In case of the death, removal or refusal to act of any such agent or agents, the shareholders, on the same notice, to be given by the commissioner upon proof of such death, removal or refusal to act being filed with him, and by the same vote hereinbefore provided, may elect a successor, who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities and duties as the agent originally elected. Unclaimed dividends to shareholders or creditors remaining unpaid in the hands of the commissioner for six months after the date of the order for final distribution shall be deposited by him in one or more State banks of deposit, savings banks or trust companies, to the credit of the commissioner in his name of office, in trust for the persons entitled thereto. and any deed or other instrument executed pursuant to the authority hereby given, shall be valid and effectual for all purposes, as though the same had been executed by the officers of such company by authority of its board of directors. The commissioner may, under his hand and official seal, appoint one or more special assistant deputy commissioners of banking and insurance, as agent or agents, to assist him in the duty of liquidation and distribution, and the commissioner may from time to time, authorize a special assistant deputy commissioner to perform such duties connected with such liquidation and distribution as the commissioner may deem proper. employees and assistants, and all expenses of supervision and liquidation, shall be fixed by the commissioner subject to the approval of the Court of Chancery on notice to such company and shall upon the certificate of the commissioner be paid out of the funds of such company in the hands of the commissioner. The moneys collected by the commissioner shall be from time to time deposited in one or more State banks of deposit, savings banks or trust companies, and in case of the suspension or insolvency of the depositary, such deposits shall be preferred before all other deposits. At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims the Court of Chancery may by order authorize the commissioner to declare out of the funds remaining in his hands after the payment of expenses one or more dividends to creditors, and after the expiration of one year from the first publication of notice to creditors he may declare a final dividend to creditors, such dividends to be paid to such persons, and in such amounts and upon such notice as may be directed by the Court of Chancery.

Objections to any claim not rejected by the commissioner may be made by any party interested by filing a copy of such objections with the commissioner, who shall present the same to the Court of Chancery at the time of the next application to declare a dividend, and said court shall thereupon dispose of said objections or may order a reference for that purpose, and should the objections to any claim be sustained by the court or by the referee, such claim shall not be allowed by the commissioner until the claimant shall have established his claim by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The court may make proper provision for unproved claims.

If company aggrieved. Whenever any such company, of whose property and business the commissioner shall have taken possession as aforesaid, deems itself aggrieved by any act of the commissioner done pursuant to this section, such company may, at any time after such taking possession, apply to the Court of Chancery to enjoin further proceedings, and said court, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties and determining the facts may, upon the merits, dismiss such application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings, or from the doing of any act which will not be in the best interests of the company or grant such other or further relief as may be equitable and just. Whenever the commissioner shall have paid to each and every creditor of such company (not including stockholders), whose claim or claims as such creditor shall have been duly proved and allowed, the full amount of such claims, and shall have made proper provision for unclaimed and unpaid amounts, and shall have paid all the expenses of the liquidation, the commissioner shall call a meeting of the stockholders of such company by giving notice thereof for thirty days in one or more newspapers published in the county where the principal office of such company was located or by mailing ten days' notice thereof to each stockholder at his address as the same appears on the books of such company. At such meeting the stockholders shall determine whether the commissioner shall be continued as liquidator and shall wind up the affairs of such company, or whether an agent or agents shall be elected for that purpose, and in so determining the stockholders shall vote by ballot, in person or by proxy, each share of stock entitling the holder to have one vote, and the votes of a majority of the stockholders shall be necessary to a determination. In case it is determined to continue the liquidation under the commissioner, he shall complete the liquidation, and after paying the expenses thereof, he shall distribute the moneys remaining on his hands to the stockholders of such company in proportion to the several holdings of shares in such manner and upon such notice as may be directed by the Court of Chancery. In case it is determined to appoint an agent or agents to liquidate, the stockholders shall thereupon select such agent or agents by ballot, a majority of the stock present and voting, in person or by proxy, being necessary to a choice. Such agent or agents shall execute and file with the commissioner a bond to the State of New Jersey in such amount, with such sureties and in such form as shall be approved by the commissioner, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his or their trust, and thereupon the commissioner shall transfer and deliver

In case of the death, removal or refusal to act of any such agent or agents, the stockholders, on the same notice, to be given by the commissioner upon proof of such death, removal or refusal to act being filed with him, and by the same vote hereinbefore provided, may elect a successor, who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities and duties as the agent originally elected. Unclaimed dividends to stockholders or creditors remaining unpaid in the hands of the commissioner for six months after the date of the order for final distribution shall be deposited by him in one or more State banks of deposit, savings banks or trust companies, to the credit of the commissioner in his name of office, in trust for the persons entitled thereto. Conditions.

Proviso.

