4-97

A.H., on behalf of minor son, B.H.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EGG HARBOR, ATLANTIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning parent challenged Board's residency determination that her son was not entitled to a free public education for the 1995-96 school year.

Administrative Law Judge found that petitioner had failed to prove that her son, B.H., was domiciled in the District. The ALJ concluded that B.H. was not living with, or supported by, a domiciliary of the District. Thus, the Board was entitled to tuition for B.H. in the amount of $6,755 for the 1995-96 school year.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's finding that petitioner failed to prove that B.H. was entitled to a free public education in respondent's District and directed petitioner to remit to the Board tuition owed for B.H.

January 9, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6604-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 255-7/96

A.H., ON BEHALF OF MINOR SON B.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EGG HARBOR, ATLANTIC COUNTY,

Respondent.

A.H., mother of B.H., petitioner, pro se

Paul J. Carr, Esq., for respondent (Murray and Carr, attorneys)

Record Closed: October 15, 1996 Decided: November 20, 1996

BEFORE KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ:

A.H., on behalf of her son, B.H., has filed a petition claiming that B.H. is entitled to a free public education from the school district of Egg Harbor Township, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. For the school year 1996-1997, A.H. has enrolled B.H. in Pleasantville High School, which is not within the Egg Harbor Township School District. In this action, Egg Harbor Township Board of Education is now seeking recovery of the tuition funds due to it, for B.H.'s attendance in school year 1994-1995 in Egg Harbor Township.

At the commencement of the hearing, A.H. said that she wanted to obtain counsel. She mentioned the name of an attorney, Jeffrey April, who she said she wanted to have represent her. It was later disclosed that Mr. April had represented her in her divorce. A.H. agreed that she had received the notices of this hearing, but said that she had not yet retained Mr. April to represent her. She asked for a postponement to arrange for counsel. Her request was denied, and the hearing proceeded.

The first witness to testify was Cynthia Hendrickson, Attendance Officer for Egg Harbor Township School District, who said that she and the school bus drivers witnessed B.H. being dropped off in the morning by A.H. in a small red car, license number FS852E, at the bus stop in front of 20 C. Drive, Egg Harbor Township. Ms. Hendrickson also said that she saw B.H. being picked up by A.H. in the same car at the bus stop in front of 20 C. Drive, Egg Harbor Township, in the afternoon. This car is registered to A.H, and the address on the registration for A.H. is 908 W. Avenue, Pleasantville. The house at 20 C. Drive, Egg Harbor Township, is the residence of M.H., A.H.'s separated husband and B.H.'s step-father. Ms. Hendrickson said that, on at least two occasions, she observed B.H. get off the school bus in front of 20 C. Drive, and that B.H. waited at the corner until 3:45 p.m. for his mother to pick him up. Ms. Hendrickson said that she never observed B.H. enter the house at 20 C. Drive.

Ms. Hendrickson said that when she followed the small red car after A.H. picked up B.H., the two would drive to 455 C. Avenue, Absecon. This Absecon address is in Pleasantville, and the house is owned by A.H.'s father. Ms. Hendrickson observed A.H. and B.H. leaving this house in the morning regularly to drive to 20 C. Drive in time for the school bus.

Ms. Hendrickson said that the house at 908 W. Avenue, Pleasantville (the address on the car registration) was rented to A.H.'s daughter. The small red car with license number FS852E was never observed at this address by Ms. Hendrickson.

Ms. Hendrickson said that these observances took place over a three and one-half month period, beginning in January, 1996, approximately every school day. Ms. Henrickson's report was admitted as R-6.

CONCLUSION

I FIND and CONCLUDE that B.H. is not domiciled in Egg Harbor Township. I further FIND and CONCLUDE that B.H. is not living with or supported by a domiciliary of Egg Harbor Township, as if B.H. were that domiciliary's own child. I FIND and CONCLUDE that respondent is entitled to prevail as a matter of law.

Respondent may now pursue an appropriate action before the Superior Court for the recovery of the tuition funds due to it, in the amount of $6,755.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

DATE

KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

11/26/96

DATE

DNA

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

NOV 27 1996

DATE

Barbara A Kerner

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ej

DOCUMENTS IN EVIDENCE

For Petitioner:

P-1 Custody Agreement between A.H. and M.H.

For Respondent:

R-1 Registration card from Kindergarten

R-2 Birth Certificate

R-3 Health History

R-4 Accumulative Health Record

R-5 Continuing Pupil Record

R-6 Typed summary of Cynthia Hendrickson, attendance officer

R-7 Notice of legal action to evict

R-8 Release of records to Pleasantville High School

R-9 Letter, April 8, 1996, Dr. Heery to Mrs. H.

R-10 Letter, May 29, 1996, Dr. Heery to Mrs.H. (21 day notice)

R-11 Letter, September 13, 1996, Paul J. Carr, Esq. to Mrs. H.

R-12 Letter, September 20, 1996, Paul J. Carr, Esq. to Mrs. H.

R-13 Egg Harbor Township School's per pupil costs for 95/96 fiscal school year

R-14 Letter, September 18, 1996, Judge Clark to Mrs. H.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6604-96

A.H., on behalf of minor son, B.H.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EGG HARBOR, ATLANTIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner has failed to prove that B.H. is entitled to a free public education in respondent's District. Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq., the Commissioner directs that petitioner remit to the Board tuition for B.H. in the amount of $6,755, for the 1995-96 school year.*

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* Notwithstanding that the initial decision states on page 1 that the Board is seeking to recover tuition costs for school year 1994-95, both the Board's testimony and its exhibits indicate that it seeks recovery of costs for the 1995-96 school year. (Initial Decision at p. 3, and Exhibit R-13)

January 9, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 9, 1997

(SB) 5-97

SB #5-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DENIAL OF :
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE GLOUCESTER COUNTY : DECISION
CHARTER HIGH SCHOOL, GLOUCESTER :
COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 14, 1997

For the Appellant, Albertson, Ward & McCaffrey (Eugene McCaffrey, Esq., Jr., of Counsel)

The Gloucester County Charter High School (hereinafter "appellant") filed an appeal to the State Board from a letter decision of the Commissioner of Education dated January 14, 1997 denying its application to establish a charter school in the 1997-98 academic year. In a statement of reasons dated February 14, 1997, the Commissioner indicated that the application contained inadequate or insufficient information in most program areas and had a weak financial plan, specifically, that no budget detail was provided, cash flow not calculated within Department of Education guidelines, and grants and donations made up 47% of the budget.

Appellant filed a brief in support of its appeal, along with a motion to supplement the record, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9, with its mathematics and language arts curriculum and a proposed school calendar. A Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed an application to participate, along with a brief in response to the arguments supporting the appeal and in opposition to the motion to supplement.

3/26/97

In view of the extremely stringent time limit under which the Legislature has required us to decide appeals of this type, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), we have determined to consider all of the documents that have been filed in this matter. In addition, we have reviewed the record provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner. After careful consideration of this matter under the terms of the pertinent statutes, we agree with the ultimate determination of the Commissioner to deny the charter in this case, but we modify his analysis.

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational improvement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). In the absence of regulations, we find it necessary to consider the application under the terms of the pertinent statute.

The record reveals that the "Final Application" submitted by appellant on October 15, 1996 was assessed by two reviewers. Those reviewers identified the application as inadequate and/or failing to provide sufficient information in the following areas: goals and objectives, educational mission, governance structure, educational program, student assessment, student discipline, admission policy, meeting the needs of at-risk students, staff, parental involvement, transportation and insurance. The application was found to be "educationally weak."

A separate budget review found the overall quality of appellant's financial plan to be inadequate, finding the budget and anticipated revenues to be "bare bones" and indicating that the application lacked details and documentation.

A tally sheet dated November 8, 1996 summarized the "Final Application" as inadequate in its educational mission, goals and objectives, governance structure, educational program, student assessment, admission policy, discipline policy, at-risk students and parental involvement. The application was given an overall rating of inadequate, noting that all of the educational program elements, as well as the financial plan, were inadequate. A recommendation was made to reject the application.

Even taking into consideration the materials submitted by appellant as part of its motion to supplement the record, our own review of the record indicates that the application fails to satisfy the minimal statutory standards. While the application provides a description of and address for appellant's physical facility as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, the application includes such programmatic and financial deficiencies as to preclude the grant of a charter to appellant at this time.

Consequently, we conclude that appellant has failed to demonstrate its entitlement to establish a charter school in 1997-98. We stress that our determination herein is limited to the 1997-98 school year and is without prejudice to appellant's ability to apply for a charter in any subsequent years.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing MAR 3 1 1997

(SB) 6-97

DHPL #2-97
SB #6-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : DECISION ON MOTION

OF C.W.R., JR. :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 3, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Mary J. Hammer, Esq., of Counsel)

C.W.R., Jr. (hereinafter "petitioner") was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment as a teacher in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed a conviction for possession of marijuana following his arrest in October 1986. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated January 3, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,[1] finding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

---

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

4/2/97

Petitioner, now represented by counsel, filed the instant appeal to the State Board, along with a motion to supplement the record on appeal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9 with additional letters of recommendation.

The State Board grants petitioner's motion and directs re-establishment of the briefing schedule, which had been placed in abeyance pending our determination of the instant motion. Petitioner's brief in support of his appeal is due within 20 days from the date of this decision.

April 2, 1997

Date of mailing APR 02 1997

6-97

EDU #1670-95
C # 9-97
SB # 10-97

CLARINDA BRUECK AND FREDERICK FOCHESATO,	:
PETITIONERS-RESPONDENTS,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 10, 1997

For the Petitioners-Respondents, Springstead & Maurice (Alfred F. Maurice, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Oury & Mizdol (Dennis J. Oury, Esq., of Counsel)

On January 10, 1997, the Commissioner of Education issued a decision in which he found that the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview (hereinafter "Board") had violated the tenure and seniority rights of the petitioners, tenured teaching staff members, when it abolished their positions as the result of a reduction in force.

On February 10, 1997, the Board filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), the Board's brief in support of its appeal was due on March 3, 1997, 20 days after the appeal was filed. The Board, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated March 10, 1997, the counsel for the State Board notified the Board that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of its failure to perfect the appeal. The Board has still failed to file a brief in support of its appeal, more than two months after the deadline for such filing, or to offer any explanation for its failure to do so. Nor has it requested an extension of time for such filing.

5/7/97

Consequently, the State Board of Education dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

May 7, 1997

Date of mailing MAY 09 1997

(SB) 6-97

DHPL #2-97
SB #6-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF C.W.R., JR.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 3, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, April 2, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Mary J. Hammer, Esq., of Counsel)

C.W.R. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a teacher by the Leonia School District, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been convicted of possession of marijuana following an arrest in October 1986. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated January 3, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

6/4/97

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education, along with a motion to supplement the record with additional letters of recommendation. On April 2, 1997, we granted petitioner's motion.

After a thorough review of the record, including the additional documents submitted by petitioner, we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner. We find that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

> e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:
>
> 1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
> 2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
> 3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
> 4. The date of the offense;
> 5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
> 6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
> 7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
> 8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

Petitioner's submissions include a number of letters of recommendation attesting to his character. Petitioner's supervisor at his position in Leonia praises him as "an excellent teacher, caring about both the students and history. He, in fact, has taken on many out-of-classroom assignments, such as advisor to the Environmental Club and supervisor of our new after school Weight Room, that have greatly added to the quality of life at Leonia High School. Furthermore, I have always found [petitioner] to be totally professional and of high moral character and, again, would have no reservations about recommending him for a teaching position at Leonia High School." An observation report of petitioner's teaching abilities relates that he "has begun as a teacher of History at the high school in fine fashion. He is enthusiastic about his subject, and students respond to his enthusiasm with their own."

Petitioner's supervisor at a security company praises him as a "stable, hard working, dedicated, prudent, mature individual" who has "demonstrated an ability to perform his duties in a way that has brought credit to both him and our organization." The mayor of Hamilton Township, New Jersey commends petitioner as a "mature responsible adult."

Petitioner was 21 at the time of his arrest in 1986, and indicates that he had just completed two years of active duty in the Army. He subsequently graduated from Trenton State College in 1992 and earned a master's degree from the University of Connecticut in 1995. There have been no further arrests.

We find that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Given the uncontradicted evidence in the record, we conclude that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Accordingly, we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey as a teacher.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

7-97

7-97

PHYLLIS YOUNG,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WILLINGBORO, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, nontenured assistant principal, alleged the Board acted in an arbitrary and capricious manner in not renewing her employment for the 1995-96 school year. Petitioner contended there were violations of the Open Public Meetings Act and her First Amendment Rights.

ALJ concluded that petitioner was not entitled to reemployment or compensation for nonreemployment. The ALJ found that regardless of whether petitioner's political affiliation amounted to a protected affiliation, the Board still had a valid, and lawful, reason for nonreappointment -- unsatisfactory performance. Further, the ALJ found that petitioner was not entitled to reemployment or compensation due to the Board's failure to notify her of her discontinued employment within statutory constraints, in that petitioner's own inaction, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12, rendered the requirement inapplicable.

Commissioner adopted the initial decision as his own. Petition was dismissed.

January 10, 1997

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10172-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. #386-9/95

PHYLLIS YOUNG,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WILLINGBORO, BURLINGTON COUNTY,

Respondent.

Robert M. Schwartz, Esq., for petitioner

James P. Granello, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: October 16, 1996 Decided: November 22, 1996

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

This matter commenced on September 22, 1995, when Phyllis Young (hereinafter petitioner) filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education seeking an order determining that the actions of the Board of Education of the Township of Willingboro (hereinafter respondent) in failing to continue her employment were arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable, were procedurally deficient, violated the Open Public Meetings Act and violated her First Amendment rights to free speech and association. An answer on behalf of respondent was filed on October 17, 1995, and on October 23, 1995, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F- 1 to -13.

A prehearing conference was conducted on January 18, 1996, at which time it was determined that respondent would submit a motion for summary decision. Respondent's motion and supporting papers were received on February 1, 1996. A response in opposition to the motion on behalf of petitioner was filed on March 26, 1996. A letter brief in lieu of a more formal reply brief was filed on behalf of respondent on April 1, 1996. Petitioner responded by letter received April 4, 1996. Thereafter, oral argument took place by telephone conference call on June 6, 1996, and both parties filed additional submissions in response to questions raised during the oral argument. Petitioner sent letters dated August 17, 1996 and October 11, 1996. Respondent sent letters dated June 10, 1996, August 21, 1996 and October 15, 1996, the last of which was received on October 16, 1996, whereupon the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The facts relevant to a determination of this matter are not in dispute and I therefore FIND the following as uncontested facts.

Petitioner became employed by respondent in the position Director of Personnel, pursuant to an individualized employment contract which provided, inter alia, for a term of employment to run from October 17, 1992 to the thirtieth day of June 1995, at a salary of $65,000 per annum. The contract also provided that petitioner would be credited with 100 sick days as of her starting date, that she would receive written notice of any dissatisfaction with her performance with thirty days within which to address the problems noted and that the contract could be terminated without cause upon sixty days' written notice and the payment of one year's salary. As the Director of Personnel petitioner reported directly to the superintendent of schools. As a consequence, the superintendent of schools conducted periodic evaluations of petitioner's performance. On or about November 12, 1993, the superintendent prepared a written evaluation of the petitioner in the position of Personnel Director, which covered the period August 1993 to November 12, 1993. The evaluation found petitioner's performance unsatisfactory in a number of areas; it began:

> During this evaluation period, I have observed Mrs. Young to be professional in her appearance and her demeanor, she works long hours, has a good sense of humor, and relates well to her co-workers.
>
> Mrs. Young admittedly, assumed her position as Director with limited experience and knowledge in the personnel area. This lack of experience and knowledge apparently has hindered her ability to revamp and organize her department. Mrs. Young has also been hampered continuously throughout her tenure in this position with inadequate clerical help.
>
> Mrs. Young's background coupled with her lack of adequate clerical assistance has gravely impacted on her performance and the total operation of her department. . . .

The evaluation, which was receipted by Ms. Young on November 24, 1993, concluded:

> In light of the difficulty Mrs. Young has been encountering, I offered Mrs. Young the opportunity to voluntarily transfer into another administrative position. Mrs. Young opted to remain in her current position as Director of Personnel with the full knowledge and understanding that failure to improve her performance and the Personnel Department would result in my recommendation to the Board that her position be terminated.
>
> Mrs. Young declined the option indicating that she would like to remain in her position as Director of Personnel in an effort to prove to me and to the Board of Education that she can do her job.

Another evaluation prepared on March 29, 1994 by the superintendent indicated slight improvement in petitioner's performance; however, a third evaluation prepared on April 21, 1994, rated petitioner's performance unsatisfactory or below expected levels. That evaluation, which was receipted by petitioner on June 28, 1994, concluded:

> Given the time, to date, expended by Mrs. Young and the level of improvement still needed, Mrs. Young agreed that her skills would be better utilized as an Assistant Principal, effective September 1, 1994.

Accordingly, effective September 1, 1994, petitioner assumed the position Assistant Principal at the Memorial Junior High School. She functioned successfully in this position until the conclusion of the 1994-95 school year. The evaluations petitioner received from her supervisor, Mr. Bolden, the junior high school principal, were positive, and he recommended reemployment for petitioner for the following school year.

On or about June 14, 1995, petitioner received a notice from respondent that her reappointment might be discussed by the Board of Education at its conference meeting on June 20, 1995 and/or its public meeting of June 26, 1995. (Petitioner acknowledges that she received a notice concerning the June 26, 1995 meeting; since both the conference meeting of June 20, 1995 and the regular meeting were referenced in the same notice, she must have received notice of the conference meeting, as well.) The minutes of the conference meeting on June 20, 1995, reveal the following discussion concerning petitioner:

> Mr. Rodriguez: I asked for the last name (on page 11a Conference Agenda 6/20/95 to be separated. This individual was hired as Personnel Director. I felt this individual was initially hired as a political appointment of past Board members. I do not believe she should be reappointed.
>
> Mrs. Reynolds: Mrs. Carter.
>
> Mrs. Carter: I would like to hear from Dr. Foster.
>
> Mr. Rodriguez: What I'm saying is she should never have been hired as Personnel Director in the first place. I am also saying that when we released her from the Personnel Department, we should have released her from the district.

Mrs. Carter: There have been reports coming back that she was doing a good job.

Dr. Foster: To my knowledge for her name to appear here she would have to have had a favorable evaluation from Mr. Bolden.

Mr. Jamerson: I can only tell you that we did not receive any correspondence saying we should not renew her contract.

Dr. Foster: Also I asked Mr. Jamerson to check with every principal to see if they had any non renewals.

Mrs. Payne: I checked with her principal and he said he requests that she be rehired.

Mr. Rodriguez: These are my feelings for not reappointing her.

Mrs. Carter: My questions to you is, why would you want to effect a person's livelihood because you think that. . . .

Mr. Rodriguez: That individual affected someone else's livelihood.

Mr. John: This is the reason why I questioned earlier, can we look at employees' files, for whatever reason? I understand that for whatever reason, someone can be suited or not suited for the job. I hate to do things because of personal feelings to an individual. If we are in charge of appointing people to positions, we should have some knowledge of the person's files. . . . background.

Dr. Foster: I will check with Mr. Martinez as to what we can share and if he says we can make this information available then we will.

Mr. John: It's not. . . . It's just that I would like to know why I am saying "yes" to something.

Dr. Foster: The criteria for appointing her is, the supervisor has signed off saying, "I agree that this person should be reappointed."

Mr. John: I would feel more comfortable if I had some reason. . . .

Dr. Foster: What this list is supposed to represent is that their supervisor is saying they have performed satisfactorily. That is the process.

Mr. John: I would like to say, if I look at a person's record and it shows insubordination, then I can say that.

Mr. Davis: My concern on this is the initial appointment was certainly political. I think we have reached the decision that this person did not work out in the Personnel Office and we said where will we stick this person? Maybe, we said, she is satisfactory on that job--I kind of like Tony's idea to review the files.

Mrs. Carter: To piggy back on what Mr. John said, I have seen instances--take the Athletic person--we approved him for tenure. We voted to give him tenure and he was never evaluated.

Mrs. Reynolds: Anyone else?

Mrs. Wright: For the reappointment, shouldn't the people who are not tenured - shouldn't they be on a separate list?

Mrs. Reynolds: I support everything that Mr. Rodriguez said. I am the only person who did not vote for her--and she screwed up the Personnel office. She did not know what the negotiations were--did not know what the Sunshine Law was. Even after we were told this could harm the Board, they still voted for her. You wonder why we have problems at Memorial. How could you to that to this district--how could you do that to the kids! I voted and I am proud of it; I voted "no." I am not going to vote for this person, and you are not going to send her to the high school because Dr. Foster said she will go to the high school with the 9th graders.

Mrs. Smith: It is important that we be innovative and creative if we are going to make a difference. Our hiring policy, etc. We addressed this through Personnel and it was brought to our attention that that was not advisable because you get into personality. Everyone in this district had rosy evaluations! When you come up to these positions and when they get tenure, it is hard to get rid of them. Not that we don't trust administration, but in certain positions I think the Board has to look at the hiring practices a little.

Mrs. Carter: I've been saying that all along. . . .

Mr. John: I will bring as an example the statement made about Mrs. Young, the same statement is being made about another person who got a contract. The person is still here. There were two people who were hired at that time. Maybe the second person is working all right now--maybe. . . .

Mr. Rodriguez: It's like apples and oranges.

Mr. John: It is the same idea.

Mr. Rodriguez: I. . .

Mrs. Carter: If you are talking that the contracts were illegal. . . .

Mr. Holley: Often time I think the Board members suffer from selective amnesia. Allowing them to get us into some very serious problems. When I was first on the Board there was a gentlemen who was running our Payroll Department. . . .

Mrs. Reynolds: Mr. Holley, stick to the issue. That person is not....

Mr. Holley: I think certain Board members have gone out on a witch hunt. I believe that we should follow the recommendation of the administration since we are always talking about doing what administration recommends. How is it that when you want to vote on something then you use that, and when you don't want to vote on something then you don't -- I don't understand that.

Mrs. Reynolds read the resolution to extend time for adjournment past 12:00 midnight. 7 voting: 7 voting in the affirmative.

At 12:56 a.m. (6/21/95) Mr. Holley moved to adjourn; seconded by Mrs. Wright. 8 voting: 8 voting in the affirmative.

The meeting adjourned at 12:56 a.m. 6/21/95.

On June 26, 1995 at the regular public meeting of the Board of Education, the motion to appoint the petitioner failed for the lack of a majority vote. Board members voting in favor of the motion to reappoint were Mr. Holley, Mrs. Carter, Ms. Collins and Mrs. Smith. Board members who abstained from the motion were Mrs. Reynolds, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Wright, Mr. John and Mr. Rodriguez.

On or about July 11, 1995, petitioner requested a written statement of reasons why she was not reappointed and on August 1, 1995, the board of education members who abstained from voting on her reappointment issued their statement during the public portion of the meeting which was at the petitioner's request. The reasons were confirmed in writing by letter dated August 2, 1995 to petitioner's attorney from respondent's counsel as follows:

> 1. Dr. Young would have received tenure within the district had she been reappointed. Tenure must be considered as giving someone permanent employment. A reappointment vote which will result in an administrator receiving tenure demands the highest level of scrutiny of the individual employee's entire employment history by any responsible board member. They would not grant tenure to anyone that they had concerns about.
>
> 2. Dr. Young was hired into the district under a multi-year contract to perform as the Director of Personnel. Dr. Young failed to complete the term of her contract in this position. Dr. Young did not manage this position adequately, resulting in inefficiencies and unnecessary liability to the district. Director of Personnel, the position that Dr. Young was hired to perform and spent most of her time in, is the most appropriate area to review her performance in regards to reappointment for purposes of tenure.

Although petitioner requested an informal appearance before the Board of Education (a "Donaldson hearing") she withdrew her request and instead submitted a written statement of position which provided as follows:

> As a follow-up to the letter sent to James Granello, Esq. by my Attorney on August 30th indicating that I no longer wish to have an informal appearance before the Willingboro Board of Education, I wish to submit the following explanation.
>
> The reason stated by the Board for non-reappointment was that I failed to complete a multi-year contract to perform as the Director of Personnel. Please be advised that I voluntarily transferred from Personnel to the position of Assistant Principal as of September 1, 1994. My evaluations in the position of Assistant Principal are > more than satisfactory and resulted in my being recommended for re-employment by the Administration. Certainly, my immediate Supervisor at Memorial will attest to my performance in that position.

>
> Further, I wish to note that I have no desire to return to the position of Personnel Administrator and would have waived my rights to that position if that option had been presented.
>
> I regret any inconvenience that my decision may have caused.

A grievance filed by the Willingboro Educational Administrators' Association on or about July 31, 1995, on petitioner's behalf seeking her reemployment as an Assistant Principal was denied by Superintendent Foster by letter dated August 8, 1995, as follows:

> Please be advised that the above subject grievance is being denied on the basis that it was not submitted in a timely manner pursuant to Article X, Grievance Procedure, Subparagraph C.1.
>
> Additionally, Dr. Young failed to comply with the statutory requirement set forth in N.J.S.A. 18:27-12 of her acceptance of employment which was to be given, in writing, on or before June 1, 1995. In the absence of such notice, the state laws regarding re-employment no longer apply to this matter.
>
> Finally, the decision not to award tenure is a non-negotiable, non-arbitrable matter.

Although the Association president indicated that the grievance would nevertheless move to the next level as provided in the negotiated agreement, apparently no further action was ever taken with respect to appealing the superintendent's determination. Article X, section A.5 of the negotiated agreement provides, "The failure to appeal any decision upon the grievance, in accordance with these rules, to the next level, shall constitute acceptance of the answer not appealed." The within matter followed after petitioner filed the petition of appeal on September 22, 1995.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

The once classic statement of the standard for granting or denying summary judgment set forth in Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954), was recently modified in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, and KRA Insurance Agency, Inc., 142 N.J. 520 (1995). Therein the Court held that the standard to be applied is now the same as the standard for determining motions for involuntary dismissal under R. 4:37-2(b) and for determining motions for judgment under R. 4:40-1 and R. 4:40-2. Trial courts considering motions for summary judgment are now required to engage in the same type of evaluation, analysis or sifting of evidential materials in light of the burden of persuasion that applies if the matter goes to trial. The Court explained:

> Under this new standard, a determination whether there exits a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." . . . Credibility determinations will continue to be made by a jury and not a judge. If there exists a single, unavoidable resolution of the alleged disputed issue of fact, that issue should be considered insufficient to constitute a "genuine" issue of material fact for purposes of Rule 4:46-2. . . . The import of our holding is that when the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law, . . ., the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. (citations omitted) Id. at 540.

The Court noted that to send a case to trial knowing that a rational decision-maker could reach but one conclusion was indeed "worthless" and would "serve no useful purpose." The purpose of this new standard, the decision explained, was to encourage trial courts not to refrain from granting summary judgment when the proper circumstances present themselves.

As noted hereinabove, the facts set forth in the findings of facts section of this opinion are not in dispute. In opposition to the motion for summary decision, petitioner submitted the affidavits of Frank Phillips, Edison Holley and Linda Taylor, wherein each explains that he or she had been affiliated with a number of other members of the Board of Education who became known as the "pro-education group." According to the affidavits this group included Linda Taylor, Victor Smith, Edison Holley and Dr. Pat LaRocca. During the period 1992-95, the affidavits continued to explain, the other members of the Board were affiliated with the "anti-tax group." According to the affidavits, after the school board election in April 1995, the anti-tax group held the majority of seats on the Board of Education. Each affidavit notes the positive performance evaluations petitioner received as the Assistant Principal and each concludes that the reason petitioner was not reappointed was her perceived affiliation with the "pro-education group" who had appointed her.* Since there are no additional facts in any of these affidavits which contradict or dispute the facts set forth as uncontested facts hereinabove, and since the opinions expressed in the affidavits, i.e., that the reason, or the only reason petitioner was not reappointed was her affiliation with the "pro-education group" are not facts but rather are conclusions which may or may not be supported by the facts, I CONCLUDE that this matter is ripe for summary decision.

In Donaldson v. Board of Ed. of No. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974), when the Supreme Court determined that a local board of education should be required to provide a statement of reasons for non-renewal of non-tenured staff members, it did so with the explicit recognition of the local board's broad discretionary authority in the granting of tenure. Subsequent to Donaldson, the court in Dore v. Bedminster Tp. Bd. of Ed., 185 N.J. Super. 447, 456 (App. Div. 1982), emphasized the broad nature of the board's discretion: "Implicit in this language (Donaldson's) is the recognition by the court that absent constitutional constraints or legislation affecting the tenure rights of teachers, local boards of education have an almost complete right to terminate the services of a teacher who has no tenure and is regarded as undesirable by the local board." N.J.A.C. 6:3-4.2 provides a procedure for non-tenured teaching staff members to appear before a district board of education upon receiving notice of non-reemployment. Once that procedure is completed, there is no right to a hearing before the Commissioner of Education under the school laws, unless of course a petitioner provides adequately-detailed allegations of proscribed conduct, i.e., unlawful discrimination, deprivation of constitutional rights, etc. See Nasuti v. Bd. of Ed. of West Amwell, 1979 S.L.D. 11, 18. Petitioner contends that respondent's only reason for failing to reappoint her for the 1995-96 school year was her perceived political affiliation with the "pro-education group." Non-reappointment on that basis alone constitutes a violation of her First Amendment rights to free speech and association, she says.

* The circumstances of petitioner's initial appointment are discussed in Davis v. Bd. of Ed. of Willingboro, et al., 95 NJAR 2d (EDU) 352. Any unresolved factual disputes concerning her initial employment are not material to the issues presented herein.

The Supreme Court has held that the dismissal of certain public employees solely because of their partisan political affiliation infringes their First Amendment rights of belief and association. Branti v. Finkel, 445 U.S. 507 (1980); Elrod v. Burns, 427 U.S. 347 (1976). Party affiliation can be considered, however, if the hiring authority can demonstrate that party affiliation is an appropriate requirement for the effective performance of the public office involved. Branti at 518. These principles are equally applicable to the failure to reappoint an employee at the end of the term as they are to dismissal from an at-will term of employment. Zold v. Township of Mantua, 935 F.2d, 633, 635-36 (3d Cir. 1991). In Robertson v. Fiore, 62 F.3d, 596, 597 (3d Cir. 1995), the court held that "the constitutional limitations on political patronage, [recognized in Elrod and Branti], extend to intraparty political disputes as well as interparty political disputes." The court wrote:

> The danger that employees will abandon the expression or exercise of their political beliefs to appease their supervisors is not diminished because a supervisor supports a different identifiable faction within a party as compared to a different party altogether. Whenever an employee, whose position does not require political decision making, yields his political will to his superior, the political process is harmed whether the employee is of the same or a different party.
>
> Because of the dominance of one political party in some locations, intraparty battles will sometimes overshadow interparty battles.

[Robertson v. Fiore, supra, 62 F.3d at 600 (citation omitted).]

New Jersey courts have reached the same conclusion concerning the protection of intraparty political affiliation. See Battaglia v. Union County Welfare Board, 88 N.J. 48 (1981), cert. denied 456 U.S. 965, 102 S.Ct. 2045, 72 L.Ed.2d 490 (1982) (Plaintiff, a non-tenured attorney for the county welfare board, claimed that the failure to reappoint him stemmed from his opposition to the candidacy of the new Democratic County Chairman. The court considered Battaglia's political affiliation argument, which arose from an intra-party dispute, but found that Battaglia's position was one for which political affiliation could appropriately be considered.); Hudson County Board of Chosen Freeholders v. Clark, 203 N.J. Super. 102, 105 (App. Div. 1985), certif. denied 102 N.J. 340 (1985) (affirming the trial court's findings that political affiliation was relevant to the position of county administrator in a case in which a schism had developed between the Democratic county board and the Democratic county executive); Weisel v. Hooks, 277 N.J. Super. 78 (Chan. Div. 1994) (Plaintiff, a Democrat, served as a confidential secretary to the Secretary of State in the Florio administration and was replaced by another Democrat a few months after Governor Whitman took office. Plaintiff argued, among other points, that the fact that she was replaced by a Democrat indicated that party affiliation was not a necessary requirement for the position of confidential secretary. The court indicated that political affiliation could be interpreted more broadly than mere party affiliation. "[E]specially in the context of confidential relationships, any reference to political party or political loyalty need not be read as synonymous with partisan political motivations. The reasoning of the Supreme Court in Branti has been understood to apply to political differences of any kind including personal incompatibility, not merely differences in party membership." Id. at 86). See also Catterson v. Caso, 472 F.Supp. 833 (E.D.N.Y. 1979) (Court used political analysis to assess the termination of a Republican county attorney who refused to support the candidacy of the Republican county executive).

Petitioner points to the minutes of the June 20, 1995 executive session in support of her contention that respondent failed to reappoint her because of her perceived affiliation with the "pro-education group." Even a casual reading of those minutes reveals that Board members Rodriguez and Reynolds were concerned about the circumstances surrounding petitioner's appointment. Whether petitioner was in fact awarded such a generous contract without interviewing with the Personnel Committee because of her association with the "pro-education group" or not, the circumstances might reasonably lead the other Board members to conclude so. Even assuming for purposes of determining this motion that petitioner's perceived association with the "pro-education group" was a reason Mr. Rodriguez and Mrs. Reynolds chose to abstain on the resolution to reappoint her for employment, there is absolutely no evidence from which to conclude that petitioner's perceived political affiliation was a reason for the votes of the other three Board members who chose to abstain or that it was the only reason or the overriding reason. Mrs. Reynolds' comments at the June 20, 1995 conference meeting also clearly reflect dissatisfaction with petitioner's performance as the Director of Personnel, the position she held for most of the time she was employed by the Board.

Even assuming that petitioner's perceived "pro-education group" affiliation amounted to a protected political affiliation and even assuming that such affiliation was a factor in respondent's determination not to renew her employment, where as here, it is clear that the employer would have made the same decision even in the absence of the protected affiliation, a claimant cannot prevail. Robertson v. Fiore, supra, 62 F.3d at 599. Contrary to petitioner's assertions that there were no reasons for failing to reappoint her as Assistant Principal, the statutory scheme governing tenure entitlements makes it clear that respondent's concerns with petitioner's performance in the title Director of Personnel constituted good and valid reason for her non-reappointment.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, if respondent had reappointed petitioner to her position Assistant Principal for the 1995-96 school year, petitioner would have obtained tenure in the district and tenure as Director of Personnel. That statute provides:

> Any such teaching staff member under tenure or eligible to obtain tenure under this chapter, who is transferred or promoted with his consent to another position covered by this chapter on or after July 1, 1962, shall not obtain tenure in the new position until after:

(a) the expiration of a period of employment of two consecutive calendar years in the new position unless a shorter period is fixed by the employing board of such purpose; or

(b) employment for two academic years in the new position together with employment in the position at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year; or

(c) employment in the new position within a period of any three consecutive academic years, for the equivalent of more than two academic years;

provided that the period of employment in such new position shall be included in determining the tenure and seniority rights in the former position held by such teaching staff member, and in the event the employment in such new position is terminated before tenure is obtained therein, if he then has tenure in the district or under said board of education, such teaching staff member shall be returned to his former position at the salary which he would have received had the transfer or promotion not occurred together with any increase to which he would have been entitled during the period of such transfer or promotion. (Emphasis added.)

Accordingly, if at some time after October 17, 1995, petitioner's position Assistant Principal were to be affected by a reduction in force, petitioner would be entitled to resume her position Director of Personnel to which she would then have a claim pursuant to her tenure and seniority rights. Since tenure is a statutory right and not a contractual one, petitioner could not bargain away those rights or waive them. The only way for respondent to avoid having petitioner obtain tenure as the Director of Personnel and nevertheless continue her employment in the district as an Assistant Principal for the 1995-96 school year would have been for petitioner to resign from her position Assistant Principal thereby terminating all calculations for tenure accrual and then to appoint her to the position as a new appointee. This, of course, did not happen, and accordingly respondent had no choice, if it wished to avoid granting tenure to petitioner in the position Director of Personnel, but to decline to reappoint her for the 1995-96 school year.*

Petitioner's other claims are likewise without merit. She argues that those members of the Board who voted against her by abstaining on June 26, 1995, must have violated the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(a), by discussing her non-reappointment at a meeting which was not open to the public. Petitioner makes this conclusion because no discussion concerning the non-reappointment occurred on June 26, 1995, prior to the vote. Petitioner offers no facts to support this conclusion; her assumption that they must have talked to one another about abstaining prior to June 26, 1995, is just that, an assumption. Supposition and conjecture are not substitutes for legal proof. Ciuba v. Irvington Varnish and Insulator Company, 27 N.J. 127, 139-140 (1958). No reasonably prudent fact finder could conclude from the mere fact that five board members decided to abstain that they had conducted an illegal board meeting contrary to the dictates of the Open Public Meetings Act. In fact, we know that petitioner's employment was discussed prior to June 26, 1995, but not in violation of the Open Public Meetings Act. The minutes of the conference meeting which was conducted in accordance with the dictates of the Open Public Meetings Act are quoted in part hereinabove. Furthermore, although it is true that the Commissioner of Education has ancillary jurisdiction to consider Open Public Meetings Act violation questions, (Sukin v. Northfield Bd. of Ed., 171 N.J. Super. 184 (App. Div. 1979), N.J.S.A. 10:4-15 requires a petitioner, even in the education context, to seek relief prior to the expiration of the 45-day period of limitations set forth in that statute. McWilliams v. BOE Bridgewater-Raritan, 1980 S.L.D 1439, aff'd. St. Bd. 1981 S.L.D 1466. Petitioner filed the within action on September 22, 1995, 88 days after the June 26, 1995 meeting. Accordingly, the Commissioner may not entertain petitioner's claims of violations of the Open Public Meetings Act.

---

* Respondent argued, and petitioner did not dispute, that Director of Personnel was the kind of confidential position contemplated in Battaglia v. Union County Welfare Board, supra, for which consideration of political affiliation was not inappropriate or unlawful. Neither party asserted that this would be true with respect to the Assistant Principal position. Because petitioner would obtain tenure as the Director of Personnel upon reappointment (and subsequent service) as the Assistant Principal, even if her perceived political affiliation had been the reason for non-reappointment, pursuant to Battaglia it would not have been an unlawful reason.

Although it is also true as petitioner asserts in the petition of appeal that respondent violated its obligations under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10, by failing to advise her on or before May 15, whether or not she would be offered a contract for the following school year, because petitioner herself failed to comply with the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12, by notifying respondent in writing on or before June 1, 1995, that she accepted the offer of employment statutorily provided by respondent's failure to act in a timely fashion, respondent's lack of diligence provides petitioner with no right to reemployment.

The only other argument remaining to be addressed is respondents's argument that petitioner is contractually estopped from challenging her non-reappointment. Respondent's argument in this regard is based upon the provisions of the negotiated agreement which indicate that petitioner's failure to appeal the superintendent's decision to the next level, i.e., arbitration, constitutes acceptance of the decision not appealed. Considering the fact that the superintendent's August 8, 1995 denial of the grievance specifically advised that the decision not to award tenure is a non-negotiable, non-arbitrable matter, it appears that pursuing the grievance appeal to arbitration would have been a fruitless effort, and therefore petitioner should not have been required to pursue that matter before appealing to the Commissioner of Education.

For all of the foregoing reasons, respondent's motion for summary decision dismissing the within petition of appeal is hereby GRANTED and the within proceedings are hereby CONCLUDED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

NOV 22, 1996
DATE

M. Kathleen Duncan
M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Nov. 27 1996
DATE

D. N. Gantamaitis/lr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 03 1996
DATE

Barbara A Kerner
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cc

PHYLLIS YOUNG,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WILLINGBORO, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and respondent's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner's exceptions incorporate arguments advanced before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), contending, inter alia, that petitioner is entitled to remain employed within respondent's District, as the Board may not remove her from employment based on political patronage in that "[p]arty affiliation has nothing to do with, or should have nothing to do with, how one's job performance is evaluated in either the position of Assistant Principal or Director of Personnel." (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 6-7) Petitioner argues that this must be so as tenure attaches to a director title just as it does to an assistant principal position. (Id.) Further, petitioner excepts to the ALJ's awarding of summary judgment, averring that there remain issues of material fact to be determined and that the ALJ wrongly concluded that summary judgment was appropriate. (Id. at p. 7) Lastly, petitioner contends she was entitled to be notified no later than May 15, 1995, that her employment contract would not be renewed for the 1995-96 school term, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10. To elaborate this point she submits, "[h]istorically, N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 has been interpreted to provide teaching staff members with either 60 days notice, or in the absence of such notice, commensurate compensation." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 9) In that petitioner was not told until June 26, 1995, that her contract would not be renewed, she seeks, if she is not entitled to reemployment, compensation equal to the 60-day notice to which she was entitled under statute and under the specific terms of her employment contract. (Id. at pp. 9-10)

In reply, the Board notes that the ALJ "discounted the affidavits submitted by the petitioner in opposition to the Board's motion for summary judgment because they contained 'conclusions which may or may not be supported by the facts'." (Reply Exceptions at p. 1) Respondent further avers that the Commissioner should deny petitioner's claim to reject the motion in that, "petitioner had ample opportunity to present material facts in dispute which required resolution by plenary hearing but failed to do so." (emphasis in text) (Id.) In sum, respondent contends the points raised by petitioner were thoroughly addressed by the ALJ and that the Commissioner should adopt the determination of the ALJ dismissing the present Petition of Appeal. (Id. at p. 2)

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that petitioner is not entitled to reemployment or compensation for the reasons expressed therein. The Commissioner is satisfied that the ALJ fully considered and rejected the claims presented in petitioner's exceptions, including petitioner's assertions that summary judgment was inappropriate and that her termination based on political affiliation was wrongful in that such affiliation is constitutionally protected. (Initial Decision at pp. 10-14) The Commissioner adopts the ALJ's analysis of these claims against the applicable case law, as well as her finding that regardless of whether petitioner's affiliation amounted to a protected affiliation, respondent still had a valid, and lawful, reason for petitioner's nonreappointment. (Id. at p. 14) Further, the Commissioner concurs that petitioner is not entitled to reemployment or compensation due to the Board's failure to notify her of her discontinued employment within statutory constraints, in that petitioner's own inaction, pursuant to N.J.S.A 18A:27-12, renders this requirement inapplicable.

Accordingly, the Commissioner affirms the decision of the ALJ and dismisses the instant Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 10, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 10, 1997

7-97

EDU #10172-95
C # 7-97
SB # 13-97

PHYLLIS YOUNG,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WILLINGBORO, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 10, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Robert M. Schwartz, Esq.

For the Respondent-Respondent, James P. Granello, Esq.

The decision of the Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

(SB) 7-97

SB #7-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DENIAL OF :
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION :
OF THE CHARTER SCHOOL FOR THE : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
HUMANITIES AND TECHNOLOGY AT : DECISION
JARRETS RUN, ATLANTIC COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 14, 1997

For the Appellant, Sarah Rennick, pro se

The Charter School for Technology and the Humanities at Jarrets Run (hereinafter "appellant" or "Jarrets Run") filed an appeal to the State Board from a letter decision of the Commissioner of Education dated January 14, 1997 denying its application to establish a charter school in the 1997-98 academic year. In a statement of reasons dated February 14, 1997, the Commissioner indicated that appellant was not eligible for a charter since it was an existing private school applying for charter school status.

Appellant filed a brief in support of its appeal, and a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed an application to participate and a brief in response to the arguments supporting the appeal.

In view of the extremely stringent time limit under which the Legislature has required us to decide appeals of this type, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), we have determined to consider all of the documents that have been filed in this matter. In addition, we have reviewed the record provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner. After careful consideration of this matter under the terms of the pertinent statutes, we agree with the decision of the Commissioner to deny the charter in this case.

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational improvement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). In the absence of regulations, we find it necessary to consider the application under the terms of the pertinent statute.

N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(a) provides that "[a] private or parochial school shall not be eligible for charter school status." In this instance, the Commissioner determined that appellant was an existing private school applying for charter school status. In that we find that appellant has failed to establish that it is an entity which is entirely separate and distinct from the existing private school, we agree with the Commissioner that appellant is not eligible for a charter in 1997-98.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing MAR 3 1 1997

8-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW J. RUSSO,	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
RED BANK REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL	:	DECISION
DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY.	:
	:

January 10, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12505-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 439-11/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF ANDREW J. RUSSO, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE RED BANK REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY.

James P. Granello, Esq., for petitioner

Thomas W. Cavanagh, Jr., Esq., for respondent (Chamlin, Rosen, Cavanagh & Uliano, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 18, 1996 Decided: December 4, 1996

BEFORE BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on December 7, 1995, for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

After notice, an in-person settlement conference was held. It was then agreed that an evaluation by a health care professional was essential to resolution of the matter. The matter was held until the evaluation was done.

Since receiving the evaluation, counsel have worked diligently and have produced the attached resolution and memorandum.

I have reviewed the record and the papers submitted and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as indicated by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The agreement is comprehensive, carefully drawn and impinges on no powers of the district board of education, the Commissioner of Education or the State Board of Examiners.

3. The agreement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

4 DECEMBER 1996
DATE

Bruce R. Campbell
BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cc

RESOLUTION AND MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

WHEREAS, Andrew J. Russo is a tenured physical education teacher employed with the Red Bank Regional school district for the past twenty-four (24) years. During that time, Mr. Russo was never suspended or disciplined in any formal fashion. He served as a varsity football coach for eleven (11) years and in two (2) of those years he acted as head coach. During the time he was an assistant coach, the team won a Group Two Divisional State Championship. He also coached boys' basketball as an assistant varsity coach for seven (7) years, during which time the team won several shore conference divisional titles, and for five (5) years he was the head coach for Freshmen and Junior Varsity Boys Baseball. He served as assistant varsity basketball coach for the girls' team for five (5) years, during which time the team won two (2) shore conference divisional titles, and as the head coach for the varsity girls' softball team for fourteen (14) years, during which time the team participated in State playoffs on eleven (11) occasions. He was instrumental in starting the Lady Buc Girls' Softball Tournament in 1987 and served as the director of same through 1995; and

WHEREAS, on September 22, 1995 tenure charges of unbecoming conduct and of sexual harassment were filed against him by Dr. Robert M. Nogueira, High School Principal for the Red Bank Regional school district; and

WHEREAS, on November 8, 1995, the Red Bank Regional High School Board of Education certified those charges to the State Commissioner of Education and suspended Mr. Russo without pay pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 and did not receive his payroll check beginning on November 16, 1995; and

WHEREAS, while this matter was pending hearing before the Office of Administrative Law, Mr. Russo voluntarily requested a psychological evaluation from Dr. Jeffrey B. Allen, a licensed psychologist of the State of New Jersey, to determine whether any psychological factors or conditions might be present that could have contributed to Mr. Russo's behavior in the incidents that led to the tenure charges filed against him; and

WHEREAS, after conducting evaluation studies on Mr. Russo on July 8 and 22, 1996, Dr. Allen issued a written psychological evaluation dated September 5, 1996 in which he found that Mr. Russo fit the diagnostic criteria for "Frotteurism," a sexual paraphilia as described in the American Psychiatric Association's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, (4th Edition), or DSM-IV. Dr. Allen recommended counselling treatment for Mr. Russo for at least a six (6) month period and that he not return to classroom teaching or coaching involving female students until treatment has been administered and successfully concluded. A true copy of Dr. Allen's report is attached hereto; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Russo has requested a medical leave of absence retroactive to the date when his suspension without pay began (November 8, 1995) up to and including April 30, 1997 for the purpose of obtaining counselling by Dr. Howard D. Silverman pursuant to Dr. Allen's recommendation and the use of his accumulated sick leave days applied retroactively from November 8, 1995 forward as will allow him either partial (one-half day) or full pay by using his two hundred and thirty one (231) accrued sick days until April 30, 1997; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Russo intends to submit a written letter of retirement after the approval of this settlement by the Commissioner of Education to be acted upon by the Board of Education immediately thereafter and effective May 1, 1997; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Russo agrees to allow the Commissioner of Education to determine whether to refer this matter further to the State Board of Examiners for action as it deems appropriate with respect to his teaching certificate. Mr. Russo has no present intention to return to employment in the public or private school sector in the future, and the final decision in that regard will depend upon the actions of the Commissioner and the State Board of Examiners.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Red Bank Regional High School Board of Education, being mindful of its obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

(42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq.), hereby grants a rescission of the suspension without pay entered on November 8, 1995, and further grants a medical leave of absence to Andrew J. Russo retroactive from November 8, 1995 to April 30, 1997 for the purpose of obtaining counselling through Dr. Howard D. Silverman; and further be it

RESOLVED, the Board hereby grants to Mr. Russo the right to use his accrued sick leave days retroactive to November 8, 1995, the date of his separation from active employment and prospectively until April 30, 1997, the last day of active employment before he retires on May 1, 1997. The Red Bank Regional High School Board of Education resolves to pay Pension and Contributory Insurance premiums for Mr. Andrew Russo for the period November 16, 1995 - February 29, 1996 at the rate of 4% which was his full pension rate and 4/10 of 1% which is his contributory insurance rate based on a monthly salary of $5,874. The Board furtner agrees to continue to compensate Mr. Russo at the full rate of pay he is entitled to receive through April 30, 1997, as well as other contractual emoluments, which payment is in accordance with the depletion of the balance of his accrued sick days; and it is Understood, that this grant of leave is with the understanding that Mr. Russo intends to submit to counselling through Dr. Howard D. Silverman during this period of time as prescribed by Dr. Allen and that he has no present intention to return to employment in public or private school education in the future; and further it is Understood and agreed by Mr. Russo that he holds the district harmless from any and all claims and conditions which may arise by reason of his State TPAF pension benefits and rights and that this school district has made no representations or promises to Mr. Russo as to what amount his pension may be or when he may be entitled to it, it being acknowledged that Mr. Russo has had the assistance of his own legal counsel and the NJEA representative in that regard; and it is further

Understood that the rate of pay to be used in this agreement is based on the annual salary of $58,748 and that Mr. Russo will not contest the absence of an increment in the 1996-97 salary computation; and it is further

Understood that the terms of this settlement are subject to review by The Honorable Bruce Campbell, A.L.J. and the approval of the State Commissioner of Education and that none of these terms will become operative until such formal approval is obtained. This matter has been placed on the inactive trial list for six (6) months until March 19, 1997 for the purpose of effectuating a settlement between the parties and the formal dismissal of the tenure charges against Mr. Russo pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

These terms represent the complete understanding of the parties with regard to this settlement. There are no other terms or conditions, express or implied, which constitute part of this settlement.

APPROVED AND ADOPTED BY THE RED BANK REGIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION ON THIS 21st DAY OF November, 1996.

Kenneth Townsend

Board Secretary, Red Bank Regional High School Board of Education

APPROVED

By: Andrew J. Russo
ANDREW J. RUSSO

Marjorie M. Cunningham

Witness

Dated: 11/18/96

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12505-95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW J. RUSSO,	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
RED BANK REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL	:	DECISION
DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. In re Cardonick, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. This matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement. However, in view of the seriousness of the charges brought by the Board in this matter, the Commissioner determines to forward this matter to the State Board of Examiners for action as deemed appropriate, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 10, 1997

Date of Mailing, January 10, 1997

9-97

CLARINDA BRUECK AND FREDERICK FOCHESATO,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioners, tenured teaching staff members, asserted that the Board violated their tenure and seniority rights by terminating them pursuant to RIFs and delegating responsibility for the instruction of health, physical education and music to other teachers having less seniority and/or without tenure.

ALJ concluded that petitioners should not have been subject to the RIFs in question as they had greater entitlement to at least some positions existing at the time of the Board's actions subjecting them to RIFs. A nontenured teacher cannot have seniority over a tenured individual and a teacher having only elementary category experience cannot be assigned a secondary position over another teacher with secondary category seniority. Bednar; Unterberger. ALJ ordered petitioners reinstated with mitigated compensation. Requests for interest were denied as there was no evidence of bad faith and award of such was premature.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own. Board was directed to reemploy petitioners with retroactive compensation, assigning both the classes which they were entitled to teach by virtue of their seniority. Such retroactive compensation should not include either pre-judgment or post-judgment interest, but be subject to mitigation by actual earnings, as well as what could have been earned with reasonable and diligent efforts. Unterberger.

January 10, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1670-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 29-/96

CLARINDA BRUECK AND FREDERICK FOCHESATO,

Petitioners,

v.

FAIRVIEW BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Alfred F. Maurice, Esq., for petitioner
(Springstead and Maurice, Esqs.)

Francine Del Vescovo, Esq., for respondent
(Oury and Mizdol, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: October 9, 1996 Decided: November 25, 1996

BEFORE DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Connie Norris (Norris), Clarinda Brueck (Brueck or petitioner), and Frederick Fochesato (Fochesato or petitioner) filed a petition with the State Department of Education (DOE) on January 29, 1996, seeking relief from the Fairview Board of Education (Board or respondent). Petitioners sought emergency relief, which request was denied by the Commissioner of the DOE (Commissioner) on February 22, 1996. In the interim, respondent field an answer with the DOE on February 6, 1996. The DOE transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on February 15, 1996 for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A conference was conducted on April 17, 1996. Counsel for petitioners represented that the petition filed on behalf of Norris was withdrawn. A hearing scheduled for June 3, 1996 was subsequently adjourned at the request of the parties, based upon a determination that the matter could be decided on stipulations. Stipulations of facts and documents were subsequently filed. The parties filed initial briefs; and petitioners, a reply brief. The record was closed on October 9, 1996, the date of additional communications with the parties.

NATURE OF THE CASE

In December 1995, the Board notified petitioners that their positions with respondent would be eliminated as the result of a reduction in force (RIF) effective January 19, 1995. Petitioners argued in their petition that their tenure and seniority rights were violated because respondent employed other individuals, having less seniority and/or without tenure, in positions of employment. Petitioners also argued that respondent failed to maintain an accurate seniority list and/or preferred eligibility list for reemployment of tenured teachers who were subject to the RIF. Petitioners requested appropriate positions in the Board's employ for the 1995-96 school year, and each succeeding, school year; applicable benefits and emoluments; a directive ordering the Board to grant appropriate pension and seniority credits to petitioners for the period in question; interest pertinent to any back pay awarded; and an order directing respondent to prepare and maintain a seniority list accurately reflecting the seniority entitlements of all certified personnel and to prepare and maintain a preferred eligibility list for reemployment of all tenured staff subject to a RIF accurately reflecting the seniority of all staff members in each employment category. Petitioners also argued that respondent failed to give them adequate notice of the RIF.

Respondent, in its answer, denied the substantive allegations. The Board also argued that the applicable employment contracts were silent on the issue of adequate notice of a contemplated RIF and that when a contract is silent, past practices, in this case, 30 days' notice, applies. At the direction of this judge, petitioners provided notice of the proceedings to individuals whose employment status with the Board could be affected if petitioners prevailed.

The parties did not address in their briefs issues pertinent to whether the Board provided timely notice to petitioners of the RIFs. The parties also did not discuss claims raised by petitioners that the seniority lists maintained by the Board are inaccurate and that respondent should be ordered to revise such lists. It is therefore presumed that petitioners have determined not to prosecute those issues, and I will not address them.

STIPULATIONS

The parties stipulated to the following facts:

1. On or about December 6, 1995, by resolution, respondent eliminated the Physical Education, Health, and Music programs.

2. As a matter of practice, Physical Education, Health and Music programs continued to be offered through classroom teachers, not specialists.

3. Brueck was a tenured Physical Education and Health Instructor in the Board's employ who was the subject of a RIF on January 15, 1996.

4. Brueck was first employed by the Board on September 1, 1982 and earned 13 years and 6 months of seniority credit at the time of her RIF as a K-8 Health and Physical Education teacher.

5. On or about December 13, 1995, Brueck received a notice dated December 12, 1995, notifying her of her RIF effective January 15, 1996.

6. Fochesato was a tenured teacher of Music Education in the Board's employ who was the subject of a RIF on January 15, 1996.

7. On or about December 13, 1995, Fochesato received a notice dated December 12, 1995, advising that he was the subject of a RIF effective January 15, 1996.

8. Fochesato was first employed by the Board as a teacher of Music on or about September 1, 1974 and accrued 21 years and 6 months of seniority credit as a teacher K-12 of Music at the time of the RIF.

9. Petitioners were dismissed by the Board on January 15, 1996 as the result of the RIF.

10. The Board operates a K-8 school district with departmentalized seventh and eighth grades.

11. Brueck holds a Certification as a teacher of Physical Education and Health K-12 issued by the Board of Examiners (Examiners).

12. Fochesato holds a Certification as a teacher of Music K-12 issued by the Examiners.

13. A seniority list dated December 15, 1995 and prepared by respondent is as stated in Exhibit J-6.

14. Staff member Mark Peterski (Peterski) is a tenured staff member with six years of seniority credit as a teacher of Physical Education and Health.

15. As of January 16, 1996, Peterski was assigned three classes of Physical Education for eighth graders. His schedule is as stated in Exhibit J-17.

16. Staff member Joseph Olivelli (Olivelli), as of January 16, 1996, was assigned 15 classes of seventh and eighth grade Physical Education per week, 12 classes of Computer Instruction to seventh and eighth grades, and 3 classes of Humanities to eighth graders. His schedule is as stated in Exhibit J-8.

17. Olivelli does not hold a Physical Education nor Health Certificate from the Examiners. Olivelli holds 19 years of seniority as a teacher of Elementary Education.

18. Howard Gonzalez (Gonzalez) is a non-tenured teacher in the Board's employ, with Certifications in Elementary and English as a Second Language (ESL) with a bilingual endorsement.

19. Commencing January 16, 1996, Gonzalez was assigned eight periods of Health Education per week to seventh and eighth graders. Gonzalez does not hold a Certificate as either a Health or Physical Education instructor.

20. Norris has withdrawn her petition. She was reemployed on March 7, 1996, with no loss in seniority.

21. On January 16, 1995, there were non-tenured elementary and secondary staff members employed by the Board.

22. On April 26, 1996, prospective intervenors were served by regular and certified mail with notice of their rights to intervene. The list of prospective intervenors is as stated in Exhibit J-10. The form of notice to intervenors is as stated in Exhibit J-11.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon a review of the documentary evidence, I FIND the following to be additional facts.

The resolution adopted by the Board on December 6, 1995, was designated as a budget deficit resolution and referenced certain financial considerations, i.e., a failed budget in April of 1995; a decrease in the budget by the Commissioner of $350,984; an increase of 37 students for the 1995-96 school year, resulting in $212,000 in additional tuition charges; and an anticipated budget deficit of $550,000 to $600,000 for the 1995-96 school year. Board members resolved, as a result, to take certain action, for the remainder of the 1995-96 school year "or until such time as the budget shortfall facing the district is satisfactorily resolved." (Exh. J-1, p.2). These included elimination, effective January 15, 1996, of the Physical Education, Health, Music, and Art programs and a decision that certain specified tenured teachers receive RIF notices. These were Brueck (Physical Education/Lincoln School), Peterski (Physical Education-health/District), Fochesato (Music-District) and Norris (Home Economics/Lincoln School).

The Examiners issued to Brueck a Certification as an Elementary school teacher in April 1996.[1] The Examiners issued a Certification as an Elementary school teacher to Fochesato in May 1996.[2]

DISCUSSION

The Commissioner generally has jurisdiction to hear and determine controversies and disputes arising under the local school laws. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Applicable statutes and regulations address certification, tenure, and seniority.

No teaching staff member shall be employed in the public schools to teach, administer, direct or supervise teaching instruction, or educational guidance of, or to render or administer, direct or supervise the rendering of a nursing service to pupils in public schools, unless he/she is the holder of a certificate, if any, as may be required by law. Id. at §26-2. The services of teaching staff members, as well as any other employees in positions requiring appropriate certificates issued by the Examiners, shall be under tenure during good behavior and efficiency. Id. at §28-5 (Supp 1996). Tenure attaches after employment in a district by a local board for three consecutive calendar years, or any shorter period which may be fixed by the employing board for such purpose; three consecutive academic years, together with employment at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year; or the equivalent of more than three academic years within a period of any four consecutive years. Ibid.

All teaching staff members who worked in positions for which a certificate is required, who hold valid certificates, and who have worked the required number of years are eligible for tenure unless they fall within an explicit statutory exception. Tenure provisions should be liberally construed to further the purpose of affording security to staff who meet the required standard of length of service. Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Ed., 221 N.J. Super. 239 (App. Div. 1987) certif denied, 110 N.J. 512 (1988) (Bednar). Remedial and supplemental teachers, even those reimbursed on an hourly basis, are afforded tenure. Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Ed., 90 N.J. 63 (1982).

[1] Respondent filed a copy of the Certification with its brief. Petitioners did not object to consideration of the document, and it is deemed to be in evidence as Exhibit R-1.

[2] Respondent also submitted a copy of this Certification with its brief. It was not objected to by petitioners, and it is deemed to be in evidence as Exhibit R-2.

Tenured employees shall not be dismissed nor reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or unbecoming conduct and then only in a prescribed manner. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 (Supp 1996). N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 to 18.1. However, a local board of education can reduce the number of teaching staff members whenever, in the board's judgment, it is advisable to abolish such positions for reasons of economy because of a reduction in the number of pupils, a change in the administrative or supervisory organization of the board, or for other good cause. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9.

Any such RIFs shall be made on the basis of seniority, Id. at §10, which shall be determined by the local board of education. Id. at §11. A person dismissed as a result of a RIF shall remain on a preferred eligibility list in the order of seniority for reemployment whenever a vacancy occurs in a position for which such person is qualified. He/she shall be only reemployed if and when such vacancy occurs. In determining seniority, and computing length of service for reemployment, full recognition shall be given to previous years of service. Id. at §12 (Supp 1996).

The obligation of a board of education to recall an employee from a preferred eligibility list occurs whenever a vacancy comes into existence. Mueller v. Hunterdon Central Regional High School Dist. Bd. of Ed., 93 N.J.A.R. 2d. (Volume 4A) 419 (Dept. of Ed.) (Mueller). Seniority only applies to certain rights of tenured personnel and has meaning only when a RIF is necessary. Philip Howley & Dewey Bookholdt v. Ewing Twp. Bd. of Ed., 1982 S.L.D. 1328, affirmed 1983 S.L.D. 1954.

Seniority cannot limit a tenured employee's rights over non-tenured individuals. Mueller, supra. Seniority does not create employment rights for non-tenured employees and cannot justify retaining a non-tenured teacher in a position within the certificate of a dismissed tenured teacher. Bednar, supra. A tenured teacher seeking reinstatement within the endorsements of his/her certificate is entitled to preference in a RIF as against a non-tenured applicant with the same certification. Capodilupo v. W. Orange Tp. Ed. Bd., 218 N.J. Super. 510 (App. Div. 1987), certif. denied 109 N.J. 514 (1987).

A tenured individual has the ultimate burden, when contesting an action by a board of education, of demonstrating that his/her seniority rights were violated and that he/she suffered harm so as to entitle him/her to redress. James Parker and Joseph Pellegrino v. Bd. of Ed. of the Matawan-Aberdeen Regional School Dist., 1990 S.L.D. 1778. A person holding employment in a public system of the State who is illegally dismissed or suspended is entitled to compensation for the period covered by the illegal dismissal or suspension if such is finally determined to have been without good cause. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-30. A prevailing individual contesting local board action is entitled to an appointment to an available position, back pay, and other economic emoluments of employment, including appropriate pension fund adjustments. Mueller, supra.

The Commissioner may award pre-judgment and/or post-judgment interest in certain circumstances. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.16(a). "Pre-judgment interest" is interest awarded for the period of time prior to the adjudication of a monetary claim. Id. at §(b)(1). "Post-judgment interest" is interest determined to be due to a petitioning party for the period of time after a claim has been successfully adjudicated but remains unsatisfied. Id. at §2.

Pre-judgment interest shall be awarded when there is a conclusion that the denial of the monetary claim was an action taken in bad faith and/or has been determined to have been taken in deliberate violation of statute or rule. Id. at §(c)(1). Post-judgment interest shall be awarded when a respondent is determined, through adjudication, to be responsible for such payment, the precise amount of such claim has been established, or could have been established, and the party responsible for the payment of the judgment has neither applied for nor obtained a stay of the decision but has failed to satisfy a claim within 60 days of its award. Id. at §2.

However, an individual subject to dismissal or suspension has a duty to mitigate damages. Mullen v. Bd. of Ed. of Jefferson Twp., 81 N.J. Super. 151 (App. Div. 1963). Any actual pay that the employee earned must be set off from an award of back pay. West Orange Supplemental Instructors Assoc. v. Bd. of Ed., Twp. of West Orange, 1991 S.L.D. 1 (October 12, 1990), affirmed 1991 S.L.D. 99 (State Board of Education July 3, 1991), appeal dismissed, A-6033-90T1 (App. Div., October 1991). Mitigation is not limited to what an individual earned from outside employment but what could have been earned with reasonable and diligent efforts. Unterberger v. Metuchen Bor. Board of Education, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) (63) (Unterberger).

Petitioners do not argue that an economic situation supporting RIFs, in general, did not exist, and the evidence supports a contrary conclusion. Resolution of the issues focuses on seniority determinations pertinent to the individuals in question.

Seniority is determined according to the number of academic or calendar years of employment, or a fraction thereof, in a school district in specific categories. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(b). Full recognition shall be given to previous years of service within a district. Id. at §(c). Whenever a person holds employment simultaneously under two or more subject area endorsements, or in two or more categories, seniority shall be counted in all subject area endorsements and categories in which he/she is or has been employed. For purposes of calculating seniority entitlement, there are no distinctions between academic and calendar years. Id. at §(f).

Whenever any individual's particular employment shall be abolished in a category, he/she shall be given that employment in the same category to which he/she is entitled by seniority. Id. at §(I). If he/she has insufficient seniority for employment in the same category, he or she shall revert to the category in which he/she held employment prior to employment in the same category and shall be placed, and remain, upon the preferred eligible list of the category from which he/she reverted until a vacancy occurs in such category to which his/her seniority entitles him/her. Ibid. See also, N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(j)(k).

The pertinent regulations also set forth the specific applicable categories. These include, in pertinent part, the provision that 'secondary' includes grades 9 through 12 in all high schools, grades 7 and 8 in junior high schools, and grades 7 and 8 in elementary schools "having departmental instruction." N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(l)(17). '[E]lementary' includes kindergarten, grades 1 through 6, and grades 7 and 8 "without departmental instruction." Id. at §18.

Any individual holding an instructional certificate with the subject area endorsements shall have seniority within the secondary category only in such subject area endorsements in which he/she has actually served. Id. at §17(1). Whenever a person is reassigned from one subject area endorsement to another, all periods of employment in the new assignment shall be credited towards seniority in all subject area endorsements in which he/she previously held employment. Id. at §(iii). Persons employed in providing services on a district-wide basis under a special subject field endorsement or an educational services certificate shall acquire seniority on a district-wide basis. Id. at §(iv).

Any person employed at the elementary level in a position requiring an educational services certificate or a special subject field endorsement shall acquire seniority only in the elementary category and only for the period of actual service under such educational service or certificate or special subject field endorsement. Id. at §18(ii). Persons employed in providing service on a district-wide basis under a special field endorsement or an educational service certificate shall acquire seniority on a district-wide basis. Id. at §(iii).

The requirement of certification applies to any individual employed by a district board of education to perform duties that are regulated through certification regulations. N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.1(a). Every newly employed or reassigned teaching staff member shall have an appropriate certificate before such member assumes responsibility for the performance of regulated duties. Id. at §(b). A standard certificate is a permanent certificate issued to candidates who have met all requirements for State certification. Id. at §4.1.

A teaching endorsement is required for the corresponding teaching assignment. Each endorsement is valid for all levels, except that the elementary endorsement is valid for grades nursery through 8. Id. at §11-6.1(a). Teachers with elementary endorsements are not allowed to devote more than one-half time to teaching Art, Music, Health, Home Economics, Industrial Arts, or Physical Education in the elementary grades. Teachers with elementary endorsements may teach the common branch subjects, e.g., Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and Spelling in the secondary school, grades 7 through 12. (Id. at §(b). Teachers with English endorsements who taught reading prior to February 1976 may continue to do so but after that date, teachers of reading shall hold the appropriate endorsement. Id. at §(c).

An endorsement in Art authorizes the holder to teach Art in all public schools. Id. at §6.2(a)(2). A Bilingual-Bicultural Education endorsement authorizes the holder to teach Bilingual-Bicultural Education in all public schools. Id. at §(iii). An endorsement in Elementary Education authorizes the holder to serve as an elementary school teacher in grades nursery through 8 in all public schools. Teachers with such endorsements are not allowed to devote more than one-half time to teaching Art, Music, Health, Home Economics, Industrial Arts, or Physical Education in the elementary schools. As indicated, such teachers are authorized to teach the common branch subjects. Id. at §(vi). Endorsements in English and ESL authorize the holders to teach English and ESL, respectively, in all public schools. Id. at §§7 & 8. A Health Education endorsement authorizes the holder to teach Health Education in all public schools, Id. at §10, and an endorsement in Health and Physical Education authorizes the holder to teach Health and Physical Education in all public schools. Id. at §11. The Music endorsement authorizes the holder to teach Vocal and Instrumental Music and related theory in all public schools. Id. at §16. Similarly, the Physical Education endorsement authorizes the holder to teach Physical Education in all public schools. Id. at §17. An educational services certificate is issued to applicants who have completed an approved educational services programs. Id. at §10.1(a).

As Brueck argues, she, in effect, has 13 years and 6 months of seniority credit in both the Elementary and Secondary categories because the Board has a departmentalized seventh and eighth grade.[3] As discussed hereinabove, applicable regulations provide that "secondary" includes grades seven and eight in elementary schools having departmental instruction. Peterski has six years of seniority credit as a teacher of Physical Education and Health. The seniority list maintained by respondent indicates that he was appointed September 1, 1990. However, the bulk of his assignments are in the teaching of Science. A teaching endorsement is required for this teaching assignment. It is therefore assumed that Peterski has a teaching endorsement in the areas of Physical Education and Health. However, as Brueck argues, he has less seniority in those areas than does petitioner. The applicable regulation, N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.1, does not address a situation of teachers with secondary endorsements teaching Physical Education and Health. Brueck therefore has more seniority in that respect than Olivelli. As petitioner argues, in addition, Olivelli's seniority as a teacher of Elementary Education does not defeat petitioner's claim to seniority in this case. Because the Board has compartmentalized seventh and eighth grade classes, it is deemed to be a secondary facility in that respect. A teacher having only an elementary category experience cannot be assigned a secondary position over another teacher with secondary category seniority. Unterberger, supra.

It is also clear that Brueck has seniority over Gonzalez, who is a non-tenured teacher. As discussed hereinabove, a non-tenured teacher cannot have seniority over a tenured individual. In Bednar, supra, the court held that the hours of a tenured teacher holding an Instructional Certificate with a comprehensive subject field endorsement in Art, which teacher had worked as a full-time elementary art teacher, could not be reduced, when another individual, who had been employed as a high school or seventh or eighth grade art teacher, but who did not have tenure, was retained. The court noted in this respect that applicable statutory provisions do ". . . not authorize regulatory dilution of tenure rights by affording a non-tenured teacher 'seniority.'" (Bednar at 243).

[3]The Board's argument that the seventh and eighth grades are not truly departmentalized is not persuasive. The Board is bound by its stipulations in this respect.

As petitioner notes, the aggregate number of teaching periods in question among Peterski, Olivelli, and Gonzalez is 41, which exceeds a full-time assignment. Brueck, who has seniority status over the three in question, should not have been dismissed. An alternative approach would have been to give her a full-time assignment. In the event of a RIF, a tenured teacher has a right to have part-time positions, taught by non-tenured individuals, for which the teacher is certified, consolidated into a full-time position. Taxman v. Piscataway Twp. Bd. of Educ., 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) (189). The seniority sheet maintained by respondent references only one individual as being assigned to a Music position, Anthony Signa, a non-tenured individual, with a one-fifth position at the Lincoln School. As an individual with tenure, Fochesato clearly has entitlement to that position. Peterski, Olivelli, and Gonzalez were not assigned Music classes and, as respondent argues, Fochesato did not obtain certification as an Elementary school teacher until May of 1996. The record does not establish whether any individuals other than the three in question referenced on the seniority record maintained by the Board teach Music as part of their overall classroom duties. Many of the individuals who are tenured obtained their positions prior to Fochesato.

Olivelli clearly has more seniority as a teacher of Elementary Education than does Fochesato. Petitioner's argument that the Board dismissed Fochesato while assigning secondary classes to Olivelli has no merit, regardless of the fact that the Board appears to have assigned Olivelli more Physical Education classes than permissible. Peterski has seniority as a teacher of Physical Education and Health, an area in which Fochesato was not certified. Fochesato therefore has no entitlement to the equivalent positions in Science to which Peterski was assigned. Although Gonzalez does not have tenure, Fochesato is not certified as a Bilingual teacher nor in Health and has no entitlement to the positions to which Gonzalez were assigned. However, the pertinent regulations do not incorporate a specific Certification for computers. In light of the fact that Fochesato has accrued more seniority in Music than Olivelli had in Elementary Education, petitioner had entitlement to the computer positions taught by Olivelli.

The fact that available positions may only have been of less than full time in nature is not determinative. If petitioners had been reemployed in the positions indicated, they would have continued to incur seniority with the Board. As noted hereinabove, seniority can be obtained for fractions of an academic or calendar year. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(b).

Petitioners are clearly entitled to the requested relief of reemployment and retroactive compensation, salary, benefits, and seniority credit lost as a result of the Board's actions in subjecting them to a RIF, and any and all of the emoluments of employment, including pension adjustments.

The stipulations and documentary evidence do not address any income earned by petitioners nor any mitigation efforts by them during the period in question. As discussed hereinabove, however, compensatory back pay is subject to mitigation by actual earnings or those subject to mitigation. If the parties cannot subsequently reach agreement on questions pertinent to mitigation, it is recommended that the Commissioner transmit those issues to the OAL as a contested case.

CONCLUSIONS

I CONCLUDE that petitioners had greater entitlement to at least some positions existing at the time of respondent's actions subjecting them to RIFs as set forth hereinabove and that they are therefore entitled to reinstatement, compensation and related emoluments and seniority credits, including appropriate pension adjustments, for the period from January 15, 1996 until the dates of their reinstatements. However, I am persuaded that interest should not be awarded. Petitioners have not established bad faith nor a deliberate violation of statute or rule by respondent. N.J.A.C. 6:24-

1.16(c)1. In addition, it is premature, considering the regulatory guidelines, to determine an award of post-judgment interest at this time. Id. at §2.

I CONCLUDE that petitioners should not have been subject to the RIFs in question and that they are therefore entitled to reinstatement and compensation, as well as related emoluments and seniority credits, including appropriate pension adjustments, for the period from January 15, 1996 until the dates of their reinstatements; I also CONCLUDE that the awards of compensation should be computed subject to mitigation; that petitioners' requests for an award of pre- and post-judgment interest should be denied; and that the other relief requested in the petition should be dismissed.

ORDERS

It is hereby ORDERED that petitioners be reinstated; that they be awarded compensation for the period from January 15, 1996 until the dates of their reinstatement; subject to mitigation; and that petitioners be awarded associated emoluments, including seniority credits and pension adjustments, for the period in question. It is also ORDERED that petitioners' requests for pre- and post-judgment interest be denied, that the other relief requested in the petition be denied, and that Norris' claims be dismissed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

November 25, 1996
DATE

DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Nov. 27, 1996
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 3 1996
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

njf

APPENDIX

Exhibits in Evidence:

J-1 Resolution

J-2 Memorandum dated December 12, 1995

J-3 Certification pertinent to Brueck

J-5 Certification pertinent to Fochesato

J-6 Seniority List

J-7 Peterski's schedule

J-8 Olivelli's schedule

J-9 Gonzalez's schedule

J-10 List of Prospective Intervenors

J-11 Letter dated April 26, 1996 & copies of return receipts

R-1 Certification as Elementary Teacher pertinent to Brueck

R-2 Certification as Elementary Teacher pertinent to Fochesato

CLARINDA BRUECK AND FREDERICK FOCHESATO,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Both petitioners and respondent filed exception arguments, and petitioners filed a reply, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

The Board's exceptions are essentially a reiteration of those arguments raised before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), primarily contending that it properly effectuated a reduction in force, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, as compelled by budget constraints. The Board reasons that, upon the elimination of petitioners' positions, it delegated responsibility for the instruction of health, physical education and music to other teachers. The Board asserts that while the ALJ "found that the evidence supported the conclusion that the reductions in force were necessitated by the economic situation,  the Court erred in not applying the economic reasons to its opinion." (Board's Exceptions at p. 2) Thus, the Board urges the Commissioner to reverse the initial decision of the ALJ.

In reply, petitioners note that while they take no issue with respect to the Board's authority to effectuate reductions in staff for economic reasons, the Board is nevertheless compelled to follow seniority regulations when doing so. (Petitioners' Reply at p. 1) Petitioners emphasize that the Board operates a departmentalized 7th and 8th grade and, therefore, tenured staff members must be assigned duties based upon their respective seniority in the secondary category. Since the Board has stipulated that Petitioner Brueck holds greater seniority as a secondary physical education and health instructor than any of the intervenors, petitioners assert that the Board's exception arguments are without merit. Petitioners also note that, with respect to Petitioner Fochesato, they raise no issue regarding the ability of elementary teachers in self-contained classrooms to teach music. Rather, petitioners contest the assignment of 7th and 8th grade music instruction to homeroom teachers enjoying less seniority than Fochesato, or who are not certified to teach music. (Id. at p. 2)

Although petitioners are in general agreement with the initial decision, they present several issues in their exception arguments, which, they assert, should be addressed by the Commissioner. Initially, petitioners observe that, in spite of Stipulation 1 indicating that the Board has eliminated its physical education, health and music programs, as a matter of practice, these programs, as noted in Stipulation 2, continue to be offered through classroom teachers, rather than specialists. (Petitioners' Exceptions at p. 1) Petitioners further note that respondent "acknowledged that 7th and 8th grade homeroom teachers were assigned to teach music." (Id. at p. 2) Thus, petitioners warrant that, to the extent this is so, Petitioner Fochesato has superior secondary seniority as a teacher of music and an award should be fashioned entitling him to teach such classes. (Id.) Finally, petitioners contend that the ALJ failed to address the assignment of secondary computer education and humanities to Intervenor Olivelli. Inasmuch as Olivelli's seniority is solely as an elementary teacher, petitioners conclude that Fochesato should have been assigned these subjects as they require no specific endorsement. (Id.)

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the ALJ, with clarification as provided herein.

Petitioners correctly recognize that the seniority evaluation herein must consider that they have attained seniority in the secondary category. That is, prior to January 15, 1996, petitioners were employed at the secondary level by virtue of their service in grades 7 and 8 in a district having departmentalized instruction, and these positions required special subject field endorsements. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(l)17(iii).

While Petitioner Fochesato has greater seniority in the secondary category than Petitioner Brueck, he is not appropriately certified to claim the teaching assignments of either Piterski[1] or Gonzalez. However, as the ALJ noted, Fochesato is entitled to employment in the remaining one-fifth music position in the District held by Anthony Signa, who is not an intervenor in this matter. (Initial Decision at p. 13) Additionally, Fochesato's secondary seniority credit entitles him to be assigned the computer classes and the humanities classes currently taught by Olivelli, a teacher with no seniority in the secondary category, N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(l)18(ii), since neither the computer class nor the humanities class requires specific certification. (Respondent's Trial Brief at p. 3) Moreover, as petitioners note, to the extent other appropriately certified teachers are providing music instruction to 7th and 8th graders and such teachers have less secondary seniority than Fochesato, these music classes should properly be assigned to Fochesato.

Additionally, it is clear that Petitioner Brueck is entitled to be assigned the health and physical education courses currently taught by Piterski, Olivelli and Gonzalez. Not only is Brueck properly certificated to teach these courses, but she enjoys greater seniority in the secondary category than Piterski, who has six years of seniority in the secondary category and Olivelli, whose seniority is exclusively elementary. Gonzalez is a nontenured teacher. As the ALJ instructs, "Seniority does not create employment rights for non-tenured employees and cannot justify retaining a non-tenured teacher in a position within the certificate of a dismissed tenured teacher." (Initial Decision at p. 7) Moreover, as Brueck asserts, these health and physical education assignments, in the aggregate, constitute a full-time position to which she is entitled. Taxman, supra.

[1] The Board's submissions reveal that Intervenor Piterski's name is spelled as reflected herein, rather than as shown in the Initial Decision.

Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the Board must reemploy petitioners, assign both the classes which they are entitled to teach by virtue of their seniority, and retroactively compensate them with salary, benefits, any and all emoluments of employment, including pension adjustments and seniority credit lost as a result of the Board's actions in subjecting them to the reduction in force. Such retroactive compensation shall not include either pre-judgment or post-judgment interest, but is subject to mitigation by actual earnings, as well as what could have been earned with reasonable and diligent efforts. Unterberger, supra, at 69[2].

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein, with clarification as provided above. The Board is hereby directed to reemploy petitioners upon the conditions stated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 10, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 10, 1997

[2] As correctly noted by the ALJ, any disputes about amounts due may be brought to the Commissioner as a separate cause of action, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.1 et seq.

10-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF BRENDA JOHNSON,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE	:	DECISION
CITY OF LONG BRANCH, MONMOUTH	:
COUNTY.	:
	:

January 10, 1997

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF BRENDA JOHNSON,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE	:	DECISION
CITY OF LONG BRANCH, MONMOUTH	:
COUNTY.	:
	:

For the Board, Richard D. McOmber, Esq.

This matter having been opened before the Commissioner of Education on September 6, 1996, through certification of tenure charges of excessive absenteeism, unbecoming conduct, and neglect of duties against respondent, a tenured custodian of the Board of Education of the City of Long Branch; and

The Commissioner having directed respondent on September 11, 1996 and October 16, 1996, to file an Answer to the tenure charges against her in conformance with N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.4; and

Subsequent to her receipt of these notices, respondent filed a letter in response to such tenure charges which did not conform to the requirements for an Answer, in that such submission did not specifically admit or deny each of the Board's charges as required by N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.4, but, rather, merely alleged that she had been unfairly treated by the Board; and

Respondent was advised on November 4, 1996, via both certified and regular mail, the former received by her on November 7, 1996, that unless her submission was amended to conform to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.4, the Commissioner of Education may decide the charges against her on a summary basis; and

Respondent having failed as of this date to comply with the directive of the Commissioner, each count of the charges against her is deemed to be admitted; now therefore

IT IS ORDERED this 10th day of January 1997 that summary judgment shall be granted to the Board and Brenda Johnson shall be dismissed from her tenured position as a custodian in the Board's employ as of the date of this order.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 10, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 10, 1997

11-97

11-97

LINDA KRULIKOWSKI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE EAST WINDSOR REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

January 13, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10044-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 472-10/96

LINDA KRULIKOWSKI,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE EAST WINDSOR REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY,
Respondent.

Richard A. Friedman, Esq., for the petitioner (Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak, attorneys)

David H. Coates, Esq., for the respondent (Turp, Coates, Essl & Driggers, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 25, 1996 Decided: December 6, 1996

BEFORE BEATRICE S. TYLUTKI, ALJ:

This matter concerns the petitioner's assertion that the Board of Education hired a non-tenured teacher therefore violating her tenure rights pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 and 18A:28-12. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on November 4, 1996, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The signed stipulation is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

December 6, 1996
DATE

BEATRICE S. TYLUTKI, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/9/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 11 1996
DATE

Barbara A Rosner
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cad

EXHIBITS ADMITTED INTO EVIDENCE:

For the Petitioner:

None

For the Respondent:

None

WITNESSES:

For the Petitioner:

None

For the Respondent:

None

FILED
STATE OF N.J.
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW
Nov 25 11 23 PM '96

TURP COATES ESSL & DRIGGERS, P.C.
170 South Main Street
P.O. Box 191
Hightstown, New Jersey 08520
(609) 448-0016
Attorneys for Respondent

LINDA KRULIKOWSKI, Petitioner vs. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE EAST WINDSOR REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY, Respondent	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY DOCKET NO: EDUOR 10044-96S STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL

The parties in the above referenced matter, having reviewed the pleadings and underlying facts, have decided to amicably resolve the underlying dispute between them as follows:

The Petitioner, Linda Krulikowski, shall be recognized as tenured in a full time teaching position as a secondary English and Latin teacher and shall accrue seniority in that position from the commencement of the 1996/1997 school year with full time salary and other benefits of full time employment, if any, to be paid Petitioner from November 1, 1996 onward. It is understood that salary and benefits are to be paid prospectively, and not retroactively.

In that the parties have amicably resolved the dispute between them, both parties request that this matter be dismissed wit prejudice, subject to the terms of this Stipulation, and contingent upon the Commissioner's approval of this Stipulation.

DATED: November 1, 1996

TURP COATES ESSL & DRIGGERS
Attorneys for Respondents

DAVID H. COATES, ESQ.

ZAZZALI, ZAZZALI, FAGELLA
& NOWAK
Attorneys for Petitioner

RICHARD A. FRIEDMAN, ESQ.

LINDA KRULIKOWSKI, Petitioner

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10044-96

LINDA KRULIKOWSKI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE EAST WINDSOR REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The Commissioner notes, however, that the terms of the settlement appear to already have been effectuated through the Board's payment of full-time salary and other benefits to petitioner from November 1, 1996 onward, and he, thus, admonishes the parties that settlements of controverted matters are of no force or effect and may not be implemented absent his approval, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1

Accordingly, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 13, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 13, 1997

(SB) 11-97

SB #11-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DENIAL OF :
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE TRENTON INTERNATIONAL : DECISION
CHARTER SCHOOL, MERCER COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 14, 1997

For the Appellant, Melissa Benford, pro se

The Trenton International Charter School (hereinafter "appellant") filed an appeal to the State Board from a letter decision of the Commissioner of Education dated January 14, 1997 denying its application to establish a charter school in the 1997-98 academic year. In a statement of reasons dated February 18, 1997, the Commissioner indicated that the application contained inadequate or insufficient information in most program areas and a weak financial plan, specifically, no cash flow analysis and little or no detail documenting revenues or expenditures.

Appellant filed a brief in support of its appeal, and a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed an application to participate and a brief in response to the arguments supporting the appeal.

In view of the extremely stringent time limit under which the Legislature has required us to decide appeals of this type, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), we have determined to consider all of the documents that have been filed in this matter. In addition, we have reviewed the record provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner. After careful consideration of this matter under the terms of the pertinent statutes, we agree with the ultimate determination of the Commissioner to deny the charter in this case, but we modify his analysis.

Mar. 26, 1997

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational improvement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). In the absence of regulations, we find it necessary to consider the application under the terms of the pertinent statute.

The record reveals that the "Final Application" submitted by appellant in October 1996 was assessed by two reviewers. Those reviewers identified the application as inadequate and/or failing to provide sufficient information in the following areas: educational mission, academic and non-academic goals and objectives, description of founders, governance structure, student assessment, student discipline policy and self-evaluation. Both reviewers gave the application an overall rating of inadequate.

A separate budget review found that appellant had failed to provide sufficient information, and indicated, in particular, that there was no cash flow analysis, little or no detail and documentation of revenues or expenditures and that start-up costs were not addressed.

A tally sheet dated November 7, 1996 summarized the "Final Application" as inadequate in its goals and objectives, description of founders, governance structure, student assessment, discipline policy, staff and self-evaluation, and indicated that appellant had failed to provide sufficient information in a number of other areas. The application was given an overall rating of inadequate, and a recommendation was made to reject the application.

Our own review of the record indicates that the application fails to satisfy the minimal statutory standards. Given the inadequacies identified in the application, we find that it includes such programmatic and financial deficiencies as to preclude the grant of a charter to appellant at this time.

Consequently, we conclude that appellant has failed to demonstrate its entitlement to establish a charter school in 1997-98. We stress that our determination herein is limited to the 1997-98 school year and is without prejudice to appellant's ability to apply for a charter in any subsequent years.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing MAR 3 1 1997

12-97

12-97

M.R., on behalf of minor, S.R.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

January 13, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6250-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 258-7/96

M.R. ON BEHALF OF MINOR S.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE FREEHOLD REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

Respondent.

Arsen Zartarian, Esq., for petitioner (McOmber & McOmber, attorneys)

James E. Collins, Esq., for respondent (Cerrato, Dawes, Collins, Saker & Brown, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 25, 1996 Decided: December 3, 1996

BEFORE BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on July 9, 1996, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a stipulation of settlement indicating the terms thereof, which is incorporated herein by reference and attachment.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

December 3, 1996

DATE

Bruce R. Campbell

BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/5/96

DATE

DNA

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 09 1996

DATE

Barbara A Harned

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ml

CERRATO, DAWES, COLLINS, SAKER & BROWN
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
WEMROCK PROFESSIONAL MALL
509 STILLWELLS CORNER ROAD
FREEHOLD, NEW JERSEY 07728
(201) 431-5000/(201) 462-0480
ATTORNEYS FOR
Respondent

S.R., a minor by his parent and natural guardian, M.R. Petitioner, vs. THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, IN THE COUNTY OF MONMOUTH, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6250-96 AGENCY DKT. NO. 258-7/96 STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The parties hereby agree to settle the above-captioned matter in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. The parties stipulate that S.R. is currently a day student at Middlesex County Vocational School.

2. The Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education shall pay all tuition costs for said placement.

3. The Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education will also pay and/or provide, at its sole option, transportation for S.R. to attend the Middlesex County Vocational School.

4. This settlement is a compromise of disputed claims and shall never be treated as an admission of liability by either party for any purpose.

5. All parties shall bear their own attorneys' fees, costs, expert witness fees and/or other related costs of evaluations for the entirety of any actions or matters related to the foregoing matter. It is expressly stated and agreed that neither party is the prevailing party for any purpose, including attorneys' fees, costs, expert witness fees and/or costs of evaluations.

Dated: 11/18/96

ARSEN ZATARIAN
Attorney for Petitioner

Dated: 11/19/96

JAMES E. COLLINS
Attorney for Respondent

LAW OFFICES
CERRATO, DAWES, COLLINS, SAKER & BROWN
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6250-96

M.R., on behalf of minor, S.R.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 13, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 13, 1997

(SB) 12-97

SB #12-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DENIAL OF :
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION :
OF THE NEW HORIZON ACADEMY : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CHARTER SCHOOL, MONMOUTH : DECISION
COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 14, 1997

For the Appellant, Mel Reid, pro se

The New Horizon Academy Charter School (hereinafter "appellant") filed an appeal to the State Board from a letter decision of the Commissioner of Education dated January 14, 1997 denying its application to establish a charter school in the 1997-98 academic year. In a statement of reasons dated February 18, 1997, the Commissioner indicated that the application contained inadequate or insufficient information in many program areas and a weak financial plan, specifically, that the budget and cash flow did not match.

After a careful review of the record under the terms of the pertinent statutes, we agree with the ultimate determination of the Commissioner to deny the charter in this case, but we modify his analysis.[1]

[1] We note that appellant did not file a brief in support of its appeal.

MAY 26, 1997

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational improvement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). In the absence of regulations, we find it necessary to consider the application under the terms of the pertinent statute.

The record reveals that the "Final Application" submitted by appellant in October 1996 was assessed by two reviewers. Those reviewers identified the application as inadequate and/or failing to provide sufficient information in the following areas: description of founders, governance structure, educational program, admission policy, at-risk students, staff, parental involvement, facility, financial plan, self-evaluation and transportation. A separate budget review found that appellant had failed to provide sufficient information.

A tally sheet dated November 7, 1996 summarized the "Final Application" as inadequate in its description of founders, governance structure, educational program, admission policy, at-risk students, staff, parental involvement, facility and transportation. The application was given an overall rating of inadequate, and the tally noted that the application required major revisions. A recommendation was made to reject the application.

Our own review of the record indicates that the application fails to satisfy the minimal statutory standards. Given the inadequacies identified in the application, we find that it includes such programmatic and financial deficiencies as to preclude the grant of a charter to appellant at this time.

Consequently, we conclude that appellant has failed to demonstrate its entitlement to establish a charter school in 1997-98. We stress that our determination herein is limited to the 1997-98 school year and is without prejudice to appellant's ability to apply for a charter in any subsequent years.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing MAR 3 1 1997

14-97

JOSEPH H. WEBB,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DOWNE, CUMBERLAND COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 14,, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10006-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 390-9/95

JOSEPH H. WEBB,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DOWNE, CUMBERLAND COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 14, 1997

(SB) 14-97

SB #14-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DENIAL OF :
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE EAST ORANGE HEADSTART : DECISION
CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 14, 1997

For the Appellant, Robert Taylor, Esq.

The East Orange Headstart Charter School (hereinafter "appellant") filed an appeal to the State Board from a letter decision of the Commissioner of Education dated January 14, 1997 denying its application to establish a charter school in the 1997-98 academic year. In a statement of reasons dated February 18, 1997, the Commissioner indicated that there was no clear separation of appellant from the East Orange Child Development Corporation, and that the application contained inadequate or insufficient information in many program areas and a weak financial plan, specifically, no cash flow analysis, overestimated revenues and revenues which appeared to be insufficient to cover initial expenditures.

Appellant filed a brief in support of its appeal, and a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed an application to participate and a brief in response to the arguments supporting the appeal.

3/26/97

In view of the extremely stringent time limit under which the Legislature has required us to decide appeals of this type, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), we have determined to consider all of the documents that have been filed in this matter. In addition, we have reviewed the record provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner. After careful consideration of this matter under the terms of the pertinent statutes, we agree with the ultimate determination of the Commissioner to deny the charter in this case, but we modify his analysis.

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational improvement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). In the absence of regulations, we find it necessary to consider the application under the terms of the pertinent statute.

The record reveals that the "Final Application" submitted by appellant on October 15, 1996 was assessed by two reviewers. Those reviewers identified the application as inadequate and/or failing to provide sufficient information in the following areas: academic and non-academic goals and objectives, educational mission, governance structure, educational program, student assessment, admission policy, student discipline policy, at-risk students, staff, transportation, self-evaluation and insurance.

A separate budget review found that appellant had failed to provide sufficient information, and indicated, in particular, that there was no cash flow analysis and that appellant's revenue appeared to be insufficient to cover initial expenditures.

A tally sheet dated November 7, 1996 summarized the "Final Application" as inadequate in its goals and objectives, governance structure, student assessment, at-risk students and transportation, and indicated that appellant had failed to provide sufficient information in a number of other areas. The application was given an overall rating of inadequate, and a recommendation was made to reject the application.

Our own review of the record indicates that the application fails to satisfy the minimal statutory standards. While the application provides a description of and address for appellant's physical facility as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, the application includes such programmatic and financial deficiencies as to preclude the grant of a charter to appellant at this time.

Consequently, we conclude that appellant has failed to demonstrate its entitlement to establish a charter school in 1997-98. We stress that our determination herein is limited to the 1997-98 school year and is without prejudice to appellant's ability to apply for a charter in any subsequent years.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing MAR 31 1997

15-97

DIANE BASANESE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RANDOLPH, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 14, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7546-94
AGENCY DKT. NO. 252-6/94

RONNE BASSMAN-AGINS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WHARTON, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 16, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY16, 1997

19-97

THOMASINA LEMON,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 16, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11611-94
AGENCY DKT. NO. 440-11/94

THOMASINA LEMON,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 16, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 16, 1997

20-97

20-97

W.C., on behalf of minor, N.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WEST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

JANUARY 16, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5536-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 106-3/96

W.C., on behalf of minor, N.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WEST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 16, 1997

DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 16, 1997

(SB) 20-97

SB #20-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE GRANT OF :

THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

OF THE RED BANK CHARTER SCHOOL : DECISION

ASSOCIATION, MONMOUTH COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 21, 1997

Decision on motion by the Commissioner of Education, March 10, 1997

For the Appellant, McOmber & McOmber (Richard D. McOmber, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, Michael Moore, pro se

By letter dated February 21, 1997, the Commissioner of Education notified the Red Bank Charter School Association ("Charter School") that he had approved its application for establishment of a charter school to begin operation in the 1997-98 school year. Such approval was stated as being "contingent upon receipt of outstanding documentation not included in your application and detailed in Section 19 of the New Jersey Charter Schools Application," which includes a fire certificate, a health inspection certificate, proof of compliance with health and safety regulations, by-laws, contracts, incorporation documents, and any leases.[1] In a statement of [1] We note, however, that in his decision of March 10, 1997 denying the Red Bank Board's motion for a stay of the decision granting the charter, the Commissioner characterized his grant of the charter as "final as of February 21, 1997," Commissioner's decision, slip op. at 4 (emphasis added), adding that documentation was still required to be submitted with regard to the facility in which the school would be located. The record does not include any indication of the date by which the documentation was to be provided or make any provision for review and evaluation of these submissions.

4/2/97

reasons dated February 28, 1997, the Commissioner stressed that the following strengths had contributed to his approval of the application: a mission fostering the values of respect, personal responsibility and good citizenship, a plan for parental and community involvement and educational goals encompassing the New Jersey Core Curriculum Content Standards and integrating technology in all areas of study.

On February 26, 1997, the Red Bank Board of Education challenged the Commissioner's determination by filing a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education as provided in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). On March 5, 1997, the Red Bank Board filed its arguments in support of the appeal. On March 10, a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed a motion to participate in the matter and a brief in response to the appeal.

On March 10, 1997, the Commissioner denied a motion filed by the Red Bank Board for a stay of his grant of the charter. Accordingly, the Red Bank Board sought a stay from the State Board by filing a motion for emergent relief on March 12. On March 13, the Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed a motion to participate in the emergent relief and a brief in response to the motion. On the same date, both the Red Bank Board and the Commissioner submitted supplemental certifications relating to the motion.

In view of the importance of the issues raised and the extremely stringent time limit under which the Legislature has required us to decide appeals of this type, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), we have determined to decide the matter today. Hence, we need not decide the Red Bank Board's motion for emergent relief. However, in deciding the merits of the Red Bank Board's appeal, we have considered all of the documents which have been filed in the matter.[2] In addition, we have reviewed the record provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner with extreme care.

After considering this matter under the terms of the pertinent statutes and for the reasons that follow, we reverse the Commissioner's determination to approve the grant of a charter to the Red Bank Charter School Association for the 1997-98 school year.

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational improvement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

[2] Although we have reviewed the papers filed by the New Jersey Education Association in support of its request to appear as amicus curiae in this matter, we do not have the discretion to delay our decision so as to allow it the time necessary to file a brief on the substantive issues it is now raising.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The district board has 60 days from receipt of the application to forward a recommendation thereon to the Commissioner. Id. The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). The legislation requires the State Board to render a decision within 30 days of receipt of the appeal. Finally, a charter school may not have an enrollment in excess of 500 students or greater than 25% of the student body "of the school district in which the charter school is established," whichever is less. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(e).

Initially, we reject the contention that the Commissioner did not have the authority to approve a charter school application in the absence of the adoption of implementing regulations by the State Board. However, in the absence of regulations, we are forced to consider the appropriateness of the Commissioner's approval in this case under the terms of the pertinent statute.

The record indicates that the Charter School submitted a "Preliminary Application" on September 1, 1996. The Charter School was provided with a "Preliminary Application Feedback Form" from the Department which indicated that the application was inadequate in the following areas: goals and objectives, governance structure, educational program, student assessment, student discipline criteria, parental involvement, facility, financial plan and timetable. The comments indicated that there was no description of the curriculum development process.

The Charter School thereafter submitted its "Final Application" on October 15, 1996, seeking approval of a charter based on an anticipated enrollment of 220 students in grades five through eight. The record shows that this application was assessed by two reviewers. The first reviewer indicated that the "Final Application" was inadequate as follows: academic and non-academic goals and objectives; revision was needed to address the curriculum in the specific grade levels; the admission policy and criteria were questionable, especially with regard to ensuring diversity and preventing discriminatory impact; and the financial plan needed revisions and was missing items. The reviewer also indicated the applicant had not identified a facility.

The second reviewer found that the financial plan was inadequate, that the projected first-year enrollment of 220 students exceeded the statutory limit in that it represented more than 25% of the student population in the public school district, that goals and objectives were inadequate, that grade levels were not designated and class projections not given, that specifics were needed with respect to the educational program, that more detail was needed with respect to student assessment, and that the admission policy and criteria were inadequate. Like the first reviewer, the second also indicated that no facility had been identified.

A separate budget review rated the overall financial plan as "inadequate." The reviewer specified that "other sources of revenue," which represented almost half of the total operating budget, needed "much more detail," that there was no grade level breakdown of projected enrollment, that there was insufficient detail concerning a proposed 30-year mortgage, that no mortgage interest had been budgeted, and that there was no cash flow analysis. The budget reviewer also pointed out that the projected enrollment of 220 students appeared to exceed the statutory maximum. The reviewer found the overall quality of the budget in all major areas–revenues, expenditures and cash flow–to be inadequate.

A tally sheet dated November 7, 1996 reflects the inadequacies indicated by the reviewers with respect to the Charter School's goals and objectives, educational program, admissions policy and criteria, and financial plan. Nonetheless, the tally sheet includes a recommendation that the application be approved conditional on receipt of documentation and revisions.

The Charter School was then provided with "Final Review Feedback" forms by the Department and permitted to revise its "Final Application" by the submission of addenda.[3] The "Final Review Feedback" provided on November 20, 1996 indicated, inter alia, that the Charter School was proposing enrollment in excess of 25% of the student population in the public school district, that it failed to specify grade levels to be served over the period of the charter, needed to expand the goals and objectives to focus on student achievement, needed to explain the governance structure, and needed to explain its admission criteria.

[3] We note that none of the charter school applications on appeal to the State Board which were rejected by the Commissioner were provided with a "Final Review Feedback" by the Department or given the opportunity to amend their applications.

A separate "Final Review Feedback" form dealing with the Charter School's budget indicated that the Charter School had overestimated local/state share revenues by approximately $242,000 and categorical aid revenues by approximately $317,000; that there was no substantiation for the receipt of "other sources of revenue," which represented 48% of the budget; that the mortgage terms were not sufficiently detailed; that nearly all line items could not be reviewed for reasonableness since no backup was supplied; and that no cash flow analysis was provided.

The Department received two addenda from the Charter School in the first half of December. However, a review of the revised materials by the Department on December 11 indicates that the financial plan was still inadequate, noting that details to calculate the number of teachers and their average salary had not been supplied, that there was no substantiation for anticipated grants in the amount of $250,000, that backup was still not supplied for nearly all line items, and that no cash flow analysis had been provided. The reviewer also indicated concern regarding the fact that there was no explanation for the Charter School's revised plans for financing a facility, noting that the amounts of $375,000 and $400,000, which had been budgeted in the Charter School's "Final Application" for building purchase and mortgage payments, were now shown as $0. The reviewer "assumed" that, in its place, the Charter School had budgeted $93,750 for the rental of land and building.

On December 26, the Department received a third addendum from the Charter School, which reduced its projected student enrollment for 1997-98 to 214 students.

On December 10, 1996, the Red Bank Board notified the Department that it could not support the grant of a charter and requested that the proposal be held for one year. After the submission of the third addendum on December 26, the Red Bank Board was given 30 days to review the addenda.

On February 4, 1997, the Charter School informed the Department that it was willing to modify its application by further limiting first-year enrollment to 80 students. As previously indicated, the application was approved on February 21, 1997. However, "given the important and legitimate concerns expressed by the Red Bank Board regarding the impact upon the existing educational system in the school district," the Commissioner granted the Charter School approval to admit a maximum of 60 students in 1997-98, with reassessment of that issue to be conducted in January 1998.

As detailed above, the Charter School's "Final Application" submitted on October 15, 1996 did not satisfy the requirements of statute. As late as early February 1997, the Charter School was still proposing to enroll more than 200 students in grades five through eight. This, as observed by the Department's reviewers, exceeded the statutory limit of 25% of the student population of the public school district. Indeed, the Charter School's application indicated that "[t]he enrollment number of 220 has the potential to reach approximately 90% of the existing Middle School population." In that context, we note that the Charter School's offer in February 1997 to limit its first-year enrollment to 80 students would also appear to exceed the 25% limitation.

We stress that the enrollment limitation established by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(e) is one of the statutorily-established criteria for eligibility. Yet, despite its ongoing failure to bring the application into conformity with the statutory criteria, as well as the persistence of other inadequacies in its application, the Charter School was permitted to submit addenda through December 26, 1996, and to make extensive modifications to its proposal until early February 1997. Even then, the Commissioner was compelled to lower the Charter School's proposed enrollment from eighty to sixty before approving the grant of a charter.

We cannot lightly dismiss the failure of the Charter School's application to meet the threshold statutory criteria. As demonstrated by the need for revisions and the submission of extensive substantive addenda through December, it is evident that the October 15 submission did not satisfy the statutory criteria, thereby precluding meaningful assessment of the school's "Final Application" at that time.

Moreover, even if we were to consider the revisions included in the Charter School's addenda, the application still fails to meet minimal statutory standards. The most glaring example of this is the fact that the Charter School has still not provided "a description of, and address for, the physical facility in which the charter school will be located," as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5(j). Without such information, it is impossible to assess with any confidence the sufficiency of the Charter School's financial plan, which in this case had anticipated obtaining a building and mortgage in the amounts of $375,000 and $400,000 respectively. Those amounts were thereafter reduced to $0 in addenda submitted by the Charter School subsequent to its "Final Application" without any explanation or specifications as to a revised plan. As previously noted, a Department reviewer raised "concerns" regarding this modification and "assumed" that the Charter School had budgeted $93,750 for rental of land and building in its place. This problem is underscored by the fact that the Charter School's own "Timetable" included with its addenda indicates its intention to secure a facility "through lease or sale." (Emphasis added.) Nor can it be determined without a description and address for the facility whether the school would be situated in a "suitable location," as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-10.

In this respect, we stress also that, contrary to the Commissioner's assertion in his decision denying the Red Bank Board's motion for a stay, it is possible for a charter school applicant to identify a facility prior to the granting of a charter and to develop a proposal on that basis, as several of this year's applicants have clearly demonstrated. See, e.g., In the Matter of the Denial of the Charter School Application of the East Orange Headstart Charter School, decided by the State Board, March 26, 1997; In the Matter of the Denial of the Charter School Application of the Gloucester County Charter High School, decided by the State Board, March 26, 1997. In both of those applications, which were rejected by the Commissioner, the applicant provided a description and address for a facility, as required by the statute.

We find that the need for caution is heightened in a case where, as here, the grant of a charter will have an impact on a small public school district which, it is undisputed, is already struggling to achieve academic improvement within tight fiscal constraints. While the legislation is aimed at encouraging charter schools with the hope of realizing reform in our system of public education as a whole and improvement in student achievement, we cannot ignore our responsibility to insure the adequacy of the education provided to both the students who will attend the charter schools and those who will attend the public schools for which the district board is primarily responsible. Given our obligations, we cannot overlook the glaring inadequacies of the Charter School's "Final Application" and the fact that significant inadequacies persisted despite repeated submissions after October 15, especially with respect to the Charter School's financial plan. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5(l). In fact, the revisions submitted by the Charter School in December 1996 were extensive, and were required in such critical areas as curriculum, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5(d), and admissions policy, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5(e).

Further, there is no indication in the record that any final or comprehensive analysis of the materials, including the budgetary revisions, was conducted by the Department after the last addendum had been submitted. This cannot be ignored in view of the significant changes made by the Charter School and the fact that serious budget concerns were still being raised by the Department's reviewer even after the Charter School had revised its "Final Application." Moreover, we find no explanation in any of the Charter School's addenda to alleviate the reviewer's concerns regarding its plans for financing a facility.

These failures are not minor. Without the information required by the statute, it is impossible for us to insure that the Charter School's financial plan is adequate or to assess the impact on the district board involved in this appeal. Under these circumstances, and given our responsibilities for assuring that the children attending the charter school, as well as those in the affected public school district, are provided with a constitutionally adequate education, e.g., Robinson v. Cahill, 62 N.J. 473 (1973), we cannot affirm the Commissioner's grant of the charter at this time. We stress that our determination herein is limited to the 1997-98 school year and is without prejudice to the Charter School's ability to apply for a charter for any subsequent school year.

Robert A. Woodruff, Maud Dahme, Jean Alexander, Margaret M. Bennett, Ronald K. Butcher, and Thomas P. McGough join in the opinion of the State Board.

Wendel E. Daniels recused himself from the deliberations in this matter.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing APR 02 1997

Anne S. Dillman, S. David Brandt, Orlando Edriera, Daniel P. Moroney, and Corinne M. Mullen dissenting:

On Wednesday, March 26, 1997, the State Board of Education voted 7-5 to reject its Legal Committee's recommendation to affirm the Commissioner of Education's approval of the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School. The board also rejected by a vote of 6-5-1 its Legal Committee's recommendation to affirm the Commissioner's approval of the Red Bank Charter School.

We the undersigned board members wish to file this dissenting opinion because the State Board had less than one day to consider the written recommendations of the Legal Committee, and the reasons offered by board members for rejecting both the recommendations of its legal Committee and the Commissioner's decisions are factually erroneous and legally infirm.

The Charter School statute (N.J.S.A. 18A:36A) adopted on December 11, 1995, and signed into law by Governor Whitman on January 11, 1996, clearly intended that charter schools would be implemented in or before the 1997-98 school year. In this regard, the statute authorizes the Commissioner of Education to establish charter schools "...during the 48 months following the effective date of this act (8A:36A-3b)," and it states that "that this act shall take effect immediately (18A:36A-l9)."

It is also clear that the authors of the statute intended that the Commissioner of Education's judgment would be the ultimate criterion for approving or disapproving the applications of individual charter schools. The statute states at 18A:36A-3 that "A charter school shall be a public school operated under a charter granted by the Commissioner ..." and at 8A:36A-4(c), "The Commissioner shall have final authority to grant or reject a charter application."

Further, it is clear that the process used by the Commissioner in exercising this statutorily assigned responsibility was reasonable.

The following are our positions on the each of the major issues raised by board members to explain why they voted to reject the recommendation of the Legal Committee that the Commissioner's approval of the two schools be affirmed.

Application Booklet

It was indicated that the provisions in the Commissioner's charter schools application booklet were not identical to those in the statute. However, the provisions of any law as complex as the charter school statute require interpretation, and the Commissioner's method of developing such interpretations in carrying out his statutorily assigned responsibility to implement the charter school law was extraordinarily thorough.

The Commissioner developed and published a charter school application booklet (copy attached) in order to interpret specific provisions of the statute and to guide prospective charter school sponsors in the preparation of their applications. To begin this task, the Commissioner appointed a committee of Department of Education staff members, each of whom possesses expertise in a relevant area. The committee's membership included a former staff member of the State Assembly who assisted in writing that body's version of the law. The committee studied the statute and prepared an initial draft of the application booklet.

The Commissioner then met with the legislative authors of the statute, Senator John Ewing, and Assemblymen Joseph Doria and John Rocco, to review the initial draft that the committee had prepared. The purpose of this meeting was to assure that each interpretation contained in the application booklet was fully consistent with the provisions of the statute and with the underlying legislative intent. Several changes were made in the application booklet as a result of this meeting.

The Commissioner then shared the booklet with the major state education associations that had followed the progress of the legislation before its enactment, and he met with representatives of those associations to obtain their comments and suggestions. A nationally recognized expert on charter schools, who had also consulted during the preparation of the statute, was asked to review the booklet to identify any important issues that might have been overlooked. At the Commissioner's direction, Department of Education staff also shared the booklet with prospective charter school applicants to determine whether it communicated instructions clearly and would, therefore, elicit the proper information.

Through this process the application booklet was continually refined and then shared a final time with the legislative authors to assure the consistency of its interpretations with the literal provisions of the statute and the underlying legislative intent. The authors affirmed that the booklet was consistent with the statute in all aspects. A copy of the final booklet was forwarded to the sponsors upon its publication. (See attached letter dated June 26, 1996.) Further, State Board of Education members received a copy of the final application, as well, on the same date. Board members were informed that the booklet "...was developed with input from the legislative sponsors, major education associations, prospective charter school applicants, field representatives, and key department staff (see attached memo dated June 26, 1996).

Evaluation Process

It was indicated that the evaluation process was invalid because it applied different standards and procedures to different applications. It was stated that some charter school applicants had numerous opportunities to amend their applications while others did not. This conclusion is incorrect for the following reasons.

First, the statute specifically empowers the Commissioner to evaluate the charter school applications and it does not constrain the Commissioner with respect to the process that he may use in evaluating applications. Under those circumstances, the State Board would exceed its role if it were to substitute its evaluation preferences for those of the Commissioner.

Second, the process that the Commissioner chose to use is reasonable. In order to obtain approval in time to open in September 1997, prospective charter school applicants were required to submit their applications by October 15, 1997. However, the statute is clear in its intent that the state play more than a passive role of simply receiving and evaluating applications. The act states that "...the establishment of a charter school program is in the best interests of the students of this State and it is therefore the public policy of the State to encourage and facilitate the development of charter schools (18A:36A-2)."

To affect this public policy and to address the fact that the charter school initiative is new and innovative, a voluntary deadline of September 1, 1996 was set for any applicant who wanted to submit a draft application early in order to obtain the review and advice of those Department of Education staff who are responsible for providing technical assistance in the creation of charter schools.

The opportunity for voluntary early submission was equally available to all prospective applicants. Twenty-eight preliminary applications were submitted, including those of the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank Charter Schools. In each case, the department's technical assistance staff provided appropriate advice without the Commissioner's involvement. All applicants then had the opportunity to revise their plans before meeting the final submission date.

As stated above, the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank Charter School sponsors took advantage of the opportunity for assistance based on voluntary early submission, which was available to all prospective applicants, and like all others who did so, they were able to revise their plans accordingly before the final deadline for formal submission. Therefore, it is inaccurate to suggest that these applicants were somehow accorded an unfair advantage.

Following the first round of review of the thirty-seven applications submitted by October 15, 1996, eighteen were identified as demonstrating sufficient potential to be strong charter schools to warrant a second round of technical assistance. During this second round of technical assistance, all applicants submitted addenda upon the request of department reviewers. Eight of the eighteen applicants under consideration submitted three addenda, including the Red Bank and Greater Brunswick Regional Charter Schools.

The above notwithstanding, the matter before the board did not require a determination as to whether some charter school applicants were treated "more fairly" than other applicants. It is only to determine whether there was any violation of statute in the evaluation of the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank applications. Clearly there was not.

Incomplete Documentation

It was indicated that the two applicants had been granted charters without submitting all of the documentation required by the statute. In particular, they did not identify the location of their facilities.

During the development of the application booklet, it was determined that certain documentation could not be obtained by the applicants until they received their charters from the Commissioner. In particular, while the statute requires applicants to provide the addresses of their facilities, charter schools would be unable to contract for facilities until they were approved to exist.

This would place the applicants in a "catch-22" situation of simultaneously being unable to obtain documents until they were approved to exist and being unable to obtain approval without submitting the documents. Therefore, the process was designed to base evaluation and approval on the quality of each applicant's substantive educational and financial plans, and to grant such approval contingent on the submission of any outstanding documentation prior to implementation.

This method of addressing the submission of certain documentation was established at the outset after discussion with the legislative sponsors, and it was communicated clearly and consistently throughout the process. The application booklet states on page 5 that, "Commissioner's approval can be conditional in instances such as if the applicant has yet to acquire facilities or to provide documentation of teachers yet to be hired." On page 20 of the charter schools application in the section which specifies required information regarding facilities it states, "If you do not have a facility, describe your present options for designating a school facility." Further, the letter of approval given to each applicant states "When the approval of charter schools for 1997-98 was announced on January 14, 1997, that approval was contingent upon receipt of outstanding documentation not included in your application. A list of this required documentation is enclosed." (See attached copy of letter dated January 31, 1997.) In the section of the application which deals with Questions and Answers, the following question is raised (page 5 of Appendix C): "Can a charter school be approved if a facility has not yet been acquired?" The answer provided: "Yes. The charter would be granted conditionally on the basis that the school would be housed in an approved facility." Finally, the charter certificate states on its face that "Approval is contingent upon receipt of the necessary documentation listed in Section 19 of the New Jersey Charter Schools Application."

"Region of Residence"

It was stated that because the Greater Brunswick Charter School is designed to serve a region that encompasses four school districts, it is ineligible for approval since the statute does not specifically provide for the creation of multi-district charter schools. To address this lack of clarity, the Commissioner, exercising his statutorily assigned responsibility to implement the law, defined the "region of residence" of students to be served by a charter school to include contiguous district boards of education as well as single district boards. This definition was developed in consultation with counsel, and it was presented to the legislative authors of the statute to determine its consistency with legislative intent. The definition was applied consistently in the review of the current applications, and it was incorporated in regulations that the Commissioner has proposed that the State Board adopt to guide consideration of applications in future years.

Enrollment

It was argued that the Red Bank Charter School application should not have been approved because the Red Bank School District's enrollment is too small to absorb the loss of students who would enroll in the charter school. This argument is statutorily erroneous since, as approved, the Red Bank Charter School's maximum enrollment is well within the limits imposed by the statute.

Regulations

It was argued that in the absence of regulations approved by the State Board, the Commissioner was bound to adhere to the literal language of the statute. However, the statute does not preclude the Commissioner from interpreting or implementing its provisions until after the enactment of rules. In addition, the Commissioner exercised his authority to do so only after consulting with the authors of the statute to verify legislative intent.

For these reasons, we the undersigned members of the State Board of Education hereby advance the dissenting opinion that the Commissioner of Education's approval of the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank Charter Schools was consistent with the literal provisions of the statute and based on reasonable interpretations of statutory language that were affirmed by the authors of the legislation.

Perhaps more importantly, charter schools are an important innovation that has the potential to provide the children they serve with an improved education, as well as the potential to stimulate improvements in the broader system of public education. As the statute states, "...the establishment of a charter school program is in the best interests of the students of this State and it is therefore the public policy of the State to encourage and facilitate the development of charter schools (18A:36A-2)." At the very heart of the charter school initiative is the concept of flexibility in implementation. Further, by authorizing the creation of charter schools over an initial four-year period, the statute recognizes that the initiative is an exploration, one which is intended through flexible implementation to generate refinements over time.

Given the educational significance of the initiative and the fact that it is intended to be a flexible exploration, we believe that it is inappropriate to block implementation of the new charter school initiative without clear and compelling evidence of a major impropriety or a blatant and direct violation of statute.

April 2, 1997

Date of mailing APR 02 1997

(SB) 20-97

SB #20-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE GRANT OF :
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE RED BANK CHARTER SCHOOL : DECISION ON MOTION
ASSOCIATION, MONMOUTH COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 21, 1997

Decision on motion by the Commissioner of Education, March 10, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, March 26, 1997

For the Appellant, McOmber & McOmber (Richard D. McOmber, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, McCarter & English (David C. Apy, Esq., of Counsel)

On March 26, 1997, the State Board of Education reversed the determination of the Commissioner of Education approving the grant of a charter to the Red Bank Charter School Association ("Charter School"). On April 15, 1997, David C. Apy, Esq. filed a motion on behalf of the Charter School seeking reconsideration of our decision. By that motion, the Charter School seeks reversal of our March 26 decision. In the altemative, the Charter School seeks a stay of our decision. Additionally, the Charter School has moved to disqualify Margaret M. Bennett, a member of the State Board, from participation with respect to the relief requested based upon "a conflict of interest arising from an appearance of impropriety."

5/7/97

Because our determination as to whether the State Board of Education should grant the Charter School's motion to disqualify Ms. Bennett from participating in the motion to reconsider may affect our deliberations on that motion, we would ordinarily consider it first. However, the Charter School has presented no independent basis for precluding Ms. Bennett from participating in the motion to reconsider. Rather, it appears that the Charter School seeks to disqualify Ms. Bennett from participating in this motion on the grounds that she should have been disqualified from voting on the substantive appeal on March 26, 1997. We question whether it would be appropriate for the State Board of Education to preclude one of our members from participating in our decisionmaking, and, in the absence of a clear legal preclusion, would decline to do so. However, in reviewing the papers submitted by counsel for the Charter School in support of its motion to reconsider, we have carefully considered the issues raised concerning Ms. Bennett's vote of March 26.

The Charter School has moved for reconsideration on two separate grounds: 1) that Ms. Bennett should not have been permitted to vote on March 26, and 2) that we applied the wrong standard of review when we decided the appeal. It contends that Ms. Bennett should have been precluded from voting because she had a conflict of interest. It argues that such conflict was present because her husband is a state senator. In support of this claim, the Charter School makes various factual allegations concerning both Ms. Bennett and her husband. See Brief and Affidavit of David C. Apy.

We do not view lightly allegations of conflicts of interest. While we recognize that administrative adjudication such as that involved here "constitutes a form of judicial mimicry" so as to be characterized as quasi-judicial rather than judicial, City of Hackensack v. Winner, 82 N.J. 1, 29 (1980), the State Board of Education has always been firmly committed to performing our adjudicative role with unquestionable integrity, objectivity and impartiality as great as that of judges. See Kremer v. City of Plainfield, 101 N.J. Super. 346, 352 (Law Div. 1968); Sheeran v. Progressive Life Ins. Co., 182 N.J. Super. 237, 243 (App. Div. 1981).

It is well established that it is within the sound discretion of the judge in the first instance to determine whether he should recuse himself. State v. Walker, 33 N.J. 580 (1960); Matthews v. Deane, 196 N.J. Super. 441 (Ch. Div. 1984). Accordingly, we have given Ms. Bennett the opportunity to determine whether she wishes to recuse herself from participating in this motion. As reflected by her statement today, which we are appending to our decision, and for the reasons articulated in that statement, Ms. Bennett has decided to recuse herself . Hence, we will now consider the substance of the Charter School's motion to reconsider.

Initially, we deny that portion of the motion which would have us reconsider our decision by invalidating our vote of March 26. Nothing in the papers presented to us identifies any direct financial benefit from our decision of March 26 that might have accrued to either Ms. Bennett or her husband. Indeed, leaving aside the accuracy of the factual underpinnings of the Charter School's motion or any of its allegations concerning the conduct of either spouse, careful scrutiny fails to identify any concrete benefit that would result to either. Hence, as the Deputy Attorney General representing the State Board advised Ms. Bennett prior to our March 26 meeting, it was not improper for her to vote. Nor has the Charter School presented anything to us in these proceedings that would warrant revisiting our March 26 decision on the basis of Ms. Bennett's participation. In point of fact, Mr. Apy concedes in his affidavit in support of the motion that the Charter School has no evidence of any direct communication between Ms. Bennett and the Red Bank Board or its counsel. Affidavit of David C. Apy, at 6.

Furthermore, we would not alter our conclusion on the basis of bare allegations made in Mr. Apy's affidavit that there may have been "such communications" subsequent to our March 26 meeting. Id. In this respect, we stress that disqualification rules are to be strictly construed in order to safeguard the State Board from attacks upon our dignity and to avoid interruption to our proper functioning. Cf. Matthews v. Deane, supra, at 446-47. By means of a motion supported only by newspaper articles and bare assertions, the Charter School is seeking to have the State Board act to invalidate the vote of one of our members and, then, on that basis, to change our decision. Consideration of this aspect of the Charter School's motion has diverted our resources from the substantive matters still pending before us and has interrupted our ordinary and proper functioning.

We turn now to the Charter School's contention that we should reconsider our decision on the grounds that we failed to apply the correct standard of review in deciding the appeal. After reviewing the arguments of counsel, we find no reason to revisit the substance of our determination of March 26. In doing so, we strongly emphasize that the State Board of Education is the head of the Department of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:4-1. Hence, in addition to our supervisory powers, the State Board has jurisdiction to consider appeals from any determination of the Commissioner, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-27, and it has been well established in a wide range of contexts that the State Board of Education is the ultimate administrative decisionmaker in school matters. E.g., In re Masiello, 25 N.J. 590 (1958); Laba v. Newark Board of Education, 23 N.J. 364 (1957); Matter of Tenure Hearing of Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478, 485 (App. Div. 1989), cert. denied, 121 N.J. 615 (1990); Dore v. Bedminster Tp. Bd. of Ed., 185 N.J. Super. 447, 452 (App. Div. 1982); East Windsor Reg'l Bd. of Ed. v. State Bd. of Ed., 172 N.J. Super. 547 (App. Div. 1980). The Red Bank Charter School Association has not pointed to anything that would require us to apply a different standard when deciding appeals under N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq. Moreover, it has failed to convince us that enactment of this legislation altered our agency's "comprehensive system of internal appeals" by which we assure that final agency decisions of the Department of Education are arrived at fairly and justly, and are in accord with the education laws. See e.g., Masiello, supra; Laba, supra.

As indicated by our decision today, we have not found oral argument to be necessary in order to fairly decide this motion, and we therefore deny the Charter School's request for oral argument. Finally, inasmuch as the Red Bank Charter School Association has failed to meet the standards that would entitle it to relief under Crowe v. De Gioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), we deny its request for a stay of our decision dated March 26 in this matter.

Margaret M. Bennett and Wendel E. Daniels recused themselves from the deliberations. Daniel J.P. Moroney abstained.

May 7, 1997

Date of mailing MAY 09 1997

STATEMENT OF MARGARET M. BENNETT
RECUSING HERSELF FROM THE DELIBERATIONS

On the advice of the Attorney General's office, I have decided to recuse myself in the Red Bank Charter School's motion for reconsideration. I have not participated in either the Legal Committee or Executive Session discussions on the motion. I will not participate in either the public discussion or the vote.

When I voted the first time this case was considered, I did so after I sought the advice of the Attorney General's office. I was told then that it was not improper for me to vote. The Attorney General's office has reaffirmed that original advice.

A central issue in the motion for reconsideration is the validity of my original vote. That has placed me at the center of the controversy over whether the case should be reconsidered. The Attorney General's advice is that it would be appropriate for me to remove myself as the issue on this motion. I can best do that by not participating in the decision.

I think that every case should be decided on the merits and appear to be decided on the merits. I do not want anyone to think that any vote I would cast on reconsideration would have been in any way affected by the fact that my earlier vote has been challenged.

I hope that it is clear that my decision today does not reflect any second thoughts as to the correctness of my decision to vote on the first hearing of the case. My conduct was not under challenge the first time. It is now, that change in circumstances is the only reason that I believe it is proper for me not to participate now.

Margaret M. Bennett

May 7, 1997

21-97

21-97

ARLENE FRANOLICH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MANCHESTER, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 16, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7844-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 244-7/95

ARLENE FRANOLICH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MANCHESTER, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 16, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 16, 1997

(SB) 21-97

SB #21-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE GRANT OF	:
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE GREATER BRUNSWICK	:	DECISION ON MOTION
REGIONAL CHARTER SCHOOL,	:
MIDDLESEX COUNTY.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 31, 1997

Decision on motions by the State Board of Education, March 4, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, March 26, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, April 2, 1997

Decision on motion by the Appellate Division, May 1, 1997

For the Appellant Highland Park Board of Education, Apruzzese, McDermott, Mastro & Murphy (James L. Plosia, Jr., Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, Philip Allan Borow, Esq.

For the Milltown Board of Education, Borrus, Goldin, Foley, Vignuolo, Hyman & Stahl (Anthony B. Vignuolo, Esq., of Counsel)

On March 26, 1997, the State Board of Education reversed the determination of the Commissioner of Education approving the grant of a charter to the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School ("Charter School").

On April 1, 1997, the Charter School filed a motion with the State Board seeking a stay of our decision on an emergent basis. By decision of April 2, we denied that motion, finding that the application failed to meet the standards that would entitle the Charter School to relief.

6/4/97

On April 22, 1997, the Charter School filed an appeal to the Appellate Division challenging our March 26 determination and seeking emergent relief from the Court in the form of a stay or accelerated review. On May 1, 1997, the Appellate Division denied the Charter School's application for emergent relief.

On May 15, 1997, the Charter School withdrew its appeal to the Appellate Division, and on May 16 filed the instant motion with the State Board seeking reconsideration of our March 26 determination.[1] In response, the Highland Park Board has moved for dismissal of the Charter School's motion for reconsideration.

It is well settled that an administrative agency has the inherent power, in the absence of legislative restriction, to reopen or modify a previous determination. Duvin v. State, 76 N.J. 203, 207 (1978). Such power, however, must be exercised reasonably and invoked only for good cause shown. Id.

After a careful review of the papers filed in this matter, we deny the Charter School's motion. As set forth in our written decision issued on April 2, our determination was based on the terms of the applicable statutes because we had not yet adopted regulations implementing those statutes. As detailed in our decision, we found that the Charter School's application failed to meet minimal statutory standards even considering the addenda which the Charter School had provided to the Commissioner. The Charter School has not provided any new information in support of the instant motion which would give us cause to revisit that determination, and we therefore deny the motion. Given our disposition of this motion, we need not consider Highland Park's counter-motion to dismiss.

[1] Although the Charter School captioned its motion as "a motion for relief from judgment," the relief it is seeking is reconsideration.

S. David Brandt and Daniel J. P. Moroney abstained.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

(SB) 21-97

SB #21-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE GRANT OF	:
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE GREATER BRUNSWICK	:	DECISION ON MOTION
REGIONAL CHARTER SCHOOL,	:
MIDDLESEX COUNTY.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 31, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, March 26, 1997

For the Appellant Highland Park Board of Education, Apruzzese, McDermott, Mastro & Murphy (James L. Plosia, Jr., Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, Andrew C. Fisk, pro se

For the Milltown Board of Education, Borrus, Goldin, Foley, Vignuolo, Hyman & Stahl (Anthony B. Vignuolo, Esq., of Counsel)

Inasmuch as the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School's application fails to meet the standards that would entitle it to relief under Crowe v. De Gioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), we deny the motion for a stay.

S. David Brandt, Anne S. Dillman, Daniel J. P. Moroney and Corinne M. Mullen opposed.

April 2, 1997

Date of mailing APR 02 1997

(SB) 21-97

SB #21-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE GRANT OF	:
THE CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATION	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE GREATER BRUNSWICK	:	DECISION
REGIONAL CHARTER SCHOOL,	:
MIDDLESEX COUNTY.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 31, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, March 4, 1997

For the Appellant Highland Park Board of Education, Apruzzese, McDermott, Mastro & Murphy (James L. Plosia, Jr., Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, Andrew C. Fisk, pro se

For the Milltown Board of Education, Borrus, Goldin, Foley, Vignuolo, Hyman & Stahl (Anthony B. Vignuolo, Esq., of Counsel)

By letter dated January 31, 1997, the Commissioner of Education notified the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School ("Charter School") that he was approving its application for establishment of a charter school for the 1997-98 academic year, contingent on receipt of outstanding documentation which had not been included in its application.[1] In a statement of reasons dated February 27, 1997, the Commissioner stressed that the following strengths had contributed to his approval of the application:

[1] The enclosed list required the following documentation: Certificate of Occupancy, Annual Fire Inspection Certificate, Health Inspection Certificate, By-laws, Contracts, Certificate of Incorporation. The record does not include any indication of the date by which the documentation was to be provided or make any provision for review and evaluation of these submissions.

4/2/97

the mission defined by the broad theme of child-directed learning, a high degree of parental and community involvement, and educational goals encompassing intellectual development, socio-economic growth, community relationships and civic responsibility.

On February 25, 1997, the Highland Park Board of Education challenged the Commissioner's determination by filing a notice of appeal to the State Board as provided in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). On March 3, 1997, Andrew C. Fisk filed a motion to dismiss the appeal and for emergency relief on behalf of the Charter School. By letter decision, the State Board denied the motion on March 4. On March 5, the Highland Park Board filed arguments in support of its appeal. On March 7, the Milltown Board of Education filed a motion to intervene and arguments in support of the appeal. On March 10, Mr. Fisk filed a response on behalf of the Charter School, and a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner filed an application to participate and a brief in response to the arguments supporting the appeal. On March 19, the Highland Park Board filed additional arguments in support of its appeal. On March 20, the Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner and the Charter School filed additional arguments in response. On March 21, the New Brunswick Board filed a motion to participate and arguments in support of its position.

In view of the importance of the issues raised by these appeals and the extremely stringent time limit under which the Legislature has required us to decide appeals of this type, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), we have determined to consider all of the documents that have been filed in this matter. In addition, we have reviewed the record provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner.

After careful consideration of this matter under the terms of the pertinent statutes and for the reasons that follow, we are compelled to reverse the Commissioner's determination to approve the grant of a charter to the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School for the 1997-98 school year.

In enacting the Charter School Program Act of 1995 ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the Legislature found that charter schools could assist educational reform and improve student achievement by providing a variety of educational approaches which might not be available in the traditional public school classroom. In order to encourage the establishment of such schools, the Act directs the Commissioner to establish a program for the approval and granting of charters pursuant to the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3. It also delineates the procedure for establishing a charter school and establishes criteria for eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4.

In addition, the Act mandates the specific information which must be included in an application for a charter school. That information, which is expressly enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, includes: 1) identification of the charter applicant, 2) the name of the proposed charter school, 3) the proposed governance structure of the school, including a list of the proposed members of the board of trustees or a description of their qualifications and method of appointment or election, 4) the school's educational goals, the curriculum to be offered and the methods of assessing whether students are meeting educational goals, 5) the admission policy and criteria for evaluating the admission of students, 6) the age or grade range of students to be enrolled, 7) the school calendar and school day schedule, 8) a description of the charter school staff responsibilities and proposed qualifications, 9) a description of procedures to ensure parental involvement, 10) a description of and address for the physical facility in which the school will be located, 11) information on how community groups will be involved in the planning process, 12) the financial plan for the school and provisions for auditing, 13) a description of and justification for any waivers of regulations which the school will request, and 14) such other information as the Commissioner may require.

The application, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, must be submitted to the Commissioner and the local board for review in the school year preceding that in which the charter school will be established. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The district board has 60 days from receipt of the application to forward a recommendation thereon to the Commissioner. Id. The Commissioner has the final authority to grant or reject a charter application, id, but a district board or a charter school applicant may appeal his decision to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d). As previously indicated, the legislation requires the State Board to render a decision within 30 days of receipt of the appeal. Finally, a charter school may not have an enrollment in excess of 500 students or greater than 25% of the student body "of the school district in which the charter school is established," whichever is less. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(e).

Initially, we reject the contention that the Commissioner did not have the authority to approve a charter school application in the absence of the adoption of implementing regulations by the State Board of Education. However, in the absence of regulations, we must consider the appropriateness of the Commissioner's approval in this case solely under the terms of the pertinent statute.

The record indicates that the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School filed a "Preliminary Application" on August 29, 1996. The record includes four checklists noting a lack of student focus, a lack of measurable goals and objectives, and the fact that no financial plan had been submitted. The Department provided a "Preliminary Review Feedback" to the Charter School in September 1996, indicating that Part I of the application was incomplete in that projected enrollment, location and founders were required. The preliminary feedback also indicated that the application was inadequate in the following areas: educational mission, goals and objectives, founders and partnerships, governance structure, educational program, student assessment, admission policy and criteria, student discipline, at-risk and disabled students, school staff, community involvement, facility, financial plan and transportation.

On October 15, 1996, the Charter School submitted its "Final Application." The record indicates that it was assessed by two reviewers. The first reviewer identified the following areas as inadequate: academic and non-academic goals and objectives, no identification of the school district in which the school would be located, a board of trustees had not been chosen, partnerships to enhance student achievement, the admission process, including a plan to attract students, and foster diversity, student discipline and expulsion policy, at-risk and disabled students, proposed qualifications for teachers and certificates, facility, financial plan and transportation. The first reviewer also questioned whether there was a well rounded group of founders and whether this was a valid application in that the proposal involved multiple school districts.

The second reviewer rated the following areas as inadequate: identification of schools where the children of the parent founders attended, partnerships, whether there was a well-rounded group of founders, information on trustees and how the board would be chosen, admission policy and criteria, student discipline and expulsion policy, no facility, financial plan, and transportation. The second reviewer commented that the application needed revisions and that there should be a careful review for compliance with the charter law because the Charter School was not associated with any one school district.

A separate budget review found that the overall financial plan was inadequate, that resident and non-resident enrollment projections were needed, and that the school districts involved had not been identified. The budget reviewer commented that it was necessary for the applicant to identify a district of residence for the school and to provide a cash flow analysis.

A tally sheet dated November 7, 1996 summarized the following areas as inadequate: description of founders, admission policy and criteria, financial plan, transportation, and documentation. There was also a note on the tally sheet questioning whether this was a valid application. In addition, the tally sheet included the comment that the revisions that had been submitted still did not address the financial concerns, that there was no cash flow analysis, and that the applicant had not designated a district of residence. Nonetheless, a recommendation was made to approve the application conditional on receipt of necessary documentation and further revisions.

The Charter School was provided with a "Final Review Feedback" form by the Department on November 26, 1996 and permitted to revise its application by the submission of addenda.[2]

During November, the Charter School submitted additional material, including an endorsement letter from the Urban Ecology Program at Rutgers. Additionally, the record includes a letter from the Charter School dated November 3, 1996 indicating that it had decided to revise its enrollment distribution from K through 4 to K through 6.

On December 5, the Charter School submitted an "Addendum Application." The "Addendum Application" included a revised financial plan and introduced the term "region of residence," noting that it was doing so "in light of the AG's ruling." On December 6, the Charter School submitted a "programmatic addendum to final application" addressing curriculum delivery for grades 7 through 9.[3]

Although the record does not include an assessment of the December 5 "Addendum Application," the Charter School submitted another addendum to the financial plan at the request of the Department on December 17, 1996. This submission includes revenue projections on the basis of a projected first year enrollment of 100 students in grades K through 6. Additionally, while the Charter School identified four districts in its submission from it had determined its projected enrollment, it stated in the same document that it planned to appeal to the

[2] We note that none of the charter school applications on appeal to the State Board which were rejected by the Commissioner were provided with a "Final Review Feedback" by the Department or given the opportunity to amend their applications.

[3] We note that the Charter School indicated in its application that it intended to add a new grade to the school each year.

Commissioner "to require the resident school district (New Brunswick) to provide the full 100% of the T&E amount for each student."

In a letter to the Commissioner dated December 12, the Milltown Board raised nineteen questions relating to approval of the Charter School. On December 13, the Highland Park Board indicated that it could not recommend approval without answers to the questions it raised. On December 13, the Edison Board indicated that it had voted not to endorse the application, noting the "unclear relationship between the Red Oak Charter School and the Federalist Center" as one of the reasons. On November 19, the New Brunswick Board indicated that it supported the concept of the school, but was concerned about the financial impact.

As set forth above, the Commissioner approved the grant of a charter on January 31, 1997.

As a preliminary matter, we observe that the "Final Application" submitted by the Charter School on October 15, as embodied in the reviews, did not include adequate educational goals, did not provide adequate methods of assessing student performance or curriculum, or provide an adequate description of staff responsibilities. In addition, the financial plan was found to be inadequate. In our view, that "Final Application" did not satisfy the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5. For example, the application did not include a proposed governance structure. Nor is there any indication that the applicant provided any description or address for a physical facility, and there was no school calendar or school day schedule. These deficiencies are not de minimis. To the contrary, without the information required by the statute, and as evidenced by the Department's continuing requests for revisions and corrections, an adequate assessment of the Charter School's proposal could not be made.

Even if we consider the addenda provided by the Charter School, the application still fails to meet minimal statutory standards. For example, nowhere in the record is there any "description of, and address for, the physical facility in which the charter school will be located," as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5(j). Without such information, it is impossible to assess with any confidence the sufficiency of the Charter School's financial plan. Moreover, the applicant has never even identified the district in which the Charter School would be located. Nor can it be determined without such information whether the school would be situated in a "suitable location," as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-10.

These failures are not minor. Without the information required by the statute, it is impossible to insure that the Charter School's financial plan is adequate or to assess the impact on the district boards involved in this appeal. Moreover, without a district of residence, the statute cannot be properly implemented, and the statute does not make any provision for establishing a multi-district charter school. In this respect, we cannot ignore that the enrollment limitation of N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(e) is determined by the student body "of the school district in which the charter school is established." Similarly, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-8 provides that "[p]reference for enrollment in a charter school shall be given to students who reside in the school district in which the charter school is located," and, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-13, students who reside "in the school district in which the charter school is located" must be provided transportation on the same terms as students attending the district's schools, while any entitlement of non-resident students is to be determined by regulations.

Under these circumstances, and given the fact that the record provided to us does not include any final or comprehensive evaluation of the Charter School's submissions to date, we cannot affirm the Commissioner's grant of the charter at this time. In reaching this conclusion, we have been mindful of our responsibilities for assuring that the children attending charter schools, as well as those in the affected public school districts, are provided with a constitutionally adequate education. E.g., Robinson v. Cahill, 62 N.J. 473 (1973). See N.J.S.A. 18A:4-10. We would not be discharging those responsibilities in this case if we were to affirm the grant of the charter on the basis of the record before us. Nor would we be furthering the purpose of the Charter School Program Act by approving this grant. However, we stress that our determination herein is limited to the 1997-98 school year and is without prejudice to the Charter School's ability to apply for a charter for any subsequent school year.

Robert A. Woodruff, Maud Dahme, Jean Alexander, Margaret M. Bennett, Ronald K. Butcher, Wendel E. Daniels and Thomas P. McGough join in the opinion of the State Board.

March 26, 1997

Date of mailing APR 03 1997

Anne S. Dillman, S. David Brandt, Orlando Edriera, Daniel P. Moroney, and Corinne M. Mullen dissenting:

On Wednesday, March 26, 1997, the State Board of Education voted 7-5 to reject its Legal Committee's recommendation to affirm the Commissioner of Education's approval of the Greater Brunswick Regional Charter School. The board also rejected by a vote of 6-5-1 its Legal Committee's recommendation to affirm the Commissioner's approval of the Red Bank Charter School.

We the undersigned board members wish to file this dissenting opinion because the State Board had less than one day to consider the written recommendations of the Legal Committee, and the reasons offered by board members for rejecting both the recommendations of its legal Committee and the Commissioner's decisions are factually erroneous and legally infirm.

The Charter School statute (N.J.S.A. 18A:36A) adopted on December 11, 1995, and signed into law by Governor Whitman on January 11, 1996, clearly intended that charter schools would be implemented in or before the 1997-98 school year. In this regard, the statute authorizes the Commissioner of Education to establish charter schools "...during the 48 months following the effective date of this act (8A:36A-3b)," and it states that "that this act shall take effect immediately (18A:36A-l9)."

It is also clear that the authors of the statute intended that the Commissioner of Education's judgment would be the ultimate criterion for approving or disapproving the applications of individual charter schools. The statute states at 18A:36A-3 that "A charter school shall be a public school operated under a charter granted by the Commissioner ..." and at 8A:36A-4(c), "The Commissioner shall have final authority to grant or reject a charter application."

Further, it is clear that the process used by the Commissioner in exercising this statutorily assigned responsibility was reasonable.

The following are our positions on the each of the major issues raised by board members to explain why they voted to reject the recommendation of the Legal Committee that the Commissioner's approval of the two schools be affirmed.

Application Booklet

It was indicated that the provisions in the Commissioner's charter schools application booklet were not identical to those in the statute. However, the provisions of any law as complex as the charter school statute require interpretation, and the Commissioner's method of developing such interpretations in carrying out his statutorily assigned responsibility to implement the charter school law was extraordinarily thorough.

The Commissioner developed and published a charter school application booklet (copy attached) in order to interpret specific provisions of the statute and to guide prospective charter school sponsors in the preparation of their applications. To begin this task, the Commissioner appointed a committee of Department of Education staff members, each of whom possesses expertise in a relevant area. The committee's membership included a former staff member of the State Assembly who assisted in writing that body's version of the law. The committee studied the statute and prepared an initial draft of the application booklet.

The Commissioner then met with the legislative authors of the statute, Senator John Ewing, and Assemblymen Joseph Doria and John Rocco, to review the initial draft that the committee had prepared. The purpose of this meeting was to assure that each interpretation contained in the application booklet was fully consistent with the provisions of the statute and with the underlying legislative intent. Several changes were made in the application booklet as a result of this meeting.

The Commissioner then shared the booklet with the major state education associations that had followed the progress of the legislation before its enactment, and he met with representatives of those associations to obtain their comments and suggestions. A nationally recognized expert on charter schools, who had also consulted during the preparation of the statute, was asked to review the booklet to identify any important issues that might have been overlooked. At the Commissioner's direction, Department of Education staff also shared the booklet with prospective charter school applicants to determine whether it communicated instructions clearly and would, therefore, elicit the proper information.

Through this process the application booklet was continually refined and then shared a final time with the legislative authors to assure the consistency of its interpretations with the literal provisions of the statute and the underlying legislative intent. The authors affirmed that the booklet was consistent with the statute in all aspects. A copy of the final booklet was forwarded to the sponsors upon its publication. (See attached letter dated June 26, 1996.) Further, State Board of Education members received a copy of the final application, as well, on the same date. Board members were informed that the booklet "...was developed with input from the legislative sponsors, major education associations, prospective charter school applicants, field representatives, and key department staff (see attached memo dated June 26, 1996).

Evaluation Process

It was indicated that the evaluation process was invalid because it applied different standards and procedures to different applications. It was stated that some charter school applicants had numerous opportunities to amend their applications while others did not. This conclusion is incorrect for the following reasons.

First, the statute specifically empowers the Commissioner to evaluate the charter school applications and it does not constrain the Commissioner with respect to the process that he may use in evaluating applications. Under those circumstances, the State Board would exceed its role if it were to substitute its evaluation preferences for those of the Commissioner.

Second, the process that the Commissioner chose to use is reasonable. In order to obtain approval in time to open in September 1997, prospective charter school applicants were required to submit their applications by October 15, 1997. However, the statute is clear in its intent that the state play more than a passive role of simply receiving and evaluating applications. The act states that "...the establishment of a charter school program is in the best interests of the students of this State and it is therefore the public policy of the State to encourage and facilitate the development of charter schools (18A:36A-2)."

To affect this public policy and to address the fact that the charter school initiative is new and innovative, a voluntary deadline of September 1, 1996 was set for any applicant who wanted to submit a draft application early in order to obtain the review and advice of those Department of Education staff who are responsible for providing technical assistance in the creation of charter schools.

The opportunity for voluntary early submission was equally available to all prospective applicants. Twenty-eight preliminary applications were submitted, including those of the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank Charter Schools. In each case, the department's technical assistance staff provided appropriate advice without the Commissioner's involvement. All applicants then had the opportunity to revise their plans before meeting the final submission date.

As stated above, the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank Charter School sponsors took advantage of the opportunity for assistance based on voluntary early submission, which was available to all prospective applicants, and like all others who did so, they were able to revise their plans accordingly before the final deadline for formal submission. Therefore, it is inaccurate to suggest that these applicants were somehow accorded an unfair advantage.

Following the first round of review of the thirty-seven applications submitted by October 15, 1996, eighteen were identified as demonstrating sufficient potential to be strong charter schools to warrant a second round of technical assistance. During this second round of technical assistance, all applicants submitted addenda upon the request of department reviewers. Eight of the eighteen applicants under consideration submitted three addenda, including the Red Bank and Greater Brunswick Regional Charter Schools.

The above notwithstanding, the matter before the board did not require a determination as to whether some charter school applicants were treated "more fairly" than other applicants. It is only to determine whether there was any violation of statute in the evaluation of the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank applications. Clearly there was not.

Incomplete Documentation

It was indicated that the two applicants had been granted charters without submitting all of the documentation required by the statute. In particular, they did not identify the location of their facilities.

During the development of the application booklet, it was determined that certain documentation could not be obtained by the applicants until they received their charters from the Commissioner. In particular, while the statute requires applicants to provide the addresses of their facilities, charter schools would be unable to contract for facilities until they were approved to exist.

This would place the applicants in a "catch-22" situation of simultaneously being unable to obtain documents until they were approved to exist and being unable to obtain approval without submitting the documents. Therefore, the process was designed to base evaluation and approval on the quality of each applicant's substantive educational and financial plans, and to grant such approval contingent on the submission of any outstanding documentation prior to implementation.

This method of addressing the submission of certain documentation was established at the outset after discussion with the legislative sponsors, and it was communicated clearly and consistently throughout the process. The application booklet states on page 5 that, "Commissioner's approval can be conditional in instances such as if the applicant has yet to acquire facilities or to provide documentation of teachers yet to be hired." On page 20 of the charter schools application in the section which specifies required information regarding facilities it states, "If you do not have a facility, describe your present options for designating a school facility." Further, the letter of approval given to each applicant states "When the approval of charter schools for 1997-98 was announced on January 14, 1997, that approval was contingent upon receipt of outstanding documentation not included in your application. A list of this required documentation is enclosed." (See attached copy of letter dated January 31, 1997.) In the section of the application which deals with Questions and Answers, the following question is raised (page 5 of Appendix C): "Can a charter school be approved if a facility has not yet been acquired?" The answer provided: "Yes. The charter would be granted conditionally on the basis that the school would be housed in an approved facility." Finally, the charter certificate states on its face that "Approval is contingent upon receipt of the necessary documentation listed in Section 19 of the New Jersey Charter Schools Application."

"Region of Residence"

It was stated that because the Greater Brunswick Charter School is designed to serve a region that encompasses four school districts, it is ineligible for approval since the statute does not specifically provide for the creation of multi-district charter schools. To address this lack of clarity, the Commissioner, exercising his statutorily assigned responsibility to implement the law, defined the "region of residence" of students to be served by a charter school to include contiguous district boards of education as well as single district boards. This definition was developed in consultation with counsel, and it was presented to the legislative authors of the statute to determine its consistency with legislative intent. The definition was applied consistently in the review of the current applications, and it was incorporated in regulations that the Commissioner has proposed that the State Board adopt to guide consideration of applications in future years.

Enrollment

It was argued that the Red Bank Charter School application should not have been approved because the Red Bank School District's enrollment is too small to absorb the loss of students who would enroll in the charter school. This argument is statutorily erroneous since, as approved, the Red Bank Charter School's maximum enrollment is well within the limits imposed by the statute.

Regulations

It was argued that in the absence of regulations approved by the State Board, the Commissioner was bound to adhere to the literal language of the statute. However, the statute does not preclude the Commissioner from interpreting or implementing its provisions until after the enactment of rules. In addition, the Commissioner exercised his authority to do so only after consulting with the authors of the statute to verify legislative intent.

For these reasons, we the undersigned members of the State Board of Education hereby advance the dissenting opinion that the Commissioner of Education's approval of the Greater Brunswick and Red Bank Charter Schools was consistent with the literal provisions of the statute and based on reasonable interpretations of statutory language that were affirmed by the authors of the legislation.

Perhaps more importantly, charter schools are an important innovation that has the potential to provide the children they serve with an improved education, as well as the potential to stimulate improvements in the broader system of public education. As the statute states, "...the establishment of a charter school program is in the best interests of the students of this State and it is therefore the public policy of the State to encourage and facilitate the development of charter schools (18A:36A-2)." At the very heart of the charter school initiative is the concept of flexibility in implementation. Further, by authorizing the creation of charter schools over an initial four-year period, the statute recognizes that the initiative is an exploration, one which is intended through flexible implementation to generate refinements over time.

Given the educational significance of the initiative and the fact that it is intended to be a flexible exploration, we believe that it is inappropriate to block implementation of the new charter school initiative without clear and compelling evidence of a major impropriety or a blatant and direct violation of statute.

April 2, 1997

Date of mailing APR 0 2 1997

22-97

22-97

WILLIAM J. SKOWRONSKI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 16, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8801-94
AGENCY DKT. NO. 266-6/94

WILLIAM J. SKOWRONSKI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 16, 1997

23-97

BARRE & CANNONE, C.P.A.'S,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

JANUARY 16, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3491-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 52-3/95

BARRE & CANNONE, C.P.A.'S,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 16, 1997
DATGE OF MAILING JANUARY 16, 1997

24-97

24-97

BENJAMIN H. SOOY, III, :

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DONALD LEVY, PRESIDENT AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MAINLAND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, ATLANTIC COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENTS. :

:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board member alleged the Board violated its own bylaws by failing to hold an agenda meeting in January 1996, prior to its regular monthly meeting.

ALJ found that the Board met its statutory duty on January 16, 1996, date of regularly scheduled meeting; that the Board complied with the statutory provisions of the Open Public Meetings Act; that the Board reasonably canceled its agenda meeting scheduled prior to its regularly scheduled meeting due to inclement weather which would have been hazardous to attendees. There is no statutory mandate which requires the Board to conduct an agenda meeting prior to its regular monthly meeting. N.J.S.A. 10:4-18. Thus, the ALJ concluded that the Board did not violate its bylaws when it canceled its agenda meeting prior to it s regular meeting. Summary decision was entered on behalf of the Board; the petition was dismissed.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's determination that the Board acted within its bounds in conducting its January 16 regular meeting, absent a regularly scheduled agenda meeting. Even had the Commissioner found violation of the bylaws, such violation would have been de minimis in that the Board's actions did not cause harm to the public, to any particular individual, or to Board members, nor did they contravene, directly or indirectly, any existing statute.

January 17, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4548-96

AGENCY REF. NO. 90-3/96

BENJAMIN H. SOOY, III,

Petitioner,

v.

DONALD LEVY, PRESIDENT AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MAINLAND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, ATLANTIC COUNTY,

Respondent.

Benjamin H. Sooy, III, petitioner, pro se

Louis J. Greco, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: November 27, 1996 Decided: December 3, 1996

BEFORE LILLARD E. LAW, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, a member of the Board of Education of the Mainland Regional High School District (Board), alleges that the Board violated its own bylaws when it failed to hold an agenda meeting in January 1996, prior to its regular monthly meeting.

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A prehearing conference was held on August 21, 1996, at which, among other things, the issues to be determined by this tribunal were agreed upon by the parties and a hearing date was scheduled for February 27, 1997. The respondent Board was granted leave to propound and serve its Notice of Motion to Dismiss or, in the alternative, for Summary Decision pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5.

The parties submitted their respective briefs of law with other documents and the record closed on November 27, 1996.

ISSUES

The issues to be determined by this tribunal, as agreed to by the parties, are these:

1. Whether the Board violated its own bylaws by not holding an agenda meeting in January 1996, prior to the regular monthly meeting?

2. Whether the Board has the legal powers to waive its bylaws?

MOTION FOR SUMMARY DECISION

The parties agree that there are no genuine issues to material facts in this matter. I FIND and CONCLUDE, therefore, that the instant matter meets the criteria for summary judgment as established by our Supreme Court in Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co.of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1957).

THE BOARD'S POSITION

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This is a petition of appeal filed by a Board member of the Mainland Regional High School District Board of Education alleging numerous facts and legal conclusions set forth in seven "Counts." While the petition names only the Board President as respondent, this motion is being submitted as if the Board was named respondent. We hereby also consents to the court's sua sponte amendment of the proceedings to include the Board as respondent, if deemed appropriate.

In that the counts include a mix of both factual and legal statements, and are somewhat overlapping, they are summarized as set forth below.

Petitioner's argument is bottomed on his misinterpretation of Board Policy 9321 which petitioner erroneously believes to be mandatory in requiring that the Board can conduct a regular business meeting only after it has first conducted an "agenda meeting" one week prior to the regular business meeting. Assuming petitioner's conclusion to be accurate, he argues that the Board's waiver of this supposed "requirement" renders its activities at a January 16 regular meeting which was not preceded by an agenda meeting to be nugatory. Petitioner argues that he was deprived of his opportunity to research, he was possibly deprived of available confidential information, he was deprived of an "opportunity to reflect," he was misled, and "last minute items" were added to the agenda.

While in the petition of appeal petitioner asks whether a Board can waive a bylaw when it has no provision in its bylaws to waive a bylaw, at the time of the prehearing conference and in the pretrial order the single issue now sought to be litigated by petitioner is "whether the Board violated its own bylaws by not holding an agenda meeting in January, 1996, prior to the regular monthly meeting?"

The matter now comes before the court on a motion to dismiss, or in the alternative, a motion for summary judgment in that there appear to be no material facts in dispute. The only item in dispute appears to be petitioner's legal conclusion in interpreting the bylaw in question.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The relevant and significant factual history of the dispute is set forth in detail in two affidavits filed with the court in support of the motion:

First, the affidavit of the Business Administrator/Board Secretary, Charles Muller, and second, the affidavit of Donald Levy, President of the respondent Board. A brief summary of these facts is as follows:

In January of 1996 the Mainland Regional High School District had a Board policy in effect (9321) which provided at that time in relevant part as follows:

"4. Agenda Meetings: Agenda meetings shall be held on the Monday before the Board's regular monthly business meeting and shall commence not later that 8:00 p.m."

Petitioner has interpreted this language to mean that unless this agenda meeting is held one week prior to the regular meeting then the Board is powerless thereafter to conduct a regular meeting on the third Monday of the month which was also provided for in the same bylaw.

On January 8, 1996, when the agenda meeting was originally scheduled, there was a severe storm which rendered travel unsafe and resulted in the agenda meeting being canceled.

During the week between the canceled agenda meeting and the regular meeting petitioner Sooy took it upon himself to advise the Board President that the Board could not proceed with its regular meeting on the following Monday because the agenda meeting had been canceled, and, in accordance with petitioner's interpretation of the pertinent bylaw, the Board simply could not conduct business without first holding an agenda meeting. This declaration caused the Board President to contact the school district solicitor who issued an opinion to the Board that it could waive its bylaw unless someone's property interest was implicated.

Prior to the agenda meeting and again prior to the regular meeting comprehensive written agenda and materials were distributed to each board member, including petitioner, in accordance with the district's normal business practices.

On January 6th the beginning portion of the meeting was spent discussing petitioner's interpretation of the applicable bylaw and whether or not the board meeting should proceed. It was argued by other Board members that because the regular meeting of January 16 had been properly advertised in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act that the Board should proceed with the regular meeting and in fact the Board by a vote of six to three adopted a Resolution as follows:

> Motion that this meeting is a regular business meeting as advertised and be treated as such.

In addition, the Board President recited as a part of this threshold decision that should there be an issue in that night's agenda needing more discussion or reviewing it could be deferred until another meeting or to the February meeting, which in fact occurred on a couple of items as explained in the detailed affidavits furnished to the court.

Of interesting note is that the only matter decided upon by the Board at the January 16 meeting which arose to the level of policy making included a second reading on a civil rights policy which was introduced and moved by petitioner, without a request for its deferral, and it was adopted unanimously by the Board. Also interesting to note, is that petitioner fully participated in the meeting, cast votes on all items presented, and did not ask for any of the items acted upon by the Board to be deferred to another meeting for further reflection, research, or the accumulation of confidential materials.

Thereafter, the minutes of January 16 meeting were approved by all Board members, including petitioner, at the Board's meeting of March 18, 1996. At that time, no request was made by any Board member, including petitioner, that any item approved in the minutes of the January 16 meeting be made the subject of further Board study, reconsideration, or other further inquiry.

An examination of the affidavits and minutes of the January 16 meeting will indicate that all items acted upon by the Board were matters of routine business, and no item rose to the level of such import as to implicate either harm to the public or to the rights of any particular individual.

The court's attention is further invited to the Bylaw 9321(4) text where it discusses the purpose of the agenda meeting to be:

"... The purpose of the agenda meeting is to:

A. Construct the Board's monthly business meeting agenda based on the Board committee's recommendations.

B. Provide Board members with information related to each proposed motion or resolution.

C. Provide the Board with an executive session, before the monthly business meeting, so Board members can be advised of all confidential matters that require Board action.

D. Provide the Board with an opportunity to inquire, deliberate, and debate school affairs, whether related to an agenda item or not ..."

The intent of the agenda meeting is solely for the benefit of Board member information and is not intended to be a vehicle of advance public notice as petitioner argues in the petition. By their vote of six to three to proceed with business the Board effectively acknowledged that they had sufficient information on which to proceed and did not need an agenda meeting.

LEGAL ARGUMENTS

POINT I. PETITIONER HAS MISINTERPRETED BYLAW 9321. AN "AGENDA MEETING" IS NOT MANDATORY IN ORDER TO CONDUCT BUSINESS AT A REGULAR MEETING.

Petitioner's entire legal and procedural argument is bottomed on his erroneous interpretation of the bylaw in question. The bylaw in its full text is attached to the affidavit of Charles Muller furnished to the court in support of this motion. In particular, Section 2 of the Bylaw provides for the scheduling of regular meetings of the Board on the third Monday of each month, while Section 4 provides for the scheduling of agenda meetings on the preceding Monday of each month.[1] As also pointed out in the affidavit of Charles Muller, the January 16, 1996, meeting of the Board was duly included in the annual meeting Resolution which the Board had adopted at its annual re-organization meeting in April of 1996, and, as such, the scheduling of the meeting fully complied with all requirements of the Open Public Meetings Act. According to statute, this annual notice, by itself, predicated the Board's power to act upon any items brought before the Board without regard to whether or not they had been included in any previously published agenda document or had been discussed at a prior meeting. See, N.J.S.A. 10:4-18.

Focusing on Section 4 of the policy, which states that "agenda meetings shall be held on the Monday before the Board's regular monthly business meeting ...." the petitioner concludes that such language makes the conduct of an agenda meeting absolutely mandatory to the extent that it would limit the Board's power to conduct a regular business meeting which otherwise complied in all respects with all the requirements of statutory law in order to enable the Board to conduct that meeting. Specifically, petitioner's reasoning would require the court to find that a Board can impose upon itself further limitations prior to conducting a business meeting which are not provided for in the State's Open Public Meetings Act. Such a conclusion flies in the face of all applicable statutory and case law as will be further amplified under other sections of this brief.

[1] Note that the provision for a regular meeting makes no mention of the agenda meeting and does not establish the agenda meeting to be a prerequisite to holding the regular meeting as petitioner argues.

POINT II. THE JANUARY 16, 1996, MEETING OF THE MAINLAND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION COMPLIED IN ALL RESPECTS WITH ALL STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS NECESSARY TO ENABLE THE BOARD TO TAKE ACTION AT A REGULAR BUSINESS MEETING.

Local Public Entities such as a Board are governed by a myriad of statutory provisions, including the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-7, et seq. The Act includes a comprehensive set of rules which a local entity must follow in conducting its business, including a specific delineation of all notices required by the statute as a predicate for the conduct of business. In all respects, the meeting in question held by the respondent Board on January 16, 1996, was in full compliance with these statutory requirements. The regular meeting was also in full compliance with Section 2 of the Board Bylaw 9321 which is the only portion of the bylaw addressing the subject of the regular meeting.

Specifically, as reflected in the affidavit of Charles Muller, Business Administrator for the District, the January 16, 1996, meeting was included as a regular meeting in the annual meeting authorization Resolution adopted by the Board at its 1996 re-organization meeting held on April 24, 1996. This being so, in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act requirement at N.J.S.A. 10:4-18, virtually all statutory requirements necessary in order to enable the local entity to conduct any business which it had legal authority to conduct on January 16, 1996, had been fully complied with and thus empowered the Board to take such action at that meeting, independent of any bylaw which might state otherwise (which it does not). The applicable case law cited in the next section of this brief makes it clear that local public entities can not impose upon itself restrictions against doing business which are in contravention of any applicable statutory rules set forth by the State legislature. Even if you were to accept the petitioner's argument that holding an agenda meeting is "mandatory," you nonetheless would have to conclude that the mandatory nature of the bylaw would not be enforceable because it constitutes an attempt by the local entity to further restrict statutory rules that have been enunciated by the state legislature.

It is interesting to note when examining the minutes of the meeting together with the affidavit of Board President Levy that it as the compliance with the Open Public Meetings Act regular meetings requirements that was argued by several Board members in support of the Board's decision to proceed with regular business independent of petitioner's overly restrictive reading of the bylaw in question.

POINT III. ASSUMING AN AGENDA MEETING IS MANDATED BY THE LOCALLY ADOPTED BYLAW, IT CAN NONETHELESS BE WAIVED SINCE FAILURE TO FOLLOW THE BYLAW DID NOT RESULT IN HARM TO THE PUBLIC OR TO THE RIGHTS OF A PARTICULAR INDIVIDUAL.

In the petition of appeal and in other pieces of correspondence and memoranda generated by petitioner since the filing of his appeal, petitioner cites dicta from two cases on the concept of whether or not a public body can waive its bylaws. The dicta cited simply is not interpretive of the substance of either decision, and, in any event, even if the dicta were a substantive part of the decision, it has been substantively overridden by New Jersey case law as will be further discussed below.

The first case on which petitioner relies is Eggers v. Newark, 77 N.J.L. 198 (S. Ct. 1908). The Eggers decision discusses a Board of Water Commissioners bylaw requiring that ordinances be read at two regular meetings before adoption. The Court held that the Board could not waive the bylaw because of its obvious intent to give notice to the public. The facts of Eggers are far afield of those now before the court.

The second case which the petitioner cites in his petition is a Wisconsin decision titled Walters' Appeal (Endeavor-Oxford Union Free High School District v. Walters'), 270 WIS 561, 72 N.W. 2d. 535 (1955). The substance of the Walters' decision discusses what the quorum would be to conduct a valid vote by a local public entity in existence in the State of Wisconsin in 1955. The substance of the case did not touch any of the issues raised by petitioner in the matter now before the court. Dicta in the Walters' case discussed a bylaw that required action by a public entity to be considered at two regular meetings, however, there is no such bylaw in issue in the case now before the court.

While both Eggers and Walters' might be interesting reading for somebody doing exhaustive research on the development of the application of rules of procedure to public bodies in the United States, neither one of these decisions holds any current import in the State of New Jersey, and in fact, the applicable legal concepts for local Boards in the State of New Jersey has been specifically overridden by subsequent New Jersey case law, cited below.

The Commissioner of Education and the State Board of Education of the State of New Jersey have for many years affirmed that a local Board is not bound by its bylaws and may alter them and/or waive them as it deems necessary or appropriate to the conduct of its statutorily authorized business up to and including minor modifications to this rule in 1991.

Specifically, the following decisions are reflective of the basic rule applied by the State Board of Education: Greenway v. Camden Bd.of Ed., 1939-49 S.L.D. 151, aff'd State Board 1939-49, S.L.D. 155, aff'd 129 N.J.L. 46 (S. Ct. 1942), aff'd 129 N.J.L. 461 (Errors and Appeals 19943); In the Matter of Potkay, 79 S.L.D. 29 (Nov. 1979); Belmont, 1980 S.L.D. 30 (Dec. 1980); Blessing v. Board of Education of the Borough of Palisades Park and Frank Pallotta, 1974 S.L.D. 1133, 1136.

This rule has been universally applied by the Commissioner of Education and the State Board of Education, without substantive modification until 1991 when a matter raised the viability of this rule subsequent to a 1988 Appellate Division decision placing some substantive limitations on the waiver of bylaws where public harm and individual rights might be implicated.

In the Matter of Matawan Regional Teachers' Association v. Matawan-Aberdeen Regional School District, 223 N.J. Super. 504 (A.D. 1988) the Appellate Division of New Jersey Superior Court decided a case which had arisen when a Board waived a bylaw that required that any item of local school district bylaw adoption would require a two thirds vote of the full board and must be conducted at two regular meetings. The Board in question had waived the bylaw and attempted to adopt a bylaw at only one meeting rather than two. Faced with this set of facts, the Appellate Division modified the bylaw waiver privileges of local public entities and found that, in the absence of any statute to the contrary, the Board's bylaw requiring two regular public meetings to adopt a bylaw was binding. It must be noted at this point that the respondent Mainland Regional High School District has no such bylaw. It is only petitioner's narrow view of Bylaw 9321 that has even raised the argument that any such status could be placed upon the "agenda" meeting contemplated in the Mainland Regional bylaw under review in this case.

The other portion of the Matawan decision that is of interest is the court's holding that where a subject is addressed in the enabling legislation governing a public entity, that the substance of such rules can not be further limited or changed by local public entity bylaw adoption. This portion of the Matawan case is consistent with prior New Jersey case law which is cited in the opinion. The court noted that a Board derives its authority to conduct its business from a number of statutes including 18A:11-1c and 18A:11-1d which provide that the Board can perform all acts and do all things "consistent with law ..." in the conduct of its business. For this reason, the court in Matawan found that a Board could not adopt an enforceable bylaw that required an enhanced vote of more than a majority of its legal quorum.

There are two substantive points to be made in applying Matawan to the present case, first: that it is only upon a finding of a specific bylaw touching a matter of significant public importance that the court can even begin to entertain the question of whether or not such a bylaw can be waived. In this case, the Mainland Board of Education had no such bylaw on its books requiring that items of general business be acted upon at two regular public meetings. It is only petitioner's self-serving and overly restrictive interpretation of the bylaw in question that even raises the argument. Secondly, Matawan tells us that a Board cannot adopt rules that are so restrictive that they limit the authority of the majority in accordance with legislative enactments that govern the manner of the conduct of public business. Specifically, petitioner's interpretation of the agenda meeting bylaw in question would have the Mainland Board placing upon itself restrictions that are not required under the Open Public Meetings Act. Such an interpretation of the Board's rule would render it unenforceable under this portion of the Matawan ruling.

In a 1991 decision of the State Department of Education the rules enunciated by the Appellate Division in Matawan were applied to the long standing rules providing that boards of education can waive bylaw. Specifically, In the Matter of Linda DiMare, et al v.Board of Education of Holmdel, decided March 25, 1991, Commissioner's decision on remand decided May 1, 1991, Matawan was interpreted in its application to boards of education conducting business in accordance with Title 18 and other applicable portions of New Jersey State Law. The Commissioner's decision on remand in DiMare notes that the holding of the Appellate Division in Matawan is limited only to bylaws that do not conflict "directly or indirectly" with any statue. Even if you assume that petitioner's interpretation of the bylaw as mandatory is accurate, we need go no further than to consider the Commissioner's interpretation of Matawan in this particular. To suggest that the requirement of an agenda meeting would render a board of education powerless to conduct its regular meeting advertised in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act would place restrictions in the bylaw upon the public body which limit its authorities under the Open Public Meetings Act. As such, petitioner's interpretation would have to fail under this aspect of the Matawan rule as applied by the Commissioner in DiMare.

In addition, however, it is interesting to note that the Commissioner's interpretation of Matawan and DiMare includes the conclusions that bylaws of a board of education can still be waived so long as the waiver did not result in harm either to the public interpretation of Matawan as applied by the Commissioner in DiMare is totally consistent with the legal opinion given to the respondent Board by the board solicitor which is attached to Mr. Levy's affidavit as Exhibit A. This interpretation is also totally consistent with the New Jersey School Boards Association view expressed in its sample bylaw on point, also attached to the Levy affidavit.

