LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Honorable Thomas H. Kean, Governor of the State of New Jersey, and the Legislature of the State of New Jersey.

The Annual Report of the Division of Taxation in the Department of the Treasury is herewith respectfully submitted, pursuant to the provisions of R.S. 54:1-13. It covers activities of the Division of Taxation during the State fiscal year ending June 30, 1985. The Report contains detailed description of Division organization and activities, all taxes administered by the Division and tables showing revenue collections, distribution of a variety of "shared" taxes, summaries of recent tax legislation and court decisions, County and State Abstracts of Ratables, and State School Aid Table of Equalized Valuations. In addition, the Report contains useful and valuable statistical tables showing state tax revenue growth, state and local taxes as a percent of personal income and other informative economic and tax information.

REVENUES

Tax collections for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1985 attained a new high of $7.2 billion, an increase of $608.8 million or 9.2% over tax collections of the previous year. The main ingredients of the increase were the Gross Income Tax and Sales Tax. Details of the Division's revenue collections are shown in Table 1. In addition to Gross Income Tax collections of $1.94 billion, they reflect Sales Tax of $2.26 billion, Corporation Tax of $980.3 million and Motor Fuels Tax of $296.2 million. It should be noted that the Local Property Tax levy totaled $5.5 billion.

NEW JERSEY, NEW YORK AGREE TO HISTORIC SALES TAX PACT

Acting at the direction of Governors Thomas H. Kean of New Jersey and Mario Cuomo of New York, the tax administrators of the two states on June 6, 1985, announced that they have worked out a plan to jointly collect and administer sales and use taxes across their states' borders.

When embodied in a formal agreement to be signed later, the plan would permit each state to collect the other state's use tax, and local taxes, on many goods purchased out-of-state.

The use tax is a substitute for the sales tax on property acquired out-of-state and shipped to the purchaser across the state line. In many cases, the purchaser's state may not legally require the out-of-state seller to collect the tax. The purchaser is liable to pay, but both state tax officials concede this rarely happens.

Major elements of the general principles agreement include:

- Businesses registered under the joint program will collect tax on items shipped to the other state if those items are taxable in both states. When a tax is imposed, it will be at the rate of the state and locality to which the goods are delivered.
- Businesses registered under the joint program will file returns only in the state in which they are located. Each state will then remit to the other the funds it has collected for its neighbor.
- Participation by a business in the joint program will be voluntary. A business choosing not to collect tax for the state into which it is shipping would be subject to each state's administrative and legal action.
- The two states will share all information on a comprehensive basis.
- Businesses registered under the joint program would be subject to a single audit by taxing authorities. (Businesses separately registered are now subject to audits by both states.)

STATE TAX POLICY COMMISSON FORMED

A Tax Study Commission, chaired by former State Treasurer Kenneth Biederman has been created in accordance with P.L. 1984, c. 213 (approved December 17, 1984.) The members of this Commission were appointed by the Governor, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the General Assembly. The commission is undertaking a comprehensive examination of existing state fiscal policy, the present and future revenue requirements for providing essential services at all levels of government, the various established mandated state spending formulas and the role of the various levels of government in raising revenues and providing services.

The commission is to report its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature together with any legislative bills which it may desire to recommend for Legislative adoption.

This Commission has the potential for the beginning of significant changes in the structure of our government at every level.

INHERITANCE TAX PHASEOUT BEGINS UNDER NEW LAW

Inheritance tax on the transfer of property to a husband or wife of a decedent is eliminated retroactive to January 1, 1985, under P.L. 1985, c. 57 (approved February 17, 1985). The tax remains in effect on transfers to the husband or wife of a decedent through December 31, 1984.

On transfers of property to a father, mother, grandparent, child or children of a decedent, the inheritance tax will be imposed as follows:

- Through June 30, 1985, the tax on the amount inherited in excess of $15,000 remains in effect;
- Effective July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1986, no tax will have to be paid on the first $50,000 inherited;
- Effective July 1, 1986, through June 30, 1987, no tax will have to be paid on the first $150,000 inherited;
- Effective July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, no tax will have to be paid on the first $250,000 inherited;
- On and after July 1, 1988, the tax is eliminated.

The tax remains in effect without change through June 30, 1988, on transfers of property to a brother or sister of a decedent, wife or widow of a son of a decedent, or husband or widower of a daughter of a decedent. Effective July 1, 1988, no tax will be imposed on the first $15,000 inherited by these relatives.

This act also provides that the Director of the Division of Taxation shall prepare and transmit to the Governor on or before October 1, 1986, and on or before October 1 annually thereafter, a report concerning the taxation of property transferred under the Transfer Inheritance Tax (R.S. 59:34-1, et seq.). The report will be in such a manner as to facilitate an evaluation of the comparability of this State's inheritance tax structure to other selected states and shall include information that will enable an evaluation of the tax liability for gross and taxable estates. The report shall also include observations and recommendations concerning the taxation of property transfers under the Transfer Inheritance Tax.

The act is effective immediately and shall be applicable to transfers of property on and after January 1, 1985.

THREE NEW TAXES LEVIED ON SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL

On February 4, 1985, the Solid Waste Management Act was amended by P.L. 1985, c. 38, which provides for the imposition of three new taxes on the owners and operators of all New Jersey sanitary landfill facilities. The Solid Waste Services Tax, the Resource Recovery Investment Tax and the Solid Waste Importation Tax will all take effect on May 1, 1985. The three new taxes are in addition to the Solid Waste Recycling Tax and the Landfill Closure and Contingency Tax, both imposed since January 1, 1982, on all New Jersey sanitary landfills that accept solid waste for disposal.

Effective for the taxable month of May 1985 and each taxable month thereafter, all sanitary landfill taxes will be reportable on one Consolidated Sanitary Landfill Tax Return (Form SLT-5).

The Solid Waste Services Tax is levied on the owners and operators of every sanitary landfill facility on all solid waste accepted for disposal at the initial rate of $0.50 per ton of solids and $0.002 per gallon of liquids.

The revenue collected from the Solid Waste Services Tax will be deposited in the Solid Waste Services Tax Fund to be administered by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection.

The Resource Recovery Investment Tax is levied on the owners and operators of every sanitary landfill facility on all solid waste accepted for disposal at the initial rate of $1.00 per ton of solids and $0.004 per gallon of liquids.

Revenues from the Resource Recovery Investment Tax are deposited in the Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund, established in the New Jersey Department of Treasury and distributed to each county's District Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund to be used solely for the purposes prescribed by law.

The Solid Waste Importation Tax is levied on the owners and operators of every sanitary landfill facility that accepts out-of-district solid waste for disposal. This tax is imposed at the initial rate of $1,000 per ton of solids and $0.004 per gallon of liquids.

Revenues generated by the Solid Waste Importation Tax are deposited in the Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT LEGISLATION

C. 261, P.L. 1985, approved July 31, 1985 amends the Cigarette Tax Act by providing that the tax rate for a package of 25 cigarettes is 2.5 times the rate for 10 cigarettes.

C. 142, P.L. 1985 allows net operating loss carryforwarding against the Corporation Business Tax for seven years following the net operating loss. It is effective for taxable years ending after June 30, 1984 and was approved on April 22, 1985.

C. 225, P.L. 1985, approved July 2, 1985 increases the Realty Transfer Fee for "consideration" greater than $150,000 and dedicates the proceeds to low and moderate income housing.

ACR-130, approved by the voters on November 6, 1984, creates the Transportation Trust Fund and dedicates 2.5¢ per gallon of taxed motor fuel to this fund, for the construction, reconstruction, repair and rehabilitation of the state's transportation system.

C. 200, P.L. 1985 (approved June 26, 1985) implements the provisions of another resolution approved by the voters on November 6, 1984 by allowing a person qualified for the senior citizen deduction and the veteran deduction to receive both.

C. 304, P.L. 1985 approved August 25, 1985 allows homeowners and renters to deduct property taxes paid from their New Jersey gross income for Gross Income Tax purposes. It also makes refundable the present $65 tenant credit. It is effective beginning the 1985 tax year.

AUDIT AND ENFORCEMENT RESULTS

Some tangible results of our audit and enforcement program follow:

Collections of overdue tax liabilities primarily involving criminal and civil proceedings increased $1.1 million: from $42.9 million in 1984 to $44.0 million in 1985.

Office Audit assessments totaled $53.3 million.

Field Audit assessments amounted to $49.4 million.

CONCLUSIONS

This has been another banner year for Division's collections which total $7.2 billion, an increase of over $600 million from the previous fiscal year. It is another sign of "good times" for the New Jersey economy.

The Division has continued its effort in efficient tax administration with the historic sales tax agreement to be signed by New York's Governor Cuomo and Governor Kean. This bi-state pact will assist the Division in preventing evasion of New Jersey Sales Tax on out-of-state sales. This agreement will bear fruit in future increases in sales tax revenue.

The members of the Tax Study Commission have been appointed and is ably chaired by former State Treasurer Kenneth Biederman. The Division is dedicated to maximum cooperation with the newly created commission and is ready to furnish pertinent tax information, both quantitative and qualitative. When required, Division's key personnel will be made available for testimony and assistance. It is anticipated that the Tax Study Commission will make substantial recommendations towards a resolution of state and local tax problems and burdens.

Finally, despite attrition of permanent personnel, our effectiveness continues at a high level. Incorporation of new data systems into the organization has resulted in a leaner but a more efficient operation. In this regard, we thank the dedicated taxation employee who has been able to acquire new skills and respond to the challenge of computer oriented work environment.

Respectfully submitted

John R. Baldwin
Director
Division of Taxation

CHAPTER I

DIVISION ORGANIZATION

HISTORY

The Division of Taxation is headed by a Director appointed by the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate to serve until a successor shall be appointed and qualified.

Effective September 1970, the Division was reorganized along functional lines replacing an arrangement based upon ten bureaus, each responsible for a single tax or a group of taxes. Further refinements developed during 1977 when the Division was reorganized to distribute its activities among three assistant directors. These activities include: Audit, Processing/Administration and Special Procedures/Investigations. A description of these activities and fiscal year accomplishments are detailed in Chapter 2.

TAX ADMINISTRATION

Tax administration involves collection activities by State, county and municipality. As the State tax administrative agency, the Division exercises varying degrees of responsibility for taxes collected at all levels. These include:

Tax Collection: Administration of all taxes collected by the State for State and local purposes except boxing, T.V. and wrestling, parimutuel racing, motor vehicle licenses and fees, outdoor advertising and motor fuels use tax.

Services to Local Taxing Districts: Supervision of local assessment standards and procedures, administrative services to local districts and County Boards of Taxation, examination and approval of local tax maps, compilation and reporting of statistical data, preparation of equalization tables, and certification of assessors.

The Division also exercises certain police functions with regard to administration of fair trade practice requirements under the "Unfair Cigarette Sales Act" (C. 247, P.L. 1952) and "An Act To Regulate The Sale of Motor Fuels." (C. 258, P.L. 1952).

TAX COLLECTIONS

Collections by the Division during fiscal year ended June 30, 1985 totaled $7.2 billion or 95.6% of all major State Tax collections within and outside the Division. This represented an increase of $608.8 million, or 9.2% over fiscal 1984. The $7.2 billion collected included $936.7 million for payment to local governments for their direct support. This 13.0% of Division collections represented $158.7 million of personal property replacement taxes (save-harmless), $1.6 million of financial business taxes, $14.5 million of (Corporation Business Tax) Banking Corporation Taxes, $685.0 million for Public Utility Franchise and Gross Receipts Taxes, $60.0 million for local assistance funding and $16.9 million in Insurance Franchise Taxes. Except for Revenue Sharing and Senior Citizen and Veteran Deductions ($115.0 million), amounts distributed to each county and municipality are shown in Appendix III.

SERVICES TO LOCAL TAXING DISTRICTS

The Division supervises and coordinates local property tax procedures in the 21 counties and 567 local taxing districts. Local Property Tax collections totaled $5.5 billion representing an increase of $342.5 million over the previous year. This compares with $7.2 billion in major State tax collections. State responsibility for tax collections was 56.7%.

The Division also administers the Homestead Rebate Tax Program and provides rebate checks (totaling $300.0 million in 1985) to eligible homeowners within each taxing district. It apportions $50 million of general revenue sharing to taxing districts together with reimbursement for veterans and senior citizen deductions ($65.0 million 1985).

STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities of the Division arise under the following statutory provisions:

CHAPTER II

ACTIVITIES OF THE DIVISION

The Division is organized into three major activities, namely; Audit, Processing/Administration and Special Procedures/Investigations.

AUDIT

Audit Activity involves office and field audits together with back up services and facilities for review and conference audit results. Research and Statistics, Transfer Inheritance, Public Utility and Miscellaneous Tax Branch are also included under this Activity.

Field Audit Assessments

Additional taxes assessed as a result of field audits amounted to $49.4 million during fiscal 1985.

Out-of-State audit program assessments totaled $8.1 million.

Office Audit Assessments

A variety of audits completed by eight audit groups, seven in Trenton and one in Newark resulted in $53.3 million in additional taxes assessed during fiscal 1985.

Hearings and Conferences

During fiscal 1985, 1,029 hearings were held involving assessments of $43.6 million. In these cases, collections of $26.0 million were effected and downward revisions in liability of $17.6 million were determined justified on the basis of fact and law.

Audit Review

All field audits as well as all other field assignments such as bulk sales, certificate of debt, and internal revenue adjustments are subject to review by a central audit review unit.

During fiscal 1985, this unit processed 2,328 field audit files and levied 2,494 deficiency assessments totaling $68.4 million in taxes, penalties and interest.

Audit Adjustments

Approximately 2.1 million claims resulting in $281.9 million in refunds were processed during the year.

The total amount of tax collections from billings sent to delinquent taxpayers amounted to $24.6 million.

Selection and Service

This Branch establishes criteria for the selection of audits, services audit assignments, conducts subjectivity matters and operates a Word Processing Center. During fiscal 1985, audit selection activity produced $8.0 million in tax revenues.

Audit Selection

Audit Selection is responsible for assignment of all audits, both field and office, encompassing all taxes administered by the Division. It also administers the Sales Tax Direct Payment Permits Program and statistical analysis of completed assignments.

During 1985, of 6,301 audits completed by field and office audit groups, 3,640 resulted in assessments of additional tax due in the amount of $40.0 million.

Audit Service

Audit Service controls all audits from date of assignment to date of completion and supplies all necessary support information.

During fiscal 1985, it handled 15,776 files, posted 1,567 assessments and processed 1,896 checks.

Word Processing

Word Processing performs such functions as typing records and processing information and data as a result of the workload provided by the operations of the selection branch and other activities within the Division.

During fiscal 1985, this operation processed over 434,000 items.

Subjectivity

This section is responsible for the discovery of businesses acquiring a taxable status in this State but failing to file returns. It also administers the Corporation Income Tax and the Notice of Business Activities Reporting Act.

During fiscal 1985, Subjectivity produced $7.3 million in tax revenues and added 1,200 new taxpayers to the files.

RESEARCH AND STATISTICS

The Division engages in continuous study of tax programs and their results. In addition to current analysis, this requires constant monitoring of data originating within the Division and in all kinds of governmental units as a basis for review and appraisal of such programs. Anticipation of future development and administrative requirements is necessary to facilitate smooth adjustment to changing circumstance.

Tax Studies

The Division completed work on several comparative tax studies this year. A Division analysis of all states' corporate tax laws in easily understandable terms is being adapted by the state Department of Commerce for use in attracting business to New Jersey. Other studies include: analysis of impact of individual and corporate tax laws for New Jersey and surrounding states, specific comparisons of individual tax laws between New Jersey and New York and between New Jersey and Pennsylvania for use by the Division of Economic Research in the Department of Commerce and Economic Development, studies of the impact of Governor Kean's proposed rebate program, various legislative proposals to reform taxes, and in-house studies on options to increase or reduce revenues. These appeared in addition to the Division's annual publications.

Publications

The following publications are available annually:

Average Assessment/Sales Ratios by Taxing District-By Property Class

Average Real Estate Tax Bill by Taxing District-By Property Class

Owner Occupied Housing Statistics from Homestead Rebate and Income Tax Data Match

Statistics of Income.

Revenue Estimating and Economic Forecasting

Budget preparation for each fiscal year requires projects of revenues for a year beginning ten months after the first estimates made in September and extending to 21 months thereafter together with attendant projections of general economic conditions. Periodic conferences are held with the Division of Budget and Accounting to maintain timeliness.

TRANSFER INHERITANCE TAX

A new form is available making it easier for surviving spouses to obtain the release of bank accounts, stocks and bonds held with or by a spouse who died on or after January 1, 1985.

Surviving spouses merely have to sign the Form L-7, also known as a "spousal waiver" form to obtain release of funds held jointly with rights of survivorship. Signing the form at a bank or for a stock transfer agent would waive the freeze the state places on the assets of the decedent immediately after his or her death.

Until now, surviving spouses were required to file an inheritance tax return and obtain a waiver of the freeze from the Division before they could obtain the assets of their decedent spouse.

PUBLIC UTILITY TAX

Adoption of a public utility excise tax for State use (C. 41 and C. 42, P.L. 1963) had the effect of bringing a function of tax administration and collection to an activity which was traditionally involved only in valuation and apportionment functions. Addition of the Excise Tax involved an additional computation and assessment of taxes paid directly to the State for State Use.

Public Utility Franchise Taxes and Gross Receipts Taxes are now collected by the State for distribution to municipalities. (P.L. 1980, Chapters 10, 11, & 12).

MISCELLANEOUS TAX BRANCH

This Branch is responsible for auditing and enforcement in regard to the administration of the Cigarette, Motor Fuels, Alcoholic Beverage and Public Utility Taxes.

Total assessments of $27.1 million were made during fiscal year 1985.

As part of the consolidation of organizational functions, a reduction in the number of motor fuel distributors' licenses have been effected. The reduction in licenses will improve the effectiveness of the compliance program.

As part of the new compliance program, the audit/investigation functions have been combined to effect a more comprehensive approach to the program of tax evasion. As part of the interstate compliance program, the Branch has been actively involved in a multistate approach to the tax evasion problem.

PROCESSING/ADMINISTRATION

Processing and Administration Activity is responsible for processing tax returns and forms, deposit of receipts, & all administrative functions. Local Property Tax Branch is also included under this activity.

ADMINISTRATION

This Activity is divided into three sections; namely: Management Services, Manpower Resources & Development & Systems & Methods.

MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Property and Records

This section is responsible for the safe and efficient operation of all property occupied by the Division. This includes floor space on six of the ten floors of the Taxation Building, the entire Mill Hill Processing Center and Annex, two warehouse facilities in the City of Trenton, and nine field offices located in Northfield, Cherry Hill, Fair Lawn, Newark, Randolph, Sea Girt, Somerville, Vineland and Hamilton Township in the Trenton area.

The section also operates the Division's records management program. This involves the inventory and storage of literally millions of filed tax returns in such a manner to ensure their retrieval as needed or destruction in accordance with official criteria.

Budget and Fiscal

Budget activities include planning, preparation, and execution of four separate budgets on an annual basis. Individual budgets include: Processing/Administration, Special Procedures/Investigations, Tax Audit Services, and the Property Tax Relief Fund.

The Budget and Fiscal Section is responsible for all purchasing and vendor accounts payable for the Division as required, and the processing of overtime incentive payrolls, vendor invoices, travel expense invoices and all procurement documents.

In addition, this Section acts as liaison between the Division of Taxation and the Division of Administration and the General Services Administration (GSA) with respect to budgetary and fiscal activities.

Set-Off Individual Liability (SOIL)

The SOIL PROGRAM was implemented during fiscal 1982. The purpose of this system is to provide State Agencies with another avenue of collecting debts owed by individuals by "setting-off" those debts against Gross Income Tax returns and/or Homestead Rebates which might otherwise be payable to those individuals.

During the calendar year 1984 cycle, twenty-four (24) State Agencies submitted approximately 265,000 debtor names. Over 74,000 of these people filed requests for Gross Income Tax refund and/or Homestead Rebates which were intercepted and sent to the appropriate agency. The affected refunds and rebates totalled $7.5 million.

For the calendar year 1985 cycle, agencies have submitted approximately 253,000 debtor names to the SOIL PROGRAM. Based on early projections, the Program is expected to generate at least $8 million in collections this year.

Since the inception of the SOIL Program in 1982, a total of $21.3 million has been set-off to participating agencies.

Mail Services

Mail Services is responsible for proper handling of a large volume of forms, documents, etc., for the entire Division. It also performs mail service for several other state agencies. During 1985, Mail Services processed over 13 million pieces of outgoing mail and over 10 million pieces of incoming mail.

MANPOWER RESOURCES & DEVELOPMENT

Personnel

Under the operating jurisdiction of the Treasury Administration Division and the New Jersey Department of Civil Service. Manpower Resources and Development Branch has as its major function the supervision of a complete program of management services for Taxation employees. These activities include recruitment, compensation, selection, promotions, transfers, leaves of absence and retirements. Significant work is regularly performed in the technical area of position classification, job evaluations and benefits administration and employee relations and grievance appeals.

In-Service Training

Another major function of the Manpower Resources and Development Branch is the design and implementation of all Division Training and Development activities. Training efforts and allocated funds for training have increased substantially in 1985. With the implementation of TULIPS, approximately 750 employees received in-service training in the system within the work place. On going training and development efforts are intensive and designed to meet a wide variety of needs. Programs have been developed on topics as diverse as career upward mobility and awareness seminars; in-service training for the Audit Activity; Orientation programs for newly hired Investigations staff; customized computer literacy instructions for middle and upper level management personnel; and many other areas where professional growth needs are recognized. The Division is in the initial planning stages of a remedial skills training program for the disadvantaged segment of the workforce who are in need of basic literacy skills. Taxation's goal will be to provide skills training in the basic competency areas so that these employees can learn to perform better on the job and become aware of opportunities for career advancement.

SYSTEMS & METHODS

Systems and Methods acts as liaison between the Office of Telecommunications and Information Systems (OTIS), other state and federal agencies, and the end users of data processing resources within Taxation, aids in the automated and manual systems design required by new legislation and recommends and evaluates new technological concepts for the Division. Systems and Methods has the general responsibility for the design and specification of all New Jersey tax forms, site inspection of prospective vendors and overall form quality assurance.

In addition the branch supplies technical support, evaluates suggestion awards, performs special project work and maintains numerous management information reports.

Within the Division of Taxation requests for data processing services are prioritized by either the Systems Review Board or the Small Projects Priority Committee. Before this prioritization the Systems and Methods branch reviews requests for technical soundness and overall Division desirability. During 1985, a total of 104 such requests were evaluated.

Systems and Methods participated in the change and the design of many systems during the year due to a quantity of legislative issues and law changes. Included in this group are the Corporation Tax, Urban Enterprise Zone, Inheritance Tax, Solid Waste Services, Resource Recovery Investment and the Solid Waste Importation Tax systems.

Continuous effort is expended to refine and improve existing systems. For example, during the year the Corporation Tax System was modified to allow computerized addition of new corporations which previously required manual updating.

Numerous hardware and software evaluations were conducted during the year including data entry systems and software, word processing equipment, and a wide range of microcomputers, peripherals and software. Systems and Methods is taking the lead within Taxation in the field of microcomputer utilization.

Systems and Methods participated in several large projects during the year. Substantial effort was devoted to the Work Flow Analysis project which reviewed and revised work procedures to maximize compatibility with TULIPS (Taxation Unremitted Liability Inventory Plotting System).

A Local Property Tax Sales Ratio project was begun during the year which will automate the year end processing.

A substantial effort on the part of Systems and Methods was expended in the continued development of the TULIPS system. Primary participation was supplied through the Steering Committee, a policy making group, the Interface Committee, a group charged with the responsibility of smoothly blending TULIPS with existing tax systems, and the Quality Assurance Committee, a group used to review system test data. In addition to these, Systems and Methods supplied assistance in the selection of equipment and the preparation of training materials. Responsibility for the TULIPS Help Desk, a service offered to assist users, was also transferred to Systems and Methods during the year.

TULIPS

The Taxation Unremitted Liability Inventory Plotting System (TULIPS) became an operational system for Division personnel during the second half of the 1985 fiscal year. This on-line system provides many automated tools for the Division's employees responsible for collecting unpaid or unreported taxes that are identified through regular operating procedures or through audit of a taxpayer's records.

TULIPS is a comprehensive on-line integrated system for recording, tracking and controlling cases involving unremitted liabilities from the time the delinquency or deficiency is identified until full payment is received for all tax, penalty and interest due. The system interfaces with the computerized tax administration systems for the major business taxes to assure that the necessary enforcement steps are taken on every delinquency and deficiency identified.

The system also provides automated case assistance features to the Division's management and staff. These features include the following:

1. A notification subsystem that produces letters to taxpayers following an on-line request.
2. The ability to request files or returns through an on-line research subsystem.

3. Numerous management reports covering collections, case activity, and individual production records.
4. Workloads that are prioritized based upon a potential revenue estimate.

PROCESSING

This activity is responsible for centralized Division services including tax returns and checks, requests for forms, legal questions, general correspondence regarding taxpayer accounts, application for licenses, Homestead Rebate applications, license fees, and others.

Except for Transfer Inheritance and Local Property and Public Utility Taxes, this Branch processes all tax returns. It also acts as liaison with the Bureau of Data Processing in the control of taxpayer identification, registration, billings, and adjustments to taxpayer accounts.

Returns Files Section

The Returns Files Section is presently maintaining files for six different taxes: Gross Income, Sales, Corporation Business, Emergency Transportation, Business Personal Property and Beverage.

During the 1985 fiscal year, over 8.0 million returns were added to the files. More than 621,000 requests for files and returns were completed.

Returns Processing Section

Returns Processing's functions include the extracting, screening, coding, and numbering of tax returns as well as the distribution of miscellaneous mail to appropriate sections within the Division. Over 9.1 million pieces of mail were received during 1985.

More than 95% of all checks received were deposited in the bank on the day received.

Revenue Accounting Section

The Revenue Accounting Section is responsible for the accounting records for all the tax revenues received by the Division of Taxation.

Checks are deposited daily and transmittals of income are forwarded to the Division of Budget and Accounting via the on-line computer for the Agency Accounting System.

Daily, weekly, monthly, fiscal year and special revenue and statistical reports are prepared by this section for the taxes processed at the Mill Hill Processing Center. This section also monitors the setting of Cigarette Tax meters at Division of Taxation district offices and authorized meter setting banks at various locations. Cigarette Tax stamps (decals) are also sold from this office.

The division revenue accounts are reconciled to the Department of Treasury Financial Information System on a monthly basis.

Data Input and Control Section

This section is responsible for controlling all computer input and output data generated by processing of tax forms and related documents. It contains two units:

1. Data Capture Unit—Handling input required to service all computer programs including cash verification, tax return editing and billing, delinquencies, field investigation assignments, audit selection, identification, microfilm and the Cash Receipts Accounting System which involves the input of checks and cash receipts.
2. Data Input and Output Control Unit—Control of source documents and input and output involves maintenance of control ledger delivery of hard copy reports and microfilm, and liaison with Accounting Section and Bureau of Data Processing. With more than 300 separate computer programs and their applications, volume runs into the millions of entries.

Data Perfection Section

The primary function of this section is to analyze, interpret and correct computer rejections and the preparation of data input for corrective action.

During fiscal 1985, this section handled 581,541 edit errors.

Deposit Preparation Section

This section prepares all checks and cash receipts for bank deposit representing payments for tax returns, billings, licenses, etc. It also maintains liaison with Depository Banks, and Division of Budget and Accounting. During fiscal 1985, approximately 4.9 million checks and cash transactions were deposited.

Central Identification Section

Central Identification maintains the Unified Taxpayer File containing appropriate information regarding taxpayer accounts. It consists of six units as follows:

1. Changes—Completed over 174,000 changes to the master file.

2. New Registration—Coded and examined 53,694 applications and processed 6,000 "New Corporation Control Forms" and 10,854 "Changes to Corporation Identification."
3. Correspondence—Typed and mailed more than 238,000 pieces of correspondence and tax returns.
4. Edit—Produced more than 187,000 corrections to Taxpayer Identification and Cash Records.
5. Data Input—Entered over 341,000 changes and added over 59,000 new accounts to the Unified Taxpayer File. All additions and changes are immediately available to all users of the system throughout the Division.
6. Licenses and Registrations—Issued 58,052 licenses for Cigarette, Motor Fuels and Alcoholic Beverage Taxes.

LOCAL PROPERTY TAX

Local Property Taxes produced 43.3% of New Jersey State and Local Taxes collected during fiscal 1985. Continuing progress is evidenced by recent development of statewide standards for County Tax Board rules and regulations. Chapter 499, P.L. 1979 established the office of County Tax Administrator and otherwise provided for the strengthening of the state and professionalization of county board of taxation.

Principal activities include: implementation of standards dealing with County Tax Board rules and regulations, revaluation contracts, certification of assessors, and tax maps; preparation of annual Table of Equalized Valuations and tax abatement statistics; assistance to local property tax administrators; administration of farmland assessments, realty transfer tax, homestead rebates; apportionment to local taxing districts of revenue sharing, personal property replacement, and in lieu payments of state owned property; and services to other departments and individuals.

Revaluation and Reassessment

Revaluation and reassessment programs are of primary importance in attaining uniform local property tax assessments and are given continual attention. Between 1951 and 1985, 560 local taxing districts undertook 1,506 such programs by professional revaluation firms. In 1985, 42 taxing districts implemented a revaluation.

Chapter 424, P.L. 1971 requires the Division to establish standards to be used in valuation and revaluation for assessment purposes, and to prescribe minimum qualifications for firms and individuals engaged in such activity. The Director must approve any contract for this purpose and must determine that the contractor meets prescribed qualifications. During fiscal 1985, 39 contracts and/or specifications were approved.

Certification of Assessors

Chapter 44, P.L. 1967 requires each taxing district to be served by a certified assessor, and as many Deputy Tax Assessors as a municipality determines to be necessary. During fiscal year 1985, the Division held two Assessor Certification Examinations. A total of 85 candidates completed this examination in fiscal year 1985.

Of the 1,513 persons who have been issued a tax assessor certificate since inception of the program, 400 are presently in office, 83 are Deputies, 472 are no longer in office, 52 are on an assessor's staff, 386 have no connection with an assessor's office, 115 are deceased, 3 have had their tax assessor certificates removed, and 13 are out of state residents.

Of the 567 municipalities in New Jersey, 540 have a certified Tax Assessor, 3 have a non-certified tax assessor, 16 have assessors who hold office by statutory provisions allowing anyone who has held office as assessor on a continuous basis since July 1, 1967 to continue in office. 107 certified Tax Assessors and Deputies serve more than one taxing district. Eight municipalities have vacancies.

102 Positions of Deputy Tax Assessor have been authorized of which 83 are filled by persons holding a tax assessor certificate. Eight Deputy Tax Assessors are not certified and 11 fall under the same statutory provisions mentioned above.

Tax Maps

New Jersey law (Chapter 18, P.L. 1918 and Chapter 167, P.L. 1939) provides for the preparation of "maps for purposes of taxation in all taxing districts," except townships having populations under 2,500. The Director is responsible for approval of such maps and may direct a municipality in its preparation (N.J.S.A. 40:146-29).

Chapter 424, P.L. 1971, requires inspection of an up-to-date tax map prior to approval of any revaluation contract. Since 1972, 135 taxing districts have developed completely revised tax maps and 418 have existing maps judged current and usable.

Tax maps have never been approved in 18 taxing districts, including those that are not required to have a map, 340 districts have approved tax maps more than twenty years old, and the remaining 209 have maps approved between 1965-1985. Some of those not approved recently are maintained on the basis of current specifications.

County Tax Board Rules and Regulations

Subsequent to adoption of uniform rules and regulations governing County Boards of Taxation (C. 119, P.L. 1973), the Director, in cooperation with members of the County Boards, maintains constant review to keep them current with changes in law and practice. Chapter 499, P.L. 1979 establishes the office of County Tax Administrator.

Equalization Table

Each year the Division publishes a Table of Equalized Valuations showing the average ratio of assessed value to true value of real estate in each of the 567 local taxing districts. This table is certified to the State Commissioner of Education pursuant to Chapter 86, Laws of 1954 (N.J.S.A. 54:1-35.1) for use in calculating and distributing State school aid. Equalized valuations are also the basis for apportioning county taxes among local taxing districts and for apportioning the tax cost for a large number of regional school districts among component taxing districts. Equalized valuations are also the basis for measuring debt limits for local governmental units.

The ratio of assessed valuation to sales price is calculated for each usable sale and all are classified into four groups (vacant land, residential, farm, other¹). An overall district average weighted ratio is calculated for all classes as a weighted average of separate ratios calculated for each class. This district weighted ratio is applied against assessed value of the district to determine aggregate "true value."

"True value" is averaged with true value for the preceding year after adjustment for "added and omitted assessments." This averaging has the two-way advantage of avoiding abrupt changes in ratio from year to year and avoiding undue influence of inadequate samples of sales of a single year.

The average ratio of assessed value to true value of all real estate in 1985 was 68.6%.

The table of Equalized Valuations promulgated October 1, 1985 shows that the aggregate assessed valuation of the real property in the State totaled $164.2 billion and the aggregate true value totaled $239.3 billion. Total equalized valuation increased from $213.9 billion in 1984 to $241.6 billion in 1985, an increase of $27.7 billion, or 12.9%.

¹Other properties are subclassified into commercial, industrial and apartments for statistical purposes.

NOTES:

1. Regular farms (land and improvements) are valued by the same standard as other taxable property. Qualified farms (land only) are assessed on basis of agricultural use only upon application of owner.
2. Number of line items cannot be interpreted as the number of farms, some farms encompass more than one line item.

Farmland Assessment

The "Farmland Assessment Act of 1964" (C. 48, P.L. 1964) provides for preferential assessment of land—"actively devoted to agricultural or horticultural use," at its value for such rather than market value. Unit values for various types of farmland are jointly determined with the Department of Agricultural Economics and Marketing, Rutgers University.

In 1985 there were 38,925 "line items" of qualified farm assessments comprising 1,266,165 acres or 26.35% of total State area. Although large in area, these farmland assessments represent .20% of the entire property tax base.

Water Pollution and Air Pollution Tax Exemption

N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.56 et seq. and N.J.S.A. 13:1D-7 provide for exempt status of certain air and water pollution control equipment, facilities and devices upon certification by the State Commissioner of Environmental Protection. Ratables exempted under these laws total $41,809,651.

Solar Energy Exemption

Chapter 256, P.L. 1977 provides for the exemption of certified solar heating and cooling systems from real property taxation. The local construction code official is responsible for the certification of such systems when found to be designed primarily as solar heating and cooling systems.

Under the Act, the exemption amount is defined as the difference in the assessed value of the property with and without the certified solar system. Ratables exempted under this law totaled $1,913,340.

Business Personal Property

Effective in 1968, all business personal property except that of telephone, telegraph, and messenger system companies was removed from local tax rolls (C. 136, P.L. 1966). A personal property tax replacement program was designed to distribute State collected revenue to municipalities. A "save-harmless" measure assured municipalities of no less than the greater of their business personal property taxes in 1964, 1965, 1966 or 1967 (C. 135, P.L. 1966). Any excess revenues obtained from four replacement tax sources over the "save-harmless" requirement is distributed to all municipalities pursuant to a formula (N.J.S.A. 54:11D-4). The "save-harmless" amount of $106,835,188 was exceeded in 1975-1976 by $51,868,646.

Repeal of most replacement taxes was accompanied by legislation providing annual appropriation of not less than $158,703,834, the amount certified on October 15, 1976 (C. 3, P.L. 1977). C. 4, P.L. 1977 provided for the repeal of the business personal property tax on all business machinery and equipment acquired on or after January 1, 1977.

"In Lieu" of Tax Payments

Chapter 272, Laws of 1977 provides for payments to municipalities for local services "in lieu" of taxes on certain State-owned property.

The law provides that eligible State-owned property shall not include property used or held for future use for highway, bridge or tunnel purposes nor shall it include property which is qualified under another State law for any other payment "in lieu" of taxes.

Exempt Property Lists

Legislative provision for payment in lieu of tax revenues to taxing districts for services rendered to state owned exempt properties placed added emphasis on continuing efforts to attain realistic assessment for all exempt properties. Annual lists of exempt property valuations are compiled.

Assistance to County Boards of Taxation

Close contact with the 21 County Boards of Taxation is maintained by correspondence, telephone, and by visits to the field staff. During the year 11,072 calls were made by the staff for this purpose. Division staff meets monthly with the Executive Committee of the New Jersey Association of County Tax Board Commissioners and County Tax Administrators to discuss problems and plans of the County Boards and assessors. It is through such close cooperation that uniform implementation of new or amended legislation and procedures is developed and maintained.

Assistance to Local Assessors

Division field staff maintain regular contact with local assessors to provide direct assistance in solving day-to-day administrative problems. Specialized assistance is provided in the case of property exemptions, deductions, Homestead Rebate problems and introductory training for new assessors.

During the year the field staff was responsible for overseeing the processing of 227,093 SR-1A's of which 98,292 were determined to be usable for development of the Director's Ratio. In the process of assisting assessors in carrying out the duties of the office. 18,119 calls were made and 37 new assessors provided introductory training by field staff personnel. There were 24,404 SR-1A's referred to the field in order to determine the usable/nonusable status for sales ratio purposes.

Assessor Training

Since 1954 the Division has co-sponsored annual in-service training courses for assessors conducted by the Bureau of Government Research at Rutgers, The State University, at strategic locations throughout the State. The Division supplies some of the instructors for courses, is represented on the planning committee and participates in the annual Rutgers Conference for Assessing Officers, The New Jersey Real Property Appraisal Manual, The Handbook for New Jersey Assessors and the Assessors Law Manual are the primary textbooks used in all in-service training courses.

Real Estate Appraisals

An Appraisal unit is maintained for assistance to assessors in appraisals of special purpose or other properties of unusual character. During fiscal 1985, assistance was given in 66 municipalities on 196 separate properties having an appraised value of $431,700,405. Valuation data are accumulated as a basis for developing improved property assessment standards for local assessors. In addition to appraisals for assessors, appraisal assistance is often rendered to other state agencies. Appraisals, where necessary, are also prepared in conjunction with the valuation of state owned property reported by taxing districts under Chapter 272, Laws of 1977.

Data Processing For Local Tax Roles

Assessment records for all taxing districts are produced and maintained using a data processing system developed by the State.