Redemption by holder of ticket.	17. Except as otherwise herein provided, the holder of such ticket shall be presumed to be the person entitled to redeem the pledge; and the pawnbroker shall deliver the pledge to the person presenting the ticket upon payment of principal and interest.
Redemption by mail or express.	18. When a ticket, instead of being presented in person, is sent to the pawnbroker by mail or express, accompanied with a money order or bank draft for the amount due, including the charges for shipment as desired, and twenty-five cents for packing, the pledge shall be securely packed and forwarded by the pawnbroker in accordance with the remitter's instructions, if any. If the remittance is insufficient to cover the amount due, the charges of shipment as desired, and packing, the pawnbroker shall either notify the remitter of the amount of the deficiency or send the pledge subject to the payment of shipping charges by the consignee. The pawnbroker's liability for the pledge shall cease upon delivery thereof to the carrier or his agent.
If sum insufficient.
Payment by installments.	19. Upon the presentation of the ticket, and the tender of not less than five dollars as an installment on the principal together with accrued interest, the pawnbroker shall accept the same and issue a new ticket for the reduced amount.
Lost ticket.	20. If such ticket be lost, destroyed or stolen, the pledgor shall so notify the pawnbroker in writing. The receipt of such notice shall be treated by the pawnbroker as a stop against the loan, and thereafter the provisions of the three last preceding paragraphs shall not apply to such loans. Before delivering the collateral or issuing a new ticket, in such event, the pawnbroker shall require the pledgor to make affidavit of the alleged loss, destruction, or theft of the ticket. Upon receipt of such affidavit, the pawnbroker shall permit the pledgor either to redeem the loan or to receive a new ticket upon the payment of accrued interest; and the pawnbroker shall incur no liability for so doing, unless he has previously received written notice of any adverse claim.
Affidavit by pledgor.
New ticket.
Alteration of ticket.	21. The alteration of a ticket shall not excuse the pawnbroker who issued it from liability to deliver the pledge according to the terms of the ticket as originally issued, but shall relieve him of any other liability to the pledgor or holder of the ticket.

22. If a ticket is presented to a pawnbroker which purports to be one issued by him, but which is found to be spurious, the pawnbroker may seize and retain same without any liability whatsoever to the holder thereof. Any such tickets so seized shall be delivered to the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance.

Spurious tickets.

23. A pawnbroker shall not charge or receive interest on a loan in excess of two per centum per month, computed exactly on unpaid balances; provided, however, that on loans redeemed within the first month, he may charge a month's interest; and provided, further, that he may charge a minimum of fifteen cents where the interest herein amounts to less; and provided, further, that he may charge an additional amount equivalent to three per centum per annum, computed exactly on unpaid balances to cover cost of insurance or bond against burglary, theft, fire or damage, as provided for in this act. In no event shall any other charges be made for any reason whatsoever.

27. No pledge shall be sold unless written or printed notice thereof has first been mailed to the last known address of the pledgor at least twenty days prior to the date of sale. Notice shall also be published in three consecutive issues of a daily or weekly newspaper published in the city or county where the pawnbroker's business is conducted; such notice shall specify the time and place of the sale and the inclusive dates and numbers of the unredeemed loans, but shall not exceed fifty agate lines of space.

Disposition of proceeds.

28. The proceeds of such sale shall be applied for the purposes and in the order here specified; auctioneer's charges; principal and interest of the loan; and a proportionate share of the expense of publishing the notice of the sale, as well as a proportionate share of other specified written or printed notice sent by mail, determined by dividing the total expense of such inclusive notice by the number of loans sold. The surplus, if any, shall be paid, upon proof of identification, to the pledgor or anyone else who would have been entitled to redeem the pledge if it had not been sold. Notice of such surplus, if any, shall be mailed to the last known address of the pledgor, within thirty days after the sale.

If surplus.

After five years.

29. If a surplus be not paid or claimed within five years from the date on which it accrued, it shall revert to the pawnbroker for his own use and benefit. Interest on unpaid surplus, at the rate of six per centum per annum, shall accrue only after the pawnbroker's refusal to pay the same, upon lawful demand thereof.

ARTICLE IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

First lien.

Sale of certificates issued against loans.

31. A pawnbroker shall have the right to issue and sell, with the sanction of the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, certificates in denominations of ten, twenty, fifty, one hundred, and five hundred dollars, against the loans of record but not to exceed fifty per centum of the net loans at the period of issue. The chief examiner and secretary after consultation with appointing authorities and their principal assistants shall, not later than October fifteenth of each year, report to the Civil Service Commission compensation schedules for each class of positions in the State classified service together with his recommendations, based upon experience in recruiting various positions and upon such data as he may collect relating to rates of pay for comparable service in commercial and industrial establishments, as to the need for changes in the compensation schedules for any class or group of classes. He shall also report any other things that he deems pertinent in developing and administering a compensation plan for the State service which takes proper account of prevailing market rates, costs and standards of living, the State's employment policies, finances and needs. Payments made according to schedule.