In applying the substantive rule of the Commissioner in DiMare to the actions taken by the Board at its January 16, 1996, meeting the court will note that all of the items acted upon by the Board were matters of routine school board business and none of them could even remotely be argued to have resulted in harm to the public or to the rights of a particular individual. In particular, it should also be noted to the court that the Board President specifically made provision to the board members, which is reflected in the minutes, that if any substantive items merited further reflection or a delay in taking action that they could easily be adjourned to a subsequent board meeting which was in fact done with at least two of the items before the Board at that time. A more clear effort on the part of the Board to comply with the substance of Matawan and DiMare could not be demonstrated.

The court should also note that the petitioner himself moved the only policy level decision made by the Board that evening which was a second reading of a policy to be adopted by the Board. It is difficult to fathom how petitioner could proceed with making his motion and voting on it favorably under circumstances which he truly believed at the time would render questionable the Board's action with respect to that policy. In any event, petitioner also proceeded to approve the minutes of the January 16, 1996, meeting as reflected in the March 18, 1996, vote on those minutes, which minutes are also supplied to the Court in Mr. Muller's affidavit.

Even if the court were to apply petitioner's arguments as enunciated, the case would now be nonetheless moot in that the points raised by petitioner in criticism of the Board's bylaws have now been clarified with amended bylaws which provide that the Board indeed may consider waiver of its bylaws and further making it clear that the holding of agenda meetings is not mandatory and may be waived. These new bylaws are attached to the affidavit of Mr. Muller at Exhibit D.

POINT IV. CONCLUSION

In sum, the petitioner of appeal should be dismissed by the court for any one of the following reasons: (1) Board Bylaw 9321, as it existed on January 16, 1996, did not make mandatory the holding of an agenda meeting prior to a regular meeting, and, even if it did, it would be in derogation of the Board's powers and authorities granted to it under the Open Public Meetings Act which was fully complied with by the Board and empowered it to proceed with the regular meeting business as scheduled. (2) Assuming the bylaw was mandatory, applying the reasoning of the Appellate Division in Matawan, supra., as interpreted by the Commissioner of Education in DiMare, supra., the Board substantively complied with all requirements of law in waiving the bylaw in that all actions taken by the Board at its meeting did not result in either harm to the public or to the rights of any particular individual. (3) Assuming that the bylaw was mandatory and that the Board did not comply with DiMare, since petitioner has not sought any substantive change to the actions taken by the Board in these proceedings the technical point of argument is now both moot and de minimis having been modified by the subsequent adoption of bylaw changes by the Board.

PETITIONER'S POSITION

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This is a petition placed before the New Jersey Commissioner of Education to decide if Mainland Regional High School (MRHS) Board of Education violated its bylaws when it did not hold an agenda meeting before January's 1996 regular public meeting, as directed in Bylaw #9321 titled, "Time, Place, Notification of Board Meetings." The petitioner is an elected member of the MRHS Board, Chairman of the Policy Committee, and Parliamentarian for said Board.

The respondent, Donald Levy, President of the Board, called the petitioner on January 11, the Thursday before the Monday meeting and stated that he was not going to have an agenda meeting at all because of a snow storm and just hold one meeting, the regular meeting, and asked for the petitioner's opinion, as Parliamentarian and Chairman of the Policy Committee, in this matter. It is the function of the Chairman of Policy Committee to oversee that Board bylaws, policy and regulations are followed. In addition, the petitioner, a professional parliamentarian and in, but not limited to, that capacity shall correctly interpret bylaws. After reviewing Bylaw 9321, the advice to the respondent was, that the bylaws required and agenda meeting one week before the regular meeting. The respondent asked if the bylaws can be suspended and the reply was "only if there is a clause allowing such action." In the MRHS Board's bylaws, there was no such provision. The respondent then was advised that if he wanted such a clause, the policy committee would work on it; but, it would have to be an amendment to the bylaws, which requires approval at two public readings. The respondent then agreed, stating that he would instruct the Business Administrator/Board Secretary to advertise the change and why. It was the understanding of the petitioner that the matter was closed. At the January 16, 1996 meeting it was announced that there would be no agenda and the Board would have only a regular meeting. A letter from the Board's attorney, who was absent that meeting, contained a legal opinion that in effect, bylaws (and rules) can be waived by a simple majority vote. The petitioner disagreed and stated that you cannot suspend bylaws unless there is a clause allowing such, and that this Board's bylaws did not have such a clause. Furthermore, the petitioner stated this would be a violation and the consequences from such a move. There was a motion made for only a regular meeting instead of an agenda meeting, discussion followed and the vote was six "yea's' to three "no's." It is noted that the petitioner was not alone in this position. At that time, the petitioner had no choice but to continue as if the meeting was legal and let the matter be decided by a higher level of authority. The petitioner filed a petition with the New Jersey Commissioner on March 8, 1996. The respondent failed to answer in the required 20 days as pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.4. On April 8, 1996, the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes sent another letter requiring a response by April 18, 1996, and the respondent again failed to comply. After the third notice, dated April 29, 1996, that if there was to be no response within ten days, the matter would be decided by a Summary Judgment, the respondent finally replied via the Board's attorney on May 2, 1996. However, on June 17th the petitioner approached the Board with a compromise by way of a Resolution to resolve the matter without creating any more expense to the taxpayers on a weak position. The Board turned down the purpose resolution.

At first the question placed before the Commissioner was "Can the Mainland Regional High School Board of Education suspend its Bylaws when there are no provisions in its Bylaws to do so?" The petitioner believes that the question of. "Whether the Board violated its own bylaw by not holding an agenda meeting in January, 1996, prior to the regular monthly meeting?" serves the same purpose. On September 30, the respondent's attorney had moved a Motion to Dismiss/Summary Judgment. This brief is the petitioner's opposition to the Motion to Dismiss/Summary Judgment.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The difficulty of this petition appears to center around the conflicting opinions between the expertise of the Board's attorney and the Board's Chairman of Policy/Parliamentarian. The instrument that created the problem is the January 16, 1996, letter of legal opinion that the attorney sent to the Board involving the ability to circumvent the bylaws of the Board and do what a majority of the Board wished. The petitioner had the opinion that the question placed to the Board attorney about the January meeting was not, "what is the right thing to do," but "how do we do what we want to do regardless."

The Board's attorney, (previously named as respondent's attorney, and whose opinion the Board is now defending) stated in the January 16th letter to the effect that Roberts Rules are notwithstanding when dealing with State statutes. To this the petitioner agrees. However, the attorney also mistakenly takes the position that bylaws, policy and regulations are subject to suspension by a mere majority vote. Where policy and regulations are subject to suspension; bylaws are not by virtue of their level of authority. This petition is not about Robert Rules, but bylaws that go back to England's Common Law which dates before Sir William Blackstone (1723-80). In modern times, court precedents have upheld the requirement that Boards of Education heed their bylaws. Bylaws are the law that the Board has contractually consented to bring upon themselves and the public has the right to expect them to follow their own agreement. Such a decision is in Eggers v. Newark, 77 N.J.L. 198 (Sup. Ct. 1908) the court stated that:

> ...if they (bylaws) can be rendered nugatory by the suspension of a mere rule of order, the bylaws are little more than a suggestion instead of being, as they should be, a set of regulations for the transaction of public business by a public body, on which regulations the public itself has a right to rely.

The Board attorney's opinion is in direct conflict with that court decision. The Board attorney also in the letter of January 16th keeps mixing bylaws and rules as if they are the same. Here is the major problem of his argument. His legal opinion would have been correct if he had stated in the January 16th letter, "...providing there is a clause in the bylaws allowing such suspension of the bylaws." However, if he did that, then it would have been clear that to suspend the bylaws without such a clause would have been illegal. It is also noted that if the Board's attorney was correct in his letter as it now stands, then there would have been no need for a bylaw change in August 1996, allowing the Board to suspend any part of the bylaws whenever five members of the Board feel a need to do so. The new amendment was passed at the recommendation of the Board's attorney which is going against his own legal opinion and in effect, supporting that of the petitioners.

Once more referring to the letter of January 16th, the Board's attorney states that Roberts Rules of Order "cannot be employed in such a way as to substantively modify statutory law, administration decision, or court decision." The petitioner agrees, but again, as stated previous, this petition is not about Roberts Rules procedure but a bylaw violation.

On paragraph four of the aforementioned letter, the Board's attorney once again refers to Roberts to support his opinion. The petitioner has made this point quite clear as to what the petition is about and it's not Robert's procedure but bylaws of the Board. Nothing would have interfered with the legal process previously agreed to by the Board to have two meetings in one month. Such is mentioned in Walters' Appeal (Endeavor-Oxford Union Free High School District v. Walters), 270 WIS 561, 72 N.W. 2d. 535 (1955).

> 2. By contrast, the bylaw requiring that action on non-emergent matters of policy be considered at two public meetings does not conflict directly or indirectly with any statute. Its purpose is not to remove the responsibility and authority to act from those members of a local board who are authorized by state law to act. Rather, its purpose is to assure that those having that responsibility and authority act only upon due deliberation after notice to the public and interested third parties. Our courts have long compelled public bodies to adhere to such bylaws.

The petitioner brings the court's attention to "public meetings" not "regular meetings" as the respondent's attorney refers to his Point III. Again the Board's attorney, in his argument, is in clear conflict of this court's decision.

The respondent's attorney invites the court's attention to Bylaw 9321(4) and discusses the purpose of the agenda meeting. What the attorney does not include is the two parts of the meeting open for comments from the public. At these two parts, the public may inquire about expenditures of their tax money, have time to research and return the following week with either more questions or suggestions as to how their money is being spent. Board members also use the agenda meeting to hear the public's point of view, which, in turn, may affect they way they vote. The agenda book is available to the public and all matters that can be discussed in public are there for their review. If the agenda meeting's sole purpose was just to inform the Board, there wouldn't be any place for public input. In general, the "Sunshine Law" does not guarantee input from the public, just their presence. The six to three vote the respondent's attorney refers to as "By their vote of 6-3 to proceed with business the Board effectively acknowledged that they had sufficient information on which to proceed and did not need an agenda meeting." This statement is incorrect. The attorney was not at this meeting, and with a vote of six to three obviously all the Board was not satisfied. The main factor in acquiring the majority vote was the Board attorney's letter of legal opinion. However, the Board attorney's opinion is only advisory and the final decision rests with the Board which, in fact, violated its bylaws.

RESPONSE TO LEGAL ARGUMENTS

POINT I. PETITIONER HAS MISINTERPRETED BYLAW 9321. AN "AGENDA" MEETING IS NOT MANDATORY IN ORDER TO CONDUCT BUSINESS AT A REGULAR MEETING

The respondent's attorney is confused in Point I because he has moved into an unfamiliar area to even the best attorneys, which is bylaws interpretation. The petitioner is a certified parliamentarian with experience of 20 years of writing, correcting, interpreting bylaws and advising numerous professional organizations, such as the New Jersey School Board Association. The bylaw statement to the agenda meeting is very clear as to what "shall" is, rather than "should" or "may." If this one point of the petitioner's opposition for dismissal is maintained, then Points II, III and IV of the respondent's attorney are moot.

Mr. Muller, MRHS Business Administrator, advertised after the April 1995 Organization Meeting that there would be an agenda meeting for January 1996. At no place is there any mention about canceling for weather. It is well understood, and agreed to, that the snow storm of January 1996 would stop any meeting scheduled for January 8. However, nothing prevented the MRHS Board from holding the agenda meeting, as had been the past practices, at another time; thus, giving those having the responsibility and authority to act only upon due deliberation after notice to the public and interested third parties. Such is mentioned for two public meetings in: Walters' Appeal (Endeavor-Oxford Union Free High School District v. Walters), 270 WIS 561, 72 N.W. 2d. 535 (1955).

> 2. By contrast, the bylaw requiring that action on non-emergent matters of policy be considered at two public meetings does not conflict directly or indirectly with any statute. Its purpose is not to remove the responsibility and authority to act from those members of a local board who are authorized by state law to act. Rather, its purpose is to assure that those having that responsibility and authority act only upon due deliberation after notice to the public and interested third parties. Our courts have long compelled public bodies to adhere to such bylaws.

In addition, items that were not on the agenda meeting, were added at the last minute without normal time for review. Some members, including the petitioner abstained from voting rather than to vote for items that were added hastily to the agenda. From this incident, the public was denied the past practice of careful review of the disbursement of their tax money. The creators of the bylaws stated that "An Agenda Meeting shall be held one week before the Regular Meeting." Their reasoning and point was quite clear. Therefore, if it was not mandatory to hold an agenda meeting, the word in place of "shall" would have been "should" or "may." Those who wrote the bylaw were not attorneys, rather plain people writing bylaws for the general public to understand. It could be concluded from this point that the authors of Bylaw 9321 intended the public and other Board members to have sufficient time to review and ask questions. This can not be adequately done at one meeting.

POINT II. THE JANUARY 16, 1996, MEETING OF THE MAINLAND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION COMPLIED IN ALL RESPECTS WITH ALL STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS NECESSARY TO ENABLE THE BOARD TO TAKE ACTION AT A REGULAR BUSINESS MEETING

The point of respondent's attorney has strayed from the question at hand before the court. However, since the respondent's attorney has raised it for whatever reason, the petitioner will comment.

Inasmuch as the Business Manager/Board Secretary had advertised according to the "Sunshine Act" for a meeting under normal circumstances, the Business Manager/Board Secretary failed to advertised that the agenda meeting would not be held at all in January and that there would be only one meeting for the month. The public had a right to expect two meetings for January as advertised. Furthermore, as stated in the previous point, there was mention in the Organization meeting's announcement of future meetings that an agenda meeting may be canceled because of hazardous weather conditions, rather than being rescheduled. Not to forget that Bylaw 9321 states that there shall be an agenda meeting one week before the regular meeting, thus leaving the public to conclude that there would be two meetings in January, an agenda and regular.

POINT III. ASSUMING AN AGENDA MEETING IS MANDATED BY THE LOCALLY ADOPTED BYLAW, IT CAN NEVERTHELESS BE WAIVED SINCE FAILURE TO FOLLOW THE BYLAW DID NOT RESULT IN HARM TO THE PUBLIC OR TO THE RIGHTS OF A PARTICULAR INDIVIDUAL

As stated previous, harm was done to taxpayers and interested third parties. In other words, to say, "we can violate our Bylaws when no harm, no foul," is foolish at best. The harm may not be noticed at first and if the Board does not want to see harm, they won't. A more appropriate philosophical phase with this logic would be "...it's right when it suits our purpose." To subscribe to this philosophy would introduce chaos to the public's business. That is the reason courts have long compelled public bodies to adhere to such bylaws." Walters' Appeal (Endeavor-Oxford Union Free High School District v. Walters), 270 WIS 561, 72 N.W. 2d. 535 (1955).

In Point III of the respondent's attorney states that the previous case mentioned (Walters' Appeal) does not touch on any items raised by the petitioner. The petitioner submits that the comments of the court touches on bylaws and that public bodies are to adhere to them. This is the basic core of what the petitioner is addressing. That (1) the Bylaw 9321 of MRHS Board states that there shall be an agenda meeting one week before the regular; and (2) the bylaws must be followed until amended or repealed; and (3) that if you belatedly ignore them, you have an illegal action which compromises the public's interest. These are the reasons this petition is before the court. The respondent's attorney also states that "Eggers v. Newark facts are afar afield of those before this court" because it has to do with two "regular" meetings. However, the quote actually is "two public meetings," not "regular meetings." Both the Agenda and Regular meetings are public meetings at MRHS Board. The point of Eggers is well taken for the petition now before this court since it was their bylaws that compelled them to do so. The court upheld the bylaw and set aside the ordinance in question. Contrary to the respondent attorney's comment, both Eggers and Walters were of interest in New Jersey by way of the Matawan Teachers Ass'n v. Bd.of Ed., 223 N.J. Super. 504, 538 A. 2d. 1331, decided March 14, 1988. All three cases supported the adhering to bylaws.

In reference to The Matter of Linda DiMare, et al v. Board of Education of Holmdel, as mentioned in the respondent attorney's argument, revolves around Robert's Rules of Order which is a procedural matter that is not addressed in this petition. Also parts of Matawan decision that has to do with voting are not in this petition, but the remaining parts pertaining to bylaws are in this issue. The petitioner believes that the respondent's attorney makes some interesting legal points, however, they do not apply to this petition. Again the respondent's attorney is mixing procedural matters with a bylaw issue. This is the source of the problem.

In addressing the statement of the respondent, Donald Levy, that his decision was consistent with the New Jersey School Board Association view in its sample bylaw, the petitioner can state from first hand experience that there are many inconsistencies in their publication. In the year of 1992, the petitioner was the New Jersey School Board Association's professional parliamentarian. One of the projects slated for correction and update was their manuals as the respondent attorney has mistakenly relied on. It is also noted that the New Jersey School Board Association is only an advisory association and not a regulatory agency. When the petitioner became an elected board member, he stopped as Parliamentarian for the New Jersey School Association. The sample bylaw, as described, was not corrected to read that suspending any part of Bylaw can only occur when there is a provision to do so. Other than that, Bylaws may be amended repealed or replaced in a described fashion, but not suspended.

POINT IV. CONCLUSION

The petitioner opposes the Motion to Dismiss/Summary Judgment, based on: (1) the complexity and contradiction of past legal decisions; (2) that the attorney for the respondent has failed in his attempt to show "Hornbook Law" support for his argument and neutralizing of the legality of the petition. It a BOE can suspend their bylaws any time said bylaws stand in the self serving way of the Board, then there is not longer an orderly public meeting but a public gather with a mob mentality whose actions are without responsibility or accountability. The decision of this question will serve over 600 other Boards of Education in the State of New Jersey that had, or will have, a similar situation. There is additional evidence to support the petitioner's stand that could not be detailed in a brief of opposition. The issue worthy of a hearing and not the legal sandbagging and misinterpretations of bylaws in defense of a misguided legal opinion. Issues have been raised and comments made by the respondent's attorney that do not address this petition that is now before the court and has failed to support the respondent's position. Whenever the rights of the taxpayers are the issue, a full hearing should be held in protection of those rights. Therefore, the petitioner is in opposition of the Motion to Dismiss/Summary Judgment and move that it be denied.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

Local boards of education have authority to make, amend, and repeal rules for its own government. N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 provides that:

> The board shall --- > a. Adopt an official seal;
> b. Enforce the rules of the state board;
> c. Make, amend and repeal rules, not inconsistent with this title or with the rules of the state board, for its own government and the transaction of its business and for the government and management of the public schools and public school property of the district and for the employment, regulation of conduct and discharge of its employees, subject, where applicable, to the provisions of Title 11, Civil Service, of the Revised Statutes; and

d. Perform all acts and do all things, consistent with the law and the rules of the state board, necessary for the lawful and proper conduct, equipment and maintenance of the public schools of the district.

In the matter of Albert D. Angell, Jr., et al v. Board of Education of the City of Newark, Essex County, 1959-1960 S.L.D. 141, the Commissioner established a three-prong test of validity of a local board's rule or regulation. Therein the Commissioner said:

> A rule, in order to be valid, must be reasonable. Boards of Education cannot exercise the authority given to them in ways that are arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, overworked and difficult of precise definition as these words may be. N.J. Good Humor, Inc. v. Bradley Beach, 124 N.J.L. 162 at 164. (at p. 143)

In Audrey Siegfried v. Board of Education of the Borough of Shrewsbury, et al 1976 S.L.D. 2. The Commissioner applied the Angell test where he said:

> The Commissioner has carefully considered the facts in the record and the arguments and citations of law and equity set forth by the parties. The Commissioner finds the three-pronged test of validity of a board's rules as set forth in Angell, supra., is applicable herein. This test of validity requires that a rule be reasonable, consistent with the provisions of both the education laws and the rules of the State Board, and directed toward maintaining and supporting a thorough and efficient system of public education. Angell at 143-147. It logically follows that the interpretation and application of a rule or policy by the Board must pass these same tests. 1976 S.L.D. at 4.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1, the Mainland Board has, among other things, adopted rules or bylaws for its own government. Notwithstanding his holding in Angell, supra. the Commissioner has held, in the matter of Gerald F. Blessing v. Board of Education of Palisades Park, et al, 1974 S.L.D. 1133, as follows:

> The Commissioner has reviewed the applicable case law and can find no authority that would require a board of education to be absolutely bound by its own policies. Greenway, supra. To the contrary, it has been consistently held that a local board of education is not bound by its policies and rules when no vested rights are involved. Polansky, supra.; Noonan and Arnot v. Paterson City Board of Education, 1938 S.L.D. 331 (1925), affirmed State Board of Education, 1938 S.L.D. 336 (1925); Silvestris v. Bayonne Board of Education, 1959-60 S.L.D. 184.

Therein, the Commissioner relied upon, in part, the matter of Greenway, supra., where our Appellate and Supreme Courts held that a local board of education is not bound by its bylaws and may alter or waive such as it deems necessary and appropriate for the conduct of its statutorily authorized business.

Petitioner complains that the Board was in violation of its bylaws when if failed to conduct an agenda meeting prior to the regular business meeting of the Board in January 1996. The statutory requirement for local board of education meetings is found at N.J.S.A. 18A:10-6, and provides as, in part, follows:

> All board meetings shall be public and each board shall hold a meeting at least once every two months during the period in which the schools in the district are in session.

Petitioner holds himself out as a professional parliamentarian, a title not recognized under Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes nor Title 6 of the New Jersey Administrative Code. For the intent and purpose of these proceedings, petitioner is a layman, incompetent to interpret statutes or their applications. This is a matter of statutory dimensions.

The Board met its statutory duty on January 16, 1996. The Board also adhered to the statutory provisions of the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA) N.J.S.A. 10-1 to -21. There is no dispute that the Board has complied with N.J.S.A. 18A:10-6 or the OPMA. The Board, reasonably, canceled its agenda meeting scheduled on the Monday prior to its regularly scheduled meeting held on January 16, 1996, due to inclement weather which would have been hazardous for Board members and the public alike to attend. There is no statutory mandate which requires the Board to conduct an agenda meeting prior to its regular monthly meeting. N.J.S.A. 10:4-18.

I CONCLUDE, therefore, that the Board did not violate its bylaws when it cancel its agenda meeting prior to its regular meeting scheduled for January 16, 1996. The Board complied with all of the prevailing statutory requirements in the conduct of its business on January 16, 1996, notwithstanding any bylaws it may have had on its books at the time of the January 16, 1996, meeting. It had business to conduct and it conducted its business to the extent it deemed necessary toward maintaining and supporting a thorough and efficient system of public education. N.J.S.A. 10:4-18, N.J.S.A. 18A:10-6.

I CONCLUDE that petitioner's Petition of Appeal is without merit and, therefore, Summary Decision is hereby entered on behalf of the Respondent Board of Education of the Mainland Regional High School District.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that SUMMARY DECISION is hereby entered on behalf of the Board and that the instant Petition of Appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

3 December 1996
DATE

Lillard E. Law
LILLARD E. LAW, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/5/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 09 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

lmh

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4548-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 90-3/96

BENJAMIN H. SOOY, III,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DONALD LEVY, PRESIDENT AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MAINLAND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, ATLANTIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Exceptions were timely filed by petitioner.

Petitioner excepts that the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) reference to him as a "layman" who is unable to interpret statutes is incorrect in that he was advised by attorneys and he possesses expertise in bylaw interpretation. He notes that he is a certified parliamentarian by the nationally and internationally recognized Institute of Parliamentarians. (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 1-2) Petitioner further excepts to the ALJ's interchanging of the terms "policies and rules" and "Bylaws", illustrating that they are distinct. He writes, "In the policy books of boards of education, there are sections for policies and rules and a separate place for Bylaws." (Id. at p. 2) Petitioner next explains that rights of individuals will be trampled if bylaws are not followed,

> If the boards of education are allowed to suspend their Bylaws whenever the majority of the Board  members wish to do so, then this State will have a mob mentality with private agendas running the school systems.  To suspend a Right on a moment's notice is a disservice to the public as well as minority Board members. (Id. at pp. 2-3)

Petitioner cites a Wisconsin case, Walters' Appeal, infra, wherein a bylaw requirement was upheld to buttress his arguments. Endeavor-Oxford Union Free High School District v. Walters. In that this argument has already been raised and considered by the ALJ, it will not be detailed herein. 270 Wis 561, 72 N.W. 2d 535 (1955). Lastly, petitioner objects to the ALJ's awarding of summary judgment contending that he intended to offer a better presentation of his position at hearing in February 1997. (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 3-4)

Upon a careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner determines to affirm the determination of the ALJ that the respondent Board acted within its bounds in conducting its January 16, 1996 regular meeting, absent a regularly scheduled agenda meeting. The Commissioner finds that nothing in the bylaws would act to prevent the Board from holding a duly advertised meeting because a scheduled agenda meeting was forced to be canceled for good cause. This is particularly so in circumstances such as are described herein where, in accordance with the ALJ's factual findings, the Board took care to assure that to the extent that there was any possibility of harm to the public, any particular individual, or Board members, such would be minimized by the manner in which it conducted its regular meeting.

Moreover, even had the Commissioner found the Board's bylaws to have been violated, such violation would have been de minimis in that the Board's actions did not cause harm to the public, to any particular individual, or to Board members, nor did they contravene, directly or indirectly, any existing statute. See In the Matter of Matawan Regional Teachers' Association v. Matawan-Aberdeen Regional School District, 223 N.J. Super. 504 (App. Div. 1988). Thus, any violations found would not have risen to the level of warranting voiding of actions taken by the Board at its January 16, 1996 meeting.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL as further explicated herein is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the instant Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 17, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 17, 1997

25-97

25-~~96~~97

CATHERINE SPRUILL,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

January 17, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6579-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 184-5/95

CATHERINE SPRUILL,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE and MAPLEWOOD,
Respondent.

Augustine U. Uzodike, Esq., for petitioner

Joanne L. Butler, Esq., for respondent,
(Young, Dimiero & Sayovitz, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 14, 1996 Decided: December 4, 1996

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of Facts

This is an appeal brought on behalf of three students seeking enrollment in respondent school district for 1994-95. The school district has counterclaimed seeking payment of pro-rated tuition. Basically, the issue is when the three children became domiciled in the district. Petitioner enrolled her three children in the School District of South Orange and Maplewood in September 1994. She contends that she contracted to purchase a house in the district in May 1994 and actually moved into the district in or about December 1994. The Board maintains that the contract of purchase was in someone else's name and that petitioner did not actually reside in Maplewood until March 1995. Therefore, the Board seeks payment of tuition for the three children from the start of school in September 1994 until the date that petitioner moved into the district.

For the reason which follows, petitioner abandoned the hearing request before the hearing was over. Consequently, the Board is entitled to judgment on its counterclaim.

Procedural History

On or about May 31, 1995, petitioner filed a verified petition with the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") claiming residency in Maplewood. The Board of Education of the School District of South Orange and Maplewood ("Board") filed its amended answer and counterclaim on June 16, 1995. Thereafter, on July 3, 1995, petitioner filed an answer to the counterclaim. Meanwhile, on June 2, 1995, the Board agreed to admit the three children to school in the district pending the outcome of this appeal.

Subsequently, on June 23, 1995, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing as a contested case. The OAL held two days of hearing on May 7 and 8, 1996. Initially, the hearing was rescheduled for February 1997, but the OAL advised both parties that an earlier date would be scheduled if the calendar permitted it.

On September 13, 1996, the OAL notified both counsel by telephone that the hearing had been scheduled for November 14 and 15, 1996. In addition, on September 13, 1996 the OAL sent written notice to both counsel confirming the two November hearing dates and directing counsel to notify their witnesses to be ready to proceed on those dates. Moreover, on September 17, 1996, the Clerk of the OAL sent written notice to counsel of the November hearing dates. Thus, both counsel received three separate notifications that the hearing would continue on November 14 and 15, 1996.

Board counsel appeared on November 14, 1996, accompanied by a Board representative. Neither petitioner nor her counsel appeared. For the reasons which follow, the petitioner's claim will be dismissed for failure to prosecute her appeal. The Board is entitled to judgment on its counterclaim.

Findings of Fact

I FIND the following facts:

Board Policy No. 5118(a) provides that students moving into the district within ten weeks of the start of the school year may be admitted on a tuition-paying basis. Further, the policy states: "If such students have not established district domicile by the close of the ten week period, they may be allowed to continue on a temporary tuition basis, if, in the opinion of the superintendent, the delay has been unavoidable and the district domicile will be established in the current school year."

Catherine Spruill applied to register her children, T.S., T.H. and M.D. in the district starting September 4, 1994. At the time of registration, Ms. Spruill submitted a form in which she swore under oath that she owned the home at 97 Rutgers Street in the Township of Maplewood. She verbally advised the district staff that she did not yet reside at the Rutgers Street address, but that she had a contract to purchase that house. However, she provided a copy of a contract of sale which did not name her as the purchaser. Instead, the contract listed one Frederick Springer and W. and T. Spruill as the buyers. It appears that Frederick Springer is an employee who works for Catherine Spruill at the local Burger King. W. Spruill is Catherine Spruill's brother and T. Spruill is her sixteen-year-old daughter.

Thereafter, the district staff continued to request proof that Catherine Spruill had purchased the Maplewood property. On October 7, 1994, petitioner's attorney wrote to the Board acknowledging that there had been a delay in the closing due to problems in obtaining a mortgage. Further, the attorney indicated that the closing was expected to take place by "the end of this month." Meanwhile, school officials had reason to believe that petitioner was not living in Maplewood. Mail sent to the house had been returned undelivered. One of the children was regularly late for school and told school staff that the family was still living in Jersey City.

When petitioner failed to submit any further information, the Board wrote to her on November 1, 1994 requesting documentation concerning the status of her closing. Petitioner did not respond to this request. Consequently, on December 6, 1994, the district's business office wrote to Ms. Spruill demanding payment of three-months tuition by December 16, 1994.

Before December 16, a realtor telephoned the business office on petitioner's behalf. The realtor represented that a lease agreement had been reached allowing Ms. Spruill to move into her new home prior to the closing. On December 13, 1994, the business office wrote to Ms. Spruill requesting a copy of the lease agreement by December 16 and copies of all closing documents no later than December 28. Again, the letter warned that, if this deadline was not kept, the children would be denied access to school and the mother would be billed for all tuition due.

On January 4, 1995, the realtor faxed to the Board a copy of what purports to be a lease between Ms. DeSilva as landlord and Catherine Spruill as tenant for the premises at 97 Rutgers Street. The term of the lease was sixty days beginning December 15, 1994 and ending February 14, 1995 at a rent of $500 per month. However, the lease turned out to be fraudulent. At the hearing, Catherine Spruill admitted that she never paid any rent to Ms. DeSilva.

After the lease had supposedly expired, the Board sent its investigator Edward Larkin, a retired police officer, to conduct a residency check at 97 Rutgers Street. On March 14, 1995 Larkin visited the property and spoke with Ms. DeSilva, the owner of the property. Ms. DeSilva stated that she was still waiting to close on the house and that Catherine Spruill was not yet living in the house. Accordingly, on March 15, 1995, the district billed Catherine Spruill for tuition through March 1995 in the amount of $6,230 for the child attending sixth grade, $6,282.50 for the child attending ninth grade and $6,282 for the child attending eleventh grade.

Catherine Spruill's name does not appear in the chain of title for the property until a deed dated March 29, 1995. Insofar as the record reflects, this deed has never been properly recorded with the Essex County Register. The Board has been unable to obtain any independent verification that Ms. Spruill took possession of the property prior to March 31, 1995.

Conclusions of Law

I CONCLUDE that petitioner failed to appear at the hearing on November 14, 1996 without good cause and that this nonappearance constitutes an abandonment of the hearing request.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) provides:

> If, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceedings scheduled by the Clerk or judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge may, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c), direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition.

Ordinarily, when the judge receives a satisfactory written explanation within the time limit, the hearing will automatically be rescheduled. However, N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(b)(2) specifies that:

> If the judge concludes from the explanation received that the nonappearing party or representative is intentionally attempting to delay the proceeding, the judge may refuse to reschedule the matter and shall issue an initial decision explaining the basis for the conclusion that there has been an intentional delay.

Despite adequate notice, petitioner and her attorney failed to appear at the continued hearing on November 14, 1996. When in inquiry was made by telephone, a secretary in the law office of petitioner's counsel was unable to provide a satisfactory explanation of why petitioner's counsel did not appear in response to three separate notices. Records of the Office of Administrative Law reflect telephone notice of the November hearing dates to petitioner's counsel on September 13, 1996 and written notices sent to petitioner's counsel on September 13, 1996 and September 17, 1996. This is not the first time that petitioner sought delay by failing to comply with procedures for an orderly and expeditious hearing. A hearing scheduled for May 10, 1996 had to be adjourned when petitioner's counsel failed to make a timely appearance.

Petitioner's counsel cannot legitimately claim that he did not receive notice of the hearing. Certainly any lack of diligence on counsel's part does not rise to the level of unforeseen "exceptional circumstances" necessary to obtain an adjournment. N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.6(a).

Moreover, the existing record clearly demonstrates that Catherine Spruill never entered into a contract to purchase a home in Maplewood, that she did not lease the property, and that she did not actually reside at the address prior to March 31, 1995.

Under the totality of the circumstances, I CONCLUDE that petitioner is intentionally attempting to delay the proceeding and that further adjournment of this matter cannot be justified.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that petitioner's request for relief is denied for lack of diligent prosecution.

And further ORDERED that petitioner pay the sum of $18,795 to the School District of South Orange and Maplewood, with interest at the prevailing rate to accrue starting forty-five days from date of entry of this initial decision.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Dec. 4, 1996
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

APPENDIX
List of Witnesses

1. Joan Milillo, registrar, School District of South Orange and Maplewood

2. Edward Larkin, investigator, School District of South Orange and Maplewood

3. Dr. Jacqueline Cusack, assistant superintendent, School District of South Orange and Maplewood

4. Catherine L. Spruill

List of Exhibits

No.		Description
P-1	Id.	Copy of letter to the school district of South Orange and Maplewood from Sabrina Corum, dated May 16, 1995
P-2	Id.	Computer printout, dated May 7, 1996
P-3	Id.	Copy of petition in the matter entitled Catherine Spruill v. Board of Education of the School District of South Orange and Maplewood, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 6579-95, dated May 24, 1995
R-1		Copy of registration packet for T.S.
R-2		Copy of registration packet for T.H.
R-3		Copy of registration packet for M.D.
R-4		Copy of first information request to the parent/guardian from the school district of South Orange and Maplewood, dated September 29, 1994

R-5 Copy of second information request to the parent/guardian from the school district of South Orange and Maplewood, dated October 5, 1994

R-6 Copy of letter to the school district of South Orange and Maplewood from Augustine U. Uzodike, dated October 7, 1994

R-7 Copy of request for residency check, dated October 31 [1994]

R-8 Copy of third information request to parent/guardian from the school district of South Orange and Maplewood, dated November 1, 1994

R-9 (a) Copy of fax transmittal to Carol Vagas from Re/Max Realty Associates, dated January 4, 1995

(b) Copy of letter to Ms. Vagas from Sabrina Corum, dated January 3, 1994

(c) Copy of apartment lease between Ms. DeSilva as landlord and Catherine Spruill as tenant, dated December 15,1 994

R-10 Copy of residency check report, dated March 14, 1995

R-11 Copy of deed between Jairo Gomes DeSilva and Natalina Leal DeSilva as grantors and Jo-Ann Beckles and William Spruill as grantees, dated March 24, 1995

R-12 Copy of residency check report, dated March 31, 1995

R-13 Copy of contract of sale between Fredrick Springer and W. & T. Spruill as buyers and Natilina & Jairo DeSilva as sellers, dated May 8, 1994

R-14 Copy of check in the amount of $2,684 payable to the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education and drawn on the account of Catherine Louise Spruill, dated September 8, 1994

R-15 Copy of policy on nonresident students adopted by the board of education of the school district of South Orange and Maplewood on September 11, 1989

R-16 (a) Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Richard Rosenberg, dated December 6, 1994

(b) Copy of 1994-95 tuition bill for T.S., dated December 6, 1994

(c) Copy of 1994-95 tuition bill for T.H., dated December 6, 1994

(d) Copy of 1994-95 tuition bill for M.D., dated December 6, 1994

R-17 Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Richard Rosenberg, dated December 13, 1994

R-18 (a) Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Richard Rosenberg, dated March 15, 1995

(b) Copy of 1994-95 tuition bill for T.S., dated December 16, 1994 (sic)

(c) Copy of 1994-95 tuition bill for T.H., dated March 15, 1995

(d) Copy of 1994-95 tuition bill for M.D., dated March 15, 1995

(e) Copy of envelope marked return to sender, post marked March 15, 1995

R-19 (a) Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Jacqueline L. Cusack, Ed. D. dated April 4, 1995

(b) Copy of receipt for certified mail, stamped April 4, 1995

(c) Copy of envelope marked unclaimed, postmarked April 4, 1995

R-20 Copy of residence credit certificate from New Jersey Bell, dated December 1994

R-21 Id. Copy of document addressed to Whom It May Concern from Public Service EG Co., dated December 27, 1994

R-22 (a) Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Jacqueline L. Cusack, Ed D., dated April 19, 1995

(b) Copy of receipt for certified mail, stamped April 19, 1995

R-23 Copy of resolution No. 612B of the Board of Education of the school district of South Orange and Maplewood, adopted May 1, 1995

R-24 Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Ralph Lieber, dated May 2, 1995

R-25 Copy of fax transmittal sheet to Dr. Lieber from Re/Max Realty Associates, dated May 24, 1995

R-26 Copy of deed from Jo-Anne Beckles and William Spruill as grantors and Catherine Spruill and William Spruill as grantees, dated March 29, 1995

R-27 Copy of letter to Catherine Spruill from Jacqueline L. Cusack, Ed.D., dated June 1, 1995

R-28 Copy of resolution No. 487C setting 1994-95 tuition rates adopted by the board of education of the school district of South Orange and Maplewood on March 21, 1994

CATHERINE SPRUILL,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs that petitioner, by her failure to appear before the OAL, has abandoned her request for a hearing in this matter.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ affirming the Board's determination that petitioner's children, T.S., T.H. and M.D. were ineligible to attend school in the District from September 1994 through March 31, 1995 is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq., petitioner is directed to remit $18,795 to the Board of Education, representing tuition for her three children for the aforementioned period of ineligible attendance in the District.*

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.16(a), inasmuch as the Board did not specifically seek relief which included either pre-judgment or post-judgment interest, the Commissioner does not direct the award of such interest.

January 17, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 17, 1997

(SB) 25-97

SB #25-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE REFINANCING	:
OF THE 1994 LEASE PURCHASE	:
AGREEMENT BY THE BOARD OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
EDUCATION OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN	:	DECISION
COUNTY.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 14, 1997

For the Appellant, Oury & Mizdol (Dennis J. Oury, Esq., of Counsel)

On February 14, 1997, the Commissioner of Education issued a letter decision in which he denied the request by the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview (hereinafter "Board") to refinance a lease purchase agreement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:22A-1.3.

On March 4, 1997, the Board filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), the Board's brief in support of its appeal was due on March 24, 1997, 20 days after the appeal was filed. The Board, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated March 31, 1997, the counsel for the State Board notified the Board that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of its failure to perfect the appeal. The Board has still failed to file a brief in support of its appeal, 2½ months after the deadline for such filing and more than two months after it was given written notice of such failure. Nor did the Board respond to that notice or provide any explanation for its failure to file a brief until yesterday when its counsel indicated in a letter to the State Board that this matter had "slipped between the cracks." He explained that "a few weeks ago I was on trial in South Dakota for over one week and frankly this matter was not attended to by my staff in my absence since I am the individual responsible for the Board of Education work."

6/4/97

We conclude that the belated explanation offered by the counsel for the Fairview Board does not, under the circumstances, excuse or justify his failure to file an appeal brief for more than two months or to request an extension. See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993). Consequently, we find no basis for relaxing the rules, and dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

(SB) 25-97

SB #25-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE REFINANCING OF THE 1994 LEASE PURCHASE AGREEMENT BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION DECISION ON MOTION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 14, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, June 4, 1997

For the Appellant, Oury & Mizdol (Dennis J. Oury, Esq., of Counsel)

On February 14, 1997, the Commissioner of Education issued a letter decision in which he denied the request by the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview (hereinafter "Board") to refinance a lease purchase agreement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:22A-1.3. On March 4, 1997, the Board filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), the Board's brief in support of its appeal was due on March 24, 1997. The Board, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated March 31, 1997, we notified the counsel for the Board that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of the Board's failure to perfect the appeal. Yet, the counsel for the Board still failed to file a brief in support of the appeal, 2½ months after the deadline for such filing and more than two months after he was given written notice of such failure.

Nov. 5, 1997

Nor did the counsel for the Board respond to that notice or provide any explanation for his failure to file a brief until June 3, the day before this matter was scheduled for consideration by the State Board, when he indicated in a letter to the State Board that this matter had "slipped between the cracks." He explained that "a few weeks ago I was on trial in South Dakota for over one week and frankly this matter was not attended to by my staff in my absence since I am the individual responsible for the Board of Education work."

We concluded that the belated explanation offered by the counsel for the Board did not, under the circumstances, excuse or justify his failure to file an appeal brief for more than two months or to request an extension for such filing. Consequently, on June 4, 1997, we dismissed the appeal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a), which authorizes dismissal of an appeal for failure to meet the filing deadline for an appeal brief. See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

On August 27, 1997, the Board filed the instant motion for reconsideration of that decision. The counsel for the Board again explains his failure to file a brief by indicating that he had been "on trial in South Dakota at the time and was not able to tend to the matter." He also argues that this case presents a matter of public importance warranting a determination on the merits.

After a review of the papers submitted, we find no basis for reconsidering our decision.

As the Court observed in Paszamant, supra, slip op. at 3, "[a]n entity such as the State Board of Education has to be free to enforce its own procedural rules, providing that it does not do so in a manner which is arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." It was the obligation and responsibility of the counsel for the Board to assure compliance with the regulations, and, under the circumstances, we find no basis for reconsidering our decision to dismiss the appeal. Nor do we find this case to be a matter of such public importance as to compel resolution. See Abel v. Elizabeth Bd. of Works, 63 N.J. Super. 500 (App. Div. 1960). We note in that regard that the Board waited more than 2½ months after its appeal was dismissed to file the instant motion.

Consequently, we deny the Board's motion for reconsideration of our decision dated June 4, 1997 in this matter.

November 5, 1997

Date of mailing NOV 07 1997

26-97

D.M., on behalf of A.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning parent sought to have her child's (A.M.) chemistry grade expunged and replaced with her subsequent grade. Petitioner contended the grade in question was due to the Board's inappropriate placement of A.M. in Honors Chemistry.

ALJ dismissed the matter as untimely filed as the petition was clearly filed well beyond the 90-day requirement in regulation from the date of the action contested. A.M. was placed in the class in September 1994 and retained in the class in Spring 1995; the petition was not filed until May 24, 1996.

Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ. The petition was dismissed as untimely.

January 17, 1997

State of New Jersey
Office of Administrative Law

TRANSCRIPT
ORAL INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9936-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 209-6/96

D. M., ON BEHALF OF A.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF PEQUANNOCK,

Respondent.

D. M., Petitioner, pro se

Anthony Sciarrillo, Esq., for Respondent

Record Closed: November 15, 1996 Decided: December 3, 1996

This is a transcript of the administrative law judge's oral initial decision rendered pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.2.

BEFORE MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ:

We are back on the record in the matter of EDU 9936-96. We took a break in order that I might consider Mr. Sciarrillo's application, which is now moot in view of the decision that I am about to render.

That application was to dismiss the petition for failure to make a prima facie case. There is no need to reach that issue because I have decided to dismiss this petition on the basis of the failure to comply with the regulatory requirement which states that the Petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the receipt of the notice of a final order ruling, or, and this is the part that is pertinent to this action, other action by the district board of education, individual party or agency which is the subject of the contested case hearing. In this case, as we discussed during the prehearing conference immediately preceding this hearing and during some part of the hearing itself, the issue is whether the school system acted in an arbitrary and capricious manner in placing the Petitioner, A.M., in an honor chemistry class and, further, whether it was arbitrary and capricious of the school authority to keep her in that honor class after request for a change had occurred.

There is no need to reach the merits of those issues because the placement occurred, at the latest, in September 1994 and probably before that. The decision to retain her in the class, by the testimony of all three of Petitioner's witnesses, occurred some time in the Spring of 1995. The petition in this matter was filed, I believe the date is May 24, 1996, clearly well beyond the 90-day requirement in the regulation, which is found at N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c).

On that basis, I am DISMISSING the petition.

I advise the Petitioner that she has the right to object to this decision. This will be a written decision which you will receive shortly in the mail. At the end of the decision there will be an address to which you can write your objections to what I have said and you can address them to the person mentioned in that final paragraph of my decision.

The Commissioner of Education will have the opportunity either to adopt my decision as a whole, modify my decision in some way, or reject my decision and write a whole new decision.

I am reserving the right to edit what I said so that it is coherent when I am finished with it.

The matter is DISMISSED and we are adjourned.

END OF TRANSCRIPT

I, Jane R. Pearson, certify that the foregoing is a true and accurate transcript, to the best of my ability, of Judge Maria Mancini LaFiandra's oral decision rendered in the above matter on November 15, 1995.

12/3/96
DATE

Jane R. Pearson
Jane R. Pearson

This recommended oral decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended oral decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended oral decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, 8th Floor, West, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

12/3/96
DATE

Maria M LaFiandra
MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Dec. 6, 1996
DATE

D. M. Contaminatis Jr.
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9936-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 209-6/96

D.M., on behalf of A.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the transcript of the oral initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions were timely filed thereto.

Petitioner avers that the substantive issues raised in her appeal regarding her child's placement in honors chemistry should be addressed in that a failing grade has had a devastating effect on her minor child's grade point average. She seeks that the petition not be dismissed for untimeliness contending that the 90-day timeline tolled at the close of the 1995-96 school year, not before, nor upon, her minor's placement in the honors chemistry class.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge that the Petition of Appeal was filed out of time and that no relaxation or waiver of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) is warranted in this instance.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, the Commissioner adopts the oral initial decision of the OAL that the instant Petition of Appeal be dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 17, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 17, 1997

(SB) 27-97

DHPL #94-97
SB #27-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT :
OF T.R.B. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 28, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, T.R.B., pro se

T.R.B. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a bus aide for the Franklin Township Board of Education, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed convictions following arrests in January 1990 for possession of cocaine and in June 1991 for possession of cocaine with intent to distribute. Petitioner sought to overturn her disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated February 28, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that while petitioner had shown progress towards rehabilitation, she had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

6/4/97

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.

After a careful review of the record, we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner. We find that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

> e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:
>
> 1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
> 2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
> 3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
> 4. The date of the offense;
> 5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
> 6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
> 7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
> 8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

Petitioner's submissions include a letter from her supervisor at the school in which she had been employed prior to her disqualification, who praises petitioner as a "most competent and pleasant employee." She indicates that petitioner "has proven to be a great asset to my department, and I would be more than willing to reinstate her when this matter is resolved. Now that I am aware of her past problems, I respect the way she has worked to turn her life around." A former co-worker lauds petitioner as a "very reliable, responsible, and hard worker." The human resources director of a pharmaceutical company who entrusts her three children to petitioner's care commends her as "dependable, caring, articulate, thorough and passionate....She has struggled with physical and mental barriers and has come through with flying colors. You could not have a more qualified individual on your staff." The record also indicates that petitioner spent one month at a substance abuse facility following her June 1991 arrest. There have been no further arrests.

Petitioner explains that her drug dependency followed a medical diagnosis of kerateconis, a condition which she indicates would have left her blind in both eyes without a transplant. She indicates that she has now undergone thirteen operations and lost the vision in one eye.

While the gravity of petitioner's offenses is apparent, we find that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Given the uncontradicted evidence in the record, including the recommendation of petitioner's supervisor and her completion of a substance abuse program, we conclude that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e).

Accordingly, we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey as a bus aide.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

28-97

28-97 DHP

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
DISQUALIFICATION FROM	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF S.E.R.	:	DECISION
_____	:

January 17, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 10401-96
and
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 10402-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. DHP #88-96

SCOTT E. RIXFORD,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Richard L. Gruber, Esq., appeared for petitioner

John K. Worthington, Deputy Attorney General, appeared for respondent
(Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: December 18, 1996 Decided: January 6, 1997

BEFORE JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF CASE

In this matter, the petitioner, Scott E. Rixford, who had been hired as an elementary school teacher in March 1996 by the Board of Education of Paterson, contests his disqualification from school employment.

On September 26, 1996, the Department of Education notified Mr. Rixford that a criminal history investigation revealed a conviction for vehicular homicide in Massachusetts. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq., he was being disqualified from the teaching profession.

On October 3, 1996, Commissioner Leo Klaghoz granted a Motion for a Stay of Mr. Rixford's disqualification pending appeal.

On November 7, 1996, following further investigation by the Criminal History Division of the Department of Education, Mr. Rixford was notified that a conviction for possession of a controlled dangerous substance had been reported by the state of Massachusetts, leading to another disqualification.

Rixford again sought a stay of the disqualification from the acting Commissioner of the Department of Education, a request which was this time denied.

Rixford petitioned the Appellate Division of the Superior Court on November 20, 1996, requesting a Stay of the Disqualification. The Stay was denied. The Appellate Division did, however, order that the matter be sent to the Office of Administrative Law for an expedited hearing.

A hearing was scheduled for December 18, 1996. Prior to the hearing date, petitioner filed a Motion for Summary Decision contending that vehicular homicide was not a disqualifying offense and that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 constitutes an unconstitutional ex post facto law when applied to a drug conviction that preceded the enactment of the amended statute.

Both the Motion for Summary Decision and the plenary hearing were heard and completed on December 18, 1996.

ISSUES

On initial review, several issues were posed: (1) is vehicular homicide a disqualifying crime or offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et. seq.; (2) is a conviction for possession of CDS that predates the enactment of the amendment to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 disqualifying applicants an ex post facto law and therefore unconstitutional; (3) if either of the offenses are disqualifying has Mr. Rixford been rehabilitated pursuant to the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1e?

The Motion for Summary Decision on the issue of whether or not a conviction for vehicular homicide is a disqualifying conviction was denied preliminarily because there were facts in dispute surrounding the charge in question.

Before resolving the issues, a closer look at N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1A to 7.1d is warranted. The statute reads as follows:

> A facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education and board of education which cares for, or is involved in the education of children under the age of 18, shall not employ or contract for the services of any teaching staff member . . . unless the employer has first determined consistent with the requirements and standards of this act, that no criminal history record information exists . . . which would disqualify that individual from being employed. . . . An individual other than a school bus driver shall be disqualified from employment or service under this act if the individual's criminal history record check reveals a record of conviction of any of the following crimes and offenses: . . . (b) a crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a "controlled dangerous substance" as defined in the New Jersey Control Dangerous Substance Act, P.L. 1970 c. 226 (C 24:21-1 et seq.); or (c).(1) a crime or offense involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property including: armed robbery, aggravated assault, kidnapping, arson, manslaughter and murder; or (2) a simple assault involving the use of force which results in bodily injury; or (d). in any other state or jurisdiction, a conviction involving conduct which, if committed in New Jersey, would constitute any of the crimes or disorderly person offenses described in this section of this Act.

Not disputed in this matter is the fact that on April 28, 1992, Mr. Rixford pled guilty to vehicular homicide in the state of Massachusetts.

Neither the Attorney General's Office or the petitioner were able to produce the police reports comprising the foundation for that conviction. In the absence of any report, the only avenue that remained to elicit the facts surrounding the offense was the testimony of Mr. Rixford himself.

Mr. Rixford indicated that in June 1990, he was traveling on Route 495 in Havril, Massachusetts at approximately 10:00 a.m. in the morning. He recalls making a lane change from the center lane of the three lane highway to the fast lane and looking in his rear view mirror. He looked into his rear view mirror at an undisclosed distance from the point at which he made the lane change and saw the end result of an accident. Not believing that he was involved in or in any way caused the accident, Mr. Rixford continued on his way.

It was not until approximately 15 months later, in August 1991, that Mr. Rixford discovered that he was the subject of an investigation into the death of a driver of a motor vehicle which he allegedly impeded at the time of his lane change. Mr. Rixford was arrested in September 1991.

A review of the Massachusetts's statute[1] indicates that a conviction for vehicular homicide can encompass reckless driving, negligent driving or driving under the influence. It is apparent from Mr. Rixford's version of the accident that it was at best an act of negligence on his part that caused the accident. There is absolutely nothing in the record to contradict this assertion and I FIND as a matter of fact that the vehicular homicide to which Mr. Rixford pled guilty was caused by his negligence and not any recklessness or drugs or alcohol.

---

[1] Chapter 90, §24G of the Massachusetts statutes provides in part:

Homicide by Motor Vehicle; Penalty

(b) Whoever, upon any way or in any place to which the public has a right of access or upon any way or in any place to which members of the public have access as invitees or licensees, operates a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or marihuana, narcotic drugs, depressant or stimulant substances, all as defined in section one of chapter ninety-four C, or the vapors of glue, or whoever operates a motor vehicle recklessly or negligently so that the lives or safety of the public might be endangered and by such operation causes the death of another person, shall be guilty of homicide by a motor vehicle and shall be punished by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not less than thirty days nor more than two and one half years, or by a fine of not less than three hundred nor more than three thousand dollars, or both.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1c requires the use of force or threat of force upon a person or property to result in a disqualification and then delineates specific crimes. Though I do not believe the list of crimes delineated in the statute was intended to be exhaustive, I do agree that negligent vehicular homicide, such as the one described by Mr. Rixford, does not involve the type of force or threat of force contemplated by the Legislature.

There is no case law which interprets the foregoing statutory sections thus, the first step in interpretation is ". . . consideration of its plain language." Lammers v. Board of Ed, 134 NJ 264, 267 (1993). "Absent a legislative intent to the contrary, such language should be given its ordinary meaning". Id. at 268. Based on the statutes plain language and the committee statement noted, supra., it is reasonable to conclude that a disqualifying crime or offense is limited to those expressly enumerated in the statute. I FIND therefore that under the factual circumstances as related by Mr. Rixford, an account which stands unrebutted, he did not commit a crime or offense which is disqualifying.

EX POST FACTO* LAW

I comment on Mr. Rixford's argument that his drug conviction should not be disqualifying for it is an unconstitutional exercise of an ex post facto law only briefly for I FIND, as a matter of fact, that he has presented clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

The New Jersey Supreme Court in John Doe v. Poritz, 142 N.J. 1 43-46 (1995) determined that the question of whether a law is an unconstitutional ex post facto law is determined primarily on whether the legislative intent is regulatory or punitive.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 was originally enacted in 1986. In 1989, the statute was amended to expand and clarify the grounds under which an individual may be disqualified by specifically identifying the crimes or offenses. Senate Education Committee Statement 2S.3056. L.1989. C104.

Mr. Rixford's drug offense took place in 1984. Drug violations were added to the statute in 1989. But, it is undeniable that the purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is to protect school children from exposure to harm by precluding those with nefarious backgrounds from having the opportunity to exert their influence in a position of authority and admiration. As stated in. for Adler v. Board of Ed of the City of New York is 342 U.S. 485, 493 (1952).: "A teacher works in a sensitive area in a school room. There he shapes the attitudes of young minds toward the society in which they live. In this, the State has a vital concern. It must preserve the integrity of the schools. That the school authorities have the right and the duty to screen the officials, teachers and employees as to their fitness to maintain the integrity of the schools as a part of adult society, cannot be doubted."

It is thus clear that an application of the principles enunciated in Doe v. Poritz, supra leads to the conclusion that the enactment of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 was remedial and not punitive. It would not therefore be an unconstitutional exercise of an ex post facto law.

REHABILITATION

Scott Rixford graduated the University of Miami in 1983 and returned to Massachusetts (his home state). After spending some time as a hairdresser, he got involved with, and actually shared, a residence with a family that actively participated in the drug culture.

In May 1984 the police, while executing a search warrant on the premises of Mr. Rixford's "landlord", the Boviers, found a marijuana cigarette and a very small amount of cocaine on a nightstand next to Rixford's bed. He was arrested and subsequently pled guilty to possession of both drugs and paid a fine of $1250.

At the time of his sentencing, he was under the impression that the judge had indicated that his guilty plea would be sealed, an impression that was subsequently confirmed by his attorney.

Immediately after the sentencing, Mr. Rixford entered therapy and continued the therapy from June 1984 until approximately June 1985. The therapy was successful, according to Mr. Rixford, in that he has not taken drugs of any kind since 1984.

Shortly after his conviction he became employed by the American Diabetes Association, beginning for the most part with public relations work, and progressing to the point where he was the Director of Development and Fund Raising when he left in September 1986. He left when he started SER Corporation, a menswear clothier. The business was based in Boston and San Diego. Unfortunately, after some initial success, the business was unceremoniously closed in 1989 and Mr. Rixford returned to Portsmouth, New Hampshire. He opened a hair salon, a salon by which he was employed when the vehicular homicide in June 1990 occurred. He testified that he was, in fact, on his way to purchase supplies for the business when he made the negligent lane change, which though it did not result in any contact to the vehicle he was driving, did result in the death of another driver. Though Mr. Rixford was initially aware that an accident had occurred, he maintained that he was unaware of his involvement.

After his arrest, he pled guilty to vehicular homicide which, as explained to him by his attorney, was an offense comprised of his negligence. He was sentenced to four months in jail and three years probation. He was actually in custody for 30 days and then electronically monitored for 60 days. It was at that point that he moved to New York (October 1992) and his probation was transferred to New York City.

He was able to find employment with Bloomingdales as a salesman, but was more interested in pursuing a career in education. In furtherance of that goal, he returned to Rutgers University in 1994 and completed his Masters in education in May 1995. After student teaching for four months at Fort Lee High School, he applied to the Paterson School District for a job as an elementary school teacher.

Although he did disclose the vehicular homicide on his application, he did not disclose the two minor drug offenses. His explanation for this failure was that he believed that the records with respect to the drug offenses had been sealed and therefore he had no obligation to disclose them. He did, in fact, indicate that, as far as he was concerned, the vehicular homicide was the more serious of the offenses, and having disclosed that, it would seem logical that he would have disclosed the minor drug offenses had he not believed that they were sealed.

In March 1996, he took over a fourth grade class at Public School 3 in Paterson. His supervisor in that position was Grisell Hernandez, the principal of the school. Ms. Hernandez has been principal of Public School 3 for approximately four years but has 25 years teaching experience. As principal it was her obligation and duty to evaluate Mr. Rixford. Her testimony concerning Mr. Rixford's performance was unhesitatingly complimentary. She gave him an outstanding evaluation and characterized him as extremely cooperative. Even after finding out about Mr. Rixford's prior convictions, she unequivocally voiced her complete support for him and was unquestionably very confident that Mr. Rixford would pose no danger to the students and that he would make an excellent teacher.

Shirley Glaubach, a reading teacher in the Paterson School District, was assigned as Mr. Rixford's "mentor teacher". She described a "mentor teacher" as a "big sister" who would be available to advise Mr. Rixford on procedural issues, educational contents and all aspects of teaching. She met with him on a regular basis several times a day over a period of several months. Ms. Glaubach found Mr. Rixford to be extremely receptive and open to suggestions and was "extremely pleased with his performance and believed he would be an excellent teacher".

Ms. Diane Cross, a school teacher for 43 years, was the teacher that Mr. Rixford was to replace during her illness. Ms. Cross was obviously very protective of her students and insisted on meeting and working with Mr. Rixford before he was assigned the duty of taking over her class. Ms. Cross was very impressed with Mr. Rixford and was delighted to leave her students in his charge.

THE LAW

The last section of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, part -7.1e; provides the standards that must be met in order to prove rehabilitation. Under this section an individual has the opportunity to overcome a disqualifying crime or offense by "affirmatively demonstrating to the Commissioner of Education by clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation". The higher burden of proof required to show rehabilitation is necessary in light of "the public policy of the State of New Jersey to protect children from unrehabilitated persons working in public schools." Application of V.S. 258 N.J. Super. 348, 352-53 (L.Div. 1992).

Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance. State v. Cale, 19 N.J. Super. 397, 400 (App. Div. 1952). Under this standard the fact finder must be reasonably certain or have a firm belief or conviction that the contested factual assertion is true. Aiello v. Knoll Golf Club, 64 N.J. Super. 156, 161 (App. Div. 1960).

Determining whether the rehabilitation requirements established under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1e have been satisfied requires a review of this section:

> (e) notwithstanding the provisions of this section an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:
> 1) the nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
>
> (2) the nature and seriousness of the offense;
>
> (3) the circumstances under which the offense occurred;
>
> (4) the date of the offense;
>
> (5) the age of the individual when the offense was committed;
>
> (6) whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
>
> (7) any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
>
> (8) any evidence of rehabilitation including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling, or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

Simply put, 16 years ago at the age of 20, Mr. Rixford was convicted of a relatively minor drug offense. He professes no further involvement with drugs and there is no indication whatsoever that there has been. The offense under those circumstances would have to be considered an isolated incident. The evidence of rehabilitation presented by his witnesses was compelling and convincing. Besides the actual testimony of the live witnesses, Mr. Rixford presented proof that he successfully completed his probation and has successfully pursued a Masters degree in education.

I FIND the evidence presented with respect to the above eight factors to be clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Rixford has reached an admirable level of rehabilitation.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, I FIND that the vehicular homicide to which Mr. Rixford pled guilty was not a disqualifying crime or occurrence. I FURTHER CONCLUDE that though his drug offense of 1984 was disqualifying, despite the argument that the law itself was an ex post facto unconstitutional exercise of power, he has, by clear and convincing evidence, established his rehabilitation.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that Scott E. Rixford has established his rehabilitation from a disqualifying offense and is hereby allowed to pursue the profession of public school teacher.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan 6 97
DATE

JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

/g

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 10401-96 AND 10402-96
AGENCY DKT. NOS. DHP 73-96 AND 88-96

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
DISQUALIFICATION FROM	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF S.E.R.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review, and based upon the credibility determinations of the ALJ and the absence of any evidence to rebut appellant's account of the arrests underlying his 1984 convictions for possession of controlled dangerous substances and his 1992 conviction for vehicular homicide, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that appellant's 1992 vehicular homicide offense is not disqualifying under the pertinent statute. As the ALJ determined, such offense involved negligent, rather than reckless conduct and, thus, did not involve the use of force or threat of force as specifically required by the plain language of the statute in order to be disqualifying. Further, the ALJ found that there was no alcohol or drug use involved. As to appellant's 1984 convictions for possession of controlled dangerous substances, while these are disqualifying offenses, the Commissioner concurs that appellant has demonstrated rehabilitation within the intendment of the criminal history record check statutes set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL is adopted for the reasons expressed therein, and appellant is hereby deemed eligible for school employment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 17, 1997
Date of Fax, January 17, 1997, Mailed January 21, 1997

29-97

29-97

THEODORE WURSTER,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning high school science teacher alleged he was wrongfully denied military service credit in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11. Petitioner sought back pay and salary adjustment.

ALJ concluded that petitioner was given proper credit for his military service when he was hired. ALJ found that petitioner was placed on the same initial step on the salary guide in 1990-91 as the District would have placed any other newly hired teacher with 10 years experience. Petitioner had 7 years of prior teaching experience and 3 years of military service. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted the findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

January 21, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7967-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 227-6/95

THEODORE WURSTER,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD, UNION COUNTY,

Respondent.

Sanford R. Oxfeld, Esq., for petitioner (Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen attorneys)

Casper P. Boehm, Jr., Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: November 4, 1996 Decided: December 3, 1996

BEFORE EDITH KLINGER, ALJ:

On June 23, 1995, petitioner Theodore Wurster filed a verified petition with the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, Department of Education, alleging that respondent failed to give him credit for his military service in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11 when it placed him on the wrong step on the salary guide at the beginning of his employment in the school district in 1990. He seeks the difference in back pay from 1990 and a salary adjustment which will place him on the appropriate step of the salary guide. On July 25, 1995, respondent filed its answer and on August 3, 1995, the Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

During a telephone conference held with the parties on September 21, 1995, it was determined that the following issues were to be decided at hearing:

1) Has petitioner already received credit for his three years of military service?
2) Is petitioner's claim barred by N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c), the ninety-day rule?
3) Is petitioner barred from seeking relief by application of the doctrine of laches?
4) Is petitioner barred by any other statutory or regulatory limitation of action?
5) To what relief, if any, is petitioner entitled?

The hearing was held on October 3, 1996, and the record closed on November 4, 1996, when the final posthearing submission was received.

THE RELEVANT STATUTE

N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11 provides that anyone who has served in the military is entitled > to receive equivalent years of employment credit for such service as if he had been employed for the same period of time in some publicly owned and operated college, school or institution of learning in this or any other state or territory of the United States, except that the period of such service shall not be credited toward more than four employment or adjustment increments.

REVIEW OF EVIDENCE

Petitioner, Theodore M. Wurster, has been employed by respondent, the Board of Education of the School District of Scotch Plains-Fanwood (Board), as a secondary science teacher since the 1990-91 school year.

The parties agree that, at the time he was first employed by the District, Wurster had 6.9, that is, 7, years of prior public school teaching experience. He also had 3 years of military service.

When he was hired by the District in 1990, he was placed on step 7 of the salary guide and he received $29,889 for his first year of employment. He claims that he should have started at step 10 based upon his 7 years of prior public school experience and his 3 years of military service. In that case, his starting salary would have been $32,843. Each succeeding year he moved up one level on the salary guide. He argues that, if he had received the correct salary at the outset, he would be at a step higher than 13 for the 1996-97 school year.

The Board argues that there is not a one-to-one correspondence between the steps on the salary guide and a teacher's prior years of public school teaching experience. It has the power to negotiate a teacher's starting salary. Consequently, newly-hired teachers are not always given full credit for prior teaching experience, excluding credit for military service, because it might cause them to be paid more than their value to the District. Other teachers are brought in on higher steps than their experience warrants if there is a great need to fill vacant positions. The initial placement of a teacher on the salary guide is "at such point as may be agreed upon by the [teacher] and the employing board of education." N.J.S.A. 18A:29-9.

The District's salary guide was completely revised in the collective bargaining agreement between the Board and the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Education Association, Inc., effective July 1, 1985, to June 30, 1988. This revision was necessary because of new legislation, N.J.S.A. 18A:29-5.6(b), which required that public school teachers be paid a minimum salary of $18,500 beginning with the 1984-85 academic year. Nineteen steps on the old salary guide were compressed into fifteen steps in such a manner that the full change would be phased in over a period of fifteen years.

The phase-in occurred in accord with the following compression schedule. During the 1985-86 school year, a teacher coming to the District with 1 to 3 years of prior public school teaching experience was placed on the first step of the guide, one with 4 to 6 years of prior experience was placed on the second step, and all other steps, for the most part, corresponded to actual years of prior experience. During the 1986-87 school year, a teacher coming to the District with 2 to 4 years of prior public school teaching experience was placed on the second step of the guide, one with 5 to 7 years of prior experience was placed on the third step, and all other steps, for the most part, corresponded to actual years of prior experience. By the 1990-91 school year, when Wurster began, a teacher coming to the District with 6 to 8 years of prior public school teaching experience was placed on the sixth step of the guide, one with 9 to 11 years of prior experience was placed on the seventh step, and all other steps, for the most part, corresponded to actual years of prior experience. R-3.

Robert Raiford, who has been employed by the Board as a personnel specialist for over fourteen years, interviewed Wurster when he applied for the teaching position and placed him on the appropriate step of the guide in accordance with the compression schedule and the collective bargaining agreement in effect between July 1, 1988, and June 30, 1991. He saw that Wurster had 7 years of prior teaching experience and 3 years of military service and determined that this was the equivalent of 10 years of prior teaching experience. He determined from the phase-in schedule that petitioner should, therefore, be placed on step 7 because he had between 9 and 11 years of experience.

Wurster is convinced that Raiford did not take his military service into account because, in July 1994, he received a proposed Seniority List of secondary science teachers and he was credited with only 4 years of service in the District toward his seniority. It should have been 7 years if his military service were included, but the error did not affect his seniority relative to the other secondary science teachers. When he called the mistake to Raiford's attention, it was quickly corrected, but Raiford asked him for documentation (DD214) showing the length of his military service. From this, Wurster assumed that Raiford did not know that he had served in the Marine Corps and had not started him on the right step of the salary guide when he was hired.

Raiford explained that an error was made on the Seniority List because there was a failure to cross-reference Wurster's military service record in his file. Raiford corrected the error as soon as it was called to his attention; however, he realized that the District had never asked Wurster to document his military service and, in the interest of completing the record, requested the DD214. The incident was completely irrelevant to the initial calculation of Wurster's salary at the time he was hired. Raiford produced his notes from his employment interview with petitioner and they reflect that Raiford was aware that Wurster had 3 years of military service.

Petitioner testified that he did not know of the existence of N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11 until April 1994 when he learned about it in a course on law that he was taking to get a higher degree. From that time he has repeatedly and unsuccessfully asked the District to correct his salary and restore his back pay.

The collective bargaining agreement for July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1988, shows the effect of the compression phase-in for the 1985-86 school year, but not for the remaining years in which the agreement was in effect. Appendix B, Article B-1, Salary Guide Placement, states, in relevant part:

> B. Credit for prior experience.
>
> 1. Upon initial employment, employees will be placed on the salary guide in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:29-9.
>
> [Exhibit R-2.]

The collective bargaining agreement for July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1991, makes no reference to the compression schedule, however, it also gives no indication as to how the steps on the salary guide relate to prior public school teaching experience. Appendix B, Article B-1, Salary Guide Placement, still refers to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-9 as the basis for the initial placement of newly hired teachers on the salary guide (P-6).

DISCUSSION OF LAW AND CONCLUSIONS

Petitioner argues that the Board had to follow the collective bargaining agreement for July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1991, and place Wurster on step 10 of the salary guide because this agreement, as opposed to the prior one, does not specifically refer to the compression schedule. This argument is without merit. The agreement in effect at the time Wurster was hired has no provision which directly correlates prior experience to a teacher's initial placement on the guide. In fact, it specifically defers to the Board's statutory discretion, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-9, to negotiate the initial point on the guide with the teacher at the time of hiring. I CONCLUDE that it was not a breach of this discretion nor a violation of the collective bargaining agreement for the Board to continue its implementation of the compression phase-in during the effective period of the new agreement.

I FIND that, in accord with the compression schedule, Wurster was given credit for his 3 years of military service when he was hired in 1990-91. If this were not the case he would have been placed on step 6 initially, along with any others who came to the District with 6 to 8 years of prior public school teaching experience.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11, the Board is required to give Wurster credit for his 3 years of military service as if it were 3 years of prior public school teaching experience. It is not, however, required to treat those 3 years any differently than it treats any other prior public teaching experience. Cape May County Vo-Tech v. Cape May County, 211 N.J. Super. 383, 387 (App. Div. 1986). I FIND that Wurster was placed on the same initial step on the salary guide in 1990-91 as the District would have placed any other newly-hired teacher in 1990-91 with 10 years of experience. Consequently, I CONCLUDE that he was given proper credit by the Board for his military service as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner is entitled to no relief in this matter, and it is ORDERED that his verified petition is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER

OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 3, 1996
DATE

Edith Klinger
EDITH KLINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

md

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

Theodore M. Wurster

Jacinta Kay

For Respondent:

Robert Raiford

Raymond A. Cassetta

Exhibits

For Petitioner:

P-1 Teacher of Science certificate

P-2 Letter, dated July 23, 1990

P-3 Résumé of Wurster

P-4 Application for Professional Position

P-5 Employment Contract

P-6 Agreement, July 1, 1988, to June 30, 1991

P-7 Proposed Seniority List

P-8 Form DD214

P-9 Memorandum, dated June 16, 1994

P-10 Letter, dated September 11, 1994

P-11 Letter, dated October 25, 1994

P-12 Memorandum, dated October 27, 1994, with attached 1985-86 Salary Guide

For Respondent:

R-1 Raiford's Interview Notes

R-2 Agreement, July 1, 1985, to June 30, 1988

R-3 Compression Schedule (Salary Guide Placement)

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7967-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 227-6/95

THEODORE WURSTER,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner essentially recasts and reiterates arguments presented before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) in his written summation again contending, inter alia, that he was denied credit for three years of military service in 1990 and, thus, seeks back pay and a salary adjustment. He maintains that there was no indication of a compression schedule in the collective bargaining agreement in effect when petitioner was hired or that somehow his initial placement on the salary guide was covered by a compression. (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 2-3) He further contends that pursuant to Board of Education of Neptune v. Neptune Township Education Association, 144 N.J. 16 (1966), and N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1, the compression which occurred in 1985 could be of no import five years later, when petitioner was hired, as the salary guide in question could have a term of no more than three years. He then emphasizes that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11, the Board is mandated to credit him for his military service. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 5) Lastly, he explains that Mr. Raiford, either by oversight or the appropriate correction on the seniority list. (Id. at p. 9) In that these arguments were already raised before the ALJ, they are not set forth more fully herein.

In its reply, the Board asserts that the ALJ's initial decision was proper and should be affirmed. (Board's Reply at p. 1) The Board avers that the testimony with regard to the compressed salary guide is credible and supported by the evidence. It further notes that it acted within its authority and to grant the relief sought by petitioner would create an inequitable situation within the school system. (Id. at pp. 1-2)

Upon review, the Commissioner affirms the initial decision of the ALJ that petitioner was given proper credit by the Board for his military service as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11 when he began his employ with the Board. The Commissioner is satisfied that the ALJ fully considered the arguments raised in petitioner's exceptions. He finds no cause to disturb such findings, based on a review of the record herein, and concurs that the Board acted in conformance with its authority when initially placing petitioner on the salary guide, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-9 and to the agreement in effect when petitioner was hired.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL that the instant Petition of Appeal be dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 21, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 21, 1997

30-97

30-97

LORETTA COLANTONI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LONG HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, guidance counselor who was riffed, asserted tenure and seniority entitlement to guidance position contracted out by the Board to Morris Union Jointure Commission (MUJC).

ALJ concluded that the Board acted within its discretion when it eliminated petitioner's counseling position due to financial constraints and, later, for reasons of economy, contracted with MUJC to offer guidance services. ALJ found the Board could contract out the guidance services for its special education students in the District but not the services for its nonhandicapped students. Board was not legally obligated to "recreate" a position in the District for petitioner. Thus, the ALJ concluded that petitioner was not entitled to have the portion of the guidance function related to handicapped students restored to her.

Commissioner adopted in part, reversed in part the ALJ's initial decision. Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board acted properly in contracting with MUJC and that petitioner would be recalled if the Board decided to employ a counselor for additional guidance needs. Commissioner, however, reversed the initial decision to the extent that it holds the enabling statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq., to preclude a jointure commission from offering services to nonhandicapped students. There is nothing in this statute that would act to preclude such commission from expanding the scope of its services to include nonhandicapped pupils where the contracting districts find such expansion to be in the best interest of efficient delivery of services. However, should the need for additional guidance services arise and should the Board decide to employ a counselor, the Board would be obligated to recall petitioner from the preferred eligibility list.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3304-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 61-2/96

LORETTA COLANTONI,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LONG HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., for petitioner (Bucceri and Pincus, attorneys)

Lance J. Kalik, Esq., for respondent (Riker, Danzig, Scherer, Hyland & Peretti, attorneys)

Record Closed: September 26, 1996 Decided: October 18, 1996

BEFORE EDITH KLINGER, ALJ:

On February 13, 1996, petitioner, Loretta Colantoni, filed a Verified Petition with the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, Department of Education, alleging that her tenure and seniority rights were violated when respondent, Long Hill Township (District)

Board of Education (Board), abolished her position as guidance counselor, transferred her to a classroom position within the scope of her teaching certificate, and later contracted with the Morris Union Jointure Commission to provide guidance services rather than recreating the guidance position in the district. On March 4, 1996, respondent filed its answer and, on March 18, 1996, the Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

During a telephone conference held with the parties on May 2, 1996, it was determined that the material facts could be stipulated and the matter resolved by summary decision. The record closed on September 26, 1996, when the final submission was received from the parties.

The following facts are as stated by petitioner in her certification in support of her cross-motion for summary decision and are undisputed by respondent.

She was employed by the Long Hill Township Board of Education as follows:

Year	Subject Area and Grade
1973-74	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1974-75	Half Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8) and Half Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8)
1975-76	Full Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8)
1976-77	3/4 Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8) 1/4 Time Special Services
1977-78	3/4 Time Guidance (Grades 5-8) 1/4 Time Special Services
1978-79	Half Time Guidance (Grades 5-8) and Half Time Teacher of Social Studies (Grades 7 and 8)
1979-80	Full Time Teacher of Social Studies (Grades 7 and 8)
1980-81	Full Time Teacher of Social Studies (Grades 7 and 8)

1981-82	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1982-83	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1983-84	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1984-85	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1985-86	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1986-87	Full Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
1987-88	4/5 Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
	1/5 Time Teacher of English (Grades 7 and 8)
1988-89	2/5 Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
	1/5 Time Teacher of Social Studies
	2/5 Time Teacher of Reading (Grades 7 and 8)
1989-90	4/5 Time Teacher of Math (Grades 7 and 8)
	1/5 Time Teacher of Social Studies
1990-91	Full Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8)
1991-92	Full Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8)
1992-93	Full Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8)
1993-94	4/5 Time Guidance Counselor (Grades 5-8)
	1/5 Time Teacher of Math (Grade 7)
1994-95	Half Time Teacher of Math (Grade 7)
	1/6 Time Teacher of Health (Grade 7)
	1/6 Time Teacher of Math (Grade 7)
	1/3 Time Teacher of Social Studies (Grade 7)
1995-96	Half Time Teacher of Social Studies (Grade 7)
	1/6 Time Teacher of Health (Grade 7)
	1/6 Time Teacher of Math (Grade 7)
	1/6 Time Teacher of Literature (Grade 7)

At all relevant times, Colantoni was certified as a teacher with endorsements in English, mathematics, social studies, and science (Grades 7 through 9), an Elementary Teacher (Grades 7 and 8), as well as a student personnel services endorsement. She also holds certain supervisory certifications which are irrelevant to the present matter.

Petitioner has achieved tenure in the district under her instructional certificate and under her educational services certificate in the area of student personnel services.

The Board submitted the affidavit of Edward F. Izbicki, Sr. in support of its cross-motion for summary decision. Izbicki has been the Board Secretary, Business Administrator for the Board since September 18, 1995.

He stated that there has been no full-time or part-time guidance position for grades five through eight in the district since the close of the 1993-94 school year when it was eliminated for budgetary reasons.

It subsequently appeared that part-time guidance services were necessary and, on November 27, 1995, the Board passed a resolution to contract with the Morris Union Jointure Commission (MUJC) to provide guidance services for sixteen hours a week to both classified and non-classified students. Jean Molendyke, the employee of the MUJC providing the guidance services, is fully certified and qualified to do so.

The initial contract between the Board and the MUJC ran from November 28, 1995 through June 30, 1996. The contract is to be renewed for the 1996-97 school year.

At the time Colantoni's position was abolished, she was placed on a preferred list to be placed back into the guidance position if it is ever recreated in the district. She argues that the district was legally unable to contract out the position and the position had to be recreated in the district and given to her.

Colantoni has not suffered any loss of income because of the abolition of her position and her lateral transfer.

DISCUSSION OF LAW AND CONCLUSIONS

When the guidance position was abolished in 1994, it was not the subject of an appeal by Colantoni and no authority has been found which states that the district is legally required to maintain such a position. Consequently, it will be assumed that the position could have been abolished and the abolition was for reasons of economy.

A person holding the position of guidance counselor may be transferred, without loss of salary, to a classroom teaching position without the individual's consent pursuant to a reduction in force or abolition of the guidance position. Childs v. Union Township Board of Education (N.J. App. Div., July 19, 1982, A-3603-80T1) (unreported), p. 2.

Further, it is within the discretion of the Board to eliminate such a position to meet financial constraints while continuing to provide the services related to the abolished position, even if it alters the "full-time status of a tenured employee." Impey v. Board of Education of the Borough of Shrewsbury, 142 N.J. 388, 399 (1995). I, therefore, CONCLUDE that the Board could contract out the services formerly provided by Colantoni.

The next question to be addressed is whether the Board could contract out the guidance services for non-handicapped as well as handicapped students to the MUJC. The statute creating jointure commissions is contained in Chapter 46 of Title 18A, N.J.S.A., entitled "Special Schools and Classes," which deals with special facilities and special education programs. A review of the Jointure Commission Statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq., shows that two or more boards of education may form a joint commission, such as the MUJC, to carry out jointly "the duties imposed upon them in regard to the education and training of handicapped pupils." N.J.S.A. 18A:46-25. (Emphasis added.)

In Impey, supra, the joint body providing services was an Educational Services Commission (ESC), authorized in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-51 et seq.. This type of agency is established jointly by boards of education to carry on "programs of educational research and development" and provide "to public schools such educational and administrative services as may be authorized pursuant to rules of the State Board of Education." An ESC may provide services to the handicapped but is not limited by statute to this role as is a jointure commission. N.J.A.C. 6:28-7.1.

Based upon Impey and the statutes creating ESCs and jointure commissions, I CONCLUDE that the Board could contract out the guidance services for its special education students to the MUJC but not the services for its non-handicapped pupils. There is nothing in the record to indicate that the Board participates in an ESC but, if it did, all of its guidance services could have been contracted out to such an agency.

A reduction in force, if done for reasons of economy, is within the discretion of the Board. Impey, supra, at 398. Therefore, the Board could abolish the guidance position to meet financial constraints and contract out the services for special needs students to the MUJC. As a result, I CONCLUDE that Colantoni is not entitled to have the portion of the guidance function related to handicapped students restored to her.

This raises several questions: what fraction of the sixteen hours a week of guidance services which are now contracted out to the MUJC is attributable to non-handicapped students; and will the Board decide to service these pupils if not through the MUJC?. The Board might reestablish a part-time guidance position for the non-handicapped students in the District. If so, I CONCLUDE that Colantoni would be entitled to it. On the other hand, the Board might decide that there is insufficient need and it is not economically reasonable to provide guidance services to non-handicapped students. Alternatively, the Board might find that it is better to have one provider and bring the guidance services for all students back to the District, in which case I CONCLUDE that Colantoni would also be entitled to the position.

These alternatives, and perhaps others, are all within the managerial discretion of the Board and, I CONCLUDE, the appropriate one must be chosen by it based upon budgetary considerations and the need for the services.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Board is under no obligation to maintain a guidance position in the District if it is not economical to do so and Colantoni has lost no income because of her transfer to a classroom teaching position. Consequently, I CONCLUDE that she is entitled to no relief in this matter unless the Board exercises its managerial discretion to recreate a guidance position in the District.

It is therefore ORDERED that summary decision is hereby GRANTED to respondent and the appeal of Loretta Colantoni is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

October 18, 1996
DATE

EDITH KLINGER, ALJ

October 23, 1996
DATE

Receipt Acknowledged:
D. M. Ardanowski/p
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

OCT 24 1996
DATE

Mailed to Parties:
Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

md

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3304-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 61-2/96

LORETTA COLANTONI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LONG HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Exceptions were timely filed by both petitioner and the Board. Replies were also timely filed by petitioner, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner objects to the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) failure, in light of her findings and conclusions, to direct the Board in the initial decision "to take any action to correct its illegal subcontracting of guidance work." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 2) Consequently, petitioner urges the Commissioner "to affirmatively direct the Board to employ [her] as its Guidance Counselor in any position which includes both non-handicapped and handicapped guidance services." (Id.)

Petitioner underscores that the statutes do not permit the Board's position, as it is currently configured, to be subcontracted to a jointure commission. As such, petitioner maintains that the initial decision "effectively found [her] allegations to be substantiated," notwithstanding that the ALJ dismisses the petition. (Id. at pp. 2- 3) Petitioner further contends, > While it is true that the Board could subsequently change or abolish the position if it chose, it is not the role of a decision-maker to present the respondent with a list of options to correct its illegal action instead of deciding the case on the facts that currently exist.

> (Id. at p. 3)

Thus, petitioner asks that the Commissioner order "the Board to cease the illegal subcontracting of the single position it has created" and to either employ her in that position or abolish same in favor of some alternative which comports with the law. (Id. at p. 4)

The Board's sole exception taken to the initial decision concerns the ALJ's legal conclusion that services to nonhandicapped students are precluded by N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. In this regard, the Board incorporates by reference its brief filed at the OAL in opposition to petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision and in Support of Respondent's Cross-Motion for Summary Decision. Therein, the Board contends, inter alia, that the pertinent statute contains no language limiting the jointure commissions to providing services exclusively to handicapped students. (Board's Brief at p. 13) The Board adds that its "conclusion is supported by the fact that since its existence, the MUJC [Morris Union Jointure Commission] has provided a myriad of services to non-handicapped students." (Id. at p. 14) Listing those "other" services to nonhandicapped students, the Board argues that a contrary ruling "could have a drastic effect upon jointure commissions, as well as the local districts that rely upon them for assistance with these worthwhile and important services." (Id. at pp. 15, 16) Thus, the Board urges the Commissioner to reverse the ALJ's restrictive reading of N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. and find, instead, that it is entitled to contract all of its guidance services to the MUJC. (Board's Exceptions at p. 2)

In reply to the Board's argument concerning the delivery of services by the MUJC to nonhandicapped students, petitioner incorporates by reference her Brief in Support of Motion for Summary Judgment, essentially contending that N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. does not authorize the provision of such services and "the Board has thus subverted the intended purposes of a jointure commission." (Petitioner's Brief at pp. 6-8)

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner determines to adopt in part, and reverse in part, the recommended decision of the ALJ. Initially, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the Board acted within its discretion when it eliminated petitioner's counseling position due to financial constraints, see N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, and later, for reasons of economy, contracted with the MUJC to offer guidance services to the students in its District.[1] Contrary to petitioner's position, for the reasons set forth in the initial decision, the Board was not legally obligated to "recreate" a position in its District and to give it to her. (Initial Decision at p. 4) Notwithstanding this conclusion, should the need for additional guidance services arise, and should the Board decide to employ a counselor to meet that need, the Board will be obligated to recall petitioner from the preferred eligibility list in accordance with the standards established by N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1.

[1] The Board notes that the position of guidance counselor for grades 5-8 for the 1994-95 school year was eliminated because of budgetary constraints. The Board further provides that there was no full-time or part-time guidance position for grades 5-8 in the District for the 1994-95 school year. Accordingly, petitioner was assigned a full-time teaching position. In the 1995-96 school year, in response to public requests to reinstate the guidance position, but still faced with budgetary constraints, the Board effectuated the agreement with the MUJC. (Izbicki Certification at p. 2, as referenced in the Board's Brief at p. 4)

However, the Commissioner reverses the initial decision of the ALJ to the extent that it holds the enabling statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq., to preclude a jointure commission from offering services to nonhandicapped students. While the primary purpose of a jointure commission is to assist boards of education in carrying out their common duties with respect to the education and training of handicapped pupils, nothing in this statute would act to preclude such commission from expanding the scope of its services to include nonhandicapped pupils where the contracting districts find such expansion to be in the best interest of efficient delivery of services. Under the circumstances herein, for example, nullification of the Board's agreement with the MUJC would certainly contravene sound fiscal and educational policy.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted in part, and reversed in part, for the reasons set forth above, and the Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed. [2]

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[2] Subsequent to issuance of the initial decision, as well as receipt of exception and reply arguments, the Board requested, by letter dated November 27, 1996, to supplement the record in order to respond to the questions raised by the ALJ in the initial decision. Those questions concerned the percentage of time which the contracted guidance counselor at the MUJC served nonhandicapped students, so as to ascertain the need, if any, for the Board to establish a guidance position in its District to serve nonhandicapped pupils. In view of the outcome herein, the Commissioner finds it unnecessary to reach to the Board's request, or to petitioner's objections, to supplementing the record with such information.

January 23, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 23, 1997

30-97

EDU #3304-96
C # 30-97
SB # 19-97

LORETTA COLANTONI, :

PETITIONER-APPELLANT, :

V. : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN- : DECISION ON MOTION SHIP OF LONG HILL, MORRIS COUNTY, :

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 23, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Riker, Danzig, Scherer, Hyland & Perretti (Lance Kalik, Esq., of Counsel)

Upon review of the papers filed, the State Board of Education grants petitioner's motion to supplement the record on appeal with the certification of Dr. James A. Durante, Superintendent of the Long Hill Township School District. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

30-97

EDU #3304-96
C # 30-97
SB # 19-97

LORETTA COLANTONI,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LONG HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON MOTION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 23, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, June 4, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Riker, Danzig, Scherer, Hyland & Perretti (Lance Kalik, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated in February 1996 on behalf of Loretta Colantoni (hereinafter "petitioner"), a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Long Hill Township Board of Education (hereinafter "Board"). Petitioner alleged that the Board had violated her tenure and seniority rights when it eliminated her position as a guidance counselor and subsequently subcontracted with the Morris Union Jointure Commission ("Jointure Commission") to provide guidance services to non-handicapped students. Petitioner sought reassignment to a guidance counselor position.

JANUARY 6, 1999

In April 1996, the Long Hill Township Education Association filed an unfair practice charge against the Board with the Public Employment Relations Commission ("PERC") based on the same allegations as are involved herein. In June 1996, the Board sought to consolidate the instant case with the PERC matter. The Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") denied the Board's request.

On October 18, 1996, the ALJ issued an initial decision in this matter. Although finding that petitioner was not entitled to any relief, the ALJ concluded that the Board could not properly subcontract with a jointure commission to provide guidance services to non-handicapped students.

On January 23, 1997, the Commissioner adopted that part of the ALJ's decision which found that petitioner was not entitled to relief. However, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's determination that the Board could not subcontract with the Jointure Commission to provide guidance services to non-handicapped students.

Petitioner filed an appeal to the State Board from the Commissioner's decision.

On October 29, 1998, the Board filed the instant motion seeking dismissal of the appeal. The Board contends that the matter is moot since petitioner had retired from her employment with the district effective January 1, 1998.

In response, petitioner argues that the State Board should decide the appeal. Petitioner maintains that the central issue raised herein–i.e., whether the terms of the enabling statutes that authorize the establishment of jointure commissions, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq., permit the Board to contract with a jointure commission for the provision of services to non-handicapped students–is both an issue of public concern and one that is likely to reoccur. Petitioner also contends that the State Board should resolve the issue because PERC had effectively deferred action on the unfair practice charge pending the outcome of this appeal and that it is our agency's interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. that will be controlling in the PERC matter.

After careful consideration of the arguments made by counsel, including those in the Board's reply to petitioner's answer to its motion to dismiss, we deny the Board's motion. Resolution of the issue involved herein will have far-reaching implications for New Jersey's system of public education and, therefore, the public interest dictates that the State Board decide it. E.g., Galloway Township Board of Educ. v. Galloway Township Educ. Ass'n, 78 N.J. 25, 46-47 (1978).

In order to decide the merits of this matter as expeditiously as possible, we direct the Board to supplement the record on appeal within ten days of the date of this decision with the agreements and resolutions which had been submitted to the Commissioner for approval pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. to establish the Morris Union Jointure Commission. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9.

January 6, 1999

Date of mailing JAN 08 1999

30-97

EDU #3304-96
C # 30-97
SB # 19-97

LORETTA COLANTONI,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LONG HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 23, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, June 4, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, January 6, 1999

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Riker, Danzig, Scherer, Hyland & Perretti (Lance Kalik, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated in February 1996 on behalf of Loretta Colantoni (hereinafter "petitioner"), a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Long Hill Township Board of Education (hereinafter "Board"). Petitioner alleged that the Board had violated her tenure and seniority rights when, after it had eliminated her position as a guidance counselor, it had subcontracted with the Morris-Union Jointure Commission ("Jointure Commission") to provide guidance services to its students, including non-handicapped students. Although petitioner had been employed by the Board under her instructional certificate without loss of pay following the elimination of her position as a guidance counselor, she sought reassignment to a guidance counselor position.

MARCH 3, 1999

On October 18, 1996, an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") issued an initial decision in this matter. Although finding that petitioner was not entitled to any relief at that point,[1] the ALJ concluded that the Board could not properly subcontract with a jointure commission to provide guidance services to non-handicapped students.

On January 23, 1997, the Commissioner adopted that part of the ALJ's decision which found that petitioner was not entitled to relief. However, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's determination that N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. precluded the Board from subcontracting with the Jointure Commission to provide guidance services to non-handicapped students. Rather, the Commissioner concluded that:

> While the primary purpose of a jointure commission is to assist boards of education in carrying out their common duties with respect to the education and training of handicapped pupils, nothing in this statute would act to preclude such commission from expanding the scope of its services to include nonhandicapped pupils where the contracting districts find such expansion to be in the best interest of efficient delivery of services.

Commissioner's decision, slip op. at 12.

Petitioner filed an appeal to the State Board from the Commissioner's decision.

On October 29, 1998, the Board moved for dismissal of the appeal, contending that the matter was moot since petitioner had retired from her employment with the district effective January 1, 1998.

---

[1] The ALJ observed that there were several alternatives available to the Board if it chose to provide guidance services and that the Board was under no obligation to maintain a guidance counselor position. Hence, the ALJ concluded that petitioner would be entitled to relief only if the Board chose to recreate a guidance counselor position.

In our decision of January 6, 1999, we denied the Board's motion. In doing so, we found that resolution of the issue raised by this appeal would have far-reaching implications for New Jersey's system of public education. Consequently, we concluded that the public interest dictated that we decide the statutory question that had been raised in this case notwithstanding the fact that the individual petitioner involved would not be afforded any relief as a result of our decision.[2]

In order to decide the issue as expeditiously as possible, we directed the Board to supplement the record on appeal with the agreements and resolutions which had been submitted to the Commissioner for approval pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. to establish the Morris-Union Jointure Commission.

After reviewing the Board's submission, as well as the briefs filed by the parties, we find, as the ALJ correctly concluded, that the Board could not contract with a jointure commission established pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 for the provision of guidance services to non-handicapped students.

The establishment of jointure commissions is authorized by N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq., which also prescribes their powers. Those statutory provisions are included in Chapter 46 of the education statutes, which specifically provides for "Classes and Facilities for Handicapped Children." N.J.S.A. 18A:46-14 enumerates the various ways in which special education facilities and programs required under Chapter 46 must be provided. N.J.S.A. 18A:46-14(d) specifically authorizes the provision of such facilities and programs through a jointure commission program. The establishment of jointure commissions is authorized by N.J.S.A. 18A:46-25, which provides that:

[2] In April 1996, the Long Hill Township Education Association had filed an unfair practice charge against the Board with the Public Employment Relations Commission ("PERC") based on the same allegations as are involved herein. In urging the State Board not to dismiss her appeal as moot, petitioner contended that the State Board should resolve the issue because PERC had effectively deferred action on the unfair practice charge pending the outcome of this appeal and that it is our agency's interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 et seq. that will be controlling in the PERC matter.

> When two or more boards of education determine to carry out jointly by agreement the duties imposed upon them in regard to the education and training of handicapped pupils the said boards may, in accordance with rules and regulations of the state board, and with the approval of the commissioner by adoption of similar resolutions establish a jointure commission for the purpose of providing such services....

N.J.S.A. 18A:46-26 delineates the powers of a jointure commission. These include the authority to: a) provide and maintain necessary facilities, b) take necessary action for the proper conduct of the educational program for "such children" referred to it by its member boards, c) employ staff, d) accept pupils from other school districts, and e) apportion costs of the program. In addition, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-26 provides that:

> Within the limited responsibilities of this chapter and except as otherwise provided, the commission shall have and may exercise all powers of a board of education in carrying out the purpose of this chapter.

The language of the applicable statutes is clear and unambiguous. As the Commissioner has previously recognized, jointure commissions were created only for the purpose of educating and training handicapped students. Stuermer v. Board of Education of the Special Services School District of Bergen County, 1978 SLD 628, 631. In conferring the power on jointure commissions to take such action as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the educational program for "such children" as are referred to them, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-26, the Legislature provided jointure commissions with the authority to provide education and training only to handicapped students. This limitation is reinforced by the Legislature's grant to jointure commissions of all powers of boards of education "[w]ithin the limited responsibilities of this chapter" and "in carrying out the purpose of this chapter." N.J.S.A. 18A:46-26. As previously indicated, the only purpose of Chapter 46 is to provide for special educational services for handicapped children. See, e.g., N.J.S.A. 18A:46-2.

Quite simply, there is nothing in the statutory language to provide the authority for the provision of services to non-handicapped students by a jointure commission. See Fair Lawn Ed. Assn. v. Fair Lawn Bd. of Education, 79 N.J. 574 (1979). That being the case, the Board could not properly provide guidance services to its non-handicapped students by contracting with the Morris-Union Jointure Commission for those services.

This conclusion is reinforced by review of the application for the establishment of the Morris-Union Jointure Commission, which the State Board of Education approved on June 3, 1987 on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Education. The application shows clearly that the Morris-Union Jointure Commission was established under the statutory framework in order for the member boards to provide special education services and programs through a cooperative arrangement. In this respect, we reject the Board's suggestion that Article II of the Jointure Commission's constitution expanded this purpose to include the provision of services to all students of the member and subcontracting districts.

In that petitioner did not suffer any economic loss as a result of the Board's action and has retired from her employment in the district, the relief afforded by our decision is limited to this declaration.

March 3, 1999

Date of mailing MAR 05 1999

(SB) 30-97

SB #30-97

IN THE MATTER OF AN ADJUSTMENT TO :
THE SPENDING GROWTH LIMITATION :
REQUEST OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BERKELEY, OCEAN :
COUNTY. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 24, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Robert D. Budesa, Esq.

This matter involves an appeal from a determination made by the Commissioner of Education on March 24, 1997 to approve only $461,789 of a $906,789 request by the Board of Education of the Township of Berkeley (hereinafter "Board") under N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5(d) for an increase in the district's spending growth limitation for the 1997-98 school year.

The matter was initially placed in abeyance at the Board's request, and, by letter dated May 29, 1997, the Board requested to withdraw its appeal on the basis of an agreement it had arrived at with the Township Council with respect to its education budget for 1997-98.

After reviewing the Board's request, we approve withdrawal of the appeal since the documentation reflects a budget that is within the spending growth limitation established by the Commissioner's March 24 determination. However, in that the agreement between the Board and the Township Council would also settle any dispute concerning the Township Council's determination pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 of the amount necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of schools in the district, we refer the proposed settlement to the Commissioner for approval as required by N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.3.

7/2/97

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 08 1997

31-97

CLARISSA C. KOCH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE UNION COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

January 23, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9501-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 271-7/95

CLARISSA C. KOCH,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE UNION COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1,
Respondent.

Wayne J. Oppito, Esq., for petitioner

Andrew B. Brown, Esq., for respondent,
(Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 6, 1996 Decided: December 6, 1996

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of Facts

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on August 23, 1995, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached stipulation indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Dec. 6, 1996
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/3/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harner
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

DEC 3 11 07 AM '96

OAL DKT. NO. 9501-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 271-7/95

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

CLARISSA C. KOCH,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE UNION COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1,
Respondent.

The parties agree to resolve the above matter as follows:

1. The Board shall increase Ms. Koch's 1996-97 base salary by the amount of $6,660, to a total of $80,230, retroactive to September 1, 1996.

2. Upon approval by the Office of Administrative Law, the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, and the Board of Education, Ms. Koch shall receive the retroactive money in a lump sum less deductions for the period between September 1, 1996 and the date of the final approval above. Her subsequent checks for the remainder of the 1996-97 school year shall reflect the new rate.

3. Ms. Koch shall withdraw the pending matter.

4. In future school years, Ms. Koch's salary shall be established by the appropriate school district, which Petitioner represents as having full knowledge of this matter.

5. Except as set forth herein, in the event that Union County Regional High School District No. 1 is in existence beyond June 30, 1997, the parties agree that Koch's salary base for the 1997-98 school year will be $76,070.

6. The parties shall execute mutual releases which shall include a non-admission clause.

7. This agreement will only become effective when it is approved by the Commissioner of Education. Any disapproval by the Commissioner shall not interfere with the rights of either party to pursue this matter further.

DATED: December 6, 1996

Wayne J. Oppito, Esq.
Attorney for Petitioner

Clarissa C. Koch, Petitioner

Andrew B. Brown, Esq.
(Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler)
Attorney for Respondent

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9501-95

CLARISSA C. KOCH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE UNION COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 23, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 23, 1997

32-97

EDU #11369-95
C # 32-97
SB # 17-97

AKBAR ZADRAN,

PETITIONER-APPELLANT,

V. : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY, : DECISION ON MOTIONS

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 23, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Rutgers University Constitutional Litigation Clinic (Eric Neisser, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck (Frank Pomaco, Esq., of Counsel)

Upon review of the papers filed, the State Board of Education grants petitioner's motion to admit Penny M. Venetis, Esq. pro hac vice so as to permit her to represent the petitioner before the State Board with respect to the current matter. In addition, we grant petitioner's motion to supplement the record on appeal. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9. Accordingly, we reestablish the briefing schedule and direct that petitioner submit a brief in support of his appeal within twenty days from the date of this decision. The Board's answer brief is due within twenty days after service of petitioner's brief.

May 7, 1997

Date of mailing MAY 09 1997

32-97

AKBAR ZADRAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning parent sought continued enrollment in the Belleville School District for his four children. Board sought payment of tuition, alleging the children were not domiciled in Belleville.

ALJ found that although part of the condominium complex where petitioner lived was located in Belleville, petitioner's unit was mainly located in Newark and petitioner's property taxes (paid by the landlord) were paid to the City of Newark. Thus, the ALJ concluded that the children were domiciled in Newark and were ineligible to attend free public school in Belleville. ALJ ordered the children transferred to the Newark public school district as soon as reasonably possible, directing petitioner to pay the sum of $35,466 to the Board for tuition charges accruing since September 1995 school year when petition was filed, not from February 1993 when the family moved to the condominium.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

January 23, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11369-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 340-8/95

AKBAR ZADRAN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE,
Respondent.

Akbar Zadran, pro se

Frank Pomaco, Esq., for respondent,
(Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 25, 1996 Decided: December 6, 1996

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of the Case

This is an appeal brought on behalf of four students seeking continued enrollment in the Belleville school district. Respondent Belleville Board of Education ("Board") has counterclaimed seeking payment of tuition. Basically, the dispute involves whether petitioner's children are domiciled in Belleville within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). Akbar Zadran and his family reside in a condominium complex located on the border between the Township of Belleville and the City of Newark. Petitioner contends that his domicile is Belleville and, therefore, that his children are entitled to attend school in the Belleville district free of charge. The Board maintains that the particular dwelling unit occupied by the Zadran family is situated in Newark and, consequently, that the children are ineligible for free public education in Belleville.

For the reasons that follow, the children's domicile is determined to be in Newark and the parents must reimburse the district for tuition costs since September 1995.

Procedural History

On August 29, 1995, Mr. Zadran filed a verified petition with the Commissioner of Education alleging that his children were eligible to attend the Belleville public schools. The Board filed its answer on September 25, 1995. In accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b), the children were allowed to remain in school, on condition that the parents would be liable for payment of tuition in the event that it was ultimately determined that the children are not domiciled in Belleville.

Subsequently, on October 5, 1995, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing as a contested case. The OAL held a hearing on November 25, 1996. Witnesses and exhibits are listed in the appendix.

Findings of Fact

All of the material facts necessary for disposition of this case are undisputed. I FIND:

Akbar Zadran's four children, ages eighteen, sixteen, eleven and nine, have been enrolled in the Belleville school district for several years. Previously, Mr. Zadran, together with his wife and children, had lived at a different address in Belleville. In or about February 1993, the family moved to a larger and more comfortable apartment which is part of a complex known as Convent Court Condominiums. Mr. Zadran honestly thought that the new apartment was still within the geographical confines of Belleville. He had told the broker who found the apartment for him that he wanted to live in Belleville. Moreover, the apartment has a Belleville mailing address and a Belleville telephone exchange. A written lease describes the premises as "2 Honnis Street, Belleville, NJ Apt. A-17."

Ray and Cathy Veniero, the owners who subleased the premises to Mr. Zadran, led him to believe that the apartment was located in Belleville. Nonetheless, there were circumstances that might have put an alert tenant on notice that something was wrong. Rent for Apartment A-17 was considerably less than the rent for comparable living space available in the Township of Belleville. At the hearing, Mr. Zadran produced an advertising brochure by the real estate developer which claims that the condominium is located in "Bright Beautiful Belleville!" However, Mr. Zadran could not possibly have relied on this statement, since he was unaware of the brochure at the time that he entered into the lease.

It turns out that only six of the twenty-four dwelling units in the Convent Court Condominium complex are physically located in Belleville and the remaining eighteen are located in Newark. Tax maps depict the condominium complex as straddling the Belleville and Newark boundary line, with the bulk of the footage on the Newark side. Apartment Unit A-17 in particular is located mainly in Newark. A survey conducted by professional land surveyors for the owner reveals that "the total area of Unit A-17 is 1,103 square feet" and that only "101 square feet or nine percent of said area lies within the Township of Belleville." Although Mr. Zadran testified that his living room is "half in Newark and half in Belleville," he admits that the two bedrooms are completely in Newark. Correspondence from the respective municipalities shows that Unit A-17 "is assessed fully by the City of Newark" and that its owner "does not pay taxes to Belleville." Of course, Mr. Zadran had no way of knowing that situation when he entered into the lease, because property taxes are paid directly by the landlord. On Newark tax records, the address of the condominium complex is designated as "33-43 Monteith Avenue." Montieth Avenue is the extension of Honnis Street into Newark.

Much of the remaining evidence concerns factors that are less crucial in ascertaining eligibility for school attendance. Mr. Zadran receives utility bills sent to the Belleville address because that is the mailing address which he provided to the utility companies. However, postal zones do not necessarily coincide with municipal boundaries. Front and rear entrances to Building A are in Belleville. Tenants have access to a storage room located in Belleville. Since the tenants do not have assigned parking spaces, they may park their cars on either the Newark or Belleville side of the parking lot. The entrance to the parking lot is on North 7th Street, which is in Belleville.

Testimony regarding police and fire services is ambiguous. On one occasion last March, Zadran reported the theft of a radio from his car to the Belleville police and they responded. Mr. Zadran cannot say whether the Newark police would have also responded, since he did not contact them. On another occasion in July 1995, Mr. Zadran tried to tell the Belleville police about a shooting which had occurred on the street in front of the complex, but the dispatcher told him to notify the Newark police. After a jurisdictional dispute between the two departments, the Newark police eventually took responsibility for the investigation. A neighbor once called the Belleville fire department about a hallway fire, but her apartment unit is in the Belleville portion of the building. It is unclear from the record whether garbage collection and sewer service is provided by the condominium management or by one or the other of the municipalities. Similarly, it is uncertain where Mr. Zadran would be allowed to vote, since he is not registered in either community.

When assistant superintendent Joseph Ciccone learned that the apartment occupied by the Zadran family was taxed by the City of Newark, he sent a letter, dated August 10, 1995, notifying the parents that, "your children will be transferred out of the district of Belleville for the beginning of the 1995-96 school year." According to Dr. Ciccone's testimony, he "decided to allow the Zadran children to finish out the [1994-95] school year." In addition, Dr. Ciccone's letter offered that, "If you are able to relocate within the Township of Belleville in a bona fide residency, [the children] will be allowed to return." Thus, Mr. Zadran was clearly on notice prior to the commencement of the 1995-96 school year of the Board's contention that his family did not genuinely reside in Belleville. Insofar as the record reflects, the last lease renewal expired on February 28, 1995, so that family was free to move without incurring liability for additional rent.

Proofs establish that tuition costs for a child attending the elementary grades in the Belleville district was $5,565 for the 1995-96 school year and $1,763 for the current year through the date of the hearing. Tuition costs for a student in high school was $7,923 for 1995-96 and $2,482 for the current school year. Since the Zadrans have two children at each level, total tuition amounts to $35,466.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that the children are domiciled in the City of Newark and are ineligible to attend free public school in Belleville.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) declares that public schools shall be free to anyone over five and under twenty years of age "who is domiciled within the school district." Recently, the Legislature amended the law to strengthen a school district's authority to remove students not legally domiciled within the district. L. 1993, c. 380. Most significantly, the amendment places an affirmative obligation on a parent or guardian to challenge a school board's determination that a child is not entitled to attend school in a particular district. If the evidence does not support the claim of the parent or guardian, the Commissioner "shall assess the parent or guardian tuition for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the schools of the district." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2).

School law decisions addressing the issue of a family living at or near the dividing line between two adjoining districts have given decisive consideration to the precise geographic location of the home and the identity of the municipality to which taxes are paid. Illustratively, in Laufer v. Scotch Plains-Fanwood Reg. Schs., 1970 S.L.D. 424, 425 (Comm'r Dec. 4, 1970), a house was "built on land within the district boundary lines of Plainfield, although a contiguous part of the same property is within the physical boundary lines of Scotch Plains." While all of the house and most of the surrounding land were assessed by Plainfield, all police, fire and other municipal services were provided by Scotch Plains. Arguing that it is a common practice for municipalities to provide municipal services in borderline areas, Scotch Plains insisted that such practice "does not change the character of the property's location or confer rights to school attendance for children living thereon." 1970 S.L.D. at 426. Upholding Scotch Plains' view, the Commissioner declared that "petitioners' true permanent home is entirely situate on land in Plainfield" and the fact that a piece of land in a neighboring town is part of the same parcel "is of no importance in a determination of where petitioners' children are domiciled." (at 427).

Even stronger support for the Board's position comes from Duckett v. Shaw, 1978 S.L.D. 411 (Comm'r April 24, 1978). In that case, petitioners occupied a residence "located in the geographical boundaries of both the Village of South Orange and the City of Orange." (at 411). Their house fronted on a road in the City of Orange, however, "the boundaries of the property cross[ed] two distinct school districts." (at 412). Taxes were split between both municipalities, although the City of Orange received the larger share. Both parents had voted for many years in South Orange elections, participated in various community activities in South Orange and attended church in South Orange. Sanitation and other municipal services were furnished by South Orange and the house had a South Orange mailing address. Again heavily influenced by geographic location and tax receipts, the Commissioner ruled that outcome was governed by Laufer and that the proper domicile was the City of Orange, where most of the property taxes went.

Here too, nearly all of the Zadran's living space, including the children's sleeping quarters, are physically located in Newark and every penny of tax money goes to Newark. As long as school finance in New Jersey is so dependent on property taxes, it would be inequitable to impose the financial burden of educating the Zadran children on the citizens of Belleville while the citizens of Newark enjoy the benefit of tax revenues derived from their living arrangements. Incidental items, such as where the nearest post office happens to be or which local police or fire department is summoned to answer an emergency call, should not be the deciding factor.

Despite the clear legal authority in Belleville's favor, Mr. Zadran urges that it would be unfair to exclude his children from Belleville schools because he is the innocent victim of an unfortunate misunderstanding. But the Board is equally if not more blameless, and Mr. Zadran's apparent good faith does not alter the geographic realities of the situation. Whatever remedies the family may possess against persons who may have misrepresented the facts to him, his purity of intent cannot not justify admitting his children to a school district in which they do not live.

Read literally, the statute seems to suggest that the Zadrans are liable for tuition from the date on which they moved to their current apartment, even though they had no knowledge of any problem until the Board notified them of their true domicile in August 1995. Nonetheless, in appropriate circumstances, the Appellate Division has equitably estopped a school district from obtaining reimbursement of past tuition when school officials failed to act quickly enough. See Fort Lee Bd. of Educ. v. Kintos, No. A-4944-93T5 (N.J. App. Div. Oct. 13, 1995), where a school board was barred from recovering full tuition payments because it waited two and one-half years after having reason to believe that the parents did not reside in the district. See also, Laufer, 1970 S.L.D. at 127, in which the Commissioner directed that any tuition recovery "should be made retroactive to September 1970, since notice of transfer was afforded petitioner in July 1970 and was sufficient to allow time for the move." As noted above, Dr. Ciccone notified Mr. Zadran that his children would be allowed to finish out the 1994-95 school year, but that residency in Belleville must be established prior to commencement of the 1995-96 school year. Under these special circumstances, where the Zadrans did not intentionally violate the school laws, the Board's recovery should be limited to tuition charges accruing since September 1995.

Order

It is ORDERED that the four Zadran children be transferred to the Newark public school district as soon as reasonably possible.

And further ORDERED that Akbar Zadran and his wife pay the sum of $35,466 to the Belleville Board of Education.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Dec. 6, 1996
DATE

Ken R Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/10/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

APPENDIX

List of Witnesses

1. Dr. Joseph Ciccone, assistant superintendent of schools, Belleville School District

2. Akbar Zadran

3. Agmal Zadran

List of Exhibits

No.		Description
P-1		Brochure entitled "Convent Court Condominiums," undated
R-1		Copy of letter to Mr. Lally from Joseph Ciccone, Ed.D., dated June 15, 1995
R-2		Copy of letter to Mr. Zadran from Joseph Ciccone, Ed.D., dated August 10, 1995
R-3	(a)	Copy of letter to Michael Lally from Nicholas J. Palma, Esq., dated July 13, 1995
	(b)	Copy of letter to Nicholas B. Palma, Esq. from George R. Pronesti, P.L.S., dated July 5, 1995
R-4		Copy of letter to Joseph Ciccone from Rosmarie Sicoli, dated November 19, 1996

R-5	Copy of letter to Joseph Ciccone, Ed.D. from Thomas Salzano, dated November 19, 1996
R-6	Copy of portion of tax map of the Township of Belleville, undated (attached to R-5)
R-7	Copy of a portion of a map showing the boundary between the City of Newark and the Township of Belleville prepared for the Belleville Planning Board, dated August 10, 1978
R-8	Copy of a certification from the Tax Assessor of the City of Newark, dated November 19, 1996
R-9	Copy of lease between Mohammed-Akbar-Zadran & family and Ray & Cathy Veniero, dated February 22, 1993
R-10	Copy of lease renewal between Ray & Cathy Veniero and Akbar Zadran & Family, dated November 30, 1993
R-11	Copy of site plan submission to the Belleville Planning Board, undated (attached to R-5)
R-12	Copy of computation of tuition, dated November 20, 1996

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11369-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 340-8/95

AKBAR ZADRAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner's children are not domiciled in respondent's District and, therefore, are not entitled to a free public education in that District.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(2), the Commissioner directs that petitioner remit to the Board tuition in the amount of $35,466.*

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* It is herein noted that the Board raised no objection to the determination that recovery of tuition should be limited to charges accruing since September 1995.

January 23, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 23, 1997

32-97

EDU #11369-95
C # 32-97
SB # 17-97

AKBAR ZADRAN,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 23, 1997

Decision on motions by the State Board of Education, May 7, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Rutgers University Constitutional Litigation Clinic (Eric Neisser, Esq., of Counsel, and Penny M. Venetis, Esq., pro hac vice)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck (Frank Pomaco, Esq., of Counsel)

Akbar Zadran (hereinafter "petitioner") and his family reside in a condominium complex which is located on the border between Belleville and Newark. Maps depict the complex as straddling the Belleville/Newark boundary line, with the bulk of the complex situated on the Newark side. Petitioner's unit sits directly on the boundary line, although the majority of his unit is located in Newark. Petitioner's landlord pays property taxes entirely to Newark for his unit.

On August 10, 1995, after petitioner's children had been attending public school in Belleville for two years, the assistant superintendent of that district, upon ascertaining that the unit occupied by petitioner's family was taxed by Newark, sent a letter to petitioner advising him that his children could not attend public school in Belleville for the 1995-96 school year unless they relocated within the district.

April 1, 1998

On August 29, 1995, petitioner filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education, alleging that his domicile was in Belleville and that his children were therefore entitled to a free public education in that district pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). The Board of Education of the Township of Belleville (hereinafter "Board") filed a counter-petition seeking tuition from petitioner for the period of his children's attendance in the district. The Board contended that petitioner was domiciled in Newark and, consequently, that his children were ineligible for a free public education in Belleville.

On December 6, 1996, an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") agreed with the Board, concluding that petitioner's children were not eligible to attend public school in Belleville free of charge. The ALJ concluded that "it would be inequitable to impose the financial burden of educating the Zadran children on the citizens of Belleville while the citizens of Newark enjoy the benefit of tax revenues derived from their living arrangements." Initial Decision, slip op. at 6-7. However, under the circumstances, the ALJ concluded that the Board's recovery should be limited to tuition charges accruing since September 1995. Finding that petitioner was clearly on notice prior to the 1995-96 school year of the Board's contention that his family was not domiciled in Belleville, the ALJ recommended that the Commissioner of Education direct petitioner to reimburse the Board for tuition costs for his four children for the 1995-96 school year and for 1996-97 through the date of the hearing in the total amount of $35,466.

On January 23, 1997, the Commissioner adopted the findings and conclusions of the ALJ and, noting that the Board had not objected to the ALJ's recommendation that recovery of tuition should be limited to charges accruing since September 1995, directed petitioner to remit tuition to the Board in the amount of $35,466.

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board.

On May 7, 1997, we granted petitioner's motion to supplement the record on appeal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9. We also granted petitioner's motion to admit Penny M. Venetis, Esq. pro hac vice so as to permit her to represent the petitioner before the State Board with respect to the current matter.

After a careful review of the record as supplemented on appeal, we reverse that portion of the Commissioner's decision which directed petitioner to reimburse the Board for tuition charges accruing since September 1995.

This case presents us with an unusual situation in which a single condominium unit is physically situated in two school districts. As previously indicated, Belleville had accepted petitioner's children into its public schools until it discovered that petitioner's landlord was paying property taxes on his unit to Newark. We note, however, that the payment of property taxes is not, in itself, dispositive of domicile. See, e.g., N.J.S.A. 54:4-25 ["When the line between taxing districts divides a tract of land, each part shall be assessed in the taxing district where located, unless the governing body of one of the taxing districts shall by resolution request that the entire tract be assessed by the adjoining taxing district in which a portion of the tract is located." (Emphasis added.)]

As found by the ALJ, petitioner honestly believed that his unit was located in Belleville. The ALJ related that petitioner "had told the broker who found the apartment for him that he wanted to live in Belleville. Moreover, the apartment has a Belleville mailing address and a Belleville telephone exchange. A written lease describes the premises as "2 Honnis Street, Belleville, NJ Apt. A-17." Initial Decision, slip op. at 3. Under these circumstances, it was not unreasonable for petitioner–whose unit was situated partially in Belleville–to believe that he was domiciled in Belleville. Indeed, when petitioner attempted to enroll his son in a high school in Newark in February 1997, the acting principal refused such enrollment on the grounds that petitioner had a Belleville address. Affidavit of Petitioner, Exhibit B. Nor is there any indication in the record that petitioner acted with fraudulent intent to mislead the Board into permitting his children to attend public school in Belleville.

While a claimant's perception of domicile cannot override legal and geographical realities, we conclude that it would be inequitable under the particular facts in the record before us to assess tuition against petitioner for the period of his children's attendance in the Belleville public schools.[1] See State, Dept. of Envir. Protection v. Stavola, 103 N.J. 425, 436 n.2 (1986) (any administrative agency in determining how best to effectuate public policy is limited by applying principles of fundamental fairness); H.M. and L.M. v. Board of Education of the Township of Freehold, decided by the State Board of Education, April 2, 1997. Accordingly, we reverse that portion of the Commissioner's decision which directed petitioner to reimburse the Board for tuition charges accruing since September 1995. Cf. Whasun Lee v. Board of Education of the [1] We note that if petitioner had enrolled his children in Newark during the pendency of his appeal to the Commissioner and had ultimately prevailed on his contention that he was domiciled in Belleville since his unit was located partially in that district, he may have been responsible under the terms of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 for tuition payments to Newark for the period of his children's "improper" attendance in that district.

Township of Holmdel, Docket #A-653-95T5 (App. Div. 1996); Board of Education of the Borough of Fort Lee v. Kintos, Docket #A-4944-93T5 (App. Div. 1995).[2]

Attorney exceptions are noted.

April 1, 1998

Date of mailing APR 0 3 1998

[2] The counsel for petitioner advised us in a letter dated September 30, 1997 that petitioner and his family have relocated to another condominium unit in the complex, which, purportedly, is located entirely in Belleville.

33-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :

HEARING OF ANTHONY PEARSON, :

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY. : DECISION

:

SYNOPSIS

Board certified tenure charges of unbecoming conduct, excessive absenteeism, incapacity and other just cause against custodian based on his attendance record during the 1990-91 through 1995-96 school years.

ALJ concluded that respondent was chronically and excessively absent during the years in question, that such constituted unbecoming conduct, incapacity and just cause for discipline, and that such absenteeism warranted his dismissal from his position as a tenured custodian. (Passaic v. Viani; Jersey City v. Pellecchio) ALJ ordered respondent removed from his position as a tenured custodian.

Commissioner adopted initial decision and ordered respondent dismissed from his position as of the date of his decision.

January 23, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3564-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 70-2/95

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF IRVINGTON,

Petitioner,

v.

ANTHONY PEARSON,

Respondent.

Denise P. Coleman, Esq., for petitioner

(Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, attorneys)

Anthony Pearson, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: October 22, 1996 Decided: December 6, 1996

BEFORE DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Superintendent of Schools of the Board of Education of the Township of Irvington (Board or petitioner) executed tenure charges against Anthony Pearson (Pearson or respondent), a tenured custodian employed by petitioner, on January 24, 1996. At a meeting held on February 21, 1996, the Board certified the charges to the Commissioner of the State Department of Education (DOE) and suspended respondent without pay, effective February 22, 1996. Pearson filed a response to the tenure charges on March 15, 1996. The DOE transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law on March 29, 1996 for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

Petitioner filed a motion for summary decision on July 8, 1996. Respondent did not file a reply. I issued an order denying the motion on September 20, 1996.

A hearing was conducted on October 4, 1996. Pearson requested that he be permitted to present oral argument at the close of the hearing, and counsel for the Board requested that she be permitted to file a post-hearing written submission. Respondent presented oral argument. A deadline was established for the filing of post-hearing submissions by both parties. Pearson did not file a post-hearing submission. The Board filed a brief on October 22, 1996, on which date the record was closed.

NATURE OF THE CASE

The Board charged respondent with unbecoming conduct, excessive absenteeism, incapacity, and other just cause for dismissal based on respondent's attendance record during the 1990-91 through 1995-96 school years. Respondent does not dispute the attendance records relied on by the Board but presented evidence regarding the reasons for some of his absences, as well as communications with Board personnel. The issues, broadly, are whether the Board has proven, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, the charges and, if so, what discipline, if any, should be imposed.

STIPULATIONS

The parties stipulated that Pearson applied for unemployment compensation benefits on March 31, 1996, that he received unemployment benefits of $646 every two weeks, and that he obtained employment with Chelsea Caterers in Newark, New Jersey, on September 25, 1996, working eight hours daily, at an hourly rate of reimbursement of $5.45.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon a review of the entire record, I FIND the following to be facts.

Pearson commenced employment with respondent on December 18, 1989 as a custodian. The Board suspended him on February 22, 1996. As of that date, he was tenured as a custodian.

During the period of his employment, Pearson was assigned to Irvington High School (High School). Custodians at the High School are responsible for general maintenance of the school's facilities, including the performance of cleaning, sweeping, and mopping tasks in classrooms, stairwells, and hallways.

Respondent was assigned to the basement area of the High School. At the time of his suspension, respondent also was expected to work a total of ten hours weekly in the cafeteria. He was a 12-month employee. There are 11 classrooms in the basement area, as well as several stairwells and bathrooms. Classes are scheduled between 8:00 a.m. and 3:10 p.m. All classrooms have to be cleaned by 8:00 a.m.

Respondent was employed during the day shift, from 6:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. During the years in question, a total of ten custodians were assigned to the High School during the day shift. Respondent was responsible for the general maintenance of classrooms, hallways, and rest rooms, as well as for removing garbage from the cafeteria.

Respondent was supervised by Frank Roth (Roth) and Donald Lozito (Lozito). Roth is currently the Assistant Supervisor for Buildings and Grounds and was previously Head Custodian at the High School, a position which he held from September 1, 1981 until May 23, 1991, at which time he assumed his current position. His current duties include supervision of maintenance and custodial personnel, all aspects pertinent to maintenance of cleanliness in the Board's schools, and responsibility for employees' time records. Over the years, he has had both direct and overall supervisory authority pertinent to Pearson.

Lozito has been the Head Custodian at the High School since May of 1995. He previously was employed by the Board as the Assistant Head Custodian at the High School, reporting to Roth. In his current position, Lozito supervises custodians and generally "keeps the building running" (Lozito's direct testimony). During the course of his employment, he has had both direct and general supervisory authority over Pearson.

The Board is on a July 1 through June 30 fiscal year. Pearson was entitled to 12 personal leave days annually; 3 personal business days; 1 funeral day; 10 vacation days; and 5 death-in-family days. Respondent's attendance records for fiscal years 1990-91, 1991-92, 1992-93, 1993-94, 1994-95, and 1995-96 are as stated in Exhibits P-1, P-2, P-3, P-4, P-5, and P-6, respectively.

A workers compensation day is utilized if an employee is injured while on duty. In such a situation, the employee is required to go to the office of the Board's nurse, who evaluates the situation. The nurse may refer the individual to the physician on duty for the Board, Dr. George Melendick (Melendick). The employee cannot return to work unless authorized by Melendick. Employees are paid their salary during days absent designated as workers compensation days.

Personal business days are carried over into the next year as personal illness days. An overused day is a day upon which an employee is absent and has exhausted his/her time but called in. An unexcused day is a day upon which an employee is absent and failed to notify petitioner of the absence.

The Board's Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offers six free counseling sessions, "per problem," to employees at no cost to them (Roth's direct testimony). Requests for leaves of absence must be in writing and are granted or denied at the Board level. Counseling may be offered, for example, because of the death of a family member of an employee. Counseling services are provided by the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. If an employee participates in the EAP, his/her supervisors are notified as a prerequisite to approved time off in advance of the employee's participation.

A request for a leave of absence must be presented to the Board in writing, with any necessary documentation, for example, medical documentation. Such requests are reviewed by respondent's Director of Personnel, who then forwards them to a Board committee. Requests for leaves are only granted by a vote of the Board. These procedures have been followed by petitioner since at least 1982.

By memorandum dated March 9, 1990, Roth communicated with Pearson pertinent to respondent's attendance record. Roth noted that Pearson had reported to work tardy on February 9, February 28, and March 9, 1990 and that such tardiness would not be tolerated. Roth further advised that Pearson was required to thereafter report to Lozito or Roth, upon respondent's arrival at work every morning, until further notice, and reminded Pearson that he was still in a probationary period and that tardiness could result in termination. At the time, Pearson was still serving in a probationary employment status.

By memorandum dated March 16, 1990, Edwin Klemm, the then Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, advised Pearson that respondent's probationary period was extended for 30 days, commencing March 16, 1990 through April 16, 1990, because of excessive tardiness.

Pearson was absent a total of 38 days during the 1990-91 fiscal year. He exhausted all of his personal illness days and two of his personal business days. Respondent was also absent unexcused on five and one-half days and was absent three and one-half days designated as overused days. Respondent was also tardy on two occasions, the equivalent of one absent day. The absences included a day designated as a funeral day on May 31, 1991; and as death-in-the-family days on December 13, 14, and 17, 1990 and June 3 and 4, 1991. Respondent's absences during that year also included two personal days, three vacation days, and six days designated as workers compensation days.

Pearson never advised Roth nor Lozito during the year in question that any absences were related to the death of his mother. The death-in-the-family days taken in December 1990 were related to the death of Pearson's father. Respondent's mother died during the latter part of the fiscal year, at which time Pearson had already exhausted his accumulated time.

Pearson was absent a total of 29 days during fiscal year 1991-92. Of these, 13 were designated as personal illness days; 1, a jury duty/court day; 3, overused days; and 10, vacation days. He was tardy a total of one day. Respondent exhausted his sick days and two of his three personal illness days.

Pearson was absent a total of 74 days during the 1992-93 fiscal year. One of those days was designated as a personal business day; 1, November 25, 1992, a death-in-the-family day; 12, personal illness days; 1, tardy; 15.5, overused days; 10, vacation days; 26, workers compensation days; and 5.5, unexcused absences. He utilized all his personal illness and vacation days. Twenty of the days on which petitioner was absent occurred on Mondays, Fridays, or a day following or prior to a holiday. During the year, Roth told Pearson that respondent was entitled to the services of the EAP, urging respondent to take advantage of the program.

Lozito communicated with Pearson regarding respondent's attendance record by memorandum dated September 11, 1992, referencing prior conversations among respondent, Roth and Lozito regarding chronic absenteeism and a pattern of absences on Mondays and Fridays. Lozito also referenced the fact that absences affected respondent's colleagues, who had to be reassigned from their own duties to perform respondent's assignments. Lozito concluded by cautioning: "Before this situation gets totally out of hand, please look at yourself" (Exh. P-6).

Pearson was counseled for insubordination pertinent to an incident occurring on September 11, 1992. The pertinent attendance record indicates that Pearson left work without approval on September 11, 1992, which date was designated as an unexcused day.

By memorandum dated April 5, 1993, Lozito again communicated with respondent regarding the latter's attendance record. Lozito concluded as follows:

> Because of your lack of quality working time, you have become a burden to the custodial staff at the High School. When someone has to pick up on your work, another area of the building suffers. Please look at what you are doing and get your act together.
>
> [Exh. P-11.]

A semi-annual evaluation of Pearson, performed on or about May 12, 1993, rated Pearson's attendance as "WELL BELOW AVERAGE" (Exh. P-12, p.1). Narrative comments indicated that as of the date of the evaluation, Pearson had been absent a total of 28 days, including 10 overused days and 4 unexcused absences, a situation which, the evaluation noted, ". . . borders on unsatisfactory. It also makes his work inconsistent. 28 times during the course of the year another man had to do his work." (Id. at p.2.) Pearson received a copy of the evaluation.

Respondent was absent a total of 76 days during the 1993-94 fiscal year. Three were personal business days; 3, death-in-the-family days; 12, personal illness days; 2, jury/court days; 1, a tardy day; 44.5, overused days; 10, vacation days; and 1.5, unexcused absences. Respondent was scheduled to appear in Superior Court of New Jersey on April 14, 1994, pertinent to a custody matter. He was absent from work on that day, which absence was designated as a jury/court day.

Lozito sent Roth a memorandum dated September 9, 1993, regarding Pearson's chronic absenteeism, noting that since July 22, 1993, Pearson had a total of eight days absence and that absenteeism had been an on-going problem. The days absent included September 9, 1993, which was the first day that custodians were to be assigned duties in the High School cafeteria. Lozito noted the adverse impact on other custodians because of Pearson's absenteeism, concluding by requesting that respondent be transferred to another school if Pearson ". . . does not want to be part of this team" (Exh. P-13).

By memorandum dated September 13, 1993, Roth sent Pearson a copy of Lozito's September 9, 1993 memorandum, reiterating concerns regarding Pearson's excessive absenteeism. Pearson was placed on 60 days' probation. Roth concluded as follows:

> Last year, you were referred to EAP for counseling. If you are having problems, I suggest that you go to EAP.
>
> Be advised that you are now on probation for 60 days. If your attendance does not improve, further action will be taken.
>
> [Exh. P-14.]

Roth again communicated with Pearson by memorandum dated November 10, 1993, regarding absenteeism. Roth advised Pearson that respondent had no additional days left for absences; that respondent would lose pay each time he was subsequently absent; that he would not be eligible for overtime for the next 60 days; that his probation for absenteeism was extended for another 60 days; and if there were no improvement in his attendance, Roth would request that the Board authorize a suspension without pay.

Respondent did not report to work on December 10, 1993. Respondent was, at the time, experiencing family problems, and he went to stay with a sister in Connecticut. He returned to Board offices to obtain a paycheck. Respondent did not request a leave of absence in January nor February 1994, and he never spoke to Roth regarding any such requests. Respondent was absent, designated as taken overused days, on January 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, and 31, 1994 as well as February 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 15, 16, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1994. He also was designated as taking overused days on March 9, 10, 11, 1994. Although respondent returned to New Jersey in February 1994, he did not report back to work until subsequent to March 11, 1994. Respondent was paid for April 11, 12, 13, and 17, 1995, but not for April 18 through April 27, 1995.

Lozito communicated with Roth, regarding Pearson's overall attendance record, by memorandum dated January 21, 1994, requesting that action be taken. Subsequently, the Assistant Board Secretary, Roger Monel, by memorandum dated February 3, 1994, to Frank Aliello (Aliello), the then Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds, requested that respondent be terminated for absence from duty without notice for more than four days. Aliello noted that Pearson had not called in since January 18, 1994, at which time respondent had told Aliello's secretary that he (Pearson) was leaving a hospital, on crutches, and would be providing medical documentation, but that he did not do so. Aliello also noted that Board personnel had tried to contact Pearson, but that they did not have a current phone number for him.

The Board thereafter adopted a resolution, on February 23, 1994, withholding Pearson's employment and adjusted salary increments for the 1994-95 school year, freezing his salary for that school year at the 1993-94 school year rate. The Board's secretary advised Pearson of this action by letter dated February 24, 1994.

While carrying scissors in the High School on April 7, 1994, respondent was pushed, apparently by a student, and thereafter went to the nurse's office. Because respondent complained that his head hurt, Melendick gave Pearson a form authorizing an examination by a neurologist. However, Pearson never went to the neurologist authorized. Melendick authorized a return to work for respondent subsequent to April 17, 1995, and when Pearson did not return, respondent was designated as having taken overused days on April 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, 26, and 27, 1995.

Lozito again communicated with Monel regarding Pearson's absences by memorandum dated June 7, 1994, noting that Pearson had been absent for a total of seven days since April 1, 1994; that Pearson had designated overused days on April 4 and April 5, 1994, before and after a holiday weekend; and that Pearson did not appear, as scheduled, to work overtime on June 4, 1994. Lozito concluded by requesting assistance.

Pearson was absent a total of 42.5 days during the 1994-95 fiscal year. Of those days, 2.5 were personal business days; 13, personal illness days; 3, tardy days; 13, overused days; 10, vacation days; and 4, workers compensation days.

Michael G. Steele (Steele), petitioner's Business Administrator, communicated with respondent by memorandum dated August 15, 1994, regarding Pearson's attendance record. Steele advised Pearson that he (Steele) was recommending to the Superintendent of Schools that respondent be placed on 60 days' probation, effective September 1, 1994, and that if respondent's attitude and attendance did not improve, Steele would recommend termination. Pearson was, in fact, placed on probation.

Lozito communicated with Steele by memorandum dated January 31, 1995, noting that Pearson had, as of that date, been absent nine days on either Mondays or Fridays. Lozito requested that Pearson again be removed from the overtime list. Lozito thereafter communicated with Pearson, by memorandum dated January 31, 1995, regarding the number and pattern of respondent's absences.

Lozito also communicated with Pearson by memorandum dated May 30, 1995, forwarding a prior memorandum setting forth Pearson's salary and advising respondent that Lozito would be requesting that respondent be removed from the overtime list. As of the date of the memorandum, Pearson had no sick days, no personal days, and no accrued days left.

Pearson was absent a total of 34 days during the 1995-96 fiscal year. Of these, .5 was a personal business day; 11.5, personal illness days; 11, pertinent to Board action suspending respondent; .5, tardy day; 5.5, overused days; 15, vacation days; and 1.5, unexcused absence days.

Lozito communicated with Pearson regarding respondent's absenteeism by memorandum dated August 30, 1995, noting that as of that date, respondent had been absent 8 days and that on August 1, 1995, Pearson had left, never returned, nor called, after leaving for lunch. Respondent was designated as having one-half an unexcused absence day for that date. Lozito concluded by noting that he had requested that Pearson's file be reviewed and stronger disciplinary action be taken.

Respondent was suspended effective March 15, 1996 because of tenure charges executed by the Board against him. The charges were served by Roth on Pearson, who was "very upset" (Lozito's direct testimony). Respondent thereafter went to Lozito's office, taking a copy of the tenure charges. Several weeks later, Lozito asked Roth to return facility keys. Pearson never did so. Subsequently, an Assistant Head Custodian told Lozito that respondent had referenced prior "post office" events, i.e., murders committed by disgruntled employees. A police complaint was filed regarding the incident. At the time, respondent was escorted from the High School by building security personnel.

In addition to various memoranda sent to respondent, and disciplinary actions taken against him, Roth and Lozito communicated with Pearson verbally on a regular basis regarding respondent's absenteeism, advising him to improve his attendance record. Pearson never advised Roth that he (respondent) was experiencing any personal problems. Roth's general practice, if a subordinate's work seemed to be suffering, is to refer that individual to the EAP, even if the employee does not discuss the matter with Roth. Roth never received communications nor information from EAP personnel authorizing any absences by respondent, and Pearson never submitted documentation of approved absences because of participation in the EAP. Pearson never told Roth that his (respondent's) attendance record was related to any personal problems. Pearson never requested a leave of absence. Respondent's general practice, during the years in question, was to state that he was "sick," whenever he called regarding absences, even if he anticipated taking days off because of personal business requirements (Respondent's redirect testimony).

Custodial staff are required to advise department personnel, prior to the dates in question, of any absences. During 1991, Roth sent a memorandum to all custodians, which memorandum was also posted in department offices, regarding the procedures required pertinent to absences and phone numbers to be called if a custodian would be absent. Custodians are required to report absences to the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds until 7:00 a.m. If an employee does not do so, it is assumed that he/she will not be present that day. Respondent periodically followed the procedures in question.

During the years in question, the schedules of High School custodians were routinely modified because of Pearson's absences. This situation resulted in areas of the building being improperly maintained, posing safety hazards to students and staff. As a result of respondent's absences, some custodial tasks in the High School were not performed. For example, spills and debris on floors and stairs were not always removed.

Frequently, a substantial portion of Lozito's entire day's efforts focused on insuring that respondent's tasks were performed. Lozito usually ascertained, at the beginning of the morning shift, whether or not Pearson was present, and if respondent were not, Lozito readjusted the other custodians' schedules. At one time or another, all areas of the High School were affected by Pearson's absences. Because custodial work in the High School is performed between 6:00 and 8:00 a.m., respondent's failures to report absences prior to the dates in question presented difficulties to Lozito in rescheduling Pearson's tasks.

DISCUSSION

The Commissioner of the DOE (Commissioner) generally has jurisdiction to hear and determine controversies and disputes arising under the school laws. N.J.S.A. 18A-6.9 (Supp. 1996). Every janitor of a school district shall, unless appointed for a fixed term, hold his/her office, position, or employment under tenure and shall not be dismissed, suspended, or reduced in compensation, except as the result of a reduction of the number of janitors in the district, or except for neglect, misbehavior, or other offense, pursuant to the manner prescribed in the applicable statutory provisions. N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3.

No individual shall be dismissed if he/she is under tenure of office, position, or employment in a public school system, except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or "other just cause." Such action can only be taken after a hearing held pursuant to applicable statutory provisions, subsequent to written charges of the cause of complaint. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10.

Excessive absenteeism may substitute grounds for the removal or suspension of a tenured employee. Passaic Bd. of Ed. v. Viani, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 76 (Viani). Such absenteeism has been found to constitute incapacity, unbecoming conduct, and other just cause for dismissal. State-Operated School District of Jersey City v. Pellecchio, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 269 (Pellecchio). Chronic or excessive absenteeism may warrant removal even when the absences are the result of legitimate medical or health reasons. Pellecchio, supra.

The point at which absenteeism is deemed to be chronic falls within the prerogative and discretionary authority of the local board of education, subject to review pursuant to the Commissioner's general authority to hear and determine controversies and disputes arising under the school laws. Ibid. A custodian is not held to the same attendance requirements as a teacher. Viani, supra. Notwithstanding, a school janitor holds a position of trust and responsibility requiring high standards of dependability and morality. In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Joseph McDougall, 1974 S.L.D. 170. In In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Ingram, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 581 (Ingram), Ingram, a tenured custodian, was charged, in part, with excessive absenteeism. He had been absent a total of 72.5 school days during an approximate three-year period. Finding that the charges, which were proven, justified termination, the presiding administrative law judge, whose decision was subsequently adopted by the Commissioner, noted that:

> High absenteeism has previously been deemed sufficient grounds for disciplinary action even with the existence of legitimate medical excuse ... This being the case the burden shifts to the tenured employee to show that performance was unaffected by continued absences, notwithstanding the legitimacy of excuse. . . .
>
> [Ingram at 582 (citations omitted).]

The nature of any warnings given to an employee, as well as any corrective action taken by a local board of education, and the reasons for any absences, are relevant to the questions of whether discipline, and the nature of any discipline, should be imposed. Viani, supra. School Dist. of the City of Bridgeton v. McMahan, 1984 S.L.D. 208. In addition as referenced in Ingram, supra., the extent of harm absences of a custodial employee have had on the provision of a thorough and efficient education is relevant. Viani, supra.

It is clear that petitioner has proven the tenure charges. I am also persuaded that termination is an appropriate discipline.

Over the six years in question, Pearson has been, on average, absent an average of 48 days annually, an amount clearly excessive. Problems in this respect developed while he was on a probationary status as an employee with the Board and continued until his suspension. As the Board argues, his attendance record, in addition, also exhibited a pattern of days absent on weekends and in proximity to holidays, as well as tardiness. The substantial number of overused and not excused days also argues for termination.

Respondent's supervisors sent him numerous memoranda regarding his absenteeism, with cautions that a continuation of such could result in discipline, including termination. In addition, he received a poor evaluation regarding his attendance record. Roth and Lozito also spoke to Pearson individually and Roth, in addition, suggested that Pearson take advantage of counseling services offered through the EAP. Despite these efforts, as well as the Board's decision to withhold an increment, the pattern of absenteeism continued.

The record also clearly demonstrates that Pearson's absences have had a direct adverse impact on the cleanliness and safety of the High School, resulting in some custodial tasks not being performed on a regular basis. In addition, the schedule of other custodians had to be constantly modified because of Pearson's absences.

Pearson's testimony regarding alleged medical and family problems which, he claimed, resulted in at least some of the absences, was not supported in the record. In addition, he never communicated the nature of any alleged reasons for absences to supervisory staff nor requested a leave of absence. The Board did, however, pay respondent for certain days on which he was absent which were treated as workers compensation days. Notwithstanding, whatever the reasons for any absences, it is clear that the absences were excessive, that Pearson had ample opportunity to reform his previous attendance record but did not do so, and that his absences had a negative impact on the High School. I am therefore persuaded that termination is appropriate.

CONCLUSIONS

I CONCLUDE that respondent was chronically and excessively absent during the years in questions, that such constituted unbecoming conduct, incapacity, and just cause for discipline, and that such absenteeism warrants his dismissal from his position as a tenured custodian.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that respondent be removed from his position as a tenured custodian with petitioner.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 6, 1996
DATE

Diana C. Sukovich
DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/10/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 10 1996
DATE

Barbara A. Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

njf

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For petitioner:

Belinda Smiley

Frank Roth

Donald Lozito

For Respondent:

Anthony Pearson

Exhibits in Evidence

P-1 7/90 -- 6/91 Attendance Record

P-2 7/91 -- 6/92 Attendance Record

P-3 7/92 -- 6/93 Attendance Record

P-4 7/93 -- 6/94 Attendance Record

P-5 7/94 -- 6/95 Attendance Record

P-6 7/95 -- 6/96 Attendance Record

P-7 Memorandum dated March 9, 1990

P-8 Memorandum dated March 16, 1990

P-9 Memorandum dated September 11, 1992 from Lozito

P-10 Memorandum dated September 11, 1992 from Blocker

P-11 Memorandum dated April 5, 1993

P-12 Evaluation dated May 12, 1993

P-13 Memorandum dated September 9, 1993

P-14 Memorandum dated September 13, 1993

P-15 Memorandum dated November 20, 1993

P-16 Memorandum dated January 21, 1994

P-17 Memorandum dated February 3, 1994

P-18 Resolution dated February 23, 1994

P-19 Letter dated February 24, 1994

P-20 Memorandum dated June 7, 1994

P-21 Letter dated August 15, 1994

P-22 Memorandum dated January 31, 1995 regarding continuous poor attendance

P-23 Memorandum dated January 31, 1995 regarding patterned absenteeism

P-24 Memorandum dated May 30, 1995

P-25 Memorandum dated August 20, 1995

R-1 Notice to Appear and Summons dated March 21, 1994

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3564-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 70-2/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANTHONY PEARSON,	:
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge that the Board has proved its charges against respondent which, based upon his attendance record during the 1990-91 through 1995-96 school years, warrant his termination from employment, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 and 11. See Passaic Bd. of Ed. v. Viani, supra, and State-operated School District of Jersey City v. Pellecchio, supra.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, the Commissioner affirms the initial decision of the OAL and orders that respondent be dismissed from his position as tenured custodian as of the date of this decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 23, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 23, 1997

34-97

34-97

PATRICIA YOST,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS, MORRIS COUNTY, AND DR. TIMOTHY BRENAN, EUGENE VASILE AND BETTY LOU BIONDE,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:
	:

JANUARY 27, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5844-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 120-4/96

PATRICIA YOST,

Petitioner,

v.

PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, MORRIS COUNTY, NEW JERSEY; DR. TIMOTHY BRENAN, EUGENE VASILE and BETTY LOU BIONDE,

Respondents.

William H.Claxton, Esq., for petitioner

Marie-Laurence Fabian, Esq., for respondent
(Dillon, Bitar & Luther, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 3, 1996 Decided: December 5, 1996

BEFORE: MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ;

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on June 12, 1996 for a hearing as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to-15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13. The parties informed the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that they had agreed to settle this matter. The parties have prepared the attached Stipulation of Settlement setting forth the terms of the settlement, which the ALJ received on November 25, 1996.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached Stipulation of Settlement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be and are hereby concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

12/5/96
DATE

Marcia M LaFiandra
MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Dec. 11, 1996
DATE

D N Centanaitis Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 11 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement is made and entered into this 4th day of October, 1996 by and between the Parsippany-Troy Hills Board of Education (the "Board") and Patricia Yost.

WHEREAS, on April 1, 1996 Ms. Yost filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education against the Board and Timothy Brennan, Eugene Vasile and Betty Lou Bionde alleging breach of contract and seeking reinstatement and back pay; and

WHEREAS, the Board filed an answer on behalf of itself and Timothy Brennan, Eugene Vasile and Betty Lou Bionde, denying such allegation and denying her right to relief; and

WHEREAS, both parties wish to avoid the additional expense and delay inherent in the litigation of this matter;

NOW THEREFORE:

The undersigned agree that this matter shall be amicably settled upon the following terms and conditions:

1. For and in consideration of the sum of TWO THOUSAND AND SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS ($2,700.00) to be paid by the Board, Ms. Yost agrees to withdraw the petition filed with the Commissioner of Education and to release the Board, Timothy Brennan, Eugene Vasile and Betty Lou Bionde from any and all claims arising from or attributable to the termination of her employment as a SKIP aide, even if she is presently unaware of the existence of such a claim.

2. Ms. Yost acknowledges and agrees that the aforesaid payment does not in any way constitute an admission by the Board of any wrongdoing relative to the termination of her employment.

3. As a condition of the agreement, Ms. Yost represents that she has not and will not in any manner publicize the terms of this agreement, including to former and present employees of the Board other than to indicate that the matter has been resolved and the charges withdrawn.

Dated: 10/04/96

Patricia Yost
Patricia Yost

Dated: _____

PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS
BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: _____
David Shaffer,
President

H:\CLIENTS\MISC\AGREE.AG\PTHBOE.006

WILLIAM H. CLAXTON, ESQ.
10 Park Place, Suite 305
Morristown, New Jersey 07960
(201) 292-7500
Attorney for Petitioner

Petitioner

PATRICIA YOST

vs.

Respondent

PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS TWP. BD OF EDUCATION (MORRIS COUNTY NJ), DR. TIMOTHY BRENNAN, EUGENE VASILE AND BETTY LOU BIONDE

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

OAL DOCKET #EDUDA 05844-96N
AGENCY REF. # 120-4/96

Administrative Action

STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL

The matter in difference in the above entitled action having been amicably adjusted by and between the parties, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between the respective parties hereto, that the same be and is hereby dismissed without costs in favor of or against either party, with prejudice.

DATED: October 4, 1996.

BY: William H Claxton
WILLIAM H. CLAXTON, ESQ.
Attorney for Petitioner

BY: M.L. Fabian
MARIE-LAURENCE FABIAN, ESQ.
Attorney for Respondents

2C

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5844-96

PATRICIA YOST,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS, MORRIS COUNTY, AND DR. TIMOTHY BRENAN, EUGENE VASILE AND BETTY LOU BIONDE,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 27, 1997

DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 27, 1997

35-97

35-97

DAVID B. FORD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 27, 1997

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9641-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 361-8/96

DAVID B. FORD,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondent.

Patricia L. Ratner, Esq., for petitioner (Wills, O'Neill & Mellk, attorneys)

Stephen R. Fogarty, Esq., for respondent (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 6, 1996 Decided: December 4, 1996

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 25, 1996, for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On November 6, 1996, the parties executed and submitted the attached Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice indicating that the parties had amicably resolved this matter and which is incorporated herein by reference.

I have reviewed the record and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to resolve this matter as evidenced by the signatures of their representatives.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with law.

I CONCLUDE that this stipulation meets the safeguard requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, I approve the settlement and ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

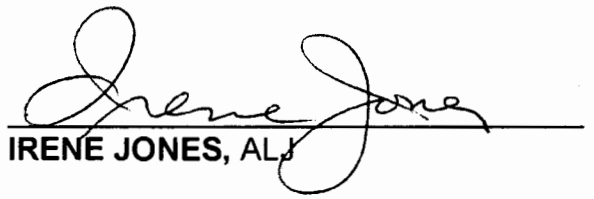
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

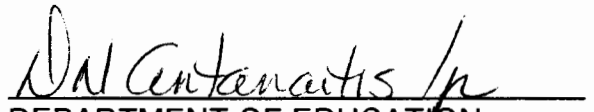
12/4/96
DATE



IRENE JONES, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged

Dec. 11, 1996
DATE



DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 11 1996
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

md

WILLS, O'NEILL & MELLK
10 Nassau Street
Princeton, New Jersey 08542
(609) 924-0700
Attorneys for Plaintiffs

DAVID B. FORD	:	STATE OF NEW JERSEY
	:	DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Petitioner	:
	:
vs.	:	Agency Docket No. 361-8/96
	:
FLORHAM PARK	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION	:
	:
Respondent	:	Stipulation of Dismissal With Prejudice
	:

The matter in difference in the above-entitled action having been amicably adjusted by and between the parties, it is hereby stipulated and agreed that the same be and it is hereby dismissed, with prejudice, and without costs against either party.

Dated: October 21, 1996

FOGARTY & HARA

By: _____
Stephen R. Fogarty, Esq.
Attorney for Respondent

WILLS, O'NEILL & MELLK

By: Patricia L. Ratner
Patricia L. Ratner, Esquire
Attorney for Petitioner

WILLS, O'NEILL
& MELLK
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
10 NASSAU STREET
P O BOX 614
PRINCETON, NJ 08542

PLR:jw\pleadings6\ford\dismissal.stp

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9641-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 361-8/96

DAVID B. FORD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), incorporating a "Stipulation of Dismissal" based on the parties' having "amicably adjusted" their differences, have been reviewed.

Upon such review, the Commissioner finds no basis on which he can ascertain the terms of the resolution reached by the parties in this matter, notwithstanding that the specific terms of any settlement must be spread on the record, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, so that the Commissioner may review them prior to making a final decision on the recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL is remanded for supplementation of the record consistent with N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 27, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 27, 1997

35-97

424-97 R
(35-97)

DAVID B. FORD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

AUGUST 15, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1592-97
(EDU 9641-96- Remanded)

DAVID B. FORD,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent

Arnold Mellk, Esq., for petitioner
(Wills, O'Neill & Mellk, attorneys)

Stephen R. Fogarty, Esq., for respondent
(Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 29, 1997 Decided: June 26, 1997

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on February 6, 1997 for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The parties agreed to settle the matter and stipulation of settlement was signed by the parties and filed in the OAL on May 29, 1997. The stipulation of settlement is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

6/26/97
DATE

IRENE JONES, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

7/2/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JUL 8 1997
DATE

Barbara A Hennel
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

sej

RECEIVED
STATE OF NEW OFFICE OF ADM
MAY 30 11 50

FOGARTY & HARA, ESQS.
23 Highland Cross
Rutherford, New Jersey 07070
(201) 935-0440
Attorneys for Respondent,
Board of Education of the Borough of Florham Park, Morris County

RECEIVED
APR 28 1997
O'NEILL & MELLK

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT IN THE MATTER OF DAVID B. FORD v. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW O.A.L. DKT. NO. 9641-96 AGENCY REF. NO. 361-8/96 STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

WHEREAS, a Verified Petition was filed with the Commissioner of Education on behalf of David B. Ford (hereinafter referred to as "Ford") on August 6, 1996 seeking reimbursement for two (2) days pay, or $633.00, which respondent, Board of Education of the Borough of Florham Park (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"), withheld from Ford's paycheck following his arrest on June 19, 1996; and

WHEREAS, Ford alleged that the Board wrongfully withheld payment for June 20 and June 21, 1996, the last two (2) days of the 1995-1996 school year since he was arrested but not indicted in prohibition of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.3; and

WHEREAS, the Board filed its Answer to the Verified Petition on September 13, 1996 and, while admitting that it withheld two (2) days pay from the Ford's paycheck, denied that it was wrongful or that the Board had an obligation to pay him since the bail conditions imposed upon Ford by the Superior Court prevented his return to employment as a teacher; and

WHEREAS, Ford was subsequently indicted on August 27, 1996 by the Morris County Grand Jury on twenty-six (26) counts, including two (2) counts of aggravated sexual assault, twelve (12) counts of sexual assault, and twelve (12) counts of sexual assault, and twelve (12) counts of endangering the welfare of a child; and

WHEREAS, Ford does not challenge his suspension by the Board without pay as of September 1, 1996 during the pendency of his criminal indictment; and

WHEREAS, the Board would incur substantial financial costs by litigating this matter which would significantly exceed the $633.00 sum which is in dispute; and

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that it is in the best interest of the Florham Park Public Schools to pay Ford the amount of $633.00, which represents his pay for June 20 and June 21, 1996; and

WHEREAS, the Stipulation of Settlement is expressly limited to the issue of reimbursement to Ford for two (2) days pay prior to his indictment and does not in any way prejudice the Board's right to prefer tenure charges against Ford and/or to declare forfeiture of his position following adjudication of the pending criminal matter;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the aforementioned mutual premises and the mutual promises and covenants of the parties set forth below, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. The Board agrees to pay Ford the sum of $633.00 which represents his pay for June 20 and June 21, 1996.

2. Ford agrees to withdraw, with prejudice, his Verified Petition in the above-captioned matter bearing O.A.L. Docket No. 9641-96 and Agency Dkt. No. 361-8/96, subject to the approval of this Stipulation of Settlement by the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education.

3. It is expressly acknowledged by the parties that this Stipulation of Settlement is without prejudice to the Board's right to prefer tenure charges against Ford and/or declare forfeiture of his position, if appropriate, following adjudication of the pending criminal matter.

4. This settlement is subject to ratification by the Board and is without prejudice to either party if the terms are not agreed upon. The form of the Board's resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. The parties acknowledge that this Stipulation of Settlement shall be submitted to the Office of Administrative law and the Commissioner of Education for review and approval, and that the terms of this Stipulation of Settlement are expressly made subject to and contingent upon such review and approval. In the event that either agency disapproves and/or rejects any of the terms contained herein, this Stipulation of Settlement shall be null and void and the parties shall return to the same positions which they held prior to this Stipulation of Settlement.

6. The parties recognize that each has been represented by legal counsel or a representative of his or its own choosing and that they sign this Stipulation of Settlement as their own voluntary act and deed, and that they fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein. This Stipulation of Settlement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

7. The undersigned representatives of the Board hereby acknowledge that they have been duly authorized by the Board to sign this Stipulation of Settlement and bind the Board to its terms.

8. All terms of this Stipulation of Settlement are deemed material. This document may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by an instrument executed in writing by the parties.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year aforesaid.

3d

WITNESS:

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK

DAVID CLOVER
Board Secretary/Business Administrator

Dated: 5-13-97

RITA KLIMKOWSKI
Board President

Dated:

WITNESS:

PATRICIA L. RATNER, ESQ.

Dated: 4/30/97

DAVID B. FORD

Dated:

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Education of the Borough of Florham Park that the terms, stipulations and conditions as established in the Stipulation of Settlement between the Board of Education and David B. Ford which is annexed to this Resolution, are hereby adopted and approved by the Board of Education. The President and Secretary of the Board of Education are hereby authorized and directed to execute the attached Settlement Agreement, and any other documents necessary to effect said Settlement Agreement.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

Dr. David Clover
Board Secretary/Business Administrator

Dated:

ROLL CALL VOTE:

AYES:
NAYS:

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF A MEETING
OF THE
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK
MORRIS COUNTY
AS RECORDED IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTE BOOK

The Board of Education of the Borough of Florham Park, in the County of Morris, New Jersey, convened in an Executive Session as part of a Regular Meeting held on Tuesday, September 24,1996, in the Briarwood School Conference Room of the Briarwood School, Briarwood Road, Florham Park, New Jersey.

The following Members of the Board of Education were present:
Rita Klimkowski, President, Jack Crane, Vice President, Trustees Stephen Brodsky, Donald Kamowski, Dale Pardo, and Chris Ryan

The following Member of the Board of Education was absent:
Maryann Core

The minutes of the Executive Session indicate that Dr. Ferrone presented information on "The Ford Appeal regarding withholding two days' pay". It was at that time that the Board unanimously agreed to release two days' pay going back to June, 1996, when Mr. Ford was instructed to remain off school premises.

I. David G. M. Clover, Board Secretary/Business Administrator of the Borough of Florham Park, in the County of Morris, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that the foregoing extract from the Minutes of the Meeting of said District duly called and held on September 24, 1996 has been compared by me with the original Minutes as officially recorded in the Official Minute Book of said Borough of Florham Park Board of Education and is a true, complete copy thereof and of the whole said original Minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matter referred to in said extract in witness I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Board of Education this 20th day of May, 1997.

David G. M. Clover
Board Secretary/Business Administrator

(AFFIX SEAL)

Exhibit A
3h

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1592-97
AGENCY DKT. NO. 361-8/96

DAVID B. FORD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FLORHAM PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

AUGUST 15, 1997
DATE OF MAILING AUGUST 15, 1997

(SB) 35-97

EDU #8330-96
DHPB # 139-97
SB # 35-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF V.E.K. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 24, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Virginia E. Kovalak, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Nancy Kaplen, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On March 24, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education issued a decision in which he upheld the disqualification of V.E.K. (hereinafter "appellant") from school employment as the result of a conviction for a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. The Commissioner found that appellant had failed to affirmatively demonstrate her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

On April 9, 1997, appellant, acting pro se, filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), appellant's brief in support of her appeal was due on April 29, 1997, 20 days after the appeal was filed. Appellant, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated May 5, 1997, the counsel for the State Board notified appellant that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of her failure to perfect the appeal. Appellant has still failed to file a brief in support of her appeal, more than two months after the deadline for such filing and nearly two months since she was given notice of her failure to file. Nor has appellant responded to that notice, offered any explanation for her failure to file or requested an extension of time for such filing.

7/2/97

Consequently, while we are mindful of appellant's pro se status, under the circumstances we dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a). See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board of Education, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 08 1997

36-97

JOSEPH DEL GROSSO AND THE NEWARK TEACHERS UNION,

PETITIONERS,

V.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY, AND TRUSTEES OF THE TEACHERS' PENSION AND ANNUITY FUND,

RESPONDENTS.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning President of Teachers Union and the Union alleged the Board improperly failed to make pension contribution with respect to a salary increase given to employees in the 1994-95 school year.

ALJ concluded the Commissioner of Education had no jurisdiction to determine the issue of whether the "differential adjustment" payments constituted "creditable salary" pursuant to the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (TPAF) Law. Moreover, the ALJ concluded that TPAF is an independent agency whose determinations are not subject to the review of the Commissioner of Education. Thus, no relief was available to petitioners in this forum. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

JANUARY 27, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7570-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 478-12/95

JOSEPH DEL GROSSO AND NEWARK TEACHERS UNION,

Petitioners,

v.

STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY AND TRUSTEES OF THE TEACHERS' PENSION AND ANNUITY FUND,

Respondents.

Eugene C. Liss, Esq., for petitioners

Donna Ramsay-Wilcox, Esq., for respondent Newark School District (Sills, Cummis, Zuckerman, Radin, Tischman, Epstein & Gross, attorneys)

Celestine B. Ross, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: November 1, 1996 Decided: December 9, 1996

BEFORE EDITH KLINGER, ALJ:

On December 21, 1995, petitioners filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education seeking resolution of the following disputes pursuant to the school laws, N.J.S.A. 18A:

1. Can the State-Operated School District of Newark (District) designate an increase in teachers' salaries for the 1994-95 school year as a "differential adjustment" without deducting contributions to the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (TPAF)?
2. Can the TPAF refuse to credit the differential adjustment payments for pension purposes?

On July 22, 1996, the Commissioner of the Department of Education transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

This petition raises the following threshold questions:

1. Is the question of whether the "differential adjustment" constitutes compensation for pension purposes one which arises under the school laws and, therefore, within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education?
2. Does the Commissioner of Education have jurisdiction over the refusal of the TPAF to credit the "differential adjustment" payment as compensation for pension purposes?
3. Does the Commissioner of Education have jurisdiction to grant any relief against the TPAF, that is, is the TPAF a proper party to this appeal?

DISCUSSION OF LAW AND CONCLUSIONS

This matter is governed by the provisions of the "Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund Law," N.J.S.A. 18A:66-1 et seq., and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The implementation of this statute and the corresponding regulations is within the jurisdiction of the TPAF. See Siri v. Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund, 262 N.J. Super. 147 (App. Div. 1993); Farrah v. TPAF, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (TYP) 69 (1993). The TPAF is part of the New Jersey Department of the Treasury and not the New Jersey Department of Education.

N.J.S.A. 18A:66-2d defines compensation for pension purposes in the following manner:

> "Compensation" means the contractual salary, for services as a teacher as defined in this article, which is in accordance with established salary policies of the member's employer for all employees in the same position but shall not include individual salary adjustments which are granted primarily in anticipation of the member's retirement or additional remuneration for performing temporary or extra curricular duties beyond the regular school day or the regular school year.

N.J.A.C. 17:3-4.1 is the regulation which deals with a pension fund member's "creditable salary," that which is subject to pension and group life insurance contributions. It distinguishes between the base or contractual salary, which is subject to contributions, and the forms of extra compensation, set forth in detail, which are not.

An unfavorable determination by the TPAF in this regard may be appealed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:3-1.7, and the matter transmitted by the TPAF, not the Commissioner of Education, to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing as a contested case, N.J.A.C. 17:1-5.1. A final decision on the appeal is issued by the TPAF, not the Commissioner. The final agency determination by the TPAF is reviewed by the Appellate Division of the Superior Court, not the Commissioner of Education.

Based upon the statutory and regulatory scheme, the threshold questions raised by this appeal must all be answered in the negative.

I CONCLUDE that the Commissioner of Education has no jurisdiction to determine the issue of whether the "differential adjustment" payments constitute "creditable salary" pursuant to the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund Law.

I CONCLUDE that TPAF is an independent agency whose determinations are not subject to the review of the Commissioner of Education and, consequently, it is not a proper party to this appeal.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Commissioner of Education is unable to grant petitioners any relief. Since the present matter was transmitted by the Department of Education, not the TPAF, I CONCLUDE that no relief is available to petitioners in this forum. The Office of Administrative Law has no greater jurisdiction over the subject matter of a contested case than the agency which transmitted it.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that petitioners' Complaint before the Commissioner of Education is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION who, by law, is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 9, 1996
DATE

Edith Klinger
EDITH KLINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Dec. 11, 1996
DATE

D. N. Contanzutis/jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 11 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

md

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7570-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 478-12/95

JOSEPH DEL GROSSO AND THE NEWARK TEACHERS UNION,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY, AND TRUSTEES OF THE TEACHERS' PENSION AND ANNUITY FUND,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge that this matter is governed by provisions of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (TPAF) Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:66-1, reviewable by the TPAF, not the Commissioner of Education.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL for the reasons expressed therein and dismisses the within Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 27, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 28, 1997

37-97

37-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF CLARENCE DIGGS,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY	:	DECISION
OF ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY.	:
	:

JANUARY 27, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL/WITHDRAWAL
OAL DKT. NO EDU 6578-95,
AGENCY DKT. NO. 177/5-95

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ORANGE TOWNSHIP, ESSEX COUNTY, Petitioner,
v.
CLARENCE DIGGS,
Respondent.

Connie B. McGhee, Esq. for petitioner

Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., for respondent
(Bucceri and Pincus, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 15, 1996 Decided: December 11, 1996

BEFORE ARNOLD SAMUELS, ALJ:

On May 19, 1995, the petitioner, Board of Education of the City of Orange Township, Essex County, filed a Certificate of Determination and Written Charges against the respondent, Clarence Diggs, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-5.1 et seq., seeking to dismiss him from his tenured position, for alleged unbecoming conduct, incapacity and other good cause (absenteeism). The petitioner filed an answer with the Commissioner of Education on May 30, 1995.

On June 23, 1995, the Commissioner of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing and determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A prehearing conference was held on September 18, 1995, and a prehearing order was entered, scheduling hearing dates, providing for discovery and dealing with other procedural matters to precede the hearing.

A hearing was held on March 26, 1996. At that time, counsel did not dispute the incapacity charge, and the respondent's record of absenteeism was uncontested. It was additionally indicated by counsel that the respondent had applied for a disability pension and would not, in any event, return to work. The record was held open pending receipt of advice from counsel of the total number of school days and the total number of absences for each year in question. The information was not received.

However, by letter dated May 8, 1996, respondent's attorney advised that the Teacher's Pension and Annuity Fund had confirmed the granting of a disability pension to the respondent, retroactive to October 1, 1995. In a later letter, dated May 23, 1996, counsel further stated that "in light of the fact that Mr. Diggs has no claim to back salary since he was unable to work throughout these proceedings and since he has now been found totally and permanently disabled, I do believe these charges are moot and no longer require processing. I await the board's position."

On June 11, 1996, the board's attorney advised, by telephone, that the issues were resolved and the case would be withdrawn. She stated that a letter would follow the telephone message.

No letter of confirmation was received. In response to a further inquiry, several months later, the respondent's attorney stated that he could not withdraw the charges because he did not file them, and that his last communication with the board's attorney concluded with an indication that she would be withdrawing the charges.

As of the date of this decision, no communication has been received from the attorney for the Board of Education, who was sent copies of all of the previously mentioned correspondence.

Based on the foregoing, and in view of the telephone message from the board's attorney, her assurances given to respondent's attorney, and her lack of any further communication by letter or otherwise, it is CONCLUDED that good cause has been shown for withdrawal and dismissal of this matter, because it is moot and because the Board of Education no longer is interested in prosecuting the charges. Respondent has effectively resigned his position.

It is therefore ORDERED that withdrawal and dismissal of this contested case, with prejudice, be approved, subject to approval by the Commissioner of Education.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 11, 1996
DATE

ARNOLD SAMUELS, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/13/96
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 17 1996
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

njf

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6578-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 177-5/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF CLARENCE DIGGS,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY	:	DECISION
OF ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY.	:
	:

The record and initial decision rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions have been filed by the parties.

The Commissioner approves the withdrawal and dismissal of the instant matter and herein reminds the Board of its obligation, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.5, to cooperate with the State Board of Examiners in any action that body may decide to take with regard to this matter.

Accordingly, with the above clarification, the initial decision dismissing the above tenure charges is affirmed and the matter shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for consideration.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 27, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 28, 1997

38-97

38-97 SEC

IN THE MATTER OF FRANK PANNUCCI,	:
BRICK TOWNSHIP BOARD OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EDUCATION, OCEAN COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

JANUARY 28, 1997

IN THE MATTER	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
OF	:
	:	Docket No.: C08-96
FRANK PANNUCCI,	:
Brick Township Board of Education,	:	DECISION
Ocean County	:
	:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a complaint filed on April 4, 1996, by Joseph Sangiovanni. The complaint alleges that respondent participated in negotiation sessions with the Brick Township Education Association (BTEA), the local bargaining unit of the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA). It also alleges that he voted on the collective bargaining agreement in violation of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., specifically N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and (f).

Respondent filed his answer with the School Ethics Commission on July 3, 1996. He then filed a supplemental affidavit by letter dated July 15, 1996, and a supplemental answer by letter dated July 17, 1996. Therein, he admitted voting on the collective bargaining agreement on November 3, 1994, but denied that his actions violated the Act. Respondent denied participating in any negotiation sessions with the BTEA subsequent to May 21, 1991.

Both complainant and respondent appeared before the Commission on July 23, 1996. At its September meeting, the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegation that Mr. Pannucci voted on the collective bargaining agreement in violation of the Act. It dismissed the allegation that Mr. Pannucci participated in negotiation sessions with the BTEA because there was insufficient evidence that respondent participated in negotiations at any date subsequent to the date on which the Commission rendered its opinion that such participation would violate the Act. The Commission notified the parties of the decision and invited Mr. Pannucci to file a written statement setting forth why he should not be found in violation of the School Ethics Act for voting on the collective bargaining agreement. The Commission received his written statement on October 31, 1996.

The issue now before the Commission is whether respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) or (f) by voting on the collective bargaining agreement in November 1994.

FACTS

The following material facts are undisputed. In November 1994, respondent was a member of the Brick Township Board of Education. He was elected to his third consecutive term in April 1996. Respondent is a teacher in East Orange and was so in November 1994. As such, he was and is a member of the NJEA. The BTEA is a local bargaining unit of the NJEA. When the collective bargaining agreement with the BTEA was brought before the Brick Township board for a vote, respondent voted on the contract.

