Trenton, NJ – Today, Governor Chris Christie released the following statement in celebration of Independence Day:

"On July 4th, Americans celebrate the spark of liberty lit by our Founding Fathers on a balmy Philadelphia day, 241 years ago. We all must take a brief moment from our holiday festivities to honor and pay tribute to the current and former members of our nation's armed services, and their families. Their sacrifices endure longer than just one night, as they protect and preserve our inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. May God bless New Jersey and the rest of our United States of America, today, on Independence Day, and every other day."