13. The Administration of the Compensation Plan for the State Service. The payments for the services of persons holding positions in the State classified service shall be made in accordance with the compensation schedules as hereunder established and the rules for their administration as herein provided and as modified by legislative action, but in no case shall a rate of compensation in excess of the maximum rate established under this section be paid to any individual employee in the classified service unless such specific sum shall be set out in an individual line item in an annual or other law appropriating moneys for the payment of compensation for the particular position or positions in question. The inclusion of a sufficient sum to increase the compensation of a person or persons holding such position or positions beyond the maximum established rate as herein provided in any lump sum appropriation shall not be taken as the legislative intent to increase the rate of compensation in question beyond the said maximum established rate. It shall be the duty of the chief examiner and secretary to see that the compensation schedules and the rules for their administration are observed.

Rules and schedules to be observed.

Need of position.

14. Certification as to the Need for Existing and New Positions. As soon as practicable after this act takes effect, the chief examiner and secretary shall make an investigation as to the need for every existing position in the State classified service, and shall report the findings of such investigation together with his recommendations to the Civil Service Commission. There shall be included in such report recommendations as to the most effective means of discontinuing positions which are not needed in carrying on the work of the State and of the best methods for providing for the incumbents of such positions by promotion, transfer, demotion, retirement, removal or otherwise so as to prevent undue hardships. Upon the adoption by the Civil Service Commission of any plan based upon a report of the chief examiner and secretary aforesaid the same shall, in co-operation with departmental authorities be put into effect. The Civil Service Commission, however, shall not have authority to compel the abolition of any existing position against the decision of the appointing authority if appropriated funds are available for the continuance of such position. Hereafter no new position shall be created in the State classified service until the chief examiner and secretary, with the approval of the Civil Service Commission has certified to the appointing authority of the department, institution, commission, board or other agency concerned that such position is necessary for carrying on the work of the department, institution, commission, board or agency in an efficient and business-like manner.

Creating new positions.

15. Establishment of Re-employment Lists. Whenever any employee in the State classified service, who has been performing his duties in a satisfactory manner as shown by the records of the department, commission, board, institution or other agency in which he has been employed, is laid off because of lack of work or funds or has been on authorized leave of absence and is ready to report for duty when a position is open, or has resigned in good standing and with the consent of the Civil Service Commission and the departmental authorities under whose jurisdiction he was employed, has withdrawn his resignation without being restored to his position, the chief examiner and secretary shall cause the name of such employee to be placed on the re-employment list for the appropriate class for future re-employment when vacancies in the class occur. The order in which names shall be placed on the re-employment list for any class shall be established by rule. No resignation shall be withdrawn, however, and no person shall be reinstated or have his name restored to a re-employment list unless such resignation is withdrawn within one year after it has been presented and accepted.

hold tests for the purpose of establishing employment lists for the various positions in the State classified service. Tests for the State service shall be open to citizens who have resided in the State for at least twelve months prior to the date of the test. When, however, by reason of the special or technical qualifications required in a given position, it appears, as indicated by the result of a competitive test held during the last twelve months, that an employment list containing sufficient names to provide a full certification to fill existing or anticipated vacancies is not likely to be established from among qualified competitors resident in the State, the chief examiner and secretary may at the request of the appointing authority, and with the approval of the Civil Service Commission, admit to such tests qualified citizens of the United States. Whenever an employee, in the State classified service renders service in and is paid out of the revenues of the office or department or out of the public funds of any county, municipality, part or district thereof, the acceptance of applications for admission to a test for such position may be limited to citizens of such county, municipality, part or district thereof.

17. Tests. Tests as provided in this section may be written, oral, physical or in the form of a demonstration of skill, or any combination of these, and shall be of such character as fairly to test and determine the qualifications, fitness and ability of the persons tested, actually to perform the duties of the class or position to which they seek appointment. Any investigation of education and experience and any tests of intelligence, capacity, technical knowledge, mental skill or physical fitness or other qualifications which in the opinion of the chief examiner and secretary serves to this end, may be employed. Such tests shall be competitive, free, and except as otherwise provided in this section, open to all persons who may be lawfully appointed to any position in the class for which they are held with such limitations as to age, residence, health, habits, character, sex and other qualifications as may be considered desirable by the chief examiner and secretary and specified in the public announcement of the test. For positions involving unskilled and semiskilled laboring work, or involving domestic, attending, or other housekeeping and custodial services at State institutions where the character of the work, the relatively low rate of compensation, or the place of work, makes it impracticable to secure at stated times a sufficient number of applicants to supply the needs of the service, the chief examiner and secretary, with the approval of the Civil Service Commission, may provide by regulation for a procedure which permits the testing of applicants singly or in groups at stated places for laboring work, and at State institutions or elsewhere for domestic, attending, housekeeping or custodial service at any time on due notice of such tests, but without public advertising as required in this section.

