Scholarship Available to Attend ARSL Annual Conference

The State Library will award a $1,000 scholarship for one New Jersey public librarian to attend the Association for Rural and Small Libraries Conference from September 30th to October 3rd in Wichita, Kansas. Priority will be given to first-time ARSL Conference attendees, ARSL members, and a public library service community population of 10,000 or less. Applications are due by 4 p.m. on May 18, 2020. To apply, use this application template, which includes more information, or create your own document following the same outline. Submit your application to NJ State Library Grants Manager Eileen Morales at emorales@njstatelib.org. For questions, call (609) 278-2640 ext. 105. Conference information can be found on the ARSL website.

LYRASIS Learning Extended

Access to the LYRASIS Learning Library of recorded classes is extended to May 3, 2020 to continue providing libraries, archives, museums, and other cultural heritage institutions with training materials to support us during this time. Contact es@lyrasis.org to sign up for access to the Learning Library. If your institution is interested in subscribing to LYRASIS Learning for year-round access to classes, and you have year-end funds or otherwise wish to lock in access to the service now, please contact LYRASIS. They are offering fiscal year-end discounts, as well as multi-year plans for even more savings.

community economic development. This full-day summit will feature a keynote from Ginny Sterpka from Creative Startups. She will explore how libraries can maximize networks to help entrepreneurs and their business community. Other sessions will cover topics including business law reference, the Grow with Google initiative, and entrepreneur needs. In addition, attendees will have an opportunity to network with representatives from NJ business groups. Attendance is limited to 75 participants. Registration closes April 28, 2020. Tell Us Your Story! How Is Your Library Serving Patrons Remotely?

Although the physical doors of libraries across the state are closed, NJ libraries remain committed to serving our communities. We would like to take this opportunity to gather inspiring stories about how NJ libraries are navigating these uncertain and unprecedented times and develop creative ways to serve patrons remotely. Send an email to marketing@njstatelib.org and tell us how your library is making a difference in your community despite the challenges the coronavirus pandemic has posed.

MentorNJ Online Meet-ups for Everyone

MentorNJ is offering a series of online meet-ups from April 6th through April 30th. We are all working on ways to continue to provide services while libraries remain closed. How are we coping in this new situation? This is an opportunity to come together to network, figure out what approaches work, and learn how to take care of ourselves and our patrons during this challenging time. We all have a lot to learn from each other. Learn more here.

GRANT OPPORTUNITES

OCLC's Community Engagement Award Application Open

OCLC is accepting applications from public libraries for its Community Engagement Awards. Tell OCLC about a current project, or one completed within the past year, that impacts and extends your public library's reach by engaging with your community. OCLC will offer three $5,000 awards. The application deadline is April 30, 2020.

National Network of Libraries of Medicine Grant - Application Deadline Extended

The National Network of Libraries of Medicine, Middle Atlantic Region, invites applications for grant funding in support of health information outreach and programming projects. Network member organizations in Delaware, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania are eligible to apply. Available grants include the Health Information Outreach Award, Data Award, and Professional Development Award. The application deadline has been extended to April 30, 2020. Read more here.

AARP Community Challenge Grant - Application Deadline Extended

The application period for the 2020 AARP Community Challenge has been extended to May 15, 2020. The AARP Community Challenge provides small grants to fund "quick-action" projects that can help communities become more livable for people of all ages. Applications are being accepted for projects to improve housing, transportation, public space, technology ("smart cities"), civic engagement and more.

Dollar General Literacy Foundation's Youth Literacy Grant Application Open

Dollar General Literacy Foundation is accepting applications for Youth Literacy Grants. Schools, public libraries, and nonprofit organizations who help students who are below grade level or having trouble reading are eligible to apply. Grant funding is provided to assist in the following areas: implementing new or expanding existing literacy programs, purchasing new technology or equipment to support literacy initiatives, purchasing books, materials or software for literacy programs. The application deadline is May 21, 2020.

As always, we look forward to your feedback. Please don't hesitate to forward any questions or concerns to the team in NJSL's Office of Communications, Marketing & Outreach.

Sincerely,
