WHEREAS by a late Publication, inserted in the New-Jersey Gazette, called Hints humbly offered to the Consideration of the Legislature of New-Jersey in the future Choice of a Governor, signed Cincinnatus, being apparently designed to have an undue Influence in the ensuing Election of a Governor of this State, and though in an ironical Way, fully and clearly implies not only a Slur upon the Seminary of Learning in this State, and the President and Tutors thereof, but also a tacit Charge against the Legislature of this State, as being greatly deficient in Point of Integrity or Ability and Judgment in the Choice of a Governor, vernor, and an exprefs Declaration againſt our excellent Conſtitution; and alſo an unjuſt, falſe and cruel Defamation and Aſperſion of His Excellency the Governor; all which evidently tends to diſturb the Peace of the Inhabitants and promote Diſcord and Confuſion in the State, and to encourage thoſe who are diſaffected to the preſent Government.—And notwithstanding the Freedom of the Preſs ought to be tolerated as far as is conſiſtent with the Good of the People and the Security of the Government eſtabliſhed under their Authority; yet good Policy as well as Juſtice requires, that thoſe who write as well as thoſe who ſpeak any Thing that directly tends to encourage the Enemy and diſaffected, and to diſcourage and diſquiet the Minds of the good People of this State, ought to be detected and brought to ſuch Punishment as may be agreeable to Law and Juſtice; therefore,

Reſolved, That Iſaac Collins be required immediately to inform the Legiſlature of this State who the Author of the aboveſaid Publication, inſerted in the New-Jerſey Gazette, No. 96, under the Signature of Cincinnatus, is, and at whoſe Requeſt the ſame was publiſhed; on the Queſtion, it was carried in the Affirmative, as follows:

Mr. Martin,	Mr. Buck.	Mr. Holmes,

YOUR Committee appointed to join a Committee of the Assembly, in a free Conference on the Subject-Matter of a Resolution of Congress of the 17th of August, 1779; and of the Memorial of William Pennington, an Officer in Colonel Lamb's Regiment of Artillery, beg Leave to report—

1st, That it is the Opinion of the Conferrees, that it is improper for the Legislature of this State, in its separate or State Capacity, to undertake a Compliance with the Resolution of Congress of the 17th of August, 1779, for making further Provision for the Officers and Soldiers enlisted for the War in this State, who shall continue in the Service till the Establishment of Peace.

2d, That whatever Provision may be necessary and proper ought to be made by Congress, and that they be requested to devise some general Mode for making Compensation to the Officers and Soldiers of the Army for the Damages they have sustained by the Depreciation of the Continental Currency, and thereby to fulfil their original Contract with them.

3d, That the Legislature of this State will cheerfully carry into Execution any Provision which Congress may make for the Widows of such Officers and Soldiers as have lost or may may lose their Lives in the Service, when the Amount of such Provision is ascertained, and a Fund provided by Congress for the Payment thereof.

4th, That the Difficulties attending the divided Mode of supplying the Army lately recommended by Congress, which are strikingly exemplified in the Memorial of William Pennington, an Officer in Colonel Lamb's Regiment of Artillery, be urged to Congress as Reasons strongly operating against a Perseverance in that unequal and very exceptionable Mode of Provision.

5th, That a Representation be transmitted to Congress on those Subjects, and which may also, in the most pointed and explicit Manner, express the Disapprobation of the Legislature of this State to the Establishment of Half-pay for the Officers during Life, or to any military Establishment whatsoever in Time of Peace.

By Order of the Conference,

THEUNIS DEY,
ROBERT MORRIS.

 ‘ Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the several States forthwith to enact Laws for establishing and carrying into Execution, a general Limitation of Prices throughout their respective Jurisdiction on the following Principles, and to commence in their Operation from the first Day of February next.
 ‘ Articles of domestick Produce, farming and common Labour, the Wages of Tradesmen

‘ men and Mechanicks, Water and Land Carriage, not to exceed twenty Fold of the Prices current through the various Seasons of the Year 1774.

‘ Articles imported from foreign Parts to be in due Proportion with Labour, and the Articles as above stated, making a proper Allowance for Freight, Insurance and other Charges.

‘ Salt and military Stores, whether of Home Manufacture or imported from Abroad, to be excepted from Limitation of Price.

