

(f) Eligible enrollees shall notify the Access Program within 30 days of any change in the enrollee's status, as change in status is specified at N.J.A.C. 8:91-3.5(c).

(g) Eligible enrollees shall notify the Access program within 30 days of any change in the enrollees' eligibility for coverage under an employer's group health benefits plan or as soon as reasonably possible following the date the enrollees become aware of the change in eligibility.

(h) Eligible enrollees shall agree that the Access Program has a right of subrogation to any dividend or credit against future premium required by carriers to be issued to assure that the aggregate benefits paid plus the dividend or credit equals at least 75 percent of the premium collected in a calendar year for each policy form pursuant to N.J.S.A. 17B:27A-9, up to the full amount of subsidy paid by the Access Program for the separate enrollees in the calendar year for which the dividend or credit is issued.

(i) Eligible enrollees shall agree that the enrollee's right is subordinate to that of the Access Program with respect to receipt of dividends or credits against future premiums required to be issued by carriers pursuant to N.J.A.C. 8:91-5.11, up to the full amount of subsidy paid by the Access Program for the separate enrollees in the calendar year for which the dividend or credit is issued.

(j) Enrollees who are subsidized for 12 calendar months shall submit to a new eligibility test evaluating income and assets 60 days prior to the end of the 12 calendar month period, if the enrollee continues to claim eligibility for the Access Program.

8:91-6.4 Continued participation

(a) No enrollee shall be subsidized by the Access Program for more than a 12 month period without reconsideration. All such enrollees shall reapply to the Access Program 60 days prior to the end of the 12 calendar month period if the enrollee is to be considered for further Access Program eligibility. Such enrollees shall have priority of eligibility for continued subsidy over new Access program applicants also eligible for subsidy.

(b) No enrollee shall be subsidized by the Access Program for more than 30 days following the date an enrollee becomes eligible for an employment-based group health benefits plan. For purposes of this provision, the date from which an enrollee shall be determined eligible for the group health benefits plan shall be the date that the enrollee's coverage under the group health benefits plan becomes effective.

(c) No enrollee shall be subsidized by the Access Program for more than 30 days following the date an enrollee's health benefits under another government program becomes effective.
