Case Notes

The determination of clear market value or market value must encompass and entail the objective assessment of all relevant factors bearing upon worth. In re Estate of Romnes, 79 N.J. 139, 398 A.2d 543 (1979).

SUBCHAPTER 2. IMPOSITION AND COMPUTATION OF TAX

18:26-2.1 Nature of tax

(a) The Act imposes a tax upon transfers of the value of $500.00 or over, or of any interest thereon or income therefrom, held in trust or otherwise, to or for the use of any transferee, as set forth under N.J.S.A. 54:34-1, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. In the case of a resident decedent, where such transfers consist of real or tangible property situated in this State or intangible personal property wherever situated, owned by such decedent; and

2. In the case of a nonresident decedent, where such transfers consist of real or tangible personal property owned by such decedent situated in this State at the time of death.

18:26-2.2 Law at the time of death controls

The right of the State to the inheritance tax on transfers vests at the moment of a decedent's death so that the law prevailing at the time of death of a resident or nonresident controls the transfers subject to the tax and the rates thereon.

Amended by R.1994 d.627, effective December 19, 1994.
See: 26 N.J.R. 4166(c), 26 N.J.R. 5036(a).

Case Notes

Compromise transfer tax calculated on date of testator's death. Estate of Darrin v. Taxation Div. Director, 9 N.J.Tax 419 (1987), affirmed in part, reversed in part 232 N.J.Super. 437, 557 A.2d 677 (A.D.1989), appeal dismissed 118 N.J. 193, 570 A.2d 958, on remand 11 N.J.Tax 482.

Applicable transfer inheritance tax rates were those in effect at testator's death. Estate of Darrin v. Director of Div. of Taxation (Transfer Inheritance Tax Bureau), 232 N.J.Super. 437, 557 A.2d 677 (A.D.1989), appeal dismissed 118 N.J. 193, 570 A.2d 958, on remand 11 N.J.Tax 482.

Request that trustee of testamentary trust be appointed guardian of minor was properly denied. Matter of Estate of Horowitz, 220 N.J.Super. 300, 531 A.2d 1364 (L.1987).

Noted that the real significance of the transfer inheritance tax was that it vests in the State immediately upon the death of the testator; various tax statutes found not self-executing for current appropriations and not valid authority for withdrawal of monies from State treasury. City of Camden v. Byrne, 82 N.J. 133, 411 A.2d 462 (1980).

State's right to inheritance tax vests at the moment of decedent's death; law prevailing at time of death controls the transfer of the estate. Wells v. Taxation Div. Director, 3 N.J.Tax 420 (Tax Ct.1981).

18:26-2.3 Computation of tax

The New Jersey Inheritance Tax is computed upon the clear market value of the property transferred, but only upon that portion in excess of the exemptions and deductions allowable under the law on the date of the transferor's death at the rates then in effect.

N.J.S.A. 54:34-5.

18:26-2.4 Exclusion of exempt transfers

In computing the tax the deductions allowed by N.J.S.A. 54:34-5 (see N.J.A.C. 18:26-7) are to be deducted from the clear market value of the property transferred, and the tax computed on the remainder of the transfer less any exemptions permitted under N.J.S.A. 54:34-4 (see subchapter 6 of this chapter) at the rates in effect at the date of death.

18:26-2.14 Composition of taxes on certain transfers

(a) In the case of a transfer or transfers made subject to a contingency or condition which renders a definite determination of the transfer inheritance tax due impossible, the Transfer Inheritance Tax Branch may enter into a composition or compromise of the tax based upon the immediate payment and final disposition of the tax.

(b) The composition or compromise of the tax is determined after a consideration of the amount of taxes that may become due as a result of the various contingencies or conditions, the present values thereof and the probability of the contingencies or conditions to which the transfers are subject occurring. The purpose of a composition is to permit an immediate, fair and equitable adjustment of the tax due, rather than holding the liability for taxes suspended for an indefinite period.

(c) The payment of the taxes provided for in such composition shall be conclusive in favor of the executor or trustee as against the interests of such cestuis que trustent as may possess present rights of enjoyment or fixed, absolute or indefeasible rights of future enjoyment, or of such as would possess such rights in the event of the immediate termination of a particular transfer.

(b) Upon the happening of the contingency or condition to which a transfer is subject, the executor, administrator, trustee or other proper representative shall notify the Transfer Inheritance Tax Branch of the date the occurrence took place and a computation of the tax due shall then be made. (See N.J.A.C. 18:26-9.16).

18:26-2.16 Ratio tax on transfer of nonresident's property

(a) In the case of a nonresident decedent's estate containing real or tangible personal property located in this State which passes to a transferee wherever situated, except by means of a specific devise, such transfer shall be computed as follows:

The tax shall bear the same ratio to the entire tax which the said estate would have been subject to under the laws of this State if such non-resident decedent had been a resident of this State, and all of his property real and personal (tangible or intangible) had been located within this State, as such real or tangible personal property passing to a transferee in this State bears to the entire estate wherever situated.

(b) The following are illustrations of the provisions of subsection (a) of this Section:

Example (1):

Mr. "A" a California domiciliary, died intestate, on July 3, 1978, leaving as his sole heir a brother, Mr. "B", domiciled in New Jersey. Mr. "A's" estate consisted of the following: real property of the value of $10,000 in New Jersey; $20,000 in cash located in an Illinois bank; and $70,000 in real and personal property located in California.

The New Jersey property is subject to the ratio tax and the tax on such transfer is computed as follows:

First, a tax is computed on the value of the entire estate as if such estate were located in New Jersey, (i.e., $$100,000 \times 11\%$, the rate applicable for property passing to a Class "C" transferee or $11,000).

Second, the tax so computed is then multiplied by a fraction whose numerator is the value of the real or tangible personal property located in this State and whose denominator is the value of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, in the estate (i.e., $\frac{10}{100} \times $11,000 = $1,100$, which is the ratio tax on the property passing to Mr. "B").

If Mr. "B" had been a resident of Pennsylvania the result would be the same.

If Mr. "A" had specifically devised the property in New Jersey to his brother, said property would not be subject to the ratio tax.

Example (2):

Same facts as Example (1) except that Mr. "A" died testate and bequeathed $10,000 held in a New Jersey bank to his brother and the rest of his estate to his wife. First, tax computed as if Mr. "A" had been a New Jersey domiciliary, i.e., as to "B", $$10,000 \times 11\% = $1,100$; as to "A's" wife, $90,000 taxes, $15,000 exempt.

Next 35,000 \times 2% =	700.00
Next 40,000 \times 3% =	1,200.00
Total:	$1,900.00
	plus $1,100 = $3,000.00

Second, the total tax, i.e., $3,000 is multiplied by 1/10 the ratio of the property subject to tax to the entire estate, i.e., $1/10 \times $3,000 = \300.00 , the amount of tax due on the transfer of property to Mr. "B".

