

NEW-JERSEY GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 1783.

Trenton, April 8, 1783.

By His Excellency the GOVERNOR.

GENERAL Court-Martial of the State, of which Col. Joseph Beavers is appointed President...

A last advice to the TORIES and REFUGEES in NEW-YORK.

POOR, unhappy, deluded, and infatuated people: Now after all your vigorous exertions by influence and arms in favour of your king...

Your country is informed that multitudes of you purpose to tarry in it after the departure of the English. Be assured you cannot do it.

Many of you in whining accents will say, "We have done nothing, only taken refuge in New-York; we have said nothing; we have friends in the country who will save us; by the articles of peace Congress is to recommend us to the States to suffer us to tarry in them, &c."

Those of you, who have done nothing, and said nothing (such you know are both few and insignificant among yourselves) may possibly escape; but, depend upon it, they will ever be treated as underling wretches...

You will fondly hope your iniquities cannot be proved. Do not any longer indulge a spirit of delusion. You have been too long deluded already. Too many of us have been prisoners in New-York.

Consider before what courts you are to be tried; who are to be the juries to try you; and who your prosecutors are. Are they not all to a man determined whigs?

You say, "You have many friends in the country." This is too true. But your friends have no influence. If they can now save themselves, they must be more prudent and silent than they have been for six years past.

Your last hope is, the recommendation of Congress according to the articles of peace. A forlorn hope it is. Congress will recommend: But if Congress were bound by the peace to save you, they would hardly be able to do it.

Consider, we view you as our worst enemies. We believe, when Britain first made the acts which aggravated this country, had you been whigs, and unanimous with us, they would, as the stamp-act, have been repealed, and blood would not have been shed. We believe, that at any period had you forsaken the British cause...

I thirst not for your blood; therefore I give you this earnest counsel. If you do not take it, your blood will be upon your own heads. If after all this, you will still stay, you are surely left of Heaven to strong delusions...

To the CITIZENS of NEW-JERSEY.

WHENEVER a question arises respecting the proper line of conduct to be pursued in a matter wherein the publick welfare is nearly concerned, it is the duty of an individual who, from the nature of his office, may be supposed to be possessed of information of material consequence to be known, in order to the forming a right judgment of the subject in discussion...

By an act passed the ninth day of June, 1780, intituled, "An act for establishing a fund for sinking and redeeming the proportion of the bills of credit of the United States, assigned as the quota of this State," it is enacted, "That the sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Pounds, being the amount of the quota assigned to be funded, and redeemed by this State, in a resolution of Congress of the 18th March last, in bills of credit, be issued upon the faith of this State, redeemable in specie within six years after the present year, upon the terms and in the manner and form in the before-recited resolution of Congress recommended; and that the said sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Pounds, together with the interest thereon, at the rate of five per centum per annum, amounting in the whole, principal and interest, to the sum of Two Hundred and Sixty-four Thousand Three Hundred and Seventy-five Pounds, be levied, raised and paid into the treasury of this State, in the proportions and at the periods following, to wit: the sum of Forty-eight Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, being the first payment of the said sum, including the whole interest of the principal sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Pounds for one year, be paid into the treasury on or before the 31st day of December, which will be in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-one."

In like manner one sixth part, together with the interest, is directed to be raised and paid into the treasury on or before the 31st day of December of each year, until the whole shall be paid, which will be on or before the 31st day of December, 1786. On the 3d of October, 1781, a resolution was

PROPOSALS

For printing by SUBSCRIPTION,

A C T S

OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

of the STATE of New-Jersey,

From the establishment of the present government and declaration of independence to the end of the sixth session on the 5th day of October 1782; With the CONSTITUTION prefixed.

To which is annexed,

AN APPENDIX,

Containing the ARTICLES of CONFEDERATION of the UNITED STATES, &c.

With two alphabetical TABLES and an INDEX.

Compiled under the appointment of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY, by PETER WILSON, A. M.

CONDITIONS.

I. This work, which is now in the press, and will be finished with all expedition, will be done on a large type and good paper—and to be neatly bound and lettered.

II. Price to subscribers Thirty-five Shillings, one half of which sum to be paid at the time of subscribing, and the remainder on the delivery of the book.

N. B. Subscriptions are received by the members of the Legislature of this State; Joseph Cruikshank, Printer, in market-street, Philadelphia; and by the subscriber in Trenton.

ISAAC COLLINS.

The well known horse

JOLLY CHESTER,

Is to cover the ensuing season at the stable of the subscriber at South-Amboy, 4 miles from Cranberry, Middlesex county, at seven silver dollars the season.

JOLLY CHESTER is a fine bay, with a beautiful star in his forehead, full fifteen hands and one inch high, very lengthy and handsome, is allowed, by competent judges, to be one of the best foal getters of any in the State. Jolly Chester was got by that noted running horse True Britain; his dam by old Hero; his grandam by old Spark. Good pasture will be provided, and attendance given by

DANIEL LOTT.

The full-blooded horse

YOUNG JANUS,

From Hartford county, Maryland, will cover at the stable of the subscriber at Coryell's ferry, in Pennsylvania, at one half johannes the season.

JANUS is a red foal, fifteen hands one inch high, rising seven years old this grass: He was got by the noted horse old Janus; his dam by Fearought, out of an imported mare; he is as high a bred horse as any on the continent for elegance, there is none to excel him; he is as swift as any on the continent for one quarter or six hundred yards. Any gentlemen that choose to send their mares, may depend on having good pasture provided, and best of care taken of them by

ROBERT LANING.

N. B. Any mares from Jersey to be ferriage free.

* This association to be in a future paper.

