Mr. Condit having received a majority of the votes was declared duly elected.

Mr. Patterson and Mr. House were appointed to conduct the Speaker to the chair.

Upon taking the chair the Speaker addressed the House as follows :

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY:—I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me in electing me to preside over your deliberations. Inexperienced in the duties of the position, I shall need and bespeak your kind indulgence and friendly aid and co-operation. I pledge you an earnest endeavor on my part to be just to all, and to fairly and impartially administer such rules as you may hereafter adopt for your government.

We have met to legislate for the State of New Jersey. There are no questions of national importance, that can be affected by our action. The country is at peace, and many years of peaceful growth and developement seem to be in store for us as a people. There is apparently only one drawback to our continued prosperity, and that is the large national, state and local debt. By the constitution of the state all laws for raising revenue, must originate in the House of Assembly. It behooves us to do what we can to lessen the burthen of the state and local taxation, and to exercise a wise discrimination in protecting such interests as most need our fostering care. As we are the immediate representatives of the people, we should be quick to discern and to respond to the popular will. If I rightly understand the popular sentiment, what the people most want of us at the present time is absolute purity in legislation, and an economical and honest administration of the government. Let it be our aim then, to legislate well and wisely for the state, and to guard and protect its interests with the same watchfulness and fidelity as we do our own; and let us be careful not to enrich and endow individuals or corporations to the detriment of the state. If we thus act and legislate, we shall have the approval of our own consciences, and all receive the commendation of the people.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Clerk.

Mr. Barton nominated Alexander M. Cumming, of the county of Mercer.

Mr. Maxwell nominated Alexander M. Johnston, of the county of Mercer.

Upon the call of the roll the following members voted for Alexander M. Cumming :

on the Treasurer's account.

JOINT COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

TREASURER'S OFFICE, }
TRENTON, N. J., November 23d, 1870. }

To the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey :

The Joint Committee of the Legislature appointed to examine the accounts of the State Treasurer, Hon. William P. McMichael, do respectfully report :

That they have made a careful examination of the same together with the vouchers for receipts and disbursements, and find them systematically kept and correct in every particular.

The balance sheet and statements hereto annexed, present a true and accurate account of the transactions of the past fiscal year, together with the balance remaining from the business of former years, as found in the books entrusted to the Treasurer.

To the credit of the State Fund is forty-nine thousand one hundred and seventy-nine dollars and ninety-five cents.	$49,179.95
To the credit of the School Fund is four thousand, six hundred and thirty-seven dollars and ninety-seven cents.	4,637.97
To the credit of the War Fund, one thousand and sixty-seven dollars and fifty cents.	1,067.50

To the credit of the Bank Note Redemption Fund, one hundred and twenty-seven dollars and two cents. 127.02

To the credit of the State Library Fund, seven hundred and ninety-one dollars and ninety-eight cents. 791.98

Which said amounts are deposited in Bank as directed by law.

The securities belonging to the State Fund, to the School Fund and to the Agricultural College Fund, and the Certificates of Public Stock, were all found in the possession of the Treasurer.

Before closing this report, the Committee desire to express their gratification at the able and systematic manner in which the accounts of the State Treasurer have been kept; neatness and accuracy seem to have been the leading characteristics in the discharge of every duty imposed upon him; that he has given close and steady attention to the interests of the State, is shown by the prompt and careful manner in which all the business of the office has been transacted. His fidelity as a public officer can in no wise be impugned, and his financial skill has eminently fitted him for the important position he so ably filled to the satisfaction of the people.

JOB H. GASKILL,
Senate Committee.

J. M. SHARP,
AUSTIN H. PATTERSON,
CHARLES C. GROSSCUP,

WILLIAM H. BARTON,
House Committee.

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Hemingway presented the following petition :

Samuel A. McGregor, and others, engaged in the business of transportation over the Erie railway, represent that most of them, by the unjust, tyrannical and extortionate action of the Erie Railway Company in the premises, had their business entirely ruined, and their ordinary and usual means of obtaining a livelihood destroyed, and that they have been reduced to poverty, while others of your memorialist are awaiting the tardy action of the courts, hindered and baffled by the tricks and subterfuges of the counsel of the Erie Railway Company.

Your memorialists are citizens of New Jersey, they acknowledge themselves unable to cope with and contend in the courts, and before even your honorable bodies, against the array of talent which the Erie Company with eighteen millions of revenue in their hands, of a management that is reckless, dishonest, extortionate, unscrupulous and irresponsible; we can only lay our cause at the feet of the Legislature, and await patiently and humbly at the bar of the court for such remedies as the Legislature and the courts, in whose keeping we are, may vouchsafe.

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Corporations, and ordered to be printed for the use of the members.

Mr. Sanxay from the Committee on Rules made the following report:

That the rules of the Ninety fourth General Assembly (session of 1870,) be adopted, and that in addition to the usual information furnished in the appendix to the same, the United States Census of the State of New Jersey for 1870, by counties and towns be printed, and, also that the usual number of copies be printed for the use of the members of the House.

RULES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE LEGISLATURE OF NEW JERSEY, SESSION OF 1871.

OF THE MEETING OF THE HOUSE.

1. Any member or members less than a quorum may meet and adjourn the House from day to day, when necessary.

2. Every member shall attend in his place precisely at the hour to which the House was last adjourned; and in case of neglect he shall be subject to a reprimand from the Chair, unless excused by the House; nor shall any member absent himself from the House for more than a space of a quarter of an hour without leave previously obtained.

3. In case a less number of members than a quorum shall be present after the arrival of the hour to which the House stood adjourned, they are hereby authorized to send their Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person or persons by them authorized, with a warrant duly executed, for any or all absent members, as the majority of such as are present may agree, and at the expense of such absent members, respectively, unless such excuse for non-attendance shall be rendered as the House, when a quorum is convened, shall judge sufficient. Immediately after the appointment of the Standing Committees the members shall arrange among themselves their several seats appropriated to their counties; and in case of disagreement the same shall be decided by lot.

OF THE DUTIES OF THE SPEAKER.

4. He shall take the chair at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned, and immediately call the members to order; and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read, which may then be corrected by the House.

5. He shall preserve order and decorum, and in debate shall prevent personal reflections, and confine members to the question under discussion; but he shall not engage in any debate, nor propose his opinion on any question, without first calling on some member to occupy the Chair. When two or more members rise at the same time, he shall name the one entitled to the floor.

6. He shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the House, when demanded by any four members, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the House.

7. All questions before the House shall be stated by the Speaker, and distinctly put in the following form, to wit: "As many as are in favor of [the question] will say aye;" and after the affirmative is expressed, "those of the contrary opinion, no." If the Speaker doubts, or a division be called for, the House shall divide; those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative; and in case of an equal division the Speaker shall decide.

8. All Committees shall be appointed by the Speaker, unless otherwise specially directed by the House.

9. All acts, addresses and joint resolutions shall be signed by the Speaker; and all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the House shall be under his hand and seal, and attested by the Clerk. If the Speaker be absent, a less number of members than a quorum may appoint a Speaker pro tempore, who may sign any warrants or perform any act requisite to bring in absent members.

10. He shall have a general direction of the Hall, and he may name a member to perform the duties of the Chair; but such substitution shall not extend beyond a second adjournment.

OF THE ORDER OF BUSINESS.

11. After the reading of the journal, the business of the first meeting of each day shall be conducted in the following manner, to wit:

I. Letters, petitions, memorials, remonstrances and accompanying documents may be presented and disposed of.

II. Reports of Committees may be read.

III. Original resolutions may be offered and considered; items of unfinished business referred; motions to reconsider and to appoint additional members of Committees made; and leave of absence, leave to withdraw documents and leave to introduce bills asked.

LEAVE FOR BILLS AND TO INTRODUCE BILLS.

IV. Bills and joint resolutions on a third reading may be taken up.

V. The House shall then proceed in the order of the day, preference being always given to the unfinished business of the preceding sitting; after which bills and joint resolutions on a second reading shall be taken in their order; and the House, in its afternoon session, will proceed to business as though there had been no adjournment of its morning session, excepting that original resolutions and leave to introduce bills of Committees be the first business in the afternoon sitting; and shall, on demand of the majority, proceed with the order of the day.

12. The Clerk shall make a list of all public bills and joint resolutions. He shall keep a separate calendar of private bills. No bills for granting, continuing, altering, amending or renewing a charter for any corporation other than a municipal corporation shall be placed on the calendar of public bills. All bills, public and private, shall be numbered according to the time of their introduction into the House. They shall be taken up and considered in the order of time in which they were reported or ordered to a third reading, as appears by the calendar; and the calendar shall be proceeded in until all the bills thereon are called up before the commencement of the calendar anew.

13. All messages shall be sent from this House to the Senate by the Clerk.

OF DECORUM AND DEBATE.

14. When a member is about to speak in debate, or communicate any matter to the House, he shall rise from his seat, and respectfully address himself to the Speaker, confining himself to the question under debate, and avoiding personality.

15. If any member in debate transgress the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. The House shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, he shall not be permitted to proceed without leave of the House; and if the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House.

16. If a member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table; and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to the censure of the House, for words spoken in debate, if any other member has spoken, or other business has intervened after the words spoken, and before exception to them shall have been taken.

17. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

18. While the Speaker is putting any question, or addressing the House, none shall walk out of or across the hall; nor, in such case, or when a member is speaking, shall any one entertain private discourse; nor shall any one, while a member is speaking, pass between him and the Chair.

19. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is particularly interested, nor in any case where he is not within the bar of the House when the question was put.

20. Every member who shall be in the House when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the House, for special reasons, shall excuse him. All motions to excuse a member from voting shall be made before the House divides, or before the call of the yeas and nays is commenced; and any member requesting to be excused from voting may make a brief verbal statement of the reasons for making such request; and the question shall then be taken without further debate.

21. Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House shall be presented by the Speaker, or by a member in his place. A brief statement of the contents thereof shall be made by the introducer, and, if called upon, he shall declare that it does not, in his opinion, contain any indecent or reproachful language, or any expressions of disrespect to the House, or any Committee of the same.

22. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms at all times not to allow any person to smoke in the Assembly Chamber.

ON MOTIONS.

23. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the Speaker or any member desire it.

24. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or, being in writing, it shall be handed to the Chair and read aloud by the clerk, when it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House, and open to debate; but it may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

25. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but—

1. To adjourn.
2. A call of the House.
3. To lay on the table.
4. For the previous question.
5. To postpone indefinitely.
6. To postpone to a day certain.

7 To go into a Committee of the Whole on the pending subject immediately.

8. To commit to a Committee of the Whole.
9. To commit to a Standing Committee.
10. To commit to a Select Committee.
11. To amend.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are stated, and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

26. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill or joint resolution, shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection.

27. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when the House is voting, or while a member is addressing the House, or immediately after the question to adjourn has been negatived; that, and the motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

28. Any member may call for the division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends questions so distinct that one being taken away the rest may stand entire for the decision of the House; a motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out being lost shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

29. When any motion shall be made and seconded, the same shall, at the request of any two members, be entered on the journal of the House.

30. When a motion has once been made and carried in the affirmative or negative it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing party to move for the reconsideration thereof the same day, or the next day of actual session of the House thereafter; all motions may be reconsidered by a majority of members present; but bills, to be reconsidered, must have the same majority that would be necessary to pass them.

31. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall first be taken on the largest sum, greatest number, and remotest day.

32. The yeas and nays shall be entered on the Journal on every question taken in the House, when moved for and seconded by five members; and in taking the yeas and nays the names of the member, including the Speaker, shall be called alphabetically.

33. The previous question shall be in this form : "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be if decided affirmatively, to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a direct vote upon amendments reported by a Committee, if any, then upon pending amendments and then upon the main question; if decided in the negative, to leave the main question and amendments, if any, under debate for the residue of the sitting, unless sooner disposed of by taking the question, or in some other manner. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

34. After the Clerk has commenced calling the yeas and nays on any question, no motion shall be received until a decision has been announced by the Chair.

OF COMMITTEES.

35. The following Standing Committees shall be appointed at the commencement of the session, until otherwise ordered :

A Committee on Ways and Means ;

A Committee on the Judiciary ;

A Committee on Agriculture ;

A Committee on Education ;

A Committee on Elections ;

A Committee on Banks and Insurance ;

A Committee on Unfinished Business ;

A Committee on Incidental Expenses ;

A Committee on Stationery ;

A Committee on Riparian Rights ;

A Committee on Miscellaneous Subjects ;

Which several Committees shall consist of five members each.

JOINT COMMITTEES.

The following Joint Committees, of five members each, shall be also appointed to act conjointly with corresponding Committees to be appointed by the Senate :

A Committee on the Treasurer's Accounts ;

A Committee on the State Prison.

A Committee on the Public Printing ;

A Committee on the Library ;

A Committee on the Lunatic Asylum ;

A Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings ;

A Committee on Commerce and Navigation ;

A Committee on Passed Bills ;

A Committee on Federal Relations ;

A Committee on Sinking Fund ;

A Committee on Soldiers' Children's Home ;

A Committee on Soldiers' Home at Newark ;

A Committee on Reform School for Boys.

36. The several Standing Committees of the House shall have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

37. No Committees shall sit during the sitting of the House without special leave.

38. All Committees appointed at the first sitting shall continue to act during every subsequent sitting of the same Legislature, or until they have reported on the business committed to them, or have been discharged.

OF COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

39. In forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his Chair, and a Chairman to preside in Committee shall be appointed by the Speaker.

40. The rules of proceeding in the House shall be observed, as far as practicable, in Committee of the Whole, except that a member may speak oftener than twice on the same subject, but shall not speak a second time until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken; nor shall a motion for the previous question be made therein.

41. All amendments made in Committee of the Whole shall be noted by the Clerk, but need not be read by the Speaker on his resuming the Chair, unless required by the House.

ON BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

42. All bills and joint resolutions shall be introduced by motion for leave, or on the report of a Committee, and the member offering the same shall endorse his name on them, that the Committees may confer with him should they so desire.

43. Every bill and joint resolution shall receive three separate readings in the House previous to its passage; but no bill or joint resolution shall be read twice on the same day without special order of the House.

44. All bills and joint resolutions, after the first reading, shall be printed for the use of the members, and afterwards referred to the appropriate Committees.

45. All bills and joint resolutions may be made the order of a particular day, on which day they shall be taken up in preference to others on the calendar; and the calendar of private bills shall not be taken up until the calendar of public bills shall have been gone through with.

46. All bills and joint resolutions, previous to their final passage by the House, all petitions, motions and reports, may be committed at the pleasure of the House.

47. All bills and joint resolutions ordered to be engrossed shall be executed in a fair round hand; and no amendment by way of rider shall be received to any bill or joint resolution on its third reading.

48. On a motion to strike out any item in the incidental bill, the question to be submitted to the House shall be, "Shall the item be retained in the bill?" and a majority of all the members of the House shall be necessary to adopt the same.

49. After the introduction of any private bill the applicants for the said bill shall, at their own expense, furnish the usual number of copies for the use of the members, unless the printing thereof be dispensed with by a special order of the House.

50. On the question of the final passage of all bills and joint resolutions the yeas and nays shall be entered on the Journal of the House.

51. Whenever a bill or resolution that has passed the House shall be carried to the Senate, all papers and documents relating thereto, on the files of the House, shall be carried with such bill or resolution to the Senate.

OF RULES.

52. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor; nor shall any rule be suspended except by a vote of a majority of the whole number of members of the House.

53. When an Assembly bill is returned amended by the Senate, the report thereof by the Secretary of the Senate shall be taken as the first reading, and the same be entitled to a second reading, without a motion for that purpose; after its second reading the question shall be: "Shall the Senate amendments to Assembly bill No. --, have a third reading?" If ordered to a third reading the amendments shall be read, but these readings shall be on different days; the question shall then be, "Will the House of Assembly concur in the Senate amendments to Assembly bill No. --?" Upon which question the vote shall be by ayes and nays. If concurred in by a majority of the whole House, the bill shall be re-engrossed, the amendments embodied therein, and the re-engrossed bill examined and reported upon by the Committee on Engrossed Bills, and read in open Assembly, to the end that it may be known to be correctly engrossed, and then signed and certified as other bills.

54. Cushing's Manuel shall in all cases when not in conflict with the rules adopted by the House, be considered and held as standard authority.

JOINT RULES AND ORDERS OF THE SENATE AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY, SESSION OF 1871.

1. In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one House and dissented to in the other, if either House shall request a conference and appoint a Committee for that purpose, and the other House shall also appoint a Committee to confer, such Committee shall, at a convenient hour to be agreed on by their respective Chairmen, meet in conference, and state to each other, verbally or in writing, as either shall choose, the reasons of their respective Houses for and against the amendment, and confer freely thereon.

2. After each House shall have adhered to their disagreement, a bill or resolution is lost.

3. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed in one House is rejected in the other, notice thereof shall be sent to the House in which the same may have passed.

4. Each House in which any bill or resolution shall have passed shall transmit therewith to the other House all papers and documents relating to the same.

5. When a message shall be sent from either House to the other, it shall be announced at the door of the House by the Doorkeeper, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it is sent.

6. After a bill shall have passed both Houses it shall be delivered by the Clerk of the Assembly, or the Secretary of the Senate, as the bill may have originated in the one House or in the other, to a Joint Committee on Passed Bills, of two from each House, appointed as a Standing Committee for that purpose, and shall be presented by the said Committee to the Governor for his approbation, it being first endorsed on the back of the bill, certifying in which House the same had originated, which endorsement shall be signed by the Secretary or Clerk as the case may be, of the House in which the same did originate, and shall be entered on the Journal of each House. The said Committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall also be carefully entered on the Journal of each House.

Which was read and adopted.

The Speaker presented the following from Roland Johnson, of the county of Essex :

To the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey :

Mr. Alcott offered the following:

To the Governor, Senate, and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

This memorial of the Representative Committee of the Yearly meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, held in Philadelphia, for Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, and part of Maryland, respectfully represents:

That the evils arising from the sale and use of intoxicating liquors, as a drink, having claimed our serious consideration, we have felt it to be our duty to endeavor briefly to call your attention to the subject in all its bearings. The practice is utterly void of advantage to the individual or the State. We believe it to be the most fruitful known source of crime, entailing misery and wretchedness, both physical and mental, upon its immediate victims and their posterity; that it supplies more inmates to insane asylums, prisons, and almshouses than any other cause; that the cost to the community in money, in addition to the moral depravity it engenders, in the occupancy of courts of justice in prosecutions for crimes committed under its influence, and the increase of taxes for the support of almshouses, necessitated by the poverty it produces, far exceeds the income derived to the State from the sale of licenses. Were it otherwise, has the State a moral right to license this fruitful source of crime for the purpose of revenue? The places where liquor is sold are legion. The foul taint thereof is upon the breath of youth and age, in most places of public resort. We believe the increasing magnitude of this evil to be so great that it is second to none that can claim your attention. We respectfully but most earnestly appeal to you, as the representatives of a professed Christian community, whose duty it is to enact wholesome laws for the promotion and protection of virtue, as the surest guarantee for the public good, that you may solemnly consider the subject, and, by the exercise of the power delegated to you, do what you can to arrest and diminish this flood of iniquity.

