

In this Issue:

- BNA Tax Management Portfolios online at the Library
- Rare Materials on Display
- American Civil and Revolutionary War Publications Online
- Upcoming programs and classes at the State Library

Norma Blake
State Librarian

Colleen Dazé
Associate State Librarian

HOURS:

Monday-Friday
8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.
185 West State Street
P.O. Box 520
Trenton, NJ 08625-0520

CONTACT US 609-278-2640

Reference: ext. 103
refdesk@njstatelib.org

Law Library: ext. 102
reflaw@njstatelib.org

Circulation: ext. 104
circulation@njstatelib.org

Online in the Law Library: BNA Tax Management Portfolios

The online version of BNA Tax Management Portfolio is now available at the State Library.

The subscription is divided into two segments: the U.S. Income Portfolios Library and the Estates, Gifts and Trusts Portfolios Library.

U.S. Income Portfolios provides research, guidance and implementation tools on such topics as: accounting and returns, deductions and credits, corporate reorganizations, and real estate.

The Estates, Gifts and Trusts Portfolios provides an in-depth understanding of existing and forthcoming gift and estate tax developments and policies. It provides materials on such topics as: family limited partnerships, generation skipping tax, life insurance, and exempt organizations and private foundations, and life insurance.

Tax Management Portfolios are available on the public computers in the law library on Level 3. For assistance contact: 609-278-2640 ext. 102 or reflaw@njstatelib.org.

More than 2,500 reporters, correspondents and leading practitioners in the BNA network deliver expert news analysis, practice tools and guidance.

Rare Materials on Display

Direct from the vault of the State Library, we are featuring some of our rare materials in display cases located in the lobby and the Browsing room. The two display cases hold some of the oldest items in our collection, including the library's oldest publication, a seven-page pamphlet published in Rome around 1493, Oratio in funere sancte memorie Federici III (Funeral Oration for Frederick III, Holy Roman Emperor), and its oldest book written in English, printed in London in 1542, The Chronicles of Fabyan: Which He Hym Selfe Nameth the Concordaunce of Historyes, originally published in 1516 as The New Chronicle of England and France.

View various pieces of the state's and the State Library's history. For further information about the display, contact refdesk@njstatelib.org or 609-278-2640 ext. 103.

GET A STATE LIBRARY CARD

Stop by the Circulation desk in the lobby or complete the State Employee Borrower Registration Form on our web site. (On the SLIC web site, hover over "For the Public" and select "Get a Library Card.")

American Civil and Revolutionary War Publications Online

The State Library is continually adding new content to its web site. Some of this content includes digitized versions of several books significant to the state's history that are fully searchable online: the Constitutional Convention of 1787, Striker's Record of Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Civil War, 1861-1865, Morgan's History of the New Jersey Conference – A.M.E. church, and Striker's Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War.

To search these books, go to http://slc.njstatelib.org/NJ\_information/index.php. Click on New Jersey Digital Collections to see more historical material that has been digitized for viewing. If you have questions, contact refdesk@njstatelib.org.

Special Programming at the New Jersey State Library: Speakers, Lunchtime Learning and the Book Café

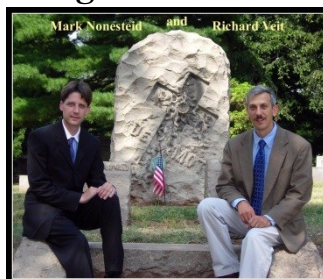

Alex Lang

January 13, 2012 - Venice from the water up: A History of the City of Canals through photographs

Alex Lang received his BA in History from Rutgers University before attaining an MA in Modern History from Durham University in the UK. He specializes in 20th century French and Italian history.

Mark Nonestied is director of Exhibits and Programs for a historic site in Central New Jersey. Richard Veit is a professor of History and Anthropology at Monmouth University and a historical archaeologist.

February 15, 2012 –

Stranger Stop and Cast an Eye is a presentation about the cultural history of New Jersey's historic cemeteries and burial grounds.

Mark Nonestied is director of Exhibits and Programs for a historic site in Central New Jersey. Richard Veit is a professor of History and Anthropology at Monmouth University and a historical archaeologist.

Megan Smolenyak

March 20, 2012 – Hey, America, Your Roots are Showing explains how some of America's oldest and most fascinating genealogical mysteries have been solved. Megan Smolenyak is a genealogical adventurer who loves solving mysteries and pushing the boundaries of conventional genealogy.

The State Library's special programs are held from noon to 1 p.m. in the Level 2 Reading Room. An RSVP is appreciated.

All are welcome. RSVP to:
cwarrick@njstatelib.org

Lunchtime Learning information is located on the right-hand side of our web site as you scroll down. Here you will find, and be able to register for, the many on-site classes and webinars we offer. January and February on-site classes include: Genealogy 2: Using Census Schedules, Grantseeking Basics, and You don't know Google maps. Webinars offered during January are: Locating Nursing Literature – CINAHL with Full Text, Local History Information at the New Jersey State Library, and How to use ILLiad to obtain books and articles. If you have questions about the classes, please email: libdir@njstatelib.org.

The Book Café is held on the second Wednesday of each month from noon to 1 p.m. in the Level 2 reading room. Bring along a book that you have read and enjoyed to share with the other participants. The next three Book Cafés will be held January 11, February 8, and March 14. For more information contact refdesk@njstatelib.org.

To subscribe to the LINK, email cwarrick@njstatelib.org