REPORT.

OFFICE OF
INSPECTOR OF FACTORIES AND WORKSHOPS,
TRENTON, N. J., October 31st, 1899.

Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, Governor of the State of New Jersey:

SIR—I have the honor to submit herewith the Seventeenth Annual Report of the Inspector of Factories and Workshops for the year ending October 31st, 1899.

Among the most important duties of this department is the inspection and supervision of child-labor and the enforcement of the compulsory school law in connection therewith.

The importance of a rigid enforcement of the laws relating thereto will be manifest by a statement of their provisions. They provide generally that all children between the ages of seven and twelve years, unless excused for proper cause or otherwise instructed, shall be required to attend a public day-school for a period of at least twenty weeks of each year, eight weeks of which shall be consecutive; that no boy under the age of twelve years, nor any girl under fourteen years of age, shall be employed in any factory, and that no child under the age of fifteen years, unless such child shall have attended within twelve months immediately preceding such employment some public day or night school or private school, such attendance to be for five days or evenings every week during a period of at least twelve consecutive weeks; that no child under the age of fourteen years shall be employed in any factory, etc., for a longer period than ten hours in a day or sixty hours in one week, except in certain defined conditions.

The thousands of children employed in the factories and workshops of this State makes the proper enforcement of the above-mentioned laws at once a matter of the greatest importance.

The assumption of our laws is that the highest intelligence is the greatest good to the entire people. Ignorance is dwarfing to the individual and dangerous to society. The State assumes that the physical, mental and moral treasures, embraced in what we call childhood, are so much capital, belonging to the community as well as to the parents, and it has been well said that the State undertakes to provide for, invest, develop and look after the childhood treasure in such a way that it will pay the highest dividends to the Commonwealth. No distinction of outside conditions, whether it be wealth or poverty, race or birth, can be allowed to interfere with the purposes of the State; she claims the right and responsibility of providing a good common-school education for every child within her borders at the public expense, and to that end the laws above stated are made by the Legislature and are sought to be enforced by this department.

From an examination of the annexed report it will be seen what conditions have been found by this department, the difficulties encountered, and what has been done looking to an enforcement of the laws relating to this subject.

So long as there shall be parents whose necessities seem to compel them to seek employment in the mills and manufactories for every member of their family who is able to work, so long will the existence of the night school be an absolute necessity. But we should not stop there, and in this direction I must again renew my recommendations that, wherever possible, especially in those localities where factories are idle in the summer, as in some industries, that there should be established the summer school for children, thereby enabling them to procure the education which will the better fit them for the duties of useful and honorable manhood and womanhood.

In order that the work of the department may be as effective as possible, I ask in this connection the continued co-operation of all parents and guardians as well as that of all employers of labor.

Another important function of this department is the supervision of bakehouses and the enforcement of cleanliness where food-products are manufactured. It has been the desire and purpose of this department to see that the law was complied with in every particular, and it has succeeded to the extent that the bakeries of New Jersey have attained a higher standard for cleanliness than ever before, and, as this directly concerns the health and welfare of all, I solicit the advice and the co-operation of the general public.

I have endeavored, in the year last past, to give especial attention to factory machinery likely to endanger the lives of employes and to see to it that all hatchways and elevators in factories and public buildings are properly guarded so as to best ensure the safety and protection of human life. In this matter I have, almost without exception, received the cheerful co-operation of the employers and owners of the premises inspected.

Whatever success has been attained by this department during the year last past has been in a great measure due to the faithful work of the Deputy Inspectors—Mr. Lewis H. Barrett, of the First District; Mr. Joseph Milburn, of the Second District; Mr. William B. Tucker, of the Third District; Mr. Willam H. Dod, of the Fourth District; Mr. John Hunter, of the Fifth District, and Mr. George W. Taylor, of the Sixth District—and to my Clerk, Mr. Elliott G. Moody, and I desire in this way to acknowledge their very effective service.

Very respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. WARD,
Inspector.

SECOND DISTRICT.

Department of Factory and Workshop Inspection of the State of New Jersey.

