The Speaker on assuming the chair, addressed the General Assembly as follows:

Fellow members of the General Assembly and guests. I would be remiss, indeed, if I did not express my gratitude for the trust you have placed in me. However, mere words have hollow meaning if not accompanied by action. Therefore, I believe I may best express my appreciation of this honor by my actions during the coming legislative session.

The Speaker of the General Assembly assumes great responsibility, for the power of the office is such that a successful legislative program can be assisted or impeded by him. The dual role of the Speaker as a sponsor of the majority party program as well as chief arbiter in the day-to-day business of the Assembly, places further responsibility upon him. I am fully aware of the burden placed upon me in assuming these responsibilities, and I assure you I shall distinguish between them in such a manner as to be completely impartial in considering your individual problems—and I ask your assistance in this matter by your full co-operation in maintaining the proper degree of decorum in this chamber, thereby facilitating the considered deliberation of the people's affairs.

We have assembled here today to initiate a legislative session as the representatives of more than six million people. As we look back upon the session just completed we can be proud of our accomplishments. Problems which vexed numerous previous legislatures found solution in 1960. The list of accomplishments is impressive; assessments, institutions, consumer protection, a larger judiciary and a host of others too numerous to mention. Despite the accomplishments of the 1960 session, however, there are unsolved problems of great importance which we will face in the coming year. The responsibility placed upon us is tremendous, but with Divine Guidance, let us seek the wisdom necessary to the faithful discharge of our duties.

In closing, let me thank you again for the honor conferred upon me and let us work together for a better New Jersey.

Speaker D'Aloia announced that his Secretary would be Mr. Irwin LeWine.

1. That the Legislative Index be purchased for the use of the members of the Senate and the General Assembly, and for such other persons as the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the General Assembly shall designate, one copy of each issue to be mailed to the local address of each member of the Senate and the General Assembly, and to each officer or other person designated to receive the same, and in addition thereto one copy of each issue shall be delivered at the State House for each member of the Senate and General Assembly and for each other person designated to receive the same; that the publisher of the Legislative Index shall from time to time furnish such special proofs of the Legislative Index as may be ordered by the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the General Assembly; that payment for the Legislative Index shall be at the rate of forty dollars ($40.00) for each subscription for a period not to exceed ten weeks, and three dollars and twenty-five cents ($3.25) per copy furnished thereafter, bills for services received to be submitted at the end of each five weeks; and that statements of expenses for the Legislative Index and special proofs for charges to the Senate and the General Assembly be referred to the Secretary of the Senate, and to the Clerk of the General Assembly, respectively, and when approved by them said approval shall be indicated by the signature of the Secretary of the Senate for an expense of the Senate, and the Clerk of the General Assembly, for an expense of the General Assembly, respectively, and said bills, when approved, shall be forwarded to the Legislative Budget and Finance Director for examination and audit, and said bills, when certified by the Legislative Budget and Finance Director, shall be forwarded to the Director of the Division of Budget and Accounting, who shall execute and deliver warrant checks in settlement thereof, and transmit the same forthwith to the State Treasurer for signature and delivery.

A message was received from the Secretary of the Senate as follows—and was read by the Clerk:

GOVERNOR'S ANNUAL MESSAGE TO THE LEGISLATURE

January 10, 1961.

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker and Members of the Senate and General Assembly:

New Jersey has a proud heritage. Many of our concepts of the rights of man and of representative government were wrought in pre-Revolutionary times. We were the third State to ratify the Federal Constitution. Our shores have been a haven to people of varying ancestry. Our growth has been steady. In the past ten years our population has increased by 25 percent. We are leaders in many fields.

Our achievements are due in no small measure to our peoples' foresight in accepting constitutional reform. Likewise, our public officials have been alert to the need for legislative change, administrative action and judicial interpretation. Change begets growth and growth begets change. A recognition of developing situations before they reach crises proportions is essential if our State is to serve our citizens in a forward march of progress.

Much of our expansion has been spontaneous. True, we have had mechanisms that encouraged growth. But unplanned growth has brought problems which call for solution. Technological knowledge and increasing scientific achievements promise more rapid change.

It is true that New Jersey has much to its credit in coping with new situations. But it will take more reflection, more foresight and more planning if we are to serve our fellow-citizens adequately and maintain our forward position among the 50 States.

Now is the time to look at our handiwork and that of our predecessors. Let us see how it works. Let us recognize any deficiencies. Let us build on the past, examine the present and plan for the future.

In constructing a building it is far better to plan to the last detail beforehand than to build hurriedly and alter afterward. In State Government it is even more important that we plan well, for we are not merely putting up a building. Look at what we build as we govern this great State! We are providing law and order; essential protection of life and health; guardianship of the sick, the poor and the infirm; the education of our youth; protection of civil and economic rights of all citizens; highways; the climate for job opportunities and industrial growth; the development of precious resources. We create a framework for the prosperity of six million citizens and millions more to come.

These are great responsibilities. We must plan well and act wisely and imaginatively as we move into this new legislative year.

I. LAW AND ORDER

A. REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT

One item on the 1961 legislative agenda stands out above all others—fair representation of the people. Our population is nearly 2,000,000 greater than it was when the General Assembly seats were last apportioned—20 years ago. Our congressional districts were established 30 years ago. The growth in these periods has been accompanied by drastic changes in the relative populations of our counties and districts.

Atlantic County has double the Assembly voice of Burlington County, yet it now has 28 percent fewer people than Burlington. In Union there is now one Assembly vote for every 126,000 people. By contrast, it is one for every 68,000 people in Hudson County. And these are, by no means, the only inequities.

Ideally, under our 1960 census, each of our congressional districts should have roughly 400,000 people. The fact is, however, four districts now have more than 550,000 and five have less than 320,000. There are just over 250,000 people in one of our districts—another has over 660,000 people. We must provide for another congressional district before the 1962 elections. If we don't, we will have a congressman-at-large.

We cannot afford continued neglect of these problems. Government must be representative of the people. A generation of neglect is too much.

This year, the parties share control of State Government. Next year, this may not be so. I urge you to use this opportunity to reach a bi-partisan solution on reapportionment and redistricting in 1961.

LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

I suggest broader use of the committee system. Each year you are faced with a thousand or more bills on all kinds of subjects. Many of the bills are complex. Without a working system of committee hearings, discussions and reports, sound appraisal of each measure is nearly impossible for any legislator. On important bills the public hearing process should be more widely employed.

We must keep in mind that a legislator represents all the people, not just those of his party or the area from which he comes. Excessive partisanship or provincialism impedes the legislative process.

I urge both houses to adopt a rule providing for report of a bill and for a vote upon petition of one-third of the members.

CONFLICT OF INTERESTS AND DUTIES

The Legislature should define the areas where private and public conduct come into conflict. There should be a definition as to what offices are conflicting. A resort to litigation or a search of the vague common law concepts is a poor substitute for legislative mandate. The administration has taken executive action in this sphere, but that is not enough. We need a legislative code for all levels and branches of government.

B. REVISION OF LAWS

Periodic revision of our laws is essential to combat obsolescence and to fit the continuing legislative product into consistent patterns. I am pleased to report progress in our revision efforts.

The first chapters of the revision of our county and municipal law were approved last week. The balance of the entire revision of this title will be presented to you before the end of this session.

The first stages of the revisions of Title 18, Education, and Title 14, the General Corporation Laws, will soon be submitted. The revision of Title 38, the Militia, will be presented this session. The Public Utility Commission has just completed its revision of Title 48. The Attorney General's Office is finishing a revision of the Weights and Measures Law for your consideration this year. The Commissioner of Banking and Insurance recently arranged for a citizens' group to study the laws on branch banks and to recommend necessary changes.

The Uniform Commercial Code Commission recently presented a complete study of the Code as it would affect New Jersey. Hearings have been held, and the Code is ready for legislative attention. This modernization of our commercial law should be adopted this session.

An insurance law revision commission was approved nearly two years ago, but no money has been provided. I again urge an appropriation for the work of this commission.

Other titles of our statutes are overdue for revision. The Election Law and the Motor Vehicle Laws are prime examples. These and other revisions require the full cooperation of the executive branch. This you have. But we must bear in mind that the basic responsibility for law revision rests with the Legislature.

CENSUS ADJUSTMENT

The final report on the 1960 census should be available this month or next. This will affect many areas of government. I arranged last year for a full study outlining the legal effect of the new census figures. This is available to you. It warrants immediate attention.

C. LAW ENFORCEMENT

New Jersey has had a good record in law enforcement in recent years. A large factor has been our ability to respond to emerging needs before they become critical. The consumer protection measures of last session—the home improvement act, the sales finance law, the consumer fraud bureau, our securities regulation statute—these and other measures have assisted legitimate business enterprise and have strengthened our hand against the fleecers and the frauds.

In the area of criminal law enforcement, however, there are needs which remain unmet.

POLICE TRAINING

The police training measure is of principal importance. Some 750 men will become permanent policemen this year. They will handle deadly weapons; they will administer increasingly intricate detection devices; they will contend with highly skilled criminals; they will share the responsibility to protect the lives and property of six million people. Yet we do not require that they be trained. Some are, of course. But many are not.

The police training bill would require a period of training for police appointees before their appointments become permanent. Home rule would be preserved.

This bill has broad and responsible support. I urge action at an early date.

CRIMES AND ADMINISTRATION

Several important legal weapons must again be requested to keep ahead in the fight against criminal elements.

—The witness immunity bill—to enable law enforcement officials to get vital testimony otherwise unavailable.

—The crime reporting measure. It is particularly important in fighting organized crime that we have a continuing picture of criminal activity throughout the State. The crime reporting bill will provide this.

—Bills to strengthen the laws on extortion and bribery.

—Licensing and regulation of refuse collection and disposal. The widespread abuse in this area has been shown clearly in the investigations by the Attorney General and the Senate Committee.

—A bill authorizing Regional Grand Juries to act where criminal activity ranges beyond county lines.

Each of these has been before you in the past. There is no reason for further delay.

In addition to these measures, I will submit a bill to impose criminal penalties for collusive bidding on public contracts. This bill has the full backing of the prosecutors' conference.

The Waterfront Commission recently reported the difficulty it has encountered in reaching certain criminal elements. I will submit legislation to amend the Waterfront Act as recommended by the Commission.

PROSECUTORS' SALARIES

Prosecutors' salaries need legislative attention. These men are seriously underpaid. Three receive the same salary paid in 1926. In at least one case, the prosecutor's maximum is less than the salary received by his assistant. The present law is so poor that one prosecutor will get no salary at all under the 1960 census. The public relies on the prosecutors to carry full-time responsibilities as the chief law enforcement officers of the counties. I believe we have a responsibility to compensate them at an adequate rate.

D. THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

I commend you for increasing the number of judges. We had to see the crisis before we acted, but action did come and the problem is abated for the present.

JUDICIAL TENURE

Last year I concurred in the proposal to provide tenure for magistrates, with certain recommendations concerning its application, mandatory retirement age, and removal procedures. I repeat these recommendations, and call your attention to the question of tenure for judges at the county level. It is hardly fitting to grant tenure to part-time magistrates and deny it to full-time judges. Reasonable tenure provisions should be adopted for all judicial positions.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

In my message a year ago I recommended a legislative look at our Municipal Court system. I do not believe that justice is best administered by 505 separate, part-time courts. I recognize the great improvements in the Municipal Court system, and I endorse efforts, such as the tenure proposal, to improve it further. But the number and structure of these courts severely circumscribe all improvement efforts. We may not have reached a crisis, but the need for change is apparent. I urge you to seek a practicable alternative to the host of Municipal Courts.

II. GUARDING LIFE AND HEALTH

A. ACCIDENT PREVENTION

New Jersey was recently honored as the "Green Cross State" for 1959. We ranked first among all the States in overall accident prevention.

ON THE HIGHWAYS

The major reason for the honor was our record in traffic safety. The mileage death rate for 1959 was 3.1 per 100 million miles of vehicular travel, a record for our State. Tentative figures indicate another record in 1960—a rate of 2.9. This is the third lowest among all the States, a remarkable achievement for the most crowded vehicular State of all. But even more significant than the rate is the fact that, despite increases in travel, fewer lives were lost on our highways in 1960 than in 1959.

During 1960, several traffic safety programs were instituted or blueprinted for the immediate future. We entered reciprocal enforcement pacts with Connecticut and Pennsylvania. Others are in the making. We instituted uniform post-mortems to determine the influence of alcohol in traffic tragedies. We also began an intensive program to develop pedestrian safety habits among our elderly citizens.

Proven programs will be continued this year. We will continue to pioneer in safety engineering for highways. Enforcement efforts will be pushed.

But even greater efforts are necessary. Despite the fatal record, traffic accidents in 1960 were up sharply from 1959. The number of licensed drivers is 50 percent higher than 10 years ago. Our automobile arteries, the busiest in the nation, become busier day by day.

We need legislative action.

As I stressed a year ago, the drinking driver takes a deadly toll. Indications are that alcohol is a factor in close to half of all fatal accidents. I repeat the request for the "implied consent" bill to require a scientific test of suspected drivers.

Traffic safety co-ordinators should be put on a full-time basis in each county. The measure to accomplish this will be resubmitted. I urge action also to improve the statutes governing commercial vehicle lighting, and to increase the penalties for drivers who operate vehicles while on the revoked list.

ON TIDAL WATERS

The bill governing power boats on tidal waters failed to pass last year. This has been costly in terms of safety, and in the loss of revenue to improve boating conditions. It has also resulted in a duplication of licenses for those who use both our lakes and tidal waters. New York and Delaware have acted, and Pennsylvania plans to follow suit. In New Jersey, however, the Coast Guard is now numbering power vessels on our tidal waters with negligible benefit to the State or the boatmen.

A study group representing legislators, boating interests and the administration has a boating measure ready for introduction. The Coast Guard will cease numbering vessels if we enact this bill which will recognize the federal numbers for at least one year. I request your urgent attention to this measure.

ON THE JOB

We need a modern law on safety practices in construction work. The existing statute is an ill-fitting, inflexible survivor of a past generation. Literal enforcement would impede work in the construction industry. A modern measure to replace the existing law was submitted last year. It has the approval of industry and labor and deserves priority treatment.

B. HEALTH PROTECTION

MODERN FOOD AND DRUG LAWS

New Jersey's food and drug laws were drawn for an era now gone. They are out of touch with today's technology. They must be rewritten for the sixties if we are to continue to guard the health of our citizens as food and drug consumers.

In addition, New Jersey does not license the manufacture of drugs. This has opened the public supply to contamination by counterfeit drug products. I recommend that New Jersey license drug manufacturers to insure compliance with adequate manufacturing standards. Responsible manufacturers actively endorse State licensing.

Our consumer protection bills of last year drew great acclaim, yet they protected only the citizen's pocketbook. These food and drug bills are fundamentally more important—they will protect the citizen's life and health. I hope you will join in an effort to obtain early enactment.

CONTROL OF RADIATION

A recent amendment to the national atomic energy act authorizes transfer to the States of the power to regulate certain sources of radiation. I recommend that our Radiation Protection Act be altered to enable New Jersey to take advantage of this program. This will enhance our ability to protect the health of the growing number of citizens who work with radiation sources. It will also encourage development of nuclear industrial enterprises.

HEALTH RESEARCH

The Department of Health is expanding its efforts to find the facts of disease and death. Its new "anti-coronary club," an effort to use diet control to aid persons who have had a heart attack, is an example of the expanding research. The success of efforts such as this will be aided by legislation to assure anonymity to those who cooperate by submitting personal data to Health Department research teams. I ask early approval of an appropriate measure.

III. OUR SPECIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Some of our citizen groups require special attention. The infirm, the mentally disturbed, our youth, the aging—government has a special responsibility for the well-being of these citizens. We have made significant progress in meeting this responsibility in recent years. More can be done at this session.

ADMINISTRATION OF PROGRAMS FOR THE NEEDY

The Alexander Commission last year gave us a blueprint for progress in the work of our institutions and agencies. Some of the recommendations already have been adopted; others are in process. A major one concerning the administration of public welfare is now ready for legislative action. It would transfer the work of the State Board of Child Welfare to a Bureau of Children's Services and create a citizen Board of Public Welfare to oversee all welfare programs. It would also transfer the administration of financial assistance for the needy blind to complete the unification of all categorical assistance programs. The State would relieve the counties of one-half of the county cost of blind assistance. The Commission for the Blind would continue to administer the specialized services it has so notably developed. I commend this bill to you.

MEDICAL CARE FOR THE NEEDY

The Commission on Public Medical Care last year proposed a unified system of comprehensive medical services for the needy. An implementing bill came before you last session. There is considerable support for the Commission's conclusions, though, of course, new revenues would be required.

Since the Commission reported, Congress has acted to help finance state programs for the "medically indigent." But its program applies only to persons over 65. Moreover, some of the conditions required by Congress are in conflict with the Commission's proposed legislation.

It is likely that Congress will soon inaugurate a broad new program to finance medical care for the aging. We must learn the dimensions of that program before designing a permanent State plan. With that knowledge, we can draw supplementary legislation to insure that all citizens get the protection they need. The Department of Institutions and Agencies is in day-to-day touch with developments in Washington. It will submit full recommendations as soon as possible.

THE MENTALLY ILL

We have made progress in our programs for the mentally ill. Through bi-partisan cooperation at the end of last session we launched the important construction program. In the past year we gained full accreditation of three of our psychiatric hospitals, and we expect similar rating for the other two in the near future. All five hospitals are now approved for the full three years of training required for certification by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

This year, the final report of the Commission on Mental Health is scheduled. The Commission's report should serve as a guide for further constructive action for the mentally ill.

THE SICK AND INFIRM

I urge you to approve measures, to be submitted, further insuring safe and healthful conditions in the nursing homes, hospitals and boarding houses of our State.

THE RIGHT OF THE AGING TO WORK

A study last year showed widespread discrimination against older job seekers. Several bills on the subject came before you last session. I urge you to join forces this year on a measure to ban discrimination in hiring solely because of age.

TAX RELIEF FOR THE AGING

The voters have approved a tax exemption for older citizens with limited income. This should be implemented by legislation this session.

TAX BASIC EDUCATION OF YOUTH

The Commissioner of Education has proposed a study of the operation of our school aid laws. I endorse the proposal and urge your support.

ADVANCED EDUCATION FOR YOUTH

The Scholarship Commission has reported on a full year's experience with the State scholarship law. It recommends that the limitation on scholarships to out-of-State schools be eased or abandoned. The Commission also recommends an annual review of the scholarships based on the students' need, residence and scholastic progress; and that school records as well as test scores be weighed in the initial selection of recipients.

These are sound recommendations. Legislative action should not be delayed any longer.

The Department of Education will soon publish a report on the need for public two-year colleges and technical institutes. This is an important matter and the Department's findings will merit careful attention.

IV. CIVIL RIGHTS

Last year we enacted legislation facilitating enforcement of our law on civil rights. There is now considerable sentiment to extend the law to eliminate discrimination in all types of housing. I believe we must consider this seriously.

I urge your consideration of legislation to tighten our laws governing discrimination by State suppliers and contractors, and to strike those statutes which now require submission of unnecessary ethnic data.

V. A FRAMEWORK FOR LABOR AND INDUSTRY

We have a responsibility to reshape the laws concerning labor and industry into a realistic framework for economic progress in the sixties.

UNEMPLOYMENT AND WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Our unemployment compensation law has not been substantially revised for more than 20 years. An overhaul is overdue. Contributions are still based on $3,000 of wages, yet today the average yearly wage in covered employment is nearly $5,000. Benefits, though increased slightly from time to time, are still keyed to the economy of a past generation. Eligibility standards need revision. Outgo has exceeded income in the operation of our system and employers are faced with even higher rates. This places us in a dangerously unfair competitive position with other States.

Our workmen's compensation and temporary disability programs have similar shortcomings.

The Legislature's failure to agree on proper changes in these laws is costly to the economy of this State. The subjects have been fully researched. All the material is in your hands. I urge you to lay aside partisanship and move ahead on these programs.

LABOR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

New Jersey still does not have effective machinery for the resolution of labor disputes. A labor-management relations act will be presented. I urge you to give it fresh consideration in the interests of labor, management and the public.

MINIMUM WAGE LAW

New Jersey has had laws dealing with the wages of women and children for more than 50 years. It is difficult to understand why an all-embracing minimum wage law has not been enacted. The need is clear; the solution is tested. I again ask for action on such a bill.

VI. HOUSING AND URBAN RENEWAL

The Limited Dividend Housing Law was amended last year to provide a realistic return on investment and increased payments to municipalities in lieu of taxes. Significant progress has followed in housing for families of moderate income. New projects are advancing in Paterson and Asbury Park and more are planned elsewhere. We also inaugurated a program of financial and technical assistance to municipalities preparing urban renewal programs. But housing and urban renewal needs still require attention.