‘ Resolved, That it be recommended to the several States to enact Laws against Engrossing and Withholding, and to take the necessary Measures for having the same carried into Execution.

‘ Resolved, That all Officers and Agents employed in making Purchases for the United States, be directed to conform strictly to all Regulations that are or may be established in the several States.

‘ That Accounts be kept, and Returns made by all Persons employed to make Purchases in Behalf of the United States, or to hire Vessels, Carriages or Men, for the Service of the same, of the Prices by them respectively given in such States, as shall not before the first Day of February, 1780, pass Laws for the Limitation of Prices, agreeable to the Recommendation contained in the foregoing Resolutions, to the Intent that such States as shall have neglected to pass Laws for the Purposes aforesaid, may respectively be charged in the publick Accounts with the aggregate Amount of the Difference of Prices paid from and after the said first Day of February, 1780, in such States, and those in which such Laws may have been enacted.’

Resolved, That the Honourable Silas Condict, Esquire, and Thomas Fenimore, Esquire, or either of them, be appointed Commissioners or Commissioner on the Part of this State to meet such Commissioners as may attend at the Time and Place above-said, to confer and agree on the Allowance proper to be made on imported Articles, for Freight, Insurance and other Charges; and on such other Measures as may be most likely to render the said Plan recommended by Congress effectual through the Union; and that they report whatever Measures the said Convention may think proper to recommend to this Legislature at their next Sitting, for their Approbation; and that they or such of them as may attend, exhibit an Account of their Time and Expences, that the same may be discharged.

Ordered, That the said Report be made immediately:

Whereupon Mr. Dey read the said Essay and delivered it in at the Table, and the said Essay being again read, was approved by the House, and is as follows—

To the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS ASSEMBLED.

The REPRESENTATION of the LEGISLATURE of the State of NEW-JERSEY,

SHEWETH,

THAT the Legislature of this State are sincerely disposed to adopt and carry into Execution all such Requisitions of Congress as appear to them likely to prove beneficial to the Union, and not injurious to the State; but that they consider the separate and State Mode of making further Provision for the Officers and Soldiers enlisted for the War, recommended in your Resolution of the 17th of August last, in many Respects improper and disproportionate, as a Measure that, if carried into Execution, would not only be productive of

of great and unnecessary Expence, but dangerous to the Peace and Well-being of the Union, and are therefore under the disagreeable Necessity of declining a Compliance therewith.

With Respect to the Impropriety of the Measure, we beg Leave to observe, That we conceive it hath a natural Tendency to produce Murmurs and Discontent in the Army, Consequences that should ever be studiously avoided and carefully guarded against.

While the Legislature of each State separately pursues Measures for making such Provision for their own Troops as may be conceived adequate and proportioned to the Ability of the State, and in such Manner as appears most suitable for the Troops themselves, and most expedient and least detrimental to the State, both the Amount and Mode of the Provision so made will be different in different States; and those Troops for whom least is done, having a just Claim to equal Merit and of Consequence entitled to equal Rewards, on comparing their Situation with that of their fellow Soldiers with whom they have served in the same Camp, endured the same Fatigues, and been exposed to equal Dangers, will feel themselves aggrieved, will murmur and complain: Besides, a very superficial Acquaintance with human Nature, will serve to shew that Men are not always actuated in the Pursuit of an Object merely by its real and intrinsic Value, but that Prejudice or Caprice too frequently influence the Choice—For this Reason the different Modes adopted by the different States, which, on Account of their different Situation, Circumstances or Government, are unavoidable, supposing the Amount of the real Value of these various Provisions equal, may still furnish Pretext for Complaint.

And we beg Leave further to observe, that the Mode of Provision recommended, will be highly unequal and disproportionate in the different States, both as to the Terms and the Means of Supply—That the Terms will be unequal must, we conceive, evidently appear, if we consider that the States which furnish an over Proportion of Troops, compared with what the other States furnish, will be saddled with the Expence of an over Proportion of Supplies, when the States that fall short in the first Instance, will in Proportion be relieved in the latter, than which Nothing can be more unjust, or more likely to produce Discontent among the different States, to say Nothing of the Tendency it must naturally have to prevent their completing their respective Quotas: Besides, as an over Proportion of Officers have been raised from this State, especially if we take into the Account the detached Corps not included in the Establishment, the separate Provision will for that Reason be doubly hard upon this State.

