SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $1,401,203 made by governing bodies following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $454,063; however, this amount was ordered to be appropriated from surplus.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by the filing of a Petition of Appeal on June 14, 1994, by the Board of Education of the Morris School District (Board) appealing the reductions in the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy imposed by the Town Council of the Town of Morristown and the Township Committee of the Township of Morris (Communities) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, after defeat of the 1994-95 budget by the voters of the two communities. The reduction in the General Fund tax levy imposed by the Communities was in the amount of $2,128,469, the above amount consisting of $727,266 in reductions in appropriations accepted by the Board in discussions with the Communities, $901,203 of additional reductions in line item appropriations in contention by the Board and a $500,000 reduction in the district's free balance to be added as revenue which is likewise opposed by the Board.

As a result of these reductions, the amounts in dispute before the Commissioner are summarized below:

Proposed Tax Levy

On July 5 and July 7, 1994, respectively, the Town of Morristown and the Township of Morris, respectively, filed Answers to the Petition of Appeal. Position Statements were filed by the Town of Morristown and the Board on July 25, 1994, and July 27, 1994, respectively. Responses to each other's Position Statements were filed on August 8, 1994, with the Board filing a final Summary on August 17, 1994, whereupon the record was closed.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the determinations made under Account 013 above, particularly the determination rejecting the Board's $2.8 million allocation of surplus for unused sick leave payments, the Commissioner finds that the $454,063 restoration ordered by the within decision may appropriately be made by allocating additional amounts from surplus. In instances such as this where there is money available to be reallocated in order to fund a restoration, it would be a manifest injustice to the taxpayers not to so order. Consequently, the Commissioner directs the Board to appropriate from surplus amounts necessary to fund this restoration. The tax levy for General Fund purposes set by the Township of Morris and the Town of Morristown for the 1994-95 school year shall stand as certified.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, former Assistant Supervisor of Education, alleged improper demotion and violation of his seniority rights regarding his reassignment as a teaching staff member for Department of Corrections. Petitioner contested his status on the seniority list and raised the issue of his military service credit.

ALJ held that the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, dealing with the tenure of teaching staff members who are transferred or promoted, do not apply to those categories of teachers who are given tenure by the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1. Thus, petitioner did not obtain tenure in his former Teacher I position. ALJ determined that military service credit can be applied to any and all teaching staff members covered by any tenure provisions within Title 18A and, because petitioner first acquired tenure in his Assistant Supervisor of Education position, his military service credit gives petitioner a date of hire of October 13, 1986 in this position for purposes of computing his seniority. ALJ, therefore, found that the demotion of petitioner violated his seniority rights and was erroneous since respondent retained Assistant Supervisors with less seniority than petitioner. ALJ ordered petitioner restored to the position of Assistant Supervisor of Education together with back pay and benefits from the date of his demotion and that the calculation of seniority be corrected.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own and ordered petitioner restored and his seniority calculation adjusted in conformance with decision.

Decided: November 28, 1994

BEFORE JOSEPH F. MARTONE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner appeals from his demotion and reassignment as a teaching staff member for the Department of Corrections, alleging that this action is in violation of his seniority rights. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 18, 1993, for hearing as a contested case. It was assigned to the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) on June 15, 1993, and was scheduled for hearing on November 30, 1993.

On July 16, 1993, attorney for petitioner filed a motion to amend the pleadings, and attorney for respondent responded to this motion on September 29, 1993. An Order was entered on October 5, 1993, permitting petitioner to amend his pleadings and providing respondent with the opportunity to respond. An Amended Verified Petition was filed on October 5, 1993, and an Answer to the Amended Petition was filed on October 28, 1993.

On November 30, 1993, the scheduled hearing date, the parties entered into negotiations which resulted in a tentative settlement, and they indicated that a written agreement embodying the terms of the settlement would be submitted within two weeks. On December 15, 1993, attorney for petitioner advised the ALJ that the settlement agreement could not be effectuated because petitioner had been transferred from the Department of Corrections to the Department of Human Services, which is not a party to these proceedings, and the settlement of petitioner's seniority rights claims required the Department of Human Services to take certain actions in order to comply with the terms of the settlement, which it has refused to do. By letter dated January 24, 1994, attorney for respondent indicated that he disagreed with the characterization of the settlement terms by attorney for petitioner.

By motion filed January 3, 1994, petitioner requested an order to add the Department of Human Services as a party-respondent. No opposition was submitted to this motion and by Order entered on January 20, 1994, petitioner was permitted to amend his pleadings to add the Department of Human Services as a party.

Through additional telephone conferences it was determined that this matter had not been and could not be settled, and that the sole issue to be resolved was petitioner's seniority based upon military service, which could be resolved on motion. Thereafter the parties filed a motion (Exhibits P-1, P-2, P-3 and P-4) and cross-motion (Exhibits R-1 and R-2) for summary decision regarding this particular issue and the record closed.

After reviewing the motion papers submitted by the parties, the ALJ decided to reopen the record and requested that counsel address the issue of whether the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 and -11.1 apply to teachers employed by the Department of Corrections or the Department of Human Services, or whether these provisions only apply to teaching staff members employed by a school district or a board of education. Following the submission of these additional legal arguments (Exhibits P-5, P-6, R-3 and R-4), the ALJ closed the record on October 11, 1994.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

As is indicated by the similarity of the factual assertions set forth in counsels' letter briefs (Exhibit P-3 at 3-5; Exhibit R-2 at 1-3), and by the fact that the certification of petitioner (Exhibit P-2) was not disputed by respondent, the essential facts in this matter are not disputed.

Petitioner's certification (Exhibit P-2) indicates that he is a tenured teacher with the New Jersey Department of Human Services and he possesses teaching certificates from the New Jersey Department of Education with endorsements for Principal, Teacher of the Handicapped, School Administrator and Student Personnel Services. He was hired by the New Jersey Department of Corrections on July 4, 1987, as a Teacher I for Bayside State Prison. He served in the Teacher I position until September 24, 1988, when he was promoted to the position of Assistant Supervisor of Education at Bayside State Prison.

Prior to petitioner's promotion, he had served in the Teacher I position for approximately fourteen months and had not yet obtained tenure. On September 25, 1990, after two years of service in the position of Assistant Supervisor of Education, the Department of Corrections granted petitioner tenure as an Assistant Supervisor. On September 11, 1992, the petitioner was verbally notified that as a result of a department-wide layoff, he was to be demoted back to a Teacher I position at an undisclosed location. He was provided with a list of Department of Corrections Assistant Supervisors which was used to determine layoff rights (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 1). The first thirteen employees on the list were not demoted as a result of the reduction in force (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 2). Petitioner was ranked number 15 in order of seniority on the original list (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 1).

By letter dated September 13, 1992, petitioner was advised that effective October 5, 1992, he was being reassigned to the Bureau of Community and Residential Services for Camden/Atlantic Counties (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 3).

From September 14 to September 28, 1992, petitioner protested his status on the seniority list both verbally and in writing and raised the issue of his military service credit. Petitioner had served in the United States Army prior to joining the Department of Corrections.

On November 6, 1992, petitioner was provided with a revised seniority list which credited him with one year, eleven months, and eleven days of seniority for military service (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 4). His rank on the revised list was number 17 (Exhibit P-2, Attachments 4 and 5). Petitioner asserts in his certification (Exhibit P-2, paragraph 11) that according to the Department of Corrections he was given military service credit in his former Teacher I position, not in his Assistant Supervisor of Education position. Military service credit was not taken into account for purposes of determining layoff rights from his position as Assistant Supervisor of Education.

On December 15, 1992, a revised seniority list was promulgated by the Department of Corrections (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 6). Petitioner was still ranked number 17.

Petitioner's demotion to the Teacher I position did not initially affect his salary, but he will not get the collectively bargained salary upgrade given to Assistant Supervisors in the first pay period of the 1994 fiscal year.

In July 1993, as a result of the transfer of Juvenile Services from the Department of Corrections to the Department of Human Services, petitioner became an employee of the Department of Human Services.

It should be noted that petitioner does not challenge the military service credited to him in the amount of one year, eleven months, and eleven days. The sole issue in this matter is whether this military service should be credited to him as a Teacher I or as an Assistant Supervisor of Education.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Summary decision may be granted if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with any affidavits, clearly show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b); Templeton v. Glen Rock, 11 N.J. Super. 1, 4 (App. Div. 1950). As was indicated above, there is no dispute as to the essential facts in this matter, and the sole issue to be decided is whether petitioner's period of military service was properly credited. Therefore, this case is able to be decided as a matter of law.

The position of petitioner is that because N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 provides for an abbreviated period for tenure upon promotion as well as retroactive tenure and seniority rights in the employee's former position, petitioner obtained tenure in the Teacher I position and in the Assistant Supervisor of Education position simultaneously. Attorney for petitioner points out that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 provides that "the period of employment in such new position shall be included in determining the tenure and seniority rights in the former position held by such teaching staff member." Thus, petitioner argues that the two consecutive years petitioner served in the new Assistant Supervisor position, when aggregated with the one year he served in the former Teacher I position, entitled him to tenure in both the Teacher I position and the Assistant Supervisor position.

Petitioner then argues that N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11.1 provides that in computing the length of service for seniority purposes, full recognition of military service shall be given, except that the period of that service shall not be credited toward more than four years of employment or seniority credit. Attorney for petitioner contends that respondent's action in giving petitioner military service credit in his Teacher I position and not in his Assistant Supervisor position was erroneous. It is argued that unlike the factual scenario in Howley v. Ewing Bd. of Educ., 6 N.J.A.R. 509 (1982), petitioner did not first attain tenure in his Teacher I position. Since petitioner's tenure was acquired in both positions simultaneously, it should be credited to the position petitioner held at the time. Petitioner argues that upholding respondent's construction of the statute by crediting the military service to petitioner's former position would contravene the basic purpose of the military service credit and would not effectuate its legislative intent. Finally, petitioner asserts that if he had been granted military credit in the Assistant Supervisor category, he would not have been laid off.

In response, respondent argues that under the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 petitioner did not obtain tenure in both positions simultaneously, but first obtained tenure in his former Teacher I position. Respondent argues that petitioner obtained tenure in the Teacher I position after his employment for a total of two years, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, and that the attachment of military service credit comes into being when a teacher first acquires tenure, citing Lang v. Princeton Regional Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ., 1979 S.L.D. 245. Further, respondent indicates in a footnote to its letter brief that even if the usual three-year period for obtaining tenure is applied, petitioner would still have become tenured in his former Teacher I position on July 5, 1990, prior to the date he acquired tenure as an Assistant Supervisor, September 25, 1990.

In addressing the additional issue raised by the ALJ of whether the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, -11.1 and -12 are even applicable to tenured teachers employed by the Department of Human Services or Department of Corrections, respondent argues that the tenure and seniority rights that apply to the petitioner are set forth in Title 18A, chapter 60, and that the provisions found at chapter 28 do not apply. Respondent points out that the Legislature provided separately for the rights attendant to a reduction in force for educators employed by school districts and for educators employed by the State. Respondent argues that it would be improper to interpret N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10 to apply to persons covered by N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1 because doing so would render N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1, superfluous and meaningless. Respondent also points out that the Legislature, in 1985, enacted legislation providing that teaching staff members should receive credit towards their seniority rankings for time served in the active military or naval service. L. 1985, c. 217, codified at N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11.1. This legislation specifically provided that it supplements chapter 28 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes and amends N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12. Respondent points out that the Legislature did not include in that legislation separate statutory provisions providing that educators covered by N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1 would similarly be credited with time toward seniority for military service. By legislation adopted in 1986, L. 1986, c. 158, codified at N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1, the Legislature specifically provided for tenure rights to persons employed in teaching capacities by the Department of Corrections and Department of Human Services. In response, petitioner points out that N.J.S.A. 18A:60-3 only permits a reduction in force when the reduction is due to the natural diminution of the number of students or pupils in the institution. Nevertheless, the statute and regulation have also been applied in circumstances where financial exigency leads to a layoff of teaching staff members who otherwise have tenure. Sheffield v. Department of Human Services, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d. (Vol. 4A) 26, 27 (Education); O'Toole v. Forestal, 211 N.J. Super. 394 (App. Div. 1986). Therefore, petitioner argues that chapter 28 of Title 18A has been extended to cover Department of Human Services or Department of Corrections tenured staff.

Into this rather confusing fray, I now add my own interpretation with the almost certain knowledge that my determinations will not be the last word in this matter.

I HOLD that the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, dealing with the tenure of teaching staff members who are transferred or promoted, do not apply to those categories of teachers who are given tenure by the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 contains references to "any such teaching staff member" and to "the employing board." Thus, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, when construed in light of the surrounding statutory provisions which are in pari materia, clearly refers to teaching staff members serving in any school district or under any board of education as specified by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. There is no way that this provision providing for tenure upon transfer or promotion can be properly interpreted to apply to transfers or promotions to those positions specified by N.J.S.A. 18A:60-1, including those in the departments of Corrections and Human Services.

This holding results in petitioner not having obtained tenure in his former Teacher I position.

I next turn to the issue of whether N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11.1, providing for military service credit for teaching staff members, applies to any position held by petitioner. Attorney for respondent supplied a copy of the original Assembly Bill number 3683 which was approved on June 29, 1985, as L. 1985, c. 217 (Exhibit R-3 at Ra-1). It is significant that section 1, which is designated as a "new section," was not assigned a section number by the Legislature at the time of adoption, while section 2 was indicated by the Legislature to be amending N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12.

It is also significant to note that sections 1 and 2 of chapter 217 both contain the wording, "... except that the period of that service shall not be credited toward more than four years of employment or seniority credit." The duplication of this language in both sections of this legislation makes it clear that these two sections were not intended by the Legislature to follow each other, but were intended as separate provisions. Section 2 of chapter 217 was clearly and explicitly intended to add to and amend the provisions of section 12 of chapter 28, Title 18A. On the other hand, section 1 was not declared by the Legislature to be an addition or amendment to chapter 28, but was a general grant of military service credit to all teaching staff members. Section 1, by its terms, clearly applies to "every teaching staff member" who has served or shall hereafter serve in the active military or naval service. The fact that section 1 has been included in Chapter 28 of Title 18A as N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11.1 should not be construed as expressing any intention on the part of the Legislature that its operation and effect is limited to teaching staff members in any school district or under any board of education. See N.J.S.A. 1:1-5, which specifically provides that no implication or presumption of a legislative construction is to be drawn from the classification and arrangement of the Revised Statutes. Therefore, I HOLD that section 1 of L. 1985, c. 217 (N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11.1) is not intended to apply solely to teaching staff members serving in any school district or under any board of education, as limited by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, but applies generally to any and all teaching staff members covered by any tenure provisions within Title 18A.

I now turn to the specific facts of this case for the purpose of applying the above-enunciated principles to this matter. It is clear that petitioner first acquired tenure in the position of Assistant Supervisor of Education at Bayside State Prison at the expiration of a period of employment of three consecutive calendar years. Since petitioner was promoted to that position on September 24, 1988, he acquired tenure three years later on September 24, 1991. Since it was in this position that petitioner first acquired tenure, the military service credit of one year, eleven months, eleven days authorized by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11.1 gives to petitioner a date of hire of October 13, 1986, for purposes of computing his seniority. This would rank him as number 12 in seniority on the list of Assistant Supervisors ranked in order of seniority (Exhibit P-2, Attachment 6). Since the thirteen most senior Assistant Supervisors were not laid off, demoted or otherwise reduced in rank, I FIND that the demotion of petitioner violated his seniority rights and was erroneous since respondent retained Assistant Supervisors of Education with less seniority than petitioner. As a result, I FIND that petitioner is entitled to an Order granting summary decision in his favor restoring him to his former position as an Assistant Supervisor of Education together with back pay and benefits, and that petitioner is further entitled to have the calculation of his seniority corrected so as to comply with the foregoing.

DECISION AND ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that summary decision is GRANTED in favor of petitioner and that he shall be restored to the position of Assistant Supervisor of Education together with back pay and benefits from the date of his demotion, and that the calculation of seniority to which petitioner is entitled shall be corrected so as to be consistent with this decision.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner agrees with the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge for the reasons clearly articulated in his initial decision.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the Office of Administrative Law is adopted as the final decision in this matter. It is hereby ordered that petitioner be restored to the position of Assistant Supervisor of Education along with back pay and benefits from the date of his demotion. It is further ordered that the calculation of his seniority be adjusted to conform with this decision.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $610,071 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $610,071 in cap waiver monies, offset by a $150,000 appropriation from surplus, for a total General Fund tax levy of $41,964,220 for 1994-95 school year.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF THE TOWNSHIP OF TEANECK, : DECISION
BERGEN COUNTY. :
_____ :

For Petitioner, Sidney A. Sayovitz, Esq. (Young, Dimiero & Sayovitz)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 16, 1994, by way of the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Township of Teaneck (Board) seeking inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund Tax Levy a cap waiver amount of $610,071 defeated by the voters of the district at the annual school election held on April 19, 1994.¹ In addition to the defeat of the cap waiver, the voters also defeated the base budget.

The aforesaid cap waiver amount was submitted pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) which provides as follows:

Any school district may submit a proposal to raise the amount of tax levy necessary to exceed the maximum permissible net budget permitted by this section to the legal voters of the district for type II school districts without a Board of School Estimate and to the Board of School Estimate for those school districts with a Board of School Estimate as required during the school budget approval process pursuant to chapters 22 and 54 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes and section 13 of P.L. 1971, c.271 (C.18A:46-41). The proposal to raise additional tax levy to exceed the maximum permissible net budget shall be in addition to the amounts required to be approved for each school district in accordance with chapters 22 and 54 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes and section 13 of P.L. 1971 (C.18A:46-41). In the event that a school district's proposal to raise the tax levy to exceed the maximum permissible net budget is not approved in accordance with the budget approval process set forth in chapter 22 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes for type II districts and for type I districts, chapter 54 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes for county vocational school districts and section 13 of P.L. 1971, c.271 (C.18A:46-41) for county special services school districts, that disapproval shall be deemed final and shall not be subject to further review or appeal.

The Commissioner notes that the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools approved the above-cited cap waiver request on March 31, 1994, as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education after reviewing the entire budget in concert with the district and a Department of Education panel. The purpose of this review was to ascertain whether the amounts requested within the cap waiver request were necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education and whether they could be funded through reallocation within the base budget. Having determined that such amounts were necessary and that reallocations were not possible, the budget submitted to the voters was conditionally approved with the provision that should the cap waiver be rejected the district must file an appeal with the Commissioner. See, Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, the Board and the Township Committee of the Township of Teaneck (Township) met to review the budget for purposes of arriving at a tax levy amount which would assume a level of funding sufficient for providing the constitutionally required thorough and efficient system of education. As a result of such meeting the Board and the Township agreed to a reduction of $520,000 in the tax levy contained within the base budget, setting the levy at $41,504,149. (See, Resolution of the Township of Teaneck 146-94 attached as an exhibit to the Board's Petition of Appeal.) Notwithstanding the reduction effectuated by the aforesaid resolution the Township acknowledged its support for the cap waiver of $610,071 and by subsequent letter to the Director of Controversies and Disputes reiterated its support both for the cap waiver programs as well as its support for all the expenditures contained within the base budget. It is noted at this point that the $520,000 reduction in the General Fund Tax Levy was accomplished by an additional free balance appropriation by the Board without reductions of any account within the base budget. The Board contends that such free balance appropriation was made possible by a contract settlement with its teachers at an amount less than that which was appropriated for the 1993-94 school year. (See Board's Position Statement)

Upon defeat of the budget and cap waiver and the subsequent reduction in the General Fund Tax Levy agreed upon between the Township and the Board, the Bergen County Superintendent reviewed the reduction in the tax levy and determined that it could be sustained in light of the appropriation from free balance which was accomplished as set forth above.

Additionally, on December 16, 1994, the Commissioner notified the parties that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.2, he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end district audit as it related to the amount of undesignated surplus available to the district.

Board's Position

The Board argues that the specific programs which are to be funded are all directed toward providing contract services and support to a diverse community such as Teaneck. To reduce or eliminate these programs, the Board contends will have an adverse effect upon the schools of the district.

The Board points out that the Board and the Township are united in their support of the program contained within the cap waiver. This, contends the Board, is further substantiated by the Township's agreement that no programs in the base budget could be eliminated that would be funded through an additional appropriation from free balance.

The Board points out by way of an affidavit from Dr. Vincent Doyle that it carefully reexamine its base budget to determine whether reallocations could be effectuated. Dr. Doyle points out that every line item, wherein increases were made in excess of the district's permissible cap percent increase (4.88%), was scrutinized and determination made relative to whether further reductions could be made. (See, Dr. Doyle's affidavit as part of its Board's Position Statement for the rationale for the percent increase in these line items.)

Dr. Harold Morris, Teaneck Superintendent, by way of further affidavit attached to the Board's Position Statement elaborates upon the programs to be funded by the cap waiver amount. These programs include:

- a. A prekindergarten basic skills remediation program.
- b. Funds to maintain the district's current practice of emphasizing writing skills through maintaining a four period instructional day for English teachers which permits those teachers to cope with the additional burden produced through extensive writing experiences for students.
- c. A variety of science and math programs such as attendance at the Bergen County Academy of Math and Science, a High Tech Exploration Program, A Program for the Enrichment and Career Exploration in Math and Science and a Minority Access Program to encourage minority students to develop their potential in math and science.
- d. Transportation for fifth grade pupils, particularly minority students, who would be forced to walk through major thoroughfares.

- e. Continuance of an instrumental music position in order to maintain instrumental instruction for fourth graders.
- f. A youth services program for high school age students which stresses prevention, intervention, mediation and support for students in resolving conflicts amicably in a high school which is diverse in its population. (See affidavit of Dr. Harold Morris)

Finally, it should be noted that the Board raises a legal issue as to the applicability of the State Board of Education's decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board of Education on July 6, 1994, to the matter considered by the Commissioner herein. The Board argues that the State Board in Edgewater directed the Commissioner to propose a new system for reviewing cap waivers so as to provide boards with notice as to what is expected of them. Since the Commissioner was directed to prepare said process by February 1995 and since he has not yet done so, it would be unfair to judge boards by the application of a new standard before regulations and instructions are in place. The Board concludes by pointing out that it in all respects followed the procedure in place by the Department of Education at the time of its application for a cap waiver and should not be denied on the basis of a new standard not yet formally established.

The Commissioner disagrees. The State Board of Education is the agency head and chief policy maker of the Department of Education. As such, any decision of that body becomes the final agency decision which the Commissioner is obligated to apply regardless of when that decision is rendered. Therefore, even though no specific regulations have been promulgated, the standard of review is that established in Edgewater. Further, all boards and county superintendents, in submitting documentation, were advised by letter from the Acting Director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes to review their submissions in light of that decision; and the State Board's decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, decided by the State Board July 6, 1993, which is cited by the Board in this matter, calls for the same type of review relative to possible reallocation within the base budget before determining that the amounts deemed necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education within the cap waiver are approved:

The power to direct such increase may properly be exercised only where an increase is necessary to enable the district to provide a thorough and efficient education. Upper Freehold, supra. Further, any increase must be limited to those amounts the district needs in order to provide a thorough and efficient education. Id. Consequently, it is necessary to assess the adequacy of the budget as advertised and to determine whether it is possible to reallocate amounts within that budget before directing any increase. (See AAA 91-0036, at 6, cited in Rutherford, supra)

Accordingly, after reviewing the within appeal based upon the record and circumstances known to or considered by the parties and county superintendent the time of their actions and filings on appeal, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit. The Commissioner reviewed the audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus, in the belief that it would be an injustice to the taxpayers not to order appropriation from surplus where possible.

Upon such review, the Commissioner finds and determines that $150,000 of the district's undesignated surplus of $1,628,914 can be used to partially fund the cap waiver amounts approved herein as necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education in the district. The Commissioner so holds notwithstanding the Board's arguments, in reply to notice of use of the audit, that all but $534,640 of this money has already been expended or allocated for various purposes. In particular, the Commissioner notes that, in a year where the district is seeking monies through appeal of a defeated voter cap waiver, it is neither necessary nor appropriate to expend fully $1,734,000 of the district's fund balance on the Board's comprehensive facility plan. The Commissioner further notes that the Board had, in its 1994-95 Budget Statement, budgeted $1,415,935 for expenditures of the type noted in its reply submission, and that more than this amount remains after the $150,000 appropriation directed by the Commissioner herein.

In other respects, notwithstanding the Board's objections to the application of the standard set forth in Edgewater, supra, the Commissioner finds that the Board's documentation contains demonstrated evidence of having examined its base budget for possible reallocation. Moreover, his independent review and the record provided with the Affidavit of the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools offers sufficient evidence for the Commissioner to conclude that the base budget and the amounts within the cap waiver provide, except as noted above, the minimum amount necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education. East Brunswick Township Board of Education v. East Brunswick Township Council, 48 N.J. 94 (1966); Board of Education of the Township of

Accordingly, the Bergen County Board of Taxation is directed to adjust the General Fund Tax Levy of the Teaneck Board of Education for the 1994-95 school year to reflect an increase of $460,071 ($610,071 in restorations less $150,000 appropriation from surplus) consistent with the Commissioner's findings above for a total General Fund tax levy of $41,964,220.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
 APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
 OF THE BOROUGH OF LODI, BERGEN : DECISION COUNTY. :

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $480,089 rejected by voters. Prior to appeal the Board accepted a reduction by the municipality of $400,000 in the current expense tax levy.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $278,243 in cap waiver monies, offset by a $150,000 appropriation from surplus, for a total General Fund tax levy of $16,974,824 for 1994-95 school year which represents an amount within the maximum permissible General Fund budget.

JANUARY 9, 1995

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF THE BOROUGH OF LODI, BERGEN : DECISION COUNTY. :
_____ :

William R. Nunno, Esq., for Petitioner.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 7, 1994, through the filing of a Verified Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Borough of Lodi (Board), wherein the Board sought to have included in the General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year a cap waiver amount defeated by the voters at the annual school election based upon the following facts, which are uncontested:

1. In accordance with the conditions in N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28 submitted its budget to the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools with a request for a cap waiver of $664,992 which the Board of Education believed was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient education.

2. On April 4, 1994, the Bergen County Superintendent conditionally approved the 1994-95 school budget by reducing the thorough and efficient cap waiver proposal from $664,992 to $480,089. A provision was added indicating that the board seek a voter cap waiver in this amount.

3. The Board did not appeal the County Superintendent's determination of the amount requested for the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

4. On April 19, 1994, the Board held an election, in accordance with law, for the adoption of the proposed current expense tax levy in the amount of $17,246,581 and cap waiver approval in the amount of $664,992 for the 1994-95 school year.

5. The voters of the Borough rejected the current expense tax levy and cap waiver question proposed by the Board of Education at the annual school election.

6. On or about April 21, 1994, the Board provided the Borough a copy of the proposed school budget for the 1994-95 school year, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:13-19 and N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37.

7. On May 12, 1994, a consultation was held between members of the Board, the Board Secretary, the Superintendent and the Mayor and Council of the Borough pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2).

8. After the consultation, the Borough adopted a resolution reducing the 1994-95 current expense tax levy by $400,000, certifying $16,846,581 to the Bergen County Board of Taxation as the amount necessary to be raised for current expenses.

9. At a meeting on May 18, 1994, the Board, adopted a resolution accepting the reduction of $400,000 in the 1994-95 current expense tax levy. The resolution also accepted the line items as directed by the Borough, subject to the approval of the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools and the State Department of Education. This approval was obtained based upon a determination of changed circumstances.

10. At a meeting on May 18, 1994, the Board adopted a resolution to appeal the rejected cap waiver question.

11. The Board, therefore requests cap waiver approval in the amount of of $480,089 in that the budget of the district, at cap level, is insufficient to provide the resources necessary for a thorough and efficient education. The Borough does not contest the need for the cap waiver as evidenced by letter dated July 14, 1994, from Paul S. Barbire, Esq., Attorney for the Mayor and Council.

The cap waiver requested by the Board includes the following line items, all of which were determined by the County Superintendent to be essential for provision of a thorough and efficient education and unable to be funded by reallocation within the maximum permissible budget.

Standard of Review

Moreover, the Commissioner has the constitutional obligation to ensure that a school district budget is sufficient for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Robinson v. Cahill, 69 N.J. 449 (1976) (Robinson V); Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287 (1990). In order to meet this duty, the Commissioner is charged with the responsibility to review defeated budgets which had been "conditionally certified" by the county superintendent subject to voter approval to exceed the statutory budget limitation (cap waiver). See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991). Upon review the Commissioner may order an increase in those limited instances where it is necessary to meet the constitutional mandate. Districts must demonstrate both that particular amounts above the cap are necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education and that reallocation within the permissible budget amount cannot be accomplished. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, decided by the State Board of Education July 6, 1994; see AAA 91-0036, supra.

In this matter the Commissioner is concerned about the budgeting process of the Board. The original Board request for a cap waiver was conditionally approved by the County Superintendent predicated on the Board's representation that the original budget and the cap waiver request for $664,992 was an absolute need to achieve a thorough and efficient system of education. The Commissioner has reviewed the rationale for accepting the budget reductions set forth by the Borough. With the exceptions of the settlement of the teachers' contract and possibly the Blue Cross notification, it would appear that at least $120,000 in costs could have been anticipated prior to submitting the budget tax levy to referendum. The Board should have also checked to assure that the original Blue Cross notification was not subject to change.

Mindful, then, of the balance to be applied in this standard of review with respect to the various line items contained in the cap waiver request, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the cap waiver appeal before him.

Salary - Teachers

Grades 1-5	11-120-100-101	$78,726
-------------------	----------------	----------

The Board has requested $78,726 in line account 11-120-100-101 to hire additional teachers. One art teacher would be used to relieve classroom teachers of the task of identifying capable students in K-3 and developing specific learning experiences for them. Documentation was not provided describing the impact on students if such teacher were not hired.

A secondary task to be assigned to the new art teacher is the development of performance assessments and minimum levels of proficiency in art. The Board also indicates that the development of such an assessment is mandated in the monitoring of school districts. While this may be so, the development of assessment and proficiency levels would appear to be a "one time" task in any single school year and the Board has not presented documentation to justify the hiring of additional staff.

The Board also indicated that "Presently the classroom teacher identifies pupils in K-3 as particularly capable in the primary grades and develops specific learning experiences for them." (Emphasis added) Documentation did not include information as to why the current method would not satisfy the requirement to provide a thorough and efficient education. Absent such information the Commissioner must conclude the current practice is sufficient to satisfy constitutional requirements.

The Board, further, asserts that a Gifted/Talented teacher would be used to develop an enrichment component in the regular classrooms. A supporting reason given for the hiring of the additional teacher was the State requirement that gifted and talented students be identified and educational services and programs provided for any identified students. Documentation was not provided describing how the program would be integrated into the regular classroom or the estimated number of students that the district might be able to identify. It was also not clear whether students have already been identified or whether the district was in process of identifying them. Documentation implies that, at present, the district does not have a program to identify and serve gifted and talented students, which would be inconsistent with State mandates.

The Board has not provided specific information concerning the number of students anticipated, the impact on the identification and servicing of such students and the nature of the program to be instituted if additional funds were available. Consequently, the Commissioner cannot conclude that these funds are essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient education or that the amounts sought were the minimal amounts necessary for the stated purposes.

The Board requests a cap waiver approval of $39,254 in line account number 11-130-100-101. The reason for this request is due to an enrollment increase of 31 students. Documentation was not provided indicating the grade or grades over which the number of increased students would fall or reasons why existing staff could not serve additional students.

In the absence of such documentation the Commissioner must deny the request for funding due to increased enrollment.

--------------------	----------------	----------

The Board also requested $77,001 to hire a full-time additional science teacher and to increase to full-time the part-time business education teacher in grades 9-12. The business education teacher is to allow the board to add a Marketing Education course, reinstate Accounting 2, Steno 2, and add additional Data Processing sections. No documentation was provided supporting the assertion that increasing this position to full-time is essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

The additional full-time teacher would be used to add additional science sections as required. Again no documentation was offered indicating the expected number of additional science sections required or the number of students expected in Advanced Physics. Absent such documentation, the Commissioner is unable to conclude that the Board has demonstrated the necessity for the additional full time position.

	11-402-100-930	$ 560

The Board request for $4,714 in account 11-402-100-100; $2,226 in account 11-402-100-600 and $560 in account 11-402-100-930 in order to comply with the requirements of Title 9 by implementing a Girls Soccer Team in addition to the present Boys Soccer Team is approved. The Commissioner adopts, as his own, those reasons advanced by the Board and restores the requested amounts.

Student Support Services	11-000-219-106	$52,491
---------------------------------	----------------	----------

The board requests $52,491 in account 11-000-219-106 for an additional school psychologist to counsel 315 classified students. The Board asserts that the additional psychologist will assist in counseling disaffected students at the middle and high school level, provide for more manageable case loads and assure the presence of a bilingual child study team member to meet the needs of the bilingual special education population. The Commissioner adopts, as his own, those reasons advanced by the Board and restores the funds requested.

Student Transportation Services

The Board's request for $2,295 in account number 11-000-270-512 for additional transportation services is approved. The Board asserts that the additional services will be provided to the Girls Soccer Team. The Commissioner adopts, as his own, those reasons advanced by the Board.

Employee Benefits

11-000-299-250

Petitioner's request for approval for line account numbers 11-000-290-220, 11-000-270-250, 11-000-290-290 in the amounts of $23,057, $967 and $63,798, respectively, are reduced by $1,802, $75 and $4,988. The percentages for the approval are at the same rate as calculated by the Board. The amounts approved by the Commissioner are $21,255 for Social Security Contribution - 11-000-290-220, $892 for Unemployment Compensation - 11-000-290-250, and $58,810 for Other Employee Benefits - 11-000-290-290.

Facilities Acquisition

Petitioner's request for an increase in account number 12-000-400-450 in the amount of $135,000 is approved. The funds are to replace the 21-year-old school boilers as part of the district's five-year maintenance plan. The Commissioner adopts, as his own, those reasons advanced by the Board.

The account and amounts under appeal, and as determined by the Commissioner in this matter, are as follows:

After reviewing the within appeal based upon the record and circumstances known to or considered by the parties and county superintendent at the time of their actions and filings on appeal, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit. The Commissioner reviewed the audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus, in the belief that it would be an injustice to the taxpayers not to order appropriation from surplus where possible.

Upon such review, the Commissioner finds and determines that $150,000 of the district's undesignated surplus of $889,346 can be used to partially fund the cap waiver amounts approved as necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education in the district. The Commissioner specifically rejects the Board's contention, in response to notification regarding use of the audit, that transfers of $41,600 for textbook purchase, $64,534 for school nurses and $313,109 for payment to retirees for accumulated unused sick leave have reduced the audited surplus so as to preclude reallocation, as these items can be, and should have been, planned for in budgeting without resort to surplus; the Commissioner accepts, however, the expenditure of $122,400 for emergency roof repairs as a factor to be considered in determining the amount of surplus available for reallocation. Notwithstanding such consideration, the Commissioner notes that, even accepting in full the Board's arguments regarding subsequent expenditures, the amount of surplus remaining after such expenditures ($347,703) is nearly twice the amount ($180,486) projected by the Board in its 1994-95 Budget Statement.

In summary, upon review of the documentation submitted on this matter, the Commissioner finds and determines that of the $480,089 in cap waiver monies sought by petitioner, $278,243 are essential to provide a thorough and efficient educational system and that, after designation of $150,000 in surplus to partially fund this amount, a further reallocation of funds within the district's maximum permissible budget is not possible (Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, Bergen County, decided by the State Board of Education, July 7, 1993.)

Accordingly, the Bergen County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $16,974,824 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes by the Borough of Lodi for the 1994-95 school year, representing an amount which falls within the maximum permissible General Fund budget.

Board appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $127,527 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $127,527 in cap waiver monies, offset by a $50,000 appropriation from surplus for a total General Fund tax levy of $2,775,772 for 1994-95 school year.

JANUARY 9, 1995

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF THE BOROUGH OF BERLIN, CAMDEN : DECISION COUNTY. :
_____ :

For Petitioner, Michele Gibson, Esq. (Harvey C. Johnson, P.C.)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 13, 1994, by way of the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Borough of Berlin (Board) seeking inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund Tax Levy of a cap waiver in the amount of $127,527, a request for which was submitted to the voters of the district at the annual school election held on April 19, 1994. In addition to defeating the cap waiver, the voters also defeated the base budget. The cap waiver question presented to the voters for their approval was for a total amount of $177,527, $50,000 of which was deemed by the county superintendent not to be essential for a thorough and efficient system of education. The aforesaid cap waiver amount was submitted to the voters pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) which provide as follows:

Any school district may submit a proposal to raise the amount of tax levy necessary to exceed the maximum permissible net budget permitted by this section to the legal voters of the district for type II school districts without a Board of School Estimate and to the Board of School Estimate for those school districts with a Board of School Estimate as required during the school budget approval process pursuant to chapters 22 and 54 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes and section 13 of P.L. 1971, c.271 (C.18A:46-41). The proposal to raise additional tax levy to exceed the maximum permissible net budget shall be in addition to the amounts required to be approved for each school district in accordance with chapters 22 and 54 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes and section 13 of P.L. 1971 (C.18A:46-41). In the event that a school district's proposal to raise the tax levy to exceed the maximum permissible net budget is not approved in accordance with the budget approval process set forth in chapter 22 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes for type II districts and for type I districts, chapter 54 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes for county vocational school districts and section 13 of P.L. 1971, c.271 (C.18A:46-41) for county special services school districts, that disapproval shall be deemed final and shall not be subject to further review or appeal.

In addition to the aforesaid defeated cap waiver submitted under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), the Commissioner approved a cap waiver in the amount of $109,275 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) which was included within the base budget as prescribed by the above-cited statute.¹ The amounts so approved by the ¹ e. A board of education of a school district which: (1) for the two years prior to the prebudget year, has had an annual average increase in the district's resident enrollment which is greater than two percent; or (2) between the prebudget year and the year prior to the prebudget year, has had an increase in the district's local cost for special education pupils which is greater than five percent; or (3) during the 1990-91 school year but prior to April 1, 1991, has entered into a lease purchase agreement, may apply to the Commissioner of Education for a waiver of the expenditure limitation established pursuant to this section. A board of education of a school district that sends pupils and pays tuition to a special needs district may apply to the Commissioner of Education for a waiver of the expenditure limitation established pursuant to this section. Any waiver granted by the Commissioner pursuant to this subsection shall not be included in the question on excess expenditures which is to be submitted to the voters of the district pursuant to subsection f. of this section.

Commissioner were based upon increases in general enrollment and special education enrollment as prescribed by statute.

The Commissioner notes that the Camden County Superintendent of Schools approved the N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) cap waiver request of $177,257 to be submitted to the voters on March 30, 1994, $127,527 of which was deemed as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient (T&E) system of education, after reviewing the entire school budget to determine whether reallocations within the base budget could be accomplished. Having determined that such reallocations were not possible, and after further review by a panel consisting of three coordinating county superintendents and representatives of the Division of Finance within the Department of Education, the Camden County Superintendent of Schools conditionally approved the budget for submission to the voters with provision that should the cap waiver request be rejected the district must file an appeal with Commissioner of Education. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) - 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

The accounts and the amounts which were approved for T&E submission to the voters and are the basis of this appeal are set forth below:

Account		Amount
11-120-100-101	Basic Skills Teacher	$ 27,782
11-190-100-106	Instructional Assistant	8,640
11-130-100-101	Instructional Music Teacher	29,039
11-402-100-100	Athletic Coaches Salaries	16,700
11-402-100-600	Transportation (Athletics)	4,500
11-402-100-600	Athletic Equipment	2,000
11-402-100-800	League & Officials Fees	5,500
11-000-222-100	Library Assistant	25,000
11-000-290-290	Employee Benefits	8,366
	Total	$127,527

Upon defeat of the base budget and the cap waiver request, the Board and the Borough Council of the Borough of Berlin (Borough) met April 27, 1994, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 for purposes of consultation and to arrive at a tax levy sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. As a result of said consultation, the Borough adopted a resolution reducing the original tax levy of $2,747,267 by some $49,222 and fixing the 1994-95 school tax levy at $2,698,045. The Board agreed to the aforesaid reduction based upon changed circumstances which it alleges permitted it to acquiesce without harm to its ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. The changed circumstances permitting the aforesaid reduction are as follows:

Account		Amount
11-000-260-100	Retirement and Non-replacement of a custodian	$11,903
11-000-290-100	Retirement of Business Admin. & hiring at a lower salary	9,780
11-000-290-290	Custodians benefits	8,137
11-000-290-290	Lesser Cost of Benefits	19,402
	Total	$49,222

Upon defeat of the budget and the cap waiver and the subsequent reduction of the General Fund Tax Levy agreed upon between the Board and the Borough, the Camden County Superintendent of Schools reviewed the reductions and the changed circumstances set forth above and determined that they could be sustained without impacting the ability of the district to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

Board's Position

Initially, the Board argues that its budget and cap waiver represent the minimum amount necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. It points out that it has already eliminated an administrative position, reduced health benefits, eliminated support positions and a summer school program, and reduced special education costs by 10%.

As the result of the foregoing actions on its part, the Board contends it cannot further reallocate in order to provide for the items within the cap waiver which are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Moreover, the Board has specifically related each item to a specific T&E outcome process or Berlin 2000 goal as established by the community.

The amounts contained within the waiver request are for the following:

1. Retention of an existing position which provides assistance to students experiencing academic difficulties as well as providing instruction for the academically talented.
2. Retention of an existing position in the area of instrumental music which, if eliminated, would end the entire program.
3. The provision of three part-time instructional assistants to replace one full-time assistant to meet the demands of increased enrollment and provide assistance in classes exceeding the district's maximum class size.
4. Provision of stipends for athletic coaches whose positions are provided for by negotiated agreement.
5. For provisions of transportation, athletic equipment and fees for officials.
6. To retain an existing position of library assistant and expand it to include computer support services.

Commissioner's Decision

The Commissioner initially notes the cap waiver appeal is unopposed by the Borough of Berlin. The Commissioner has reviewed the papers and exhibits submitted by the Board, as well as the affidavit of the Camden County Superintendent of Schools, submitted as part of the record in this matter. Further, the Commissioner has reviewed the budget beyond the reduction made by the Borough. Additionally, on December 16, 1994, the Commissioner notified the parties that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.2, he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end district audit as it related to the amount of undesignated surplus available to the district.

Upon such review, the Commissioner finds that $50,000 of the district's undesignated surplus of $200,106 can be appropriated to offset the restorations ordered herein, as notwithstanding the additional expenditures noted in the Board's submission in reply to notification regarding use of the audit, the amount remaining after the $50,000 appropriation is still more than the amount budgeted by the district ($134,210) to accommodate expenses of the type noted in the Board's submission. The Commissioner does, however, conclude that further reallocation is not possible and that the items contained within the cap waiver are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. (See Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, decided by the State Board of Education July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board of Education June 6, 1994.

Accordingly, the Camden County Board of Taxation is directed to adjust the General Fund Tax Levy of the Berlin Board of Education for the 1994-95 school year to reflect an increase of $77,527 ($127,527 restoration less $50,000 appropriation from surplus), which results in a total General Fund tax levy of $2,775,772, consistent with the Commissioner's findings above.

Petitioner : SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
v. :
KAREN SWEET, : DECISION
Respondent : COMPLAINT NO.: C04-94

PROCEDURAL HISTORY:

This complaint was filed by the president of the Readington Education Association, Ronald Dilzer, against Karen Sweet and Karen McCullough, two Readington school board members. At its June 23, 1994 meeting, the Commission dismissed the complaint against respondent Karen McCullough for lack of probable cause and made a probable cause determination against Karen Sweet on N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and (e). After determining that there were no material facts in dispute, the Commission issued a letter dated June 27, 1994 directing each party to submit briefs, and reply briefs to the Commission for a final decision. The parties were then notified that the matter would be considered at the Commission's September 22, 1994 meeting. A final decision on this matter was rendered on that date, finding that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The Commission recommends to the Commissioner of Education that a censure be imposed as the appropriate penalty.

BACKGROUND

School board member, Karen Sweet admittedly solicited signatures for a board of education candidate's petition, from teachers and other registered voters employed in a school within their district. Several staff members reportedly questioned the appropriateness of this solicitation by notifying the vice president of the Readington Education Association. In her brief and reply brief, Mrs. Sweet disagrees that the Commission found no factual disputes since it is not clear whether she directed the "all call" over the school intercom system. She also argues that she was among friends in the school and therefore, did not use her official position to gain unwarranted privileges.

Mrs. Sweet further argues that while the complainants say that her action created the potential for a violation, it was not a violation. The complainant argues that the School Ethics Law is based upon that objective standard as to how the public might reasonably perceive an action and that in and of itself means that the law considers the potential of a school official's actions.

Mrs. Sweet further argues that there is no law that prohibits her actions but that the First Amendment and New Jersey Constitution protect them. The complainant argues that the School Ethics Law prohibits these actions and that the Constitution does not protect an individual who is trying to exert undue influence on those who work for her. In her answer, Karen Sweet denies the accuracy of the complaint and states that the complainant is unaware of the accuracy because he was not in the school at the time of the alleged incident. She then admits that she did assist an interested candidate in obtaining signatures because that candidate was too busy to carry out these responsibilities herself. She admits that she asked several teachers, and secretaries employed in the district to sign this petition.

APPLICABLE LAW:

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) states:

No school official shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages, or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others;

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e):

No school official or member of his immediate family...shall solicit or accept any gift, favor, loan, political contribution, service, promise of future employment, or other thing of value, based upon an understanding that the gift, favor, loan, political contribution, ...or other thing of value was given or offered for the purpose of influencing him, directly or indirectly, in the discharge of his official duties. This provision shall not apply to the solicitation or acceptance of contributions to the campaign of an announced candidate for elective public office, if the school official has no knowledge or reason to believe that the campaign contribution, if accepted, was given with the intent to influence the school official in the discharge of his official duties.

DECISION:

The School Ethics Act prohibits school officials from using their official positions to gain unwarranted privileges for themselves and others. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). In the instant case, board member Karen Sweet admittedly solicited signatures for the petition of a school board candidate. This is a fact not disputed and the substance of Mrs. Sweet's violation. This Commission did not believe that there were factual disputes as Mrs. Sweet contends because issues as to who directed the "all call" are not significant to this determination. Mrs. Sweet admits she solicited the signatures in the school from school employees. The issue for the Commission was whether Mrs. Sweet used her official position to obtain signatures for Mrs. Illes, in the school in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The Commission believed that this did occur whether or not Mrs. Sweet intended to convey that perception. Employees in the school could reasonably feel intimidated, coerced, and threatened by the mere fact that a board member had made this request. Additionally, Mrs. Sweet's request created a perception that she was using her official position to gain signatures, thereby using her official position to achieve an unwarranted privilege for another candidate for school board.

In the Scannella v. Scudillo case, C14-93, the School Ethics Commission found that a school board member violated the School Ethics Act by selling goods to school district employees since those employees were under her supervision as a school board member. The Commission found that the public could reasonably perceive that Mrs. Scudillo was using her supervisory position to achieve an unwarranted advantage by having district employees purchase products manufactured by her employer, and that the public could perceive that the board member would view district employees who purchased her product more favorably than those who had not.

A similar analysis was applied in this case. The mere asking for signatures of district employees on school property could be construed by some district employees to be a threat to their jobs if they failed to cooperate. The Commission finds that the benefit to the board member or another was implied by virtue of the solicitation.

The law also says that a board member may not solicit any favor based upon an understanding that the favor was given or offered for the purpose of influencing him directly or indirectly in the discharge of his official duties. The Commission has construed section 24(e) strictly, stating that a board member may not accept any hospitality items from vendors or potential vendors of a school board. The reason for this strict interpretation is also grounded in perception. See, Policy Guideline #1.

The Commission did not find that Mrs. Sweet acted in violation under section 24(e). In her briefs, Mrs. Sweet argues that she did not violate this section by soliciting signatures. The Commission agrees. The Commission did not find that her actions were violative of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e) by soliciting signatures for a school board candidate. The violation occurred because Mrs. Sweet, a board member, used her official position to gain access to the school and to school district employees for another's benefit. This is a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), however, her actions do not prove a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e).

SANCTION:

THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION RECOMMENDS TO THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION THE CENSURE OF READINGTON BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBER, KAREN SWEET.

For the above-stated reasons, the School Ethics Commission finds that board member Karen Sweet violated the School Ethics Act under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and recommends that the Commissioner impose the penalty of censure for this violation. The Commission reasoned that this penalty is appropriate since the board member did not act in order to achieve a personal or financial gain by her actions. Nonetheless, her actions created a perception that she violated the public trust. Intentionally or not, her actions had the effect of imposing undue influence on district employees. The Commission wants it known that such actions violate the School Ethics Act. Therefore, the Commission finds that censure is the appropriate penalty.

The initial decision of the School Ethics Commission, together with recommended sanction adopted by the Commission, have been reviewed. This matter comes before the Commissioner of Education to impose a sanction, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), upon Respondent Karen Sweet (Sweet), member of the Board of Education of the Township of Readington (Board), based upon a finding by the School Ethics Commission that respondent violated the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.

BACKGROUND

After finding probable cause of a violation of the School Ethics Act by Karen Sweet, the School Ethics Commission determined not to transmit this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, inasmuch as the Commission found that no material facts were in dispute, and an evidentiary hearing was, therefore, not warranted. At its meeting on September 22, 1994, the Commission determined that Sweet violated the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), by virtue of her solicitation of signatures for a board candidate's nominating petition from teachers and other registered voters employed in a school within the district. The Commission recommends censure as the appropriate penalty for the violation. After the issuance of the Commission's decision, the parties were provided an opportunity to submit comments to the record regarding the decision and the proposed sanction for the Commissioner's consideration in his determination of an appropriate penalty herein. Comments on behalf of Respondent Sweet were filed on October 13, 1994 and a reply comment on behalf of the petitioner was filed on November 14, 1994.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The School Ethics Commission found that Sweet's admission that she solicited signatures for the nominating petition of a school board candidate was determinative. The Commission found such solicitation to be an undisputed fact.¹ On the basis of this finding, the Commission concluded that Sweet violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), which prohibits school officials from using their official positions to gain unwarranted privileges for themselves and others.² The Commission further determined that Sweet was not, however, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e). The Commission noted,

The issue was whether Mrs. Sweet used her official position to obtain signatures for Mrs. Illes, in the school in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The Commission believed that this did occur whether or not Mrs. Sweet intended to convey that perception. Employees in the school could reasonably feel intimidated, coerced, and threatened by the mere fact that a board member had made this request. Additionally, Mrs. Sweet's request created a perception that she was using her official position to gain signatures, thereby using her official position to achieve an unwarranted privilege for another candidate for school board.

² N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) states: "No school official shall use of attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others."

(School Ethics Commission Decision at p. 2)

The Commission argued that the benefit attributed to Sweet “was implied by virtue of the solicitation.” (Id. at p. 3) Accordingly, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner impose the penalty of censure for the violation, reasoning “that this penalty is appropriate since the board member did not act in order to achieve a personal or financial gain by her actions. Nonetheless, her actions created a perception that she violated the public trust.” (Id.)

COMMENTS TO THE COMMISSION’S DECISION

Comments submitted by Respondent Sweet urge that the conclusions of the School Ethics Commission are unsupported in the record. Specifically, respondent contends that the record is “barren” with respect to evidence that she “advertised or used her school board position in connection with requesting signatures on the petition,” as well as evidence that the teachers she approached “felt threatened, intimidated or coerced in any way.” (Respondent’s Comments at p. 2) Respondent argues that

The Commission misread the statute and instead of reviewing the record to evaluate the subjective reasons surrounding the actions of the school board member, it reached outside the record to speculate about the possible reactions of the teachers and the “perception” that might have been created by [her] conduct. (Id.)

The factual determinations rendered by the Commission, respondent asserts, do not evidence that she actually used or attempted to use her position to gain unwarranted privilege. Instead, respondent warrants, the record was “bare” as to any facts which established such a violation.

Respondent further argues that, since her actions did not constitute a violation of law or regulation, to hold her accountable would violate traditional notions of due process and fair play. (Id. at p. 4) In this regard, respondent contends that, while knowledgeable about

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) violations, she did not know that her actions constituted such a violation. Therefore, respondent continues, that to publicly censure her for something she had no opportunity to know was wrongful “is equal to the police issuing someone a parking ticket when there was never any indication that parking in the area was prohibited.” (Id.)

Respondent next argues that the Commission should not have permitted itself to be used as a means of retribution in a labor dispute between a board and a union. (Respondent’s Comments at p. 5) Here, respondent asserts that the record demonstrates that, at the time petitioner filed his complaint with the School Ethics Commission, he was president of the local teacher’s association, said association being “engaged in a bitter contract dispute with the Board over salary and other issues.” (Id.) Thus, respondent concludes, petitioner used the School Ethics Commission as a weapon in this battle.

Finally, respondent argues that the Commission’s decision to censure her, as compared to issuing a reprimand, is harsh and inappropriate. (Id.) Such a sanction, respondent contends, is unfair and without basis. Respondent concludes,

If [she] did violate the School Ethics Act, her violation was minimal at best. [She] did not intend to threaten, coerce or intimidate any school staff. No one was actually threatened, coerced or intimidated, and [she] gained no personal advance through her actions. Her dedication as a responsible member of the school board, interested in seeing a more competitive school board election, certainly should deserve something much less than a public censure.” (Id. at p. 6)

In his reply comments, petitioner argues that the decision of the School Ethics Commission clearly sets forth findings of fact and the basis for its decision. As to the Commission’s observation that respondent’s actions ‘created a perception that she violated the public trust,’ petitioner asserts that, “[i]ntentionally or not, her actions had the effect of imposing undue influence on district employees.” (Petitioner’s Comments at pp. 1-2)

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Upon a thorough review of the record in this matter, including the Commission's decision and arguments advanced by the parties, the Commissioner determines that respondent's repeated and uncontested assertions as to her lack of intent, and as to lack of evidence of coercion, are relevant to his obligation to fairly render a determination of the appropriate sanction in this matter, notwithstanding the Commission's finding that respondent's mere request for the signatures would necessarily create the perception that she was using her official position to achieve an unwarranted privilege. (School Ethics Commission Decision at p. 2)

Accordingly, the Commissioner declines to accept the Commission's recommendation that censure is the appropriate penalty in this matter since censure calls for formal public action read into the record of the School Ethics Commission rebuking the school official who was determined to have violated the School Ethics Act. (N.J.A.C. 6:3-9.2) Rather, the Commissioner finds that, in light of respondent's consistent claims that she did not intend to threaten, coerce or intimidate school staff, and the lack of evidence on record to counter such claims, or to indicate that her actions had this effect, reprimand is the appropriate penalty to be imposed in this matter, said penalty to consist of a letter from the Commission rebuking respondent for having breached the standards of conduct prescribed by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. (N.J.A.C. 6:3-9.2)

IT IS hereby ORDERED that Karen Sweet be reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board appealed special election budget referendum defeat. Board had sought additional monies to eliminate a recently discovered deficit stemming from 1992-93 and 1993-94 budget years.

ALJ concluded that the Board established its need for the restoration of $427,000 in order to eliminate deficit without compromising current provision of a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E). Request for $43,000 for interest and legal fees, however, was denied as no testimony or documentation was adduced at hearing to support this need. ALJ ordered Board of Taxation to certify amount of $427,000 in the 1994-95 current expense tax levy for purposes of eliminating the 1993-94 deficit.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the amount of the Board's pending deficit must be restored to its current expense budget in order to ensure T & E. Commissioner corrected amount of actual deficit to be $385,409, rather than $427,000, based on district's 1993-94 audit report. Commissioner also concurred that no evidence was presented to warrant restoration of $43,000 for interest and legal fees. Commissioner directed Board of Taxation to make necessary adjustment to certify for deficit elimination purposes an additional amount of $385,409 in the 1994-95 tax levy.

BEFORE LILLARD E. LAW, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, the Board of Education of Stafford Township (Board), seeks an order from the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) that a supplemental tax of $470,000 be certified to the Ocean County Board of Taxation for the 1994-95 current expense tax levy for the purpose of eliminating current expense deficits incurred during the 1992-93 and 1993-94 budget years.

On June 28, 1994, the Board scheduled a special election, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-3, to raise additional monies for its current expenses which had been in deficit. The proposition was defeated at the polls. On July 6, 1994, the Board, through its attorney, filed a Petition of Appeal before the Commissioner. The Township of Stafford filed its Answer to the Petition on September 2, 1994, and issue was joined. On September 15, 1994, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for determination as a contested case, on an expedited basis, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The hearing was held on October 12, 1994, at the Stafford Township Municipal Court, Manahawkin, New Jersey. The record remained open until October 21, 1994, for the receipt of additional documents from the Board and to provide counsel for the Township the opportunity for review.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the testimony and other evidence adduced at the hearing, and having given fair weight thereto; I FIND the following FACTS in this matter:

Stafford Township Board of Education operates an elementary school district with grades kindergarten through six (K-6) in three school buildings. Its Intermediate School, housing grades four through six, commenced operation in September 1990. The school district pupil enrollment has increased by approximately 200 between September 1990 and September 1994. In September 1990, there were 1,206 pupils enrolled as compared with 1,400 in September 1994.

In developing its annual school budgets since the 1989-90 budget year, the Board has applied its unexpended appropriations (surplus) to its budgets to provide tax relief to its taxpayers. For the 1989-90 budget, it applied $420,000; for the 1990-91 budget, $993,000; and, for the 1991-92 budget, $670,000.

The school district is organized under unit control; i.e., The Superintendent of Schools functions as the Board's chief administrative officer with all subordinates reporting to the Superintendent. The Board Secretary reports directly to the Board. However, the School Business Administrator reports to the Superintendent.

In or about October 1993, the Board's School Auditor, David Pawlishak, advised the Board that its 1992-93 current expense budget was over expended in the amount of $162,555.96. As a consequence of its application of surplus to its budget for the past three years, there were no unexpended appropriations to apply to the deficit.

The deficit occurred as a result of the Board's Secretary/School Business Administrator's failure to reconcile the board's revenues with its expenditures. In addition to the identified deficit for fiscal year (FY) 1992-93 in the amount of $162,555.96, the Secretary/School Business Administrator failed to account for a shortfall in Tuition Receivable from FY 1992-93, along with a Food Service program budget shortfall totaling $15,000, which made a total of $197,555.96 unavailable for FY 1993-94.

The Board Secretary/School Business Administrator, who was required to use the New Jersey Department of Education's (NJDOE) GAAP Technical Systems Manual, should have detected the deficit in or about April 1993. He did not. Rather, he reported to the Board each month that the school district was financially healthy.

Following the Board's annual audit by David Pawlishak in October 1993, Mr. Pawlishak reported the deficit of $162,555.96 to the Board. The Board's Superintendent of School immediately advised the Ocean County (Acting) Superintendent of Schools of the deficit, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.10. The Board immediately formulated and implemented a corrective action plan.

On November 18, 1993, the Board accepted the resignation of Board Secretary/School Business Administrator, Vincent Mento. On January 13, 1994, the Board employed Enrico Siano as its Board Secretary/School Business Administrator.

In preparing the 1994-95 school budget, Mr. Siano advised the Board in February 1994 that the deficit cumulated to an amount of $500,000 for its 1993-94 current expense budget.

Also, the Board's preliminary 1994-95 budget CAP was in excess of $1,000,000. As a consequence, the Board enacted the following cost cutting measures; the elimination of one administrative position through attrition (a principal who retired was not replaced), eliminated one fourth grade teacher, one sixth grade teacher, one computer laboratory teacher, one speech therapist, one teacher of gifted and talented, one art teacher and one music teacher. Nine full-time non-professional positions were eliminated which included; one receiving clerk, three custodians, two secretaries, one building mechanic, one nurse assistant and one teacher assistant. In addition, 12 part-time positions were eliminated including: eight cafeteria-playground aides, two school bus drivers, one transportation assistant and one library aide.

The Board projects its deficit to be $427,000 for its 1994-95 budget as follows:

$210,000 from its 1992-93 budget year.

$46,000 shortfall in special education payments from other school districts for the 1993-94 budget year.

$171,000 shortfall in salary accounts for 1993-94 budget year.

$43,000 interest on promissory notes to be issued in anticipation of taxes and legal fees.

It, therefore, requests that $470,000 for its 1994-95 current expenses be restored.

In the event the requested supplemental tax is not granted, the Board has proposed certain budget reductions to meet the $427,000 deficits as follows:

A reduction of $202,750 in the Instruction appropriation account which would eliminate four teacher positions; i.e., one each in Grades 1, 2, 3, and 5. This would cause class size to increase upwards of 30 to 33 pupils per class, violating the Board's policies concerning class size. This reduction would affect supplies for gifted and talented pupils, field trips for all pupils, workshops for teachers, a guidance counselor and two school secretaries.

A proposed reduction of $121,600 in Administration would eliminate attendance at administrative workshops by Board members and school administrators. This proposal would also delay the Board's attempt to upgrade all of its computer software to meet the GAAP requirements. In the event all of the 13 personnel reductions were to take effect, the Board's health benefits program would reflect a reduction of $107,150 of the total reduction of $121,650 under Administration.

With regard to Special Services, the Board's proposal would reduce these accounts by $72,600 with the elimination of one preschool handicapped teacher and two teacher assistants. In addition, one teacher assistant for the emotionally disturbed pupils would be eliminated together with the elimination of one teacher assistant for perceptually impaired pupils.

Under Plant Operations, the Board proposes the elimination of two custodian positions which would result in a $30,000 reduction. This, however, would jeopardize the Board's ability to provide proper safety for all of its pupils and, further, jeopardize its efforts to maintain the appropriate cleanliness of all its school buildings and grounds.

The results of the special election held by the Board on June 28, 1994, to raise the additional sum of $470,000 through a supplemental tax for current expenses was 327 voting in favor of the question and 909 voting against the question.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The Township of Stafford offered no witnesses at the hearing. Notwithstanding, the Township argues that the Board's finances were grossly mismanaged with no internal controls or checks and balances to monitor Business Administrator Mento's conduct. The Township contends that even when the deficit was discovered, nothing was done to correct the situation. Rather, the Board continued to expend monies beyond its revenues.

The Township argues that it would be unfair for the Commissioner to now impose a supplemental tax upon the taxpayers after the board's proposal has been defeated at the polls.

The Township asserts that the Board is responsible for its own actions and misconduct and, therefore, should live with the consequences.

The Board concedes that its herein appeal is out of the ordinary. However, it cites the New Jersey constitutional mandate to provide a thorough and efficient program of free public education to all of its pupils (N.J. Const., Art VIII, Sec. IV.1.). The requested restoration of monies to its current expense budget is just to provide for a minimum level of education.

The Board contends that it now has procedures in place which will prevent a similar occurrence of a deficit in the future. It has established internal and external controls in compliance with NJDOE and its auditor's recommendations to account for its revenues and control the appropriations and expenditures.

The Board also argues that the Commissioner has acted affirmatively under similar circumstances where a local board of education has experienced a deficit and an additional tax levy was rejected by the electorate at a special election. Board of Education of the City of Union City v. Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Union City, Hudson County, 1989 S.L.D. ____ (Acting Commissioner's Decision, May 18, 1989). In Union City, the Board had a revenue shortfall of $460,717, projected to grow to $641,780 for the 1988-89 budget. The Union City Board adopted a resolution to place a special question on the ballot, requesting an additional tax levy of $460,717 to offset the projected deficit as authorized by N.J.S.A. 18A:22-40. The measure was defeated at the polls and the board, thereafter, appealed to the Commissioner for the restoration of the funds. The Commissioner found and determined that it was necessary for the Union City Board to have sufficient funds to meet its constitutional mandate to provide a thorough and efficient system of education for the 1988-89 school year and granted the board's request. The Commissioner grounded his determination in Union City on his prior ruling in In the Matter of the Annual School Election Held in the Red Bank Regional High School District, Monmouth County, 1981 S.L.D. ____ (decided May 7, 1981). The Commissioner also cites his decision in In the Matter of the Special Public Question submitted at the Annual School Election held in the Township of Maple Shade, Burlington County, 1986 S.L.D. _____, (decided May 30, 1986) where he authorized a supplemental tax certification in the amount of $234,251, due to a shortfall in the Maple Shade Board's 1985-86 current expenses and which was defeated at the polls.

Having carefully considered the entire record in this matter, I CONCLUDE, based upon the Commissioner's prior decisions, that the board herein has established its need for the restoration of $427,000 due to a shortfall in anticipated revenues.

The Board has failed to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, the need for the requested $43,000, for interest on promissory notes and legal fees. No testimony nor documentation was adduced at the hearing to support this proposition. I CONCLUDE, therefore, that the requested $43,000 be eliminated from the amount requested to be restored.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the Ocean County Board of Taxation certify the amount of $427,000 forthwith in the 1994-95 current expense tax levy of the Board of Education of the Township of Stafford for purposes of eliminating the 1993-94 deficit.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8883-94

IN THE MATTER OF THE SPECIAL :
SCHOOL ELECTION OF THE BOARD : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP : DECISION OF STAFFORD, OCEAN COUNTY. :

In its exceptions, the Township urges affirmance of the ALJ's finding that no evidence was proffered to support the Board's contention that it required $43,000 over and above the amount of the actual deficit to cover the costs of related interest and legal fees. The Township also urges the Commissioner to take notice of the Board's letter of November 21, 1994 to the ALJ advising that the Board's 1993-94 audit, accepted by the Board on November 17, 1994, reveals the actual deficit (as opposed to the projected deficit, upon which the original petition was based) to be in the amount of $385,409 rather than $427,000. (This letter was filed with the Office of Administrative Law on November 23, 1994, subsequent to the closing of the record upon which the ALJ based his decision.)

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the amount of the Board's pending deficit must be restored to its current expense budget in order to ensure the district's continuing ability to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E). In so doing, the Commissioner is guided by the constitutional mandate for T & E and prior Commissioner decisions rendered as a result of similar circumstances as set forth by the ALJ at pages 6-7 above. The Commissioner further notes the Board's compliance with Department of Education and auditor recommendations regarding internal and external controls developed to ensure that there will be no recurrence of the present situation. The Commissioner also concurs, however, that no evidence was presented that would warrant restoration of any amount over and above that of the actual deficit.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law, ordering The Ocean County Board of Taxation to forthwith make the necessary adjustment in the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy, is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein, with the modification that the additional amount to be certified for deficit elimination purposes shall be reduced to $385,409 consistent with the district's 1993-94 audit report.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Note: The instant matter was inadvertently docketed twice for hearing at the Office of Administrative Law; consequently, the identical dispute under OAL Dkt. No. EDU 9254-94 has been withdrawn by concurrent Commissioner decision.

AGENCY DKT. NOS. 25-2/94

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING OF DR. JOHN HOLCROFT, SCHOOL DISTRICT
OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EASTAMPTON,
BURLINGTON COUNTY.

Stephen J. Mushinski,¹ Esq., attorney for the Board of Education of the School District of Eastampton Township

Margaret C. Murphy, Esq., attorney for respondent Dr. John Holcroft

Robert M. Schwartz, Esq., attorney for respondent Peter Granaldi

Decided: December 1, 1994

BEFORE DANIEL B. MCKEOWN, ALJ, t/a:

John Holcroft (respondent) is the superintendent of schools, with tenure, and a middle school principal in the Eastampton Township School district operated by the seven member Board of Education of Eastampton Township (Board). On February 8, 1994, the then sitting Board determined to certify charges of unbecoming conduct, other just cause and insubordination against respondent to the Commissioner of Education for determination under the Tenure Employees Hearing Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, et seq. Respondent was not suspended from his duties under either title. The charges were received at the Department of Education February 14, 1994, after which the matter was transferred March 22, 1994 to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case under the provisions of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13. Respondent denies the specific and general allegations and he filed a counter-claim against the Board for, among other claims, harassment, intimidation, vexatious litigation, and unlawful interference with his duty. Respondent also claims by way of affirmative defenses, among others, that the Board abused its authority and acted in bad faith. On March 22, 1993, respondent filed a three count amended petition of appeal in which he alleges the Board (1) unlawfully reduced his salary which issue has been heard and decided in respondent's favor, (2) violated his due process rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:25-7 and (3) improperly appointed a "consultant" to perform his duties as superintendent in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.

It is noted that Stephen J. Mushinski, Esq., became counsel of record after tenure charges were filed in this case by the board. It is he who, on behalf of the board, in conjunction with Margaret C. Murphy, Esq., who has been counsel of record for respondent since the matter began, successfully negotiated the Agreement discussed here.

At the same meeting the Board also determined to certify similar charges against its elementary school principal, Peter Granaldi (or principal), a subordinate of respondent Holcroft. The charges against Granaldi were received February 15, 1994, by the Commissioner and, subsequently, transferred to the Office of Administrative Law along with the charges against respondent Holcroft. The tenure charges against respondent Holcroft and Granaldi were initially assigned to Jeff S. Masin, ALJ, but were reassigned this judge at or near the time Judge Masin was named Acting Director of the Office of Administrative Law.

Prior to the reassignment Judge Masin did grant motions to consolidate both cases for purposes of the then anticipated plenary hearing on the charges and to consolidate for purposes of hearing the remaining counts against the Board contained within the petition of appeal filed by respondent. (See Order of Consolidation and Order Severing Charges, OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 2707-94 & 2708-94 and EDU 8107-92 & 8108-92, April 26, 1994).

On October 25, 1994, counsel to the parties in the Holcroft tenure case submitted a Settlement Agreement, fully signed by the parties, which they say is in the public interest and fully disposes of all issues in present dispute. The parties seek the approval of the Agreement by the Commissioner of Education as a full and final disposition of this case.

For the reasons which follow, this initial decision recommends that the Commissioner of Education accept the Settlement Agreement as a full and final disposition of In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Dr. John Holcroft, School District of the Township of Eastampton, Burlington County, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 2707-94, Agency Dkt. No. 25-2/94, so that respondent and the Board may devote their full attention, energy, and resources to the real public interest of providing their pupils the opportunity for a thorough and efficient program of education.

An analysis of the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement must be made in light of the State Board of Education standards for approving such agreements in tenure cases. (See In re Tenure Hearing of Frank Cardonick, Brooklawn Borough Board of Education, 1982 S.L.D. ___ (August 4, 1982)). It is appropriate to briefly discuss the tenure charges and specifications which allege respondent, as the superintendent of schools, engaged in conduct which separately constitutes not only harassment of employees, but sexual harassment of female employees, and that respondent engaged in what is called a "cover-up" and ostensibly tolerated similar conduct by the elementary school principal. In Cardonick, supra, the State Board held as follows:

We believe a proposed tenure settlement or a withdrawal of tenure charges with its attendant (terms and conditions should be submitted to the Commissioner of Education for his prior scrutiny and approval. The proposed tenure settlement or withdrawal should be accompanied by supporting documentations as to the nature of the charges, circumstances justifying the settlement, consent or authorization by the Board of Education and the teacher to the proposed agreement, the Administrative Law Judge's findings that the teacher entered into the agreement with a full understanding of his rights, and that the agreement is consistent with the public interest. (See N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.1(b), (c)) . . .

Sexual harassment is a form of unlawful discrimination. Discrimination based on gender is "peculiarly repugnant in a society which prides itself on judging each individual by his or her merits. Lehmann v. Toys 'R' Us, Inc., 132 N.J. 587, 600 (1993). The charge of sexual harassment is a serious matter. It should not be made nor, once made, taken lightly by either the charging party or the accused; both the Commissioner and State Board of Education give careful scrutiny to such matters. Unlawful harassment based on gender is contrary to the public policy of this State. It is essential that this proposed settlement and attendant circumstances be reviewed in some detail to insure the interest of the public is preserved. Therefore, it is necessary to determine that the standards announced by the State Board of Education for the approval of tenure charge settlements are met.

The primary actors in this dispute are former Board presidents Walter Stark, who served during 1992-93 and perhaps, before that time as a Board member; David Blew, who served during 1993-94; and, respondent Holcroft who has been employed in this school district in one professional capacity or another for the past 22 years.

CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS

The charges and specifications stated by Board president Blew and as certified to the Commissioner against respondent are reproduced in full:

Charge One

Unbecoming Conduct Specifications

1. Engaging in a course of conduct, directed to district employees under his supervision, while functioning in his capacity as the Superintendent of Schools, which was improperly harassing in nature.
2. Engaging in a course of conduct, directed to district employees under his supervision, while functioning in his capacity as the Superintendent of Schools, which constituted improper sexual harassment.
3. Refusing to cooperate with the Board of Education during the Board's attempted investigation of employee complaints concerning the Respondent's behavior.
4. Failing and refusing to properly supervise a district administrative staff member in the carrying out of that district administrative staff member's assigned duties both as a district building principal and/or as the district's affirmative action officer.

5. Inappropriate and unacceptable refusal to comply with Board of education directives and Board of education requests, to investigate allegations of unbecoming conduct engaged in by a district building principal with respect to district employees under that building principal's supervision.
6. Improperly covering up actions of a district administrative staff member which constituted the improper harassment and/or improper sexual harassment of district employees under the supervision of said district administrative staff member.
7. Responding in a misleading or untruthful manner when questioned by the Board of education's designated representatives concerning circumstances which gave rise to the proceeding charges.
8. Failure to properly supervise the district school business administrator and other staff with respect to the financial operations of the district.
9. Failure and refusal to provide the Board of Education with accurate and correct financial information as necessary for the Board to carry out its proper functions with respect to the districts financial management.

Charges Two and Three

Just Cause: Insubordination

Specifications

- 1-9 [This specification merely repeats each and every foregoing specification]
10. [Based on the repetition of each and every specification above, the Board alleges respondent's conduct also constitutes just cause and insubordination to have discipline imposed upon him by the Commissioner.]

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE ON UNBECOMING CONDUCT

CHARGES ONE THROUGH SEVEN

The statement of Evidence and included documents relied upon by the Board for charges one through seven are physically weighty and address matters as early as the 1985-86 academic year through the 1993-94 year which are ostensibly within the purview of responsibility of a superintendent of schools. Documents suggest that a pivotal time in the history of this litigation occurred when the Board was unsuccessful in its attempt to have the Department of Education “investigate” the alleged improper conduct of respondent regarding complaints entertained by Board president Stark from one present and two or more former nontenure employees whose employment was either terminated or not renewed by the Board. On April 16, 1993 the Board requested the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights (or Division) to conduct an investigation of alleged harassment by respondent and by principal Granaldi. The Board points out in the letter that despite an earlier request to the Department of Education, which was refused because it did not conduct investigations of the type requested, and the Board’s own unsuccessful effort to investigate the unspecified charge of harassment, it still did not know whether the superintendent was engaging in wrongful conduct and that it, through omission, did not want to be accused of acquiescing in such conduct if its suspicions against respondent were eventually proven true. In support of the Board’s request to the Division, and as included in its Statement of Evidence filed with the Commissioner in support of the present charges, an affidavit executed by Board president Stark, with attachments, was included. The Division did not conduct the requested investigation into the unspecified charge of harassment.

The affidavit and the documents attached by the Board to its letter request to the Division shall be examined because they are essentially the same documents it used to determine probable cause existed to credit the evidence in support of the charges presently before the Commissioner of Education.

In the affidavit president Stark attests as follows:

- On October 27, 1992 respondent denied receiving any complaints regarding alleged, but it is noted unspecified, harassment;

- That respondent did not answer the question put to him on an uncertain date whether he received correspondence within the preceding two months on “any personnel complaints or matter”:
- That respondent denied receiving correspondence from any employee in the preceding two months regarding any personnel matter and that even if he had he was not certain he could lawfully turn it over to the Board’

These four attestations apparently refer to Charges 3, 5, 6 and 7 regarding the alleged failure of respondent to cooperate with the Board in its investigation of his conduct, refusal to comply with its directives, a cover-up of certain conduct and answering questions in an untruthful or misleading manner.

Documents referred to in the Statement of Evidence, including other portions of Stark’s affidavit would tend to show Stark, as Board president, had sometime in October 1992 received communication from sources “concerning alleged harassment” which, he attests, was to have been made by current and former employees, all of whom are female. Stark attests that on October 27, 1992, he asked respondent if “he had received any such complaints against any employee of the school district which should be brought to the Board’s attention. [Respondent] assured me that there had been no such complaints to his knowledge and specifically he responded that there were none of which he was aware.” Stark attests that he then asked respondent whether he received any correspondence from any employee during the past two months concerning any personnel complaints or matters. Respondent was then to have stated “Tell me what this question is in reference to, and I’ll respond to your question.” Respondent was then ordered by the Board, presumably upon the urging of Stark, to give it, through Stark, any and all correspondence received from any employee within the past two months regarding any personnel matter by 4 p.m. the following day.

Respondent replied that he had received no communication from any employee within the past two months with “an indication of carbon copy to the Board . . .” Stark persisted, however. Respondent replied he did not intend to be insubordinate but he did not desire to violate what he considered to be the law as announced by the Commissioner in Horner v. Kingsway Regional High School District, 1990 S.L.D. - - - (1990) regarding a Board’s legitimate access to personnel files only when such files are relevant to specific employment action to be taken. Respondent suggested that the apparent dispute between him and Stark be taken to the Commissioner for resolution. It was at or about this point that Stark attempted to have the Department of Education “investigate” alleged but unspecified harassment.

This apparent dispute between Stark and respondent forms the factual basis for the second count of respondent’s amended petition against the Board. He alleges that because Board members refused to divulge the specifics of their inquiry, while directing him to appear at various meetings to discuss the alleged complaints, his right to due process under N.J.S.A. 18A:25-7 was violated and that the Board violated his rights as superintendent under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.

Stark attests in his affidavit as follows that he had earlier requested the Department of Education to conduct an investigation only to be told by the Department’s Burlington County Superintendent of Schools that it does not conduct investigations of the type requested; that he had requested the Department to investigate “allegations” against respondent and principal Granaldi of harassment and of a “cover-up” of such harassment if, indeed, it would find that allegations of harassment were ever made to the superintendent. (Affidavit, paragraph eight). He also says that on February 17, 1993 the Board conducted its own “fact-finding” meeting which, upon order of the Board, was attended by respondent who was represented by counsel.

According to notes of the fact-finding meeting which were to have been taken and prepared by former Board counsel, the main topic of discussion was one potential complainant against respondent, a teacher who had met with a committee of the Board before the meeting began with respondent and counsel. It appears that it is this teacher upon whom the Board relies as their chief complaining witness, and who had or has a dispute with principal Granaldi. She maintained a type of running diary regarding perceived slights, injustices, and confrontations she received from or had with principal Granaldi and upon which the Board relies.

The teacher’s diary (see Attachment D, pages 3 through 19 of the Board’s Statement of Evidence) reveals that the dispute between she and Granaldi began September 17, 1992 when the teacher was late arriving at the school building in the morning and, having arrived late, engaged in conversation outside the school building with another person before entering the building to assume her duties. The teacher did not care for the manner, method, mode or timing of Granaldi's reproach of lateness or her decision to engage in conversation before entering the school to greet her students. The teacher writes that she was "outraged", and rendered "incapable" of remaining for the entire day to complete her assigned duties. Consequently, the teacher says, she asked a secretary at lunch time, whom she says "could see that I was visibly upset", for an absence request form and left school for the day.

The teacher memorialized the above in a memorandum dated September 21, 1992 to respondent Superintendent and requested she "not be charged for this time." The teacher characterized the memorandum as a "grievance" and "testimony to unprofessional and insensitive behavior on the part of [the principal toward her] on Thursday, September 17, 1992." Perhaps president Stark was making reference to this memorandum during his questioning of respondent.

The teacher records that she met with the principal on September 21, 1992 and her 'grievance' was discussed as not being properly filed under the existing Agreement, that her request of having one-half sick day restored to her was met with "cynicism" by the principal, that she was reminded her presence was required at a staff meeting after school that day which she believed she should not have to attend, that after school that day while the principal and staff were waiting to start the meeting he called for her presence over the school intercom system. Teacher writes that the manner in which she was paged by the principal and his greeting when she arrived at the meeting site was, in her view, harassment.

The teacher writes that on September 22 the principal told her he would allow time off for an emergency as she received in the past, but not to leave school early as she did September 17 and that she was accused of having "ghost-written" a letter complaint from a secretary alleging he used vulgar language during a telephone conversation. Teacher writes in conclusion to this entry:

With finger waving, and head shaking back and forth, and staring at me as though he was in a hypnotized state he kept repeating "I never sleep, I never sleep. I never sleep . . ." As I drove home I felt a sense of fear of this man [the principal] and decided that I should have the locks changed on my home."

The teacher records that she was late September 24 reporting back from lunch. Apparently she was due back at 12:10; she reported back at 12:37. Teacher reports the principal “bellowed” at her that she was late so others could hear.

According to a document referenced in the Statement of Evidence filed by the Board, the principal wrote to the teacher on September 24, 1992.

On Thursday, September 17, you arrived for work at 8:20, having failed to alert the school that you would be delayed.

On Thursday, September 24, you did not report back from lunch until 12:37, again having failed to alert the school that you would be delayed. A check of the sign out sheet revealed that you had already signed out for the day, and not until the office checked with the middle school were we aware that you were still in the district. (In response to the inquiry of your whereabouts and the cause for our delay you advised Mrs. H. * * * that you had a meeting with Dr. Holcroft [respondent]. Upon my * * * discussing this matter with him he advises me that you had not been with him at all.) * * *

Teacher records in the diary that she intended to convey that she went to the superintendent’s office, without a prior appointment, in an effort to meet with him.

Subsequent entries by the teacher show that on October 1 when the principal asked her about goals and volunteers and she told him to speak to the superintendent, that she perceived the request as “another excuse [for the principal] to call [her] to task. On October 8 teacher records that the principal used “his gruff and demanding tone” asking whether she had yet arranged the meeting with the superintendent she wanted regarding the principal’s September 24 memorandum; that after the principal then arranged the meeting for October 15, teacher asked the superintendent to cancel it; the superintendent agreed to cancel the meeting if she would meet the principal to talk; that when she met with the principal to discuss the September 24 meeting and mentioned the “climate” the principal created, he “bellowed”; that she walked out of the meeting; that she, the principal, and the superintendent met on October 20 at her request and that she walked out of that meeting as well because the principal kept “. . . interrupting and rehashing and blaming . . .”

Entries in the diary for the end of October and beginning of November 1992 show that the local union called a meeting after school for teachers of the first grade who appear to have filed complaints against the teacher. The diary reads as follows:

October 29, 1992 - There was a meeting after school called by the union due to complaints leveled by the first grade teacher. My personal feeling was that they were put up to it as I recall how he had destroyed people in the past. Also the fact that the union had been called in made no sense since this had never happened. It was my feeling that [the principal] wasn't satisfied that he had harassed (sic) me enough. As soon as the meeting started, [the principal] walked over to each person there and very ceremoniously gave each one a piece of candy, ignoring me very obviously. Two of the teachers offered me theirs

November 2, 1992 - I entered the elementary building [the principal] stood directly in front of me and absolutely ignored me while he said "Good Morning" to everyone else by name. The secretary kept her head down and ignored me also.

November 3, 1992 - I saw my Doctor who proscribed (sic) medication for my nerves.

On December 3, 1993, which in the context of the entire diary appears to be more correctly 1992, the diary records that after a meeting with first grade teachers conducted by teacher which was attended by principal he asked her how she thought the meeting went. After responding to the question, teacher records principal repeated ". . . five times "Very Good", each time with greater anger and emphasis in his voice as he leaned menacingly toward me."

Entries for December 7 and 15 reveal that the principal told teacher that none of the teachers shall attend a workshop she arranged because he knew nothing about the workshop and that despite a need for testing a new pupil which was called to her attention because testing was her responsibility, teacher reports a disagreement with principal and that the new pupil had lost a day of school because of the absence of testing due to her absence from school.

Teacher's entry for December 21, the year of which I believe to be more accurately 1992, is reproduced here in full:

I was in the trailer monitoring the first day of the Writing to Read goal with the parent volunteers. [The principal] entered the trailer, greeted [Dr. A.], went over to the aid (sic) and put his arm on her shoulder and asked "How was your weekend?" ignoring my presence. Soon after, he left.

As I was leaving the building later that morning [the principal] called me over to the side of the hallway and asked how my mother was doing. Thinking this a friendly gesture I responded. Then he asked "How's Dianne's mom?" Shocked that he would ask a question about someone he had met only once more than a year ago, I responded casually that she was still in the nursing home and coming along fine. Then he asked "How's Dianne?" "Fine" was my answer. The question stirred my memory of the statement he made in September as he shook his finger close to my face: "I never sleep. I never sleep."

On January 11, 1993, teacher records what appears to be a disagreement with the principal regarding the testing of four children and when the tests were to be administered by her; on January 14 teacher records the principal taking issue with her regarding her arranging for teachers in his school to attend workshops without his prior knowledge or approval and characterizes his manner of speech on two separate occasions as "patronizing smile/smirk", as in the principal asking the question "Do you understand" (patronizing smile/smirk); and, under date of January 15 teacher writes of having submitted a report of the above to the superintendent only to have caused the removal of the very same report from the superintendent's desk when he left his office.

The diary relates that on January 27, 1993 the superintendent met with teacher to discuss a textbook budget; however, she wants to discuss the principal. Superintendent is "distant and disinterested" and that perhaps her "hysteria" caused superintendent some concern. Superintendent suggests she control her responses to principal; she screams at superintendent. She compares principal's conduct with domestic violence. Superintendent says teacher not "lily-white" - Teacher leaves office - slams door - returns and tells superintendent her physician tells her to take two week leave of absence - Superintendent wants medical verification.

Other documents in the Board's Statement of Evidence in support of the charges against respondent (the superintendent) include a memorandum to file from the Board president regarding a meeting he had October 26, 1992 with two former Board employees at one of their homes. One who was employed during 1991-92 complained that the principal had inquired of her church activities, religious background and what her husband did for a living; that the principal was to have asked her to sign a petition against another employee; staff members were to have left his office in tears and of being advised by others not to get on the wrong side of him. The other, who had been employed in 1985-86, complained that she had filed "sexual harassment charges" against the principal with the superintendent. "the county, and state" but nothing was ever done; that the principal sat close to her during observations; that he yelled at staff and kids at close proximity; that he commented on her old car, that she did not wear enough make-up, and that she was overweight. The Board did not include a copy of the purported "sexual harassment charges" which were to have been filed.

Another document relied upon the Board is a memorandum of Board president Stark regarding a meeting during November 1991 between the Board and a teacher whose employment contract was not renewed for 1991-92. The referenced meeting may have been the required opportunity to be heard afforded nontenure teachers whose employment is not continued. The teacher was to have complained that the principal just fired her one day without prior notice. But, even after this November meeting the Board affirmed whatever action had earlier been taken against the teacher regarding her employment.

Another matter on which the Board appears to place great weight in its Statement of Evidence in support of the charges is another nontenure teacher who was employed for 1992-93 and, it appears, was offered reemployment for 1993-94. The Statement of Evidence makes clear that respondent did not recommend reemployment for 1993-94 but the Board overrode respondent's recommendation and offered reemployment. The documents also show that before the teacher's performance began under the 1993-94 contract, respondent recommended on August 3, 1993 that the notice of termination clause be exercised in her contract. It is not known whether the Board adopted the recommendation to terminate the teacher's employment contract.

There are documents in the Statement of Evidence which tend to support valid concern regarding this teacher's performance especially during April, May and June of 1992-93 year and even earlier in the year. These memoranda show a basis for concern of the teacher's tendency to misspell words such as “their” for “there”, “straightening” for “strengthening” “repertoire” for “repertoire”, as well as some concern over the teacher’s ability to properly use the possessive form of adjectives. Another memorandum addresses the teacher’s asserted failure to submit lesson plans as required and of class organization. One memorandum suggests that this teacher audio-tape recorded her questioning and answers received from one of her pupils regarding a telephone conversation his mother had earlier had with the school principal. When confronted at a meeting, the teacher was to have admitted the recording and agreed to turn over the recording to the principal and the parent. The teacher was excused from the meeting to retrieve the recording from her car in the parking lot. When teacher failed to return to the meeting and was subsequently paged by the principal, she stated that she destroyed the recording because she determined its existence was making the parent “uncomfortable”.

II CHARGES EIGHT AND NINE

The specifications to these charges allege that respondent failed to “properly” supervise the school business administrator and that he, respondent, failed to provide the Board with “accurate and correct financial information as necessary” to properly perform its function regarding district financial management. Respondent says the Board failed to heed the information he provided, that it knowingly failed to perform its duty to properly budget actual costs for the operation of the district, and refused for several months to appoint a qualified individual to the vacant position of school business administrator.

I have searched the Board’s documentary evidence referenced in its Statement of Evidence to find some basis upon which these charges were filed. Neither Charge Eight nor Nine on their face, nor the specifications thereto, nor the documents referenced in the Statement of Evidence which are purportedly the good faith basis upon which the Board found probable cause to credit the evidence, nor Stark’s affidavit, disclose the basis upon which those two charges were certified. There is no disclosure as to the nature of the alleged failure to provide so-called proper supervision of the school business administrator, nor is there an allegation that the administrator was supervised by respondent, nor is there any disclosure as to what incorrect information was to have been intentionally provided it by respondent.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE ON JUST CAUSE AND/OR INSUBORDINATION

The Board certified a total of ten charges in these categories separate and apart from the foregoing charges of unbecoming conduct. In reality, however, these charges, their specifications, and the Statement of Evidence and documents referenced therein, are identical in their substantive allegations of misconduct as contained within the charges of unbecoming conduct. It is apparent that the Board alleges that if the conduct alleged to have been engaged in by respondent does not constitute unbecoming conduct, then such conduct constitutes either just cause and/or insubordination for the Commissioner to impose some discipline upon him under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, The Tenure Employees Hearing law.

While the 1993-94 Board of Education found probable cause to credit the evidence against respondent, it is well within the authority of the present 1994-95 Board to assess, in good faith, the strength and/or weaknesses of its competent, credible evidence to prove the truth of the charges and to have entered negotiations with respondent for purposes of settlement. In Cardonick, supra, the State Board of Education recognized that:

The New Jersey courts have looked with great favor upon the voluntary resolution of litigation through settlement. [Citations omitted] As a general principle, and without considering the toll of human resources, the settlement of lawsuits in good faith can be said to save time, money and proof problems. School Boards, in their efforts to conserve public funds, no less than private parties, have been encouraged by the state and federal courts to carefully consider equitable settlement possibilities. (Slip opinion, at p. ___)

Nevertheless, the State Board also cautions that Boards of education “must act in the public interest, lawfully, constitutionally, reasonably and in accordance with duly enacted rules and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and State Board of Education.” (Id).

In this case, the Board in the proposed Settlement Agreement acknowledges its present belief “that there is an absence of evidence to support the charges. . .” and that “the prosecution of these charges will divert substantial amounts of money, time and key staff resources from the true mission of the district. . .” (Paragraph Six, Background section of proposed Agreement). Having reviewed the charges, the Statement of Evidence and related documents which purportedly support the charges, the decision of this Board to settle the case is to be encouraged.

Three of the most significant charges against respondent are general harassment of employees, sexual harassment of female employees, and improperly covering up similar-conduct by a subordinate. Justice Garibaldi, writing for the Court in Lehmann v. Toys 'R' Us, Inc., 132 N.J. at 601, noted:

Sexual harassment jurisprudence generally divides sexual harassment cases into two categories. Quid pro quo sexual harassment occurs when an employer attempts to make an employee's submission to sexual demands a condition of his or her employment. It involves an implicit or explicit threat that if the employee does not accede to the sexual demands, he or she will lose his or her job, receive unfavorable performance reviews, be passed over for promotions, or suffer other adverse employment consequences. Hostile work environment sexual harassment, by contrast, occurs when an employer or fellow employees harass an employee because of his or her sex to the point at which the working environment becomes hostile.

While a party who charges unlawful harassment need not prove an overt sexual act, an element which must be shown is that the alleged harassing conduct occurred based on gender. Without reaching findings of fact on truth or falsity, the proofs reasonably anticipated to be presented to support charges of unlawful harassment against respondent based on the Statement of Evidence and included documents appear to be unavailable.

FINDINGS

The so-called teacher's diary which was presented in some detail shows a teacher who claims harassment but who reported late for her duties on at least two separate occasions and left her duties early on at least one occasion and/or because she is either paged to report to a meeting awaiting her presence to start and which she had already been reminded of earlier in the day to attend but who felt she should not have to attend or the manner of greeting from the principal when she finally reported to the meeting. The diary shows a teacher who claims the manner of candy distribution by the principal constitutes harassment, or the failure of the principal and secretary to say "good morning" but being shocked when the principal asks "How's Diane". The diary shows a teacher who walks out of meetings with both the principal and the superintendent, while acknowledging her own hysteria. Nothing in the diary suggests whatever friction may have existed or exists between teacher and superintendent is based on the fact teacher is female. Not even teacher, who is capable at writing observations or recollection of past events, asserts anywhere in the diary superintendent treated her differently because of her gender. One would have to stretch logic to conclude that teacher's comparison of principal's alleged conduct as recorded in her own words was akin to domestic violence as being a basis for a claim of harassment based on gender by respondent. I FIND that establishing the truth of the charges against respondent regarding harassment, sexual harassment or a so-called "cover-up" of such conduct would be a formidable challenge for the Board.

Such a challenge to prove charges of unlawful discrimination by sexual harassment against respondent would not be lessened by the consideration of former president Stark's memoranda regarding the three former teachers, all of who are female and all of whom were employed, but no one of whom acquired tenure. Only the teacher who was employed in 1985-86 was to have claimed to Stark who then prepared the particular memorandum which the Board includes in its Statement of Evidence, that the principal engaged in sexual harassment against her. According to Stark's memorandum, the teacher filed such a claim in 1985-86 with the superintendent, "the county and state" but that nothing was every done thereby implicating the superintendent. Even if the assertion turned out to be true that a complaint was filed by this teacher in 1985-86, that does not make the allegations which would be contained therein true. It must be borne in mind, for purposes of this proceeding, that that teacher is not presently making the allegation against respondent; it is former president Stark who claims that the teacher told him that she filed the complaint in 1985-86. The other two teachers do not claim different based on gender.

Four charges allege respondent engaged in unbecoming conduct or insubordination and/or other just cause to justify the imposition of some discipline on the bases of former president

Stark's questioning of him regarding grievances or complaints received, respondent's denial of having received such complaints, Stark's persistence ostensibly on behalf of the Board, respondent's disclaimer of having received any such communication with any reference to "copy to the Board", the Board's order to respondent to appear at a meeting to discuss complaints it was to have received but without advising respondent the nature of the complaints, or persons who made such complaints, and respondent's answers provided the Board at the meeting which was held. When these charges, the Statement of Evidence and attached documents are considered against respondent's claim that his due process rights were violated under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-5 the task of the Board in proving the truth of the charge, I FIND would be formidable.

It is difficult to determine the relative strengths and weaknesses of the Board's projected proofs in support of charges eight and nine because it cannot be determined on the record developed thus far exactly what the charges are. "Proper supervision" is an elusive characterization of what A says B should have done. But, without specificity of what it is that A says B should have done but failed to do and therefore B engaged in unbecoming conduct, insubordination or other just cause sufficient to impose discipline, it is virtually impossible to assess the relative strengths of the Board's case. If the relative strengths of the Board's case cannot be determined here, the issue becomes how does respondent intelligently defend against these charges. I FIND the Board's task in proving the truth of these charges and just cause of insubordination, would be formidable.

The efforts of the present Board to settle this case with respondent is encouraged so that both parties may devote their energy, talent, and resources to their true task of providing their pupils with a thorough and efficient program of education.

SETTLEMENT TERMS

The six essential terms of the proposed Settlement include the joint withdrawal and dismissal, with prejudice, by both parties of the tenure charges, the answer, separate defenses and counterclaims presently before the Commissioner. Upon dismissal of the charges by the Commissioner, respondent shall withdraw with prejudice the remaining counts of his amended petition before the Commissioner and agree that they shall continue to abide by state and federal law governing Affirmative Action, as well as the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. They mutually agree to bring complaints directly to each other, if and when received, and to honor the basic right of the accused to respond and to correct whatever problem may exist as identified and agreed to by both sides. Finally, the parties agree that all personnel in the Board's employ shall report to respondent except as may otherwise be provided by law.

CONCLUSION

Based on the record in this case, and having considered society's interest in the nature of the charges, the interests of the Board, the interests of respondent and of the school district as a whole, the likelihood of whether the charges may be supported by proofs reasonably anticipated to be offered at hearing, the terms of the proposed Agreement including the absence of an exchange of public funds for services not rendered, and the consistency of the Agreement with existing law, I CONCLUDE that the proposed Settlement Agreement, which was freely entered into by the parties with full knowledge of their rights and each of whom are represented by competent counsel, is a full, fair, lawful and final disposition of the issues presented in this case.

With respect to In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Peter Granaldi, School District of the Township of Eastampton, Burlington County, OAL DKT.NO. EDU 2708-94, Agency Dkt. No. 26-2/94, which Judge Masin previously consolidated with this case on April 26, 1994, I CONCLUDE that the Consolidation Order must be rescinded in order to dispose of this matter by initial decision without the need to wait for the final disposition of the tenure charges of the Granaldi case. The Granaldi tenure case currently remains open.

ORDER

The parties are ordered to further comply with the Settlement Agreement as attached and is set forth therein.

For the reasons set forth above, I further ORDER the Order of Consolidation dated April 26, 1994, be rescinded, thus, separating the cases of Dr. John Holcroft and Peter Granaldi.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

) SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

BACKGROUND

1. Dr. John R. Holcroft ("Holcroft") filed a Petition (OAL Docket No. EDU 8107-92S and EDU 8108-92S [consolidated]) against the Eastampton Township Board of Education on or about September 21, 1992, which was amended on or about March 22, 1993.

2. The Eastampton Township Board of Education ("Board") filed tenure charges against Holcroft on February 10, 1994, which charges are currently pending before the Commissioner of Education ("Tenure Charges").

3. On March 7, 1994 Holcroft filed an Answer, Separate Defenses and Counterclaim with respect to said tenure charges ("Responsive Pleadings").

4. A hearing was held on April 27, 1994, with respect to Count One of Holcroft's Petition and the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education found in favor of Holcroft. Counts Two and Three of Holcroft's Amended Petition were consolidated with the Tenure Charges [OAL Docket Nos. 2707-94S and 2708-94S (Consolidated)]. Only the Tenure Charges, Answer, Separate Defenses and Counterclaim and Counts Two and Three of Holcroft's Amended Petition are the subject of this Settlement Agreement. Holcroft's Petition, Count One, shall not be the subject of this Settlement Agreement.

5. The Board and Holcroft have met and have held discussions with regard to matters alleged in the Tenure Charges and the Counterclaim. Holcroft and Board acknowledge that allegations exist regarding the occurrence of certain events which have been delineated in the Tenure Charge, while Holcroft denies knowledge of these allegations at the time of the filing of the Tenure Charges. The parties have determined it to be in their respective best interests to resolve the above referenced matters and come to an agreement with respect to the obligations, duties and responsibilities of the Board and Holcroft regarding certain aspects of the operation of the School district, and the roles and responsibilities of the Board and the Superintendent.

