Hunter numbers will be controlled on four Saturdays—November 17, November 24, December 1 and December 8, and on Thanksgiving Day, 1973.

(b) The 3,000-acre Black River area will be limited to 375 hunters at one time on the above dates; the Assumpink area of 3,800 acres is limited to a maximum of 465 hunters; the quota for the 750-acre Port Republic area is 100 hunters. Additional hunters will be accommodated as registrants complete hunting and check out for the day.

(c) Hunters will be admitted on a first-come, first-served basis at the three tracts. Registration will begin at 5:00 A.M. No reservations will be accepted and hunters must register in person. Registration booths for the Black River area will be located at each of the four parking lots. The Assumpink registration station will be at the field trial clubhouse on East Branch Road. Location directions will be posted in the area. Port Republic registration station will be located at the main entrance.

(d) The procedure for registration will be to exchange the motor vehicle operator's license for a special self-attachable back tag and car windshield tag. The special back tag is good only for hunting on the associated wildlife management area and must be displayed in addition to the regular hunting license. The check-in procedure is reversed at the conclusion of the day's hunt. Bag checks and other pertinent information will be collected during the check-out procedure.

(e) Anyone found hunting without proper registration in these areas on the dates specified will be prosecuted. Special patrol officers will be on duty to insure that the registration process is adhered to.

DIVISION OF YOUTH AND FAMILY SERVICES

Proposed Revisions to Staff Development in State Plan for Services to Families and Children

Maurice G. Kott, Acting Commissioner of Institutions and Agencies, pursuant to authority of N.J.S.A. 30:14-1 et seq., proposes to delete in its entirety the current Section 2.9, Staff Development, of the State Plan for Services to Families and Children and adopt in place thereof a new Section 2.9.

Take notice that, in the August 9, 1973, issue of the New Jersey Register at 5 N.J.R. 279(a), similar revisions were proposed. However, since substantive changes were recommended to be made to those revisions, the Department is republishing the Notice of proposal of such revisions.

The substantive changes concern the applicability to all Titles of the Social Security Act which are administered by the Department of Institutions and Agencies (that is, Titles I, IVA, IVB, X, XIV, XVI and XIX) and a broadening of the policies to the full extent authorized by Federal regulations.

Full text of the proposed revised rules follows:

2.9 STAFF DEVELOPMENT

(A) Staff development will be provided on a continuing, progressive and comprehensive basis for all staff responsible for the development and provision of services.

The aim of the staff development program is to improve agency service delivery by improving staff performance. Staff competence and skill are not static. As varying areas of human need are identified and the necessity of raising standards of service is recognized, the emphasis in staff development will shift. Depending on the assistance to be rendered, the agency may employ staff members of varying levels of formal education for whom the staff development program will provide both in-service training and the opportunity to enhance abilities through formal education. In the final analysis, the staff's need for knowledge and skill in carrying responsibilities for which they are not adequately prepared sets the dimensions of the staff development program.

As an essential component of its administrative support function, the State agency carries responsibility for making available a continuous program of staff development that will effect the performance of workers in all operating units throughout the State. This will involve all personnel in different degrees and in different ways.

The overall purpose of staff development, therefore, is to increase the competence of staff in order to assure the highest quality of service delivery. This purpose is a continuing one.

(B) Improvement of staff performance is most effectively accomplished by:

1. Providing in-service training for all classes and levels of State and county welfare board staff employed by public and private vendors from whom the State agency has purchased service.
2. Providing State and county welfare board employees with opportunities for continued education.

IN-SERVICE TRAINING

In-service training is that part of the staff development program that is agency based and job-focused, relating specifically to the purpose and function of the overall agency program. It provides learning opportunities for all staff (State and county) and encompasses different types of activities appropriate to various phases of work experience. Both orientation and continuous training programs will be offered by the State agency. Training programs will be conducted by staff or by outside experts employed to conduct special programs. The State agency staff development program will direct its efforts toward training State staff and toward supervising and assisting local staff development units.

In order to exercise its supervisory role in relation to local units, the State agency will promulgate standards relating to staffing requirements, qualifications, and job descriptions for staff development personnel, annual plans and such reports as are needed.

