GEN. WILLIAM S. STRYKER,
Adjutant General of New Jersey,

GENERAL:

A record of Jerseymen who took part in the military service of this country during the Revolutionary War has never been compiled. Having been informed that you have collected certain lists of the heroic men of that period, you are hereby directed to prosecute, as far as possible, your researches, with the clerical force of your office, and report the result to me. If successful, your labors will give new interest to the annals of this State, and perpetuate the names of the soldiers who fought in that early struggle.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
TRENTON, July 4th, 1871. }

To His Excellency

THEODORE F. RANDOLPH,
Governor of New Jersey,

SIR :

When I first entered this office in April, 1867, I found few papers relating to the Revolutionary War. Constant inquiries from all parts of the Union for a certified copy of the records of soldiers of that war, brought the matter frequently to my attention, and I soon began to note such names and data as were verified in some way officially. These notations had already assumed considerable size and importance when your order of June 1st, 1870, was issued, and I immediately entered vigorously on such a research as I believe has hitherto been unattempted by this or any other State. The pension lists of the government, and the minutes of the Congress of the United States, and of the Legislature and Council of Safety of New Jersey, and all the records of the War Department, so far as they were found to relate to this State at that early period, were carefully examined. Original manuscripts, rolls of companies of Continental troops, diaries of officers, paymasters' memoranda, quartermasters' reports, treasurers' receipts, "returns" to the Commander-in-Chief, lists of soldiers paid at sundry times in Continental money, other lists of men who received notes for depreciation of said currency,—all these and various other kinds of vouchers have been most faithfully compared. The result of all this research I have now the honor to present you. After the lapse of nearly a century, and without the aid of any valuable documents preserved by the State, I cannot but be pleased with such success as I have met with. Not asserting that it is complete or without an error, I do affirm that no record has been made hastily or without what seemed to me to be well verified. I shall be thankful at any time to receive, from any one, well-authenticated proof of any omission or mistake, and make the same public.

Before closing, I must acknowledge my indebtedness to Mrs. Dr. Jonathan E. McChesney, of Hightstown, for her kindness in allowing me an examination of the papers of the late Hon. Charles G. McChesney, for some years Secretary of State. They contained many invaluable records. To Miss Sarah S. Stafford, of this city, for permission to copy sundry lists of the Continental Line, in her possession. To the Hon. H. Van Aernam, Chief of the Pension Bureau, for the names and rank of certain officers, which I had tried in vain to discover. I am under great obligations to Mr. Jeremiah Dally, the efficient Librarian of the State, for a most hearty and zealous investigation of every volume or manuscript relating to the war, over which he has charge. To Col. Robert S. Swords, the Secretary of the Historical Society of New Jersey, the Hon. Whitfield S. Johnson, formerly Secretary of State, and others, for many courtesies. But I am greatly indebted to my assistants, Mr. William N. Nutt and James S. Kiger, who, with much experience in compiling the roster of New Jersey troops in the late war, entered upon, prosecuted, and finished the clerical part of this compilation with much zeal, great patience, and in a manner to me most satisfactory.

If, sir, this work shall receive your sanction officially, and meet your personal approbation as a representative Jerseyman—connected as you are, paternally and maternally, with men who appear so distinguished in these pages—I shall account myself successful in the task of adding something to the history of my native State in that trying hour of her National birth.

WILLIAM S. STRYKER,
Adjutant General of New Jersey.

JERSEYMEN

IN THE

REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

---

IN THE following resolutions from the Journal of Congress, October 9th, 1775, is the first call on New Jersey for Continental troops:

“Resolved, That it be recommended to the Convention of New Jersey that they immediately raise, at the expense of the continent, two battalions, consisting of eight companies each, and each company of sixty-eight privates, officered with one captain, one lieutenant, one ensign, four serjeants, and four corporals.

“That the privates be inlisted for one year, at the rate of five dollars per calendar month, liable to be discharged at any time on allowing them one month’s pay extraordinary.

“That each of the privates be allowed, instead of a bounty, one felt hat, a pair of yarn stockings, and a pair of shoes: the men to find their own arms.

“That the pay of the officers, for the present, be the same as that of the officers in the present Continental Army; and in case the pay of the officers in the army is augmented, the pay of the officers in these battalions shall, in like manner, be augmented from the time of their engaging in the service.”

A copy of the above resolutions was laid before the Provincial Congress of New Jersey, October 13th, 1775, with the following official letter of transmittal:

“GENTLEMEN :—Some late intelligence, laid before Congress, seems to render it absolutely necessary, for the protection of our liberties and safety of our lives, to raise several new battalions, and therefore the Congress have come into the inclosed resolutions, which I am ordered to transmit to you. The Congress have the firmest confidence that, from your experienced zeal in this great cause, you will exert your utmost endeavors to carry the said resolutions into execution with all possible expedition.

“The Congress have agreed to furnish the men with a hunting-shirt, not exceeding the value of one dollar and one-third of a dollar, and a blanket, provided these can be procured; but these are not to be made part of the terms of enlistment.

“I am, gentlemen,

“Your most obedient humble servant,

“JOHN HANCOCK, President.

“By order of Congress, I forward you forty-eight blank commissions for the captains and subaltern officers in the New Jersey battalions.

“To the members of the Convention of New Jersey.”

To hasten the enlistment of men for the two battalions, two hundred copies of the following advertisement were ordered to be printed :

“WHEREAS, The Honorable Continental Congress have recommended to this Congress that there be immediately raised in this Colony, at the expense of the continent, two battalions, consisting of eight companies each, and each company to consist of sixty-eight privates, and officered with one captain, one lieutenant, one ensign, four serjeants, and four corporals, on the following conditions :

“That the privates be enlisted for a year, at the rate of five dollars per calendar month, liable to be discharged at any time on allowing one month’s pay extraordinary; that each of the privates be allowed, instead of a bounty, a felt hat, a pair of yarn stockings, and a pair of shoes: the men to find their own arms.

“That each captain and other commissioned officer, while in the recruiting service of this continent, or on their march to join the army, shall be allowed two dollars and two-thirds of a dollar per week for their subsistence; and that the men who enlist shall, each of them, whilst in quarters, be allowed one dollar per week, and one dollar and one-third of a dollar when on their march to join the army, for the same purpose.

“The form of enlistment to be in the following words:

“I, _____, have this day voluntarily enlisted myself as a soldier in the American Continental Army for one year, unless sooner discharged; and do bind myself to conform in all instances to such rules and regulations as are or shall be established for the government of the said army.’

“This Congress, desirous to carry into execution the above resolutions of the Continental Congress, do resolve that warrants be issued to proper persons for immediately raising the said two battalions, consisting of eight companies each, and each company of sixty-eight privates, and officered with one captain, one lieutenant, one ensign, four serjeants, and four corporals, on the terms aforesaid; which serjeants, corporals, and privates to be enlisted, shall be able-bodied freemen. And it is further directed that when any company shall be enlisted, the persons having warrants for raising the same shall cause a muster to be had thereof, in the presence of Elias Dayton, Azariah Dunham, Joseph Ellis, or John Mehelm, Esquires, who are hereby appointed muster-masters, to review the said companies; and if, upon such review, such muster-master, who shall attend for that purpose, shall find the said company complete, agreeable to the above directions, shall thereupon certify the same on the back of the muster-roll of such company to this Congress, or, in their recess, to the Committee of Safety, in order that commissions may be made out to the officers of such company; which commissions the Committee of Safety of this Colony, during the recess of this Congress, upon receiving certificates as above, are required to make out and issue.