6. Based upon these understandings, and recognizing that, when the Board certified these charges, it did not suspend Holcroft; and based on its present belief that there is an absence of evidence to support the charges, and further based on its belief that the prosecution of these charges will divert substantial amounts of money, time and key staff resources from the true mission of the district, the parties have agreed to resolve this matter under and subject to the terms as outlined in this Settlement Agreement.

AGREEMENT

The parties to this Agreement, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. The Board and Holcroft shall make application to the Commissioner of Education to withdraw and dismiss the Tenure Charges and the Answer, Separate Defenses and Counterclaim with prejudice.

2. Upon dismissal of the Tenure Charges by the Commissioner, Holcroft shall withdraw Counts Two and Three of his Amended Petition with prejudice.

3. The Board and Holcroft shall continue to abide by N.J.S.A. 18A:25-7 and N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20 and Affirmative Action laws, rules and regulations and Holcroft and Board shall bring complaints directly to each other, when and if received. The Board shall then give the person accused the opportunity to respond regarding the complaint and will give the Superintendent the opportunity to correct the problem, if the Board and the Superintendent agree that, in light of all the facts, a problem exists.

4. The Board shall confer and discuss directly with Holcroft any complaints brought against Holcroft by staff members of the school district. Following these discussions, the Board shall give Holcroft a reasonable amount of time to correct any problems, if they are determined to exist.

5. The Board and Holcroft agree to abide by any existing policies concerning the chain of command in its interactions with staff members of the school district.

6. The Board agrees that all personnel in the district, including consultants, shall report to Holcroft, unless required by statute to report to the Board directly. Nothing in this paragraph 6 shall abrogate the First Amendment Rights of the personnel in the district as outlined in relevant Case Law.

WHEREAS, Holcroft and the Board have reviewed this Settlement Agreement and have consulted with their respective attorneys; and

WHEREAS, the Superintendent has approved of the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Settlement Agreement has been approved by a vote of the Members of the Board of Education of the Eastampton Township School District at its meeting of September 27²⁰⁰⁰, 1994, and has been made a part of the minutes of that meeting;

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on February 28, 1994, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Memorandum of Agreement indicating the terms thereof, and a Stipulation of Dismissal which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Nov 20 9 14 AM '94

This Agreement is made this 17th day of November, 1994, by and between the Union City Board of Education, with offices at 3912 Bergen Turnpike, Union City, New Jersey 07087, hereinafter referred to as the "Board,"

AND

Ramiro Cubas, whose home address is 1503 Palisade Avenue, Union City, New Jersey 07087, hereinafter referred to as "Cubas," and the Union City Education Association.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Cubas is a maintenance employee employed by the Board and has been so employed since October, 1991; and

WHEREAS, on or about December 9, 1993, Cubas was suspended without pay, effective December 15, 1993, pending the investigation of charges against him; and

WHEREAS, on or about January 12, 1994, tenure charges were filed against Cubas; and

WHEREAS, the tenure charges were certified to the Commissioner of Education on or about January 28, 1994; and

WHEREAS, Cubas and the Union City Education Association filed a grievance and demand for arbitration over the suspension without pay of Cubas; and

WHEREAS, in lieu of proceeding with the tenure charges in accordance with the Tenure Employees' Hearing Law, and the arbitration proceeding bearing PERC Docket No. AR-94-536, the Board, Cubas and the Association desire to enter into an agreement stipulating the terms of Cubas' separation from his employment as a maintenance employee with the Board.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties and in exchange for the consideration more particularly noted below, it is hereby agreed:

1. Cubas will submit an irrevocable letter of resignation from all employment with the Board effective on February 18, 1995, or the date of the approval of the terms of this Agreement by the Commissioner of Education, whichever is sooner. This letter of resignation will be accepted by the Board.

2. The Board agrees to withdraw, with prejudice, the tenure charges against Cubas, bearing Agency Docket No. 16-1/94 and O.A.L. Docket No. EDU 01908-94N.

3. The Association agrees to withdraw, with prejudice, the demand for arbitration it filed, bearing Public Employment Relations Commission Docket No. AR-94-536.

4. The Board agrees to continue to pay Cubas his full salary for three and one-half months, commencing on November 3, 1994. His salary will terminate on February 18, 1995.

5. All continued salary payments made to Cubas pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid in the normal course of business, net of normal payroll deductions for State and Federal income taxes.

6. The Board and Cubas agree that the settlement of the charges brought by the Board is justified for the following reasons:

(a) The charges made by the Board against Cubas are based primarily on allegations of absenteeism and tardiness, which do not have an overriding public interest in issuing a decision on the merits;

(b) The resignation of Cubas can result in an economic saving to the Board in that Cubas' salary will terminate. If the charges were fully litigated, Cubas would be entitled to salary until at least the issuance of the decision of the Commissioner of Education. Given the number of witnesses for both the petitioner and respondent, the possible need for the scheduling of additional hearing dates and the normal timetable for such matters, the Commissioner's decision might not be issued until the late spring of 1995 or afterwards.

(c) The parties will not be required to undergo the time and substantial expense of further litigation.

(d) If fully litigated, this case would require the testimony of numerous employees of the Board, both for the Board and for Cubas. Such testimony would disrupt the managerial process in the Board.

(e) The public interest would best be served by resolving the present controversy.

7. The Board and Cubas acknowledge that the terms of this Agreement are contingent upon the review and approval of both the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education. In the event that either agency disapproves of the terms of settlement, this Agreement shall be null and void and the parties shall return to the same positions which they held prior to this settlement.

8. The Board shall approve the terms of this Agreement in the manner prescribed by law at its next scheduled Board meeting.

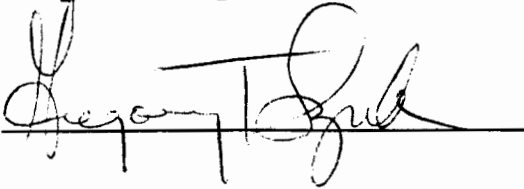

9. The Association shall approve this Agreement in the manner prescribed by its rules, by-laws or other procedural requirements.

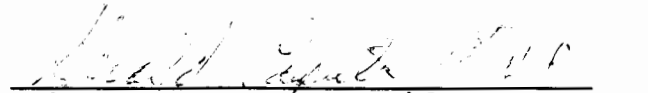

10. The parties recognize that each has been represented by legal counsel of his or its own choosing and that each signs this Agreement as their own voluntary act and deed, and that they fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein.

11. This Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

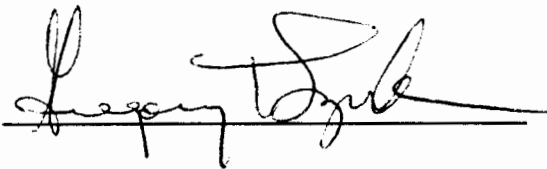

12. All terms of this Agreement are deemed material. This document may not be altered, amended or modified or revoked except by an instrument executed in writing by the parties.

15. The undersigned representatives of the Board and the Association hereby acknowledge that they have been duly authorized by the Board and the Association, respectively, to sign this Agreement and to bind the Board and the Association, respectively, to its terms.

Re: Letter of Resignation

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I hereby resign from my employment as a maintenance employee employed by the Union City Board of Education effective February 18, 1995, or the date on which the Commissioner of Education approves the Agreement with the Board. This resignation is expressly conditioned upon the approval of the Memorandum of Agreement dated November , 1994, between the Board and myself by the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall be null and void if the terms of that Agreement are not so approved. This resignation is otherwise irrevocable.

Respectfully submitted,

Ramiro Cubas

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :
 FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
 MENT OF VINNIE RANSELL. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
January 24, 1995

Decided by the State Board of Education, April 5, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell &
Cohen (Randi Doner, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Vinnie Ransdell (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a clerical employee in the East Orange school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. revealed that he had been arrested for possession of cocaine on September 23, 1989, and had subsequently pleaded guilty to such charge. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated January 24, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,¹ stating that [w]hile you have submitted several letters of support which indicate that you have made significant progress in your rehabilitation efforts, including a letter from your probation officer, I nonetheless conclude that insufficient time has transpired since your conviction to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of rehabilitation.

The Deputy Commissioner informed petitioner that such determination "does not preclude you from requesting a rehabilitation determination when sufficient time has transpired to demonstrate that you have fully rehabilitated yourself in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1."

On February 10, 1995, the petitioner filed a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education. However, when petitioner did not file a supporting brief, the State Board dismissed the appeal for failure to perfect.

By letter dated April 12, counsel for petitioner requested that the appeal be reinstated for consideration on the merits, indicating that she had submitted a letter brief to the

Deputy Commissioner on February 15 to support the appeal. By letter dated April 24, the Counsel to the State Board advised counsel for petitioner that the Legal Committee of the State Board had determined to consider her request as a motion for clarification/reconsideration. In response to petitioner's motion, the Deputy Attorney General representing the Office of Criminal History Review² advised us that the parties had agreed to have this matter remanded to the Commissioner in light of the Commissioner's agreement to consider petitioner's February 15th letter as a motion for reconsideration. The parties subsequently executed and submitted to the State Board an order consenting to a remand to the Commissioner for a hearing on the issue of rehabilitation.

In view of the circumstances, we grant petitioner's motion for reconsideration and to reinstate his appeal. However, we find the record in this matter to be such that, given our authority as the ultimate administrative decision-maker and fact-finder in school matters, In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478, 485 (App. Div. 1989), certif. den., 121 N.J. 615 (1990); Dore v. Bedminister Tp. Bd. of Ed., 185 N.J.

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office by letter of February 16, 1995, that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

Super. 447, 452 (App. Div. 1982), we need not remand for determination of the substantive issue raised. Our review of the record has eliminated any question that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:

1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
4. The date of the offense;
5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

(Emphasis added.)

As set forth above, the Deputy Commissioner determined that petitioner had failed to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation. His determination was predicated on his conclusion that "insufficient time" had transpired since petitioner's "conviction." However, while N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) includes "the date of the offense" as one factor that must be considered, it also requires that all pertinent circumstances, including "any evidence of rehabilitation," be adequately addressed.³

The only arrest and conviction revealed by petitioner's criminal history review was for possession of cocaine in September 1989, when he was 20-years-old. Petitioner's submission to the Commissioner shows that the sentencing judge had concluded at that time that petitioner was entitled to probation because the mitigating factors substantially outweigh he [sic] aggravating factors. This is his first conviction; he has no history of delinquency and has led a law abiding life prior to his offense. His conduct was the result of circumstances unlikely to recur and his character and attitude indicate he is unlikely to commit another offense and will respond well to probation. He is a high school graduate with a long steady employment history. He is not a drug dealer. However, because he is a drug abuser, there is a risk he will commit another offense and the need to deter him and others from so doing.

³ We note that the statute specifies "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction, as indicated by the Deputy Commissioner. Moreover, although the Deputy Commissioner indicated that petitioner was "convicted on September 23, 1989," the record indicates that he was, in fact, arrested on that date.

Urinalysis, consisting of eight random urine screens conducted during a two-year period commencing in January 1992, revealed no evidence of drug use.⁴ Further, since his arrest, the petitioner has completed a business school program as a computerized office specialist, with a cumulative grade point average of 3.5. There have been no further arrests.

Petitioner's submission to the Commissioner includes a letter from his supervisor in East Orange stating that petitioner was "mature minded, responsible...punctual, diligent" and "an excellent worker." His supervisor from a temporary position with AT&T during 1992 described petitioner as an "excellent employee"

While we recognize that any conviction on these charges may have been expunged from petitioner's record, given the probation report entered into the record by petitioner, we have explored this offense to the extent possible to assure ourselves that it would not alter the result herein. We have taken official notice of the criminal complaint dated August 16, 1991 in that matter, which alleges that petitioner on two occasions in 1987 caused the Internal Revenue Service, his employer at that time, to issue him a duplicate salary payment in the amount of $344.29, and that he subsequently endorsed both the original and the replacement checks. We recognize that such offense does not constitute a crime which would disqualify petitioner from employment under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and that it occurred prior to the drug conviction which formed the basis for his disqualification. Since no evidentiary hearing was conducted below, this matter was neither explored nor addressed. Based upon our review, however, we are satisfied that it does not alter the determination herein.

who "clearly displayed a willingness to perform work assignments at a standard higher than expectation."

While the gravity of petitioner's offense is evident, examination of the circumstances indicates that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Given the uncontradicted evidence that petitioner submitted for the record, including his successful efforts to acquire vocational training and experience, the recommendation of his supervisors and the fact that random urinalysis conducted over a two year period subsequent to his drug conviction showed no evidence of drug use, we conclude that petitioner has convincingly demonstrated his rehabilitation under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Moreover, as required by that provision, we have considered the "nature and responsibility" of the position petitioner held within the public school system. In this respect, we stress that the employment from which petitioner was disqualified was clerical, and that such employment does not include the responsibility for the care, supervision or instruction of students.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed herein, we find that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). We therefore reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :

VINNIE RANSELL. : DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 24, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell &
Cohen (Randi Doner, Esq. of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Nancy Kaplen, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

On January 24, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education affirmed the determination of the Department's Office of Criminal History Review disqualifying Vinnie Ransdell (hereinafter "petitioner") from school employment following a criminal history check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. The Deputy Commissioner determined that insufficient time had transpired since petitioner's criminal conviction to demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of rehabilitation.

On February 10, 1995, the petitioner filed a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), petitioner's brief in support of the appeal was due by March 2, 1995, 20 days after the appeal was filed. Petitioner, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated March 6 from the Counsel to the State Board, petitioner's counsel was notified of her failure to file a brief in support of the appeal and advised that this matter was being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of petitioner's failure to perfect the appeal. Petitioner's counsel has still failed to file an appeal brief. Nor has she at any time requested an extension of time for such filing or provided any explanation for the delay.

The State Board of Education therefore dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

Laymon J. Jackson, Jr. (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a custodian in the Plainfield school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. revealed that he had been convicted of armed robbery in 1972 and possession of heroin in 1990. In a letter from the manager of the Office of Criminal History Review, petitioner was advised that he could appeal such determination to the Commissioner of Education and that, if his appeal was based on rehabilitation, he would be "notified by the Commissioner as to your qualification or the need for a hearing date to afford you the opportunity to present witnesses and additional documentation as to why you believe you have been rehabilitated." Petitioner filed an appeal to the Commissioner, seeking to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated January 30, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education,¹ without a hearing, upheld the disqualification, finding that, while petitioner had made progress towards rehabilitation, insufficient time had transpired since petitioner's most recent conviction to allow him to find clear and convincing evidence of rehabilitation.

On March 3, 1995, petitioner filed the instant appeal with the State Board of Education. He also requested that the Deputy Commissioner provide him with a hearing on the issue of rehabilitation. On March 6, the Deputy Commissioner granted petitioner's motion for reconsideration and advised him that a hearing would be scheduled. Nonetheless, petitioner indicated that he also wished to proceed with his appeal before the State

On June 7, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for an expedited hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Decided by the State Board of Education, December 6, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Abdul H. Ali, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On January 24, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education affirmed the determination of the Department's Office of Criminal History Review disqualifying the petitioner from school employment after a criminal history check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed convictions for possession of narcotic equipment in 1986 and for possession of cocaine in 1987.¹ The record review also indicated that there was an active bench warrant against petitioner arising from his failure to appear in court to answer charges arising from a 1989 arrest for possession of narcotic equipment.

On June 7, 1995, we granted the parties' request to remand this matter to the Commissioner for a hearing in order to provide petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with that remand, an Assistant Commissioner conducted a hearing on July 14 and rendered a decision on August 7 upholding petitioner's disqualification.² The Assistant Commissioner concluded that petitioner had failed to demonstrate his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. Petitioner did not file an appeal from that decision.

Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us on September 6. On December 6, following careful review of that file, we dismissed the appeal, finding that the Commissioner had fully complied with the terms of our remand.

Petitioner has filed the instant request for reconsideration of our decision of December 6, alleging that he had misunderstood the appeal procedure.

We deny petitioner's request. While we are mindful of petitioner's pro se status in these proceedings, our review of the file, including the tape recording made of his hearing before the Assistant Commissioner, indicates that he was expressly informed in clear language, both at the hearing and in the Assistant Commissioner's decision, that the proper course for him to follow if he was not satisfied with the Assistant Commissioner's decision was to file an appeal from that decision to the State Board. The Assistant Commissioner notified petitioner at the conclusion of his hearing that "once you finally get a written decision from us, should it be a decision that you're not happy with, you have another route of appeal and that's to the State Board of Education." Tape recording of hearing, 7/14/95. When petitioner indicated some confusion, the Assistant Commissioner took the time to explain to him that she was acting on behalf of the Commissioner, not the State Board, and that the State Board was "above" the Commissioner. Id. That information was reiterated in the Assistant Commissioner's written decision, which expressly instructed petitioner that "[a]n appeal of this decision may be made to the State Board of Education pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.1 et seq." Assistant Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 1. Given the clear and repeated instructions which were provided to petitioner by the Assistant Commissioner, we decline to reconsider this matter solely on the basis of petitioner's alleged misunderstanding of the appeal process.

We reiterate that, in rendering our decision of December 6, 1995, we carefully reviewed the file to ensure that the Commissioner had fully complied with the terms of our remand, and were satisfied that he had done so. Moreover, in so doing, we also carefully reviewed the court documents submitted to us by petitioner indicating that the bench warrant arising from the 1989 narcotic equipment charge had been lifted on September 20, 1995.³ These documents, however, also revealed that petitioner had pleaded guilty at that time to the charge which had given rise to the warrant. Based upon such review, we dismissed the appeal. Petitioner has submitted nothing with his instant request that would call into question that determination.

In sum, we find nothing in petitioner's request for reconsideration that would alter our decision of December 6 or warrant reconsideration thereof. Consequently, we deny his request.

³ The Assistant Commissioner advised petitioner at his hearing held on July 14, 1995 that if the outstanding bench warrant was resolved prior to her decision, she would consider such information along with all other evidence presented in determining whether petitioner had affirmatively demonstrated his rehabilitation. No assurances of any kind were made to petitioner that resolution of that particular warrant would alter the result in this matter. We note, moreover, that the bench warrant was not resolved until September 20, 1995, after the Assistant Commissioner had rendered her decision in this matter.

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Lake & Schwartz (Robert

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office by letter of March 15, 1995 that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. We also correct the Deputy Commissioner's statement that petitioner's school employment had been as a teacher's aide. The record reflects that he had actually been employed in a custodial position.

We stress that petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On June 7, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for an expedited hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with that remand, an Assistant Commissioner conducted a hearing on July 14, 1995 and rendered her decision on October 3, 1995,¹ finding that petitioner had demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us on October 11, 1995.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of the State Board's remand. Thus, pursuant to the Assistant Commissioner's decision, petitioner is qualified for school employment, and we dismiss the appeal.

The record of this matter, which involves a budget dispute originally filed in 1990, and the notice of withdrawal forwarded to this agency by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.2 have been reviewed.

Upon review of the withdrawal in light of the standards for settlement of school budget disputes as set forth in prior decisional law and subsequently codified in N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.3, the Commissioner notes that the Union County Superintendent of Schools has found the agreed-upon restoration of $145,500 to the 1990-91 current expense school budget (of $433,280 originally in dispute) to be adequate for provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Therefore, the Commissioner approves the withdrawal and no longer deems this matter to be in controversy before him.

Accordingly, the Union County Board of Taxation is directed to make any adjustment necessary to reflect the increase to the 1990-91 current expense levy agreed upon by the parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MENT OF MICHAEL TAYLOR. : DECISION ON MOTIONS

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 7, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Sheldon H. Pincus, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Michael Taylor (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a teacher by the Linden school district, was disqualified from continued employment in the State's schools by the Office of Criminal History Review (hereinafter "respondent") of the Department of Education when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. revealed that he had been convicted of resisting arrest and assault on an officer in North Carolina in 1977. Petitioner, acting pro se, sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated February 7, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education, stressing the high degree of trust required of teachers and noting a number of non-disqualifying offenses, upheld the disqualification, finding that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.¹

Petitioner moved for a stay of that determination and, on March 30, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner granted petitioner's motion.

The petitioner, now represented by counsel, has filed the instant appeal to the State Board.² Petitioner argues that the record does not reveal whether his conviction for resisting arrest and assault on an officer involved "the use of force which results in bodily injury," as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(2) in order for simple assault to be regarded as a disqualifying offense. Consequently, petitioner contends, there was no disqualifying offense in this instance. In the event that such conviction is found to be disqualifying, petitioner requests that this matter be remanded to the Commissioner for a hearing in order to afford him adequate opportunity to demonstrate his rehabilitation.

Petitioner has also filed a motion to supplement the record on appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9, with his motion to the Commissioner for a stay, the Deputy Commissioner's decision granting the stay, a letter from the manager of the Office of Criminal History Review to the Superintendent of the Linden Board of Education regarding petitioner's disqualification and a letter from the Superintendent to petitioner terminating his employment.

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

Respondent has filed a motion to remand this matter to the Commissioner for consideration of petitioner's argument, which was not raised below, regarding whether he had been convicted of a crime which subjects him to disqualification from school employment under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Petitioner opposes a remand for such purpose, contending that the Deputy Commissioner's decision should be reversed as a matter of law.

After a thorough review of the record, we grant the respondent's motion to remand this matter to the Commissioner for consideration of petitioner's contention that his conviction for resisting arrest and assault on an officer was not a disqualifying offense.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides that a school system shall not employ any teaching staff member unless the employer has first determined that no criminal history record information exists on file which would disqualify that person from being employed in such a position. That statute further provides, in pertinent part:

An individual other than a school bus driver shall be disqualified from employment or service under this act if the individual's criminal history record check reveals a record of conviction of any of the following crimes and offenses:

c. (1) A crime or offense involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property including; armed robbery, aggravated assault, kidnapping, arson, manslaughter and murder; or

(2) A simple assault involving the use of force which results in bodily injury; or

d. In any other state or jurisdiction, a conviction involving conduct which, if committed in New Jersey, would constitute any of the crimes or disorderly persons offenses described in this section of this act. (Emphasis added.)

Inasmuch as petitioner's convictions occurred in North Carolina, it is necessary initially to determine whether his underlying conduct would have constituted a disqualifying offense had it occurred in New Jersey. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d). Although assault is included in the statute, the issue raised by petitioner on appeal results from the distinction drawn in the statute between simple and aggravated assault. While any conviction for aggravated assault involving the use or threat of force is regarded as disqualifying, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(1), a conviction for simple assault is disqualifying only if it involves "the use of force which results in bodily injury." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(2).

In this case, the record does not specify the particular provisions of North Carolina's criminal code under which petitioner was convicted of resisting arrest and assault on an officer.³ Nor is there any indication as to petitioner's underlying conduct. Consequently, we are unable to determine on this record whether such conviction involved conduct that would constitute a crime in New Jersey and, if so, what specific offense would be involved and whether it would be disqualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

Given the fact that petitioner's criminal record includes an assault conviction and that the Deputy Commissioner considered this case without resort to the proper statutory standard,⁴ we find it necessary to remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings in order to determine whether petitioner was convicted of a crime which would disqualify him from school employment in New Jersey. In the event it is determined that petitioner was convicted of a disqualifying offense, we direct the Commissioner to conduct a hearing in order to provide petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Under the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. We stress that petitioner has the burden on remand of demonstrating his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

⁴ While we recognize that petitioner, acting pro se, did not allege before the Deputy Commissioner that his convictions in North Carolina were not disqualifying, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is clear concerning the analysis required of convictions occurring in another state. Moreover, the Deputy Commissioner did not take into account the differentiation in the statute between simple and aggravated assault.

Inasmuch as those items with which petitioner seeks to supplement the record are already part of the record on appeal, see N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.8(a), we deny his motion to supplement.

We therefore set aside the decision of the Deputy Commissioner and remand this matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings in conformity with our decision herein.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
 HEARING OF R. SCOTT MC INTYRE, :
 BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE NORTH : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
 HUNTERDON-VOORHEES REGIONAL HIGH : DECISION
 SCHOOL DISTRICT, HUNTERDON :
 COUNTY. :

SYNOPSIS

Board certified charges of unbecoming conduct against tenured high school teacher by virtue of his arrest for possession of less than fifty grams of marijuana.

ALJ found that respondent was guilty of unbecoming conduct but that the one incident, when compared to his contributions to the school and his good evaluations, did not compel the conclusion that the only legitimate penalty was loss of tenure and termination. ALJ directed that petitioner be returned to his teaching position, but that in recognition of the seriousness of his offense, he forfeit 120 days' salary withheld from him by virtue of his suspension without pay. ALJ further directed that award of salary and adjustment increments for 1994-95 school year was within the discretion of the Board.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's finding that respondent was guilty of unbecoming conduct but modified the initial decision with respect to respondent's penalty. Commissioner found that possession of a controlled dangerous substance by an educator, absent mitigating circumstances, was sufficiently flagrant conduct to warrant dismissal. (In re Tordo, In re Sammons, and Redcay v. State Board of Education) Commissioner ordered respondent dismissed as of the date of this decision and the matter forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for further appropriate action.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE
HEARING OF R. SCOTT MCINTYRE,
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF NORTH
HUNTERDON-VOORHEES REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Russell J. Schumacher, Esq., for petitioner (Rand, Algeier, Tosti & Woodruff, attorneys)

Stephen E. Klausner, Esq., for respondent (Klausner, Hunter & Seid, attorneys)

Decided: November 23, 1994

BEFORE BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

On November 18, 1993, the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District Board of Education filed tenure charges with the Commissioner of Education against R. Scott McIntyre, respondent.

The charges allege conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member based on an arrest for possession of less than fifty grams of marijuana. N.J.S.A. 2C:35-10.

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13. After notice, a prehearing conference was held on April 14, 1994, by telephone. Among other things, it was agreed that the Board would move, in limine, concerning admissibility of certain evidence. The Board so moved and the respondent timely filed responsive papers.

On September 13, 1993, the respondent was arrested by a Raritan Township police officer. The officer pulled over McIntyre's vehicle at approximately 1:00 a.m. The officer observed beer containers in the vehicle. The officer had McIntyre perform various sobriety tests, which McIntyre passed to the officer's satisfaction.

Following the sobriety test, McIntyre returned to his vehicle and opened the passenger side door. The officer detected the odor of burnt marijuana in the car. He also observed a clear plastic film container partly wedged in the car seat. Upon inspection, the officer found a small quantity of raw marijuana. Following this observation, the officer proceeded to pat down McIntyre for suspected controlled dangerous substances. The officer discovered rolling papers and a plastic bag containing marijuana in the respondent's right breast jacket pocket. The substances found in the film container and in the plastic bag tested positive for marijuana.

In a January 5, 1994 decision, the Honorable John E. Weinhofer, JMC, held that the officer did not have reasonable cause to pat down McIntyre for possession of controlled dangerous substances. The court held that the pat down was not incidental to and part of an ongoing warrantless search. The evidence was suppressed.

The Board argued that evidence of possession should be admitted in this matter because the exclusionary rule does not apply to administrative proceedings. The Board cited several cases supporting its position.

The petitioner urged that the New Jersey and United States Constitutional prohibitions against illegal searches and seizures apply in administrative proceedings. The Board's argument misperceived the nature of the tenure removal proceedings, their impact on the respondent's ability to work and the purpose of Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

On July 11, 1994, I issued an order granting the Board's motion to admit all evidence previously suppressed by the Raritan Township Municipal Court. I further ORDERED that the matter proceed to hearing on September 21, 22 and 23, 1994.

On September 21, 1994, hearing was scheduled to commence in the Lebanon Township Municipal Court. All parties were present. The parties submitted a joint stipulation of thirteen facts and twenty-three documents that were placed in evidence by consent. The parties then submitted the matter for summary decision.

FACTUAL AND EVIDENTIARY BACKGROUND

The following facts were stipulated on the record on September 21, 1994:

1. R. Scott McIntyre (hereinafter "Respondent") was initially employed by Petitioner as a Chemistry teacher at North Hunterdon High School effective September 1, 1990.
2. The Petitioner renewed Respondent's employment for the 1991-92, 1992-93 and 1993-94 school years.
3. Effective at the commencement of the 1993-94 school year, Respondent attained tenure.
4. During the 1990-91, 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years, the Respondent received consistently favorable evaluations, including several which described his performance as "excellent" for a teacher with his level of experience in the District.
5. On Monday, September 13, 1993, at approximately 1:00 a.m., Respondent was arrested by Officer Nicholas Buck of Raritan Township Police Department and charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance, specifically marijuana. (Copy of the report filed by Officer Buck was entered into evidence as Exhibit P-1).

6. The Raritan Township Police Department submitted to the State Police Forensics/Science Bureau, two (2) specimens obtained by Officer Buck which were in the possession of the Respondent and which were suspected to be marijuana.

7. A certified lab report of the State Police . . . indicates that one of the above referenced specimens was determined to contain 6.29 grams of marijuana. (Copy of this lab report was entered into evidence as Exhibit P-2).

8. Certified laboratory report of the State Police indicates that the other specimen submitted was determined to contain a trace of marijuana. (Copy of this lab report was entered into evidence as Exhibit P-3).

9. The Respondent does not dispute the results of the drug analysis performed by the State Police.

10. The Petitioner certified tenure charges of conduct unbecoming against the Respondent based upon the allegation of Dr. Thomas Finnegan, Principal at North Hunterdon High School, that Respondent possessed a control dangerous substance, and, thereby, violated public trust and setting an example unbecoming a teaching staff member entrusted with the education of impressionable students. The charges were filed with the Commissioner of Education on November 18, 1993.

11. By Order of the Honorable John E. Weinoffer, J.M.C., dated January 5, 1994, the criminal charges of possession of marijuana and operating a motor vehicle while in the possession of marijuana were dismissed based upon a finding by Judge Weinoffer that the evidence was obtained pursuant to an illegal search.

12. Petitioner filed a motion in limine in the Office of Administrative Law to admit the evidence of Respondent's possession of marijuana in the tenure hearing. The motion was opposed by Respondent.

13. By Order dated July 11, 1994, the Honorable Bruce R. Campbell, A.L.J., granted the Petitioner's motion to admit all evidence of Respondent's possession of marijuana.

In addition, the Board submitted the Raritan Township Police Department investigation report and two New Jersey State Police certified laboratory reports. The respondent submitted various documents showing extracurricular assignments, observations and evaluations.

ARGUMENTS

Board's Arguments

The Board maintains McIntyre violated a public trust and set an example unfitting a teaching staff member entrusted with the education of impressionable students. His conduct constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member as that term is contemplated in statute.

The Legislature has mandated that the public schools establish instructional programs in the nature of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, anabolic steroids and controlled dangerous substances as defined at N.J.S.A. 24:21-2. Marijuana is identified as a controlled dangerous substance. The possession of it violates the State's criminal code. The Comprehensive Drug Reform Act, N.J.S.A. 2C:35-1 through -35, places emphasis on protecting children from the dangers of illegal drugs.

The Commissioner has recognized the teachers hold positions of public trust and that their conduct is the subject of great scrutiny. They are role models whether they choose to be or not. Tenure hearing of Jacque L. Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302.

Possession of a controlled dangerous substance constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member and subjects a teaching staff member to penalty pursuant to the Tenure Employees Hearing Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 through -25. In a long line of cases regarding possession of marijuana, the fact that possession occurred off school premises has had no bearing on the determination that the possession, in and of itself, constitutes unbecoming conduct. The fact that criminal charges against the respondent were dismissed does not diminish his violation of the public trust.

The appropriate penalty for the respondent is dismissal. The courts of New Jersey have recognized a strong policy about the concern of drugs in the public schools. Possession of marijuana has been determined to be sufficient to support a finding that a teacher is unfit to teach. The Board distinguishes the present case from Tenure hearing of Robert P. Valenti, 1990 S.L.D.

410. In that matter, the Commissioner affirmed the ALJ's determination that a penalty less than dismissal was appropriate. The ALJ cited in support of the lesser penalty the fact that Valenti had been employed for twenty years. The respondent in this case had just commenced his fourth year of teaching. Administrators and teachers testified that Valenti was a valued member of the staff. The respondent presented no testimony on his own behalf, nor did he present any witnesses in support of reinstating him.

The Board submits that because the petitioner smoked and transported marijuana in his vehicle, he is unfit to continue his teaching duties. Any penalty less than dismissal will lead students to believe that one may use or possess marijuana without adverse consequences. When the respondent undertook his teaching career, he began subject to strict standards of conduct that must control his personal and professional life.

Respondent's Arguments

The respondent concedes the facts set forth above and based on the stipulated facts and applicable law, requests reinstatement with loss of four months' pay previously withheld by the Board. McIntyre argues that Tenure hearing of Robert P. Valenti, 1990 S.L.D. 410, is dispositive of this matter. Valenti was convicted of possessing one hand-rolled marijuana cigarette and an additional 2.5 grams of marijuana, a disorderly persons offense. In the present case, McIntyre was not convicted.

As does McIntyre, Valenti had an otherwise unblemished record and was an excellent teacher. The Commissioner stated, among other things, Respondent contends while drug use cannot be condoned, it cannot be ignored that in this case there was no evidence of actual use, that it was clear that he was not the initiator, that it was an isolated instance and that there was no evidence deduced that he has a drug problem. Respondent cites other Commissioner of Education cases dealing with the issue of an arrest and conviction for events which occurred outside of school and which reflected a single incident in an otherwise unblemished record by a dedicated teacher. He includes among them: In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Martin Lieb, School District of the Town of West Orange,

Essex County, decided by the Commissioner July 1, 1985; In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Jude Martin, Township of Union Beach, Monmouth County, decided by the Commissioner September 2, 1987; In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Richard M Pappa, School District of the Township of Old Bridge, Middlesex County, decided by the Commissioner March 14, 1988; In the Mater of the Tenure Hearing of Greg W. Molinaro, School District of the Township of Parsippany-Troy Hills, Morris County, decided by the Commissioner June 26, 1989 and In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Richard Ramage, School District of the Township of Woodbridge, Middlesex County, decided by the Commissioner July 22, 1980.

In all the above cases, respondent claims, the Commissioner found that the matter did not touch upon or affect the respondent's ability to teach or interact with members of the school community. Respondent submits that these cases should guide the Commissioner in assessing a penalty for the unbecoming conduct established by his actions. He submits there is overwhelming evidence of mitigation including his lengthy years of service, his exemplary and unblemished record, his enthusiastic dedication to his job and the single isolated nature of the event. These circumstances, coupled with his contention that there is absence of evidence that he cannot serve as role model among those students with whom he comes in contact in the future, lead respondent to urge the Commission to adopt the ALJ's recommended penalty.

In Valenti, the Commissioner penalized the respondent four months' pay and two months' pay because of causing a delay in the Office of Administrative Law hearing, a circumstance that does not obtain in McIntyre's case.

In addition, the Commissioner invoked for one year the loss of Valenti's increment.

The result reached in Valenti, above, must be compared to Tenure hearing of Bonnie Lott, 93 N.J.A.R. 2nd. (EDU) 516. Removal was ordered in Lott because of a conviction and the nature of the offense (Lott grew marijuana in her backyard), and the quantity of marijuana involved, more than 50 grams.

Based on these cases, the respondent respectfully requests that he be ordered to forfeit 120 days' pay only, but be reinstated.

DETERMINATION

The record demonstrates and I FIND that McIntyre possessed marijuana on September 13, 1993 in Raritan Township. I further FIND that the offense McIntyre committed constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. See, Valenti, above.

This one act, when compared with the respondent's contributions to the school and his uniformly good evaluations does not compel the conclusion that loss of tenure and termination is the only legitimate penalty. The Commissioner, and therefore I, must weigh all the circumstances.

The Legislature within the last ten years has increased the amount of marijuana a person may possess and still be deemed a disorderly person rather than a criminal. It seems fair to infer from that that the Legislature does not view marijuana use as particularly heinous. Further, McIntyre's offense was not committed on school property and involved no student, teacher or school administrator. And, despite the lack of testimony on the issue, the record shows that McIntyre is a good teacher. Good teachers are not easily replaced. Valenti, above. This determination does not excuse or minimize McIntyre's offense. When viewed as a whole, however, the matter is more apposite to Valenti than Lott.

The respondent has professionally embarrassed himself. He appears aware of this and is contrite. He will have to work long and hard to reestablish his reputation among his peers. He also knows that one further misstep could be fatal to his career as a teacher. Where others are merely competent, he will have to be exemplary. The respondent is quite aware that his every act will be subject to close scrutiny by his peers and the community at large.

Accordingly, I DIRECT that the petitioner be returned to his teaching position, but that in recognition of the seriousness of his offense, he forfeit 120 days' salary withheld from him by virtue of his suspension without pay. I further DIRECT that the award, or not, of salary and adjustment increments for the 1994-95 school year, shall remain within the sound discretion of the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District Board of Education. It is ORDERED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF R. SCOTT MC INTYRE, :
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE NORTH : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
HUNTERDON-VOORHEES REGIONAL HIGH : DECISION
SCHOOL DISTRICT, HUNTERDON :
COUNTY. :

Urging that respondent should be dismissed from his tenured position, the Board initially excepts to the ALJ's determination that no student, teacher or school administrator was involved in this matter. Rather, the Board asserts, respondent's unbecoming conduct "will reach into the classroom and impede the School District's efforts" to implement its required substance awareness program. (Board's Exceptions, at p. 2) In support of its position, the Board refers to a press release from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and a statement from the U.S. Department of Education urging schools to maintain their prevention efforts in light of recent statistics showing increasing drug use among youth. Respondent opposes the use of these data, having had no opportunity to cross-examine the Board on the material contained in both documents.

The Board further avers there is no testimony or other evidence on the record to support the ALJ's determinations that good teachers are not easily replaced, and that Respondent McIntyre was contrite in view of the events which flowed from his conduct. The Board asserts, therefore, that such determinations should have no bearing on the ALJ's conclusion of law. Respondent counters that the ALJ properly concluded "from his own common experience" that, as a teacher of Advanced Placement Chemistry, he could not easily be replaced. (Respondent's Reply Exceptions, at p. 2)

Finally, the Board recasts its argument as briefed for the ALJ that Valenti, supra, is not dispositive in this matter. The Commissioner determines that the issues raised by this exception were fully and fairly considered by the ALJ, and they need not be reiterated herein.

Upon careful and independent review of the record,¹ the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's findings that the respondent in this matter was in possession of marijuana on September 13, 1993² and is guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. However, the Commissioner is not persuaded that In re Valenti,

² charges were dismissed by court order upon a finding that the evidence was obtained pursuant to an illegal search. By order dated July 11, 1994 from the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the Board was granted its motion to admit all evidence of respondent's possession of marijuana in the administrative proceedings. The Commissioner notes that respondent filed before him for Interlocutory Review of said OAL order; review was denied pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10.

supra, is determinative in the instant matter. In Valenti, it was established that respondent was an integral member of the school community for 20 years.³ A principal, teacher and guidance counselor, all employees of the board, attested to his exemplary record as a teacher, and to his rapport with his students. Id., at 411 and 412. Importantly, in that case, the Commissioner noted that the board did not specifically except to the ALJ's determination that Valenti should not be dismissed. Rather, the board requested a more stringent penalty than the forfeiture of 120 days' salary. By contrast, respondent herein was commencing his fourth year of employment with the Board, and presented no evidence of an exemplary career in the district, no witnesses in support of his reinstatement, nor testimony on his own behalf. (Initial Decision, at p. 6) Additionally, the Board in the instant matter staunchly maintains its position that Respondent McIntyre should be dismissed based upon the ALJ's finding of unbecoming conduct. (Board's Exceptions, at pp. 9, 10)

With respect to the appropriate penalty to be imposed, it is recognized that a determination of fitness for a particular position in a school system requires a balancing of interests. In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Arlene Dusel, 1978 S.L.D. 526, 531 Where unfitness for a position in a school system is evidenced

³ The ALJ notes with respect to Valenti's career in the district, "He has taught diverse subjects. He has been a tennis coach, cross country coach and head basketball coach. He has been involved in intramural sports, adult basic education, and student council. He has been an advisor to the school paper and the yearbook. He has served on the curriculum and discipline committees. He has participated in programs aimed at students, teachers, board members, administrators and parents. In 1989 he was nominated to be 'teacher of the year.' The nomination was withdrawn when he was arrested." (In re Valenti, supra, at 411)

by a single instance of misconduct, as in this case, that instance must be "sufficiently flagrant." Redcay v. State Board of Education, 130 N.J.L. 369, 371, 33 A.2d 120, 122 (Sup. Ct. 1943); aff'd 131 N.J.L. 326 (E. & A. 1944)

The Commissioner recognizes that teachers hold a position demanding public trust (In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Jeffrey Wolfe, School District of the Township of Randolph, Morris County, 1980 S.L.D. 721, 724, citing In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Ernest Tordo, School District of the Township of Jackson, Ocean County, 1974 S.L.D. 97, 98) and that "[a]s one of the most dominant and influential forces in the lives of the children," teachers are held to a higher standard of conduct (In re Sammons, supra, at 321).

Further, the Commissioner is cognizant that the Legislature has assigned to the school districts of New Jersey a fundamental role in the prevention and intervention of substance use and abuse among students (see N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-1 et seq.), that the State Board of Education has promulgated regulations to guide and encourage the substance awareness policies, programs and procedures of local districts (see N.J.A.C. 6:29-6), that this state is committed to addressing the problem of substance use and abuse among young people, and that the maintenance of an education environment free from negative influences that encourage the use of drugs is an inherent part of that commitment. (Alfredo Arocha and Lazaro Gonzalez v. Board of Education of the Hudson County Area Vocational-Technical School District, decided by the State Board of Education April 3, 1985, Slip Opinion, at p. 6) analyses which consider quantity or measure shades of misconduct are inappropriate. Furthermore, the Commissioner declines to support the inference "that the Legislature does not view marijuana use as particularly heinous." (Initial Decision, at p. 8) Inasmuch as the educators of this state serve as role models, they are required to set a good example for the children entrusted to them. In re Sammons, supra, at 321 Teachers mold the habits and attitudes of their pupils, and these pupils learn "not only what they are taught by the teacher, but what they see, hear, experience, and learn about the teacher." In re Tordo, supra, at 99 The Commissioner has noted that, "This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." In re Sammons, at 321 The Commissioner, therefore, finds that possession of a controlled dangerous substance by an educator, absent mitigating circumstances, which he determines do not exist herein, is sufficiently flagrant conduct to warrant dismissal.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts in part the initial decision of the administrative law judge, and modifies the initial decision with respect to respondent's penalty for the reasons expressed above. Respondent is hereby dismissed from his tenured position with the Board as of the date of this decision, and this matter will be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for action as it deems appropriate pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, January 13,

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Rand, Algeier, Tosti &
Woodruff (Russell J. Schumacher, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Klausner, Hunter & Seid
(Stephen E. Klausner, Esq., of Counsel)

The decision of the Commissioner of Education dismissing respondent from his tenured employment is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein. In addition, we fully agree with the determination of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) rejecting respondent's contention that evidence of his possession of marijuana, which was suppressed in the criminal proceedings against him, was not admissible in this matter.¹ As the ALJ pointed out in his decision on motion in limine, a ruling barring the use of evidence in a criminal matter does not prevent its subsequent admission in an administrative hearing, including tenure revocation proceedings. In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Dusel, decided by the Commissioner, 1978 S.L.D. 526, supplemental decision by the Commissioner, 1979 S.L.D. 153, aff'd by the State Board, 1979 S.L.D. 155.

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
January 24, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Madnick, Milstein, Mason, Weber, Farnsworth & Collazo (Jesus A. Collazo, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention
that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office by letter of March 15, 1995 that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992.

We stress that petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We retain jurisdiction.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into the 10th day of November, 1994, between the RAMSEY BOARD OF EDUCATION, ("the Board") and WILLIAM HORNEFF, ("Horneff").

A. The Board has instituted an action before the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, under O.A.L. Docket Number EDU 07280-94N, against Horneff, alleging entitlement to the sum of $6,825.00, together with interest thereon, in connection with tuition on account of attendance in the Ramsey Public Schools during the 1992-93 school year of W.H, the son of Horneff.

B. The Board and Horneff have agreed to resolve their differences with regard to the claims set forth in said matter.

C. In exchange for the mutual obligations, covenants, agreements and stipulations contained herein, the Board and Horneff agree as follows:

1. Horneff shall pay to the Board, upon the execution of this Agreement, a lump sum of $5,800.00, which payment shall be in full satisfaction of any and all claims which were asserted or which could have been asserted by the Board against Horneff in connection with the attendance of W.H., the son of Horneff, in the Ramsey Public Schools during the 1992-93 school year.

2. The within Settlement Agreement shall constitute a Release by the Board of Horneff with respect to any and all claims which were asserted or which could have been asserted in connection with the attendance of W.H. in the Ramsey Schools during the 1992-93 school year.

3. Upon execution of this Agreement, and upon the receipt by the Board of the payment referred to above, the Board shall formally withdraw the Petition filed under Docket No. EDU 07280-94N with prejudice.

4. This agreement was entered into freely and voluntarily by the parties.

hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We stress, in addition, that the statute expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision. Moreover, although the Deputy Commissioner found that petitioner's arrest and conviction in 1991 on charges of receiving stolen property "strongly offsets the attestations of rehabilitation," we note that petitioner's submissions regarding her rehabilitation all relate to her conduct subsequent to that offense.

We retain jurisdiction.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF ELOISE WIGGS. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 30, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, August 2, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, October 21, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Essex-Newark Legal Services (Carleton A. Lewis, Esq., of Counsel)

On August 2, 1995, we granted the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a custodian following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of her contention that she had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law. On August 28, 1996, following a hearing, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered a decision in which she concluded that petitioner had established her rehabilitation. On October 21, 1996, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's recommended decision, concluding that petitioner had not demonstrated her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. Accordingly, he upheld petitioner's disqualification.

Pursuant to the State Board's retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us in August 1997. No appeal has been filed from the Commissioner's decision of October 21, 1996.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner complied with the terms of our remand and provided petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of her contention that she had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Accordingly, pursuant to the Commissioner's decision, petitioner is disqualified from school employment, and we dismiss this matter.

DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

SYNOPSIS

Teacher of the Handicapped (respondent) contested Board's application to suspend her certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Board contended that respondent ceased to perform her duties before the expiration of the term of her employment and, thus, was guilty of unprofessional conduct. Order to show cause was issued on December 15, 1993.

ALJ found that the Board did not seek suspension by the Commissioner until more than eight months after the triggering event of respondent's failure to report to work after March 12, 1993. Therefore, in applying the 90-day rule and finding no evident basis for relaxation of the rule, the ALJ concluded that the order to show cause in operation in this matter should be dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision. Order to show cause was dismissed as untimely.

Record Closed: October 5, 1994

Decided: November 17, 1994

BEFORE DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 15, 1993, the Commissioner of the State Department of Education (Department) issued an order to show cause (OSC), upon motion of the Elmwood Park School District (District or petitioner), to Donna Farrell (Farrell or respondent). Respondent filed a response to the OSC on January 6, 1994. The Department transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law on January 20, 1994 for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A telephone conference was conducted on April 14, 1994. At that time, deadlines for the completion of discovery and for the filing of an anticipated motion to dismiss on behalf of respondent were scheduled. At the request of the parties, these deadlines were subsequently extended.

Respondent filed a motion to dismiss on August 31, 1994. The parties subsequently requested and were granted extensions for the filing of a reply by petitioner to September 30, 1994; and a response by respondent, to October 6, 1994. The District filed a reply in opposition to the motion on September 30, 1994. Respondent filed a response thereto on October 5, 1994, on which date the record was closed.

NATURE OF THE CASE

This matter involves a breach of contract by respondent alleged by petitioner. Respondent was employed by the District on September 1, 1992. Her last date of employment with petitioner was March 12, 1993. The parties do not dispute that pursuant to the terms of her contract, her last day of work should have been April 10, 1993. Petitioner thereafter moved for the issuance of an order to show cause by the Department directing respondent to show cause why her teaching certificate should not be suspended, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, for unprofessional conduct. As referenced hereinabove, the Department issued an order to show cause on December 15, 1993.

Respondent moves for dismissal based upon argued failure by petitioner to comply with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c). More specifically, Farrell argues that the District's actions resulting in the issuance of the OSC were not taken within a mandated time period, that the pertinent regulation applies in the current matter and should be strictly construed, and that there are no mitigating circumstances for relaxation of the regulation.

Petitioner argues that the regulation in question does not apply to proceedings such as this one and that if it does, there are mitigating circumstances, and it should not be strictly construed. For the reasons hereinafter discussed, I am persuaded that respondent's motion should be granted.

FINDINGS OF FACT

A motion for summary decision may be granted if the papers and any discovery demonstrate that no genuine issue exists regarding any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. A motion for summary decision may be served with supporting affidavits. A decision may be rendered if the papers and discovery, in addition to any affidavits, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. In order to prevail, an adverse party must, by responding affidavit, set forth specific facts demonstrating that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. If the adverse party does not do so, summary decision, if appropriate, shall be granted. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5.

Petitioner and respondent both filed exhibits in support of their positions. The content of these documents are not in dispute.

Based upon a review of the entire record, I FIND the following to be FACTS.

Farrell was employed by petitioner on September 1, 1992 as a teacher of the handicapped at the Elmwood Park Memorial High School. Respondent subsequently submitted a letter of resignation dated February 9, 1993. On February 23, 1993, the Board of Education (Board) accepted respondent's resignation effective April 10, 1993, or sooner if a replacement could be found. At some point subsequent to submitting her letter of resignation, Farrell advised her supervisor, Carmen A. Garfole (Garfole), the District's director of special services, that Farrell planned to terminate her employment on March 12, 1993.

By memorandum dated March 1, 1993 to Farrell, Garfole informed respondent that Garfole had been advised by Melindo A. Persi (Persi), petitioner's Superintendent of Schools, that Farrell's last date of employment with the District would be April 10, 1993 and that respondent had indicated to Garfole that Farrell intended to be absent on March 2, 3, 4, and 5, 1993. Garfole concluded that such absences would be unauthorized, that Garfole expected respondent to report to work on the dates indicated, and that a failure to do so would result in a recommendation that respondent's salary for the dates in question be withheld.

By memorandum dated March 12, 1993, Garfole advised Farrell of petitioner's position that respondent's contractual obligations to the District extended until April 10, 1993; that Farrell was expected to report to duty on March 15, 1993, a Monday; that a failure to do so would be considered a breach of contract; and that such failure would result in a recommendation by Garfole to Persi to petition the State Board of Education (State Board) to revoke respondent's teaching license. The memorandum referenced a March 11, 1993 discussion between Garfole and Farrell, during which respondent apparently advised Garfole that Farrell intended to terminate her employment with the District on March 12, 1993, and Garfole stated the District's position.

Persi advised Board members of the status of the situation by memorandum dated March 12, 1993, noting that Farrell's salary was withheld for March 2, 3, 4, and 5, 1994 because of absences and that respondent, despite communications from Garfole, appeared intent on leaving employment with the District on March 12, 1993.

By memorandum dated June 1, 1993, Persi advised the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Anthony C. Scalzo (Scalzo), of the situation and recommended that the State Board consider the suspension of Farrell's teaching certificate. The June 1, 1993 memorandum showed a copy being sent to petitioner's counsel. Persi subsequently inquired of Scalzo, by letter dated June 17, 1993, of the status of this recommendation.

Scalzo advised Persi, by letter dated June 22, 1993, that Persi's communication regarding Farrell's certification had been forwarded to the Department's Office of the Assistant Commissioner, and that in order for the Department's Bureau of Controversies and Disputes (Bureau) to complete its review, petitioner's counsel would have to complete an OSC and forward such to the Department for the Commissioner's signature. This letter also noted that after the Department's Commissioner (Commissioner) had signed and mailed the order, Farrell would have 20 days to reply thereto and that in the absence of such reply, a default order would be issued by the Commissioner. The letter referenced sample orders to show cause and default orders transmitted therewith.

On July 22, 1993, the Board voted to direct its counsel to file a petition with the Commissioner for revocation of Farrell's certification. Persi advised counsel of this action by memorandum dated July 23, 1993, forwarding a copy of the pertinent file and requesting that action be taken expeditiously.

Persi executed an affidavit on November 15, 1993, which affidavit was filed with the Department in support of a motion for an OSC on approximately December 7, 1993. An OSC was issued by the Commissioner on December 15, 1993. An unsigned copy of the OSC, as well as of Persi's affidavit, were served on Farrell by letter dated December 3, 1993 by petitioner's counsel. A certified copy of the executed OSC was served on respondent by letter dated December 20, 1993 by petitioner's counsel.

DISCUSSION

The Commissioner has general jurisdiction to hear and determine controversies and disputes arising under the school laws. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. The school laws address suspension of teaching certificates because of wrongful cessation of performance of duties.

Any teaching staff member employed by a board of education who, without the consent of the Board, ceases to perform his/her duties before the expiration of the term of his/her employment shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct. The Commissioner may, upon receiving notice thereof, suspend the teacher's certificate for a period not exceeding one year. Id. at § 26-10. N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.8. The issuance of an order to show cause by the Commissioner in situations involving action to suspend a teacher's certificate for wrongful cessation of duties is appropriate. N.J.A.C. 6:24-3.1(a). This procedure is not in lieu of a contested case hearing. Ibid.

In order to initiate a contested case for the Commissioner's determination of a controversy or dispute arising under the school laws, a petitioner shall serve a copy of a petition upon each respondent. Id. at § 1.2(a). The applicable regulation sets forth time limitations pertinent to the filing and service of petitions:

The petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, which is the subject of the requested contested case hearing. Id. at § (c).

The 90-day rule applies when a school district is the petitioning party. West New York Board of Education v. Lydia Gilmartin, 1990 S.L.D. 619 (Gilmartin). The Commissioner has also held that the 90-day rule applies to actions brought by local school districts pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 for the issuance of an order to show cause to suspend a teacher's certificate because of an alleged failure of the teacher to provide 60-days notice of resignation, as required by contract.¹ Board of Education, Pinelands Regional School District v. Rhonda Rehm, 1986 S.L.D. 606.

The 90-day rule applies if the action in question is not based on a statutory entitlement. North Plainfield Educ. Ass'n. v. Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J. 587 (1984) (North Plainfield). Gilmartin, supra. The court in North Plainfield held that teachers' petitions for salary credit for time spent on sabbaticals were barred by the 90-day rule. Interpreting applicable statutes, the court concluded that the increments were not based on a statutory entitlement because they were subject to annual performance evaluations. In reaching this conclusion, the court contrasted credits for military service, which credits were deemed to be statutory entitlements.²

The statute of limitations reflected in N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2 is to be strictly applied. Gordon v. Passaic Township Bd. of Educ., 1985 S.L.D. 1929, aff'd, No. A-3294-84T7 (App. Div. May 27, 1986), certif. denied, 105 N.J. 534 (1986). Dennis Moreland v. Passaic Bd. of Educ., 3 N.J.A.R. 276 (1983). However, the rule may be relaxed or dispensed with in any case where strict adherence thereto may be deemed inappropriate or unnecessary or may result in injustice. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.15.

Argued public interest, i.e., the expenditure of public funds, is not grounds for relaxing the rule. In addition, a delay in initiating the action in question because of a filing in the wrong forum or argued internal error, in the absence of an indication of misrepresentation of the other party, does not justify a waiver. Gilmartin, supra. An application for relief to a county superintendent also does not toll the time for initiating a proceeding. Robert Ellis v. Bd. of Ed., Bergenfield, OAL DKT. NO. EDU 135-81 (Aug. 19, 1981), adopted by the Commissioner of Education (October 5, 1981) (Ellis).

CONCLUSIONS

It is clear that the 90-day rule applies to the action by petitioner for issuance of the OSC which was directed to respondent. I am not persuaded in this respect by petitioner's argument that it is not applicable because a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is conceded and the Board's consequent entitlement to a suspension remedy is clear.

Respondent contends that petitioner breached an agreement with Farrell allowing her to leave her employment earlier by failing to diligently pursue a replacement. Allegations in this respect were not referenced in the motion papers. In addition, as respondent argues, there is no automatic right of a local school board to a one-year suspension of a teacher's certificate even if no defense exists to a lack of proper notice of resignation. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is discretionary. The Pinelands decision makes clear that the 90-day rule applies to actions brought to suspend certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. An administrative agency's interpretation of a statute that it is charged with enforcing is entitled to due deference. In Re Bridgewater Township, 95 N.J. 235, 244 (1984). In any event, in contrast to credit for military service, there is no statutory entitlement to suspension of a certificate because of a lack of proper advance notice of resignation.

It is clear that the triggering event in the current matter was Farrell's failure to work after March 12, 1993. The Board's pleadings were not filed with the Department until December 7, 1993, more than eight months later. Pursuant to the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions, the Board was required to file for a certification penalty with the Commissioner, not the county superintendent. In any event, petitioner did not act to seek suspension by the Commissioner until more than five months subsequent to the County Superintendent's letter of June 22, 1993.

Petitioner does not address the reasons for the delays and for filing with the county superintendent in its motion papers. However, as discussed hereinabove, the filing of an application for relief to a county superintendent does not toll the time for filing a matter with the Commissioner. Ellis, supra. Even if it did, the fact that petitioner did not file with the Commissioner within 90 days of the June 22, 1993 letter argues against adoption of petitioner's position in this respect.

There is no evident basis for relaxing the application of the 90-day rule in this case. As noted hereinabove, even the expenditure of public funds, a situation not implicated in the current matter, will not result in waiver or relaxation of the rule. Nor does filing the matter in the wrong forum nor internal errors. The motion papers do not support a conclusion that any action by Farrell resulted in delays.

As respondent argues, the fact that legal counsel was available to the Board, and the fact that petitioner subsequently did not act after receiving explicit instructions from the county superintendent, also argue in support of respondent's position. Finally, it is noted that the motion papers do not evidence communications from petitioner to respondent from March to December 1993 pertaining to the filing of the proceeding, until the blank order to show cause was issued.

I CONCLUDE that N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) is applicable to the current matter, that it should not be waived nor relaxed in this case, and that petitioner did not file with the Department to initiate the issuance of an OSC to respondent until more than 90 days after Farrell's failure to work after March 12, 1993. I therefore CONCLUDE that the OSC in question in this matter should be DISMISSED.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the OSC issued by the Department to respondent on December 15, 1993 be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge that the Board's action with respect to filing for the issuance of an order to show cause in the instant matter was untimely pursuant to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) for the reasons clearly articulated in the initial decision. The Commissioner further agrees that there is no evident basis for relaxation of the 90-day rule in this matter.

Accordingly, the order to show cause issued by the Department to respondent on December 15, 1993 is hereby dismissed.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $950,000 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $456,516 for a total General Fund tax levy of $14,856,205 for 1994-95 school purposes.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler, for Petitioner
Gary S. Goodman, Esq., for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 20, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal of a defeated budget by the Board of Education of the Borough of Roselle (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.4. The Board sought restoration, on the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient education, of reductions by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Roselle (Borough) following voter rejection on April 19, 1994, of the Board's proposed General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year. Subsequent to the defeat, the Board and Borough, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2), consulted on the defeated budget and the Borough reduced the General Fund tax levy by $950,000. Consequently, the monies in contention in this matter are as set forth below:

Proposed Tax Levy

General Fund $950,000

Amount of Tax Levy
Certified by Governing Body¹

General Fund $14,399,689

Amount of Reduction in

General Fund $950,000

On July 8, 1994, the Borough submitted its Answer to the Petition. Position Statements were received from both parties on August 22, 1994. The Board filed its Response on September 1, 1994 and its Summation on September 6, 1994. The Borough Summation was filed on September 9, 1994.

The specific reductions in the General Fund tax levy are as follows:

Account Number	Title	Rationale	Reduction
11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	Monthly billings annualized to show amount required	$120,429
11-000-100-568	Tuition-State Facilities	No expenses during prior year	97,940
11-000-270-890	Transportation - Miscellaneous	Expenses annualized and increased for current year	102,816

11-000-290-250	Unemployment Compensation	Provides sufficient amount for district	26,695
11-402-100-520	Sch. Athletics - Insurance	Provides adequate insurance for activities in budget	20,000
11-230-100-101	Basic Skills - Salaries	Provides for increase over 1993-94 expenditures	98,194
		TOTAL	$950,000

There are several issues raised by the parties in this matter that must be addressed prior to the review of the specific line item reductions. The Board claims that the Borough is in violation of the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.1 et seq. because it did not provide in its resolution the detailed reasons supporting the line item reductions. The Borough states that it could not provide the detailed statement of reasons for reductions because necessary budgetary detail was withheld during deliberations and that information received by the Borough was both inadequate and incorrect. The Board responds that the 1994-95 school budget was based on what it believed was an accurate 1993-94 budget and that it has just learned that this is not the case. The Borough statement of reasons for the reductions was submitted with its Answer to the Petition of Appeal.

The issue of a municipality's failure to submit reasons with the certification of reductions has been addressed and resolved by both the New Jersey Supreme Court and the State Board of Education (Board of Education of the Township of Deptford v. Mayor and Council of the Township of Deptford, 116 N.J. 305 (1989), and Board of Education of the Township of Rochelle Park v. Mayor and Council of the Township of Rochelle Park, Bergen County, decided by the State Board of Education July 1, 1992). These decisions make it unquestionably clear that a municipality is obligated to provide a statement of reasons for its reductions "contemporaneously with its certification of budget cuts" (Deptford, at 320) and that this requirement is not satisfied by providing reasons in the answer to an appeal. In such a situation, the State Board has determined that "a failure to fulfill that requirement shifts the burden of proof in proceedings before the Commissioner." (Rochelle Park Slip Opinion, at p. 4) Moreover, the Commissioner "is entitled to invoke a heavy presumption against the educational validity of the proposed budget cuts." (Deptford, at 320) This does not, however, automatically result in full restoration of the budget reductions. The review of the budget and determination by the Commissioner must be premised on the provision of funds to satisfy the constitutional mandate for a thorough and efficient education.

A second issue in this matter is the request by the Board that, due to the recent discovery that the 1993-94 school district budget has been overexpended by approximately $650,000, the review of the appealed budget be based on the total needs of the district rather than on the individual line items. Of particular concern in this request is the very significant overexpenditure of the prior year school budget. That problem, however, will be addressed under N.J.A.C. 6:20-2.12 when the 1993-94 audit is completed. The appeal of the reductions in the 1994-95 budget must be reviewed and determined by the Commissioner for the individual line items in question. Since all other line items in the budget have not been contested, reduced, or defended, they are not included in this review procedure.

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Mindful, then, of the balance to be applied in this standard of review, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the reduction in the General Fund tax levy effectuated by the Borough.

11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$120,429
----------------	-------------------------	-----------

The Borough states that its reduction was based on annualizing the monthly billings to determine the amount required for 1994-95. The Board states that these funds are necessary for contractual obligations to provide health insurance for its employees and that this line item was underbudgeted in 1993-94. Since funds must be provided for legal and contractual obligations the Commissioner orders the restoration of $120,429.

11-000-100-568	Tuition-State Facilities	$97,940
----------------	--------------------------	----------

The Borough states that this reduction is based on its understanding that there were no expenditures for this line item in 1993-94. The Board states that this line item is for state-mandated expenditures for pupils placed in state-operated facilities. The amount in the budget proposed by the Board is the district obligation for tuition for state facilities. The Commissioner orders the restoration of $97,940.

11-000-270-890	Transportation - Miscellaneous	$102,816

The Borough states that this reduction was based on the amount it determined was necessary by annualizing the expenditures and providing an increase for 1994-95. The Board states that the budgeted amount of $661,755 for 1993-94 was insufficient and that the $782,985 budgeted for 1994-95 is essential. The Board, in presenting these figures, is discussing the total transportation account, and not just the Miscellaneous line item reduced by the Borough. However, the Board cites a necessary amount of $782,985, yet the budget document submitted had a total figure of $902,816. Thus, even with the reduction certified by the Borough, the Board will have $800,000, slightly more than it states is necessary. The Commissioner, therefore, sustains the reduction of $102,816.

----------------	----------------------------------	----------

The Borough again states that the reduction was based on annualizing expenditures for 1993-94 and increasing for 1994-95. The Borough states that "all current staff levels are to remain the same." (Borough's Answer, Ex. A) The Board argues that the funds proposed in the budget are essential to maintain the present staff. It should be noted that, although this reduction is specified by both parties as 11-000-240-103, they are both referring to the sum of that line item plus 11-000-240-104. The Borough states that the $1,000,000 certified after the reduction is the "actual monies expended plus an allowance for raises." (Borough's Position Statement, at p. 2) It does not specify the amount of expenditures or allowance for raises. It does emphasize, however, that there should be no reduction in staff. Based on the lack of detail provided by the Borough, the commitment to maintain the present staff, and the Board's testimony that the budgeted funds in its proposed budget are necessary to maintain the staff, the Commissioner orders the restoration of $51,004.

11-000-260-890	Operations and Maintenance - Misc.	$44,430
11-000-222-300	Ed. Media - Purch. Prof. Services	60,000
11-230-100-800	Basic Skills - Other Objects	63,230
11-401-100-610	School Spons. Activities - Supplies	56,125

For each of these line items, the Borough bases its reduction on either no or minor expenditures in 1993-94. For each of these line items, the Board states that the monies cannot be justified for the specific account but are necessary to provide a sufficient total budget. As noted above, the standard of review must be restricted to the line items in dispute. Based on the facts presented, the Commissioner sustains the reductions of $44,430, $60,000, $63,230, and $56,125.

11-000-222-104, 105, 110 Education Media - Salaries $70,000

The Borough again bases its reduction on annualizing expenditures for 1993-94 and increasing for 1994-95. The Borough makes the general statement with its reasons for reductions that there should be no positions eliminated by the reductions. The Board states that the full amount of the 1993-94 budget was spent and that the amount proposed in its budget is necessary to maintain present staff and the library program. Based again on the lack of detail provided by the Borough, the commitment to maintain the present staff, and the Board's testimony that the budgeted funds in its proposed budget are necessary to maintain the staff, the Commissioner orders the restoration of $70,000.

11-402-100-800 School Athletics - Other Objects $7,180

The Borough bases this reduction on what it states are minor expenditures in 1993-94. The Board states that these funds are used for co-curricular activities, various dues, and costs for officials associated with school activities. It should be noted that fees for officials should be recorded in 11-402-100-500, not 11-402-100-800. It is also noteworthy that neither party presented any specific detail as justification for the position. Based on the fact that the reduction still provides funds for this line item and that some of the needs cited by the Board are not appropriate for this line item, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $7,180.

The Borough totally removed this account from the budget based on the fact that there were no expenditures during 1993-94. The Board states that the program was implemented because of community request and need. It states that a portion of the program could be self-sustaining but a total cut is unwarranted. Although there is strong justification for "latch key" programs in our current societal framework, the provision of such a program is not essential to a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $34,814.

11-217-100-101 Supplementary Inst. - Salaries $97,143

The Borough totally removed the salaries for this account based on the fact that there were no expenditures in 1993-94. The Board states that the discontinuance of its summer school program necessitates the provision of adequate supplementary services to its student body. Again, neither party presents any detailed documentation for its position. However, full educational services, including supplementary instruction, are required for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner orders the restoration of $97,143.

11-000-290-250 Unemployment Compensation $26,695

The Borough states that the amount certified after the reduction provides sufficient funds for the district. The Board states that a reduction in force, being utilized by the Board, would generate a greater demand for unemployment benefits. The Borough's position provides no detail, but the Board's position lacks credibility regarding any reduction in staff. The supporting documentation submitted with the budget statement lists the number of budgeted positions in 1993-94 and any increases or decreases reflected in the 1994-95 budget. There are no changes, increases or decreases, listed for 1994-95. The Board also, in the budget statement, estimates an increasing student enrollment which would not indicate the necessity for a reduction in staff. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $26,695.

11-402-100-520 School Athletics - Insurance $20,000

The Borough states that the amount certified after the reduction provides for "adequate" insurance for the limited activities in the budget. The Board states that most of this line item is used to purchase insurance for athletic teams and that the entire area of insurance was underbudgeted in 1993-94. Since it is essential for a Board to have sufficient insurance for all athletic teams, and, since the Borough did not specify the amount it considered to be adequate, the Commissioner accepts the testimony of the Board and orders the restoration of $20,000.

11-230-100-101 Basic Skills - Salaries $98,194

The Borough states that the reduction does provide for an increase in the budget according to the expenses incurred in 1993-94. The Board states that this "account" cannot be completely justified but is necessary for the overall budget. Again, funds cannot be restored to a line item to allow transfer to other line items. The Commissioner, therefore, sustains the reduction of $98,194.

Thus, for the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner determines to restore $456,516 and sustains $493,484 of the reduction in the General Fund tax levy appealed herein, as summarized by the chart below:

In addition, by letter dated December 16, 1994, the Commissioner notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end audit as it relates to the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. The Commissioner's review has confirmed the Board's position that the district has no available surplus.

Accordingly, the Union County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $14,856,205 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes by the Borough of Roselle for the 1994-95 school year.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $284,705 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $154,689, but directed that this amount be funded by appropriation from surplus.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH :

V. :

MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH : OF RED BANK, MONMOUTH COUNTY, :

RESPONDENT. :

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

For Petitioner, Malachi J. Kenney, Esq. (Kenney, Gross, McDonough & Stevens)

For Respondent, Richard T. O'Connor, Esq.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal filed on June 3, 1994, by the Board of Education of the Borough of Red Bank (Board) seeking restoration of a reduction in the General Fund tax levy in the amount of $284,705 which was imposed by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Red Bank (Borough) after defeat of the budget by the voters of the district on April 19, 1994. As a result of these reductions, the amounts in dispute are summarized below:

Proposed Tax Levy Adopted By Board of Education	Amount of Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body
$7,078,779	$6,744,074
Amount of Reduction by Governing Body	Amount of Reduction in Dispute Before Commissioner
$334,705	$284,705

On June 16, 1994, the Borough filed its Answer to the Petition of Appeal pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.6

and 7.7. On July 26, 1994, the Board filed its written submission in support of the Petition of Appeal and the Borough filed its position statement on August 16, 1994. Rebuttals were filed on August 23 and August 26 by the Board and Borough, respectively. The Borough filed a final affidavit on September 22, whereupon the record was closed.

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

In the instant matter, the Borough, upon defeat of the 1994-95 budget by the electorate, did confer with the Board as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and established a General Fund tax levy to be used for school purposes. The aforesaid General Fund tax levy was established by imposing the following line item reductions.

Account	Description	Amount
11-000-218-104	Other Support Services for Students	$39,149

Rationale: Eliminate Substance Awareness Coordinator. Similar referral services can be provided by Municipal Drug and Alcohol Alliance Program at no cost to school system. D.A.R.E. program to continue through municipal police department.

Account	Description	Amount
11-213-100-101	Instruction Grades 1-5	$134,980

Rationale: 1. Eliminate In-School Suspension Program in primary school (one staff position). Central Administration Personnel to assume discipline services, i.e. - Principal, Student Assistance Advisor.

2. Reduce regular teaching staff by two. One in Grade 4, one in Grade 5. Class size remains under 25. Current services withdrawing students from classroom results in teachers conducting classes of lower totals than enrollment figures imply.

Account	Description	Amount
11-213-100-101	Resource Center Salaries	$ 34,016

Rationale: Eliminate one resource room in Middle School. Maintain a level of one resource center at each grade level.

Account	Description	Amount
11-000-219-104	Child Study Prof. Salaries	$ 28,560

Rationale: Eliminate part-time psychologist. Duties can be transferred to Child Study Director.

Account	Description	Amount
11-000-290-290	Employee	$ 48,000
11-000-290-250	Benefits
11-000-290-241
11-000-290-220

Rationale: Benefits for six staff positions.

Account	Description	Amount
	Budget Fund Balance	Increase by $50,000 to a total surplus appropriation of $138,767

Rationale: The advertised budget retains $552,009 as unappropriated surplus. This is excessive for the financial exposure of the Board of Education and this adjustment would appropriate $50,000 from this surplus. The remaining unappropriated surplus would be $502,009.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Initially, it is to be noted that the Board concedes the additional appropriation from surplus of $50,000 and it is, thus, not a part of the reductions in dispute in this matter. The arguments of the parties as contained in their filings and the Commissioner's determination account by account are set forth below:

Account		Reduction
11-000-218-104	Substance Awareness Counselor	$39,149

The Borough argues that this position, which was established in recent years as a result of a grant and now must be locally financed, can be eliminated with the functions of addressing drug and alcohol problems being assured through the Family Life curriculum, guidance counselors, the school nurse, school social worker and psychologist. The Borough offers the additional services of the municipality's D.A.R.E. Program and the Drug and Alcohol Alliance Community Services Coordinator without charge.

The Board contends that in order to receive the grant establishing this position, it conducted a survey of drug and alcohol use by students. It reports the results revealed a pattern of drug and alcohol use by pupils at very early ages. (See Exhibit Q in Superintendent's Certification.) In rebuttal to the offer of municipal services, the Board defines the duties of the Substance Awareness Coordinator (SAC) in Exhibit R of the Superintendent's Certification and points out that the SAC conducted 491 individual counseling sessions, 13 initial assessments of students, 67 crisis intervention counseling sessions, 4 suicide assessments in addition to staff training sessions and family counseling sessions. As for the D.A.R.E. Program and the Municipal Drug and Alcohol Alliance services offered by the Borough, the Board contends that while helpful, these organizations are not equipped to provide the full-time services offered by the SAC.

The Commissioner, after consideration of the respective positions of the parties, finds and determines that the Board has successfully demonstrated the need for its substance awareness counselor and that, given the pernicious and destructive impact that drug and alcohol abuse have upon the children of our society, the providing of services directed toward meeting the needs of these children is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner directs the restoration of the $39,149 for this position. (See N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-5(e) and N.J.A.C. 6:29-6.3.)

Account	Reduction
11-000-219-104 School Psychologist	$28,560

The Borough argues for the elimination of a part-time psychologist, contending such elimination does not violate any statutory requirement since the Board already employs a Director of Child Study Services who is a certified school psychologist and who could assume the duties of the part-time psychologist as a member of the mandated Child Study Team. It likewise contends that the other duties of the part-time psychologist can be assumed by other members of the Child Study Team. (See Borough Position Statement, at p. 14.)

The Board points out that statute (N.J.S.A. 18A:46-1 et seq.) and regulation (N.J.A.C. 6:28-1 et seq.) require the services of a school psychologist as part of the Child Study Team structure. The Board contends that the part-time psychologist has a case load of 42 pupils for whom she provides counseling, conducts parent conferences, reviews progress and provides support services. (See Exhibit B of Superintendent's Certification.) It is the Board's contention that the Director of Child Study Services cannot assume the tasks of the part-time psychologist and at the same time perform the duties required of her in a job description including the supervision and evaluation of 13 staff members and the Child Study Team. (See Board's Position Statement at pp. 21-23 and Exhibit C of Superintendent's Certification.)

Further, the Board argues that it has recently negotiated a collective bargaining agreement which reduces the Director's position to a 10-month position, thereby adding to the task of that individual by requiring her to carry out designated duties over a lesser time span.

The Commissioner, after careful review of the arguments set forth by the parties, finds that the services of the part-time psychologist are required by the district in order to provide the programs and supportive services mandated by N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-5(e).

In so doing, the Commissioner notes that the number of staff necessary to provide such services varies from district to district, provided the minimal services of a Child Study Team are available. In the instant matter, despite the relatively small size of the district, the Commissioner is convinced that the case load of the part-time psychologist and the overall volume of classified students justify the continuance of this position and prevent the Director of Special Services from both carrying out the duties of supervision of the total program and assuming the role of the psychologist for the Child Study Team. Therefore, the Commissioner directs the restoration of the $28,560 for the position of part-time psychologist.

11-213-100-101	Teacher/In-School Suspension Program	$54,980

The Borough argues that in-school suspension in the primary grades is damaging to pupils and fails to address their needs. The Borough contends that removal from class results in isolating children from the classroom, reinforces poor behavior and causes children to fall behind in their studies.

The Borough argues that most behavioral problems should be handled in the classroom with seriously disruptive children being handled by the Principal and Student Assistant Advisor. It further contends that despite the existence of the in-school suspension program for several years, it does not seem to have had a positive effect on either student behavior or the learning environment as reflected in the poor test results achieved by Red Bank pupils.

The Board asserts that it has adopted a "prevention of failure" strategy aimed at children in the primary school. This program, it asserts, is in keeping with its overall strategy to provide additional educational support wherever required. The Board contends that this program is consistent with N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-5(c), (d) and (e) by providing a learning environment conducive to education and teaching self-governance and responsibility. This, the Board asserts, is accomplished by disciplining the child while allowing that child to continue his/her academic progress.

The Board points out that the in-school suspension program consists of two aspects, a time-out room for minor problems and in-school suspension for more serious infractions. It notes that in-school suspension is not a substitute for classroom discipline which is the basic mode of applying discipline. (See Board's Position Paper, at pp. 25 and 26 for fuller description.)

The Board points out that in 1992-93 and 1993-94 there were approximately 1,600 instances where children were sent to the holding room and over 100 instances of in-school suspension. (See Superintendent's Certification Exhibit H, paragraph 42.)

Finally, the Board contends that assigning an acting-out student to out-of-school suspension sends a message that school is not important and that by misbehavior one gets a free holiday. This, argues the Board, is clearly less desirable than in-school suspension, which combines disciplinary action with continued instruction.

The Commissioner has carefully considered the arguments of the parties, as well as those services required to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. In light of such consideration, the Commissioner concludes that a thorough and efficient system of education requires the provision of support services to enhance the student's ability to profit from education being offered. Surely, disruptive students coming from environments where little parental discipline takes place can profit from a program that provides structure and continuance of educational services.

As to the Borough's assertion that the existence of such program has had no effect on improved behavior or test scores, the Commissioner finds such judgment to be premature and unsubstantiated since no study has been conducted on those children who have gone through the program. It appears that the Borough's perception is based upon a continued high level of referral, but does not consider whether there is or is not a high rate of recidivism.

Consequently, the Commissioner directs the restoration of $54,980 for the position of in-school suspension teacher.

Account	Reduction
11-213-100-101 Classroom Teachers Grades 1-5	$80,000

The Borough calls for the elimination of two teaching positions budgeted by the Board, namely one fourth grade teacher and one fifth grade teacher. The Borough points out that the Board projects 93 students for grade 5 and 65 students for grade 4. With the reductions imposed, there will be four teachers rather than five at grade 5, and three teachers rather than four at grade 4.

The Borough disputes the Board's contention of increasing school population arguing instead that the Borough's population is stable.

The Borough seeks to counter the Board's position that a high level of disadvantaged Latino and African-American students (70%) and a 70% free lunch population require maintenance of small classes by pointing out the low level of achievement of pupils in the district's schools, as well as at Red Bank Regional High School, and the large numbers of parents who chose to send their children to private and parochial schools.

The Borough asserts that, despite a favorable pupil-to-teacher ratio and high per-pupil expenditures, the district's pupils do not fare well educationally.

The Board contends that it has identified the fourth grade as a period of time during which standardized test scores for pupils begin to drop off and, therefore, a grade level where additional instruction is necessary. The Board asserts it has developed a comprehensive plan for more intensive instruction at the fourth grade level to remediate the problem of declining test scores.

Finally, the Board asserts that it has the managerial authority to staff the schools in the manner it determines necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education.

In rendering a determination relative to this line item, the Commissioner notes that the Board in its final summation has provided him with a copy of the actual enrollments as of September 16, 1994, at grades 4 and 5, as opposed to projected enrollments as contained in earlier documents. (See Affidavit of September 21, 1994.) This Board document points out an actual enrollment of 63 at grade 4 (-2) and 84 at grade 5 (-9). This would result in an average class size of 21 at grade 5 if there were to be four teachers as proposed by the Borough, and an average class size of 21 at grade 4 with three teachers if the reduction were to stand.

Based upon an average class size of 21, the Commissioner concludes that the Board has not successfully demonstrated that the elimination of the two teaching positions contemplated by it at grades 4 and 5 would prevent the Board from providing these pupils with a thorough and efficient system of education. The Commissioner does not agree that a board has the unrestricted managerial authority to staff its schools in the manner it determines when its budget has been defeated. Under such circumstances, its authority is strictly limited to demonstrating that the staffing it contemplates is necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education, which it has not done in this instance. Consequently, the $80,000 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-213-100-101 Resource Room Teacher Middle School	$34,016

The Borough points out that the district employs five resource room teachers for approximately 50 students at its middle school. It contends that appropriate scheduling could accommodate these students over 24 periods available each day with four teachers rather than the current five.

The Borough contends that four teachers could provide 120 classes per week, and since the documentation provided to it establishes that very few of the pupils are taking all their subjects of Language Arts, Reading and Math, the needs of the district could be met with one fewer teacher.

The Board points out that N.J.S.A. 6:28-4.3(d) prescribes the number of students who can be instructed by teachers in a resource room at a given time. Additionally, Individual Educational Plans (IEPs) require that resource room teachers provide instruction to pupils in regular classrooms. Because of these special circumstances, it is not possible to divide the number of pupils into the number of classroom periods available in a given day. (See Superintendent's Certification, at pp. 10-12.)

Based upon the arguments presented by the parties and the evidence documented by the Board, the Commissioner determines that the fifth resource room teacher is not essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient education within the requirements of State law and regulation. First, there is some confusion as to whether the number of students served is 58 which would result in a teacher-pupil ratio of 1:11.6 or 50 which would result in a ratio of 1:10. Both, however, are below the state average for resource centers of 1:13.5. Second, the Board has presented no evidence to indicate that the scheduled pupils have extraordinary needs as to require 1:1 instruction. Finally, the Commissioner concurs with the Borough that four teachers could provide the services for these students given certain scheduling changes. These changes, for example, may include creating departmentalized programs and using the NI class for more seriously disabled pupils or converting it to a resource center. Moreover, Department of Education regulations permit larger class size in most of the grades at the middle school level as compared to that permitted in elementary grades.

The Commissioner concludes that the Board has not successfully demonstrated that the elimination of the position would prevent the Board from providing the students with a thorough and efficient system of education. Consequently, the $34,016 reduction in this account is sustained.

The employee benefits reductions are predicated upon the reduction of six staff positions imposed by the Borough. Inasmuch as the Commissioner has restored four of the six positions at issue in this matter, he directs restoration of $32,000 and sustains $16,000 in reductions.

After reviewing the within appeal based upon the record and circumstances known to, or considered by, the governing body at the time it acted to reduce the budget which is the subject of this appeal, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit. The Commissioner reviewed the audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus, in the belief that it would be an injustice to the taxpayers not to order appropriation from surplus where possible.

Upon such review, the Commissioner finds and determines that $154,689 of the district's undesignated surplus of $458,873 can be used to fund the restorations approved herein as necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education in the district. The Commissioner specifically rejects the Board's contention, in response to notification on use of the audit, that transfers of $30,700 and $23,576 for change orders relating to roofing and heating projects and $4,018 for environmental testing have reduced the audited surplus so as to preclude reallocation, as these items can be, and should have been, planned for in the district's budgeting and bonding processes without resort to surplus. Moreover, while the Commissioner accepts the expenditure of $41,808 for unanticipated special education tuition/transportation and appropriation of $23,000 to compensate for lost special education income as appropriate uses of surplus, the amount of funds remaining after reallocation ($304,184) is sufficient for the needs identified and consistent with prudent fiscal planning for other needs of this type.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner directs that $154,689 in reductions are to be restored to the 1994-95 school budget for the Borough of Red Bank, but that these are to be funded by appropriation from surplus so that the total tax General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year shall stand as certified by the Borough.

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 7, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Jerome A. Taylor, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On February 7, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education affirmed the determination of the Department's Office of Criminal History Review disqualifying Jerome A. Taylor (hereinafter "petitioner") from school employment as a security guard following a criminal history check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.¹ The Deputy Commissioner determined that petitioner had failed to demonstrate his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

On March 16, 1995, the petitioner filed a notice of appeal to the State

Board of Education.² On April 19, upon review of the circumstances surrounding that filing, our Legal Committee determined that the appeal had been timely filed, and petitioner was notified by letter dated April 26 from the Counsel to the State Board that his brief in support of the appeal was due by May 17. Petitioner, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated May 30, petitioner was notified of his failure to file a brief in support of the appeal and advised that this matter was being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of his failure to perfect the appeal. Given his pro se status, petitioner was again notified in a letter dated July 10 of his failure to file. He was thereupon given until July 28 to file a written explanation as to why he should not be disqualified from school employment. Petitioner has still failed to file an appeal brief or written explanation. Nor has he at any time requested an extension of time for such filing or provided any explanation for the delay.

The State Board of Education therefore dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :
FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MENT OF JEROME A. TAYLOR. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 7, 1995

Decided by the State Board of Education, September 6, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Jerome A. Taylor, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On September 6, 1995, the State Board of Education dismissed petitioner's appeal in this matter from a decision of the Deputy Commissioner of Education upholding his disqualification from school employment following a criminal history check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. That decision was based on petitioner's failure to perfect his appeal by filing a brief in support of the appeal. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a). Petitioner has now filed a motion for reconsideration of that decision, alleging that his address had changed and that, as a result, he had not received our letters.

After a careful review of the record, we deny petitioner's motion. In his notice of appeal to the State Board dated March 16, 1995, petitioner expressly provided his new address on Park Boulevard in Camden, which was then used on all correspondence to him during the pendency of that appeal.¹ Although petitioner contends that his address had changed, he does not provide a new address or offer any other details. In addition, we note that the return address written on the envelope petitioner used to file his instant motion for reconsideration is the same Park Boulevard address provided in his notice of appeal. Moreover, when the Counsel to the State Board wrote to petitioner at his Park Boulevard address on September 19, 1995 to advise him of the necessity to file written argument on his motion, petitioner responded by letter dated September 26, in which he expressly acknowledged receipt of the September 19 letter.

Consequently, we find no merit in petitioner's contention, and we deny his motion for reconsideration.

December 6, 1995

Date of mailing DEC 08 1995

¹ We note that our Legal Committee had determined that petitioner's notice of appeal, although filed more than 30 days after the filing date of the Commissioner's decision, had been filed in a timely manner in that the Deputy Commissioner's decision had been mailed to his former address.

Arnold S. Cohen, Esq., for respondent
(Balk, Oxfeld, Mandell & Cohen, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 21, 1994

Decided: November 28, 1994

BEFORE: ARNOLD SAMUELS, ALJ:

On January 19, 1993 the petitioner, school district of the City of Elizabeth, Union County, filed a certificate of determination and written charges against the respondent, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-5.1 et seq., seeking her dismissal from her tenured position, or reduction in salary, because of alleged unbecoming conduct, insubordination and mental incapacity. The respondent filed an answer with the Commissioner of Education on January 24, 1994.

On January 31, 1994 the Commissioner of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing and determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13.

A prehearing conference was held on May 26, 1994, and a prehearing order was entered, defining and limiting the issues to be decided, fixing hearing dates, providing for discovery and regulating other procedural aspects of the forthcoming hearing, which was scheduled for six days in November 1994.

In October 1994 the petitioner filed a motion to compel the respondent to submit to a psychiatric examination pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2. Papers in opposition to the motion were filed by the respondent and oral argument was scheduled. Additional hearing dates were also scheduled in December 1994.

The parties appeared on November 9, 1994 to begin the hearing, deal with the pending motion and discuss other procedural matters. The parties and counsel also conferred on that day for purposes of settlement, and an agreement was reached.

The settlement terms were placed on the record, and the respondent testified, under oath, that she voluntarily and knowingly accepted and agreed to the terms. In addition, the respondent stated that she entered into the agreement with full understanding of her rights, after being advised by counsel of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations to the State Board of Examiners for possible revocation of certificate, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6.

A written agreement, confirming the settlement in detail, reciting the testimony given by the respondent at the time she accepted the agreement and confirming all of the foregoing, was filed in the OAL on November 21, 1994. A copy of the stipulation of settlement, signed by the respondent and by counsel for both parties, is attached hereto and made a part hereof. In addition, a resolution of the City of Elizabeth Board of Education accepting the settlement, with the understanding that it is subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Education, is also attached hereto and made a part hereof.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms, and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.
3. The agreement conforms with the settlement standards set forth in In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner of Education on April 7, 1982, affirmed by the State Board of Education on April 6, 1993, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846.

It is CONCLUDED that the respondent entered into the agreement with full understanding of her rights, and the agreement is consistent with the public interest. In addition, the respondent was advised of the Commissioner's duty, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6, to refer tenure determinations to the State Board of Examiners for possible revocation of certificate.

I further CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved, subject to acceptance by the Commissioner of Education. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

HEARING OF:

NANCY HYNES, SCHOOL DISTRICT
OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH,
UNION COUNTY,

OAL DOCKET NO: EDU-00882-94N
AGENCY DOCKET NO: 9-1/94

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The parties to the above-matter have agreed to an amicable resolution of this litigation. The resolution is based upon agreement as to the following:

1. The respondent, Nancy Hynes, is a tenured teacher employed by the Petitioner, School District of the City of Elizabeth, Union County ("Elizabeth Board of Education").

2. In December 1993, Linda G. King, Secretary, School Business Administrator, filed tenured charges against the respondent with the petitioner, which charges were subsequently certified to the Commissioner of Education in January 1994. The charges consisted of allegations that respondent has engaged in corporal punishment and/or inappropriate physical intervention against the students under her care, has been insubordinate to the administration of the Alexander Hamilton Middle School, was insubordinate in failing to complete a psychological examination, which had been ordered pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2, and is suffering from mental incapacity, which represents a danger to her own health and safety and to the health and safety of the students with which she comes in contact.

3. The respondent admits that on October 20, 1992 she had an incident with a student. On that date, Ms. Hynes states that a student, L.W., was causing a disruption in her class. The school Vice-Principal, James Wilson, entered the class and tried to calm the student. At the time that the Vice-Principal entered the room, all the students were sitting and listening to the lesson aside from L.W., who was standing and yelling at her desk. After Mr. Wilson left, L.W. approached Ms. Hynes and pushed her. Ms. Hynes states she did not touch the student. Instead, Ms. Hynes filed a disciplinary report at the main office of school. The student in question came in front of the classroom toward the desk of Ms. Hynes, and approached her from behind the desk when she pushed her. Before approaching Ms. Hynes, the student made a number of threats of bodily harm to Ms. Hynes.

4. On or about November 12, 1992, Ms. Hynes admits that she had a discussion with Vice-Principal, Phyllis Garelick. Ms. Hynes states that she had car problems on November 12, 1992, and also had an appointment immediately after school. She told Ms. Garelick that because of this she could not speak with her. Rather than continue the conversation at a later date, Ms. Garelick continued to talk. When Ms. Hynes calmly told her she would prefer not to speak on that day, Ms. Hynes states that Ms. Garelick lost her temper and yelled at Ms. Hynes. Ms. Hynes never yelled at Ms. Garelick. She admits that she spoke about cultural differences between people. She made no reference to a "black student." Rather, she named a particular student who threw a match at her.

5. Ms. Hynes was ordered by the Elizabeth Board of Education to undergo a complete psychiatric examination pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2. Ms. Hynes did report to Dr. Harold Smelson; when he referred her to Dr. Howard Paul for psychological testing, she admits that she declined to fully comply.

6. Ms. Hynes met with Dr. Paul on February 9, 1993, as per the Board's recommendation. When she met with him, she was told that she had to take a psychological test. However, at that point, she had not received Dr. Smelson's report. She said that she would not go for any further testing until she saw Dr. Smelson's report. She left the meeting. When she ultimately received Dr. Smelson's report, it was obvious to Ms. Hynes that Dr. Smelson's report was factually inaccurate and provided no basis for sending her for further psychological evaluation. Dr. Paul told Ms. Hynes that he was going to give her psychological testing pursuant to the request of Dr. Smelson.

7. Ms. Hynes states that she was evaluated by Dr. Harry Murphy, who found that she was in the normal range of moods, that she was not in need of psychological help or psychological testing and that she could function appropriately as a teacher. Based on Dr. Smelson's report, and the statements of Dr. Murphy, she did not go for further testing with Dr. Paul.

8. Based on the hearing of this matter being scheduled for November 21, 22, 23, 30 and December 8 and 22, 1994, and allowing time for the filing of post-hearing briefs, as well as forty-five days each for the decision of the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education, the Respondent would receive her full salary through at least June 30, 1995, if this case proceeded to a hearing.

9. The Respondent understands that the Commissioner of Education has the right to review this settlement, and may accept or reject it. The Respondent understands the Commissioner has the right to refer the decision to the State Board of Examiners, to review whether or not the Respondent's teaching certificate should be revoked.

Based upon the above factual agreement, the parties hereby agree to resolve this matter on the following basis:

1. Nancy Hynes hereby resigns her position of employment as a teacher with the Elizabeth Board of Education, effective June 30, 1995;

2. The Board of Education will withdraw the tenure charges in this matter;

3. The respondent will receive her current rate of pay, with normal deductions (including health and pension), and health benefits through the date of her resignation;

4. Ms. Hynes will receive $10,000 in back pay, with all normal deductions (including health and pension), which had been withheld pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14. Any payment that Ms. Hynes made directly for Washington National Health Insurance coverage will not be deducted;

5. This agreement will be confidential;

6. If the Board is contacted by a potential employer for a reference, it will offer its standard reference, which includes dates of employment, positions held, and that Ms. Hynes resigned for personal reasons;

7. The Board will remove from Ms. Hynes' personnel file all reference to psychiatric treatment and all medical reports relating to psychiatric treatment;

8. Ms. Hynes' medical record with the Board will be kept confidential pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A et seq;

9. The terms of this agreement will not be presented in the public portion of any Board meeting;

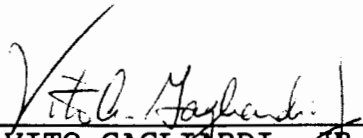

10. Other than the facts set forth in the facts presented above, this agreement shall not constitute an admission or denial by either party of any of the remaining factual allegations of the tenure charges against the Respondent; nor shall this settlement have any precedential value with regard to any of the remaining allegations;

11. The terms of this agreement shall not be effective until such time as the Board of Education has officially voted on acceptance of this agreement. Counsel for the Board of Education shall immediately communicate to the Administrative Law Judge in writing when the Board of Education has either approved or denied approval of this agreement; and

12. The terms of this agreement are expressly conditioned upon the review and approval of the Commissioner of Education. In the event the approval of the agency head is not given, the terms of this agreement shall be void and have no force and effect whatsoever.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF NANCY HYNES, SCHOOL :
DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY. :
: DECISION
: _____ :

The record and the initial decision rendered by the Office of Administrative Law in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement have been reviewed.

After a careful and independent review of the full record of this matter and the terms of the proposed settlement agreement, the Commissioner is compelled to reject such agreement as it is currently structured as he cannot be satisfied by the present record that the proposed settlement meets the Cardonick standards for settlement of tenure matters (In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, affirmed State Board of Education April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846).

Initially, although the proposed agreement provides that respondent agrees to resign her teaching position effective June 30, 1995 (provision #1), it is unclear whether it is contemplated that she resume her instructional duties during this period. Given the serious nature of the charges filed by the Board in this matter (i.e., allegations of corporal punishment and/or inappropriate physical intervention against students), the Commissioner cannot approve any agreement which may envision respondent's unconditioned return to the classroom.

Additionally, although the parties may agree between themselves to keep the specific terms of a settlement agreement confidential, they cannot seek to bind the Commissioner or, for that matter, any other individual to provision #5 which requires that "[t]his agreement will be confidential." In this connection, the parties must also remember that the Commissioner's decision in this matter is a public record.

Further, it is noted that settlement term #6 specifies:

If the Board is contacted by a potential employer for a reference, it will offer its standard reference, which includes dates of employment, positions held, and that Ms. Hynes resigned for personal reasons.

While the Board is not specifically required to provide publicly the reasons for separation, it must make such information available upon request, pursuant to Executive Order No. 11 (1974), which states, in pertinent part, that the following information be public:

a. An individual's name, title, position, salary, payroll record, length of service in the instrumentality of government and in the government, date of separation from government service and the reason therefor; and the amount and type of pension he is receiving;

b. Data contained in information which disclose conformity with specific experiential, educational or medical qualifications required for government employment or for receipt of a public pension, but in no event shall detailed medical or psychological information be released.

Moreover, the Commissioner cannot sanction terms in a settlement that would infringe in any way on the right of the Board to be fully forthcoming in responding to any inquiries that might arise concerning respondent's employment with the Board. See, e.g., John Salsberg v. Board of Education of the Town of Boonton, Morris County, decided by the Commissioner May 11, 1989.

Accordingly, the proposed settlement is rejected for the reasons expressed herein. The Commissioner hereby remands this matter to the Office of Administrative Law for further settlement negotiations consistent with the concerns expressed herein. If the parties are unwilling or unable to reach accord on a modified agreement for submission to the Commissioner, the matter shall proceed to a plenary hearing on the merits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Record Closed: March 12, 1995

Decided: March 20, 1995

BEFORE: ARNOLD SAMUELS, ALJ:

This matter involves the settlement of a contested case before the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) that was remanded by the Commissioner of Education in a decision dated January 17, 1995. The relevant details were set forth in the initial decision/settlement, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 882-94, decided November 28, 1994, and in the decision and remand of the Commissioner of Education dated January 17, 1995. Both of the above decisions are incorporated herein by reference. This decision amends the prior disposition of the matter.

The Commissioner's comments in his decision and order of remand dealt with several aspects of the settlement agreement:

First, the Commissioner noted that, although respondent agreed to resign her teaching position effective June 30, 1995, it was unclear whether it was contemplated that she would resume her instructional duties during the period of time prior to that date.

Secondly, although the parties agreed between themselves to keep the terms of the settlement agreement confidential, they did not express recognition of the fact that the Commissioner's decision is a public record.

Third, the agreement provided that if the board is contacted by a potential employer for reference, it would offer its standard reference, including dates of employment, positions held and a statement that the petitioner resign for personal reasons. However, this provision did not note that, while the board is not specifically required to provide the reasons for separations publicly, it must make such information available upon request, pursuant to Executive Order No. 11 (1974). The Commissioner further stated that he could not sanction terms in the settlement that would infringe in any way on the right of the board to be fully forthcoming in responding to any inquiries that might rise concerning respondent's employment with the board.

The agreement was accordingly remanded to the Office of Administrative law, either for revision of the settlement in a manner that would be consistent with his concerns or for plenary hearing on the merits, if such a modification could not be reached.

After consultation by and between counsel, it was decided that a revision of the settlement agreement to reflect the foregoing factors could be accomplished. A revised agreement, signed by the parties, was then filed in the Office of Administrative Law on March 12, 1995. A copy of the revised stipulation of settlement is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared the attached revised stipulation of settlement, indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the revised terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law. The revised agreement conforms with the Cardonic standards and with the concerns of the Commissioner of Education, as set forth in his January 17, 1995 decision.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE
HEARING OF:

NANCY HYNES, SCHOOL DISTRICT
OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH,
UNION COUNTY

OAL DOCKET NO: EDU-00742-95N
AGENCY DOCKET NO: 9-1/94

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The parties to the above-matter have agreed to an amicable resolution of this litigation. The resolution is based upon agreement as to the following:

1. The respondent, Nancy Hynes, is a tenured teacher employed by the Petitioner, School District of the City of Elizabeth, Union County ("Elizabeth Board of Education").

