RELEASE: April 28, 1999

Governor Whitman today submitted to the State Senate her intention to nominate James C. Heimlich of Westfield as a Superior Court Judge.

Heimlich has represented plaintiffs and defendants in a wide range of civil litigation in addition to representing a number of commercial lending institutions in defense and plaintiff litigation. Heimlich served as borough attorney in Roselle Park since 1997 and also has served as Union County Planning Board Attorney. He has been a councilman and alternate mayor of the Town of Westfield. Heimlich received his LL.B from Seton Hall Law School.