“And it is hereby recommended to the inhabitants of this Colony to be aiding and assisting, as far as their influence extends, in raising the aforesaid levies.

“And it is further resolved that each muster-master shall have for his trouble for reviewing each company, such reward as this Congress or Committee of Safety shall judge proper for his service, which the Treasurer of this Colony for the time being, appointed by Congress, shall pay out of the bills of credit to be issued by direction of this Congress, upon an order or orders to him produced from this Congress or Committee of Safety.

“SAMUEL TUCKER, President.”

“Attested: JOHN CAREY, Secretary.”

On the 12th day of October, 1775, the Continental Congress resolved “that the appointment of the field officers be for the present suspended, until the Congress come to a determination on that matter.” This resolve was received by the Provincial Congress, at Trenton, the next day, and immediately an answer was prepared, approved, and despatched to the Continental Congress, in session at Philadelphia. After expressing “equal affection to the common cause of America,” they claimed the right, as other Provinces, to nominate the field officers of the proposed battalions. They conceived that if “field officers were first of all appointed, it would tend much to expedite the service,” and that if they were indulged with the privilege of nomination, such officers would be selected “as are generally respected in the Province; that captains and subalterns of reputation would offer their services, and the privates enlist more cheerfully.”

The Continental Congress referred this communication to a committee, without taking any definite action on the subject. On the 21st of October, the Provincial Congress despatched another letter to Congress, by one of their members, who was instructed to receive the answer thereto. A reply was returned October 25th, “suspending a determination on the question.”

On October 28th, the Provincial Congress recommended the proper persons for field officers of the two battalions. The one was called by them the Eastern, the other the Western Battalion.

After four postponements, on November 7th, 1775, the Continental Congress proceeded to ballot, and the gentlemen recommended were duly elected. The battalions were then designated the First and Second Battalions.

A third battalion was afterwards organized.

The following is the roster of officers of these battalions, under the first establishment for troops from New Jersey:

The movements of this battalion in 1775 have previously been given. On the 8th day of January, 1776, it was ordered to Albany, to report to General Schuyler. The want of sufficient arms and clothing delayed the march of the battalion.

---

The authority for the organization of the Third Battalion is given in the following minute from the proceedings of Continental Congress, January 10th, 1776:

“Resolved, That another battalion be raised in New Jersey, on the same terms as the other two raised in the said Colony.”

The Provincial Congress of New Jersey, on the 6th day of February, ordered the following notice to be published:

“PROVINCE OF NEW JERSEY,
“IN CONGRESS, February 6th, 1776. } ”

“WHEREAS, By a resolution of the Honorable Continental Congress, a third battalion is recommended immediately to be raised in this Colony, for the service and at the expense of the United Colonies, consisting of eight companies, and each company of seventy-eight privates, and officered with one captain, two lieutenants, one ensign, four serjeants, and four corporals; which recommendation this Congress being desirous fully to comply with, do therefore resolve—

“That officers of the said battalion be inmediately recommended for commissions, and that the captains and subalterns be appointed and warrants issued for the inlisting the aforesaid complement of men.

“Resolved, That agreeable to the recommendation of the said Honorable Continental Congress, the recruiting officer inlist none but healthy, sound, and able-bodied freemen, not under sixteen years of age; the form of the inlistment to be in the following words:

“‘I, _____, have this day inlisted myself as a soldier in the American Continental Army for one year, unless sooner discharged; and do bind myself to conform in all instances to such rules and regulations as are or shall be established for the government of the said army.’”

“Resolved, That no apprentice whatsoever be inlisted within this Colony, without the consent of his master or mistress first obtained in writing; and that every person under the age of twenty-one years, inlisting himself as aforesaid, may, within twenty-four hours after their parents or guardians shall have notice of such inlistment, obtain his discharge, by refunding the money received from the recruiting officer, and returning such necessaries as may have been supplied him by the officer, or the value thereof in money.

“That as to the pay and subsistence of said officers and soldiers, the same is fixed and ascertained by the said Continental Congress.

“That it be recommended to the officers of said battalion to pay the strictest attention to the behaviour of the troops in quarters or on their march, that they give no reasonable cause of complaint.

“And it is further directed, that where any company shall be inlisted, the captains having warrants for raising the same shall cause a muster to be had thereof, in the presence of Azariah Dunham, John Mehelm, Joseph Ellis, and Edmund Thomas, Esquires, who are hereby appointed muster-masters to review the said companies, and administer an oath to such captains in the words following, which the captains respectively are required to take, viz.:

“‘I, A B, do solemnly swear that all the men whose names are entered in the muster-roll by me produced, are truly and bona fide inlisted, and, so far as I know or believe, intend going in the service of the United Colonies, in the Third Battalion raised or raising in this Colony. So help me God.’

“And if, upon such review, the muster-master, who shall attend for that purpose, shall obtain the aforesaid oath, or (if of the people called Quakers) an affirmation to the same effect, and also find the same complete, agreeable to the above directions, shall thereupon certify the same on the back of the muster-roll of such company to this Congress, or, in their recess, to the Committee of Safety, in order that commissions may be made out to the officers of such company; which commissions the Committee of Safety of this Colony, during the recess of this Congress, upon receiving certificates as above, are required to make out and deliver.

“And it is hereby recommended to the inhabitants of this Colony to be aiding and assisting, as far as their influence extends, in raising the aforesaid levies.

“Attested: WILLIAM PATTERSON, Secretary.”

On the same day, the Provincial Congress unanimously recommended the proper persons for field officers of this battalion. The same gentlemen were elected by Continental Congress, February 9th.

Four of the companies, on being organized, were stationed at Staten Island, New York, and the other four at Amboy, New Jersey. They were joined at Elizabethtown, April 28th, and left that place for New York on the next day. On the 2d of May the battalion was reviewed by the Muster-master General, and on the 3d instant, with the First Battalion, sailed in sloops for Albany. Colonel Dayton reported there to Brigadier General John Sullivan, of New Hampshire. During the remainder of the year, they were stationed at Johnstown, German Flats, Fort Dayton, Fort Schuyler, Ticonderoga, and Mount Independence. They were chiefly engaged in preventing incursions of the Indians. The battalion left Albany March 7th, 1777, and was discharged at Morristown, New Jersey, on the 23d of the same month.

The second establishment of troops from New Jersey for the Continental Army was made by the Congress of the United Colonies, September 16th, 1776.

The original form of the following resolutions was given in a report of the Board of War, and after being amended as given below, by the Committee of the Whole, were passed by Congress:

“Resolved, That eighty-eight battalions be inlisted as soon as possible, to serve during the present war, and that the States furnish their respective quotas in the following proportions, vis.:

*	*	*	*	*	*	*	*	*
*	*	*	*	*	*	*	*	*

“That twenty dollars be given as a bounty to each non-commissioned officer and private soldier who shall inlist to serve during the present war, unless sooner discharged by Congress.

“That Congress make provision for granting lands in the following proportions: to the officers and soldiers who shall so engage in the service, and continue therein to the close of the war, or until discharged by Congress, and to the representatives of such officers and soldiers as shall be slain by the enemy, such lands, to be provided by the United States, and whatever expense shall be necessary to procure such land; the said expense shall be paid and borne by the States in the same proportions as the other expenses of the war, vis.: to a colonel, five hundred acres; to a lieutenant colonel, four hundred and fifty; to a major, four hundred; to a captain, three hundred; to a lieutenant-ant, two hundred; to an ensign, one hundred and fifty; and to each non-commissioned officer and soldier, one hundred.