2. In December 1993, Linda G. King, Secretary, School Business Administrator, filed tenured charges against the respondent with the petitioner, which charges were subsequently certified to the Commissioner of Education in January 1994. The charges consisted of allegations that respondent has engaged in corporal punishment and/or inappropriate physical intervention against the students under her care, has been insubordinate to the administration of the Alexander Hamilton Middle School, was insubordinate in failing to complete a psychological examination, which had been ordered pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2, and is suffering from mental incapacity, which represents a danger to her own health and safety and to the health and safety of the students which she was in

3. The respondent admits that on October 20, 1992 she had an incident with a student. On that date, Ms. Hynes states that a student, L.W., was causing a disruption in her class. The school Vice-Principal, James Wilson, entered the class and tried to calm the student. At the time that the Vice-Principal entered the room, all the students were sitting and listening to the lesson aside from L.W., who was standing and yelling at her desk. After Mr. Wilson left, L.W. approached Ms. Hynes and pushed her. Ms. Hynes states that she did not touch the student. Instead, Ms. Hynes filed a disciplinary report at the main office of school. The student in question came in front of the classroom toward the desk of Ms. Hynes, and approached her from behind the desk when she pushed her. Before approaching Ms. Hynes, the student made a number of threats of bodily harm to Ms. Hynes.

4. On or about November 12, 1992, Ms. Hynes admits that she had a discussion with Vice-Principal, Phyllis Garelick. Ms. Hynes states that she had car problems on November 12, 1992, and also had an appointment immediately after school. She told Ms. Garelick that because of this she could not speak with her. Rather than continue the conversation at a later date, Ms. Garelick continued to talk. When Ms. Hynes calmly told her she would prefer not to speak on that day, Ms. Hynes states that Ms. Garelick lost her temper and yelled at Ms. Hynes. Ms. Hynes never yelled at Ms. Garelick. She admits that she spoke about cultural differences between people. She made no reference to a "black student." Rather, she named a particular student who threw a match at her.

5. Ms. Hynes was ordered by the Elizabeth Board of Education to undergo a complete psychiatric examination pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-12. Ms. Hynes did report to Dr. Harold Smelson; when he referred her to Dr. Howard Paul for psychological testing, she admits that she declined to fully comply.

6. Ms. Hynes met with Dr. Paul on February 9, 1993, as per the Board's recommendation. When she met with him, she was told that she had to take a psychological test. However, at that point, she had not received Dr. Smelson's report. She said that she would not go for any further testing until she saw Dr. Smelson's report. She left the meeting. When she ultimately received Dr. Smelson's report, it was obvious to Ms. Hynes that Dr. Smelson's report was factually inaccurate and provided no basis for sending her for further psychological evaluation. Dr. Paul told Ms. Hynes that he was going to give her psychological testing pursuant to the request of Dr. Smelson.

7. Ms. Hynes states that she was evaluated by Dr. Harry Murphy, who found that she was in the normal range of moods, that she was not in need of psychological help or psychological testing and that she could function appropriately as a teacher. Based on Dr. Smelson's report, and the statements of Dr. Murphy, she did not go for further testing with Dr. Paul.

8. Based on the hearing of this matter being scheduled for November 21, 22, 23, 30 and December 8 and 22, 1994, and allowing time for the filing of post-hearing brief, as well as forty-five days each for the decision of the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education, the Respondent would receive her full salary through at least June 30, 1995, if this case proceeded to a hearing.

9. The Respondent understands that the Commissioner of Education has the right to review this settlement, and may accept or reject it. The Respondent understands the Commissioner has the right to refer the decision to the State Board of Examiners, to review whether or not the Respondent's teaching certificate should be revoked.

Based upon the above factual agreement, the parties hereby agree to resolve this matter on the following basis:

1. Nancy Hynes hereby resigns her position of employment as a teacher with the Elizabeth Board of Education, effective June 30, 1995, and she will not resume her instructional duties during the period through June 30, 1995;

2. The Board of Education will withdraw the tenure charges in this matter;

3. The respondent will receive her current rate of pay, with normal deductions (including health and pension), and health benefits through the date of her resignation;

4. Ms. Hynes will receive $10,000 in back pay, with all normal deductions (including health and pension), which had been withheld pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14. Any payment that Ms. Hynes made directly for Washington National Health Insurance coverage will not be deducted;

5. Hynes and the Elizabeth Board of Education agree to keep the terms of this settlement confidential. They recognize that the Commissioner's Decision in this matter is a public record.

6. If the Board is contacted by a potential employer for a reference for Ms. Hynes, it will make the following information available upon request, pursuant to Executive Order No. 11 (1974), which states, in pertinent part, that the following information be public:

a. An individual's name, title, position, salary, payroll record, length of service in the instrumentality of government and in the government, date of separation from government service and the reason therefore, and the amount and type of pension he is receiving;

b. Data contained in information which disclose conformity with specific experiential, educational or medical qualifications required for government employment or for receipt of a public pension, but in no event shall detailed medical or psychological information be released.

7. The Board will remove from Ms. Hynes' personnel file all reference to psychiatric treatment and all medical reports relating to psychiatric treatment;

8. Ms. Hynes' medical record with the Board will be kept confidential pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A et seq.

9. The terms of this agreement will not be presented in the public portion of any Board meeting;

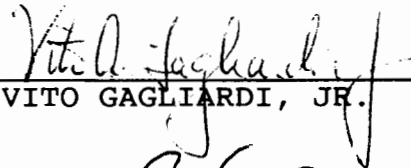

10. Other than the facts set forth in the facts presented above, this agreement shall not constitute an admission or denial by either party of any of the remaining factual allegations of the tenure charges against the Respondent, nor shall this settlement have any precedential value with regard to any of the remaining allegations;

11. The terms of this agreement shall not be effective until such time as the Board of Education has officially voted on acceptance of this agreement; and

12. The terms of this agreement are expressly conditioned upon the review and approval of the Commissioner of Education. In the event the approval of the agency head is not given, the terms of this agreement shall be void and have no force and effect whatsoever.

February 7, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Ralph McCullough, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹

A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

July 5, 1995

Based upon our review of the submissions made by petitioner to the Deputy Commissioner, we find that petitioner has shown significant evidence of rehabilitation on that basis alone. Those submissions reveal that petitioner has actively pursued both academic and vocational training since his last arrest in 1987. He received his State-issued GED high school diploma in December 1993 and successfully completed training in microcomputer repair. He also began a full-time program in office automation.² The record indicates no further arrests since 1987. We note, in addition, that petitioner was disqualified from employment as a school custodian, a position which does not include responsibility for the care, supervision or instruction of students. Additional evidence of rehabilitation on remand may include such information as counseling received or the recommendation of persons who have had petitioner under their supervision. See N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e).

Given the circumstances, we direct that the hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF RALPH MC CULLOUGH. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 7, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, July 5, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, January 18, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Ralph McCullough, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On July 5, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a custodian following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Based upon our review of the submissions which had been made by petitioner to the Deputy Commissioner, we found that petitioner had shown significant evidence of rehabilitation on that basis alone. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on November 14, 1995. On November 30, 1995, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which he concluded that petitioner had demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. The ALJ characterized petitioner as a "success story" who had made "enormous strides" since his drug-related convictions in 1987.

On January 18, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision, finding petitioner to be qualified for school employment. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Thus, pursuant to the Commissioner's decision, petitioner is qualified for school employment as a custodian, and we dismiss the appeal.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF PAUL KAISER, BOARD : OF EDUCATION OF THE UNION COUNTY : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT : DECISION
NO. 1, UNION COUNTY. :

For the Board, Jeffrey A. Bennett, Esq.

For the Respondent, Paul Kaiser, Pro Se

This matter having been opened before the Commissioner of Education on November 17, 1994 through certification of tenure charges of incapacity, incompetency, unbecoming conduct and other just cause against respondent, a tenured teaching staff member of the Board of Education of the Union County Regional High School District No. 1; and

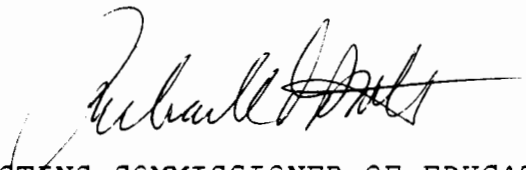

The Commissioner having directed respondent on November 22, 1994 and December 12, 1994, and again by letter sent both regular and certified mail on December 21, 1994, to file an answer to the tenure charges against him; and

Respondent having failed as of this date to comply with the directive of the Commissioner, so that each count of the charges against him is deemed to be admitted*; now therefore

*In that summary judgment in this matter is granted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.4(e), the Board's Motion for Summary Decision, filed after the expiration of the respondent's 10-day response to the Commissioner's letter dated December 21, 1994, is hereby rendered moot.

IT IS ORDERED this 17th day of January, 1995 that summary judgment shall be granted to the Board and Paul Kaiser shall be dismissed from his tenured position as a teaching staff member in the district's employ as of the date of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.7, this matter shall be referred to the State Board of Examiners for review and action as it deems appropriate.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, rified school psychologist, contended Board had no legitimate justification to eliminate a position which, in turn, led to her being rified.

ALJ found that intervenor's seniority far exceeded that of petitioner and Board's action with respect to the RIF was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Thus, intervenor was entitled to the position; petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

BEFORE STEPHEN G. WEISS, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law by the Department of Education as a contested case on December 14, 1993, following the filing of a verified petition of appeal by Maryellen Reid in which she maintained that her tenure and seniority rights were violated when, in 1993, the respondent Mahwah Board of Education (Board or respondent) determined to replace her as an .8 school psychologist (four days per week) with another psychologist whose seniority allegedly was less than her own. Reid demanded reinstatement to her position, back pay, interest, and other relief. The Board's answer asserted that Reid's seniority was not superior to that of the psychologist who it maintained in employment - Dr. Burton N. Seitler.

At the direction of the undersigned Administrative Law Judge notice of the pendency of the action was provided to Seitler and a consent order permitting his intervention was entered. On April 11, 1994, I convened a telephone prehearing conference and counsel agreed that the following issues were to be resolved:

- (1). Does petitioner, by virtue of her tenure and seniority, have a superior claim to the 4/5th psychologist position now held by the intervenor?;
- (2). Is the petition time-barred by virtue of N.J.A.C.6:24-1.2?;
- (3). Is the respondent Board estopped from asserting that intervenor has a superior entitlement to the 4/5th position of school psychologist and, if so, to what relief is petitioner entitled should such an estoppel be found to exist?;
- (4). Was the Board's action in failing to appoint petitioner to the 4/5th school psychologist position arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable and, if so, to what relief is she entitled?

A plenary hearing concluded on September 12, 1994. Briefs have been submitted and the following constitutes my initial decision.

JOINT STIPULATION OF FACTS

At the outset of the hearing counsel agreed to a joint stipulation of facts (Exhibit J-1) to which they attached a variety of pertinent documents (Exhibits J-2 through J-9). Those stipulated facts are as follows:

- (1). The petitioner, Maryellen Reid, was first employed by Mahwah as a school psychologist for the 1987-88 school year.
- (2). She became a tenured employee effective September 1, 1990, and continued to serve as a member of the child study team.
- (3). In May 1993 the Mahwah School Board decided to abolish the position held by Dr. Seitler.
- (4). On July 27, 1993, a letter was written to petitioner by Assistant Superintendent Salkin, a copy of which letter is attached hereto [to the Joint Stipulation] as Exhibit J-6.

TESTIMONY

A. FOR PETITIONER

Oral testimony on behalf of the petitioner was offered exclusively by Ms. Reid. She began her employment as a school psychologist in Mahwah in September 1987, and was employed there continuously until the end of June 1993 when she was "rified." Over the course of her six years of employment by the Mahwah Board petitioner's work week gradually increased from two days to four days. Between January 1991 and June 1993, her last two years, she had been a 4/5th or .8 employee.

Sometime during May 1993, Reid learned informally that Seitler's one day per week position was to be abolished (Exhibit J-3). Seitler worked at Mahwah High School as an "in-school counselor" but was not a member of any child study team. Reid did not immediately perceive the abolition of Seitler's one day per week position to be a "threat" to her employment since she considered their functions to be completely different. Also, Reid was informed in an "unofficial" manner by a secretary that Seitler did not expect to remain employed in Mahwah if his one-day per week position was eliminated.

Nevertheless on June 4, 1993, Stuart D. Salkin, Mahwah's Assistant Superintendent of Schools, informed Reid, both orally and in writing (Exhibit J-4), that since Seitler had greater seniority in the district than Reid he would be retained in employment and Reid would have to be terminated. Salkin told her, however, that the Board was "unhappy" over the prospect of Reid's termination and was going to try to "work something out." However, as of June 30, 1993, petitioner had heard nothing further and she assumed the Board would take action officially to terminate her at its July 7, 1993 meeting. However, that evening a message was left for her on her home answering machine from Salkin to the effect that he had "good news" for her. Reid called Salkin back the next morning and learned that the Board had taken no action the previous evening with respect either to the abolition of Seitler's position and/or the termination of her employment (Exhibit J-5). Indeed, Salkin led her to believe, she said, that she should not pursue other employment opportunities since she likely would be returning to Mahwah in September.

However, in late July 1993 petitioner received another letter from Salkin informing her that she would be terminated by official Board action on September 1 (Exhibit J-6.) Petitioner called Salkin and he confirmed that Seitler, not she, would be remaining in employment and that Seitler had threatened to sue the Board if he were not appointed to the school psychologist position which previously had been held by Reid. The official termination of petitioner's employment took place on September 1, when the Board passed a resolution to that effect and on September 7 she was informed of the action by letter from the Superintendent of Schools (Exhibit J-9).

While employed in Mahwah as a school psychologist on an .8 basis during 1992-93, the petitioner was paid $39,124. (Exhibit J-8) In 1993-94, and again this school year, she is employed as a part-time school psychologist in another school district. In 1993-94 she earned $13,600 and this year she will earn $13,900. She does not receive any medical or dental benefits.

On cross-examination, petitioner revealed that although she originally decided to turn down an employment offer when Salkin advised her in early July 1993 that she likely would be returning to the district, she eventually did accept another job beginning in September 1993. Also, with respect to her telephone conversation with Salkin on July 8, 1993, petitioner insisted he clearly led her to believe she would be coming back to work in Mahwah in September, although she never received any written confirmation to that effect. Thus, when Reid received the letter of July 27, 1993, advising that she would not be employed (Exhibit J-6), she was upset and confused by it.

Finally, Reid noted that there had been a special services department reorganization early in the 1992-93 school year and her child study team had been relocated from the high school to a separate building. She also agreed that prior to 1987 Seitler had been a full member of a child study team, but over time he cut back to one day per week before she even began her employment in 1987.

B. FOR THE BOARD

Testimony on the Board's behalf was presented by Assistant Superintendent Salkin. He insisted that when he spoke to Reid on July 8, 1993, he told her only that the Board had not taken any action the previous evening and that, "things appear to be as they were." He could not recall telling her that she definitely would return to work in September.

On cross-examination, Salkin agreed there was a resolution introduced at the July 7 meeting proposing termination of the petitioner, but that a second to that resolution was withdrawn (Exhibit J-5). According to Salkin, the reasons for the Board's decision to abolish Seitler's one day per week psychologist position were two-fold: (a) electoral defeat of the 1993-94 school budget and consequent municipal council cuts; and (b) a belief that there was no longer a need as a result of the reorganization for the "in-school counselor" position at the high school. However, Salkin conceded there was a belief that with the abolition of his one day per week position Seitler would chose not to continue in employment in Mahwah..

C. TESTIMONY FOR SEITLER

Seitler testified that he has been employed as a school psychologist in Mahwah since September 1969 and has performed a variety of services in that capacity (Exhibit J-7). He worked full-time from 1969-70 until 1980-81 when he began to reduce his number of workdays from five to three, then to two and finally to one day per week. There also were changes in the grade level responsibilities which he had.* Last year, with the child study team reorganization, he rejoined the child study team on a 4/5th basis to replace Reid.

Seitler also recalled having a discussion with Reid after he was advised in May 1993 that his one day per week position would be abolished and that he would be reassigned to the high school to be a member of the child study team. Seitler said he told Reid at that time that he felt badly about the consequence of the change (Reid would have to be terminated because of Seitler's greater seniority), but he was going to insist on recognition of his tenure and seniority rights to the position. He also pointed out that although he disagreed personally with the soundness of the Board's decision to abolish the one day per week in-school counselor position which he held, and that he sent a memorandum to Salkin to that very effect (Exhibit J-2), that staffing change was the Board's decision to make. However, once the decision was made he determined that he would invoke his superior seniority rights and remain in employment on a more active basis - four days per week.

* There is some question as to Seitler's precise employment status in 1979-80 when he was paid by the Ramapo-Indian Hills District, but "assigned" to Mahwah (Exhibit J-7). However, in terms of his years of service viz-a-viz Reid, the interruption is not relevant.

Seitler, like Salkin, observed that elimination of his one day per week position resulted from the defeat of the 1993-94 school budget and the conclusion by the administration that there was no longer any need for a school psychologist to function as he did - one day per week, as a counselor. Although Seitler reiterated that professionally he was not in favor of the change, he insisted that at no time did he indicate in any formal way to anyone in authority that he did not intend to remain employed in Mahwah if his one day per week position was abolished. To the contrary, both orally and in writing he took the consistent position that on the basis of his tenure and seniority as a certified school psychologist in Mahwah dating back to 1969, he had a superior entitlement to the four day per week position held by Reid.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having reviewed the testimony and the documentary evidence in this case I herewith make the following express Findings of Fact in addition to those contained in the Joint Stipulation:

- (1). As set forth on her employment record card (Exhibit J-8) the petitioner's service as a school psychologist in Mahwah beginning in 1987-88 was as follows:
 - (a) 1987-88, 2/5th service at the high school;
 - (b) 1988-89, 2/5th then 3/5th;
 - (c) 1989-90, 3/5th then 4/5th;
 - (d) 1990-91, 3/5th then 4/5th;
 - (e) 1991-92, 4/5th; and
 - (f) 1992-93, 4/5th
- (2) Intervenor Seitler's employment in Mahwah as set forth on his employment record card (Exhibit J-7) was as follows:
 - (a) 1969-70, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (b) 1970-71, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (c) 1971-72, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (d) 1972-73, full time at both the high school and elementary school;

- (e) 1973-74, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (f) 1974-75, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (g) 1975-76, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (h) 1976-77, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (i) 1977-78, full time at both the high school and elementary school;
 - (j) 1978-79, full time at both the high school and elementary school.
- (3) For the 1979-80 school year the intervenor's position was abolished but he was employed by the Ramapo-Indian Hills School District and assigned to perform his school psychologist services in the Mahwah School District (Exhibits J-7).
- (4) Beginning in 1980-81 intervenor again worked as a full-time school psychologist for and in Mahwah at both the high school and at the elementary school and he continued in that capacity in 1981-82 (Exhibit J-7).
- (5) Beginning in 1982-83 and continuing through the 1983-84 school year, intervenor worked 4/5th as a school psychologist at the high school and the elementary school (Exhibit J-7).
- (6) In 1984-85 and 1985-86 intervenor worked 3/5th as a school psychologist at the high school and elementary school.
- (7) In 1986-87 intervenor worked 2/5th as a school psychologist at the high school and at the elementary school. (Exhibit J-7).
- (8) Between 1987-88 and 1992-93 intervenor worked 1/5th as a school psychologist either at the high school and the elementary school or exclusively at the high school (Exhibit J-7).
- (9) Beginning in 1993-94 and continuing to date intervenor has worked 4/5th as a school psychologist at the high school and at the elementary school (Exhibit J-7).

- (10) At the annual school election held in April 1993 the proposed Mahwah school budget was rejected by the electorate and subsequent to that action intervenor was advised that his 1/5th position would be abolished (Exhibit J-2).
- (11) Soon thereafter, intervenor sent a memorandum to Assistant Superintendent Salkin wherein he declared his intention to exercise his rights to any other school psychologist position in the district to which his tenure and seniority entitled him (Exhibit J-2).
- (12) By letter dated June 4, 1993, petitioner was advised by Salkin that she would not be employed in Mahwah for the 1993-94 school year because of Seitler's superior entitlement to the remaining school psychologist position (Exhibit J-4).
- (13) Although the Board was scheduled to take action formally at its meeting of July 7, 1993, to terminate petitioner in her employment, the motion to do so was withdrawn (Exhibit J-5).
- (14) By letter dated July 27, 1993, petitioner was again formally notified that she would not be employed for the 1993-94 school year (Exhibit J-6).
- (15) On September 1, 1993, the Board took formal action terminating petitioner in her employment and she was notified of this action by letter dated September 7, 1993 (Exhibit J-9). At the time the Board formally acted to terminate petitioner it also agreed to provide her with sixty days pay in the nature of a "severance."
- (16) In both the 1993-94 and 1994-95 school years petitioner was employed as a school psychologist in another school district on a two days per week basis at a salary of $13,600 during 1993-94 and $13,900 during 1994-95. She does not receive any medical or dental benefits in this employment.

DISCUSSION

The issues to be determined as set forth in the prehearing order included whether the petition was time-barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2. Since the Board's answering brief apparently concedes that Reid's petition was filed in timely fashion that separate defense has been withdrawn and will not be addressed.

The major issue, of course, concerns the propriety of the Board's reduction in force action leading to petitioner's loss of her employment. Therefore, a comparison must be made of the respective years of service devoted by petitioner and Seitler to their school psychologist positions. It is clear from that comparison that Seitler indeed has greater seniority than does Reid when the standards for determining seniority are applied to their respective employment histories. See N.J.A.C. 6:3-5.1. As set forth at page 10 of intervenor's brief, petitioner's total seniority is .8 of a year at the elementary level and 3.8 years at the secondary level. By comparison, Seitler's seniority for the period of his employment in Mahwah totals 16.4 years both at the elementary level and at the secondary level. Thus, it is undeniable that intervenor's seniority far exceeds that of petitioner. The remaining question, therefore, is whether there is some intervening factor either statutory or otherwise, which ought to interrupt what normally would be the application of the seniority principles to the benefit of Seitler.

According to petitioner, despite the superior length of Seitler's service "on paper," a distinction should be drawn in her favor in light of his employment on a 1/5th basis for the entire time Reid worked on a 4/5th basis. No authority is cited for that novel proposition and none has been found by me. So long as both were employed in the same category the calculation must be purely mathematical. To open up the inquiry to alleged qualitative differences based upon days worked per week would introduce unacceptable uncertainties and cannot be tolerated.

A major argument advanced by petitioner both at the hearing and in her post-hearing brief is her claim that the Board should be "estopped" from denying her entitlement to the 4/5th school psychologist position since her "involvement" with the day-to-day Mahwah child study team activities was substantial during the six year period of her employment, whereas intervenor's "involvement" played only a "very minor part" in light of his more varied professional activities. The tenure laws, she asserts ought to be designed to protect persons like her who dedicate their professional lives to particular institutions and systems rather than to persons, like Seitler, whose "attachment" to Mahwah had become so "limited and tenuous." According to petitioner this is a factor which provides an "equitable" basis for relief since it would appear that beginning in 1987-88 Seitler essentially had determined to abandon any intention to have full or nearly full-time school employment, having reduced his workload in Mahwah to one day per week. As petitioner summarizes in her brief, the Commissioner should look to the "realities of what is best for the school children of Mahwah and reject the Board's robot-like application of tenure and seniority."

The Board, in response, notes that the novel estoppel argument advanced by Reid finds no support in statutory or case law. Moreover, estoppel is a doctrine which is rarely invoked against governmental entities in light of the public interest involved. See, e.g., W. V. Pangborne v. N.J. Department of Trans., 116 N.J. 543, 553 (1989); O'Malley v. Department of Energy, 109 N.J. 309, 316 (1987); Juliano v. Ocean Gate Borough, 214 N.J. Super. 503 (Law Div. 1986); Garcia v. Snedeker, 199 N.J. Super. 254, (App. Div. 1985). Thus, in this case the petitioner should not have labored under any misapprehension with respect to whether or not her employment in Mahwah would be continued for the 1993-94 school year, especially after she received Salkin's July 27, 1993 letter. While arguably Reid may have continued to hope that some sort of accommodation would be worked out between Seitler and herself, she knew or should have known that Seitler's seniority clearly was superior to her own and no realistic expectation of employment was in the offing absent some sort of major change in Seitler's expressed intention to invoke his superior claim to remain in employment in Mahwah.*

* Although it appears that Seitler may have continued to leave the impression that he would give up employment in Mahwah after all (see Board's brief, pp. 9-10), his formal, official position was to the contrary

Finally, the Board and Seitler argue that petitioner also has failed to demonstrate that the Board's action in determining to implement a reduction in force in the school psychologist position was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Faced with a budget defeat, the need to attempt to conserve its financial resources, and a judgment that it no longer needed the 1/5th psychologist position, the Board saw fit to make the personnel change. Whether, in retrospect, the Board action saved any money is not relevant so long as there is no competent proof that the decision was taken in bad faith or was the product of some malevolent motive. The Board's exercise of discretion is entitled to a presumption of correctness and even if I, as an administrative law judge or, indeed, the Commissioner, disagree with its soundness, the Legislature has vested this sort of decision-making in the Board. Even the exercise of bad judgment, if innocent, is not sufficient to set the employer's decision aside. See, e.g., Maywood Board of Ed. v. Maywood Education Association, 168 N.J. Super. 45 (App. Div. 1979).

Accordingly, I agree totally with the positions taken by the Board and Seitler. In light of the Findings of Fact it is clear that the Board's actions (a) abolishing the 1/5th school psychologist's position held by Seitler; (b) terminating the employment of petitioner and; (c) appointing Seitler to the 4/5th position previously held by Reid were proper and will not be set aside. Seitler's seniority patently was superior to Reid's and entitled him to appointment to the position he now holds.

CONCLUSION

I therefore CONCLUDE for the reasons set forth herein that the verified petition of appeal should be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton,

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and replies thereto of both respondent Board and intervenor were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Petitioner additionally submitted a reply to the reply exceptions of the Board and intervenor. As N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 makes no provision for the submission of replies to reply exceptions, these cannot be considered in the Commissioner's determination herein.

The Commissioner determines that petitioner's exceptions essentially recast and reiterate her arguments advanced before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) which the Commissioner determines were fully considered and addressed in the initial decision and need not be herein repeated.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter including the exceptions and replies of the parties, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the ALJ that petitioner has failed to establish that the Board's exercise of its statutory authority pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 with respect to the reduction in force action leading to petitioner's loss of employment was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the Office of Administrative Law is adopted as the final decision in this matter for the reasons clearly articulated therein and the within Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $200,933 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $200,933 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $538,765 for the 1994-95 school year.

JANUARY 20, 1995

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF THE BOROUGH OF AUDUBON PARK, : DECISION CAMDEN COUNTY. :
_____ :

For Petitioner, Michael D. Markey, Esq. (Capehart & Scatchard, P.A.)
For Respondent, Joseph M. Nardi, III, Esq.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on July 19, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Borough of Audubon Park (Board), seeking inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund Tax Levy of a cap waiver in the amount of $200, 933. This amount, submitted to the voters of Audubon Park pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), had been rejected by them at the annual school election on April 19, 1994.

On March 30, 1994, the Camden County Superintendent of Schools had approved the Board's cap waiver request as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E), after reviewing the entire proposed school budget to determine whether further reallocation could be accomplished within the base budget so as to obviate the need for a cap waiver. Having determined that no such reallocation was possible, the County Superintendent approved the budget for submission to the voters of the district on the condition that, should the budget or cap waiver question be rejected, the district must file appropriate appeals with the Commissioner of Education. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

The line-item amount approved for submission to the voters as a T & E cap waiver was as follows:

Account Title	Account Number	Dollar Amount
Tuition to Other LEAs - Regular	11-000-100-561	$200,933
Total Amount of T & E Cap Waiver:		$200,933

At the annual school election, in addition to defeating the Board's cap waiver question, the voters of the district also defeated the Board's General Fund Budget proposition, which had included within it a $543 cap waiver approved by the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) based on increased enrollment. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, the Mayor and Council of Audubon Park (Borough) reviewed the defeated budget, determined not to make any reductions and accordingly certified to the Camden County Board of Taxation a tax levy amount of $337,832 as had been proposed by the Board.

An answer to the instant cap waiver petition was filed by the Borough on August 26, 1994. Subsequently, position statements were filed by both parties, as was a reply by the Borough to the Board's position statement. In addition, the record of this matter includes the affidavit and supporting documents of the County Superintendent dated August 2, 1994, which served to attest to the process of review and analysis that led to his conclusion, and that of the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review Panel, that the requested cap waiver funds were both necessary for T & E and unable to be reallocated from within the base budget. Further, as the parties were notified on December 16, 1994, the record was augmented by official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus; no comments regarding this issue were received from the parties. Official notice was also taken of the tuition bill which is the subject of the instant cap waiver request when that document was submitted by the County Superintendent on November 29, 1994. On December 30, 1994, the expiration date for submission of comments in response to the County Superintendent's tuition bill submission, the record of this matter was closed.

Board's Position

In its papers, the Board argues that a cap waiver of $200,933 is necessary in order for the Board to pay a regular tuition bill of $883,425 to the Audubon School District for education of Audubon Park's approximately 135 students, Audubon Park being a non-operating school district with no schools of its own. Specifically, the Board must satisfy a bill for 7 Kindergarten students at $3,790 each for a total of $26,530; 54 students in grades 1-5 at $6,128 each for a total of $330,912; 31 students in grades 6-8 at $6,025 each for a total of $186,775; 29 students in grades 9-12 at $6,842 each for a total of $198,418; 2 perceptual impaired students at $9,720 each for a total of $19,440; 1 pre-school handicapped student at $8,408, 5 secondary resource room students at $9,884 each for a total of $49,420; and 6 elementary resource room students at $10,587 each for a total of $63,522; for a grand total of $883,425 in estimated charges. The Board argues that, because Audubon Park is a non-operating district and has no real budget apart from tuition payments to Audubon, there is no possibility of reallocation so as to obviate the need for a cap waiver.

Borough's Position

The Borough contends that the Board has not met its burden of demonstrating that the requested cap waiver funds are necessary for provision of T & E. In support of its contention, the Borough relies on the following statement within the above-referenced affidavit of the County Superintendent:

[The reallocation analysis performed using standard department procedure] was the basis upon which we determined that we would not recommend [that] any reallocation of appropriations, increase in revenue or additional appropriation of fund balance be made in the base budget to the Department's Cap Waiver Review Panel (the Panel). We further determined that the budget reflected maintenance of and was sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient education. (Emphasis supplied by Borough)

The Borough interprets this statement as meaning not that reallocation was not possible, but that no relocations were recommended because the base budget was sufficient in and of itself for the district to provide T & E. This being the case, no cap waiver is necessary and the Board cannot meet the standard established by Edgewater, infra, and Rutherford, infra, for the Commissioner to order such a waiver where the voters have rejected it. The Borough further argues that, even setting aside the County Superintendent's statements, the Board made no showing that the funds requested were necessary for T & E or that attempts were made to reallocate so as to obviate the need for a waiver.

Commissioner's Determination

Upon review and consideration of the papers filed by the parties, together with the affidavit and supporting documents of the County Superintendent, the Commissioner concludes that the tax levy of $337,832 certified by the Borough, together with the $200,933 cap waiver requested herein, in fact represents the minimal amount necessary for provision of a thorough and efficient system of education in the Audubon Park school district.

The Commissioner rejects the Borough's contention that the County Superintendent found the Board's base budget sufficient without further waiver, as that contention relies on a single statement taken out of context and is belied by the very fact of the Board's budget having been approved subject specifically to the condition that the Board obtain a cap waiver either through voter acceptance or appeal to the Commissioner. The Commissioner further rejects the Borough's contention that the Board did not meet applicable standards for granting of a cap waiver, as examination of the Board's budget shows the amount of the tuition bill at issue to exceed the Board's entire General Fund Budget of $809,170 absent a cap waiver, and further shows that reallocation within the budget's few non-tuition accounts, which represent pupil transportation costs and modest administrative and maintenance appropriations, would be impossible. (In this context, the Commissioner also notes that, as indicated above, the Borough reviewed this base budget pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and identified no area which could be reduced while still permitting the district to provide for T & E.) Thus, the Commissioner is satisfied that the amount of cap waiver monies requested herein is both fully necessary for purposes of T & E and unable to be derived from further reallocation within the base budget or by appropriation from the Board's undesignated surplus of $47,709. (Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, Bergen County, State Board decision July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, State Board decision July 6, 1994)

Accordingly, the Camden County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments to reflect an additional $200,933, for a total of $538,765, to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the Audubon Park Board of Education for the 1994-95 school year.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $208,869 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $208,869 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $806,820 for the 1994-95 school year.

JANAURY 20, 1995

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF THE NEW HANOVER SCHOOL : DECISION
DISTRICT, BURLINGTON COUNTY. :
_____ :

For Petitioner, Dennis C. Germano, Esq. (Hulse & Germano)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on May 25, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the School District of New Hanover (Board), seeking inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund Tax Levy of a cap waiver in the amount of $208,869. This amount, submitted to the voters of the Township of New Hanover and the Borough of Wrightstown pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), had been rejected by them at the annual school election on April 19, 1994.

On April 11, 1994, the Burlington County Superintendent of Schools had approved the Board's cap waiver request as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E), after reviewing the entire proposed school budget to determine whether or not further reallocation could be accomplished within the base budget so as to obviate the need for a cap waiver. Having determined that no such reallocation was possible, the County Superintendent approved the budget for submission to the voters of the district on the condition that, should the budget or cap waiver question be rejected, the district must file appropriate appeals with the Commissioner of Education. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

The line-item amount approved for submission to the voters as a T & E cap waiver was as follows:

Account Title	Account Number	Dollar Amount
Tuition to Other LEAs - Regular	11-000-100-561	$208,869
Total Amount of T & E Cap Waiver:		$208,869

At the annual school election, in addition to defeating the Board's cap waiver question, the voters of the district also defeated the Board's General Fund Budget proposition. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, the governing bodies of the Township of New Hanover and the Borough of Wrightstown reviewed the defeated budget and, by resolutions dated May 4, 1994, certified to the Burlington County Board of Taxation a tax levy amount of $597,951, which represented a reduction of $26,000 from the tax levy of $623,951 proposed by the Board. Appeal of this reduction was made to the Commissioner by way of a petition filed on May 16, 1994, but subsequent changes in circumstance led the Board to accept the reduction in the belief that it could still provide for T & E. Upon review of the reduced budget by the County Superintendent and assurances from him that it was sufficient for T & E contingent on pursuit of cap waiver funds concurrently on appeal, by letter decision dated November 23, 1994, the Commissioner approved the Board's withdrawal of its base budget appeal and directed continuation of proceedings on the cap waiver question. During the course of such proceedings, neither governing body elected to participate in the appeal, and in the Board's various filings, it was represented without opposition that neither governing body objected to the Board's cap waiver appeal.

In addition to the petition and subsequent position statement filed by the Board, the record of this matter includes the affidavit and supporting documents of the County Superintendent dated July 29, 1994, which served to attest to the process of review and analysis that led to his conclusion, and that of the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review Panel, that the requested cap waiver funds were both necessary for T & E and unable to be reallocated from within the base budget. Further, as the parties were notified on December 19, 1994, the record was augmented by official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. Upon receipt of the parties' comments regarding the audited surplus on December 22, 1994, the record of this matter was closed.

Board Position

In its papers, the Board argues that a cap waiver of $208,869 is necessary in order for the Board to pay a regular tuition bill of over $450,000 to the Bordentown Regional High School District for education of New Hanover's grade 9-12 students; specifically, the Board must satisfy a bill for 57 students at $8,020 each plus $5,675.20 in 1991-92 adjustments, for a total of $462,815.20, an amount more than anticipated due to an increase in high school enrollment. Moreover, $52,531 of the Board's cap Waiver request is a direct result of the district having allocated this amount from its base budget to surplus at the direction of the County Superintendent and the Cap Waiver Review Panel in order to maintain a sufficient level of surplus. (This representation is corroborated by the affidavit of the County Superintendent, and examination of the district's 1993-94 audit shows that the Board would have been left with less than $200 undesignated surplus had the recommended allocation not been made.)

In terms of ability to reallocate further, the Board notes that it operates a K-8 district consisting of one class per grade, so that class sizes cannot be increased to accomplish savings. It further notes that the number of high-risk pupils in the district militates against further decreasing student support services. Finally, the Board observes that its budget was carefully reviewed by two governing bodies which could only identify $26,000 in possible cuts, and even these were due to circumstances which had changed since initial development of the proposed budget. Moreover, the County Superintendent's affidavit indicates that the original cap waiver under discussion following the above-mentioned reallocation to surplus was $244,843, and that this amount was reduced to $209,917 by further reallocation within the base budget made possible by the district's reorganization of its basic skills program and elimination of one basic skills teacher. (Discovery of a calculation error led to the amount being further reduced to $208,869, the final amount requested of the voters and at issue on appeal.)

Commissioner's Determination

Upon review and consideration of the papers filed by the Board in conjunction with both its base budget and cap waiver appeals, together with the affidavit and supporting documents of the County Superintendent, the Commissioner concludes that the tax levy of $597,951 certified by the governing bodies, together with the $208,869 cap waiver requested herein, in fact represents the minimal amount necessary for provision of a thorough and efficient system of education in the New Hanover school district. The Commissioner is satisfied that the amount of cap waiver monies requested herein is both fully necessary for T & E and unable to be derived from further reallocation within the base budget or by appropriation from the Board's audited undesignated surplus of $52,693. (Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, Bergen County, State Board decision July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, State Board decision July 6, 1994)

Accordingly, the Burlington County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments to reflect an additional $208,869, for a total of $806,820 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the New Hanover Board of Education for the 1994-95 school year.

MENT OF JAMES A. COX, JR. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 28, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, James A. Cox, Jr., pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹ Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. Such review must also include a determination as to whether any criminal history record information pertaining to petitioner exists on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, see N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, in that such information is not included in the record before us. The proceedings on remand should also include determination of the disposition of petitioner's February 1991 arrest for possession of marijuana. We stress, in addition, that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction or sentencing relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision.

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

SEPT. 6, 1995

Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We retain jurisdiction.

MENT OF JAMES A. COX, JR. : DECISION ON REMAND
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 28, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, September 6, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, January 2, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, James A. Cox, Jr., pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On September 6, 1995, we granted the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a substitute teacher following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing. Petitioner failed to appear at the hearing scheduled for November 29, 1995. Consequently, on December 2, 1995, the Office of Administrative Law sent petitioner a notification of nonappearance and provided him ten days to submit an explanation for his nonappearance. On January 2, 1996, after petitioner failed to file an explanation, the Commissioner deemed the case to no longer be contested and dismissed it with prejudice.

Nov. 5, 1997

Pursuant to the State Board's retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us in August 1997. No appeal has been filed from the Commissioner's decision of January 2, 1996.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner complied with the terms of our remand and provided petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Accordingly, pursuant to the Commissioner's decision, petitioner is disqualified from school employment, and we dismiss this matter.

RESPONDENT. :

AND :

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LITTLE FERRY, BERGEN COUNTY. :

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $671,824 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $462,636.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $121,141 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $63,343 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $7,293,451 for 1994-95 school year.

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 15, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal of a defeated school budget by the Board of Education of the Borough of Little Ferry (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.1 et seq., and a Petition of Appeal of the Board's defeated cap waiver. Answers to the aforesaid petitions were filed by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Little Ferry on July 5 and July 7, 1994, respectively.

The respective parties filed position papers and responses to same relative to both the budget and cap waiver petitions. Further, as a result of the decisions issued by State Board of Education in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 6 and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater (decided by the State Board of Education, July 6, 1994), wherein the State Board ruled that the decisions in defeated voter cap waiver appeals must determine whether reallocations within the district's maximum permissible budget are possible and whether and to what extent the specific programs at issue are essential in order to enable the district to provide a thorough and efficient system of education, the parties were informed of the need to supplement the record to document the reallocation and cap waiver review conducted by the county superintendent pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-27. The County Superintendent was directed to submit a sworn affidavit setting forth an explanation and documentation of that review, including the basis for concluding that (1) reallocation within the district's maximum permissible budget was not possible and (2) the specific programs at issue were necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. The governing body and the Board were provided the opportunity to respond to the affidavit an opportunity to which both parties availed themselves. In addition, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end audit to determine whether the district had underestimated its anticipated undesignated surplus.

On April 19, 1994, the voters of the Borough of Little Ferry defeated the Board's General Fund tax levy and proposed cap waiver which had been approved by the Bergen County Superintendent and a Department of Education Review Committee as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

The specific line items for the thorough and efficient cap waiver were as follows:

Account Title	Account No.	Amount
Teachers Salaries Pre-K & K	11-110-100-101	$ 19,435
Teachers Salaries 1-5	11-120-100-101	60,306
Teachers Salaries 6-8	11-130-100-101	19,141

Other Employee Benefits	11-000-290-290	2,824
Total Amount		$121,141

Subsequent to the defeat of the budget by the voters, the Board and Council, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, consulted on the defeated budget whereupon the Council reduced the basic budget General Fund Tax Levy by $671,824. Below summarized are the amounts in dispute before the Commissioner.

DEFEATED BUDGET

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).) In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the specific line item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the board in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

The specific line item reductions and the reasons for such reductions, as contained in the Council's Resolution 98 dated May 18, 1994, are set forth below:

Account	Amount
11-110-100-101 Instruction - Preschool/Kindergarten	$9,153

The recommended reduction is based upon the Board's request for one (1) additional kindergarten teacher, for a total of five (5) kindergarten teachers. The budget for 1994-95 may be reduced by $9,153. This represents the amount overbudgeted, assuming the new position is hired at the base level of the salary guide, for a salary of $29,249.

11-120-100-101 Instruction - Grades 1-5	$60,264
--	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon the budget requirement necessary to provide salaries for existing personnel. The Board requested one (1) additional teacher for the fifth grade. However, this request was not substantiated by the projected enrollment for 1994-95 and, therefore, is not being provided for in the proposed budget. It is also recommended that the budget for substitute teachers be reduced by $10,000 for 1994-95.

11-130-100-101 Instruction - Grades 6-8 $30,907

The recommended reduction is based upon the proposal that the Board of Education consolidate its physical education classes from three (3) sections to two (2) sections. Through this consolidation, a teaching position can be eliminated.

11-190-100-610 General Supplies $50,000

The recommended reduction is based upon the projected expenditures for 1993-94, with a provision for a 33% increase.

11-204-100-101 Special Education Instruction -
 Salaries of Teachers - Neurologically
 Impaired (NI) $29,249

The recommended reduction is based upon the detail provided by the Board stating that the position and salary requests for this account for the 1994-95 budget is overstated by $29,249.

11-218-100-101 Special Education Instruction -
 Salaries of Teachers - Speech
 Instruction $20,000

The recommended reduction is based upon the 1993-94 salary requirements whereby the excess funds required by the Speech salaries are being allocated to Other State and Federal Project account funds.

11-219-100-101 Special Education Instruction -
 Salaries of Teachers - Home
 Instruction $2,000

The recommended reduction is based upon providing funds necessary for two (2) full-time home instruction positions.

11-000-100-565 Tuition to CSSV & Regional Day
 School - Special $90,000

The recommended reduction is based upon projected expenditures for 1993-94, with provisions for a 7% increase.

11-000-213-100 Undistr. Expend. - Health Services -
 Salaries $20,250

The recommended reduction is based upon the proposal that the Board replace a full-time nursing position with a part-time nurse, providing coverage for three (3) hours per day, five (5) days per week.

11-000-219-104	Undistr. Expend. - Other Support Student - Special Salaries of Other Prof. Staff	$20,000
----------------	--	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon the 1993-94 salary requirements, whereby the excess funds required by the Speech salaries are being allocated to Other State and Federal Project account funds.

11-000-219-390	Undistr. Expend. - Other Support Student - Special Other Purchased Prof. Services	$17,000
----------------	---	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon the 1993-94 projected expenditures, providing for no increase in the 1994-95 budget.

11-000-222-100	Undistr. Expend. Media/Library Salaries	$5,001
----------------	--	---------

The recommended reduction is based upon the detailed position in salary requirements submitted by the Board. This account appears to be overstated for 1994-95.

11-000-222-600	Undistr. Expend. - Educ. Media/Library Supplies and Materials	$10,000
----------------	--	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon the 1993-94 projected expenditures, providing for no increase in the 1994-95 budget.

11-000-230-100	Undistr. Expend. - Supp. Serv. Gen. Admin. Salaries	$36,000
----------------	--	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon the proposal that the Board eliminate the current full-time position for computer services. This position would be replaced with a $5,000 stipend to be offered to a teacher to serve as a computer coordinator.

11-000-230-600	Undistr. Expend. - Supp. Gen. Admin. Supplies and Materials	$4,000
----------------	--	---------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 50% increase.

11-000-230-340	Undistr. Expend. - Supp. Serv. Gen. Admin. Purchased Tech. Service	$25,000
----------------	---	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 12% increase.

11-000-240-103	Undistr. Expend. - Supp. Serv. School Admin. Salaries - Principals	$70,565
----------------	---	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon a proposal that the Board eliminate one (1) principal position. The responsibility presently performed by the principal would be assumed by the Superintendent, who would serve as both Superintendent and principal.

11-000-240-105	Undistr. Expend. - Supp. Serv. School Admin. Salaries - Sec. and Clerical Asst.	$15,937
----------------	---	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon a proposal that one (1) secretarial position be eliminated. It is the Board's representation that this secretary provides only photocopying services; it is recommended that existing personnel assume this responsibility.

11-000-260-420	Undistr. Expend. - Operation of Plant Serv. Cleaning, Repair & Maintenance	$25,000
----------------	--	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 25% increase.

11-000-260-590	Undistr. Expend. - Operation of Plant Serv. Misc. Purchased Services	$5,000
----------------	---	---------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 45% increase.

11-000-260-620	Undistr. Expend. - Operation of Plant Serv. Energy	$33,000
----------------	---	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 30% increase.

11-000-270-511	Undistr. Expend. - Student Transportation Vendors	$70,000
----------------	--	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 10% increase.

11-000-270-513	Undistr. Expend. - Student Transportation Joint Agreement	$5,000
----------------	--	---------

The recommended reduction is based upon 1993-94 projected expenditures, with a provision for a 90% increase.

11-000-290-100	Undistr. Expend. - Bus and Support Services Salaries	$4,498
----------------	---	---------

The recommended reduction is based upon the detailed position in salary requirements provided by the Board for the year 1994-95. This account appears to be overbudgeted on this requirement.

11-000-290-250	Undistr. Expend. - Bus. and Support Services-Unemployment Compensation	$14,000
----------------	---	----------

The recommended reduction is based upon the school district's actual expenditures for unemployment claims for prior years.

GRAND TOTAL	$671,824

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

The Commissioner has carefully reviewed the evidence and arguments submitted by the parties in support of their respective positions. The Commissioner's review of the arguments relative to line item reductions and his conclusions on each are set forth below:

Account	Reduction
11-110-100-101 Teachers Salaries - Preschool-K	$9,153

The Borough argues that the Board has overbudgeted this account by the above amount since the minimum starting salary for the proposed additional kindergarten teacher is $29,249, as indicated by the salary guide contained within the collective bargaining agreement set forth in the Board's Appendix B.

The Board points out that the difference between the minimum salary to be paid to the additional kindergarten teacher and the amount by which the Borough reduced this account represents monies budgeted for substitute teachers. The Board points out that the contract provides each teacher with a maximum of eleven (11) sick days and three (3) personal days per year, at a cost of $75 per day for substitutes. The Board has budgeted at what it contends is 77% of its maximum potential exposure for substitutes. (See Page 1 of Board's position statement.)

The Commissioner has considered the arguments of the parties and determines that the Board has effectively documented its need for the additional kindergarten teacher to provide for classes of under 25 pupils as required by regulation, and has likewise justified its need for the funds cut by the Borough in this account. The $9,153 in this account is restored as being necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

Account	Reduction
11-120-100-110 Instruction - Grades 1-5	$60,264

The Borough argues that there is no substantiation for an additional fifth grade teacher as requested by the Board based upon the projected enrollment of 93 students in fifth grade for the 1994-95 school year. The Borough also contends that the Board has failed to provide substantiation that the number of students will increase by 10 over the 83 enrolled in grade 4 in 1993-94.

The Board argues that even if one were to concede to the Borough's projection as to grade 5 enrollment for 1994-95, a fourth teacher would be needed at the fifth grade level for 1994-95 in order to effectuate the Board policy of keeping class size to a maximum of 25 since there were only three fifth grade sections in 1993-94. (See Appendix G of Board's Position Statement)

The Board further reiterates its argument that this account also includes funds set aside for salaries for substitute payments for 24.6 teachers at an estimated six (6) days per teacher at $75 per day (See Appendix G of Board's Position Statement)

The Commissioner notes that the Borough's subsequent arguments in its response to the Board Position Statement take issue with the Board's determination to add two additional positions at grades 1 and 2 when, the Borough contends, enrollment for 1994-95 shows a reduction of six students in grades 1-5.

The Commissioner, upon review of the arguments and the documentation determines that the $60,264 reduction in this account be restored. Despite the Borough's contention of a loss of six students in overall enrollment for grades 1-5, the distribution of pupils over those grade levels as indicated by Appendix G is consistent with the Board's policy of keeping class size to a maximum of 25 per class.

Account	Reduction
11-130-100-101 Instruction Grades 6-8	$30,907

The Borough argues that the Board can consolidate physical education classes and thereby eliminate one physical education teacher without impairing the Board's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

The Board contends that it must maintain three physical education teachers and one health teacher in order to meet the mandates of N.J.S.A. 18A:35-5 through 7 and N.J.A.C. 6:8-7.1 of 150 minutes of health and physical education per week, as well as to meet its own policy and contractual obligations. (See Board's Position Statement, at pp. 9-10)

Health and physical education instruction being consistent with the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, the Commissioner finds the Borough's assertion that consolidation is possible in this area to be arbitrary in nature. The Commissioner directs the restoration of $30,907 reduction in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-190-100-610 General Supplies	$50,000

The Borough argues that the nine month actual expenditures and three month projected expenditures amounted to $78,081 in 1993-94. It contends that even allowing for a 33% increase in 1994-95 would bring the budgeted amount to $103,848, some $50,000 less than the appropriation of $154,739 sought by the Board.

The Board contends that its budgeting process is zero based rather than a projection from previous year's spending. It further contends that its needs derive directly from increased enrollment and increased prices. It sets its spending plan in Appendix T of its position statement.

The Commissioner has carefully considered the Board's spending plan in relation to its responsibility to provide a thorough and efficient system of education, as well as its previous expenditures for supplies. While the Commissioner notes that the spending plan is quite detailed, he further notes that no attempt is made by the Board to demonstrate how its needs for 1994-95 are so much in excess of its actual expenditures in 1993-94.

Consequently, the Commissioner sustains the reduction in supplies in this account in the amount of $50,000.

Account	Reduction
11-214-100-101 Special Education Instruction - Salaries of Teachers - NI	$29,249

The Borough predicates this reduction on what it contends was the Board's originally recommended appropriation of $174,581 which it subsequently increased to $203,780.

The Board contends that the increase in this budgeted amount is due to the creation of an additional section of neurologically impaired students made possible by the opening of a new school addition in September of 1994. The Board contends that this new class section of NI pupils would have been opened earlier had space been available. The Board points to state regulations which limit such classes to eight students with an age range not to exceed three years from youngest to oldest. In support of its position, the Board offers a certification from the school principal of the number of NI pupils for 1994-95 as part of Exhibit M of its Position Paper.

The Commissioner has considered the above referenced documentation, as well as the Borough's contention that the 1994-95 NI roster contains only three pupils more than those listed for 1993-94. Notwithstanding the Borough's argument, the Commissioner notes that 25 pupils in three classes as of June 1994 already exceeds the regulated maximum of eight per class, without consideration of the age gap between pupils or the possibility of additional pupils through further classification of local children or students from outside the district. Providing for the special needs of pupils requires additional educational services as an essential part of a system of thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner, therefore, directs the restoration of the $29,249 in this account. (See N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-5)

Account	Reduction
11-218-100-101 Salaries Teachers - Speech	$20,000

The Borough contends that this reduction will have no impact upon a thorough and efficient system of education. It argues monies are available from other sources, as has been true in the past. The Borough further contends that at least $16,905 is available in state and federal project funds elsewhere in this budget.

The Board points out that its budget in this area is for one speech teacher whose salary is $58,090, of which $41,185 is included in this account. The balance of that salary is provided for by grants totaling $16,905 which is included on the revenue side of the budget.

The Commissioner finds that the Borough's argument is without merit in that the budgeted amount for speech services would be short by the $16,905 which the Borough cut. Speech services being consistent with the thorough and efficient mandate of N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-5, the Commissioner directs the restoration of $20,000 in this account.

Account		Reduction
11-219-100-101	Special Education - Teachers Salaries Home Instruction	$2,000

The Borough contends that the amount remaining after this reduction would still permit the Board to retain two full-time home instructors, a number which is sufficient to meet the Board's need.

The Board argues that it is obligated to provide home instruction for any of over 1,000 pupils. It contends that it cannot anticipate its needs in this area.

In as much as the burden in this matter rests with the Board to demonstrate its absolute need, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not met its burden. The $2,000 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-100-565	Tuition CSSV & Regional Day School	$90,000

The Borough argues that the Board's practice in this area is arbitrary and capricious in that its 1993-94 expenditures in this account were only $25,120; yet, the Board budgeted $116,972 for 1994-95, a claimed 365% increase.

The Board asserts that it is obligated to pay the tuitions of all the pupils whose individual education plans (IEP's) call for placement in the CSSV or Regional Day School. The Board points out that, for 1994-95, that roster of eligible students is 17 and it is therefore legally obligated to meet that responsibility. (See Exhibit P of Board's Position Statement)

Notwithstanding the arguments presented by the Borough, the roster of pupils scheduled for placement in this account and the tuition amounts clearly support the Board's budgeted amount. The Commissioner directs the restoration of the $90,000 reduction in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-000-213-100 Undistr. Expend. - Health Serv.	$20,250

The Borough contends that there exists no need for three full-time nurses for two schools. The Borough proposes that the Board retain two full-time nurses and employ or "reduce one of its positions to a" part-time nurse for three hours per day.

The Board points out that it employs two full-time nurses and a health educator who is also certified as a school nurse. The Board contends that the health educator is already overcommitted in her full-time schedule and that health education is a statutory and regulatory mandate.

The Commissioner, after careful consideration of the arguments relative to this account, concludes that the Board has not demonstrated that the reduction of one of its nurses to part-time would impair its ability to provide a thorough and efficient education. A separate full-time health educator is not mandated by either statute or regulation. Further, the Board may exercise other options available to it under law and regulation to provide the mandated health education. The $20,250 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-219-104	Undistr. Expend. Other Support Services - Salaries	$20,000

The Borough contends this reduction will not impact upon a thorough and efficient education and that other sources of revenue are available in this area if application is made.

The Board points out that these services are for compensation of its Child Study Team which is mandated by law and regulation. To reduce the budget in this account would, in the Board's view, reduce its ability to provide for students with special needs.

The Commissioner finds the Borough's action in this area to be entirely without foundation or reasonable explanation. Child Study Services being clearly within the mandated requirements of a thorough and efficient education, the Commissioner restores the $20,000 in this account.

Account		Reduction
11-000-219-390	Other Purchased Professional Services	$17,000

The Borough contends that this account rose from $16,342 in 1993-94 to $33,570 in 1994-95 without justification.

The Board contends it is obligated to purchase services in this area of the budget pursuant to evaluation needs and contracted obligations to teachers. The Board argues that costs are dictated by specific needs and not by prior year expenditures. (See Board's Position Statement, at 24 and Exhibit Q.)

The Commissioner notes the objection of the Borough to the Board's providing of information to justify the Board's position not made available to the Borough at the time of the Borough's determination. Notwithstanding the exception raised by the Borough, the Commissioner directs the restoration of the $17,000 in this account based upon the documentation provided by the Board which demonstrates its need to provide the purchased special services required for the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

Account	Reduction
11-000-222-100	$5,001

The Borough contends that the Board's own salary guide for 1994-95 shows a recommended budget of $48,612, yet the Board proposes a budget of $53,013.

The Board points out that the additional $5,000 is the salary of an aide who relieves the librarian, a special subject area teacher, when the librarian is teaching a class.

After careful consideration of the Board's arguments relative to this account, the Commissioner determines that the Board has not met its obligation to demonstrate the absolute need of the aide in this area. No indication is provided as to what the special area of instruction is that is provided by the librarian, or why schedules could not be adjusted to provide full library coverage for all pupils. The Commissioner sustains the $5,001 reduction in this account.

Account		Reduction
11-000-222-600	Library Supplies & Materials	$10,000

The Borough contends this account is overbudgeted. It seeks to maintain expenditures at 1993-94 levels.

The Board contends it budgeted the same amount as actually expended in 1993-94, rather than the budgeted amount.

The Commissioner, upon examination of the Board's rationale, finds it insufficient to justify the appropriation amount requested for 1994-95. No explanation is provided as to actual needs and costs. The $10,000 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-230-100	Support Services - Gen. Admin.	$36,000

The Borough proposes the elimination of a full-time computer services position which was newly created in 1993-94, which it contends is a non-teaching position and non-essential for a thorough and efficient education. The Borough posits that a more economical course for a small district like Little Ferry would be a stipended position. It further contends that, prior to 1993-94, the Board provided a thorough and efficient system of education without such a position.

The Board argues that it employs a clerical employee to carry out the duties of this position. The Board further contends that it has over 50 personal computers and as many drives, along with printers and peripheral devices, including a Merlin phone system and a Horym system to maintain and operate. The individual whose position the Borough proposes to eliminate is responsible for keeping these systems operating.

Upon full consideration of the arguments presented, the Commissioner concludes the requirements of a thorough and efficient system of education are not static and cannot necessarily be defined by past standards and positions. Technological aides have become increasingly necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient educational program. The Commissioner, therefore, directs the restoration of the $36,000 for the maintenance of this position.

Account		Reduction
11-000-230-600	Gen. Admin. - Supplies and Materials	$4,000

The Borough argues that the Board's proposed budget of $12,000 in this area represents a 127% increase, which is both unreasonable and unsubstantiated.

The Board contends that it budgeted the same amount as last year, based upon expenditures of $8,468, as of May 31, 1994.

The Commissioner, upon consideration of the arguments, determines that the Board has failed to meet its burden of demonstrating the absolute necessity for the full amount in this account. The $4,000 reduction is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-230-340	Purchased Technical Services	$25,000

The Borough contends that the amount budgeted is unreasonable and unsubstantiated. It challenges the Board's assertion that it must purchase GAAP software since the GAAP system was implemented as of July 1, 1993, and such software would already have been purchased. The Borough also challenges the need for a new facilities plan in that the Board recently completed a new addition onto its schools.

The Board argues that it must purchase materials for implementing GAAP ($14,000), as well as consultative services for upgrading its five-year Facilities Plan ($20,000) and collective bargaining services at $20,000.

After careful consideration, the Commissioner finds merit in the Borough's argument in that the Board does not account for what services were purchased from the $23,595 expended in 1993-94, nor does it refute the Borough's contentions relative to the GAAP software. In light of the above, the Commissioner sustains the $25,000 reduction in this account.

Account	Reduction
111-000-240-103 Gen. Admin. Salaries Principals	$70,565

The Borough argues for the elimination of a principal's position with the responsibility for school administration being assumed by the Superintendent.

The Board points out the N.J.A.C. 6:8-3.2(b) mandates that every school building must have the services of a full-time principal, unless a waiver is obtained from the Commissioner upon recommendation of the chief school administrator.

The Commissioner, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:8-3.2(b), determines that in the absence of a recommendation for a waiver, each of the district's two schools is mandated to have the services of a full-time principal. The $70,565 reduction in this account is therefore restored.

Account	Reduction
11-000-240-105 Sup. Serv. Admin. Sec. and & Clerical Assistant	$15,937

The Borough proposes the elimination of one secretarial position given its claim that the position to be eliminated provides only photocopying services which it contends could be assumed by other personnel.

The Board claims that only three secretary clerical positions provide support services for the entire district. Cutting back services in this area would necessitate negotiations to change job descriptions of persons who would be required to assume the duties of the replaced clerical assistant.

The Commissioner has given careful consideration to the positions of the parties. Based upon such consideration, the Commissioner concludes that the Board has failed to demonstrate that its ability to provide those clerical services consistent with a thorough and efficient system of education would be impaired beyond remedy. The $15,937 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-000-290-100 Business & Support Serv. Salaries	$4,498

The Borough contends the Board contradicts its own salary guide which shows a recommended budget of $98,071, but proposes a budget of $102,569.

The Board's documentation on page 43 of its Position Statement demonstrates the difference between the salary schedules and the amount budgeted as consisting of funds for substitutes and overtime. The $4,498 reduction is restored.

Account	Reduction
11-000-290-250 Bus. & Support Services Unemployment Compensation	$14,000

The reduction in this account, avers the Borough, is consistent with actual claims in prior years.

The Board claims it must budget for carryover staff, new staff and a rate change expected in January 1995.

The Commissioner determines that the Board has failed to demonstrate the actual need for the amount budgeted over previous year's expenditures. (See Borough's Response page 6) The reduction $14,000 is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-260-420	Operation of Plant Services Cleaning, Repair & Maintenance	$25,000

The Borough argues that the Board plans to increase this account by 50% without substantiation. The Borough proposes what it contends is a more reasonable 25% increase.

The Board's approved maintenance plan for 1994-95, including vendor quotations, totals $218,950, for which its budgeted $141,000 leaves it $77,950 underfunded. (See Exhibit V)

The Commissioner, upon consideration of the position of the parties, concludes that the Board has failed to prioritize and demonstrate the absolute necessity in regard to pupil, health, safety and welfare of the projects it set forth in its five-year plan. Having failed to demonstrate which projects could not be justified without seriously placing pupils and staff in jeopardy, the Commissioner finds a 25% increase set by the Borough as consistent with the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. The $25,000 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-260-590	Operation of Plant Purchased Services	$5,000

The Borough contends that no substantiation is provided for a 150% increase in this account and, therefore, proposes a 45% increase which it deems more reasonable.

The Board refers again to its maintenance program set forth in Exhibit V.

The Commissioner finds the Board's sparse explanation to be insufficient to demonstrate its need for the $5,000 by which this account was reduced. The Commissioner directs the sustaining of the $5,000 reduction in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-000-260-620 Operation of Plant Energy	$33,000

The Borough contends the increase of 73% in this account was without substantiation until the Board presented its engineering study. The Borough contends a 30% increase is reasonable.

The Board points out that it budgeted for a completely renovated HVAC system and a 15-room addition for its Memorial School. It offers as its justification for its increase an energy study conducted by a professional engineer. (See Exhibit V)

The Commissioner has considered the documentation presented by the Board and concludes that it does not clearly justify the entire increase sought by the Board. The $33,000 reduction in this account is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-000-270-511 Student Transportation Vendors	$70,000

The Borough contends this account was increased 67% without substantiation. It proposes a 10% increase over 1993-94.

The Board contends all transportation is accounted for by contracts with vendors submitted in approved form to the Department of Education.

The Commissioner notes that the Board on page 41 of the Position Statement documents the cost by destinations. In light of the Board's evidence, the Commissioner directs the restoration of the $70,000 in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-000-270-513 Student Transportation Joint Agreement	$51,000

The Borough alleges that the Board's appropriation increases this account by 174% without substantiation. The Borough proposes a 90% increase.

The Board substantiates its budgeted amount with a copy of the contract for joint transportation of students with the Moonachie School District to Bergen County Vocational School. The $5,000 in this account is restored.

	$209,188	$462,636

In summary, the Commissioner finds and determines that of the $671,824 reduction in the General Fund Tax Levy for the 1994-95 school year by the Borough of Little Ferry, $209,188 has been sustained. The Commissioner further finds that the remaining amount of $462,636 is essential to enable the Board to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

It is therefore ordered that the Bergen County Board of Taxation increase the local school tax levy of the 1994-95 school year in Little Ferry by $462,636.

CAP WAIVER

In setting forth its position with respect to the cap waiver monies in the amount of $121,141, the Board relies on the fact that the cap waiver was thoroughly scrutinized by the County Superintendent and a Department of Education Cap Waiver Panel and approved as being necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education. Further, the Board relies on the fact that both the County Superintendent and the Cap Review Panel determined that no further reallocation in the base budget could be accomplished, and that the budget itself was conditionally approved for submission to the voters with the proviso that the Board must appeal should the cap waiver be rejected. The clear implication of the Board's position is that the cap waiver must be approved since the representatives of the Commissioner had already determined the necessity for the funds in question prior to submission.

The Borough points out that the Cap Waiver approval process of the Department of Education does not raise this matter to the level of being res judicata. The Borough further points out that the State Board of Education in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater (decided by the State Board of Education, July 6, 1994), concluded that:

The fact that the County Superintendent had designated [cap waiver] moneys as necessary for a thorough and efficient education when he

"conditionally approved" the District's budget and directed that a cap waiver question be presented to the voters does not insulate those amounts from review by the Commissioner. [Slip. op. at 19].

In commenting on the Commissioner's restoration of reductions made by the Borough of Edgewater in light of the voters's defeat of the cap waiver, the State Board of Education in Edgewater stated:

In short, the Commissioner's decision established a budget which, despite voter defeat of the proposal made pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) exceeds the "maximum permissible budget" allowed by the statutes. The Commissioner directed that the additional amounts be added to the District's budget without a determination either of whether it was possible to make reallocations within the Board's base budget or whether the voter requested cap waiver amounts were needed in their entirety in order for the District to provide a thorough and efficient education. To permit this result, given defeat of the proposal made to the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) would be to contravene the express terms of that statutory provision without the assurance that the Commissioner needed to do so in order to fulfill her constitutional obligations. [Edgewater, slip op. at 20].

The State Board directed that:

...the Commissioner determine whether, or to what extent, the specific items which the [local] Board sought to fund with the voter requested cap waiver amounts are in fact essential in order to enable the Board to meet its constitutional obligations. [Edgewater, slip op. at 20].

In reaching his conclusion relative to the merits of this matter, the Commissioner is guided by the direction set forth by the State Board in Edgewater and, therefore, sets forth his determination regarding the cap waiver items below:

Account	Amount
11-110-100-101 Teachers Salaries Pre-K&K	$19,435

The Commissioner notes that he has already reached the conclusion within the base budget that this additional position is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. He notes that part of the monies for the addition of this position were budgeted within the base budget, and part within the cap waiver request. The Commissioner, based upon his review of the base budget, is confident that further reallocation within that budget cannot be accomplished without doing injury to the Board's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. He therefore directs that $19,435 be added to the base budget as set forth above.

Account	Amount
11-120-100-101 Teachers Salaries 1-5	$60,306

The Commissioner notes that the three positions he approved in the base budget result in the district being $24,767 short in providing for teachers salaries at grades 1-5. (See Board's Position Statement at p. 5). Having determined that further reallocation within the base budget cannot be achieved, the Commissioner directs that an additional $24,767 be added to the General Fund Tax Levy.

Account	Amount
11-130-100-101 Teachers Salaries 6-8	$19,141

The Commissioner notes that the above account is $3,606 in deficit, even with the $19,141 requested cap waiver. Having determined that further reallocation within the base budget cannot be accomplished without endangering the ability of the district to provide a thorough and efficient system of education, the Commissioner directs the addition of $19,141 to the General Fund Tax Levy.

Account	Amount
11-000-260-100 Custodian Salaries	$19,435

The Commissioner notes that the Board has provided no documentation to support the inclusion of this amount in the cap waiver. Consequently the Commissioner denies the inclusion of this amount in the tax levy.

Account	Amount
11-000-290-290 Other Employee Benefits	$2,824

The Board has failed to provide a written justification for this amount. The Commissioner denies the inclusion of $2,824 in the General Fund Tax Levy.

In summary, the Commissioner has determined that $63,343 of the $121,141 requested in the voter cap waiver is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education and pursuant to Edgewater, supra he has concluded that that amount cannot be accommodated by further reallocation within the base budget. The Commissioner therefore directs the Bergen County Board of Taxation to stake a further tax levy of $63,343 for support of the Little Ferry Public Schools for the 1994-95 school year. The Commissioner's findings are set forth below:

Tax Levy Certified by Council	$6,767,472
Restored By Commissioner (Defeated Budget)	462,636
Cap Waiver Ordered by Commissioner	63,343
 Total General Fund Tax Levy	 $7,293,451

IT IS SO ORDERED.

July 5, 1995

On April 10, 1995, Michael Steele (hereinafter "appellant") filed a brief and appendix with the State Board of Education in support of his appeal from a final determination of the Commissioner of Education dated March 9, 1995 suspending him from his position as school business administrator for the Board of Education of the Town of Irvington as the result of his violations of the School Ethics Act. The appeal brief included a reference to a certification dated March 27, 1995 by counsel for appellant, a copy of which was included in the appendix. The School Ethics Commission filed the instant motion to suppress both the certification in the appendix and that section of appellant's brief which makes reference to that document, contending that it was not properly part of the record on appeal. In his brief in opposition to the motion, appellant maintains that the controverted certification was part of the record. In the alternative, he requests that the record be supplemented.

We agree with the Ethics Commission that the certification by appellant's counsel is not part of the record on appeal. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.8. Although such document was submitted to the Commissioner by appellant as part of a response to the Ethics Commission's brief in opposition to his motion for a stay, the Commissioner expressly rejected that submission, finding no regulatory authority therefor. Consequently, it was not considered by the Commissioner or included in the record before him.

We also deny appellant's request to supplement the record, finding the certification of his counsel not material to the issues on appeal or necessary for a fair determination of this matter. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9.

Consequently, we grant the Ethics Commission's motion, and will not consider the certification of appellant's counsel in our review of this matter. However, inasmuch as we do not find the single reference in the brief to such document to be so pervasive as to imperil our fundamental responsibility to render a fair determination on the merits, see Pineland Learning Center, Inc. v. New Jersey State Board of Education, decided by the State Board, October 2, 1991, we do not find it necessary to suppress the entire section of appellant's brief which includes reference to the certification of appellant's counsel, as the Ethics Commission urges. Rather, we suppress only that paragraph in the brief which includes a citation to such document. Moreover, we find that the certification and the reference thereto in the brief can readily be disregarded in reviewing the merits of this appeal and that its presence in the appendix will not impair the review process to the extent that preparation of a revised brief or appendix would be warranted.

Given our disposition of this motion, we direct that counsel for the School Ethics Commission now respond to the substance of the underlying appeal by filing her answering brief within ten days of this decision.

SEPT. 6, 1995

This is an appeal both from the determination made by the School Ethics Commission on December 19, 1994, that Appellant Michael G. Steele had violated the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., by his employment as the School Business Administrator for the Irvington School District at the same time as he was serving as the mayor for the Township of Irvington, and from the determination made by the Commissioner of Education on March 9, 1995, that the appropriate sanction for this violation was to suspend Steele from his position as School Business Administrator for one year. We affirm both determinations.¹

As detailed in the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) Initial Decision, the responsibilities with which Steele was entrusted as School Business Administrator encompassed budgeting and financial planning, purchasing and supply management and accounting. As the chief financial officer for the District, Steele played a pivotal role in developing the District's budget. As a Type I school district, the amount to be appropriated to fund the Irvington public school system was determined by the Board of School Estimate. By statute and regulation, the mayor of a Type I school district not only serves on the Board of School Estimate, but is its presiding officer. N.J.S.A. 18A:22-1; N.J.A.C. 6:3-1.1.

Moreover, as mayor of a municipality constituting a Type I school district, Steele had appointed all seven members of the district board of education by July 1993, when he returned to the District following a leave the Board had granted him to enable him to serve as School Business Administrator for another school district. Consequently, when he returned to resume his employment with the Irvington Board, Steele was employed by a district board composed entirely of members he had appointed.

¹ We note that this matter initially also involved a separate complaint filed against the Irvington Board that by permitting Steele to remain in his position as School Business Administrator while serving as mayor, the Board had violated the School Ethics Act. As detailed in the decisions below, the School Ethics Commission sustained that complaint and the Commissioner of Education determined that a public reprimand was the appropriate sanction for the Board's conduct. The Board did not appeal either determination to the State Board.

Given these facts, we fully concur with the ALJ that:

...Steele's activity as mayor [was] in "substantial conflict" with the proper discharge of his duties as school business administrator. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a). Certainly his responsibilities as mayor regarding appointment of school board members and review of the district's budget "might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment," N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and "prejudice his independence of judgment in the exercise of his official duties," N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(d). When appointing Board Members, it would be difficult for Steele to remain oblivious to the impact of his choices on his salary as school business administrator. Likewise, when advising the Board on budgetary matters as school boards administrator, it would be unlikely for Steele to remain uninfluenced by his participation on the board of school estimate.

Initial Decision, at 12.

In short, we find that there is a fundamental incompatibility between serving as both the School Business Administrator in a Type I school district and as the mayor of the municipality which constitutes that Type I school district, and that Steele violated the School Ethics Act by holding both positions. His arguments that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-8.4 somehow alters this result are entirely without merit. The terms of that statute permit certified personnel to hold elective municipal office; they do not authorize high level school administrators to act in violation of the School Ethics Act by participating in activities that are in conflict with the duties of their positions within the public education system.

Similarly, Steele can not rely on the Appellate Division's decision in Schulman v. O'Reilly-Lardo, et al., 226 N.J. Super. 262 (App. Div. 1988) to legitimize his conduct. That case, which was decided before the School Ethics Act was enacted, involved a school nurse and not a high level school administrator expressly subject to the School Ethics Act. Furthermore, the situation was not the same as the one here. Nor can Steele rely on his tenure status to avoid the consequences of the fact that under the School Ethics Act, serving as both the mayor and School Business Administrator for a Type I school district presents an inherent and pervasive conflict of interest. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-30.

We agree with the Commissioner of Education that a year's suspension from his position as School Business Administrator is the appropriate sanction to impose on Steele under the circumstances. In this, we stress the importance of both insuring that Steele will not be serving a board he appointed when he resumes his employment as School Business Administrator and of imposing a sanction which will impress upon him the seriousness with which we view conflicts of interest such as the one here. In this respect, we reject Steele's contention that his responsibilities under the law were somehow clouded by advice given him by two private law firms prior to the enactment of the School Ethics Act. We find this argument to be disingenuous given that Steele did not seek legal advice after the School Ethics Act became effective and that the School Ethics Commission had twice provided advice that his employment as School Business Administrator while serving as mayor presented a conflict in violation of the School Ethics Act.

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $201,210 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $104,610.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $229,005 rejected by voters, but erroneously included by the governing body in the General Fund tax levy.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $229,000 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy increase of $104,610 for 1994-95 school year.

For Petitioner, Anthony B. Vignuolo, Esq. (Borrus, Goldin, Folley, Vignuolo, Hyman & Stahl)

For Respondent, Charles V. Booream, III, Esq.

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 16, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal of a defeated school budget by the Milltown Board of Education (Board) and the filing of a Petition of Appeal of its defeated cap waiver. Answers to the Petitions of Appeal regarding the defeated school budget and the defeated cap waiver were filed by the Council of the Borough of Milltown (Council) on July 1, 1994.

Position Statements were filed by the respective parties regarding the defeated budget and by the Board above in reference to the cap waiver appeal. Further, as a result of the State Board decision of July 7, 1993, in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, (wherein the State Board ruled that in defeated voter cap waiver appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether both reallocations within the district's maximum permissible budget are possible and if, and to what extent, the specific programs at issue are essential in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education), the county superintendent of Middlesex County was directed to file an affidavit articulating and documenting the budget reallocation review process pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-27. The county superintendent was also requested to set forth the basis for concluding that reallocation within the base budget was not possible, and that the monies included within the cap waiver were necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. The parties were provided 20 days within which to file responses to the county superintendent's sworn affidavit.

The county superintendent's affidavit and supporting documentation were filed on August 8, 1994, and the Borough filed a response on September 8, 1994.

On April 19, 1994, the voters of the Borough of Milltown defeated the Board's General Fund tax levy and a proposed cap waiver which had been approved by the Middlesex County Superintendent of Schools and a Department of Education Review Panel as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

The specific line item accounts for the T&E cap waiver were as follows:

Account	Amount
11-000-100-561 Undistributed Ex-Inst. Tuition	$208,040
11-000-270-511 Undistributed Ex-Student Transportation	20,965
Total Cap Waiver Amount	$229,005

Subsequent to the defeat of the budget and cap waiver by the voters of the district, the Board and Council, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, met to consult on the defeated budget whereupon the Council reduced the General Fund tax levy by $201,210 for support of the base budget. In addition to the reduction of the General Fund Tax Levy imposed by the base budget, the Council erroneously certified a General Fund Tax Levy to the Middlesex County Board of Taxation which included within the certification the cap waiver amount of $229,005. This action was outside the scope of the Council's authority since only the Commissioner has the legal authority to authorize appropriations above and beyond the maximum permitted budget. The net effect of the Council's unauthorized action was to certify an amount for the General Fund tax levy which was actually in excess of the General Fund tax levy of $6,039,872 necessary for support of the base budget as submitted to the voters. The Board, in its Petition of Appeal of the reduction in the General Fund tax levy to support the base budget, contributed to the confusion by indicating that the Board's proposed General Fund tax levy was $6,268,877 which also included the $229,005 cap waiver. The correct figures in dispute are set forth below:

Proposed Base Budget General Fund Tax Levy	$6,039,872
Less Reductions imposed by Council in Base Budget	201,210
	$5,838,662
Amount of General Fund Tax Levy Certified by Council	$6,067,667
Less Amount Inappropriately Certified by Council	229,005
	$5,838,662

Amount in Dispute Base Budget	201,210
Amount of Cap Waiver	229,005
Total Amount to be Decided by Commissioner	$ 420,215

As a result of the unauthorized action by the Council in this matter, the Commissioner will only consider the Council's $201,210 reduction in the base budget as part of the budget appeal in this consolidated matter. The cap waiver proposal of $229,005 will be reviewed separately by the Commissioner to determine whether reductions in the cap waiver proposal can be made through reallocations within the base budget and whether the items contained within the cap waiver are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment in budget appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature, by way of statutory scheme, has delegated the responsibility for providing a thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budget reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item has been reduced by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

The specific line item reductions are set forth below as contained within Borough of Milltown Borough Council Resolution R 94175.

The Commissioner notes that no reasons for the specific line item reductions imposed by the Council were provided at the time of the certification, nor were specific reasons included within the Council's Answer to the Board's Petition of Appeal. The Council's Answer to each specific line item reduction merely denied the Board's individual obligation that the reductions would result in an inability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

The New Jersey Supreme Court decided in Board of Education of the Township of Deptford v. Mayor and Council of the Township of Deptford, 116 N.J. 305, 314 (1989), that the Commissioner may infer "...a heavy presumption against the educational validity..." of a governing body's budget reduction when the specific reasons for each individual reduction are not provided at the time the reductions are certified to the county board of taxation. The later the reasons are provided, the greater the presumption of arbitrariness the Commissioner may infer.

Notwithstanding the above, the Commissioner also notes that Deptford, supra, admonishes the Commissioner not to automatically restore the reductions even when the governing body fails to provide reasons at the time of certification. The Commissioner in this matter, therefore, takes note of the Council's tardiness in setting forth any specific reasons for its reductions until its Position Statement, but will consider those reasons within the framework of the standard imposed by Deptford, supra.

Commissioner's Determination

Below are the positions of the parties by individual line item account and the Commissioner's determination for each line item account.

Line Item	Account	Reduction
268	11-190-100-610 General Supplies	$2,000

The reduction in this account was imposed by the Council based upon its representation that the municipality would assume responsibility for snow plowing and lawn cutting.

The Board argues that the Council has confused general services with teaching supplies. The Board contends that saving to be accrued from the municipality assuming the responsibility for cutting grass and plowing snow cannot be scheduled as contended by the Council since these are regular duties of employed custodians other than cutting grass or clearing snow. Further, the Board contends that to the date of the filing of the Position Statement no grass cutting has been assumed by the municipality.

The Commissioner has reviewed the arguments presented and notes the confusion created by both parties. The Board designates this account for teaching supplies yet responds more specifically to the Council's arguments regarding cutting grass and plowing snow which are services and not supplies. Neither side having successfully put forth a rational argument, the Commissioner imposes the standard of review relative to who bears the burden in this matter. The Commissioner determines that the $2,000 reduction is sustained.

269	11-190-100-640	Textbooks	$10,000

The Council argues that, since the Board has indicated that the Department of Education has already cut $20,000 from an originally proposed appropriation which included $30,000 for math texts, the Board is unable to buy all of the texts, and, therefore, the $10,000 balance remaining could be further reduced.

The Board argues that the funds in this account are necessary to adhere to its five-year curriculum plan approved by the Department of Education, since its current mathematics textbooks date from 1981 and 1984. The Board claims that it plans to introduce new textbooks a few grades at a time. To deprive the Board of the $10,000 by which this account was reduced, it asserts, would thwart its five-year textbook replacement plan.

Textbook replacement is a necessary part of an ongoing practice of curriculum planning and implementation; the continuance of an orderly and prudent policy of textbook renewal is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Further, the Council's position lacks logic in that it argues that if all texts cannot be purchased at once, then none should be purchased at all. The Commissioner rejects said logic and directs the restoration of the $10,000 in this account.

103	Capital Projects	$17,210

The Council contends that the projects in this account include $8,610 to install playground equipment, $7,600 to repair and refurbish a ball field and $1,000 to construct a fence. It argues that the Borough has already removed the old equipment and provided excavation to install the new equipment. The Council also contends that the Borough has already resurfaced the infield and refurbished the outfield of the baseball field in question. The Council also avers that it has agreed to provide the materials and manpower to install the needed fence.

The Board responds to the assertion of the Council by indicating that the remedial work done by the Borough on the ball field was temporary, not long-term, and primarily for the benefit of the recreation of the adults of the community. The Board further argues that the $8,610 is for additional capital improvements to the playground site, namely for repaving the playground, and is over and above the cost of the equipment and the Borough's excavation. The Board contends that the New Jersey Insurance Group, the Board's liability carrier, has surveyed the Board's premises and recommended the additional capital improvements.

The Commissioner, after carefully considering the arguments of the parties, determines that the Board has established its need for restoration of the $8,610 for resurfacing the playground for safety reasons. As to the ball field improvements, the Board has failed to demonstrate how the short term improvements it acknowledges differ from the long-term improvements it seeks. Further, the Board presents no rebuttal to the offer of the Borough to supply material and manpower to build its fence. The Commissioner, therefore, sustains the reductions of $7,600 and $1,000 for the ball field and fence building.

603	11-401-100-100 Co-curricular Salaries	$2,000

The Council contends the $5,000 original increase in this account over 1993-94 was too high and, thus, reduced the increase by $2,000.

The Board points out that its expenditures for 1993-94 in this account were $25,056 and, thus, the account is underbudgeted for 1994-95 with the Council's cuts. The Board contends that when the Council was questioned as to which activities for students should be curtailed, it could not answer. The Board further argues that it has not yet settled contract negotiations which include salaries for co-curricular activities.

Upon review of the positions of the parties, the Commissioner concludes that the Council's actions relative to this account are clearly arbitrary and not based upon any sound reasoning. The Commissioner, therefore, restores the $2,000 in this account.

Line Item	Account		Reduction
604	11-401-100-500	Purchase Services Co-curricular	$1,500

The Council indicates that this account showed an increase of $2,000 over 1993-94. Its reduction of $1,500 leaves an increase of $500 in this account.

The Board argues that the Council mistakenly assumed that the increase in this account involved purchases of additional trophies and awards. The Board points out that graduation expenses include the rental of chairs and other equipment from vendors made necessary by previous defeats of budget referenda.* Graduation expenses also include provision of copies of the Constitution of the United States and the Declaration of Independence.

The Board further avers that this account includes expenses for orientation and transportation of eighth grade pupils who will be attending the Spotswood High School.

The Commissioner finds the services rendered from this account to be an integral part of providing for a thorough and efficient system of education. He further finds the actions of the Council in this area to be arbitrary in that no real attempt was made to determine what the increases were designed to fund. The $1,500 reduction in this account is restored.

Line Item	Account		Reduction
692	11-000-230-331	Legal Services	$2,500

The Council reduced this amount by $2,500 based upon its belief that the increase in legal fees for negotiating a new collective bargaining agreement was unnecessary.

* The Board has erroneously included graduation expenses in this account. Graduation expenses should be included under school administration.

The Board contends that the $15,500 which remains after the Council's reduction already has been reduced to $6,212 by the August 31, 1994 Budget Summary. The Board further contends its actual expenditure in 1993-94 was $23,807, and that it is presently engaged in a lawsuit involving employee termination. The Board further contends that it must begin to seek legal assistance in negotiations due to the anticipated climate of the 1994-95 negotiations.

Upon consideration of the rationale presented by the parties, the Commissioner finds the Board has established its need for the amounts reduced by Council. The assurance of legal assistance is necessary to the district's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. The $2,500 reduction is restored.

Line Item	Account	Reduction
699	11-000-230-890 Miscellaneous Services	$1,000

The Council's $1,000 reduction is based upon what it perceives as the Board's failure to provide detailed explanation as to the cost of conferences and training of Board members.

The Board alleges that the costs in this account involve mandatory School Board dues and elections inservice training of new board members. Additionally, it includes conferences and other miscellaneous expenses.

The Board contends the increase is made necessary by the requirements for new board members to attend conferences which were not known when the budget was made, and in order to print election ballots in Spanish and English. Dues increases, as well as increases in printing costs and legal advertisements, have, according to the Board, resulted in higher costs.

The Commissioner finds that the Board's reliance upon the necessity to train newly elected board members as an explanation for increases to be disingenuous. Failure to delineate specific training requirements in a specific manner further weakens the Board's position. The $1,000 reduction is sustained.

Line Item	Account	Reduction
742	11-000-290-290 Other Employee Benefits	$35,000

The Council contends that the Board failed to provide Council with details of employee benefits. The Council further contends that it uses the same insurance carrier as the Board, which has informed the Council of a rate reduction as of July 1, 1994. The Council based its reduction upon decreases in the insurance rates and assurances from the Board that further staff reductions would be necessary, thus reducing cost of employee benefits.

The Board contends that its proposed budget increase is based upon the actual projected number of employees in the health benefits plan and anticipated increases in premiums. The Board avers that its insurance costs for worker's compensation will increase due to a substantial claim which was paid by the present carrier during the 1993-94 year.

Upon review of the Board's position, the Commissioner notes that the Board, while claiming notification of increased costs in both health benefits and worker's compensation offers no documentation to support and position. In light of the burden of proof which prevails in budget determinations, the Commissioner sustains the $35,000 reduction in this account.

Account	Amount
012 Unappropriated Free Balance	$130,000

The Council, in addition to its reductions imposed in the Board's appropriation accounts, seeks a further appropriation of $130,000 into the revenues from unappropriated free balance. The Council arrived at this figure because $130,000, when added to the amount already appropriated into revenues by the Board, would result in the Board having appropriated 93% of its surplus into the budget. The Council argues that, since it has appropriated 93% of its surplus into its budget, the Board should do no less.

The Board counters by pointing out that such an additional appropriation would result in reducing its available surplus to $27,000, an amount which it contends is well below the 3% of the Board's overall budget of $7,800,000 which it asserts the New Jersey Department of Education recommends for a reasonable surplus to meet contingencies. In this regard, the Board points out that it already is short in its Child Study Team and Special Education placement accounts due to unanticipated referrals. The Board contends that, unlike the Council, it does not have the resources for generating a surplus and cannot be held to the same percentage of surplus appropriation as the Council.

The Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end district audit to determine whether the district underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of undesignated surplus.

Upon review of the arguments set forth by the parties and the 1993-94 year-end audit, the Commissioner determines to sustain $50,000 of the reallocation and restore $80,000. This will not jeopardize the Board's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

CAP WAIVER

In setting forth its position with respect to the cap waiver amount, the Board relies upon the assertion that its cap waiver request was thoroughly scrutinized by the Middlesex County Superintendent and the Department of Education Review Panel. The county superintendent in her affidavit indicates that the Board's original cap waiver request was for $550,071. (See county superintendent's affidavit at p. 2) By virtue of the process of review imposed by the Department of Education and reallocations, the final cap waiver was approved by the county superintendent at $229,005.

The Commissioner notes that the Council by virtue of its erroneous inclusion of the cap waiver amount in its certification and further failure to raise specific objection to the cap waiver request has, in fact, tacitly acknowledged its belief that the amounts requested are necessary to enable the Board to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

Upon review of the county superintendent's affidavit and his own review of the base budget for purposes of determining further reallocation, the Commissioner concludes that the base budget cannot be further reduced without impeding the district's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. Further, the Commissioner concludes that the two accounts, student transportation and tuition, which are underbudgeted are areas which must be fully funded in order to ensure the district's ability to provide all its students which the opportunities consistent with a thorough and efficient education. Therefore, the Commissioner directs that the $229,005 cap waiver be approved.

As previously noted, the Council in establishing the General Fund tax levy reduced the Board's requested General Fund tax levy amount by $201,210 but erroneously included the $229,005 cap waiver proposed in its certification to the Middlesex County Board of Taxation setting that levy at $6,067,667. In light of the Commissioner's determination herein, the Middlesex County Board of Taxation is directed to set the levy in accordance with the figures as set forth below:

Proposed General Fund Tax Levy	$6,039,872
Less reductions imposed by council	201,210
	$5,838,662
Plus Restorations by Commissioner to Base Budget	104,610
	$5,943,272
Plus Cap Waiver	229,005
	$6,172,277
Less erroneous certification by council Amount by which 1994-95 General Fund tax levy is to be increased	6,067,667
	$ 104,610

IT IS SO ORDERED.

 Richard A. DiPatri
 ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

SB #31-95

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
 APPEAL FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : OF THE HOPEWELL VALLEY REGIONAL : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION SCHOOL DISTRICT, MERCER COUNTY. : DECISION
 _____ :

Decided by the Acting Commissioner of Education,
March 20, 1995

For the Appellant, Martinez & Jennings (Robert P. Martinez, Esq., of Counsel)

This appeal challenges a decision made by the Acting Commissioner of Education which granted $648,405 of the request of the Board of Education of the Hopewell Valley Regional School District pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) to exceed its maximum permissible budget for 1995-96 by $1,418,637. The Acting Commissioner's determination to grant a waiver of an amount that was $770,232 less than the amount the Board had requested was based on review of the District's proposed budget as it had been submitted for approval. In reviewing the budget, the Acting Commissioner increased anticipated revenues by $75,000, reallocated $360,055 from surplus and $112,000 from instruction and benefits. He also made reallocations in basic skills and homebound instruction, and reductions in guidance services, media services and energy costs.

The Board contends that the Acting Commissioner should have granted its application in full, asserting that the Commissioner did not have the authority to reduce that amount. It argues that it was entitled to the full amount of the waiver it asked for because it met the criteria specified in N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) for applying for such a waiver and because the State Board had not promulgated any additional criteria. The Board further argues that reduction of its waiver amount limits it to providing a minimal level of a thorough and efficient education and that it makes review of its budget by the voters and the governing body under N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 meaningless. It also contends that the State Board's regulations entitle it to maintain a three percent free balance and that the Commissioner's determination reduces its free balance to below three percent.

In addition to the above legal arguments, the Board asserts that the Acting Commissioner's decision is arbitrary and capricious, claiming that the Acting Commissioner was not familiar with circumstances in the District that required it to budget as it did. The Board urges that consideration of these circumstances mandates that the Acting Commissioner's judgment be set aside and that its determination be sustained, which would allow it to increase its budget as it requested.

We find the Board's arguments to be entirely without merit. Even cursory reading of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) clearly shows that the terms of that provision do not automatically entitle a district board to any waiver, let alone a waiver for the specific amount it requests when it applies. N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) provides:

A board of education of a school district which:
(1) for two years prior to the prebudget year, has had an annual average increase in the district's resident enrollment which is greater than two percent; or (2) between the prebudget year and the year prior to the prebudget year, has had an increase in the district's local cost for special education pupils which is greater than five percent; or (3) during the 1990-91 school year but prior to April 1, 1991, has entered into a lease purchase agreement, may apply to the Commissioner of Education for a waiver of the expenditure limitation established pursuant to this section....Any waiver granted by the commissioner pursuant to this subsection shall not be included in the question on excess expenditures which is to be submitted to the voters of the district pursuant to subsection f. of this section.

Under the terms of this provision, a district whose enrollment has increased more than 2% or whose costs for special education have increased more than 5%, may apply to the Commissioner for a waiver of its budget limitation. Even here, the statute is permissive rather than mandatory, and a district meeting the criteria is not required to apply for a waiver.

Nor do the terms of the statute require that the Commissioner grant a waiver, either in full or in part, to a district which meets the statutory criteria for applying. There is no ambiguity in the language of the statute. The criteria specified therein represent prerequisites for applying for a waiver rather than a mandate that the Commissioner automatically increase the district's spending level.

This is consistent with the statutory framework. N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(a) bases a district's maximum budget for the current year on its budget for the previous year. This limits the rate at which the District is permitted to increase its spending in the current year. If the budget for the previous year had been the minimal amount necessary for the district to provide a thorough and efficient education, an increase in enrollment, for example, might well automatically require an increase in the district's maximum budget the next year in order to enable the district to provide a minimally thorough and efficient education. However, under the system currently in place, a district's budget for the year does not represent the minimal amount a district needs to provide a constitutionally adequate education. Thus, the need for increasing the maximum budget in subsequent years is not automatic.

Where the conditions specified in the statute are presented, the district is afforded the opportunity to apply for a waiver if it needs one. At that point, the Commissioner must determine whether those conditions have changed circumstances in the district so that it is necessary to increase the district's maximum permissible budget. The judgment which the Commissioner must make is whether such an increase is necessary, and, if so, the amount required, in order for the district to be able to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students. Cf. East Windsor Reg'l Bd. of Ed. v. State Bd. of Ed., 172 N.J. Super 547, 552 (App. Div. 1980). Given the statutory framework, no other construction is possible. The fact that the State Board of Education has not established by regulation exactly what constitutes a thorough and efficient education can not confer on a district an absolute right to exceed its maximum budget once it meets the statutory prerequisites to request to do so.

This conclusion does not limit the quality of the education which the district can provide to one that is merely minimally adequate in constitutional terms. As stated, the amount of a district's maximum permissible budget does not represent a determination of the minimum amount necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education. Generally, it is well in excess of that amount.

Moreover, under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), any district can seek voter approval to exceed its maximum permissible budget in a given year for any purpose. Hence, no district is deprived of the opportunity to enhance its programs as much as it wants so long as its voters approve. The distinction between the two kinds of expenditure limitations is that a waiver granted by the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) is automatically incorporated into the rate at which the district's budget is permitted to grow in future years. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), the increased budget growth accrues to the district only for the year for which the voters approved the additional expenditures, and it does not act to automatically inflate the budgets for future years.

We find no merit to the contention that our regulations entitle any school district to retain a 3% surplus. N.J.A.C. 6:20-2A.11(a) provides in pertinent part that:

A district board of education requesting to exceed the permissible rate of increase pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28 shall appropriate all available general fund free balance in excess of three percent of the general fund budget for the budget year such request is made.

While we believe that it is generally prudent for a district board to retain three percent in unrestricted free balance, i.e., surplus, nothing in this regulation confers an entitlement to retain any surplus. Nor is such a legal entitlement granted by any other provision of the education laws.

In this case, we see no risk that reduction of this District's surplus will leave it with insufficient funds to meet any unexpected circumstances it may confront this year. The record demonstrates that, in reviewing the District's request, the Commissioner and his representatives focused on this particular district's history of underestimating its surplus and of retaining excess surplus over the course of several years. We find that these amounts were sufficiently large to justify a conclusion that the District could allocate additional funds to support its operations this year without putting itself in a precarious position.

The Board concedes this by its justification for retaining a large surplus. As delineated in its brief, it wants to distribute its excess surplus over several years so as to prevent the tax rate from fluctuating. This may or may not be a legitimate objective,¹ but it has no relation to the educational needs of the District for this year. Moreover, because these funds are unencumbered, there is no guarantee that the district will ultimately use any of those funds as it plans.

Similarly, the record fails to support the Board's claim that the Acting Commissioner was not familiar with the circumstances in the District which required it to budget as it proposed. All the circumstances which the Board delineates in this appeal were set forth in the documents submitted to the Commissioner by the District itself either initially or on request from the Commissioner's representatives. The fact that the Acting Commissioner made judgments about those circumstances with which the Board does not agree does not make his determinations arbitrary. Nor has the Board demonstrated to us that it can not provide a thorough and efficient education without increasing the amount of its expenditure limitation beyond the amount of the waiver granted it by the Acting Commissioner.

Therefore, for the reasons set forth in this opinion, the State Board of Education affirms the Acting Commissioner's decision.

 TOWNSHIP COUNCIL OF EASTAMPTON, : DECISION
 BURLINGTON COUNTY, :
 RESPONDENT. :

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
 APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION :
 OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EASTAMPTON, :
 BURLINGTON COUNTY. :

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $271,300 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $57,396.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $213,904 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $182,794 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $2,230,542 for 1994-95 school year.

Steven J. Mushinski, Esq. for Petitioner

John E. Harrington, Esq., for Respondent

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 20, 1994, through the filing of a Verified Petition of Appeal of a controversy which has arisen pursuant to the authority vested in the Commissioner by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 to hear and determine controversies under the school laws of the State and in accordance with the Attorney General Opinion No. 91-0036 (1991) by reasons of the following facts:

1. Petitioner is the Board of Education of the Township of Eastampton in the County of Burlington, New Jersey ("Board") and is required by the Constitution and statutes of New Jersey to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

2. On or about March 24, 1994, the Board submitted its proposed budget for the 1994-95 school year to the Burlington County Superintendent of Schools, along with a cap waiver request of $137,648 for enrollment increases and $182,987 for special education cost increases.

3. The Board also requested a Voter Cap waiver in the amount of $213,904.

4. The Commissioner approved a cap waiver request of $320,635 for enrollment and special education cost increases. On March 30, 1994, the County Superintendent notified the Board that the 1994-95 school year budget had been conditionally approved subject to the advertisement of a Voter Cap waiver proposal in the amount of $213,904.

5. On April 19, 1994, at the annual election, the Board submitted a General Fund Budget tax levy proposal in the amount of $2,047,748 to the voters of the School District pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-23 and a cap waiver in the amount of $213,904.

At said election the voters rejected the General Fund tax levy as well as the voter cap waiver.

6. Within the time provided for by statute, the Board delivered its proposed school budget to the Township Council of Township of Eastampton (Township).

