Case Notes

Vacating judgment for possession in summary dispossession action for nonpayment of rent was warranted. Housing Authority of Town of Morristown v. Little, 135 N.J. 274, 639 A.2d 286 (1994).

Initial Decision (2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 218) adopted, which concluded that the agency was correct in denying petitioner's application for assistance based on the fact that petitioner created her own homelessness; petitioner had ample time to secure a two-bedroom apartment after her son left the residence and she was notified that she had to downgrade from her three-bedroom apartment in order to continue Section 8 housing. J.T. v. Homelessness Prevention Program, Dep't of Community Affairs, OAL Dkt. No. CAF 2157-07, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 339, Final Decision (June 8, 2007).

Initial Decision (2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 318) adopted, which concluded that where an applicant had been approved for relief under the Homelessness Prevention Program but the new landlord refused to sign the relocation agreement, the applicant was entitled to reimbursement of funds the applicant had to borrow to meet the landlord's deadline; despite the applicant's attempts to contact the agency for help, the agency did not attempt to resolve the impasse with the landlord or notify the applicant about finding another apartment or applying for emergency funds to meet the landlord's deadline. R.S. v. Homelessness Prevention Program, Div. of Housing, OAL Dkt. No. CAF 03115-06, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 513, Final Decision (June 6, 2006).

Initial Decision (2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 318) adopted, which concluded that the agency's notice of adverse action, sent more than four months after petitioner's application, was untimely and therefore of no consequence. R.S. v. Homelessness Prevention Program, Div. of Housing, OAL Dkt. No. CAF 03115-06, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 513, Final Decision (June 6, 2006).

Initial Decision (2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 149) adopted, which concluded that, although petitioner stated that he could not pay his rent because his room had been broken into while he was incarcerated and $800 in cash was missing, petitioner's budget demonstrated that he did have sufficient funds to pay his rent; he received Social Security in the amount of $851 per month, and after deducting his expenses, including his rent, he had $221 per month remaining. Therefore, since his failure to exhaust his resources rendered him ineligible under N.J.A.C. 5:41-2.1(c), there was no need to determine whether petitioner's incarceration constituted a reason beyond his control. Prioleau v. Dep't of Community Affairs, Div. of Housing, OAL Dkt. No. CAF 708-06, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 521, Final Decision (April 12, 2006).

eviction and for those facing homelessness as a result of foreclosure.

(b) Funds shall be so distributed so that applicants in all regions of the State have equal access to assistance.

5:41-2.3 Levels of assistance

(a) The Homelessness Prevention Program shall apply available funds so as to provide assistance to as many people in need of such assistance as possible. Assistance to any one person or household shall not exceed the minimum amount necessary to obtain habitable lodging or to avoid imminent eviction or foreclosure.

(b) Where there is any reasonable prospect of repayment, funds shall be advanced as a loan rather than as a grant, upon such terms as the Department of Community Affairs shall consider reasonable and appropriate in light of prevailing interest rates and the applicant's present and future ability to repay.

1. Loans shall be evidenced by a note and, if the applicant owns real property, secured by a mortgage. The form and content of the note and mortgage shall be prescribed by the Department of Community Affairs.

Amended by R.2008 d.66, effective April 7, 2008.

(b) No person shall continue to receive assistance under the Homelessness Prevention Program for more than six months, nor shall any person receive assistance to pay more than three months' rental arrears, unless the Department of Community Affairs finds there to be sufficient extenuating circumstances to justify an extension.

(c) A household shall be eligible for assistance under the Homelessness Prevention Program more than once only if the problem causing the situation is not chronic or repetitive in nature. Any assistance given after the first award shall be in the form of a loan.