"That the appointment of all officers and filling all vacancies (excepting general officers), be left to the governments of the several States, and that every State provide arms, clothing, and every necessary for its quota of troops, according to the foregoing estimate—the expense of the clothing to be deducted from the pay of the soldiers, as usual.

"That all officers be commissioned by Congress.

"That it be recommended to the several States that they take the most speedy and effectual measures for inlisting their several quotas.

"That the money to be given for bounties be paid by the paymaster in the department where the soldier shall inlist.

"That each soldier receive pay and subsistence from the time of inlistment.

In the minutes of Congress, October 8th, a resolution is found which provides for the giving of sundry articles of clothing in lieu of the twenty dollars bounty just referred to:

"Resolved, That for the farther encouragement of the non-commissioned officers and soldiers who shall engage in the service during the war, a suit of clothes be annually given each of the said officers and soldiers, to consist, for the present year, of two linen hunting-shirts, two pair of overalls, a leathern or woolen waistcoat, with sleeves, one pair of breeches, a hat or leathern cap, two shirts, two pair of hose, and two pair of shoes, amounting, in the whole, to the value of twenty dollars, or that sum to be paid to each soldier, who shall procure those articles for himself, and produce a certificate thereof from the captain of the company to which he belongs to the paymaster of the regiment."

On the 26th day of September, 1776, the Council of New Jersey appointed a committee of four to confer with a committee of nine of the General Assembly, respecting the raising of the four battalions required of New Jersey. The committee made the following report the next day in both Houses:

"Your committee appointed to join in a conference on the subject matter of a letter received from the Honorable John

Hancock, Esquire, respecting the raising four battalions of troops to serve during the war, beg leave to report that the committees met in conference according to order, and, having deliberated on the matters referred to their consideration, have come to sundry resolutions, as follows:

“1st. That it is the opinion of the committees that it is proper to comply with the requisition of the Honorable the Continental Congress, by raising, as speedily as possible, four battalions of troops, to serve during the present war, and to be on Continental pay.

“2d. That, in order thereto, it will be proper to take the three battalions first raised in this State and now in service to the northward of Albany, (or such parts thereof as are willing to engage in the service), into the establishment, reserving to the Legislature the power of re-appointing the officers at the end of the respective terms of their former enlistment, as the two Houses shall think proper on a due consideration of their merits, and having due regard to their former rank.

“3d. That as to the Fourth Battalion, and the supplying such deficiencies as may happen in the three battalions before mentioned, it will be proper to give a preference, both as to officers and soldiers, to the five battalions now under the command of General Heard: the officers to be elected out of such of them as shall apply or shall otherwise signify their willingness to engage in the service; and the soldiers to be enlisted by the officers so appointed so as not to interfere with their present enlistment, without the consent of the Commander-in-Chief of the army.

“4th. That it will be proper to send one or more commissioners, with proper instructions to inquire into the state of the battalions raised in this State and now in the service, and their disposition to engage farther in the service on the new establishment.”

A committee of one from each House was appointed in accordance with the fourth resolution, and on the 25th day of October they reviewed, at Ticonderoga, New York, the battalions raised under the first establishment. Their report was presented to the Legislature November 22d, and is as follows:

“The commissioners appointed by the Honorable Council and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, to inquire into the condition of the Jersey troops to the northward of Albany, and the disposition of the officers to engage in the Continental service during the war, beg leave to make the following report :

“That your commissioners, having with all possible despatch repaired to Ticonderoga, did there, as far as they were able, inquire into the condition of the troops of this State.

“Your commissioners found the soldiers destitute of many articles of dress ; supplies of every kind they want, but shoes and stockings they are in the last necessity for, many having neither to their feet.

“Your commissioners believe that the troops are well provided with provisions, and they have plenty of arms.

“Respecting the disposition of the officers to engage in the service, your commissioners beg leave to say that it is with the greatest cheerfulness the most of the officers are ready, on your appointment, to serve their country during the war. A very few decline, as may appear from the returns of the several regiments, which your commissioners beg leave to lay before you. The characters of the officers may be drawn from said returns and a few anecdotes of some of the general officers, which are at your command.

“JOHN CLEVES SYMMES, “THEUNIS DEY.

“Burlington, November 21st, 1776.”

A resolution of Continental Congress of the 8th of October, “recommended to the Assemblies, Conventions, and Councils of Safety of the several States which have any regiments now in the Continental service, either at New York, Ticonderoga, or New Jersey, that they forthwith appoint committees to proceed to those places, with full powers to appoint all the officers of the regiments to be raised by their States under the new establishment, that such officers may proceed immediately to enlist such men as are now in the service and incline to re-enlist during the war ; and that such committees be instructed to advise with the general officers, and promote such officers as have distinguished themselves for their abilities, activity, and vigilance in the service, and especially for their attention to military discipline.”

The Joint Meeting held November 16th, elected Theophilus Elmer, of Council, and Abraham Clark, of Assembly, as this committee, and instructed them accordingly.

On the 28th day of November, 1776, this committee reported, and the field officers of the four battalions, and the company officers of the Fourth Battalion, were elected. On the following day, the captains and subalterns of the First, Second, and Third Battalions were elected. On the 5th day of February, 1777, a new arrangement of the Second Battalion was made by Joint Meeting, and on the 17th of the same month, a new appointment and arrangement of the officers of the Fourth Battalion were made.

The following is the roster of officers of these battalions under the second, or new establishment for troops from New Jersey :

On the 23d of October, 1776, Colonel William Maxwell was elected by Congress, Brigadier General, and soon after assumed command of the four battalions raised on this establishment, called "Maxwell's Brigade."

It appears that the First Battalion was fully organized in December, 1776, the Second Battalion about February 1st, 1777, the Fourth Battalion about the close of the same month, and the Third Battalion, although Colonel Dayton and Captain Bloomfield left their first commands at Ticonderoga a few days after the inspection, did not get into the field before the last of April.

In the month of May, 1777, General Maxwell's Brigade was placed in the division of the American Army commanded by Major General Adam Stephens, of North Carolina. It was then encamped at Elizabethtown, Bound Brook, and Spanktown (Rahway). During the summer, the division of General Stephens marched through Pennsylvania and Delaware, and on the morning of September 11th, a portion of the "Jersey Line" opened the battle of Brandywine. They continued in the fight all that day, on the advance of the division. After the battle, the brigade continued marching and countermarching, had a skirmish with the enemy at White Horse Tavern, on the Lancaster road, passed near Yellow Springs, Reading Furnace, Worcester, and then towards the enemy, and finally encamped at Germantown. A battle took place at this post on the 4th of October. With the brigade of North Carolina troops commanded by Brigadier General Francis Nash, Maxwell's Brigade formed the corps de reserve and left wing of the American Army. This division was commanded by Major General Lord Stirling, of New Jersey. The whole command distinguished itself in this fight, but especially the First Battalion, which suffered severely in both officers and men.