7. On May 19, 1994, the Township, after consultation with the Board, passed resolution No. 1994-47 certifying that $1,990,352 was, in the judgment of the Township Council, necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district. However, in computing the tax certification, the Township erroneously combined the General Fund and voter cap waiver for a total tax levy base of $2,261,652. (This amount included the $2,047,748 of General Fund tax levy and the $213,904 for the voter cap waiver.) The net effect of the resolution and subsequent certification of taxes was that the General Fund budget and the cap waiver amount were $271,300 less than the combined amounts originally proposed by the Board. (Since the tax levy reduction commingled both the regular budget appropriations and the voter cap waiver requests, the Commissioner will combine the two areas for purposes of this appeal, will address the cap appeal first, and will treat the difference as a disputed amount separate from the cap appeal.)

8. On May 23, 1994, the Board adopted a resolution authorizing an appeal of the $271,300 tax reduction to the Commissioner of Education on the grounds that the amount certified by the Township would not be sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Moreover, the Commissioner has the constitutional obligation to ensure that a school district budget is sufficient for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Robinson v. Cahill, 69 N.J. 449, 463 (1976) (Robinson V); Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287 (1990). In order to meet this duty, the Commissioner is charged with the responsibility to review defeated budgets which had been "conditionally certified" by the county superintendent, subject to voter approval to exceed the statutory budget limitation (cap waiver). See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991). Upon review, the Commissioner may order an increase in those limited instances where it is necessary to meet the constitutional mandate. Districts must demonstrate both that particular amounts above the cap are necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education, and that reallocation within the permissible budget amount cannot be accomplished. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County (decided by the State Board of Education July 6, 1994); see AAA 91-0036, supra.

In addition, the Commissioner has reviewed the budget beyond the reduction made by the Borough. Moreover, on December 16, 1994, the Commissioner notified the parties that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.2, he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end district audit as it related to the amount of undesigned surplus available to the district. Upon such review, the Commissioner determined that the undesigned surplus was less than 1%.

Mindful then of the balance to be applied in this standard of review with respect to the various line items contained in the cap waiver request, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the consolidated petition of appeal before him:

Because of the erroneous commingling of the regular and voter tax levies, cap waiver issues will be considered and deducted from the total Township revision. The balance of $57,396 will be considered as an appeal of the regular budget tax levy as a salary revision.

The cap waiver amounts under appeal in this matter are as follows:

Account		Amount
11-130-100-101	Regular Programs - Instruction Grades 6--8 Salaries of Teachers	$46,620

The request of the Board is approved, based only on the potential elimination of a reading specialist in the middle school. The Board's argument that class sizes would be increased ignores the enrollment cap waiver. The Council's position that salary accounts were overbudgeted based on their review is difficult to accept in the absence of the specific study referred to.

Account		Amount
11-190-100-610	General Supplies	($ 7,916)

The request of the Board is denied. The Board has had an approved increase in the budget for enrollment increases.

Account	Amount
11-000-260-610 General Supplies	$ 2,242

The request of the Board is approved due to the additional square feet of space.

Account	Amount
11-190-100-640 Textbooks	($ 2,422)

The request of the Board is denied. Textbook purchases should be accommodated within the cap waiver allowance for increased enrollment.

Account	Amount
11-230-100-101 Salaries of Teachers	$32,000

The request of the Board is approved. English as a second language is a program that is consistent with state requirements for a thorough and efficient system of education.

Account	Amount
11-000-222-100 Salaries	$31,275
	Disallowed (18,000)
	Allowed $13,275

The request of the Board is approved for $13,275 since the base budget apparently includes the $18,000 budgeted for the non-certified person.

Account	Amount
111-000-260-100 General Supplies	$10,000

The request of the Board is approved, due the additional square feet of space.

Account		Amount
11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$18,436
	Disallowed	(2,772)
	Allowed	$15,664

The request of the Board is approved except for the percentage of benefit costs for the $18,000 disallowed in account 11-000-222-110.

Account		Amount
12-120-100-730	Equipment	$26,643
12-130-100-730		$26,400
12-000-400-450		$ 9,950

The requests of the Board are approved based on the additional square feet of space and the need to repair unsafe areas. The Commissioner is persuaded to restore these amounts based on the representation of the Board that the equipment in question was not included as part of the bond referendum. Both requests are consistent with requirements for a thorough and efficient system of education.

Account		Amount
11-230-100-101	Township revision over the Cap Waiver	$57,396

Since the Township combined the separate T&E waiver and the tax levy for the regular capped budget they, in effect, funded the regular budget by the amount of the cap waiver ($213,904). The amount over the waiver amount is $57,396. Township arguments were generally too broad or, in the case of salaries, did not provide sufficient information in the form of the study referred to for the Commissioner to sustain the Township position. The additional amount over the cap waiver is approved for Salary purposes.

In summary, upon review of the documentation submitted on this matter, the Commissioner finds and determines that $57,396 of the revisions recommended by Council is essential to provide a thorough and efficient educational system and $182,794 of the original cap waiver request are also essential and that a further reallocation of funds within the districts maximum permissible budget is not possible (Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, Bergen County, decided by the State Board of Education, July 7, 1993.)

Accordingly, the Burlington County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $2,230,542 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes for the 1994-95 school year as per the following calculations.

	General Fund
Tax Levy Certified by Council	$1,990,352
Ordered by Commissioner:
Restoration Council Reductions	$ 57,396
Cap Waiver Approval	182,794
Total Commissioner Decision	240,190
Total Taxes to Be Raised for 1994-95 School Year	$2,230,542

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
 APPEAL FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF HOLMDEL TOWNSHIP, MONMOUTH : DECISION
 COUNTY. :
 _____ :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 20, 1995

For the Appellant, Reussille, Mausner, Carotenuto, Bruno & Barger (Martin N. Barger, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated by a request to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) by the Board of Education of Holmdel Township to exceed its maximum permissible budget for 1995-96 by $943,060. The Acting Commissioner approved $660,008 of the request, and denied $283,052.

On appeal, the District is seeking modification of the Acting Commissioner's determination so as to increase the amount awarded. The District maintains that any denial should be limited to the amount of $34,063.

On April 3, 1995, the Commissioner acknowledged that a technical error had been made in this matter with respect to budgeted tuition payments for special education tuition. He requested that we enter this fact on the record before us and increase the amount of the District's waiver by $25,171.

After careful review, the State Board of Education affirms the Acting Commissioner's determination granting approval to the

April 5, 1995

District to exceed its maximum permissible budget. In so doing, we stress that the District was required to demonstrate to us that an increase beyond its maximum permissible budget was required in the amount it requested in order for the District to be able to provide a thorough and efficient education. In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal for the Board of Education of the Hopewell Valley Regional School District, decided by the State Board, April 5, 1995; cf. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994.

After reviewing the documentation, we are not convinced that it is necessary for the District to increase its maximum budget beyond the amount of the increase approved by the Acting Commissioner as modified herein.

APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BRANCHBURG, : DECISION SOMERSET COUNTY :
_____ :

John E. Collins, Esq. (Carroll & Weiss), for Petitioner Cheryl J. Bereschak, Esq. (Woolson, Sutphen, Anderson and Nergaard), for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 29, 1994, by way of a Petition of Appeal filed by the Board of Education of the Borough of Branchburg (Board) seeking approval by the Commissioner of a Thorough and Efficient (T&E) cap waiver of $861,327 which was defeated by the voters of the district at the annual school elections held on April 19, 1994. An Answer to the above-cited Petition of Appeal was filed by the Township Committee (Township) of the Township of Branchburg in July 7, 1994. Position Statements were filed on July 20 and 27, 1994 by the Board or Township, respectively. Replies to the respective Position Statements were filed by each of the parties on August 5, 1994 whereupon no further papers being filed, the record was officially closed.

The Commissioner notes that in addition to the defeat of the cap waiver by the voters of the district, the proposed school budget was also defeated, which resulted in a determination by the Township to reduce the proposed General Fund tax levy, after consultation with the Board pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, by $260,216, thus reducing the General Fund tax levy certified to the Somerset County Board of Taxation to $16,118,133. Based upon the General Fund tax levy reduction, the Board appealed to the Commissioner for restoration of same. However, due to altered circumstances occasioned by an Appellate Division stay of the 1994-95 interest payments on the Board's lease-purchase plan, the Board reallocated the $231,451 intended for such interest payments to fund programs reduced by the Township in its certification, and withdrew its budget appeal. Based upon advice of the Somerset County Acting Superintendent of Schools recommending approval of the withdrawal of the budget appeal contingent upon going forward in the cap waiver appeal, the Commissioner approved the withdrawal of the budget appeal leaving only the cap waiver appeal before him. (See Commissioner's letter of October 31, 1994.)

The sole account for which the waiver in this matter is being sought is 11-000-000-100-561-01-102, entitled Tuition Regular in the amount of $861,327.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

The Commissioner's authority to grant cap waivers stems from his obligation to assure that each school district has sufficient funding available to it to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. (See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 dated July 8, 1991.)

In order to direct an increase in the maximum permissible budget under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) in the face of a defeat of such cap waiver request by the voters of the district, the Commissioner must determine that the base budget does not contain the minimum amount necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, and that no reallocations are possible within the framework of that budget. Further, upon so determining, the Commissioner may only grant such cap waiver upon determining that the items within the cap waiver are essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. (See Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater decided by State Board July 6, 1994.)

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Set forth below are the respective positions of the parties and the determination of the Commissioner.

The Board's initial argument sets forth the fact that its entire budget was scrutinized by the Acting Somerset County Superintendent of Schools and both the budget and the cap waiver were approved as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. The cap waiver in this matter consists of $861,327 which the Board contends is necessary to cover a shortfall of that amount in its tuition account for providing high school education for the pupils of the district. The Board alleges the following tuition obligations:

Somerville High School (447 at $8,820)	$3,942,540
Adjustment to 1991-92	214,492
Hunterdon Central H.S. (3 agricultural students)	31,392
Total Tuition	$4,188,424

Since it claims to have only been able to budget $3,327,097, the $861,327 represents the minimum necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education.

The Township argues that a review of the budget reveals that the tuition appropriation for 1994-95 is less than that for 1993-94 ($4,263,161), as opposed to $4,188,424 thus indicating a cap waiver is not needed. The Township alleges that if the tuition has not put the budget over cap, then another factor must be responsible. The Township identifies this factor as the Board's lease-purchase proposal.

It is the Township's contention that the $1,704,400 in proposed appropriations for principal and interest on the lease purchase proposal puts the Board's budget over cap. The Township alleges that a lease-purchase transaction is not grounds for a T&E cap waiver. It further contends that even if it were determined to be essential to a T&E education, sufficient funds exist within the budget because of the Appellate Division's stay. The Township further alleges that the current budget contains funds for two semi-annual interest payments of $704,700 each, and a principal payment of $295,000 totaling $1,704,700. Because of the stay, asserts the Township, the principal payment and at least one interest payment will not be paid, leaving almost one million dollars available to the Board to meet its tuition obligations.

The Board counters in its reply that the placing of $861,327 into a tuition cap waiver was accomplished at the recommendation of the Somerset County School Business Administrator. It further alleges that N.J.A.C. 6:22A-1.2(k) requires that lease purchase funds must be placed in the base budget, thus requiring that the tuition amount be in a cap waiver.

The Board alleges that while it is aware that the Appellate Division's stay reduces the amount to be paid by the Board toward its lease-purchase agreement, it cannot reduce its 1994-95 appropriation for such purpose by the full amount, lest it be required to seek an even larger cap waiver in 1995-96. The Board further argues that by adopting its present course of action of maintaining a payment schedule of two interest payments and one principal payment, it saves the taxpayers $688,000 over the term of the lease purchase. The Board further points out that pursuant to that above payment schedule, its savings were $231,451 which it appropriated to fund program previously deemed essential by the Acting Somerset County Superintendent but which were reduced by the Township upon defeat of the budget.

In an affidavit from Ingrid Keller, School Business Administrator, attached to the Board's reply, Ms. Keller points out that the Board expects that the State Board of Education will rule on the Township's appeal of the Commissioner's approval of the lease purchase agreement, and thus anticipates the right to its certificates of participation in October of 1994. The Board's payment schedule outlined above has been established in anticipation of the State Board's ruling. In further defense of the Board's decision, Ms. Keller refers to Exhibit A (attached) which posts the payment schedule proposed by the Board, and Exhibit B (see attached) which posts the payment schedule delaying payment until 1995-96. The difference between the two indicates a greater cost of $688,000 if the current payment schedule as outlined in Exhibit A is not maintained.

The Township's reply to the Board's Position Statement emphasizes the standard which the Commissioner must apply pursuant to Edgewater, supra. It contends that any increase without a solid factual basis that no reallocations are possible would controvert the terms of the statute and State Board decisions. Thus, the Township argues the Board has not met its burden of proof since it believes that funds within the budget can be reallocated. It therefore urges the Commissioner to reject the waiver.

The Commissioner has carefully considered the arguments of the parties. The Commissioner has also reviewed, in detail, the affidavit of the Somerset County Superintendent in recommending approval of the T&E cap waiver and indicating the reduction of the original cap waiver request by $246,000. Finally, the Commissioner has independently reviewed the budget for purposes of determining whether such budget is the less than the minimal amount necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education or whether further reallocations may be made.

At this point, even if the certificates of participation (COPs) were issued immediately, the first payment could be arranged to occur in fiscal year 1995-96. The Commissioner determines, therefore, in light of the changed circumstances articulated herein, the cap waiver amounts are not essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

 APPEAL FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCA- :
 TION OF EDISON TOWNSHIP, : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
 MIDDLESEX COUNTY. : DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 20, 1995

For the Appellant, Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer (Gordon J. Golum, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated by a request to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) by the Board of Education of Edison Township to exceed its maximum permissible budget for 1995-96 by $2,932,361. The Acting Commissioner approved $1,030,612 of the request, and denied $1,901,749.

On appeal, the District is seeking modification of the Acting Commissioner's determination so as to increase the amount awarded.

After carefully reviewing the documentation, including that provided to the County Superintendent as well as the submissions on appeal, the State Board of Education affirms the Acting Commissioner's determination granting approval to the District to exceed its maximum permissible budget by $1,030,612 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) and denying it approval to further exceed its permissible budget by an additional $1,901,749. In so doing, we stress that the District was required to demonstrate to us that an increase beyond its maximum permissible budget was required in the amount it requested in order for the District to be able to provide a thorough and efficient education. In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal for the Board of Education of the Hopewell Valley Regional School District, decided by the State Board, April 5, 1995; cf. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994.

The submissions here, including the lengthy certification prepared by the District's Superintendent in support of the appeal, have failed to convince us that it is necessary for the District to increase its maximum budget beyond the amount of the increase approved by the Acting Commissioner.

SYNOPSIS

City appealed General Fund tax levy certified by State District Superintendent $44,700,074 for the 1994-95 school year.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether City demonstrated that specific line item reductions exceeded the amount necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to order specific line item reductions of $748,897 and reallocations in the amount of $4,900,000 for a total General Fund Tax Levy for the 1994-95 school year of $39,051,177.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DECISION

Susan E. Champion, Esq., for Petitioner
Russell J. Schumacher, Esq. (Rand, Algeier, Tosti & Woodruff), for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner by way of a Petition of Appeal filed on May 1, 1994, by the City Council of the City of Paterson (City) seeking reduction of the General Fund tax levy for school purposes in the City of Paterson of $10,000,224. On May 16, 1994, the State-Operated School District of the City of Paterson (District) filed its Answer to the Petition of Appeal.
Position Statements were filed by the parties on September 15, 1994, with replies to the aforesaid Position Statements being filed on September 30, 1994. No further papers being filed, the record was officially closed upon expiration of the time for filing of summaries.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-52(a) the State district superintendent of a State-operated school district is required to "...fix and determine the amount of money necessary to be appropriated for the ensuing school year and shall certify the amounts to be raised by special district tax for school purposes... to the county board of taxation and the amount or amounts so certified shall be included in the taxes assessed, levied and collected in the municipality or municipalities comprising the district."

Unlike other budget appeal processes in the State of New Jersey, it is the municipality which must appeal the determination of the amount necessary to be raised for school purposes setting forth those specific line items which it believes can be reduced without obstructing the district's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. Based upon the statutory language summarized above, the City proposed the following tax levy reduction:

Proposed Tax Levy Certified By State District Superintendent		Amount of Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body
General Fund	$44,700,074	General Fund	$-0-*
 Amount of Reduction in Dispute Before Commissioner
Current Expense	$10,000,224

*Paterson School District is under State takeover and provisions do not provide for City Council certification.

In rendering judgment relative to budget appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education and makes the Commissioner of Education and the State Board of Education responsible for ensuring its implementation.

However, by way of statutory scheme established for State-operated school districts, the Legislature has authorized the State district superintendent to fix and determine the amount of tax levy necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17, 22-37 and N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-52(a) has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies or, as in the instant matter, an appeal of a municipality seeking a reduction in the tax levy certified by a State district superintendent of a State-operated school district. (See also Board of Education of the Township of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the "Commissioner must determine the amount necessary for the district to provide a thorough and efficient educational program including the implementation of the plan to correct deficiencies." N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-52(a). In so doing, the standard is "whether the City has demonstrated that the certification of the State Superintendent is in excess of that required to provide for a thorough and efficient education." Mayor and Council of the City of Jersey City v. State-Operated School District of Jersey City, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d(EDU) 474, 475.

In furtherance of this duty, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that, pursuant to N.J.A.C.

1:1-15.2, he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end district audit as it relates to the amount of undesignated surplus available to the district. Additionally, recognizing his special statutory responsibility towards a state-operated district to provide funds for a thorough and efficient education while permitting the implementation of its plan to correct deficiencies, the Commissioner, on January 12, 1995, notified the parities that he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end audit to also consider the amount of outstanding encumbrances and the educational improvement plan (EIP) balance from 1993-94 reserved for future projects. The district responded to these notices by requesting that the Commissioner not take this official notice. In addition, the Commissioner grants the District's request that he recognize that the City has obtained tax relief from the Department of Community Affairs since the inception of the state takeover.

In the instant matter, the City petitioned the Commissioner seeking reduction of the following specific line items for the reasons set forth below:

Line Item	Account Number	1994-95 Appropriate	Revised Appropriate	Reduction¹
Salaries Gr. 1-5	11-120-100-101	$24,394,832	$23,157,260	$1,237,260

Comment: Revised figure is $422,306 over 1993-94 projected expenditure.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

The City submits that the proposed reductions which it has set forth in its Petition of Appeal and its Position Statement will not adversely affect the ability of the District to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. The City iterates that its proposed reductions were made with full consideration of the fact that Paterson is a special needs district as statutorily defined by the Quality Education Act. Notwithstanding such recognition on the City's part, it points out that the City of Paterson like other urban centers also has special needs and must concern itself with providing services to its citizens in addition to meeting its school needs. Considering these needs, argues the City, does not constitute political or inappropriate concerns.

The District points out the burden of proof which prevails in budgetary appeals involving a State-operated school district. The District argues that it is the burden of the governing body to demonstrate that the appropriations established by the State district superintendent are in excess of the amount necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. It further points out that continuing inequities in the funding of special needs districts led the New Jersey Supreme Court in Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287 (1990) to direct the Legislature to devise a funding formula which would permit greater expenditures for special needs districts so that such districts might reach the same level of average expenditures as the most affluent districts. The District further points out that the Quality Education Act was passed in order to provide for such increased expenditures so that the special needs districts of the state could meet their constitutional mandate of providing a thorough and efficient system of education. The position of the Court was reiterated in Abbott by Abbott v. Burke, 136 N.J. 444 (1994).

The Commissioner has carefully reviewed the documents submitted and considered the arguments presented by the parties in support of their respective positions. The Commissioner notes that the City's position relative to its recommended reductions may generally be reduced to two broad categories, namely recommended deductions in salary accounts and recommended reductions in general supplies, purchased services and miscellaneous accounts. Within each of the broad categories indicated above, the rationale for each of the line item reductions are essentially identical. Therefore, the Commissioner will, for reasons of brevity and to avoid repetitious arguments, consider the arguments of the parties relative to these categories collectively, unless otherwise indicated, and render his judgment.

Below are set forth the line item accounts, the amounts of recommended reductions in the salary accounts, the arguments of the parties relative to such accounts and the Commissioner's findings:

Essentially the City argues that its proposed reductions in all salary line item accounts are based upon 1993-94 actual expenditures plus 4.5% for salary increases over the 1993-94 amount. The City argues that increases of that magnitude are reasonable in light of what it believes to be stable enrollment, which makes additions to staffing unnecessary.

The City further argues that an article in USA Today of August 22, 1994, cites a study by the Educational Research Service of Arlington, Virginia which said that the average increase for all public school employees was 3.2% but only 0.9% in school systems with more than 25,000 students. Since Paterson's enrollment is slightly less than 25,000 the City contends that a reasonable salary increase should be closer to the 0.9% figure rather than the 3.2% figure.

In several of the salary accounts, the City points out that actual expenditures for 1993-94 resulted in unexpected balances yet increases in those accounts have been projected for 1994-95. Finally, the City argues that its use of a 4.5% figure for anticipated salary increases is in line with salary increases received by other school district employees in the Paterson geographic area.

The District argues that its salary needs are determined through the process of collective bargaining and thus the determination of the City that a 4.5% increase is "reasonable" is arbitrary. The District observes that it must budget an adequate amount to ensure a sufficiency of funds to meet its salary needs at the conclusion of the bargaining process.

In an affidavit submitted as part of its Position Statement, Frank Pepe, District Business Administrator, contends that salary appropriations are based upon the actual number of anticipated employees for the 1994-95 school year. He further points out that these salary accounts include not only straight salary but, also, include funds for productivity compensation as part of the existing contract as well as allocation for costs of substitutes and class coverage compensation.

Pepe concludes his position by stating that the district cannot reveal the amount budgeted for salary increases but contends that it is a reasonable amount. He argues that failure to budget a sufficient amount in these accounts would result in the necessity to transfer monies into teacher salary accounts and thus, impact upon other programs in a negative manner.

The Commissioner has carefully considered the positions presented by the parties relative to the reductions recommended by the City in the salary accounts. Based upon such review and consideration, the Commissioner concludes that the position of the City is overly simplistic in the manner in which it calculated the District's salary needs. Even if one were to conclude that a salary increase of 4.5% is reasonable, to limit the flexibility of the District to that precise amount is imprudent in a process which is not determined solely by managerial will. Further, as pointed out by the District, the monies appropriated in the salary accounts are not limited solely to the number of employees times a fixed percentage of increase. The City allows no funds for payment of substitutes or the movement which normally occurs on the salary guide as employees move from one educational level of the guide to another. In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner finds and determines that the City has failed to meet its burden of demonstrating that the funds appropriated by the district in the above listed 26 salary accounts exceed that which is necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education to the pupils of the Paterson School District and he directs that the $7,384,414 appropriated in these accounts be sustained.

The City has proposed reductions in General Supplies and purchased professional services in the programs and amounts listed below:

The reductions in the above accounts proposed by the City are based upon the actual 1993-94 expenditures for each of the above cited line item accounts. On an item by item basis the City contends that the increased appropriations contained in the 1994-95 budget as certified by the State district superintendent far exceed the amounts actually expended in 1993-94. The City likewise questions the significant number of encumbrances found throughout the budget at the end of the 1993-94 school year. It questions whether such encumbrances were actually for supplies to be used during the 1994-95 school year. It also questions the justification for the large increases in appropriations in these accounts for the 1994-95 school year.

The District argues that as a State-operated district it was advised by the Passaic County Superintendent of Schools and the Assistant Commissioner of Education for Finance, both of whom approved the budget as consistent with providing a thorough and efficient system of education. Business Administrator Pepe contends that every effort was expended to minimize the impact of the District budget upon local taxpayers. Pepe argues that proof of this prudence is demonstrated by the fact that the 1994-95 budget increased by only 2.15% over the revised 1993-94 budget and is $8,786,407 under the maximum permitted budget cap imposed by the State of New Jersey.

Pepe argues for the District that the City budget appeal rationale is its conclusion that the District has overbudgeted based solely upon a review of the District's expenditures for specific line items in 1993-94 as of April 1, 1994. Pepe argues that previous Commissioners' decisions have found such conclusions to be unfounded. Pepe asserts that Paterson, a large district, has occasion to make numerous line item transfers throughout the year, therefore, previous year spending in any single account is not an accurate indicator of Paterson's needs for the 1994-95 school year.

The Commissioner has carefully reviewed and considered the arguments of each of the parties in reference to the reductions in the area of supplies and purchased services recommended by the City in this appeal. As the Commissioner has previously pointed out in his decision involving the City of Paterson and the Paterson School District in 1993-94:

 (G)iven this district's history of educational inadequacy and fiscal mismanagement which resulted in our decision to order creation of a state-operated district we found that the historical spending patterns of this particular district cannot be used to conclude that amounts in its 1991-92 budget have been over-budgeted. Rather, in reviewing this district's budget, we must be particularly attentive to whether the district financial resources will be sufficient to enable it to meet the educational needs of its students.

Paterson City Council v. State-Operated District of the City of Paterson, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 98, 102 citing, Mayor and Council of City of Jersey City v. State-Operated School District of the City of Jersey City, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 474. Once again the Commissioner must point out as he did in the 1993-94 decision involving the same parties that the Supreme Court of the State of New Jersey found in Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287 (1990) that there are 30 special needs districts in this State where there has existed a severe state of fiscal underfunding. Further, N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-1 et seq., better known as the Quality Education Act, seeks to provide a funding mechanism for special needs districts to achieve an expenditure level which seeks to reach a point within five years that will be equal to the average expenditures of the most affluent districts.

Nevertheless, even considering that the budget as proposed by the State district superintendent is over $8 million below its maximum permitted cap and approximately only 2% greater than its 1993-94 budget, upon independent review, the Commissioner finds that certain amounts in the following accounts are not essential and are unnecessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. These accounts, therefore, may be partially reduced, as follows:

11-000-222-600--Library Supplies/Materials

Original 94/95	Revised 94/95	Reduction
$651,812	$545,027	$106,785

11-000-230-339--Other Purchased Professional Services

Original 94/95	Revised 94/95	Reduction
$281,000	$147,000	$134,000

11-000-260-590--Miscellaneous Purchased Services

Original 94/95	Revised 94/95	Reduction
$446,000	$337,888	$108,112

11-000-310-930--Deficit For Food Service

93/94	Original 94/95	Revised 94/95	Reduction
$400,000	$400,000	$200,000	$200,000

- 18 -

The Commissioner also notes that as the District itself points out, its special status as a State-operated school district permits the City to seek tax relief from the Division of Local Governing Services in the Department of Community Affairs if the tax rate as a result of the local fair share required to support the school budget subjects the City to a burden beyond its ability to assume. (See N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-52(b)) Consequently, the Commissioner accepts, only in part the recommendations of the City and determines that $548,897 be removed from the appropriations as certified by the State district superintendent.

In addition, upon independent review, the Commissioner determines that the district does, in fact, have $3,854,137 in outstanding encumbrances. This is an excessive amount of outstanding encumbrances found throughout the budget, as was asserted by the City. Consequently, the Commissioner determines that the City has met its burden of proof as to this issue and determines that $600,000 of outstanding encumbrances be cancelled.

Account	Reduction
11-000-260-620 Energy	$629,112

The City argues that the District's admission that it has already been required to transfer $512,796 from this account to cover expenses in other accounts is proof of the District's practice of overbudgeting this and other accounts.

The District contends that the increase in this account is justified by increased utilization of buildings during after-school hours, higher costs due to conversion from oil to gas necessitated by the need to remove underground oil tanks as required by law and expanded exterior lights installed to enhance safety.

The Commissioner, upon review of the respective positions of the parties finds that the City has met, in part, its burden of demonstrating that the district does not require this amount of expenditure in this account. The Commissioner finds, however, that the full reduction proposed by the City is too drastic and orders a reduction in the amount of $200,000.

Account	Reduction
11-000-290-890 Miscellaneous Expenditures	$61,200

The City proposed the reduction of this entire account since no such line item expenditure existed for such an account in 1993-94.

The District points out that the funds in this account were previously in other accounts but have been transferred to the above account because of the requirements of GAAP that the cost of professional organization dues for business division administrators be budgeted in this account.

The Commissioner finds the actions of the City relative to this account to be arbitrary and capricious and therefore, its recommended reduction of $61,200 is rejected.

Furthermore, the Commissioner, in recognition of his responsibility for scrutinizing the budget of a State-operated district has determined that the District has an unexpended EIP balance from 1993-94 in the amount of $3,558,187, of which at least $1,800,000 is for duplicate items which may be reallocated within the budget.

Finally, the record establishes that the District's undesignated fund balance is $4,563,806, $2,500,000 of which the Commissioner determines is not essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education and which is hereby ordered to be reallocated.

In conclusion, the Commissioner finds and determines that the City of Paterson has met in its burden to demonstrate that the portions of the amount budgeted by the State-Operated School District of the City of Paterson were not necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner therefore finds and determines that for the 1994-95 school year the School District of Paterson is in need of General Fund tax levy as specified below:

Account	Reduction
11-000-222-600 Library Materials	$ 106,785

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $357,400 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $90,000 for a total General Fund tax levy of $11,488,728 for 1994-95 school purposes.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 15, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Township of Warren Board of Education (Board), of a defeated budget pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.4. The Board sought restoration, on the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient education, of reductions made by the Township Committee of the Township of Warren (Committee) following voter rejection on April 19, 1994, of the Board's General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year. Subsequent to the defeat, the Board and Borough, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2), consulted on the defeated budget. The Borough reduced the General Fund tax levy by $357,400. Consequently, the monies in contention in this matter are set forth below:

On June 30, 1994, the Committee submitted its Answer to the Petition. Position Statements were filed by both the Board and the Committee on August 1, 1994. The Committee submitted the School District Budget Statement on August 16, 1994. Responses to the Statements were filed by both the Board and the Committee on August 19, 1994, and Summations were received from both parties on September 2, 1994.

The proposed General Fund tax levy included an approved Commissioner's cap waiver of $821,785. As a result of the State Board of Education's July 7, 1993 decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford and the July 6, 1994 decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, wherein the State Board ruled that the review of budgets with cap waivers must include both a determination of whether reallocation within the district's maximum permissible budget is possible if, and to what extent, the specific programs at issue are essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, the county superintendent and a cap waiver review panel in the Department of Education reviewed the budget and reached the determination for the approved cap waiver.

The specific reductions in the General Fund tax levy are as follows:

		TOTAL	$357,400

The Board in its documents argues that there should be full restoration of the reduction certified by the Borough because it has already been determined with the review for the Commissioner's cap waiver that all the funds are essential for a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner, however, must, thoroughly review the documents presented on appeal and issue a determination on the funds required for a thorough and efficient education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 et al. (see discussion at page 6, infra).

Another issue that must be addressed prior to determination in this matter is the position of the Board that the Committee abdicated its responsibility to review the budget for educational necessity and imposed reductions only to mollify the voters. The Board alleges that the reasons for the reductions as submitted by the Committee are "deficient." It is noted that the Committee resolution on the reductions does state that "the voters..., by the rejection of the school budget, instructed the Township Committee to reduce said budget." This position is obviously not consistent with the intent of statute and code for a review of the defeated budget by the municipal governing body to determine the amount needed for a thorough and efficient educational system. It is also noted, however, that the Committee resolution also states the "importance of avoiding deductions in educational instruction and program areas" and that the reductions were based on "(1) deferring or reducing in scope capital projects; (2) purchasing items over longer periods of time; and (3) maintaining current staffing level." These statements do convey an understanding of responsible budget review. The Commissioner, therefore, accepts and considers the positions presented by both parties in this matter.

The Board also cites as a financial hardship the additional costs which will result from the newly elected board not agreeing to the grade level allocation plan on which the 1994-95 budget was based. This issue, however, does not directly bear on the matters under appeal herein and may not color the Commissioner's determinations on those matters.

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37, has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item has been reduced by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Mindful, then, of the balance to be applied in his review, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the reduction in the General Fund tax levy effectuated by the Committee.

11-000-218-104	Other Support Services-Guidance	$10,000
----------------	--	-----------------

The Committee bases this reduction on postponing the new guidance counselor position at the elementary school level and having the Board continue with services from the Morris-Union Consortium. The Board states that the employment of a full-time elementary counselor is only an increase of one day per week because it would replace three days per week that have been provided by the Child Study Team and one day a week by contracted services. The critical factor in the determination on this item, however, is that the more extended guidance services are not required for elementary school students by the mandate for a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $10,000.

11-000-221-102 Imp. of Inst. Services-Curriculum $1,400

The Committee bases this reduction on maintaining the present curriculum status. The Board states that the funds are necessary for development and revision of curriculum, the need for which is particularly acute this year in order to prepare for monitoring. The Board also mentions the possible need to transfer funds ($20,000) from this account to the instructional account for teacher salaries. The continuing development of curriculum is absolutely essential in the provision of a thorough and efficient education. However, the need for funds in other accounts is not a valid argument for the restoration of funds. The reduction certified by the Committee still provides funds in excess of that budgeted and projected for expenditure in 1993-94 according to budget documents presented. Based on the data presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,400.

11-000-221-320 Purchased Curriculum Services $1,500

The Committee bases this reduction on decreasing the number of proposed new workshops using outside contractors. The Board does not address this item separately but includes it in the general argument for funds for curriculum development. The funds in this line item after the reduction certified by the Committee are more than twice the projected expenditures for 1993-94, as shown in budget documents presented. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,500.

11-000-221-610 Staff Development Room Supplies $2,000

The Committee bases this reduction on decreasing the purchase of supplies in 1994-95 and spreading the purchase over time to encompass the succeeding year. Again, the Board does not address this item separately but includes it in the general argument for curriculum development needs. According to the budget documents presented, no funds were budgeted for this item in 1993-94, and the reduction certified by the Committee still provides $4,000 of the $6,000 proposed by the Board. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $2,000.

11-000-222-340 Library-Purchased Services $3,500

The Committee bases this reduction on delaying purchases and holding expenditures to the 1993-94 level. The Board states that such a reduction would provide no funds in this line item and that the monies are needed for computer hardware and software service agreements. It is certainly essential that educational materials and equipment be properly maintained. The Commissioner orders restoration of the $3,500.

11-000-222-600 Library Supplies $13,500

The Committee again bases this reduction on delaying purchases and holding expenditures to the 1993-94 level. The Board states that the additional funds budgeted for this line item are for the purchase of new library books and software necessary because of extensive "weeding" of the libraries last summer. The Board specifies the allocation per school and the number of books planned for purchase at an estimated unit price. The provision of appropriate materials in a school library is a valid educational concern. Based on the facts presented, the Commissioner orders restoration of the $13,500.

11-000-223-610 Computer Supplies $5,000

The Committee bases this reduction on phasing in the purchase of software over a period of years. The Board states that this is the second year of a three to five year plan to incorporate technology into the district educational program. The Board submits a detailed list of planned purchases for each of the four schools in the district. The Board's position to provide technological supplies is a valid one and the multi-year plan is a fiscally reasonable one. The Commissioner orders restoration of the $5,000.

11-000-260-100 Custodial/Maintenance Salaries $11,000

The Committee eliminates the funds for a proposed part-time secretary and recommends maintaining the existing level of secretarial services. The Board states that the Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds has considerable administrative responsibility and has been requesting secretarial help for five years. The request for a full-time secretary was reduced to a half-time position. Although sufficient support staff is essential to the proper and effective operation of a school district, the Board has functioned without this position to this date and only cites as a problem the "inordinate amount of time" spent by the business office on transportation and facilities. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $11,000.

11-000-260-300 Custodial/Maint. Purchase Prof. Services $4,000

The Committee states that these funds for architectural services are also in another line item and need not be funded in two categories. The Board states that the funds in the two line items are for different services. In its Position Statement, the Board states, "It may be possible to accept this reduction." In the Board Response, however, a list of services included in this line item is presented in what appears to be a defense for restoration. Based on the Board's Position Statement and the fact that the amount certified after the reduction by the Committee greatly exceeds the amount budgeted and projected for expenditures in 1993-94 according to the budget documents presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $4,000.

11-000-260-420 Clean/Repair/Maintenance Services $17,500

The Committee bases the reduction on the deferral of specific projects - lavatory partitions, office and conference room renovations, and pavement resealing. The Board, in its Position Statement, acknowledges that they could accept the Committee's "compromise proposal," but that doing so would put more pressure on subsequent budgets. However, as with the above item, the Board in its Response defends the proposed projects as necessary and appears to be requesting restoration of funds. In the budget documents presented, the itemized list of projects included in this line item has a total for the three items cited by the Committee for deferral greater than the amount reduced. Also, the amount certified by the Committee after the reduction is greater than the amount budgeted and projected for expenditures in 1993-94. Based on these facts and the Board's Position Statement, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $17,500.

12-120-100-730 Equipment - Grades 1-5 $50,000

The Committee states that this reduction is possible with the spreading of the cost of proposed computer labs over a period of years. The Board states that the project cannot be completed in a "piecemeal" way because it is not possible to provide a computer lab in one school and not in another. The Board also states that sufficient equipment, twenty-four (24) computers per lab plus teacher equipment, must be provided at each site. Although this is a major expenditure, the provision for technological equipment and instruction is vital in this age of advancing technology, and the Board's concerns regarding equitable opportunities and equipment for all students are valid. Based on these facts, the Commissioner orders restoration of the $50,000.

12-000-240-730 Building Level Equipment $12,000

The Committee bases this reduction on deleting the purchase of a new copier for the middle school and utilizing the existing equipment. The Board states that they are already sacrificing on the purchase of equipment and that copier replacement has been kept to a minimum. The Board also states that a new copy center was instituted in the district last year and that the volume of copies requires this equipment. Although such equipment is important, the Board has not cited any detriment to the educational program which would result from the deferral of this purchase. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $12,000.

11-000-240-103 School Administration - Salaries $80,000

The Committee bases this reduction on providing salaries for four (4) principal positions since the district only has four (4) principals. The Board states that these funds were budgeted for the possible "buy out" of an administrator but that the individual voluntarily left with reimbursement for unused sick leave and earned vacation leave. The Board states that the balance of these funds after that reimbursement are necessary for other litigation and underbudgeted special education tuition. Again, it must be stressed that the Board cannot plead for the restoration of funds because of the need in other areas. Also, the employee benefits provided to the resigning administrator should be recorded in account 11-000-290-290, Other Employee Benefits, and not to this salary item. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $80,000.

12-000-400-450 Capital Projects

Central Sch.-Library, A/C	$16,000
Mt. Horeb School - A/C	2,000
ALT School - New Window	90,000
Woodland School - A/C	8,000
Maintenance Area Fencing	8,000
Maintenance Garage - Close one Bay	10,000

The Committee bases this reduction on the deferral of these projects to another year. The Board, in its Position Statement, acknowledges the possible deferral of the air conditioning at Mt. Horeb and Woodland Schools, the air conditioning ($6,000 of the total reduction) at Central School, and the fencing in the maintenance area. The Board continues in that Position Statement that the library shelving at Central School must be replaced for safety, efficiency and supervisory reasons and that the 30-year old carpeting there must also be replaced. They also state that the new windows at the A.L. Tomaso School are overdue because the present ones are energy inefficient and adversely affect teachers and students. The Board states that closing in the bay at the maintenance area would provide a secure storage area for supplies and vehicles. In the Board's Response, they confirm the elimination of the air conditioning project at Woodland School, and they state that the air conditioning projects at both Mt. Horeb School and Central School and the window replacement at A.L. Tomaso School are in a proposed referendum. In that document, however, they cite the need for both the fencing and bay closing at the maintenance area. The Commissioner agrees that the library shelving and carpeting at Central School must be replaced for safety reasons as indicated by the Board and, therefore, orders the restoration of $10,000 for this portion of the Central School reduction. The Commissioner further determines that the closing in of the bay in the maintenance area can be deferred with no detriment to thorough and efficient education and sustains that reduction of $10,000. Based on the Board's acceptance for deferral and the inclusion of the items in the proposed referendum, the Commissioner sustains these reductions as follows - Central School air conditioning - $6,000, Mt. Horeb School air conditioning - $2,000, Woodland School air conditioning - $8,000, A.L. Tomaso School windows - $90,000, maintenance area fencing - $8,000.

The Committee bases this reduction on maintaining the purchase of athletic supplies at the 1993-94 budget level. The Board states that this is not reasonable, because they are adding a program, boys' baseball, which was only partially underwritten by the Board in 1993-94, and extra curricular activities at the Middle School. In a district with increasing enrollment, the appropriate provision of supplies for existing programs is essential. The Committee's reason for reduction considers neither the increasing enrollment nor increasing costs. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the reduction of $2,000.

12-000-260-730 Operation/Maintenance Equipment $3,000

The Board accepts this reduction of $3,000 for the deferral of the purchase of one floor scrubber. The Commissioner therefore sustains the reduction.

11-000-290-600 Business Office Supplies $1,000

The Board accepts this reduction for business office supplies. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,000.

11-190-100-610 Regular Inst. - Supplies $6,000

The Committee bases this reduction on a decrease in the purchase of computer software which should be purchased over a period of time. The Board states that the funds budgeted for instructional supplies, including computer software, are essential, particularly with the district's increasing enrollment. The Commissioner determines that the provision of sufficient supplies is essential for a thorough and efficient education and orders restoration of the $6,000.

Thus, for the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner determines to restore $90,000 and sustain $267,400 of the reduction in the General Fund tax levy appealed herein, as summarized by the chart below:

After review of the record as set forth above, on December 16, 1994, the parties to this matter were notified that the Commissioner would be taking official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus; no objection to such consideration was raised by the parties. Upon such consideration, the Commissioner is satisfied that no portion of the monies restored herein may be funded by allocation of surplus rather than increased tax levy.

Accordingly, the Somerset County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $11,488,728 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes by the Township of Warren for the 1994-95 school year.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $100,000 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 20, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $70,561 for a total General Fund tax levy of $12,850,791 for 1994-95 school purposes.

Glenn T. Leonard, Esq., for Petitioner

John A. Spizziri, Sr., Esq., for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 17, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Elmwood Park Board of Education (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.4. The Board sought restoration, on the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient education, of reduction by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Elmwood Park (Borough) following voter rejection on April 19, 1994, of the Board's proposed General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year. Subsequent to the defeat, the Board and Borough, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2), consulted on the defeated budget and the Borough reduced the General Fund tax levy by $100,000. Consequently, the monies in contention in this matter are as set forth below:

Proposed Tax Levy
Adopted By Board of Education

General Fund $12,880,230

Amount of Reduction
By Governing Body

General Fund $100,000

Amount of Tax Levy
Certified by Governing Body

General Fund $12,780,230

Amount of Reduction In Dispute
Before the Commissioner

General Fund $100,000

On July 18, 1994, the Borough submitted its Answer to the Petition. The Board filed a Position Statement on August 8, 1994. The Borough submitted a letter in lieu of Position Statement on August 15, 1994, and advised that the Borough's resolution certifying the reductions and its Answer to the Petition constitute the "full position" of the Borough. The Board submitted a Response on August 30, 1994.

The proposed General Fund tax levy included an approved Commissioner's cap waiver of $286,491. As a result of the State Board of Education's July 7, 1993, decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford and the July 6, 1994, decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, wherein the State Board ruled that the review of budgets with cap waivers must include a determination on whether or not reallocation within the district's maximum permissible budget is possible and whether and to what extent the specific programs at issue are essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, the county superintendent was directed to submit a sworn affidavit setting forth an explanation and documentation of that review. The county superintendent's affidavit with supported documentation was received on July 22, 1994, with an amended affidavit submitted on August 4, 1994.

The Board in its documents argues that there should be full restoration of the reduction certified by the Borough because the Commissioner's cap waiver review determined that all the funds are essential for a thorough and efficient education. The State Board in Edgewater, supra, however determined that the Commissioner must, in a matter of appeal, thoroughly review the documents presented and issue a determination on the funds required for a thorough and efficient education.

In addition, after reviewing the appeal based upon the record and circumstances known to or considered by the governing body at the time it acted to reduce the budget which is the subject of this appeal, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit. The Commissioner reviewed the audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus in its 1994-95 budget.

The specific reductions in the General Fund tax levy made by the Borough are as follows:

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-190-100-610	Undist. Instruction General Supplies	$ 26,311

Account Number	Title	Reduction

Rationale: No retirees for incentive plan in 1994-95
TOTAL		$102,978

Since the reduction to the General Fund Tax Levy in dispute herein is $100,000, it is obvious there is a difference of $2,978 between that tax levy reduction and the total of the individual items as listed, above. After the review and determination on each item, an adjustment in the amount of the difference will be made to provide agreement between the reduced items and the tax levy reduction.

Another issue that must be addressed prior to determination in this matter is the objection raised by the Borough, in its letter in lieu of a Position Statement, regarding the Board's appointment of a high school principal on May 24, 1994, which was after the

* The Borough listed this reduction to account 11-000-100-567; the correct account is 11-000-100-566.

Borough resolution certifying the reduction in the tax levy. The Borough states that a savings of $75,000 could have been effected if this appointment had not been made. This issue will not be an item in this matter since it is not related to the reductions certified by the Borough and the presence of a principal in a school is required, with few exceptions, by N.J.A.C. 6:8-3.2(b).

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature, by way of statutory scheme, has delegated the responsibility for providing a thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37, has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item has been reduced by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Mindful, then, of the balance to be applied in the standard of review, the Commissioner makes the following determinations with respect to the reductions in the General Fund Tax Levy effectuated by the Borough.

Account	Amount
11-190-100-610 Undist. Inst.-General Supplies	$26,311

The Borough bases this reduction on the provision of a five percent (5%) increase over the 1993-94 revised budget as of April 30, 1994.

The Board argues that this reduction is arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable because it merely utilizes an encumbered amount with a percent of increase and provides no reasons for the reduction. The Board also states that the amount did not reflect the actual expenditures for the 1993-94 school year. It is noted that, although the Borough resolution refers to a five percent (5%) increase to the "revised budget appropriations at April 30, 1994", no figures are presented, and the reduction certified by the Borough provides less funds for this line item than in the 1993-94 revised budget as advertised for the election. The Board cites specific expenditures for the line item which they state are essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Based on the facts presented, the Commissioner orders restoration of the $26,311.

Account	Amount
11-401-100-100 School Sponsored Activities-Salaries	$4,760

The Borough bases this reduction on the provision of a five percent (5%) increase to the 1993-94 encumbered salaries. The Board, again, claims that this method of reduction is arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. The Board states that the existing positions require an amount of $37,527 for 1994-95 and that new positions for the high school and newly created middle school will require an additional $5,082, for a total of $42,609, which is slightly above the budgeted figure of $42,280. It is certainly required under the mandate for a thorough and efficient education that proper staffing be provided for essential programs. The advisors cited by the Board as new positions for co-curricular activities, however, are not essential to a thorough and efficient education, and the Board has presented no further rationale. The Commissioner, therefore, sustains the reduction of $4,760.

Account	Amount
11-402-100-500 School Sponsored Athletics - Purchased Serv.	$13,000

The Borough bases this reduction on providing a five percent (5%) increase over the projected 1993-94 expenditures. The Board again challenges the method of calculation for reduction and the lack of reasons. The Board states that expenditures in 1993-94 were reduced because of severe budget restrictions and, therefore, a full athletic program was not provided. In listing the obligations for this line item, the Board includes a contractual salary of $15,990 for an athletic trainer. Although athletics are unquestionably an integral part of high school programs, these activities and an athletic trainer are not essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Board acknowledges adjustments made in 1993-94 to reduce expenditures in this area. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $13,000.

Account	Amount
11-000-100-562 Tuition to Other LEA's in State-Special	$13,950

The Borough states that the supporting documentation for the budget appropriations includes three (3) students to be sent to a district at the same amount as four (4) students in 1993-94. The Borough reduces this amount by applying the 1993-94 rate plus a nine percent (9%) increase for three (3) students at the specific district and reducing the other tuition amounts to a nine (9%) increase over 1993-94. The Board again states that the methodology utilized by the Borough to reduce this account is arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable and totally devoid of sound educational reasons. The Board argues that the area of special education tuition has had unanticipated dramatic increases in the district and formed part of the basis for the cap waiver approved by the Commissioner for 1994-95. The provision of special education programs is indisputably essential to a thorough and efficient education and the calculation of budgeted amounts must include sufficient funds for unanticipated placements and/or services. The Borough's reduction was not presented with any specific knowledge of rates, but was instead based on figures arbitrarily determined by them. The Commissioner orders restoration of the $13,950.

Account	Amount
11-000-100-566 Tuition to Private Schools-Handicapped	$5,164

The Borough states that it has made this reduction by confirming the rate paid per student to a private school for two (2) students and determined that amount to be less than budgeted by the Board. The Board's arguments are the same as recorded for the prior item. On this item, however, the Borough has been very specific regarding the rate and reason for reduction. Moreover, the Borough provides sufficient funds to meet the district's obligation for this item. In addition, the Board does not challenge the specific tuition rate cited by the Borough. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $5,164.

Account		Amount
11-000-221-600	Undist. Expenditures - Improvement of Instructional Services	$9,493

The Borough bases this reduction on the provision of a five percent (5%) increase over the 1993-94 revised budget appropriations as of April 30, 1994. The Board, again, challenges the method of reduction and absence of reasons. The Board also states that the figures used by the Borough were not for the whole 1993-94 year but included encumbrances only as of April 30, 1994. The Board, however, in its statement on the necessity for these funds, lists an expenditure of $12,900 for software and equipment for an in-house computer-generated K-12 report card system. Although this equipment and software may be desirable and provide some benefits to the district, it is not essential to a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner sustains that reduction of $9,493.

Account		Amount
11-000-230-339	General Admin. - Purchased Professional Services	$10,300

As with the other items, the Borough bases this reduction on the provision of a five percent (5%) increase over the 1993-94 revised budget appropriations. The Board lists the specific fees included in this line item for contracts with the district architect/engineer and auditor. Based on the general position of the Borough and the specific detail presented by the Board on contractual obligations, the Commissioner orders restoration of the $10,300.

Account		Amount
11-000-290-290	Business Support Services - Other Employee Benefits	$20,000

The Borough states that this reduction is possible because there will be no retirees in 1994-95. The Board states that they had advised the Borough that there were no retirees in 1993-94, not 1994-95, and that there will be forty-nine (49) employees eligible for early retirement in 1995. The Board lists the negotiated contractual benefits for retirees and non-retirees. Based on the detail presented by the Board and the obligation of boards of education to meet legal and contractual obligations, the Commissioner orders restoration of the $20,000,

Thus, for the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner determines to restore $70,561 and sustain $29,439 of the reductions to the General Fund tax levy appealed herein, as summarized by the chart below:

Accordingly, the Bergen County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $12,850,791 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes by the Borough of Elmwood Park for the 1994-95 school year.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

JANUARY 26, 1995

DATE OF MAILING - JANUARY 26, 1995

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
 APPEAL FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCA- :
 TION OF HILLSIDE TOWNSHIP, : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION UNION COUNTY. : DECISION
 _____ :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 20, 1995

This matter was initiated by a request to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) by the Board of Education of Hillside Township to exceed its maximum permissible budget for 1995-96 by $639,227. The Acting Commissioner approved $160,227 of the request, and denied $479,000.

On appeal, the District is seeking modification of the Acting Commissioner's determination so as to increase the amount awarded. The District specifically challenges the amount of $267,000 denied by the Acting Commissioner.

After careful review, the State Board of Education affirms the Acting Commissioner's determination granting approval to the District to exceed its maximum permissible budget by $160,227 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) and denying it approval to further exceed its permissible budget by an additional $479,000. In so doing, we stress that the District was required to demonstrate to us that an increase beyond its maximum permissible budget was required in the amount it requested in order for the District to be able to provide a thorough and efficient education. In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal for the Board of Education of the Hopewell Valley Regional School District, decided by the State Board, April 5, 1995; cf. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994.

After reviewing the documentation, we are not convinced that it is necessary for the District to increase its maximum budget beyond the amount of the increase approved by the Acting Commissioner.

For Respondent Keyport Board of Education, Salvatore Perillo, Esq. (Perillo and Rosenberger)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 11, 1995, by the Atlantic City Board of Education, by way of a Motion for Stay of the Commissioner's decision dated October 17, 1994. In that decision, the Commissioner had found the program of insurance provided to the petitioning education associations by the respondent boards of education to be in violation of law, but had made no express directive as to immediate cessation of the boards' plans.

The Commissioner's decision was duly appealed to the State Board of Education, where it is pending as of this date. In addition, on or about January 3, 1995, the Atlantic City petitioners moved for enforcement of the Commissioner's decision in Superior Court; that action is likewise pending. Petitioner Keyport opted not to join in the enforcement action.

A reply to the Board's Motion for Stay was filed on behalf of the Atlantic City petitioners on January 17, 1995. No papers were filed by the respondent Keyport Board of Education.

In its moving papers, the Atlantic City Board argues that it should not be compelled to terminate its participation in the insurance plan at issue (the so-called "Siracusa Plan"), on grounds that "enormous financial hardship" would befall the district as a result of the "astronomical" cost increases associated with such termination. Turning to the specific criteria governing grant of a stay, the Board contends that it is merely seeking maintenance of the status quo in a case where careful treatment of complex and unsettled issues by the Courts is required. It argues that absent a stay, irreparable harm will result due to the district's not having budgeted for cost increases associated with termination of the Siracusa Plan and obtaining of another carrier, and due to there being insufficient time for the district to explore cost-efficient alternatives to Siracusa, as its obligations to taxpayers properly demand; this harm is all the more egregious, the Board avers, in that it will ultimately prove to have been unnecessary when the Commissioner's decision is reversed on appeal. The Board further contends that the law underlying this matter is unsettled, and that it is likely to succeed on the merits of its appeal as demonstrated by the cogency of its arguments. Finally, the Board finds the equities of this matter to be on its side, as petitioners will remain fully covered by viable health insurance if the status quo is maintained, while the Board and taxpayers will suffer irreparable harm if it is not.

In reply, petitioners dispute the Board's contention regarding its likely success on the merits, arguing that, to the contrary, the law is neither unsettled nor unclear, and it is plainly adverse to the Board's position. They further dispute the Board's contention that it will suffer immediate and irreparable financial harm if a stay is not granted, as no proof of such contention is offered and the Board's claims of cost-savings through the Siracusa Plan are both unsubstantiated and erroneous, as set forth in prior proceedings and herein; moreover, there is nothing extraordinary or insurmountable about the process of seeking to procure new insurance coverage. Finally, petitioners claim the equities lie in its favor, as the Board has persisted in its adherence to the Siracusa Plan in the face of established law to the contrary, letters of disapproval from both the Department of Education and the Department of Insurance, the ALJ's decision against it (issued in July 1994) and, now finally, the Commissioner's decision.

Upon review of the arguments of the parties herein, the Commissioner's decision at issue, and the standards for grant of emergent relief as set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), the Commissioner finds no compelling basis for grant of a stay and declines to so order, except to the extent indicated below.

Initially, the Commissioner declines to endorse respondent's view of a stay in this matter as mere maintenance of the status quo; to the contrary, the insurance arrangement respondent seeks to continue runs counter to a long-established prohibition, dissolution of which, if it is to occur at all, must await either a new interpretation by the Courts or legislative action to amend controlling statute.

Further, the financial harm claimed by the Board should a stay not be granted is established neither on this record nor the record of the Commissioner's decision at issue. Moreover, to the extent that the Board will be harmed by its purported lack of comparable alternatives for insurance coverage, that harm is of its own making in that it failed to explore such alternatives notwithstanding its participation in a program that was, at the very least, vulnerable to legal challenge, and eventually the subject of a formal dispute.

Nonetheless, the Commissioner recognizes that to require immediate termination of the Board's participation in the Siracusa plan could be sufficiently disruptive so as to compromise both efficient district operations and the Board's ability to make a responsible choice as to alternative coverage. Therefore, the Commissioner permits the Board to continue its participation in the Siracusa plan through the end of the 1994-95 school year, but directs the Board in the meantime to explore, acquire and properly budget for a legally permissible plan to take effect at the beginning of the fiscal year (July 1, 1995) for which school budgets are now being prepared pursuant to law.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED this 25TH day of January 1995, that respondent Atlantic City Board of Education's Motion for Stay is DENIED, except to the extent noted above, and that the Commissioner's decision of October 17, 1994 shall stand in full force and effect unless or until reversed on appeal pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-25.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
 APPEAL FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCA- :
 TION OF WARREN TOWNSHIP, : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
 SOMERSET COUNTY. : DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 20, 1995

For the Appellant, Buttermore, Mullen, Jeremiah & Phillips
(William J. Jeremiah, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter was initiated by a request to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) by the Board of Education of Warren Township to exceed its maximum permissible budget for 1995-96 by $724,779. The Acting Commissioner approved $306,112 of the request, and denied $418,667.

On appeal, the District is seeking modification of the Acting Commissioner's determination so as to increase the amount awarded. The District specifically challenges the amount of $156,000 denied by the Acting Commissioner.

After careful review, the State Board of Education affirms the Acting Commissioner's determination granting approval to the District to exceed its maximum permissible budget by $306,112 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e), and, in addition, modifies that decision so as to increase the amount of the District's request approved by the Acting Commissioner by an additional $40,000 in order to employ one more additional full-time teacher. We find that the District requires four additional full-time teachers, rather than the three found necessary by the Commissioner in order to provide a thorough and efficient education. In so doing, we stress that the District was required to demonstrate to us that an increase beyond its maximum permissible budget was required in the amount it requested in order for the District to be able to provide a thorough and efficient education. In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal for the Hopewell Valley Regional School District, decided by the State Board, April 5, 1995; cf. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994.

While district boards of education have no legal entitlement to retain any surplus, it is prudent for them to retain a sufficient surplus to enable them to meet any unexpected circumstances. Hopewell Valley, supra. In this case, the record reflects that the District's surplus is seriously low, and we were aware of this in arriving at our decision in this matter.

After reviewing the documentation, we are not convinced that it is necessary for the District to increase its maximum budget beyond the amount of the increase approved by the Acting Commissioner, except as otherwise indicated herein.

For Petitioners, Herbert D. Hinkle, Esq.

This matter has come before the Commissioner on December 19, 1994 by way of Notice of Motion with accompanying Affidavit filed by Respondent Board of Education of the Township of Middletown (Board), seeking a stay of the Commissioner's decision rendered in the above-captioned matter on October 31, 1994. In support of its claim that a stay should issue pending review of this case before the State Board of Education, the Board's Affidavit essentially presents a recitation of its factual allegations in this matter and concludes with the assertion that if the requested stay is not granted it will be required to make a payment of public funds which it avers the Federal District Court of Pennsylvania has ruled is the obligation of the Pennsylvania School District rather than one of this Board.

On December 27, 1994, Petitioners filed a letter brief in opposition to the Board's Motion for Stay. Petitioners argue that it is well settled that a stay shall issue only under the most exceptional circumstances, See Glassboro v. Gloucester Bd. of Ch. Freeholders, 98 N.J. 186 (1984) (court considers merits of appeal and whether irreparable harm will result without a stay). Petitioners contend that the Board advances no basis for a stay but rather re-presents arguments previously raised and rejected by the Commissioner and, in any event, stands to incur merely a monetary loss which is insufficient grounds for a stay.

Upon careful review of the papers submitted by the parties, and under the legal standards that apply to an assessment of whether a stay of the Commissioner's decision should be issued (See Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)), the Board's motion is hereby denied. In so deciding the Commissioner finds that the Board has failed to address any of the necessary criteria set forth in Crowe, i.e., it has made no showing that it will suffer any irreparable harm from complying with the Commissioner's decision in this matter, that it will prevail on the merits of the appeal before the State Board, or that a balancing of the equities and hardships to the parties militate in favor of it rather than the petitioning parents herein, who seek to ensure uninterrupted necessary services to their special needs child.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED this _____^{25TH} day of January, 1995, that the instant Motion for Stay is DENIED and that the Commissioner's decision of October 31, 1994 shall stand in full force and effect unless or until reversed on appeal pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-25.

 MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH : DECISION OF SOUTH RIVER, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, :
 RESPONDENT. :

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $967,453.83 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 20, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district. Commissioner determined to restore $406,053.83 for a total General Fund tax levy of $10,520,265 for 1994-95 school purposes.

DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

Robert A. Blanda, Esq., for Petitioner

Frank J. Paprota, Esq., for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 15, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal of a defeated budget by the Borough of South River Board of Education (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.4. The Board sought restoration, on the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient education of reductions by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of South River (Borough) following voter rejection on April 19, 1994, of the Board's proposed General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year. Subsequent to the defeat, the Board provided to the Borough the budgetary documents required under N.J.S.A. 18A:22.37 and N.J.A.C. 6:34-7.2(b)(1).

On May 11, 1994, the Borough reduced the Current Expense portion of the General Fund tax levy by $967,453.83. Consequently, the monies in contention in this matter are as set forth below:

The Board in its Petition of Appeal claims that the Borough did not consult with the Board pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2), that the Borough illegally ordered an increase in the appropriated fund balance, and that the Borough did not provide proper supporting reasons for its reduction in the budget for 1994-95 as required by N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(4). The Borough submitted its Answer to the Petition on June 30, 1994, and denies these allegations by the Board. Position Statements were received by both parties on July 20, 1994. The Position Statement for the Borough was submitted by Robert A. Morrison of Hodulik and Morrison, P.A., auditor for the Borough. The Board, in its Response filed on August 1, 1994, objected to this filing "on behalf of the Respondent" by the auditor and cited N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.8(a)(1) and (3) as the requirement for Position Statements to be filed by the governing body with affidavits by individuals filed "in addition to its written position." The Borough Response, submitted on August 1, 1994, included the Response of the Borough attorney and a certified affidavit from the Borough auditor. The Board Summation was filed on August 8, 1994.

The specific reductions in the General Fund (Current Expense) tax levy are as follows:

	Total	$406,053.83

Reason: The review of 1994-95 salary lines compared to 1993-94 with increase indicated in excess of $166,054 in 1994-95. Also reduced additional $240,000 for retirement savings.

11-000-290-241	Other Retirement Cont. Regular	$177,000.00
----------------	--------------------------------	--------------

Reason: Provided only $10,000 for Public Employees Retirement Systems payments and reduced all other appropriations in this line item as not valid or legal.

11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$25,600.00
----------------	-------------------------	-------------

Reason: Reduced cost of medical coverage from anticipated increase of 15% to 13%.

11-000-290-250	Unemployment Compensation	$70,000.00
----------------	---------------------------	-------------

Reason: Eliminated all funds in this line item because balance in fund is self-sufficient.

10-303	Fund Balance	$288,800.00
--------	--------------	--------------

Reason: A review indicates the fund balance was underestimated.

It would seem prudent at this time prior to the determination on the reductions to address the other issues noted above that were raised by the Petitioner. The Board claims that the Borough did not consult on the budget as required by statute and code. The Borough denies this allegation. A review of the documents submitted indicates that there was never a meeting of the full membership of both parties, that a scheduled joint meeting was cancelled by the Borough, and that a meeting scheduled by the Middlesex County Superintendent of Schools was not attended by the Borough representatives. There was some individual contact, primarily between the Borough auditor and Board school business administrator. A joint meeting of the Finance Committees of both parties was held on May 3, 1994. Statute and code clearly call for consultation between both parties to ensure the determination of a tax levy sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient education. It would seem from the documents presented that there was no joint review of the budgetary data or cooperative dialogue between the parties.

The Board also alleges that the Borough illegally ordered an increase in the appropriated fund balance. The Board cites the form in N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.5(c) as proof that such action is contrary to law. The Board further notes that the Borough did not advise the Board as to how this money is to be used, e.g., applicable line items, in the 1994-95 school budget. The Board is incorrect on both points. Case law decisions have supported the right of a governing body to consider the possibility of other revenue, specifically fund balance, to reduce taxes but maintain a thorough and efficient education. The Board's position regarding the applicable line items for this money is irrelevant, since appropriations were not effected by this action.

The third general claim by the Board is that the Borough did not proffer supporting reasons for its reduction in the 1994-95 budget. The Petition of Appeal filed by the Board included, as Exhibit C, a document listing the "Line Item Changes and Supporting Reasons." It must be noted, however, that it is not clear as to whether or not this document is part of the Borough resolution dated May 18, 1994, or a separate item added to the resolution after the formal action. The Board does acknowledge receiving these reasons with the resolution on May 19, 1994.

It is apparent that the procedures for budget dispute resolution were neither understood nor followed in this matter. The New Jersey Supreme Court and the State Board of Education, however, have reaffirmed in a number of decisions that the review and determination by the Commissioner in defeated budget appeals should not be based on procedural grounds alone, but should be premised on whether the budget satisfies the constitutional standard for a thorough and efficient education, whether the municipality was mindful of appropriate educational considerations at the time they were made and whether educational goals will be jeopardized. Board of Education of the Township of Deptford v. Mayor and Council of the Township of Deptford, 116 N.J. 305 (1989); Board of Education of the Township of Rochelle Park v. Mayor and Council of the Township of Rochelle Park, Bergen County, decided by State Board of Education July 1, 1992.

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See, also, Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Additionally, on December 16, 1994, the Commissioner notified the parties that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.2, he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end district audit as it related to the amount of undesignated surplus available to the district.

Mindful, then, of the balance to be applied in the standard of review, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the reduction in the General Fund (Current Expense) tax levy effectuated by the Borough.

10-303	Fund Balance	$288,800

The Borough bases its increase in appropriated fund balance to reduce the tax levy on its belief that the Board underestimated its available free balance as of June 30, 1994, and that the increased appropriation will still provide the Board with a greater surplus than they listed in the budget document. The Board does not dispute the Borough's claim of a fund balance greater than anticipated but cites a bid of $91,125 for required asbestos repair/removal that would reduce the available surplus, a reduction of $150,000 in purchase orders used in the Borough's calculations that was only reduced because of the failure of the Borough to provide the $423,500 restored in taxes on appeal for 1993-94, and the general needs of the district to meet requirements cited in an OEE0 review and a facilities evaluation plus legal obligations. Commission specifically rejects the Board's contention, in response to notification on use of the audit, that transfers totalling $49,550 for ADA Compliance, $240,000 for change orders relating to roofing and $181,000 for underground oil storage tank compliance have reduced the audited surplus so as to preclude sustaining this allocation, as these items can be, and should have been planned for in the district's budgeting and bonding processes without resort to surplus. The Commissioner's review of the 1993-94 year-end audit establishes that the district has underestimated the amount of undesignated surplus. Even considering the specific enumerated contingencies, the Commissioner finds that the $288,800 appropriation may be offset by the amount of undesignated surplus available. Consequently, the Borough's reduction is sustained.

Various Acct. #	Salary Accounts	$406,053.82

The Borough certified this total decrease to the budgeted salary accounts on the basis that the 1994-95 salary lines with projected increases over 1993-94 had an excess of $166,054 (rounded off in Borough documents from $166,053.82) plus the possibility of an additional reduction of $240,000 for retirement savings. The Board states that the salary line changes certified by the Borough cannot be substantiated and do not accurately reflect the district's projected needs for 1994-95. The Board points out that the Borough, in applying their review process to every salary line item, restored monies to salary lines where the Board had not budgeted any funds and reduced other salary line items by amounts greater than the proposed budgeted amount. The Borough acknowledges that the procedure they used did show individual line items for 1994-95 but did not invalidate the total result. The Borough adds that they could not reconcile the information given to them because they received no names or reclassification. The Board did, however, provide a list of positions with individual 1993-94 and 1994-95 salaries. Notwithstanding the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(4) which requires that the specific line item reductions must be identified with the supporting reason for each such reduction, the generalized procedures used by the Borough not only do not address this requirement but also appear to be totally arbitrary. The additional and apparently unnecessary funds allocated for some line items and reductions, greater than the amount budgeted for some other line items, do not provide a logical rationale for budgetary adjustments. The Board has certified that 1993-94 retirements are reflected in the 1994-95 proposed budget and that they have no knowledge at this time of planned retirements during 1994-95. Based on these facts and the documents presented, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $406,053.82 reduction.

11-000-290-241 Other Retirement Contributions Regular $177,000

The Borough states that the monies in this line item for 1993-94 were to pay retirement benefits to the retiring superintendent. They question the legality of that appropriation for this line item and state that, in the absence of information on any expenditure for this account that meets the definition of the account, reduce the line item to $10,000, the amount due for the

New Jersey Public Employee Retirement System. The Board states that funds are also budgeted in this line item to meet contractual obligations with teachers and administrators and for administrators for unused vacation days or retirement. The Board states that this line item has $50,000 for benefits for the assistant superintendent who has retired. It must be noted that these contractual benefits should not be budgeted in this line item, 11-000-290-241, but should be in 11-000-290-290. Concern about the incorrect budgeting is also compounded by the fact that this line item has more than doubled from the 1993-94 budget to the 1994-95 proposal. The Board has not documented the need for the funds in this line item and has stated that they are not aware of any planned retirements in 1994-95, though the school business administrator states there may be two individual retirements. A Board certainly must meet contractual obligations, but the Board in this matter has not validated the need for these funds. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $177,000.

11-000-290-290	Other Employer Benefits	$25,600

The Borough bases this reduction on the provision of a thirteen percent (13%) increase in health insurance premiums and not the fifteen percent (15%) the Board states it needs. The Board argues that a quote by its agent confirms the need for the fifteen percent (15%) increase. Since this line item will have an increase over 1993-94 of greater than eighteen percent (18%) with the reduction certified by the Borough, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $25,600.

11-000-290-250	Unemployment Compensation	$70,000

The Borough reduces this line item on the basis that the balance in the fund is sufficient to meet any potential needs for 1994-95 and that these 1994-95 appropriations are not necessary. The Board states that the funds are necessary because of the potential for termination of position and layoffs. According to the information presented, the fund has a balance of more than $200,000 and expenditures, based on past experience, the balance should not equal even half that amount. Also, the district records increasing enrollment in the budget document which would seem to negate the prospect of termination of positions. Based on the data presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $70,000.

Thus, for the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner determines to restore $694,853.82 and sustain $272,600 of the reduction in the General Fund (Current Expense) tax levy appealed herein as summarized by the chart below:

Account Number	Title	Restored	Sustained

11-000-290-250	Unemployment Compensation	- 0 -	70,000
	Totals	$406,053.83	$561,400

Accordingly, the Middlesex County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $10,096,766.01 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes by the Borough of South River for the 1994-95 school year.

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

In consolidated matters, Board appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $310,734 rejected by voters, $277,684 of which had been approved by the County Superintendent as necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education and $33,050 of which had been not approved.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order an increase of $277,684 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $3,766,588 for the 1994-95 school year.

For the State, Arlene G. Lutz, DAG (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 16, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Borough of Moonachie (Board), seeking inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund Tax Levy of a cap waiver in the amount of $310,734. This amount, submitted to the voters of Moonachie pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), had been rejected by them at the annual school election on April 19, 1994.

On March 31, 1994, the Bergen County Superintendent of Schools had approved $277,684 of the Board's cap waiver request as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E), after reviewing the entire proposed school budget to determine whether further reallocation could be accomplished within the base budget so as to obviate the need for a cap waiver. Having determined that no such reallocation was possible, the County Superintendent approved the budget for submission to the voters of the district on the condition that, should the budget or cap waiver question be rejected, the district must file appropriate appeals with the Commissioner of Education. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991). The remaining $33,050 was found not to be necessary for provision of T & E, and therefore not subject to appeal to the Commissioner in the event the cap waiver question was rejected by the voters.

The cap waiver line-item amounts approved for submission to the voters as necessary for T & E were as follows:

At the annual school election, in addition to defeating the Board's cap waiver question, the voters of the district also defeated the Board's General Fund Budget proposition. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, the Mayor and Council of Moonachie (Borough) reviewed the defeated budget, determined not to make any reductions and accordingly certified to the Bergen County Board of Taxation a tax levy amount of $3,488,904 as had been proposed by the Board. Consequently, no budget appeal was filed. In response to service by the Board and subsequent notice by the Department of Education of its opportunity to participate in cap waiver appeal proceedings, the Borough elected not to contest the appeal, and the Board was reminded via telephone conference of its obligation to submit a position statement in support of the requested cap waiver line items notwithstanding the Borough's determination not to contest the appeal.

With its initial petition, the Board had included a request to have its appeal deemed timely filed, together with a certification from the Board attorney explaining the extreme personal circumstances that led to his inability to file the petition until June 16, 1994. Within the petition itself, the Board also indicated its intent to appeal the entirety of the line-item amounts in its cap waiver request, not only those approved as necessary for T & E by the County Superintendent. Accordingly, by letter dated July 6, 1994, the Acting Director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes advised the Board that the June 16 petition was in fact timely filed, as it was received well within the 30-day time period following certification of the school tax levy by the governing body on May 19, 1994, the deadline set by regulation for filing of budget appeals and applied by the Department for submission of cap waiver appeals as well. The Board was also advised, however, that should it wish to appeal the non-T & E portion of its cap waiver request, a separate petition naming as respondent the County Superintendent of Schools, who had made the non-T & E determinations in dispute, needed to be filed and served on the Deputy Attorney General (DAG), and that such petition would then be consolidated with the Board's T & E cap waiver appeal for determination by the Commissioner.

On August 4, 1994, as requested by the Department as part of proceedings for all cap waiver appeals, the County Superintendent filed his affidavit and supporting documents attesting to the process of review and analysis that led to his conclusion, and that of the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review Panel, that, with the exception of the items noted above, the requested cap waiver funds were both necessary for T & E and unable to be reallocated from within the base budget. Via telephone conference, the Board was again reminded of its obligation to submit a position statement for the T & E portion of its appeal, as none had been received by mid-August and the appeal could not be decided absent such a statement, notwithstanding that it was uncontested by the Borough. By early November, despite further reminders, no position statement had been filed.

Then, on November 7, 1994, the Board filed a petition contesting the non-T & E portion of the cap waiver request, naming the County Superintendent as respondent and serving the Deputy Attorney General as required by the Bureau in its July 6, 1994 letter. Together with this petition was filed the Board's position statement on all items in the cap waiver request, T & E and non-T & E alike. In a letter appended to this filing, the Board Attorney stated that the enclosed petition and statement of position had been sent via UPS to all parties on August 30, 1994, but, as he subsequently learned was true of all packages taken from his building location on that date, had not been delivered.

In response to the Board's petition, on December 8, 1994, the State filed a Motion to Dismiss the non-T & E portion of the appeal, i.e., that portion naming the County Superintendent as respondent, on grounds of untimely filing. The Board's reply in opposition to this motion was submitted on December 23, 1994.

In the interim, the parties were notified on December 16, 1994, that the record of this consolidated matter was to be augmented by official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board had underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus; no comments regarding this issue were received from the parties.

Upon review and consideration of these matters, the Commissioner finds that disposition of both petitions, including the Motion to Dismiss filed in conjunction with the non-T & E portion of the appeal, may be fairly effectuated at this point in proceedings through the single decision within. Accordingly, the Commissioner makes the following determinations.

T & E CAP WAIVER DETERMINATION

Upon his own independent review and consideration of the papers filed by the Board, together with the affidavit and supporting documents of the County Superintendent, the Commissioner finds that the line items approved by the County Superintendent and Review Panel, and uncontested by the Borough, are necessary, both as to the nature of the expenditures and their amount, for provision of T & E. The Commissioner notes that the monies requested are expressly required for services and materials directly related to the instructional program and the basic safety and maintenance of school facilities. The Commissioner further notes that the Board's original cap waiver request was substantially larger than that finally submitted for panel and County Superintendent approval, and that, based on guidance provided by the County Superintendent and Review Panel, the Board actively sought to minimize the number and dollar amounts of items to be funded through cap waiver. Finally, the Commissioner notes that the County Superintendent and Review Panel undertook a thorough examination of the Board's base budget for possible reallocation prior to arriving at the amount ultimately approved for submission to the voters as a T & E cap waiver, and that the Borough reviewed this base budget pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and determined that it was necessary to certify the full amount notwithstanding voter defeat. Thus, the Commissioner is satisfied that the cap waiver amounts at issue in this portion of the appeal are in fact the minimal amounts necessary for provision of T & E.

NON-T & E CAP WAIVER DETERMINATION

The first matter to be considered in this portion of the appeal is the question of the timeliness of the Board's filing.

In its Motion to Dismiss the petition, the State argues that the Board knew, on or about March 31, 1994, of the County Superintendent's determinations as to which items in its cap waiver request were necessary for provision of T & E, and that it further knew as of April 19, 1994, the date of the election, that its cap waiver request had been defeated by the voters; therefore, even taking the later, more generous, reckoning as the date of the Board's cause of action, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) the appeal should have been filed by July 18, 1994. Accordingly, the Board's petition must be deemed out of time even if the Board Attorney's (uncertified) statement that it was mailed on August 30, 1994 is accepted as true. Neither has the Board presented any basis on which relaxation of the rule would be warranted, as the Board clearly slept on its rights notwithstanding its claims that the funds at issue are essential for provision of T & E in the district.

In response to the State's motion, the Board counters that it did not sleep on its rights, and that, to the contrary, it expressly raised the non-T & E aspects of its cap waiver appeal in the petition filed on June 16, 1994, which was served on the County Superintendent as well as on the Borough, and which was filed as late as it was (albeit timely, as found by the Acting Director) only because of the Board Attorney's extenuating personal circumstances. There being no regulations or established practice on which to rely for the filing of an appeal of this type, the Board had no way of knowing, until receipt of the Acting Director's July 6, 1994 letter, that the Department was requiring a separate petition actually naming the County Superintendent as respondent to be filed in order for a district to appeal the non-T & E portion of its cap waiver request by challenging the County Superintendent's determinations. Moreover, the Department's basis for imposing such a requirement is nowhere set forth, not even in the letter from the Acting Director; therefore, within the context of a Motion to Dismiss resting solely on a claim of untimeliness, there are no reasonable grounds to find that the petition filed on June 16, 1994 was not an acceptable filing for purposes of initiating an appeal of both the T & E and the non-T & E portions of the cap waiver.

Upon consideration of this issue, the Commissioner notes that there appears to be no reason why the Acting Director's July 6, 1994 request could not have been complied with prior to August 30, 1994, the date on which the petition ultimately filed on November 7, 1994 was purportedly mailed, or why it took nearly two months for the Board to recognize that its papers had not reached their designated recipients. However, the Commissioner concurs with the Board that, given the absence of regulation or established practice governing appeals of this type and in view of the fact that T & E is at issue, under the totality of particular circumstances herein, it would place form over substance to bar the Board from pursuing the full amount of its cap waiver appeal at this point in proceedings. Accordingly, the Commissioner will examine the Board's claims on their merits.

In turning to those claims, the Commissioner notes that, the Motion to Dismiss not having been previously decided, the State has not yet had an opportunity to answer the Board's allegations as to the County Superintendent's T & E determinations. However, for the reasons indicated, the Commissioner finds such answer unnecessary for disposition of this matter, and in the interest of expediency proceeds to line-item determinations as set forth below.

The line-items rejected by the County Superintendent but judged necessary by the Board for provision of T & E arise in three areas. First, the Board seeks $4,500 for Regular Programs - Instruction (Account #11-190-100-800), contending that "Withholding of these funds will force the school to eliminate field trip programs and science labs for all grades, which supplement and enforce the students' classroom instruction. Field trips and labs provide the students with a more interesting, practical and hands-on method of observing and applying the lessons they read in their textbooks. Without these funds, students will have only a limited and non-experiential understanding of what school curriculums are designed to teach them." (Position Statement, Item No. 38)

While the Commissioner would certainly concur that field trips and science labs enhance the educational experience and are properly considered within the context of a district's T & E instructional program, the Board herein has made no specific showing as to the type of, or manner in which, programs will be affected by lack of the requested funds, how such funds would actually be expended and what the precise impact on student learning will be if they are not. Neither has it shown to what extent it has availed itself of parental fees pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:36-21 et seq. in order to help fund field trips. Accordingly, even without opposing argument on behalf of the County Superintendent, the Commissioner is unable to find that the Board has met its burden of demonstrating that it cannot provide for T & E in the absence of the requested funds.

The Board then seeks $6,750 and $1,800 for staff salaries and supplies and materials for School-Sponsored Co-curricular Activities (Accounts #11-140-100-100 and #11-401-100-600, respectively), contending with regard to salaries that "Without these funds after school activities will most likely be halted or at the least very limited. Extracurricular activities are designed to provide challenging and fun alternatives to television or trouble-making for students after the academic portion of the school day. To ensure the success of these programs, and for legal liability purposes, adult supervision is required. These funds are necessary to compensate those teachers and instructors who are concerned with their students' activities in and outside of the classroom, and who dedicate their time and energy to the success of these after school programs." (Position Statement, Item No. 38). With respect to supplies, the Board avers that "After school activities can only accomplish what they have the means to accommodate. The students involved in these programs need and deserve the equipment, supplies and materials which their programs require to make them fun, challenging and safe. Without these materials, the children will not have adequate facilities to satisfy their natural desires to have fun and at the same time learn." (Position Statement, Item No. 39)

As was the case with the Board's contention regarding field trips and science labs, while the Commissioner would generally concur that extracurricular activities enhance the educational experience, the Board herein has made no specific showing as to what programs will be affected by lack of the requested funds, how such funds would be expended and what the impact on the district's student body or educational system will be if they are not. Accordingly, even without rebuttal from the County Superintendent, the Board's arguments on their face fail to meet the burden of demonstrating that the Board cannot provide for T & E in the absence of the requested funds.

Finally, the Board seeks $20,000 for expansion of psychologist services for the child study team (Account #11-000-219-104), arguing that "These funds are extremely important to ensure that the district keeps up with the growing number of student evaluations. The district has experienced a steady increase in special education students and the workload of the child study team has increased significantly. These funds would allow for the child study team to have the services of the psychologist available three days per week to ensure the progress of each student and make sure that each student is receiving the attention that they deserve. The child study team will have more time to devote to each student, as well as increase the number of students which they can attend to. These individuals become especially important in determining the course of students who need special or just increased personal attention. Early detection of learning disorders or behavioral problems by these individuals can make school much more enjoyable and successful for these often overlooked students. Without the funds allocated for this line item, the students will be cheated out of the educational services that the law requires in order to ensure an equivalent educational experience." (Position Statement, Item No. 40)

Again, the Board has presented no specific information in support of its contention that the services otherwise provided and budgeted for in this area, while perhaps not rising to the level the Board would ideally like to offer, are not sufficient for provision of T & E; neither has it provided any documentation in support of its contention that there exist students in the district who will not, in the absence of the requested funds, receive the services to which they are entitled by law. Accordingly, once again, even without counterargument from the County Superintendent, the Board's position on its face fails to meet the burden of demonstrating that the Board cannot provide for T & E in the absence of the requested funds.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner concludes that the tax levy of $3,488,904 certified by the governing body, together with the $277,684 T & E cap waiver requested herein, in fact represents the minimal amount necessary for provision of a thorough and efficient system of education in the Moonachie school district. The Commissioner is satisfied that the amount of cap waiver monies requested by the Board and approved by the County Superintendent is both fully necessary for T & E and unable to be derived from further reallocation within the base budget or by appropriation from the Board's audited undesignated surplus of $118,134. The Commissioner further finds, however, that the Board has failed to meet its burden in demonstrating the necessity for those funds not approved by the County Superintendent, so that these may not be included in the tax levy adjustment to be made by the Board of Taxation as a result of this decision. (Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, Bergen County, State Board decision July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, State Board decision July 6, 1994)

Accordingly, the Bergen County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments to reflect an increase of $277,684, for a total of $3,766,588 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the Moonachie Board of Education for the 1994-95 school year.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :
FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MENT OF EARL DAVIS. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
February 7, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Earl Davis, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

Earl Davis (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school custodian in the Newark school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A.
18A:6-7.1 et seq. revealed that he had been convicted of possession of heroin in 1971 and possession of dangerous drugs in 1984. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

JUNE 7, 1995

In a letter decision dated February 7, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,¹ stating that petitioner's many letters of support from school officials, a former employer, and friends do not specifically address your rehabilitation, but rather appear to be general letters of recommendation, based on your fine performance at work and on good character. Notwithstanding your own claims of rehabilitation, your appeal is such that I am not clearly and convincingly persuaded, as I must be by law, that you have demonstrated rehabilitation within the meaning of the statute.

The petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education. The parties subsequently executed and submitted to the State Board an order consenting to a remand to the Commissioner for a hearing on the issue of rehabilitation.²

After a careful review, we find the record in this matter to be such that, given our authority as the ultimate administrative decision-maker and fact-finder in school matters,

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478, 485 (App. Div. 1989), certif. den., 121 N.J. 615 (1990); Dore v. Bedminister Tp. Bd. of Ed., 185 N.J. Super. 447, 452 (App. Div. 1982), we need not remand for determination of the substantive issue raised. Our review of the record has eliminated any question that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:

1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
4. The date of the offense;
5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

(Emphasis added.)

The record indicates that petitioner has successfully overcome the drug problems which apparently led to his series of arrests more than a decade ago. The senior vocational counselor for the State Department of Corrections program in which petitioner served for six months following his 1984 drug conviction indicates that petitioner was "responsible and dependable" and that he "attended weekly N.A. and A.A. meetings and remained alcohol and drug free while in our program." Petitioner has also actively pursued vocational training. His submissions to the Commissioner show that he attended evening classes at a vocational school and received his boiler operator license from the State of New Jersey in January 1992. There have been no further arrests since 1984.

The principal of the school in which petitioner had been employed praises him as a "competent and resourceful person. He eagerly accepts responsibility with the capacity to manage, make decisions, and set priorities with any task he performs. He provides assistance to staff members in his charge and has a good working relationship with colleagues and school administration."

A vice principal at the school characterizes petitioner as responsible and dependable, adding that petitioner had "always practiced good judgment and in my opinion handled his position of Head Custodian in a very fine manner." Another vice principal indicates that petitioner "consistently demonstrated his conscientiousness toward his job responsibilities. He was highly dependable, punctual and his work performance was highly satisfactory. I have found him to be a positive, honest, hard-working person whose work performance was highly satisfactory by any standards."

Petitioner's performance evaluations conducted by the principal are satisfactory in all categories and praise petitioner's performance as "exemplary," adding that he was a "conscientious employee who [took] great pride in the thoroughness of his assignments and supervision of his subordinates."

The president of a janitorial contractor for which petitioner was employed from 1985 through 1992 describes petitioner's work as "commendable" and "an asset to my company's operation." She indicates that petitioner "began as a cleaner and moved up the ranks to Lead Person, Contract Supervisor, Specialty Services Manager and Marketing Agent." Petitioner's supervisor in the maintenance company in which he was employed from 1992 until he began his employment in the Newark school system attests to his "fine character, dependability and diligence." The president of that firm indicates that he would rehire petitioner in the capacity of supervisor, and the vice president commends petitioner as "very reliable and an excellent worker....If anyone has ever shown that people can be rehabilitated Mr. Davis has."

While the Deputy Commissioner found that the letters of support from petitioner's former employees and school officials did not specifically address his rehabilitation, "but rather appear to be general letters of recommendation, based on [his] fine performance at work," we stress that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) expressly requires consideration of "the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision" as evidence of rehabilitation.

While the gravity of petitioner's offenses is evident, under the circumstances, we find that further penalization of this individual, who has made great strides in rehabilitating himself, is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Given the uncontradicted evidence in the record, including the recommendations of his supervisors, and petitioner's successful efforts to acquire training and experience and to overcome his drug problems since his crimes more than ten years ago, we conclude that he has convincingly demonstrated his rehabilitation under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Moreover, as required by that provision, we have considered the "nature and responsibility" of the position petitioner held within the public school system. In this respect, we stress that petitioner was disqualified from employment as a school maintenance worker, a position which does not include responsibility for the care, supervision or instruction of students.

Accordingly, in view of our finding that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $346,207 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $271,707. The Commissioner further ordered $200,603 to be appropriated from surplus to partially fund the restoration for a total General Fund tax levy of $5,651,543 for 1994-95 school purposes.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Vincent C. DeMaio, Esq. (DeMaio & DeMaio, Esqs.), for Petitioner

Joseph L. Foster, Esq. (Ansell, Zaro, Bennett & Grimm), for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 6, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Board of Education of the Township of Colts Neck (Board) seeking restoration, on the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient system of education, of the reduction imposed by the Mayor and Council of the Township of Colts Neck (Township) after defeat of the 1994-95 budget by the voters of Colts Neck at the annual school election held on April 19, 1994, based upon the following facts:

1. The Board had a maximum permitted net budget of $6,146,711 (hereinafter referred to as "cap"). Due to a student enrollment increase in excess of 13%, the Board applied for a Commissioner's cap waiver of $354,329. The cap waiver request was reduced by a reallocation of $13,700 ordered by the Commissioner following the cap waiver review process. The remaining cap waiver request of $340,629 was granted by the Commissioner. This increased the Board's cap to $6,487,340. Noncap revenues of $134,000, federal project revenues of $94,476, appropriated surplus of $538,379 and debt service revenues of $7,438 when added to the cap brought the total budget to $7,261,633.

2. Pursuant to its legal obligation, the Board adopted a budget for the 1994-95 school year and submitted a tax levy amount of $5,926,646 to the public at the April 19, 1994, school election. The tax levy question was defeated by the voters.

3. As a result of the defeat of the budget, it became the obligation of the governing body of the Township to consult with the Board and to certify to the Monmouth County Board of Taxation the amount to be raised by tax levy for the 1994-95 general fund, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2).

4. On May 12, 1994, the Township adopted a resolution certifying that the amount to be raised by local taxation for the 1994-95 as $5,580,439. This amount was $346,207 less than the $5,926,646 originally proposed by the Board for all accounts. The net effect of the reduced tax levy was to decrease the General Fund Budget from $7,254,195 to $6,907,925.

5. On May 18, 1994, the Board adopted a resolution authorizing an appeal of the $346,207 tax reduction to the Commissioner of Education on the grounds that the amount certified by the Township would not be sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. Accounts and amounts in dispute in this matter are as follows:

Account Title	Account No.	Amount in Original Budget	Township Reduction
---------------	-------------	---------------------------	--------------------

General Current Expenses Regular

1. Conover Road Guidance Couns. Salaries	11-000-218-104- 10-0-21-43	$ 91,139	$ 35,600
--	-------------------------------	-----------	-----------

Reason: Savings are salary plus benefits. Rationale is that function can best be performed by classroom teachers with assistance from principals.

2. Child Study Team	11-000-219-104- 10-0-21-42	117,773	39,710
---------------------	-------------------------------	---------	--------

Reason: Savings are from salary of .8 psychologist. Need to reorganize supervisory function. No proposed reduction in composition of CST. Position not needed.

3. Noninstructional Aides

Kindergarten	11-190-100-106- 10-0-21-60	139,300	15,000
Resource Room	11-213-100-106- 10-0-14-02	23,900	23,900

Reason: Savings are from salary and benefits by eliminating two kindergarten aides and two resources center aides. Redeploy existing aides to cover need.

4. Supplementary Instruction	11-213-100-101- 10-0-14-01	157,678	30,946
------------------------------	-------------------------------	---------	--------

Reason: Savings are from salary of two resource room teachers; each half time. Function can be managed without new personnel.

5. Director Curriculum Development Salary	11-000-221-102- 10-0-02-12	69,300	75,000
Curriculum Revision	11-000-221-104- 10-0-21-36	27,100

Reason: Savings from elimination of Director of Curriculum position with benefits. Curriculum improvement and revisions can be done thoroughly and efficiently by principals and faculty.

6. Secretarial/ Clerical Special Svces.	11-000-219-105- 10-0-21-52	34,500	17,250
Curriculum Instruction	11-000-221-105- 10-0-21-54	25,420	12,725

Reason: Savings realized by elimination of half time child study team secretary and half time curriculum and instruction secretary. Secretarial needs can be fulfilled with existing staff.

7. Maintenance/ Custodian
Salaries	11-000-260-100- 10-0-71-00	73,050	29,571
Health Benefits		939,830 ¹	24,505

Reason: Savings are from elimination of one position and benefits. Plant operation can be performed efficiently without position.

8. 26 Various Line Item Reductions ²		42,000
---	--	--------	--

Reason: All reductions are based on prior years actual expenditures, unnecessary appropriations, or to achieve efficiencies within the Administration.

TOTALS $346,207

Consequently, the monies in contention in this matter are as set forth, below:

Proposed Tax Levy Adopted by Board of Education	Amount of Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body
$5,926,646	$5,580,439

¹ Benefits were not consistently applied or defined in either the material presented by the Board or the Township. Total benefits have applied against the total of all benefits for the sake of brevity.

² Rather than detail the individual miscellaneous items the total has been treated as a single deduction for the Commissioner's purposes.

Amount of Reduction
by Governing Body

$346,207

Amount of Reduction in

$346,207

It is the Township's overall position that the reductions were made with the full awareness of its fiduciary responsibility to the taxpayers and its responsibility for not impairing the ability of the Board to provide a thorough and efficient education to the children of the district. In order to do this, the Township identified three K-8 peer districts with demographics the Township determined to be comparable.

The Board vehemently objects to the Township's methodology and asserts that the district's population is significantly higher than the peer districts and is growing as a result of Mount Laurel development. Moreover, the Board asserts that the requirements of the district bear no relationship to those of the other districts.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Moreover, the Commissioner has the constitutional obligation to ensure that a school district budget is sufficient for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Robinson v. Cahill, 69 N.J. 449, 463 (1976) (Robinson V); Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287 (1990).

In this matter, the Commissioner is concerned about obvious contentious attitudes on the part of both the Board and the Township. The Legislature, in its wisdom, assigned the initial task of mitigating voter disapproval of school tax levies to the local governing body. The obvious purpose of providing such a mechanism was to permit local officials to review local needs and to come to a decision in the best interest of students in the district. Boards should view this as an opportunity to acquaint local officials with the unique needs of the children of the district and to take a second look at their requests in light of local property tax problems. Governing officials should view this as an opportunity to understand the local school function and to express their taxing concerns. Unless both parties approach this task with open minds and a willingness to understand the position of the other, the result can deteriorate into a hardening of positions at the expense of the children involved. Political needs and the need to justify previous positions should take second place to the resolution of the financing problems of a constitutionally mandated service. In this case, it is obvious that issues have become personalized, making future cooperation much more difficult.

Mindful then of the balance to be applied in this standard of review with respect to the various line items contained in the cap waiver request, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the cap waiver appeal before him:

Guidance Counselor

----------	-------------------------	----------

The Board's position is that a guidance person is needed as a result of the increased enrollment at Conover Road School. Currently, the principal is the only administrative staff person assigned to service the 520 students. The Board asserts that because of the increased enrollment and the lack of administrative and support help, it is necessary to have a full-time guidance counselor in order to meet the academic, social, emotional and behavioral needs of the children, and in order to comply with state regulations mandating that students be provided with a "Board-approved program of guidance and counselling services." N.J.A.C. 6:8-4.7(a)(3).

The Township asserts that the Conover Road Guidance Counselor position was new for the 1993-94 school year and is not necessary to serve the needs of the students. It is the Township's position that there is a guidance counselor assigned to the Cedar Drive School approximately one mile away who, with the assistance of the classroom teachers and the principal, can adequately perform the needed services. Moreover, the Board asserts, that in its comparisons of this function in peer districts, none had a full-time guidance position within a K-4 structure.

After reviewing the initial positions and the subsequent rebuttals, the Commissioner determines that the Board has not established the necessity of adding this position in order to provide counseling services to students at Conover Road School. Consequently, the Commissioner sustains the $35,600 reduction.

Child Study Team	11-000-219-104-10-21-42	$39,710

The Township asserts that a .8 psychologist position can be eliminated without changing the composition of the Child Study Team. It alleges that this area is currently over-staffed and further asserts that the district staffing exceeds that in peer districts.

The Board, in opposing these assertions, sets forth the reasons for maintaining both a Child Study Team chairperson and a school psychologist position in the district. The Board asserts that, in 1993-94, it eliminated the position of Director of Special Services in an effort to downsize administration. The Board further asserts that the district has a lower percentage of out-of-district placements than neighboring districts and maintains a Child Study Team which consists of a .8 school psychologist, a .6 Learning Disabilities Teachers/consultant and a .8 School Social Worker. The Commissioner determines that the $39,710 be restored.

Noninstructional Aides

Kindergarten	11-190-100-106-10-0-21-60	$15,000
Resource Room	11-213-100-106-10-0-14-02	23,900

The Board asserts that, as a result of increased enrollment and the lack of available space, it determined to consolidate the number of kindergarten sections from five to four. This will increase the teacher/student ratios to 23+ to one.

The Township asserts that this reduction was of two new part-time kindergarten aides. The need for the aides can be met by redeploying existing noninstructional aides.

The Commissioner finds that the Board has failed to establish that these additional part-time positions are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Consequently, the reduction of $15,000 is sustained.

As to the Resource Room Aides, the Board asserts that these existing noninstructional special education aide positions assist special education students as part of the students' Individualized Educational Programs (IEPs). In absence of the aides, it would be necessary for the students to be placed in more restrictive environments. The Board asserts that these positions are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education to the special education students and to comply with federal and state laws governing special education.

The Township asserts that the services provided through these positions can be met by redeploying existing aides. Moreover, the Township asserts that its peer analysis indicates that the Board employs more aides than any two of the four peer districts combined.

Upon independent review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not established that the amounts are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The $23,900 reduction is, therefore, sustained.

Supplemental Inst.

$30,946

The Board's position is that the two half-time resource room teachers are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education to special education students and are required in order to meet the requirements of the IEPs of individual students, in order to educate them in the least restrictive environment. Moreover, the Board asserts that special education services are not fungible and costs associated with disabled students may vary widely.

The Township asserts that the functions can be performed without additional personnel.

Upon independent review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the Board has established that the positions are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education to special education students in the least restrictive environment. Consequently, the $30,946 is restored.

The Commissioner approves the request of the Board and restores the $30,946 reduction.

Curr. Dev.

11-000-221-102-10-0-02-12

$75,000

11-000-221-104-10-0-21-36

The Board asserts that the salary attributed to the Director of Curriculum and Instruction, in addition to overseeing curriculum development, is assigned the administrative responsibilities for the Special Service Department. The Director is assigned numerous requirements to fulfill state mandates. The Board asserts that, unlike the peer districts' budget, Colts Neck budgets all the functions of the Director in the one line-item.

The Township asserts that the functions of the position of Director of Curriculum and Instruction can be done by principals and faculty.

The Township's arguments are based solely upon the comparison of the totals budgeted in peer districts. Nowhere is there a comparison of functions. The Board's position presents a convincing argument that the functions are necessary. The Commissioner directs the restoration of $75,000.

The Commissioner approves the request of the Board and adopts the reasons advanced by the Board as his own.

Sec/Clerical

Sp. Svces.	11-000-219-105-10-0-21-52	$17,250
C&I	11-000-221-105-10-0-21-54	12,725

The Township asserts that by reducing this line item it does not propose any reduction in current secretarial or clerical staff.

The Board asserts that it employs one full-time secretary for the special services department and one full-time secretary for the curriculum and instruction office. It sets forth the duties for each and maintains that the services are essential support necessary in assisting the district in meeting its obligations. The Commissioner approves the request of the Board and orders the $17,250 and $12,725 to be restored.

Maintenance/ Custodian Salaries	11-000-260-100-10-0-71-00	$29,571
--	---------------------------	----------

The Board asserts that it must maintain its custodial and maintenance staff in light of its building additions and increased enrollment. The Commissioner determines that the $29,571 be restored.