We have laws for the protection of property and life, whilst we sanction by license means that may prove destructive to body and soul.

We therefore request you to abolish all laws granting licenses in this State for the sale of intoxicating liquors as a drink, and substitute laws entirely prohibiting such sale. Whilst we thus desire that the poisonous streams now surrounding the paths of the youth, luring them to destruction, shall forever cease, we shall hail with joy any modification of our laws approximating to so desirable an end.

Signed by direction and on behalf of said committee,

CALEB CLOTHIER, Clerk.

Mr. Barton offered the following Memorial from Charles W. Jay.

To the Members of the New Jersey Legislature :

Your memorialist would represent, that by systematic, secret manipulation, the cost of the State printing has increased from year to year, until at last it has reached a magnitude of expenditure that demands inquiry and reform. It has become a mere placer of corruption, whereby unscrupulous partizans fill their unworthy pockets at the expense of the honest laborers of the State, charging and receiving more than double the price at which skillful and responsible printers would gladly execute the work. Your memorialist would respectfully suggest that there is neither honesty nor justice in this, and that a period of universal taxation, State and National, is not the fitting time to squander, upon small politicians, the money wrung from industry for the necessities of government.

Your memorialist would further state, that he is now willing to do the requisite printing of legislation for thirty per cent. less than the price now charged by Messrs. Murphy & Bechtel, and that he has all the material and labor at hand necessary to the prompt fulfilment of this proposition, and that he is prepared to give abundant security for the faithful performance of all the obligations of the contract.

Your memorialist would further respectfully suggest, that at the election which placed you in power, thousands of voters of adverse politics, knowing the necessity of reform, were willing to test the professions of a party of great moral ideas, in the hope that some good might come out of Nazareth, and voted the Republican ticket. Surely, now, when common honesty harmonizes with political policy, moral ideas should obtain a recognition, despite the clamors and protests of the mere mercenary feeders on the substance of the people. Respectfully your fellow citizen.

CHARLES W. JAY.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Printing.

Mr. Irwin offered the following:

Resolved, That the printing of this House, bills, pamphlets, reports, &c., for the remainder of the session, be given to Charles W. Jay, of the State Sentinel, at thirty per cent. less than the price now charged by Murphy & Betchel, for the same kind of work.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on printing.

Also,

The bill entitled

An act to incorporate the New Jersey Club.

Also,

The bill entitled

A supplement to an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Morristown Institution of Savings."

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

A message was received from the Senate, by Mr. Babcock, their Secretary, informing the House of Assembly that the Senate has passed the following

Senate bill entitled

An act to divide Downe township, in the county of Cumberland, into four road districts, and to provide for raising money, and for the election of overseers in the same.

Also,

Senate bill entitled

A supplement to an act "To incorporate the city of Salem."

In which the concurrence of the House of Assembly is requested.

Said bills were read a first time by their titles, and referred to their appropriate committees.

Mr. Bruere, from the Committee on Stationery, after careful consideration would respectfully report the following resolutions, and request the concurrence of the House therein.

Resolved. That the Stationery Committee shall furnish each member of the House with an order for thirty dollars worth of stationery upon either Mr. Jordan, of Jersey City, or Mr. Dudley, of Trenton, as the members may elect.

Resolved. That the regular reporters and officers of the House, be included in the foregoing resolution.

Which was read and indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Leaming, presented a petition from George Young, praying for the impeachment of Waters B. Miller, mayor of the city of Cape May, for unlawfully hindering him while in the peaceful pursuit of his occupation.

Which was ordered to be printed and to lie on the table.

Mr. Leslie, presented the petition of the inhabitants of the townships of Washington and Monroe, most respectfully asking your honorable bodies to pass a law to annex the said townships to the county of Gloucester,

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Kitchell, presented a petition from citizens of the Third Assembly District of Essex county, irrespective of party politics, petitioning the Legislature regarding the doing away with the Soldiers' Home, located in the Eighth ward of the city of Newark. It is considered by all who know anything concerning this institution, that it is no longer needed, and is the source of unnecessary expense to the state, and much annoyance to all persons residing in this locality. A home for all the unoccupied, not only of our state, but everywhere else; where the victims of the rum shops congregate to live upon the generosity of our overtaxed people. We at the same time think that those of our wounded, belonging to our state, worthy of additional aid, beside the pension they receive from the general government, should receive such aid as would make them comfortable by economy, if the state deem the applicant or applicants worthy of such additional aid; and we further deem that they should secure this aid at their homes with their families, if married, and if single, we hold the proper place for them is the National Home, either in the east or west, according to the desire of the applicant. By this mode of dealing with those who are worthy of the attention and care of the state will be the means of reducing materially the expenses of maintaining our crippled soldiers, and be much more in consonance with their desires, than the present mode of conducting their affairs. It will also do away with the salaries paid annually to a class of officials who have already enough of the good things of this world without seeking to add more to their already well supplied coffers.

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Van Riper introduced

The bill entitled

A supplement to the act entitled "An act to improve certain roads or avenues in the township of Hackensack, in the county of Bergen," approved February sixteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy.

Which was read a first time by its title, ordered to have a second reading, and referred to Committee on Municipal Corporations.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON, February 14, 1871. }

TO THE LEGISLATURE:—

Prof. George H. Cook, State Geologist, having indicated to the Board of Managers of the Geological Survey his purpose to visit portions of Europe during the past summer, he was requested to obtain such information as might seem to him to be of value to our agricultural interests.

The result of his labors are herewith transmitted to your honorable bodies, and I beg to request a careful examination of the report he submits.

I think you will justify me in the opinion that no more interesting or valuable Department report has been placed before the Legislature of New Jersey for many years, nor one which the people of the State will receive with greater advantage to themselves.

Respectfully,

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

Concurrent Resolution,

Be it Resolved, By the Senate, (the House of Assembly concurring,) that a joint meeting of the Legislature be held in the Assembly chamber, this Thursday afternoon, at fifteen minutes past three o'clock, for the purpose of electing a State Treasurer and other officers.

In which the concurrence of the House of Assembly is requested.

Which was read and accepted.

Mr. H. W. Wilson from the Committee on Lunatic Asylum reported that they find the patients in the Asylum as comfortably kept as the crowded state of the institution will allow. There are one hundred and twenty more patients in the institution than there ought to be. The committee think a new building ought to be erected and approve of the plans of the Commissioners of 1868. As to the location, the committee have come to the conclusion that the people of the whole state would be better accommodated if the new institution is placed in a central position and near the present structure than in any extreme section. It is also believed that the cost of the erection and subsequent management will be less to the State and institution, in this than in any other locality. It is easily accessible. The site proposed is on lands adjoining those owned by the State and are well adapted for the purpose in all respects. The amount of land now attainable for the purpose is 221 acres. In the present Asylum property there are 111 acres.

Which was read and the usual number of copies ordered to be printed for the use of the House.

A message from the Senate, by Mr. Babcock, their Secretary, informed the House of Assembly that the Senate has passed the following

Concurrent Resolution,

Resolved, (The House of Assembly concurring,) that with the view of insuring greater permanence, efficiency and economy in the administration of the State Prison, a joint committee of four Senators and six Members of the House of Assembly and the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Assembly, be appointed to confer together upon the subject, and that they be directed to nominate to the next joint meeting of the Legislature, suitable persons for keeper and inspector of the prison.

In which the concurrence of the House of Assembly is requested.

Which was read and on motion of Mr. Barton was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Bruere, from the Committee on Banks and Insurance, to whom were referred

The bill entitled

A supplement to an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Railroad Office Clerk's Mutual Life Insurance Association of the United States," approved February sixteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Sanxay offered the following

To the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey :

The undersigned, citizens of this State, respectfully represent, That they are travellers and freighters upon the Morris & Essex Railroad, and deeply interested in having speedy and safe transit to the City of New York; that Bergen Tunnel, through which said Road passes, is a public highway; that while the ownership of each and every public highway may be in private parties, the right to the easement or passage over every such highway is in the public, to be by them enjoyed fully without any needless obstruction or annoyance, and subject only to such necessary regulations as will best conduce to the public transit and safety; that heretofore the exclusive management of said highway has been claimed and is now exercised by the Erie Railroad Company, who, by a recent and arbitrary change of regulations, have caused a great waste of time to the traveling public, in compelling the trains of the Morris & Essex Railroad Company to remain at the mouth of the Tunnel, and while the Tunnel is not in use; that controversies have arisen between said Company and another Road using said Tunnel, concerning said management with this result: That the transit of both passengers and freight over the said highway has been daily, greatly and needlessly obstructed and rendered uncertain and unsafe to thousands of the citizens of the State; that the delivery of the mails of the United States have been, and are now, daily delayed, to the serious annoyance and discomfort of the business community; and that at one time the power of the State was invoked, when in the language of the Executive, "the danger to the public peace was considered more imminent, than upon any occasion within the State for many years;" that these daily and constantly obstructions to business and delivery of the mails are very damaging to the property and interests of the people, and their lives have been put in hazard in passing over said highway, and that a recent fearful destruction of human life upon a neighboring road admonishes us to use every endeavor to secure the wise, skillful, and impartial management of so important and crowded a thoroughfare as the Bergen Tunnel.

