Statement From Governor Chris Christie On Veterans Day

Friday, November 11, 2016 Tags: Statements

Trenton, NJ – Governor Chris Christie issued the following statement marking Veterans Day:

“Today we honor and pay respect to the men and women of our Armed Forces and the sacrifices they have made while wearing our nation’s uniform. Through periods of conflict and peace, our veterans have given selflessly to our country, represented our values, and symbolized the very best of being an American. While we know that we can never fully repay the debt we owe our veterans and their families, we should express to them our gratitude for their bravery, sacrifice and commitment to America.”

Governor Christie also proclaimed November 11, 2016 as “Veterans Day” throughout New Jersey. A copy of the Governor’s proclamation is attached to the release.