Health Benefits

$24,505

The Commissioner approves this request as a consequence of the restoration of positions as set forth herein.

26 Various Line Reductions

The rationale provided by the Township for the various deductions contained in this section was not based on any analysis of need. While comparisons with prior years provides a valid beginning for a budget analysis, recommended reductions must be accomplished by specific reasons for the recommendation.

The Township also appeared to rely heavily on comparisons with nearby districts. Such comparisons are also a valid basis for the initial phases of a budget review. Comparisons, however, can not be the primary reasons for recommended reductions. Districts vary greatly based on student makeup, goals and community expectations. Such expectations are rarely based on programs in other nearby districts but rather on the historical provision of services.

The accounts and amounts under appeal and as determined by the Commissioner in this matter are as follows:

Account Title No.	Account	Amount Sustained	Amount Restored

26 Various Line Item Reductions		-0-	42,000
TOTALS		$74,500	$271,707

In summary, upon review of the documentation submitted on this matter, the Commissioner finds and determines that $271,707 of the funds sought by the Board are essential to provide a thorough and efficient educational system possible (Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, Bergen County, (decided by the State Board of Education, July 7, 1993.))

After reviewing the within appeal, based upon the record and circumstances known to or considered by the governing body at the time it acted to reduce the budget which is the subject of this appeal, the Commissioner, on December 16, 1994, notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit. The Commissioner reviewed the audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus.

Upon such review, the Commissioner finds that $200,603 of the district's undesignated audited surplus of $503,965 can be appropriated to offset the restorations ordered herein. This determination considers the district's use of $99,397 for placement of two homeless special education students at a cost of $99,397 for tuition and transportation.

Accordingly, the Monmouth County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below:

	General Fund

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed $357,582 in line-item reductions made by Borough pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the proposed 1994-95 budget at the annual school election on April 19, 1994.

Commissioner directed restoration of $251,438 in specified line-item accounts, but ordered $150,000 of such restorations to be funded through appropriation of surplus rather than raising of additional tax levy. County Board of Taxation was directed to strike an additional levy of $101,438 for General Fund purposes.

DECISION

For Petitioner, Peter P. Kalac, Esq. (Kalac, Newman,

For Respondent, Joseph P. Quinn, Esq. (Pringle & Quinn)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal filed by the Board of Education of the Borough of Bradley Beach (Board) on June 16, 1994, seeking restoration of $357,582 in reductions to the district's General Fund tax levy imposed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 by the Borough Council of the Borough of Bradley Beach (Council) upon defeat of the budget by the voters on April 19, 1994. The Council filed its Answer to the Petition on July 7, 1994, and Position Statements were filed on July 27, 1994 and September 1, 1994 by the Board and Council, respectively. A response to the Council's Position Statement was filed by the Board on September 6, 1994. A further submission was filed by the Monmouth County Superintendent of Schools on August 3, 1994, setting forth the process by which the Board's proposed budget was reviewed for possible reallocations as part of the procedure in granting the Board a Commissioner's cap waiver of $141,300 authorized pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e). Finally, on December 16, 1994, the parties to this matter were notified that the Commissioner would be taking official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. Upon receipt on December 20, 1994 of a filing by the Board objecting to such consideration and expiration of the designated time for comments by the Borough, the record of this matter was deemed closed.

The proposed tax levy adopted by the Board, the certification adopted by the Council and the amounts in dispute in this matter are as follows:

Proposed Tax Levy adopted by District Board of Education	Amount of Tax Levy Certified by the Governing Body
General Fund $4,180,627	General Fund $3,823,045
Amount of Reduction by the Governing Body	Amount of Reduction Dispute Before the Commissioner

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Below are listed the specific reductions imposed by the Council in its resolution dated May 18, 1994:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Council recommend spending reductions in several areas including:

1. Increase Surplus	$ 75,000.00
2. Supt. Increase	5,290.00
3. Bd. Office Assistance	27,213.00
4. Bd. Secretary/Bus. Mgr. Sal.	2,796.00
5. Adm./Secretary	1,868.00
6. Computer Assistant	21,190.00
7. Custodians	20,000.00
8. Repairs/Mtn.-Bldg/Equip.	25,000.00
9. Resource Room - Sal.	10,000.00
10. Textbooks	5,000.00
11. Social Workers	22,349.00
12. Psychologist	16,117.00
13. Learning Disability Teacher	20,000.00
14. Principal - Lease Purchase	92,145.00
15. Employees Health Benefits	4,500.00
16. Employees Dental/Prescriptions	1,500.00
17. Lunch Rm. Program	1,500.00
18. Social Security	6,114.00
TOTAL	$357,582.00

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Council recommended freezing all salaries in the Administrative Offices and the elimination of a Computer Assistant, which is a reduction of $58,357.00. Social Workers were reduced from 4 days to 2 days a week, which is a reduction of $22,349.00. Psychologist reduced from 4 days to 2 days a week, which is a reduction of $16,117.00. Learning Disability Teacher reduced from 5 days to 3 days a week, which is a reduction of $20,000.00. Group Insurance for employees, savings of $6,000.00. Increasing Surplus Anticipated by $75,000.00. Refinancing Lease Purchase Equipment over a five-year period, reduction of $92,145.00. Repairs to the building, a reduction of $25,000.00. Salaries for Teachers in the Resource Room, reduction of $10,000.00 cut back to 1992-1993 standards. Lunchroom program and reduction of custodial staff, reduction of $21,500.00. Miscellaneous-Other Expenses reduction of $11,114.00.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Set forth below are the positions of the parties and the Commissioner's determinations as they relate to each specific reduction. Before dealing with the specific itemized reductions, the Commissioner takes note of the general arguments of the parties.

The Council points to the tiny size of both the Borough and the single-school district of approximately 400 pupils, grades K-8. It emphasizes its own program of austerity, which it adopted on July 1, 1992 to lessen the tax impact on its citizenry.

As part of that austerity program, the Council points out, it imposed salary reductions on the Mayor and Council, reduced the municipal work force and privatized certain services resulting in a decrease in expenditures of over $250,000.

By way of contrast, the Council contends that the Board engaged in extravagant spending and has been oblivious to cost cutting measures. The Council contends that increases in the school budget for 1993-94 and 1994-95 resulted in a proposed $800,000 increase over those two years and a 44.78 cent per hundred increase in the tax rate.

The Board for its part seeks to emphasize that it has considered the implication of its budget on the taxpayers of the district. It points out that, although it qualified for a cap waiver of $218,156 in 1993-94, it only requested and received a $77,575 waiver; and that in the 1994-95, it also qualified for a tax waiver greater than that which it requested.

The Board further points out that 44.78 cent increase in tax rate argued by the Council contains 28 cents from a 1993-94 reduction by the Council which was restored by the Commissioner but which had to be added to the 1994 tax rate because the restoration occurred too late to include it in the 1993 levy.

Finally, the Board argues that the Council's resolution approached the 1994-95 school budget solely from the perspective of the impact on the taxpayers and without regard to the Council's constitutional responsibility to strike a tax levy sufficient to ensure a thorough and efficient system of education.

In regard to the general arguments offered by the parties, the Commissioner notes that the Board is correct in its argument relative to the constitutional responsibility of the governing body in reaching a determination relative to the certification of a tax rate. However, the Commissioner further notes that the Supreme Court of New Jersey in reviewing reductions made by a governing body stated that "...the Commissioner cannot completely ignore the municipality's political concerns and indeed may not override them without some necessity strictly related to the constitutional mandate..." Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township 116 N.J. 305 (1989), citation at 314.

Therefore, the Commissioner turns to an examination of the arguments of the parties in each individual area of reduction for purposes of applying the mandated constitutional test.

Item	Reduction
Surplus	$75,000

The Council argues that, in light of the Board's representation that reductions in payments are anticipated in the Board's lease purchase agreement, the Board could accept the $75,000 reduction in this account, which would be replenished upon the reduction anticipated. The Council further disputes the Board's argument of student transiency as a reason for maintaining a surplus, arguing that the district's listing indicates that despite transiency the student population has been consistent at 400 pupils.

The Board argues that it has already applied $200,000 toward tax reduction in the 1994-95 budget. It also opines that, with a school building that is 84 years old, contingencies in the area of maintenance must be considered likely. It further argues that historical experience has dictated that tuition accounts have been under-budgeted due to transient students requiring special education placement. Finally, the Board argues that its surplus is between 3% and 7-1/2%, which it contends is the acceptable range permitted by statute.

Upon review of the arguments of the parties and the documenting evidence provided, the Commissioner notes that Exhibit A of the Business Administrator's affidavit indicated an estimated unappropriated free balance of $348,175 as of June 30, 1994. The county superintendent's affidavit indicates that the year-end report of the district indicated an additional free balance of $239,850 over the Board's estimate. Therefore, even with the Board's appropriation of $200,000 into the 1994-95 budget, its audited free balance as of June 30, 1994 was $388,025 or 7.2% of its 1994-95 general fund budget. In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner determines that the further appropriation of $75,000 into the 1994-95 budget will not prevent the district from having a sufficient contingency fund to ensure a thorough and efficient system of education. The $75,000 reduction is sustained.

Item	Reduction
Superintendent's Salary	$5,290
Board/Secretary/Business Manager	2,796
Administrative Secretary	1,868

The Council argues that a $5,000 increase in the superintendent's salary is unwarranted on top of a $5,000 increase in 1993-94 and a $30,000 increase over the past four years. It presents similar arguments relative to the other two positions.

The Board argues that its budget provided for only a 4% to 5% increase for the superintendent, business manager and administrative secretary, which it contends is consistent with increases that have been agreed upon by other districts in Monmouth County.

The Commissioner has carefully considered the position of the parties. In light of the increased surplus indicated by the county superintendent and audit report, the Commissioner determines that the increases desired by the Board may be met by further appropriation from free balance without either impacting upon the Board's ability to provide a thorough and efficient system of education or adding the cost of such increases to the tax levy. The reductions of $5,290, $2,796 and $1,868 are sustained.

Item	Reduction
Board Office Assistant	$27,213

The Council argues that this position may be eliminated due to the small size of the district.

The Board points out that the budgeted amount for this position is actually $25,428 and not the amount indicated by the Council. It further contends that this is a position which has existed for 20 years. The individual, the Board argues, is in reality the secretary to the school business administrator.

The Commissioner upon review of the arguments finds the Council's actions in this area to be arbitrary and capricious and therefore directs the restoration of this amount of $27,213. It would be difficult to imagine the business office of the district being capable of meeting its responsibilities without a secretary, particularly in view of the Commissioner's determination regarding the computer assistant which the Council also seeks to eliminate (see below).

Item	Reduction
Computer Assistant	$21,190

The Council argues that no justification exists to create this new position in light of the $800,000 increase in the budget over the past two years.

The Board argues that elimination of the board office assistant and the computer assistant would leave the business office with only the business administrator.

In light of the restoration of the board office assistant position, the Commissioner agrees with the Council that an additional person is not necessary to ensure competency and efficiency in the business office. The reduction of $21,190 is sustained.

Item	Reduction
Custodian Salaries	$20,000

The Council argues that custodial services needed by the Board could be accomplished more economically by utilizing in-house janitorial services. The $20,000 reduction proposed in this account would, in the Council's view, permit retention of one custodian while utilizing outside contractors as needed.

The Board's position is based upon the age of its building and the constant need for maintenance and cleaning. The Board currently employs three persons at a combined salary of $67,079. (Two-day and one-night custodians) A reduction of $20,000, the Board argues, would require abolishing the lowest paid custodian earning $15,738 and reducing the time of the next lowest paid by one-fifth leaving the district with less than two full-time custodians. While the Board acknowledges that privatization may possibly offer a better solution, it contends that such a course is currently impractical.

The Commissioner finds merit in the Council's recommendation regarding the investigation of utilizing outside custodial services; however, he also finds that such a solution is one to be considered for the 1995-96 budget, as it is not capable of immediate implementation during the middle of a budget year. In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner concludes that the district's commitment to providing a clean, safe and healthful learning environment requires maintaining its proposed level of custodial services for 1994-95. The $20,000 reduction is restored; however, the Board is directed to explore other options, including use of outside contractors, in developing its budget for 1995-96.

Item	Reduction
Repair/Maintenance of Equipment	$25,000

The Council, while conceding the need for repairs, contends that the Board has anticipated extraordinary expenses which should be delayed until spending is under control. It argues that maintenance should be provided, but capital projects delayed.

The Board argues that its budget in this area contains $55,000, $20,000 of which has been allocated to the first phase of replacement of an antiquated fire alarm system. With the Council's reduction, the balance left to the district would be $10,000 in an account in which expenditures for 1993-94 were $46,000. The areas for which monies in this account are used are maintenance of lockers, plumbing and electrical work, refrigeration repair, boiler maintenance, screen and window repair, computer maintenance and many other areas.

The Commissioner concludes that the Council's rationale in this area is arbitrary and without consideration of the needs of a school district to repair and maintain its equipment and facilities. Further, the Council mistakenly considers this account to be directed toward capital projects rather than routine maintenance and repair. Maintenance of equipment and systems being necessary to the offering of a thorough and efficient system of education, the Commissioner directs the restoration of the $25,000 in this account.

Item	Reduction
Resource Room Salaries	$10,000

The Mayor and Council argue that resource room services can be provided at a lesser cost due to budgetary concerns.

The Board points out that it maintains 2 full-time resource rooms to provide services to 51 mainstreamed but classified special education students. Reduction of salaries by $10,000 would violate the tenure status of the teachers involved, and reduction of service time to accommodate reduced salaries would make it impossible to provide the needed services.

The Commissioner concludes that the Council's actions in this area are clearly arbitrary, having been made without consideration or knowledge of the services rendered by resource rooms and personnel involved in providing such services. Providing for the special needs of classified pupils being a mandated requirement of a thorough and efficient education, the Commissioner directs restoration of the $10,000 in this account.

Item	Reduction
Textbooks	$5,000

The Council contends a thorough and efficient education can be maintained with a reduction in new textbook purchases until the Board has "better control" of its finances.

The Board asserts that it is involved in a systematic updating of its textbooks, specifically the replacement of a science series copyrighted in 1984.

The Commissioner once again finds the Council's action to be entirely arbitrary and primarily motivated by non-educational considerations. The upgrading and maintenance of textbooks, and provision of books which are current, particularly in a rapidly changing discipline like science, is essential to ensuring that children statewide have equal access to the latest materials and content, and that they not be denied such access by capricious decisions to slash budgets. The $5,000 in this account is restored.

Items	Reduction
Salaries Child Study Team
a. Social Worker	$22,349
b. Psychiatrist	$16,117
c. LDTC	$20,000
TOTAL	$58,466

The Council contends that the Board's budget should not provide for full-time services in these areas. Instead, it argues that the work week for these positions should be reduced in order to bring spending under control.

The Board points out that the Social Worker and Psychiatrist who work 4 days per week would be reduced to 2 days per week were the Council's reduction to be imposed. Further, the LDTC who now works a full schedule would be reduced to a three-day week. The Board points out that it has 120 classified pupils among its total enrollment of 400. It opines that, any contention that this case load can be handled by a Child Study Team which is working only 40% of the time, is arbitrary and cannot be expected to meet the required level of services.

Once again the Commissioner must observe that the Council's actions are clearly based on noneducational concerns, and that he cannot accept the Council's assertion that budgeting and tax considerations are a sufficient justification for reducing services which are mandated by law and unquestionably necessary for provision of T&E. The $58,466 to maintain the services at 1993-94 levels is restored.

Item	Reduction
Principal/Lease Purchase Agreement	$92,145

The Council argues that the Board should be looking to limit current expenditures; thus, while it concedes that the Board's plan to pay off its lease purchase debt within the next two years would save $100,000, it argues that extending the time for paying off this debt would save current expenditures.

The Board points out that its lease purchase agreement for purchase of modular classrooms calls for payment of the fourth installment of a five-year plan, and that its Certificates of Participation were issued based upon this five-year program and are not subject to optional repayment. Even if this were not so, the Board contends that the cost of refinancing would be approximately $35,000-$40,000.

The Commissioner, upon review of the arguments presented, concludes that the Council's position ignores the Board's obligations under its lease purchase arrangement and would, moreover, lead to an ultimately greater burden on the taxpayer. The $92,145 is restored.

Items	Reduction
Health Benefits	$4,500
Employee Dental/Prescription	$1,500
Luncheon Program	$1,500
Social Security	$6,114

The reductions in this area are predicated upon the elimination of positions recommended by the Council.

The Board points out the reductions for Health, Dental, Prescription and Social Security cannot be achieved if the positions involved are not eliminated. The reduction in the Lunch Program, argues the Board, is not designated as to where such reduction would occur. The Board presumes that it would come through a reduction in staff, which currently consists of two supervisors who order, prepare and serve the food and six aides who clean, supervise and assist in serving the food. The Board points out that 200 students, one-half of the total enrollment, qualify for free or reduced price lunches, thus requiring the full complement of employees.

The Commissioner, upon review of his prior determination relative to elimination or reduction of positions, determines that the amounts by which employee benefits were reduced (Health $4,500; Dental and Prescription $1,500; Social Security $6,114) be restored, the amount affected by elimination of the Computer Assistant being both relatively small and difficult to segregate. Further, the Commissioner directs restoration of $1,500 for the Lunch Program in that the Board has met its burden of demonstrating its need for the existing level of personnel to accommodate 200 students.

Summary

Social Security	0	6,114
Total	$106,144	$251,438

Having made these determinations, the Commissioner turns generally to the question of the Board's level of surplus as indicated in the 1993-94 year end audit. Initially, the Commissioner notes that the Board has strenuously objected to use of this audit, alleging that such use is both unfair and improper, and relying on the State Board of Education's decision in Board of Education of the Township of Middletown v. Township Committee of the Township of Middletown, Monmouth County, decided March 2, 1994 as having established that budget disputes are to be resolved on the basis of the financial circumstances known to the governing body at the time it acted to reduce the budget. The Commissioner rejects this argument, noting that, notwithstanding that certain line items are found to be necessary for T&E, it would be manifestly unfair to consider raising tax levies to fund such items, contrary to express voter approval, when a board is holding surplus over and above a level sufficient to meet reasonable contingencies.

Upon review of the Board's surplus, the Commissioner notes that, of a projected fund balance of $348,175 in its 1994-95 Budget Statement, the Board had appropriated $200,000, leaving a projected surplus of $73,175. However, upon audit, the amount of undesignated, unreserved surplus stood at $631,543. Therefore, even after appropriation of $200,000 for the 1994-95 budget plus an additional $75,000 as recommended by the Borough and sustained above, together with funding of $9,954 in employee salary increases through surplus as likewise directed above, there remains $346,589 in undesignated unreserved surplus. Therefore, the Commissioner directs that, of the $251,438 restored by line-item determination above, $150,000 be funded by appropriation from surplus rather than increased tax levy.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner directs the Monmouth County Board of Taxation to strike an additional General Fund tax levy of $101,438 ($251,438 in restorations, less $150,000 appropriation from surplus) for support of the Bradley Beach Public Schools for the 1994-95 school year, so that the total tax rate for such purposes shall be $3,924,483.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : DECISION OF ERNEST W. CHESTER, JR. :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 2, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, July 5, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, February 16, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Ernest W. Chester, Jr., pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On July 5, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a teacher's aide following a criminal history review pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on November 22, 1995. On January 5, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which she concluded that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. On February 16, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision upholding petitioner's disqualification from school employment and, pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, transmitted the file back to us. Petitioner has not filed an appeal from that decision.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $1,426,226 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $223,162 for a total General Fund tax levy of $10,454,778 for 1994-95 school purposes.

For the Borough of Runnemede, Michael P. Albano, Esq. (Ragonese & Albano)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 9, 1994 by the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Black Horse Pike Regional Board of Education (Board) seeking restoration of reductions to the 1994-95 budget imposed by the governing bodies of the Borough of Bellmawr, the Township of Gloucester and the Borough of Runnemede (Governing Bodies) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37. The aforesaid reductions and the amounts in dispute are set forth below:

Answers to the Petition of Appeal were filed by the three governing bodies on July 7, July 8, and August 23, 1994, respectively. On September 12, 1994, the Board filed its written statement of position, consisting of separate affidavits from the Superintendent of Schools, the Assistant Superintendent, the Business Administrator and the Director of Instruction. The Township of Gloucester and the Borough of Bellmawr filed Position Statements on August 11, 1994 and August 15, 1994, respectively. On December 16, 1994, the Commissioner notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the 1993-94 year-end audit as it related to the amount of undesignated surplus available to the district. Upon receipt of replies to such notice, the record of this matter was deemed closed.

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

In the instant matter, the Governing Bodies, upon defeat of the 1994-95 budget by the electorate, conferred with the Board as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 and adopted resolutions establishing an identical General Fund tax levy to be used for school purposes. In all cases, the aforesaid General Fund tax levy was established by imposing the following line item reductions with accompanying rationale:

ADVERTISED REVENUES

Account 303¹ - Appropriated from Current Fund Balance

From: $1,500,000 To: $1,961,722

Rationale: Account 303: The Governing Bodies find after careful and thorough analysis of the previous three (3) audits and outstanding encumbrances that the School District will generate more surplus than it anticipates and can afford to budget additional surplus to offset the amount to be raised by local taxation. The Governing Bodies find that with this additional appropriation the ¹ The Governing Bodies listed this account as 012. The account number should be 303.

School District will still have an estimated Fund Balance of approximately $1,500,000 remaining.

ADVERTISED EXPENDITURES

Account 11-190-100-340 - Purchased Technical Services:

From: $6,000 To: $3,500

Rationale: Account 11-190-100-340: The Governing Bodies maintain that the 1993-94 appropriation for Right-to-Know In-Service Program is sufficient and should be continued at the same funding level.

Account 11-190-100-440 - Rentals for Instructional Purposes:

From: $80,860 To: $65,860

Rationale: Account 11-190-100-440: The Governing Bodies maintain that this appropriation should remain at the 1993-94 level.

Account 11-190-100-610 - General Supplies for Instruction:

From: $385,639 To: $354,156

Rationale: Account 11-190-100-610: The Governing Bodies have determined through analysis that this account has increased 19.0% over the 1993-94 appropriation. The Governing Bodies recommend that this increase be limited to 10%.

Account 11-190-100-640 - Textbooks for Instruction:

From: $160,798 To: $148,304

Rationale: Account 11-190-100-640: Home Economics and Health and Physical Education has increased by 40% and 335% respectively over the 1993/94 appropriations. The balance of the appropriation has increased by 150% over last year's appropriation. The Governing Bodies find that the Home Economics and Health and Physical Education amounts should remain at the 1993-94 level while the other areas should be permitted to increase so as to provide for a thorough and efficient education.

Account 11-000-221-104 - Improvement of Instructional Services - Professional Staff Services:

From: $62,528 To: $22,528

Rationale: Account 11-000-221-104: The Governing Bodies maintain that this department should be able to operate at the 1993-94 budgetary level. The services of a new Staff Development Assistant should be postponed to a future budget.

Account 11-000-221-320 - Improvement of Instruction Services - Purchased Educational Services:

From: $45,600 To: $33,800

Rationale: Account 11-000-221-320: The Governing Bodies recommend that this account be held to a 10% increase above the 1993-94 level for all 8 services.

Account 11-000-230-330 - General Administration - Level Services:

From: $60,000 To: $55,000

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-330: The Governing Bodies maintain that this appropriation should be held to the 1993-94 level.

Account 11-000-230-339 - General Administration - Other Professional Services:

From: $102,025 To: $47,025

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-339: The Governing Bodies maintain that Architect Fees ($55,000) should be part of the Capital Construction Cost and therefore included in the Capital Account.

Account 11-000-230-340 - Purchased Technical Services - Administration:

From: $37,800 To: $29,800

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-430: The Governing Bodies recommend that the increase of $8,000 for elections be eliminated.

Account 11-000-230-530 - General Administration - Communications:

From: $113,300 To: $108,300

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-530: The Governing Bodies maintain that this appropriation should remain at the 1993-94 budgeted amount.

Account 11-000-230-580 - Travel and Related Expenses - District:

From: $24,775 To: $19,487

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-580: The Governing Bodies maintain that this appropriation should be reduced to 10% over the 1993-94 appropriation.

Account 11-000-230-800 - Miscellaneous Expenses - District:

From: $41,777 To: $37,277

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-800: The Governing Bodies maintain that a $4,500 appropriation for miscellaneous expenses should be eliminated.

Account 11-000-240-580 - School Administration - Travel and Related Expenses:

From: $17,952 To: $12,000

Rationale: Account 11-000-240-580: The Governing Bodies maintain that the $5,952 appropriated for the Supervisor's bargaining unit be eliminated.

Account 11-000-240-600 - School Administration - Supplies & Materials:

From: $61,638 To: $36,100

Rationale: Account 11-000-240-600: This appropriation has increased 300% over the 1993-94 appropriation ($20,500). The Governing Bodies maintain that this increase should only be 176% over the 1993-94 appropriation.

Account 11-000-230-600 - Supplies and Materials - District:

From: $5,950 To: $0

Rationale: Account 11-000-230-600: This account appears to be duplicated in other areas of the budget. Based on this finding, the Governing Bodies recommend elimination of this appropriation.

Account 11-000-260-300 - Operation and Maintenance - Contracted Services for Plant Operation:

From: $202,350 To: $117,850

Rationale: Account 11-000-260-300: The Governing Bodies maintain that the increase of Right-To-Know services should be held to 100% and that gasoline contamination well costs should be eliminated. The Governing Bodies find that gasoline contamination well costs should be a capital item and that the Board should eliminate all gas pumps since it does not operate buses.

Account 11-000-260-610: Operation and Maintenance - Supplies and Materials:

From: $269,190 To: $198,290

Rationale: Account 11-000-260-610: The Governing Bodies maintain that this appropriation should be held to the 1993-94 level. In addition, a $10,000 mathematical error was discovered in the 1994-95 total for ground supplies.

Account 11-000-260-420: Operation and Maintenance - Cleaning Repair & Maintenance Services:

From: $151,950 To: $141,950

Rationale: Account 11-000-260-4200: The Governing Bodies maintain that the $10,000 appropriation for Roofing Services be eliminated since it appears elsewhere in the proposed budget.

Account 12-190-100-731: Capital Outlay - Regular Instruction:

From: $55,599 To: 50,000

Rationale Account 12-190-100-731: The Governing Bodies maintain that this appropriation should be held to the 1993-94 budgeted level, particularly since there is insufficient detail to explain the proposed increase.

Account 12-000-219-732: Other Support Services - Special:

From: $10,000 To: $0

Rationale: Account 12-000-219-732: The additional two (2) copier machines appear to be a duplication in the proposed budget.

Account 12-000-400-450: Facilities Construction Services:

From: $988,717 To: $438,717

Rationale: Account 12-000-400-450: The Governing Bodies recommend that the two (2) all-weather tracks be deferred for other methods of funding.

TOTAL REDUCTION: $1,426,226

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Set forth below are the item-by-item positions of the parties to the dispute herein and the Commissioner's determination.

Account		Reduction
303	Appropriation from Free Balance	$461,722

The Governing Bodies contend that their examination of the district's last three audit reports convinces them that additional appropriation from free balance of the amount indicated above will still leave the Board with a free balance of $1,500,000, which they deem adequate to meet the district's contingency needs.

The Board argues that it needs to maintain a significant free balance to meet payroll and bills during the summer months. It asserts that vendors require payment within 30 days during July and August or significant penalties are assessed. The Board asserts that the only monies available to it during the summer months are those from surplus. The Board further asserts that, despite the fact that N.J.S.A. 54:4-75 requires that the district receive 20% of the local tax levy within the first 40 days of the school year, the municipalities seldom respond in a timely manner. (See Affidavit of Raymond Heston, Business Administrator for July and August 1994 experience).

The Board further sets forth its experience relative to July and August expenditures since the 1991-92 school year as follows:

91-92	$2,299,437
93-94	$2,626,989

The Commissioner notes that the Board makes no argument as to the adequacy of its remaining free balance after the additional appropriation sought by the Governing Bodies; therefore, its sole justification for resisting such appropriation is its argument that the entire free balance is necessary to meet summer expenses. However, even using the Board's own testimony as to the payment schedule received from its constituent municipalities, those funds along with the remaining surplus would appear to provide an amount reasonably close to previous summer expenditures. It would thus appear that the Board's efforts should more properly be directed toward taking steps to ensure prompt payment pursuant to statute rather than seeking to retain a higher surplus amount for the purposes provided herein. In addition, upon review of the year-end audit, the Commissioner has confirmed the assertions of the Governing Bodies as to the amount of surplus available and to its sufficiency even allowing for municipal reduction and expenditures claimed by the Board in response to use of the audit herein. Consequently, the Commissioner sustains the reallocation of $461,722.

Account	Reduction
11-190-100-340 Purchased Technical Services	$ 2,500

The Governing Bodies contend that no justification exists for the increase in Right-To-Know in-service.

The Board responds by asserting that N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. requires that in-service be provided to all employees. The Board points out that it has hired a firm, Forum for Scientific Excellence, at a cost of $5,000 to provide this service. Additionally it asserts that it has also hired a physician at $1,000 to conduct required training of staff members on hard-to-handle bloodborne pathogens.

Upon consideration of the arguments and documentation provided by the Board, the Commissioner directs restoration of the $2,500 in this account, having determined that meeting health and safety requirements is essential to providing a thorough and efficient system of education.

Account	Reduction
11-190-100-440 Rentals for Instructional Purposes	$15,000

The Governing Bodies argue that expenditures in this area should be maintained at previous-year levels, a 20% increase being unjustified with only a 4% increase in enrollment.

The Board points out that the monies in this account are for rental of photocopiers used by professional staff for the duplication of instructional material. The Board asserts that as of June 27, 1994, this account was $40,980 over budget. It contends that a $15,000 reduction would require the removal of one machine, leading to breakdowns and periods of unavailability.

Upon consideration of the arguments of the parties, the Commissioner concludes that photocopy availability is currently a significant technological requirement for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. The Board having demonstrated its costs in the previous year, the Commissioner directs the restoration of the $15,000 in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-190-100-610 General Instruction Supplies	$31,483

The Governing Bodies simply state that they believe the increase in this area should be limited to 10% since enrollment has only increased 4% over 1993-94.

The Board provides information as to the items to be purchased as instructional supplies. (See Affidavit of Business Administrator) It further argues that expenditures in this area fluctuate from year to year, and that the increase for 1994-95 is due to increased enrollment.

The Commissioner finds, after review of the positions of the parties, that the Board has failed to meet its burden of demonstrating that it cannot provide a thorough and efficient system of education with the reduced amount. It points to no compelling or specific rationale for the increase requested in this account. The $31,483 reduction is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-190-100-640 Textbooks	$12,494

The Governing Bodies contend that a 60% increase over 1993-94 is not sustainable when enrollment has increased only 4%. They point out that Home Economics and Health and Physical Education expenditures have increased 450% and 335% respectively.

The Board points out that, for textbook purchase, its supervisors are awarded the same amount as previous years plus a slight increase and have the flexibility to designate monies at their discretion. The Board also asserts that the large increase in health and home economics is due to the need to replace texts in these areas.

The Commissioner has carefully reviewed the documentation presented by the Board to justify its expenditures. Based upon said review, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not sufficiently demonstrated that all increases for textbooks have been justified. The Commissioner also observes that the Board's practice of allotting funds based solely upon previous year's budget is both uneconomical and educationally unsound. The Board is directed to establish a logical process for planning textbook purchases, rather than continuing to rely on what appears on its surface to be a somewhat haphazard method. The reduction of $12,494 is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-000-221-104 Professional Staff Services	$40,000

The Governing Bodies contend that the addition of a staff development assistant is unnecessary. They argue that the absence of such a person may produce a greater workload for the rest of the staff, but that this is a sacrifice which others are making in our society.

The Board argues that this is the third year in which the district has attempted to establish the position in question, but been required to drop it during the budget reduction process. The Board argues that this position is designed to address a major area of weakness in its staff development program. The Board points out that over the years it has used exclusively outside consultants for staff development purposes, but that such a process has the significant weakness of lacking consistent and expert follow-up. The Board envisions utilizing one teacher in each high school as a half-time staff development assistant, so that the district may provide an ongoing, consistent program of professional growth for its teaching and administrative staff.

The Commissioner determines that the continued professional growth and development of staff members is an essential element in the implementation of a thorough and efficient system of education. He further concludes that the Board has demonstrated the benefits to be derived in its particular case from on-staff persons rather than outside consultants to provide such services. The $40,000 in this account is restored.

Account	Reduction
11-000-221-320 Purchased Educational Services	$11,800

The Governing Bodies argue that any increase should be limited to 10% due to there being only a 4% increase in enrollment.

The Board states that the allocations in this account cover a variety of expenditures including:

- a. In-Service Package from the New Jersey Principals and Supervisors Association ($850)
- b. E.I.R.C. ($750)
- c. Governor's Teacher of the Year ($500)
- d. In-Service Programs for Teachers ($5,000)

The balance of the requests in this account, the Board contends, are targeted for teacher in-service programs during the summer. The funds are utilized to pay small stipends to the teachers and to pay the consultants who present the programs. During the summer of 1994 the Board planned to offer the following:

- a. Three-day Instructional Theory into Practice
- b. One-day in HSPT Math
- c. Two-day Cooperative Learning

The Board contends that the reduction here imposed would result in the need to cancel one of these programs.

Having carefully considered the arguments presented, the Commissioner notes that $33,800 remains in this account even after the recommended reduction, and that the Board has not demonstrated that T&E cannot be provided with a less ambitious program than the Board might ideally like to offer. Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the board has failed to meet its burden. The reduction of $11,800 is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-000-230-330 Legal Services	$5,000

The Governing Bodies contend that expenditures for legal services should be maintained at the 1993-94 level.

The Board contends that previous experience has indicated that the amount budgeted has been insufficient.

The Commissioner has reviewed the documentation presented by the Board in support of its position. Based upon that review it is apparent that during the 1993-94 year the Board has made significant transfers from other accounts to meet legal service needs. (See Exhibit N) The $5,000 reduction in this account is, therefore, restored.

Account	Reduction
11-000-230-339 Other Professional Services	$55,000

The Governing Bodies contend that the architect fees of $55,000 which are included in this account should be part of Capital Construction Costs and therefore included in the Capital Account.

The Board points out that N.J.A.C. 6:22-1.3 requires a board to employ an architect to submit plans and specifications on its behalf to the Bureau of Facilities Planning in the Department of Education. The Board contends it has seven projects of a construction/maintenance nature planned for 1994-95 (See Exhibit P for list of projects and costs). The Board argues that architects are hired on an as-needed basis and not on retainer. It contends its 1993-94 budget was over-extended by $77,838 in this account. (See Exhibit R) Finally, the Board challenges the assertion that architect's fees should be charged to the Capital Construction. The Board contends that Generally Accepted Accounting Procedures (GAAP), which is required to be used by state regulations, defines capital projects as those projects financed by bonds, capital grants or certificates of participation. General architect fees, it contends, are placed in Fund 12 Capital Outlay and funded with general revenue monies. (See Exhibit S)

After review of the Board's documentation, the Commissioner finds and determines that the Board has refuted the Governing Bodies' assertion and demonstrated the need to provide those architectural projects and services necessary to ensure health, safety and welfare which are an integral part of the providing of a thorough and efficient system of education. He directs restoration of the $55,000 in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-000-230-340 Purchased Technical Services- Administration	$ 8,000

The monies involved in this account fund election expenses. The Governing Bodies contend the $8,000 increase to meet election expenses is unnecessary and that the 1993-94 level of funding is sufficient.

The Board contends that it has recently created two new voting districts, increasing the cost of running its annual election. Further it argues that in the 1993-94 school year this account was insufficient to meet the costs of the election (See Exhibit U).

The Commissioner finds that the Board has met its burden. Mere limiting of an expenditure to previous year's budget without consideration of the reasons for an increase is arbitrary. The $8,000 is restored.

Account	Reduction
11-000-230-530 General Administration Communications	$5,000

The Governing Bodies merely contend that expenditures in this account should remain at current levels.

The Board points out that this account covers the cost of telephones and postage for the district office, as documented by Exhibit B attached to the Superintendent's affidavit. The Board further points out that the Department of Education will soon require all districts to install a separate line to establish a direct link to State computers for the purpose of filing reports.

The Commissioner has examined the documentation provided by the Board as to actual costs and noted that the 1993-94 account finished with a slight balance. The Commissioner therefore sustains the $5,000 reduction in this account.

Account	Reduction
11-000-230-580 Travel - District	$5,288

The Governing Bodies argue that discretionary spending of this nature should be reduced rather than increased. They have reduced the 1993-94 appropriation by 10%.

The Board points out that the monies in this account provide expenses for board members and district staff to attend local, county, state and national conferences. (See Exhibit C of Superintendent's Affidavit). The Board also points out that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 requires newly elected board members to attend training sessions of the New Jersey School Boards Association.

The Commissioner notes the specific requirement that newly elected board members are mandated to attend training. However, this mandate does not provide specific justification for the entire amount budgeted herein, nor does it demonstrate how all of the expenditures are related to a thorough and efficient system of education. The reduction of $5,288 in this account is sustained.

Account	Reduction
11-000-230-800 Miscellaneous Expenses - District	$4,500

The Governing Bodies contend that in difficult times miscellaneous type expenses should be decreased. The Board provides documentation for some of the expenses under this account. (See Exhibit B attached to Assistant Superintendent's Affidavit.)

The Commissioner's review convinces him that the Board has failed to demonstrate that all of its expenditures are necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education. The $4,500 reduction is sustained.

Account		Reduction
11-000-240-580	Travel and Related Expenses - School Administration	$5,952

The Governing Bodies argue that the $5,592 allocated for the supervisor's bargaining unit should be eliminated.

The Board points out that its collective bargaining agreement with the Supervisor's unit provides for travel expenses of $7,500 per year. (See Exhibit D and E of Assistant Superintendent's Affidavit.)

The Commissioner finds the determination of the Governing Bodies in this area to be arbitrary in that the Board is obligated to meet the requirements of its collective bargaining agreement. The $5,952 is restored.

Account		Reduction
11-000-240-600	Supplies and Materials - School Administration	$25,538

The Governing Bodies contend this account reflects a 300% increase over 1993-94. They argue that some of the items to be obtained from this account should be capitalized and others eliminated.

The Board asserts that this account contains monies for office supplies at each of the district's high schools, which supplies are required for communication between the Board, Superintendent, faculty and parents. In addition, the Board asserts gasoline contamination costs should be eliminated and capitalized. Further, they contend that the Board should eliminate all gas pumps since the Board no longer operates buses.

The Board points out that N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. requires employers to inform all employees of all hazardous materials with which they come in contact. The Board provides copies of the extensive reporting and inventory documents which must also be completed.

The Board points out that, while it no longer operates gas pumps, it has been required by the New Jersey Department Environmental Protection to undertake a number of remedial actions which are detailed in the affidavit of the Business Administrator at pages 14-16. The Board responds to the argument that these expenses be capitalized by pointing out that these are not projects involving bonds or other forms of borrowing; therefore, GAAP requires the expenses to be paid as a current expense.

The Commissioner has considered the documentation presented by the Board. While agreeing with the Board that the Governing Bodies misperceive the nature of capital projects and do not factor in the $65,760 cost of the gasoline contamination project, he finds no specific documentation of why the remainder of the large increase in this account is necessary. In the absence of such documentation, the Commissioner restores $65,760 while sustaining the remainder of the reduction in the amount of $18,740.

Account		Reduction
11-000-260-610	Operation and Maintenance - Supplies and Materials	$70,900

The Governing Bodies argue that expenditures in this account should be held to 1993-94 levels. They also indicate an error of $10,000 in the area of ground supplies.

The Board concedes the mathematical error of $10,000 in ground supplies. The Board delineates a number of projects on page 17 and 18 of the Business Administrator's Affidavit which are incorporated herein by reference.

The Commissioner, in reviewing the positions of the parties and the documents filed, finds no evidence provided by the Board to explain the increases in this account over the previous year's expenditures. In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $70,900 in this account.

Account		Reduction
11-000-260-420	Cleaning Repair and Maintenance Services	$10,000

The Governing Bodies declare that the $10,000 appropriation for roofing services appears elsewhere in the budget.

The Board denies that the appropriation for roofing services is duplicated in the budget. It points out that a $2,000 expense in account 11-000-260-610 is for roof patching material to be used for minor roof repair and maintenance. The item in this account is for the cost of contracted services for roof repair.

The Commissioner finds the Board's response reasonable and justified in order provide for a safe learning environment. The $10,000 in this account is restored.

Account		Reduction
12-190-100-731	Capital Outlay - Regular Instruction	$5,599

The Governing Bodies contend that this account should be maintained at 1993-94 levels since there is insufficient detail to explain the increase.

The Board argues that the increase is justified by increased enrollment. It points out that 52% of the expenditures in this account are computer related.

The Commissioner, upon review of the Board's documentation, finds that the Board has failed to demonstrate how the amount by which this account has been reduced prevents it from providing a thorough and efficient system of education. The $5,599 reduction is sustained.

Account		Reduction
12-000-219-732	Other Support Services - Special Ed.	$10,000

The Governing Body contends that the two copy machines in this account appear to be duplications of machines in other accounts.

The Board contends that these copiers are not duplicative of other copiers in the budget. The Board points out that these copiers are needed in the special education offices of its two schools since the materials copied are by law confidential in nature. Use of the same copiers as those used by faculty for regular business would seriously jeopardize confidentiality. (See Exhibit EE).

The Commissioner, mindful of the large amounts of duplicating necessary to meet the needs of parents of classified students and of the concern for strict maintenance of confidentiality as required by statute and regulation, directs the restoration of the $10,000 in this account.

Account	Reduction
12-000-400-450 Facilities Construction	$550,000

The Governing Bodies recommended that two all-weather tracks be deferred for other methods of funding.

The Board argues that its present tracks are dilapidated cinder tracks which are in disrepair and are adversely affected by precipitation. These tracks are used by track and cross county teams as well as gym classes. The Board contends these tracks have been requested since 1990-91 and have been eliminated either to bring the budget under cap or to resolve budget disputes. The Board contends that most other high schools have replaced their cinder tracks with all weather tracks.

The Commissioner has carefully considered the arguments of the Board in regard to the desirability of replacing its cinder tracks with new all weather tracks. While sympathetic to the Board's position, the Commissioner cannot find that such a project is absolutely essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $550,000 in this account.

DECISION ON MOTION

RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT. :

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education,
April 4, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler (Thomas Russo, Esq., of Counsel)

By application filed this morning with the State Board of Education, the Haledon Board of Education is seeking emergent relief from us today in the form of a determination that it needs more than the amount of the budget as established under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(a) and (b) ("base budget"), which had been approved by the County Superintendent, in order for it to be able to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students in 1995-96. Consistent with the County Superintendent's approval of its base budget, the District had been planning to seek the additional funds by proposing to the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) that they raise the amount of the tax levy necessary so as to support additional expenditures for 1995-96.

After carefully considering the papers that have been filed by the District and the arguments of counsel, the State Board of Education denies the application. In so doing, we stress that there is no question here that the County Superintendent reviewed the budget presented by the District and determined that the amount of that budget is adequate for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Nothing presented to us by the District in support of its application for emergent relief shows that it needs to exceed that amount in order to meet its constitutional obligations for 1995-96. See Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994, slip op. at 14-20.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on June 13, 1994, for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared a settlement agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

WHEREAS, Petitioner has filed a Petition of Appeal in the above matter alleging that his child, M.S., is entitled to a free education under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 within the Borough of Audubon School District;

WHEREAS, Respondent has denied that M.S. is entitled to a free education under the provision of N.J.S.A. 18a:38-1 et. seq.;

WHEREAS, Petitioner has indicated that he is making a good faith and bona fide effort to purchase a residence in the Borough of Audubon; and

WHEREAS, the Petitioner and Respondent have determined to amicably resolving the instant controversy, it is agreed by and between said parties as follows:

1. M.S. shall be permitted to remain as a student in the Borough of Audubon School District during the time that the Petitioner is and continues to make a good faith and bona fide effort to purchase a home in the Borough of Audubon, but no later than the 31st day of December, 1994.

2. M.S. shall be subjected to all of the conditions and responsibilities of any tuition student within the Borough of Audubon School District. A pamphlet outlining the conditions and responsibilities of tuition students shall be forthwith forwarded to the Petitioner, by the Respondent.

3. Commencing with the month of January, 1995, Petitioner shall make tuition payments to the Borough of Audubon School District which shall represent repayment of tuition from November, 1993 through June, 1994 in the amount of $5,000.00, and from September, 1994 through December, 1994 in the amount of $2,736.80. The tuition reimbursement payments shall be payable over a one year period in monthly installments due the first day of each month. The amount of the monthly installments shall be adjusted in accordance with paragraph 4 herein.

4. In the event that the Petitioner purchases a residence within the Borough of Audubon in accordance with this Settlement Agreement then the Respondent shall waive the tuition reimbursement due and owing from September, 1994 through December, 1994 in the amount of $2,736.80.

5. This Agreement shall not be construed as an admission of any violation of any law, rule or regulation by any party hereto.

6. Upon execution of this Agreement by all of the parties, Petitioner shall withdraw its Petition of Appeal, without prejudice to his right to reinstate said complaint; and similarly without prejudice to the right of the Respondent to reinstate said Complaint in the event that Petitioner does not secure a residence within the Borough of Audubon on or before December 31, 1994.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :

OF BRADLEY D. BUTLER. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
March 6, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bradley D. Butler, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹ Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We stress, in addition, that the statute expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision. Moreover, although the Deputy Commissioner observed that petitioner was convicted in September 1992, the record indicates that he was, in fact, arrested at that time.

We retain jurisdiction.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :
FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT: STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF BRADLEY D. BUTLER. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 6, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, July 5, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, March 8, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Bradley D. Butler, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On July 5, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a custodian following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on November 29, 1995. On January 29, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which she concluded that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. On March 8, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision upholding petitioner's disqualification from school employment and, pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, transmitted the file back to us. Petitioner has not filed an appeal from that decision.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

Statement of the Case

These two related matters involving the same parties have been consolidated for hearing together.

Docket No. EDU 6758-93 is a teacher tenure proceeding under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 to -18.1. Tenured teaching staff members hold employment in the public school system "during good behavior and efficiency." Petitioner Newark Board of Education ("Newark") has brought charges of unbecoming conduct against respondent Eileen Johnston ("Johnston"). Specifically, Newark accuses Johnston of various acts of misconduct, including one incident involving excessive use of force against a student and another incident involving use of inappropriate and crude language in the classroom. Basically, the outcome of this dispute depends on an assessment of the witnesses' credibility. If any of the tenure charges is sustained, the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") must determine whether dismissal or some lesser penalty is warranted.

Docket No. EDU 9073-92 is an appeal by Johnston from Newark's decision to withhold her 1992-93 salary increment under N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14. Here the roles are reversed. Johnston is the petitioner and Newark is the respondent. To prevail, Johnston must prove that Newark's action was patently arbitrary, without any reasonable basis or induced by improper motive.

Procedural History

On May 21, 1993, school administrators submitted proposed tenure charges, together with a sworn statement of supporting evidence, to Newark. At its meeting on June 23, 1993, Newark determined that there exists probable cause to credit the supporting charges and that the charges, if true, warrant some type of disciplinary action. Accordingly, on June 25, 1993 Newark certified the tenure charges to the Commissioner. Johnston filed her answer on July 6, 1993. The Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") on July 19, 1993 for hearing as a contested case.

Meanwhile, Johnston had already appealed her increment withholding to the Commissioner on September 10, 1992. Newark had filed its answer on November 13, 1992. On November 19, 1992, the Commissioner had sent this matter to the OAL for hearing. By order entered on October 12, 1993, the OAL consolidated both cases into a single proceeding.

Subsequently, the OAL held seven days of hearing on February 22, 23 and 25, March 4 and 11, May 6, and June 1 and 2, 1994. When the Board had rested its case, the OAL dismissed two charges, dating back to 1988, for lack of proof. Both parties filed legal briefs on September 8, 1994.¹

(1) General Background Facts

Most of the background facts are undisputed. Eileen Johnston, age fifty, started working for the Newark public school district in September 1965 and has twenty-eight years of service. She has a master's degree in student personnel services and is certified in New Jersey to teach home economics and elementary education. During most of her career, she has taught home economics to students in sixth, seventh and eighth grades. In 1988-89 she taught chronically-ill children for one year at the Boylan

Street School, but left at her own request because she lacked the temperament "to deal with children who are sick or ill."²

Beginning in 1989-90, she was assigned to teach home economics to sixth graders at the Vailsburg Middle School. She remained in this position through 1990-91 and the first month of the 1991-92 school term, until an incident on October 9, 1991 which forms the basis for one of the tenure charges.³ As a result of this incident, Johnston was transferred to nonteaching duties in the central office for the remainder of the 1991-92 school year.⁴

At the outset of 1992-93, Johnston resumed her teaching duties at a new location, the Bergen Street School.⁵ She had not asked to be transferred from Vailsburg Middle School. Her transfer had been requested by Vailsburg's building principal, who questioned Johnston's physical fitness to perform her duties and had repeatedly recommended her reassignment "to a less demanding position." Within a period of six years, Johnston has been transferred on at least four separate occasions, an unusually high rate of turnover for a teacher in the Newark school system. Except for Boylan school, all the transfers were due to complaints about her performance by ² Recounting her reasons for seeking a transfer to another school, Johnston recalled that she had once wanted to become a nurse and had been told that she "would not make a good nurse, but would make a first class mortician." Johnston felt she did not have the proper disposition or training to teach a class of severely-disabled children.

³ According to Johnston, she did very little actual teaching in 1990-91. Instead, her classes "were taken away" from her on or about October 20, 1990 and she spent the remainder of the academic year "alone, in complete isolation" in an empty classroom at Vailsburg. Newark never offered any explanation of what she had done to deserve such treatment.

⁵ In February 1993 the Bergen Street School was renamed and is now known as the William H. Brown Academy.

the top administrators of the various buildings to which she was assigned. Johnston taught home economics at the Bergen Street School for nearly seven months in 1992-93. On March 24, 1993, she was implicated in a second major incident, which led to her suspension from further duties and to the filing of the current tenure charges.

(2) Choking and Shaking a Student on October 9, 1991

There is conflicting evidence about exactly what happened on October 9, 1991 and whether Johnston was justified in using force to restrain a child who had left her classroom without permission.⁶

Inez Adams, a security guard stationed at Vailsburg Middle School on that date, heard "loud yelling and screaming" emanating from the vicinity of Johnston's classroom. The bell signaling the end of second period at 10:30 a.m. had just rung. As Adams looked down the hallway, she saw T.J., an eleven-year old boy, crying while he walked in her direction. He was by himself in the hallway, the other children having not yet left the classroom.. Suddenly, Johnston came out of her classroom and, running up behind the young boy, "grabbed him around his neck." By this time, Adams was only five or six feet away from the two of them and had an unobstructed view of the struggle. Adams observed Johnston "shaking" the little boy, and "choking him and pushing him down the hall". She also heard Johnston, who is white, say to the boy, who is black, "No one calls me a white bitch and gets away with it." When Adams instructed Johnston to let the boy go, Johnston didn't respond and continued shaking him. In order to stop the confrontation, Adams interposed her own body between Johnston and the child. When Adams "pushed her away from the child," Johnston did not resist..

Afterwards, Adams cautioned Johnston that, "No matter how angry we are with the children, we don't have the right to hit them or abuse them in any way." Johnston responded by threatening to report Adams for insubordination. Adams also recalled Johnston complaining that she was "sick and tired of those kids, they never listen." While Adams earlier had heard "raised voices" coming from Johnston's classroom, she had no knowledge of what transpired immediately before the encounter in the hallway. Despite valiant efforts, defense counsel was unsuccessful in impeaching Adams' credibility. Adams' testimony that it took her about ten seconds to intervene is consistent with her description of where she was when Johnston accosted the child.

Much of Johnston's testimony dealt with what had previously happened in her classroom and was not directly relevant to the episode in the hallway. Apparently, this evidence was intended to show provocation and to explain why Johnston had chased the child down the hall. A fight had erupted between T.J. and another student in cooking class. Several boys, including T.J., stole brownies which belonged to other students from the refrigerator. At one point during the melee, T.J. ricocheted off Johnston's shoulder, throwing her off balance and "wrenching" her leg. (Johnston had been injured in 1989 in an unrelated attack by another student and wears a leg brace). Experiencing considerable pain, Johnston began to cry in front of the whole class. T.J. purportedly referred to her as "a white bitch" and ran out of the classroom.

Johnston conceded that she attempted to restrain T.J., although the details of her story differ substantially from Adam's version. In the first place, Johnston maintains that her class had already reassembled in the hallway and were waiting in line with their regular classroom teacher. However, she failed to call the teacher supposedly at the scene to corroborate her testimony. Although Johnston admitted that it was she who initiated physical contact, she denied putting her hands around the child's neck or choking him. Instead, she insisted that, approaching T.J. from the rear, she "gently" laid her hands on his back and pushed him. She also acknowledged that the guard immediately intervened and told her to get her hands off the child. School records indicate that T.J. was sent to the nurse that same day, but do not disclose whether he required any treatment. Fortunately, the guard separated the two combatants before any serious damage was done.

I FIND that Johnston mistreated a young boy entrusted to her care by choking and shaking him and that such use of force was unnecessary under the circumstances. In evaluating credibility, the account given by the security guard is much more believable than the self-serving declarations of Johnston. Nothing on the record suggests any motive for the security guard to fabricate testimony against Johnston. On the other hand, Johnston's emphasis on the child's disrespectful behavior in the classroom lends credence to the view that Johnston became so angry that she lost her self-control when she later confronted him in the hall. One factor not evident from a mere recitation of facts, but readily apparent from her demeanor on the witness stand, is Johnston's hostile and embittered attitude toward her students. It is easier to picture her throttling a child who had crossed her than to imagine her gently nudging a recalcitrant child.

Even if her testimony is accepted, however, it is clear that Johnston grossly overreacted to the situation and had no right to push the child. By the time of the fray in the hallway, T.J. no longer posed a realistic threat to the safety of Johnston or anyone else. Indeed, if Johnston's rendition is accurate, the regular teacher had restored order and the children were quietly waiting in line. Thus, Johnston had no reason whatsoever to initiate physical contact with the child. The professional approach would have been to report T.J.'s misbehavior to the office for disciplinary action, which is exactly what the security guard advised Johnston to do at the time.

(3) Use of Inappropriate and Crude Language on March 24, 1993

A second incident involves accusations that , on March 24, 1993, Johnston was verbally abusive to the children in her class and rude to a teacher who sought clarification of the children's' complaints. In the early afternoon, Johnston was in charge of a seventh-grade sewing class, comprised of some twelve students, at Bergen Street School. Johnston was seated at her desk in the front of the room, grading work that the students had done. The students were sitting at long tables, arranged lengthwise in two rows, six students per row. While Johnston was meeting with individual students at her desk, the rest of the class was working on a sewing project at the tables. On this particular day, several children from another class happened to be preparing a luncheon in the back of the room.

One of her students, M.L., left her table, approached Johnston, and asked if she could use the mirror on the back of a locked cabinet door behind the teacher's desk. By that time, other students were already standing around Johnston's desk and M.L. had to wait her turn to ask her question. Despite minor variations in how the children interpreted her response, the evidence regarding Johnston's reply is remarkably consistent. M.L., who was closest to her teacher, testified that Johnston said , "No one wants to see your pussy face" and told her that she had an "ugly face." When repeating Johnston's language to her classroom teacher shortly after the occurrence, M.L. was embarrassed about using the "P-word" because, as the teacher explained at the hearing, the children "weren't allowed to curse in my class, so it was hard for her to tell me." Other children in the classroom substantially confirmed M.L.'s version of the event. S.G., seated at a table about four or five feet away, recalled Johnston as having said, "What do I want to look at your pussy face for?" Several of M.L.'s classmates were so upset by Johnston's language that they suggested M.L. tell her regular teacher about the incident. Stephanie Hairston, the teacher to whom the class returned immediately after the sewing lesson, asked all the students to write down their impressions while the event was still fresh in their minds. At least six students, counting M.L. and S.G., mentioned that Johnston used the word "pussy" Three others indicated that Johnston had said "puss" or "puss face."

Johnston denied having used either derogatory term when speaking to a twelve-year-old child. In her defense, she maintained that there were too many students at her desk demanding attention. When M.L. asked her to open the cabinet, Johnston screamed at her to "Shut up, it's so noisy in here I can't even think." According to Johnston, she exclaimed, "See here, I'm not an octopus," meaning that she did not have enough arms to deal with them all at once. Admittedly, the noise level in the room was high. Indeed, one reason that M.L.'s testimony is so believable was her willingness to acknowledge that she and her friends were talking when they should have been working. None of the students present in the room, however, heard Johnston use the word "octopus."

As recounted by both M.L. and S.G., Johnston bent over to pick something up from the floor, muttering aloud that it was "too damn noisy" and that she was sick and tired of "these damn hoodlums." Again, Johnston flatly denied using the swear word "damn" or referring to the youngsters in her class as "hoodlums." Of the eleven children who gave written statements, however, six confirmed that Johnston told them that they were "hoodlums" and eight heard her use the expletive "damn." Five of the children indicated that she had combined the two terms and had called them "damn hoodlums." Apart from Johnston herself, no witness supported her version of the facts.

Johnston's credibility is further damaged by her effort to discredit M.L. and S.G. as failing students with a motive to lie. Both M.L. and S.G. are honors students who received top grades in other subjects. Their classroom teacher, Stephanie Hairston, described them as academically superior students with "the highest test scores." Moreover, the entire class was generally well-behaved and interested in learning. Johnston had never complained to Hairston, who was responsible for compiling report cards, that either child was causing trouble or in danger of failing home economics.

Mothers of both girls testified that Johnston had never sent home any warning notices or contacted them about any problems. Johnston herself did not produce any substantiating documentation that the two students were doing poorly in her class.

When the children related to her what had happened in home economics, Hairston visited Johnston's classroom in the hope of resolving the matter "teacher-to-teacher." Her actions are reminiscent of those taken by security guard Inez Adams, who intervened in order to protect another student from his own teacher. By this time, Johnston was teaching another class. Before Hairston could ask her to step out of the room to talk, Johnston became "irate" and "started yelling." In front of the other class, Johnston publicly accused Hairston's students of being "not disciplined," "stupid" and "loud." Since there were children in the room, Hairston decided to report the incident to the building principal and "walked out, leaving her screaming." During her testimony, Johnston admitted telling Hairston that her students were "a bunch of liars." She attempted to excuse her behavior by saying that Hairston had interrupted her in the middle of teaching.

Next morning, Johnston compounded the seriousness of the situation by her discourteous treatment of the two mothers, who had come to school to find out exactly what had happened in her class. M.L.'s mother did not automatically assume that Johnston had done anything wrong, she genuinely wanted "to hear her side." Similarly, S.G.'s mother, who is active in the PTA, had hoped that her daughter was mistaken and that it was all a misunderstanding. Initially, the mothers met privately with Johnston and the building principal in a conference room across from the home economics classroom. Frank Walters Jr., the building principal, testified that Johnston avoided his questions about the March 24th incident and that she switched the subject to her general concerns about the unruliness of her students and the adequacy of her lesson plans. Walters characterized the meeting as "unfruitful and unproductive." Johnston quickly became "irrational" and "defensive." More than once, Walters had to remind Johnston "not to yell at me and to lower her tone of voice." Peter Grimes, a union representative who attended the conference at Johnston's request, remembered the conversation focusing on overall classroom discipline and Johnston asking how she could possibly teach "if no one will listen to me." Neither mother felt that her questions about the specific incident were being adequately answered. Ultimately, Johnston became incensed, refused to answer any more questions and, in Grimes' words, "got up from her chair and stormed out of the room."⁷ She retreated to her classroom where she closed the door behind her. When the two parents followed her and knocked on the door to keep the dialogue going, Johnston declined to talk to them and literally shut the door in their face

I FIND that overwhelming evidence establishes that Johnston ridiculed M.L. by referring to her ugly "puss" or "pussy" in order to embarrass her. Apparently Johnston meant to deprecate the physical appearance of a self-conscious preadolescent girl in the presence of her peers, which would have been destructive enough in itself. Due to her incredibly poor choice of words, however, many of the students, including the child to whom the comments were addressed, perceived Johnston's gratuitous remark as a vulgar reference to the female genitalia. This connotation made the situation even more mortifying for the young woman who was the brunt of her verbal attack. Johnston's claim that she used the word "octopus" is without support in the record and was plainly invented to cover up her totally unacceptable conduct.

Not content merely to belittle one child, Johnston disparaged the entire class by referring to the students collectively as "damn hoodlums." Such insulting language was uttered in public and loud enough so that most of the students in the room could hear her invective. Its impact was to convey the unmistakable impression that the teacher disliked them personally and regarded them as nothing better than common criminals. Use of such contemptuous labels in speaking of an entire group of children reflects the same negative attitude which Johnston had also displayed when she told Hairston that her students were "stupid" and "a bunch of liars" or when she confided to Adams that she was "sick and tired of those kids." Moreover, her cursing set a poor example and undermined efforts to teach the children to treat each other with respect and dignity.

If Johnson had acknowledged her errors and apologized for her ill-considered remarks, it might still have been possible to salvage her professional reputation. Unfortunately, her disrespectful treatment of the parents and unwillingness to talk with them utterly destroyed any relationship she might have with these families.

(4) Insubordination Toward the Building Principal on March 26, 1993

A related charge is that on Friday March 26, 1993 Johnston "refused to follow administrative directives, became argumentative and defensive and resorted to inappropriate language." This additional development arose in the aftermath of the "puss" incident on March 24, 1993 and Johnston's discourteous behavior toward the concerned parents on March 25, 1993. As a result of Johnston's rudeness and intransigence, Frank Walters, the building principal, issued a written memorandum directing her to report to the assistant executive superintendent at the central office before the start of school on March 26, 1993. It is undisputed that Johnston did not comply with this directive, but went straight to her classroom as usual. What is controverted, however, is whether or not Johnston ever received prior notification of what she was supposed to do. The outcome depends whose testimony is more credible, the building principal or the teacher.

Walters stated that he had personally handed the memorandum to Johnston sometime in the afternoon of March 25 and also verbally informed her to report to central office tomorrow morning. Johnson denied that Walters delivered the memorandum to her on March 25 or that there was any message waiting in her mail box when she arrived at work the next morning. As soon as Walters learned that Johnston was teaching her class on March 26, he went to her room and inquired why she was there. Johnston became agitated and yelled at him that if he did not let her go to the bathroom "you're going to have a mess to clean up all over this hallway. Walters characterized her manner of speech as "loud" and "vociferous." Later that morning, Johnston returned with her union representative and she accused Walters of picking on her. Union representative Peter Grimes said that Johnston seemed "dumbfounded" and claimed that she had never gotten the memorandum. Although Grimes indicated that notices to teachers in the school system are usually placed in the their mailboxes, he had no personal knowledge of what method Walters selected to communicate with Johnston on this particular occasion. Johnston went home on sick leave for the rest of the day and did not report to central office until the following Monday morning.

I FIND that Johnston received prior notice to report to the central office and knowingly refused to comply with this directive. In resolving the conflicting testimony, there is no reason to doubt the principal's solemn word that on March 25, 1993 he personally handed Johnston the memorandum and verbally instructed her to report to central office. Surely Johnston's unacceptable behavior toward the parents, which Walters had witnessed that very day, called for prompt and immediate referral of the incident to the central office. Once more, Johnston managed to make a bad situation even worse. Her offensive tone of voice and crude bathroom remark to her supervisor compounded the seriousness of her misconduct. By her own admission, she knew at least by Friday March 26, 1993 what she was supposed to do. Yet she displayed her complete contempt for authority by waiting until Monday before reporting to the central office.

(5) Miscellaneous Other Charges

Other tenure charges may be analyzed in less detail. Newark alleges that, on September 9, 1991, Johnston “made continuous reference to students as ‘barbarians’ and [to] the cultural differences of students” and “made verbal threats” to a vice principal. Mildred English, the vice principal who brought these complaints, admitted that she never actually heard Johnston call anyone “a barbarian,” but only heard her criticize the behavior of certain students “for acting like barbarians.” It seems, moreover, that this innocuous exchange took place privately between the two of them outside the presence of the students. Insofar as the Johnston’s supposed antipathy to cultural differences is concerned, English said that Johnston would not prepare certain ethnic foods in her classes. But Johnston explained that she was merely showing sensitivity to diverse religious beliefs, for instance, by not serving beef to Hindu students or pork to Jewish and Muslim students. Far from intending to downgrade other cultures, Johnston maintained that she was trying to teach appreciation for different heritages. English’s information derived from hearsay sources and she had no personal knowledge to refute Johnston’s claim.

Testimony regarding Johnston’s alleged verbal threats to the vice principal was equally elusive. Although Vice Principal English sincerely felt threatened, her underlying reasons were vague and nonspecific. Evidently, Johnston became upset because someone’s car was blocking her exit from the school parking lot. In an encounter with English on September 9, 1991, Johnston made incoherent statements about “knowing the license numbers” and expressed general unhappiness with her assignment. When Johnston put her hands on the desk and said something like, “There are only two of us present and it would be your word against mine,” English took this language as an implied threat against her. Johnston testified that she only wanted to obtain a list of teachers’ license plate numbers so she could talk to whoever had double-parked the car. Certainly the circumstances of this episode are ambiguous at best, and there is no hard evidence that Johnston was contemplating to do any real harm.

Additionally, Newark charges that Johnston failed to maintain adequate classroom discipline, as evidenced by consistently poor performance ratings. Nobody questions Johnston's substantive knowledge of the content area which she teaches or her willingness to keep current in her field. Rather, Newark's criticism is directed toward Johnston's management techniques and her alleged inability to maintain control of her students. Newark's chief witness on this subject was Yvonne Goyins, a central-office supervisor responsible for evaluating all of the home economics teachers throughout the district.⁸ Goyins conducted classroom observations of Johnston over a four-and-a-half year period from October 1988 through March 1993. Every one of her formal written observation reports gave Johnston an overall rating of "satisfactory." Six out of eight observation reports, however, rated Johnston as "unsatisfactory" in a single category entitled "Consistently administers control with understanding, firmness, and consideration for the rights of others." Clearly Goyins believed that Johnston had a discipline problem exemplified by students not paying attention to their lessons and talking among themselves. In particular, Goyins noted that Johnston would ask students to quiet down but not follow through with consequences if they disobeyed her.

After each observation, Goyins would customarily sit down with Johnston and make specific suggestions on how to improve classroom control, such as planning a variety of meaningful hands-on activities to motivate students or posting a set of rules to which students would be expected to adhere. With remarkable candor, Goyins acknowledged that Johnston was "receptive" and "attempted to implement my suggestions." Significantly, Johnston made measurable progress in overcoming her perceived weakness in this category. In September 1991, for example, Goyins rated Johnston as satisfactory in classroom management and advocated the use of various management techniques “for continued improvement.” In the most recent observation report, issued in March 1993, just three months before the bringing of tenure charges, Goyins again rated Johnston as satisfactory in this category. Other Board witnesses made isolated observations of Johnston’s difficulties in managing her class, but not enough to establish a permanent pattern. Vice principal Mildred English made a single written observation in which she commented on Johnston’s “very negative attitude” and her students’ low “level of enthusiasm or interest,” but this could simply have been an untypical bad day. August Alamo, the principal of Vailsburg Middle School, spoke of frequently having to intervene to preserve order in Johnston’s classes, but he too attempted no systematic evaluation of Johnston’s classroom performance.

⁸ Newark's inefficient system for evaluating teacher performance contributed greatly to the weakness of its proofs on this score. Because Goyins evaluates some sixty teachers at fifty-three different schools, she only has an opportunity to observe Johnston's performance once or twice each year. But Goyins has much greater input into the evaluation process than do building administrators who deal directly with Johnston on a daily basis.

I FIND that the proofs are insufficient to sustain the other charges brought against Johnston.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that Newark has sustained its tenure charge of unbecoming conduct against Johnston and that the appropriate penalty is dismissal.

Tenure protects teachers from arbitrary dismissal for “unfounded, flimsy or political reasons.” Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 63, 73 (1982). It is designed to aid in the establishment of a “competent and efficient school system” by affording to teachers a measure of security in the ranks they hold after years of service. Viemeister v. Prospect Park Bd. of Educ., 5 N.J. Super. 215, 218 (App. Div. 1949). Toward that end, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 provides that no tenured individual shall be dismissed or reduced in compensation “except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct or other just cause." Additional procedural safeguards, including the right to a list of charges, a sworn statement of evidence, and an impartial hearing, are written into the law.

Teaching is a calling requiring "an unusually high degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior." Teachers represent "one of the most dominant and influential forces in the lives of the children, who are compelled to attend the public schools[.]" In re Tenure Hearing of Jacques L. Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321 (Comm'r June 12). Children are entitled to a supportive and nurturing classroom environment in which to develop their intellectual capacities and bolster their self-esteem. Adolescents are especially vulnerable to the influences of their teachers, who serve as role models and help to shape how youngsters actually view themselves. Constant negativity and insensitivity in dealing with students is a serious deficiency which constitutes conduct unbecoming a teacher. In re Tenure Hearing of Ernest E. Gilbert, 1982 S.L.D. 274, 326 (Comm'r April 5), aff'd 1982 S.L.D. 328 (St. Bd. Nov. 3). See In re Tenure Hearing of John Birch, 1978 S.L.D. 63 (Comm'r Feb 9), wherein a teacher was dismissed for displaying a negative attitude toward students, including making disparaging remarks about students in class. Being a teacher requires an intense dedication to civility and respect for people as human beings. Morris Sch. Dist. v. Brady, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (Vol 4) 419 (Comm'r of Educ). Psychological damage from steady exposure to verbal abuse from a teacher may be longer lasting than the scars from physical abuse. In re Tenure Hearing of Charles Courtney, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 2889-91 (May 1, 1992).

Ample evidence demonstrates that Johnston was both physically and verbally abusive to the children entrusted to her care, using grossly excessive force in one instance and making hurtful and destructive comments in another instance. She was gratuitously mean and nasty not only to her students, but also to parents who sought her assistance, to administrators who tried to understand her motives, and to co-workers who dared to protect the children. On the record as a whole, it is painfully obvious that Johnston does not like her students very much and does not enjoy teaching in the Newark school system. In short, Johnston lacks the temperament to succeed in her all-important role as a teacher. Her unrepentant attitude and unawareness of her shortcomings make it likely that similar incidents will be repeated if she remains in her present position.

Factors to be considered in assessing penalty include the nature and gravity of the offense; any extenuating or aggravating circumstances; and the effect on maintenance of discipline and the proper administration of the school system. In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404, 420-422 (App. Div. 1967). Courts recognize that a single instance of misconduct, if sufficiently flagrant, is enough to justify removal of an unfit teacher. Redcay v. State Bd. of Educ., 130 N.J. L. 369 (Sup. Ct. 1943), aff'd 131 N.J.L. 326 (E. & A. 1944). Physical and mental mistreatment of children, in Johnston's case by an experienced teacher who ought to have known better, is a serious offense which no school district can tolerate. The gravity of Johnston's misconduct is aggravated by the surrounding context, including her disrespectful treatment of the parents, her insolent conduct toward school administrators, and her undisguised disgust for the children in her class. Under these circumstances, she should not be returned to the classroom where she can do more damage.

In light of the outcome on the tenure charges, it necessarily follows that Newark acted properly when it voted after the October 9, 1991 choking incident to withhold Johnston's salary increment for the 1992-93 school year. N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 authorizes a local board of education to withhold a teacher's salary increment "for inefficiency or other just cause." Case law places the burden on the teacher to prove that the board's action was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. West Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App Div. 1960). See also, Princeton Reg. Sch. Dist. v. Campbell, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (Vol. 4A) 196,222, (Comm'r of Educ.). Since the facts justify termination of her employment in the district, it was reasonable for Newark to conclude that she did not deserve a salary increment for 1992-93.

Order

It is ORDERED that the tenure charge of unbecoming conduct is sustained.

It is further ORDERED that Eileen Johnston is dismissed from her tenured teaching position in the Newark public school district.

And it is further ORDERED that Johnston's request for restoration of her 1992-93 salary increment is denied.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF EILEEN JOHNSON, : SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF :
NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY :
AND :
EILEEN JOHNSON, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
PETITIONER, : DECISION
V. :
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY : OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY, :
RESPONDENT. :
_____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Exceptions of the Board were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Respondent's exceptions, however, were untimely pursuant to this regulatory provision having been filed on January 17, 1995 in response to an initial decision mailed on December 28, 1994 and are, therefore, not considered herein.

The Board's exceptions urge the Commissioner to adopt the initial decision. Relying on testimony and its post hearing brief the board maintains that the nature and degree of respondent's misconduct requires her removal as a teacher in the district.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge that the board has sustained its burden of proof with respect to its tenure charge of unbecoming conduct against respondent and that the appropriate penalty in this matter is respondent's dismissal from her tenured teaching position. The Commissioner further agrees that respondent's request for restoration of her 1992-93 salary increment must be denied.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law is affirmed for the reasons well expressed therein. Respondent is hereby dismissed from her teaching position in the Newark public school district as of the date of this decision. This matter shall be transmitted to the State Board of Examiners pursuant to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6 for action against respondent's certificate as it deems appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

EILEEN JOHNSTON, SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE :

EILEEN JOHNSTON, :

RESPONDENT/PETITIONER-APPELLANT, : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

V. : DECISION ON MOTION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF :
NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY, :

PETITIONER/RESPONDENT-RESPONDENT. :
_____ :

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 6, 1995

For the Petitioner/Respondent-Respondent, Gregory G. Johnson, Esq.

For the Respondent/Petitioner-Appellant, Rabner, Allcorn, Baumgart, Ben-Asher & Tucker (David Owen, Esq., of Counsel)

On January 17, 1996, Eileen Johnston (hereinafter "appellant") filed the instant motion for leave to appeal out-of-time from a decision of the Commissioner of Education dated February 6, 1995 which dismissed her from her tenured employment for unbecoming conduct.

Appellant concedes that she is well beyond the 30-day filing period for appeals, but maintains that her former counsel, who represented her in the proceedings before the Commissioner, failed to notify her of the Commissioner's action. In a certification included with her motion, appellant avers that she first learned of her dismissal from her union representative in September 1995.¹ She states that she then called her former counsel who advised her "for the first time" that she had been dismissed from her employment. He thereupon sent appellant a letter dated September 28, 1995 in which he indicated that he had written to her on January 11, 1995 advising her that the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") had "entered a decision sustaining the tenure charge of unbecoming conduct and ordering that you be terminated from your tenured teaching position in the Newark School District." His letter of September 28, 1995 included a copy of the ALJ's decision, which was dated December 20, 1994. Appellant contends that her former attorney never informed her of the Commissioner's February 6, 1995 decision adopting the ALJ's findings and conclusions or advised her that she could file an appeal to the State Board.

Upon careful review of the circumstances set forth in appellant's certification, and in consideration of the significance of the filing requirement with which she failed to comply, we deny appellant's motion.

Even accepting appellant's assertions as true, the record still indicates that she failed to file the instant motion for leave to appeal until January 17, 1996, more than three-and-a-half months after she acknowledges having received actual knowledge of her dismissal as a result of these proceedings. In her certification, appellant indicates that both her union representative and her former counsel advised her in September

¹ Appellant indicates that she had called her union representative in May 1995 to find out why she was no longer receiving paychecks.

1995 that she had been dismissed from her tenured employment and that her former counsel sent her a copy of the ALJ's December 20, 1994 decision recommending her dismissal on September 28, 1995.² Appellant's Certification, at 3.

Moreover, notwithstanding appellant's assertion that her former counsel failed to notify her of the Commissioner's February 6, 1995 decision adopting the ALJ's findings and conclusions, appellant does not contend that she filed the instant motion within 30 days after she did learn of that decision. We note further that the ALJ's December 20, 1994 recommended decision, which appellant acknowledges receiving from her former counsel in September 1995, expressly provided her with notice that the Commissioner was required to adopt, modify or reject the ALJ's recommendation within 45 days from the date thereof.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28, appeals to the State Board must be taken "within 30 days after the decision appealed from is filed." The State Board may not grant extensions to enlarge the time specified for appeal. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.5(a). In contrast to the period for filing petitions to the Commissioner of Education, see N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2; N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.15, the time limit within which an appeal must be taken to the State Board is statutory, and, given the jurisdictional nature of the statutory time limit, the State Board lacks the authority to extend it. Mount Pleasant-Blythedale Union Free School District v. New Jersey Department of Education, Docket #A-2180-89T1, slip op. at 5 (App. Div. 1990).

² We note that the service list in the Office of Administrative Law in this matter included both appellant's former counsel and appellant personally at her home address.

In this case, the Commissioner's decision was rendered on February 6, 1995 and mailed to the parties on that date. Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4, the decision appealed from was deemed filed on February 9, 1995, three days after it was mailed to the parties. Therefore, as mandated by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28, see N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.3(a); N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(a), as computed under N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(b), appellant was required to file her notice of appeal to the State Board on or before March 13, 1995.

In Yorke v. Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, decided by the State Board of Education, July 6, 1988, aff'd, Docket #A-5912-87T1 (App. Div. 1989), the Court upheld the dismissal of an appeal by the State Board where it found that the notice of appeal had been filed one day late by appellant's counsel, who alleged that he had misread or misunderstood the applicable regulations. The Court added that even if the statute could be construed to permit enlargement of the time for filing an appeal, the appellant therein had failed to establish good cause.

Thus, even if N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28 can be construed to provide us with the authority to enlarge the time limit for filing an appeal, we find no basis under the circumstances presented herein for granting appellant's instant motion for leave to appeal.

Record Closed: September 12, 1994

Decided: December 22, 1994*

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

The within matter was commenced on March 26, 1993 by the school district of the Freehold Regional High School District, Monmouth County (hereinafter petitioner) with the filing

* An extension of time for issuing the initial decision was requested and granted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:15B-10(c).

of tenure charges in accordance with the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11 against Irvin Kotkin (hereinafter respondent). Petitioner certified three charges against respondent alleging conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member as follows:

CHARGE ONE

That the said Irvin Kotkin has engaged in improper and inappropriate touching and attempts to touch the bodies of female staff members employed by the Freehold Regional High School District.

CHARGE TWO

That the said Irvin Kotkin has made improper and inappropriate remarks to female staff members employed by the Freehold Regional High School District.

CHARGE THREE

That the said Irvin Kotkin has improperly and inappropriately addressed female staff members employed by the Freehold Regional High School District.

On April 8, 1993, respondent filed an answer in which he denied Charge One and Charge Three. An Amended Answer was filed on his behalf on April 14, 1993 in which all three charges were denied. On April 22, 1993 the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A prehearing conference was conducted on June 30, 1993 at which time it was determined that the only issues for determination at hearing were whether any of the tenure charges were in fact true and if so, what were the appropriate sanctions/remedies? The hearing was scheduled for November 22, and 23, 1993 and December 7 and 8, 1993 at the Trenton office of the Office of Administrative Law. The hearing commenced as scheduled and continued on November 23; December 7 and 8, 1993, were preempted by an emergent matter on the judge's calendar and testimony in the within matter concluded on January 6, 1994. Thereafter the record remained Emmerman confirmed in her testimony this description of Ms. L.'s demeanor as she was reporting the incidents that day. Both recalled that she had expressed concern about losing her job as a result of reporting these incidents.

Ms. F. was unable to be present at the hearing and the parties agreed to mark her deposition as evidence in lieu of her testimony. Concerning the several times respondent had addressed her on the telephone as "Hon" and "Babe," she had testified at her deposition:

I don't think he meant anything by it. I took a slight offense to it but I don't think he meant anything by it so I didn't let it bother me.

Although there were numerous, minor inconsistencies among the witnesses concerning specific dates or times or details of the incidents, of which respondent attempts to make much in his post-hearing written submissions, the discrepancies are merely the kinds of differences in detail anyone would normally expect when several different people report the same events a year and one-half after the fact. Accordingly, whether the first training session at Pine Street occurred in July or in August is insignificant; also insignificant is the date upon which Ms. L. first complained to Mr. DeGroot about respondent's behavior; obviously she could not have complained about it in July if it did not occur until August. Likewise inconsequential is the length of time Ms. Falkoff was absent from each session; none of the behavior would take more than a few seconds. I attribute any discrepancies among the testimony of petitioner's witnesses to the failure of recollection and the passage of time rather than to any conspiracy to give false testimony to get rid of respondent. Each of petitioner's witnesses was a candid, sincere and credible witness. The testimony of respondent and most of his witnesses, however, lacked the ring of truth. Ms. F., respondent's secretary of nineteen years, repeatedly responded "I can't recall" to the questions of both counsel. She denied having left either training session at the Pine Street building, when even respondent acknowledged that she had left the sessions upon occasion for either a cup of coffee or to use the rest room facilities. Respondent's attempt to explain away what Ms. McD. had observed in Ms. L.'s cubicle, i.e., that he had rested his hand on the back of Ms. L.'s chair but did not touch her back, was not credible particularly since he indicated he had placed his arm in that location so he could lean forward to view the small computer screen. As noted by petitioner in its post-hearing submissions, such a position would be extremely uncomfortable. Respondent's replies to the questions of the undersigned when he was asked for a distinction between addressing someone as "Babe," to which he readily admitted, and "Hon" or "Sweetheart", was likewise unpersuasive:

THE COURT: Mr. Kotkin, would you agree that if someone addressed a female staff, person, as hon or sweetheart that that would be inappropriate, and that the person would be justified in being offended?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE COURT: And you didn't think that that was true of the word 'babe'?

THE WITNESS: Not until January the 12th did I because I had used it quite frequently. But will I use it again? Absolutely not.

THE COURT: Well, how is babe different from hon or sweetie or dear?

THE WITNESS: When somebody had helped me with a project or had done something, I would say thank you, babe. Thanks very much, babe. And I did not think that it was considered to be an offensive word.

THE COURT: But you would say if you said the same thing, thank you, hon, or thank you, dear, that that would be offense, is that right?

THE WITNESS: I think it depends the way a person would take it. I consider myself as Mr. Kenney said, a warm person. And if someone said something like that to me, I would not take offense to it, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, do you know that that's not commonly accepted in the business community?

THE WITNESS: I do now.

THE COURT: But you didn't know that prior to January, 1993?

THE WITNESS: No.

Respondent insisted that he used the term "Babe" to address persons of both genders, and his witness Dr. James Hayden did respond "Yes" when asked whether respondent had ever addressed him as babe, so perhaps upon occasion he had used the word to address some of his male friends. There is a large distinction, however, between the inevitable and foreseeable impact of the word upon a female colleague or casual acquaintance who may be respondent's professional subordinate and the effect upon any male, particularly one who is respondent's friend. It is incredible to believe that any educated person after about 1980 would not be aware that the use of such terms to address women is condescending and demeaning at best. What effect the use of any of those terms by one man toward another might have, I can only speculate, but the effect, and undoubtedly the intent, would be vastly different.

Most curious, also, was respondent's repeated comments during the latter part of his testimony, after he had specifically denied all of the accusations, that "no harm was meant to anybody;" if the actions complained of did not occur, possible harm would not even be an issue. Finally, most incredible of all was respondent's explanation for his comments during his visit to Mr. DeGroot's office on the afternoon of January 12. According to respondent, all that had happened between Ms. L. and him earlier in the day had been a spontaneous gesture of appreciation to her for solving his computer problem, i.e., that he had grabbed her hand to shake it and had placed his other hand upon her right shoulder at which point she had "leaned back and she winced". Although he repeatedly denied on cross-examination that he viewed this wince as any indication of distaste or displeasure with his conduct, he also reiterated over and over that he had wanted to assure Ms. L. that nothing had been meant by his conduct and that it had been his intention to stop in to see her and tell her this after he dropped off the document at the Pine Street office, but he had been unable to do so because she was not there. The following exchange between counsel for petitioner and respondent exemplifies his convoluted attempts to justify his conduct:

Q Mr. Kotkin, wasn't it your testimony less than 10 minutes ago that you did not construe Mrs. L.'s wince or her removal of her hand as a sign of distaste of hostility to what you had done?

A I did not, no. But I went to reassure her.

Q Why did you think she needed reassurance if she hadn't done anything to indicate to you dissatisfaction or displeasure with your conduct?

A Would you repeat that question?

Q Why would you need to reassure her if she hadn't done anything to indicate to your her dissatisfaction or displeasure with your conduct?

A Because I wanted her to know that there was no intent on my part to do anything to her.

Q Mr. Kotkin, you've said that seven times. And I will ask you an eighth time. Why did you think that reassurance was necessary if, by your own testimony, she didn't do anything to signify hostility, distaste, or displeasure with what you had done?

A. Because when she moved her shoulder and she winced back, I though that reassurance was necessary.

Q Why? Do you think, in fact, that the moving of her shoulder and wincing back indicating displeasure with what you had done?

A No.

Q No. Then why did she need to be reassured?

A Because it was important for her to know that there was no intent on anything to be done to her.

Q What do you mean by "no intent," Mr. Kotkin? No intent to do what?

A That nothing was meant by it other than my gratitude for a job that she had done.

Q Well, why did you think that she might have had a different perception of your conduct if, by your testimony, she gave no sign of displeasure or distaste?

A Because it bothered me as I was driving over to the Pine Street School.

Q Is it your testimony then upon thinking about what had occurred while driving over to Pine Street School, it occurred to you for the first time that this might have been a sign of distaste or displeasure?

A Yes.

Q I see. And did you, in fact, convey that concern to Ms. L. that she understand that there was no intent when you got over to Pine Street?

A No.

Q You didn't speak to her?

A No.

Q Why not?

A She wasn't there.

Q Did you hear Mr. DeGroot's testimony --

A Yes.

Q -- that you came into his office and attempted to speak to him while he was on the phone?

A Yes.

Q And you heard him testify that during a break in the conversation, he heard you say that there had been a misunderstanding with B.? Did you hear that?

A Yes.

Q And that he kind of waved you off and said he'd take care of it.

A Yes.

Q Do you recall that? And that tracks with your testimony and your recollection of events, doesn't it?

A Yes.

Q Fine. Did you also hear Mr. DeGroot testify that he shortly finished-up the phone call and then went out into the other room and spoke to B.L. about your visit?

A No, I don't remember that.

Q You don't remember. Did you hear Mr. DeGroot testify that he asked B.L. about what had happened based on your conversation that same afternoon?

A Yes, I did hear.

In fact, as is evident from both Ms. L.'s and Mr. DeGroot's testimony, Ms. L. was in the office when Mr. Kotkin went in to tell Mr. DeGroot about "a misunderstanding". A far more likely scenario is that respondent realized that he had "gone too far" that time and that Ms. L. was likely to complain to someone, probably her direct supervisor, Mr. DeGroot, and respondent wanted to see whether, in fact, that had happened.

"Testimony to be believed must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness but must be credible in itself. It must be such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances . . ." Spagnuolo v. Bonnett, 16 N.J. 546, 554-555 (1954). Respondent's testimony satisfies neither of these conditions. His testimonial demeanor at trial was reflective of the attitude expressed numerous times in his testimony and throughout his post-hearing written submissions that he, a twenty-six year employee with nineteen years' experience as a principal, ought to be believed as opposed to Ms. L. who had been employed less than one year as a computer operator, notwithstanding the fact that Ms. L.'s version was corroborated in one incidence directly by an eye witness, Ms. McD., and in others indirectly by simultaneous reports of the incident by Ms. L. to Ms. McD., Mr. DeGroot, Mr. Wasser and Dr. Emmerman. In addition, respondent could offer absolutely no reason why Ms. L. would fabricate these complaints. He had never complained about her work and in fact, he had been pleased with it. It is difficult to image what ulterior motive could have prompted Ms. L. in the context of the within proceedings where she has no prospect of monetary recovery to bring these charges falsely against respondent and to subject herself to the unpleasantness of cross-examination, to the possibility of humiliation by not being believed, etc., etc., etc. For all of the foregoing reasons, I FIND the facts to be as reported by Ms. L., Ms. McD. and Ms. F. Specifically, I FIND that on more than one occasion during training sessions in Ms. L.'s cubicle at the Pine Street administration building, respondent placed his hands on her shoulders, attempted to put his arm around her by draping it across her back and touching her opposite shoulder and that on January 12, 1993 he had held and squeezed her hand, placed his arm around her and placed his hand upon her thigh, upon which she recoiled and he said something to the effect, "You must come from a very cold family" and made a comment about her husband. I further FIND that on numerous occasions he addressed Ms. L. and Ms. F., and on one occasion Ms. McD. as "Babe" and on other occasions he addressed Ms. L. and Ms. F. as "Hon".

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

As in Matter of Seaman, 133 N.J. 67 (1993), the inquiry here is not whether respondent's behavior constituted sexual harassment as such. Thus, we also need not address whether the conduct complained of created a "hostile working environment" for the complainants. Lehmann v. Toys "R" Us, 1132 N.J. 587 (1993). The charges petitioner must prove herein are that respondent was guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member so as to require that his tenure in the school district be terminated, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. As the court noted in Seaman, supra, although undoubtedly all forms of behavior that cross the legal threshold of sexual harassment will constitute conduct unbecoming, many forms of offensive interpersonal behavior that would constitute conduct unbecoming, would not meet the legal definition of sexual harassment. Although the specific incidences of conduct in this matter are clearly not as egregious as those engaged in by Judge Seaman* nevertheless the charges of misconduct against respondent herein also equate with sexual harassment. By addressing female staff members as “Babe” and “Hon”, respondent deprived them of the dignity and respect with which they are entitled to be treated in the work place. As previously noted, to be addressed in such a fashion is demeaning and personally offensive. By repeatedly subjecting Ms. L. to his unconsented touching, he invaded her personal privacy, embarrassing her and upsetting her. Most offensive, of course, was the incident where he placed his hand upon her thigh and when she finally advised him that he was making her feel uncomfortable, he made his insulting remark about her “cold family” and reference to her husband. Much of what the Court had to say about Judge Seaman’s conduct concerning the nature of the offense and the effect upon the victim applies equally to the conduct in the within proceedings. The Court’s notation that one can be offended by certain conduct while still being reticent to report it for fear of losing one’s job, creating controversy, not being believed, not being supported, or generally making matters worse, certainly rings true in the within matter. Ms. L. was faced with the same three undesirable options faced by every victim of offensive remarks and unwanted touching, i.e., to tolerate the harassment quietly, to oppose it and risk reprisals, embarrassment, etc., or to resign from her employment. Seaman, at 90. Ms. L. should be commended for her courage. Unfortunately, the only way to eradicate this type of conduct is for women and the legal system to announce loudly and with sanctions of consequence that this type of conduct will not be tolerated.

“Sexual harassment of women by men is among the most pervasive, serious, and debilitating forms of gender discrimination,” the Court in Seaman confirmed. Id. at 99. “We are well aware that sexual harassment, like other forms of discrimination, debilitates its victims and has, as its ultimate effect, the continued subordination of women.” Id. at 100. The burden of proof for establishing claims before state agencies and contested administrative adjudications is a fair preponderance of the evidence. In re Polk License Revocation, 90 N.J. 550, 560 (1982). Unquestionably, petitioner has established by a preponderance of the believable evidence that respondent was guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member by his mistreatment of Ms. L. and also Ms. F. and Ms. McD.

The remaining issue, i.e., the appropriate remedy or sanction for respondent’s misconduct presents some difficulty simply because respondent resigned his teaching staff position with petitioner and retired under the Teachers’ Pension and Annuity Fund, effective August 1, 1994. Accordingly, a suspension without pay such as the one the Court felt appropriate to remediate Judge Seaman’s conduct, is not an option. Like Judge Seaman’s victim, respondent’s victim was particularly vulnerable since she was a new employee in the district and held a position well below respondent’s in the educational hierarchy. Like Judge Seaman, respondent never acknowledged his wrongdoing or expressed contrition but rather cast aspersions upon the truthfulness of his accusers and the motivations of the school administrators. Although it is true that this is the first time respondent has been found guilty of such misconduct, the reason may well relate to the fact that this is the first time another employee has had the audacity to challenge his behavior. Some meaningful sanction must be imposed to impress upon respondent the severity of his conduct and to warn all others who would disregard* “the imperative of public policy - the overriding social goal of achieving a society where all citizens are treated with respect regardless of gender”- (Seaman, at 101) that the Commissioner will not tolerate such behavior in the schools under his jurisdiction.

Petitioner’s September 12, 1994 response to respondent’s request for interlocutory review of the order denying the motion to dismiss noted that respondent was claiming that he was entitled to be compensated for 116 unused sick days and 22.5 unused vacation days remaining at the time of his retirement. Petitioner's letter noted that it was not inclined to grant respondent's request for compensation but added that the Board's determination would not preclude respondent from pursuing the claim further. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent shall forfeit any monetary benefits which might remain due and owing to him for unused sick leave or unused vacation time or for any other claim against petitioner related to his previous employment.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF IRVIN KOTKIN, FREEHOLD :
FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH : DECISION COUNTY. :
_____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Respondent's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Respondent's exceptions advance arguments with respect to three facets of the initial decision - the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) factual findings, her use of Matter of Seaman, 133, N.J. 67 (1993) in determining his penalty herein, and her determination that the within tenure charges were not rendered moot by respondent's retirement. Initially, respondent argues that the ALJ appears to have functioned more as an advocate than a finder of fact in this matter by interpreting testimony of witnesses to support the conclusion which she apparently wanted to reach, allowing her to send a message to the "entire educational community." (See ALJ's August 12, 1994 Letter Order) He contends that "he has been chosen by this court to send its message, a message not based on the actual facts as they were presented, but rather as they were depicted by the court." (Respondent's exceptions at p. 2) In this connection, respondent maintains that the ALJ gave undue credence to the testimony of the Board's witnesses, particularly that of B.L., interpreting such testimony in the most favorable possible light with no regard for discrepancies or contradictions therein while fully ignoring his credible testimony and that of those testifying on his behalf. Respondent makes extensive reference to specific testimony with respect to each of the charges which he contends supports this assertion.

In further support of his contention that the court herein molded the facts in this case to suit its purpose of writing a decision, respondent points to page 19 of the Initial Decision where the ALJ stated "while it was true that this was the first time respondent has been found guilty of such misconduct the reason may well relate to the fact that this is the first time another employee has had the audacity to challenge his behavior." He argues [f]or the court to even infer that other incidents of this type may have occurred previously when no evidence, or even inference, was ever presented by anyone to even remotely suggest that such conduct had previously occurred, only illustrates the court's loss of objectivity...It is outrageous that the court, the finder of fact, took it upon itself without prompting from anyone and without any evidence from anyone - without any facts - to conclude that the reason no other charges may be found in respondent's prior 26 years of impeccable service is because no one had the courage of B.L. to come forward.

Respondent next excepts to the ALJ's comparing of this matter to the Seaman, supra, case, contending that, even assuming the facts herein are as alleged by B.L., the two matters are in no way comparable in degree or in kind as the conduct in Seaman was clearly deliberate, overtly sexual in nature, and objectionable to anyone with reasonable sensibilities which is not the case here.

Lastly, respondent argues that the ALJ erred in denying his motion to dismiss this case as moot as a result of his retirement. He maintains "...the tenure charges brought by the petitioner w(ere) inexorably linked to its employment relationship with the respondent. If the respondent was found to have exhibited conduct unbecoming, any penalty would have pertained to the respondent's continued employment with petitioner. Therefore, once the employment relationship had been severed, as it had been in August 1994, there ceased to be a reason to continue with this matter." (Respondent exceptions, pp. 13-14) Respondent further asserts that since the ALJ's denial of his motion in August 1994, B.L. has left petitioner's employ and he suffered another heart attack which required hospitalization. He urges that in light of his retirement and these subsequent occurrences, no harm would result to B.L. or petitioner if this matter were dismissed as moot based on changed circumstances.

In reply, the Board argues that respondent's allegations with respect to the existence of significant discrepancies and contradictions in testimony and his charge that the ALJ disregarded these, evidencing judicial bias are without foundation. It maintains that the testimony of B.L. describing the inappropriate actions of respondent was quite clear as was the testimony of the corroborating witnesses concerning B.L.'s contemporaneous, consistent descriptions of his behavior. The Board presents its explanations of each of the inconsistencies argued by respondent, along with cited portions of hearing transcripts, which it asserts lead to the conclusion that such alleged inconsistencies were either non-existent or irrelevant in nature.

The Board further maintains that the ALJ's discussion regarding sending a message to the educational community, rather than evidencing bias on her part, is fully appropriate given the nature of this case. It posits that because "there is a dearth of case law providing definition for the statutory phrase "unbecoming conduct" in the context of sexual harassment creating a hostile working environment...the ALJ was correct in noting the importance of providing guidance in a relatively new but rapidly developing area of law." (Board's exceptions at p. 14).

Likewise, the Board urges that the ALJ's comments on page 19 of the initial decision were merely a recognition "of the dynamics of sexual harassment in the workplace, the kinds of embarrassment and fear of losing a job which have been repeatedly documented as reasons why women hesitate to make such complaints." (Board's exceptions at pp. 14-15). It contends that the ALJ neither found nor suggested that respondent had engaged in this type of behavior in the past but rather she just observed "that a previously clean record is not dispositive of innocence in these matters." (Board's exceptions at p. 15) The Board, therefore, urges that the record does not support allegations of bias on the part of the ALJ but, instead, contains substantial credible evidence supporting her findings and conclusions.

The Board next urges rejection of respondent's claim of improper reliance on Seaman, supra, in determining his penalty herein, pointing out that the ALJ clearly distinguished the behavior in this matter from that in Seaman, supra. (See Initial Decision at

p. 18) It further asserts that because there are relatively few cases dealing with sexual harassment in the workplace, the ALJ would have been remiss in ignoring this case.

Lastly, the Board maintains that a determination of mootness of these charges as a result of respondent's retirement is precluded since the within charges represent a novel issue, i.e., "whether, and to what extent, conduct which creates a hostile work environment for a female co-worker constitutes "unbecoming conduct" within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 (Board's exceptions at p. 19), the respondent has a pending claim for unused sick and vacation days, and there is a need to prevent possible repetition of this conduct by respondent in another jurisdiction. The Board, therefore, urges the Commissioner to adopt the recommended initial decision in its entirety.

Upon a thorough and independent review of the record in this matter, including the extensive exception submissions of the parties and transcripts of the three days of hearings conducted at the OAL, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the ALJ that the Board has sustained its charges of unbecoming conduct against respondent. The Commissioner finds respondent's argument with respect to the ALJ's factual findings and his suggestion that such findings were colored by her own personal agenda to be totally without merit. The Commissioner is fully satisfied after his review that the ALJ's recitation of testimony is both accurate and thorough, that she carefully measured conflicts and inconsistencies in deciding which testimony to credit in reaching her factual findings and that the record contains substantial evidence to support such findings and conclusions.