Full implementation of the New Jersey Property Tax System (MOD IV) enables county boards of taxation to accomplish mechanically a variety of tasks formerly requiring extensive manual effort.

Homestead Tax Rebate

A Homestead Tax Rebate calculated at $1.50 per $100 to $10,000 of equalized value, or two-thirds of equalized value, whichever is less, plus 12.5% of the effective tax rate in the municipality wherein the rebate is claimed, multiplied by $10,000 of equalized value or two-thirds of equalized value whichever is less is mailed to each qualified homeowner in New Jersey. (C. 72, P.L. 1976).

Approximately 1.5 million rebate checks totaling $300 million were mailed to taxpayers on or before July 15, 1985. The average rebate was $195.66. Senior citizen homeowners (65 or older), disabled, or surviving spouses, (55 or older) received an additional $50.

State Revenue Sharing

A State Revenue Sharing Fund was established in 1976.

Distribution of the revenue from this fund is made to all municipalities with an effective tax rate in excess of $1.00 per $100.00 in true valuation in proportion which the qualifying municipality bears to the total population of all municipalities in the State according to the most recent State population estimates published by the New Jersey Department of Labor except in the year of a promulgated Federal decennial census in which event the Federal census will be used.

Railroad Tax

Public Utility administers the Railroad Property Tax and Franchise Tax and determines the amount of State aid payable to taxing districts in lieu of Class II railroad property taxes.

Declining reliance upon railroad taxes due to economic and other changes has created a condition of "phasing out." All railroad taxes are presently collected by the State. Local taxing districts receive payments in lieu of railroad property taxes based on 1966 adjusted valuations. State payments under such formula substantially exceed the amount of railroad taxes collected.* Railroad owned property not used for railroad purposes is assessed and taxed locally.

SPECIAL PROCEDURES—INVESTIGATIONS

The Special Procedures and Investigations Activity is concerned primarily with problem taxpayers and legal matters. It also provides a wide range of taxpayer information.

SPECIAL PROCEDURES

This Branch deals mainly with the collection of overdue tax liabilities but is also responsible for recommending taxpayers for criminal and civil proceedings.

Bankruptcies

The primary function of the Bankruptcy Section is to submit Proofs of Claim to federal and state courts relative to insolvency matters.

The Bankruptcy Section received 7,566 notices of insolvency resulting in 2,129 Proofs of Claim. The difference between the number of notices received and the number of Proofs of Claim represented those notices indicating that the business had no assets and/or was not indebted to the Division.

The assessed value of claims amounted to $13.2 million. Collections totaled $5.4 million.

Bulk Sales

The Bulk Sales Section is responsible for examining tax records of each business which disposes of its assets, either by Sales, Transfer or Assignment, other than in the normal course of business.

Bulk Sale Notices are required under provisions of the Sales and Use Tax Act, the Business Personal Property Tax Act and the State Uniform Commercial Code. The Section processed 2,574 Bulk Sale Notices resulting in collections of $3.2 million.

Condemnations & Foreclosures

During the fiscal year, 431 tax searches relative to Condemnation and Foreclosure proceedings produced assessments resulting in total collections of $55,882.00.

Deferred Payment Control

The Deferred Payment Control Section monitors monies received by the Special Procedures Branch under installment payment plans. This Section realized revenue of $8.4 million from 819 accounts during the fiscal 1985.

Judgments

The Judgment Section collects overdue liabilities from taxpayers who neglected or refused to pay taxes and/or file returns through normal channels. The principal statutory remedy invoked is the filing of Certificates of Debt with the Clerk of the Superior Court. During fiscal 1985, the Judgment Section processed 6,505 files and collected $13.8 million. It also issued 3,796 Certificates of Debt in the amount of $53.5 million which were docketed as Judgments in the Superior Court.

Liens, Levies & Seizures

During fiscal 1985, 2,450 cases were investigated resulting in the filing of 1,710 Warrants of Execution in the 21 County Clerks' offices throughout New Jersey. In conjunction with this operation, field investigators of the Liens, Levies & Seizures Section seized the assets of 186 various enterprises in order to induce taxpayer compliance.

This section produced revenue of $7.7 million during fiscal 1985.

Proclamations

"Proclamation lists" of domestic and foreign corporations which are delinquent in the payment of Corporation Business Tax and/or filing of Corporation Business Tax returns are certified to the Secretary of State for the purpose of voiding domestic corporate charters and revoking authority of foreign corporations to do business in New Jersey. Special notices and warnings are issued and every effort is made to collect delinquent returns and taxes before voidance or revocation occurs.

The charters of 13,894 domestic corporations were proclaimed void during the year. Collections of $723,092 were realized.

Reinstatements

Reinstatement of voided corporate charters may be instituted by petition to the Secretary of State. Petitions for Reinstatement will not be fully executed without the certification of the Director of the Division of Taxation to the Attorney General that all tax returns have been filed and all taxes paid. During fiscal 1985 this section processed 899 files for reinstatement of corporate charters. Total assessments were $3.1 million and collections totalled $2.8 million.

The difference between assessments and collections represents adjustments of estimated amounts contained in original assessments to reflect subsequently determined actual liabilities due.

INVESTIGATIONS

The Investigations Branch performs various investigative functions including the securing of tax returns from delinquent taxpayers, collecting tax liabilities, examining licenses and registrations, registering new businesses, detecting state tax law violations and recommending criminal prosecution cases involving all taxes. Listed below are the various functions within the Investigations Branch.

Branch Office Field Groups

Investigators are assigned to six branch offices located throughout the State. In 1985, they completed 15,786 assignments resulting in total collections of $19.4 million. Collections processed through the field office taxpayer service function amounted to $42 million. Additional temporary taxpayer service offices were filled to give taxpayers a better understanding of their responsibilities under the various tax statutes.

With the implementation of Taxation Unremitted Liability Inventory Plotting System (TULIPS) the field investigation offices will have another tool to aid in the enforcement of the various tax statutes.

Contact and Control Section

The Contact and Control Section has undergone a series of changes during fiscal 1985. The most significant change occurred as a result of the TULIPS system.

The Contact and Control Section is presently being restructured to grow with TULIPS and is evolving into a viable "Control Section" for Special Procedures and Investigations. While maintaining responsibility for a Research Unit and a Mail Delinquency Unit, the Control Section generates, monitors, and reviews assignments of all six field offices.

During the fiscal year, the section processed all delinquency mail returned and revenue received resulting from compliance programs. The Research Unit handles requests for detailed taxpayer information to assist with Field Assignments and the Control Unit forwards assignments to the field offices and processes assignments returned from the field offices.

The Control Section also responds to any special requests received from the field offices or Division Management in an effort to maintain the integrity of our collection and enforcement activities.

Motor Vehicle Casual Sales Section

The Casual Sales Section reviews and processes information received from the Division of Motor Vehicles to determine whether the proper amount of tax was paid on the transfer of a motor vehicle or a boat from one individual to another.

Assessment letters are mailed to individuals involved in transfers that appear to have an additional liability. Field assignments are generated for follow-up and collections by the branch offices when necessary.

This section also examines exemption certificates forwarded to the Division of Taxation by Motor Vehicle dealers and collects Sales Tax on any that are proven to be invalid.

During the year, 73,542 letters were mailed to taxpayers resulting from the sales of motor vehicles and boats. Total collections amounted to $.9 million.

Disorderly Persons Unit

This unit, formed during fiscal year 1984, is responsible for the initiation of charges in courts of local jurisdiction against chronic delinquent taxpayers failing to file sales tax returns and remit sales tax payments timely. During this fiscal year, a total of 615 cases were adjudicated resulting in the collection of $1.2 million.

TAX COUNSELOR SECTION

Tax Counselor Section provides answers to technical or complicated inquiries from any taxpayer or the public regarding taxes administered by this Division. It also drafts rules and regulations and gives internal advice to other units regarding questions or issues which arise under the laws administered by the Division. In cooperating with the Office of the Attorney General, it acts as liaison with respect to the Division's litigating position in tax appeals and in the process of requesting an opinion of the Attorney General. It also coordinates the Division's activities with regard to information given to the public. This public information function is accomplished through impact statements and written responses to rule comments when rules are proposed or adopted to implement provisions of tax laws, and less formally in the form of questions and answer booklets, tax return instructions and the State Tax News.

Taxpayer Services

Taxpayer Services provides assistance to New Jersey taxpayers through a diverse array of programs, enhanced by ongoing computerization, that are aimed at various segments of the population (i.e., new residents, senior citizens, new businesspersons, retailers, etc.). Information on all taxes and programs administered by the Division was dispensed by Taxpayer Services personnel, who answered more than 575,000 telephone calls and responded to over 2,500 inquiries by letter during fiscal 1985.

Personal tax assistance was rendered at 8 walk-in district offices located throughout the State, with over 17,000 inquiries responded to at the Trenton location alone. Taxpayers also received assistance at an additional 11 temporary offices during the income tax season.

Taxpayer Service personnel trained over 900 volunteers through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance/Tax Counseling for the Elderly (VITA/TCE) programs. These volunteers provided assistance to their fellow residents at over 400 sites statewide. Reference materials, including a comprehensive New Jersey Income Tax Coursebook and several newsletters, were provided to volunteers to aid them in their efforts. These services to the community were recognized by Governor Thomas Kean in a proclamation designating January 1 to April 15 as Volunteer Income Tax Assistance days. Technical tax and procedural training was also provided to seasonal Division employees and permanent staff members.

The Small Business Seminar Program continued to meet the need of new businesspersons by providing both State and Federal tax information at all-day seminars. Taxpayer Service representatives participated regularly in the Jersey Jubilee, a program sponsored by the Governor's Office that brings State government closer to the people it serves. Speakers were also provided by Taxpayer Services to various professional, civic and community groups.

Publications containing tax information of specific interest to various segments of the populace are prepared and distributed throughout the State. Approximately 9,500 practitioners ordered bulk forms in fiscal 1985 and nearly 80% took advantage of the "Fast Forms" service.

TAX EVASION TASK FORCE

Established during Fiscal Year 1984, the Tax Evasion Task Force has responsibility for the detection, investigation and prosecution of criminal violations arising from noncompliance with New Jersey's tax statutes. The Task Force works with the simultaneously created Tax Unit in the Division of Criminal Justice, in the office of the Attorney General and with the twenty-one county prosecutors. The Task Force also maintains a close liaison with the New Jersey District of the Internal Revenue Service and other state and Federal law enforcement agencies.

In its second fiscal year, the Task Force more aggressively used the weapons it has to bring tax evaders to justice by issuing almost 200 subpoenas and executing and assisting in the execution of a number of search warrants.

During Fiscal Year 1985 the Task Force conducted over 400 investigations which resulted in 6 indictments for violations of the tax laws. Guilty pleas were accepted in 6 cases. The courts ordered fines of $247,500, prison terms totalling 7 years, probation of 10 years and restitution of $68,619.31.

Actual civil collections by the Task Force amounted to $206,050.51 with additional assessments of $1,917,406.41 being made during the year.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE TAX

DESCRIPTIONS

Alcoholic Beverage Tax is applied to the first sale or delivery to retailers in New Jersey and is based upon the number of gallons sold or otherwise disposed of in the State. The tax is collected from licensed manufacturers, wholesalers, and State beverage distributors.

HISTORY

After repeal of the 18th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, New Jersey enacted a tax on the sale of malt and vinous liquors effective April 6, 1933. Sales of ale, beer, lager, porter and wine having an alcoholic content not greater than 3.2% were taxed at the rate of $.03 per gallon (C.85, P.L. 1933).

Enactment of the Alcoholic Beverage Tax Act effective December 5, 1933 imposed rates of 3-1/3 cents per gallon of beer and $1.00 per gallon of liquor (C. 434, P.L. 1933).

Tax rate on liquor was increased in 1947 to $1.50 per gallon (C. 18 P.L. 1947); in 1963 to $1.80 per gallon (C.43, P.L. 1963); in 1969 to $2.30 per gallon (C. 52, P.L. 1969); and in 1973 to $2.80 per gallon (C. 52, P.L. 1972).

BUSINESS PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX

Citation: The Business Personal Property Tax Act: N.J.S.A. 54:11A-1—et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Business Personal Property Tax applies to individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations which own tangible personal property used in business in this State. The tax base, referred to as taxable value, is 50% of original cost.

HISTORY

Business Personal Property Tax was adopted in 1966 as part of a Business Personal Property Tax Replacement Program designed to exempt business personalty from local taxation (except business personalty of telephone, telegraph and messenger systems companies). It took effect in 1968 (C. 136, P.L. 1966) and provided for replacement tax revenues to be collected by the State for distribution to taxing districts.

The State-administered Business Personal Property Tax with the exception of this tax upon banking corporations was one of the four replacement taxes which constituted the replacement program. The other replacement taxes were: Corporation Business Tax (1.25% of net income tax base), Retail Gross Receipts Tax and Unincorporated Business Tax.

This program was terminated (C.3, P.L. 1977).

Banking Corporations became subject to Business Personal Property Tax effective January 1, 1975 (C. 170 and 171, P.L. 1975).

Business machinery and equipment acquired on or after January 1, 1977 is exempt from Business Personal Property Tax (C. 4, P.L. 1977).

EXEMPTIONS (54:11A—2(b))

(1) Goods and chattels held as inventory, including raw materials, finished and partially finished products of manufacturers and processors; supplies and materials used or consumed in production, small tools; and goods and chattels held for sale, resale, leasing or to be furnished under contracts of service;

- (2) Goods and chattels so affixed to real property as to become part thereof and not severable or removable without material injury thereto;
- (3) Motor vehicles registered in this State pursuant to Title 39 of the Revised Statutes;
- (4) Vessels for which tax exemption certificates are or have been issued pursuant to the New Jersey Boat Act of 1962 (C. 73, P.L. 1962) as amended and supplemented;
- (5) Goods and chattels used or held for use in business by any person, partnership, association or corporation subject to taxation under Chapter 4 of the laws of 1940, as amended;
- (6) Goods and chattels used or held for use in the business of farming;
- (7) Goods and chattels used or held for use in business by any life insurance company, domestic or foreign, which is subject to a tax on life insurance premiums collected under the provisions of Chapter 132, laws of 1945, as amended; and
- (8) Machinery and equipment acquired on or after January 1, 1977.

RATE OF TAX

CIGARETTE TAX

Unfair Cigarette Sales Act of 1952, N.J.S.A. 56:7—18 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Cigarette Tax applies at a rate per package of 20 cigarettes. The Tax is collected primarily from licensed distributors who receive the cigarettes directly from out-of-state manufacturers. Unless otherwise provided by law, every package of cigarettes must be stamped before being transferred from the original acquirer in New Jersey. Other tobacco products are not taxed.

HISTORY

Effective July 1, 1948, the Cigarette Tax was first imposed at 3¢ per pack (C. 65, P.L. 1948). Provision was made for issuing licenses to distributors, wholesalers, over-the-counter retail dealers and vending machine dealers. Distributors were granted a 5% discount on sales of stamps totaling $100 or more as compensation for handling and affixing revenue stamps to cigarette packages before delivery to wholesale or retail dealers. In 1952 the Unfair Cigarette Sales Act was adopted to prevent “unfair competition” and “unfair trade practices” in sales of cigarettes (C.247, P.L. 1952). Also effective in 1952 were increases in license fees; from the original $250 to $350 for distributors and from $100 to $200 for wholesale dealers. The wholesale dealer license fee was increased to $250 in 1971. Effective June 4, 1968, the discount rate became a percentage of the face amount of any sales of 1,000 stamps or more (C. 51 P.L. 1968). Effective June 18, 1982, a surtax of 5% of the wholesale price (minimum 5¢ per pack) was imposed. Effective July 1, 1983, the surtax was increased from 5% to 6%.

Tax rate and discount to distributors have changed as follows:

Effective Date	Rate Per Pack	Discount Rate
July 1, 1948	3¢	5%

EXEMPTIONS

- (1) Sales to the United States Government or its agencies;
- (2) Interstate Commerce sales; and
- (3) Sales to The Veterans Administration for free distribution and consumption by veterans in state hospitals.

RATE OF TAX

12-1/2¢ for each ten cigarettes or fraction thereof (25¢ per pack of twenty cigarettes).

A distributor is allowed a 1.11% discount on the purchase of 1,000 or more stamps or meter impressions.

CORPORATION TAX

(a) CORPORATION BUSINESS TAX

(The Corporation Business Tax consists of Corporation Net Worth and Corporation Net Income Taxes.)

Citation: The Corporation Business Tax Act: N.J.S.A. 54:10A—1 et seq. (C. 162, P.L. 1945 as amended and supplemented).

DESCRIPTION

Corporation Business Tax Act imposes on a "corporation" a franchise tax for the privilege of having or exercising its corporate charter in this state or doing business, employing or owning capital or property, or maintaining an office in New Jersey. The tax is applicable to every corporation, not expressly exempted, falling within any one of the following categories:

- (a) Existing under the laws of New Jersey;
- (b) A foreign corporation,

- (1) Holding a general certificate of authority issued by the Secretary of State;
- (2) Holding any other authorization to engage in corporate activity within New Jersey issued by any other State Agency;
- (3) Doing business in New Jersey;
- (4) Employing or owning capital or employing or owning property in New Jersey;
- (5) Maintaining an office in New Jersey.

The tax is measured by that portion of the corporation net worth (or other alternative net worth tax bases) and net income allocable to New Jersey. The tax applies to Net Worth and/or Net Income for the firm's accounting period (calendar year or fiscal year), or any part thereof during which the corporation has a taxable status within New Jersey.

HISTORY

Corporation Business Taxes date back to 1884 when a franchise tax was imposed upon all domestic corporations. Between 1884 and 1946, the franchise tax was based upon the total amount of capital stock issued by the taxpayer and outstanding as of January 1 of each year (C. 159, P.L. 1884).

There was no franchise tax on foreign corporations prior to 1936, when provision was made for an annual tax (C.264, P.L. 1936). This tax was replaced in 1937 (C. 25, P.L. 1937) with a new franchise tax providing for allocation of capital stock of foreign corporations.

Effective January 1, 1946 (C. 162, P.L. 1945), the tax became a net worth tax applicable to both domestic and foreign corporations and measured by net worth allocated to New Jersey. Allocation was measured by the greater of an assets factor or a three-part business factor (property, sales and payroll).

Chapter 88, Laws of 1954 increased the tax on allocable net worth from 8/10 mills per $1 to 2 mills per $1.

Chapter 63, Laws of 1958 amended the Corporation Business Tax Act by adding to the tax based upon allocated net worth a tax at 1-3/4% based upon allocated net income. The 1958 amendment also changed the tax year from a calendar year for all corporations to a privilege period coinciding with the accounting year for each taxpayer.

In 1982, there was enacted into law a measure phasing out the Corporation Business Tax on net worth. The tax will be phased out at 25% per year over a four year period with taxpayers whose accounting or privilege periods begin on or after April 1, 1983 (C. 55, P.L. 1982).

Net Income Tax rates have changed as follows:

Effective Date	Rate Change
January 1, 1967 (C. 134, P.L. 1966)	1-3/4% to 3-1/4%
January 1, 1968 (C. 112, P.L. 1968)	3-1/4% to 4-1/4%
January 1, 1972 (C. 25, P.L. 1972)	4-1/4% to 5-1/2%
January 1, 1975 (C. 162, P.L. 1975)	5-1/2% to 7-1/2%
January 1, 1980 (C. 280, P.L. 1980)	7-1/2% to 9%

Chapter 143 Laws of 1985 allows a carryover of net operating loss as a deduction from taxpayers entire net income. (Approved April 22, 1985)

EXEMPTIONS

- (1) Certain Agricultural Cooperative Associations;
- (2) Building and Loan Association and Saving and Loan Associations;
- (3) Certain Federal Corporations;
- (4) Corporations created under the Limited-Dividend Housing Corporation Law;
- (5) Cemetery Corporations;
- (6) Non-profit Corporations without capital stock;
- (7) Non-stock Mutual Housing Corporations;

- (8) Railroad and Canal Corporations;
- (9) Street Railway, Gas, Light, Power and Other Corporations Using the Public Streets;
- (10) Utilities subject to franchise tax and Insurance Companies subject to premium tax.
- (11) International Banking Facilities.

RATE OF TAX

FIRST, a tax of 9% upon entire net income, or such portion thereof as may be allocated to New Jersey. There is no minimum net income tax.

SECOND, a tax measured by that portion of entire net worth allocated to New Jersey and multiplied by the following tax rates:

On the first $100,000,000 of allocated net worth, 2 mills per dollar; on the second $100,000,000 of allocated net worth, 4/10 of a mill per dollar; on the third $100,000,000 of allocated net worth, 3/10 of a mill per dollar; over $300,000,000 of allocated net worth, 2/10 of a mill per dollar.

Minimum tax is $25 for Domestic Corporations and $50 for Foreign Corporations.

Short Tax Title: In lieu of the tax based on allocated net worth, subject to minimum tax regulations, any taxpayer having less than $150,000 of total assets everywhere may determine its net worth tax liability on the basis of a short tax table.

NOTE: See C. 55, P.L. 1982 which phases out the tax on net worth, repeals certain alternative minimum taxes and repeals net worth indebtedness provisions. See also C. 50, P.L. 1982 which uncouples depreciation for years after 1981.

TAX PREPAYMENT—ESTIMATED TAX

Effective June 19, 1981, Section 15 of the Corporation Business Tax

Act was amended by Chapter 184, P.L. 1981, to provide that, with respect to all fiscal or accounting periods ending on or after December 31, 1980, every taxpayer with a tax liability of $500 or more must make installment payments of its franchise tax.

This law is designed to change from a prepayment method of paying taxes to an estimated basis consisting of four equal payments. The law also provides for attaining the estimated payment procedure over a 4-year period.

The first installment payment is due on or before the 15th day of the 4th month of the taxpayer's current accounting year; the second on or before the 15th of the 6th month; the third on or before the 15th day of the 9th month; & the fourth on or before the 15th day of the 12th month.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL CORPORATIONS

Banking and Financial corporations are subject to the Corporation Business Tax Act at the rate of 9% on net income, plus the tax on corporate net worth of two mills per $1.

Chapter 170, P.L. 1975 provides that during each of privilege years 1976, 1977 and 1978, the amount paid by each banking corporation as taxes shall be the greater of (1) the amount which such banking corporation paid in calendar year 1975 as Bank Stock Tax, or (2) a sum equal to total of taxes paid by such banking corporation as Corporation Business Tax and Business Personal Property Tax.

Formerly banks were subject to a tax of 1.5% on net worth under the Bank Stock Tax Act. Bank Stock Tax was formerly administered by the Division of Taxation and the 21 separate County Boards of Taxation. The corporate tax upon banks is now solely administered by the Division.

Financial business corporations were formerly subject to the Financial Business Tax. These included such corporations as small loan companies and mortgage finance companies which are now subject to the Corporation Business Tax. Financial Businesses not operating in a corporate capacity remain subject to the Financial Business Tax. Both taxes are administered by the Division.

Chapter 171, P.L. 1975 provides that during each of the years 1976, 1977 and 1978, each financial business corporation shall pay as taxes, the greater of a sum equal to the amount such financial business corporation paid under the Financial Business Tax Act in the calendar year 1975, or a sum equal to the total of the taxes payable by such financial business corporation pursuant to the Corporation Business Tax Act. Chapter 40, P.L. 1978 extended the save harmless provision through 1979. It expired in 1980.

INVESTMENT COMPANIES

Investment companies and regulated investment companies are subject to tax under special allocation formulas.

A taxpayer qualifying and electing to be taxed as an Investment Company is subject to an allocation percentage of 25% of the net worth base and 25% of the net income base.

In addition, these Investment Companies are subject to a minimum tax of $250.00 for combined net worth and net income obligation.

“Regulated Investment Company” means any corporation which, for a period covered by its reports, is registered and regulated under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 789), as amended.

The Corporation Business Tax on regulated investment companies was eliminated (P.L. 1983, C. 75), approved on February 24, 1983. Regulated investment companies in New Jersey were formerly taxed on both entire net worth and entire net income. These taxes are now eliminated and a set fee of $250 per year is imposed.

DEFERRED PRE-DISSOLUTION PAYMENT ETC.

Chapter 367, P.L. 1973, approved in 1974, eliminates the requirement for a certificate obtained in case of merger or consolidation involving a domestic or foreign corporation qualified to transact business in New Jersey. It also provides alternatives to actual payment of taxes, or payment on account of such taxes by providing in lieu thereof, for a written undertaking to be given by a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in New Jersey, to pay all taxes when payable on behalf of a corporation which otherwise would have to pay all taxes prior to taking certain corporate actions.

ALLOCATION FACTOR

If the taxpayer had a regular place of business outside New Jersey, its tax liability is measured by:

- (a) net income allocated to New Jersey, according to a formula based on property, sales and payroll; and
- (b) net worth allocated to New Jersey according to the same three factor formula.

FINANCIAL BUSINESS TAX

Citation: The Financial Business Tax Law: N.J.S.A. 54:10B—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Incorporated Financial Businesses became subject to Corporation Tax effective January 1, 1975.

Financial Business Tax continues to apply to any partnership, limited partnership, limited partnership association or any other unincorporated association or individual doing a financial business. The tax is based upon net worth at a rate of 1½% for the privilege of doing financial business in New Jersey.

HISTORY

Financial Business Tax was adopted in 1946 at ¾ of 1% (C. 174, P.L. 1946). Revenue was equally distributed between municipalities and counties.

Rate was increased to 1½% in 1970 and the State became a recipient of revenues (C.9, P.L. 1970). One-half of the tax is for general State use; one-half is distributed equally between the municipality and county in which the taxpayer has a place of business.

Effective January 1, 1975, Incorporated Financial Businesses became subject to Corporation Businesses Tax (C. 171, P.L. 1975). Unincorporated Financial Business continue to be subject to the tax.

GROSS INCOME TAX

Citation: The New Jersey Gross Income Tax, N.J.S.A. 54A:1—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

This is a graduated tax based on income earned or received on or after July 1, 1976 by New Jersey resident and non-resident individuals, estates and trusts.

HISTORY

The Gross Income Tax was enacted July 8, 1976, retroactive to July 1, 1976 (C. 47, P.L. 1976).

Pension income for those eligible for Social Security by reason of age or disability is exempt as follows: First $10,000 for a married couple filing jointly; $5,000 for a married person filing separately; and $7,500 for a single taxpayer (C.40, P.L. 1977).

C. 273, P.L. 1977 extends the exclusion allowed for pensions to other types of retirement income. The exclusion applies to taxpayers who are 62 years of age or older and whose earned income is not more than $3,000.

C. 229, P.L. 1982 increased the rate from 2-1/2% to 3-1/2% on amounts in excess of $50,000 effective January 1, 1983.

RATE OF TAX

Graduated from 2% on taxable income up to $20,000 to 2-1/2% on taxable income over $20,000 but not over $50,000 to 3-1/2% on amounts in excess of $50,000.

EXEMPTIONS

- (1) Taxpayer, $1,000.
- (2) Taxpayer's spouse who does not file separately, $1,000.

- (3) Taxpayer 65 years old or older, $1,000; also $1,000 for spouse who is 65 years old or older who does not file separately.
- (4) Taxpayer blind or totally disabled, $1,000; also, on joint return, $1,000 for blind or disabled spouse.
- (5) For each dependent $1,000, plus an additional $1,000 for each dependent child who attends, full time, an institution of higher education.

DEDUCTIONS

- (1) Payments of alimony or for separate maintenance are deductible to the payer if reported as income by the payee.
- (2) Unreimbursed medical expenses in excess of 2% of gross income.

CREDITS

- (1) $65 for a qualified residential tenant or shareholder in a co-operative. A retroactive amendment provides that shareholders in co-operatives and mutual housing corporations qualify for the homestead rebate and not for the tenants' tax credit (C. 241 and 242, P.L. 1977). This increases to $100 if the tenant is 65 years or older, permanently and totally disabled or the surviving spouse, 55 years or older, of a deceased senior citizen renter and has remained unmarried.
- (2) Amounts withheld by an employer and payments of estimated tax.
- (3) Payments of income or wage tax imposed by another state (or political subdivision) or by the District of Columbia, with respect to income subject to tax under this act. This shall not exceed the proportion of tax otherwise due that the amount of the taxpayer's income bears to the taxpayer's entire New Jersey income.

WITHHOLDING REQUIREMENT

Employers are required to withhold the tax and remit withholdings monthly; if withholdings are expected to be $18,000 or more for a semi-annual period, withholdings are remitted semi-monthly. (C. 43, P.L. 1978 permits quarterly filings in certain cases.)

INSURANCE PREMIUMS TAX

Citation: The Insurance Premiums Tax Law: N.J.S.A. 54:16—1 et seq.; 54:16A-1—et seq.; 54:18A—1 et seq.; 54:17—4 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Insurance Premiums Tax applies to premiums collected on insurance risks in this State during the preceding calendar year. The tax applies to every stock, mutual and assessment insurance company organized or existing under any general or special law of this State or any other state or foreign country transacting business in this State.

Taxable premiums of life insurance companies include all gross contract premiums except premiums for reinsurance and annuity considerations, less certain specified deductions. Non-life companies generally are taxed upon gross premiums less certain deductions. The tax on marine companies is based upon annual underwriting profits, and the tax on foreign fire insurance companies is based upon taxable premiums. Workers compensation insurers are taxed upon net premiums received.

HISTORY

The first insurance Premiums Tax in New Jersey was enacted in 1885, at a rate of 35/100ths of 1% on total gross insurance premiums. The law was significantly changed in 1945, at which time the rate of 2% was established (C. 132, P.L. 1945). The law has existed basically unchanged to the present day with the tax rate remaining at 2%.

Chapter 231, P.L. 1950 provided for retaliatory provisions with subject foreign insurance companies to not less than the rate of tax that the home states of such companies impose on New Jersey insurance companies.

Legislation adopted in 1966 provided for prepayment of the tax (C.3, P.L. 1966).

Chapter 183, P.L. 1981 provided for repeal of the Insurance Franchise Tax making insurance companies subject only to Insurance Premium tax. It also provided an additional 50% prepayment from domestic insurers.

RATE OF TAX

2% on premiums of life and non-life insurance companies, except for the following: group accident and health insurance premiums, 1%; on ocean marine, 5% of three-year average of underwriting profits; additional 1/4 of 1% on workers compensation premiums; surcharge of 3% against insured on surplus lines coverage. For both life and non-life insurance companies the maximum taxable premiums may not exceed a sum equal to 12-1/2% of the total premiums collected.

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

Revenues are deposited in the State Treasury for general State use, with the following exceptions:

Insurance premium taxes collected from fire insurance companies of other states and foreign countries on premiums of insurance against fire insurance risks in this State are allocated for distribution to the New Jersey Firemen's Home and the New Jersey State Firemen's Association 1985—($2,194,166).

LANDFILL CLOSURE AND CONTINGENCY TAX

Citation: Sanitary Landfill Facility Closure and Contingency Fund Act; N.J.S.A. 13:1E-100 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

The Landfill Closure and Contingency Tax is levied upon the owner or operator of every sanitary landfill facility located in New Jersey on all solid waste accepted for disposal on or after January 1, 1982.

The Act also required the sanitary landfill facility owner or operator to establish an escrow account, administered by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, and to deposit into the account $0.30 per cubic yard of solids and $0.004 per gallon of liquids for all solid waste accepted for disposal on and after January 1, 1982.

HISTORY

The Sanitary Landfill Facility Closure and Contingency Fund Act (C. 306, P.L. 1981) was signed into law on November 25, 1981 and became effective January 1, 1982.

RATE OF TAX

The tax rate is $0.15 per cubic yard on all solid waste accepted for disposal. The tax rate for solid waste in liquid form is $0.002 per gallon.

LOCAL PROPERTY TAX

Citation: The Local Property Tax: N.J.S.A. 54:4—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

An ad valorem tax—The local property tax is measured by property values and is apportioned among taxpayers according to the assessed value of taxable property owned by each taxpayer. The tax applies to real estate and tangible personal property of telephone, telegraph and messenger systems companies.

A local tax—The property tax is a local tax assessed and collected by municipalities for the support of municipal and county governments and local school districts. No part of it is used for support of State government.

Amount of tax (a residual tax)—The amount of local property tax is determined each year, in each municipality, to supply whatever revenue is required to meet budgeted expenditures not covered by monies available from all other sources. School districts and counties notify municipalities of their property tax requirements. Municipalities add their own requirements and levy taxes to raise the entire amount. As a residual local tax, the total property tax is determined by local budgets and not by property valuations or tax rates.

Property assessment (the tax base)—All taxable property is assessed (valued for taxation) by local assessors in each municipality. Assessments are expressed in terms of “taxable value,” except for qualified farm land, which is specially valued.

HISTORY

It may be said that the property tax originated in 1670 with a levy of one half penny per acre of land to support the central government. Through the middle of the 19th century property taxes were levied upon real estate and upon certain personal property at arbitrary rates within certain limits called “certainties.” In 1851 the concepts of a general property tax and uniform assessments according to actual value were developed (Public Laws 1851, p. 273).

For almost a century following the 1851 legislation a continuing effort was made to accomplish uniform taxation under a general property tax. In 1875 a constitutional amendment provided that “property shall be assessed for taxes under general laws and by uniform rules according to its value” (Article IV, Section VII, Paragraph 12). Courts held that the 1875 amendment permitted classification of property for tax purposes and also exemption of certain classes from taxation, or the substitution of other kinds of tax “in lieu.” Thus began a long period of erosion of the “general property tax” concept. In 1884 a State Board of Assessors was created and given responsibility for assessment of railroad and canal property, thus setting the pattern for State assessment of certain classes of property.

Intangible personal property was eliminated from the “general property tax base” in 1945 (replaced with a corporation net worth tax). Such elimination shifted the emphasis for tax reform to tangible personal property.

The New Jersey State Constitution adopted in 1947 provided (Article VIII, Section I) “property shall be assessed for taxation under general law and by uniform rules. All real property assessed and taxed locally or by the State for allotment and payment to taxing districts shall be assessed according to the same standard of value, except as otherwise permitted herein, and such property shall be taxed at the general tax rate of the taxing district in which the property is situated, for the use of such taxing district.”

This was interpreted to preclude any classification of real estate but to leave the door open for classified taxes upon personal property. In 1963 the Constitution was amended to permit assessment of farm property according to its value for agricultural use only. Chapter 51, Laws of 1960 (effective for tax year 1965) provided for such classification and also provided other significant modifications. These were comprehensively summarized in prior Annual Reports.

Personal property provisions of Chapter 51, Laws of 1960 were replaced by Chapter 136, Laws of 1966. For taxes payable in 1968 and thereafter, personal property used in business (other than the businesses of telephone, telegraph and messenger system companies) is subject to a uniform state tax instead of the local tax. Non-business personal property is no longer subject to any property tax and inventories of all businesses were excluded from property taxation.

The 1966 law also provided for replacement of local personal property tax revenues from four tax sources: (1) Retail Gross Receipts Tax, (2) Corporation Business (Net Income) Tax, (3) Business Personal Property Tax and (4) Unincorporated Business Tax. This program was terminated (C. 3, P.L. 1977). Legislation was passed providing for an annual appropriation of not less than $158.7 million.

The decision in Switz v. Middletown Township, et al., 23 N.J. 580, required that all taxable property be assessed at "true value" (100% assessment). This was the beginning of a series of New Jersey court decisions which have been a major factor in development of uniform real estate tax assessment.

A long period of legislative history has developed numerous exemptions and various special property tax treatments. These are found principally in R.S. 54:4—3.3 and in R.S. 54:4—3.6. Generally exempt are government-owned property, and property of religious, educational, charitable and various types of non-profit organizations. In addition, qualified veterans and senior citizens are permitted tax deductions of $50 and $250 respectively.

RATE OF TAX

Local property tax rate is determined each year in each municipality by relating the total amount of tax levy to the total of all assessed valuations taxable. Expressed in $1 per $100 of taxable assessed value, the tax rate is a multiplier for use in determining the amount of tax levied upon each property. The average rate for the State is $3.41.

MOTOR FUELS TAX

Citation: The New Jersey Motor Fuels Tax Act: N.J.S.A. 54:39—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

The tax on motor fuels applies to sales of gasoline, diesel fuel or liquefied petroleum gas and compressed natural gas used in motor vehicles on public highways.

HISTORY

The first gasoline tax law (C.334, P.L. 1927) became effective in New Jersey on July 1, 1927 at the rate of 2¢ per gallon. A commission in 1934 recommended repeal of exemption certificates and substitution of a refund system. The refund system was enacted, providing a closer check of non-taxable sales of motor fuels (C. 319, P.L. 1935).

Unfair Motor Fuels Practices Act (C. 413, P.L. 1953) enables the Division's auditors and investigators to check dealers' practices in giving rebates, concessions, allowances or discounts. Preferential treatment is unlawful if given with intent to injure, destroy or substantially lessen competition.

Chapter 52, P.L. 1971 provides for taxation of sales of petroleum liquefied gas and liquefied or compressed natural gas at one-half the rate paid on sales of motor fuels.

The tax rate has changed as follows:

Effective Date	Per Gallon
Dec. 1, 1930	2¢-3¢
July 1, 1954	3¢-4¢
July 1, 1958	4¢-5¢

EXEMPTIONS

Motor fuel sales

- (1) to the United States Government,
- (2) between licensed distributors,
- (3) between licensed gasoline jobbers, and
- (4) for export.

RATE OF TAX

8¢ per gallon on motor fuels. 4¢ per gallon on petroleum gas and liquefied or compressed natural gas sold or used to propel motor vehicles on public highways (C. 52, P.L. 1971).

Licensed distributed are permitted credit for taxes paid on fuels used by them for purposes qualifying for refund (N.J.S.A. 54:39—66).

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

The revenues from the Public Community Water System Tax are deposited in the Safe Drinking Water Fund administered by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection and used to insure clean drinking water in New Jersey.

PUBLIC UTILITY TAXES

(a) PUBLIC UTILITY FRANCHISE TAX (FOR MUNICIPAL USE)

Citation: Public Utility Franchise Tax: N.J.S.A. 54:30A—18.

DESCRIPTION

Franchise Tax applies to persons, copartnerships, associations and corporations, other than those specifically exempted, having lines or mains located in, on or over any street, highway or other public place. Utilities subject to taxation include telegraph, telephone and district messenger systems companies.