18. Employment of Noncitizens. Whenever the Civil Service Commission, the chief examiner and secretary and State departmental authorities are unable, after diligent effort to obtain a sufficient number of qualified citizens for positions involving domestic, attending, or other housekeeping and custodial work necessary for the proper care of institutional patients or wards of the State, not including penal or reformatory institutions, persons otherwise qualified, who are not citizens but who have received their first citizenship papers may be admitted to tests as herein provided and employed in such positions. Whenever the Civil Service Commission, the chief examiner and secretary and State departmental authorities are unable, after diligent effort, to obtain a sufficient number of qualified citizens to do necessary unskilled or semiskilled laboring work that may be required in the public interest, persons otherwise qualified who are not citizens but who have received their first citizenship papers may be employed for periods not greater than six months at one time. No such person shall be employed in any laboring position, however, when there are qualified citizens available for such work.

20. Examiners. In giving tests for the State classified service, the chief examiner and secretary may obtain the assistance of other persons not on the regular staff of the Civil Service Commission, either within or without the classified service. When such persons are in the State classified service, it shall be deemed a part of their official duty to act as examiners without extra compensation.

21. Public Notice of Tests. The chief examiner and secretary shall give public notice of all tests for positions in the State classified service, at least three weeks in advance, by posting, or causing to be posted, an appropriate notice on the bulletin board maintained in or near the quarters of the Civil Service Commission at the State Capitol and also by advertising each such test in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation in the State. As far as it is consistent with the best interests of the State, vacancies in the higher classes of positions shall be filled by promotion following competitive tests open to those who have served a minimum time established by regulation in such lower class or classes of positions as may be designated.

22. Employment Lists—Arrangement and Period of Eligibility. In establishing any employment list following tests for entrance into the public service, the chief examiner and secretary shall place on the list in the order of their ratings the names of persons who show they possess the qualifications which entitle them to be considered eligible to appointment when a vacancy in any position allocated to the class for which such test is held or for which such employment list is held to be appropriate, occurs. The chief examiner and secretary shall provide by regulation, approved by the Civil Service Commission, at the time any employment list is promulgated the period during which such list shall remain in force. In no case shall the employment list be promulgated for a period less than six months nor for a period greater than three years. The chief examiner and secretary, with the approval of the Civil Service Commission, may extend the period during which any employment list remains in force by action taken before the expiration of such list and entered in the minutes of the Civil Service Commission together with a statement of the chief examiner and secretary as to the reasons therefor. The chief examiner and secretary shall provide by rule, approved by the Civil Service Commission, for the consolidation, continuation and cancellation of employment lists and for the removal of names for good cause therefrom.

23. The Manner of Filling Vacant Positions; Certification. Whenever a vacancy in any permanent position in the State classified service is to be filled, the appointing authority shall notify the chief examiner and secretary of this fact. If such position has been duly authorized and approved the chief examiner and secretary shall certify the name of the person willing to accept employment, highest on the appropriate re-employment list for the class to which the vacant position has been allocated. If there is no appropriate re-employment list for the class, the chief examiner and secretary shall certify the names of the three persons willing to accept employment highest on the employment list for the class or from the employment list held appropriate. If more than one vacancy is to be filled, an additional name shall be certified for each additional vacancy. In case the re-employment list has been exhausted and the employment list does not contain a sufficient number of names of persons willing to accept employment to make possible a certification of the number of names to which the appointing authority is entitled as herein provided to fill existing vacancies, the chief examiner and secretary shall forthwith proceed to hold tests for the purpose of establishing an employment list.

Temporary appointments.

If necessary to prevent the stoppage of public business or inconvenience to the public, but not otherwise, the chief examiner and secretary with the approval of the Civil Service Commission, may authorize the filling of the position at once by provisional appointment, pending the establishment of a re-employment or employment list. No person who does not possess the minimum required qualifications for any position, as determined by such preliminary test or inquiry prior to beginning work as the chief examiner and secretary may prescribe, shall receive provisional appointment. Any such provisional appointment shall continue only pending the establishment of a re-employment or employment list and in no case for a period exceeding a total of four months. No person shall receive more than one provisional appointment or serve more than four months as a provisional appointee in any one fiscal year.

24. The Manner of Filling Vacant Positions, Provisional Appointment, Choice of Selection. On the certification of eligibles for appointment to the State classified service, the appointing authority shall, within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Civil Service Commission and in no case to exceed fifteen days, make arrangements for the appointment of the person whose name has been certified from the re-employment list, and when such re-employment list, if any, has been exhausted, from among the persons whose names have been certified from the employment list, to begin work and forthwith notify the chief examiner and secretary of such fact. If the appointing authority cannot make arrangements with any person whose name has been certified to begin work within what he considers a reasonable time, he shall report that fact to the chief examiner and secretary, who may, in accordance with rules and regulations established under this act, certify the name or names of an additional eligible or additional eligibles to complete the certification of the proper number of names as herein provided. In the selection of appointees from an employment list the appointing authority shall be entitled to a certification of the names of three eligibles willing to accept appointment for each vacancy as hereinbefore provided and he may select any one of the three eligibles whom he considers as best qualified to fill the vacancy in question. No authorization for a provisional appointment as hereinbefore provided shall be given when the name of any person eligible for appointment and willing to accept such appointment, remains on any re-employment or employment list.