18:26-2.18 through 18:26-2.19 (Reserved)SUBCHAPTER 3. ADDITIONAL TAX (NEW JERSEY ESTATE TAX)*18:26-3.1 Estates subject to tax

(a) In addition to the inheritance tax imposed upon the transfer of property of a decedent in this State, the estates of the following are subject to an estate tax:

1. All New Jersey residents dying after June 22, 1934; and,

2. All New Jersey residents dying after February 26, 1926, which are still in the process of settlement and subject to the jurisdiction of the probate courts of this State, except those estates where the inheritance tax due this State has been fully paid and all proceedings closed, or where the Federal estate tax has been fully paid and the time within which to claim the benefit of the credit for taxes paid to the State provided for in the Federal Revenue Act of 1926 expired prior to June 22, 1934, where the inheritance taxes paid to New Jersey, and other states, territories or the District of Columbia are not sufficient to fully absorb the credit allowed for payment thereof against any Federal estate tax payable to the United States.

(b) In a case where the aggregate of taxes paid this and any other states, District of Columbia, territories and possessions exceeds the amount of the allowable credit for state taxes under the Federal Estate Tax Law, no estate tax is due this State.

18:26-3.2 Amount and nature of tax

(a) The New Jersey estate tax is that amount representing the difference between the gross amount of the inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid this State and any other states, territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia and the amount of the credit allowable against the Federal estate tax due the United States.

Example:

Mr. "A", a New Jersey resident, died on July 16, 1992, having a taxable estate of $700,000 for Federal estate tax purposes. The credit allowable for State taxes under the Federal estate tax law was $18,000, the amount actually paid to New Jersey for inheritance taxes was $6,000. The New Jersey estate tax due is $12,000.

(b) The New Jersey estate tax does not in any way interfere with the operation of the inheritance tax so as to decrease any inheritance, succession or legacy tax due or to become due this State or any other state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia or to impair the lien of this State for any tax. The determination of the inheritance tax chargeable need not be suspended until the estate tax, if any, payable to New Jersey, is assessed. Neither is it necessary to withhold the filing of the Federal estate tax return pending the determination of the amount of the New Jersey inheritance taxes chargeable. Where, however, the value of a bequest, in trust or otherwise, to a surviving spouse is made dependent upon the value of the decedent's adjusted gross estate, as finally fixed for Federal estate purposes, the New Jersey transfer inheritance tax chargeable cannot be determined until the Federal estate tax proceedings have been finally completed.

(c) The estate tax due this State is payable out of the same funds as those from which the Federal estate taxes are payable.

(d) The tax imposed upon the estates of resident decedents in New Jersey, unlike the inheritance tax, does not constitute a lien on any of the property, real or personal, of the estate, and therefore waivers or consents to transfer are unnecessary.

(e) For estates with date of death on or after July 1, 1993, no assessment of additional estate tax shall be made after the expiration of more than four years from the date of filing of an estate tax return except in the following cases:

1. The return is false or fraudulent with the intent to evade tax;
2. If before the expiration of the four year period prescribed in this subsection for the assessment of additional tax a taxpayer consents in writing that such period may be extended, the amount of such additional tax may be determined at any time within such period. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period;
3. An additional or increased estate tax becomes payable as a result of a redetermination, or additional or corrected assessment of estate, inheritance, succession, or legacy taxes by the United States government or any state or territory of the United States, including the District of Columbia. (See N.J.A.C. 18:26-3.4 for requirement to notify the Division of a redetermination of estate tax by the Internal Revenue Service.); or
4. The Federal estate tax chargeable on final assessment has not been definitely determined.

(f) The taxes assessed pursuant to (e)3 and 4 above shall be made within four years from the date the additional or increased estate tax becomes payable or the Federal estate tax chargeable on final assessment is definitely determined and the Branch is properly notified pursuant to N.J.A.C. 18:26-3.4.

Amended by R.1989 d.210, effective March 27, 1989.

18:26-3.3 Maximum estate tax where no inheritance tax imposed

In an estate where no inheritance tax is due this State, but an estate tax is due the United States under the provisions of the Federal Estate Tax Law in effect at the date of a decedent's death, the estate tax due this State is that amount representing the difference between the gross amount of the inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid any other states, territories, possessions or the District of Columbia, if any, and the maximum amount of credit allowable under the Federal Estate Tax Law.

18:26-3.4 Additions or reductions to estate tax

(a) If subsequent to a determination of the estate tax due this State, an additional or increased estate tax shall become payable to the United States by reason of a redetermination, or additional or corrected assessment, as to a portion of which the estate is entitled to a credit for estate, inheritance, succession or legacy taxes paid to any state or territory of the United States, including the District of Columbia, then an additional estate tax shall be due and payable to this State which shall be computed in the same manner as stated in Section 3.2 of this Section.

(b) If subsequent to a determination of the estate tax due this State, the amount of the Federal estate tax shall be decreased and the amount allowed as a credit for inheritance, succession or legacy taxes paid to any state or territory of the United States, including the District of Columbia, correspondingly reduced, the estate tax due this State shall be reduced accordingly upon submitting satisfactory proof to the Director.

(c) The amount of the estate tax due New Jersey, if any, cannot be determined in any case until the Federal Government has definitely determined the amount of Federal estate tax chargeable on final assessment.

1. Notice to the estate of final assessment usually takes the form of a letter from the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, indicating the amount of Federal estate tax chargeable, and the amount of the allowable credit.

2. If any adjustments have been made, this letter is accompanied by a detailed statement of the changes made in each schedule of the Federal estate tax return. If an appeal from the Director's findings is taken, the final notice will be the order of the appellate court in this respect.

3. The New Jersey Inheritance Tax Branch requires a photostatic copy of all determinations, final and intermediate, of the Internal Revenue Service, with all supporting statements. Photostatic copies of receipts for payment of succession or estate taxes to any state, other than New Jersey, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia are also required.

4. Form of return for New Jersey estate tax purposes may be obtained from the Transfer Inheritance Tax Branch, CN-249, Trenton, N.J. 08646-0249.

18:26-3.6 Taxation of future interests after estate tax paid; credit

If after the payment of the New Jersey estate tax there shall become due and payable a tax upon any future interest in any property under an instrument creating an executory devise or an estate in expectancy of any kind or character which is contingent or defeasible, or if by reason of any additional or corrected assessment by the Director an additional inheritance, succession or legacy tax shall become due and payable, the tax paid shall be credited against the tax arising therefrom, but the amount so credited shall not in any event exceed the amount of the tax so accruing.

18:26-3.7 Payment; due date; interest; extension of time

(a) The New Jersey estate tax is due at the date of a decedent's death. However, if payment is made within nine months from the date of death, no late penalty shall be imposed.