The State agency provides consultation, instruction and supervision to training personnel, develops training materials and monitors the training in the local units.

If staff development functions are administered in more than one Division, the State agency will assure program and policy consistency and coordination.

Orientation will be provided for all personnel at the time of entrance into agency service, and for personnel undertaking new assignments which represent a significant change in responsibility. Orientation may be provided by approved local agencies having their own training supervisor, or at a centralized location under the supervision of the State staff development unit.

Orientation will also be available to staff employed by public and private vendors from whom the State agency has purchased services.

Beginning workers (State employees, county welfare board workers, volunteers)

Orientation for beginning workers will consist of all or a portion of the following programs:

1. A centralized induction period with focus on the background of public welfare, agency philosophy, organization for the administration of human service delivery and the role of the worker;

2. An introductory work experience at the employing agency, with focus on basic documentary and manual materials particularly as they relate to the nature and scope of worker responsibilities; and

3. A period of centralized study with focus on the major areas of practice, on the use of regulations and procedures as instruments for providing services and on the techniques and skills required for acceptable performance.

The centralized elements of orientation will be scheduled as required by employment practices of the agency.

Employees assuming new responsibilities

Orientation will be provided for employees at times of significant change in job responsibilities, whether effected through line promotion or through specialized assignment. The plan for orientation will include material relevant to the nature of the new responsibilities, and the knowledge, attitudes and skills required for acceptable performance.

Staff employed by service vendors

In order to assure effective service delivery from a service vendor, orientation consisting of but not limited to the following will be provided to the vendor agency's staff:

1. A description of quality of service expected;
2. An introduction to the use of regulations and procedures as instruments for providing services;
3. A period of study with focus on techniques and skills required for acceptable performance.

Prospective employees or volunteer workers

A general orientation describing job responsibilities and techniques and skills necessary for effective performance will be provided to groups of prospective employees or prospective volunteers when this seems necessary or beneficial. This is often an effective device in screening applicants for both interest and aptitude.

Continuing training programs will be provided at suitable intervals to reinforce basic knowledge and develop required skills in performance of specified job functions, problems experienced by groups of staff. The State agency will accomplish these goals by providing any or all of the following:

1. On-the-job training which involves the supervisor and the persons supervised in a continuing teacher-learner relationship. This includes individualized training through regularly-scheduled conferences with the supervisor around actual case situations and group training through participation in conferences and staff meetings of the supervisory unit. In both processes, the purpose of supervision is to enable the employee to increase his knowledge and skills to learn how to relate himself helpfully to others, to develop his capacity to render effective service in accordance with need and eventually to become a self-directing worker.

2. Developing a specialized in-service training staff, with the capacity for leading self-development and group sessions, utilizing role playing, simulated sessions and group criticism of taped sessions.

3. Utilizing special courses and training institutes and seminars on group work, casework, supervisory and administrative techniques while at the same time paraphrasing basic technical behaviors in terms of organizational requirements, reporting and policy, appreciation of the types of problems of people served and human relationship skills in all areas of responsibility.

EDUCATION

Educational opportunities are available on a selective basis to employees at both State and local levels or to persons preparing for employment. The purpose of the educational program is to improve the value of the employee to his agency in the performance of his current or anticipated duties. Opportunities for education and advance study and training will be made available in all disciplines and skill areas related to agency functions and objectives. It is the goal of the State agency to create a full range of educational programs in cooperation with the various academic institutions. These will include:

1. Programs requiring full-time educational leave. Para-professional, technical and professional employees may be granted educational leave by the employing agency for study in an accredited school as a candidate for an associate degree, baccalaureate degree and for graduate professional education on a masters or doctoral level.

Educational leave may be granted with financial support up to the maximum amount allowed in Federal regulations.

Educational leave may also be provided to employees in worker-in-training classifications. The tenure of these employees is limited to the period of education. Upon successful completion of the educational program these persons will be promoted to an appropriate regular classification.

The number of educational leaves for professional training of State staff and county welfare board staff shall be increased each year to assure an adequate number of professional staff for the services programs. No limitation, except as dictated by available appropriations, has been imposed on the number of educational leaves for professional training that may be granted each year by either State or local agency staff. The number of such leaves is increasing each year.

