continued coverage is required by any other provision of state or federal law. See, e.g., Svarnas v AT&T Commc'n, 326 N.J. Super. 59 (App. Div 1999); Malone v. Aramark Serv., 334 N.J. Super. 669 (Law Div. 2000). Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Department correctly disallowed the expenses attached to continuing the school nurse's health benefits during her unpaid leave of absence.

Lisa McConagly's Salary

Included in the regulatory list of non-allowable costs is "[a] salary in excess of the associated maximum allowable salary determined in N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.2(o), (p) and (q) for a staff member or consultant whose position requires certification . . . ." N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.5(a)(8). Relying on this regulatory language, and its erroneous perception that McConagly's job category had been misclassified, the Department disallowed that portion of her salary in excess of $120,858. The Department urges that Chancellor failed to offer any information that would have permitted it to change its determination that McConagly was a vocational teacher. But Syvertsen's letter made it plain that any provisions of the contract or job description that would lead the Department to so conclude were included in error. So did subsequent correspondence from counsel for Chancellor.

Accordingly, having determined that McConagly served as a "general teacher" and not as a "vocational teacher" during the school year at issue, I CONCLUDE that the disallowance by the Department was made in error and should be reversed. Chancellor correctly asserts that in making disallowances that involve job duties the Department is required to be guided by the actual job functions of the employee at issue. Cerebral Palsy League of Union County v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., EDU 11301-07, Initial Decision (June 14, 2010), adopted, Comm'r (July 29, 2010), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. The testimony of McConagly and Syvertsen made it clear that McConagly actually served as a general teacher, any statements in her job description and employment contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the action of the Department of Education is AFFIRMED as to the disallowance of medical benefit premiums and REVERSED as to the disallowance of salary for Lisa McConagly during the 2008-2009 school year.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF JOSEPH A. GRECO,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE BOROUGH OF	:	DECISION
PARK RIDGE, BERGEN COUNTY.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board filed tenure charges of conduct unbecoming against respondent Joseph A. Greco, a tenured teaching staff member, and sought to terminate his employment. The matter was held in abeyance pending the resolution of a concurrent criminal proceeding arising from the same allegations. Respondent subsequently pled guilty to Criminal Sexual Contact in connection with allegations that he engaged in sexual relations with a former student. His plea agreement included relinquishment of his New Jersey teaching certificates – with the force and effect of revocation – to the State Board of Examiners (Examiners). On December 6, 2013, the Examiners ordered the revocation of respondent's certificates.

The Commissioner concluded that this tenure matter has been rendered moot by the Examiner's decision to revoke respondent's certificates and, accordingly, dismissed the charges.

AGENCY DKT NO. 37-2/12

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF JOSEPH A. GRECO,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE BOROUGH	:	DECISION
OF PARK RIDGE, BERGEN COUNTY.	:

In February 2012, the Board of Education of the Borough of Park Ridge certified tenure charges against respondent, Joseph A. Greco, a tenured teaching staff member, alleging unbecoming conduct. The matter was subsequently placed in abeyance pending resolution of a concurrent criminal proceeding arising from the same allegations.

On May 28, 2013, respondent pled guilty to Criminal Sexual Contact. Thereafter, respondent agreed to relinquish, with the force and effect of revocation, the teaching certificates issued to him by the New Jersey Department of Education, State Board of Examiners (Examiners). The Examiners determined to accept the relinquishment and, on December 6, 2013, ordered the revocation of respondent's certificates.

The Commissioner finds that this matter has been rendered moot by the Examiners' decision to revoke respondent's certificates, as he is now prohibited by law from continuing his tenured employment with the Board and, indeed, is no longer eligible for employment as a teaching staff member in the public schools of this State.

Accordingly, the instant tenure charges are hereby dismissed.

