Trenton, NJ – As we kick off this July 4th weekend, Governor Chris Christie issued the following statement in celebration of Independence Day:

“In observation of our country’s independence we come together to celebrate the freedoms we enjoy as Americans. We remember the principles of liberty and democracy on which our nation was founded and the many around the world to whom these freedoms are denied. As we gather for festivities with loved ones this weekend, let us take a moment to honor our armed forces whose sacrifice and commitment preserve our liberties, values, and way of life. I wish all New Jerseyans a happy and safe Fourth of July weekend and may God bless America.”
