Governor Addresses Graduates at Middlesex County College, Attends Grand Opening of Great Adventure's Looney Tunes Seaport

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will help kickoff the grand opening of the Looney Tunes Seaport at one of New Jersey's premier tourist attractions, Six Flags Great Adventure.

The park recently finished an over $42 million expansion that will offer more than 25 new rides and attractions for thrill seekers. The event marks the start of the summer season in New Jersey, a bustling state for tourism attractions and retreats.

The Looney Tunes Seaport is a new six-acre section of the park for young children which features more than ten new rides and attractions.

The Governor will also deliver remarks at Middlesex County College's Commencement. The Governor will congratulate students for their accomplishments and encourage them in their future pursuits.
