Trenton, NJ – Today, Governor Chris Christie announced his intention to nominate Gurbir Grewal to replace John Molinelli as Bergen County Prosecutor.

Since 2010, Grewal has worked at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Newark as the Deputy Chief of the Economic Crimes Unit and Computer Hacking and IP Crimes Unit. Previously, he worked at the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of New York as an Assistant U.S. Attorney at the Business and Securities Fraud Unit.

"With his experience as a federal prosecutor in New Jersey and New York, Mr. Grewal has the right credentials and background to be the chief law enforcement officer for Bergen County," said Governor Christie. "He also brings diversity to a highly diverse county, which will serve him and the community well. I want to thank John Molinelli for his many years of service to the people of Bergen County, and we look forward to a swift confirmation for his successor."

Grewal earned his undergraduate degree Georgetown University, and holds a Juris Doctorate from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law from the College of William & Mary. He is a past president of the South Asian Bar Association of New York, and a member of the New Jersey Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association. Grewal is proficient in Punjabi and conversational in Hindi.
