State Library Updates

Introducing Money Smart for Life!

Join the New Jersey State Library to promote financial literacy information and resources for all ages during Financial Literacy Month in April 2026! Money Smart for Life is NJSL's statewide initiative to showcase how libraries support financial education and wellbeing in their communities.

Coming Soon!

- Resources: Discover financial literacy websites and tools in one place
- Professional Development: Attend webinars on financial literacy topics
- Statewide Reach: Host financial literacy programs at your library

Stay updated through the NJSL website: www.njstatelib.org/moneysmart

If you have questions, contact Andrea Levandowski (alevandowski@njstatelib.org) or Sharon Rawlins (srawlins@njstatelib.org).

Join the Community of Practice (CoP) to Discuss Teaching Information Literacy in New Jersey

Anyone who works with youth in school, public, or academic libraries is invited to register to join the NJ State Library-sponsored monthly virtual Community of Practice (CoP) meetups. These sessions offer an opportunity to connect with colleagues, share ideas, and explore strategies to strengthen information literacy programming for youth. The CoP meetups will be held on the second Tuesday of each month beginning December 9th, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. via Microsoft Teams.

Research Ready: Resources for Supporting Teens

- One Session Left

The NJ State Library is sponsoring a five-part series of one-hour virtual sessions to equip librarians with the essential tools and strategies to support teens' skills in conducting academic research. Register for the last session here:

Apply for New Jersey Council for the Humanities' Prime Time Family Reading Program - Deadline Extended

The application deadline for New Jersey libraries interested in serving as 2026 host sites for the New Jersey Council for the Humanities' Prime Time Family Reading program has been extended to December 3, 2025.

Prime Time Family Reading is a national program serving kids and their families. Participating families build early literacy skills, engage in critical thinking, and connect with each other through literature and discussion. Participating libraries receive $6,500 in funding from NJCH and training through the national network to implement this program in their community.

Full information and the application can be found at <https://njhumanities.org/programs/prime-time-reading/>.

Libraries and AI Futures Webinar

This program, brought to you by LibraryLinkNJ and the LibraryLinkNJ Tech Advisory Group (L-TAG), will help library professionals gain a better perspective on the rapidly developing AI technology and a set of issues related to AI and libraries. On Wednesday, January 14th, at 1 p.m., attendees will become familiar with potential leading factors and dynamics that may shape the future of AI adoption in our society, as well as the implications of various combinations of these factors and dynamics for the future of libraries and their services.
