Executive Summary

This project is based on the New Jersey Supreme Court decision in Saccone v. Bd. of Trustees of Police and Firemen's Ret. Sys., where the Court held that a retired firefighter could direct the survivors' benefits for a child with a disability to a special needs trust.¹ This Report recommends statutory language to codify the decision of the New Jersey Supreme Court that the compensation payable to an individual designated to receive benefits from a state-administered retirement system may be directed to a trust established for the benefit of that individual. This Report seeks to clarify the statutes governing state-administered pensions and benefits and to increase the awareness of the public to the Supreme Court decision in Saccone.

Background

In Saccone case, the Board of Trustees of the Police and Firemen's Retirement System (PFRS) (the Board) ruled that the survivors' benefits must be paid to the spouse or children of the PFRS member and could not be directed to a special needs trust.² A special needs trust, established by a parent, grandparent, legal guardian, or court, is a trust that is "intended to allow a disabled individual to maintain eligibility for certain needs-based government benefits."³ The child, in this case, was unable to work and considered totally disabled by the Social Security Administration, receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Medicaid, which were critically to provide for his care.⁴

The Court observed that under 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d), "Congress extended the protections afforded by the use of a special needs trust, finding that the contents of that type of trust are not considered 'income' for purposes of determining eligibility for Supplemental Security Insurance."⁵ The Board concluded that the state statute only permits the spouse and children of the retiree to receive benefits and does not allow the member to change the designated beneficiary or provide for a contingent beneficiary.⁶

The New Jersey Supreme Court reversed the Appellate Division decision, which had affirmed the determination of the Board.⁷ The Supreme Court held that the request of the parent did not involve assignment of the survivors' benefits or a change of the primary beneficiary, but involved only the "manner in which" the child would receive the survivors' benefits.⁸

The relevant statutory language provides that:

[u]pon the death after retirement of any member of the retirement system there shall be paid to the member's widow or widower a pension of 50% of final compensation for the use of herself or himself, to continue during her or his widowhood, plus 15% of such compensation payable to one surviving child or an additional 25% of such compensation to two or more children; if there is no surviving widow or widower or in case the widow or widower dies or remarries, 20% of final compensation will be payable to one surviving child, 35% of such compensation to two surviving children in equal shares and if there be three or more children, 50% of such compensation would be payable to such children in equal shares.⁹

The Supreme Court "construe[d] the reference to 'child' " in the statute as the equivalent to a "first-party special needs trust established" solely for the benefit of a child with a disability.¹⁰ The Court viewed the special needs trust as an extension of the child, reasoning that the retired member wanted the fund to be distributed through "a vehicle that prevents the benefit from becoming a financial liability" to the child.¹¹ The Court found that the "Board erred in not accommodating" the request and forcing the child "to choose between abandoning survivors' benefits earned" by the parent or "forgoing public assistance to provide for medical needs."¹² The Court found that the:

The three optional plans were eliminated, however, when the statute was revised in 1967, only the spouse and children were permitted to receive the survivors' benefits.⁶ The survivors' benefits effectuate upon the death of the member, and as a consequence, are not assignable by the member).

survivors' benefits statute, like the entire PFRS pension scheme, should be interpreted in light of its remedial character. The survivors' statute exists for the purpose of benefiting the spouse and children of deceased PFRS members. Yet, disabled persons, such as Anthony, are financially impaired by the Board's and the Appellate Division's strict construction of the survivors' benefits statute.¹³

The Court set aside the Board's determination and ordered administrative action consistent with its opinion.¹⁴

State-administered Retirement Systems

The State of New Jersey administers the retirement systems for public employees through the New Jersey Department of Treasury, Division of Pensions and Benefits (the Division). Each of the following systems provides a series of benefit and pension options to a designated segment of the State's public employees:

- Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1955. It is open to most state, county, municipal, authority, and school board employees and elected officials who are not required to become members of any other NJ state retirement system (i.e., Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund, Police and Firemen's Retirement System, State Police Retirement System, Judicial Retirement System, or Alternate Benefit Program). Membership in the PERS of employees who meet eligibility requirements is mandatory in most cases.

This policy changed on December 1, 2014, when New Jersey eliminated the Medically Needy program. The new Medicaid program does not have an income cap, instead, it allows income in excess of the cap to be placed in a pass through vehicle, a “Qualified Income Trust” (QIT or Miller Trust). Each month that an individual is eligible for Medicaid, a portion of his income must be deposited into this trust. The trust contains certain provisions required by the State. Income that is deposited into the trust is not counted for Medicaid eligibility purposes. By passing the income in excess of the cap through the Miller Trust, the income is no longer counted in determining financial eligibility for Medicaid. Now, individuals with income above the cap may qualify for Medicaid whether they live at home, in an assisted living, or a nursing home facility.

The QIT: (1) must have a trustee to manage the administration and expenditures of the trust pursuant to state and federal law; (2) must be irrevocable; (3) cannot contain resources such as the proceeds from the sale of real or personal property, or money from a savings account; (4) the State of New Jersey must be the first beneficiary of all remaining funds up to the amount paid for Medicaid benefits upon the death of the Medicaid recipient; and (5) income deposited in the trust can only be used as defined in the post-eligibility treatment of income rules and used to pay for the cost share.