We therefore pray your honorable bodies to enact a law, appointing a Commission, whose duty it shall be, in the name of, and in behalf of, the State, to take charge of, and control the management of the tunnel, so that the public peace be maintained, safety to life secured, the rights of the public enforced and protected, the transit of passengers and freight remain unobstructed, and the delivery of the United States mails be not interfered with, and such other relief as to your honorable bodies may seem necessary and proper.

And your petitioners will ever pray.

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Messrs. Valentine, Yates, Martin and Blancke, presented petitions from citizens of the respective districts asking for the passage of a law permitting the legal voters of each Township or Ward in the State to decide at their regular Annual Township Meeting, by a majority vote, whether intoxicating or alcoholic liquors shall be licensed to be sold as a beverage within the boundaries of said Township or Ward.

Which were read and ordered to lie on the table.

Accompanied with the following petition.

To the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

The undersigned, citizens of this State, respectfully represent, That they are travelers and freighters upon the Morris and Essex Railroad, and deeply interested in having speedy and safe transit to the City of New York; that Bergen Tunnel, through which said road passes, is a public highway; that while the ownership of each and every public highway may be in private parties, the right to the easement or passage over every such highway is in the public, to be by them enjoyed fully without any needless obstruction or annoyance, and subject only to such necessary regulations as will best conduce to the public transit and safety; that heretofore the exclusive management of said highway has been claimed and is now exercised by the Erie Railroad Company, who, by a recent and arbitrary change of regulations, have caused a great waste of time to the travelling public, in compelling the trains of the Morris & Essex Railroad Company to remain at the mouth of the Tunnel, and while the Tunnel is not in use; that controversies have arisen between said Company and another road using said Tunnel, concerning said management, with this result: That the transit of both passengers and freight over the said highway has been daily, greatly and needlessly obstructed and rendered uncertain and unsafe to thousands of the citizens of the State; that the delivery of the mails of the United States have been, and are now, daily delayed, to the serious annoyance and discomfort of the business community; and that at one time the power of the State was invoked, when, in the language of the Executive, "the danger to the public peace was considered more imminent than upon any occasion within the State for many years;" that these daily and constant obstructions to business and delivery of the mails are very damaging to the property and interests of the people, and their lives have been put in hazard in passing over said highway, and that a recent fearful destruction of human life upon a neighboring road admonishes us to use every endeavor to secure the wise, skilful, and impartial management of so important and crowded a thoroughfare as the Bergen Tunnel.

We therefore pray your honorable bodies to enact a law, appointing a Commission, whose duty it shall be, in the name of, and in behalf of, the State, to take charge of and control the management of the Tunnel, so that the public peace be maintained, safety to life secured, the rights of the public enforced and protected, the transit of passengers and freight remain unobstructed, and the delivery of the United States mails be not interfered with, and such other relief as to your honorable bodies may seem necessary and proper.

The bill entitled

A further supplement to an act entitled "An act to revise and amend the charter of the city of Elizabeth," approved March fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

Reported the same with the recommendation that it do not pass.

And also presented the following petition, signed by 800 citizens.

To the Honorable, the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey.

The undersigned, citizens, taxpayers and owners of property of the city of Elizabeth, most respectfully represent to your honorable bodies, that they have learned of the introduction of a bill known as Assembly Bill No. 216, which they believe to be subversive of the chartered rights of the city of Elizabeth and its inhabitants. That the said bill contains provisions which vests a power in the hands of the Mayor which he does not desire, nor has it ever been deemed proper to place such power in the hand of any executive officer, either State or National. The said bill further places the control of the financial affairs of the city in the hands of men who are not responsible to either the people or the City Council as the regularly constituted authorities elected by the people, and would prove ruinous to the financial interests of our city. We therefore respectfully but earnestly remonstrate against its passage.

ELIZABETH, February 16th, 1871.

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

AFTERNOON.

TUESDAY, March 14, 1871.

At 3 o'clock the House met.

Upon the call of the roll, the following members answered to their names :

Messrs. Alcott, Anness, Barton, Blancke, Bradshaw, Bruere, Canfield, Condit, [Speaker,] Dickinson, Doty, Fielder, Fisher, Heinisch, Heimingway, Hitchner, Hopper, Horn, Joy, Kitchell, Kugler, Lefevre, Leslie, Maxwell, Niles, O'Brien, Overheiser, Patterson, Perkins, Roberts, Rulon, Runyon, Sanderson, Sanxay, Smith, Statts, Torbet, Valentine, Van Riper, Voorhees, Warin, H. W. Wilson, Woolery—42.

Mr. Sanxay, presented a petition from citizens of the county of Essex, asking the Legislature to enact into a law the bill supplementary to the act creating the Essex Public Road Board, as your petitioners believe that the Avenues therein provided for, will be of great public utility in opening up said county to a more speedy and harmonious development, and as such, great public thoroughfares cannot easily be secured after the county becomes densely populated.

Mr. Condit presented a remonstrance from residents and property owners in the township of Bloomfield, in the county of Essex, against the passage of an act introduced in the Senate of the State, being Senate bill, number 254, being "a further supplement to the act constituting a Public Road Board in the county of Essex." The undersigned, believe the proposed act to be uncalled for by any public consideration, and to be a species of special legislation which, on general grounds ought not to be recognized or granted by your honorable body. They represent that the operation and effect of said act will be injurious to many property holders, and oppressive to the tax payers affected thereby. That the roads therein proposed to be made can, if the same be needed for convenience, be laid out and opened under general laws already enacted; and that the proposed act limited to the roads therein named is unnecessary and dangerous as a precedent.

Mr. House, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred

The bill entitled

An act concerning roads in the township of Landis.

Reported the same without amendment.

Mr. Barton presented the following :

The undersigned, lot owners in the Mercer Cemetery Company, located in the city of Trenton, beg leave respectfully to remonstrate against the passage of a supplement before your Honorable Body, to allow said Cemetery Company to sell a portion of said grounds. These grounds were purchased for ornamental purposes, and as such, being a slope to the Assanpink Creek, are admirably adapted to the purpose. If this part is sold and appropriated to other purposes the view to the Creek will be shut off. We are opposed because there is no necessity for such sale, and because the supplement does not say how much they propose to sell, or in what way the money is to be appropriated, or how much is to be appropriated. The number of the bill is Assembly No. 317, and we pray that the same may not pass.

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. O'Brien presented the following:

To the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey.

Your attention is called, in the selection of sites for Public Buildings, to the following proposal of the subscriber.

LAKEVIEW, in the most thriving section of the State, comprises an elevated ridge of table land, from the heights of which a perspective of from twenty to twenty-five miles can be had, embracing the most beautiful river, valley and mountain scenery in the State. It overlooks the city of Paterson and the village of Passaic, presents a stretch of view of the Dundee Lake and Passaic river for several miles, and is pierced by four railroad lines, making it the most accessible of any other locality, whilst its salubrity of atmosphere and beauty of landscape make it the most desirable place in these respects for the State Capitol.

If the State of New Jersey will accept the proposal and build a State House thereon, I will donate for the purpose, one hundred of the most valuable lots, in the choicest section, upon avenues 120 feet in width.

JAMES CROOKS.

The Speaker presented the following:

NEWARK, N. J. March 20th, 1871.

To the Honorable the Senate and General Assembly.

GENTLEMEN: It having been determined by your Honorable Bodies to sell the vessel known as "Stevens Battery," devised by the late Hon. Edwin A. Stevens to the State of New Jersey, I would respectfully suggest that the income, derived from the sale of the same, be appropriated to the New Jersey Home for Disabled Soldiers, and to the Soldiers' Children's Home. The object of the first being the support of indigent, sick and wounded soldiers of the State, and of the latter, that of the care and education of the orphan children of those who died in defence of the Republic, both commend themselves to your favorable consideration. Mr. Stevens, the donor of the vessel to the State, was one of the original managers of the Home for Soldiers, and always took the deepest interest in its management, and it is believed that the direction of the funds would be most agreeable to his feelings, were he here to be consulted. While this use of the money would accomplish the greatest possible good to those to whom we owe most, and would insure adequate care to the brave men who lost their health, and to the orphan children of those whose lives were given to their country, it would, at the same time, save the necessity of collecting by taxation, the money for the support of these institutions.

When in the course of time there shall be no further occasion for this appropriation of the funds, the income might be appropriated to the general purposes of education, in which subject also, the liberal donor was greatly interested—or to any other object which the wisdom of the legislature should determine.

Very Respectfully,

MARCUS L. WARD.

Which was read and ordered to be printed.

And referred to the Committee on the Soldiers' Children's Home.

The Speaker presented the following communication from the Governor, which was received from the Senate.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, }
TRENTON, March 21st, 1871. }

To the Legislature :

I am constantly urged, by large numbers of our most respectable citizens, of both political parties, to interpose the Executive prerogative of returning bills disapproved, and thus attempt to obtain a reconsideration of the action of the Legislature.