25. Temporary Appointments to Extra Positions in the State Service. Whenever by reason of pressure of work the appointing authority determines that an extra position in the State classified service must be established for a period of not more than six months such appointing authority shall notify the chief examiner and secretary of that fact stating the cause therefor, the probable length of time the extra position will be required and the duties the appointee is to perform. The chief examiner and secretary shall thereupon make such investigation as he deems necessary to satisfy himself as to whether the extra position must, in fact, be established and if so, with the approval of the Civil Service Commission, he shall issue the certificate provided by section fourteen of this act. He shall thereupon authorize the appointment with or without competitive tests of a qualified person. As far as practicable temporary appointment to extra positions shall be made following certification from re-employment and employment lists. No such appointment shall be authorized for a period exceeding three months or renewed more than once within any fiscal year.

26. Emergency Appointments in the State Service. Any appointing authority or any subordinate authorized by him may, to prevent the stoppage of public business, or loss or serious inconvenience to the public, when an emergency arises and it will not permit of securing authorization and a certified eligible, appoint any qualified person during such emergency for a period not exceeding ten days. 27. Working Tests. In order that the appointing authority, by means of a working test, may participate in the selective process involved in filling any position in the State classified service, the chief examiner and secretary shall by rule or regulation approved by the Civil Service Commission, establish appropriate working test periods for the various classes of positions, in no case to be shorter than one month nor longer than six months. Within ten days preceding the end of the working test period and at such other times as may be required, the appointing authority shall report to the chief examiner and secretary whether in his opinion the test provided by observance of the employee's work shows such employee to be able and willing to perform his duties in a satisfactory manner and that he is of such reputation, habits and dependability to merit permanent appointment. The requirement as to such reports for positions involving unskilled or semiskilled laboring work or domestic, attending or other housekeeping and custodial service at institutions may be waived. At any time during the working test period, after fair trial, the appointing authority may remove any employee from the position held by him if, in the opinion of such appointing authority, the working test indicates that such employee is unable or unwilling to perform his duties satisfactorily or is of such reputation, habits and dependability as not to merit continuance in the service. In case of such removal, the appointing authority shall forthwith report in writing to the chief examiner and secretary and to the employee so removed, his action, together with the reason therefor. The name of any employee removed during or at the end of the working test period, but who is considered by the chief examiner and secretary suitable for employment in some other department, commission, board, institution or agency, may, with the approval of the Civil Service Commission, be restored to the employment list for future re-employment when vacancies in the class occur.

28. Transfers in the State Service. The chief examiner and secretary shall provide by rule, approved by the Civil Service Commission, for the transfer of employees from a position in a given class to another position in the same or in a different department, commission, board, institution or agency and for the periodical or occasional transfer of employees for a period not to exceed six months without regard to class or department, commission, board, institution or agency in order to bring about the better distribution of persons in the service or to effect economies or to make available from one or more central supply pools extra stenographic, clerical, messenger or other service needed for short periods or to provide training sought by employees or required by appointing authorities. No such transfer shall be made without the approval and consent of the appointing authorities from whose or to whose departmental working forces such transfer is proposed.

Temporary transfers.

29. Service Standards and Ratings. As soon as practicable after the passage of this act the chief examiner and secretary shall establish, in co-operation with departmental authorities for each class of positions or groups of classes in the State classified service, standards of performance and output and a plan of service ratings based upon such standards. Such service ratings shall be used in determining salary and wage increases and decreases within the limits provided by law and within the limits of the schedules of compensation established in accordance with this act; as a factor in promotion tests; in determining order of lay-off when forces must be reduced because of lack of funds or work, and as a means of discovering employees in the State classified service who, by reason of their unsatisfactory service, ought to be demoted or removed. Reports of service ratings or of information to be used as a basis for service ratings shall not be required for any employee or group of employees from any appointing authority without his consent oftener than once in three months. Any employee in the State classified service shall have the right,

On such claim being made, one of the members of such board shall audibly and publicly announce the name of the claimant, and the member of said board having charge of the poll-book, having ascertained that said voter is registered as a qualified voter, shall place in front of each name in said poll-book, as they appear, the number of ballot given each voter.

The voter shall, previous to the receipt of an official ballot, sign his name by his own hand and without assistance, using black ink, in the column headed "signature or statement number of voter" below the words "the foregoing statements are true." After the voter shall have so signed, and before an official ballot shall be given to him, one of the members of said board shall compare the signature made in the poll-book with the signature theretofore made by the voter in the signature copy register, and if said signature thus written in the poll-book is the same or sufficiently similar to the signature in the signature copy register, said voter shall be eligible to receive a ballot.

Procedure if Voter is Unable to Sign (Municipalities Having Permanent Registration).