EXHIBIT A

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is being entered into between Petitioner, Candis M. Thomas ("Ms. Thomas"), and Respondent, Winslow Township Board of Education ("Board"), with regard to Candis M. Thomas, et al., v. Winslow Township Board of Education, Camden County, OAL Dkt. No. EDU-12241-2011, Agency Ref. No. 217-8/11, having agreed to amicably resolve their differences, it is hereby stipulated and agreed that this matter shall be settled upon the following terms:

1. The Board voluntarily recognizes Ms. Thomas's tenure and seniority rights. Specifically, the Board recognizes that at all times during her employment, Ms. Thomas has possessed an instructional certificate with an Elementary School Teacher endorsement. A true copy of the certificate and endorsement is attached to this agreement as Exhibit A. The Board voluntarily recognizes that Ms. Thomas has tenure and seniority rights in the category of Elementary School Teacher and that she worked full-time from September 2003 to June of 2009 with the Chesilhurst Board of Education and that she has worked full-time from September of 2009 to June of 2011 with the Winslow Township Board of Education within the scope of her certificate and endorsement. As such, Ms. Thomas has 8 years, zero months of seniority in the category of Elementary School Teacher. This calculation excludes one year of seniority for the 2011-2012 school year.

2. The Board agrees to reinstate Ms. Thomas to employment on a time-is-of-the essence basis effective retroactive to Monday, September 4, 2012: (a) on a seamless basis with tenure, seniority, longevity, accrued sick leave, pension credit and other similar benefits of employment; (b) placement on Step 9 of the contractual salary guide; (c) with payment of all salary, benefits and emoluments of employment for the 2012-2013 school year and (d) the days from September 4, 2012 to September 14, 2012 will be characterized as an unpaid leave of absence of fewer than 30 days, without pay and without benefits of employment.

3. The parties agree to characterize the 2011-2012 school year as an unpaid leave of absence without pay and without benefits of employment. The Board will not attempt to interfere with any attempt by Ms. Thomas to seek to buy back the time from the Division of Pensions. No representations are made by the Board or anyone else that the time can be bought back and this settlement is not binding on the Division of Pensions. The parties agree to characterize the dates between September 1, 2011 and June 30, 2012 as an unpaid leave of absence without benefits and emoluments of employment.

4. The consideration described in Paragraphs 1 through 3 above shall constitute the entire settlement of the matters encompassed by this Agreement.

5. In exchange for the promises and undertakings of the Board as set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 3 above, Ms. Thomas:

A. Waives her tenure, seniority and recall rights for the 2011-2012 school year.

B. Waives back pay, benefits and emoluments of employment for the 2011-2012 school year.

C. Agrees to withdraw her petition of appeal with prejudice and without costs as to her and authorizes her attorney to file a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice with respect to her claims and causes of action with the Commissioner of Education in this action. Specifically, Ms. Thomas acknowledges that she would have otherwise had a right to have her case decided following a hearing or motion practice before an Administrative Law Judge of the Office of Administrative Law subject to that decision's adoption, rejection or modification by the Commissioner of Education and that by entering into this settlement she waives the right to a hearing on the merits of her cause and her right to such a decision. If the case had litigated to conclusion, Ms. Thomas may or may not have received an adjudication that she had seniority for the 2011-2012 school year and back pay, benefits and emoluments of employment and pension credit for that year. Ms. Thomas specifically acknowledges that she is relinquishing these claims.

D. Agrees to execute a General Release and Waiver ("General Release") to the Board in the form annexed. Ms. Thomas expressly acknowledges that this Agreement and the General Release and Waiver are intended to extinguish and waive all claims which she may have against any person or entity identified as a releasee in the General Release and Waiver resulting from anything which has happened up to the date of the execution of the General Release and Waiver and which were or could have been asserted, including those claims unknown to her and claims for attorneys fees and costs.

E. Ms. Thomas hereby acknowledges that the execution of this Agreement and the General Release and Waiver which accompanies it shall absolutely bar any such claim, action or suit against any releasee identified in the General Release and Waiver. This release specifically excludes any workers compensation or pension claims. Ms. Thomas is unaware of any factual basis for such claims.

6. The parties recognize that the petition of appeal filed in this matter has more than one petitioner and that the petition will be dismissed as to Ms. Thomas and as to Ms. Thomas only. Nothing in this settlement agreement is intended to dismiss nor does it dismiss or in any way compromise the claims of any other petitioner to tenure, seniority or bumping rights or to reinstatement with back pay. This Settlement Agreement shall be inadmissible for any purpose in the litigation of that petition and any appeals or remands arising therefrom.