- Police and Firemen's Retirement System (PFRS) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1944. It is open to all police officers and firefighters appointed after June 1944. Participation of employees in the PFRS from municipalities is mandatory and a condition of employment. Certain State and County law enforcement job titles, including prison employees, are also covered by PFRS. If an employee in a county or state police or fire title does not meet PFRS eligibility requirements, PERS membership is required.
 - Consolidated Police and Firemen's Pension Fund (CPFPPF) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1952 to replace, on an actuarial basis, 212 local police and firemen pension funds. The CPFPPF membership is limited to policemen and firemen appointed prior to July 1, 1944.
 - Prison Officers' Pension Fund (POPF) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1941. The POPF was not maintained on an actuarial reserve basis and was closed to new employees as of January 1960. New employees are enrolled in the Police and Firemen's Retirement System.
- State Police Retirement System (SPRS) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1965 as the successor of the State Police Retirement and Benevolent Fund. All full-time troopers or commissioned or noncommissioned officers of the New Jersey Division of State Police appointed after July 1, 1965, are members of this system.
- Judicial Retirement System (JRS) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1973 after the repeal of the laws that had provided pension benefits to members of the State judiciary and their eligible survivors since 1948. All members of the State judiciary are required to enroll in the JRS.
- Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (TPAF) – is a defined benefit pension fund established in 1919 and reorganized in 1955. It is open to employees of boards of education and the State who must be certified or credentialed as a condition of employment. Membership in the TPAF for employees who meet eligibility requirements is mandatory.
- Alternate Benefit Program (ABP) – is a defined contribution pension fund established through legislation enacted between 1965 and 1968. The ABP covers certain employees of state colleges and universities and county colleges. Full-time faculty, officers, visiting professors and certain professional administrative staff required to possess a college degree or its equivalent, participate in the ABP.
- Defined Contribution Retirement Program (DCRP) - a defined contribution pension fund established on July 1, 2007 under the provisions of Chapter 92, P.L. 2007, and Chapter 103, P.L. 2007 (N.J.S.A. 43:15C-1 et seq.) The DCRP provides retirement benefits for eligible employees and their beneficiaries. Employees who are eligible for membership in the DCRP include:

- State or local officials elected on or after July 1, 2007;
- State or local officials appointed on or after July 1, 2007;
- Employees enrolled in the PERS or TPAF on or after July 1, 2007 who earn a salary in excess of established "Maximum Compensation" limits.
- Central Pension Fund (CPF) - consists of the administration of a series of noncontributory pension acts. These include Heath Act pensions for state employees, Veterans Act pensioners, Noncontributory Pensions for certain employees, Annuity for Widows of Governors, and special pensions. No reserves are established for the payment of retirement benefits. These benefits are administered by the Division in accordance with the governing statute and the rules and regulations of the State House Commission.¹⁵

Each retirement system identifies the requirements for designating a beneficiary for the pension benefits that remain at the death of an active or retired member.¹⁶ The Division provides “fact sheets” and other guidelines to explain the parameters for beneficiary selection under each state-administered plan.¹⁷ “Fact Sheet No. 68” provides the guidelines for designating a beneficiary and members are requested to review this document before they are name a minor, use a trust agreement, or act as a power of attorney for a member.¹⁸ The Division explains the conditions that must be met before a minor receives a designated benefit, and also instructs members that they “may choose to leave” a “pension benefit to a trust established on behalf of a minor.”¹⁹ The Division informs members that “[i]n limited circumstances a ‘Special Needs Trust’ ” may be “designated as a survivor option.”²⁰

The statutory provisions governing the individual retirement systems are found primarily under Title 43 of the New Jersey Statutes, which provides for the pensions and retirement benefits of public employees, in the following chapters:²¹

Proposed Statutory Language

The Commission proposes revisions to the state-administered systems in accord with the decision in Saccone. The revisions incorporate the recommendations provided from several attorneys specializing in elder and disability law who commented on the proposed statutory language presented in previous drafts of this Report.²²

One leading attorney in this area of practice, Regina Spielberg, Esq., observed that “[i]t is entirely possible that one person with disabilities can have two trusts: a (d)(4)(A) or (C) trust and a Miller trust.”²³ Ms. Spielberg advised that removing the reference to “special needs trusts,” ensures that the scope of the draft language extends to all of the intended trusts. She stated that:

At the time of the Saccone decision, New Jersey did not permit the use of ‘Miller’ trusts, which are authorized under 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(B). However, New Jersey now requires the use of Miller trusts if an individual applying for Medicaid has income greater than the income cap. Miller trusts are unique in that they do not have special needs language and are created solely to receive excess income (such as the retirement system

The benefit provided to the authorized beneficiary may be payable to a special needs trust established for the authorized beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4) and any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

The following proposal was received informally from an attorney specializing in elder law:

A special needs trust established pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4) and any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto may be the vehicle for, or beneficiary of, any pension or compensation benefit available to any beneficiary authorized hereunder.

