

New Jersey Economic Mission to the United Kingdom

In collaboration with our State and business partners, we are strengthening ties between New Jersey and the UK.

Murphy ‘concerned’ about offshore wind energy getting support from Trump administration

Gov. Phil Murphy, speaking to a group of British business leaders last week in London, said he has worries about the offshore wind sector in New Jersey — specifically, how much support it will get from the incoming administration of Donald Trump. “I would be lying to you if I didn’t say that we’re concerned,” he said. “It’s tricky. I don’t know where this is going to land.” Murphy, speaking in a wide-ranging roundtable with executives from British American Business — a group featuring British companies that already have some presence in the U.S. — said the concept of a [...]

No let up for Murphy: More trips (domestically and internationally) definitely coming

Gov. Phil Murphy returned home to New Jersey Tuesday — after a five-day economic mission trip to the United Kingdom that was filled with non-stop meetings. Time for a break? Hardly.

In solemn ceremony, Murphy remembers those lost in WWII, offers pledge for future

“All who shall hereafter live in freedom will be here reminded that to these men and their comrades, we owe a debt to be paid with grateful remembrance of their sacrifice and with the high resolve that the cause for which they died shall live eternally.”

Crouch was definitive voice of economic mission trip to UK

The line from Gov. Phil Murphy about Tim Crouch at the roundtable event was easy: “If you listen to him, you’d think he was representing Cambridge, but he’s actually representing the state of New Jersey,” he said.