The rate is either 2% or 5% of a proportion of the gross receipts of the taxpayer for the preceding calendar year. The proportion of gross receipts subject to tax is the ratio of the taxpayer's total length of lines or mains which are located in, on or over any street, highway or other public place to the whole length of lines or mains. Measurements of lengths of lines or mains exclude service connections.

ADMINISTRATION

Franchise tax is collected by the State for distribution to municipalities together with the gross receipts tax distribution. The tax is payable by the State to the municipal tax collectors in three installments: 25% within 30 days after certification of the apportionment; 40% on September 1; and 35% on December 1.

HISTORY

The first general tax act specifically taxing public utilities was enacted in 1884 (C. 159, P.L. 1884). It provided for a 2% Franchise Tax on gross receipts of telegraph, telephone, cable and express companies. In 1900, Voorhees Tax Act included all utilities other than those taxable under the Railroad and Canal Property Tax Act. It also provided that the receipts collected by the State were to be transferred back to municipalities (C. 195, P.L. 1900). In 1917, Franchise Tax rates were increased to 3% in 1917, 4% in 1918 and 5% in 1919 and thereafter (C. 17, P.L. 1917).

In 1940, significant revisions and amendments were adopted (C. 4 and 5, P.L. 1940). Unit values were applied to each class or type of public utility tangible personal property for the purpose of securing a fair and equitable apportionment of taxes. An accelerated payment schedule was imposed by C. 35 & 36, P.L. 1979 on all public utility companies paying the Franchise or Gross Receipts Taxes. Chapters 10 and 11, P.L. 1980 amended Chapters 4 and 5, P.L. 1940 to provide for state collection and distribution to municipalities. Chapter 12, P.L. 1980 establishes a Municipal Purposes Tax Assistance Fund and provides for a distribution to certain municipalities of a sum not less than $27.0 million.

RATE OF TAX

2% for gross receipts of $50,000 or less and 5% for gross receipts exceeding $50,000 (N.J.S.A. 54:30A—54(a), 54:30A—18).

COLLECTIONS (Fiscal Year)

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

Revenues, after deductions for the cost of administering the tax by the State, are for local use. The tax is distributed to the municipalities.

(b) PUBLIC UTILITY GROSS RECEIPTS TAX (FOR MUNICIPAL USE)

Citation: Public Utility Gross Receipts Tax: N.J.S.A. 54:30A—49 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Public Utility Gross Receipts Tax is in addition to the Franchise Tax and is in lieu of local taxes on certain properties of the following public utilities: street railway, traction, sewerage, water, gas and electric light, heat and power corporations using or occupying public streets, highways, roads or other public places in New Jersey.

ADMINISTRATION

Public Utility Gross Receipts Tax is collected by the State for distribution to municipalities together with the franchise tax distribution. The tax is payable by the state to the tax collectors in three installments: 25% within 30 days after municipal certification of the apportionment; 40% on September 1; and 35% on December 1.

HISTORY

Public Utility Gross Receipts Tax was levied in 1919 as an addition to the Franchise Tax (C.25, P.L. 1919). The tax was in lieu of state, county, school and local taxes on personal property and materials other than land and buildings. The rate of tax was the average rate of the aggregate general property tax.

In 1952 sewerage corporations were included among taxable public utility companies. In 1955 a maximum rate of 7.5% was adopted (C. 268, P.L. 1955) and in 1956 a minimum of 5% was established (C. 15, P.L. 1956). The "average rate of taxation" concept was eliminated in 1960 and a tax rate of 7.5% of gross receipts was established (C. 50, P.L. 1960). Water companies became subject to the Gross Receipts Tax in 1961 (C. 91, 92 and 93, P.L. 1961). An accelerated payment schedule was imposed by C. 35 & 36, P.L. 1979 on all public utility companies paying the Franchise or Gross Receipts Taxes. Chapters 10 and 11, P.L. 1980 amended chapters 4 and 5, P.L. 1940 to provide for state collection and distribution to municipalities. Chapter 12, P.L. 1980 establishes a Municipal Purposes Tax Assistance Fund and provides for distribution to certain municipalities of a sum not less than $27.0 million.

RATE OF TAX

7.5% applied to taxable gross receipts for the preceding calendar year (N.J.S.A. 54:30A—54(b)).

(c) PUBLIC UTILITY EXCISE TAX (FOR STATE USE)

Citation: Public Utility Excise Tax: N.J.S.A. 54:30A—49 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Public Utility Excise Tax is an additional tax on gross receipts of public utilities.

HISTORY

Public Utility Excise Tax (for State use) was introduced in 1963 to be in effect for three years beginning in 1964 (C. 41 and 42, P.L. 1963). In 1966 the tax was extended indefinitely.

An accelerated payment schedule was imposed by C. 108 and 109, P.L. 1971 on all public utility companies paying Excise taxes.

RATES (Calendar Year Basis)

(d) RAILROAD PROPERTY TAX

Citation: The Railroad Tax Act of 1948; N.J.S.A. 54:29A—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Railroad Tax Law of 1948 as amended distinguishes three classes of property:

Class I: "Main stem" roadbed—that not exceeding 100 feet in width.

Class II: All other real estate used for railroad purposes including roadbed other than "main stem" (Class I), tracks, buildings, water tanks, riparian rights, docks, wharves, piers. Excluded is "tangible personal property": rolling stock, cars, locomotives, ferryboats, all machinery, tools. Facilities used in passenger service are also excluded, being defined as Class III property.

Class III: Facilities used in passenger service: land, stations, terminals, roadbeds, tracks, appurtenances, ballast and all structures used in connection with rendering passenger service, including signal systems, power systems, equipment storage, repair and service facilities (N.J.S.A. 54:20A—2).

The Railroad Property Tax is a State tax on Class II property.

HISTORY

When the first railroad in New Jersey was chartered (February 4, 1830) the State required payment for the privilege of operating a railroad. Early railroad charters provided for annual payments to the State for the privilege of operating. In general railroads were required to pay 1/2 of 1% of either (1) the value of their capital stock or (2) cost of the road, equipment and appurtenances.

The first general railroad tax law was enacted in 1884. Tax rates were fixed by the State: 1/2 of 1% of total valuations (revenues for State use); local rates on Class II property, but not to exceed 1% (revenues for local use). In 1897 and 1905-08 several amendments involving tax rates were enacted.

In 1941 the Railroad Tax Act taxed railroad property at the rate of 3%. Taxes levied on Class II property were paid to the taxing districts and taxes on other classes of properties were assigned to the State.¹ The 1941 Railroad Tax Act was amended in 1948: Provision was made for taxation of Class II property at local rates (revenue for local use). Classes I and III properties (as then defined) were taxed at the rate of 1.2% (revenues for State use). Taxation of "the value of remaining property" (Class IV) was dropped. Minimum and maximum tax provisions were established.

Chapter 251, P.L. 1964 eliminated the tax on Classes I and III properties and the maximum tax provisions. Chapter 139, P.L. 1966 changed the Class II railroad property tax to a State tax. Class III property was defined as "facilities used in passenger service." Hence, such facilities were exempted from taxation. In lieu of revenues from taxes on Class II property, State aid to municipalities was provided and is discussed on next page.

The Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 as amended by the Northeast Real Service Act of 1981, effective August 13, 1981 exempted Consolidated Rail Corporation (Conrail) from liability for any State tax. In a similar manner, Public Law 97-102 provided that none of Amtrak's funds may be used to pay State or Local taxes.

EXEMPTIONS

Main stem (Class I), tangible personal property and facilities used in passenger service (Class III).

RATE OF TAX

$4.75 for each $100 of true value of Class II railroad property.

¹In 1941 the definitions of classes differed from those in effect from June 1966 onwards. Class III was "value of all the tangible personal property" and Class IV was "value of remaining property." Class III is now "facilities used in passenger service" and Class IV is no longer in use.

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

Revenues are deposited in the State Treasury for general State use. However, under legislation adopted in 1966, the municipalities where railroad property is located are guaranteed the return of certain replacement revenues.

STATE AID TO MUNICIPALITIES IN LIEU OF REVENUE FROM CLASS II TAXES
(N.J.S.A. 54:29A-24.1 to 24.6)

A State tax on Class II railroad property (C. 139, P.L. 1966) removed a source of local property tax revenue. Therefore, C. 139 P.L. 1966 provided for replacement revenue to municipalities in which Class II railroad property is located. State aid is paid by the State Treasurer on warrant of the Director of Division of Budget and Accounting. It is payable to municipalities on December 10 each year.

Each municipality which received more than $1,000 in Class II railroad taxes for the year 1966 receives not less than the 1966 Class II railroad taxes plus an amount equal to the difference between 1965 Class II taxes and 1966 Class II taxes. The difference, however, is reduced by 10% each year beginning 1968 and continuing for 10 years.

Municipalities with the base revenue less than $1,000 as adjusted in Class II railroad taxes in 1966 are not eligible for State Aid. Amounts of State aid paid to municipalities by fiscal year are as follows:

²Only payments to those municipalities in which Class II property owned by NJ Transit Corp. is located. (P.L. 1984, Ch. 58).

(e) RAILROAD FRANCHISE TAX

DESCRIPTION

The Railroad Franchise Tax is levied upon railroads (or systems of railroads) operating within New Jersey. The tax base is that portion of the road's (or system's) net railway operating income of the preceding year allocated to New Jersey. The allocating factor is the ratio of the number of miles of all track in this State to the total number of miles of all track over which the railroad or system operates.

HISTORY

Prior to 1941 franchise valuations were ascertained as of the first day of January preceding and taxes at the "Average Rate of Taxation" (R.S. 54:24—3). Chapters 291 and 363, P.L. 1941 introduced a tax base formula which took account of both (1) net railway operating income allocated to New Jersey and (2) total valuation of the previous year of all classes of property used for railroad purposes. One-half of the franchise tax levied was assigned to the state, the other half to taxing districts in which railroad property was situated.

Amendments in 1942 provided for (1) a deduction of $200,000 from net operating income before determining allocation to the State and (2) minimum and maximum tax liabilities.

In 1948 net railway operating income allocated to New Jersey became the tax base and a tax rate of 10% was imposed. The Railroad Tax Act of 1948 was amended in 1964. These amendments, effective January 1, 1966, eliminated the maximum tax provisions that had been introduced in 1942.

See Railroad Property Tax for Conrail and Amtrak exemption from any state tax.

RATE OF TAX

Railroad Franchise Tax is assessed at the rate of 10% upon the net railway operating income of the preceding year allocated to New Jersey. The minimum is $100 for taxpayers having total railway operating revenues in the preceding year not in excess of $1 million and $4,000 to taxpayers with operating revenues in excess of $1 million in the preceding year.

REALTY TRANSFER FEE TAX

Citation: The Realty Transfer Tax Act: N.J.S.A. 46:15—5 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Realty Transfer Fee Tax is applied to the recording of deeds which transfer title to real property in New Jersey. The tax is collected by the county at the rate of $1.75 for each $500 of consideration. Of the $1.75, $0.50 is retained by the county and the $1.25 balance is forwarded to the State Treasurer.

HISTORY

The Federal Documentary Tax on real estate transfers expired on January 1, 1968. It had provided the principal basis for developing average assessment ratios for each of the 567 municipalities in the state. These ratios are essential for such purposes mandated by law as: (1) construction of State Table of Equalized Valuations (the basis for distributing State School aid to local districts); (2) Construction of County Equalization Tables (the basis for apportioning county costs of government); (3) establishment of debt limits for municipalities, counties and school districts; (4) provision for taxpayer relief from discriminatory local property tax assessments.

Realty Transfer Tax (C. 49, P.L. 1968) replaced the expiring Federal law both for revenue purposes and to preserve the basis for state, county and municipal equalization processes. The Act requires a record be made of the selling price of real property. This record may be used by the State in its sample of real estate sales for purposes of constructing a Table of Equalized Valuations.

Chapter 176, P.L. 1975 increased the tax from $0.50 to $1.75 for each $500.00 of "consideration" effective September 1, 1975.

EXEMPTIONS (N.J.S.A. 46:15—10)

The fee does not apply to title transfers:

- (1) For a consideration of less than $100.00;
 - (2) By or to the United States of America, this State, or any instrumentality, agency or subdivision thereof;
 - (3) Solely in order to provide or release security for a debt or obligation;
 - (4) Which confirm or correct a deed previously recorded;

- (5) On a sale for delinquent taxes or assessments;
- (6) On partition;
- (7) By a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy or liquidation, or assignee for the benefit of creditors;
- (8) Eligible to be recorded as "ancient deeds" pursuant to R.S. 46:16—7;
- (9) Acknowledged or proved on or before July 3, 1968;
- (10) Between husband and wife, or parent and child;
- (11) Conveying a cemetery lot or plot;
- (12) In specific performance of a final judgment;
- (13) Releasing a right of reversion;
- (14) Previously recorded in another county and full realty transfer fee paid or accounted for, as evidenced by written instrument, attested by the grantee and acknowledged by the recording officer of the county of such prior recording, specifying the county, book, page, date of prior recording, and amount of realty transfer fee previously paid.
- (15) By an executor or administrator of a decedent to a devisee or heir to effect distribution of the decedent's estate in accordance with the provisions of the decedent's will or the intestate laws of this State.

Two types of transfers of real property are exempt from the increase (State) portion of the fee:

- (1) The sale of one or two-family residential properties which are owned and occupied by a senior citizen (62 years of age or older for purposes of this Act), blind person, or disabled person or their spouses, and
- (2) The sale of property upon which there has been construction of an entirely new improvement not previously occupied or used for any purpose.

RESOURCE RECOVERY INVESTMENT TAX

Citation: N.J.S.A. 13:1E-138b.

DESCRIPTION

The Resource Recovery Investment Tax is levied upon the owners and operators of every sanitary landfill facility located in New Jersey on all solid waste accepted for disposal on or after May 1, 1985. The Resource Recovery Investment Tax expires on January 1, 1996.

HISTORY

The Solid Waste Management Act, N.J.S.A. 13:1E-1 et seq., was amended by C.38, P.L. 1985, signed into law on February 4, 1985, levying three additional taxes on sanitary landfill facilities effective May 1, 1985.

RATE OF TAX

The tax rate is $1.00 per ton on all solid waste accepted for disposal. The tax rate for solid waste in liquid form is $0.004 per gallon. The law provides for increases in the tax rate on solids to $2.00 per ton as of January 1, 1986, to $3.00 per ton as of January 1, 1987 and to $4.00 per ton as of January 1, 1988. However, the law allows each county, based on their requirements and following specific guidelines, to annually adjust the tax rate to a rate not to exceed $10.00 per ton of solids and $0.04 per gallon of liquids on January 1 of any year the tax is imposed.

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

The revenues from the Resource Recovery Investment Tax are deposited in the Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund established in the New Jersey Department of Treasury and distributed to each county's District Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund. Counties may use fund revenues to reduce the rates of resource recovery facilities; build sanitary landfills to service resource recovery facilities; build and operate sanitary landfills if resource recovery is not feasible; and finance closure costs of a sanitary landfill.

SALES TAX

(a) SALES AND USE TAX

Citation: New Jersey Sales and Use Tax Act; N.J.S.A. 54:32B—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Sales and Use Tax Act applies to receipts from (a) retail sale, rental or use of tangible personal property, (b) retail sale of producing, fabricating, processing, installing, maintaining, repairing, storing and servicing tangible personal property and certain advertising services, (c) sales of restaurant meals, (d) rental of hotel and motel rooms and (e) certain admission charges.

A compensating use tax is also imposed on retail purchases of tangible personal property made outside the State for use in New Jersey. The use tax does not apply if the taxable property has already been, or will be, subjected to sales tax.

All persons required to collect the tax must file an Application for Registration. Each registrant's authority to collect the sales tax is certified by a Certificate of Authority, issued by the Division, which must be prominently displayed at each place of business to which it applies.

HISTORY

Sales and Use Tax Act became effective July 1, 1966. Rate of tax was set as 3% (C. 30, P.L. 1966).

Additional exemptions from the tax were provided by C. 25, P.L. 1967. C. 7, P.L. 1970 increased the tax rate to 5%, effective March 1, 1970. This Act and C. 25, P.L. 1970 contained certain transitional provisions relating to this increased rate.

Effective July 1, 1972, sales of alcoholic beverages, except draught beer sold by the barrel, to any retail licensee were made subject to Sales and Use Tax (C. 27, P.L. 1972). The 1972 amendment repealed taxation of sales of packaged liquor by retailer to consumer. The tax now applies at the wholesale-retail level. Its base is the minimum consumer retail price as filed with the Board of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

A new tax imposed on wholesale receipts of alcoholic beverage licensees at 6.5% of the wholesale price supersedes the prior tax imposed under the sales tax law at 5% of the minimum consumer resale price (C. 62, P.L. 1980).

Production machinery and equipment is exempt from sales tax effective January 1, 1978.

Sale, rental or lease of commercial motor vehicles weighing more than 18,000 pounds is exempt from sales tax effective January 1, 1978. (C. 217, P.L. 1977).

The Division took over administration of the Atlantic City Luxury Sales Tax (C. 60, P.L. 1980).

The sales tax rate increased to 6%, effective January 3, 1983 (C. 227, P.L. 1982).

SOLID WASTE IMPORTATION TAX

Citation: N.J.S.A. 13:1E-138c.

DESCRIPTION

The Solid Waste Importation Tax is levied upon the owners and operators of every sanitary landfill facility located in New Jersey which accepts out-of-district solid waste for disposal on or after May 1, 1985. The Solid Waste Importation Tax expires on January 1, 1996.

HISTORY

The Solid Waste Management Act, N.J.S.A. 13:1E-1 et seq., was amended by C.38, P.L. 1985, signed into law on February 4, 1985, levying three additional taxes on sanitary landfill facilities effective May 1, 1985.

RATE OF TAX

The tax rate is $1.00 per ton on all solid waste accepted for disposal. The tax rate for solid waste in liquid form is $0.004 per gallon. The tax rate increases to $4.00 per ton of solids as of January 1, 1988 and increases by $2.00 per ton of solids annually thereafter.

COLLECTIONS (Fiscal Year)

1985	$364,813

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

The revenues from the Solid Waste Importation Tax are deposited in the Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund in the New Jersey Department of Treasury and distributed to the District Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund for the county wherein the sanitary landfill receiving out-of-district waste is located. Counties may use fund revenues to reduce the rates of resource recovery facilities; build sanitary landfills to service resource recovery facilities; build and operate sanitary landfills if resource recovery is not feasible; and finance closure costs of a sanitary landfill.

SOLID WASTE RECYCLING TAX

Citation: Recycling Act; N.J.S.A. 13:1E-92 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

The Solid Waste Recycling Tax is levied upon the owner or operator of every sanitary landfill facility located in New Jersey on all solid waste accepted for disposal on or after January 1, 1982.

The Solid Waste Recycling Tax terminates on December 31, 1986.

HISTORY

The Recycling Act (C. 278, P.L. 1981) was signed into law on September 9, 1981 and became effective January 1, 1982.

RATE OF TAX

The tax rate is $0.12 per cubic yard on all solid waste accepted for disposal. The tax rate for solid waste in liquid form is $0.0006 per gallon. Solid waste accepted on or after January 1, 1986 will be taxed at the rate of $0.06 per cubic yard and $0.0003 per gallon.

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

The proceeds constitute a fund, the State Recycling Fund, jointly administered by the New Jersey Department of Energy and the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, to provide for a comprehensive recycling plan and program in this State.

SOLID WASTE SERVICES TAX

Citation: N.J.S.A. 13:1E-138a.

DESCRIPTION

The Solid Waste Services Tax is levied upon the owners and operators of every sanitary landfill facility located in New Jersey on all solid waste accepted for disposal on or after May 1, 1985.

HISTORY

The Solid Waste Management Act, N.J.S.A. 13:1E-1 et seq., was amended by C.38, P.L. 1985, signed into law on February 4, 1985, levying three additional taxes on sanitary landfill facilities effective May 1, 1985.

RATE OF TAX

The tax rate is $0.50 per ton on all solid waste accepted for disposal. The tax rate for solid waste in liquid form is $0.002 per gallon. On January 1, 1986, and on the first of January annually thereafter, the tax rate will increase on solids by $0.05 per ton.

COLLECTIONS (Fiscal Year)

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

The revenue collected from the Solid Waste Services Tax is deposited in the Solid Waste Services Tax Fund administered by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection. Monies in the fund are allocated to the counties based on the amount of waste generated and used for implementing county solid waste management plans.

SPILL COMPENSATION AND CONTROL TAX

Citation: The Spill Compensation and Control Act: N.J.S.A. 58:10-23.11, et seq.

DESCRIPTION

The Spill Compensation and Control Tax is imposed upon the New Jersey transfer of hazardous substances, (as determined by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection).

The Tax is payable by:

- (a) The operator or owner of the receiving major facility or vessel on a transfer of a hazardous substance from a major facility or vessel; or
- (b) The operator or owner of the transferring major facility on a transfer of a previously untaxed nonpetroleum hazardous substance to a nonmajor facility; or
- (c) The owner of a hazardous substance transferred to a public storage terminal from a major facility or vessel.

HISTORY

Spill Compensation and Control Act (C. 141, P.L. 1976) became effective April 1, 1977. Effective April 1, 1980, an alternate tax rate was established on transfers of nonpetroleum hazardous substances. (C. 346, P.L. 1979). The tax base was significantly expanded effective April 1, 1980 (C. 73, P.L. 1980). Effective Nov. 1980, the tax rates were revised from $.01 to $.04 per barrel transferred. Effective Aug. 1, 1982 the tax rates reverted back to such rates in effect prior to Nov. 1, 1980. In 1985 the rates were reverted to rates in effect Nov. 1, 1980, namely $0.04 per barrel, except the rate on petroleum products which remains at $.01 per barrel.

RATE OF TAX

- (1) Nonpetroleum hazardous substances—greater of $.04 per barrel or 0.8% of fair market value;
- (2) Petroleum products—$.01 per barrel; and
- (3) Precious metals—$.04 per barrel.

COLLECTIONS (Fiscal Year)

DISPOSITION OF REVENUES

The proceeds constitute a fund (New Jersey Spill Compensation Fund) to insure compensation for cleanup costs and damage associated with the discharge of petroleum products and other hazardous substances.

TRANSFER INHERITANCE AND ESTATE TAX

and The New Jersey Estate Tax Act: N.J.S.A. 54:38—1 et seq.

DESCRIPTION

Transfer Inheritance Tax applies to the transfer of all personal property and New Jersey real property having a value of $500.00 or more in estates of resident decedents and of real property and tangible personal property of non-resident decedents located within the State of New Jersey.

An estate tax in addition to the Transfer Inheritance Tax is designed to absorb any portion of the credit allowed under the Federal Estate Tax statutes which is not fully taken up by the taxes paid under the Transfer Inheritance Tax of this State and all other states.

Transfer Inheritance Tax is non-recurring at rates based upon the relationship of the ultimate beneficiaries to the decedent and the amount received by each. The due date of the tax is the date of death.

Due to the multiplicity and complexity of laws dealing with distribution of estates it is difficult for the taxpayer to predetermine the exact tax liability. The Division therefore, determines the tax liability and bills the taxpayer. This is usually a one-time operation with a relatively low percentage of the files being reopened at a later date. Statutes require, however, that all records be retained for 15 years.

HISTORY

New Jersey first imposed an Inheritance Tax in 1892 at a rate of 5% on property transferred from a decedent to a beneficiary.

In 1909, legislation was enacted which formed the basis of present Inheritance Tax (N.J.S.A. 54:33 and 54:38).

Retroactive to Jan. 1, 1985 (C.57, P.L. 1985), the tax on the transfer of property to a husband or wife of a decedent is eliminated.

On transfers of property to a father, mother, grandparent, child or children of a decedent, the inheritance tax will be imposed as follows:

- Through June 30, 1985, the tax on the amount inherited in excess of $15,000 remains in effect;
- Effective July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1986, no tax will have to be paid on the first $50,000 inherited;
- Effective July 1, 1986, through June 30, 1987, no tax will have to be paid on the first $150,000 inherited;
- Effective July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, no tax will have to be paid on the first $250,000 inherited;
- On and after July 1, 1988, the tax is eliminated.

EXEMPTIONS

- (1) All transfers under $500;
 - (2) Family transfers of $5,000 or less to each parent, grandparent, spouse, child, mutually acknowledged child, stepchild or the issue of a child or adopted child. Dower and curtesy are exempt; on July 1, 1978 exemption increased to $15,000 in estates of decedents dying on or after that date.
 - (3) Life Insurance proceeds paid to named beneficiary;
 - (4) Charitable transfers for the use of any educational institution, church, hospital, orphan asylum, public library, etc.;
 - (5) Transfers for public purposes made to New Jersey or any political subdivision thereof;

- (6) Federal civil service retirement benefits payable to a beneficiary other than the estate;
- (7) Annuities payable to survivors of military retirees.
- (8) Qualified employment annuities paid to a surviving spouse.

RATE OF TAX

After January 1, 1985, transfers to class "A" husband or wife are totally exempt. Only Class "A" beneficiaries other than surviving spouses are taxable after January 1, 1985.

The following tax rate table is applicable to decedents dying on or after July 1, 1978, but excludes spouse dying after January 1, 1985:

COMPARISON WITH OTHER STATES

New Jersey:	Rates range from 2% to 16% on each beneficiary's share. The rates vary with the value of the legacy and relationship of the beneficiary.
Connecticut: ¹	Rates range from 3% to 14% on each beneficiary's share. The rates vary with the value of the legacy and relationship of the beneficiary.
Maryland:	This state has two classes of rates. Class I which involves relationship of the beneficiary, the rate of tax is 1% on the entire share, and Class 2, all others, the rate of tax is 10% on the entire share.
New York:	Rates range from 2% to 21% on the net estate of the decedent.
Ohio:	Rates range from 2% to 7% on the estate of the decedent.
Pennsylvania:	This state has two classed of rates. On Class A, which involves relationship of the beneficiary, the rate of tax is 6%, and on Class B, all others, the rate of tax is 15%.

Each of these states has an estate tax to absorb the maximum credit allowed against the Federal Estate Tax.

¹An additional 10% surcharge is imposed with respect to estates of persons dying on or after July 1, 1983.

CHAPTER IV

LEGISLATION AND COURT DECISIONS

LEGISLATION

Allows Farm Winery Licensees To Make Wine Using Up to 49% Out of State Grown Grapes—Chapter 131, P.L. 1985 (approved April 12, 1985)

That act amends R.S. 33:1-10 to permit holders of farm winery licenses to manufacture fermented wine or fruit juice using up to 49% out-of-state grown grapes for the first five years of the winery's operation. The present law requires fermented wine and fruit juice produced by the holder of a farm winery license to be produced from 100% New Jersey grown fruit.

This act is effective immediately.

BOAT OWNERSHIP CERTIFICATE ACT

Provides A System of Ownership Certification For Vessels, Hulls and Outboard Motors—Chapter 152, P.L. 1984 (approved September 12, 1984)

This act provides for a system titling marine equipment similar to that now used for titling motor vehicles. There is provision for a licensing fee. The enforcement of the Act is in the jurisdiction of the Division of Motor Vehicles in the Department of Law and Public Safety.

All powers and duties exercised by the Department of Environmental Protection pursuant to the "New Jersey Boat Act of 1962", P.L. 1962 c.73 (C. 12:7-34.36 et seq.) are transferred to the Division of Motor Vehicles in the Department of Law and Public Safety.

The Act takes effect six months following enactment.

Net Operating Loss Carryover Allowed For Seven Years Following The Year of The Loss For Taxable Years Ending After June 30, 1984—Chapter 143, P.L. 1985 (approved April 22, 1985)

This act amends the Corporation Business Tax Act, P.L. 1945, c. 162 (C. 54:10A-4) to provide for a net operating loss carryover for seven years following the year of the loss for taxable years ending after June 30, 1984. The amount of the net operating loss for the loss year must be carried forward to the earliest taxable years to which it may be carried. The amount of the carryover loss to each of the other taxable years consists of the excess, if any, of the amount of the loss over the sum of the entire net income computed without the exclusions allowed from the gross income of an international banking facility and any dividend exclusions allowed or the net operating loss deduction for each of the prior taxable years to which the loss may be carried.

Where there is a change in 50% or more of the ownership of a corporation resulting from the redemption or sale of stock and the corporation changes the trade or business giving rise to the loss, no net operating loss sustained before the changes may be carried over to be deducted from income earned after such changes. Furthermore, where there is proof that the corporation was acquired under any circumstances for the primary purpose of the use of its net operating loss carryover, the Director of the Division of Taxation may disallow the carryover.

There is no provision in the act for any net operating loss carryback.

The act also provides that a production credit association organized under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 2091 et seq.) shall not be deemed a "financial business."

This act is effective immediately.

New Jersey Urban Development Corporation Act—Creates Urban Development Entity—Grants Corporation Business Tax Exemption For Certain Businesses In Project Area—Chapter 227, P.L. 1985 (approved July 8, 1985)

This act creates the New Jersey Urban Development Corporation. It states that it is the intention of the Legislature, to create an instrument for utilizing the widest possible range of financing techniques to coordinate available private and public resources for the revitalization of our urban communities. The corporation, which is allocated to the Department of Commerce and Economic Development, is intended to complement and supplement private-sector financing and development activities, and should not necessarily compete with or supplant responsible private-sector interest in the implementation of projects.

The Urban Development Corporation will oversee revitalization projects in 65 urban areas across the state. Municipalities now receiving assistance under the urban aid program or the Depressed Rural Centers Act qualify.

The corporation is empowered to make business loans to developers, to sell stocks and bonds, to finance redevelopment projects and to make grants and low-interest loans to cities to repair their infrastructures. The developing corporation will seek to unite public and private-sector resources to stimulate economic growth in urban areas. One-third of the funds will be used for loans to private developers, one-third for grants to municipalities, and the remaining third to fund "co-venture" investment programs between the state development corporation and private industry.

The program is funded by a $30 million appropriation to the Urban Development Investment Fund from the Community Development Bond Act of 1982.

The Governor will oversee the corporation initially, with direction eventually shifting to a nine-member board of directors made up of five members nominated by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate and the Commissioners of Commerce and Economic Development, Community Affairs and Labor and the State Treasurer.

The Urban Development Corporation will make annual reports to the Governor and Legislature assessing economic needs in urban areas and forecasting possible remedies.

Under the terms of the legislation, any person, firm or corporation actively engaged in the conduct of business at a location within a project as defined in the act, which is subject to the provisions of the Corporation Business Tax Act and the business of which at that location consists primarily of manufacturing or other business that is not retail sales or warehouse oriented, shall, for a period of two years from the date upon which an agreement for the undertaking of the project was entered into pursuant to the Urban Development Corporation Act, be entitled to an annual credit against the amount of tax imposed of (1) $1,500.00 for each new employee employed at the location who is a resident of the qualified municipality and who immediately prior to such employment was unemployed at least 90 days or was dependent upon public assistance as the primary source of income. A credit for which an employer-taxpayer qualifies under this provision in the Urban Development Corporation Act shall be allowed in the tax year next following the tax year of qualification, and may be continued into a second tax year if such qualification continues, but it shall be allowed only for those new employees who were employed at least six consecutive months by the employer-taxpayer in the year of qualification.

Sections 1 through 6, 10A, 11 through 15, and 18 through 20 of the Urban Development Corporation Act take effect immediately. This includes section 12 of the Act which provides for the corporation business tax reduction which takes effect immediately. Sections 7 through 10, 16 and 17 of the Urban Development Corporation Act takes effect one year after the date of enactment, which was July 8, 1985.

GROSS INCOME TAX

Constitutional Amendment Approved by Voters Would Prevent Any Future Taxation of Social Security and Railroad Retirement Benefits—November 6, 1984.

A constitutional amendment was approved by the voters on November 6, 1984. Although Federal social security and railroad retirement benefits are presently exempt from the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act, N.J.S.A. 54A:1-1, et seq., the constitutional amendment which was approved by the voters on November 6, 1984 would prevent the state from including these benefits in any future state tax programs.

Tax Refund Claim Can Be Designated for the Child Life Protection Fund—Chapter 197, P.L. 1985 (approved June 25, 1985).

This act establishes a Children's Trust Fund and the Child Life Protection Commission. It provides that each taxpayer who is due a tax refund on his taxes paid pursuant to the Gross Income Tax Act shall have the opportunity to indicate on his tax return that a portion of his tax refund in the amount of $2, $5 or $10 be deposited in a special fund known as the Child Life Protection Fund. The State Treasurer is to deposit into the Fund all monies designated for the Fund. The Legislature shall annually appropriate all monies deposited in the Fund to the Child Life Protection Commission.

The Child Life Protection Commission, established in accordance with the provisions in the act, would use the monies to award grants to public and private agencies and organizations for the purpose of planning and establishing or improving programs and services concerning abused or neglected children and their families.

This abstract relates to only those provisions in the act that relate to the Gross Income Tax Act. N.J.S.A. 54A:1-1 et seq.

This act is effective immediately, but shall apply to the 1985 tax year and thereafter. The provision allowing the designation of a portion of a tax refund claim to be paid to the Child Life Protection Fund shall expire on December 31 of the year in which the aggregate amount of money designated by taxpayers for deposit in the Children's Trust Fund reaches $20,000,000.00.

TRANSFER INHERITANCE TAX

Phaseout of Part Of Inheritance Tax—Chapter 57, P.L. 1985 (approved February 27, 1985)

The act provides that the transfer of property to a husband or wife of a decedent is exempted retroactive to January 1, 1985. The tax remains in effect on transfers to husband or wife of a decedent through December 31, 1984.

On transfers of property to a father, mother, grandparent, child or children of a decedent, or to any child or children adopted by the decedent in conformity with the laws of this State or of any of the United States or of a foreign country or the issue of any child or legally adopted child of a decedent, the tax on the amount inherited in excess of $15,000 remains in effect through June 30, 1985. Effective July 1, 1985 through June 30, 1986, no tax will have to be paid on the first $50,000 inherited. For transfers made from July 1, 1986 through June 30, 1987, no tax will have to be paid on the first $150,000 inherited. For transfers made from July 1, 1987 through June 30, 1988, no tax will have to be paid on the first $250,000 inherited. For transfers made to fathers, mothers, grandparents and children on or after July 1, 1988, the tax is eliminated.

On transfers of property to a brother or sister of a decedent, wife or widow of a son of a decedent, or husband or widower of a daughter of a decedent, the tax remains in effect without any change through June 30, 1988. Effective July 1, 1988, there will be no tax on the first $25,000 inherited.

The act also provides that the Director of the Division of Taxation shall prepare and transmit to the Governor on or before October 1, 1986 and on or before October 1 annually thereafter, a report concerning the taxation of property transfers under the Transfer Inheritance Tax Act, R.S. 54:34-1, et seq., in such a manner as to facilitate an evaluation of the comparability of this state's inheritance tax structure to selected other states. The report shall include information that will enable an evaluation of the tax liability for gross and taxable estates. The report shall include observations and recommendations concerning the taxation of property transfers under the inheritance tax, R.S. 54:34-1, et seq.

The act is effective immediately and shall be applicable to transfers of property on and after January 1, 1985.

INSURANCE RETALIATORY TAX

Excludes Special Purpose Obligations And Assessments From Computation of Retaliatory Tax Liability of Foreign Property and Casualty Insurers—Chapter 88, P.L. 1985 (approved May 26, 1985)

This act amends P.L. 1950, c. 231 (C. 17:13-15) to exclude special purpose assessments imposed in connection with particular kinds of insurance, such as those imposed by State second injury funds, from the computation of the retaliatory tax liability of foreign property or casualty insurers. In amending the law to exclude special purpose obligations and assessments, the act brings the law as it relates to the retaliatory taxation of property and casualty insurers, into conformance with the treatment of retaliatory taxes imposed on foreign life insurers under N.J.S.A. 17B:23-5.

The Act is effective immediately.

Authorizes State Treasurer To Extend To The 1985 Tax Year The Temporary Moratorium Of The Implementation Of A Revaluation For Cities Of The Fourth Class Having A Population In Excess Of 40,000—Chapter 67, P.L. 1984 (approved July 2, 1984)

This Act authorizes the State Treasurer to extend to the 1985 tax year, the temporary moratorium for the 1984 tax year of the implementation of a revaluation for cities of the fourth class having a population in excess of 40,000. The municipality must request the extension on or before January 1, 1985. The State Treasurer has the authority to extend the moratorium of the implementation of a revaluation to the tax year 1985 if he determines it is in the best interests of the municipality. The Treasurer must inform the municipality of his decision on or before January 31, 1985.

The Act took effect immediately.

Act Designed To Correct The October 1, 1983 Director's Table Of Equalized Valuations To Reflect Changes In The Sales Ratio Data By The County Board of Taxation In Its 1984 County Equalization Table—Chapter 92, P.L. 1984 (approved July 24, 1984)

The Act provides that for purposes of calculating State Aid to Education pursuant to c. 212, P.L. 1975 (C. 18A:7A-18), the Director of the Division of Taxation shall correct the October 1, 1983 Table of Equalized Valuations for a city to incorporate changes made in the sales ratio study by a county tax board in certifying its 1984 county equalization tax provided that:

1. The public schools of the city are organized as a Type I school district which is a member of a limited purpose regional school district and the city, which has a population of less than 1,000, is subject to pinelands building restrictions and the state, federal and independent authority ownership of land and land within the pinelands protection area in the city is approximately 40% of the total land area of the city; and

2. On or before March 10, 1984, a county board of taxation has adopted a 1984 county equalization table reflecting a revision in the sales ratio data from that utilized by the Director of the Division of Taxation in his October 1, 1983 Table of Equalization Valuations.

The Act is effective immediately.

Permits Municipalities To Create Special Improvement Districts And District Management Corporations—Chapter 151, P.L. 1984 (approved September 10, 1984)

This Act amends "An act authorizing municipalities to undertake, develop, construct, operate and finance, as local improvements, pedestrian malls, and supplementing Chapter 56 of Title 40 of the Revised Statutes," approved August 17, 1972 (P.L. 1972, c. 134) and authorizes the creation of special improvement districts and district management corporations.

The district management corporation is required to have an annual audit by a certified public accountant of New Jersey of its books, accounts and financial transactions which must be filed with the governing body of the municipality within four months after the close of the fiscal year of the corporation. A duplicate copy of the audit must be filed with the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs within five days of the filing of the audit with the governing body of the municipality.

The district management corporation must within 30 days after the close of each fiscal year, make an annual report of its activities for the preceeding fiscal year to the governing body of the municipality.