As the session draws to a close, the appeals of this description are most numerous and urgent, and coming as they do from our own fellow-citizens, whose good opinion it has been my highest ambition to deserve, I cannot refrain from expressing to you, and through you as representatives to them, my views of the only safe and proper exercise—under our State Constitution—of the veto power.

It will be recollected :

First—That the power has to be exercised within five days from the presentation of a bill to the Executive, and the reasons for its exercise submitted to the House in which the bill originated.

Second—That although both Houses may have unanimously voted for a bill vetoed by the Governor, the “veto” is set aside, the objections overridden, and the bill made a law, despite the Executive objections—if a mere majority of the members, of both Houses so decide,

I am thus particular in stating these facts, because of the popular notion that a two-thirds vote is required of the Legislature to set aside a veto. As I have shown, and as your Honorable Bodies are aware, a much smaller vote than that usual in passing bills may override the Executive objection.

At the close of the session of your immediate predecessors, I was requested to withhold my signature from many legislative bills. Had I acted upon my personal disposition alone, and not upon my sense of official duty, restricted as it seemed to me to be, by clear constitutional limits, or by constitutional implication of duty, equally strong, I should in very many instances, have withheld my approval.

In March, 1870, the Collector of Jersey City having requested me to withhold my signature from a bill affecting the revenue of that city, I made answer to him, which gave then as it gives now, my views of the proper exercise of the veto power. I here leave to quote a portion of it as follows:

“Upon assuming the duties of the Executive office, I determined to fulfil it according to my ability, in consonance with the letter and spirit of our form of government, using the “veto” power only in such cases as were clearly unconstitutional, where unintentional mistakes had been made, or where the ends of Justice were clearly to be violated by Legislative contrivances, remote from, if not beyond Judicial enquiry.

“For the Executive to debate questions of expediency with the Legislature, and constantly array his opinions and prerogative of “veto” against the expressed purpose of a majority of the Senate and House of Assembly, seemed to me antagonistic to the purpose of the authority under which I hold my office, and violative of the spirit of our form of government.

“So careful were the framers of our State Constitution that no real power of obstruction to Legislative will should rest with the Executive, that, as you are aware, the "veto" of an Executive can be constitutionally overridden by a mere repetition of the same vote that originally passed a given bill, or even a less number, provided that number be a majority of each house.

"The theory of our State Constitution is, therefore, that majorities of the members of both houses best declare the will of the people in all cases, even after the Executive disapproves.

"From frequent remarks and written applications made to me, I fear this matter is not completely understood by all our people.

"If the fact is, as against the theory, that the people are not heard through a majority of their Legislative members; and, through improper influences, unjust and pernicious legislation is had, the responsibility is upon the electors who send them, and not upon the Executive, whose power over their action, as I have just indicated, is literally nothing.

"When the people of New Jersey, of all parties, select men for Legislative positions with reference to their integrity and capacity, and not for their temporary political availability, they will have bridged most of the dangers of bad legislation. For me to attempt its correction by the exercise of the "veto" power when the Legislature is in session, is as you perceive, a serious undertaking; and although I have been sustained by the Legislature in all my vetoes thus far, I attribute it chiefly to the fact that my objections were in all cases, partly at least, of a constitutional character.

"I have had in my hand, within the five days prior to the adjournment, nearly one half of the entire legislation of the session, and the adjournment leaves all these acts subject alone to my official sanction. I do not propose to discuss the safety or propriety of Legislative action that permits such accumulation and its resulting power in the hands of the Executive.

"Of this great number of acts I deem it safe to say that a large percentage are contested upon the ground of public or private injustice, in expediency, and the like, and if I even deemed it within the scope of a legitimate exercise of my functions to judicially consider and decide upon such questions, the remainder of the year will be hardly long enough to make the adjudication. I am thus frank in the expression of my views, because I desire your authorities and others to appreciate my position under existing facts.”

Acting upon the rule indicated in the preceding paragraphs I have been enabled, thus far, to obtain the Legislative concurrence in every “veto” I have felt compelled to make.

Avoiding its repeated, irritating and useless exercise, the almost powerless prerogative has, thus far, I trust, been made of some service to the State.

The omission to exercise it will not be construed by sensible people, after this presentation of my view of official power and duty, as any personal endorsement of acts to which I append my signature, for the simple reason that only petty, irritating and undignified delay would come from vetoes, which the Legislature would finally make the laws over and in defiance of them.

I have signed very many acts that failed to commend themselves to my personal judgment, and shall no doubt sign many more of a similar character hereafter.

To the present Legislature is delegated the power of re-districting the State, and of passing other acts political in their character.

A majority of your members are politically at variance with the Executive.

The absolute power lies within your bodies to make such laws upon these and other subjects as you deem fit, and it seems to me that, under any circumstances likely to occur, my objection, in “veto” form, to political legislation would be as unnecessary as futile.

The responsibility of Legislative action is upon the members of your bodies, and I do not propose; either by my silence or by mere official—almost clerical—performance of duty, to share with you responsibilities, which, as a member of either of your bodies, I should have remonstrated against.

It will appear plain to you, from these views, that there need be no delay in bringing about an early adjournment, if you so desire. Already the time has passed at which your predecessors adjourned, and, of nearly nine hundred bills presented for your consideration, only about three hundred have reached this department, leaving nearly two-thirds yet to be considered by me. As under the Constitution only a limited time is given me to sign or return the bills, my examination of those remaining must necessarily be brief and unsatisfactory.

I shall adhere to my resolve submitted in my annual Message to your Honorable Bodies :

To refuse to sign any bill of a private character, passed during the last two days of the session : or to sign any bill that has not been read completely through, at least once in each House.

In the absence of proper information to the contrary, I shall assume the attestation of your offices as prima facie evidence of such reading having been had.

Respectfully,

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

Which was read and ordered to be returned to the Senate.

Was taken up.

The veto read as follows :

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
TRENTON, March 22d, 1871. }

To the House of Assembly :—

I return Assembly bill No. 29, entitled

A further supplement to an act entitled "An act to create from the town of Bergen, in the county of Hudson, a new township, to be called the township of Greenville," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

The purpose of this bill is to repeal several supplements to an act to create the town of Bergen, in the county of Hudson.

These supplements, I find to contain extraordinary grants of power to certain commissioners, and I do not deem it singular that restrictions and limitations, at least, should be sought to limit their acts.

The bill which I return seems to me to be as extreme in its character, and as extraordinary in its provisions, as those which it seeks to repeal. It gives power to "Examiners" designated, and they, it is represented to me, in part contestants at this time, in our courts, against the present commissioners. These Examiners are to have power to close streets already opened, and upon which buildings have been erected—making no legal provision for compensation to the owners of property for damages thus inflicted.

It is clear in my mind that the owner or owners of all property thus destroyed or damaged, have a clear constitutional right to demand and obtain compensation.

Under the authority of the present commission, contracts have been made, (the evidence of which has been given me,) and these are to be virtually set aside by the provisions of the bill returned, and no provision made for redress to the contractor, except it be claimed that the Examiners under the fifth section of the bill, may pay such amounts as they may deem "just and equitable."

It could scarcely have been the deliberate purpose of the Legislature to invest any persons, however worthy, with these judicial functions, especially when it is recollected that they are to act without any oath of office to faithfully perform their duties, and are under no bonds of any kind for any purpose noticed in the bill.

Section 4 of the act of 1870, provides for the issue of Bonds, and section 3 of the same act provides for the issue of Improvement Certificates, and pledges the proceeds of the sale of said bonds for the redemption of the certificates. The bill returned repeals all these acts.

The ability of the commissioners to fulfil their contracts with persons accepting them in good faith, is thus utterly destroyed, and as I construe it, violates in substance that provision of the Constitution which provides that no law shall be passed impairing the obligations of contracts.

It will be observed that at no point in the bill is there any provision for the payment of any claims other than such as these unsworn and unbound examiners may agree upon, or for the levy of any tax upon the town, to meet claims against it, except the tax the Examiners may order and direct to be levied, should the treasurer of the town be out of funds.

Is not this power to order a tax put upon a whole community, an extraordinary one to place in the hands of any irresponsible body of men? To whom are they responsible for their acts, and what protection has the citizen against Commissions thus instituted?

However desirable it may be to remedy the provisions of previous enactments, I feel sure your Honorable Bodies will, upon reflection, concur with me, that more guarded legislation than the bill returned contains is necessary to obtain the desired result.

Respectfully,
THEODOE F. RANDOLPH,
Governor.

The Speaker announced the question before the House.

Shall this bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?

And the objections of the Governor were sustained by the following vote:

In the affirmative, were

Messrs. Anness, Barton, Bruere, Canfield, Condit, [Speaker,]
Fielder, Fisher, Horn, Hornblower, Lefevre, Nicholson, Niles, Roberts, Sanxay, Staats, Thompson, War-
rin, C. Wilson, H. W. Wilson—19.

In the negative, were

The bill entitled

An act to re-organize the local government of Jersey City.

Which was vetoed by the Governor.

On motion of Mr. Barton, was taken up.

The veto read as follows :

VETO MESSAGE OF GOV. RANDOLPH,

Of the bill entitled

. An act to re-organize the local government of Jersey City.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, }
TRENTON, March 22d, 1871. }

To the House of Assembly:

“An act to re-organize the local government of Jersey City” placed before me for approval, seems by its provisions, to so completely put aside all semblance of local government, in the sense this term is usually applied, that it is an open question, at least, whether the bill should not be returned to your Honorable Body, as being in violation of that provision of the Constitution which declares that “Every law shall have but one object,—and that shall be expressed in its title.”