²³ Email from Regina M. Spielberg, Esq., Partner, Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP, to Jayne J. Johnson, Counsel to the NJLRC (Feb. 29, 2016 10:38 AM EST) (on file with the NJLRC). NJLRC).

survivor's pension). As a result, the revision should include all trusts created under 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), that is special needs trusts (d)(4)(A), Miller trusts, and pooled trusts under (d)(4)(C).

Ideally, these trusts should be the authorized beneficiary in the place of anyone entitled to benefits. It is not sufficient to pay directly to a person with disabilities and have them (or the guardian) place the funds into the trust. That arrangement can result in the loss of Supplemental Security Income benefits.²⁴

Ms. Spielberg recommended the following statutory language:

The compensation due to a widow, widower or child may be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of the widow, widower or child pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4) and any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto.²⁵

Along with this proposal, Staff obtained comment from Donald Vanarelli, Esq. who represented the Saccone family for more than six years, culminating with the 2014 New Jersey Supreme Court decision.²⁶ He stated that the, “the Supreme Court ruling was a recognition that the agency and lower court decisions had not only violated the spirit of the public employees’ pension law, which is to be liberally construed in favor of the member, but also the public policy favoring the establishment of special needs for the disabled.”²⁷

Mr. Vanarelli provided insightful accounts of his work on behalf of Thomas Saccone to demonstrate how codifying the Saccone decision will ensure that individuals with disabilities, entitled to benefits under the state-administered retirement system, are protected as the Supreme Court envisioned.²⁸ Mr. Vanarelli also observed that a “clearly drafted” proposal is “vital” to avoid future misapplication of N.J.S. 43:16A-12a. and the other related statutes. Mr. Vanarelli submitted the following proposal:

A beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be defined to include a special needs trust established for the such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), or any successor statute or rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such special needs trust may be the vehicle for, or beneficiary of, any benefit to which the beneficiary is or will be entitled pursuant to this subsection.²⁹

The Commission proposes a broad reference to the individuals entitled to compensation under the statute and includes a reference to “successor statutes,” along with language that describes a (d)(4) trust in accord with the Saccone decision. Based on the comments received, Staff proposes adding the following in the respective provisions of the state-administered retirement systems:

The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death after retirement of the member of the retirement system pursuant to this subsection.³⁰

²⁹ Mr. Vanarelli noted that the phrase “or will be” was included “because, remarkably, during the course of the Saccone litigation, the Division argued that Mr. Saccone was not entitled to a ruling on his case because such ruling would be “clearly hypothetical since Mr. Saccone and his wife are still alive and his son may or may not be alive when Mr. Saccone dies.”

(a) In general. Effective as the first day after the death of a person to whom section 1448 of this title applies (or on such other day as the person may provide under subsection (j)), a monthly annuity under section 1451 of this title shall be paid to the person’s beneficiaries under the Plan, as follows:

(1) Surviving spouse or former spouse. The eligible surviving spouse or the eligible former spouse.

(2) Surviving children. The surviving dependent children in equal shares, if the eligible surviving spouse or the eligible former spouse is dead, dies, or otherwise becomes ineligible under this section.

(3) Dependent children. The dependent children in equal shares if the person to whom section 1448 of this title applies (with the concurrence of the person’s spouse, if required under section 1448(a)(3) of this title) elected to provide an annuity for dependent children but not for the spouse or former spouse.

(4) Special needs trust for sole benefit of certain dependent children. Notwithstanding subsection (i), a supplemental or special needs trust established under subparagraph (A) or (C) section 1917(d)(4) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.

Conclusion

This Report recommends statutory language to reflect the determination of the New Jersey Supreme Court that the compensation payable to an individual designated to receive benefits from a state-administered retirement system may be directed to a trust established for the benefit of that individual, in order to clarify the statutes governing state-administered pensions and benefits and to increase the awareness of the public to the Supreme Court decision in Saccone.

This Report proposes draft language to codify the holding in Saccone, recommending revisions to N.J.S. 43:16A-12.1, and related statutory provisions governing other State-administered retirement systems. The text of the draft language is provided in the pages that follow. Underlined language is proposed by the New Jersey Law Revision Commission.

Draft

43:16A-12.1 (a). Widows' and widowers' pension; increased benefits; minimum annual amount.

Upon the death after retirement of any member of the retirement system there shall be paid to the member's widow or widower a pension of 50% of final compensation for the use of herself or himself, to continue during her or his widowhood, plus 15% of such compensation payable to one surviving child or an additional 25% of such compensation to two or more children; if there is no surviving widow or widower or in case the widow or widower dies or remarries, 20% of final compensation will be payable to one surviving child, 35% of such compensation to two surviving children in equal shares and if there be three or more children, 50% of such compensation would be payable to such children in equal shares. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death after retirement of the member of the retirement system pursuant to this subsection.

COMMENT

42 U.S.C. 1396p(d) provides the following:

(4) This subsection shall not apply to any of the following trusts:

(A) A trust containing the assets of an individual under age 65 who is disabled (as defined in section 1382c(a)(3) of this title) and which is established for the benefit of such individual by a parent, grandparent, legal guardian of the individual, or a court if the State will receive all amounts remaining in the trust upon the death of such individual up to an subchapter.