Par. 179, Sec. 14. If the voter on election day alleges his inability to so sign his name in the poll-book, then one of the members of the district board shall read the same list of questions to the voter as were required upon registration, said questions to be provided for election day, and to be known as "identification statements for election day," and said members shall write the answers of the voter thereto. These statements which shall be printed on the last pages of the poll-book, shall be numbered consecutively from one to one hundred, and a number corresponding to the number on the statement sheet shall be entered in the fourth column of the poll-book opposite the name of the said voter answering the questions. Each statement shall contain the same questions as the voter was required to answer upon registration. The questions answered upon registration shall not be turned to or inspected until all the answers to said questions shall have been written down on election day by said member of the board.  "I certify that I have read to the above-named voter each of the foregoing questions and that I have duly recorded his answers as above to each of said questions," and said member of the board who has made the above record shall sign his name to said certificate and date the same, and note the time of day of making such record. If the answers to the questions asked of said voter on election day agree with the answers given by said voter to the same questions at the time he registered, said voter shall be eligible to receive a ballot.

Comparison of Signatures or Statements to be Public

Comparisons

Par. 180, Sec. 15. The comparison of signatures of a voter made upon registration and upon election day, and if the voter alleges his inability to write the comparison of the answers made by such voter upon registration and upon election day, shall be had in full view of the challengers.

Challenge of Right to Receive Ballot

Who Shall or May Challenge.

Right to challenge.

Par. 181, Sec. 16. The members of the district boards and any duly authorized challenger, respectively, shall at any election, challenge every person who shall claim to have a right to vote therein, whom they or he shall know, suspect or believe not to be qualified or entitled to vote therein, and said member of the district board or challenger shall have the power and right to ask all necessary questions to determine such right.

Procedure if Ground of Challenge is Crime.

Challenged

of crime.

Par. 182, Sec. 17. If a person be challenged as convicted of any crime which bars him from exercising the right to vote, he shall be required to answer in relation to such alleged conviction, and if he shall admit that he has been so convicted, he shall not be permitted to vote unless he shall make oath that he has been pardoned or restored by law to the right of suffrage; but if he shall deny that he has been so convicted, no proof of such conviction shall be received, other than the duly authenticated record thereof, except such proof as may be necessary to establish his identity with the person named in such record, or may be adduced by him to rebut the evidence of identity produced on behalf of the challenge.

Procedure if Person is Challenged on Ground of Being an Alien.

Par. 183, Sec. 18. If any person shall be challenged, as not qualified or entitled to vote, and the person challenging him shall specify a ground for such challenge to be that the person so challenged is an alien, the judge of election may forthwith tender to him an oath or affirmation, in the following form: "You do swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that to the best of your knowledge, information and belief, you were born a citizen of the United States, and that you do not owe allegiance to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty," and if the person so challenged shall refuse to take the oath or affirmation so tendered to him, he shall be deemed and taken to be an alien, unless he shall produce at the time of claiming his vote, to such board, a lawful certificate, issued out of and under the seal of some court of record, having authority to admit aliens to the rights of a citizen of the United States, showing that he has been admitted to the rights of a citizen of the United States. In the former case the said judge shall tender to the person so challenged an oath or affirmation in the following form:

"You do swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that you are the person named in the certificate of naturalization which you have produced to the board." In case the person producing the same shall claim to have derived the rights of such citizen through the naturalization of his parent, then the aforesaid certificate shall show that the person alleged to be such parent has been admitted to the rights of such citizen. In the latter case, an oath or affirmation, in the following form, shall be tendered to such person:

If the person so challenged shall in either case refuse to take the oath or affirmation so tendered to him, he shall be deemed and taken to be an alien.

qualification.

Procedure if Person is Challenged as Being Disqualified.

Par. 184, Sec. 19. If any person shall be challenged, as not qualified or entitled to vote, the said judge may forthwith tender to the person so challenged an oath or affirmation, in the following form:

"You do swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that you are a citizen of the United States; that you have resided in this State one year, and in this county five months next before this election, and not elsewhere; that you are now a resident in this election district; that, as far as you know and verily believe, you are twenty-one years of age, and in all respects qualified to vote in this election, in this election district, and that you have not voted elsewhere in this election," and if the person so challenged shall refuse to take the oath or affirmation so tendered to him, he shall be deemed not to be qualified or entitled to vote.

Questions to be Asked Persons Challenged (Municipalities Having Permanent Registration).

Par. 186, Sec. 21. In municipalities having permanent registration, if a voter is challenged, the board shall ask him the questions which were asked him upon registration, the answers to which appear on the signature copy register and if the answers do not correspond a note of said fact shall be entered in the column of the poll-book entitled "remarks." If the signatures of the voters or the answers to the questions made by the voter do not correspond, then it shall be the privilege of the challengers to challenge, and the duty of each member of the district board to challenge, unless some other authorized person shall challenge.

Determination of Right of Challenged Person to Receive Ballot.