On May 26, 1994, the Commission issued Advisory Opinion A10-93. In that opinion, the Commission set forth that a school board member would violate the Act if he participated in negotiations on a collective bargaining agreement with the local bargaining unit of a statewide union in which the board member or a member of his immediate family member was a member. On June 23, 1994, the Commission issued A10-93(b) and A07-94. In this opinion, the Commission set forth that the Act prohibits a school board member from voting on a collective bargaining agreement for a local bargaining unit of a statewide union when the school board member or his immediate family member belongs to the statewide union. The Commission released the opinions to the public on those dates. The Commission, noting that its opinions were a first interpretation of a new law and would change past practices, stated that the opinions should apply prospectively.

By letter dated August 16, 1994, the Brick Township board received advice from its attorney setting forth the Commission's opinions in A10-93, A10-93(b) and A07-94. The board attorney advised the board as follows:

> Our reading of the aforesaid statute and advisory opinions is that a Board member, who is a member of the same State wide union as the union in which the Board is involved with in labor negotiations, cannot vote after the date of the advisory opinion of June 23, 1994, irrespective of whether the labor negotiations began before the June date and continued thereafter.

However, the board attorney went on to note that that the opinions of the Commission are "purely advisory in nature, and as such are not binding upon any Board member or the Board itself." He went on to give his own opinion that the Advisory Opinion was "overreaching" and the findings "excessively broad". Last, the attorney sets forth:

> Please be advised that if an individual Board member notwithstanding our opinion herein, decides to vote on the teachers' labor contract, there are no known sanctions that can be applied to the contract, there are no known sanctions that can be applied to the Board member if it is his opinion to vote based upon his and his union's interpretation of the advisory opinions. Further, we know of no known mechanism whereby a member's vote is not to be recorded.

Respondent testified that he relied on the board attorney's analysis of the Advisory Opinions and sought additional clarification as to whether he should vote or abstain on November 3, 1994. He testified that he received no clear answer leaving him with the impression that he could do what he felt was correct. Respondent testified that he chose to cast his vote, which he felt he was required to do as a board member. However, respondent did not testify that the board attorney ever advised respondent to vote on the collective bargaining agreement.

ANALYSIS

Respondent sets forth several reasons that the School Ethics Commission should not find that he violated the Act and should not have found probable cause. The issues that he raised will be addressed in turn.

I. The Commission Considered All Material Facts

First the respondent argues that the Commission did not consider all of the material facts in the case, specifically those facts that indicate that respondent relied on the competent advice of counsel. Respondent sets forth that one acting in the position of a fiduciary can rely upon advice of a competent counsel citing Van der Veer v. Ames, 6 N.J. Super. 143 (App. Div. 1950). He further argues that respondent's actions were within the scope of his authority, in good faith and within the purview of an ordinary prudent man taking the advice of competent counsel.

The Commission has reviewed the full opinion of counsel and finds it significant for what it does and does not say. First, the opinion says in no uncertain terms that counsel's reading of the opinion is that "a board member, who is a member of the same State wide union as the union in which the Board is involved with in labor negotiations, cannot vote after the date of the advisory opinion of June 23, 1994, irrespective of whether the labor negotiations began before the June date and continued after." The attorney goes on to express his disagreement with the Commission's opinion and his belief that it is not binding on board members. Then he ultimately leaves it to the board member and his union to decide whether to vote. However, there is no ambiguity in the meaning of the Commission's opinion. Because this is the only portion of the attorney's opinion that is not ambiguous, the Commission concludes that respondent was aware of the Commission decision that he would be in violation of the School Ethics Act if he voted on the collective bargaining agreement.

The counsel to the board goes on to indicate that there are "no known sanctions" that can be applied to a board member who decides to vote on the labor contract "notwithstanding our opinion herein". This sentence indicates that counsel's opinion is that the board member should not vote, but if he does vote, despite the opinion, no sanctions will result. Thus, the Commission concludes that the board member did not rely on the advice of counsel when he decided to vote for the Act. The board attorney ultimately left the decision to respondent's judgment and that of his union. Respondent chose to vote despite the Commission's opinion that doing so would violate the Act. Respondent's reliance on the attorney's advice that no sanctions could be applied to board member who votes on the contract is very different from reliance on advice telling him that it is permissible to vote. At no time did the attorney advise that it is permissible for respondent to vote. Respondent only testified that he was confused and left to his own devices. Given the clear wording of the attorney's reading of the advisory opinion, and respondent's testimony that indicated that the attorney would not advise him that he could vote, the most prudent course of action would have been to abstain from voting. Respondent chose not to do so.

II. The Commission's Advisory Opinions Do Not Extend the Statutory Prohibition Set Forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.4.

Respondent next argues that the Commission has no power to extend statutory prohibitions. His argument is that since N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.4 allows a person employed by a board of education to serve as a board member in a district other than that which employs him, the Commission's Advisory Opinion A10-93(b) and A07-94 effectively sets a statutory prohibition on conduct the legislature did not intend to prohibit. The Commission finds this argument to be without merit.

The Commission's advisory opinions do not impede upon the statutory right of school board employees to serve as board members in other districts. Clearly, respondent has served in both capacities for three consecutive terms and nothing that the Commission does will render him disqualified from serving. Further, he is not being charged with having such a substantial conflict that he cannot continue to serve in both. Rather, the Commission is stating, as it has in other situations, that where respondent has a conflict of interest, he cannot vote on a matter. The Legislature empowered the Commission to enforce the standards of conduct and guide members as to the standards that the legislature set forth in the School Ethics Act. Thus, respondent's argument that a prohibition such as that set forth in Advisory Opinion A10-93(b) and A07-94 would have been included in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.4 is illogical. The School Ethics Act sets forth prohibited conduct by school board members and administrators. The advisory opinion is the Commission's interpretation of certain provisions of the Act. It would be inappropriate for the legislature to limit the voting of board members in a section of Title 18A entitled "Employees; Qualifications; Discrimination; Prohibitions; Leave to Serve in Legislature." Again, the Commission's decision does not disqualify a teacher from becoming a board member, nor does it prevent a board member from becoming a teacher.

III. The Commission's Interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and (f) is Neither Arbitrary Nor Capricious.

Next, respondent argues that the Commission's interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and (f) is arbitrary and capricious. He sets forth that the Commission interprets those subsections based on speculation, rather than facts and empirical data. The Commission disagrees that a finding of a violation of subsection (c) must be based on an actual finding that the board member's salary will be increased by his vote. The law requires no such proof. However, the Commission agrees that a finding of a violation of subsection (f) should be based on evidence that the member used his public office or information that he acquired from that office to secure financial gain for himself. The distinction is clear from the wording of the two provisions.

Subsection (c) sets forth that:

> No school official shall act in his official capacity in any matter where he, a member of his immediate family, or a business organization in which he has an interest, has a direct or indirect financial or personal involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment. (Emphasis added).

Subsection (f), on the other hand, sets forth that:

> No school official shall use, or allow to be used, his public office or employment, or any information, not generally available to the members of the public, which he receives or acquires in the course of and by reason of his or office or employment, for the purpose of securing financial gain for himself, any member of his immediate family, or any business organization with which he is associated.

Thus, subsection (f) does not have wording that indicates as in (c) that the board member might reasonably be expected to use his office or information to secure financial gain. Rather, the school official must have actually used his office or information derived from it to secure financial gain. To find a violation of (c), the Commission need only show that one would reasonably expect that an indirect personal or financial involvement would impair his objectivity or independence of judgment. Furthermore, one must read all subsections of section 24 in conjunction with the legislature's findings and declarations. The declarations provide that board members and administrators must avoid conduct which is in violation of the public trust or "which creates a justifiable impression among the public that such trust is being violated." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(b).

In the present case, the Commission finds that there is insufficient evidence to show that respondent used his public office or any information derived from it to secure financial gain for himself in violation of subsection (f). Therefore, it now dismisses that charge. The Commission previously ruled that there was no probable cause to credit the allegations that respondent sat in on closed session discussions or participated in negotiations where he could have access to such information. However, the Commission finds that respondent had an indirect financial involvement in the outcome of collective bargaining between the local bargaining unit and the board. The Commission reasons that respondent's statewide general union looks to salary and benefits statewide to determine what salary to seek for its members. The comparison of salaries creates the justifiable impression among the public that the public trust is being violated when respondent votes on the collective bargaining agreement when he is a member of the same statewide general union as the local bargaining unit.

IV. The Commission's Decision Does Not Infringe Upon Respondent's First Amendment Rights.

Respondent further argues that the Commission's decision raises serious first amendment issues as to his freedom of association. The Commission finds this argument to be baseless. The Commission does not ever require the respondent or others similarly situated to choose being a teacher over being a board member. The respondent is free to associate with both groups within the standards set forth in the School Ethics Act as interpreted by the Commission.

V. Respondent Has Not Proved the Affirmative Defense that the Complaint is Untimely or Barred by Laches.

Respondent next sets forth his belief that the complaint is untimely and barred by laches. The Commission finds that there is no statutory time limitation set forth in the School Ethics Act or the Commission's regulations. Further, respondent has failed to cite facts and supporting cases to prove the affirmative defense of laches.

First, the School Ethics Act does not set a statute of limitations for filing ethics complaints. The Legislature could have set the same 90-day limit for ethics complaints as it did for petitions before the Commissioner, but it chose not to do so. In ethics matters, it often takes time to flesh out relationships to determine whether a conflict exists. Setting a 90-day time limit would only increase frivolous complaints by forcing potential claimants to file before they had all of the facts in order to avoid being time-barred. A time bar does not serve the legislative purpose to ensure that members of the public have faith in their elected officials. Thus, the Commission finds that there is no time bar on filing an ethics complaint, except that it must be a reasonable amount of time that does not result in prejudice to respondent.

In the present case, the respondent has not been prejudiced by the filing of the complaint well over a year after the vote occurred. There were no witnesses that the respondent was unable to call due to the length of time that had passed. There were no documents that he could not retrieve because they had been purged or otherwise destroyed. Furthermore, the respondent has testified that he does not believe that he did anything wrong and thus he is very likely to vote on a collective bargaining agreement again. The issue raised in the complaint is one that needs to be resolved and is likely to arise again. Thus, the Commission does not find that the within complaint is barred by untimeliness.

The affirmative defense of laches is based on the length of delay in bringing a claim, the reasons for delay, and the changing conditions of either or both parties during the delay. Lavin v. Hackensack Board of Education, 90 N.J. 145, 152 (1982). The length of the delay alone or in conjunction with the other elements may result in laches. Id. Whether or not it is inequitable to allow a claim to be enforced will generally turn on whether an adverse party has been harmed by the delay. Id. at 153; N.J. Dept. of Environmental Protection and Energy v. Dopp, 268 N.J. Super. 165, 176 (App. Div. 1993).

In the present case, Mr. Sangiovanni testified that he did not become aware that Mr. Pannucci improperly voted on the collective bargaining agreement until February 1995 although the vote occurred in November 1994. At that time, he began his candidacy for a seat on the Brick board of education for the first time. His knowledge was acquired through Mr. Mueller who was then seeking to have the contract nullified. Mr. Mueller did not prosecute his petition in the Office of Administrative Law and it was subsequently dismissed. Mr. Sangiovanni filed the within complaint on April 4, 1996.

The Commission finds that the length of time it took Mr. Sangiovanni to file the within complaint did not result in laches. The filing of the complaint was less than a year and a half after the conduct occurred and a year and two months after the complainant states that he became aware of the possible violation of the Act. The Commission finds that it was reasonable for Mr. Sangiovanni not to have filed sooner in light of his knowledge that someone was already challenging the contract at issue in the present case, although the petition was not before the School Ethics Commission. More importantly, the Commission finds that the delay did not harm Mr. Pannucci in any way by denying him access to any evidence that he could have used to defend himself against Mr. Sangiovanni's allegations. For the foregoing reasons, the Commission finds that respondent has failed to prove that he can invoke the affirmative defense of laches to bar the present complaint.

VI. The Commission's Interpretation of the School Ethics Act Does Not Attempt to Supersede the Will of the Electorate.

As set forth in "II" above, the School Ethics Act as interpreted by the Commission does not in any way prevent teachers or any other members of a national school union from serving on a school board. It only sets a limit on their ability to vote on matters that the Commission has deemed them to have a conflict. The decision has not prevented and will never prevent the continuing participation of members of national school union members to participate on school boards. Thus, the Commission finds this argument to be meritless.

CONCLUSION

For all the foregoing reasons, the Commission finds that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act. Because respondent received inadequate advice from counsel as to whether he should vote and the Commission had only recently issued the advisory opinion setting forth that his voting on the contract would violate the Act, the Commission recommends a lower penalty than it normally would for the violation. It recommends a penalty of censure because a censure does not force respondent to miss any board meetings, but yet it is a public disciplinary action so that other board members and the public are notified of the violation. For the foregoing reasons, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner impose a penalty of censure.

Upon adoption of this decision by a formal resolution of the School Ethics Commission, the matter shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Education for action on the Commission's recommendation for sanction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29. Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which the Commission's decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written comments on the recommended sanction with the Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, CN 500, Trenton, NJ 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the School Ethics Commission and all other parties.

Paul C. Garbarini 4/13

Paul C. Garbarini
Chairperson

Resolution Adopting Decision -- C08-96

Whereas, the School Ethics Commission has considered the pleadings filed by the parties and the documents submitted in support thereof and has considered the arguments raised by parties in testimony; and

Whereas, the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegations in the complaint, found that there are no material facts in dispute, and therefore invited respondent's written statement in response; and

Whereas, the Commission has reviewed respondent's written statement and now concludes that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act; and

Whereas, the Commission has reviewed the proposed decision of its staff setting forth the reasons for its conclusion; and

Whereas, the Commission agrees with the proposed decision;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Commission hereby finds that Frank Pannucci has violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act and recommends that the Commissioner impose a penalty of censure and adopts the proposed decision referenced as its decision in this matter.

Paul C. Garbarini, Chairman

I hereby certify that the Resolution was duly adopted by the School
Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 26, 1996

Lisa James-Beavers
Executive Director

[c0896/c:lisa/decisions]

AGENCY DKT. NO. 574-12/96

IN THE MATTER OF FRANK PANNUCCI,	:
BRICK TOWNSHIP BOARD OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EDUCATION, OCEAN COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission have been reviewed.

The parties submitted timely comments with respect to the Commission's recommended penalty.* Complainant Joseph Sangiovanni's comments regarding the Commission's recommended penalty contend that, under the circumstances of this matter, such recommendation is too lenient. Respondent's comments urge that the Commissioner should reconsider the Commission's decision and find the recommended penalty unwarranted.

After his review of the full record in this matter, and with due consideration to the arguments advanced by the parties with respect to the sanction to be imposed, the Commissioner determines to accept the Commission's recommendation that censure is the appropriate penalty in this matter.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Frank Pannucci be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* It is noted that respondent's counsel requested and was granted an extension of time within which to file comments to the Commission's decision.

JANUARY 28, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 29, 1997

38-97

SEC #C8-96
C # 38-97SEC
SB # 16-97

IN THE MATTER OF FRANK PANNUCCI, :
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF BRICK :
TOWNSHIP, OCEAN COUNTY. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION ON MOTION

Decided by the School Ethics Commission, November 26, 1996

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 28, 1997

For the Complainant-Cross/Appellant, Martin J. Anton, Esq.

For the Respondent-Appellant, Jay C. Sendzik, Esq.

For the Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the amicus curiae New Jersey School Boards Association, Michael F. Kaelber, Esq.

The State Board of Education grants the motion for leave to appear as amicus curiae filed in this matter by the New Jersey School Boards Association pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.1. The School Boards Association is directed to submit its brief within ten days of the date of this decision.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

38-97

SEC #C8-96
C #38-97SEC
SB #16-97

IN THE MATTER OF FRANK PANNUCCI, :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF BRICK : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

TOWNSHIP, OCEAN COUNTY. : DECISION ON MOTION

Decided by the School Ethics Commission, November 26, 1996

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 28, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, June 4, 1997

For the Complainant-Cross/Appellant, Martin J. Anton, Esq.

For the Respondent-Appellant, Jay C. Sendzik, Esq.

For the Respondent School Ethics Commission, John Worthington, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the amicus curiae New Jersey School Boards Association, Michael F. Kaelber, Esq.

For the amicus curiae New Jersey Education Association, Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak (Kathleen Naprstek, Esq., of Counsel)

The State Board of Education grants the motion for leave to appear as amicus curiae filed in this matter by the New Jersey Education Association pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.1.

January 6, 1999

Date of mailing JAN 08 1999

38-97

SEC #C8-96
C #38-97SEC
SB #16-97

IN THE MATTER OF FRANK PANNUCCI, :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF BRICK : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

TOWNSHIP, OCEAN COUNTY. : DECISION

Decided by the School Ethics Commission, November 26, 1996

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 28, 1997

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, June 4, 1997

For the Complainant-Cross/Appellant, Martin J. Anton, Esq.

For the Respondent-Appellant, Jay C. Sendzik, Esq.

For the Respondent School Ethics Commission, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (John J. Farmer, Jr., Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the amicus curiae New Jersey School Boards Association, Michael F. Kaelber, Esq.

For the amicus curiae New Jersey Education Association, Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak (Kathleen A. Naprstek, Esq., of counsel)

This is an appeal by respondent Frank Pannucci from a determination by the School Ethics Commission that he violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., by voting on the collective negotiations agreement adopted by the Brick Township Board of Education ("Board" or "Brick Township Board") on November 3, 1994. A cross-appeal was thereafter filed by Joseph Sangiovanni, the individual who initiated the proceedings before the School Ethics Commission which resulted in that determination, from the sanction imposed on Mr. Pannucci by the Commissioner of Education.

Mar. 1, 2000

Mr. Pannucci, who is employed as a teacher in East Orange, has been a member of the Brick Township Board since 1990, with the exception of the period between April 1995 and April 1996.

Mr. Sangiovanni's complaint alleged that Mr. Pannucci, in violation of the School Ethics Act, had participated in negotiation sessions between the Board and the Brick Township Education Association after May 1994, at which time the School Ethics Commission had issued an advisory opinion on the subject, and that he had voted on the collective negotiations agreement between the Board and the teachers' union.

Mr. Pannucci denied that he had participated in any negotiations after May 1994. He admitted, however, that he had voted on the collective negotiations agreement.

Both Mr. Sangiovanni and Mr. Pannucci appeared before the School Ethics Commission on July 23, 1996, at which time the Commission determined that there was probable cause to credit the allegations in the complaint and to transmit the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing.

However, in a written decision dated September 24, 1996, the Commission dismissed all of the allegations in the complaint except that Mr. Pannucci had violated the Ethics Act by voting on a collective negotiations agreement. Then, finding that there were no material facts in dispute, the Commission determined to give respondent the opportunity to submit his position to the Commission in writing instead of transmitting the case to OAL for hearing.

After written submissions from both the complainant and the respondent, and based on the undisputed facts, the Ethics Commission found that Mr. Pannucci had violated the School Ethics Act when he voted on the agreement in November 1994. In so concluding, the Commission relied on its advisory opinion of June 23, 1994 and reasoned that "respondent's statewide general union looks to salary and benefits statewide to determine what salary to seek for its members. The comparison of salaries creates the justifiable impression among the public that the public trust is being violated when respondent votes on the collective bargaining agreement when he is a member of the same statewide general union as the local bargaining unit." Commission's Decision, slip op. at 5-6.

The Commission, however, recommended to the Commissioner that because Mr. Pannucci had received inadequate advice from counsel and because the advisory opinion on the subject had been issued recently when he voted on the agreement, the appropriate penalty would be a censure.

The Commissioner agreed and directed that Mr. Pannucci "be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act." Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 10.

Mr. Pannucci appealed to the State Board of Education from the Ethics Commission's finding that he had violated the Ethics Act by voting on the agreement and from the Commissioner's imposition of a penalty on the basis of that finding.

Mr. Sangiovanni cross-appealed, seeking the imposition of a more severe penalty.

In addition, the New Jersey School Boards Association ("NJSBA") and the New Jersey Education Association ("NJEA") are participating in the matter as amicus curiae.

Mr. Pannucci argues that a fair and reasonable reading of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) does not support the Ethics Commission's finding that, solely by virtue of his membership in the New Jersey Education Association, he had violated the School Ethics Act by voting on the agreement between the Brick Township Board and the Brick Township Education Association. He contends that such conclusion was not intended by the Legislature and effectively legislates qualifications for membership on a district board of education beyond those in statute. Mr. Pannucci further contends that the Commission's conclusion unnecessarily infringes upon his First Amendment right to freedom of association and that it supercedes the will of the voters, who knew of his employment as a teacher in East Orange when they re-elected him to the Brick Township Board.

In response, Mr. Sangiovanni contends that Mr. Pannucci's status as a union member "might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence." Hence, he argues, the Ethics Commission did not need any factual findings to support its conclusion that by voting on the agreement, Mr. Pannucci had violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). In addition, by his cross-appeal, Mr. Sangiovanni urges the State Board to increase the penalty which the Commissioner had imposed in this case. In this respect, he argues that an increased penalty is warranted because Mr. Pannucci still does not recognize the "impropriety of his actions." Brief in support of cross-appeal, at 5.

In a brief on behalf of the Ethics Commission, a deputy attorney general argues that Mr. Sangiovanni has no standing to appeal either the Ethics Commission's determination finding a violation of the Ethics Act or the Commissioner's determination of the appropriate penalty because, as a complainant, his role was "informational" once the Ethics Commission initiated its investigation and issued its probable cause determination. In a separate brief on behalf of both the Ethics Commission and the Commissioner, the Deputy argues for affirmance of the penalty recommended by the Commission and imposed by the Commissioner.

The NJSBA challenges the entirety of two advisory opinions issued by the Ethics Commission. These opinions concluded that the School Ethics Act automatically precludes participation by board members in a variety of activities on the basis of union affiliation and/or representation. Among those advisory opinions is the June 23, 1994 opinion that provided the foundation for the Commission's determination in the matter now before us.

The NJSBA argues that both advisory opinions, as well as the determination now on appeal, go beyond the legislative intent of the School Ethics Act and have a significant negative impact on the operations of district boards of education. It further argues that the Commission's determination in this case impermissibly infringes on the constitutional rights of the members of district boards.

Like the NJSBA, the NJEA contends that both advisory opinions are incorrect as a matter of law and that, consequently, the Ethics Commission's determination in this case should be reversed.

Initially, we agree with the Deputy Attorney General representing the Ethics Commission that Mr. Sangiovanni does not have standing to appeal to the State Board from the determinations rendered in this matter by the Ethics Commission and the Commissioner. Examination of the controlling statutes reveals that the role of a complainant was designed to provide the vehicle by which allegations against a school official would be brought to the School Ethics Commission, but that these statutes do not confer on the individual who files the complaint the right to prosecute the matter.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(a) provides that "[a]ny person, including a member of the commission, may file a complaint alleging a violation...by submitting it, on a form prescribed by the commission, to the commission." The statute further provides that no complaint shall be accepted by the Ethics Commission unless it has been signed under oath by the complainant. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(b) requires that upon receipt of a complaint, the Commission must serve a copy of the complaint on each school official named in it and provide such official with the "opportunity to submit a written statement under oath."

At that point, the Commission is charged with the responsibility of deciding by majority vote whether "probable cause exists to credit the allegations in the complaint." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(b). If the Commission decides that probable cause does not exist, it must dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and any school official named in the complaint. The statute expressly provides that such dismissal constitutes "final agency action." Id. In addition, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(e) confers on the Commission the authority to impose a fine not to exceed $500 on the complainant if it determines that the complaint was frivolous.

In contrast, in those cases in which the Ethics Commission finds that there is probable cause, it must refer the matter for a hearing to be conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(b). Upon completion of the hearing, the Commission must decide by majority vote whether the conduct complained of constitutes a violation of the Ethics Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). If the Commission finds such violation, it must recommend a sanction to the Commissioner of Education, who then acts on the Commission's recommendation. Id. Any appeal from the Commission's determination of a violation or the Commissioner's decision regarding the sanction is to the State Board of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(d).

Consistent with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(d) and the statutory framework governing appeals to the State Board, see N.J.S.A. 18A:6-27 through 6-29, the State Board's regulations delineate that "any party aggrieved by a decision...or by the School Ethics Commission finding a violation of the School Ethics Act may appeal to the State Board of Education." As set forth in N.J.A.C. 6:3-9.2, a complainant is the person bringing a complaint of an alleged violation of the School Ethics Act. Quite simply, given the role of a complainant as defined in the statute and implementing regulations, regardless of whether the proceedings result in a finding of a violation and the imposition of a penalty, a complainant is not an "aggrieved party" by virtue of his status as a complainant. In re Lazarus, 81 N.J. Super. 132 (App. Div. 1963).

However, we recognize that neither the statute nor regulations automatically preclude standing. Although we are mindful of the distinctions between judicial power and the quasi-judicial authority exercised in administrative proceedings, City of Hackensack v. Winner, 82 N.J. 1, 28-29 (1980), we find that the assessment of whether an individual complainant has standing to pursue an administrative appeal in this context is most appropriately resolved under the principles expressed by the judicial opinions on the subject.

Even under the liberal approach taken by the New Jersey courts, standing is generally confined to situations where the individual concerned with the subject matter of the litigation evidences a sufficient stake in the outcome and real adverseness. New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce v. New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission, 82 N.J. 57, 68 (1980); Crescent Park Tenants Ass'n v. Realty Equity Corp. of N.Y., 58 N.J. 98, 107 (1971). At the same time, the courts have recognized that lack of standing to invoke the power of judicial review may confer a conclusive character on administrative action to the possible great detriment of the public. Elizabeth Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Howell, 24 N.J. 488 (1957). They have further recognized that a narrow approach to standing may lose sight of the overriding need of the system to make sure that someone shall in fact be able to secure review of administrative action. Id. Hence, where a substantial public interest is involved, a slight interest may be sufficient to give standing to invoke judicial review. New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce, supra; Elizabeth Federal Savings and Loan, supra.

We stress that the complainant in this case is not attempting to appeal the Ethics Commission's determination that there was not probable cause to support his allegations relating to negotiations. As previously stated, the statute provides that such determinations constitute the final agency decision in the matter, so that review would presumably be obtainable through the Superior Court. Rather, the complainant is participating in this matter as a respondent/cross-appellant.

While the complaint indicates that the complainant is a resident of Brick, there is no expression that he possesses any interest in this matter other than as a member of the public. In this respect, the complainant has not shown how he has been affected adversely and in any degree greater than the public generally by the Commissioner's determination that a censure was sufficient sanction. Moreover, it is not the function of the Ethics Commission or the Commissioner in this context to adjudicate the rights of complainants vis-à-vis school officials. In re Lazarus, supra.

Again, the function of a complainant is to bring acts by school officials which may indicate a violation of the School Ethics Act to the attention of the Ethics Commission so as to protect the public's confidence. See N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22. It is the Commission, not the complainant, which is charged in this context with acting as the guardian of the public interest.

We therefore hold that complainant in this case does not have standing to seek review on appeal by the State Board of Education of the determinations of either the Ethics Commission or the Commissioner. Nor does he have the right to participate in Mr. Pannucci's appeal as a party respondent.

We turn now to the substance of Mr. Pannucci's appeal. After review of the matter, we reverse the Ethics Commission's determination that Mr. Pannucci violated the School Ethics Act by voting on the collective negotiations agreement involved.

Prior to enactment of the Ethics Act, conduct such as involved here was controlled by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. It was well established under that statute that Mr.

Pannucci's conduct in voting on the contract while a member of the same statewide employee association as that with which the local in Brick was affiliated was not prohibited. See Salerno v. Board of Education of the Township of Old Bridge, decided by the Commissioner of Education, April 23, 1984, Larsen v. Woodbridge Bd. Of Ed., decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 18, 1985. However, this does not automatically result in the conclusion that respondent's conduct did not violate the Ethics Act.

In its decision, the Ethics Commission found that respondent had violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). That statute provides in pertinent part that:

> No school official shall act in his official capacity in any matter where he, a member of his immediate family, or a business organization in which he has an interest, has a direct or indirect personal involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment.

The Commission found that respondent had an "indirect financial involvement in the outcome of collective bargaining between the local bargaining unit and the board."[1] Commission's Decision, slip op. at 5. In reaching this conclusion, the Commission reasoned that:

> respondent's statewide general union looks to salary and benefits statewide to determine what salary to seek for its members. The comparison of salaries creates the

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) was subsequently amended to eliminate the prohibition on school officials acting in instances in which such official or a member of his immediate family has a direct or indirect personal involvement that night reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity. Instead, the statute now provides in this respect that:

> No school official shall act in his official capacity in any matter where he or a member of his immediate family has a personal involvement that is or creates some benefit to the school official or member of his immediate family.

This change, however, has no bearing on the instant matter.

> impression among the public that the public trust is being violated when respondent votes on the collective bargaining agreement when he is a member of the same statewide general union as the local bargaining unit.

Id. at 5-6.

This reasoning is more fully explicated in the advisory opinion issued by the Commission on June 23, 1994 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-31.[2] It is this advisory opinion, along with the opinion issued on May 26, 1994, that provides the underpinnings for the Commission's decision in the instant case.[3]

The May 26, 1994 opinion, A10-93, addressed questions relating to negotiations rather than to voting on the resultant agreement. This opinion concluded that a board member could not participate directly in negotiations if the member or a member of his immediate family belonged to the same statewide general union. Relying on this opinion, the Commission's June 23, 1994 advisory opinion, A10-93(b) and AO7-94, concluded that a board member could not vote on a negotiated contract if the board member or a member of his immediate family was a member of the same statewide general union "that has negotiated the contract with the school board." In that opinion, the Ethics Commission found that:

---

[2] N.J.S.A. 18A:12-31 provides the authority under which the Ethics Commission may issue advisory opinions. The statute provides in pertinent part that:

> A school official may request and obtain from the Commission an advisory opinion as to whether any proposed activity or conduct would in its opinion constitute violation a violation of the provisions of this act. Advisory opinions shall not be made public, except when the commission, by a vote of at least sia members, directs that the opinion be made public. Public advisory opinions shall not disclose the name of the school official.

[3] We note that these opinions resulted from requests by an attorney representing several district boards, rather than from a request by a school official. See DeSimone v. New Jersey School Ethics Commission, decided by the State Board of Education, December 7, 1994.

> it is likely that the public could perceive that the member's independence of judgment is impaired if he or she votes on such a contract, even though the board member or his family member is not subject to the specific contract before the board. It is reasonable for the public to perceive that voting for one's fellow union members to receive a contractual award or service, etc., could be publicly perceived to create a conflict for a school board member. Likewise, if a school official's spouse were a member of the union, the same conflict would arise since the board member has an indirect involvement with that union. Lastly, the board member's business organization has an involvement that could prejudice the board member's independence of judgment.

A10-93(b) and AO7-94 (June 23, 1994), at 2.

The Commission rejected the view that the distinction between the fact that a vote on an agreement takes place in public while negotiations are private makes a difference. In this respect the Commission reasoned that by voting to increase the pay rate for members of one bargaining unit, a board member could be influencing the rate of payment to all union members, thereby benefiting himself or his spouse. Id. Accordingly, the advisory opinion barred not only union members from voting on a collective bargaining agreement, but also barred non-members and their spouses from voting if either of them was represented by that union through their employment, i.e., an agency shop situation. Id.

We stress that our jurisdiction in this matter is over the Ethics Commission's final decision of November 26, 1996 and the Commissioner of Education's decision of January 28, 1997 regarding the appropriate sanction. Accordingly, we are concerned with the Commission's advisory opinions only to the extent that the Commission's final decision relies upon or incorporates them. DeSimone v. New Jersey School Ethics Commission, remanded to the School Ehics Commission by the State Board of Education, October 5, 1994, and decided by the State Board, December 7, 1994. Our decision in this matter therefore addresses only the question involved in the Commission's June 23, 1994 opinion, i.e., whether a board member is precluded from voting on a collective negotiations agreement if he or his spouse are either members of the same statewide union representing the bargaining unit whose contract is before that board member or are non-members represented by the union through employment within the scope of another bargaining unit in a different school district.

After careful review, we reject the view that status as a member of another local union within the same statewide union should, on a per se basis, preclude a board member from voting on a collective negotiations agreement in the district where he or she is a member of the district board of education. Quite simply, any connection between a vote by a member of a district board on a collective negotiations agreement applicable to an employee negotiations unit in that district and the salary structure of a whole class of employees on a statewide basis is far too attenuated to justify mechanically barring all board members with ties to a statewide union from voting. Similarly, it is not reasonable to assume that an individual who belongs to or is represented by a local affiliate of a statewide union would necessarily be influenced by that status when voting on a contract applicable to an employee unit represented by a different local affiliate of that statewide union.

The unreasonableness of such a blanket disqualification is even more dramatic if applied to a board member whose spouse is represented by a different local affiliate and who is employed in an entirely different job classification than the one to which the contract at issue would apply. The School Ethics Act does not demand such a result.

It was previously well settled that the only blanket prohibition to board service was that a professional employee could not serve on the board which employed him. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.4; Schulman v. O'Reilly-Lando, 226 N.J. Super. 626 (App. Div. 1988). Nothing in the legislative history of the School Ethics Act indicates that the Legislature intended to limit the service of board members purely on the basis of the status of such member and his immediate family with respect to a statewide employee association. Accordingly, there is nothing in the legislative history to provide a factual underpinning for the overly broad interpretation which the Ethics Commission has adopted. Nor are there any factual findings in the record of this matter to support such an interpretation.

In sum, we hold that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) does not automatically prohibit a board member from voting on a collective negotiations agreement solely on the basis of his status or that of his immediate family with respect to membership or representation by a different local affiliate of the same statewide association with whom the agreement is made. In that there is nothing in the record that suggests that the particular circumstances of Mr. Pannucci's involvement with such local affiliate has or appears to have compromised his objectivity or independence of judgment, we reverse the Ethics Commission's finding that he violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and the Commissioner's imposition of a sanction on the basis of that finding.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

Maud Dahme, Donald C. Addison, Jr., Jean D. Alexander, Dr. Ronald K. Butcher, Thomas P. McGough, and Robert A. Woodruff join in the opinion of the majority.

March 1, 2000

Date of mailing MAR 03 2000

Daniel J.P. Moroney dissenting:

Up to Page 9, Paragraph 4 starting "We turn now to the substance of Mr. Pannucci's appeal..." I have no problem with the Legal Committee's Report [henceforth LCR] on SB #16-97.

The substance of this case is an appeal from a determination by the Ethics Commissioner [henceforth EC] that a Brick Township School Board member, Mr. Pannucci, violated the School Ethics Act [henceforth SEA] by voting on the Collective Bargaining Negotiations Agreement [henceforth CBNA].

The LCR's reference to N.J.S.A. 18:12-2 is essentially irrelevant and prejudicial in that it has been superceded by the SEA. But even so in the cited Salerno v. Old Bridge decided under that old standard of "substantial and material" Commissioner Cooperman in his decision for the Board members "noted with approval the treatment herein describing safeguards to be observed by a member of the board of education who has close relatives in the employ of the board to avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest" which in that case was evidenced by abstaining from voting. The operative phrase therein is to "avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest."

June 23, 1994 EC issued opinions A10-93b and A07-94. Those opinions stated that under the SEA [N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24c] a school board member is prohibited from voting on a CBNA for a local bargaining unit of a statewide union when a school board member or his immediate family member belongs to the state-wide union – opinion to be applied prospectively including labor negotiations begun before that date and continued thereafter.

By letter of August 16, 1994, the Brick Township Board received advice from its attorney setting forth the EC's opinions in A10-93, A10-93b and A07-94 as follows: "Our reading of the aforesaid statute and opinions is that a board member, who is a member of the same statewide union as the union in which the Board is involved with in labor negotiations, cannot vote after the date of the advisory opinion of June 3, 1994 irrespective of whether the legal negotiations began before the June date and continued thereafter." The attorney goes on to express his disagreement with the EC's opinion but ultimately gives no specific direction and leaves it up to the board member and his union to decide whether the board member should vote. The EC decision stated that "because that quote was the only portion of the attorney's opinion that was unambiguous the EC concluded that the board member was aware of the EC decision that he would be in violation of the SEA if he voted on the CBNA.

Given the clear wording of the attorney's reading of the advisory opinion, and respondents testimony that indicated that the attorney would not advise him that he could vote, the most prudent course of action would have been to abstain from voting. Respondent chose not to do so.

Furthermore one must read all subsections of Section 24 in conjunction with the Legislator's findings and declarations. The declarations provide that board members and administrators must avoid conduct which is in violation of the public trust or "which creates a justifiable impression among the public that such trust is being violated." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22a.

The EC found that the respondent had an indirect financial involvement in the outcome of the collective bargaining between the local bargaining unit and the board.

The EC reasons that respondent's statewide general union looks to salary and benefits statewide to determine what salary to seek for its members. The comparison of salaries creates the justifiable impression among the public that the public trust has been violated when respondent votes on the CBNA when he is a member of the same statewide general union as the local bargaining unit.

In conducting a balancing test here it is noteworthy that the appellant seeks to participate on behalf of the [local] board and the public and vote on the CBNA with the local bargaining unit of the same statewide union in which he holds membership. On the other side of the balance is the EC and the [Ethics] Act which show a state interest in fostering and maintaining the "respect and confidence of the people" in the operations of government. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22a. Our lawmakers have found and declared that this requires school officials not only to avoid conduct in violation of the public trust but also that conduct "which creates a justifiable impression among the public that such trust is being violated." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22a.

The LCR avers, without foundation, that the EC decision is a blanket prohibition to board service. Clearly it does not in any way prevent teachers or any other members of a national school union from serving on a school board. It only sets a limit on their ability to vote on matters that the EC has deemed them to have a conflict. That decision has not prevented and will never prevent the continuing participation of national school union members from participating on school boards. The EC decision does not amount to a per se finding that being a teacher and school board member are incompatible. Appellant was found to have a limited conflict of interest under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24c.

The decision did not preclude appellant from participating on other board business and was not "overly broad."

The EC rightfully found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24c of the SEA. Because respondent received inadequate advice from counsel as to whether he should vote and the EC had only recently issued the advisory opinion setting forth that his voting on the contract would violate the Act, the EC recommended a lower penalty than it would for the violation. It recommended a penalty of censure because a censure does not force respondent to miss any board meetings, but yet it is a public disciplinary action so that other board members and the public are notified of the violation.

For the reasons contained herein, I would move that the finding of the EC that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24c and the Commissioner of Education's imposition of a sanction based on that finding be affirmed and the matter be returned to the Legal Committee for preparation of a formal decision.

Anne S. Dillman and Samuel J. Podietz join in the dissent.

March 1, 2000

Date of mailing MAR 03 2000

39-97

39-97 SEC

IN THE MATTER OF EDWARD GORE,	:
HAMILTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EDUCATION, MERCER COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

JANUARY 30, 1997

	)	Before the School
	)	Ethics Commission
	)
IN THE MATTER OF	)	Docket No. C10-96
	)
EDWARD GORE	)	Decision

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On May 3, 1996, Kathleen Lord, President of the Hamilton Township School Secretaries Association, and Constance K. Petro, President of the Hamilton Township Educational Support Staff (Complainants), filed this complaint against Edward Gore (Respondent), a member of the Hamilton Township Board of Education (Board), alleging that respondent used his position as a Board member to secure the home addresses of district employees and send them an intimidating campaign letter. Respondent filed an answer on May 28, 1996. The Commission considered the complaint at its July 23, 1996 meeting, at which time complainants and respondent appeared and addressed the Commission. Anthony M. Armenti, Director of Secondary Education of the Hamilton Township School District, also appeared at the request of the Commission to answer questions from the Commission.

At its September 24, 1996 meeting, the Commission issued a written Decision on Probable Cause, finding that there was probable cause to credit the allegations in the complaint that respondent's actions had violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The Commission also concluded that there were no material facts in dispute. Respondent was given until October 25, 1996 to submit his position in writing to the Commission. Respondent filed a legal memorandum with the Commission on October 23, 1996.

FACTS

In their complaint, complainants allege that respondent used his position as a Board member to secure the home addresses of district employees and that he used this information to send district employees who resided in Hamilton Township an intimidating letter advising them that their jobs could be in jeopardy if they did not vote for the candidates respondent was endorsing. Complainants allege that these actions violate the Act.

Respondent is a member of the Board and was a member in April, 1996. Respondent admitted that, subsequent to a Board meeting, he asked Mr. Armenti for the home addresses of district employees who had been hired since July, 1995. Respondent stated that, using the addresses he had received from Mr. Armenti, he mailed the letter in question, dated April 12, 1996, to those recent appointees who resided in Hamilton Township. The contents of the letter is undisputed. The letter begins by congratulating the employee on his or her recent appointment. The letter then advises the recipient that Board member Violet Harrison was ". . . the lone vote against your appointment" and that she is seeking re-election to the Board. The letter further states, "[t]o be frank, if Ms. Harrison and her two political allies are elected on April 16, 1996, the possibility exists that your re-appointment will be in jeopardy." The letter encourages the recipient to vote for Janice Williams, "who enthusiastically supported your appointment" and her "teammates" Ron Tola and Loren Moffatt. While not on Board letterhead, the letter is signed "Edward Gore, Hamilton School Board Vice President." An asterisk appears at the bottom of the letter, which states, "Paid for entirely by Ed Gore."

ANALYSIS

Respondent argues that his actions in securing the home addresses of district employees and sending the campaign letter do not violate the Act. First, respondent argues that the home addresses of district employees are public information pursuant to the Right-to-Know Law, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1, et seq. and, he thus was entitled to the information as a citizen. According to respondent, the fact that he is a Board member is irrelevant. Respondent also argues that he is entitled to the home addresses of district employees under the common law right-to-know doctrine. Secondly, respondent argues that he has a right under the United States Constitution to engage in political speech and the Commission cannot infringe upon his first amendment rights by imposing a sanction in this case. For the following reasons, the Commission finds respondent's defense to be without merit and finds that his actions do constitute a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) provides:

> No school official shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others.

Respondent was provided with the home addresses of district employees because he is a board member. He asked a district employee for the addresses after a Board meeting. Mr. Armenti, the employee of whom the request was made, advised the Commission that he gave respondent the information because respondent was a Board member, which made respondent Mr. Armenti's employer. No inquiry was made as to why respondent needed the information.

As respondent stated, and as the Commission's investigation revealed, this was not a unique request, as other Board members in the past had requested and received district employees' home addresses. What is different about this case, however, is that respondent used the addresses for non-Board business. Thus, respondent was not requesting the information for official Board business. Rather, he was using it for his own personal purposes. Respondent wanted the addresses so he could target recently appointed district employees who resided in Hamilton Township and send them a campaign letter. Contrary to respondent's assertions, the letter did not merely inform the recipient of what occurred at a Board meeting. The letter forthrightly suggested that if he or she did not vote for "Williams, Tola & Moffatt" his or her job could be in jeopardy. Such a letter in no way can be characterized as Board business.

Furthermore, the letter begins by congratulating the individual on the recent appointment as a district employee and is signed by respondent as Board Vice President. Even though it is not on Board letterhead, the initial congratulatory paragraph certainly sounds authoritative, especially when coupled with the use of respondent's official title under his name. This letter was not sent to all district employees or all voters in Hamilton Township. Respondent targeted a very discreet group of individuals, drafted the letter and used his title in a manner apparently calculated to alarm those individuals. Indeed, this tactic worked, as a number of recipients of the letter were concerned enough to contact complainants who ultimately filed the complaint. The fact that respondent included the "Paid for by Ed Gore" language does not cure the situation. Respondent by virtue of the fact that he is a Board member, received the home addresses of recently hired district employees, who could be viewed as vulnerable, and then targeted those who resided in the district and sent them what initially sounded like a letter addressing Board business for the purpose of advancing the political campaign of others. The actions violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

Respondent argues that the home addresses of all school district employees are public records because state and local entities are required to receive and maintain school employee addresses. Therefore, respondent argues that since the addresses are public records, he cannot be said to have used his position as Board member to get the addresses. The Commission disagrees.

N.J.S.A. 47:1A-2 provides:

> Except as otherwise provided in this act or by any other statute, resolution of either or both houses of the Legislature, executive order of the Governor, rule of court, any Federal law, regulation or order, or by any regulation promulgated under the authority of any statute or executive order of the Governor, all records which are required by law to be made, maintained or kept on file by any board, agency, department, commission or official of the State or of any political sub-division thereof or by any official acting for or on behalf thereof . . . shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed to be public records. Every citizen of this State, . . . shall have the right to inspect such records.

Pursuant to the above provision, information required to be maintained is not public information if an executive order of the Governor provides to the contrary. On November 15, 1974, Governor Brendan Byrne signed Executive Order No. 11 which provides in the relevant part:

> 2. Except as otherwise provided by law or when essential to the performance of official duties or when authorized by a person in interest, an instrumentality of government shall not disclose to anyone other than a person duly authorized by this State or the United States to inspect such information in connection with his official duties, personnel or pension records of an individual, except that the following shall be public:

> a. An individual's name, title, position, salary, payroll record, length of service in the instrumentality of government and in the government, date of separation from government service and the reason therefore; and the amount and type of pension he is receiving;
>
> b. Data contained in information which disclose conformity with specific experiential, educational or medical qualifications required for government employment or for receipt of a public position, but in no event shall detailed medical or psychological information be released.

Executive Order No. 11 still is in effect. Pursuant to this Executive Order, home addresses of public employees are not public information. While respondent may have been allowed to receive the home addresses of district employees for official Board business, he was not permitted to use his position as a Board member to secure and use the addresses for private purposes.

Respondent also argues that he has a right to the information under the common law right to know doctrine. The Commission again disagrees. As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in South Jersey Pub. v. N.J. Expressway, 124 N.J. 478, 487 (1991):

> Under the common law, the threshold condition for access to public records is that a citizen establish an interest in the subject matter of the material he or she is seeking. Irval Realty, Inc. v. Board of Pub. Util. Comm'rs, 61 N.J. 366, 372, 294 A.2d 425 (1972). The interest does not have to be purely personal, but rather '[a]s one citizen or taxpayer out of many, concerned with a public problem or issue, he might demand and be accorded access to public records bearing upon the problem, even though his individual interest may [be] slight.' Ibid. For example, a newspaper's interest in ' keep[ing] a watchful eye on the workings of public agencies' is sufficient to accord standing under the common > law, Red Bank Register v. Board of Educ., 206 N.J.Super. 1, 9, 501 A2d, 985 (App. Div. 1985) (quoting Nixon v. Warner Communications, Inc. 435 U.S. 589, 598 98 S.Ct. 1306, 1312, 55 L.Ed. 2d 570, 579-80 (1978).

Additionally, assuming arguendo that respondent has standing and employee addresses are public records under the common law doctrine, the right to inspection is not absolute. A balancing test is used wherein the public right to know is weighed against the individual's right to privacy. Loigman v. Kimmelman, 102 N.J. 98, 112 (1986).

In this case, respondent sought the home addresses of recently appointed district employees so that he could target those employees who resided in the district and send them a campaign letter advising them that their jobs would be in jeopardy if they did not vote a certain way. This is not the type of interest that would confer standing on respondent to receive otherwise confidential information. Moreover, it is not the type of interest where respondent's right to know would outweigh the employee's right to privacy.

Respondent also argues that the Commission cannot legally impose a sanction on him because to do so would interfere with respondent's constitutional right to engage in political speech. Respondent relies on Pickering v. Board of Education, 391 U.S. 563 (1968) and Perez v. Cucci et al., 725 F. Supp. 209 (D.C.N.J. 1989), aff'd 898 F.2d, 139 (3rd Cir. 1990) in support of his arguments. While these cases certainly support the general constitutional right of a public official to express his opinion on political issues, they do not support respondent's actions here. In Pickering, a teacher was dismissed for sending a letter critical of the Board of Education's policy to a newspaper. In Perez, a police officer was demoted for supporting the candidacy of a defeated mayoral candidate. In those cases, the courts concluded that it was unconstitutional to use the individual's political positions as the basis for demoting or dismissing them. In this case, respondent received information not available to the general public, targeted vulnerable district employees and sent a campaign letter to them. Finding that respondent violated the Act under these circumstances, does not infringe upon respondent's right to free speech. Respondent certainly is free to express his opinions on political matters, he simply cannot do what he did in this instance.

CONCLUSION

For the above reasons, the Commission find that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), when, as a Board member, he secured the home addresses of district employees and used that information to single out recently appointed district employees and send a letter under the signature of Board Vice President, that advised them that their jobs could be jeopardized if they did not vote a certain way. Certainly, those individuals were the most vulnerable as they did not have the job security that tenure imparts. The letter played on this vulnerability by starting out in such a way as to lead the recipient to believe that it involved Board business by congratulating them on their appointment and by ending with the signature "Edward Gore, Hamilton School Board Vice President." These actions violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

The Commission recommends that respondent be censured for his violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The Commission views this as a serious violation of the Act. Respondent used his position as a Board member to receive information he would not otherwise be entitled to receive and used that information for his own personal, political purposes. Moreover, respondent targeted a group of individuals who were not secure in their jobs and sent what sounded like an authoritative letter advising them how to vote. While the letter was not in Board letterhead, it began in a manner that made it sound like it initially was addressing Board business and was sent under signature of respondent's official title. The Act is intended to instill public confidence in the conduct of members of local boards of education. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a). Respondent's use of his official position in the manner he used it here serves to seriously undermine public confidence and the Commission believes censure is warranted. Respondent argues that he should not be penalized because the statements in the letter are true. The Commission is not persuaded that this should serve to ameliorate the penalty. Regardless of whether the statements were true, it is respondent's use of his position to get information and send this letter that concerns the Commission.

Upon adoption of this decision by a formal resolution of the School Ethics Commission, the matter shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Education for action on the Commission's recommendation for sanction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29. Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which the Commission's decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written comments on the recommended sanction with the Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, CN 500, Trenton, NJ 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the School Ethics Commission and all other parties.

Paul C. Garbarini

Paul C. Garbarini
Chairperson

DATED: 11/26/96

State of New Jersey

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
CN 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

CHRISTINE TODD WHITMAN
Governor

LEO KLAGHOLZ
Commissioner

Resolution Adopting Decision -- C10-96

Whereas, the School Ethics Commission has considered the pleadings filed by the parties and the testimony given and documents submitted in support thereof; and

Whereas, on September 24, 1996, the Commission found that probable cause exists to credit the allegations in the complaint; and

Whereas, the Commission determined that no material facts were in dispute and offered the parties the opportunity to submit written statements on the Commission's findings and the applicable law; and

Whereas, after careful analysis of the legal arguments submitted, the Commission concludes that Mr. Gore's conduct violated the School Ethics Act; and

Whereas, the Commission orally adopted the proposed decision of its staff setting forth the reasons for its findings at its meeting of November 24, 1996, but did not adopt a resolution;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Commission finds that Edward Gore violated the School Ethics Act and recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure and adopts the attached decision as its decision in this matter;

Paul C. Garbarini, Chairman

I hereby certify that this Resolution memorializes the Commission's oral adoption of the within decision at its November 24, 1996, meeting.

Lisa James-Beavers
Executive Director

IN THE MATTER OF EDWARD GORE,	:
HAMILTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EDUCATION, MERCER COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission ("Commission") have been reviewed. Comments were timely filed by complainants and by respondent.

In her comments, Complainant Constance K. Petro urges that the Commissioner either accept the penalty of the Commission or impose a stronger penalty in that Mr. Gore's use of personal addresses of school employees was totally unethical. (Complainant Petro's Comments at p. 1) Complainant Kathleen Lord also seeks that Mr. Gore receive the recommended penalty or a more severe penalty contending he misused and abused his position as Board vice president for political gain. (Complainant Lord's Comments at p. 1)

Respondent Gore avers that the Commission erroneously concluded that he "targeted" recipients for his letter and that he drafted the letter and used his position in a manner calculated to cause its recipients alarm. (Respondent Gore's Comments at pp. 1-2) Mr. Gore further asserts the Commission erred in not finding that the addresses of school employees were common law records which were subject to disclosure. He avers that complainants had no right nor expectation of privacy as to their addresses since that information was publicly available in telephone books in county voting lists. Further, because complainants are public employees,

Mr. Gore argues that they surrendered their rights of confidentiality under the Right to Know Act. Additionally, he contends he should not be denied his rights to access to public records simply because he is a member of the Board of Education. In sum, Mr. Gore emphasizes that the Commissioner must not permit the School Ethics Commission to trod upon his First Amendment rights of political speech and references a legal memorandum setting forth arguments to support this contention. (Comments at p. 4) In that these arguments were raised and fully considered by the Commission in reaching its determination, they are not set forth in detail herein.

Upon a thorough review of the record, the Commissioner determines to accept the Commission's recommendation that censure is the appropriate penalty in this matter, in view of the Commission's determination that a violation of the School Ethics Act occurred* which is sufficiently serious to warrant the imposition of censure as it is defined at N.J.A.C. 6:3-9.19(c)1.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Edward Gore be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* The determination of the Commission as to violation of the Act is not reviewable by the Commissioner herein, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). Therefore, this decision is limited to a review of the recommended penalty and its implementation.

39-97

SEC #C10-96
C # 39-97SEC
SB # 9-97

IN THE MATTER OF EDWARD GORE, :
HAMILTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF :
EDUCATION. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the School Ethics Commission, November 26, 1996

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 30, 1997

For the Complainants-Respondents, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Destribats, Campbell, DeSantis, Magee & O'Donnell (Dennis DeSantis, Esq., of Counsel)

This appeal arises from a complaint filed with the School Ethics Commission alleging that Edward Gore had used his position as a member of the Hamilton Township Board of Education to secure home addresses of district employees for the purpose of sending those employees an intimidating letter advising them that their jobs could be in jeopardy if they did not vote for the board candidates Mr. Gore had endorsed.

By decision of November 26, 1996, the School Ethics Commission found that Mr. Gore's actions violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).[1] It recommended that the Commissioner of Education sanction Mr. Gore for this violation by censuring him.

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) provides:

> No school official shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others.

6/4/97

By decision of January 30, 1997, the Commissioner determined that censure was the appropriate sanction for such violation.

Mr. Gore has appealed both the Ethics Commission's determination that he violated the School Ethics Act and the sanction imposed on him by the Commissioner of Education. He argues, as he did before the Ethics Commission and the Commissioner, that he did not use his position as a board member to secure the addresses because they were public records. He further contends that it was improper to penalize him for sending the letter at issue since he was exercising his right to free speech.

Based on our review of this matter, and for the reasons expressed by the Ethics Commission in its decision, we affirm the Ethics Commission's determination that Mr. Gore violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). We fully concur with the Ethics Commission that although it may have been appropriate for him to obtain employees' addresses for purposes related to board business, in this instance Mr. Gore obtained the information solely for his own political purposes. We find that the inappropriateness of his conduct is amply demonstrated by the fact that the letter was constructed so as to convey the initial impression that it related to official board business and was designed for and sent out to a selected group of district employees over Mr. Gore's signature as vice-president of the Hamilton Township Board of Education.

We also affirm the Commissioner's determination that the appropriate sanction in this case is a censure as delineated by N.J.A.C. 6:3-9.19(c)(1). In this, we join with the Ethics Commission in rejecting Mr. Gore's claim that a sanction cannot be imposed on him because he was exercising his right to free speech. Quite simply, he is not being sanctioned for the exercise of such rights. Rather, the sanction is for using his position as a member of a district board of education to obtain the home addresses of vulnerable employees in order to send them a targeted letter to solicit votes for the candidates he supported.

Review of Mr. Gore's submissions in this appeal indicates to us that he has not yet acknowledged the impropriety of his conduct or comprehended its seriousness. It is critical that members of district boards of education recognize the importance of maintaining public confidence in them. Central to this is the ability and desire to conform their conduct to the standards set forth in the School Ethics Act. There is no question that Mr. Gore failed to do so in this instance and that the imposition of a sanction is necessary in order to impress upon him the seriousness of this failure. Therefore, we fully concur with the Ethics Commission's recommendation and the Commissioner's determination directing that Mr. Gore be censured.

June 4, 1997

Date of mailing JUN 06 1997

(SB) 39-97

DHPL #136-97
SB # 39-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF J.C. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 21, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, J.C., pro se

J.C. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a teacher's aide for the Sawtelle Learning Center, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been convicted of possession of a controlled dangerous substance–cocaine–following an arrest in May 1992. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated March 21, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

7/2/97

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education, along with a motion to supplement the record pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9 with two letters confirming his completion of drug rehabilitation programs.

We grant petitioner's motion to supplement the record on appeal and, after a careful review of the record, including the additional documents submitted by petitioner, reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner. We find that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

> e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:
>
> 1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
> 2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
> 3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
> 4. The date of the offense;
> 5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
> 6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
> 7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
> 8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

A former supervisor of petitioner praises him as "an excellent worker, prompt and reliable, and well liked by my customers." The supplemental materials provided by petitioner indicate that he attended and successfully completed an outpatient alcohol and drug treatment program at Mountainside Hospital between June and November 1993. He also subsequently completed a residential rehabilitation program at the Adult Rehabilitation Center of the Salvation Army in the summer of 1994. That 90-day program included "individual counseling, group therapy, substance abuse education, twelve step programs, chapel services and work therapy." The record also includes letters of recommendation from long-time acquaintances of petitioner, including a police officer, two attorneys and his high school English teacher.

Petitioner explains that at the time of his arrest, he had just dropped out of college and was "struggling to find direction and purpose in my life." He subsequently re-enrolled in college, married and had a child. In July 1996, petitioner took the National Teacher's Exam, scoring 182 out of a possible 200. The record also indicates that petitioner was 21-years-old at the time of his arrest in 1992, and that he subsequently graduated from Ramapo College of New Jersey in 1995 with a bachelor of arts degree in Literature. There have been no further arrests.

Under the circumstances, we find that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Given the uncontradicted evidence in the record, including the recommendation of petitioner's supervisor and his successful completion of drug and alcohol rehabilitation programs, we conclude that he has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). We stress, in addition, that petitioner was disqualified from employment as a teacher's aide, a position in which he would be under the direct supervision of a classroom teacher.

Accordingly, we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey as a teacher's aide.

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 08 1997

40-97

40-97 SEC

IN THE MATTER OF MATILDA TOUW, :

WEST MILFORD BOARD OF EDUCATION, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

PASSAIC COUNTY. : DECISION

:

January 29, 1997

IN THE MATTER	:	BEFORE THE
	:	SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
OF	:
	:	Docket No.: C16-96
MATILDA TOUW,	:
West Milford Board of Education	:	DECISION
Passaic County	:
	:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a complaint filed on May 28, 1996, by Mark Connolly, a member of the West Milford Board of Education. The complaint alleges, in pertinent part, that Matilda Touw, also a member of the West Milford Board of Education, moved the resolution and voted to reappoint her son as an Assistant Head Custodian in violation of the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. Mrs. Touw filed her answer with the School Ethics Commission on July 8, 1996, admitting to making a motion to approve many agenda items, including the reappointment of her son, and voting in favor of all of the items. She denies that any of her actions violated the School Ethics Act.

The Commission notified the parties that the Commission would hold a probable cause hearing on October 22, 1996. Mrs. Touw appeared before the Commission and testified at that time that she was not aware that she could not vote for her son since he was emancipated and thus, not an immediate family member. She also testified that, on the evening of the meeting in question, she received advice from board counsel not to vote and was prepared to abstain. However, no board member moved to have item ten, the reappointment of her son, removed from the consent agenda for a separate vote. She did not realize that item ten was the resolution to approve her son's reappointment.

In its public meeting on October 22, 1996, the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegations in the complaint that Mrs. Touw violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act by voting for her son's reappointment. The Commission determined that there were no facts in dispute that required a hearing at the Office of Administrative Law. Therefore, by letter of October 24, 1996, the Commission advised Mrs. Touw of the decision and gave her until November 15, 1996, to provide a written statement. Therein, she was to set forth whether she agrees with the facts in the letter and why those facts do not constitute a violation of the School Ethics Act. She was also invited to provide comments as to the appropriate penalty if the Commission found her to have violated the Act.

Mrs. Touw submitted her written statement on November 14, 1996. The Commission considered her statement in rendering this decision on November 26, 1996.

FACTS

The Commission finds the following facts to be undisputed:

1. Matilda Touw has served as a board member in the West Milford School District since April 1992.

2. She has served as Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee for the past two and one-half years.

3. Mrs. Touw's son, who does not reside with her, has served as a custodian in the district for seven years, being hired on a year to year basis.

4. At the April 30, 1996, meeting of the West Milford school board, Mr. Connolly had a copy of the April 25, 1996, issue of School Board Notes, a publication of the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA). He provided it to Mr. Rothschild, the former attorney for the board.

5. Mr. Rothschild brought the publication to the attention of Mrs. Touw by calling her to the back of the room. There he advised her that she should not vote for her son's reappointment as a custodian.

6. On the front page of the issue of School Board Notes was an article summarizing a Commission decision. It stated that the Commissioner had adopted a the Commission's recommendation to suspend a board member for one month for casting a vote to reappoint his business partner as transportation director and casting a vote to reappoint teachers, including his emancipated daughter.

7. Mrs. Touw then requested an executive session to discuss the matter. After considerable discussion and in order to facilitate getting on with the meeting, she agreed to abstain on the vote, but said that she wanted to check the board attorney's advice with the NJSBA..

8. Mr. Rothschild was later dismissed as board attorney.

9. Mrs. Touw has voted for her son's re-employment in the past without adverse consequences. This fact was discussed during the executive session.

10. When the board returned to the regular meeting at approximately 11:30 p.m., Mrs. Touw, as Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee, moved to approve the items on the agenda that were brought by her committee: 1-10, 13-16, 18-20, 22-23, and 25-31. Item 10 was the resolution to approve the list of custodians, including her son.

11. The motion to approve the items passed by an 8-0 vote. Neither the board attorney nor any board member requested that the board vote on Item 10 separately or that Mrs. Touw abstain.

12. On May 28, 1996, Mr. Connolly filed this complaint with the School Ethics Commission.

Mrs. Touw would like for the Commission to consider additional facts that she presented to the Commission regarding Mr. Connolly's motive for filing the complaint. The Commission finds that the other facts presented are not material to the present case since they would only impact upon credibility determinations. Where, as here, there are no facts in dispute, facts that go to the credibility of a party are not relevant. The issue before the Commission is whether Mrs. Touw's conduct at the April 30, 1996, meeting violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act. Mr. Connolly's reasons for filing are not relevant to this inquiry.

ANALYSIS

In her written statement, Mrs. Touw submits that she should not be found to have violated the Act because she understood that she could vote on his reappointment. She emphasizes that her son has not lived with her for over 17 years and thus, he does not fall within the definition of immediate family member. She adds that she does not benefit in any way from his salary. She states that no one has ever questioned her conduct since she began serving on the board in 1992. While the Commission understands that she may have had some confusion about the law, it also understands that based on the board attorney's advice, she was aware that she should not vote. Thus, she should have moved to have item ten considered separately and then moved the rest of her agenda. The attorney's failure to call it to her attention in the public meeting does not absolve her of her duty to take precautions to avoid all conflicts of interest.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act provides:

> No school official shall act in his official capacity in any matter where he, a member of his immediate family, or a business organization in which he has an interest, has a direct or indirect financial or personal involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment.

The Commission agrees that Mrs. Touw's son is not an "immediate family member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act. However, as set forth in the Commission's prior decision referred to in School Board Notes, In the Matter of Salvatore Buono, C16-94, a school official is prohibited not only from voting on matters in which her immediate family member has a financial or personal involvement. The statute is clear that a school official cannot act in her official capacity in any matter in which she has a direct or indirect financial or personal involvement. The Commission concludes that Mrs. Touw had a personal involvement with her son's employment such that she should have abstained from voting when the matter came before the board. Again, she had the ultimate responsibility to have the item considered separately from the other agenda items. The executive session prior to the vote, although it did not immediately precede the vote, should have heightened her sensitivity to the fact that the matter was coming up for a vote. Her failure to exclude the item from her motion and abstain from voting on it violated section 24(c) of the Act.

CONCLUSION

For all the foregoing reasons, the Commission concludes that Mrs. Touw violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act and recommends that the Commissioner impose the lowest penalty of reprimand. In making the recommendation, the Commission has considered the fact that the son was employed as a custodian before Mrs. Touw became a board member, the fact that her vote was not a critical vote in his reappointment since the resolution passed unanimously, and the fact the item was considered with 25 other items at the same time. In addition, the Commission notes that Mr. Connolly brought the conflict to the board's attention early in the meeting, yet remained silent when he could have brought it to Mrs. Touw's attention, and chose to file a complaint after the fact. For the reasons set forth above, these facts do not absolve Mrs. Touw, but they do mitigate the penalty.

The board may wish to reconsider its procedure of voting on a large number of items by consent. It is confusing to the public and can easily result in board members voting on matters on which they should abstain, as happened here. Although it may slow the meeting, the board members and the public will have a greater understanding after the meeting about the action taken by the board if items are considered separately. The Commission makes this suggestion in order to aid the board in avoiding similar problems in the future.

Upon adoption of this decision by a formal resolution of the School Ethics Commission, the matter shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Education for action on the Commission's recommendation for sanction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29. Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which the Commission's decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written comments on the recommended sanction with the Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, CN 500, Trenton, NJ 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the School Ethics Commission and all other parties.

Paul C. Garbarini
Chairperson

Resolution Adopting Decision -- C16-96

Whereas, the School Ethics Commission has considered the pleadings filed by the parties and the documents submitted in support thereof and has considered the testimony of the respondent; and

Whereas, the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegations in the complaint and invited respondent's written statement in response; and

Whereas, the Commission has reviewed respondent's written statement and now concludes that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act; and

Whereas, the Commission has reviewed the proposed decision of its staff setting forth the reasons for its conclusion; and

Whereas, the Commission agrees with the proposed decision;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Commission hereby finds that Matilda Touw has violated the School Ethics Act and recommends that the Commissioner impose a penalty of reprimand and adopts the proposed decision referenced as its decision in this matter.

Paul C. Garbarini, Chairman

I hereby certify that the Resolution was duly adopted by the School
Ethics Commission at its public meeting
on November 26, 1996.

Lisa James-Beavers
Executive Director

[c1696dec/c:lisa/decisions]

AGENCY DKT. NO. 567-11/96

IN THE MATTER OF MATILDA TOUW,	:
WEST MILFORD BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
PASSAIC COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission have been reviewed.

Timely comments were filed by complainant. No comments were filed by Mrs. Touw.

Complainant submits that the determination of the Commission was a reasonable one and asks that the Commissioner take into consideration, when determining the appropriate penalty, an article in the local newspaper, wherein Mrs. Touw was quoted as stating that she considered the Commission's decision "a complete joke." Complainant further submitted a copy of said newspaper article.

Upon a thorough review of the record, the Commissioner determines to accept the Commission's recommendation that reprimand is the appropriate penalty in this matter, in view of the Commission's determination that a violation of the School Ethics Act occurred as set forth in its decision.*

* The determination of the Commission as to violation of the Act is not reviewable by the Commissioner herein, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). Therefore, this decision is limited to a review of the recommended penalty and its implementation.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Matilda Touw be reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

January 29, 1997
Date of Mailing, January 29, 1997

42-97

42-97

JANINE BARNA,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning teacher alleged the Board violated N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1 for failure to initiate expulsion proceedings against student, R.S., who assaulted her.

ALJ found that N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, as amended, effective June 1995, prior to the alleged assault, no longer requires that the offending student be expelled. Therefore, the ALJ concluded that the Board complied with the statute - it conducted disciplinary proceedings and imposed the sanction of a five-day suspension on R.S. To subject him to an additional sanction would violate his rights of due process. Thus, petitioner was not entitled to any relief involving any action by the Board with respect to R.S. Summary judgment was granted to the Board; petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

JANUARY 30, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1754-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 448-11/95

JANINE BARNA,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

James M. Weinberg, Esq., for petitioner (Weinberg & Weinberg, attorneys)

Joseph R. Morano, Esq., for respondent (Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 29, 1996 Decided: December 12, 1996

BEFORE EDITH KLINGER, ALJ:

On November 20, 1995, petitioner Janine Barna filed a Verified Petition with the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, Department of Education, seeking sanctions against respondent Board of Education of Irvington (Board) for allegedly failing to enforce the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1. On February 7, 1996, respondent filed its answer and, on February 20, 1996, the Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On November 1, 1996, the Board filed a motion for summary decision on the grounds that N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1 does not apply to the facts in this matter, that the controversy is moot and that the Commissioner of Education does not have the jurisdiction to award the relief sought by petitioner. No responsive papers were received from petitioner.

THE RELEVANT STATUTES

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, as amended effective June 22, 1995, states:

> Any pupil who commits an assault, as defined pursuant to N.J.S. 2C:12-1, upon a teacher, administrator, board member or other employee of a board of education, acting in the performance of his duties and in a situation where his authority to so act is apparent, . . . not involving the use of a weapon or firearm, shall be immediately suspended from school consistent with procedural due process pending suspension or expulsion proceedings before the local board of education. Said proceedings shall take place no later than 30 calendar days following the day on which the pupil is suspended. The decision of the board shall be made within five days after the close of the hearing. Any appeal of the board's decision shall be made to the Commissioner of Education within 90 days of the board's decision.

N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1 provides, in relevant part:

> a. Simple assault. A person is guilty of assault if he:
>
> (1) Attempts to cause or purposely, knowingly or recklessly causes bodily injury to another; or
>
> (2) Negligently causes bodily injury to another with a deadly weapon; or
>
> (3) Attempts by physical menace to put another in fear of imminent serious bodily injury.
>
> . . . .

> b. Aggravated assault. A person is guilty of aggravated assault if he:
>
> (5) Commits a simple assault as defined in subsection a. (1), (2), or (3) of this section upon: . . .
>
> (d) Any school board member or school administrator, teacher or other employee of a school board while clearly identifiable as being engaged in the performance of his duties or because of his status as a member or employee of a school board.

THE UNDISPUTED FACTS

In her petition, Barna alleges that on September 29, 1995, she was assaulted by an eighth-grade student, R.S., age thirteen. The police were called and charges were filed against the boy. The administration suspended R.S. for a period of five days. No attempt was made to expel him from school.

Barna seeks to have the Commissioner of Education investigate the incident and sanction the Board for failure to apply the procedures which she believes to be mandated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1.

In support of its motion for summary decision, the Board provided the affidavit of Aldo DiTrolio, Esq., the attorney who represented R.S. through the juvenile proceedings in the Superior Court. DiTrolio stated that, on February 7, 1996, R.S. was released on an adjourned disposition pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:4A-43. He was never found guilty of the assault charges.

THE POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, as amended, effective June 1995, prior to the alleged assault, no longer requires that the offending student be expelled. After affording a due process hearing, the Board may, if appropriate, impose a suspension instead.

The Board argues that the statute does not apply because R.S. was not found guilty of an assault pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1. Further, even if it does apply, R.S. was suspended for five days and the statutory requirement was satisfied.

The Board correctly points out that the controversy is moot insofar as the Board has already conducted disciplinary proceedings and imposed its sanction upon R.S. for his part in the incident. To subject him to an additional sanction would violate the student's rights to procedural due process. See N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, which states that no expulsion proceedings shall be brought more than thirty days following the day on which the pupil was suspended.

I CONCLUDE that the respondent has complied with the provisions of the above statutes and is required to take no further action with respect to R.S. I further CONCLUDE that it cannot take any further action with respect to R.S. without violating his rights to procedural due process. I, therefore, CONCLUDE that Barna is entitled to no relief involving any action by the Board with respect to R.S.

Petitioner alleges that the Commissioner should investigate the Board for its procedures which "repeatedly defy state statutes." Her allegation is based upon the fact that the present appeal is the second brought by her pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1. The Initial Decision of Administrative Law Judge Ken R. Springer in the first appeal, entitled Barna v. Irvington Board of Education, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 2073-95 (Jan. 29, 1996), was adopted by the Commissioner of Education on March 18, 1996. In that appeal, Barna challenged the determination of the Board not to conduct an expulsion proceeding against a classified student, A.M., who allegedly assaulted Barna. In his decision, Judge Springer found that the Board acted properly since it was legally prohibited from expelling A.M. by the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:28-2.8. Consequently, Barna has not demonstrated a repeated instance where the Board has acted contrary to law.

The Board asserts that the Commissioner has no authority to investigate it for one alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, and no such authority has been found in the statutes or regulations. The Commissioner cannot impose fines or monetary penalties (Coulter v. Board of Education of Caldwell-West Caldwell, 79 S.L.D. 295), compensatory or punitive damages (McLean v. Board of Education of Glenridge, 1977 S.L.D. 311; North Bergen Federation of Teachers v. Board of Education of North Bergen, 1975 S.L.D. 461), counsel fees (Balsley v. North Hunterdon Board of Education, 117 N.J. 434, 442-43 [1990]), or legal costs (Lilenfield v. Board of Education of Watchung, 1977 S.L.D. 315).

Based upon the applicable statutes and case law, I CONCLUDE that respondent is correct: there is no relief which can be granted to petitioner in this forum. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that respondent is entitled to summary decision in this matter.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that respondent's motion for summary decision is hereby GRANTED, and the petition of Janine Barna is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 2, 1996
DATE

EDITH KLINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/12/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 17 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harnes
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

md

OAL DKT. NO. 1754-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 448-11/95

JANINE BARNA,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner determines to affirm the determination of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), for the reasons expressed therein, that petitioner is not entitled to the relief she seeks. It is axiomatic that when a local board of education acts within its authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness and may not be disturbed absent a finding that it was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Thomas v. Board of Education of Morris Township, 89 N.J. Super. 327 (App. Div. 1965) at 332. Here the Board may, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, suspend or expel a student for an alleged assault following a due process hearing, and no showing was made that the Board's decision to suspend, rather than expel, was not properly or rationally taken. Therefore, the granting of summary judgment was appropriate in the instant case.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, and as further explicated above, the Commissioner affirms the initial decision of the OAL and orders that the within Petition of Appeal be dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 30, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 30, 1997

42-97

EDU #1754-96
C # 42-97
SB # 18-97

JANINE BARNA,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 30, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Weinberg & Weinberg (James M. Weinberg, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler (James R. Morano, Esq., of Counsel)

Janine Barna (hereinafter "petitioner"), a teaching staff member, alleged that the Board of Education of the Town of Irvington (hereinafter "Board") had violated N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1 when it failed to initiate expulsion proceedings against R.S., a student who had assaulted her. On December 12, 1996, an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") recommended granting summary judgment to the Board and dismissing the petition. The ALJ concluded that N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2.1, as amended in June 1995, does not require that an offending student be expelled. Therefore, the ALJ found that the Board had complied with the statute when it conducted disciplinary proceedings against R.S.

Nov. 5, 1997

and imposed a five-day suspension. On January 30, 1997, the Commissioner adopted the findings and conclusions of the ALJ and dismissed the petition.

On February 25, 1997, petitioner's attorney filed a notice of appeal with the State Board "solely to preserve the rights" of petitioner. The State Board granted petitioner's request to place the briefing schedule in abeyance so that she could seek new counsel.

On July 15, 1997, the director of the State Board Appeals Office notified petitioner's counsel that a substitution of attorney was required to be filed by July 31, 1997. Petitioner was sent a copy of that correspondence. When no response was received, petitioner's counsel was advised by letter dated August 22, 1997 that "in the absence of a substitution of attorney, you continue to be the attorney of record" and that his appeal brief was therefore due on September 22, 1997. Petitioner was also sent a copy of the August 22 letter.

Petitioner, however, failed to file her appeal brief by September 22, 1997, and has still failed to file a brief in support of her appeal, more than six weeks after the extended due date. Nor has the petitioner provided any explanation for her failure to file or requested an additional extension.

Consequently, we dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

November 5, 1997

Date of mailing NOV 07 1997

43-97

43-97

BARKER BUS COMPANY, INC.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY SPECIAL SERVICES COMMISSION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

JANUARY 30, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2390-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. #21-2/95

BARKER BUS COMPANY, INC.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY SPECIAL SERVICES COMMISSION,
Respondent.

James J. Ross, Esq., for petitioner (Wolff & Samson, attorneys)

Anthony B. Vignuolo, Esq., for respondent (Borrus, Goldin, Foley, Vignuolo, Hyman & Stahl, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 12, 1996 Decided: December 12, 1996

BEFORE BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on March 6, 1995, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a stipulation indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

12 DECEMBER 1996
DATE

Bruce R. Campbell
BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/16/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

DEC 18 1996
DATE

Mailed to Parties:
Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

slf

BORRUS, GOLDIN, FOLEY, VIGNUOLO, HYMAN & STAHL
A Professional Corporation
2875 U.S. Highway #1
P.O. Box 7463
North Brunswick, New Jersey 08902
(908) 422-1000
Attorneys for Respondent

	OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
Petitioner BARKER BUS COMPANY, INC.
	DOCKET NO. EDU 2390-95
vs.
Defendant	Civil Action
MIDDLESEX COUNTY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COMMISSION	STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The matter in difference in the above entitled action having been amicably adjusted by and between the parties, it is hereby stipulated and agreed as follows:

1. That the parties acknowledge that the Commission is in possession of the sum of $59,893.34 representing disputed funds. From this sum, the Commission shall retain the sum of $36,000.00 and shall deliver to Barker Bus the sum of $23,893.34. The payment of such sums shall be in full satisfaction of all claims outstanding between the parties; and

2. That the parties acknowledge that the aforesaid sums have already been paid to Barker Bus and to the Commission; and

3. That the parties shall exchange releases for all claims arising out of the subject litigation and the prior transportation contracts which existed between the Commission and Barker Bus. The parties acknowledge that such releases have already been exchanged;

BORRUS, GOLDIN
FOLEY, VIGNUOLO,
HYMAN & STAHL
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
COUNSELLORS AT LAW
2875 US HIGHWAY #1
NORTH BRUNSWICK NJ 08902

and

4. That except as provided herein, the within matter is hereby dismissed with prejudice and without costs to either party.

WOLFF & SAMSON, ESQS.
Attorneys for Petitioner

JAMES J. ROSS, ESQ.

BORRUS, GOLDIN, FOLEY, VIGNUOLO, HYMAN & STAHL, P.C.
Attorneys for Respondent

ANTHONY B. VIGNUOLO, ESQ.

Dated: Dec 4, 1996

P:\users\\wp51\abv\mcesc\barker1.stp

BORRUS, GOLDIN
FOLEY, VIGNUOLO,
HYMAN & STAHL
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
COUNSELLORS AT LAW
2875 US HIGHWAY #1
NORTH BRUNSWICK, N.J. 08902

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2390-95

BARKER BUS COMPANY, INC.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY SPECIAL SERVICES COMMISSION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

The Commissioner notes, however, that the terms of the settlement appear to have been effectuated prior to the Commissioner's approval. He, therefore, reminds the parties that they acted at their peril in doing so and cautions them and other litigants whose controverted matters have been duly transmitted to OAL against effectuation of any settlement prior to its submission to, and approval by, the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 30, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 30, 1997

44-97

44-97 DHP

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EMPLOYMENT OF M.T.	:	DECISION
_____	:

JANUARY 30, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 10828-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. DHP #361

MICHAEL TAYLOR,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Sheldon H. Pincus, Esq., represented petitioner
(Bucceri & Pincus, attorneys)

No appearance for respondent

Record Closed: December 2, 1996 Decided: December 13, 1996

BEFORE JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Michael Taylor was hired as a special ed teacher by the Linden School District on November 9, 1992. He was disqualified from his employment after a notice from the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education revealed a North Carolina conviction in 1977 for resisting arrest/assault on an officer. Taylor, acting pro se at the time, appealed his disqualification. The Deputy Commissioner of Education, on February 7, 1995, interpreting Taylor's appeal as an attempt to prove rehabilitation, upheld the disqualification and failed to find clear and convincing evidence of Taylor's rehabilitation.

Taylor, now quite ably represented by Mr. Pincus, moved for a Stay of the Deputy Commissioner's determination which was granted.

An appeal to the State Board was filed in which Taylor argued that his conviction did not involve "the use of force which results in bodily injury" as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(2). Consequently, Taylor argues his offense was not disqualifying. Taylor's application to remand the matter to the Commissioner of Education for consideration of his legal argument was granted.

On or about November 28, 1995, the Commissioner of Education forwarded this matter to the Office of Administrative Law for determination.

On or about May 17, 1996, Taylor moved for a Summary Decision which was decided by me on June 13, 1996. The Motion for Summary Decision was denied. Taylor then requested an interlocutory review of the denial which, by letter of June 28, 1996, Commissioner Leo Klagholz decided not to grant such review pursuant to his discretion under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10.

After the adjournment of the September 17, 1996 hearing date, the matter was heard on December 2, 1996.

BACKGROUND

Mr. Taylor's criminal history check revealed an out-of-state conviction in 1977 for resisting arrest/assault on an officer. No supporting documentation was submitted with respect to this conviction and apparently none was available according to Mr. Carabelli, Manager of the Office of Criminal History Review. Taylor never contested the resisting portion of this conviction, but did contest the assault portion. Brought squarely into dispute was N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 that provides for the disqualification from employment of a teacher if a criminal history record check reveals a conviction for "a simple assault involving the use of force which results in bodily injury." It was and continues to be Taylor's contention that his conviction did not involve the use of force.

The difficulty arises from the Criminal History Report, which though it indicates a conviction of Mr. Taylor for resisting arrest/assault on an officer, it does not indicate that these were two separate charges. There was, in fact, only one penalty assessed for the conviction. Even if this conviction incorporated an assault on an officer there was still an absence of any indication that injury accompanied the assault. It was this 20-year old conviction which was the focal point of Mr. Taylor's testimony.

Mr. Taylor indicated that at the time of his arrest he was living in North Carolina with his mother and his niece. Sometime between 11:00 and 11:30 p.m. two uniformed police officers came to his door to arrest him on a bad check charge. After gaining entrance to the household, the officers apparently placed Mr. Taylor under arrest and started walking down the stairs outside of his mother's residence. It was at this time that Mr. Taylor, who was not yet handcuffed, took flight. He was recaptured after a short pursuit and was then handcuffed and processed.

Mr. Taylor subsequently did appear in court and, without the assistance of counsel, pled guilty to the charges. He denies using any force whatsoever against the officers and in fact denies resorting to any violence of any type during the course of his approximately 43 years.

N.J.A.C. 2C:12-1(b)5(a) which converts a simple assault on a police officer into an aggravated assault still requires a showing of bodily injury.

Though inherent in a conviction for assault on an officer there would either be the use of physical force or the threat of physical force, according to Taylor's testimony there was neither. The absence of a police report or any other documentation with respect to the incident leaves Taylor's version unrebutted and subject only to a question of credibility.

I found Michael Taylor to be bright and articulate and, except for some lapses that can easily be attributable to a 20-year passage of time, quite forthcoming. The witnesses that Mr. Taylor presented besides himself, though presented for the purposes of establishing rehabilitation, did assist in bolstering his credibility.

The first witness to testify was Reverend John S. Andao, pastor of a church in Elizabeth. He has known Mr. Taylor for approximately four or five years as a member of his parish and as director of the choir. He indicated that Mr. Taylor plays the organ and conducts musical groups with children ages 4 through 12. According to Rev Andao, Taylor was "very, very, good with children". He also found him to be "very honest, kind, and unselfish".

Brenda Boyd, the vice-principal of Linden High School who had been Mr. Taylor's supervisor as a special ed teacher in 1994, indicated that during the time that she supervised Taylor between October 1994 and January 1995 he was "starting to develop into a tremendous asset".

James B. Clark, Jr., the superintendent of the Linden school system, indicated that Taylor's performance was good, and his attendance was excellent. He also said, "He was making his way toward being an excellent teacher".

A reanalysis of the law involved herein is unnecessary for it is well set forth in both Mr. Pincus' brief and in the Deputy Commissioner and Commissioner's opinion.

Factually, I cannot conclude, under the rather unique circumstances of this particular case, that Mr. Taylor's conviction was a manifestation of any type of violence whatsoever. Ordinarily, a conviction for assaulting an officer would, for the most part, stand as extremely compelling evidence of grounds for disqualification. But, North Carolina's characterization of this offense and their inability to produce any documentation that would in any way contradict Mr. Taylor's version of the factual circumstances leads me to conclude that the offense committed by Mr. Taylor was not disqualifying pursuant to the statute.

Since I have concluded that the offense does not disqualify Mr. Taylor from employment, I do not reach the issue of whether he has been rehabilitated. I note, however, that between 1977 and the 1990s, he had three convictions for either bad checks or credit card fraud. Thus, if this offense had been a basis for disqualification, Mr. Taylor would have been unable to prove rehabilitation. The statutory framework creates this anomaly.

ORDER

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Dec 13 96
DATE

JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/16/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 17 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harnes
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

/g

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10828-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. DHP 361

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EMPLOYMENT OF M.T.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review, and based upon the credibility determinations of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) and the absence of any evidence to rebut appellant's account of the arrest underlying his 1977 conviction, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that the offense in question does not disqualify appellant from employment, pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL is adopted for the reasons expressed therein, and appellant is deemed eligible for school employment in that he has no disqualifying offenses on his criminal record.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 30, 1997
DATE OF MAILING JANUARY 30, 1997

(SB) 45-97

DHPBL #210-97
SB # 45-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT :
OF D.C. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, April 25, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, D.C., pro se

The decision of the Deputy Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 09 1997

54-97

54-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, AND THE NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

RESPONDENTS.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Somerville Board challenged the Department's determination that it was responsible for the tuition of N.M. for 1994-95 because at the time of the request to determine district of residence, her mother, M.V., was incarcerated in the Somerset County Jail. At all relevant times, M.V. was neither domiciled in, nor a resident of, the Borough of Somerville.

ALJ found that N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4(a)4, relied upon by the Department, does not provide a basis for making petitioner the responsible district based upon M.V.'s temporary incarceration in the Somerset County Jail as a county jail is not a State correctional facility and those committed to the county jail are persons who are sentenced to imprisonment for a term of less than one year. Thus, to assess petitioner for tuition costs for the children of all persons passing through the Somerset County Jail, no matter how brief their stay, would not be in keeping with the legislative scheme that the child's home district should be responsible. ALJ concluded a county jail was not an appropriate place for determining a parent or guardian's district of residence. ALJ granted summary decision on behalf of petitioner, relieving it of tuition responsibility. Any monies paid to respondent Board for N.M.'s 1994-95 tuition should be returned.

Commissioner reversed the determination of the ALJ. Although the Commissioner concurred that tuition is based on the domicile of a parent or guardian pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, when that person is chronically transient, i.e. not homeless but having had a series of short-term residences with no identifiable domicile, the only reasonable interpretation of applicable statute and implementing regulations is to assign responsibility for tuition to the parent or guardian's district of present residence, notwithstanding that such residence might be temporary. Thus, the Department correctly determined herein that N.M.'s present district of residence for school funding purposes was Somerville based on M.V.'s residence in Somerset County Jail on the applicable date. Summary judgment was granted respondents; petition was dismissed.

February 5, 1997

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 677-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. #481-12/95

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, AND NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

Respondents.

Michael J. Rogers, Esq., for petitioner (McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo, attorneys)

George F. Hendricks, Esq., for respondent Board of Education of the City of New Brunswick (Hendricks & Hendricks, attorneys)

John K. Worthington, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent New Jersey State Department of Education (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: September 30, 1996 Decided: November 7, 1996

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

This matter commenced on December 26, 1995, when the Board of Education of the Borough of Somerville (hereinafter petitioner) filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education seeking an order determining that a county jail is not an appropriate facility for determining a child's district of residence pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 and N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4 and therefore relieving the Somerville Board of Education of responsibility for tuition for the child N.M. for the 1994-95 school year. An answer on behalf of respondent Board of Education of the City of New Brunswick (hereinafter Respondent Board) was filed on January 25, 1996. An answer on behalf of respondent New Jersey Department of Education (hereinafter Respondent Department) was filed on February 9, 1996. On February 20, 1996, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F- 1 to -13.

A prehearing conference was conducted on May 2, 1996 by telephone conference call. At that time the parties advised that it was their belief the matter could be decided on cross-motions for summary decision. Thereafter a joint stipulation of facts was filed on June 5, 1996. A letter memorandum on behalf of Respondent Department was received on June 14, 1996. Petitioner's initial letter memorandum was received on June 17, 1996, and a letter on behalf of Respondent Board was received on June 21, 1996. Respondent Department replied by letter memorandum, dated June 27, 1996. Thereafter oral argument was conducted by telephone conference call on August 13, 1996. In response to a request from the undersigned for additional information, Respondent Department sent a letter dated August 15, 1996. Respondent Board sent a letter dated September 13, 1996 and petitioner sent letters dated September 9, 1996 and September 27, 1996. Respondent Department sent a letter dated September 24, 1996, which was received on September 30, 1996, whereupon the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The parties have entered into the following stipulations of fact:

1. N.M. was a second grade pupil in the Vanderveer Elementary School in the Somerville Public School District in the 1990-91 school year.

2. M.V. is the mother of N.M.

3. On or about March 28, 1991, N.M. was removed from her home by the New Jersey Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) and placed with foster parents outside of the Somerville Public School District.

4. Since March 28, 1991, N.M. never re-entered the Somerville Public Schools, nor was she eligible to do so because neither she, her foster parents, nor her mother were residents of the Borough of Somerville.

5. On or about May 11, 1995, N.M. was placed by DYFS in the Youth Consultant Services Facility in New Brunswick, New Jersey.

6. M.V. was incarcerated in the Somerset County Jail from approximately April 1995 until October 6, 1995 for a violation of the law.

7. At all relevant times herein, M.V. was neither domiciled in nor a resident of the Borough of Somerville.

8. The New Jersey Department of Human Services requested that the Department of Education determine the district of residence for N.M. By letter dated June 27, 1995, the Department of Education determined that the district of residence for N.M. was Somerville because, at the time the request came in, M.V. was incarcerated in the Somerset County Jail.

9. The Somerville Public School District was assessed tuition for N.M. for the 1994-95 school year and part of the 1995-96 school year because her mother was incarcerated at the Somerset County Jail as of the date of placement.

10. The issue in this case is whether a county jail is an appropriate facility to determine a child's district of residence under law and the facts presented, and whether the Somerville School District is entitled to reimbursement from the New Brunswick School District, or from the district where M.V. was last domiciled.

11. Neither M.V. nor her daughter are residents of the City of New Brunswick.

Unfortunately, no other facts appear of record. Facts which are not stipulated must be established by affidavit or certification of someone with personal knowledge. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.4. Although the undersigned repeatedly asked for additional facts and information, no affidavits or certifications were received. Petitioner did forward a copy of a letter on the stationery Respondent Department, dated July 8, 1996, addressed to David B. Rubin, Esquire, attorney for the Branchburg Board of Education, the authenticity of which Respondent Department has not contested. That letter provides:

> This is in reference to your correspondence dated May 9, 1996 with regards to the Branchburg Board of Education's dispute of the district of residence determination for M.M. [sic, should be N.M.], a child who was placed by DYFS with the Willowglen Academy, Newton, New Jersey in December 1995.
>
> The Department of Human Services has verified that parent M.V. has a history of being chronically transient and has been missing since March of this year. In view of this information and because the residence in Branchburg was not considered fixed or adequate, fiscal responsibility for M.M. [sic, should be N.M.] is removed from the Branchburg Board of Education for the 1996-96 school year.
>
> If you have further questions concerning this matter, please contact this office.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

The once classic statement of the standard for granting or denying summary judgment set forth in Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954), was recently modified in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, and KRA Insurance Agency, Inc., 142 N.J. 520 (1995). Therein the Court held that the standard to be applied is now the same as the standard for determining motions for involuntary dismissal under R. 4:37-2(b) and for determining motions for judgment under R. 4:40-1 and R. 4:40-2. Trial courts considering motions for summary judgment are now required to engage in the same type of evaluation, analysis or sifting of evidential materials in light of the burden of persuasion that applies if the matter goes to trial. The Court explained:

> Under this new standard, a determination whether there exits a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." . . . Credibility determinations will continue to be made by a jury and not a judge. If there exists a single, unavoidable resolution of the alleged disputed issue of fact, that issue should be considered insufficient to constitute a "genuine" issue of material fact for purposes of Rule 4:46-2. . . . The import of our holding is that when the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law, . . ., the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. (citations omitted) Id. at 540.

The Court noted that to send a case to trial knowing that a rational decision-maker could reach but one conclusion was indeed "worthless" and would "serve no useful purpose." The purpose of this new standard, the decision explained, was to encourage trial courts not to refrain from granting summary judgment when the proper circumstances present themselves.

In the present matter, the facts which have been stipulated by the parties are sufficient to address the issue framed in the petition of appeal; i.e., is a county jail an appropriate facility for determining "district of residence" under N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 and N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4. Accordingly, the matter is ripe for summary decision even though the facts as stipulated are insufficient to resolve the issue of ultimate financial responsibility.

18A:7B-12, the statute relevant to a determination in this matter provides in pertinent part:

> For school funding purposes, the Commissioner of Education shall determine district of residence as follows:
>
> a. The district of residence for children in foster homes shall be the district in which the foster parents reside. If a child in a foster home is subsequently placed in a State facility or by a State agency, the district of residence of the child shall then be determined as if no such foster placement had occurred.
>
> b. The district of residence for children who are in residential facilities, or who have been placed by State agencies in group homes, private schools or out-of-State facilities, shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency.
>
> If this cannot be determined, the district of residence shall be the district in which the child resided prior to such admission or placement.
>
> c. The district of residence for children whose parent or guardian temporarily moves from one school district to another as the result of being homeless shall be the district in which the parent or guardian last resided prior to becoming homeless. For the purpose of this amendatory and supplementary act, "homeless" shall mean an individual who temporarily lacks a fixed, regular and adequate residence.
>
> d. If the district of residence cannot be determined according to the criteria contained herein, or if the criteria contained herein identify a district of residence outside of the State, the State shall assume fiscal responsibility for the tuition of the child. . . .

In the present case, N.M. resided with foster parents outside of petitioner's school district commencing with March 1991 until May 11, 1995, when she was placed by DYFS in a group home in New Brunswick, New Jersey. Pursuant to subparagraph a. of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12, while she lived in a foster home, the responsible school district for school funding purposes was the district in which the foster parents resided. Once she was placed in the group home in New Brunswick, however, the responsible district was to be determined as if no such foster placement had occurred. Under subparagraph b. the district of residence for children who have been placed by State agencies in group homes is the "present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his/her . . . most recent placement by a State agency." Respondent Department cites N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3(a)2, N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3(b) and N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4 in support of its determination that petitioner is the responsible school district based upon the "residence" of M.V. in the Somerset County Jail from April 1995 until October 6, 1995. These regulations provide:

N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3

(a) The district of residence for school funding purposes shall be determined according to the following criteria:

. . .

2. The "present district of residence" of a child placed by a State agency in a group home, private school or out-of-State facility also referred to in paragraph one of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) shall mean the New Jersey district of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the date of the child's initial placement by the State agency. In subsequent school years spent in the educational placement made by a State agency, the child's "present district of residence" shall be determined in the same manner as for a child in a residential State facility as set forth in (a)1.

3. The "district of residence" referred to in paragraph two of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) shall mean the New Jersey district of residence in which the child resided with is or her legal guardian immediately prior to his or her initial admission to a State facility or placement by a State agency.

(b) The commissioner shall determine the "present district of residence" or "district of residence" referred to in N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) based upon the address submitted by the Department of Corrections or the Department of Human Services on forms prepared by the Department of Education.

. . .

N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4

(a) The address submitted to the Department of Education for determining the district of residence for school funding purposes for a child described below shall be the address defined below:

1. If the State has custody of the child or if a court or the State has appointed a third party as the custodian of the child, the present address of the parent(s) or guardian(s) with whom the child resided immediately prior to his or her initial admission to a State facility or placement by a State agency shall be submitted.

2. If the child's parents are divorced with joint guardianship, the present address of the individual parent with whom the child resided as of the date required by N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3(a)1 or 2 shall be submitted.

3. If the child never resided with his or her parent(s) or guardian(s), the address of the facility, group home, or private school shall be submitted.

4. If the child's sole parent or legal guardian resides in a State facility, the address of the State facility wherein the parent or guardian resides shall be submitted.

Respondent Department's decision that Somerville was M.V.'s district of residence on May 11, 1995, is based, at least in part, upon the conclusion summarily recited as fact without reference or attribution in Respondent Department's June 27, 1996 submission that the Legislature intended something different from domicile when it used the word "residence" in N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12. This is simply an erroneous conclusion. N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 specifically recites, "Residence means domicile, unless a temporary residence is indicated." The word "present" in the first paragraph of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) does not indicate a temporary residence but rather simply distinguishes the domicile of the parent or guardian at the time of the child's placement as opposed to (perhaps) a different domicile when the child lived with that parent or guardian prior to her most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency.

A statute should be read as a whole and not in separate sections; provisions should be read in such a way as to harmonize the individual sections and to read the entire statute in a way that is most consistent with the overall legislative intent. Fiore v. Consolidated Freightways, 140 N.J. 452, 466 (1995). The evident legislative intent is that, with few exceptions, the right to free public education at the expense of a particular district is dependent upon the domicile of the child's parent or guardian. Any time the word residence appears in the statutes set forth in Title 18A, it means domicile unless temporary residence is specified (See, for example N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d).)

Domicile has been defined by case law. An individual may have many residences, if he or she is financially able to do so, but can have only one domicile. Miller v. U.S. Fidel. & Guar. Co., 127 N.J. Super. 37, 42 (App. Div. 1974); Continos v. Parsekian, 68 N.J. Super. 54, 58-59 (App. Div. 1961); DeFiore v. Erie-Lackawanna R.R. Co., 67 N.J. Super. 267 (Law Div. 1961).

> "The domicile of a person is the place where he has his true, fixed permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning, and from which he has no present intention of moving. . . . Home is the place where a person dwells and which is the center of his domestic, social and civil life. . . . Thus, the concepts of home and domicile mean more than physical residence. They also embody the subject's objective and subjective relationship to that residence." Matter of Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374-5 (Law Div. 1991); See also, In re Jaffe, 74 N.J. 86, 90-91 (1977).

N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4(a)4, relied upon by Respondent Department, does not provide a basis for making Somerville the responsible district based upon M.V.'s temporary incarceration in the Somerset County Jail. It is true that the regulation specifically references those who reside in a State facility, which is defined at N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-3 and N.J.S.A. 18A:46-18.2 as including correctional facilities. The county jail, however, is not a State correctional facility. Those who are committed to the common jail of the county are persons who are sentenced to imprisonment for a term of less than one year. N.J.S.A. 2C:43-10. Since the stay in a county jail is by definition relatively brief, the likelihood that the person retains his pre-incarceration domicile is far greater than one who is committed to a State correctional facility. Someone sentenced to life imprisonment would legitimately be said to reside in a State correctional facility. To assess the Somerville School district for tuition costs for the children of all persons passing through the Somerset County Jail, however, no matter how brief their stay, is not in keeping with the legislative scheme that the child's home district should be responsible. For all of the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that the county jail is not an appropriate place for determining a parent or guardian's district of residence. Respondent Department's determination that Somerville is the responsible district based upon M.V.'s presence in the Somerset County Jail on May 11, 1995 is therefore REVERSED.

Because many of the facts requested of the parties have not been provided, it is not possible to determine, in the context of the within matter, which school district is the child's district of residence for purposes of 1994-95 tuition. If the Division of Youth and Family Services was "acting as guardian" for N.M. when it placed her at the Youth Consultant Services Facility Group Home in New Brunswick on or about May 11, 1995, then pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(e), the Board of Education of the City of New Brunswick may be responsible. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(e) provides: "Public schools shall be free to the following persons over five and under 20 years of age: . . . (e) Any person for whom the Division of Youth and Family Services in the Department of Human Services is acting as guardian and who is placed in the district by said bureau." If DYFS was not acting as guardian for the child,* then pursuant to the first paragraph of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b), if the domicile of M.V., N.M.'s mother, on May 11, 1995 can be determined, then that district is the district responsible for tuition. Pursuant to the second paragraph of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b), if the domicile of the mother on May 11, 1995 cannot be determined, the district of residence responsible for this tuition is the district in which the child

* Support for Respondent Department's position that this statutory language means legal guardian and not just custodian may be found in the language of N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4(a)1 which makes the domiciliary district of the child's parent or guardian responsible when the State merely has custody and places the child.

resided prior to her various placements by DYFS, which appears from the stipulation of facts provided herein, to have been Somerville. Somerville may also be the district of residence pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(c), depending upon when the mother became homeless, or began her "history of being chronically transient" as specified in the July 8, 1996 letter which Respondent Department wrote to attorney David B. Rubin. According to the stipulation of facts herein, N.M. did attend school in Somerville during 1990-91 school year before being removed from her home by DYFS on March 28, 1991. It may be that Somerville was the last "fixed, regular and adequate residence" of the child's mother. If Somerville is the district of residence for 1994-95 tuition, however, it is not based upon the mother's incarceration in the Somerset County Jail on May 11, 1995.*

For all of the foregoing reasons, summary decision on behalf of the Somerville Board of Education relieving it of tuition responsibility based upon the Commissioner of Education's previous determination is hereby GRANTED. If petitioner paid any monies to Respondent Board for N.M.'s 1994-95 tuition, those monies should be returned, subject of course, to repayment should the Commissioner of Education subsequently determine that in fact Somerville was the district of residence based upon facts other than those presented in the within matter.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

---

* Note that the determination under appeal here is set forth in a letter dated June 27, 1995 from Respondent Department to petitioner and references only the 1994-95 school year. The "present district of residence" of N.M. for 1995-96 tuition purposes is the district of residence of M.V. as of the last school day prior to October 16, 1995. M. V. was released from jail on October 6, 1995, and her domicile (if any) after that date cannot be determined from the facts in this record.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Nov. 7, 1996
DATE

M. Kathleen Duncan
M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

NOV 12 1996
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cc

OAL DKT. NO. 677-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 481-12/95

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, AND THE NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Respondent Department of Education's (Department) exceptions were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. No exceptions were filed by respondent Board, nor were reply exceptions filed by petitioner.

The Department generally recasts and reiterates arguments previously raised before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that a county jail qualifies as a residence for determining petitioner's "district of residence" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 and N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4. (Department's Exceptions at p. 1) It excepts that for school funding purposes, the district of residence for children who are in residential State facilities, "shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency." (emphasis in text) (Id. at p. 2) The Department notes that in the present case, N.M.'s mother, M.V., resided in the Somerset County jail when N.M. was placed in the Youth Consultant Facility in New Brunswick. It reiterates its previous argument that statute and applicable regulations, N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3(b) and N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4(a), mandate that if a parent resides in a State facility, including a correctional facility, when placed, the address of the State facility must be utilized in order to determine the district of residence that is responsible for payment of tuition for the child. (Department's Exceptions at pp. 2-3) The Department disagrees with the ALJ's determination that a State correctional facility constitutes a State facility, but a county jail does not. (Id. at p. 3)

The Department next contends that residence for school funding purposes for children placed in State facilities in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-1 et seq. is different from residence or domicile for determining a free public education under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. It summarizes that N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 requires that a parent or guardian's residence, not domicile, be submitted for school funding purposes and that a county jail can constitute one's present residence. (Department's Exceptions at p. 3)

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner determines to reverse the determination of the ALJ. Although the Commissioner fully concurs that the statutory scheme generally envisions entitlement to attend public school and responsibility for tuition as based on the domicile of a parent or guardian pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, when responsibility for tuition must be determined where the sole parent or guardian is chronically transient, i.e. not homeless[1] but having had a series of short-term residences with no identifiable domicile, the only reasonable interpretation of applicable statute and implementing regulations is to assign responsibility for tuition to the parent or guardian's district of present residence, notwithstanding that such residence might be temporary.[2] Under the circumstances herein, the Department correctly determined that N.M.'s present district of residence for school funding purposes was Somerville based on M.V.'s residence in Somerset County Jail on the applicable date.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed above, the Commissioner reverses the initial decision of the OAL, hereby entering summary judgment in favor of respondents and dismissing the within Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[1] Nowhere in the record is it indicated that M.V. was found to be homeless so as to invoke the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3(g).

[2] Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d), an individual is entitled to a free public education in a district if the parent or guardian is residing temporarily therein. Further, N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 allows exception to its definition of residence (ordinarily "domicile") when temporary residence is indicated.

54-97

EDU #677-96
C # 54-97
SB # 23-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

PETITIONER-APPELLANT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, MIDDLESEX COUNTY AND THE NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

RESPONDENTS-RESPONDENTS.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 5, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo (Michael J. Rogers, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the City of New Brunswick, Hendricks and Hendricks (George F. Hendricks, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent New Jersey State Department of Education, John K. Worthington, Deputy Attorney General (John J. Farmer, Attorney General of New Jersey)

This case centers on a single issue: whether a county jail is a "residence" within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 so as to impose financial responsibility on the school district in which the county jail is located for the costs of a placement of a child made by the Division of Youth and Family Services ("DYFS"). Based on the stipulation of the parties to this matter and her analysis of the applicable law, the Administrative

June 5, 2000

Law Judge ("ALJ") concluded that a county jail did not constitute a residence within the meaning of the statute. The Commissioner rejected the ALJ's determination, holding that a county jail could be considered as a present residence for purposes of establishing financial responsibility for such placements.

After careful review of the record and the applicable legal framework, we reverse the Commissioner's decision in this matter.

The facts in this case are straightforward and undisputed. As stipulated by the parties, N.M. was a second-grade pupil in the Somerville School District during the 1990-91 school year. In March 1991, N.M. was removed from her home by DYFS and placed with foster parents outside of the Somerville School District. N.M. has never returned to the Somerville public schools. On or about May 11, 1995, N.M. was placed by DYFS in the Youth Consultant Services Facility in New Brunswick. N.M.'s mother, M.V., was incarcerated in the Somerset County Jail from approximately April 1995 until October 6, 1995. At all times relevant to this matter, M.V. was neither domiciled in nor a resident of Somerville.

Acting upon a request from the Department of Human Services, the Department of Education determined that Somerville was the district of residence for N.M. because, at the time of the request, her mother was incarcerated in the Somerset County Jail. As a result, the Somerville School District was assessed tuition for N.M. for the 1994-95 school year and for a portion of the 1995-96 school year.

In December 1995, the Board of Education of the Borough of Somerville (hereinafter "Somerville Board") filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, contending that a county jail was not an appropriate facility for determining a child's district of residence and that, as a result, the Somerville Board was not responsible for N.M.'s tuition. As set forth above, the ALJ concurred with the Somerville Board that a county jail was not a residence for purposes of establishing financial responsibility for N.M.'s placement, and the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's determination.

N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12, the statute applicable to this matter, provides in pertinent part that:

> a. The district of residence for children in foster homes shall be the district in which the foster parents reside. If a child in a foster home is subsequently placed in a State facility or by a State agency, the district of residence of the child shall then be determined as if no such foster placement had occurred.
>
> b. The district of residence for children who are in residential facilities, or who have been placed by State agencies in group homes, private schools or out-of-state facilities, shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency.
>
> If this cannot be determined, the district of residence shall be the district in which the child resided prior to such admission or placement.
>
> c. The district of residence for children whose parent or guardian temporarily moves from one school district to another as the result of being homeless shall be the district in which the parent or guardian last resided prior to becoming homeless. For the purpose of this amendatory and supplementary act, "homeless" shall mean an individual who temporarily lacks a fixed, regular and adequate residence.
>
> d. If the district of residence cannot be determined according to the criteria contained herein, or if the criteria contained herein identify a district of residence outside of the > State, the State shall assume fiscal responsibility for the tuition of the child....

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b), N.M.'s district of residence for purposes of establishing financial responsibility for her placement is "the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency." Hence, it is N.M.'s mother's present district of residence that would establish financial responsibility if that district can be determined.

The regulations adopted by the State Board of Education under authority of the statute provide further guidance in determining M.V.'s "present district of residence." As provided by N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3:

> (a) The district of residence for school funding purposes shall be determined according to the following criteria:
>
> . . .
>
> 2. The "present district of residence" of a child placed by a State agency in a group home, private school or out-of-state facility also referred to in paragraph one of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) shall mean the New Jersey district of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the date of the child's initial placement by the State agency. In subsequent school years spent in the educational placement made by a State agency, the child's "present district of residence" shall be determined in the same manner as for a child in a residential State facility as set forth in (a)1.
>
> 3. The "district of residence" referred to in paragraph two of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) shall mean the New Jersey district of residence in which the child resided with his or her legal guardian immediately prior to his or her initial admission to a State facility or placement by a State agency.
>
> (b) The commissioner shall determine the "present district of residence" or "district of residence" referred to in N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) based upon the address submitted by the Department of Corrections or the Department of Human > Services on forms prepared by the Department of Education.

>
> . . .

N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4 further provides:

> (a) The address submitted to the Department of Education for determining the district of residence for school funding purposes for a child described below shall be the address defined below:
>
> 1. If the State has custody of the child or if a court or the State has appointed a third party as the custodian of the child, the present address of the parent(s) or guardian(s) with whom the child resided immediately prior to his or her initial admission to a State facility or placement by a State agency shall be submitted.
>
> 2. If the child's parents are divorced with joint guardianship, the present address of the individual parent with whom the child resided as of the date required by N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.3(a)(1) or (2) shall be submitted.
>
> 3. If the child never resided with his or her parent(s) or guardian(s), the address of the facility, group home, or private school shall be submitted.
>
> 4. If the child's sole parent or legal guardian resides in a State facility, the address of the State facility wherein the parent or guardian resides shall be submitted.

Accordingly, M.V.'s "present district of residence" is to be determined based on her address as of May 11, 1995, the date on which DYFS placed N.M. in the State facility.

There is no dispute that M.V. was incarcerated in the Somerset County Jail from April 1995 until October 1995. This encompasses the date on which N.M.'s placement occurred. Hence, M.V.'s address on the relevant date was the Somerset County Jail. However, the address in this case does not provide M.V.'s present district of residence because, as the ALJ found, N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 provides that "residence means domicile, unless a temporary residence is indicated." In that N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b) does not provide any indication that "present residence" is a temporary residence, M.V.'s present residence on the pertinent date must be her domicile.

As set forth in the ALJ's Initial Decision, an individual may have many residences, but can have only one domicile. Miller v. U.S. Fidel. & Guar. Co., 127 N.J. Super. 37, 42 (App. Div. 1974); Continos v. Parsekian, 68 N.J. Super. 54, 58-59 (App. Div. 1961); DeFiore v. Erie-Lackawanna R.R. Co., 67 N.J. Super. 267 (Law Div. 1961).

> The domicile of a person is the place where he has his true, fixed permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning, and from which he has no present intention of moving....Home is the place where a person dwells and which is the center of his domestic, social and civil life....Thus, the concepts of home and domicile mean more than physical residence. They also embody the subject's objective and subjective relationship to that residence.

Matter of Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374-5 (Law Div. 1991); See also, In re Jaffe, 74 N.J. 86, 90-91 (1977).

Incarceration in the county jail is for less than one year. N.J.S.A. 2C:43-10. Given that a stay in the county jail is brief by definition, a county jail cannot, as the ALJ correctly concluded, be an individual's domicile. Because a county jail cannot be an individual's domicile, the address of the Somerset County Jail could not provide M.V.'s present district of residence as of May 11, 1995. On this record, the conclusion is unavoidable that M.V.'s present district of residence was unknown. In this respect, we stress that a county jail is not a State facility so that N.J.A.C. 6:20-5.4(a)4 does not apply.

On this record, we conclude that Somerville is not responsible for N.M.'s tuition for 1994-95. Moreover, under the statute, if the parent's district of residence cannot be determined, then the district of residence shall be the district in which the child resided prior to the placement. N.J.S.A. 18A: 7B-12(b). In this case, N.M. was in foster care and, under these circumstances where the parent's district of residence can not be determined, the child's district of residence must be determined as if no foster placement had occurred. N.J.S.A. 18A: 7B-12(a). Although the stipulation by the parties indicates that prior to her placement in foster care, N.M. was attending Somerville public school, the record does not establish that this was the district of residence of either the parent or the child. Hence, we agree with the ALJ that although there is a possibility that Somerville might ultimately be responsible for N.M.'s tuition by further operation of the statute, any such obligation cannot be based on M.V.'s stay in the Somerset County Jail.

Arnold G. Hyndman abstained.

July 5, 2000

Date of mailing JUL 07 2000

(SB) 54-97

DHPBL #211-97
SB # 54-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF J.M.C. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, April 25, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Robert J. Pompliano, Esq.

On April 25, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education issued a letter decision in which he upheld the disqualification of J.M.C. (hereinafter "appellant") from school employment as a bus driver following a criminal history record review pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 The Deputy Commissioner found that appellant had failed to affirmatively demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

On May 27, 1997, appellant filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), appellant's brief in support of his appeal was due on June 16, 1997, 20 days after the appeal was filed. Appellant, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated June 18, 1997, the counsel for the State Board notified appellant's counsel that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of his failure to perfect the appeal. Appellant's counsel has still failed to file a brief in support of the appeal, more than seven weeks after the deadline for such filing, or to offer any explanation for his failure to file. Nor has he requested an extension of time.

8/6/97

Consequently, the State Board of Education dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a). See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board of Education, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 08 1997

55-97

55-97

MARILYN VICENZINO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BEDMINSTER, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, tenured school social worker, contended Board's refusal to reemploy her for the 1996-97 school year violated her tenure and seniority rights.

ALJ found that the Board terminated the services of petitioner, who was a member of the basic, or "core" child study team, for purported economic reasons. ALJ concluded that even if the economic reasons were justifiable, the termination of petitioner and the reallocation of at least some of her duties to an outside contractor was violative of N.J.A.C. 6:28-3.1(b) and 6:28-5.1(c)1. Therefore, the Board was ordered to either reemploy petitioner to perform such services or alternatively arrange for the provision of such services by properly qualified employees of the Board, with due consideration of the tenure and seniority rights of petitioner.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

February 5, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06468-96S

AGENCY DKT. NO. 227-6/96

MARILYN VICENZINO,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BEDMINSTER, SOMERSET COUNTY,

Respondent.

Stephen B. Hunter, Esq., for petitioner (Klausner and Hunter, attorneys)

James W. Broscious, Esq., for respondent (Broscious, Glynn and Gentile, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 3, 1996 Decided: December 19, 1996

BEFORE JEFF S. MASIN, ALJ:

Marilyn Vicenzino is a tenured school social worker who was employed by the Bedminster Township Board of Education ("Board") for seven years until June 30, 1996. The Board advised Ms. Vicenzino on March 25, 1996, that it had determined at its March 21, 1996, meeting to terminate her employment for the 1996-97 school year pursuant to a reduction in force ("RIF"). Ms. Vicenzino has appealed that action to the Commissioner of Education. She asserts that the Board acted in violation of her tenure rights, held pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, as well as her seniority and re-employment rights, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12. The Commissioner transferred the contested case to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

When the case was transmitted to the OAL it arrived with a motion filed by counsel for the respondent seeking to dismiss the petitioner's case based on an alleged failure to state a cause for which relief could be granted. On September 16, 1996, associate counsel for the Board advised this judge's secretary that the Board had previously granted Mr. Hunter an extension of time in which to respond to the motion, but that no response had been received and that the Board wished the judge to "immediately move on our motion to dismiss." Thereafter during a prehearing conference held September 25, 1996, counsel for Ms. Vicenzino indicated that he had delayed a response to the motion pending the prehearing conference, in accordance with practice which he had found to be the norm in regard to administrative hearings wherein issues concerning the pending case, including the submission of motions and replies thereto, were generally first addressed at the prehearing conference. The administrative law judge indicated that his review of the motion to dismiss for failure to state a cause of action suggested to him that the application was more appropriately characterized as a motion for summary decision and that he was inclined to allow the petitioner's attorney to file a response to that motion. After further correspondence in which Board Counsel advised that he had indeed assumed that a response would be filed prior to the prehearing and that he wished to press for a determination of the motion in the absence of a response, I advised counsel by letter of October 3, 1996, that I believed that there had been some "misunderstanding or lack of clear communication on the issue" and that I had determined to treat the matter as a motion for summary decision and allow a response and the filing of any cross-motion. Thereafter counsel for petitioner filed a response and cross-motion for summary decision. A telephone oral argument on the motion for summary decision was held on December 3, 1996, on which date the record closed.

CONCLUSION

Based upon an analysis of the positions of the parties and the current state of the statutes, regulations and decisional law on the developing issue of contracting of services by school districts, I FIND that the Board of Education has terminated the services of petitioner, who was a member of the basic, or "core" child study team ("CST") for purported economic reasons, and I CONCLUDE that even if the economic reasons are justifiable, the termination of the tenured employee and the reallocation of at least some of her duties to an outside contractor is violative of N.J.A.C. 6:28-3.1 (b) and N.J.A.C. 6:28-5.1(c)1. Therefore, the Board of Education must either re-employ the petitioner to perform such services or must alternatively arrange for the provision of such services by any properly qualified employees of the Board of Education, with due consideration of the tenure and seniority rights of the petitioner.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

This case arises from a decision made by the respondent Board of Education in March, 1996. The petitioner had been employed by the Board on a part-time (2/5th) basis as a social worker, assigned to the district's CST. Her job duties were numerous and she was the case manager for fourteen students. The Board determined that two of these students were about to graduate, one had been de-classified and it was anticipated that two others would be moving out of the district. The Board further determined that while it still had to provide for the case management services necessary for the remaining nine students for whom Ms. Vicenzino had served as case manager, these services could be accommodated by designating the CST Director to manage their cases in the 1996/97 school year. As for the approximately fifteen case histories anticipated for expected new referrals to the CST, the Board decided that rather than continue the petitioner's employment it could save a purported $15,000 per school year by eliminating the petitioner's position and contracting out to the Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission ("ESC") at a cost of $300 per social history. The Board would thus save $15,000 out of the $19,380 salary which the petitioner received in 1985/86.

The Board first notified petitioner that it was considering a reduction in force, and after the Board voted in favor of the reduction on March 21, 1996, it advised the petitioner that she was to be terminated. This petition followed.

LEGAL ISSUES

While there appears to be some dispute as to whether the several duties and responsibilities which Ms Vicenzino was required to perform as a member of the CST will in fact all be performed either to a sufficient level or at all if the reduction in force is permitted to stand, the first and indeed the fundamental issue in dispute between the parties is the question of whether a board of education may legally eliminate the position of a tenured employee who is a member of the basic CST and then have the services which that employee has rendered to the Board performed instead by an outside contractor. Petitioner asserts that such action is a violation of applicable regulations and cannot be countenanced. Respondent asserts that a board of education may indeed determine to reduce its staff for legitimate economic reasons and can contract out work of an employee such as Ms. Vicenzino without running afoul of the law.

THE STANDARD FOR SUMMARY DECISION

In Robin Brill v. The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, et al., 142 N.J. 520 (1995), the New Jersey Supreme Court elaborated upon the applicable standard for determining if summary decision was proper, amending the traditional standard as announced in Judson v. Peoples' Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74-75 (1954) to incorporate the United States Supreme Court's analysis as presented in Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 91 L. Ed. 2d 202 (1986) and Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 106 S. Ct. 2548, 91 L.Ed. 2d 265 (1986). As before, a motion for summary decision may only be granted where there are no genuine disputes of material fact. The determination of the existence of a genuine dispute of material fact is made after a "discriminating search" of the record, consisting as it may of affidavits, documentary exhibits and any other evidence filed by the movant and any such evidence filed in response to the motion, with all reasonable inferences arising from the evidence being accorded to the opponent of the motion. The Brill decision focuses upon the procedure for determining whether a purported dispute of material fact is in fact "genuine." Under the Brill standard, the judge is required to engage in the same analytical process in deciding the summary decision motion as is necessary for ruling upon a motion for a directed verdict. The fact finder must be guided by the applicable substantive evidentiary standard of proof, whether preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence, which would apply at trial on the merits. Brill, supra. In order to defeat the motion, the opposing party must establish the existence of "genuine" disputes of material fact by presenting something more than "facts which are immaterial or of an insubstantial nature, a mere scintilla, 'fanciful, frivolous, gauzy or merely suspicious, ..." Judson, supra., at 75 (citations omitted), cited in Brill, supra. If a careful review under this standard establishes that no such genuine disputes exist as to the material facts of the case, then the uncontradicted facts thus established can be examined in light of the applicable substantive law to determine whether or not the movant is clearly entitled to judgment. Where the proofs in the record are such that "reasonable minds could differ" as to the material facts, then the motion must be denied and a full evidentiary hearing held. Brill, supra., citing S. Pressler, Current N.J. Court Rules, R. 4:40-2, comment (1991). (The comment is to the standard for determining motions for directed verdicts under Rule 4:40-1 and judgment notwithstanding the verdict pursuant to Rule 4:40-2, which the Court determined to be essentially the same standard which applies to motions for summary judgment decision, in the administrative context, under the Liberty Lobby-Celotex-Brill standard.)

ANALYSIS

In seeking summary decision, the Board of Education contends that its authority to abolish positions for reasons of economy is so clear that the case can be decided without an evidentiary hearing. It relies upon its authority as expressed in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, which provides that > Nothing in this title or any other law relating to tenure of service shall be held to limit the right of any board of education to reduce the number of teaching staff members, employed in the district whenever, in the judgment of the board, it is advisable to abolish any such positions for reasons of economy or because of reduction in the number of pupils or of change in the administrative or supervisory organization of the district or for other good cause upon compliance with the provisions of this article.

The Board argues that, faced with legitimate economic concerns, it was fully within its legal rights when it determined that it should reduce its financial burdens by terminating Ms. Vicenzino, a part-time employee, and should contract out that portion of her work involving social histories while providing for the performance of her other duties by another board employee. It cites such cases as Cordano v. Board of Education of the Township of Weehawkin, 1976 SLD 761 and Hyun v. Board of Education, Borough of Wharton, 1976 SLD 763, as standing for the proposition that its authority under the statute permits it to act as it has in Ms. Vicenzino's case.

In response, petitioner points to the fact that in neither Cordano or Hyun did the challenged action involve an attempt to affect the positions of members of the basic child study team. Cordano was an industrial arts teacher, Hyun an instrumental music teacher. In each of these cases, the Commissioner agreed that the board was free to act in a manner which effectuated economic savings, so long as it did not run afoul of the concerns recognized in the unpublished decision of the Appellate Division in Jacqueline Cochrane v. Watchung Hills Regional Board of Education, A-2327-85T7, (December 22, 1986) as to whether the purported elimination of functions actually occurred. Petitioner argues that in contrast to these cases, in the present matter, the Board's freedom to act is subject to legal constraints not applicable to the employees in Cordano and Hyan. This is due to the regulatory requirement contained in N.J.S.A. 18A:46-5.1 that persons who are performing the functions normally performed by the school social worker, the school psychologist and the learning disability-teacher consultant ("LDTC") must be carried out by persons actually employed by the Board. Ms. Vicenzino's own motion for summary decision relies upon this regulation as dispositive of the case.

The membership of a CST is defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:46-5.1,

> Each board of education and State operated program shall separately or jointly with one or more boards of education or State agencies provide for basic child study team services. The basic child study team shall consist of a school psychologist, a learning disability teacher consultant and a school social worker. . . .

and is further specified in N.J.A.C. 6:28-3.1(b), which adds the requirement that "For pupils ages three to five, the study team shall include a speech correctionist or speech-language specialist." Additionally, the regulation provides that

> All members of the child study team shall be employees of a district board of education, have an identifiable, apportioned commitment to the local school district and shall be available during the hours pupils are in attendance.

Petitioner asserts that while the decisional law now recognizes that where a school district chooses to maintain its own separate CST (as opposed to participating in a joint, multi-district arrangement without having its own exclusive in-district CST) certain adjunct services of the CST can be completely provided by outside contractors and consultants, and supplementation of the efforts of district employed CST members is also permitted, the board must nevertheless provide basic CST services through its own employees. Thus, as the petitioner understands the law, the CST is composed of three positions, social worker, psychologist and LDTC, each of whom is employed by "a" district, that is, all three members by a single district, as opposed to a split of the three between separate employing districts. Thus, it is illegal for the Board to terminate the team's only social worker, and then divide up the functions which she has previously performed and distribute them to a combination of remaining basic CST members and/or director (not a social worker) who may perform both "social worker" tasks and other "case management" tasks and transfer the "social work" aspect of the position to an outside contractor. She contends that what the Board has attempted to accomplish is nothing more than the transfer of the particular duties of a tenured employee to another individual not employed by a (here meaning "the") board of education, conduct which she asserts has been barred for at least the past 50 years, since the Appellate Division's decision in Viemeister v. Prospect Park Board of Education, 5 N.J. Super. 215 (App. Div. 1947). The continuation of the substance of the tenured basic CST employee's job by another under the guise of a reduction in force is simply not permissible. That that person may work for "a" school district, such as the ESC, does not lessen the violation.

In support of her contentions, petitioner cites the unpublished decision of the Appellate Division in Cochran, supra. There, the Court struck down a board of education's purportedly economic based reduction in force ("RIF") of tenured members of the CST from full time to half time, an action which was taken in conjunction with the awarding of a contract to provide the same services through a third party at purportedly less cost to the board. The State Board of Education, which voided the reduction in force, had concluded that the board had never intended the actual abolition of the positions occupied by the appellants, but had merely reorganized and transferred their duties to a less expensive provider, or, as characterized by the Commissioner, "had actually intended not to abolish . . . but merely to divide up their duties and distribute part of those duties to the outside contractor in violation of their tenure rights." The court noted that while the board relied upon the broad authorization of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 as support for its right to implement a reduction in force, it was nevertheless clearly appropriate for the state board of education to review the determination of a local board, acting pursuant to that statute, to determine whether "the position ostensibly abolished has not, in fact, been abolished but merely transferred to another in violation of the incumbent's tenure and seniority rights . . ." Viemeister, supra. The State Board determined that the Watchung Board's action was in fact "not an actual abolishment of positions, but a mere reorganization and transfer of duties to a less expensive provider." Cochran, slip opinion at pages 3 and 4. Interestingly, in Cochran the court noted that both the commissioner and the administrative law judge who sat on the case > correctly concluded that the integrity of the reduction in force decision was vitiated by the virtually contemporaneous decision to contract for additional Child Study Team services that the team, as originally constituted, would have otherwise performed. That being the case, the reduction in force decisions were properly voided, the full-time positions reinstated and Petitioners ordered restored to those positions. . . . Slip opinion at page 6.

Petitioner also cites Elson v. Board of Education of the Hudson County Area Vocational-Technical School, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 229, in support of her claims. There, the Commissioner agreed with and adopted the determination of Administrative Law Judge Diana Sukovich, who held that the tenure rights of a tenured school psychologist, who served as a member of the basic child study team, were violated when the district terminated his services as the result of a reduction in force and subsequently contracted the performance of his previously assigned duties to a private child study team. Judge Sukovich discussed both the Cochrane decision and the decision in Mullin v. Boonton Town Board of Education, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 583. In Mullin, three tenured members of a basic child study team (a LDTC, school psychologist and a social worker) were terminated in a RIF effective June 30, 1991. Thereafter, the Board contracted out for CST services, first on an as needed basis and then for four days a month, "to handle the overflow or excess CST work that the CST remaining after the reduction in force could not handle." In December 1991, the Board hired a .2, or one day a week, CST. Administrative Law Judge Joseph Martone concluded that while in Cochrane the conclusion was that the reduction in force of the full time CST to half-time and the contracting out of this half of their former work load amounted to an improper supplanting of the CST and not merely a supplementation of the team's work, in the circumstances present in Mullin, the very limited utilization of the outside CST in the summer months and the Fall prior to the hiring of the .2 Team in December amounted to only a supplementation of the work of the remaining Board employed CST, and not a supplanting.

In her Elson decision, Judge Sukovich concluded that the facts of the case were "more akin to those considered in Cochrane," and while she acknowledged that supplemental assistance can be obtained through a subcontracting arrangement, she held that "this situation presupposes an existing team with members who are employed by the district. Outside contractors are permitted in limited circumstances and only to supplement services provided by existing team members." Id. at 234.

The respondent notes that the Elson decision acknowledged the authority of local boards to both reduce the size of the teaching staff and to contract out certain CST services. In regard to this latter point, the judge cited the decision of the Appellate Division in Impey v. Board of Education of Shrewsbury, 271 N.J. Super. 429 (App. Div. 1994). Subsequently, the Supreme Court reviewed the Impey dispute and its decision is reported at 142 N.J. 388 (1995). The Board believes that Impey provides strong support for its right to act in this case without interference from the Commissioner. Indeed, based upon its reading of Impey the Board contends that the ALJ and the Commissioner decided Elson incorrectly.

In Impey, the local board abolished the position of speech correctionist and contracted with the county educational services commission for speech corrective services for its pupils. It asserted that the arrangement saved it approximately $12,000 a year. Ms. Impey appealed, and the ALJ, Commissioner and State Board all agreed that the Board had acted within its legal rights. The Appellate Division affirmed the State Board and Commissioner. The Supreme Court granted certification.

In its decision, the Court recognized the "considerable latitude" which local boards possess in determining how to provide "essential educational services." It also acknowledged that both statute and regulation authorize that local boards of education may provide special education services by "'joint facilities . . . provided by agreement between one or more school districts.' N.J.S.A. 18A:46-1" and that a local board could "undertake programs 'separately or jointly with one or more boards of education or State agencies [to] provide for basic child study team services.' N.J.S.A. 18:46-5.1" Id. at 394. Additionally, a board may contract with an ESC for "the provision of examination, classification and speech correction services required by this act." Id.

Ms. Impey contended that she was protected by N.J.A.C. 6:28-1 and that under that statute the local board was required to use only persons employed by the board as members of the CST. However, the Court noted that the ALJ, Commissioner and State Board had all held that as a speech correctionist, Impey "was not a member of the basic child study team referred to in" that statute. The Supreme Court concurred > in the Appellate Division's conclusion that the Board was empowered to enter into the contract with the ESC for the provision of educational services. The statutory and regulatory provisions enable an ESC to provide a wide range of educational service to local schools. Those enactments clearly authorize a local board to enter into a contract with an educational services commission to obtain speech correction service for its eligible pupils.

> Id. at 395-96.

Judge Sukovich did not have the benefit of the Supreme Court's decision when she issued her initial decision in Elson. However, she concluded that while the Appellate Division decision in Impey upheld the Board's decision and supported the proposition that certain services can be contracted out, the ability of local boards to contract out the work of child study teams is nevertheless limited.

> There is no such broad authority pertinent to child study teams in general. As discussed, a local board may only contract team evaluation and diagnostic services to supplement existing local district services, not to supplant them.

Under the provisions of the statute which both mandates the maintenance and the composition of CST's, a board of education is not required to employ its own CST, but may provide for CST services in a multi-district arrangement so long as identifiable apportionment of time and responsibilities to the districts involved is provided. However, where a board has provided its own CST, and then seeks to change the arrangements for the provision of such services, examination of the several decisions discussed herein demonstrates that the particular facts of each case have played a significant role in the conclusions reached as to legality of the modifications. Factors which appear to be important may include such matters as whether the termination of the petitioner and the abolition of the petitioner's position eliminated all of the persons in the district filling that position (such as in the Cochrane case where the one-half reduction in the petitioner's positions left no in-district CST employees doing any of that one-half of the work associated with the case load, which was then entirely performed by the outside contractor), or whether the district continues to employ a full basic CST even after the RIF (as in Mullin), or whether the abolition is of all positions on the basic team and the contract entered into provides for all CST services to be performed by employees of a board of education operating for a multi-district group, or only of one of the basic positions with the other two positions continuing to be filled by employees of the individual board which abolished the position (as in the present matter), or whether the contract services were with a public entity such as a multi-district cooperative or ESC (as in Impey) or with a private group (as in Elson), and whether the extent of the work performed by the outside contractor is minimal (Mullin) or involves significant amounts of work. In the present matter, the certification of Ms. Vicenzino indicates that she was the sole social worker employed by the district, and it appears that all of the needed social histories which she prepared as a portion of her CST work were contracted out and that none would be performed by a board employee, as the CST-related social histories which the ESC contractor is to perform constitute all of the social histories anticipated for the district's special education needs for the coming year. The contract was awarded to an ESC.

While the law would permit Bedminster to abolish its CST entirely if it entered into a proper multi-district arrangement for such services, on the undisputed facts of this case, which involves the complete abolition of only the social worker position in the district, with the retention of the board employed psychologist and LDTC, an ESC hired as outside contractor, and a significant amount of work assigned to that contractor, the case appears to be very much akin to Cochrane and Elson. Unless the Supreme Court's decision in Impey represents an implied precedent for the termination of the position of one (or two) of the three mandated members of the basic CST and the contracting out of the work associated with only those positions, (which would make the requirement of, and the protections inherent in, N.J.A.C. 6:28-1.3 tenuous at best and would authorize the splitting up of the basic team members amongst different employers, quite possibly raising significant practical concerns in regard to management and supervision of the "split" team) there appears to be no case supporting the Bedminster Board's action. Impey did not involve a basic team member. The court did not address the validity of N.J.A.C. 6:28-1.3(a). While it is quite conceivable that Impey's support for legitimate, good faith economic based decisions involving the abolition of positions and the contracting of work with the expectation of savings could be extended to permit such actions in regard to the members of the basic CST, as the regulations now stand, in those instances where a district chooses to maintain its own CST the school social worker, the school psychologist and the LDTC must be employees of the district and cannot be outside contractors.

ORDER

The action of the Bedminster Board of Education violates the regulation and must therefore be overturned. The Board is HEREBY ORDERED to reinstate the petitioner to the position of school social worker.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 19, 1996
DATE

JEFF S. MASIN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

December 23, 1996
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 26 1996
Barbara A Harned
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

mjm

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06468-96S
AGENCY DKT. NO. 227-6/96

MARILYN VICENZINO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BEDMINSTER, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Respondent Board's exceptions and petitioner's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1-1-18.4.

Respondent's exceptions essentially recast and reiterate the arguments presented in the brief in support of its summary decision motion. In that the Commissioner finds that such arguments were fully and fairly considered and addressed by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) in his initial decision, they will not be repeated herein.

Upon careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the ALJ that the Board's termination of petitioner, a tenured member of the "core" child study team, and its reallocation of at least some of her duties to an outside contractor is violative of N.J.A.C. 6:28-3.1(b) and N.J.A.C. 6:28-5.1(c)l, and, as such, petitioner must be reinstated to her school social worker position.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter for the reasons clearly articulated by the ALJ therein. The Board is directed to reinstate petitioner to her former position as school social worker with back pay and emoluments, as appropriate, for the 1996-97 school year and thereafter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 5, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 6, 1997

55-97

EDU #6468-96S
C # 55-97
SB # 24-97

MARILYN VICENZINO,	:
PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BEDMINSTER, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 5, 1997

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Klausner & Hunter (Stephen B. Hunter, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Broscious, Glynn & Gentile (James W. Broscious, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 08 1997

56-97

56-97

THOMAS MADARAS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WESTFIELD, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

February 5, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3303-96
Agency Dkt. No. 48-2/96

THOMAS MADARAS,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WESTFIELD,

Respondent.

Thomas Madaras, pro se

Richard J. Kaplow, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: December 6, 1996 Decided: December 18, 1996

BEFORE MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN, ALJ

STATEMENT OF CASE

This case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on March 18, 1996 for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13.

The parties entered into a settlement and have prepared a stipulation indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the safeguard requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and, accordingly, I approve the settlement and ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be CONCLUDED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

December 16, 1996
DATE

Mumtaz Bari Brown
MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

December 24, 1996
DATE

D M Antanaitis Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 27 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cb

RICHARD J. KAPLOW, P.A.
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
53 ELM STREET
WESTFIELD, NEW JERSEY 07090

RICHARD J. KAPLOW (908) 232-8787 FAX (908) 232-8811

DEC 6 3 42 PM '96

December 4, 1996

Honorable Mumtaz Bari-Brown, A.L.J.
Office of Administrative Law
185 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102-3011

Re: Thomas Madaras vs. Board of Education of the Town of Westfield
Agency Docket No. 48-2/96
OAL Docket No. EDUOT 0303-96N

Dear Judge Bari-Brown :

The undersigned represents the Respondent Westfield Board of Education in the above-referenced matter, which is presently scheduled for a telephone Prehearing Conference on December 11, 1996 at 3:30 p.m.

I am pleased to advise that the parties have reached a negotiated settlement agreement regarding the issues in dispute. I have enclosed an original and copy of the signed Stipulation of Settlement for your Honor's consideration and approval.

Based upon the Petitioner's agreement to withdraw the pending Petition of Appeal, I will assume that the scheduled telephone Prehearing Conference will not be necessary, unless I am otherwise advised by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard J. Kaplow, Esq.

RJK:jg
cc: Thomas Madaras
Board Secretary

3/21/96

RICHARD J. KAPLOW, P.A.
53 ELM STREET
WESTFIELD, NEW JERSEY 07090
(908)232-8787
Attorney for Respondent

THOMAS P. MADARAS,	:	BEFORE THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
Petitioner,	:
vs.	:	AGENCY DOCKET NO. 48-2/96 OAL Dkt. No. EDUOT 03303-96N
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WESTFIELD, UNION COUNTY,	:	STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT
Respondent.	:

The parties in the above-referenced matter having indicated to the Court that they have reached an amicable resolution of the matters in dispute, and said parties having further indicated the desire to set forth their specific points of agreement in writing, and for good cause shown:

NOW, THEREFORE it is agreed by and between the parties as follows :

1. The parties mutually acknowledge that the intent of the Board in amending Article I, Section 3 of its By-Laws

(Special Meetings), whereby the President of the Board would be notified in the first instance regarding the existence of a request for a special meeting, is intended as a courtesy to the Board President, enabling efficient Board governance and accurate dissemination of information.

2. It is not the intent of the Board that the aforesaid By-Law amendment shall operate to limit or interfere with the ability of a majority of the whole number of members of the Board to call a special meeting. The parties hereby acknowledge that the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:3-1.2 shall continue to govern the calling of special meetings of the Board.

3. The parties hereby acknowledge that N.J.A.C. 6:3-1.2 requires that the Secretary of the Board of Education call a special meeting upon the presentation of a petition requesting same signed by a majority of the whole number of the members of the Board, notwithstanding the failure of the requesting Board members to comply with the notification procedure set forth in Paragraph 1. The Secretary of the Board, as a courtesy, shall notify the Board President of any such request for a special meeting.

4. Based upon the foregoing mutual acknowledgments, the Petitioner hereby withdraws the pending Petition of Appeal, OAL Dkt. No. EDUOT 03303-96N.

5. A copy of the within Stipulation of Settlement, as well as a legal citation to N.J.A.C. 6:3-1.2, shall be incorporated by reference into the amended version of the By-Laws of the Westfield Board of Education.

Witnessed:

Thomas Madaras, Petitioner with that changes

Witnessed:

Susan Jacobson, President
Westfield Board of Education

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3303-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 48-2/96

THOMAS MADARAS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WESTFIELD, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 5, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 6, 1997

(SB) 58-97

DHPBL #309-97
SB # 58-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : DECISION

OF P.R., JR. :

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, June 13, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, P.R., Jr., pro se

The decision of the Assistant Commissioner of Education disqualifying petitioner from school employment as a custodian following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

60-97

60-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF JULIA GARD-ZUZICK,	:
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS, MORRIS	:	DECISION
COUNTY.	:
	:

February 3, 1997

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9732-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 363-8/96

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PARSIPPANY - TROY HILLS SCHOOL DISTRICT, Petitioner,

v.

JULIA GARD-ZUZICK,

Respondent.

Marie-Laurence Fabian, Esq., for petitioner
(Dillon, Bitar & Luther, attorneys)

Sanford R. Oxfeld, Esq., for respondent
(Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 10, 1996 Decided: December 13, 1996

BEFORE MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Julia Gard-Zuzick, a Learning Disabilities Teacher Consultant (LTDC) and member of the Child Study Team (CST) of the Lake Parsippany School, appeals the tenure charges against her by the Board of Education of the Township of Parsippany-Troy Hills School District.

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on September 27, 1996, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Prior to the matter being set down for hearing, a settlement agreement was entered into by the parties.

The parties have prepared the attached Settlement Agreement setting forth the terms of the settlement which the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) received on December 10, 1996.

I have reviewed the settlement terms and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be and are hereby concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER

OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Dec 13 1996
DATE

Maria M La Fiandra
MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

12/20/96
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DEC 24 1996
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

jrp

DILLON, BITAR & LUTHER
COUNSELLORS AT LAW

THOMAS J. BITAR
HENRY N. LUTHER, III
BARRY M. JOHNSTON
PETER E. HENRY
ROBERT W. DELVENTHAL
GARTH F. WEBER
WILLIAM F. CAMPBELL, III
MARY A. POWERS
MICHAEL L. RICH
GLENN J. COCCHIOLA
STEVEN B. GREENAPPLE
MARIE-LAURENCE FABIAN
CHARLES V. QUINN
STEVEN F. RITARDI
STEVEN M. BOSACKI
RONNA M. GARELICK*
ELISABETH L'HEUREUX
CHRISTOPHER M. BARR
DAVID J. CARLSON

*N.Y BAR ONLY

53 MAPLE AVENUE
P.O. BOX 398
MORRISTOWN, NJ 07963-0398

(201) 539-3100
FAX (201)292-2960

WORRALL F. MOUNTAIN
(1909-1992)

SIDNEY G. DILLON
WILLIAM E. BARDUSCH, JR.
DOROTHEA GARBER CRACAS
OF COUNSEL

December 9, 1996

DEC 10 11 04 AM '96

Honorable Maria M. LaFiandra
Office of Administrative Law
185 Washington Street
Newark, NJ 07102-3011

Re: In the Matter of Tenure Charges Against Julia Gard-Zuzick, Parsippany-Troy Hills Board of Education

OAL Docket No. EDUTH 09732-96N
Agency Ref. No. 363-8/96

Dear Judge LaFiandra:

We represent the Parsippany-Troy Hills Board of Education. Enclosed herewith is a copy of a settlement agreement entered into between the parties to the above-referenced matter. As you will see, the settlement was entered into on June 13, 1996.

The tenure charges brought in this matter were for inefficiency and incompetency. Pursuant to the settlement agreement, Ms. Gard-Zuzick applied for a disability pension. The parties agreed that if the application was still pending at the time the Board was required to certify the charges to the Commissioner, the charges would be certified at that time to protect the interests of the Board in the event the disability pension application was denied.

As the application was still pending at that time, the Board certified the charges at its meeting of August 22, 1996. An answer was filed on September 13, 1996. Ms. Gard-Zuzick has been suspended without pay since August 23, 1996.

Also enclosed herewith is a copy of the letter from the Division of Pensions and Benefits dated November 18, 1996 indicating that Ms. Gard-Zuzick's application for an ordinary disability pension was granted. As the application for a pension has been granted, we are submitting the settlement agreement to the court for approval. The applicable terms of the agreement are contained in paragraphs 6 and 7, which provide that Ms. Gard-Zuzick will resign effective January 1, 1997 and the Board will restore two previously withheld increments.

Please let me know if anything further is required in order for the court to review the settlement.

Respectfully submitted,

M. L. Fabian

Marie-Laurence Fabian

cc: Sanford Oxfeld, Esq.
Eugene Vasile

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement is made and entered into this 13th day of June, 1996 by and between the Parsippany-Troy Hills Board of Education ("the Board") and Julia Gard-Zuzick.

WHEREAS, On January 11, 1996 the Board filed tenure charges of inefficiency against Ms. Gard-Zuzick; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to those charges, Ms. Gard-Zuzick had until May 31, 1996 to correct the inefficiencies stated in the charges; and

WHEREAS, the Board has been notified that Ms. Gard-Zuzick has corrected only one of the inefficiencies stated in the tenure charges; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Gard-Zuzick denies that she has been inefficient;

WHEREAS, the Board plans to certify the tenure charges to the Commissioner; and

WHEREAS, both parties wish to avoid the additional expense and delay inherent in the possible litigation of these charges;

NOW THEREFORE:

The undersigned agree that this matter shall be amicably settled upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Ms. Gard-Zuzick shall immediately apply to TPAF for a disability pension to be effective January 1, 1997.

2. The Board will promptly fill out all forms necessary to effectuate the application.

3. While the pension application is pending, the Board will proceed according to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:24-5.1(c), which would require, in this case, the certification of tenure charges no later than August 29, 1996.

4. If the disability pension is granted prior to the August 22, 1996 Board meeting, the charges will not be certified, and Ms. Gard-Zuzick will resign effective January 1, 1997. The Board will grant Ms. Gard-Zuzick a paid medical leave of absence for the period September 1, 1996 through December 31, 1996 at an annual salary of $70,010.00 plus $700 longevity, prorated for the period, and restore her increments as described in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this Agreement.

5. If the pension application is still pending as of the August 22, 1996 Board meeting, the parties understand and agree that the Board will certify the charges to the Commissioner at that time. If the pension application is granted subsequent to the certification of the charges, the parties will submit this settlement to the Commissioner for approval.

6. At such time as the disability pension is granted and Ms. Gard-Zuzick submits her resignation, the Board shall restore her increments for the 1994-95 and 1995-96 school years and send to TPAF an amended certification of final salary indicating her 1994-95 salary as $65,521.00 and her 1995-96 salary as $67,800.00 plus $600 longevity.

7. The parties agree that the amount to be restored for 1994-95 is $2,821.00 and the amount to be restored for 1995-96 is $5,100.00. If the disability pension is granted, the appropriate percentage of the restored amounts will be sent by the Board to TPAF and the remainder will be paid to Ms. Gard-Zuzick.

8. If the pension is denied, none of the above provisions will apply and the Board will proceed with all aspects of the tenure charges.

Dated: 6/5/96 Julia Gard-Zuzick
Julia Gard-Zuzick

Dated: 6/13/96 PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: _____
David Shaffer, President

Post-it® Fax Note 7671	Date 11/21/96	pages 1
To Sanford Oxfeld	From Julia Gard-Zuzick
Co./Dept.	Co.
Phone #	Phone # 201-966-2901
Fax # 201-802-1055	Fax #

CHRISTINE TODD WHITMAN
Governor

New Jersey
OF THE TREASURY
DIVISION OF PENSIONS AND BENEFITS
(609) 292-7524 TDD (609) 292-7718

CN-295
Trenton NJ 08625-0295
Location:
50 West State Street
Trenton, New Jersey

BRIAN W. CLYMER
State Treasurer
MARGARET M. MCMAHON
Director

November 18, 1996

Julia Gard-Zuzick
20 Stafford Drive
Madison, NJ 07940

RE: TPAF #351023

Dear Ms. Gard-Zuzick:

The Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund, at its meeting on November 15, 1996 approved your application for Ordinary Disability retirement effective January 1, 1997, under Option 1. You have the right to change this election to another type of retirement payment provided you file an amended application within 30 days from the date of the Board's approval; otherwise, the retirement will stand as approved and cannot be changed for any other reason whatsoever thereafter.

If you continue to receive a salary beyond the effective date of retirement, no retirement benefits shall be paid for the period where the member received salary and no salary or service credit shall be provided for the service rendered after the approved effective date of retirement. In addition, your employer shall be required to complete an updated Certification of Service and Final Salary.

Your retirement allowance as a disability retirant is subject to adjustment if your earnings from employment after retirement exceed the difference between the pension portion of your retirement allowance and the salary attributable to your former position.

The statute permits the Board of Trustees to require a disability retirant to undergo annual medical examinations to determine if he continues to be totally and permanently disabled and therefore eligible for continued receipt of his disability retirement allowance.

Your claim is being forwarded to our Retirement Bureau and all statistics regarding this account will follow. Your first retirement check cannot be disbursed until a minimum of 30 days has elapsed from the date of Board approval or your effective date, whichever is later. Shortly thereafter, you will receive your initial payment.

Sincerely,

Regina M. Thatcher, Secretary
Board of Trustees
Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund

jb
c: Parsippany-Troy Hills
Debbie Lane w/File

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9732-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 363-8/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF JULIA GARD-ZUZICK,	:
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS, MORRIS	:	DECISION
COUNTY.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 3, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 3, 1997

(SB) 60-97

DHPBL #313-97
SB # 60-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF J.W.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, June 13, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Gregory T. Syrek, Esq., of Counsel)

J.W. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school bus driver for the Hudson County Schools of Technology, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 revealed that she had been convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia in March 1992 following an arrest in February 1992.

In a letter decision dated June 13, 1997, the Assistant Commissioner of Education, Executive Services, upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

9/3/97

After a careful review of the record, we reverse the decision of the Assistant Commissioner. We find that petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia is not a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1.

N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 provides, in pertinent part:

> ....A school bus driver shall be disqualified from employment or service if the individual's criminal history record reveals a record of conviction of any of the following crimes and offenses:
>
> a. A crime or offense bearing upon or involving a sexual offense or child molestation or endangering the welfare of children or incompetents, as specified in section 1 of P.L.1986, c.116 (C.18A:6-7.1).
>
> b. A crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a "controlled dangerous substance" as defined in the "New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act," P.L.1970, c.226 C.24:21-1 et seq.).
>
> c. A crime or offense involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property including: armed robbery, assault, kidnapping, arson, manslaughter and murder.

The New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-1 et seq., defines controlled dangerous substance as "a drug, substance, or immediate precursor in Schedules I through V of article 2 of this act...." The only conviction revealed by petitioner's criminal history review in this case was for possession of drug paraphernalia. N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2.[2] Drug paraphernalia, however, as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1, are not listed in Schedules I through V of the Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-5 through N.J.S.A. 24:21-8.1, as a controlled dangerous substance.[3] As a result,

---

[2] N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2 provides:

> It shall be unlawful for any person to use, or to possess with intent to use, drug paraphernalia to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, manufacture, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, ingest, inhale, or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a disorderly persons offense.

[3] N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1 defines "drug paraphernalia" as:

petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia was not a "crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance' as defined in the 'New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act'" so as to constitute a disqualifying offense under subsection (b) of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Nor did such conviction involve a sexual offense within subsection (a) of that statute, or the use or threat of force within subsection (c).

Thus, given the clear terms of the statute, we reverse the decision of the Assistant Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service as a school bus driver. We stress in so doing, however, that while petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia is not a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1, nothing in our decision herein would require the Hudson County Schools of Technology to reemploy petitioner in her former position.[4]

Ronald K. Butcher abstained.

Donald C. Addison, Jr. and S. David Brandt opposed.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

> ...all equipment, products and materials of any kind which are used or intended for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, repackaging, storing, containing, concealing, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title....

[4] We note that, while not necessary for a determination of this case, petitioner has submitted evidence in support of her rehabilitation claim. The director of support services in the Hudson County Schools of Technology commends petitioner as "a productive employee with no indication of current difficulty." A freeholder in Jersey City indicates that petitioner "has performed her duties in a reliable, dependable fashion....She has earned our support and encouragement." Petitioner completed 28 counseling sessions with New Pathways Counseling Services in 1993, and also successfully completed a course in data processing at the Hudson County Area Vocational-Technical Schools in January 1994. There have been no further arrests.

(SB) 60-97

DHPBL #313-97
SB # 60-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF J.W.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, June 13, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, September 3, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Gregory T. Syrek, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Commissioner of Education, John K. Worthington, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

J.W. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school bus driver for the Hudson County Schools of Technology, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 revealed that she had been convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia in March 1992 following an arrest in February 1992. Petitioner appealed her disqualification to the Commissioner of Education, contending that she was rehabilitated.

The Office of Criminal History Review did not contest petitioner's appeal and, accordingly, the matter was not transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing. In a letter decision dated June 13, 1997, the Assistant Commissioner of

FEB. 4, 1998

Education, Executive Services, upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

Petitioner filed an appeal from that decision to the State Board. In support of her appeal, she argued that her conviction was not for a disqualifying offense and renewed her claim that she had demonstrated rehabilitation.

On September 3, 1997, we reversed the decision of the Assistant Commissioner, concluding that petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia was not a "crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance' as defined in the 'New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act'" so as to constitute a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1.[2]

In that the Office of Criminal History Review did not respond to petitioner's appeal, our determination was based solely on our review of the language of the statute in light of petitioner's arguments. As expressed in our decision, we reasoned that:

> The New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-1 et seq., defines controlled dangerous

---

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34 authorizes the Commissioner to assign to an assistant commissioner the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...."

[2] N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 provides, in pertinent part:

> ....A school bus driver shall be disqualified from employment or service if the individual's criminal history record reveals a record of conviction of any of the following crimes and offenses:
>
> a. A crime or offense bearing upon or involving a sexual offense or child molestation or endangering the welfare of children or incompetents, as specified in section 1 of P.L.1986, c.116 (C.18A:6-7.1).
>
> b. A crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a "controlled dangerous substance" as defined in the "New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act," (P.L.1970, c.226 C.24:21-1 et seq.).
>
> c. A crime or offense involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property including: armed robbery, assault, kidnapping, arson, manslaughter and murder.

> substance as "a drug, substance, or immediate precursor in Schedules I through V of article 2 of this act...." The only conviction revealed by petitioner's criminal history review in this case was for possession of drug paraphernalia. N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2. Drug paraphernalia, however, as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1, are not listed in Schedules I through V of the Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-5 through N.J.S.A. 24:21-8.1, as a controlled dangerous substance.[3] As a result, petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia was not a "crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance' as defined in the 'New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act'" so as to constitute a disqualifying offense under subsection (b) of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Nor did such conviction involve a sexual offense within subsection (a) of that statute, or the use or threat of force within subsection (c).

State Board's Decision, slip op. at 2-3.

On September 15, 1997, a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner of Education filed a motion on behalf of the Commissioner to participate in this matter for the purpose of seeking reconsideration/clarification of our decision of September 3, 1997. Our review of the Commissioner's submission indicates that he is not seeking to participate as a party litigant, but, rather, because the individual case involves "broad policy issues that go beyond the facts, and affect disqualification cases currently pending before the Commissioner...." Letter brief, at 1-2. See Hasbrouck Heights v. Division of Tax Appeals, 48 N.J. Super. 328 (App. Div. 1958); Public Service Interstate Transportation Co. v. Board of Public Utility Com'rs., 129 N.J.L. 94 (E. & A.

[3] N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1 defines "drug paraphernalia" as:

> ...all equipment, products and materials of any kind which are used or intended for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, repackaging, storing, containing, concealing, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title....

1942). In this respect, the Commissioner points out that the only issues raised by petitioner when the matter was before him related to rehabilitation. Hence, the Assistant Commissioner who decided this matter on his behalf had not been required to consider questions relating to the proper interpretation of the statute at issue.

In his letter brief, the Commissioner indicates that it has been a long-standing agency practice to disqualify individuals from school employment under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 based upon a conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia under N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2.[4] He further indicates that the Office of Criminal History Review and the Commissioner's Office have taken this position based upon a statutory interpretation which focuses on the language of N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2. That statute provides in pertinent part that:

> It shall be unlawful for any person to use, or to possess with intent to use, drug paraphernalia to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, manufacture, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, ingest, inhale, or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title....

The Commissioner argues that because the terms of N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2 predicate a conviction on the individual's use or intent to use the paraphernalia with a controlled dangerous substance, "it must be concluded that a conviction pursuant to this statute involves the manufacture, transportation, possession, sale or use of a [controlled dangerous substance]." Letter brief, at 6. (Emphasis added.) Hence, the Commissioner maintains, a conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia is an offense "involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance'" within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(b).

[4] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, which applies to school employees other than bus drivers, includes a provision which is identical to the language of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(b) disqualifying employees for drug offenses.

In response, counsel for petitioner argues that the Commissioner's motion should be denied because it presents an appearance of a conflict. He also reiterates the statutory interpretation he presented when we first considered this appeal.

After careful consideration, we grant the Commissioner's request to participate, and we have reconsidered our original decision in this appeal in light of the arguments he has presented. However, for the reasons that follow, and with the requirements set forth herein, we remand this matter to the Commissioner with the direction that he transmit it to the Office of Administrative Law for initial determination.

Initially, we stress that the legal question that has been raised by this appeal is one of first impression. As a result, the State Board has not been called upon previously to evaluate either the practice which the Office of Criminal History Review has followed when confronted with a criminal record reflecting a conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia under N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2 or the rationale upon which such practice has been based. Furthermore, we have been unable to identify any case in which the Commissioner has reviewed this practice and, on the basis of his review, analyzed and determined the issue now being raised. See New Jersey Department of Education v. Skwarek, decided by the Commissioner of Education, October 25, 1991 [cursory conclusion by ALJ that individual convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia, in combination with other drug offenses, was disqualified from continued "certification" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(b)].

On the surface, the interpretation being articulated by the Commissioner does not appear to be an unreasonable one. However, because such position has not been formally adopted by this agency and because the issue has not been previously litigated, we find that the proper course is to remand this matter to the Commissioner in accordance with the terms of our decision in order to consider all of the relevant legal arguments and circumstances relating thereto. Specifically, in addition to petitioner's arguments, the proceedings on remand should consider the effect, if any, of the Legislature's actions in expressly including drug paraphernalia in N.J.S.A. 2C:35-16.1 and N.J.S.A. 2A:18-61.1.[5]

In addition, we agree with the Commissioner that the issue now being raised is important from a policy perspective. As the Commissioner has presented it to us, the lynchpin of his approach is his interpretation of the word "involving" as it appears in N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Ordinarily, we would be compelled to give the word "involving" the same meaning when considering whether a conviction was disqualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(a) and (c) as we do when considering convictions for possession of drug paraphernalia under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(b). This would appear to bring inchoate crimes such as attempt and conspiracy within the purview of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 and to require that they also be considered disqualifying offenses. In the absence of express guidance from the Legislature, it is critical that the Commissioner have the opportunity in the first instance to thoroughly examine any implications that may follow from the statutory interpretation he is proposing.

[5] We note that both N.J.S.A. 2C:35-16.1, which provides for notice to a property owner of drug offenses committed by a tenant on his property, and N.J.S.A. 2A:18-61.1, which authorizes the eviction of a tenant following conviction for a drug offense which occurred on the rental premises, include language which is similar to the drug provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 except that they expressly include drug paraphernalia.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed herein, we remand this matter to the Commissioner with direction that the matter be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for further proceedings and an initial determination in conformity with our decision herein.[6] We retain jurisdiction and therefore direct the Commissioner to transmit this matter back to us once he has rendered his final decision.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

February 4, 1998

Date of mailing FEB 06 1998

[6] Given the procedural posture of this case, both the petitioner and the Office of Criminal History Review should be party to the proceedings on remand.

61-97

61-97

V.H., on behalf of minor, I.G.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,

PETITIONER,

V.

V.H., on behalf of minor, I.G.,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

FEBRUARY 10, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5713-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 153-4/95

V.H., on behalf of minor, I.G.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,

PETITIONER,

V.

V.H., on behalf of minor, I.G.,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 10, 1997

DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 10, 1997

(SB) 61-97

DHPBL #311-97
SB # 61-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF R.J.B. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, June 13, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, R.J.B., pro se

R.J.B. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school bus driver by the Bayonne Board of Education, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 revealed that he had been convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia in February 1997 following an arrest in May 1996.[1]

In a letter decision dated June 13, 1997, the Assistant Commissioner of Education, Executive Services, upheld the disqualification,[2] concluding that petitioner

[1] We note that petitioner had been charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance but had subsequently pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of possession of drug paraphernalia. We note, in addition, that petitioner had been convicted of a disqualifying offense, possession of marijuana, following an arrest in June 1983. However, in 1992, the Office of Criminal History Review determined that he had been rehabilitated and approved his school employment. Consequently, the only offense currently before us is for possession of drug paraphernalia in May 1996.

[2] N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

9/3/97

had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.

After a careful review of the record, we reverse the decision of the Assistant Commissioner. We find that petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia is not a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. However, we do find that petitioner is disqualified from employment as a school bus driver through September 21, 1997 as a result of the suspension of his driving privileges.

N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 provides, in pertinent part:

> ....A school bus driver shall be disqualified from employment or service if the individual's criminal history record reveals a record of conviction of any of the following crimes and offenses:
>
> a. A crime or offense bearing upon or involving a sexual offense or child molestation or endangering the welfare of children or incompetents, as specified in section 1 of P.L.1986, c.116 (C.18A:6-7.1).
>
> b. A crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a "controlled dangerous substance" as defined in the "New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act," P.L.1970, c.226 C.24:21-1 et seq.).
>
> c. A crime or offense involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property including: armed robbery, assault, kidnapping, arson, manslaughter and murder.
>
> A school bus driver shall also be disqualified if the individual's bus driver's license is currently revoked or suspended by the Division of Motor Vehicles in accordance with R.S. 39:3-10.1.

The New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-1 et seq., defines controlled dangerous substance as "a drug, substance, or immediate precursor in Schedules I through V of article 2 of this act...." The only conviction before us in this appeal is for possession of drug paraphernalia. N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2.[3] Drug paraphernalia, however, as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1, are not listed in Schedules I through V of the Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-5 through N.J.S.A. 24:21-8.1, as a controlled dangerous substance.[4] As a result, petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia was not a "crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance' as defined in the 'New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act'" so as to constitute a disqualifying offense under subsection (b) of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Nor did such conviction involve a sexual offense within subsection (a) of that statute, or the use or threat of force within subsection (c).

However, the record reveals that petitioner's driver's licenses are currently suspended as the result of his drug paraphernalia conviction. As previously noted, a school bus driver is disqualified from employment in such capacity if his or her bus driver's license is currently revoked or suspended. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Thus, although possession of drug paraphernalia is not a disqualifying offense under the

---

[3] N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2 provides:

> It shall be unlawful for any person to use, or to possess with intent to use, drug paraphernalia to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, manufacture, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, ingest, inhale, or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a disorderly persons offense.

[4] N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1 defines "drug paraphernalia" as:

> ...all equipment, products and materials of any kind which are used or intended for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, repackaging, storing, containing, concealing, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title....

statute, petitioner is disqualified from employment as a school bus driver through September 21, 1997, the expiration of that suspension.

In sum, given the clear terms of the statute, we are compelled to reverse the decision of the Assistant Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service as a school bus driver pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 on the basis of his conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia. Nonetheless, we conclude that petitioner is disqualified from such employment through September 21, 1997 as the result of the suspension of his driver's licenses. We stress, in addition, that while petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia is not a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1, nothing in our decision herein would require the Bayonne Board to reemploy him following the expiration of his current disqualification.[5]

Ronald K. Butcher abstained.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

[5] We note that, while not necessary for a determination of this case, petitioner has submitted letters in support of his rehabilitation claim. Petitioner's supervisor in Bayonne asserts that his "attendance, punctuality, and overall knowledge towards his position are excellent....[Petitioner's] dedication towards his position has been above the normal standards....All results of testing done since the original incident have proven that [petitioner] has not been involved in any type of drugs." Petitioner's supervisor at a part-time position commends him as "reliable, honest and trusting." Another supervisor in a part-time position praises petitioner as displaying "honest and honorable ethics." Petitioner participated in individual and group substance abuse therapy, and random drug tests administered between June 1996 and March 1997 were negative. He complied with all the conditions of his probation, and there have been no further arrests.

(SB) 61-97

DHPBL #311-97
SB # 61-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT :
OF R.J.B. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, June 13, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, September 3, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, R.J.B., pro se

For the Commissioner of Education, John K. Worthington, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

R.J.B. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school bus driver by the Bayonne Board of Education, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 revealed that he had been convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia in February 1997 following an arrest in May 1996. Petitioner appealed his disqualification to the Commissioner of Education, contending that he was rehabilitated.

The Office of Criminal History Review did not contest petitioner's appeal and, accordingly, the matter was not transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing. In a letter decision dated June 13, 1997, the Assistant Commissioner of Education, Executive Services, upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Petitioner filed an appeal from that decision to the State Board.

FEB. 4, 1998

On September 3, 1997, we reversed the decision of the Assistant Commissioner, concluding that petitioner's conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia was not a "crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance' as defined in the 'New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act'" so as to constitute a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1.

In that the Office of Criminal History Review did not respond to petitioner's appeal, our determination was based solely on our review of the language of the statute in light of petitioner's arguments. As expressed in our decision, we reasoned that:

> The New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-1 et seq., defines controlled dangerous substance as "a drug, substance, or immediate precursor in Schedules I through V of article 2 of this act...." The only conviction revealed by petitioner's criminal history review in this case was for possession of drug paraphernalia. N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2. Drug paraphernalia, however, as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1, are not listed in Schedules I through V of the Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, N.J.S.A. 24:21-5 through N.J.S.A. 24:21-8.1, as a controlled dangerous substance.[2] As a result, petitioner's conviction

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

[2] N.J.S.A. 2C:36-1 defines "drug paraphernalia" as:

> ...all equipment, products and materials of any kind which are used or intended for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, compounding, converting, producing, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, repackaging, > for possession of drug paraphernalia was not a "crime or offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance' as defined in the 'New Jersey Controlled Dangerous Substances Act'" so as to constitute a disqualifying offense under subsection (b) of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Nor did such conviction involve a sexual offense within subsection (a) of that statute, or the use or threat of force within subsection (c).

State Board's Decision, slip op. at 2-3.

On September 15, 1997, a Deputy Attorney General representing the Commissioner of Education filed a motion on behalf of the Commissioner to participate in this matter for the purpose of seeking reconsideration/clarification of our decision of September 3, 1997. Our review of the Commissioner's submission indicates that he is not seeking to participate as a party litigant, but, rather, because the individual case involves "broad policy issues that go beyond the facts, and affect disqualification cases currently pending before the Commissioner...." Letter brief, at 1-2. See Hasbrouck Heights v. Division of Tax Appeals, 48 N.J. Super. 328 (App. Div. 1958); Public Service Interstate Transportation Co. v. Board of Public Utility Com'rs., 129 N.J.L. 94 (E. & A. 1942). In this respect, the Commissioner points out that the only issues raised by petitioner when the matter was before him related to rehabilitation. Hence, the Assistant Commissioner who decided this matter on his behalf had not been required to consider questions relating to the proper interpretation of the statute at issue.

In his letter brief, the Commissioner indicates that it has been a long-standing agency practice to disqualify individuals from school employment under N.J.S.A.

> storing, containing, concealing, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title....

18A:39-19.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 based upon a conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia under N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2.[3] He further indicates that the Office of Criminal History Review and the Commissioner's Office have taken this position based upon a statutory interpretation which focuses on the language of N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2. That statute provides in pertinent part that:

> It shall be unlawful for any person to use, or to possess with intent to use, drug paraphernalia to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, manufacture, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, ingest, inhale, or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog in violation of the provisions of chapter 35 of this title....

The Commissioner argues that because the terms of N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2 predicate a conviction on the individual's use or intent to use the paraphernalia with a controlled dangerous substance, "it must be concluded that a conviction pursuant to this statute involves the manufacture, transportation, possession, sale or use of a [controlled dangerous substance]." Letter brief, at 6. (Emphasis added.) Hence, the Commissioner maintains, a conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia is an offense "involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, or habitual use of a 'controlled dangerous substance'" within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(b).

After careful consideration, we grant the Commissioner's request to participate, and we have reconsidered our original decision in this appeal in light of the arguments he has presented. However, for the reasons that follow, and with the requirements set forth herein, we remand this matter to the Commissioner with the direction that he transmit it to the Office of Administrative Law for initial determination.

[3] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, which applies to school employees other than bus drivers, includes a provision which is identical to the language of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(b) disqualifying employees for drug offenses.

This case raises the same legal issue as In the Matter of the Disqualification from School Employment of J.W., which we have decided today. As we stressed in our opinion in that appeal, this legal question is one of first impression. As a result, the State Board has not been called upon previously to evaluate either the practice which the Office of Criminal History Review has followed when confronted with a criminal record reflecting a conviction for possession of drug paraphernalia under N.J.S.A. 2C:36-2 or the rationale upon which such practice has been based. Furthermore, we have been unable to identify any case in which the Commissioner has reviewed this practice and, on the basis of his review, analyzed and determined the issue now being raised. See New Jersey Department of Education v. Skwarek, decided by the Commissioner of Education, October 25, 1991 [cursory conclusion by ALJ that individual convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia, in combination with other drug offenses, was disqualified from continued "certification" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(b)].

On the surface, the interpretation being articulated by the Commissioner does not appear to be an unreasonable one. However, because such position has not been formally adopted by this agency and because the issue has not been previously litigated, we find, as we did in J.W., supra, that the proper course is to remand this matter to the Commissioner in accordance with the terms of our decision in order to consider all of the relevant legal arguments and circumstances relating thereto.[4]

[4] We note that in contrast to the petitioner in J.W., who has been represented by counsel during the agency proceedings in her appeal, petitioner in this case has been acting pro se.

Specifically, in addition to petitioner's arguments, the proceedings on remand should consider the effect, if any, of the Legislature's actions in expressly including drug paraphernalia in N.J.S.A. 2C:35-16.1 and N.J.S.A. 2A:18-61.1.[5]

In addition, we agree with the Commissioner that the issue now being raised is important from a policy perspective. As the Commissioner has presented it to us, the lynchpin of his approach is his interpretation of the word "involving" as it appears in N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1. Ordinarily, we would be compelled to give the word "involving" the same meaning when considering whether a conviction was disqualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(a) and (c) as we do when considering convictions for possession of drug paraphernalia under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(b). This would appear to bring inchoate crimes such as attempt and conspiracy within the purview of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 and to require that they also be considered disqualifying offenses. In the absence of express guidance from the Legislature, it is critical that the Commissioner have the opportunity in the first instance to thoroughly examine any implications that may follow from the statutory interpretation he is proposing.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed herein and consistent with our decision today in In the Matter of the Disqualification from School Employment of J.W., we remand this matter to the Commissioner with direction that it be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for further proceedings and an initial determination in conformity with this decision.[6] We retain jurisdiction and therefore direct the Commissioner to transmit this matter back to us once he has rendered his final decision.

[5] We note that both N.J.S.A. 2C:35-16.1, which provides for notice to a property owner of drug offenses committed by a tenant on his property, and N.J.S.A. 2A:18-61.1, which authorizes the eviction of a tenant following conviction for a drug offense which occurred on the rental premises, include language which is similar to the drug provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 except that they expressly include drug paraphernalia.

February 4, 1998

Date of mailing FEB 06 1998

[6] Given the procedural posture of this case, both the petitioner and the Office of Criminal History Review should be party to the proceedings on remand.