That the Means of Supply will be disproportionate in the different States may be readily conceived, if we advert to the Situation of each State as being more or less the Seat of the War, and subject to the Incursions and Depredations of the Enemy—The Losses and Expences thence accruing to some of the States in the Union has been enormous, and their Abilities to furnish Supplies doubtless diminished in Proportion. Nor should we on this Occasion forget the extreme Fatigues and Hardships the Militia of those States have endured; the Time they have necessarily spent in the Defence of the common Cause to the Neglect of their domestic Employments, whereby their providing even for themselves and Families hath been rendered extremely hard and difficult; nor indeed can we suppose they are much less entitled to the Approbation and Gratitude of their Country than our Continental Troops themselves, though we most freely acknowledge our Gratitude to the latter, and have the highest Opinion of their Merits. But when we consider the Disadvantages some of the States lie under with Regard to Trade and Commerce, being obliged to purchase most of the imported Articles they use or furnish to their Troops from some of their Sister States, the Inequality appears still more obvious and striking, that the divided Mode of Supply under Consideration will be productive of great and unnecessary Expence; we imagine, after what hath been already remarked, needs little or no Illustration. We would however observe, that the States bidding against each other, as in all Probability they will do in order to retain their Officers and Soldiers in the Service, will have a still further Tendency to enhance the Expence of the War.

The Truth of some of the Observations we have made, hath already been experienced by the Legislature of this State, when endeavouring to comply with and carry into Execution the former Requisitions of Congress, relative to clothing their Troops, and furnishing them with certain Articles for their better Subsistence. That we conceive a like Reasoning will hold good with Respect to the Provision recommended by Congress to be made for the Widows of such Officers and Soldiers as have lost or shall lose their Lives in the Service of the States. With Regard to those unfortunate Women we have to declare, that we sincerely sympathize with them in their Sufferings, and that we are not only willing and desirous desirous to contribute our full Proportion to their Relief, but will most readily carry into Execution any Provision that Congress shall make for that Purpose, on a Plan that will be general and uniform throughout the States.

Gratefully sensible of the Merits of their Troops, and viewing with Concern their Sufferings in the Cause of Liberty and of their Country, the Legislature of this State are earnestly desirous that Provision may be made for affording them ample Compensation for the Damages they have sustained by the Depreciation of their Pay, and for fulfilling the original Contract with them: This they presume would be satisfactory to the Troops themselves, and strictly conformable to Justice: More they can have no Right to ask, and less we would not wish them to receive.

But though not deficient in Gratitude or Justice to our Troops, nor unwilling even to be generous in a due Degree, we beg Leave to express, in the most explicit Terms, our utter Disapprobation of a Half-pay Establishment for Life, or of any other military Establishment whatsoever in Time of Peace. We consider it as contrary to the very Spirit of a Republican Government, as introductive of the Practice of Pensioning, which has always been held in the utmost Detestation by a free People, as creating a Distinction in the Community, invidious in its Nature, dangerous in its Tendency, and productive of Inconvenience and Injury to the Officers themselves, as well as to the Community at large: It is so much the more dangerous in that, if it once takes Place, it will ever after be claimed by the military as Matter of Right, and gradually improved upon until considered as Part of our Systems of Government, and rendered equally permanent with our Constitutions themselves.

In a Word, we consider it as one Step towards Tyranny and absolute Government, and evidently tending to produce Discord and Dissention among the States themselves; the Officers, mixing in the Councils of the States, will be under a constant Temptation to cherish Measures leading to military Operations, thereby to open the Way to their former Standings, and a Living more agreeable to their Wishes.

For these Reasons, among many others, we hold ourselves bound by every Tie of political Obligation openly to declare to Congress, that it is impossible for us to think of adopting a Measure pregnant with so many Evils, and that in this Declaration we speak not only our own Sentiments, but those of our Constituents.