I propose the following five-point program:

First—A State bond issue for long-term, low interest loans to promote private construction of middle-income rental housing in urban areas.

Second—Local Housing Authorities should be authorized to construct rental housing for middle- as well as low-income families.

Third—Legislation should be adopted to encourage private enterprise to participate in urban renewal programs consistent with our housing needs. This legislation, together with a continued program of State assistance, should step up State-wide urban renewal efforts.

Fourth—A State program to promote construction of rental units for older citizens under Title II of the National Housing Act of 1959.

Fifth—Municipalities should be given the power of eminent domain to acquire land for middle-income housing projects under the Limited Dividend Law in non-urban renewal areas. This would prevent excessive price demands which now hamper communities seeking to meet legitimate middle-income housing needs.

VII. TRANSPORTATION

RAILROADS

Last year we took an important step to salvage dwindling railroad passenger service. Our contracts with railroads under this program cover 95 percent of the suburban passenger car miles now in operation. It is notable that the three carriers which do not participate have petitioned to abandon their passenger service.

Recently we added five measures to aid rail carriers. We must continue our search for solutions to the mass transportation problem. The contract program should be continued this year. Two other steps should be taken at this session:

COMMUTER BENEFIT TAX

We cannot solve the transportation problem by magic. It takes money. I am perplexed by the Senate's refusal to approve the commuter benefit tax proposal. Here is a measure to provide nearly $40 million to meet the transportation needs in our northern metropolitan area—without a single cent of additional cost to our citizens. The commuter's money now goes to New York State. It ought to come to New Jersey where it would be put to work for his benefit.

HUDSON AND MANHATTAN

The Hudson and Manhattan Railroad is essential to the swift movement of people between New Jersey and New York. After conferences with our Railroad Division, the Port of New York Authority announced its willingness to purchase, modernize and operate the Hudson and Manhattan. This will be a constructive step in the development of our interstate transportation facilities. Legislation authorizing this program is a "must."

THE DELAWARE COMPACT

New Jersey has a voice in the operation of all major interstate river crossings except the Delaware Memorial Bridge. Bipartisan representatives of New Jersey and Delaware have prepared a compact which will give us a proper say in the operation of this and future crossings to Delaware. The compact legislation was amended by the Legislature to restrict our representatives to a few southern counties. The interest of the State as a whole is entitled to consideration here. I urge adoption of the compromise plan offered at the last session.

VIII. PRECIOUS NATURAL RESOURCES

A. GREEN ACRES

We have made significant progress in the last 10 years in acquiring and developing open lands for public recreation. In 1953, the State owned 145,000 acres of open land. In the last seven years our holdings have risen to 275,000. But the teeming growth we are experiencing permits no letup. The emerging needs of the sixties require that we plan now for continued growth. In the next 10 years New Jersey should double its open acreage. Thus, by 1970, we would have nearly 600,000 acres of State lands for recreation. I hope to recommend means to accomplish this 10-year program in my coming budget message.

In the meantime, we will move ahead promptly on the acquisition of the 6,800-acre Lake Wawayanda Tract in Sussex and Passaic Counties, described by the National Park Service as the "most significant site" in the Delaware River Basin. It will be an important addition to our public lands.

As a promotion of this end, I would suggest the Legislature consider a conservation easement law. This law would offer a means to preserve desirable lands in their natural state under private ownership, and facilitate their future acquisition as recreational sites. Also helpful would be a measure allowing the State to perfect title to tax-delinquent lands already acquired.

It may well be that a broad approach to this recreational program should include State aid to encourage expansion of local parks.

B. WATER RESOURCES

The water supply legislation of 1958 has provided a framework for long-range development of the water resources within the State.

We have also been developing a program for use of our interstate waters. The Governors of the four States bordering the Delaware River, together with other officials, have prepared a compact to govern the development and control of the waters of the Delaware River Basin. The compact will be submitted for legislative consideration in the near future. It will provide for water supply, flood control, pollution control, recreation and related uses of the basin waters. This is a program of first importance. It should command your attention and support.

Other important matters for legislative action concern our water resources. A measure is needed to regulate the private use of surface waters so as to maintain dependable supplies for industrial, agricultural and other uses. Our law governing industries within potable watersheds should be extended to cover plants locating in any watershed of the State.

An advisory committee has been studying the growing problem of sewage disposal in New Jersey. Its report is expected shortly. It is clear that State action is needed. The committee's recommendations will bear close attention.

FLOOD PLAINS

Water's destructive potential requires attention too. The State should be authorized to mark flood hazard areas to give fair notice to citizens who may plan to buy land in these areas. I also invite your consideration of legislation to regulate the use of flood plains.

IX. AGRICULTURE

The Department of Agriculture is preparing a bill to authorize voluntary self-help marketing orders. Many commodity groups feel the need for systematic means of marketing their increasing production. This bill will provide the mechanism. It has worked well in other States and should be adopted for New Jersey.

X. TAX ADMINISTRATION

The county-ratio assessment bill adopted last year was an important breakthrough in property tax assessments. But a century of neglect in property taxation cannot be corrected at a single stroke. I urge the completion of the program outlined in my message a year ago:

—Assessment of property at two- or three-year intervals instead of annually;

—Mandatory publication of assessments in the public press;

—Legislation to authorize use of county or joint municipal assessors;

—Legislation to upgrade the qualifications, staff and compensation of the office of assessor.

In addition, consideration should be given to State aid to encourage consolidation of the assessing function at the county level, and general authorization for municipalities to change from elected to appointed assessors.

The key to the property tax problem is quality assessment. Adoption of these recommendations will advance us significantly toward that goal.

XI. OTHER LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS

Many other matters of public importance will come before you this session. Among these, mention should be made of a bill regulating crew leaders of day-haul farm laborers; a measure to reduce the authorized number of daylight harness tracks; a constitutional amendment easing residence requirements for voting for president; the identical bill act; and essential amendments to our escheat laws.

CONCLUSION

It is my hope that we can maintain our lines of communication between the legislative and executive branches. The facts, the procedures and our views are available to you for the asking. By cooperative effort we can avoid the pitfalls of unsound legislation.

The political observers tell us that a peculiar paralysis grips the Legislature in a gubernatorial year. Jockeying for position and advantage is held to get more attention than weightier considerations of citizen service. Legislation is measured for appeal, they say, before it is tested for merit.

I invite you to defy this cynical presumption.

The public interest in progressive legislation is no less keen than in other years; your ability is no less; your responsibility is as great. And, I might add, your self-interest in a worthwhile session is greater.

Still, they tell us, progress comes on slow feet every fourth year. You can gainsay this mean appraisal, and I would bid you, in the words of the little boy to his ballplayer-hero, "Say it ain't so." Say it with an expeditious session and a productive one.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. MEYNER,
Governor.

Senator Farley, Senator Ridolfi, Assemblyman Davis and Assemblyman Barkalow.

Governor Robert B. Meyner delivered his Budget Message for 1961 as follows:

BUDGET MESSAGE

To the Members of the Senate and General Assembly:

This is my eighth Budget Message, and the last one of this administration. You will find, I believe, that it represents a prudent plan for the expenses of government. It covers statutory state aid programs over which there is but little control by the Executive. It accommodates a broad range of public needs, especially in the areas of education and welfare. It makes wise and careful disposition of our available income and of the additional revenue that New Jersey must have if we are to acquit the literal and moral obligations of our public trust.

The hard, unblinkable fact is that State Government in the next fiscal year is going to cost more than we can anticipate from existing revenue sources and rates. The Constitution requires a balanced budget. Therefore, allowing for a modest surplus of $1.4 million at the close of fiscal 1961-62, we face the necessity of raising an additional $39 million.

THE BUDGET IN BRIEF

Resources

Estimated Surplus, July 1, 1961
Estimated Revenues for 1961-62	$434,947,633
Less: Amount required to restore curtailed 1960-61 Highway program	5,140,192
Net Resources for 1961-62	$429,807,441

Recommendations

General State Operations	$207,334,144
State Aid	199,694,718
Capital Construction	60,350,538
Total Recommendations	$467,379,400
Amount needed to balance	$37,571,959
Surplus, June 30, 1962	1,428,041
Amount to be raised	$39,000,000

There are three reasons why we must raise more revenue next year :

1. The cost of new state programs, for which new or additional revenues have not been provided.
2. The cost of state aid, which has far outpaced the normal growth of existing revenues.
3. The failure of certain revenues, notably the 1.75% corporate income tax, to come up to expectations.

COST OF NEW STATE PROGRAMS

Here are the 1962 costs of a few of the spending programs put into effect over the past seven years with no provision for new revenue :

The new scholarship program	$2,317,000
Staffing of new buildings	6,000,000
Debt service on educational, water and institutional bond issues....	4,142,000
Community mental health clinics	1,000,000
Increase in allowances to certain pensioners	900,000
Development of recreational areas	500,000

You will recall, I am sure, that over the years, I have been obliged to veto proposed programs that would be costing us an additional $12.5 million a year because the proposals left unanswered a key question, "Where do we get the money?"

COST OF ACCELERATED STATE AID

More significant than the cost of new spending programs, however, is the soaring cost of state aid for education. Our public schools next year will enroll 1,100,000 children. The figure was 759,131 in 1954. We now have 49,419 teachers, an increase of salary was $4,184. Today, it is $5,930. These statistics, in great more than 50% since 1953-54. In that year the average teacher's measure, explain the extraordinary increase in state aid costs which will total $142.6 million next year. This is a better than threefold rise over the $44.5 million that was appropriated when I first took office.

True, we raised taxes of $42.5 million in 1955 and 1956 to liberalize the school aid formula. That tax increase, however, now produces only $60 million of the additional $98 million required for our school aid programs next year. Thus, we must absorb $38 million of these increased costs from the growth of other revenue sources.

FAILURE OF REVENUES

We have, in the past, pointed with some pride to the stability of our revenue structure. Geared to population for the most part, it is not nearly as sensitive to economic changes as one that rises and falls with the economy, like a structure with a general sales or income tax. However, one of our sources that is sensitive to economic change is the 1.75% Corporate Income Tax.

You will remember that a considerable difference of opinion arose in the Spring of 1958 between the Executive and Legislative Branches on the amount that would be raised in fiscal 1958-59 from the corporate income tax at the 1.75% rate. The Senate finally arrived at an estimate of $27 million. It was not until late May, 1959, that we knew what the tax would produce. It turned out to be $9 million short of the estimate. Fortunately, over-runs in other areas largely offset this shortage.

The Appropriations Bill for 1959-60 estimated that this tax would bring in $34 million. Actually, the yield fell $7 million short of the mark. Again, revenue over-runs offset much of this deficit.