(b) All or any part of the estate tax due this State, if not paid within nine months from the date of death, shall bear interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum from the expiration of the said nine months until the date of actual payment, unless an extension of time to file the Federal estate tax return is granted, in which case the Director may reduce the interest rate to six percent per annum until the expiration of the extension. If the decedent was a member of the United States armed forces, the estate tax will not bear interest until the expiration of nine months after receipt of official notification of the decedent's death by the decedent's husband, wife, father, mother, or next of kin. (For estates with date of death prior to March 1, 1992, the estate tax is payable within 18 months of the date of death, and estate tax not paid within 18 months from the date of death bears interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the expiration of the 18 months until the date of actual payment. If the Federal government has not determined the amount of estate tax due within such period of 18 months or there is a subsequent assessment of an additional or increased estate tax, the tax is payable within 60 days after receipt of notification from the Federal government stating the amount of the Federal estate tax and the credit for state death taxes allowable and the New Jersey estate tax shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the expiration of such 60 day period to the date of payment.)

(c) All administrators, executors, trustees, grantees, donees and vendees, shall be personally liable for any and all estate taxes until paid, for which an action at law shall lie in the name of the State, but no lien shall attach to any property of an estate on account of the estate tax due this State.

(d) The executor, administrator, trustee or other person or corporation liable for the payment of the estate tax shall file with the Director a copy of the Federal estate tax return within 30 days after the filing of the original with the Federal Government, and a copy of any communication from the Federal Government, making any final change in said return, or confirming, increasing or diminishing the tax thereby shown to be due, which is to be filed within 30 days after receipt thereof, and shall file any other evidence, information or data that the Director shall in his discretion deem necessary.

(e) The Director may, for cause shown, extend the time for payment with interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum for such period as the circumstances, in his or her discretion, may require.

18:26-3.8 Certificate of inheritance

(a) The Director shall not issue any certificate or other evidence of inheritance, succession or legacy tax paid this State in the estate of a resident decedent for use before the Internal Revenue Service in an estate tax proceeding until all inheritance, succession or legacy taxes have been paid or payment duly provided for, but the Director may, in his discretion pending final determination of all inheritance, succession, legacy, transfer or estate taxes due this State, issue temporary or preliminary certificates, so marked, showing payments in account of such taxes.

(b) Since the Director is precluded from issuing a certificate for payment of taxes to this State until the estate tax due this State has been paid or it has been established that there is no tax due, and since this cannot be done until the Internal Revenue Service has finally fixed the amount of Federal estate tax chargeable it follows that the certificate cannot be issued in time for filing simultaneously with the Federal estate tax return (Form 706). This fact, however, will not in any way jeopardize the estate's claim for a credit in the Federal estate tax proceedings for taxes paid this and other states.

(c) Proof of such payments can be submitted to the Internal Revenue Service after receipt by the estate of notice of final assessment, and allowance will be made at that time for credits properly established. The Transfer Inheritance Tax Branch will use best efforts to expedite estate tax assessments.

18:26-3.9 Refunds

(a) All applications for the refund of estate taxes claimed to have been excessively or erroneously paid must be filed with the Director within three years from the date of payment. In the event it is determined that the tax was erroneously or excessively paid, the Director upon receipt of satisfactory proof of payment, shall certify the same to the Director, Division of Budget and Accounting, who, in turn shall draw his warrant on the State Treasurer in favor of the executor, administrator, trustee, person or corporation who has paid said tax, or who may be lawfully entitled to receive the same, for the amount of such tax excessively paid.

(b) Said warrant shall be paid by the State Treasurer out of any appropriation for the refund of transfer inheritance taxes the same as warrants for the refund of such taxes under the transfer inheritance tax statutes of this State are paid.

(c) For estate tax paid with respect to reports or returns due on or after January 1, 1994, interest will be paid on overpayments not refunded within six months after the last date prescribed, or permitted by extension of time, for filing the return, or within six months after the return is filed, or payment of the tax due thereon, whichever is later. SUBCHAPTER 4. COMPROMISES (INHERITANCE AND ESTATE TAXES)

18:26-4.1 Domicile doubtful; terms of settlement

(a) Where the Director claims that a decedent was domiciled in this State at the time of death and the taxing authorities of another state makes a similar claim with respect to their state or states and an investigation discloses a reasonable doubt regarding domicile, the Director may, in his discretion, enter into a written agreement with such taxing authorities and the executor, administrator, or trustee, fixing the sum acceptable to this State in full settlement of the transfer inheritance tax of this State; provided, that said agreement also fixes the sum acceptable to such other state or states in full settlement of the death taxes imposable by said state or states; and, provided further, that said agreement has the approval of the Superior Court of this State.

(b) If the aggregate amount payable under such agreement to the states involved is less than the maximum sum allowable as a credit to the estate against the Federal estate tax imposed thereon, then the executor, administrator or trustee shall also pay to the Director so much of the difference between such aggregate amount and the amount of such credit as the amount payable to the Director under the agreement bears to such aggregate amount, and the agreement aforesaid shall so provide.

(c) Payment of the sum or sums fixed by said agreement shall be accepted by the Director in full satisfaction of this State's claim for transfer inheritance and estate taxes which would otherwise be chargeable under the law.

18:26-4.2 Compromise and settlement of certain tax claims or liens; waiver of defenses

Where any lien or claim for any past due transfer inheritance taxes or estate or transfer taxes shall be brought into question, claimed to be invalid or impaired, or shall be in the course of litigation, or the Director, and the State Treasurer shall, after investigation, determine that there is reasonable doubt of the State's ability to enforce said lien or claim or to collect the taxes due, or claimed to be due, or that there is a reasonable doubt that said lien is valid or unimpaired, such officer shall enter into an agreement with the executor, administrator or trustee of any estate against whose assets said lien or claim shall be asserted, or the heirs, next of kin or beneficiaries succeeding to the property of any decedent against which such lien or claim is asserted, to alter, revise, compromise and settle all claims or liens for past due inheritance taxes or estate or transfer taxes, together with all interest or interest penalties thereon; provided, however, that the executor, administrator, trustee, heir or heirs, next of kin, beneficiary or beneficiaries, shall waive all defenses which might be set up against the claim or lien of the State and shall submit to such terms of payment and settlement as the Treasurer or Director shall deem to be equitable and just and in the best interest of the State.

18:26-4.3 Payment pursuant to compromise

(a) Any compromise or settlement shall be null and void unless the amount agreed to be paid shall be paid pursuant thereto within the time or times fixed in said agreement and in such event all payment made thereunder shall belong to the State and shall be credited upon the arrears of taxes and interest or interest penalties due. Upon payment in full of the amount agreed to be paid pursuant to the terms of such agreement of alteration, revision, compromise or settlement, the person or persons so paying shall be entitled to receive a receipt for such payment which shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of the account and the Treasurer or Director shall issue a statement of payment which may be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where any real property is situated.

