

NOTICE TO THE BAR

FOURTH ANNUAL ATTORNEY WELL-BEING PROGRAM THURSDAY, MAY 28, 2026, AT 1 P.M.

Under the leadership of the Supreme Court Committee on Wellness in the Law, the Judiciary invites judges, attorneys, and other members of the legal community to attend the Judiciary's Fourth Annual Attorney Well-Being in Law Program on Thursday, May 28, 2026, from 1:00 p.m. to approximately 3:00 p.m. This program will be presented in hybrid real-time format with limited on-site in-person seating at the Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex in Trenton and remote attendance via Zoom Webinar.

This year's program will feature judges and attorneys from a range of practice settings who are strong advocates for well-being in the legal profession. Presenters will share practical strategies they have implemented to promote and sustain work-life balance within their chambers, offices, and firms, including approaches to supporting colleagues, setting sustainable expectations, and continuing to foster well-being in legal workplace cultures.

Advance registration is required for both the in-person and virtual formats. Two CLE credits in ethics/professionalism once again will be available through the Judiciary Diversity, Inclusion & Community Engagement Program (Provider #1720).