N.J.A.C. 10:71-4.11(g) provides:

vii. The special needs trust shall state that it is established by a parent, grandparent, or legal guardian of the trust beneficiary, or by a court.

(1) The trust shall identify the grantor/settlor by name and as the parent, grandparent, legal guardian, or court. A court can be named as the grantor, if the trust is established pursuant to a settlement of a case before it, or if the court is otherwise involved in the creation of the trust.

viii. The trust shall specifically state that it is irrevocable. Neither the grantor, the trustee(s), nor the beneficiary shall have any right or power, whether alone or in conjunction with others, in whatever capacity, to alter, amend, revoke or terminate the trust or any of its terms or to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the trust estate during his or her lifetime.

(1) Notwithstanding the irrevocability provision above, the trust can state that “the trust shall be irrevocable except that the trust may be amended as necessary to conform with the requirements of 42 U.S.C. 1396p and/or state law.”

ix. The trustee shall be specifically identified by name and address. The trust shall state that the original trust beneficiary cannot be the trustee. The trust shall make provisions for naming a successor trustee in the event that any trustee is unable or unwilling to serve. The Bureau of Administrative Control, Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services, as well as the trust beneficiary and/or guardian, shall be given prior notice if there is a change in the trustee.

x. The trust shall specifically state that the trustee shall fully comply with all State laws, including the Prudent Investor Act ,N.J.S.A. 3B:20–11.1 et seq. The trust shall provide that the trustee cannot take any actions not authorized by, or without regard to, State laws. If the trust gives the trustee authorization or power not provided for in the Prudent Investor Act, an accompanying letter shall provide an explanation for each such authorization or power.

xi. Except as approved by court order, after notice to the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services, individual trustee fees shall be in accordance with N.J.S.A. 3B:18–23 et seq. or, in the case of a corporate trustee, the corporate trustee's regular fee schedule. The trustee shall not delay or defer accepting compensation or commissions more than one year from the date(s) they would otherwise be payable under the terms of the trust or of any applicable statute or rule. If the trust identifies a guardian, the trust shall specifically identify him or her by name. A guardian shall be compensated only as provided by law. The parent of a minor child shall not be compensated from the trust as the child's guardian.

(1) If an adult beneficiary is not competent, the trust shall specifically state that the “guardianship protections for the incompetent's funds which are required by New Jersey law and Court rules are incorporated by reference into this trust.” The trustee shall either file a bond or shall get the Court's permission not to do so.

xii. The trust shall specifically state that, upon the death of the primary beneficiary, the State will be notified, and shall be paid all amounts remaining in the trust up to the total value of all medical assistance paid on behalf of the beneficiary. The trust shall comply fully with this obligation under the statute to first repay the State, without requiring the State to take any action except to establish the amount to be repaid. Repayment shall be made to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey, and shall be sent to the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services, to the attention of the Bureau of Administrative Control, PO Box 712, Trenton, New Jersey 08625–0712, or to any successor agency.

xiii. If there is a provision for repayment of other assistance programs, the trust shall specifically state that the Medicaid Program shall be repaid prior to making repayment to any other assistance programs.

xiv. The trust shall specifically state that if the beneficiary has received Medicaid benefits in more than one state, each state that provided Medicaid benefits shall be repaid. If there is an insufficient amount left to cover all benefits paid, then each state shall be paid its proportionate share of the amount left in the trust, based upon the amount of support provided to the beneficiary.

xv. No provisions in the trust shall permit the estate's representative to first repay other persons or creditors at the death of the beneficiary. Only what remains in the trust after the repayments specified in (g)1xii, xiii and xiv above have been made shall be considered available for other expenses or beneficiaries of the estate. The trust may provide for a prepaid burial plan, but shall not state that it will pay for reasonable burial expenses after the death of the trust beneficiary.

xvi. The trust shall specify that a formal or informal accounting of all expenditures made by the trust shall be submitted to the appropriate eligibility determination agency on an annual basis.

xvii. The State shall be given advance notice of any expenditure in excess of $5,000, and of any amount which would substantially deplete the principal of the trust. Notice shall be given to the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services, Bureau of Administrative Control, PO Box 712, Mail Code 6, Trenton, New Jersey 08625–0712, or any successor agency, 45 days prior to the expenditures.

xviii. New Jersey rules and laws do not permit a trust to create a will for an incompetent or a minor. The money creating the trust, any additions and/or interest accumulated, cannot be left to other parties, but shall pass by intestacy. The trust shall not create other trusts within it.

2. A pooled trust is a special needs trust, containing the assets of a disabled individual, which meets the following conditions:

- i. The trust shall be established and managed by a non-profit association;
- ii. A separate account shall be maintained for each beneficiary of the trust, but for purposes of investment and management of the funds, the trust may pool the funds from those accounts;
- iii. Accounts in the trust shall be established solely for the benefit of the disabled individual by the individual, by a parent, grandparent, or legal guardian of the individual, or by a court;
- iv. To the extent that amounts remaining in the beneficiary's account upon the death of the beneficiary are not retained by the trust, the trust shall pay to the State of New Jersey the amount remaining in the account, up to an amount equal to the total amount of medical assistance paid under Title XIX of the Social Security Act on behalf of the individual. To meet this requirement, the trust shall include a provision specifically providing for such payment; and
- v. Funds of an individual 65 or older, which are transferred to a pooled trust shall be subject to the transfer penalty provisions contained in N.J.A.C. 10:71-4.10.