(b) If a judgment or decree has been entered in favor of the State of New Jersey, the Treasurer or Director, upon payment of the amount agreed upon or upon determination that the assessment be cancelled, shall execute and record a proper satisfaction of the lien, claim, judgment or decree in accordance with the facts.

SUBCHAPTER 5. TRANSFERS SUBJECT TO TAX

18:26-5.1 Transfers generally

(a) Any transfers of property real or personal of the value of $500.00 or over, or any interest in a transfer or income from a transfer which interest or income is $500.00 or over in value, whether such transfer, interest or income is held in trust or otherwise to or for the use of any transferee, distributee or beneficiary, is subject to the transfer inheritance tax at the rates designated in Sections 2.4, 2.7 and 2.8 of this Chapter.

(b) In any case where a transfer or any interest or income is less than $500.00 in value, the transfer, interest or income is exempt from the tax; provided, however, if the transfer, interest or income is valued at $500.00 or more, then the entire transfer, interest or income is subject to tax.

Example:

Mr. "X" bequeaths his gold ring worth $250.00 to "Y", this being the only transfer made to "Y", the transfer is not subject to the tax. If Mr. "X" had bequeathed not only the ring but a watch and chain worth $300.00, then the transfer would be taxable and the tax would be based upon the entire amount, i.e., $550.00.

18:26-5.2 Transfers of residents and nonresidents

(a) Residents. Transfers by will or by the intestate laws of this State of real or tangible personal property situated in this State and intangible personal property, such as stock, bonds, securities, and mortgages wherever located from the estate of a resident decedent who died seized or possessed of such property, are subject to the tax. Intangible personal property of a resident decedent is deemed situated in this State, regardless of where it is actually located, since by law personalty is deemed to follow the domicile of its owner.

(b) Nonresidents. In the case of a nonresident decedent, only real or tangible personal property located within this State of which the decedent was seized or possessed transferred by will or intestate law are subject to the tax.

18:26-5.3 Property includible in estate of decedent

(a) Moneys recovered under New Jersey Death Act (N.J.S.A. 2A:31-1 et seq.).

1. Any sum recovered under the New Jersey Death Act representing damages sustained by a decedent between the date of injury and date of death, such as the expenses of care, nursing, medical attendance, hospital and other charges incident to the injury, including loss of earnings and pain and suffering are to be included in the decedent's estate.

2. Where an action is instituted under the New Jersey Death Act and terminates through settlement by a compromise payment without designating the amount to be paid under each count, the amount so recovered is first applied toward the payment of funeral expenses, the expenses of care, nursing, medical attendance, hospital and other proper charges incident to the injury and is includible in the estate of the decedent.

(b) Unpaid dividends—Stock, which on the date of death is quoted "exdividends" or "dividends" payable to the holder of record on the date prior to the date of death, constitute a part of the estate and are to be included in a decedent's estate.

(c) Accrued unpaid income—The amount of any accrued unpaid income on mineral and oil deeds or leases as of the date of death is considered an asset of the estate of a New Jersey decedent and includible in the estate.

18:26-5.4 Classification of property as real or personal¹

(a) For purposes of the transfer inheritance tax laws of this State, the doctrine of equitable conversion will not be applied in estates of New Jersey decedents which involve realty situated in New Jersey.

(b) The doctrine of equitable conversion will not be applied in the case of those estates where a New Jersey decedent was a party to a contract of sale involving real estate situated in a foreign jurisdiction;

Example 1. The interest of a deceased resident vendor located in another state, which was under contract of sale at the date of his death, shall be deemed to be an interest in real property, the transfer of which is not subject to tax under the inheritance tax laws of this State;

Example 2. The interest of a deceased resident vendee, under a contract in effect at the date of death to purchase real property located in another state, shall be deemed personal property and taxable to the extent of the sum paid on account of the contract price at the time of death. Pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 54:34-5, as amended, the balance due under the contract shall not be allowed as a deduction in determining the clear market value of decedent's estate subject to tax under the inheritance tax laws of this State.

and, also, where a nonresident decedent was involved as a party to a contract of sale involving realty situated in New Jersey.

Example 1. The interest of a deceased nonresident vendor of real property located in New Jersey, which was under contract of sale at the date of such nonresident decedent's death, shall be deemed to be an interest in real property the transfer of which shall be taxable under the inheritance tax laws of this State. If such nonresident shall die intestate, his interest in the New Jersey real property shall, for the purposes of the inheritance tax laws of this State, be deemed to have descended under the intestate laws of this State to his heirs at law;

Example 2. The interest of a deceased nonresident vendee, under a contract in effect at the date of death to purchase real property located in New Jersey, shall be deemed personal property and not subject to tax under the inheritance tax laws of this State;

Note:—This rule will apply whether a decedent died testate or intestate, or where real property is specifically devised but is under contract of sale at the date of death.

(c) Concerning ground rents, or leasehold interests, ground rents or any leasehold interest in land for 99 years or more is deemed to be an interest in real property for the purpose of valuation only under the New Jersey inheritance tax laws; however, as to succession under the laws of descent and distribution of this State, such an interest is personal property. Such an interest, when held by a husband and wife, is held as a tenancy in common, unless the conveyance expressly states they hold as joint tenants. There can be no tenancy by the entirety in such an interest. Unaccrued ground rent on property located outside this State and owned by a resident decedent is deemed to be foreign real property and, therefore, not subject to tax; however, ground rent accrued prior to the date of death on property located outside the State of New Jersey owned by a resident decedent is subject to tax as it is deemed to be personal property.

(d) Partnership real estate. Any real property held by a partnership of which a decedent is a partner even if held by the deceased partner and his wife as tenants by the entirety, is deemed to be a partnership asset and therefore is considered personal property.

As amended, R.1973 d.224(b), effective August 13, 1973.
See: 5 N.J.R. 244(b), 5 N.J.R. 321(b).
As amended, R.1980 d.198, effective May 6, 1980.

¹This regulation is intended to conform the treatment of real property under contract of sale or purchase at the time of decedent's death with that of adjoining states (Cf. Estate of Paul, 303 Pa. 330, and In re DeSteur's Estate, 99 N.Y. Supp. (2d.39)), and to revoke previous regulations in conflict herewith.

18:26-5.5 Devises in lieu of commissions

In any case where a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees and makes a devise of property to such fiduciaries in his will in lieu of commissions or allowances or appoints him or them his residuary legatee or legatees, the transfer to such fiduciary or fiduciaries of that portion of the property in excess of the reasonable compensation fixed by the Superior or County Court having jurisdiction in the matter, is subject to the New Jersey Inheritance Tax.