In December, 1777, the cantonment of the army was proposed by General Washington, and, in this connection, Congress called upon him December 19th for a report thereon, and urged that measures be immediately agreed upon for the protection of New Jersey. The following is the text of the resolution:

"Resolved, That General Washington be informed that, in the opinion of Congress, the State of New Jersey demands, in a peculiar degree, the protection of the armies of the United States, so far as the same can possibly be extended, consistent with the safety of the army and the general welfare, as that State lies open to attacks from so many quarters, and the struggles which have been made by the brave and virtuous inhabitants of that State, in defence of the common cause, cannot fail of exposing them to the particular resentment of a merciless enemy."

Maxwell's Brigade was most of the winter with the army at Valley Forge, and, on the evacuation of Philadelphia by the British, June 18th, 1778, was detached from the main army, and with some militia, was ordered to harrass and impede General Clinton's force. The British Army marched towards New York by way of Moorestown and Mount Holly. The army under Washington crossed the Delaware river at Coryell's Ferry (Lambertville), and passed through Hopewell, Princeton, Kingston, Cranberry, and Englishtown, and met the enemy near Freehold. Maxwell's Brigade was afterwards joined by six hundred Continental troops, commanded by Colonel Daniel Morgan, of Virginia, and again by fifteen hundred picked troops, under Brigadier General Charles Scott, of Virginia, and one thousand under Brigadier General Anthony Wayne, of Pennsylvania. The entire force engaged in harrassing the enemy was in command of General Lafayette. On the 28th of June, 1778, the "Jersey Line" joined the left wing of the army, and the brigade, as well as the militia under Major General Philemon Dickinson, participated in the battle of Monmouth, fought on that day.

The brigade, after the fight, was sadly in want of clothing, and many and urgent were the requests made therefor to the Legislature.

The winter of 1778-9 was passed mostly at Elizabethtown, although a detachment of the Second Battalion was stationed in Newark, and a detachment of the Fourth Battalion in Spanktown (Rahway).

In consequence of the "Massacre of Wyoming," Maxwell's Brigade, on the 11th day of May, 1779, was ordered, with the first or principal division, under Major General John Sullivan, of New Hampshire, to march up the Susquehanna into the settlements of the Seneca Indians. Attached to the brigade at this time were Colonel Oliver Spencer's regiment, Colonel David Forman's regiment, Colonel Elisha Sheldon's (of Connecticut) regiment of light dragoons, and one battery of artillery. On the 9th of October, the brigade was ordered to return to New Jersey.

On the 23d of June, 1780, the Jersey troops, Continental and militia, took a prominent part in the fight at Springfield.

A new arrangement of the American Army was made by Congress, May 27th, 1778. Each battalion of infantry was to consist of nine companies, one of which was to be light infantry. Each of the field officers was to command a company; the adjutant, quartermaster, and paymaster to be taken from the line; the lieutenant of the colonel's company to have the rank of captain lieutenant. One surgeon and one surgeon's mate were added to the field and staff; one serjeant major, one quartermaster serjeant, one drum major, and one fife major made the non-commissioned staff; and six captains, one captain lieutenant, eight lieutenants, nine ensigns, twenty-seven serjeants, twenty-seven corporals, eighteen drummers and fifers, and four hundred and seventy-seven privates formed the balance of each battalion.

The following resolution was passed by Congress, March 9th, 1779:

“Resolved, That the infantry of these United States for the next campaign be composed of eighty battalions, vis.:

* * * * *

“That each of the said battalions consist of the number of commissioned and non-commissioned officers and privates established by an act of Congress, passed on the 27th day of May last.

“WHEREAS, Congress, by an act of January 23d last, did, among other things, authorize the Commander-in-Chief to take the most effectual measures to enlist, for the continuance of the war, new recruits in the United States, to complete the battalions to their proper complement, and, for this purpose, to grant to each new recruit who should enlist in any of the Continental battalions during the war, such a bounty as the Commander-in-Chief should think fit, but not to exceed two hundred dollars; and it being apprehended that the said provision will not answer the good purposes thereby intended—

“Resolved, That the above-recited clause of the said act of Congress be repealed, and that it be earnestly recommended to the several States to make up and complete their respective battalions to their full complement, by draughts, or in any other manner they shall think proper, and that they have their quotas of deficiencies ready to take the field, and to march to such place as the Commander-in-Chief shall direct, without delay.

“That a bounty of two hundred dollars, out of the Continental treasury, shall be granted to each recruit who, after the 23d day of January last, hath inlisted or shall inlist during the war; or, in case the State shall have granted as great or greater bounty, the said two hundred dollars, for every such recruit, shall be passed to the credit of the State, respectively, for whose quota he shall be raised.”

The Legislature of New Jersey, June 9th, 1779, passed the following:

“An Act for recruiting, by voluntary inlistment, the three regiments of this State in the service of the United States.

“WHEREAS, By the resolutions of the United States, in Congress assembled, bearing date the 9th day of March last, the several States are required to complete, by inlistments, during the war, their respective quotas of forces in the armies of the United States; and whereas, it is the duty of this State to take effectual measures for complying with the said requisition, as far as the embarrassed and difficult condition thereof, in respect of the seat and operations of the war, will permit—

“1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That three hundred and sixty-five able-bodied and effective volunteers be inlisted into the three regiments of this State in the service of the United States, to continue in the said service during the present war with Great Britain.

“2. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Governor or Commander-in-Chief of this State, for the time being, do, as soon as may be after the passing of this act, make application to the Commander-in-Chief of the armies of the United States for such and so many officers as he, the said Governor, may think expedient to be sent into different and convenient parts of the State, for the purpose of inlisting and forwarding the recruits which may engage in the service on the terms in this act held forth.

"3. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That there shall be allowed to each and every officer who shall be so employed in the recruiting service, and to each and every officer of the militia of this State, for every able-bodied effective recruit which he shall enlist or procure to be enlisted as aforesaid, the sum of twenty dollars, to be paid by the paymaster of the militia of the county where such recruit is enlisted, on producing a certificate from any justice of the peace, setting forth that the person so said to be enlisted hath been duly sworn or affirmed before him to serve as a soldier in one of the three regiments of this State in the service of the United States, for the term hereinabove mentioned, and likewise a certificate from some one of the officers hereinafter appointed to muster such recruits, setting forth that such recruit hath been by him mustered and approved; and where the said soldier hath been enlisted by a militia officer, a receipt from some one of the officers of the said three regiments, setting forth that he hath received such recruit into the service.

"4. And be it enacted, That exclusive of the sum of two hundred dollars and the bounty of clothing and lands given by the resolutions of Congress, there be paid to each able-bodied recruit, or his order, by the paymaster of the militia of the county where such recruit is enlisted, on a certificate from any justice of the peace, setting forth that the claimant hath been duly sworn or affirmed before him to serve as a soldier in one of the three regiments of this State, for the term hereinabove mentioned, and likewise a certificate from some one of the officers hereinafter appointed to muster such recruits, setting forth that such volunteer hath been by him mustered and approved.

"5. And it is hereby further enacted, That each and every recruit, enlisted as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the pay and emoluments allowed to such as belong to the troops of this State, from the day of his enlistment inclusively, and shall at his election, enter into any company of any of the three regiments of this State, provided such company be not already full.

"6. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any field officer in the service of the United States, or any field officer of the militia in the county in which such recruit shall be inlisted, shall be, and they hereby are authorized and empowered to muster any recruit so as above inlisted, and to grant a certificate as above directed of his having been so by them mustered and approved.

"7. And be it enacted, That the paymasters of the militia, respectively, who may make any payments by virtue of this act, shall, on producing separate accounts and vouchers thereof, be allowed the same in their settlement with the State.