Not long ago, I directed the Department of the Treasury to survey some of our larger corporations to compare profits in 1960 with those of 1959. The findings indicate that our current revenue estimates from this source are over-stated by approximately $7 million. Incidentally, the federal budget and many of our sister-states' budgets also overestimated the revenue from corporate income taxes.

It should also be noted that revenue earnings for the first six months of the current year, projected to next June 30, indicate that our motor fuels tax may fall off by about $4 million.

These expected under-runs of $11 million in the current year may to some degree be offset by over-runs in other revenues and by expected lapsed balances. But we must expect a deficiency. Were it not for the fact that our laws provide the means to limit appropriations when the State is faced with adverse revenue conditions, there would be a deficit. The provisions of R. S. 52:27B-26 empower the Budget Director, on my order, to curtail appropriations if it appears that revenues will fall dangerously below anticipations. Accordingly, to insure that the State may end 1960-61 in the black, I have ordered that appropriations to the Highway Department be curtailed temporarily. The operations of this Department are the least affected by temporarily deferring the award of contracts to July 1, 1961.

The funds so withheld are restored to the Highway Department in this budget for use beginning that date.

These are the facts. They indisputably show the need for additional revenue.

A SUGGESTED REVENUE PROGRAM

To finance next year's budget recommendations, I propose the following revenue program:

1. A 1% tax on the actual consideration paid on all real estate transfers	$10,000,000
2. A 2% public utility tax on
(a) Gas and electricity	10,400,000
(b) Telephone and telegraph	3,600,000
3. An increase in the registration fees on motor vehicles, as follows:
(a) Passenger vehicles by 20%	7,277,441
(b) Non-passenger vehicles by 26%	6,348,908
(c) Service charge on dual and duplicate registration certificates, and an inspection fee on all transfers	1,373,651
Total	$39,000,000

A neighboring state levies a real estate transfer tax. Another imposes a .5% tax on mortgages. In a number of other states, there are varying rates on the recording of documents or on real estate transfers. The application of the recommended tax would, incidentally, furnish useful information for assessment equalization purposes.

The proposed tax on public utility services would be collected by the utility for the State. The tax lends itself to economical collection and is easy to administer. It is reliable, stable and geared to growth. Thirteen other states impose it.

The proposed increase in motor vehicle fees would mean an additional $2 for a Class I passenger vehicle, $3 for Class II and $5 for Class III. These increases represent 20% of the passenger vehicle fees now paid. The fees on non-passenger vehicles would be increased approximately 26%. New Jersey is one of 19 states which limit taxation of automobiles to license fees. In 21 states, automobiles are subject to property taxes besides license fees. Eight other states apply other forms of tax on motor vehicles in addition to license fees.

I am informed that if New Jersey still calculated its motor vehicle fees on the old rated horsepower system rather than the present flat fee basis, next year's revenue would approximate what we could receive from the new fees I am suggesting.

If Congress lets the federal telephone tax lapse next June 30, as contemplated by existing federal legislation, the State, by picking up this tax, would realize from $18 million to $22 million without added cost to the taxpayer. This could serve as an alternate to part of the suggested new revenue program.

COMMUTER BENEFIT TAX

I strongly urge the Legislature to enact the commuter benefit tax. The budget I am presenting today includes heavy allocations for rails and roads to help transport the thousands of people who cross the Hudson to go to work.

The rail passenger service contract program and the highway construction program each require millions of dollars. These millions come from general revenues—from all the people of the State. This need not be so. The money could come from the commuter benefit tax, thus freeing our general revenues for road construction and other public purposes in all parts of the State. In addition, the commuter benefit tax would enable us to launch great new projects in the northern metropolitan area for the commuters' benefit. An obvious example of such a project is the development of rapid transit facilities.

The important and attractive feature of this proposal is that all of this would be done without taking a single penny of additional taxes from our citizens. They now pay some $40 million to New York State each year and get next to nothing for it. The commuter benefit tax would bring this money home to New Jersey where it belongs—to be put to work for the real benefit of our commuters and the State as a whole.

REQUESTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Requests from the various departments and agencies totalled $612 million. After careful analysis and review, I am recommending expenditures of $467.4 million, exclusive of the $5,140,192 to be restored to the highway program. This is about $145 million less than the total requests. The greater part of this reduction represents funds requested for capital construction in the Department of Institutions and Agencies. These needs, now and in the future, are to be met either from the proceeds of the recently enacted $30 million bond issue or from revenue derived from the additional penny tax on cigarettes.

The recommended $467.4 million program comprises $207.3 million for general state purposes, $199.7 million for state aid, and $60.4 million for capital construction. The total increase over the adjusted appropriation for the present year is $29.7 million, of which $15.3 million is for general state operations, $7.7 million for state aid, and $6.7 million for capital construction.

EDUCATION

Education will receive the lion's share of the increase in this budget. This follows the trend of the past few years. In round figures, education will cost $183.7 million, exceeding by $15.4 million the sum available this year. It is worth noting that in this proposed budget, education, all by itself, gets a sum higher than the whole state budget of a decade ago. Local school districts will receive $101,130,557, or $4.3 million more than in the current year. The contribution needed to keep the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund on a sound actuarial basis, together with the State's share of social security taxes for teachers, will be $40,425,648. This is $3.7 million more than in the current year. In 1954, by the way, the teachers' pension cost was $13,751,989.

To continue our expansion of facilities at the School for the Deaf at West Trenton, $1 million is earmarked for the construction of the upper school classroom building.

Of the balance of $41.1 million, substantially all of it will support higher education at the State University, the six State Colleges and Newark College of Engineering. This will be $7.4 million more than was appropriated in the current year.

We expect that some of the educational facilities to be constructed from an appropriation in 1958-59 will be available sometime during the 1961-62 school year. This budget provides funds to staff these buildings and accommodate more students.

ENROLLMENTS SOAR

Our student enrollment continues to climb rapidly. We are already exceeding the estimates made when the recently approved bond issue for education was presented to the people.

Our six State Colleges, for which approximately $11.4 million is appropriated next year, will enroll 10,900 full-time and 25,045 part-time students. Enrollment in the current year was 9,768 full-time and 23,117 part-time students. We must therefore anticipate providing educational facilities for an additional 3,060 students next year at our State Colleges alone.

This upward trend is even more pronounced at the State University and Douglass College. Their full-time student body is expected to increase next year from 8,594 to 9,474, and part-time enrollment from 22,989 to 27,694, a total increase of 5,585 students. More students mean more faculty, more supplies, more equipment. The sum recommended for the University, Douglass and the Agricultural Experiment Station approximates $15.3 million and represents an increase of $810,000 over the current year.

UNIVERSITY LOAN

The present statutes provide that the proceeds from the escheat of personal property may be loaned to any state agency. Rutgers, the State University, has requested a loan of $1 million from this fund as an emergency measure to provide, by next September, low-cost buildings that will be used as temporary dormitories. These facilities will serve 500 male students for whom no other accommodations are available. Their admission to Rutgers depends on the issuance of this loan.

Accordingly, I recommend that you enact legislation to permit a $1 million loan from this fund, to be repaid over a 20-year period at an interest rate of 4%. When permanent dormitories are available, the University will convert the temporary facilities to class-room, laboratory and storage use.

I am recommending $100,000 to support the Trenton Junior College and School of Industrial Arts. The Commissioner of Education informs me that this school, which operates as a two-year college, is turning out students who enroll for their final years of college training in institutions of national repute. State funds for this school will be allotted under a contract similar to that now in effect with Newark College of Engineering.

As was to be expected, our State Competitive Scholarship Program is rapidly expanding. The program will cost approximately $2.3 million in 1961-62. It includes $100,000 for student loans.

DEBT SERVICE FOR EDUCATION

One of the larger items included in the amount recommended for education is the debt service charge of $2,314,250 on the State Higher Education Bonds sold under the bond acts of 1959. A considerable part of this cost will be offset in 1961-62 by revenue derived from the investment of the proceeds after bond sales. Substantial payments for construction out of these proceeds will not be made until the latter part of 1961 and the early part of 1962, because many of the projects have not as yet reached the bid stage. For this reason approximately $1.8 million is being included in the estimated revenue from the investment of these funds, but this revenue will not recur. Therefore, the entire debt service cost on this bond issue, beginning with the fiscal year 1962-63, will be chargeable against the revenue structure then existing.

INSTITUTIONS AND WELFARE AID

The amount recommended for the Department of Institutions and Agencies in 1961-62 is $104.1 million divided as follows: $63.5 million to operate various hospitals, institutions and prisons; $30.8 million for state aid, and $9.8 million for capital construction. The increase of $5.2 million over the current fiscal year is due principally to proposed capital construction, to be financed from funds recently made available from the penny increase in the cigarette tax.

NEW BUILDING PROGRAM

The State Board of Control has prepared a schedule of high priority construction needs. Out of funds appropriated in the current fiscal year and the funds recommended in 1961-62, we hope to complete the fireproofing projects at Trenton State Hospital and Greystone Park State Hospital, to plan and start construction on the new Colony for the Mentally Retarded at Woodbridge, and to do the initial planning on a new medium-security correctional institution and a new unit for defective delinquents.

I am pleased to inform you that all four State Hospitals have now received full accreditation. Among many benefits from such recognition, it is possible for the hospitals to recruit residents-in-psychiatry. This budget contains funds for their salaries.

The funds recommended include an increase of $52,000 for the expansion of the family care program for the mentally retarded. Eighty of the 120 new positions allowed the Department of Institutions and Agencies are assigned to institutions for the retarded, providing care, protection and training to patients.

PROGRESS IN REHABILITATION

In 1954 there were very few inmates on work detail outside our correctional institutions. Since that time we have established four work camps, affording occupational therapy for idle inmates and relieving overcrowded conditions. To provide adequate operation of these facilities, funds have been included for inmates' wages and for supervision by 30 officers.

In 1957 the Department of Institutions and Agencies was authorized to establish residential group centers throughout the State, following the pattern of the now well known Highfields Project. As a result, in the past year, the Warren Residential Group Treatment Center was opened and the Turrell Residential Group Center at Allaire for delinquent girls was established with private funds.

THE NEED FOR ROADS

In addition to the $45.5 million for highway construction, we shall have available such sums as will be received from the Port of New York Authority for construction of approach roads to the George Washington Bridge. The exact amount of these Port Authority funds cannot be determined until the actual construction program for 1961-62 is prepared.

As our highway system develops, we must build into it added safety features. Most of these are a charge against the State alone.