The Commissioner next categorically rejects respondent's contention that his retirement, effective August 1, 1994, rendered the within charges moot requiring their dismissal, and he is not persuaded to the contrary by any of the "changed circumstances" which occurred subsequent to this retirement date. Charges of improper and inappropriate conduct are extremely serious in nature, and must be viewed in light of the Commissioner's concern and obligation regarding the safety and integrity of the schools statewide and the fact that an individual's retirement from one district does not necessarily preclude subsequent employment in other school districts of the state. Consequently, in matters of this nature, the Commissioner cannot permit an individual's retirement to effectively allow him to sidestep adjudication of such charges on their merits. Although the Commissioner does agree with respondent's exception argument that the behavior at issue herein does not rise to the level of egregiousness as that exhibited in Seaman, supra, such behavior was clearly demeaning and offensive and cannot and will not be considered de minimis or in any way be tolerated from a teaching staff member in the public schools of New Jersey.

Notwithstanding the above, while the Commissioner strongly believes that respondent should not be permitted to escape the consequences of his actions, he cannot agree with the ALJ's recommended penalty in this matter, i.e., respondent's forfeiture of monetary benefits which may remain due and owing him for unused sick leave and unused vacation time. The Commissioner finds and determines that respondent's entitlement to such benefits, whatever that entitlement may be, accrued to him at the time of his retirement on August 1, 1994, at which time there had been no adjudication on the merits of the within charges. As such, the Commissioner finds no basis to "reach back" in the meting of a penalty. Rather, the Board herein is directed to make these charges and their resolution a part of respondent's permanent personnel file. Further, this matter will be transmitted to the State Board of Examiners for action as it deems appropriate with respect to respondent's teaching certificate.

Accordingly, the initial decision of OAL is adopted, as modified herein, as the final decision in this matter, and this case is hereby referred to the State Board of Examiners.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

(Smith, Don, Alampi & D'Argenio, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 17, 1994

Decided: November 21, 1994

BEFORE STEPHEN G. WEISS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law by the School Ethics Commission on August 6, 1993 and pertains to an Order to Show Cause which was filed by the Commission requiring the respondent to demonstrate why he should not be found to have violated certain provisions of the New Jersey School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26(a)(1) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

A settlement conference was conducted by the undersigned Administrative Law Judge on September 23, 1993 at which time I was advised that the parties were discussing settlement of the dispute and that a Stipulation of Settlement would be prepared. Thereafter the parties conferred with one another and reached agreement with respect to the terms and conditions of a settlement.

The Stipulation of Settlement which has been signed by counsel and by the respondent essentially provides that respondent agreed that he inadvertently had failed timely to file a full and complete financial disclosure statement on his 1993 financial disclosure statement form. The School Ethics Commission agrees to withdraw any allegation that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 and it also agreed to recommend to the Commissioner that the appropriate penalty to be imposed for the inadvertent failure to file be a letter publicly reprimanding respondent for that conduct. The parties also have agreed that the settlement will not be used in any other proceeding and that the penalty recommendation which has been approved by the School Ethics Commission is subject to review by the Commissioner. Should the Commissioner decide to impose a different penalty more severe in its impact, then, and in that event, respondent has reserved the right to seek to have the matter reinstated at the Office of Administrative Law and to proceed as a contested case.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of the Stipulation of Settlement which is attached hereto and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby file my initial decision with the Commissioner of the Department of Education. The School Ethics Commission agrees to the terms of the initial decision as evidenced by the executed Stipulation of Settlement attached hereto.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER

OAL DKT. NO. EEC 7415-93

OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton,
New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

WHEREAS, this matter was opened by the issuance by the School Ethics Commission of an Order to Show Cause pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(b) to respondent Michael J. DeBartolo to show cause why he should not be found in violation of the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 and respondent Michael J. DeBartolo having filed a response thereto, and

WHEREAS, counsel for the School Ethics Commission and respondent Michael J. DeBartolo have engaged in discovery, find that a settlement is in the best interest of the parties and have been authorized by their respective clients to enter into a Settlement Agreement,

NOW THEREFOR, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Respondent Michael J. DeBartolo agrees to withdraw his answer contesting the Order to Show Cause.

2. Respondent Michael J. DeBartolo agrees to accept the determination of the School Ethics Commission that he failed to timely file a full and complete financial disclosure statement by inadvertently failing to list on his 1993 financial disclosure statement certain rental property as an additional source of income.

3. The School Ethics Commission agrees to withdraw or dismiss any allegation that respondent violated any provision of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.

4. The School Ethics Commission further agrees to recommend to the Commissioner of Education that the appropriate penalty to be imposed in this matter is a public letter reprimanding respondent for his inadvertent failure to timely file a full and complete financial statement.

5. The parties hereto agree that this settlement may not be used in any proceeding other than in determining the appropriate penalty should respondent be found to have violated the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 et seq. by virtue of his conduct as a school official in matters other than those raised in this Order to Show Cause.

6. This settlement shall be effective on approval by the School Ethics Commission but subject to the Commissioner of Education's determining that the penalty recommended by the School Ethics Commission is appropriate.

7. Should the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty inconsistent with the terms of this Settlement, respondent Michael J. DeBartolo shall have the option of having this matter reinstated in the Office of Administrative Law and heard as a contested case.

MENT OF GARY C. ROBINSON. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
January 24, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Gary C. Robinson, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹ Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. We note in that regard that the statute expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision. Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

We stress, in addition, that, while the Deputy Commissioner regarded petitioner's conviction for simple assault to be a non-disqualifying offense, N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1, which applies specifically to school bus drivers, expressly includes "assault" as a disqualifying offense for individuals seeking employment as school bus drivers. Thus, in direct contrast to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, which sets forth the disqualifying offenses for employees other than school bus drivers, N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 does not distinguish between simple and aggravated assault.

We retain jurisdiction.

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 24, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, August 2, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, April 8, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Gary C. Robinson, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On August 2, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a bus driver following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 et seq., with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on January 10, 1996. On February 21, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which she concluded that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. On April 8, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision upholding petitioner's disqualification from school employment and, pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, transmitted the file back to us. Petitioner has not filed an appeal from that decision.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

BEFORE CAROL LASKIN, ALJ t/a:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on June 10, 1994, for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to settle this matter and have prepared a settlement agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

The petitioner Board of Education of the Township of Old Bridge (the "Board") and the respondent Gerald Strincoski ("Strincoski") having conferred with respect to this matter and having mutually agreed upon certain terms by which this matter may be settled, such terms being set forth in this Stipulation of Settlement, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between the Board and Strincoski as follows:

1. Strincoski shall and hereby does resign from the employ of the Board effective as of April 30, 1995. Until April 30, 1995, the Board shall continue to pay Strincoski his salary.

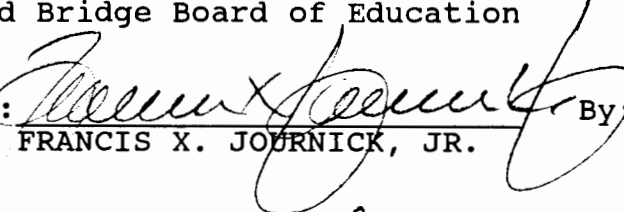

2. On and after April 30, 1995, in response to inquiries from any prospective employer of Strincoski, the Board shall supply such prospective employer only Strincoski's period of employment and rate of salary paid by the Board. The Board shall specifically make no comment concerning Strincoski's performance to such prospective employer.

3. Strincoski hereby waives all rights to continued employment or reemployment by the Board, including but not limited to any and all rights based on tenure and/or seniority and any and all rights to be recalled to employment by the Board or appear on any recall or other list of employees eligible for employment or reemployment by the Board. Strincoski also hereby waives and releases any and all claims, whether known or unknown, against the Board which arise out of or relate to his employment by the Board, including but not limited to claims for unpaid salary or other employment benefits. Similarly, the Board hereby waives and releases any and all claims, whether known or unknown, against Strincoski which arise out of or relate to his employment by the Board.

4. This Stipulation of Settlement is subject to and contingent upon approval by the Board, such approval to be in the form of a resolution adopted by the Board.

COUNTY. :

The record and initial decision in the form of a joint stipulation of settlement rendered by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed.

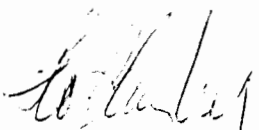

It is noted that Provision 2 of the Settlement Agreement states that in reply to inquiries from prospective employers the Board will supply only respondent's period of employment and rate of salary. The parties are hereby reminded that Executive Order No. 11 (1974), in pertinent part, requires that the following information be public:

An individual's name, title, position, salary, payroll record, length of service in the instrumentality of government and in the government, date of separation from government service and the reason therefor; and the amount and type of pension he is receiving.

With the understanding that such required disclosure would not be precluded by the settlement agreement before him, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms as they comport with the Cardonick standards for review of settlements in tenure matters and adopts the settlement as the final decision in this matter. (In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846) The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

 NEW JERSEY STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC : DECISION
 ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, :
 RESPONDENT. :
 _____ :

For the Petitioner, James S. LaCorte, Esq. (La Corte Bundy & Varady)

For the Respondent, New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association (Steven P. Goodell, Esq.) Picco, Mack, Herbert

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 12, 1995, by way of Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief by counsel for Benny Mars seeking an order staying the decision of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) Eligibility Appeals Committee (EAC) on December 6, 1994, declaring petitioner ineligible to participate in interscholastic competition for the 1994-95 basketball season at Elizabethtown High School. The NJSIAA based its decision on age ineligibility as petitioner, who is a high school senior, reached the age of 19 on July 21, 1994. Article V section 4c of the NJSIAA bylaws provides that a student becomes ineligible for high school athletics if he attains the age of nineteen prior to September 1. Petitioner asserts that the NJSIAA erred by arbitrarily and capriciously interpreting its rules. Petitioner asserts that irreparable harm will result from this decision because he will be unable to display his basketball ability to college recruiters unless he is permitted to participate in interscholastic competition, thus denying him his only opportunity to earn a scholarship to attend college.

Upon careful consideration of the briefs of counsel for the petitioner and of the respondent Association, the record and transcript of the NJSIAA proceeding, the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.5, and the standards for granting an application for emergent relief or a stay established by Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), the Motion for Emergent Relief is hereby denied for the reasons expressed herein. The criteria set forth in Crowe, supra, dictate that emergent relief must be granted where the Petitioner establishes: a) irreparable injury; b) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; or c) where the relative hardships are balanced against granting relief. I find that petitioners have failed to advance sufficient evidence to satisfy the Crowe, supra requirements.

Petitioner asserts that given his disadvantaged background, this year's basketball participation, which may lead to a college scholarship, is essential to his future development. Thus, to deny him an opportunity to compete in interscholastic competition this basketball season will deprive him of his only opportunity to attend college. (Petitioner's Brief at p. 2)

NJSIAA asserts that its Executive Committee did not act in an arbitrary or capricious manner, that the petitioner was provided with full and complete due process and that there is an adequate basis for the NJSIAA decision. (See Respondent's Motion in Opposition to Application for Emergency Relief)

Upon careful consideration of these arguments, the Commissioner finds that the petitioner has failed to establish irreparable harm. As has been articulated in previous decisions involving student eligibility, the inability to play basketball is not irreparable injury. No student has a constitutional right to participate in interscholastic sports. "Participation is subject to eligibility requirements or other preconditions," and these requirements are "within the control of the NJSIAA subject to review and approval by the Commissioner of Education." Burnside v. NJSIAA, unpublished decision of the Appellate Division, November 15, 1984, Docket No. A-625-84T7. Board of Education of the City of Camden v. NJSIAA, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d. (EDU) 182, unpublished decision of the Appellate Division dated February 18, 1992 (Docket No. A-2802-91T2). Further, the Appellate Division has held that "participation in extra-curricular activities is not a fundamental right under the federal or state constitutions." See Camden, supra. Also See, Palmer by Palmer v. Merluzzi, 689 F. Supp. 400, 408-409 (D.N.J. 1988), aff'd 868 F.2d 90, 96 (3d Cir. 1989). Additionally, athletic participation is not a necessary component for a thorough and efficient education.

Petitioner's argument that since he is a "fairly good basketball player" and thus, may be able to earn a college scholarship if he is allowed to play, is based on speculation in that he has not established that if he were allowed to play that he would, in fact, receive a scholarship. Moreover, even if evidence were presented to show that Petitioner's basketball participation is essential to a promised scholarship, this would not be sufficient to establish irreparable harm. See, W.S. on Behalf of P.S. v. New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association, Agency Dkt. No. 413-10/94. Therefore, the Commissioner finds and determines that the petitioner has not demonstrated that he will suffer irreparable harm absent the grant of emergent relief in this matter.

Furthermore, the Commissioner finds that Petitioner has little likelihood of success on the merits. The NJSIAA is a voluntary association. In cases involving the Association, the Commissioner's scope of review is limited in that the law clearly states that, "the board, its faculty and students shall be governed by the rules and regulations of [the voluntary] association." N.J.S.A. 18A:11-3. Thus, the Commissioner of Education's standard of review is deferential in that he will not overturn the Association's decision where it is not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. B.C. v. Cumberland. Reg. Sch. Dist., 220 N.J. Super. 214, 231-232 (App. Div. 1987)

The Commissioner notes that in the present case Petitioner received a full hearing where he was represented by counsel, and his school principal and athletic director presented arguments on his behalf. The Committee made its decision not to allow Petitioner to play with full knowledge of the circumstances of his case--that he was held back in school several times, due to a difficult childhood. The NJSIAA did not determine that these conditions amounted to "truly extraordinary circumstances," within the meaning of the NJISAA Interpretive Guidelines set forth on page 60 of the NJSIAA Handbook, justifying the grant of a waiver of the age limitation for interscholastic competition.

Moreover, the Commissioner finds and determines that the three NJSIAA cases cited by the Petitioner, where students ineligible to participate in interscholastic sports pursuant to Article V section 4c of the NJSIAA bylaws have been allowed to participate, are clearly distinguishable from the present matter. Each of the cited cases involved students who were found by the NJSIAA to have been the victim of circumstances beyond their control such as deafness or a classification that would have made the student ineligible to participate at an earlier age and denying him the opportunity to play sports for eight semesters. In the present case, Petitioner's eligibility to participate in sports for eight semesters was not questioned (even if junior high school students in his district were not allowed to play basketball because of a district policy). Moreover, other than a claim of a "difficult childhood" which, unfortunately is a condition faced by a large number of young people, no evidence of a disability or handicap is present which caused him to be repeatedly held back in seventh grade. Moreover, assuming arguendo that the Commissioner accepted that the circumstances were beyond Petitioners control, the NJSIAA rules only make provisions for a waiver to be granted in a non-contact sport, not in a contact sport such as basketball. See, NJSIAA Handbook, p. 60.

The Commissioner finds that the petitioner was accorded due process in this matter and finds no other deficiency in the Association's findings which would compel a reversal of such findings. Therefore, he will not substitute his judgment for that of the Association, even when he might judge otherwise in a de novo review. Dam Jin Koh and Hong Jun Kim v. NJSIAA, 1987 S.L.D. 259

The Commissioner, thus, concludes, that on the Motion for Emergent Relief, Petitioner has failed to demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits of his claim.

With respect to the balancing of the equities in this matter, Petitioner argues that the relative hardship that would be visited upon him were the stay denied is greater than the hardship which the Association would suffer if the stay were granted. Petitioner argues that if he is ultimately ruled eligible to play, but the ruling is not made until the season is over and/or practically over, he will have been unjustly denied his one chance for a college education. Additionally, he states that the NJSIAA is a huge state organization so if he were allowed to play, it would not harm anyone. (Petitioner's Brief at p. 3) Conversely, the NJSIAA argues that the school would suffer a greater harm herein, in that the combined eligibility rules and guidelines of the NJSIAA provide that if any member school uses an ineligible player in an interscholastic game, it must forfeit that contest. NJSIAA Handbook, 1994-95, p. 52. NJSIAA further argues that safety is a paramount concern in a contact sport such as basketball and that the rules specifically do not allow 19-year-olds to play basketball as they are more physically mature than other students. NJSIAA Handbook, 1994-95, p. 60

Upon review of the equities, the Commissioner finds that Petitioner has not demonstrated that a balancing would weigh in his favor, nor has he shown that the public interest compels the granting of emergent relief. The Commissioner determines that Petitioner will continue to have the opportunity to pursue his academic career, while NJSIAA will suffer a hardship if the stay is issued. The NJSIAA has determined that 19-year-olds are not eligible to participate in interscholastic sports. This rule was adopted not only for safety reasons, but also to preventing "red-shirting" i.e., the intentional holding back of a student in order to give him an extra year to mature to achieve a competitive advantage, and to encourage students "to satisfactorily complete their academic studies starting with the elementary school level." The issuance of a stay in a case without "truly extraordinary circumstances" would only result in a weakening of the NJSIAA rule to the point where it is meaningless. Additionally, Petitioner's school could be harmed if the student is allowed to play since his participation could result in game forfeiture if he is ultimately found to be an ineligible player.

For the above stated reasons, the Commissioner finds that the Petitioner has failed to meet the criteria set forth in Crowe, supra, and accordingly, his request for emergent relief is denied.

Finally, the Commissioner finds that the record herein is sufficient to establish that NJSIAA's determination was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Therefore, in consideration of the fact that further consideration would not be likely prior to the end of basketball season, no purpose would be served by such proceedings. Accordingly, the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board challenged residency of two students, L.D. and N.D., and sought accumulated tuition payments.

ALJ determined that respondents established a Mays Landing address for the students solely for the purpose of attending Oakcrest High School. Moreover, notwithstanding that their father was an employee of the Board, the Board was not aware that his daughters were attending Oakcrest High illegally. Further, respondents admitted submitting false affidavits. Thus, the Board was not estopped from seeking the tuition due and owing to it. ALJ ordered respondents to reimburse the Board for the tuition of L.D. for the period of September 1990 through June 1993 and the tuition of N.D. for September 1992 through June 1993.

Following review of the record and the full transcript of the depositions conducted in January 1995, the Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own and directed respondents reimburse the Board for tuition payments due and owing for L.D. and N.D.

Record Closed: September 12, 1994

Decided: December 20, 1994

BEFORE LILLARD E. LAW, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Board of Education of the Greater Egg Harbor Regional High School District (Board) alleges that Dennis and Elizabeth DiDonato are residents of the City of Estell Manor, New Jersey and, therefore, their children, L.D. and N.D., have improperly attended the Board's Oakcrest High School. The Board seeks a ruling by the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) declaring that respondents are obligated to pay the Board accumulated tuition liability due and owing. The Board also seeks a declaratory ruling that respondents' children, L.D. and N.D., are not entitled to attend Oakcrest High School free of tuition payment and that the pupils are to be expelled from Oakcrest High School.

Respondents admit to have been and continue to be residents and domiciliaries of the City of Estell Manor, Atlantic County, New Jersey. Respondents contend, among other things, that the Board and/or its agents knew or had reason to know that while respondents were residents of the City of Estell Manor, their children, L.D. and N.D. resided with an aunt in a property owned by respondents within the Board's jurisdiction. Respondents therefore, contend that the doctrine of equitable estoppel is applicable to the instant matter and the Board is estopped from proceeding against respondents for the tuition payment.

This matter was transmitted from the Commissioner to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The hearing was held on February 14, 15, and April 4, 1994, at the Atlantic City OAL, Atlantic County Civil Courthouse, Atlantic City, New Jersey. The parties were granted leave to submit post hearing memoranda and the hearing record closed on September 12, 1994. Extensions were granted in order to execute this initial decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the testimony and other evidence adduced at the hearing, and having given fair weight thereto; I FIND the following FACTS in this matter:

Respondent, Dennis DiDonato, is employed by the Board as a teacher of mathematics at the Board's Oakcrest High School, one of the two high schools operated by the Board. Respondent has served as an assistant and head football coach at the Oakcrest High School as well as its head wrestling coach.

At all times material to the instant matter, Dennis DiDonato and his wife, respondent Elizabeth DiDonato resided in the City of Estell Manor with their four daughters. Dennis DiDonato served on the Board of Education of the City of Estell Manor from 1989 to 1993.

Estell Manor Board of Education operates an elementary school with grades kindergarten through eight. Estell Manor is neither a constituent school district nor a sending school district of the herein Board. Rather, Estell Manor is a sending district to the Buena Regional School District

In or about 1990, Dennis DiDonato purchased real property, known as 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, Hamilton Township, Atlantic County, New Jersey. Mays Landing, Hamilton Township lies within the jurisdiction of the Board as a constituent school district. Dennis DiDonato permitted his married sister, Diane Hall, and her three children to reside in the Mays Landing property, in or about June 1990. Diane Hall's four year old child is handicapped with spina bifida. Diane Hall was having marital problems at that time.

In or about June 1990, respondents' daughter, L.D. graduated from Estell Manor Elementary School. In or about September 1990, L.D. was enrolled in the Oakcrest High School as a ninth grade pupil. On March 26, 1991, both respondents signed a sworn affidavit asserting that they were permanent residents in the City of Estell and their daughter, L.D., resided with Diane DiDonato Hall at 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, New Jersey. The affidavit also provided, in part, that:

3. I/We provide no support and will not assume personal obligations of the said child indefinitely and not only during school time. (P-1, 0006)

Respondents' testimony demonstrates that L.D. did not stay with Diane Hall five days per week. Dennis DiDonato would take L.D. from school on Friday afternoon to respondents' Estell Manor home for weekends and return her to school on Monday morning. Dennis DiDonato supplied L.D. with medical support through his health benefits with the Board. He also provided L.D. with spending money, clothing and deferred rent to Diane Hall.

In or about June 1992, respondents' daughter, N.D., graduated from Estell Manor Elementary School eighth grade. On June 11, 1992, Dennis DiDonato executed an affidavit which stated that he resided at R.R. 20, Box 256, Estell Manor and that N.D. resided at 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing with Diane DiDonato Hall. Dennis DiDonato also stated that he provided no support for N.D. nor would he assume any personal obligations for N.D. N.D. started her attendance at Oakcrest High School in September 1992.

Respondent, Elizabeth DiDonato separated from her husband, respondent Dennis DiDonato, in or about 1993. At the time of the hearing, she was residing at 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, New Jersey.

SUMMARY OF THE TESTIMONIAL EVIDENCE

Ralph Martin, Board Secretary/School Business Administrator, testified, among other things, that he prepared the invoices for the payment of L.D.'s and N.D.'s tuition, dated March 11, 1993. The total amount billed to respondents is $22,278 for the school years 1990-91, 1991-92 and school year 1992-93 from September 1, 1992 to February 28, 1993. The amount of the invoice for N.D. is $4,800 from September 1, 1992 to February 28, 1993, based upon the estimate of $8,000 tuition for a full academic year. The tuition for the 1990-91 and 1991-92 school years have been audited and certified while the exact tuition amount for 1992-93 was to await the manual audit after the close of the fiscal year on June 30, 1994. Mr. Martin estimated the remainder of the 1992-93 school years tuition and the 1993-94 school year for L.D. and calculated the total tuition due and owing for L.D. to be $31,552.

Andrea Mariner, the Board's Attendance Officer testified, among other things, that she investigated the DiDonato matter to ascertain whether or not L.D. and N.D. were bona fide residents of the school district. In her report, dated February 6, 1993 (R-2), stated among other things, that L.D.'s address on August 7, 1990, was 12 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing; on July 1991, her address was 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing; and the most recent address was 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing. Attendance Officer Mariner commenced her investigation of this latter address on July 16, 1992.

Ms. Mariner's investigation revealed that respondents' other daughter, N.D., was also enrolled at Oakcrest High School, rather than a Buena Regional High School for the 1992-93 school year. N.D.'s address was listed as 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, the same address as L.D.'s (P-2).

Attendance Officer Mariner was able to determine that Diane Hall resided at 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing. However, she could not determine if respondents resided there. In her observation of the property, she stated:

... I have been unable to see the girls in question boarding the school bus in mornings nor depart from same, also I have called and their cousin told me the girls were home with their parents. This call was made on 12/7/92, 7:00 p.m. Other calls produced the same statement. (P-2)

On other occasions, Mariner observed L.D. and N.D. being driven to school in a private motor vehicle which, later, was identified as belonging to respondents. She opined that the only reason L.D. and N.D. used the property at 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, was for the purpose of attending Oakcrest High School. (P-2) The record shows that the property known as 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing was transferred to Diane Hall listed in a publication dated Friday, October 15, 1993 (P-1, p.0026).

John E. Dugan, Superintendent of Schools, testified, among other things, that he first became aware that L.D. and N.D. were enrolled in the Board's schools when Attendance Officer Mariner brought it to his attention on February 6, 1993. After Dugan received Ms. Mariner's report (P-2), Dugan asked the Attendance Officer to continue the investigation. Subsequently, on February 17, 1993, Dugan had a conversation with Dennis DiDonato concerning his two daughters. Following his meeting with Superintendent Dugan, DiDonato met with the Board where respondent admitted he was supporting his two daughters while they both were attending the Board's Oakcrest High School.

Superintendent Dugan testified that officials of the school district rely upon the pupil registration form and sworn affidavits when the child is registered and admitted to its schools. He asserted that the Pupil Registration and Health Data form for L.D. appeared to indicate that both of her parents resided in the school district at 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing (P-5). Dennis DiDonato's sworn affidavit, however, indicated that he resided at R.R. 20, Box 265, Estell Manor, and that N.D. resided at 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, with Diane DiDonato Hall. (P-1, p.009).

Superintendent Dugan admitted that he was aware that respondent Dennis DiDonato was a member of the Estell Manor Board of Education. Dugan was also aware that Dennis DiDonato had been the Mayor of Estell Manor, and knew this fact when Dennis DiDonato was interviewed for a teaching position with the Board. Dugan admitted further that on March 26, 1991, he approved respondents' affidavit establishing legal residence for L.D. at 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, New Jersey (P-1, p.0006).

On September 2, 1992, Dugan accepted an affidavit executed by Diane DiDonato Hall, establishing the legal residence of N.D. (P-1,p.0010). The affidavit states that N.D. had resided with Ms. Hall since June 1992, at 6395 Monmouth Drive. Dugan believed Diane Hall to be the parent of N.D. The affidavit lists Dennis DiDonato as L.D.'s father whose address was R.R. 20, Box 265, Mays Landing, NJ (P-1, p. 0010). Subsequently, on October 26, 1992, Dugan wrote to Hall concerning N.D. where he stated the following:

The above named student was admitted to school in this District based upon an affidavit submitted by you indicating that he/she resides with you full-time and you are not receiving any money for his/her support.

It is anticipated that he/she will attend Oakcrest High School in 1992-93. It is your responsibility to notify me immediately if the conditions listed above have changed or will change in the future. (P-1, p.0013)

Superintendent Dugan testified that he did not have any communication with Dennis DiDonato prior to February 17, 1993, concerning this matter. On February 24, 1993, Dugan submitted a report to the Board which stated that Attendance Officer Mariner had investigated L.D. and N.D. and, among other things, believed that the two girls lived at the DiDonato residence in Estell Manor on weekends and in the summer months. Superintendent Dugan reported that he had met with Dennis DiDonato on February 17, 1993 to discuss the matter of L.D.'s and N.D.'s residency, where Dennis DiDonato said that:

- A. His daughters lived with Mrs. Hall to help her care for her young daughter who has spina bifida.

- B. Mrs. Hall had lived in Wildwood in a second floor apartment and had difficulty carrying her daughter. He bought a home for his sister in Mays Landing and in fact built an addition on it for his daughters to live in.
- C. The girls live there full time except when they go on family vacations. They come home only occasionally.
- D. The girls pay for their clothes through summer jobs.
- E. He declares the girls as dependents on his income tax and provides health insurance through his employer (GEHR).
- F. Earlier this year because the girls were late to school due to the bus coming very early, he started driving the girls and his niece to school. The bus now arrives later and he no longer drives them in the morning.
- G. Mrs. Hall provides food for the girls.
- H. Mrs. Hall misunderstood Mrs. Mariner's question when she said that Mr. DiDonato provided "necessities."
- I. Mrs. Hall's daughter Amy, age 14, who is a ninth grader at OHS this year is not available to assist her after school as she has a horse to take care of which is housed at another location.
(P-1, p.0016)

Superintendent Dugan's report further stated that because Mr. DiDonato reported the children as dependents for income tax purposes, provides health benefits, and the girls reside with him on weekends and in the summer, Dugan believed that L.D. and N.D. were not legal residents within the Board's school district (P-1, p.0016).

Dugan had Attendance Officer Mariner's report (P-2) when he met with Dennis DiDonato on February 17, 1993.

Superintendent Dugan testified that L.D.'s report executed an affidavit where they both swore they did not support L.D. Subsequently, on February 17, 1993, Dennis DiDonato admitted that he did, in fact, support both L.D. and N.D. while the two pupils resided with his sister, Diane DiDonato Hall. Hall also swore in her affidavit that she supported the DiDonato children gratis.

For these reasons, Dugan and the Board sought tuition payments for L.D. and N.D. from the DiDonato's as non-resident pupils.

Elizabeth DiDonato testified on her own behalf asserting, among other things, that when L.D. graduated from Estell Manor Elementary School eighth grade in June 1990, the plan was to have L.D. stay with Diane Hall to help Diane with her four year old child who suffers from spina bifida. She telephoned the Oakcrest High School to determine what was needed to register L.D. As instructed, Mrs. DiDonato went to the Oakcrest Guidance Office where a typed registration form was prepared. (P-5) She told the registrar that L.D. lived at 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing. Elizabeth DiDonato also told the registrar that she was a Registered Nurse employed at the Atlantic City Medical Center. L.D. was admitted to the Board's Oakcrest High School as a ninth grade pupil commencing September 1990.

Elizabeth DiDonato testified she did not read the affidavit she and her husband executed on or about March 26, 1991, to establish L.D.'s residence with Diane Hall at 27 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing. In particular, Elizabeth DiDonato stated she did not read paragraph No. 3 of the affidavit which provides that: "I/We provide no support and will not assume personal obligations of the said child indefinitely and not only during school time." (P-1, 006) She admitted that L.D. was provided with medical care, spending money, clothing and that rent on the property was deferred. Elizabeth DiDonato stated that the affidavit for L.D. was brought home for her signature because it was needed for L.D. to remain at Oakcrest. Her signature does not appear on the affidavit for N.D. (P-1, 0009).

Elizabeth DiDonato asserted that she would not have sent her children to Oakcrest High School if she knew she had to pay tuition. Rather, she would have sent the children to Holy Spirit High School.

At the time of the herein hearing, Elizabeth DiDonato testified that she separated from her husband, Dennis DiDonato, and had established residence within the Board's school district. In support of this testimony, she offered a driver license issued by the New Jersey Division of Motor Vehicles, a voter registration, a gas bill and an electric bill, all of which bore her name and the address of 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, New Jersey (P-1, 0027). She asserted she moved to this address in or about August 1993.

Dennis DiDonato testified, among other things, that while he served as an assistant football coach at Oakcrest High School, the head coach would meet parents and pupils from the communities of Estell Manor, Weymouth and Dorothy to recruit athletes for the high school. He asserted that the nonresident pupils would only be required to enroll and attend a vocational-agriculture course offered at the high school to be eligible to attend and participate in athletic events. He asserted that in about the 1984-85 school year, officials from Buena High School complained about pupils who should be attending its school were being diverted to Greater Egg Harbor schools. As a consequence, the practice was discontinued in the mid-1980's and the nonresident pupils had to return to their home school. There remains, however, a concern among the faculty and administration with the number of nonresident-affidavit pupils attending Oakcrest High School.

On cross-examination Dennis DiDonato admitted that his wife, Elizabeth DiDonato, did not want L.D. to attend Buena High School. In fact, they both wanted L.D. to attend Oakcrest because of her affiliation with the school and its pupils. He also admitted that the initial reason to have L.D. move in with his sister was for L.D. to attend Oakcrest, not to help Diane DiDonato Hall. He also testified that the intent to execute the affidavit for L.D. and N.D. was to avoid paying tuition.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The controlling statute in this matter is found at N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1¹, which provides, in part, as follows:

Public schools shall be free to the following persons over five and under 20 years of age:

- (a) Any person who is domiciled within the school district;

¹ N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 was amended pursuant to L. 1993, c. 380 Section 1, effective January 11, 1994.

(b) Any person who is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and is supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child, upon filing by such other person with the secretary of the board of education of the district, if so required by the board, a sworn statement that he is domiciled within the district and is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends so to keep and support the child gratuitously for a longer time than merely through the school term, and a copy of his lease if a tenant, or a sworn statement by his landlord acknowledging his tenancy if residing as a tenant without a written lease, and upon filing by the child's parent or guardian with the secretary of the board of education a sworn statement that he is not supporting the child, accompanied by documentation to support the validity of the sworn statement in proceedings before the commissioner, except that no child shall be denied admission during the pendency of any such proceedings before the commissioner, and the resident shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence before the commissioner that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this subsection. If in the judgment of the commissioner this evidence does not support the claim of the resident, he may assess the resident tuition for the student prorated to the time of the board's request for a sworn statement from the resident. Tuition shall be computed on the basis 1/180 of the total annual pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance.

Respondents argue, among other things, that the Board failed to adhere to the requirements of the statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, because it did not require an affidavit of L.D.'s residence until March 12, 1991 of the 1990-91 school year. Nor was there a clear line of authority or admissions procedure for Oakcrest High School.

Respondents contend that the Board and Superintendent Dugan knew that Dennis DiDonato was a member of the Board of Education of the City of Estell Manor. Dennis DiDonato is employed by the Board and thus, his employment records reflect his residence which, he does not dispute, is outside of any constituent or sending district of the Board. His employment records also reflect that his two children involved in this matter are covered by the health benefits provided to him by the Board.

Respondents assert that their two children, L.D. and N.D., stayed at least five nights per week during the school year at the home owned by respondents and located within the Board's school district. Respondents daughters stayed with Dennis DiDonato's sister, Diane DiDonato Hall, and assisted in the care of one of Mrs. Hall's children who suffers from spina bifida.

Respondents contend that they were led to believe, by Board personnel, that they were acting properly when they enrolled their two children at Oakcrest, and that their children were entitled to attend the school where their father was employed as a teacher. Respondents now claim that the Board is estopped from asserting its claim. Equitable estoppel operates to prevent a party from disavowing its previous conduct if such a repudiation would violate the demands of justice and good conscience. Carlsen v. Masters, Mates and Pilots Pension Plan Trust, 80 N.J. 334, 339 (1979); Connel v. American Funding Ltd., 231 N.J. Super. 409,416 (Ch. Div. 1987). Equitable estoppel can arise from any type of "conduct of a party, using that word in its broadest meaning as including his spoken or written words, his positive acts, and his silence or negative omission to do anything." State v. U.S. Steel Corp., 22 N.J. 341, 358 (1956), quoting from 3 Pomeroy on Equity Jurisprudence §802 (5th ed. 1941); Royal Association v. Concannon, 200 N.J. Super. 84, 92 (App. Div. 1985) (Landlord's express permission to allow tenant to obtain and keep dog was sufficient to bind landlord).

Respondents acknowledge that estoppel is not applied as readily against a governmental entity as against a private party, citing the Guidebook to Chancery Practice in New Jersey, Hon. William A. Dreier, J.A.D. (3rd ed. 1991). Notwithstanding, they claim that the Board failed to follow the statutory scheme and, thereby, leading respondents to believe their children were properly enrolled at Oakcrest High School. They assert that the signing of the affidavit was not such an act as would soil the hand of respondents, thereby barring the defense of estoppel. They contend, moreover, that their signing of the affidavits was merely a procedural formality and their belief was re-enforced by the failure of the Board's employees and agents to abide by the statute requiring further documentation and investigation once the affidavits were submitted.

Respondents argue that there is no real harm to the Board in applying the doctrine of estoppel, nor is there any paramount public policy to overcome. The Board simply did not follow the statute thereby misleading the respondents into allowing their children to remain enrolled in Oakcrest High School. Had respondents known what was involved, they would have had their children attend Buena Regional High School for no tuition or Holy Spirit High School for approximately one-third of the tuition requested here.

In addressing the first issue to be resolved by this tribunal, it is clear that respondents and their children, L.D. and N.D., were not bona fide residents within the Board's school district. The record is clear that Dennis DiDonato and Elizabeth DiDonato were, at all times material, residents of the City of Estell Manor, which is neither a constituent nor a sending district with the Board. The record further demonstrates that on or about March 26, 1991, both Dennis and Elizabeth DiDonato executed a false affidavit on behalf of their daughter, L.D. Subsequently, on or about June 11, 1992, Dennis DiDonato executed a false affidavit on behalf of N.D.

With respect to the second issue as to whether the Board is estopped from denying L.D. and N.D. a free public education on the grounds that the Board knew, or should have known that L.D. and N.D. were not bona fide residents of its school district and respondents, therefore, relied upon this belief that the Board would provide a tuition free education, respondents have failed to demonstrate that the Board, or its agents, knew that either of respondents children were in its school illegally. The record clearly shows that it was not aware of their presence until August 1992, when Attendance Officer Andrea Mariner commenced her investigation of L.D. and N.D. Attendance Officer Mariner did not submit her report to Superintendent Dugan until February 6, 1993, wherein she concluded and opined that L.D. and N.D. only used the address within the Board's jurisdiction in order to attend Oakcrest High School.

Notwithstanding that Dennis DiDonato is an employee of the Board, he failed to show that the Board, Superintendent of School or Board Secretary were aware that his two daughters were attending Oakcrest High School under false colors. In the matter of I.P. v. Leonia Borough Board of Education, 63 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 128, the parents of a nonresident pupil established a residence within the Leonia Board's school district solely for the purpose of providing a free public education for their child. The Commissioner sustained the ALJ's determination that the residence was illegal and ordered the parents to pay the required school tuition for the period attended.

Because of respondents' illegal activities, they cannot now claim the Board is estoppel from seeking the pupil tuition due and owing to it.

I CONCLUDE that the defense of equitable estoppel is not appropriate here, and, therefore, it is rejected.

I CONCLUDE that the Board has established, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the Mays Landing address established for L.D. and N.D. was for the sole purpose of attending Oakcrest High School.

I CONCLUDE that Dennis and Elizabeth DiDonato are responsible for the tuition of L.D. from the period September 1990 through June 1993.

I CONCLUDE that Elizabeth DiDonato has established that she has resided at the 6395 Monmouth Drive, Mays Landing, a property within the Board's jurisdiction, since on or about July 1993.

I CONCLUDE that Dennis and Elizabeth DiDonato are responsible for the tuition of N.D. from September 1992 through June 1993.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Dennis and Elizabeth DiDonato reimburse the Board of Education tuition payments due and owing consistent with the conclusions above.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE GREATER :
EGG HARBOR REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL : DISTRICT, ATLANTIC COUNTY, :
PETITIONER, :
V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
DENNIS DI DONATO AND ELIZABETH : DECISION DI DONATO, PARENTS OF L.D. AND :
N.D., :
RESPONDENTS. :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Respondents' exceptions and the Board's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Respondents' exceptions recast and reiterate the arguments they previously proffered before the ALJ, which the Commissioner determines were fully and fairly considered and addressed in the initial decision. Essentially, they re-contend that the Board was aware that the parents of L.D. and N.D. resided in Estell Manor from the time of the children's admission to Oakcrest High School, that the children herein, at all times relevant to these proceedings, lived at 6395 Monmouth Drive, and that common fairness and justice dictate that the doctrine of equitable estoppel is applicable in this matter. Respondents additionally cite particular areas of testimony adduced at depositions of certain district personnel and Respondent Dennis DiDonato taken on January 14, 1995, which they contend support their arguments.

In reply, the Board urges while citing carefully excerpted portions of the testimony which favor a version of the facts supportive of his client, [the] exceptions document fails to also call to the Commissioner's attention the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. DiDonato admitted signing affidavits containing inaccurate and misleading information in order to obtain the entry of their daughters into the Oakcrest High School.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, including the full transcript of the depositions conducted on January 14, 1995, the Commissioner finds respondents' exception arguments without merit. He concurs with the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge that respondents' children, L.D. and N.D., were not entitled to a free public school education in the Greater Egg Harbor Regional High School District, pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, during the period September 1990 through June 1993 for the reasons clearly articulated by the ALJ in his initial decision. The Commissioner further agrees that, based on the record before him, the defense of equitable estoppel is not appropriate in this matter.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Respondents are hereby ordered to reimburse the Board tuition payments due and owing for L.D. for the period of September 1990 through June 1993 and those due and owing for N.D. for the period of September 1992 through June 1993.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :

MENT OF RONALD N. TRISUZZI. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 31, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Ronald N. Trisuzzi, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Ronald N. Trisuzzi (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a custodian at a private school for the emotionally handicapped, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been convicted of simple assault and possession of a controlled dangerous substance, 50 grams or less of marijuana, in 1990.

In a letter decision dated March 31, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education¹ upheld the disqualification, finding that while petitioner had made "significant

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.²

After a thorough review of the record, we agree that petitioner's submissions to the Commissioner demonstrate significant progress towards rehabilitation. However, the limited record before us does not permit a determination as to whether petitioner has fully satisfied the statutory standard. Consequently, we find it necessary to remand this matter to the Commissioner for a hearing in order to provide petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard.³ We direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992.

We also modify the Deputy Commissioner's decision so as to clarify that the only disqualifying conviction indicated in the record is for possession of marijuana. Simple assault, unlike aggravated assault, is disqualifying only if it involves "the use of force which results in bodily injury." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c). There is no indication of includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

³ Although petitioner was notified by the Office of Criminal History Review that he would be provided with a hearing if his appeal to the Commissioner was based on rehabilitation, no such hearing was provided.

bodily injury in this record. However, we do note that the convictions in the record appear to have arisen from a single incident. Consequently, petitioner's simple assault conviction could be relevant to the circumstances surrounding the disqualifying marijuana offense. See N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). We stress, in addition, that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision.

Petitioner has the burden on remand of demonstrating his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We retain jurisdiction.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : DECISION OF RONALD N. TRISUZZI. :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 31, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, September 6, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, March 6, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Ronald N. Trisuzzi, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Geraldine Callahan, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On September 6, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a custodian following a criminal history review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq., with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on December 18, 1995. On January 18, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which he concluded that petitioner had demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. On March 6, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision, finding petitioner to be qualified for school employment as a custodian. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Thus, pursuant to the Commissioner's decision, petitioner is qualified for school employment as a custodian, and we dismiss the appeal.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH : OF HADDONFIELD, CAMDEN COUNTY,

PETITIONER, :

V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

NEW JERSEY STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC : DECISION
ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION,

RESPONDENT. :

_____ :

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board sought reversal of determination of NJSIAA's Executive Committee (Committee) disqualifying the Haddonfield varsity girls' basketball team from State championship competition due to violation of Rule 2, Section 11, wherein coaches are prohibited from instructing student-athletes or conducting practice sessions during the off season.

Following review of the record, including transcript of Committee hearing, Commissioner adopted determination of NJSIAA disqualifying team from State championship. Commissioner found Board failed to bear its burden of persuading him that NJSIAA acted arbitrarily. Commissioner determined, as a member of its Association, the Board is bound by NJSIAA's rules, and elimination from any post-season championship competition is penalty for violation of Rule 2, Section 11. Petition was dismissed.

DECISION

RESPONDENT. :

For Petitioner, Joseph F. Betley, Esq.

For Respondent, Picco, Mack, Herbert, Kennedy, Jaffe, Perrella & Yoskin (Michael J. Herbert, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter has come before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief filed by the petitioning Board (Haddonfield) on January 24, 1995 seeking a stay of the determination by the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) Executive Committee dated January 11, 1995, which affirmed the decision of the NJSIAA's Controversies Committee dated December 27, 1994, disqualifying the Haddonfield varsity girls' basketball team from the 1995 NJSIAA girls' basketball championships, and placing the team on probation for one year from October 1, 1994 as penalty for the coaches' violation of NJSIAA rules governing out-of-season activity. (See facts, infra.)

In addition to the Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief filed on January 24, 1995, Haddonfield submitted a supplemental brief on January 26, 1995. Respondent NJSIAA submitted its reply brief on January 30, 1995. It was determined that the Commissioner of Education would decide the merits of this matter on an accelerated schedule, thereby obviating the need to decide the Motion for Emergent Relief, since the seeding for the NJSIAA girls' varsity championships is to be compiled on February 9, 1995. The Commissioner will decide the merits of this matter under the standard of review articulated by the courts in reviewing an appeal for NJSIAA. That standard holds that the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the Association, even if he were to decide differently in a de novo hearing, where due process has been provided and where there is an adequate basis for the decision reached by the NJSIAA Committees. See, e.g., Dam Jim Koh and Hong Jun Kim v. NJSIAA, decided by the Commissioner February 3, 1987.

The relevant facts are as follows.

1. On October 1 and 2, 1994, three members of the Haddonfield Memorial High School varsity girls' basketball team participated in a pre-season event called the "ITZ Fall '94 Blue Chip Shootout" ("Shootout") at the Germantown Academy in Fort Washington, Pennsylvania.

2. The Shootout was an event designed to provide high school basketball players with high-profile exposure to college recruiters, "while competing against the best competition possible." ("Fall '94 Blue Chip Shootouts," NJSIAA's Brief, Exhibit 3)

3. On the Friday prior to the start of the Shootout, the coach of the Haddonfield varsity girls' basketball team, Tricia McCaffery, was asked by William McDonough, President of Sport Camps, Inc. and Director of the Shootout, to make herself available to

"coach" a team in the Shootout due to an unexpected vacancy. (Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit A, Tr. 89-90) Prior to her arrival at the Shootout, Ms. McCaffery was unaware to which team she would be assigned.

4. Upon her arrival at the Shootout, Ms. McCaffery learned that she was assigned to a team known as the "Cardinals" to which one of the Haddonfield players was assigned.

5. During the Shootout, the Haddonfield freshman girls' basketball coach Joseph Castorina, was assigned to a team which played against a team to which a second Haddonfield player was assigned. The third Haddonfield player did not play on or against any team involving Ms. McCaffery or Mr. Castorina.

6. On October 17, 1994, Coach Tricia McCaffery wrote a letter to Mr. Boyd Sands at the NJSIAA informing him of a recent event "which may have been in violation of NJSIAA rules." (Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit E) Also on October 17, 1994, Joseph S. Castorina wrote to Mr. Sands to similarly report what "may be in violation of NJSIAA rules." (Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit E)

7. On October 21, 1994, Frank Panhuse, Haddonfield Athletic Director, after consultation with staff from NJSIAA, wrote to NJSIAA, "reporting a verified out-of-season coaching violation by our varsity girl[s'] basketball coach, Trish McCaffery, her assistant coach, Joseph Castorina and three members of her team." (Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit E) Mr. Panhuse further indicated:

It is our belief that these participants were in violation of the NJSIAA Rules and Regulations that deal with the out-of-season period as outlined on pages 71 and 72, Section 6, specifically under the clarification 2, "Coaches may attend a participatory camp or clinic merely as spectators, however, they may not be involved in any way with their school's athletes." Although this was not a camp, nor a clinic, we believe the showcase tournament falls under this rule clarification.

(Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit E)

8. The Haddonfield Board imposed suspensions upon both coaches, assessed fines and placed both coaches on probation.

9. Based upon the Haddonfield letters, on November 3, 1994, Mr. Sands wrote to Haddonfield Principal Joseph Serico issuing a decision on behalf of NJSIAA finding that both Ms. McCaffery and Mr. Castorina had violated NJSIAA Rule 2, Section 11 by virtue of their participation in the Shootout, and thereby disqualifying the Haddonfield varsity girls' basketball team from championship competition in 1995. (Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit F)

10. On November 9, 1994, counsel for the Haddonfield Board wrote to counsel for NJSIAA to object to the finding of a violation of NJSIAA Rule 2, Section 11, without permitting Haddonfield the opportunity to be heard. Counsel for Haddonfield stated,

[I]t is our position that, notwithstanding Mr. Panhuse's characterization of the facts as a violation of NJSIAA rules, the Haddonfield Memorial High School coaches did not "instruct" their players at the "ITZ Fall '94 Blue Chip Shoot Out" in violation of NJSIAA Rule 2, Section 11
(Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit G)

whereupon, NJSIAA scheduled an evidentiary hearing for December 13, 1994, before the Controversies Committee.

11. On December 13, 1994, the Controversies Committee conducted a hearing in this matter, receiving documentary evidence and hearing oral testimony.

12. In a written decision issued December 27, 1994, the Controversies Committee determined that both Ms. McCaffery and Mr. Castorina violated NJSIAA Rule 1, Section 6 and Rule 2, Section 11, and disqualifying the Haddonfield varsity girls' basketball team from the 1995 NJSIAA girls' basketball championships, and placing the team on probation for one (1) year from October 1, 1994.

13. By letter dated January 3, 1995, the Haddonfield Board appealed the December 27, 1994 decision of the Controversies Committee to the Executive Appeals Committee.

14. On January 11, 1995, the Executive Committee upheld the decision of the Controversies Committee.

THE RULES

The pertinent NJSIAA rules are as follows:

RULE 1. STUDENT-ATHLETE GUIDELINES FOR INTRAMURAL, RECREATION, CLUB, CAMPS/CLINICS PARTICIPATION AND "OPEN-GYM" PROGRAMS.

Section 6. Camps or Clinics. The NJSIAA does not restrict an individual's choice to attend any participatory camps or clinics; however, schools, school organizations, or school-related groups such as Booster Clubs may not assist the Student-Athletes' attendance at any camp or clinic during the out-of-season period; this includes providing uniforms, equipment, and funds related to the camp or clinic, including transportation; and coaches may not instruct their Student-Athletes.

CL 2. DURING THE OUT-OF-SEASON PERIOD, the NJSIAA does not restrict an individual's choice to attend a participatory camp or clinic; however, schools, school organizations, or school-related groups such as Booster Clubs may not assist the Student-Athletes' attendance at any participatory camp or clinic, this includes providing uniforms, equipment, and funds related to the camp or clinic, including transportation. Coaches may not be involved in any way with their Student-Athletes. Coaches may attend a participatory camp or clinic merely as spectators, however, they may not be involved in any way with their school's athletes, including being a clinician, when their school's Student-Athletes attend that camp or clinic regardless of the format or the separation of stations at a clinic.

RULE 2. PROGRAM REGULATIONS

Section 11. Out-of-Season Period. Out-of-Season practice is not permitted under the direction of an instructor or coach, or student leaders. This eliminates any kind of equipment, except shoes as noted, under any form of instruction. The object of this explanation is to make clear the point that there shall be absolutely no practice during the out-of-season period for a particular sport. Any subterfuge or "sharp practice" shall be construed as a violation of this rule.

CL 1 B. School-Related Organizations

During the out-of-season period, the school, school organizations such as Booster Clubs, Fathers' Club, Varsity Club and the like may not assist the student-athlete during the out-of-season period or provide individually issued equipment, uniforms, transportation or funds related to camp or clinic attendance when same is of a participatory nature.

CL 2 A. Coaches/Student-Athletes

Coaches may not instruct their student-athletes during the out-of-season period; neither may they hold meetings nor any other way be involved with the student-athlete, including Open-Gym Programs. For Seniors, all rules apply through the last date of an interscholastic event for that school during the Spring Sports Season. When the same sport for Boys and Girls is conducted in different sports seasons, a student-athlete in that sport may not serve as manager of the team of the opposite sex and will be considered a violation of the out-of-season rule. Coaching staffs may not exchange supervisory duties with another school's staff, including a multiple high school district, in their sport to circumvent the out-of-season rule.

Question: From what point may a coach not be involved with a school's student-athlete?

Answer: From the day the coach is appointed to coach a particular sport to the start of practice of that sport the following year, except for the summer recess, i.e., the last day of school to the first day of school the following September.

CL 4 C. Non-School Teams

A member of a school's coaching staff or faculty may not be involved in any way with a non-school team on which there are team members who participated on the freshmen, junior varsity, or varsity team of the coach's high school team(s) in that sport until the day after the date of the latest scheduled date for NJSIAA Championships in the Spring Sports Season.

Penalty - Any school proved guilty of violating the above rules shall be placed on probation by the Association for not less than one year from the date of violation, and shall not receive championship recognition from this Association in that sport, or enter any championship games, matches, meets or tournaments sponsored by the Association in that sport. Conditions of probation are outlined by the Bylaws, Article X, Section 2.A. Probation.

(New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association Handbook, 1994-95, Constitution, Bylaws, and Rules and Regulations.)

PETITIONER'S ARGUMENTS

Haddonfield outlines the following arguments as to the merits of its claim: 1) The NJSIAA rules do not suggest, by language or structure, that the mandatory penalty for violation of Rule 2, Section 11 applies to any other rule; 2) The NJSIAA rules violate due process and are arbitrary and capricious since they have no clear definitions; and 3) The NJSIAA's interpretation of its rules is arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable, and the application of this erroneous interpretation to the record has no factual or legal basis.

Haddonfield initially asserts that the formatting of the rules do not suggest that the mandatory penalty specified in Rule 2 applies to any rule other than Rule 2, Section 11. Haddonfield posits that the regulations instead suggest that Rule 1 and Rule 2 have difference foci; the focus of Rule 1 is the student-athlete, the focus of Rule 2 is the athletic program.

Highlighting the differences between Rules 1 and 2, as well as the weaknesses in those rules, Haddonfield argues that Rule 1, Section 6 deals with participatory camps or clinics; yet, there is no definition in the rule of "camps or clinics." Haddonfield continues:

All the rule says is that schools may not assist a student-athlete in attending a camp or clinic during the out-of-season period, and coaches may not instruct their student-athletes. The second clarification to the rule simply repeats the rule and adds that coaches may attend a participatory camp or clinic merely as spectators, however they may not be involved in any way with their student-athletes, including being a clinician, at the camp or clinic regardless of the format or the separation of stations at a clinic. There is no definition, standard, guideline, clarification or example of what is meant by "involved."

Haddonfield further contends that use of the term "stations" in the clarification suggests an instructional basketball activity which does not resemble the Shootout.

Whereas, Haddonfield continues, Rule 2 deals with inter alia, practices, scrimmages, and time periods for seasons. Section 11 under Rule 2 prohibits out-of-season practice.

Clarification 2 under Rule 2, Section 11 states that coaches "may not instruct their student-athletes during the out-of-season period; neither may they hold meetings nor any other way be involved with the student-athlete..." As in Rule 1, Section 6, no definition, standard, guideline, clarification or example is given as to the meaning of "instruct" or "involved with." There is no mention of the term coaching or the phrase "out-of-season coaching" or "coaching functions." These concepts are not stated in the rules, regulations, Constitution or Bylaws. (Haddonfield's Brief, at pp. 23-24)

Citing Brown v. City of Newark, 113 N.J. 565, 577 (1989), Haddonfield next avers that the NJSIAA rules are vague, overly broad and ambiguous, and thus violate fundamental standards of due process. (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 24) Haddonfield argues, "No coach or player could reasonably understand the rules pertaining to out-of-season practice and adjust his or her conduct accordingly in an effort to comply." (Id.)

In advancing its argument that the rules violate due process, Haddonfield outlines perceived ambiguity in those rules. Haddonfield contends, inter alia, the "clarifications" are merely restatements of already vague definitions, which sometimes include even more ambiguous terminology, such as "involved with;" Rule 2, Section 11 forbids "practice," yet contains no definition of the term under that section; and the out-of-season coaching prohibition in Rule 2, Section 11 contains no mention of the broader category of "coaching functions," yet the entire inquiry of the Controversies Committee decision centered on what is or is not a "coaching function." The NJSIAA rules, Haddonfield concludes, are "arbitrary and capricious per se, as having no standards, guidelines or meanings." (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 25)

Haddonfield's third assertion on the merits of this matter is that the NJSIAA's application of its erroneous interpretation of the rules to the record has no factual or legal basis. Haddonfield argues that NJSIAA is guilty of faulty analysis of the factual record in order to reach predetermined results, robotic interpretation of rules with no consideration of the underlying intent or design, blind reliance on irrelevant aspects of the record, and findings of fact and conclusions of law based on what might have taken place, rather than what actually took place on October 1 and 2, 1994. (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 26)

Here, Haddonfield contends that NJSIAA found that both coaches violated Rule 1, Section 6, dealing with camps and clinics, yet made no findings that the Shootout was a camp or clinic. (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 26; Supplemental Brief, at p. 2) Haddonfield points to the record which contains no evidence that the Shootout was a camp or clinic; rather, there was specific testimony to the contrary. (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 27) Further, Haddonfield maintains that NJSIAA's oral argument before the Executive Committee indicated that the finding (that the Shootout was a camp or clinic) was based on the fact that the Shootout is sponsored by an organization named "Sports Camp, Inc.," rather than on the factual record. (Haddonfield's Brief, at pp. 28, 29)

Haddonfield next addresses the finding of the Controversies Committee that Rule 1, Section 6 is subsumed within Rule 2, Section 11, so that a violation of the former constitutes a violation of the latter. Where the rules do not hint at such an interpretation, Haddonfield contends, "The NJSIAA is simply making it up as it goes along." (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 28) Haddonfield avers that NJSIAA should be concerned with the specific conduct in question, and should not determine that a violation of Rule 1, Section 6 is automatically a violation of Rule 2, Section 11. "Such an interpretation," Haddonfield maintains, "renders Rule 1, Section 6 mere surplusage" and runs counter to the structure of these rules, which are found under separate headings. (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 29)

Moreover, to the extent that the NJSIAA determined that Haddonfield violated Rule 2, Section 11 based upon Mr. Panhuisse's October 21, 1994 letter containing statements made within the context of Rule 1, Section 6, supra, Haddonfield argues that a predetermined result was reached and never questioned. Haddonfield concludes there is no rational basis for determining that one rule (Rule 2, Section 11) encompasses the other (Rule 1, Section 6).

Haddonfield contends that NJSIAA's finding that its coaches violated Rule 2, Section 11 is without adequate basis on the record. Haddonfield avers that NJSIAA improperly based its decision on liberal use of the term "coach" as used in the course of the Shootout, and in literature provided by the Shootout sponsor, rather than on the actual conduct of the individuals;¹ that NJSIAA improperly relied on an outdated version of Shootout game rules in reaching its decision;² that NJSIAA improperly based its finding of violation on conjecture,³ and that NJSIAA's broad reading of Rule 2, Section 11 amounts to overreaching by finding out-of-season "involvement" by Haddonfield coaches. (Haddonfield's Brief, at p. 30)

² Haddonfield further avers that NJSIAA erred in basing its conclusions on a set of Shootout rules which testimony demonstrated were outdated, rather than on the set of rules which were actually employed on October 1 and 2, 1994. In so doing, Haddonfield argues, NJSIAA discounted the entire testimony of Mr. McDonough, the director of the Shootout. (Haddonfield's Brief, at pp. 34, 35)

The Committee's overly broad interpretation of the word "involvement" as used in Clarification 2 as prohibiting any interaction with a student-athlete while on a gym floor is contrary to the spirit, intent and goals of the NJSIAA rules in prohibiting conduct that creates an unfair competitive advantage. If NJSIAA wants to prohibit any and all contact, no matter what the situation, between a coach and student-athlete during the out-of-season period it could have easily drafted the rule that way. Rather, by using the term "involved," the drafters of the rules were speaking in terms of being so entwined, so connected, and so wrapped-up in the student-athlete such that undue competitive advantage would result.

Furthermore, Haddonfield contends, there is no factual basis for NJSIAA's conclusion that Haddonfield gained a competitive advantage by the coach's "involvement" with Haddonfield students at the Shootout.

Inasmuch as NJSIAA's rules are vague and broad, Haddonfield contends, and there are no definitions, standards or precision, due process is violated and the decision rendered by the NJSIAA must be reversed.

³ The Controversies Committee determined: "Even if the Committee were to accept Mr. McDonough's testimony, that Exhibit C-2 constituted the actual 'game rules,' that very document required the coaches to undertake substitutions; make certain that the teams utilized only man-to-man defenses without any zones; and make sure that there was no 'trapping' or 'double teaming.' It is inconceivable to the Committee that an individual who was assigned as 'supervisor/counsellor' could perform any of these functions without exercising the expertise and knowledge of a basketball coach." (emphasis added) (Haddonfield's Brief, Exhibit I, at p. 11)

RESPONDENT'S ARGUMENTS

Respondent outlines the following arguments as to the merits of Haddonfield's claim: 1) Petitioner must be precluded from challenging rules it has adopted as its own; 2) Deference must be afforded the NJSIAA decision; 3) The rules are clear on their face; 4) The rules have been upheld by the Commissioner of Education and the courts; 5) The NJSIAA has provided complete due process; 6) The NJSIAA decision was based on clear violations of the rules; and 7) The penalty was appropriate.

NJSIAA initially asserts that its member schools adopt as their own, and agree to be governed by, the Constitution, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the NJSIAA. In so doing, NJSIAA argues that Haddonfield should be precluded from asserting that the rules are faulty, now that they are being applied against it. NJSIAA attaches a copy of Haddonfield's Membership Resolution evidencing its agreement to adopt NJSIAA rules and regulations as its own. (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 21, and Exhibit 1)

Underscoring that the Commissioner's review in this matter is an appellate one, NJSIAA also contends that where due process has been granted, and there is an adequate basis for the decision, the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the Association, even if he would have determined otherwise in a de novo review. Dam Jin Koh and Hong Jun Kim v. NJSIAA, supra Citing Board of Education of the City of Camden v. NJSIAA, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 182, 188, NJSIAA asserts that, "The Commissioner must only determine whether the NJSIAA's decision was based on substantial credible evidence in the record." (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 22)

Further, the NJSIAA contends that the rules governing out-of-season relationships between coaches and athletes are clear on their face. With respect to these rules, NJSIAA argues,

Succinctly stated, they forbid any involvement between a coach and her athlete during the out-of-season period. Coaches must not participate in open gym programs, meetings, practices, scrimmages, camps or clinics during the out-of-season period. Nor may coaches transport students to any such activities. Four times the rules state that coaches "may not be involved in any way" with athletes. The rule is so obvious that when the Haddonfield administration realized that its coaches had taken part in the Shootout, it immediately reported the violation to the NJSIAA. At that time, Haddonfield characterized it as a violation of Rule 1, Section 6. However, it was later pointed out to the school by the Administration that the same conduct was also a violation of Rule 2, Section 11. (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 25)

Additionally, that these rules have been upheld by the Commissioner and the courts when the NJSIAA has disqualified a team from championship is, according to NJSIAA, further reason to sustain its decision. NJSIAA highlights two cases in particular to advance its argument. In Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District, Essex County v. NJSIAA, decided by the Commissioner November 20, 1986, the coach therein claimed that he was involved with a recreation league as a "volunteer and responsible adult." (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 26) Arguing that he provided no coaching or actual instruction, the coach in South Orange-Maplewood asserted he was only responsible for making substitutions to assure that all team members had an opportunity to play. Even where that coach had no contact with his students, as opposed to the facts in the instant matter, NJSIAA barred the high school's soccer team from state championship participation for one year.⁴ Additionally, in Board of Education of the Township of Verona, Essex County v. NJSIAA, decided by the Commissioner February 14, 1990, the NJSIAA disqualified a school from championship consideration in ice hockey when the coach coached his son on both a high school team and a club team. The Commissioner sustained the NJSIAA's decision. NJSIAA contends that it has been upheld in every instance in which it has disqualified a team from championship play. (See NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 27.)

NJSIAA next asserts that its decision should not be reversed where Haddonfield has been provided due process. Specifically, NJSIAA notes that there were two hearings, with an opportunity to present evidence, witnesses and legal argument; proceedings were recorded and over 200 pages of transcripts now exist in this matter. Both the Controversies Committee and the Executive Committee unanimously found that Haddonfield violated the rules. (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 28) NJSIAA further avers that the transcripts, the colloquy between members and the thoroughness of the written decision "all demonstrate the fatuous nature" of Haddonfield's claim that a decision was "predetermined." (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 28)

The action taken by NJSIAA was, the Association continues to argue, reasonably based on clear violations of the rules. Here, NJSIAA points to the October 21, 1994 letter from Haddonfield's athletic director to NJSIAA indicating that the coaches had violated the rules, and that Haddonfield had penalized the coaches accordingly. That Haddonfield now argues the coaches did not actually coach, but were merely "cheerleading," NJSIAA contends, belies the words in the coaches' own letters of October 17, 1994, supra. NJSIAA further contends, with respect to the athletic director's letter, "Petitioner has now attempted to extricate itself from that initial admission of wrongdoing, yet the letter points out the inherent reasonableness of the Association's action: it found responsibility for a violation which the school recognized and confessed." (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 29) Evaluating the conduct of the Haddonfield coaches on October 1 and 2, 1994, NJSIAA summarizes:

The fact is that the coaches coached. They may not have devised strategy or instructed their players the way they would in a high school game, but they motivated their players; provided supervision; made substitutions to ensure that each player played at least half the game; made certain that the team utilized only man-to-man defense without any zones, and made sure that there was no trapping or double-teaming as required by the rules of the Shootout. All of these facts were carefully delineated in the decision of the Controversies Committee. (Petitioner's Exhibit I, pp. 9-11.) They called themselves coaches and they were referred to as coaches. (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 32)

NJSIAA further argues that the Controversies Committee "was well within its discretion" to interpret Rule 2, Section 11 to consider an event such as the Shootout as a camp or clinic. (NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 30) Additionally, the Association maintains that the fundamental violation occurred when Coach McCaffery "was  involved with a nonschool team on which one of her student-athletes participated." That "Coach Castorina was also 'involved' with one of his athletes, and Coach McCaffery transported one of her athletes to the event," merely adds, the Association argues, to the fundamental violation. (NJSIAA's Brief, at pp. 30, 31)

Moreover, NJSIAA maintains that the mandatory penalty, contrary to Haddonfield's assertions, does apply to Rule 1, Section 6, inasmuch as that mandatory penalty deals with out-of-season rules, which include Rule 1, Section 6. However, NJSIAA continues, even if the mandatory penalty somehow did not apply to the out-of-season violations in Rule 1, Section 6, it assuredly applies to Rule 2, Section 11, and Ms. McCaffery clearly violated that rule by being involved with [a] non-school team on which one of her student-athletes participated (Rule 2, Section 11, CL4C), and transporting her student to the Shootout (Rule 2, Section 11, CL1B); and Ms. McCaffery and Mr. Castorina both violated the rule by becoming involved with their student-athletes at the basketball event (Rule 2, Section 11, CL2).

(NJSIAA's Brief, at p. 33)

Finally, NJSIAA contends that the penalty imposed was appropriate. It argues that drawing bright lines necessarily discourages improper conduct among member schools which have adopted these rules and regulations. To the extent that NJSIAA has applied the rules against Haddonfield in this matter, the Association argues, it is merely establishing standards in a predictable way.

Upon his careful and independent review of the record of this matter, including transcripts from both the Controversies Committee hearing and the Executive Committee hearing, the Commissioner affirms the determination of NJSIAA disqualifying the Haddonfield varsity girls' basketball team from the basketball championships, and placing said team on probation for one year from October 1, 1994 for the reasons expressed by the Controversies Committee and for those reasons expressed in the Brief submitted by NJSIAA on January 30, 1995.

The Commissioner is persuaded that the facts in the instant matter are similar to those in South Orange-Maplewood, supra. There, the coach assisted a community soccer association as a volunteer and responsible adult not as a coach he was not asked to, nor did he, provide any coaching since the team already had paid a coach. (South Orange-Maplewood, supra, Slip Op., at p. 5)

In that case, petitioner alleged that the coach's role in the seven or eight games he attended was a collaborative one with parents, making substitutes which were not strategic in nature. However, in contrast with the instant matter, the South Orange-Maplewood Board asserted that its coach had no contact with his student-athletes. (Id., at p. 6)

Acknowledging that the conduct of the coaches herein could have been an inadvertent violation, the Commissioner is nevertheless mindful of the precedent established in similar petitions seeking reversal of the Controversies Committee's interpretation of its rules. The Commissioner therefore finds that Haddonfield has failed to establish that the Committee's interpretation and application of NJSIAA's rules and regulations in this matter constituted arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable action which would warrant reversal of the NJSIAA's decision.

As to the penalty assigned, the Commissioner concurs with NJSIAA's assertion that by agreeing to be bound by the NJSIAA's rules as a member of the Association, the Board agreed to the minimal penalty for violation of Rule 2, Section 11, which requires elimination from any post-season championship competition. Verona, supra, slip op. at p. 10

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed above, the instant Petition of Appeal is dismissed, with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹ Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered

on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992.

Moreover, although the Deputy Commissioner states in his letter decision that petitioner's criminal history record review reveals a conviction for "possession of narcotics" in 1989, we can find no such offense indicated on the record. Indeed, there is no reference to such an offense on the records obtained from either the New Jersey State Bureau of Identification or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.² Nor do the disqualification letters from the manager of the Department's Office of Criminal History Review reveal any criminal offenses subsequent to 1984. The record does, however, indicate that petitioner was incarcerated in 1989.

Consequently, we direct that the proceedings on remand also provide clarification of the circumstances surrounding petitioner's incarceration in 1989. This information is particularly critical in view of the Deputy Commissioner's conclusion, based on his statement that petitioner was convicted of "possession of narcotics" in 1989, that insufficient time had lapsed for him to be convinced of petitioner's rehabilitation.

Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We retain jurisdiction.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $522,661 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $312,592.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $619,761 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $492,761 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $7,816,460 for 1994-95 school year.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : OF THE BOROUGH OF BOUND BROOK, :
SOMERSET COUNTY. :

For Petitioner, John E. Collins, Esq., (Carroll & Weiss)

For Respondent, James G. O'Donohue, Esq., (Hill Wallach)

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner on June 16, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal of the defeated budget by the Bound Brook Borough Board of Education (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.4. On June 16, 1994, the Board also filed a Petition of Appeal of its defeated cap waiver. On the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient system of education, the Board sought restoration of line item reductions made by the Bound Brook Borough Council (Council) following voter rejection of the Board's proposed budget and cap waiver on April 19, 1994. Subsequent to the defeat, the Board and Council consulted on the defeated budget pursuant to N.J.S.A.

18A:22-37 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.2(b)(2), and the Council reduced the General Fund Tax Levy by $635,307. Following the filing of the Petition of Appeal, the Board and Council continued to consult on the defeated budget, and the Council reduced the General Fund Tax Levy reduction to $522,661. Consequently, the monies in contention in this consolidated matter are as set forth below:

Proposed Tax Levy Adopted By Board of Education	Amount of Tax Levy Certi- fied by Governing Body
General Fund $7,533,768	General Fund $7,011,107
Cap Waiver $619,761	Cap Waiver - 0 -
Amount of Reduction By Governing Body	Amount of Reduction in Dis- pute Before the Commissioner
General Fund $522,661	General Fund $522,661
Cap Waiver $619,761	Cap Waiver $619,761

On June 24, 1994, the Council submitted its Answer to the Petition on the defeated budget; and on June 27, 1994, the Council submitted its Answer to the Petition on the cap waiver. A Position Statement on both matters was received on July 18, 1994. Position Statements on the defeated budget and cap waiver were received from the Council on July 18, 1994.

As a result of the State Board of Education's July 7, 1993, decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, wherein the State Board ruled that decisions in defeated voter cap waiver appeals must determine whether or not reallocation within the district's maximum permissible budget is possible and whether, and to what extent, the specific programs at issue are essential in order to enable the Board to meet its constitutional obligation to provide a thorough and efficient system of education, a letter was sent to the parties by the director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes informing them of the need to supplement the record to document the reallocation and cap waiver review conducted by the Somerset County Superintendent pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-26. The county superintendent was accorded thirty (30) days from receipt of the letter to submit a sworn affidavit setting forth an explanation and documentation of the review, including the bases for concluding that: (1) reallocation within the district's maximum permissible budget for the 1994-95 school year was not possible, and (2) the specific programs at issue were essential for the Board to provide a thorough and efficient system of education to its students.

The Council and the Board were provided twenty (20) days from receipt of the county superintendent's submission to file a response thereto.

The county superintendent's affidavit and supporting documentation was received on July 26, 1994. The Board's Responses to the Council's Position Statements on both matters were filed on July 27, 1994. The Council's Response to the Board's Position Statement on the defeated budget was received on July 28, 1994. The Board's Summation was filed on August 3, 1994, and the Borough's Summations on both matters were filed on August 4, 1994. The director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes notified both parties on December 16, 1994, that the school district's 1993-94 year-end budget audit would be reviewed and utilized in the determination of the appeal to verify that there is no underestimated undesignated surplus that could be appropriated in the 1994-95 budget. Letters were received on this issue from the Board on December 16 and 19, 1994, and from the Council on December 19, 1994.

No additional documents were filed by either party and the record of this consolidated matter was closed on December 19, 1994.

The specific reductions under appeal in the General Fund tax levy are as follows:

Account	Title	Reduction
11-110-100-101	Pre-School/Kindergarten Substitutes Salaries	$950

EXPLANATION: A reduction of $950 is appropriate based upon past experience, inasmuch as the 1992-93 budget allowed the amount of $2,100 for this item and the 1992-93 actual audit shows that only $805 was expended. The proposed recommendation reflects a greater than 30% increase over what was actually needed in the 1992-93 budget. This reduction will not impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-130-100-101	Grades 6-8 Teacher Salaries	$10,000
----------------	-----------------------------	----------

EXPLANATION: A reduction of $10,000 is appropriate based upon over-budgeting in 1992-93 in the amount of $24,000 and also based upon retirement and replacement with new teachers. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-140-100-101	Grades 9-12 Teacher Salaries	$20,000
----------------	------------------------------	----------

EXPLANATION: A reduction of $20,000 is appropriate based upon teachers retiring and being replaced with teachers at a lower salary. Again, overbudgeting in the 1992-93 budget in the amount of $39,587 was taken into account in this recommendation. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-140-100-101 Grades 9-12 Summer Employment $2,600

EXPLANATION: The 1993-94 budget contained no funds for this category and it is our recommendation that this item not be funded. Elimination of this line item will not adversely impact on a thorough and efficient education.

11-140-100-101 Grades 9-12 Department Heads $10,000

EXPLANATION: A department head is a salaried teacher who is given an extra duty as such and is paid a stipend for that duty. The 1992-93 budget of $11,050 was audited as not having been paid. The 1993-94 budget of $14,517 seems excessive in view of the fact that nothing was actually spent in this account in 1992-93. Therefore, the recommendation to limit this line item to $15,000 in 1994-95 is appropriate, as it reflects a greater than 35% raise from the budgeted amount in 1992-93 which was not even expended. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-140-100-101 Grades 9-12 Substitutes $17,000

EXPLANATION: This item seems to fluctuate from underbudgeted to lower than previously used. The amount recommended of $25,600 reflects the use of a substitute teacher in the 9-12 grade levels over 365 times in a 180-day school year. While understanding that illness cannot be predicted, department heads, supervisors and other teachers certainly can be utilized during emergency absences. This recommended cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-106 Regular Program Instruction Paraprofessional $15,000

EXPLANATION: The 1993-94 budget reflects an amount budgeted of only $12,000 for this line item. An increase in this line item of 25% is more appropriate than a 150% increase as proposed. This recommended cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-320	Regular Program Instruction
	Assembly Programs - Lafayette	$300
	Assembly Programs - LaMonte	$300
	Assembly Programs - Smalley	$300
	Assembly Programs - Middle School	$400
	Assembly Programs - High School	$1,050

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 budget shows nothing budgeted for this account. The 1993-94 budget contains amounts of $300 for Lafayette School, $800 for the middle school and $800 for the high school. The recommended amounts show a substantial increase over previous years' budgeted amounts for all schools, except the middle school, which was kept at the same level. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-590	Regular Program Instruction
	Printing Services - Lafayette	$500
	Printing Services - LaMonte	$500
	Printing Services - Smalley	$500
	Printing Services - Middle School	$500
	Printing Services - High School	$1,100

EXPLANATION: This line item was not budgeted in 1992-93 and no expenditures for that year are shown. The total amount budgeted in this account is more than 125% higher than 1993-94. A reduction in this account will not impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-610	Regular Program Instruction Miscellaneous	$3,240
	Supplies - High School

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 budgeted amount was greater than 40% higher than what was actually used. The recommended adjustment reflects a sufficient amount for miscellaneous supplies inasmuch as each department in the high school is budgeted for additional funds for supplies. This recommended adjustment will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-610 Regular Program Instruction Miscellaneous $533
Supplies - Audio Visual

EXPLANATION: This amount has been consistently high in previous budgets. This recommendation is the same as reflected in the 1993-94 budget and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-610 Regular Program Instruction Supplies - High $400
School Home Economics

EXPLANATION: This account reflects overbudgeting in past years. Based on that, a modest reduction is recommended and prudent planning for supplies should be encouraged. This recommendation will not impact on a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-640 Regular Program Instruction-Music $580
Textbooks-LaMonte

EXPLANATION: Supplies for elementary music have been covered in the cap waiver. This line item is redundant and its elimination will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-890 Regular Program Instruction High $200
School - Art

EXPLANATION: This item was budgeted at $280 in the 1993-94 budget and the recommendation to increase to $300 is appropriate based on the previously budgeted amount and based on no funds having been allocated or used in the 1992-93 budget. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-190-100-890 Regular Program Instruction
Field Trips-H.S. - Foreign Language $100
Field Trips-H.S. - Home Economics $500
Field Trips-H.S. - Science $300

EXPLANATION: Based on prior years' spending and 1992-93 audited figures, the amounts recommended are sufficient to provide field trips in these areas. In 1992-93 foreign language was budgeted at $400 with $280 being actually used. Our recommendation is 35% more than what was actually used in 1992-93. The recommendation of $150 in home economics is 50% higher than the 1992-93 budgeted amount from which nothing was expended. The science recommendation is $700 which represents a greater than 160% increase over the 1993-94 budget amount. These recommendations will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-240-100-106 Neurologically Impaired Salaries-Aides $5,465

EXPLANATION: Aides for N.I. classes are usually not used at the beginning of a school year due to the fact that, if the N.I. class is greater than a certain number of students, a certified teacher must be hired. There was no expenditure from this line item in 1992-93 and nothing budgeted in 1993-94. An allowance has been made for the possible need for an aide later in the year. Reduction of this line item will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-209-100-106 Emotionally Disturbed Salaries-Aides $5,465

EXPLANATION: The recommended amount would provide for an aide to relieve the classroom teacher for free periods and lunch. This free time should be scheduled consecutively to conserve the use of an aide. The recommended reduction allows for a part-time aide and should be permitted. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-240-100-610 Bilingual Education-Materials and Supplies - LaMonte $4,000

EXPLANATION: Each school in the district has a line item amount of $831 or less for this account. Budgeting so much more for one school is inappropriate. The amount of $862 is higher than the high school appropriation and twice the amount of the other elementary schools. This reduction is appropriate because the budget for total bilingual education supplies would have increased more than 224% over the 1993-94 budget. Even with this recommendation, the budget for total bilingual education supplies will increase more than 124% over the 1993-94 budget. This cut will not adversely affect providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-402-100-100 School Athletics-Site Manager $4,220

EXPLANATION: A site manager seems to be a completely new position in the current year's budget. Due to the fact that this position has never before been used, it should be deleted as being unnecessary. This reduction will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-402-100-590 School Athletics Equipment-Cleaning and Conditioning $5,000

EXPLANATION: This item was not budgeted in 1992-93. In 1993-94, the budgeted amount was the same as that in the 1994-95 budget. The amount requested seems excessively high for these services. Even assuming that conditioning of football helmets is included in this line item, the cost is too high. Uniforms should be cleaned by the students following each activity. This recommendation will not impact on safety of students involved in sports activities and will not adversely impact on the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

11-402-100-590 School Athletics Uniform $1,835

EXPLANATION: While realizing that wear and tear on athletic uniforms occurs, a program to replace uniforms periodically should be instituted over a period of time. The recommended amount should be held in this account and gradually augmented in each year until such time as whole sets of uniforms can be replaced. Allowing, for example, $200 per uniform, this amount equates to the purchase of 20 new uniforms. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-402-100-610	School Athletics-Athletic Trainer Supplies	$2,000
----------------	---	---------

EXPLANATION: The 1993-94 budget appropriated $6,000 for this account which was a new account. Adding the $4,000, as recommended, totals $10,000 for two years for this account which is sufficient for supply purposes. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-402-100-610	School Athletics-Sport Specific Supplies	$10,000
----------------	---	----------

EXPLANATION: There was no expenditure from this line item in 1992-93 and no amount budgeted in 1993-94. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-402-100-890	School Athletics-Special Police/Auxiliary Personnel	$8,267
----------------	--	---------

EXPLANATION: The amount budgeted is excessive and should be cut to the recommended amount of $5,000. Police are paid $27.50 per hour, and the recommended amount equates to approximately 182 hours of police time, which seems appropriate. The 1994-95 budgeted amount calls for 482 hours of police time which seems excessive. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-100-562	Instruction-Tuition/Other LEA's/Special	$30,000
----------------	---	----------

EXPLANATION: Last year the district brought back to our schools many of the students previously placed elsewhere. The program of placing students back within the district was instituted primarily to save on tuitions. Hopefully this program is continuing and, based on that, the 1993-94 budgeted amount for this category of $70,000 should once again cover tuitions having to be paid in this category. Additionally, the budget packet information provided to the Borough Council indicates a decline in LEA projected to be from seven students in 1993-94 to six students in 1994-95. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-100-564	Instruction-County Vocational Schools Special	$10,000
----------------	--	----------

EXPLANATION: There was nothing budgeted or expended for this line item in 1992-93. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-100-566	Instruction-Tuition - Handicapped within State	$43,000
----------------	---	----------

EXPLANATION: The previous year's budgeted amount in this account of $488,762 seems excessive due to the fact that the district was attempting to bring students back into the district to save tuition fees. The handicapped facility which was built at the district high school several years ago seems to be underutilized and should, in an effort to save tuition in this account, be studied to ascertain its full potential. The 1994-95 budgeted amount of $674,437 reflects an increase in this account of almost 40% over the 1993-94 budgeted figures. This is inappropriate if efforts are truly being made to keep handicapped students within the school system. The recommended amount of cut should be permitted to encourage reassessment of students being placed out of district. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and should be allowed. The school board should be encouraged to reassess all students being placed out of district due to the remaining high amounts paid in tuitions. All district facilities that will accommodate handicapped students should be reassessed to ascertain their full potential, and efforts should be made to guarantee that full utilization of such facilities is accomplished. This recommendation allows for an average tuition payment of $29,690 per student. (This reduction was decreased in the later consultation to the $43,000 listed above.)

11-000-218-104 Guidance Salaries - High School $2,314

EXPLANATION: This item apparently reflects a 6% increase in salary for the director of guidance. The recommendation is to limit the salary increase to 3% for this contract period. This reduction will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-218-104 Guidance Salaries - Summer $2,800

EXPLANATION: Guidance is a twelve-month position and summer employees should not be required. Much can be accomplished by full-time employees over the summer months because students are not attending school during this time. This reduction will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education. (This reduction was changed to $2,800 in the later consultation.)

11-000-218-580 Guidance - Other-Travel $500

EXPLANATION: This is a new account and is not appropriate for the guidance office. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-218-610 Guidance - Comp./Off./Student Supplies $750

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 budget appropriated $1,112 in this account. This was not used. The 1993-94 budgeted amount of $4,550 and the 1994-95 recommended amount of $4,000 would result in approximately $9,000 in this account over the two-year period. This recommended cut will not adversely impact on the provision of a thorough and efficient education and should be allowed.

11-000-219-104&105	Special Services
	Salary - Summer Work CST	$4,035
	Salary - Secretary OT/Summer	$2,004

EXPLANATION: Summer work should not be needed when the secretaries in the department work twelve months. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-219-390	Special Services - Student Evaluation	$5,000
----------------	---------------------------------------	---------

EXPLANATION: The 1993-94 budgeted amount of $9,200 seems to be an appropriate amount for this account. A slight increase in the recommended amount to $10,000 has been allowed. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and should be permitted.

11-000-219-610	Special Services-Materials and Supplies	$1,000
----------------	---	---------

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 budgeted amount of $550 was more than actually used. The 1993-94 budget is excessive in comparison. The recommended amount is more than three times what was actually used in 1992-93. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-221-102	Improvement of Instruction - Salaries-Supervisors	$60,500
----------------	---	----------

EXPLANATION: The recommended amount reflects eliminating the position of curriculum director which was created the preceding year. The job description for this position indicates that the responsibilities can be handled efficiently by either the Lafayette School principal or the high school guidance director. The district should be looking to economize by downsizing administrative staff and having some allocation of responsibility to current staff. Fiscal responsibility can only be accomplished by careful assignment of duties. It is far too easy to create new duties and hire a new person to administer such duties. Creative combining of responsibility will go far in downsizing supervisory and administrative staff in this small school district. The recommended cut certainly will not impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and such cut is strongly urged so that administrative and supervisory staff can be utilized to full potential.

11-000-221-101	Improvement of Instruction
	Salaries-Substitutes - Lafayette	$1,000
	Salaries-Substitutes - LaMonte	$1,000
	Salaries-Substitutes - Smalley	$1,000

EXPLANATION: With nothing budgeted or expended in the 1992-93 budget, this account should not be funded. The account is not critical to the provision of a thorough and efficient education and the cut should be permitted.

11-000-221-580	Improvement of Instruction - In-Service/ Staff Development-District	$6,000
----------------	--	---------

EXPLANATION: This account seems inappropriate since in-service funds for each school in the district are separately budgeted. The reduction of this item will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-221-580	Improvement of Instruction - Supervisor of Curriculum Travel/Meetings	$1,000
----------------	--	---------

EXPLANATION: This position should be eliminated. Therefore, no account for travel is necessary. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-222-100 Educational Media Services - Salaries - $1,310
Summer Employment

EXPLANATION: Students are not attending school in the summer. If the library or other media services are required by students over the summer recess, the local library is available to them. If stocking of the library is required, there are enough regular employees to accomplish this. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education. (This reduction was changed to $1,310 in the later consultations.)

11-000-222-580 Educational Media Services - Travel $150

EXPLANATION: This same amount was budgeted for the first time in 1993-94. Travel is not appropriate in this category and the recommended cut should be allowed. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-222-614 Educational Media Services - Art $330
Audiovisual-High School

EXPLANATION: This account shows no expenditures in 1992-93 and $140 budgeted for 1993-94. The recommended amount is slightly higher than the 1993-94 budget and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-222-614 Educational Media Services - $600
Audiovisual-High School

EXPLANATION: Only approximately half of the 1992-93 budgeted amount was used, yet the same amount was budgeted in 1993-94 and 1994-95. The recommended cut will not impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-222-614 Educational Media Services - Library- $532
Audiovisual-High School

EXPLANATION: The 1993-94 budget reflects the same amount as actually spent in 1992-93. The 1994-95 budgeted amount is more than double the previous amount. The recommended cut aligns with what was used in 1992-93 and budgeted in 1993-94 and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-222-890	Educational Media Services
	Miscellaneous Expenses - Lafayette	$550
	Miscellaneous Expenses - LaMonte	$550
	Miscellaneous Expenses - Smalley	$550
	Miscellaneous Expenses - High School	$976

EXPLANATION: The budgeted amounts are inappropriate in view of past expenditures. The recommended amounts are 35% higher than budgeted in 1993-94 and are more in line with economy of expenses and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-230-331	General Administration - Legal Services	$25,000
----------------	---	----------

EXPLANATION: Previous years' legal services were required for various items. The recommended amount reflects an increase over what was actually expended in 1992-93 when legal services were called upon frequently because of the buy-out of the prior superintendent and other negotiations. It is no longer necessary for the board attorney to attend meetings with the same frequency as in the past two years. Therefore, the cut recommended is appropriate and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-230-530	General Administration - Telephone	$7,000
----------------	------------------------------------	---------

EXPLANATION: Economy is encouraged. 1992-93 actual telephone expenses were $10,000 less than budgeted that year. A reduction in this item will encourage frugality in the use of the telephone by everyone in the district and will not impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-230-530	General Administration
	Postage - Middle School	$1,000
	Postage - High School	$2,000
	Postage - Board of Education	$2,000

EXPLANATION: The audited 1992-93 budget indicates the total amount used for postage in all accounts was $6,870. The recommended cuts still allow for a greater than 45% increase over the total actual 1992-93 expenditure for postage. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and will promote better awareness of the use of postage and hopefully encourage alternative means to using mail where possible.

11-000-230-610	General Administration
610	Superintendent's Office Supplies	$2,000

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 budget reflects $7,000 used in this account. The 1993-94 budgeted amount was more than double the previous year's. The recommended amount should be sufficient to cover office supplies and, with funds available in other supply accounts, will cause no hardship. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-230-610	General Administration
	Superintendent's Miscellaneous Supplies	$500
	Board Meetings/Workshops	$500

EXPLANATION: The recommendation is sufficient for a miscellaneous account and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-230-890	General Administration-Superintendent's	$500
	Mem./Registrations/Dues

EXPLANATION: The memberships, registrations and dues covered by this account have historically been budgeted at $1,000. This recommended cut keeps this account at $1,000 and will not adversely affect the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-230-890	General Administration-Election - Miscellaneous Expenses	$500
----------------	---	-------

EXPLANATION: Funding for this account has historically been budgeted at $1,500. The recommendation is to continue the funding at $1,500. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-240-103	School Administration-Salaries-Principal Elementary	$16,126
----------------	--	----------

EXPLANATION: There are three elementary schools in the district. This past year one of the elementary school principals retired. One principal is to be hired to replace the one who retired. It is assumed that the principal hired will be hired at the entry level salary of $58,000. The recommendation allows the entry level salary to hire a new elementary school principal for Lafayette School and also allows for a 3% salary increase for the principals of the other two elementary schools in the district. Being aware of the fact that administration contract negotiations are being held at the present time, it is Borough Council's recommendation that a salary increase for this contract period be held to 3%. This recommended cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and should be permitted. It is further recommended that the Board of Education diligently pursue the feasibility of a shared principal between Lafayette and LaMonte Schools. Lafayette School consists of Pre-K through third grades and LaMonte consists of fourth through sixth grades. The schools are four blocks from each other, and there may be a greater savings in combining the principalships of the two schools. A thorough and efficient education is not provided through money or administrative positions alone. It is provided through efforts on the part of the school board and administrative staff investigating ways to combine duties so that dollars can be better spent on items that directly affect the quality of life of the student. This recommended cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-240-103 School Administration-Salaries-Principal $13,894
High School

EXPLANATION: In February 1994, the high school principal resigned to take a position in another district. At present, one of the elementary school principals is filling the position until a new one is hired. There is also one vice-principal in the high school. The recommended cut reflects the fact that a new high school principal will be hired at the entry level salary of $68,500. The recommendation also includes a 3% salary increase for the high school vice-principal. This recommendation is reasonable and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and should be permitted.

11-000-240-105 School Administration Salaries-Secretary $23,732
to Middle School Principal

EXPLANATION: A middle school principal is requested in the Cap Waiver. The position is an unnecessary one since the middle school and high school, grades 7 through 12, are housed in one building which has a principal and vice-principal. There is also a guidance counselor for the middle school. The recommendation is based on the fact that because a middle school principal is not required, a middle school secretary to the principal is not required. The high school principal's office and vice-principal's office have several secretaries. The vice principal should oversee the middle school, and his current secretarial staff should absorb the middle school secretarial work. This recommended cut will not adversely impact on a thorough and efficient education and should be permitted.

11-000-240-105 School Administration-OT & Substitute $1,500
School Secretary

EXPLANATION: The actual 1992-93 audited amount shows an expenditure in this account 35% less than budgeted. The recommended cut is more than 18% greater than what was actually used in 1992-93 and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-240-890	School Administration
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - Lafayette	$400
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - LaMonte	$400
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - Smalley	$400
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - Middle School	$600
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School-Art	$170
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School-F. Lang.	$150
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School-Math	$320
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School-Music	$100
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School-PE/Health	$70
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School-Soc. Stud.	$150
11-000-240-860	Admin. Dues/Reg. - High School	$1,000

EXPLANATION: This recommended cut is based on previous years where nothing was budgeted or expended in this account. There is a provision for the possibility of expenditures in this category and these recommendations are reasonable based on past history. These recommended cuts will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-100 Operation & Maintenance-Salaries - Reg. $31,895
Custodians

EXPLANATION: This account is funded for 11 custodians: one for each elementary school, one for district buildings (two of them) and six for the high school building. The custodian used for the two district buildings is frivolous as these buildings are houses converted to offices. These two buildings do not warrant the use of a full-time custodian, and we recommend that the duties of this custodian be absorbed by the remaining ten. This recommended cut also reflects the hope that overtime in this account be cut 25% during the next budget year. This recommendation certainly will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education. The recommendation will promote downsizing of custodial staff as well as scheduling of work so as to minimize the need for overtime.

11-000-260-100 Operation & Maintenance-Salaries - Lunch/ $12,398
Hall Aides

EXPLANATION: It is our understanding that two hall monitors are presently being used in the high school building. The recommended cut reflects the use of just one hall monitor. Two hall monitors should not be necessary since there are many teachers in the building as well as other personnel. One hall monitor should suffice and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-100 Operation & Maintenance-Summer $7,500
Maintenance Projects

EXPLANATION: Summer maintenance projects should be performed by the regular maintenance and custodial staff. Painting and general sprucing up should be performed with the aid of community service workers who will, upon request to the Borough of Bound Brook, be provided to help perform routine projects such as painting, sweeping, mopping, waxing, etc. This recommended cut should be allowed and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education. As a matter of fact, the reduction in this account will allow for the Board and the Borough to initiate a dialogue on sharing of some services as well as allow the Borough to become aware of maintenance projects the Board is seeking to accomplish.

11-000-260-590 Operation & Maintenance-Other Vehicular $4,000
 Expenses

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 audited budget shows that this account was overbudgeted for that year. The recommended amount reflects a 45% increase over the 1992-93 actual expenses. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-590 Operation & Maintenance-Other Miscel. $5,000
 Services & Expenses

EXPLANATION: Again, the 1992-93 audited budget shows this item as being overbudgeted. This recommendation is appropriate and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-610 Operation & Maintenance-Grounds Supplies $2,000

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 audited budget reflects this item as being grossly overbudgeted. The amount spent that year seems more appropriate, and the recommendation reflects a greater than 260% increase over that amount and should be permitted. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-610	Operation & Maintenance
11-000-260-692	Custodial Supplies - Lafayette	$1,000
11-000-260-692	Custodial Supplies - LaMonte	$1,000
11-000-260-692	Custodial Supplies - Smalley	$1,000
11-000-260-692	Custodial Supplies - Middle & High School	$1,800

EXPLANATION: Custodial supplies in this account reflect an average of $25 per day being spent in each elementary school for such supplies and an average of $82 per day in the high school. These amounts are inappropriate and the recommendation reflects a more logical cost-per-school. It is hoped that the Board is buying in bulk quantities so as to receive better value. It would, perhaps, be beneficial to both the Board and the Borough to dialogue on sharing bulk purchases for these items. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-610	Operation & Maintenance	$3,800
694	Other Expenses - Repair Buildings

EXPLANATION: This recommendation allows for general repair to buildings and allows an 8% increase over the actual 1993-94 adjusted budget. This cut will not adversely impact on the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-610	Operation & Maintenance
11-000-260-697	Electricity - Lafayette	$1,000
11-000-260-697	Electricity - Smalley	$2,000
11-000-260-697	Electricity - Middle & High School	$3,000

EXPLANATION: The recommended cuts allow for an 8% increase over the 1992-93 actual audited budget figures. Conservation of energy should be practiced and encouraged. This recommendation will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-260-620	Operation & Maintenance
11-000-260-698	Heat - Lafayette	$1,000
11-000-260-698	Heat - LaMonte	$1,000
11-000-260-698	Heat - Smalley	$1,000
11-000-260-698	Heat - Middle & High School	$3,000
11-000-260-698	Heat - District School	$2,000

EXPLANATION: The 1992-93 audited budget shows this item as being overbudgeted by approximately $5,000. The 1994-95 proposed budget of $94,000 is approximately $14,000 more than what was actually spent in 1992-93. The recommended cuts will encourage conservation of energy and will not adversely impact on the provision of a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-270-890	Student Transportation-Field Trips - High School	$1,000
----------------	---	---------

EXPLANATION: The recommended reduction in this line is to encourage the funding of field trips for the special education classes, which have not been funded in this account. We hope that this cut will be permitted and that a new line item funding $800 for field trips for the special education class will be permitted. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education and will, in fact, provide for funding of field trips for students who would otherwise be deprived of same.

ADD TO BUDGET NEW LINE ITEM:

11-000-270-890	Student Transportation-Field Trips -	+ $800
	Special Education
11-000-290-104	Business & Other Services-Salaries -	$24,000
	Office of Business Administrator

EXPLANATION: The recommendation indicates no allowance for an additional employee, as proposed, in this account. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-290-340	Business and Other Services-Equipment	$2,000
	Service Contract

EXPLANATION: This account has no prior history. The 1993-94 adjusted budget indicates the amount of $12,678 as being expended. The recommendation allows for a slight increase over actual expenditures and will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

11-000-290-590	Business and Other Services-Travel -	$500
	Board Office

EXPLANATION: This is a redundant account which has no prior spending history. Travel should be minimized and the recommended amount should be sufficient to cover any minor expenses of travel in this account. This cut will not adversely impact on providing a thorough and efficient education.

Total Recommended Reduction	$522,661
-----------------------------	------------------

NOTE: The reductions add to a total of $523,461, but this number is reduced by $800 because the Council added that amount for special education field trips. The net reduction is $522,661.

The cap waiver amounts under appeal are as follows:

11-120-100-101	Grades 1-5 Teachers Salaries	$220,887
11-190-100-610	Instructional Supplies	10,403
11-000-211-101	Attendance/Social Work Salaries	18,921
11-000-222-100	Media Salaries	40,000
11-000-230-103	Salaries of Principals	75,000
11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	60,000
12-000-222-730	Media Equipment	5,550
12-000-400-450	Facilities Construction Services	189,000

TOTAL $619,761

I. DEFEATED BUDGET

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature, by way of statutory scheme, has delegated the responsibility for providing a thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37, has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Mindful, then, of this standard of review, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the reduction in the General Fund Tax Levy effectuated by the Council:

11-140-100-101 Grades 9-12 Summer Employment $2,600

The Council states that these funds are not necessary because no funds were budgeted in 1993-94. The Board states that funds for summer employment were expended in 1993-94 but charged to the regular salary account. The Board also states that the summer employment is essential for curriculum work and preparation for the opening of school in September. The Commissioner agrees that many details of curriculum development and preparation for the school program must be completed prior to school opening each year. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $2,600.

11-140-100-101 Grades 9-12 Department Heads $10,000

The Council bases this reduction on the absence of any expenditures in 1993-94 and the provision, after the reduction, of more than the 1993-94 budgeted amount. The Board states the budgeted funds are for contractual obligations. The Board explains that the amount budgeted for 1994-95 is greater than that in 1993-94 because only seven (7) of ten (10) positions were included in 1993-94 and all ten (10) positions are included in 1994-95. The Commissioner has grave concerns about the significant increase in this line item and determines that the Board has not proved that this amount is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner sustains the $10,000 reduction.

11-140-100-101 Grades 9-12 Substitutes $17,000

The Council bases this reduction on what it states are fluctuations in the budgeted amounts and its belief that the amount after the reduction provides sufficient funds for substitute teachers. The Council also states that other staff can cover classes in emergencies. The Board states that the funds budgeted in 1994-95 were based on expenditures in 1992-93 and 1993-94. Again, it must be noted that the budgeted amounts for substitutes must be estimated and must provide sufficient funds for coverage of all classes. It cannot be assumed that other staff will be free of duties and able to cover classrooms when a teacher is absent. The Commissioner, therefore, orders the restoration of the $17,000.

