(c) I.C.C.s shall not be compelled by these criteria to automatically grant a reduction in custody status to every inmate who is eligible for consideration.

(d) I.C.C.s have no authority to grant reductions in custody status to inmates who fall outside the eligibility guidelines unless appropriate requests for rule exemptions are filed and approved, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:1-2, General provisions.

Case Notes

Regulation that allows prison superintendent and Institutional Classification Committee to increase custody status of an inmate who has been granted reduced custody status does not give superintendent and committee unbridled discretion to make that determination; discretion must be circumscribed by the factors, as listed in another regulation, that govern custody status decisions. Smith v. Dept. of Corrections, 346 N.J. Super. 24, 786 A.2d 165 (A.D. 2001).

Under governing regulations, neither the nature of an inmate's conviction, except for those offenses specifically excluded, nor the location of a correctional facility within a residential area alone, may permanently disqualify an inmate from consideration for "full minimum custody status." Smith v. Dept. of Corrections, 346 N.J. Super. 24, 786 A.2d 165 (A.D. 2001).

Decision of Institutional Classification Committee, initially withholding "full minimum custody status" from newly-transferred inmate with aggravated manslaughter conviction who had received that custody status at other prison facility, was not abuse of discretion. Smith v. Dept. of Corrections, 346 N.J. Super. 24, 786 A.2d 165 (A.D. 2001).

10A:9-4.6 Criteria for consideration for gang minimum custody status and full minimum custody status

(a) Except as provided in N.J.A.C. 10A:9-4.7 and 4.8, inmates who meet the criteria set forth in this section are eligible to be considered for full minimum custody status preceded by the successful completion of a period of time in gang minimum custody status. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10A:9-4.3(d), the amount of time served in gang minimum custody status shall be at the discretion of the Institutional Classification Committee (I.C.C.).

1. Inmates housed at Edna Mahan Correctional Facility for Women (EMCF) who meet the criteria set forth in this section are eligible to be considered for full minimum custody status without the prerequisite of a successful completion of a period of time in gang minimum custody status.

(b) Inmates who have had their contact visit privileges terminated due to a finding of guilt to a prohibited act identified in a zero tolerance policy as established in N.J.A.C. 10A:4-5.1, 5.2, and 12 shall not be eligible for consideration for any custody status lower than medium custody until after contact visit privileges are reinstated (see N.J.A.C. 10A:18-6.20).

(c) As a condition of eligibility for consideration of any custody status lower than medium custody, inmates who are assigned to a therapeutic community (T.C.) or treatment program must accept, participate and successfully complete the assignment.

(d) As a condition of eligibility for consideration of any custody status lower than medium custody, inmates shall be required to complete the clinical screening for substance use disorder treatment.

(e) I.C.C.s are not obligated to advance an inmate from gang minimum custody status to full minimum custody status even though the inmate qualifies for consideration under the criteria set forth in this section.

(f) When considering inmates for reduced custody status who are serving ordinary or extended prison sentences with no mandatory minimum, the I.C.C. shall take into account all presentence jail credits awarded by the court on the instant offense. Inmates must have served the following number of years of their sentences in medium or higher custody status to be eligible to be considered for a reduced custody status.

Length of Sentence	Years in Medium and Higher Custody Status
Over 30 years to life	5
Over 25 and up to 30 years	4
Over 20 and up to 25 years	3
Over 15 and up to 20 years	2
Over 10 and up to 15 years	1
10 years and under	None

(g) Inmates sentenced to serve mandatory minimum terms of 24 months or less are eligible to be considered for gang minimum custody status and full minimum custody status immediately following admission to a correctional facility.

(h) Inmates returned to custody for violation of parole who were sentenced under the No Early Release Act (NERA) at N.J.S.A. 2C:43-7.2 shall be ineligible for custody status lower than medium custody for nine months following admission to a correctional facility. NERA parole violators with 24 months or less to serve may be considered for reduced custody status after the initial nine months of custody, and those with more than 24 months to serve may be considered for reduced custody after serving one half of the balance of time to be served.

