Visit the NJ State Library to Tour the New NJ250 In-Person Exhibit This July

The New Jersey State Library's brand new in-person NJ250 exhibit should be on your list of must-see attractions this July! Step back in time and walk through each constitutional era in New Jersey, featuring rare historical documents, interesting fast facts, and the unique stories that shaped both our state and nation. The exhibit will be on view on the New Jersey State Library's 4th floor, and can be toured on July 2nd, 6th, 7th, and 8th, twice daily at 11 am and 1:30 pm.

Register for "Reimagining Information Literacy" Free Virtual National Forum

Since 2023, the New Jersey State Library has been working on "Teaching Information Literacy," an IMLS-funded project that is supporting the state's implementation of K-12 student information literacy learning standards.

As part of our efforts to inform, educate, and engage people, we are holding a free virtual National Forum on July 14-15, 2026. Called Reimagining Information Literacy, speakers and panelists from across the country will explore a variety of aspects of information literacy, going beyond New Jersey's approach.

Early Marketing: How to Build Excitement for Your Library's Work

Great marketing starts before registration opens, the doors unlock, or the program begins. Libraries can build excitement early by sharing sneak peeks, gathering community input, and creating anticipation with a countdown. Read our latest marketing blog to learn simple strategies to help your audience feel invested before your next program even launches.