"8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any recruiting officer or other person, from and after the date hereof, shall presume to inlist any person in any of the counties of this State to serve in any regiment, troop, or company belonging to any of the neighbouring States, or in any other troops whatever, otherwise than in the regiments belonging to this State, or in such troops or companies as have been or shall be assigned as the quota of this State, in the service of the United States, or shall detain, convey away, or refuse to release any person so inlisted, contrary to the intent and meaning hereof, such recruiting officer or other person so offending, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred pounds, to be recovered in any court of record where the same may be cognizable within this State, by any person that will sue for the same; one-half to the prosecutor, and the other half to and for the use of the State."

On the 9th day of February, 1780, Congress called upon New Jersey for sixteen hundred and twenty men to fill up the "Jersey Line" for the campaign of that year.

The deficiency then existing in the three regiments was ordered to be filled by the Legislature, March 11th, 1780. The act passed that date "for completing the quota of troops belonging to this State" differs but little from that of the previous year, just recited. The former act was repealed, and a substitute passed. Four hundred volunteers were called for, and the bounty was raised to one thousand dollars, exclusive of the Continental bounty and emoluments. Two hundred dollars premium was ordered paid to each officer who procured a recruit, and the following officers, from the several counties, were appointed to muster the same:

Bergen—Colonel Theunis Dey.

Essex—Colonel Moses Jaques.

Middlesex—Colonel John Webster.

Monmouth—Colonel Asher Holmes.

These muster-masters were allowed sixteen dollars on the muster of each recruit.

The act of the Legislature, March 11th, not "fully answering the purposes thereby intended," was amended June 14th, 1780, by calling for six hundred and twenty-four men to be raised in the several counties of this State, to continue in service until the 1st day of January, 1781, they to be raised in the following proportion :

Bergen, thirty-three men; Essex, forty-five; Middlesex, forty-seven; Monmouth, sixty; Somerset, fifty-four; Burlington, sixty-five; Gloucester, fifty-one; Salem, fifty-one; Cape May, thirteen; Hunterdon, eighty-four; Morris, fifty-one; Cumberland, thirty; Sussex, fifty.

On the 25th day of June, 1781, it was found necessary by the Legislature to adopt still more effectual means of completing the quota of troops. The deficit at this date was four hundred and fifty men. Recruiting officers were then appointed in the several counties, viz.:

Bergen—Captain Peter Ward.

Essex—Ephraim Marsh, Jr.

Middlesex—Captain Robert Ross.

Monmouth—Gilbert Longstreet.

Somerset—Captain Nathaniel Porter.

Burlington—Captain Marmaduke Curtis.

Cape May—Lieutenant Amos Cresse.

Hunterdon—Captain John Mott.

Morris—Captain Jacob Arnold.

Cumberland—Captain Amos Woodruff.

Sussex—Captain George Reynolds.

The bounty then authorized to be paid to each recruit was twelve pounds in gold or silver. One shilling in gold, silver, or copper coin was allowed him per day, in lieu of subsistence, until he was mustered and marched to join his regiment. Thirty shillings in coin were given each recruiting officer who procured a man able to pass muster. These volunteers, unlike those embodied for the Continental troops, in 1780, were engaged to serve during the war.

In the summer of 1780, a committee of Congress was appointed to make the "arrangement" for the officers of the First, Second, and Third Regiments of this State. It appears that many of the line officers of the second establishment, rather than be retired as supernumeraries, accepted assignment to duty in a lower grade than that theretofore held by them.

The joint meeting of the Legislature confirmed the arrangement September 26th, 1780.

The following is the roster of officers of these regiments under the third, or last establishment for troops:

General Maxwell continued to command the Jersey Brigade until he resigned, in July, 1780. Colonel Elias Dayton, as senior officer, then assumed command, and remained as such until the close of the war.

On the 21st of September, 1781, the three regiments landed on James river, Virginia, about five miles from Williamsburgh, and were employed in all the labor of the siege, and were present at the surrender of Yorktown, on the 19th of October.

The news of the cessation of hostilities was announced in the camp of the brigade, April 19th, 1783, and the "Jersey Line" were discharged November 3d, 1783.

During the summer and fall of 1776, soldiers of this State, as officers or enlisted men, began to join organizations raised directly by authority of Congress, or those of the Continental Line of other States.

A list of these organizations is here given, with the commissioned officers, residents of New Jersey, who were attached to each command at various times during the war.

SPENCER'S REGIMENT, CONTINENTAL ARMY.

By authority of Congress, Colonel Oliver Spencer, an officer in the State troops as well as the militia, organized a battalion or regiment for the Continental Army, about the time the second establishment was completed. Composed as it was, nearly, if not entirely, of Jerseymen, it is often referred to as the "Fifth Battalion, Jersey Line." The enlisted men will be found alphabetically arranged in the official roster. The strength of this command appears to have been about one hundred and seventy men, although a return, dated March, 1779, shows but one hundred and forty soldiers in the regiment.

—— Patterson.....Lieutenant.

LEE'S LEGION, CONTINENTAL ARMY.

This corps, called also "The Life Guard," and "Washington's Body Guard," was a distinct organization of picked men. It consisted of one hundred and eighty men, and its first officer was Caleb Gibbs, of Rhode Island, Captain-Commandant. William Colfax, of New Jersey, was a lieutenant at the organization, and was the successor of Gibbs—ranking as captain. The soldiers were all selected from the ranks of the army, their good character and soldierly bearing being a pre-requisite to their receiving this honor. Every State was represented in the "Guard." Its motto was "Conquer or Die."

The following general order issued by General Washington, gives the authority for the re-organization, composition, and continuance of the Commander-in-Chief's Guard:

"GENERAL ORDER No. 11.

STATE TROOPS.

---

At various times during the war, this State, by reason of its situation on the coast, and its lying between cities in possession of the enemy, was continually open to the incursions of British troops and the ravages of refugees and Indians. It was also the theatre of many battles, skirmishes, and forage expeditions, greatly to the annoyance of the inhabitants, as well as dangerous to the established government. It was found necessary, therefore, to "embody," as occasion required, a certain quota of volunteers from the militia of the different counties. These men were held liable to duty, when needed, not only in this, but also in adjoining States. These organizations were called "New Jersey Levies," "Five Months' Levies," but most generally designated as "State Troops."

On an examination of the laws, the following appear to be "Acts" authorizing the enrollment and organization of these troops:

On the 13th day of February, 1776, the Provincial Congress

"Resolved, That two complete artillery companies be raised in this Colony."

The officers of the two companies were chosen March 1st, 1776, and the ordinance organizing the command was passed the following day. It provides that one company shall be stationed in the eastern, and one in the western division of the State. Each company was to consist of a captain, captain-lieutenant, first and second lieutenants, a fire-worker, four sergeants, four corporals, one bombardier, and fifty matrosses. The command was ordered to be enlisted for one year's service.

Both these batteries did good service during the war. History shows that they took part in the battles of Trenton, Assunpink, Princeton, and Monmouth. On the 4th of December, 1776, the Eastern Company was annexed to Colonel Thomas Proctor's regiment of artillery, Continental Army, and assigned to General Knox's brigade of artillery. By reason of this assignment these batteries are often referred to as Continental troops.

The following is the roster of officers of these batteries :

EASTERN COMPANY OF ARTILLERY.