Recognizing that the use of highway money for commuter service limits the amount which the Department can spend for non-federal projects, I again urge you in the strongest terms to adopt the commuter benefit tax. Failing that action, I must with considerable reluctance recommend that the money for commuter service contracts be taken from the capital construction funds of the Highway Department. This was the pattern followed by the Legislature this current fiscal year.

GRADE CROSSING ELIMINATION

Following the directive restated by Chapter 153 of the Laws of 1960, I am recommending $2 million as the State's share of the grade crossing elimination program. A great deal of work needs to be done in this area for public safety and convenience. We should start the program without delay.

PENSIONS AND RELATED COSTS

I have already pointed out that this budget provides funds sufficient to assure the actuarial soundness of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund and to pay the cost of teachers' social security and group life insurance. I am recommending similar appropriations for state employees in the sum of $14.1 million, or approximately $2 million more than in the current fiscal year. These funds are necessary to keep the Public Employees' Retirement System on a sound actuarial basis. Incidentally, in 1954, State pension costs were $3,329,000.

MEETING EMPLOYEE NEEDS

In past budget messages, I have recommended funds for the purchase of medical-surgical and hospital benefits for state employees. The Legislature, however, chose not to include such funds in the Appropriation Bills. In last year's message I stated that I would be agreeable to a plan by which the State would assume this expense. My purpose, of course, was to have the Legislature raise the required funds. Several bills were introduced in the 1960 Legislature which would have authorized major medical benefits, otherwise known as catastrophic illness insurance, for state employees. However, with the prospect of declining revenues about which I have already spoken, and with no additional revenue being raised for such a program, I was obliged to veto the measure that was finally presented to me.

Now that we undertake to get new revenue, we ought to make available to our state employees some of the fringe benefits that are a commonplace in private industry. Therefore, I recommend the adoption of a hospitalization, medical-surgical and major medical insurance program for our state employees. This will cost $2 million.

If you concur in this recommendation, the legislation should be so drawn as to permit the employee to pay for other members of his family. Under a group insurance agreement, the cost to the employee should be relatively small.

To meet rising costs of living and the competition of other employers, we have in the past made periodic salary adjustments. In furtherance of this program, I recommend that the salary ranges for all employees be raised by one range grade. To meet the cost of this program I have included $2.5 million in this budget.

ADDED BENEFITS FOR COLLEGE FACULTIES

New Jersey has no cause for apology about its college faculty salary scales. In many respects, in fact, we rank with the Nation's highest. Nevertheless, competition for the available talent is keen, especially so in our particular geographical area.

I therefore recommend that the salary ranges for academic personnel teaching at State-supported institutions of higher education should be raised one range grade. This would be in addition to the general range rise for all employees. I have included $1 million in the budget for this purpose.

Another area of the program is my recommendation of $500,000 for selective range revisions for critically needed employees in the various professions, including accountants, engineers, doctors and other key personnel from whom we expect college training.

In addition, I am recommending $150,000 for the Department of Institutions and Agencies for selective pay increases or better starting pay for personnel working with patients. We have a large group of dedicated employees in this area. The work they perform is often trying and difficult. It deserves recognition. We should strive toward the goal set by the State Board of Control of paying or recruiting these people at about $3,000 a year. Should these recommendations be adopted, the effect will be that every employee will receive no less than a normal increment. Many employees will receive, as well, an additional adjustment.

OTHER PROGRAMS

A number of other state programs have in recent years been strengthened or expanded to accommodate changing needs and population growth. I am listing some of these for which additional funds are recommended:

Nine positions are needed in the Division of Law to enforce the new securities regulation law and the consumers fraud act.

Twenty-eight troopers are being added to the State Police so that more adequate services can be furnished in areas which have experienced an increasingly larger burden of traffic and policing problems. Our State Police force is outstanding. Because of the nature of its members' task, they must obtain most of their meals away from home, or without leaving their assigned patrol. To meet higher meal costs, I am asking for funds to increase their daily allowance from $3.50 to $4.

Nineteen Motor Vehicle Examiner positions are being added for our inspection stations. The new three-lane North Hudson inspection facility, which should be completed next year to replace the one-lane station in Union City, will require nine of these positions. Part of the balance is intended for increasing the number of lanes in the Union County area. A few are being added where workload and congestion problems may need attention. Other positions, to cover such activities as interstate reciprocity for driver license revocation, maintenance of existing inspection facilities and traffic safety engineering, are also included.

The Motor Vehicle Division had requested a much larger number of positions, but I believe the need for these can be met through consolidation in the new Motor Vehicle Building. The centralizing of offices which had been dispersed should result in more efficiency.

Additional employees are being recommended in the Department of Civil Service where a large examination and clerical workload has to be met. This is the result of the larger number of jurisdictions which have adopted Civil Service.

Twenty-six new positions are needed in the Department of Banking and Insurance to enforce new consumer protection laws and new regulations on surplus lines insurance.

In the Department of Labor and Industry, I am asking for more help for safety inspection in the construction industry; for assistance to meet the workmen's compensation caseload; and to strengthen the Rehabilitation Commission program.

The maintenance and construction activities of the Highway Department continue to increase as more roads are built. We must meet an increasing responsibility in these areas through the addition of more engineering personnel.

Radiation and sanitation problems are still among the more perplexing of those faced by our State Health Department. I have included sums for more personnel to aid in their control.

GREEN ACRES

Energetic as we have been during the last 10 years in the acquisition of land for public purposes, we have reached the now-or-never point where the program must be accelerated. New Jersey faces an open-space crisis. Its land resources are disappearing at a startling rate while the price of those sites which remain continues to soar. I therefore recommend a $60 million "green acres" bond issue to be used by the State to purchase land for recreation, reservoir sites and water reserve uses, and by municipalities and counties for the purchase of local recreation land.

Future urbanization of New Jersey as a great metropolitan area could leave us without places to play and hunt and fish—places to contemplate the beauty of virgin land. Foresight is needed so that those who follow us may have a fit inheritance. We should act now.

For the acquisition of land by the State for these multiple uses, it has been suggested that $45 million be used.

More than 75% of our municipalities—424 of them—and 15 of our counties have active planning programs. These citizen planning boards have become acutely aware of the vanishing open space in their localities and the desperate need to preserve some of it now. They also know that local budgets cannot be stretched to include the high cost of these last remaining open areas.

It has been further proposed that $15 million of the bond issue be used on a matching basis with municipal and county funds in the acquisition of recreation space.

CONCLUSION

As I leave this, my last Budget Message, with you, it is but natural that I take a backward glance over the seven fiscal plans that preceded it. My terms in office have been marked by many demands for additional services. We have witnessed a tremendous growth in these services over the past generation. We have grown remarkably in population, and urbanization has brought us a whole set of new problems. Technological advances and scientific achievements have placed new demands on our education, health, welfare and highway programs. Inflation has been ever with us.

And so, as our numbers have grown and the scope of government has widened, the costs of government have increased, too.

In my budget messages including this one, I have attempted to develop sound policies and plans to allocate funds fairly for necessary state services. As the elected representative of all the people, I felt it a solemn duty to resist all pressures, no matter how sincerely motivated, that would lead New Jersey down the easy and dangerous path of imprudent taxing and spending. This task has not been an easy one.

When elected, I promised that I would recommend no personal income or general sales tax. I have kept that pledge. I firmly believe the people of our State have benefited by it.

This Budget Message recognizes the need for increasing the pay of dedicated and deserving public servants. It is axiomatic that the success or failure of government and the quality of service it renders inevitably rest with them. We need in government men and women of capacity, character and devotion who believe in rendering service rather than in worshipping at the shrine of bureaucracy.

My recommendation for additional revenue will not be popular with everyone. But the needs are there and they must be met. I earnestly hope that the program will be adopted so that my successor may receive a fiscal inheritance permitting the continuance of sound State Government.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. MEYNER,

Governor of New Jersey.

EDWIN C. LANDIS, JR.,

Acting Secretary to the Governor.

Further Resolved, That the following Joint Rules be adopted:

Joint Rules

1. In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one House and dissented from in the other, if either House shall request a conference and appoint a committee of three members for that purpose, designating its chairman, and the other House shall also appoint a committee of three members, designating its chairman, to confer, such committee shall, at a convenient hour, to be agreed on by their respective chairmen, meet in conference, and state to each other, verbally or in writing, as either shall choose, the reasons of their respective Houses for and against the amendment, and confer freely thereon.

2. If the conference committee shall agree, an identical report of its agreement shall be made to each House, which shall be signed by the members or a majority of the members of the committee. If in said report it is recommended that additional amendments to the bill be adopted, such amendments shall be stated therein and in said report it may be recommended that the House, in which the amendments dissented from were adopted, shall recede from such amendments, or that the House dissenting from the amendments shall concur therein, with or without the adoption of additional amendments as may be recommended in the report.

3. If the report of the conference committee shall be adopted in both Houses, such action shall be taken, in each House, by receding from the amendments dissented from, or by concurring in the amendments dissented from, or by so receding or so concurring and adopting such further amendments, if any, as are recommended in the report, as shall be necessary to make the recommendations contained in said report effective and each House shall give notice to the other House of its action so taken.

4. When identical bills or bills dealing with the same subject matter but containing different provisions have originated in the two Houses and neither House is willing to pass the bill originating in the other House, either House then may request a conference and appoint a committee of three members for that purpose who shall proceed to confer as in cases in which an amendment to a bill is agreed to in one House and dissented from in the other.

5. If both identical bills are pending in one House, the conference committee may in its report recommend that the bill which has passed the other House be substituted for that which originated in the second House, upon or after the latter's second reading, and that the former be considered immediately upon third reading, but if the identical bills are pending in different Houses, the conference committee in its report may recommend that such proceedings shall be taken upon one bill, designating it by number, so that it may be forwarded to the other House and substitution of one for the other may be made in that House, and shall report to both Houses accordingly.

6. If bills dealing with the same subject matter but containing different provisions are the subject matter of the conference, the conference committee may recommend in its report that certain amendments shall be made of one or the other of said bills, designating such bill by number, and that the bill so amended shall be passed by both Houses, which may be done by the substitution in one House of a committee substitute for the bill pending in that House, or if both bills are pending in one House, a committee substitute for both bills, which committee substitute shall then take the usual course of procedure to passage in both Houses, and said conference committee shall report to each House accordingly.

7. In any case in which one bill shall be substituted for another upon final passage the name of the introducer first appearing in each bill shall be endorsed as sponsor of the substituted bill upon the jacket containing the same.