The responsibility for the enforcement of this Act is in the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs.

The Act is effective immediately.

Permits Tax Increment Financing in Certain Municipalities—Chapter 172, P.L. 1984 (approved October 31, 1984)

This act establishes a tax increment financing program for urban-aid municipalities. Basically, this program allows a municipality to issue bonds in order to fund projects in designated areas. The projects are intended to produce improvements in the property and, therefore, to increase the value of the property in the municipality. After the projects are completed, private developers would develop the property which would increase the value of the property further.

The bonds are repaid by "tax increments." Before projects begin, the value of all the land in a district is assessed. The amount of property tax revenues that the county, school boards, and the municipality would receive based upon that assessment is then "frozen" for the life of the district. Any increase in the property tax revenues (i.e., tax increments) collected after the projects begin is then used to repay the bonds.

The governing body of an urban-aid municipality designates an area or areas within its borders as a tax increment district or districts. The area within all districts designated cannot exceed 5% of the total property value in a municipality, unless the governing body, by ordinance, increases the total property value allowance to 10%.

District plans are developed which outline the projects to be funded, the sources of revenue, the estimated costs, the developments that private developers have proposed for project sites, etc. The Commissioner of the Department of Community Affairs and the State Treasurer shall review and approve the district plans. Upon approval by the Commissioner and the State Treasurer, the governing body shall approve the plans by ordinance.

"Qualifying municipality" is defined as a municipality which in any year subsequent to the enactment of P.L. 1978, c. 14 (C.52:27D-178 et seq.) was eligible to receive State urban aid pursuant to that act or any municipality which has (1) a population of 15,000 or less, according to the most recent federal decennial census, (2) a population density of 5,000 or more, (3) 100 or more children enrolled in the Aid to Families with Dependent Children Program, according to the data available to and utilized by the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs to determine eligibility for State aid under the provisions of P.L. 1978, c. 14 (C. 52:27D-178 et seq.), (4) an equalized tax rate which exceeds the State equalized tax rate and (5) an equalized valuation per capita which is less than the State equalized valuation per capita.

This act takes effect immediately but remains inoperative for 30 days following enactment, except that the commissioners are authorized, immediately upon enactment, to promulgate such rules and regulations and to provide such assistance to municipalities, permitted by the act, which they may deem necessary to facilitate the purposes and provisions of the act. Qualifying municipalities may designate districts at any time between the effective date of this act and the first day of the thirty-sixth calendar month next following the month in which this act takes effect. Districts approved by the commissioners before the first day of the thirty-sixth calendar month next following the month in which this act takes effect shall continue to retain the right, consistent with the provisions of this act, to continue any developments, projects or plans, including the issuance of additional financial obligations. A development, project or plan need not have begun before the first day of the thirty-sixth calendar month next following the month in which this act takes effect in order to be eligible for financing under the provisions of this act.

Provides for Taxation of Exempt Real Property if Used by a Private Party in an Activity Conducted for Profit Under an Agreement Other Than a Lease—Chapter 176, P.L. 1984 (approved November 2, 1984)

This act provides for the assessment and taxation of real property which is exempt if it is used by a private party in connection with an activity conducted for profit. This private party is subject to taxation to the same extent as though he owned the property or any portion of it. Exempt property leased to another who is not exempt from real property taxation is taxable under current law. Where use of the real property is allowed under an agreement other than a lease, the property is not taxable. This act is designed to overcome this apparent limitation.

This act is effective immediately and shall be applicable with regard to assessments and taxes for the tax year 1984 and thereafter.

Extends for Six Months the Time County Tax Board Members Must Complete Training Course—Chapter 188, P.L. 1984 (approved November 15, 1984)

This act amends C. 54:3-2 and extends from 18 months to 24 months the time period in which county tax board members must furnish proof that they have received certificates indicating satisfactory completion of the training courses or that they possess an assessor's certificate. The training course work is designated in Section 4, P.L. 1967, c. 44 (C. 54:1-35.28).

The act is effective immediately.

Adds Experience Requirement to the Certification Standards for Municipal Tax Collectors—Chapter 9, P.L. 1985 (approved January 16, 1985)

This act provides that in addition to graduation from a four year course at an institution of higher education an applicant for certification as a tax collector shall have not less than two years' full-time experience in tax collection. An applicant who does not meet the college education requirement may substitute on a year-to-year basis full-time experience in tax collecting or accounting. An applicant who does not meet the college education requirement or full-time experience requirement permitted as a substitution for the college education requirement may substitute certificates of completion of municipal tax collector I, II and III courses offered through Rutgers, the State University.

The act is effective immediately and applies to any applicant for examination whose application is submitted on or after the effective date of this act.

Provides Relief for Nonprofit Charitable or Religious Associations or Corporations Which Have Failed to File Timely Claims for Exemption During the Past Seven Years—Chapter 36, P.L. 1985 (approved February 1, 1985)

This act provides that during the 90-day period following the effective date of this act, the governing body of each municipality, by ordinance, may, upon showing of good cause as to why a timely claim was not filed, return all taxes collected on property owned by one or more associations or corporations organized exclusively for charitable or religious purposes, which would have been exempt had timely claim been made, except that no refund shall be made if more than seven years have passed since the last date for filing a timely application. No interest shall be paid by the municipality on any refund.

This act is effective immediately and shall expire on the ninety-first day after enactment.

Allows Municipalities To Grant Tax Abatements For Certain New Condominium Construction In Certain Distressed Urban Areas—Chapter 138, P.L. 1985 (approved April 12, 1985)

This act amends and supplements P.L. 1978, c. 93 (C. 40:55C-46.1) the "Urban Renewal Corporation and Association Law of 1961" to allow municipalities to grant tax abatements for certain new condominium construction in distressed urban centers. This would be a valuable redevelopment tool, providing a needed incentive to the development of new housing in such areas of the State which would, in turn, encourage the economic growth and the social progress of the municipalities.

Makes Permissive Implementation of Revaluation of Real Property in Certain Cities of the First Class for Tax Year 1985—Chapter 152, P.L. 1985 (approved April 25, 1985)

This act makes permissive the implementation of a revaluation of real property in certain cities of the first class for the tax year 1985. It provides that notwithstanding any provisions of law or any judicial order to the contrary, no city of the first class having a population in excess of 300,000 according to the 1980 Federal decennial census, shall be required to implement a revaluation of real property for the tax year 1985. The determination of a city not to implement a revaluation pursuant to this act shall not prevent the city from conducting and implementing any partial or complete reassessment of real property in the city during the period covered by this act.

This act is effective immediately.

Exempts Owners Of Property Within A Water District From Payment For Water System If They Are Nonusers—Chapter 191, P.L. 1985 (approved June 20, 1985)

This act concerns water districts and amends R.S. 40:62-101, R.S. 40:62-102 and P.L. 1951, c. 280. It provides that property in a water district shall be exempt from assessment if the water supplied by the water district is not reasonably available to the owner of the property and prior to each assessment, the governing body of the municipality where the water district is located determines that the exemption would not adversely affect the ability of the municipality to meet the principal reduction and interest payments on outstanding bonds issued by the municipality for the creation and establishment of the water district and installation and construction of the water system.

The act is effective immediately.

Allows Persons 65 Years or Older to Receive Both Veterans and Senior Citizen Tax Deduction—Chapter 200, P.L. 1985 (approved June 26, 1985)

This act provides that a person who is qualified for a veteran's property tax deduction and a senior citizen's property tax deduction may receive both. In addition a claimant may receive any homestead rebate or credits provided by law. This act implements the provisions of the constitutional amendment approved by the voters on November 6, 1984.

The act is effective immediately.

Constitutional Amendment Approved by the Voters Would Allow Persons 65 Years or Over to Receive Both Veterans' and Senior Citizens' Tax Deduction November 6, 1984. A constitutional amendment was approved by the voters at the November 6, 1984 election which would allow persons 65 years of age or over or persons permanently and totally disabled to receive both the veterans' and senior citizens' tax deductions simultaneously. Legislation must be passed to implement this constitutional amendment.

MOTOR FUELS TAX

Temporary and Limited Exemption From Tax For Certain Alcohol-Blend Motor Fuel—Chapter 88, P.L. 1984 (approved July 18, 1984)

This Act provides for a temporary and limited exemption for certain alcohol-blend motor fuel from the tax on motor fuels, by amending R.S. 54:39-2 and R.S. 54:39-27. "Alcohol-blend motor fuel" is defined to mean a liquid or gaseous substance, sold or used to propel motor vehicles upon the public highways, which is gasoline combined with a minimum of 10% grain-derived ethyl alcohol, whose purity is at least 99% alcohol, produced in the State from whole grain.

The tax per gallon on each gallon of alcohol-blend motor fuel is to be imposed as follows:

1. On and after October 1, 1985 but before January 1, 1988 the tax on alcohol-blend motor fuel shall be $0.08 less than the rate applicable and paid on the sale or use of other fuels taxed under this section which do not contain such a blend.

2. On and after January 1, 1988 but before January 1, 1990 the tax on alcohol-blend motor fuel shall be $0.06 less than the rate applicable and paid on the sale or use of other fuels taxed under this section which do not contain such a blend.

3. On and after January 1, 1990 but prior to January 1, 1992 the tax on alcohol-blend motor fuel shall be $0.04 less than the rate applicable and paid on the sale or use of other fuels taxed under this section which do not contain such a blend.

4. On and after January 1, 1992 the tax on alcohol-blend motor fuel shall be at the same rate applicable and paid on the sale or use of other such fuels taxed under this section which do not contain such a blend.

Any tax on alcohol-blend motor fuel imposed pursuant to this subsection shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the payment for the tax imposed on other fuels under the Act.

The Act is effective immediately.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment to be Voted Upon to Dedicate 2½ Cents Per Gallon of Motor Fuels Tax to Transportation—ACR-130, filed July 30, 1984. This assembly concurrent resolution provides for a proposed constitutional amendment to be voted upon at the next election to dedicate 2½ cents per gallon of the motor fuels tax for transportation.

Constitutional Amendment Approved by Voters Which Authorizes Legislature to Appropriate 2.5 Cents Per Gallon of Gasoline Tax to Transportation Trust Fund—November 6, 1984. A constitutional amendment was approved by the voters on November 6, 1984. it authorizes the Legislature to appropriate 2.5 cents of the state's 8 cent a gallon gasoline tax to the Transportation Trust Fund for the construction, reconstruction, repair and rehabilitation of the state's transportation system.

Technical Changes in the Motor Fuels Use Tax Act of 1963—Chapter 7, P.L. 1985 (approved January 16, 1985)

This act makes sundry amendments to P.L. 1963, c. 44, the Motor Fuels Use Tax Act of 1963 (C. 54:39A-1 et seq.). Aside from making technical changes in the language of the act, the new legislation adds language dealing with bulk fuel, increases certain penalties and fees, and extends the period of time for filing certain reports. Section 7 of the act providing for the filing of joint reports is repealed.

Bulk fuel is defined to mean fuel in quantities of not less than 500 gallons delivered into storage tanks, owned or rented under lease for a term of not less than one year by the user for future consumption.

The act is effective immediately.

REALTY TRANSFER FEE

Exemption from Payment of Realty Transfer Fee for Deeds Pursuant to Divorce in Certain Cases—Chapter 17, P.L. 1985 (approved January 25, 1985)

This act amends the Realty Transfer Fee Tax Law, P.L. 1968, c. 49, to exempt from the payment of the Realty Transfer Fee where a deed is recorded within 90 days following the entry of a divorce decree which dissolves the marriage between the grantor and grantee.

The act is effective immediately.

Increase in Fees—Dedication To Low And Moderate Income Housing—Chapter 225, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985)

This act is a companion law to the Fair Housing Act, the low and moderate income housing law, Chapter 222, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985) enacted by the Legislature.

The realty transfer fee schedule is revised by providing for a realty transfer fee for $1.75 fee for each $500.00 of consideration up to $150,000.00 and a $2.50 fee for each $500.00 in excess of $150,000.00.

28.6% of the proceeds from the first $1.75 for each $500.00 of consideration or fractional part thereof recited in the deed is for county use, and the balance for state use. The additional 75 cents fee for each $500.00 of consideration or fractional part in excess of $150,000.00 is to be credited to the Neighborhood Preservation Nonlapsing Revolving Fund established pursuant to Chapter 222, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985), the "Fair Housing Act."

The act provides for exemption of $1.25 per $500.00 consideration or fractional part thereof of the realty transfer fee on the sale of one or two-family residential premises by a senior citizen, blind person or disabled person. No exemption shall be allowed if the property sold is jointly owned and one or more of the owners is not a senior citizen, blind person, or disabled person.

Transfers of title to real property upon which there is new construction are exempt from payment of $1.00 for each $500.00 or fractional part thereof not in excess of $150,000.

No transfers are eligible for more than one exemption under this section of the law. All fees are collected on transfer subject to the senior citizen, blind or disabled persons exemption under this section of the law are to be remitted to the county treasurer for use of the county. 66% of the proceeds from the fees imposed upon the consideration not in excess of $150,000.00 for transfers of real property upon which there is new construction, and an amount equal to 20% of the proceeds of the $2.50 fee imposed upon each $500.00 of consideration or fractional part thereof in excess of $150,000.00 for transfers of real property upon which there is new construction, shall be remitted to the county treasurer for use of the county.

The balance of the fees collected on transfers subject to the new construction exemption shall be remitted to the State Treasurer and shall be credited to the Neighborhood Preservation Nonlapsing Revolving Fund established pursuant to Chapter 222, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985).

This act is effective January 1, 1986 which is the January 1 next following the enactment of Chapter 222, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985).

SALES AND USE TAX ACT

Exempts From Tax Receipts From Sales of Advertising or Promotional Materials Prepared Within or Outside New Jersey for Distribution by a New Jersey Direct Mail Advertising or Promotional Firm to Out-of-State Recipients—Chapter 24, P.L. 1985 (approved January 25, 1985)

This act amends the Sales and Use Tax Act to exempt from the sales and use tax receipts from sales of advertising or promotional materials which are prepared within or outside of the State of New Jersey for distribution by a New Jersey direct mail advertising or promotional firm to out-of-state recipients. The exemption applies to receipts from charges for the printing or production of advertising and promotional materials whether prepared in, or shipped into New Jersey after preparation and stored for subsequent shipment to out-of-state customers. The exemption does not apply to advertising services performed in this state for out-of-state recipients.

The act is effective immediately.

SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL AND RESOURCE RECOVERY ACT

Three New Taxes Levied on Waste Disposal to Help Finance Resource Recovery Facilities—Chapter 38, P.L. 1985 (approved February 4, 1985)

This act levies three new taxes on solid waste disposal to help finance construction of costly resource recovery facilities. The three new taxes on waste disposal seek to help counties cushion the transition from landfills to resource recovery which will involve the construction of costly incinerators.

The three taxes levied upon the owner or operator of a sanitary landfill facility are as follows:

1. A solid waste services tax at the initial rate of $0.50 per ton of solids and $0.002 per gallon of liquids on all solid waste accepted for disposal at a sanitary landfill facility. In the second year of the imposition of the tax and annually thereafter, the rate of the services tax shall be increased by $0.05 per ton of solids. The act provides no expiration date for the solid waste services tax which becomes effective on May 1, 1985.

2. A resource recovery investment tax at the initial rate of $1.00 per ton of solids and $0.004 per gallon of liquids on all solid waste accepted at a sanitary landfill facility. Unless the tax rate is adjusted (not to exceed $10.00 per ton of solids and $0.04 per gallon of liquids or the equivalent thereof) pursuant to section 11 of the act by a study conducted by each county in consultation with the Department of Environmental Protection so as to lower the cost to a level which is competitive with the cost of disposal in a sanitary landfill facility utilized by the county, or to finance the closing costs for the proper closure of any terminated sanitary landfill facility located within the county, the rate of the investment tax shall be increased as follows:

In the second year of the imposition of the investment tax, the rate of the investment tax shall be increased to $2.00 per ton of solids; in the third year, the rate of the investment tax shall be increased to $3.00 per ton of solids; and in the fourth year, the rate of the investment tax shall be increased to $4.00 per ton of solids.

The act provides that the resource recovery investment tax is to expire on the first day of the eleventh year following the imposition date of the tax which is May 1, 1985.

3. There is levied upon the owner or operator of every sanitary landfill facility which accepts out-of-district solid waste a solid waste importation tax at the initial rate of $1.00 per ton of solids and $0.004 per gallon of liquids on all out-of-district solid waste accepted for disposal at a sanitary landfill facility. In the third year of the imposition of this tax, the rate of the waste importation tax is increased to $4.00 per ton of solids, and annually thereafter the rate of the waste importation tax is increased by $2.00 per ton of solids. The act provides that the solid waste importation tax is to expire on the first day of the eleventh year following the imposition date of the tax which was May 1, 1985.

With respect to all three taxes, the tax will not be levied on the owner or operator of a sanitary landfill facility for the acceptance for disposal of the waste products resulting from the operation of a resource recovery facility.

There are provisions in the law for registration and filing of monthly reports with the Division of Taxation by every owner or operator of a sanitary landfill facility which accepts solid waste for disposal.

The act has provision for a surcharge to be passed on by the landfill owner or operator to the waste collector or hauler who would then pass the surcharge on to the waste generators.

There are two funds set up in the act:

1. The Solid Waste Services Tax Fund which is administered by the Department of Environmental Protection.

2. The Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund established in the Department of the Treasury. The Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund contains sub-accounts for each county to be held by the State Treasurer and to be distributed to the District Resource Recovery Investment Tax Fund within each county.

The act is effective immediately except for the three taxes imposed which become effective on May 1, 1985.

SPILL COMPENSATION AND CONTROL ACT

Cap on Expenditures Increased And Land Spills Eligible for Hazardous Waste Cleanup—Chapter 142, P.L. 1984 (Approved September 6, 1984)

This Act amends Section 3 of P.L. 1976, c. 141 (C. 58:10-23.11b), to increase the cap on expenditures by the Department of Environmental Protection from $3 million to $18 million annually. It also includes land spills in addition to water spills as eligible for hazardous waste cleanup.

The Act is effective immediately.

SPILL COMPENSATION FUND ACT

Requires the Fund Administrator to File a Notice of Lien With the Clerk of the Superior Court on Properties Cleaned Up with Spill Fund Monies—Chapter 11, P.L. 1985 (approved January 22, 1985)

This act provides that any expenditures made by the Administrator of the Spill Compensation Fund, pursuant to this act, for cleanup and removal of hazardous substances shall constitute, in each instance, a debt of the discharger to the fund. The debt shall constitute a lien on all property owned by the discharger when a notice of lien, incorporating a description of the property of the discharger subject to the cleanup and removal and an identification of the amount of cleanup, removal and related costs expended from the fund is duly filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court. The Clerk shall promptly enter upon the civil judgment or order docket the name and address of the discharger and the amount of the lien as set forth in the notice of lien. Upon entry by the Clerk, the lien, to the amount committed by the administrator for cleanup and removal, shall attach to the revenues and all real and personal property of the discharger, whether or not the discharger is insolvent.

The act is effective immediately and shall apply to all liens which are or have been filed pursuant to P.L. 1976, c. 141 (C. 58:10-23.11 et seq.).

SPILL COMPENSATION AND CONTROL ACT

Transfer of Responsibility For Administration of The New Jersey Compensation Fund To The Department of Environmental Protection—Chapter 115, P.L. 1985 (approved April 9, 1985)

This act amends the Spill Compensation and Control Act approved January 6, 1977 (P.L. 1976, c. 141) and transfers responsibility for the administration of the New Jersey Spill Compensation Fund from the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Environmental Protection. The position of administrator of the fund is transferred to the Department of Environmental Protection.

The act is to take effect 45 days following enactment except that section 13 shall take effect immediately.

Section 13 provides that "the administrator in the Department of the Treasury shall prepare and present to the State Treasurer and the Commissioner a statement of the current financial condition of the fund, including a summary of all outstanding claims against the fund on the effective date of this amendatory and supplementary act."

NOTE: Revenues from the Spill Compensation and Control Tax go into a fund called the New Jersey Spill Compensation Fund to pay for cleanup of discharges of hazardous substances.

NEW JERSEY URBAN ENTERPRISE ZONES ACT

Directs A Third Urban Enterprise Zone Be Designated For 1985—Chapter 142, P.L. 1985 (approved April 17, 1985)

came law on August 15, 1983 (P.L. 1983, c. 303, 52:27H-60 et al.) by removing the restriction that only two urban enterprise zones be designated in any one year. It directs the designation of a third urban enterprise zone in addition to the two already designated and authorized for 1985 under the New Jersey Urban Enterprise Zones Act and provides that the additional zone receive the full sales tax benefits which might otherwise be restricted under section 21 of the Act.

The Act provides that in designating enterprise zones the Urban Enterprise Zone Authority shall seek to avoid excessive geographic concentration of zones in any particular region of the State, and of the initial five enterprise zones designated by the authority, two shall be located in the 10 southernmost counties of the State and at least one shall be located in one of the five counties next most northern to those 10 counties, shall be located in a municipality of not less than 45,000 or more than 46,000 population and shall be designated within 90 days of the effective date of this amendatory and supplementary act.

(Comment: The Urban Enterprise Zone Authority on March 4, 1985 designated a zone in the City of Trenton after prolonged discussion, in which the members found it difficult and distressing to be forced to choose between that designation and one proposed in the City of Plainfield.

The Act also permits the acceleration of future designations of zones, by removing the present restriction in the number that may be designated in any one year.)

The act was effective immediately.

MISCELLANEOUS

Proposed Constitutional Amendment to Ensure Exemption of Social Security Benefits and Railroad Retirement Benefits—SCR-98 (Filed July 31, 1984).

This concurrent resolution proposes an amendment to the Constitution of the State of New Jersey to prohibit the taxation of benefits received under the Social Security Act, the Railroad Retirement Act, or any successor legislation to either law. This proposed constitutional amendment is to be submitted to the voters at the November 6, 1984 election.

Approved by the voters, the amendment will take effect on December 7, 1984.

Social Security and Railroad Retirement benefits are currently excludable from income subject to the New Jersey gross income tax. Since the federal government started to tax certain of these payments, some state governments have likewise begun to do so. Adoption of this constitutional amendment assures that New Jersey's position of excluding these benefits from taxation will not be changed.

Tax Study Commission—Chapter 213, P.L. 1984 (approved December 17, 1984)

The act created a Tax Study Commission which is to be appointed by the Governor, by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the General Assembly. The Tax Study Commission is to undertake an immediate and comprehensive examination of existing state fiscal policy; the present and future revenue requirements for providing governmental services at all levels of government; the various established mandated state spending formulas; and the role of the various levels of government in raising revenues and providing services.

The Tax Study Commission is to report its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature by January 15, 1986, accompanied with any legislative bills which it may desire to recommend for adoption by the Legislature.

The act was effective immediately.

Casino Control Act Amended To Require Casinos To Reinvest Certain Percentages Of Their Gross Revenue In Atlantic City And Other Municipalities—Chapter 218, P.L. 1984 (approved December 19, 1984).

The Act amends the Casino Control Act (P.L. 1981, c. 142) and amends and supplements P.L. 1977, c. 110 by imposing an investment alternative tax on the gross revenues of casinos. A credit against this tax is obtained by the casino purchasing bonds issued by a newly created Casino Reinvestment Development Authority. These bonds will be issued to finance projects in the earlier years of a 25 year period in Atlantic City and later phasing-in municipalities in South Jersey and later municipalities in North Jersey.

The act is effective immediately except that the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority shall not exercise its powers and responsibilities other than the promulgation of rules and regulations until it has adopted those rules and regulations.

Low and Moderate Income Housing Legislation To Implement The New Jersey Supreme Court Mount Laurel Decisions—Chapter 222, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985)

This act implements the New Jersey Supreme Court rulings in South Burlington County NAACP v. Mount Laurel 67 N.J. 151 (1975) and South Burlington County NAACP v. Mount Laurel 92 N.J. 158 (1983) and enact low and moderate income housing legislation known as the "Fair Housing Act."

The Act seeks to take the zoning requirements for low and moderate housing out of the hands of the courts. It establishes in the Department of Community Affairs a Council on Affordable Housing. The law provides for municipalities to voluntarily seek a certification of their low and moderate income housing plans from the Council on Affordable Housing. Municipalities that do not participate will continue to risk court ordered rezoning.

The Act also establishes a one-year moratorium on further court decisions imposing the builder's remedy to force a town to accept more housing in order to provide its fair share of lower cost housing.

Under the legislation, the state will set aside $100 million in Housing and Mortgage Finance Agency (HMFA) bonds to finance a low and moderate-income housing program. The money could be applied to reducing mortgage rates, helping municipalities build sewers and water services or financing the rehabilitation of urban and senior citizen housing.

Another $25 million will be made available to the housing program through a direct appropriation.

A companion bill was enacted, Chapter 225, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985) which dedicates $8 million from the realty transfer fee proceeds toward the housing program. The $8 million along with a separate $2 million appropriation from the state's general fund would make $10 million available to the existing Neighborhood Preservation Program.

Municipalities under the Act are required to include a housing element that assesses their present and prospective needs in their master plans.

The legislation provides that a municipality that has settled a Mount Laurel 2-related housing suit cannot be sued again for at least six years.

The Act allows municipalities to work out agreements with neighboring cities to transfer up to half a suburb's housing obligation in return for such things as financing sewer and street repairs in the cities or helping to pay for rehabilitation programs.

The Act is effective immediately and became operative upon enactment of the companion bill, Chapter 225, P.L. 1985 (approved July 2, 1985).

Counties Permitted To Defer Increased Costs In Operation Of County Nursing Homes—An Exception To The Local Cap Limitation—Chapter 227, P.L. 1984 (approved December 28, 1984)

This act concerns certain appropriations by counties and supplements P.L. 1976 c. 68 (C. 40A:4-45.1 et seq.).

It provides that notwithstanding the provisions of section 4 of P.L. 1976 c. 68 (C. 40A:4-45.4) to the contrary, a county which incurs increased costs due to an increase in the number of beds provided and occupied in county nursing homes may expend funds as may be necessary to defray those costs as an exception to the spending limitations imposed by P.L. 1976 c. 68 (C. 40A:4-45.1 et seq.) in the year such costs are first realized.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 of P.L. 1976, c. 68 (C. 40A:4-45.2) to the contrary, in the year following the year in which an exception is taken pursuant to the above paragraph, the amount excepted in that year minus any amount received in that year from federal, State or other sources as reimbursement for expenses incurred for the care and treatment of residents of county nursing homes, shall be added by the county to its final appropriations for the current year for the purpose of calculating its permissible increase in the county tax levy for the current budget year.

The Act is effective immediately and shall apply to the 1984 local budget year and thereafter.

Repeals Authority For Atlantic City Convention Center Authority To Impose Charges Upon Casino Hotels and Motels In Atlantic City, Based Upon Rooms Available For Hire—Chapter 232, P.L. 1984 (approved December 28, 1984)

This Act repeals section 11 of the "Atlantic City Convention Center Authority Act," P.L. 1981, c. 459 (C. 52:27H-39). That section permits the authority to impose charges upon casino hotels, hotels and motels in Atlantic City, based upon rooms available for hire. The intent was to levy the charges to fund any operating deficit of the authority. This is no longer necessary, since recent legislation (P.L. 1982, c. 113 and P.L. 1982, c. 125) provides for the use of luxury tax revenues to meet the authority operating deficit.

This Act is effective immediately.

Requires Insurers To Set Aside Anticipated Demolition Costs For Fire Damaged Properties In Municipalities Under Certain Circumstances—Chapter 244, P.L. 1984 (approved January 3, 1985)

The Act requires insurers to set aside up to $2,500.00 in anticipated demolition costs for fire damaged properties in municipalities which have passed an ordinance pursuant to the provisions of P.L. 1978, c. 184 which requires insurance companies to withhold claims payments on fire damaged properties pending a search to tax liens and other assessments levied against the fire damaged property. That law was enacted by the Legislature to permit municipalities to have an opportunity to recover taxes and other assessments due from fire damaged properties; if those liens against the property are not otherwise satisfied by the owner they would be payable from the proceeds of the policy. This Act requires insurers to inquire of municipalities as to the anticipated demolition costs, if any, which would result from a fire in the insured property, and would require insurers to hold that amount in escrow until the demolition costs are paid. The need for this bill is occasioned by the fact that the search for liens required by P.L. 1978, c. 184 might not show a lien for demolition costs, with the result that the municipality would be required to pay for demolition if the owner did not do so.

This Act is effective immediately.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution Expresses the Concern of the Legislature About the Federal Treasury's Income Tax Proposals—Assembly Concurrent Resolution 154 (filed January 25, 1985).

This Assembly Concurrent Resolution expresses the deep concern of the Legislature over the income tax proposals of the United States Department of the Treasury, memorializing Congress to resist the proposed elimination of deductions for state and local taxes and petitioning the New Jersey congressional delegation to meet and confer with state legislative leaders on this issue.

Permits Granting of Administration of an Estate Without Bond to a Surviving Spouse in Certain Cases—Chapter 34, P.L. 1985 (approved February 1, 1985).

This act permits the granting of administration of an estate without a bond to a surviving spouse where the decedent's entire estate is payable to the surviving spouse.

The act is effective immediately.

Effective Date of Boat Ownership Certificate Act January 15, 1986—Chapter 75, P.L. 1985 (approved March 11, 1985)

The Act amends the effective date of the Boat Ownership Certificate Act P.L. 1984, c. 152 (C. 12:7A-1 et seq.) from March 12, 1985 to January 15, 1986 in order to allow the Division of Motor Vehicles additional time to prepare for the implementation of the Act.

This Act is to take effect January 15, 1986.

Appropriates $29.4 Million to Municipalities Under the Municipal Purposes Tax Assistance Program for Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1985—Chapter 102, P.L. 1984 (approved August 1, 1984).

The Act appropriates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1985, $29.4 million for payments to municipalities pursuant to the provisions of the municipal purposes tax assistance program. An amount of $60 million is anticipated as Municipal Purposes Tax Assistance Fund revenue in the fiscal year 1985 appropriations bill; $30.5 million is appropriated. The act appropriates the balance of these revenues for the purposes of the fund.

The act is effective immediately and is retroactive to July 1, 1984.

In Computing Entire Net Income A Taxpayer May Not Deduct The Federal Windfall Profits Tax—Reconsideration of Summary Judgment in Favor of Defendant Denied When There Is No Manifest Error of Law or A Miscarriage of Justice—Amerada Hess Corporation et al v. Director, Division of Taxation 7 NJ Tax 275 (Tax Court of New Jersey—February 14, 1985).

The Tax Court denied Plaintiffs' consolidated motion for reconsideration of summary judgment entered earlier by the Tax Court, dismissing plaintiffs' complaint. A deficiency assessment of the Corporation Business Tax against the plaintiffs for the year 1980 was affirmed and the court held that in computing entire net income for New Jersey corporation business tax purposes, the taxpayers may not deduct any taxes paid or accrued to the federal government for the windfall profits because it was a tax paid to the United States on or measured by profits or income pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)(2)(C).

The court said that it could only reconsider the summary judgment for defendant under R4:49-1 or 2 where there was a "manifest error of fact" or where it has been clearly and convincingly established that the trial judge's conclusion was based upon a "manifest error of law" which will result in a "miscarriage of justice."

The court said that the plaintiffs' motions do not allege a "manifest error of fact" and that the fact that the trial judge interpreted the Legislature's inaction and silence upon the enactment of the Federal Crude-Oil Windfall Profits Tax Act of 1980 indicated the probable intent of the legislature was to regard this tax as one measured by profits or income. Thus it could not be deducted by the plaintiffs in determining their entire net income for 1980. Since the precise legal issue presented to the trial court had never been passed upon by a court of record in this State, there was no guiding prior determination. Thus it cannot be said that the trial judge's conclusion is clearly error as a matter of law.

The Tax Court thus concluded that plaintiffs failed to establish the existence of either a manifest error of law or a miscarriage of justice as required by R4:49-1 or 2. Judgement was entered denying plaintiffs' motion for reconsideration.

Taxpayer May Not Deduct Federal Windfall Tax in Computing Entire Net Income—Amerada Hess Corporation et al. v. Director, Division of Taxation—7 NJ Tax 51 (Tax Court of New Jersey, Sept. 28, 1984).

The Tax Court affirmed a 1980 deficiency assessment of Corporation Business Tax imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation against the plaintiff oil companies. The court held that in computing entire net income for New Jersey Corporation Business Tax purposes, the taxpayers may not deduct any taxes paid or accrued to the Federal government under the Crude-Oil Windfall Profit Tax of 1980 (94 Stat. 229, 26 U.S.C.A. §4986-4997).

Since 1958 corporations have been assessed a corporation business tax in part of the basis of "total net income from all sources, whether within or without the United States . . . determined without the . . . deduction . . . of . . . taxes paid or accrued to the United States on or measured by profits or income . . ." [N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)(2)(C)].

The court said that conscientious State legislators were mindful of the enactment of the windfall profits tax in 1979 and the impact it might have on State revenues. If they had been concerned, they would have reviewed the language of the Corporation Business Tax and amended the statutory language to protect State's revenue source. The legislators had been assured that no amendment to the statutory language was necessary to protect the State's revenue. The Legislature perceived the windfall profits tax to be on profits or income and felt no need to amend the Corporation Business Tax for that very reason.

The court thus held that the Legislature in 1979 intended to include the Crude-Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act of 1980 within the term, "taxes paid or accrued to the United States on or measured by profits or income," as stated in N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)(2)(C). Plaintiffs were not entitled to deduct their windfall profits tax obligations in determining their entire net income for 1980.

The court found no constitutional violations of the Commerce, Equal Protection and Due Process, and Supremacy Clauses of the U.S. Constitution. The income tax base among corporate taxpayers is not affected. The only question here is whether plaintiffs may claim a deduction from their net income tax base, not whether there should be an addition to that portion of the tax base.

Although the starting point for determining entire net income under the Corporation Business Tax is Federal taxable income before net operating loss and special deductions, the State tax deviates from the Federal tax by providing its own inclusions and exclusions from the tax base [N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)]. Plaintiffs are incorrect in their contention that Federal law determines the amount of a taxpayer's entire net income under the Corporation Business Tax Act.

The court entered the judgements affirming the 1980 deficiency assessments imposed by the Director.

Composition of The Receipts Fraction of the Business Allocation Factor—American Telephone & Telegraph Company v. Director, Division of Taxation 97 NJ 627 (1984).

The Supreme Court of New Jersey on June 12, 1984 denied petition for certification and petition for cross-certification from the judgment of the Appellate Division of the Superior Court reported at 194 NJ Super 168 (1984).

The Appellate Division of the Superior Court had affirmed the judgment of the Tax Court on September 30, 1982 reported at 4 N.J. Tax 638, substantially for the reasons stated therein. The court held that the return of principal resulting from the sale or redemption of intangible investments and tangible personal property (noninventory) does not constitute business receipts and is not to be reflected in either the denominator or the numerator of the receipts fraction, under N.J.S.A. 54:10A-6(B). It was also held that the incremental gain resulted from the sale of intangible investments and tangible personal property (noninventory), whether capital gain or ordinary income constitutes a business receipt and is to be reflected in the denominator and, if applicable, in the numerator of the receipts fraction under N.J.S.A. 54:10A-6(B).

However, the Appellate Division differed with the Tax Court's opinion insofar as it might indicate that in the sale of tangible personal property which is held as inventory in the ordinary course of business, the principal amount would be excluded from the receipts fraction and only the gain would be included in the receipts fraction. In the sale of inventories, tangible personal property, the entire amount would be included in the receipts fraction.

The Appellate Division, however, entered a judgment affirming the Tax Court which now stands with the denial of the petition and cross-petition for certification by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

NOTE: The intangible items resulted from the investment of idle cash in short-term obligations, consisting of bonds, certificates of deposit, commercial paper and similar obligations.

The tangible items resulted from the sale of business equipment used by the company which was determined to be no longer needed.

Value of Federal Obligation Holdings Is Includible In Net Worth Tax Base and Income Therefrom Is Includible In The Net Income Tax Base For Corporation Business Tax Purposes Garfield Trust Company v. Director, Division of Taxation, (App. Div. 1985) (unreported).

The Appellate Division affirmed, for the reasons expressed therein, the Tax Court determination report at 6 N.J. Tax 462 (1984) which had held that the tax bases of state and federally chartered commercial banks, for New Jersey Corporation Business Tax purposes must include the value of federal, state and local obligations and the income therefrom.

The Tax Court had affirmed the Director of the Division of Taxation in denying plaintiff's refund claim and held that plaintiff, a commercial banking corporation, was required to include in its 1977 Corporation Business Tax Return the value of federal obligations in its net worth and the interest on such obligations in its net income. The court held this conforms with the Federal Public Debt Statute (31 U.S.C.A. §742) which exempts federal obligations from being taxed by state or local governments either directly or indirectly except for nondiscriminatory franchise or other nonproperty taxes in lieu thereof imposed on corporations. The court found the corporation business tax to be a nondiscriminatory franchise tax and the inclusion of federal obligations in the net worth and the income therefrom in the net income tax bases was proper.

Judgment was entered affirming the judgment of the Tax Court.

Corporation Allowed 100% Dividend Exclusion Under N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)(1) Where Part of 80% of Subsidiary's Stock Is Owned Indirectly—International Flavor & Fragrances, Inc. a New York Corporation v. Director, Division of Taxation—(App. Div. 1984) (unreported).

The Appellate Division affirmed the judgment of the Tax Court essentially for the reasons stated in its opinion reported at 5 N.J. Tax 617 (1983). The Tax Court had vacated an assessment of the Corporation Business Tax for 1975 and 1976 made against plaintiff corporation. The Tax Court had held that plaintiff corporation was entitled to the 100% dividend exclusion from net income provided in N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)(1). The court ruled that even though the plaintiff is the record owner of less than 80% of the subsidiary, the remainder of the subsidiary's stock is owned by another subsidiary that is wholly owned by the taxpayer. It was held that plaintiff met the test of having 80% or more ownership by its indirect subsidiary ownership.

The Appellate Division noticed that the Tax Court did not base its opinion on the regulation N.J.A.C. 18:7-4.5(d) which was invalidated in part by the New Jersey Supreme Court in the cases of Fedders Financial Corp. v. Taxation Div. Director, 96 N.J. 376 (1984) and Mobay Chemical Corp. v. Taxation Div. Director, 96 N.J. 407 (1984).