2. Work study programs. Arrangements may be made first with nearby schools in relevant disciplines to enroll students in work study programs. Work study will give less affluent workers (paraprofessional, technical and professional employees) opportunities to enter professional development programs as the employing agency will maintain them on a salary while they are enrolled in degree programs on a part-time basis.

3. Extension and other courses. Arrangements will be made with educational institutions to develop courses and to utilize those courses previously established in significant areas of social service or related disciplines. These courses are not degree oriented, but are geared toward enhancing basic knowledge and sharpening skills for dealing with problems.

Courses may include, but will not be limited to, instruction in particular methodologies, field work placements, broad surveys of human service techniques, traditional course offerings at the college facility, courses involving workers in intensive study of services relevant to their functional position, on courses organized around research issues (that is, a study of the differential impact of certain types of foster care parent education).

4. Training leave. Excused absence from normal duties for short periods of time without discontinuance of salary will be granted to all levels of employees for participation in short-term courses, seminars, institutes, workshops and similar programs which have particular educational value. Training leave may be supplemented by training leave expenses, and maintenance when a particular activity is organized on a residential basis.

For all types of educational programs, criteria are established for selection of participants. Procedures for processing applicants for approval by the Department are also established.

The State agency and its local units will cooperate with educational institutions whenever possible in order to facilitate both in-service training and educational programs. The State agency will especially support educational institutions whose programs emphasize recruitment and training of minority group students for employment by human service agencies.

Training grants may be made to educational institutions for expanding and enriching existing educational programs or initiating new programs required by the State agency for effective administration of its program and to prepare its personnel for job related functions. Such grants will be made in conformity with SRS training grant guidelines and grants management policy.

Such grants will be made, for example, for:

1. Curriculum development. Grants may be made to expand and enrich existing educational programs necessary to prepare persons for administration of the agency's program and to initiate new programs.

2. Student financial support. Institutional administration of student support programs will be consistent with SRS policies. Criteria are established for selection of participants and procedures for processing the applicants are also established. Stipends will be directed to students with inherent and career interest objectives to seek employment in SRS-related services. Funds may be available for tuition and educational fees, living allowances, student field travel allowance and dependency allowance.

3. Materials development. Grants may be made for purchase and development of useful instructional materials and equipment.

Interested persons may present statements or arguments in writing relevant to the proposed action on or before September 26, 1973, to:

Effective July 1, 1973, or as soon thereafter as possible but in no event later than January 1, 1974, the county welfare board shall issue to each client who is receiving a money payment and who is the named payee, an all-photo identification card to assist him in cashing the public assistance check.

Exception to the above may be made in those instances where the recipient is living in a nursing home, intermediate care facility, public institution or is homebound. In those cases where a person is named as payee on behalf of a recipient, it is not mandatory that the recipient or the payee be provided an all-photo I.D. card; however, the card shall be provided if in the judgment of the county welfare board the issuance of such a card is indicated.

The county welfare board must establish a procedure for completion of the all-photo I.D. card that will insure that the client need make only one visit to the agency for that purpose. Should the recipient fail to keep his appointment for photographing and completion of the I.D. card without just cause and a reasonable effort has been made to elicit cooperation of the client, such recipient's public assistance check shall be held until he reports to the agency for completion of the I.D. card.

1. Name of county welfare board.
2. Color photograph of recipient.
3. Signature of recipient.
4. Case number and recipient's name.
5. Social Security number.
6. The following statement:

"This card is issued by the county welfare board for the sole purpose of assisting welfare recipients in negotiating welfare checks.

If this card should be found, please mail it to the:

County Welfare Board

All postage guaranteed."

The card must be an all-photo I.D. card conforming to the following specifications:

1. Plastic lamination—95 per cent bond.
2. Overall dimensions — approximately 2½ inches by 3¾ inches.
3. Color photograph — no smaller than 1¼ inches by 1¼ inches.

An order adopting these revisions was filed and effective August 15, 1973, as R.1973 d.225.

THE COMMISSIONER

Proposed Rules On Mass Marketing Of Property and Liability Insurance

Richard C. McDonough, Commissioner of Insurance, pursuant to authority of N.J.S.A. 17:1-8.1 and 17:1C-6(e), proposes to adopt new rules concerning the mass marketing of property and liability insurance.

