Thank you for attending the New Jersey Library Association sessions hosted by New Jersey State Library staff members. It was a pleasure to see so many of you at the varied sessions, and we hope you enjoyed and learned from what we offered.

I was delighted to see Dr. Edith Beckett recognized for her leadership in technical services, and I can attest to the depth of her knowledge and skills. It is a pleasure to work beside her.

Please keep an eye open this summer for additional ways to engage with NJSL staff and programs. We love having community-based partners in our work and are always interested in knowing what's going on in your corner of New Jersey. Stay in touch!