Judgment was entered affirming the vacation of the defendant's assessment, including any related interest by the Tax Court.

Use of "Audience Share" as Receipts Fraction for Multi-state Television; Authorization by Statute Requires Implementation by Rule-Making Procedures—Metromedia, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 97 NJ 313 (1984).

New Jersey's Supreme Court reversed the decision of the Appellate Division, whose opinion was reported at 187 N.J. Super. 562 (App. Div. 1983) and affirmed the decision of the Tax Court, whose opinion was reported at 3 N.J. Tax 397 (Tax Court 1981). The Court held that the Director had broad authority under the Corporation Business Tax to modify the statutory authority for determining a multi-state taxpayer's New Jersey tax base and could use an audience share fraction instead of the three-part formula in a case involving a multi-state radio and television enterprise. However, the use of such an allocation method required implementing regulations and recourse to rule-making procedures. The tax assessment imposed by the Director against the taxpayer for 1972 through 1975 was thus declared invalid.

The taxpayer, Metromedia, Inc., is a Delaware corporation engaged in the ownership and operation of radio and television stations. During 1972-1975, Metromedia owned and operated a television station and two radio stations located in New York City, in addition to two radio stations in Philadelphia. Metromedia's only property located in New Jersey consisted of a radio transmitter facility consisting of a "blockhouse" and two broadcast towers located in Bellmawr. The taxpayer's Philadelphia and New York City broadcast stations reach audiences in New Jersey, but no activities occurred within New Jersey in connection with advertising sales or receipts. For 1972-75, Metromedia reported no advertising revenue from these broadcast stations as being attributable to New Jersey for purposes of the New Jersey Corporation Business Tax.

As a result of an audit of the taxpayer for 1972-1975, the Director determined the business receipts of the taxpayer attributable to its operation in this State under the Corporation Business Tax by using a calculation method referred to as an "audience share." This method for determining the New Jersey receipts of a multi-state television or radio enterprise had not been used by the Director before this application to Metromedia in this case. The application of the calculation in Metromedia's case resulted in a deficiency tax assessment.

The New Jersey Supreme Court held that there was statutory authority for the Director to determine the New Jersey receipts of a multi-state television and radio station enterprise whose broadcast operations cover audiences in New Jersey based on an "audience share" in this State. However, the action taken by the Director was invalid without prior promulgation of rules to comply with the Administrative Procedure Act (N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq.).

The court held that:

1. In the case of a multi-state television and radio station enterprise whose broadcast operations cover audiences in New Jersey, the Corporation Business Tax Act permits the discretionary choice by the Director to compute the corporate taxpayer's receipts attributable to New Jersey by the application of a fraction based on an "audience share" in this State. However, the Director's determination in this case did constitute a rule, and its adoption required compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.

2. The Director's discretion, bound by standards of sound accounting principles, is nonetheless as broad as necessary to enable the Director to determine the percentage of net worth and net income that can be attributable to New Jersey. The Director's expertise, particularly when exercised in the specialized and complex area involved here, is entitled to great respect by the courts. Moreover, the agency's interpretation of the operative law is entitled to prevail so long as it is not plainly unreasonable. However, in balancing the relevant factors, the Court is satisfied that the agency determination in this case did constitute a rule, and that its adoption required compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.

A judgment was entered reversing the Appellate Division and affirming the Tax Court's judgment. The deficiency tax assessment against the taxpayer was thus declared invalid. A dissenting opinion was filed in this case.

Allocation of Out-of-State Income and Net Worth Denied—Shelter Development Corporation v. Taxation Div. Director, 6 NJ Tax 547 (Tax Court of New Jersey, Sept. 11, 1984).

The Tax Court affirmed a deficiency assessment against the plaintiff corporation imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation on the firm's 1975 Corporation Business Tax return. The court held that the plaintiff could not allocate its out-of-State net income and net worth under N.J.S.A. 54:10A-6 because the corporation did not maintain a regular business out of State under the regulatory definition in N.J.A.C. 18:7-7.2(a). Under the Corporation Business Tax provision in N.J.S.A. 54:10A-6, the allocation formula may be used only if the taxpayer maintains a regular place of business outside this State other than a statutory office.

The rules adopted by the Director of the Division of Taxation at N.J.A.C. 18:7-7.2(a) define "a regular place of business" within the context of the statutory provision as:

"Any bona fide office (other than a statutory office), factory, warehouse, or other space of the taxpayer which is regularly maintained, occupied and used by the taxpayer in carrying on its business and in which one or more regular employees are in attendance."

The court said that the broad language used in N.J.S.A. 54:10A-6 demonstrated that the Legislature did not wish to deal with the details of what constituted "a regular place of business," but instead left to the Director the task of establishing a definitional framework to implement allocation. Evidence of this intent may be found in N.J.S.A. 54:10A-27, which provides that the Director "shall prescribe and issue such rules and regulations, not inconsistent herewith, for the interpretation and application of (the) Act, as he may deem necessary." The court held that the Director did not exceed his authority in issuing the rule at N.J.A.C. 18:7-7.2(a), which in effect defined the application of the broad statutory words, "regular place of business."

The court noted that the legislation required that a corporation have something greater than a negligible presence at its non-New Jersey place of business before allocation is allowed. The court found that the Director's rule was entirely in keeping with this purpose and must be considered a valid exercise of administrative authority.

In this case, the New York office used by the plaintiff was leased in the name of its parent, the Kenrich Corporation. No rent was paid by plaintiff in 1975 for the office space it occupied. Management fees were paid to a professional corporation and for secretarial services rendered by an employee of a related corporation.

The plaintiff offered no proof that it paid maintenance costs to its parent corporation in 1975. In addition, no proof was provided that the $50,000 management fee charged to the taxpayer by its parent in 1974 included a reimbursement for rent or overhead costs. Finally, there was no proof that the plaintiff had one or more regular employees in attendance at the New York office. The employees in attendance at the New York office were primarily full-time employees of related corporations. It is obvious from the nature and extent of the services rendered that the workers were not employees of the taxpayer. The phrase, "regular employees in attendance", signifies more than performance of services on an ad hoc basis as the need arose.

The court said that in no true sense of the phrase can it be said that plaintiffs "regularly maintained (or) occupied" the New York office or had "one or more regular employees . . . in attendance" as required by the Director's regulation.

The Director's Corporation Business Tax deficiency assessment for 1975 was affirmed and judgment was entered dismissing the plaintiff's complaint.

New York State Corporation Investment, Real Estate and Sales Business Held To Be A Part of A Unitary Business Subject To The Apportionment Formula—Silent Hoist & Crane Co. Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 100 NJ 1 (1985).

The New Jersey Supreme Court reversed the Appellate Division reported at 6 N.J. Tax 348 (App. Div. 1984) and held the investment and sales income of a New York corporation doing business in New Jersey were part of a unitary business and had to be included in its apportionment tax base for the tax years 1971-1974 for purposes of taxation under the New Jersey Corporation Business Tax.

Silent Hoist & Crane Company, Inc. is a privately held New York corporation with its principal place of business and its manufacturing plant in Brooklyn, New York. For the tax years 1971-1974, the company manufactured material handling machinery and sold the machinery in New Jersey and elsewhere. Its New Jersey sales for those years comprised almost 13% of its total sales. It also derived investment income and rental income from two parcels of commercial property that it owned in New Jersey. Its president and principal manager of the corporation, Eric Wunsch, made all the major corporation decisions regarding manufacturing, real estate and investment.

When Silent Hoist filled its New Jersey corporation business tax returns for tax years 1971-1974, it reported only its income from its New Jersey real estate operations. The New Jersey Division of Taxation increased Silent Hoist's taxable income to include its sales and investment income.

The New Jersey Supreme Court held that Silent Hoist conducts its business as a "unitary business." Hence, the tax assessment reflects the value of the franchise fairly apportioned to New Jersey and thus does not offend the Due Process or Commerce Clauses of the United States Constitution.

It was also held that 1. A state tax on corporations doing business within a state is not limited to transactions within the state so long as the tax is fairly apportioned. The United States Supreme Court has recognized the unitary business/formula apportionment method as an acceptable approach to taxing businesses that operate in more than one jurisdiction. In general, this formula determines a taxpayer's income tax base within a particular state by the average ratio of:

 That ratio applied to the taxpayer's total taxable income from all sources, yields the income attributable to the state.

2. With regard to the only restraints it has imposed upon the unitary business/formula apportionment formula, the United States Supreme Court has stated:

The Due Process and Commerce Clauses of the Constitution do not allow a state to tax income arising out of interstate activities—even on a proportional basis—unless there is a “‘minimal connection’ or ‘nexus’ between the interstate activities and the taxing State, and ‘a rational relationship between the income attributable to the State and the intrastate values of the enterprise.’”

3. All that the Constitution requires in the taxation of a unitary business is that (1) a state not tax a unitary business unless at least some part of it is conducted in the state; (2) there be some bond of ownership or control uniting the business; and (3) the out-of-state activities of the business be related in some concrete way to the in-state activities. The taxpayer has the burden of showing by clear and cogent evidence that the application of state tax results in a taxation of extraterritorial values. The United States Supreme Court has limited its review to a determination of whether the state court applied the correct standards to the case and, if it did, whether its judgment was within the realm of a permissible judgment.

4. Under the New Jersey Corporation Business Tax Act, an allocation formula is applied to both the net worth and net income tax bases of corporations that maintain a regular place of business outside of New Jersey so that only those portions of net worth and net income that are fairly attributable to the corporation's New Jersey activities are used in the measure of the tax.

5. Silent Hoist's portfolio income was correctly included in its apportioned income tax. Under any test that has been approved, Silent Hoist meets the measure of unitary business. It enjoys the “benefits from an umbrella of centralized management and controlled interaction.” It meets the test of three unities of ownership, operation and use. It meets the “depender upon or contributory” test. Here, there was a distinct sharing of the value of common management, accounting and operation that takes the portfolio income of this taxpayer well within the concept of a unitary business.

6. Silent Hoist's sales income was correctly included in its tax base. Its New Jersey sales contributed significantly to the enhanced value of the unitary business and were a significant source of the funds that enabled it to acquire its property in New Jersey. The Court perceives the same factors at work in Silent Hoist's sales income as in its portfolio income. Hence, because Silent Hoist's income is part of its unitary business in New Jersey, that sales income, fairly apportioned, is part of its entire net income.

7. The Director of Taxation has the discretion to adjust the factors governing the allocation formula to compensate for any unfairness in its application. Silent Hoist should be allowed an opportunity to be heard on whether the formula's application to its New Jersey activities results in an assessment “out of all appropriate proportion.”

Judgment was entered reversing the Appellate Division and the case was remanded to the Tax Court to determine whether the apportionment formula is proportionally applied.

Financial Business Corporation Entitled To Deduct 100% of Interest Expenses For Indebtedness To An Affiliated Corporation Even Though Its Financial Business Is Not Conducted In New Jersey—Suburban Coastal Corp. v. Sidney Glaser, Director of the New Jersey Division of Taxation, 7 NJ Tax 339 (Tax Court of New Jersey—March 19, 1985).

The Tax Court entered summary judgment for plaintiff corporation and set aside an assessment of taxes, penalty and interest imposed upon the plaintiff corporation by the dependent for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1978, 1979 and 1980. The court held that a financial business corporation is entitled to deduct 100% of interest expenses relating to its indebtedness to an affiliated corporation in accordance with N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(d) and 4(k)(2)(E)(iii) and that the statute does not require it to conduct its financial business in New Jersey.

Prior to 1975 a corporation was taxed under the Financial Business Tax Law when it met both its coverage and definition requirements under N.J.S.A. 54A:10B-2(b). Corporations meeting the definitional requirements of N.J.S.A. 54:10B-2(b) but not conducting their financial business in New Jersey were not covered under the Financial Business Tax Law. In 1975 the word "corporation" was eliminated from the Financial Business Tax Law, thereby subjecting financial business corporations formerly subject to that law to the Corporation Business Tax, N.J.S.A. 54:10A-1 et seq. The Corporation Business Tax Act was simultaneously amended to entitle financial business corporations to deduct 100% of the interest expenses to an affiliate corporation, N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(k)(2)(E)(iii). For purposes of this section, financial business corporations were defined in N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(m), that definition coming substantially from the Financial Business Tax Law N.J.S.A. 54:10B-2.

The court found that under a literal reading of the statute, any corporation covered by the Corporation Business Tax Act qualifies for the interest deduction if it satisfies the definition of a financial business. Plaintiff satisfies the definition of a financial business corporation and could be classified as a mortgage financing business, one of the financial businesses mentioned by name in the definition. Plaintiff is taxable under the Corporation Business Tax Act and is entitled to the 100% interest expense deduction to an affiliated corporation under a literal reading of the statute.

The court also held its finding was not contrary to any legislative intent or the "save harmless" provisions of N.J.S.A. 54:10A-40 which during the tax years 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1979 made financial business corporations liable for the greater of their tax liability under the Financial Business Tax Law or the Corporation Business Tax Act. The court said that the first set of amendments eliminated corporations from the Financial Business Tax Law bringing them under the Corporation Business Tax Act. The second treatment of financial business corporations was not aimed to include only those corporations formerly governed by the Financial Business Tax Law, N.J.S.A. 54:10B-1 et seq.

The court accordingly held that plaintiff was entitled to deduct 100% of interest expenses relating to its indebtedness to an affiliated corporation in accordance with N.J.S.A. 54:10A-4(d) and 4(k)(2)(E)(iii) even though it did not conduct its financial business in New Jersey.

Summary judgment was entered in favor of plaintiff and the tax assessment, penalty, and interest for the tax years involved were set aside.

Erroneous Failure To Take Credit For Tax Prepayment Is Not Barred Even Though Beyond Two Year Period For Refund Of An Original or Additional Tax Assessment—Tuckahoe Construction Co. v. Taxation Division Director, NJ Tax (Tax Court of New Jersey—October 10, 1984).

The Tax Court held that the plaintiff was entitled to a tax credit on its future corporate tax liability for a prepayment of its 1977 tax liability made with its 1976 tax return which it erroneously failed to take credit for on its 1977 Corporation Business Tax Return. Under N.J.S.A. 54:49-14 of the State Tax Uniform Procedure Law, a claim for refund of any original or additional tax assessment must be made within two years after date of payment. But this section does not apply here because the correctness of the 1977 tax and prepayment for 1978 were not in question. The taxpayer erroneously failed to take credit on its 1977 return for the tax prepayment made with its 1976 return.

The court said the original assessment was not involved and thus the two-year limitation period in N.J.S.A. 54:49-14 did not apply. The original assessment was the amount of the plaintiff's 1977 current tax liability and its 1978 tax prepayment but did not include credit taken for tax payments. Although N.J.S.A. 54:49-16 provides for the Director of the Division of Taxation to unilaterally refund erroneous tax payments within two years of payment thereof, there is no bar to either the Director or the taxpayer filing an application to a court of competent jurisdiction to certify payment for a sum erroneously received; nor is there any proviso prohibiting such a court from entering a refund order even after the two year period has elapsed.

The court also found that from the unique facts present in this case that a balancing of the equities on both sides mandates that the doctrine of laches was inapplicable even though four years had elapsed.

Judgment was entered directing the Director of the Division of Taxation to credit the plaintiff on its future tax liability for the tax prepayment it erroneously failed to take on its 1977 Corporation Business Tax Return.

CORPORATION BUSINESS ACTIVITIES REPORTING ACT

Out of State Banks That Fail To Comply With Filing Requirements of Corporation Business Activities Reporting Act Have Right To Maintain Mortgage Foreclosure Action In New Jersey Courts—American Bank and Trust Company of Pennsylvania v. Frank W. Lott et ux. 99 N.J. 32 (1985).

The New Jersey Supreme Court in affirming the Appellate Division of the Superior Court held that out-of-state banks that fail to comply with the filing requirements of New Jersey's Corporation Business Activities Reporting Act still have the right to maintain foreclosure actions in New Jersey courts.

American Bank and Trust Company is a bank organized under the laws of Pennsylvania, with its principal office in Reading, Pennsylvania. Although it does not maintain a New Jersey office, it has made loans to New Jersey borrowers and has secured a certificate as required by the New Jersey Banking Act of 1948 to perform limited fiduciary activities in this State. (N.J.S.A. 17:9A-316B). It made loans to Staveco Electrical Construction Co., a Pennsylvania firm, but by September 1981 Staveco was in default. In exchange for four mortgages on New Jersey properties and the personal guarantee of Frank Lott, the principal shareholder and operations manager of Staveco, and his wife, the bank refinanced the loans and advanced new capital to the company.

In March 1982, Staveco filed a petition in bankruptcy court and the bank sought to foreclose on the mortgages. The Lotts moved to dismiss the complaint on the ground that the Corporation Business Activities Reporting Act prevents a foreign corporation from maintaining an action in the state or federal courts of New Jersey if it fails to satisfy certain filing requirements. They argued that the bank did not file a Notice of Business Activities Report nor did it qualify for an exemption from filing by obtaining a certificate of authority to do business as required for foreign corporations under the provisions of the Corporation Business Activities Reporting Act, N.J.S.A. 14A:13-16a.

The Appellate Division in denying the Lotts' motion to dismiss the complaint concluded that the bank's certificate to perform limited fiduciary activities exempted it from filing a Notice of Business Activities Report under the Corporation Business Activities Reporting Act.

The New Jersey Supreme Court affirmed the Appellate Division and held that the Legislature did not intend the Reporting Act to apply to foreign banks. Hence, a foreign bank is not prevented from maintaining an action in the federal or state courts of New Jersey for its failure to satisfy the requirements of the Reporting Act.

It was held that:

1. Neither the terms of the Reporting Act nor its legislative history suggests that the Legislature intended to include foreign banks within the definition of "corporation" contained in the Act. Furthermore, the statutory scheme reveals the Legislature's intention to treat foreign banks differently from foreign business corporations.

2. The Banking Act of 1948 represents a comprehensive scheme for regulating banking. The Act prohibits foreign banks from transacting business in New Jersey and from maintaining an office in this state but permits a foreign bank to act as a fiduciary provided it has obtained a certificate of authority to do so. The Banking Act does not prohibit a foreign bank from enforcing obligations in New Jersey that are "acquired by it in the transaction of business outside of this State.

3. The Business Corporation Act is a comprehensive act intended to govern the conduct of business by general corporations. In pertinent part, the Business Corporation Act focuses on considerations pertaining to foreign corporations and not to the special problems pertaining to foreign banks who are separately treated under the Banking Act.

4. The lack of any legislative intent to subject foreign banks to the provisions of the Reporting Act is supported by the existence of separate provisions in the Banking Act, the Business Corporation Act, and the Reporting Act, each of which prevents maintenance of an action in the New Jersey courts for failure to satisfy its own statutory requirements.

5. The conclusion that the Legislature did not intend the Reporting Act to apply to foreign banks is reinforced by an examination of the Act's provisions. A foreign corporation may be barred under the Reporting Act from maintaining an action in the New Jersey courts if it does not file a notice of business activities report. The Reporting Act excuses filing such a notice. However, the exemptions illustrate that the Reporting Act was designed to facilitate the collection of corporate taxes, an endeavor that has no application to a foreign bank such as American. Nothing indicates that the Legislature ever contemplated that a foreign bank would be obliged to exempt itself from the requirements of the Reporting Act by obtaining a limited certificate of authority under the Banking Act.

6. The Court's opinion agrees with the decision of the Law Division in Bank Leumi Trust Co. v. Schneider, 184 N.J. Super. 194, 197 (1981), that the Legislature did not intend that the Reporting Act should apply to foreign banks. The court thus overruled the Appellate Division in the Bank Leumi case 188 N.J. Super 423 which had reversed the Law Division and found no conflict between the Reporting Act and the Banking Act.

Judgment was entered affirming the Appellate Division in the case in issue which allows a foreign bank to maintain a mortgage foreclosure action in New Jersey even though it did not comply with the filing requirements of the Corporation Business Activities Reporting Act, N.J.S.A. 14A:13-14 to—23.

CORPORATION INCOME TAX

Pennsylvania Corporation Held To Have Sufficient Minimal Connection Between Its Interstate Activities and New Jersey To Be Subject To Tax—Avco Financial Services Consumer Discount Company One, Inc. v. Director Division of Taxation, N.J. (1985).

The New Jersey Supreme Court affirmed the Appellate Division judgment reported at 193 N.J. Super. 503, (App. Div. 1984) and held that plaintiff, a Pennsylvania Corporation had sufficient minimal connection to this State to subject to the Corporation Income Tax for the tax years 1974 and 1975 the income received from loans made through its Pennsylvania offices to New Jersey residents.

The taxpayer, Avco Financial Services Consumer Discount Company One, Inc. (Avco, PA.), is a subsidiary of Avco Financial Services, Inc. Avco Pa. is a Pennsylvania corporation that makes consumer loans and sells various types of credit insurance. Several of its branch offices are on the Pennsylvania side of the New Jersey border.

For the tax years in question, Avco Pa. made consumer loans and sold credit insurance to New Jersey residents. It also purchased installment contracts from a New Jersey retailer. Avco Pa.'s branch managers spent three to five percent of their working hours in New Jersey. When loans were in default, Avco Pa. used the New Jersey court system to enforce collections (about $3,000 per year).

Avco Pa. submitted an estimate to the Director of the Division of Taxation that it received $150,000 in interest income from resident borrowers for the tax years 1974 and 1975 but disclaimed tax liability on this income. The Director issued a tax deficiency assessment against Avco Pa. in the amount of $1,308.99 plus interest in 1974 and $3,123.46 plus interest in 1975.

The New Jersey Supreme Court held that the taxpayer had the "minimal connection" with New Jersey sufficient to sustain a tax that bears a "rational relationship between the income attributed to the State and the intrastate values of the enterprise."

It was also held that 1. The Corporation Income Tax Act imposes a direct tax on corporations deriving income from sources within this state that are not subject to the tax imposed under the Corporation Business Tax Act. In the absence of a legislative intent that the taxable situs of intangible personal property such as loans, promissory notes and interest thereon is the domicile of the creditor, interest income derived from New Jersey borrowers is taxable under the Act as corporate income "derived from sources within New Jersey" subject only to the constitutional reach of the State's taxing authority.

2. In terms of constitutional analysis, (1) the presence of Avco Pa.'s employees in the State to collect overdue accounts evidenced a vigorous, systematic and persistent effort, aided by a substantial physical presence, to exploit the New Jersey market; (2) the use by the taxpayer of its affiliate offices in New Jersey to receive payments made possible the realization and continuance of valuable contractual relations between Avco Pa. and its New Jersey borrowers, and (3) the ongoing use of New Jersey's courts and process to enforce its obligations demonstrated that the taxpayer's activities enjoyed the protection and services for which the State is entitled to something in return. Hence, applying the principles that the U.S. Supreme Court has laid down, it is well within the "realm of permissible judgment" to conclude that there are sufficient minimum contacts between the taxpayer and the State to justify the imposition of the tax.

3. The constitutional test for whether a rational relationship exists between the tax and the in-state values is whether the tax liability is "out of all appropriate proportions to the business transacted." Application of the tax formula to Avco Pa.'s 1974 New Jersey income amounts to a levy of less than 1% on the income derived from New Jersey, not a disproportionate factor considering the fact that branch managers spend 3% to 5% of their time in New Jersey. In light of Avco Pa.'s New Jersey activities to realize and continue its contractual relations, the Court concluded that these figures are not out of all appropriate proportion.

Judgment was entered affirming the Appellate Division and the tax assessments imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation against the Appellant Corporation.

EMERGENCY TRANSPORTATION TAX

Privileges And Immunities Clause—Retroactivity Application Denied—Riehm v. Director Division of Taxation, 7 N.J. Tax 88 (Tax Court of New Jersey—December 5, 1984).

The New Jersey Tax Court denied plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment and affirmed a 1979 assessment levied by the Director of the Division of Taxation against the plaintiffs' under the Emergency Transportation Tax Act N.J.S.A. 54:8A-1 et seq. which was declared unconstitutional in Salorio v. Glaser, 93 N.J. 447 (1983) as a violation of the Privileges and Immunities Clause of the U.S. Constitution. The New Jersey Supreme Court decision was prospective only, the ETT tax was in effect until December 31, 1983. The court held that the U.S. Constitution does not require a retroactive remedy even if the taxpayers could have been directly harmed by continued collection of the tax. Because of their large out-of-state losses they did not receive a resident tax credit in New York for the ETT taxes paid to New Jersey. The court said that it did not matter that in the Salorio case the taxpayers were not harmed since they received a resident tax credit in New York for the ETT tax paid to New Jersey.

Three criteria are used by the U.S. Supreme Court in determining the retroactivity of a new rule or decision overruling precedent or the validity of a prospective statutory remedial scheme. These criteria are: (1) the purpose to be served by the particular new rule, decision or scheme, (2) the extent of reliance which had been placed on the former rule or scheme and (3) the effect on the administration of justice of requiring retroactive application of the new rule, decision or scheme. Based upon these considerations, retroactive application of a constitutional decision has been denied by the U.S. Supreme Court in a number of cases cited by the Tax Court.

In fashioning its remedy, the focal point for the New Jersey Supreme Court in the Salorio case was the extent of reliance by the State Treasury on the revenues it expected the ETT tax to generate. The absence of harm suffered by the Salorio taxpayers was not the critical factor in the court's decision. In weighing the equities and tipping the balance in favor of the State, the New Jersey Supreme Court acted in consonance with the rulings of the United States Supreme Court and the Tax Court held that no departure from Salorio is warranted.

The Tax Court also held that under the Act the ETT tax is levied only on the income of nonresidents derived from sources within New Jersey N.J.S.A. 54:8A-1(b). Under N.J.S.A. 54:8A-40(d) and 54:8A-35 out-of-state residents are permitted to offset their New Jersey income only with New Jersey losses. The regulation N.J.A.C. 18:10-7.4(b) which does not permit non-New Jersey losses to offset the New Jersey income of nonresidents is within the scope of the statute. The Tax Court, thus, held that, since New Jersey does not tax the income from non-New Jersey sources, it follows that it need not allow a nonresident to deduct losses from non-New Jersey sources.

Judgment was entered denying the taxpayers' motion for summary judgment and affirming the Director of the Division of Taxation's 1979 tax assessment against the taxpayer.

GROSS INCOME TAX

Numerator of Resident Tax Credit Is New York State Income After Adjustment For Alimony Payments And Keogh Contributions—Robert F. Ambrose v. Director, Division of Taxation, 198 N.J. Super. 546 (App. Div., 1984).

The Appellate Division of the Superior Court affirmed that judgment of the Tax Court upholding the Director of the Division of Taxation's 1978 deficiency assessment under the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act against the plaintiff. The Tax Court's letter opinion of February 16, 1984 was affirmed substantially for the reasons stated therein. It had held that the plaintiff in computing his resident tax credit for New York state should include in the numerator, as income subject to tax by New York, his income after the adjustment for alimony payments and Keogh plan contributions. The regulations adopted by the Director of the Division of Taxation at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.12(a)(4)(i) provides that the numerator must include only income actually subjected to tax by the foreign jurisdiction. The Tax Court had concluded that the regulations were consistent with the resident tax credit statutory provisions at N.J.S.A. 54A:4-1 and with the statutory purpose of minimizing or avoiding double taxation of income which is actually taxed by a foreign jurisdiction.

The Appellate Division said that administrative regulations must be accorded a presumption of reasonableness. Administrative rules and regulations have in their support the rebuttable presumption of validity if they come within the ambit of delegated authority. Unless such regulations are clearly ultra vires on their face, the party attacking them has the burden of proving their validity.

Applying these standards, it was concluded that the regulations fully comport with the express language contained in the statutory scheme and the underlying legislative design. New York's statute differs from the New Jersey statute in that the former constitutes a net income tax similar in design to the federal revenue act. Conversely, New Jersey's tax is on gross income, reduced only by certain limited deductions and credits. Hence, the phrase "income subject to tax" which appears in the statute N.J.S.A. 54A:4-1, as defined in the regulations at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.12(a)(4)(i), can logically refer to two different things when applied to New York and New Jersey. Further the statutory language clearly distinguishes between income actually taxable in the foreign state and the taxpayer's "entire New Jersey income" N.J.S.A. 54A:4-1(b). The express statutory language thus clearly supports the Director's interpretation.

The Appellate Division said that in assessing the validity of an administrative regulation, it is not limited to the express statutory language. Rather it may consider as well the spirit of the legislation and the statutory purpose. The regulations are fully consistent with the legislative design. Our statute seeks to avoid multiple taxation based upon what is actually, not potentially taxed by another jurisdiction. The rule does this by limiting the resident credit to an amount that reflects only that income taxed by other jurisdictions.

The Appellate Division was satisfied that the regulations do not impinge upon the legislative purpose. Although income may be treated differently by New Jersey and the foreign jurisdiction, multiple taxation does not result. The effect of the regulations is to shield only that portion of the taxpayer's income which is subject to tax in the other state.

The court also said that the plaintiff's reliance on an article which appeared in the State Tax News, a newsletter published by the Division of Taxation, is without merit. Read as a whole the article supports the Director's present position. In any event, the State Tax News is not an authoritative pronouncement, nor does it have the binding effect of a statute or regulation.

A judgment was entered affirming the Tax Court's judgment and upholding the deficiency assessments imposed against the plaintiff by the Director of the Division of Taxation.

GROSS INCOME TAX

Numerator Of Resident Tax Credit As Income Taxed By Other State Is Income Less Partnership Losses—William V. Cirillo and Carolyn Cirillo v. Director, Division of Taxation,—N.J. Tax—(Tax Court of New Jersey, August 17, 1984).

The Tax Court upheld a deficiency gross income tax assessment against plaintiffs for the tax year 1981 and held that in calculating the resident tax credit under N.J.S.A. 54A:4-1 and under the provision of the regulations at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.12, the numerator of the resident credit must show the income that is taxed by the other jurisdiction before the allowance for personal exemptions and standard and/or other itemized deductions and which is also subject to tax by New Jersey. Therefore, in this case the amount of income that was actually taxed by New York was the taxpayers total income offset by their partnership losses.

The court said that the partnership losses are not itemized deductions on the New York return. New York's tax is on net income and permits an offset of partnership losses against other income. The amount actually taxed by New York is the net amount after the offset of the partnership losses and before the allowance for personal exemptions and standards and/or other itemized deductions.

The court said that there is no double taxation here. There is a difference between the taxing schemes of New York and New Jersey. New Jersey taxes its residents' gross income wherever earned including New York. New York's net income tax permits some of this income to be offset by losses. This offset of income is never taxed by New York, hence it is not taxed twice.

The court also said that there is no need for consistency with respect to the numerator (income subject to tax by New York) and the denominator (entire New Jersey income) because there are inherent differences between a net and a gross income tax.

The Tax Court granted defendant's motion for summary judgment and entered a judgment affirming the deficiency assessment against the plaintiffs.

Business Expenses By A Partnership In The Securities Business May Be Deducted Against Partnership Dividends and Gains From The Disposition of Property Realized In The Course of The Partnership's Securities Business To Compute A Partner's Distributive Share of Partnership Income—Roger and Lisa Geissler v. Director, Division of Taxation, NJ Tax (Tax Court of New Jersey, March 8, 1985).

The Tax Court relying upon the case of Layton Smith et al v. Director, 7 N.J. Tax 187 decided by the Tax Court on December 11, 1984, in which the identical issue in the instant case was decided and a copy of which opinion was attached and incorporated by reference, held that the business expenses incurred by a partnership engaged in the securities business may be deducted against partnership dividends and gains from the disposition of property realized in the course of the partnership's securities business for purposes of computing a partner's distributive share of partnership income under the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act.

Plaintiff was a general partner in Easton & Co., a New York limited partnership actively engaged in the securities business. Plaintiff received from the partnership during the years 1978, 1979 and 1980 capital gains and dividends realized from the active conduct of the partnership's security business.

The New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act imposes a tax upon the net income derived from a business conducted in the proprietorship or partnership form which is arrived at after the provision of all costs and expenses incurred in the conduct thereof.

The partnership regulation adopted by the defendant on January 8, 1981 recognizes this at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(2). However at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(2)ii, the regulation does not allow any deduction for "Expenses unrelated to the production of taxable income."

The partnership regulation at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(4) requires that a partner report his share of partnership income as:

- i. A distributive share of partnership income;
- ii. Dividend income; and
- iii. Gain from the sale, exchange or other disposition of property.

Thus a distributive share of partnership income is reported as net income after the deduction of all necessary costs and expenses related thereto. Whereas, partnership's dividends and net gains are subject to tax on gross income. The court said that the regulation is sustainable to the extent that it applies to dividends and capital gain income unrelated to the primary business of the partnership. This would apply where the dividend or capital gain income is merely incidental to the primary business of the partnership.

However, when the regulation is extended to a partnership which generates dividend and capital gain income in the ordinary course of its business as a securities dealer, it would be inconsistent with the statute.

The court concluded that N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(4) as it is applied to a partnership in which dividend and capital gain income are generated in the ordinary course of business, it is inconsistent with the statute and must be disregarded. A deduction of business expenses by a partnership incurred in the securities business against such dividend and capital gain income in the course of its business is allowed for the purpose of computing a partner's distributive share of partnership income.

Judgment was entered dismissing plaintiff's complaint for 1978 because it was not timely filed. With respect to 1979, and 1980, the defendant's deficiency determinations were set aside and the plaintiff was granted a refund for 1980.

An Appeal by the Division of Taxation is pending in the Appellate Division of the Superior Court.

Margin Interest Expense on Borrowed Funds Used To Purchase Tax Exempt Bonds Cannot Be Netted Against Interest Income By An Investor In Securities—Hough, William T. Norma P. v. State of New Jersey, Dept. of the Treasury, Div. of Taxation, Director, N.J. Tax (Tax Court of New Jersey—January 18, 1985).

The Tax Court in a letter opinion affirmed a 1981 gross income tax deficiency assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation as a result of the disallowance of margin loan interest costs. It was held that margin interest expense on borrowed funds used to purchase tax exempt bonds cannot be netted against interest income from these securities by the plaintiff taxpayers who are merely investors in their own securities. The fact that the plaintiff taxpayer, William T. Hough made a detailed study of the cyclical action of stocks, bonds, interest rates and the money supply, keeping track of daily changes on charts and graphs did not convert his personal security investment activities into a business of buying and selling securities which would permit the deduction of such interest expense as a business expense under N.J.S.A. 54A:5-1(b) "Net Profit from Business" which defines gross income as "The net income from operation of a business, profession, or other activity, after provision of all costs and expenses incurred in the conduct thereof".

The court found that the plaintiff taxpayers were engaged in investing in securities for their own personal gain. To be engaged in carrying on any trade or business involves holding one's self out to others as engaged in the selling of goods or services. Expenses such as expenses for handling personal investments are not deductible for New Jersey gross income tax purposes.

It was thus held that the plaintiff taxpayers were not engaged in a securities business and that the Director of the Division of Taxation had properly disallowed their deduction of margin interest costs. A judgment was entered dismissing the plaintiff-taxpayers' complaint.

Insurance Field Agent Not Entitled to Deduct Business Expenses—Harold A. and Loretta Maus v. Director, Division of Taxation, (Tax Court of New Jersey, October 1, 1984).

In a letter opinion, the Tax Court held that the plaintiff, an insurance field agent selling life and health insurance for the Knights of Columbus, was an employee and not an independent contractor. Therefore, he could not deduct any business expenses from his 1980 New Jersey Gross Income Tax resident return.

The Knights of Columbus sells its own life insurance and reinsures health insurance through the Travelers Insurance Company. The sales organization for the Knights of Columbus is composed of four or five regional directors, 110 general agents, and 850 full-time field agents. The general agents, who are assigned to various councils, hire, train, supervise and administer field agents working in their offices. Field agents can sell insurance only to members of the Knights of Columbus councils to which they are assigned full-time.

The court said that the determination whether the plaintiff was an employee or an independent contractor is a factual one and can be reached only after an examination of all the facts and circumstances.

The Tax Court followed the eight relevant factors enumerated in the case of Boudrot v. Taxation Division Director, 4 N.J. Tax 268 (1982). The court held that the issuance of the W-2 form; the withholding of taxes; the providing of benefit plans, including a pension, health and life insurance, disability benefits, and worker's compensation coverage, were all consistent with an employer-employee relationship.

Plaintiff was obligated to devote all his energy and attention to the Knights of Columbus and was forbidden to engage in any other form of employment. He was required to use specific forms and comply with prescribed rules and regulations. His clientele was limited by, and at times supplied by, the Knights of Columbus. Thus, the degree of control exercisable by the Knights of Columbus indicated an employer-employee relationship.

The court held that the substantial outlay by plaintiff to generate his commissions were unreimbursed expenses of an employee-salesman. The court said it was significant that he was provided with an office free of charge, receive some stationery and supplies from the Knights of Columbus at no cost and did in fact receive an expense allowance presumably to offset some of these claimed expenses.

The services provided by the plaintiff required no special training or skill at the time of hiring. The necessary training was provided by the Knights of Columbus at no cost. The duration of the relationship from 1971 to 1980 indicated an employer-employee relationship.

He was required to work full time, was restricted to certain customers, but protected from competition from co-employees and was subject to discharge without cause.

After weighing all the factors in the Boudrot case to the particular set of facts in this case, the court held that all of these circumstances indicated an employer-employee relationship and not that of an independent contractor. Thus, plaintiff could not deduct any business expenses.

The court entered a judgement affirming the tax assessment against the plaintiff.

Gross Earnings in Form of Commissions From Sale of Products and Publications Held To Be From an Employee-Employer Relationship From Which Employee Business Expenses Cannot be Deducted—Bernard Ruthen, et ux, v. Director, Division of Taxation—N.J. Tax—(Tax Court of New Jersey—August 6, 1984).

The Tax Court dismissed the plaintiff's complaint and upheld a tax assessment for the tax year 1979 imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation denying plaintiff's deduction of employee business expenses from his gross commissions in the sale of products and publications of the World Book. It was held that plaintiff was an employee and not a self-employed independent contractor and, therefore, under the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act he could not deduct any employee business expenses from his commission earnings as a District Manager or Sales Manager.

The court followed Miller v. Taxation Div. Director, 6 N.J. Tax 118 (Tax Ct. 1983) wherein it was stated, "... the determination of whether a taxpayer's status is that of an employee or an independent contractor is a factual question to be decided only after examining all of the relevant facts and circumstances with no single factor being controlling; it being the total situation that finally determines the status."