Frederick Frelinghuysen.....Captain.
 Daniel Neil.....Captain-Lieutenant.
 Thomas Clark.....First Lieutenant.
 John Heard.....Second Lieutenant.

Captain Frederick Frelinghuysen, resigned.

John Doughty, appointed Captain-Lieutenant—resigned.

First Lieutenant Thomas Clark, promoted Captain-Lieutenant, afterwards Captain.

Second Lieutenant John Heard, resigned.

John Van Dike, appointed Second Lieutenant, afterwards Captain-Lieutenant.

Aaron Clark, appointed Second Lieutenant.

WESTERN COMPANY OF ARTILLERY.

Samuel Hugg.....Captain.
 Thomas Newark.....Captain-Lieutenant.
 John Westcott.....First Lieutenant.
 Joseph Dayton.....Second Lieutenant.

Captain-Lieutenant Thomas Newark, resigned.

First Lieutenant John Westcott, promoted Captain-Lieutenant, afterwards Captain.

Second Lieutenant Joseph Dayton, resigned.

Seth Bowen, appointed First Lieutenant, afterwards Captain-Lieutenant—resigned.

Benjamin Whittall, appointed Second Lieutenant, First Lieutenant, and afterwards Captain-Lieutenant.

Eli Elmer, appointed Second Lieutenant.

The first act to organize the infantry branch of the State troops was passed by the Provincial Congress November 27th, 1776. It is here given in full, and serves as a form after which all similar ordinances were compiled :

“ WHEREAS, The present situation of publick affairs, and particularly the invasion of this State by the enemy, renders it absolutely necessary that some part of the militia should be called out and engaged as volunteers in the service of the United States of America, until it is probable that the four battalions,* the quota allotted for New Jersey, can be raised—

“ 1. BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THIS STATE, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That four battalions, consisting each of eight companies, of seventy-six privates, one drummer, one fifer, four corporals, and four serjeants, be immediately got in readiness and marched to join the army under the command of His Excellency, General Washington; which battalions shall be raised by a voluntary inlistment, to continue in service until the 1st day of April next, unless sooner discharged.

“ 2. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said militia shall have the same pay, rations, and allowance as the other troops on the Continental establishment, to commence from the time of their inlistment, and that they conform in all instances to the regulations which are or shall be made for the government of the forces in the service of the United States.

“ 3. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said battalions shall be formed as follows: one battalion to consist of two companies from the county of Bergen, three companies from the county of Essex, and three companies from the county of Morris; one battalion to consist of two companies from the county of Somerset, two companies from the county of Sussex, and four companies from the county of Hunterdon; one battalion to consist of three companies from the county of Middlesex, two companies from the county of Monmouth, and three companies from the county of Burlington; one battalion to consist of three companies from the county of Gloucester, three companies from the county of Salem, and two companies from the county of Cumberland.

"4. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in order that proper officers may be immediately appointed, the field officers, with the captains and subalterns in each county, do forthwith assemble and agree upon one captain, two lieutenants, and one ensign, for each company to be raised in their respective counties, and that the field officers appointed to the command of each battalion do appoint an adjutant and quartermaster for the battalion.

"5. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each man, at the time of inlisting, do sign the following inlistment :

"I, A. B., hereby promise and engage to enter into the service of the United States, and to serve them until the 1st day of April next, unless sooner discharged by Congress, and to observe and obey the orders of Congress and the orders of the generals and officers set over me by them.'

"6. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each man so entering himself as a volunteer, do furnish himself, at his own expence, with a good musket with a bayonet, a cartouch-box, blanket, canteen and knapsack.

"7. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in order to encourage the inlistment of men, at a conjuncture so important, there be allowed and paid as a bounty to each man who shall voluntarily inlist as aforesaid, and be properly accoutred, the sum of six dollars, over and above the Continental pay, to be paid to him at the time he passes muster; and also every man inlisting as aforesaid shall be furnished, at the publick expence, with one pair of shoes and one pair of stockings.

"8. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as any company shall be completed, the same shall be mustered in the presence of one of the commissioners hereinafter named, who are respectively appointed muster-masters for that purpose; and upon such muster being had, the said company shall immediately march to the place of general rendezvous to be appointed by the Brigadier General.

"9. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the colonels of the said battalions are hereby directed to make return, as soon as possible, to the Brigadier General, to be by him laid before the Legislature, of the numbers of men inlisted in each county of this State in the battalions aforesaid.

"10. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Sidney Berry, Thomas Denny, Benjamin Halsey, and Asher Holmes, Esquires, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for paying the bounty and furnishing the shoes and stockings allowed to each volunteer as aforesaid, who shall take receipts for all monies by them, or any of them, paid as a bounty, and for all shoes and stockings delivered out in manner aforesaid, signed by the persons receiving the same, which receipts, when laid before the Legislature of this State, shall discharge the commissioners, or any of them, of all monies legally paid for shoes or stockings legally delivered out as aforesaid; and that there be allowed as a compensation to said commissioners for reviewing the men, paying the bounty, and delivering out the shoes and stockings, a sum after the rate of one per cent. for all monies by them, or any of them, paid out as aforesaid. And the treasurer of this State is hereby required to pay such commissioners, or any of them, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the above purpose.

"11. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the four battalions above directed to be raised, form one brigade, to be under the command of Brigadier General Matthias Williamson.

"12. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the following officers be appointed to the command of the respective battalions, videlicet:

"For the battalion to be raised in the counties of Bergen, Essex, and Morris:

"Jacob Ford, Jr.....Colonel.

"Oliver Spencer.....Lieutenant Colonel.

"Richard Dey.....Major."

[The following changes took place in this battalion during the term of service:

Colonel Jacob Ford, Jr., died.

Lieutenant Colonel Oliver Spencer, promoted Colonel.

Major Richard Dey, resigned.
 Henry Axtell, appointed Major—resigned.
 Samuel Hayes, appointed Major].

“ For the battalion to be raised in the counties of Somerset, Sussex, and Hunterdon :

“ For the battalion to be raised in the counties of Middlesex, Monmouth, and Burlington :

“ For the battalion to be raised in the counties of Gloucester, Salem, and Cumberland :

 “ Whitton Cripps.....Lieutenant Colonel.

“ 13. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any of the said militia, while in service, be at liberty to enlist in any of the four battalions to be raised in this State under the new establishment, and to serve agreeably to the late resolutions of the Honourable Congress.”

On the 19th of February, 1777, the seventh section of the above act, giving a bounty of six dollars and a pair of shoes and stockings, was repealed.

An act was passed on the 24th of September, 1777, to raise a company of artillery. This battery was soon organized, and the command was given to Captain Joshua Huddy. It was stationed in Monmouth county, and did good service until the capture and murder of this noted officer.

On the 2d day of June, 1779, an act was passed “to embody, for a limited time, one thousand of the militia of this State for the defence of the frontiers thereof.” The method of monthly rotation then in use was found to be inconvenient and expensive, and as “interfering with the business of agriculture”—therefore these additional State troops were called out. They were in-listed to serve until December 15th, 1779. The law is similar to the one just quoted, save in a few provisions. Fifty dollars were named as the bounty for volunteers. Certain officials were declared exempt, and substitutes were allowed to be hired. Soldiers were still obliged to furnish their own arms and accoutrements; but if lost in the service, without fault of the owner, the value thereof was ordered to be paid.