62-97

62-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE ANNUAL	:
SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF BARNEGAT	:	DECISION
TOWNSHIP, OCEAN COUNTY.	:
_____	:

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4706-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 93-4/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE ANNUAL	:
SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF BARNEGAT	:	DECISION
TOWNSHIP, OCEAN COUNTY.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 11, 1997

(SB) 62-97

SBE #434-01/97
SB # 62-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE ISSUANCE OF :

AN EMERGENCY TEACHING CERTIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

CATE TO CHRISTOPHER ILCONICH. : DECISION ON MOTION

Decided by the State Board of Examiners, January 23, 1997

For the Appellant, Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak (Richard A. Friedman, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, Nancy Kaplen, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On July 7, 1997, Christopher Ilconich (hereinafter "respondent") filed a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education. It appeared from the notice that respondent was seeking to appeal a decision issued by the State Board of Examiners on January 23, 1997 denying an application he had made for emergency certification as a teacher of the handicapped. In that respondent's notice appeared to be untimely, we notified him in a letter dated July 9 that this matter was being referred to our Legal Committee and that he could make a submission relating to the untimeliness issue by July 21.

By letter dated July 15, 1997, respondent indicated that this matter had arisen from an order issued by the Board of Examiners to show cause why his Teacher of Elementary School certificate of eligibility should not be revoked or suspended, at which time the Board of Examiners had also taken action to "block" issuance of an emergency certification to him during the pendency of those proceedings. Respondent characterizes this appeal as interlocutory and contends that his notice was filed within the five-day time limit imposed by N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.3,[1] arguing that a letter dated June 23, 1997 from Ida Graham, Secretary for the Board of Examiners, constituted the first notice that may be used to assess the timeliness of his appeal. He further contends that the notice was timely because it was filed within five working days after June 27, 1997, the date on which he received Ms. Graham's June 23 letter.

9/3/97

After reviewing the record certified to us on behalf of the State Board of Examiners, we conclude that respondent had sufficient notice of the Board of Examiners' interim action upon receipt of a letter from Ida Graham dated May 12, 1997. By letter of that date, Ms. Graham advised respondent that:

> As noted in our April 28, 1997 reply, upon receipt of your client's request for reconsideration of the State Board of Examiners' previous decision to block issuance of an Emergency Teacher of the Handicapped License, the Board discussed, deliberated and determined at its April 3, 1997 meeting that there were insufficient reasons tendered to the Board in April to alter its earlier decision to block issuance of that license to Mr. Ilconich. The reasons for the January 23, 1997 determination were provided in our letter decision dated February 14, 1997.

Certainly such letter provided respondent with notice of the "action" from which he is now seeking leave to appeal sufficient to permit him to comply with the filing requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.3.

Moreover, we find that respondent's notice of appeal was not timely even if we accept his contention that June 27, the date on which he received the Board of Examiners'

---

[1] N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.3 provides that:

> Motion for leave to appeal an interlocutory order, decision or action shall be made by filing a motion for leave to appeal to the State Board of Education within five days after the action or service of the interlocutory decision or order. Motion for leave to appeal shall conform to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.18, except that the brief in support of the motion shall also include the merits of the issues sought to be appealed. The respondent's answer shall be filed within 10 days of service of motion.

June 23 correspondence, should be the operative date for assessing the timeliness of his notice. N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.3 requires that a motion for leave to appeal an interlocutory order or decision must be filed "within five days after the action or service of the interlocutory decision or order." Thus, even accepting June 27 as the operative date for assessing the timeliness of the appeal, respondent's notice would have been due on July 2, 1997. As noted, respondent did not file his notice until July 7. N.J.A.C. 6:2-2.3 does not provide five working days for filing a motion for leave to appeal, as respondent urges. Nor do we find the circumstances herein, as presented by respondent, to be such as to warrant relaxation of our rules. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.19.

Accordingly, we conclude that respondent's notice of motion for leave to appeal an interlocutory decision of the State Board of Examiners was not filed in a timely manner. We stress, however, that an interlocutory ruling may be subject to our review upon appeal from a final decision on the merits of the case. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10.

Finally, we note that although respondent sought to challenge a determination of the Board of Examiners to "block issuance" of an emergency certificate to him pending the outcome of proceedings to revoke his certificate of eligibility, see N.J.A.C. 6:11-4.4, an emergency certificate is, in contrast to standard certification, a substandard certificate issued for a period of one year only on application of a public school district. N.J.A.C. 6:11-4.3.

Maud Dahme recused herself from this matter.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

64-97

64-97 DHP

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EMPLOYMENT OF C.M.H.	:	DECISION
	:

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8331-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. DHP 60-96

IN THE MATTER OF THE	:
DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
EMPLOYMENT OF C.M.H.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and advisement of failure to appear transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, along with copies of notifications sent to the parties by OAL on January 1, 1997, providing them ten days to submit an explanation for such nonappearance, have been reviewed. There being no explanation filed by the parties, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 11, 1997

65-97

65-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE SPECIAL	:
ELECTION HELD IN THE SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DISTRICT OF WEST ORANGE,	:	DECISION
ESSEX COUNTY.	:
_____	:

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12393-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 464-12/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE SPECIAL	:
ELECTION HELD IN THE SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DISTRICT OF WEST ORANGE,	:	DECISION
ESSEX COUNTY.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 11, 1997

(SB) 65-97

SB #65-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE CERTIFICA- :
TION OF THE EDUCATION BUDGET OF :
THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CITY OF ATLANTIC CITY PURSUANT TO : DECISION
N.J.A.C. 18A:22-38, ATLANTIC COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, June 13, 1997

For the Appellant, Jacobs & Jacobs (Joseph M. Jacobs, Esq., of Counsel) and Michael C. Epps, Esq.

Based upon our review of the record in this matter, with particular attention to the arguments offered by the Atlantic City Board in support of its appeal, we conclude that the Board has failed to establish that it is necessary to restore $350,000 in line item reductions made by the Commissioner to its proposed budget for 1997-98 in order for it to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994. That being the case, the Commissioner's participation in this matter is not required and, accordingly, we have not addressed whether the submission made on his behalf in this appeal should be considered.

November 5, 1997

Date of mailing NOV 07 1997

66-97

M.J., on behalf of minor child, C.C.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5226-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 83-3/96

M.J., on behalf of minor child, C.C.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 11, 1997

(SB) 66-97

DHPL #276-97
DHPL #325-97
SB # 66-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF D.E.S. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, May 23, 1997

Decision on motion by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, June 19, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, D.E.S., pro se

The decision of the Assistant Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

November 5, 1997

Date of mailing NOV 07 1997

69-97

INTERLOCUTORY REVIEW

SUMMARY OF COMMISSIONER'S DECISION

Ruben Gonzalez, Paul J. O'Donohue, Claude Craig, and Steven G. Block v. State-operated School District of the City of Newark, Essex County

Petitioners, employees of the Newark Board prior to takeover, argued they were terminated without notice, contrary to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44b and c. They sought reinstatement with back pay.

ALJ found that certain nontenured employees are entitled to protection under the takeover statutes and that petitioners were potentially improperly terminated.

Commissioner granted motion for interlocutory review of the ALJ's order and established that there is a distinction between at-will termination of a particular employee pursuant to contract terms and abolishment of his position as part of the State reorganization, with the protections of the takeover statute applying only in the latter case. As recommended by the ALJ, the Commissioner directed matter proceed to further fact-finding.

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER DENYING MOTIONS

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 12388, 12390
12391 AND 12394-95
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 444-11/95,
441-11/95, 443-11/95, AND 442-11/95
(CONSOLIDATED CASES)

RUBEN GONZALEZ, PAUL J. O'DONOHUE,
CLAUDE CRAIG, AND STEVEN G. BLOCK,
Petitioners,

v.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT,
CITY OF NEWARK,
Respondent.

Philip Elberg, Esq., for petitioners (Medvin & Elberg, attorneys)

Derlys Maria Gutierrez, Esq., and Cherie L. Maxwell, Esq., for respondent (Sills, Cummis, Zuckerman, Radin, Tischman, Epstein & Gross, attorneys)

BEFORE DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Ruben Gonzalez, Ed.D. (Gonzalez or petitioner), Paul J. O'Donohue (O'Donohue or petitioner), Steven G. Block (Block or petitioner), and Claude Craig

(Craig or petitioner) filed petitions with the State Department of Education (DOE) on November 15, 1995. Petitioners requested relief pertinent to actions taken by the State-Operated School District of the City of Newark (District or respondent). Respondent filed answers on December 6, 1995. The DOE transmitted the matters to the Office of Administrative Law on December 18, 1995 for determination as contested cases pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A telephone conference was conducted on March 4, 1996, at which time it was agreed that the matters would be consolidated. An order to that effect was issued on March 7, 1996. Hearings scheduled for October 1996 were subsequently adjourned at the parties' requests.

Respondent filed a motion for summary decision on August 12, 1996. The deadline for the extension of a reply thereto was granted at petitioners' requests. Petitioners filed a reply to the District's motion and a cross-motion for summary decision on October 23, 1996. The deadline for the filing of a response thereto was extended at respondent's request. Respondent filed a response on November 25, 1996. Petitioners did not file a reply to the response to the cross-motion.

NATURE OF THE CASE

On July 11, 1995, the DOE removed the Newark Board of Education (Board) and created a State-Operated School District, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-34 et seq., commonly referred to as the "Takeover Statute." Petitioners were employees of the Board prior to the takeover. The District terminated petitioners' employment on August 17, 1995. Petitioners argue that they were terminated without notice, contrary to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44b and c, and that they therefore should be reinstated, with back pay. Respondent argues that those provisions are not applicable, that petitioners were "at will" employees, both before and after the takeover, and that they were not entitled to notice. The issues, broadly, are whether petitioners were entitled to notice and, if so, what relief should be granted.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon a review of the motion papers, I FIND the following to be material facts.

Petitioners were at-will employees of the Board. O'Donohue was appointed by the Board to the position of Director of Purchasing and Warehousing, effective September 1, 1980, and he served in that position until his termination, effective August 17, 1995. His accomplishments during his employment with the Board included automating the district's financial management and procurement system, assuming responsibility for fixed asset management, and utilization of a warehousing system for textbooks.

The position of Director of Purchasing and Warehousing is an unclassified civil service position. O'Donohue did not have tenure in any position he held with the Board. O'Donohue was a central administrative or supervisory employee of the Board.

Craig was employed by the Board effective May 4, 1993. From that date through June 1, 1989, he held various provisional positions under civil service statutes. The Board appointed Craig to the unclassified civil service position of Executive Director of Personnel, effective June 1, 1989. He was terminated from that position, effective August 23, 1991. The Board provisionally appointed Craig to the position of Hearing Officer, effective August 23, 1991. He remained in that provisional civil service appointment until his termination by respondent, effective August 17, 1995. Craig did not have civil service protection. Craig was not tenured in any position with the Board.

In his last position, Craig was employed in the Board's Office of Hearing Grievance. He was the Board's only hearing officer and heard approximately 500 cases annually. Craig never supervised any employees as a Hearing Officer.

Block was appointed by the Board to the position of Executive Director, in the Office of Accountability and Quality Assurance, effective October 31, 1994. His position did not have civil service status, and Block had no tenure in the position with the Board. Block was a central administrative or supervisory employee of the Board.

Block's position related to supporting and augmenting the Board's efforts to implement reform on a program of comprehensive school improvement. His responsibilities included the provision and encouragement of reviews, inspections, evaluations, and analyses utilized by teachers and principals, in-school managers and technical personnel, and essential office staff. His accomplishments included the design and implementation of senior staff review of the quality of reform initiatives, a planning and development effort to bring a school quality review process to the school district, and development and initial implementation of a peer review program designed to provide reviews of the quality of plans by Board personnel prior to implementation.

Gonzalez was appointed by the Board to the position of Executive Superintendent, effective July 1, 1993. He did not have tenure in any position with the Board and did not have civil service status. He was one of five Assistant Executive Superintendents, responsible for one of the five clusters of schools into which the district was divided. Gonzalez's responsibilities involved the supervision of Cluster 4, that part of the City with the largest portion of Hispanic students. From 1979 through 1982, he served as the Board's director of the English as a Second Language Program and Bilingual Education. Gonzalez was a central administrative or supervisory employee of the Board.

The State District Superintendent, Dr. Beverly Hall (Hall), was appointed to her position after the State Board of Education (State Board) removed the Board and created a State-Operated School District. The State assumed control on or about July 11, 1995. At that time, Hall was appointed as Acting Superintendent for up to one year.

On July 13, 1995, Block was called to a meeting with the interim acting State Superintendent. He was asked to provide an undated letter of resignation and was ensured that the incoming Acting State District Superintendent, Hall, would evaluate his job and performance and would, as a result, determine if he would be terminated, reassigned, or held-over.

On or about July 13, 1995, Gonzalez received a letter, dated July 13, 1995, from Barbara Anderson (Anderson), the then Acting District Superintendent. This letter read as follows:

> As you know, as an 'at-will' employee, you serve at the pleasure of the Acting State District Superintendent. Your employment is, therefore, subject to termination at any time without cause. However, to facilitate any employment actions that may be taken during this transition period, I am requesting letters of resignation from all central office district staff that serve in an 'at-will' capacity in the Newark School District. As we discussed, I would like you to submit that letter of resignation to me by noon tomorrow, July 14, 1995. In the event your resignation is accepted, you will be notified in writing by the Acting State District Superintendent.
>
> Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in an orderly transition to state operation of the Newark School District.
>
> [Exhibit A to Randall Kanter's (Kanter) certification in support of respondent's motion and Exhibit A to petitioners' cross-motion.]

On or about July 13, 1995, O'Donohue, Block and Craig received letters, dated July 13, 1995, from Anderson, similar to the letter sent to Gonzalez.

On or about July 13, 1995, Gonzalez submitted a letter of resignation to Anderson, dated July 13, 1995. This letter read as follows:

> As per your request, I am submitting my resignation as assistant executive superintendent, effective upon acceptance.
>
> [Exh. B to Kanter's certification in support of respondent's motion and Exh. B in support of petitioners' cross-motion.]

On or about July 13, 1995, O'Donohue, Block, and Craig submitted letters of resignation to Anderson similar to that submitted by Gonzalez.

On or about July 17, 1995, petitioners received letters from the Commissioner of the DOE (Commissioner), which were dated July 17, 1995 and which were sent to all employees of the District. The letters stated, in part, that:

> The administrators, teachers, and noninstructional employees of the Newark School District have a very special role to play in turning the district around quickly so that students can sense immediately that their future will be brighter. It is not the intention of the state to replace employees. Displaced administrators will have their tenure rights recognized within the district and those employees who are performing their duties satisfactorily for the students of Newark will remain employed.
>
> Improving the schools in Newark will be an extremely challenging task. I am a firm believer that the first and most important step in pursuing that success is the creation of a partnership among the state, the employees of the Newark School District, parents, and community leaders in the city.
>
> [Exh. E to petitioners' brief in opposition to respondent's motion and in support of petitioners' motion.]

On August 17, 1995, petitioners were informed that their resignations had been accepted. On August 17, 1995, O'Donohue was instructed to report to the Office of the Acting District Superintendent, where he was given a letter informing him that his letter of resignation had been accepted, effective immediately. He was not given any reason for his termination and was not told that his work was deficient in any manner. O'Donohue was required to leave the District that day. On that day, at approximately 11:00 a.m., Block was summoned to the Office of the Acting District Superintendent. Hope Blackburn, the Acting District General Counsel, and Carol Perry, the Acting District Chief of Staff, were present. Hall informed Block that she was accepting his letter of resignation. Hall indicated that Block had to be out of his office by 5 p.m. that day and that he would be entitled to any accrued vacation pay in lieu of days off.

Gonzalez received a letter from Hall, dated August 17, 1995, on or about August 17, 1995. That letter read as follows:

> This is to inform you that your letter of resignation dated July 13, 1995, from the position of Assistant Executive Superintendent has been accepted effective immediately. You are advised that you are entitled to assert a claim to any position or to placement upon a preferred eligibility list for any position to which you may be entitled within the district. District records indicate that you have no claim to any other position in the district. If you disagree, please advise me in writing no later than August 21, 1995, as to the position to which you claim an entitlement and the basis of that claim.
>
> Accordingly you are directed to vacate your office by the end of business today. You should report to Michael Popovitch to arrange to return all district property you currently possess. Please remove all of your personal belongings from the building.
>
> Be advised that you will be compensated for any unused accumulated vacation time. Thank you for your service to the district.
>
> [Exhibit C to Gonzalez's certification in support of petitioners' cross-motion.]

O'Donohue, Craig, and Block received similar letters on or about August 17, 1995.

DISCUSSION

The Takeover Statute provides that whenever the Commissioner determines, after the issuance of an administrative order, that a local school district has failed to assure a thorough and efficient system of education, the State Board may issue an administrative order removing the local district board of education and creating a State-operated school district. Such school district shall become effective immediately upon issuance of the State Board's order. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-34.

The schools of a State-operated school district shall be conducted by and under supervision of a State District Superintendent of schools, appointed by the State Board upon recommendation of the Commissioner. The State District Superintendent shall perform all duties and possess all powers heretofore and thereafter assigned, in Title 18 of the New Jersey Statutes, to central administrative and supervisory staff, instructional and noninstructional, including, but not limited to, the superintendent of schools, secretary of the board of education, school business administrator, school business manager, and assistants and clerks thereto. Id. at §35d (Supp. 1996). The State District Superintendent generally has the power to perform all acts and do all things necessary for the proper conduct, maintenance, and supervision of schools in the district. Id. at §e. The State District Superintendent may also make, amend, and repeal district rules, policies, and guidelines for the proper conduct, maintenance, and supervision of the schools in the district. Id. at §f.

When a State-operated district is established, collective bargaining agreements entered into by the school district shall remain in force, except as otherwise provided. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-40a. Also except where otherwise provided, all teaching staff members and other employees of a State-operated district shall retain and continue to acquire all rights and privileges acquired pursuant to Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes. Id. at §b.

All officers, employees, and consultants, professional and nonprofessional, certified and noncertified, shall be employed or retained, transferred and removed as provided in the Takeover Statute. Id. at §42a. The State District Superintendent may appoint, transfer, and remove clerks, pursuant to pertinent civil service and educational statutes. Id. at §(1). Subject to the approval of the Commissioner, the State District Superintendent shall appoint and set the salaries of such State assistant superintendents as the superintendent deems necessary and assign their duties and responsibilities. No State assistant superintendent shall acquire tenure, not withstanding any other provision of law. Id. at §(2). Also subject to the Commissioner's approval, the State District Superintendent, or his/her designee, shall make all personnel determinations regarding employment, transfer, and removal of all officers, employees, professional and nonprofessional, except that the services of the districts' auditor or auditors, and attorney or attorneys, shall be immediately terminated by creation of a State-operated school district. Id. at §(3). The State Superintendent may delegate any of his/her powers and duties. Id. at §b.

Except as otherwise provided, any individual serving under tenure or permanent civil service status shall retain all tenure rights and may continue to serve in the district pursuant to applicable statutory provisions. Such individuals shall perform only such duties prescribed or delegated by the State District Superintendent and for which he/she may be appropriately certified. Id. at §43.

The Takeover Statute also specifically addresses the employment status of certain categories of employees of the Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44, effective July 11, 1995, provides:

> a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or contract, the positions of the district's chief school administrator and those executive administrators responsible for curriculum, business and finance, and personnel shall be abolished upon creation of the State-operated school district. The affected individuals shall be given 60 days' notice of termination or 60 days' pay. The notice or payment shall be in lieu of any other claim or recourse against the employing board or the school district based on law or contract. Any individual whose position is abolished by operation of this subsection shall be entitled to assert a claim to any position or to placement upon a preferred eligibility list for any position to which the individual may be entitled by virtue of tenure or seniority within the district. No individual whose position is abolished by operation of this subsection shall retain any right to tenure or seniority in the positions abolished herein.
>
> b. Within one year of the establishment of the State-operated school district, the State district superintendent shall prepare a reorganization of the district's central administrative and supervisory staff and shall evaluate all individuals employed in central administrative and supervisory staff positions. The State district superintendent shall implement the reorganization on the July 1 next following its preparation, unless otherwise directed by the commissioner.
>
> c. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or contract, the positions of the central administrative and supervisory staff, instructional and noninstructional, other than those positions abolished pursuant to subsection a of this section, shall be abolished upon the reorganization of the State-operated school district's staff. The State district superintendent may hire an individual whose position is so abolished, based upon the evaluation of the individual and the staffing needs of the reorganized district staff. These individuals shall be hired with tenure if they had tenure in their prior position. If they did not have tenure in their prior position, they may obtain tenure pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A.

> 18A:28-6. Individuals hired as State assistant superintendents shall not be hired with tenure and shall not acquire tenure. Employees or officers not hired for the reorganized staff shall be given 60 days' notice of termination or 60 days' pay. The notice or payment shall be in lieu of any other claim or recourse against the employing board or the school district based on law or contract. Notwithstanding this limitation, nothing herein shall preclude an individual from asserting upon separation from service any legal contractual right to health care coverage, annuities, accrued vacation days, accrued sick leave, insurance and approved tuition costs. Any employee whose position is abolished by operation of this subsection shall be entitled to assert a claim to any position or to placement upon a preferred eligibility list for any position to which the employee may be entitled by virtue of tenure or seniority within the district. No employee whose position is abolished by operation of this subsection shall retain any right to tenure or seniority in the positions abolished herein.
>
> [Id. at §44 (Supp. 1996).]

The Takeover Statute also addresses the evaluation and dismissal of principals. Upon appointment, the State District Superintendent is required to establish an assessment unit to conduct on-site evaluations of each building principal in accordance with criteria established by the Commissioner and to render evaluation reports. A minimum of three evaluations are required for each principal within six months following the reorganization of the central and administrative staff. After the completion of an assessment cycle of not less than twelve months, the State District Superintendent may dismiss any tenured principal for certain specified reasons. A principal may also be dismissed prior to the completion of an assessment cycle if the basis for the dismissal is incapacity or unbecoming conduct. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-45.

Respondent argues that Section 44 of the Takeover Statute only applies to individuals who had tenure prior to the reorganization because the statute was not intended to give at-will employees greater rights than they had prior to a takeover. Petitioners argue to the contrary. I am not persuaded by respondent's analysis.

It is a long-standing principle of statutory construction that the plain and unambiguous terms of a statute are controlling:

> It is elementary that the meaning of a statute must come in the first instance, be sought in the language in which the Act is framed, and if that is plain, and if the law is within the constitutional authority of the law-making body, which passed it, the sole function of the courts is to enforce it according to its terms.
>
> [Caminetti v. United States, 61 L.Ed. 442, 455 (1916) (Caminetti).]

The standard articulated in Caminetti has been adopted in New Jersey. Greenway Development Co., 185 N.J. Super. 86 (App. Div. 1982). Although the Legislative intent "ultimately controls," the Legislative will must be interpreted as written, "not according to some supposed unexpressed intention." Hoffman v. Hock, 8 N.J. 397, 408-409 (1952). Accord, International Broth. of Elec. Workers v. Gillen, 174 N.J. Super. 326, 329 (App. Div. 1980) (International Broth.).

The general rule of statutory interpretation is that the language of the statute itself is the first indicator used. If the statute is by its terms clear and unambiguous on its face, ". . . we need delve no further than the act's literal terms to define the Legislature's intent." State v. Butler, 89 N.J. 220, 226 (1982). The statutory language should be given its ordinary meaning, ". . . absent specific intent to the contrary." Renz v. Penn Central Corp., 87 N.J. 437, 440 (1981). Accord, International Broth., supra. The facial meaning of the statutory language in question controls. International Broth., supra.

The plain language of Section 44 of the Takeover Statute divides central administrative and supervisory staff into two categories: One consists of those holding the positions of chief school administrator and executive administrators responsible for curriculum, business and finance, and personnel. Those positions shall be abolished immediately upon creation of a State-operated school district, and individuals holding them shall be given 60 days' notice of termination or 60 days' pay. All other positions of central administrative and supervisory staff shall be abolished upon the reorganization of a State-operated school district staff. As discussed hereinabove, the State District Superintendent may hire an individual whose position is abolished, based upon an evaluation of the individual and staffing needs of the reorganized district staff. Such individual shall be hired with tenure if he/she had tenure in a prior position.

Paragraph c of Section 44 references the treatment of individuals who did not have tenure in prior positions as well as those who did. These provisions evidence a Legislative intent that the pertinent provisions are applicable to at-will employees. In addition, contrary to provisions addressing individuals serving under tenure or permanent civil service status, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-43, as well as those pertinent to the evaluation of building principles, Id. at § 45, Section 44, on its face, applies to individuals who had tenure and those who did not prior to a takeover. Such a construction is also supported by the tenor of the Commissioner's letter of July 17 1995, although such is not determinative. The District's analysis is clearly at odds with the clear, unambiguous language of the pertinent statutory provisions. Respondent does not reference any Legislative history which supports its position, and in any event, as discussed, the facial language of the statute controls.

Adoption of respondent's position would also render provisions of Section 44 void. In interpreting a statute, consideration and effect must be given to all of the provisions. However:

> An inference of surplusage in a legislative enactment should not be readily entertained, and no statutory language should, if reasonably available, be found to be inoperative, superfluous or meaningless. A court certainly may not read out express provisions which continue to make sense on pure speculation that the Legislative meant to delete it or by some strained enlargement of an exception. . . . It is to be assumed that each word and phrase in a statute was incorporated by design of the Legislative, and the statute must be construed as a whole, giving effect to each and every portion thereof, in a manner consistent with the general scheme and intent of the whole [citation omitted].
>
> [State Bd. of Med. Examiners v. Warren Hospital, 102 N.J. Super. 407, 413-414 (Cty. Ct. 1968), aff'd, 104 N.J. Super. 409 (App. Div. 1969).]

The certification of Kanter, the District's Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources, which was filed in support of respondent's motion, states that O'Donohue, Block and Gonzalez were central administrative or supervisory employees of the Board. That certification is reflected in the above findings of fact. Kanter does not specifically address Craig's status in that respect, and petitioners argue that he was a member of the central administrative or supervisory staff.

Although the Takeover Statute does not define central administrative and supervisory staff, the great latitude given to the State District Superintendent in selecting personnel who comprise central office staff has been recognized. Cirasa v. State-Operated School of the District, City of Paterson, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 141, aff'd, (N.J. App. Div., Dkt. No. A-2408-93T2, Jan. 10, 1995). In Cirasa, the administrative law judge, whose decision was upheld by the Commissioner, the State Board, and the Appellant Division, noted that:

> N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44 establishes a two-part test for determining which positions fall within its scope: whether the particular position is 'administrative' or 'supervisory'; and, if so, whether the particular position belongs to the 'central office' as opposed to being building-based. Given the blurred lines of responsibility and confused organizational structure typical of a mismanaged local school district, the State District Superintendent is not bound by the outgoing administration's assignment of functions or duties [footnote omitted]. What truly matters is the function which each employee should be performing in an effectively managed school system.
>
> [Cirasa at 145-146.]

The fact that individuals may not have had policy-making authority is not determinative. Id. at 146. Nor is it determinative that individuals who are considered to be lower or middle-level managerial staff are eligible to join a collective negotiating unit. A crucial factor is whether or not the individuals in question have district-wide responsibilities and are therefore members of 'central' office staff. Ibid. In this respect, the fact that individuals may be 'cluster' supervisors assigned to a certain number of school buildings is not determinative. Ibid.

Although Craig's exact duties and assignments are not entirely clear, I am persuaded that there are no material facts in dispute regarding his prior employment and that he falls within that category of employees referenced in Section 44 of the Takeover Statute. As found, Craig was employed in the Board's Office of Hearing Grievances as a hearing officer, was the Board's only hearing officer, and heard approximately 500 cases annually. It is evident that his responsibilities were district-wide, not building-specific. The fact that he did not supervise other individuals is not, as discussed hereinabove, determinative. However, it is not clear if petitioners fall within N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44a or c.

Section 44b requires that a reorganization of a local district's central administrative and supervisory staff be completed within one year of the establishment of a State-operated district. Paragraph c clearly requires that the positions of the categories of employees referenced therein shall be abolished upon such a reorganization. The positions of such individuals, therefore, cannot be abolished until a reorganization has been completed. It is not clear from the motion papers if a reorganization was completed prior to the terminations of petitioners.

A motion for summary decision may be granted if the papers and any discovery, in addition to affidavits, demonstrate that there is no genuine issue regarding any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5.

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners held positions of the central administrative and supervisory staff, as referenced in N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44.

It is hereby ORDERED that petitioners' and respondent's motions for summary decision be and are hereby DENIED and that a hearing be conducted on the questions of whether petitioners fall within N.J.S.A. 18:7A-44a or c, whether respondent implemented a reorganization of central administrative and supervisory staff, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44b, and what relief should be granted to petitioners if they ultimately prevail.

This order may be reviewed by the Commissioner of the Department of Education either upon interlocutory review, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10 or at the end of the contested case, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6.

January 10, 1997
DATE

Diana C. Sukovich
DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ

njf

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12388, EDU 12390, EDU 12391 AND EDU 12394-95
(CONSOLIDATED)
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 441-11/95, 442-11/95, 443-11/95 AND 444-11/95

RUBEN GONZALEZ, PAUL J. O'DONOHUE, CLAUDE CRAIG, AND STEVEN G. BLOCK,	:
	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
PETITIONERS,	:	DECISION ON MOTION
V.	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

This matter has come before the Commissioner by way of Respondent's motion for interlocutory review of the ALJ's order denying the parties' cross motions for summary judgment. Relying on papers filed with the ALJ, respondent State-operated School District ("District") urges the Commissioner to find that, as a matter of law, the protections of N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44 do not apply to nontenured, at-will employees, who should have no greater protection under the "takeover" law than they would be accorded had the District remained under local control, and that, therefore, the ALJ should have summarily dismissed petitioners' appeals. Petitioners did not oppose the District's request for review of the ALJ's order on an interlocutory basis.

Upon consideration, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44 applies to both tenured and nontenured employees. He clarifies, however, that it applies only to those employees whose positions are abolished upon the establishment, or as a result of the reorganization of, a State-operated district; it does not apply to individual decisions to terminate employment where the underlying position is not abolished. Abolishment of a position and termination of employment are not synonymous and, in the latter circumstance, which is neither expressly addressed nor implicitly encompassed in the special statutory scheme governing establishment and operation of State-operated school districts, the terminated employee is afforded all the protections to which he or she would ordinarily be entitled by contract, tenure or civil service status, no more and no less.

Because the record herein is insufficient to establish whether petitioners' employment was terminated or their positions abolished and, if the latter, whether by operation of law (N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44a) or district reorganization (N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-44c), it remains necessary for this matter to proceed to further fact-finding as recommended by the ALJ. The Commissioner stresses, however, that should such fact-finding reveal that petitioners' positions were not abolished pursuant to these "takeover" statutes but, rather, that their individual employment was terminated by the lawful discretionary action of the State superintendent, as at-will employees they would be entitled to no relief in the instant proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 11, 1997

(SB) 69-97

DHPBL #406-97
SB # 69-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF C.M.P. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, August 8, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, C.M.P., pro se

The decision of the Assistant Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

November 5, 1997

Date of mailing NOV 07 1997

70-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF LEONARD J. MARANO, :
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE :
BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, :
MORRIS COUNTY. :

LEONARD J. MARANO, :
PETITIONER, :
V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE :
BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, DECISION
MORRIS COUNTY, :
RESPONDENT. :

LEONARD J. MARANO, :
PETITIONER, :
V.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE :
BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK,
MORRIS COUNTY, :
RESPONDENT. :
:

SYNOPSIS

In consolidated matter, Board certified tenure charges against School Business Administrator Marano for allegedly obtaining District funds under false pretenses; Marano appealed withholding of his increment; and Marano alleged Board acted without statutory authority in abolishing position of school business administrator.

ALJ found consolidated matter to be moot by virtue of the criminal action and forfeiture of Marano's position by order of the Superior Court. ALJ concluded Marano forfeited his position as business administrator and his right to public employment. Moreover, ALJ found that Marano was not entitled to any further payment after the 121st day of the certification of tenure charges due to the fact that the delays in this case were caused by, or attributable to, Marano and concerns regarding the criminal matter which was pending against him. ALJ ordered that the Board's motion for summary decision denying back pay to Marano for the period of time from October 1994 through April 3, 1995 be granted.

Commissioner affirmed in part/reversed in part the initial decision of the ALJ. The Commissioner initially concurred that the within matters, including the tenure charges, were rendered moot as a result of the criminal matter and Marano's subsequent forfeiture of his position. In this regard, Commissioner found without merit Marano's contention that there was no nexus between the criminal charges to which he pled guilty and his position in the District. Commissioner determined that, pursuant to the parties' agreement, Marano had an entitlement to salary beginning on December 15, 1994, when the hearing in this matter was rescheduled. Such salary entitlement terminated on March 16, 1995, when Marano's attorney requested that the matter be placed on inactive status. The Commissioner specifically noted, contrary to the conclusion of the ALJ, that the record contained no indication that Marano requested any postponement or inactive status during this period. Thus, the Commissioner ordered the within Petitions of Appeal be dismissed and that the Board compensate Marano in accordance with this decision.

FEBRUARY 13, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING SUMMARY DECISION

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF LEONARD J. MARANO, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOARD OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12098-93
AGENCY REF. NO. 406-12/93

LEONARD J. MARANO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8695-94
AGENCY REF. NO. 353-8/94

LEONARD J. MARANO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2040-95
AGENCY REF. NO. 477-12/94

Paul E. Griggs, Esq., for Leonard J. Marano

Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., for Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park

Record Closed: September 30, 1996 Decided: November 6, 1996

BEFORE MARYLOUISE LUCCHI-McCLOUD, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

These cases originally arose by way of tenure charges filed against Leonard J. Marano which were certified to and transmitted to the Commissioner of Education in December 1993. After that case had been transmitted for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13 to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) two other matters were filed in which Marano was the petitioner rather than the respondent. For these reasons Marano and Board of Education will be used rather than petitioner and respondent because the parties' positions change depending upon which of the consolidated cases is being discussed.

The matter was originally set down for hearing dates, however, after a number of conferences with the parties it was determined that the parties wished the matter to be placed on the inactive list because of a potential impending criminal indictment with respect to Marano. In the interim an order was signed placing the matter on the inactive list at the request of Marano for a period of four months. (C-1, ev.).

The order was signed in June 1994 and it stated that respondent waived his salary entitlement set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 during the period commencing on the date of the order and until the matter was rescheduled for hearing.

At that time a question arose as to payment of Marano between the 121st calendar day after the certification of tenure charges and the period of time when the matter was placed on the inactive list. During all points relevant to this and the related cases Marano has been suspended. With respect to that issue a motion was filed by the Board of Education to set up an escrow account for any moneys which would have been due pursuant to the statute up until the January 1, 1994 order placing the matter on the inactive list. The Board of Education requested to set up an escrow account rather than to pay Leonard J. Marano the moneys which, by statutory, were due to him. The Board of Education's motion was denied. (C-2). Although the motion was denied it dealt only with the period from the 121st day after which he had been suspended through June 1, 1994.

The related matters in this case were filed by Marano subsequent to the tenure charges. One matter was a petition questioning the withholding of a salary increment (EDU 8695-94) and the most recent of which contested the abolition of the position of school business administrator (EDU 2040-95). Although the original matter was resurrected from the inactive list, hearing dates in this matter have continually been adjourned at the request of the parties because of the federal indictment and the case which was being pursued in federal court on criminal charges.

Subsequent to disposition on the criminal charges a motion was brought in the Superior Court of New Jersey before the Honorable Reginald Stanton, A.J.S.C. requesting an order determining that Marano had forfeited his offices as business administrator/board secretary of the Board of Education of the Lincoln Park school district and any other public position held by him under the government of this State of any of its administrative or political subdivisions. An order was entered by the Superior Court on September 20, 1996 and it is deemed to have taken effect on November 2, 1995.

Of the original issues earmarked for summary decision only two remain for determination at this time and are dispositive of all three matters. The first was whether or not there was a forfeiture of Marano's positions. That has been answered by the Superior Court order and therefore is now moot in this proceeding. It is clear that by virtue of the order (C-3) Marano has in fact forfeited all rights to employment as detailed in the order.

The second issue is whether or not Marano is entitled to payment for the time of his suspension. Marano seeks payment for the period of October 14, 1994 through April 3, 1995. It is submitted by Counsel for Marano that the federal indictment and the continued joint requests for adjournment did not affect Marano's entitlement under the statute.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

In order to determine whether or not Marano should be paid for any period of time after the 121st day of his suspension has already been addressed by way of the order indicating that payment was required between the 121st day after certification of charges up until June 1, 1994 at which time he waived payment of his salary and the matter was placed on the inactive list.

The next question becomes whether or not from October 1994 on any entitlement to salary is contemplated by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14. That statutes states in pertinent part that upon certification of any charge to the Commissioner, the Board may suspend a person against whom such charges is made without pay however when a decision is not made on the charge by the Commissioner within 121 calendar days after certification of the charges, excluding all delays which are granted at the request of such person, then the full salary (except for said 121 days of such person) shall be paid beginning on the 121st day until such determination is made.

The history of this case makes it clear that while the matter was on the inactive list for a period of approximately four months each and every hearing date or event date whether by way of conference, in person or by telephone, adjournments were granted based upon requests of Marano in order to dispose of his criminal matter. While these requests were consented to it does not make any change in the fact that the delays were granted at the request of or caused by Marano. Even if there were some question about the timing of any of the subsequent hearing days which were removed and replaced based upon representations by Marano's attorney and largely timed by the events in the criminal case it should be clear that the very first adjournment which lead to the period of inactivity during which it is clear that Marano waived all entitlement to salary was at Marano's request. Each and every event and delay stemmed from that original request. On the original hearing dates this tribunal was prepared to go forward and determine the tenure charges. It was Marano who requested that that not occur due to the pending criminal matter. As a result the delays in this case are attributable to Marano and therefore, notwithstanding the reactivation of the case, any delays which occurred afterwards are attributable both by direct request and inferentially by the initial request which changed the timing of the entire matter, to Marano. As a result, other than the salary question already dealt with between the 121st day from the suspension to June 1, 1994, Marano is not entitled to receive salary benefits pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14.

CONCLUSION

As a result of the criminal matter and the forfeiture of his position the underlying cases are FOUND to be moot.

I further CONCLUDE that based upon the order Leonard Marano has in fact forfeited his position as business administrator and his right to public employment.

Additionally, I FIND that Leonard Marano is not entitled to any further payment after the 121st day of the certification of tenure charges due to the fact that the delays in this case were caused by Marano and concerns regarding the criminal matter which was pending against him and to which he had pled guilty and has now been sentenced.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the Lincoln Park Board of Education's motion for summary decision denying back pay to Leonard J. Marano for the period of time from October 1994 on while suspended by and hereby is GRANTED.

I further FIND that all three matters in this case are moot by virtue of the criminal action and the subsequent forfeiture order of the Superior Court. Therefore it is hereby ORDERED that the petitions in these cases be and hereby are DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision on this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

11/6/96
DATE

MARYLOUISE LUCCHI-McCLOUD, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

11-13-96
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

NOV 18 1996
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

am(FV)mxl

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For petitioner:

None

For respondent:

None

Evidence

C-1 Consent order

C-2 Order denying motion

C-3 Order dated September 20, 1996 by the Honorable Reginald Stanton

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 12098-93,
EDU 8695-94 and EDU 2040-95 (CONSOLIDATED)
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 406-12/93,
353-8/94 and 477-12/94 (CONSOLIDATED)

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF LEONARD J. MARANO, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY.	:
LEONARD J. MARANO, PETITIONER, V. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY, RESPONDENT.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION DECISION
LEONARD J. MARANO, PETITIONER, V. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY, RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Exceptions of Marano and replies thereto of the Board were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Marano's exceptions initially argue that the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) erred in concluding that the delays in this matter are attributable to him thereby precluding his claim for salary reimbursement during the pendency of this matter. He maintains that the only document present in the record which confirms his consent to the placing of the tenure matter on inactive status is the Consent Order, dated June 15, 1994, which placed such matter on inactive status for a period not to exceed four months. Marano contends that the record is totally devoid of any other facts which would substantiate the ALJ's conclusion that subsequent delays in these proceedings were attributable to him.

Marano next argues that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 et seq., he must be granted a hearing to determine whether he is entitled to be paid for the initial 120 days he was placed on suspension. In this connection, he asserts that the crime to which he pled guilty was tax evasion and, other than some ambiguous language set forth in his federal plea agreement with respect to "abuse of trust," "there is not one scintilla of evidence to support the Board's position that the crime to which [he] pled guilty to (sic) touched his position as School Business Administrator, and therefore [that] the forfeiture is depositive (sic) of the tenure charge. (Marano's Exceptions at p. 2) Marano presents specific quoted portions of the transcript of his plea before the Honorable Judge Ackerman which, he argues, establish that there is no nexus between the tax evasion charges and his position or, for that matter, the tenure charges. Marano, therefore, asserts that his claim to salary entitlement for the initial 120-day period of his suspension is not a moot issue as concluded by the ALJ and he urges that this matter be remanded for a plenary hearing.

In response, with respect to the ALJ's attributing the delays in the adjudication of this matter to Marano, the Board contends that "[it] is unclear why, at this late date, Mr. Marano continues to dispute his request for placement of this matter on inactive status." (Board's Reply Exceptions at p. 1) It asserts that the request for inactive status, which occurred on the eve of the commencement of the proceedings of the tenure matter, was clearly initiated by Marano with the clear intent of placing this matter on inactive status pending the outcome of the criminal charges. The Board urges that the language of the Consent Order of June 15, 1994 memorializing the parties' agreement to delay proceedings, which specifies a delay "not to exceed 4 months," was simply "utilized for the purpose of placing on the calendar a follow-up conference with respect to the status of the criminal matter." (Id. at p. 2) It asserts that it is undisputed that this delay in the proceedings is solely attributable to Marano.

With regard to the mootness of the tenure charges, the Board argues that Marano "continues to ignore the language of his plea agreement and the transcript of the sentencing before the Honorable Harold Ackerman of the Federal District Court. Both of these documents prove a nexus between the actions of Mr. Marano and his convictions of tax evasions." (Id. at p. 3) The Board urges that Marano quotes only selected portions of the transcripts in order to provide the Commissioner with "an incomplete and tainted view of the proceeding." (Id.) It requests the Commissioner to review the entire transcripts of both the plea agreement and sentencing to clearly understand what actually transpired on those occasions.

Upon an independent and comprehensive review of the entire record in this matter and the exceptions advanced by the parties, the Commissioner agrees with the conclusion of the ALJ that the within cases, including the tenure charges, have been rendered moot as a result of the criminal matter and the subsequent forfeiture of Marano's position. The Commissioner finds Marano's argument that he is entitled to a hearing on the tenure charges to establish his claim to payment for the 120 days of his initial suspension because there is no nexus between the crime to which he pled guilty in federal court and his position as School Business Administrator in the District, without merit. The Commissioner concludes that a reasoned reading of the full context of the transcript of Marano's criminal plea on November 2, 1995 and that of his sentencing on June 18, 1996 before the Honorable Harold A. Ackerman of Federal District Court, establishes that there is a readily apparent nexus between the crimes to which Marano pled guilty and his position in the District. The Commissioner finds equally meritless Marano's assertion that the language in his federal plea agreement with respect to "abuse of trust" is ambiguous. Rather, in light of the record before him and the clear language of the federal sentencing guidelines detailing the applicability of this term in matters of this type, the Commissioner determines that the resultant conclusion is unmistakable. In this connection, the Commissioner notes that it is undisputed that Marano's plea agreement contains a stipulation wherein he agrees that a 2 level enhancement to his penalty in the tax evasion matters for "abuse of position of trust" is appropriate. It is further noted that such enhancement is made pursuant to U.S. Sentencing Guidelines (U.S.S.G.) Section 3B1.3 which provides

> If the defendant abused a position of public or private trust  in a manner that significantly facilitated the commission or concealment of the offense, increase by 2 levels.
> (Guidelines Manual dated November 1, 1994, at 232)

Moreover, the applicability of this provision is clarified in 1. of the Commentary to this Section which specifies

> "Public or private trust" refers to a position of public or private trust characterized by professional or managerial discretion (i.e., substantial discretionary judgment that is ordinarily given considerable deference). Persons holding such positions ordinarily are subject to significantly less supervision than employees whose responsibilities are primarily non-discretionary in nature. For this enhancement to apply, the position of trust must have contributed in some significant way to facilitating the commission or concealment of the offense (e.g., by making the detection of the offense or the defendant's responsibility for the offense more > difficult). This adjustment, for example, would apply in the case of an embezzlement of a client's funds by an attorney serving as a guardian, a bank executive's fraudulent loan scheme, or the criminal sexual abuse of a patient by a physician under the guise of an examination. This adjustment would not apply in the case of an embezzlement or theft by an ordinary bank teller or hotel clerk because such positions are not characterized by the above-described factors. (emphasis added) (Id.)

In that Marano expressly acknowledges and agrees that his criminal conduct constituted an abuse of a position of trust, and given the specificity of the applicability of this penalty enhancement, the Commissioner finds Marano's contention that there is no nexus between his criminal conduct and his position in the District incomprehensible. Consequently, the Commissioner resolves that Marano can claim no entitlement to compensation for the initial 120-day term of his suspension.

As to whether Marano has any entitlement to salary for the period October 14, 1994 through April 3, 1995 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14, the Commissioner cannot agree that the record substantiates the conclusion of the ALJ that Marano is not entitled to receive any salary benefits for this period. Initially, in this regard, the Commissioner observes that 2. of the parties' Consent Order dated June 14, 1994 specifies

> The salary entitlement of Respondent as set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 is hereby waived during the period commencing on the date of this ORDER to and until the matter is rescheduled for a hearing. (emphasis added)
> (Consent Order dated June 15, 1994 at p. 2)

The Commissioner further notes that the record before him substantiates that on December 13, 1994, counsel for Marano wrote to the ALJ requesting that this case be activated and hearing dates scheduled, which was accomplished by Notice of Plenary Hearing from the OAL, dated December 15, 199[4], wherein the parties were advised that this matter was rescheduled for hearing on April 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 11, 1995. Notwithstanding the Board's argument in the record of this matter that the actual intent of the Consent Order executed by the parties was that Marano was waiving his entitlement to salary until the hearing "commenced," the clear, unambiguous language of the consent agreement belies such an interpretation. As such, the Commissioner concludes that pursuant to the parties' agreement, Marano's entitlement to salary began on December 15, 1994, when the hearing in this matter was rescheduled. The Commissioner further concludes that such salary entitlement ceased on March 16, 1995 when, according to the certification of Marano's counsel in his June 12, 1995 motion papers

> On March 16, 1995, a telephone conference was held with the court and the parties[']' respective counsel at which time Respondent's counsel requested the hearing originally scheduled to begin on April 3, 1995 be adjourned and that the matter be again placed on inactive status on that date.
> (Certification of Paul E. Griggs dated March 22, 1995 at p. 2)

As such, the Commissioner determines that Marano is entitled to salary payment for the period of December 15, 1994 through March 15, 1995.[1] [2]

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL is affirmed in part and reversed in part as detailed herein. The within Petitions of Appeal are hereby dismissed and the Board is ordered to compensate Marano in accordance with this decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[1] It is noted that the record contains no indication that Marano requested any postponement or inactive status during the period December 15, 1994 through March 15, 1995.

[2] Marano was indicted on March 22, 1995, at which time the Board, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.3, would have been entitled to suspend him without pay.

70-97

EDU #12098-93, #8695-94 and #2040-95 (consolidated)
C # 70-97
SB # 22-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF LEONARD J. MARANO, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,

AND

LEONARD J. MARANO,

PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,

RESPONDENT-APPELLANT,

AND

LEONARD J. MARANO,

PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,

RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 13. 1997

For the Petitioner/Respondent-Appellant, Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq.

For the Respondent/Petitioner-Respondent, Paul E. Griggs, Esq.

JUNE 7, 2000

This consolidated matter involves tenure charges certified in December 1993 against Leonard J. Marano (hereinafter "Marano"), who had been employed by the Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park (hereinafter "Board" or "Lincoln Park Board") as its Business Administrator/Board Secretary since October 1982. Those charges alleged that Marano had misappropriated funds from the district. On November 2, 1995, Marano pled guilty in U.S. District Court to two counts of tax evasion. Thereafter, by an order of the Superior Court dated September 20, 1996, Marano was deemed to have forfeited his position with the Board as of November 2, 1995.

On February 13, 1997, the Commissioner of Education adopted the conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge that the tenure charges against Marano had been rendered moot as a result of the disposition of the criminal charges against him and the resultant forfeiture of his position. The Commissioner, however, rejected the ALJ's determination that the Board was not obligated to pay Marano his salary for the period after December 15, 1994, when the tenure matter had been removed from the inactive list and rescheduled for hearing at the request of Marano's attorney. The Commissioner concluded, however, that Marano's entitlement to pay during the period of his suspension ended on March 16, 1995, when his attorney requested that the matter be adjourned and placed again on the inactive list. See N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14.[1]

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 provides, in pertinent part, that:

> Upon certification of any charge to the commissioner, the board may suspend the person against whom such charge is made, with or without pay, but, if the determination of the charge by the Commissioner of Education is not made within 120 calendar days after certification of the

The Lincoln Park Board appealed that determination to the State Board, claiming that it should not be responsible for the payment of any additional salary to Marano. Thus, the appeal before us is limited to the issue of whether the Commissioner properly determined that the Board was required to pay Marano his salary for the period from December 15, 1994 through March 15, 1995.

After reviewing the record in this matter, we affirm the decision of the Commissioner as clarified herein.

Initially, we agree with the Commissioner that Marano did not waive his claim to salary for the controverted period by virtue of a Consent Order signed by the ALJ on June 15, 1994. By the express terms of that Order, the Board and Marano agreed to place this matter "on inactive status for a period not to exceed four (4) months" and, "during this said inactive period," Marano agreed "to forgo any legal right he has pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 to receive his full salary." The Order directed that Marano's entitlement to salary was waived "until the matter is rescheduled for a hearing." On December 15, 1994, the case was rescheduled for hearing on April 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10 and 11, 1995. The fact that the matter was adjourned once again at Marano's request in March 1995 does not alter his entitlement to salary under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 for this limited period.

> charges, excluding all delays which are granted at the request of such person, then the full salary (except for said 120 days) of such person shall be paid beginning on the one hundred twenty-first day until such determination is made. Should the charge be dismissed, the person shall be reinstated immediately with full pay from the first day of such suspension. Should the charge be dismissed and the suspension be continued during an appeal therefrom, then the full pay or salary of such person shall continue until the determination of the appeal....

We reject the Board's contention that this result is altered by the fact that it took action in September 1994 to eliminate the position of Business Administrator/Board Secretary, or, in the alternative, that this matter should be remanded for further proceedings on Marano's petition challenging the action by the Board to abolish his position during the pendency of the tenure proceedings. As determined by the Commissioner, the tenure charges against Marano were rendered moot by the subsequent forfeiture of his position. In addition, we find that Marano's challenge to the abolishment of his position has been rendered moot by virtue of the fact that no further relief could be afforded him if his petition challenging such action were to be reinstated. If he ultimately were to prevail on that claim, he would not be entitled to any compensation beyond the amount awarded herein. Nor, given the forfeiture of his employment, would he be entitled to placement on a preferred eligibility list for possible future employment. Under these circumstances, we reject the view that the Board can avoid its obligations under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 by now raising as an affirmative defense the contention that it had acted properly to eliminate Marano's position pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 during the pendency of the tenure charges.

Therefore, as clarified herein, we affirm the Commissioner's determination that the Board was responsible for the payment of Marano's salary for the period from December 15, 1994 through March 15, 1995.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

June 7, 2000

Date of mailing JUN 09 2000

70-97

EDU #12098-93, #8695-94 and #2040-95 (consolidated)
C # 70-97
SB # 22-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF LEONARD J. MARANO, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,

AND

LEONARD J. MARANO,

RESPONDENT/PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY, PETITIONER/RESPONDENT-APPELLANT,

AND

LEONARD J. MARANO,

RESPONDENT/PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY,

PETITIONER/RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 13, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, June 7, 2000

Remanded by the Appellate Division, March 28, 2002

For the Petitioner/Respondent-Appellant, Lindabury, McCormick & Estabrook (Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent/Petitioner-Respondent, Paul E. Griggs, Esq.

This matter is before us pursuant to a remand by the Appellate Division. The case involves tenure charges certified in December 1993 against Leonard J. Marano (hereinafter "Marano"), who had been employed by the Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park (hereinafter "Board" or "Lincoln Park Board") as its Business Administrator/Board Secretary since October 1982. Those charges alleged that Marano had misappropriated funds from the district. On November 2, 1995, Marano pled guilty in U.S. District Court to two counts of tax evasion. Thereafter, by an order of the Superior Court dated September 20, 1996, Marano was deemed to have forfeited his position with the Board as of November 2, 1995.

On February 13, 1997, the Commissioner of Education adopted the conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") that the tenure charges against Marano had been rendered moot as a result of the disposition of the criminal charges against him and the resultant forfeiture of his position. The Commissioner, however, rejected the ALJ's determination that the Board was not obligated to pay Marano his salary for the period after December 15, 1994, when the tenure matter had been removed from the inactive list and rescheduled for hearing at the request of Marano's attorney. In this respect, the Commissioner found that the record before him substantiated that on December 13, 1994, counsel for Marano had written to the ALJ requesting that the case be activated and hearing dates scheduled and that this had been accomplished by a Notice of Plenary Hearing dated December 15, 1994 from the Office of Administrative Law rescheduling the matter for hearing on April 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 11, 1995. Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 12. The Commissioner concluded, however, that Marano's entitlement to pay during the period of his suspension ended on March 16, 1995, when his attorney requested that the matter be adjourned and placed again on the inactive list.

The Lincoln Park Board appealed that determination to the State Board, claiming that it should not be responsible for the payment of any additional salary to Marano. Thus, the appeal before the State Board was limited to the issue of whether the Commissioner had properly determined that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 required the Board to pay Marano his salary for the period from December 15, 1994 through March 15, 1995.

On June 7, 2000, the State Board affirmed the decision of the Commissioner with clarification. The Lincoln Park Board appealed to the Appellate Division from our determination.

On March 28, 2002, the Appellate Division reversed our decision. In doing so, the Court found that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14, which provides that salary payments to an individual who is suspended pending the determination of tenure charges must be resumed if the Commissioner has not made his determination within 120 days following certification of the charges, was clearly intended to protect the employee from the negative effect of unavoidable or intentional delay in the resolution of the charges. The Court stressed that the statute expressly excludes all delays which are granted at the request of the employee and, viewing the entirety of the circumstances, found that it was apparent from the record that Marano had no desire to proceed with the "appeal from his disciplinary dismissal" until the federal criminal charges against him were resolved.

The Court concluded that the Commissioner and the State Board had violated the legislative policy of the statute that an employee who is the subject of tenure charges cannot benefit from delay occasioned by his own requests and that this was particularly true in this case given "the ultimate result of both the criminal charges and the disciplinary appeal." Slip op. at 13. In so concluding, the Court found that "[c]learly, the delay in meeting the one-hundred-and-twenty-day time requirement specified in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 was an accommodation to Morano [sic], not Lincoln Park." Id.

On this basis, the Court reversed our decision and remanded the matter to the State Board for "adoption of an amended final administrative decision adopting the recommendation of the ALJ that Morano's [sic] request for salary entitlement under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 is denied." Id. To the extent that adoption of such a decision is required to effectuate the Court's determination that Marano was not entitled to the salary payments he sought pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14, and given the comprehensive system of appeals in place in this agency, Laba v. Newark Board of Education, 23 N.J. 364 (1957); In re Masiello, 25 N.J. 590 (1958), the appropriate course is to remand this matter to the Commissioner for implementation of the Court's remand. Accordingly, we remand the matter to the Commissioner.

May 1, 2002

Date of mailing MAY 03 2002

74-97

74-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
MICHAEL AND MARIE VANNI,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

FEBRUARY 18, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12118-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 423-10/95

BELLEVILLE BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Petitioner,
v.
MICHAEL and MARIE VANNI,
Respondents.

Frank Pomaco, Esq., for petitioner
(Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck, attorneys)

Samuel J. McNulty, Esq., for respondents, (Hueston, McNulty & Mueller, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 23, 1996 Decided: January 2, 1997

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of Facts

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on November 27, 1995, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached stipulation indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Jan. 2, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 3, 1997
DATE

D. M. Centanni Jr.
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 6 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

DEC 23 11 48 AM '96

GACCIONE, POMACO & BECK
A Professional Corporation
524 Union Avenue
P.O. Box 96
Belleville, NJ 07109
(201) 759-2807

Attorneys for

BELLEVILLE BOARD OF EDUCATION Petitioner, vs. MICHAEL VANNI and MARIA VANNI Respondent.	OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU 12118-95 STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The parties agree to settle this case on the following terms and conditions:

1. Mr. & Mrs. Vanni shall pay to the Belleville Board of Education a lump sum of $2,000.00, which sum shall be payable in installments as follows:

a. $500.00 within ten (10) days of the execution of this Settlement Agreement;

b. $200.00 per month for six months, the first installment of which shall be due thirty (30) days after the date of execution of the Settlement Agreement, with the other payments every thirty (30) days thereafter;

c. $300.00 final payment, which shall be due thirty (30) days after the final $200.00 installment.

2. The Vannis shall not reside at the condominium at 2 Honiss Street, Unit 13A, while their daughter is in attendance at the Belleville Public Schools. The Vannis shall reside at 341 Franklin Avenue in Belleville, New Jersey or in another legitimate Belleville residence, proof of which shall be submitted to the Board in the event the Vannis move from their current domicile at 341 Franklin Avenue, Belleville, New Jersey.

DATED: 12/18/96

FRANK POMACO, ESQ.
For Petitioner Belleville
Board of Education

DATED: 12/18/96

RALPH MAZZUCCA
President of the Belleville
Board of Education

DATED: 12/16/96

SAMUEL J. McNULTY, ESQ.
For Michael Vanni and Maria Vanni

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12118-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 423-10/95

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY, PETITIONER, V. MICHAEL AND MARIE VANNI, RESPONDENTS.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION DECISION

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

The Commissioner notes, however, that the terms of the settlement appear to have commenced effectuation prior to the Commissioner's approval. He, therefore, reminds the parties that they acted at their peril in so doing and cautions them and other litigants whose controverted matters have been duly transmitted to OAL against beginning effectuation of any settlement prior to its submission to, and approval by, the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 18, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 18, 1997

75-97

J.A., on behalf of her minor niece, T.C., :

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning aunt alleged that her minor niece, T.C., was wrongfully denied admission to respondent's school district in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1.

ALJ determined that T.C. was not living with petitioner solely for the purpose of attending a South Orange school. Petitioner demonstrated that T.C.'s mother was not capable of care or support because of family and economic hardship. ALJ ordered that the Board provide a free public education to T.C. pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1) as of the date of application for admission.

Commissioner adopted as his final decision the initial decision granting petitioner's appeal to set aside the Board's decision to disenroll her niece. Commissioner ordered the Board to admit T.C. into its public school system, free of charge, so long as there is no change in petitioner's circumstances that would alter T.C.'s entitlement. Commissioner dismissed Board's counterclaim.

February 19, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3562-96
Agency Dkt. No. 54-2/96

J.A., on behalf of her minor niece, T.C.
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE and MAPLEWOOD, NEW JERSEY,
Respondent.

Ellen M. Boylan, Esq., for petitioner
(Education Law Center, David Sciarra, Executive Director, attorneys)

Glenn R. Moran, Esq., for respondent
(Leary, Bride, Tinker and Moran, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 18, 1996 Decided: January 2, 1997

BEFORE SEBASTIAN GAETA, JR., ALJ:

STATEMENT OF CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner contests the respondent Board of Education action of February 8, 1996 (Exhibit J-2), under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, denying admission of T.C., her niece, to its public schools on the grounds that the evidence presented to respondent Board of Education does not support the validity of the claim that T.C. is entitled to a free education in respondent's school district. Upon notice of the filing, as required by the statute, Jacqueline L. Cusack, Ed.D., Assistant Superintendent, Educational Planning, Policy and Special Projects, by her letter of February 20, 1996, (Exhibit R-1) notified petitioner that her niece, T.C. would be permitted to attend High Columbia School during the pendency of the proceedings.

The matter was transmitted by the Department of Education to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested matter pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 13.

MATTERS PRESENTED

The matter was heard on November 1, 1996. Counsel were granted leave to submit post hearing briefs. Upon receipt the record was closed.

Petitioner, J.A., whose occupation is as a county social worker, testified. T.C., now 17, her niece, is the daughter of J.A.'s sister, Delphine. T.C.'s father was killed in 1988 during a holdup.

As an infant Delphine suffered a severe adverse reaction to penicillin. She has always been child like and is probably mentally retarded. Although Delphine has never been able to work, J.A. could not convince her mother to apply for SSI (Supplemental Security Income) on behalf of Delphine. Delphine, who now has a five year old child, and T.C. lived with J.A.'s and Delphine's mother in her house in Elizabeth, until she died in 1993. Without the mother, Delphine, who was then over 300 lbs., and the two children were living in one room. T.C. had to sleep on the floor until she appealed to an uncle to let her stay with him and his teenage son in an efficiency apartment equipped with bunk beds. The uncle expected to be find larger quarters and also took in a brother and his 15 year old son. T.C. was then sharing a sleeping area with two teenage boys.

Petitioner was very concerned about T.C.'s living condition but was reluctant to take on that responsibility when she had two children of her own and the custody of a nephew, K.G. When her daughter began college at Howard University she asked her mother to let T.C. live in her room in the house petitioner then owned in Berkeley Heights. T.C. moved in and, after affidavits were filed on her behalf, she enrolled in the Governor Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights, (Exhibit J-3) along with K.G. The two children remained in school in Berkeley Heights until petitioner sold her house there and purchased her present home in South Orange.

On February 4, 1996, she registered T.C. (Exhibits R-2, R-3) and K.G. for school in the South Orange and Maplewood School District. Separate affidavits of residency were submitted on behalf of T.C. (Exhibits J-1) and K.G. (Exhibit J-5). Attached to that submitted for K.G. were letters of guardianship, petitioner's U.S. Individual Tax Return, Form 1040, listing K.G. as a dependent for tax purposes and a card indicating he was included in her medical insurance plan.

K.G. was accepted for admission. (Exhibit J-5).

Petitioner did not seek guardianship for T.C. as she did K.G. Reasons for not doing so included that T.C. still had a mother, whereas K.G. had lost both parents. Also, by the time, T.C. came to live with her she was close to adulthood and will be 18 on April 1, 1997. She did not include her as a dependent on her income tax return because the only way T.C. can go on to college, which she wants to do, is by scholarship and she did not want to have her income count against her for scholarships based on need.

Two affidavits were submitted on behalf of T.C., petitioner's and Delphine's which petitioner filled in for her to sign before a notary public (Exhibit J-1). Also attached is petitioner's handwritten letter further amplifying the affidavits.

As noted in that letter, T. C. is without health coverage. Recently, she experienced a gynocological problem while at school and the nurse told her that she needed a medical checkup. Without medical coverage, petitioner cannot help T.C. and has advised her to contact Planned Parenthood which may provide her medical examination for free.

T. C. is a good student with a "B" average. Petitioner would like her to attend one of the predominantly black colleges which are generally in the South, but T.C. hopes to attend Montclair State which is within five miles so that she can commute from petitioner's home.

Her sister, Delphine, who lives with her uncle in Keyport, New Jersey, can only care for the five year old with the help of her uncle and his live-in companion. Mostly Delphine spends her time watching soap operas.

The affidavits which were submitted on behalf of T.C. were not accompanied by any independent documentation. Introduced into evidence was Exhibit J-3 a Student Transfer Card completed by Governor Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights, New Jersey, when T. C. moved with her aunt to South Orange.

DISCUSSION

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 identifies persons of school age who are entitled to a free public education and the school districts which are to provide it.

Principally, as provided for in subsection a, the school district wherein an eligible student is domiciled is responsible to provide that pupil a free public education.

Subsection b(1) provides that a child domiciled in another district, who lives in the home of another person who is domiciled within a school district, is entitled to a free public education from that district upon a showing that three circumstances exist:

1. the domicillary of the school district is supporting the child gratis including all obligations relative to school with the intention to continue to so support the child beyond the school term;

2. the child's parent or guardian is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child because of family or economic hardship; and

3. the child is not being kept in the home "solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district."

The resident must also:

1. submit a sworn statement that the resident is a domiciliary of that school district, is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations of the child relative to school requirements gratuitously for a period beyond the school term;

2. file the sworn statement of the child's parent or guardian that the parent or guardian is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child through a family or economic hardship, and

3. provide "documentation to support the validity of the sworn statements."

The statute provides that upon review and consideration of the matters submitted "[i]f in the judgment of the board of education the evidence does not support the validity of the claim by the resident, the board may deny admission to the child."

Respondent asserts that petitioner's failure to provide sufficient documentation "made it impossible for the Board. . . to find that an economic or family hardship exists to permit [T.C.]'s admission as an 'affidavit pupil.'" Post Hearing Brief on behalf of Board of Education of Maplewood/South Orange, page 3.

Initially, it is noted that under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1), even if the board of education finds that the evidence presented does not support the validity of the claim, such board is not compelled to deny admission rather "the board may deny admission to the child.".[1]

[1] Absent clear legislative intent to the contrary, generally the word "shall" is construed to be mandatory and the word "may" permissive or directory. Franklin Estates v. Tp. of Edison, 142 N.J. Super. 179, 184 (App. Div. 1976), aff'd, 73 N.J. 462 (1977).

In view of the requirement that the board of education is to determine whether separate evidence supports the validity of the claim, there is the question whether the Office of Administrative Law is thereby constrained to make that same determination before it can accept the validity of the claims or is it to arrive at findings of fact in accordance with its general statutory tenets pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15, particularly N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10?

Although a statutory scheme may require the application of different rules in an administrative proceedings,[2] the statutory language here places no such requirement upon the Office of Administrative Law.

As the Commissioner of Education observed of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 in Gunderson v. City of Brigantine Board of Education, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (Department of Education 1994) 39, 42, aff'd State Bd. of Education, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d 132 (Department of Education 1995):

> The intent of the "affidavit student" law is not now, and never has been, to deny an education to a child whose living arrangements may not be as contemplated by the statutory scheme when it is clear that the child has no home, or possibility of school attendance, other than with the non-parent district resident and that such resident is for all intents and purposes the sole caretaker and supporter of the child. Neither is its parental affidavit provision meant to act as a bar to a child who, do to particular circumstances, cannot produce such an affidavit but provides evidence that the underlying requirements of the law are being met. To hold otherwise harms a party the Legislature never meant to penalize, unreasonably places form over substance and overlooks the substantial State interest in ensuring the education of all it children. Sabella v. Lacey tp., 204 N.J. Super. 55, 60 (App. Div. 1985); Restaurant Enterprises, inc. v. Sussex Mutual Ins. Co., 52 N.J. 73, 77 (1968)

To hold a resident such as this petitioner, to limited methods of proof, not ordinarily required in administrative law hearings before the Office of Administative Law, would unduly circumscribe efforts to ensure that a child is properly enrolled in public school.

---

[2] In the Division of Gaming Enforcement v. Merlino and Leonetti, 8 N.J.A.R. 126 (Casino Control 1985), aff'd, 216 N.J. Super. 579, 524 A.2d 821 (App. Div. 1987), it was ruled that because of specific language in the Casino Control Act, the residuum rule, N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b) did not apply to proceedings under that Act..

In order for petitioner to prevail, she must prove the presence of the three statutory circumstances by a preponderance of the credible evidence.[3] See Atkinson v. Parsekian, 37 N.J. 143, 149 (1962); Matter of Tenure Hearing of Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478 (App. Div. 1989). In order to determine whether the petitioner has met that burden, as the Administrative Law Judge, I must determine the credibility of the witnesses. Hornauer v. Division of Alcoholic Beverages Control, 40 Super. 501 (App. Div. 1956).

Having considered all matters presented, I FIND that petitioner successfully sustained that burden.

Although petitioner has raised her own children who are now adults, she has taken on the responsibility of other children. Her nephew, who was orphaned, is under her legal guardianship.

When T.C. first asked to live with her, petitioner, who was deeply concerned with T.C.'s living arrangements, was reluctant to take her in. It was her own daughter, a student who attends Howard University, who prevailed upon her mother to let T.C. use her room. It also appears that T.C. will likely attend a local college to which she can commute from petitioner's South Orange home.

Petitioner convincingly described her sister's situation and long financial dependence upon others' largesse by which she survives.

Once petitioner's mother died, T.C. was without a real home until petitioner took her in. The circumstances leading up to T.C. coming to live with her aunt clearly demonstrate that T.C.'s mother is not capable of care or support because of family and economic hardship. Other than that provided by petitioner, T.C. has no support.

---

[3] The term "evidence" appeared in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 before the 1993 amendment which, inter alia. empowered a board to deny admission if the evidence did not support the claim. It, therefore, appears that "evidence" as used in the statute retains its ordinary meaning and is not limited to the affidavits and "documentation" required by the statute to be submitted to the board.

With regard to the statutory requirement that it be shown that the child is not with the resident "solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district," respondent does not contest that. Moreover, T.C.'s move to South Orange was because petitioner sold her house in Berkeley Heights to purchase her present home.

It has been clearly shown that T.C. is not living with petitioner solely for the purpose of attending a South Orange school.

In its post hearing brief, respondent requests that, in the event the Administrative Law Judge were to find for petitioner, he determine that respondent properly found, under the statute, that the documentation was insufficient and to conclude that T.C.'s status as an affidavit pupil be established at the time of this initial decision and not as of the application.

Regardless of the procedural requirements before the respondent Board of Education under the statute, upon the facts, as they existed at the time of application, show that T.C. was entitled to a free public education at Columbia High School, South Orange.

Respondent's request is denied.

In view of the disposition in this matter, the constitutional and other issues raised by petitioner are not addressed.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that respondent, Board of Education of the South Orange Maplewood School District shall provide a free public education to T.C. pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1) as of the date of application for admission.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

January 2, 1997
DATE

Sebastian Gaeta Jr.
SEBASTIAN GAETA, JR., ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 7, 1997
DATE

D M Cantanates Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 8 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cb

APPENDIX

Witnesses:

For Petitioner:
J.A.

For Respondent
Jacqueline L. Cusack, Ed.D.

Exhibits:

Joint

J-1 Affidavits of J.A. and Delphine, mother of T.C.

J-2 Letter of Jacqueline L. Cusack, Ed.D., School District of South Orange and Maplewood to J.A., dated February 8, 1996.

J-3 Student Transfer Card prepared by Governor Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights, New Jersey.

J-4 Form 1040 U.S. Individual Tax Return 1994 for J.A.

J-5 Affidavits, Form 1040, Letters of Guardianship, Insurance Card, written Note, February 8, 1996 Letter of Acceptance, Affidavit Summary regarding the Application for Admission on behalf of K.G.

For Petitioner

P-1 Enrollment of Affidavit Pupil Information Sheet.

P-2 Instruction sheet for Registering a Student in the South Orange/Maplewood School District.

For Respondent

R-1 Letter of Dr. Cusack to J.A. dated February 20, 1996.

R-2 Registration Form for T.C.

R-3 File Summary (with attachments).

Submissions by Counsel

Trial Brief on behalf of Petitioner

Prehearing Brief on behalf on Respondent

Posthearing Brief on behalf of Petitioner

Post Hearing Brief on behalf of Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3562-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 54-2/96

J.A., on behalf of her minor niece, T.C.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Exception arguments were filed by both parties, and reply arguments were filed by the Board, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. To the extent these submissions merely reiterate those arguments advanced before the OAL, they are only briefly summarized herein.

Petitioner first contends that T.C. should not have been treated by the Board as an affidavit student under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, but, rather, should have been found domiciled in the District in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1a. Petitioner asserts that while the ALJ's findings are consistent with this conclusion, he did not rule on her claim that T.C. was entitled to admission in respondent's District under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1a. The Board, in reply, maintains the position that T.C. should not be declared a domiciliary of the District, asserting, inter alia, that to do so "would countermand the efforts of the Legislature to combat the ever increasing attendance at district schools of children who are not legally entitled to same." (Board's Reply at p. 9)

Petitioner next asserts that the Board's notice denying T.C. admission as an affidavit student violated her due process rights, in that said notice provided no reason for the Board's denial.[1] Petitioner affirms that, under the principles of Goss v. Lopez, 419 U.S. 565 (1975) and R.R. v. Board of Education of Shore Regional H.S., 109 N.J. Super. 337 (Ch. Div. 1970), > a notice denying admission to school on residency grounds must, at a minimum, contain a statement detailing the reasons for denial. A blanket statement that the requirements of the statute have not been met does not satisfy due process. Petitioner was entitled to a statement which specified precisely how her application was defective. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 6)

The Board counters, however, that its notice denying petitioner the request for admission of T.C. comported with all requisite due process standards, and that the enabling statute imposes no obligation to explain the factual basis for its denial, or to provide specific information on the manner of filing a petition of appeal. (Board's Reply at pp. 10, 11)

Finally, petitioner maintains that the Board's policy of denying admission in every case where the affidavit student lacks independent documentation to support his/her required sworn statement is arbitrary and capricious. Instead, petitioner claims that the Legislature clearly intended for such documentation to be provided if it exists. "The Legislature did not intend that in the absence of documentation, the school board simply refuse to exercise its judgment about the truthfulness of the claim of family and economic hardship." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 8) In the Board's view, the enabling statute does not create an irrebuttable presumption of nonresidency, but, rather, outlines the requirements which must be met in order to establish a student's entitlement to a free public education in the district. Here, the Board maintains, petitioner was denied the benefit of a free public education "not because of some irrebuttable statutory presumption, but rather, because the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 were clearly not met." (Board's Exceptions at pp. 13, 14)

[1] Petitioner avers, "The letter simply states that '[h]aving reviewed the affidavits, the administration has determined that the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 have not been satisfied.' Respondent failed to specify in what regard the statute had not been met and left petitioner guessing as to how her application was defective." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 5) Petitioner further contends that the Board improperly failed to provide her with the address for filing a Petition of Appeal to contest its decision.

The Board's initial exception is that no competent evidence was offered as to the physical and/or mental condition of T.C.'s mother. Notwithstanding the ALJ's findings in this regard, the Board maintains that J.A. failed to provide either evidentiary or documentary support for the claimed hardship and, therefore, has not sustained her burden of proof. (Id. at p. 3)

The Board next contends that the ALJ's reliance upon Gunderson, supra, was unwarranted, inasmuch as Gunderson is clearly distinguishable. T.C.'s mother, the Board comments, "has never been declared or diagnosed as mentally incompetent or having any other condition precluding her ability to care for T.C. " and, unlike the situation in Gunderson, has participated in the affidavit process by providing a sworn statement. (Board's exceptions at p. 4) Moreover, the Board asserts that "there is a difference between supporting documents which are not obtainable and those that are never sought." (Id.) Thus, the Board argues that the ALJ has "essentially eliminate[ed] from the statute the requirement that a petitioner provide  supporting documentation ." (Id.)

The Board further excepts to the ALJ's reliance upon the current relationship between petitioner and T.C. to support petitioner's claim. That T.C. resided with petitioner before petitioner moved to South Orange and, therefore, similarly "utilize[d]" the Berkeley Heights school system is a "past abuse of the affidavit pupil status [which] should not be found as support for a current abuse." (Board's Exceptions at p. 5) Moreover, the Board points out that

> Contrary to the ALJ's finding that T.C. did not have a "real home" with [her mother], we learned through the petitioner's own testimony that a significant factor in T.C.'s decision to leave her uncle's apartment where she resided with [her mother] was her inability to get along with her uncle's live-in companion. Personal preference and personality differences should not be elevated to the level of "family" hardship. (Id. Exceptions at p. 6)

Finally, the Board finds erroneous the ALJ's conclusion that the facts, as they existed at the time of the application, show that T.C. was entitled to a free public education. (Board's Exceptions at p. 6) Here, the Board affirms, "[t]here is no reference within [the ALJ's] decision to the proofs submitted by way of affidavit to the Board of Education which could, standing alone, have supported petitioner's claim and burden of proof before the Board  as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b." (Board's Exceptions at p. 7) Moreover, according to the Board, the ALJ cites only to evidence adduced by petitioner's testimony to buttress his conclusion that T.C. is entitled to affidavit pupil status, notwithstanding his observation that the evidence which is required to meet petitioner's burden "is not limited to the affidavits and 'documentation' required by the statute to be submitted by the board." (Initial Decision at p. 7, note 3, as referenced in Board's Exceptions at p. 7)

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the credibility determinations, findings and conclusions of the ALJ. The Commissioner further agrees that the ALJ's factual findings, under the circumstances of this case, may be considered to have satisfied the statutory purpose for requiring documentation to support the claim that family or economic hardship exists, sufficient to permit T.C. to be admitted into the Board's District as an affidavit pupil. See Gunderson, supra. Thus, the Commissioner, finding it noteworthy that the Board fails to claim that T.C. is living with petitioner for the sole purpose of attending school in the District, (Initial Decision at p. 8) accepts the ALJ's conclusion that petitioner has satisfied the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1), thereby establishing T.C.'s eligibility to attend school in respondent's District. As to the Board's policy of denying an application, like petitioner's, for failure to provide documentation to support her claims, however, the Commissioner declines to find that such policy is necessarily arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, given the statutory requirement that sworn statements be accompanied by documentation to support their validity, and the statutory mechanism for ensuring subsequent due process before the Commissioner with no loss of educational opportunity in the interim.

Further, the Commissioner rejects petitioner's claim that T.C. should be determined domiciled in the District, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1a. Petitioner has advanced no compelling argument which would convince the Commissioner to abandon the long-standing rule that the domicile of a child follows that of the parent or legal guardian who has control over her. Mansfield Twp. v. State Bd. of Education, 101 N.J.L. 474, 479, 480. In that petitioner is not T.C.'s legal guardian and T.C.'s mother has not terminated her parental rights (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 3), and inasmuch as the law does not permit an unemancipated minor to choose her domicile (Mansfield at 478), the Commissioner declines, under these circumstances, to declare T.C. a domiciliary of the Board's District, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1a.

Additionally, the Commissioner finds petitioner's reliance upon Goss, supra, and R.R, supra, to advance her position that T.C. was entitled to a statement specifying the deficiencies in her application to be misplaced. These cases involved the school districts' power to impose pupil discipline in the form of suspension or expulsion, and examined the process which is due a pupil prior to removing her from school. The Courts therein recognized that those students, by virtue of their legitimate claims of entitlement to a public education, possessed a property interest subject to due process protections. Goss at 574; R.R. at 346, 347. Interests which give rise to due process protections are those which are created, and their dimensions defined, "by an independent source such as state statutes or rules entitling the citizens to certain benefits." Goss at 572, 573 , citing Board of Regents v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564, 577 (1972).

While there is no doubt that T.C. possesses the right to a free public education and, indeed, is required to attend school between the ages of six and 16,[2] "the independent source," found at N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, clearly links T.C.'s entitlement to her domicile status, or, in the alternative, to her residence, under specific conditions, with a person who is domiciled in the district. Thus, the question herein is not, as in Goss, supra, and R.R., supra, whether the district infringed upon a student's legitimate claim to an education, but whether the student's claim to a free education in the Board's District is, in fact, legitimate. Moreover, to protect a petitioner who might have a legitimate claim, the Legislature has provided that, once the board's decision is appealed to the Commissioner of Education, a student must be admitted to school during the pendency of the hearing. Consequently, the Commissioner finds no cause to invoke the principles of Goss and R.R. in this matter so as to obligate the Board to provide a statement detailing the reasons for its denial of an application for admission. Neither does the Commissioner find support in the language of the statute for such a proposition.

[2] N.J.S.A. 18A:38-25.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL granting petitioner's appeal to set aside the Board's decision to disenroll her niece is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board is hereby ordered to admit T.C. into its public school system, free of charge, so long as there is no change in petitioner's circumstances that would alter T.C.'s entitlement. The counterclaim by the Board is dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 19, 1997

75-97

EDU #3562-96
C # 75-97
SB # 28-97

J.A., on behalf of her minor niece, T.C.,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-CROSS/APPELLANT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 19, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Education Law Center (Ellen M. Boylan, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Cross/Appellant, Leary, Bride, Tinker & Moran (Glenn R. Moran, Esq., of Counsel)

J.A. (hereinafter "petitioner") filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education alleging that the Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District (hereinafter "Board") had improperly denied her niece, T.C., who was living with her in South Orange, a free public education in the district under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b).[1] The

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 provides, in pertinent part:

> Public schools shall be free to the following persons over five and under 20 years of age:
> a. Any person who is domiciled within the school district;
> b. (1) Any person who is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and is supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child, upon filing by such other person with the secretary of the board of education of the district, if so required by the board, a sworn statement that he is domiciled within the district and is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends so to keep and support the child gratuitously for a longer time than merely through the school term, and a copy of his lease if a tenant, or a sworn statement by his landlord acknowledging his tenancy if residing as a tenant without a written lease, and upon filing by the child's parent or guardian with the secretary of the board of education a sworn statement that he is not capable of supporting

8/6/97

Board filed a counterclaim seeking tuition for the period of T.C.'s attendance in the district.

On January 2, 1997, following a hearing, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") concluded that petitioner had sustained her burden of demonstrating T.C.'s entitlement to attend public school in the district free of charge. The ALJ found that petitioner had demonstrated that T.C.'s mother was not capable of supporting her or providing care due to a family and economic hardship.

On February 19, 1997, the Commissioner adopted the credibility determinations, findings and conclusions of the ALJ and directed the Board to provide T.C. with a free public education. Citing Gunderson v. Board of Education of the City of Brigantine, decided by the Commissioner of Education, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 39, aff'd by the State Board of Education, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 132, the Commissioner concluded that "the ALJ's factual findings, under the circumstances of this case, may be considered to have satisfied the statutory purpose for requiring documentation to support the claim that family or economic hardship exists, sufficient to permit T.C. to be admitted into the Board's District as an affidavit pupil." Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 15-16.

---

or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship and that the child is not residing with the resident of the district solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district. The statement shall be accompanied by documentation to support the validity of the sworn statements....If in the judgment of the board of education the evidence does not support the validity of the claim by the resident, the board may deny admission to the child. The resident may contest the board's decision to the commissioner within 21 days of the date of the decision and shall be entitled to an expedited hearing before the commissioner on the validity of the claim and shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this subsection. The board of education shall, at the time of its decision, notify the resident in writing of his right to contest the board's decision to the commissioner within 21 days. No child shall be denied admission during the pendency of the proceedings before the commissioner. In the event the child is currently enrolled in the district, the student shall not be removed from school during the 21-day period in which the resident may contest the board's decision nor during the pendency of the proceedings before the commissioner.

The Commissioner, however, declined to find the Board's alleged policy of denying any application under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) that was not accompanied by supporting documentation to be arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. The Commissioner observed that the statute expressly required sworn statements to be accompanied by documentation to support their validity. He noted, in addition, that the statute ensured subsequent due process before the Commissioner with no loss of educational opportunity in the interim. The Commissioner also rejected petitioner's contention that she had been entitled to a statement from the Board detailing the reasons for its denial of her application.

Despite the Commissioner's determination that her niece was entitled to a free public education in South Orange-Maplewood, petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board. Petitioner again contends that the Board's notice letter denying her application for T.C.'s admission to the district failed to satisfy the minimum requirements of due process and that the Board's alleged policy of denying admission under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) to any student lacking documentation to support the sworn statements required by the statute was arbitrary and capricious.

The Board cross-appealed from the Commissioner's decision, arguing that petitioner had failed to establish T.C.'s entitlement to a free public education in the district.

After a careful review of the record before us,[2] we affirm the Commissioner's decision as modified herein.

[2] We note that the parties did not provide us with a transcript of the hearing held in the Office of Administrative Law in this matter.

For the reasons expressed by the ALJ and Commissioner, we find that petitioner has demonstrated T.C.'s entitlement to a free public education in South Orange-Maplewood. Under the particular circumstances herein, we agree that petitioner has sustained her burden under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b). We also agree that the Board was not required to provide petitioner with a statement of reasons for the denial of her application or to provide specific details about the appeals procedure in its notice letter, except to advise petitioner that she had the right to contest the Board's decision with the Commissioner of Education within 21 days.

However, we modify the Commissioner's decision to the extent that it might be read to permit a district board to mechanically deny any application for admission under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) which is not accompanied by documentation to support the sworn statements submitted with the application. As the Commissioner observed in Gunderson, supra, at 42:

> ...the parental affidavit provision [in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)] is [not] meant to act as a bar to a child who, do [sic] to particular circumstances, cannot produce such an affidavit but provides evidence that the underlying requirements of the law are being met. To hold otherwise harms a party the Legislature never meant to penalize, unreasonably places form over substance and overlooks the substantial State interest in ensuring the education of all its children.

Similarly, a lack of documentation in support of the sworn statements required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) may not necessarily bar a child from admission in a case in which documentation cannot be produced due to the particular circumstances of the situation. Hence, a district board policy that automatically bars admission solely on the basis of a lack of documentation, without permitting consideration of those circumstances, would be arbitrary and capricious. However, given the outcome of this case and the fact that we are unable to determine on the basis of the record before us, which does not include transcripts, whether the South Orange-Maplewood Board actually had such a policy, we decline to determine that question in the context of this appeal.

Accordingly, as modified herein, we affirm the decision of the Commissioner.

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 0 8 1997

(SB) 75-97

DHPL #411-97
SB # 75-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF L.A.W. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, August 8, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Reed & Scholl (Robert B. Reed, Esq., of Counsel)

L.A.W. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school health office aide by the Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that she had been found guilty of Endangering the Welfare of Children, a disqualifying offense under the statute, following an arrest in Pennsylvania in April 1993. Petitioner sought to overturn her disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation. She also argued that N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-3 of the Rehabilitated Convicted Offenders Act prohibited the Department from disqualifying her from school employment since she had been issued a Certificate of Good Conduct in 1996 by the Probation Department of Hunterdon County.

In a letter decision dated August 8, 1997, the Assistant Commissioner of Education, Executive Services, upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that, while petitioner was progressing towards rehabilitation, she had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. The Assistant Commissioner also rejected petitioner's contention regarding her Certificate of Good Conduct, noting that "the within matter is solely within the purview of the Commissioner of Education and education law and, therefore, any finding with respect to L.A.W. arising under the criminal law statutes, is irrelevant to the instant determination." Assistant Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 2, n.2.

[1] We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the

JAN. 7, 1998

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board.

After a careful review of the record, we remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings in accordance with our determination herein.

Initially, we reject petitioner's contention that N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-3 of the Rehabilitated Convicted Offenders Act prohibits the Department from disqualifying her from school employment on the basis of her conviction. That statute provides that:

> The presentation to a licensing authority of evidence of a pardon or of the expungement of a criminal conviction, pursuant to N.J.S. 2A:164-28, or of a certificate of the Federal or State Parole Board, or of the Chief Probation Officer of a United States District Court or a county who has supervised the applicant's probation, that the applicant has achieved a degree of rehabilitation indicating that his engaging in the proposed employment would not be incompatible with the welfare of society shall preclude a licensing authority from disqualifying or discriminating against the applicant.

This is not a case in which action was being taken by a licensing authority. Rather, the Office of Criminal History Review, as affirmed by the Commissioner, commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34. disqualified petitioner from employment in the State's schools as a health office aide on the basis of a conviction listed in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 as grounds for disqualification from school employment. We note, in addition, that the Certificate of Good Conduct refers only generally to petitioner's proposed employment as a licensed practical nurse, and not specifically to her service as a school health office aide. Consequently, we conclude that N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-3 does not bar petitioner's disqualification from school employment under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

---

Turning to the issue of rehabilitation, we find that petitioner has shown significant evidence of her rehabilitation under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). The Superintendent of the Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission, in which petitioner had been employed prior to her disqualification, indicates that the assistant superintendent to whom petitioner reported "was very complimentary of [petitioner's] work and enthusiasm for the organization." Several other letters attest to petitioner's fine work and reliability in her position as a home health care companion. The record also reveals that petitioner was granted sole legal custody of her children in March 1995 by the Chancery Division of Superior Court, and that she received a degree in practical nursing from the Somerset County Technical Institute in January 1996. In July 1996, the Probation Department of Hunterdon County issued the Certificate of Good Conduct asserting that petitioner "has achieved a degree of rehabilitation, indicating that her engaging in the proposed employment as a licensed practical nurse would not be incompatible with the welfare of society...." Petitioner was granted a practical nurse license by the New Jersey Board of Nursing in November 1996, and, in April 1997, she was accepted into the Practical Nurse Associate Degree Option in the nursing program at Raritan Valley Community College. There have been no further arrests.

In determining whether petitioner has established her rehabilitation, we are required to consider the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), including "the nature and seriousness of the offense," N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e)(2). In this case, the criminal history review revealed that petitioner had been found guilty of Endangering the Welfare of Children. Although petitioner states without contradiction[2] that her conviction arose from an incident in which she had left her two young children at home in the care of a friend who had then left them alone, the record before us raises questions concerning the facts underlying that conviction. In a letter denying petitioner's request to expunge her conviction, the District Attorney of Mifflin County, Pennsylvania stated that while he was "impressed with [petitioner's] apparent change in lifestyle," his review of "the file and the photos" led him to believe that this was "too serious of a case to be expunged from her record." On the record before us, we are unable to reconcile to our satisfaction the District Attorney's statement with the explanation offered by the petitioner. In that context, we also question whether petitioner's explanation that she had innocently left her children in the care of a friend would lead to petitioner's conviction for Endangering the Welfare of Children after the friend left them alone. Given such concerns, we are unable to conclude at this time that petitioner has affirmatively demonstrated her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

[2] We note that the Office of Criminal History Review did not participate in the proceedings before the Commissioner.

However, under these circumstances, and in view of the fact that petitioner has shown significant evidence of rehabilitation, we do not dismiss her petition. Rather, we remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings for the limited purpose of clarifying the specific nature and seriousness of petitioner's offense, and for a resultant determination under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) as to whether petitioner has affirmatively demonstrated her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

Given our determination herein, we find it unnecessary to address whether the answer brief filed on behalf of the Commissioner, the decision-maker below, who is not a party to this matter, see In the Matter of the Disqualification from School Employment of Earl Davis, decided by the State Board of Education, June 7, 1995, slip op. at 2, n.2, should be considered in this instance. See Hasbrouck Heights v. Division of Tax Appeals, 48 N.J. Super. 328 (App. Div. 1958); Public Service Interstate Transportation Co. v. Board of Public Utility Com'rs., 129 N.J.L. 94 (E. & A. 1942). See also Director, Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Department of Labor v. Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co. et al., 514 U.S. 122, 115 S.Ct. 1278, 131 L.Ed.2d 160 (1995). We have therefore not considered the Commissioner's submission in determining this matter.

We do not retain jurisdiction.

Maud Dahme abstained.

January 7, 1998

Date of mailing JAN 09 1998

76-97

76-97R

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF FRANCIS SABO, ALBERT G.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
WAGNER YOUTH CORRECTIONAL	:	DECISION ON REMAND
FACILITY, STATE OF NEW JERSEY.	:
_____	:

February 19, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6163-96
AGENCY REF. NO. 185-5/95
(EDU 8587-95 ON REMAND)

IN THE MATTER OF
THE TENURE HEARING OF
FRANCIS SABO,
ALBERT C. WAGNER YOUTH
CORRECTIONAL CENTER.

Judith Lieberman, Deputy Attorney General, for petitioner (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Sharra E. Greer, Esq., for respondent (Weissman & Mintz, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 6, 1997 Decided: January 6, 1997

BEFORE BRUCE. R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

Tenure charges were filed against Francis Sabo, a teacher employed by the Albert C. Wagner Youth Correctional Center.

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 20, 1995 for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13.

The judge then assigned approved a settlement on April 30, 1996. The Commissioner of Education remanded for failure to meet the standards expressed in In re Cardonick, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. Thereafter, the matter was assigned to me.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached stipulation indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded. I further note that the parties have agreed to waive the right to file exceptions and cross-exceptions.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

Thus recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. I f the Commissioner does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14b-10.

6 JANUARY 1997
Date

Bruce R. Campbell
BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 7, 1997
Date

Del Ventanaitis Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 10 1997
Date

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

	)	HONORABLE BRUCE CAMPBELL OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6163-96
IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF FRANCIS SABO, ALBERT C. WAGNER YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITY	)
	)	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS the parties agree to settle this matter, noting that the public policy of New Jersey strongly encourages settlement;

THE REASONS FOR ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT ARE AS FOLLOWS:

(a) The costs of continuing to prosecute the tenure claims against the Respondent are expected to be substantial;

(b) The charges against Respondent can be divided into two categories, sleeping and breaches of security. The full facts of this matter are contained in the record which will be transmitted to the Commissioner of Education with this agreement. Respondent's apparent sleeping was caused by heart problems and resulting low blood pressure. Respondent has undergone triple bypass surgery since the institution of these charges and no longer suffers from this health problem. In addition, Respondent has agreed not to seek re-employment with the Department of Corrections. Prison security is unique and much stricter than that in other education settings. The Department's concerns with security only apply to the prison setting and not to traditional education settings. Therefore, the parties concur that this agreement comports with the public policy of New Jersey.

(c) The charges did not involve allegations of abuse of students, or any claims alleging moral turpitude or affecting the public trust; and

(d) Respondent and the Department have reached a mutually acceptable agreement concerning back salary as set forth below and Respondent agrees to waive attorneys fees.

1. Petitioning Department of Corrections shall withdraw the tenure charges against Respondent Sabo (Respondent).

2. Respondent's personnel file shall reflect that the tenure charges filed against him were withdrawn by the Department under a Settlement Agreement.

3. Respondent shall retire from his employment as a teacher with the Department of Corrections and he agrees not to seek renewal of active employment with that Agency.

4. The parties agree that this Settlement Agreement resolves all issues in controversy between them and that all such claims and counterclaims which may have arisen from such issues are mutually waived.

5. The Department of Corrections will pay Respondent $5,849.10 back pay for the period beginning December 11, 1995 and ending after the first half of the January 26, 1996 work day. In addition, the Department of Corrections agrees to compensate respondent for unused accumulated vacation and sick days.

6. The respondent will not receive any counsel fees, costs or any other monetary relief as a result of this settlement.

7. Between April 10, 1996 and June 17, 1996 , Respondent agrees to be placed on an approved leave of absence without pay. Respondent agrees to be placed on an approved leave of absence with pay from June 18, 1996 through December 1, 1996. From December 1, 1996 until the date of the Commissioner's decision or the effective date of Respondent's retirement, whichever is earlier, Respondent agrees to be placed on an approved leave of absence without pay.

8. The Department agrees to pay Respondent for the period June 18, 1996 though September 9, 1996 during the first State pay period subsequent to the signing of the agreement by the parties and the issuing of the initial decision approving the agreement by the Administrative Law Judge.

9. The Department agrees to pay the remainder of Respondent's salary for the period June 18, 1996 to December 1, 1996 less mitigation after: 1) Respondent provides all documentation of mitigation for the period, and 2) the decision of the Commissioner or the effective date of Respondent's retirement, whichever is earlier.

10. The parties agree to waive the filing of exceptions to the initial decision which would recommend the approval of the settlement agreement as a complete and final disposition of the matter.

11. The Respondent is aware that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6(a)(1), the Commissioner of Education shall forward this settlement agreement to the State Board of Examiners for determination of possible revocation or suspension of Respondent's certificate. The State Board of Examiners may make new factual findings and issue an order to show cause and a statement of charges upon which revocation or suspension may be considered.

12. Nothing contained within this Agreement shall be considered as precedent in other existing or future cases by the Department of Corrections.

13. The Department of Corrections agrees to submit a letter to the State Health Benefits Commission to suggest that respondent be compensated for insurance premiums paid by him between December 11, 1995 and the first half of January 26, 1996. However, the Department of Corrections has no authority or control over the ultimate decision of the State Health Benefits Commission.

14. The Department of Corrections will permit respondent to return to the Albert C. Wagner Youth Correctional Facility so that he may retrieve his personal belongings. Respondent must first provide at least 24 hours notice of his intent to enter the Facility and must do so during a regular day and during regular work hours. Respondent will be accompanied by an escort when he enters the Facility and retrieves his belongings.

15. The parties acknowledge that this Settlement Agreement may not be consummated until approval by the Commissioner of Education. Any disapproval by the Commissioner of Education shall not interfere with the rights of either party to pursue this matter further.

16. The Department of Corrections will respond to inquiries about the Respondent from prospective employers, other than the New Jersey Department of Corrections, by indicating only that respondent is retired and by stating the position he held, how long he held it and the salary he was paid.

1/2/97
Date

Francis L Sabo Jr
FRANCIS L. SABO JR.

1/6/97
Date

Sharon E. Grier, Attorney For Respondent

1/6/97
Date

Thomas D. Sawey
THOMAS D. SAWEY
ADMINISTRATOR, EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

CERTIFICATION

I, FRANCIS h. SABO JR., being the moving party in this matter, hereby certify that I have reviewed this Settlement Agreement and fully understand its meaning and terms. I acknowledge that the Administrative Law Judge and my representative questioned my understanding and my acceptance of the terms of this Agreement. I am satisfied with my representation and I enter into this agreement voluntarily.

11-6-97
Date

Francis Sabo Jr.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6163-96 (EDU 8587-95 ON REMAND)
AGENCY DKT. NO. 185-5/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF FRANCIS SABO, ALBERT G.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
WAGNER YOUTH CORRECTIONAL	:	DECISION ON REMAND
FACILITY, STATE OF NEW JERSEY.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 19, 1997

77-97

77-97

CLAUDETTE JEFFRIES,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF EAST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, tenured clerical worker, challenged the Board's reassignment of her to a position having a decreased salary.

ALJ denied the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for lack of jurisdiction, but concluded that the petition had to be dismissed for untimeliness as petitioner filed 105 days following receipt of notice of reassignment, not 90 days as required by N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c).

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision. Petition was dismissed as untimely.

February 19, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1905-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 38-1/96

CLAUDETTE JEFFRIES,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF EAST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

Eldridge Hawkins, Esq., for petitioner

Melvin C. Randall, Esq., for respondent
(Love & Randall, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 17, 1996 Decided: January 2, 1997

BEFORE RICHARD McGILL, ALJ:

This matter involves a petition by Claudette Jeffries (petitioner) in which she alleges that she was subjected to unfair and abusive treatment by her supervisor, Velma Jones, and improperly reassigned by the Board of Education of the City of East Orange (respondent) from the position of Group IV Clerk to Group III Secretary with a decrease in salary. Respondent now moves for dismissal of the petition for lack of jurisdiction and for failure to file the petition in a timely manner.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petition in this matter was filed with the Commissioner of Education on January 31, 1996 pursuant to the Commissioner's authority to hear and determine controversies under the school laws pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Acting as a pro se litigant, petitioner did not cite any statute or regulation allegedly violated by respondent. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on February 29, 1996 for determination as a contested case.

Eldridge Hawkins, Esq. entered an appearance on behalf of petitioner. During a prehearing conference on September 16, 1996, Counsellor Hawkins advised that petitioner has filed a petition in Superior Court alleging a violation of the Conscientious Employee Protection (Whistle-blower) Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 to -8, based upon the same set of facts. The parties agreed at that time that petitioner's supervisor, Velma Jones, is not a party to this proceeding.

Respondent filed its motion to dismiss the petition in this matter on November 27, 1996. Petitioner did not respond to the motion.

MOTION TO DISMISS

Respondent first moves to dismiss the petition for lack of jurisdiction. The Commissioner of Education has jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Here, petitioner has not specifically alleged, either in the petition or in response to the motion, that respondent violated any of the statutes or regulations comprising the school laws. Petitioner mentions only one statute, the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 to -8, which is the subject of a proceeding in Superior Court. However, the Conscientious Employee Protection Act is not part of the school laws.

Nonetheless, the factual assertions in the petition indicate that petitioner has been an employee of respondent for eighteen years evidently in secretarial or clerical positions. In October 1995, respondent reassigned petitioner to a different position with a reduction in salary. These allegations imply that respondent may have violated petitioner's tenure rights secured by N.J.S.A. 18A:17-2. Under the circumstances, I CONCLUDE that the motion to dismiss the petition for lack of jurisdiction must be denied.

To initiate a contested case before the Commissioner of Education, the petitioner must file the petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of notice of a final order, ruling or other action by the district board of education, which is the subject of the requested contested case hearing. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c). Here, the petition relates to a series of incidents dating back to January 1994. With respect to the most recent incident, the petition indicates that respondent finalized the determination to reassign petitioner at a meeting on October 17, 1995 and that petitioner was in fact reassigned on October 18, 1995. Thus, petitioner was on notice of respondent's action on October 18, 1995. Further, it is undisputed that the petition in this matter was filed on January 31, 1996. These dates indicate that the petition was filed on the 105th day following receipt of notice of the reassignment. It follows that the petition was filed in an untimely manner relative to the most recent incident as well as all prior incidents. Under the circumstances, I CONCLUDE that the petition in this matter must be dismissed.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the petition in this matter be dismissed.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan. 2, 1997
DATE

Richard McGill
RICHARD McGILL, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 7, 1997
DATE

Val Antanaitis Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 8 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

am

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1905-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 38-1/96

CLAUDETTE JEFFRIES,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF EAST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that the Petition of Appeal was filed out of time and that no relaxation or waiver of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) is warranted in this instance.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL that the instant Petition of Appeal be dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 19, 1997

78-97

LOUISE V. O'DONNELL,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HANOVER, MORRIS COUNTY, HANOVER TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION AND NEW JERSEY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

RESPONDENTS.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, tenured teaching staff member, claimed entitlement to credit for her six years of service as a part-time supplemental teacher.

ALJ dismissed the matter for failure to state a claim arising under school laws, for lack of subject matter jurisdiction over the interpretation and enforcement of contractual provisions and for untimeliness.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

February 19, 1997

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9878-94

AGENCY DKT. NO. 343-8/94

LOUISE V. O'DONNELL,

Petitioner,

v.

HANOVER TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, HANOVER TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION and NEW JERSEY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

Respondents.

Noel C. Crowley, Esq., for petitioner
(Crowley & Crowley, attorneys)

Andrew B. Brown, Esq., for respondent Hanover Township Board of Education
(Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, attorneys)

Robert A. Fagella, Esq., for respondents Hanover Township Education Association and New Jersey Education Association
(Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 19, 1996 Decided: January 3, 1997

BEFORE KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of the Case

This is a suit by a full-time teacher who did not receive credit on the salary guide for prior part-time employment in the district. Petitioner Louise V. O'Donnell had served for six years as a part-time supplemental teacher in the Hanover school district. When she became a full-time classroom teacher in 1984, she was placed at Step 4 of the salary guide. She now contends that her acceptance of this initial placement on the salary guide was wrongfully induced by fraudulent statements made by the former superintendent of schools. Nearly a decade later, in or about 1993, the Hanover Township Board of Education ("Board") gave credit to several other teachers for their prior service as supplemental teachers in the district. In 1994 Ms. O'Donnell brought the present appeal to the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner"), claiming that the Board's denial of salary credit for her prior service constitutes a "continuing violation" and violates her constitutional right to equal protection and due process of law.. She is seeking additional credit on the salary guide from 1993 onward. Additionally, she joined her local and state collective-negotiating representatives, alleging that they beached their duty of fair representation.

Presently the matter comes before the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") on respondents' motions to dismiss and for summary decision. The Board contends that petition must be dismissed because it fails to state a claim arising under the school laws, because it was filed out-of-time, and because the Commissioner lacks subject matter jurisdiction. Similarly, the Hanover Township Education Association and the New Jersey Education Association ("HTEA" and "NJEA" or, collectively, "Association") move to dismiss the petition for lack of jurisdiction and failure to state a claim for which relief may be granted. For the reasons which follow, the respondents' motions to dismiss the petition will be granted.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9878-94

Order

It is ORDERED that Ms. O'Donnell's petition against the Board, the HTEA and the NJEA is dismissed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan. 3, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 3, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 10 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9878-94
AGENCY DKT. NO. 343-8/94

LOUISE V. O'DONNELL,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HANOVER, MORRIS COUNTY, HANOVER TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION AND NEW JERSEY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions were untimely filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(a), in that the initial decision was mailed to the parties on January 10, 1997, and the exceptions were filed on January 29, 1997.* Accordingly, neither the exceptions nor replies thereto are considered herein.

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that this matter is properly dismissed for failure to state a claim arising under school laws, for lack of subject matter jurisdiction and for untimeliness, pursuant to respondents' motions. Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein, and this matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 19, 1997

* Even assuming, arguendo, that counsel for petitioner is correct in asserting that the initial decision was mailed to his office on January 14, 1997, exceptions were nonetheless filed outside the 13-day time frame provided by regulation.

78-97

EDU #9878-94
C # 78-97
SB # 29-97

LOUISE V. O'DONNELL,

PETITIONER-APPELLANT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HANOVER, MORRIS COUNTY, HANOVER TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION AND NEW JERSEY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

RESPONDENTS-RESPONDENTS.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 19, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Crowley & Crowley (Noel C. Crowley, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the Township of Hanover, Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler (Andrew B. Brown, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondents-Respondents Hanover Township Education Association and New Jersey Education Association, Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak (Robert A. Fagella, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Commissioner of Education dismissing the petition filed in this matter is affirmed substantially for the reasons expressed therein. In so doing, we reject the contention of petitioner's counsel that the Commissioner had "refused to recognize the true nature of [petitioner's] claim." Brief in support of appeal, at 7. Counsel for petitioner maintains that the claim herein "is based solely and exclusively respecting the allowance of credit of supplemental teaching experience in the assignment of salary grades," Id. at 8, and that petitioner's claim "has nothing to do with the events surrounding [her] hiring in 1984." Id. at 9.

8/6/97

However, a review of the petition of appeal filed with the Commissioner reveals that petitioner made express allegations relating back to her initial placement on the salary guide in 1984. Petitioner claimed therein that she had been fraudulently induced to accept her initial placement in reliance upon "intentionally false statements" made to her by the former superintendent of schools that it was the Board's policy and practice not to give credit for supplemental teaching experience upon conversion to full-time employment. She further alleged that at the time of this purported misrepresentation, another supplemental teacher in the district had been granted full credit for all of her supplemental teaching experience when she was converted to full-time employment.

Consequently, we find it disingenuous for petitioner's counsel to now argue that it is "absurd" to consider her claim as involving a loss of salary resulting from improper initial placement on the salary guide. Id. at 8.

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 0 8 1997

80-97

80-97

MUIRFIELD CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, INC.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY, AND HERMAN H. BRAUN, INC.,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning construction company alleged the Board awarded a nonresponsive bid containing material defects to respondent bidding company for plumbing contract.

ALJ concluded that the bid did materially deviate from the specifications set forth by respondent contracting agency and was untimely, based on the record before him. Moreover, the ALJ concluded that the Board was without the power to accept respondent's invalid bid; however, this conclusion did not necessarily result in petitioner's being awarded the contract. Rather, the ALJ concluded that the proper remedy was to return the matter to the Board to consider petitioner's bid and its other options consonant with the restrictions and purposes of the Public Schools Contracts Law. Petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision was granted.

Prior to the issuance of this decision, parties proposed a settlement, wherein the Board agreed to pay petitioner a sum of money to release its claim. The Commissioner declined approval of said settlement as violating sound public policy and subverting state bidding laws. Thus, the Commissioner rendered a final determination on the merits and affirmed the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that this matter should be returned to the Board to consider petitioner's bid and its other options consonant with the Public Schools Contracts Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59.

February 24, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11336-96

AGENCY DKT. 517-11/96

MUIRFIELD CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, INC.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY AND HERMAN H. BRAUN, INC.,

Respondents.

Robert Hedinger, Esq., appearing for petitioner
(Hedinger & Lawless, attorneys)

Eric Bernstein, Esq., appearing for respondent Englewood Board of Education
(Weiner Lesniak, attorneys)

No appearance on behalf of respondent Herman H. Braun, Inc.

Record Closed: December 4, 1996 Decided: January 7, 1997

BEFORE MARGARET M. HAYDEN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Muirfield Construction, Co., Inc., (petitioner or Muirfield) filed a petition on November 1, 1996 with the Commissioner of Education (Department) after having filed an Order to Show Cause in Superior Court - Law Division which was denied with directions to proceed before the Department. Muirfield sought emergent relief staying the awarding of the plumbing contract by the Board of Education of the City of Englewood (Board) to respondent Herman H. Braun, Inc. (Braun) on the grounds that Braun's bid was materially defective. The Department subsequently transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on November 7, 1996 for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.A.C. 52:14F-1 to -13. The OAL scheduled an emergency hearing on November 12, 1996 at which time the Board and Muirfield appeared and agreed that Muirfield would turn the petition for emergent relief into a summary decision motion and the Board would refrain from entering into a contract with Braun pending a swift resolution of the motion. Muirfield and the Board filed additional briefs with the last one received on December 4, 1996. On December 23, 1996, Muirfield sent a newly decided Appellate Division case to this tribunal without additional legal argument. Respondent Braun did not appear at the hearing and has submitted no papers.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the undisputed evidence presented in the affidavits and supporting documents, I FIND the following FACTS.

On August 4, 1996, the Board advertised for bids on construction project No. 109275, entitled "Quarles Elementary School Expansion" (hereinafter referred to as the "Project"). The bid package solicited bids for various aspects of the construction, including plumbing, HVAC and combined mechanical and electrical work. The bids were opened on September 10, 1996 and Muirfield was the low bidder. Subsequently, however, Muirfield withdrew its bid due to an alleged error on its part.

As a result of Muirfield's withdrawal of its original bid, the Board readvertised for bids on the project on September 25, 1996. The specifications, identical to the originals, provided that the bids were to be opened on Tuesday, October 8, 1996 at 10:00 a.m. at the Board's offices located in the Administration Building at 12 Tenafly Road, Englewood, New Jersey. In the specifications, the Board reserved the right to "waive immaterial informalities, or to accept any proposal which, in the opinion of the Board of Education will be in the best interest of the school district." The Notice also provided that bids could be either mailed to Nilkanth Patel, the Board Secretary-Business Administrator, or hand-delivered to the Board's office. The notice stated "No bid will be considered, regardless of the postmark, unless it is in the hands of the Secretary-Business Administrator prior to the time set for the opening of the bids."

The bid package included detailed "Instructions to Bidders" ("ITB") which also stated that the late bids would not be accepted. For example, at ITB, Article 6, bidders were advised:

> A Proposal will be declared invalid if it is not deposited at the designated location prior to the time and date established for receipt of Bids in the Advertisement for Bids. No oral Bids, or Bids submitted by any method other than the proper form set forth in Article 5, will be accepted or considered by the Owner.

The scope of the Project was to expand and renovate the Donald A. Quarles Elementary School in Englewood. The Board had prepared the plans and specifications in order to afford it the option of accepting certain "alternates" which either increased or decreased the scope of work. Of particular import here was Alternate No. 8, which proposed deletion of "classroom building E" from the base bid. There was substantial plumbing work included within classroom building E. The Bid Form for plumbing specifically listed Alternate No. 8 and instructed the bidders to identify the monetary "deduct" from their bid for this alternate.

Thus, under Section 01100, Alternates, bidders were advised at paragraph IB3 as follows:

> All Alternates described in this Section are required to be reflected in the bid submitted on the Bid Form for the Work; however, do not submit alternates other than those described in this Section.

Paragraph IC1 specified exactly how each bidder was to handle the alternative bids compared to the base bid:

> Each bidder shall submit on the Bid Form, all Alternate Bids stated herein, as the Alternates related to their specific Contract. Alternate Bids shall state the difference in price as "addictions to" or "deductions from" the Base Bid unless otherwise noted, for the substitution, omission, or addition of the alternate materials, items or construction from that shown and specified. If the Alternate does not require a change in the Base Bid, state "No Change" on the Bid Form. (Emphasis added.)

Although bids were normally opened in the front office of the Administration Building, on October 8, 1996, the morning of the bid opening, a meeting in the front office necessitated the Board's moving the bid opening to the library, located on the second floor. No signs were posted to indicate the change of location. In addition, no one was assigned to be at the front entrance in order to direct any other bidders to the new location.

The move took place at about 9:55 a.m. and by the time the group reached the library and were ready to open the bids, the time was approximately 10:02 a.m. Prior to the opening of the bids, another bidder arrived at approximately 10:08 a.m. who identified himself as a representative of Herman H. Braun, Inc. and walked up to the Board Secretary and handed him a sealed envelope. The representative offered no reason for his lateness. The Secretary did not ask the bidder the reason for his lateness but assumed that the bidder was late because he did not know where to go upon entering the building and may have been held up looking for someone who could direct him.

Having accepted the late bid, the Secretary opened the bids. There were only two bidders on the plumbing aspect of the project, Muirfield and Braun. Braun had the lower base bid of $131,100 and Muirfield's base bid was $153,313. Braun's bid made no deduct for Alternative No. 8 but indicated that Alternate No. 8 was "not applicable." Muirfield deducted $50,000 from its bid based on the scope of the work deleted in Alternative No. 8.

Following the receipt of bids, Muirfield's president contacted the Board and protested the award to Braun. On October 9, 1996, Muirfield, through its counsel, sent the Board a formal protest letter. On October 15, 1996, the Board advised Braun that Englewood had resolved to award the plumbing contract, which did not include Alternative No. 8 as part of the project, to Braun. On October 17, 1996, when Muirfield contacted the Board Secretary to ascertain whether Englewood intended to reject the Braun bid as nonresponsive, the Secretary stated that the Board had already resolved to award the contract to Braun. The Board has not entered into a contract with Braun pending the resolution of this motion.

POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES

Petitioner

As there are no material facts at issue, Muirfield is entitled to a Summary Decision in its favor. Petitioner's position is that Braun's bid was materially defective and hence invalid for two reasons. First, the failure of Braun to follow the instructions to provide all the required alternatives bids, specifically Alternative No. 8, rendered the bid non-responsive and invalid. The failure to follow the instructions is a material defect which gave Braun an unfair advantage and provided an opportunity for favortism. Additionally, the acceptance of Braun's bid at 10:08 a.m. after the published time of 10:00 a.m. when no valid reason was proffered was a material defect also rendering the bid invalid. Both material defects undermine the purpose of the public bidding statutes in general and the education public bidding statute in particular. Braun's invalid bid may not be accepted by the Board. Therefore the Muirfield's bid, which was the second lowest bid and conformed to the specifications completely, is the lowest responsible bid and Muirfield must be awarded the contract.

Englewood Board of Education

The Board is entitled to Summary Decision in its favor.[1] The Board argues that neither of the alleged defects are material defects which render a bid invalid. The Board did not select Alternative 8 as part of the scope of the work so no harm was done. The Board assumed that Braun's response "not applicable" meant that the alternative of eliminating classroom building E would not alter Braun's base bid and so the bid was responsive to the bid specifications. Additionally, allowing the bid to be opened ten minutes late was reasonable based on the Secretary's assumption that the lateness was caused by the change of rooms. Moreover, the bid announcement specifically stated that the Board reserved the right to "waive immaterial informalities". Both of these alleged defects were mere immaterial informalities that the Board has the right to waive.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

Administrative summary decisions are governed by N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), which reads:

> The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits. The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged > and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. If the adverse party does not so respond, a summary decision, if appropriate, shall be entered.

[1]The Board argued in its brief that the case was ripe for summary decision in its favor but need a hearing to flesh out more facts before deciding Petitioner's Summary Decison Motion. During a phone conversation with counsel for the Board, counsel for Muirfield and the undersigned, counsel for the Board agreed that the matter was ready for summary decision.

The standards enunciated in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) are similar to those for a summary judgment motion found in R. 4:46-2 Consequently, the cases interpreting R. 4:46-2 are binding.

The first task of the judge in a summary decision motion is to determine whether there is a genuine issue of a material fact. Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 73 (1954). Summary decision is designed to allow the judge to quickly and inexpensively dispose of any case which does not present any genuine issue of material fact requiring disposition at a hearing. Id. at 74. A summary decision motion requires the motion judge to consider "whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995).

Here, the facts material to the matter to be decided are not disputed by the parties. Both parties agree and I CONCLUDE that the matter is ripe for summary decision. Thus my task is to analyze the facts in light of the applicable to law see which party prevails as a matter of law.

Pursuant to the public school contracts law, N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59 (Act) contracts or agreements for the performance of work to be paid out of school funds generally are required to be made only after public advertisement for bids and the bidding has taken place. N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-4. Advertisements for bids are generally required to be published in the newspaper sufficiently in advance of the date fixed for receiving bids but no less than ten days prior to the date. The advertisement must designate the manner of submitting and receiving bids and the time and place at which they will be received. N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-21. Bids must conform to specifications: "No bid shall be accepted which does not conform to the specifications furnished therefore." N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-22. The contract must be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-37.

Legal principals established under other public bidding statutes are applicable to the public school contracts law because the purpose of all bidding statutes is "to secure competition and 'guard against favoritism, improvidence, extravagance and corruption,' in order to benefit the taxpayers and not the bidders." In re Honeywell Info. Sys., Inc., 145 N.J. Super. 187, 200-01 (App. Div. 1976), certif. denied, 73 N.J. 53 (1977) (quoting Township of Hillside v. Sternin, 25 N.J. 317, 322 (1957)). Therefore, public bidding statutes must be construed with sole reference to the public good and rigidly adhered to by the courts. Statewide Hi-Way Safety, Inc. v. New Jersey Dep't of Transp. 283 N.J. Super. 223, 230 (App. Div. 1995).

The law is clear that "where a party does not materially respond to the bid specifications he cannot be classified as a bidder at all, since the specifications are mandatory and jurisdictional." George Harms Constr. Co., Inc. v. Borough of Lincoln Park, 161 N.J. Super. 367, 374 (Law Div. 1978). The conditions and specifications of an invitation to bid must apply equally to all prospective bidders; the individual bidder cannot decide to follow or to ignore these conditions, thereby able to "estimate his bid on a basis different from that afforded to other contenders." Hillside, supra, 25 N.J. at 322-23 (citations omitted).

Legally acceptable bids cannot materially deviate from the specifications set forth by the contracting agency. Meadowbrook Carting Co., Inc. v. Borough of Island Heights, 138 N.J. 307, 314 (1994). While minor or inconsequential discrepancies and technical omissions can be waived, material conditions contained in bidding specifications cannot be waived. Terminal Const. Corp. v. Atlantic County Sewerage

Auth., 67 N.J. 403, 411 (1975). New Jersey Courts have developed a two-prong test for determining if a deviation is material: (1) does waiver of such defect deprive the purchaser of its assurance that the contract will be entered into, performed, and guaranteed according to the specified requirements, and (2) does it adversely affect the competitive bidding process by placing a bidder in a position of advantage over other bidders, or by otherwise undermining the necessary common standard of competition. Meadowbrook Carting, supra, 138 N.J. at 315; Township of River Vale v. R.J. Longo Const. Co, Inc., 127 N.J. Super. 207, 216 (Law Div. 1974).

The failure to bid on all terms necessarily creates an inequality in the bidding and an opportunity for favoritism. Meadowbrook Carting, supra, 138 N.J. at 324-25. Moreover, the omission of a cost item has been held per se material "even if it is unlikely that it could have affected the relative positions of the bidders" because it undermines the common standard of competition. In re On-Line Games Contract, supra, 279 N.J. Super. at 601-02.

In L. Pucillo & Sons, Inc. v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of New Milford, 73 N.J. 349 (1977), where the municipality requested bid proposals for garbage collection for a duration of one, two, three and five years, the firm awarded the contract failed to submit a bid for the five year alternate. The Court found the failure to submit a bid for each alternate a material defect even though the contract was awarded for a three year duration, stating:

> We are not, however, willing to transform the mandatory requirement in these specifications into a polite request. The ordinary reader of the specifications would regard them as calling for bids on all the terms specified. Awarding the contract to one who failed to submit bids on all terms necessarily created an inequality in the bidding and an opportunity for favoritism.
> [Id. at 356.]

The Court pointed out that the bidder who failed to bid on the longest term gained a competitive advantage because the municipality's desire for a long-term contract may have discouraged other bidders. Id. at 357-58.

Here, in response to the bid specifications that required bidding on Alternative No. 8, Braun put "not applicable" for Alternative No. 8. The Board's determination that "not applicable" meant "no change" is lacking in logic in that the phrases do not have the same, or even similar, meaning. The instructions plainly required Braun to put "no change" to connote that the alternative meant no change in the base price. The logical every day meaning of the phrase "Not applicable" in Alternative No. 8 was that Braun did not consider this alternative applicable to its bid. One is left to speculate the reason for the incongruous phrase in the Alternative No. 8 bid. Perhaps Braun misread the bidding instructions and thought it could decline to bid on the project without the classroom building E, which equaled one-third the cost in Muirfield's bid.

Ambiguity in the bidding process is kept to a minimum by the detailed specifications which must be uniformly followed by all bidders. In re On-Line Games Contract, supra at 605. Here, Braun's failure to follow the requirement to bid on all alternatives put it on a different footing than the other bidders who had to take the time and effort to actually consider cost figures and commit themselves to the alternative project if classroom E is not built. Braun's answer to Alternative No. 8 allowed it to avoid the time and effort of calculating the cost and the commitment to a considerably smaller project described in Alternative No. 8. Hence, Braun received an advantage on the other bidders and even over potential bidders who did not bid on the project because Alternative No. 8 was included and might be the final project. Plainly Braun's failure to include the required response to Alternative No. 8 deprived the Board of the ability to engage in a uniform comparison of bids. Thus, even though ultimately the Board did not choose Alternative No. 8 as part of the final project, the deviation was material because of the inequality in the bidding and the opportunity for favoritism in the entire bidding process. L. Pucillo & Sons, Inc. supra at 356.

The other deviation from the published bid specifications was the acceptance of Braun's bid past the published time. It is troubling that Braun's representative offered no explanation whatsoever, let alone a reasonable one, for his lateness and the Board accepted Braun's late bid without even asking the reason. This silence in light of the unusual waiving of the strict time limits had the capacity to undermine the entire bidding process by allowing all attending the bidding to speculate, correctly or not, that Braun was being treated differently than all other bidders. Obviously no extraordinary circumstances that were independently verifiable and beyond the control of the bidder such as in Young v. West Orange Redev. Agency, 125 N.J. Super. 440 (App. Div. 1973) existed that were given to the Board that justified the exceptional waiving of the time requirement.

The acceptance of Braun's bid late had the capacity to give Braun an unfair advantage. While Braun may have been looking for the switched room, he may also have been using the extra time to gain unfair advantage by changing the bid based on the competition, or lack thereof, that he saw in the room. Additionally, the bidding material did not specify the exact room the bidding was to take place so Braun's representative could not have been relying on merely having to reach the front office to be timely. It is possible that Braun's representative reached the original room one or two minutes after ten and it took him only five or six minutes to find the switched room. Thus, the casual waiving of the time limitation without an objective verifiable reason given at the time of the late arrival was arbitrary and unreasonable. Furthermore, it resulted in Braun being placed in a more favorable advantage and it undermined the common standard of competition.

The Supreme Court recently reiterated the need for strict compliance with public bidding laws, noting "In this field it is better to leave the door tightly closed than to permit it to be ajar, thus necessitating forevermore in such cases speculation as to whether or not it was purposely left that way. " Meadowlands Carting, Inc., supra at 314 (quoting Hillside, 25 N.J. at 326). Applying the two-prong test set forth in Meadowbrook

Carting, supra at 315 and Township of Riverdale, supra at 216, I CONCLUDE that each deviation was a material unwaivable defect which invalidated Braun's bid.

While I CONCLUDE that the Board was without the power to accept Braun's invalid bid, this conclusion, however, does not necessarily result in Muirfield's being awarded the contract. Rather, I CONCLUDE that the proper remedy is to return the matter to the Board to consider Muirfield's bid and its other options consonant with the restrictions and purposes of the public school contract law. N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, I hereby ORDER that the petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision is GRANTED and the Board's Motion for Summary Decision is DENIED. I further ORDER that the decision of the Board to accept the Braun's bid is hereby REVERSED and I further ORDER that the Board shall determine whether to accept Muirfield's bid.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton,

New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan 7, 1997
DATE

MARGARET M. HAYDEN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/8/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 8 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

MMH/dgi

EXHIBIT LIST

Petitioner

Certification of Carolyn Zabawa

Certification of Nicholas G. Sapnar

Respondent

Certification of Nilkanth Patel

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11336-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 517-11/96

MUIRFIELD CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, INC.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY, AND HERMAN H. BRAUN, INC.,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties. Prior to the rendering of this decision, however, a proposed settlement agreement was submitted to the Commissioner for his review and approval. (See attached proposed settlement.)

Upon review of the terms of the proposed settlement, wherein the Board has agreed to pay petitioner the sum of $35,000 for release of its claim, the Commissioner herein declines his approval, finding that acceptance of such terms would effectively sanction a proposed subversion of the Public School Contracts Law set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to-59 and would, thus, violate sound public policy. Additionally, the Commissioner finds the settlement defective in that a party to this matter, Respondent Herman Braun, Inc., is not a signatory to the agreement.

Wherefore, as this settlement cannot be countenanced, the Commissioner finds it appropriate to render a final determination on the merits of this matter.

Upon careful and independent review of the initial decision, the Commissioner determines to affirm the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that this matter should be returned to the Board to consider petitioner's bid and its other options consonant with the restrictions and purposes of the Public Schools Contracts Law set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59. In so ruling, the Commissioner observes that Respondent Braun did not participate in the hearing and, therefore, proffered no facts that would permit the ALJ to consider whether the circumstances herein were such that Braun's bid could have been considered timely submitted, notwithstanding that it was received after the time specified, pursuant to In the Matter of Code Environmental Services, Inc., Protest of Bid Award Bid Ref. #92-X-26498, Non-Emergency Remedial Action Services, decided by the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division, April 15, 1993, A-5707-91T2. Therefore, the Commissioner must affirm the finding of the ALJ that the bid was untimely filed.

The Commissioner further concurs that Braun failed to follow instructions to bid on all alternatives in preparation of the bid, rendering its deviation material, as that standard has long been interpreted by the courts, see, e.g., Meadowbrook Carting Co., Inc., supra, and, thus, disallowable under N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-22.

Accordingly, the decision of the OAL is affirmed and this matter should be returned to the Board forthwith to consider petitioner's bid and its other options consonant with the restrictions and purposes of the Public School Contracts Law at N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 to -59.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 24, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 24, 1997

RELEASE AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This RELEASE dated February 10, 1997, is given by MUIRFIELD CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, INC., hereinafter referred to as "Muirfield" or "Releasor", whose principal offices are located at 67 Riverside Avenue, Red Bank, New Jersey 07701

AND

the BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, a school board organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey, whose principal offices are located at 12 Tenafly Road, Englewood, New Jersey 07631, hereinafter referred to as "Releasee".

The parties are involved in a litigation entitled Muirfield Construction Company, Inc. v. Board of Education of the City of Englewood, Bergen County and Herman H. Braun, Inc., OAL Docket No. EDU 11336-96, in which the parties are awaiting a Final Administrative Law Decision from the Commissioner of Education. Said decision is further appealable to the State Board of Education and the appellate divisions of the New Jersey court system, of which either or both parties may exercise their legal right to appeal, engendering legal costs on both sides. In addition, OAL Judge Margaret Hayden's decision to rescind the Board's award of the plumbing contract to Herman H. Braun did not award said contract to Releasor, but remanded the decision back to the Releasee for further consideration. The Releasee is considering rejecting Releasor's bid, which would be the second rejection of a plumbing services bid for this project, thereby offering Releasee an opportunity to negotiate said services pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-5. Releasor disputes Releasee's right to reject its bid and to negotiate, and has indicated that if the Releasee chooses not to award said bid to Releasor, it may invoke further legal action, which will only further delay the project. It is imperative that Releasee complete the Quarles School construction project by the summer of 1997-1998 school year.

In light of all of these issues, and in order to avoid further litigation and legal costs, as well as possibly costly delays to the Quarles Elementary School expansion construction project, which not only impacts the Releasor and Releasee per se, but places additional costs on the Releasee due to construction delays to the general contractor and other subcontractors on the project, Releasor and Releasee agree as follows:

(1) Releasor, with the intention of binding itself, its successors and assigns, does hereby release and discharge the Releasee, its officials, employees, agents and assigns from any claims, demands, actions, judgments and executions which Releasor ever had, or now has, or may ever have, or which the Releasor's successors, or assigns may have, or claim to ever have, against the Releasee, its officers, employees, agents and assigns which arise or could arise out of a legal action that has been filed with the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, entitled Muirfield Construction Company, Inc. v. Englewood Board of Education and Herman H. Braun, Inc., OAL Docket No. EDU 11336-96, Agency Docket No. 517-11/96 (January 7, 1997).

(2) Furthermore, by said release, Releasor agrees not to file any further legal action against Releasee regarding the plumbing bid for the Quarles Elementary School expansion construction project, including, but not limited to, the rejection of the second Muirfield plumbing services bid nor shall Releasor contest the awarding of a plumbing services contract with any other company for the Quarles Elementary School expansion construction project, pursuant to the Local Public Schools Contract Law.

(3) In consideration for such actions by Releasor, Releasee agrees to pay the sum of $35,000.00, within ten (10) days of approval of this Agreement by the Commissioner which Releasor agrees expressly intends to effectuate the extinguishment of all of its obligations as set forth herein or possible in the future.

(4) Releasor hereby authorizes Robert Hedinger, Esq., its attorney, to receive the consideration mentioned above from the Releasee, with the check made payable to "Muirfield Construction Company, Inc. and Robert Hedinger, Esq."

(5) Both parties agree that nothing contained herein is an admission by either party of any wrongdoing, liability, unlawful conduct or breach of any duty or obligation and both parties explicitly deny same.

(6) This document shall be construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey. This document contains the entire understanding between both parties. It may not be changed unless the changes are in writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Releasor and the Releasee.

(7) Both parties acknowledge that they have carefully read this document, that they understand all of its terms and conditions, that they have voluntarily entered into this document, that their authorized representatives, as acknowledged by their signatures below, have been authorized to sign such document and that they have not relied upon any representation or statement, whether written or oral, not set forth in this document.

(8) The terms and conditions of this document are not only subject to the approval of both parties, but the Commissioner of Education as well and this Agreement shall be null and void unless the Commissioner approves the terms and conditions hereof.

Agreed and accepted:

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 10th day of February, 1997.

JUNE R. SILANCE
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires
Feb. 19. 2001

MUIRFIELD CONSTRUCTION CO., INC.
Nicholas G. Sapnar
Title: President

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 10 day of February, 1997.

ENGLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION
Title: PRESIDENT

BOARD SECRETARY

Approved by the New Jersey State Commissioner of Education:

Dated: , 1997

cm/16138rel.bmh

81-97

81-97

M.T., on behalf of minor children, L.T. AND H.T., :

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE LOWER CAMDEN COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning parent challenged the Board's residency determination that her daughters, L.T. and H.T. , were not domiciliaries of the District and, thus, not entitled to a free public education.

ALJ concluded that L.T. and H.T. were not domiciliaries of the District as of March 1995. Although petitioner stated that she returned to Lindenwold to re-establish residency in the District, she presented no evidence to corroborate her assertion. ALJ directed Board to pursue appropriate action to recover funds due it.

Commissioner adopted initial decision with clarification, dismissing the petition and directing petitioner to remit to the Board the tuition representing the full period of ineligible attendance of L.T. and H.T.

February 24, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6471-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 206-6/96

M.T., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN,

L.T., AND H.T.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE LOWER CAMDEN COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

M.T., petitioner, pro se

Robert Birsner, Esq., for respondent (Maressa, Goldstein, Birsner, Patterson, Drinkwater & Oddo, attorneys)

Record Closed: October 28, 1996 Decided: January 2, 1997

BEFORE KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ:

The petitioner appealed to the State Department of Education and on July 23, 1996, the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes of the State Department of Education transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing and determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52: 14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The matter was heard on October 28, 1996, at the Office of Administrative Law, Quakerbridge Road, Hamilton, New Jersey.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

M.T., on behalf of her daughters, L.T. and H.T., has filed a petition claiming that her daughters were entitled to a free public education from the Lower Camden County Regional School District, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. For the school years 1995-1996 and 1996-1997, M.T. enrolled L.T. and H.T. in Overbrook High School, which is within the Lower Camden County Regional School District. In this present action, Lower Camden County Regional School District is now seeking recovery of the tuition funds due to it, for L.T.'s attendance from November 6, 1995 through to the present, and for H.T.'s attendance, from November 6, 1995 through September 6, 1996.

DISCUSSION OF THE TESTIMONY AND EVIDENCE

Petitioner said that she and her daughters moved from Pine Hill, which is within the Lower Camden County Regional School District, to Erial, which is not in the Lower Camden County Regional School District, in March, 1995. Petitioner's two younger children were then enrolled in Gloucester Township Schools, but L.T., who in 1995-1996 was a senior, and H.T., who in 1995-1996 was a sophomore, were not withdrawn from Overbrook High School.

Petitioner claimed that, once she was notified that Lower Camden County Regional School District was challenging her residency, she re-established residency in the Lower Camden County Regional School District, in Lindenwold, 7 days before the end of the school term, so that her daughters could finish the year, and so that L.T. could graduate.

L.T. did not graduate with her class, because of her grades and because of poor attendance.

M.T. withdrew H.T. from Overbrook High School on September 6, 1996. H.T. is now enrolled in the Gloucester school system. To date, L.T. has not been withdrawn from Overbrook High School, although she has not returned to class.

A certification from Dr. Rita Hanna said that the average cost per pupil in Lower Camden County Regional School District was $8,399. in school year 1995-1996., and a similar cost, not available on the date of the hearing, for 1996-1997. (R-13)

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having had the opportunity to observe and to judge the demeanor and credibility of all witnesses in their testimony, and upon review of all the evidence and exhibits submitted, and drawing reasonable inferences therefrom, I FIND the following as FACT by a preponderance of the credible evidence:

1. M.T. and her daughters L.T. and H.T. moved out of the Lower Camden County Regional School District in March, 1995.

2. H.T. was withdrawn from Overbrook High School on September 6, 1996. To date, L.T. has not been withdrawn from Overbrook High School.

DISCUSSION

The relevant statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, states that public schools shall be free to all domiciliaries of the school district.

Despite M.T.'s statement that she returned to Lindenwold to re-establish residency in the Lower Camden County Regional School District, she presented no evidence to corroborate her assertion, which was, I FIND, self-serving and inherently unreliable.

CONCLUSION

I FIND and CONCLUDE that M.T. and her daughters, L.T. and H.T., were not domiciliaries of the school district as of March, 1995.

Respondent may now pursue an appropriate action before the Superior Court for the recovery of the tuition funds due to it.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan 2, 1997
DATE

KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/8/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 10 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ej

DOCUMENTS IN EVIDENCE

For Petitioner:

none

For Respondent:

R-1 certification of Dr. Rita Hanna

WITNESSES

For Petitioner:

M.T., petitioner

For Respondent:

Martin Dunn, Director of Security

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6471-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 206-6/96

M.T., on behalf of minor children, L.T. AND H.T.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE LOWER CAMDEN COUNTY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that M.T. is not domiciled within respondent's District and, therefore, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, L.T. and H.T. are not entitled to a free public education. It is observed that in reaching this decision, the Commissioner had no cause to question the ALJ's assessment of petitioner's credibility as such assessment is not belied by the record.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL dismissing the Petition of Appeal, clarifying that petitioner is hereby directed to remit to the Board tuition representing the full period of ineligible attendance of L.T. and H.T.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 24, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 24, 1997

82-97

82-97 R

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF MARY CATLIN, STATE-	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	DECISION ON REMAND
CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY.	:
	:

February 24, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9326-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 203-6/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF MARY CATLIN, STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,

---

Charlotte Kitler, Esq., for petitioner, State Operated School District of Jersey City

Philip Feintuch, Esq., for respondent (Feintuch, Porwich & Feintuch, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 3, 1996 Decided: January 7, 1997

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The State-Operated School District of the City of Jersey City certified charges of inefficiency against respondent, Mary Catlin. Catlin is a tenured teacher employed by the District. On February 13, 1995, the District found probable cause to certify the tenure charge of inefficiency which, if true, would warrant Catlin's termination. On June 2 1995, the District filed the written charges with the Commissioner of Education.

The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law on August 23, 1995 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and 52:14F-1 to -13. Hearings were scheduled for on June 7, 13 and 14, 1996.

A hearing was held on June 13 wherein the parties agreed to settle this matter. At the hearing, the respondent, Catlin, was carefully examined by her attorney wherein he was advised that the settlement agreement was subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Education. Further, that the Commissioner could refer this matter to the State Board of Examiners for further action. Thereafter, Catlin acknowledged that she fully understood the charges and the consequences of this settlement.

On June 28, 1996 an Initial Decision Settlement was issued by the undersigned. On August 14, 1996, the Commissioner issued a Decision rejecting the settlement finding that the initial decision did not satisfy the standard as set forth in Cardonick Brookline Board of Education, 1990 S.L.D. 842. Thus, the matter was remanded to the undersigned for a revision of settlement terms consistent with Cardonick decision.

On December 5, 1996 a hearing was held wherein the parties agreed that the Cardonick standards were satisfied at the June 13th hearing and that the initial decision should be modified to reflect same. In accordance with the decision of the State Board of Education in Cardonick v. Brookline Board of Education, 1990 S.L.D. 842, the record of any proposed settlement must include:

> [T]he nature of the charges, circumstances justifying the settlement, consent or authorization by the board of education and the teacher to the proposed agreement, the Administrative Law Judge's findings that the teacher entered into the agreement with a full understanding of his rights and that the agreement is consistent with the public interest. Cardonick at 850-51.

After a review of the entire record, I FIND that the proposed settlement is consistent with the public interest because it will save significant legal expenses and costs as well as time expended by administrators and witnesses. I further FIND that Catlin had full opportunity to consult with legal counsel prior to entering into the agreement. Catlin is aware that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6 the Commissioner may refer this matter to the State Board of Examiners for any action which he may deem appropriate. Further, Catlin was informed by counsel that notwithstanding, the parties agreement to settle this matter, the Commissioner may not approve the settlement agreement. Thus, any execution of the settlement prior to the approval by the Commissioner is done at the peril of the parties.

I CONCLUDE that the proposed settlement fully disposes of all issues and controversies. I further CONCLUDE that the terms of this settlement are in the public interest.

It is therefore ORDERED that upon approval by the Commissioner that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that the proceedings are hereby CONCLUDED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

1/7/97
DATE

Irene Jones
IRENE JONES, ALJ

Jan. 9, 1997
DATE

Receipt Acknowledged:

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

JAN 10 1997
DATE

Mailed to Parties:

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

sej

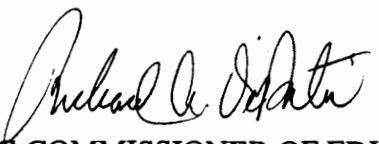
OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 9499-95 and EDU 9326-96 (ON REMAND)
AGENCY DKT. NO. 203-6/95

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF MARY CATLIN, STATE-	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	DECISION ON REMAND
CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.



ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

February 24, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 24, 1997

84-97

84-97 B

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WOODBRIDGE, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WOODBRIDGE, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $2,855,000 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 16, 1996.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line-item reductions or reversal of increases to revenue was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the District, Commissioner determined to increase by $518,265 the General Fund tax levy for a total of $90,177,294 for 1996-97 school purposes.

February 24, 1997

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WOODBRIDGE, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WOODBRIDGE, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

For the Board, Carl J. Palmisano, Esq. (Palmisano & Goodman, P.A.)

For the Township of Woodbridge, Paul M. Weiner, Esq. (Weiner Lesniak)

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 14, 1996, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Woodbridge Board of Education, seeking restoration of reductions to the school budget made by the Municipal Council of the Township of Woodbridge (Council) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the budget at the annual school election on April 16, 1996.

At that election, the voters rejected a public question proposing a General Fund tax levy of $92,514,029 for the 1996-97 school year. On May 14, 1996, following consultation with the Board, as required by law, the Council adopted a resolution determining to certify a General Fund tax levy of $89,659,029 as sufficient to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E) in the District. This amount represented a reduction of $2,855,000 from the tax levy proposed by the Board, and was effectuated through increases in two revenue line items and cuts in 12 appropriation line items, for the reasons in Appendix A attached to the Council's May 14, 1996 resolution. By resolution dated May 23, 1996, the Board determined to appeal these reductions and duly filed the within petition.

The amounts in dispute in this appeal are as follows:

Tax Levy Proposed by Board		Tax Levy Certified by Council
General Fund	$92,514,029	General Fund	$89,659,029

Amount of Reduction by Council		Amount of Reduction in Dispute
General Fund	$ 2,855,000	General Fund	$ 2,855,000

An answer to the Board's petition was filed by the Council on June 28, 1996. On July 18, 1996 and July 19, 1996, respectively, the parties filed position statements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.8, followed by responsive statements on August 7, 1996 and August 12, 1996. The parties chose not to file final summations.

In addition, as the parties had previously been advised by letter from the Assistant Commissioner dated March 13, 1996 and distributed through the County Superintendent to boards and municipalities experiencing budget defeats, as part of the record of the within appeal, the Commissioner took official notice of the Board's revised budget, its June 30 financial report, and its year-end audit, the latter two for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1996-97 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. Following review of the Board's annual audit report, on November 21, 1996 and November 27, 1996, and in response to the Commissioner's request for additional information regarding the Board's health benefits, the parties filed supplemental papers in response to the Commissioner's request and the Council filed a response thereto.

Upon filing of the parties' response submissions as noted above, the record of the appeal was closed.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E). The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such T & E to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line-item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of T & E. Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).

Mindful, then, of the standard to be applied, the Commissioner makes the specific determinations set forth below.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Disputed Line-Item Number 1

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amt. Budgeted	Amt. Increased
120	10-303	Budgeted Fund Balance	$0	$840,000

In addition to the line item reductions imposed in the appropriation accounts, the Board seeks an increase in revenues through the appropriation of $840,000 in surplus. In order to reach this figure, the Board avers that the Council incorrectly assumed an estimated surplus of $3,941,195 as of June 30, 1996 which the Council finds to be $840,000 in excess of the permitted 3 percent surplus for the 1996-97 general fund budget. The Board contends that the unaudited cumulative surplus as of June 30, 1996 is $2,853,604, which equals the balance of the accumulated surplus as of June 30,1996, together with the operational surplus for 1995-96 in the amount of $1,600,384. This calculation is based upon an assumption of a 3 percent permitted surplus for the 1996-97 General Fund budget, the Board would be permitted to carry a surplus of $3,101,195. Thus, the Board contends the available surplus is $2,853,603 which is significantly below the 3 percent permitted surplus and, the Municipal Council, therefore, has no surplus upon which to rely for its proposed cut.

The Board explains that at the time of the budget negotiations the consultant to the Municipal Council placed reliance upon expenditures as of April 17, 1996. It asserts that these figures, in accordance with GAAP, did not include encumbrances through the end of the school year for payments made upon voucher. The Board then attaches a payroll journal to reveal all expenditures that were not encumbered on April 17, 1996, but were, in fact, made prior to June 30, 1996. The Board summarized submitting that the Council's projection which disregarded these payments is fatally flawed and inaccurate beyond repair and must, therefore, be rejected as a foundation to the present budget cuts.

The Board further explains that the expenditure for paving consultants' fees of $625,720 could not have been anticipated. The need for paving arose from "the severe weather conditions in the winter of 1995/96 which resulted in extreme damage to the paved areas of numerous school facilities." Nor could the consultant fees be anticipated because the Board initiated a feasibility study to address the deteriorated condition of its physical plant. The Board determined to expand the scope of a bond issue to include all 24 educational facilities. The decision of the Board to expand this scope, it avers, resulted in an increase in the services required to be performed by the consultants. (Response Submission at pp. 2-3)

The Council's position is that this amount represents the estimated June 30, 1996 fund balance in excess of 3 percent of the 1996-97 General Fund Budget after recasting the additional balance anticipated during 1995-96 for additional excess revenues that were understated.

In its Position Statement (Appendix A), the Council avers that the Board's contention that the unaudited cumulative surplus as of June 30, 1996 is $2,853,603, as compared to the Council's projected surplus of $3,941,195, does not explain how the Board arrived at such a surplus balance. The Board's "advertised recapitulation of balances" included in the 1996-97 budget reflects additional balances of surplus to be appropriated during 1995-96 in the amount of $50,000. The Board did appropriate $50,000 from surplus by resolution on February 15, 1996. However, the Board fails to mention that subsequent to the Council's approval of the tax levy for the 1996-97 budget on May 14, 1996, the Board substantially depleted its surplus below the permitted 3 percent surplus level by appropriating $625,720 for paving ($400,000) and consultant fees ($225,720).

In doing so, the Council asserted the Board failed to state in its appropriating resolutions that these costs were unanticipated. The Council notes the resolution appropriating the $50,000, as presented to the voters in the recapitulation of balances, does state the expenses were unanticipated and questions how the Board predicted $50,000 of unanticipated costs in one instance but overlooked $625,720 of other costs. The Council concludes stating that "[t]he approval of the utilization of additional surplus by the Board subsequent to the Council's certification of the tax levy appears to be a direct action to lower surplus below the level and amount projected by the Council." (Council's Position Statement, Appendix A)

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the audited unreserved general fund surplus at June 30, 1996, per the annual year-end audit, was $3,375,338. When comparing this audited amount to the calculation of 3 percent of the proposed 1996-97 general fund budget amount of $103,788,168, or $3,113,645, there is $261,693 in excess of 3 percent. However, a review of the district's Advertised Recapitulation of Balances as contained in the proposed 1996-97 School District Budget Statement indicates that the Board of its own volition reduced its estimated general fund surplus below 3 percent during the 1995-96 school year, and, in fact, proposed a budget for 1996-97 with an estimated undesignated general fund balance of less than 3 percent. Accordingly, the Commissioner finds that the difference between the actual audited surplus of $3,375,338 and the Board's estimated surplus of $2,853,603 as entered into the record, that is, $521,735, shall be included in the 1996-97 budget as Budgeted Fund Balance rather than the $840,000 suggested by Council.

Disputed Line-Item Number 2

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amt. Budgeted	Amt. Increased
250	10-1XXX	Revenues from Local Sources - Miscellaneous	$400,000	$1,600,000

The Board submits the certification of Frank Doyle, III, insurance consultant, to charge that the $1,000,000 retiree contributions to health benefits cannot be used as anticipated revenue. The remaining $600,000 of additional revenue upon which the Council relied are nonrecurring items. For example, in the 1995-96 school year, the Board sold school buses which provided additional revenue in the amount of $72,000. These buses are no longer available for sale and the revenues, therefore, will not recur. The balance of the funds include, for example, approximately $136,000 as reimbursement from insurance carriers for insured casualty losses, reimbursement of janitor overtime which is predicated upon the use of facilities by outside organizations, athletic activities, adult enrichment programs for which reimbursement was obtained and others all of which are set forth on the attached Miscellaneous Revenue Listing known as Exhibit C. With respect to the interest earned set forth on Exhibit C, the Board notes that this is a speculative figure, at best, dependent not only upon the interest rates, but upon the periods in which available surplus may be invested. Moreover, a major reduction in the amount of surplus held by the District will of necessity reduce the amount of interest which can be anticipated from these funds. The Board urges, therefore, that the Council improperly placed reliance upon these funds as if they were recurring and guaranteed available during the coming school year.

The Board argues that Mr. Doyle's submission explains that based on the current increase in claims experience and in light of the minimal 1 percent and 4 percent respectively, it is probable a large portion (if not all) of the $1,000,000 will be called by CIGNA in the upcoming year. To put this in perspective, through 11 months of the current year, CIGNA has used $644,985 of the $1,000,000 it had set aside in the APDF for the July 1, 1995 to July 1, 1996 policy year.

The Council states that the Board has included as miscellaneous revenues retiree health benefits for the 1994-95 and 1995-96 fiscal years. It challenges the Board's contention that the retiree health benefits of approximately $1,000,000 cannot be used as anticipated revenues as a major change in the application of accounting principles as applied to the realization of miscellaneous revenues. It avers the Board is suggesting an approximate 50 percent change in the manner in which it realizes miscellaneous revenues. Additionally, if its claims experience, with regard to health benefits, changes during the fiscal year 1996-97, the Council avers the Board should rely on its surplus balance to absorb any costs that were unforeseen when it developed the 1996-97 budget. The Council explains that it is providing a 3 percent surplus balance to the District for unforeseen costs such as a poor claims experience. Furthermore, it contends the Board continually lapses unexpended budget balances.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board's accounting for the reimbursement of health care premiums made on the behalf of former District employees is inconsistent with generally accepted accounting principles. Under GAAP, any such reimbursed premiums are neither revenues nor expenditures of the district, and should not be included in the district's budget since they are not related to district employees but are merely offered under the COBRA system to provide the former employees health coverage at a lower cost. The proper treatment in the budget and accounting records is to charge that portion of the premium payment that relates to former employees to a balance sheet account known as an "accounts receivable." When payments are received from the former employees, they are applied as a reduction to the accounts receivable balance. This treatment allows the district to track the amounts owed to it from former employees and reflects as an insurance premium in the budget only that amount related to its current employees, which is the district's true expenditure in this area.

The "Analysis of the Recognition of Revenues for Retiree Health Care Contributions" provided by the Board's insurance consultant, Mr. Doyle, confirms that the Board's annual premium obligation to CIGNA for the 1996-97 fiscal year is $11,950,000, of which $900,000 relates to retirees. The consultant indicates that the District's 1996-97 budget did not contain full funding of the premium but, instead, reflected a $1,000,000 reduction, or $10,950,000 in District account #11-000-290-290-60-B-AD-00, with the $1,000,000 reduction effectuated through the collateralization of funds held by the carrier on behalf of the Board in an advance premium deposit fund (APDF) to fund claims that have been incurred but not reported (IBNR) by claimants. The IBNR claims are due to the carrier upon the termination of the insurance policy as "run-off" claims. Under GAAP, districts are required to show the IBNR amount as liability in the annual audit. Any funds held by the insurance agent in excess of the IBNR in an ADPF account are considered unreserved surplus. Mr. Doyle reported that the balance of the ADPF account was $3,143,343 and that the most recent IBNR obligation from CIGNA was $2,534,126. A review of the detailed budget submitted as Exhibit IIA to the petition of appeal reflects a budgeted appropriation of $11,789,012 in account #11-000-290-290-60-B-AD-00. Through a subsequent request, the Board was asked to provide an explanation for the discrepancy in the amount reported as being budgeted per the consultant and the amount reflected in that detailed budget. The Board's explanation was that the difference of $839,012 represented amounts budgeted for payments to HMOs, employees who waive their insurance, the Vision Service Plan, and the Employee Assistance Plan. In response to that explanation statement, the Council submitted a letter from its certified public accountant offering agreement that other amounts other than the CIGNA premium are included in District account #11-000-290-290-60-B-AD-00 for hospitalization. The Council's response stated that its projection of the 1995-96 expenditures for those items was approximately $563,000, and that based on that projection, the budgeted figure of $839,012 represents a $276,012 increase or 49 percent for the 1996-97 year.

In the District's June 30, 1996 annual audit, a liability of $3,534,126 is reflected for the IBNR claims for the CIGNA plan, or an amount $1,000,000 in excess of the $2,534,126 reported by the Board's consultant as the liability, which is an apparent accrual of the funds collateralized. With the overstatement of the IBNR liability, the June 30, 1996 unreserved surplus is understated by $1,000,000.

The annual audit reflects miscellaneous income of $1,946,434 for 1995-96 and $2,041,212 for 1994-95. When these figures are reduced by retiree reimbursements recorded as revenue in those years they result in true audited miscellaneous revenues of approximately $1,000,000 for each of the two years, in comparison to the $300,000 and $350,000 budgeted. Although the earned revenues consist of some sources that are nonrecurring, the total realized revenues are comparable.

In conclusion, the Commissioner finds that although the District's budgeted CIGNA premium payments were reduced by the $1,000,000 collateralization of ADPF funds, that same amount has resulted in an understatement of surplus at June 30, 1996. The District is directed to make the necessary adjustments in its accounting records to reclassify the $1,000,000, from the IBNR liability to unreserved surplus. This $1,000,000 is considered available to be appropriated in the 1996-97 budget. Accordingly, the Commissioner determines to increase the amount included in the 1996-97 budget as Budgeted Fund Balance by an amount of $1,000,000, in addition to the $521,735 increase determined in disputed line-item 1. The Commissioner further directs the District to follow proper accounting and budgeting procedures related to the insurance premium amounts reimbursed by former employees remaining on the Board's insurance policy. In addition, when comparing the actual miscellaneous revenue after adjustment for retiree reimbursements of approximately $1,000,000 in each of the past two years, the budgeted figure of $400,000 can be increased. Giving consideration to the audited figure of $74,000 for the proceeds of the sale of equipment as being a one-time revenue source and the impact of the directed reduction of surplus balances on investment income, the Commissioner directs an increase of $400,000 in the amount budgeted for miscellaneous revenues.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 3-4

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6440	11-000-213-300	Health Svcs. - Purchased Prof. & Tech. Svcs.	$209,700	$30,000
6460	11-000-213-600	Health Svcs. - Supplies & Materials	$ 59,165	$ 5,000

The Board contends the consultant for the Council erroneously grouped a series of accounts under Health Services. In fact, avers the Board, line item #11-000-213-300 is composed of a series of categories, including a consultant for the deaf, a consultant for pupil personnel, and a consultant for the blind and OT/PT therapy. The Board urges that a review of these accounts for the periods 1994-95 and 1995-96 yields an available figure of approximately $5,000, which, the Board argues, neglects the nature of the special education services which must be available for the students.

In response, the Council avers that the 1996-97 budget reflects excessive increases of 30 percent over the 1995-96 original budget in the first account and a 37 percent increase in the second account. The Council notes that even with the proposed cuts, the Board will achieve an 11.5 percent increase in the former account over last year's original budget and a 26 percent increase in the latter account.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the consultant services referred to in the Board's argument have been improperly coded to health services under the uniform minimum chart of accounts. If the consultant services relate to the evaluation of students for the development of individualized education programs (IEPs), they should be coded under the Other Support Services - Students - Special function. A review of that account, #11-000-219-320, indicates that no funds have been budgeted therein. If the consultant services are related to the implementation of student IEPs, those services, as well as the OT/PT therapy services, are properly budgeted under the appropriate special education instruction cost center. A review of the District's budget indicates that no funds were budgeted in any of the special education instruction programs for purchased services.

The Commissioner finds that the Council's arguments are based on the increases in the amounts for the 1996-97 budget to the amounts originally budgeted for those same appropriation lines in 1995-96. Even though the annual audit for 1995-96 indicates actual expenditures of $199,456 for these services, the Board's own exhibit IIA reveals that as late as February 1, 1996, the Board anticipated that only $166,825 in expenditures would be incurred. Accordingly, it was not unreasonable for the Council to propose a reduction of this account to $179,700. The arguments filed by the Board provide no reasons for the additional actual expenditures which exceeded its own estimates. Additionally, the Board does not provide any documentation such as the number of students to be served or the individualized education programs which require the related services and establish the level of related services to be provided. It provides no documentation as to the terms of the consultant contracts as to hourly or per diem rates or caseloads. In short, the Board has not documented its need, one which exceeds its own prior year estimates, or provided data sufficient to ascertain it. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $30,000 to account #11-000-213-300. The 1996-97 budgeted health supplies amount of $59,165 reflects a significant increase over the audited 1994-95 expenditures of $51,835 and 1995-96 audited expenditures of $46,369. In light of this increase and the Board's failure to document the necessity of the increase for provision of T & E, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $5,000 to account #11-000-213-600.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 5-6

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6490	11-000-218-104	Other Supp. Services - Reg. - Salaries of Other Prof. Staff	$2,085,097	$25,000
6910	11-000-230-100	Supp. Svcs. - Gen. Adm. Sal.	$ 994,785	$ 5,000

The Board says the first account addresses actual salaries of "other professional staff" and that the amount appropriated in the line item is $16,000 less than the actual expenditure for this line item in the 1995-96 school year. The second account represents actual salaries paid to the two Assistant Superintendents for the 1995-96 school year and that it is exactly the same amount of money as last year, which does not include any salary increase.

The Council avers the 1996-97 budget has been reduced based upon the 1995-96 expenditures for this line item projected to June 30, 1996 utilizing actual cash disbursements as of April 17, 1996 as the basis for the projection. Additionally, with regard to the second account, the Council points out that the sub-line item in the 1995-96 budget for labor negotiations in the amount of $50,000 should not be recurring in 1997.

The staffing information submitted by the Board in Exhibits IIA and IIB with its Petition of Appeal reflects one position reduction of Guidance/SAC staff in the 1996-97 budget. The aforementioned reduction of $16,000, combined with the Council suggested cut of $25,000, results in a total reduction of $41,000 for the 1996-97 budget in this account. With an average budgeted salary of $60,000 to $65,000, it appears that the reduction can be absorbed by the Board. Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not provided sufficient proof that the Council's cut would jeopardize provision of T & E and sustains the $25,000 reduction to account #11-000-218-104.

The staffing and budget information submitted by the Board indicates no change in staffing for the area of general administration and the Board argument is that the 1996-97 budgeted amount of $994,785 was based on 1995-96 salaries, with no budgeted salary increase. When compared to the 1995-96 audited expenditures for this account of $973,803, the increase in the 1996-97 budget more than exceeds the Council's $5,000 reduction in the account. Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not provided sufficient proof that the Council's cut would jeopardize provision of a T & E education and sustains the $5,000 reduction to account #11-000-230-100.

Disputed Line-Item Number 7

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6950	11-000-230-530	Supp. Svcs. - Gen. Admin. - Communications/Telephone	$344,424	$30,000

The Board argues that the Council's proposed cut of $30,000 in this line item includes costs of telephones. In fact, the appropriation for 1996-97 is approximately $353,000. The line item which has been submitted shows the sum as $324,032, the sum for communications. Explanation for the apparent difference in the amount to be expended for this line item is clear, avers the Board, since the sum represented the amounts of bills paid through May 31, 1996 and does not include the amounts of payments required for the month of June 1996. In addition to the amount budgeted for this line item, the District avers it has received communication from the IRS stating it is required to provide direct electronic fund transfer via personal computers. This necessitates the installation of a dedicated telephone line for which additional communication costs will be incurred. In addition to this item, the State of New Jersey Department of Purchasing has indicated that State contracts information, while currently available in hard copy form via computer link-up based upon the February 21, 1996, correspondence attached from transfer procedure, shall be implemented on a mandatory basis in the near future. This will necessitate additional dedicated phone services at additional cost to the District.

The Council purports that the 1996-97 budget of $344,424 has been reduced by $30,000 based upon the 1995-96 expenditures for this line item projected to June 30, 1996, utilizing actual cash disbursements as of April 17, 1996.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that the 1996-97 figure of $353,000 referred to in the Board's argument relates to the Board's projection of 1995-96 actual expenditures and that actual audited expenditures were $339,855, or $13,115 less. The Commissioner also notes that the audited actual expenditures for 1995-96 exceed those for 1994-95 by $45,260, a significant 15 percent increase. The Commissioner also notes that the district's argument for future needs regarding dedicated phone lines is not a requirement in fiscal year 1996-97. The enrollment forms for the IRS automatic payment system submitted as Exhibit D to the Board's position statement offer a number of payment input methods alternative to use of a personal computer. In addition, the State of New Jersey Department of Purchasing link-up system for state contracts information is not required at this time and the Board would experience offsetting savings on the Cooperative Purchasing subscriber membership fee at the point it changes to an electronic link-up system. In summary, the Board has not documented its need for the funds to be restored. The additional needs cited are without merit. Reliance on the audited expenditures for 1995-96 would require a determination that such level of expenditures was both efficient and necessary without any evidence to support such a determination. In fact, the only evidence on the record is that the 1995-96 expenditure was a 15 percent increase over the prior year and may likely be an aberration. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the $30,000 reduction.

Disputed Line-Item Number 8

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7040	11-000-240-110	Supp. Svcs. - School Admin. - Other Salaries	$536,689	$5,000

The Board states that a careful review of this line item indicates that the proposed budget is $536,689. The amount actually expended for the 1995-96 is $529,500. While this would appear to make the sum of $6,000 available, it fails to provide the District with any flexibility in the event conditions at the school require the employment of additional school aides to assist in the operation of the District's educational program.

The Council avers that the 1996-97 budget of $536,689 has been reduced by $5,000 based upon the 1995-96 expenditures for this line item projected to June 30, 1996, utilizing actual cash disbursements as of April 17, 1996. The revised budget amount still provides an 11.5 percent increase above the 1995-96 original budget.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the determination of the Council to cut this amount was reasonably based and that the Board has not met its burden of demonstrating that without this amount T & E would not be provided. Thus, the cut of $5,000 is sustained. The Commissioner also notes the existence of a possible coding error in this account. If the school aides discussed in the Board's argument are classroom aides having direct interaction with students, their salaries would be recorded under the appropriate instructional program in Object 106, Other Salaries for Instruction. The District is directed to revise its budget accordingly.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 9-12

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7100	11-000-260-100	Op. & Maint./ Plant Svcs. - Salaries	$4,204,168	$15,000
7120	11-000-260-420	Op. & Maint./Plant Svcs. - Cleaning, Repair & Maint. Svcs.	$ 404,186	$10,000
7140	11-000-260-490	Op. & Maint./ Plant Svcs. - Other Purchased Prop. Svcs.	$ 157,421	$50,000
7180	11-000-260-620	Op. & Maint./Plant Svcs. - Energy	$1,607,423	$30,000

The Board says the Council's proposed reductions in these line items is erroneously based upon 1995-96 projected expenditures for custodial overtime and service to machinery and this projection ignores the efforts of the District over the past several years to operate the District with significantly fewer custodial staff. Further, due to the condition of its physical plant, the Board argues it is necessary that the funds budgeted be maintained in order to deliver T & E and to maintain an appropriately safe environment for our students and personnel.

The Board argues that the cut to line item 7140 will affect the water service available to the District. In addition, the line item affects the sewer user fee which the Board is obligated to pay to the municipality.

It argues that the amounts budgeted for line item 7180 were increased over the 1995-96 expenditure in order to provide for the anticipated increase in gas consumption necessitated by the conversion of nine schools from fuel oil to gas during the 1995-96 school year. It contends it has made reasonable conservative estimates of the amounts of gas fuel needed to heat these nine additional school buildings.

In reply, the Council says the reduction in each of the line items is based upon the 1995-96 expenditures based upon the actual cash disbursements as of the April 17, 1996 of each of the above line-item reports.

Upon review, the Commissioner determines that the Council's suggested reduction of custodial overtime to $120,000 provides the Board with the flexibility requested, in that the Board's Position Statement reflects a 1995-96 expenditure in this area of $97,150, and accordingly sustains the reduction of $15,000 to account #11-000-260-100.

As to account # 11-000-260-420, the Board contends that the actual expenditures for 1995-96 were approximately $423,350, or about $20,000 more than the $404,186 requested for 1996-97. The Commissioner notes that the district's annual audit indicates actual expenditures for 1995-96 to be $397,849, more than $25,000 less than the amount the Board relied on in establishing its 1996-97 request. The 1995-96 actual expenditures represent a 47 percent increase over the 1994-95 audited expenditures, a consequence of the district's reduction in custodial staff. The Board cites the condition of its physical plant as argument for restoration, but does not provide any documentation or even a description of the conditions. In fact, the statement is so vague that only through implication can one deduce that conditions are not good. Given that the Board's original request was based on an erroneous, overstated estimate of 1995-96 expenditures, and that no documentation was provided beyond a vague reference to the physical plant's condition, the Commissioner sustains the $10,000 reduction.

As to account # 11-000-260-490, the Board argues that in addition to actual 1995-96 expenditures for both water and the sewer user fees, that it is appropriate to budget for anticipated increases in the rates for water service, as well as in user fees. However, no documentation was provided on either an actual basis, such as a notice to that effect from its utility provider or municipality, or a historical trend basis. Additionally, to rely solely on the prior actual expenditures is to assume that the district's use of water is efficient and that the district has taken all steps available to conserve water usage. No documentation or evidence has been entered on the record as to the district's efficiency or steps it has taken to conserve water usage. Given the lack of evidence as to need, the Commissioner sees no adverse affect to the district and sustains the $50,000 reduction.

As to the $30,000 reduction to account #11-000-260-620, the Board contends that there is no history of gas consumption on which to base an estimate, given that the conversion to gas from fuel oil only occurred during the 1995-96 school year. The Board further contends that the increase in gas consumption must be anticipated as a consequence of the conversion. Also the Board contends that the original budget level is needed in case of a severe winter. The Commissioner notes that the Board provides no rationale for the conversion from fuel oil to gas heat, a conversion which a reasonable person would assume would provide significant savings. The Commissioner also notes that such conversions are not generally performed without a full analysis by the contractor as to the potential gas usage and costs or savings. Yet, rather than provide such information, the Board chooses to argue that no such estimate is possible due to a lack of historical data. The Commissioner notes that it is not necessary for budgets to be based on worst case scenarios such as severe winters; indeed, such rare or random occurrences are why the law permits surpluses, or "rainy day funds" as they are commonly called. The Commissioner also notes that the reduced appropriation exceeds the actual expenditure for 1994-95, the year prior to the conversion, by over 4 percent. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the $30,000 reduction to account #11-000-260-620.

Disputed Line-Item Number 13

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7360	11-100-290-100	Business & Other Support Svcs. - Salaries	$1,289,491	$40,000

The Board avers that this line item cannot be cut due to the fact that the salaries in the Board Secretary's office are approximately corresponding to the personnel employed in that office. In the 1995-96 school year, this salary was provided for in the superintendent's personnel line item. A review of that line item will note that it was reduced by $69,477. This includes the $48,000 allocated to the budget staff person referred to herein.

The Council says the reduction of $40,000 is based upon the salaries encumbered for 1995-96. The reduced appropriation provides for a 2 percent increase in salaries for 1996-97.

Upon review of Disputed Line-Item Number 6 for general administration salaries, it was found that the total 1996-97 budgeted appropriations for that line reflected an increase over the prior year actual expenditures of approximately $20,000 with no change in budgeted positions. The staffing and budget information submitted by the Board also indicates no change in staffing for the area of the business office. The 1996-97 budgeted appropriation for this account of $1,289,491 reflects an approximate increase of $60,000 over the 1995-96 actual expenditures for this account. The total increase in budgeted appropriations to these accounts does not support the Board's argument of a shift in budgeted appropriations between the two lines. Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not provided sufficient proof that the Council's cut would jeopardize provision of a T&E education and sustains the $40,000 reduction to account #11-000-290-100.

Disputed Line-Item Number 14

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7370	11-000-290-220	Business & Other Support Svcs. - Social Security Contrib.	$1,590,000	$170,000

The Council proposes a reduction of $170,000 based upon the 1995-96 projected expenditures. The Board contends such cut would remove funding necessary for the District to pay the social security obligation for its employees for all payments other than TPAF contracted salaries. Additionally, the professional staff earn "other income" for services rendered to the District in excess of the contracted salaries for which the District is obliged to make in this contribution based upon a rate of 7.65 percent of those additional monies. The school district is also obligated to make this contribution for the supplemental compensation paid to employees upon retirement. The amount of supplemental contribution which the District must pay by contract during the 1996-97 school year is $1,343,642. The FICA obligation on that sum alone is $102,788.61. The District is also obligated to pay the FICA contribution for the vacation pay which will be due and payable at the conclusion of the 1996-97 school year. Further, for all salary payments made upon voucher for its noncontracted services, the District is also obligated to make FICA contributions. The Board finalizes its argument stating that the sums proposed by Council disregard this obligation and prohibit the District from meeting this legal requirement.

The Board then refers to Exhibit F in its petition which reflects the amounts paid during the 1995-96 school year. This data was used to project the amounts needed for 1996-97 expenditures. It stresses that these amounts do not anticipate any salary increases for the 1996-97 school year and thereafter.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the aforementioned calculation provided by the Board as Exhibit F is based on the total payroll of the District and does not take into consideration those employees whose salaries and related benefits are charged to grants or the food service program and, thus, are not included in the budget for the general fund social security appropriations account. A better basis for determination of funds needed for 1996-97 would be a comparison to the prior year actual expenditures with adjustment for changes in staffing and salaries. The staff count data sheet submitted as Exhibit IIB to the Petition of Appeal reflects an overall reduction in staff in the 1996-97 proposed budget. The 1996-97 proposed budgeted appropriations for account #11-000-290-220 of $1,590,000 is an increase of approximately $247,000 over the actual expenditures for 1995-96. In light of the decreased staffing level it appears that the Council's proposed cut would not jeopardize provision of T&E. Thus, the Commissioner determines to sustain the $170,000 reduction to this line item.

In summary, the Commissioner directs restoration or sustaining of the Council's line-item reductions to appropriations and/or increases to revenue in surplus accounts as set forth below. The Commissioner further notes that all restorations to line-item appropriations are restricted in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.11(b)3.[1]

Line Item	Description	Sustained	Restored
6440	Health Svcs. - Purchased Prof. & Tech. Svcs.	$ 30,000	$ -0-
6460	Health Svcs. - Supplies & Materials	$ 5,000	$ -0-
6490	Other Supp. Svcs. - Reg. - Salaries of Other Prof. Staff	$ 25,000	$ -0-
6910	Supp. Svcs. General Admin. - Salaries	$ 5,000	$ -0-
6950	Supp. Svcs. - General Admin. - Communications/Telephone	$ 30,000	$ -0-
7040	Supp. Svcs. - School Admin. - Other Salaries	$ 5,000	$ -0-
7100	Op. & Maint./Plant Svcs. - Salaries	$ 15,000	$ -0-
7120	Op. & Maint./Plant Svcs. - Cleaning, Rep., Mtn.	$ 10,000	$ -0-

[1] The Commissioner observes that data available within the department indicate that significant reallocation within the certified budget can be achieved. For instance, the district's administrative spending per pupil as defined in the Comparative Spending Guide exceeds the state average by $74 or a total of almost $890,000, and the 1996-97 budget contains an appropriation of $399,455 for food service operations, an enterprise which if efficiently operated, should be self-subsidizing. The Commissioner further notes that the Board did not enter into the record, nor is there any evidence that the Board provided to the municipality, the detailed appropriations in the format prescribed by law. He additionally observes that the 1996-97 proposed administration budget of March 28, 1996, which a review of the record indicates was the only detailed information relied upon by municipality, was difficult to read and analyze and required a good deal of effort to correlate to the statutory format.