The court also considered the relevant factors set forth in Boudrot v. Taxation Div. Director, 4 N.J. Tax 268 (Tax Ct. 1982) which are among those normally weighed to decide whether the relationship was one of employer-employee or independent contractor. These factors are:

"(1) the relationship which the parties believe they have created; (2) the extent of control exercisable (regardless of actual exercise) by the person receiving the benefit of the services over the manner and method of performance; (3) whether the person rendering the service undertook substantial costs to perform the services; (4) whether the service required special training or skill; (5) the duration of the relationship between the parties; (6) whether the person rendering the service had a risk of loss; (7) whether the person who received the benefit of the services could discharge without cause the person who performed the services and (8) the method of payment (by time or job).

The court held that the evidence indicated that the relationship between plaintiff, a District Manager and Sales Manager, and World Book, was that of an employer-employee relationship and plaintiff did not have any independent contractor status.

The facts indicated the following:

Plaintiff and World Book believed that the relationship that existed between them was one of employer-employee, and they specifically so designated that relationship in their contractual agreement. Plaintiff's rights and obligations were as an employee. He could sell World Book products only at rates fixed by the company. Although plaintiff had the right to hire or contract subordinate sales persons, he could do so only upon approval by the company and only upon terms and contracts forms prescribed by the company. The subordinate sales people, other than area representatives, were employees of World Book and not of plaintiff. Area representatives also were not employees of plaintiff, but instead, were independent contractors of World Book. The subordinate sales people, including the area representatives, were paid directly by the company and not by plaintiff. Plaintiff was required to furnish reports regularly as the company required and he was strictly controlled in his manner of orders and remittances covering payment for products sold. Plaintiff was required to devote his undivided time to the company; either he or any of his subordinates could be transferred to any other sales organization; and, his vacation period was subject to approval of his superiors.

Other than an appropriate appearance and an ability to speak and communicate intelligently, there was no special training or skill required of plaintiff's position.

The company withheld from plaintiff's commissions Federal, State and Social Security taxes and issued to him W-2 forms, all of which negate any indication of the existence of an independent contractor. The benefits conferred upon plaintiff in the form of group insurance and profit-sharing plans are indicia of an employer-employee relationship.

Based upon the above facts, it was concluded that the relationship between plaintiff and World Book for the tax year 1979 was that of employer-employee and that his gross income from commissions was from that relationship. He was thus not entitled to deduct any employee business expenses from his commission earnings. Plaintiff failed to establish that he was reimbursed by his employer for expenses incurred on the employer's behalf. He was thus taxable in 1979 on the gross amount of his commission earnings pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54A:5-1(a).

Judgment was entered dismissing plaintiff's complaint and affirming the tax assessment imposed against the plaintiff by the Director of the Division of Taxation for the tax year 1979.

Business Expenses By A Partnership Related To The Production of Tax-Free Interest and Nontaxable Gains May Be Deducted In Computing A Partner's Distributive Share of Partnership Income—Also Business Expenses By A Partnership In The Securities Business May Be Deducted Against Partnership Dividends and Gains From The Disposition of Property Realized in The Course of The Partnership Securities Business To Compute A Partner's Distributive Share of Partnership Income—Layton F. and Joan Smith v. Director, Division of Taxation, 7 N.J. Tax 187 (Tax Court of New Jersey—December 11, 1984).

The Tax Court upheld plaintiffs' challenge of the Director of the Division of Taxation's determination of their tax liability for the year 1976. Plaintiff is a partner in Salomon Brothers, one of the largest investment bankers in the United States. Among the partnership's business activities, is the trading in securities which results in long-term capital gains which are realized in the ordinary course of its business. The partnership's securities business activities also resulted in the realization of dividend and interest income. Part of the partnership's capital gain and interest income is derived from federal obligations and is exempt from the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54A:6-14.

The partnership had various expenses, some of which are attributable to its taxable income as well as to its non-taxable income.

The Tax Court held the following:

1. That the business expenses incurred by the partnership, which are related to the production of tax-free interest and non-taxable gains, are allowable as deductions for purposes of computing a partner's distributive share of partnership income pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54A:5-1k.

2. That the business expenses incurred by a partnership engaged in the securities business may be deducted against partnership dividends and gains from the disposition of property realized in the course of the partnership's securities business for purposes of computing a partner's distributive share of partnership income under the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act.

With respect to the first issue the Court said that the New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act imposes a tax upon the net income derived from a business conducted in the proprietorship form which is arrived at after the provision of all costs and expenses incurred in the conduct thereof.

The partnership regulation adopted by the defendant on January 8, 1981 recognizes this at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(2). However at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(2)ii, the regulation does not allow any deduction for "Expenses unrelated to the production of taxable income."

The court said that administrative regulations must be within the fair contemplation of the enabling statute and that an agency may not, under the guise of interpretation, extended the statute to give it a greater effect than its language permits. Thus, while construction of a taxing statute by the agency charged with its administration is entitled to weight in a judicial proceeding an administrative interpretation which is inconsistent with the ordinary and primary meaning of the statutory language will be ignored.

The defendant raises the issue of "double tax benefits" and contends that the legislature must expressly permit "double tax benefits" or else they will be disallowed.

There is nothing in the statute to deny the allowance of "double tax benefits." Defendant's attempt to carve out an excepted class of business expenses for which no deduction will be allowed constitutes an invalid exercise of legislative power.

The court thus concluded that the defendant's determination predicated on the disallowance of deductions for business expenses to the extent allocable to tax-exempt income is irreconcilable with the statute and ordered such determination set aside.

With respect to the second issue, the partnership regulation at N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(4) requires that a partner report his share of partnership income as:

- i. A distributive share of partnership income;
- ii. Dividend income; and
- iii. Gain from the sale, exchange or other disposition of property.

Thus a distributive share of partnership income is reported as net income after the deduction of all necessary costs and expenses related thereto. Whereas, partnership's dividends and net gains are subject to tax on gross income. The court said that the regulation is sustainable to the extent that it applies to dividends and capital gain income unrelated to the primary business of the partnership. This would apply where the dividend or capital gain income is merely incidental to the primary business of the partnership.

However, when the regulation is extended to a partnership which generates dividend and capital gain income in the ordinary course of its business as a securities dealer, it would be inconsistent with the statute.

The court concluded that N.J.A.C. 18:35-1.14(c)(4) as it is applied to a partnership in which dividend and capital gain income are generated in the ordinary course of business, it is inconsistent with the statute and must be disregarded. A deduction of business expenses by a partnership incurred in the securities business against such dividend and capital gain income in the course of its business is allowed for the purpose of computing a partner's distributive share of partnership income.

Judgment was thus entered upholding the plaintiffs challenge to the defendant's determination of their 1976 tax liability. An appeal by the Division of Taxation is pending in the Appellate Division of the Superior Court.

Taxpayer Employed in Iran Held Not To Be A New Jersey Domiciliary And Not Taxable As A Resident Taxpayer—Howard and Margarete Somers v. Director, Division of Taxation (App. Div., 1985) (unreported)

The Appellate Division reversed the Tax Court which had affirmed a deficiency gross income tax assessment against the plaintiffs for the year 1978 even though plaintiffs had resided in and paid taxes in Iran where plaintiff was employed until July 1978. The Appellate Division based its reversal on the grounds that plaintiffs were not domiciliaries of this state throughout 1978. The facts support the conclusion that plaintiffs from 1974 to 1978 intended to make their home in Iran indefinitely and to abandon their prior domicile here.

Plaintiffs moved from New Jersey to Iran in 1974. Plaintiff, Howard Somers, an engineer entered into a two-year employment contract with an oil company in Iran. The contract provided for mandatory retirement at age 60, about 20 years ahead for plaintiff. Plaintiffs' children attended schools in Iran and Europe. The contract was renewed. In 1978 plaintiffs' employment was terminated in August. The family returned to their house in Elizabeth, New Jersey which had been rented out during the four year interval. The tenant had vacated it shortly before.

The Tax Court had held that plaintiffs remained domiciliaries of New Jersey even though they resided in Iran and intended to stay during the period of employment there. It perceived as an intention to retain a New Jersey domicile: continuing ownership of the Elizabeth house; maintenance of an account in an Elizabeth bank; retention of New Jersey driver's license; and return twice to this state on vacations. Plaintiffs explained to the contrary that they rented, rather than sold, their house hoping to benefit from escalating real estate prices; that the Elizabeth bank account was a convenience and might have been anywhere in this country; that it is easier to get a license abroad for a holder of a valid license from any of the United States; and that their returns on vacation were casual and not for their full vacation time-off. The Appellate Division thus rejected as insufficient and inconclusive what the Tax Court perceived as factual support for its affirmance of the deficiency assessment against plaintiffs.

The Appellate Division reversed the Tax Court and entered judgment for plaintiffs.

Taxpayers Engaged In Investment Advisory Services T/A Penvest Co. With Themselves And Wife's (A Housewife) Relatives As Only Clients Are Investors And Cannot Deduct Brokers Margin Interest From Dividend Income, And As Business Expenses A Fee Paid By Plaintiff's Wife For Investment Advisory Service To Their Trading Name "Penvest Co."—Robert C. Stabler and Mary A. Stabler v. Director, Division of Taxation, (App. Div., 1985) (unreported)

The Appellate Division affirmed the judgment of the Tax Court for the reasons substantially stated in its letter opinion dated March 16, 1984.

The Tax Court, had affirmed an assessment of a 1978 gross income tax deficiency against the plaintiffs imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation. The tax deficiency resulted from (1) plaintiffs' deduction of broker's margin interest expense against their dividend income and (2) plaintiffs' deduction of business expenses from so called investment advisory services T/A "Penvest Co."

The court held that the plaintiffs were not in a business and that they were merely investors, since their only clients in 1978 were themselves and relatives of the plaintiff Mary A. Stabler. The court followed the Tax Court decision in the Applestein v. Taxation Div. Director, 5 N.J. Tax 73 (Tax Ct 1982) appeal, docketed A-2563-82T3 (App. Div. February 7, 1983), and held that the activities of plaintiff Robert C. Stabler on his own behalf were simply too limited to be characterized as anything but investment activity. Mary A. Stabler was a housewife and took no part in "Penvest Company." The court held that there is no statutory authority for a deduction of margin account interest in the reporting of dividend income. It also held that plaintiffs' interest expenses were not from the operation of a business.

The court also held that the amount deducted from their reported business profits was a fee for investment advisory services paid by Mary A. Stabler to Penvest Company for the management of her security accounts. Mary A. Stabler was not in a business and could not deduct business expenses. This was an improper deduction and could not be allowed.

The Appellate Division said that the Legislature did not intend the term "other activity" in N.J.S.A. 54A:5-1b in the phrase operation of a business profession or "other activity" to allow the deductibility of expenses from taxable investment income.

Judgment was thus entered affirming the Tax Court's judgment in this case.

Failure To Prove The "Mailing Presumption" Invokes Statutory Interest For Not Timely Paying Over Withholding Taxes From Employees' Wages—Worrall Publishing Co. v. Taxation Division Director, (Tax Court of New Jersey—March 23, 1985).

The Tax Court, in a letter opinion dismissed plaintiff's complaint and upheld the imposition of an assessment of statutory interest against the plaintiff by the Director of the Division of Taxation for failure to timely pay over to the Division of Taxation, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54A:7-4, the New Jersey gross income withholding taxes deducted from their employees' wages for the year 1980. The plaintiff failed to prove the necessary requisites to invoke the "mailing presumption" noted by the Appellate Division in the case of Szczesny v. Vasquez, 71 N.J. Super. 347, (App. Div., 1962) which at 354, requires that the mail matter be "sufficiently prepaid in stamps, correctly addressed and placed in the appropriate receptacle." Plaintiff's proofs showed that the envelopes with the checks for the withholding taxes for 1980 were placed in plaintiff's "outgoing mail basket." Plaintiff did not establish specifically that each piece of mail containing the appropriate return and check for each month of 1980 had the correct postage, a proper return address and was placed in the appropriate postal receptacle. The court said that it could not assume that plaintiff placed adequate postage on each mailing. If there were inadequate postage without an appropriate return address, it is likely that such mail matter went undelivered since it could not be returned to the sender. As noted in Szczesny a writing "coupled with evidence of an office custom with reference to the mailing of letters is not sufficient to constitute proof of mailing" (71 N.J. Super. at 357).

The court also found that even if the plaintiffs had sufficient proofs to invoke the presumption of receipt of the mailing matter, the defendant's proofs as to the customary handling of mail material sent to it rebutted the presumption of receipt by the Division of Taxation in this case.

Therefore, judgment was entered dismissing plaintiff's complaint and affirming the Division of Taxation's assessment of interest against the plaintiff.

Holographic Will Written Prior To Trip By Decedent Was Held To Be Absolute And Not Conditioned On Testatrix' Death During The Trip—Matter of Will of Cohen, 200 N.J. Super. 538 (App. Div., 1985).

The Appellate Division affirmed the Superior Court, Law Division, Probate Part, Middlesex County in that a holographic will written by decedent was not conditioned upon her death during impending trip.

In probate proceeding, the Superior Court, Law Division, Probate Part, Middlesex County, admitted holographic will, and mother of testatrix appealed. The Superior Court, Appellate Division, held that the will was not conditioned upon testatrix' death during her impending trip.

Beginning phrase of holographic will stating "In the event that something should happen while I am away" did not condition the will upon testatrix' death during her impending trip, in view of, inter alia, testatrix' declaration that her dispositions were intended "forever & eternity," testatrix' intelligence, her fragile state of health at time she wrote the will, and her choice, during some 18 months after her trip, to leave her dispositions as she had declared them.

Judgment was entered affirming the order of the court below admitting the will to probate.

Surviving Spouse Electing To Take Her Statutory Share Was Relieved of Estate And Inheritance Taxes Which Were Paid By Residuary Estate Pursuant To Testator's Expressed Intent To Minimize Taxes For Widow and Estate—In The Matter of The Estate of Nathaniel B. Cole, 200, N.J. Super. 396, Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Middlesex County, April 18, 1984.

Widow filed complaint electing to take her statutory share. The Superior Court, Chancery Division, Middlesex County, held that: (1) electing spouse shares in gains and losses in asset values occurring between death and distribution; (2) in practice, court should fix values as of date of its decision ordering manner of payment of elective share; (3) income produced from assets of intestate estate accrues to beneficiaries according to the statutory intestate shares and there is no reason why spouse who elects against will should be treated differently; (4) generally, and subject to the number of exceptions, spouse is entitled to one-third of income of augmented estate; (5) tax apportionment clause applies to substantial bequests made to spouse in will as well as to elective share; and (6) surviving spouse was relieved of responsibility for estate and inheritance taxes and they would be paid by remaining portion of residuary estate pursuant to testator's expressed intent to minimize taxes for his widow and his estate.

Bequest To Second Husband Of A Life Interest In The Marital Home And Remainder of The Estate To Him In A Residuary Clause Gave Husband A Fee Simple In The Home—In re Maliniak—(App. Div., 1985) (unreported).

The Appellate Division reversed the Law Division of the Superior Court and held that here, where the testatrix bequeathed her second husband a life interest in the marital home and, in a residuary clause, the remainder of her estate, nothing in the will indicated that she intended the home to be excepted from the operation of the residuary clause and the husband took the home in fee simple.

Judgment was entered reversing the Law Division of the Superior Court and granting the husband a fee simple in the marital home.

Will Validly Cancelled By Decedent's Written Statement On Duplicate Copy Declaring Will Null and Void—In The Matter of The Probate of The Will of Bernard Nassano, Deceased 199 N.J. Super. 414 (App. Div., 1985).

The Appellate Division affirmed the judgment of the Probate Part of the Superior Court, Law Division of Atlantic County, denying admission of a will to probate and holding that decedent validly cancelled his will by writing statement on duplicate copy declaring will to be null and void.

Decedent was never married and had no children. On November 10, 1978 he executed an original and one copy of a will designating certain charitable organizations and individuals, none of whom were related to him, as beneficiaries. The original will was kept by the attorney and the copy was given to the decedent. On June 7, 1979, decedent wrote on the copy of the will and backer, "This Will and other Wills (Made by Me) are null and void." This statement was signed by the decedent and dated. Decedent died on August 18, 1982 without having executed any further will.

Pursuant to the revision of Title 3A dealing with the Administration of Estates by P.L. 1977, c. 412 (effective September 1, 1978), at N.J.S.A. 3A:2A-3, now N.J.S.A. 3B:3-3, a holographic will, whether or not witnessed, is valid provided the signature and material provisions are in the handwriting of the testator.

The court said that decedent's conduct in attempting to revoke his will was done with the same formality as is now required to execute a will.

It was held by the court that in the circumstances of this case, decedent unambiguously expressed his intent to cancel the will and did so with sufficient formality that it may be honored. In some other case a testator's writings on a will might not be so clearly or formally expressed and thus could not be given effect.

Thus, even if the decedent's estate escheats to the State, the decedent's will has been revoked.

Judgment was entered affirming the holding of the court below, the Probate Part of the Superior Court Law Division, Atlantic County denying admission of the will to probate.

Transfer In Contemplation Of Death—Valuation of Life Estate—In re Estate of Mary E. Roth, deceased, 6 N.J. Tax 455 (Tax Court of New Jersey—May 25, 1984).

An agreement within three years of decedent's death, permitting taxpayer to defer repayment of mortgage loans to decedent, is a taxable transfer in contemplation of death, to be valued using the life expectancy tables referred to in N.J.S.A. 54:36-2.

LOCAL PROPERTY TAX

Farmland Assessment—Honeybees—Franklyn Barrett v. Bor. of Frenchtown 6 NJ Tax 558 (Tax Court of New Jersey—September 14, 1984).

Plaintiff's land does not qualify for farmland assessment under the Farmland Assessment Act, N.J.S.A. 54:4-23.1 et seq., because five acres of land was not "devoted" to honey production within the intent of the act.

Chapter 123 Discriminatory Relief and Freeze Act Application Denied—T.W. Berenson et al. t/a The Executive House of East Orange v. City of East Orange, 6 N.J. Tax 493 (App. Div., 1984).

The Appellate Division affirmed the Tax Court whose opinion of August 4, 1983 is reported in 6 N.J. Tax 12 (Tax Ct., 1983). The Tax Court had affirmed the defendant municipality's 1981 tax assessment of a high-rise apartment building in East Orange, New Jersey.

The Appellate Division affirmed the quashing by the Tax Court of the subpoena duces tecum served upon the defendant's expert whereby the plaintiff sought discovery of appraisal reports prepared by the expert in relation to other properties in other municipalities. The affirmation by the Appellate Division was substantially for the reasons expressed in the oral opinion of Judge Crabtree rendered October 12, 1982.

The Appellate Division also affirmed the trial judge's reliance on the H.U.D. preemptive rent levels rather than contract rents, substantially for the reasons expressed in that portion of the Tax Court opinion published in 6 N.J. Tax 12 (Tax Ct., 1983).

The Appellate Division took no position with respect to the Tax Court's decision that with respect to the applicability of the Freeze Act, N.J.S.A. 54:3-26 which was not raised as an issue on this appeal. The Tax Court had affirmed the 1981 assessment on plaintiff's real property and held that plaintiff was not entitled to statutory relief from a discriminatory assessment pursuant to Chapter 123 and also was not entitled to the benefit of the Freeze Act (N.J.S.A. 54:3-26) by reason of an unappealed county board judgment. The Tax Court's opinion was reported in 6 N.J. Tax 12 (Tax Ct. 1983).

Judgment was entered affirming the Tax Court's judgment.

Farmland Assessment—Woodlands—John J. Brunetti v. Tp. of Lacey 6 NJ Tax 565 (Tax Court of New Jersey—September 14, 1984).

Contracts between taxpayer and a timber buyer satisfy farmland assessment income requirement, but taxpayer has the burden of proving that the income was derived from the sale of wood products produced on the subject property and the specific area of the subject property on which the wood products were produced.

Valuation Use of Capitalization of Income Method—John J. Brunetti t/a Richfield Village v. City of Clifton 7 NJ Tax 161 (Tax Court of NJ—December 7, 1984).

The preferred method to value an apartment building was the capitalization of income method since an accurate determination of value could not be arrived at by the sales comparison method. The owner of the property emphasized the income capitalization method, while the municipality proposed the use of the market sales approval.

The income capitalization method was established as the best appraisal method because of the detailed analysis of the income stream and expenses on the one hand, and the sales comparison on the other hand. A purchaser would be more concerned with the return on invested capital rather than the subjective adjustment factors on sales of other properties. Determining the economic rent is significant in the income capitalization method.

The municipality claimed that the taxpayer did not include suitable economic rent from which to compute expenses and arrive at a valuation and did not consider capital improvements which had a material effect on the value of the property. The Tax Court upheld the municipality's claims on the basis that the taxpayer erroneously used actual rents not equal to economic rents.

In addition the valuation was incorrect because the taxpayer did not adjust his valuation based on the foreseeable occurrence of rent increases. Furthermore, concerning the capitalization rate, the municipality's use of an overall rate mainly based upon a comparison with investment opportunities was correct since the most comparable investments were analyzed.

The court found that Chapter 123 found in N.J.S.A. 54:1-35(a) and 54:1-35(b) which establish the statistical formula for an action grounded on discrimination applies. The common level range did exceed the plus or minus 15% of the average ratio for the district. This relief from discrimination is warranted. However, the court rejected the taxpayer's argument that the unweighted—unclassified ratio should be used instead of the Chapter 123 ratio.

The Tax Court arrived at the assessed value of the land and improvements, for the property in issue, for the years 1981 and 1982 and entered the appropriate judgment.

Freeze Act (N.J.S.A. 54:51A-8). Central Bergen Properties v. Bor. of Elmwood Park and City of Garfield, 6 NJ Tax 495 (Tax Court of New Jersey April 6, 1984).

Successor in title, who was not a party thereto, is bound by settlement agreement between predecessor and taxing district which provided that N.J.S.A. 54:51A-8 (Freeze Act) shall apply to taxpayer as well as to taxing district.

Freeze Act Protection Not Lost By Taxpayers' Filing of Appeals For The Years Covered By The Freeze Act—Clearview Gardens Associates v. Township of Parsippany—Troy Hills Riverside Estate v. Township of Parsippany—Troy Hills; Parsippany Hills Associates v. Township of Parsippany—Troy Hills; D.H. Overmyer v. Township of Woodbridge, 196 NJ Super 323 (App. Div. 1984).

Taxpayers applied for Freeze Act judgments to protect against increased assessments on their real property. The Tax Court entered orders denying their applications, and taxpayers appealed. The Superior Court, Appellate Division, reversed the Tax Court and held that taxpayers' filing of appeals for the years covered by the Freeze Act did not constitute an election of remedies and taxpayers were not precluded by such action from seeking Freeze Act protection.

The Appellate Court held that if a taxpayer determines that it wishes to seek a lower valuation of its property by way of appeal it may open itself to a claim by the municipality that a higher assessment is, in fact, warranted; burden of proof would be on each of the parties, to wit, the taxpayer and the municipality, to demonstrate that the assessment should be respectively lowered or raised effective for two years.

Taxpayer does not lose its statutory protection against real estate tax increases under the Freeze Act merely by filing an appeal of an assessment made by a municipality.

The Appellate Court therefore reversed the orders of the Tax Court denying Freeze Act application and remanded the matters back to the Tax Court for the entry of judgments granting the Freeze Act applications consistent with the Appellate Court's opinion.

Valuation—Presumption of Correctness—Congoleum Corp. v. Hamilton Tp. NJ Tax (Tax Court of NJ—April 9, 1985).

Taxpayer seeking reduction in assessment and taxing district seeking increase must both overcome presumption of correctness of assessment by presentation of sufficient competent evidence.

In valuation of very old, obsolete, massive industrial complex with 32 sets of structures, no weight given to cost approach where calculation of enormous depreciation percentage almost impossible. Economic approach to value not considered because property would have to be subdivided to attract tenants, and proffered comparable rentals not substantiated. In market approach, sales of industrial plants not to be summarily rejected as comparables solely by reason of their out-of-county or out-of-state location; nevertheless, must be of substantially similar facilities and within market in which subject property would be sold. Adjustments for building "utility" and for building "amenities" which are not adequately substantiated cannot be given any considered in arriving at final sales price adjustment.

County Equalization Table Upheld—Cranbury Township v. Middlesex County Board of Taxation 6 N.J. Tax 501 (Tax County of New Jersey, July 13, 1984).

The Tax Court affirmed the Middlesex County Board of Taxation and dismissed plaintiff's complaint. It held that the county equalization ratio of 53.70% assigned to Cranbury Township for the tax year 1984 was correct. The plaintiff, Cranbury Township, challenged the 1984 county equalization table promulgated by the Middlesex County Board of Taxation for failure to include a sale in the township in arriving at an equalization ratio for Cranbury.

The Tax Court held that the sale was not usable and was correctly excluded from the county board's equalization study because, (1) The property sold was less than entire assessment parcel and therefore there was no comparative relationship between the assessment and sales price for sales-ratio purposes, and (2) The property sold partially included property preferentially assessed under the Farmland Assessment Act of 1964, N.J.S.A. 54:4-23.1 et seq. and therefore, the comparative relationship between the assessment and sales price necessary for sales-ratio purposes was lacking.

Farmland Assessment—Rollback Taxes—Eagle Plaza Associates and Cherry Hill Industrial Properties v. Voorhees Township, 6 NJ Tax 582 (Tax Court of NJ, September 26, 1984).

N.J.S.A. 54:4-23.8 expressly limits the tax years subject to assessment for rollback taxes to those two years which immediately precede the year in which a change in use of the land occurred.

Exemption—County Property—Essex Cty. v. East Orange City 7 NJ Tax 346 (Tax Court of NJ—March 19, 1985).

County-owned property is entitled to an apportioned local property tax exemption to the extent it was used for public purposes. N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.3

Valuation—Shopping Center—Ewing Tp. v. Suburban Square Associates 7 NJ Tax 263 (Tax Court of NJ—Feb. 6, 1985).

Valuation of a 20-year-old strip shopping center gave most weight to income approach where comparable sales bore little resemblance to subject property and depreciation not substantiated.

Appeal By Municipality Via A Counterclaim To Increase Its Original Assessment Of Real Property Must Be filed By August 15, Statutory Deadline Date—F.M.C. Stores Co. v. Boro of Morris Plains; Edison Mall Associates v. Township of Edison;" 115 Acres Venture/First National State Bank v. Township of Edison, 195 NJ Super 373 (App. Div. 1984).

The Appellate Division reversed the Tax Court and held that a taxing district cannot pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:3-21 challenge its own original assessment to real property as being too low and seek to increase its assessment after the statutory August 15 deadline date. The Appellate Court held that the August 15th statutory deadline date is a jurisdictional prerequisite for the prosecution by a defendant municipality of an appeal from its own assessment whether or not the taxpayer first appeals. The time limitation being jurisdictional is not subject to modification by court rule. The right of each party to pursue an appeal within the statutory time period is wholly independent of and unaffected by the course of action decided by the other and the mechanism of a court-rule counterclaim cannot be used by either party to extend or abbreviate the statutory period.

It is only a challenge to the original assessment which the court held to be subject to the time prescription of N.J.S.A. 54:3-21 irrespective of whether it is styled as a complaint, an appeal, a cross-appeal, a cross petition or counterclaim. The court's holding was limited to a counterclaim which attacks the original assessment. The court agreed with the rationale of the Tax Court in the case of Curtiss-Wright Corp. v. Wood-Ridge, 2 N.J. Tax 143 (Tax Ct. 1981) where other types of counterclaims are involved. For example, if a taxpayer were to obtained a reduction of his assessment in the county board of taxation and appealed to the Tax Court seeking a greater reduction, the municipality would certainly be free to file a counterclaim in the Tax Court seeking to reinstate the original assessment, and a motion to file a late counterclaim for that purpose would be a matter within the court's discretion.

The court, therefore, held that where a taxpayer's appeal challenges an assessment based on true value and where discrimination is not and cannot be an issue, the consequence of the taxing district's failure to take a timely appeal from the assessment is to preclude an increase in the original assessment.

The Appellate Division reversed the orders of the Tax Court appealed from and remanded the case back to the Tax Court for further proceedings consistent with the Appellate Court's opinion. Petition for certification to the New Jersey Supreme Court was granted 99 NJ 189, November 7, 1984.

In Lieu Payment—State Agency—Tp. of Franklin v. State Dept. of Environmental Protection 7 NJ Tax 224 (Tax Court of NJ—July 27, 1984).

Ninety-day limitations period prescribed by N.J.S.A. 54:51A-13 within which to file for "review of actions of . . . [a] state agency . . . with respect to any tax matter" applies to appeal by taxing district of Department of Environmental Protection's omission of rollback taxes in calculating its payment in lieu of taxes, notwithstanding the Department of Environmental Protection's status as taxpayer. Taxing district's failure to file complaint within 90 days of the Department of Environmental Protection's payment resulted in dismissal of its complaint.

Farmland Assessment—Gardiner v. State of New Jersey, 196 N.J. Super 529 (Law Div., Superior Court, 1984).

The Law Division of the Superior Court held that where land, eligible for special treatment under the Farmland Assessment Act of 1964, is condemned by the State of New Jersey for highway use, such land is no longer eligible for the farmland assessment and is subject to roll-back taxes. In the case of a condemnation, no change of use is made by the seller but rather the land is in effect taken out of circulation by the action of the State, and the additional taxes chargeable under the statute must be paid by the state and not by the owners.

The court said that the thrust of the Farmlands Assessment Act's roll-back provision is to discourage and penalize speculation in farmlands and is not directed at plaintiffs. Thus where farmland is condemned by the State, as here for a highway, the roll-back taxes must borne by the State and not by the involuntary sellers.

Municipalities—Ordinances—Taxes—Rebates—Landlord And Tenant Law—Gateway Apartments, Inc. v. Town of Nutley, U.S. District Court; Civil No. 84-2830—March 28, 1985.

A municipal ordinance that required landlords to share 75 percent of tax rebates with their tenants was constitutional. It was not illogical or irrational for a municipality desirous of protecting tenants' rights and maintaining reasonable rents to require that landlords who receive tax rebates should share them with those who have contributed to their payment.

While the subject ordinance was imperfect (the persons who paid were not necessarily the persons who received the rebate; nor were the rebates shared in the same proportion among tenants as they had been paid), those imperfections did not render the ordinance unconstitutional. Underlying the ordinance was a legitimate function of municipal power exercised in a proper manner to protect the rights of tenants.

Valuation Building Residual Technique—Glen Wall Associates v. Township of Wall, 99 N.J. 265 (1985).

The New Jersey Supreme Court reversed the Tax Court 6 N.J. Tax 24 (August 11, 1983) and Appellate Division of the Superior Court which had upheld the original assessment against the plaintiff-taxpayer. At issue was the 1980 real property tax assessment of a garden apartment development located in Wall Township. The appeal concerned the issues involved in valuing a commercial building under the building residue technique as an application of the income approach to value (building residue technique). The property consists of approximately 6.5 acres, upon which five two-story brick and frame garden apartment buildings had been constructed. The complex contains 78 units.

Plaintiff-taxpayer had unsuccessfully challenged the assessment of its property before the Monmouth County Board of Taxation, the Tax Court, and the Appellate Division. The New Jersey Supreme Court reversed the judgment below and held an expert's use of the building residual technique, namely (1) use of the assessed value of the land, divided by the Chapter 123 ratio, to determine the market value of the land, (2) use of stabilized actual rent to determine economic rent, and (3) use of rates or return on alternative investments to determine the capitalization rate, is proper. In addition, the recent sale of the property may be considered by the Court as an indication of value. In this case, the expert provided sufficient evidence for the Tax Court to determine the value of the property using the builing residual technique.

The court also held:

1. The building residual technique is an acceptable method of appraising income-producing property.

2. An expert using the building residual technique first determines market value of the land. For this purpose he may use the assessed value of the land. There is a presumption in favor of a tax assessment made by the local taxing authority, which can be overcome only by the presentation by either party of sufficient competent evidence. If a taxpayer does not wish to contest part of a township's assessment, he should be able to concede that fact. In this case, the taxpayer's expert properly relied on the assessed value of the land, while challenging the assessed value of improvements. Moreover, the assessed value of the land, adjusted by Chapter 123 ratio, furnished sufficient and competent evidence of the land's market value.

3. Next, an expert applying the building residual technique determines the net operating income. The primary factor in calculating the net operating income is the rent derived from the property. The fair rental value, rather than the actual rent payable under an existing lease, however, must control. Nonetheless, actual income is a significant probative factor. Here, the actual rent roll was not available, because the taxpayer did not purchase the property until December 20, 1979. He, therefore, adjusted the rent roll. The resultant adjusted rent roll provides sufficiently reliable market data, which are rooted in evidence that the Court may evaluate. The taxpayer's use of stabilized actual rent was a reasonable method of determining the economic rent of the complex and was supported by sufficient and competent evidence in the record. Moreover, the taxpayer's expert's calculation of economic rent is entitled to the presumption that actual rent equals economic rent in a well-managed apartment project. Furthermore, the presumption that a landlord is charging the market rent was not overcome by the Township. Finally, the Township's expert differed from the taxpayer's expert by only $4,550 per year or 1.9%, thereby virtually confirming the taxpayer's economic rent figure. Hence, in calculating net operating income, the taxpayer's expert produced sufficient competent evidence to support his figure of economic rent.

4. Next, an expert employing the building residual technique determines the capitalization rate to be used to capitalize the residual income attributable to the improvements. Although derivation of an overall capitalization rate from comparable sales is the preferred technique, it is not the only one. A capitalization rate can be calculated from an examination of alternative investments. What is required is that reliable market data be furnished to the court as the basis for an expert's opinion so that the Court may evaluate the opinion. In this case there was sufficient evidence to provide the Court with a basis for applying its own knowledge to determine a property capitalization rate.

5. An expert's duty to fully document his opinion must never be compromised. However, a court should be aware of the expense incurred by litigants in engaging an expert. Here, if the evidence is viewed practically and within realistic limits the expert produced sufficient competent evidence to support his capitalization rate or at least sufficient competent evidence from which the court could have determined a capitalization rate.

6. The sale of Glen Wall Heights Garden Apartment Development occurred less than three months after the assessment data. Thus, the Tax Court should have considered the sale of the property as an indication of true value. A bona fide sale of property may be an indication of the true value of the property, although such a sale is not dispositive. It is for the court to appraise the circumstances surrounding a sale to determine if there were special factors which affected the sale's price without affecting the true value. Thus, a township can rebut evidence of a sale's price with evidence that the sale was not made at arm's length, was a distress sale or was a sham. Because financing arrangements may affect the contract price, the financing arrangements should be considered and necessary adjustments should be made. Implicit in such a consideration, however, is that the sale not be remote in time.

Accordingly, judgment was entered reversing the judgment of the Appellate Division and the case was remanded to the Tax Court to determine the value of the property in accordance with the principles expressed in the Supreme Court opinion.

Burden of Proof—Glen Wall Associates v. Township of Wall, 6 N.J. Tax 448 (App. Div. 1984).

The Appellate Division of the Superior Court affirmed substantially for the reasons stated therein the opinion of the Tax Court reported at 6 N.J. Tax 24 (1983).

The Tax Court had held taxpayer's complaint was dismissed where building residual technique of the income approach to value is rejected for use of unsupported land value, and no market data presented for taxpayer's expert's "stabilized" rental income or capitalization rate.

The Appellate Division rejected as without merit appellant's additional argument that the Tax Court erred in failing "to consider the sale of the subject property only seven weeks after the critical assessing date as an alternative method of proving valuation," under the circumstance that appellant attempted to prove true value not by the sale price set out in the deed but by opinion testimony of a substantially lower cash equivalency of the sale price in the light of favorable financing terms.

Petition for certification to the Supreme Court of New Jersey was granted on July 2, 1984. 97 N.J. 661 (1984)

Valuation—Discrimination—Bor. of Hasbrouck Heights v. Park Terrace Gardens, Inc., (App. Div., 1983) (unreported)

The Appellate Division affirmed the Tax Court judgement of December 16, 1982 reducing the 1978 assessment on dependant's 70-unit garden apartment complex.

The Tax Court had rejected taxing district's claim that county board judgment which reduced assessment discriminated against all other taxpayers because all assessments were maintained from year to year at the 1963 re-valuation level. Actual rents in apartment building were held to be economic rent in rent-controlled community. Thus, taxpayer was entitled to relief from discrimination.

The Appellate Division held there was no evidence in the record to support the borough's claim that actual and economic rents were not the same in this case.

A judgment was entered affirming the Tax Court judgment reducing the 1978 assessment on defendant's 70-unit garden apartment complex.

Petition for certification to the New Jersey Supreme Court was denied on January 17, 1984 at 96 N.J. 261 (1984).

Tax—Public Utility—Exemption—Jersey Power and Light Co. v. Lacy Tp. 7 NJ Tax 246 (Tax Court of NJ—Feb. 5, 1985).

Nuclear reactor structure and three other disputed structures at electric generating plant of public utility not exempt from local property taxation under the Gross Receipts Tax Act as "equipment" but are assessable for local property tax purposes as "buildings" as term is defined in Public Service Elec. & Gas Co. v. Woodbridge City, 73 N.J. 474 (1977).

Valuation—Kazanchy v. Borough of Sea Bright, 6 N.J. Tax 622 (App. Div., 1984).

Taxpayer sought relief from county tax board's refusal to reduce municipal assessments for years 1977 through 1979, and directly appealed municipal assessment for 1980. The Tax Court, dismissed plaintiff's complaints and petitions, 6 N.J. Tax 353, (May 4, 1983), and taxpayer appealed. The Superior Court, Appellate Division, held that: (1) expert's opinion as to value of taxpayer's property which was not supported by facts in the record was a net opinion and did not provide competent proof of value of the property, but (2) evidence that taxpayer's property had been sold twice in preceding ten years and that the sales were arm's length transactions was sufficient proof of value to permit consideration of taxpayer's discrimination claim.

The Appellate Division thus affirmed the Tax Court Opinion which held that competent proof of value of the property was not provided by the plaintiff, however, the matter was remitted back to the Tax Court for further consideration of the question of value in light of the evidence of the two sales of the property in question as a basis for plaintiff's discrimination claim.

Valuation—Kazanchy v. Borough of Sea Bright, 6 N.J. Tax 353 (Tax Court of New Jersey—May 4, 1983).

