Rutgers Provides Hope for Navigating a Life Beyond Bars (<https://youtu.be/mBDI-baiL8E>)

Rutgers Behavioral Health Care's Intensive Recovery Treatment Support (IRTS) program was launched in January 2018 in partnership with the New Jersey Department of Corrections and Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services. The program pairs the peer health navigators with current inmates who have a history of opioid abuse. Six months before the prisoners' release, they form a bond and develop a plan to help them re-enter society and stay clean and sober.
