Christie exposes Democrats' Supreme hypocrisy

Editorial Board

New York Post

Kudos to New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie for exposing Democrats' hypocrisy on Supreme Court vacancies.

Christie scored by pointing out that Garden State Democrats have been refusing to consider his pick for a state Supreme Court seat . . . for six years.

To make the point, Christie re-nominated David Bauman — whom the state Senate refused to even give a hearing back in 2012.

"This nominee will not have a hearing, and the only way I will consider a Christie nominee is if the governor preserves judicial independence by submitting a Democrat for the court," said Senate President Stephen Sweeney Tuesday.

In fact, Christie's merely trying to restore balance to a court that's been hopelessly liberal for a generation — issuing rulings that have sent Jersey property taxes soaring, created new perks for public-employee unions and generally imposed policies that even liberal legislators wouldn't dare support.

And state Senate Democrats have refused to even consider letting the two-term governor reshape the court.