The Tax Court affirmed the Monmouth County Tax Board as to the correctness of the assessment on plaintiffs real property apartment complex for the tax years 1976 through 1980 and dismissed the plaintiff's complaint.

The Tax Court held that: (1) witness' opinion of capitalization rates was unsupported by any acceptable facts and was rejected; (2) building residual technique was not accepted absent opinion of land value; and (3) absent basis for finding of value the presumption of correctness of the assessment was not overcome.

Farmland Assessment—L & Z Realty Co., Inc. v. Boro. of Ringwood, 6 NJ Tax 450 (Tax Court of New Jersey—May 18, 1984).

Taxpayer failed to establish entitlement of his 128 acres of woodland to farmland assessment where anticipated annual timber growth was valued in excess of the statutory (N.J.S.A. 54:4-23.3) requirement of gross sales, but no income was realized in the two years preceding the tax year, and where zoning ordinance in effect at end of pretax year prohibited commercial logging on taxpayer's property.

Assessment Of All Interests—James H. Lidell and Diane Lidell v. Mimosa Lakes Ass'n and Medford Tp., 6 NJ Tax 417 (Tax Court of New Jersey—April 5, 1984).

Club beach lot used by club member residents of lake community for access to lake is to be assessed to include all property interests without deduction for value of rights of club members to use lot for lake access.

Valuation—Vacant Land—Comparable Sales—Linwood Properties, Inc. v. Fort Lee Bor., 7 NJ Tax 320 (Tax Court of NJ—March 13, 1985).

Expert's adjustments for differences between subject and comparable sales properties must include consideration of all factors which influence price including differences in time, location, zoning, physical characteristics, contract of sale contingencies and changes in form of ownership, e.g., rental to co-op/condominium, as to both the subject and sales properties. Where expert failed to account for such differences, the sales prices of subject and comparable sales properties were rejected as unreliable.

County Tax Rebate on State-Owned Property Where Payment Made In Lieu of Taxes—Mahwah Township et al. v. Bergen County Board of Taxation, 98 N.J. 268 (1985).

The Supreme Court of New Jersey reversed the Tax Court in part which held both N.J.S.A. 54:4-5 and 54:4-5.2 to be unconstitutional in its opinion reported at 3 N.J. Tax 513 (Tax Ct., November 20, 1981) and summarily affirmed by the Appellate Division of the Superior Court reported at 190 N.J. Super. 84 (App. Div., 1983).

The Supreme Court held that the Tax Court erred in its determination that state-owned property cannot be considered in the calculation for a county tax rebate; payments made under N.J.S.A. 54:4.2.2a, the in-lieu payments act, will not preclude a rebate under N.J.S.A. 54:4-5.

N.J.S.A. 54:4-5, which for 60 years provided a rebate of a portion of a municipality's share of county taxes if it was in a first-class county and had 200 or more acres of land used and occupied by a state or county institution, is not unconstitutional special legislation although N.J.S.A. 54:4-5.2 (the supplement foreclosing rebates for any municipality that had not received one prior to September 22, 1980) is and must be severed.

Judgment was entered affirming the Tax Court insofar as it declared N.J.S.A. 54:4-5.2 unconstitutional, but reversing its judgment declaring N.J.S.A. 54:4-5 unconstitutional.

Note: N.J.S.A. 54:4-5 and 5.2 were both repealed by N.J.S.A. 54:4-5a (Chapter 36 P.L. 1982 (approved June 10, 1982)) in which the land size restriction was expressed in percentage rather than acreage terms.

Economic Rent—Rent Control—Maple Court Assoc. Ltd. v. Ridgfield Park Tp., 7 N.J. Tax 135 (Tax Court of New Jersey—November 28, 1984).

County tax board assessed 34-unit apartment house and lot at $543,800, and taxpayer appealed. The Tax Court, held that: (1) analysis rendered by municipality's expert provided a better indication of economic rent than opinion rendered by taxpayer; (2) taxpayer's cash-equivalency analysis was incomplete; (3) cost-reproduction approach, although not substantially different from value conclusion reached by other approaches, had to be discarded as an independent means of valuation of the subject property; and (4) taxpayer failed to establish a valid claim of discrimination.

Judgment was entered affirming the assessment for the tax year involved which was 1980.

Senior Citizens Deduction—Fred McDougall v. Tp. of Vernon, 6 NJ Tax 488 (Tax Court of New Jersey—July 25, 1984).

Senior citizen residing in a trailer that is not assessed as real property and therefore is not a "... constituent part of his real property ..." within N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.41 is not entitled to senior citizen's deduction from his real property taxes.

Correction Of Error—Robert T. McElwee and Bette McElwee v. Ocean City, 7 NJ Tax 355 (Tax Court of NJ—April 3, 1985).

Neither error by assessor in determination of highest and best use nor erroneous assessment which is result of assessor's reliance on incorrect data (erroneous recordation of deed by title company as condominium instead of duplex) are mistakes correctable by means of Correction of Error statute, N.J.S.A. 54:51A-7; such incorrect assessment may only be remedied by appeal timely filed with county board of taxation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:3-21.

Business Personal Property—Minetto v. Northvale Boro, 7 NJ Tax 2893 (Tax Court of NJ—March 5, 1985).

Bowling lanes, pinsetters and ball returns removable with little or no damage to themselves or the underlying structure are business personalty not subject to local property taxation.

Exemption of New Single Family Dwellings From Property Taxes Until A Certificate of Occupancy Is Issued Held Unconstitutional—The New Jersey State League of Municipalities et al. v. Irwin I Kimmelman, 197 N.J. Super. 89 (Superior Court, Law Division—1985).

Chapter 220, P.L. 1982 (approved December 29, 1982) as amended by Chapter 155, P.L. 1983 (approved April 22, 1983) which exempts newly constructed single-family dwellings from local property tax until certificates of occupancy are issued and the structures are occupied was held unconstitutional in violation of Article VIII of the New Jersey Constitution which forbids special legislation, and provides that exemption from taxation can only be granted by general laws.

No rational relationship was found between the object of the legislation (the alleviation of the housing shortage) and restricting the exemption to a special class (single-family owned residential dwellings). The law created a special preference for single family homes, a portion of a class was favored based on the form of ownership in which the property was held, and there was excluded from the favored class other properties similar to the one-family group which except for the statute would have naturally been included in the class. Thus Chapter 220 P.L. 1982 (approved December 29, 1982) as amended by Chapter 155 P.L. 1983 (approved April 22, 1983) was held to be special legislation in violation of the New Jersey Constitution.

Summary judgment was entered in favor of the plaintiff.

Valuation—Reservoir—Newark v. Cedar Grove Tp., 6 N.J. Tax 67 (Tax Court of N.J.—November 9, 1984).

Reservoir property valued at highest and best use as a reservoir where so used for over 75 years and nothing to indicate that such use would change.

Where no comparable sales of reservoirs, cost approach used to value, which required land first to be valued as unimproved by comparing it with raw land similarly zoned. Since only land is subject to local property tax, land valued as raw land without adjustment for theoretical removal of reservoir improvements.

Subject Matter Jurisdiction—Railroad Property Tax Act—New York Susquehanna and Western Railway Corp. v. N.J. Dept. of Treasury, Div. of Taxation and Tp. of Sparta, 6 NJ Tax 575 (Tax Court of NJ, September 21, 1984).

Tax Court lacks jurisdiction to hear contest of local property tax assessment where taxpayer failed to file a timely appeal of the local property tax assessment with the county tax board. As Tax Court lacks jurisdiction to affect the local property tax assessment, appeal of Director of Division of Taxation's refusal to assess property as railroad property under the Railroad Property Tax Act, N.J.S.A. 54:29A-43.1, dismissed as moot.

Valuation—Highest And Best Use Watershed—Newark v. West Milford Tp., 7 NJ Tax 35 (Tax Court of NJ—September 28, 1984).

"Highest and best use" of watershed lands of municipal reservoir system located in a conservation area created by the State Development Guide Plan is for development in accordance with applicable zoning ordinances. In determining "highest and best use," actual use is not critical, and intention of the property owner to keep the property undeveloped is irrelevant. Public policies favoring non-development of this specific watershed to preserve the superior quality of the city's water do not lead to a conclusion that the "highest and best use" of the subject property is for a watershed.

Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation And Development Act Held Constitutional—No. Bergen Tp. v. Hackensack M.D.C., 200 N.J. Super., 579, (App. Div., 1985).

The Appellate Division affirmed the judgment of the Superior Court, Law Division, Hudson County and held that the Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation and Development Act was not arbitrary or discriminatory and that it was constitutional.

Township appealed from an order of the Superior Court, Law Division, Hudson County, determining that tax-sharing plan of Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation and Development Act is not unconstitutional. Appellate Division, held that even if township had standing, township failed to establish that tax-sharing provisions of the Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation and Development Act were arbitrary or discriminatory on theory that by not accounting for assessment modifications made by Tax Court there was a failure to make timely adjustments for reductions in the aggregate assessed value thereby causing township to pay more than its fair share into the inter-municipal account.

Meadowlands Reg. Redevelopment Agency v. State 63 N.J. 35 (1973) sustained the constitutionality of the act against an attack that it was arbitrary.

Meadowlands expressly held that the two-year spread between the comparison year and the adjustment year is neither too long nor too short. The New Jersey Supreme Court also recognized that to avoid a longer and therefore less desirable spread, N.J.S.A. 13:17-74(a) requires that certification of the adjustment payment be made on February 1 following the comparison year. That date falls soon after the statutory deadlines for establishing the data on which the adjustment payment is based. One of these deadlines is the November 15 date by which the county board must determine all tax appeals. N.J.S.A. 54:3-21 and 26. The taxpayer may seek a review in the Tax Court by filing a complaint within 45 days after service of the county board judgment. R. 8:4-1(a)(2). Obviously, a review in the Tax Court could not be completed before the February 1 date for certifying the adjustment payment. Therefore, that certification cannot take into account Tax Court modifications.

The Appellate Division, however, found the Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation and Development Act was not arbitrary or discriminatory and entered a judgment affirming its constitutionality.

Exemption—College Fraternity House—Nu Beta Alumni Ass'n of Phi Gamma Delta v. New Brunswick, 7 NJ Tax 379 (Tax Court of NJ—May 22, 1984).

Rutgers University fraternity house, not operated or controlled by the University, does not further educational purposes of the University and thereby fails to meet the test necessary for exemption from local property taxation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.6. Fraternity, organized primarily for social purposes, does not provide the degree of scholastic enhancement prerequisite for tax exemption pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.26.

Exemption—Paper Mill Playhouse v. Tp. Of Millburn, 7 NJ Tax 78 (Tax Court of NJ—November 14, 1984).

Where an exempt structure is damaged or destroyed and reconstruction is immediately commenced and completed within a reasonable period of time, and activities in furtherance of the exempt status continue in spite of the damage to the structure, the exempt status is deemed to continue during the reconstruction period.

Valuation—Sale of Subject—Romulus Development Corp. v. Town of West New York; Romulus Development Corp. v. Tp. of Weehawken, 7 N.J. Tax 305 (Tax Court of N.J.—March 11, 1985).

Sale price of subject property best evidence of market value where subject is unusual parcel of land and sale took place shortly after assessing date, was arm's length transaction, and was not result of duress on part of either buyer or seller. Market value is not to be adjusted to reflect possibility of zoning changes in the future.

Assessment Review—Destruction By Fire—Rutherford Construction Co. v. Bor. of Rutherford, 6 NJ Tax 605 (Tax Court of NJ, September 27, 1984).

Owner of property destroyed by fire is not entitled to review of assessment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:4-35.1, where taxpayer failed to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that substantial destruction occurred prior to January 1 of the relevant tax year, although a fire within the subject building may have commenced prior thereto. N.J.S.A. 54:4-35.1, which requires the taxpayer to notify the assessor by January 10 of the relevant tax year if taxpayer requests reassessment due to fire damage, is not satisfied by a letter to the mayor concerning repairs and use of a temporary trailer.

Exempt Status—Schizophrenia Foundation of N.J. v. Montgomery Tp. 6 NJ Tax 594 (Tax Court of New Jersey—September 26, 1984).

Montgomery Tp. v. Schizophrenia Foundation of N.J. 6 NJ Tax 594 (Tax Court of New Jersey—September 26, 1984).

Foundation's property is not entitled to a tax exemption under N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.6 for the years in question because the property was not "exclusively used" for exempt purposes.

N.J.S.A. 54:2-39 Upheld In Requiring Payment Of All Taxes Due And Payable For Year Under Review Prior To Filing Complaint On Appeal From County Board of Taxation To Tax Court—Schneider et. al. v. City of East Orange, 196 N.J. Super. 587 (App. Div. 1984).

The Appellate Division of the Superior Court affirmed the Tax Court in dismissing plaintiffs' complaint. Taxpayers had appealed the 1979 tax assessment on their office building. The Appellate Division held that the Tax Court lacked jurisdiction to hear taxpayers' appeal from the Essex County Board of Taxation where all the taxes due and payable by taxpayers for the years for which review was sought were not paid at the time of the filing of the plaintiffs' complaint.

The Appellate Division held N.J.S.A. 54:2-39 (now 54:51A-1) which provides that all taxes or any installments thereof then due and payable for the year for which review is sought must have been paid at time that complaint is filed with Tax Court unambiguously establishes prepayment of taxes then due as jurisdiction prerequisite of appeal to Tax Court from county board judgment, unlike N.J.S.A. 54:3-27 which governs appeals to Tax Court directly from assessment, which is silent as to time when payment of taxes must be made.

Requiring taxpayers to pay all taxes due for challenged year as prerequisite to Tax Court jurisdiction of appeal from county board of taxation did not deny taxpayers equal protection on grounds that full prepayment is not required of those filing initial assessment appeals; distinction between taxpayers appealing from county board decision, who have had benefit of hearing as to correctness of subject assessments and of determination by quasi-judicial body establishing amount of taxes due and payable, and taxpayers filing initial assessment appeal, which must be filed prior to date on which quarterly tax installment is due, has rational basis.

Taxpayers' right of due process was not violated by requiring all taxes then due and payable by taxpayers for year for which review was sought at time that complaint before Tax Court was filed be paid as prerequisite to Tax Court jurisdiction, since statutory procedures available for review of assessment met requirements of adequate notice, opportunity for fair hearing, and availability of appropriate review, under circumstances that interest of municipality in receiving timely payment of taxes was significant and outweighed any incidental burden imposed by jurisdictional requirement.

The Appellate Division entered a judgment affirming the dismissal of the plaintiffs' complaint by the Tax Court.

Valuation—Shulton Inc. v. Clifton, 7 N.J. Tax 220 (App. Div. 1984).

Both taxpayer and city appealed from the judgment of the Tax Court, 7 N.J. Tax 208, (August 1983) in local property tax case affirming 1979 and 1980 total assessment for land and improvements of a large industrial complex at $10,487,800 and reducing 1981 assessment to $8,372,700. The Appellate Division held that: (1) use of market value approach to valuation in assessing value of taxpayer's industrial complex was appropriate in view of evidence that property was readily adaptable to multiple industrial uses without need for substantial conversion costs, (2) evidence was sufficient to support Tax Court's acceptance of estimate of unit value of property, submitted by taxpayer's expert, as $22 a square foot, land and buildings merged, as well as Tax Court's rejection of expert's exclusion of portions of square footage in taxpayer's industrial complex as "non-saleable space."

Judgment was entered affirming the Tax Court judgement reported at 7 N.J. Tax 208 (Tax Ct., August 3, 1983).

Valuation—Shulton v. Clifton, 7 N.J. Tax 208 (Tax Court of New Jersey—August 3, 1983).

Corporate taxpayer sought review of assessments imposed upon its property for years 1979, 1980, and 1981. The Passaic County board judgment affirmed the assessment for 1979. Taxpayer appealed. The Tax Court held that: (1) for tax purposes, income approach is inapplicable to valuation of property for which rental market or rental value cannot be identified; (2) city's expert's use of cost approach based upon special-purpose character of manufacturing complex was not in accord with sound appraisal principles; (3) manufacturing complex was not necessarily special-use property; (4) taxpayer's expert's market data approach to valuation of manufacturing complex provided most persuasive evidence of complex's value; (5) taxpayer's expert's exclusion of so-called nonsaleable space was not supported by credible evidence; (6) taxpayer was entitled to no discrimination relief for 1979 and 1980; and (7) taxpayer was entitled to relief for 1981.

Judgment was entered affirming the assessment for 1979 and 1980 and determining the assessment for 1981 to be as follows:

Land	$1,674,500
Improvements	$6,698,200
	$8,372,700

Assessment Review—Post-Assessment Facts—Six Cherry Hill, Inc. v. Township of Cherry Hill, Eleven Cherry Hill, Inc. v. Township of Cherry Hill, 7 NJ Tax 120 (Tax Court of NJ—December 13, 1984).

Economic rent in a rent-controlled apartment is the annualized rent receivable on October 1 of the pre-tax year reduced by any rents required to be refunded by court order setting aside rent increases.

Valuation—Southbridge Park Inc. v. Borough of Fort Lee, 201 N.J. Super., 91 (App. Div., 1985).

Taxpayer appealed from an order of the Tax Court, involving real estate tax assessments on super-luxury cooperative apartment building. The Superior Court, Appellate Division held that: (1) Tax Court's findings of fact were adequately supported by evidence; (2) Tax Court judge was free to accept or reject in whole or in part testimony of experts in resolving issues of fact arising from propositions of fact and their contradictories asserted by experts; and (3) Tax Court correctly precluded attempt to prove discrimination by comparative apartment building assessments.

Judgment was entered affirming the Tax Court.

Assessment of Real Property Where Tax Exemption Is Lost—St. Michael's Passionist Monastery v. City of Union City, 195 N.J. Super. 608 (App. Div., 1984).

The Appellate Division of the Superior Court held that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:4-63.26, the omitted assessment procedure must be used to levy a tax on exempt real property whose exemption is lost after October 1st of the pretax year, or when a prorated tax is sought, but property whose tax exemption is lost before October 1 can be assessed in the normal way for tax year beginning following January 1.

Business Personal Property Tax—"Material Injury" Test—Stem Brothers Inc. v. Alexandria Tp., 6 NJ Tax 537 (Tax Court of New Jersey—August 16, 1984).

Plaintiff's fuel oil storage tanks, some above ground and some below, held to be business personal property under the "material injury" test of N.J.S.A.

54:11A-2(b)(2). As such they should not have been assessed by the taxing district for local property tax purposes.

Payment Of Tax As Prerequisite To Contest Tax—John Stewart v. Hamilton Tp., 7 NJ Tax 368 (Tax Court of NJ—January 10, 1985).

Taxpayer may not maintain action in Tax Court contesting judgment of county board of taxation where all taxes due for the year under review at the time of filing complaint with the Tax Court have not been paid. Full payment after filing Tax Court complaint but prior to taxing district's motion to dismiss complaint does not cure this defect.

Payment Of Tax Requirement—Credit For Overpaid Taxes In Prior Year—Murray Teltsher v. City of Orange, 7 N.J. Tax 287 (Tax Court of NJ—February 22, 1985).

Where taxing district improperly appeals from a county board settlement judgment reducing the assessment, taxpayer's demand for a credit against the next year's taxes on the basis of the county board reduction constitutes payment for purposes of the statute requiring all taxes to be paid by the time a complaint is filed in the Tax Court. N.J.S.A. 54:51A-1 and N.J.S.A. 54:4-8.2.

Municipal Resolution Setting Office Hours For A Tax Collector Held Invalid—Van Allen v. Bass River Tp. Bd. of Comm'rs, N.J. Super. 443 (Superior Court, Law Division, 1984).

Tax collector filed suit seeking to invalidate a township's resolution requiring her to establish office hours five days a week for each month next preceding the month containing the day upon which taxes are due which by law do not become delinquent until the tenth day of the second month of a quarter. The Superior Court, Law Division, Burlington County, held that: (1) while statute delegating authority to township over a tax collector authorized governing body to require collector's attendance at her office on certain days, it did not authorize township's resolution controlling hours of attendance; (2) township's resolution requiring tax collector to perform all official business in the municipal building and maintain all books and records in her office was overbroad; and (3) while the township could fix certain days during which tax collector would be obliged to attend her office in the municipal building, they would have to be designated in the months of January, April, July, and October, which are the months next preceding the month in which taxes become delinquent, and resolution requiring tax collector's attendance from the tenth of the next month was invalid.

The municipal resolution was held invalid.

Tenant's Right To Appeal—Village Supermarkets, Inc. v. To. of West Orange; Centre Properties Co. Co. v. Tp. of West Orange, 6 NJ Tax 481 (Tax Court of NJ—July 24, 1984).

One of several tenants in shopping center held not to be taxpayer within N.J.S.A. 54:3-21 and therefore not entitled to appeal that portion of shopping center's property tax assessment allocable to his leasehold.

County Equalization Table—Presumption Of Correctness—Washington Tp. v. Burlington Cty. Bd. of Taxation, 7 NJ Tax 1 (Tax Court of NJ—September 7, 1984).

In action for revision of Class II assessment ratio, plaintiff failed to prove that true value of three sales of real property used in a sales study to formulate plaintiff's Class II assessment ratio had increased after assessing date by virtue of plaintiff's adoption of Land Development Ordinances pursuant to the New Jersey Pinelands Comprehensive Management Plan.

Use of Page 8 formula in calculating plaintiff's county equalization ratio, was presumptively corrective where county tax board uniformly applied this formula to all other re-assessed taxing districts and plaintiff failed to produce adequate evidence that the ratio was incorrect or unjust. It is not sufficient merely to establish that a different method could have been utilized.

Appeal From Department Of Environmental Protection's Recertification Of Qualification For Tax Exemption To Be Heard In Trial De Novo—West Milford Township v. Garfield Recreation Committee Inc. and State of New Jersey, Department of Environmental Protection, 194 N.J. Super. 148 (Law Div., 1983).

The Law Division of the Superior Court held that an appeal by plaintiff township from the Commissioner of the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) granting the defendant a recertification of qualification for tax exemption under the Green Acres Act N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.63 et seq. would be heard in a trial de novo because of the inadequacy in the administrative record below. Relief was sought in lieu of a prerogative writ.

The court pointed out that the DEP cannot grant a tax exemption for property used for conservation or recreation purposes under the Green Acres Act. Under N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.63 et seq. the Green Acres Act, the DEP only has the power to certify real property as qualified or eligible for exemption. It does not give the DEP the authority to exempt property from taxation. That power belongs to the municipal assessor pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:4-4.4. The municipal assessor can grant or deny the exemption dependent upon whether the claimant has or has not met the statutory requirements for exemption. If the assessor found the claimant did not meet the statutory requirements for exemption, he should have assessed the property for its full and fair value. An appeal should then be made to the county tax board and if unsuccessful, to the Tax Court which would hear and determine all issues of fact and of law de novo.

However, the case involves an action in lieu of prerogative writ, from the DEP's recertification of the property in question's qualification for exemption under the Green Acres Act. The court held that in the present case, it would be appropriate to conduct a trial de novo. The administrative record below is inadequate. There are not sufficient facts before the court to determine whether the property meets the statutory requirements for exemption. The statutes at N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.67 requires that the DEP conduct the fact-finding that is necessary to determine if the property meets the statutory requirements. While the court could remand the matter to DEP in order to resolve the matter expeditiously, the court said it would conduct a hearing de novo to determine the factual issues.

The court said that its decision to conduct a hearing de novo does not undermine the Appellate Division's decision in Wildlife Preserves Inc. v. Lincoln Park, 151 N.J. Super. 553 (App. Div., 1977) because that court stated the DEP's determination essentially involves the resolution of nonfactual issues of law, policy and discretion. It is undisputed, however, that the property and its owner must in addition to DEP's certification, meet the other requirements enumerated by N.J.S.A. 54:4-3.64, which are essentially factual questions.

Since there are general issues of material fact, defendant's motion for summary judgment was denied.

Statutory Requirement Under N.J.S.A. 54:2-39 For Payment of All Taxes For Year Under Review When Complaint Is Filed With Tax Court Held Constitutional—Woodlake Heights Homeowner Association Inc. v. Township of Middleton, 7 N.J. Tax 364 (App. Div., 1984).

The Appellate Division of the Superior Court affirmed the Tax Court in its dismissal of plaintiff's complaint on December 27, 1982 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:2-39 for failure of plaintiff to comply with that statute. N.J.S.A. 54:2-39 provides in pertinent part, as follows:

"At the time that a complaint has been filed with the Tax Court, all taxes or any installments thereon then due and payable for the year for which review is sought must have been paid."

The 4th quarter taxes were due and payable November 1, 1981 and they were paid November 23, 1982. The court held that the statute was not unconstitutional and did not violate the due process and equal protection constitutional clauses. The payment requirements of the statute applies to all taxpayers filing appeals with the Tax Court is consistent with equal protection standards. Due process requirements are met since a taxpayer has an opportunity to be heard before his tax liability is finalized.

Judgment was therefore entered affirming the Tax Court's dismissal of plaintiff's complaint.

LUXURY TAX

Atlantic City Luxury Tax Does Not Apply To Receipts From Coin Operated Game Machines—Refund Allowed For Erroneously or Illegally Collected Taxes Paid Within Two Years of Payment—B&H Enterprises, Inc. t/a Fun Spot Arcade and Richard Tolk t/a Video Enterprises, Playcade Arcade v. City of Atlantic City, Director, Division of Taxation, et al, N.J. Tax (Tax Court of New Jersey—March 13, 1985).

The Tax Court held that the Atlantic City Luxury Tax does not apply to receipts from coin-operated game machines. A refund of the Atlantic City Luxury Tax incorrectly paid can be made to a taxpayer who applies for such a refund within two years of the payment thereof.

Both of plaintiffs' arcades contain coin-operated game machines. No charge to enter the arcade or watch others use the various machines is imposed. A charge is imposed only when a patron chooses to use a device. Payment of the luxury tax on the receipts from the coin-operated machines has been made by plaintiffs under protest and a refund of the taxes paid is sought by the plaintiffs. Pursuant to the enabling legislation for the city luxury tax N.J.S.A. 40:48-8.15 et seq. and the Atlantic City ordinance retail sale is defined as:

"The granting or sale of any ticket, license or permit for admission to any theatre, moving picture exhibition or show, pier, exhibition or place of amusement."

The court said that in the construction of statutes, particularly those having to do with taxation or exemption therefrom, the sole guidepost is the legislative intent. Since there is no legislative history for the enabling legislation, there is no indication of an intended special meaning to the words in the definition of a retail sale. Therefore, it becomes necessary for the court to give to the words used by the legislature their ordinary, generally accepted, primary meaning.

It was held that a coin-operated amusement device is not a theatre, moving picture exhibition, show, pier or exhibition as those terms are commonly defined and understood. The court also found that the coin-operated amusement devices are not places of amusement and the money deposited to use the machines is not an admission to the device. The common, ordinary meanings given to "place" and "amusement," is that a tax on "admission" to a "place of amusement" is a tax levied on a charge for entering a space devoted to or providing something that amuses. There is no charge to patrons for entering the arcades (clearly a place of amusement). Nor is there any charge for those people who wish to observe others use the machines in the arcades. The charge for using the coin-operated amusement device, although it amuses is not a charge to enter the space where the machines are situated.

The court held that the provisions of the enabling legislation at N.J.S.A. 40:48-8.16 which are carried into the city's luxury tax ordinance does not permit a tax to be imposed on receipts from plaintiff's coin-operated amusement devices.

The court found that the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the luxury tax ordinance imposing the tax on coin-operated amusement devices should be ignored and rejected because they are contrary to the plain statutory meaning.

With respect to the limitation period for applying for a refund of the luxury tax incorrectly paid, the court found that under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-24.1 the Director of the Division of Taxation is given the duty to collect and administer the luxury tax. In carrying out his duties, the Director is given all the powers granted in the Sales and Use Tax Act. It was held that the refund provisions of the Sales and Use Tax Act at N.J.S.A. 54:32B-20 and the provisions of the State Tax Uniform Procedure Law at N.J.S.A. 54:48-1 et seq. apply. The latter provide for the refund of incorrectly paid taxes without any requirement that the taxpayer be a volunteer in making the payment. The Sales and Use Tax Act at N.J.S.A. 54:32B-20 provides for a refund or credit of any tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected or paid if application is made to the Director for such refund within 2 years from the payment thereof. When application is made by a person required to collect the tax, repayment of the tax to the customer must be established to the satisfaction of the Director. However, in this case no tax was collected from any customers. The luxury tax was paid by the plaintiffs out of their own general receipts, thus the court held that the plaintiffs were entitled to tax refunds for two years prior to the date they filed their applications for tax refunds.

Judgment was entered for plaintiffs and for the submission of computations of the correct amount of refund due to plaintiffs.

PUBLIC UTILITIES GROSS RECEIPTS TAX—WATER COMPANY—PUBLIC STREETS

Cedar Glen Lakes Water Co. v. Taxation Div. Director, 7 N.J. Tax 233 (Tax Court of NJ—January 24, 1985).

Streets of private senior citizens' cooperative development are "public streets" open to and used by the public and water company, by its use of streets to serve development residents, is subject to tax under the Public Utilities Gross Receipts Tax Act, N.J.S.A. 54:30a-49 et seq.

REALTY TRANSFER FEE—PARTNERSHIP DISSOLUTION

Walter R. Zimmerer, et al v. Clayton and State of New Jersey 7 NJ Tax 15 (Tax Court of NJ, September 27, 1984).

A father-son partnership which upon dissolution transferred properties to the son subject to existing mortgages is required to pay realty transfer fees based on the outstanding mortgage balances, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 46:15-5(c), 7. The transfers are not exempt from fees as being between parent and child or as constituting a partition.

RECYCLING TAX AND SANITARY LANDFILL TAX

Recycling Tax And Sanitary Landfill Tax—Municipalities Are Subject To Tax—Bernards Tp. v. State of New Jersey 7 N.J. Tax 99 (Tax Court of New Jersey—December 5, 1984)

The New Jersey Tax Court denied summary judgment to plaintiff, Bernards Township and granted summary judgment to the defendant, the State of New Jersey. The court held that municipal owners and operators of sanitary landfill facilities are subject to the taxes imposed by the Recycling Act, N.J.S.A. 13:1E-95 and the Sanitary Landfill Facility Closure and Contingency Act N.J.S.A. 13:1E-100 et seq.

The Recycling Act imposes a tax, administered by the Division of Taxation, on the owner or operator of every sanitary landfill facility at a rate of 12 cents per cubic yard of solid waste accepted for disposal, decreasing to 6 cents per cubic yard for solid waste accepted on or after January 1, 1986, N.J.S.A. 13:1E-95.

The Landfill Closure Act imposes a tax, administered by the Division of Taxation, upon the owner or operator of every sanitary landfill facility at the rate of 15 cents per cubic yard of solid material and $.002 per gallon of liquids N.J.S.A. 13:1E-104(a).

There is also created an escrow fund by every owner or operator of a sanitary landfill facility, N.J.S.A. 13:1E-109. Deposits based on a charge of 30 cents per cubic yard or $.004 per gallon are to be made to the escrow fund on a monthly basis. N.J.S.A. 13:1E-109(a). The escrow fund is to be utilized for properly and completely closing the landfill, and any monies remaining thereafter revert to the contingency fund. N.J.S.A. 13:1E-110(b).

The Tax Court said that the language of the statutes are sufficiently broad to encompass any person or entity, including a municipality, owning any landfill situated in the state. It is common knowledge that many sanitary landfills in New Jersey are owned and operated by local governments. The Legislature was most likely aware of this fact when it imposed the recycling and closure taxes on "the owner or operator of every sanitary landfill."

The Legislative intent to exempt must be clearly expressed. The Tax Court held that it will not infer an exemption from tax from the absence of specific references to municipalities, because the statutes plainly seek a comprehensive solution to a state-wide problem. Since there was no specific exemption from tax for municipalities expressed in the statute the Tax Court held that municipalities are subject to both the Recycling Tax and the Sanitary Landfill Tax.

Judgment was entered denying Bernards Township's motion for summary judgment and granting the Director of the Division of Taxation's motion for summary judgment. The court retained jurisdiction for the purpose of determining the amount of tax.

SALES AND USE TAX

Repair Services On Aircraft Engines In New Jersey And Then Shipped To Customers Out-of-State Held Subject To Sales Tax Assessment For Period August 12, 1971 to June 30, 1973—Airwork Service Division, a Division of Pacific Airmotive Corporation v. Director, Division of Taxation, 97 N.J. 290 (1984)

The New Jersey Supreme Court affirmed the Appellate Division which in an unreported decision (App. Div., 1982) upheld the Tax Court opinion reported at 2 N.J. Tax 329 (1981) which sustained the sales tax assessment for the period of August 12, 1971 to June 30, 1973 on repair services performed on aircraft in New Jersey for out-of-state customers which were upon completion of such repair services delivered to customers out-of-state, generally by common carrier.

The Sales and Use Tax Act at N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3 imposes a sales tax on the sale of tangible personal property and on the performance of certain services. The court said that the repair of airplane engines is a service covered in the Act. The taxpayer contended that the Legislature never intended to tax services performed in New Jersey on goods to be delivered to customers in other states. The court, however, held that the statutory language did not specifically exempt from tax, services performed in New Jersey on goods delivered out of state.

The court considered an early press release published in 1966 by one of the tax services that repair services performed on goods which upon completion were delivered outside the state were exempt from sales tax. The court said that there was no proof that this was the official policy of the Division of Taxation. Even though in the early years, the Division of Taxation did not impose tax on such services, the general instructions in the official tax returns did not authorize or permit the tax exclusion of services performed on goods delivered outside the state. The court noted that the Division of Taxation was vigorously taking the position that such services were taxable. After the issue was finally resolved in 1972 by Fisher-Stevens, Inc. v. Director, Div. of Taxation, 121 N.J. Super. 513 (App. Div., 1972), certif. den., 62 N.J. 575 (1973) which held mailing services performed in New Jersey and sent to addresses in other states on behalf of out-of-state customers was subject to sales tax, the Division of Taxation in the State Tax News stated repair services performed in New Jersey were taxable regardless of where the repaired property was delivered.

After considering all of the above, the court concluded that the Act authorized the imposition of the sales tax during the assessment period on the performance of the services rendered in this state on goods to be delivered to customers outside the state.

The court also held that the fact that the Division made no attempt to collect taxes on Airwork's repair work during the early years of the sales tax does not, under the principles of "equitable estoppel" or similar circumstances, prevent the collection of sales taxes against the taxpayer as determined by the Director. The court concluded under the circumstances, that when a sales tax statute specifically provides for the taxation of particular transactions and does not explicitly provide for the tax exemptions of such transactions, estoppel should not generally be available to a subject taxpayer. The strong public and government interest in the collection of the tax imposed by the Legislature will usually outweigh the asserted reliance by a taxpayer, especially when such reliance is claimed to be based on unofficial statements and equivocal administrative action.

The court also found that in applying the standards enunciated in Metro-media, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 97 N.J. 313 (1984) decided by the New Jersey Supreme Court on the same day as the case in issue, that it is satisfied that the Director's assessment was not invalid for want of an authorizing rule or regulation. The taxability of the sources, in this case, is sufficiently, clearly and directly inferable from the tax statute itself, especially in the absence of a specific exemption. The Director had the authority to make the assessment without an authorizing rule or regulation. Under the circumstances present, the tax assessment does not constitute invalid rule making.

Judgment was entered affirming the Appellate Division and the tax assessment against the taxpayer.

A dissenting opinion was filed in this case.

NOTE: Amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act was made c. 54, P.L. 1977 (approved April 5, 1977) [N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(b)(5)(as amended)] which provides that services under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(b)(1) and (2) are not subject to tax where the tangible personal property upon which the services were performed is delivered to the purchaser outside this state for use outside this state.

Sales of Gold Coins, Gold and Silver Bullion Subject to Tax—Martin A. Armstrong v. Director, Division of Taxation, (App. Div. 1984)(unreported).

The Appellate Division affirmed for the reasons expressed therein, the judgment of the Tax Court dismissing the plaintiff's complaint reported in 5 N.J. Tax 117 (Tax Court, January 7, 1983). The Tax Court had held that sales of gold coins and gold and silver by a dealer are sales of tangible personal property subject to tax under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(a) of the New Jersey Sales and Use Tax Act. The types of gold coins sold by the plaintiff dealer were American Arts gold medallions issued by the United States government through the United States Postal Authority, Krugerrands issued by the South African government, mapleleaves issued by the Canadian government, coronas issued by the Austrian government, pesos issued by the Mexican government and sovereigns issued by the British government.

The Tax Court had held that sales of gold coins and gold and silver bullion purchased for their metal content are sales of tangible personal property unless specifically exempted by the Act, or proscribed by the United States Constitution or the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. The Tax Court found that there was no specific exemption from tax under the Sales and Use Tax Act. It also found that in imposing the tax there was no violation of the Supremacy, Monetary or Foreign Commerce Clauses of the United States Constitution, or any violation of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

The court also held that gold coins and bullion are not exempt transactions under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.32 because they are not sold in fulfillment of a commodity futures contract.

Petition for certification to the New Jersey Supreme Court was denied on October 22, 1984. 99 N.J. 172 (1984)

Separate Charges for Printers and CRT's Used in Printing and Display of News Service Held Subject To Tax—Dow Jones & Company, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation—99 N.J. Tax 153 (1984)

The Supreme Court of New Jersey dismissed the plaintiff's appeal in this case pursuant to R. 2:12-9. Under this rule a denial of certification is deemed to be a summary dismissal of an appeal. Thus the Appellate Division opinion reported at 193 N.J. Super. 80 (App. Div., 1984) stands.

The Appellate Division had affirmed the judgment of the Tax Court essentially for the reasons expressed in its opinion published at 5 N.J. Tax 184 (Tax Ct. 1983). The Tax Court affirmed the tax assessment imposed upon plaintiff by the Director of the Division of Taxation. The Tax Court had held that the separate charges for printers and CRT's used in the printing and display of plaintiff's news service was subject to sales tax under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(a) as the sale of tangible personal property which is not specifically exempt from tax in the Act.

Purchase of Printed Materials By Publisher From Printer For A Give-Away Newspaper Held To Be A Sale For Resale And Exempt From Tax—Fairlawn Shopper, Inc. and Shopper Distributors, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation 98 N.J. 64 (1984)

The Supreme Court of New Jersey reversed the Appellate Division (App. Div., 1983) (unreported) and set aside a tax assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation against the plaintiffs for charges for printed material used in a give-away newspaper.