7140	Op. & Maint./Plant Svcs. - Other Purchased Prop. Svcs.	$ 50,000	$ -0-
7180	Op. & Maint./Plant Svcs. - Energy	$ 30,000	$ -0-
7360	Business & Other Support Svcs. - Salaries	$ 40,000	$ -0-
7370	Business & Other Support Svcs. - Social Security Contrib.	$ 170,000	$ -0-
		$ 415,000	$ -0-

Account No.		Increase Sustained	Increase Rejected
10-303	Budgeted Fund Balance	$ 1,521,735[2]	$ (681,735)
10-1XXX	Miscellaneous Income	$ 400,000	$ 1,200,000[2]

Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body	$89,659,029
Restoration of Reductions:	$ -0-
Increases to Surplus/Income Rejected	$ 518,265
Total Tax Levy for 1996-97:	$90,177,294

Accordingly, the Middlesex County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments, as set forth above, subject to verification of surplus amounts through the year-end audit, to reflect a total of $90,177,294 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the Woodbridge Board of Education for the 1996-97 school year.

Additionally, in view of the coding alterations required herein, the Commissioner directs the Board to submit a revised 1996-97 budget to the County Superintendent and the Office of Finance.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[2] See discussion of line item 2 at pp. 5-8 above.

February 24, 1997
Date of Mailing, February 24, 1997

86-97

86-97

H.B., on behalf of minor children, S.A., M.B. and P.B.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4335-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 108-3/96

H.B., on behalf of minor children, S.A., M.B. and P.B.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 26, 1997

87-97

87-97

A.K., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, M.W.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CLIFTON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5282-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 387-9/95

A.K., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, M.W.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CLIFTON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and advisement of failure to appear transmitted by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, have been reviewed. Petitioner, in accordance with instructions provided by the OAL, filed a timely explanation before the Commissioner, indicating that her failure to appear at the hearing scheduled for January 22, 1997 is attributed to her receipt of a notice from the OAL advising of a hearing scheduled for March 21, 1997. A copy of said notice for a March 21, 1997 hearing is attached to petitioner's submission.

In the interest of fundamental fairness to a pro se litigant, and in view of the notice received by petitioner, as well as the absence of notice in the record before the Commissioner of a hearing scheduled for January 22, 1997, the Commissioner hereby returns this matter to the OAL for appropriate, expedited proceedings*.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq., petitioner is entitled to an expedited hearing before the Commissioner of Education.

FEBRUARY 26, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 26, 1997

88-97

88-97

ENGLISH PAVING COMPANY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7947-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 338-8/96

ENGLISH PAVING COMPANY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the Notice of Withdrawal from the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes a letter from counsel for petitioner to the OAL advising that although petitioner withdrew the emergent relief application in this matter, it did not withdraw its claim with respect to the underlying controversy. In that the Commissioner finds it clear from correspondence contained in the record that the parties agreed to the withdrawal of the emergent relief application in this matter, but fully intended for the matter to proceed for a plenary hearing on the merits, this matter is being remanded to OAL for such proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 26, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 27, 1997

88-97

455-98 R
(88-97)

ENGLISH PAVING COMPANY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

OCTOBER 8, 1998

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3351-97 (EDU 7947-96 ON REMAND)
AGENCY DKT. NO. 338-8/96

ENGLISH PAVING COMPANY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Assistant Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34c, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

OCTOBER 8, 1998
DATE OF MAILING OCTOBER 8, 1998

89-97

89-97

DEBORAH ALFORD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12341-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 328-8/95

DEBORAH ALFORD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 26, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 26, 1997

(SB) 89-97

DHPL #495-97
SB # 89-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF O.J.R. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, September 19, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, O.J.R., pro se

O.J.R. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school bus mechanic by the Hunterdon County Educational Services Commission, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been convicted of possession of controlled dangerous substances following arrests in April 1980 and May 1992. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated September 19, 1997, the Assistant Commissioner of Education, Executive Services, upheld the disqualification,[1] concluding that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation under the standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board.

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34 authorizes the Commissioner to assign to an assistant commissioner the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...."

JAN. 7, 1998

We note initially that petitioner has submitted documents with his appeal which are not included in the record of this matter. Although petitioner has not requested to supplement the record on appeal, given his pro se status, we have supplemented the record sua sponte and have considered those documents in determining this matter.

After a careful review of the supplemented record, we affirm the decision of the Assistant Commissioner. While it is evident that petitioner is making impressive strides towards rehabilitation, in view of the serious nature of his disqualifying offenses and the fact that his efforts towards rehabilitation did not begin until April 1996, we are unable to conclude at this time that petitioner has affirmatively demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. We stress in so doing, however, that nothing in our decision herein precludes petitioner from reapplying to the Office of Criminal History Review once additional time has passed and seeking a determination from the Commissioner that he is qualified for school employment on the basis of rehabilitation.

January 7, 1998

Date of mailing JAN 0 9 1998

90-97

90-97

F.S., on behalf of her minor grandchild, K.F.M., :

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

_____:

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12294-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 413-10/95

F.S., on behalf of her minor grandchild, K.F.M., :

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 26, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 26, 1997

(SB) 90-97

DHPL #529-97
SB # 90-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT :
OF E.E.T. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, October 3, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Robert V. Baer, Esq.

The decision of the Assistant Commissioner of Education disqualifying petitioner from school employment following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

Wendel E. Daniels opposed.

April 1, 1998

Date of mailing APR 0 3 1998

91-97

91-97

MICHAEL MALONEY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WOOD-RIDGE, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

FEBRUARY 26, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11770-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 378-9/95

MICHAEL MALONEY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WOOD-RIDGE, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 26, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 26, 1997

92-97

92-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF SCHOOL ESTIMATE OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE, AND MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE, HUDSON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $2,035,500 made by board of school estimate and governing body following submission of proposed Type I budget pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-17, et seq.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $1,343,055 for a total General Fund tax levy of $42,310,692 for 1996-97 school purposes.

FEBRUARY 27, 1997

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF SCHOOL ESTIMATE OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE, AND MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE, HUDSON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

For Petitioner, Francine Del Vescovo, Esq. (Oury & Mizdol)

For Respondents, John F. Coffey, II, Esq. (Joseph G. Nichols, City of Bayonne)

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on May 16, 1996, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Bayonne Board of Education (Board), seeking restoration of reductions to the school budget made by the Board of School Estimate and Mayor and Council pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-17 et seq.

Bayonne is a Type I school district. As such, the Board prepared the annual budget which was then submitted to the Board of School Estimate to determine "the amount of money necessary to be appropriated for the use of the public schools in the district for the ensuing school year, exclusive of the amount which shall have been apportioned to it by the commissioner", and to certify this amount to the municipal governing body and the board of education. N.J.S.A. 18A:22-14.

On April 2, 1996, following consultation with the Board as required by law, the Board of School Estimate adopted a resolution determining to certify a General Fund Tax Levy of $40,967,637 as sufficient to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E) in the District. This amount represented a reduction of approximately $2 million from the tax levy proposed by the Board, and was effectuated through cuts in 22 line items, drawn from a list the Board of School Estimate had asked the school administration to prepare, which it did under protest, to effectuate a zero-tax-increase budget. By resolution, dated April 17, 1996, the Board determined to appeal these reductions and duly filed the within petition. On May 22, 1996, the Municipal Council of the City of Bayonne passed a resolution pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-17, certifying $40,967,637 as the local tax levy.

The amounts in dispute in this appeal are as follows:

Tax Levy Proposed by Board		Tax Levy Certified by Council/Board of School Estimate
General Fund	$43,006,599	General Fund	$40,967,637
Amount of Reduction by Council/Board of Estimate		Amount of Reduction in Dispute
General Fund	$ 2,038,962	General Fund	$2,035,500

An answer to the Board's petition was filed by the Board of School Estimate and the Mayor and Council of the City of Bayonne (Respondents) on June 10, 1996. On July 5, 1996, the petitioner filed a position statement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.8. The respondents chose to rely on the statements made in their Answer, wherein it is contended that the reductions made were the product of meaningful dialogue with the Board of Education's representatives, that any and all budget cuts were made subject to the proper educational and practical considerations and were not the product of extra-educational reasons or political expediency, and that $2 million in the Board's budget can be removed without affecting programs or T & E.

In addition, as the parties had previously been advised by letter from the Assistant Commissioner dated March 13, 1996, and distributed through the County Superintendent to boards and municipalities experiencing budget defeats, as part of the record of the within appeal, the Commissioner took official notice of the Board's revised budget and its June 30 financial report and annual year-end audit report, the latter two for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1996-97 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus.

In that no further submissions were filed by the parties, following receipt of the County Superintendent's June 30 financial report and annual year-end audit report, the record of the appeal was closed.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such T & E to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line-item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of T & E. Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).[1]

Mindful, then, of the standard to be applied, the Commissioner makes the specific determinations set forth below.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 1-8

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
2540	11-140-100-101	Grades 9-12 Teachers' Salaries	$4,276,056	$ 120,000

[1] Respondents also contend that the Board's appeal was filed out of time; however, the Commissioner finds this contention to be entirely without merit.

4810	11-230-100-101	Remedial Teachers' Salaries	$4,647,070	$ 270,000
2510	11-110-100-101	Preschool Kind./Teacher Salaries	$1,130,355	$ 30,000
2530	11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Teachers' Salaries	$4,609,358	$ 90,000
2530	11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Teachers' Salaries	$4,609,358	$ 150,000
2520	11-120-100-101	Grades 1-5 Teachers' Salaries	$6,054,497	$ 30,000
4990	11-3xx-100-101	Voc. Prog. Teachers' Salaries	$ 828,314	$ 30,000
4910	11-240-100-106	Other Salaries Bilingual	$ 90,500	$ 90,500

The Board argues that the above cuts will mean a substantial reduction of teachers and programs at Bayonne High School, in addition to that which the Board itself effectuated in order to keep costs at a minimum while still providing for T & E. Specifically, the proposed reduction would be in addition to 38 teachers who have already been subject to a reduction in force at the high school pursuant to the Board's original proposed budget. The respondents' recommendation also includes having Level C classroom teachers do remediation in their individual classrooms and, further, would result in the elimination of the District's all-day kindergarten, special subjects in the District's talented and gifted program, the District's prevocational program which focused on older children who had not yet graduated from school because of special needs, a work-study program, and in a loss of teachers from the bilingual and physical education programs, the latter of which would prevent the District from meeting State physical education requirements. Further, these reductions would result in extraordinarily large class sizes and, therefore, less effective instruction for the students of the City of Bayonne.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that art and computer instruction is only a part of the district's overall program for talented and gifted students, and that these students' needs can be readily integrated into the regular program for these subjects courses. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the Council's reduction of $90,000. With regard to the remaining staff salaries, given the socioeconomic conditions of the district, size of the student population as well as its current programmatic and instructional staffing patterns, the Commissioner finds the remaining monies at issue herein are necessary for T & E, and accordingly, determines to restore $720,500 to these accounts.

Disputed Line-Item Number 9

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6370	11-000-211-100	Attend. & Soc. Work Salaries	$297,103	$ 78,000

The Board avers that this cut would reduce the attendance department by three staff members. It states it will be impossible for the one remaining staff member to accomplish the tasks required of this department as last year alone, the attendance department removed 53 nonresident students from the District's rolls. The year before, this department removed 51 nonresident students from the school roster which amounts to a considerable savings. It further asserts that many of the tasks that were performed by this department would have to be picked up by members of the administrative staff and classroom teachers thereby creating unreasonable burdens for overworked administrators and teachers who, as a result of the major reduction in force undertaken by the Board of Education, are experiencing ever increasing class sizes, sometimes into the thirties.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that as late as the 1994-95 school year, this account's actual expenditures were only $223,203, or $73,900 less than requested for 1996-97 and $78,000 less than the actual expenditures for 1995-96. While the Commissioner recognizes that the enrollment of nonresident students is a problem, the Board in its arguments states that 51 nonresident students were identified in 1994-95 and 53 in 1995-96. The Board's own evidence supports the conclusion that there was no gain in identifying nonresident students despite the significant increase in salaries in this account during 1995-96. Further, the supporting documentation on budgeted positions contained in the prescribed budget statement and attached to the Board's petition indicates that four new staff were proposed in addition to four existing staff for this account. Additionally, the primary role of an attendance officer is seeing that students attend school, and the identification of nonresident students is something that can be accomplished through alternative types of staffing positions with no adverse effect on other duties. Hence, the Commissioner finds this amount not necessary for T & E and sustains the $78,000 reduction.

Disputed Line-Item Number 10

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6430	11-000-213-100	Health Services Salaries	$897,742	$120,000

The Board argues that this cut would represent the elimination of four nursing positions in the elementary schools. It contends that eight of the District's eleven schools would only have half-time nurses, which would place an extreme burden on the nurses in performing their state mandated activities and endanger the safety and welfare of the students.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board's proposed budget reflects 17 positions which at the salary amount proposed equates to an average salary of almost $53,000. Even if four nursing positions with average salaries of $30,000 were to be eliminated, 13 staff positions at an average salary of $59,000 would be available to cover the 11 schools. Accordingly, he finds that both the number of positions and level of funds available are sufficient to maintain the health and safety of the students and sustains the $120,000 reduction to this account.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 11-12

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6770	11-000-221-105	Secretary & Clerical Salaries	$ 92,241	$ 68,000
6910	11-000-230-105	Secretary & Clerical Salaries	$972,631	$ 10,000

This reduction would mean the elimination of three secretary/clerk positions bringing the total of positions eliminated in this category to five. The Board avers it presently operates in an extremely cost-efficient manner, spending 64.9 percent of every dollar on classroom instruction (New Jersey Dept. of Ed. Comparative Spending Guide 2/96) and well over $1,000 less than the state average per pupil expenditure. As such, it contends this line item does not represent unnecessary spending.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that, notwithstanding its claims of overall efficiency, the Board has made no argument as to the specific need for these positions in the provision of T &E. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains these reductions.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 13-14

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6910	11-000-230-102	General Administrative Salaries	$972,631	$140,000
6910	11-000-230-100	General Administrative Salaries	$972,631	$ 65,000

The Board argues that this cut would represent the elimination of four nursing positions in the elementary schools. It contends that eight of the District's eleven schools would only have half-time nurses, which would place an extreme burden on the nurses in performing their state mandated activities and endanger the safety and welfare of the students.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board's proposed budget reflects 17 positions which at the salary amount proposed equates to an average salary of almost $53,000. Even if four nursing positions with average salaries of $30,000 were to be eliminated, 13 staff positions at an average salary of $59,000 would be available to cover the 11 schools. Accordingly, he finds that both the number of positions and level of funds available are sufficient to maintain the health and safety of the students and sustains the $120,000 reduction to this account.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 11-12

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6770	11-000-221-105	Secretary & Clerical Salaries	$ 92,241	$ 68,000
6910	11-000-230-105	Secretary & Clerical Salaries	$972,631	$ 10,000

This reduction would mean the elimination of three secretary/clerk positions bringing the total of positions eliminated in this category to five. The Board avers it presently operates in an extremely cost-efficient manner, spending 64.9 percent of every dollar on classroom instruction (New Jersey Dept. of Ed. Comparative Spending Guide 2/96) and well over $1,000 less than the state average per pupil expenditure. As such, it contends this line item does not represent unnecessary spending.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that, notwithstanding its claims of overall efficiency, the Board has made no argument as to the specific need for these positions in the provision of T &E. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains these reductions.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 13-14

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6910	11-000-230-102	General Administrative Salaries	$972,631	$140,000
6910	11-000-230-100	General Administrative Salaries	$972,631	$ 65,000

The Board contends that these amounts represent reductions in the Board's administrative staff by four, resulting in the total elimination or consolidation of eight administrative posts, as well as elimination of the Board Secretary position and a clerical position in the office of the Board Secretary, the latter of which would necessitate the school business administrator to take up the responsibilities of the Board Secretary. The Board notes that Bayonne is a District which has received the State Department's award two consecutive years in a row for low administrative costs.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that the vast majority of school districts combine the positions of board secretary and business administrator. In a state which ranks very poorly in the proportion of dollars spent in the classroom, such limited-purpose positions cannot be considered, and are in fact not, necessary for a thorough and efficient education. Given this, the clerical position assigned to the board secretary is also not necessary. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the $65,000 reduction to this account. Upon review of the remaining staff data submitted by the Board, the Commissioner determines to restore $140,000 of these reductions, in that the Board demonstrated that its administrative structure, except for the positions in the board secretary's office, has already been reduced prior to the submission of the proposed 1996-97 budget and is appropriate for the provision of T & E.

Disputed Line-Item Number 15

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7100	11-000-260-100	Operation & Maintenance Salaries	$3,394,402	$ 70,000

The Board avers that such budget cut would require elimination of six per diem custodians and engineers thereby making it impossible for the District to replace workers who are out on leave, vacation or who are ill, which is not conducive to proper provision of T & E.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not demonstrated the necessity for retaining per diem custodians to replace workers who are on leave, vacation or who are ill; given that the budget support document attached to its petition reflects 109 full-time positions for 11 school buildings. Accordingly, the Commissioner determines to sustain the $70,000 reduction to this account.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 16-17

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7420	11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$ 7,436,824	$304,000
7420	11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$ 7,436,824	$ 40,000

The Board explains that the above represent health insurance costs. The former line item represents benefits for all the teachers and staff members who have been subject to the reductions in force that have been effectuated because of the budget cuts. The latter cut would of necessity be implemented by offering incentives for spouse and HMO health coverage change to certain staff members. The Board maintains that the voluntary nature of this program would make it impossible to implement.

Consistent with his personnel determinations above, the Commissioner sustains $101,445 of reductions and restores $202,555 to account no. 11-000-290-290. The Commissioner also finds that alternatives to traditional health benefits coverage such as co-payments, movement to managed care plans or compensation to waive employee or spouse's benefits represent a common trend in both the private sector and government, and accordingly, sustains the $40,000 reduction to this account.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 18-22

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7070	11-000-240-600	Supplies - School Administration	$ 261,988	$ 20,000
7170	11-000-260-610	Supplies - Operations & Maintenance	$ 621,000	$ 30,000
4860	11-230-100-610	Supplies Basic Skills	$ 61,528	$ 30,000
4870	11-230-100-640	Textbooks Basic Skills	$ 48,180	$ 20,000
2690	11-190-100-640	Textbooks Reg. Program	$ 351,591	$ 230,000

The Board contends the above cuts would mean a 4 percent reduction over last year's cost for supplies and materials in these various accounts. In light of the increased costs, this would mean an even larger reduction in the amount of supplies which the District would be able to purchase for its use in providing T & E to the students of Bayonne. The Board avers that the textbooks account reduction of $230,000 would totally eliminate the District's textbook replacement program at a time when the District was moving up the grades in a literature-based reading program and a hand-held manipulative mass curriculum. This would mean no new textbooks in 1996 and 1997 and, in order for the District to return to its program of textbook replacement, would mean that the costs in this line item would be doubled in next year's budget.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that, even after the $30,000 reduction to the operation and maintenance supplies account, the $591,400 balance reflects an increase of $31,508 (5.6%) over the actual audited expenditures for 1995-96. Given that the Board provides no specific rationale for the increase, the Commissioner sustains the $30,000 reduction to this account. Also, even after the $20,000 reduction to the school administration supplies account, the $241,988 balance reflects a slight increase over the actual expenditures for 1995-96. Given that the Board provides no specific rationale for the increase, the Commissioner sustains the $20,000 reduction to this account.

Upon review of the instructional supplies and textbooks accounts, the Commissioner finds that the original amounts proposed by the Board reflect only a slight increase over the actual expenditures for these accounts in 1995-96. Given the Board's argument as to the necessity of a stable textbook replacement program and the direct relationship of these items to classroom instruction, the Commissioner restores the $280,000 in reductions to these accounts.

APPLICATION OF SURPLUS

In its advertised annual school district budget statement, the Board did not project an unreserved surplus, but allocated $100,000 as revenue. Since proper budgeting practices for New Jersey school districts do not allow the adoption of a deficit budget, it must be assumed that the Board improperly completed its advertised recapitulation of balances, and failed to reflect its projected year-end surplus. In the submission of its revised budget reflecting the reductions made by Council, the Board increased the appropriation of surplus as a revenue source to $250,000.

The Board's annual financial report filed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:17-10 (June 30 Board Secretary's report) and the Board's 1995-96 annual year-end audit report reveal that there is in fact no meaningful fund balance as of that date.

Based on the above, the Commissioner determines, that no surplus monies are available to fund restorations made herein.

SUMMARY

In summary, the Commissioner directs restoration of respondents' line-item reductions to appropriations as set forth below. The Commissioner further notes that all restorations to line-item appropriations are restricted in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.11(b)3.

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Sustained	Restored
2540	11-140-100-101	Grades 9-12 Teachers' Salaries	- 0 -	$ 120,000
4810	11-230-100-101	Remedial Teachers' Salaries	- 0 -	$ 270,000
2510	11-110-100-101	Preschool Kind./Teacher Salaries	- 0 -	$ 30,000
2530	11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Teachers' Salaries	$ 90,000	- 0 -
2530	11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Teachers' Salaries	- 0 -	$ 150,000
2520	11-120-100-101	Grades 1-5 Teachers' Salaries	- 0 -	$ 30,000
4990	11-3xx-100-101	Vocational Prog. Teachers' Salaries	- 0 -	$ 30,000
4910	11-240-100-106	Other Salaries Bilingual	- 0 -	$ 90,500
6370	11-000-211-100	Attendance & Social Work Salaries	$ 78,000	- 0 -
6430	11-000-213-100	Health Services Salaries	$ 120,000	- 0 -
6770	11-000-221-105	Secretaries & Clerical Salaries	$ 68,000	- 0 -
6910	11-000-230-105	Secretaries & Clerical	$ 10,000	- 0 -
6910	11-000-230-102	General Administrative Salaries	- 0 -	$ 140,000
6910	11-000-230-100	General Administrative Salaries	$ 65,000	- 0 -
7100	11-000-260-100	Operations & Maintenance Salaries	$ 70,000	- 0 -
7420	11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$ 101,445	$ 202,555
7420	11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$ 40,000	- 0 -
7070	11-000-240-600	Supplies- School Administrators	$ 20,000	- 0 -
7170	11-000-260-610	Supplies - Operation & Maintenance	$ 30,000	- 0 -
4860	11-230-100-610	Supplies - Basic Skills	- 0 -	$ 30,000
4870	11-230-100-640	Textbooks - Basic Skills	- 0 -	$ 20,000
2690	11-190-100-640	Textbooks - Regular Program		$ 230,000
			$ 692,445	$1,343,055

Total Line-Item Determinations: 22

Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body	$40,967,637
Restoration of Reductions	$ 1,343,055
Amount of Restorations Funded by Surplus	- 0 -
Total Tax Levy for 1996-97	$42,310,692

Accordingly, the Hudson County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments, as set forth above, to reflect a total of $42,310,692 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the Bayonne Board of Education for the 1996-97 school year.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 27, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 27, 1997

92-97

C #92-97
SB #32-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE,	:
PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF SCHOOL ESTIMATE OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE AND MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE, HUDSON COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENTS-APPELLANTS.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 27, 1997

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Oury & Mizdol (Francine Del Vescovo, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondents-Appellants, John F. Coffey, II, Esq.

The Board of Education of the City of Bayonne (hereinafter "Board") filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education challenging reductions in the amount of $2,035,500 made by the Board of School Estimate of the City of Bayonne, and the Mayor and Council of the City of Bayonne (hereinafter "appellants"), pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-17 et seq., to the Board's proposed budget for the 1996-97 school year. In a decision dated February 27, 1997, the Commissioner of Education determined to restore $1,343,055 of the reductions effectuated by the appellants and directed a total general fund tax levy of $42,310,692 for 1996-97.

On April 3, 1997, appellants filed a notice of appeal dated April 3 with the State Board.

5/7/97

By letter dated April 7, 1997, the counsel to the State Board advised appellants that their appeal had been due on April 1, thirty days from the filing date of the Commissioner's decision, and that this matter was therefore being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of the effect of their failure to file timely notice. Appellants were given until April 15 to provide a written explanation of the reasons for their late filing.

On April 15, counsel for appellants filed an affidavit in which he explained that appellants had a "reasonable misunderstanding of the intricacies of the law," affidavit, at 4, believing that N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4 did not require their notice of appeal to be filed until April 3.[1] Citing N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(c), counsel for appellants averred that appellants were "under the misguided impression that neither Saturday, nor Sunday counted towards the initial three day time frame [for computing the date on which the Commissioner's decision was deemed filed]. As such, they were operating under the belief that the three day time period was comprised of Friday February 28, 1997, Monday, March 3, 1997 and Tuesday March 4, 1997. In turn, they were of the belief that Wednesday March 5, 1997 was the first day of the thirty day appeal time frame and that April 3, 1997 was the last day for the filing of the appeal." Affidavit, at 4.

---

[1] N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4, "Computation of time," provides, in pertinent part:

> (a) A decision of the Commissioner or State Board of Examiners shall be deemed filed three days after the date of mailing to the parties.
>
> ....
>
> (c) In computing any period of time fixed by this chapter, the day of the act or event from which the designated period begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28, appeals to the State Board must be taken "within 30 days after the decision appealed from is filed." The State Board may not grant extensions to enlarge the time specified for appeal. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.5(a). In contrast to the period for filing petitions to the Commissioner of Education, see N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2; N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.15, the time limit within which an appeal must be taken to the State Board is statutory, and, given the jurisdictional nature of the statutory time limit, the State Board lacks the authority to extend it. Mount Pleasant-Blythedale Union Free School District v. New Jersey Department of Education, Docket #A-2180-89T1 (App. Div. 1990), slip op. at 5. The Appellate Division has "consistently concluded" that appeals must be timely filed and that "neither an agency nor our court on appeal may expand a mandatory statutory time limitation." In the Matter of the Special Election of the Northern Burlington County Regional School District, Docket #A-1743-95T5 (App. Div. 1996), slip op. at 3, citing Scrudato v. Mascot Sav. & Loan Ass'n, 50 N.J. Super. 264 (App. Div. 1958).

We conclude that the statutory filing requirement with which appellants failed to comply is of such significance that we dismiss the appeal. In Yorke v. Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, decided by the State Board of Education, July 6, 1988, aff'd, Docket #A-5912-87T1 (App. Div. 1989), the Court upheld the dismissal of an appeal by the State Board where it found that the notice of appeal had been filed one day late by appellant's counsel, who alleged that he had misread or misunderstood the applicable regulations. The Court added that even if the statute could be construed to permit enlargement of the time for filing an appeal, the appellant therein had failed to establish good cause.

In this case, the Commissioner's decision was rendered on February 27, 1997 and mailed to the parties on that date.[2] Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4, the decision appealed from was deemed filed on March 2, 1997, three days after it was mailed. Therefore, as mandated by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28, see N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.3(a) and N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4, appellants were required to file their notice of appeal to the State Board on or before April 1, 1997. Appellants' notice of appeal was dated April 3, 1997 and filed on that date.

Even if N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28 can be construed to provide us with the authority to enlarge the time limit for filing an appeal, we find no substantive basis to warrant doing so in this particular instance. Appeals from final decisions of the Commissioner must be taken "within 30 days after the decision appealed from is filed." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28. A decision of the Commissioner is "deemed filed three days after the date of mailing to the parties." N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(a). The sentence in N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(c) cited by appellants is intended merely to clarify the filing deadline for documents due on a date which falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. In that event, the filing period runs "until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday."

However, even if appellant's interpretation of the regulation was reasonable in that regard, and the filing date of the Commissioner's decision could not be deemed to be a Sunday, appellant's notice of appeal was still untimely. Thus, even if Monday, March 3 were deemed to be the filing date of the Commissioner's decision, appellant's appeal was due by April 2, one day before it was filed. Moreover, under the plain language of N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(c), only the last day of a computed period is not counted if it falls on a Sunday. We find nothing in that provision that could reasonably support appellant's belief that Saturday would also not be counted.[3] We reiterate, in addition, that counsel for appellants acknowledges that he received a copy of the Commissioner's decision on February 27, the date it was issued.

[2] We note that a copy of the decision was also sent by fax to the counsel for the appellants on February 27. Affidavit, at 2.

Consequently, for the reasons expressed herein, we dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to file notice thereof within the statutory time limit as computed under the applicable regulations. See Yorke, supra.

May 7, 1997

Date of mailing MAY 09 1997

[3] Under appellant's interpretation of N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(c), a brief due on a date that falls on a Sunday would not have to be filed until the following Tuesday since Saturday would also be excluded in computing the time period.

93-97

93-97

GEORGE PUZIO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

FEBRUARY 28, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12290-95

AGENCY. NO.: 426-10/95

GEORGE PUZIO,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK,

Respondent.

Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., for petitioner

Richard A. Friedman, Esq., for respondent
(Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 20, 1996 Decided: January 8, 1997

BEFORE: JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on December 8, 1995, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B et seq. and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 et seq.

During the pendency of the case at the Office of Administrative Law, the parties settled their differences as provided in the attached Memorandum of Agreement.

Having reviewed the contents of the attached Memorandum of Agreement, I FIND (a) that they are consistent with the law, (b) that they fully dispose of all issues in controversy, and (c) that they were voluntarily entered into by the parties.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the attached Memorandum of Agreement meets the requirements of *N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.*1 and I hereby approve same. In conjunction therewith, I ORDER that the parties comply with its contents and that these proceedings be (and are hereby) TERMINATED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision settlement with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Jan 8 97
DATE

JEFFREY A. GERSON,
Administrative Law Judge

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/14/97
DATE

DOH
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

JAN 14 1997
DATE

Mailed to Parties:

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

/g

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

DEC 23 11 02 AM '96

THIS MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT (hereinafter "Agreement") is executed this 10th day of Sept, 1996 by and between, GEORGE PUZIO, residing at 217 Fence Row Drive, Nazareth, Pennsylvania 18064 (hereinafter, "Puzio") and the Board of Education of Township of Pequannock, with offices at 85 Sunset Drive, Pompton Plains, New Jersey, 07444 (hereinafter, "Board");

WHEREAS, Puzio filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education on October 31, 1995, Docket No. EDUOR 12290-95N, naming the Board as Respondent; and

WHEREAS, the Board filed an Answer and Separate Defenses with the Commissioner on November 22, 1995; and

WHEREAS, the parties seek to amicably resolve the issues which gave rise to the Petition of Appeal and the Answer and Separate Defenses.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the parties do hereby acknowledge and agree as follows:

1. Puzio shall withdraw the Petition of Appeal.

2. The Board shall withdraw the Answer and Separate Defenses

3. Puzio shall be appointed Girls High School Varsity Soccer Coach for the Fall 1996 season at the rate set by the collective bargaining agreement.

4. The Board shall pay Puzio the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) as additional compensation for the fall 1995 season.

2a

5. Entering into this Memorandum of Agreement shall not be an admission of liability, or wrong doing, nor shall it be used by any party in any other dispute which may arise between the parties.

6. The parties release, waive, and forever discharge any and all past, present and future claims they may have against each other arising out of the facts alleged in the Petition of Appeal, the Answer and Separate Defenses.

7. Each party has entered into this Agreement freely and voluntarily and without any inducement not contained in this document.

8. This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties and constitutes full and final settlement of any and all issues relating to the terms and conditions of Puzio's position as a Coach with the Board, subject to the collective bargaining agreement.

9. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

10. If, during the term of this Agreement, a specific clause of the Agreement is determined to be illegal or in violation of any Federal or State law, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect.

11. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be precedent setting, nor shall it extend to any matters past, present or future between the parties or the Pequannock Township Education Association.

12. The parties shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement, finding it to be fair and equitable under all circumstances surrounding this matter.

13. The terms and conditions of this Agreement are subject to the ratification and approval by the Board.

14. In view of the circumstances surrounding this matter, the parties agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are consistent with the public interest.

15. The parties have entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of their rights and the contents of this Agreement.

16. Each party has had an opportunity to consult with legal counsel concerning the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

17. This Agreement shall have no bearing or effect on any other proceeding of any type for the purposes of establishing or denying precedent, policy or past practice, and shall not be admissible in, or utilized in connection with, any such proceeding.

18. This Agreement may not be altered, amended or modified except by a writing, signed and duly authorized by all parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereunder set their hands and seals to this Agreement effective on the 10 day of SEPTEMBER, 1996.

Witness

GEORGE PUZIO

MICHAEL DONOW
Board Secretary
Board of Education of the Township of Pequannock

RAYMOND X. McCOY
President, Board of Education of the Township of Pequannock

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12290-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 426-10/95

GEORGE PUZIO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The Commissioner notes, however, that the terms of the settlement appear to have already been effectuated and admonishes the parties that settlements of controverted matters are of no force or effect and may not be implemented absent the Commissioner's approval pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 28, 1997
DATE OF MAILING FEBRUARY 28, 1997

97-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ALICE BOHANNON,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF	:	DECISION
EAST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Board certified tenure charges of insubordination and unbecoming conduct against respondent secretary.

ALJ found that respondent was guilty of the charges as she refused an assignment and used foul language in addressing the administrative assistant to the superintendent. ALJ concluded termination was too harsh a penalty. ALJ, however, concluded a substantial penalty was warranted; thus, it was ordered that the penalty imposed on respondent be the 120-day suspension served and the loss of her annual increment for a period of one year.

Commissioner adopted initial decision as his own with modification with respect to penalty. Commissioner directed respondent forfeit the 120 days' salary withheld following certification of the tenure charges, but increased penalty to denial of two annual employment and adjustment increments.

March 3, 1997

State of New Jersey
Office of Administrative Law

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3698-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 58-2/96

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF EAST ORANGE,

Petitioner,

v.

ALICE BOHANNON,

Respondent.

Melvin C. Randall, Esq., for Petitioner
(Love & Randall, attorneys)

Sanford R. Oxfeld, Esq., for Respondent
(Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 3, 1997 Decided: January 10, 1997

BEFORE MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, East Orange Board of Education met in executive session on Tuesday, December 6, 1994, and determined by majority vote of the full board to certify charges of insubordination and conduct unbecoming a secretary against Respondent. These tenure charges were communicated to the Commissioner of Education on December 8, 1994; however, although Respondent was properly served, the charges were not received in the Commissioner's office.

The charges were again communicated to the Department of Education on February 9, 1996; because Petitioner documented service upon the Respondent, the Department of Education accorded Respondent 20 days to respond to the petition at that time. An answer to the petition was filed on April 8, 1996. The matter was transmitted by the Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13 on April 9, 1996.

Initially, Respondent was suspended without pay for a period of 120 days, pursuant to the statutory requirement. At the expiration of the 120 days, she was continued on suspension until October 8, 1996, when, because she was being fully compensated, she was asked to return to her position in another location within the district.

The matter was heard on January 3, 1997.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the evidence presented at the hearing, as well as on the opportunity to observe the witnesses and assess their credibility, I make the following findings of fact, which are essentially undisputed, in this matter.

1. Respondent Bohannon has been employed by the Petitioner, East Orange Board of Education, as an assistant secretary since February, 1986.

2. Respondent has never before been involved in an incident which resulted in suspension. She has, however, received written reprimands for leaving work without notifying her supervisor (B-3) and another for failing to follow proper procedure regarding a lost key (B-4, B-5).

3. Respondent was advised, through those reprimands, that her attitude toward following regulations, procedures, and expectations needed improvement.

4. On October 19, 1994, Respondent was assigned to complete a priority project for Mr. Restaino, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent of Schools.

5. Before Mr. Restaino could instruct Respondent on the assignment which she was to complete, Respondent left his office on account of a misunderstanding between the two; she subsequently returned, but left a second time, again without addressing the assignment for which she was responsible.

6. Respondent was advised by her immediate supervisor and the president of the secretaries' union to complete the assignment.

7. As a result of the misunderstanding between Respondent and Mr. Restaino, the Superintendent of Schools held a meeting at which he, Mr. Restaino, and Respondent were present.

8. At some time during the meeting, the Respondent refused to complete the assignment for the Administrative Assistant and used foul language in addressing Mr. Restaino as well.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The Tenure Employees Hearing Law provides that no person shall be dismissed if she is a tenured employee except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or other just cause. N. J.S.A. 18A:6-10. In this case, the Petitioner cites unbecoming conduct and insubordination as the causes for its determination to terminate Respondent's employment.

The testimony from both sides in this case is clear: Respondent did refuse to complete the work assigned to her and she did use foul language. Accordingly, there is no question that Respondent was insubordinate; moreover, she also engaged in conduct which was unbecoming an employee in addressing foul language to Mr. Restaino, whether or not it was overheard by the Superintendent or anyone else. The issue, therefore, is whether her conduct was so egregious as to require termination.

The district was preparing for a monitoring by the Department of Education. The Respondent was assigned to complete a priority assignment because the employee originally assigned was absent. Mr. Restaino had a deadline to meet. Clearly, everyone in the district was under heightened pressure and stress. Petitioner and Respondent differ on the details of the precipitating event, the reason the Respondent failed to do the assignment, as well as on the details of what led up to the unbecoming conduct. As is to be expected, Petitioner's version, that Respondent completely ignored, for no apparent reason except to continue a conversation with a parent, least two, and possibly three, direct requests that she proceed to Mr. Restaino's office for instruction supports and enhances the charge of insubordination. Equally predictable the support for Respondent in her statement that she became upset because Mr. Restaino was "hollering" at her and she needed time to compose herself.

These differences have no effect on the ultimate conclusion that Respondent was, indeed, insubordinate and engaged in conduct unbecoming an employee; however, although the behavior was injudicious, intemperate, and wholly inappropriate, it does not rise, without more, to such a level as to require termination. Accordingly, in light of all of the circumstances of this matter, namely, the effect the impending monitoring would have on the morale of supervisory and support staff, the last minute upheaval caused by the absence of the employee originally assigned to the priority and the fact that Respondent's personnel file reflected that she had had no major disciplinary problems prior to this one, I CONCLUDE that termination is too harsh a penalty; however, I FURTHER CONCLUDE that respondent was insubordinate and did engage in conduct unbecoming and employee. She has also demonstrated an attitude in the past and throughout this incident by which she tends to avoid accepting responsibility for the consequences of her breach of regulations or procedure and tends to minimize them. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that substantial penalty is warranted.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the determination of Petitioner to dismiss Respondent be and hereby is REVERSED; it is FURTHER ORDERED that the penalty imposed on Respondent shall be the 120-day suspension already served and the loss of her annual increment for a period of one year, which has also already occurred.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

January 10, 1997
DATE

Maria M LaFiandra
MARIA MANCINI LAFIANDRA, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 15, 1997
DATE

L. N Cantanautis Jr.
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 16 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

jrp

APPENDIX

LIST OF EXHIBITS

B-1 Evidence - Memorandum, dated October 19, 1994 to Dr. Kenneth King, Assistant Superintendent for Personnel, from John Howard, Jr. Re: Suspension of Mrs. Alice McRae Bohannon

B-2 Evidence - Memorandum, dated October 19, 1994 to Dr. Kenneth D. King, Assistant Superintendent for Personnel, from Mr. Carmen Restaino Re: Alice Bohannon

B-3 Evidence - Memorandum, dated June 17,1993 from Ms. Antoinette Lamb, Director of Curriculum to Ms. Alice McRae, Assistant Secretary

B-4 Evidence - Memorandum, dated November 29, 1993 from Mrs. Antoinette Lamb, Director of Curriculum to Mrs. Alice Bohannon, Assistant Secretary

B-5 Evidence - Memorandum, date November 23, 1993, from Ms. Ivy I. Montgomery, Executive Assistant to Mrs. Alice Bohannon, Assistant Secretary

B-6 Evidence - Memorandum, dated October 19, 1994, from Lamb to Bohannon

B-7 Evidence - Evaluation, dated November 30, 1987

R-1 Evidence - Letter, dated June 20, 1989, from Barbara Swicord, G/T Supervisor to Alice McRae, Curriculum Office

R-2 Evidence - Letter, dated April 22, 1989, from Clyde Richard to Ms. McRae

R-3 Evidence - Evaluation Record of Alice McRae, dated June 22, 1988

R-4 Evidence - Evaluation Record of Alice McRae, dated March 30, 1991

R-5 Evidence - Evaluation Record Narrative Comments Regarding the Evaluative Factors, dated March 30, 1991

LIST OF WITNESSES

Dr. John Howard, Jr.

Carmen Restaino

Dr. Kenneth King

Alice Bohannon

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3698-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 58-2/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ALICE BOHANNON,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF	:	DECISION
EAST ORANGE, ESSEX COUNTY.	:
	:

The record of this matter, including transcripts of the hearing conducted by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon review, the Commissioner initially notes that the Board has not excepted to the ALJ's determination that dismissal is too harsh a penalty in this matter and that respondent was reassigned and has been working in the District since October 8, 1996, with no apparent indication of further incident. The Commissioner wishes to stress, however, that respondent's behavior, as proven, cannot be countenanced in the school environment. Therefore, in order to impress upon respondent the seriousness of her infraction and the Commissioner's concern about the unprofessional attitude displayed during the incident leading to the instant tenure charges, and at prior times in respondent's employment history, as indicated by the record, in addition to the loss of 120 days' pay, the Commissioner herein increases respondent's penalty to the loss of two annual increments.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein, except as above modified with respect to penalty. The Commissioner hereby directs that respondent forfeit the 120 days' salary withheld following certification of the within tenure charges and that she be denied two annual employment and adjustment increments.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 3, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 3, 1997

(SB) 97-97

DHPL #253-97
SB # 97-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT OF A.T. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, May 7, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, A.T., pro se

On May 7, 1997, the Deputy Commissioner of Education issued a letter decision in which he disqualified A.T. (hereinafter "appellant") from school employment in the State after a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been convicted of aggravated assault, a disqualifying offense.

On December 4, 1997, appellant, acting pro se, filed a notice of appeal with the State Board of Education. Appellant explained the lateness of his notice by indicating that he had not been aware that he could file an appeal to the State Board.[1] On December 11, appellant was advised that this matter was being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of the effect of his failure to file the appeal in a timely manner. On December 22, the director of the State Board Appeals Office notified appellant that the Legal Committee had determined at its meeting of [1] N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28 provides that appeals to the State Board must be taken within 30 days after the decision appealed from is filed.

3/4/98

December 17 to accept his filing. Appellant was also advised that a brief in support of his appeal was due on or before January 15, 1998.

Appellant, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated January 20, 1998, appellant was notified of his failure to file a brief and informed that this matter was being referred to the Legal Committee once again for consideration of his failure to perfect the appeal.

Appellant has still failed to file a brief in support of his appeal, nearly seven weeks after the deadline for such filing and more than six weeks after he was notified of such failure. Nor has appellant offered any explanation for his failure to file a brief or requested an extension of time for such filing. As a result, we dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a). See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

March 4, 1998

Date of mailing MAR 06 1998

98-97

98-97

ARLENE MARKS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WEST NEW YORK, HUDSON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

MARCH 5, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11725-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 369-9/95

ARLENE MARKS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF WEST NEW YORK, HUDSON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 5, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 5, 1997

(SB) 98-97

DHPL #582-97
SB # 98-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT :
OF J.F.C. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, November 7, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Reinhardt & Schachter (Jonathan E. Diego, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Assistant Commissioner of Education disqualifying petitioner from school employment as a custodian following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

Daniel J.P. Moroney opposed.

February 4, 1998

Date of mailing FEB 6 1998

99-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTHERN REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, OCEAN COUNTY, STUART R. DUCKER AND KENNETH ARNDT,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SOUTHERN REGIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 5, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12641-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 456-11/95

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTHERN REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, OCEAN COUNTY, STUART R. DUCKER AND KENNETH ARNDT,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SOUTHERN REGIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 5, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 5, 1997

100-97

100-97

DEBRA WRZESINSKI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

MARCH 5, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9818-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 307-8/95

DEBRA WRZESINSKI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 5, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 5, 1997

101-97

101-97

WYNFIELD KORNREICH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DISTRICT
RESPONDENT.	:

MARCH 5, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9324-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 236-6/96

WYNFIELD KORNREICH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DISTRICT
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 5, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 5, 1997

102-97

102-97

M. KATHERINE MC GAVERN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE PRINCETON REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DISTRICT
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 5, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6984-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 297-7/96

M. KATHERINE MC GAVERN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE PRINCETON REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DISTRICT
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Commissioner approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 5, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 5, 1997

103-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:
MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
AND	:
IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY.	:

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $109,869 made by Council following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 16, 1996.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line-item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the District, Commissioner determined to sustain the full amount of the reductions.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $62,098 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $24,040 in cap waiver monies through the reallocation of existing budget appropriations. Additionally, the Commissioner directed the Board to file a formal plan to eliminate the deficit with the County Superintendent and directed the Board to take specific actions within such plan. The Commissioner also identified areas of the budget which could be reduced without affecting the district's ability to provide a thorough and efficient education in order to eliminate the deficit.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:
MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
RESPONDENT.	:	DECISION
AND
IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, BERGEN COUNTY.	:

For Petitioner, Francine Del Vescovo, Esq. (Oury & Mizdol, P.C.)
For Respondent, John L. Schettino, Esq. (Giblin & Giblin)

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 14, 1996 through the filing of separate Petitions of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview (Board), one seeking restoration of reductions to the school budget made by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fairview (Council) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the budget at the annual school election on April 16, 1996, and the other seeking to appeal the defeat of the Board's cap waiver proposal at that same election.

In February 1996, the Board had advised the County Superintendent that the Board would need a "voter cap waiver" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) in order to be able to provide for a thorough and efficient education system of education (T & E) in the District. The County Superintendent ultimately determined, by way of letter dated March 28, 1996, that a $62,098 voter cap waiver was necessary for T & E and, therefore, appealable in the event of voter defeat.

At the annual school election, the voters rejected a public question proposing a General Fund tax levy of $9,370,129 for the 1996-97 school year, as well as a proposed T & E cap waiver question of $62,098. Following consultation with the Board as required by law, the Council adopted a resolution determining to certify a General Fund tax levy of $9,260,260 as sufficient to provide for T & E in the District. This amount represented a reduction of $109,869 from the tax levy proposed by the Board, and was effectuated through cuts in eight (8) line items, for the reasons given in Schedule A attached to the implementing Council resolution. The Board duly resolved to appeal these reductions and the voter rejection of the T & E General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $62,098, and duly filed the within Petitions.

The Board filed a Petition on June 14, 1996, requesting the Commissioner to overturn the Council's action in failing to provide the necessary tax levy; the Council filed its Answer on June 20, 1996. A Petition contesting the cap waiver defeat was also filed on June 14, 1996 by the Board. The Council's Answer to this Petition was similarly filed on June 20, 1996.

On July 2, 1996, the Board filed a cap waiver appeal Final Summation and further advised that it would rely on its Petition, filed on June 14, 1996, with respect to the budget appeal line-item justifications and, therefore, would not file a separate Position Statement in this matter. No Position Statement nor response to the Board's cap waiver appeal Final Summation was filed by the Council.

On July 2, 1996, the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools filed his affidavit and supporting documents attesting to the process of review and analysis that led to his conclusion, and that of the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review panel, that a $62,098 "T & E voter cap waiver" should be granted to the Board so as to permit it to increase its General Fund budget beyond the established permissible level. Such submission indicated that the Board initially requested a voter cap waiver of $378,058, of which $282,598 was approved, reductions including $79,510 in reallocations and an adjustment of $15,950 related to an error in the increased enrollment calculation, for a total reduction in the requested $378,058 voter T & E cap waiver of $95,460.

On March 22, 1996, conditional approval was granted for a voter T & E cap waiver in the amount of $282,598. On March 27, 1996, the Board advised that there would be a $220,500 reduction in the amount of the required voter T & E cap due to a change in circumstances which included the incorporation of the Gifted and Talented Program into regular instruction for 1996-97, opening of an additional special education self-contained class, withdrawal from the State Health Benefits Plan, personnel adjustments and a deferral of purchases to 1997-98.

On March 28, 1996, approval of the cap waiver reduction of $220,500 was granted by the County Superintendent with the proviso that certain conditions be met and certified to by the Board, including a plan to reinstate the Gifted and Talented Program in 1997-98 and a Board Resolution approving the creation of the additional special education class. The Board evidenced compliance with such conditions in written correspondence, dated April 2, 1996, and a voter cap waiver of $62,098 was, therefore, approved by the County Superintendent. The County Superintendent's submission additionally reflects that the Board had also requested a Commissioner's cap waiver of $606,026, which amount included $234,400 for increased enrollment and $371,626 for increased special education costs. Such

Necessary for T & E

Account Title	Account Number	Amount
Tuition to Other LEAs - Regular	11-000-100-561	$ 24,040
Other Support/Special Professional Salaries	11-000-219-104	$ 35,000
Employee Benefits	11-000-290-290	$ 3,058
TOTAL AMOUNT		$ 62,098

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for T & E. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such T & E to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line-item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989). Additionally, with respect to appeals involving cap waivers, before the Commissioner can direct restoration of any amount of a waiver defeated by the voters, the Commissioner must determine that such amount is fully necessary for purposes of T & E and unable to be derived from further reallocation within the base budget. Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, Bergen County,

State Board decision July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, State Board decision July 6, 1994.

Mindful, then, of the standard to be applied, the Commissioner makes the specific determinations set forth below.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION - BUDGET

Preliminarily, the Board urges the Commissioner, in making his determination in this matter, to consider that the District is anticipating a budget deficit for the 1995-96 school year of approximately $370,000, which will have to be eliminated during the 1996-97 budget year. The Board asserts that now that the District has received the final word on its 1995-96 budget appeal, with the recommended cuts being allowed to stand, the District is faced with having to reduce the 1996-97 budget by a total of $479,000, taking into consideration the $109,000 that the Mayor and Council have proposed herein. The Board further states that the Mayor and Council have recently informed the District that they will not raise money via tax anticipation notes for the amount that was restored to the budget for the 1995-96 school year. It argues that, therefore, the Board is obligated to issue the tax anticipation notes and pay whatever interest these notes bear.

The Commissioner notes that the Board has now appealed three consecutive budget defeats, all of which included cap waivers, and despite sizable restorations has been unable to get its fiscal house in order. In fact, the annual independent audit at June 30, 1996 indicates the district is in a deficit position of $206,382. Its only efforts to date to eliminate the deficit have been two fiscally irresponsible proposals to refinance its lease purchase agreement neither of which met the applicable regulatory provisions. These flawed attempts, as well as the original decision to enter a lease purchase agreement of almost $4 million with a five- year repayment schedule and in a manner which avoided the Commissioner's review and approval of such terms, reflect the poor financial decision making which has created this succession of budget appeals and the current deficit.

Accordingly, throughout this decision the Commissioner will identify areas of the budget where reallocation or reductions appear likely in this or future budgets and issue specific directives to the Board as to actions which it shall take and report to the county superintendent.

Under the New Jersey Code of Criminal Justice, it is a crime for a public official or employee to purposely and knowingly disburse, order or vote for the disbursement of moneys or incur obligations in excess of appropriations or an amount limited by law. The law applies to members or employees of a board of education and prohibits purposeful and knowing overspending regardless of motive. The consequences for a person convicted of this offense are serious. The offense is a crime of the fourth degree, and a person who commits it may be imprisoned for a term up to 18 months, and fined or ordered to make restitution. A conviction would also result in forfeiture of the current board membership or employment and would be a permanent disqualification from holding public office or employment.

It is imperative that the Board take the necessary corrective actions to eliminate this deficit and present a balanced budget proposal for the 1997-98 school year. The Board's deficit position at June 30, 1996 was reported to the Division of Criminal Justice on a routine basis. Failure to correct the situation will result in the Commissioner making a recommendation to the Director, Division of Criminal Justice for a formal investigation.

Disputed Line-Item Number 1

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
2640	11-190-100-106	Other Salaries for Instruction	$51,850	$11,250

The Council argues that the District terminated employees during 1995-96. It recommends rehiring half of these former employees this year and perhaps the other half next year.

The Board asserts that this line item represents salaries for the aides in special education classes. It observes that during the 1994-95 school year, the District spent a total of $92,907 in this account, which includes salaries for special education classroom aides and bedside instruction. The Board states that currently the District has four special education classes at maximum enrollment, and plans to institute a new education class. It argues that the cost of paying these aides, which are mandated positions, is represented by the following equation: 35 weeks x 23 hours per week x $12.76 x 5 aides = $51,359.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that based on the 1996-97 Application for State School Aid contained in section c of the Board's petition the district's on roll special education pupils in self-contained classes are 8 NI and 29 PI. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:28-4.4, maximum class sizes without an aide are 8 for NI and 12 for PI. Accordingly, the evidence suggests that none of the four special education classes which the district operates requires an aide. Additionally, the council's reduction permits the district to employ more aides than were budgeted in 1995-96 since the council's reduction is only 22 percent of the amount originally budgeted and is an increase of $15,600 over the amount budgeted for 1995-96. Therefore, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $11,250 to Account No. 11-190-100-106. The Commissioner directs the Board to assess its need of the $40,600 budgeted for aides to determine if reductions can be made to help eliminate the district's deficit and submit a written copy of such assessment to the county superintendent as part of an overall plan to eliminate the deficit. The Commissioner notes that the appropriate coding of special education classroom aides under the chart of accounts required for district use pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.2(m) would not be this account, which is for regular instruction classroom aides. The Board is hereby directed to reclassify the budgeted amount to the proper special education program classifications.

Disputed Line - Item Numbers 2 & 3

Line No.	Account No.	Descriptions	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
2680	11-190-100-610	General Supplies	$100,000	$20,000
2700	11-190-100-800	Other Objects	$ 65,000	$15,000

The Board contends that line no. 2700 "Other Objects" pays for small classroom supplies other than books, crayons and pencils, i.e., chairs, tables and desks. The Commissioner notes that the types of expenditures budgeted by the Board to this account are considered supply items, which are properly budgeted to the applicable instruction program (regular, special education, etc.) under object 610. Accordingly, the Commissioner directs the Board to reclassify these items to the proper accounts.

The council contends that the adjusted budget for line item #2680 for the 1995-96 school year was $75,000. It states that a 6 percent increase is more than adequate for the 1996-97 year.

The Board contends that during the 1993-94 school year, the district spent $102,778 in this account. In the 1994-95 school year, general supplies were budgeted at $106,062. Due to the budget deficit which the district experienced, it has been forced to eliminate expenditures in this area. The result has been a general shortage of classroom and teaching supplies during this past school year. The Board argues that, to date, the district has spent $80,000 in this account, so that the $100,000 is not an exaggerated amount but, rather, a return to 1993-94 levels.

The counsel asserts that certain reductions were made to line item #2700 during 1995-96, and proffers that $4,000, representing an 8 percent increase, will provide sufficient funds for 1996-97.

The Board maintains that during the 1994-95 school year, $89,488 was spent in this category. During the 1995-96 school year, $52,000 has been spent. It asserts that the district economized and used up its entire stock of supplies and all reserves. The Board argues that, as the district's enrollment has been increasing and its stock of these items has been completely depleted by the recent cost savings strategy, the district needs its full $65,000 allotment in order to provide T & E for the children of Fairview.

In reviewing these accounts and arguments, the Commissioner will consider the entire amount both budgeted and after reductions for all textbooks and instructional supplies for regular, special education, basic skills and bilingual programs. The Board's original budget contained $197,400 for all textbooks and instructional supplies or $229 per pupil based on the Board's on roll budget estimate of 861 pupils. After council's reductions, the per pupil amount was $189 per pupil which is still higher than the 1995-96 audited state average of $185 per pupil and the median of $183 per pupil. Therefore, the Commissioner sustains the reductions of $20,000 to line #2680 and $15,000 to line #2700.

Disputed Line-Item Number 4

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
4810	11-230-100-101	Salaries of Teachers	$158,975	$7,500

The Council states that certain staff reflected by this line item were terminated during 1995-96. It recommends the rehiring of half of these staff members this year and perhaps the other half next year.

The Board asserts that in 1994-95 the District spent $148,376 on this line item. In the 1995-96 school year, this amount was reduced to $139,685 because when the District reduced staff in January, one of the special education teachers was transferred to a position as a classroom teacher from her basic skills position. It argues that, due to changes in student needs, it is now absolutely necessary that this teacher return to her basic skills position and the Board needs the full amount budgeted in order to pay the necessary differential to do this. The Board maintains that the Mayor and Council's recommendation to reduce this line item by $7,500 is arbitrary and capricious in that such recommendation bears no rational relationship to the amount of the cut. Clearly, it asserts, for the people terminated last year (if any plural amount of teachers in this category had been terminated, which they were not), $7,500 would not mean the difference between rehiring half of them and rehiring none of them.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that the district's basic skills budget for 1996-97 contains revised appropriations for 1995-96 of $139,685 for teachers' salaries, $47,000 for other salaries for instruction and $2,000 for other objects (which based on previous stipulations by the Board are likely supplies) for a total of $188,685. The Board in its petition attests to the $139,685 teachers' salaries appropriation for 1995-96 and indicates that an increase to $158,975 is needed to properly serve students' basic skills needs. Yet, a review of the annual audit for the 1995-96 school year, indicates that $152,364 was actually expended on teachers' salaries and $36,321 was actually expended in the nondescript category of "other objects" for a total of $188,685. These numbers bear little resemblance to those in the Board's proposed budget for 1995-96 revised appropriations at February 1, 1996 or to the amounts contained in their arguments.

Based on the annual audit, the Board's $205,975 request for the basic skills program exceeds actual 1995-96 expenditures by $17,290. Additionally, while the Board may have justified the need for $158,975 for teachers, there is no explanation for the requested continuation of $47,000 in other instructional salaries which was budgeted but never expended in 1995-96. Having established that textbook and instructional supplies are sufficiently funded earlier, the Commissioner sustains the $7,500 reduction to this account series and further directs the Board to either reduce this account series by $39,500 to offset the cap waiver restoration through reallocation and to help eliminate the deficit or provide a specific rationale to the county superintendent as to any amount which cannot be reduced as part of an overall plan to eliminate the deficit.

Disputed Line-Item Number 5

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6430	11-000-213-100	Health Services Salaries	$52,370	$11,500

The Council contends that a health aide, with concomitant benefits, was hired in 1995-96. It recommends the elimination of this position.

In support of restoration of this line item, representing the salary of a health aide position, the Board argues that the District has two schools and that before this aide was hired, the District had one nurse who was servicing 800 students in these two buildings. The Board maintains that the District created the position of health aide to assist the nurse by relieving her of some of the overwhelming amount of paperwork that is required and to handle some of the more routine tasks such as weighing and measuring of students. The Board contends that this position is absolutely essential for the health and safety of the students of Fairview.

The Commissioner again notes that the Board has now appealed three consecutive budget defeats, requested three consecutive cap waivers, received sizable previous restorations, and is in a deficit position. The decision to hire new staff given these serious financial problems is imprudent, especially where the duties require no educational certification or could be shared among existing staff members. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the $11,500 reduction of this account.

Disputed Line-Item Number 6

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
6910	11-000-230-100	General Admin. Salaries	$331,010	$6,119

The Council argues that the raise for the Superintendent should be eliminated. It maintains that the current deficit situation rests with management. As such, it recommends that no raise be paid to the Chief School Administrator for 1996-97, and that his salary be frozen at its current level of $95,881 until such time as this deficit situation is resolved.

The Board argues that the elimination of the Superintendent's raise in order to achieve a savings of $6,119 is not feasible in that this raise is part of a contract that has been in place for the Superintendent and elimination of this raise would violate the terms of such contract.

Upon review, the Commissioner reasserts the financial problems cited earlier and notes that while the district's in-house classroom and instructional spending is below the state average per pupil for K-8 districts, its administrative costs, even after council's reductions, as defined within the Comparative Spending Guide exceed the state average for K-8 school districts by $107 per pupil or $92,127. Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the district's administrative budget is sufficient to meet its overall administrative needs and honor the superintendent's contract and he sustains the $6,119 reduction to this account. Additionally, in light of the district's deficit and its continued inability to address it, the Commissioner directs that the Board either reduce the $92,127 in excess of the state average in order to offset the cap waiver restoration through reallocation and to help eliminate the deficit or provide a specific rationale to the county superintendent as to any amount which cannot be reduced as part of an overall plan to eliminate the deficit.

Disputed Line-Item Number 7

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7120	11-000-260-420	Cleaning, Repairs and Building Maintenance	$120,000	$31,000

The Council asserts that this recommended cut still leaves an increase of $6,447, or 8%, over the 1995-96 spending level, which it contends should more than cover the District's needs in this area.

The Board urges that the age of the facilities in this District requires constant maintenance to keep them in acceptable working order. It maintains that during the 1993-94 school year, the District spent $305,828 on this line item. In 1994-95, to effectuate savings, $173,086 was appropriated, and due to the budget shortfall during the current year, the District was forced to cut back in this area. The Board avers that certain repairs have now become absolutely mandatory, including repairing the stucco on the school building. In addition, maintenance of some of the District's upgraded facilities totals a large amount of this line item. It posits, as an example, that last year alone, the District spent $28,000 on the maintenance of its new heating system, $10,000 on the maintenance of its computer system for the bookkeeping department, $12,000 on the maintenance of its new alarm system, and $22,600 on maintenance and upkeep of its office copiers. The Board argues that reducing this amount to $89,000 would make it almost impossible to buy cleaning supplies and maintain buildings in a safe and healthy condition for students.

Upon careful review, the Commissioner determines that while the Board demonstrated the need for the original appropriation in this specific account, the overall operation and maintenance of plant budget is excessive. Information available within the department shows that the operation and maintenance budget as defined in the Comparative Spending Guide exceeds the state average of $773 per pupil by $77 or $66,297 even after council's reductions. This status is primarily due to the salary account which based on the district's proposed budget in Section A of the petition contains eight full-time workers for two schools. Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the district's operation and maintenance budget is sufficient to meet its overall needs and he sustains the $31,000 reduction to this account series. Additionally, in light of the district's deficit and its continued inability to address it, the Commissioner directs that the Board either reduce the operation and maintenance budget by $66,297 to offset the cap waiver restoration through reallocation and to help eliminate the deficit or provide a specific rationale to the county superintendent as to any amount which cannot be reduced including an explanation for eight full-time employees to cover two school buildings as part of an overall plan to reduce the deficit.

Disputed Line-Item Number 8

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
7420	11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$532,642	$7,500

The Council proffers that this cut represents benefits allocated to the health aide position which was recommended for elimination above.

The Board argues that the same rationale which applies to Account No. 11-000-213-100, salary of the health aide position, likewise applies to this one which represents the benefits paid to that individual. The Board contends that it cannot afford to eliminate this position of health aide (or that individual's benefits) in light of the fact that without such position, one nurse will be forced to care for more than 800 students single-handedly.

Upon review, consistent with the determination on the health aid position, the Commissioner sustains the $7,500 reduction.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION- CAP WAIVER

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount
6270	11-000-100-561	Tuition to Other LEAs/Reg.	$ 24,040

The Board argues that the need for this line item is self-evident, in that the District has had an unusually large influx of students entering its school this year, in part because of the construction of a new low to moderate income high rise that was built in the town. The Board demonstrates that it is required to pay $8,500 per student to Cliffside Park High School.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the amount required for tuition to Cliffside Park High School is consistent with amounts contained in the receiving district's budget statement and therefore the amount requested is necessary for T & E. The Commissioner directs that $24,040 be reallocated from any one or any combination of the following account series: 11-230-100-XXX, 11-000-230-XXX, 11-000-240-XXX, and/or 11-000-260-XXX.

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount
6580	11-000-219-104	Other Support/Spec. Prof. Salaries	$ 35,000

The Council contends that the Board has failed to demonstrate a need for an additional child study team member and, therefore, this request should be denied.

The Board points out that, based on statistics contained in its cap waiver request which showed that the costs for special education in the District increased 17.39% in the period between the prebudget year and the year prior to the prebudget year, the County Superintendent and the Commissioner of Education, by letter dated March 12, 1996, approved a $266,626 cap waiver in light of the District's increased costs for such special education pupils. The Board argues that the Council has not taken into account the reality of this increase when looking at funding needs in the special education area, and contends that funds for an additional child study team member are entirely reasonable in light of the rapidly expanding special education program as documented in the cap waiver request.

Upon careful review, the Commissioner notes that the Board's supporting documentation for the budget contained in Section A of the petition indicates that the Board currently has two full-time and six part-time child study team positions and proposes the addition of another full-time position. The Commissioner also notes that about 74 percent of the district's classified students are served through resource centers and self-contained classes for perceptually impaired students indicating that the majority of classified pupils are either mildly disabled or do not require intensive services. Also assuming that part-time child study team members equate to a .5 full-time equivalent, the district currently has a resident enrollment ratio of 247 to 1 child study team member and a classified resident enrollment ratio of about 33 to 1 child study team member, ratios that appear more than reasonable. Such assumptions and analyses were necessitated because the Board's argument rested solely on the approval of a cap waiver for special education costs, an argument which alone does not document the need for additional child study team members only that special education costs have increased. The Board did not describe the make-up of its child study team nor did it provide the caseload or other information needed for a sound decision. Accordingly, the Commissioner finds the district did not document the need for the additional child study team member and sustains the $35,000 reduction to this account.

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount
7420	11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$ 3,058

The Council maintains that such benefit payments are unnecessary with the elimination of the child study team position.

The Board observes that these benefit monies, in connection with an additional child study team member above, are entirely justified due to the same reasons as stated in the salary account above.

Consistent with the above determination, the Commissioner sustains the $3,058 reduction to this account.

APPLICATION OF SURPLUS/ELIMINATION OF DEFICIT

In its advertised annual school district budget statement, the Board projected an unreserved surplus of $104,351 and allocated -0- as revenue, leaving $104,351 as undesignated unreserved general fund balance. However, the Board's annual independent audit and related Comprehensive Annual Financial Report indicate the Board has a general fund deficit of $206,382. Accordingly, no surplus is available. However, the Commissioner has identified potential budget reductions totaling $238,524 in account series: 11-190-100-106, 11-230-100-XXX, 11-000-230-XXX, 11-000-240-XXX, and 11-000-260-XXX of which $24,040 must be reallocated to restore the tuition reduction made by council. That leaves $214,484 in potential reductions, an amount sufficient to eliminate the deficit.

The Board is directed to file within 30 days of the date of this decision a formal plan to eliminate the deficit, which shall address all directives contained herein, with the county superintendent, a duplicate copy of which shall be filed with the Commissioner.

SUMMARY

In summary, the Commissioner finds that $24,040 appealed by the Board herein has been shown to be necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education in the District and, therefore, directs restoration of the Council's line-item reduction to appropriations and waiver of expenditure limitations as set forth below. The Commissioner further notes that all restorations to line-item appropriations and waiver amounts granted are restricted in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.11(b)3, provided, however, that where amounts at issue have been incorrectly coded, as noted above, appropriations are restricted to the correct account. Finally, the Commissioner notes that sufficient funds are available within the originally certified budget to provide a thorough and efficient education and eliminate the deficit.

Line Item	Description	Sustained	Restored
2640	Other Salaries for Instruction	$ 11,250	- 0 -
2680	General Supplies	$ 20,000	- 0 -
2700	Other Objects	$ 15,000	- 0 -
4820	Basic Skills	$ 7,500	- 0 -
6430	Health Services Salaries	$ 11,500	- 0 -
6910	General Administration Salaries	$ 6,119	- 0 -
7120	Cleaning, Repairs and Building Maintenance	$ 31,000	- 0 -
7420	Other Employee Benefits	$ 7,500	- 0 -
	TOTAL LINE-ITEM DETERMINATIONS	$109,869	- 0 -

Cap Waiver Amounts	Not Necessary	Necessary
Tuition to Other LEAs/Reg.		$ 24,040
Other Support/Spec. Prof. Salaries	$ 35,000	- 0 -
Other Employee Benefits	$ 3,058	- 0 -
TOTAL CAP WAIVER AMOUNT	$ 38,058	$ 24,040

Tax Levy Certified by Council	$ 9,260,260
Restoration of Reductions	-0-
Cap Waiver Amount Approved	24,040
Approved Amount Funded by Reallocation	(24,040)
TOTAL TAX LEVY FOR 1996-97	$ 9,260,260

Accordingly, the tax levy of $9,260,260 shall stand as originally certified, having been deemed sufficient for General Fund purposes of the Fairview Board of Education for the 1996-97 school year.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 5, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 5, 1997

104-97

104-97 E

E.L. AND C.L., on behalf of minor child, W.L.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF MORRIS COUNTY VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL SCHOOLS, MORRIS COUNTY, ET AL.,

RESPONDENTS.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION ON MOTION

March 7, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1760-97
AGENCY DKT. NO. 23-1/97

E.L. AND C.L., on behalf of minor child, W.L.,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF MORRIS COUNTY VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL SCHOOLS, MORRIS COUNTY, ET AL.,	:	DECISION ON MOTION
RESPONDENTS.	:

For Petitioner, Tanya N. Helfand, Esq.

For Respondent, Dover Board of Education, et al., Derlys Maria Gutierrez, Esq. (Sills, Cummis, Zuckerman, Radin, Tischman, Epstein & Gross)

For Respondent, Morris County Vocational-Technical Schools Board of Education, et al., John Mills, III, Esq. (Mills & Mills)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 23, 1997, by way of a Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief filed by counsel for petitioners, seeking an order permitting W.L. to participate in a fully credited day of classes at Dover High School subsequent to his expulsion from his afternoon program at Morris County Vocational-Technical School. After receipt of Answers from respondents, this matter was transmitted, on February 10, 1997, to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing.

Upon review of the record of this emergent matter which included the audiotape of proceedings before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), and his subsequent Order (attached), the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's determination to grant emergent relief, as detailed in his Order, as the standards for the granting of such relief, as set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), have been satisfied.

Accordingly, the Motion for Emergent Relief is hereby granted as expressed in the recommended Order, and the matter on the merits will proceed at the OAL consistent with the recommendation of the ALJ.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 7, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 7, 1997

RECEIVED
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW
FEB 21 1 36 PM '97

TANYA N. HELAND, ESQ.
ROCKAWAY TOWNSQUARE CONVENIENCE CENTER
ROCKAWAY, NJ 07866
(201) 366-3500
Attorney for Petitioner

Wilbert Lorenzo a minor by his parents/guaradians EFRAIN LORENZO and CANDIDA LORENZO Petitioners, vs. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF DOVER, DOVER HIGH SCHOOL, MORRIS COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION, MORRIS COUNTY VO TECH SCHOOL, ROBERT BECKER, principal, NEAL KAPLAN, Vice Principal, JAMES DEWORKEN, Superintendent, MICHEAL PALSCHAKOV, Teacher, EDWARD BOLCAR, Vice Principal, Respondents.	:BEFORE THE COMMISIONER :OF EDUCATION OF :NEW JERSEY OAL Dkt. No. EDU 1760-9 Agency Docket No: 23-1/97 ORDER

This matter having been opened to the Office of Administrative Law on Feb. 19, 1997 by Tanya N. Helfand, Esq. for an emergent hearing on behalf of petitioner's Wilbert Lorenzo, Candida Lorenzo and Efrain Lorenzo in the presence of John Mills, III, Esq. and Derlys Gutierrez, Esq. attorneys for respondents and the court having considered the papers, testimony of witnesses and argument of counsel and for good cause shown.

IT IS ON THIS 21st DAY OF FEBRUARY 1997;

ORDERED that Petitioner W.L. be immediately reinstated at Dover High School for a full schedule of classes (4 in the morning and at least 4 in the afternoon) for the remainder of the school year. Said afternoon classes shall be chosen with the help of petitioner's guidance counsellor.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Dover High School shall provide additional tutoring to W.L. to help him to "make up" for classes not attended to date. Scheduling of said tutoring shall also be determined by petitioners guidance counsellor. KS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the court shall reserve its decision until a future nonemergent hearing with regard to petitioner's request for credit towards graduation for attending afternoon classes and additional tutoring.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent Morris County VoTech School will accept petitioner's application for the cosmetology program for the school year 1997-1998. Respondent shall consider petitioner for the program using the same [redacted] standards established for all applicants of the program. KS

[redacted] KS

Ken R. Springer

Ken Springer, ALJ

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the Commissioner, Department of Education, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five (45) days following the entry of this order. If the Commissioner, Department of Education does not adopt modify or reject this order within forty-five (45) days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

105-97

105-97

M.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BERGENFIELD, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 7, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12392-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 446-11/95

MARGARET MASON,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BERGENFIELD,
Respondent.

Carlos Peay Jr., Esq., for petitioner

Joanne L. Butler, Esq., for respondent
(Schenck, Price, Smith & King, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 13, 1997 Decided: January 15, 1997

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of Facts

This is an appeal brought on behalf of a student seeking enrollment in respondent school district for the 1995-96 school year. The school district has counterclaimed seeking payment of prorated tuition. Basically, the issue is whether the child is eligible for free education in the district as an "affidavit student" under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b). Petitioner alleges that her son and daughter-in-law are physically incapable of caring for her granddaughter and that petitioner is supporting her "gratis" within the meaning of the statute. However, respondent denies that petitioner meets the statutory standard for obtaining a free public education in the district.

For the reasons which follow, petitioner abandoned the hearing request and offered no proofs in support of her allegations. Consequently, respondent is entitled to judgment on the counterclaim.

Procedural History

On November 20, 1995, petitioner filed a verified petition with the Commissioner of Education. The Board of Education of Bergenfield ("Board") filed its answer and counterclaim on December 13, 1995. Thereafter, on December 18, 1995, petitioner filed an answer to the counterclaim. Meanwhile, the Board agreed to admit petitioner's grandchild to school in the district pending the outcome of this appeal.

Subsequently, on December 18, 1995, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing as a contested case. Originally, the OAL scheduled two days of hearing for November 6 and 7, 1996. At the request of both parties, this hearing was adjourned because of a tentative settlement. When the parties failed to submit a signed settlement agreement, the OAL rescheduled the matter for hearing on January 13, 1997. On that date, counsel representing both parties were present, but petitioner failed to appear. Counsel for petitioner placed on the record his unsuccessful efforts to obtain petitioner's cooperation in presenting her case and defending against the counterclaim.

Findings of Fact

Based on the representations of counsel, I FIND the following facts:

On July 29, 1996, the Board moved for an order compelling petitioner to answer interrogatories propounded by respondent. Despite an order entered on July 31, 1996 directing that petitioner submit responsive answers no later than August 27, 1996, petitioner failed to furnish answers to respondent's interrogatories. Petitioner's counsel sent three letters to petitioner in August 1996 attempting to schedule an appointment for petitioner to consult with him. Nonetheless, petitioner ignored these letters and failed to meet with her own attorney. By the end of the 1995-96 school year, petitioner's grandchild left New Jersey and returned to her parents in Alabama.

Counsel for both parties were able to negotiate a proposed settlement on mutually favorable terms. Ms. Butler drafted a written stipulation of settlement, which she sent to Mr. Peay on October 28, 1996. Mr. Peay forwarded a copy to his client on November 14, 1996, requesting that she come into his office and sign the stipulation. Petitioner did not reply. On December 30, 1996, Mr. Peay sent a second letter to his client, asking that she sign the settlement agreement and mail it back to him. Again, petitioner did not make any response. In fact, petitioner has not responded to any of Mr. Peay's correspondence and he has had no telephone contact with her since last August. Since Mr. Peay lacks authorization from his client, he cannot sign the proposed settlement papers in her name.

Petitioner failed to appear at the hearing on January 13, 1997. In her absence, no evidence was presented in support of her claim. The Board has submitted an affidavit establishing that the total prorated tuition for the 1995-96 school year amounts to $5,597.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts, I CONCLUDE that petitioner failed to appear at the hearing on January 13, 1997 without good cause, and that this nonappearance constitutes an abandonment of her hearing request.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) provides that a person over five and under twenty years of age may attend school free of charge in the district if satisfactory proofs show: (1) that the child "is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child;" (2) that the child's parent or guardian "is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship;" and (3) that the child is "not residing with the resident of the district solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district." When a board of education determines that the evidence does not support the validity of a claim, the resident may appeal the adverse decision to the Commissioner and "shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education" under the statutory criteria. If the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, the Commissioner "shall assess the resident tuition for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the school district."

Here petitioner offered no proofs whatsoever in support of her claim. Accordingly, petitioner has failed to meet her burden of proof and the Commissioner must enter judgment for payment of prorated tuition.

Order

It is ORDERED that petitioner's request for relief is denied for lack of diligent prosecution.

And further ORDERED that petitioner pay the sum of $5,597 to the Bergenfield Board of Education.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan. 15, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Jan. 23, 1997
DATE

Receipt Acknowledged:
D. M. Antanaitis Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 24 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12392-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 446-11/95

M.M.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BERGENFIELD, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner's request for relief should be denied. Petitioner, by her failure to appear at the hearing, has abandoned her request for such hearing. Consequently, petitioner has not met her burden of proof in this matter and her granddaughter is not, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq., entitled to a free education in the Board's District.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. Petitioner is directed to remit $5,597 to the Board, representing tuition costs for that period of time in which petitioner's granddaughter was ineligible to attend school in the District, but nonetheless did so.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 7, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 7, 1997

106-97

106-97

KATHLEEN MILLER,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PERTH AMBOY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, tenured elementary school teacher, alleged the Board's action withholding her salary increment for unsatisfactory performance was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.

ALJ concluded Board's withholding action was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. ALJ found the Board offered petitioner a meaningful remediation plan which petitioner did not implement. Moreover, the Board informed petitioner of all its observations, evaluations and reasons for withholding in a timely manner .

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

MARCH 7, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7847-95

AGENCY DKT. #225-6/95

KATHLEEN MILLER,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PERTH AMBOY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Brian Miller Adams, Esq., for petitioner (Dwyer & Canellis, attorneys)

Peter Schultz, Esq., for respondent (Sills, Cummis, Zuckerman, Radin, Tischman, Epstein & Gross, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 9, 1996 Decided: January 22, 1997

BEFORE KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The petitioner claimed that the action of the Board in withholding her salary increment was arbitrary and unreasonable.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petitioner appealed to the Department of Education and on June 27, 1995, the Department of Education transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing and determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52: 14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The matter was scheduled for January 29 and 30, 1996. After an adjournment, the matter was heard on September 16, 1996 and on October 3, 1996, at the Office of Administrative Law, Quakerbridge Road, Hamilton, New Jersey.

DISCUSSION OF THE TESTIMONY AND EVIDENCE

The petitioner claimed that she was given no meaningful plan of remediation, and that the Board decided to withhold her increment in January, before improvement could take place.

The Board claimed that petitioner failed to perform throughout the school year, and that a plan had been put together for remediation, and petitioner was assisted but, although she did improve slightly, the overall result of her performance throughout the school year was unsatisfactory.

The first witness to testify was Kathleen Miller, petitioner. who said she had been a teacher since 1972. She said she has taught 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th and 6th grade, and taught 6th grade at Shull School in school year 1995-1996. Ms. Miller said she was evaluated on September 26, 1994 by the new Vice Principal, Ms. Wilson, who indicated problems in petitioner's decoding skills, teaching skills and classroom management. (This evaluation was not introduced as an exhibit, by mutual consent.) An observation by Ms. Herbeck of December 19, 1994 (J-1) indicated deficiencies in instructional skills and classroom management. Petitioner said she discussed the observation report with Ms. Herbeck, who made suggestions which petitioner said she followed. Petitioner said that, on January 1, 1995 (J-2), she was observed by Mr. Yurok, and that observation again indicated deficiencies in instructional skills and in classroom management.

Petitioner said she discussed the report with Mr. Yurok. Petitioner also said she observed other 6th grade teachers in action, before the January 9 meeting.

Petitioner said that, on January 9, 1995, a meeting was held to establish the "backbone" of her remediation program, which she said was a collaborative effort to help, not to punish, her. Petitioner said that her union representative, Norman Tankiewicz, was invited to the meeting, which was also attended by Mr. Uribe, Ms. Wilson, Ms. Herbeck, and M. Sellers. Petitioner said there was no mention of her increment at this meeting.

Petitioner said that, on January 11, 1996, petitioner received an evaluation (J-3) of the earlier observations (J-1 and J-2). Petitioner said that a meeting was to be planned to implement the strategies presented to her at the January 11 meeting, but that such a follow-up meeting never took place. Petitioner said that she wanted a discussion at a meeting, rather than communication through observation forms. Petitioner said that Mr. Yurok told her there was no time left for the follow-up meeting, as half the year had already passed. Petitioner said she did receive a handwritten remediation plan from Mr. Yurok on January 11, who asked petitioner to look it over and tell him what she thought, and that then Mr. Yurok would have the plan typed up and signed, but petitioner said that never happened Petitioner said that Ms. Herbeck sent her instructional materials to read on teaching strategies and classroom management, which petitioner said she read. Petitioner said that she received mixed messages from the reading materials, which suggested overlooking situations and continue teaching, a strategy for which petitioner felt she had been criticized.

Petitioner said that only Mr. Sellers, Assistant Superintendent, indicated a time frame for her improvement, which was to the end of the year.

Petitioner said that she received another observation report from Ms. Herbeck (J-5) on March 7, 1995 in which her classroom skills were rated as "Unsatisfactory." Petitioner said that she received another observation report from Dr. DeStefano on March 14, 1995 (J-6), and another report from Dr. DeStefano on March 15, because petitioner said she asked Dr. DeStefano to come back as there had been a fire drill while he was observing petitioner's class performance. Petitioner also said that Dr. DeStefano taught a demonstration class at her request. Petitioner said that Dr. DeStefano had rated her classroom management skills as Unsatisfactory, but had changed her rating for instructional skills from Unsatisfactory to Satisfactory on the second day of observation (J-7).

Petitioner said that the report of March 24, 1995, rated her classroom management as "I", or that improvement was needed. Petitioner said she should have been rated either Unsatisfactory or Satisfactory.

Petitioner said that the prior observations did not support the Unsatisfactory evaluation of March 7, 1995 by Uribe, Herbeck and Wilson (J-9), because it went back to the beginning of the year.

Petitioner said she went to a workshop at the Academy in Edison, on classroom management skills in April, which she had requested. (P-3)

Petitioner said she was notified, for the first time, at the end of the year that she would not receive an increment. Petitioner said she thought she had improved and had done what her supervisors wanted of her.

On cross, petitioner said that the problem with her decoding skills was an incident with one boy, at which Ms. Wilson put her arm around the boy and walked him out of the classroom. Petitioner said the September 26, 1994 report by Ms. Wilson was "pulled" by Mr. Uribe at the January 9 meeting, as an attempt to let petitioner "start fresh." All copies of the September 26, 1994 report were given to petitioner.

Petitioner said that her class was troublesome, and that she did not understand the professional improvement plan (B-1) which was part of the meeting of January 9, and which was also introduced as part of J-. At one point in her testimony, petitioner denied ever seeing B-1 before, and later said that she was handed B-1 by Mr. Uribe. Petitioner said she did not know what to make of it (B-!) when she was given it by Mr. Uribe on January 9, and expected B-1 to be explained to her during a later meeting with Ms. Wilson, which meeting never took place.

Petitioner also said that Mr. Uribe wrote P-1, dated January 17, 1995.

The next witness was Norman Tankiewicz, petitioner's union representative, who said that petitioner came to him in late September, 1994 with a complaint that the problem with the boy colored Ms. Wilson's evaluation of September 26. Mr. Tankiewicz said her problem with the September 26 evaluation was resolved when Mr. Uribe "wiped the slate clean." Subsequently, in November, petitioner came to him and reported that she was having difficulty with her class, that they were a difficult group, and that she was unfamiliar with the curriculum.

Mr. Tankiewicz said that petitioner immediately came to him when she received J-1, and that Mr. Uribe called a meeting on January 9 and Mr. Uribe said that petitioner could bring her union representative. Mr. Tankiewicz said that the focus of this meeting was petitioner's classroom management skills. Mr. Tankiewicz said that he suggested a remediation plan, to forestall disciplinary action. Mr. Tankiewicz said that a remediation plan was not required by the collective bargaining agreement. Mr. Tankiewicz said that the petitioner was offered demonstration lessons and the opportunity to view other teachers, and was supplied with instructional materials.

Mr. Tankiewicz said that Mr. Sellers said that petitioner still had time to improve, until the end of the school year, and that if she improved there would be no disciplinary action. Mr. Tankiewicz said that at this point (January 9), he did not believe increment withholding was under consideration.

Mr. Tankiewicz said that he wrote P-1, in consultation with petitioner, as a summary of the January 9 meeting. Mr. Tankiewicz said that he had P-1 typed and sent to all parties to the January 9 meeting, and he did not expect P-1 to be signed by the parties.

Mr. Tankiewicz said that, in March, petitioner told him that the demonstration lessons were not offered, and if she wanted them, she had to arrange for them herself. Mr. Tankiewicz said that he did not expect there to another meeting, but did expect frequent contact on this matter. Mr. Tankiewicz said that he did not think there was frequent contact.

Mr. Tankiewicz said that the collective bargaining agreement did not require notice of increment withholding by any date, and that the Board voted on April 7 to withhold petitioner's increment.

The next witness was Julius Uribe, Principal, who said that Dr. DeStefano, Ms. Herbeck and Ms. Wilson had attempted to bring to petitioner's attention areas that needed improvement. Mr. Uribe said he called the January 9 meeting so that petitioner could be made aware of their serious concerns arising from the September-October evaluations. Mr. Uribe said that Ms. Wilson, an experienced Vice Principal (although new to Shull School) was concerned following her observations about petitioner's classroom management, instructional and leadership skills. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner was upset and refused to talk to Ms. Wilson following her September 26 observation, and that, following a telephone call from Mr. Tankiewicz, Mr. Uribe called the January 9 meeting and agreed to disregard the report from Ms. Wilson's September 26 observation, so that petitioner could start afresh. Mr. Uribe said he told petitioner to relax and just do her job.

Mr. Uribe said that petitioner had taught 5th grade in prior years, but as she had 20 years experience, he felt she could teach 6th grade, especially in that the enrollment in 6th grade was less than in the 5th grade.

Mr. Uribe said that he thought that petitioner would not benefit from constant correction, so he told Ms. Wilson, Ms. Herbeck and Mr. Yurok not to go into her classroom often, to let her have the opportunity to get back on track, but that once he walked by her class and the lights were out. Mr. Uribe said that he felt there was too much confusion in the classroom, and that one could not teach in that environment. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner had turned off the lights, but that he turned them back on, commenting to petitioner that the children had to learn the rules, and that correction in that manner was inappropriate in that situation, and was usually used only for younger grades..

Mr. Uribe said that he received notes from the children in petitioner's class that they were very unhappy in petitioner's class, and that petitioner had telephoned one of the parents of a child in her class, in full view and earshot of her class, to complain about the student's behavior. Mr. Uribe asked petitioner not to place a call in that manner again, and to handle such problems with the parent directly.

Mr. Uribe said that his memo of November 22, 1994 (B-2) was a summary of his meeting that day with petitioner in which he advised her that she was to immediately stop threatening to use her cellular telephone to call parents while engaged in teaching her class, and instead to call parents during non-instructional time. Mr. Uribe also instructed petitioner in this memo not to ask the security guards to cover her class, directing her was to notify the office if she wished to be relieved. Petitioner was also not to attempt to prevent a student from speaking to a guidance counselor or administrator. was directed to use the office of the Vice Principal for serious discipline problems only, and was directed to remediate other discipline problems herself. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner's response to his directions was that what she had done was not wrong, but that she would work on it.

Mr. Uribe referred to another memo (B-3) regarding petitioner asking the security guards to cover her class. Petitioner had been paged by Vice Principal Angelo Bonarrigo at 8:50 a.m.. Petitioner called the Vice Principal at 9:05 to tell him that she could not do as he requested. The Vice Principal stated that she should have been at her post at 8:50, and also that she should not have asked a security guard to cover her class. The Vice Principal stated that petitioner should not allow herself to become so frustrated by a child that she and her class were placed in a compromising situation. Petitioner was warned that violations of these kinds could result in "a negative impact" on her professional status.

Mr. Uribe referred to his memo (B-4) regarding several requests by parents to have their children removed from petitioner's class. Mr. Uribe said that the parents reported to him that they had observed petitioner's class, and met with her and with administrators, and were concerned about an "alleged lack of classroom management and poor student behavior." Mr. Uribe said that, because of the parents' requests to transfer students, petitioner's class size went from approximately 25 to 17 students. Mr. Uribe referred to a memo from the guidance counselor of January 5 (B-5) stating that, to date, she knew of 6 parents who had requested that their children be removed from petitioner's class.

Mr. Uribe said that his observations of petitioner's classroom performance were recorded in J-2, and he found her unsatisfactory in classroom management and instructional skills.

Mr. Uribe recalled the meeting in Mr. Sellers' office with petitioner in which Mr. Uribe stated that he was very concerned about petitioner's performance. Mr. Uribe said that the withholding of petitioner's salary increment was brought up then, and that no promises were made.

Mr. Uribe said that he completed his evaluation of petitioner (J-3) and gave it to her, listing 6 areas of concern. Mr. Uribe said he offered a remedial plan, to be accomplished under the guidance of himself (for areas of concern 1 and 5), of Ms. Herbeck (for areas of concern 3 and 4), and of Ms. Wilson (for areas of concern 2 and 6).

Mr. Uribe said that he gave B-1, which he said was 2/3 of the remediation plan, to petitioner within 1 week of the January 11 evaluation, in a private meeting with petitioner, Ms. Wilson and Ms. Herbeck. Mr. Uribe said that the other 1/3 of the remediation plan was the reading materials coming from Ms. Wilson.. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner did not want to talk about the remediation plan, but he hoped she would get back to him.

When she did not get back to him about the remediation plan, Mr. Uribe said he sent her a note (B-7), asking what was going on and attaching another copy of B-1. Mr. Uribe said he received no response from petitioner to B-7.

Mr. Uribe said that the second evaluation (J-9) of petitioner was most unusual, in that after being notified of her unsatisfactory performance and after being given a remedial plan, there was little if any improvement.

Mr. Uribe said that he continued to receive notes and letters (B-8 and B-9) and telephone calls from parents, who were "crying out" for action to improve the situation in petitioner's classroom. He also received a petition signed by petitioner's class, asking him to do something about petitioner screaming and calling their parents on her cellular telephone, and saying that they had learned nothing all year. (B-9, page 2).

Mr. Uribe said that a substitute teacher had been sent into petitioner's class, and the substitute reported no problems. Her report, Mr. Uribe said, was complimentary of the behavior of the class. (B-10, page 2). Petitioner complained that the substitute had given her class "busy work" (B-10, page 1).

On cross, Mr. Uribe said that the remediation plan was Mr. Tankiewicz's idea, and that Mr. Uribe embraced the idea to assist petitioner in improving. Mr. Uribe said that the evaluation of January 3 (J-3) did not come as a surprise to petitioner, as it was already fairly clear to petitioner that it was not going to be favorable.

Mr. Uribe said that the superintendent of the school district had wanted the decisions on staff increments by mid-March. Mr. Uribe said that the time period of September through mid-March was adequate for staff to be able to demonstrate what they were capable of doing. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner's increment would not have been withheld if enough progress had been shown. Mr. Uribe said that at the time of petitioner's March 27 evaluation, she had not shown the ability to control her students and create an environment conducive to learning. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner had not addressed the remedial plan sufficiently enough. Mr. Uribe was asked by the superintendent for increment recommendations by April 1 at the latest, so the superintendent could inform the Board by April 15. Mr. Uribe said that petitioner had improved her performance, but only marginally and not enough to counterweight her previous poor performance, and that she still had a long way to go.

On re-direct, Mr. Uribe said that he thought that petitioner had done Mr. Tankiewecz's plan, not Mr. Uribe's plan, which was the augmented plan. Referring to P-1, Mr. Uribe said that petitioner had not completed items 1, 2, 5, 6, 8 or 9. He said that she partially addressed item 3, and had complied with item 4 and 7. Mr. Uribe said that he gave petitioner some weeks before she was observed again, on April , 1995, and that petitioner was using the appropriate disciplinary forms, and was showing slight improvement in areas 6, 7, and 8. He said not all areas were improved, but that he tried not to be too critical of her.

On re-cross, Mr. Uribe said that, even if petitioner's performance had improved to satisfactory, her prior observations and evaluations would still be included in her final evaluation.

The next witness to testify was Barbara H. Wilson, Vice Principal of Stull School, who said that she wrote Ms. Miller a memo on November 28 (B-11) regarding her improper and incomplete discipline referrals, and her classroom management strategies, which Ms. Wilson said needed to be improved. Ms. Miller presented numerous disciplinary requests referred to her by Ms. Miller, mostly handwritten on scraps of paper, without dates (except the date noted by Ms. Miller), some demanding that a certain type of discipline be taken (B-12 and B-13). Ms. Wilson said that her efforts to observe Ms. Miller were unsuccessful, and that Mr. Uribe asked her to withdraw her September 26 observation of Ms. Miller, which Ms. Wilson did. Ms. Wilson said that, when she did observe Ms. Miller's class, she felt Ms. Miller's performance was unsatisfactory, and that she did not teach what she said at the start of the class she was going to teach.

Ms. Wilson said that, at none of the meetings she attended with Ms. Miller, was it ever said that anything (other than the September 26 observation) would not count toward Ms. Miller's overall evaluation. Ms. Wilson said that, when Ms. Miller was presented with the first part of the remedial plan on January 9 (B-1), Ms. Miller was impassive and did not indicate that she wanted any help Later (January 20), when Ms, Wilson met with Ms. Miller to discuss items 2 and 6 of the remediation plan, Ms. Wilson said that Ms. Miller still did not think she needed any help and was resistant to suggestions to improve. (B-14). Ms. Wilson said that her second meeting with Ms. Miller, on January 30, was similar to the first, in that Ms. Miller said that she was a veteran teacher and that things would work out (B-15). Ms. Wilson said that she tried to open a dialogue with Ms. Miller, but that Ms. Miller's responses, or lack thereof, did not indicate that Ms. Miller heard Ms. Wilson.

Ms. Wilson said that, on February 9, 1995, she wrote to Ms. Miller about a second instance of leaving her assigned post (B-16).

Ms. Wilson said that she was called to Ms. Miller's classroom almost every day, and that it seemed to her that Ms. Miller's students were usually talking and doing things other than classwork, and that they were not on task. Ms. Wilson said that, following her September observation, she did not enter Ms. Miller's classroom with a clipboard in her hands until March, so as not to pressure Ms. Miller, although she never observed a different approach to teaching, even in her March 3 observation (J-4). Ms. Wilson said that, although the overall rating (J-4) was S minus, Ms. Miller's improvement was marginal, and her performance was never satisfactory..

Ms. Wilson said that she got to know the students in Ms. Miller's class throughout the year, and there were no basic skills students in Ms. Miller's class. Ms. Wilson said that although other teachers world refer their students for discipline, their numbers were minimal compared to Ms. Miller's.

The next witness was Georgeanne Herbeck, Supervisor of Elementary Education, who said that she began the school year informally stopping in the observe Ms. Miller's class, and did her first formal review on December 19, 1994. (J-1). Ms. Herbeck said that the class was chaotic when she observed it, and that Ms. Miller took 45 minutes to do 5 math problems, and "belabored" them. The students became bored, while Ms. Miller concentrated on the 4 or 5 students in the front of the class. Ms. Herbeck said that Ms. Miller would begin teaching before quieting the class, and that one girl stood and yelled "shut up" because the students were talking about things other than the mathematics being taught. Ms. Herbeck said that Ms. Miller appeared stunned when she saw the "U's" on her observation (J-1). Ms. Herbeck said that that she indicated that she was ready and willing to help Ms. Miller, but that she never made any promise to "wipe the slate clean." Ms. Herbeck said that she went immediately to Mr. Uribe and told him that "we have a problem."

Ms. Herbeck said that, by March, it was clear that Ms. Miller's systems of teaching and of discipline were ineffective. Ms. Herbeck said that, during her March 7, 1995 observation of Ms. Miller's class, the students were not focused on her, and Ms. Miller began to lose patience, and began to scream at the students to quiet down, saying "I'm tired of this." Ms Herbeck gave Ms. Miller an overall Satisfactory rating for this observation.

Ms. Herbeck said that, based on Ms. Miller's performance for the school year 1994-1995, she considered Ms. Miller's performance to be unsatisfactory, and even though Ms. Miller's teaching performance improved toward the end of the year, Ms. Herbeck said that there was still room for improvement.

The last witness was Dr. Frank DeStefano, District Superintendent of Elementary Education, who said that Mr. Uribe asked him to observe Ms. Miller in February, but that Mr. Uribe did not tell him why or give any reasons for the observation. Dr. DeStefano said that, when he arrived to informally observe Ms. Miller's class on February 14, Ms. Miller asked him to return on the next day, but what Dr. DeStefano saw was a wild group out of their seats and roaming about, and the room lights were turned off. When Dr. DeStefano returned on February 15, Ms. Miller was reading and asked Dr. DeStefano to return another day, when she was giving a math class. Dr. DeStefano said that the students were shouting "let us out" and were standing at the door of the class wanting to leave the class.

Dr. DeStefano said that he had a pre-conference with Ms. Miller on February 23, in which she stated that he had seen her class on a bad day, and asked him to come back. Dr. DeStefano said that they discussed teaching methods and Ms. Miller seemed cooperative and said she would try the suggested methods. On March 2, Dr. DeStefano said that he came to observe Ms. Miller's class, but she asked him to come back another day and give a demonstration lesson. Dr. DeStefano said that he returned on March 8 and gave a demonstration lesson. Dr. DeStefano said that the reaction of the students was favorable and responsive, and that they were well-behaved.

Dr. DeStefano said that he performed a formal observation (J-6) of Ms. Miller's math class on March 14, and the students were out of control, shouting and getting up and walking about. Dr. DeStefano said that the students were saying such things to Ms. Miller as "what do you care, you're not teaching." Conversations were going on in the class, and students in the back of the classroom were reading newspapers. Dr. DeStefano said that he discussed the situation with Ms. Miller, and she said it was very unusual, and he should come back another day. Dr. DeStefano reported unsatisfactory ratings in classroom management skills and in instructional skills, and an overall rating of unsatisfactory. Ms. Miller refused to sign the rating, and asked Dr. DeStefano to return the next day. Only after Dr. DeStefano agreed to do so did Ms. Miller sign the March 14 observation

Dr. DeStefano said that he returned the following day, March 15, and, although student behavior was better than the day before, the students were still not on task, and were calling out and engaged in private conversations. Dr. DeStefano noted that improvement in her classroom management skills was mandatory. (J-7)

Dr. DeStefano said that it was unusual for 2 evaluations of a teacher to be done during a school year, but that it was necessary in this case, and that even if an evaluation had been done, teaching doesn't stop.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having had the opportunity to observe and to judge the demeanor and credibility of all witnesses in their testimony, and upon review of all the evidence and exhibits submitted, and drawing reasonable inferences therefrom, I FIND the following as FACT by a preponderance of the credible evidence:

1. Kathleen Miller is a tenured teacher employed by the Perth Amboy Board of Education. She has been a teacher since 1972. During school year 1994-1995, Ms. Miller taught 6th grade at Shull School.

2. Professional evaluations and professional staff classroom observations are used to judge a teacher's performance.

3. The classroom observation of September 13, 1994, conducted by Ms. Wilson, was withdrawn by Mr. Uribe, as an accommodation to Ms. Miller. All copies of the evaluation were given to petitioner.

4. Following the destruction of the September 13, 1994 classroom observation papers, Mr. Uribe directed that Ms. Miller not be observed for awhile, to allow her an unpressured opportunity to improve.

5. On November 22, 1994, Mr. Uribe wrote (B-2) to Ms. Miller addressing items of concern. specifically, Ms. Miller's repeated threats to call parents during class time, asking a school security guard to cover her class, preventing students from speaking to guidance counselors, and declining to discipline her students herself, instead referring even minor discipline problems to a Vice Principal.

6. The classroom observation of Ms. Miller of December 19, 1994 (J-1), conducted by Ms. Herbeck, who had never observed Ms. Miller before, showed unsatisfactory ratings in classroom management skills and in instructional skills, and an overall rating of unsatisfactory.

7. On December 20, 1994, Mr. Uribe wrote to Ms. Miller regarding parental requests to have their children removed from petitioner's class (B-4).

8. The classroom observation of Ms. Miller of January 5, 1995 (J-2), conducted by Mr. Uribe, showed unsatisfactory ratings in classroom management skills and in instructional skills, and an overall rating of unsatisfactory.

9. A meeting was held on January 9, 1995, with Ms. Miller and Mr. Tankiewicz and school administration (Mr. Uribe, Ms. Wilson , Ms. Herbeck and Mr. Sellers) to discuss Ms. Miller's poor classroom performance and to discuss plans for improvement. A remediation plan (B-1) was prepared by the school administration and offered to Ms. Miller, at their meeting of January 9, 1995. At no time was Ms. Miller told that her performance up to that point would not be used in the evaluation of her overall performance for the year. Also, Ms. Miller's increment or the possible withholding thereof was not discussed at this meeting.

10. On January 11, 1995, Ms. Miller received her first evaluation for the 1994-1995 school year (J-3), which rated her performance as unsatisfactory. The remediation plan (B-1) was attached, and the name of the administrator who would assist Ms. Miller in each of 6 areas of weaknesses was noted.

11. On January 17, 1995, Mr. Uribe, Ms. Wilson and Ms. Herbeck met with Ms. Miller and presented her with an augmented remediation plan, the two-page document (B-1) and a package of reading material (B-6). Ms. Miller was asked if she had any questions or comments, and she had none. Mr. Uribe again decided not to have Ms. Miller observed formally until she had a chance to digest the material in the augmented remediation plan. On February 15, 1995, Mr. Uribe wrote to Ms. Miller that she could again expect formal observations of her classroom performance to recommence on or about February 21. (B-7, also P-2).

12. An observation of Ms. Miller of February 13, 1995, attempted by Dr. DeStefano, was rescheduled at the request of Ms. Miller to the next day. On February 14, 1995, Dr. DeStefano again attempted to observe Ms. Miller and she again requested a postponement..

13. On February 23, 1995, Dr. DeStefano met with Ms. Miller, and informed her that he would focus on her classroom management skills when he next came to observe her.

14. On March 2, 1995, Dr. DeStefano arrived to observe Ms. Miller, but she asked him to conduct a demonstration class at another time, instead. Dr. DeStefano conducted the demonstration lesson on March 8, 1995, in which he found the class "very responsive, cooperative and well-behaved.:" (B-17).

15. On March 3, 1995, an observation of Ms. Miller was conducted by Ms. Wilson, who rated instructional planning as S minus, and classroom management as unsatisfactory, with an overall rating of S minus. (J-4).

16. On March 7, 1995, an observation of Ms. Miller was conducted by Ms. Herbeck, who rated classroom management as unsatisfactory, with an overall rating of satisfactory. (J-5).

17. The classroom observation of Ms. Miller by Dr. DeStefano was conducted on March 14, 1995, and he found her class "out of control." (J-6). Dr. DeStefano noted that Ms. Miller's attempts to quiet the class were ineffective. Dr. DeStefano reported unsatisfactory ratings in classroom management skills and in instructional skills, and an overall rating of unsatisfactory. Ms. Miller refused to sign the rating, and asked Dr. DeStefano to return the next day. Only after Dr. DeStefano agreed to do so did Ms. Miller sign the March 14 observation.

18. The classroom observation of Ms. Miller of March 15, 1995 (J-7), conducted by Dr. DeStefano, showed an unsatisfactory rating in classroom management skills and an overall rating of satisfactory.

19. The classroom observation of Ms. Miller of March 22, 1995 (J-10), conducted by Ms. Herbeck, showed satisfactory ratings in all areas and an overall rating of satisfactory.

20. On March 24, 1995, an observation of Ms. Miller was conducted by Mr. Uribe, who rated classroom management as "I", or "improvement needed", with an overall rating of satisfactory. (J-8).

21. On March 27, 1995, Ms. Miller received her second evaluation for the 1994-1995 school year (J-3), which rated her performance as unsatisfactory. (J-9). It is noted that, "although Ms. Miller has been provided with a specific plan of action to improve her classroom organization and management skills, as well as suggestions for improving rapport with her students, little improvement has been observed by those involved with the evaluation of Ms. Miller." Attached to J-9 was a copy of the remediation plan. with notations by Mr. Uribe indicating those areas where petitioner had failed to improve.

22. Mr. Uribe made a recommendation to withhold Ms. Miller's increment after the evaluation of March 27, 1995. Recommendations on granting or withholding increments had to be forwarded to the Board by mid-April 23. On April 6, 1995, the Perth Amboy Board of Education voted to withhold Ms. Miller's increment.

24. Ms. Miller was advised on April 13, 1995, that her teaching, or employment, increment for the 1995-1996 school year would be withheld. (P-4)

25. The classroom observation of Ms. Miller of June 8, 1995 (J-11), conducted by Dr. DeStefano, showed satisfactory ratings in all areas except an "I" in instructional skills, and an overall rating of satisfactory.

DISCUSSION

N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 provides that any board of education may withhold for inefficiency or other good cause, the employment increment, or the adjustment increment , or both.

Petitioner, in the written summation submitted by her counsel, said that neither of the 2 letters petitioner received from Dr. DeTalvo [1] contained reasons for the increment withholding as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14. Subsequently, Dr. DeTalvo sent another letter to petitioner, of May 11, 1995 (P-6), which states the reasons for the increment withholding.

[1] The record reflects only P-4, apparently the second letter from Dr. DeTalvo, of April 13, 1995.

Petitioner's performance through the majority of the school year was deficient. She did improve her performance, slightly, and possibly thereby earned reappointment. [2] But her performance in school year 1994-95 cannot be said to be worthy of a merit increment.

The remedial plan was a generous and considerate offer by the school administration, and one which they were not obligated to make. It also was in furtherance of their objective, to provide quality education for the students. They knew they had a problem, and they took appropriate steps to fix that problem, which, while it has not yet been fully remediated, has of late (March-June of 1995) shown some improvement.

It cannot be found as fact that Mr. Sellers promised petitioner that she would have the entire school year to improve her performance, and that, if she did, there would be no adverse action, including withholding of an increment for the next school year. Mr. Sellers was not called to testify, even though he could have been subpoenaed. And even if it could be found as fact that Mr. Sellers offered a "hold-harmless" to petitioner, it is not clear to this bench that Mr. Sellers had the authority to bind the Principal and the School Board by his alleged statement, of which, apparently, they were unaware (if indeed it had been made). Ms. Miller and Mr. Tankiewicz claim that Mr. Sellers said that she had the balance of the school year, that she still had time, to improve. Everyone involved was attempting to achieve the improvement of Ms. Miller's performance, and it was recognized that teaching occurs until the end of the school year. The first observation by Ms. Wilson, of September 26, was withdrawn to accommodate petitioner. However, Ms. Miller had no cause to believe that the other observations and evaluations would not be used to judge her year's performance. At no time was Ms. Miller told her performance would not be used in her overall evaluation for the year.

The administrators seem to have been scrupulously cautious, overtly polite, reluctant and even hesitant about saying that Ms. Miller's performance was unacceptable, and apparently gave her every benefit of the doubt, and multiple "second chances."

[2] Petitioner was reappointed for the 1995-1996 school year. (P-5)

Petitioner, as a teacher of over 23 years experience, should not have needed a remediation plan. The school administration's efforts to help her (and improve their teaching staff) should not be held against them. At a minimum, Ms. Miller had an obligation as a teacher to perform satisfactorily. Her efforts to achieve the minimum standards were merely an attempt to do something she should have been doing all along.

Even though there was no requirement that petitioner be offered a plan of remediation, I FIND that the plan that was offered to her was a meaningful plan, which could have been effective if implemented by petitioner. I further FIND that the Board decided to withhold her increment in April, and the school administration and the Board allowed sufficient time for improvement to take place, before deciding to withhold petitioner's increment.

It also cannot be said that Ms. Miller was unaware of the reasons Mr. Uribe recommended withholding of her increment. She was directly and contemporaneously informed of all observations and evaluations, and was well aware of her repeated unsatisfactory ratings. The Board voted on April 6, she was notified on April 13, and fully, formally given the reasons for the withholding (reasons which repeated those given n her evaluations and observations) on May 11. The delay of approximately 3 weeks was, in this case, de minimus. I so FIND. Petitioner appealed in a timely manner, and the delay was not prejudicial to her interests in any way.

I also FIND that the actions of Mr. Uribe, in making the recommendation to withhold her increment by April 1, and of the Board, to vote on the withholding of her increment on April 6, were timely and proper. There was no requirement that either Mr. Uribe or the Board delay their actions until after the end of the school year, if indeed that were even possible. Additionally, even if the performance of Ms. Miller had improved vastly, more than it did, it remains unlikely than such a hypothetical, significant improvement would have counterbalanced her earlier inadequate performance. The marginal improvement shown here clearly would not have done so.

CONCLUSION

The action of the Board in withholding Kathleen Miller's salary increment was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. The petition is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan 27, 1997
DATE

KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Jan. 23, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 27 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ej

DOCUMENTS IN EVIDENCE:

Joint Exhibits:

J-1 Staff Observation Report, dated December 19, 1994
J-2 Staff Observation Report, dated January 5, 1995
J-3 Evaluation, dated January 11, 1995
J-4 Staff Observation Report, dated March 7, 1995
J-5 Staff Observation Report, dated March 7, 1995
J-6 Staff Observation Report, dated March 14, 1995
J-7 Staff Observation Report, dated March 15, 1995
J-8 Staff Observation Report, dated March 24, 1995
J-9 Evaluation, dated March 27, 1995
J-10 Staff Observation Report, dated May 22, 1995
J-11 Staff Observation Report, dated June 8, 1995

For Petitioner:

P-1 Remediation Plan, dated January 17, 1995
P-2 Letter from J.F. Uribe to Kathleen Miller, dated February 15, 1995
P-3 Application Form, dated May 17, 1995
P-4 Memo from Jack DeTalvo to Kathleen Miller, dated April 13, 1995
P-5 Memo from Nancy Hernandez to Kathleen Miller, dated May 1, 1995
P-6 Letter from Jack DeTalvo to Kathleen Miller, dated May 11, 1995

For Respondent:

B-1 Classroom Organization and Management Skills chart
B-2 Letter from Julius F. Uribe to Kathleen Miller, dated November 22, 1994
B-3 Letter from Angelo J. Bonarrigo to Kathleen Miller, dated November 23, 1994

B-4 Letter from Julius F. Uribe to Kathleen Miller, dated December 20, 1994

B-5 Memo from Mrs. McHugh to Mr. Uribe, dated January 5, 1995

B-6 Packet of Material re: Teacher

B-7 Letter from J.F. Uribe to Kathleen Miller, dated February 15

B-8 Letter from Guillermina Lopez to J.F. Uribe, dated February 9, 1995

B-9 Letter from Teresa Canano to J.F. Uribe and Mrs. McHugh, dated December 2, 1994

B-10 Letter from Dawn Paver to J.F. Uribe, dated February 23, 1995

B-11 Letter from Barbara Wilson to Kathleen Miller, dated November 28, 1994

B-12 Letter from Barbara Wilson, undated

B-13 Packet of material

B-14 Memo from B.H. Wilson to Kathleen Miller, dated January 30, 1995

B-15 Memo from B.H. Wilson to Kathleen Miller, dated January 31, 1995

B-16 Memo from B.H. Wilson to Kathleen Miller, dated February 9, 1995

B-17 Memo from Frank V. DeStefano to J.F. Uribe, dated May 24, 1995

WITNESSES

For Petitioner:

Kathleen Miller, petitioner

Norman Tankiewicz, Perth Amboy Federation of Teachers, Local 857, District Representative

For Respondent:

Julius Uribe, Principal

Barbara H. Wilson, Vice Principal

Georgeanne Herbeck, District Supervisor of Elementary Education

Frank DeStefano, District Supervisor of Education

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7847-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 225-6/95

KATHLEEN MILLER,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PERTH AMBOY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties. It is, however, herein noted that on February 10, 1997, petitioner attempted to submit pro se "exceptions" in this matter. Such submission was apparently without the knowledge or consent of her attorney, nor was there any indication that it had been served on opposing counsel. By letter dated February 11, 1997, petitioner's submission was returned to her and she was advised by the Director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.1, a party to administrative proceedings may choose one of several options with respect to her representation and that, because petitioner elected throughout the course of the instant proceedings to be represented by counsel with all submissions in this matter being accomplished by and through such legal counsel, absent notification to the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes that she is no longer represented by an attorney, petitioner is unable to make submissions of any kind on her own behalf to the record of this matter.

Upon careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner has not sustained her burden of establishing by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the Board's action in withholding her salary increment was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable and, as such, her Petition of Appeal must be dismissed.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter for the reasons clearly articulated by the ALJ therein and the within Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 7, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 7, 1997

107-97

107-97

DIANE SWAIM AND MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MIDDLETOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Education Association and its president asserted that the Board's action granting early tenure to two principals was arbitrary and capricious.

ALJ dismissed petition, finding that the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) does not issue declaratory or informational rulings on matters where there is not a contested case as defined by N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1. (In this matter the two principals achieved statutory tenure during the pendency of the present proceedings.)

Upon review, the Commissioner determined to remand the matter to OAL to determine whether the Board acted within its authority in creating, and then rescinding, a policy to confer tenure upon all principals who had maintained continuous employment in the position of principal in the District for 24 months. Thus, Commissioner reversed the finding that the instant matter was moot because the individuals in question achieved tenure, finding that herein exist issues of public importance which are capable of repetition while evading review.

MARCH 7, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10691-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. 393-10/95

DIANE SWAIM, MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MIDDLETOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

Respondent.

Kenneth I. Nowak, Esq., for petitioners (Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak, attorneys)

Douglas Kovats, Esq., for respondent (Kenney and Gross, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 9, 1996 Decided: January 23, 1997

BEFORE KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ:

This matter was opened by the petitioner, Diane Swaim. The petitioner claimed that the Board of Education's action in granting early tenure to two principals was arbitrary and capricious.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner filed her appeal on September 28, 1995 with the Commissioner of the Department of Education. On November 17, 1995, the Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13.

The Middletown Board of Education passed a resolution on July 25, 1995 which granted tenure to all principals within the District who had maintained continuous employment in the position of principal for 24 months. As a result of this resolution, two principals, Dr. Antonia Martines and Alan Feuer were granted tenure. Dr. Martinez had been employed as a principal in the District since February 1, 1993 and Mr. Feuer had been employed as a principal in the District since July 1, 1993.

Principals are normally granted tenure after three years of service unless a lesser term is fixed by the Board for a category of employees, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(g).

One of the principals involved, Dr. Martinez, achieved three years of service on February 10, 1996, and thus would have attained tenure by operation of law if the contested resolution had not been passed. This date (February 10, 1996) was prior to the commencement of the hearing. Thus, on motion to dismiss before the hearing, I dismissed the matter in part, insofar as Dr. Martinez, as moot.

The other principal, Mr. Feuer, attained three years of service on July 1, 1996, and thus was entitled to tenure by operation of law, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(g), before the close of the hearing record.

The matter of standing to bring such an action was raised prior to the commencement of the hearing, specifically whether Ms. Swaim, either in her capacity as the union president or as a teacher, had standing to bring a challenge to the actions of the Board. Ms. Swaim was granted standing as a taxpayer in the District.

DISCUSSION

The Office of Administrative Law is not a court of general jurisdiction. As such, the OAL does not issue declaratory or informational rulings on matters were there is not a contested case.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1 defines "contested case" as follows:

> "Contested case" means an adversary proceeding . . . in which the legal rights, duties, obligations, privileges, benefits or other legal relations of specific parties are required by constitutional right or by statute to be determined by an agency by decisions, determinations, or orders, addressed to them and disposing of their interests, after an opportunity for an agency hearing. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-2. The required hearing must be designed to result in an adjudication concerning the rights, duties, obligations, privileges, benefits or other legal relations of specific parties over which there exist disputed questions of fact, law or disposition related to past, current or proposed activities or interests. Contested cases are not informational nor intended to provide a forum for expression of public sentiment on proposed agency action or broad policy issued affecting . . . undefined classes of people. (emphasis added).

If this bench were to render an opinion that the actions of the Board in granting tenure to Mr. Feuer on July 25, 1995 were improper, such opinion would be unavailing, redundant, and would have no effect upon Mr. Feuer's status. The potential issue raised by petitioner's counsel in his post-hearing submission, that the actual date upon which Mr. Feuer achieved tenure might have relevance in a seniority matter, is not before us in the case presented.

This bench sees nothing in the instant matter that might result from a decision that would not be purely informational, or prospective in application.

The petitioner's appeal is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan 23, 1997
DATE

Kathryn A Clark
KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/24/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 28 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ej

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10691-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 393-10/95

DIANE SWAIM AND MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MIDDLETOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioners' exceptions were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.* No replies were filed by respondent.

Petitioners initially outline that the notice and agenda for the Board's July 25, 1995 meeting did not list or refer to a resolution or topic concerning changes in its tenure policy but that, "[the issue] was raised for the first time at the Board's closed July 25, 1995 meeting by the then-Superintendent." (Petitioners' Exceptions at p. 2) They then note that on that date only two individuals fulfilled the Board's criterion and assert that the record reveals that the policy may not have been intended to set precedent. Petitioners observe that the policy was rescinded the following month but that the new resolution permitted those who obtained tenure by the early tenure policy to retain their tenure. (Id. at pp. 2-4)

Petitioners then except to the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that the instant petition did not present a "contested case" as defined by N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1 because the two

* Respondent filed an objection to petitioners' filing of exceptions on February 11, 1997, in the morning, as opposed to February 10, 1997. The Commissioner reviewed petitioners' reasons leading to this occurrence, and determined, however, that based on the clear showing of miscommunication in delivery, this filing must be accepted as timely filed in the interest of fairness.

principals at issue achieved statutory tenure during the pendency of the present proceedings. (Id. at p. 6) They contend that "the ALJ failed to consider that the matter at bar presents a text-book example of the well-known exception to the mootness doctrine." (Id.) To illustrate, petitioners cite Murphy v. Hunt, 455 U.S. 478, 482 (1982); Cain v. New Jersey State Parole Board, 78 N.J. 253, 255 (1978) which propose,

> When an issue is capable of repetition yet evading review because the challenged action is too short to be fully litigated prior to taking effect or ceasing, and where there is a possibility that the issue may occur again, the tribunal should not refuse to address the merits, particularly where the issue is one of public importance.
> (Petitioners' Exceptions at p. 6)

Petitioners then posit that the instant matter presents such example as the Board's action here occurred within too short a time frame to permit a meritorious decision before the otherwise applicable tenure acquisition time elapsed. They draw similarities between the six months between the Board's recision of its resolution and the statutory tenure achieved by the principals at issue as "analogous to the archetypal nine month pregnancy which defined the exception to the mootness doctrine in Roe v. Wade." (Petitioners' Exceptions at p. 8)

Petitioners further argue that the issues presented are of public importance. They contend the Board violated the Open Public Meetings Act when it did not include the early tenure resolution as an agenda item. (Id.) Petitioners then cite numerous decisions by the Commissioner and the State Board which have held that early tenure decisions constitute an "abuse of discretion and are arbitrary and contrary to public policy, where  they are explicitly directed for the benefit of specified individuals," including Thomas v. Bd. of Ed. of Morris Twp., 89 N.J. Super. 327 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd 46 N.J. 351 (1966); Roberts v. Bd. of Ed. of the Hudson County Vocational-Technical School District, 1984 S.L.D. 999, aff'd State Board 1026; King v. Bd. of Ed. of Atlantic County Vocational School, 1975 S.L.D. 547 and Pickering v. North Plainfield Bd. of Ed., 1987 S.L.D. 1393. To summarize, petitioners reiterate their position that the Board's intent was to create an exemption in the law for two principals by granting them early tenure on an ad hoc basis in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A: 28-5.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner determines to remand the present matter to the OAL to determine whether the respondent Board acted within its authority in creating, and then rescinding, a policy to confer tenure upon all principals who had maintained continuous employment in the position of principal in the District for 24 months. In so ruling, the Commissioner reverses the finding that the instant matter is moot because the two principals who received tenure through the challenged policy would have received tenure during the pendency of proceedings at OAL, finding that herein exist issues of public importance which are capable of repetition while evading review.

Accordingly, the Commissioner determines to remand the decision of the OAL for further proceedings consistent with this decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 7, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 7, 1997

107-97

353-98 R
(107-97)

DIANE SWAIM AND MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MIDDLETOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Education Association and its president asserted that the Board's action granting early tenure to two principals was arbitrary and capricious.

In 1997 initial decision, ALJ dismissed petition as moot. Commissioner, however, determined to remand the matter to OAL to determine whether the Board acted within its authority in creating, and then rescinding, a policy to confer tenure upon all principals who had maintained continuous employment in the position of principal in the District for 24 months. Thus, Commissioner reversed the finding that the instant matter was moot because the individuals in question achieved tenure, finding that herein exist issues of public importance which are capable of repetition while evading review.

On remand, ALJ determined that a board has the authority to shorten the period of time required for the acquisition of tenure if done for the general category of all such employees, regardless of how limited that category may be; that a board could rescind such a policy if the new requirement is uniform for all employees of the category; and that no notice of such a resolution is required if performed at a regularly scheduled meeting pursuant to the OPMA.

Commissioner determined that the ALJ did not render either factual findings or credibility assessments as to the seminal issue in this matter, i.e., the intent of the Board in undertaking its actions and whether, in light of the circumstances existing in this matter, its actions were arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Thus, the Commissioner remanded this matter to the OAL for supplementation of the record and further findings sufficient to address these concerns.

AUGUST 10, 1998
DATE OF MAILING AUGUST 10, 1998

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2236-97

AGENCY DKT. NO. 393-10/95

(REMAND OF EDU 10691-95)

DIANE SWAIM AND MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

Petitioners

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MIDDLETOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY

Respondent.

Kenneth I. Nowak, Esq., for petitioners (Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak, attorneys)

Douglas Kovats, Esq., for respondent (Kenney, Gross & McDonough, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 30, 1998 Decided: May 14, 1998

BEFORE KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ:

The Middletown Township Board of Education (respondent) passed a resolution on July 25, 1995, shortening the period of time required for all school district principals to obtain tenure. Instead of the statutory period of three years (N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5), tenure would be granted to all principals who had "24 months of full-time service as Principal in the School District". Of the seventeen principals in the school district, there were only two non-tenured principals in the district at the time of this resolution: Dr. Antonia Martinez and Dr. Alan Feuer. Both principals had at least twenty four months of service, yet less than three years of service. By way of this resolution, both principals obtained tenure immediately.

One month later, the Board again changed its policy with regard to granting tenure to principals. On August 22, 1995, it passed a second resolution, stating that it "is now of the opinion that the reduced period of tenure is no longer in the best interests of the District." The resolution restored the time period for acquisition of tenure by principals to the statutory period of three years. The resolution noted that any principal who acquired tenure pursuant to the July 25, 1995 resolution would remain tenured. In essence, Dr. Martinez and Dr. Feuer were grandfathered as tenured principals.

Petitioners Diane Swaim and the Middletown Township Education Association (MTEA) appealed and, on November 17, 1995, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing and determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52: 14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

At a prehearing conference of February 13, 1996, hearing dates of June 10 and 11, 1996 were set. Before that, on June 4, 1996, respondent moved to dismiss the portion of the petition that concerned Dr. Martinez, since she had served three years and was entitled to statutory tenure, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. The motion was granted.

The hearing was conducted on June 10 and 11, 1996. The matter of the standing of the petitioners was raised, and the President of the MTEA, Diane Swaim, who was also a taxpayer of the School District, was granted standing individually. The record closed following submission by the parties of written summations on December 9, 1996.

The initial decision, OAL Docket No. EDU 10691-95, concluded that the petition did not present a contested case, as defined in N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1, because the two individuals at issue had achieved tenure by operation of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 during the pendency of the case. Petitioners filed exceptions, and the Commissioner of Education remanded the matter for a determination of whether the Board acted within its authority in creating, and then rescinding, such a policy.

The parties agreed to rely on the transcripts of the June 10, 1997 hearing, together with the evidence submitted.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

The statutory provision governing the grant of tenure to teachers and principals provides that:

> The services of all teaching staff members employed in the positions of . . . principal . . . shall be under tenure during good behavior and efficiency . . . after employment in such district or by such board for:
>
> > (a) Three consecutive calendar years, or any shorter period which may be fixed by the employing board for such purposes . . .
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 (emphasis added).]

The petitioner argues that the school board's actions were arbitrary, capricious and in bad faith. Specifically, she argues that although the statute allows for a shorter period of time to be set for principals to obtain tenure, here it was wrongly done for the sole benefit of two individuals. Additionally, she initially argued that the resolution was passed without proper notice. In his brief, petitioner's representative said that he would not argue this issue further, as he felt the Commissioner had limited the remand to the issue of tenure only. Nonetheless, this initial decision will address both issues.

In Rall v. Board of Educ. of Bayonne, 54 N.J. 373 (1969), a city board shortened the length of time required for a superintendent to achieve tenure to 6 ½ months. This was done by resolution, just as in the present case. The purpose of the resolution was to confer tenure upon Dr. Rall, the then-acting superintendent. He had assumed his post under a contract which was two years and eleven months in length, short of the three years required for tenure under the statute. After 6 ½ months, the board stated that Dr. Rall had efficiently performed his duties since commencement of the contract and thus rescinded his contract and granted him tenure by unanimous vote. Two years later, prior to the date on which Dr. Rall's original contract was supposed to end, the board adopted a second resolution rescinding the former resolution and declaring the original contract to be the only valid and subsisting contract. The board declared that when Dr. Rall's contract expired the post would be vacant. It resolved that the prior resolution was void, "because it deprived the present board of such discretion, because it attempted to usurp the present board's legal duty and obligation, and because it violated the public policy of the State by denying the citizens of Bayonne the benefits of the probationary period required by statute to precede the acquisition of tenure by a school superintendent." Rall v. Board of Educ. of Bayonne, 104 N.J. Super. 236 (App. Div. 1965).

The Appellate Division held that the first resolution granting early tenure to Dr. Rall was void. It interpreted the statutory phrase that allows for boards to shorten the length of time required to achieve tenure as applying only to actions where the length of time is shortened for all present and future members of the job category, not a select individual. "The intent was plainly not to authorize exemptions from the three-year probationary term on an ad hoc basis in individual cases, as was so obviously done in the present instance." Id. at 243.

The NJ Supreme Court reversed. It stated that the board's actions were not undertaken arbitrarily or in bad faith, but in the true belief that the form of resolution was a proper legal method of accomplishing its purpose. "Under the circumstances we think the legislative act of the Board - the resolution - should be construed broadly to do what it was intended to do, i.e., meet and satisfy the requirement of the statute. Therefore, we hold that the resolution shortened the period for acquisition of tenure for superintendents of schools generally - not just for Dr. Rall . . . That rule now prevails and will continue to do so unless and until a board of education adopts another rule of general application fixing a different tenure qualifying period." Rall, supra, 54 N.J. at 377. It mattered not to the Court that Dr. Rall was the only person in the particular job category of superintendent.

In the present case, the board adopted a resolution for the general category of principals. There were only two principals within the job category that were not tenured, and both were mentioned by name in the resolution. It is apparent from Rall, that the board has the power to pass such a resolution if it applies to the whole category of employees, regardless of the number of individuals within that job category. Just as in Rall, the resolution remains valid until the board adopts another rule of general application. In the present action, the board adopted a second resolution changing the time period for acquiring tenure back to three years. This action is valid pursuant to the Rall decision.

The petitioner additionally urges that the first resolution be deemed void as arbitrary and in bad faith due to the board's alleged lack of notice of such resolution. She cites Thomas v. Board of Educ. of Morris Twp., 89 N.J. Super. 327 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd 46 N.J. 581 (1966), for the proposition that tenure decisions constitute some of the most vital and responsible duties a board of education must perform, and a board cannot exercise its discretion to shorten the tenure period in an arbitrary or capricious fashion. Rather, boards must act in good faith when making such decisions.

The facts in Thomas are distinguishable from the present matter. In Thomas, four minority board members in a politically charged community had no notice of the proposed contract alteration action. Here, there was notice that "personnel" items that would be discussed, along with notice that "formal action" would be taken on such items.

In Thomas, supra, a school district superintendent was extended a two year contract by the board. After 8 ½ months, on October 18, 1962, the board adopted a resolution revoking the first contract and giving the superintendent (Dr. Thomas) a three year contract. Thus, Dr. Thomas would achieve tenure by the terms of the contract since its time period, coupled with the time already served in the position, would extend beyond the statutory three year tenure requirement. But before the conclusion of Dr. Thomas' second year, the board (composed of several different members, including three newly elected members holding the seats of three defeated members of the past majority bloc) revoked the October 18, 1962 resolution. It declared that the resolution was against public policy, invalid and of no force and effect. The only valid and subsisting agreement was the original two year contract, according to the board's second resolution.

The court affirmed the State Board of Education's decision upholding the board's declaration that the October 18, 1962 resolution was invalid. It stated that there was substantial credible evidence in the record from which the State Board could have reasonably found the board's action on October 18, 1962 to be an abuse of discretion, arbitrary and contrary to public policy. Id. at 335. Such evidence showed that the decision to revoke the remainder of the two year contract and instead extend Dr. Thomas a three year contract (which in effect would guarantee him tenure) lacked the essential elements of notice, deliberation and fair opportunity to be heard. Id. at 334. The matter was privately discussed and planned in advance by the majority bloc of the board, without notice to the four other (minority) board members. A statement extolling Dr. Thomas' accomplishments was prepared in advance, along with the new, three year contract. On October 18, 1962 at the regular meeting of the board, two of the four minority members were present. These two members protested strongly when the proposed contract action was revealed. But although they voiced concerns that they had some "unanswered questions" regarding Dr. Thomas' performance, they were not provided an opportunity to ask such questions. Without further discussion the contract matter was moved, voted and adopted by a 5-2 vote. Id. at 330. When considered along with the political backdrop of the community, in that three of the five majority members were up for reelection a few months later (and were all defeated), the court held that the State Board could have reasonably found the board's action to be an abuse of discretion, arbitrary and contrary to public policy.

In the present case, the agenda stated that "personnel" items would be discussed, and that "formal action" would be taken with regard to such items. Additionally, members of the board were not caught off guard, as the minority board members were in Thomas, since the superintendent and the assistant superintendent had discussed possible changes in the tenure requirements for principals in the recent past at informal meetings. All members had ample opportunity to respond at the meeting. Only one member voted against the change, for reasons clearly stated and fully addressed.

The Appellate Division acknowledged in Thomas, supra, that "no statute, administrative rule or regulation requires the giving of notice to board members, or to the public, of matters to be considered at such a meeting." Id. at 334. This decision was prior to the adoption of the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 et seq. Yet, the OPMA does not necessarily require detailed notice of agenda items. In La Fronz v. Weehawken Educ. Ass'n, 164 N.J. Super. 5 (App. Div. 1978), certif. den. 79 N.J. 491 (1979) the court held that the resolutions adopted concerning personnel were valid since the agenda published for the meeting included among its listed items of business the subject matter "personnel," which was "good and sufficient notice to cover these resolutions." Id. at 7. Additionally, it noted that, pursuant to the OPMA, since the resolutions were adopted at a regular school board meeting, no further notice was required. Id.

N.J.S.A. 10:4-8(d), in defining "adequate notice" states: "Where annual notice or revisions thereof in compliance with section 13 of this act set forth the location of any meeting, no further notice shall be required for such meeting." Section 13 has been codified at N.J.S.A. 10:4-18, which describes regular meetings of a public body, and the requirement for publishing such a schedule for the year. It is undisputed that the resolution in question in the present case was proposed and adopted at a regularly scheduled school board meeting. Thus, it follows that no further notice was required of the items to be discussed. Additionally, the published agenda stating that "formal action" would be taken on "personnel" items goes further than required in providing adequate notice.

CONCLUSION

The board has the authority to shorten the period of time required for the acquisition of tenure if done for the general category of all such employees, regardless of how limited that category may be. Likewise, it could rescind such a policy if the new requirement is uniform for all employees of the job category. Additionally, no notice of such a resolution is required if performed at a regularly scheduled meeting, pursuant to the Open Public Meetings Act. The Board surpassed the notice requirements in publishing its agenda for the meeting that included "personnel" items.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 14, 1998
DATE

Kathryn A Clark
KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

5/15/98
DATE

DNP
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

MAY 18 1998
DATE

Barbara A Hansel
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

DIANE SWAIM AND MIDDLETOWN TOWNSHIP EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MIDDLETOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioners' exceptions and the Board's reply thereto, filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, were duly considered by the Commissioner in making his determination within.

Petitioners vigorously except to the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) focus in her initial decision, observing that they do not dispute a board's "statutory authority to shorten the period of time for the acquisition of tenure for a general category of employees, [or its] statutory authority to uniformly rescind such a requirement for the same general category." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 3). Rather, petitioners aver that the gravamen of their complaint, that this Board exercised its authority "in an arbitrary, capricious or bad faith manner in order to confer benefits on specific individual" is left unaddressed by the ALJ's decision. (Id.)

Petitioners further object to the ALJ's failure to make specific findings of fact as required by the Administrative Procedures Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq., arguing that the requirements of this Act, as interpreted by case law, (citations omitted) dictate that an initial decision "include findings of fact, conclusions of law and a sufficient explanation of how those findings of fact and conclusions of law led to that decision, such as would permit meaningful appellate review of that decision." (Id. at p. 4) They posit that the ALJ's failure to comply with these requirements is, in and of itself, fatal error. (Id.) Petitioners urge that, to rectify this error, the Commissioner "exercise his authority to 'modify' the initial decision by making the factual findings overlooked by the ALJ," rather than remanding this already protracted matter to the OAL. (Id. at p. 5) In this regard, petitioners set forth a detailed recitation of proposed findings of fact which they aver should be made by the Commissioner, and which lead to the inevitable conclusion that the Board's actions in the within matter should be invalidated as unlawful. (Id. at p. 18)

In response, the Board posits that its action of July 1995, shortening the period for acquisition of tenure "[for] all persons within the category of principals," was accomplished in accordance with statute and applicable case law (Rall, supra), and it avers that petitioners have advanced no "competent evidence" which establishes that such action was "impermissible." (Board's Reply Exceptions at pp. 2-3) As such, it argues, petitioners have failed to satisfy their burden of clearly demonstrating wrongful conduct on the part of the Board which would overcome the presumption of correctness attaching to Board action. (Id. at p. 7)

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, which included a transcript of the hearing below,[1] the Commissioner finds merit in petitioners' exception argument that the seminal issue in the within matter has been left unaddressed and unresolved by the ALJ in her initial decision and he, therefore, determines that this matter must be remanded to the OAL for further proceedings. As persuasively argued by petitioners, the Commissioner concludes that the occurrences which exist in this matter as addressed by the ALJ's initial decision are largely undisputed. Rather, what is germane and controverted herein is the intent of the Board in undertaking such actions and whether, under the existing circumstances, the Board's conduct in light of its intent exceeded a reasonable exercise of its discretionary authority calling for an invalidation of its action. In that the ALJ rendered neither factual findings nor credibility assessments in this regard, the Commissioner is compelled to return this matter to the OAL for such findings so as to fairly resolve this issue.[2]

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the OAL for supplementation of the record and further findings sufficient to address the concerns expressed herein.[3]

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[1] It is noted that the within record contains a transcript of the June 10, 1996 hearing.

[2] The Commissioner's determination herein does not reach to the ALJ's discussion with respect to petitioners' asserted Open Pubic Meetings Act violation charge in that petitioners' exception submission indicates that, as such issue was not mentioned in the Commissioner's previous remand of this matter, they specifically did not pursue it on remand. The Commissioner herein clarifies that his prior remand did not intend preclusion of pursuit of this claim and, to the extent petitioners wish to supplement the record as to this issue, on remand, for consideration, such supplementation is permissible.

[3] This decision, as the Commissioner's final determination in the instant matter, may be appealed to the State Board of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-27 et seq. and N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.1 et seq., within 30 days of its filing. Commissioner decisions are deemed filed three days after the date of mailing to the parties.

AUGUST 10, 1998
DATE OF MAILING AUGUST 10, 1998

108-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $1,563,930 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 16, 1996.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line-item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the District, Commissioner determined to restore $541,765 for a total General Fund tax levy of $26,367,084 for 1996-97 school purposes.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

For the Petitioner, Francis J. Campbell, Esq. (Kalac, Newman, Lavender & Campbell)

For the Respondent, William T. Hiering, Jr., Esq. (Hiering, Hoffman & Gannon)

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 13, 1996 through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Jackson Township Board of Education (Board), seeking restoration of reductions to the school budget made by the Township Committee of Jackson Township (Township) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the budget at the annual school election on April 16, 1996.

At that election, the voters rejected a public question proposing a General Fund tax levy of $27,589,249 for the 1996-97 school year. The 1996-97 budget submitted to the voters included an approved Commissioner's cap waiver of $850,208 for enrollment and special education costs, and a non-T & E cap waiver in the amount of $372,120 for courtesy busing. On May 13, 1996, following consultation with the Board as required by law, the Township adopted a resolution determining to certify a General Fund tax levy of $25,825,319 as sufficient to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E) in the District. This amount represented a reduction of $1,763,930 from the tax levy proposed by the Board, and was effectuated through cuts in 59 line items, and increases to revenue in two line items, for the reasons given in Exhibit A attached to the implementing Township resolution. By resolution dated May 20, 1996, the Board determined to appeal these reductions and duly filed the within petition.

The amounts in dispute in this appeal are as follows:

Tax Levy Proposed by Board		Tax Levy Certified by Township
General Fund	$27,589,249	General Fund	$25,825,319

Amount of Reduction by Township		Amount of Reduction in Dispute
General Fund	$ 1,763,930	General Fund	$ 1,563,930[1]

An answer to the Board's petition was filed by the Township on June 28, 1996. On July 19, 1996 and July 18, 1996, respectively, the parties filed position statements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.8, followed by responsive statements on July 30, 1996 and August 2, 1996, and final summations on August 12, 1996 and August 8, 1996. Thereafter, the record was closed, pending receipt of the June 30, 1996 report, below.

In addition, as the parties had previously been advised by letter from the Assistant Commissioner dated March 13, 1996 and distributed through the County Superintendent to boards and municipalities experiencing budget defeats, as part of the record of the within appeal,

[1] While the Township reduced the Board's budget by $1,763,930, the Board indicates that $200,000 of the reduction can be sustained, in that the proposed reduction to Health Benefits, Account No. 11-000-290-290, Other Employee Benefits, will not adversely affect its ability to offer a thorough and efficient system of education. Accordingly, the total number of line items in dispute, indicating both reductions to appropriations and increases to revenue is 60 rather than 61. The amount in dispute, therefore, is actually $1,563,930.

the Commissioner took official notice of the Board's revised budget and its June 30 financial report, the latter for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1996-97 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus.

Upon filing of the parties' final summations as noted above, the record of the appeal was closed, subject to review of the annual year-end audit.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such T & E to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line-item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of T & E. Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989). With respect to appeals involving cap waivers, before the Commissioner can direct restoration of any amount of a waiver defeated by the voters, the Commissioner must determine that such amount is both fully necessary for purposes of T & E and unable to be derived from further allocation within the base budget. Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, Bergen County, State Board decision July 7, 1993; Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, and

In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, State Board Decision July 6, 1994.

Mindful, then, of the standard to be applied, the Commissioner makes the specific determinations set forth below.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 1- 55

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
02510	11-110-100-101	Preschool/Kind. Sal. of Teachers	$ 496,776	$ 11,885
02520	11-120-100-101	Grades 1-5 Salaries of Teachers	$5,249,691	$ 125,591
02530	11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Salaries of Teachers	$6,088,085	$ 145,648
02540	11-140-100-101	Grades 9-12 Salaries of Teachers	$6,263,825	$ 149,852
02640	11-190-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Reg. Prog.)	$ 198,572	$ 4,751
02820	11-202-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 15,651	$ 374
02910	11-202-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 15,622	$ 374
02990	11-204-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 315,667	$ 7,552
03000	11-204-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 194,831	$ 4,661
03080	11-205-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 532,849	$ 12,748
03090	11-205-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 161,085	$ 3,854
03180	11-206-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 16,778	$ 401
03260	11-207-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 53,965	$ 1,291
03270	11-207-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 64,578	$ 1,545
03770	11-212-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 146,550	$ 3,506
03780	11-212-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 51,446	$ 1,231
03860	11-213-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$1,478,875	$ 35,380
03870	11-213-100-106	Other Sal. of Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 77,014	$ 1,842
04130	11-216-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 83,875	$ 2,007
04140	11-216-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 81,341	$ 1,946

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
04310	11-218-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 285,387	$ 6,827
04400	11-219-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$ 170,000	$ 4,067
04410	11-219-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$ 115,408	$ 2,761
04810	11-230-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Basic Skills)	$ 295, 826	$ 7,077
04820	11-230-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Basic Skills)	$ 128,832	$ 3,082
04900	11-240-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Bilingual)	$ 99,600	$ 2,383
06030	11-401-100-100	Salaries/Co-Curric. Act.-Instruction	$ 182,624	$ 4,369
06090	11-402-100-100	Salaries/Athletics-Instruction	$ 542,581	$ 12,980
06150	11-4XX-100-100	Salaries/Other Instructional	$ 87,432	$ 2,092
06370	11-000-211-100	Salaries/Undistrib. Exp. (Attendance & Soc. Work)	$ 162,303	$ 3,883
06430	11-000-213-100	Sal./Undistrib. Exp. (Health Svc.)	$ 388,662	$ 9,298
06490	11-000-218-104	Sal./Other Professional (Other Support Svc.-Regular)	$ 999,230	$ 23,905
06500	11-000-218-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical (Other Support Svc.-Regular)	$ 129,106	$ 3,089
06580	11-000-219-104	Sal./Other Professional (Other Support Svc.-Special)	$ 761,375	$ 18,215
06590	11-000-219-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical (Other Support Svc.-Special)	$ 206,636	$ 4,943
06600	11-000-219-110	Other Salaries (Other Support Svc.-Special)	$ 3,000	$ 72
06760	11-000-221-104	Sal. Other Professional Staff (Improvement of Instruc. Svc)	$ 144,770	$ 3,463
06770	11-000-221-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical (Improvement of Instruc. Svc.)	$ 93,627	$ 2,240
06780	11-000-221-110	Other Salaries (Improvement of Instruc. Svc.)	$ 12,335	$ 295
06850	11-000-222-100	Salaries/Library	$ 593,110	$ 14,189

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
06910	11-000-230-100	Sal./Support Svc./Gen'l Adm.	$ 275,215	$ 6,584
07010	11-000-240-103	Sal./Principals & Asst. Prin.	$1,424,900	$ 34,089
07030	11-000-240-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical/Admin.	$ 543,984	$ 13,014
07040	11-000-240-110	Other Salaries/Sch. Admin.	$ 8,000	$ 191
07100	11-000-260-100	Sal./Op. & Maintenance	$2,759,069	$ 66,006
07210	11-000-270-107	Sal./Pupil Trans.-Reg.	$1,466,615	$ 35,086
07220	11-000-270-108	Sal./Pupil Trans.-Spec. Ed.	$ 576,862	$ 13,801
07230	11-000-270-109	Sal./Pupil Trans.-(Other)	$ 86,984	$ 2,081
07360	11-000-290-100	Sal./Busn. & Other Support Svc.	$ 720,565	$ 17,238
08400	13-422-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Summer Sch.)	$ 66,344	$ 1,587
08660	13-4XX-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Other Special Schools)	$ 71,190	$ 1,703
08820	13-601-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Evening/Adult School)	$ 76,644	$ 1,834
08900	13-601-200-100	Sal./Support Svc. (Adult School)	$ 198,687	$ 4,753
08980	13-602-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Adult Ed.)	$ 9,833	$ 235
08990	13-602-100-106	Oth. Sal. for Instruc. (Adult Ed.)	$ 2,449	$ 59
		Subtotal		$ 843,930

The Board notes that while its 1996-97 proposed budget contains an average salary increase of 4.5 percent, the Township has decreased that amount to a 2 percent increase. On July 23, 1996, the Board ratified a contract with the Transport Workers Union (noncertified employees) that included a salary increase of 3.2 percent for the 1996-97 school year. The increase was partially funded, the Board explains, by a change in health insurance benefits entailing a reduction in the health insurance coverage premiums payable by the Board. (Board's Reply at p. 4) The Board indicates that it is still negotiating its agreement with the Jackson Education Association (JEA) (teaching staff members, secretarial and clerical employees); said negotiations with the JEA are at an impasse. However, the Board claims that it is unrealistic, based on an examination of the current contract settlements in comparable districts in Ocean County, to hold that only 2 percent should be made available, when the most recent settlements have been averaging a little under 4 percent.

The Board argues that the 55.5 percent reduction in the funds available for salary negotiations imposed by the Township would be unfair, impractical and an unworkable reduction to ratify. Such a reduction would be impossible to justify and would entail mass reductions in force and layoffs within the District. The Board contends that the Township Committee members have "gone on record" opposing any District layoffs of personnel resulting from budget reductions imposed by the governing body. (Board's Position Statement at pp. 4-5)

As to the statistical data offered by the Township, infra, the Board finds such data suspect, and maintains that the salary negotiations between the Board and its employee bargaining units should be compared to what has been negotiated with similar groups of employees working for other New Jersey school districts. In this regard, the Board attaches data on current settlements negotiated from January 1996 through June 1996, asserting that the cumulative average of salary increases negotiated for contracts covering the 1996-97 school year is 3.97 percent. (Board's Reply at p. 4)

Moreover, the Board asserts that while the Township is imposing a 2 percent limit on salary increases for all Board employees, it has approved increases of almost twice that percentage to Township employees, ranging from the lowest-paid clerks to the highest-paid management officials. (Board's Reply at p. 3)

The Board further warrants that, despite the increased student population over the past three years, there have been minimal increases in the number of teaching staff members in the District. A reduction of $843,930 would require the Board to terminate the employment of at least 20 teaching staff members to save an average cost of approximately $42,000 per teacher in salary and benefits. The effect of such a layoff on a growing population, the Board asserts, would be drastic and unconscionable. The Board, thus, concludes that the District could not provide T & E if the Township's salary reductions are sustained. (Board's Position Statement at p. 5)

The Township determines that the Board's salary line items are overbudgeted by $843,930. The Township argues that the reduction is reasonable, based on statistics obtained from the Labor Market and Demographic Research Division, Department of Labor, State of New Jersey. These statistics reveal that the Board's teachers have been receiving annual salary increases above the average of all covered New Jersey government workers. The Township points out that the Board's teachers, over the last six years, have received annual salary increases of 42.6 percent, as compared to 24.8 percent for all covered New Jersey workers. Additionally, the Township argues that the Board's teachers have received 11.5 percent greater annual salary increases over the last six years when compared to their government counterparts.

Furthermore, upon review, the Township determines that the Board's budgeted increase in salaries was based in part on last year's budget which, as of April 30, 1996, had several salary line items that reflected available balances. These available balances, reasons the Township, will not be utilized, as all salaries are encumbered on the first day of the school year and spent down. Thus, the Township concludes that the reduction "holds the line" on salary increases without affecting staffing and would not have a negative effect upon the Board's ability to provide T & E. (Township's Position Statement at p. 3)

As to the Board's mention of the Township's pay raises given to its employees, the Township asserts that such statement was "both gratuitous and irrelevant." (Township's Summation at p. 2) It notes that Township employees have consistently been paid far below that of Board employees. Moreover, the Township welcomes the fact that the Board has directed the Commissioner's attention to a listing of other negotiated contracts in New Jersey schools. "This [sic] data," the Township argues, "[demonstrate] the real problem -- how out of line the salary increases are for school employees throughout the State." (Id. at p. 3)

The salary reductions imposed by the Township will not, the Township argues, have a deleterious effect on the District's T & E.

Upon careful review, the Commissioner notes that the whole of the Board's arguments and T & E demonstrations carry very little weight or substance., relying on the pre-election decisions of the county superintendent and the state cap waiver review panel as demonstration of the T & E necessity for its restoration requests and even going so far as to assert that such actions should bar the Commissioner from considering anything other than changed circumstances. The Commissioner further notes that while the documentation supplied with the Board's petition supports its assertion of increased enrollment, the record is devoid of any documentation or explanation as to the impact of the increased enrollment in concert with the Township Committee's reductions on class size, program offerings, teaching staff needs, support staff needs, the need for instructional aides, the administrative structure or any aspect of school district operations. The only statement entered on the record as to the impact on T & E was that the salary reductions of $843,930 would require the elimination of 20 teachers which would prevent the district from providing T & E. The board also asserts that two additional resource room teachers are needed to address increased special education enrollments. The substance of the Board's argument on the salary reductions which were made by the Township Committee during contract negotiations is that they were arbitrary, and that the Township Committee provided larger increases to its own employees.

The Commissioner finds that case law is well established as to a board's legal responsibility to demonstrate that each line item reduction which it is seeking to be restored is required for T & E, notwithstanding pre-election actions taken by the department or the municipality's rationale for making the reduction or even the merit of such rationale. Given such a standard, rejection of the Board's requests for restoration in their entirety would be justifiable herein given that the Board fails to adequately demonstrate for any line item the T & E necessity for restoration. While it is not the Commissioner's responsibility to construct the demonstration of T & E necessity on behalf of the Board, he recognizes that all financial data available at the department indicate the district spends below the state average in the classroom, for student support, for administration and for operation and maintenance of plant, and that a careful review of each line item in concert with information available to the department must be undertaken to ensure that no harm comes to the students of Jackson Township because of the lack of effort on the part of the Board in making its case. Therefore, the Commissioner in making his determinations on each line item will consider the settlement of the teachers' contract with an increase of 3.86 percent as reported in the NJSBA Data Source Book, the 3.2 percent increase negotiated for transport workers, the actual expenditures for each line item as contained in the district's annual independent audit and related Comprehensive Annual Financial Report, the limited documentation provided by the petitioner, the relationship to direct instructional activities and prudent practice.

The amounts sustained and restored and a description of the determinations follow:

In the area of teachers' salaries for regular, special education, basic skills and bilingual programs, the actual salary expenditures during 1995-96 for each line account as reflected in the annual independent audit/comprehensive annual financial report are indexed by 3.86 percent and compared to the original amount budgeted for 1996-97. Amounts reduced by the township committee are sustained for the lesser of the excess of the original amount budgeted for 1996-97 over the indexed actual amounts for 1995-96 or the township committee reduction. On this basis, the Commissioner sustains $322,417 of reductions to teacher salary accounts and restores $193,397. The Commissioner notes that the total amounts appropriated in these accounts after restoration of $21,238,554 exceed the total actual indexed amounts for 1995-96 by $193,694, and are adequate to provide the negotiated increase of 3.86 percent and hire the four new teaching staff positions contained in the "Budgeted Positions" support document contained in the originally proposed budget. The Commissioner cites the district's low per pupil spending on classroom instruction and increased enrollments in allowing the addition of four new staff positions.

In the area of other salaries for instruction for regular, special education and basic skills programs, the Commissioner applies a stricter standard since no arguments or evidence are presented as to the need for maintaining the current level of non-certificated teaching staff or as to the services provided students by or activities of such staff. Reductions made by the township committee are sustained except where the original amount budgeted for 1996-97 is already reduced below the prior year's actual audited expenditures. On this basis, the Commissioner sustains $16,318 of reductions to these accounts and restores $10,504.

In the area of cocurricular activities, athletics and other instructional programs, the Commissioner applies the same standard as for other salaries for instruction for similar reasons. Accordingly, he sustains $2,092 in reductions to these accounts and restores $17,349.

In the areas of attendance and social work, health, guidance, child study team and library, the Commissioner applies the same standard as for teachers, with the exception of line items for secretaries, clerical and other, in that the district's student support services spending is below the state average and such activities involve direct and regular interaction with students. For the line items for secretaries, clerical and other, the Commissioner applies the same standard as for other instructional salaries. Accordingly the Commissioner sustains $22,574 of reductions to these accounts and restores $55,020.

In the administrative areas of improvement of instruction, general administration, school administration and business and other support services, the Commissioner applies the same standard as for other instructional services citing that while the district's spending for administration is below the state average there is no direct, regular interaction with students and that the Board makes no demonstration of either T & E necessity or operational stability. Accordingly, he sustains $76,628 of reductions to these accounts and restores $486. The Commissioner notes that the reduced amount of $3,146,768 in these accounts represents a 3.73 percent increase over the actual audited salary expenditures for the prior year, notwithstanding the $76,628 in reductions sustained, an amount that approximates the 3.86 percent increase granted teachers.

In the area of operations and maintenance of plant, the Commissioner sustains $53,668 of the reduction to this account and restores $12,338. Based on actual audited salary expenditures for 1995-96, the restoration will permit the district to increase spending in this account commensurate with the 3.2 percent increase granted transport workers. The Commissioner cites the lack of any documentation in the record as to salary increases for these types of positions and that the district's spending in this area is below the state average for this determination.

In the area of pupil transportation, the Commissioner restores the entire $50,968 reduction made to this account since the original amount budgeted for 1996-97 represented a 5.7 percent decrease over actual audited salary expenditures for 1995-96 and because of the increase in enrollment.

In the area of summer school teachers, the Commissioner sustains the $1,587 reduction to this account as the reduced appropriation for this account exceeds the actual audited salary expenditures of the prior year by more than the 3.86 percent negotiated increase for teachers.

In the area of special school teachers. the Commissioner restores the $1,703 reduction to this account since the amount originally budgeted was already reduced below the prior year's actual audited salary expenditures.

In the area of adult/evening education salaries, the Commissioner sustains the $6,881 in reductions to these accounts as the reduced appropriations for these accounts exceed the actual audited salary expenditures of the prior year by more than the 3.86 percent negotiated increase for teachers and the record reflects no evidence as to what extent if any such salaries are supported by participant fees.

A detailed summary of these determinations follows.

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 1-55

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Cut	Sustained	Restored
02510	11-110-100-101	Preschool/Kind. Sal. of Teachers	$11,885	$10,625	$1,260
02520	11-120-100-101	Grades 1-5 Salaries of Teachers	$125,591	$39,747	$85,844
02530	11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Salaries of Teachers	$145,648	$145,648	$-0-
02540	11-140-100-101	Grades 9-12 Salaries of Teachers	$149,852	$62,257	$87,595
02640	11-190-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Reg. Prog.)	$4,751	$4,751	$-0-
02820	11-202-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$374	$374	$-(

02910	11-202-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$374	$374	$-0-
02990	11-204-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$7,552	$3,428	$4,124
03000	11-204-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$4,661	$-0-	$4,661
03080	11-205-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$12,748	$12,748	$-0-
03090	11-205-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$3,854	$3,854	$-0-
03180	11-206-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$401	$401	$-0-
03260	11-207-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$1,291	$-0-	$1,291
03270	11-207-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$1,545	$1,545	$-0-
03770	11-212-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$3,506	$1,594	$1,912
03780	11-212-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$1,231	$1,231	$-0-
03860	11-213-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$35,380	$35,380	$-0-
03870	11-213-100-106	Other Sal. of Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$1,842	$1,842	$-0-
04130	11-216-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$2,007	$912	$1,095
04140	11-216-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$1,946	$1,946	$-0-
04310	11-218-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$6,827	$-0-	$6,827
04400	11-219-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Special Ed.)	$4,067	$3,001	$1,066
04410	11-219-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc. (Special Ed.)	$2,761	$0-	$2,761
04810	11-230-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Basic Skills)	$7,077	$7,077	$-0-
04820	11-230-100-106	Other Sal. for Instruc.(Basic Skills)	$3,082	$-0-	$3,082
04900	11-240-100-101	Sal. of Teachers (Bilingual)	$2,383	$-0-	$2,383
06030	11-401-100-100	Salaries/Co-Curric. Act.-Instruction	$4,369	$-0-	$4,369
06090	11-402-100-100	Salaries/Athletic-Instruction	$12,980	$-0-	$12,980
06150	11-4xx-100-100	Salaries/Other Instructional	$2,092	$2,092	$-0-
06370	11-000-211-100	Salaries/Undistrib. Exp. (Attendance & Soc. Work)	$3,883	$-0-	$3,883

06430	11-000-213-100	Sal./Undistrib. Exp. (Health Svc.)	$9,298	$9,298	$-0-
06490	11-000-218-104	Sal./Other Professional (Other Support Svc. Regular)	$23,905	$5,172	$18,73
06500	11-000-218-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical (Other Support Svc. Regular)	$3,089	$3,089	$-0-
06580	11-000-219-104	Sal./Other Professional (Other Support Svc.-Special)	$18,215	$-0-	$18,215
06590	11-000-219-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical (Other Support Svc. -Special)	$4,943	$4,943	$-0-
06600	11-000-219-110	Other Salaries (Other Support Svc. Special)	$72	$72	$-0-
06760	11-000-221-104	Sal. Other Professional Staff (Improvement of Instruc. Svc)	$3,463	$3,463	$-0-
06770	11-000-221-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical (Improvement of Instruc. Svc.)	$2,240	$2,240	$-0-
06780	11-000-221-110	Other Salaries (Improvement of Instruc. Svc.)	$295	$-0-	$29[illegible]
06850	11-000-222-100	Salaries/Library	$14,189	$-0-	$14,189
06910	11-000-230-100	Sal./Support Svc./Gen'l Adm.	$6,584	$6,584	$-0-
07010	11-000-240-103	Sal./Principals & Asst. Prin.	$34,089	$34,089	-0-
07030	11-000-240-105	Sal./Sec. & Clerical/Admin.	$13,014	$13,014	$-0-
07040	11-000-240-110	Other Salaries/Sch. Admin.	$191	$-0-	$191
07100	11-000-260-100	Sal./Op. & Maintenance	$66,006	$53,668	$12,338
07210	11-000-270-107	Sal./Pupil Trans.-Reg.	$35,086	$-0-	$35,086
07220	11-000-270-108	Sal./Pupil Trans.-Spec. Ed.	$13,801	$-0-	13,801
07230	11-000-270-109	Sal./Pupil Trans.- (Other)	$2,081	$-0-	$2,081
07360	11-000-290-100	Sal./Busn. & Other Support Svc.	$17,238	$17,238	$-0-
08400	13-422-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Summer Sch.)	$1,587	$1,587	$-0-

08660	13-4xx-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Other Special Schools)	$1,703	$-0-	$1,703
08820	13-601-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Evening/Adult School)	$1,834	$1,834	$-0-
08900	13-602-200-100	Sal./Support Svc. (Adult School)	$4,753	$4,753	$-0-
08980	13-602-100-101	Salaries of Teachers (Adult Ed.)	$235	$235	$-0-
08990	13-602-100-106	Oth. Sal. for Instruc. (Adult Ed.)	$59	$59	$-0-
		Subtotal	$843,930	$502,165	$341,765

Disputed Line-Item Numbers 56-58

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Cut
08250	12-000-4XX-331	Legal Services	$ 20,000
		(Facilities Acq. & Construc. Svc.)
08260	12-000-4XX-390	Other Purch. Prof'l Svc.	$ 129,000
		(Architectural Fees)
08270	12-000-4XX-450	Construction Services	$ 177,160
		a.) Replace Air-Condition. Units	$ 60,100
		b.) Classroom Lighting	$ 23,000
		c.) Ext. Door Hardware	$ 36,000
		d.) Ceiling Replacement	$ 15,000
		e.) Bleacher Repairs	$ 10,000	$ 200,000
		(Board's Support Documentation)

The Board asserts that the Township Committee has segregated line-item amounts that add up to the sum of $293,100, without specifying why the designated reduction is $200,000. (Township's Position Statement at p. 4) Although the Township argues that the Board should be responsible for major improvements as part of "permanent financing," the Board contends it is clear that the ongoing cost of replacement of equipment and hardware listed in line item 12-000-

4XX-450 is not part of major physical improvements to the District's facilities. The Board reasons that districts which do not budget for maintenance of their physical facilities as part of the general fund on a continuing basis "are doomed to exacerbate conditions of failing structures and decrepit physical facilities." (Board's Position Statement at p. 6)

The Board further contends that all items listed by the Township are at the point of failure or noncompliance with school building codes. Furthermore, it argues that replacement of air-conditioning units must be done during the summer months, and failure to do so would render certain essential classroom space unable to be occupied and many classrooms would not comply with code requirements for ventilation. Similarly, the Board argues that the classroom lighting work which is planned must be completed during the summer months when students are not present.

The Board next avers that the exterior door hardware that is required for certain aging school facilities must be replaced for reasons of security. Failure to do so, the Board asserts, places it at risk for further damage to school facilities that will be vulnerable to vandals and thieves. Additionally, replacement of ceiling tiles is an ongoing requirement precipitated by leaky roofs and acts of vandalism, according to the Board. The significant cost of replacing roofs in the District will be addressed by the Board as a major capital improvement where permanent financing must be obtained. Yet, the Board continues, until the roof replacement project can be financed and effectuated, the replacement of ceiling tiles is an ongoing cost that cannot be avoided. Additionally, in order for the ventilation system in several school buildings to function as per code requirements, the Board affirms that damaged ceiling tiles must be replaced so that the open return plenum will be functional and the ventilation system will comply with the school facilities code.

Failure to repair the District's bleachers, the Board continues, will place both students and the general public at risk of injury on dangerous equipment. The Board adds that the repairs to be made are required by the provisions of the building code.

The Board explains that, with regard to the architectural fees in the 1995-96 budget that were unexpended, these monies were part of the balance making up the $700,000 projection, supra. The Board asserts that the Township does not understand that professional fees that are related to the new elementary school which the Board is planning to construct have not been expended and must be budgeted in the 1996-97 school year. These professional services, the Board argues, are required before the new school construction referendum is posed to the voters in the Township. The Board contends these fees cannot be included as part of the referendum amount until after the referendum is approved. If so approved, then the expenditure of professional fees related to the construction of the new school will thereafter be included in monies approved as part of the bond indebtedness of the Township of Jackson. As for the Township's view that the Board has budgeted twice for these fees, the Board counters that the Township has failed to consider that the 1995-96 fees are reflected in the year-end unexpended balance and are accounted for in surplus balance. Thus, the Board maintains that it is reasonable that it should budget for the 1996-97 school year considering costs through June 30, 1997.

As to the Township's assertion that the Board transferred $193,367 from the current expense portion of the 1995-96 school budget to the capital outlay portion, infra, the Board argues that the transfer in question was made to correct a budgeting of the monies in the current expense portion of the budget when the same monies were supposed to be placed in the capital outlay portion of the budget, rather than in current expense line items. The Board warrants that, according to generally accepted accounting principles, these reallocated monies used to fund capital lease payments should have been placed in the capital outlay budget line items from the start, since the money was intended to be used for 60 month capital lease payments during the 1995-96 school year. The Board further attests that, once transferred, the monies were used to make such capital lease payments. Further, the Board indicates that it was following Township direction by funding the acquisition of particular equipment by lease/purchase financing, after having solicited bids for the lease/purchase of particular equipment and receiving a favorable interest rate for the lease/purchase monies. (Board's Reply at p. 5)

The Board underscores that New Jersey statutes, specifically, N.J.S.A. 18A:33-1 and 18A:7A-5, compel maintenance and repair of school facilities. It observes that the school buildings and equipment that are budgeted for replacement or repair in the proposed budget are presently out of compliance with the above-cited statutory requirements. The Board cites In re Upper Freehold Regional School District, 86 N.J. 265 at 278 (1981) for the proposition that adequate facilities are a part of T & E. (Board's Position Statement at p. 8) Thus, the Board concludes that the line-item amounts which the Township has reduced are necessary to provide for "adequately equipped sanitary and secure facilities." (Id.) With respect to the items which the Township maintains should be funded through bonds, the Board replies, "Based on the voting record in Jackson, the school buildings will fall to the ground before the community will vote to approve a board referendum for roofs, HVAC [heating/air conditioning] and other necessary capital items." (Board's Summation at p. 3)

The Township points out that in 1995-96, the Board's adopted budget was $223,800, which increased by transfers of $193,367 during the year. The Township argues that the Board has overbudgeted in 1996-97 in order to have excess funds available to make these large capital outlay transfers. However, the Township maintains that these projects could be financed over their useful lives (5, 10, 15 years) by issuing bonds or utilizing certificates of participation. The financing, according to the Township, would allow for a reduction of $200,000 in the 1996-97 budget, thereby lessening the tax burden. Additionally, upon review of the Board's appropriations report, the Township Committee notes that legal and architectural fees relating to the new elementary school were budgeted in both 1995-96 and 1996-97. Thus, the Township concludes that the $200,000 decrease in capital outlay will not negatively affect the Board's ability to provide T & E. (Township's Position Statement at p. 4)

The Township asserts that the Board fails to address the fact that the 1995-96 budget has appropriated $105,000 for legal and architectural fees, the majority of which has not been spent by April 30, 1996, and, in 1996-97, has budgeted $149,000 for the same elementary school project. The Township Committee maintains that the professional fees have been budgeted twice since the combined budgets amount of $254,000 for pre-referendum professional fees is grossly excessive. (Township's Reply at pp. 2, 3)

As to the Board's arguments regarding the need for the undesignated fund balance for possible roof repair, the Township argues that this argument demonstrates the Board's "lack of a cogent capital plan ." (Id. at p. 2) It further expresses concern that the Board is circumventing the budget process when in 1995-96 it transferred over $374,000 into the capital outlay fund from other line items. These funds, the Township contends, should have been allowed to lapse to fund balance. (Id.) Finally, the Township concludes that it was the Board's "cavalier approach" to its budget preparation which resulted in the transfer of $193,367 to correct its 1995-96 budget. (Township's Summation at p. 3) The Township argues that, since the Board admits that the unspent professional fees from 1995-96 have lapsed into surplus, the Township's rationale for increasing account number 10-303, Budgeted Fund Balance, is buttressed.

In response to the Township's claim that the Board has budgeted twice for professional fees, the Board claims that the 1995-96 fees are reflected in the year-end unexpended balance and are accounted for in the surplus balance. (Board's Summation at p. 4) Consideration will be given to the impact of the available funds in the determination for disputed line-item number 60; Anticipated Revenue - Budgeted Fund Balance. The Board has also argued that these fees cannot be included as part of the referendum amount for the new elementary school until the referendum is approved. The Commissioner notes that the costs associated with architects, lawyers and construction managers are considered part of the overall cost of a capital construction project. Prior to the referendum, such costs are budgeted and charged to the general fund. However, the option exists to reimburse the amounts previously charged to the general fund from the capital projects fund after the approval of a referendum.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Township has not presented an argument that the budgeted funds are not necessary for T&E but, instead, takes exception to the Board's history and manner of budgeting capital outlay appropriations. The Commissioner finds that these items have been proven necessary for T&E and in the absence of the approval of a bond referendum as a means to raise the funds, determines to restore the Township's reduction of $200,000.[2]

Disputed Line-Item Number 59

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Increased
00250	110-1XX	Anticipated Revenue (Miscellaneous)	$ 130,000	$220,000

The Board estimates miscellaneous income in the amount of $130,000 for the 1996-97 school year, and that such revenue will be precipitated by a reduction in health insurance premiums that the Board will incur over the 1996-97 school year. However, the Board notes, the costs charged for the 1996-97 school year will depend on the Board's actual claims experience in the area of health insurance. The Board asserts that the actual claims experience can decline significantly in any single year. If 1996-97 is such a year, the Board argues that it may experience an increase in health insurance premiums rather than a decrease as is now anticipated. The Board maintains that it would not be fiscally prudent to overestimate its anticipated revenue and that even a few "bad claims" for health insurance in the 1996-97 school year could potentially wipe out any savings on health insurance premiums which the Board hopes to realize. The Board insists that it has prudently budgeted anticipated income for the 1996-97 school year in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

[2] The Commissioner finds that the Board's response to the Township's concerns regarding the transfers to capital outlay from general current expense as being necessary for compliance with GAAP [accounting rules] is inconsistent with the GAAP uniform chart of accounts. Under the chart of accounts, the payments made on capital leases for equipment are budgeted as a rental payment in the applicable program and function in general current expense for which the equipment is being used. Although the annual year-end audit report will reflect the acquisition of the equipment as a nonbudgetary transaction in the year of the inception of the lease, the monthly payments under the lease are budgeted and expended as a rental payment.

Moreover, the Board argues that revenue received in prior years does not guarantee that the revenue for the same amount will be realized for the 1996-97 school year. The Board argues that, even if it does realize revenues which exceed the estimate contained in its proposed budget, without any emergent expenditures required, any increase in surplus as the budget is now structured would keep the surplus figure well below the regulatory minimum figure of 3 percent of the total current expense school budget. It maintains that the Township's decision to increase the amount of anticipated revenue in this line item could force the Board into a situation where there would be a revenue shortfall during the 1996-97 school year, thus, compelling the Board to turn to surplus funds.

The Township contends that the anticipated revenues for the 1996-97 school budget were underestimated. The Board's previous years' actual miscellaneous income have, the Township argues, been consistently greater than the amount it budgeted in 1996-97. The Township further indicates that, as of April 30, 1996, the Board had realized $363,817 in miscellaneous income for the current 1995-96 school year. The Township Committee finds that a $220,000 increase will not have a negative effect upon the T & E offered by the District. (Township's Position Statement at p.1) The Township argues that the Board's claim that surplus is below 3 percent of total current expense is irrelevant, inasmuch as it was the Board which originally structured its budget.

Moreover, the Township questions the Board's connection of this account to its health insurance premium costs. Here, the Township queries why, if health insurance premiums were such a concern, the Board agreed with the Township's $200,000 reduction to that line item. (See footnote 1, supra.) The Township argues that the individually budgeted line-item accounts should stand on their own and not be linked to other line items. It notes that such a budgeting principle does not fall within the purview of the generally accepted accounting principles.

The Commissioner took official notice of the Board's June 30 financial report for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1996-97 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. Part of the review of the report for such determination includes a comparison of current year actual revenue amounts to those budgeted since an underestimation of revenues increases surplus balances. The June 30 financial report reflects actual realized miscellaneous revenues of $834,651.67 which is $734,651.67 in excess of the amount budgeted. Actual miscellaneous revenues of $910,644 were realized in 1995-96. The 1995-96 annual year-end audit reported an audited miscellaneous revenues amount of $888,187, of which $642,758 related to insurance reimbursements.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that when compared to prior years' realized revenues, the Township's suggested $220,000 increase to $350,000 appears conservative and would provide allowance for a substantial decrease in the amount of insurance reimbursements. Accordingly, the Commissioner determines to increase the amount budgeted in miscellaneous revenues by $220,000.