On the 9th day of October, 1779, an act was passed "to embody, for a limited time, four thousand of the militia of this State, by voluntary enlistment." This force was called out on the recommendation of Congress, September 26th, 1779. They were to continue in service until December 20th, 1779. The quota of enlisted men of each county was made "four times the number that were apportioned" under the last act.

The following is the classification, by counties, of the field officers selected:

One regiment from Bergen, Morris, Somerset, and Sussex, to consist of ten companies, of one hundred and eight men each.

Henry Vandike.....	Colonel.
Benoni Hathaway.....	Lieutenant Colonel.
Samuel Meeker.....	Major.

One regiment from Essex, Middlesex, and Monmouth, to consist of ten companies, of one hundred and six men each.

Jacob Crane.....	Lieutenant Colonel.
Clarkson Edgar.....	Major.

One regiment from Hunterdon and Burlington, to consist of ten companies, of one hundred and one men each.

Jacob Perkins.....	Major.

One regiment from Gloucester, Salem, Cumberland, and Cape May, to consist of eight companies, of one hundred and two men each.

Nicholas Stilwell.....	Colonel.
Robert Brown.....	Lieutenant Colonel.
Anthony Sharp.....	Major.

On the 7th day of June, 1780, an act was passed "to embody, for a limited time, six hundred and twenty-four men for the defence of the frontiers of this State." The term of service of this force was limited to January 1st, 1781. The mode of raising recruits under this call was by ordering a meeting of the officers of militia in certain counties, dividing said militia into "Classes," and apportioning the quota of able-bodied men from each class. Each class must then furnish the men, hire substitutes, or be assessed for the purpose of procuring them for delinquent classes. A mileage of one dollar per mile was ordered paid, and a bonus, above Continental pay and rations, allowed per month, ranging from five hundred dollars (Continental money), to a colonel, to sixty dollars per month for the private soldier.

The following officers had charge of this force :

Samuel Hayes.....Major.

Two hundred and forty-three men, stationed in Bergen and Middlesex, north of the Raritan river.

Asher Holmes.....Colonel.

Two hundred and sixty-two men, stationed in Monmouth and Middlesex, south of the Raritan river.

Samuel Westbrook.....Major.

One hundred and nineteen men, stationed in Sussex.

On the 14th day of June, 1780, an act was passed raising six hundred and twenty-four men, in the same manner as by the act of June 4th, which men were immediately to be transferred to the Continental Line, to complete the three regiments of the State. Their term of service was, however, to end January 1st, 1781. Fifty dollars a day were given officers for recruiting these men for the Jersey Brigade. At the same time, an additional company of thirty men was raised for Colonel Asher Holmes, as referred to in last act. Officers—Ephraim Jenkins, Captain, and Joshua Studson, Lieutenant.

On the 26th day of December, 1780, eight hundred and twenty men were ordered to be raised, in the same manner and for the same purpose as provided in the preceding act. Service limited to January 1st, 1782.

The following was the assignment of station and the officers of this levy:

MILITIA.

On the 3d day of June, 1775, an act providing a "plan for regulating the militia of the Colony" was passed in the Provincial Congress of New Jersey, then in session at Trenton.

It was as follows:

"The Congress, taking into consideration the cruel and arbitrary measures adopted and pursued by the British Parliament and present ministry, for the purpose of subjugating the American Colonies to the most abject servitude, and being apprehensive that all pacific measures for the redress of our grievances will prove ineffectual, do think it highly necessary that the inhabitants of this Province be forthwith properly armed and disciplined for defending the cause of American freedom; and further considering that, to answer this desirable end, it is requisite that such persons be entrusted with the command of the militia as can be confided in by the people, and are truly zealous in support of our just rights and privileges, do recommend and advise that the good people of this Province henceforward strictly observe the following rules and regulations, until this Congress shall make further order therein:

"1. That one or more companies, as the case may require, be immediately formed in each township or corporation, and, to this end, that the several committees in this Province do, as soon as may be, acquaint themselves with the number of male inhabitants in their respective districts, from the age of sixteen to fifty, who are capable of bearing arms, and thereupon form them into companies, consisting, as near as may be, of eighty men each; which companies, so formed, shall, each by itself, assemble and choose, by plurality of voices, four persons from among themselves, of sufficient substance and capacity for its officers, namely—one captain, two lieutenants, and an ensign.

"2. That the officers so chosen appoint, for their respective companies, fit persons to be serjeants, corporals, and drummers.

"3. That, as soon as the companies are so formed, the officers of such a number of companies as shall by them be judged proper to form a regiment, do assemble and choose one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, a major, and an adjutant for each regiment.

"4. That each captain, as soon as elected, furnish himself with a muster-roll, after the form following, to be signed by every person under his command, viz. :

"We, the subscribers, do voluntarily inlist ourselves in the company of ———, in the township of ———, in the county of ———, under the command of Colonel ———, (if a colonel shall be chosen at the time of subscribing), and do promise to obey our officers in such service as they shall appoint us, agreeable to the rules and orders of the Provincial Congress. Witness our hands,' &c.

"5. That the persons so inlisted meet under the directions of their officers, in such manner, and at such times and places as shall by them be judged necessary for their improvement in military discipline, and that each whole company do assemble at least once a month, for the same purpose; and that a general muster or review of the whole regiment be had as often and at such times as the field officers shall appoint.

"6. That each person inlisted be equipped, as soon as possible, with arms and ammunition, in such manner as by the field officers of such regiment shall be directed.

"7. That due obedience be paid to the officers, and strict attention observed in learning the military exercise.

"8. That where companies and regiments are already formed, and officers chosen and appointed, the same be continued; provided, that they do adopt such further rules and orders respecting the signing of a muster-roll, days of meeting and reviews, as are hereinbefore contained, and that, where part only of the officers are already appointed and chosen, they do proceed to elect such other officers as remain yet to be chosen, in conformity to the rules herein contained."

This plan of regulating the militia was still further considered and amended, August 16th, 1775. After that date all officers chosen were ordered to be commissioned by the Provincial Congress or the Committee of Safety. Penalties and fines were then exacted for disobedience, refusal to bear arms, or absence at muster.

The following arrangement of militia was then ordered :

Bergen county, one regiment.

Essex county, two regiments.

Middlesex county, two regiments.

Somerset county, two regiments.

Monmouth county, three regiments.

Morris county, two regiments and one battalion.

Sussex county, two regiments and one battalion.

Hunterdon county, four regiments.

Burlington county, two regiments and a company of rangers.

Gloucester county, three battalions.

Salem county, one regiment.

Cumberland county, two battalions.

Cape May county, one battalion.

“Minute Men” having been raised in the counties of Morris, Sussex, and Somerset, this ordinance also ordered, in obedience to the recommendation of Continental Congress, the several counties to furnish them in these proportions :

Bergen county, four companies.

Essex county, six companies.

Middlesex county, six companies.

Monmouth county, six companies.

Somerset county, five companies.

Morris county, six companies.

Sussex county, five companies.

Hunterdon county, eight companies.

Burlington county, five companies.

Gloucester county, four companies.

Salem county, three companies.

Cumberland county, three companies.

Cape May county, one company.

These companies of militia, called “Minute Men,” were “held in constant readiness, on the shortest notice, to march to any place where assistance might be required, for the defence of this or any neighboring Colony." They were to continue in service four months, and they had precedence of rank over the "common militia" of the Province. The companies from each county formed a battalion—in all, ten battalions—the "Minute Men" of Cumberland and Cape May being independent companies of light infantry and rangers.