8. If a bill shall have passed both Houses, it shall be delivered by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the General Assembly, as the bill may originate in one House or the other, to a Joint Committee on Passed Bills appointed as a standing committee for that purpose and it shall be presented by said Committee to the Governor for his action, there first being endorsed on the jacket containing the bill a certificate, specifying the House in which the same originated, which certificate shall be signed by the Secretary or the Clerk, as the case may be, of the House in which the same originated. Each such bill shall remain in the custody of the Secretary or Clerk, as the case may be, of the House in which the bill originated, acting for the Joint Committee on Passed Bills but no action shall be taken upon such a bill, by the Joint Committee on Passed Bills, other than to present it to the Governor, except by the order of both Houses.

And Further Resolved, That when the Rules have been adopted for the 1961 Session, the Law Revision and Legislative Services be requested to cause the same to be properly indexed and 200 copies thereof with the index be printed at the cost of the General Assembly and that said copies be delivered to the Clerk of the General Assembly for distribution among the members of the General Assembly and the public, as requested.

And Further Resolved, That a copy of said Joint Rules, when adopted, be forwarded to the President of the Senate, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, to the Minority Leader of the Senate and to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Order of the Senate.

The Speaker put the question, "Shall the General Assembly adopt the rules as amended?"

Mr. Hauser of Hudson County delivered the annual Lincoln Day address to the General Assembly.

Mr. Speaker, members of the House, attaches, ladies and gentlemen: I appreciate the honor granted to me today to say a few words about a great American.

Seven score, twelve years and two days ago was born in a log cabin in the backwoods country of Kentucky, Abraham Lincoln, who was destined to become one of the world's greatest figures. If we cast our minds back, we see that Thomas Jefferson was President of the United States, James Madison had been elected to that office, but had not yet been inaugurated, which was to be on March 4th of that year, 1809. Europe, as usual, was in turmoil and in a period of war in between periods of peace. Napoleon was dominant on the Continent and the English Navy ruled the sea. Colonial America—the era of the plantations and tidewater Virginia—was about to pass into history. The frontier was widened. Drifters from the so-called big cities in the north wandered away from civilization. One of those wanderers was Thomas Lincoln who married Nancy Hanks—the parents of Abraham Lincoln. Little was it known at that time that this birth was to be later on a fortunate occurrence.

Lincoln, of course, is in some sense a mystery. Seared upon his face is the expression of sadness, reflected in his kindly eyes.

How could this ordinary person, born of such poor parents when poverty was almost universal, with no education, with no schooling, and brought up in a society in which people spoke, and he himself spoke, using such terms as "Git them thar" and "Ain't that purty," be the author and speaker of such immortal words as we find in the Gettysburg Address and be the man who was to preserve the Union? What is it that explains this mystery?—Simply strength of character, simply divine guidance, and simply rugged honesty, perseverance and belief in the truth.

I think if we were to select the outstanding attribute of Abraham Lincoln, it would be his manifestation of the truth. He spoke the truth regardless of whom it hurt. He became President of the United States at a time in our history which can be compared only with the situation that faced the immortal father of our country in the beginning days of the Confederation and later the Federated Republic. It was a nation which was ready to divide, a nation which even the Supreme Court was ready to divide, when the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, then over eighty years of age, issued the famous decision in the case of Dred Scott that rocked and split the nation from the historic courtroom in St. Louis, along the banks of the Mississippi. But Lincoln was not one to be deterred by a Supreme Court decision. Lincoln had knowledge that the judges only say what is the law, that Congress makes the law and the President enforces the law.

He demonstrated that vigor and that determination when as President of the United States he broke the back of the beginning of the rebellion by eliminating and suspending the writ of habeas corpus in spite of the fact that Chief Justice Taney issued the writ in a number of cases. The President ordered his military commanders to disregard the decision of the Supreme Court and to confine people who were leading the rebellion and who were ready to destroy the nation. His duty as he saw it in that case was to stretch the Constitution, adopt the necessary means at hand, and to pursue the truth as he saw it.

Lincoln was a man who was able to cut through red tape and to see the facts and, having seen the facts, to put them into function and operation. It was his divinely-inspired leadership that led to the preservation of the nation. He knew his course and he knew his goal. Even when he was a candidate for local office and when he was a candidate for the Congress of the United States when the ability to be elected in those days consisted of being able to thrash your opponents physically and to consume copious quantities of spiritus frumenti, Lincoln had an uncanny ability to be with the people. He sensed the pulse of the people, whether it was locally in Sangamon County or in the growing great western State of Illinois or finally in the nation. He knew public opinion and he moved with it. He was not only a leader of the times, but he was the product of the times in which he lived.

He had another unusual quality and that is the quality not only of being able to take good advice, but also the quality of being able to recognize bad advice and to disregard it. After appointing his cabinet, the usual deals having been made to get the votes at the Chicago Convention in 1860 when cabinet jobs were promised in order to bring in the votes and to destroy the New York strength of Seward and others, he soon laid down the law when Seward as Secretary of State said to Mr. Lincoln, "I suggest that our foreign policy be as follows, that we deal such and such a way with France, with England and so on." Mr. Lincoln put his foot down and said "I am the President of the United States. I am responsible to execute the law and to formulate foreign polity."

Here is a man who bridged the gap between Colonial America and modern times. Here is a man who never indulged in personalities. Here is a man who fought for issues only. Even in the great civil strife, even in the struggle over slavery, he never fought people as persons, but he fought for the issues and for principles and ideals as he saw them. He never hated anybody. He never disliked anybody as an individual and he had that ability, that rugged honesty and strength of character, to move forward as he saw the truth and as he saw the light.

If you read and study his actions in regard to the great slavery debate, the great momentous moral and social question which faced the nation in the early nineteenth century, what Lincoln did was not only for the United States, but something that he did for the entire world and something that was to come down through the ages in the interest and in the name of humanity. He was able to move into the White House on the strength of that issue and, once in the White House, was able to seize the other great issue which has brought him fame, and that was an undivided Union. Every move made by any southern State, every move made by any individual, even those great giants in the United States Senate, such as Calhoun, was met with firmness and resoluteness by President Lincoln who said: "I see my duty. My duty is to enforce the law. The Union cannot be divided. It is one and inseparable. No State can secede from the Union and I intend to use the full power of my office and the Federal forces to prevent secession and the disintegration of the Union."

Lincoln had the quality of continuity. He never swerved from his purpose and he knew that in the long run, regardless of the passage of time, that truth would prevail.

Here, indeed, was a God-given leader in a time of peril and in the words of Stanton in 1865 "Lincoln now belongs to the ages."

(Applause.)

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
August 28, 1961. }

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 169

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 169, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill would amend the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund—Social Security Integration Act, L. 1955, c. 37, to broaden the definition of World War II "veteran". The law now gives veteran status to persons with at least 90 days active service in the United States forces between September 16, 1940, and September 2, 1945. This bill would extend the terminal date by 16 months, to December 31, 1946.

I disapproved a bill such as this once before. In a statement filed in the State Library on March 7, 1958, I gave my reasons for disapproval of that measure, Assembly Bill No. 231 of 1957, as follows:

"The New Jersey Constitution, in Article VII, Section I, paragraph 2, establishes the policy that special benefits for veterans in the public employ shall be limited to those veterans who served "in time of war". This limitation has been incorporated into not only the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund law but into the companion State pension program, the Public Employees' Retirement System (P. L. 1950, c. 84), local tax exemption provisions (P. L. 1951, c. 184) and Civil Service preferences (R. S. 11:27-1). Considering the uniform treatment of this limitation on special benefits, I find no justification for the extension proposed by Assembly Bill No. 231.

"Moreover, the pension rights and Civil Service benefits granted by the State to employees who are veterans constitute recognition by the State for the wartime services rendered by such veterans in light of the sacrifices they made and the risks they incurred. Any measure such as Assembly Bill No. 231 which would extend the rights and benefits established for the veterans who served in time of war to individuals who served after the cessation of hostilities would operate to destroy that very purpose."

There has been no change in the circumstances which would warrant a different result today. September 2, 1945, is still uniformly observed as the terminal date under the Public Employees' Retirement System Act, the property tax exemption law and civil service preference legislation. This bill itself retains September 2, 1945, as the terminal date in determining veteran status of our citizens who voluntarily served with our allies during World War II.

The cost of this bill bears mention. It is estimated that 300 teachers might become war veterans if it were signed. As such, they would be entitled to an immediate return of all the contributions they made to the pension fund prior to January 1, 1955. This could well amount to several thousand dollars per person. In addition, they would benefit from the advantageous computation of retirement allowances for veterans. The result of all this would be a new cost to the taxpayer for public contributions to the teachers' pension system estimated at $140,000 annually for 30 years, or a total of $4.2 million.

The proponents offer the argument that despite this cost both the State and the local boards of education would save money. In effect, they say the State would be relieved of an obligation because of the local board's responsibility for veterans, and the local boards, while incurring a new responsibility, would be relieved of a greater liability under the Free Veterans' Pension Act.

The reasoning is ingenious, but unsound. The argument that the State would be able to pass on the cost to the local boards is neither forceful nor well founded. The argument that the over-all cost to the taxpayer would be less assumes that such rights as these 300 may now have under the Free Veterans' Pension Act would be more costly to the taxpayer than the rights they wish to acquire by this bill. I have no doubt the proponents would agree this is most likely. If they felt they were giving up the more costly benefit this measure would never have been proposed.

I have no doubt this bill would be costly to the taxpayer. Whatever the precise cost might prove to be, whether $4.2 million or something less, I find no justification for incurring it. It would be fair neither to the taxpayer nor to the teachers who earned World War II veteran status by service when we were actually at war.

Respectfully,

ROBERT B. MEYNER,

Governor.

EDWIN C. LANDIS, JR.,

Acting Secretary to the Governor.

Mr. Davis moved that the message be spread in full upon the Minutes.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 176

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 176, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill would amend the election law as it affects certain counties to transfer the responsibility for printing official primary ballots, official primary sample ballots and sample ballot envelopes from the municipal clerks to the county clerks. An Act of 1945, L. 1945, c. 68, made the transfer in the case of second class counties having a population of 400,000 or more where voting machines are used. This bill would broaden that act by amendment to include second class counties of 375,000 or more and fifth class counties with fewer than 200,000 people. The act still would be restricted to counties using voting machines.

The sections which this bill would amend were amended by another measure earlier this session. L. 1961, c. 62. The other measure, which altered the 1945 act to restrict it to counties of 700,000 or more, was enacted after this bill was introduced, and this bill does not reflect the change. The result is that this bill does not set forth the existing section at length as directed by the State Constitution, art. IV, sec. VII, par. 5. Another result is that the bill no longer makes sense. It omits language now in the law and assumes the existence of words now repealed. To sign it would only create confusion.

