Case Notes

State special education regulations governing placement of secondary-level students in community rehabilitation programs for vocational rehabilitation services, permitting students to be placed in programs approved by the state Division of Vocational Services (DVRs), were insufficiently broad to encompass placement in programs approved by agencies serving the blind or those so severely developmentally disabled as to be unemployable, as required under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). Baer v. Klagholz, 771 A.2d 603 (2001).