(a) Any transfer by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift made without adequate valuable consideration within three years ending with the date of death of the grantor, vendor, or donor, in the absence of proof to the contrary, is deemed to have been made in contemplation of death. 1. The possession or enjoyment of the property so that possession or enjoyment of the property can be obtained only by surviving the transferor; or
2. The right to income from the property, is a transfer subject to the New Jersey inheritance tax.

18:26-5.11 Jointly held property

(a) Where, in the case of a resident decedent, real or tangible personal property situated in this State or intangible personal property wherever situated, or in the case of a nonresident decedent, real or tangible personal property located in this State, is held in the joint names of the decedent and one or more of such persons as joint tenants, the transfer of ownership, possession and enjoyment of such property to a surviving joint tenant or tenants is a transfer subject to the New Jersey Inheritance Tax.

(b) Such transfers are taxed in the same manner as if such property had belonged absolutely to the decedent joint tenant and had been devised or bequeathed by will to the surviving joint tenant or tenants. Only that part or interest in such property which the surviving joint tenant or tenants prove, to the satisfaction of the Director, to have originally belonged to him or them and not the decedent, is exempt from the tax.

(c) The rule stated in this section applies to property deposited in banks or other institutions or depositories in the joint names of two or more persons and payable to either or the survivor under N.J.S.A. 17:9A-218.

(d) The rule stated in this section applies only to property held by two or more persons as joint tenants, and not tenants by the entirety. For the rule applicable to property held by tenants by the entirety, see section 6.4 (Tenancy by the entirety) of this chapter.

(e) In the case of a nonresident decedent holding real property in this State as a joint tenant together with one or more other persons, the transfer of such property at death is deemed to pass to the surviving joint tenant or tenants as though specifically devised and as such is not subject to the ratio tax imposed upon the transfer of property of a nonresident under N.J.S.A. 54:34-3.

(f) The right of a spouse, as a surviving joint tenant with his or her deceased spouse, to the immediate ownership or possession and enjoyment of a membership certificate or stock in a cooperative housing corporation, the ownership of which entitles such member or stockholder to occupy real estate for dwelling purposes as the principal residence of the decedent and spouse is exempt from Transfer Inheritance Tax.

Case Notes

Noted that Transfer Inheritance Tax Bureau has uniformly held that a transfer of property to a survivor of a joint tenancy is, at least presumptively, a taxable event, but that this is not true for a "transfer" of real property held by the entirety to the surviving spouse; acquirer of husband's interest in property held by the entirety obtains status of tenant in common during the joint life of the husband and wife and the interest the husband would have if he survived the wife; acquirer's exclusion from property by wife amounted to an ouster entitling him to an accounting for one-half of the imputed rental value less expenses. Newman v. Chase, 70 N.J. 254, 359 A.2d 474 (1976).

18:26-5.12 Powers of appointment; estates in expectancy

(a) Where by transfer of a resident decedent of real or tangible personal property within this State of intangible personal property wherever situated, or by transfer of a nonresident decedent of real or tangible personal property within this State, a transferee comes into the possession or enjoyment of:

1. An estate in expectancy of any kind or character which is contingent or defeasible, transferred by an instrument taking effect on or after July 4, 1909; or

2. Property transferred pursuant to a power of appointment contained in an instrument taking effect on or after July 4, 1909;

3. Such transfers are subject to the New Jersey Inheritance Tax.

(b) Property which is transferred pursuant to a power of appointment whether general or special, is deemed to pass from the estate of the donor or creator of the power to the transferee.

(c) For purposes of the New Jersey Inheritance Tax, a general power of appointment is a power which is exercisable in favor of the decedent, his estate, his creditors, or the creditors of his estate; a special or limited power of appointment is a power which does not qualify as a general power of appointment.

Case Notes

State law taxing property under a power of appointment differs from Federal law in that the subject property is taxed only once as part of the estate of the creator of the power. Estate of Campbell v. United States, 449 F.Supp. 675 (D.N.J.1977).

Grant of power to invade marital trust corpus conferred sufficient ownership to subject to transfer inheritance tax the testamentary transfer to spouse of both a life estate and residual portion of trust; grant of power to invade corpus did not bring trust within the exemption for direct taxation of powers of appointment. Laffey Estate v. Director, Div. of Taxation, 8 N.J.Tax 100 (Tax Ct.1986).

Case Notes

Noted that Transfer Inheritance Tax Bureau has uniformly held that a transfer of property to a survivor of a joint tenancy is, at least presumptively, a taxable event, but that this is not true for a "transfer" of real property held by the entirety to the surviving spouse; acquirer of husband's interest in property held by the entirety obtains status of tenant in common during the joint life of the husband and wife and the interest the husband would have if he survived the wife; acquirer's exclusion from property by wife amounted to an ouster entitling him to an accounting for one-half of the imputed rental value less expenses. Newman v. Chase, 70 N.J. 254, 359 A.2d 474 (1976).

SUBCHAPTER 7. DEDUCTION

18:26-7.1 Deductions generally permitted

The New Jersey Transfer Inheritance Tax is imposed upon the transfer of property based upon the clear market value of such property. Clear market value is ascertained by deducting from the market value of any property, the debts, expenses and taxes which constitute an encumbrance upon the property of a decedent. No deductions are allowed, however, against any property which is exempt or not subject to the New Jersey Inheritance Tax.

18:26-7.2 Decedent's debts

All debts owing at the date of a decedent's death are deductible from the property comprising such decedent's estate unless the property for which the debt is owing or for which it is secured is not subject to the New Jersey Inheritance Tax.

Statutory References

N.J.S.A. 54:34-5.a.

18:26-7.3 Debts secured by out-of-State real property

The debts of a resident decedent owing for or secured by real property outside this State are not allowed as a deduction, unless such debt exceeds the value of the property securing it or for which it was contracted, in which event only that amount by which such debt exceeds the value of the out-of-State realty is permitted as a deduction.

18:26-7.4 Mortgages

The balance of a mortgage owing on the date of death is allowed as a deduction from the value of any real property securing such mortgage, except that in the case of realty held by a decedent and a surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety, the amount of any mortgage owing on such realty at the decedent's death is not allowable as a deduction since such property is exempt from the New Jersey Inheritance Tax.

N.J.S.A. 54:34-5.

18:26-7.5 Debts secured by life insurance

Any debt of a decedent owing at the date of death and covered by the purchase of life insurance payable to a creditor of the decedent, in order to liquidate a debt arising from the acquisition of property for which the decedent was liable to such creditor, is not allowable as a deduction since the debt is regarded as extinguished at the date of death by payment to said creditor of the insurance proceeds and, therefore, the decedent's estate is not diminished by the amount of debt.

2. A supplemental affidavit of the executor, heir or administrator, as the case may be, stating whether or not he acknowledges the correctness of the amount of the claim and will pay the same in full out of the assets of the estate. If not, the supplemental affidavit should set forth the facts involved and if the matter has been settled, set forth the amount that has been paid or will be paid in settlement.