Disputed Line-Item Number 60

Line No.	Account No.	Description	Amount Budgeted	Amount Increased
00120	10-303	Anticipated Revenue (Budgeted Fund Balance)	$ 700,000	$300,000

The Board observes that the Township directs the District to appropriate an additional $300,000 from undesignated fund balance that will accrue at the end of the 1995-96 school budget fiscal year. The Board's plan calls for appropriation of $700,000 of anticipated surplus monies to be used in the 1996-97 school budget, out of an aggregate sum of approximately $2,000,000 of surplus monies that the Board expects to realize from the 1995-96 budget year. The unexpended balance of $700,000, the Board points out, was generated by its decision not to procure additional student desks, equipment and other instructional necessities, which would normally have been ordered. The Board projects that it will maintain an undesignated fund balance for the 1996-97 budget year of $1,300,000. The effect of increasing funding to the 1996-97 school budget from the 1995-96 school surplus, the Board argues, would be to reduce the Board's undesignated fund balance to a figure that would be less than 2 percent of the proposed school budget, contrary to regulations requiring a minimum undesignated fund balance of 3 percent. (Board's Position Statement at pp. 10-11)

The Board reasons that to maintain such a precariously low surplus would be dangerous for the District, where the oldest school building, Switlik Elementary School, still has its original roof from approximately 1952 and it is on the brink of failure. Should the roof fail in the course of the coming school year, the Board posits that it could be faced with expenses amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars. The Board further observes that it is under state mandate to tie in the Goetz Middle School to the new sewer line, which will require additional funds in the future. Monies for replacement will, the Board contends, have to come from surplus. (Board's Summation at p. 2)

The Board concludes that, in a growing district, the need for surplus is quite apparent. It argues that the ever-increasing student population demands unanticipated expenses in the area of special education that cannot necessarily be budgeted for, and which require the Board to utilize surplus funds; the needs of even a few special education students may require expenditure of thousands of dollars not contained in the budget. By way of example, the Board notes that while its 1996-97 budget is merely a month old, it has had to hire an additional fourth grade teacher due to increased enrollment. This position, the Board claims, was not budgeted for in the 1996-97 budget, and the funds, therefore, for this position must come from surplus. Additionally, the Board observes that it must fund from surplus the salaries of two additional resource room teachers so that the District will be in compliance with federal special education program requirements. The Board argues that the two new positions cannot be avoided, and the positions could not have been justified for budgeting during the formation of the 1996-97 school year budget six months ago. Thus, the Board concludes that the Township's increase in this account would be an arbitrary reduction in the reasonable amount of surplus that the Board needs to protect itself from unanticipated, unbudgeted, but necessary, expenses that are likely to be incurred in the 1996-97 school year. (Board's Reply at p. 2)

The Township finds that the anticipated revenues for the 1996-97 budget were underestimated with respect to the budgeted fund balance. Upon review of the District's April 30, 1996 revenue and appropriations reports, the Township concludes that a more accurate representation of surplus anticipated from current year operations would be $1,000,000.[3] The

[3] In its summation, the Township states, "The Township Committee believes that the June 30, 1996 unaudited undesignated fund balance figure of $1,352,558 estimated by the Board of Education is low and that, in fact, the actual figure will show an increase far greater than $300,000. The Township Committee has requested the Board of Education's June 30, 1996 Budget Summary Report in order to document its claim; however, to date, the Board of Education has not released this information." (Township's Summation at p. 2)

April 30, 1996 report, according to the Township, reflected numerous, large, encumbered balances in line items which traditionally are fully spent by that date. These amounts, the Township observes, would be canceled at year-end, and would become District surplus. (Township's Position Statement at p. 2)

In addition, the Township argues that the Board did not consider the substantial revenue it received over budget for the 1995-96 school year. Moreover, the Township notes that history has shown that the actual surplus realized from current year operations has been higher than the surplus anticipated during the Board's budget process. Thus, the $300,000 increase in the budgeted fund balance will not, according to the Township, negatively affect the Board's ability to provide T & E. (Id.) As to the Board's claim that the increase imposed by the Township will leave the Board below the 3 percent figure which is required, the Township again indicates that it was the Board's own budgeting process which left its undesignated fund balance below 3 percent. Therefore, the Township asserts that the Board's argument "is not an issue." (Township's Reply at p. 2)

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that the 3 percent surplus level is not a required minimum that must be maintained by districts. Instead it is the department's policy to require districts to reduce their surplus to that level in instances where the district's budget includes a cap waiver or is under appeal to the Commissioner in the event of a budget defeat. There are no fixed restrictions on reducing surplus below that level. The Commissioner also notes that when the Board submitted its certified budget for approval to the county office of education, the recapitulation of balances was revised to include an additional $700,000 of additional balances anticipated from the 1995-96 budget resulting in a revised projected June 30, 1996 unreserved surplus amount of $2,037,328. The Board also increased the amount being appropriated into the 1996-97 budget to reflect the increased amount suggested by the Township of $1,000,000. With these revisions, the projected undesignated unreserved surplus at June 30, 1996 was $400,000 higher than that presented to the voters in the advertised budget. The 1995-96 annual year-end report reflects an audited June 30, 1996 unreserved fund balance of $1,902,642. Accordingly, since the Board's revised projections and audited June 30, 1996 balance result in a higher surplus than that originally adopted and presented to the voters, the Commissioner determines to increase the amount budgeted as Miscellaneous Income (Budgeted Fund Balance) by the $300,000 suggested by the Township.

APPLICATION OF SURPLUS

As discussed in the determination for disputed line-item number 60, after designation of surplus funds into the 1996-97 budget as Budgeted Fund Balance, the Board has reduced its unreserved, undesignated surplus to below 3 percent of its 1996-97 budget.

Based on the above, the Commissioner determines that there are no excess surplus funds available to restore appropriations.

SUMMARY

In summary, the Commissioner directs restoration or sustaining of the Township's line-item reductions to appropriations and increases to revenue in surplus accounts as set forth below. The Commissioner further notes that all restorations to line-item appropriations are restricted in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.11(b)3.

APPROPRIATIONS:

Description	Account Number	Sustained	Restored
Salaries:	as listed, supra, disputed line items 1-55:	$502,165	$ 341,765
Facilities:		-0-
• Legal Services (Facilities Acq. & Construction (Svc.)	12-000-4XX-331		$ 200,000

- Oth. Purch. Prof'l Svc. (Architectural Fees) 12-000-4XX-390
- Construction Services 12-000-4XX-450
  - a.) Replace Air-Condit. Units
  - b.) Classroom Lighting
  - c.) Ext. Door Hardware
  - d.) Ceiling Replacement
  - e.) Bleacher Repairs

TOTAL - 0 - $541,765

REVENUES:

Description	Account Number	Increase Sustained	Increase Rejected
Anticipated Revenue (Miscellaneous)	10-1XX	$220,000	-0-
Anticipated Revenue (Budgeted Fund Balance)	10-303	$300,000	-0-
	TOTAL	$520,000

Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body:	$25,825,319
Restoration of Reductions:	$ 541,765
Amount of Restoration Funded by Surplus:	- 0 -
Total Tax Levy for 1996-97:	$26,367,084

Accordingly, the Ocean County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments, as set forth above, to reflect a total of $26,367,084 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the Jackson Township Board of Education for the 1996-97 school year.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 10, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 10, 1997

108-97

C #108-97
SB # 36-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JACKSON, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 10, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Kalac, Newman, Lavender & Campbell (Francis J. Campbell, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Hiering, Hoffman, & Gannon (William T. Hiering, Jr., Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated when the Board of Education of the Township of Jackson (hereinafter "Board") filed a Petition of Appeal to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37. By its appeal, the Board challenged $1,563,930 of $1,763,930 in reductions made by the Township Committee of the Township of Jackson (hereinafter "Township Committee") to the proposed education budget for 1996-97 after it was defeated by the voters.

By decision dated March 10, 1997, the Commissioner directed restoration of $541,765 of those reductions, but sustained the remainder. The Board then filed an appeal with the State Board of Education.

8/6/97

Review of the brief submitted by the Board in support of its appeal indicates that it is not challenging the reductions that were sustained by the Commissioner. Rather, the Board's appeal constitutes a general challenge to the way the Commissioner has been considering budget appeals under N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37. Specifically, the Board asserts that the conclusions which the Commissioner reached failed to give due weight to the district's financial needs; that the Commissioner should have conducted a hearing as to the necessity of cap waiver monies after the municipal governing body reduced the education budget; and that the length of time it takes the Commissioner to issue budget decisions fails to eliminate the problems pointed out by the New Jersey Supreme Court in its decision in Board of Education of the Township of Deptford, 116 N.J. 305 (1989). However, the only relief which the Board seeks by the appeal is a "determination by the State Board of Education to correct the procedural deficiencies evident from the decision of the Commissioner in his budget decision...." Board's brief, at 16.

It is well settled that the role of the Commissioner in reviewing budget appeals pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 is not to function as an original budget-making body. Board of Education, East Brunswick Township v. Township Council, East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 106 (1966). Rather, it is the function of the Commissioner, and of the State Board on appeal, to sit as a reviewing body which is charged with the responsibility of ensuring that the mandate for a thorough and efficient education is being carried out. Id. Accordingly, we are obligated to defer to a municipal budget decision such as the one involved here so long as we are satisfied that educational goals are not jeopardized. Deptford, supra; East Brunswick, supra.

We fully agree with the Board that it is important for the Commissioner to ensure timely review of budget appeals so that the disputed issues can be resolved to coincide with the school year covered by the budget to the extent possible. Id. However, this is not a case in which the budget involved has evaded meritorious review by the Commissioner. Deptford, supra. Hence, while we do not minimize the significance of the questions which the Board would like us to decide, we find that we can not properly or productively address such questions in the absence of a challenge to the budget reductions which the Commissioner sustained. In this respect, we stress that when the Commissioner rendered his decision in this matter, he made the determination that the resulting budget amount would be sufficient to enable the Board to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students for the school year in question.[1]

Therefore, for the reasons stated, we dismiss the appeal.

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 0 8 1997

[1] We note that on January 22, 1997, the Commissioner proposed new rules to us to govern the budget review and appeals process, and that since February 18, 1997, we have been entertaining public comment relating thereto pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq. See 29 N.J.R. 2591 through 2608.

109-97

109-97 M

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPROVAL OF : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
THE RED BANK CHARTER SCHOOL. : DECISION ON MOTION
:

For Movant Red Bank Board of Education, McOmber & McOmber, P.C.
(Arsen Zartarian, Esq.)

For Respondent, W. Michael Moore, President, Red Bank Charter School Association

This matter was opened by way of a motion filed on March 4, 1997, by the Board of Education of the Borough of Red Bank ("Board"). Therein, the Board seeks a stay of the Commissioner of Education's February 21, 1997 determination, currently on appeal to the State Board of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(d), to grant a charter to the Red Bank Charter School ("Charter School") pursuant to the authority granted him by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq. The Board seeks to stay, pending resolution of the appeal, both the Commissioner's approval of the charter and any action on the part of the Charter School to implement it. For the reasons which follow, the Board's motion is denied.

The standards for granting injunctive relief are well established. The party seeking such relief must demonstrate the existence of each of the following four separate conditions: 1) a clear probability that the movant will prevail on the merits of the underlying controversy; 2) in the absence of such a stay, the movant will suffer irreparable injury; 3) the probability of harm to other persons will not be greater than the harm the movant will suffer in the absence of such a stay; and 4) the public interest will not be adversely affected by such a stay. Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126, 132-134 (1982); Zoning Board of Adjustment of Sparta v. Services Electric Cable Television of N.J., Inc., 198 N.J. Super. 370, 379 (App. Div. 1985). Each of these criteria will be addressed separately below.

March 10, 1997

Initially, a brief synopsis of the "Charter School Program Act of 1995", L. 1995, c. 426, codified at N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq. is appropriate. The Act provides that it is the public policy of the State to encourage and facilitate the development of charter schools. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-2. The Legislature has determined that charter schools will, among other things, increase the potential for pupil learning; increase educational choices for students and parents; encourage the use of different and innovative learning methods; establish a new form of accountability for schools; and make the school the unit for educational improvement. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-2. The Commissioner of Education is given the authority to establish the charter school program in accordance with the Act, and is provided a specific list of information that must be considered in assessing applications to form charter schools. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-3 and 5. The Act sets forth the powers and responsibilities of charter schools, and allows for the adoption of regulations necessary for implementing the provisions of the Act. It is with these legislative mandates in mind that the Board's application for stay of the Commissioner's decision must be considered.

The Board argues that it will suffer irreparable harm because the grant of the charter at issue has occurred at an inopportune time, as the Board has recently appointed two new supervisors, and is currently moving forward to align its curriculum with the Core Curriculum Content Standards. In addition, it is argued that the grant of a charter has created an air of uncertainty in the district and that "bedlam" will result if the Charter School begins to accept applications for employment and conduct an admissions process. Also, the Board argues that the $460,358.00 it must pay for the 60 students in the charter school will cause it to reduce staff, reduce supplies, eliminate a bus route, and increase taxes in order to avoid reductions in programs and services. In addition, the Board argues that its ability to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students could be compromised. Finally, the Board argues that uncertainty as to when the Charter School will find a facility and enroll students creates a concomitant uncertainty as to what amount will be reduced from its budget. Finally, the Board argues that irreparable harm may result to it and the community in the form of confusion and unrest, likely manifesting itself in defeat of the Board's budget proposal at the annual school election.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the reasons set forth by the Board do not constitute a demonstration of irreparable harm. First, the fact that it is an "inopportune time" for the Board does not constitute irreparable harm, nor does the fact that the Board has hired two new supervisors and is aligning its curriculum with the Core Curriculum Content Standards and would be inconvenienced by the creation of a charter school. The Board is free to continue to realign its curriculum and acclimate the new supervisors to the district, an effort on which the creation of a charter school should have no significant effect. Also, alignment of curriculum with the Core Curriculum Content Standards must happen regardless of whether new supervisors have been hired, and having to do so while a charter school is being formed in a district does not constitute irreparable harm.

In addition, allegations that uncertainty will be created, "bedlam" and community unrest will result, and the school budget may be defeated by the voters are unfounded and unsubstantiated, and provide no basis for staying the approval of the charter in this matter. The possibility that staff may be eliminated and that changes may occur in a district as a result of creation of a charter school could create uncertainty, but this does not rise to the level of irreparable harm. Pursuant to this argument, every school district wherein a charter school is approved would be irreparably harmed if uncertainty as to jobs and possible budget cuts would be created. There is no basis for such a conclusion. The Board will have to perform its functions within the bounds of its budget and regardless of any uncertainty that the grant of a charter may have created.

Likewise, the loss of money based on the per student payment to the charter school may affect the Board's budget and cause a reduction in staff or supplies, but this is balanced by a reduction in students and outweighed by the express Legislative directive that the local school district fund those students from the district enrolled in a charter school. Further, loss of money does not constitute irreparable harm. Crowe supra. at 132-33. Even assuming that the Charter School actually enrolls 60 students and that all students enrolled will come from Red Bank, a proposition that is purely speculative at this juncture, the Board will have fewer students to educate in the 1997-1998 school year if students from Red Bank enroll in the charter school, and will therefore require less money to educate its remaining students. In addition, the Charter School Act expressly contemplates that local school districts will have to become more competitive and accountable for the education they provide, and mandates that charter schools be funded by enrolled students' district of residence. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-2. Therefore, because the Legislature has directed that local school districts must fund those students from the district enrolled in the charter school, and because there will be concomitantly fewer students in the Red Bank schools to educate, there is no basis for a determination that the Board will be irreparably harmed if it loses money because students from Red Bank are enrolled in the Charter School.

Based on the foregoing, the Board has failed to demonstrate that it will be irreparably harmed if the grant of a charter to the Red Bank Charter School is not stayed.

With regard to the second criterion, the Board advances several reasons as to why it will succeed on the merits of its appeal before the State Board. First, it argues, the Commissioner failed to adhere to the time frames established in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4 for accepting applications for charter schools and, moreover, issued a conditional decision that is beyond the applicable time frames. This argument is without merit.

N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4 does not establish a time after which applications may not be submitted, nor a date after which charters may not be granted. The statute requires only that applications be submitted "in the school year preceding the school year in which the charter school will be established." N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c). The October 15, 1996 date referred to by the Board was established administratively by the Department of Education, and the charter school's application was submitted within that time frame. In order to properly assess the application, additional information was sought and accepted after that date by the Department. The Board, in the interest of obtaining all necessary information, was allowed to comment on both the initial application and any addendum filed by the Charter School. After receipt of the Board's last submission, a decision was reached as to whether or not to grant a charter.

The grant of the charter was final as of February 21, 1997. However, as noted in the letter granting the charter, documentation is required with regard to the facility wherein the school will be located. Failure to provide this documentation would result in a charter being rescinded. Until a facility is obtained by a charter school, this information cannot be provided. However, it is understood that until a charter is granted, a school cannot make arrangements to obtain a facility, as it is necessary to ensure that the application is approved prior to obtaining a facility. Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the Board will not succeed on the merits of its claim based on this argument.

The Board next argues that the absence of rules and regulations governing the charter school program stripped the Commissioner of his authority to issue any charter, including the one at issue in this matter. The Board cites cases for the proposition that an administrative agency may not act in a manner that contravenes the statute authorizing it to act, and for the proposition that a rule or regulation must fall within the express or implied grant of power by the Legislature. Neither of these principles has any relevancy to this matter.

N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-18 authorizes the State Board of Education to adopt regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of the Act. The statute does not mandate that regulations be in place prior to granting a charter. The Act itself provides the parameters for granting a charter by setting forth the required contents of an application, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-5, all of which must be satisfied in order for a charter to be granted. Therefore, the cases cited by Red Bank are not applicable to this matter, as the Department acted in conformance with the enabling legislation when considering and approving the charter at issue.

Likewise, the Board's citations to cases such as Metromedia v. Director, Division of Taxation, 97 N.J. 313 (1984) for the proposition that an administrative agency may not act in the absence of rulemaking are inapplicable to this matter. The Department did not engage in invalid rulemaking by acting in the absence of regulations when granting the charter at issue. The Department acted in conformance with the Charter School Act when granting a charter to the Red Bank Charter School, so that the absence of regulations does not invalidate the grant of the charter.

The Board next argues that the Commissioner improperly created a funding formula for the Red Bank Charter School. In the absence of statutory authorization or validly promulgated regulation, the Board contends, the Department improperly determined the amount of funding that is to be provided the Charter School by the Board. However, as explained in the February 26, 1997 letter from Michael Azzara, director, Office of Finance, to the superintendent of the Red Bank Schools, the Department's calculation of estimated appropriations for the Red Bank Charter School is based on the Charter School Program Act of 1995, the Comprehensive Educational Improvement and Financing Act, L. 1996, c. 138, proposed charter school regulations and proposed regulations for the school financing plan.

The Department of Education is currently acting in accordance with pending charter school regulations, as well as pending funding law regulations, in order to conform with the Legislature's intent that charter schools begin operations upon the effective date of the Charter School Program Act. Complying with these proposed regulations does not violate any express or implied legislative policies, as the regulations were drafted as per the directive of the Legislature in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1B. See Matter of Musick, 143 N.J. 206, 216 (1996) (when reviewing actions of administrative agencies, courts should act only if the agency action violates express or implied legislative policies). In accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the regulations will be in effect when the charter schools begin operations, and must be followed, as they will have the force and effect of law. See Middle Tp. v. Pub. Developers, 240 N.J. Super. 445, 448 (Ch. Div. 1990) ("Administrative rules and regulations are not statutes, but if otherwise valid, properly promulgated and extant, they have the weight, force and effect of law."); Ronald Kelly v. City of Camden, A-6182-91T2, decided May 13, 1993 (reasonable for an administrative agency to follow pending rules when rendering a determination where no express or implied legislative policies were violated). Because compliance at this time is necessary in order to fulfill the mandate of N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq. by enabling charter schools to begin operation, the Department of Education may reasonably follow the pending regulations in this case, as there is no other available basis for determining the amount of appropriations for charter schools in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq. In addition, at the time charter schools are provided with their appropriations, the regulations will likely have been enacted.

The Board also argues that the grant of a charter was improper in this case because the Board must be provided an opportunity for a hearing prior to the grant of a charter. The Board suggests that the United States and New Jersey Constitutions guarantee it the right to due process of law and thus to a hearing prior to the granting of a charter to the Red Bank Charter School. This argument is belied by N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., and provides no basis for a determination that the Board will prevail on the merits in this matter. To the contrary, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-4(c) bestows the authority to grant or deny a charter upon the Commissioner of Education. A local board of education or the charter school applicant may appeal the Commissioner's determination to the State Board of Education. However, the statute confers no right to a hearing prior to, or after, the Commissioner makes such determination.

Neither does the Board's due process argument provide a basis for concluding that the Board is entitled to a hearing before the Commissioner may render a determination as to whether or not to grant a charter. The Board's argument is premised on the assertion that the right to education is somehow being denied to unidentified parties. Because the Red Bank Board of Education is not a person or a student, it cannot allege the denial of a right to due process under the United States and New Jersey Constitutions. The Red Bank Board of Education has no right to an education. Likewise, it is not a person that either constitution contemplates may assert a due process right. Therefore, this argument provides no basis for a determination that the Board will succeed on the merits of its appeal. See generally, City of Newark v. New Jersey, 262 U.S. 192, 196, 43 S.Ct. 539, 540, 540 (1923) (as a subdivision of the State, "a city cannot invoke the protections of the Fourteenth Amendment against the State"). See also, McKenney v. Byrne, 82 N.J. 304, 315 n.4 (1980) (municipal corporations do not have standing to raise equal protection arguments against the State); North Bergen Tp. in Hudson County v. Hackensack Meadowlands Development Com'n, 200 N.J. Super. 579, 583 (App. Div. 1985); Booth v. Tp. of Winslow, 193 N.J. Super. 637, 639 (App Div. 1984), cert. denied, 97 N.J. 657 (1984), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 1107, 105 S.Ct. 781, 83 L.Ed.2d 776 (1985).

Finally, the Board's argument that it is entitled to a hearing in order to protect its right to due process is also misplaced because the grant of a charter is not an act that requires a hearing prior to reaching a determination. In High Horizons Development Company v. State Department of Transportation, 120 N.J. 40 (1990), the Supreme Court held that if an agency is acting in a quasi-judicial capacity, parties have a right to a hearing. If the agency is acting in a legislative capacity, there is no right to a hearing. In order to determine if an agency is acting in a judicial capacity, an inquiry should be made as to whether the agency must consider evidence and apply the law to the facts found. Id. at 50. In the within matter, a determination was made as to whether the application to form a charter school was complete and worthy of granting the charter. There was no need to gather evidence or apply law to the found facts. Thus, the determination to grant a charter is not a quasi-judicial function, but is more akin to a legislative or executive act.

Therefore, neither the applicant for a charter nor a local school board has a right to a hearing prior to a determination by the Commissioner as to whether a charter should be granted.

Based on the foregoing, the Board has failed to demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits of its appeal. Therefore, the second criterion for issuance of a stay has not been satisfied.

With regard to the final two criteria, the weighing of the relative harms to those involved and the public interest, the Board has failed to demonstrate that it will be harmed in any meaningful way if the Commissioner does not stay his approval of the charter at issue. The Red Bank Charter School, on the other hand, will suffer irreparable harm if it is denied the opportunity to obtain a facility to house its school, begin to admit students, and take other preparatory steps necessary to begin operations in September 1997. Further, as set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-2, the Legislature has determined that it is the public policy of the State, and thus in the interest of the public, that charter schools be established. Therefore, the Board cannot satisfy the final two criteria for issuance of a stay.

Based on the foregoing, the Board's application for stay of the Commissioner's February 21, 1997 grant of a charter to the Red Bank Charter School is hereby DENIED.*

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* It is noted that the Board objected to the Commissioner's acceptance of the Charter School's reply to its motion, as such reply was filed with the Commissioner within the specified time frame, but not served upon the Board until later in the day. The Board contends that this delay prejudiced its ability to file a reply to the Charter School's submission. The Commissioner rejects this assertion, however, in that, due to the urgency of this application, no reply to the Charter School's response was contemplated or requested as part of these proceedings, so that there has been no prejudice to the Board by the Commissioner's acceptance of the Charter School's filing.

March 10, 1997
Date Faxed, March 10, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 11, 1997

110-97

C & A WINDOW SERVICE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning contractor for window repair service alleged it was the successful bidder and sought to enjoin the District from rebidding, averring that the Board wrongfully rejected all bids due to a bid protest.

ALJ dismissed petition, concluding that the District could exercise its discretion to reject all bids and to readvertise a contract to provide district-wide window repair services. ALJ found that bids were not rejected solely because a protest had been filed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

MARCH 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7679-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 265-7/96

C & A WINDOW SERVICE,

Petitioner,

v.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT

OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Thomas Brugger, President of C & A Window Service, appearing pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-5.4(a)5, for petitioner

Gregory G. Johnson, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: January 16, 1997 Decided: January 24, 1997

BEFORE EDITH KLINGER, ALJ:

C & A Window Service, petitioner, alleges that it was the successful bidder for a contract to provide window repair services at the Oliver Street School in the State-Operated School District of the City of Newark (District). Petitioner appeals the District's rejection of all bids on the project and the District's subsequent solicitation of bids for district-wide window repair.

Thomas Brugger, President of C & A, filed a petition with the Commissioner on July 5, 1996, requesting that the decision of the District be reversed and that he be awarded the contract for the Oliver Street School. The District filed its answer on July 25, 1996. On July 30, 1996, the Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

Brugger requested emergency relief enjoining the District from awarding the contract for window repair until after the decision of his appeal in this matter. The relief was denied in an order, dated August 5, 1996, by Richard McGill, Administrative Law Judge. This matter was then assigned to the undersigned for hearing. The hearing was held on January 16, 1997 and the record closed on that date.

REVIEW OF EVIDENCE

In June 1995, the Newark Board of Education decided to solicit bids to repair the windows at the Oliver Street School in the district. The plan was to fix that one building and no thought was given at the time to the repair of windows in other schools. Invitations to bid were sent to vendors which expressed interest in doing the work. The bids were to be opened on April 30, 1996.

The invitation to bid provided to prospective bidders contained the following specifications:

> D3.3 The District reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and waive any informality in any proposal and to make the award in the best interest of the school district. Award of contract will be subject to availability of funds.
>
> E8.2 The District may (a) reject any or all bids, (b) accept other than the lowest bid, and (c) waive informalities or minor irregularities in bids received.

Pursuant to paragraph G2.1, if a written contract is required, a bid is accepted by the District when a section, located on the first page of the invitation to bid, is completed which documents the approval of the Board of Education. If no written contract is needed, the invitation to bid and a notice of acceptance of the bid constitutes the contract between the District and the vendor. Brugger received neither of these acceptances from the District.

The total bidding price submitted by each vendor appears in the following form in the proposal:

ITEM NO.	DESCRIPTION	TOTAL
1	Repair 410 window units at Oliver Street School	_____
2	Contingency allowance to allot funds for unforeseen obstacles or supplies	+_____10%
	Last item	$_____

Nothing in the document requires that a vendor add a contingency allowance to its proposed price.

On April 30, 1996, the bids were opened and C & A's bid of $14,350 was the lowest. Out of the six vendors submitting bids, it was the only one which did not provide for a contingency allowance. Gregory Fox, the owner of Window Repair Systems, the second lowest bidder, verbally protested to the District that specification #3725, which related to the contingency allowance, was confusing. If Window Repair Systems had not submitted a ten-percent contingency allowance, it would have been the lowest bidder. John Murphy, vice president of sales and marketing for Window Repair Systems, wrote to Robert Burroughs, a Senior Buyer in the Purchasing Department of the Newark Board of Education, on May 17, 1996 to request that only its price of $13,940 without the contingency of $1,394 be considered as its bid for the contract.

Fox, who testified at hearing, has been in the window repair business since 1989 and has submitted bids on hundreds of school contracts. He stated, without contradiction, that he has never seen another invitation from a school system to bid which did not contain the requirement that the bidder provide a contingency in addition to the bid price. Brugger argues that the invitation to bid contains paragraph E5.1, which requires prospective bidders to seek, in writing, an explanation of any provision of the solicitation which they do not understand before submitting their proposals.

On April 30, 1996, Brugger called and spoke to Burroughs. Burroughs stated his opinion that C & A had been the lowest bidder and would probably get the contract. He did not represent to Brugger that he had the authority to approve a bid nor did he state that Brugger could rely upon his representations. On May 17, 1996, Burroughs drafted a Newark Public Schools, Purchasing Action Activity form recommending that the contract be awarded to C & A, whose bid conformed to all specifications, as the lowest bidder. He testified that this form, when finalized, is only his recommendation and does not in any sense constitute an acceptance of the bid by the District.

A draft of Burrough's Activity Form is in evidence. This was not the final version of the recommendation which could have been very different from the draft. Neither the final form nor the draft were ever provided to Brugger.

According to Burroughs, his decision is made solely on the basis of price. He drafts a Purchasing Action Activity form. After a meeting with his supervisor, Linda Armenio, a final draft of the form is submitted to "higher-ups" for their approval. If the recommendation is approved and a contract results, then a purchase order must be issued to the vendor. No purchase order was ever issued to Brugger. Armenio stated that the District has no liability to pay a vendor unless a purchase order is issued.

These events occurred during the time that the management of the Newark schools was in transition from the Board of Education to the State-Operated District. In June 1996, Robert Harding, Deputy General Services Administrator, Department of the Treasury, was on loan to the Newark school system to serve as the Acting Executive Director of Purchasing and Warehousing.

On June 5, 1996, Harding approved, pro forma, the award of the Oliver Street School contract to C & A as the lowest bidder and the State District Superintendent signed the Purchasing Action Activity form on June 10, 1996. No one considered the nature of the project.

On June 19, 1996, Brugger wrote to Harding to complain about the protest from Window Repair Systems and to find out the status of C & A's bid. This letter caused Harding to review the bidding for Oliver Street and, as a result, to reconsider his prior approval of the award and, in fact, the whole project. He testified that his change of mind was based solely upon the nature of the work for which bids were solicited, not the protest of Window Repair Systems. The protest was merely the catalyst which caused him to look more closely at the project.

He explained that, upon reappraisal, he concluded that the manner in which bids were solicited was indicative of the generally poor planning he felt to be characteristic of the District. It takes as much time and effort to develop the specifications for this type of repair for one school building as it does for twenty buildings. The district would also enjoy greater savings if the volume of work to be bid on were larger. For these reasons, it was decided that it was in the best interest of the District to reject all of the bids for Oliver Street and to solicit vendors to bid on window repair services for a number of District school buildings. Brugger was notified of this decision and the reasons for it in a letter from Harding dated July 1, 1996. Harding also invited him to submit a bid on the new project.

A Purchasing Action Activity form, dated July 24, 1996, was submitted by Linda Armenio on July 22, 1996, approved by Harding and approved by Beverly L. Hall, State District Superintendent, on July 30, 1996. The document reads as follows:

> Bids were received on Tuesday, April 30, 1996, for Window Repair Service at Oliver Street School. A recommendation for award of contract was approved for C & A Window service.
>
> Upon further evaluation the specification, as written, did not represent the needs of the District and it was decided to reject all bids as per section D3, Paragraph D3.3 of the specification.
>
> A new bid specification will be developed to include multiple school locations which will be more cost effective and better address the window repair requirements within the District.
>
> It is recommended that the State District Superintendent approve the rejection of all bids associated with this specification.

Brugger indicated at hearing that he relied upon his position as lowest bidder and purchased materials in anticipation of being awarded the contract for the Oliver Street School.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the evidence presented, I FIND the following facts:

1. C & A was never awarded the contract to provide window repair services for the Oliver Street School. Petitioner erroneously concluded that he, as the lowest bidder, was automatically entitled to the award, in spite of the District's reservation of rights in paragraph D3.3 of the specification.

2. C & A had no reason to rely upon the opinion of Burroughs since Burroughs lacked authority to award a contract and Brugger never received any official notification from the District that he would be authorized to proceed with the work.

3. The District did not reject all of the bids because of the protest of Window Repair Systems. Harding's attention was called to the project because of the

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/28/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 30 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

md

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

Robert Burroughs

Robert Harding

For Respondent:

Thomas Brugger

Gregory Fox

Linda Armenio

Exhibits

J-1 Bid of C & A

J-2 Letter, Harding to Brugger, July 1, 1996

J-3 Purchasing Action Activity form, June 5, 1996

J-4 Letter, Brugger to Harding, June 19, 1996

J-5 Purchasing Action Activity form, July 24, 1996

P-1 Memorandum, Burroughs to File, May 20, 1996

P-2 Action Form Information (draft), May 17, 1996

R-1 Letter, Murphy to Burroughs, May 17, 1996

R-2 Tabulation, Spec 2750

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7679-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 265-7/96

C & A WINDOW SERVICE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Timely exceptions were filed by petitioner in conformance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. No replies were filed by respondent District.

Petitioner's exceptions essentially recast and reiterate arguments expressed before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) at hearing, contending that pursuant to applicable bidding statutes the District should not have rejected all bids, including its bid, simply because a competing company filed a protest. Petitioner sets forth what it considers as reasons for rejecting a bid as where,

> 1) All of the bidders prices exceed allotted amount; 2) None of the bidders are qualified to complete work; and; 3) Funds are not available. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 3)

Petitioner asserts that none of these reasons existed in the within matter. Consequently, petitioner takes exception to the ALJ's application of Miller v. Passaic Valley Water Commission, supra, concurring that it stands for the proposition that a school district has the right to reject all bids under proper circumstances, but denying that the proper circumstances for rejecting bids existed herein. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 3) Petitioner notes that in its answer, the Board admitted that petitioner was low bidder. Lastly, petitioner avers that > [s]ince this dispute began, the Newark School District['s] position and statements have contained several inconsistencies.

> (Id. at p. 4)

Upon a careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that the District's rejection of all bids for the window repair work at the Oliver Street School was a reasonable and proper exercise of its discretion and that bids were not rejected solely because a protest had been filed.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL for the reasons expressed therein and dismisses the within Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 11, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 11, 1997

111-97

P.A.A. and A.O.A., on behalf of minor child, A.A.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY, AND JACQUELINE L. CUSACK,

RESPONDENTS.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

MARCH 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3006-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 20-1/96

P.A.A. and A.O.A. on behalf of A.A.,
Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, and JACQUELINE A. CUSACK, Respondents,
and
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD, Counterclaimant,
v.
P.A.A. and A.O.A. on behalf of A.A.,
Counterclaimant-Respondent.

Olubukola O. Adetula, Esq., for petitioners

Joanne L. Butler, Esq., for respondents,
(Schenck, Price, Smith & King, for respondent)

Record Closed: December 31, 1996 Decided: January 22, 1997

BEFORE: ELINOR R. REINER, ALJ:

On January 23, 1996, petitioners P.A.A. and A.O.A. on behalf of A.A., filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education alleging that A.A. was wrongfully denied admission into the South Orange-Maplewood school district as a student eligible for free public education within the school district. Respondents filed an answer and counterclaim on February 21, 1996, alleging that petitioners failed to satisfy the domicile and affidavit provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and seeking dismissal of the petition. Respondents also counterclaimed for tuition for the period of ineligible attendance of A.A. in respondent school district. On March 5, 1996, the Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The matter was assigned to the undersigned judge on April 9, 1996, and a telephone prehearing conference scheduled for July 10, 1996. The prehearing conference was held on that date, at which time the issues were isolated and a hearing scheduled for December 5 and 6, 1996 at the Office of Administrative Law, 185 Washington Street, Newark, New Jersey. As a result of settlement conferences held between the parties, a settlement was reached and the hearing was adjourned.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached Stipulation of Settlement and Mutual Withdrawal of Pleadings, indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms, and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement, as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 22, 1997
DATE

Elinor R. Reiner
ELINOR R. REINER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/27/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 28 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harnek
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

DEC 31 10 42 AM '96

SCHENCK, PRICE, SMITH & KING
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

CLINTON J. CURTIS
JAMES E. DAVIDSON
JULIUS J. DENZLER*
WILLIAM C. DODD
WILLARD BERGMAN, JR.*
EDWARD WARD AHART*
THOMAS C.C. HUMICK*
SIDNEY A. SAYOVITZA
DOUGLAS S. BRIERLEY*
EDWARD JOHN TRAWINSKI*
HOWARD P. SHAW
GILBERT S. LEEDS*
MONICA E. PECK
ANITA JOY SIEGEL
LISA K. PANTEL
JAMES P. WYSE

MICHAEL K. MULLEN
M. SHEILAH O'HALLORAN
ANNE E. ARONOVITCH
JOHN M. DE MARCO*
JOHN M. ELIAS*▲
MICHAEL A. MORONEY▲
GREGORY J. COFFEY
ANTHONY F. DELLA PELLE*
JAMES B. GARLAND
JAMES A. RYBKA

BARBARA W. STOLLER*
JOANNE L. BUTLER
IVAN J. WHITTENBURG†
KATHLEEN M. ABBOTT
PAUL S. WEIDLICH*

JEFFREY T. LAROSA*
MARYBETH W. FAHEY*
ERIC A. INGLIS†
MELANIE E. MARMION
MEREDITH L. GROCOTT

OF COUNSEL
CLIFFORD W. STARRETT
BEN D. WHITE
PATTI S. LIBERMAN
KENNETH J. QUINN*

*CERTIFIED CIVIL TRIAL ATTORNEY
*ALSO MEMBER N.Y. BAR
▲ALSO MEMBER D.C. BAR
†ALSO MEMBER PA. BAR

10 WASHINGTON STREET
P.O. BOX 905
MORRISTOWN, N.J. 07963-0905

TELEPHONE (201) 539-1000
TELECOPIER (201) 540-7300

NEW YORK OFFICE
101 PARK AVENUE
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10178-3898
(212) 986-6482

December 30, 1996

The Honorable Elinor R. Reiner
Office of Administrative Law
185 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Re: Adeniran for A.A. v. South Orange/Maplewood Board of Education Agency Reference #20-1/96
Our File No. 12459-0037

Dear Judge Reiner:

Enclosed for filing, please find an original and two (2) copies of executed Stipulation of Settlement and Mutual Withdrawal.

Kindly return one copy stamped "filed" in the enclosed envelope.

Your Honor's courtesy and attention in this regard have been greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Joanne L. Butler

Joanne L. Butler

JLB:ss
Enclosures
cc: Olubukola O. Adetula, Esq.

F:\APPS\SSOLDATA\WPJLB\195440.1

DEC 31 10 42 AM '96

SCHENCK, PRICE, SMITH & KING
Attorneys at Law
10 Washington Street
P. O. Box 905
Morristown, New Jersey 07963-0905
(201) 539-1000
Attorneys for Respondents South Orange/
Maplewood Board of Education and Jacqueline L. Cusack

PEJU O. ADEBO-ADENIRAN; AMOS OLADEJO ABOYADE and AYOADE ABOYADE, Petitioner, v. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD, and JACQUELINE L. CUSACK, Respondent.	STATE OF NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAK DKT NO. EDUOS 03006-96N AGENCY REF. NO. 20-1/96
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD, Counterclaimant, v. PEJU O. ADEBO-ADENIRAN and AMOS OLADEJO ABOYADE, Counterclaim Respondents.	STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND MUTUAL WITHDRAWAL OF PLEADINGS

Petitioners/Counterclaim Respondents Peju O. Adebo-Adeniran Amos Oladejo Aboyade and Ayoade Aboyade, and Respondent/ Counterclaimant Board of Education of the School District of South Orange and Maplewood, and Respondent Dr. Jacqueline Cusack herein stipulate as follows:

1. This settlement is being made without any admission of liability or wrongdoing on the part of any party and is for the purpose of amicably resolving this dispute. The parties specifically deny any wrongdoing or liability relating to any other party's claim.

2. The parties waive any and all claims which were or could have been asserted in the within action or any other action, including attorneys fees and damages pursuant to any federal or State constitutional or civil rights claims, and specifically release the other parties from any claims arising out of or related to these claims.

3. The pupil A.A. will be permitted to continue to attend District schools so long as he satisfies the statutory criteria set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, et seq. Petitioner Amos Oladejo Aboyade must complete all resident registration documents and satisfy all registration criteria.

4. As a result of the foregoing, Petitioners hereby withdraw the Petition filed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, with prejudice, and Respondent/Counterclaimant hereby withdraws its Counterclaim pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, with prejudice.

PETITIONERS

Peju O. Adebo-Adeniran

Amos Oladejo Aboyade

Ayoade Aboyade

RESPONDENT BOARD OF EDUCATION OF SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD

BY:

Respondent Dr. Jacqueline Cusack

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3006-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 20-1/96

P.A.A. and A.O.A., on behalf of minor child, A.A.,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY, AND JACQUELINE L. CUSACK,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 11, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 11, 1997

112-96

EDU #8770-95
C # 112-96
SB # 32-96
C # 68-97R
SB # 26-97

J.B., on behalf of her grandchild, R.H.,	:
PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF OCEAN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 25, 1996

Decision on motion by the State Board of Education, October 2, 1996

Remanded by the State Board of Education, December 4, 1996

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, February 11, 1997

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Klausner & Hunter (Stephen B. Hunter, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Kramer, Kramer & Kilgallen (Honora O'Brien Kilgallen, Esq., of Counsel)

For the amicus curiae New Jersey School Boards Association, Donna M. Kaye, Esq.

This case commenced in August 1995 when J.B. (hereinafter "petitioner") filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education challenging the determination of the Board of Education of the Township of Ocean (hereinafter "Board") that her grandson, R.H., who was living with her within the district, was not entitled to a free public education in the district's schools.

9/3/97

On February 6, 1996, following a hearing, an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") concluded that petitioner had failed to establish that R.H.'s parents were not capable of supporting or providing care for him due to a family or economic hardship, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1).[1] The ALJ stressed that "the only reason enunciated by petitioner for R.H. not living with his parents is because of family discord and because R.H. is much happier living with his grandmother." Initial Decision, slip op. at 10. The ALJ concluded that "this is not a legally sufficient reason for providing a free public education to a nonresident under the...statutory provisions." Id. Accordingly, the ALJ recommended dismissing the petition and directing petitioner to pay tuition to the Board for R.H.'s attendance in the District's schools.

On March 25, 1996, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's recommended decision. The Commissioner agreed with the ALJ that petitioner had established that R.H. was being kept in her home and supported by her gratis and that petitioner had

---

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 provides, in pertinent part:

> Public schools shall be free to the following persons over five and under 20 years of age:
> a. Any person who is domiciled within the school district;
> b. (1) Any person who is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and is supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child, upon filing by such other person with the secretary of the board of education of the district, if so required by the board, a sworn statement that he is domiciled within the district and is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends so to keep and support the child gratuitously for a longer time than merely through the school term, and a copy of his lease if a tenant, or a sworn statement by his landlord acknowledging his tenancy if residing as a tenant without a written lease, and upon filing by the child's parent or guardian with the secretary of the board of education a sworn statement that he is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship and that the child is not residing with the resident of the district solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district. The statement shall be accompanied by documentation to support the validity of the sworn statements....

assumed all personal obligations for R.H. with regard to school requirements. However, in contrast to the ALJ, the Commissioner found that "[t]he unique and compelling circumstances present in this matter...rise to the level of constituting family hardship sufficient to meet the standard of the pertinent statute." Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 15. Accordingly, he concluded that "petitioner has demonstrated that R.H.'s parents are not capable of providing care for him due to family hardship, thereby establishing R.H.'s entitlement to a free public education in the School District of the Township of Ocean." Id. at 15-16. The Board filed an appeal from that decision to the State Board.

In a decision dated December 4, 1996, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner, explaining that:

> The express language of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) requires more than simply a finding of family hardship in order for a child kept in the home of another person domiciled within the district to be entitled to a free public education in that district. Rather, the hardship must be of such nature that the parents or guardian are not capable of supporting the child or providing care as a result of that hardship. The Commissioner found that the circumstances herein "[rose] to the level of constituting family hardship sufficient to meet the standard of the pertinent statute," Commissioner's decision, slip op. at 15, but only indicated that R.H.'s parents were not capable of providing care to him as a result of that hardship in conclusory fashion in the last line of his decision. Consequently, it is unclear to us whether the Commissioner applied the proper standard in determining this matter.

State Board's decision, slip op. at 3-4.

Thus, our decision stressed that N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) provides a two-part test for establishing hardship. Under the statute, there must not only be a "family or economic hardship," but the child's parent or guardian must also be "incapable of supporting or providing care for the child due to [that] hardship." It is also evident from the express language of the statute that neither the hardship nor the resultant incapability of the parent or guardian to provide care need be financial in nature.

As a result, we found it necessary to remand this matter to the Commissioner for a determination under the specific standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) of whether R.H. was entitled to a free public education in Ocean Township, as well as for an articulation of his reasons for any rejection or modification of the ALJ's recommendation in conformity with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6(b). Under the circumstances, we also directed that, in order to avoid any unnecessary disruption to R.H., he could continue to attend public school in Ocean Township free of charge pending a final determination on remand by the Commissioner.

On February 11, 1997, the Commissioner issued a decision on remand in which he reaffirmed his previous determination that R.H. was entitled to a free public education in Ocean Township. The Commissioner, in reliance upon the testimony as summarized by the ALJ,[2] found that "the mere fact that the family strife in this matter has continued, despite an apparent recognition of the serious and detrimental effects of such conflict on R.H., suggests that R.H.'s parents, sadly, are incapable of meeting his emotional, social and developmental needs." Commissioner's Decision on Remand, slip op. at 2-3. The Commissioner did not conduct additional hearings or reopen the record for purposes of this decision.

[2] We note that the parties did not provide the Commissioner or the State Board with a copy of the transcript from the hearing held in the Office of Administrative Law in this matter until August 28, when the Board sent a copy to us after the deadline for filing exceptions to the report of our Legal Committee.

The Board has filed the instant appeal to the State Board from the decision of the Commissioner on remand.

After a careful review of the record, we again remand this matter to the Commissioner.

We reiterate that N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) provides, inter alia, that a child kept in the home of another person domiciled within the district is entitled to a free public education in that district if the parent or guardian of the child "is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship." That language was added to the statute by L.1993, c. 380, § 1, effective January 11, 1994.

In this case, we are hesitant to conclude solely on the basis of the record before us, which did not include a copy of the transcript of the hearing held in the Office of Administrative Law,[3] that petitioner has demonstrated R.H.'s entitlement to a free public education in Ocean Township. However, we were also unable to determine on the basis of this record whether petitioner was provided with an adequate opportunity to demonstrate such entitlement under the proper legal standard, i.e., that R.H.'s parents are not currently capable of supporting him or providing care due to the existence of a family or economic hardship. We stress in that regard that the Commissioner did not conduct additional hearings prior to rendering his decision on remand, relying solely on the ALJ's summary of the testimony in rejecting the ALJ's legal conclusion.

Under these circumstances, and taking into consideration the fact that the 1994 amendment to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) significantly modified the statutory standard, we are compelled to remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings in order to ensure that petitioner is provided with a sufficient opportunity to demonstrate R.H.'s entitlement to a free public education in the schools of Ocean Township under the express standard set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b).[4] We emphasize that in order to satisfy that standard, the family or economic hardship must be real and demonstrable, evincing a current incapability on the part of R.H.'s parents to support him or provide care as the result of that hardship.

[3] See n.2, supra.

As in our previous decision, we direct that R.H. may continue to attend public school in Ocean Township free of charge pending a final determination by the Commissioner on the instant remand.

We do not retain jurisdiction.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

[4] We note, in response to exceptions filed by the Board to the report of our Legal Committee, that there is nothing in our decision that would preclude the Commissioner from reviewing the transcript of the hearing held in the Office of Administrative Law, which is now part of the record in this matter. See n.2, supra.

113-97

ANNE PETERS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MARLBORO, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7845-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. 243-7/95

ANNE PETERS,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MARLBORO,

Respondent.

Stephen B. Hunter, Esq., for petitioner (Klausner & Hunter, attorneys)

Rodney T. Hara, Esq., for respondent (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 8, 1997 Decided: January 23, 1997

BEFORE SOLOMON A. METZGER, ALJ:

This matter arises out of a petition filed with the Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14, and regulations promulgated thereunder. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The parties have now submitted a Resolution and Release in the matter which is annexed. Having reviewed the terms of settlement and it appearing that it fully disposes of issues in controversy, I CONCLUDE that this matter is no longer a contested case before the Office of Administrative Law. It is ORDERED that the parties comply with the terms of settlement and that these proceedings be and hereby are concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

1/23/97
DATE

SOLOMON A. METZGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/27/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 29 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

/cat

KLAUSNER & HUNTER

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Stephen E. Klausner○
Stephen B. Hunter

James P. Madden
David L. Rosenberg

○Member NJ and NY Bars

Somerville Office:
63 E. High Street
P.O. Box 1012
Somerville, NJ 08876
(908) 685-1552
(908) 526-8233 (fax)

New York Office:
936 Sheridan Avenue
Bronx, NY 10451
(718) 352-6022

January 2, 1997

Reply to: Somerville

Honorable Solomon Metzger
Office of Administrative Law
9 Quakerbridge Plaza
CN 049
Trenton, N.J. 08625

RE: ANNE PETERS vs. MARLBORO TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION
DOCKET NO. EDUOR 97845-95S
AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 243-7/95

Dear Judge Metzger:

Enclosed please find the executed Settlement Agreement and pertinent Board resolution resolving the above captioned matter. The settlement, in pertinent part, resulted in the restoration of the increments at issue in this proceeding.

In light of this settlement Petitioner wishes to withdraw the above captioned Petition of Appeal.

Please contact me if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephen B. Hunter

SBH/vjb
Enclosures
cc: Rod Hara, Esq.
Anne Peters
Marc Abramson

Marlboro Township Public Schools

1980 TOWNSHIP DRIVE, MARLBORO, NEW JERSEY 07746-2298

TELEPHONE: (908) 972-2010
FAX: (908) 972-2003

GAIL BECKER
GLORIA FISCHKIN
JOYCE FITZMAURICE
CYNTHIA GREEN
MURRAY HOFFMAN
MARK ORENZOW
ADAM VICTOR REED

CAROL MAJONIS
PRESIDENT

WARREN BRUMEL
VICE PRESIDENT

ANNETTE BUNTING
BOARD SECRETARY/BUSINESS ADMINISTRATOR

MARC GASWIRTH
ACTING SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

RESOLUTION

On motion of Adam Reed, seconded by Mark Orenzow, the Acting Superintendent of Schools submitted the following resolution for approval:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the salaries of employee number 069592, whose name is on file in the office of the Board Secretary/Business Administrator, be adjusted as indicated below:

School Year	From	To
9/1/95 through 6/30/96	$ 56,420.00* Per Annum	$ 58,470.00 Per Annum
9/1/96 through 6/30/97	58,620.00 Per Annum	60,670.00 Per Annum

* Includes $2,100.00 longevity
 Includes $2,500.00 longevity
 Includes $2,900.00 longevity

The resolution was approved and adopted by a vote of 5-0.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THE ABOVE TO BE A TRUE AND EXACT COPY OF RESOLUTION APPROVED AND ADOPTED ON DECEMBER 17, 1996.

Annette Bunting

ANNETTE BUNTING
BOARD SECRETARY/BUSINESS ADMINISTRATOR

DEC17PER.WPD

RELEASE

This Release, dated November , 1996 , is given

BY the Releasor(s) ANNE PETERS referred to as "I",

TO MARLBORO TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION and present and former members, officers, employees and agents, referred to as "You".

If more than one person signs this Release, "I" shall mean each person who signs this Release.

1. Release. I release and give up any and all claims and rights which I may have against you. This releases all claims, including those of which I am not aware and those not mentioned in this Release. This Release applies to claims resulting from anything which has happened up to now. I specifically release the following claims:

Any and all claims that pertain to any decision or action of the Board of Education, Harvey Abramson and any other member, officer, employee or agent of the Board of Education which are connected to or related to my employment with the Board of Education, except for a workers' compensation claim bearing case number 96-024014 and the prosecution of two grievances bearing docket numbers AR-96-75 and AR-96-488. No other administrative complaint or civil action may, however, be filed against the releasees in connection with the workers' compensation claim and grievances.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF MONMOUTH SS.: 144-32-7399

I CERTIFY that on NOV. 29, 1996,

ANNE C. PETERS personally came before me and stated under oath to my satisfaction that:

(a) this person was the subscribing witness to the signing of the attached instrument;

(b) this instrument was signed by ANNE C. PETERS who is TEACHER of HARLBORO MIDDLE SCHOOL the entity named in this instrument, and was fully authorized to and did execute this instrument on its behalf; and,

(c) the subscribing witness signed this proof under oath to attest to the truth of these facts.

Signed and sworn to before me on , 19 .

(Print name of witness below signature)

(Print name and title below signature)

RELEASE

Dated: November , 19 96

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7845-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 243-7/95

ANNE PETERS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MARLBORO, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 11, 1997

114-97

114-97

FRANK KARTAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF NORTH ARLINGTON, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, tenured guidance counselor, alleged the Board violated his tenure rights when it assigned him one period of math teaching duties in addition to his primary responsibilities as a guidance counselor.

ALJ concluded that the Board properly exercised its managerial prerogative when it assigned petitioner to teach one math class in addition to his regular counseling duties as the assignment was within the scope of his instructional certificate. ALJ found that because petitioner was never "dismissed" from his guidance counselor position in any meaningful sense of the word and because he did not incur any reduction in compensation, he did not have a viable tenure claim. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision, clarifying that petitioner's assignment to teach one algebra period per day did not constitute a "transfer" from one position to another unlike petitioners in Childs and Gerdes. Petitioner herein remained in a full-time counseling position, even though his counseling duties may have been alleviated correspondingly to accommodate the newly assigned math duty and he suffered no loss in status or pay.

MARCH 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11371-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. 338-8/95

FRANK KARTAN,

Petitioner,

v.

NORTH ARLINGTON

BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Gregory T. Syrek, Esq., for petitioner
(Bucceri & Pincus, attorneys)

Glenn T. Leonard, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: October 15, 1996 Decided: January 22, 1997

BEFORE KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Procedural History

This is an appeal by a tenured teaching staff member who objects to being assigned one period of teaching duties in addition to his primary responsibilities as a guidance counselor. Petitioner, who began his employment as a math teacher more than thirty years ago, has dual certification as a guidance counselor and a teacher of mathematics. For the last eighteen years, however, he had served exclusively as a high-school guidance counselor. Essentially, petitioner contends that his assignment to teach a single class of math per day violates his tenure rights as a guidance counselor acquired under his educational-services certificate. North Arlington Board of Education ("Board") maintains that it must have the flexibility to assign teaching staff anywhere they are needed within the scope of whatever certificates they possess.

Procedural History

On August 18, 1995, petitioner Frank Kartan ("Kartan") filed a verified petition with the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner"), challenging his assignment to teach one period of math per day for the 1995-96 academic year.[1] Thereafter, on October 4, 1995, the Board filed its answer. Subsequently, on October 5, 1995, the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing as a contested case. The OAL held a hearing on September 11, 1996. Witnesses and exhibits are listed in the appendix.

Findings of Fact

Most of the material facts have been stipulated by the parties.[2] I FIND:

Petitioner was employed by the Board as a teaching staff member for thirty-two years prior to the start of the 1995-96 school year. He began his service in the district as a teacher of mathematics. He was properly certified for such employment.[3] He was

---

[1] The parties entered into a factual stipulation covering Kartan's continued assignment in the 1996-97 academic year. Thus, the controversy extends to the current academic year as well.

[2] References to the supporting joint exhibits have been omitted.

[3] Petitioner possessed a provisional instructional certificate with an endorsement as teacher of mathematics issued in June 1963 and a permanent certificate issued in January 1968. N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2(a)(14).

employed as a full-time teacher of mathematics for the 1963-64 through 1971-71 school years inclusive and the 1972-74 through 1976-77 school years inclusive. He was employed in a guidance position for the 1972-73 school year. By virtue of his service and certification, petitioner gained tenure in a teaching position.[4]

For the 1977-78 through 1994-95 school years, inclusive, petitioner was employed as a full-time high school guidance counselor. He was properly certified for such employment.[5] By virtue of his service and certification, petitioner gained tenure as a guidance counselor.[6]

On June 19, 1995, the Board adopted a resolution approving various staff transfers for the 1995-96 school year, including the assignment of Frank Kartan "to the middle school for one period per day to serve as a certified math teacher." Petitioner was notified of the Board's action in a letter dated June 21, 1995. Respondent did not abolish any guidance counselor positions for the 1995-96 school year. Petitioner's compensation was not reduced by virtue of his assignment to teach one period of mathematics per day for the 1995-96 school year.[7] For the 1995-96 school year, petitioner was assigned to teach Algebra I to eighth grade pupils at respondent's middle school. This class was taught during the school's 0 period, which began at 7:10 a.m.[8]

---

[4] N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(b) provides that tenure accrues to teachers after employment in a school district for "three consecutive academic years, together with employment at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year."

[5]Petitioner possessed a provisional educational-services certificate with an endorsement in student personnel services issued in September 1972 and a permanent certificate issued in April 1973.

[6] N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 (b) confers tenure on any tenured or tenure-eligible teaching staff member who is transferred or promoted to a new position after "employment for two academic years in the new position together with employment in the new position at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year.:

[7]Guidance counselors in the district are paid on the same salary scale as teachers.
[8]A "zero period" is an extra period which takes place before the start of the regular school day.

On June 26, 1996, the respondent took action to transfer the petitioner to the middle school for Algebra I for the 1996-97 school year. Petitioner was notified of the respondent's action in a letter dated July 2, 1996. Respondent abolished an elementary guidance counselor position for the 1996-97 school year. Petitioner's compensation was not reduced by virtue of his assignment to teach mathematics one period per day. For the 1996-97 school year, petitioner has been assigned to teach Algebra I to eighth grade-pupils at respondent's middle school. The class is taught during the school's Period 2.

A job description adopted by the Board requires that a high school guidance counselor must have a certificate endorsed for student personnel services and must demonstrate "[a]t least five years of successful teaching experience." In addition to enumerated duties pertaining to counseling students and consulting with teachers and parents, a guidance counselor must be willing "[t]o accept and carry out additional professional responsibilities as requested by the building principal or Director of Student Personnel Services."

Over petitioner's objection, Dr. Jerilyn Caprio, the district's superintendent of schools, was allowed to testify about the educational reasons for Mr. Kartan's assignment. While petitioner does not seriously challenge the accuracy of her testimony, he argues that, as a matter of law, such reasons are irrelevant to a determination of his statutory tenure rights. According to Dr. Caprio, Kartan's transfer resulted from a consolidation of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades at the newly expanded middle school building. This change took two years of planning to accomplish. Previously, the eighth grade had been housed with the upper grades at the high school. The Board wanted to offer Algebra I to eighth graders, so that students would have an opportunity to take five years of mathematics before graduation. Due to scheduling conflicts in the middle school, Algebra I could only be scheduled for zero period. All of the other teachers certified to teach math were already teaching five classes, including Period 8 which is the last class of the day. None of them could be released earlier in the afternoon to compensate for having to come in earlier in the morning to teach a zero-period class. Mr. Kartan was the only other teaching staff member in the district qualified to teach algebra.[9] Moreover, he enjoyed "a wonderful reputation as a math teacher."

Since the consolidation meant that the eighth-grade students became the responsibility of the middle school guidance counselor, Mr. Kartan's counseling load at the high school was correspondingly reduced. Last year, 116 eighth graders previously served by high-school guidance counselors were redistributed to the middle-school guidance counselor. School administrators were able to adjust Mr. Kartan's schedule so that he could teach Period 0 and finish his counseling duties at the end of Period 7. Consequently, his total number of working hours remained unchanged. He merely came to work and left one period early. In the current year, the district was able to revise Mr. Kartan's schedule so he could teach algebra during the regular school day.

Financial constraints in a district operating under a cap waiver caused the Board to reduce teaching staff in 1996-97. The superintendent is under instructions from the Board not to hire any new teachers. Even if adequate funds were available, Dr. Caprio emphasized the practical difficulty of recruiting a properly-certified math teacher willing to work only one period per day.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that the Board properly exercised its managerial prerogative when it assigned petitioner to teach one math class in addition to his regular counseling duties.

Tenure is designed to protect capable teaching staff from dismissal "for unfounded, flimsy or political reasons." Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 63, [9] Although an elementary endorsement allows one to teach the so-called "common branch subjects," such as reading, writing, and arithmetic, in the secondary schools, it does not permit the teaching of higher mathematics, including algebra. See N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2(a)(6).

73 (1982). Accord, Zimmerman v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 38 N.J. 65, 71 (1962), cert. den. 371 U.S. 956, 83 S.Ct. 508, 9 L. Ed. 2d 502 (1963). It aids in the establishment of a competent and efficient school system "by affording to principals and teachers a measure of security in the ranks they hold after years of service." Viemeister v. Prospect Park Bd. of Educ., 5 N.J. Super. 215, 218 (App. Div. 1949). In general, an educator achieves tenure by serving a probationary period under a particular certificate.[10] Dennery v. Passaic Cty. Reg. High Sch. Dist. #1, 131 N.J. 626, 632-635 (1993). School employees are entitled to tenure if they (1) work in a position for which a teaching certificate is required; (2) hold the appropriate certificate; and (3) serve the requisite period of time. Spiewak, at 74

Both sides concur that Mr. Kartan has attained tenure in the position of teacher and separately in the position of guidance counselor. Initially, he accrued tenure as a teacher by serving under his instructional certificate for the requisite statutory period of three academic years and one day. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. Later, he also accrued tenure as a guidance counselor by serving under his educational-services certificate for two academic years and one day. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6. Although the parties agree on Mr. Kartan's tenure status, they differ on the extent of his tenure rights. Petitioner asserts that the Board may not transfer him to a position outside the scope of his educational-services certificate, absent his consent or a reduction in force. But the Board maintains that it retains the managerial discretion to assign him to duties within the scope of his instructional certificate.

School boards have express statutory authority to transfer teaching staff members "by a recorded roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board." N.J.S.A. 18A:25-1. Furthermore, they retain the general power to "perform all acts and do all things, consistent with law and the rules of the state board, necessary for the lawful and proper conduct, equipment and maintenance of the public schools of the district." N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(d). Teacher transfers and reassignments are not mandatorily negotiable terms and conditions of employment. New Jersey's highest court recognizes the importance of a school board's "managerial duty to deploy personnel in the manner which it considers most likely to promote the overall goal of providing all students with a thorough and efficient education." Ridgefield Park Educ. Ass'n v. Ridgefield Park Bd. of Educ., 78 N.J. 144, 156 (1978). Courts have upheld the transfer of a teacher from the high school to the junior high school, Greenway v. Camden Bd. of Educ., 129 N.J.L. 46 (Sup. Ct. 1942), aff'd 129 N.J.L. 461 (E. & A. 1942), or of a principal from the high school to the middle school, Williams v. Plainfield Bd. of Educ., 176 N.J. Super. 154 (App. Div. 1980), certif. den. 87 N.J. 306 (1981), even though the prospect of future salary increases may be lessened. See also, Downs v. Hoboken Bd. of Educ., 12 N. J. Misc. 345 (Sup. Ct. 1934), aff'd sub. nom. Fletcher v. Hoboken Bd. of Educ., 113 N.J.L. 401 (E. & A. 1934) (transfer of teachers to schools about to be closed); Cheesman v. Gloucester City Bd. of Educ., 1 N.J. Misc. 318 (Sup. Ct. 1923) (transfer of teacher from seventh and eighth grade classes at one school to fifth and sixth grade classes at another). Similarly, the Commissioner has ruled that "[n]o teacher, in acquiring a tenure status, is guaranteed continuity of assignment or thereby acquires a vested right to any particular assignment, class or school." Bigart v. Paramus Bd. of Educ., 1979 S.L.D. 123, 131 (Comm'r Feb. 23, 1979).

[10]State regulations establish three types of certificates: instructional, administrative, and educational services. N.J.A.C. 6:11-2.3. Dennery, at 633.

Each of these cases, however, involved the transfer of teaching staff members to different duties under the same certificate, as opposed to the present circumstances where Mr. Kartan continued his guidance duties under his educational-services certificate and assumed additional teaching duties under his instructional certificate. Support for petitioner's claim may be derived from Childs v. Union Twp. Bd. of Educ., 1980 S.L.D. 1134 (Comm'r Sept. 29, 1980), aff'd 1981 S.L.D. 1404 (St. Bd. April 1, 1981), aff'd No. A-3603-80T1 (N.J. App. Div. July 19, 1982) [unofficially reported at 1982 S.L.D. 1456], certif. den. 91 N.J. 550 (1982), in which the Appellate Division held that a staff member had acquired tenure as a guidance counselor and, therefore, that the district could not transfer her involuntarily to her former tenured position as a teacher. Its reasoning was that the transfer to a position requiring a different certificate constitutes a "dismissal" within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, which prohibits the dismissal of a tenured staff member except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct or other just cause.

Several features distinguish Childs from our own case. Unlike Childs where the guidance counselor was switched to a full-time teaching position, here Mr. Kartan remained as a guidance counselor and was merely asked to teach one class in addition to his regular duties. In Childs, a vacancy was created in the guidance-counselor position which the board sought to fill with someone else, whereas Mr. Kartan continued as a high-school guidance counselor, albeit (like the other high-school guidance counselors in the district) he was relieved of some of his heavy caseload due to the transfer of eighth-grade students to the middle school. While the school administration in Childs posted a notice advertising for the guidance counselor's successor, the Board did not seek a replacement for Mr. Kartan. None of the evidence in Childs disclosed any valid educational reason for the transfer, while here the Board had the genuine educational purpose of strengthening its curriculum with an added year of mathematics. Although in Childs the petitioner suffered a reduction in compensation and a shortening of the school year, Mr. Kartan did not lose any salary or work any less number of hours. In short, Mr. Kartan's situation is substantially different from the factual pattern in Childs which the Appellate Division regarded as tantamount to a "dismissal" from her tenured position as a guidance counselor.

Other cases on which petitioner relies are equally dissimilar. For instance, Gerdes v. Spotswood Bd. of Educ., 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 168 (Comm'r Feb. 6, 1992) involved a school employee with tenure as a teacher under an instructional certificate and tenure as a cooperative-education coordinator under an educational-services certificate. She split her day between work performed under her instructional certificate and work performed under her educational services certificate. When the school board gave her cooperative-education duties to another person and assigned petitioner to full-time teaching duties, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's analysis that petitioner's tenure rights had been violated. Analogizing the situation to one in which a tenured principal was reassigned back to a full-time classroom position, the ALJ commented, "While it is acknowledged a school principal may be assigned to teach certain classes, there is no authority for a transfer from a tenure principal position to a full-time teaching position." 92 N.J.A.R. 2d at 170 (Emphasis added). Thus, the deciding factor in Gerdes appears to be that petitioner was deprived of all cooperative-education responsibilities and relegated to a full-time teaching position. As noted earlier, nobody else edged Mr. Kartan out of his counseling duties and he continues to serve the district in the same capacity as a high-school guidance counselor.

Another case cited by petitioner, Ayoub v. South Plainfield Bd. of Educ., 1988 S.L.D. 941 (Comm'r May 24, 1988), deals mainly with the unrelated issue of whether a school superintendent had the implied authority to act on behalf of the school board in assigning teaching staff. After working many years as a teacher, the petitioner in Ayoub was transferred to a coordinator position, where he remained for nearly six years. Despite the lack of any board resolution approving the transfer, the Commissioner held that petitioner had acquired tenure both as a teacher and as a coordinator. Later, the petitioner was transferred back to a full-time teaching position, while a recently-hired employee continued in the one remaining coordinator position. The Commissioner determined that the petitioner's reassignment to full-time teaching duties violated his tenure as a coordinator. Again, the situation is different from our own, in that Mr. Kartan did not actually forfeit his guidance position and was not replaced by someone without tenure.

Because Mr. Kartan was never "dismissed" from his guidance-counselor position in any meaningful sense of the word and because he did not incur any reduction in compensation, he does not have a viable tenure claim. Instead, the Board was merely exercising its inherent managerial prerogative to utilize its existing staff most efficiently and effectively. Boards of education find it advantageous to hire teaching staff with dual certification because of the greater flexibility it affords in scheduling classes and assigning staff. Here the Board's decision was based on valid educational reasons, notably curriculum needs and staffing conflicts in the district. It was not designed as a subterfuge to circumvent the tenure law, see Ayoub, supra, nor did it have the incidental effect of eroding "tenure rights which appear plain on the face of the statute." Compare Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Educ., 221 N.J. Super. 239, 243 (App. Div. 1987)

(full-time tenured art teacher reduced to part-time employment, while the district still retained a full-time nontenured art teacher.) Moreover, the proofs suggest that it would be economically impractical to hire a teacher for just one class. Recently, the New Jersey Supreme Court emphasized that application of the tenure system in individual cases must be sensitive to the legitimate concerns of professional educators:

> Courts will be vigilant to assure the proper application of the school laws and to forestall capricious or arbitrary administrative action. However, the courts cannot supplant educators; they are not at liberty to interfere with regulatory and administrative judgments of the professional in the field of public education unless those judgments are palpably arbitrary or depart from governing law.
>
> Dennery, 131 N.J. at 643.

Order

It is ORDERED that the relief requested by petitioner Frank Kartan is denied.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan. 22, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/27/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 28 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harnack
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

APPENDIX

List of Witnesses

1. Dr. Jerilyn Caprio, superintendent of schools, North Arlington public school district

List of Exhibits

No.	Description
J-1	Copy of personnel record for Frank Kartan, covering the period 1963-64 to 1995-96
J-2	Copy of portion of the minutes of a public meeting of the Board of Education of North Arlington, held on June 19, 1995
J-3	Copy of letter to Frank Kartan from Dr. Jerilyn M. Caprio, dated June 21, 1995
J-4	Copy of letter to Frank Kartan from Dr. Jerilyn M. Caprio, dated July 2, 1996
J-5	Copy of job description for school counselor/high school/ grades 7 through 12, undated

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11371-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 338-8/95

FRANK KARTAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF NORTH ARLINGTON, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner initially asserts that the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) improperly examines claims of flexibility, educational policy and management prerogative as justification for circumventing the tenure laws. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 1) Petitioner reasons that either his transfer " out of his tenure certification area violates his statutory tenure rights  or it does not. The reasons given by the Board to justify a potential violation of statute have no bearing or relevance whatsoever." (Id. at pp. 3, 4) Issues of flexibility and management prerogative, petitioner maintains, cannot be used to defeat tenure rights.

Additionally, for the reasons set forth in briefings before the OAL, and duly considered by the ALJ, petitioner maintains that his tenure rights were violated by the Board.

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner finds petitioner's exception arguments to be unpersuasive and, thus, determines to affirm the initial decision of the ALJ, with clarification as provided herein. Under the particular circumstances of this matter, the Commissioner finds that petitioner's assignment to teach one algebra period per day, while still maintaining his position as a guidance counselor, simply does not constitute a "transfer" from one position to another in the manner contemplated by the school law decisions which he has invoked as applicable. As the ALJ aptly noted, unlike the petitioners in Childs, supra, and Gerdes, supra, petitioner remains in a full-time counseling position, although his counseling duties may have been alleviated correspondingly to accommodate the newly assigned algebra duty, and has suffered no loss in status or pay. The Commissioner thus determines that the Board's action in this matter, notwithstanding the choice of wording in its resolution, constituted nothing more than a revision of petitioner's duties to require that he teach one class period per day. This assignment, as concluded by the ALJ, was a good faith exercise of the Board's managerial discretion and resulted in no loss to petitioner. See Frank Gargano v. Board of Education of the Township of Union, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 670, 673. Thus, petitioner's tenure rights pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 are not violated.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein as clarified above. The Petition of Appeal is dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 11, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 11, 1997

114-97

EDU #11371-95
C # 114-97
SB # 33-97

FRANK KARTAN,

PETITIONER-APPELLANT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF NORTH ARLINGTON, BERGEN COUNTY,

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 11, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Gregory T. Syrek, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Glenn T. Leonard, Esq.

The facts herein are not in dispute. Frank Kartan (hereinafter "petitioner"), a tenured teaching staff member, alleged that the Board of Education of the Borough of North Arlington (hereinafter "Board") had violated his tenure rights when it "transferred" him to teach one class of mathematics per day in the 1995-96 and 1996-97 school years in addition to his regular duties as a high school guidance counselor. In order to accommodate petitioner's new teaching responsibilities, the Board adjusted his schedule by reducing his counseling duties correspondingly. Consequently, petitioner's total number of working hours remained unchanged. Nor did he suffer any reduction in his compensation as the result of the Board's action. It is undisputed that petitioner had achieved tenure as a teacher as a result of his previous employment in the district as a teacher of mathematics. It is also undisputed that petitioner had achieved tenure under his educational services certificate as a result of his subsequent service as a guidance counselor. See Ellicott v. Board of Educ., 251 N.J. Super. 342 (App. Div. 1991).

MAY 6, 1998

Petitioner filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, alleging that the Board had violated the tenure rights he had achieved under his educational services certificate when it transferred him to a teaching position for one period per day without his consent. As summarized by the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ"), the parties agreed on petitioner's tenure status, but differed on the extent of his tenure rights: "Petitioner asserts that the Board may not transfer him to a position outside the scope of his educational-services certificate, absent his consent or a reduction in force. But the Board maintains that it retains the managerial discretion to assign him to duties within the scope of his instructional certificate." Initial Decision, slip op. at 6.

On January 22, 1997, the ALJ recommended dismissing the petition, concluding that the Board had properly exercised its managerial prerogative when it assigned petitioner to teach one period of math per day. The ALJ found that "because [petitioner] was never 'dismissed' from his guidance-counselor position in any meaningful sense of the word and because he did not incur any reduction in compensation, he does not have a viable tenure claim. Instead, the Board was merely exercising its inherent managerial prerogative to utilize its existing staff most efficiently and effectively....Here the Board's decision was based on valid educational reasons, notably curriculum needs and staffing conflicts in the district. It was not designed as a subterfuge to circumvent the tenure law...." Id. at 9.

On March 11, 1997, the Commissioner adopted with clarification the ALJ's recommendation and dismissed the petition. The Commissioner agreed that petitioner's tenure rights had not been violated, finding that his assignment to teach one period of math per day, while still maintaining his position as a guidance counselor, did not constitute an improper transfer from one position to another. The Commissioner noted that petitioner remained in a full-time counseling position, although his counseling duties had been "alleviated" correspondingly to accommodate his newly assigned mathematics duty, and that he had suffered no loss in status or salary. The Commissioner concluded that the Board's action constituted nothing more than a "revision" of petitioner's duties and was a good faith exercise of the Board's managerial discretion.

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board.

After a careful review of the record, we reverse the decision of the Commissioner. We conclude that the Board's action constituted an improper transfer in violation of petitioner's tenure rights.

A district board can reassign a tenured staff member to any other assignment within the scope of his certificate, but cannot transfer him to another separately tenurable position without his consent. Howley v. Bd. of Ed. of Ewing Township, decided by the Commissioner of Education, 1982 S.L.D. 1328, aff'd by the State Board of Education, 1983 S.L.D. 1554. In a case similar to the matter now before us, Childs v. Union Twp. Bd. of Educ., Docket #A-3603-80T1, 1982 S.L.D. 1456 (App. Div. 1982), certif. denied, 91 N.J. 550 (1982), the Court affirmed this agency's determination that a teaching staff member who had achieved tenure under her educational services certificate as a result of her employment as a guidance counselor could not be transferred without her consent to a teaching position, notwithstanding the fact that she had previously achieved tenure in the district as a teacher. The Court stressed that "it is pure sophistry to assert [that the staff member's] 'transfer' is anything less than dismissal from her clearly tenured position. Such a view would render her statutory tenure in her 'new position' meaningless." 1982 S.L.D. 1456, at 1460.

In the case now before us, the Commissioner concluded that Childs was not applicable since the petitioner herein was only assigned to teach one period per day while retaining his "full-time" guidance counselor position. We disagree. Although petitioner was only transferred in part, we conclude that such action constituted an improper diminution of the statutory tenure rights he had achieved under his educational services certificate. Petitioner did not retain his full-time guidance counselor position. Rather, the Board reduced his counseling duties to part-time so as to permit him to also serve part-time under his instructional certificate.[1] Such action constituted a partial transfer from one tenured position to another and, if permitted to stand, would "erode tenure rights 'which appear plain on the face of the statute, which we are bound to recognize and which can be removed only by the Legislature.'" Ellicott, supra, at 351, quoting Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Ed., 221 N.J. Super. 239, 243 (App. Div. 1987), certif. denied, 110 N.J. 512 (1988). See Childs, supra.

The tenure laws are clear that a teaching staff member may not be dismissed from his or her tenured position except as the result of a reduction in force ("RIF")

[1] We note that the Board does not contend that its action in this case resulted from a reduction in force. Rather, the Board maintains that it acted for educational reasons and that such action constituted a proper exercise of its managerial prerogative.

effectuated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 or for just cause after a hearing as prescribed in the Tenure Employees Hearing Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 et seq. We stress in that regard that even a partial dismissal from a tenured position constitutes a reduction in force, triggering the affected staff member's tenure rights. Klinger v. Cranbury Tp. Bd. of Ed., 190 N.J. Super. 354 (App. Div. 1982), certif. denied, 93 N.J. 277 (1983) (a reduction in hours of employment is considered a reduction in force).

In this instance, petitioner was improperly removed in part from a position in which he had achieved tenure under his educational services certificate and transferred without his consent to another separately tenurable position under his instructional certificate. As in Childs, the fact that petitioner had previously achieved tenure under his instructional certificate is of no moment. Nor is this result altered by the fact that petitioner did not suffer any reduction in compensation, although it may affect the relief to which he is entitled.[2] See Carpenito v. Board of Education of the Borough of Rumson, decided by the State Board of Education, February 4, 1998; Sheffield v. New Jersey State Department of Human Services, decided by the State Board of Education, November 2, 1994; Parker and Pellegrino v. Board of Education of the Matawan-Aberdeen Regional School District, decided by the State Board of Education, May 2, 1990.

In Mirandi v. Board of Education of the Township of West Orange, decided by the State Board of Education, 1989 S.L.D. 3057, we rejected the continuing viability of an "educationally-based reasons" standard in assessing the rights of tenured staff members affected by a reduction in force. We find no basis for a different result in the case now before us, in which petitioner was partially removed from his tenured position as the result of a transfer. Statutory tenure rights afford a teaching staff member protection from dismissal or removal and may not be disturbed except under the limited circumstances described hereinabove.

[2] Petitioner does not seek back pay or other emoluments as a result of the Board's action.

Accordingly, we conclude that the Board's action in transferring petitioner to a teaching position for one period per day in 1995-96 and 1996-97 without his consent violated his tenure rights. We therefore reverse the decision of the Commissioner to dismiss the petition and, in the event that petitioner was again transferred to a teaching position in the 1997-98 school year, direct the Board to reinstate him to a full-time guidance counselor position.[3]

S. David Brandt opposed.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

May 6, 1998

Date of mailing MAY 08 1998

[3] We note that the petition herein was limited to the 1995-96 and 1996-97 school years and that the record does not indicate the current status of petitioner's employment.

115-97

115-97

VINCENT J. BASILE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE PARK, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning teacher seeking restoration of 30 sick days sought enforcement of settlement terms of the agreement reached between the parties before the Division of Workers' Compensation.

ALJ concluded that petitioner must seek a clarification of the settlement agreement terms from Division of Workers' Compensation. ALJ concluded the issue of whether the settlement agreement violated public policy was not before the OAL. The Division of Workers' Compensation is the appropriate forum with the requisite expertise to decide this question. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner affirmed the initial decision dismissing the petition as a controversy arising under the education laws.

MARCH 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. EDU 11724-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. 371-9/95

VINCENT J. BASILE

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE PARK, UNION COUNTY

Respondent.

Michael Barrett, Esq., for petitioner
(Barrett & Barrett, attorneys)

Steven Glickman, Esq., for respondent
(Ruderman & Glickman, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 9, 1996 Decided: January 22, 1997

BEFORE MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Vincent J. Basile, a teacher employed by respondent, Roselle Park Board of Education (Board), claims that he is owed 30 sick days from the Board based on the settlement agreement between the parties before the Division of Workers' Compensation. The Board argues that the Workers' Compensation settlement relieved petitioner of all sick days advanced to him by the Board and did not include a 30 days sick "bank."

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on October 24, 1995, as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52 :14B-1 to-15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A hearing was held on September 4, 1996. The parties submitted post hearing briefs and the record closed on October 11, 1996.

On November 18, 1996, I reopened the record and directed the parties to submit their positions on whether the Commissioner of Education has jurisdiction to enforce a workers' compensation claim, and if so whether the parties' agreement violates public policy. The record closed on December 9, 1996.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the evidence I FIND the following as FACT:

1. Petitioner has been employed as a teacher by the Board since 1984. (R-1).
2. Pursuant to the union contract, teaching staff are given 10 sick days each school year with the ability to carry forward unused sick days. (R-1)
3. For school year 1984-85, petitioner used 15 sick days leaving no sick days to carry forward into the next school year. (R-1)
4. For school year 1985-86, petitioner used 4 sick days and carried forward 6 sick days into the next school year. (R-1)
5. For school year 1986-87, petitioner used 3 sick days and carried forward 13 sick days into the next school year. (R-1)

6. For school year 1987-88, petitioner used 13 sick days and carried forward 10 sick days into the next school year. (R-1)

7. For school year 1988-89, petitioner used 14.5 sick days and carried forward 5.5 sick days into the next school year. (R-1)

8. For school year 1989-90, petitioner used 7 sick days and carried forward 8.5 sick days into the next school year. (R-1)

9. For school year 1990-91, petitioner used 19 sick days and had a balance of 0 sick days. (R-1)

10. For school year 1991-92, petitioner was credited with 10 sick days. As of November 5, 1991, he had used all of his sick days. (R-1). From November 6 through April 30, 1992, Basile used 59.5 sick days. Id His employee absence record reflects the sick time used: 2 days in September; 4 days in October; 5 days in November; 2 days in December; 6.5 days in January; 10 days in February; 21 days in March; and 20 days in April. Id..

12. Many of Basile's absences were related to a medical problem which resulted in his filing a Workers' Compensation claim in 1992.

13. In January 1992, petitioner requested advanced sick days until his Workers' Compensation claim was settled. The Board agreed to six weeks advanced sick time.

14. On March 16, 1992 the Board met and discussed petitioner's status. The Board agreed to extend Basile's advanced sick time for an additional six weeks. By letter dated March 24, 1992, the Board set forth the conditions of petitioner's advanced sick leave time which states in part:

> This letter will serve to confirm our recent telephone conversation...
>
> 1. The Board confirmed the administration's decision to carry Mr. Basile on sick leave until March 17, 1992.
>
> 2. The board agreed to continue Mr. Basile on "advanced" sick leave for the next six (6) weeks while you and Mr. Basile aggressively pursue his Workmen's Compensation Claim....

> 3. If the Workmen's Compensation claim is ultimately approved, Mr. Basile will receive compensation in accordance with the state Statutes and Administrative Code. If the Board finds that the Workers' compensation claim is not being aggressively pursued or the claim is ultimately denied, sick leave benefits will immediately cease and Mr. Basile will be placed on an unpaid leave of absence. Upon his return, Mr. Basile shall be responsible to "return" to the Board all advanced sick leave.
>
> Enclosed please find a copy of this correspondence with a space for your signature. If you agree with the above, please sign and immediately return to me...
>
> [R-2]

Petitioner's counsel signed the agreement. Id.

13. On April 21, 1992, the Board voted "not to extend or advance any additional sick leave to Mr. Basile" and placed him on unpaid leave. R-3.

14. On December 22, 1992, the Board notified petitioner that he had used all of his contractual sick leave for school year 1992-93 and as of that date he had one personal day remaining for the school year. P-2. Petitioner acknowledged that he "used 15 days until approximately March [1993] and then went out at a substitute pay for the balance of the year." P-4.

15. On May 18, 1995, the Division of Workers' Compensation issued an Order approving settlement with dismissal.

ISSUE

The issue is whether the Board is obligated to restore 30 sick days to petitioner based upon the parties' settlement agreement in a Workers' Compensation settlement.

DISCUSSION

Jurisdiction

Petitioner's workers' compensation claim was settled for a lump sum amount and included restoration of 60 days of advanced sick leave. However, the parties disagree as to the terms of the settlement regarding those days. Petitioner contends that he agreed to repay the Board for 30 sick leave days and "bank" the other 30 days for future sick leave time. The Board contends that the petitioner owes the Board for the total 60 sick leave days. The terms of the workers' compensation settlement are not memorialized and the only document of the agreement is the Order Approving Settlement with Dismissal dated May 18, 1995.[1] The order states that the respondent agreed to restore 60 sick days to petitioner. P-3.

Petitioner claims that under the terms of the agreement, he obligated himself to repay 30 days, not 60 days as claimed by respondent. Petitioner asserts that the Commissioner has jurisdiction to determine the terms of the agreement and to enforce the settlement. Petitioner avers that the workers' compensation court is a court of limited jurisdiction to award money damages of temporary or permanent disability payment. Thus, the Division of Workers' Compensation has no jurisdiction to order a board of education to restore sick days to petitioner. However, the Commissioner has jurisdiction under N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 to direct boards to reinstate days upon a finding that petitioner is entitled to the relief sought. Petitioner submits that to decline jurisdiction in this matter would leave him without a remedy.

Respondent argues that the OAL does not have jurisdiction to enforce a workers' compensation claim settlement. Respondent avers that Workers' Compensation statutes and regulations have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve workers' compensation claims. Further, respondent argues that petitioner's interpretation of the agreement violated public policy. Under the settlement agreement, respondent's insurance provider agreed to pay the 60 sick days advanced by respondent to petitioner as compensable under Workers' Compensation. Respondent acknowledged that it received payment for 60 days. Therefore, respondent asserted that:

[1] Several proposals and responses/counter-proposals were exchanged between the parties and are reflected in the exhibits.

> If Petitioner's position interpreting his agreement with Respondent was to be credited, it would mean that Respondent would have been paid thirty (30) days compensation by its insurance carrier without those days having been taken by Petitioner. Especially with spiraling insurance costs and escalating instances of insurance fraud, it is against public policy for an individual or entity such as Respondent to receive insurance payments for circumstances that do not exist. It would be against public policy for Respondent to receive payment from its insurance carrier for days for which Petitioner was not absent due to a compensable claim, but rather for days which Petitioner "banks" against future illness which may or may not be compensable under the Workers' Compensation Statues.
>
> [Respondent's Supplemental Brief at 4-5].

Based on the reasons discussed, I conclude that the OAL does not have jurisdiction to enforce a workers' compensation settlement

The Commissioner of Education has jurisdiction over controversies arising under the school laws pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:5-1.2(a)(1). Under the school laws, leaves of absence are governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:30-1 et seq. N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 governs sick leave for service connected disabilities. It provides as follows

> Whenever an employee, entitled to sick leave under this chapter, is absent from his post of duty as a result of a personal injury caused by an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, his employer shall pay to such employee the full salary or wages for the period of such absence for up to one calendar year without having such absence charged to the annual sick leave or the accumulated sick leave provided in sections 18A:30-2 and 18A:30-3. Salary or wage payments provided in this section shall be made for absence during the waiting period and during the period the employee received or was eligible to receive a temporary disability benefit under chapter 15 of Title 34, Labor and Workmen's Compensation, of the Revised Statutes. Any amount of salary or wages paid or payable to the employee pursuant to this section shall be reduced by the amount of any workmen's compensation award made for temporary disability.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1].

The Workers' Compensation statutes, N.J.S.A. 34:15-1 et seq., govern work related injuries. N.J.S.A. 34:15-49 provides that: "The Division of Workers' Compensation shall have the exclusive original jurisdiction of all claims for workers' compensation benefits under this chapter." Thus, both Workers' Compensation laws and the school laws apply to disputes regarding a school employee's sick leave due to a work related injury. However, the courts and the State Board of Education have held that before the claim proceeds under the school laws for matters of sick leave time and reimbursement, the compensation court must exercise its jurisdiction first to determine if a compensable work related injury occurred.

In Forgash v. Lower Camden County School, 208 N.J.Super. 461 (App. Div. 1985), the court held that a determination as to compensable injury under the workers' compensation laws must be made before the issue on sick leave benefits pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 can be adjudicated. "By its terms, this statute [N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1] contemplates a prior determination of a compensable injury by the compensation court before consideration by the commissioner of the eligibility of the injured employee for the additional benefits provided by statute." Forgash, 208 N.J.Super. at 467.

Further, in Tompkins v. Hamilton Board of Ed., EDU 3274-86 (State Bd. of Ed., Dec. 2, 1987), the State Board of Education concluded that a proceeding to receive sick leave benefits under N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 must be deferred pending the outcome of a proceeding in the Division of Workers' Compensation. Further, the State Board determined that abstention on the part of the Commissioner properly recognized the exclusive original jurisdiction of the Division of Workers' Compensation and is consistent with the legislative purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1, which is to provide leaves of absence with pay for work related injuries subject to the Workers' Compensation Act. Id. at 7. Moreover, the State Board determined that "although the breadth of the Commissioner's power is great, . . . this agency should abstain from considering the matter until a determination is made by the Division of Workmen's Compensation." Ibid. Additionally, the State Board concluded that deference should be given to the Division of Workers' Compensation as the agency with the greatest expertise in resolving such issues. Id. See also Hackensack v. Winner, 82 NJ 1 (1980); Hinfey v. Matawan Regional Board of Education, 77 NJ 514 (1978). The State Board also determined that the prior determination of issues under the Workers'

Compensation laws avoids conflicting results and avoids supplanting the function of the compensation court. Id. at 8-9. Thus, since the compensation court is the only court with the expertise to determine whether an injury is work related under the workers' compensation statutes, a proceeding pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 regarding sick leave may not be used to supersede the function of the compensation court. Forgash, 208 N.J.Super. at 467.

Here, the issue is not whether the petitioner sustained a work related, compensable injury. Rather, the issue pertains to the disputed terms of the settlement agreement approved by the Division of Workers' Compensation. However, the same reasoning behind the Commissioner's abstention from deciding a sick leave benefits claim pending the workers' compensation decision applies here.

First, the Division of Workers' Compensation is the forum with the expertise to decide this issue. The Division is in the best position to decide what the parties to the settlement negotiation meant, what is equitable, and what is legal under the Workers' Compensation statutes (i.e. whether the settlement agreement violates public policy). As the court in Forgash stated, "the distinctive function and expertise of the compensation court qualified it as the more appropriate tribunal for the adjudication of petitioner's controverted claim for her work related injuries." Forgash, 208 N.J. Super. at 466.

Second, the Commissioner and thus the ALJ, may not utilize the sick leave benefits statute to supplant the function of the compensation court. Forgash, 208 N.J.Super. at 467. Here, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:15-49, the Division of Workers' Compensation has exclusive original jurisdiction over this matter as it involves a work related injury. The express function of N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 is to complement workers' compensation benefits by allowing the injured party to continue to receive his or her salary and not lose sick leave time due to compensable work related injuries. Ibid. at 466. By its terms, N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1 contemplates a prior decision by the compensation court before the additional sick leave benefits can be awarded. Ibid. Thus, the Commissioner and the ALJ cannot exercise jurisdiction in this case until the compensation court has rendered a final determination. To do otherwise would result in the ALJ and Commissioner supplanting the function of the compensation court.

Third, a workers' compensation case must be resolved in compensation court proceedings before the matter of sick leave benefits may be addressed by the Commissioner. Here, no resolution of the workers' compensation matter has been reached. Petitioner contends that the settlement agreement requires him to pay back 30 sick days while the Board contends that the agreement requires the petitioner to return all 60 days. The compensation court is entitled, if not required, to reach a final determination regarding the workers' compensation claim before the matter of additional sick leave benefits may be addressed by the Commissioner. See Forgash, 208 N.J.Super. at 466; Tompkins, State Bd. of Ed., Feb. 3, 1988 at 3. Therefore, neither the Commissioner nor the ALJ can assert jurisdiction over this matter until a final determination as to the terms of the settlement agreement has been reached. Once the terms of the settlement are clarified in the compensation court, the ALJ and the Commissioner may then proceed under those terms to award benefits under N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1. I CONCLUDE that petitioner must seek a clarification of the settlement agreement terms from the Division of Workers' Compensation..

Since the ALJ and the Commissioner of Education are without jurisdiction to proceed under N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1, I CONCLUDE that the issue of whether the settlement agreement violates public policy is not before the OAL. Further, this question cannot be answered until the terms of the settlement agreement are determined. The Division of Workers' Compensation is the appropriate forum with the requisite expertise to decide this question when it considers and makes a determination as to the terms of the settlement agreement.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that petitioner's claim to restoration of 30 sick days based on the parties' settlement agreement before the Division of Workers Compensation be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

January 22, 1997
DATE

Mumtaz Bari Brown
MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

1/27/97
DATE

DNJ
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

JAN 28 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cb

APPENDIX

Witnesses:

For Petitioner:
Vincent Basile

For Respondent:

Robert L. Zeglarski

Exhibits:

R-1(a) - (h)	Employee Absence Record of Vincent J. Basile (8 pages).
R-2	Letter from Steven S. Glickman, Esq., to Michael T. Barrett, Esq., dated March 24, 1992.
R-3	Letter from Steven S. Glickman, Esq., to Michael T. Barrett, Esq., dated April 23, 1992.
R-4	Letter from Robert L. Zeglarski, School Business Administrator Board Secretary, to Lisa Shanfeld, dated March 29, 1995.
P-2	Letter from Ernest J. Finizio, Jr., Superintendent of Schools, to Vincent Basile, dated December 22, 1992.
P-3	Order Approving Settlement with Dismissal dated May 18, 1995.
P-4	Letter from Michael T. Barrett, Esq., to Steven S. Glickman, Esq., dated April 23, 1992.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11724-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 371-9/95

VINCENT J. BASILE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE PARK, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions were untimely filed, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and, therefore, are not considered herein.

Upon review, the Commissioner determines to affirm the decision of the Administrative Law Judge, finding that this matter raises no dispute under the education laws and concurring that the Commissioner of Education can neither interpret nor enforce a settlement arising out of proceedings before the Division of Workers' Compensation.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein, the Commissioner affirms the initial decision of the OAL dismissing the Petition of Appeal as a controversy arising under the education laws.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 11, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 11, 1997

115-97

EDU #11724-95
C # 115-97
SB # 34-97

VINCENT J. BASILE,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE PARK, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 11, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bergman & Barrett (Michael T. Barrett, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Ruderman & Glickman (Steven S. Glickman, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein. Like the Administrative Law Judge and Commissioner, we stress that the settlement agreement at issue herein arose from a workers' compensation claim filed by petitioner and was approved by the Division of Workers' Compensation. Consequently, we agree that the Division of Workers' Compensation is the proper forum for determining a dispute between the parties regarding the terms of that settlement.

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 08 1997

116-97

116-97E

BUENA PLUMBING, INC.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF CLAYTON, GLOUCESTER COUNTY AND WEST JERSEY AIR CONDITIONING & HEATING COMPANY, INC.,	:	DECISION ON MOTION
RESPONDENTS.	:

March 12, 1997

RECEIVED
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

DILWORTH, PAXSON, KALISH & KAUFFMAN
Three Greentree Centre, Suite 104
Route 73
Marlton, New Jersey 08053
(609) 751-8500
ATTORNEYS FOR Respondent, West Jersey Air Conditioning & Heating Company, Inc.

BUENA PLUMBING, INC.,

Petitioner,

-v-

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CLAYTON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT and WEST JERSEY AIR CONDITIONING & HEATING COMPANY, INC.,

Respondent.

Before: COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY

Agency Docket No. 57-2/97

OAL Docket No. EDU843-97

Civil Action

ORDER DENYING APPLICATION OF PETITIONER, BUENA PLUMBING, INC. FOR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WITH TEMPORARY RESTRAINTS

Oral Argument, ~~March~~ February 26, 1997 before the Honorable Robert S. Miller, ALJ

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on Wednesday, ~~March~~ February 26, 1997, upon the motion of Petitioner, Buena Plumbing, Inc. ("Petitioner") for an Order to Show Cause and Temporary Restraints restraining the Respondents from entering into, executing or performing the HVAC contract for alterations and additions to the Clayton Middle School/High School until further order of the Commissioner, Darrell Fineman, Esquire appearing on behalf of Capizola, Fineman & Lapham, P.A., attorneys of Petitioner, and in the presence of Wayne C. Streitz, Esquire of Ware, Streitz & Thompson, attorneys for Respondent, The Board of Education of the Clayton Public School District (the "Board"), and in the presence of Michael D. Varbalow, Esquire of the firm of Dilworth, Paxson, Kalish & Kauffman, attorneys of Respondent, West Jersey Air Conditioning & Heating Company, Inc. ("West Jersey"), and the Court having read and considered the Verified Petition, the Motion, the various Certifications and exhibits thereto and the Briefs filed on behalf of the Petitioner and on behalf of each of the Respondents, and the Court having considered the oral arguments of counsel for the respective parties, and having considered the criteria for interim relief and temporary restraints set forth in Crowe vs. Degoia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and the Court having found that the legal rights underlying Petitioner's claim are unsettled, and in particular, Petitioner's interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-5d and 18A:18A-18, and the Court having further found that there does not exist the probability that Petitioner will prevail in these proceedings for the relief sought, and no cause appearing to the contrary;

IT IS on this 27th day of February, 1997, ORDERED that Petitioner's application for an order temporarily restraining Respondent, Board and Respondent, West Jersey from entering, executing or performing the HVAC contract for alterations and additions to the Clayton Middle School/High School until further order of the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey is hereby DENIED.

Robert S. Miller

ROBERT S. MILLER, A.L.J.

DILWORTH, PAXSON,
KALISH & KAUFFMAN

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

THREE GREENTREE CENTRE
SUITE 104 - ROUTE 73
MARLTON, NEW JERSEY 08053

work/mdv/pleading/buena.ord

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five (45) days following the entry of this order. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five (45) days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

February 27, 1997
DATE

ROBERT S. MILLER, ALJ

AGENCY DKT. NO. 57-2/97
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 843-97

BUENA PLUMBING, INC.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF CLAYTON, GLOUCESTER COUNTY AND WEST JERSEY AIR CONDITIONING & HEATING COMPANY, INC.,	:	DECISION ON MOTION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The audiotape of emergent proceedings by the ALJ, and the order on Motion for Emergent Relief of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge denying emergent relief to Petitioner, a bidder for a heating, ventilating and air conditioning contract (HVAC) with Clayton Middle School/ High School, having found that petitioners failed to meet each of the standards for such relief as set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6, R. 4:52-1.

Accordingly, the Motion for Emergent Relief is denied for the reasons expressed by the ALJ and this matter shall duly proceed to a hearing on the merits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 12, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 12, 1997

118-97

118-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF LINDSAY HOOPER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT	:	DECISION
OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX	:
COUNTY.	:
_____	:

MARCH 14, 1997

AGENCY DKT. NO. 585-12/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF LINDSAY HOOPER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT	:	DECISION
OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX	:
COUNTY.	:
	:

For the Board, Louis R. Franzese, Esq.

This matter having been opened before the Commissioner of Education on December 11, 1996, through certification of tenure charges of unbecoming conduct against a tenured teaching staff member of the State-operated School District of Newark; and

The Commissioner having directed respondent, via both certified and regular mail, on December 12, 1996, to file an answer to the tenure charges against him; and

The Commissioner having sent such notice again on January 6, 1997, and on January 29, 1997, via regular and certified mail, and although the certified mail was returned as unclaimed, there is no indication that the regular mail was not duly received; and

Respondent having failed as of this date to comply with the directive of the Commissioner, so that each count of the charges against him is deemed to be admitted; now therefore

IT IS ORDERED this 14th day of March 1997 that summary judgment shall be granted to the District, and Lindsay Hooper shall be dismissed from his tenured position as a teaching staff member in the District's employ as of the date of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.7, this matter shall be referred to the State Board of Examiners for review and action as it deems appropriate.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 14, 1997

119-97

119-97

C.E., on behalf of minor children, T.E., J.E. AND T.E.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

MARCH 14, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

DISMISSAL

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8986-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 429-9/96

C.E. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN,

T.E., J.E. AND T.E.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH

OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

Respondent.

Elizabeth Szabo, Esq., for petitioner (Somerset-Sussex Legal Services Corp.)

Michael J. Rogers, Esq., for respondent (McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 11, 1997 Decided: February 14, 1997

BEFORE KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ:

This matter was brought before the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on October 30, 1996, as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. It was scheduled for hearing for January 30, 1997 at the OAL, Mercerville, New Jersey. Prior to the January 30, 1997 hearing date, the matter was adjourned at the request of both parties.

Based upon the attachment and with the consent of all parties the matter is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb 14, 1997
DATE

Kathryn A. Clark
KATHRYN A. CLARK, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/19/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 20 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harnail
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ej

RECEIVED
STATE OF N.J.
OFFICE OF LAW
FEB 11 10 31 AM '97

SOMERSET SUSSEX LEGAL SERVICES
By: Elizabeth Szabo, Esq.
Attorney for Celita Evans
78 Grove Street
Somerville, New Jersey 08876
(908) 231-0840

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER
OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY

CELITA EVANS, parent, on behalf of TYLITA EVANS JUERY EVANS, and TANEIFA EVANS	:	EDUC-08986-96s AGENCY DKT.NO. 429-9/96
Petitioner	:
vs	:
SOMERVILLE SCHOOL DISTRICT,	:	ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE
Respondent	:

This matter having been opened to the Court on application of Somerset Sussex Legal Services, attorneys for petitioner, and McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo, attorneys for respondent, and it appearing that the Somerville School District acknowledges that petitioner and her three minor children have been residents of Somerville since at least September 1, 1996 and are current residents of Somerville and that the minor children are entitled to a tuition-free education in the Somerville School District, and the parties having resolved the matter, and for good cause shown:

It is on this 14th day of February 1997

ORDERED that the petition of Celita Evans, on behalf of the three minor children be and hereby is dismissed with prejudice.

Hon. Kathryn Clark, ALJ

We hereby consent to the entry and form of the within Dismissal with Prejudice.

McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo
attorneys for respondent

Michael J. Rogers, Esq.

Somerset Sussex Legal Services
Attorneys for petitioner

Elizabeth Szabo, Esq.

OAL DKT. NO. 8986-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 429-9/96

C.E., on behalf of minor children, T.E., J.E. AND T.E.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law, and the Order of Dismissal with Prejudice have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Order of Dismissal with Prejudice, noting that all parties have agreed to such terms.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the Administrative Law Judge and the matter is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 14, 1997

120-97

120-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF FRANK PETRONE, STATE-	:
OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

MARCH 14, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1191-97

AGENCY. NO.: 525-11/96

STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,

Petitioner

v.

FRANK PETRONE,

Respondent

Cherie L. Maxwell, Esq., for petitioner
(Sills Cummis Zuckerman Radin Tischman Epstein & Gross, attorneys)

Eugene G. Liss, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: January 29, 1997 Decided: January 30, 1997

BEFORE: THOMAS E. CLANCY, ALJ

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 10 1997, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B et seq. and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 et seq.

During the pendency of the case at the Office of Administrative Law, the parties settled their differences as provided in the attached documents.

Having reviewed the contents of the attached documents, I FIND (a) that they are consistent with the law, (b) that they fully dispose of all issues in controversy, and (c) that they were voluntarily entered into by the parties.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the attached documents meet the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and I hereby approve same. In conjunction therewith, I ORDER that the parties comply with their contents and that these proceedings be (and are hereby) TERMINATED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

1/30/97
DATE

Thomas E Clancy
THOMAS E. CLANCY, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 3, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 4 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

SILLS CUMMIS ZUCKERMAN RADIN TISCHMAN EPSTEIN & GROSS

A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION

ONE RIVERFRONT PLAZA
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY 07102-5400
(201) 643-7000
FAX: (201) 643-6500

712 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK, NY 10019
(212) 643-7000
FAX (212) 643-6550

17 GORDON'S ALLEY
ATLANTIC CITY, NJ 08401-7406
(609) 344-2800
FAX (609) 344-7035

WRITER'S DIRECT DIAL NUMBER:

ARTHUR J. SILLS (1917-1982)

CLIVE S. CUMMIS
STEVEN S. RADIN
HERBERT L. ZUCKERMAN
MICHAEL B. TISCHMAN
MORTON S. BUNIS
STANLEY TANNENBAUM
BARRY M. EPSTEIN
STEVEN E. GROSS
THOMAS J. DEMSKI
JEFFREY H. NEWMAN
LAWRENCE S. HORN
CHARLES J. WALSH
JEFFREY J. GREENBAUM
SIMON LEVIN
STEPHEN J. MOSES
MORRIS YAMNER
GERALD SPAN
JEFFREY BARTON CAHN
NOAH BRONKESH
LESTER ARON
STEVEN M. GOLDMAN
KENNETH F. OETTLE
ALAN E. SHERMAN
ROBERT J. ALTER
IRA A. ROSENBERG
ROBERT CRANE
MARC S. KLEIN
PHILIP R. SELLINGER

JACK M. ZACKIN
THOMAS S. NOVAK
JERRY GENBERG
STUART M. FEINBLATT
MARGARET F. BLACK
BRIAN S. COVEN
TRENT S. DICKEY
RICHARD J. SCHULMAN[□]
BERNARD I. FLATEMAN
JOSEPH L. BUCKLEY
KATHLEEN GENGARO
DAVID J. RABINOWITZ
STANLEY U. NORTH, III
JAMES D. TOLL
JAMES M. HIRSCHHORN
ALLAN C. BELL
RONALD C. RAK
MARK S. OLINSKY
RICHARD J. SAPINSKI
VICTOR H. BOYAJIAN
PHILIP R. WHITE
ALAN J. COHEN
MARK J. BLUNDA
LORI G. SINGER
ROBERT W. BURKE
MARK E. DUCKSTEIN
BETH S. ROSE

OF COUNSEL

DAVID BECK
VICTOR FUTTER[□]
DENA L. WOLF
MITCHEL E. OSTRER
KENNETH R. WEINER

NOEL D. HUMPHREYS
PATRICIA M. KERINS
DIANE M. LAVENDA
ROBERT R. DIVITA
BOHDAN S. KOSOVYCH
CHERIE LEE MAXWELL
GLENN E. DAVIS
HARRY B. NORETSKY
STEVEN B. JACKMAN[◊]
NATHAN E. ARNELL
STEVEN R. ROWLAND
JACK WENIK
ERIC D. MANN
SCOTT N. RUBIN
FREDERIC M. TUDOR
KENNETH L. MOSKOWITZ
ERIC W. SLEEPER
ALMA LUTJEN ABRAMS
A. ROSS PEARLSON
JEFFREY M. POLLOCK
BENNET SUSSER
JODI S. BRODSKY
SCOTT T. GRUBER
STEVEN S. KATZ
LINDA B. KATZ
RICHARD S. SCHKOLNICK
TED ZANGARI
N. LYNNE HUGHES
DERLYS MARIA GUTIERREZ
ALAN L. COHEN
PAUL P. JOSEPHSON
PATRICIA BROWN FUGEE
DOUGLAS R. WEIDER
STEVEN R. KAMEN
ROBERT M. CARDUCCI, M.D.
PAUL F. DODA

LORA L. FONG
JOSHUA D. GOODMAN
HELEN KLEINER
RHONDA SOBRAL O'TOOLE
CALVIN A. JONES
LOUIS R. FRANZESE
ANDREW H. SHERMAN
MICHELLE E. MANFRO
ADAM J. KAISER
KEITH J. WEINGOLD
GAYLE N. WOLKENBERG
WILLIAM J. TINSLEY, JR.
WILLIAM R. STUART
JOHN J. COUGHLIN, IV
GARRY ROGERS
JENNIFER L. BOROFSKY
VAUGHN L. MCKOY
GWEN L. POSNER
SUSANNE K. ROSENZWEIG
MICHELE-LEE BERKO
LORI M. WALDRON
DONNA A. RAMSAY-WILCOX
ANTHONY F. VITIELLO
LAURA M. KALIK
ROSS L. YUSTEIN
STEVEN M. ZIOLKOWSKI
FRANCINE E. TAJFEL
PETER M. SCHULTZ
LAURA M. KOHANSOV
BEN-TZION H. ZUR
MICHAEL G. ALBANO
CAROLINE H. HAHN
DAVID JAY
LAURA E. KORFMANN
BARBARA A. SCHWARTZ
HARRIS C. GOLDBLAT

PLEASE REPLY TO NEWARK

□ ADMITTED IN NY ONLY
◊ ADMITTED IN JURISDICTION (S) OTHER THAN NJ

January 10, 1997

Dr. Leo F. Klagholz
Commissioner of Education
c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes
225 East State Street
CN 500
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500

Re: In Re Tenure Charges of Frank Petrone
State-Operated School District of the City of Newark
Agency Docket No. 525-11/96

Dear Dr. Klagholz:

We are counsel to the State-Operated School District of the City of Newark in the above-referenced matter. Tenure charges were certified to your office on November 7, 1996 and given the above docket number.

In light of the enclosed settlement agreement reached by the parties, the District respectfully requests that the charges be deemed withdrawn.

2 a

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Cherie L. Maxwell

CHERIE L. MAXWELL

CLM:klr
Enc.
cc: Dr. Beverly L. Hall, State District Superintendent (w/o enc.)
Beatrice Collymore, State District Deputy Superintendent (w/o enc.)
Randall Kanter, State District Assistant Superintendent (w/o enc.)
Hope R. Blackburn, Senior Associate Counsel (w/enc.)
Eugene Liss, Esq. (w/enc.)

AGREEMENT

This Agreement, made this 11th day of December, 1996, by and between the State-Operated School District of the City of Newark (hereinafter "District") and Frank Petrone, a tenured teacher employed by the District (hereinafter "Petrone").

WHEREAS, Tenure charges against Petrone were filed with the District on or about October 15, 1996, and

WHEREAS, said charges were certified to the Department of Education on or about November 7, 1996, and

WHEREAS, the parties are desirous of amicably settling the outstanding issues without the necessity of formal litigation on the charges;

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree to resolve this matter on the following basis:

1. Petrone will submit to the District upon execution of this Agreement a letter of intent to resign his position of employment with the District for the purpose of retirement effective March 30, 1997, which resignation for the purpose of retirement shall be accepted by the District.

2. The District will withdraw the tenure charges against Petrone it has certified to the Department of Education.

3. Petrone will be placed on administrative leave, with pay, from November 30, 1996 through March 30, 1997, at which time he shall resign for the purpose of retirement from his employment with the District. Petrone will receive his current rate of pay through the day of his resignation for the purpose of retirement. At the time of his resignation for the purpose of retirement, Petrone will receive payment as applicable for accrued sick leave and any other payment which may be due to Petrone pursuant to the terms of the applicable collective bargaining agreement at the conclusion of negotiations between the District and CASA. These payments shall constitute the total financial obligation of the District to Petrone and Petrone hereby waives any claims he may have to terminal leave and/or to any payments from the District other than as provided above.

4. Petrone understands and agrees that his resignation for the purpose of retirement and the entering into of this Agreement extinguishes, terminates, waives and/or revokes any and all tenure, employment and re-employment rights he may have as a teaching staff member with the District other than those set forth in this Agreement.

5. Petrone hereby releases, waives and forever discharges the District from any and all claims, demands, rights, actions, damages or liabilities of any description arising out of or related to Petrone's employment with the District, including but not limited to the aforementioned tenure charges, claims for compensation other than as set forth in Paragraph 3 above, and any claims for wrongful termination of employment.

6. This Agreement is not and shall not be construed to be an admission of liability or wrongdoing by either party. Rather, the parties have entered into the Agreement for the sole purpose of resolving the aforementioned tenure charges and all other issues arising from Petrone's employment without the burden, expense, delay and uncertainties of litigation.

7. This Agreement is freely and voluntarily executed by each party hereto. Both parties have had the terms of this Agreement thoroughly explained by their respective legal counsel and understand such terms and the legal implications arising therefrom.

8. Consistent with In Re Cardonick, Petrone has been advised and is aware that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6, the matter may be forwarded to the state Board of Examiners for consideration of revocation of his teaching certification.

9. This Agreement is subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Education. Should the Commissioner fail to approve the application for approval of the parties' settlement and withdrawal of the tenure charges, this Agreement shall be null and void.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT
OF THE CITY OF NEWARK

By: DR. BEVERLY HALL
State District Superintendent

Dated: 1/9/97

FRANK PETRONE

Dated: December 11, 1996

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1191-97
AGENCY DKT. NO. 525-11/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF FRANK PETRONE, STATE-	:
OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement, and will be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for action as it deems appropriate, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 14, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 14, 1997

124-97

124-97

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO, :

PETITIONER, :

V. :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA, BERGEN COUNTY, AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO, :

RESPONDENTS. :

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

PETITIONER, : EDUCATION

V. :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA, BERGEN COUNTY, AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO, :

RESPONDENTS. :

MARCH 18, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA, BERGEN COUNTY AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO,

Respondents.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3697-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 89-3/96

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA, BERGEN COUNTY AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO,

Respondents.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5535-96

AGENCY DKT NO. 109-3/96

(CONSOLIDATED)

Joseph Luppino-Esposito, petitioner, pro se

Lane J. Biviano, Esq., attorney for respondent

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 3697-96 and EDU 5535-96

Record Closed: January 27, 1997 Decided: January 27, 1997

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Petitioner alleged that respondents improperly canceled a scheduled meeting and violated the Open Public Meetings Act by denying him his right to cast a vote on a Board of Education issue. Petitioner also alleged that the Board misappropriated public funds.

The Department of Education transferred these matters to the Office of Administrative Law (the OAL) on April 9, 1996 and May 24, 1996, respectively. The OAL scheduled a hearing for April 7, 8 and 9, 1997.

Prior to the scheduled hearing date, the parties agreed to settle this matter. On January 27, 1997, they submitted the attached Stipulation of Settlement and Dismissal, dated January 21, 1997, which sets forth the terms of the settlement.

I have reviewed the record and settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE my Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Jan. 27, 1997
DATE

MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 3, 1997
DATE

DN Centanaitis Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 4 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Jan 27 10 30 AM '97

LANE J. BIVIANO
ATTORNEY AT LAW
8 STATION SQUARE
P.O. BOX 4
RUTHERFORD, NEW JERSEY 07070
(201) 933-8080
Attorney for Respondents
Bogota Board of Education and Board President Charles
J. Severino
Our File Nos. 1717.10 & 11

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO,
Petitioner

vs.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA
and BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J.
SEVERINO,

Respondents.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
OAL DOCKET NO. EDUOT 03697-96N
AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 89-3/96 AND
OAL DOCKET NO. EDUOT 05535-96N
AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 109-3/96

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND DISMISSAL

It is hereby stipulated and agreed to by and between the parties, Joseph Luppino-Esposito ("Petitioner") and Respondents the Board of Education of the Borough of Bogota and Charles Severino Board President ("Respondents") hereto, that the above-captioned matter be and is hereby settled upon the following terms and conditions:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of mutual covenants herein contained, the Petitioner and the Respondents agree as follows:

1. Petitioner has executed a letter to the administrative law judge withdrawing his petitions in the above referenced matters, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit A.

2. Respondents will not pursue legal fees and related costs sustained in the above referenced matters from Petitioner.

3. Petitioner has executed a release with regard to the above referenced matters, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit B.

4. Respondents have executed a release with regard to the above referenced matter, copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit C.

5. The Parties represent and acknowledge that they have had the right and opportunity to seek advice of independent legal counsel with respect to the interpretation, meaning and legal effect of consenting to this Stipulation and Dismissal.

PETITIONER

Joseph Luppino Esposito
Joseph Luppino-Esposito 1-21-97

RESPONDENTS

Charles J. Severino
Charles J. Severino
Board President
On behalf of the Bogota Board of Education and Board President Charles J. Severino

Joseph Luppino-Esposito
64 Cane Street
Bogota, N.J. 07603

January 20, 1997

Hon. Marie P. Simonelli
Administrative Law Judge
Office of Administrative Law
185 Washington Street
Newark, N.J. 07102

Re: Joseph Luppino-Esposito v.Board of Education of the Borough of Bogota, Bergen County and Board President Charles J. Severino
EDUOT 03697-96N, Agency #89-3\96 and EDUOT 05535-96N, Agency # 109-3\96

Dear Judge Simonelli:

This is to advise you that I hereby voluntarily withdraw my petitions with prejudice in the above referenced matters.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph Luppino-Esposito

Joseph Luppino-Esposito

cc. Charles J. Severino, Board President
Respondent Board Members
Board Secretary
Bureau of Controversies and Disputes

EXHIBIT "A"

R E L E A S E

This Release dated January 21, 1997, is given

BY the Releasor(s) Joseph Luppino-Esposito, of 64 Cane Street, Bogota, New Jersey referred to as "I"

TO Bogota Board of Education and its individual members, their agents, servants, employees, successors and assigns, with offices at 1 Henry C. Luthin Place, Bogota New Jersey, referred to as "You",

1. Release. I release and give up any and all claims and rights which I may have against you with regard to OAL Docket Nos. EDUOT-03697-96N, Agency Ref. No. 89-3/96 and EDUOT 05535-96N, Agency Ref. 109-3/96.

2. Payment. The Board will execute a release giving up any and all claims against me with regard to OAL Docket Nos. EDUOT-03697-96N, Agency Ref. No. 89-3/96 and EDUOT 05535-96N, Agency Ref. 109-3/96.

3. Who is Bound. I am bound by this Release. Anyone who succeeds to my rights and responsibilities, such as my heirs or the executor of my estate, is also bound. This Release is made for your benefit and all who succeed to your rights and responsibilities, such as your heirs or the executor your estate.

4. Signatures. I understand and agree to the terms of this Release. If this Release is made by a corporation its proper corporate officers sign and its corporate seal affixed.

Witnessed by:

Beverly A. George

Joseph Luppino-Esposito (Seal)
JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF Bergen SS: 148-52-0755

I CERTIFY that on 1-21-97, Joseph Luppino-Esposito personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person (or if more than one, each person):

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and
(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as his or her act and deed.

Prepared by:

Lane J. Biviano, Esq.

Beverly A. George
NOTARY PUBLIC BEVERLY A. GEORGE
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
No. 2163314
My Commission Expires March 15, 1999

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF SS:

I CERTIFY that on _____, _____ personally came before me and this person acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that:

(a) this person is the secretary of the corporation named in this document;

(b) this person is the attesting witness to the signing of this document by the proper corporate officer who is the President of the corporation;

(c) this document was signed and delivered by the corporation as its voluntary act duly authorized by a proper resolution of its Board of Directors;

(d) this person knows the proper seal of the corporation which was affixed to this document; and

(e) this person signed this proof to attest to the truth of these facts.

Signed and sworn to before me on _____.

_____ _____
(Print name of attesting witness below signature)

R E L E A S E Dated:

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO Record and return to:

TO

BOGOTA BOARD OF EDUCATION
AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES
J. SEVERINO

R E L E A S E

This Release dated January 21, 1997, is given

BY the Releasor(s) The Bogota Board of Education, and Board President Charles J. Severino with offices at 1 Henry C. Luthin Place, Bogota, New Jersey, referred to as "We",

TO Joseph Luppino-Esposito of 64 Cane Street, Bogota, New Jersey, referred to as "You",

1. Release. We release and give up any and all claims and rights which we may have against you with regard to Docket Nos. EDUOT 03697-96N, Agency Ref. No.89-3/96 and EDUOT 05535-96N, Agency Ref. No. 109-3/96.

2. Payment. Joseph Luppino-Esposito will execute a release giving up any and all claims against the Board and Board President Charles J. Severino with regard to Docket Nos. EDUOT 03697-96N, Agency Ref. No.89-3/96 and EDUOT 05535-96N Agency Ref. No. 109-3/96.

3. Who is Bound. We are bound by this Release. Anyone who succeeds to our rights and responsibilities, such as our heirs or the executors of our estates, are also bound. This Release is made for your benefit and all who succeed to your rights and responsibilities, such as your heirs or the executor of your estate.

4. Signatures. We understand and agree to the terms of this Release. If this Release is made by a corporation its proper corporate officers sign and its corporate seal affixed.

Witnessed by:

CHARLES A GRALL

Charles J. Severino (Seal)

CHARLES J. SEVERINO
BOARD PRESIDENT

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF SS:

I CERTIFY that on 1/21/97, Charles J Severino personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person (or if more than one, each person):

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and
(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as his or her act and deed.

Prepared by:

Lane J. Biviano, Esq.

Eileen L. Lackey
NOTARY PUBLIC
Eileen L. Lackey
An attorney at law in the
State of New Jersey

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF SS:

I CERTIFY that on 1/21/97, Charles Grau personally came before me and this person acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that:

(a) this person is the Board secretary of the Bogota Board of Education the corporation named in this document;

(b) this person is the attesting witness to the signing of this document by the proper corporate officer who is Charles J Severino the Board President of the corporation;

(c) this document was signed and delivered by the corporation as its voluntary act duly authorized by a proper resolution of its Board of Directors;

(d) this person knows the proper seal of the corporation which was affixed to this document; and

(e) this person signed this proof to attest to the truth of these facts.

Signed and sworn to before me on 1/21/97.

Eileen L Lackey
signature)
Eileen L. Lackey
An attorney at law in the State of New Jersey

(Print name of attesting witness below
CHARLES A. GRAU

R E L E A S E

Dated:

BOGOTA BOARD OF EDUCATION AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO

TO

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO

Record and return to:

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 3697-96 and EDU 5535-96 (CONSOLIDATED)
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 89-3/96 and 109-3/96

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO, :

PETITIONER, :

V. :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA, BERGEN COUNTY, AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO, :

RESPONDENTS. :

JOSEPH LUPPINO-ESPOSITO, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

PETITIONER, : EDUCATION

V. :

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOGOTA, BERGEN COUNTY, AND BOARD PRESIDENT CHARLES J. SEVERINO, :

RESPONDENTS. :

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 18, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 18, 1997

125-97

EMILY FOGERTY, SAWSON LABIB, EBEN MYERS AND JOHN PORTEE, PETITIONERS,

V.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioners, tenured teaching staff members, appealed the District's decision to withhold their salary increments for allegedly unsatisfactory performance during the 1994-95 school year.

Having considered testimony of witnesses and the record, the ALJ concluded that the District had a reasonable basis for its actions and that petitioners failed to meet their burden of proof, by a preponderance of credible evidence, that the District's actions were unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious. Moreover, ALJ found that petitioners were provided written notice of the denial of their increments, an opportunity to submit a rebuttal and a hearing at OAL.

Citing Sturn v. South Plainfield, Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 8490-94, EDU 8491-94 & EDU 7968-95
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 328-8/94, 323-8/94 & 324-8/94

EMILY FOGERTY, SAWSON LABIB,

EBEN MYERS AND JOHN PORTEE,

Petitioners,

v.

STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT

OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY,

HUDSON COUNTY,

Respondent.

Philip Feintuch, Esq., for petitioners
(Feintuch, Porwich & Feintuch, attorneys)

Patricia Taylor, Esq., for respondent, State Operated School District of Jersey City
(Charlotte Kitler, General Counsel)

Record Closed: August 7, 1996 Decided: January 29, 1997

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioners, Eben Myers, Emily Fogerty, James Boylan[1] , Sawson Labib, Carolyn Karoma[2] and John Portee appeal the decision by the State Operated School District of [1] By letter dated August 18, 1995 counsel advised that James Boylan had abandoned his appeal.

Jersey City, Hudson County (District) to withhold their salary increments for unsatisfactory performance during the 1994-95 school year. The cases was consolidated by the Department of Education and designated as James Boylan, Emily Fogerty, Carolyn Karoma and Sawson Labib and assigned case number 328-8/94. The case of Eben Myers was assigned case number 323-8/94.

On September 1, 1994, the Department of Education transmitted the matters to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On August 8, 1995, an Order by ALJ Bari-Brown bifurcated the matter of John Portee from OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8488-94 and was subsequently assigned OAL Docket No EDU 7968-95. An Order of Consolidation was entered on EDU 7968-95 with 8490-94 and EDU 8491-94. After several adjournments, hearings were held on April 2, 4 and May 1, 1996. At the conclusion of the hearings, the parties submitted post hearing briefs on August 7, 1996 at which time the record was closed.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In each case, the petitioners' annual salary increments were denied based on unsatisfactory performance evaluations for the 1993-1994 school year. Petitioners generally allege that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 10:4-6, the New Jersey Open Public Meetings Act, because the decisions to deny each increment was made by the State Superintendent of Schools in a closed meeting. Further, the petitioners contend that the District lacks the authority to withhold the salary increments. Finally, the petitioners' assert that the evaluations are wholly subjective and without any basis.

The respondent contends that the evidence supports that the petitioners' performance was below standard and thus the increments were properly denied.

[2] On May 1, 1996, an Order was entered dismissing the petition of Carolyn Karoma.

Further, that absence a showing that the denial was patently arbitrary, without basis or induced by improper motives the action should be sustained.

STANDARD OF LAW

N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 provides that a board of education may withhold "a teacher's salary increment for inefficiency or other good cause." Salary increments are 'a reward for meritorious service" Probst v. Haddonfield Bd. of Educ., 127 N.J. 518, 527 (1992). Thus, the Legislature has vested local boards with the power to withhold increments from teachers who have not performed well during the previous year. Id. at 526. A decision to withhold an increment is a matter of management prerogative which the Legislature has delegated to the local school board. North Plainfield Educ. Ass'n v. No. Plainfield Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J. 587 (1984); Bernard Twp. Bd. of Educ., v. Bernard Twp. Educ. Ass'n, 79 N.J. 311 (1979). Accordingly, the Commissioner is prohibited from substituting his judgment for that of the board.

The scope of review on appeal is limited to whether there exists a reasonable basis for the board's decision. The local board's exercise of discretionary powers may not be upset unless it is patently arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable or induced by improper motives. Kopera v. West Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288 (App. Div. 1975). Thus, the Commissioner must determine: "(1) whether the underlying facts were as those who made the evaluation claimed, and (2) whether it was reasonable for them to conclude as they did upon those facts, bearing in mind that they were experts,..." Id. at 296-97. The burden proof proving that the increment withholding was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable rests with the person challenging the decision. Kopera at 297.

The petitioners contends that there are several fatal procedural defects in the District's decision to withhold their increments. First, it is contended that the District's actions violates the Open Public Meetings Act. N.J.S.A. 10:4-6. Second, the petitioners argues that the Legislature did not authorize the School District to withhold salary increments. N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 provides that salary increments are to be denied only by local Board of Education only after a majority vote of the full board and upon written notice and a right to appeal. In the case subjudice the School District has no board of education and no opportunity to appeal the denial was given to the petitioners. Further, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-35(d) does not grant the superintendent the power to act in lieu of a board of education and decide to unilaterally deny salary increments to the teaching staff members. Further, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-39 does not confer the State District Superintendent with the right to deny increments.

Having considered the petitioners argument, I FIND that the takeover legislation, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-35(e) abolished the local Boards of Education and has vested in the superintendent in state-operated school districts with the essential authority previously granted to the local school board. Indeed, a state superintendent is empowered to engage in all necessary activities to allow the district to be fully functional. N.J.A.C. 18A:7A-35(e). This necessarily includes the power to act on a recommendation to withhold an increment. See Brown v. State-Operated School Dist. of Jersey City, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 875. Thus, I FIND no merit to the petitioners contention that the superintendent is not empowered to effecutate personnel decisions.

Petitioners were given written notice of the denial and an opportunity to provide a rebuttal. The instant hearing is a review of the Superintendent's decision. Thus, I FIND that the instant appeal provides the petitioners with the right of appeal.

The State Superintendent is vested with wide discretion to effecutate the underlying intent of the takeover legislation. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-35(d) provides that the State District superintendent shall perform all duties and possess all the powers assigned in Title 18A to central administration and supervisory staff, instructional and non instructional. Consquently, the takeover legislation provides the superintendent with the right to modify district rules and policies to effectuate the underlying intent of the Act. Since there is no local Board any meeting under the Open Public Meetings Act would be meaningless. Thus, I FIND and CONCLUDE that there are no procedural infirmities presented that would defeat the School District's action.

The remaining issue is whether the petitioners have satisfied the burden of proof of demonstrating that the respondent's action was unreasonable, arbitrary and capricious. A review of each case is discussed below. Since the parties have stipulated certain facts to all petitioners those findings are incorporated herein. Additionally, this decision incorporate the stipulated facts as to each petitioner.

STIPULATED FACTS

The parties have stipulated the following facts as to all the petitioners.

1. The Jersey City Public School Instructional Observation Report (IOP) contains five (5) categories of Performance Factors to be rated:

(1) Demonstrates proficiency in subject matter;
(2) Assesses needs and evaluates progress of pupils;
(3) Employs effective organization and planning;
(4) Utilizes effective instructional techniques; and
(5) Addresses affective domain.

2. The Rating Scale for the Instructional Observation Report contains four possible ratings: 1) S - Satisfactory 2) N.I. - Needs Improvement 3) U - Unsatisfactory 4) N/A - Not Applicable.

3. The Instructional Observation Report specifies that any unsatisfactory rating requires a written comment.

4. The Public Schools of Jersey City Instructional Annual Written Performance Report (IAWPR) contains seven (7) categories of Performance Factors to be rated:

(1) Demonstrates proficiency in subject matter;

(2) Assesses needs and evaluates progress of pupils;

(3) Employs effective organization and planning;

(4) Utilizes effective instructional techniques;

(5) Exhibits professional attitudes and manner;

(6) Establishes rapport with pupils, staff and/or parents and community; and

(7) Implements and enforces school rules, administrative regulations and Board policy.

5. The Instructional Annual Written Performance Report specifies that any unsatisfactory rating requires a written comment.

6. All petitioners were notified that their increments would be withheld at the direction of the State District Superintendent, by letter dated May 12, 1994 from Judy Granick, State Executive Assistant, Human Resources.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on a review of the record evidence and a stipulation of facts as to each individual petition, I FIND the following FACTS.

SAWSON LABIB

Sawson Labib (Labib) was hired by the District in 1988 and served as a Special Education Instructor. In the 1993-94 school year, she was assigned to Public School (P.S.) # 16 and was transferred to P.S. 37 as a Special Education Teacher of the multiple handicapped. (J-1). On January 10, 1994, Labib was evaluated by Marvin Strynar, the Principal of P.S. #37. The evaluation consisted of a formal observation of Labib's performance in her classroom and it followed an informal observation. On the day of the formal observation, there were two children in the class. Labib was at her desk and the children were seated at their respective desks. In Strynar's opinion "nothing" was being done in the class. Labib did not have a plan book, a teaching technique or display any organization in her classroom. Strynar concludes that the students could have been in an "unused store room". As a result of his observation, Strynar rated Labib as unsatisfactory in organization, planning and utilization of effective instructional techniques. Further, he rated Labib as Needing Improvement (N.I.) in demonstrating her proficiency in a subject matter. The only satisfactory rating that Labib received was in the area of addressing affective domain. (J-1).

Strynar spoke with Labib about her lack of organization and instructional techniques. Strynar was most concerned that Labib did not have a plan book. Finally, Strynar notes that J-2 reveals that Labib was excessively absent from work.

On February 22, 1994, William Ronzitti, Supervisor of Special Education conducted an evaluation of Labib using the IOP[3] . Although, he concluded that Labib satisfactorily demonstrated proficiency in her subject matter, Ronzitti found her unsatisfactory in organization, planning and in the use of effective instructional techniques. Moreover, he rated Labib as needing improvement in assessing the needs and evaluating the progress of her students.

Under cross examination, Ronzitti recalled that when Labib was first transferred to P.S. #37, she was given an aide to assist her with the transition. Labib did not have a permanent teacher's aide, because aides are only assigned on a permanent basis when there are eight or more students a class. A Special Education Teachers are required to have an Individualized Education Program (IEP) for each student. Labib did not present any IEPs and her plan book was a merger of her prior class from P.S. #16. Further, her plan book did not reflect newly enrolled students in her class and did not evidence any individualized instruction. (J-3).

[3] IOP refers to the formal evaluation that is designated Instructional Observation Report.

Labib testified that prior to her assignment at P.S. #37, she had never taught multiple-handicap students. Thus, she spoke with Ronzitti about her lack of experience and he directed that she speak with Strynar. Prior to the formal observation, Strynar never came to her class nor did he explain the school's rules and regulations.

Labib concedes she used her old plan book because new plan books were not available. On the day of Strynar's observation, she had inadvertently left her plan book in her car. Further, in January she requested materials and supplies, however none were available. Thus, she was without books, pencils and paper. The few books that were available were not relevant to the students. Subsequently, she did receive pencils and paper. Labib noted that two of the students in her class were classified as emotionally disturbed.

Based on the careful review of the record, I CONCLUDE that the District had reasonable basis for its action to withhold Labib's salary increment. I have considered Labib's testimony and her rebuttal letter to the evaluation, (P-1). The record amply demonstrates that petitioner has failed to meet her burden of proof, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the District's action was unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious.

Petitioner's failure to have a prepared and available plan book reflects a lack of preparedness to teach her class. The lack of IEP's for her student's clearly jeopardizes the provision of a meaningful education. I am not persuaded that the student's were so disruptive that Labib was prevented from providing an environment that was conducive to learning. It is important to note that a teacher must demonstrate that he/she is able to control her classroom. Petitioner readily admitted that she could not exercise control over her students.

It is hereby ORDERED that the District's determination to withhold petitioner's increment for school year 1993-94 for unsatisfactory performance is AFFIRMED and the petition of appeal is hereby DISMISSED.

EMILY FOGERTY

Emily Fogerty (Fogerty) a twenty year veteran teacher retired from the School District in June, 1995. For ten years she taught basic skills to grades 2 through 8. Fogerty has a bachelor of arts in education, a masters of science in reading and is certified as a supervisor, a reading Teacher, a reading specialist and an elementary school teacher.

During the 1993-94 school year, Fogerty was assigned to teach the first grade at P.S. #14. On November 10, 1993, John Smiga, the Assistant Principal of P.S. #14, conducted formal observation of Fogerty's class. Fogerty was pre-warned about the observation and was told to present a lesson using collaborative learning techniques. Further, the evaluation followed several informal observations and a general staff meeting with all first grade teachers wherein evaluation tools were discussed. The class activity observed was reading - group work. Smiga observed that the students were using a work book to copy sentences. This was not a collaborative learning technique but was simply "busy work". Further, the classroom activity was more appropriately a homework assignment. Fogerty did not give the students an objective and there was no pupil interaction. As a result, Smiga rated Fogerty as needing improvement (NI) in several areas: demonstrating proficiency in a subject matter, utilizing effective instructional techniques and addressing effective domain of her classroom. With respect to the latter, Smiga noted that Fogerty failed to use her class aide when appropriate and loudly reprimanded her students.

Fogerty also received unsatisfactory ratings in assessing the needs and evaluating the progress of her students. Fogerty did not record the students grades in her record book. Nor did she have the required writing and math journals. Further, she had not evaluated the student's progress on a regular basis. Fogerty wrote the wrong date on the blackboard which she had the students copy. Although, she noted the error she failed to correct it. (R-1). Further, Fogerty was observed using classroom instruction time to prepare report cards. (R-1).

Smiga also gave Fogerty an unsatisfactory rating in the area of displaying effective organization and planning. Here, Smiga stated that the class was "way behind" in their reading materials.

Smiga had a post conference meeting with Fogerty and it was agreed that Fogerty would meet with the District's Reading Consultant, Ms. Stone. However, Fogerty appeared late for that meeting and Smiga officially reprimanded Fogerty by memorandum dated February 28, 1994. (R-1). In the reprimand, Smiga noted Fogerty's tardiness, and that her report cards, plan book and school calendars were not timely issued.

Dr. Catherine Surdovel, Supervisor of Language Arts, informally observed Fogerty at least three times prior to conducting a formal evaluation on March 4, 1994. (J-6). She found that Fogerty had a "great" deficiency in the teaching of reading. Reading is a critical component of the teaching process for first graders. Specifically, Fogerty had difficulty with the Open Court reading program, an intensive phonics program in use in the district at that time.

On Fogerty's (IOP) evaluation, Dr. Surdovel reported that Fogerty's lack of knowledge of the Open Court Reading program led to a lack of focus. The students were confused. Fogerty needed to focus on planning and organization of the lesson. Finally, Fogerty had difficulties with the children's behavior. Thus, she gave Fogerty NI ratings for demonstrating proficiency in subject matter; assessing the needs and evaluating the progress of her pupils; utilizing effective instructional techniques; and addressing affective domain - N.I. (J-6); Fogerty also received an unsatisfactory rating for employing effective organization and planning.

Under cross examination, Surdovel admitted that she did not personally know whether Fogerty had received training in the District wide Open Court Program. Nevertheless, the lacking of training in the program should not have impacted Fogerty's ability to teach reading to first graders.

Sandra Harrison (Harrison), Principal of P.S. 14, also informally observed Fogerty on several occasions. Further, she reviewed the evaluations conducted by Smiga and Surdovel before conducting her own formal evaluation on March 21, 1994 (J-7). Harrison was concerned that Fogerty "needed help" with instruction and class management. The formal evaluation took place during a language arts lesson. Fogerty had listed words on the board, however the students could not pronounce the words appearing on the board. It was clear that there was "very little planning" since the objective listed in the plan book for that day did not match what was being taught. There were no varied activities planned to complement the lesson. Fogerty did not conduct an "informal assessment" of the students' progress or clarify the lesson as she taught.

Further, there were "major difficulties in class control". Some students were disruptive, walking around, hitting each other and were not engaged. A number of students missed what was being taught and were not redirected. Moreover, Fogerty was behind in the curriculum. She directed Fogerty to "pick up the pace." However, Fogerty remained behind to the end. Harrison gave Fogerty an NI in three areas: demonstrating proficiency in subject matter; assessing needs and evaluating the progress of her pupils; addressing affective domain. Fogerty was also given unsatisfactory ratings for failing to employ effective organization and planning the utilization of effective instructional techniques. (J-7).

A post-observation conference with Fogerty was held on March 28, 1994, wherein Harrison discussed the ratings and discussed strategies for improvement. Fogerty was given an additional copy of guidelines on the management of instructional strategies which all teachers had received at the beginning of the school year. Further, Harrison reiterated that classroom seating be rearranged to manage disruptive students. Harrison also taught a model lesson in Fogerty's class. Subsequently, Harrison informed Fogerty that she would recommend an increment withholding for the successive school year. (J-8).

Emily Fogerty testified that she was employed by the District for twenty years before retiring in June 1995. For ten years, she taught Basic Skills to grades two through eight. She was not notified of an assignment change. Rather, it was only when she reported to the basic skills class in the Fall of 1993, that she was advised of her new assignment to teach the first grade. In spite of the new assignment, Fogerty maintains that she was advised as to a course of study. Thus, she went to other teachers to ascertain what was necessary for her to teach the class. She was given a plan book and a roll book. She knew nothing of cooperative learning. She soon discovered that she did not have all the materials, such as flash cards, or other necessary items.

Her first evaluation occurred on November 10 when Smiga came to her classroom during a reading lesson. The students were unable to write their names and could not identify the alphabet. A part of the lesson plan was to have the children copy sentences from one book to another.

The only experience that she had with the Open Court Reading Program was when she went to a summer class, on her own time and at her own initiative, and she learned very little. Surdovel observed that she did not have the necessary materials to teach Open Court and promised that she would get the necessary materials. Although she followed the recommendations of Surdovel, she was told that it takes years of practice to master the Open Court Program.

Fogerty further states that she evaluated student work books and had lesson plans. She was never advised that the objective of the lesson had to be put on the board. The report cards were not completed because she had been absent for about three weeks and upon her return they were due. She concedes preparing the report cards in the classroom, however a teacher's aide was present and supervised the students.

Fogerty believes that it is proper for a teacher to raise their voice to quiet the students. Fogerty further noted that her students frequently requested permission to go to the bathroom. In order to avoid a constant stream of children leaving the classroom, she did not immediately reply to their requests. Further, a teacher's aide was not always present to escort the children to and from the bathroom. She was given instruction regarding classroom control and employed certain of the recommendations. However, not all of the recommendations worked.

Based on the careful review of the record, I CONCLUDE that the District had reasonable basis for its action to withhold Fogerty's salary increment.

I further CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to meet her burden of proof, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the District's action was unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious. I FIND the testimonies of Harrison and Smiga to be credible. Petitioner could not control her class and displayed major deficiencies in teaching reading.

It is hereby ORDERED that the District's determination to withhold petitioner's increment for school year 1993-94 for unsatisfactory performance is AFFIRMED and the petition of appeal be DISMISSED.

JOHN PORTEE

John Portee (Portee), an eighteen-year veteran teacher, was assigned to Snyder High School as a Science Teacher during the 1993-1994 school year. He is Certified in Physical Education/Health, Science and Mathematics. Portee was subject to formal and informal evaluations by Gwendolyn Long (Long), Chairperson of the Science Department at Snyder High School and Maria Cannizzaro (Cannizzaro), Supervisor of Science.

On December 2, 1993 Long conducted a formal evaluation of Portee's classroom. Long's duties as Department Supervisor required that she teach Science, conduct at least one evaluation of each teacher in the Science department and complete an end-of-year report on each teacher's performance. Prior to the formal evaluation, she was concerned about Portee's general interaction with his students and their reaction to him. During the evaluation, Portee was teaching a biology lesson on basic chemistry. The activity did not keep the students engaged because Portee had previously taught this lesson. Further, Long noted that spending too much time on one proficiency would cause Portee to fall behind in the curriculum.

Portee had problems with maintaining classroom control. His response to students who were acting out was negative and confrontational. Specifically, Portee would publicly reprimand the students and list their names and behavior grades on the blackboard. This technique was inappropriate because it embarrasses the student and could cause further "acting out." Further, the last entry in Portee's plan book was for November 17.

Long rated Portee as unsatisfactory in employing effective organization and planning. Further, she rated Portee as needing improvement in the utilization of effective instructional techniques and addressing affective domain.

Cannizzaro conducted a formal evaluation of Portee's teaching performance on February 17, 1994 (J-11). At the time of the observation, Portee was conducting a "seat-work" lesson on mitosis. The students were not instructed but worked individually at their seats on five questions Portee had placed on the board. Cannizzaro opined that this questions were rather fact-based instead of open-ended. Further, the lesson did not require any critical thinking on the part of the students but was busy work. The lesson could have been meaningful had class discussion taken place or had the students work together in a cooperative learning situation. Cannizzaro concluded that a substitute could have delivered the lesson. She too noted that Portee's plan book was not current. Further, Portee's grade book revealed that the students were evaluated based upon test scores only, not notebooks or projects. Cannizzaro rated Portee as unsatisfactory in all areas. (J-11)

On the June 17, 1994 year-end performance evaluation, Long rated Portee as needing improvement in three areas: demonstrating proficiency in a subject matter; assessing needs and evaluation of student progress; and exhibiting a professional attitude and manner. Unsatisfactory ratings were given for: effective organization and planning; utilization of effective instructional technique; and establishing a rapport with students, staff and parents. The only satisfactory rating reflected was in the area of Portee's ability to implement and enforce school rules and administrative regulations. (J-13) The evaluation was a composite of all of Portee's evaluations in 1993-94.

John Portee testified that the biology class observed by Long was a difficult class. The students were fooling around, getting out of their seats. Therefore, discipline was absolutely necessary so that the student could be taught. Portee believes that Long was dissatisfied with the lesson because she wanted him to ask 30 questions on the handout and he asked only 25.

Portee disputes a lack of parental contact and notes that he had visited about ten homes prior to December 2, the date of the evaluation. Portee asserts that 70 percent of his students passed the midterm and final examinations.

Portee further noted that Cannazzaro had previously given him an excellent evaluation. Indeed, prior to December 2, evaluation, he had received excellent ratings on his prior evaluations. Portee concedes that if he had known that Cannazzaro was coming in for an observation, he would have given a different lesson. He teaches five periods a day, or twenty-five periods a week in addition to lab classes. Portee concludes that Cannazzaro missed the lab section of his grade book and thus denies grading on test grades only.

Based on the careful review of the record, I CONCLUDE that the District had reasonable basis for its action to withhold Portee salary increment. The testimony of the District witnesses was credible and persuasive.

I further CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to meet his burden of proof, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the District's action was unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious.

It is hereby ORDERED that the District's determination to withhold petitioner's increment for school year 1993-94 for unsatisfactory performance is AFFIRMED and the petition of appeal be DISMISSED.

EBEN MYERS

During the 1993-1994 school year, Eben Myers (Myers) was assigned as a Crisis Intervention Teacher (CIT) at Snyder High School. Vernelle Harris, Vice-Principal of Snyder High School, conducted informal and formal observations of Myers' performance from September 1993 to October 1993. (J-15). Harris prepared an instruction observation report and an annual evaluation. (J-16, J-17). As the CIT, Myers' duties were to act as the "dean" of discipline under her direct supervision. Harris informed Myers that he needed to increase his presence in the halls between period changes. Further, that he needed to be aware of a student's disciplinary history and conduct follow-up. While Myers was effective at resolving conflict after it arose, he needed to develop a plan to reduce or avoid the need for disciplinary intervention. Harris further took exception to Myers' tactic of developing friendly relations with students, having them call him "uncle" and suggesting that they join the school track team. Myers was the coach of the track team. In her opinion Myers' "friendliness" with some students prevented discipline.

Harris also concluded that Myers would only suspend students who were not athletes, and did not recommend discipline for students who were athletes. (J-15) A critical flaw was Myers' failure to implement the code of conduct. Thus, she rated Myers as needing improvement in demonstrating proficiency in a subject matter, assessing the needs and evaluating the progress of pupils, and addressing affective domain. In the last two performance areas, employing effective organization and planning and utilization of effective instructional techniques, she rated Myers as unsatisfactory (J-15).

On December 14, 1993, Harris prepared an instructional observation report summarizing her observations of Myers' performance for the period of October 28 to December 14, 1993. Myers had made progress in clearing the hallways during class changes. Further, Myers had started to keep student files on suspension, however, he failed to follow-through. Indeed, the files were put away and were not used to monitor students' behavior. While Myers had students sign contracts agreeing to modify their behaviors these too were filed away and not enforced. (J-16).

Moreover, Myers was reluctant to recommend suspension as discipline without her insistence. There was inconsistency between Myers' discipline of familiar students and unfamiliar students. Myers continued to give athletes preferential treatment. Indeed he would allow members of his track team to congregate in his office which interfered with his job duties. Further, Myers continued his "friendliness" with students, thus impeding his ability to effectuate discipline. Harris concedes that Myers had a "great rapport" with students, parents and staff. Thus, he could have had a great impact on discipline if he had properly utilized his communications skills. Consequently, she rated Myers as needing improvement in all areas. (J-16).

On June 21, 1994, Harris completed an end-of-year report on Myers. (J-17) Although, Myers was still not performing to her satisfaction, he had made progress in four areas. However, he continued to need improvement in three areas: demonstrating proficiency in subject matter; utilization of effective instructional techniques and exhibiting a professional attitude and manner. Harris recommended that Myers attend district workshops and training, organize his daily activities and prioritizes his responsibilities. Further, that Meyers read current literature on discipline. Additionally, she noted that Myers needed to report to work and sign in on time; effectively monitor and manage corridor activities; fairly execute disciplinary measures to all students; prevent his involvement in extra curricular activities from interfering with CIT duties. In spite of these deficiencies, she recommended Myers for a salary increment. (J-17) However, her supervisor overRuled her recommendation and the salary increment was denied.

Eben Myers testified that he has a B.A. in government, a Masters in Teaching and attended law school for 1.5 years. He became the crisis intervention teacher (CIT) at the request of the former principal during the time that he was a substitute teacher at Synder. There is no certification for a CIT. The CIT program was created by the state in 1990-91. As a CIT his primary duty is to maintain discipline. Harris and a security guard also are involved in discipline and they jointly monitor the hallways. Myers describes Synder High School as "something out of a comic book" where the students fight, carry guns and knives.

Myers disputes that he did not conduct follow-up with problem students. In addition to counseling students, he kept progress reports. The progress reports contained the names of the student's parents' a phone number and number of times he had saw a particular student. Further, during the school year he visited the houses of numerous students in addition to speaking with them by telephone. In the course of one day, he would see 20 to 30 students daily. In 1993-94 school term, he recommended to Harris that 400 students be suspended. However, only 275 -280 students were actually suspended. Myers disputes that he favored athletes and notes that he did suspend an athlete during the school term.

Myers asserts that crisis intervention cannot be pre-planned. Rather, the nature of the job requires spontaneous reaction. He also takes issue with the District's CIT training program and submits that it is inadequate because it fails to teach crisis intervention.

Based on a review of the record, I FIND that Myers improved his performance and was rated satisfactory in four areas. However, he needed improvement in three areas. (J-17). Myers did not receive any unsatisfactory ratings. A review of J-15 and J-16 reveals that Myers made significant improvement from the beginning of the school year where he was rated as unsatisfactory in two areas and needing improvement in the remaining performance factors. From October 1993 to December 1993, Myers' performance was still below par and he generally needed improvement in all areas. The issue is whether the improvement exhibited on J-17 warrants a salary increment.

Briefly, it must be reemphasized that Myers bears the burden of proving the burden of proving by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the District's action was unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious. Initially, it must be noted that the decision of a board of education, in this case the state superintendent, duly created and empowered by legislative fiat, it entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be upset unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. The board's determinations must be accepted if supported by substantial credible evidence. Thomas v. Bd. Of Educ. of The Township of Morris, 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd 46 N.J. 581 (1966).

For an action to be declared arbitrary and capricious, it must lack a rational basis. Bayshore Sewerage Co. V. Dep't Envtl. Protection, N.J., 122 N.J. Super 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), citing Bicknell v. U.S. 422 F.2d 1055, 1057 (5th Cir. 1970). An arbitrary and capricious action by an administrative body means willful and unreasoned action, without consideration and in disregard of circumstances. Bayshore, supra, at 199. An abuse of discretion occurs when a decision is not premised upon a consideration of all relevant factors, is based upon a consideration of irrelevant or inappropriate factors, or amount to a clear error in judgment. State v. Bender, 80 N.J. 84, 93 (1979).

Applying the law to the instant matter, I CONCLUDE that the denial of Myers' salary increment was not arbitrary or capricious or unreasonable. The respondent had before it three evaluations. The first two evaluations, (J-15 and J-16) prima facie establish that Myers' performance was below par. The third evaluation while exhibiting that Myers had improved and satisfactorily performed in four areas, still indicated that he needed improvement in demonstrating his proficiency as a disciplinarian; utilizing techniques and exhibiting a professional attitude and manner. These performance factors are significant as they go to the very core of the job. I therefore, CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to meet his burden of proof, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the District's action was unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious.

It is hereby ORDERED that the District's determination to withhold petitioner's increment for school year 1993-94 for unsatisfactory performance is AFFIRMED and the petition of appeal be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

1/30/97
DATE

Irene Jones
IRENE JONES, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 3, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 4 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

sej

EXHIBITS

Witnesses:

For Petitioners:

Sawson Labib

Emily Fogerty

John Portee

Eben Myers

For Respondent:

Marvin Strynar

William Ronzitti

John Smiga

Catherine Surdovel

Sandra Harrison

Gwendolyn Long

Maria Cannizzaro

Vernelle Harris

Exhibits:

J-1 IOP of Labib dated 1/10/94.

J-2 Memorandum dated 2/18/94.

J-3 IOP of Labib dated 2/22/94.

J-4 Letter dated 5/12/94.

J-5 IOP of Fogerty dated 11/10/93.

J-6 IOP of Fogerty dated 3/4/94.

J-7 IOP of Fogerty dated 3/21/94.

J-8 Letter dated 3/28/94.

J-9 Letter dated 5/12/94.

J-10 IOP of Portee dated 12/2/93.

J-11 IOP of Portee dated 2/17/94.

J-12 Letter to John Portee.

J-13 IAWPR dated 6/17/94.

J-14 Letter dated 5/12/94.

J-15 IOP of Myers dated 10/27/93.

J-16 IOP of Myers dated 12/14/93.

J-17 IAWPR dated 6/21/94.

J-18 Letter dated 5/12/94.

P-1 Rebuttal to Evaluation dated 1/10/94.

R-1 Letter of reprimand dated 2/28/94.

EMILY FOGERTY, SAWSON LABIB, EBEN MYERS AND JOHN PORTEE,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioners' exceptions were timely filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. To the extent these submissions are essentially a reiteration of those arguments raised before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) and fairly considered by her, they are not recounted herein.

Petitioners assert that the ALJ erred in interpreting the facts in this case. In so doing, petitioners identify testimony adduced at the hearing which, they contend, the ALJ failed to consider. (Petitioners' Exceptions at pp. 5, 6) With respect to Sawson Labib, petitioners aver that the ALJ failed to consider that she did not begin her duties at P.S. #37 at the beginning of the school year; that the principal, Marvin Strynar, observed her only once during the entire year; that prior to Strynar's single evaluation, he felt there was no teaching going on in Labib's room; that Strynar never asked to see Labib's plan book, but assumed she did not have one; that Labib was never advised that her increment was in danger because of her teaching effort or product, yet was advised that her increment was in danger due to her poor attendance; that, prior to Strynar's evaluation, all of Labib's evaluations contained all "satisfactory's"; that there is no written policy establishing the standard for denial of an increment; that Labib had never previously taught multiple handicapped children; and that Labib was not given a plan book, in accordance with the District's responsibility, despite having asked for one. (Id. at p. 5)

As to Emily Fogerty, petitioners contend the ALJ failed to consider that, prior to the years in question, Fogerty taught Basic Skills for ten years and never taught first grade; that, prior to reporting to school for the 1993-94 school year, Fogerty was never advised that she would not be teaching Basic Skills; that, when Fogerty arrived at P.S. #14, there were no materials for her; that she was never given a course of study; that, at no time prior to her first evaluation did anyone come to her room to help her; that although Assistant Principal Smiga faulted her for not writing the day's learning objective on the board, no one had advised her that same was required; that, while Smiga took exception to her writing the wrong date on the board, when she discovered the error, she corrected it; that Smiga did not consider her reasons for not allowing children to go to the bathroom; that Catherine Surdovel, Supervisor of Language Arts, who was asked to come to Fogerty's room to aid her, noted as late as March 1994 that Fogerty did not have all the necessary teaching materials; that Surdovel did not intend her evaluation to be used in determining whether Fogerty was to receive an increment; and that Fogerty was evaluated only once by each of the three evaluators. (Id. at pp. 5, 6)

As to John Portee, petitioners affirm that the ALJ failed to consider that the first person to observe and evaluate Portee was Ms. Cannazzarro, Supervisor of Science, who did not know that her evaluation would be used as a device to deny Portee's increment; that Gwen Long, Science Department Supervisor, who next evaluated Portee, admitted that his lesson was consistent with the course of study and that he was approximately at the point in the curriculum where he should have been; that Ms. Long admitted Portee did not have enough materials for the class; that Ms. Long took issue with the fact that Portee reprimanded students who were out of order; that, while Ms. Long testified that she felt Portee was spending too much time on one proficiency, she did not know if the class had mastered the proficiency being taught; that Ms. Long observed and evaluated him only once and had no knowledge of the success or failure rate of the students in his class. (Id. at p. 6)

As to Eben Myers, petitioners contend that the ALJ failed to consider that Myers was not a classroom teacher, yet the evaluation form used by the District was one for classroom teachers; that Myers had no students assigned to him; that he was evaluated by only one person, Vernelle Harris, Vice Principal of Snyder High School, who recommended that he receive his increment; and that no one recommended that Myers be denied his increment, and no testimony was offered as to why he did not receive same. (Id.)

Finally, petitioners again assert that the evaluation process as conducted by three supervisors and administrators was subjective and arbitrary, and "[i]n some cases the visit was unannounced." (Id. at p. 7) Additionally, petitioners reiterate that the District failed to comply with the due process requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14. (Id. at pp. 7, 8)

Upon careful and independent review, and finding petitioners' exception arguments to be unpersuasive, the Commissioner determines to affirm the initial decision of the ALJ. As the District properly instructs, it is petitioners' burden to prove, by a preponderance of credible evidence, that the District's decision to withhold petitioners' increments was unreasonable, based on the facts. Kopera, supra. They have failed to do so.

Further, petitioners have shown no fault with the number and conduct of the District's evaluations. In the instant matter, the District conducted two formal evaluations of Petitioner Labib by two different evaluators, three formal evaluations of Petitioner Fogerty by three different evaluators, three formal evaluations of Petitioner Portee by two different evaluators,[1] and three formal evaluations of Petitioner Myers by a single evaluator. That an evaluation will include subjective assessments by an administrator or supervisor of an individual's progress and performance is inevitable.

Moreover, that petitioners note evaluators' visits were, at times, unannounced, suggests their performances would have been better if they had been warned of the evaluator's upcoming visit. Yet, the Commissioner finds it entirely proper for the District to assume that it could evaluate any one of its staff members on any day and at any time and expect meritorious performance. It is further noted that, even when Petitioner Fogerty was provided notice that Assistant Principal Smiga would conduct a formal observation and was also told that her lesson should utilize cooperative learning techniques, Petitioner Fogerty nonetheless failed to employ these techniques and testified that "[s]he knew nothing of cooperative learning," (Initial Decision at p. 12), notwithstanding that she was a 20-year veteran of teaching.

As to Petitioner Myers, the Commissioner finds that the ALJ fairly concluded that, notwithstanding Ms. Harris' recommendation to the contrary, the District's decision to withhold Myers' increment was rationally based upon his observed and documented need for improvement in areas which directly implicate the duties of his job.[2] (Initial decision at p. 20)

[1] It is noted that the final evaluation was a composite of the previous two evaluations in 1993-94. (Initial Decision at p. 15)

With respect to petitioners' arguments regarding the alleged procedural infirmities of the District's actions, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's view that the State Superintendent is "empowered to engage in all necessary activities to allow the district to be fully functional," (Initial Decision at p. 4) and, indeed, is expressly authorized to make all personnel determinations relative to the employment of all officers and employees of the District, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-42a(3), which would include the power to act on a recommendation to withhold an increment. Moreover, to the extent petitioners assert they were not provided fair notice, the Commissioner reiterates the role that the performance evaluation plays for the diligent staff member:

> The State Board, in Yorke v. Piscataway BOE, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 9267-88 (Aug. 10, 1989), rev'd Comm'r (Sept. 18, 1989), rev'd State Board (July 5, 1990), rejected the petitioner's argument that the board's action was unreasonable in that she received no advance notice that her performance was viewed as being so deficient as to result in the withholding of her increments. In so deciding, the State Board noted that the "underlying purpose behind the evaluation procedure is to ensure that a teacher receives adequate notice of any unsatisfactory performance and of ways to improve performance." Id. Since concerns about her teaching performance were brought to the teacher's attention during various observations that year and the evaluations noted deficiencies, adequate notice was given. ***
>
> In Loewengart v. Randolph BOE, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5721-87 (June 20, 1988), adopted by Comm'r (July 29, 1988), the Commissioner concluded that it could not be said that "no notice or insufficient notice was provided or that the withholding came as a surprise." The petitioner "knew or should have known" early in the year that the principal who evaluates her performance was concerned about various aspects of it.  The Commissioner

[2] Among the areas "needing improvement," as cited on Myers' June 21, 1994 evaluation, was "Management of discipline on the second floor." (J-17) noted that N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 has no requirement for advance written notice of the intent to withhold. ***

The Commissioner, in Rosania v. Middlesex BOE, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5723-87, EDU 5303-86, remanded (Dec. 14, 1987), adopted with modification on remand by Comm'r (Jan. 22, 1988), noted that case law has established the requirement of some notice and opportunity to correct defects in a withholding case; however, the Commissioner also emphasized that this requirement  "certainly do[es] not rise to that required in a tenure matter." (emphasis in text) Sturn v. South Plainfield Board of Education, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 661, 668, 669.

In the instant matter, as seasoned professionals for the most part, petitioners cannot credibly claim that they were without notice that their respective performances were below District standards. Moreover, as the ALJ correctly noted, petitioners were provided written notice of the denial of their increments and an opportunity to submit a rebuttal. The hearing at the OAL further provided petitioners with the right of appeal. (Initial Decision at p. 4) Thus, any claim by petitioners as to denial of notice and opportunity to be heard is dismissed as without merit.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. The Petitions of Appeal in this matter are hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 18, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 18, 1997

125-97

EDU #8490-94, #8491-94 and #7968-95 (consolidated)
C # 125-97
SB # 31-97

EMILY FOGERTY, SAWSON LABIB, EBEN MYERS AND JOHN PORTEE, PETITIONERS-APPELLANTS,

V.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 18, 1997

For the Petitioners-Appellants, Feintuch, Porwich & Feintuch (Alan S. Porwich, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Patricia Taylor, Esq.

On March 18, 1997, the Commissioner of Education issued a decision in which he dismissed the consolidated petitions filed by Emily Fogerty, Sawson Labib, Eben Myers and John Portee (hereinafter "appellants"), tenured teaching staff members who challenged the State-operated District's action in withholding their salary increments for the 1994-95 school year.

On April 2, 1997, appellants filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), appellants' brief in support of their appeal was due on April 22, 1997, 20 days after the notice of appeal was filed. Appellants, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated April 29, 1997, the counsel for the State Board notified appellants that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of their failure to perfect the appeal. As a result of that notice, counsel for appellants requested that the filing deadline be extended until May 7. Appellants, however, have still failed to file a brief in support of their appeal, nearly two months after the extended deadline for such filing, or to offer any explanation for their failure to do so. Nor have appellants requested an additional extension of time for such filing.

7/2/97

Consequently, under the circumstances, the State Board of Education dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a). See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 08 1997

125-97

EDU #8490-94, #8491-94 and #7968-95 (consolidated)
C # 125-97
SB # 31-97

EMILY FOGERTY, SAWSON LABIB, EBEN MYERS AND JOHN PORTEE, PETITIONERS-APPELLANTS,

V.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION ON MOTION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 18, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, July 2, 1997

For the Petitioners-Appellants, Feintuch, Porwich & Feintuch (Alan S. Porwich, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Patricia Taylor, Esq.

On March 18, 1997, the Commissioner of Education issued a decision in which he dismissed the consolidated petitions filed by appellants herein, tenured teaching staff members who challenged the State-operated District's actions in withholding their salary increments for the 1994-95 school year. On April 2, 1997, appellants filed a notice of appeal from that decision with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), appellants' brief in support of their appeal was due on April 22, 1997. However, no brief was filed by that date. By letter dated April 29, 1997, we notified the counsel for appellants that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of appellants' failure to perfect the appeal. As a result of that notice, the counsel for appellants requested that the filing deadline be extended until May 7. We granted that request. However, the counsel for appellants still failed to file a brief in support of the appeal or to offer any explanation for his failure to do so. Nor did he request an additional extension of time for such filing. Consequently, on July 2, 1997, eight weeks after the extended deadline, we dismissed the appeal for failure to perfect, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a), which authorizes dismissal of an appeal for failure to meet the filing deadline for an appeal brief. See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

10/1/97

On July 22, appellants filed the instant motion for reconsideration of that decision. In a certification submitted with the motion, the counsel for appellants explains his failure to file a brief by indicating that he has been under treatment for chronic depression and attention deficit disorder. He avers that "[a]s a result of these conditions, I have had difficulty in meeting the pressures of my work load and have been unable to meet time deadlines on certain matters, such as this." He adds that his secretary had "missed a significant amount of time recently due to personal reasons causing a further back-up of my workload."

A "Psychological Summary" by Patricia M. Brady, Ed.D. dated June 24, 1997, a week prior to our decision dismissing the appeal, confirms that the counsel for appellants has been under treatment for "Major Depression" since August 1996 and indicates that he has "made improvements." She also relates that he has been under treatment for "Attention Deficit Disorder" since April 1997. She adds: "It is notable that since beginning this medication, [the counsel for appellants] is reporting increased productivity and an awareness of both attention and memory improvements, all of which have been validated for him by the positive comments of coworkers."

After a review of the papers submitted, we find no basis for reconsidering our decision. The counsel for the appellants was notified by letter dated April 29 of his failure to file a brief by the April 22 filing deadline. As a result of that notice, he requested and was granted an extension until May 7. Yet, he still failed to file a brief in support of the appeal. Nor did he request an additional extension, provide any explanation for such failure or otherwise contact us with regard to this matter. He was subsequently advised by letter dated June 20 that this matter was scheduled for consideration by the State Board at our meeting of July 2. He did not respond to that notice. Nor did he file a brief in support of the appeal. As a result, we dismissed the petition, nearly two months after the extended deadline.

We note, in addition, that the documentation provided with the motion indicates that the counsel for appellants was under treatment and showing improvement, including increased productivity, during the relevant periods at issue herein. Nonetheless, despite his request to extend the filing deadline, he still failed to file a brief in support of the appeal or to offer any explanation for his repeated failures to comply with our filing requirements until July 22, when he filed the instant motion for reconsideration, three weeks after our decision to dismiss the appeal and three months after appellants' brief had originally been due.

As noted by the Court in Paszamant, supra, slip op. at 3, "[a]n entity such as the State Board of Education has to be free to enforce its own procedural rules, providing that it does not do so in a manner which is arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." It was the obligation and responsibility of the counsel for appellants to assure compliance with the regulations, and, under the particular circumstances before us, we find no basis for reconsidering our decision to dismiss the appeal. Nor does this case present us with a matter of public importance or substantive issues of transcendent importance compelling resolution. Consequently, we deny appellants' motion for reconsideration of our decision dated July 2, 1997 in this matter.

October 1, 1997

Date of mailing OCT 03 1997

126-97

126-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE ANNUAL	:
SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN THE	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON,	:	DECISION
PASSAIC COUNTY.	:
	:

March 19, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

TRANSCRIPT
ORAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4712-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 111-4/95

ANNUAL SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY

Viji Sargis, petitioner, pro se

Louis M. Flora, Esq., for respondent School District of the City of Paterson Record Closed: August 22, 1996 Decided: September 17, 1996

This is a transcript of the administrative law judge's oral decision rendered pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.2.

BEFORE: ELINOR R. REINER, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about April 24, 1995, petitioner Viji Sargis filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, requesting an inquiry into alleged violations of statutorily prescribed election procedures in the annual school election held in the School District of the City of Paterson. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 10, 1995, for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The case was assigned to the undersigned judge on June 2, 1995, and a telephone prehearing conference was scheduled for July 6, 1995. That date was subsequently adjourned, and the telephone prehearing conference was held on August 22, 1995, at which time the issues were isolated. The issues, as stated in the prehearing order, are whether there were any improprieties and/or violations of law in the conduct of the school election held in the School District of the City of Paterson, Passaic County, on April 18, 1995, and, if so, what is the appropriate relief. Respondent was to file its answer to the petition on or before August 31, 1995. Respondent filed its answer to the petition on September 5, 1995. The parties were required to propound interrogatories and request the production of documents on or before September 29, 1995. Those interrogatories were to be answered on or before October 27, 1995. By letter dated August 31, 1995, enclosing a corrected copy of the prehearing order, the OAL notified the parties that the hearing was scheduled for March 22 and 29, and April 1 and 2, 1996

As stated above, the case was scheduled to be heard beginning March 22, 1996, at which point there was a pending motion filed by respondent in regard to the Commissioner's jurisdiction of this matter. Various cases pending before the OAL entailed the same jurisdictional issue. They were consolidated for determination by Chief Judge and Director Barbara Harned, who ruled that the Office of Administrative Law did in fact have jurisdiction over these cases. As a result, this matter was rescheduled for today's date. There is a motion, however, that is pending by respondent, the School District of the City of Paterson, and that motion originally related to the jurisdictional issue which has since been determined by Judge Harned. Still open, however, are the issues of mootness and dismissal of the claim due to petitioner's failure to provide discovery.

DISCUSSION

I have considered respondent's motion to dismiss on the grounds of mootness and failure to provide discovery, in addition to failure to respond to the motions and orders of this tribunal. Having done so, I am inclined to grant respondent's motion to dismiss on the basis of failure to provide discovery. Let me begin by saying that in regard to the issue of mootness, I am not now inclined to dismiss on that basis. Petitioner has alleged a number of improprieties which really have at this point in time not been addressed. It may be that petitioner's allegations are out of time, it may be that they are moot, it may be that if the facts were known there would be a proper motion for summary decision filed. At this point in time, I am not inclined to grant respondent's motion to dismiss on the basis of mootness, because I do not think that I have enough facts at this juncture to make that determination.

However, I do have enough facts before me to conclude that the appropriate sanction regarding failure to answer discovery is to dismiss this matter. Let me refer you to N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1(a), which sets forth the purpose and function of discovery: "The purpose of discovery is to facilitate the disposition of cases by streamlining the hearing and enhancing the likelihood of settlement or withdrawal. These rules are designed to achieve this purpose by giving litigants access to facts which tend to support or undermine their position or that of their adversary." In the instant case, had petitioner provided discovery, perhaps respondent could have made a more appropriate motion in regard to petitioner's claim. This could not be done because petitioner did not answer respondent's discovery request.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1(b) indicates that it is not ground for denial of a request for discovery that the information to be produced may be inadmissible in evidence if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. If one looks at N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.2, any party may notify another party to provide discovery by one or more of the following methods: 1. written interrogatories; 2. production of documents or things; 3. (not relevant here) permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection or other purposes; and 4. requests for admissions, which were in fact requested here. Depositions can also be utilized under certain circumstances. But, of import here is N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4, which provides that the parties in any contested case shall commence immediately to exchange information voluntarily, to seek access as provided by law to public documents and to exhaust other informal means of obtaining discoverable material. The parties shall immediately serve discovery requests and notices and make discovery motions. No later than fifteen days from receipt of a notice requesting discovery, the receiving party shall provide the requested information, material or access or offer a schedule for reasonable compliance with the notice; or, in the case of a notice requesting admissions, each matter therein shall be admitted unless within the fifteen days the receiving party answers, admits or denies the request or objects to it pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4(d). Subsection (d) states that a party who wishes to object to a discovery notice shall place a telephone conference call to the judge and the other parties within ten days from receipt of the notice.. A party who wishes to compel a response to a discovery notice shall place a telephone conference call to the judge and the other parties within ten days of the notice due date. A party who wishes to object to a discovery response shall place a telephone call to the judge and the other parties within ten days of receiving the response. If a party fails without good reason to place a timely telephone call, the judge may deny that party's objection or decline to compel the discovery. The parties shall complete all discovery no later than five days before the first scheduled evidentiary hearing or by such date ordered by the judge at the prehearing conference.