The Supreme Court of New Jersey agreed that the tax exemption under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.5 from receipts of sales of newspapers, magazines and periodicals did not apply on the passage of the newspapers between printer and publisher but rather on the transfer of the publication between the publisher and the reader. However the court agreed with the Tax Court's unreported opinion (August 1981) and concluded that the purchases of the printed materials by the publisher of the give-away newspaper were sales for resale and exempt from the sales and use tax under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-2(e). The court concluded that the consideration necessary to satisfy the Act's definition of a "sale" (and by inference a "resale") can be found to have been supplied by third parties and in this case the advertisers who finance the give-away publication.

In the case the plaintiffs publish and distribute newspapers which are distributed free of charge to consumers. Revenues are derived almost entirely from advertising sales. The issue involved was whether the charges from the printers for printing services and other materials was subject to the sales and use tax.

The Supreme Court held that these publishers' purchases of printing services and materials are "sales for resale" and are exempt from the tax imposed by the Act.

1. The "newspapers" exemption contained in the Act was intended by the Legislature to apply to newspapers only as they pass from the publisher to the reader. Thus, while the "Fairlawn Shopper," the "Hawthorne Shopper," and the "Garfield Shopper" may be "newspapers" in the definitional sense when they pass from printer to publisher, the "newspapers" exemption does not apply at that point.

2. The transactions that are the subject to this appeal constitute sales for resale, and therefore these publishers are entitled to an exemption in accordance with the Act. The fact that the newspapers are distributed free of charge does not destroy the publishers' entitlement to the exemption. The Act requires that some consideration pass during the transfer of title or possession that is claimed to be a sale or resale. However, as the Tax Court judge concluded, a sale for resale is established when the consideration for the resale comes from a third party other than the consumer. In effect, the advertisers are subsidizing the readers of these papers to the extent of the price per copy that the publisher would otherwise charge the consumer. To accept the Director's interpretation—that no consideration passes when the newspapers are distributed free of charge to the readers—would generate an unacceptable consequence: the publishers would charge their readers some nominal price for the sole purpose of receiving the "sale for resale" exemption. The Court cannot accept this potential result.

The judgment of the Appellate Division was reversed and the tax assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation was set aside.

Purchase of Printed Materials By Publisher From Printer For A Give-Away Newspaper Held To Be A Sales For Resale And Exempt From Tax—Today Newspaper v. Director, Division of Taxation 98 N.J. 75 (1984)

This case is a companion to Fairlawn Shopper Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation decided by the Supreme Court of New Jersey on the same day. The Supreme Court of New Jersey reversed the Appellate Division (App. Div., 1983) (unreported) and reinstated the Tax Court's unreported opinion dated August 1981. For the reasons expressed in the Fairlawn Shopper, Inc. case the court held that the purchase of printing services and materials from an independent printing firm by a publisher of a give-away newspaper were "sales for resale" and therefore exempt from the sales and use tax under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-2(e).

The Supreme Court held that this publisher's purchases of printing services and materials are "sales for resale" and are exempt from the Sales and Use Tax.

1. The Court based its decision in this case substantially on the reasoning expressed in today's opinion in Fairlawn Shopper, Inc.

2. The consideration that must be present to implicate a "sale" under the Act can be found to have been supplied by third parties, namely, the advertisers here. The fact that the advertisers subsidize the readers of these publications to the extent of the price per copy is clearly demonstrated by the factual record in this case. According to the publisher's president, the publisher is contractually bound to the advertiser to distribute the newspapers, free of charge, to the reading public. In fact, advertising rates are substantially dependent upon the geographical area in which the paper is to be distributed.

The judgment of the Appellate Division was reversed and the tax assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation was set aside.

Discount Coupons Nonreimbursable to The Issuer to A Place of Amusement Are Not Subject To Tax As Value Paid—Great Adventure, Inc.

v. Director, Division of Taxation 7 N.J. Tax 58 (Tax Court of New Jersey—September 28, 1984.)

The Tax Court granted plaintiff summary judgment and held that the plaintiff is not required to collect a sales tax on the value of discount coupons it issues and which its patrons use toward their admission to Great Adventure Theme Park and Drive-Thru Safari. The coupons are “nonreimbursable” in that plaintiff receives no remuneration for the value of the coupons from a third party.

The New Jersey Sales and Use Tax Act imposes a tax with certain exceptions on “any admission charge where such admission charge is in excess of $0.75 to or for use of any any place of amusement in the State. . . .” [N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(e)(1)]. A place of amusement is defined as “any place where any facilities for entertainment, amusement, or sports are provided” [N.J.S.A. 54:32B-2(t)]. The Act defines an admission charges as “the amount paid for admission. . . .” [N.J.S.A. 54:32B-2(o)].

The Tax Court said that our courts have defined “payment” as the discharge of an obligation; it may be made in money, kind or anything of equivalent value. The court also said that the plaintiff’s coupons are not “valuable things” which in turn, may be paid. The Legislature has failed to clearly express its intention to tax discount coupons or anything other than economic value actually paid. It was thus held that the amount attributable to the face value of plaintiff’s coupons over and above actual payments is not taxable.

The court pointed out that their holding is not in conflict with the Division of Taxation’s long standing interpretation that the sales tax applies to the receipts which is the amount valued in money whether received in money or otherwise [N.J.S.A. 54:32B-2(d)] where sections 3(a) and 3(b) of the act are involved. However, the Legislature chose to define 3(e) in terms of an admission charge (which in turn was defined as the amount paid), not as receipts. Whereas under section 3(a) and 3(b) the tax imposed upon the receipts from every sale except for resale of retail sales of tangible personal property [3(a)] and upon certain enumerated services [3(b)] under 3(e) the tax is imposed on the amount paid for admission to a place of amusement.

The Court thus granted plaintiff’s motion for summary judgment and held plaintiff is not required to collect the sales tax on the value of the nonreimbursable coupons it issues and which its patrons use toward admission to its place of amusement.

Tax Assessment For Repairs And Maintenance of Cargo Containers Upheld For Period Prior To Amendment To N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.12 Granting A Tax Exemption For Repairs and Maintenance of Cargo Containers—Hapag-Lloyd A.G. v. Director, Division of Taxation 7 N.J. Tax 108 (Tax Court of New Jersey—December 10, 1984)

The Tax Court dismissed the plaintiff’s complaint and affirmed a sales tax assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation resulting from an audit for the period of January 1, 1969 through December 31, 1981. The audit was of the taxpayer vendor’s records and resulted from failure of the plaintiff to pay sales tax on charges for the repair and maintenance of cargo containers. The audit period was prior to the 1980 amendment to N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.12 which specially exempted from the sales and use tax, charges for repairs to cargo containers. Prior to the amendment the tax exemption applied only to the charges for repairs and maintenance to commercial ships.

Taxpayer is a German corporation whose operations include the international transport of containerized cargo by ship. For the audit period 1969 to 1981, taxpayer contracted with New Jersey companies to repair and maintain its containers and chassis. Taxpayer paid no sales tax on these charges and filed no tax returns during this period. Its vendors, however, did file sales tax returns during this period but deducted taxpayer's charges for repairs to its cargo containers as exempt from sales tax. Assessment against the plaintiff is made under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-14(b) which provides that any customer not paying the tax to the vendor is required to pay the tax directly to the Division of Taxation and file a corresponding tax return.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 54:32B-27(b), except where a willfully false and fraudulent return is involved, an additional tax assessment cannot be made more than three years after the date of the filing of a return; provided, however, that where no return was filed as provided by law, the tax may be assessed at any time.

The Tax Court held that the three year statute of limitations period provided for in N.J.S.A. 54:32B-27(b) did not apply. The fact that the vendor had filed a tax return did not entitle the taxpayer to the three year statute of limitations period. The court said that the Legislature has provided a three-year statute of limitations period only when the party obligated to pay the tax has filed a return. Taxpayer had an independent obligation to pay the tax and an independent obligation to file a tax return. Because taxpayer failed to file a tax return, it is not entitled to the benefit of the three-year statute of limitations period.

The court held that the Legislature by the 1980 Amendment to N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.12 did not indicate that it was its original intention to include cargo containers in the exemption for the repair and maintenance of commercial vessels. In 1966, container ships were not in common usage, but by 1980 technical changes in the shipping industry resulted in the widespread use of container ships.

The Court disagreed with the Tax Court Opinion in Maher Terminals, Inc. v. Taxation Div. Director (Tax Court 1982) (slip opinion) which had concluded that containers are "part of the ship."

The Tax Court held that the containers have an independent function apart from their function on board ship, and they are no more "part of" a ship than they are "part of" the trucks or trains, specially built to receive them, on which they are transported on land. Thus they are not entitled to the tax exemption for the years in question.

It was further held that the imposition of a sales and use tax on repair and maintenance of marine cargo containers used in ships engaged in interstate commerce does not violate the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

New Jersey's sales and use tax as applied to taxpayer is valid under the six-part test set forth by the United States Supreme Court in Complete Auto Transit, Inc. v. Brady, 430 U.S. 274, 287 (1977). The transactions taxed took place exclusively in New Jersey. There has been no proof of taxation by other states on the sales and services in question. The tax is imposed uniformly on all non-exempt sales and services. There is no problem of apportionment because, unlike the ad valorem property taxes in Japan Lines, Ltd., 411 U.S., the tax is related to sales and services exclusively in New Jersey which are not taxable by other jurisdictions. No substantial risk of multiple international taxation is created, and finally, local sales and use taxes do not conflict with federal foreign policy.

Judgment was accordingly entered dismissing the taxpayer's complaint and affirming the tax assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation against the plaintiff.

Prejudgment Interest Denied—Zim-American Israeli Shipping Co., Inc., v. Director, Division of Taxation; Maher Terminals, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation— (Tax Court of New Jersey—March 14, 1985).

The Tax Court in a letter opinion held that plaintiffs were not entitled to prejudgment interest resulting from an adjudication of a refund claim to plaintiffs. The Tax Court in its opinion reported at 6 N.J. Tax 513 (Tax Ct. 1984) held that plaintiff, Zim, was entitled to a refund of sales and use tax paid and directed the parties submit computations pursuant to R 8:9-3 for the amount due Zim in accordance with the opinion.

The amount of taxes and interest paid by Zim to the defendant on June 20, 1980 was agreed upon by the parties which should be refunded. Plaintiff argues that interest should be awarded from June 20, 1980 to the present. Zim seeks prejudgment interest on the amount of a refund to be paid in connection with repairs to its cargo containers and chassis for taxable periods between 1972 and 1980.

R 4:42-6 states, "Every final judgment, except final judgment by default, shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled even though he has not demanded such relief in his pleadings, provided the parties have been given an adequate opportunity to be heard as to the relief granted." Accordingly, if prejudgment interest is allowable it is part of the relief to which plaintiff is entitled. The New Jersey Sales and Use Tax Act is silent with respect to prejudgment interest. Interest is not ordinarily payable as damages for the improper withholdings of funds by a governmental agency except when provided by statute. However, an award of interest may be found in the pertinent statute as a matter of legislative intent.

If a tax is legal and payments are made voluntarily the tax refund should not carry interest. If, however, a tax is adjudged to be void and the payments, made involuntarily the taxpayer is entitled to prejudgment interest. It is the compulsion to pay in order to prosecute a tax appeal in the first instance which distinguished those situations where the payment is voluntary from those where the payment is involuntary. Here the statute permits the taxpayer to post security as an alternative to the prepayment of tax or as a prerequisite for an order to stay collection of the tax; the security provisions are not prerequisites to filing a proper appeal with the Tax Court. Accordingly Zim's prepayment of the tax was voluntary.

In this case Zim was held exempt from sales tax under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.12 on the grounds that containership cargo containers are an integral part of containership and thus part of a vessel engaged in interstate or foreign commerce. The holding rests on both legal and factual determinations. As a bona fide factual dispute did exist between the parties in the present case, the imposition of the tax at issue was more in the nature of an over-assessment, as opposed to an illegal or invalid tax and wrongful detention. The Director's authority to levy the tax was not without a valid basis, thus the assessment was not per se illegal and prejudgment interest is unauthorized.

Judgment was entered denying the prejudgment interest to plaintiff.

Maintenance and Repair Services To Tractor Chassis And Ship Containers For Period Prior To The Ch. 105 P.L. 1980 Amendment To Act Held Exempt From Sales And Use Tax—Maher Terminals, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation; Zim-American Israeli Shipping Co., Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation 6 N.J. Tax 513 (Tax Court of New Jersey—July 30, 1984.

This case involves deficiencies in sales and use tax imposed against the plaintiffs. The audit period for Maher covers quarters in the years 1976, 1977 and 1978. The audit period for Zim covers quarters in the years 1976 through 1980. The transactions giving rise to the sales tax deficiencies involve Maher as vendor and Zim as vendee. Maher operates a marine terminal exclusively for container vessels at Port Elizabeth, N.J., under a long-term lease with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. Maher's operations cover all services which a shipping line requires from a containership terminal.

Even though the audit period was prior to the c. 105 P.L. 1980 amendment which included the exemption for repairs and services to cargo containers in N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8(1) (now N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.12), the court held the following:

(1) The maintenance and repair services rendered by Maher with respect to trailer chassis and ship containers owned or leased by Zim are exempt from tax by reason of sections 3(b)(2)(iii) and 8(1)(now 8.12).

Section 3(b)(2)(iii) provides that maintenance and repair services "rendered with respect to trucks, trailers or semitrailers by a person who is not engaged . . . in a regular trade or business offering such services to the public" are exempt from sales tax. The court said that only minor repairs were performed by Maher for its shipping line customers, major work was done by outside contractors on their own premises. Maher's maintenance and repair services are availed of only at the discretion of its customers. Its annual revenues from such maintenance and repair services amount to only 5% of Maher's total revenue. The maintenance and repair services offered by Maher on an ad hoc basis to its customers was merely ancillary and subordinate to its terminal and stevedoring operations. Such services were only an accommodation to its customers and did not transform Maher from a stevedoring and terminal operating company into a container-chassis repair facility. It was thus concluded that Maher was not engaged in the regular trade of offering maintenance and repair services to the public and such services performed on its customers' chassis were exempt from sales tax under section 3(b)(2)(iii) of the Act.

2. The repair parts sold to Zim in connection with repairs to containers were exempt under section 8(1) of the Act (now section 8.12).

Section 8(1) as originally enacted provides:

"Sales, repairs, alteration, or conversion of commercial ships, barges and other vessels of 50-ton burden or over, primarily engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, . . . and property used by or purchased for the use of such vessels for . . . maintenance and repairs . . . are exempt from the tax imposed under the . . . Act."

The original provision did not include a specific exemption for containerships or containers.

The amendment to the Act by c. 105 P.L. 1980 included in the exemption repairs to containers. The court said that this was consistent with the policies underlying the original enactment and provided a clarification of the term "commercial ships". The court said it was not bound by contrary administrative rulings which persisted for years prior to the 1980 amendment to the Act.

(3) The court held that the parts sold in conjunction with repairs to chassis-container units were not exempt under section 8(ff) now section 8.31 of the Act.

This section exempts from tax:

"Sales, renting or leasing of: commercial motor vehicles, and vehicles used in combination therewith, as defined in R.S. 39:1-1 and registered in New Jersey for more than 18,000 pounds; or which are operated pursuant to a certificate of permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission; and repair and replacement parts therefrom."

The court found that Maher's 1978 sales of parts used in conjunction with chassis repairs was not exempt from sales tax because of lack of sufficient proof entitling plaintiff to the exemption. The exemption under section 8(ff) for the sale of parts used in chassis repairs depends upon proof of the New Jersey registration of the chassis and tractor as a commercial vehicle over 18,000 pounds. No such proof was offered by plaintiff who bears the burden of proof.

(4) Maher's use of a crane by the operator of an adjoining terminal (Sealand) was not exempt as a casual sale under section 8(f) (now section 8.6). The court said that the use of the crane on 50 occasions over a three year period, about once every three weeks, was neither isolated nor occasional. The transactions occurred with regularity as part of a pattern or practice and in accordance with the terms of a written contract and the charges for the use thereof were subject to sales tax.

The parties were thus ordered to submit computations pursuant to R 8:9-3, following which judgment will be entered.

Taxpayer Held Liable For Tax On Sales of Printed Matter and Services of Inserting Such Material in Envelopes, Affixing Mailing Labels and Mailing Such Matter To Out-of-State Customers—Media Graphics, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation 7 N.J. Tax 23 (Tax Court of New Jersey—September 28, 1984).

The Tax Court upheld a deficiency assessment against the plaintiff imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation. The court held that plaintiff was taxable on printed matter sold to its customers and for the charges for the collateral services performed for certain of its out of state customers. These services consisted of inserting the printed matter into envelopes, purchased by plaintiff, with plaintiff's customers' out of state return addresses on them, affixing mailing labels supplied by plaintiff's customers, and delivering the envelopes to the United States Postal Service in New Jersey for mailing to addresses outside the State.

It was held that the sale of the printed matter was the sale of tangible personal property which was taxable under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(a). The Sales and Use Tax Act at N.J.S.A. 54:32B-2(f) defines a sale as "any transfer of title or possession or both . . . for a consideration. . ." For a sale to be within the taxing power of New Jersey, the transfer of title or possession must take place in this State. Under the Uniform Commercial Code, N.J.S.A. 12A:2-401(2), title passed to plaintiff's customers at the time and place at which plaintiff completed its performance with reference to the physical delivery of the goods, meaning on delivery at a post office in New Jersey. Title to the printed matter therefore passed in New Jersey, performance of the contract was completed in this State and the sale of the printed matter was properly taxable by this State. Thus the Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution was not an issue.

In addition it was held that the collateral services, which consisted of stuffing the envelopes, affixing the mailing labels, and mailing them to out-of-state addresses at the United States post office in New Jersey was taxable as advertising services under N.J.S.A. 54:32B-3(b)(5) of the Sales and Use Tax Act. Here the plaintiff's customers clearly sought to call something to the attention of the public. Thus plaintiff's activities amounted to advertising. The fact that the envelopes were subsequently delivered outside New Jersey is unimportant. The service was performed within this State. Therefore, plaintiff's receipts from the performance of the services were properly taxable.

The Tax Court also found that the Director's statement in the State Tax News that certain sales were not taxable was sufficiently misleading in the circumstance of this case to warrant the abatement of interest and penalty. Therefore, the assessment of interest was modified to reflect only the minimum statutory rate. The assessment of the penalty was vacated.

Judgment was entered affirming the deficiency tax assessment imposed by the Director of the Division of Taxation and interest at the minimum statutory rate.

Charitable Organization Not Entitled To Exempt Sales Tax Status Until Application Is Made and Compliance With Requirements of The Director of The Division of Taxation—New Jersey Dental Service Plan, Inc. v. John R. Baldwin, Director New Jersey Division of Taxation 7 NJ Tax 421 (Tax Court of New Jersey—May 17, 1985).

The Tax Court affirmed the Division of Taxation in denying taxpayer a refund of sales taxes paid by it during the period of January 28, 1981 to December 13, 1982. Plaintiff is a Dental Service Corporation and N.J.S.A. 17:48C-32 of the Dental Service Corporation Act provides that "every dental service corporation is hereby declared to be a charitable and benevolent institution, and its funds and property shall be exempt from taxation by the state or any political subdivision thereof." Plaintiff did not apply for exempt sales tax status until December 13, 1982 and was granted such exempt tax status. However, the New Jersey Sales and Use Tax Act at N.J.S.A. 54:32B-9(d) specifies that: "Any organization enumerated in subsection (b)(1) hereof shall not be entitled to the exemption herein granted unless it has complied with such requirements for obtaining a tax immunity authorization as may be provided in this Act." At N.J.S.A. 54:32B-24.1 of the Sales and Use Tax Act, the Director is granted general power "To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the carrying out of this Act and the purposes thereof; . . ." The regulations at N.J.A.C. 18:24-2.14, adopted by the Director of the Division of Taxation provide that organizations qualifying for exemption which were formed after July 31, 1973 which apply within 6 months or before October 1, 1975 would be granted an exempt organization permit retroactive to the date of formation. In all other instances the exemption, if the organization qualifies, is effective as of the date of the application. Plaintiff corporation was organized in 1969 and thus the latter provision in the regulation applies.

The court held that in granting charitable status to dental services corporations in N.J.S.A. 17:48C-32, the Legislature did not intend that the sales and use tax exemption be self-executing or automatic. The declaration of charitable status in N.J.S.A. 17:48C-32 merely enables taxpayer to apply for a tax exempt permit under the Sales and Use Tax Act. By comparison, taxpayer's incorporation under Title 17 would enable it to be automatically exempt from taxation under the Corporation Business Tax Act, as that Act does not require preliminary application and certification.

The court also said that section 9(d) of the Sales and Use Tax Act was intentionally inserted by our Legislature and that plaintiff does not obtain an exempt status until an application is filed and the Director's requirements are met.

The regulation granting tax exempt status to taxpayer effective the date of the application was upheld as being consistent with the mechanism for tax exempt certification referred to in N.J.S.A. 54:32B-9(d) of the Sales and Use Tax Act.

The court also denied that taxpayer in the particular circumstance of this case could apply and estoppel against the Director for a retroactive exemption.

The court thus denied taxpayer's request for a refund and entered a judgment dismissing the taxpayer's complaint.

Refund Claim Must Be Filed Within Two Years of Date of Payment—Vincent Pecora v. Director, Division of Taxation,—N.J. Tax—(Tax Court of New Jersey, August 23, 1984).

The Tax Court affirmed the denial of a refund claim filed by plaintiff more than two years after the plaintiff's payment thereof. [N.J.S.A. 54:49-14, and 54:32B-20(a)]. Plaintiff and his brother, Anthony, owned real property as tenants-in-common. The Director had a lien against Anthony who had a one-third interest in the property. When the property was sold the Director's lien against Anthony was paid off even though he only had a one-third interest in the property. The Director was paid all the proceeds on June 4, 1979 but plaintiff's refund claim was not made until April 14, 1982.

The court held that even though plaintiff was not liable for the tax, he was the one who paid it. The plaintiff was, therefore, a taxpayer and it was mandatory under the statutory provisions of N.J.S.A. 54:49-14 and 54:32B-20(a) that application for a refund be made within two years of payment.

It was also held that recovery could not be made under N.J.S.A. 59:13-3 on the basis of a quasi-contractual action or on the basis of unjust enrichment. The statute which waives sovereign immunity in certain contractual liability matters specifically exempts from it contract actions implied in law. A quasi-contract is one which is imposed by law and payment under unjust enrichment would be outside any contractual obligation since it usually results in quasi-contractual relief.

The court held that plaintiff's complaint failed to state a ground upon which relief could be granted. Judgment was, therefore, entered affirming the Director of the Division of Taxation's denial of the plaintiff's refund claim.

Repairs, Maintenance And Servicing of Construction Equipment of A Sister Corporation Engaged In Road Construction Held Subject To Tax—Seaview Demolition & Rental Co., Inc. v. Director, Div. of Taxation 97 N.J. 606 (1984)

The Supreme Court of New Jersey on May 22, 1984 denied petition for certification from the Appellate Division of the Superior Court reported at 6 N.J. Tax 254 (App. Div. 1984).

The Appellate Division has affirmed for the reasons expressed therein, in the judgment of dismissal by the Tax Court, in its opinion dated August 19, 1982 and published at 4 N.J. Tax 541.

The Tax Court had affirmed an assessment of sales tax against the plaintiff corporation resulting from an audit by the Division of Taxation for the period January 1, 1976 to December 31, 1978. The assessment resulted from the repair, maintenance and servicing of autos and construction equipment owned and used by Bellezza Co, Inc., a sister corporation, having the same stockholders and officers as the plaintiff. The construction equipment was used by the sister corporation in road construction. The court held that the exemption in N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.22 (formerly N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8(w)) and N.J.A.C. 18:24-5.5(a) which provides for an exemption from sales and use tax, for sales of materials, supplies or services purchased or leased for exclusive use in erecting structures or buildings on, or otherwise improving, altering or repairing of real property of exempt organizations did not apply. The court followed the reasoning in the case of Mal Brothers v. Director, Division of Taxation, 124 N.J. Super 55 (App. Div., 1973) cert. denied 74 N.J. 271 (1977). It was held that in granting the exemption N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.22 (formerly N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8(w)) treats materials, supplies and services in the same way. The services were consumed in machinery which would still have been available to the plaintiff after completion of construction for an exempt organization and was therefore subject to tax. To qualify for the exemption, the machinery upon which the services are performed must be consumed and exclusively used in the construction project.

The court also held that plaintiff was not the same entity or an agent of its sister corporation. Although plaintiff and its sister corporation had the same stockholders and directors, they operated their respective businesses as two entities during the tax years involved. The facts under review showed that the plaintiff during the tax years involved was carrying on the normal duties of its corporate charter i.e. repairing and maintenance of machinery. The fact that plaintiff's services were restricted to its sister corporation's machinery could not turn a sale of services into an agency relationship.

The fact that plaintiff merged into its sister corporation as of December 31, 1980 was irrelevant for the determination of taxable services during the years involved in this case. Each tax year must be considered on the facts existing during such tax year.

Judgment of the Appellate Division affirming the Tax Court's dismissal of plaintiff's case, now stands with the denial of petition for certification by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

SPILL COMPENSATION AND CONTROL ACT

Constitutionality Upheld As Not Preempted By the Superfund—Exxon Corporation et al. v. Robert Hunt, Administrator of New Jersey Spill Compensation Fund et al 97 N.J. 526 (1984).

The New Jersey Supreme Court affirmed the opinion of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court which was reported at 190 N.J. Super 131 (App. Div 1983), which affirmed the Tax Court for the reasons stated in its written opinion reported at 4 N.J. Tax 294 (Tax Court, 1982) and upheld the constitutionality of the New Jersey Spill Compensation and Control (Spill Fund) Act (N.J.S.A. 58:10-23.11 et. seq.) as not in violation of the supremacy clause, Article VI clause 2 of the United States Constitution. The N.J. Supreme Court also held that the Spill Fund tax was not preempted by section 114(c) of the Federal Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (Superfund), 40 U.S.C. 9601 et seq. insofar as the Spill Fund is used to compensate hazardous-waste cleanup costs and related claims that are either not covered or not actually paid under the Superfund. The underlying intent of the Superfund, as well as the legislative history mandates a conclusion of no preemption.

The New Jersey Supreme Court held the following:

1. The underlying intent of the Superfund, as well as the legislative history, mandates a conclusion of no preemption. Congress' enactment of Superfund was aimed at providing a federal framework to supervise the revitalization of our environment. Surely Congress did not intend for the states just to sit back and wait for hazardous-waste compensation that might never be awarded. The logical conclusion is that Congress contemplated that the Federal Government would attempt to deal with the problem of the most seriously affected sites and to allow states to maintain a compensation fund, or to use general revenues should they choose, to conduct their own cleanup efforts on those sites not receiving Superfund compensation.

2. Courts faced with potentially conflicting state and federal statutes must attempt to harmonize them wherever possible. The Court must determine whether both regulations can be enforced without impairing the federal superintendence of the field. This inquiry requires the Court to consider the relationship between state and federal laws as they are interpreted and applied, not merely as they are written.

3. It is clear from the provisions of the Superfund Act and its legislative history that Congress envisioned a cooperative arrangement between the federal and state governments. Superfund recognizes its limits and in fact provides for active state financial and technical cooperation in hazardous-waste cleanup activities. The legislative history leaves little doubt that Superfund was not intended to preempt state involvement in hazardous-waste cleanup efforts.

4. Superfund preempts state taxation only when the state fund is used to compensate cleanup activities already compensated by Superfund. When enacted, Superfund was recognized by members of Congress as providing for an insufficient funding level to tackle the cleanup and removal of hazardous-waste sites that existed at that time. This recognized inadequacy of Superfund to meet cleanup needs emphasizes Congress' probable intent to allow states to continue their own efforts to assist in cleanup activities.

5. As regards the construction of a regulatory statute, the opinion of the expert administrative agency charged with the enforcement of that statute is entitled to great weight and is a substantial factor to be considered. The Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has stated that the preemption language of Superfund does not apply to state funds which are used to compensate damage claims eligible to be financed by Superfund but for which no federal reimbursement is provided. This interpretation is consistent with both the legislative history and with the broad remedial goals of Superfund.

Judgment was thus entered affirming the judgment of the Appellate Division.

NOTE: The United States Supreme Court granted review of this case on June 17, 1985, Docket #84-978, 53 LW 3877, (June 17, 1985).

Appeal Granted By U.S. Supreme Court As To Whether New Jersey Spill Compensation And Control Act Is Preempted By Federal Superfund

Act—Exxon v. Hunt, U.S. Supreme Court, Docket Number 84-978, 53 LW 3877 June 17, 1985.

The United States Supreme Court on June 17, 1985 granted review of the New Jersey Supreme Court ruling 97 NJ 526 (1984) which held that the New Jersey law was not nullified by the United States Superfund Act.

The appellants claim that the state levy under the New Jersey Spill Compensation Fund represents double taxation prohibited by Congress. Appellants allege that they cannot be taxed by the state for the same purpose as the Federal government is taxing them.

The State argues that Congress did not intend to limit the role of the State in cleaning up abandoned dump sites. It alleges that its levy on industry should not be considered double taxation since the New Jersey Spill Fund supplements rather than duplicates the federal cleanup effort.

In a friend of the court brief the Federal government claimed that the Federal superfund law only prevented the state spill fund from being used to compensate third parties affected by the discharge of hazardous substances. However, the state could tax industry and use the State fund for removal and cleanup of hazardous waste sites.

U.S. SUPREME COURT

Waiver of Sovereign Immunity Permits Garnishment by Administrative Order of a State Tax Board for Delinquent State Income Taxes—Franchise Tax Board of California v. United States Postal Service—U.S. Supreme Court, No. 83-372, 52 LW 4753, June 11, 1984.

The U.S. Supreme Court reversed the U.S. Court of Appeals and held that congress had waived the sovereign immunity of the U.S. Postal Service by the provision in 39 U.S.C. §401(1) that the Postal Service may "sue and be sued in its official name." Accordingly, the California Franchise Tax Board could by administrative order require the garnishment of the wages of four postal employees for delinquent state income taxes. The court did not distinguish between the judicial process issued by an administrative agency and a court. The court refused to construe §401(1) to require the issuance of judicial process before the order by the State Tax Board for delinquent state income taxes is honored.

The judgment of the U.S. Court of Appeals was reversed and the case was remanded back to that court for further proceedings consistent with the U.S. Supreme Court's opinion.

MISCELLANEOUS

Reciprocal Agreement Between Pennsylvania and New Jersey Applies Only To Income In The Form Of Compensation And Not To Net Profits From An Unincorporated Business—Buckley v. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, 475 A.2d 160 (April 13, 1984)

Plaintiff, a resident of New Jersey who received net profits from his unincorporated practice as a physician in Pennsylvania, filed petition for review of order of the Board of Finance and Revenue, sustaining assessment by the Department of Revenue for unpaid taxes.

The Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania affirmed the order of the Board of Finance and Revenue sustaining the tax assessment against the plaintiff. The Commonwealth Court held that (1) the reciprocal agreement between Pennsylvania and New Jersey applies only to income in the form of compensation. Compensation is defined in Section 356(b) of the Pennsylvania Tax Reform Code of 1971 as follows: "salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses and incentive payments whether based on profits or otherwise, fees, tips, and similar remuneration for services rendered whether directly or through an agent and whether in cash or in property except income derived from the United States Government for active duty outside the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a member of its armed forces."

(2) taxpayer, a New Jersey resident, who was not an employee receiving a salary or wage but was rather a self-employed physician receiving net profits from an unincorporated practice in Pennsylvania, was subject to Pennsylvania income tax with respect to the net profits; (3) taxpayer's constitutional equal protection rights were not violated; (4) reciprocal agreement between Pennsylvania and New Jersey providing income tax exemptions for residents of one state who earn income in the other state did not violate compact clause of the United States Constitution on grounds that it was obtained without the consent of Congress.

Amendment to N.J.S.A. 2A:17-17 Prohibiting Sale of Resident Taxpayer's Real Property To Satisfy Philadelphia Wage Tax Violates Full Faith and Credit Clause of U.S. Constitution—City of Philadelphia v. Ralph E. Bauer, 97 N.J. 372 (1984)

The Supreme Court of New Jersey reversed the judgment of the Appellate Court and held that an amendment to N.J.S.A. 2A:17-17 (effective January 12, 1982) which prohibited a levy on a taxpayer's real property of a judgment obtained for the payment of any employment wage tax was in violation of the full faith and credit clause of the United States Constitution. Plaintiff, a New Jersey resident employed in Philadelphia by the federal government was subject to the Philadelphia Wage Tax which he failed to pay for the years 1972 through 1974. The City of Philadelphia obtained a judgment in Philadelphia for the unpaid taxes in the amount of $3,017.26. The plaintiff had no property in Pennsylvania and as a federal employee, his wages were not subject to garnishment.

Thereafter, based upon its Pennsylvania judgment, Philadelphia obtained a $3,000 judgment against Bauer in the Camden County District Court. That judgment was then docketed in the Superior Court of New Jersey, which made it a Superior Court judgment. After unsuccessful attempts to satisfy the judgment by attaching Bauer's personal property, Philadelphia caused the Camden County Sheriff to schedule a sale of Bauer's home. Before the sale, however, the amendment was signed into law prohibiting the sale of New Jersey residents' real estate to satisfy judgments based on wage taxes. Based upon that amendment, Bauer filed a complaint to enjoin the execution on the judgment. The trial court granted that relief, and the Appellate Division affirmed.

On appeal to the Supreme Court of New Jersey, the Appellate Division judgment was reversed and it was held that the statutory amendment to N.J.S.A. 2A:17-17 prohibiting the sale of a resident taxpayer's real property to satisfy a judgment based on wage taxes violates the full faith and credit clause of the United States Constitution.

The Supreme Court held: 1. There is no valid state policy to justify a refusal to enforce Philadelphia's judgment. Recognition cannot be afforded to any policy enabling citizens to escape paying taxes. It is to the mutual advantage of neighboring states to recognize and enforce one another's tax revenue laws. Although it is tempting and popular to favor the interests of our own citizens over the interests of another state, this favoritism and parochial self-interest is exactly what the full faith and credit clause was intended to prevent.

2. Under the "merger doctrine," a judgment obtained here to enforce a foreign judgment becomes a simple money judgment. The validity of the cause of action upon which the foreign judgment was obtained is no longer open to inquiry. Its original identity is lost by "merger." Applying the merger doctrine to this case, it is clear that the Superior Court judgment against Bauer is not a judgment based on a cause of action for Philadelphia wage taxes. Rather, it is a simple money judgment. The original cause of action is not before the New Jersey courts.

3. Only by ignoring this simple money judgment and inquiring into the original cause of action may the amendment conceivably apply to the judgment before the court. Such an inquiry violates the general purpose and specific dictates of the full faith and credit clause. A state cannot accomplish indirectly that which it could not do directly. It may not by subterfuge refuse to give full faith and credit to the judgment of a sister state.

4. The amendment denies Philadelphia the only effective means of enforcing its judgment. To deny such enforcement is in reality to render the judgment virtually worthless, in clear violation of the full faith and credit clause. Although judgments of sister states must be given full faith and credit, local law may determine the scope and nature of available remedies. However, it is clear that a state may not, by unduly burdening the means to enforce a foreign judgment, refuse to give it full faith and credit.

A judgment was entered reversing the judgment of the Appellate Division of the Superior court.

A dissenting opinion was filed in this case.

NOTE: Effective Tax rates reflected in the above table are obtained by dividing the total on which the tax rate is computed by the Net Valuations on which county taxes are apportioned. In Annual Reports prior to 1972, effective tax rates were obtained by multiplying the Average Assessment to Sales Ratio for said year times the general tax rate per $100 of Assessed Valuation for said year.

APPENDIX III

TAXES COLLECTED FOR DISTRIBUTION TO MUNICIPALITIES

TAXES COLLECTED BY THE STATE FOR DISTRIBUTION TO MUNICIPALITIES

1985

The attached Tables reflect State aid to municipalities totaling $936,721,668 in 1985.

FINANCIAL BUSINESS

(N.J.S.A. 54:10B—1 et seq.)

(N.J.S.A. 54:10A—1 et seq.)

This is a State collected tax on financial businesses in substantial competition with the business of national banks. Distribution is 50% State; 25% municipalities and 25% counties.

To Municipalities $1,604,572.

BUSINESS PERSONAL PROPERTY REPLACEMENT TAX

(N.J.S.A. 54:11D—1 et seq.)

Municipalities are assured of receiving no less from business personal property tax replacements than the greatest of the local levy of personal property tax in 1964, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Four tax laws are specified as the source for obtaining the required revenue. Any excess yield will be distributed in proportion to the local property tax level upon commercial, industrial and farm real estate. To Municipalities $158,703,834. Excess was $51,868,646.

Legislation was passed which provides an annual appropriation of not less than $158,703,834, which was the amount certified by the Director of the Division of Taxation October 15, 1976 (C. 3, P.L. 1977).

PUBLIC UTILITY

(N.J.S.A. 54:30A—16 et seq.)

The Division of Taxation collects both the Public Utility Franchise Tax and the Public Utility Gross Receipts for payment to municipalities after deducting administration costs ($233,831).

To municipalities $685,000,000.

MUNICIPAL PURPOSES TAX ASSISTANCE FUND

Revenue available under C. 10 and 11, P.L. 1980 is deposited in the Municipal Purposes Tax Assistance Fund for distribution under C. 12, P.L. 1980

*To Municipalities $59,999,999.

CORPORATION BUSINESS BANKING CORPORATIONS (N.J.S.A. 54:10A—1 et seq.)

Banking Corporations are subject to Corporate Business Tax at the rate of 9% on allocated net income and two mills per dollar on allocated net worth. Distribution is 50% State; 25% municipalities and 25% counties.

To Municipalities $14,525,612.

INSURANCE FRANCHISE (N.J.S.A. 54:18—12 et seq. and N.J.S.A. 54:16A—1 et seq.)

Insurance franchise taxes are payable by domestic insurance companies (87-1/2%) to the municipality and (12-1/2%) to the county in which the principal office of the taxpayer is located. The Division of Taxation collects the tax for payment to municipalities.

To Counties $2,100,251, To Municipalities $16,887,651.