(i) Inmates who were considered for reduced custody status prior to April 2, 1990, and were sentenced to serve mandatory minimum terms of more than 24 months are eligible to be considered for gang minimum custody status and full minimum custody status when the following service of time has been met. Any presentence jail credit awarded on the instant offense shall be counted. No credit toward this requirement is to be given on any prior sentence which an inmate may currently be serving.

1. If the mandatory minimum is one-half or greater than one-half of the term imposed, the inmate shall serve one-half of the mandatory minimum. (EXAMPLE: If the term is 20 years and the mandatory minimum is 10 years, the inmate must serve five years.)

2. If the mandatory minimum is less than one-half of the term imposed, the inmate shall serve one-third of the mandatory minimum. (EXAMPLE: If the term is 20 years and the mandatory minimum is 8 years, the inmate must serve two years and eight months.)

3. However, in any instance where the application of (i)2 above would result in an inmate being eligible for consideration in less time than if he or she had no mandatory minimum, then the formula set forth in (f) above shall be applied such that the greater amount of time shall be spent in medium or higher custody status. (EXAMPLE: If the inmate has a 20 year term and a mandatory minimum of three years, he or she shall serve the two years required in (f) above instead of the one year which would be required under (i)2 above.)

(j) Inmates who were considered for reduced custody status on or after April 2, 1990, and were sentenced to serve mandatory minimum terms of more than 24 months are eligible to be considered for gang minimum custody status and full minimum custody status when the inmate has served one-half of the mandatory minimum or is within 24 months of the expiration of the mandatory minimum term, whichever is less. (EXAMPLE 1: If the inmate has a mandatory minimum of three years, one-half of three years is equal to one year and six months. However, after the inmate serves one year on his or her three year mandatory minimum he or she is within 24 months of the expiration date. The inmate is therefore eligible for reduced custody status after having served only one year in medium or higher custody status because one year is less. EXAMPLE 2: If the inmate has a mandatory minimum of five years, one-half of five years is two and one-half years. However, the inmate must serve three years prior to being within 24 months of the expiration date. The inmate is therefore eligible for reduced custody after having served only two and one-half years in medium or higher custody status because two and one-half years is less.) Any presentence jail credit awarded on the instant offense shall be counted. Time served on a prior sentence may not be applied to satisfy this requirement.

(k) In any instance where the application of (j) above would result in an inmate being eligible for consideration in less time than if he or she had no mandatory minimum, then the formula set forth in (f) above shall be applied such that the greater amount of time shall be spent in medium or higher custody status. (EXAMPLE: If the inmate has a 20 year term and a mandatory minimum of three years, he or she shall serve the two years required in (f) above instead of the one and one-half years which would be required under (j) above.)

(l) When considering inmates with indeterminate sentences for reduced custody status, the I.C.C. shall take into account all presentence jail credits awarded by the court on the instant offense.

(m) Inmates with indeterminate sentences must have served the following number of months of their sentences to be eligible to be considered for a reduced custody status:

Length of Sentence	Months in Medium or Higher Custody Status
30 years to life	42
25 through 29 years	30
20 through 24 years	18
15 through 19 years	6
Up to 15 years	None

(n) Inmates with detainees from jurisdictions other than New Jersey shall be eligible to be considered for reduced custody status provided:

1. The detainees for adjudicated offenses are for concurrent sentences which do not exceed the maximum of the term currently being served; or
2. An inmate has applied under the Interstate Agreement on Detainers (I.A.D.) for disposition of the detainer and the inmate is not brought to trial within 180 calendar days from the date of the prosecuting authority's receipt of Form II and no court-ordered continuances were granted; or
3. A prosecutor has applied under the Interstate Agreement on Detainers (I.A.D.) for disposition of the detainer and the inmate is not brought to trial within 120 calendar days from the date of the inmate's arrival at the receiving state and no court ordered continuances were granted.

(o) Inmates with out-of-State or Federal open charge(s) regardless of the date of offense for the following serious offense(s) shall not be eligible for reduced custody status:

1. Homicide;
2. Maintaining or operating a CDS manufacturing facility;
3. Arson;
4. Sexual offense;
5. Kidnapping;
6. Escape; and/or
7. Carjacking.