(h) Title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. § 1917(d)(4)(B)) provides for an exemption from the trust provisions for qualified income trusts (also known as Miller trusts). Special provisions for this form of trust apply, under the law, only in those states which do not provide medically needy coverage for nursing facility services. Because New Jersey does cover services in nursing facilities under the medically needy component of the Medicaid program, the establishment of a qualified income trust shall be presumed to be an asset transfer for the purposes of qualifying for Medicaid. This presumption shall apply whether the individual is seeking nursing facility services or home and community based services under one of the waiver programs.*

(i) Upon the denial of eligibility or the termination of long-term care level services due to the application of the trust provisions in (e) and (f) above, the county welfare agency shall notify the applicant/beneficiary of his or her right to request an undue hardship exception. An applicant/beneficiary may apply for an exception to these trust provisions if he or she can show that the transfer will cause an undue hardship to him-or herself. The applicant/beneficiary shall provide sufficient documentation to support the request for an undue hardship waiver to the county welfare agency within 20 days of notification of the denial of eligibility or termination of benefits due to these trust provisions.

1. For the purposes of this chapter, undue hardship shall be considered to exist when:

- i. The application of the trust provisions would deprive the applicant/beneficiary of medical care such that his or her health or his or her life would be endangered. Undue hardship may also exist when application of the trust provisions would deprive the individual of food, clothing, shelter, or other necessities of life; and
- ii. The applicant/beneficiary can irrefutably demonstrate the assets placed in trust are beyond his or her control and that the asset cannot be recovered. The applicant/beneficiary shall demonstrate that he or she made good faith efforts, including exhaustion of remedies available at law or in equity, to recover the assets placed in trust.

2. In the event that a waiver of undue hardship is denied, neither the Department of Human Services, the Department of Health and Senior Services, nor the county boards of social services shall have any obligation to take any action to assure that payment of services is provided during the penalty period.

3. If the request for undue hardship consideration is denied by the county welfare agency, the county welfare agency shall notify the applicant of the denial and that the applicant may request a fair hearing in accordance with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 10:49-10.

*See supra n. 15 – As of December 1, 2014 - New Jersey eliminated the Medically Needy program. The new Medicaid program does not have an income cap, instead, it places any income in excess of the cap in a pass through vehicle, a “Qualified Income Trust” (QIT or Miller Trust), and is no longer presumed to be an asset transfer for the purposes of qualifying for Medicaid.

18A:66-46. Accidental death benefits.

- a. Upon the death of a member in active service as a result of:

(1) an accident met in the actual performance of duty at some definite time and place, or

(2) service in the reserve component of the Armed Forces of the United States or the National Guard in a federal active duty status, and not as the result of his willful negligence, an accidental death benefit shall be payable, if a report of the accident is filed in the office of the retirement system within 60 days next following the accident, but the board of trustees may waive such time limit, for a reasonable period, if in the judgment of the board the circumstances warrant such action.

No such application shall be valid or acted upon unless it is filed in the office of the retirement system within five years of the date of such death.

b. Upon the receipt of proper proofs of the death of a member on account of which an accidental death benefit is payable, there shall be paid to his widow or widower a pension of 50% of the compensation, upon which contributions by the member to the annuity savings fund were based in the last year of creditable service, for the use of herself or himself and the children of the deceased member, to continue during her or his widowhood; if there is no surviving widow or widower or in the case the widow or widower dies or remarries, 20% of such compensation will be payable to one surviving child, 35% of such compensation to two surviving children in equal shares and if there be three or more children, 50% of such compensation will be payable to such children in equal shares. If there is no surviving widow, widower or child, 25% of the compensation upon which contributions by the member to the annuity savings fund were based in the last year of creditable service, will be payable to one surviving parent or 40% of such compensation will be payable to two surviving parents in equal shares. In the event of accidental death occurring in the first year of creditable service, the benefits, payable pursuant to this subsection, shall be computed at the annual rate of compensation. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

c. If there is no surviving widow, widower, child or parent, there shall be paid to any other beneficiary of the deceased member his accumulated deductions at the time of death. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

d. In no case shall the death benefit provided in subsection b. be less than that provided under subsection c.

e. In addition to the foregoing benefits payable under subsection b. or c., there shall also be paid in one sum to such member's beneficiary an amount equal to 1 1/2 times the compensation upon which contributions by the member to the annuity savings fund were based in the last year of creditable service. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

18A:66-108. Collection from members; refund to members or representatives.

a. The board of trustees may, in the manner prescribed by the bylaws of the corporation, assess and collect monthly or semimonthly from each member of the pension fund the amount required to be paid by said member into the fund. All moneys so collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the corporation.