On the 31st of August, 1775, it is noted that the "Minute Men" were directed to adopt for their uniform, hunting frocks, as near as may be to the uniform of riflemen in Continental service.

The Congress of New Jersey passed more stringent regulations for the militia, October 28th, 1775. Men capable of bearing arms who were "requested" to enroll themselves by the first military ordinance were now "directed" to do so. They were directed with all convenient speed to furnish themselves with "a good musket or firelock and bayonet, sword or tomahawk, a steel ramrod, worm, priming-wire and brush fitted thereto, a cartouch-box to contain twenty-three rounds of cartridges, twelve flints, and a knapsack." They were also directed to keep "at their respective abodes, one pound of powder and three pounds of bullets. Fines, if not paid, were ordered to be collected by warrants of distress, levied on the goods and chattels of the offender. In case of an alarm, the "Minute Men" were directed to repair immediately to their captains' residences, and he was to march his company instantly to oppose the enemy. Companies of light-horse were ordered to be raised among the militia.

In February, 1776, the Committee of Safety of New York called upon the Provincial Congress for a detachment of militia to assist in arresting tories in Queens county, Long Island, and on Staten Island, New York. On the 12th of February, three hundred men of the militia of Middlesex, three hundred of Essex, and one hundred of Somerset were ordered out for that purpose, the following officers commanding:

- Nathaniel Heard.....Colonel.
- Edward Thomas.....Lieutenant Colonel.
- John Dunn.....Major.

Another detachment of "Minute Men" was ordered February 15th, 1776, to proceed to New York, under command of

- Charles Stewart.....Colonel.

Mark Thompson.....Lieutenant Colonel.
 Frederick Frelinghuysen.....First Major.
 Thomas Henderson.....Second Major.

This order, however, was countermanded February 22d.

Many of the "Minute Men," as such, having entered the Continental Army, the battalions thereof became so reduced that on the 29th day of February, 1776, they were ordered to be dissolved and incorporated in the militia of the districts where they resided.

On the 3d day of June, 1776, the Continental Congress

"Resolved, That thirteen thousand eight hundred militia be employed to re-enforce the army at New York."

"Resolved, That the Colony of New Jersey be requested to furnish, of their militia, three thousand three hundred men."

According to this resolve, an ordinance was passed June 14th, 1776, by the Provincial Congress, to raise the number of men required. This force was ordered to be divided into five battalions, consisting of eight companies, of seventy-eight men each, and the service was limited to December 1st, 1776. A bounty of three pounds was allowed each man who should enlist in this brigade.

The following was the organization, the first officers, and the changes which took place in this brigade during its term of service:

 Robert Hoops.....Brigade Major.

Both officers declined, and the offices were filled by the promotion of

Bowes Reed.....	Lieutenant Colonel.
Ebenezer Howell.....	Major.
Abijah Holmes.....	Quartermaster.
Thomas Ewing.....	Surgeon.
Robert Patterson.....	Surgeon's Mate.
Philip Vickers Fithian.....	Chaplain.

Major Ebenezer Howell, declined.

Captain William Ellis, promoted Major.

Chaplain Philip Vickers Fithian, killed.

By a return from General Heard's brigade, in and near the city of New York, September, 1776, the strength of this command appears to be one hundred and sixty officers and one thousand seven hundred and sixty-two enlisted men.

On the 16th day of July, 1776, Congress requested the Convention of New Jersey to supply with militia the places of two thousand men of General Washington's Army, who had been ordered to march into New Jersey to form the flying camp. On the 18th of July, an ordinance was passed detaching that number from the militia for that purpose. It was resolved that the two thousand militia should compose four battalions, consisting of thirty companies, of sixty-four men each. They were only to be held for one month from the time of their joining the flying camp.

The battalions of this brigade were organized and officered in the following manner :

The battalion consisting of two companies from Bergen, three from Essex, and two from Morris :

Edward Thomas.....	Colonel.
Ellis Cook.....	Lieutenant Colonel.
John Mauritius Goetschius.....	Major.
Samuel Hayes.....	Adjutant.
William Winants.....	Surgeon.

The battalion consisting of two companies from Somerset, two from Sussex, and four from Hunterdon :

Mark Thompson.....	Colonel.
Abraham Bonnell.....	Lieutenant Colonel.
Enos Kelsey.....	Major.
Jacob Jennings.....	Surgeon.

The battalion consisting of three companies from Middlesex, three from Monmouth, and two from Salem :

✓ George Taylor.....Colonel.
 Whittou Cripps.....Lieutenant Colonel.
 John Duychinck.....Major.

Colonel George Taylor refused to qualify, and deserted.
 Samuel Forman, appointed Colonel.
 Major John Duychinck, declined.
 John Dunn, appointed Major.

The battalion consisting of three companies from Burlington, three from Gloucester, and one from Cumberland :

Charles Read.....Colonel.
 Josiah Hillman.....Lieutenant Colonel.
 William Ellis.....Major.
 Bodo Otto, Jr.....Surgeon.

One-half of the militia were ordered to be detached August 11th, 1776, and called out for immediate service, to be relieved by the other half every month. One division of the militia, detached from every organization in the State, was ordered to march with all dispatch to join the flying camp, for one month's service. The second division was held ready to relieve them, to be themselves relieved in turn. On this basis of monthly classes in active service the militia were held during the continuance of the war.

An act for the better regulating the militia was passed March 15th, 1777. It organized the force more strictly than formerly, defined the duties and powers of officers, &c. This was still further improved, and the last ordinance repealed, by an act of April 14th, 1778. This also divided the militia into brigades, as follows :

The militia of the counties of Middlesex, Somerset, Essex, Bergen, Morris, and Sussex into one brigade—the militia of the counties of Hunterdon, Burlington, Monmouth, Gloucester, Salem, Cumberland, and Cape May into the other brigade.

This act was amended March 18th, 1780, and bounties, ranging from five hundred dollars (Continental money), for the colonel, to sixty dollars for the private, were ordered paid for actual service of one month.

On the 8th of January, 1781, the militia were formed into three, instead of two brigades, viz. :

“The militia of the counties of Bergen, Essex, Morris, and Sussex, and of those parts of the counties of Middlesex and Somerset lying on the northern and eastern side of the Raritan river, and of the south branch of the same, shall compose the Upper Brigade.

“The militia of the counties of Monmouth, Hunterdon, and Burlington, and of those parts of the counties of Middlesex and Somerset lying on the southern and western side of the Raritan river, and of the south branch of the same, shall compose the Middle Brigade.

“The militia of the counties of Gloucester, Salem, Cape May, and Cumberland shall compose the Lower Brigade.”

The Governor of the State, June 27th, 1781, was authorized to call out a part of the militia, and continue them in service three months, for the purpose of co-operating with the Continental Army. Such men were exempted from service for nine months next ensuing.

Companies of artillery and troops of horse were, from time to time, organized in sundry townships or cities, by direction of the Governor, or by special law enacted by the General Assembly of the State.

The good service performed by the militia of this State is fully recorded in history. At the fights at Quinton's Bridge, Hancock's Bridge, Three Rivers, Connecticut Farms, and Van Neste's Mills they bore an active part; while at the battles of Long Island, Trenton, Assunpink, Princeton, Germantown, Springfield, and Monmouth they performed efficient service in supporting the Continental Line.