Par. 187, Sec. 22. In all municipalities the district boards shall in no case give a ballot to any person, unless they shall be satisfied that such person is in all respects qualified and entitled to vote; and, for the purpose of satisfying themselves as to the right of any person who shall claim a right to vote they shall have power to examine such person, and any other person or persons, under oath or affirmation, touching such right, except as hereinbefore restricted. The said board shall determine the right of such voter to vote, after making use of, and giving due weight to, the evidence afforded by his signature, if any, and the said answers, and if any member of such board shall give or assent to give a ballot to any person challenged, without requiring such person to take the oath or affirmation hereinbefore prescribed to be made upon such challenge, and such person shall not be qualified and entitled to vote, such member so giving or assenting to give a ballot, shall be deemed and taken to have given to such person a ballot, knowing it to be illegal. The question as to the giving of such ballot to said person shall be put in the following form: "Shall a ballot be given to this person by this board?"

COUNTING OF BALLOTS BY DISTRICT BOARDS

General Elections

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO COUNTING

Summary Statement in Poll-Book.

Par. 202, Sec. 1. Immediately after the close of the polls and before proceeding to estimate and canvass the votes which shall have been received at the election the members of the district board shall immediately fill out the statement on the last page of said poll-book and sign their names thereto.

Board to sign statement

Public Count Without Adjournment.

Par. 203, Sec. 2. The said district board shall then proceed forthwith to count the votes for each candidate or proposition and shall complete said count without delay or adjournment. Said counting shall be open and public, but not to the extent that the number present shall hinder, delay or inconvenience the election officers in counting the ballots and ascertaining the result.

Count begins.

Votes Based on Ballot Markings.

Counting votes; Par. 204, Sec. 3. In canvassing the ballots the district board shall count the votes as follows:

Proper marks; A. If proper marks are made in the squares to the left of the names of any candidates in any column and the total number voted for, for each office, does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected to each office, a vote shall be counted for each candidate so marked.

Marks to left and right; B. If proper marks are made in the squares to the left of any names of any candidates in any column and in addition thereto, proper marks are made to the right of said names, a vote shall be counted for each candidate so marked;

Proviso. provided, however, that if the district board canvassing said ballots or the county board, justice of the Supreme Court or other judge or officer conducting a recount thereof, shall be satisfied that the placing of said marks to the left and right of said names was intended to identify or distinguish said ballot, then said ballot shall not be counted, but shall be declared null and void.

Marks to right only not counted; C. If no marks are made in the squares to the left of the names of any candidates in any column, but are made to the right of said names, a vote shall not be counted for such candidates so marked, but shall be counted for such other candidates as are properly marked;

Proviso. provided, however, that if the district board canvassing said ballot or the county board, justice of the Supreme Court or other judge or officer conducting a recount thereof, shall be satisfied that the placing of said marks to the right of said names was intended to identify or distinguish said ballot, then said ballot shall be declared null and void.

Marking written in name or paster; D. Where the name of any person is written or pasted in the column designated Personal Choice, and a cross X or plus + appears in the square to the left of such name, it shall be counted as a vote for such person.

Counting markings on referendum; E. In case of any public question printed on the ballot where a proper mark is made in the square to the left of the word "Yes," it shall be counted as a vote in favor of said public question. If a proper mark is made in the square to the left of the word "No," it shall be counted as a vote against said public question. If no mark is made in either square to the left of either the word "Yes" or "No" it shall not be counted as a vote either in favor of or against said public question. If a mark is made in each of the squares to the left of both the words "Yes" and "No" it shall not be counted either as a vote in favor of or against said public question nor shall it invalidate the ballot.

F. If a voter marks more names than there are persons to be elected to an office, or writes or pastes the name of any person in the column designated Personal Choice, whose name is printed upon the ballot as a candidate under the same title of office, or his choice cannot be determined, his ballot shall not be counted for such office, but shall be counted for such other offices as are properly marked. If a voter mark a cross X or plus + in the square at the left of the surname of any candidate for President or Vice-President of the United States, and also mark a cross X or plus + in some of the squares at the left of the names of candidates for presidential electors, it shall count as a vote for all the candidates for presidential electors nominated by a party represented by said candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Improper
preparation
of ballot;

Marking

ballot;

G. If the mark made for any candidate or public question is substantially a cross X or plus + and is substantially within the square, it shall be counted for such candidate or for or against such public question, as the case may be. No vote shall be counted for any candidate in any column or for or against any public question, unless the mark made is substantially a cross X or plus + and is substantially within the square.

Void Ballots.