9/14/12

7. The parties agree that any breach of any obligation under this Agreement will constitute a breach of this Agreement. In the event of a breach of this Agreement by one of the parties hereto, the breaching party shall pay a penalty to the non-breaching party to be established in the discretion of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Camden County, for said breach of any term of this Agreement. In the event that either party is required to commence an action in law or equity to enforce its rights under this Agreement and prevails, the party against whom the action is brought shall be required to pay the prevailing party reasonable attorneys fees and costs in addition to any damages which may be recoverable.

8. It is understood that neither the execution of this Agreement nor any other action taken by either party in connection with this settlement constitutes an admission by any party, including the Board or, any other person or entity identified in the General Release and Waiver as a releasee, of any violation of any law, duty or obligation, or that any decision or action with respect to the employment of Ms. Thomas was unwarranted, unjustified, retaliatory, discriminatory or otherwise unlawful. The Board specifically disclaims any liability to Ms. Thomas or any other person. The parties have entered into this Agreement solely to compromise disputed claims. No findings of any kind have been made or issued by the Office of Administrative Law or the Commissioner on the merits of the claims in this action and neither party purports to be the prevailing party in this action.

9. Ms. Thomas and the Board, its members, administrators, agents and officers, agree not to make disparaging statements concerning each other or to defame each other in any manner to any person or entity. The parties also agree not to authorize any person or entity to make any disparaging statements about each other to any person or entity.

CMT
9/14/12

10. Ms. Thomas and the Board, its members, administrators, agents and officers and their counsel participated in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement as equals. No particular party shall be deemed the drafter or provider of this Agreement, and the parties agree that the Agreement shall not be construed against any particular party.

11. This Agreement and the General Release and Waiver referred to herein set forth the entire agreement between Ms. Thomas and the Board. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements or understandings, if any, between the parties regarding the subject matter of this Agreement.

12. Ms. Thomas acknowledges that she has consulted with her attorney regarding this Agreement and the General Release and Waiver that accompanies it prior to executing it; that the terms of this Agreement and the General Release and Waiver have been explained to her by her attorney; and that she has represented to her attorney that she has read this Agreement and the General Release and Waiver and fully understands them and agrees to be bound by them. Ms. Thomas has also acknowledged that she has been given a reasonable period of time within which to consider this settlement and the terms of this Agreement and General Release and Waiver prior to executing them.

13. Any notice or other communication under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be considered given when mailed by regular mail or delivered personally, to the parties at the following addresses:

700 East Gate Drive, Suite 502

To Board:

or at such other address as a party may specify by notice to the other.

CMT
9/14/12

14. Nothing contained herein or in the Release shall be intended to bar either party from initiating such action as may be necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

15. This settlement is expressly conditioned upon the entry of an initial decision by the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner's approval of this Agreement without modification. Upon such approval, the parties will submit a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice and without costs. In the event that the Administrative Law Judge or the Commissioner have any objections to any terms of this agreement, the parties agree, in advance, to negotiate in good faith to reform this agreement to the extent possible to meet those objections. Should such reformation prove impossible, this agreement will become void.

16. The Board's representative certifies that he or she has been duly authorized to sign this agreement by a motion adopted by the Board at a duly-noticed open public meeting. A true copy of the Board's minutes (or of a resolution) adopting the settlement memorialized by this Agreement are (is) attached as Exhibit B.

17. The parties agree that this Agreement may be signed in counterparts and facsimile signatures may be acceptable in lieu of originals. The foregoing terms and provisions are hereby agreed to and accepted:

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW DAZZ,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF	:	DECISION
JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board filed tenure charges of incapacity, conduct unbecoming, and neglect of duty against respondent, a tenured teacher, and sought to terminate his employment with the district. Neither respondent nor any attorney acting on his behalf filed an answer to the petition following notice pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.3 and 6A:3-5.4.

The Commissioner concluded that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.4(h), the allegations – which respondent has chosen not to deny – may be deemed admitted and are sufficient to warrant termination of the respondent from his tenured position. Accordingly, the Commissioner granted summary decision to the petitioner, dismissed the respondent from his tenured position in petitioner's school district, and forwarded a copy of this decision to the State Board of Examiners for review and action as that body deems appropriate.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.