In the instant case, it is clear to me, and petitioner admits, that she in fact received respondent's discovery request. Whether that discovery request came on September 29 or on September 30, she has had the discovery request since on or about September 29, 1995, and has failed in almost one year to comply with that discovery request. We have had numerous conferences. There was a scheduled hearing date in March 1996, at which petitioner appeared, and still petitioner has failed to answer those interrogatories. In addition, a motion was filed by respondent seeking sanctions. Even after that motion was filed, and even at my request by telephone call of July 29 to respond to that motion, there has never been a response to respondent's set of interrogatories. In fact, there has never really been a real response to the motion from petitioner as to why she failed to answer those interrogatories. Petitioner says in the hearing today, "I failed to answer interrogatories because he already has the information." It is not petitioner's choice to proceed in that manner. I understand that petitioner is pro se. However, petitioner is able to cite numerous statutes, which she feels that respondent has not complied with and which establish improprieties. She has to then comply with the rules of this tribunal, and she has in fact failed to do that. Applicable as a result is N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.5, the sanctions provision, which provides that by motion of a party or on his or her own motion, the judge may impose sanctions pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14 for failure to comply with the requirements of this subchapter. Before imposing sanctions the judge shall provide an opportunity to be heard.

If one looks at N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14, it indicates that (a) for unreasonable failure to comply with any order of the judge or with any requirements of this chapter, the judge may: 1. Dismiss or grant the motion or application; 2. Suppress a defense or claim; 3. Exclude evidence; 4. Order costs or reasonable expenses; or 5. Take other appropriate case-related action. In this case, I am going to dismiss the petition for failure to comply with discovery. The discovery was supposed to be completed by petitioner by October 27, 1995. It has not been completed to date. There has been no reasonable response by petitioner as to why that has not been accomplished and, as a result, I do not believe that I have any recourse but to grant respondent's motion. So, I will ask respondent to prepare an order under the five-day rule. This decision will be incorporated into a written decision dismissing petitioner's claim.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended oral decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended oral decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

END OF TRANSCRIPT

I, Anna M. Leggett, certify that the foregoing is a true and accurate transcript, to the best of my ability, of Judge Elinor R. Reiner's oral decision as edited by the ALJ for form but not substance, rendered in the above matter on August 22, 1996.

DATE — ANNA M. LEGGETT

DATE — ELINOR R. REINER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

DATE — DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

DATE — OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 11553-96 AND EDU 4712-95 (ON REMAND)

AGENCY DKT. NO. 111-4/95

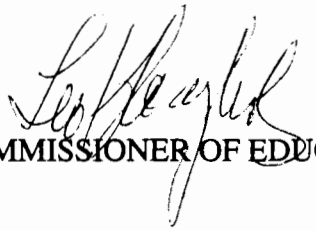
IN THE MATTER OF THE ANNUAL	:
SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN THE	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON,	:	DECISION
PASSAIC COUNTY.	:
	:

The record of this matter, which includes the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), petitioner's exceptions, and the previous decision of the Commissioner dated October 28, 1996, remanding this matter to OAL for review of the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) recommended sanction, having been returned to this agency, has been reviewed. Although the parties were provided with the opportunity to submit comments on the requested return of this file, and the proposed action to vacate the Commissioner's prior decision, no such comments were filed.

Upon review, the Commissioner has determined to vacate his decision of October 28, 1996, and to affirm the initial decision of the ALJ for the reasons expressed therein. In so ruling, the Commissioner recognizes that the recommended sanction of dismissal for petitioner's failure to comply with discovery requirements is within the Commissioner's jurisdiction and that no remand of the instant matter to the OAL Director for imposition of sanction is necessary.

Accordingly, the Commissioner vacates his decision of October 28, 1996, and for the reasons expressed therein, adopts the initial decision of the OAL dismissing the within Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.



COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 19, 1997

126-97

EDU #4712-95
C # 126-97
SB # 42-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE ANNUAL :
SCHOOL ELECTION HELD IN THE :
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC : DECISION
COUNTY. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 19, 1997

For the Petitioner- Appellant, Dr. Viji Sarjis, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Louis M. Flora, Esq.

The decision of the Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

127-97

127-97

ROSE BACHRATY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF CLARK, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

March 19, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9262-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 221-6/95

ROSE BACHRATY,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TP. OF CLARK,

Respondent.

Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., for petitioner (Bucceri & Pincus, attorneys)

Mark S. Tabenkin, Esq., for respondent (Kenney & Gross, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 23, 1997 Decided: January 27, 1997

BEFORE STEPHEN G. WEISS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case by the Department of Education in August 1995 and involved a claim by the petitioner, Rose Bachraty, that the respondent Board of Education of Clark, had violated her tenure and seniority rights by failing to offer her reemployment for the 1995-96 school year. A prehearing was held on April 29, 1996 which resulted in the amendment of a prehearing order which previously had been entered on November 2, 1995. Hearings were scheduled for October 21, 1996. Prior to the hearing date I was advised that the case had been settled and that a stipulation of settlement would be filed.

That stipulation, containing the terms and conditions of the agreement between the parties, has now been submitted to me. It provides for payment by the Board to petitioner in the amount of $11,500 and the withdrawal by Bachraty, with prejudice, of her petition of appeal. In addition, it provides that she retains any and all reemployment rights to which she may be entitled under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12.

Having reviewed the terms of the settlement agreement I FIND as follows:

1. The parties voluntarily have agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.

2. The settlement as set forth fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with law.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 27, 1997
DATE

STEPHEN G. WEISS, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 4, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 5 1997
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

/mh

ROSE BACHRATY,	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY
Petitioner,	:	Agency Ref. No. 221-6/95
-vs.-	:	OAL Docket No. EDU 9262-95N
CLARK TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION,	:
Respondent.	:	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS on or about June 14, 1995 petitioner ROSE BACHRATY ("Bachraty") filed a Petition of Appeal against respondent CLARK TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION (the "Board"), contesting the Board's failure to appoint her to the position of Computer Teacher for the 1995-96 school year; and

WHEREAS the aforesaid Petition of Appeal is currently pending before the Commissioner of Education as Agency Ref. No. 221-6/95 (OAL Docket No. EDU 9262-95N); and

WHEREAS the Board and Bachraty now desire to resolve the matter in dispute between them amicably and without the need for further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the CLARK TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION and ROSE BACHRATY agree as follows:

1. The Board shall pay to Bachraty the sum of $11,500 in full settlement of the claim set forth in Agency

Ref. No. 221-6/95 (OAL Docket No. EDU 9262-95N) for the 1995-96 school year.

2. Bachraty shall withdraw, with prejudice, her pending Petition of Appeal in Agency Ref. No. 221-6/95 (OAL Docket No. EDU 9262-95N).

3. Bachraty retains any and all re-employment rights which she may have under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12.

CLARK BOARD OF EDUCATION ROSE BACHRATY

Paul Ptenzio 10/16/96 Rose A Bachraty 10/3/96

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9262-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 221-6/95

ROSE BACHRATY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF CLARK, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 19, 1997

128-97

128-97

BERNARD LAUFGAS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
WILLIAM GAHRES, ROBERT L. HORBELT, PAUL CARR AND BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BARNEGAT, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

March 19, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5222-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. #20 - 1/95

BERNARD LAUFGAS,

Petitioner,

v.

WILLIAM GAHRES, ROBERT L. HORBELT, BARNEGAT TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION AND PAUL CARR

Respondents.

Bernard Laufgas, petitioner pro se

Bradley W. Henson, Sr., Esq., for respondents

Record Closed: February 3, 1997 Decided: February 3, 1997

BEFORE JOHN R. TASSINI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner charged that the respondents violated laws relative to the making, maintenance and confidentiality of pupil records and respondents denied any such violation.

After petitioner did not return messages requesting that he contact my office to advise of dates when he could be present for a hearing for this case, he was notified in writing that, by a date certain, he should telephone my office for that purpose and that, if he did not do so, I would assume that he did not wish to continue his claim and that his claim would be dismissed. Petitioner did not telephone my office and, consequently, the claim is dismissed. N.J.A.C. 1:1 -14.6, -14.14.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY
AND
FINDINGS OF FACT

On January 30, 1995, the petitioner's "Complaint" (claim) was filed with the New Jersey Department of Education's Bureau of Controversies and Disputes. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. On May 4, 1995, the respondents' "Response to Petition," prepared by respondent Carr, was so filed. The Bureau transmitted the papers to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) where, on May 19, 1995, the matter was filed as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-2(b). The case was assigned to me and I scheduled a telephone conference, etc., which were adjourned. By letter dated February 16, 1996, I notified respondent Carr, that, in view of his status as a party, he could not also appear as the respondents' attorney and I requested that he notify me of the attorney who would appear for respondents. By letter dated March 27, 1996, respondent Carr notified me that he had not been served with a copy of the "Complaint," wherein he was named as a respondent, etc. Thereafter, there was correspondence relative to discovery, the respondents' attorney, etc. On August 7, 1996, a substitution of attorney was filed and Mr. Henson began his representation of respondents.

A December 12, 1996 hearing date was adjourned and, before the December 1996 holidays, my secretary telephoned and left messages for petitioner requesting that he contact my office and advise us of dates on which he could be present for a hearing. On or about January 21, 1997, having had no response from petitioner, my office mailed to him my letter in that regard and that letter has not been returned. State v. Wenoff, 102 N.J. 370, 375-76 (App. Div. 1968). My letter stated:

> My secretary informs me that before the December holidays, she left messages for you requesting that you contact us and advise us of dates on which you can be present for a hearing. Since then, my secretary tells me, you have not responded. This is notice to you that, if by January 31, 1997, you have not telephoned my office to advise that you will be present for a hearing on May 31, 1997, then I will assume that you do not wish to continue your claim and I will dismiss your case.
>
> [ALJ-1.]

My secretary and I have received no message from petitioner in response to the above letter and we have received no other message from anyone on behalf of petitioner explaining and/or excusing his failure to respond to the above letter.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In litigation, administrative adjudication and dispute resolution generally, to assure due process and fairness, a party must cooperate and participate in the scheduling of a hearing, etc. A party's failure and/or refusal to so cooperate and participate would deprive an adverse party of the opportunity to protect its interest and prevent the making of a fair record on which a judge would make findings and conclusions. Consistent with these notions, a judge may schedule conferences, appearances and hearings and the judge may take such other actions as necessary for the expeditious and fair conduct of the case. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.6. Consistent with these notions also, where a party unreasonably fails to cooperate and comply with the judge's directions relative to, e.g., scheduling a hearing, his or her claim for relief (petition) may be dismissed. N.J.A.C. 1:1 -14.14.

Despite notice to the petitioner that his petition would be dismissed for failure and/or refusal to confirm that he will make himself available for a hearing, he has unreasonably failed to provide such confirmation. The petitioner has resisted compliance with reasonable scheduling and adjudication requirements and, consistent with the above-noted notions of due process and fundamental fairness, his petition must be dismissed. Mueller v. Pannucci, Paredes and Brick Twp. BOE, OAL DKT NO. EDU 2152-95, Commissioner's Decision (November 15, 1995).

ORDER

I ORDER the petitioner's claims DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb. 3, 1997
DATE

John R. Tassini
JOHN R. TASSINI, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/5/97
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 3 1997
DATE

Barbara A Kerner
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5222-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 20-1/95

BERNARD LAUFGAS,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
WILLIAM GAHRES, ROBERT L. HORBELT, PAUL CARR AND BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BARNEGAT, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14, petitioner's failure to respond to the ALJ's communications warranted dismissal of the instant case.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL for the reasons expressed therein and dismisses the within Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 19, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 19, 1997

129-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW PHILLIPS,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	DECISION
BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION	:
COUNTY.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Board certified tenure charges of unbecoming conduct against special education teacher for allegedly falsifying grades of students.

Following motion by Board for Summary Decision, the ALJ granted Board's motion since respondent failed to comply with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5 regarding responses to motions for summary decision. ALJ dismissed respondent's appeal. However, the ALJ granted respondent's motion to resume his salary, effective December 27, 1996.

Commissioner adopted in part, and modified in part, the recommended decision of the ALJ. The Commissioner clarified that the tenure matter before him was brought by the Board and was not the result of a Petition of Appeal filed by respondent as noted in the initial decision. Further, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's view that respondent was entitled by statute to a resumption of his salary as of December 27, 1996, he agreed with respondent's contention that his benefits should also recommence as of that date. Commissioner granted the Board's motion for summary decision to the extent that the Commissioner determined that respondent was guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. However, he remanded the matter to OAL solely for proceedings as are necessary to submit evidence regarding the assignment or mitigation of penalty.

March 20, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
MOTION AND CROSS-MOTION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11163-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 391-9/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF ANDREW PHILLIPS, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY

Neil M. Cohen, Esq., attorney for petitioner (Gill & Cohen, attorneys)

Sheldon H. Pincus, Esq., attorney for respondent (Bucceri & Pincus, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 23, 1996 Decided: January 24, 1997

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle, Union County (the Board) brings tenure charges against respondent, Andrew Phillips (Mr. Phillips), pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 for alleged unbecoming conduct.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On August 28, 1996, the Board voted to support tenure charges against Mr. Phillips for conduct unbecoming a teacher and to suspend him without pay. The Board certified the charges on September 3, 1996, and it filed a Certificate of Determination with the Commissioner of the Department of Education (the Commissioner) on September 6, 1996. On October 23, 1996, the Commissioner transferred the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (the OAL) for a hearing as a contested case.

On December 5, 1996, Mr. Phillips filed a motion for an Order compelling the Board to resume his salary, effective December 27, 1996. On December 17, 1996, the Board filed a reply to that motion and it filed a cross-motion for summary decision and an expedited hearing date. Mr. Phillips filed a reply to the cross-motion on December 23, 1996.

MR. PHILLIPS'S MOTION

Mr. Phillips seeks an Order compelling the Board to resume his salary, effective December 27, 1996. In support of his motion, Mr. Phillips argues that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14 authorizes a suspension without pay for 120 days. That 120 days expired on December 26, 1996. Thus, Mr. Phillips argues that he is entitled to resume his salary as of December 27, 1996.

In opposition to this motion, the Board argues that Mr. Phillips allegedly admitted that he committed a fraud in falsifying grades of special education students. Thus, the Board argues that Mr. Phillips should not have to be paid and should be dismissed from his teaching position as a matter of law.

The suspension of Mr. Phillips without pay is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14, which provides:

> Upon certification of any charge to the commissioner, the board may suspend the person against whom such charge is made, with or without pay, but if the determination of the charge by the Commissioner of Education is not made within 120 calendar days after certification of the charges, excluding all delays which are granted at the request of such person, then the full salary (except for said 120 days) of such person shall be paid beginning on the one hundred twenty-first day until such determination is made.

Pursuant to this statute, the Board has the authority to suspend an employee without pay if it certifies tenure charges against that employee. Once the charges are certified, this statute allows the suspension to continue without pay for only 120 calendar days after certification of the charges. This statute mandates that the resumption of the suspended employee's full salary must begin on the 121st day after the certification of the charges and must continue until the Commissioner of Education determines the charge. The Commissioner has held that the time period of suspension without pay is limited to a total of 120 calendar days, including weekends, vacations, holidays, summer vacations and any other day falling within a period of 120 days from the commencement of the suspension. In re Tenure Hearing of Walter Kizer, 1974 S.L.D. 501; In re Tenure Hearing of Anthony Polito, 1974 S.L.D. 662; In re Tenure Hearing of Matilda Grabert, 1977 S.L.D. 163.

The Board suspended Mr. Phillips without pay on August 28, 1996. The 120-day time period expired on December 26, 1996. Although the undersigned understands the Board's reluctance to continue paying Mr. Phillips under the circumstances of this case, the law is clear that it must do so. According to the language of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14, Mr. Phillips's salary must resume on December 27, 1996 and continue until the Commissioner makes a determination in this matter.

THE BOARD'S CROSS-MOTION FOR SUMMARY DECISION

The Board moves for Summary Decision on the grounds that Mr. Phillips admitted that he falsified and made up grades for his special education students because he failed to give them tests. To support this argument, the Board submitted the affidavit of Kathleen Smith-Gomes (Ms.

Smith-Gomes), the person to whom Mr. Phillips admitted his improper conduct. The Board argues that, based upon his admitted improper conduct, Mr. Phillips should be dismissed as a matter of law with no further testimony. Mr. Phillips has submitted no affidavit in response to the facts contained in Ms. Smith-Gomes's affidavit. Instead, Mr. Phillips improperly relies only on arguments made in a letter brief.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5 provides that a motion for summary decision may be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." In order to defeat a motion for summary decision, the adverse party must comply with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, which requires, in pertinent part:

> [W]hen a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. If the adverse party does not so respond, a summary decision, if appropriate, shall be entered. (Emphasis added.)

Mr. Phillips has failed to comply with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. Thus, it must be determined whether or not summary decision is appropriate at this time.

It is clear to the undersigned from the facts set forth in Ms. Smith-Gomes's affidavit that Mr. Phillips falsified grades of his special education students. It is, therefore, CONCLUDED that this conduct constitutes unbecoming conduct and other just cause for termination pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, et seq.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. Mr. Phillips's motion to resume his salary, effective December 27, 1996, be and hereby is GRANTED. The Board shall resume Mr. Phillips's salary effective December 27, 1996 and shall continue his salary until the Commissioner makes a determination in this matter.

2. The Board's cross-motion for summary decision be and hereby is GRANTED. Mr. Phillips's appeal be and hereby is DENIED and this matter be and hereby is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE my Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the Judge and to the other parties.

Jan 24, 1997
DATE

MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/3/97
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 4 1997
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11163-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 391-9/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW PHILLIPS,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	DECISION
BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION	:
COUNTY.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Respondent's exceptions were filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. The Board's reply was untimely filed and is not, therefore, considered herein.

Respondent initially asserts that, under the Tenure Employees Hearing Law, he is entitled to a hearing before the Commissioner of Education. The Board may not, according to respondent, determine whether he is guilty of the charge; nor may the Board determine the appropriate penalty. (Respondent's Exceptions at p. 1) Rather, respondent refers to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-16 and argues that

> The statute speaks in declarative terms. It does not state that the Commissioner may conduct a hearing, but rather makes it clear that the Commissioner will have one. A hearing is necessary because the Commissioner is required to determine the penalty to be imposed after hearing all the evidence relating to the extent of the penalty appropriate for the employee's conduct. (emphasis in text) (Id. at p. 2)

Similarly, respondent avers that he is entitled to discovery prior to a decision being rendered in this matter. Respondent herein notes that he wrote to the OAL on November 4, 1996, requesting a prehearing conference in order to establish a schedule for discovery, among other things. (Id. at p. 4) Moreover, respondent contends that he is also entitled to confront and cross-examine the witnesses who will testify against him, as well as to submit evidence with respect to the appropriate penalty.

Respondent next asserts that the initial decision violates his constitutional right to procedural due process. Respondent emphasizes that he has acquired a property interest in his position and that due process demands that prior to termination, he be provided a hearing and an opportunity to challenge the sufficiency of the charges.

Additionally, respondent takes exception to the initial decision's treatment of the Board's petition in this matter as respondent's appeal of a dismissal decision. Respondent observes that, on page five of the initial decision, the ALJ determines that, "Mr. Phillips's appeal be and hereby is DENIED ." (Initial Decision at p. 5) However, respondent remarks,

> In the instant matter, the Board filed the charges and then made a motion for Summary Judgment. It did not submit any additional affidavits or certifications in support of its motion, but merely supplied a copy of the original charge. (Respondent's Exceptions at p. 6)

Respondent underscores that he previously denied the charges in his Answer, which was not verified inasmuch as the New Jersey Administrative Code does not so require. Yet, respondent observes, the Board's charges are required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11 to be supported by a written statement of evidence under oath.

Finally, respondent avers that while the initial decision grants his motion to resume his salary, his motion was to resume his salary and benefits. (Id. at p. 8) Thus, respondent urges that the Commissioner modify the initial decision to include the resumption of respondent's salary and benefits, effective December 27, 1996, and to reverse the initial decision with respect to the Board's motion for summary judgment. "Summary Judgment," according to respondent, "is inappropriate in a matter brought under the Tenure Employees Hearing Law." (Id. at p. 6)

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner determines to adopt in part, and modify in part, the recommended decision of the OAL. Initially, the Commissioner notes and herein clarifies that the tenure matter before him was brought by the Board and was not the result of a Petition of Appeal filed by Phillips, as noted in the initial decision at page five. Further, while the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's view that Respondent Phillips was entitled, by statute, to a resumption of his salary as of December 27, 1996, he duly notes, and is in accord with, respondent's contention that his benefits should also recommence as of that date.

As to the Board's Cross-Motion for Summary Decision, the Commissioner recognizes that while he has the duty to conduct a hearing and render a decision in all tenure matters, such hearings will necessarily be in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules of Practice, N.J.A.C. 1:1. Contrary to respondent's view, these rules contemplate motions for summary decision, and decisions on said motions, before the ALJ. See N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.10(b) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5.

In the instant matter, while the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the Board's motion for summary decision may properly be granted, his reason for this determination is rooted not in a technical deficiency, but in a substantive failing. The ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision on the basis of a technical defect in respondent's reply; that is, "[respondent] submitted no affidavit in response to the facts contained in Ms. Smith-Gomes's affidavit. Instead, Mr. Phillips improperly relie[d] only on arguments made in a letter brief." (Initial Decision at p. 4)

However, the Commissioner herein finds that, even accepting that the arguments advanced in respondent's reply brief are technically sufficient, said arguments do not offer evidence to contradict the specific facts which underlie the Board's tenure charges in the instant matter, notwithstanding that respondent's prior submissions, in general, deny the Board's resulting accusation that he falsified students' final examination grades sufficient to constitute conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member.* "It is well-established that where no disputed issues of material fact exist, an administrative agency need not hold an evidential hearing in a contested case." Frank v. Ivy Club, 120 N.J. 73, 98, citing Cunningham v. Dept. of Civil Service, 69 N.J. 13, 24-25 (1975). "Moreover, disputes as to the conclusions to be drawn from the facts, as opposed to the facts themselves, will not defeat a motion for summary judgment." Contini v.

* Respondent's Answer states, in pertinent part, "The allegations and charges of unbecoming conduct and other just cause for termination are denied." (Answer at p. 1) In a later submission before the OAL, respondent asserts, "Petitioner's claim of an admission on Phillips' part is of no moment at this juncture, nor is it conceded without cross-examination at a hearing where, purportedly, such a statement may be offered in evidence. Moreover, discovery is needed as to the timing and particulars of the alleged admission since it is not clear. Moreover, it is reasonably believed that petitioner's proffer may be inadmissible pursuant to New Jersey Evidence Rule 408. " (Respondent's Memorandum in Opposition to Notice of Cross-Motion at p. 4) Not only does respondent fail to dispute the material facts in this matter, but his claim as to the possible inadmissibility of the proffer in question rests upon a rule of evidence which has no apparent bearing on the instant matter, since Rule 408 establishes that evidence of statements or conduct by parties in the course of settlement negotiations shall not be admissible to prove liability for, or invalidity of, or amount of a disputed claim. N.J. Evid. R. 408.

Board of Education of Newark, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 196, 215, citing Lima & Sons, Inc. v. Borough of Ramsey, 269 N.J. Super. 469, 478 (App. Div. 1994) (emphasis added). Summary disposition in favor of the Board is, therefore, appropriate, inasmuch as respondent has failed to show "that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." (emphasis added) (N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b))

Notwithstanding this outcome, the Commissioner nonetheless recognizes that his exclusive jurisdiction to hear and decide tenure cases necessarily requires him to make a concomitant determination as to the appropriate penalty. See In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404 at 412. Inasmuch as the record is devoid of evidence regarding the assignment or mitigation of penalty, the Commissioner is compelled to remand this matter to the OAL solely for proceedings as are necessary to submit such evidence and to make recommendations, as appropriate.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is affirmed in part and modified as set forth above. The respondent's motion to resume his salary, effective December 27, 1996, is hereby granted. Additionally, the Board's motion for summary decision is granted to the extent that the Commissioner determines that respondent is guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. However, this matter is remanded to the OAL for proceedings on the question of the appropriate penalty to impose under the circumstances in this case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 20, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 20, 1997

129-97

519-97 R
(129-97)

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW PHILLIPS,	:
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION	:	DECISION ON REMAND
COUNTY.	:

SEPTEMBER 29, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3640-97

AGENCY DKT. NO. 391-9/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF ANDREW PHILLIPS, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY

Neil Cohen, Esq., attorney for petitioner (Gill & Cohen, attorneys)

Sheldon H. Pincus, Esq., for respondent (Bucceri & Pincus, Esqs., attorneys)

Record Closed: July 31, 1997 Decided: August 5, 1997

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Petitioner, Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle, Union County (the Board), brought tenure charges against respondent, Andrew Phillips (Mr. Phillips), pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 for alleged unbecoming conduct.

The Department of Education transferred this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (the OAL) on October 23, 1996, for a hearing as a contested case. The OAL scheduled a hearing for July 15, 1997.

Prior to the scheduled hearing date, the parties agreed to settle this matter. On July 31, 1997, they submitted the attached Memorandum of Agreement which sets forth the terms of the settlement.

I have reviewed the record and settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE my Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Aug. 5, 1997
DATE

MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Receipt Acknowledged:

8/13/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

AUG 14 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

RECEIVED
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ...

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

JUL 31 3 59 PM '97

This Agreement, made this 15th day of July, 1997, by and between the Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle, with business offices located at 710 Locust Street, Roselle, New Jersey 07203, (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"),

AND

Andrew Phillips, residing at 864 South 14th Street, Newark, New Jersey 07108 (hereinafter referred to as "Mr. Phillips").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Phillips is a tenured teaching staff employed by the Board; and,

WHEREAS, the Board certified tenure charges of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member on or about August 28, 1996, and suspended Phillips without pay; and

WHEREAS, by decision dated March 20, 1997, the Commissioner of Education: (a) determined that Phillips was guilty of the charge; (b) remanded the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing on the issue on the appropriate penalty to be imposed under the circumstances in this case; and (c) affirmed a determination that Phillips was entitled to a resumption of his full salary and benefits effective December 27, 1996; and

WHEREAS, by decision and order dated June 30, 1997, the Honorable Marie P. Simonelli, A.L.J., granted Phillips' Motion in Aid of Litigant's Rights and required the Board: (a) to resume Phillips' full salary and benefits, effective December 27, 1996, and to continue his full salary and benefits until the Commissioner makes a final determination; and (b) to pay Phillips any and all monies deducted from his salary for substitute teachers, together with interest, from January 24, 1997 to the date of payment; and,

WHEREAS, in lieu of proceeding to hearing as scheduled on July 15, 1997, Phillips has indicated his desire to resign from all employment with the Board effective at the close of business on September 30, 1997, upon certain terms and conditions to be stipulated in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties and in exchange for the consideration more particularly noted below, it is hereby agreed:

1. Phillips shall submit, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A, an irrevocable letter of resignation from all employment with the Board effective at the close of business on September 30, 1997. The Board shall be permitted to resolve to accept his resignation upon its execution of this Memorandum of Agreement.

2. The Board shall immediately comply with the decisions of the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education relating to Phillips' salary and benefits dated January 24, 1997, March 20, 1997 and June 30, 1997. The Board shall therefore pay to Phillips his full salary and benefits effective December 27, 1997 through June 30, 1997. Said salary shall not be offset by any deductions for payments made by the Board for substitute teachers. Said salary shall further include interest at 5.5 percent per annum (R.4:42-11) on the gross sum due, from ~~December 27, 1997~~ January 24, 1998 until payment is made to Phillips.

3. The only deductions taken from the gross sum due in Paragraph 2 above shall be the normal payroll deductions for State and Federal income taxes, pension contribution and union dues.

4. For the period September 1, 1997 through September 30, 1997, the Board agrees that Phillips shall continue to be paid his full salary and benefits. The salary shall be paid to Phillips in the normal course of business net of the normal payroll deductions for State and Federal income taxes, pension contribution and union dues.

5. Through September 30, 1997, the Board agrees to continue to provide Phillips with all insurance coverage presently provided to other teaching staff members in the Roselle School District.

6. The Board agrees that it shall cooperate, without delay, in the execution and filing of any and all papers associated with Phillips filing for or securing pension benefits.

7. Upon his separation from employment, and consistent with his rights under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 ("COBRA"), Phillips shall be able to purchase at his own cost and expense, the insurance coverages presently provided to other teaching staff members in the Roselle School District.

8. It is understood that Phillips shall not receive any other benefits or emoluments of employment specified in the present collective negotiations agreement except as otherwise provided for in this Memorandum of Agreement.

9. Phillips and the Board agree that their respective executions of this Agreement shall constitute mutual general releases in favor of the other through the date of this Agreement.

10. Phillips and the Board acknowledge that the terms of this Agreement are subject to approval by Administrative Law Judge Marie P. Simonelli, A.L.J., and the New Jersey Commissioner of Education. In the event approval is denied, the terms of this Agreement shall be null and void and the parties shall be returned to the status quo which existed as of the date of this Agreement.

11. Phillips acknowledges that he is aware that the Commissioner has a duty to refer this settlement to the New Jersey State Board of Examiners for review and consideration of whether certification revocation should follow.

12. The Board agrees that Phillips shall be provided a convenient opportunity to obtain whatever personal belongings of his that remain within the school district.

13. The parties recognize that each has been represented by legal counsel of his or its own choosing and that they sign this Agreement as their own voluntary act and deed, and that they fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein.

14. The undersigned representatives of the Board hereby acknowledge that they have been duly authorized by the Board to sign this Agreement and bind the Board to its terms.

15. All terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This document may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by an instrument executed in writing by the parties.

16. This Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year aforesaid.

_____, witness

Dated: 7/1/97

_____
Andrew Phillips

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE

_____, witness

Dated: 7/21/97

By: _____

ANDREW PHILLIPS
864 South 14th Street
Newark New Jersey 07108

July 15, 1997

Darlene Roberto, Interim Superintendent
Roselle Borough Public Schools
710 Locust Street
Roselle, New Jersey 07203

Re: Letter of Resignation

Dear Ms. Roberto:

I hereby resign from my employment as a teaching staff member employed by the Roselle School District effective September 30, 1997. This resignation is expressly conditioned upon the Board's compliance with the Memorandum of Agreement dated July 15, 1997, and shall be null and void if the terms of that Agreement are not met. This resignation is otherwise irrevocable.

Very truly yours,

Andrew Phillips

/lg

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 3640-97 AND EDU 11163-96 (ON REMAND)
AGENCY DKT. NO. 391-9/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ANDREW PHILLIPS,	:
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION	:	DECISION ON REMAND
COUNTY.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement. This matter shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for review in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

SEPTEMBER 29, 1997
DATE OF MAILING SEPTEMBER 29, 1997

130-97

130-97

JOSEPH CAGGIANO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

March 20, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1104-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 466-12/95

JOSEPH CAGGIANO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 20, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 21, 1997

131-97

131-97

BENITO STRAVATO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

March 20, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12339-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 341-8/95

BENITO STRAVATO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 20, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 21, 1997

132-97

132-97

ROBERT ZEOLI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SUSSEX COUNTY VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL SCHOOL, SUSSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

March 20, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11373-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 361-9/95

ROBERT ZEOLI,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SUSSEX COUNTY VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL SCHOOL, SUSSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 20, 1997
Date of Mailing March 21, 1997

14097

140-97

DONALD RICK,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WANAQUE, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 24, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6775-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 201-6/95

DONALD RICK,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WANAQUE, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 24, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 24, 1997

141-97

141-97

CAROL MIKOLA,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF NORTH HUNTERDON-VOORHEES REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, HUNTERDON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

March 24, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6877-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 223-6/96

CAROL MIKOLA,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF NORTH HUNTERDON-VOORHEES REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, HUNTERDON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 24, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 24, 1997

138-97

138-97

H.B., on behalf of minor children, P.B., S.A. and M.A.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

MARCH 24, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08438-96S

AGENCY DKT. NO. 395-9/96

H.B. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN P.B., S.A. AND M.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,

Respondent.

Diane K. Smith, Esq., for petitioner (Somerset Sussex Legal Services)

Michael J. Rogers, Esq., for respondent (McDonald, Rogers and Rizzolo, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 24, 1997 Decided: February 5, 1997

BEFORE JEFF S. MASIN, ALJ:

This matter arises from a Petition to the Commissioner of the Department of Education filed by petitioner, dated September 6, 1996, seeking admission to the schools of the Somerville School District. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 23, 1996, by the Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached Order of Dismissal with Prejudice indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

February 5, 1997
DATE

JEFF S. MASIN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 7, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 10 1997
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

mjm

Attachment

RECEIVED
JAN 24 10 38 AM '97
STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

SOMERSET SUSSEX LEGAL SERVICES
By: Diane K. Smith, Esq.
Attorney for petitioner
78 Grove Street
Somerville, New Jersey 08876
(908) 231-0840

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER
OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY

HELEN B. BORLAND, parent, on behalf of Steven Aguilar, Michael Aguilar and Patrick Borland, Petitioner	:	OAL Docket # EDUOS 08438-96S Agency Ref. # 395-9/96
vs	:
SOMERVILLE SCHOOL DISTRICT, Respondent	:	ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

This matter having been opened to the Court on application of Somerset Sussex Legal Services, attorneys for petitioner, and McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo, attorneys for respondent, and it appearing that Helen Borland has relocated outside of the District of Somerville with the minors, Steven Aguilar and Michael Aguilar, and the Somerville School District having represented that it shall not seek reimbursement of education costs for the education provided to Steven Aguilar and Michael Aguilar prior to their relocations; and it further appearing that Patrick Borland continues to reside in the Somerville School District with his paternal grandmother, and the Somerville School District having acknowledged that Patrick Borland is a resident of the Somerville School District and entitled to a tuition-free education in the Somerville School District, and the parties having resolved the matter, and for good cause shown;

IT IS on this 24 day of January 1997

ORDERED that the petition of Helen Borland, on behalf of the minor children be and hereby is dismissed with prejudice.

Hon. Jeff Masin, ALJ

We hereby consent to the entry and form of the within Dismissal with Prejudice.

McDonald, Rogers & Rizzolo
Attorneys for respondent

By: Michael J. Rogers, Esq.

Somerset Sussex Legal Services
Attorneys for petitioner

Diane K. Smith, Esq.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8438-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 395-9/96

H.B., on behalf of minor children, P.B., S.A. and M.A.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOMERVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 24, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 24, 1997

139-97

139-97 DHP-B

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :

CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

OF V. E. K. : DECISION

_____:

MARCH 24, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8330-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. DHP # 57-96

VIRGINIA E. KOVALAK,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Virginia E. Kovalak, petitioner, pro se

New Jersey State Department of Education, respondent, appearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 1:1-5.6(a)

Record Closed: December 30, 1996 Decided: February 4, 1997

BEFORE BEATRICE S. TYLUTKI, ALJ:

This matter concerns the appeal of the petitioner, Virginia E. Kovalak, from her disqualification from employment as a school bus driver, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and 18A:39-19.1.

By letter dated June 10, 1996, the Department of Education (Department) notified petitioner that she was potentially disqualified from employment as a school bus driver due to her criminal history, and that she had thirty days to submit documentation to show either a mistake in her criminal record or evidence of rehabilitation for consideration by the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner). The petitioner filed an appeal, with documents as to rehabilitation. On September 16, 1996, the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The hearing took place on December 30, 1996, and the record closed on that date.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I FIND the facts in this matter are not in dispute.

The petitioner is employed as a school bus driver by the McGough Bus Company, located in Gloucester County. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and 18A:39-19.1, school bus drivers are subject to a criminal history record check. Through this check, the Department was informed that the petitioner was arrested in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for possession of a controlled dangerous substance with intent to distribute on October 16, 1987. She was found guilty of this offense on February 16, 1989, and was sentenced to 11-23 months in county prison, supervision as a psychiatric risk, and two years of probation. R-1a. By law, the drug conviction is a disqualifying offense.

The Department was also informed that the petitioner was arrested for burglary on March 31, 1972, which is not a disqualifying offense. She was found guilty of this offense on July 24, 1972, and sentenced to three months' suspended confinement, one year of probation, and a $150 fine. R-1a.

By letter dated June 10, 1996, the Department notified the petitioner that its criminal record check had revealed a disqualifying offense, and gave the petitioner the opportunity to challenge the accuracy of the criminal record or to establish rehabilitation (R-1i).

In response to the Department's letter, the petitioner admitted the convictions but argued that she has been rehabilitated. Even though it was not revealed in the criminal check requested by the Department, the petitioner informed the Department that on September 1, 1994, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania she was convicted of conspiracy to distribute cocaine; she was sentenced to three years' probation with home detention for six months, required to have mental health treatment, and assessed a fine of $500. This conviction was based on her drug-related activities in 1987.

According to the petitioner, the Philadelphia police delayed her trial after the 1987 arrest since the police wanted her to testify against the drug dealer. Although she initially cooperated, the petitioner later refused to testify after she received a threat that her children would be killed if she testified. After the federal agents arrested her for the drug-related conspiracy charge, they also wanted her cooperation, but she refused because she feared for the safety of her children.

In a letter dated June 24, 1996, Edward C. D'Arcy, a senior United States probation officer, stated that based on her 1994 conviction for conspiracy, the petitioner is still participating in a probation program. Mr. D'Arcy stated that the petitioner has adhered to the conditions of her probation and that her response to supervision has been favorable. R-1f.

As part of the federal probation program, the petitioner was referred to the Community Mental Health Center on October 20, 1994, for treatment for depression. For a short period in 1994-95, the petitioner was prescribed medication for her depression. She does not take any medicine now, and she sees Ronald Eckstein, a licensed psychologist, every eight weeks. In his letter dated June 18, 1996, Mr. Eckstein stated:

> Ms. Kovalak has maintained emotional and behavioral stability and is no longer clinically depressed. Since her release from prison, she has not abused any illicit street drug. She has been working two part-time jobs (convenience store relief manager and school bus driver) and works about 40 to 60 hours a week. She is a hard worker and appears to be a conscientious employee. She is devoted to her children and somehow is able to be supportive and helpful to them. Thus far, she has been able to demonstrate satisfactory judgment in managing her affairs and has been free from any criminal involvement. Ms. Kovalak is trying very hard to > maintain her emotional equilibrium despite some stressors in her life. She continues to use her therapy time to review her life experiences and derive better understanding and insight into her motivations and decisions.

>
> [R-1h.]

On behalf of the petitioner, Henry A. McGough III, president of McGough Bus Company, Inc., in a letter dated June 28, 1996, wrote that Ms. Kovalak is a very considerate and dependable employee. Mr. McGough stated that the petitioner candidly admitted her prior convictions and that he does not doubt that she is rehabilitated. Also, Mr. McGough wrote that as an employee of the company, Ms. Kovalak is subject to random drug testing. R-1c.

At the hearing, the petitioner testified that she got involved with drugs when she was young because of bad memories from her childhood, including sexual abuse by her father. In 1987, she was separated from her husband and she was raising their children. After her arrest in 1987, the petitioner changed her life and she no longer associates with her former friends who are involved with drugs.

The petitioner went to school to study industrial cooking, and for a while she worked for Drexel University. She then moved to New Jersey, and currently she works as a school bus driver during the day and at a local WaWa store in the evenings. Her children are now twenty-eight, twenty-six, and twenty-two years old, and she still helps support the youngest.

The petitioner stated that she has been drug free for many years. She has admitted her prior drug use and convictions to her employers and to the parents of the children she drives to school. The petitioner likes driving a bus and wants to continue doing this job.

Bridgette L. Turner, a parent of one of the children who rides on petitioner's bus, submitted a letter attesting to petitioner's competency and responsibility as a school bus driver and urged that the petitioner be allowed to continue to work as a driver (R-1d). In addition, two friends of petitioner, Patrolman John McKeown and Louise Baker, submitted letters indicting that the petitioner is a good mother and does not now use drugs (R-1e; R-1g).

During the hearing, Elizabeth Ann Rosell testified for the petitioner. Ms. Rosell is a bus aide and she rides with the petitioner. The students on petitioner's bus are all special education students, ages five to fourteen. Ms. Rosell stated that all the students love the petitioner and consider her to be their "second" mother.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), a person with a criminal record will not be disqualified from being a school bus driver if said person shows clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. This section sets forth a number of factors to be considered in determining whether the person has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation. These factors are:

(1) The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;

(2) The nature and seriousness of the offense;

(3) The circumstances under which the offense occurred;

(4) The date of the offense;

(5) The age of the individual when the offense was committed;

(6) Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;

(7) Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;

(8) Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

Having reviewed the testimony and the documents admitted into evidence, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation.

Although the petitioner's drug-related convictions took place in 1989 and 1994, the charges were based on her drug-related criminal activities in 1987. She has successfully completed the term of probation imposed for the 1989 conviction, and has almost completed the term of probation imposed for the 1994 conviction. Since her drug involvement in 1987, the petitioner no longer associates with drug users and has changed her life, and she has shown her commitment to being a good school bus driver.

Therefore, I ORDER that the petitioner is not disqualified from employment as a school bus driver.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 4, 1997
DATE

Beatrice S. Tylutki
BEATRICE S. TYLUTKI, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 7, 1997
DATE

Donald Constantates Jr.
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 10 1997
DATE

Barbara A. Hermesdorf
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cad

EXHIBITS ADMITTED INTO EVIDENCE:

For the Petitioner:

None

For the Respondent:

R-1a Letter from Carl H. Carabelli to Debbie Antanaitis, dated July 18, 1996

R-1b Certified letter from Virginia E. Kovalak to Carl Carabelli, dated June 28, 1996

R-1c Certified letter from Henry A. McGough III to Carl Carabelli, dated June 28, 1996

R-1d Certified letter from Bridgette L. Turner, dated June 17, 1996

R-1e Certified letter from Patrolman John McKeown, dated June 28, 1996

R-1f Letter from Edward C. D'Arcy to the Department of Education, dated June 24, 1996

R-1g Certified letter from Louise Baker, dated June 14, 1996

R-1h Certified letter from Ronald Eckstein to Carl H. Carabelli, dated June 18, 1996

R-1i Letter from Carl H. Carabelli to Virginia E. Kovalak, dated June 10, 1996

R-1j Letter from Francis R. Conaway to the New Jersey Department of Education, dated May 30, 1996, with attachments

R-1k Letter from Carl H. Carabelli to Clerk of Quarter Sessions, dated June 6, 1996

R-1l Letter from Carl H. Carabelli to Clerk of Quarter Sessions, dated April 24, 1996

R-1m Letter from Carl H. Carabelli to Clerk of Quarter Sessions, dated December 20, 1995

R-1n Information regarding the criminal record of Virginia E. Kovalak from the Federal Bureau of Investigation

R-1o Information regarding the criminal record of Virginia E. Kovalak from the New Jersey State Police

R-1p Applicant Authorization and Certification signed by Virginia Kovalak

WITNESSES:

For the Petitioner:

Virginia E. Kovalak

Elizabeth Ann Rosell

For the Respondent:

None

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8330-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. DHP 57-96

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI-	:
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF V. E. K.	:	DECISION
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner cannot concur with the conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that Ms. K. has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of rehabilitation in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, and is, therefore, qualified for employment as a school bus driver within the intent of the criminal history record check laws.

As the ALJ noted, Ms. K. was charged in 1987 with possession of a controlled dangerous substance with intent to distribute, and was sentenced in 1989 to serve 11-23 months in county prison, placed under supervision as a psychiatric risk, and ordered to serve two years' probation. (Initial Decision at p. 2) As a consequence of the same offense,* appellant was also convicted in federal court and was, on September 1, 1994, sentenced to three years' probation,

* The record shows that Ms. K.'s participation in the federal offense spanned from early 1987 through October 16, 1987. (R-1f) with special conditions of home detention for six months, ordered to pay a $500 fine and to participate in mental health treatment.

The Commissioner underscores that the nature and responsibility of the position for which the appellant applies, school bus driver, is particularly sensitive and laden with great responsibility, as it charges the individual with the physical care and safety of potentially large groups of children under what are often challenging and even adverse conditions. That obligation is enhanced by the fact that the children appellant would transport are special education students. (Initial Decision at p. 5) Thus, the serious nature and circumstances of appellant's crime, together with the recognition that she was 35 years old at the time of this offense and was, presumably, mature enough to understand the potentially dangerous consequences of her conduct, preclude the Commissioner from finding that Ms. K. has clearly and convincingly demonstrated her rehabilitation. This is so notwithstanding appellant's apparent progress toward such rehabilitation, as the State cannot subject children to even the possibility of dangers associated with drugs or drug use.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is reversed and Ms. K.'s disqualification from school employment is sustained.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 24, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 24, 1997

142-97

142-97

C.K. and J.K., on behalf of their minor child, E.K.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ALEXANDRIA, HUNTERDON COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

MARCH 25, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2664-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 84-3/96

C.K. and J.K., on behalf of their minor child, E.K.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ALEXANDRIA, HUNTERDON COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 25, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

143-97

JOSEPH MC GOVERN,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF LONG BRANCH, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

MARCH 25, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8578-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 290-7/95

JOSEPH MC GOVERN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF LONG BRANCH, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 25, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

144-97

144-97

JOYCE SHIP,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PERTH AMBOY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 25, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8103-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 275-7/95

JOYCE SHIP,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PERTH AMBOY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 25, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

145-97

145-97

D.H., on behalf of minor, A.P.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 25, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3236-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 14-1/96

D.H., on behalf of minor, A.P.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SOUTH ORANGE AND MAPLEWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 25, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

146-97

146-97

SARAH M. HOWE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOMS RIVER REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

MARCH 25, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3727-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 30-2/95

SARAH M. HOWE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOMS RIVER REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, OCEAN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 25, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

149-97

149-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :

HEARING OF ROBERT R. VITACCO, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE BOROUGH : DECISION

OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY. :

:

SYNOPSIS

Board certified tenure charges of unbecoming conduct against former Superintendent Vitacco, for alleged financial mismanagement and other improprieties, seeking his dismissal. During the course of these proceedings, Vitacco pled guilty in Federal District Court to two counts of tax evasion. Vitacco contended tenure matter was moot since the Board accepted his resignation and he indicated willingness to surrender his certificates.

ALJ concluded that Vitacco forfeited his public employment in the District, pursuant to the forfeiture statute, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, by virtue of his conviction for an offense involving dishonesty and a crime of the third degree. Although a literal reading of N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2g calls for forfeiture only if ordered by a court of the State upon application of the County Prosecutor or the Attorney General, the ALJ stated one should avoid a literal interpretation of individual statutory terms or provisions that would be inconsistent with the overall purpose of the statute. ALJ found that it would not make much sense to require a school board to bear the heavy cost of prosecuting complex charges at a plenary tenure hearing when a court of competent jurisdiction has already found the respondent guilty of a forfeitable offense. ALJ ordered that Vitacco forfeited his employment at the time of entry of his federal guilty plea on November 2, 1995.

Commissioner overturned the ALJ's recommended decision that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, Vitacco forfeited his public employment at the time of his guilty plea, finding that pursuant to the recent amendment made to this criminal statute, P.L. 1995, c. 250, the Commissioner of Education lacks jurisdiction to order forfeiture. Thus, the Commissioner had to determine whether the tenure charges were moot and, if not, whether the criminal conduct of Vitacco amounted to unbecoming conduct, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. Citing the Barshatky State Board decision, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the tenure charges were not rendered moot by Vitacco's voluntary resignation in that he retained his certificates which qualify him for employment in the State and he had an outstanding claim for benefits arising out of the employment relationship. Commissioner agreed that he should not be allowed to resign in good standing. Moreover, the Commissioner determined that the conduct giving rise to Vitacco's federal conviction amply established the Board's charges of unbecoming conduct and called for his removal from his tenured position. Commissioner ordered Vitacco dismissed from his tenured employment for conduct unbecoming a superintendent of schools. Commissioner forwarded matter to the State Board of Examiners for further appropriate action.

MARCH 24, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7871-94
AGENCY DKT. NO. 253-6/94

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF ROBERT R. VITACCO

Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., for petitioner

David L. Rosenberg, Esq., for respondent
(Klausner & Hunter, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 6, 1997 Decided: February 6, 1997

BEFORE KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of the Case

This case involves tenure charges certified by the Lincoln Park Board of Education ("Board") against its former superintendent of schools. Basically, the Board seeks to dismiss respondent Robert Vitacco ("Vitacco") from its employment for various alleged acts of conduct unbecoming a public employee, including tax evasion, misappropriation of public funds, misuse of vacation days, destruction of public records, and financial mismanagement. Presently, the matter comes before the Office of Administrative Law on cross-motions for summary decision.

Vitacco contends that the tenure charges against him have become moot, since the Board has accepted his resignation and he has indicated his willingness to surrender all teaching certificates in his possession. However, the Board seeks a declaratory ruling that Vitacco forfeited his public office under N.J.A.C. 2C:51-2 by virtue of his recent federal criminal conviction for income tax evasion. Initially, the Board contends that the conviction was for "an offense involving dishonesty or a crime of the third degree or above," falling within the automatic forfeiture provision of N.J.A.C. 2C:51-2(a)(1). Alternatively, the Board alleges that Vitacco was convicted of "an offense involving or touching [his] office, position or employment" within the meaning of N.J.S.A 2C:51-2(a)(2). For the reasons which follow, the dispute is not moot and must be resolved on the merits. Further, it is determined that Vitacco forfeited his position by operation of law for conviction of an offense involving dishonesty as well as an offense constituting a crime of the third degree.

Procedural History

The Board certified tenure charges to the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") on June 20, 1994. Subsequently, on August 16, 1994, the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing. On March 24, 1995, respondent filed a notice of motion to dismiss the tenure charges for mootness, together with a supporting affidavit and brief. Thereafter, on December 12, 1995, the Board filed a motion for declaratory relief on the forfeiture issue. In support of its motion, the Board submitted briefs on December 12, 1995 and February 14, 1996. Respondent filed an opposing brief on March 8, 1996, and the Board filed a reply brief on April 17, 1996. With the consent of all parties, the OAL deferred ruling on these motions pending completion of related criminal proceedings in federal district court. After the federal criminal case was concluded, the OAL held oral argument on August 29, 1996. At the request of the OAL, the parties filed supplemental briefs on the issue of the Commissioner's subject matter jurisdiction. On February 6, 1997, the OAL conducted a conference telephone call regarding the jurisdictional issue. Exhibits considered in deciding these motions are listed in the appendix.

Findings of Fact

All of the relevant facts necessary for disposition of this matter are undisputed. I FIND:

During calendar years 1991 and 1992, Robert R. Vitacco was employed as superintendent of schools in Lincoln Park, New Jersey. On January 22, 1992, Vitacco and the Board entered into a written termination agreement, as a result of which Vitacco agreed "to resign his position as Superintendent of Schools to take effect September 30, 1995." Before that resignation took effect, on or about March 21, 1995, a federal grand jury in New Jersey handed down a twelve-count indictment charging Vitacco and a codefendant with various criminal offenses, including criminal conspiracy, embezzlement, and attempt to evade or defeat taxes by underreporting his true income for five separate years.

Ultimately, on October 30, 1995, Vitacco and the United States Attorneys Office worked out a plea bargain, wherein Vitacco agreed to plead guilty to Counts 6 and 7 of the indictment and the Government agreed to dismiss the remaining criminal charges against him. Count 6 alleged that Vitacco had filed a false 1991 federal income tax return that "did not include about $24,842.84 in additional taxable income received by defendant Robert Vitacco from the Lincoln Park School District," in violation of 26 U.S.C.A. §7201. Similarly, Count 7 alleged that Vitacco filed a false 1992 federal income tax return that "did not include about $29,054.04 in additional taxable income received by defendant Robert Vitacco from the Lincoln Park School District, including approximately $15,000 he received as an independent contractor in connection with labor negotiations and his monthly car allowance," again in violation of 26 U.S.C.A. §7201.

Each violation of 26 U.S.C.A. §7201 carries a statutory maximum penalty of five years' imprisonment and a $100,000 fine, together with the costs of prosecution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3571, the sentencing judge could impose an alternative fine of up to $25,000 or twice the gross profits to the defendant or the gross loss to any victim of the offense. As part of the plea agreement, Vitacco stipulated that, under the applicable federal sentencing guidelines, "[a] two-level enhancement for abuse of position of trust is appropriate."

On November 2, 1995, Vitacco formally entered a guilty plea to Counts 6 and 7 in a proceeding before United States District Judge Harold A. Ackerman. In response to questioning by the Court, Vitacco admitted under oath that in 1991 and 1992, he had "receive[d] money from the school district and as a consultant in the labor negotiations" which he failed to report. Although the source of some of the unreported income was the school district, Vitacco never admitted that he obtained the money by fraudulent means. Insofar as the plea proceedings reflect, the income which Vitacco concealed from the tax authorities was legally earned. At the plea hearing, Vitacco admitted that in 1991, he underreported his actual income by "the amount of $16,520.45" and, therefore, that he actually owed the United States "additional taxes in the amount of approximately $5,016.90." He also admitted that on his 1992 tax return, he underreported his taxable income by "the amount of $29,064.04" and that he "actually owe[d] the United States additional taxes in the amount of approximately $9,009.85." Significantly, Vitacco acknowledged that he willfully signed and filed false tax returns "with the knowledge that the information contained on each return did not accurately reflect the amount of gross and taxable income [he] received in 1991 and 1992" and that he did so "to attempt to evade the income tax owed to the government" in those years."

Vitacco appeared before Judge Ackerman for sentencing on June 18, 1996. Speaking on his own behalf before the judge passed sentence, Vitacco apologized to the Court "for his stupidity and transgressions" and to his family "for the dishonor and the three years of stress [he] brought upon [them]." He did not, however, make any apology to the school children and citizens of Lincoln Park. In his explanation of the sentence, Judge Ackerman emphasized that Vitacco and his codefendant "occupied extraordinarily important positions in the Lincoln Park School District." Discounting Vitacco's claim that he had been merely "stupid," Judge Ackerman commented that Vitacco's underlying motivation was "Greed. Pure and simple." Noting that government would be unable to function "if individuals, whatever their place in life, don't pay their taxes," the Judge added that when an individual like Vitacco occupies a position of trust, "that responsibility . . . is increased proportionately."

Applying the federal sentencing guidelines, Judge Ackerman determined that "the guideline range for imprisonment is six to twelve months." Judge Ackerman sentenced Vitacco "to be imprisoned for a term of ten months on each count to be served concurrently." Additionally, he imposed fines totaling $15,000 and directed that Vitacco be placed on supervision for two years after release from prison. Vitacco's codefendant, the school business administrator for the Lincoln Park School District, was sentenced at the same proceeding. Of particular relevance here, Judge Ackerman expressed very strong doubts "whether any school authority will subject itself to taking either one of you gentlemen back into its ranks in light of your past record[.]" Vitacco has not appealed his sentence and the time for appeal has expired.[1]

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that Vitacco forfeited his public office by virtue of his conviction of an offense involving dishonesty and of a crime of the third degree

At the outset, Vitacco argues that the tenure charges against him have been rendered moot by his voluntary resignation from the Board's employment. In his moving papers, Vitacco relied on the Commissioner's decision in In re Barshatky, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 71 (Comm'r Oct. 26, 1994), which approved the dismissal of inefficiency charges against a teacher who resigned prior to issuance of a decision in a lengthy tenure hearing. However, Barshatky is distinguishable since, unlike Vitacco's criminal misconduct, the tenure charges "contain[ed] no allegations of wrongdoing or misconduct which might nevertheless require determination by the Commissioner of Education for the imposition of a sanction or reprimand." 95 N.J.A.R. 2d at 73. Moreover, the Commissioner regarded the inefficiency charges as moot because the resolution of the tenure charges on their merits would have no impact on the teacher's entitlement to salary payments or pension credit. Vitacco still asserts a claim for salary during the first 120 days of his suspension, which he may recover only if the tenure charges are resolved in his favor. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14.

[1] Fed. R. App. P. 4(b) requires that a defendant file a notice of appeal within ten days after entry of judgment or order from which the appeal is taken..

More importantly, as respondent's attorney commendably brought out, the State Board of Education later reversed the Commissioner's decision in Barshatky and held that the tenure proceedings were not moot. In re Barshatky, No. SB 51-94 (St. Bd. May 3, 1996). Despite Barshatky's sworn statement of his intention not to teach in New Jersey, the State Board noted that he "retains his teaching certificates, which qualify him for employment in the state as a teacher." (slip op at 5). Similarly, Vitacco has offered to surrender his certificates, but has not actually done so. Further, in Barshatky, the State Board declared it to be "required in the public interest" to create an adequate record for use by the teacher-licensing authority in future deliberations concerning Barshatky's retention of his certificates. Ibid. In addition, the State Board mentioned that Barshatky had an outstanding contractual claim for accumulated sick leave and that his right to relief turned on whether the tenure charges are ultimately sustained. Here too, Vitacco has a pending suit in the Superior Court for amounts allegedly due under the resignation agreement. Vitacco's defense of mootness would be more convincing if he were not actively pursing a claim for benefits arising out of the employment relationship. Simply put, the community is entitled to a public declaration that Vitacco's behavior required his removal. He should not be permitted to resign in good standing.

Forfeiture is not a sentencing disposition, but a civil penalty which is a collateral consequence of conviction. Its intent is to provide complete and adequate safeguards to the public against those who breach its trust. Ayars v. N. J. Dep't of Corrections, 251 N. J. Super. 223, 228 (App. Div. 1991). N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(a) provides, in pertinent part::

> A person holding any public office, position, or employment, elective or appointive, under the government of this State or any agency or political subdivision thereof, who is convicted of an offense shall forfeit such office or position if:
>
> (1) He is convicted under the laws of this State of an offense involving dishonesty or a crime of the third degree above or under the laws of another state or of the United States of an offense or crime which, if committed in this State, would be such an offense or crime;
>
> (2) He is convicted of an offense involving or touching such office, position or employment[.] (Emphasis Added).

Subsection (a)(1), expressed in the disjunctive, clearly sets forth two separate grounds for automatic forfeiture: conviction either of a crime of dishonesty or of a crime of the third degree or above. "Dishonest" is defined as "characterized by lack of truth, honesty, probity or trustworthiness or by an inclination to mislead, lie, cheat or defraud." Webster's New International Dictionary 650 (3d ed. 1976). 26 U.S.C.A. §7201, the federal crime to which Vitacco pled guilty, pertains to someone who "willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this title[.]" When Vitacco entered his guilty plea, he admitted signing tax returns with knowledge that the information he provided was untrue. Case law treats tax cheating as an offense of dishonesty. Illustratively, in State v. Musto, 187 N.J. Super. 264, 280-81 (Law Div. 1982), aff'd 188 N.J. Super. 106 (App. Div. 1983), the trial judge considered a conviction for the federal crime of willfully subscribing to a false tax return in violation of 26 U.S.C.A. §2706(1) as encompassing acts of perjury or false swearing, which "clearly involve dishonesty since the offense reveals an attempt to defraud the Federal Government." See also, State v. Botti, 189 N.J. Super. 127, 132 (Law Div. 1982), where the defendant conceded that a conviction for income tax evasion under the identical federal statute as here involved dishonesty. Generally, any theft from the public is regarded as an offense of dishonesty. State v. Lee, 258 N.J. Super. 313, 316 (App. Div. 1992) (theft by deception). In re Saunders, 1981 S.L.D. 433 (Comm'r April 21, 1981), aff'd 1981 S.L.D. 442 (St. Bd. 1981) (fraudulent receipt of insurance benefits). In order to sustain the forfeiture, one need look no further than that Vitacco was convicted of a crime of dishonesty.

It is equally clear, however, that the federal crime of which Vitacco was convicted is equivalent to a crime of the third degree under New Jersey law. Offenses under the laws of other states or of the United States are classified, for purposes of forfeiture, by analogizing the crime to a New Jersey offense. Depending on the seriousness of the offense, the New Jersey Criminal Code classifies crimes as being of the first, second, third or fourth degree. N.J.S.A. 2C:43-1. Faced with a forfeiture proceeding in which the crime was "ungraded," the Appellate Division looked to the maximum sentence allowable to determine the degree of the crime. Old Bridge Public Workers v. Old Bridge Twp, 231 N.J. Super. 205 (App. Div. 1989). Unless otherwise provided, the maximum term of imprisonment imposed for commission of a crime of the third degree is five years. N.J.S.A. 2C:43-6(a)(3). Crimes referred to as "high misdemeanors" before adoption of the New Jersey Criminal Code "are crimes of the first, second or third degree." N.J.S.A. 2C:1-4(d).[2]

Under federal law, any person "who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this title" commits a felony punishable by not more than five years imprisonment and a $100,000 fine. 26 U.S.C.A. § 7201. Under New Jersey law, the corresponding offense of filing a false or fraudulent return "with the intent to evade, avoid or otherwise not make timely payment of any tax" is a crime of the third degree. N.J.S.A. 54:52-10.[3] Since 26 U.S.C.A. §7201 requires proof of essentially the same elements as N.J.S.A. 54:52-10, carries a maximum penalty of five years and is designated a felony, the federal crime translates into a crime of the third degree under the New Jersey sentencing system.

---

[2] Historically, New Jersey did not utilize the common law distinction between "felonies" and "misdemeanors, but rather used the term "high misdemeanor" to refer to the more serious crimes. State v. Doyle, 42 N.J. 334, 348 (1964).

[3] Failure to file a tax return with intent to defraud or evade payment of any tax, N.J.S.A. 54:52-8, and failure to pay or turn over any tax with intent to evade payment, N.J.S.A. 54:52-9, also constitute third degree offenses under New Jersey law.

See Ayars, supra, where the Appellate Division regarded conviction of the state crime of failing to file an income tax return with intent to defraud the state or to evade or avoid the tax, N.J.S.A. 54:52-8, as a third degree offense requiring mandatory forfeiture. Likewise, in Musto, supra, the trial judge regarded federal income tax evasion as tantamount to perjury, which in New Jersey would amount to a crime of the third degree. N.J.S.A. 2C:28-1.[4]

Vitacco cannot derive any comfort from In re Wilentz, 69 N.J. 121 (1976), in which the New Jersey Supreme Court imposed a one-year suspension on an attorney convicted of failing to file a federal income tax return. In the first place, the facts are substantially different. While in Wilentz the attorney's neglect "resulted from an unfortunate family problem and was not motivated by any desire to evade his tax obligations" (at 122), Judge Ackerman expressly found that Vitacco was motivated by unmitigated "greed" and an unwillingness to contribute his fair share of taxes. Furthermore, in Wilentz, the Supreme Court was exercising its supervisory authority over the practice of law and had no occasion to consider the interpretation of an applicable statute. See Wyzykowski v. Rizas, 132 N.J. 509, 533 (1993) (distinguishing between the regulation of lawyers by the Court and the regulation of public officials by the Legislature). It is within the province of the Legislature to prescribe a higher standard for governmental employees who have betrayed the public trust. Consequently, the Commissioner lacks the discretion which the Supreme Court was able to exercise in the matter before it.

Whenever a public employee is convicted of an offense of dishonesty or a crime of the third degree or above, forfeiture is automatic and self-executing. Lee, 258 N.J. Super. at 316. In cases within the scope of subsection (a)(1) of the forfeiture statute, it is unnecessary to hold a plenary hearing and the matter may be disposed of by summary decision. Turner v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of Newark, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (CSV) 147 (Merit Sys. Bd. Nov. 1, 1995); Alsheimer v. Cty. of Middlesex, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d [4]It should be added, however, that the trial judge also considered the federal offense to be comparable to false swearing, which is only an offense of the fourth degree.

(CSV) 7 (Merit Sys. Bd. Sept. 9, 1995). Both of the cases cited by Vitacco for the necessity of a hearing fall under subsection (a)(2), which pertains to offenses "involving or touching" employment. Bergenfield Bd. of Educ. v Efferen, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 304 (Comm'r June 24, 1994) (fourth-degree criminal sexual conduct); Sch. Dist. of Garfield v. Olek, 92 N.J.A.R. 323 (Comm'r June 27, 1991), rev'd 92 N.J.A.R. 323 (St. Bd. March 4, 1992) (disorderly-persons offenses). Even crimes not grave enough to trigger automatic forfeiture under subsection (a)(1) may have an obvious connection to employment that would alert the trial court and the perpetrator that forfeiture would follow from a conviction. Moore v. Youth Correctional Inst., 119 N.J. 256 (1990). Most often, however, such comparatively minor offenses "require an analysis of the nexus between the crime and the employment to determine if there is a sufficient relationship between the two to warrant the harsh penalty of forfeiture." Moore, at 266. Accord, State v. Baber, 256 N.J. Super. 240 (Law Div. 1992). Municipal courts "may not possess thorough knowledge of the defendant's job requirements necessary to determine whether forfeiture is appropriate." Moore, at 266. If an examination of the connection between the conviction and job duties must be made, the Supreme Court has stated that, "It is far more efficient to grant the employee's department and administrative agencies initial jurisdiction to make the careful consideration of whether the offense should lead to forfeiture." Moore, at 267.

Although the Board insists that Vitacco's employment as superintendent enabled him to conceal his true income from the Internal Revenue Service, his guilty plea to the charge of falsifying his federal tax return does not establish that contention. Nor does Vitacco's cheating on his personal tax return necessarily implicate his ability to perform his duties as superintendent, except insofar as commission of a crime of dishonesty reflects adversely on his integrity and trustworthiness. Thus, a hearing would be required to evaluate the various factors relevant to ascertaining whether his conviction "involved and touched" his employment. Moore, at 269. In light of the definitive conclusion that Vitacco has forfeited his public employment via subsection (a)(1), it would be wasteful and unproductive to hold a hearing to determine whether he should forfeit his employment via subsection (a)(2) as well.

Finally, this decision will address the Commissioner's jurisdiction to declare a forfeiture in the event of a criminal conviction under federal law. Prior to the recent amendment effective September 12, 1995, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(b) provided that a forfeiture would occur at time of conviction only if the trial judge expressly ordered it. Otherwise, a forfeiture would not occur until time of sentencing, unless the trial judge ordered a stay for good cause. Because of concern that a convicted public official might continue to hold office while awaiting sentence, the Legislature amended the forfeiture statute to make it mandatory that a court of this state impose forfeiture of the public office immediately upon conviction or entry of guilty plea, unless the court orders a stay. Also, a court's discretion to issue a stay was limited to cases in which the court is clearly convinced that there is a substantial likelihood of success on appeal. L. 1995, c. 250. Office of the Governor News Release (Sept. 12, 1995). Quite clearly, the Legislature did not intend to hinder the forfeiture process. A statement accompanying the proposed legislation explains that it "strengthens law governing forfeiture of public office or employment upon conviction of certain crimes." Statement Attached to Assembly Bill No. 673 (1994).

Nonetheless, the amendment added new language which, if construed strictly, could make it more difficult for the Commissioner to remove tenured school employees convicted of federal crimes. As revised, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(b)(2) provides that:

> A court of this State shall enter a forfeiture . . .upon application of the county prosecutor or the Attorney General, when the forfeiture is based upon a conviction of an offense under the laws of another state or of the United States. An order of forfeiture pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date the person was found guilty by the trier of fact or pled guilty to the offense.

Read literally, this language could be taken to suggest that the Commissioner may not recognize a forfeiture for conviction of a federal crime unless the County Prosecutor or Attorney General applies for a formal judicial declaration. Board counsel advises that the Attorney General's Office has declined to pursue forfeiture proceedings because Vitacco "has indicated that he is retiring from his position with the Lincoln Park Board of Education." That would leave the Commissioner with the unacceptable choice of either dropping the tenure charges or conducting a full-fledged tenure hearing, even though Vitacco has pled guilty to a forfeitable offense.

Fortunately, the Legislature has added further language amplifying its intent that a public employee convicted of a forfeitable offense should not be permitted to retain his position merely because the County Prosecutor or Attorney General decide not to act. N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(g) continues:

> In any case in which the issue of forfeiture is not raised in a court of this State at the time of a finding of guilty, entry of guilty plea or sentencing, a forfeiture of public office, position or employment required by this section may be ordered by a court of this State upon application of the county prosecutor or the Attorney General or upon application of the public officer of public entity having authority to remove the person convicted from his public office, position or employment. The fact that a court has declined to order forfeiture shall not preclude the public officer or public entity having authority to remove the person convicted from seeking to remove or suspend the person from his office, position or employment on the ground that the conduct giving rise to the conviction demonstrates that the person is unfit to hold the office, position or employment. (Emphasis Added).

When interpreting statutes, the overriding goal should be to determine the legislative intent. Young v. Schering Corp., 141 N.J. 16, 25 (1995). One should avoid a literal interpretation of individual statutory terms or provisions that would be inconsistent with the overall purpose of the statute. Eg., Suter v. San Angelo Foundry & Mach. Co., 81 N.J. 150, 160 (1979); Laboda v. Twp. of Clark, 40 N.J. 424, 435 (1963). Wene v. Meyner, 13 N.J. 185, 197 (1953). Frequently, the doctrine of probable legislative intent can be "a more reliable guide than the overly literal reading" of a piece of legislation. Young, at 25. See Amerada Hess Corp. v. Director, Div. of Taxation, 107 N.J. 307, 322 (1987), aff'd 490 U.S. 66, 109 S. Ct. 1617, 104 L. Ed. 2d 58 (1989).

Although an administrative agency is not a "court" in a technical sense, In re Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478 (App. Div. 1989), certif. den. 121 N.J. 615 (1990), it performs an adjudicatory function termed "quasi-judicial" in nature. City of Hackensack v. Winner, 82 N.J. 1, 28 (1980). Jurisdiction over tenure charges brought by a school board seeking dismissal of a tenured employee is vested exclusively with the Commissioner. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 to -18.1. In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404 (App. Div. 1967). In seeking to "strengthen" the forfeiture law, it is doubtful that the Legislature wanted to make it more difficult to remove criminally-culpable teaching staff members. Instead, the more reasonable reading of subsection (g) is that where, for whatever reason, the issue of forfeiture is not ordered by any court, a school district having authority to initiate the removal of a teaching staff member may litigate the forfeiture issue as part of a pending tenure proceeding. Cf. Sukin v. Northfield Bd. of Educ., 171 N.J. Super. 184 (App. Div. 1982) (Commissioner possesses incidental jurisdiction to determine issues arising under the Open Public Meetings Act as they relate to controversies under the school laws). Indeed, the New Jersey Supreme Court has acknowledged that, under some circumstances, it may be "far more efficient" to have the employer and administrative agency decide whether a particular offense should lead to forfeiture. Moore, at 267. Surely it would not make much sense to require a school board to bear the heavy cost of prosecuting complex charges at a plenary tenure hearing when a court of competent jurisdiction has already found respondent guilty of a forfeitable offense.

Order

It is ORDERED that Robert Vitacco forfeited his public employment in the district at the time of entry of his guilty plea on November 2, 1995.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb. 6, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 7, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 11 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

njf

Appendix

List of Exhibits

No.	Description
J-1	Copy of termination agreement between Lincoln Park Board of Education and Robert Vitacco, dated January 22, 1992
J-2	Copy of Indictment No. 95-132(01) in the matter entitled U.S.A. v. Vitacco, et al, returned on or about March 21, 1995
J-3	Copy of plea agreement with Robert Vitacco, dated October 30, 1995
J-4	Copy of minutes of proceedings in the matter entitled U.S.A. v. Vitacco, Dkt. No. CR-95-132(01), dated November 2, 1995
J-5	Copy of transcript of the plea proceedings in the matter entitled U.S.A. v. Vitacco, Dkt. No. CR-95-132(01), held on November 2, 1995
J-6	Copy of transcript of the sentencing proceedings U.S.A. v. Vitacco, et al, Dkt. No. CR-95-132(01), held on June 18, 1996
P-id	Copy of letter to the Hon. Harold A. Ackerman from Patricia Schwartz, Ass't U.S. Atty., dated May 8, 1996
P-id	Copy of presentence report prepared on March 4, 1996 and revised on April 26, 1996
P-3	Copy of letter to Anthony P. Sciarrillo from Larry J. Burris, U.S. Probation Office, dated August 27, 1996
R-id	Copy of letter to the U.S. Probation Office from Joseph P. Afflito, Sr., Esq., dated April 17, 1996
R-id	Copy of letter to the Hon. Harold A. Ackerman from Joseph P. Afflito, Sr., Esq., dated June 13, 1996

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7871-94
AGENCY DKT. NO. 253-6/94

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ROBERT R. VITACCO,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE BOROUGH	:	DECISION
OF LINCOLN PARK, MORRIS COUNTY.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Exceptions of Respondent Vitacco were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. The Board advised that it would not be submitting exceptions to the decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ).

Vitacco's exceptions specifically enumerate and incorporate by reference each of the prior submissions he has made to the record of this matter, essentially relying on the arguments advanced therein. With respect to the Commissioner's jurisdiction to enter an order of forfeiture pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, Vitacco's exceptions contend that, although recognizing that the language of the latest amendment to the forfeiture law, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2g, deprives the Commissioner of such jurisdiction, the ALJ "refuses to adhere to the plain language and intent of the statute by claiming that the deprivation 'would leave the Commissioner with the unacceptable choice of either dropping the tenure charges or conducting a full fledged tenure hearing, even though Vitacco has pled guilty to a forfeitable offense.' (Initial Decision at Page 12.)" (Vitacco's Exceptions at p. 4) Vitacco avers that the ALJ's analysis here "misses the entire point." (Id.) He asserts that the tenure laws, which permit removal of an individual from his position for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or other just cause (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10) and the forfeiture law removing one for certain criminal convictions, "are wholly distinguishable statutes with different purposes and different avenues for removal of a public employee." (Id.) He argues that neither of these statutory constructions can be utilized as a "substitute" for the other. Vitacco maintains that the ALJ in his decision has "confused the two concepts," (Id. at p. 5) by impermissibly engrafting the standards of the forfeiture law upon the tenure laws. Vitacco avers > if the agency chooses to hear, as part of a tenure case, conduct to which the Respondent pled guilty in a criminal proceeding, it may do so, so long as it is relevant and responsive under the tenure statutes. Judge Springer's conclusion, however, that his finding that Respondent's conduct would amount to a forfeiture under the forfeiture law enables him to find, as a matter of law, that the Board of Education has proved its tenure case, is not in compliance with the tenure laws. The [Legislature] has made clear that only a Court of this State upon application of the County Prosecutor or Attorney General or upon application of the public officer or public entity having authority to remove the person may enter a forfeiture. Concomitantly, the Commissioner (through its hearing officers in the Office of Administrative Law) must conduct evidentiary hearings and weigh whether a complaining Board of Education has met the applicable standard. (emphasis in text) (Id. at pp. 5-6)

He argues that the need for a tenure hearing in the within matter is clearly evident by virtue of the ALJ's concession that he does not know whether Vitacco's conduct "involved and touched" his employment, and he concludes that it is precisely for this reason that a tenure hearing is required. (Id. at p. 6)

Vitacco requests that the Commissioner overturn the ALJ's initial decision and find either that he lacks jurisdiction to enter a forfeiture of public office under the forfeiture law, or, if the Commissioner concludes that he has such jurisdiction, to find that no forfeiture occurred here and the matter must be remanded for tenure proceedings, or that Vitacco's offer of resignation renders the tenure matter moot.

Upon an independent and comprehensive review of the record in this matter and the exceptions advanced by Vitacco, the Commissioner determines that he is required to reject the ultimate conclusion of the ALJ as he determines that the Commissioner of Education lacks jurisdiction to declare that Vitacco forfeited his position by operation of law as a result of his conviction of an offense involving dishonesty and a crime of the third degree.

Initially, it is noted that the question of whether an individual forfeits his public position by virtue of his established criminal conduct involves the application of the specific statutory provision governing this action, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, part of the criminal code of the State of New Jersey. While it is axiomatic that the Commissioner of Education, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, has jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws, the forfeiture statute does not arise under school law. Thus, authority for entry of an order that an individual has forfeited his public employment must be derived solely from the provisions of the controlling criminal statute. As aptly noted by the ALJ, prior to the recent amendment to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, (P.L. 1995, c. 250), which became effective September 12, 1995, forfeiture of an individual's public employment based on a conviction for either a crime of dishonesty or a crime of the third degree or above, "would occur at time of conviction only if the trial judge expressly ordered it. Otherwise, a forfeiture would not occur until time of sentencing, unless the trial judge ordered a stay for good cause." (Initial Decision at p. 11) As such, absent affirmative action of the trial judge at the time of conviction or sentencing, such forfeiture of the position of an individual similarly situated to Vitacco in this matter, would automatically occur by operation of law at the time of his sentencing. The Commissioner observes, notwithstanding the ALJ's cogent discussion of the legislative and logical intent of the latest revision to this criminal statute, i.e., to "'strengthen' the forfeiture law" (Initial Decision at pp. 11-13), such revision, by its unambiguous language, precludes the Commissioner from entering an order of a forfeiture of Vitacco's position herein. Specifically, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2b(2) reads:

> A court of this State shall enter an order of forfeiture[u]pon application of the county prosecutor or the Attorney General, when the forfeiture is based upon a conviction of an offense under the laws of another state or of the United States.

Clearly, pursuant to the dictates of this section, the Commissioner may not recognize a forfeiture for conviction of a federal crime unless the County Prosecutor or Attorney General applies for a formal judicial declaration. As noted by the ALJ, because of Vitacco's indications that he is retiring from his tenured position with the within Board, the Attorney General's Office has declined to pursue forfeiture proceedings in this case. (Initial Decision at p. 12) Further, the Commissioner derives no encouragement from the additional language included in the Legislature's amendment, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2g, in that he cannot concur with the ALJ's discussion, (Initial Decision at pp. 12-13), advocating the use of a liberal rather than a literal interpretation of this provision. While essentially agreeing with the observation of the ALJ that when interpreting statutes, "the overriding goal should be to determine the legislative intent" and "[o]ne should avoid a literal interpretation of individual statutory terms or provisions that would be inconsistent with the overall purpose of the statute" (citations omitted) (Initial Decision at p. 12), the Commissioner must remain mindful that, with respect to statutory interpretation outside those contained in the Education Laws, the decision of the Commissioner of Education is not entitled to deference from the courts of this State. (See Mayflower Securities v. Bureau of Securities, 64 N.J. 85 (1973); also see Innkeeper, Inc., v. Remington, Inc., 287 N.J. Super. 54, 58 (App. Div. 1995).

Consequently, the Commissioner concludes that unless and until the Legislature sees fit to modify or extend the clear language of the statute, he does not have jurisdiction to enter orders for forfeiture of public employment, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, as amended by P.L. 1995, c. 250.

In that the Commissioner has determined that forfeiture of Vitacco's position, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, is inapplicable in the instant matter, it must, therefore, be determined whether the criminal conduct committed by Vitacco amounts to unbecoming conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. Preliminarily, in this regard, the Commissioner is in full agreement with the ALJ that the tenure charges in this matter have not been rendered moot by Vitacco's voluntary resignation from the Board's employment. In that Vitacco retains his certificates which qualify him for employment in the State and has an outstanding claim for benefits arising out of the employment relationship, a finding of mootness of the tenure charges is clearly precluded by the State Board's decision in In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Jerry Barshatky, School District of the Freehold Regional High School District, Monmouth County, decided by the State Board May 1, 1996. Moreover, the Commissioner finds, as did the ALJ, that "the community is entitled to a public declaration that Vitacco's behavior required his removal. He should not be permitted to resign in good standing." (Initial Decision at p. 6)

Notwithstanding that the within tenure charges are not mooted by Vitacco's resignation of his employment in the District, the Commissioner concludes that, upon review of the record in its totality and the circumstances present in the instant matter, he can find no justification for the expenditure of scarce time and resources to conduct a plenary hearing, as he determines that the conduct giving rise to Vitacco's federal conviction amply establishes the Board's charges of unbecoming conduct and calls for his removal from his tenured position.

It is observed that Vitacco's submissions to the record of this matter claim entitlement to an adjudication on the merits of the tenure charges by virtue of the fact that his federal conviction relates to charges that do not, in any way, touch upon or involve his duties as Superintendent in the Lincoln Park School District. (See Vitacco's Letter Brief, dated March 7, 1996, at pp. 8-11.) Such contention is clearly belied by reasoned reading of the full context of the transcript of Vitacco's criminal plea on November 2, 1995 and that of his sentencing on June 18, 1996 before the Honorable Harold A. Ackerman of Federal District Court, which establish a readily apparent nexus between the crimes to which Vitacco pled guilty and his position in the District. Moreover, in this connection, the Commissioner notes that it is undisputed that Vitacco's federal plea agreement contains a stipulation wherein he agrees that a 2-level enhancement to his penalty in the tax evasion matters for "abuse of position of trust" is appropriate*. It is further noted that such enhancement is made pursuant to U.S. Sentencing Guidelines (U.S.S.G.) Section 3B1.3 which provides

> If the defendant abused a position of public or private trust  in a manner that significantly facilitated the commission or concealment of the offense, increase by 2 levels.
> (Guidelines Manual dated November 1, 1994, at 232)

* See Plea Agreement with Robert Vitacco, Schedule A.

The applicability of this provision is clarified in 1. of the Commentary to this Section which specifies

> "Public or private trust" refers to a position of public or private trust characterized by professional or managerial discretion (i.e., substantial discretionary judgment that is ordinarily given considerable deference). Persons holding such positions ordinarily are subject to significantly less supervision than employees whose responsibilities are primarily non-discretionary in nature. For this enhancement to apply, the position of trust must have contributed in some significant way to facilitating the commission or concealment of the offense (e.g., by making the detection of the offense or the defendant's responsibility for the offense more difficult). This adjustment, for example, would apply in the case of an embezzlement of a client's funds by an attorney serving as a guardian, a bank executive's fraudulent loan scheme, or the criminal sexual abuse of a patient by a physician under the guise of an examination. This adjustment would not apply in the case of an embezzlement or theft by an ordinary bank teller or hotel clerk because such positions are not characterized by the above-described factors. (emphasis added) (Id.)

In that Vitacco expressly acknowledges and agrees that his criminal conduct constituted an abuse of a position of trust, and given the specificity of the applicability of this penalty enhancement, the Commissioner finds that there can be no dispute as to the existence of an unequivocal nexus between the administration of his position and his criminal conduct. As such, no purpose would be served in conducting a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 in order to convince the Commissioner that the Board's tenure charges are true in fact, and sufficient to warrant this individual's dismissal or reduction in salary. The Commissioner finds that the record is abundantly clear that the charges of unbecoming conduct have been sustained and, consequently, Vitacco can claim no entitlement to compensation for the initial 120-day term of his suspension. Moreover, with respect to an appropriate penalty herein, it is long-established that such determination > should be based upon findings as to the nature and gravity of the offenses under all the circumstances involved, any evidence as to provocation, extenuation or aggravation, and should take into consideration any harm or injurious effect which the conduct may have had on the maintenance of discipline and the proper administration of the school district.

> In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404, 422 (App. Div. 1967).

Here, the Commissioner concludes that a hearing for the limited purpose of receiving additional evidence with regard to the appropriate penalty would go beyond the intent of the Tenure Employees Hearing Act. Even fully crediting, arguendo, the mitigating circumstances surrounding his criminal conduct advanced by Vitacco at his sentencing before Federal District Court Judge Harold A. Ackerman, including his long service in the District with a successful and exemplary record, (see Sentencing Transcript at pp. 11-15), in light of the importance of the position he occupied in the District and the obvious resultant detrimental effect his criminal behavior occasioned for the Board, students and taxpayers, it is determined that such mitigation evidence cannot serve to alter the compelling conclusion that the appropriate penalty herein is Vitacco's removal from his position.

In this connection, it must be remembered that a superintendent of schools serves as chief executive officer of a school district who is statutorily responsible for the "general supervision over the schools of the districtunder rules and regulations prescribed by the state board." N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20. The occupant of such a position is one in whom the board and the members of the community are required to place considerable reliance with respect to his ability, honesty, integrity, efficiency, judgment and faithfulness in the performance of his duties. As such, the professional conduct demanded of this individual is significant. As observed by the State Board in In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Frank J. Napoli, 1988 S.L.D. 284:

> If the standard of behavior required of teachers is stringent, the standard for high administrative personnel must be even more stringent. As was noted in In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Louis Cirangle, 1980 S.L.D. 95, 96, aff'd by the State Board, 1980 S.L.D. 97, aff'd, Docket #A-3967-79A (App. Div. Jan. 30, 1981), certif. denied, 87 N.J. 347 (1981):
>
> > The position of Chief School Administrator, difficult at best, cannot be exemplified by one who displays less than the self-restraint and controlled behavior requisite as an example to the Board, teachers and pupils alike.
>
> The Respondent, as superintendent of schools, occupies a crucial position within the school district and community. He is entrusted with the responsibility for providing educational leadership and for administering the school district so as [to] ensure proper implementation of board policy with respect to personnel matters as well as educational programming. (at 288)

The Commissioner is persuaded that the within record is abundantly clear that Vitacco utilized his position as superintendent of schools dishonestly, evidencing a total lack of the integrity and personal responsibility requisite to such a position. His admission to two criminal counts which involved an "abuse of his position," spanning a two-year period of time, and which was, found by Federal District Court Judge Ackerman to be motivated by > [g]reed. Pure and simple. A desire to rip off the system, carry out your very important responsibilities in terms of the education and the educational health of the school district in, to say the least, a hypocritical manner (Sentencing Transcript at p. 27) obviously constitutes an appalling breach of the high level of trust required by his position and a violation of the fiduciary duty owed to his Board and the members of the community.

For all of the foregoing reasons, a finding that the appropriate penalty in this matter is Vitacco's dismissal from his position is dictated. The Commissioner opines that a penalty determination was necessary in this case, notwithstanding that the record indicates that Vitacco has already relinquished his position in the District, in order that the State Board of Examiners may have an adequate opportunity to review the broadest record possible if it chooses to take action with respect to Vitacco's certificates.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL ordering that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, Robert Vitacco forfeited his public employment at the time of entry of his guilty plea on November 2, 1995, is hereby overturned for lack of Commissioner of Education jurisdiction to order such forfeiture. Rather, it is ordered that Robert Vitacco be deemed dismissed from his tenured employment with the Lincoln Park Board of Education, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, for conduct unbecoming a superintendent of schools. This matter will be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for action as it deems appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

MARCH 24, 1997

DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

149-97

EDU # 7871-94
C # 149-97
SB # 41-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF ROBERT R. VITACCO,	:
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOROUGH OF LINCOLN PARK,	:	DECISION
MORRIS COUNTY.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 24, 1997

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Lindabury, McCormick & Estabrook (Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq.)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Klausner & Hunter (David L. Rosenberg, Esq., of Counsel)

Robert R. Vitacco (hereinafter "respondent" or "Vitacco") was employed as Superintendent of Schools by the Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park (hereinafter "Board") since 1975, inclusive of calendar years 1991 and 1992, achieving tenure in the position. On January 22, 1992, the respondent and the Board entered into a written termination agreement ("Agreement"), in which Vitacco agreed "to resign his position as Superintendent of Schools to take effect September 30, 1995." Paragraphs Seven and Eight of the Agreement also set forth terms under which the respondent was to receive an additional $15,000 in compensation for his service as a consultant with respect to labor negotiations.

However, on June 20, 1994, the Board certified tenure charges against Vitacco seeking his removal as Superintendent. The Board alleged that Vitacco and the district's business administrator, Leonard Marano ("Marano"), had engaged in criminal conduct that constituted unbecoming conduct within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. The alleged criminal conduct included tax evasion, misappropriation of public funds, misuse of vacation days, destruction of public records and financial mismanagement.

APR. 5, 2000

On August 16, 1994, the Commissioner of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for a hearing.

On March 21, 1995, six months prior to the date designated by the Agreement as respondent's resignation date, Vitacco and Marano were both indicted under a 12-count federal indictment for various criminal offenses, including criminal conspiracy, embezzlement and attempt to evade taxes by underreporting income for five separate years.

On March 24, 1995, the respondent filed a motion seeking dismissal of the tenure charges. Respondent contended that the charges were moot since the Board had accepted his resignation and he had indicated his willingness to surrender his teaching certificates. During this period, from September 1, 1994 through September 30, 1995, the respondent was on a paid leave of absence pursuant to the termination agreement with the Board, following which his formal resignation would take effect.

On November 2, 1995, the respondent pleaded guilty before U.S. District Court Judge Harold Ackerman to two counts of tax evasion for filing false tax returns for 1991 and 1992 and for underreporting his income by $16,520.45 in 1991 and by $29,054.04 in 1992. The respondent's unreported income included vacation reimbursement, a monthly car allowance and payment he had received as a consultant in labor negotiations.

On December 12, 1995, the Board filed a motion seeking a declaration that respondent could be removed from his position by operation of law, based on the forfeiture statute, N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, as amended on September 12, 1995. With the consent of the parties, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") deferred ruling on the Board's motion until completion of the criminal proceedings.

On June 18, 1996, the respondent was sentenced to ten months' imprisonment on each criminal count, to be served concurrently, and fines totaling $15,000. As part of his plea agreement, Vitacco agreed that under federal sentencing guidelines, a two-level enhancement for abuse of a position of trust was appropriate. Judge Ackerman specifically addressed the higher level of penalty, explaining that it was necessary not only to penalize "these individuals for their own conduct but to also send a message to those who have privileged positions as public servants and the penalty one pays for abusing that trust they have been given by the public." Transcript of June 18, 1996, Vitacco's Sentencing Hearing, at 26. Judge Ackerman stressed that a superintendent's position is such that his responsibility is increased proportionately.

The pre-sentencing report was also considered during the sentencing hearing. That report provides specific accounts by various school employees that confirm the continuous nature of the respondent's actions and the adverse effect of his actions on their employment.

On August 29, 1996, oral argument was held before the ALJ with respect to the respondent's motion to dismiss the tenure charges. On February 6, 1997, the ALJ recommended granting summary judgment on the Board's motion and denying the respondent's motion to dismiss the tenure charges. Based on the seriousness of the respondent's criminal actions, as well as his continued claims for salary reimbursement during the first 120 days of his suspension and an outstanding claim for benefits, the ALJ concluded that the respondent's resignation would not render the tenure charges moot. With respect to the jurisdictional question, the ALJ found that the Commissioner did have jurisdiction and that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, the respondent's actions warranted the forfeiture of his position in the district as of November 2, 1995, the date on which he had entered his guilty plea.

On March 24, 1997, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's recommendation, concluding that he did not have subject matter jurisdiction to render a determination on forfeiture under N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2. Nonetheless, the Commissioner agreed with the ALJ that the tenure charges in this matter were not moot since the respondent had retained his teaching certificates and had an outstanding claim for benefits arising out of his employment. The Commissioner also concluded that the conduct which gave rise to the respondent's federal conviction amply established the Board's charges of unbecoming conduct and that, as a result, an evidentiary hearing was not necessary.[1]

The respondent filed the instant appeal to the State Board from the Commissioner's ruling with regard to the tenure charges. The Board filed a

---

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 provides in pertinent part:

> No person shall be dismissed or reduced in compensation,
>
> (a) if he is or shall be under tenure of office, position or employment during good behavior and efficiency in the public school system of the state...except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or other just cause, and then only after a hearing held pursuant to this subarticle, by the commissioner, or a person appointed by him to act in his behalf, after a written charge or charges, of the cause or causes of complaint, shall have been preferred against such person....

cross-appeal from the Commissioner's determination that he lacked subject matter jurisdiction under the forfeiture statute.

In its cross-appeal, the Board requested guidance on the application of N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(a)(1). Specifically, the Board sought a declaration that this agency has the authority to file an application for forfeiture in state court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(g) as a "public entity having authority to remove the person convicted from his public office, position or employment."

We reject the Board's contention. Quite simply, the terms of the statutes show that N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(g) is not applicable to this case. Nor does any other provision provide the authority in this matter for either the Commissioner or the Board to seek a forfeiture from our state courts under these circumstances.

N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(a) provides that:

> a. A person holding any public office, position, or employment, elective or appointive, under the government of this State or any agency or political subdivision thereof, who is convicted of an offense shall forfeit such office or position if:
>
> (1) He is convicted under the laws of this State of an offense involving dishonesty or of a crime of the third degree or above or under the laws of another state or of the United States of an offense or a crime which, if committed in this State, would be such an offense or crime;
>
> (2) He is convicted of an offense involving or touching such office, position or employment.

N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(b) further provides that a Court of this State shall enter an Order of Forfeiture of Public Office by a person holding such public office:

> (1) Immediately upon a finding of guilt by the trier of fact or a plea of guilt entered in any court of this State unless the court, for good cause shown, orders a stay of such forfeiture pending a hearing on the merits at the time of sentencing; or

(2) upon application of the County Prosecutor or the Attorney General, when the forfeiture is based upon a conviction of an offense under the laws of another State or of the United States. An order of forfeiture pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date the person was found guilty by the trier of fact or pled guilty to the offense.

N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(d) emphasizes that:

> In addition to the punishment prescribed for the offense, and the forfeiture set forth in subsection a. of N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2, any person convicted of any offense involving or touching on his public office, position or employment shall be forever disqualified from holding any office or position of honor, trust or profit under this State of any its administrative or political subdivisions.

N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(g), in pertinent part, also states that:

> in any case in which the issue of forfeiture is not raised in a court of this State at the time of a finding of guilt, entry of guilty plea or sentencing, a forfeiture of public office, position or employment required by this section may be ordered by a court of this State upon application of the county prosecutor or the Attorney General or upon application of the public officer or public entity having authority to remove the person convicted from his public office, position or employment. The fact that a court has declined to order forfeiture shall not preclude the public officer or public entity having authority to remove the person convicted from seeking to remove or suspend the person from his office, position or employment on the ground that the conduct giving rise to the conviction demonstrates that the person is unfit to hold the office, position or employment.

As detailed above, the respondent pleaded guilty to federal tax evasion in U.S. District Court. Consequently, his conviction was for an offense under the laws of the United States, rather than those of the State of New Jersey. Hence, a forfeiture may be sought and declared in New Jersey State court only after the procedures specified in N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(b)(2) have been followed. As set forth above, a court of this State can declare forfeiture under these circumstances only upon application of the County Prosecutor or the Attorney General.

This result is not altered by the fact that the Commissioner may have the jurisdiction to seek a forfeiture under N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(g) in a case where sentencing was in state court and the issue was not raised in that court at the time of sentencing. As previously stated, the guilty plea in this case was in federal court under the laws of the United States. Because the plea was not entered in a "court of this State," N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2(g) does not apply here.

As the Commissioner found, the language of the statute as amended in September 1995 is clear and unambiguous. Hence, we need look no further than the words of the statute. Nonetheless, we stress that state courts and federal courts constitute separate judicial systems based on distinctly derived jurisdictional authority. The statutory framework involved here reflects that distinction.

In short, the statute unquestionably confers the authority on either the County Prosecutor or the Attorney General in these circumstances to seek a forfeiture in state court. Nothing extends that authority to the Commissioner of Education or to district boards of education where the plea was entered in federal district court under the laws of the United States. The fact that the Attorney General did not exercise that authority in this case cannot alter the terms of the statute. Consequently, we affirm the Commissioner's determination that he lacked the jurisdiction to declare a forfeiture or to authorize the district board to seek such a declaration in this instance.

We further agree with the Commissioner that the tenure charges in this case are not moot. We also concur that the conduct established in this matter by the respondent's guilty plea warrants the conclusion that respondent was guilty of unbecoming conduct. We further concur with the Commissioner that this conduct warrants the dismissal of the respondent from his tenured employment.

As the Commissioner stressed, the respondent has a claim for benefits arising out of his employment in the school district. More significantly, his voluntary resignation would not preclude him from employment in the public schools of New Jersey or in those of other states. This result is unconscionable given the seriousness of the federal charges to which respondent pleaded guilty and the nexus of those charges to his position in the school district. In this respect, we emphasize that, as described above, the respondent's plea agreement included a stipulation which provided for a two-level enhancement to his penalty since his conduct clearly reflected an abuse of the position of trust which he had held with the district.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed herein, as well as those articulated by the Commissioner, we affirm the Commissioner's determination in this matter.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

April 5, 2000

Date of mailing APR 7 2000

150-97

ANITA LEWIS AND DEBRA ANN SKAWINSKI,

PETITIONERS,

V.

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

In consolidated matter, petitioners, two tenured teaching staff members who were riffed in May 1994, sought back pay for the District's failure to employ them during the 1994-95 and 1995-96 school years.

ALJ concluded that petitioners were not entitled to the positions they sought. In addition, the ALJ found that in-house suspension teacher and alternative program roles constituted assignments in which teachers serve at the discretion of the principal, not positions with tenure or seniority rights. Thus, petitions were dismissed.

Upon review of the record, including transcripts from the hearings, the Commissioner reversed the initial decision. Commissioner found that subsequent to the RIF in May 1994, there were positions to which both petitioners could have been assigned by virtue of their superior tenure and seniority rights as compared to those individuals who were actually assigned to the positions. Commissioner ordered the District to calculate the sums due petitioners, mitigated compensation for school years 1994-95 and 1995-96, until March 1, 1996, the date on which they were offered positions in the District. Moreover, the Commissioner directed the District to establish job positions and titles, as appropriate, for the positions discussed, to produce job descriptions that include certification requirements, inter alia, for each such position, and to submit positions bearing unrecognized titles to the County Superintendent for approval of designation of appropriate certification.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 9743-94 & 9745-94

AGENCY DKT. NOS. 306-7/94 & 313-7/94

ANITA LEWIS and DEBRA ANN SKAWINSKI,

Petitioners,

v.

STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,

Respondent.

(CONSOLIDATED)

Gail Oxfeld Kanef, Esq., attorney for petitioner Anita Lewis (Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen, attorneys)

Kathleen A. Naprstek, Esq., attorney for petitioner Debra Ann Skawinski (Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak, attorneys)

Joseph F. Skinner, Esq., attorney for respondent (Purcell, Ries, Shannon, Mulcahy & O'Neill, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 14, 1997 Decided: January 30, 1997

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners, Anita Lewis (Ms. Lewis) and Debra Ann Skawinski (Ms. Skawinski) seek damages against respondent, State Operated School District of Paterson, Passaic County (the District) for back pay.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 26, 1994, Ms. Lewis filed a Petition. The District filed an Answer on September 26, 1994. On July 28, 1994, Ms. Skawinski filed a Petition. The District filed an Answer on September 23, 1994. The Department of Education transmitted these matters to the Office of Administrative Law on October 6, 1994.

On February 17, 1995, the undersigned entered an Order of Consolidation. The undersigned held a Prehearing Conference and entered a Prehearing Order on April 26, 1995. The hearing was held on June 10 and 27, 1996. The record closed on January 14, 1997, after the submission of all post-hearing Briefs.

ISSUE

Ms. Lewis and Ms. Skawinski do not challenge the validity of the Board's reduction in force (RIF). Rather, they seek money damages for back pay. Ms. Lewis seeks back pay in the amount of $20,504.40, and Ms. Skawinski seeks back pay in the amount of $15,363, plus back pay for her discontinued participation as a peer counselor, a bedside instructor and a summer school teacher. The issue, therefore, is whether or not they are entitled to back pay.

FACTS

The parties stipulated the following which I FIND as FACTS in this case:

1. Ms. Lewis holds a teaching certificate with endorsements in Comprehensive Business Education, including data processing.

2. Ms. Lewis commenced employment with the District on September 1, 1986 as a Business Education Teacher.

3. Ms. Lewis acquired tenure as a Business Education Teacher.

4. Robert Salviano (Mr. Salviano) holds a teaching certificate with an endorsement in General Business Studies.

5. Mr. Salviano commenced employment with the District on September 23, 1986, as a Business Education Teacher.

6. Mr. Salviano acquired tenure as a Business Education Teacher.

7. In May 1994, the District voted to abolish Mr. Salviano's position.

8. Commencing September 1, 1994, the District transferred Ms. Lewis to the position of Teacher's Aide. Ms. Lewis served in this position from September 1, 1994 to March 4, 1996. On March 4, 1996, the District reappointed her to the position of Business Education Teacher.

9. For the 1993-94 school year, Ms. Lewis earned $44,548.40, which is equivalent to Step 6 on the 1993-94 salary guide, plus longevity pay.

10. For the 1994-95 school year, Ms. Lewis earned $33,497.60.

11. During the 1995-96 school year, Ms. Lewis earned $34,624.00.

12. Ms. Lewis has more than 24 years of service in the District.

13. Ms. Lewis has a Master's Degree plus 30 credits.

14. Catherine Zehnacker (Ms. Zehnacker) is employed by the District as a Teacher of Computers.

15. Ms. Zehnacker possesses a teaching certificate with endorsements in Elementary Education.

16. Ms. Zehnacker commenced her employment with the District on September 11, 1992.

17. Ms. Skawinski commenced employment with the District on about September 1, 1985, as a Business Education Teacher.

18. Prior to her employment with the District, Ms. Skawinski obtained an Instructional Certificate. In May 1976, she obtained endorsements as a Teacher of General Business and as a Teacher of Accounting and Bookkeeping. In October 1976, she obtained an endorsement as a Teacher of Data Processing.

19. In August 1992, Ms. Skawinski obtained an Educational Services Certificate with an endorsement in Student Personnel Services.

20. On May 3, 1994, Ms. Skawinski received a letter from the District, dated April 1994, advising her that her position was being abolished, effective June 30, 1994.

21. For the 1993-94 school year, the District paid Ms. Skawinski according to MA Step 13 on the salary guide. She received a base salary of $48,057 and $700 for longevity pay.

22. By letter, dated January 25, 1996, the District offered Ms. Skawinski a position in the District, effective March 1, 1996.

23. By letter, dated February 27, 1996, Ms. Skawinski declined the District's offer.

In addition to the above, having heard the witnesses and reviewed the Exhibits, I FIND the following FACTS:

In October 1991, the State Department of Education assumed control of the Paterson School District. In the Spring of 1994, Superintendent, Dr. Laval Wilson (Dr. Wilson), and the Director of Personnel, Dr. John Nolan (Dr. Nolan), determined that a RIF was necessary in the Secondary Business Department because of the declining student enrollment in that Department. Thus, Dr. Wilson and Dr. Nolan reviewed the personnel files of all the teachers in the Business Department in order to comprise a seniority list. The list contained the names of approximately twenty-seven teachers with business and/or related certifications and each teacher's starting date. In reviewing the list, Dr. Nolan determined Ms. Lewis, Ms. Skawinski and Mr. Salviano had the least amount of seniority. Although Mr. Salviano had the least amount of seniority among the three, he also was certified to teach math, grades 8 to 12.

Ms. Lewis is a tenured Business Education Teacher. She taught at Eastside High School. She is certified to teach Comprehensive Business Education and Data Processing from grades 7 to 12. She claims that she is entitled to the positions held by Mr. Salviano and/or Ms. Zehnacker because she has more seniority. It is undisputed that Ms. Lewis has more seniority than Mr. Salviano or Ms. Zehnacker.

Mr. Salviano is a tenured Business Education Teacher. He taught General Business Studies at Kennedy High School. He is certified to teach General Business Studies, Typewriting, Elementary Education and Mathematics. In 1993, he was assigned as an In-School Suspension Teacher. In 1994, he was assigned to head the in-school portion of the Team Approach Center.

The District eliminated Mr. Salviano's position as a Business Education Teacher at the same time it eliminated Ms. Lewis's position. The District rehired Mr. Salviano as a Mathematics Teacher in the Alternative School Program at Eastside High School. He currently holds that position. There is no dispute that Ms. Lewis is not certified to teach mathematics.

Ms. Zehnacker is a certified Elementary Education Teacher and a certified Teacher of the Handicapped. Since 1994, she has been a Computer Lab Technician at School No. 8. She teaches reading and technology, mathematics and technology, word processing, computer hardware and language, science, social studies and general technology to students in grades 4 to 8. There is no dispute that Ms. Lewis is not a certified Elementary Education Teacher and, thus, cannot teach any elementary grades.

Ms. Skawinski is a tenured Business Education Teacher. From September 1992 to November 15, 1992, she was assigned to assist with Freshman scheduling. In May 1992, she received a Masters Degree in Guidance. She then was assigned to the Guidance Department. She described her assignment as "back-up to the Master Scheduler." She worked in this assignment until the District eliminated her position as a Business Education Teacher. Thereafter, Nicholas Bucci (Mr. Bucci) took over that assignment. Ms. Skawinski claims entitlement to the position held by Mr. Bucci, Mr. Salviano, Ms. Zehnacker and/or Anthony De Pasquale or a position in the Alternative Program at Kennedy High School.

Mr. Bucci began working for the District in February 1, 1990. He is a certified Teacher of Business, Teacher of Bookkeeping and Accounting, Teacher of Driver Education, Teacher of the Handicapped and School Business Administrator. From February 1, 1990 to September 1, 1990, Mr. Bucci served as an unassigned Business Education Teacher at Kennedy High School. He accrued no tenure or seniority in this position because, as an unassigned teacher, he essentially functioned as a substitute teacher not having his own schedule of classes. From September 1, 1990 to the present, Mr. Bucci has been a Special Education Teacher at Kennedy High School. From January 1995 to December 1995, he was assigned on a part-time basis to assist the Master Scheduler. Beginning in April 1996, he has assisted the Master Scheduler on a full-time basis.

According to Dr. Nolan and the District's present Director of Personnel, Philomena Pezzano (Mrs. Pezzano), there is no position in the District entitled "Back-up to the Master Scheduler." When the Master Scheduler needs help, the Principal, not the Personnel Department, assigns someone to help. With respect to Ms. Skawinski, enrollment in the Business Department had declined. The Principal tried to save a Business Education Teacher position, so he assigned Ms. Skawinski to help the Master Scheduler. This was an assignment, not a position, to be performed by teachers who had spare time or who were filling in to help the Master Scheduler. As such, no tenure or seniority rights attached to that assignment.

An In-House Suspension Teacher and an Alternative Program Teacher also were assignments, not positions. No tenure or seniority rights attached to these assignments. In addition, the teachers assigned to the Alternative School Program taught only in areas in which they had certification.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

To acquire tenure in a teaching position, a teacher must have an appropriate certificate for that position. Ellicott v. Board of Education, 251 N.J. Super. 342, 348 (App. Div. 1991). The scope of the tenure is limited by the certificate held by the teacher. Ibid. A tenured teacher with proper certification can claim seniority rights to a position that is within the tenured teacher's certification. Lichtman v. Ridgewood Bd. of Ed., 93 N.J. 362, 364 (1983). Seniority only accrues within the specific subject area in which the tenured teacher is certified and has actually served. Lichtman, 93 N.J at 366, 368-369; Capodilupo v. W. Orange Tp. Ed. Bd., 218 N.J. Super. 510, 515 (App. Div. 1987); N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1.

In this case, Ms. Lewis holds a Business Education Teacher certificate with endorsements in Comprehensive Business Education and Data Processing. She is tenured as a Business Education Teacher. She claims entitlement to the position now held by Mr. Salviano of mathematics teacher in the Alternative School Program at Eastside High School. Mr. Salviano is a Certified Mathematics Teacher. Ms. Lewis is not, nor has she ever served as a Mathematics Teacher. I, therefore, CONCLUDE, that Ms. Lewis has no tenure or seniority rights to the position held by Mr. Salviano.

Ms. Lewis also claims entitlement to the position now held by Ms. Zehnacker of teaching reading and technology, mathematics and technology, word processing, computer hardware and language, science, social studies and general technology in an elementary school. Ms. Zehnacker is a certified Elementary Education Teacher. Ms. Lewis is not, nor has she ever served as an Elementary Education Teacher. I, therefore, CONCLUDE, that Ms. Lewis has no tenure or seniority rights to the position held by Ms. Zehnacker.

Ms. Skawinski holds an Instructional Certificate with endorsements as a Teacher of General Business, a Teacher of Accounting and Bookkeeping and a Teacher of Data Processing. She is tenured as a Business Education Teacher. She also holds an Educational Services Certificate with an endorsement in Student Personnel Services. She is tenured as a Business Education Teacher. Ms. Skawinski also claims entitlement to the position held by Mr. Salviano and the position held by Ms. Zehnacker. Ms. Skawinski, however, does not possess a certificate to teach mathematics or elementary education and she never has served in these positions. I, therefore, CONCLUDE, that Ms. Skawinski has no tenure or seniority rights to the positions held by Mr. Salviano and Ms. Zehnacker.

Ms. Skawinski also claims entitlement to the assignment held by Mr. Bucci who now assists the Master Scheduler. Ms. Skawinski has tenure and seniority rights only as a Business Education Teacher . She has no tenure or seniority rights to any other position in the District, There also is no such tenure-track position of "Back-up to the Master Scheduler" in the District. It is only an assignment in which teachers serve at the discretion of the Principal.

ORDER

I, therefore, ORDER that the petitions of Ms. Lewis and Ms. Skawinski be and hereby are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Jan. 30, 1997
DATE

MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 7, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 11 1997
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioners:

Howard Anderson

Carey Jenkins

Anita Lewis, petitioner

William Molloy

Robert Salviano

Debra Ann Skawinski, petitioner

Cathleen Zehnacker

Marie Zofrea

For Respondent:

John Nolan, Ed.D.

Philomena Pezzano

Exhibits

J-1	Stipulation of Facts
J-2	Stipulations of Facts
J-3	Contract Agreement
L-1	Teacher's Salary guide 1994-95
L-2	Teacher's Salary Guide 1995-96
L-3	Salary Guides for Instructional Assistants IV 1994-97
L-4	Ms. Lewis's Paystub, 6/15/94
L-5	Ms. Lewis's Paystub, 11/15/94
L-6	Ms. Lewis's Paystub 9/15/95
L-7	Ms. Lewis's Bachelor of Science Degree
L-8	Ms. Lewis's Master of Arts Degree
L-9	Letter, dated December 19, 1990, from Joseph T. Atallo to Ms. Lewis

L-10	Position Control List
L-11	Ms. Lewis's Certificate for teacher of Business Education
S-1	Ms. Skawinski's Certificate for Teacher of General Business and Teacher of Bookkeeping and Accounting
S-2	Ms. Skawinski's Paystubs
S-3	Ms. Skawinski's Employment Contract, 1994-1995
S-4	Ms. Skawinski's Employment Contract, 1995-1996
R-1	Seniority List

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 9743-94 & 9745-94 (CONSOLIDATED)
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 306-7/94 & 313-7/94

ANITA LEWIS AND DEBRA ANN SKAWINSKI,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioners' exceptions were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner Skawinski initially objects to the ALJ's statement on page two of the initial decision that "Ms. Lewis and Ms. Skawinski do not challenge the validity of the Board's reduction in force (RIF)." (Initial Decision at p. 2) Rather, Skawinski avers that while she and Petitioner Lewis do not challenge the District's right to effectuate a RIF, they do challenge the manner in which the RIF was carried out. (Skawinski's Exceptions at p. 2) In this instance, both Skawinski and Lewis seek money damages for back pay, inasmuch as Petitioner Skawinski declined to accept a position, to begin March 1, 1996, with the District, and Petitioner Lewis was rehired with the District on March 1, 1996.

Skawinski asserts that the ALJ "makes numerous factual and legal conclusions which are unsupported by and, in many instances, completely contradicted by the testimony presented at the hearings." (Id.) First, contrary to the ALJ's recitation of events, Skawinski notes that the record clearly shows that Salviano had not acquired his math certification as of the date of the RIF, but rather acquired same later, in July of 1994. Moreover, Skawinski observes that

> "[t]he testimony of Salviano further reveals that he was never riffed, but continued his employment with the District during the 1994-95 school year, first in the position of in-school-suspension teacher  and eventually being placed in November of 1994 in the position of math teacher." (emphasis in text) (Id. at p. 3)

Second, Skawinski contends that the ALJ ignored the extensive testimony regarding the duties she performed during the 1992-93 and 1993-94 school years in her role as the back-up to the master scheduler. While the ALJ concludes, based upon testimony by Dr. Nolan and Philomena Pezzano, that Skawinski never held a "position" as a back-up to the master scheduler, but rather an "assignment," Skawinski counters that the testimony of Maria Zofrea, the Master Scheduler, revealed that she was not merely "filling in," but performing essentially the same duties as Zofrea on a full-time basis. (Id. at p. 4) Thus, Skawinski reasons that allowing the District to disregard her statutory rights "by [labeling] the job she performed on a full-time basis for at least two (2) years as an 'assignment' rather than a 'position,' is egregious and in clear violation of the law." (Id.)

Third, Skawinski attests that the ALJ disregarded the testimony concerning the positions of Cathleen Zehnacker, William Molloy and Carey Jenkins. (Id.) Skawinski argues that these individuals, each having less seniority at the time of the RIF than she, had never seen job descriptions for their roles and, further, understood that there were no specific certification requirements attached to the performance of said jobs. Skawinski continues,

> [T]he Commissioner has consistently held that a teaching position is not simply defined by the title assigned to that position, but by the endorsement required to hold the position, N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2, as well as the specific duties and responsibilities assigned thereto.  It has further been held that, where no specific certificate is required, any teaching certificate is appropriate and all tenured teachers can assert tenure and seniority claims to that position.  These principles of law, when applied to the facts of this case, require a careful and meticulous examination of the positions held by Zehnacker, Molloy and Jenkins, not the cursory review given by the ALJ. To do otherwise frustrates that purpose of this state's tenure laws. (citations omitted) (Id. at p. 5)

Finally, Skawinski asserts that the ALJ misapplied the applicable law by concluding that she had no entitlement to the positions held by Robert Salviano and Nicholas Bucci. In maintaining that her tenure and seniority rights were only as a Business Teacher, Skawinski affirms that the ALJ disregarded the line of school law decisions which address a teacher's right to positions which do not have a particular certification requirement. Moreover, Skawinski notes that the ALJ failed to address her entitlement to the positions held by Molloy and Jenkins.

Petitioner Lewis warrants that the initial decision cites neither law nor fact in support of the conclusion that she has no tenure or seniority rights to the position held by Salviano or Zehnacker. However, citing to Taxman v. Piscataway Board of Education, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 189, Lewis argues that the Commissioner of Education has held previously that there is no specific instructional endorsement required to teach a computer course. (Lewis' Exceptions at p. 2) Rather, a determination as to which individuals should be assigned to teach computer courses are based upon seniority. Here, Lewis contends that she clearly has more seniority in her area of certification than does Zehnacker. Further, "[u]nlike the situation in Morgan v. Board of Education of the Township of Wayne, Passaic County, 1991 S.L.D. 122, there is no specialized course work of a technical nature involved in the classes taught in Respondent's district." (Id. at pp. 2, 3) Rather, Lewis notes that the computer course taught by Zehnacker is purely an introductory course which may be taught by anyone holding an instructional certificate.

Further, Lewis argues that the ALJ provides no factual or legal support for her conclusion that Zehnacker's job constitutes an assignment rather than a position. Permitting the District to so label any job will allow the District to circumvent tenure laws and defeat the purpose behind those laws. (Id. at p. 3)

Upon careful and independent review of the record, which included transcripts from the hearings held on June 10, 1996 and June 27, 1996 at the OAL, the Commissioner determines to reverse the initial decision of the ALJ, for the reasons set forth herein.

Initially, the Commissioner notes that the Board does not dispute that Zehnacker has held a "position, " and not merely an assignment, with the District as a teacher in a computer lab, notwithstanding that Ms. Zehnacker testified that she has never seen a job description for her position.[1] Rather, the District argues that the position requires elementary certification, inasmuch as Zehnacker provides instruction to students in grades four through eight. However, the Commissioner rejects the District's contention, noting that the record fairly establishes that Ms. Zehnacker's computer instruction is viewed as a mechanism to learn the various content subjects, and that such instruction is wholly driven by the lesson plans of the classroom elementary teachers.[2] As Petitioners Lewis and Skawinski properly note, Taxman, supra, established that a teacher of computers need only possess an instructional certificate; there is no requirement for a specific endorsement. Taxman, supra at 191.

[1] Transcript from June 10, 1996 at p. 95.

Similarly, the District does not contest that Molloy and Jenkins hold "positions" in the District, as opposed to merely fulfilling assignments. While the District asserts, however, that their positions are content-specific and, therefore, require particular endorsements, in the absence of job descriptions for either position,[3] the Commissioner notes there is nothing in the record to belie the impression remaining from testimony that Molloy and Jenkins are common branch instructors in the alternative education program, positions for which Molloy and Jenkins are appropriately certified by virtue of N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.1, whereas petitioners are not.

As to the issue of whether Salviano's employment as an in-school suspension (ISS) instructor constituted a "position" rather than an "assignment,"[4] the Commissioner finds that it may appropriately be considered a position within the scope of the entitlement conferred by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12. The term "position," as used in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1 et seq., is defined as "any office, position or employment.*" (emphasis added) (N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1) Further,

> N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12 provides that whenever a teaching staff member is dismissed as the result of a reduction in staff,
>
> > ...such person shall be and remain upon a preferred eligibility list for reemployment whenever a vacancy occurs in a position for which such person shall be qualified ...
>
> Reductions in staff are made under authority of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, which provides that
>
> > ...nothing in this title ... shall be held to limit the right of any board of education to reduce the number of teaching staff members employed in the district

[2] Transcript from June 10, 1996 at p. 96.
[3] Transcript from June 27, 1996 at pp. 68, 89
[4] Transcript from June 27, 1997 at pp. 142-144.

> whenever, in the judgment of the board, it is advisable to abolish any such position.
>
> The language of the statutes is not ambiguous. A "position" to which a tenured teaching staff may claim entitlement under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12 upon abolition of the "position" she previously held pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 is one as a teaching staff member.
>
> Teaching staff member is defined by N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 as ...a member of the professional staff of any district or regional board of education...holding office, position or employment of such character that the qualifications, for such office, position or employment, require him to hold a valid and effective standard provisional or emergency certificate, appropriate to his office, position or employment, issued by the State Board of Examiners.... (emphasis in text)
>
> Marybeth Driscoll v. Board of Education of the West Essex Regional School District, Essex County, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 348, 349.

Accordingly, the issue herein of "assignment" versus "position" turns on the fact that the ISS position represented employment which required a valid and effective certificate, notwithstanding that the District has apparently failed to promulgate this requirement in any consistent or responsible manner. Moreover, the fact that the District has failed to formally establish a "position" within its staffing structure for the ISS job and, apparently, has further failed to create a job description, does not preclude petitioners from asserting claims to these "positions."

As to Nicholas Bucci, the Commissioner notes that he has been a Special Education Teacher at Kennedy High School from September 1, 1990 until the present. (Initial Decision at p. 6) There is nothing in the record to persuade the Commissioner that the part-time assignment Bucci held from January 1995 through December 1995 as assistant to the master scheduler was anything other than a supplemental duty to which he was assigned while performing as a teacher of special education classes.[5] Moreover, by the time Bucci became the full-time assistant to the master scheduler in April of 1996, petitioners had already been offered employment in the District. Accordingly, even assuming, arguendo, that petitioners held the proper certification for master scheduler positions, there can be no successful claim herein to Bucci's role as the assistant to the master scheduler.

Petitioner Lewis asserts she was entitled, subsequent to her being riffed in 1994, to be appointed to the ISS position held by Salviano, or the position held by Zehnacker as computer teacher. Similarly, Petitioner Skawinski asserts she was entitled, subsequent to her being riffed in 1994, to be appointed to the ISS position held by Salviano, the computer position held by Zehnacker, the positions in the alternative education program held by Molloy and Jenkins, and the position as assistant to the master scheduler held by Bucci. Skawinski asserts that, where no specific certificate is required for a position, all tenured teachers can assert tenure and seniority claims to that position. (Skawinski's Post-Hearing Brief at pp. 16-18)

It is clear that, subsequent to the District's reduction in force in May of 1994, there were positions to which Lewis and Skawinski could have been assigned by virtue of their superior tenure and seniority rights as compared to those actually assigned the positions. Viewed independently and not as competing claims, Lewis could have been assigned to either Zehnacker's computer position or Salviano's ISS position. (It is noted, however, that the record is unclear as to whether the ISS position even existed after Salviano was transferred from that position to his math position in November of 1994, so that relief based on this position may be accordingly limited.) Further, it is clear from the record that Skawinski could also have been assigned to the positions held by Zehnacker or Salviano;[6] however, she could not rightfully claim any assignment or position held by Bucci, Molloy or Jenkins.

[5] This assignment appears to have been made notwithstanding that Bucci lacked educational services certification.

Therefore, for school years 1994-95 and 1995-96, until March 1, 1996, Petitioner Skawinski, being the more senior of the two petitioners, is entitled to the difference between what she would have earned in either of the aforementioned positions and what she actually earned in her new job in another district for school years 1995-95 and 1995-96, until March 1, 1996. Petitioner Lewis is entitled to the difference in compensation, for that same period, between what she could have earned in either of the noted positions and what she actually earned as a teacher's aide during that period of time, to the extent that the ISS position continued to exist beyond November 1994; if the latter position was abolished at that time, there would be no position remaining after that date to which she could claim entitlement and her relief would be so limited. To the extent Skawinski claims that her compensation should include the sums she would have received as a peer helper/teacher, bedside instructor and summer school teacher, the Commissioner finds that her claim is merely speculative, in that these assignments were considered separate and distinct from her teaching staff positions. Neither the funding for the particular program nor Ms. Skawinski's selection for said program was in any way guaranteed.[7]

Finally, the Commissioner notes, with concern, the number of positions in the District to which staff were not formally appointed, and for which there are apparently no job descriptions to delineate responsibility and set certification requirements. Further, the Commissioner reminds the District that it must assign position titles to teaching staff members which are recognized in the pertinent rules. See N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.3(a). If the District determines that the use of an unrecognized position title is desirable, or if a previously unrecognized title exists, it must submit a written request for permission to use the proposed title to the County Superintendent of Schools, prior to making such appointment. N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.3(b).

[6] With the same time limitation as noted above.
[7] Transcript from June 27, 1996 at pp. 108, 109.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is reversed for the reasons set forth herein. The District is directed to calculate sums due petitioners, consistent with the above-noted parameters. Further, if it has not done so already, the District is directed to establish job positions and titles, as appropriate, for the positions discussed in the instant matter, to produce job descriptions that include certification requirements, inter alia, and to submit positions bearing unrecognized titles to the County Superintendent for approval of designation of appropriate certification.[8]

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[8] While not material to the determination herein, the Commissioner would clarify the ALJ's statement at p. 6 of the Initial Decision by noting that duly contracted full-time unassigned teachers who are employed for the requisite period of time do, in fact, acquire tenure.

MARCH 24, 1997
DATE OF MAILING MARCH 25, 1997

150-97

EDU #9743-94 and #9745-94 (consolidated)
C # 150-97
SB # 40-97

ANITA LEWIS,	:
PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,	:
V.	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT,	:	DECISION
AND	:
DEBRA ANN SKAWINSKI,	:
PETITIONER-CROSS/APPELLANT,	:
V.	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 24, 1997

For the Petitioner-Cross/Appellant, Zazzali, Zazzali, Fagella & Nowak (Kathleen A. Naprstek, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen (Gail Oxfeld Kanef, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Purcell, Ries, Shannon, Mulcahy & O'Neill (Joseph F. Skinner, Esq., of Counsel)

10/1/97

The State Board of Education has reviewed the proposed settlement submitted by the State-operated District of Paterson and petitioner Debra Ann Skawinski and finds it to be in accord with the principles expressed in Cardonick v. Board of Education of the Borough of Brooklawn, decided by the State Board of Education, April 6, 1983. The State Board therefore approves the settlement.[1]

October 1, 1997

Date of mailing OCT 03 1997

[1] We note that the appeal filed by the State-operated District with regard to petitioner Anita Lewis is still pending before us.

150-97

EDU #9743-94 and #9745-94 (consolidated)
C # 150-97
SB # 40-97

ANITA LEWIS,	:
PETITIONER-RESPONDENT,	:
V.	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT,	:	DECISION
AND	:
DEBRA ANN SKAWINSKI,	:
PETITIONER-CROSS/APPELLANT,	:
V.	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT-APPELLANT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 24, 1997

Decided by the State Board of Education, October 1, 1997

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen (Gail Oxfeld Kanef, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Purcell, Ries, Shannon, Mulcahy & O'Neill (Joseph F. Skinner, Esq., of Counsel)

AUG. 5, 1998

Anita Lewis (hereinafter "petitioner" or "Lewis"), a tenured teaching staff member, filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education alleging that the State-operated School District of the City of Paterson (hereinafter "State-operated District") had violated her tenure rights following the abolishment of her position as a business education teacher during a reduction in force ("RIF") in May 1994.[1] Petitioner, who does not challenge the validity of that RIF, claimed that the State-operated District had failed to reinstate her to another position for which she was qualified by virtue of seniority pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12. Specifically, petitioner, who held an instructional endorsement as a Teacher of Business Education, claimed that she had been entitled to reinstatement as an in-school suspension instructor, which had been held by Robert Salviano until November 1994, or as a teacher of computers, which had been held by Catherine Zehnacker. Petitioner requested back pay for the entire 1994-95 school year and for the 1995-96 school year through March 1, 1996, when she was reinstated to a teaching position.

On January 30, 1997, an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") recommended dismissing the petition. The ALJ concluded that the State-operated District had not violated petitioner's tenure or seniority rights, finding that petitioner did not possess the required certification for the positions to which she claimed entitlement.

On March 24, 1997, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's recommendation. The Commissioner found that Salviano's employment as an in-school suspension teacher

[1] We note that, prior to the hearing in this matter, the Administrative Law Judge consolidated the petition filed by petitioner Lewis with a similar petition filed by Debra Ann Skawinski, another tenured teaching staff member in the district. On October 1, 1997, the State Board approved a proposed settlement resolving the dispute between the State-operated District and Skawinski. Consequently, our decision herein is limited to the petition filed by Anita Lewis, and any references to "petitioner" are intended to refer to Lewis only.

constituted "a 'position' rather than an 'assignment.'" Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 16. The Commissioner noted that in-school suspension "represented employment which required a valid and effective certificate, notwithstanding that the District has apparently failed to promulgate this requirement in any consistent or responsible manner." Id. at 17. The Commissioner also observed that "a teacher of computers need only possess an instructional certificate; there is no requirement for a specific endorsement." Id. at 16. The Commissioner found that, subsequent to the RIF, there were positions to which petitioner could have been assigned by virtue of her tenure and seniority rights. He concluded that petitioner Lewis was entitled to the difference between what she could have earned in either of those positions during the relevant time frame and what she had actually earned as a teacher's aide during that period. However, the Commissioner added that it was unclear whether the in-school suspension "position" continued to exist after November 1994. Stressing that Skawinski had more seniority than Lewis, the Commissioner noted that if the in-school suspension "position" had been abolished after November 1994, "there would be no position remaining after that date to which [Lewis] could claim entitlement and her relief would be so limited." Id. at 19.[2]

The State-operated District filed the instant appeal to the State Board.

After a careful review of the record, we reverse the decision of the Commissioner with regard to petitioner's entitlement to the in-school suspension assignment and remand this matter for further proceedings in accordance with our decision herein.

[2] The State-operated District asserts in its appeal brief that the in-school suspension assignment remained vacant from November 7, 1994 until December 5, 1994, when it was assigned to a staff member with 30 years seniority in the district.

In David Dowding v. Board of Education of the Township of Monroe, decided by the State Board of Education, December 5, 1990, we rejected the notion that in-school suspension "is necessarily a teaching staff assignment within the position of 'teacher' requiring possession of a valid certificate in order to be qualified to serve in the assignment." Dowding, supra, slip op. at 2-3 (emphasis in original). We stressed in our decision that:

> The cases cited by the Commissioner do not justify a blanket determination that all in-school suspension assignments are instructional. Nor do we find such a blanket determination proper. Whether or not an in-school suspension assignment is a teaching staff assignment requiring an instructional certificate turns upon the specific duties to be performed in that particular assignment, requiring assessment of whether the employment is of such character as to require that the individual assigned thereto hold appropriate certificate in order to perform such functions. See N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1; N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.4.

Id. at 3 (emphasis in original).

In this instance, the Commissioner concluded that the in-school suspension assignment claimed by petitioner was a teaching staff position requiring appropriate certification. However, the Commissioner failed to review the specific duties to be performed in that assignment in order to determine whether they were of such character as to require certification in order to be qualified to perform those functions. See South River Education Association v. Board of Education of the Borough of South River, decided by the State Board of Education, November 4, 1987. Consequently, we find it necessary to remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings in order to determine whether the particular in-school suspension assignment at issue herein was a teaching staff position requiring possession of an appropriate certificate.

If it was not a teaching staff position, then it was not within the scope of entitlement conferred on petitioner by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12. Driscoll v. Board of Education of the West Essex Regional School District, decided by the State Board of Education, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 348.

With respect to the computer course claimed by petitioner, we reject the State-operated District's contention that an endorsement in elementary education was required to teach that course. While we have rejected the broad general principle that the duties attending a course involving computers can never be of such character as to require possession of a particular instructional endorsement, Morgan v. Board of Education of the Township of Wayne, 1991 S.L.D. 2578, we agree with the Commissioner that, on the basis of the facts in the record, the duties of the computer course at issue in this case required only possession of an instructional certificate.

In so doing, however, we reject petitioner's argument that she was necessarily entitled to back pay through March 1996 when she was reinstated to a teaching position. Petitioner does not dispute the fact that Skawinski had greater seniority than she. Consequently, as found by the Commissioner, Skawinski would have been entitled to reinstatement in the position teaching computers. Petitioner's entitlement would therefore have been limited to the in-school suspension assignment, but only if the duties of that assignment were of such character as to require possession of a teaching certificate.

Accordingly, for the reasons stated herein, we set aside the Commissioner's determination that the in-school suspension assignment claimed by petitioner was a teaching staff position requiring possession of an instructional certificate. We remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings in order to determine whether in-school suspension was a teaching staff position and, if so, whether petitioner had any entitlement thereto after November 1994, as well as for a resultant determination of petitioner's claim in accordance with our decision herein.

August 5, 1998

Date of mailing AUG 0 7 1998

156-97

156-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ASBURY PARK, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE RED BANK REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BRADLEY BEACH, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BELMAR, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ALLENHURST, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF AVON-BY-THE SEA, AND BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOUTH BELMAR, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board alleged the six respondent Boards violated orders of the Commissioner and New Jersey statutes as to the apportionment of high school pupils. Petitioner demanded an order (1) directing respondents to send pupils to Asbury Park High School until the percentages asserted were reached, (2) directing the Red Bank Regional District Board of Education to cease receiving pupils from the respondents and from Interlaken and Deal, and (3) directing certain payments by respondents to Asbury Park for tuition allegedly lost.

In that petitioner was repeatedly late in supplying discovery requests and filing responsive papers, the ALJ did not extend discovery timelines for petitioner's expert report. ALJ concluded that respondents properly assigned the appropriate percentages of their high school-eligible pupils to Asbury Park High School. Respondents and the parents residing within respondent districts are acting under legislative authority when allowing their children to attend specialized vocational programs offered by Red Bank but not offered at Asbury Park High School, the designated receiving school. The ALJ found that petitioner's allegations were without merit. Accordingly, respondents' motion for summary judgment was granted. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's conclusions. Commissioner granted summary judgment and dismissed the Petition of Appeal.

March 27, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

DECISION ON MOTION

FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6082-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 146-4/96

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ASBURY PARK,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD EDUCATION OF THE
RED BANK REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BRADLEY BEACH,
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BELMAR, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH
OF ALLENHURST, BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE BOROUGH OF AVON-BY-THE-SEA, AND BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOUTH BELMAR,

Respondents.

Kim A. Fellenz, Esq. and Robin S. Perry, Esq., for petitioner (Kim A. Fellenz, attorney)

James P. Granello, Esq. and Robert H. Otten, Esq., for respondent Red Bank Regional District Board of Education (James P. Granello, attorney and Crowell & Otten, attorneys)

Michael J. Gross, Esq., for respondent Bradley Beach Board of Education

Kenneth B. Fitzsimmons, Esq., for respondent Belmar Board of Education (Sinn, Fitzsimmons, Cantoli, West & Pardes, attorneys)

Sanford D. Brown, Esq., for respondent Allenhurst Board of Education (Cerrato, Dawes, Collins, Saker & Brown, attorneys)

Honora O'Brien Kilgallen, Esq., for respondent Avon-By-The-Sea Board of Education (Kramer, Kramer & Kilgallen, attorneys)

John E. Collins, Esq., for respondent South Belmar Board of Education (Carroll & Weiss, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 28, 1997 Decided: February 6, 1997

BEFORE BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

This matter was opened when the Asbury Park Board of Education (Asbury Park) filed a verified petitioner with the Commissioner of Education alleging the six respondent Boards of Education are violating orders of the Commissioner of Education and New Jersey statutes as to apportionment of high school pupils.

Asbury Park demands an order (1) directing the respondents to send pupils to Asbury Park High School until the percentages asserted are reached, (2) directing the Red Bank Regional District Board of Education to cease receiving pupils from the respondents and from Interlaken and Deal, and (3) directing certain payments by the respondents to Asbury Park for tuition allegedly lost.

The respondents' answers generally deny the allegations and raise various defenses. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13. After notice, a prehearing conference was held on September 18, 1996. Hearing dates were established in December 1996 and January and February 1997. Extensive discovery instructions were given. The schedule also provided for procedural and substantive motions. The last date for papers was established as December 10, 1996.

This matter has been beset by procedural problems since the first conference of counsel in September 1996. The respondents have moved for sanctions against the petitioner for unreasonable failure to comply with discovery orders. The petition has been amended in writing and orally. The petitioner has received five separate extensions of time in which to file necessary papers. Scheduled hearing days have been adjourned or converted to oral argument on motions.

The original petition alleged that the respondent districts were, singly and in concert, violating apportionment orders of the Commissioner of Education. The petitioner added an allegation that a performing arts program at Red Bank Regional High School and one at Brookdale Community College related to Asbury Park High School were equivalent. The petitioner then claimed that the vocational courses at Red Bank Regional High School were not approved by the New Jersey Department of Education. Most recently, the petitioner asserts that it should be allowed to explore the intent of parents of pupils residing in school districts that have a sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park when those parents chose to enroll their children in vocational education programs.

At hearing on December 18, 1996, the petitioner asserted it needed a delay until January 10, 1997 so it could consult an expert. The respondent Red Bank pointed out that in answers to interrogatories dated November 27, 1996, Asbury Park had been informed that the respondent would use two experts. The information required by the discovery rules had been given to Asbury Park six or seven days prior to hearing. The judge ruled that there was no surprise, that the respondent Red Bank had followed discovery rules and that testimony would be taken.

Red Bank produced testimony that showed Red Bank Regional School had begun a performing arts program for gifted and talented pupils in the early 1980's. A successful performing arts program needs a large pupil base. The program was intended to go beyond traditional, single period courses. It is a vocational, preprofessional curriculum in all aspects.

Qualified teachers, proficient in the arts, are employed. Pupils spend between four hundred and six hundred minutes per week in the program.

In creating the program, the district spoke to persons in the arts, to the County Superintendent and visited schools of performing arts. Red Bank received a grant to study the feasibility of a performing arts program. A survey was taken. The survey indicated that Red Bank had the facility and the performing arts program should be located there. All Monmouth and Ocean County districts were so advised.

Since its inception, the program has required that potential pupils audition. The jurors at the auditions are persons not employed by Red Bank Regional. The entire program was submitted to the New Jersey Department of Education and was granted approval.

Changes in statute and code and changes in funding schemes have been common throughout the program's short history. The Local Area Vocational School (LAVS) designation was abolished. However, the New Jersey Department of Education advised Red Bank that it could continue to offer vocational education programs without state aid.

Since its origin, the program has expanded to include piano and vocal curriculums. All courses in the performing arts program carry full high school credit towards graduation as do other vocational education courses. A comprehensive high school, under the Quality Education Act of 1990, N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-1 through 37, will no longer receive vocational aid. However, N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5, which provides that the Board of Education of any school district or regional school district may establish and maintain vocational schools remains in force and effect. N.J.S.A. 18A:54-7 provides:

> All such boards of education shall receive pupils from other districts so far as their facilities will permit and shall be entitled to collect and receive from any sending district for the tuition of such pupils a sum not exceeding the actual cost per pupil, as determined according to the rules prescribed by the commissioner and approved by the state board.

There was further convincing testimony that the auditions required of applicants to the program are part of an educationally sound set of entrance criteria. Most recently, sixty-seven pupils of the one hundred twenty who auditioned were admitted to the program. Sixteen districts from outside the Red Bank Regional area send pupils to the performing arts program. Eleven of these districts are not associated with Asbury Park in any way.

Asbury Park then asserted that it had a performing arts program that was the functional equivalent of the Red Bank program and that pupils from districts with which it has a sending-receiving relationship should be required to send pupils who want a performing arts curriculum to Asbury Park High School. At hearing on December 20, 1996, the respondents presented two expert witnesses whose testimony shows clearly and convincingly that there is no equivalence whatsoever between the programs. These witnesses studied the Red Bank program and the Asbury Park-Brookdale Community College program and could find no parity.

At the conclusion of hearing on December 20, 1996, petitioner was given until Monday, January 6, 1997 to obtain written confirmation as to whether the vocational courses offered by the Red Bank Regional School District are approved courses. It was the understanding of all counsel that if the question were answered in the affirmative, there would be no need for further hearings. The record shows no objection to this.

The Red Bank Regional School District presented a written statement from the Monmouth County Superintendent of Schools that all vocational courses offered by the district are approved by the New Jersey Department of Education. Copies of this letter were forwarded to all counsel of record in early January. On January 6, 1997, Asbury Park moved for an extension of time in which to file an expert report. A telephone conference was convened and I canceled the scheduled January 10, 1997 hearing date and permitted the respondents to file responsive papers by January 15, 1997. Oral argument on the motion was heard on January 27, 1997.

Red Bank argued that its counsel received nine pages of material by telephone facsimile from Asbury Park late on Friday, January 24, 1997. The attorney's telephone facsimile log was submitted and supports this assertion. Red Bank argues that this is one in a long line of late submissions by the petitioner and that late submissions hamper the ability of the respondents to respond properly. Red Bank filed the present motion on January 10 even though it did not receive necessary materials from Asbury Park until January 8. Red Bank also argues that on December 20, 1996, the petitioner was given the opportunity to go through pupil records so that it might assure itself that pupils attending the performing arts program are properly enrolled in vocational education programs. On December 20, Asbury Park was satisfied that no pupils pertinent to this case were attending Red Bank Regional High School in nonvocational programs. The only open issue was whether Red Bank's courses were approved and that issue has been settled.

In its present motion for summary decision, Red Bank argues that Asbury Park has again asked for extended time to do more discovery. The Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules do not contemplate this. If Asbury Park intended to use an expert witness, it should have arranged for the expert's services before hearing. Asbury Park did not inform the respondents that it wished to employ an expert.

All issues raised have been settled in the respondent's favor. The pupils in question attend approved courses offered in a vocational education program. This is authorized by statute and administrative code. The Quality Education Act (QEA) repealed Local Area Vocational School aid effective July 1, 1990. The Act did nothing to disturb the enabling statutes and, one month after the affective date of the QEA, the related administrative code was readopted without change or comment and is still in effect. The code clearly provides that a district may accept pupils from out of the district provided the local high school or the receiving high school does not offer the program or programs the pupils desire. Asbury Park contacted a Department of Education official who provided two letters and who correctly analyzed the situation. The relationship Red Bank enjoys with the pupils from the corresponding districts is proper.

There is no evidence that the correspondents fail to assign the correct percentage of pupils, according to law, to attend Asbury Park High School. Mere allocation does not act to bar parents from sending their children elsewhere. No legal authority can force pupils to not apply for attendance in a vocational education program. Asbury Park seems to argue that because these pupils attend vocational education programs they should not go on to higher education and, if they do, that means they really were college preparatory pupils, not vocational education pupils. This seems to defy all logic, especially in consideration of Federal legislation to promote the attendance of vocational education students at institutions of higher education. Asbury Park also raises the question of racial imbalance. However, it can not use that obvious fact to filter pupils out of vocational education programs they are rightfully attending. Parent and pupil intent is irrelevant. Parent choice can not be taken away.

The co-respondent boards of education assign pupils to receiving high schools in accordance with law. Parents and pupils decide where the pupils will actually go to school. And, to be accepted into any vocational program regardless of where offered, the pupil must both apply and be accepted.

Asbury Park offered for the first time on the day of oral argument two certifications. Both are unacceptable. One person was not given enough information to reach an informed opinion and, with incomplete data, criticizes the Red Bank program. There is nothing to indicate that the evaluating person knew the attendance policy, the acceptance policy or anything about the curriculums involved.

Red Bank's motion should be granted. Asbury Park was allowed to amend its petition and go even farther afield. When parity of programs was the issue, the respondents prevailed. The only issues left were not even raised in the original petition. Now, Asbury Park would probe intent..

Asbury Park argued that it used its best efforts and worked diligently to meet all deadlines in this case. It did have to ask for adjournments. To force Asbury Park to go ahead when it is not prepared would be unfair.

Asbury Park did receive the County Superintendent's letter stating that all vocational education courses at Red Bank are approved. Asbury Park then wanted to consult an expert and asked for an adjournment. Delay was not granted. Asbury Park gave two evaluators what it had. One of the certifications provided today is only preliminary. It is intended to show the areas that the expert would explore. All issues need to be aired.

At the hearing on December 20, 1996, Asbury Park did not agree that all of the subject pupils were vocational education pupils. What Asbury Park saw in court indicated that all pupils were vocational education pupils, but Asbury Park wanted to do more.

Racial imbalance is an issue of constitutional dimension and plays a role here. The Legislature did not intend the vocational statutes to be used to avoid Asbury Park High School. Asbury Park High School is a ninety-seven percent minority school. The young people attending the school will be damaged if nonminority pupils are allowed to evade and avoid attendance there. This is an attempt to subvert the many sending-receiving cases on the books.

Large numbers of pupils attending vocational education programs do not go on to higher education. The young people in this case, however, largely do.

Shared time is the Monmouth County norm. Pupils should attend Asbury Park High School for academic work and then another school, usually Monmouth County Vocational Technical High School, for vocational courses. If parents are allowed to circumvent their children's attendance at designated high schools, this will ripple through the whole state and promote racial imbalance. The audition process is a phantom. A balancing of interests is necessary here and there must be expert testimony as to intent.

DETERMINATION

The Red Bank Regional School District's motion, joined in by all respondents, must be granted.

There has been no lack of cooperation. Although there are six respondents, all discovery demands were met. Motions brought by some or all respondents were held in abeyance to allow the petitioner full opportunity to respond. Notwithstanding this accommodation, the petitioner was repeatedly late in supplying discovery requests and filing responsive papers. However, the matter ultimately turns on substantive points, not procedural issues.

First, this case differs from other, recent sending-receiving cases in that the pupils involved here have not simply opted to attend another high school. Rather, under the clear provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-15, parents and pupils have decided that the pupils will attend particular, specialized vocational education programs offered neither at the county vocational school nor at Asbury Park High School, the designated receiving school. The New Jersey Constitution requires that the Legislature provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of free public schools. N.J. Const., (1947), Art. VIII, §IV, par. 1. Historically, this has been achieved by the creation of local school districts which have the primary responsibility to provide a thorough and efficient education for the children within their bounds. West Morris Reg'l Bd. of Ed. v. Sills, 58 N.J. 464 (1971). The Legislature has further provided that a child's attendance at school be compelled. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-25. Although instruction is compelled, parents have choices. They have a constitutional right to choose the type and character of education they believed is best suited for their children, be it public or private, secular or sectarian. Pierce v. Society of Sisters, 268 U.S. 510 (1925).

In the present case, the involved parents and pupils are working under a clear grant of legislative authority. This is quite a different thing from acting in the mere absence of a prohibition. Similarly, the Red Bank Regional District Board of Education is working under the clear provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 through -7. These statutes give the authority to the board of education of any school district or regional school district to establish and maintain vocational schools. The course or courses of study to be pursued and all changes in those courses shall be approved by the Commissioner, and all such boards shall receive pupils from other districts so far as their facilities will permit and shall be entitled to collect and receive from the sending districts tuition for such pupils at the rate of the actual cost per pupil in the district. The legal basis for the attendance of pupils from the correspondent districts at Red Bank Regional High School is both firm and clear.

The alleged comparability of performing arts program at Red Bank Regional High School and the Asbury Park-Brookdale Community College did not withstand the testimony, completely unrebutted, of two persons expert in the field. At some future time, this may be arguable. Presently, it is untenable.

The audition process is not a chimera. It is part of a set of stringent criteria that plainly applies to all pupils who apply for attendance. In the most recent set of auditions, nearly one-half of the pupils who applied were not accepted. This is hardly a phantom requirement.

Last, lest there be any lingering doubt, I FIND and CONCLUDE that the co-respondent boards of education in this matter have properly assigned the appropriate percentages of their high school-eligible pupils to Asbury Park High School. Where parents decide actually to send their children is beyond this tribunal's purview under the circumstances presented here.

In summary, this decision FINDS each of the allegations raised by the Asbury Park Board of Education to be without merit. There is no longer a justiciable issue before me. Accordingly, the respondents' motion for summary judgment is GRANTED and this petition of appeal is DISMISSED. It is so ORDERED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

6 FEBRUARY 1997
DATE

Bruce R. Campbell
BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 10, 1997
DATE

Deborah N. Antanaitis/jc
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 11 1997
DATE

Barbara A Hanna
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

slf

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6082-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 146-4/96

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ASBURY PARK, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE RED BANK REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BRADLEY BEACH, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BELMAR, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ALLENHURST, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF AVON-BY-THE SEA, AND BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOUTH BELMAR, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Timely reply exceptions were filed by respondent Red Bank Regional Board of Education and by respondent Belmar Board of Education which joined in Red Bank's response. Reply exceptions were submitted by remaining respondents beyond the time period allotted and are, therefore, not addressed herein.

Petitioner excepts at substantial length to the determination of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) to dismiss this matter for its failure to comply with discovery timelines contending that extensions of time for discovery are provided for under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules and are warranted in this matter. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 1) Petitioner then sets forth several factors which, it contends, justified an adjournment of the respondents' motion for summary decision and an extension of time for discovery, including petitioner's need for time to obtain an expert report as to whether students are legitimately enrolled in vocational education courses and what comparability exists between Red Bank Regional Vocational Programs and Monmouth County Vocational Programs. (Id. at pp. 2-6) Petitioner then cites cases to support its contention that extensions to discovery must be granted where petitioner needs to produce an expert report and where material facts exist. Petitioner further contends that this case should not be decided on the inability of petitioner to meet discovery deadlines, averring that "[d]iscovery involving the complicated history of the respondent[s] seeking termination of sending receiving relationships could not be reasonably and intelligibly digested within five days." (Id. at p. 11)

Petitioner next takes exception to the ALJ's finding that respondents are sending their students to Red Bank Regional to enroll in programs not offered by Asbury Park High School. Petitioner contends this finding is incorrect in that Asbury Park High School offers a number of vocational programs on a shared-time basis whereby the student attends vocational training at a satellite location during part of the day, and completes a core curriculum at his home district during the remainder of the day. It concludes that these programs have been offered by Asbury Park for many years. (Id. at p. 12)

Petitioner additionally takes exception to the finding that respondents are properly completing their student apportionment. It avers,

> The Court's eagerness to endorse the right of parents to send their children to vocational programs outside their resident district and to endorse the procedure of respondent districts in assigning students to Asbury Park High School resulted in the Court's failure to recognize the responsibility of the respondent Boards of Education to honor existing sending receiving relationships.
>
> (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 14)

In summarizing its point that the responsibility of sending districts exceeds simple apportionment of students to Asbury Park High School, petitioner notes that every school board has a responsibility to ensure that the sending-receiving relationships remain successful. (Id. at p. 14) Petitioner lists several examples to demonstrate that through the years respondents have attempted to sever their sending-receiving relationships with Asbury Park, to emphasize that they "have not given-up but continue to demonstrate great ingenuity in their efforts to realize the goal of termination of the sending-receiving relationships with the petitioner, and are inappropriately using N.J.S.A. 18A:38-15 as their present mode of attack." (Id. at pp. 16-18)

Petitioner next excepts to the ALJ's finding that the allegations it raised are without merit in that the issue of racial imbalance is of the utmost importance and should be considered by the Commissioner in determining to which school district students should be sent. Petitioner then cites several cases to show that the mandate to integrate schools is most important in this state. See Board of Education of Englewood Cliffs v. Board of Education of the City of Englewood et al., 257 N.J. Super. 413 (App. Div. 1992); Brown v. Board of Education of Little Rock, 349 U.S. 294 (1955).

Lastly, petitioner quotes Board of Education of the Borough of Belmar v. Board of Education of the City of Asbury Park v. Board of Education of the Borough of Bradley Beach, 1989 S.L.D. 1941, 1954, for the proposition that Red Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment should have been denied in that the Commissioner of Education and State of New Jersey have established a strong public policy to combat "white flight" from racially imbalanced schools. Belmar quoting Branchburg Board of Education v. Somerville Board of Education, 1977 S.L.D. 662, aff'd State Board 1978 S.L.D. 993, aff'd 173 N.J. Super. 268 (App. Div. 1980). (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 25)

In reply, respondents Red Bank and Belmar cite N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4(e), which states parties shall complete discovery no later than five days before the first scheduled evidentiary hearing and note there is no ability to extend discovery beyond these time limits. They aver that petitioner had ample opportunity to obtain an expert before litigation was started. Respondents next assert that petitioner received five separate extensions of time to file discovery papers and that petitioner was repeatedly late in supplying discovery requests. (Reply Exceptions at pp. 1-2) Respondents report no notice of petitioner's use of the expert was given until after motions were made and evidentiary hearing dates began. (Id. at p. 2)

Respondents next cite N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 to show that the Asbury Park shared-time program with Monmouth County Vocational-Technical is not open. It requires pupils to apply and to be accepted into the program. Further, they aver that Asbury Park does not have an approved, recognized, vocational high school program as does Red Bank Regional. Also, pupils who want to enroll in vocational programs don't have to enroll in Asbury Park. (Reply Exceptions at p. 2)

Respondents next posture that the ALJ properly concluded that apportionment of pupils does not guarantee attendance at Asbury Park High School. They further agree that parents and pupils have freedom to choose private or public, special vocational programs, as authorized by N.J.S.A. 18A:54-7, N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:38-15. (Id.)

In response to the racial imbalance considerations raised by petitioner, respondents rely on the language of N.J.S.A. 18A:54D-2(a), which prohibits job discrimination on the basis of race, to argue that racial makeup is not to be used in obtaining entry into any vocational profession. They contend that sending-receiving cases which concern termination of a sending-receiving relationship are not relevant to this case. (Reply Exceptions at p. 3)

Lastly, respondents point out that summary decision should be granted as a matter of law when material facts are not in dispute. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). They argue that petitioner attempts to dispute certain facts not material to the ultimate decision. (Reply Exceptions at p. 3)

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that respondents are entitled to summary judgment based on applicable law. See N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4(e); Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995); and Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1955). In so ruling, the Commissioner finds that the ALJ sufficiently addressed his reasons for not extending discovery timelines, and, therefore, the ALJ's issuance of summary judgment was appropriate.

The Commissioner is further satisfied with the ALJ's conclusions that respondents and the parents residing within respondent districts are acting under legislative authority, conferred upon them at N.J.S.A. 18A:38-15, N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 through -7, when allowing their school children to attend the specialized vocational programs offered by respondent Red Bank.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed by the ALJ and above, the Commissioner affirms the initial decision of the OAL, hereby entering summary judgment in favor of respondents and dismissing the within Petition of Appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 27, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 27, 1997

156-97

EDU #6082-96
C # 156-97
SB # 43-97

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ASBURY PARK, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

PETITIONER-APPELLANT,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE RED BANK REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BRADLEY BEACH, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BELMAR, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ALLENHURST, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF AVON BY THE SEA, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF SOUTH BELMAR, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

RESPONDENTS-RESPONDENTS

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 27, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Robin S. Perry, Esq. and Kim A. Fellenz, Esq.

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the Red Bank Regional High School District, Crowell & Otten (Robert H. Otten, Esq., of Counsel) and James P. Granello, Esq.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Board of Education of the Borough of Bradley Beach, Kenney & Gross (Michael J. Gross, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the Borough of Belmar, Sinn, Fitzsimmons, Cantoli, West & Pardes (Kenneth B. Fitzsimmons, Esq., of Counsel)

9/3/97

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the Borough of Allenhurst (Cerrato, Dawes, Collins, Saker & Brown (Sanford D. Brown, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the Borough of Avon By The Sea, Kramer, Kramer & Kilgallen (Honora O'Brien Kilgallen, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent Board of Education of the Borough of South Belmar, Carroll & Weiss (John E. Collins, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated by the Board of Education of the City of Asbury Park (hereinafter "Asbury Park"), which filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education alleging that the respondent boards, sending districts in a sending-receiving relationship with Asbury Park, were violating orders of the Commissioner and statutory provisions under which they were required to apportion high school pupils among their various receiving districts. Asbury Park sought a directive requiring the respondent districts to insure that the percentage of their students apportioned to Asbury Park would actually attend Asbury Park High School and to enjoin the Red Bank Regional High School District (hereinafter "Red Bank Regional") from receiving pupils from the respondent districts, as well as from Interlaken and Deal.

On January 10, 1997, following several days of hearings, Red Bank Regional filed a motion for summary decision, which was joined in by the other respondent districts.

On February 6, 1997, an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") recommended granting the motion and dismissing the petition. In arriving at his determination, the ALJ noted that the respondent districts had satisfied all of the discovery demands that had been made on them and that Asbury Park had been repeatedly late in supplying discovery requests and filing responsive papers. Nonetheless, he concluded that this matter turned on substantive points, rather than procedural issues.

The ALJ found that, in contrast to other sending-receiving cases, the parents and pupils in the respondent districts herein were acting under the express authority of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-15, which allowed pupils to attend a specialized course of study not offered by their designated receiving district, and that Red Bank Regional was acting under the authority provided district boards by N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 through 18A:54-7 to establish and maintain a vocational program. In so doing, the ALJ rejected Asbury Park's allegation that its performing arts program at Brookdale Community College was equivalent to the program offered by Red Bank Regional. The ALJ found that Asbury Park's contention had not withstood the unrebutted testimony of Red Bank Regional's experts that there was no equivalency between the programs. The ALJ also noted that the audition process required for admission to Red Bank Regional's program was part of a set of stringent criteria and that nearly half of those who had participated in the most recent auditions had not been accepted.

In addition, the ALJ found that the respondent districts had properly assigned the appropriate percentages of their high school-eligible pupils to Asbury Park High School. "Where parents decide actually to send their children," the ALJ stressed, "is beyond this tribunal's purview under the circumstances presented here." Initial Decision, slip op. at 10.

On March 27, 1997, the Commissioner adopted the findings and conclusions of the ALJ and dismissed the petition.

Asbury Park has filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.

After careful consideration of this matter, we affirm the determination of the Commissioner. While the State Board has long considered issues of racial imbalance to be of utmost importance, e.g., Board of Educ. of Englewood Cliffs v. Board of Educ. of the City of Englewood, decided by the State Board of Education, 1990 S.L.D. 1720, aff'd, 257 N.J. Super. 413 (App. Div. 1992), aff'd, 132 N.J. 327 (1993), cert. denied, 510 U.S. 991, 114 S.Ct. 547, 126 L.Ed.2d 449 (1993), we find that Asbury Park has not provided sufficient evidence in support of its allegations to withstand a motion for summary decision. See Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995).

In this respect, we concur with the ALJ that Asbury Park's contention that its performing arts program is equivalent to Red Bank Regional's program is untenable at this point. Quite simply, after carefully scrutinizing the brief submitted by Asbury Park in support of its appeal, we cannot identify any genuine issues of material fact that would justify extending discovery once again so as to allow Asbury Park the opportunity to now develop a more viable claim on some other basis. Further, while we can appreciate the difficulties experienced by Asbury Park in developing its case, we cannot ignore the fact that it was permitted to amend its petition several times and that it received five separate extensions for filing necessary papers. Moreover, Asbury Park had notice as early as November 27, 1996 that Red Bank Regional would be presenting expert testimony to rebut Asbury Park's contention that its performing arts program was equivalent to the program offered by Red Bank Regional and yet, at hearing on December 18, 1996, requested an additional delay so that it could consult an expert.

It also appears that all parties were in agreement that the only evidentiary question requiring resolution at the conclusion of the hearings on December 20, 1996 was whether the vocational courses offered by Red Bank Regional had been approved by the New Jersey Department of Education. Red Bank Regional subsequently submitted a written statement to the ALJ from the Monmouth County Superintendent of Schools confirming that such courses had, indeed, been approved.

In sum, for the reasons stated herein, as well as those articulated by the ALJ and Commissioner, we affirm the Commissioner's decision granting the respondent boards' motion for summary decision and dismissing the petition.

Wendel E. Daniels opposed.

September 3, 1997

Date of mailing SEP 05 1997

157-97

157-97

CHRISTINE AND ANTHONY SCALA,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF BLOOMFIELD, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

March 31, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5539-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 63-2/96

CHRISTINE AND ANTHONY SCALA,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF BLOOMFIELD, ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Christine and Anthony Scala, pro se

Thomas Russo, Esq., for respondent

(Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 24, 1997 Decided: February 11, 1997

BEFORE MARGARET M. HAYDEN, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) from the Department of Education on May 24, 1996, for hearing as a contested case pursuant N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A hearing was scheduled for 9:00 a.m. December 23, 1996 at the OAL 185 Washington Street, Newark, New Jersey. Prior to the hearing, settlement discussions were held and a settlement was reached.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached Settlement Agreement, indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

DATE

MARGARET M. HAYDEN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/14/97

DATE

DNA

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 19 1997

DATE

Barbara A Harned

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

dgi

SCHWARTZ SIMON
EDELSTEIN CELSO &
ESSLER COUNSELLORS AT LAW
(A PARTNERSHIP INCLUDING A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION)

TEN JAMES STREET
FLORHAM PARK
NEW JERSEY 07932
TELEPHONE
(201) 301-0001
FAX
(201) 301-0203

SANCTUARY CENTRE, SUITE 105E
4800 NORTH FEDERAL HIGHWAY
BOCA RATON, FLORIDA 33431
(407) 368-8800

LAWRENCE S. SCHWARTZ
STEPHEN J. EDELSTEIN
NATHANYA G. SIMON*
NICHOLAS CELSO, III
DONALD A. KESSLER
MICHAEL S. RUBIN
JOHN B. MARIANO, JR. †
RAYMOND W. FISHER
BURTON ZITOMER*
ALLAN P. DZWILEWSKI
PAUL H. GREEN

JACOB GREEN COUNSEL

GLENN C. GURITZKY*
SCOTT A. ELK +
MIGUEL A. MAZA°
OF COUNSEL

DENISE P. COLEMAN
ANDREW B. BROWN
JEFFREY A. BENNETT †
THOMAS RUSSO
STEPHEN G. DOHERTY*
JOSEPH R. MORANO*
MARK A. TABAKIN
DWAYNE D. WARREN ¤
JOANN L. LYNCH
BRADLEY K. SCLAR
GERALDINE M. LEWIS †
MARC H. ZITOMER*
DONNA HORIGUCHI HARTMAN*
BRUNO K. BRUNINI
DOUGLAS A. WHEELER

* ALSO MEMBER OF NY BAR
† ALSO MEMBER OF PA BAR
+ MEMBER OF FL BAR ONLY
° ALSO MEMBER OF PR BAR
¤ ALSO MEMBER OF DC BAR

January 23, 1997

VIA LAWYERS SERVICE

Honorable Margaret Hayden, ALJ
Office of Administrative Law
State of New Jersey
185 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102-3011

RE: Scala v. Bloomfield Bd. of Educ.
Agency Ref. No. 63-2/96; OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5539-96

Dear Judge Hayden:

This office represents the Bloomfield Board of Education, the Respondent-Cross Petitioner in this matter.

Pursuant to the Court's directive, enclosed please find the original of the parties' Settlement Agreement, together with a copy of an ancillary Promissory Note. Based upon previous communications with the Court, it is the parties' understanding that the Court shall issue an Initial Decision, which incorporates the terms of the Settlement Agreement and orders a dismissal the administrative action with prejudice.

The Court's attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully yours,

Thomas Russo

enc.
cc: Mrs. Christina Scala (w/enc., via regular mail)

January 23, 1997
No. 6165

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement is executed by and between Mr. and Mrs. Anthony and Christina Scala (hereinafter referred to as "the Scalas") and the Board of Education of the Township of Bloomfield, Essex County, New Jersey (hereinafter referred to as "the Board");

WHEREAS, the Board is a body corporate and politic, duly constituted under N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 and -2, and is charged with the effective operation of the Bloomfield Township Public School District (hereinafter referred to as "the District"); and

WHEREAS, the Scalas are the natural parents, and legal guardians, of A.S. and C.S., two (2) minor children who attended District schools from 1991 through June, 1995; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, the Board determined that A.S. and C.S. were ineligible to receive a free public education in the District, during the aforementioned period of attendance; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, the Board assessed tuition charges against the Scalas in the amount of $ 36,828.00, as a result of their children's aforementioned period of ineligible attendance; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, Mrs. Christina Scala appealed the aforementioned tuition assessment to the Commissioner of Education in a matter entitled Christina Scala, Petitioner vs. Bd. of Educ. of Bloomfield, Respondent/Third Party Petitioner vs. Anthony Scala, Third Party Respondent, Agency Ref. No. 63-2/96; OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5539-96, wherein the Board filed a Counterclaim (seeking payment of the assessed tuition) and a Third Party Petition of Appeal against Mr. Anthony Scala (seeking to hold him jointly liable for the assessed tuition); and

WHEREAS, the Scalas and the Board have decided to fully and finally resolve and settle any and all claims between them arising out of, or in connection with, the Scala children's aforementioned attendance at District schools, as well as all other claims arising from any of the allegations set forth in the aforementioned administrative proceeding;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the Scalas and the Board agree to the following:

1. The Scalas shall pay to the Board $10,000.00, payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Promissory Note in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A and made a part hereof. Upon execution of this Settlement Agreement, the Scalas shall execute and deliver to the Board the original Promissory Note.

2. In exchange for the payment set forth in Paragraph 1 above, the Scalas and the Board agree to simultaneously withdraw their respective pleadings in the aforementioned administrative proceeding. The Scalas and the Board agree to execute all necessary documents for the administrative proceeding to be dismissed, with prejudice and without the award of costs to either party.

3. The Scalas and the Board agree that, to the extent permitted by law, the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement, and the terms and conditions of the appended Promissory Note, shall remain confidential. It is understood by the parties that this non-disclosure provision is a material term of the Settlement Agreement.

4. Each party to this Settlement Agreement acknowledges that they have had ample opportunity to consult with competent legal counsel concerning the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement and the appended Promissory Note. Each party understands the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement and the appended Promissory Note. Each party enters into this Settlement Agreement and the appended Promissory Note of their own volition, without any duress and without any inducement not contained in this document.

5. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the Scalas and the Board on the resolution of the within matter.

6. This Settlement Agreement, and the appended Promissory Note, shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12/12/96

Christina Scala

BONNIE A. PHILLIPS
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MAY 8, 2001

12/12/96

Anthony Scala

BONNIE A. PHILLIPS

Sworn to, and Subscribed
Before Me, this 13 day of
Dec, 1996

Thomas C. Barton, President
Bloomfield Board of Education

Sworn to, and Subscribed
Before Me, this 21 st day of
January, ~~1996~~ 1997

KATHLEEN M. BROWNING
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires June 7, 1998

PROMISSORY NOTE

AMOUNT: $10,000.00 DATE: December ___, 1996

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony and Christina Scala (hereinafter, "the Makers"), residing at 90 Davenport Avenue, Newark, New Jersey 07107, promise to pay to the Board of Education of the Township of Bloomfield, Essex County (hereinafter, "the Payee"), with its principal offices located at 155 Broad Street, Bloomfield, New Jersey 07003, the total sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($10,000.00), payable at the rate of at least ONE-HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100.00) per month, commencing on January 1, 1997.

Payments are to be submitted directly to the office of the Board Secretary on the first day of each month, commencing on January 1, 1997. If the payments are made by check or money order, the check or money order must be made payable to the order of the "Bloomfield Board of Education".

If they are able to do so in any given month, the Makers shall increase the monthly rate of payment to the Payee. It is understood and agreed, however, that any such increased payment shall not excuse or diminish the Makers' obligation to comply with the aforementioned minimum monthly payment requirement, in any future month.

Prepayment of all or any part of the amount due under this Note may be made at any time, without premium or penalty.

The entire unpaid balance of this Note shall become due and payable immediately, without further act or deed, upon the occurrence of any of the following events (each of which shall constitute an "Event of Default"):

(a) The default of the Makers in the payment, when due, of any monthly payment installment, which default shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice of the default shall have been given to the Makers; or

(b) A proceeding is commenced against the Makers under any bankruptcy or insolvency law and remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days; or

(c) The Makers make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or file a petition in bankruptcy, or are adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt, or petition or apply to any tribunal for any receiver or any trustee of the Makers, or any substantial part of any of their property, or commence any proceeding relating to the Makers under any readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation law or statute of any jurisdiction, whether now or hereafter in effect; or the Makers, by any act, indicate their consent to, approval of or acquiescence in any such proceeding, or to the appointment of any receiver of, or any trustee for the maker, or any substantial part of any of its property; or the Makers suffer any such receivership or trusteeship to continue undischarged for a period of sixty (60) days.

The Makers shall pay or reimburse the Payee for all costs and expenses, including accrued interest, as set forth herein, and reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the Payee in collecting any amounts required to be paid under this Note or otherwise enforcing any of the Payee's rights and remedies under this Note, whether before or following an Event of Default. In the event of Default, interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note shall accrue at the rate of thirteen percent (13%) per annum.

The Makers hereby waive presentment, demand for payment by the Payee or the holder of this Note, protest, and notice of nonpayment, dishonor, or protest of this Note and all other notices and demands, in connection with the delivery, acceptance or performance of this Note.

WARRANT OF ATTORNEY: The Makers hereby authorize and empower any attorney of any court of record, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, to appear for and confess judgment against the Makers for such sums as shall have become due under this Note, in either case with or without declaration, with costs of suit, without stay of execution and with the greater of five percent (5%) of such sums or $1,000.00 added as a reasonable attorney's fee for collection. The Makers hereby waive the right of inquisition on any real estate levied on, voluntarily condemn the same, authorize the Clerk of the Court to enter upon the Writ of Execution said voluntary condemnation and agree that said real estate may be sold on a Writ of Execution; and also waive and release all relief from any and all appraisement, stay or exemption law of any state now in force or hereafter enacted. The Makers also hereby waive their right to object to and release all procedural errors in such proceedings. If a copy of this Note, verified by affidavit of the Payee, or someone acting on behalf of the Payee, shall have been filed in such action, it shall not be necessary to file the original Notice as a warrant of attorney. The authority to appear for and enter judgment against the Makers shall not be exhausted by the initial exercise thereof, and the same may be exercised from time to time and as often as the Payee shall deem necessary or desirable and this Notice shall be a sufficient warrant.

No delay or failure, on the part of the Payee, in exercising any right, privilege or option under this Note shall operate as a waiver thereof, or of any Event of Default; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, privilege or option preclude any further exercise thereof, or the exercise of any other right, privilege or option.

The Makers expressly acknowledge that they have had ample opportunity to consult with competent legal counsel concerning the terms and conditions of this Note, that they understand and agree to said terms and conditions, and that each of them executes this Note of his/her own free will, in the absence of any duress and without any inducement not contained in this Note.

This Note is made and delivered in the State of New Jersey and shall be governed by, and be interpreted in accordance with, the laws of New Jersey.

12/12/96

Anthony Scala

BONNIE A. PHILLIPS
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MAY 8, 2001

12/12/96

Christina Scala

BONNIE A. PHILLIPS
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
MY COMMISSION EXPIRES

Sworn to and subscribed before me on this, day of 1996.

12/12/96

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5539-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 63-2/96

CHRISTINE AND ANTHONY SCALA,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF BLOOMFIELD, ESSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 31, 1997, Date of Mailing, March 31, 1997

158-97

158-97

LUIGI PAPARELLA,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

March 31, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5147-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 59-3/95

LUIGI PAPPARELLA,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE,
Respondent.

Randi April, Esq., for petitioner
(Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen, Attorneys)

Dwayne D. Warren, Esq., for respondent,
(Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 6, 1997 Decided: February 6, 1997

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of Facts

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 17, 1995, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached stipulation indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Feb. 6, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/11/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 13 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

SCHWARTZ SIMON EDELSTEIN
CELSO & KESSLER
Ten James Street
Florham Park, NJ 07932
(201) 301-0001
Attorneys for Respondent,
Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle

LUIGI PAPARELLA, Petitioner, vs. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION STATE OF NEW JERSEY DOCKET NO. EDU-5147-95 AGENCY DOCKET NO. 59-3/95 CIVIL ACTION STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the firm of Balk Oxfeld Mandell & Cohen, attorneys of record for Petitioner, Luigi Paparella, and Schwartz Simon Edelstein Celso & Kessler, attorneys for Respondent, Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle, that:

1. In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth in this Stipulation of Settlement, and upon the strict condition that the Roselle Board of Education shall faithfully perform the terms and conditions hereof and not be in default thereon, Paparella agrees to accept in full payment of the Debt the sum of Four Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($4,000.00) (hereinafter referred to as the "Settlement Amount").

2. The Settlement Amount shall be paid as follows: Within thirty (30) days of the execution of this Agreement, Respondent shall pay to Petitioner the sum of $4,000.00.

3. Payment is to be made by check payable to "Luigi Paparella" and mailed on or before the date to the Law Offices of Balk Oxfeld Mandell & Cohen, located at 50 Commerce Street, Newark, New Jersey, Attention, Randi Doner April, Esq.

4. So long as the aforesaid payment is promptly made, Paparella agrees not to pursue the prosecution of any of his rights in this action.

5. As additional consideration for the above settlement, Petitioner shall, simultaneously with the execution of this Stipulation of Settlement, provide to Respondent's attorney a Stipulation of Dismissal of Petitioner against Respondent, together with a signed General Release of said claim.

6. Once payment has been paid as per this Stipulation, Paparella will provide Respondent with the appropriate Stipulation of Dismissal together with a General Release of said claim.