I can scarcely conceive of an antagonism stronger than that existing between the title of this bill, and the provisions contained within its sections. From the opening to the close, the provisions are of the most extraordinary character, the great and redeeming merit of the whole bill being that it recites in clear, nervous and unmistakable language its undoubted purpose to deprive the voters of Jersey City of all present opportunities of self-government, without their consent or approval being even asked, and against the remonstrances of many of its principal citizens. The bill, therefore, is meritorious, in that it makes no concealment of its object, and does not attempt to disguise its most unusual powers and purposes. Anti-republican in form—arbitrary in spirit and purpose, it can only be defended, if defensible at all, upon the ground that within the limits of Jersey City, at least, the principles of all our forms of government—Federal, State and Municipal—are supposed to be valueless.

The singular fact is presented, of the Representatives of the people organizing, under color of Constitutional Law, commissions of men, appointed by themselves, to be masters over the liberties and property of the very people they were elected to be servants of. For it is just to this complexion these powers come,—that the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, elected to represent the people and to maintain a Republican form of government, shall have the power to place over the people of the second city in the State, and the seventeenth city of the United States, a body of men, undesired, perhaps, by citizens at large, who shall exercise all the vital and essential powers of local government.

It would not be more extraordinary—and I am not sure but the spirit of the whole bill is not born of Congressional example—if the Federal Congress should decide that the members of your bodies were unfit representatives of your constituents, incapable of exercising the rights of electors, and, in sheer compassion for the people of New Jersey, appoint by Congressional enactment, the members of our State Legislature.

It may be true that local representative government, as carried on in our large cities, is found to work unfortunately. I am prepared to believe almost any representation that may be made upon this head. So long, however, as we profess to believe that the true policy of government is to extend the privilege of the ballot to all men, regardless of their intelligence, interest or other qualification, just so long will we be faced by the dangers which legislation like that I object to seeks to obviate.

The plain and undoubted object of this and most other bills delegating Municipal Powers to Legislative Commissioners, is to take away from the people, whom the Legislature is supposed to represent, all the essentials of power in local government, leaving only a shadowy semblance of authority to their constituents. Is there any comment upon the evils of universal suffrage more significant? So long as our State and Federal Constitutions provide for and even continue to extend the privilege of suffrage, without any other qualification scarcely than that of manhood, the evils of an ill-regulated suffrage will continue to increase, and in no locality will its injuries be more keenly felt than in large cities, where vice, ignorance and corruption find their most facile tools.

As the case stands, the only true and effective remedy left for the industrious, well-meaning and thrifty citizens of large cities, is that given them in the power to nominate and elect honest, suitable and intelligent representatives to their local boards and State Legislature.

Legislative Commissions, however constituted for good, are only pretended panaceas, at best; and, at worst, they will cure the ills by destroying the body. Political parties that insist upon nominating ignorant, corrupt or incompetent men as Representatives, can and should be taught needed and salutary lessons that defeat is calculated to teach. Until citizens learn that it is a DUTY, as well as a privilege, to care for the nomination and election of honest Representatives, the wrongs they suffer will scarcely excite emotions beyond those of pity, among the truer class of our people, who seek, by the election of proper men, and by the faithful administration of office, to elevate and dignify public positions.

It has been urged that a large proportion of the powers of the Commissioners named in the bill are already possessed by the present authorities of Jersey City. There will be found, upon comparison, many limitations, restrictions of power, and means of redress to the citizen, in the present charter, that this bill omits. Aside from this view, however, the great and conclusive difference is, that in one case powers are exercised by representatives directly from and of the people, and in the other case by persons in whose appointment, in the main, the people have not even been consulted.

But, extraordinary as are the powers sought to be conferred upon Commissioners by the provisions of this bill, my reasons for its disapproval shall be founded—as I have deemed it my duty to declare my disapproval—mainly on Constitutional grounds.

The sixteenth section of the bill provides that Commissioners of the Boards of the City Government shall have power to send for persons and papers, if such persons shall have papers that, in the opinion of such commission, may be proper evidence in the case before them.

Article I, section 6, of the Constitution, provides:—"The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation," &c. The "reasonableness" of the demand for papers is to be decided by an almost irresponsible body of persons,—not by a judicial tribunal. Under pretext of search for papers thus demanded, every private citizen may be liable to have his house ransacked. To meet this protective clause of the Constitution, the bill should provide that all papers required in evidence by municipal authorities should be “particularly described,” and the order for the search should also have judicial approval. Without this precaution, the Constitutional and sacred right of the citizen is liable to constant invasion and outrage.

A proviso of the forty-first section provides that when the line of a street to be opened, extended, widened or otherwise changed, would bisect any building, the Commissioners may determine, as shall seem to them most just, to take either the whole of such building, or so much thereof as stands upon the land required, or to require the owner or owners thereof to move it back from the line of improvement.

That it is proper to require the purchaser of a whole building in cases where but a part of it is within the line of the land necessary for a public improvement, and to give the owner the privilege of removing it from out of the line of the improvement, to and upon the residue of his land, cannot be denied. But the right to take private property for public use extends no further than the public necessity. The Commissioners cannot lawfully be given the power to take the land not necessary for the improvement, but it would be proper to give to the owner of a building partly taken, the privilege of requiring the Commissioners to purchase the residue, as well as the privilege of removing his building. The obligation should be upon the Commissioners,—the privilege, that of the owner.

The forty second section authorizes the exercise of a power that appears, so far as my information extends, never to have been exercised heretofore. It seems to be the reverse of the right of eminent domain, and instead of requiring the owner to yield his land, on compensation, for a public purpose, it forces upon him the obligation of purchasing land at a price to be fixed by Commissioners.

Here too, at first sight, it would seem that there would be a propriety in giving at a fair price to an owner cut off from the street the land between him and the new street, or in the old street, but this cannot be done without violating the fundamental principle, that the Legislature cannot take the property of one man and give it to another, no matter what the compensation.

Such adjustments as those contemplated by this section, may appear convenient, but the power is dangerous and inadmissible, and, I think, has never been exercised under any form of government, however despotic.

But another principle is violated; the compensation to which a party whose land is taken, is entitled, is money, not land, and this section requires the owner to take land as a part of the compensation in cases where one part of the land is within the line of the improvements, and a part of the land of another is thrown between any portion of the remaining land and the new street.

The last clause of the fifty-second section provides that any improvement may be made by the Board of Public Works, at any time, if the cost of it is partly paid by the city, notwithstanding any remonstrance or objection that may be made against any such improvement, and "notwithstanding any other provision in the whole act contained." This power is unlimited, and expressed in language so sharp and vigorous that but one conclusion can be drawn from it—the Board of Public Works is to have unlimited power over the property of the citizen, and not a single guard provided in any other case by any other portion of the act, is to limit or control it. Neither compensation for property taken, nor a right to be heard against the measure in its inception or through its whole course, is provided for. I think I would be recreant to my duty, as an officer to whose approval the grant of such a power is subject, if I did not unhesitatingly refuse it.

The sixty-first section sets aside assessments already made, so far as they remain uncollected, and, besides being unjust to those who have paid, I find here the exercise of a power that is judicial, and not legislative, in its character,—in direct violation of the Constitution, which prescribes that the powers of one department of the government shall not be exercised by another. There have, I think, been cases where the Legislature has done something of this nature, but it has been with the consent of all parties, either expressed in the act, or known to be applied for.

The sixty-fourth section grants the land of the State under water, to an unlimited extent, or, at least, to the extent that may be necessary to carry out any of the powers given by any part of the act. It also permits the vacation of South street, a street one hundred feet wide, and this at the mere discretion of the Board, without giving any notice, or being subject to a single restriction that is imposed upon the vacation of any other street in the city. The consequences to private property are ignored, and no compensation to any one injured is contemplated. The vacation of this street, I am informed, would place the entire property thus vacated in possession of private corporations, one of them now leased to a foreign corporation.

The sixty-sixth section enacts that no certiorari shall be granted or allowed to stay any proceedings (except the collection of the final assessment,) for any street or sewer improvement, unless the writ be allowed before the filing with the city clerk of a copy of the resolution for the payment of awards, or before the making of the contract. The rapidity with which the proceedings are authorized to be conducted is such, and the informal manner in which they are to be conducted is such, that parties have hardly time to retain counsel and investigate errors or frauds in the proceedings, before the time within which the certiorari is to be brought, will expire. This writ has, of late, been found so efficacious for the detection of fraud and the protection of the citizen, that every restriction upon its allowance should be gravely considered. It seems to me that this taking away of a great remedial writ is endangering property, and is to the last degree pernicious.

The one hundred and third section, after giving to the policemen the powers of constables, authorizes them to convey, to and from the county jail and workhouse, all prisoners who may be ordered to be so conveyed by any police justice or any justice of the peace. It seems to me that a power to do these acts without requiring a warrant, in addition to the power of doing these same acts under the authority of a legal warrant, is an encroachment on the liberty of the citizen, hard to be borne by freemen.

The one hundred and seventh section, by implication, confers a power on the police to seize upon property, not stolen, but simply "improperly retained," or "suspected to be improperly retained," and expressly makes the chief of police the custodian of such property, and directs the sale of it, and the deposit of the proceeds in the city treasury.