The board of trustees may make it a condition of membership that each member sign an order on the treasurer of school moneys, or other disbursing officer, directing the retention from his or her salary or wages of the amount of his or her assessments and the payment of the amount so retained directly to the treasurer of the corporation, and the treasurer of school moneys, or other disbursing officer, shall make such retention and payment, but such right of retention and payment shall become operative only in the event of the same being authorized by the bylaws of the corporation.

b. Whenever any member shall die in service or his or her employment be terminated, for reasons other than retirement, all payments made by such employee to the fund shall be returned to the employee, if alive; or to such person, if living, as he shall have nominated by written designation, duly executed and filed with the board of trustees; otherwise to the executor or administrator of the member's estate, together with simple interest at the rate of 4% per annum.

c. Upon the receipt of proper proof of the death of a member in service, on account of which no accidental death benefit is payable under subsection e. of this section or the death of a member who has been retired for disability but who has not yet attained 60 years of age, there shall be paid to such person, if living, as he shall have nominated by written designation, duly executed and filed with the board of trustees, otherwise to the executor or administrator of the member's estate an amount equal to one and one-half times the compensation upon which his contributions are based or received by the member in the last year of creditable service; provided, however, that if such a member shall have attained 70 years of age or the member who has been retired for disability has attained 60 years of age, the amount payable shall equal three-sixteenths of the compensation received by the member in the last year of creditable service instead of one and one-half times such compensation. Such member may also file, and alter from time to time during his lifetime, as desired, a request with the board of trustees directing payment of said benefit in one sum or in equal installments over a period of years or as a life annuity. Upon the death of such member, a beneficiary to whom a benefit is payable in one sum may elect to receive the amount payable in equal annual installments over a period of years or as a life annuity.

d. Whenever any member who was a member on June 26, 1962, shall die after retirement on pension, not having received in pension payments an amount equal to the total amount of his or her contributions to the fund, including simple interest at 2% per annum, the difference between the amount so received and the amount of contributions, plus interest, shall be paid to the surviving named beneficiary on file with the board of trustees, and if none, then to his or her legal representative; unless said employee has made provision with the board of trustees for optional benefits under the provisions of section 18A:66-110.

e. Upon the death of a member in active service as a result of an accident in the performance of his or her duties as such employee and not as the result of his willful negligence, an accidental death benefit shall be payable, if a report, in a form acceptable to the board of trustees, of the accident is filed with the pension fund within 60 days next following the accident and an application for such benefit is filed with the said board of trustees within two years of the date of the accident, but the board of trustees may waive such time limits for a reasonable period, if in the judgment of the board the circumstances warrant such action. Evidence must be submitted to the board of trustees proving that the natural and proximate cause of death was an accident arising out of and in the course of employment at some definite time and place. Upon application by or on behalf of the dependents of such deceased member, the board of trustees, in addition to the payment of his contributions, as provided in this section, shall grant a pension of one-half of the average annual salary received by him or her during the three years immediately preceding his or her death to the spouse of the deceased member or, if no surviving spouse, then to the child or children of such member under age 18, divided in such manner as the board in its discretion shall determine to continue until the youngest surviving child dies or attains age 18. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

40:11-23. Manner of payment.

The pension shall be paid as follows:

a. If there are a dependent widow and dependent children of the deceased member, the pension shall be paid to such widow for the use of herself and such children. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

b. If there are dependent children but no widow the pension shall be paid in equal shares to those dependent children who have not reached 18 years of age. If there are 2 or more such children, the pension shall not exceed the sum of $50.00 per month for each child, and if there is only 1 such child, the sum of $75.00 per month. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

c. If a dependent widow remarries, no part of the pension shall be paid for her use, but the pension may be paid as if the deceased member had died leaving him surviving a dependent child or children under 18 years of age and no dependent widow. No pension shall be paid hereunder after the death of the widow and the arrival at the age of 18 of all the children of the deceased member.

d. The term “dependent widow” as used in this section shall not apply to a surviving spouse who shall have married such deceased member at or after his attainment of the age of 50 years.

43:6A-17. Death in active service; payments to beneficiaries.

a. Upon the receipt of proper proofs of the death in active service of a member of the retirement system, there shall be paid to his widow a survivor's benefit of 25% of final salary for the use of herself, to continue during her widowhood, plus 10%

b. In addition to the foregoing benefits payable under subsection a., there shall also be paid in one sum to the member's beneficiary an amount equal to one and one-half times the final salary received by the member.

c. For the purposes of this section final salary means the current salary for the judicial position in which the member served at the time of death.

where proper evidence is submitted to the satisfaction of the pension commission that the death of the member in active service was the result of an accident met in the actual performance of duty at some definite time and place, that such death was not the result of the member's willful negligence, and that the death occurred within 5 years of the accident; provided, further, that any pension in an amount less than $1,600.00 per annum, presently paid or to be paid in the future to a widow or widower or a prison officer, shall be increased to $1,600.00 per annum.

(4) In no case shall the death benefit provided in subsection (2) be less than that provided under subsection (3).