NOVEMBER 6th, 1898, to OCTOBER 28th, 1899.

Hon. John C. Ward, Chief Inspector of Factories and Workshops:

SIR—I respectfully submit my annual report for the year ending October 31st, 1899. I am pleased to state that employers of labor whose factories and shops come under my inspection manifest a readiness to comply with the law, and extend to me gentlemanly courtesy in my duties. In the manufacturing centers in the upper part of the State there is a lack of night-school facilities that seriously interferes with the enforcement of the school law.

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH MILBURN,

Deputy Inspector Second District.

THIRD DISTRICT.

Department of Factory and Workshop Inspection of the State of New Jersey.

NOVEMBER 6th, 1898, to OCTOBER 28th, 1899.

ELIZABETH, N. J., December 18th, 1899.

Hon. John C. Ward, Chief of the Department of Inspection of Factories and Workshops, State of New Jersey:

DEAR SIR—I herewith respectfully submit my annual report of inspections for the Third District. It is gratifying to be able to state that none of the conditions, which were found and reported in the early stages of the department work, exist now. The prominent law abiding characteristic of our people is an important factor responsible for the change, and the many instances coming under my notice of a disposition of employers to exceed the requirements of the factory laws is a recognition of their beneficent purpose and mutual advantage. I have had several cases reported to me of the employment of children, but on careful investigation and many inquiries I have not found a child in factory employment under the legal age. These reports or complaints came from all classes of people, and in all cases were promptly investigated. They doubtless were made without a knowledge of the legal age limit. Though in error, there is compensation in the appreciation of the interest shown in the department work. An investigation of each of the accidents to employes mentioned in my report leads to the inference that in no case could the responsibility be charged to the negligence of the employer. Appealing to self interest, I have been able to accomplish much improvement, where it was required, in the condition of the bakeries throughout my district. In many instances where the cost of betterments would entail hardship on those in position of tenants, I have secured the co-operation of the landlords, and a ready compliance with orders and suggestions has been gained without friction or annoyance. The enforcement of the compulsory education law rests more with the police authorities than with the factory inspector, from the fact of their continued presence in the several localities and the direct authority with which they are invested; but the co-operation of the inspector enlarges the scope of the work. The act to provide for the payment of wages in lawful money of the United States every two weeks, passed last winter, affects only a few concerns in this district, namely, a few of the brick-yards and terra-cotta works, and one felt mill. As the wage payments in these concerns are always made with cash, and the opportunity given employes to draw money as needed, the act has not the advantage here that is indicated elsewhere; particularly, as I have found many instances where monthly payments have enabled employes to save money and provide themselves with homes of their own. A copy of the law has been served in all cases required, and a readiness to comply with it has been universally shown.

During the year I have been able to visit thirty-six towns and villages not previously found in the reports, and investigated places giving employment to more than four thousand hands. Throughout the entire district there is abundant evidence of prosperity and contentment which is greatly in contrast with the conditions prevailing and noted in these reports within a few years past. To you, sir, I am indebted for your counsel, support and encouragement, and extend to you my sincere thanks. With an increased interest in the work and a better knowledge of its requirements, we may hope for still better results in the coming year.

Very respectfully yours,

WM. B. TUCKER,

Deputy Inspector Third District.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

Department of Factory and Workshop Inspection of the State of New Jersey.

NOVEMBER 6th, 1898, to OCTOBER 28th, 1899.

HOBOKEN, N. J., December 26th, 1899.

Hon. John C. Ward, Chief Inspector :

SIR—I respectfully submit my report for the year ending October 31st, 1899. I am pleased to announce that with few exceptions I have found the mills, factories and workshops in this district in very good condition, and that the owners and superintendents are very courteous and also desirous of complying with the factory laws. In all mills, factories and workshops where children of school age are employed, without any exception, they insist upon their employes attending evening schools. There has been but two accidents during the year and they were such that could not be guarded against. The bakeshops are also improving. Where heretofore most all of them were in basements, I have found a good many buildings above ground.

Yours respectfully,

WM. H. DOD,

Deputy Inspector Fourth District.
