What They Are Saying... Governor Christie's "Historic" Supreme Court Nominations Deserve "Timely Hearings"

Wednesday, January 25, 2012 • Tags: Appointments

"It is not too early to note that they deserve comprehensive, timely hearings before the state Senate." (Editorial, "Christie Supreme," The Record, 1/24/12)

"Politics aside, Dems have no substantive grounds for delay. And it's long past time they stopped playing politics." (Editorial, "Christie's Bold Court Picks," New York Post, 1/25/12)

Governor Christie's Qualified, "Groundbreaking Nominees" Reflect New Jersey's Diversity

"[T]he governor is breaking down barriers. And it brings the state another step closer to a time when all the glass ceilings are shattered, a time when there no longer will be "firsts" associated with nominations, appointments and achievements." (Editorial, "Gov. Christie's Effort To Bring Diversity To N.J. Supreme Court Deserves Praise," Times of Trenton, 1/25/12)

- "Christie's choices are a positive step toward making the court more reflective of the state's changing population." (Editorial, "Gov. Christie's Effort To Bring Diversity To N.J. Supreme Court Deserves Praise," Times of Trenton, 1/25/12)

"[W]e applaud Gov. Chris Christie for clearly having a mind to diversifying the state Supreme Court while fulfilling the most important priority of selecting judicial nominees who are qualified because they intimately know the law."

(Editorial, "Christie Wise To Aim For Diverse Picks," Courier-Post, 1/25/12)

- "We applaud the governor for selecting two nominees who appear to be well-qualified and who will bring new perspectives to the court because of their backgrounds." (Editorial, "Christie Wise To Aim For Diverse Picks," Courier-Post, 1/25/12)

"[C]onfronted with two openings on the court, Christie has taken a historic step toward making the New Jersey Supreme Court look more like the rest of the state. That's hard to argue with. And no one is questioning Harris' or Kwon's credentials." (Editorial, "Christie's Supreme Court Picks / Wow, He's Good," Press of Atlantic City, 1/25/12)

"Gov. Chris Christie's nomination Monday of not one, but two, groundbreaking nominees to the state Supreme Court deserves praise for its contribution to diversity." (Editorial, "Diverse Court Choices A Plus," Gloucester County Times, 1/25/12)