YOUR Committee appointed to join a Committee of the House of Assembly in a free Conference on the Subject-Matter contained in the Application presented to the Legislature by Colonel Clement Biddle, having met agreeable to Appointment,* and considered the Matter to them referred, are of Opinion,

That in Answer to the Application made by Colonel Biddle, by Direction of General Washington, His Excellency be informed, that the great Demands made upon this State, and the almost universal Drain of Grain and Forage from the same by the Supplies already afforded to the Army, together with the uncommon Consumption of those Articles, occasioned by the Severity of the Winter, render it impracticable, without greatly distressing the Inhabitants, to furnish the Deficiencies of Grain and Hay stated by Colonel Biddle in the general Estimate accompanying the said Application; and as the Legislature have had no Information of any Scarcity of Forage until the Army is brought into Distress, we conceive that from hence and from similar Applications last Spring, there must have been either an inexcusable Neglect in procuring and forwarding the necessary Supplies; a Want of Care and Oeconomy in the Expenditure thereof; or some other great Oversight in the Department, charged with providing the Supplies, unknown to us, in continuing so large a Number of Horses in Camp through the Winter as to consume the Stores that were provided under so alarming a Prospect of Deficiencies as could not be unnoticed by them; and that it be earnestly recommended that all the Horses that can possibly be spared be immediately sent away from Camp; and all the Cattle that are publick Property and kept on publick Stores, and not immediately wanted for Use, be also removed to such Distance from Camp as that the Hay, within Reach thereof by Transportation, may be appropriated to supply the Army; and if those Means should prove insufficient, and the necessary Supplies cannot be otherwise procured, we should further recommend, if the Commander in Chief approves of the Measure, that such and so many Cattle and Horses, as the Case may require, belonging to the Inhabitants in the Vicinity of the Camp, not immediately wanted for their Use and Support, be also removed to such distant Parts of the State as may have Forage to preserve them, and from whence it will not answer to transport the same to Camp, on Condition that the Proprietors furnish such a proportionable Quantity of the Hay for the publick publick Use as in the Judgment of two of the Justices of the County such Cattle and Horses would consume, having Respect to the necessary Consumption of the Remainder of the Stock; the said Cattle to be estimated by the said Justices, and receipted for by one of the County Contractors; and the Expence of removing, feeding and returning the same to be paid by the said County Contractor; and that if the Cattle or Horses so removed shall be lost and not returned to the Owner, the same shall be paid for by the County Contractor on Behalf of the Publick. That the Cattle and Horses so to be removed be delivered into the Custody of the Contractors of the Counties respectively to which they shall be driven, to be by them distributed amongst such of the Inhabitants thereof as may be possessed of Forage sufficient for supporting them during the Season.

By Order of the Committee,

PETER TALLMAN.

Mr. DEARE,	Mr. CONDUCT,	Mr. TALLMAN.
Mr. HOLMES,	Mr. MARTIN,	Mr. SINNICKSON,

Mr. Condict, from the Committee appointed to join a Committee of the House of Assembly, to attend at the New-Jersey Brigade in the Recess of the Legislature, &c. made the following Report :

YOUR Committee appointed to join a Committee of the House of Assembly, to attend at the New-Jersey Brigade in the Recess of the Legislature, to enquire into the Complaints set forth in the Representation of the Officers of the said Brigade against the State-Clothier, &c. beg Leave to report—That, agreeably to the said Appointment, they have met at the New-Jersey Camp, and having heard the Charges exhibited against Enos Kelsey, Esquire, State-Clothier, by the Officers of the said Brigade, and the Testimony produced to support the same, are of Opinion, that the said Charges herewith delivered, as supported by the Testimony which also accompanies this Report is sufficient Evidence that the Complaints of the said Officers were not Groundless ; but as the said Enos Kelsey, Esquire, though served with a Copy of the Resolution, and acquainted with the Time and Place of the Meeting of the said Committee, did not attend to answer the Charges against him, or assign Reasons why the Brigade had not been better served, your Committee cannot determine, whether it was in the Power of the Clothier to have supplied some of the Articles said to be deficient, in Season or not ; but in some Instances it appears evident he has neglected his Duty as Clothier and Agent of the State, for providing and issuing Stores to the Troops : In addition to the Testimony in Support of Part of the fourth Charge in the List, it is necessary to inform the House, that a Number of the Vests and Breeches were produced to the Committee, which were evidently much too small for the most minute Person in the Character of a Soldier ; and which the Officers declared were left after providing the smallest Men and even Boys with those Articles ; some Shirts were also shewn to the Committee which had been delivered to the Men, much too small for them, by Reason whereof they were greatly worn out, though but seldom used—The Whole of which, together with the Depositions taken on the Occasion, we submit to the House for their Consideration and Determination.

By Order of the Committee,

15th May, 1780.

SILAS CONDUCT, Chairman.