(b) An exception to the above is where the affidavit in which the claim is made is signed by a representative of the welfare board as executor, administrator, or otherwise, in which case no further investigation will be needed unless there is some other data in the record indicating that the amount claimed is possibly incorrect.

provided, however, that where the amount claimed is less than that determined by the application of the rates set forth above, only such amount as claimed shall be allowed; and provided, further, where a formal accounting is not to be filed that, if in the discretion and judgment of the Director, it should appear that the claim for an allowance of executor's or administrator's commissions is in an amount greater than that which results from application of the above rates, he shall allow such amount as is deemed appropriate after having considered the risk, pain and trouble experienced by the fiduciary in the discharge of his or its duties and in this connection the fiduciary shall file an affidavit of services rendered in support of the claim.

(b) Where a formal account is filed and the amount allowed by the court for executor's or administrator's commissions is greater than the amount previously fixed by the Branch, the fiduciary is to forward a plain copy of the judgment allowing commissions and upon revision of the assessment there shall be applied the rate used by the court to the value, as of the date of death as determined by the Inheritance Tax Branch of the property on which the allowance of the court is based, but the value of any property excluded from the New Jersey Transfer Inheritance Tax shall be excluded from the computation.

(c) The value of property which is held by the decedent and another as joint tenants with right of survivorship, as trustee for, or payable on death to another or which has been the subject of an inter vivos transfer, in contemplation of, or to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after death, is to be excluded from the amount on which an executor's or administrator's commissions is computed in the absence of the judicial allowance thereon.

(d) Executor's or administrator's commissions are allowed on real estate that is actually sold by the executor or administrator or which is expressly directed to be sold by the terms of the decedent's will. The real estate must be sold by the representative and not the beneficiary(s) in order to qualify.

(e) In the absence of a judgment of the court exercising probate jurisdiction over the estate, and the filing of a plain copy thereof with the Bureau, the provisions of N.J.S.A. 3A:10-2, shall not be considered in the determination of the amount allowable as a deduction.

18:26-7.11 Counsel fees

(a) The deduction allowable for counsel fees shall be determined on the basis of their reasonableness. (b) No deduction shall be allowed for counsel fees paid to an attorney who is not a member of the Bar of New Jersey, except in cases where the services rendered by such counsel relate to matters not involving the New Jersey Inheritance Tax proceedings.

(c) The Director may, in his discretion, require the submission of an affidavit of services by counsel for the personal representative of an estate where it appears that the amount claimed as a deduction for counsel fees is other than ordinary or reasonable.

Case Notes

In computing value of stock shares in closely held corporation bequeathed by decedent to wife, proceeds of insurance policies on life of decedent taken out and paid for by corporation were properly included as corporate assets. 18:26-8.16 Assets of close corporation or partnership of known market value

(a) When the assets of a "closely held" corporation or "partnership" include stocks and bonds which have a definite, established and known daily market value and are readily reducible to cash at that value, no deduction thereon will be allowed in determining the book value of the stock of the corporation or interest in the partnership.

(b) In ascertaining the book value of the common stock of a "closely held" corporation, the preferred stock, issued and outstanding, must be deducted at par value even though it might be selling or it is claimed that it shall be valued for less.

18:26-8.17 Government bonds and securities

(a) Treasury bonds and similar negotiable obligations issued by the United States Government are valued at:

1. The intermediate price between the low and high price prevailing on the date of death of the decedent if traded on an exchange or over the counter;

2. If there were no sales of bonds or similar negotiable obligations issued by the United States Government on the date of death, either the mean between the highest and lowest selling price for the previous day, or the nearest trading day prior to the date of death, or the prorated value used for Federal estate tax purposes reflecting the mean between the highest and lowest selling price on the nearest trading dates prior to and subsequent to the date of death may be used. The Alternative Valuation Date method of valuing bonds for Federal estate tax purposes is, however, not acceptable for New Jersey transfer inheritance tax purposes. All of the assets must be valued using the same method;

3. Interest accrued from last interest date to date of death is required to be added to the taxable estate in addition to the quoted value of bonds or similar obligations; except,

(b) Interest accrued from the last interest date to the date of death is not included in the appraisal of the United States Savings Bonds Series "H".

(c) Further, Government Securities acceptable in payment of Federal estate taxes at par will be valued for New Jersey Transfer Inheritance Tax purposes at their market value as of the date of a decedent's death in accordance with paragraph 1 of subsection (a) of this Section.

18:26-8.18 Stocks, bonds, mutual funds and securities

(a) The value of stocks, bonds and securities listed on any stock exchange is appraised on the basis of the intermediate price between the low and high price prevailing on the date of death.

1. If there were no sales of stocks, bonds, and securities listed on a stock exchange on the date of death, either the mean between the highest and lowest selling price for the previous day, or the nearest trading day prior to the date of death, or the prorated value used for Federal estate tax purposes reflecting the mean between the highest and lowest selling price on the nearest trading dates prior to and subsequent to the date of death may be used. The Alternative Valuation Date method of valuing stocks and bonds for Federal estate tax purposes is, however, not applicable for New Jersey transfer inheritance tax purposes. All of the assets must be valued using the same method;

2. Where stock on the date of death or thereafter is selling "ex dividend", the dividend is required to be added to the taxable estate in addition to the quoted value of the stock.

(b) The value of stocks and bonds which are sold infrequently or in unconsequential numbers may not be ascertainable by reference to the sales price on an exchange since the stock exchange value reflected by quotations is nothing more than evidence of true value under ordinary and normal conditions. Therefore, in cases where stocks or bonds are infrequently traded or sold in small quantities it is necessary to resort to financial statements along with any other pertinent data to determine the value at date of death.

(c) Shares of mutual funds are appraised at the bid price prevailing on the date of death, and in the event there is no bid price if the date of death falls on holiday or Saturday or Sunday, the values shall be those provided in subsection (a) of this Section.

(d) The market value of rare or unlisted securities is established by information furnished by brokers regularly dealing in such securities, officers of the corporations involved, or other documentary proof satisfactory to the Director.

18:26-8.19 Patents, trade marks, copyrights, and other items

The valuation of a "Patent", "Trade Mark", "Copyright", "License", "Franchise", is a question of fact in each instance, the burden of proof being on the representative of the estate to show the history of the item being valued, the state of the art or the monopoly created as of the date of death. The bookkeeping entries or its original costs are not regarded as a reliable gauge of value. In most cases, the date of death value is primarily based upon the probable earnings such items will bring its owner.

18:26-8.20 Discretionary and legal common trust funds

(a) Since the admission and withdrawal to the funds are controlled by contract, the value of the fund, therefore, is to be determined as of the close of business on the last bank business days of January, April, July and October of each year. For inheritance tax purposes the valuation date shall be:

1. Where approval was obtained by the donor in his lifetime, then the valuation date so approved, will control the value of his interest in the fund.
2. If the donor dies more than five days prior to a contractual valuation date without having applied for approval, it shall be deemed that such a request was in fact made; then the valuation date shall be the one next following his death.
3. If the donor dies five days or less prior to a valuation date, then the valuation date shall be the one next following the valuation date immediately after death.