11-190-100-106 Regular Program Inst. Paraprofessional $15,000

The Council states that the amount provided after the reduction is twenty-five percent (25%) greater than the 1993-94 amount which is more appropriate than the one hundred and fifty percent (150%) increase proposed by the Board. The Board states that these funds provided for one elementary aide in 1993-94. A second aide and possibly a third will be needed in 1994-95. Based on this information, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $7,500 and sustains $7,500.

11-190-100-320 Regular Program Inst.-Assemblies $2,350

The Council based this reduction, which involves all schools, on the absence of any budgeted funds in 1992-93 and the provision of sufficient funds, after the reduction, in comparison with 1993-94. The Board states that the funds budgeted would provide a wide-based exposure to ancillary educational programs, and that many of these programs have never been provided in the district. The funds provided after the Council reduction are greater than the total provided in 1993-94 and would appear to be more than sufficient for this portion of the educational programs. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $2,350.

11-190-100-590 Regular Program Inst.-Printing Serv. $3,100

The Council bases this reduction, which again involves all schools, on the absence of any budgeted funds in 1992-93 and the great increase in the proposed 1994-95 budgeted amount over 1993-94. The Board states that the proposed amount is "reasonable" and that written communication to parents, staff, and students is necessary. The Commissioner agrees that there must be provision for some written communication, but the amount provided by the Council exceeds the 1993-94 amount by greater than twenty percent (20%). The Commissioner determines this increase to be quite reasonable and sustains the reduction of $3,100.

11-190-100-610	Regular Program Inst.-Miscellaneous Supplies High School	$3,240
----------------	---	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 budget and expenditures and the fact that there are also supplies budgeted for each department in the high school. The Board states that supply orders are tightly monitored and that the proposed budget for this item is based on actual need. The Council's argument is somewhat arbitrary since it does not consider the fact that the district enrollment has increased since 1992-93 and that the proposed amount for 1994-95 is only slightly greater than that budgeted for 1993-94. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $3,240.

11-190-100-610	Regular Program Inst.-Miscellaneous Supplies-Audiovisual	$533
----------------	---	-------

The Council states that this account has been consistently high in previous budgets and that the reduction provides funds equal to that in 1993-94. The Board states that the proposed funds are essential for the proper repair and replacement of parts in the district's audiovisual equipment. The Council's argument is somewhat confusing, because high costs in past years do not logically justify a reduction but, rather, may demonstrate a consistently necessary expenditure. The amount provided by the Board is only slightly greater than the 1993-94 amount, and proper maintenance of school equipment is essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $533.

----------------	---	-------

The Council bases this reduction on its position that there was overbudgeting in past years and that prudent planning for supplies should be encouraged. The Board states that this account has been examined very closely and that the 1994-95 proposed budget provides for an increase of two full classes. It is unquestionable that supplies must be provided for all classes. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $400 reduction.

11-190-100-640	Regular Program Inst.-Music Textbooks-LaMorte	$580
----------------	---	-------

The Council states that these funds are not necessary because supplies for elementary music are covered in the cap waiver. The Board states that the music supplies in the cap waiver are different from this textbook account which is necessary to complete the third year of a three-year replacement program. The Board is correct that the account in the cap waiver is for supplies, not textbooks. The appropriate updating of textbooks is essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $580.

11-190-100-890	Regular Program Inst.-Field Trips Art	$200
----------------	---------------------------------------	-------

The Council bases this reduction on the absence of any budgeted amount in 1992-93 and the amount of $280 budgeted in 1993-94. The Council reduction provides $300 for this item. The Board states that the monies budgeted for this item provide for a variety of trips to enhance the classroom experience. The Board does not, however, provide any rationale for the significant increase in the proposed funds for 1994-95 over 1993-94. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $200.

11-190-100-890	Reg. Prog. Inst.-Field Trips-High School Foreign Language, Home Economics, Science	$900
----------------	---	-------

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that these field trips are important to students in these three program areas. Again, however, the Board does not justify any need for the significant increase in the proposed funds for 1994-95 over 1993-94. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $900.

11-204-100-106	Neurologically Impaired Salaries-Aides	$5,465
----------------	--	---------

The Council bases this information on the absence of expenditures in 1992-93 and no budgeted funds in 1993-94. The Council also states that aides are not usually used at the beginning of the school year. The Board states that it must hire an aide pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:28-4.4(a)(7) in 1994-95 because the class size will be greater than eight (8) pupils. Commissioner orders the restoration of the $5,465.

11-209-100-106	Emotionally Disturbed Salaries-Aides	$5,465
----------------	--------------------------------------	---------

The Council bases this information on its belief that a part-time aide to relieve the teacher for free periods and lunch would be sufficient. The Board states that an aide is essential for this class so that there is appropriate supervision of the students for every period of the day and as they move throughout the building for any mainstreaming. The Board also states that a student being evaluated by the Child Study Team may be assigned to this class which would then require an aide under the code cited above. Based on this information, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $5,465.

11-240-100-610 Bilingual Education-Supplies-LaMonte $4,000

The Council bases this reduction on the lesser amounts budgeted for the other schools in 1994-95 and a comparison with the 1993-94 budget. The Board states that an administrative review of the instructional supplies at each school indicated that LaMonte School had not received adequate supplies for the Bilingual/ESL program and that extra funds were budgeted to correct this problem. The Board also states that the bilingual population has grown substantially over the last few years. Proper supplies must be provided for programs to ensure a thorough and efficient education, and, in this case, to correct an apparently existing inequity. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $4,000.

11-402-100-100 School Athletics-Site Manager $4,220

The Council bases this reduction on its belief that this is a new position and, therefore, unnecessary. The Board states that this is not a new position but, rather, a slightly changed position that was called "assistant athletic director." In either case, this position does not seem warranted by the documentation presented and is not essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient educational program. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $4,220.

11-402-100-590 School Athletics Equipment - Cleaning and Conditioning $5,000

The Council states that this item was not budgeted in 1992-93 and that the amount requested for 1994-95, the same as for 1993-94, is excessively high. The Council also states that the uniforms should be cleaned by the students following each activity. The Board states that the funds requested are based on previous bills and detailed estimates for 1994-95 and are required for recertifying football helmets, batting helmets, and shoulder pads. It is inarguably essential that properly maintained and safe equipment be provided for school programs. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $5,000.

11-402-100-590 School Athletics-Uniforms $1,835

The Council bases this reduction on the suggestion that the Board set up an account in which a specific amount is placed each year until there are sufficient funds to purchase a whole set of uniforms. The Board accurately states that this proposal is a violation of the accounting principles under which a school district must operate. However, the Board's only justification for these funds is that the manufacturer went out of business last year. This does not justify the need for uniforms or the requested funding. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,835.

11-402-100-610 School Athletics-Athletic Trainer $2,000
Supplies

The Council bases this reduction on its position that the amount provided after the reduction, when added to the budgeted amount for 1993-94, provides ample funds over a two-year period. The Board states that the funds are necessary to provide supplies such as training (topping tables, ultrasound machines, whirlpools, cabinets, etc., as well as tape, gauze, etc.) it does not seem reasonable that such major "supplies" as listed by the Board must be purchased each year. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $2,000.

11-402-100-610 School Athletics-Sport-Specific Supplies $10,000

The Council bases the reduction on the absence of any expenditures in 1992-93 and any budgeted amount in 1993-94. The Board states that expenditures, under different account numbers, can be documented for both 1992-93 and 1993-94 and that the funds are necessary to maintain the current athletic offerings. A review of the budget document that was submitted confirms that more was expended in 1992-93 and budgeted in 1993-94 than requested by the Board in 1994-95. The Council states in its response that it is not their intent to cut any sport. Based on the information presented and Council's stated intention, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $10,000.

11-402-100-890 School Athletics - Special Police/
Auxiliary Personnel $8,267

The Council states that the amount budgeted by the Board is excessive, based on the hourly rate for policemen and the number of hours their services would be required. The Board states that this account also includes other auxiliary personnel, such as ticket takers, sellers, clock operators, and game announcers. The Board also states that additional police coverage is necessary for crowd control and proper security and that the reduction would only allow the district to maintain the current coverage. The Commissioner has serious concerns about the necessity for additional police coverage at high school sporting events which are supposed to represent an extension of physical education and healthy competition. The Commissioner advises the Board to review this matter and perhaps suspend those activities which are not conducted in a positive manner. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $8,267.

11-000-100-562 Instruction-Tuition/Other LEA's - Spec. $30,000

The Council bases this reduction on its assertion that the district is bringing special education students back into district placement and that the number for placement in 1994-95 is one (1) less than in 1993-94. The Board states that placement for special education students must be based on each child's needs and that the return to the district is not appropriate for every child. The Board specifies the actual costs for five (5) current student placements. In addition, three (3) more students are expected to need outside placement. Appropriate services are absolutely required by both State and Federal law for learning disabled students and sufficient funds must be provided to meet that obligation. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $30,000.

11-000-100-564 Instruction-Tuition/County Vocational $10,000
 Schools-Special

The Council bases this reduction on the absence of any budgeted amount or expenditure in 1992-93. The Board states that the alternative program at the Vocational School has been very beneficial for disaffected students, with one student in the program in 1993-94 and two identified for 1994-95. It is absolutely vital that districts provide effective programs for students to ensure the provision of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $10,000.

11-000-100-566 Instruction-Tuition/Handicapped within $43,000
 State

The Council again asserts that the amount budgeted by the Board is excessive and that handicapped students should be taught in the district's handicapped facility which was built at the high school several years ago. The Board again cites the legal requirement for appropriate placement for each pupil with an educational disability and also notes that the district handicapped facility is at ninety-five percent (95%) utilization. Based on the information presented and the requirements for appropriate placements, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $43,000.

11-000-218-104 Guidance - Salaries - High School $2,314

The Council reduction provides a three percent (3%) salary increase in place of the budgeted six percent (6%). The Board states that the amount budgeted is the actual contractual obligation for current staff. The Council cannot arbitrarily change terms of an existing contract. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $2,314.

11-000-218-104 Guidance - Salaries - Summer $2,800

The Council states that guidance is a twelve (12) month position and that additional summer employees should not be required. The Board states that guidance counselors have a ten-(10) month contract and that summer employment is essential for contact with students who have not received credit for a course and those who need summer school or remedial classes. The counselors also register new students. Based on the Council's misunderstanding about the contract period for counselors and the information presented, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $2,800.

11-000-218-580 Guidance - Travel $500

The Council states that this is a new account and not appropriate for the guidance office. The Board states that these funds are necessary for state-mandated meetings on testing and assessments and that the monies for these were in the high school administrative account in the past. It is essential that district guidance staff be aware of, and informed about, mandated tests and student assessments. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $500.

11-000-218-610	Guidance - Supplies	$750
----------------	---------------------	-------

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures and the sum of the 1993-94 budgeted amount and the 1994-95 amount after the reduction. The Board states that this account now includes the middle school computer and office supplies and provides a small increase for higher costs for paper goods. The Board lists in its documents the specific materials that must be purchased. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $750.

11-000-219-104	Special Services-Summer Work CST	$4,035
11-000-219-105	Special Services-Secretary - OT/Summer	2,004

The Council states that summer work should not be needed. The Board states that Child Study Team services are necessary during the summer months to provide student evaluations and comply with N.J.A.C. 6:28-1.1 et seq. The Board also states that vacation time for secretaries requires funds to provide secretarial services throughout the summer. The need to provide Child Study Team services during the summer is valid because evaluations and placement prior to the opening of school is the least disruptive to the students. The Board's position on the secretarial services is not valid, however, since all offices are affected by vacations and can schedule work to accommodate the absences. The Commissioner, therefore, orders the restoration of the $4,035 reduction and sustains the reduction of $2,004.

11-000-219-390 Special Services - Student Evaluation $5,000

The Council bases this reduction on the provision of a slight increase over the 1993-94 budgeted amount. The Board cites the necessity for the services of outside professionals for evaluations and annual reviews of student programs and states that these services have not been appropriately budgeted or provided for in the past. On the basis of the information provided, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $5,000.

11-000-219-610 Special Services-Materials and Supplies $1,000

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that surplus materials were utilized in the past and no longer exist. It is obviously essential that sufficient supplies be provided for the efficient operation of district offices. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $1,000.

11-000-221-102 Improvement of Instruction-Salaries/
Supervisors $60,500

The Council bases this reduction on the elimination of the position of director of curriculum which was created in the district in the prior year. The Board states that the position was established because responsibilities for the many aspects of curriculum were not handled effectively when assigned to several administrators. The Board cites the district's failure in the Chapter I program review and the neglect of curriculum development in support for the position. Upon review the Commissioner determines that the Board has not established that the position is essential in order to effectively handle curriculum development. Consequently, the Commissioner sustains the $60,500 reduction.

11-000-221-101 Improvement of Instruction - Salaries - $3,000
Substitutes

The Council bases this reduction on the absence of any expenditures in 1992-93. The Board states that these funds provide substitutes for teachers so that they can write curricula during the school year. The Board states that this reduces the expense of employing teachers during the summer. Since it has been established that the district curriculum needs attention and improvement, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $3,000 reduction.

11-000-221-580 Improvement of Instruction - In-Service/ $6,000
Staff Development

The Council states that these funds are inappropriate since each school has budgeted funds for in-service. The Board states that there is an urgent need to provide K-12 staff development to ensure vertical and horizontal articulation. This position is valid, but the Board does not specify how this will be achieved or why the additional funds are necessary. Based on the provision of $4,000 for district staff development plus funds for each school, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $6,000.

11-000-221-580 Improvement of Instruction-Supervisor $1,000 of Curriculum - Travel

The Council eliminates this budget item because it believes there is no need for a director or supervisor of curriculum. The Board states that the supervisor of curriculum must attend meetings to receive technical assistance for the writing of grants and the implementation of programs such as basic skills. Compliance with mandated programs is essential and the skillful application for special funding can provide significant benefits for students. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $1,000.

11-000-222-100 Educational Media Services - Salaries/ Summer $1,310

The Council states that all the funds budgeted are not necessary for summer library services. The Board states that the summer employment is necessary to complete the inventory and prepare for the opening of school. These duties are important, but the Board does not specify the time required for this work or the need for the additional funds. The amount provided by the Council is only twenty-five dollars ($25) less than the amount budgeted in 1993-94. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,310.

11-000-222-580 Educational Media Services - Travel $150

The Council states that travel is not appropriate in this category. The Board states that these funds provide for the librarians to attend workshops to keep up with current trends and technological advances. Updated information is essential to the provision of thorough and efficient library services. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $150.

11-000-222-614 Educational Media Services - Art, Audio-visual - High School $330

The Council bases this reduction on the lack of expenditures in 1992-93 and the provision, after the reduction, of an amount slightly more than that in 1993-94. The Board states that the reduction by the Council will not allow purchases for any special requests. To provide stability in budgeting, requests should be thoroughly considered during the budget development process. In a budget appeal, funds cannot be provided for unanticipated requests for audiovisual materials. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $330.

11-000-222-614 Educational Media Services-Audiovisual- $600
High School

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that some 1992-93 expenditures were charged to different accounts and that these funds are necessary for slide presentations for award ceremonies, photos of special events, and repairs. The Board does not, however, provide any specific detail to justify the additional funds. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $600.

11-000-222-614 Educational Media Services-Library Audio- $532 visual - High School

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures and the 1993-94 budgeted amount. The Board states that 1992-93 funds were transferred to the "new Audio-Visual account," but it is not clear what that means. The Board also states that monies had to be added to the 1993-94 account for purchases and upgrading equipment. The Board again, however, does not provide any specific detail to justify the need for the additional funds. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $532.

11-000-222-890 Educational Media Services-Miscellaneous $2,626
Expenditures

The Council states that the budgeted amounts are inappropriate in view of past expenditures and that the amount provided after the reduction is thirty-five percent (35%) higher than the 1993-94 budgeted amount. The Board states that the funds are necessary for the district to move from a contracted elementary media program to a district-level program and at the middle/high school for actual needs. The Board, again, fails to provide specific detail to justify the need for the additional funds. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $2,626.

11-000-230-331 General Administrative - Legal Services $25,000

The Council bases the reduction on 1992-93 expenditures and states that the board attorney does not have to attend meetings as frequently as in the past two years. The Board states that the Council did not consider the many ongoing grievance, arbitration and unfair practice charges. The Commissioner sustains the $25,000 reduction.

11-000-230-530 General Administrative - Telephone $7,000

The Council bases this reduction on 1992-93 expenditures and a recommendation for economizing. The Board states that the budgeted amount was based on projections and discussions with the telephone company to determine a reasonable amount and the need for additional telephone lines and modems to bring the schools online with the accounting system. Also, the amount provided by Council is less than the budgeted amount in 1993-94. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $7,000.

11-000-230-530 General Administrative - Postage $5,000

The Council, again, bases this reduction on 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that the budgeted amount is necessary for identified needs. The Board does not provide any specific detail or justify the need for the additional funds. The amount provided, after the reduction, is more than seven percent (7%) greater than the 1993-94 budgeted amount. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $5,000.

11-000-230-610 General Administrative - Superintendent $2,000
Office Supplies

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that the supplies are carefully scrutinized and that the 1994-95 proposed amount is a thirty percent (30%) decrease from 1993-94. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $2,000 reduction.

11-000-230-610	General Administrative - Superintendent	$500
	Miscellaneous Supplies
11-000-230-610	General Administrative - Board Meetings/ Workshops	$500

The Council states that the amount provided after the reduction is sufficient for a miscellaneous account. The Board states that the amounts budgeted are the same as in 1993-94, but it does not identify what the funds are used for nor why the funds are needed. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,000.

11-000-230-890	General Administrative - Superintendent's Mem./Reg./Dues	$500
----------------	---	-------

The Council bases this reduction on 1992-93 expenditures and the 1993-94 budgeted amount. The Board states that the amount budgeted for 1994-95 is based on actual costs and required by contract. Since contractual obligations must be met, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $500.

11-000-230-890	General Administrative - Election - Miscellaneous Expenditures	$500
----------------	---	-------

The Council states that this reduction provides for the same funds that have been "historically" budgeted. The Council does not acknowledge that the 1992-93 expenditures exceeded the amount budgeted. The Board states that additional election workers will be hired because of long lines encountered in past elections. The Board obviously has a responsibility to provide funds for the efficient operation of the annual school election. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $500.

----------------	---	----------

The Council bases this reduction on a replacement principal being hired at an entry level salary and the provision from negotiations of a three percent (3%) salary increase. The Board states the proposed budget includes funds for all principals, including the new person who was hired at a salary higher than entry level, and the provision for "reasonable" salary increases. The amount budgeted in 1994-95 is the same as budgeted in 1993-94, so it would seem that the savings from retirement were already considered. It is also necessary to budget funds for effective negotiations. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $16,126.

11-000-240-103	School Administration - Salaries-Principal-High School	$13,894
----------------	--	----------

The Council bases this reduction on the same position as noted above, replacement of a principal who left and the provision of a three percent (3%) salary increase. The Board states the new principal has not yet been selected and that funds must be provided for the appointment of a qualified individual and for salary increases. The Commissioner agrees that there must be some reasonable flexibility in the budgeting for the employment of new staff and for contract negotiations. The amount proposed by the Board for this account is more than eleven thousand dollars ($11,000) less than that budgeted in 1993-94. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $13,894 reduction.

11-000-240-105	School Administration - Salaries-Sec'y to Middle School Principal	$23,732
----------------	---	----------

The Council states that the middle school principal requested by the district in the cap waiver is not necessary and, therefore, a secretary to that position is not required. The Board states that this position has existed for over forty (40) years and is the only secretarial support for the middle school staff. The Commissioner agrees that the services of a secretary for the middle school staff are essential, regardless of whether or not the middle school principal position is filled. Assigning those duties to other staff who already have specific assignments would not provide efficiency of services based upon the evidence presented. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $23,732.

11-000-240-105	School Administration - Overtime and Sub. School Secretary	$1,500
----------------	---	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the provision of eighteen percent (18%) more than the 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that monies for secretarial overtime and substitutes were not previously budgeted appropriately for the projected needs. The Board states that "the secretarial pool is the one used to complete project-specific clerical support." This very generalized statement does not support the need for any additional funds. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,500.

11-000-240-890	School Administration - Administrative Dues - Various	$3,760
----------------	--	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the absence of any amount budgeted or expended in this account in prior years. The Board states that these dues are contractual obligations. On this basis, the Commissioner must order the restoration of the $3,760 reduction.

11-000-260-100	Operation and Maintenance - Salaries - Regular Custodians	$31,895
----------------	--	----------

The Council bases this reduction on the elimination of one custodial position and a reduction of twenty-five percent (25%) in overtime costs. The Board states that the existing custodial staff is necessary to properly maintain the buildings and that one custodian also does outside grounds maintenance work. The Board states that the overtime is for athletics, cocurricular activities, emergencies, snow removal, and community groups. The fees charged for community groups are budgeted as revenues. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner sustains the $31,895 reduction.

11-000-260-100	Operation and Maintenance - Salaries - Lunch/Hall Aides	$12,398
----------------	--	----------

The Council bases this reduction on the elimination of one hall monitor position. The Board states that two hall monitors are essential in the high school, which has eighty (80) classrooms on four (4) floors in three (3) wings, to provide safety and security for students, staff, and buildings. Based on the information presented and the necessity for safety and security in buildings, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $12,398.

11-000-260-100	Operation and Maintenance - Summer Maintenance Projects	$7,500
----------------	--	---------

The Council states that summer maintenance projects should be performed by the regular maintenance and custodial staff. The Council also states that the Borough will, upon request, provide community service workers for routine projects such as painting, sweeping, etc., and it recommends further discussions on sharing services. The Board responds that summer maintenance projects are completed by district staff and that additional workers are hired for painting, cleaning, and other duties. The Commissioner strongly supports the concept of shared services with reduced expenditures, particularly in this area where both parties agree on the necessity of properly maintained buildings and grounds. Based upon the evidence presented, Commissioner orders the restoration of the $7,500; however, the Commissioner urges both parties to discuss the possibility of shared services for subsequent years.

11-000-260-590	Operation and Maintenance - Other Vehicular Expenditures	$4,000
----------------	---	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the provision of a forty-five percent (45%) increase over the 1992-93 expenditures. The Board states that $3,000 was budgeted for each of its three (3) vehicles to provide funds for maintenance repair and daily operation costs including gasoline. However, two (2) of those three (3) vehicles are new this year, the 4W-D snow plow pick-up, listed by the Board in its Position Statement, and the new school bus included in the capital outlay budget. These two new vehicles should not require maintenance repair expenses and daily operation costs of $3,000 each. The Commissioner, therefore, sustains the reduction of $4,000.

11-000-260-590	Operation and Maintenance - Other Mis- cellaneous Service and Expenditure	$5,000
----------------	--	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the fact that the 1992-93 expenditures were less than the amount budgeted that year. The Board states that this account is $5,000 less than prior years, and that the funds are necessary for the proper custodial/maintenance services in the schools. A review of the budget document submitted in this matter confirms that the amount proposed by the Board is $5,000 less than that budgeted in 1992-93, the year cited by Council. The amount proposed by the Board is also almost $3,000 less than the 1992-93 expenditures. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $5,000 reduction.

11-000-260-610	Operation and Maintenance - Ground Supplies	$2,000
----------------	--	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures and the provision of a greater than 260% increase over that amount. The Board states that the requested amount for 1994-95 is less than the amount budgeted in 1993-94 and that the funds are necessary to maintain the school grounds. The Board's generalized assertion does not address the fact that the funds provided by Council significantly exceed the 1992-93 expenditures and provide a more than reasonable rate of increase for the two-year period. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $2,000.

11-000-260-610	Operation and Maintenance - Custodian Supplies - All Schools	$4,800
----------------	---	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the provision of "a more logical" daily cost-per-school. The Board states that the amount requested is a reduction of approximately eighteen percent (18%) from the 1993-94 budget and that the funds are necessary for specific supplies listed by the Board. The amount requested by the Board is also less than the 1992-93 audited expenses. Certainly, appropriate supplies are essential for the proper custodial services in schools. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $4,800.

11-000-260-610	Operation and Maintenance - Other Expen- diture - Repair Buildings	$3,800
----------------	---	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the provision of an eight percent (8%) increase over the 1993-94 adjusted budget. The Board states that this account was already reduced from the amount budgeted in 1993-94 and that the funds requested are essential to make necessary repair to the buildings which are over fifty (50) years old. Since proper repairs of buildings are essential and the Board's request for 1994-95 is less than the budgeted amount in 1993-94 and also less than the 1992-93 expenditures, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $3,800 reduction.

11-000-260-620	Operation and Maintenance - Electricity- Three Schools	$6,000
----------------	---	---------

The Council states that the reduction provides an eight percent (8%) increase over 1992-93 expenditures and that conservation of energy is practical and should be encouraged. The Board states that the electrical costs include electrical heat in the four (4) additional modular units at one school site. Based on this information and the fact that proper lighting levels must be maintained in schools to comply with state code, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $6,000.

11-000-260-620	Operation and Maintenance - Heat-Five Schools	$8,000
----------------	--	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the 1992-93 expenditures and recommends conservation of energy. The Board states that the amount budgeted is necessary based on the 1992-93 audited expenditures and the 1993-94 expenditures. It is without question that the funds budgeted for heat must be estimated, with the actual costs dependent upon the severity of the winter. Also, buildings must maintain temperatures in compliance with state code. The Commissioner orders the restoration of the $8,000.

11-000-270-890	Student Transportation - Field Trips- High School	$1,000
11-000-270-890	Student Transportation - Field Trips- Special Education	800

The Council reduces the line for high school field trips and adds funds for special education field trips, which, they state, have not been funded in the past. The Board states that special education students are included in regular field trips. The Board also states that all field trips are planned to relate directly to classroom curricula. It would seem appropriate and educationally sound to provide for some combined field trips and for some that are specifically for special education students. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $1,000 and orders the funding of $800 for special education field trips.

11-000-290-104	Business and Other Services - Salaries- Office of Business Administration	$24,000
----------------	--	----------

The Council bases this reduction on the elimination of the additional employee proposed in the budget. The Board states that the proposed position is for one-half payroll and one-half personnel, and that the district now has no personnel office and only one person in payroll. The Board states that the district is "negatively impacted by understaffing." Sufficient support staff is essential for the efficient operation of a school district, but the Board has apparently functioned with existing staff and does not cite any specific negative impact. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $24,000.

11-000-290-340	Business and Other Services - Equipment Service Contract	$2,000
----------------	---	---------

The Council bases this reduction on the provision of a slight increase over the 1993-94 adjusted budget. The Board states that these funds are necessary for service contracts on computers, mailing machines, typewriters, etc., and that more funds will be required as more office functions are automated. Service contracts are important for the proper maintenance of equipment, but the Board's generalized statement does not provide any specific need for the additional funds. The Commissioner sustains the reduction of $2,000.

11-000-290-590 Business and Other Services - Travel- Board Office $500

The Council states that this is a "redundant" account with "no prior spending history." Council also states that travel should be minimized. The Board states the amount budgeted is the same as in 1993-94 and is a contractual obligation to the school business administrator for travel to meetings and conferences. Based on this information, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $500 reduction.

Thus, for the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner determines to restore and to sustain the reductions in the General Fund tax levy appealed herein, as summarized by the chart below:

TOTALS		$312,592	$211,669

NOTE: As noted in the totals after all the reductions were itemized, the total reductions equalled $523,461, which was reduced by the $800 added by Council for the special education field trips. When this $800 is included as above in all the monies reviewed, the total of the two columns then equals $524,261.

II. CAP WAIVER

The Board had presented a cap waiver request to the voters in the amount of $619,761.

Grades 1-6 Teachers $220,887

The Board requested monies to retain art and music programs on the elementary level and to provide for an additional section of third grade because of increased enrollment. The Council did not dispute the need for the position; but, because of an error in its calculations, did recommend a reduction to the requested amount. The positions included in this request are one full- and one part-time (.8) vocal music teacher, one full- and one half-time art teacher, and one third grade teacher. The Board states that the salaries for these positions are all actual except for the third grade position, which has an estimated salary. It asserts that the art and music teaching positions have been part of the elementary program and should be continued in order to maintain a thorough and efficient education. In addition, the students entering third grade were served in three classes in second grade. Maintaining three class sections for these students provides educational benefits and complies with requirements on classroom occupancy.

The Commissioner determines that the $220,887 is essential for the maintenance of a thorough and efficient educational program.

Instructional Supplies

$10,403

These supplies are for the art and music programs discussed above and are, therefore, essential with the approval of those programs.

Attendance/Social Work Salaries

$18,921

The Board requests these funds to continue the position of district attendance officer, which it states is necessary to address truancy and residency issues. District efforts to ensure attendance at school by all able students is certainly essential to the provision of an effective educational program for those students. It is also a district responsibility to ensure that those students benefiting from the educational program entitled as residents or tuition students for those services. The Commissioner determines that the funds of $18,921 are essential.

Media Salaries

$40,000

The Board requests these funds for one elementary media specialist for the three elementary schools as part of the implementation of a media program with instruction at this level. The Board has in the past contracted for library services with the community library which does not include any instruction. Educational research has verified the benefits of elementary library programs with instructional services. The district, in this request, is attempting to begin an initiative to provide those services and ensure a thorough and efficient educational program. The Commissioner finds that while the program implementation may be worthwhile, the Board has not established that the $40,000 is essential within the narrow parameters for inclusion in the cap waiver.

Salaries of Principals

$75,000

The Board requests these funds to provide for a middle school principal position. The Board states that grades 7-12 are currently housed in one school under the supervision of one high school principal. It asserts that a separate administrator in the middle school will allow the "unique needs of middle school age students to be addressed." The Council in its submission on the cap waiver objects to this proposed expenditure and states that the building currently has several administrators and does not need another. Although the Commissioner does understand the Board's position and does recognize the potential benefits of a middle school principal, the position is not essential for a thorough and efficient education with the present grade-level arrangement. The Commissioner, therefore, does not approve the $75,000 requested for this position.

Benefits

$60,000

The Board requests these funds for the employee benefits obligation for the positions in the cap waiver. Based on the approval of some and the disapproval of one, the Commissioner determines that $48,000 will be required for benefits for the approved position.

Media Equipment

$5,550

These funds are requested to provide one computer and printer in each elementary media center. Again, media center services have been determined to be valuable in a thorough and efficient educational program. Also, electronic equipment must be provided to effectively serve students in this advanced technological age. The Commissioner determines that these funds of $5,550 are essential.

Facilities Construction Services

$189,000

The Board requests these funds to address specific facility deficiencies, including the installation of a two-hood suppression system in the elementary fire alarm systems, safety renovations to elementary playgrounds, and boiler repairs in all schools. The Council in its submission suggests that these items be deferred until decisions on new construction are made and then put in a bond referendum at that time. The items listed by the Board are not discretionary and must be completed to ensure the health and safety of students and staff and to comply with fire and construction codes. The Commissioner determines that these funds of $189,000 are essential.

In summary, upon review of the documentation submitted on this matter, the Commissioner finds and determines that the record amply establishes that $492,761 of the cap waiver monies sought by the Board are necessary to provide a thorough and efficient educational system. The Commissioner also finds and determines that there are no excess surplus funds to be appropriated and that reallocation of funds within the district's maximum permissible budget is not possible. (Board of Education of the Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, Bergen County, decided by State Board of Education, July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, decided by the State Board of Education, July 6, 1994.)

Accordingly, the Somerset County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments as set forth below to reflect a total of $7,816,460 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes by the Borough of Bound Brook for the 1994-95 school year.

V.	:	DECISION
LEO KLAGHOLZ, COMMISSIONER OF	:

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 22, 1995

For the Appellant, Peggy M. O'Dowd, Esq.

For the Respondent, John Worthington, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On April 10, 1995, the Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park (hereinafter "Lincoln Park" or "Board") filed a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education from a determination of the Commissioner of Education rejecting the Board's challenge to a "noninstructional cost penalty" applied by the Department of Education against the Board's 1995-96 State aid. On May 11, 1995, the Board filed an appeal brief, along with an explanation for the late filing of its brief. At the same time, it requested that the briefing schedule be placed in abeyance because legislation was being proposed which the Lincoln Park Board believed was likely to affect the outcome of its appeal. That request was granted.

On August 23, 1995, the Governor signed into law the School Efficiency Program Act, L.1995, c. 236, which established a program to penalize excessive administrative expenditures and to reward administrative efficiency in the public schools. Lincoln Park, however, failed to advise us as to whether it wanted to proceed with the appeal or withdraw it. Counsel for the State Board then attempted to ascertain how the Lincoln Park Board wished to proceed and, by letter dated November 9, 1995, requested the counsel for the Lincoln Park Board to advise us accordingly. Counsel for the Lincoln Park Board did not respond to that request. On March 21, 1996, Lincoln Park's counsel was again requested in a telephone conversation to advise us of the Board's intentions. Once again, counsel has failed to provide us with any information.

In view of the counsel for the Board's repeated failure to provide us with the information we have requested regarding the Lincoln Park Board's intentions in this matter, and given the length of time that has passed since we accommodated the Board by placing this matter in abeyance at its request, we dismiss this appeal.¹

Date of mailing APR 08 1996

¹ Although counsel for the Board indicated in the telephone call placed to her on March 21 that she no longer represents the Board, she has never formally advised us of such status or submitted a substitution of counsel. Consequently, she remains the attorney of record in this matter.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed $21,000 in line-item reductions made by Township pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the proposed 1994-95 budget at the annual school election on April 19, 1994.

Commissioner directed restoration of $18,000 in specified line-item accounts, but ordered such restorations to be funded through appropriation of surplus rather than raising of additional tax levy. Tax levy for General Fund purposes is to remain as certified by the Township.

 TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MANSFIELD, WARREN COUNTY, :
 RESPONDENT. :
 : DECISION

David A. Wallace, Esq., (Stiles & Wallace) for Petitioner
 Edward M. Dunne, Esq., (Valentino, Dunne & Stein) for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 15, 1994 through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Mansfield Township Board of Education (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.1 et seq. The Board sought restoration, on grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient education, of reductions made by the Mansfield Township Committee (Township) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following voter rejection on April 19, 1994 of the Board's proposed General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year. The amounts in dispute in this matter are as follows:

Proposed Tax Levy Adopted by Board of Education		Amount of Tax Levy Certified by Governing Body
General Fund	$2,418,717	General Fund	$2,397,717
Amount of Reduction by Governing Body		Amount of Reduction in Dis- pute Before the Commissioner
General Fund	$21,000	General Fund	$21,000

On June 23, 1994, an Answer to the Petition was submitted by the Township through the municipal clerk. The Director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes wrote to the Township on July 6, 1994 regarding the incomplete form of the Answer. A reply was received from the Township through the municipal attorney advising that the Township had decided not to employ the services of its attorney for this matter and requesting an extension of fourteen (14) days for the Township to address the deficiencies in its Answer. The Director wrote to the Township advising that the additional copies and certification required to be submitted with the Answer should be provided immediately, as these were documents requiring no preparation so as to warrant granting of an extension.

In the interim, as a result of the State Board of Education's July 7, 1993 decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford and its July 6, 1994 decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, wherein the State Board ruled that review of budgets with cap waivers must include a determination on whether or not reallocation within the district's maximum permissible budget was possible and whether and to what extent the specific programs at issue were essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, the county superintendent was directed to submit a sworn affidavit setting forth an explanation and documentation of the review that led to inclusion in the General Fund tax levy of an approved Commissioner's cap waiver of $140,604 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28. The county superintendent's affidavit, with supporting documentation, was filed on July 31, 1994.

On August 25, 1994, a letter was received from the Township through the municipal attorney advising that, notwithstanding its earlier determination not to employ the services of counsel, the Township had now requested that he file an Answer in this matter; accordingly, he sought some "indulgence" in the time allowed to file such Answer. On September 16, 1994, the Township through the municipal clerk filed two (2) copies of the same documents submitted as its Answer on June 23, 1994.

On October 14, 1994, the Director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes sent a letter to both parties advising that, notwithstanding that a corrected Answer had not yet been filed by the Township, to avoid any further delays, the parties' Position Statements must be filed within twenty (20) days.

On October 17, 1994, through the municipal clerk, the Township submitted a letter dated September 23, 1994, two (2) copies of the Township's school budget resolution and a certification of delivery to the Board. The reductions in this submission, however, totalled $37,500, not $21,000 as previously identified for appeal. One item in the resolution was a reduction of $26,500, the difference between the two numbers above, which reduction was apparently eliminated prior to final certification of the tax levy by the Township. This elimination was never explained by the parties. Position Statements were filed by the Board on November 9, 1994 and by the Township on November 14, 1994. The submission by the Township also included a list of reductions totalling $47,500, a figure differing from both the amount given in the original resolution's list of line-item reductions and the amount given as the final aggregate reduction.

The reductions actually made in the General Fund tax levy, verified by the documents submitted with the Petition of Appeal and initial Answer, are as follows:

Account Number	Title	Rationale	Reduction
12-000-100-730	Capital Outlay Equipment	One Computer for each of the ten (10) classrooms to access library data is not necessary.	$5,000
11-000-260-620	Energy	Surplus in account indicates reduction warranted.	3,000
11-190-100-610	General Suppl.	Spending patterns over two years show increase to be excessive and student population forecast not accurate.	3,000
11-000-100-566	Tuition-Private Schools	Substantial increase for minimum increase in student enrollment and account traditionally over-budgeted.	10,000
TOTAL			$21,000

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford

Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305
(1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

It has also been determined in the State Board of Education decision of July 1, 1992 in the matter of Board of Education of the Township of Rochelle Park, Bergen County that the decision on the adequacy of a budget proposal cannot be based on procedural grounds alone. In this case, therefore, the Township's failure to submit timely and accurate documents cannot be the decisive factor in the decision.

Mindful, then, of the balance to be applied in the standard of review, the Commissioner makes the following determinations with respect to the reductions in the General Fund tax levy effectuated by the Township.

12-000-100-730 Capital Outlay - Equipment $5,000

The Township contends that one computer for each of ten (10) classrooms to access library data is not necessary. The Board states that the proposed computers are part of the district's long-range plan to improve programs in the area of technology and to address the State's "educational technology plan." The Board further states that the network provision was included to provide access to software by all workstations, which ultimately saves on the cost of software and printers and also provides equal access to all students. Without question, technological education is essential to a thorough and efficient educational system to prepare students to function effectively in this age of advancing technology. The Board herein has demonstrated a concern for fiscal prudence, and for stability in budgeting, by developing a long-range plan to meet this educational need. The Township's argument that the Board presently has one (1) computer on a cart in each of six (6) wings reflects neither an understanding of the need for effective educational programs in this area nor an appreciation of what is required to sustain them. The Commissioner orders restoration of the $5,000 reduction.

11-000-260-620 Energy $3,000

The Township bases its reduction on what it believes to be a surplus in this account. The Board states that the reduction provides less funds than were budgeted in 1993-94 and that the proposed budget for heat must be estimated because of variances in weather patterns. It is not clear to what "surplus" the Township is referring. A review of the budget document submitted in this matter indicates that the amount proposed by the Board is an increase of less than 3.75% over actual expenditures in 1992-93. The Commissioner believes that this increase over a two-year period appears appropriate and agrees that heating expenditures must be estimated to assure proper heating levels. The Commissioner, therefore, orders the restoration of the $3,000 reduction.

11-190-11-610 General Supplies $3,000

The Township bases this reduction on district spending patterns over the last two years and the fact that student enrollment did not increase as projected. The Board states that the amount after reduction is an increase of $4,150 over the amount budgeted in 1993-94 and that enrollment is increasing from 622 students in 1993-94 to 663 students in 1994-95. The Board also cites State statistics on spending in this area. It is certainly indisputable that sufficient supplies must be provided to maintain a thorough and efficient educational system. However, the increase over 1993-94 provided after the Township reduction is almost eight percent (8%), which is greater than the enrollment increase cited by the Board. Also, the amount of $57,150 in this account after the reduction is significantly greater than the actual expenditures of $20,821 in 1992-93. The Board also does not provide any specific detail on why the additional funds are necessary. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner sustains the reduction of $3,000.

11-000-100-566 Tuition - Private Schools $10,000

The Township bases this reduction on what it considers to be a substantial increase for a minimum increase in student enrollment. It also states that this account has traditionally been over-budgeted. The Board states that out-of-district special education placements have increased from five (5) in 1993-94 to nine (9) in 1994-95. The Board also states that funds must be budgeted for contingencies in this area to provide for unexpected placements. The Township's position is based on what it considers to be a minimal increase in student enrollment. However, the documents submitted by the Board verify that the number of special education placements has almost doubled from 1993-94 to 1994-95. The Board's position that there must be provision for any unanticipated placements is appropriate, since the need for such educational services can arise during the year and must be addressed. Based on the information presented, the Commissioner orders the restoration of the $10,000 reduction.

Thus, for the reasons set forth above, the Commissioner determines to restore $18,000 and sustain $3,000 of the reductions to the General Fund tax levy appealed herein, as summarized by the chart below:

Account Number	Title	Restored	Sustained
12-000-100-730	Capital Outlay Equipment	$5,000	- 0 -
11-000-260-620	Energy	3,000	- 0 -
11-190-100-610	General Supplies	- 0 -	$3,000
11-000-100-566	Tuition-Private Schools	10,000	- 0 -
	TOTALS	$18,000	$3,000

Following review of the record of the appeal as set forth above, on December 16, 1994, the parties to this matter were notified that the Commissioner intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. In response to this notification, on December 23, 1994, the Board filed a letter objecting to such consideration. No filing was made by the Township.

The Board objected to use of the annual audit on grounds that budget disputes are to be resolved on the basis of the financial circumstances known to the governing body at the time it acted to reduce the budget and to the Board at the time the budget was prepared and submitted to the voters, and that audited surplus amounts are properly considered in review by the Commissioner and County Superintendent of subsequent-year budgets, not budgets currently under appeal. The Commissioner rejects this argument, noting that, notwithstanding that the Commissioner's review does in fact focus on the merits of specific line-item reductions and that certain line items may be found to be necessary for T&E, it would be manifestly unfair to consider raising tax levies in the wake of express voter disapproval when a board is holding surplus over and above a level sufficient to meet reasonable contingencies.

Upon review of the Board's surplus in this case, the Commissioner notes that, of a projected fund balance of $328,930 as indicated in its 1994-95 Budget Statement, the Board had appropriated $200,000 for General Fund purposes, leaving a projected undesignated surplus of $128,930. However, upon audit, the amount of undesignated unreserved surplus stood at $273,298, more than twice the amount projected by the Board, even after the $200,000 appropriation. Therefore, the Commissioner finds that the $18,000 in line-item restorations resulting from his determinations herein can easily be funded by appropriation from surplus rather than increased tax levy.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth above, notwithstanding the line-item restorations made by the Commissioner, the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy for the Mansfield Township School District shall stand as certified to the Warren County Board of Taxation by the Mansfield Township Committee.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, February 10, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, David A. Wallace, Esq.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Valentino, Dunne & Stein (Edward M. Dunne, Esq., of Counsel)

Upon our review of the terms of the settlement proposed by the parties and the Commissioner's letter decision of August 7, 1995, in which he approved the settlement as it related to the Board's budget appeal for 1995-96, the State Board of Education consents to withdrawal of the appeal currently pending before us with respect to the Board's budget for 1994-95.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, superintendent employed pursuant to a three-year contract under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15 et seq., alleged Board's unilateral termination of his employment violated the tenure rights conferred by N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2, notwithstanding that the Board upon termination paid him the balance of salary due for the remainder of his contract.

ALJ found that 1991 amendments to superintendent tenure law were intended to provide flexibility to boards of education in the choice of chief school administrator and that there was no prohibition against terminating a superintendent's employment without resort to tenure charges, so long as the financial obligations of the employment contract were honored by the Board. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner modified the initial decision, holding that under applicable law the actual employment of a duly contracted superintendent can only be terminated through filing of tenure charges, resignation or separation by mutual agreement; however, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-9, the Board may relieve him/her of performance of duties for the remainder of the contract period upon due notice of nonrenewal given pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.1.

Record Closed: July 5, 1994

Decided: November 17, 1994*

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

This matter commenced on September 24, 1993 with the filing of a petition of appeal by Robert M. Harrington (hereinafter petitioner) alleging that the Board of Education of the

* Extensions of time for issuing the Initial Decision were requested and granted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c).

Township of Clinton (hereinafter respondent) had terminated his employment as superintendent in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 and the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 to 8. An answer was filed on behalf of respondent on November 1, 1993, and on November 8, 1993 the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On February 10, 1994 respondent filed with the undersigned a notice of motion and supporting papers to dismiss the petition based upon the entire controversy doctrine. On February 23, 1994 a prehearing conference was conducted by telephone conference call at which time it was determined that petitioner would respond to the motion to dismiss and also file a cross-motion for summary decision. Petitioner filed his responding papers and cross-motion for summary decision on March 21, 1994. Also on that date, petitioner withdrew his claims with respect to respondent's alleged violations of the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 to 8. Respondent filed a letter memorandum in response on April 11, 1994 and a reply was filed on behalf of petitioner on April 25, 1994. Oral argument on the cross-motions was conducted by telephone conference call on June 14, 1994, following which both parties submitted supplemental memoranda. Respondent's submissions were received on June 24, 1994 and July 1, 1994. Petitioner's submissions were received on June 22, 1994 and July 5, 1994, whereupon the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The facts relevant to a determination of this matter are not in dispute and I therefore find the following as uncontested facts.

Petitioner was hired by respondent as its superintendent by contract dated April 6, 1990 for the period from June 1, 1990 through May 31, 1993. Petitioner's employment as superintendent was renewed by contract dated April 8, 1993 for the period from June 1, 1993 through July 1, 1996. The provisions of that contract provided in pertinent part as follows:

ARTICLE III

BENEFITS IN ADDITION TO SALARY

E. Harrington shall be entitled to an annual vacation of twenty-five (25) working days per year earned annually at the rate of 2 per month worked. In the event that his contract is terminated prior to its expiration, earned, accumulated and unused vacation time shall be paid on a prorated basis (days earned x 1/240).

J. In case of resignation or retirement in good standing, Harrington shall be entitled to severance pay based upon the days remaining in his vacation and sick leave bank. For up to 30 available vacation and 30 sick days, Harrington will receive one hundred percent (100%) of his current per diem salary computed as 1/240 of his annual salary. No payment, however, for either category, vacation or sick leave, may exceed the gross sum of $10,000.

ARTICLE V

TERMINATION AND NON RENEWAL

B. With regard to the termination of the contract, Mr. Harrington enjoys all the rights provided to him by New Jersey and Federal Law. In the event the Board elects to terminate the employment of Harrington prior to the expiration date of this contract, it is understood that Harrington shall exercise due diligence and make reasonable efforts to obtain re-employment in a comparable professional position. If Harrington obtains comparable employment elsewhere prior to July 1, 1996, the salary received by him in such comparable employment shall be deducted from the payments made to Harrington by the Board.

C. Harrington agrees that he shall not terminate this agreement except upon giving the Board at least ninety (90) days prior written notice of such election to terminate. Such notice shall at the least be sent via Certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Board Secretary.

ARTICLE VI

MODIFICATION OF CONTRACT TERMS

The terms and conditions of the Contract shall not be modified, except by the written consent of both parties hereto.

Shortly after the signing of the new contract, a dispute arose between petitioner and some of respondent's board members, the particulars of which are not material to the within proceedings. On June 28, 1993 respondent voted to terminate petitioner's employment and pay him out what was due and owing for the remainder of the contract term. On July 15, 1993 petitioner filed suit in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey against respondent and various individually-named defendants (Civil Action No. 93-3166) alleging, inter alia, that respondent's actions at its meeting of June 28, 1993 violated petitioner's rights under the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-3 to 8. Petitioner filed the within matter with the Commissioner of Education on September 24, 1993. As noted in the procedural history hereinabove, on March 21, 1994 petitioner withdrew his claims concerning the Conscientious Employee Protection Act in the within matter and accordingly, the only issue remaining for determination herein is whether respondent's actions in terminating petitioner's employment without filing tenure charges violated his rights pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 to 26.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS THE PETITION

“The entire controversy doctrine” reflects a strong policy in favor of the adjudication of all components of a legal controversy at one time in one litigation. The doctrine has been established both by case law and court rule. See Cogdell v. Hospital Center at Orange, 116 N.J. 7, 15-16 (1989) and R. 4:30A. The doctrine requires that a person assert all related claims against an adversary, including all affirmative defenses, counter claims and cross-claims or be estopped from later asserting an omitted component. Aetna Ins. Co. v. Gilchrist Brothers, Inc., 85 N.J. 550, 556-57 (1981). The entire controversy doctrine serves the aim of avoiding delay, expense and waste incident to the fragmentation of litigation. It promotes efficiency and fairness to the parties, prevents harassment, and avoids congestion in court calendars. “A disposition that reflects only a partial glimpse of the merits, . . . or that resolves only a segment of the controversy does not fully effectuate the judicial ideal of complete, not piecemeal adjudications. Cogdell, supra, at 23.

Respondent asserts that the entire controversy doctrine required petitioner to bring all his claims against respondent in the federal district court action and that petitioner’s failure to do so bars the within action. In support of its position, respondent cites Blazer Corp. v. N.J. Sports and Exposition Auth., 199 N.J. Super. 107 (App. Div. 1985), wherein the court held:

(A) plaintiff who brings an action in a federal court is obliged to include in his complaint all claims authorized under state law arising out of the same controversy or he will be barred by the single controversy doctrine from thereafter asserting the state claims in state court. Id. at 112.

Respondent suggests that upon dismissal of the within action petitioner could reassert his claims in federal court, again citing Blazer, supra at 112, wherein the court explained:

When a federal court declines to exercise jurisdiction over state claims that must be asserted under the single controversy doctrine, the doctrine will not bar reassertion of those claims in a state court action. We have held that plaintiffs who asserted related federal and state claims in federal court were free to reassert in state court the state claims that the federal court declined to adjudicate. Ferger v. Local 483, 94 N.J. Super., 554 (Ch. Div. 1967), aff'd, 97 N.J. Super., 505 (App. Div. 1967), certif. den., 51 N.J. 180 (1968). The single controversy doctrine is, after all, “one of judicial fairness and will be invoked in that spirit.” Crispin v. Volkswagenwerk, A.G., 96 N.J. at 343.

The essence of petitioner’s response is that requiring him to take such a course of action would be a futile exercise since the federal court would most certainly refrain from interpreting N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2, effective August 24, 1991, and as yet not the subject of any published New Jersey court or administrative decision. I agree. It would almost certainly not advance the interests the entire controversy doctrine is designed to promote, specifically, judicial economy and fairness to the litigants, by dismissing the within petition, waiting for the federal courts to decline to exercise jurisdiction and then refile or reactivating the within matter. In United Mine Workers of America v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715, 16 L. ed. 2d. 218, 228 (1966), cited by petitioner, the Court explained that “(n)eedless decisions of state law should be avoided both as a matter of comity and to promote justice between the parties, by procuring for them a surer-footed, reading of applicable law.” Where state claims predominate, the state claims may be dismissed without prejudice by the federal courts and left for resolution to state tribunals. Id. at 228. Relying upon Gibbs, supra., the court in Shaffer v. Board of School Directors, 730 F. 2d. 910 (3rd Cir. 1984), held that it was improper for the federal district court to have maintained jurisdiction of state claims involving the application of a state school law question of first impression. The court explained, “[W]here the underlying issue of state law is a question of first impression with important implications for public education in Pennsylvania, factors weighing in favor of state court adjudication certainly predominate.” Id. at 1139. See also, Williams v. Red Bank Board of Ed., 662 F. 2d. 1008, 1017 (3rd Cir. 1981) wherein the court, noting that New Jersey’s interest in education was a substantial one, stated, “Any intervention by the federal courts into the functioning of the tenure scheme would seriously hinder New Jersey in its attempt to fulfill its commitment to provide public education.” In that case, the district court was directed to retain the federal issues and stay their resolution until state proceedings were terminated. Since the only issue remaining in petitioner’s case before the Commissioner of Education is whether respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 by terminating petitioner’s employment without filing tenure charges pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 to 26, I CONCLUDE that state tribunals are the appropriate forum for resolution of this issue and for providing guidance to New Jersey’s educational community concerning interpretation of this new law. For these reasons respondent’s motion to dismiss the petition of appeal is hereby DENIED.

CROSS-MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY DECISION

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, the rule governing motions for summary decision, provides:

(b) The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits. The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. If the adverse party does not so respond, a summary decision, if appropriate, shall be entered.

The now classic statement of the standards for granting or denying summary judgment set forth in Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954), explains that the procedure is designed to provide a prompt, businesslike and inexpensive method of disposing of any cause which a discriminating search of the merits in the pleadings, depositions and admissions on file, together with the affidavits submitted on the motion, clearly shows not to present any genuine issue of material fact requiring disposition at a trial. In the present matter although there are some disputes concerning what transpired between April 8, 1993 and June 28, 1993, those facts are not material to a resolution of the only issue raised in this matter, and accordingly, this matter is ripe for summary decision.

N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2, the interpretation of which is at issue in this matter, provides:

During the term of any employment contract with the board, a superintendent shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming a superintendent or other just cause and then only in the manner prescribed by subarticle B of article 2 of chapter 6 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 to 26).

These provisions are part of an extensive revision of the law regarding tenure for superintendents of schools enacted by the Legislature, effective August 24, 1991. The legislation amended N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15, together with N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, and added N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20(b) through N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.5. The amendments removed life-time tenure for superintendents of schools* and substituted a contractual relationship. N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15, as amended, provides in pertinent part:

The board of education of a Type I district and of any Type II district, now having or hereafter authorized to have a superintendent of schools, may, by contract appoint, for a term of not less than three nor more than five years and expiring July 1, a superintendent of schools by the recorded roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board.

. . . .

N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.1 provides for automatic reappointment of the superintendent except in certain circumstances:

At the conclusion of the term of the initial contract or of any subsequent contract as hereinafter provided, the superintendent shall be deemed reappointed for another contracted term of the same duration as the previous contract unless either: a. the board by contract reappoints him for a different term which term shall be not less than three nor more than five years, in which event reappointments thereafter shall be deemed for the new term unless a different term is again specified; or b. at least one year prior to the expiration of the first or any subsequent contract the board shall notify the superintendent in writing that he will not be reappointed at the end of the current term, in which event his employment shall cease at the expiration of that term.

Accordingly, the Legislature has dictated two provisions which must be part of any contract with a superintendent, i.e., the term which must be not less than three nor more than five years and the non-reappointment notification which must be at least one year prior to the expiration of the then current contract. Petitioner asks the Commissioner herein to construe N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 as prohibiting a board of education from unilaterally terminating the employment contract and fulfilling its obligation under the contract by paying to the superintendent the amount of compensation he would have received had he served the remainder of the contract. In other words, petitioner wishes to interpret the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 to mean that once appointed, a superintendent can only be removed during the contractual period pursuant to the procedures set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 to 26 for inefficiency, incapacity or conduct unbecoming a superintendent or other just cause.

In support of its actions on June 28, 1993, respondent relies upon Article V subparagraph B in the contract entered into with petitioner on April 8, 1994, which provides that "in the event the Board elects to terminate the employment of Harrington prior to the expiration of this contract, it is understood that Harrington shall exercise due diligence and make reasonable efforts to obtain reappointment in a comparable, professional position." The contract then provides for whatever salary is earned in such a new comparable position to be deducted from the payments required to be made to petitioner by respondent. Respondent's position is succinctly summarized in its supplemental memorandum submitted following telephone oral argument as follows:

Inflicting the tenure dismissal process as the only option on school boards at the same time as dismantling tenure for superintendents seems at odds with the statutory intent. Certainly, if the Board were confronted with a clear and unmistakable tenure dismissal issue, for example, commission of crime or the like, dismissal could and should be accomplished as set forth in the tenure law. However, in the run-of-the mill subjective, conduct unbecoming a superintendent-type case, the intent of the Legislature clearly was to give boards of education a new tool to deal with such a problem. The Legislature, which is presumed to know what is encompassed in the arduous, time-consuming and expensive tenure removal process, could not have intended that that process apply to a superintendent with a three-year term. The process itself in many cases could encompass the entire term. The legislative remedy, as proposed by petitioner, is worse than the malady sought to be cured.

When questioned during oral argument about the meaning of Article V subparagraph B, petitioner argued that the contractual language should be interpreted to require mitigation by petitioner only if the parties mutually agreed to terminate the contract prior to its expiration. Accordingly, it appears that petitioner is not arguing that the new statutory provisions prohibit the parties to the contract from negotiating a "buy-out" of the contract, but rather only that it prohibits unilateral cancellation by the board even upon pay-out of the entire agreed upon amount.

The issue presented in the within matter is strictly one of statutory construction. Although the courts generally consider with deference the interpretation of the agency responsible for enforcing a statute, the construction of statutes is a judicial function, not an executive function, and a court is in no way bound by an agency's interpretation of a statute. Service Armanent Co. v. Hyland, 70 N.J. 550, 561 (1976); Petrucelli v. Board of Trustees, 211 N.J. Super. 280, 289 (App. Div. 1986). In addition, since this is a new statute there will be no long-standing interpretation by the Commissioner and the State Board to which the court's might defer. See State, Dept. of Envir. Protection v. Stavola, 103 N.J. 425, 435 (1986). Nevertheless, I CONCLUDE that it is appropriate for the Commissioner to consider this matter of first impression to provide his experience and expertise in the educational field to assist the courts who will undoubtedly be called upon to address this important and probably not infrequent issue concerning the proper interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 at some time in the not too distant future.

Well established principles of statutory construction direct one to look first to the statute's plain language to derive its meaning. Town of Morristown v. Woman's Club, 124 N.J. 605, 610 (1991). The plain meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 is that if a board wishes to terminate its obligations to a superintendent under contract it must file tenure charges pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 to 26. The statute does not say that buy-outs (consensual) or pay-outs (at the option of the board) are impermissible. It is silent on this issue.

The Assembly Education Committee Statement for Assembly No. 1131-L1991, c. 267, which is published with the statute in New Jersey Statutes Annotated and therefore is readily available to the legal community, includes the following statement about the bill as it existed on April 29, 1991, prior to final passage:

The bill does, however, authorize the board of education to terminate the contract with the superintendent upon paying to the superintendent the amount of compensation he would have received had he served the remainder of the contract period and the period of any contract for which he is deemed to have been reappointed.

The language to which the Assembly Education Committee statement refers stated:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this act to the contrary, the board of education shall have the right at any time, by the recorded roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board, to terminate the contract and the corresponding tenure of the superintendent granted pursuant to this act upon paying him the full amount of compensation which he would have received had he served the remaining period of his contract, and the amount of compensation he would have received had he served during the period of any contract for which he is deemed to have been reappointed in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of this amendatory and supplementary act.

This language was removed by Senate amendments on June 20, 1991 and the Senate amendments were adopted by the Assembly on June 30, 1991. The bill which was signed into law by Governor Florio on August 24, 1991, therefore, does not contain the language referred to in the published Assembly Education Committee Statement. Since the legislative history does not reveal the reason for removal of the language, it may be that the legislators thought the subject should be left for negotiation between the parties to the contract, or it may be that they did not wish to encourage buy-outs, or it may be that there were other motivations unrelated to the issue at hand. No controlling inference may be drawn from the absence of the provisions, i.e., legislative silence. Donaldson v. Board of Ed. of No. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974), fn. at page 240-241, commenting on Justice Mountain's dissenting opinion. In Donaldson the Court determined that a board of education was required to provide a non-tenured teacher with a statement of reasons for non-renewal even though provisions requiring such a statement of reasons were removed from the legislation prior to final passage. The case cited by petitioner in support of the opposite conclusion, i.e., that a controlling inference should be drawn from deletion of the provision, State v. Crawley, 90 N.J. 241 (1982), was a case involving revision of the criminal code and, therefore, the court concluded that the absence of a loitering proscription from the Code reflected a State policy to decriminalize such activity. Id. at 247. In that instance, however, unlike the present matter, there was only one inference to be drawn from the legislative removal of the provision.

In attempting to discover the legislative intention in any law, it is also proper to consider other laws which pertain to a similar subject matter and to consider the history of the statute prior to its enactment. Key Agency v. Continental Cas. Co., 31 N.J. 98, 103 (1959). The statements of the bill's sponsor, Assemblywoman Kalik, the Assembly Committee and Governor Florio upon signing all indicate that the legislation was designed to relieve boards of education (and taxpayers) of the tremendous financial burdens associated with removing a superintendent under life-time tenure in whom the Board has lost confidence; negotiated buy-outs in those circumstances were extraordinarily expensive. The new legislation was designed to offer boards more flexibility in terminating an unsatisfactory superintendent and to offer superintendents job security for the duration of the contract. By limiting the term of the contract, the Legislature limited the board's monetary exposure if the relationship did not work out. The legislation also provided that the board could advise the superintendent anytime after the onset of the contract, but not later than one year prior to its expiration, of the intention not to renew. It seems unreasonable to conclude that a board must either subject itself to the stress and expense of tenure proceedings or be forced to continue to work with a chief administrator it finds unsatisfactory for a period of up to five years after it has advised that it will be terminating the contract; five years may not seem like much in a lifetime, but it could span the entire high school career of two graduating classes, and that is a long time to suffer disharmony in a district. A more reasonable and practical interpretation of the new statutory scheme would allow for an option of remedies by the board: it could either file tenure charges pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 which, if successful, would terminate the board's obligations under the contract, or the board could voluntarily fulfill its obligations under the contract by providing the superintendent with all the benefits of her contract, but relieving her of her obligations thereunder. * Respondent notes that N.J.S.A. 18A:27-9, a prior enactment of the Legislature of which it is presumed to have been aware when it enacted N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15 and 18A:17-20.2, permits a board to determine whether a contractual employee shall continue to perform his duties during the period between the giving of the notice of termination and the actual date of termination of employment. Petitioner argues that N.J.S.A. 18A:27-9 does not apply, citing the well known cases which say that statutory tenure supersedes contractual terms. Those cases, particularly Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Ed., 90 N.J. 63 (1982), explained that once a staff member had fulfilled the statutory criteria for tenure, continued employment was not dependent upon the terms of a contract. What petitioner's argument fails to recognize, however, is that the Legislature has created a hybrid position here which is dependent upon the existence of a contract and is governed by the terms of the negotiated, written agreement.

Adopting the interpretation urged by petitioner could lead to absurd results, directly at odds with the flexibility and money-saving purposes of the statute; e.g., a board could be forced to institute tenure proceedings against an inefficient superintendent who has only a year left to run on her contract, inevitably putting the board in the position of having to engage in expensive litigation against the superintendent long after the expiration of the contractual relationship. It makes far more sense to conclude that the board, being in possession of all the facts relevant to making such a decision, should be permitted to choose the best option under the circumstances; i.e., whether to tolerate the situation until the expiration date of the contract, whether to litigate tenure charges or whether to relieve the superintendent of her obligations under the contract while fulfilling its own. The last option, if determined to be the most educationally and economically sound alternative, would also have the benefit of permitting certainty in contracting with a new chief administrator, and the board would be accountable for its actions to the voters on election day.

* Incidentally, it seems clear from the language of the terms of the negotiated agreement that petitioner himself agreed with this interpretation when he entered into the contract of April 8, 1993; his explanation that the language of Article V Paragraph B which reads, "In the event the Board elects to terminate . . ." really means, "In the event the parties agree to terminate . . ." is contrary to the plain meaning of the words and is simply not plausible. Other paragraphs of the agreement deal with petitioner's voluntary actions or consensual termination. See Article III E & J and Article V C.

For all of the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 does not limit a board's options to filing tenure charges or working with a superintendent in whom it has lost confidence. Petitioner's motion for summary decision granting reinstatement because respondent did not file tenure charges is therefore DENIED. Whatever other claims petitioner has against respondent concerning violations of other statutes, constitutional rights, etc. or alleged contract violations can and must be dealt within the context of the federal litigation instituted by petitioner against respondent prior to commencement of the within action. Blazer Corp. v. N.J. Sports and Exposition Auth., supra. No further issues for determination remaining in this case, it is hereby ORDERED that the Petition of Appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

 PETITIONER, :
 : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
 V. :
 : DECISION
 BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE :
 TOWNSHIP OF CLINTON, :
 HUNTERDON COUNTY, :
 RESPONDENT. :
 _____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Timely exceptions were filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, as were replies thereto by respondent.

In his exceptions, petitioner first argues that the ALJ erred in characterizing the statutory provisions operative in this matter as having substituted a contractual relationship for tenure; rather, what the Legislature established was contractual tenure, which provides far more rights than a simple contractual relationship. Unlike other teaching staff members, superintendents obtain tenure immediately upon employment, but only for the duration of their contract; like other teaching staff members, however, superintendents cannot be dismissed except for cause and then only in the manner provided by the Tenure Employees Hearing Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15, 17-20 and 17-20.2 (Petitioner's Exceptions, at 1-3)

Petitioner next contends that the ALJ erred in finding petitioner's tenure rights to be governed by the terms of his contract with the Board. Petitioner could not forfeit his statutory rights by negotiation or waiver; such a result would permit boards, in the superior bargaining position, to render tenure a nullity by insisting on hiring only persons willing to negotiate or waive away tenure. Spiewak, supra Moreover, even accepting the waiver provision arguendo, it cannot be overlooked that the contract on its face also entitles petitioner to "all rights provided to him by New Jersey and Federal Law"; thus, the contract must be interpreted as merely providing petitioner with the option, should he agree to exercise it, to act upon the Board's request for resignation and payment until he obtains comparable employment. Kelly v. Guaranteed Trust Co., 114 N.J. Eq. 110, 115 (E & A 1933), New Jersey Bank v. Palladino, 77 N.J. 33, 46 (1978) (Petitioner's Exceptions, at 3-4)

Finally, petitioner avers that the ALJ ignored the plain meaning of controlling statute, which states that superintendents shall not be dismissed during the term of their contracts except through tenure proceedings. She further ignored its legislative history, which establishes that the Legislature specifically contemplated, and rejected, statutory language giving boards the option of unilaterally terminating a superintendent's contract and paying out the balance of salary remaining. Instead, the initial decision assumes that: 1) loss of confidence by a board is sufficient reason for a superintendent's dismissal; 2) boards of education always act legally and in the best interest of their districts; 3) the contractual tenure law was crafted with only the rights of boards in mind; and 4) there is no need to balance the superior bargaining power of boards by ensuring tenure rights during the superintendent's term of employment.

The Legislature, petitioner opines, did not agree with these assumptions.

Instead, it understood the need for a balance of power at the top-most level of school governance. There are times when a board will want to terminate a superintendent, not because s/he has done something wrong, but because s/he has done the correct thing for the students--though it may not be politically in vogue. In addition, boards have been known to choose alternatives that are not only not educationally and economically sound, but which are, in fact, self-serving. What the Legislature has fashioned is a statute that does not permit boards to dismiss superintendents at whim. The term, "three to five years," substantially cuts the length of the board's commitment to the superintendent. At the same time, by limiting the board's power to dismiss, the Legislature promoted overall continuity and harmony in the administration of the schools by building in an incentive for boards to find ways to work together with administrators. Further, unless a superintendent cannot be dismissed during the term of the agreement, it will be difficult to attract the best candidates for the position of superintendent and the salaries for the position will increase with the increased risk inherent in the position.

It would be anomalous indeed if a tenured employee can be dismissed from his position without cause and without recourse to tenure charges, simply because the board has "lost confidence" in him/her. Initial decision at 14. That is not [what] the Legislature intended when it said,

A superintendent shall not be dismissed... except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming a superintendent or other just cause and then only in the manner prescribed by [N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, et seq.]

(Petitioner's Exceptions, at 5-7; citation at 7)

In reply, the Board urges acceptance of the ALJ's view that N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15 et seq. must be read to provide the intended flexibility to boards of education, and that no controlling inference can be drawn from the Legislature's deletion of language expressly permitting termination of a superintendent's employment upon payment of salary. The Board reiterates the distinction between "dismissal for cause," which can only be effectuated through tenure proceedings and which terminates a district's financial obligation to the superintendent notwithstanding the existence of a contract, and "termination on notice," which can be undertaken by the district unilaterally at any time and which terminates the employment relationship between the superintendent and the board while continuing the board's financial obligation, subject to any mitigation clauses, for the term of the contract.

Upon careful review and consideration, while concurring with much of the ALJ's analysis of the procedural and substantive matters at issue, the Commissioner would modify the findings and conclusions of the initial decision as set forth below.

Initially, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ and the Board that the 1991 amendments to the law governing superintendent tenure were intended to offer increased flexibility to boards of education which had been effectively forced by the previous lifetime tenure system to either live with, or "buy out," often at enormous expense, superintendents with whom they were dissatisfied for any reason not rising to the level of warranting tenure charges. The Commissioner concurs with petitioner, however, that the Legislature was equally mindful of the need to ensure a reasonable degree of security for superintendents, so that their employment status and professional integrity would not be subject to the whims of ever-changing boards which could summarily dismiss them for any reason. In seeking to balance these fundamentally opposing principles, the Legislature created a hybrid position incorporating elements of both contractual and tenured employment.

The initial decision herein properly concludes that the Legislature could not have intended, and did not enact, a law leaving no alternative but tenure charges to a board which has become sufficiently dissatisfied with its superintendent to consider severing their relationship prior to the expiration of the current contract, as petitioner herein would have it. Rather, the ALJ correctly finds that the law permits a board to "choose the best option under all of the circumstances; i.e., whether to tolerate the situation until the expiration of the date of the contract, whether to litigate tenure charges or whether to relieve the superintendent of her obligations under the contract while fulfilling its own." Initial Decision, at 14

The ALJ errs, however, in equating the latter option with the action taken by the Board herein, that is, with unilateral termination of the superintendent's employment upon notice and payment of remaining contractual salary. Such an equation assumes that termination on notice, which is not expressly prohibited by controlling statute, is consistent with the tenure status conferred by that same statute so long as a board's financial obligation to the tenured employee is met upon termination.

In the Commissioner's view, the scheme established by N.J.S.A. 18A:17-15 et seq. does not permit this result. Rather, the statute provides for a superintendent to be employed through one or more three-to-five-year contracts, with employment following the initial contract to either continue via a succession of subsequent contract(s), or cease upon expiration of the current contract following due notice of nonrenewal, or alternatively, upon dismissal through tenure proceedings. N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20 through 18A:20.2 There is neither mention of, nor place for, unilateral termination in this scheme, notwithstanding that a sum equivalent to remaining salary may be paid to the ousted superintendent; to the contrary, the law as it was ultimately enacted expressly provides for employment for the duration of a superintendent's contract, thus conferring a status beyond mere entitlement to money. Thus, the 1991 amendments protect boards by limiting their obligation to continue any given superintendent's employment to a maximum of five years. However, they also protect superintendents by ensuring that employment does in fact continue for the period designated by contract, absent dismissal for cause, resignation or separation by mutual agreement.

Moreover, the law's requirement for continued employment does not compel a Board to either file tenure charges or continue, for practical purposes, a working relationship it no longer finds satisfactory. Rather, as with any other contracted teaching staff member, the board may elect to relieve the superintendent of the performance of his or her duties during any time between the giving of notice pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.1 that employment will not be continued beyond the term of the current contract and the actual termination of employment upon that contract's expiration. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-9 Such a result recognizes both the employment entitlement of the tenured superintendent and the need for a reasonable degree of flexibility on the part of the employing board of education.

Finally, with regard to the contractual provisions at issue in the present matter, where the possibility of unilateral termination is expressly contemplated, the Commissioner holds that such provisions cannot take precedence over a statutory requirement for tenured employment. Such precedence would permit terms and conditions of employment to effectively negate a legislative entitlement, a perversion which is not only unacceptable as a matter of law, Spiewak, supra, but also inadvisable as a matter of educational policy, largely for the reasons expressed by petitioner.

However, notwithstanding that the Commissioner finds the Board in this matter to have acted beyond the scope of its authority in unilaterally terminating petitioner's employment, the Commissioner notes that the controlling statute is a relatively new one which has not yet been interpreted by the Commissioner, the State Board of Education or the courts so as to have provided guidance to the Board. The Commissioner further notes petitioner's effective acquiescence to the Board's position by his acceptance of contractual terms that clearly contemplate, notwithstanding his protestations to the contrary in these proceedings, unilateral termination. Therefore, to the extent that petitioner may have been entitled to any relief beyond a finding that the Board should have retained him in its employ while relieving him of his duties rather than terminating his employment outright, the Commissioner declines to so order.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law is affirmed with the modifications set forth herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :
FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF ROGER E. MARSHALL. : DECISION

_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
January 30, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Roger E. Marshall, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹ Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. Such review must also include a determination of whether any criminal history record information pertaining to petitioner exists on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, see N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, in that such information is not included in the record before us.

We stress, in addition, that the statute expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision.

Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

We retain jurisdiction.

FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF ROGER E. MARSHALL. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 30, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, July 5, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, March 12, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Roger E. Marshall, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On July 5, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a custodian following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on November 29, 1995. On January 26, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which she concluded that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. On March 12, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision upholding petitioner's disqualification from school employment and, pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, transmitted the file back to us. Petitioner has not filed an appeal from that decision.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

Record Closed: December 20, 1994

Decided: January 12, 1995

BEFORE STEPHEN G. WEISS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law by the Department of Education on July 28, 1994 as the result of the filing of a petition of appeal by R. L. and D. L., on behalf of their minor daughter, K-A. L., against the Hackensack Board of Education alleging that their daughter's five-day suspension in March 1994 was not warranted. A telephone prehearing conference was scheduled for October 3, 1994 but had to be adjourned in light of a calendar conflict. However, efforts to reach the petitioners by telephone proved unsuccessful and counsel for the Board advised the undersigned administrative law judge that the family had, in fact, moved out of the district to another state.

Thereafter, by letter dated October 4, 1994, I notified petitioners and Board counsel that I would appreciate it if I was informed by the parents whether or not they wished further to pursue the case. That letter was sent by both certified and regular mail. Thereafter, on October 24, 1994, I again wrote to the parents and to Board counsel suggesting that in light of the failure by the petitioners to indicate any further interest in the case that a motion to dismiss would be appropriate.

A motion to dismiss now has been filed by the Board to which is attached a cover letter brief by Board counsel. In her letter Ms. Maxwell indicates that she spoke personally with D. L., the mother of K-A. L., who told counsel that the petitioners no longer had any interest in further pursuing the appeal. Beyond that, Ms. Maxwell points out that the petitioners have moved out of state and thereby removed their daughter from the school system. Under the circumstances, counsel urges that a dismissal would be appropriate.

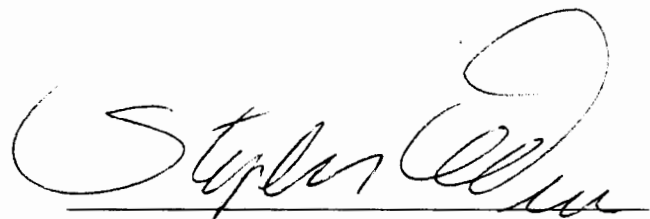

Based upon the foregoing undisputed chronology of events, it is clear that the petitioners no longer wish to pursue this matter and that a dismissal of the appeal, with prejudice, is appropriate. Accordingly, for the reasons set forth herein, I ORDER that the petition of appeal in this matter be DISMISSED, with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." SYNOPSIS

Petitioning taxpayer challenged Board's buyout of the high school principal, charging the buyout agreement was arbitrary, procedurally defective, a misuse of public funds and in violation of the thorough and efficient law. Petitioner sought order that agreement was null, that the Board president be removed, and that the multi-year agreement was illegal because the current board of education could not bind a future board. The Board moved for dismissal of the petition for three reasons: 1) the dispute presented a nonjusticiable political question; 2) the Commissioner of Education lacked jurisdiction to rule on a contractual matter; and 3) petitioner lacked standing to assert these claims.

ALJ concluded that partial summary decision should be granted in favor of the Board. ALJ determined petitioner's complaint did not allege any wrongful acts by the Board that might support a finding of genuine impropriety but that that portion of the petition challenging the right of current Board members to enter into a multi-year agreement binding on future boards is the type of issue suitable for administrative review. As to jurisdiction, the ALJ found that petitioner is asking that a contract be nullified which calls for application of Title 18A which is directly within the area of the Commissioner's special expertise. As to standing, ALJ found Board's action substantially, specifically and directly affects him in his capacity as a taxpayer. ALJ ordered Board's motion denied with respect to whether Board could enter into the multi-year contract, but ordered Board's motion granted with respect to all remaining issues, which were dismissed.

Commissioner modified ALJ's determination to the extent that petitioner's claims of arbitrariness and bad faith, as well as the question of adoption of an agreement binding future boards, were remanded to OAL for hearing on the merits.

Record Closed: December 20, 1993

Decided: January 5, 1995

BEFORE KEN R. SPRINGER, ALJ:

Statement of the Case

This is a suit brought by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the lawfulness of a buyout agreement between a high school principal and a local board of education. Petitioner Joseph DiFalco ("DiFalco") attacks the validity of the agreement on several grounds, including a contention that the amount of money, allegedly "the highest buyout of any staff member in State history," offends the constitutional mandate for a thorough and efficient education as well as the Public School Education Act of 1975, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-1 to -52; that the action by the board was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable; that the multi-year agreement is illegal because the current board of education cannot bind a future board; and that two board members were improperly excluded from participation in the decision-making process.

Prior to hearing, respondent Kinnelon Board of Education ("Board") has moved to dismiss the petition for three separate reasons: first, that the dispute presents a nonjusticiable political question; second, that the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") lacks jurisdiction to rule on a contractual matter; and, third that petitioner lacks standing to assert these claims.

Most of the claims raised by DiFalco must be dismissed at this stage for nonjusticiability or lack of standing. Nevertheless, the Board's motion will be denied in part, to enable the Commissioner to consider the important public question of whether a current board of education can enter into a long-term buyout agreement that is binding on future boards.

Procedural History

On September 28, 1992, DiFalco filed a verified petition with the Commissioner challenging the validity of the buyout agreement. One month later, on October 23, 1992, the Board filed its answer, raising justiciability, standing and jurisdiction as affirmative defenses. Thereafter, on January 8, 1993, DiFalco filed an amended petition objecting to the Board's readoption of the buyout agreement after a Superior Court judge had invalidated its earlier adoption for procedural reasons. On February 24, 1993, the Board filed an amended answer, preserving its affirmative defenses.

Meanwhile, on November 30, 1992, the Commissioner had transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing as a contested case. By order entered on March 15, 1993, the OAL granted the application of Robert Schott to intervene in this proceeding to protect his interests as beneficiary of the buyout agreement. Shortly thereafter, on May 5, 1993, the Board filed a notice of motion to dismiss, together with a supporting brief. DiFalco filed opposing papers on June 14, 1993. The OAL heard oral argument on June 18, 1993. After oral argument, DiFalco filed supplemental papers on November 24, 1993 and the Board submitted its response on December 20, 1993.¹

Findings of Fact

For the purpose of resolving these preliminary legal issues, the facts that are undisputed in the pleadings will be used. Most of the facts necessary for disposition of this motion may be derived from the actual language of the buyout agreement, which is uncontroverted. I FIND:

Joseph DiFalco brought this petition as a resident, taxpayer and registered voter of the Borough of Kinnelon. At the time of the agreement, Robert Schott was "employed by the Board as Principal of Kinnelon High School and [had] tenure as a teaching staff member employed by the Kinnelon Borough School District." For whatever reasons the Board desired that Mr. Schott resign from his position and Mr. Schott was willing to accommodate the Board's wishes. Accordingly, these two parties entered into a written contract entitled "Separation of Employment Agreement." Both parties "acknowledge[d] that each has received independent legal advice of his or its own selection." Respondent admits that the parties reached the agreement at "about 6:30 p. m. on August 24, 1992, and that the Agreement was then voted on by the Board at or after 8:00 p.m. that same night." It was approved by vote of five to two. Although DiFalco alleges that the two negative-voting Board members "were not made aware of the scope and detail of the agreement," the Board maintains that "at all times, [it] allowed full participation of all Board members."²

Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Schott "submitted a letter of resignation from all employment with the Board effective October 1, 1993" and the Board agreed to "accept Mr. Schott's resignation at a public meeting to be conducted on August 24, 1992." Until his resignation became effective some thirteen months thereafter, Mr. Schott would be on leave of absence "for personal reasons . . . with full pay and full insurance and health benefits." Salary would be prorated based on an annual rate of $99,649 through June 30, 1993 and then at an annual rate of $112,105.

Paragraph No. 3, the most controversial provision of the agreement is reproduced in pertinent part below:

Between October 1, 1993, and June 30, 1996, Mr. Schott shall be entitled to receive the sum of $337,848.00 ("Settlement Amount") in further settlement of all claims and obligations which he may have or hold against the Board. Such Settlement Amount shall be paid by the Board to Mr. Schott as he may request subject to the following restrictions:

² In separate litigation filed by a citizens' group in the Superior Court of New Jersey Judge Reginald Stanton declared that the Board's approval of the agreement on August 24, 1992 was null and void as violative of the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 to 4-17. At a later meeting on December 9, 1992, the Board ratified the agreement in order to cure the deficiencies found by the Court. See N.J.S.A. 10:4-15(a). Since the amended pleadings do not specify any additional violations occurring at the December 9th meeting, petitioner has failed to state any claim arising under the Open Public Meetings Act.

- (a) Between October 1, 1993, and June 30, 1994, the Board shall not be obligated to pay more than $112,616.00 of the Settlement Amount;
- (b) Between July 1, 1994, and June 30, 1995, the Board shall not be obligated to pay more than one-half (1/2) of the balance of the Settlement Amount remaining as of June 30, 1994;
- (c) Between July 1, 1995 and June 30, 1996, the Board shall pay, upon the request of Mr. Schott the remaining balance of the Settlement Amount.

Apparently the signatories themselves harbored some doubts about the legality of the agreement. They inserted a savings clause giving Mr. Schott the option of refunding all funds paid to him after retirement and returning to active employment in the event that "the Board is precluded by a final order, administrative or judicial, from making any payment to Mr. Schott as required by the Agreement."

While the existing record does not reflect the monetary value of the entire settlement package, Board counsel estimates that it totals roughly half a million dollars. DiFalco condemns the expenditure of such a large sum to buy out a tenured school administrator as "a frivolous waste of taxpayer money" and a "shocking" abuse of the Board's discretionary authority. Other than generalized accusations of "obvious" defects and "numerous" violations of federal and state law, however, DiFalco specifies only one substantive provision which he claims has been violated, namely, the constitutional and statutory guaranty of a thorough and efficient public education at N.J. Const., art. VIII, §4, ¶ 1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-1. Thus, DiFalco urges that the "misuse of public funds" will result in a severe restriction of the Board's ability to carry out its proper responsibilities and in "a major negative impact on the educational experience of the children."

Conclusions of Law

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that partial summary decision should be granted in favor of respondent.

(1) Justiciability

Justiciability has been described as "a concept of uncertain meaning and scope." Flast v. Cohen, 392 U.S. 83, 95, 88 S. Ct. 1942, 20 L. Ed. 2d 947 (1968). It implicates a subtle "blend of constitutional requirements and policy considerations." Flast, 392 U.S. at 97. Deciding whether a matter presents a nonjusticiable political question is a "delicate exercise in constitutional interpretation" Gilbert v. Gladden, 87 N. J. 275, 282 (1981). Usually, the problem is approached in terms of separation of powers or the proper allocation of responsibility among the various branches of government. New Jersey has looked to the United States Supreme Court for guidance in identifying political questions and has focused on several factors, such as the "constitutional commitment of the issue to a coordinate political department;" the "lack of judicially discoverable and manageable standards for resolving it;" and the "impossibility of undertaking independent resolution without expressing lack of the respect due coordinate branches of government." Baker v. Carr, 369 U.S. 186, 82 S.Ct. 691, 7 L. Ed. 2d 674 (1962), quoted in Gilbert v. Gladden, 87 N.J. at 282. Federal courts have viewed the determination of justiciability as consisting of two parts first "whether the claim presented and the relief sought are of the type which admit of judicial resolution;" and, second, whether the structure of government renders the issue a political question "because of the separation of powers provided by the Constitution." Committee to Free the Fort Dix 38 v. Collins, 429 F. 2d 807, 811 (3rd Cir. 1970).

Routinely, personnel matters fall within the discretionary authority of local boards of education. School boards have express statutory powers to make rules for the employment, conduct and discharge of its employees, N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 and 18A:27-4 to adopt salary schedules for full-time supervisory staff, N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.3, and, consistent with law, to do all things "necessary for the lawful and proper conduct of the public schools of the district," N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1. Of course, the Commissioner alone has exclusive jurisdiction to dismiss a tenured teaching staff member for cause once formal charges have been certified. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404 (App. Div. 1967). The Commissioner will review any proposed settlement of a tenure proceeding to assure that it is consistent with the public interest. Cardonick v. Brooklawn Bd. of Educ., 1983 S.L.D. ___ (St. Bd. April 6, 1983). Unless tenure charges have been brought, however, a teaching staff member may voluntarily relinquish his position and waive whatever tenure and reemployment rights he might possess. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8. O'Toole v. Forestal, 211 N.J. Super. 394, 402 (App. Div. 1986). Normally, these matters would never come before the Commissioner.

Negotiated buyout agreements are not readily susceptible to judicial or administrative review because they involve the exercise of discretion and judgment rather than application of established legal principles. Reasonable minds can differ on the dollar value to be placed on such arrangements. These are quasi-legislative determinations which have been entrusted to the school board as representative of the public. It may be that the choices by the Board are extravagant or even foolish, but that does not necessarily make them illegal. As noted by the New Jersey Supreme Court in Ridgefield Park v. Bergen Cty. Bd. of Taxation, 31 N.J. 420, 432 (1960), "The judiciary has no power to devise tax programs or to qualify the existing legislative mandate with a judge's private view of what is just or sensible." Similarly, an administrative law judge is not entitled to substitute his own personal preferences for those of a local governmental unit acting within its legitimate authority. "The appropriations represented an exercise of legislative judgment. As such, they constituted a purely political decision and an exercise of governmental discretion." Borough of Glassboro v. Byrne, 141 N.J. Super. 19, 24 (App. Div. 1976)

School law decisions have respected this important distinction. Illustratively in Wassmer v. Wharton Bd. of Educ., 1967 S.L.D. 125 (Comm'r May 4, 1967) the Commissioner declined to interfere with a local board's decision to eliminate sc t sessions immediately, even though the consensus of professional opinion was to defer action until the following year. Finding no necessity for further hearings, the Commissioner observed, "[A]bsent a clear showing that the Board of Education has acted unreasonably and beyond the scope of its discretionary authority, in bad faith, in violation of the law, or in any other illegal manner, the Commissioner is without authority to intervene." 1967 S.L.D. at 128. Indeed, Boult v. Passaic Bd. of Educ., 135 N.J.L. 136 (E.& A. 1947), a case on which DiFalco relies, is actually additional authority for the Board's position. Commenting on the scope of the Commissioner's review powers in connection with a local school closing, the Court explained:

The reviewing officer was not empowered to substitute his discretion for that of the local board. The offer of proof, as it is described in the Commissioner's opinion, amounted to nothing more than an offer to establish that the local board's determination was based upon erroneous factual material. Discretionary municipal action may not be judicially condemned on that basis. 136 N.J.L. at 523

Despite vague references to bad faith and arbitrariness, DiFalco's complaint does not allege any wrongful acts by the Board that might support a finding of genuine impropriety. Instead, DiFalco emphasizes the high cost of the agreement and its potential impact on property taxes and real estate prices in the community. These are issues of great concern to many citizens, but they do not lend themselves to an administrative solution. Rather, the appropriate remedy lies with the legislative branch and the electoral process. Ridgefield Park, 31 N.J. at 431. Clearly State government has a constitutional obligation to assure that the money for education is spent well and not wasted. Abbott v. Burke, 136 N.J. 444, 455 (1994). In order to implement this responsibility, the Commissioner may adopt mechanisms to control, regulate or monitor the use of funds by local school districts. But it does not follow that the Commissioner must react every time a private individual believes that a particular expenditure is unjustified or happens to disagree with the choice made by his elected representatives.

In one respect, however, DiFalco raises an issue which squarely comes within the Commissioner's jurisdiction to hear and determine "all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Surely it would be meaningless for dissatisfied residents to elect a new school board if the old board could effectively stymie policy changes. To the extent that DiFalco's petition can be read as challenging the right of the current board members to enter into a multi-year agreement binding on future boards, that is the type of issue suitable for administrative review.³ The outcome of that issue does not depend on debatable concepts of whether a particular action is desirable or cost-effective, but on an ascertainable determination of whether a public body has exceeded its delegated authority. It necessitates an inquiry not into the wisdom of the Board's decision, but into its lawfulness.

(2) Jurisdiction Over Contractual Issues

Numerous cases hold that the Commissioner of Education lacks subject matter jurisdiction over the interpretation or enforcement of employment contracts. In support of its motion for dismissal, the Board cites Wilson v. Sussex Cty. Vo-Tech. Schs., 91 S.L.D. 1276, 1284 (Comm'r Aug. 19, 1991), which declared that questions of contractual interpretation "do not arise under the school laws" Accord, Paladino v. Lacey Twp. Bd. of Educ., 1989 S.L.D. 3063 (St. Bd. Feb. 1, 1989); Salley v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 1984 S.L.D. 1714 (Comm'r Nov. 8, 1984); Pennetta & Sons, Inc v. North Bergen Bd. of Educ., OAL DKT. EDU 3648-82 (Comm'r May 27, 1983); Larsen v. Piscataway Bd. of Educ., OAL DKT. EDU 1445-81 (St. Bd. Oct. 6, 1982). Unlike this long line of authority, however, the present case does not deal with either interpretation or enforcement of a contract. Petitioner is not seeking clarification of the meaning of ambiguous contractual language. Certainly he is not asking for enforcement of the purportedly illegal contract. Quite the contrary, he is asking that the contract be nullified as beyond the statutory powers conferred on the Board by the education law

³ Although the amended petition does not expressly identify the multi-year aspect of the agreement as a reason for its alleged invalidity, the contention that the agreement will drain the coffers of funds needed for other purposes carries that implication. Moreover, the prehearing order entered on February 16, 1993 includes the issue: "Whether the multi-year agreement is illegal because the current board of education cannot bind a future board of education."

Resolution of this issue does not require extensive knowledge of contracts, commercial transactions or labor law. Rather, it calls for an application of Title 18A and, as such, is a matter directly within the area of the Commissioner's special expertise. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. East Brunswick Bd. of Educ. v. Twp. Council, 48 N.J. 94, 102 (1966). Fair Lawn Bd. of Educ. v. Mayor, 143 N.J. Super. 259, 266 n.3 (Law. Div. 1976), aff'd 153 N.J. Super. 480 (App. Div. 1977).

(3) Standing

Standing has been called one of "the most amorphous [concepts] in the entire domain of public law." Flast, 392 U.S. at 99. Notwithstanding its ambiguities, the fundamental aspect of standing is that "it focuses on the party seeking to get his complaint before a . . . court and not on the issues he wishes to have adjudicated. Simply put, standing means that a particular litigant must have sufficient interest in the subject of the litigation so that a genuine clash between opposing viewpoints will be presented. Kenwood v. Montclair Bd. of Educ., OAL DKT. EDU 8858-81 (Comm'r June 14, 1992).

Traditionally, New Jersey courts have adopted a generous approach toward recognition of standing in order that aggrieved parties will not be denied easy access to the legal system. Unlike the federal courts which are constitutionally confined to deciding narrowly defined "cases and controversies," U.S. Const., art. III, §2, the state courts have been much more willing to allow persons with only a tangential interest in the outcome of a case to obtain redress for real or potential injuries. Nonetheless even in state court, there exist some minimum barriers which a petitioner must overcome before he may be heard. In the leading case of Crescent Park Tenants Ass'n v. Realty Eq. Corp., 58 N.J. 98, 107 (1971), our Supreme Court outlined these threshold requirements:

[We] will not render advisory opinions or function in the abstract (New Jersey Turnpike Authority v. Parsons, 3 N.J. 325, 240 (1949)) nor will we entertain proceedings by plaintiffs who are "mere intermeddlers" (Baxter v. Baxter, 13 N.J. Eq. 82, 86 (Ch. 1887)).

aff'd 44 N.J. Eq. 298 (E. & A. 1888)), or are merely interlopers or strangers to the dispute (Bergen County v. Port of New York Authority et al., 32 N.J. 303, 307, 318 (1960)). Without ever becoming enmeshed in the federal complexities and technicalities, we have appropriately confined litigation to those situations where the litigant's concern with the subject matter evidenced a sufficient stake and real adverseness.

Similar restrictions are imposed on those who would initiate administrative proceedings before the Commissioner of Education. While N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 confers upon the Commissioner jurisdiction to hear and determine "all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws," the Commissioner has promulgated regulations clarifying exactly who may be considered interested persons for purposes of such hearings. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.1 defines "interested person(s)" as anyone "who will be substantially, specifically and directly affected by the outcome of a controversy before the Commissioner." Such language is fully consistent with the Administrative Procedure Act and the uniform procedural rules, which limit the definition of contested case to proceedings where the "legal rights, duties, obligations, privileges, benefits or other legal relations of specific parties are required by constitutional right or statute to be determined." N.J.S.A. 52:14B-2(b); N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1. As the uniform rules further make clear, contested cases concern the rights or duties of particular parties as opposed to "large, undefined classes of people." N.J.A.C. 1:2.1.

DiFalco bases his claim for relief on his status as "a citizen, voter and taxpayer" of the municipality comprising the Kinnelon school district. Courts have been understandably reluctant to recognize standing to sue based on taxpayer status alone. For many years, the federal courts absolutely refused to entertain challenges by taxpayers to expenditures of public funds. Seventy years ago, in Frothingham v. Mellon, 262 U.S. 447, 43 S.Ct. 597, 67 L. Ed. 1078 (1923), the United States Supreme Court precluded a federal taxpayer from attacking the constitutionality of a federal grant program, reasoning that the taxpayer's "interest in the moneys of the Treasury is comparatively minute and indeterminable" and that "the effect upon future taxation of any payment out of the [Treasury's] funds, . . . [is] remote and uncertain." 262 U.S. at 487. Likewise, in Doremus v. Hawthorne Bd. of Educ., 342 U.S. 429, 72 S. Ct. 394 36

L. Ed. 475 (1952), the High Court rejected a taxpayer's constitutional challenge to a statute requiring Bible reading in the public schools, without reaching the underlying merits of the dispute. Citing Frothingham, the Court reiterated that a party who invokes the judicial power "must be able to show not only that the statute is invalid but that he has sustained or is immediately in danger of sustaining some direct injury as a result of its enforcement, and not merely that he suffers in some indefinite way in common with people generally." 342 U.S. at 434.

Even at its most extreme, federal courts have always conceded that the results may be different at the local level, "when measured against a municipal taxpayer's interest in a smaller city treasury." Flast, 392 U.S. at 93. Insofar as New Jersey is concerned, "the standing of a taxpayer to attack illegal disbursements of public funds or other illegal official action has been long and firmly established." Crescent Park Tenants Assoc., 58 N.J. at 102. DiFalco has marshaled several examples in which New Jersey courts have recognized the standing of municipal taxpayers, as such, to bring legal action to remedy alleged wrongful conduct by government officials. See, e.g., Silverman v. Millburn Bd. of Educ., 134 N.J. Super. 253 (Law Div. 1975), aff'd 136 N.J. Super. 435 (App. Div. 1975), where taxpayers had standing to sue a school district over the closing of school financed by a multi-purpose bond issue. See also, Booth v. Rockaway Twp. Bd. of Adjustment, 50 N.J. 302 (1967) and Aurentz v. Little Egg Harbor Twp. Planning Bd., 171 N.J. Super. 135 (Law Div. 1979), where taxpayers or property owners had standing to contest municipal exercise of the zoning power. One authoritative commentator has gone so far as to suggest that New Jersey cases "seem to stand for the proposition that standing is largely self regulating. The high cost of litigation and the general reluctance for most members of the public to become 'involved' in practical effect excludes those persons who do not have a genuine interest in the litigation." Steven LeFelt, Administrative Law & Practice, 37 N.J. Practice Series § 308 (1988).

Moreover, the federal courts themselves have retreated from their strict application of the standing doctrine and now allow taxpayer suits under certain limited circumstances. Accordingly, in Flast v. Cohen supra, the Supreme Court ruled that a taxpayer could sue to enjoin the allegedly unconstitutional use of federal funds to support private religious schools. Elaborating on its earlier analysis, the Court held that its concerns would be adequately met when a taxpayer alleges a breach of specific constitutional limitations imposed upon the congressional taxing and spending power. In reaching that result, the Court demanded that the taxpayer establish "a logical nexus between the status asserted and the claim sought to be adjudicated." 392 U.S. at 102. Since the taxpayer in Flast alleged that the expenditures for religious purposes contravened specific protections guaranteed by the First Amendment, the Court was satisfied that the issues were "framed with the necessary specificity" and that the litigation would be "pursued with the necessary vigor." 392 U.S. at 106.

Basically, therefore, the inquiry is whether DiFalco has sufficiently demonstrated that he will be "substantially, specifically and directly affected by the outcome" so as to bring him within the intendment of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2. In his papers, DiFalco argues that the school budget represents the largest component of local property taxes, that the amount of such tax levy greatly affects the market value of his home, and that his home is the single largest asset which he owns.⁴ In addition, he urges that the excessively generous buyout payment diverts limited revenues which should be used for the benefit of children, thereby directly affecting "the quality of life of all citizens." If these were his only arguments, they might be insufficient to conclude that DiFalco has met the requirements for standing. After all, DiFalco's complaint sounds suspiciously like a mere disagreement with the wisdom of decisions made by his elected representatives and a personal belief that he could do a better job. (See discussion of the school board's proper role, supra, at pages 7 to 8.)