(5) In addition to the foregoing benefits payable under subsection (2) or (3), there shall also be paid in one sum to such beneficiary, if living, as the member shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retirement system, otherwise to the executor or administrator of the member's estate, an amount equal to 3 1/2 times the compensation upon which contributions by the member to the annuity savings fund were based in the last year of creditable service.

(6) In addition to the foregoing benefits, the State shall pay to the member's employer-sponsored health insurance program all health insurance premiums for the coverage of the member's surviving widow or widower and dependent children.

43:18-15. Payment of pensions; retirement; death; incapacity.

Pensions shall be paid from such fund in following manner:

I. In all cities of this state in which this chapter is or shall hereafter become operative, every employee and officer, as defined in section 43:18-7 of this title, who shall have honorably served therein for twenty-five years continuously, and who is a member of said pension fund corporation, and who has paid all the dues and assessments levied and provided for by the statutes of New Jersey governing said corporation and the by-laws of said corporation, and who shall have attained the age of fifty-five years, shall upon application to the local board or department of health of such city, be retired by such board and shall thereupon receive from such pension fund, an amount, annually, equal to one-half of the average salary received by such employee, for the last two years of his or her employment; provided, however, that the retirement age of fifty-five years herein prescribed shall not retroactively affect the retirement age of any member employee who was a member of said pension fund corporation prior to June fifth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six.

Whenever any employee or officer, having served a period of five years or over in the board or department of health or city hospital, who, having paid into the fund the full amount of his or her annual assessments, shall die or in the event that any member who has been heretofore, or who shall hereafter be retired and pensioned under the provisions of this chapter shall die, then and in each of such events, a pension in an amount equal to one-half the amount of the average salary received by such member during the last two years of his or her employment and in those cases where a member has been retired and pensioned previous thereto, shall be paid to the widow for the benefit of herself and minor children, if any, under the age of sixteen years, but in no case shall such payment exceed one thousand dollars per annum; provided, however, that in cities of the second class, in which on June second, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, the act entitled "An act concerning local boards of health and employees thereof in cities in this state, and for the relief of such employees," approved April second, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, as amended and supplemented, was in force, a pension in an amount equal to one-half of the amount of the average salary received by such member during the last two years of his or her employment shall be paid to the widow, but in no case shall the payment exceed the sum of two thousand dollars per annum.

In the event a member shall die and leave a surviving husband who is incapacitated either mentally or physically and unable to pursue a gainful occupation for the care of himself and children, if there be any, such surviving husband shall be entitled to a pension of one-half the amount of the average salary received by such member, such pension not to exceed one thousand dollars annually.

No pension shall be paid to any widow or widower of any member of the corporation unless he or she was married to a member of the corporation before the date of said member's retirement and before said member arrived at the age of fifty years. Upon the remarriage of any such widow or widower pension payments shall cease.

In the event that there shall be no widow or widower surviving or qualified to take under this chapter, but such deceased member shall leave children surviving under the age of sixteen years then such pension shall be paid to such of said member's children who have not attained the age of sixteen years in equal shares if there are three or more of them; if only two they shall be paid twenty dollars each, monthly, and if only one, such child shall be paid twenty-five dollars monthly, until the age of sixteen years is reached. In no event shall the payment under this provision exceed the sum of one thousand dollars annually. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

II. The board of trustees of any pension fund corporation organized under this chapter are hereby authorized to pay to any member from such pension fund an amount equal to one-half of his or her average salary received by him or her for the last two years of his or her employment; provided, that any such employee or officer of such board or department shall hereafter become incapacitated, either mentally, or physically; provided, however, that no such payments shall be made unless the member has completed his or her fifth year of service in said board or department of health or city hospital.

III. Any employee or officer of any such local board or department of health who shall have served therein for twenty-five years continuously, and who is a member of said pension fund corporation and who has paid all the dues and assessments levied and provided for by the statutes of New Jersey governing said corporation and the by-laws of said corporation, and who shall have attained the age of fifty-five years, who shall become incapacitated either mentally or physically from illness or injuries incurred in the performance of his duties as such employee, or who, by reason of advanced age is found unfit for the performance of his duties, shall be retired by the local board or department of health of such city and thereupon he shall receive from such pension fund an amount equal to one-half the average salary received by him for the last two years of his employment; provided, however, that the retirement age of fifty-five years herein prescribed shall not retroactively affect the retirement age of any member employee entered into and obtaining prior to June fifth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six.

43:19-14. Payments to dependents.