4. If the donor dies one or more days subsequent to a valuation date, but more than five days prior to the next valuation date, the valuation date shall be the one following the date of death.

18:26-8.21 Contingent or defeasible estates

(a) When an instrument creates an executory devise, or an estate in expectancy of any kind or character which is contingent or defeasible, the property which is the subject of such devise or in which such contingent or defeasible interest is created is appraised immediately at its clear market value. The value of the estate for life or term of years is then deducted from the appraised value of the property which is the subject of devise or limitation and the tax on such balance of the estate shall not be levied or assessed until the person or corporation entitled thereto comes into the beneficial enjoyment, seizing or possession thereof.

(b) Where the provisions of an inter vivos trust or decedent's last will and testament create a right in the beneficiary to request that a limited sum be paid to her or him annually and no right exists in the beneficiary to terminate the trust, the interest of said beneficiary will be construed as contingent in character for inheritance tax purpose.

(c) Where a number of years have elapsed between the date of death and the date of initial assessment, the Branch will inquire as to the amounts and dates of any payments to, or withdrawals by the beneficiary. If such payments or withdrawals have been made a contingent assessment, based upon the amount of corpus paid less any vested life estate value or discounted value will be completed.

(d) To secure contingent taxes, the bond of New Jersey Bank as principal or as one of the principals and as surety will be accepted, provided such bond meets the requirements of form and content of the approved form of Bond, 0-54. In the case of a foreign fiduciary, however, a bond issued by a surety company licensed to operate in New Jersey as surety must be filed.

(a) Any payment of the New Jersey inheritance tax after the expiration of the corresponding day of the eighth month following the date on which it became due and payable shall bear interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum on any unpaid portion of the tax, from the expiration of eight months after the date on which it became due and payable until the date of actual payment, unless payment was tendered by the taxpayer within the eight month period and is evidenced by the postmark of the United States Postal Service on the letter conveying the payment, by a postmark made by other than the United States Postal Service (that is, metered mail) within the eight month period and the payment was received by the Inheritance Tax Branch within three days of the expiration of the eight month period, or by other acceptable proof, but was not credited through no fault of the taxpayer, in which case no interest shall be charged, or unless by reason of any claims made upon the estate, necessary court litigation, or other unavoidable cause of delay, the decedent's estate or a part thereof, cannot be settled before the expiration of eight months from the date of death, in which event interest at the rate of only six percent per annum is to be charged from the expiration of eight months until the cause of delay is removed.

(b) In cases where there is no corresponding day in the eighth calendar month following the date of death, the first business day of the succeeding month shall be the effective date for purposes of determining interest penalties; for example where decedent died June 30, 1962, the tax payment will not bear interest if made on or before March 1, 1963.

(d) Any person liable for the payment of the tax, may, in order to avoid a penalty, estimate and pay the tax believed to be owing prior to actual receipt of a tax bill. (e) Tax on any sum recovered as compensation for the death of a person caused by a wrongful act, neglect, or default must be paid within 30 days of the receipt of the award or settlement. 18:26-10.13 Interest on refunds

If the Inheritance Tax Branch takes more than six months to remit a valid refund after a refund application or written request is received by the Director, taxpayers have the right to receive interest on the refund. If interest must be paid, it will be calculated to accrue from the date of filing of a refund claim, the date of tax is paid in accordance with N.J.A.C. 18:26-8.6, or the due date of the return, whichever is later. Interest will be paid at a rate determined by the Director to be equal to the prime rate, determined for each month or fraction thereof, compounded annually at the end of each calendar year, from the date that such interest commences to accrue to the date of the refund. This rule becomes effective for returns due on and after January 1, 1994. No interest will be paid on an overpayment of less than one dollar ($1.00), or on an overpayment refunded within six months after the last date prescribed or permitted by extension of time for filing the return, or within six months after the return is filed, whichever is later. No interest will be paid on an overpayment unless the taxpayer files a claim for refund.

SUBCHAPTER 11. WAIVERS—CONSENT TO TRANSFER

18:26-11.1 Consent to transfer; generally

(a) Except as otherwise indicated in this chapter, no executor, administrator, trustee, individual, firm, association, partnership, organization or corporation including any banking institution; trust company or safe deposit company organized under the laws of New Jersey; National Bank operating in this State; Building and Loan or Savings and Loan Associations engaged in New Jersey; or credit unions chartered by the United States operating in this State, may release or transfer any real property or any tangible or intangible personal property which is subject to the Transfer Inheritance Tax, all or any part of which belongs to a resident decedent, whether held in the name of the decedent or otherwise, without first obtaining the written consent to such transfer or release from the Director.

(b) No waivers are required in estates of nonresident decedents, except for real property located in the State of New Jersey.

1. There is, however, the necessity of definitely establishing to the satisfaction of the trustee, individual, firm, association, partnership, organization or corporation (its transfer agent) including any banking institution, trust company or safe deposit company organized under the laws of New Jersey; National Bank operating in this State; Building and Loan or Savings and Loan Associations engaged in New Jersey; or credit unions chartered by the United States operating in this State that the decedent was legally domiciled in a jurisdiction other than New Jersey. The proper procedure is for the personal representative of the estate to file with the proper party as aforesaid an affidavit establishing in some detail the facts as to domicile;

2. These should include place of residence and voting; social and business affiliations, where the last five income tax returns were filed prior to death; date of commencement and length of actual residence in place claimed as legal domicile; whether decedent formerly resided in New Jersey and, if so, what facts are relied upon to establish abandonment of New Jersey and intention not to return;

3. If from the proofs submitted to him the proper party as aforesaid is convinced that decedent was legally domiciled outside of New Jersey he may transfer the stock or obligation of the corporation or any other tangible or intangible personal property without the written consent of the Director, Division of Taxation, keeping the affidavit in his permanent files as authority for the action taken.

(c) No waivers are required to be issued by the Director in the case of certain transfers to the surviving spouse of a New Jersey domiciled decedent who died on or after January 1, 1985. In order to satisfy a corporation (its transfer agent) including any banking institution, trust company organized under the laws of New Jersey, national bank operating in this State, building and loan or savings and loan association in New Jersey, or credit union chartered by the United States operating in this State that intangible assets may be released to the surviving spouse, an affidavit of waiver can be executed by the surviving spouse or the personal representative of the decedent's estate.

1. If two or more executors or administrators qualify, the affidavit may be executed by one of them.

2. The decedent's surviving spouse can execute an affidavit in all cases where under the terms of the account or instrument and applicable State law the spouse has the right of survivorship or is the named beneficiary. Letters testamentary or of administration are not required to be attached as part of the affidavit when executed by the surviving spouse, except as provided in (c)3 below.

