How You Can Help New Jersey

The State of New Jersey welcomes offers from individuals and businesses that want to help the Garden State. Priority opportunities are listed below, but we're constantly finding new ways for the public to strengthen our response and save lives. Additional opportunities will be posted here.

Join The Medical Reserve Corps

New Jersey is calling on retired health care professionals with vaccination skills to volunteer with the Medical Reserve Corps, a network of volunteer units who help ensure their communities are healthy.

Volunteer in Your Community

If you're not a medical professional, there are an array of service providers assisting New Jerseyans in need - sign up to connect to volunteer opportunities in your community.

Donate Medical and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

New Jersey welcomes the donation of medical equipment and PPE. For more information and to donate, please visit covid19.nj.gov/ppedonations.

Protect Your Employees

Businesses should ensure their employees have access to required or recommended personal protective equipment. Discounts on PPE products are available from trusted retailers.
