SUBCHAPTER 10. DISCOVERY

SUBCHAPTERS 11 THROUGH 12. (RESERVED)

1:6B-10.1 Discovery

(a) The parties shall commence discovery immediately upon receipt of the notice of referral.

(b) A party may notify another party to provide discovery by one or more of the following methods: written interrogatories; production of documents or things; permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection or other purposes; and requests for admissions. These discovery requests shall be initiated by transmitting the request to the receiving party within 30 days of receipt of the notice of referral.

(c) Answers to discovery requests shall be made within 30 days of receipt of the request.

(d) Depositions upon oral examination or written questions and physical and mental examinations are available only upon motion for good cause or upon consent of the parties. A motion for additional discovery shall be filed with the administrative law judge no later than 10 days after the due date for filing of answers to discovery available pursuant to (b) above.

(e) Additional discovery must be completed within 30 days of receipt of an order granting the motion or, if upon the consent of the parties, no later than 30 days from the due date of answers to initial discovery requests.

(f) The judge may extend the discovery period for no more than 30 days due to disputes over sufficiency, completion, or other just cause.

SUBCHAPTER 13. PREHEARING CONFERENCES AND PROCEDURES

1:6B-13.1 Prehearing conferences

A prehearing conference shall be held within 30 days of referral of the case to the Office of Administrative Law.

SUBCHAPTER 14. CONDUCT OF CASES

1:6B-14.1 Ordering a transcript

Any party requesting a transcript shall file the request within 24 hours of the conclusion of the hearing. Failure to timely request a transcript shall not result in an extension of the time for filing of briefs.

1:6B-14.2 Filing of briefs

(a) Briefs shall be filed with the judge within 30 days of conclusion of the hearing, except in cases where a transcript has been ordered.

(b) In matters where a transcript has been ordered, briefs shall be filed with the judge within 30 days of receipt of the transcript by the parties, but in no event later than 45 days after conclusion of the hearing.