3. Where the surviving spouse has qualified as executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, intangible assets which pass to the spouse under a will or the law of intestate distribution can be released by the affidavit together with other assets described in (c)2 above, provided that the spouse's letters testamentary or of administration are attached and made a part of the affidavit as provided in (c)1 above. Where the spouse has not qualified as an executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, only intangible assets may be released by the affidavit in accordance with (c)2 above.

4. A separate affidavit is required for each institution, organization or corporation releasing assets to a surviving spouse.

5. The affidavit or waiver by the surviving spouse can not be used for real property and tangible personal property transfers from a decedent to a surviving spouse.

(d) No waivers are required to be issued by the Director in case of certain transfers to the following Class "A" transferees in the estate of New Jersey domiciled decedent who died on or after July 1, 1988: a father, mother, grandparent, grandchild, a child or children of a decedent, including any stepchild of a decedent or child or children adopted by a decedent or the issue of any child or legally adopted child of a decedent. In order to satisfy a corporation (its transfer agent) including any banking institution, trust company organized under the laws of New Jersey, national bank operating in this State, building and loan or savings and loan association in New Jersey, or credit union chartered by the United States operating in this State that intangible assets may be released to the Class "A" transferee, an affidavit of waiver can be executed by the Class "A" transferee or the personal representative of the decedent's estate.

1. If two or more executors or administrators qualify, the affidavit may be executed by one of them.

2. The Class "A" transferee can execute an affidavit in all cases where under the terms of the account or instrument and applicable State law the Class "A" transferee has the right of survivorship or is the named beneficiary. Letters testamentary or of administration are not required to be attached as part of the affidavit when executed by the Class "A" transferee, except as provided in (d)3 below.

3. Where the Class "A" transferee has qualified as executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, intangible assets which pass to the Class "A" transferee under a will or law of intestate distribution can be released by the affidavit together with assets described in (d)2 above, provided that the Class "A" transferee's letters testamentary or of administration are attached and made a part of the affidavit as provided in (d)1 above. Where the Class "A" transferee has not qualified as an executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, only intangible assets may be released by the affidavit in accordance with (d)2 above.

4. A separate affidavit is required for each institution, organization or corporation releasing assets to a Class "A" transferee.

5. The affidavit or waiver by the Class "A" transferee cannot be used for real property and tangible personal property transfers from a decedent to a Class "A" transferee.

(e) In the absence of the express approval of the Director, waivers are not issued until the passage of ten business days following the receipt of payment.

2. Pay any checks in any amount for which there are sufficient funds held in deposit, drawn on any account owned by a decedent individually, jointly or otherwise, representing full or partial payment of any New Jersey Transfer Inheritance Taxes and made payable to the New Jersey Inheritance Tax Branch;

The Director or his duly authorized employees in the Transfer Inheritance Tax Branch may conduct hearings, subpoena documents, administer oaths to, and examine under oath, any taxpayer as well as any directors, officers, agents and employees of a taxpayer in respect to any matter evident to the administration of the New Jersey Inheritance and Estate Tax.

Amended by R.1994 d.627, effective December 19, 1994.
See: 26 N.J.R. 4166(c), 26 N.J.R. 5036(a).

18:26-12.6 Issuance of subpoenas

The Director, or his duly authorized employees in the Transfer Inheritance Tax Branch, may by subpoena compel the attendance of witnesses and/or the production of any books, records, papers, vouchers, accounts or documents of any taxpayer or of any person who the Director has reason to believe has information pertinent to any matter under investigation by the Director or any such deputy at any hearing held pursuant to law. The fees of witnesses required to attend any such hearing are to be the same as those allowed to witnesses appearing in the Superior Court and shall be paid in the manner provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration of the New Jersey transfer inheritance tax or estate tax law.

Amended by R.1994 d.627, effective December 19, 1994.
See: 26 N.J.R. 4166(c), 26 N.J.R. 5036(a).

18:26-12.7 Compelling witness to attend

If a person subpoenaed to attend any hearing under this Subtitle fails to appear, be examined, answer any question, or produce any books, records, papers, vouchers, accounts or documents when subpoenaed so to do by the Director or any duly authorized employee, the Director or any such employee may apply to the Superior Court for an order to compel him to do so.

18:26-12.8 Notice; how given; presumption

Any notice required to be given by the Director, may be served personally or by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended, addressed to such person at the address given in the last report filed by him or if no report has been filed, then to such address as may be obtainable. The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom it was addressed.

18:26-12.9 Review

(a) In order to make a protest of a Transfer Inheritance and Estate Tax Branch assessment or finding within the 90 day period provided by N.J.S.A. 54:49-18, a written protest must be submitted to the Branch. The written protest must be signed by the estate representative, certified to be true, and contain the following data:

1. Whether a hearing or a review is requested;
2. The decedent's name, date of death, social security number, and county of residence;
3. The name, address, and telephone number of the estate representative the Branch should contact in connection with the protest;
4. A copy of the assessment or determination subject to the protest;
5. The specific amount of tax or interest under protest;

6. An explanation of the basis for the protest; and

7. The specific facts supporting the basis for the protest and a summary of evidence or documentation to be presented in support of the estate's position.

(b) A submission which does not include the information requested in (a)5 and 6 above will not be considered a valid protest and will not result in a hearing or review. In addition, the submission of an incomplete or invalid protest will not toll or otherwise extend the 90 day period for such protests to the Division of Taxation.

(c) The filing of any valid protest shall stay the right of the Director to collect the tax in any manner provided by law if the estate shall furnish security, within 90 days after the final determination, of the kind and in the amount determined as follows:

1. Security will not be required for amounts in controversy of less than $10,000, except in cases of arbitrary assessments under N.J.S.A. 54:49-5 or 54:49-7. Security may be required in contested amounts of $10,000 or more if it is determined that there is substantial risk that the estate will fail or be unable to pay a liability. In determining whether there is substantial risk of the estate's failure or inability to pay, the Division may consider the following:

- i. The taxpayer's record of compliance;
- ii. The estate's financial condition; and
- iii. Any other information which the Director reasonably believes to be relevant to this determination.

(d) Hearings are scheduled whenever possible by telephone on a mutually acceptable date for both the estate representative and the Branch.

(e) When an application for a refund is made within three years from the date of payment of the tax, the period in which a protest may be submitted is 90 days after a denial of the refund is made.

(f) After the hearing or review of a protest is completed, the Branch will make a final determination confirming, modifying, or vacating the assessment, finding, or denial of a refund request. The estate representative will be notified of the Branch's determination by registered or certified mail. The estate has 90 days after the issuance of the final determination to appeal therefrom to the Tax Court.
