Governor Whitman to Teach State History to Fourth Grade Class in Holmdel

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will teach New Jersey history to a fourth grade class at the Indian Hill School in Holmdel, keeping a promise to volunteerism that she made during her State of the State address in January.

In celebration of Earth Week, the Governor will also visit the James A. McFaul Environmental Center to hike with third grade students from Gantner School in Elmwood Park. This wildlife sanctuary offers nature programs and workshops, a boardwalk, nature trails, memorial gazebo, and natural science exhibits for the use of its visitors.