I considered approval of this bill on condition that it be amended to correct the language problem, but decided against that course because of the peculiar selection of counties which the bill embodies. If it is in the public interest to pool the printing of primary sample ballots in small fifth class counties and large second class counties, it is beyond my understanding why it is not also in the public interest in the intermediate counties.

I believe the proper course is to refer the question to the Election Law Revision Commission, soon to be constituted

Mr. D'Aloia offered the following resolution, which was read by the Clerk and adopted:

WHEREAS, The State Highway Department has proposed a new interstate Route 78 to replace Route 22, which by design would enter Newark along the line following Fabyan Place and proceeding through the Weequahic section and terminating at the New Jersey Turnpike; and

WHEREAS, A study has been made by the Essex County Engineer, under the direction of the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders which suggests alternate routes which would be far less destructive of family dwellings and religious buildings and schools than the proposal of the State Highway Authority; and

WHEREAS, The City of Newark is attempting to lift itself up by its own bootstraps and rehabilitate its depressed areas through Urban Renewal programs; and

WHEREAS, Destroying one of the city's last best residential neighborhoods while it is trying to build itself up would only place a more severe strain on its fight to keep ratables; where federal and State funds are being used to bring people to live in Newark, rather than drive them out; we would recommend that alternate routes be studied with an eye to shifting the alignment to a zone which would leave intact the showplace area known as the Weequahic section; now, therefore

Be It Resolved, That this resolution be forwarded to the State Highway Department, to the Governor, to the Senate and to the Federal Urban Renewal Administration.

Mr. D'Aloia offered the following resolution, which was read by the Clerk and adopted:

WHEREAS, Patrolman James J. Vigilante of Morristown, New Jersey was on July 25, 1961, elected president of the National Conference of Police Associations; and

WHEREAS, Patrolman Vigilante was elected by acclamation with no opposition in his bid for the national office, the first such action taken by the group in nine years; and

WHEREAS, Patrolman Vigilante has served with the Morristown Police Department for twenty years, has been State PBA president for the past three years having held other offices including being a State delegate; and

WHEREAS, Patrolman Vigilante has been cited for bravery and holds the State PBA valor award for saving a drowning man in Morristown; now, therefore

Be It Resolved, That the members of the General Assembly of the State of New Jersey extend their sincere congratulations to Patrolman Vigilante on his having attained this high office; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution signed by the Speaker of the General Assembly and attested to by the Clerk of the General Assembly be forwarded to Patrolman Vigilante and the Morristown Police Benevolent Association.

Mr. Stamler offered the following resolution, which was read by the Clerk and adopted:

WHEREAS, The year 1961 marks the 100th anniversary of the incorporation of the Township of Linden in Union County, New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, The Borough of Linden came into existence March 28, 1882, and the two municipalities were reunited January 1, 1925, to form the City of Linden; and

WHEREAS, This centennial anniversary constitutes another milestone in the progress and achievements of the City of Linden, which have brought both itself and the State of New Jersey great honor and recognition; and

WHEREAS, The people of the City of Linden will appropriately celebrate this centennial during the month of October, 1961; therefore

Be It Resolved, That the congratulations of the General Assembly of New Jersey are hereby extended to the citizens of the City of Linden, its Mayor, William J. Hurst and members of its Council; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution signed by the Speaker of the General Assembly and attested to by the Clerk of the General Assembly be forwarded to Mayor Hurst and Council members of the City of Linden.

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 3

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 3, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill would amend section 23 of the "Municipal Planning Act", L. 1953, c. 433. Under this section a person is subject to a fine if he subdivides land without approval or favorable referral of the local planning board, and, in addition, the municipality may get an injunction or set aside the conveyance if the streets are such that a structure on the land would not meet the building permit requirements of section "3" of the Official Map and Building Permit Act. The reference to section "3" is erroneous. These requirements are contained in section 10 of that act.

This bill was intended to correct this error. Rather than correct the section reference, the bill seeks to list the building permit requirements at length. Unfortunately, however, would also apply to state agencies and to authorities created by the State.

The property of the State and its agencies and authorities is now generally exempt from local property taxation. The local taxing authorities, after all, are instruments of the state government. They are created to serve its purposes. The Legislature has given them power to tax state property only where the State owns an exceptionally large proportion of the lands in one municipality. R. S. 54:4-2.1. Various statutes make provision for payments in lieu of taxes, but these are rarely mandatory.

Consistent with this pattern, the State takes the position that taxes are not due from it on newly acquired land even though the land was taxable on the preceding assessment date, and even though the lien for taxes may have attached.

A bill such as this could be justified only if it were necessary to protect municipalities against reduction of revenues where there is a large scale, unanticipated acquisition of land within municipal boundaries by the State within a short period of time. I am not aware that this is a serious problem. Even if it were, however, that would not justify a bill as broad as this one. Under this bill, payment would be required in every instance whether the effect on local revenues was large or insignificant.

The budget problem which this bill would create is far larger than any it might solve. It would have the State pay taxes for a period from 3 to 15 months on each parcel acquired. On the average, then, it would pay 9 months taxes. If the effective tax rate were 3%, this would cost the State Highway Department more than $400,000.00 a year based on 1960 acquisitions. I am informed that federal highway aid would not be available to pay any part of local taxes, with the result that the entire amount would have to be raised by state taxes. Acquisitions by other departments, agencies and authorities in any year ordinarily do not compare with highway acquisitions, of course, but over the years, they would add significantly to the cost of state government. And consider the Green Acres program approved by the voters earlier this month. This calls for $40,000,000.00 in state acquisitions. If this bill were to become law it would add nearly a million dollars to the cost of that program.

The change proposed by this bill would be a costly, unnecessary and improper dislocation of relations of the State and its subdivisions. I do not find it in the public interest.

Respectfully submitted,

The Clerk read the following message from the Governor:

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,	}
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
November 20, 1961.

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 549

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 549, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill, together with Assembly Bill No. 550, would change the law governing county, municipal and school district borrowing power. It would change the county debt limit from 4% of assessed value to 1.5% of equalized value, the municipal limit from 7% of assessed value to 2% of equalized value and the limit for school districts from 6% or 8% of assessed value, as the case may be, to a percentage of equalized value ranging from 2½% to 4% depending upon the type and grade level of the schools in the district. The bill also provides for completely separate treatment of school and municipal debt.

It is generally agreed that we should change from assessed value to true value as the basis for determining borrowing power. Assessment levels vary from municipality to municipality. Even with the coming of the county level program they may vary from county to county. Equalized, or true, value is obviously a more equitable basis, and it would be well to change to it before the county assessment level law takes effect. L. 1960, c. 51. Otherwise that change would cause sharp, senseless shifts in the debt limit of most local units. If equalized value is the basis, of course, assessment levels will make no difference.

This bill is the product of the commendable efforts of the Division of Local Government and the Local Government Board to lay the foundation for this change to equalized value and, at the same time, to provide for separate treatment of school and municipal debt. The resulting bill, in nearly all its major features, is unobjectionable.

There have been vigorous objections, however, to some of the details of the proposed limitations. These have come particularly from among the larger cities in the State which fear that their capital programs might be jeopardized. The Director of the Division and the Local Government Board, after conferences with many municipal officials and other experts in the field, have recommended that these matters be given further study and that this particular bill and its companion not be approved. They believe it would be advisable to make a study of the debt position of each local unit as of December 31, 1961, on the assumption that the equalized valuation basis were then in use. This would give everyone a full picture of the impact to be anticipated when a bill such as this eventually is adopted. It would allay misapprehensions and enable us to know better where adjustments may be needed. I believe this is a wise course. With the postponement of the effect of the new assessment legislation until 1963 we can readily afford to take the few extra months to conduct the study.

I have asked the Director and the Board to have the material prepared and submit it to the Governor and the Legislature, together with their recommendations, as soon as it is completed.

Respectfully submitted, chase could be made at any time before the member leaves the system.

No substantial reason appears why a teacher should not be permitted to make the purchase after the first year. I do not object to this change. I return the bill, however, because I believe it would be a mistake to extend the time during which the privilege can be exercised until we have corrected a feature of the privilege which has been abused.

Some members, I am informed, have purchased prior service credit under this section even though, by reason of the same service, they have acquired retirement rights in the other state. I am sure the Legislature did not intend this result. This provision was designed to help assure that a teacher would not be left without a pension because of a transfer across state boundaries, not to permit a teacher to benefit from such a transfer by making prior service count twice for pension credits.

For this reason I return the bill and recommend the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 9, after the period, insert a new sentence as follows: "No application shall be accepted after the effective date of this act for the purchase of credit for such prior service, however, if, at the time of application, the member has a vested right to retirement benefits in another retirement system based in whole or in part upon that service."

A message was received from the Secretary of the Senate as follows—and was read by the Clerk:

	STATE OF NEW JERSEY,	}
	SENATE CHAMBER,
	November 20, 1961.

Mr. Speaker:

I am directed by the Senate to inform the General Assembly that the Senate has passed the following concurrent resolution:

The object of the proponents is to provide civil service protection for persons who came into offices after January 16, 1957, and to extend coverage to the Secretary of the Hudson Commission.

These steps are questionable. It is debatable whether the office of Secretary of the Commission should be under civil service. The change of dates creates an even more serious problem. "Blanketing in" personnel in permanent status in positions may be a necessary course when a unit of government first comes under civil service, but once this occurs the civil service system should be permitted to operate in the usual manner. It would work at cross purposes with the system to "blanket in" again. It could upset any type of personnel action which had occurred between the second date and the enactment of the bill. There is little to recommend it.

Beyond these considerations the bill would narrow the application of the 1957 act to Hudson County. Essex County would be excluded. It apparently was intended to except the Essex County Commission only from the provision concerning the Commission Secretary and the change of date. The effect, however, might well be to abolish the civil service system in the Essex Commission. In these circumstances, of course, the bill cannot be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 469

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 469, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill would amend "The Check Cashing Law" in several respects. First, it would double the fee to be charged by the Department of Banking and Insurance for investigating applicants and for issuing annual licenses. Second, the requirement that persons engaged in the check cashing business be fingerprinted would be limited to those persons who are directly connected with the licensee in the business. The law now provides that every person directly or indirectly connected with the licensee be fingerprinted. Third, the bill would eliminate the provision which prohibits the cashing of a check, draft or money order in excess of \$250.00. Finally, it would increase the fee which can be charged by a licensee from $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of the face amount of the instrument, to 1% of that amount.