Full text of the proposed rules follows:

SUBCHAPTER 12. MASS MARKETING OF PROPERTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE

11:2-12.1 Introduction

Purpose of this regulation is to prescribe rules to prevent abuses in connection with the sale of property-liability insurance in this State pursuant to mass marketing plans, while preserving for consumers the potential benefits of this form of marketing.

11:2-12.2 Definitions

As used in this regulation:

"Mass marketing plan" means a method of selling property-liability insurance wherein: 1. Such insurance is offered to employees of particular employers or to members of particular associations or organizations or to persons grouped in other ways and 2. The employer, association or organization if any, has agreed to or otherwise affiliated itself with, the sale of such insurance to its employees or members; and

"Property-liability insurance" means insurance to which Section 17:29C-6 of the insurance law applies.

11:2-12.3 Applicability

(a) This regulation shall be applicable only to insurance policies issued or renewed in this State after November 1, 1973, and is in addition to, and not in substitution for, other applicable requirements of the Insurance Law and Department regulations.

(b) The requirements of this regulation are not applicable to methods of marketing other than mass marketing plans.

11:2-12.4 Fictitious arrangement prohibited

No insurer shall, without the approval of the Commissioner, sell insurance pursuant to a mass marketing plan to members of any association or organization formed principally for the purpose of obtaining such insurance.

11:2-12.5 Premium rates

(a) Premium rates under a mass marketing plan shall comply with the standards in the insurance law, including the standards that rates not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

(b) Rates shall not be deemed to be unfairly discriminatory because different premiums result for policyholders with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, so long as the rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

(c) Rates shall not be deemed to be unfairly discriminatory if they are averaged broadly among persons insured under a mass marketing plan.

11:2-12.6 Statistics

DIVISION OF TAXATION

Proposed Revisions In Definitions of, Actively Devoted to Agricultural or Horticultural Use, Evidence of Anticipated Yearly Gross Sales, And Rollback

Sidney Glaser, Director of the Division of Taxation in the Department of the Treasury, pursuant to authority of N.J.S.A. 54:4-23.21 proposes to revise farmland assessment rules concerning the definitions of, actively devoted to agricultural or horticultural use, evidence of anticipated yearly gross sales, and rollback.

Full text of the proposed revisions follows (additions indicated in boldface thus):

Note: N.J.A.C. 18:15-6.1 is deleted in its entirety and the following new section is substituted in its place.

18:15-6.1 Actively devoted to agricultural or horticultural use defined.

(a) Land, five acres in area, shall be deemed to be actively devoted to agricultural or horticultural use when it is used for any of the purposes described in N.J.A.C. 18:15-3, 8 and 44 and: 1. When the gross sales of agricultural or horticultural products produced thereon together with any payments received under a soil conservation program have averaged at least $500.00 on the first five acres, and in addition, on all acreage above five acres, average sales of $5.00 per acre on farmland and $0.50 per acre on woodland during the two-year period immediately preceding the tax year in issue, or 2. There is clear evidence of anticipated yearly gross sales and such payments amounting to at least $500.00 on the first five acres, and in addition, on all acreage above five acres, average sales of $5.00 per acre on farmland and $0.50 per acre on woodland within a reasonable period of time.

Note: N.J.A.C. 18:15-6.3 is deleted in its entirety and the following new section is substituted in its place.

18:15-6.3 Evidence of anticipated yearly gross sales

(a) To meet the requirements of N.J.A.C. 18:15-6.1, an applicant must submit proof that from the present use and the nature and characteristics of the land and from the productivity plans of the owner or occupant thereof, it can be demonstrated that within a reasonable period of time from the date of the application, the gross sales in the aggregate of agricultural and horticultural products will average at least $500.00 annually on the first five acres in area. On all acreage above five acres, average sales of $5.00 per acre on farmland and $0.50 per acre on woodland and wetland is required. Included in the minimum gross sales to qualify the farm should be crops grown for the on-farm use at the retail sales value which the farmer would have to pay if purchased in the open market, but not included would be products grown for on-farm personal consumption.