Section one hundred and ten defines the powers of the police justices, and provides that where the penalty of crime shall be imprisonment, the trial may be by jury. The Constitution expressly declares that "the RIGHT of trial by jury shall remain inviolate." I am aware of the modern process of avoiding this Constitutional right of the citizen, by considering his omission to demand it a tacit waiver of its privileges. I have seriously questioned the right of any citizen to waive so needful a protection to liberty, or the acceptance by our courts of such a waiver; but if it is to be yielded as a matter of convenience to courts, or to the end that justice may be promptly administered, a provision should be inserted by which the prisoner should, in all cases, be made aware of his Constitutional rights.

The same section (one hundred and ten) of the bill empowers the justices, should the criminal be a minor, to inflict, commute or wholly remit the penalty prescribed for the offence. This section fails to name the period of time wherein such justices may exercise these powers of commutation or pardon, and it is possible, though not probable, they might attempt to do so after imprisonment. As such power is lodged solely in the Court of Pardons, under the Constitution, the limit of its attempted exercise should be clearly stated in the bill, that being after trial and before sentence.

Section one hundred and thirty-one provides that the bonds of the city shall be relieved from STATE taxation. I consider this inadmissible, and have given my reasons therefor in the Veto Message of Assembly bill No. 224, sent to your Bodies on the 22d instant.

Section one hundred and thirty-three permits the Board of Finance to deposit the funds of the city in any bank now existing in Jersey City. For obvious reasons, this provision should restrict the custody of these funds to banks authorized by the laws of this State or the United States.

The one hundred and fortieth section withdraws from the holders of bonds issued for war purposes, the pledge of property in the city, and impairs the obligation of the bonds, to the injury of public credit and in direct violation of the Constitution.

My effort has been to call your attention to some of the most glaring objections to the bill submitted for my approval. Unquestionably, other objections will arise to your minds as you reconsider all of its provisions.

As stated by me in recent messages, the time given for careful consideration of bills, and arrangement of objections thereto, if any, is entirely too limited. My purpose will be accomplished, however, if my hurriedly considered and stated objections obtain the consideration at your hands I hope their importance deserves.

Respectfully,

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

The Speaker then announced the question

“Shall this bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?”

Which was decided in the affirmative as follows:

In the affirmative, were

Messrs. Alcott, Auness, Barton, Bradshaw, Bruere, Condit, (Speaker,) Filder, Fisher, Heinisch, Hemingway, Horn, Hornblower, House, Joy, Kitchell, Leaming,

The Speaker directed the Clerk to carry said bill to the Senate, and request their concurrence therein.

The Speaker presented the following communication from the Governor.

THE BRIBERY LAW.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
TRENTON, March 29, 1871. }

To the House of Assembly:

I had the honor to submit, among other recommendations, in my annual message, one with reference to the elective franchise; and inasmuch as the legislation therein recommended has not yet been finally acted upon by your body, I trust that the great importance of the measure recommended, will be sufficient reason for renewing my appeal to you for action.

In the annual message I said :

“ I earnestly urge upon your attention such amendments to existing election laws as will tend to secure at the ballot-box a pure and free expression of the public will. Our present laws are almost a dead letter. Members of both political parties have probably rendered themselves so liable to legal penalties, that, as if by common consent, no prosecutions are had. The evils which flow from the corruption of the ballot can scarcely be exaggerated. Insidious in their nature, they are working far more of danger to the government than foreign or internal strife have ever accomplished. By disrespect shown to law, corruption of the ballot lowers and taints the public morals—compels the full surrender of all places of honor or profit to those who are not only rich, but unscrupulous—demoralizes and nearly reduces to serfdom a portion of the poorer class, by the offer of almost irresistible temptations, exceeding in amount, frequently, the wages of weeks of hard labor for the performance of a single act, by which, through ignorance of the real issues of parties, no political principle is fairly determined by the corrupted voter. If the ignorant voter err, the distinction between right and wrong in the exercise of the franchise being so subtly and delicately drawn, the state should, by plain enactment and rigid enforcement, compel a knowledge by salutary punishment.

The second article of our state constitution provides expressly that “the legislature may pass laws to deprive persons of the right of suffrage who shall be convicted of bribery at elections.”

In view of the great and acknowledged evil the corruption of our voting population is working, I recommend the passage of a law disfranchising any person who may attempt to bribe, or bribe another, or be himself bribed—rendering either party to the offence a competent witness against the other, without incurring legal responsibility.

I also recommend that a corporation against which it shall be proven that money has been contributed for the election of any state or other officer, under our laws, shall forfeit its charter; and that all managing officers of such corporations, if residents of this state, shall be disfranchised, and if non-residents, they shall be rendered incapable of rendering any official act within our jurisdiction.

To these opinions and recommendations I may add, as the result of many communications to me upon the subject, that the obligation of each Grand Jury to inquire into the matter of bribery at elections, should be made imperative, and constitute their first duty, so that citizens may know precisely when and where to render complaint. If, as I regard it, the life of the state is involved in the purity of the elections, no other duty of the Grand Inquest can be so important.

The greatest danger to executive or legislative independence lies in the rapidly growing power of Corporations.

In every direction, corporate power extends itself; and it is safe to say that a larger proportion of legislation, state and federal, is being controlled or guided by their powerful influence than by any other means.

This fact is too notorious to need exemplification.

Whatever means, then, the state has left to protect itself from the danger of such a condition of affairs, cannot be too promptly or effectually used.

It is no answer to say that many of these corporations—especially those of our own State—are managed by some of our most exemplary citizens.

The truth is, the citizens of integrity and virtue, in whom all are willing, in their private capacity, as corporators and directors too often become anxious to leave their official consciences in the keeping of men whose pliant sense of right seems to better subserve the corporate need.

Under the plea of "necessity," additional corporate power is constantly sought and obtained; and just in proportion as the demands are granted, do greater ones present themselves.

It is an axiom, trite as true, that Power, once possessed, ever seeks to manifest itself; and thus, in corporate possession—when it has filled its own wants, it turns its restless energies to tamper with, and too often successfully, the affairs of State.

No absolute cure, perhaps, can now be had for this condition of public affairs, but the evil may be largely arrested if our legislators shall be elected without the assistance of corporations, and take their positions, primarily at least, as independent men.

I am glad to be assured that the better class of our corporate managers desire to be compelled, by stringent laws, to observe a strict neutrality in the election of officers of State. The burthen of assisting in political contests has become most onerous to them, and wrongful to the stockholders whom they represent. Under a liberal system of legislative grants, which from self-interest, the State is now sure to give, corporations can ever feel assured of all the privileges and protection needed. Less than these, they should not need: more, they should not obtain.

From the poor, honest and intelligent class of our citizens the necessity of laws that will permit their possession of office, the demand has become imperative.

From the wealthier class, who largely bear the burthen of taxation, the need is as strongly urged; and from the State, whose honor, prosperity and perpetuity is grounded upon the virtue of its law-makers and administrators, there can be but one response.

I know it is the fashion of the day to consider such legislation as I recommend, as Utopian in character and useless in attempt. I am not willing to believe that the effort will be fruitless, or that the great body of Jersey men will not promptly second any attempt your legislation will permit, to stay the course of an evil, seen and acknowledged by all, and which, permitted to go unrestrained, will be certain to bring shame and disaster to the Commonwealth.

The well meaning people of the State, of all political parties, require, and should have, this much at your hands; and it will be no proper answer, in my opinion, to say that the pending bill is incomplete, or may fail to accomplish the desired purpose. It aims in the right direction, and I hazard little in saying that with our admirable judiciary to administer it, more usefulness will be found in its practical operation than may be found comfortable by that large class of men who are even now grasping political power in the State, through corrupting agencies,

Respectfully,

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

Also,

A communication from Sarah Smith Stafford, thanking the Legislature for passing the bill for paying her six hundred dollars, for losses sustained in the exchanges of a bond for money she lent the State.

Mr. Patterson moved that

The Senate bill entitled

An act to authorize the election of the county collector of the county of Burlington, by the people.

And find the same correctly engrossed.

Mr. Overheiser, from the Joint Committee on the Library, presented the following report of the State Librarian on early records of the State :

To the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Your committee to whom it was referred to inquire into the present condition of the early records of the government of this State, and what should be done, if anything, to preserve them from further mutilation, do respectfully report that they find the following original records referred to in the State Library.

First. The Journal of the Government and Council of the Province of East New Jersey, from the first day of December, 1682, to April 29th, 1703.

Second. The First Assembly Journal from the 10th day of November, 1703, to the 31st day of January, 1709.

Third. The Journal of New Jersey Council of Safety, from March 18th, 1777, to October 8th, 1778; and that these records have never been printed, and that no copy of them has ever been made, and that their loss would be an irreparable one both to the State and nation. That they are the only original records in existence of the events to which they refer in the history of this State and of the War of the Revolution.

And your committee also find that before the present Librarian assumed the care of them, one of the records had been mutilated, and a portion cut out and carried away.

Your committee therefore recommend that the said Journals be printed under the supervision of the Commissioners of the State Library, by the printer of the public laws at the same rates, and a copy thereof placed in the State Library of every State in the Union, and in such other public libraries as the said Commissioners of the State Library may suggest.

JOHN C. BELDEN.

A communication was received from his Excellency the Governor, by Mr. S. C. Brown, his private Secretary, with his objections to

The bill entitled

A further supplement to the act entitled "An act to revise and amend the charter of the city of Newark," approved March eleventh, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
TRENTON, March 29, 1871. }

To the Legislature:

Senate Bill, No. 352, and Assembly Bill, No. 423, both entitled "A further supplement to the act entitled 'An act to revise and amend the charter of the city of Newark.'" approved March 11th, 1857, are herewith returned without my approval.