The Department of Banking and Insurance feels it would not be wise to narrow the fingerprint requirement quite as sharply as the bill proposes. All agree the law is too broad, for instance, if it is read to require fingerprinting of all the owners of stock in a large licensee. On the other hand, there is some feeling that the requirement ought to be retained for owners of substantial interests in licensees of certain types. The Department also questions the desirability of a straight 1% charge if the limitation on check amount is to be removed. The present maximum charge is $1.25. If this bill were adopted, there would be no absolute maximum. I question the wisdom of this. I believe consideration should be given to a maximum dollar charge, or, at least, to a diminishing percentage charge.

I recommend that the persons who initiated this legislation confer with the representatives of the Department of Banking and Insurance and seek agreement on a new measure for the coming session. By this means I believe a bill can be developed which will take fair account of both the public and the private interests affected.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. MEYNER,
Governor.

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 502

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 502, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill would provide that a holder of a driver's license could not be required to submit to re-examination as a result of a motor vehicle accident unless a Court or the Division of Motor Vehicles determined, after a hearing, that the person "was responsible for, or contributed to, the accident."

The Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles is empowered by statute to re-examine drivers to test their ability to drive. He is authorized to call them for re-examination according to any reasonable standard of selection. Bechler vs. Parsekian, 36 N. J.—(1961) (Decided December 11, 1961). This bill would eliminate the use of accident involvement as a selection standard unless it was coupled with a finding, made as a result of a hearing, that the individual was at fault in the accident.

Since 1952, the Director of the Division has exercised his authority to re-examine drivers through the Accident Prevention Clinic program. When a driver comes within one of the classifications established by the Director he is requested to attend one of the five clinics spotted throughout the State. There, he is thoroughly tested for reaction time, glare recovery, vision and other attributes which measure a person's competence as a driver. It is not a punitive program. No one's license is revoked on the basis of his performance at the clinic. At most, one who shows up poorly at the clinic is required to take the standard road test given to new applicants, and even there, he is given at least two opportunities to pass the road test before revocation is recommended. The clinic program is an educational effort. It is designed primarily to enable a person to learn more about himself as a driver, to search out his limitations and receive helpful instruction on means to compensate for them. If reaction time is shown to be slow, for instance, a driver will be counseled to leave a greater than normal distance between his automobile and the one next ahead. If side vision is limited, he will be instructed to turn his head to the left and right in certain circumstances to make observations which might be made by a person with normal vision without such head movement.

The clinic program has been widely acclaimed. New Jersey has pioneered in this field as a part of our over-all traffic safety effort and the results have been good. There was opposition, however, to one of the standards used in the selection of drivers to attend the clinics. For some years persons were required to attend the clinic if they were involved in one accident when over 60 years of age. While reasonable in point of law, that standard was a source of understandable discontent. This bill is a product, although the ruling was modified before passage of the bill.

While the prior standards of selection needed modification, this bill goes much too far. Intended to improve the clinic program, it would severely hamstring it. The administrative burden would be immense. The program would be far too costly. Reliance upon court determinations of fault would not be feasible if only because of the delay involved. It is important to the program that the time between an accident and the clinic visit be kept to a minimum. Moreover, the requirement of a determination of fault would tend to stamp the clinic program as punitive in the minds of those called to attend, and it would tend more than ever to become something to be endured rather than to be benefitted from.

The answer to the problem which produced this bill has been provided. The standards for selection have been adjusted by the following regulation promulgated by the Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles:

“The Director may require persons who operate motor vehicles on the highways of this State to be re-examined in accordance with the program of the Accident Prevention Clinic to determine their ability to operate safely. Re-examination may be required in those instances covered by any of the following categories:

1. Persons involved in two or more traffic accidents within a period of 12 months.

2. Persons involved in a traffic accident resulting in a fatality where a violation of the traffic regulation provisions of Title 39 is established.
3. Persons involved in one traffic accident having a record of two or more convictions for moving traffic violations within a period of 12 months.
4. Persons eligible to the restoration of their driving privilege after a conviction of operating or permitting another person to operate a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any narcotic or habit-producing drug, as provided in L. 1952, c. 286 (R. S. 39:4-50).
5. Persons having either a mental or physical deficiency which may affect their safe operation of a motor vehicle.
6. Persons who have a driving record, involving two or more traffic accidents or moving violations, which indicates a need for re-examination to determine if they are capable of operating a motor vehicle with safety to themselves and to other users of the highways.

“The Director may require a vision examination, by a New Jersey licensed doctor of medicine or optometrist, of persons involved in one traffic accident who have not had a vision check by Division personnel within the 10 year period immediately preceding the date of the accident.

“For the purposes of this regulation, the definitions of the words and phrases found in R. S. 39:1-1 are herein adopted and made fully applicable to the language and context of this regulation in addition to the following:

‘Traffic Accident’ means an accident which is required to be reported under the provisions of R. S. 39:4-130.

‘Moving Traffic Violation’ means a violation of the provisions of Title 39 where actual operation and movement of a vehicle is an element of the statutory violation.

“This regulation shall take effect on October 13, 1961.”
Moreover, pursuant to the opinion of the Court in Bechler vs. Parsckian, above, each person called to attend a clinic is notified that he may have a hearing to determine whether his case is within one of the classifications established by the regulation and, if so, whether there are special circumstances which show that re-examination is not necessary.

I am satisfied that these standards of selection and the procedure are reasonable. If experience shows a means of further improvement, adjustments can be made without difficulty. By the same token, I am fully satisfied the inflexible, restrictive rule proposed by the present bill is both unwise and unnecessary. I therefore return the bill without approval.

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 605

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 605, without my approval, for the following reasons:

Under this bill it would be a disorderly persons offense for one to "groove" a used "passenger" motor vehicle tire "so that it appears to be unused or slightly worn," or to "sell, offer for sale or have in his possession" such a regrooved passenger tire. The bill would not apply to tires on motor buses the operation of which is subject to regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission or the Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

The object of the bill is worthy. We now have a law prohibiting the use of a tire "in such condition as to endanger or be likely to endanger any person or property," R. S. 39:3-72, but more specific provisions on dangerous practices could prove helpful.

It is possible, of course, that regrooving will improve the safety capability of a tire in a particular case. It depends, essentially, on the thickness of the rubber remaining before regrooving, and the depth and nature of the grooves. On the other hand, a regrooved tire can be very unsafe and, what's more, it may not look it to the unpracticed eye. In these circumstances I have no doubt it is within the legislative power to enact a proper prohibition of regrooved tires. I do not believe, however, that this bill is an acceptable exercise of that power.

The prohibition of "possession" of a regrooved tire goes too far. If I signed the bill each person who possesses a regrooved tire would immediately be subject to prosecution as a disorderly person. A requirement of knowledge would be read into the bill, I presume, but even that would not save it. The bill certainly should exempt mere possession unassociated with use. Even where actual use is involved, it would be harsh to treat this equally with grooving and sale. The former might better be treated equally with other motor vehicle equipment violations.

Likewise, the prohibition of sale goes too far. One correspondent notes that his business involves buying up old tires traded in to service outlets, grading them and selling the useless ones for scrap. He points out that, if this bill were law, purchase of a load of old tires and sale of some for scrap would, if there were a regrooved tire among them, render him twice a disorderly person. We could hope that a court would avoid this interpretation, but it would be preferable for us to correct the matter at the legislative level. In the criminal law it is particularly important that we express the legislative intention with great precision to avoid even the threat of unintended criminal liability.

In the circumstances I need not reach the questions of excluding motor buses and non-passenger vehicles from the operation of the bill as proposed. The first may be reasonable, because the equipment of these buses is already under careful public regulation. It is not clear, however, what justification there is for exclusion of all types of trucks. I recommend that this question be given further attention in the preparation of subsequent legislation on this subject.

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 611

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 611, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill would amend R. S. 48:12-49 to make a number of changes in the obligation of railroad companies relating to railroad crossings. I cannot approve the bill for several reasons.

The principal change intended would have the State pay from 70 to 85 per cent of the cost of building a bridge to permit passage under or over railroad tracks where a new county or municipal road is laid out so as to intersect the tracks. This would be pertinent, of course, only where permission for a crossing at grade is denied under R. S. 48:2-28.

This change would be consistent with the pattern of the general law in the area. In cases such as this involving a State highway, the State Highway Department bears the entire cost of the bridge. R. S. 48:12-72. Where a bridge is ordered to eliminate an existing grade crossing, the railroad company is required to pay only 15 per cent. The other 85 per cent is paid by the State Highway Department where a State highway is involved, R. S. 48:12-70, and by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners where the grade crossing involved a county or municipal road. R. S. 48:12-62 Under legislation approved last year, the same 85-15 formula applies to the cost of altering an existing bridge on order of the Board. L. 1960, c. 152 This has been true of changes in bridges affecting State highways since 1947. R. S. 48:12-70.

In these circumstances, I cannot object to application of a similar sharing formula to the cost of bridges occasioned by new municipal and county roads. The particular formula proposed here, which in some circumstances limits the State's share to 70 per cent and imposes 15 per cent on the municipality or county, does not appear to be unreasonable.

The bill goes beyond the cost of construction, however, and applies the same sharing formula to the maintenance of the grade separations structure. I am informed that this was not intended by the proponents, and State officials concerned have expressed serious objection. In addition, as my office has pointed out in discussions of the bill with the proponents, the text must be reworded in several respects to achieve the intended object and to avoid unintended applications of the 15-70-15 formula.

The other major change proposed by the bill concerns private crossings. A railroad company is now obliged to provide a suitable private crossing where its tracks separate parcels held in common ownership. This bill would narrow the obligation to the provision of private crossings for farm purposes. The effect of this would be to isolate tracts of land not used for farm purposes in cases where access now requires passage over railroad tracks. This would work a very serious hardship. It could render many tracts of land useless.

I cannot approve this provision. If the maintenance of private crossings imposes an undue burden on railroad companies, relief will have to come in another form.

Respectfully submitted,

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 612

To the General Assembly:

I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 612, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This is a companion measure to Assembly Bill No. 611, which I am also returning today without approval. That bill would have made the State responsible for a portion of the cost of bridges separating the grades of railroads and public roads in certain cases. This bill would amend the law which now authorizes a $2,000,000.00 payment each year from motor fuel tax proceeds to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners for the public share of various types of railroad-highway intersection work, to authorize use of the money for the purposes specified in Assembly Bill No. 611. With the disapproval of Assembly Bill No. 611, there is no occasion for enactment of this bill.