(b) The formula for computing the minimum gross sales to qualify a farm is illustrated by the following example:
EXAMPLE:

A farm contains 105 acres of which 75 acres is farmland and 30 acres is woodland and the gross sales are $900.00. Gross sales required would be as follows:

Acreage and Type	Gross Sales
First 5 acres of farmland	$500.00
70 acres of farmland	350.00	($5.00 per acre for all acres in excess of 5 acres)
30 acres of woodland	15.00	($.50 per acre on all acres in excess of 5 acres)
Total Gross Sales required	$865.00	(Minimum requirement according to example)

(c) Since the farm has gross sales of $900.00 and only $865.00 is the minimum requirement, this farm would qualify under the Act as to gross sales.

18:15-6.4 Failure to meet additional gross sales requirement on acreage—rollback.

Land previously qualified as actively devoted to agricultural or horticultural use under the Act, but failing to meet the additional requirement on acreage above five acres, shall not be subject to the roll-back tax because of such disqualification, but shall be treated as land for which an annual application has not been submitted.

Interested persons may present statements or arguments in writing relevant to the proposed action on or before September 27, 1973, to:

J. Henry Ditmars
Chief, Local Property and Public Utility Branch
Division of Taxation

STATE NEWS OF PUBLIC INTEREST

Based on press releases from offices involved

STATE MOVES TO OUTLAW USE OF DDT, TOXIC PESTICIDES

The State Department of Environmental Protection has proposed an outright ban on DDT and ten other toxic and "persistent" pesticides in New Jersey.

The Department last month called for stringent regulations to restrict the sale, use and storage of 92 other chemicals sold commercially to control insects, weeds and rodents. (They are printed in full this issue, Page 4.)

The proposed new regulations recommend rules for pesticide use more sweeping than those of the Federal government, which virtually banned the use of DDT and stopped the use of other poisons by refusing to issue permission for their manufacture.

Before the regulations are adopted, they will be presented at two public hearings—Oct. 16 at the Rutgers Food Science Auditorium in New Brunswick and Oct. 18 at Vineland City Hall, both beginning at 10 A.M.

George Beyer, who heads the Department's Office of Pesticide Control, said opposition is expected from farmers who object to any prohibitions or restrictions on chemical, insect or rodent controls.

"It is the purpose of the proposed regulations to restrict, regulate and control those pesticides which may be highly toxic to many forms of life or be persistent in the environment," the Department said in a prepared statement.

According to State figures, 8.1 million pounds of pesticides were used in New Jersey in 1967, the last year for which such figures are available.

Establishing the basis for the regulations—which are an outgrowth of the 1971 New Jersey Pesticide Control Act—the Department said:

"Pesticides are economic poisons. Certain pesticides, however, persist in the environment beyond their useful time as a pesticide. Some pesticides are biologically concentrated in living organisms and have harmful effects upon certain forms of life."

According to the Department, where a "suitable alternative" is available, the more dangerous pesticides have been banned outright. This list includes DDT, mercury compounds, Endrin, DDD, TDE, Bandane and Thallium.

"Evidence demonstrates that these materials are highly injurious to non-target species and threaten other species and biological systems." The new regulations, which have been more than a year in preparation by Beyer and the Pesticide Control Council, also propose:

- Annual registration of dealers and authorized users of the restricted pesticides, who would have to notify the State of changes in their business name and termination of activities.
- A ban on community or area-wide applications, such as mosquito fogging, which has been characterized as "the least important method of control."
- Proper storage and disposal of pesticides to prevent contamination of food.
- Compliance with directions printed on the labels of pesticides. "Until recently the label directions were merely recommendations to the user. Now, it is illegal Federally to use or apply pesticides inconsistent with its labeling. This shall also be true by State regulation," the proposed regulations state.

ISSUES OPINION ON LIABILITY FOR PAYING NO-FAULT INSURANCE CLAIMS

State Insurance Commissioner Richard C. McDonough last month issued an opinion that automobile insurance companies cannot reduce the liability limits of a policyholder because they reimbursed another company for payment of "no-fault" benefits.

McDonough said that "the intent of the 'no-fault' statute is to provide prompt payment for personal injuries suffered in an automobile accident, and in no way is intended that a person be penalized."

