

1. A period of incapacity (that is, inability to work, attend school or perform regular daily activities due to a serious health condition, treatment therefore and recovery therefrom) of more than three consecutive days, and any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition, that also involves:

- i. Treatment two or more times by a health care provider; or
- ii. Treatment by a health care provider on one occasion, which results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of a health care provider;

2. Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, or for prenatal care;

3. Any period of incapacity or treatment for such incapacity due to a chronic serious health condition;

4. A period of incapacity, which is permanent or long-term, due to a condition for which treatment may not be effective (such as Alzheimer's disease, a severe stroke or the terminal stages of a disease) where the individual is under continuing supervision of, but need not be receiving active treatment by a health care provider; or

5. Any period of absence to receive multiple treatments (including any period of recovery therefrom) by a health care provider or by a provider of health care services under orders of, or on referral by a health care provider, either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or for a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity or more than three consecutive calendar days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment, such as cancer (chemotherapy, radiation, etc.), severe arthritis (physical therapy) or kidney disease (dialysis).

"Stepparent of the covered individual" means the person to whom the covered individual's biological parent is either currently married or with whom the covered individual's biological parent is currently sharing a civil union.

"Twelve-month period" means, with respect to an individual who establishes a valid first claim for family leave insurance benefits, the 365 consecutive days that begin with the first day that the individual establishes the claim.

"Week" means a period of seven consecutive days.