BALK OXFELD Mandell & Cohen
Attorneys for Petitioner

By: Randi Doner April
Randi Doner April, Esq.

SCHWARTZ SIMON EDELSTEIN CELSO & KESSLER
Attorneys for Respondent

By: Dwayne D. Warren
Dwayne D. Warren, Esq.

SCHWARTZ SIMON EDELSTEIN
CELSO & KESSLER
10 James Street
Florham Park, New Jersey 07932
(201) 301-0001
Attorneys for Defendant
Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle

LUIGI PAPARELLA, Petitioner, vs. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY, Respondent.	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION STATE OF NEW JERSEY DOCKET NO. EDU-5147-95 AGENCY DOCKET NO. 59-3/95 CIVIL ACTION STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE AS TO ALL CLAIMS BROUGHT BY PETITIONER AGAINST DEFENDANT

All claims in the above entitled action brought by Petitioner against Respondent, having been amicably adjusted by and between the aforesaid parties, it is hereby stipulated and agreed that these claims be and are hereby dismissed with prejudice and without costs against any of the aforesaid parties.

Dated: May 20, 1996

BALK OXFELD MANDELL & COHEN
Attorneys for Petitioner
Luigi Paparella

By: Randi Doner April
Randi Doner April, Esq.

SCHWARTZ SIMON EDELSTEIN
CELSO & KESSLER
Attorneys for Respondent
Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle

By: Dwayne D. Warren
Dwayne D. Warren, Esq.

PREPARED BY:

DWAYNE D. WARREN, ESQ.

RELEASE

THIS RELEASE, dated this 3 day of July, 1996, is given

BY LUIGI PAPARELLA, hereinafter referred to as "I",

TO BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, hereinafter referred to as "You".

1. RELEASE. I release and give up any and all claims and rights which I may have against you. This releases all claims, including those of which I am not aware and those not mentioned in this Release. This Release applies to claims resulting from anything which has happened up to now. I specifically release the following claims:

Any and all claims asserted or which could have been asserted by me in an action entitled Luigi Paparella v. Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle, filed in the Office of Administrative Law, Docket No. EDU5147-95.

2. CONSIDERATION. In consideration for this Release, I have been paid the sum of $4,000.00. I agree that I will not seek anything further including any other payment from you.

3. ADMISSION OF LIABILITY. This Release and the underlying settlement of this matter does not constitute an admission of liability by any party, but is only intended as an amicable resolution of this matter in the best interest of all parties concerned.

4. WHO IS BOUND. Both parties are bound by this Release. Anyone who succeeds to our rights and responsibilities, such as our heirs or executors of our estates, is also bound. This Release is made for both parties' benefit and all who succeed to our rights and responsibilities, such as our heirs or the executors of our estates.

5. SIGNATURES. We understand and agree to the terms of this Release. If this Release is made by a corporation, its proper corporate officers sign and its corporate seal is affixed.

Witnessed or Attested by:

Monica C. Medina

Luigi Paparella

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)
) SS: COUNTY OF ESSEX)

I CERTIFY THAT on July 3, 1996, Luigi Paparella personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person:

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and

(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as his/her act and deed.

Pamela Comer April
Notary Public
Attorney at Law
State of New Jersey

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5147-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 59-3/95

LUIGI PAPARELLA,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF ROSELLE, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

In that the parties have reached an agreement regarding petitioner's claim that he was entitled to the benefits of N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

March 31, 1997
Date of Mailing, March 31, 1997

159-97

FRANK ALVES,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MAHWAH, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, former Department Chair for Industrial Arts whose position was abolished, claimed entitlement to positions of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services and Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian, alleging they required the same certification he possessed and which were filled by nontenured individuals.

ALJ concluded petitioner was not entitled to the positions he sought as petitioner did not possess the certification needed for those positions (Director of Student Personnel Services, Educational Media Specialist). Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision, concurring with the ALJ that petitioner was not entitled to either of the positions he sought and dismissing the petition of appeal. However, as it was unclear from the record whether the person currently serving as Director of Special Education/Director of Student Services (Intervenor) possesses the appropriate certification for his position, the Commissioner directed the County Superintendent to inquire into this matter and take such action as he deems necessary.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9789-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. 300-7/95

FRANK ALVES,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MAHWAH, BERGEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

Robert M. Schwartz, Esq., attorney for petitioner

Mark G. Sullivan, Esq., attorney for respondent (Sullivan & Sullivan, attorneys)

Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., attorney for intervenor Maxwell Riggsbee

Record Closed: January 21, 1997 Decided: February 10, 1997

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Respondent, Board of Education of the Township of Mahwah, Bergen County (the Board), abolished the teaching position of petitioner, Frank Alves (Mr. Alves). Mr. Alves does not challenge the decision to abolish his position. Rather, he claims entitlement, effective July 1, 1995, to positions requiring the same certification he possesses which the Board allegedly filled with non-tenured individuals and back pay and other emoluments of employment. Mr. Alves seeks the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services presently held by intervenor, Maxwell Riggsbee (Mr. Riggsbee). He also seeks the position of Librarian/Coordinator of Technology presently held by Ronald Bennett (Mr. Bennett).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 27, 1995, Mr. Alves filed a Petition of Appeal. The Board filed an Answer on August 16, 1995. The Department of Education transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law on September 7, 1995 for a hearing as a contested case.

On December 1, 1995, the undersigned held a telephone Prehearing Conference and entered a Prehearing Order. Pursuant to the Prehearing Order, by December 31, 1995, the Board was to notify any and all persons who may be affected by the outcome of this matter and advise all such persons of their right to intervene pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.1. The undersigned also scheduled the hearing for May 1 and 3, 1996.

The parties appeared for the hearing on May 1, 1996. Mr. Riggsbee also appeared at that time and filed a motion to intervene. The undersigned granted that motion. The hearing began on May 1, 1996. Thereafter, the parties notified the undersigned that they were discussing settlement. They requested that the matter be adjourned pending the outcome of the discussion. On October 10, 1996, the parties notified the undersigned that they were unable to reach a settlement. They requested a briefing schedule to submit the remainder of the proof on the papers. The parties filed their Briefs by January 21, 1997, and the record closed on that date.

FACTS

The parties stipulated the following which I FIND as FACTS in this case:

1. Mr. Alves has been a teaching staff member employed by the Board since July 22, 1968.

2. From 1968 until June 30, 1995, Mr. Alves served as a Department Chair for Industrial Arts. From 1971 to 1976, Mr. Alves also served as the District Vocational Coordinator.

3. Mr. Alves is a tenured supervisor. He holds certificates for Teacher of Industrial Arts (June 1965), Coordinator (July 1970), Supervisor (July 1971), Principal (July 1971) and School Administrator (July 1977). Mr. Alves's employment record is attached as Exhibit A to Exhibit C-1 admitted into evidence on May 1, 1996.

4. Mr. Alves performed such functions as required by the job descriptions for the positions he held.

5. On about May 10, 1995, the Board voted to abolish the position of Department Chair for Industrial Arts. The Board reassigned Mr. Alves to a classroom teaching position, effective September 1, 1995.

6. As of September 1, 1995, the Board employed Mr. Bennett as the Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian and Mr. Riggsbee as the Director of Special Education, Grades 6 to 12/Director of Student Services.

7. Mr. Bennett's appointment as Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian became effective July 1, 1994. Prior thereto, Mr. Bennett held the position of Coordinator of Media Services. Mr. Bennett's employment record is attached as Exhibit A to Exhibit C-1 in evidence.

8 From August 15, 1992 to February 1, 1995, Mr. Riggsbee served as Guidance Chair, Grades 9 to 12, assigned to the High School. Effective February 1, 1995, the Board assigned Mr. Riggsbee as the Director of Special Education, Grades 6 to 12/Director of Student Services. Mr. Riggsbee's employment record is attached as Exhibit A to Exhibit C-1 in evidence.

9. Attached as Exhibit B to Exhibit C-1 in evidence are the job descriptions for Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian, Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services, and a generic description of Department Chair.

Having heard the testimony of the witnesses and having reviewed the Exhibits and post-hearing Briefs, I also FIND the following FACTS:

Mr. Alves claims entitlement to the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services. Mr. Riggsbee presently holds that position. Mr. Alves claims entitlement to this position because he testified that, in addition to his position as Department Chair for Industrial Arts, he served a "Special Ed. Chair" at Mahwah High School pursuant to a verbal appointment by the Principal in the fall of 1986. He served in this capacity until June 30, 1994. Mr. Alves also claims that he served as Chair of Resource Room and Supplemental Instruction until June 30, 1994, at which time the Board hired Mr. Riggsbee as the Chair of Resource Room. Mr. Alves testified that he supervised, observed and evaluated resource room teachers and special education teachers at the High School and assisted in budget preparation and the daily needs of supplemental teachers. Mr. Alves claims that, because of his service as "Special Ed. Chair," and because he is tenured and Mr. Riggsbee is not, he has a greater tenure entitlement to the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services.

Mr. Alves admitted that the Board never appointed him to the position of "Special Ed. Chair." In fact, the Board's proofs showed that no such position ever existed in the District. The Board's proofs also showed that Allan Van Eck (Mr. Van Eck) served as Coordinator for Student Services during the time Mr. Alves claims to have been serving as "Special Ed. Chair." Mr. Van Eck held this position prior to 1987. In this position, Mr. Van Eck was responsible for and supervised special education at the High School, he was the Chair of the Child Study Team and he supervised the Guidance Department and student activities.

Effective August 15, 1992, the Board appointed Mr. Riggsbee to the Position of Guidance Chair, Grades 9-12. Mr. Riggsbee held this position until February 1, 1995. During his service in this position, Mr. Riggsbee obtained certificates for Student Personnel Services (March 1993) and Supervisor (August 1994). At about the time of Mr. Riggsbee's appointment, the Board appointed Mr. Van Eck as Assistant Principal of another school. The Board then appointed Dr. Hanratty as Director of Special Education, Grades K-12. The Board subsequently created a new position, entitled "Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services." The job description for this position requires Director of Student Personnel Services and School Administrator/Supervisor certificates. The Board appointed Mr. Riggsbee to this position on September 1, 1995. In addition to the supervisory responsibilities required by this position, Mr. Riggsbee is responsible for supervising guidance counseling to about 25 students. Mr. Alves does not hold a Director Student Personnel Services certificate, nor has he ever served in this position.

Mr. Alves also claims entitlement to the position of Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian. Mr. Bennett presently holds this position. Mr. Bennett had been employed by the Board since September 1970. He has held the positions of Media Specialist (September 1970 to June 1978), Media Specialist/Coordinator of Libraries (September 1978 to June 1979), High School Librarian, Coordinator of Libraries (September 1979 to June 1981), High School Librarian (September 1981 to June 1982), High School Library Director (September 1982 to June 1984), High School Coordinator of Media Services (September 1984 to June 1987), High School Educational Specialist (September 1987 to June 1988), District Coordinator Media Services (September 1988 to June 1994). Since September 1994, he has served as Coordinator of Technology/Librarian. Mr. Bennett holds certificates for School Librarian (December 1971), Supervisor (December 1978) and Educational Media Specialist (March 1985). The job description for this position requires a Supervisor and an Educational Media Specialist certificate. Mr. Alves does not hold an Educational Media Specialist certificate, nor has he ever served in the position of media services or librarian.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

To acquire tenure in a teaching position, a teacher must have an appropriate certificate for that position. Ellicott v. Board of Education, 251 N.J. Super. 342, 348 (App. Div. 1991). The scope of the tenure is limited by the certificate held by the teacher. Ibid. A tenured teacher with proper certification can claim seniority rights to a position that is within the tenured teacher's certification. Lichtman v. Ridgewood Bd. of Ed., 93 N.J. 362, 364 (1983). Seniority only accrues within the specific subject area in which the tenured teacher is certified and has actually served. Lichtman, 93 N.J at 366, 368-369; Capodilupo v. W. Orange Tp. Ed. Bd., 218 N.J. Super. 510, 515 (App. Div. 1987); N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1.

In this case, Mr. Alves holds certificates for Teacher of Industrial Arts, Coordinator, Supervisor, Principal and School Administrator. He is tenured as a Supervisor. He claims entitlement to the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services. According to the job description, that position requires a Director of Student Personnel Services certificate. Mr. Alves does not possess such a certificate. In addition to the job description requirement that Mr. Alves possess such a certificate for that position, N.J.A.C. 6:11-11.10 requires an endorsement of Director of Student Personnel Services "for any person who is assigned as a director, administrator or supervisor of guidance and student personnel service of a school system, including the supervision of educational activities in areas related to and within the guidance program." Clearly, Mr. Alves does not meet the requirements of the regulations or the job description for the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services.

Mr. Alves also claims entitlement to the position of Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian. That position, however, requires an Educational Media Specialist certificate. Mr. Alves does not possess such a certificates, nor has he ever served as an educational media specialist.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that Mr. Alves is not entitled to the positions of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services and Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian.

ORDER

I, therefore, ORDER that the petition of Mr. Alves be and hereby is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb. 10, 1997
DATE

MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/18/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 19 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

Frank Alves, petitioner

For Respondent:

Stuart Salkin, Assistant Superintendent

Exhibits

C-1 Stipulation of Facts

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9789-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 300-7/95

FRANK ALVES,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MAHWAH, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter, including a transcript of the proceedings, and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and respondent's replies thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner's exceptions incorporate arguments advanced before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), contending, inter alia, that petitioner, by virtue of his tenure and seniority rights, is entitled to remain employed within respondent's District as either Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services or Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian. In his exceptions, petitioner specifically argues that he has greater entitlement than Intervenor Riggsbee (intervenor) to the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/ Director of Student Services. He notes that although he does not hold the requisite endorsement of Director of Student Personnel Services, neither does intervenor. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 3) Further, petitioner asserts that he does hold a School Administrator's Endorsement which, according to N.J.A.C. 6:11-9.3(a), qualifies him as a director. He notes intervenor holds a Supervisor's Endorsement.

With respect to qualification, petitioner contends,

> Respondent ought to be estopped from now contending that Petitioner cannot serve as a special education supervisor and/or > director of guidance as he previously served in the special education supervisor capacity for a period of eight years and the Respondent knowingly employed the Intervenor without the requisite certification for the position to which he [has] been appointed. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 4)

Petitioner cites case law to emphasize that, "[a] teaching staff member will not be deprived of the legislatively granted status of tenure where the board has failed in its responsibility to follow State statutes and regulations."

Petitioner also cites Herbert v. Middletown Township Board of Education, 1989 S.L.D. 148, aff'd State Board 1990 S.L.D. 1759, aff'd N.J. Superior Court Appellate Division May 22, 1991, Dkt. No. A-318-90T1, to support his contention that he has superior entitlement to this position over intervenor in that he has tenure and intervenor does not. He also points to Galbraith v. Board of Education of Lenape Regional High School, 1996 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 396, decided by the Commissioner January 12, 1996, aff'd State Board June 5, 1996, to aver that his tenure as a supervisor should take precedent because in that case it was found that a supervisor's endorsement authorized Galbraith to supervise any subject matter at any grade level.

Lastly, petitioner again notes he supervised special education teachers and was responsible for formulating the budget for the Special Education Department, which duties are duties assigned to the Director of Special Education position in question. Thus, he asserts he has greater seniority entitlement requiring his appointment to this position.

In reply, the Board avers that in order to prevail in this matter, petitioner must first show an entitlement to the position he seeks. The Board avers petitioner lacks qualification for the position because he lacks the requisite endorsement of Director of Student Personnel Services, and cites N.J.A.C. 6:11-11.10 to emphasize that such endorsement, > is required for any person who is assigned as a director, administrator, or supervisor of guidance and student personnel service of a school system...." (emphasis in text) (Reply Exceptions at pp. 1-2)

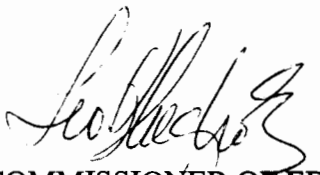
Secondly, the Board argues that because the position is not one simply entailing supervision of special education, but also includes a guidance supervisory component for which petitioner is unqualified, petitioner is unqualified for the entire position. (Id. at p. 2)

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that petitioner is not entitled to either of the positions he seeks. Initially, the Commissioner notes that petitioner was never appointed to the position of Supervisor of Special Education. Even assuming, arguendo, that he did perform such job duties, however, he does not hold the requisite certification for endorsement to claim the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services on this basis. Similarly, petitioner does not hold the requisite certification for the position of Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian. The Commissioner notes that the record provides no basis whatsoever to conclude that the Board's certification requirements for the positions at issue are inappropriate.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein and as further explicated above, the Commissioner affirms the initial decision of the OAL and dismisses the within Petition of Appeal. Additionally, in that it is unclear from the record whether Intervenor Riggsbee possesses the appropriate certification for the position to which he is assigned, a circumstance which is not altered by the Board's apparent assignment of a staff member who also lacked the required certificate, the County Superintendent is directed to inquire into this matter and take such action as may be appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.



COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 2, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 2, 1997

159-97

EDU #9789-95
C # 159-97
SB # 44-97

FRANK ALVES,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MAHWAY, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, April 2, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Robert M. Schwartz, Esq.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Sullivan & Sullivan (Mark G. Sullivan, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.[1] We add only that there is no indication in the record that the Board submitted the unrecognized position titles at issue herein to the county superintendent for approval and for a determination of the appropriate certification, as required by N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.3(b). Consequently, we remind the Board of such obligation and, in the event that it has not already done so, we direct the Board to immediately submit a [1] We note that the instant appeal is limited to the position of Director of Special Education, Grades 6-12/Director of Student Services since petitioner is no longer asserting a tenure claim to the position of Coordinator of Technology/School Librarian. See Brief in Support of Appeal, at 3.

8/26/97

written request for permission to use each of these unrecognized titles to the county superintendent, along with a detailed job description for each title.

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 0 8 1997

160-97

NANCY MAHONEY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
MIDDLESEX COUNTY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COMMISSION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

APRIL 2, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8394-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 348-8/96

NANCY MAHONEY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
MIDDLESEX COUNTY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COMMISSION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 2, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 2, 1997

161-97

161-97

WILLIAM GRIMES,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF TRENTON, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

APRIL 2, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6594-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 233-6/96

WILLIAM GRIMES,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF TRENTON, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 2. 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 2, 1997

162-97

162-97

RICHARD HERDEGEN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF POMPTON LAKES, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

APRIL 2, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11314-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 406-9/96

RICHARD HERDEGEN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF POMPTON LAKES, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 2, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 2, 1997

163-97

163-97

MARYANN KNOX,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF OAKLYN, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

APRIL 2, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08914-96S
AGENCY DKT. NO. 503-10/96

MARYANN KNOX,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF OAKLYN, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 2, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 2, 1997

164-97

164-97

RICHARD HOROWITZ,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEMBERTON, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

APRIL 2, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8284-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 299-7/95

RICHARD HOROWITZ,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEMBERTON, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 2, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 2, 1997

165-97

165-97

W.M.I. AND A.I., on behalf of minors, M.I. AND M.I.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CLIFTON, PASSAIC COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning relatives of minors, M.I. and M.I., challenged Board's residency determination that they were not entitled to free public education in the District.

ALJ found that petitioners demonstrated that guardianship was transferred to them because the natural parents were experiencing economic and physical hardship. ALJ found that petitioners were the sole support for the minors and that they were domiciled in the District with petitioners. ALJ granted petitioners' request for relief and determined that M.I. and M.I. were entitled to a free and appropriate education within the District.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioners satisfied the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1), thereby establishing that M.I. and M.I. were eligible to attend school in the District. Commissioner ordered District to admit them into its public school system, free of charge, so long as there was no change in petitioners' circumstances that would alter their entitlement.

APRIL 7, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1747-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 437-11/95

W.M.I. AND A.I. ON BEHALF
OF MINORS M.I. AND M.I.

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CLIFTON, PASSAIC
COUNTY

Respondent.

W.M.I. and A.I., pro se on behalf of petitioners

Anthony V. D'Elia, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: January 10, 1997 Decided: February 10, 1997

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

W.I., the guardian of M.I. and M.I., filed a verified petition with the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) appealing the determination by the Board of Education of City of Clifton, Passaic County (Board) that M.I. and M.I. be removed from the Clifton School System. Respondent do not dispute the childrens' domicile but questions whether a special hardship was demonstrated in order to justify their continued enrollment in the Clifton School System.

On February 20, 1996 the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law to be heard as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13. A hearing was held on June 24, 1996. The record remained open for the petitioners to submit additional documents. At the request of the undersigned, the respondent provided a copy of the documents on January 10, 1997 at which time the record was closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

M.I. and M.I. are two minor children, ages 14 and 16, who reside with their guardians, W.M.I. and A.I., in the City of Clifton. The children are the nephews of the guardians. The childrens' natural parents, K.M.K.I. and A.K.I. are natives and residents of Amman, Jordan. In July 1995, the children were sent to live with W.M.I. and custody was given to him on September 5, 1995.

Mrs. I. testified that the childrens' natural father suffers from chronic pain and was forced to stop working two years ago. Further, his illness forced him to give up his home and live with his parents. In addition to the two children in the United States, there are three siblings in Jordan. Confronted with a deteriorating situation, she and her husband brought the two oldest children to live with them in the United States. The natural mother works part-time as a seamstress, however, little work is available in Jordan. Mrs. I. further testified that they do not receive any financial support from the childrens' natural parents. Indeed, the natural parents are supported by the childrens' grandparents.

Further, M.I. and M.I. have continuously resided with them since coming to the United States and have not returned to Jordan. Moreover, the children are claimed as dependents on their U.S. Income Tax Returns.

Dr. Othman reports K.M.K.I, (the natural father) is ill with arthritic and chronic pain in the lower limbs. (J-2). Further, he is unable to work effectively because of chronic pain. (J-2).

The respondent did present a witness and does not contest the testimony or documentary evidence submitted by the petitioners.

ISSUE

Whether the children are entitled to attend school in the Clifton School System.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The statutory scheme set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 requires several items of proof to be presented to the school board in addition to the affidavit from the children's natural father. The provision of this information to the Board enables any individual to receive a free and appropriate education.

> Any person who is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and is supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child, upon filing by such other person with the secretary of the board of education of the district, if so required by the board, a sworn statement that he is domiciled within the district and is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends so to keep and support the child gratuitously for a longer time than merely through the school term, and a copy of his lease if a tenant, or a sworn statement by his landlord acknowledging his tenancy if residing as a tenant without a written lease, and upon filing by the child's parent or guardian with the secretary of the board of education a sworn statement that he is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child, due to family or economic hardship and that the child is not residing with the resident of the district solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district. The statement shall be accompanied by documentation to support the validity of > the sworn statements, information from or about which shall be supplied only to the board and only to the extent that it directly pertains to the support or nonsupport of the child . . . N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b).

In support of their petitions, the petitioners provided the Board with an affidavit of non-resident parent, their affidavit and a statement from a Dr. Othman (J-1, J-2 J-3). The respondent did not contend that other verifying information as required by the statute was not provided. Thus, it is presumed that all statutorily required documents were provided to the Board.

I FIND that the petitioners have demonstrated the guardianship was transferred to them because the natural parents are experiencing economic hardship. Further, I FIND that the physical handicap of the natural father was also demonstrated.

I FIND and CONCLUDE that the guardians are the sole support for the M.I. and M.I. and that they are domiciled in Clifton and will continue to live with the petitioners, W.M.I. and A.I. until their emancipation.

Having found that the natural parents are no longer providing financial support to M.I. and M.I. and it being undisputed that the children are domiciled in the City of Clifton, I herein GRANT the petitioners request for relief and that M.I. and M.I. are entitled to a free and appropriate education within the Clifton School System.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

2/10/97
DATE

Irene Jones
IRENE JONES, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/19/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 20 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

sej

APPENDIX

Witnesses:

Mrs. A.I.

Exhibit:

J-1 Application for Affidavit Admission
J-2 Statement of Dr. Othman
J-3 Affidavit of non-resident parent(s).

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1747-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 437-11/95

W.M.I. AND A.I., on behalf of minors, M.I. AND M.I.,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CLIFTON, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and accepts the ALJ's conclusion that petitioners have satisfied the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1), thereby establishing that M.I. and M.I. are eligible to attend school in respondent's District.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL granting petitioners' appeal to set aside the Board's decision to disenroll their nephews is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board is hereby ordered to admit M.I. and M.I. into its public school system, free of charge, so long as there is no change in petitioners' circumstances that would alter their entitlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 7, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 7, 1997

166-97

166-97

Y.R.L., on behalf of C.J.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FORT LEE, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

APRIL 7, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3566-96
Agency Dkt. No. 77-3/96

Y.R.L. on behalf of C.J.,
Petitioner,
v.
FORT LEE BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

This matter having come before the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 30, 1997, the petitioner seeks a reversal of the decision by respondent, Fort Lee Board of Education (Board), to deny enrollment to C.J. Petitioner failed to appear, and counsel for respondent has moved for Summary Decision. Therefore:

1. Having considered the response of the Board set forth in its Answer for tuition based on the time that C.J. was permitted to attend the Fort Lee Public Schools pending the outcome of this litigation; and

2. Having determined that petitioner received notice of the hearing by the OAL in October 1996 and there being no indication that the notice, mailed by regular mail, did not reach petitioner; and

3. Having determined that the Board's charges remained unchallenged; See Livingston Bd. of Educ. v. E.J.B., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 90017-96 (aff'd), Comm'r of Educ. (Feb. 20, 1996);

It is hereby ORDERED that the tuition amount to be paid by petitioner, Y.R.L., shall be $3,085.34 as stated in the Affidavit of Dr. Alan W. Sugarman, Superintendent, dated January 27, 1997.

It is further ORDERED that the relief requested by petitioner to reverse the decision of the Board to deny enrollment to C.J. is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 10, 1997
DATE

Mumtaz Bari Brown
MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/20/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 20 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cb

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3566-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 77-3/96

Y.R.L., on behalf of C.J.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FORT LEE, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the Board's Motion for Summary Decision is appropriately granted, inasmuch as petitioner has failed to appear and carry the burden of proving that the Board's decision to deny enrollment to C.J. was improper.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is affirmed. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq., the Commissioner directs that petitioner remit to the Board tuition in the amount of $3,085.34.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 7, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 7, 1997

168-97

FRED MONAGHAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF RIDGEFIELD PARK, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning resident of the District contended the Board secretary violated N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1 by failing to remove from the ballot the name of a candidate (Cathcart) who submitted a letter of withdrawal of his candidacy in the April 1995 School Board election, but rescinded the letter immediately thereafter. Board moved for summary decision based on three grounds 1) that petitioner lacked standing to bring the suit; 2) that the petition should be dismissed because the relief requested was now moot; 3) that the petition failed to raise any substantial election irregularity which served to contravene the will of the people.

ALJ concluded that the Board was entitled to summary decision. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-63.12, only a "defeated candidate" may request the Commissioner to "inquire into alleged violations of statutorily prescribed procedures for school elections." ALJ found that petitioner, who challenged the membership of the Board, did not run for membership himself and had no legal right to assert this claim on behalf of others who did. Moreover, since no meaningful relief was available (the election took place nearly two years ago), the matter was considered moot. Also, petitioner presented no evidence that Cathcart's votes would otherwise have gone to a defeated candidate in sufficient numbers to overcome the 200-vote margin of victory. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner modified the initial decision, while affirming the ultimate conclusion that the petition must be dismissed. Commissioner observed that the matter was improperly treated and decided as an election inquiry, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-63.12, rather than as a petition filed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Petitioner was not a defeated candidate and filed prior to the school election in April 1995. In that the documents petitioner sought were no longer in the Board's possession, the issue was undoubtedly mooted by the election, and election procedures are no longer under the Commissioner's jurisdiction, the Commissioner determined the matter was properly dismissed.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5149-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 150-4/95

FRED MONAGHAN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF RIDGEFIELD PARK,
Respondent.

Fred Monaghan, pro se

Stephen R. Fogarty, Esq., for respondent,
(Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 21, 1997 Decided: February 10, 1997.

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of the Case

This matter involves an inquiry into alleged violations of statutorily prescribed school election procedures conducted under the authority of N.J.S.A. 18A:14-63.12. Basically, petitioner alleges that the school board secretary violated N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1 by failing to remove from the ballot the name of a candidate who had submitted a letter of withdrawal of his candidacy in the April 1995 school board election. Additionally, petitioner contends that the board secretary violated his rights by refusing to make a public document available for his inspection. In his prayer for relief, petitioner seeks that the particular candidate's name be removed from the ballot and that he be given a copy of the candidate's letter or withdrawal. Presently this matter comes before the Office of Administrative Law on respondent's motion for summary decision on three grounds: that petitioner lacks standing to bring this suit; (2) that the petition should be dismissed because the relief requested is now moot; and (3) that the petition fails to raise any substantial election irregularity which served to contravene the will of the people. For the reasons which follow, the petition must be dismissed.

Procedural History

On April 13, 1995, petitioner Fred Monaghan ("Monaghan") filed a verified petition with the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner"). Thereafter, on April 26, 1995, respondent Board of Education of Ridgefield Park ("Board") filed its answer. Meanwhile, on April 18, 1995, the district conducted its annual school election. Subsequently, on May 17, 1995, the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing.

Originally, the OAL scheduled a hearing for December 27, 1995, but that hearing was adjourned due to the unavailability of one of the witnesses. Shortly thereafter, on April 4, 1996, the chief administrative law judge consolidated this matter with six other school-election cases solely to resolve a jurisdictional question.[1] By order entered on June 11, 1996, the chief judge ruled that the Commissioner has jurisdiction to hear and determine challenges to school elections conducted in April 1995. Accordingly, the OAL rescheduled the hearing for February 11, 1997.

[1] On March 15, 1996, legislation became effective transferring disputes arising under the school election process from the Commissioner to the Superior Court. L. 1995, c. 278. Although this legislation applied to the conduct of the April 1996 school election, Saunders v. Toms River Reg. Sch. Bd. of Educ., 289 N.J. Super. 225 (App. Div. 1996), it was unclear whether the new legislation also applied to pending disputes involving the April 1995 school election and, therefore, divested the Commissioner of subject matter jurisdiction.

Prior to the hearing date, on December 4, 1996, the Board filed a notice of motion for summary decision, together with a supporting affidavit and brief. Monaghan filed opposing papers on December 11, 1996. In response, Monaghan filed additional opposing papers on January 21, 1997.[2]

Findings of Fact

All of the material facts necessary for disposition of this dispute are set forth in the pleadings and the affidavit submitted by the Board in support of its motion. I FIND that the following facts are undisputed:

Fred Monaghan is a resident of the Village of Ridgefield Park, but was not a candidate in the school election held on April 18, 1995. In that election, there were six candidates competing for election to one of three three-year terms on the Board. On or about Friday, March 17, 1995, David Cathcart, one of the candidates, submitted a letter to Board Secretary Ronald Weber, in which he stated his intention to withdraw his candidacy. Before Weber had a chance to act on this request, however, Cathcart faxed a second letter to him on or about Monday, March 20, 1995, wherein Cathcart rescinded his earlier letter of withdrawal.

Ballots for the election were printed on or about April 7, 1995. Cathcart's name appeared on the ballot. Four days later, on April 11, 1995, Monaghan went to the Board offices and inquired whether any of the candidates had withdrawn from the election. By his own admission, Weber told Monaghan that, "No one had withdrawn from the election." According to Weber's affidavit, his reason for responding in this manner was his belief "that the letter of withdrawal submitted by Cathcart was nullified by the subsequent rescission letter[.]" Shortly after that conversation, Weber returned both letters to Cathcart and did not keep any copies.

---

[2] As the Board correctly points out, N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.2 does not permit an opposing party to file a "reply" to the moving party's reply. Nonetheless, the contents of Monaghan's recent letter were fully considered in reaching this decision.

At the election held on April 18, 1995, the top three candidates were John Malool with 762 votes, Lorraine DiArchangel with 697 votes and Camille Fitzpatrick with 691 votes. Losing candidates were Diane Zanelli with 494 votes, David Cathcart with 491 votes and Robert Binetti with 480 votes. Roughly 200 votes separated the three successful candidates from the three unsuccessful candidates.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that the Board is entitled to summary decision in its favor.

Before considering the procedural aspects of the Board's motion, this decision will address the underlying merits of Monaghan's complaint. N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1, in effect at the time of the April 1985 election but since repealed, provided that:

> Any candidate may withdraw his name as a candidate for election at the annual school election by filing a notice in writing, signed by him, of his withdrawal with the secretary of the board before the ballot is printed or before 4:00 p.m. of the 46th day before the date of the election, whichever is later, and thereupon the name of such candidate shall be withdrawn by the secretary. The name of such candidate shall not be printed on the ballot. . . .

The literal language provides no guidance on what should happen if a candidate tenders a letter of withdrawal on a Friday and, after the intervening weekend, notifies the board secretary of the rescission of his withdrawal.[3] It does not specifically allow a candidate to retract his withdrawal before printing of the ballot, nor does it specifically prohibit such action. Monaghan interprets the use of the word "shall" in the statute as mandatory, so that the board secretary was required to remove Cathcart's name from the ballot as soon as Cathcart submitted his written notice of withdrawal. Presumably, Monaghan is concerned that the votes cast for Cathcart might otherwise have gone to another candidate and, therefore, that the outcome of the election might have been different.

[3] Here the withdrawal took place less than forty-six days before the date of the election, but before the ballot was actually printed.

But the word "shall" is not always used in its imperative sense. Ordinarily the word "may" is permissive or directory and the words "must" and "shall" are mandatory. Such terms, however, have been held to be interchangeable whenever necessary to execute the clear intent of the Legislature. Harvey v. Essex Cty. Bd. of Freeholders, 30 N.J. 381, 392 (1959). While there is a presumption that the word "shall" is used in an imperative and not a directory sense, this presumption is not conclusive and can be overthrown "by something in the character of the legislation or in the context which will justify a different meaning." Union Terminal Cold Storage Co. v. Spence, 17 N.J. 162, 166 (1954). See also, No Illegal Points v. Florio, 264 N.J. Super. 318, 329 (App. Div. 1993); In re Munson - Lied Co., 68 N.J. Super. 281, 287 (App. Div. 1961). If no public benefit ensues and no private right is insured by according the word "shall" an imperative meaning, it is to be construed as directory rather than mandatory. Franklin Estates v. Twp. of Edison, 142 N.J. Super. 179, 184 (App. Div. 1976), aff'd 73 N.J. 462 (1977). Laws for the regulation of elections in respect to the form and contents of ballots, or as to balloting procedure, are directory only, and not mandatory. In re Wene, 26 N.J. Super. 363, 377 (Law. Div. 1953), aff'd sub. nom. Wene v. Meyner, 13 N.J. 185 (1953)..

In other contexts, a proposal is nonbinding if the person making the offer rescinds it before the offeree has had an opportunity to accept or act upon it. Generally, in contract law, a contract is not formed until "the essential terms of an agreement have been communicated between the parties and there has been mutual assent to those terms." Air Master Sales Co. v. Northbridge Park Co-Op, Inc. 748 F. Supp. 1110, 1114 (D.N.J. 1990). Elements of a contract must be present in order to establish the termination of an insurance policy by mutual consent. Meier v. N.J. Life Ins. Co., 101 N.J. 597 (1986). "Thus, a mere proposal by the insured to cancel his policy is insufficient unless it is accepted by the company." Meier, at 620. Accord, Knight v. New England Mut. Life Ins. Co., 220 N.J. Super. 560. 565 (App. Div. 1987), certif. den. 110 N.J. 184 (1988). As a general rule, a vacancy arises on a school board

"when the resignation of an officer is accepted by the proper authority." Georgia v. Suruda, 1654 N.J. Super. 439 (Law Div. 1977).

Moreover, the New Jersey Supreme Court has allowed a tenured teacher to withdraw her resignation even after it had already been accepted by a school board. In Evaul v. Camden Bd. of Educ., 35 N.J. 244 (1961), a teacher impetuously submitted her resignation after an unpleasant and emotional confrontation with her department head. Unknown to the teacher, the school board happened to have had a special meeting scheduled for later that same day. At its meeting, the board voted to accept her resignation. On the following day, the teacher unsuccessfully sought to rescind her resignation. Declaring that it would be "unduly harsh" for the teacher to lose her employment rights, the Court ordered her reinstatement. Significantly, the Court relied heavily on the fact that "in the interim between the acceptance of her resignation and appellant's prompt attempt to rescind, the school board did not take any action in reliance upon the effectiveness of her release." Evaul, at 250. Similarly, in our own case, Cathcart notified the board secretary of his change of heart on the very next business day and before any step had been taken to remove his name from the ballot. It is certainly understandable why Weber might reasonably assume that the purported resignation was no longer effective and that Cathcart was still an active candidate for board membership.

Such approach is fully consistent with the American tradition of letting the voters decide at the polls which of the candidates should represent them. Election laws are to be construed liberally so as to effectuate their purpose; they should not be construed so as to deprive voters of their franchise or so as to render an election void for technical reasons. Wene v. Meyner, 13 N.J. 185, 197 (1953); Kilmurray v. Gilfert, 10 N.J. 435, 440 (1952); Absent some public interest sufficiently strong to permit the conclusion that the Legislature intended strict enforcement, statutes providing requirements for a candidate's name to appear on the ballot will not be construed so as to deprive the voters of the opportunity to make a choice. Catania v. Haberle, 123 N.J. 438, 433 (1991). Accord, Kilmurray, supra; In re Chirico, 87 N.J. Super. 587, 593 (App. Div. 1965). Statutory provisions designed merely for the information and guidance of election officials "must be regarded as directory only, and the election will not be defeated by a failure to comply with them, providing that the irregularity has not hindered any who were entitled from exercising the right of suffrage or rendered doubtful the evidence from which the result was to be declared." Sharrock v. Keansburg, 15 N.J. Super. 11, 19-20 (App. Div. 1951).

Even if Weber were wrong, however, and he lacked the legal authority to preserve Cathcart's candidacy, it does not necessarily follow that Monaghan is entitled to relief. Absent proof of malconduct or fraud, a concluded election will not be overturned for irregularities in the ballot, unless such irregularities have interfered with the full and free expression of the popular will. In re Hackensack Recall Election, 31 N.J. 592, 595 (1960). It is axiomatic that elections should not lightly be set aside and the will of the electorate defeated by mere irregularities. In re Mallon, 232 N.J. Super. 249, 268 (App. Div. 1989). A long line of school law decisions has also held that an election should not be overturned unless the petitioner is able to demonstrate that the will of the people has been thwarted. See, e.g., In re Annual Sch. Election Held in Atlantic City, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 322 (Comm'r April 23, 1995); In re Annual Sch. Election Held in Newark, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 645 (Comm'r Aug. 19, 1993); In re Annual Sch. Election Held in Wanaque, 91 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 9 (Sept. 16, 1991); In re Annual Sch. Election Held in Lacy, 91 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 3 (Sept. 12, 1991).

Monaghan's point is that the outcome of the election might conceivably have been different if those who voted for Cathcart had voted for someone else or, as petitioner put it, if the "dilution of the vote" had been avoided. Nonetheless, Monaghan presents no evidence that Cathcart's votes would otherwise have gone to a defeated candidate in sufficient numbers to overcome the 200-vote margin of victory. "Mere speculation that improved conditions would have afforded a different result is not enough." Wanaque, 91 N.J.A.R. 2d at 9.

Under somewhat similar circumstances, the Commissioner declined to invalidate a school election merely because a board secretary failed to remove the name of an ineligible candidate from the ballot. In re Annual Sch. Election Held in Secaucus, OAL

Dkt. No. EDU 0879-80 (Comm'r April 21, 1980). One of the candidates for the school board ascertained that he might not satisfy the residency requirements. One week before the election, he submitted a letter of withdrawal to the board secretary. However, his name remained on the ballot and he received 161 votes. Another candidate who lost by only eleven votes challenged the results on the theory that he would have won if the ineligible candidate's name had been removed. Denying any relief, the Commissioner stated, "[I]t is abundantly clear that the action of the Board Secretary in not removing [the ineligible candidate's] name from the ballot was not the type of irregularity which would amount to fraud, which would in any way repress the full and free expression of the popular will, and which would requiring the setting aside or voiding of the election." (slip op. at 10). See also, In re Keogh-Dwyer, 106 N.J. Super. 567, 574 (Law Div. 1969), aff'd 54 N.J. 523 (1969), recognizing the majority rule "that votes cast for a deceased, disqualified or ineligible person, although ineffective to elect such person to office, are not to be treated as void or thrown away, but are to be counted in determining the results of the election as regards the other candidates."

Additionally, the Board urges that the petition should be dismissed as moot. An issue is "moot" when a determination is sought on a matter which, when rendered, cannot have any practical effect on the existing controversy. In other words, the conflict between the parties has become merely hypothetical. Black's Law Dictionary 409 (5th ed. 1979). In re Conroy, 190 N.J. Super. 453, 458 (App. Div. 1983). See Oxfeld v. N.J. State Bd. of Educ., 68 N.J. 301 (1975), where the Court refrained from deciding an educational dispute involving students already graduated from high school. Likewise, the Commissioner follows the judicial example and abstains from deciding cases which subsequent developments have rendered purely academic. Weehawkin Educ. Ass'n v. Weehawkin Bd. of Educ., 1978 S.L.D. 924 (Comm'r Nov. 29, 1978); Polskin v. North Plainfield Bd. of Educ., 1968 S.L.D. 217 (Comm'r Sept. 17, 1968). At the present time, the Board members elected in the April 1995 election have served the Board for nearly two years. In the meantime, another school election took place in April 1996 and a new election is only two months away. While it is unclear exactly what relief Monaghan is still seeking, it is no longer possible to alter the results or procedures of an election conducted so long ago. Even if, as appears most likely, Cathcart's two letters were public records which the board secretary ought to have made available for Monaghan's inspection, those letters been returned to their author and are no longer under the Board's control. Accordingly, it would be futile to order the Board to produce documents which are no longer in its possession. If somehow the letters could be retrieved at this late date, they would have no possible impact on the outcome of the 1995 school board election. Since no meaningful relief is currently available, the case must, for all practical purposes, be considered moot.

Lastly, the Board maintains that the petition must be dismissed because Monaghan lacks standing to attack the election results. Historically, New Jersey courts have adopted a generous approach toward recognition of standing in order that aggrieved parties will not be denied easy access to the legal system. Crescent Park Tenants Ass'n v. Realty Eq. Corp., 58 N.J. 98 (1971). State administrative agencies are generally more lenient than courts in allowing persons with only a marginal interest to assert a claim. S. Lefelt, Administrative Law & Practice, 37 N.J. Practice Series § 308 (1988). Nonetheless, there are limits on who may litigate claims before the Department of Education. The Commissioner has consistently refused to hear cases brought by persons who would not be affected by the outcome in a direct and meaningful way. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.1. Kenwood v. Montclair Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. EDU 8858-81 (April 23, 1982), adopted (Comm'r June 14, 1992).

With respect to challenges to school elections, the relevant statute identifies exactly who is entitled to bring such actions. Specifically, N.J.S.A. 18A:14-63.12, as it existed at the time of the election, provided that only a "defeated candidate" may request the Commissioner or his authorized representative to "inquire into alleged violations of statutorily prescribed procedures for school elections, to determine if such violations occurred and if they affected the outcome of the election." If the challenge is to a public question, proposition or referendum, the request for an inquiry must be made by ten qualified voters. Monaghan is challenging the membership of the school board, not the vote on any public question, proposition or referendum. Since he did not run for board membership himself, Monaghan has no legal right to assert this claim on behalf of others who did.

Order

It is ORDERED that the Board's motion for summary decision is granted.

And further ORDERED that the petition is dismissed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb. 10, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/19/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 20 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5149-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 150-4/95

FRED MONAGHAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF RIDGEFIELD PARK, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and the reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner's exceptions challenge the ALJ's findings of fact, recounting in great detail the events of April 11, 1995, wherein petitioner requested from the Board a copy of Candidate Cathcart's letter of withdrawal, but did not receive same, and contending, inter alia, "[t]here is misleading information, assumptions, and factual information purposely distorted and or omitted by the Respondent ." (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 1, 2)

Further, petitioner objects to the ALJ's use of the analogy of contract formation in an election law case, arguing, inter alia, that "Weber is not an offeree with a choice to accept or reject a proposal or contract. He is a public employee who has either received or did not receive a letter." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 7) Petitioner maintains that the receipt of the letter of withdrawal is sufficient to withdraw the candidate's name. (Id. at p. 8) Petitioner further objects to the ALJ's citation to Evaul v. Camden Bd. of Education, 35 N.J. 244 (1961), inasmuch as candidates for the school board are not employees and the Board does not act upon the candidates' nominating petitions or their withdrawals. (Id.)

In response to the ALJ's statement that "[i]t is  understandable why Weber might reasonably assume that the purported resignation was no longer effective " (Initial Decision at p. 6), petitioner argues that such assertion "is erroneous, misleading, and not supported by the evidence." (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 9) Moreover, petitioner refutes that his point in bringing this litigation is that "the outcome of the election might conceivably have been different if those who voted for Cathcart had voted for someone else ." (Initial Decision at p. 7) Rather, petitioner contends that he brought the within Petition of Appeal because he believed the Board violated N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1.

Petitioner argues, once again, that this matter is not moot, and challenges the ALJ's conclusion that he did not have the legal right to assert this claim. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 11) He agrees that he was not a defeated candidate in the election but, instead, filed the within Petition of Appeal contesting an alleged violation by the Board.

Lastly, petitioner sets forth the relief he is seeking "based on Springer's decision."[1] (Id. at p. 12)

---

[1] In his exceptions, petitioner requests the following relief: "A) Confirm that Cathcart's letters are public records[;] B) Rightmyer is to admit he had knowledge of the letters when I inquired[;] C) Confirm Boards did not "act upon" election nominating petitions or the subsequent withdrawal[;] D) Confirm and uphold 18A:14-12.1, and further, confirm "shall" is mandatory, not optional[;] E) Upon "receipt" the name is withdrawn, should be confirmed and upheld[;] F) With careful consideration and with the best interest for the children, you decide or recommend to the appropriate agency the suspension and or revocation of his N.J. license [;] ." (emphasis in text) (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 12, 13)

In reply, the Board first asserts that petitioner lacked standing, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-63.12, to bring the within matter, since he was not a defeated candidate. (Board's Reply at p. 1)

Next, the Board contends that the within matter is moot. The Board warrants that, although petitioner admits that he is not now seeking to set aside the election, his claims of election irregularities are moot, as they "are 'merely hypothetical.'" (Board's Reply at p. 2, citing Black's Law Dictionary 409 (5th ed. 1979). The Board emphasizes that "[t]he Commissioner will not consider 'purely academic' or moot issues." (citation omitted) (Board's Reply at p. 2)

As to the "facts" listed in petitioner's exceptions which he contends were not considered by the ALJ, the Board affirms that > this begs the question as to why these facts were not brought to the attention of Judge Springer before the initial decision was rendered, if the facts are so important. However, a thorough review of these "facts" indicates that they are either irrelevant to the decision or unsupported, baseless allegations. (Id.)

The Board further defends Judge Springer's discussion of contract law in the instant matter where the ALJ found that the pertinent statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1, provided no direction for the situation where a candidate submits a withdrawal and later rescinds the withdrawal. The Board argues, "Since [the ALJ] could find no direction from the statute which is directly relevant, he considered 'other contexts,' one of them being contract law, for guidance." (Board's Reply at p. 3)

The Board additionally notes that the issue of Cathcart's letters as public records is irrelevant, since they have been returned to their author. (Id.)

Finally, citing Madden v. Hagedorn, 236 N.J. Super. 280 (Law. Div. 1989), aff'd 239 N.J. Super. 268, the Board argues that "election laws should be liberally construed to allow candidates to appear on the ballot." (Board's Reply at p. 3) Thus, in accordance with public policy, "Weber reasonably assumed that the purported resignation was nullified by the rescission of that withdrawal." (Id. at p. 4)

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner determines to modify the initial decision of the ALJ, while affirming the ultimate conclusion that the within Petition of Appeal must be dismissed.

At the outset, the Commissioner observes that this matter has been improperly treated and decided as an election inquiry, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-63.12, rather than as a Petition of Appeal filed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Petitioner herein was not a defeated candidate and, indeed, filed his Petition of Appeal on April 13, 1995, prior to the school election held on April 18, 1995.[2]

Further, noting petitioner's request for relief as set forth in the Petition of Appeal in the instant matter,[3] the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that "it would be futile to order the Board to produce documents which are no longer in its possession." (Initial Decision at p. 9) Additionally, as to petitioner's request that the name of the candidate in question be removed from the ballot pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1, said issue has undoubtedly been mooted by the election. See Mercer v. Brick Township Board of Education et al., 94 N.J.A.R. 2d

[2] It is noted that the filing date of April 13, 1995 did not permit this matter to be decided on an emergent basis, since the election was to be held on April 18, 1995, two working days later.

[3] The Petition of Appeal states, in pertinent part, "WHEREFORE, petitioner requests that first, I receive a copy of the letter of withdrawal, and secondly, to avoid dilution of the vote created by the appearance of Candidate A's name on the ballot in violation of 18A:14-12.1, Candidate A's name should be striken [sic] from the ballot, including but not limited to taping over the Candidate A's name and locking the pins on the voting machines, or any other means deemed appropriate by the Commissioner of Education, State of New Jersey." (Petition of Appeal at p. 2)

(EDU) 367, 369, where a petition seeking injunctive relief against the expenditure of public funds for the publication of newsletters by the board of education was dismissed as moot, following the election. "[A]n action is considered 'moot' when it no longer presents a justiciable controversy because the issues have become academic. A case is moot when a determination is sought on a matter which, when rendered, cannot have any practical effect on the existing controversy." Ronald Victoria v. Board of Education of the Township of Woodbridge, Middlesex County, 1982 S.L.D. 1, 5. Moreover, the statute implicated in this issue, is, with the passage of P.L. 1995 c. 278, removed from the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education, see N.J.S.A. 19:60-7; said issue is not, therefore, capable of repetition in this forum. However, mootness notwithstanding, the Commissioner endorses the ALJ's analysis of N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1 found on pages 4 through 8 of the initial decision with respect to a local board secretary's responsibility when a candidate withdraws his/her name and, shortly thereafter, rescinds that withdrawal.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is modified, as noted, and the Petition of Appeal in this matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

April 7, 1997
Date of Mailing, April 7, 1997

170-97

170-97

YVONNE LISA, ANN MOORE, ROBERT PETRILLO, AND REGINA SUKONIK,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON, GLOUCESTER COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT,	:
AND	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
ALLEN K. TAYLOR,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-INTERVENOR,	:
AND	:
STEPHEN BUONO, JAMES BARNES AND MICHAEL LANDON,	:
RESPONDENTS-INTERVENORS.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning supervisors claimed entitlement to supervisory titles created during a reorganization and assigned to nontenured teaching staff members.

ALJ concluded that petitioners did not establish entitlement to any of the Supervisor/Teacher positions currently held by nontenured supervisors. Since none of the petitioners herein possessed any of the four subject area endorsements or a guidance endorsement on the Educational Services Certificate, he or she could not perform the teaching duties required in the job descriptions for Supervisor/Teacher. Likewise, petitioners were not entitled to the Assistant Principal positions currently held by nontenured intervenors. Citing recent amendments to the tenure acquisition statute, ALJ emphasized that it is again clear that once a teaching staff member has obtained tenure in any position under a particular certificate, that educator may extend his or her tenure rights to all other positions under that certificate for which she or he holds the appropriate endorsement, with the exception of those positions specifically enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5; the only way to obtain tenure in a position specifically enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, is by fulfilling the criteria specified in that statute or in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6. Thus, the ALJ concluded that petitioners did not establish entitlement to any Assistant Principal position, one of the specifically enumerated positions in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. Finally, ALJ determined that Petitioner Lisa failed to establish that she had a greater seniority entitlement to the position held by Intervenor Taylor.

Having reviewed the record of this matter, including the transcript of the hearing, and noting the cases cited by the ALJ and by the parties, the Commissioner adopted the findings and determination in initial decision as his own, with clarification. Petition was dismissed.

APRIL 10, 1997

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8186-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. #280-7/95

YVONNE LISA, ANN MOORE,

ROBERT PETRILLO, AND

REGINA SUKONIK,

Petitioners,*

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE

TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON,

GLOUCESTER COUNTY,

Respondent,

and

ALLEN K. TAYLOR,

Respondent-Intervenor,

and

STEPHEN BUONO, JAMES BARNES

AND MICHAEL LANDON,

Respondents-Intervenors.

---

* The Washington Township Administrators and Supervisors Association, originally named as a petitioner, was deleted as a party at the hearing in the within matter on August 6, 1996, with the agreement of all parties.

Robert M. Schwartz, Esq., for petitioners

Joseph F. Betley, Esq., for respondent (Capehart & Scatchard, attorneys)

John F. Hipp, Esq., for respondent-intervenor Taylor

Robert B. Rottkamp, Jr., Esq., for respondents-intervenors Buono, Barnes & Landon (Rottkamp & Flacks, attorneys)

Record Closed: October 11, 1996 Decided: February 21, 1997*

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

This matter commenced on July 20, 1995, when petitioners, each tenured supervisors in respondent's district, filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education seeking an order that the Board of Education of the Township of Washington (hereinafter respondent) had violated their tenure rights by assigning non-tenured teaching staff members to supervisory titles created during a reorganization. An answer on behalf of respondent was filed on August 8, 1995, and on August 23, 1995, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F- 1 to -13.

A prehearing conference was conducted on November 2, 1995, at which time the following was identified as the issue for determination at hearing:

> Do petitioners have a tenure entitlement to any supervisory position held by non-tenured or less senior supervisory personnel in respondent's district?

The prehearing order provided that the parties would file cross-motions for summary decision on or before January 10, 1996. A hearing date was scheduled for February 1, 1996, in the event that the matter was not determined on cross-motions for summary decision. Thereafter, however, the parties advised that they had been unable to agree upon a stipulation of facts and they requested additional time to prepare for the hearing.

---

* Extensions of time for issuing the initial decision were requested and granted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c).

On February 2, 1996, petitioners filed a motion to amend the petition of appeal to include a claim by petitioners Lisa and Petrillo that they were entitled to other administrative positions requiring an administrator's certificate which were held by non-tenured teaching staff members. The motion was unopposed and was therefore granted. An answer to the amended petition of appeal was filed on behalf of respondent on April 1, 1996. On July 9, 1996, the undersigned entered an order permitting Allen K. Taylor to intervene as a party-respondent. On August 1, 1996, the undersigned entered an order permitting Stephen Buono, James Barnes and Michael Landon to intervene as parties-respondents. Thereafter, answers to the amended petition of appeal were filed by counsel for respondents-intervenors Buono, Barnes and Landon and by counsel for respondent-intervenor Taylor. A hearing was conducted on August 6, 1996, following which the record remained open for the receipt of written submissions. Respondent's post-hearing brief was received on September 23, 1996. Petitioners' initial brief was received on September 24, 1996 (a corrected copy was provided on October 9, 1996). The initial post-hearing written submission on behalf of respondent-intervenor Taylor was received on September 23, 1996, and the post-hearing brief on behalf of respondents-intervenors Buono, Barnes and Landon was received on September 16, 1996. Counsel for respondent-intervenor Taylor filed a reply brief on October 7, 1996. Petitioners' reply brief was received on October 11, 1996, whereupon the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Prior to the commencement of testimony the parties entered into the following written stipulations:

1. Petitioners Yvonne Lisa, Ann Moore and Robert Petrillo are currently employed by the Respondent, Washington Township Board of Education, as teaching staff members as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1.

2. Petitioner, Regina Sukonik, was employed as a tenured teaching staff member as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 in the Washington Township School District from September, 1985, until her letter of resignation effective September 19, 1995. Ms. Sukonik's employment history is as follows:

November, 1984	Instructional Certificate with endorsement of Teacher of Physical Science issued.
September 1, 1985	Employed as Teacher of Chemistry at Washington Township High School.
June 27, 1989	Employed as Department Chairperson, Science, Orchard Valley-Chestnut Ridge Middle Schools, pending supervisor certificate.
September, 1989	Administrative Certificate with endorsement as Supervisor issued.
1989-1990 School Year	Employed as the Department Chairperson, Science, for the Orchard Valley and Chestnut Ridge Middle Schools. Also employed as a Teacher of Science at Chestnut Ridge.
1990-1991 School Year	Employed as the Department Chairperson, Science, for grades 9-10 at the Washington Township High School, and Teacher of Science at Chestnut Ridge Middle School.
1991-1992 through 1994-1995	Employed as the Department Chairperson, Science, for grades 9-10 at the High School, and Teacher of Science at the High School.
February 15, 1995	Reduction in force for department chairperson positions approved by the Board as part of the 1995-1996 budget.
April 25, 1995	Ms. Sukonik is reassigned to classroom teaching position.
September 5, 1995	Leave of Absence request under Family Leave

Act for 12 weeks to November 28, 1995.

September 19, 1995 Submits letter of resignation.

3. The employment history of Yvonne Lisa with the Washington Township School District is as follows:

September 1, 1970-1987	Initially employed as a teacher of Math assigned to the high school.
August 1, 1987-1989	Appointed Department Chairperson, Math, assigned to the high school, grades 10-12 and also served as a teacher of Math.
1989-1990	Department Chairperson, Math, assigned to the high school, grades 9-12 and also served as a teacher of Math.
1990-1995	Department Chairperson, Math, assigned to the high school, grades 9-10 and also served as a teacher of Math.
February 15, 1995	Reduction in force for department chairperson positions approved by the Board as part of the 1995-1996 budget.
April 25, 1995	Board appointed Intervenor Allen Taylor to the 9-12 Supervisor/Teacher Math.
April 26, 1995	Petitioner Lisa was notified that she was being reassigned to a classroom position effective for the 1995-1996 school term.

4. Employment history of Ann Moore in Washington Township is as follows:

September 1, 1984-1990	Initially employed as a Teacher of Health/Physical Education.
1990-1995	Department Chair, Physical Education and Health, assigned to the high school, grades 9-10 and also served as teacher of Physical Education and Health.

February 15, 1995	Reduction in force for department chairperson positions approved by the Board as part of the 1995-1996 budget.
April 25, 1995	Board appointed Mary Ann Shivers, who had held the 11-12 Department Chair position for Physical Education and Health to the newly created Supervisor/ Teacher of Physical Education and Health assigned to grades 9-12. Petitioner Moore is reassigned to a classroom teaching position.
April 26, 1995	Petitioner Moore was notified that she was being reassigned to a classroom position effective for the 1995-1996 school term.

5. Employment history of Robert Petrillo in Washington Township is as follows:

September 1, 1984-1989	Initially employed as a Teacher of English/Reading and Department Chair, Language Arts and/or English and Reading, grades 7-9.
1989-1990	Department Chair, English, grades 6-8 at Chestnut Ridge and Orchard Valley Middle Schools and also served as a teacher of English assigned to the high school. Petitioner, Petrillo's assignment as Department chair for Reading was removed and assigned to Susan Rosen.
1990-1995	Department Chair, English, 9-10, and also served as a teacher of English assigned to the high school.
February 15, 1995	Reduction in force for department chairperson positions approved by the Board as part of the 1995-1996 budget.
April 25, 1995	Board appointed David Lang, who had held the 11-12, Department Chair position for English, to the newly created Supervisor/Teacher English, grades 9-12. Petitioner Petrillo was reassigned to a classroom teaching position.
April 26, 1995	Petitioner Petrillo was notified that he was being reassigned to a classroom position effective for the 1995-1996 school term.

6. Employment history of Allen Taylor in Washington Township is as follows:

December 3, 1979	Initially employed as Curriculum Coordinator, Math/Science/T&E Coordinator.
April 26, 1982	Offered resignation as Math/Science Coordinator. On April 26, 1982 Board accepted resignation.
9/1982-1990	Appointed Math Department Chairperson assigned to grades 7,8,9 middle school. Contract date of appointment was 8/23/82. In 1989-1990 Mr. Taylor was reassigned to grades 6,7,8.
1990-1995	Assigned Math Department Chairperson, assigned to the high school, grades 11-12, and also was assigned as a teacher of Math.
April 26, 1995	Mr. Taylor was assigned to the newly created Supervisor/Teacher Math position assigned to grades 9-12 for the 1995-1996 school term.

7. The NJ certifications (attached as exhibit A) held by Regina Sukonik are as follows:

Instructional certificate

Teacher of Physical Science issued November 1984.

Administrative Certificate/Endorsements

Supervisor, issued September 1989

8. The NJ certifications (attached as exhibit B) held by Yvonne Lisa are as follows:

Instructional certificate

Teacher of Math, issued, 1970

Administrative Certificate/Endorsements

Supervisor, issued October 1986
Principal/Supervisor, issued October 1988

9. The NJ certifications (attached as exhibit C) held by Ann Moore are as follows:

Instructional certificate

Teacher of Health and Physical Education, issued, December 1984.

Administrative Certificate/Endorsements

Supervisor, issued February 1991

10. The NJ certifications (attached as exhibit D) held by Robert Petrillo are as follows:

Instructional certificate

Teacher of English, issued, June 1972.
Teacher of Reading, issued, August 1978.

Educational Services Certificate

Reading Specialist, issued June 1980.

Administrative Certificate/Endorsement

Supervisor, issued July 1984.
Principal/Supervisor, issued October 1986.

11. While serving as Department Chairperson, all four petitioners were assigned to teach instructional classes within their respective areas of supervision and their professional certifications. For a period when petitioner Petrillo served as Department Chair/Reading, grades 6-8, he also was assigned as Teacher of English assigned to the high school.

12. Prior to the 1989-1990 school year, the configuration of grades in the Washington Township School District was as follows:

High School	Grades 10-12
Middle School	Grades 7-9
Elementary Schools	Grades K-6

13. For the 1989-1990 school year, two Middle Schools, Chestnut Ridge and Orchard Valley, were opened, resulting in the following change in grade configuration:

High School	Grades 9-12
Middle School
Chestnut Ridge	Grades 6-8
Orchard Valley	Grades 6-8
Elementary Schools	Grades 1-5
Early Childhood Center	Kindergarten

14. None of the petitioners have served as either principal, vice principal, or assistant principal in the Washington Township School District. Petitioners Petrillo and Lisa both hold administrative certification with a principal's endorsement.

15. Prior to the 1995-1996 school year, the Department Chairpersons were issued two annual contracts, one for teaching and one for the department chair component. Commencing with the 1995-1996 school year, the Department Chairpersons were issued one contract using the title "Teacher/Supervisor", followed by the subject area in which the individual would be supervising and teaching.

16. On February 15, 1995 the Board of Education approved a reduction in force (RIF) for the Department Chairperson positions at the secondary level for the upcoming 1995-1996 school year. The RIF resulted in the elimination of five Department Chair positions. Prior to the RIF, there were two supervisor titles at the secondary level for each of the following core subject areas: English, Math, Science, Social Studies, and Health/Physical Education. One supervisory title was assigned to grades 9-10 and the other was assigned to grades 11-12. The RIF combined the two supervisor titles in each of the aforementioned core subject areas into one supervisor title having responsibilities for grades 9-12.

17. Prior to the 1995-1996 school year, there was a generic job description for "Department Chairperson" that applied to all instructional areas. In addition, there was a separate job description for the title of Special Education Department Chair. A copy of these Department Chairperson job descriptions are attached hereto as exhibit E.

18. On May 23, 1995 the Board of Education approved a job description for Supervisor/Teacher of Subject Areas effective for the 1994-1995 school year in the following areas:

Business	Math
Music	Science
Art	Social Studies
English	Computers
Foreign Language	Guidance
Health/Physical Ed.

19. A copy of the job description of Supervisor/Teacher of Subject Area is attached hereto as exhibit F.

20. There also exists job descriptions entitled Supervisor/Teacher of Special Education, Supervisor/Teacher of Technology and Supervisor/Teacher of BSI/Reading. This is attached hereto as exhibit G.

21. Mr. Frampton, Mr. Yahnke, Mr. Krotosky and Ms. Miamidian all possess the appropriate NJ certification to perform supervisory duties in New Jersey public schools, i.e., a supervisor endorsement to the Administrative certificate. In addition, these individuals hold the following certifications and endorsements, with citation to N.J.A.C. reference:

Supervisor	Position
Robert Frampton	Supervisor/Teacher of Music -

	Holds Teacher of Music endorsement to Instructional certificate- N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2(a) 1b)
Louis Yahnke	Supervisor/Teacher of Handicapped - Holds Teacher of Handicapped Endorsement to Instructional certificate N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2(a) 22iii)
Madelyn Miamidian	Supervisor/Teacher of Business - Holds Teacher of Business Endorsement to Instructional certificate N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2(a) 4)
Paul Krotosky	Supervisor/Guidance - Holds Student Personnel Services Endorsement to an Educational Services certificate N.J.A.C. 6:11-11.11

(Job descriptions are attached hereto as exhibit H)

22. None of the petitioners possess the applicable certificate endorsement to perform the duties associated with the teaching of music, business education and special education, or to serve as a guidance counselor.

23. As of the 1995-1996 school year, the Board employed the following individuals, who were certified and qualified, in the position of Assistant Principal who had not acquired tenure as an Assistant Principal:

James Barnes	William Dougherty
Stephen Buono	Michael Landon

24. The job description for the position of Assistant Principal is attached hereto as Exhibit I.

The exhibits which were attached to the stipulation of facts as Exhibits A through I have been marked into evidence as Exhibits J-1 through J-9, respectively.

In addition to the foregoing stipulations, the following facts appear from the exhibits marked into evidence and from the testimony of Allen K. Taylor, Yvonne Lisa and Robert W. Kern, respondent's superintendent of schools.

Respondent-intervenor Taylor testified extensively about the nature of his job duties in the position Coordinator of Math/Science. Many of these job duties were similar to those which he later performed as Math Department Chairperson. The position Math/Science Coordinator, however, was a 12-month position and because respondent-intervenor Taylor, for personal reasons, did not wish to work during the summer months of 1982, on April 26, 1982, he submitted his resignation from the position, and the resignation was accepted by respondent on the same date. Although Mr. Taylor continued to function as the Math/Science Coordinator until June 30, 1982, he did not work during July or August. His new contract with respondent for the position Department Chairperson-Math was signed in August 1982 for the 10-month position commencing September 1, 1982.

During the time periods when petitioner Lisa and respondent-intervenor Taylor held the position Department Chairperson-Math, they functioned under the same job description and performed the same duties but were assigned to supervise different grade levels. The grade levels supervised by each of them for any particular year are set forth in the stipulations hereinabove. The job description for the Department Chairperson, J-5 in evidence and R-1 in evidence, requires the holder of the position to possess both an instructional certificate with an endorsement in the subject area of the supervisor's assignment and an administrative certificate with a supervisors endorsement. Although the job description does not specifically so state, in fact each Department Chairperson was required to teach instructional classes within the subject area of supervision. Petitioner Lisa testified that when she was a Department Chairperson in Math she carried a daily teaching load of three classes. Superintendent Kern testified that this established practice of having supervisors close to and in touch with their area of supervision was consistent with his educational philosophy of having supervisors "keep a foot in the classroom" in order to maintain a high quality of both supervision and teaching.

In or around February 1995 at about the same time respondent was approving a reduction in force for Department Chairperson positions, the County Superintendent advised Mr. Kern that he would not approve the unrecognized job title of Department Chairperson for continued use in the district. Accordingly, the newly developed job description for the position after the reduction in force was entitled Supervisor/Teacher of subject area (J-6 in evidence). This job description also requires the holder of the position to possess an administrative certificate with a supervisor's endorsement as well as an instructional certificate with an endorsement in the subject area of supervision. The new job description specifically provides, inter alia, "Teach a minimum of one class period per day." After the reduction in force and reorganization, commencing in September 1995 four Supervisor/Teacher positions were assigned to non-tenured supervisors. Those four positions are Supervisor/Teacher of music (Robert Frampton), Supervisor/Teacher of business education (Madelyn Miamidian), Supervisor/Teacher of special education (Louis Yahnke), and Supervisor/Teacher of guidance (Paul Krotosky). Superintendent Kern testified as to the current teaching loads of the four non-tenured supervisors/teachers. He also testified that when he became aware of the fact that Mr. Yahnke had not been assigned to teach a special education class in the fall of 1995-96 school year, he ordered that Mr. Yahnke immediately be so assigned; this had been an oversight on the part of the administration at the high school, be explained, since Mr. Yahnke's job description required that he teach at least one class period.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

Tenure Claims

The law governing resolution of petitioners' claims that they are entitled to the positions Supervisor/Teacher currently held by non-tenured supervisors was recently reviewed in great detail by the Commissioner in Galbraith v. Lenape Regional High School District, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 396. In that case the Commissioner stated:

> The law is well-settled that a supervisor endorsement is generic and authorizes the holder to supervise any subject matter and any grade level. Moreover, while there is nothing to prevent a local board from establishing additional instructional certification requirements, absent a showing that instructional certification is necessary to perform the duties of the position at issue, such requirements cannot sidestep the educator's tenure rights on a preferred eligibility list of supervisors. (Citations omitted) Id. at 406.

The Commissioner determined that petitioner Galbraith, a tenured supervisor, was entitled to the position Supervisor-Social studies/Art/Music over the non-tenured supervisor assigned to that position, notwithstanding the fact that petitioner Galbraith did not possess any of the three specified endorsements: social studies, art or music. Inherent in the Commissioner's decision is the conclusion that the instructional certification requirements imposed by the Board were not necessary to perform the duties of the position at issue. Although the job description issued by the Lenape Regional High School district required an instructional certificate with an endorsement in social studies, art or music for the position, there was no requirement that the holder of the position teach classes in the instructional areas (and in fact since only one of the three endorsements was required, the holder of the position could be uncertified to teach two of the three areas under his or her supervision). Historically, the supervisors in the Lenape Regional High School district did not teach classes. The result in Galbraith, supra, is dependent upon a finding that there were not enough substantial duties for the position based upon the specific duties to be performed to allow the local district to impose the additional requirement of an instructional certificate in the subject area to be supervised. Clearly, dual certification requirements may be imposed by a district for a particular position when dual certification is mandated to permit the holder of the position to perform all of the job duties in the job description.

In the within matter, unlike in Galbraith, supra, each of the Supervisor/Teacher positions in question requires the holder to provide direct instructional services in the subject area to students at least one class period per day. Also unlike the historical practice in Galbraith, the requirement that supervisors teach at least one class or have direct counselor responsibilities in addition to their supervisory duties has been the established practice in respondent's district. Since none of the petitioners in the within matter possesses any of the four subject area endorsements or a guidance endorsement on the Educational Services Certificate, he or she may not perform the teaching duties required in the job descriptions. Petitioners do not suggest that respondent's determination to require supervisors to deliver direct services in addition to their supervisory duties is arbitrary, capricious or motivated by a desire to circumvent their tenure rights, nor is there any support in the record or in the established case law to support such a contention. See Lightdale v. Union County Regional High School, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 106, wherein the Commissioner upheld the authority of a local board to require dual certification for supervisors as well as the practice of requiring supervisory staff to perform direct services in addition to their supervisory duties. Petitioners simply argue that the direct teaching duties required are such a small percentage of the total job description that they should not be used to deny petitioners' rights of tenure to positions which are currently held by non-tenured staff members. Petitioners do not directly suggest to whom the one or more teaching periods per day which each of them would be unable to perform should be assigned. As respondent points out in its post-hearing written submission, the implication from the questions asked on cross-examination of Superintendent Kern is that respondent could pay some other teaching staff member an additional stipend for teaching an additional period of classroom instruction. Respondent argues that it should not be required to split a hybrid Supervisor/Teacher position that makes educational and fiscal sense and to spend additional monies for sixth-period stipends, particularly when the purpose of the reduction in force in the supervisory ranks was to reduce costs to the Board. Respondent's argument is persuasive.

For all of the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have not established entitlement to any of the supervisor/teacher positions currently held by non-tenured supervisors.

The claims of petitioners Lisa and Petrillo that their tenure rights entitle them to assignment to the Assistant Principal positions currently held by the non-tenured intervenors are likewise without merit. Petitioners' claims in this regard are based upon the unpublished

Appellate Division opinion in Nelson v. Oldbridge Township Board of Education, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 589, wherein the court held that tenure obtained under any one endorsement on an Administrative Certificate entitles an educator to tenure under all endorsements obtained under his or her certificate. The fact that the Nelson decision which was issued on April 29, 1996, was statutorily reversed by an amendment to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, effective June 28, 1996, clarifying that tenure in any administrative or supervisory position enumerated in the statute accrues only by employment in that position, eliminates any doubt concerning the law in this area. It is now again clear that once a teaching staff member has obtained tenure in any position under a particular certificate, that educator may extend his or her tenure rights to all other positions under that certificate for which s/he holds the appropriate endorsement, with the exception of those positions specifically enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5; the only way to obtain tenure in a position specifically enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, is by fulfilling the criteria specified in that statute or in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6. See Dennery v. Board of Educ., 131 N.J. 626, 634 (1993); Ellicott v. Board of Educ., 251 N.J. Super. 342, 349 (App. Div. 1991) and cases cited therein. The court in Nelson simply misread, not the holding of Dennery, supra, but rather the Court's description of the holding in Ellicott, supra. See, discussion in Brenner v. Middlesex Township Board of Education, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 81, 83-84.* Nelson erroneously abandoned the long-standing concept of "separately tenurable" positions; the decision was in effect for less than two months before it was overruled by the Legislature, and furthermore, as an unpublished opinion it would not have constituted precedent or have been binding upon any court, in any event. Rules Governing the Courts of the State of New Jersey, R. 1:36-3. Nelson did not reflect the status of the tenure law in September 1995 when respondent made the teaching staff assignments here in issue, and it does not reflect the law in effect at the time of the within decision. See, Kruvant v. Mayor and Council, Tp. of Cedar Grove, 82 N.J. 435 (1980). For all of these reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have not established entitlement to any Assistant Principal position, one of the specifically enumerated positions in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5.

---

* Unfortunately, the June 28, 1996 legislative amendment failed to resolve the issue with respect to the titles director and supervisor. Although the amendment as originally proposed added the positions director and supervisor to the statutory list, committee amendments adopted on June 17, 1996 removed both titles prior to enactment.

Seniority Claims

Seniority is a concept which only applies to certain rights of tenured personnel and only has meaning when a reduction in the employment force is necessary. The source of the concept is in the tenure law; specifically, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10 provide that when positions are abolished for reasons of economy or because of reduction in the number of pupils or because of a change in the administrative supervisory organization of the district, dismissals shall be made on the basis of seniority according to standards established by the Commissioner of Education with the approval of the State Board of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-13 provides:

> The commissioner in establishing such standards shall classify insofar as practicable the fields or categories of administrative, supervisory, teaching or other educational services and the fields or categories of school nursing services which are being performed in the school districts of this state and may, in his discretion, determine seniority upon the basis of years of service and experience within such fields or categories of service as well as in the school system as a whole, or both.

Such standards have been promulgated and are set forth in N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1. The portions of the regulation relevant to petitioner Lisa's claim that she has greater seniority entitlement to the position Supervisor/Teacher of Math currently held by intervenor Taylor, are as follows:

. . .

> (b) Seniority, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-9 et seq., shall be determined according to the number of academic or calendar years of employment, or fraction thereof, as the case may be, in the school district in specific categories as hereinafter provided. . . .
>
> . . .
>
> (g) Where the title of any employment is not properly descriptive of the duties performed, the holder thereof shall be placed in a category in accordance with the duties performed and not by title. Whenever the title of any employment shall not be found in the certification rules or in these rules, the holder of the employment shall be classified as nearly as may be according to the duties performed, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.3.

(h) Whenever a person shall move from or revert to a category, all periods of employment shall be credited toward his or her seniority in any or all categories in which he or she previously held employment.

. . .

(l) The following shall be deemed to be specific categories, not necessarily numbered in order of precedence.

. . .

10. Supervisor;

i. Each supervisory title shall be a separate category; and

ii. District boards of education shall adopt a job description for each supervisory position which sets forth the qualifications and specific endorsements required for such position

. . .

Since the title "Department Chairperson" is not a recognized title under the State Board of Education rules and since respondent did not obtain permission from the County Superintendent of Schools to use this unrecognized title, the appropriate category for service in that position is determined according to the duties performed. All parties concerned agree that the category of "Supervisor" is applicable for purposes of the seniority claim of petitioner Lisa against intervenor Taylor. Petitioner Lisa contends that for seniority purposes the appropriate supervisory title which constitutes a separate category is "Supervisor of Math, grades 9-12." She argues that since she held that specific supervisory title for school year 1989-90, all periods of employment for her thereafter when she moved to the separate category "Supervisor of Math, grades 9-10", are credited toward her seniority in the category "Supervisor of Math, 9 through 12," giving her 6 years of seniority in that category as opposed to zero years of seniority for intervenor Taylor who never held the supervisory title "Supervisor of Math, 9 through 12" prior to the 1995-96 school year.

There is simply no support in the regulations or in the case law for petitioner Lisa's contorted interpretation of "category." The statute and the regulations provide that categories are to be identified by the Commissioner on the basis of duties performed. Although broad grade level designations are made in the regulations for some administrative categories, e.g., elementary principal, junior high school principal, high school principal, etc., and the seniority categories of "secondary" and "elementary" carry very specific wording on how various grade levels establish separate seniority categories, no other categories are identified by narrower or specific grade assignments. Conspicuously absent from the supervisor category is any enumeration of grade levels. As pointed out by respondent in its post-hearing brief, adopting petitioner's definition of the supervisor category would result in dozens of separate seniority categories for supervisors in each subject area and would create utter confusion for boards attempting to determine seniority rights to any specific grade level assignment when, as has happened in respondent's district, grade level configurations in any particular building change over the course of a supervisor's career. "The most appropriate, logical reading of the seniority regulations is that the category of supervisor should not be broken down into subsets of subsets based on grade level assignment," * but rather should be reflective of the position title and/or duties. Accordingly, in the present matter, the category at issue is "Supervisor-Math." Although it appears from the evidence that whatever tenure/seniority rights Intervenor-Taylor accrued prior to April 1982 were cut off by his resignation effective June 30, 1982, even without that time accrued prior to the 1982-83 school year Intervenor Taylor still has more seniority in the category Supervisor-Math (13 years) than Petitioner Lisa (8 years)*

* Respondent's brief, p. 21.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that Petitioner Lisa has failed to establish that she has greater seniority entitlement to the position currently held by Respondent-Intervenor Taylor.

For all of the foregoing reasons, it is hereby ORDERED that the Amended Petition of Appeal is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE and these proceedings are concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

---

* With the possible exception of Intervenor-Taylor's supervisory responsibilities for grade 6 in the 1989-90 school year, all seniority accruals appear to have been in the secondary category, and Respondent-Intervenor is quite right in his observation in his reply brief that if petitioner wished to dispute that conclusion, it was her burden to offer evidence to establish the contrary.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb. 21, 1997
DATE

M. Kathleen Duncan
M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/24/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 25 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harnak
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

cc

EXHIBITS IN EVIDENCE

Joint:

J-1 Certificates of Regina L. Perry (2 pages)

J-2 Certificates of Yvonne E. Lisa (2 pages)

J-3 Certificates of Ann M. Moore (2 pages)

J-4 Certificates of Robert L. Petrillo (5 pages)

J-5 Job description-Department Chairperson

J-6 Job description-Supervisor/Teacher of Subject Area (2 pages)

J-7 Job descriptions-Supervisor/Teacher of Special Education, Supervisor/Teacher of Technology, Supervisor/Teacher BSI/Reading, and Special Education Department Chairperson

J-8 Certificates of Paul Krotosky, Louis Yahnke, Robert Frampton, Jr., and Madelyn Nelson (10 pages)

J-9 Job description - Assistant Principal

For Respondent-Intervenor Taylor:

R-1 Job description - Department Chairperson with notations by Respondent-Intervenor Taylor (3 pages)

WITNESSES

For petitioner:

Yvonne E. Lisa

For respondent:

Robert W. Kern

For respondent-intervenor Taylor:

Allen K. Taylor

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8186-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 280-7/95

YVONNE LISA, ANN MOORE, ROBERT PETRILLO, AND REGINA SUKONIK,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON, GLOUCESTER COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT,	:
AND	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
ALLEN K. TAYLOR,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-INTERVENOR,	:
AND	:
STEPHEN BUONO, JAMES BARNES AND MICHAEL LANDON,	:
RESPONDENTS-INTERVENORS.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioners' exceptions and the Board's reply thereto, were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner Lisa renews her contention that she had seniority as a Math Department Chairperson, grades 9-12, which entitled her to be appointed to the Math Department Chairperson position. Petitioner Lisa asserts, once again, that the regulations governing seniority found at

N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(l)10 provide that each supervisory title shall be a separate category. Notwithstanding that Judge Duncan rejected her interpretation, Lisa contends that this regulation means that a supervisor of math, for example, having responsibilities for grade levels 7, 8 and 9, is distinct from a math supervisor title having responsibility for grades 9-12. (Petitioners' Exceptions at p. 4) However, Lisa asserts that > Under Judge Duncan's analysis of the seniority rules it was of no consequence that [her] service as a math department chairperson had only been at the high school, nor was it of any consequence  that [she] had served in the 1989-90 school term in virtually an identical position to which Mr. Taylor was assigned on July 1, 1995. (Id.)

Lisa cites to Walldov v. East Brunswick Board of Education, 1985 S.L.D. 598, and to Michael Timko and John Mikush v. Bridgewater-Raritan Regional School District, 1991 S.L.D. 967, to advance her proposition that Taylor's middle school supervisory assignment must be considered distinct, for seniority purposes, from the high school category in which she served, beginning on August 1, 1987. (Id. at pp. 5-7) Lisa further argues that Capodilupo v. West Orange Board of Education, 218 N.J. Super. 510 (App. Div. 1987), supports her contention that "grade level assignment has as much bearing on the seniority 'category' of a position as does the subject matter assignment." (Id. at p. 8) While the Capodilupo seniority distinction was premised on the distinction in the seniority regulations with respect to elementary and secondary teaching assignments, Lisa argues that supervisory positions, as "separate categories" should mean that "a supervisor of math for grades 11-12 is distinct from a supervisor of math, grades 9-12, just as it is distinct from a supervisor at the middle school having responsibility over the same subject area, [and] just as it is distinct from a supervisor having responsibility for a different grade level. (Id.)

In reply, the Board contends that the regulations governing seniority support the ALJ's conclusion that Petitioner Lisa has not established a greater seniority entitlement to the position in question. (Board's Reply at pp. 2, 3) The Board reasons that > although broad grade level designations are made in the regulations for some administrative categories, for example, elementary principal, junior high school principal, high school principal, etc., and the seniority categories of "secondary" and "elementary" carry specific wording on how various grade levels establish separate seniority categories, no other categories are identified by narrower or specific grade assignments.  Since the State Board of Education expressed its intent to differentiate seniority categories according to grade levels in other areas, but did not do so for the category of Supervisor, the only intelligible interpretation of the regulations is that the category of Supervisor is not to be broken down any further than the specific qualifications and endorsements that are relevant to that supervisory title. (Id. at pp. 3, 4)

The Board notes that both Petitioner Lisa and Intervenor Taylor served at the secondary level, but that Taylor has served more years at the secondary level than Lisa. In support of its position, the Board cites MacMillan v. East Brunswick Board of Education, 1990 S.L.D. 1, wherein the ALJ held, and the Commissioner affirmed, that seniority was based on subject area, rather than grade levels. (Board's Reply at p. 4) Additionally, the Board contends that Walldov, supra, and Timko, supra, "are factually distinguishable, in that the new categories in both Walldov and Timko included both junior and senior high [assignments], where previously the categories were divided between junior and senior high school." (Id. at p. 5) The Board argues that its reorganized categories have not changed, in that they remain high school categories. The Board concludes, > Petitioner does not dispute that Respondent-Intervenor Taylor served at the high school level (he was Math Department Chairperson in grades 11-12 from 1990-1995). Therefore, since the regulations provide that whenever a person moves from a category, "all periods of employment shall be credited toward his or her seniority in any and all categories in which he or she previously held employment," Mr. Taylor has 13 years of seniority at the high school Math Supervisor position, and Petitioner Lisa has only 8. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(h).

Petitioners Lisa, Petrillo, Moore and Sukonik next renew their contention that they had a greater entitlement to be appointed to the supervisory positions assigned to nontenured staff (Petitioners' Exceptions at p. 9), and cite to Timko, supra; Herbert v. Middletown Township Board of Education, 1989 S.L.D. 2148, affirmed by the State Board at 1990 S.L.D. 1759, affirmed by the N.J. Superior Court, Appellate Division, May 22, 1991, A-318-90T1; Rogers v. Highland Park Board of Education, 1990 S.L.D. 685, affirmed by the State Board 691; and Galbraith v. Lenape Regional High School District, 1996 N.J.A.R. 2*d* (EDU) 396, to support their position. (Id. at p. 11) Petitioners argue:

> In the Herbert case, the job description for the position of Supervisor of Special Services required a Supervisors Endorsement as well as three years experience in special education. Petitioner Herbert had the required supervisor's certificate and he had tenure as a supervisor, but he did not have the required experience in special education. The staff member appointed to the position also had the certification, and had the experience, but was not tenured as a supervisor.
>
> The Commissioner concluded that however important the Board may have thought the experience factor to be, it constituted an invalid attempt to defeat a riffed, tenured employee's claim to the position.
>
> In the Commissioner's Decision in the matter Timko/Mikush, prior to its being remanded by the State Board of Education, the Commissioner stated that "as to the arguments raised about local certification requirements, it must be emphasized that there is nothing to prevent a Board of Ed. from having such requirements but those requirements cannot thwart the tenure rights of a staff member on a preferred eligibility list....." [citations omitted]
>
> In the matter of Rogers v. Highland Park Board of Ed., Supra....the Commissioner expressly held that with the acquisition of tenure as a supervisor, and a subsequent reduction in force which affects the tenured supervisors, the riffed supervisor is entitled to any position held by a nontenured supervisor. [citation omitted] (Id. at pp. 11, 12)

Petitioners contend that the only distinguishing factor in Galbraith, supra, from the instant matter, is that the Board herein has inserted a minimal teaching component in the supervisory position which necessitates subject area certification (id. at p. 12), but which should not be used to thwart their tenure rights as supervisors. (Id. at p. 13)

The Board counters that petitioners "ignore the fact that in Galbraith, the Commissioner's conclusion was based on the fact that the instructional certificate requirements imposed by the Lenape Board were not necessary to perform the duties of the position at issue." (Board's Reply at pp. 6, 7, citing to Initial Decision at p. 14) The Board additionally points out that, in Galbraith, contrary to the situation herein, there was no requirement that the holder of the position teach classes in the instructional areas. The Board maintains that it is their "established educational practice" to require supervisors to deliver direct services in addition to serving in their supervisory roles. Moreover, the Board notes that petitioners presented no evidence to demonstrate that such a practice is arbitrary, capricious or motivated by the desire to circumvent tenure rights. (Id. at p. 7) Inasmuch as none of the petitioners possesses the proper endorsements, the Board reasons that they have no entitlement to the Supervisor/Teacher positions in question. (Id.)

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, which included a transcript of the hearing conducted on August 6, 1996 at the OAL, the Commissioner finds that petitioners' exceptions are not persuasive and, thus, concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ.

Initially, the Commissioner notes that petitioners have raised no objection to the ALJ's conclusion that Petitioners Lisa and Petrillo are not entitled to an Assistant Principal's position, one of the specifically enumerated positions in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. The Commissioner affirms the ALJ's analysis, and notes that the decision on which petitioners based their claim, Nelson v. Board of Education of the Township of Old Bridge, decided by the N.J. Superior Court, Appellate Division, April 29, 1996, A-6441-94T5, was recently reversed by the Supreme Court. In accordance with Legislative intent and sound educational policy, the Supreme Court therein proclaimed that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 is to be interpreted as requiring service in the separately enumerated positions before tenure can be acquired in said positions, and that it is to be applied retroactively. (Nelson v. Board of Education of the Township of Old Bridge, A-94/95-96, decided March 12, 1997, Slip Opinion at p. 18)

With respect to petitioners' tenure claims, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioners have not established an entitlement to any of the Supervisor/Teacher positions currently held by nontenured supervisors. The Board properly established positions as Supervisor/Teacher of various subject areas which were duly approved by the County Superintendent, and which required, inter alia, that the Supervisor/Teacher was to teach a minimum of one class period per day in his/her subject area. An instructional certificate with an endorsement in the particular subject area was, therefore, required, As the ALJ aptly notes, > [p]etitioners do not suggest that respondent's determination to require supervisors to deliver direct services in addition to their supervisory duties is arbitrary, capricious or motivated by a desire to circumvent their tenure rights, nor is there any support in the record or in the established case law to support such a contention.

>
> (Initial Decision at p. 15)

To the contrary, Superintendent Kern testified that it was the Board's practice, even prior to establishing the new Supervisor/Teacher positions, to require the Department Chairpersons to hold subject area endorsements in addition to their administrative certification.[1] The job description for the position of Department Chairperson reflects this requirement. (See Exhibit E, J-5.)

Moreover, the cases cited by petitioners do not support their tenure claims. In Herbert, supra, contrary to the facts essential to the instant matter, the State Board found that the board therein did not allege that the duties and responsibilities of the controverted assignment were such that instructional certification was necessary; rather, the board merely maintained that the position was unique in that it required "expertise" in the special education field. Herbert at 1760, 1761. The State Board specifically noted that a review of the record did not provide "any indication that the duties attending the controverted assignment were of such character as to require possession of an instructional certification in special education in addition to certification as a supervisor." Herbert at 1761.

[1] Transcript from August 6, 1996 at p. 120.

Similarly, in Timko v. Bridgewater Raritan Regional School District, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d EDU 475, 482, 483, 95 N.J.A.R. 12, affirmed by State Board on remand, affirmed N.J. Superior Court, Appellate Division, December 14, 1995, A-1810-94T1, the State Board, underscoring its findings and conclusion in Herbert, supra, further indicated that the Timko record did not enable it to determine the appropriate certification for the controverted positions, since neither job descriptions nor detailed analyses of the duties and responsibilities of the positions were provided. Timko at 483. The matter was, therefore, remanded, and there was no final resolution on the issue of whether the Board could properly require instructional certification for the newly created positions.[2]

So are the facts in Rogers, supra, distinguishable from the instant matter. There, a tenured supervisor, who held the title Department Chairperson-Social Studies, was riffed. The Board created the position of Cultural and Social Studies Supervisor, a position "which combined the Social Studies Department with foreign language and ESL." Rogers at 686. The Board appointed a nontenured supervisor to fill the position, notwithstanding that petitioner held the requisite certification. While the Commissioner affirmed that, indeed, "a supervisory certificate is general, i.e. not specific to a subject area," Rogers at 689, this case did not raise the issue of a supervisory position which encompassed duties requiring a subject area endorsement on an instructional certificate in addition to general supervisory certification.

[2] Following the remand, Petitioner Timko withdrew his petition, and the Commissioner determined that Petitioner Mikush did not possess the proper supervisory certificate to enable him to claim the position he sought. Timko, supra, at 485.

As to the distinguishable facts in Galbraith, supra, the Commissioner endorses the ALJ's analysis as contained in the initial decision, and notes that the State Board of Education in affirming the Commissioner's decision, again, clarified:

> We find no indication in the record that the duties attending the controverted position are of such character as to require possession of an instructional certification in the subject field in addition to certification as a supervisor in order to be authorized by statute and regulation to perform such functions. See Herbert v. Board of Education of the Township of Middletown, decided by the State Board August 1, 1990, aff'd Docket #A-318-90T1 (App. Div. 1991); Timko and Mikush v. Board of Education of the Bridgewater-Raritan Regional School District, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992, decision on remand by the Commissioner, June 13, 1994, aff'd by the State Board November 2, 1994. Galbraith v. Board of Education of the Lenape Regional High School District, Burlington County, aff'd State Board, June 5, 1996, Slip Opinion at pp. 1-2.

While an individual acquires tenure as a supervisor, without subject area distinction, the seniority regulations establish that seniority is determined according to years of employment in specific categories, N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(b), and each supervisory title shall be a separate category. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(l)10. District boards are required to adopt job descriptions for each supervisory position which set forth the qualifications and specific endorsements required for the position. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(l)10. In the instant matter, as the ALJ properly noted, "Department Chairperson" was an unrecognized title and, therefore, the holders of that position must be classified according to the duties they performed. N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1(g). The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the regulations themselves do not support Petitioner Lisa's view that the category of supervisor must necessarily be broken down by specific grade level assignment, and that each category should be reflective of either the supervisory position title or the duties. (Id.)

Here, Petitioner Lisa does not allege that Intervenor Taylor's responsibilities as Math Department Chairperson for grades 7, 8, and 9 and grades 6, 7, and 8 (1982-90) were substantively different from her duties as a supervisor with high school assignments. As the initial decision indicates, but for the separate job description for the title Special Education Department Chair, the Board employed "a generic job description for 'Department Chairperson' that applied to all instructional areas," (Initial Decision at p. 10) and, apparently, to all applicable grade levels. Therefore, the record supports the Board's position that Intervenor Taylor, even excluding the time prior to his 1982 appointment as Math Department Chair has greater seniority than Petitioner Lisa in the Supervisor/Math category. Moreover, to the extent petitioner finds support in Timko, supra, and Walldov, supra, for her view that varying grade level assignments necessitate separate seniority categories for supervisors, the Commissioner notes that the seniority category determinations in those decisions did not simply rest on grade level distinctions, as Petitioner Lisa asserts, but rather on varied job responsibilities within different grade level assignments.[3]

Accordingly, the Commissioner determines to adopt the initial decision of the ALJ for the reasons expressed therein and amplified above. The Petition of Appeal is dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

[3] However, the Commissioner further notes that, while not an issue herein, to the extent the ALJ's initial decision may be read to support the proposition that supervisory categories do not envision distinctions based on service solely at the elementary level or secondary level, as opposed to service on a K-12 basis, the Commissioner disavows that position.

170-97

EDU #8186-95
C # 170-97
SB # 38-97

YVONNE LISA, ANN MOORE, ROBERT PETRILLO AND REGINA SUKONIK,

PETITIONERS-APPELLANTS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON, GLOUCESTER COUNTY,

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT,

AND

ALLEN K. TAYLOR AND STEPHEN BUONO, JAMES BARNES AND MICHAEL LANDON.

RESPONDENTS-INTERVENORS/ RESPONDENTS.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, April 10, 1997

For the Petitioners-Appellants, Robert M. Schwartz, Esq.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Capehart & Scatchard (Joseph F. Betley, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Intervenor/Respondent Allen K. Taylor, John F. Hipp, Esq.

For the Respondents-Intervenors/Respondents Stephen Buono, James Barnes and Michael Landon, Rottkamp & Flacks (Robert B. Rottkamp, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Commissioner of Education is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

August 6, 1997

Date of mailing AUG 08 1997

171-97

171-97

M.F., ON BEHALF OF M.A., :

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF CAPE MAY, CAPE MAY COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning parent appealed Board's determination that her child, M.A., must be tested for tuberculosis. Board contended that in August 1995, the New Jersey State Department of Health required that all students transferring in the 1995-96 school year from another state or from another country to a New Jersey public school be administered the Mantoux intradermal test, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3(a)6.

ALJ denied petitioner's request to exclude her daughter from testing (N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18). Exemption would be made where a licensed physician documents a "significant tuberculin reaction and a subsequent negative chest X-ray." Petitioner, however, failed to supply such a report from a licensed physician. Thus, the ALJ ordered petitioner to comply with the regulation concerning tuberculin testing forthwith, N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3, and that failure to do so within ten days of the final order of the Commissioner shall result in the exclusion of M.A. from the public schools of the State. Petition was dismissed.

Upon review of the record and the affidavits of the New Jersey State Department of Health regarding Mantoux testing, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioner failed to demonstrate that M.A. should be exempted from the requirement to undergo a Mantoux test, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3(a)6. Commissioner afforded petitioner the opportunity to comply with the regulation and reminded the Board that should petitioner not comply, the Board may exclude M.A. from attending public school in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18. Additionally, the Board was reminded of its authority under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-27 et seq. to enforce the requirement that M.A. regularly attend school or receive equivalent instruction elsewhere (N.J.S.A. 18A:38-25).

APRIL 10, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2457-96

AGENCY REF. NO. 73-2/96

M. F., ON BEHALF OF M.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WEST CAPE MAY, CAPE MAY COUNTY,

Respondent.

M. F., on behalf of M.A, petitioner, pro se

Arthur F. Risden, Esq., for respondent, (Archer & Greiner, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 10, 1997 Decided: February 19, 1997

BEFORE EDGAR R. HOLMES, ALJ:

The New Jersey Legislature has required local school boards to determine the presence or absence of tuberculosis infection in "any or all pupils in public schools" in accordance with the State Board's rules. N.J.S.A. 18A:40-16. Should a pupil fail to comply with the Board's rules, the pupil may be excluded from school. N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18.

Pursuant to the mandate, the State Board of Education (Board) adopted rules for testing for tuberculosis infection. It adopted the Mantoux intradermal tuberculin test and declared the Mantoux test "shall be the only skin test used to detect evidence of tuberculosis infection in pupils and employees." N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3(a)1. The Board also provided that the State Department of Health would identify the pupils to be tested by grade, school or circumstance. N.J.A.C. 6:28-2.3(a)2.

In August 1995, the New Jersey Department of Health required that all students transferring in the 1995-1996 school year from another state or from another country to a New Jersey public school be administered the Mantoux intradermal test.

In the fall of 1995, M.A. transferred into the West Cape May Elementary School first grade class from Litchfield, Connecticut. Her mother was notified that M.A. would have to undergo Mantoux testing. Her mother refused to permit the test to be performed and the District Board of Education (BOE) informed her of the exclusion provision in the statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18. M.A.'s mother appealed the issue to the Commissioner and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) to be heard as a contested case, pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, the act creating the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13 and the statute conferring jurisdiction in the Commissioner for all controversies and disputes arising under School Law. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 The District BOE moved for summary judgment because the facts are not in dispute. The mother asserts that the Regulation is inapplicable to her daughter.

The Regulation permits an exemption where a licensed physician documents a "significant tuberculin reaction and a subsequent negative chest x-ray." N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3.

Despite numerous continuances for petitioner to supply such a report from a licensed physician she has failed to do so. She has supplied reams of argument why her daughter should be exempt. None of the argument is accompanied by an expert's report such as would be cognizable in this tribunal.

As a result, I ORDER that the petitioner's request for relief from the Board's determination that the exclusion rule, N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18, is applicable to petitioner's daughter is DENIED.

I ORDER that petitioner comply with the regulation concerning tuberculin testing forthwith, N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3 and that failure to do so within ten days of the FINAL ORDER of the Commissioner shall result in the exclusion of M.A. from the public schools of this State pursuant to the statute.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

2/19/97
DATE

Edgar R Holmes
EDGAR R. HOLMES, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/25/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 26 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

lmh

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2457-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 73-2/96

M.F., ON BEHALF OF M.A.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF CAPE MAY, CAPE MAY COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, and taking particular note of the affidavits of the New Jersey State Department of Health regarding Mantoux testing offered by the Board, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate that M.A. should be exempted from the requirement to undergo a Mantoux test, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3(a)6.[1]

Accordingly, the initial decision is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. The Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed and petitioner is afforded an opportunity to comply,

[1] The New Jersey State Department of Health certifies, in pertinent part, that "N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3(6) is only applicable where the presence of tuberculosis has already been confirmed through skin testing. It provides for an exemption from future Mantoux testing upon presentation of documentation from a licensed physician showing a significant tuberculosis reaction and a subsequent negative chest X-ray." (Affidavit of New Jersey Department of Health Re: Mantoux Testing, October 11, 1996, at p. 2) within 10 days of the date of this decision, with the regulation concerning testing for tuberculosis infection. Should petitioner not so comply, the Board may exclude M.A. from attending public school, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18. In this regard, petitioner is reminded of her obligation under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-25 to ensure that M.A. regularly attends school or receives equivalent instruction elsewhere, and the Board is similarly reminded of its authority under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-27 et seq. to enforce this requirement, where necessary.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 10, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 10, 1997

171-97

EDU #2457-96
C # 171-97
SB # 37-97

M.F., on behalf of M.A.,	:
PETITIONER-APPELLANT,	:
V.	:	STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF WEST CAPE MAY, CAPE MAY COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT.	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, April 10, 1997

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Meredith G. Flersham, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Archer & Greiner (Arthur F. Risden, Esq., of Counsel)

On April 10, 1997, the Commissioner of Education issued a decision in which he dismissed the petition filed by M.F. (hereinafter "appellant"), in which she sought to have her child, M.A., exempted from the requirement of undergoing a Mantoux intradermal tuberculin test pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:29-2.3 when she transferred to a district in the State.

On April 21, 1997, appellant, acting pro se, filed a notice of appeal with the State Board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), appellant's brief in support of her appeal was due on May 12, 1997, 20 days after the appeal was filed. Appellant, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated May 15, 1997, the counsel for the State Board notified appellant that no appeal brief had been filed and that this matter was therefore being referred to the Legal Committee of the State Board for consideration of her failure to perfect the appeal. Appellant has still failed to file a brief in support of her appeal, nearly two months after the deadline for such filing and seven weeks after she was notified of her failure to file. Nor did appellant respond to that notice or provide any explanation for her failure to file a brief until this morning when she indicated in a letter to the Legal Committee that she has been busy during this period on divorce proceedings in New York. She also requested additional time to "find, interview and...retain" legal counsel, and asked that her submission be considered as her appeal brief in the event her request for additional time were to be denied.

7/2/97

We conclude that the belated explanation offered by appellant does not, under the circumstances, excuse or justify her failure to file an appeal brief for nearly two months or to request an extension for such filing. Appellant's involvement in unrelated legal proceedings in New York does not in any way excuse her disregard of our filing deadlines or her failure to request an extension. Consequently, while we are mindful of appellant's pro se status, we dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a). See Paszamant v. Board of Education of the Borough of Highland Park, decided by the State Board of Education, April 1, 1992, aff'd, Docket #A-4812-91-3 (App. Div. 1993).

July 2, 1997

Date of mailing JUL 08 1997

172-97

172-97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF RONNIE BRIDGERS,	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC	:	DECISION
COUNTY.	:

APRIL 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5547-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 152-4/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF RONNIE BRIDGERS, STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY

Gregory G. Johnson, Esq., attorney for petitioner

Harold N. Springstead, Esq., attorney for respondent (Springstead & Maurice, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 18, 1997 Decided: February 18, 1997

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Petitioner sought to remove respondent from his tenured position as a custodian on charges of neglect of duty and insubordination.

The Department of Education transferred this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (the OAL) on May 24, 1996. The OAL scheduled a hearing for May 5, 6 and 7, 1997.

Prior to the scheduled hearing date, the parties agreed to settle this matter. On February 18, 1997, they submitted the attached Stipulation of Settlement, dated August 13, 1996, which sets forth the terms of the settlement.

I have reviewed the record and settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE my Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Feb. 18, 1997
DATE

MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 27, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 28 1997
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

SPRINGSTEAD & MAURICE, ESQS.
39 Hudson Street
Hackensack, New Jersey 07601
(201) 487-1414
Attorneys for Respondent

FEB 13 11 35 AM '97

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF RONALD BRIDGERS, STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON,

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Agency Ref. No. 152-4/96

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The petitioner, State-Operated School District of the City of Paterson (hereinafter the "District), and the respondent, Ronald Bridgers, residing at 200 17th Avenue, Paterson, New Jersey, hereby stipulates and agrees as follows:

WHEREAS, tenure charges are pending against Mr. Bridgers seeking his termination from employment as a custodian due to allegations of neglect of duty, misbehavior and insubordination; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bridgers has denied said charges; and

WHEREAS, the State Superintendent of Schools of Paterson determined to subcontract the District's custodial services and abolish all custodial positions in the District, effective, June 30, 1996; and

WHEREAS, respondent's position was among those abolished; and

WHEREAS, said decision to subcontract was made for reasons unrelated to this proceeding, but results in there being no position for respondent to return to if he were to prevail in this case; and

WHEREAS, said decision therefore renders this proceeding moot except for the issue of back salary related to respondent's 120 suspension without pay;

IT IS on this _____ day of _____, 1996; agreed that:

1. The District shall and hereby does withdraw and dismiss its tenure charges against Mr. Bridgers because they are now moot;

2. The District will include Mr. Bridgers and his position in, and as part of, its reduction in force, effective June 30, 1996, thereby terminating Mr. Bridgers' employment in the same manner as that of all other custodians, except as otherwise provided herein;

3. The District will continue Mr. Bridgers' salary, health insurance benefits and pension contributions through August 31, 1996 in compromise of Mr. Bridgers claim regarding his 120 days suspension without pay. Mr. Bridgers agrees not to apply for work with the Paterson School District or any contractor providing custodial services to the District.

4. No further salary, benefits or any other contractual term or condition of employment shall be due or owing to Mr. Bridgers beyond the entitlements specified herein.

5. Mr. Bridgers hereby permanently waives and release any and all claims to back salary and/or any other payment, in return for the District's compliance with this Agreement with the exception of whatever monies he is entitled to statutorily by virtue of a workers compensation claim for injuries he sustained on December 27, 1995. Mr. Bridgers retains the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

6. This Agreement is in the public interest since it achieves a reduction in the costs of litigation which would be an unnecessary expenditure under these circumstances.

7. Mr. Bridgers acknowledges that he has hereby been advised in writing that he has the right to consult with an attorney or a representative of his own choosing prior to signing this Agreement and that he signs this Agreement as his own voluntary act and deed, and that he fully understands the duties and obligations enumerated herein.

8. The undersigned representatives of the District hereby acknowledge that they have been duly authorized by the District to sign this Agreement and bind the District to its terms.

9. All terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This document may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by an instrument executed in writing by the parties.

10. In the event that the District is prevented from, unable or unwilling to fulfill the terms of this Agreement, for any reasons, the rights of the parties shall return to the status quo prevailing prior to the signing of this Agreement.

11. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute precedent, past practice or policy as to the rights of an employee, now or in the future, other than Mr. Bridgers.

12. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement must be approved by the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education before it becomes effective. This Agreement shall be null and void if not so approved.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year aforesaid.

Michelle Gerson
Witness:
Dated: August 13, 1996

Ronnie Bridgers
RONALD BRIDGERS

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF PATERSON

Rhelonia Pegram
Witness:
Dated: August 23, 1996

BY Edward Wilds

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5547-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 152-4/96

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE	:
HEARING OF RONNIE BRIDGERS,	:
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC	:	DECISION
COUNTY.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 11, 1997

173-97

173-97

FRANK A. CAPUTO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

APRIL 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11617-95

AGENCY REF. NO. 351-8/95

FRANK A. CAPUTO,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY.

Wayne J. Oppito, Esq., for petitioner

Mark J. Blunda, Esq., for respondent
(Sills, Cummis, Zuckerman, Radin, Tischman, Epstein & Gross, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 14, 1997 Decided: February 19, 1997

BEFORE MARYLOUISE LUCCHI-McCLOUD, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on October 18, 1995 as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties agreed to settle the matter and prepared the attached Stipulation of Settlement.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND:

1. The parties have agreed to the settle the matter as evidenced by their signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the settlement be approved. It is further ORDERED that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that the proceedings in this matter be concluded.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision on this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

2/19/97
DATE

MARYLOUISE LUCCHI-McCLOUD, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 27, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 28 1997
DATE

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

am

SILLS CUMMIS ZUCKERMAN RADIN TISCHMAN EPSTEIN & GROSS

A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION

ONE RIVERFRONT PLAZA
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY 07102-5400
(201) 643-7000
FAX: (201) 643-6500

712 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK, NY 10019
(212) 643-7000
FAX (212) 643-6550

17 GORDON'S ALLEY
ATLANTIC CITY, NJ 08401-7406
(609) 344-2800
FAX (609) 344-7035

WRITER'S DIRECT DIAL NUMBER:

201.643.5698

ARTHUR J. SILLS (1917-1982)

CLIVE S. CUMMIS
STEVEN S. RADIN
HERBERT L. ZUCKERMAN
MICHAEL B. TISCHMAN
MORTON S. BUNIS
BARRY M. EPSTEIN
STEVEN E. GROSS
THOMAS J. DEMSKI
JEFFREY H. NEWMAN
LAWRENCE S. HORN
CHARLES J. WALSH
JEFFREY J. GREENBAUM
SIMON LEVIN
STEPHEN J. MOSES
MORRIS YAMNER
GERALD SPAN
JEFFREY BARTON CAHN
NOAH BRONKESH
LESTER ARON
STEVEN M. GOLDMAN
KENNETH F. OETTLE
ALAN E. SHERMAN
ROBERT J. ALTER
IRA A. ROSENBERG
ROBERT CRANE
MARC S. KLEIN
PHILIP R. SELLINGER

JACK M. ZACKIN
THOMAS S. NOVAK
JERRY GENBERG
STUART M. FEINBLATT
MARGARET F. BLACK
BRIAN S. COVEN
TRENT S. DICKEY
RICHARD J. SCHULMAN[Ω]
BERNARD I. FLATEMAN
JOSEPH L. BUCKLEY
KATHLEEN GENGARO
DAVID J. RABINOWITZ
STANLEY U. NORTH, III
JAMES D. TOLL
JAMES M. HIRSCHHORN
ALLAN C. BELL
RONALD C. RAK
MARK S. OLINSKY
RICHARD J. SAPINSKI
VICTOR H. BOYAJIAN
PHILIP R. WHITE
ALAN J. COHEN
MARK J. BLUNDA
LORI G. SINGER
ROBERT W. BURKE
MARK E. DUCKSTEIN
BETH S. ROSE

OF COUNSEL

DAVID BECK
VICTOR FUTTER[Ω]
DENA L. WOLF
MITCHEL E. OSTRER
KENNETH R. WEINER[Ω]

[Ω] ADMITTED IN NY ONLY
[◊] ADMITTED IN JURISDICTION (S) OTHER THAN NJ

NOEL D. HUMPHREYS
PATRICIA M. KERINS
DIANE M. LAVENDA
ROBERT R. DIVITA
BOHDAN S. KOSOVYCH[Ω]
CHERIE LEE MAXWELL
GLENN E. DAVIS
HARRY B. NORETSKY
STEVEN B. JACKMAN[◊]
NATHAN E. ARNELL
STEVEN R. ROWLAND
JACK WENIK
ERIC D. MANN
FREDERIC M. TUDOR
KENNETH L. MOSKOWITZ
ERIC W. SLEEPER
A. ROSS PEARLSON
JEFFREY M. POLLOCK
BENNET SUSSER
JODI S. BRODSKY
STEVEN S. KATZ
LINDA B. KATZ
RICHARD S. SCHKOLNICK
TED ZANGARI
N. LYNNE HUGHES
DERLYS MARIA GUTIERREZ
ALAN L. COHEN
PAUL P. JOSEPHSON
PATRICIA BROWN FUGEE
DOUGLAS R. WEIDER
STEVEN R. KAMEN
ROBERT M. CARDUCCI, M.D.
PAUL F. DODA
LORA L. FONG
JOSHUA D. GOODMAN
HELEN KLEINER
RHONDA SOBRAL O'TOOLE

CALVIN A. JONES
LOUIS R. FRANZESE
ANDREW H. SHERMAN
MICHELLE E. MANFRO
ADAM J. KAISER
KEITH J. WEINGOLD
WILLIAM J. TINSLEY, JR.
WILLIAM R. STUART
JOHN J. COUGHLIN, IV
GARRY ROGERS
JENNIFER L. BOROFSKY
VAUGHN L. MCKOY
GWEN L. POSNER
SUSANNE K. ROSENZWEIG
MICHELE-LEE BERKO
LORI M. WALDRON
DONNA A. RAMSAY-WILCOX
ANTHONY F. VITIELLO
LAURA M. KALIK
ROSS L. YUSTEIN
STEVEN M. ZIOLKOWSKI
PETER M. SCHULTZ
LAURA M. KOHANSOV
BEN-TZION H. ZUR
MICHAEL G. ALBANO
CAROLINE H. HAHN
DAVID JAY
LAURA E. KORFMANN
BARBARA A. SCHWARTZ
HARRIS C. GOLDBLAT
KRISTEN SKOG BUERSTETTA
CRAIG ECKSTEIN
PETER J. KOZLOWSKI
JONATHAN N. MARCUS
MONICA D. PALESTIS
ANTHONY J. TUTHS
SERENA VISWANATHAN
ELNARDO J. WEBSTER II

PLEASE REPLY TO NEWARK

February 13, 1997

FEB 14 2 PM

The Honorable Marylouise Lucchi-McCloud
Office of Administrative Law
185 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Re: Dover School District and Frank Caputo

Dear Judge Lucchi-McCloud:

Pursuant to previous telephone discussions with counsel for the above referenced parties, enclosed please find original and one copy of fully executed Stipulation of Settlement. The parties hereby request your review and approval.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark J. Blunda

MARK J. BLUNDA

MJB/at
cc: Wayne Oppito, Esq.
Margaret A. Fischer, Superintendent

SILLS CUMMIS ZUCKERMAN RADIN TISCHMAN EPSTEIN & GROSS, P.A.
One Riverfront Plaza
Newark, New Jersey 07102-5400
(201) 643-7000
Attorneys for Respondent

FEB 14 2 [illegible] 97

FRANK A. CAPUTO,	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY AGENCY REF NO. 351-8/95 OAL DOCKET NO. EDU - 11617-95
Petitioner,	:
-vs-	:	STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF TOWN OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
Respondent.	:

In consideration of the mutual promises and undertakings contained in this Agreement, Petitioner, Frank A. Caputo, and Respondent, Town of Dover Board of Education ("Board"), hereby agree that the above-captioned matter and any and all other claims, rights and obligations between the undersigned parties shall be resolved as follows:

1. Upon approval of this settlement by the Dover Board of Education and The Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, the administrative action captioned Frank A. Caputo v. Board of Education of the Town of Dover, Morris County, bearing OAL Docket No. EDU-11617-95 and Agency Ref. No. 351-8/95 shall be dismissed with prejudice.

2. Frank A. Caputo hereby waives any and all claims to tenure, seniority and employment in the Dover School District in any position and under any certification. This waiver includes, but is not limited to any and all claims to entitlement to employment in the positions of principal, vice-principal, dean of students, and any and all administrative, supervisory or teaching positions that currently exist or may at any time in the future exist in the Dover School District

3. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt by the Board of the Commissioner of Education's approval of this settlement, the Board shall issue to Frank A. Caputo, through his attorney, Wayne J. Oppito, Esq., payment in the amount of Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars, minus any required Federal and State withholdings, representing full and final satisfaction of all claims against the Respondent Board, its agents and employees. It is agreed that there shall be no other payments to or on behalf of Frank A. Caputo by any party in settlement of this matter, including for attorney's fees and costs.

4. The parties agree that this payment represents the compromise of disputed claims and is not an admission of liability, negligence or wrongdoing by the Respondent or any of its agents, representatives or employees. This settlement was reached by the parties as a business judgment bearing in mind the cost, disruption and uncertainty of litigation.

5. Frank A. Caputo represents that other than the above-captioned matter, he has not filed any charges, complaints, grievances or claims of any kind against The Board of Education of the Town of Dover, Morris County, its agents or employees in any court or administrative agency, and covenants that no such claims shall at any time hereafter be filed.

6. Each party shall be responsible for its own attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with this matter. Frank A. Caputo represents and covenants that the amount set forth in Paragraph 2 constitutes full payment of any such fees, costs and expenses which he has claimed or might have claimed against Respondent.

7. Frank A. Caputo for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns hereby releases and forever discharges the Board of Education of the Town of Dover, Morris County, its agents, members and employees from all claims, causes of actions, suits, etc., which he now has or ever had from the beginning of the world to the present date including, but not limited to all claims, causes of action, suits, etc., asserted or which could have been asserted by Frank A. Caputo in the above-captioned action. It is the understanding and agreement of the parties that the release provided in this paragraph shall be a General Release in all respects.

8. The parties to this Agreement acknowledge that they have been represented by independent legal counsel of their own choice throughout all of the negotiations that preceded the execution of this Agreement and General Release. The parties acknowledge and represent that they have carefully read and fully understand all of the provisions herein and that they have voluntarily executed same without coercion or duress.

9. This Agreement and General Release constitutes the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall not be amended, modified or amplified except in writing signed by both parties. No oral statement of any person shall in any manner or degree modify the terms and provisions of this Agreement and General Release.

10. The parties agree that this Agreement will be construed and governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to principles of conflicts of law, and the parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education and Office of Administrative Law with regard to enforcement of this Agreement.

Date: February 5, 1997

FRANK A. CAPUTO, PETITIONER

DOVER BOARD OF EDUCATION, RESPONDENT

Frank A. Caputo

By: Margaret A. Fischer

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11617-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 351-8/95

FRANK A. CAPUTO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

The Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 11, 1997

174-97

174-97

HOWARD SCHOEN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EDISON, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, resident and taxpayer of Edison Township, alleged prior to a special bond referendum election held on December 12, 1995, the Board prepared and distributed at taxpayer expense a newsletter exhorting voters to approve the referendum. Additionally, petitioner alleged public funds were expended for a consultant who prepared letters and a phone bank script that were ultimately rejected by the Board as inappropriate for use. Petitioner contended Board violated proscriptions established in Citizens to Protect Public Funds.

ALJ concluded that petitioner did not prove that the documents in question violated the proscriptions in Citizens. ALJ found that although the general tenor of the newsletter favored an affirmative vote, it did not explicitly urge or exhort voters to vote "yes." Nor was there any indication that it distorted facts. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner concurred with the conclusion of the ALJ that the Board did not violate the law within the meaning of Citizens. Petition was dismissed. The Commissioner, however, cautioned boards to exercise due diligence in establishing the parameters of election-related informational material to be prepared at board expense, whether by staff or specially contracted consultants.

APRIL 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 360-96

AGENCY DKT. NO. 485-12/95

HOWARD SCHOEN,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EDISON, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Howard Schoen, petitioner, pro se

Viola S. Lordi, for respondent, (Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 10, 1997 Decided: February 25, 1997

BEFORE ROBERT S. MILLER, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner is a resident and taxpayer of Edison Township. He alleges that 3 documents prepared by or at the direction of the Board of Education of the Township (Board or respondent) prior to the December 12, 1995 bond referendum election violated the proscriptions established in Citizens to Protect Public Funds v. Board of Education of Parsippany-Troy Hills, 13 N.J. 172 (1953).

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, petitioner filed his original petition with the Department of Education on December 26, 1995. On or about January 23, 1996 respondent filed and served an answer and affirmative defenses. On January 30, 1996, the instant matter was filed in the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to the New Jersey Administrative Procedure Act.

On April 4, 1996 Chief Judge Barbara A. Harned entered an Order consolidating this case with 6 other cases for the sole purpose of determining whether the enactment of L. 1995, c. 278 removed the subject matter of these 7 cases from the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education. On June 11, 1996 Judge Harned ruled that the aforesaid legislation did not remove the Commissioner's jurisdiction.

On August 16, 1996, the petitioner moved to file and serve an amended petition. After a telephone conference held on September 19, 1996, I granted the motion. An amended petition and an answer and affirmative defenses were duly filed thereafter.

On or about December 26, 1996, petitioner filed a motion for summary decision together with a letter memorandum in support thereof. On January 6, 1997, respondent filed a cross-motion for summary decision with a supporting letter memorandum. Reply memoranda were filed thereafter by both petitioner and respondent.

Both parties contend, and I concur, that the essential and material facts in this case are not in dispute and therefore that the case is ripe for summary decision. See, N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5; Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 73-75 (1954); and Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995).

FACTS

On December 12, 1995, the Board conducted a bond referendum election wherein the Board sought the approval of the voters for a bond issue in the amount of $23,000,000 to fund classroom additions, capital projects, mechanical modifications, roofing projects, and compliance with regulations promulgated under the Americans With Disabilities Act. In this election the proposed bond issue was defeated.

Prior to the election, the Board retained a consultant (Ron Shapella) to develop informational materials for distribution to the public. The consultant prepared 3 different kinds of materials: (1) a Special Election Report (also referred to as the "newsletter"); (2) 8 draft letters to the editor of local newspapers; and (3) a phone bank script. The Board used public funds to pay for the preparation of these materials. Melindo A. Persi, the Edison Township Superintendent of Schools, reviewed the materials prepared by Shapella before their use and determined that the draft letters and the phone bank script were inappropriate for distribution to the public because they were one-sided in favor of approval of the bond issue. As a result, the draft letters and the phone bank script were not used, but the newsletter was distributed to the public.

PETITIONER'S CONTENTIONS

Petitioner asserts that the newsletter "does not restrict itself to informing voters of facts concerning the bond referendum" and "on the whole. . . is an exhortation to voters to approve the bond referendum." He also alleges that the newsletter "contained no articles or any information which was critical to the referendum and was limited to presenting facts and information in a positive light." He makes the same allegations with respect to the draft letters and the phone bank script. He concludes that the Board's expenditure of public funds on these materials constituted an improper use of public funds, citing Citizens to Protect Public Funds v. Board of Education of Parsippany-Troy Hills, supra. Petitioner also cites several other cases which he alleges support his argument, viz., Schettino v. Ridgefield Board of Education, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d. 224 (EDU); Fenton v. Sullivan, 1991 S.L.D. 677 (Comm'r decision dated April 23, 1991); Burghardt v. Board of Education of the Township of Mahwah, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10875-93 (Ass't Comm'r decision dated November 29, 1993); In the matter of the Annual School Election of Old Bridge Township, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 230; and Enterline v. Board of Education of the Township of Hillsboro, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 114, 115.

RESPONDENT'S CONTENTIONS

The Board denies petitioner's allegations, asserting that the newsletter sets forth only relevant facts to aid the voters in reaching an informed judgment when voting on the school bond election proposal on December 12, 1995 and pointing out that the draft letters and the phone bank script were disapproved and never utilized and therefore cannot contravene the proscription of the Citizens to Protect case. By way of support for its position, respondent cites, among other cases, In the Matter of the Annual School Election of Borough of Somerdale, OAL DKT. NO. EDU 3921-82, Agency Docket No. 99-4/82A (Comm'r of Educ. September 24, 1982).

DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The newsletter consists of four pages. Page 1 has three articles, the main article (unsigned) dealing with the "need" to upgrade buildings to meet current health and safety regulations and to prepare for increasing numbers of local children who will be attending school. The second article is by the Superintendent of Schools (Melindo A. Persi); it deals with the "priority" item of repairing and refurbishing school facilities and asserts that this cannot be accomplished within the "current operating budget." The third article is entitled "Retooling for Excellence" and notes the "five key areas," with estimated costs, to be addressed by the proposed bond issue.

Page 2 consists of a question and answer column and informational material, including: recent history leading to the referendum, the names of the schools affected, and "dates to remember" (such as dates of public meetings with the superintendent). At the bottom of the page is a box declaring: "YOUR VOTE COUNTS! Your schools need your participation. Come out and vote on December 12!"

Page 3 contains three articles. The first is entitled "Financing" and, among other things, explains the project average tax increase to the taxpayers. The second is a column with 3 questions and answers. The third is a listing of polling places for the December 12 election.

Page 4 consists of a copy of the sample ballot, the return address of the Superintendent's office, and a list of the members of the Board of Education.

The 8 draft letters and the phone bank script clearly and unequivocally urge potential voters to vote "yes" on the referendum, i.e., to approve the bond referendum.

In my opinion, no violation of law has occurred with respect to the draft letters and the phone bank script. The reason, as stated by respondent's counsel, is two-fold: (1) the Board "self-policed" the materials it ordered to be prepared, and (2) the Board declined to use the materials after the superintendent of schools determined that they were too one-sided in favor of the approval of the proposed bond issue. Petitioner asserts that the use of public funds to prepare such materials is improper and/or illegal, but he is unable to cite, nor am I aware of, any authority to that effect.

The use of the newsletter is a much closer question.[1]

In Citizens to Protect Public Funds v. Board of Education of Parsippany-Troy Hills, 13 N.J. 172, the court held that the Parsippany-Troy Hills board of education exceeded its authority by distributing a pamphlet exhorting voters to vote "yes" on a building program, and over-dramatizing the dire consequences of not voting for the program. However, it clearly stated that the board had the power to give voters relevant facts to make informed judgments when voting upon the proposal (Id. at 179). The court went on to say that the board had a duty to formulate the construction program in the first instance (Id. at 180) and further:

[1] There is a great deal to be said for the concurring opinion of Justice Heher in Citizens to Protect, supra. He warned that the majority of the Court might be over-extending itself, pointing out that "censorship is not of the judicial province." 13 N.J. at 183. Nevertheless, it is the majority opinion that must be followed.

> We do not mean that the public body formulating the program is otherwise restrained from advocating and espousing its adoption by the voters. Indeed, as in the instant case, when the program represents the body's judgment of what is required in the effective discharge of its responsibility, it is not only the right but perhaps the duty of the body to endeavor to secure the assent of the voters thereto. The question we are considering is simply the extent to and manner in which the funds may with justice to the rights of dissenters be expended for espousal of the voters' approval of the body's judgment. Even this the body may do within fair limits. (Id. at 181-182)

I have read and considered the cases cited by counsel. Most of those cited by petitioner are distinguishable from the instant case, the boards of education in those cases rather clearly having crossed the permissible line between a fair presentation and a one-sided, unbalanced one. For example, in Enterline, supra, the newsletter contained graphics which "distorted" the facts "in the apparent hope that one picture is worth a thousand words." In Schettino, supra, the school-funded flyers distributed in a local school board election patently crossed over the line into partisan politics. Those cases - - e.g., Burghardt v. Board of Education of Mahwah and Fenton v. Sullivan, both supra - - which are not readily distinguishable, are, in my opinion, inconsistent with the language and reasoning of the Citizens to Protect case.

On the other hand, I find the Somerdale case, supra, to be persuasive. The newsletter in Somerdale favored an affirmative vote, but it did not ask the voters to vote "yes" on the proposed bond issue. The administrative law judge concluded that the presentation was fair and not violative of any statute. His decision was affirmed by the Commissioner. In my opinion, the Somerdale decision is fully consistent with the language and reasoning of the Supreme Court in Citizens to Protect.

As for the instant matter, although the tenor of the newsletter clearly favored an affirmative vote, it did not explicitly urge or exhort the voters to vote "yes." Nor is there any indication that it distorted the facts or over-dramatized the need for the bond issue. Further, there is no evidence that the views of any dissenters were suppressed or belittled, or even that any organized opposition existed and desired to be heard.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

For the reasons expressed above, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has been unable to prove that the documents in question violated the proscriptions established in Citizens to Protect Public Funds v. Board of Education of Parsippany-Troy Hills, supra, and, accordingly, that his petition should be DISMISSED. It is so ORDERED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 25, 1997
DATE

Robert S. Miller
ROBERT S. MILLER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/26/97
DATE

DNA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

FEB 27 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

tmp

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 360-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 485-12/95

HOWARD SCHOEN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EDISON, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Intervenor also filed a timely statement indicating that it would rely upon the response of the Board in reply to petitioner's exceptions.

Petitioner's exceptions incorporate arguments advanced before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), contending, inter alia, that the Board violated the law in preparing draft letters to the editor and a draft phone script relating to a bond referendum. He disagrees with the ALJ's finding that no violation occurred, citing Enterline, supra, to support his position that even if an explicit exhortation to vote "yes" for a referendum is absent from a board newsletter, such exhortation can still functionally exist if the publication offers arguments to persuade voters that only one side has merit. (Exceptions at pp. 1-2) Petitioner also disagrees with the ALJ's finding that there was no evidence that any organized opposition existed desiring to be heard. (Exceptions at p. 2) Next, petitioner asserts that the ALJ's interpretation of case law would require opponents to be organized and express notice of dissent with a board in order to secure their rights under Citizens to Protect Public Funds, supra. (Exceptions at p. 3)

Petitioner then objects to the ALJ's reliance on In the Matter of the Annual School Election of Somerdale, supra, characterizing such reliance as peculiar and again urging that the case be decided pursuant to Enterline, supra, as it is the Commissioner's most recent ruling on this type of case. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 3)

Lastly, petitioner excepts to the finding that the expense related to preparing the draft documents was not a violation of law because they were not distributed to the public. He cites Smith v. Dorsey, 599 So. 2d 529 (Miss. 1992) to support his contention that, "the public harm is done upon the improper expenditure being made, and whether the object of the improper expenditure is used or not bears little or no relevance." (Petitioner's Exceptions at pp. 3-4)

In reply, the Board contends that the initial decision is correct and should be affirmed. It agrees with the ALJ's contention that the Board policed itself when it declined to distribute the draft letters and phone bank script and that it therefore acted appropriately. It avers that petitioner's claim that the Board acted unlawfully and is thereby strictly liable, simply because these materials were purchased with public funds, is unsupported by case law. (Reply Exceptions at pp. 3-4) It distinguishes Smith, supra, from the instant case by pointing out that there the board actually used public funds to hold an event and hire campaign workers to promote the passage of a bond referendum, whereas here, the Board's own review procedures prevented the biased message from ever reaching the public. (Reply Exceptions at p. 4)

The Board further urges affirmance of the ALJ's finding that the newsletter in question "complied with the law by setting forth accurate information on foreseeable consequences, both good and bad, that would result if the proposed bond issue were approved." (Id. at p. 6)

Upon a careful and independent review, the Commissioner concurs with the conclusion of the ALJ that the Board did not violate the law within the meaning of Citizens to Protect Public Funds, supra, for the reasons expressed therein and as further explicated below.

Initially, the Commissioner notes that the language of Citizens contemplates that a board will work for passage of its own initiatives but that its ability to spend public funds must be circumscribed by promulgation of materials that are informative and balanced, rather than exhortative and advocative. Wherefore, if there is no evidence that the information provided by a board is deliberately incomplete, inaccurate, or selectively biased, the mere absence of mention of opposing viewpoint(s) is not sufficient to warrant a finding that the material contravenes Citizens to Protect Public Funds, supra.

Thus, with respect to the present case, the Commissioner affirms the finding that the Board's newsletter was not improperly advocative. Such finding, and the basis upon which it is predicated, is made in full consideration of the Enterline decision, and the cases before it, noting that the contents of the instant newsletter, as challenged, do not cross the line of impropriety that was evident in that matter. Neither does the Commissioner find it unreasonable that the Board hired a consultant to prepare documents concerning the upcoming referendum. However, in that the Board ultimately was compelled to decline to distribute at least part of the materials, the Commissioner finds that the Board should have been more diligent in seeking to prevent such an occurrence by establishing, at the outset, appropriate parameters for the materials to be prepared.

Further, the Commissioner notes that the record herein is devoid of any indication that the Board actively sought to exclude or minimize opposing views whether organized and expressed by notice, or not. The Commissioner will not, therefore, infer wrongdoing where none is evident.*

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed therein and above, the Commissioner adopts the initial decision of the OAL, and dismisses the instant Petition of Appeal. In so doing, however, he cautions the Edison Board of Education and all other boards, to exercise due diligence in establishing the parameters of informational material to be prepared at board expense, whether by staff or specially contracted consultants.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

* In rendering this decision, the Commissioner stresses that he has not ignored his prior determinations, including Burghardt, supra, and Fenton, supra, which, unlike the ALJ, he does not view as inconsistent with Citizens, supra. However, neither does he find that those cases warrant the relief sought by petitioner when applied to this matter.

APRIL 11, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 11, 1997

176-97

176-97

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PASSAIC, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
OLGA GONZALES,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board sought summary decision on certification requirements as they pertain to respondent's alleged wrongful nonrenewal as Basic Skills Instructor for Limited English Proficient Students.

Initially, the ALJ found that there were no genuine issues of material fact in this matter; thus, the matter was ripe for summary judgment. Secondly, the ALJ found that the Board demonstrated that, in accordance with applicable regulations, respondent was required to hold a valid New Jersey instructional certificate in elementary education, as well as an endorsement in bilingual education, in order to hold the position of Basic Skills Instructor for Limited English Proficient Students.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

April 11, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11361-95

AGENCY DKT. NO. 322-8/95

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION CITY OF PASSAIC, PASSAIC COUNTY,

Petitioner,

v.

OLGA GONZALES,

Respondent.

Robert J. Merryman, Esq., for petitioner
(Carroll & Weiss, attorneys)

Kenneth C. Marano, Esq., for respondent
(Norberto H. Yacono, attorney)

Record Closed: December 2, 1996 Decided: February 19, 1997

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, the Passaic Board of Education, (Petitioner Board or District) moves for summary decision finding that the position of a Basic Skills Instructor (BSI) for Limited English Proficient Students (LEP or BSI/LEP) requires a Bilingual Education Endorsement. The respondent, Olga Gonzales, (respondent or Gonzales) opposes the motion contending that genuine issues of material fact exist.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was commenced in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Passaic County when Gonzales filed a complaint against the Board and its superintendent, Beryl Zankel alleging that the defendants engaged in employment discrimination and breach of contract when it dismissed her from her position.[1] In that matter, the Board defended the dismissal on the basis that Gonzales did not hold the appropriate certification for her position. On September 18, 1995 the Honorable Nicholas G. Mandak, A.J.S.C. entered an Order that transferred to the Commissioner of Education, (Commissioner) the issue of the appropriate teacher certification for the position of BSI/ LED.

On August 18, 1995, the Board filed a petition for a declaratory judgment on the certification issue with the Commissioner. On October 5, 1995, the Commissioner transferred the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 15:14F-1 to 13. The matter was assigned to the undersigned on November 13, 1995. A prehearing conference was held on March 12, 1996 and the matter was scheduled for plenary hearing on October 1, 10, and 11. Those dates were adjourned at the request of the respondent and new hearing dates were scheduled.

On October 23, 1996, the Board moved for summary decision. On December 2, 1996 respondent filed a brief in opposition to said motion. A responding brief was filed by the Board on December 5, 1996 at which time the record was closed.

[1] Gonzales is the plaintiff in this Superior Court and the Board and the superintendent are the defendants. In this proceeding she is the respondent and the Board is the petitioner.

FACTS

Based on a review of the record, I FIND the following FACTS:

Gonzales was employed by the District in November 1986, as a substitute teacher in its Bilingual/English as a Second Language Program (ESL). In December 1986, Gonzales was assigned to a full time bilingual teaching position where she remained until she resigned in November, 1988. In September 1989, Gonzales returned to the District and the parties executed a contract wherein Gonzales was assigned to a bilingual program teaching over-age students at Public School #11. The contract required Gonzales was to hold certifications as a permanent teacher of Spanish and as an elementary school teacher. Additionally, Gonzales was to be eligible to receive an Emergency Bilingual/Bicultural Certificate. (P-3).

Sometime, between April and June, 1990, Gonzales was notified by the District that it was having funding difficulties and thus she would not be hired for the 1990-91 school term. (P-4) (R-1).[2] Subsequently, the District found the necessary funding and was able to re-hire Gonzales. Gonzales was assigned to Public School #9 as a Basic Skills Instructor for Limited English Proficient Students (BSI/LEP). The parties memorialized the assignment in a written contract dated June 29, 1990. The contract provided that Gonzales would have appropriate certifications as a permanent teacher of Spanish and elementary education. Additionally, Gonzales was to maintain her eligibility to receive an emergency bilingual/bicultural certificate.

Prior to the commencement of the 1990-91 school term, two significant changes occurred. Gonzales was reassigned to teach at Public School #8. Further, she was designated as a First grade Bilingual teacher. (P-8). Gonzales voiced her displeasure with the assignment and alleges that she was promised a reassignment.

[2] P-4 refers to the petitioner's certifications attached to their brief in support of motion for summary decision. R-1 refers to the respondent's certification.

On October 23, 1990, the County Superintendent of Schools notified the Chief Administrator of the District that Gonzales did not renew her emergency bilingual certificate for the 1990-91 school term. It was further noted that employment without the proper certificate was prohibited under the terms of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-2. Accordingly, it was deemed "imperative" that the Board take immediate action. By letter dated October 31, 1996, the Board advised Gonzales that a personnel matter relating to her employment would be discussed at its November 6, 1990 meeting. By resolution dated 12, 1990, the Board voted to immediately terminate the Gonzales because she failed to renew her emergency bilingual certificate for the 1990-91 school year.

At this juncture, it is important to briefly note that the District has two distinctive basic skills positions. First, there is the basic skills position that teaches basic skills to elementary education students in the English language. This position is strictly limited to the development of basic skills and it requires that an instructor possess an elementary education certification. Since this basic skills class is taught in English only, it is not a part of the District's Bilingual Program.

The second BSI position is aimed at those students who are Limited English Proficient (LED). These students are instructed in their native language and English is a secondary language. Due to its bilingual nature, it is supervised by the District's Bilingual Program. A BSI/LED instructor requires an elementary certification and allegedly requires a bilingual certification also.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The first issue is whether this matter is ripe for summary disposition. The second issue before this tribunal is whether a bilingual endorsement is needed to teach a basic skills course to LEP students.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5 provides for summary decision when the papers and discovery, together with the affidavits, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. An adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. The standard for adjudicating whether summary decision should be granted was discussed in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995), where the New Jersey Supreme Court held that the motion judge, after granting all favorable inferences to be drawn from the facts to the non-movants, is to engage in an analytical process essentially the same as that necessary to rule on a motion for a directed verdict.

> "whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." That weighing process requires the court to be guided by the same evidentiary standard of proof- by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence- that would apply at the trial on the merits when deciding whether there exists a "genuine" issue of material fact.

Brill, supra, at 533-34; (citations omitted). Finally, when the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law, the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Id., at 540.

I FIND and CONCLUDE that there are no genuine issues of material fact in this matter. The respondent contends that factual issues exist because the petitioner misrepresented the nature of the school #9 position to her; that her contract with the petitioner is silent on the issue of what position she was to fill at school #9; that petitioner's motive for transferring respondent is questionable given the fact that they knew she would not be able to obtain a bilingual endorsement at such a late date; that she had actually obtained a bilingual endorsement; and that she was actually assigned to a position that was taught half in English and half in the students' native language.[3] All of these arguments raise salient issues for the Superior Court proceeding. They, however, are not dispositive or germane to the issue before this tribunal. This proceeding is limited to the determination of the required certification to teach basic skills to LEP students.

Turning to the critical issue of the appropriate certification for a BSI/LEP instructor, a brief discussion of the State's Bilingual program (program) is warranted. The program was established when the New Jersey Legislature recognized that large numbers of children in New Jersey school systems come from environments where the primary language is not English. Thus, it was found that English only instruction provides an inadequate education for them. To address this inequity, the Legislature established programs for bilingual education to provide such students with opportunities equal to those whose primary language is English. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:35-15, a bilingual education must be provided to those students who are identified as Limited English proficient (LED). A LED student is one whose native language is other than English and who has sufficient difficulty speaking, reading, writing or understanding the English language as measured by an English Language Proficiency Test. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.1.

To effectuate the Legislative intent of N.J.S.A. 18A:35-15, the Department of Education implemented regulations for the provision of a proper bilingual education. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.1 to N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.16. The regulations provide a three tier approach for educating LEP students. In elementary school districts where there are at least one, but fewer than ten, LEP students, the district must provide English language services to the students in addition to the regular school program. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.4(a)(1). The class is designed to improve the English language skills of those [3] It should be noted that such instruction in half English and half the student's native language does not mean that the program is not a bilingual education program. Such programs are designed to "address the use of two languages within the curriculum." N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.5(d)(3). Respondent may be referring to "bilingual part-time component" instruction, in which the student is taught primarily in English, but is given developmental language and math instruction on a daily basis with a certified bilingual teacher. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.1. As stated, such a program in any event requires the teacher to hold a bilingual endorsement.

children who have limited English proficiency. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.1. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.9(c), a teacher need only hold a valid New Jersey instructional certificate.

In districts where there are more than ten LEP students, the board must establish an English as a Second Language (ESL) program. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.4(b). The ESL program is a daily developmental second language program which teaches aural comprehension, speaking, reading and writing in English using second language teaching techniques and incorporates the cultural aspects of the pupils' experience in their ESL instruction. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.1. The ESL program must include an ESL curriculum, as well as compensatory education, special education, and vocational training programs. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.4(b). In order to teach an ESL class, a teacher must have a valid New Jersey Instructional certificate with an endorsement in English as a Second Language. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.9(b).

The most comprehensive educational program for LEP students is implemented when there are 20 or more LEP students of any one language classification in a school district. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.4(c). This bilingual education program is a:

> full-time program of instruction in all those courses or subjects which a child is required by law or rule to receive, given in the native language of the children of limited English proficiency enrolled in the program and also in English; in the aural comprehension, speaking, reading and writing of the native language of the children of limited English proficiency enrolled in the program ... (as well as in) English; and in the history and culture of the country, territory, or geographic area which is the native land of the parents of children of limited English proficiency enrolled in the program and in the history and culture of the United States. All pupils in bilingual education programs receive English as a second language instruction.
> [N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.1.]

In addition to ESL instruction, LEP students in a bilingual education program must also be afforded opportunities for compensatory education, special education, and vocational training. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.4(b) & (c). A bilingual education program teacher must hold a valid New Jersey instructional certificate with an endorsement for the appropriate grade level and/or content area, as well as an endorsement in bilingual education. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.9(a).

In this matter, I FIND that petitioner's school district has a bilingual education program, the third tier of LEP instruction. Further, the petitioner has a Bilingual Education Department. (See Certification of Nicholas Calamusa), Since the district is engaged in the third tier of LEP instruction, any teacher of LEP students must hold an endorsement in bilingual education. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.9(a). I, therefore, FIND and CONCLUDE that the respondent was required to hold a valid New Jersey instructional certificate in elementary education as well as an endorsement in bilingual education.

Petitioner, avers that a basic skills instructor (BSI) teaches remedial math and reading skills to groups of approximately five students. Since basic skills instruction is a part of the bilingual education program, any teacher of LEP(BSI) classes must have a bilingual education endorsement. N.J.A.C. 6:31-1.9(a). I agree with the petitioner that any other finding would contravene public policy. N.J.A.C. 6:8-1.1 identifies LEP students as being pupils at risk of failing or dropping out of the public school system. Requiring teachers who would instruct these students to hold a bilingual endorsement, in addition to the certifications normally required of New Jersey teachers, helps to ensure that LEP students will be successfully educated. Further, to afford greater protection to LEP students taking standard classes, while denying it to students in need of remedial education, is clearly incongruent. Students in basic skills classes are even more "at risk" of failure than regular LEP students, and deserve, at a minimum, the same protection provided to their peers.

Because no genuine issue of material fact has been raised in regards to the proper certification necessary to teach basic skills to LEP students, petitioner's motion for summary is hereby GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

2/19/97
DATE

Irene Jones
IRENE JONES, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

2/28/97
DATE

D M Costanzo Jr
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

MAR 3 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

sej

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11361-95
AGENCY DKT. NO. 322-8/95

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PASSAIC, PASSAIC COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
OLGA GONZALES,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the Board's motion for summary decision was properly granted, in that it has demonstrated that, in accordance with applicable regulations, respondent was required to hold a valid New Jersey instructional certificate in elementary education, as well as an endorsement in bilingual education, in order to hold the position of Basic Skills Instructor for Limited English Proficient Students.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

April 11, 1997
Date of Mailing, April 11, 1997

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

178-97

178-97

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EWING,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EWNG, MERCER COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

APRIL 14, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4829-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 207-6/96

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EWING,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EWNG, MERCER COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 14, 1997
DATE SOF MAILING APRIL 14, 1997

179-97

P.D.R. AND C.D.R., on behalf of minor, C.D.R.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF GLOUCESTER, CAMDEN COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

APRIL 14, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4456-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 122-4/96

P.D.R. AND C.D.R., on behalf of minor, C.D.R.,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF GLOUCESTER, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 14, 1997

180-97

180-97

P.M. and F.M., on behalf of their minor son, F.M.,

PETITIONERS,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

APRIL 14, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5027-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 132-4/96

P.M. and F.M., on behalf of their minor son, F.M.,	:
PETITIONERS,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF RAHWAY, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 14, 1997

182-97

182-97

CAROLYN E. RICKARD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MOUNT HOLLY, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

APRIL 14, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2838-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 115-3/96

CAROLYN E. RICKARD,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MOUNT HOLLY, BURLINGTON COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 14, 1997

181-97

181-97

DONALD SUTCLIFFE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BERGEN COUNTY VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

APRIL 14, 1997

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 9840-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 282-7/96

DONALD SUTCLIFFE,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BERGEN COUNTY VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record and notice of withdrawal transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed. The Deputy Commissioner, to whom this responsibility has been delegated pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33, approves the withdrawal. Consequently, the matter is no longer deemed to be a contested matter before the Commissioner and is accordingly dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 14, 1997

DATE OF MAILING APRIL 14, 1997

183-97

183-97

CAROL DE LYON,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF OLD TAPPAN, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning elementary school teacher alleged that the Board wrongfully reduced her salary in order to reimburse itself for overpayments, due to her being erroneously put on the wrong step of the salary guide for 1994-95. Board contended that petitioner failed in her duty to verify her correct salary and, thus, was equally responsible for the mistake. In its counterclaim, the Board sought restitution of its loss caused by a "mutual mistake of fact."

ALJ concluded that the Board's reduction of petitioner's existing salary for 1995-96 violated the statutory protection of the tenure law. ALJ noted petitioner acted truthfully in all her dealings with the Board. Therefore, the ALJ found that the remedy most faithful to the dual objectives of protecting a teacher's tenure rights and preventing misuse of public funds is to allow a school board to freeze a tenured employee's salary until such time as the corresponding step on the salary guide is reached and the board has recovered any overpayments. ALJ ordered that petitioner's salary remain frozen at $53,464 until a teacher of comparable training and experience would receive that level based on the negotiated salary guide and until the Board recovered all overpayments resulting from her incorrect placement on the guide. Moreover, the Board was ordered to pay petitioner $1,494 to reimburse her for the improper deductions during the 1995-96 school year.

Commissioner accepted in part and modified in part the initial decision of the ALJ. Commissioner concurred that the Board's reduction of petitioner's salary in the 1995-96 school year constituted a reduction in compensation which violated the statutory protection of the tenure law and the Board must reimburse petitioner for the amount of the improper deductions. Commissioner also concurred with the ALJ that where a board has erroneously overpaid a tenured staff member, it could freeze the staff member's salary at the erroneous level until such time as petitioner's salary on the negotiated salary guide equals or surpasses that which she was being paid. (Markot) Commissioner, however, declined to direct the Board to maintain its freeze until all overpayments are recouped. Because the error resulted from a mutual mistake, the Commissioner noted they should share the cost of the mutual error. Board was ordered to freeze petitioner's salary at $53,464 until the Board recouped one half of the total amount representing overpayments to petitioner.

APRIL 14, 1997

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1102-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 435-11/95

CAROL DeLYON,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF OLD TAPPAN,
Respondent.

Nancy Oxfeld, Esq., for petitioner
(Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen, attorneys)

Robert M. Tosti, Esq., for respondent,
(Rand, Algeier, Tosti & Woodruff, attorneys)

Record Closed: October 15, 1996 Decided: February 27, 1997

BEFORE: KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of Facts

This is an appeal by a teacher who alleges that the board of education reduced her salary in violation of her tenure rights. Due to a clerical error, the petitioner Carol DeLyon received a higher salary in 1994-95 than the amount to which she was entitled under the salary guide. At the beginning of the 1995-96 school year, respondent Board of Education of Old Tappan ("Board") sought to rectify the error by restoring petitioner's salary to its appropriate level and demanding reimbursement of the overpayment.

Petitioner maintains that the Board's action constitutes a reduction in compensation prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. Further, she contends that the only remedy available to the Board is to freeze her salary at the higher level "until such time as her salary on the negotiated guide surpasses that which she is receiving." The Board argues that petitioner failed in her duty to verify her correct salary and, thus, is equally responsible for the mistake. In its counterclaim, the Board seeks restitution of its loss caused by a "mutual mistake of fact."[1]

Procedural History

On November 8, 1995, petitioner filed her petition with the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner"). Respondent filed its answer and counterclaim on December 27, 1995. Petitioner filed her answer to the counterclaim on January 16, 1996. Subsequently, on January 10, 1996, the Commissioner forwarded the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing as a contested case. The OAL held a hearing on September 12, 1996. Witnesses and exhibits are listed in the appendix.

Findings of Fact

Most of the relevant facts are undisputed. I FIND:

Carol DeLyon has been employed by the Board as an elementary school teacher for many years. Both parties stipulate that Ms. DeLyon was erroneously put on the wrong step of the salary guide for 1994-95. A two-year agreement between the Board and the teachers' collective-negotiating unit incorporated a salary guide with various levels, depending on a particular individual's years of service and academic credentials. On June 20, 1994, the Board adopted a resolution approving the salary guide for 1994-95.[2] Under that guide, Ms. DeLyon should have been placed at Step 15 of the column applicable to teachers with a bachelor degree, which entitled her to an annual salary of $51,970. Instead, she was incorrectly placed on Step 15 for teachers with 15 or more graduate credits, which carried a greater salary of $53,464. As a result of this error, Ms. DeLyon received an extra $1,494 for the 1994-95 academic year.

[1]Initially, the Board also suggested that petitioner may be guilty of "deceit." After the hearing, however, the board conceded that there is no evidence that petitioner intentionally misled school officials about her salary status.

Clearly the error originated in the district's business office and was not caused by Ms. DeLyon. In particular, Ms. DeLyon never misrepresented her academic attainments or claimed to have earned fifteen graduate credits. Nonetheless, the Board argues that Ms. DeLyon should have caught the error when she was asked to confirm her annual salary. At the beginning of the school year, then superintendent Raymond Albano, since retired, addressed a staff assembly for approximately one hour. Mr. Albano discussed a variety of personnel items, including the importance of signing and returning a salary-verification form.[3] While Ms. DeLyon attended this meeting, she has no specific recollection of this particular topic. She was familiar with the form, however, having routinely signed and returned it in prior years.

On or about September 6, 1994, Ms. DeLyon received a communication from the business office requesting that she "[p]lease confirm the information below concerning your 1994-95 salary and step by signing and returning this memo to your school office by September 13, 1994." Below these instructions appeared the following information:

deLYON, CAROL	BA-15-MAX	$53,464

In compliance with the instructions, Ms. DeLyon signed and returned the form as soon as she received it. Although the reference to "15 MAX" was meant to refer to her graduate credits, the form drafted by the district is ambiguous. Ms. DeLyon interpreted

---

[2]The original agreement for 1993-94 had a notation that salaries for 1994-95 would be "developed by April 1, 1994." As it turned out, the salary guide for 1994-95 was not finalized until June 1994.

[3] The record is somewhat vague on whether Mr. Albano impressed upon his audience the purpose of the form as a check against possible error or merely reminded staff members to sign and return the document.

that language to refer to her step on the guide. Indeed, the record supports her understanding that in 1994-95 she was at Step 15, which also happens to be the maximum step for teachers holding a bachelor's degree. Since the district's own instructions asked her to confirm her "salary and step," it was reasonable for her to assume that "15-MAX" designated her step on the guide and not her graduate credits. Not having seen the negotiated salary guide for 1994-95, she had no way of knowing the true salary amount. It never occurred to her that her increase should be only 4%, rather than the 7% reflected in her employer's memorandum, because she did not know the percentage increase in the contract. As she had in past years, she relied on the accuracy of the Board's calculations and signed the document indicating her willingness to accept the salary offer for the upcoming year. Insofar as her state of mind may be legally significant, I FIND that Ms. DeLyon honestly answered the inquiry to the best of her knowledge, information and belief. Contrary to the Board's assertion, she was not under any obligation to check the underlying salary guide or consult her labor leaders. Thus, the Board and petitioner were both under the mistaken impression that the salary figure of $53, 464 was correct.

The Board itself did not discover the error until commencement of the next succeeding academic year. By letter dated September 1, 1995, the school business administrator notified Ms. DeLyon of the mistake and advised that her salary for 1995-96 would be reduced to $51,970. In subsequent correspondence dated September 20, 1995, the business administrator gave her the option of reimbursing the 1994-95 overpayment either by "check for $1,494 immediately" or by "payroll deductions totaling $1,494 between now and December 1, 1995." Meanwhile, however, Ms. DeLyon has changed her economic position and is unwilling to authorize any payment from her salary. She has already paid income taxes on her full earnings in 1994 and 1995 and recently incurred extraordinary expenses for a child who started college. Although the Board implemented the salary reduction for 1995-96, it has not attempted to collect the previous year's overpayment. Board counsel has represented that for the current 1996-97 academic year, Ms. DeLyon's salary has been restored to the former amount of $53,464 pending the outcome of this litigation.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that the Board's reduction of Ms. DeLyon's existing salary for 1995-96 violates the statutory protection of the tenure law.

N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 provides that any teacher who has acquired tenure "shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity or conduct unbecoming such a teaching staff member or other just cause." (Emphasis added). N.J.S.A. 18A:10-6 reiterates that no tenured teaching staff member shall be dismissed or reduced in compensation, except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct or other just cause and then only after a hearing to determine the validity of the charges. Related statutory provisions, not pertinent here, authorize school boards to reduce the size of its staff for reasons of economy or efficiency and place any affected employees on a preferred reemployment list. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 to -14.

A long line of school law decisions has interpreted this reduction-in-compensation language as prohibiting a local board from reducing a tenured employee's salary, unless the board successfully brings tenure charges or the employee is laid off or demoted as the result of a reduction in force. See, e.g., Kalapos v. Trenton Bd. of Educ., 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 430 (Comm'r June 2, 1993) (overpayment due to clerical error); Galop v. Hanover Twp. Bd. of Educ., 1975 S.L.D. 358 (Comm'r May 16) (inadvertent placement on wrong step of salary guide); Anson v. Bridgeton Bd. of Educ., 1972 S.L.D. 638 (Comm'r Dec. 5) (administrative error in placement on salary guide); Docherty v. West Paterson Bd. of Educ., 1967 S.L.D. 297 (Comm'r Oct. 23) (miscalculation of graduate credits).

Despite such clear legal precedent, respondent tries to distinguish the present situation on the grounds that the Board never specifically set Ms. DeLyon's salary and that Ms. DeLyon herself contributed to the error by failing to catch the Board's mistake.

Although some of the cases do emphasize the "fixing or establishing" of a particular employee's salary by the board of education, see Trenton Educ. Ass'n v. Trenton Bd. of Educ., 1986 S.L.D. 2415, 2434 (Comm'r Oct. 6), not all of the reported decisions turn on such technical analysis. For instance, in Docherty, 1967 S.L.D. at 298, the school board adopted a resolution fixing teachers' salaries "at the salaries set forth in the 1966-67" and the school superintendent later made a mistake "in evaluating petitioner's credits." Even though the error was apparently attributable to an agent acting for the school board rather than to the board itself, the Commissioner held that the teacher cannot be deprived of a "vested right" to salary. Docherty at 300. Similarly, in Anson, the Commissioner ruled that teachers acquired vested rights at the time that the board of education "notified each petitioner of his salary for the 1970-71 school year." Anson, at 640. In Rivers v. Mercer Cty. Area Vo-Tech. Schs, 1984 S.L.D. 102 (Comm'r Jan. 17), the Commissioner declared that once a school board, through the signatures of its president and board secretary on the payroll, had fixed and paid petitioner's salary, the board had no authority to reduce it.

When the business administrator notified Ms. DeLyon of the 1994-95 salary, he was only implementing the Board's instructions. Moreover, the Board actually paid her at the higher amount for the entire 1994-95 school year. Indeed, the only action which may have been unauthorized by the Board was the business administrator's unofficial action to reduce her salary in 1995-96 to correct a prior administrative error. See Stockton v. Trenton Bd. of Educ., 210 N.J. Super. 150, 157 (App. Div. 1986).

Additionally, the Board argues that it may reduce petitioner's salary because the mistake was due, in part, to her own negligence. Several cases have stated that a school board cannot require reimbursement of monies "paid in error through no fault of the employee," Kalapos, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d at 432, or due to an error for which the employee was "in no way responsible," Galop, 1975 S.L.D. at 364, or for a mistake "not of [the employee's] making." Anson, 1972 S.L.D. at 640. But this language is mere dicta. Respondent has not cited a single case in which a salary reduction was allowed because of a staff member's participation in the error. Nevertheless, the approach is fully consistent with the concept of tenure. Surely a teacher would be subject to tenure proceedings for obtaining money by fraud or false pretenses. As noted above, Ms. DeLyon acted truthfully in all her dealings with her employer, and the Board acknowledges that it is unable to prove otherwise.

This does not mean, of course, that a school board is powerless to rectify its obvious mistakes. There is, however, an unfortunate lack of precision about the appropriate remedy available to a district in such circumstances. A few of the cases allow a school board to freeze a staff member's salary until the salary on the negotiated guide reaches the point where his or her salary level surpasses the level erroneously fixed by the board, but preclude a board from separately seeking reimbursement of past overpayments. Markot v. East Brunswick Bd. of Educ., 1988 S.L.D. 10 (Comm'r May 9), rev'd on other grounds, Dkt. No. 26-88 (St. Bd. Aug. 2, 1989). Trenton Educ. Ass'n, supra. See also, Kalapos, at 432. According to the Commissioner's reasoning, the proper procedure "is to hold the salary level in place, not to reduce it through deductions." Markot, 1988 S.L.D. at 11. Hence, the goal "is not to allow the board to recoup every penny erroneously paid out," but to preserve existing salary until the employee's training and experience catches up with his place on the guide. Id.

Some of the cases seemingly envision that the excessive salary may continue for only the balance of the current school year or possibly until expiration of a multi-year contract. Illustratively, in Galop, the Commissioner did not allow the district to recover the prior overpayment of a staff member placed on the wrong step of the guide for 1973-74, but added that "petitioner has no residual entitlement to such a favored position beyond the end of her 1973-74 contract." Galop, at 364. Accord, Gerity v. Woodbridge Bd. of Educ., 95 *N.J.A.R.*2d (EDU) 522 (Comm'r Sept. 12, 1995). Similarly, in Stockton v. Trenton Bd. of Educ., 1987 S.L.D. 512, 521 (Comm'r), on remand from the Appellate Division, the Commissioner ruled that a tenured teacher incorrectly placed on the salary guide may not be subject to corrective action "during a given school year." In support of this apparent limitation on tenure rights, the Commissioner cited comments of the State Board in the unpublished decision of Conti and Cutler v. Bd. of Ed. of Montgomery, (Comm'r June 10, 1985), rev'd (St. Bd. July 2, 1986):

> [A]lthough an affected teacher is entitled to rely on a board's official action establishing his salary for a one year period, he is not entitled under the school laws to benefit further from the board's mistake by maintaining such favored position beyond that one year period. 1987 S.L.D. at 522.

None of these cases clearly articulate why a diminution in salary implemented in a subsequent year would not constitute a "reduction in compensation" within the meaning of the tenure statute.

Still other cases contemplate the more expansive remedy of letting a school board freeze future salary payments until the board has fully recovered any losses. For example, in Cerato v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 94 *N.J.A.R.*2d (EDU) 248, 250 (Comm'r Feb. 1, 1994), the Commissioner upheld an administrative law judge's conclusion that a board may freeze a teacher's salary "until it recoups an inadvertent ministerial overpayment[.]" Or, as the Commissioner said in Trenton Educ. Ass'n, the real issue is not whether a board should be entitled to reimbursement, "but merely a question of when the money would be repaid." (Emphasis in the original). 1986 S.L.D. at 2435.

It would be helpful if the State Board provides some clarification of this confusing area for future guidance. In the meantime, the remedy most faithful to the dual objectives of protecting a teacher's tenure rights and preventing misuse of public funds is to allow a school board to freeze a tenured employee's salary until such time as the corresponding step on the salary guide is reached and the board has recovered any overpayments. If this method is used, the teacher will not suffer any immediate deduction that might be construed as a reduction in compensation. Equally important, the public will eventually be compensated for any salary payments which exceed the teacher's entitlement under the negotiated agreement.

Order

It is ORDERED that Ms. DeLyon's annual salary remain frozen at $53,464 until a teacher of comparable training and experience would receive that level based on the negotiated salary guide and until the Board has recovered all overpayments resulting from her incorrect placement on the guide.

And it is further ORDERED that the Board pay $1,494 to Ms. DeLyon to reimburse her for improper deductions during the 1995-96 academic year.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Feb. 27, 1997
DATE

Ken R. Springer
KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ

Receipt Acknowledged:

Feb. 28, 1997
DATE

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Mailed to Parties:

MAR 3 1997
DATE

Barbara A Harned
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

al

APPENDIX
List of Witnesses

1. Carol de Lyon, Old Tappan public school district

2. Raymond Albano, former superintendent of schools, Old Tappan public school district

List of Exhibits

No.		Description
J-1	Id.	Copy of memo to instructional staff from James P. Verbist regarding 1992-93 salary, dated September 8, 1992
J-2		Copy of memorandum to instructional staff from James P. Verbist regarding 1993-94 salary, dated September 7, 1993
J-3	(a)	Excerpt from minutes of meeting of the Old Tappan Board of Education held on June 20, 1994
	(b)	Copy of 1994-95 teacher salary guide, approved June 29, 1994
J-4		Copy of letter to instructional staff from Gary J. Grembowiec regarding 1994-95 salary, dated September 6, 1994
J-5		Excerpt from minutes of a meeting of the Old Tappan Board of Education held on June 19, 1995
J-6		Copy of letter to Carol de Lyon from Gary J. Grembowiec, dated September 1, 1995
J-7		Copy of letter to Carol de Lyon from Gary J. Grembowiec, dated September 20 1995

J-8 Copy of letter to Gary J. Grembowiec from Carol J. de Lyon, dated September 20 1995

R-1 Copy of agenda for orientation day general meeting, dated September 1, 1994

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1102-96
AGENCY DKT. NO. 435-11/95

CAROL DE LYON,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF OLD TAPPAN, BERGEN COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:
	:

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Both petitioner and the Board submitted timely exceptions to the initial decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. To the extent these submissions essentially reiterate arguments raised before the ALJ, they are not recounted herein.

Petitioner asserts that the ALJ's initial decision "turned the law upside down," (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 2) in that he directed that the Board freeze her salary at $53,464 until such time as she would, by her training and experience, receive that level based on the negotiated salary guide and "until the Board has recovered all overpayments resulting from her incorrect placement on the guide." (Initial Decision at p. 9) Here, petitioner asserts that the law clearly provides that a tenured teaching staff member may not have her salary reduced, having been paid at a salary rate above her place on the salary guide. (Petitioner's Exceptions at p. 2) Reviewing the case law presented to the ALJ in her post-hearing brief, petitioner concludes that

> The decision of the ALJ would hold [her] on the salary guide behind her actual salary for several years in order to allow for recoupment. The Commissioner has allowed recoupment only when there was an agreement between the parties to repay the increment withholding or a change in position, none of which apply herein. (Id. at pp. 8, 9)

Thus, petitioner urges the Commissioner to reverse that portion of the initial decision which requires that "after [she] receives money back from the Board of Education, she must then repay that same money to the Board." (Id.)

The Board contends that tenure laws need not be implicated in this matter, as the "error was correctable based upon mutual mistake of fact." (Board's Exceptions at p. 1) The Board asserts that the mistake was not unilateral, and, once discovered, the remedy of correcting the salary should be permitted under ordinary contract law principles. (Id.) Thus, the Board concludes that no payment should be due petitioner and the parties should be allowed to be on "equal footing" as soon as possible. (Id.)

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, and having accepted the credibility determinations and findings of the ALJ, the Commissioner determines to accept in part, and modify in part, the initial decision of the ALJ.

First, the Commissioner states his concurrence with the ALJ's conclusion that the Board's reduction of petitioner's salary in the 1995-96 school year constituted a reduction in compensation which violates the statutory protections of tenure law. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. (Initial Decision at p. 5) Thus, the Board must reimburse petitioner for the amount of the improper deductions.

Second, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ that there is ample support in case law, under similar circumstances where a Board has erroneously overpaid a tenured staff member, to freeze the staff member's salary at the erroneous level,[1] until such time as petitioner's salary on the negotiated salary guide equals or surpasses that which she is being paid. However, the Commissioner declines, under the circumstances herein, to direct the local board to maintain its freeze until it "has recovered all overpayments resulting from her incorrect placement on the guide" (Initial Decision at p. 9, emphasis added), thus, permitting a dollar-for-dollar recoupment by the Board.

On this issue, the Commissioner finds instructive the State Board's language in Markot, 1989 S.L.D. 3043, aff'd N.J. Superior Court, Appellate Division, December 24, 1990, A-345-89-T5. In that case, the board discovered its overpayment error approximately one month after it set Markot's salary at the erroneous level and, subsequently, determined to recoup the amounts overpaid by means of deductions from Markot's paycheck. The board and Markot, through a collective bargaining agreement, resolved that Markot's salary would be readjusted to the "erroneous" amount, but frozen at that amount until the overpayment was recouped. The board then reimbursed Markot for the deductions it had made. After settling with Markot, the board and the association negotiated a new salary agreement which would have entitled Markot to receive more than what he was receiving under the terms of his agreement with the board. In August 1988, Markot filed a petition before the Commissioner of Education seeking a determination under the education laws that the board could not maintain the freeze on his salary when it was required to compensate him in accordance with the new collective agreement, as of February 1988, when the salaries of teaching staff members were increased by moving them to the next step on the guide. Markot at 3044. In reversing the decision of the Commissioner of Education, the State Board primarily held that "Markot had resolved his controversy through grievance procedure and could not then resort to the State Board to interpret the Education Law in his favor." Markot, Appellate Division Slip Opinion at p. 6. However, the State Board added,

[1] In the instant matter, $53,464.

> While we pass no judgment whether continued payment at the lower amount after February was in violation of the terms of the collective agreement, Petitioner had no entitlement under the education laws to the increase in compensation provided for by that agreement. In this respect, we emphasize that, as amended, the minimum salary provisions of the education laws do not entitle teaching staff members receiving more than the minimum salary required by statute to automatic salary increases. N.J.S.A. 18A:29-5 et seq. In that Petitioner had no entitlement under the education laws to the salary increase provided by the collective agreement and in that his salary payment was not reduced from the amount established by the grievance settlement, continuation of payment at that amount after February 1988 did not constitute a reduction in compensation within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. (emphasis added) Markot, 1989 S.L.D. 3043 at 3046, 3047, aff'd Appellate Division, December 24, 1990, A-345-89-T5, Slip Opinion at p. 6.

The Appellate Division highlighted the State Board's passage, and agreed. (Id.)

Thus, in light of the State's Board's interpretation, as affirmed by the Appellate Division, the Commissioner cannot reject that portion of the initial decision permitting total recoupment by the Board on the grounds that it offends a tenured employee's rights under education law. Rather, the Commissioner finds that, inasmuch as the parties agree that the error resulted from a mutual mistake,[2] they should be made to share the cost of the mutual error, however innocent or inadvertent. In this regard, the Commissioner notes that he is not unmindful of the fact that public monies are involved in this matter.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the ALJ is adopted in part and modified in part. The Board is hereby ordered to pay petitioner $1,494 to reimburse her for the improper deductions in the 1995-96 school year, and to continue to freeze petitioner's salary at $53,464,

[2] Petitioner states, "We submit that what occurred was a mutual mistake, innocent on both sides." (Petitioner's Post-hearing Brief at p. 3) Additionally, the Board notes that one of the issues presented herein is whether, "based on the facts and circumstances of this case, that the mutual mistake of the parties as demonstrated at the hearing, removes this matter from the ordinary application and interpretation of the tenure statutes previously adopted by the Commissioner of Education in similar cases." (Board's Post-hearing Brief at p. 1) until the Board has recouped one-half of the total amount representing overpayments to petitioner.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

APRIL 14, 1997
DATE OF MAILING APRIL 15, 1997

183-97

EDU #1102-96
C # 183-97
SB # 48-97

CAROL DE LYON, :

PETITIONER-CROSS/APPELLANT, :

V. : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF OLD TAPPAN, BERGEN COUNTY, : DECISION

RESPONDENT-APPELLANT. :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, April 14, 1997

For the Petitioner-Cross/Appellant, Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen (Nancy I. Oxfeld, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Rand, Algeier, Tosti & Woodruff (Robert M. Tosti, Esq., of Counsel)

Carol De Lyon (hereinafter "petitioner"), a tenured teaching staff member, filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education alleging that the Board of Education of the Borough of Old Tappan (hereinafter "Board") had reduced her salary during the 1995-96 school year in violation of her tenure rights. Due to a clerical error, the Board had erroneously placed petitioner on the wrong step of the district's negotiated salary guide for the 1994-95 school year. The petitioner should have been placed on Step 15 of the column applicable to teachers with a bachelor degree, which entitled her to an annual salary of $51,970. Instead, the Board incorrectly placed her on Step 15 for teachers with 15 or more graduate credits, which provided her with a salary of $53,464. Consequently, the petitioner received $1,494 more in 1994-95 than she was entitled to receive under the negotiated guide.

FEB. 2, 2000

In September 1995, the school business administrator notified petitioner of the error and advised her that her salary for the 1995-96 school year would be reduced to $51,970. In addition, he gave her the option of either reimbursing the Board immediately for the overpayment from 1994-95 – $1,494 – or by having regular deductions taken from her paychecks until the full amount of the overpayment was recouped. The Board made no further attempt to collect the overpayment made in 1994-95 and restored petitioner's salary to $53,464 in 1996-97 pending the outcome of this case.

Petitioner challenged the Board's action, contending that it could freeze her salary at the higher level until the salary guide caught up to that level but was prohibited by the tenure laws from reducing her salary. The Board countered that petitioner had failed to verify her correct salary in 1994-95 and, therefore, was equally responsible for the mistake. It filed a counterclaim seeking restitution of its loss.

On February 27, 1997, an administrative law judge ("ALJ") determined that the Board's action in reducing petitioner's salary in 1995-96 had violated her tenure rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. The ALJ concluded that:

> the remedy most faithful to the dual objectives of protecting a teacher's tenure rights and preventing misuse of public funds is to allow a school board to freeze a tenured employee's salary until such time as the corresponding step on the salary guide is reached and the board has recovered any overpayments. If this method is used, the teacher will not suffer any immediate deduction that might be construed as a reduction in compensation. Equally important, the public will eventually be compensated for any salary payments which > exceed the teacher's entitlement under the negotiated agreement.

Initial Decision, slip op. at 8.