"Although this Department has no official report where a company has cut liability coverage because of a no-fault case, I feel that even one person being penalized in this manner is one too many," he said.

McDonough said he had met with the New Jersey No-Fault Study Commission and the consensus was that the practice be banned.

The Commissioner acted after receiving isolated verbal reports that some companies were attempting to reduce the liability coverage by the amount they pay to another company in no-fault benefits.

He gave this example to explain the problem:

Mr. Smith, the owner and driver of the car and Mr. Jones, his passenger, are both injured in an accident resulting from Smith's negligent operation. Jones collects $8,000 from his own insurer to cover medical expenses and wage losses which he is entitled to under the no-fault law.

In addition, Jones' insurance company makes a claim against Smith's insurance company to recover the $8,000 it paid Jones.

Jones then sues Smith for general damages of $15,000 for pain and suffering, the maximum available under Smith's $15,000/$30,000 bodily injury liability policy.

McDonough said that some insurance companies hold that in such case they would be legally correct in reducing the liability coverage after making a no-fault payment because they say that they should not be required to pay more than the total liability limit under the policy.

In the example, Smith's insurance company would reduce the liability coverage by the $8,000 paid to Jones' insurance company so that only $7,000 would be left to satisfy Jones' claim for pain and suffering.

McDonough said, "This reduction of liability coverage could most often occur when the insureds carrying only the minimum $15,000/$30,000 bodily injury liability limits.

"In other words, the little guy with the smallest amount of coverage would have less coverage if this practice were allowed."

NOTE DEC. 1 DEADLINE FOR CARDS FOR ELDERLY HALF-FARE BUS RATES

Senior citizens who do not have Medicare cards are urged by the Department of Transportation to register as soon as possible for the State's new half-fare bus service program for those 62 years or older. The program goes into effect next Monday, Sept. 10.

Medicare card holders may show them to bus drivers to take advantage of the fare savings — but only until the official State identification cards are required, beginning Dec. 1. After that date only the new Senior Citizen Reduced Fare Card will be accepted.

The program enables persons 62 years of age and older to ride at half-fare on buses and jitneys during off-peak hours on regular routes within the State. It does not apply to interstate, school, charter, special or excursion buses.

SAYS JOB PLACEMENT PROGRAM SAVED $1.2 MILLION IN STATE

A Department of Community Affairs program has saved the State and county governments more than $1.2 million in welfare payments over the past fiscal year, it was announced by Commissioner Lawrence F. Kramer.

The program provided funds to various organizations for the recruitment and placement of disadvantaged persons in permanent employment. Administered by the Department's Office of Program Development, Division of Human Resources, it placed a total of 374 participants in jobs, at an average starting salary of $464 a month, Kramer said. They had been receiving an average of $280 in welfare payments.

Because of their employment, Kramer noted, more than $1.2 million was saved in government welfare payments, $900,000 of which would have come from the State and $300,000 from the counties.

FULL-CODE INDEX IS NOW AVAILABLE

An index to rules of all State Departments as contained in the New Jersey Administrative Code will be ready next month for subscribers.

The one-volume Index will be sent automatically to subscribers to the full Code—but it is also being made available separately, it was announced by the Division of Administrative Procedure, publishers of the Code.

The overall index was compiled by the Division, using its computer retrieval system, as a result of a survey and major interest shown by present and potential subscribers.

The Full-Code Index, which supplements present indexes for each Departmental Title, will be updated as new rules are adopted in order to keep it more useful and timely. It is cross-indexed for all Departments.

Subscriptions should be placed using the form below, with payment accompanying orders. The rate is $10 on subscription plus $20 for one year's updating; subsequent annual updateings will be billed later at $20.

When future growth of the Administrative Code requires a two-volume Index, a price adjustment will have to be made.

COMPLETE LIST OF CODE TITLES

Titles now available in the New Jersey Administrative Code include all 17 State Departments, with Treasury broken into two Titles for Taxation and General rules.

Eight Department's Titles involve such a number of rules as to require two or three volumes, with price based on a per-volume, rather than Title, basis.

Subscriptions may be for either the full 28-volume Set, for individual Titles, or for only the Code Index, which is included in the price for Set subscriptions. Payment must accompany all orders, using the form below.