If any member of the pension corporation who shall have paid into the fund the full amount of his annual assessments or contributions dies as a result of injuries or illness received or incurred in the performance of duty; or if any such member who shall have served in the city's employ in the aggregate for twenty years and paid into the fund the full amount of annual assessments or contributions, dies from causes other than injuries or illness received or incurred in the performance of duty; or if any such member shall after July fourth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, have been retired and pensioned under this chapter and subsequently dies, then and in each of such events, as hereinafter provided, a pension in an amount equal to one-half of the salary received by such member at the time of death, and in those cases where a member has been retired and pensioned prior thereto one-half of the salary received by such member at the time of retirement, shall be paid to the widow or husband for the benefit of herself or himself and minor children, if any, under the age of sixteen years or dependent parents as the case may be. The pension so paid shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars annually. The pension shall be paid to the surviving spouse during his or her natural life and so long as he or she shall remain unmarried, but no pension shall be paid to the widow or husband of any member who shall, after July fourth, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, marry the member after such member has reached the age of fifty years. If there is no surviving spouse of the member, or no surviving spouse qualified to take under this chapter, or if the surviving spouse subsequently dies or remarries, and the member shall have left him or her surviving as heirs at law and next of kin, minor children under the age of sixteen years, payments to such minor children shall be made as follows: If there be one child, the sum of twenty-five dollars shall be paid to such child monthly until he or she arrives at the age of sixteen years; if there are two or more children the pension equal in amount to one-half of the salary received by such member at the time of death or retirement, but not exceeding in the aggregate one thousand dollars annually shall be paid to such children who have not attained the age of sixteen years in equal shares but in no event shall any one child receive more than the sum of twenty-five dollars monthly. If there is no widow, dependent husband and no children under the age of sixteen years, at the time of the death of such municipal employee, then such pension shall be paid to the dependent parents, if any, of such deceased municipal employee. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

43:19-15. Death of member after five years' service; payments.

In case any such member dies from causes other than injuries or illness received or incurred in the performance of his duties and he shall have paid into the fund the full amount of his annual assessments or contributions and served in the employ of the city for five years, then twenty-five per cent of the pension which would have been paid if the deceased member had served in the employ of the city for twenty years, shall be paid to the surviving spouse or minor children, as the case may be. For each additional year of service thereafter, the proportionate amount of the pension to be paid to the surviving spouse or minor children as the case may be, shall be increased to the extent of five per cent over and above such twenty-five per cent for each additional year of service up to and including twenty years. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

53:5A-12. Death benefits if no accidental death benefit payable.

a. Upon the receipt of proper proofs of the death in active service of a member of the retirement system on account of which no accidental death benefit is payable, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse a pension of 50% of final compensation for the use of that spouse and children of the deceased, to continue for so long as the person qualifies as a "surviving spouse" for the purposes of this act; if there is no surviving spouse or in case the spouse dies or remarries, 20% of final compensation will be payable to one surviving child, 35% of final compensation to two surviving children in equal shares and if there be three or more children, 50% of final compensation will be payable to such children in equal shares.

In the event of death occurring in the first year of creditable service, the benefits, payable pursuant to this subsection, shall be computed at the annual rate of compensation.

If there is no surviving spouse or child, 25% of final compensation will be payable to one surviving parent or 40% of final compensation will be payable to two surviving parents in equal shares. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

b. If there is no surviving spouse, child or parent, there shall be paid to any other beneficiary of the deceased member his aggregate contributions at the time of death. (1) an accident met in the actual performance of duty at some definite time and place, or

and such death was not the result of the member's willful negligence, an accidental death benefit shall be payable if a report of the accident is filed in the office of the Division of State Police within 60 days next following the accident, but the board of trustees may waive such time limit, for a reasonable period, if in the judgment of the board the circumstances warrant such action. No such application shall be valid or acted upon unless it is filed in the office of the retirement system within five years of the date of such death.

b. (1) Upon the receipt of proper proofs of the death of a member on account of which an accidental death benefit is payable, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse a pension of 70% of final compensation or of adjusted final compensation, as appropriate, for the use of that spouse and children of the deceased, to continue for as long as the person qualifies as a "surviving spouse" for the purposes of this act. If there is no surviving spouse or child, 25% of final compensation will be payable to one surviving parent or 40% of final compensation will be payable to two surviving parents in equal shares.

As used in this paragraph, “adjusted final compensation” means the amount of final compensation or final compensation as adjusted, as the case may be, increased by the same percentage increase which is applied in any adjustments of the compensation schedule of active members after the member's death and before the date on which the deceased member of the retirement system would have accrued 25 years of service under an assumption of continuous service, at which time the amount resulting from such increases shall become fixed and shall be the basis for adjustments pursuant to the Pension Adjustment Act, P.L.1958, c. 143 (C.43:3B-1 et seq.). Any adjustments to final compensation or adjusted final compensation shall take effect at the same time as any adjustments in the compensation schedule of active members. The provisions of the Pension Adjustment Act shall not apply to any pension based upon adjusted final compensation other than the fixed pension in effect at the conclusion of the 25-year period. The compensation due to a beneficiary identified in this subsection shall be paid directly to any trust established for the benefit of such beneficiary pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4), any successor statute, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. Such trust may be the beneficiary of, or the vehicle for, any benefit to which the beneficiary is due or will be due upon the death of the member pursuant to this subsection.

(2) In the event of accidental death occurring in the first year of creditable service, the benefits, payable pursuant to this subsection, shall be computed at the annual rate of compensation.

- f. (Deleted by amendment.)
- g. (Deleted by amendment.)
- h. In addition to the foregoing benefits, the State shall pay to the member's employer-sponsored health insurance program all health insurance premiums for the coverage of the member's surviving spouse and surviving children.