Among the objections urged by me against the Jersey City Charter, was that which provides that the Commissioners should have power to take all the house—that needed for the opening of the street as well as that remaining—when, in opening a street, a building should be bisected

I contended: "That it was proper to require the purchase of a whole building in cases where but a part of it is within the line of the land necessary for a public improvement—and to give the owner the privilege of removing it from out of the line of the improvement to and upon the residue of his land cannot be denied."

"But the right to take private property for public use, extends no farther than the public necessity. The Commissioners cannot lawfully be given the power to take the land not necessary for the improvement, but it would be proper to give to the owner of a building partly taken, the privilege of requiring the Commissioners to purchase the residue, as well as the privilege of removing the building. The obligation should be upon the Commissioners—the privilege, that of the owner."

Now the bills returned to your Honorable Bodies are even more objectionable as to these powers granted Commissioners than was the Jersey City Charter.

Assembly Bill, No. 423, gives power to the "Fair street" Commissioners to take an area of land beyond the public necessity, and far beyond that required for the improvement,

It also provides that the lands thus taken beyond the public need may be disposed of at public or private sale, as the Commissioners deem most expedient.

This certainly is a most convenient and prompt method of disposing of property illegally seized at first; and paid for by the citizens or the corporation afterwards, and finally placed in the hands of Commissioners to sell at public or private sale to whom they please, and upon terms deemed proper by them.

Senate Bill, No. 252, provides that whenever Commissioners appointed by the Common Council "shall find it necessary or expedient to estimate and assess full valuation for the whole of any lot, tract and parcel of the lands and real estate of any such owner or owners, including any such gores, strips or portions of said lot, tract or parcel of said lands and real estate, adjoining the line of said street, road, highway or alley, public park or square, said Commissioners shall have the power to condemn the whole of said lot, tract or parcel of said lands and real estate, including said gores, strips or portions adjoining the lines of said street, road, highway or alley, public park or square, and such owner or owners shall upon the payment of the amount of said assessment, execute and deliver to the city, a good and sufficient conveyance of the whole of said lot, tract or parcel of lands and real estate, including such gores, strips or portions adjoining the line of said street, road, highway or alley, public park or square."

Aside from the constitutional objection urged against these bills, it would seem to be but just that whenever private property has, for public purposes, to be entered upon and "taken," whatever may remain of it, should be enjoyed by the owner as to occupancy or benefit of sale. Certainly, the citizens of Newark do not desire an addition to the powers of Council, of opening new streets, that of condemning all property that happens to lie contiguous to such improvement.

The inducements for Council to make "Improvements"—now perhaps sufficiently strong—would be increased very largely, when within the ordinary temptations such "Improvements" always engender, there lies the elements of a Real Estate Speculation requiring no capital, and no very great amount of talent.

Respectfully,

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

Was read a second time ordered to be engrossed, and have a third reading.

Mr. Niles called up

The bill entitled

An act to increase the school fund of this state.

Which had been vetoed by the Governor.

The veto was read as follows :

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, }
TRENTON, March 22d, 1871. }

To the House of Assembly :

I feel constrained to withhold my approval of Assembly Bill, No. 38, entitled "An act to increase the School Fund of this State."

Under the terms of this act, a large, and as yet indefinite amount of money will be placed in a fund, from which, under the restrictions of the Constitution, no part of it can ever be withdrawn.

No matter what urgent public necessity may occur in the future requiring the means of the State, or disregarding the fact that the State is yet indebted to its bondholders nearly $2,000,000, this great amount of money is to be positively placed beyond reach of recall.

Whilst the State is a debtor, and its already sorely taxed citizens are seeking for relief from their burthens, I respectfully submit, it is scarcely just to our people—though it be generous to a most worthy object—to take away so large an amount from the general resources of the State, and from the State's ability to relieve taxation as the positive appropriation of all future receipts from riparian sources would compel.

Aside from this equitable and prudent view of the matter, a much more serious objection may arise, should higher courts decide adversely to the State's claim of ownership to all lands under tide water.

Under such adverse decision—not anticipated, it is true—the State would, in equity at least, be bound to pay back all it had received from riparian owners. The amount thus required could not be withdrawn from the School Fund, where this bill proposes to place it because the Constitution forbids any such action. The result would be, under such a condition of affairs, the levy of an oppressive and unexpected tax, or the State's dishonor.

When it is recollected that the State tax for the support of Public Schools for the present year, will amount to nearly one and a quarter millions of dollars, no plea of urgent necessity can be urged; and no excuse, it seems to me, can be fairly given against the exercise of abundant caution, even when so proper and popular a cause as that of education is involved.

Other objections may be urged against the appropriations of this bill:

The Trustees of the School Fund are not permanent officers; not selected as such primarily; but are only trustees in virtue of their several offices, as Governor, Treasurer, &c., &c.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, in whose hands the riparian receipts properly go, are selected from both parties, are and ever will be, no doubt, of such high position as to fully secure the public confidence as to their custody and management of the State's great funds.

If, after the objections I have submitted, it is still the opinion of the Legislature that these large amounts, which the State will receive from riparian sources, should be placed within the school fund, I submit that the control of the moneys thus obtained should be placed in the hands of a commission of our best citizens, non-political in character, who are free from the liabilities of constant removal, which nearly all the present trustees of the school fund are now subject to.

Respectfully,

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,

Governor.

And the Speaker announced the question, shall this bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Governor.

And it was decided in the affirmative as follows:

In the affirmative, were

Messrs. Anness, Barton, Bradshaw, Bruere, Condit, (Speaker,) Doty, Fisher, Hemingway, Hopper, Horn, Hornblower, House, Irwin, Joy, Kitchell, Leaming, Lefevre, Leslie, Nicholson, Niles, Overheiser, Patterson, Ripley, Roberts, Robins, Rulon, Runyon, Sanderson, Sanxay, Smith, Staats, Thompson, Torbet, Valentine, Warrin, C. Wilson, H. W. Wilson, Woelery,—38.

In the negative, were.

Messrs. Busch, Canfield, Dickinson, Fielder, Haight, Hitchner, Horner, Kugler, Maxwell, Pursell, Van Riper.—11.

The Speaker directed the Clerk to carry said bill to the Senate, and inform them that the House had passed the same notwithstanding the objections of the Governor, and request their concurrence therein.

Mr. Staats, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported that they have examined

The following bill entitled

A supplement to "An Act to prevent the taking of unlawful toll or fare on Canal and Railways," passed March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.

Which was read and adopted.

And the chair appointed as said committee Messrs. Barton, Horn and Grosscup.

The Speaker addressed the House as follows :

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly, we are approaching the end of our labors here. Before the final adjournment, permit me to express my grateful acknowledgements for the approval you have been pleased to bestow on my conduct as your presiding officer. Unacquainted with most of you when we assembled here to take our seats as members of this body, I felt that your selection of me to this position was a compliment I had no right to expect. I entered upon the discharge of my duties distrustful of my ability to meet the just expectations. If I have been at all successful in meeting the requirements of the place, it is due chiefly to the cordial and united support with which you have all, irrespective of party, sustained me. Whatever may have been my failures and shortcomings, you have kindly and generously overlooked them.

This is not the time, nor would it be becoming in me to pass in review and pronounce judgment on the acts of this Legislature. This much, however, I deem it not inappropriate to say, that I do not believe any preceeding Législature has passed more general laws. Time and trial can alone test their worth, but I think they are in the main, wise and beneficent, and will prove advantageous to the people and conducive to the welfare and prosperity of the State.

And now, as we are about to separate, I renew the expression of the obligation I feel to you individually for the uniform courtesy and kindness with which you have treated me. Our official relations will soon cease, and we shall again return to our homes and our private pursuits and occupations. Although our labors have been at times irksome and wearisome, I trust that in coming years, we shall look back with pleasure upon the time we have spent here, and may be permitted to feel that the state has not received any detriment at our hands.

Mr. Barton, from the Committee to wait upon the Governor, reported that the Committee had discharged that duty, and that the Governor desired them to say to the House, that he had no further communication to make.

A message from the Senate by Mr. Babcock, their Secretary, informed the House of Assembly that the Senate have passed the following:

Resolved, That the hour of adjournment having arrived the Secretary inform the House of Assembly that the Senate is now ready to adjourn, and await the presence of the Assembly in the Senate chamber.

Mr. Horn offered the following:

Resolved, That the hour of 11.30 o'clock A. M., the time at which the two houses resolved to adjourn having arrived, that the General Assembly do now proceed to the Senate chamber and inform the Senate that the General Assembly has adjourned without day.

Mr. Niles moved to return

The bill entitled

An act to defray incidental expenses.

To the Senate that they may recede from the amendments made to the said bill.

Upon which Mr. Valentine moved that this House do now proceed to the Senate chamber and adjourn.

The Speaker stated that the hour for adjourning had not yet arrived.

Upon a vote being taken it was decided to return the said bill to the Senate by a vote of 31 ayes to 22 nays.

And before the Speaker directed the Clerk to carry said bill to the Senate the hour of adjournment having arrived the House of Assembly proceeded to the Senate chamber, and both Houses of the Legislature adjourned sine die.

Attest,

ALEX. M. CUMMING,

Clerk.