Par. 205, Sec. 4. In counting the ballots said board shall deem and take to be null and void all ballots which are wholly blank, or on which more names have been marked for every office than there are persons to be elected to such office, and on which both "Yes" and "No" have been marked upon every public question. ballots still remaining in the ballot-box after ballots equal in number to the number of names of voters in the poll-book, inclusive of void ballots, have been counted shall be deemed and taken to be null and void. No ballot which shall have, either on its face or back, any mark, sign, erasure, designation or device whatsoever, other than is permitted by this act, by which said ballot can be distinguished from another ballot, shall be declared null and void, unless the district board canvassing said ballots, or the county board, justice of the Supreme Court or other judge or officer conducting the recount thereof, shall be satisfied that the placing of said mark, sign, erasure, designation or device upon the ballot was intended to identify or distinguish said ballot; provided, however, that no ballot shall be declared invalid by reason of the fact that the mark made with ink or the mark made with lead pencil appears other than black; provided, further, that no ballot cast for any candidate shall be invalid by reason of the fact that the name of such candidate may be misprinted, or his Christian name or his initials may be omitted; provided, further, that no ballot cast for any candidate shall be invalid by reason of the use of any paster permitted by this act on which the title of office may be printed or the name of such candidate may be misprinted or part of his Christian or surname or initials may be omitted, or that by reason of the fact that the voter in writing the name of such candidate may misspell the same or omit part of his Christian name or surname or initials; provided, further, that no ballot shall be declared null and void or invalid, by reason of having a cross X or plus + appearing in a square at the left of a blank space, or a space wherein no name is printed.

Proclamations by the Governor

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Each year the fire loss in lives and in property is appalling—nearly $500,000,000 and thousands of lives. A single year represents a serious drain on our national life. It is indeed time that carefulness, better fire protection and prevention should reduce the tremendous loss that this country suffers every year.

Our own State shares this loss with all other States, the loss from fire the past year being $15,000,000, which is an increase over the year before of $575,000.

Believing it to be of the utmost importance that our citizens take an active interest in the prevention of fire,

THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby designate and proclaim the period from

OCTOBER 6 to 12, 1929,
AS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK,

and I call upon all civic organizations, business associations, school authorities and other bodies interested in the public welfare to assist in furthering this important observance to the best of their ability.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this thirtieth day of [SEAL.] September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-fourth.

WHEREAS, In honoring the memory and recognizing the contribution of Pulaski to the attainments of the colonies that comprised the early energetic and enterprising America, we are indicating a patriotic appreciation of the spirit and valor of all who participated in the War of Independence; and

WHEREAS, Such an appropriate recognition of these services must tend to stimulate a supplemental interest in both youth and adult, reminding them of the ever-outstanding debt of gratitude we owe the men of these armies that carried on "this enterprise in behalf of liberty";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby designate and proclaim October 11, 1929, "General Pulaski's Memorial Day", and urge that suitable exercises designed to honor and perpetuate the memory of this advocate of freedom be held in the schools of the State, and that the people of the State generally observe this day by a display of the American flag and other appropriate measures.

By the Governor:

JOSEPH F. S. FITZPATRICK,

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

This year, which witnesses the eleventh anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, has also witnessed a definite advance in the attitude of the nations toward the accomplishment of world peace.

It seems to me that no finer tribute could be paid to the memory of those who gave so much in the hope that they were fighting a "war to end war" than that all the people should strive earnestly toward the coming of universal peace.

I would respectfully suggest that in all Armistice Day celebrations throughout the State effort should be made to promote the spirit of peace, in order that the heroic victims of the late war shall not have suffered and died in vain.

THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11th,

AS

and I would ask that two minutes of absolute silence be observed on the eleventh hour of that day, to be spent in silent prayer in memory of those who died in the war, and for the coming of peace throughout the world.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this seventh day of [SEAL.] November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-fourth.

MORGAN F. LARSON,
Governor.

By the Governor:

JOSEPH F. S. FITZPATRICK,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

The beautiful custom of setting aside one day in the year for a day of nation-wide thanksgiving and prayer is distinctly American. No other nation so generally observes a day for the expression of gratitude for the blessings of the year, and no other nation has so much to be thankful for.

It is in keeping with the traditions of Thanksgiving Day that we should give thanks for our material blessings, for our abundant harvests, for industrial prosperity, for the gigantic strides which are being made in science, and for all other material blessings, but above all this we should be profoundly grateful for the manifestation of an increase in kindness and good will among the nations, for the brighter prospect of world peace, and for our spiritual blessings.

THEREFORE, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, mindful of the fact that our State has shared abundantly in the nation's blessings, do hereby proclaim and I urge that the people gather in their respective churches and other places of public worship in the State on that day, to render thanks to Almighty God for the blessings and gifts bestowed upon us during the past year.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28th,

AS

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this nineteenth day of November, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-fourth.

Governor.

The passing of William Howard Taft removes from this life one of the best-loved figures in American history.

The deep sense of responsibility, great dignity and proven ability which he brought to the high offices of President and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court were mingled with the kindness and simplicity which are ever the attributes of the truly great.

New Jersey joins with the rest of the Nation in mourning him, and in the desire to pay fitting tribute to his memory.

In order that we may show our love and respect for him, I, MORGAN F. LARSON, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby direct that the flag be flown at half-staff upon all public buildings of the State for thirty days from this date; and do further recommend that like action be taken by all officials on county and municipal buildings; and that upon the day of the funeral all State, county and municipal offices be closed during the hour set for the funeral; and I do further recommend that, so far as possible, all business be suspended during the same period.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this tenth day of