But DiFalco also raises the important public question of whether a multi-year settlement agreement entered into by an existing board is binding on future boards. In the event that DiFalco were barred from obtaining a definitive ruling on this point he would be left totally without recourse. Reform through the electoral process would be unavailing, unless there exists some capacity in the new board to reverse the policies adopted by its predecessors. Important public questions of this type have generally been regarded as a sufficient basis on which to posit standing. Where a case is of great public interest, any "slight additional private interest" will be sufficient to afford standing. Salario v. Glaser, 82 N.J. 482, 491 (1980). The extent of the interest of the community at large is particularly important and may, if sufficiently great, negate the necessity of proof of unique financial detriment to the party seeking review. Kozesnik v. Montgomery Twp., 24 N.J. 154, 177 (1957). Allen, 137 N.J. Super. at 363. Viewed in this context, DiFalco's interest as a taxpayer and homeowner is enough to satisfy any residual need for some measurable amount of detrimental impact on the complaining party's personal rights. Due to the public significance of the issue presented in this case, the Commissioner should take the opportunity to clarify the law for guidance of school boards throughout the state.⁵

Beyond that, the present matter is highly reminiscent of the situation in which federal courts recognize standing, although not, of course, involving comparable questions of federal jurisdiction or of constitutional magnitude. Like Flast v. Cohen, DiFalco is claiming not only that a governmental body improperly exercised its spending powers, but also that it exceeded specific limitations designed to curb legislative abuse. In particular, DiFalco challenges the legal authority of the current board to bind its successors. Such allegations supply the missing link between DiFalco's status as a taxpayer and the precise nature of the legislative action sought to be overturned. Far from intruding into the legislative domain, DiFalco's suit enhances ⁵To the extent, however, that DiFalco claims that two board members were deprived of full participation in the decision-making process, he is improperly trying to vindicate rights belonging to others. Whatever tangential impact may have fallen on taxpayers in general, only the board members themselves were directly affected. Ordinarily a litigant may not claim standing to assert the rights of a third party. Jersey Shore Med. Ctr.-Fitkin Hosp. v. Est. of Baum, 84 N.J. 137, 144 (1980). Repeatedly, school law decisions have determined that a volunteer is not a proper party to initiate causes on behalf of someone else. See, e.g., D. K. v. Clifton Bd. of Educ., 93 N.J.A.R. 21 (Vol. 4A) 71 (Comm'r of Educ.); Huettemann v. East Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 1986 S. 2248 (Comm'r Sept. 3, 1986).

the separation of powers by insuring that the Board is acting within the proper confines of its powers.

Cases cited by the Board deal with routine personnel matters and do not raise any important public question implicating a school board's operational authority. For instance, in Huetteman v. East Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 1986 S.L.D. 2248 (Comm'r Sept. 3, 1986), the Commissioner determined that parents do not have standing to litigate the propriety of a transfer of principals among different school buildings in the district. In Ricardelli v. Newark Bd. of Educ., OAL DKT. EDU 1894-79 (Comm'r Nov. 16, 1979), the Commissioner held that a person's status as a resident of the district does not entitle him to contest a local board's decision to transfer personnel. Likewise, in Delaney v. Woodbridge Bd. of Educ., OAL DKT. EDU 382-78 (Dec. 12, 1979), the Commissioner said that a taxpayer could not challenge a school board's action in filling certain job vacancies. Each of these cases involved discretionary managerial decisions clearly within the scope of a school board's delegated powers. They lack the element of a serious issue regarding the limits of a board's statutory authority as it relates to expenditure of public revenues. In contrast, DiFalco has articulated an alleged breach of limits on the Board's spending powers which substantially, specifically and directly affects him in his capacity as a taxpayer.

Order

It is ORDERED that the Board's motion is denied with respect to whether a current board of education can enter into a multi-year buyout agreement binding on future boards.

And it is further ORDERED that the Board's motion is granted with respect to all remaining issues, which are hereby dismissed.

This order granting summary decision in part and denying summary decision in part is being submitted under N.J.A.C. 1.1-12.5(e) for immediate review. This recommended order may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make the final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this order was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

JOSEPH DI FALCO, :
PETITIONER, :
V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE : DECISION BOROUGH OF KINNELON, MORRIS COUNTY, :
RESPONDENT, :
AND :
ROBERT SCHOTT, : INTERVENOR. :
_____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, petitioner, respondent and intervenor each filed timely exceptions to the initial decision, and the Board and petitioner filed replies. Petitioner's reply, however, was untimely filed and is not considered herein.

Respondent and intervenor except to the ALJ's having kept any aspect of the case alive, while petitioner objects to further proceedings being limited to the question of whether the contract at issue improperly binds future boards.

Petitioner argues that, had he been permitted to proceed on the totality of his claims, he would have provided evidence and testimony showing that the Board never gave, either at public meetings, on record or in response to citizen inquiry, any reason for its action, which therefore must be presumed to be arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. (Preston K. Mears, Jr. et al. v. Board of Education of the Town of Boonton, Morris County, 1968 S.L.D. 108) Moreover, had his claim not been summarily dismissed, petitioner would have been able to muster proof of bad faith, as the Board has already been found to have violated the Open Public Meetings Act in its first attempt to approve the buyout, and at least two Board members were not aware of the buyout, or the reasons for it, when they were asked to vote on its acceptance. While generally endorsing the ALJ's discussion to the effect that actions taken within the lawful discretionary authority of a board of education are not susceptible to administrative or judicial review, petitioner claims that the action challenged herein was not taken within such lawful authority, but rather, was a gross abuse of discretion, as he would have demonstrated at hearing had he been given the opportunity. Thus, the effect of the ALJ's summary dismissal, without having granted the legitimate inferences due petitioner's claims in this context, is to have insulated the Board from challenge and reduced petitioner's attempt to raise a matter of local and statewide public significance to the level of a frivolous suit.

The respondent Board of Education (Board) contends that it should have prevailed on all issues as a matter of law, so that the ALJ erred in permitting even the limited question of binding future boards to survive its motion to summarily dismiss petitioner's appeal. There is no question, the Board argues, that the Board was within its rights to grant the paid leave that constitutes one part of the settlement, and it is not at all uncommon for such a leave to extend beyond the life of the board granting it. Similarly, as the other part of its agreement, the Board provided for a lump sum payout; that such payout was effectuated, for budgetary reasons, through a schedule of payments spread over the course of three years, does not render the Board's action any different than if it had determined to pay the full amount in a one-time lump sum, so that the question of binding future boards would not even have arisen. Moreover, the Commissioner has previously approved settlement agreements which have included payment schedules extending beyond the life of the authorizing board. (In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Debbie F. Smith, School District of the Township of Rochelle Park, Bergen County, decided May 17, 1988, and Helene Narucki v. Board of Education of the Toms River Regional School District, Ocean County, decided December 8, 1986)

Intervenor, in addition to endorsing the argument of the Board above, objects to the ALJ's findings regarding the Commissioner's jurisdiction to hear this matter and petitioner's standing to raise it. With respect to jurisdiction, intervenor argues that there is no basis for the Commissioner to assert jurisdiction, as the matter at issue clearly arises from a contract entered into by the Board and intervenor, and does not arise under the school laws. (Dr. Columbus Salley v. Board of Education of the City of Newark, Essex County, 1984 S.L.D. 1714) With respect to standing, intervenor contends that petitioner does not raise the question of binding future boards in his claims, which are in essence no more than a challenge to the wisdom of the Board's action. Nothing in petitioner's filing is sufficient to confer standing, and indeed, the remedy for his claims is to be properly obtained through the ballot box and not through adjudication by the Commissioner.

Upon careful consideration, the Commissioner finds that he cannot concur with the ALJ's summary dismissal of petitioner's complaint. While the underlying action challenged by petitioner herein is, indeed, as noted by the ALJ, an action of the type that falls within the board of education's discretionary authority, it is not insulated from review on that basis alone. Petitioner, who has standing to do so for the reasons stated by the ALJ, has raised a question of considerable public interest and alleged arbitrariness and bad faith on the part of the Board; therefore, he has certainly raised a claim justiciable before the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 and N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.1 et seq. Moreover, he has provided at least some factual basis for his allegations, which facts were not included in the language of the buyout agreement on which the ALJ relied in granting summary decision, and which facts are disputed by the Board; therefore, summary judgment would likewise appear to have been inappropriately granted. Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954) Neither does the Commissioner find merit in respondent and intervenor's exceptions; rather, he finds that the ALJ ruled correctly on the questions of standing and jurisdiction, and that the question of binding future boards is not adequately resolved by the argument and evidence thus far on record.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law is modified to the extent that petitioner's claims of arbitrariness and bad faith, as well as the question of adoption of an agreement binding future boards, are remanded to OAL for hearing on the merits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : DECISION OF MATTHEW J. GAMBALE. :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, May 26, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, August 2, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, March 7, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Matthew J. Gambale, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy Attorney General
(Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On August 2, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a bus driver following a criminal history review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 et seq., with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on December 6, 1995. On January 18, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which he concluded that petitioner had demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. On March 7, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision, finding petitioner to be qualified for school employment as a bus driver. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Thus, pursuant to the Commissioner's decision, petitioner is qualified for school employment as a bus driver, and we dismiss the appeal.

charges and to have entered negotiations with respondent for purposes of settlement. In Cardonick, supra, the State Board of Education recognized that:

The New Jersey courts have looked with great favor upon the voluntary resolution of litigation through settlement. [Citations omitted] As a general principle, and without considering the toll of human resources, the settlement of lawsuits in good faith can be said to save time, money and proof problems. School boards, in their efforts to conserve public funds, no less than private parties, have been encouraged by the state and federal courts to carefully consider equitable settlement possibilities.

(Slip opinion, at p. ____)

The State Board does caution that boards of education which settle litigation “must act in the public interest, lawfully, constitutionally, reasonably and in accordance with duly enacted rules and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and State Board of Education.” (Id.)

In this case, the Board in the proposed Settlement Agreement acknowledges its present belief “that there is an absence of evidence to support the charges. . .” and that “the prosecution of these charges will divert substantial amounts of money, time and key staff resources from the true mission of the district. . .”. (Paragraph Six, Background section of proposed Agreement) Having reviewed the charges, the Statement of Evidence and related documents which purportedly support the charges, and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the decision of this Board to settle the case is encouraged.

SETTLEMENT TERMS

The five essential terms of the proposed Settlement include the joint withdrawal and dismissal, with prejudice, by both parties of the tenure charges and the answer. Upon dismissal of the charges by the Commissioner, respondent shall withdraw with prejudice the remaining Count Two of his petition of appeal against the Board.

It is further agreed by and between the parties that they shall continue to abide by state and federal law governing affirmative action, as well as the rules and regulations of the Board of Education. The Board agrees that in consultation with the superintendent it shall confer and discuss directly with respondent any complaints brought against him by staff members in the district.

CONCLUSION

Based on the record in this case including society's interest in the nature of the charges, as well as the interests of the Board, the interests of respondent and of the school district as a whole, the likelihood of whether the charges may be supported by proofs reasonably anticipated by the Board to be offered at the hearing, the terms of the proposed Agreement including the absence of an exchange of public funds for services not rendered, and the consistency of the Agreement with existing law, I CONCLUDE that the proposed Settlement Agreement, which was freely entered into by the parties with full knowledge of their rights and each of whom are represented by competent counsel, is a full, fair, lawful and final disposition of the issues presented in this case.

ORDER

The parties are ORDERED to fully comply with the terms of the Settlement Agreement as attached and as set forth therein.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

BACKGROUND

1. Mr. Peter Granaldi ("Granaldi") filed a Petition (OAL Docket No. EDU 8107-92S and EDU 8108-92S [consolidated]) against the Eastampton Township Board of Education on or about September 21, 1992, which was amended on or about March 22, 1993.

2. The Eastampton Township Board of Education ("Board") filed tenure charges against Granaldi on February 10, 1994, which charges are currently pending before the Commissioner of Education ("Tenure Charges").

3. On March 1, 1994 Granaldi filed an Answer, with respect to the Tenure Charges ("Answer").

4. A hearing was held on April 27, 1994, with respect to Count One of Granaldi's Petition. Count Two of Granaldi's Petition was consolidated with the Tenure Charges [OAL Docket Nos. 2707-94S and 2708-94S (Consolidated)]. Only the Tenure Charges, the Answer and Count Two of Granaldi's Petition are the subject of this Settlement Agreement. Count One of Granaldi's Petition shall not be the subject of this Settlement Agreement.

5. The attorneys for the Board and Granaldi have met and have held discussions with regard to the matters alleged in the Tenure Charges. Granaldi and Board acknowledge that allegations exist regarding the occurrence of certain events which have been delineated in the Tenure Charges; Granaldi denies the allegations made as part of the Tenure Charges. The parties have determined it to be in their respective best interests to resolve the above referenced matters and come to an agreement with respect to the obligations, duties and responsibilities of the Board and Granaldi regarding certain aspects of administration and the roles and responsibilities of the Board and Principal of the Elementary School.

6. Based upon these understandings, and recognizing that, when the Board certified the Tenure Charges, it did not suspend Granaldi; and based on its present belief that there is not sufficient evidence to support the Tenure Charges, and further based on its belief that the prosecution of these charges will divert substantial amounts of money, time and key staff resources from the true mission of the district, the parties have agreed to resolve this matter under and subject to the terms as outlined in this Settlement Agreement.

AGREEMENT

The parties to this Agreement, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. The Board and Granaldi shall make application to the Commissioner of Education to withdraw and dismiss the Tenure Charges and the Answer with prejudice.

2. Upon dismissal of the Tenure Charges by the Commissioner, Granaldi shall withdraw Count Two of his Petition with prejudice.

3. Acknowledging Granaldi's denial of the charges raised in the Tenure Charges, the Board and Granaldi agree to each abide by the policies and procedures of the Eastampton School District including, but not limited to affirmative action obligations of the Board and staff members.

4. The Board and Granaldi shall abide by all affirmative action laws, rules, regulations, policies and procedures.

5. The Board, with the Superintendent, shall confer and discuss directly with Granaldi any complaints brought against Granaldi by staff members in the school district.

WHEREAS, Granaldi and the Board have reviewed this Settlement Agreement and have consulted with their respective attorneys; and

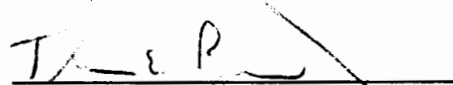

WHEREAS, Granaldi has approved of the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Settlement Agreement has been approved by a vote of the Members of the Board of Education of the Eastampton Township School District at its meeting of November 21, 1994, and has been made a part of the minutes of that meeting;

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : OF ROOSEVELT SIMS. :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, March 31, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Roosevelt Sims, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General
(Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Roosevelt Sims (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a school custodian in the Ridgewood school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been arrested in New York in August 1988 on charges of possession of a controlled dangerous substance, and subsequently convicted. The record review also revealed convictions for several nondisqualifying offenses in New York: resisting arrest and assault, both of which occurred in 1984, and petit larceny in 1985. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

Dec. 6, 1995

In a letter decision dated March 31, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,¹ concluding that "given the serious nature of your convictions, insufficient time has transpired since your last conviction to find clear and convincing evidence of your rehabilitation."

The petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.²

After a thorough review of the record, we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner, finding that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:

1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
4. The date of the offense;
5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;

¹ We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

(Emphasis added.)

Petitioner's submissions to the Deputy Commissioner include a letter from the principal of the school in which he had been employed prior to his disqualification, who indicates that:

I am extremely pleased with [petitioner's] performance and have recommended him for supervisory work. Mr. Sims is hard-working, aggressive, and resourceful. He goes beyond the responsibilities of his job to find work that needs attention. For example, a member of my staff left her computer in the parking lot. Mr. Sims saw the machine, worried that it was going to be taken, placed the computer in a safe place, and notified the teacher.

Mr. Sims has excellent leadership skills. The other members of the unit respect him because he works hard and takes charge. My staff members know that if they ask him to take care of a problem, he will find a way to get it done.

....I would like him to remain here on the custodial staff.

The teacher involved in the computer incident relates that after she inadvertently left the laptop in the school parking lot on a Saturday afternoon, she received a call from petitioner, who indicated that he had found it and brought it home for safekeeping. He offered to meet her at the school on Sunday morning to return it to her since she needed it before Monday morning. She states that his "honesty and his efforts to return the computer to me should be commended."

The unit manager of the private management services firm which had employed petitioner in his school custodial job praises him as "a reliable worker and supervisor.....Mr. Sims showed good customer service skills, assisting organizations using the school facilities for functions and helping teachers move furniture and supplies."

The president of a jail ministry who counseled petitioner following his release from prison commends him as "an example for any young person...that they can change their lives and get on the right track." She describes petitioner as "faithful" and "hardworking," adding that he "is an asset to any employer."

Petitioner's submissions to the Commissioner also reveal that he successfully completed and received an academic achievement award for a course in office technology in June 1993 at an adult education center. He also successfully completed a prison pre-release program and a 40-hour intensive peer counseling training program, in which students learned basic counseling skills while at the same time receiving therapy for alcohol and drug problems. In addition, following his release from prison, petitioner completed a life skills program offered by the Rockland County Department of Social Services. There have been no further arrests since August 1988.

While the gravity of petitioner's offenses is apparent, we find that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Given the uncontradicted evidence in the record, including the recommendations of his supervisors and petitioner's successful efforts to acquire training and experience, as well as his actions in safeguarding and returning the computer left in the school parking lot, we conclude that he has convincingly demonstrated his rehabilitation under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Moreover, as required by that provision, we have considered the "nature and responsibility" of the position petitioner held within the public school system. In this respect, we stress that he was disqualified from employment as a school custodian, a position which does not include responsibility for the care, supervision or instruction of students.

We note further that there is no indication in the record that petitioner's New York assault conviction resulting from his arrest in June 1984 constituted a disqualifying offense under the statute. While any conviction for aggravated assault is disqualifying, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(1), a conviction for simple assault is disqualifying only if it involves "the use of force which results in bodily injury." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(2). In this case, the record does not specify the particular provisions of New York's criminal code under which petitioner was convicted. Nor is there any indication as to petitioner's underlying conduct. Consequently, there is no indication on this record that such offense would be disqualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. See In the Matter of the Disqualification from School Employment of Michael Taylor, decided by the State Board, November 1, 1995.

Moreover, in concluding that "insufficient time has transpired," the Deputy Commissioner improperly relied upon the date of petitioner's conviction, rather than the "date of the offense." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e)(4) (emphasis added).

Accordingly, in view of our finding that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), we reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey.

 FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
 MENT OF SHAWN HINES. : DECISION ON MOTION
 _____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 30, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Shawn Hines, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Shawn Hines (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a substitute teacher for the Newark school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review (hereinafter "respondent") of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools following a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

In a letter decision dated January 30, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification.¹ Relating that petitioner had been convicted of simple assault in 1990 and also had an arrest in 1989 for possession of marijuana

¹ We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws..." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

SEPT. 6, 1995

which "has not been fully resolved," the Deputy Commissioner found that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

Petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.² Respondent subsequently filed a motion to remand this matter to the Commissioner for a hearing on the issue of petitioner's rehabilitation. Petitioner opposes such a remand, claiming that the Commissioner's staff is "influenced by members of an Italian organized crime group" and cannot be trusted to provide him with a fair hearing.

After a thorough review of the record, we remand this matter to the Commissioner for the reasons that follow.

We find initially that the Deputy Commissioner's decision does not indicate a conviction for an offense which is regarded as disqualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Although petitioner was arrested on a charge of aggravated assault, that charge was subsequently reduced to simple assault. Simple assault, unlike aggravated assault, is disqualifying under the statute only if it involves "the use of force which results in bodily injury." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c). There is no indication of bodily injury in the record before us. The only other arrest shown in the record is for possession of a controlled dangerous substance, 50 grams or less of marijuana, which, while disqualifying if it results in a conviction, "has not been fully resolved." Deputy Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 1. Consequently, the only conviction revealed in the Deputy Commissioner's decision is for simple assault, a non-disqualifying offense in the absence of bodily injury.

In that the record before us reveals an arrest for possession of marijuana, but does not clearly indicate the disposition of that charge, we remand this matter to the Commissioner for an initial determination regarding the outcome of that particular charge and for a resultant determination as to whether petitioner has any convictions which would disqualify him from school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.³

In the event it is determined that petitioner has been convicted of a disqualifying offense, we also grant the respondent's motion to remand this matter to the Commissioner for a hearing on the issue of rehabilitation. Petitioner has presented no evidence to substantiate his bias allegation against the Commissioner, and we reject as entirely without merit his contention that the Commissioner cannot provide him with a fair hearing. Consequently, in the event it is determined that petitioner has been convicted of a disqualifying offense, we direct the Commissioner to conduct a hearing in order to provide petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. We direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of ³ The criminal record reports indicates that petitioner was arrested on April 1, 1989 and charged with obstruction of justice, hindering arrest and possession of marijuana. demonstrating his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

In a letter decision dated January 30, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification of petitioner from continued employment in the State's schools as a substitute teacher following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 which revealed a conviction for simple assault. On September 6, 1995, we rejected that determination, stressing that simple assault was not a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 in the absence of bodily injury. However, in that the record also revealed an arrest for possession of marijuana, but did not indicate the disposition of that charge, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner for a determination regarding the outcome of that particular charge and for a resultant determination as to whether petitioner had any convictions which would disqualify him from school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

In a letter decision dated December 6, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner, in accordance with our remand,¹ indicated that the "outstanding warrant for your arrest...with respect to a Possession of Marijuana charge against you has been vacated and all fines have been paid." Consequently, the Deputy Commissioner concluded that petitioner was deemed qualified for school employment. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner complied with the terms of our remand. However, we clarify the Deputy Commissioner's determination. The record indicates that petitioner received a conditional discharge of the possession of marijuana charge. See N.J.S.A. 2C:36A-1. The outstanding warrant revealed in the record was apparently issued when petitioner failed to pay the fines imposed as a condition of such discharge. When those fines were subsequently paid, the court dismissed the charge in accordance with the terms of the conditional discharge. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:36A-1, "dismissal [following satisfaction of the terms of a conditional discharge] shall be without court adjudication of guilt and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities, if any, imposed by law upon conviction of a crime or disorderly persons offense...." Consequently, since petitioner does not have a conviction for a disqualifying offense under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, he is not disqualified from school employment on the basis of that statute.² We therefore dismiss the appeal.

June 5, 1996

Date of mailing JUN 07 1996

² We note that, in a separate proceeding, the State Board of Examiners revoked petitioner's teaching certificate as a result of his conviction for simple assault. In the Matter of the Revocation of the Teaching Certificate of Shawn R. Hines, decided by the State Board of Examiners, October 19, 1995. That decision is currently on appeal to the State Board of Education.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $650,357 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994. The amount was subsequently reduced to $185,600.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $29,000.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $222,183 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $139,418 in cap waiver monies for a total General fund tax levy of $9,037,608 for the 1994-95 school year.

For Petitioner Board of Education, Corino and Dwyer
 (Louis C. Dwyer, Jr., Esq., of Counsel)

For Respondent Township, Bruce M. Gorman, Esq.

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 16, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Middle Township Board of Education (Board) pursuant to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.1 et seq. The Board sought restoration, on the grounds of necessity for a thorough and efficient system of education, of $650,357 in reductions made by the Mayor and Committee of the Township of Middle, Cape May County (Township) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, to the General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year proposed by the Board in its budget which was rejected by the voters at the annual school election held on April 19, 1994. Additionally, on June 17, 1994, the Board filed a Petition of Appeal seeking the Commissioner's approval of a defeated cap waiver in the amount of $222,183 which had been approved by the Cape May County Superintendent for submission to the voters of the district. On July 18, 1994, the Township filed its Answer.

Subsequent to filing the original Petition of Appeal in the base budget matter, the Board by letter dated June 7, 1994, informed the Cape May County Superintendent that altered circumstances had permitted the Board to accept $464,757 of the $650,357 in reductions imposed by the Township in the base budget, thus, reducing the amount in dispute between the parties as related to the base budget to $185,600. (See letter of June 7, 1994 from Elaine M. Jordan, School Business Administrator to County Superintendent Sandra Lowe.) Upon approval of the budget appeal reduction by the County Superintendent, the Board was directed by the Commissioner's representative to file an Amended Petition of Appeal which was filed on July 20, 1994. The Township filed an Amended Answer on September 8, 1994. The parties to this controverted matter were also informed by the director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, that the total revised amount sought by the Board was within the statutory budget cap limits; therefore, the original consolidated matter would be reviewed as a standard budget appeal. (See letter of Hope Blackburn to parties dated July 8, 1994.)

Position Statements on the base budget appeal were filed by the Township and the Board on September 19, 1994 and October 6, 1994, respectively. The Board filed a Position Statement on its cap waiver line items December 15, 1994. The Township did not submit a position statement for those line items contained within what was the Board's original cap waiver appeal despite letters dated September 21, 1994 and November 22, 1994 from the director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes to the parties notifying the Township of its right to file an Answer and a position statement. In addition, on December 16, 1994, the parties to this matter were notified that the Commissioner intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated underdesignated surplus. The record was closed upon the expiration of time for responses.

Consequently, the amounts in dispute in this matter are as follows:

Proposed Tax Levy Adopted by the Board of Education	Amount of Tax Levy Certified by the Township Committee
General Fund $9,519,547	General Fund $8,869,190
Amount of Reduction in the Budget by Township Committee	Amount of Reduction in Dispute Before the Commissioner
General Fund $650,357	General Fund $185,600
Amount of Line Items Contained in Original Cap Waiver	Total Amount to be Decided by Commissioner
$222,183	$407,783

After consultation with the Board, the Township certified to the Cape May County Board of Taxation a General Fund tax levy in the amount of $8,869,190 for the 1994-95 school year. The line items and the rationale for the reductions as provided by counsel are set forth below:

All of the above reductions were reviewed with several board members on May 16, 1994. It was agreed that none of the reductions would harm any educational programs.

The Township was not authorized pursuant to its authority under N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, to review the following line item accounts contained within the original cap waiver appeal. These accounts will not be considered by the Commissioner as part of the base budget appeal because of the subsequent changed circumstances recorded above.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey

requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature, by way of statutory scheme, has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Below are set forth the arguments of the parties in those line item accounts in dispute and the Commissioner's conclusion in each such line item. Additionally, the Commissioner has considered the Board's rationale on those line items which were originally contained within the cap waiver appeal and set forth his determination for each individual item and its relationship to a thorough and efficient system of education.

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-190-100-320	Purchased Professional-Educ. Services	$10,000

The Township's position is set forth in a sworn affidavit from Leon Costello, the Municipal Accountant, who cites an alleged written submission from Kelliann DiTullio, a Board-employed accountant, to the effect that the Board expended only $10,500 for this purpose in 1993-94. (See Exhibit 1.) The Board merely cites the purpose of the funds in this line item as being the cost of membership in the County Visual Aids membership and assembly programs.

The Commissioner determines that the Board has failed to demonstrate why the amounts remaining in this account are insufficient to meet its requirements. Mere citation of the purpose for which a reduced item is to be used does not constitute a sufficient basis for the Commissioner to conclude that the elimination of the funds prevents the district from providing a thorough and efficient system of education. The Commissioner also notes that the Board offered no rebuttal questioning the accuracy of Mr. Costello's assertions either here or in any other accounts. The $10,000 reduction is sustained.

11-401-100-500	Purchased Services (300-500 series)	$5,000
----------------	-------------------------------------	---------

The Township, citing Ms. DiTullio again, asserts that the funds in this account had in the past been provided from student activity funds and had not previously been budgeted. (See Exhibit 1.) The Board once again offers no argument other than indicating the alleged purpose for which the funds were budgeted. The reduction of $5,000 in this account is sustained.

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-401-100-800	Other Objects	$5,000

The Township, citing alleged recommendations from Ms. DiTullio, indicates that the fees for copyrights for plays and the other purposes cited by the Board were also previously paid for out of student activity funds. The Board, as in the earlier accounts, provides no data other than the cost of the various activities in this account and no rebuttal of the Township's assertion that these activities have previously been funded out of student activity funds. The $5,000 reduction is sustained.

11-000-219-320	Purchased Professional-Education Serv.	$7,000
----------------	--	---------

The Township, citing Ms. DiTullio, contends that only $16,639 was expended for neurological and psychiatric services in 1993-94; therefore, the $28,000 budgeted by the Board in this account was excessive. The Board offers no rebuttal, once again limiting its position to citing the purposes for which the funds in this account are used. The Board offers no documentation to explain the gap between its 1993-94 costs for the evaluations in this account and the $28,000 projected appropriation. Consequently, the Commissioner sustains the $7,000 reduction in this account.

11-000-222-300	Purchased Professional & Technical Serv.	$5,000
----------------	--	---------

The Township asserts that in previous years the professional repair services included in this account were budgeted as Miscellaneous Expenditures under account 11-998-0260-0890. The amount expended for that purpose in 1993-94 was $3,695.82 out of an appropriation of $29,651. (See Exhibits 4 and 5.) Based upon such documentation, the Township asserts that the Board's recommended appropriation of $19,477 was excessive. The Board once again offers no rebuttal and limits its position to indicating the items for which the monies in this account are used. The aforesaid Board information does not successfully meet the standard for overriding the Township's reasons for the reduction. The $5,000 reduction is sustained.

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-000-222-600	Supplies and Materials	$5,000

The Township points out that the Board's budget documentation provided $11,000 for setting up a new library in Elementary School #1. It contends that at a public meeting on May 9, 1994, the Board acknowledged that the new library would not be completed until at least half way through the year and, thus, not all books would be purchased during 1994-95. The Board offers no rebuttal to the Township's assertion regarding the library in Elementary School #1, limiting itself once again to indicating the purposes for which funds in this account are utilized. Notwithstanding the Board's weak position, the Commissioner deems the stocking of a new library to be unquestionably consistent with the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Therefore, he directs the restoration of the $5,000 reduction in this account so that the Board ^{MAY} (my) complete the purchases of the books, periodicals and audiovisual materials in Elementary School #1 during the 1994-95 academic year. The Commissioner notes in this regard that there is no argument from the Township which challenges the need for these funds and he further concludes that if funds for this purpose are not provided in 1994-95, they will nonetheless be required in 1995-96 at perhaps greater cost. ✓

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-000-230-339	Other Purchased Professional Services	$5,000

The Township justifies its reduction in this account by pointing out that the Board's hiring of Ms. DiTullio as an accounting consultant to perform some of the functions previously carried out by the auditor would permit the reduction of the auditor's fee. The Board lists the purposes for which the monies in this account are expended including the auditor, architect, negotiator and the accounting consultant. (See Exhibit 16 of the Township's Position Statement.) Since fees for professional services are generally determined prior to the development of a budget, it would appear that a reduction in this account might leave the Board short in meeting its obligations. The $5,000 reduction is restored.

11-000-230-890	Miscellaneous Expenditures	$14,000
----------------	----------------------------	----------

The Township, citing Board documentation contained in Exhibit 17, claims $4,000 can be eliminated from this account by virtue of the elimination of the position of Supervisor of Instruction. Further, the Township contends that the Board could not satisfactorily document the purposes for which $25,000 was budgeted for Board member expenses. The Board cites the fact that the money in this account includes fees for membership in the New Jersey School Boards Association, as well as negotiated travel benefits for the Superintendent and Directors. The Commissioner, upon consideration of the position of the parties, concludes that the Board has failed to adequately document its detailed costs, particularly as it relates to Board expenses and the relationship of such expenses to a thorough and efficient system of education. The $14,000 reduction is sustained.

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-000-240-600	Supplies and Materials	$5,000

The Township contends that the Board's expenditures in 1993-94 were $50,365.55 through April 30, 1994. It contends that even allowing for expenditures in May and June, the 1994 projected budget of $71,560 was excessive. The Board offers no rebuttal, limiting its presentation to the purposes for which this account is funded. The Commissioner, therefore, sustains the $5,000 reduction in this account.

11-000-260-300	Purchased Professional & Technical Serv.	$25,000
----------------	--	----------

The Township contends that Board members had assured it that the Board did not intend to pay more than $275,000 for the custodial services provided by the Service Master Company, yet had budgeted $300,000 for that purpose. The Board contends that it has yet to send out bids for custodial services. It argues that should these bids come in higher than the $275,000 allowed by the Township's reduction, this account would be short. The Board has failed, however, to prove that these amounts are essential. Consequently, the $25,000 reduction is sustained.

11-000-260-620	Energy (Heat and Electricity)	$15,000
----------------	-------------------------------	----------

The Township provides a detailed breakdown of heating and electricity costs for the 1993-94 school year up to March 31, 1994, and prorates the balance of the school year to arrive at an estimate of the total cost for 1993-94. (See pages 17-19 of the Township's Position Statement for details.) The Board offers no explanation or documentation to support its position. The Commissioner sustains the $15,000 reduction in this account.

Account Number	Title	Reduction
11-000-260-300	Other Objects	$75,000

The Township argues that the summer maintenance projects outlined by the Board are laudable but are not all essential during a period of what it deems to be financial crisis. Of the sum of $113,000 worth of projects, the Township provided $38,000 for the Board to pick the most important projects for completion. The Board for its part provides no data as to the urgency of its needs but limits itself to listing projects.

Notwithstanding the Board's failure to provide back-up data as to the urgency of individual projects, the Commissioner deems the $75,000 reduction by the Township to be too severe and arbitrary. He, therefore, directs the restoration of $19,000 so that the Board may complete at least half of its projected maintenance projects. A $56,000 reduction is sustained.

----------------	------------------------	---------

The Township argues that the expenditures for 1993-94 up to April 30, 1994 were $51,806. Providing the additional two months, the Township estimates the total cost for 1993-94 was $64,757, while the proposed budget for 1994-95 in this account is $94,600, a $30,000 increase. The Board merely indicates the supplies funded by this account and claims because of the reduction imposed, that it was unable to restock needed supplies for repair and maintenance of its buses.

The Commissioner notes that the Board offers no rebuttal to the Township's estimates of 1993-94 costs, nor does it provide detailed documentation as to what factors justified the large increase in appropriations in 1994-95. The $9,600 reduction is sustained.

SUMMARY

The following constitutes the summary of the Commissioner's determinations as it relates to the reductions imposed by the Township.

11-000-270-600	Supplies and Materials	9,600	- 0 -
	Totals	$156,600	$29,000

The following are the accounts originally included in the Board's cap waiver appeal, but which are now being considered as part of the base budget since the Board in the above-described budget appeal reduced the amount it was seeking in restorations, thus, resulting in the total budget being within cap. In reading his determination in these accounts, the Commissioner shall apply the standard of review applicable in budget appeals as delineated earlier in this decision.

Account Number	Title	Amount
11-205-100-106	Other Salaries for Instruction	$16,553
11-213-100-101		33,106
11-213-100-106		33,106
	Total	$82,765

The Board concedes that the funds in the above accounts, which included five aide positions, are no longer needed due to changes in enrollment, staff attrition and reassignments.

Account Number	Title	Amount
11-000-260-300	Purchase of Technical Services	$54,033
11-000-260-800	Other Objects	8,947
	Total	$62,980

The Board argues that the above funds are needed to meet contractual obligations and to provide essential services such as trash collection. The Board offers no specifics as to the contractual obligations involved in these accounts other than trash removal; however, based upon the Department of Education's records as to the actual audited unappropriated free balance available to the Board as of June 30, 1994, the Commissioner is aware that the Middle Township Board only had an undesignated unreserved fund balance of $32,439 or .16% of its total General Fund Budget. Given the unavailability of any significant free balance to meet its obligations, the Commissioner directs the inclusion of the total of $62,980 for these two accounts in the district General Fund tax levy for 1994-95.

Account Number	Title	Amount
11-000-240-104	Other Professional Staff	$8,000

The Board argues for the inclusion of this amount in order to fill vacancies for department chairpersons in two high school departments which have been vacant due to financial circumstances.

The Commissioner, having concluded that supervision of staff and the provision of leadership in curriculum development is essential to a thorough and efficient education, directs the inclusion of the $8,000 in this account in the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy.

Account Number	Title	Amount
11-000-270-107	Student Transp. Services-Salaries	$23,350

The funds in this account are for bus drivers to provide field trips and after school transportation.

Extension of educational experiences beyond the confines of the school building are an integral part of a thorough and efficient education. The Commissioner directs the inclusion of $23,350 in the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy.

11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$38,910
11-000-290-220	Social Security	6,178
		$45,088

The above accounts are for hospitalization and social security. The Board contends that it is presently in deficit in both of these accounts.

Given the precarious free balance situation of this district and the lack of active opposition from the governing body, the Commissioner directs the inclusion of a total of $45,088 in the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy.

By way of summary, the Commissioner has found the following amounts necessary to provide a thorough and efficient system of education from those accounts included in the original cap waiver request:

Account Number	Amount
11-000-260-300	$54,033
11-000-260-800	8,947
11-000-240-104	8,000
11-000-270-107	23,350
11-000-290-290	38,910
11-000-290-220	6,178
Total	$139,418

As a consequence of the above determinations, the Commissioner directs the Cape May County Board of Taxation to strike an additional tax levy for support of the Middle Township Public Schools consisting of $29,000 in restorations of reductions imposed by the Township and $139,418 consisting of those accounts contained within the original cap waiver request for a total of $168,418. The result of the above additional General Fund tax levy shall constitute a total 1994-95 General Fund tax levy of $9,037,608.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

For the Appellant, Kenneth R. Hampton, Esq.

For the Respondent, Nancy Kaplen, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On June 1, 1995, the Board of Education of the City of Bayonne (hereinafter "Board") filed a "petition of appeal" and accompanying motion for leave to appeal with the State Board of Education. The Board indicated that it was seeking to appeal from a determination of the Commissioner of Education with respect to a reallocation of its 1995-96 current expense budget.

By letter dated June 6, 1995, the Board was notified by the Counsel to the State Board that its notice did not designate the decision of the Commissioner from which it was appealing, as required by N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.7. She noted, however, that it did contain a determination made on March 20, 1995 by the Acting Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28. The Board was provided with the opportunity to amend its filing so as to specifically designate the decision from which it was appealing. The Board was further advised that in the event it had intended to file a motion for leave to appeal, rather than a notice of appeal from a final decision of the Commissioner, its motion was deficient in that it did not include a supporting brief as required by N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.18. In addition, the Board was advised that, although it had named the Commissioner as a respondent in this matter, there was no indication that the Commissioner had been served with the notice of appeal. In that the papers filed by the Board did not conform with such requirements, the Board was notified that this matter was being referred to our Legal Committee, and it was given until June 14 to correct the deficiencies.

The Board, however, has failed to amend its filing, file a supporting brief or provide the required proof of service. Nor has it at any time requested an extension of time for such filing or offered any explanation for the delay.

The State Board of Education therefore dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect.

MENT OF MATTHEW J. GAMBALE. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education,
May 26, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Matthew J. Gambale, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy
Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney
General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹ Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

We stress, in addition, that the statute expressly requires consideration of the "date of the offense" (emphasis added), rather than the date of conviction relied upon by the Deputy Commissioner in his decision. Moreover, while N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) includes "the circumstances under which the offense occurred" as a factor to be considered in determining whether an individual has demonstrated rehabilitation, that statute does not require submission of a statement detailing the circumstances leading to an arrest and conviction in order to establish rehabilitation.

We retain jurisdiction.

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 5121-94

AGENCY DKT. NO. 71-4/94

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE
HEARING OF MARY MORRIS,
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTH BRUNSWICK

Anthony B. Vignuolo, Esq., for petitioner (Borris, Goldin, Foley, Vignuolo, Hyman & Stahl, attorneys)

Stephen E. Klausner, Esq., for respondent (Klausner, Hunter & Seid, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 12, 1995

Decided: January 13, 1995

BEFORE BRUCE R. CAMPBELL, ALJ:

The North Brunswick Board of Education (petitioner or Board) filed tenure charges of inefficiency before the Commissioner of Education and against Mary Morris (respondent or Morris), an art teacher, on April 15, 1994

The charges were answered and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for disposition as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13.

After notice, the undersigned conducted a prehearing conference on July 13, 1994. Among other things, it was settled that the matter would be heard on November 9, 10, 14 and 15, 1994; the respondent reserved the right to bring certain motions after initial discovery, and that the issue to be resolved was whether the charges or any of them were true in fact and, if true in fact, sufficient to warrant removal or reduction in salary.

In July, hearing dates were adjourned to November 28, 29 and 30 and December 1 to accommodate counsel.

Each party filed a motion in early autumn and in sufficient time to allow consideration before hearing.

On November 23, 1994, counsel informed the judge that the matter was settled. The judge directed that the settlement be reduced to writing, executed and submitted for consideration. The papers have been received and reviewed.

The State Board of Education in Tenure Hearing of Cardonick, OAL DKT. EDU 0100-82 (Apr. 8, 1983), established guidelines and criteria for application to tenure case settlements. After noting that New Jersey courts look with great favor on settlements, the Board also noted the Commissioner of Education's exclusive authority to decide tenure matters. Thus, the Commissioner's power "to review and evaluate, and to approve and disapprove, tenure settlements." Slip op. at 4.

I have reviewed the pleadings and the terms of settlement and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law, including the Commissioner's April 7, 1982 and the State Board's April 8, 1983 decisions in Cardonick and the settlement is consistent with public policy.
3. The total of moneys and emoluments the respondent will receive under the agreement do not exceed what would otherwise be her entitlement.

4. Both parties will save considerable hearing-related costs.
5. The charges against the respondent did not touch upon moral turpitude or unlawful conduct.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education grants the request of the parties to remand this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of her contention that she has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation.¹

Based upon our review of the submissions made by petitioner to the Deputy Commissioner, we find that she has shown significant evidence of rehabilitation on that basis alone. Those submissions reveal that petitioner has cared for children in her home for a number of years and has also successfully completed the requirements for a commercial drivers license. The parent of one child in petitioner's care praises her as a "very thoughtful and caring person," having "good character and sound judgment." A parent who has entrusted petitioner with the care of her two daughters, now seven and nine, since infancy, describes petitioner as "caring, reliable and trustworthy....I have never seen [petitioner] use or show any interest in dangerous substances. In fact, her personal beliefs of leading a decent, quality life are contradictory to drug or alcohol use." Another parent characterizes petitioner's driving skills as "excellent....I would feel very comfortable with [petitioner] as my daughter's bus driver."

¹ We note that the Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner and was not served with notice of the appeal to the State Board. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

Petitioner acknowledges the mistakes she made a decade ago, contending that she was "mixed up with the wrong crowd," and asserts that she has remained drug-free for the past ten years. Her submissions to the Deputy Commissioner include a certification from a vicinage chief probation officer in Middlesex County attesting to her rehabilitation and indicating that her service as a school bus driver "would not be incompatible with the welfare of society." We note, in addition, that there have been no further arrests since 1985, when petitioner was 24.

Given the circumstances, we direct that the hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner in conformity with our decision herein be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992. Petitioner has the burden on remand of establishing her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. However, given petitioner's submissions to the Deputy Commissioner, we conclude that the recommendation of an individual who has had petitioner under his or her supervision in her position as a bus driver for the Edison school district would alone be sufficient at hearing to establish her rehabilitation.

We retain jurisdiction.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : DECISION OF JUNE A. SEIFRED. :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, May 12, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, August 2, 1995

Decision on remand by the Commissioner of Education, February 16, 1996

For the Petitioner-Appellant, June A. Seifred, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On August 2, 1995, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner of Education for a hearing in order to provide petitioner, who had been disqualified from employment in the State's schools as a bus driver following a criminal history review pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 et seq., with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of her contention that she had satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Based upon our review of the submissions which had been made by petitioner to the Deputy Commissioner, we found that petitioner had shown significant evidence of rehabilitation on that basis alone. We therefore concluded that the recommendation of an individual who had had petitioner under his or her supervision in her position as a bus driver for the Edison school district would alone be sufficient at hearing to establish her rehabilitation. We retained jurisdiction.

In accordance with our remand, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where a hearing was held on November 22, 1995. On January 6, 1996, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") rendered an initial decision in which she concluded that petitioner had demonstrated her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. The ALJ detailed petitioner's evidence of rehabilitation, including a letter of recommendation submitted by the assistant manager of the transportation company employing petitioner.

On February 16, 1996, the Commissioner adopted the ALJ's recommended decision, finding petitioner to be qualified for school employment as a bus driver. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of our remand. Thus, pursuant to the Commissioner's decision, petitioner is qualified for school employment as a bus driver, and we dismiss the appeal.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH : DECISION

OF HARRINGTON PARK, BERGEN COUNTY, :

RESPONDENT. :

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, former school business administrator/Board secretary, challenged his termination from that position after one year of service. Petitioner alleged that termination violated Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA); that it was violative of the contract under which petitioner was denied health benefits for 1993; and that the Board wrongfully failed to account to petitioner for unused vacation time and certain other expenses due and reimbursable to him.

ALJ concluded the Board's motion for summary decision dismissing petition for lack of jurisdiction was ripe for determination, there being no genuine material issues of fact in dispute. (N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5) Moreover, the issues were fundamentally contractual matters more properly cognizable in a judicial forum, not before the Commissioner of Education since education law or statutory entitlement under education law was not sufficiently implicated. Also, there was no valid education claim to which the claim of violation of the OPMA was pendent or ancillary. Petition was dismissed without prejudice to whatever rights petitioner has in an appropriate forum.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

BOROUGH OF HARRINGTON

(Rand, Algeier, Tosti & Woodruff, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 5, 1995

Decided: January 11, 1995

BEFORE JAMES A. OSPENSON, ALJ:

The position of Wayne Demikoff as school business administrator/board secretary pursuant to written employment contract with the Board of Education of the Borough of Harrington Park, Bergen County, was terminated by the Board at its meeting of March 2, 1993, effective April 30, 1993, pursuant to Article VI of the contract giving either party at its sole option a right to elect to terminate the employment on 60 days' notice. In a petition of appeal filed with the Commissioner of the Department of Education on May 27, 1993, petitioner alleged in Count I that action of the Board at the March 2, 1993 meeting contravened the Open Public Meeting Act and that termination of employment was void for violation of it and was otherwise violative of "code or contract"; in Count II that Board action of termination was violative of the contract under which petitioner was denied health benefits for 1993; and in Count III that the Board wrongfully failed to account to petitioner for unused vacation time and certain other expenses due and reimbursable to him. He sought judgment of monetary remediation accordingly. The Board's answer, filed with the Commissioner on June 11, 1993, admitted petitioner's employment generally but alleged Board action was in good faith and compliant with state law, regulation, Board policy and contractual obligation. The Board sought dismissal of petition. The Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law on July 19, 1993 for hearing and determination in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 et seq.

There were telephone prehearing conferences in the Office of Administrative Law on December 15, 1993, February 18, 1994 and May 10, 1994. In confirmation of conference on the latter day, the administrative law judge ORDERED the parties to address a Board motion for summary decision testing the petition on the following issues:

1. Whether the Commissioner of Education has dispute resolution jurisdiction under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 over alleged breach of petitioner's employment contract; and
2. Whether petitioner's rights under the OPMA, N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 et seq., were violated by Board action as alleged in paragraphs 5-8 of the petition.

Hearing on motion was set for September 23, 1994, adjourned to December 15, 1994 at request and/or with consent of the parties and ultimately set for hearing on January 5, 1995. Board motion for summary decision with documentation was filed formally on December 21, 1994; petitioner's response with documentation was filed on January 4, 1995. The motion being ripe for disposition, argument thereon was held on January 5, 1995 and concluded. No genuine material triable issues of fact remained.

DISCUSSION

As argued by the Board, the Commissioner of Education under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 has "jurisdiction to hear and determine . . . all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws. . ." The New Jersey Supreme Court has determined that where controversies do not arise under school laws, they are outside the Commissioner's jurisdiction even though they may pertain to school boards. Board of Ed., East Brunswick Township v. Township Council East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 102 (1966). It has been held more narrowly that employment contract claims of nontenured school employees do not arise under school laws sufficiently to generate the Commissioner's dispute resolution jurisdiction. Cf., Picogna v. Board of Ed., Twp. of Cherry Hill, 249 N.J. Super. 332 (App. Div. 1991), in which the court said:

Whether petitioner's employment was wrongfully terminated under the contract . . . is for the court, not the Commissioner, to decide. [249 N.J. Super. at 335.]

This is especially so where no statutory educational entitlement like tenure is implicated in a disaffected school employee's claim and especially so where claims involve contractual perquisites like compensation for accrued annual leave that are otherwise squarely covered under contract. In Pijoux v. Board of Ed., City of Orange Twp., 1993 S.L.D. -- (Commissioner's decision, June 17, 1993; slip op. at 8-10), the Commissioner determined in a suit against the Board by a terminated untenured school superintendent that despite claims in the petition of appeal purporting to invoke educational law entitlements under, for example, N.J.S.A. 18A:17-19 and N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1, a review of the petition itself led to a conclusion the overall claim did not sufficiently implicate educational law to permit the Commissioner to exercise jurisdiction over its resolution since it was fundamentally a contractual matter. Such claims are more properly cognizable in judicial forum. Id. at 9. Cf., South Orange-Maplewood Education Association v. Board of Ed. of South Orange-Maplewood, 146 N.J. Super. 457, 462 (App. Div. 1977); Love v. Board of Ed., Trenton, 1988 S.L.D. -- (State Board August 2, 1989); slip op. at 7-9; Paladino v. Board of Ed., Twp. of Lacey, 1989 S.L.D. -- (State Board February 1, 1989); slip op. at 4-7.

Petitioner's claims are contractual in nature. They do not derive substantively from education law or statutory entitlement. The principal claim, for salary reimbursement from April 30, 1993 to the end of contract term on June 30, 1993, recognizes the Board's contractual power to terminate employment on 60 days' notice. Thrust of the claim, it would seem, is an allegedly faulty action at its Board meeting on March 2, 1993 when, said petitioner, the Board acted in violation of the OPMA. Reduced to essentials, the petition is a money claim for breach of an employment-at-will contract containing a 60-day termination clause.

As argued by the Board, however, if the Commissioner does not possess jurisdiction to hear contractual claims, he possesses no independent jurisdiction to remediate claims under the OPMA. In Sukin v. Northfield Board of Education, 171 N.J. Super. 184 (App. Div. 1979), the court concluded the Commissioner had incidental jurisdiction to hear issues arising under the OPMA as they relate to controversies under the school laws. 171 N.J. Super. at 187. Thus, Sukin and related case law hold that the Commissioner's jurisdiction to address OPMA violations is only "ancillary" or "pendent." The obverse is equally true: if the only significant issue presented before the Commissioner is an OPMA purported violation, absent a significant nexus to an underlying substantive school law issue, the Commissioner is without jurisdiction to adjudicate the sole question presented under the OPMA. See, Rovello v. Board of Ed., Hopewell Valley, 93 NJAR 2d (EDU) 313, 316. On application of that holding here, it becomes clear the question of regularity of the Board's action in terminating petitioner's employment contract on March 3, 1993 is not independently remediable as an OPMA violation, since the issue could only come before the Commissioner if it were "pendent" or ancillary to jurisdiction over the contract question which, equally obviously, it is not. The analysis moots the remaining question whether the Board effectually ratified its action later by resolution on September 27, 1994 confirming contract termination on March 2, 1993. See, J-5.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, having considered documentation, memoranda of law and argument of the parties, I CONCLUDE the Board motion for summary decision dismissing the petition for lack of jurisdiction is ripe for determination, there being no genuine material issues of fact in dispute, under criteria of N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. I CONCLUDE further the gist of the petition does not sufficiently implicate education law or statutory entitlement under education law to warrant or permit exercise of the Commissioner's dispute resolution jurisdiction over what are fundamentally contractual matters more properly cognizable in judicial forum. Finally, I CONCLUDE there is no jurisdiction in the Commissioner to remediate claim against the Board for alleged violation of the OPMA at a meeting of March 2, 1993 when it terminated petitioner's employment contract, there being no valid education claim to which the claim of violation of the OPMA is pendent or ancillary. The petition is DISMISSED, without prejudice to whatever rights petitioner has in appropriate forum.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH : DECISION

OF HARRINGTON PARK, BERGEN COUNTY, :

RESPONDENT. :

The record and initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions were untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, having been filed on February 14, 1995 in response to an initial decision mailed on January 24, 1995. Although petitioner included a cover letter explaining the basis for his late filing, this submission did not satisfy the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8 for extension of the mandatory time limits. As such, these exceptions, and subsequent reply exceptions filed by the Board, are not considered herein.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge that the within Petition of Appeal must be dismissed for lack of Commissioner of Education jurisdiction. As correctly stated by the ALJ, "*the gist of the petition does not sufficiently implicate education law or statutory entitlement under education law to warrant or permit exercise of the Commissioner's dispute resolution jurisdiction over what are fundamentally contractual matters more properly cognizable in [a] judicial forum." (Initial Decision, at p. 5) (Also see Pijeaux, supra.) The Commissioner further agrees that, absent a significant nexus to an underlying substantive education law issue, he is also without jurisdiction to adjudicate petitioner's remaining alleged OPMA violation purported to have occurred at the meeting where the Board terminated his employment contract. (See Sukin, supra; Rovello, supra.)

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein. The Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed without prejudice to any rights petitioner may have to pursue his contractual claims in an appropriate forum.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Board appealed $272,954 in line-item reductions made by the Township following defeat of the proposed 1994-95 school budget at the annual school election. Board also appealed voter rejection of General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $502,561.

Commissioner determined to sustain $163,900 of the line-item reductions and to restore $109,054. He further ordered the increase of $502,561 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $4,787,402 for the 1994-95 school year.

APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LUMBERTON, :
BURLINGTON COUNTY. :

_____ :

For Petitioner, John G. Dyer, III, Esq.

For Respondent, John C. Gillespie, Esq.
(Ferg, Barron & Gillespie)

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 7, 1994, through the concurrent filing of two Petitions of Appeal by the Lumberton Township Board of Education (Board). One sought restoration of $272,954 reduced from the school budget by the Lumberton Township Committee (Township) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the budget at the annual school election on April 19, 1994; the other sought inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund Tax Levy of a cap waiver in the amount of $502,561, which had been submitted to the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) and rejected by them.

On March 30, 1994, the Burlington County Superintendent of Schools had approved the Board's cap waiver request as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E), after reviewing the entire proposed school budget to determine whether further reallocation could be accomplished within the base budget so as to obviate the need for a cap waiver (see pp. 3-4 below). Having determined that no such additional reallocation was possible, the County Superintendent approved the budget for submission to the voters of the district on the condition that, should the budget or cap waiver question be rejected, the district must file appropriate appeals with the Commissioner of Education. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

At the annual school election on April 19, 1994, the T & E cap waiver question was placed before the voters, as was the public budget question proposing a General Fund Tax Levy of $4,448,741 for the 1994-95 school year; both were defeated. In light of this defeat, on May 2, 1994, following consultation with the Board as required by law, the Township adopted a resolution determining to certify a General Fund tax levy of $4,175,787 as sufficient to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E) in the district. This amount represented a reduction of $272,954 from the tax levy proposed by the Board, and was effectuated through cuts in eleven line items, plus a reduction in capital outlay, for the reasons given in Schedule A attached to the resolution (see pp. 6 ff. below). By resolution dated May 4, 1994, the Board determined to appeal these reductions, and, consistent with the directive of the County Superintendent above, duly filed its budget and cap waiver petitions.

The amounts in dispute in this consolidated appeal are as follows:

Tax Levy Proposed by Board		Tax Levy Certified by Township
General Fund	$ 4,448,741	General Fund	$ 4,175,787
Cap Waiver	$ 502,561	Cap Waiver	-0-
Amount of Reduction by Township		Amount of Reduction in Dispute
General Fund	$ 272,954	General Fund	$ 272,954
Cap Waiver	N/A	Cap Waiver	N/A

Amount of Cap Waiver Approved as T & E and Appealed Herein

$ 502,561

Total Amount on Appeal: $ 775,515

Answers to the Board's budget and cap waiver petitions were filed by the Township on June 27, 1994 (perfected July 11, 1994) and June 29, 1994, respectively.

On August 3, 1994, the County Superintendent filed his affidavit and supporting documents attesting to the process of review and analysis that led to his conclusion, and that of the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review Panel, that the cap waiver funds finally approved were both necessary for T & E and unable to be reallocated from within the base budget. These funds included both a $405,961 Commissioner cap waiver requested pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) based on an increase of 58.23% in special education costs ($64,741) and an average increase in enrollment of 12.64% ($341,220), and a $509,561 voter cap waiver requested pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f), of which $7,000 for cafeteria aides was rejected as not necessary for T & E. They also reflected a panel-directed reallocation of $19,500 from the base budget due to the Board's overestimation of tuition charges from the Burlington County Special Services School District. On August 24, 1994, the Township filed a response to this affidavit, contending that nothing therein would negate the Township's reductions or the reasons for them as set forth at length in its prior resolution, and that with respect to the cap waiver appeal, the Board had not met the requirements of Edgewater, infra.

On September 29, 1994, in response to Department of Education notices as to the Board's failure to file the position statement required by N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.8, the Board submitted its position statement with a cover letter indicating that it had been mailed on June 6, 1994, but apparently never received by the Department. On October 17, 1994, the Township filed a letter objecting to consideration of the Board's submission, as well as to the impending supplemental submissions mentioned in the Board's cover letter. Following a series of letters and conference calls with the Director of the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, it was finally determined that the Board's September 29, 1994 filing would be accepted as its position statement, that both the Board and the Township would submit final papers by February 3, 1995, and that the Board's papers would be in the nature of a final summation, while the Township's could be in the nature of a response to the Board's position statement.

In the interim, the parties were notified on December 19, 1994, that the Commissioner would take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus; no objections to such notice were filed by the parties. On February 3, 1995, the parties' final submissions were received as scheduled and the record of the appeal was closed.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989)

With respect to appeals involving cap waivers, before the Commissioner can direct restoration of any amount of a waiver defeated by the voters, the Commissioner must determine that such amount is both fully necessary for purposes of T & E and unable to be derived from further reallocation within the base budget. Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, Bergen County, State Board decision July 7, 1993, and Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, State Board decision July 6, 1994

Mindful, then, of the standards to be applied, the Commissioner makes specific determinations as follows.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION - BUDGET

The Township's reductions were primarily effectuated in eleven current expense line items, each of which is set forth below, together with the reason specifically given for the reduction in Schedule A attached to the Township's resolution, followed by the parties' respective arguments for and against restoration by the Commissioner.

Account No.	Description	Amount Cut
10-303	Budgeted Fund Balance	$ 40,000

Reason: Review of current budget balances suggests that these funds will be available for appropriation in the 1994-95 budget.

The Board argues that, at $192,526, it maintains only the most minimal surplus, that the district's history of increasing enrollments creates potentially significant exposures in both regular and special student needs, and that the continuing delay in making capital improvements caused by budgetary constraints has left it vulnerable to possible boiler failure and/or roof replacement in the 1994-95 school year. In its final summation, the Board notes that it has now in fact enrolled several new students with special education needs totaling over $85,000, thus leaving a dangerously low surplus to meet other contingencies, just as it had projected in its earlier submissions.

The Township argues that the Board has provided no factual support for its assertions regarding its potential need for surplus in the areas listed, instead relying on speculation, recommendations of unnamed "consultants," and exaggerated accounts of district enrollment increases over the last several years. The Township further observes that, at the time of its summation, well into the 1994-95 school year, the district had still not provided actual numbers to back up its earlier claims of anticipated increased enrollment.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs that the Board has not provided a sufficient factual basis for its claims regarding its potential need for surplus. More disturbing, however, is the fact that the Board, which herein contends that it could not absorb a $40,000 allocation from surplus to fund 1994-95 current expenses, in fact, appropriated $150,000 from surplus to cover just such expenses in its revised budget--including the full amount of advertised expenditures in line items reduced by the Township--thus leaving itself with an undesignated unreserved free balance of less than 1%. While this does, in fact, represent a low level of surplus, the Commissioner will not permit the Board to now benefit from its conduct by directing restoration of a reasonable reduction to compensate for the Board's having expended funds on items in dispute in this appeal and not yet specifically adjudged necessary for T & E. Accordingly, the reduction of $40,000 is sustained.

12-XXX-XXX-73X	Equipment	$ 3,000
----------------	-----------	----------

Reason: The amount budgeted is for the purchase of a mulch mower and additional dumpsters. The Board explained that the mower is eight years old and the dumpsters have deteriorated. The governing body believes that an eight-year-old mower is capable of being repaired and does not need to be replaced; and that dumpsters can be repaired by welding. $500 is sufficient to accomplish both purposes.

The Board argues that its current mulch mowers are in sufficiently poor condition to require replacement, and that expenditure of $1,000 to replace them will ultimately result in savings for the Board because the new mowers have significantly increased cutting capacity and will concomitantly decrease labor hours and costs. The Board further argues that it has had to spend money to repair worn out and heavily used dumpsters due to citations from the Department of Health for code violations, and that it would ultimately be more cost effective to purchase new ones, one this year at $2,000, and one next.

The Township presents no arguments in addition to those given in the resolution above.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that, while the Board's proposed purchases are facially reasonable attempts to maintain plant in a cost efficient manner, the particular purchases at issue are not truly essential for provision of T & E in the 1994-95 budget year. Moreover, it is difficult to see how custodial costs will be meaningfully reduced when the work is done by district staff who are paid on an annual rather than an hourly basis and reduction in lawn-cutting duties will not alone likely result in reduction of any positions. In the wake of the voters' defeat of the Board's proposed budget, the Commissioner cannot restore the amounts reduced by the Township under these circumstances. Accordingly, the $3,000 reduction is sustained.

11-401-100-100	School sponsored	$ 9,504
11-401-100-600	co-curricular activities -	200 instruction (salaries and supplies and materials)

Reason: These monies are for new extracurricular activities. It is otherwise already budgeted, for school-sponsored athletics instruction under similar account numbers, at $14,550, which is more than sufficient to fund these programs.

The Board argues that these monies, which represent the entire amount of the accounts at issue, are neither for athletic programs nor for new offerings, but rather to maintain existing activities in the areas of 8th grade advisor, student government advisor, literary magazine coordinator, drama advisor, yearbook advisor, AVA coordinator, safety patrol advisor, graduation coordinator, cheerleading coach and detention advisor; the only new position is for a proposed academic pride coordinator.

The Township further argues on appeal that these positions are not necessary for T & E, however desirable they may otherwise be.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Township's reduction was based on a faulty premise, namely that this account represented a duplication of monies budgeted elsewhere and/or covered a number of new positions. As maintenance of some degree of extracurricular activity is consistent with the provision of T & E, the Commissioner declines to eliminate this account in its entirety, as the Township's reduction would do; however, creation of an "academic pride coordinator" has not been shown to be necessary for T & E. Accordingly, the Commissioner sustains a reduction of $900 in Account 11-401-100-100, but restores the remaining $8,604 and $200 in Account 11-401-100-600.

11-000-230-339	Other purchased	$ 5,000
	professional services

Reason: The Board explained that these monies were set aside as a stipend to compensate individual employees for having assumed the task of telephoning substitute teachers when same are needed. The Township Committee is aware that said duties can be simply assigned to an employee already compensated under existing titles and positions, and that while it might be preferable to the Board of Education to pay someone "extra" for these services, same are not necessary and are not required in order to provide a thorough and efficient education.

The Board initially points out that the Township misidentified the line item within which this expenditure is located, noting that it is, in fact, included within Account No. 11-000-240-110 and is budgeted at $3,000, not $5,000. The Board further argues that establishment of a "substitute caller" position represents the least expensive and most efficient way to maintain the necessary system of absentee call-in and substitute procurement for teachers, aides and custodians, secretaries no longer being able to handle this ever-growing task in addition to their other duties.

The Township offers no arguments in addition to those given above.

Upon review of the Board's staffing and enrollment charts, the Commissioner accepts the Board's contention that the district has grown to a measurable degree in number of pupils and professional staff, and that secretarial and other support staff are relatively limited in number; he further recognizes that the function of responding to unforeseen staff absences and procuring substitutes on short notice is an essential component of providing T & E. In light of the Township's $2,000 accounting error and in light of the fact that the Board's proposed method of carrying out this necessary T & E function appears reasonable and cost-efficient, the Commissioner restores the $5,000 reduction.

Reason: The Board indicated that it costs approximately $12,000 per month for energy costs under this category. However, it is expected that the final year-end bill for this fiscal year will be approximately $164,000 because of the extraordinary nature of this past winter. Moreover, the Board indicated that it expects PSE&G to apply for a rate increase which may go into effect in 1995. Said expectation, however, is speculative at best; and if not petitioned until 1995, then the rate increase would likely not go into effect until after the 1994-95 fiscal year. If such an increase occurs, it would be appropriate to reflect same in the 1995-96 budget. Accordingly, the amount budgeted, $1,713,000, is $23,000 more than the revised appropriations for 1993-94; and is almost $30,000 more than the annual average based upon the Board's representations of a $12,000 monthly average. Reducing the appropriation by $20,000 still leaves the Board sufficient additional monies in the event the $12,000 per month average increases in the coming fiscal year.

The Board argues that 1993-94 energy costs will amount to about $164,000, and that, there having been no rate increase for two years and in the absence of assurances that one will not be forthcoming this year, it is prudent to assume an increase of 5.5%, all other areas of the budget being "stretched to the limit" and there being only minimal surplus available. In its final summation, the Board states that subsequent PSE&G charges for the 1993-94 school year brought the total bill to over $178,000--more than was budgeted in this account even before reduction. Notwithstanding that the Board is contesting these additional charges, it contends that this situation is indicative of the accuracy of the Board's budgeting and the unreasonableness of the Township's reduction.

The Township in its summation reaffirms the arguments of its resolution and notes that, in fact, no increase in rates has yet been requested, let alone implemented, for 1994-95.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Township's rationale regarding this reduction; mere speculation regarding a possible rate increase is simply not sufficient to support a claim of necessity for T & E. As to the Board's contention regarding late-billed costs for the 1993-94 school year, the Commissioner notes both the extreme weather conditions of last winter and the fact that no evidence has been provided to indicate that such costs have recurred or will recur in 1994-95. Accordingly, the reduction of $20,000 is sustained.

11-000-230-590 Other purchased services - $ 3,750
 400-500 series other than 530

Reason: The Board represented this line item consisted of contractual obligations for travel reimbursement for professional development training for the superintendent and Board members. Of the $7,500 appropriated, $4,200 is allocated to Board member professional development; $1,500 is allocated to the superintendent for travel reimbursement; and $2,000 is allocated for district staff travel reimbursement. The Township Committee understands that new Board members may be required to attend certain training courses; but that not all Board members need to attend conferences, workshops, etc. Therefore, reducing that component of the overall allocation related to Board member professional development, and allowing a total of $4,000 for the overall appropriation will be sufficient to allow for travel reimbursement under existing contracts, and for required Board member training.

The Board argues that a total of $4,250 is allocated to Board member conferences, including mandatory $680 plus mileage attendance at new board member training sessions. An additional $3,000 is allocated for attendance by three Board members at the annual New Jersey School Boards Association convention, which the Board views as essential to Board member development and hence for provision of T & E, noting that the Board would prefer to send all members, but has limited participation to three in response to budgetary constraints.

The Township offers no arguments in addition to those contained in its resolution.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Board that mandatory Board member training must be implemented and contractual obligations honored; he further concurs that additional Board member development through attendance at NJSBA events is an important component of T & E. He does not concur, however, that it is necessary in any given year to send more than one Board member to such events, so that $2,000 of the Township's reduction is sustained and $1,750 is restored.

11-120-100-101	Grades 1 - 5 -	$ 60,000
	Salaries of Teachers
11-000-290-290	Other Employee Benefits	$ 16,000

Reason: These reductions represent the reduction of two teaching positions in these grades. The Board of Education indicated that each position is appropriated $38,000, $30,000 from salary and $8,000 from other employee benefits. The total reduction, therefore, is $76,000. This is based upon the Board's acknowledgment that its anticipated hiring of additional teachers for these grade levels is based upon projected enrollment increases over the summer, which, by the Board's own acknowledgment, are not necessarily supported by historical statistical data. Moreover, even if said projections occur, the size of the classrooms currently in existence is adequate to house the additional students. There is no need to create new classrooms to reduce the number of students per classroom. While it may be preferable to increase the number of teachers and decrease the number of students, same is not necessary for a thorough and efficient education, and the classrooms to be occupied by the additional students were built and approved by the State of New Jersey, Department of Education, to accommodate 28 to 32 students. If the projected increase occurs, then the number of students per classroom will not exceed that limit.

The Board argues that its 1993-94 class sizes averaged 28 to 33 students, and that with anticipated enrollment increase for 1994-95, classes will be at 33 to 37 students, even with the two positions proposed to be cut by the Township; without these positions, class sizes will be in excess of 37 students, a level which is entirely unacceptable in the elementary grades. In its final summation, the Board specifies that loss of a first grade teacher will increase class sizes from 22 to 28, which would seriously compromise educational effectiveness; loss of a second grade teacher would increase class size to 38, a size beyond the capacity of the room; and loss of a third or fourth grade teacher would likewise increase class size beyond room capacity.

Upon review of the Board's staffing analysis as provided to the Township following defeat of the budget, the Commissioner notes that reduction of one first grade teacher would bring class sizes to 28-29 pupils, a size which is neither educationally untenable nor beyond the physical capacity of the room; he further notes that third and fourth grade classes were projected at 26-27 pupils without addition of new staff, so that it is unclear on what basis the Board makes its claims of class sizes in excess of 37 students. Accordingly, as the Board's own analysis supports the action taken by the Township, the reductions of $60,000 and $16,000 are sustained.

11-000-270-511	Contract Services -	$ 22,000
	Between Home and School (Vendors)

Reason: The amount represents the elimination of a bus run which it is felt can be accommodated by existing walkways which allow students to walk to school.

The Board concedes that most, if not all, of this transportation is not required by statute for reasons of remoteness; rather, it is for safety reasons which the Board deems to be extremely compelling, involving walkways along a major county highway with partial sidewalks, inadequate shoulders and no traffic light at the crossway. The Board believes that, in view of the unlikelihood of county or municipal remedy, it has a "moral responsibility" to provide the transportation at issue.

The Township in summation adds that, even given the Board's view of its obligation, it has presented no evidence that it cannot accommodate the students at issue through existing routes.

Upon review, notwithstanding that the Board is acting in what it believes to be the best interest of children, the Commissioner cannot restore funds for an item that is clearly beyond the bounds of necessity for T & E. It is well established that boards of education are responsible for provision of transportation for reason of remoteness, but that correction of, or compensation for, roadway hazard is the responsibility of the governmental entities in control of the roadway(s) at issue. While it is unfortunate that budgetary constraints might compel a Board to eliminate "courtesy" busing it would otherwise like to provide, in the wake of a defeated budget, there is simply no basis on which the Commissioner can act to restore monies for transportation the district is not required by law to provide. Accordingly, the reduction of $22,000 is sustained.

11-000-310-100 Salaries - Food Service $ 90,000

above, ranging from 4% to 12%, with a number of 5% increases in between. The governing body believes that in today's economy and given the extraordinary size of this budget, large salary increases cannot be afforded or accommodated. Since there are currently no contractual obligations binding the school district to pay any given increase, the Board having represented to the governing body that they are currently in negotiations with the various unions for the 1994-95 fiscal contract year, the Township Committee believes that the reduction of $90,000 still affords the Board of Education sufficient leeway to negotiate significant salary increases for its employees.

The Board notes that the Township cut $90,000 from an account which is budgeted at $12,670 and designated to pay the salaries of food service employees, providing as justification its belief that the district has set aside an excessive amount for salary increases, which in economic times such as these should be severely limited, if granted at all. The Board contends that the amounts left by the Township's reduction will not even cover the mandatory increments which the district is obliged by law and/or contract to pay even without negotiation of a new contract. In its final summation, the Board states that it settled its contract at 4.4% increases, less than the 5% accorded by the Township to its own employees, thus holding to its promise to try and contain salary expenditures.

The Township states that the Board settled at 4.1%, and that by the Board's own earlier admission (Position Statement, at p. 21), if it were to obtain a 4% settlement (which it contended it could not), its additional costs would be $100,000. The Township now claims that, in reducing the amount allocated in this item to allow for a 4% settlement, it actually provided the district with precisely what it ultimately needed, so that no restoration is warranted.

Upon review, given the lack of specification as to the line items actually affected and the lack of other detail, the Commissioner cannot ascertain the basis for the Township's calculation; neither can he determine how much is left in the affected accounts after reduction or whether those amounts would, in fact, be sufficient for the Board to meet its salary obligations districtwide. Under these circumstances, the Township's reduction has the effect of being a "lump sum" figure designed to, as the Board states, "send a message" to the Board and limit its parameters in negotiating with employees. As such, the reduction must be viewed as arbitrary, and since payment of contracted staff salaries and increments is certainly necessary for T & E, the Commissioner restores the $90,000 reduction. As the line item to which this reduction was made is budgeted at less than $15,000, the balance of the restoration is to be applied to the various salary accounts consistent with their original levels.

Capital Outlay (No Line Item Given)	$ 3,500
-------------------------------------	----------

Finally, the Commissioner notes that the Township included as an addendum to Schedule A of its resolution a reduction of $3,500 to "capital outlay," with no specification of line-item account or basis for the reduction; neither do the parties address this reduction in their filings on appeal. However, given the Township's complete lack of specification and justification, and given the need demonstrated by the district elsewhere in the record for enhanced and expanded facilities, this reduction of $3,500 is restored.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION - CAP WAIVER

The line-item amounts approved by the County Superintendent for submission to the voters as a T & E cap waiver question were as follows:

Account Title	Account Number	Dollar Amount
Half-time Kindergarten Teacher	11-110-100-101	$ 15,000
Additional Grades 1-5 Teachers	11-120-100-101	181,371
Additional Grades 7-8 Teachers	11-130-100-101	66,859

Basic Skills - Textbooks	11-230-100-640	702
Nurse's Aide - Elementary	11-000-213-330	15,000
Library Supplies	11-000-222-610	6,190
Architect's Fees	11-000-230-340	40,000
Two Bus Runs - Enrollment	11-000-270-511	44,000
Benefits for Staff Listed	11-000-290-290	67,764
Elementary Equipment	12-120-100-730	4,500
Secondary Equipment	12-130-100-730	880
Perceptually Impaired Equipment	12-205-100-730	400
Resource Room Computer Upgrade	12-213-100-730	970
Total Amount of T & E Cap Waiver:		$502,561

In support of its claims, the Board offers the following arguments:

Additional Teaching Positions/Benefits (Account Nos.
 11-110-100-101, 11-120-100-101, 11-130-100-101 and 11-000-290-290). These positions are needed due to increased enrollment. Without the kindergarten position, classes will be larger than regulatory size; without the four additional elementary teachers, middle school teacher and part-time physical education teacher, the district will be forced to create classes that exceed acceptable size for health and safety purposes as well as educational. Moreover, as the district's growth is continuing, it will prevent the district from adequately preparing for future increases.

School Supplies (Account No. 11-190-100-610). New workbooks are needed to implement the district's newly created math, science and reading curricula.

Textbooks (Account Nos. 11-190-100-640 and 11-230-100-640). Middle school students are presently sharing textbooks, as not enough are available for new students.

Summer School - Basic Skills (Account No. 11-230-100-101). This money is to restore a valuable program that was lost to budgetary restrictions this past summer. Basic skills students need program continuity and reinforcement between school years to maintain the gains they have made.

Basic Skills Instruction Aide (Account No. 11-230-100-106). The district's goal is to have one aide per grade level, covering four classrooms. At present, the district is one aide short of this goal, so that one aide is covering two grades (eight classes). This is not educationally effective and the benefit of this relatively low-cost item is enormous.

Nurse's Aide - Elementary (Account No. 11-000-213-330). The nurse's aide position, added two years ago, is essential to maintaining necessary services to the district's increasing number of students, in that the school nurse cannot alone handle both student needs and administrative duties.

Library Supplies (Account No. 11-000-222-610). This amount is to replace unusable books and purchase new ones consistent with the district's growing student population. The amount included in the base budget is insufficient for this purpose.

Architect's Fees - Building Program (Account No. 11-000-230-340). The district plans to hold a referendum during this school year in order to begin to meet its ever-increasing facilities needs. An architect is required to assist in the development and costing out of the various options available, ranging from expansion of present facilities to new construction.

Bus Runs (Account No. 11-000-270-511). Growth necessitates the addition of two bus runs for mandated transportation. This is the minimum number needed (four were originally proposed) based on a sophisticated computer analysis that enabled the district to explore every option for using existing runs to the fullest.

Computers/Equipment (Account Nos. 12-120-100-730, 12-130-100-730, 12-205-100-730, 12-213-100-730). These monies will purchase five Macintosh computers and three printers to be distributed among the elementary school, middle school, resource room and the perceptually impaired program. This addition of technology will greatly benefit the educational program.

In sum, the Board stresses the growth the district has experienced in recent years, and which it will continue to experience for some time to come, and the needs that this creates for facilities and programs, both in the long and short run. The Board urges approval of the cap waiver amounts as truly essential for continued provision of T & E in the wake of such expansion.

In reply to the Board's arguments as to the need for a waiver, the Township generally contends that the Board has failed to provide factual support for its assertions, and that the Board can, in reality, provide for T & E without budgeting over cap.

Upon review of the record on appeal, it is clear that, notwithstanding the disagreement between the Board and the Township as to the precise extent of the problem, the Lumberton school district is experiencing a high degree of growth and has need of funds over and above ordinarily permissible levels to enable it to adjust its programs and enhance its facilities accordingly, so as to continue its provision of T & E to a significantly expanded and still-growing student population. The items requested in the Board's cap waiver question, and approved by the County Superintendent and Cap Waiver Review Panel after careful review, are all directly related to such provision. Neither is the need for these funds obviated by the reductions to the base budget sustained above; rather, in this context, such reductions merely create areas where necessary line-item expenditures placed into the cap waiver question can be accommodated within the base budget so as to minimize the degree of spending over cap.

Accordingly, the Commissioner concurs with the judgment of the County Superintendent regarding the necessity of the above line items for provision of T & E, and, with allowance for the line-item reductions sustained to the base budget above, with the determination that further reallocation is not possible, so that the full amount of the cap waiver request should be granted.

In summary, the Commissioner directs restoration or sustaining of the Township's $272,954 in line-item reductions, and approval of cap waiver amounts, as set forth below:

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LUMBERTON, PETITIONER-CROSS/APPELLANT,

V.

TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LUMBERTON, BURLINGTON COUNTY, RESPONDENT-APPELLANT,

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LUMBERTON, BURLINGTON COUNTY.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, March 2, 1995

For the Petitioner-Cross/Appellant, John G. Dyer, III, Esq.

For the Respondent-Appellant, Ferg, Barron & Gillespie (John C. Gillespie, Esq., of Counsel)

This case involves an appeal to the State Board of Education made by the Township Committee of the Township of Lumberton (hereinafter "Township Committee") and a cross-appeal by the Board of Education of the Township of Lumberton (hereinafter "Board") from a decision of the Commissioner which: 1) directed restoration of $109,054 of the line item reductions made by the Township Committee pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 after the voters defeated the education budget proposed by the Board for 1994-95, but sustained $163,900 of those reductions, and 2) directed an additional increase in the District's budget so as to fund additional items that had been proposed to and defeated by the voters as provided by N.J.S.A. 18A:2D-28(f).¹

By its appeal, the Township Committee challenges the Commissioner's determination to restore amounts budgeted by the Board to fund instructional staff to maintain existing co-curricular activities, including eighth grade advisor, student government advisor, literary magazine coordinator, safety patrol advisor, graduation coordinator, cheerleading coach, and detention advisor. The Township Committee also challenges the Commissioner's determinations to restore funds budgeted to reflect anticipated salary increases for food service staff and to capital outlay for facilities enhancement and expansion.

In addition, the Township Committee contends that restoration by the Commissioner of amounts presented to the voters under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) was made without analysis of the District's need for the funds and was therefore arbitrary. The Township Committee also argues that the Commissioner lacks the authority to direct such an increase at this juncture because N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) provides that voter disapproval of a proposition to exceed the maximum permissible net budget presented to them pursuant to that particular statutory provision "shall be deemed final

Any school district may submit a proposal to raise the amount of the tax levy necessary to exceed the maximum permissible net budget permitted by this section to the legal voters of the district for type II school districts without a Board of School Estimate....The proposal to raise additional tax levy to exceed the maximum permissible net budget shall be in addition to the amounts required to be approved for each school district in accordance with chapters 22 and 54....In the event that a school district's proposal to raise the tax levy...is not approved in accordance with the budget approval process set forth in chapter 22...that disapproval shall be deemed final and shall not be subject to further review or appeal.

and shall not be subject to further review or appeal.”² While the Township Committee acknowledges that the State Board’s decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994, held that these limitations did not alter the Commissioner’s obligation to insure that the budget of a local school district is sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient education, it asserts that “the legislation in question has in fact removed that component of the determination as to what constitutes a thorough and efficient education from the Commissioner, and has placed it squarely in the hands of the voters.” Township Committee’s brief, at 24.

By its cross-appeal, the Board seeks restoration of those reductions made by the Township Committee which the Commissioner sustained. These include reductions that were made in surplus, equipment, energy, purchased services, and teacher salaries and benefits. The Board also urges affirmance of the Commissioner’s determination that an increase beyond the District’s maximum permissible budget was required in order to fund those items which were not included in the base budget but which were necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education to the District’s students.

Initially, we reject the Township Committee’s contention that enactment of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) “removed” from the Commissioner of Education the responsibility to determine what constitutes a thorough and efficient education and entrusted that task instead to the voters. As we stressed in Edgewater, the limitations of that statutory provision:

² See infra note 4.

...in no way alter the Commissioner's ultimate constitutional obligation, and that of this Board to insure that the budget of a local school district is sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient education. As the State Board emphasized in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, decided by the State Board, July 7, 1993:

The starting point for resolving [such matters] is arriving at a proper appreciation of the Commissioner's obligation to assure that each school district has sufficient fiscal resources to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students. Robinson v. Cahill, 69 N.J. 265 (1981). Given the nature of the responsibility entrusted to the Commissioner we have no doubt that the authority to fulfill it must embrace the power to direct an increase in a district's education budget in any case where such increase is necessary to satisfy the constitutional mandate, including a case where voters have defeated a proposal to exceed its statutory budget limitation. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

Rutherford, supra, slip op. at 4-5, quoting Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park v. Borough Council of the Borough of Lincoln Park (hereinafter "Lincoln Park"), decided by the State Board, December 2, 1992, slip op. at 5.

Edgewater, slip op. at 14-15.

However, as we also emphasized in Edgewater:

Careful examination of the terms of the current statutes reflects the Legislature's intent that the portion of the proposed education budget placed before the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-7 et seq. include all of the amounts that are essential for a given school district to provide a thorough and efficient education and that none of these amounts should be included in proposals made under authority of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f).

Id. at 14.

In view of the critical role which the budget review process plays in insuring both the adequacy of local budgets, see N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-27,³ and conformity with statutory requirements, we went to great lengths to detail the flaws in that process that were revealed by Edgewater. Review of the record in the case now before us indicates that although there was great improvement in the budget review process for the 1994-95 school year, some of the flaws which we identified in our decision in Edgewater persisted. In view of our responsibilities in this area, we can not ignore this fact. Hence, we once again delineate the conditions under which the Commissioner may act to direct an increase in a district's education budget beyond its maximum permissible budget. As we articulated in Edgewater:

the power to direct such increase may properly be exercised only where an increase is necessary to enable the district to provide a thorough and efficient education. Upper Freehold, [86 N.J. 265 (1981).] Further, any increase must be limited to those amounts the district needs in order to provide a thorough and efficient education. Id. Consequently, it is necessary to assess the adequacy of the budget as advertised and to determine whether it is possible to reallocate amounts within that budget before directing any increase. See AAA 91-0036, supra, at 6.

Id. at 5-6 (emphasis added).

The circumstances that would warrant directing an increase in a district's education budget beyond its statutory limitation where voters have defeated a proposal to do so are extremely limited. In In re Upper Freehold Reg'l. School Dist., 86 N.J. 265 (1981), which presented an analogous situation, the New Jersey Supreme Court affirmed an order of the Commissioner and State Board to direct a local school district to issue bonds for a capital project after voters had rejected referenda to finance the project.. In that case, the roof of the district's high school had deteriorated to the point where dripping water had to be collected in 55 gallon drums placed throughout the school and students had to navigate puddles stretching for hundreds of feet. Sagging roof planks created the danger that tiles or pieces of concrete would fall from the ceiling. Despite the obvious safety hazards, the district's voters twice rejected bond issues to repair the roof. The board therein then sought emergency funding from the Commissioner to fund the repairs. The Commissioner did not provide the funds. Instead he referred the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for evidentiary hearings. The facts established by these hearings provided the basis for the order to issue bonds which was ultimately affirmed by the Court.

³ N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-27 provides that:

Annually, on or before February 1, local boards of education shall submit to the commissioner a copy of their proposed budgets for the next school year. The commissioner shall review each item of appropriation within the current expense and capital outlay budgets and shall determine the adequacy of the budgets with regard to the annual reports submitted pursuant to [N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-11] and such other criteria as may be established by the state board.

Upper Freehold affirms the vast power granted the Commissioner to meet the mandate of the New Jersey Constitution. It also shows the kind of circumstances that must be present to justify exercising that power by compelling a district's taxpayers to raise additional monies. Those circumstances are rarely presented. Moreover, even in the extreme circumstances in Upper Freehold, the Court endorsed the remedial action taken by the Commissioner only after the due process provided by an evidentiary hearing.

As we stressed in Rutherford, supra, the power to direct an increase such as involved here must be exercised only where it is necessary to enable the district to provide a thorough and efficient education. We conclude that this limitation requires that such increases be directed only in circumstances where it has been established that the district's base budget does not include the minimal amount needed to provide a constitutionally adequate education.

We recognize that the current budget review process is not required to and is not aimed at establishing the minimal amount necessary in order for a given school district to provide a thorough and efficient education. Nor does the statutory framework require this kind of review in all cases. However, the current statutory framework does require that a determination be made as to the minimal amount necessary to provide a constitutionally adequate education where a district is seeking to exceed its maximum permissible budget. Quite simply, such a determination is a necessary prerequisite to a conclusion that reallocation within the district's permissible budget is not possible.

Id. at 16-17.

In this case, the District had requested and the Commissioner had granted a cap waiver pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) on the basis of a 58.23% increase in the District's special education costs and a 12.64% increase in enrollment.⁴ This increased the District's maximum permissible budget by $405,961. See supra. note 4.

In addition, the District presented a proposal to the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) to further raise the tax levy so as to exceed that maximum. This occurred on direction of the County Superintendent following reallocation from the base budget by the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review Panel of $19,500 to correct for the District's overestimation of tuition charges by the Burlington County Special Services School District. At that point, the County Superintendent attested that no further reallocations could be made from the District's base budget and that, consequently, it was necessary for the District to exceed its budget limitation by an additional $502,561 in order to fund all of the items necessary in order for the District to provide a thorough and efficient education. Accordingly, on direction of the

⁴ N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) provides in pertinent part that:

A board of education of a school district which: (1) for the two years prior to the prebudget year, has had an annual average increase in the district's resident enrollment which is greater than two percent; or (2) between the prebudget year and the year prior to the prebudget year, has had an increase in the district's local cost for special education pupils which is greater than five percent...may apply to the Commissioner of Education for a waiver of the expenditure limitation established pursuant to this section....Any waiver granted by the commissioner pursuant to this subsection shall not be included in the question on excess expenditures which is to be submitted to the voters of the district pursuant to subsection f. of this section.

Department, a proposal to further raise the tax levy was presented to the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) and an appeal was made to the Commissioner following defeat of the question.⁵

This process did not conform with our decision in Edgewater. As set forth above, Edgewater holds that amounts necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education should not be included in proposals made to the voters under authority of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f). Furthermore, the process that was followed in this case did not reflect that this particular district had been eligible to request a cap waiver from the Commissioner under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) because of its increased enrollment and special education costs. Under these circumstances, the proper course was to increase the amount of the waiver granted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(e) so as to fund any additional items which were necessary to the provision of a thorough and efficient education rather than to direct the Board to place the question before the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f). In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Washington Township School District, decided by the State Board March 27, 1996.

Further, it is apparent from the record before us that the items which were originally included in the Board's proposal to the voters were largely necessitated by the District's growth over the past few years. After reviewing the specific items which the Commissioner directed to be included in the District's budget, we reject the Township Committee's contentions that they were not necessary to a thorough and efficient education. To the contrary, on the basis of this District's growth, we fully concur with the Commissioner that items such as the additional teachers and supplies which were included in the proposal were necessary in this case in order for the District to meet its constitutional obligations.

Nor has the Township Committee convinced us that the Commissioner acted improperly with respect to any of the restorations he directed as a result of his review of the line item reductions which the Township Committee made to the District's base budget pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37. Review of the Commissioner's decision shows that the restorations which he directed represented documented costs to the District of maintaining its educational program at the current level. In this regard, we stress that the efforts of the Township Committee to effect cost savings through its reductions can not be permitted to jeopardize the District's educational program. E.g., Board of Education of the Township of East Brunswick v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966). While such student activities as the literary magazine, student government, and drama club, for example, may not be a required part of the District's curriculum, we agree with the Commissioner that it is necessary for the District to maintain some level of these kinds of activities in order to afford its students a constitutionally adequate education. Given that none of the amounts which the Commissioner restored were for the expansion of programs and because the Township Committee has not demonstrated that their elimination would not impair the educational program which the District is currently providing, we will not disturb the Commissioner's determinations in this respect.

However, the District has not demonstrated to us that restoration of any of the reductions that were sustained by the Commissioner was necessary in order to enable it to provide a thorough and efficient education in 1994-95. Furthermore, we would not direct restoration of any amounts to support these items unless the Board had shown us both that the items were necessary to the provision of a thorough and efficient education and that the budget established as a result of the Commissioner's decision was the minimal amount necessary to meet its constitutional obligations. In this respect, we stress that while the County Superintendent attested that no further reallocation was possible, upon closer review, the Commissioner was able to sustain many of the reductions which the Township Committee made in the base budget following its defeat by the voters, including funds budgeted for the purchase of a mulch mower.

We also agree with the Commissioner that restoration of amounts reduced from surplus is not warranted in this case. Although the District's surplus is low, as the Commissioner observed, this was the result of its own decision to appropriate $150,000 from its surplus to fund current expenses for 1994-95.

In sum, for the reasons stated herein, we affirm the Commissioner's determination establishing a tax levy of $4,787,402 for General Fund purposes for the Lumberton school district for the 1994-95 school year. We therefore dismiss both the appeal and the cross-appeal in this case.

Board appealed General Fund tax levy reductions in the amount of $880,243 made by governing body following voter rejection of proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

By settlement, $405,243 was restored.

Board also appealed General Fund cap waiver in the amount of $595,757 rejected by voters.

Upon review of the record, Commissioner determined to order the increase of $336,000 in cap waiver monies for a total General Fund tax levy of $7,177,682 for 1994-95 school year.

APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION : OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW, :
BERGEN COUNTY. :

For the Petitioner, Dennis J. Oury, Esq. (Oury & Mizdol)

For the Respondent, Christos J. Diktas, Esq. (Diktas & Habib)

This consolidated matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 13, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal of a defeated school budget by the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview (Board) and the filing of a Petition of Appeal of its defeated cap waiver. An Answer to the Petitions of Appeal regarding the defeated school budget and the defeated cap waiver was filed by the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Fairview (Borough) on June 29, 1994.

The Board was seeking restoration of $880,243 in reductions made by the Borough to the General Fund tax levy for the 1994-95 school year. The reductions were made pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, following rejection of the proposed school budget by the voters at the annual school election held on April 19, 1994.

In addition, the Board was seeking inclusion within the 1994-95 General Fund tax levy of a cap waiver in the amount of $595,757, which had also been rejected by the voters.

On March 31, 1994, the Bergen County Superintendent of schools had approved $595,757 of the Board's cap waiver request as being necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education (T&E), after reviewing the entire proposed school budget to determine whether further reallocation could be accomplished within the base budget so as to obviate the need for a cap waiver. Having determined that no such reallocation was possible, the County Superintendent approved the budget for submission to the voters of the district on the condition that, should the budget or cap waiver question be rejected, the district must file appropriate appeals with the Commissioner of Education. See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991).

Position statements were filed by the parties regarding the defeated budget and cap waiver appeals on June 13, 1994 and July 27, 1994, respectively. In addition, the Board filed a Supplemental Statement in the cap waiver appeal on July 19, 1994. Further, as a result of the State Board of Education decision on July 7, 1993, in Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Rutherford, (wherein the State Board ruled that in defeated voter cap waiver appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether both reallocations within the district's maximum permissible budget are possible and if, and to what extent, the specific programs at issue are essential in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education), the Bergen County Superintendent was directed to file an affidavit articulating and documenting the budget reallocation review process pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-27. The County Superintendent was also requested to set forth the basis for concluding that reallocation within the base budget was not possible, and that the monies included within the cap waiver were necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. The County Superintendent filed his affidavit and supporting documents attesting to the process of review and analysis that led to his conclusion, and that of the Department of Education's Cap Waiver Review Panel that the requested cap waiver funds were both necessary for T&E and unable to be reallocated from within the base budget. The parties were provided twenty (20) days within which to file responses to the County Superintendent's August 8, 1994 affidavit. No response was filed by either party.

On August 29, 1994, the Borough passed a resolution reducing its reduction to the 1994-95 base budget from $880,243 to $475,000 restoring a total of $405,243 in settlement of the appeal of the base budget reductions. By letter to the County Superintendent dated October 11, 1994, the Board advised that the Board had approved of the settlement on August 31, 1994. The County Superintendent by letters dated October 4 and October 11, 1994, respectively, filed documentation determining that the settlement was based upon changed circumstances which occurred after the school election and would not impair the Board's ability to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education provided the cap waiver appeal went forward.

Additionally, by letter dated February 20, 1995, the Board notified the Commissioner that it was attempting to confirm that the Borough would withdraw its opposition to the cap waiver appeal. As of the date of preparation of this opinion, no such confirmation was received. The Commissioner, therefore, accepts the settlement and considers the remaining cap waiver appeal in light of the opposition submitted by the Borough.

Consequently, as a result of the settlement of the base budget, the remaining issues to be decided in the appeal before the Commissioner of Education are the inclusion of the cap waiver line-item amounts approved for submission to the voters as necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education as follows:

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment relative to budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated the responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14, 22-17 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. (See also Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v. Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).)

In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line-item reduction is imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education.

Moreover, the Commissioner has the constitutional obligation to ensure that a school district budget is sufficient for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Robinson v. Cahill, 69 N.J. 449, 463 (1976) (Robinson V); Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287 (1990). In order to meet this duty, the Commissioner is charged with the responsibility to review defeated budgets which had been "conditionally certified" by the county superintendent subject to voter approval to exceed the statutory budget limitation (cap waiver). See Administrative Agency Advice (AAA) 91-0036 (July 8, 1991). Upon review, the Commissioner may order an increase in those limited instances where it is necessary to meet the constitutional mandate. Districts must demonstrate both that particular amounts above the cap are necessary to provide a thorough and efficient education and that reallocation within the permissible budget amount cannot be accomplished. Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater and In the Matter of the Cap Waiver Appeal of the Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater, Bergen County, decided by the State Board of Education July 6, 1994; see AAA 91-0036, supra.

Mindful then of the balance to be applied in this standard of review with respect to the various line items contained in the cap waiver request, the Commissioner makes the following determination with respect to the cap waiver appeal before him.

BOARD'S POSITION

In its Position Statement and Supplemental Statement of Position, the Board asserts that the cap waiver provides for salaries for existing positions for supplies and textbooks necessary to support its curriculum revision. It asserts that each account is essential for it to provide a thorough and efficient system of education for its students.

BOROUGH'S POSITION

The Borough opposes the cap waiver based upon its assertion that the Board has not proved that the funds sought are necessary for the Board to meet the constitutional mandate pursuant to the standards set forth, most recently rearticulated by the State Board of Education in Edgewater, supra.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

Upon his own independent review and consideration of the papers filed by the Board and the Borough, together with the affidavit and supporting documents of the County Superintendent, the Commissioner finds that the following line items and amounts approved by the County Superintendent and Review Panel are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, both as to the nature of the expenditures and their amounts. The Commissioner determines that the amounts are required for services and materials related to the instructional program and direct services to students. Finally, the Commissioner determines that the County Superintendent and Review Panel undertook a thorough examination of the Board's base budget for possible reallocation prior to arriving at the amount ultimately approved for submission to the voters.

Account Title	Account Number	Amount
Teachers 1-5	11-120-100-101	$ 55,000
Teachers 6-8	11-130-100-101	79,000
Textbooks	11-190-100-640	40,000
Basic Skills Teachers	11-230-100-101	80,000
Bilingual Teacher	11-240-100-101	37,000
Social Worker	11-000-211-100	15,000
School Psychologist	11-000-219-104	30,000
	Total	$336,000

Accordingly, the Bergen County Board of Taxation is directed to make the necessary adjustments to reflect an increase of $405,243 in the base budget and $336,000 in cap waiver monies for a total of $7,177,682 to be raised in tax levy for General Fund purposes of the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview for the 1994-95 school year.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, former supervisor presently serving as a teacher, contended by virtue of his tenure and seniority rights under his supervisor/administrator certification, he was entitled to a principal position filled by the Board with a nontenured individual.

Citing Denney Supreme Court decision, ALJ concluded that petitioner should have been appointed to the position of principal of the Cooper Elementary School in December 1993 and that he should receive the difference in salary between his present position and that position from December 1993 until his actual instatement therein.

Commissioner set aside findings and determination in the initial decision. In light of statutory framework and decisional law, the Commissioner found that because supervisors and principals are separately tenurable positions pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, petitioner acquired tenure as a supervisor not a principal, notwithstanding the fact that he also held a principal's endorsement. Tenure can accrue in such position only as a result of actual work experience in the position. Thus, petitioner had no claim to the position of principal. Initial decision was reversed, summary decision was granted to the Board and petition was dismissed.

Decided: January 11, 1995

BEFORE ROBERT S. MILLER, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about December 2, 1993, G. Michael Nelson ("petitioner") filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education asserting that, by virtue of school tenure law, he was entitled to be appointed to any one of three different positions that had become available in the Old Bridge school system: (1) principal of the Cooper Elementary School; (2) vice-principal of the Carl Sandburg Middle School; and (3) principal of the Shirra School.¹

An answer was filed on behalf of the Board of Education of Old Bridge Township (“respondent” or “the Board”) on December 17, 1993, and on January 26, 1994 the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case under the New Jersey Administrative Procedure Act.

Prior to the holding of a prehearing conference, counsel for respondent filed a motion for summary decision, supported by certifications and a memorandum of law. Petitioner’s counsel thereafter submitted answering papers and a brief. On July 29, 1994 a stipulation of facts was filed. At my request, counsel submitted supplemental briefs, the last of which was received on November 30, 1994. Oral argument was conducted on January 3, 1995, whereupon the record closed.

The facts relevant to a determination of this matter are not in dispute, having been stipulated, as noted above. Accordingly, I make the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner is the holder of a teaching certificate and an administrative certificate (with separate supervisor and principal endorsements) issued by the New Jersey Commissioner of Education. He received his teaching certificate in June 1974, his administrative certificate with supervisor endorsement in February 1978, and a principal endorsement to his administrative certificate in July 1978.

2. Petitioner began employment with respondent as a teacher of industrial arts on September 1, 1974.

¹ At oral argument petitioner’s counsel withdrew his demand for reinstatement to the Sandburg and Shirra schools, it being conceded that the positions in question were filled by tenured individuals.

3. On September 21, 1982, the Board appointed petitioner to the position of Department Chairperson of Industrial Arts at Cedar Ridge High School, effective September 15, 1982. He was qualified for this position and achieved tenure therein on September 15, 1985.

4. On May 29, 1990, the Board eliminated (effective July 1, 1990) the position of Department Chairperson of Industrial Arts, and reassigned petitioner to the position of teacher of industrial arts; he has served in the latter position from 1990 to the present.

5. Petitioner has never served in the Old Bridge district or any other district under his principal endorsement.

6. As Department Chairperson of Industrial Arts, petitioner's duties (fully set forth in Exhibit A of the stipulation of facts) included assisting in the recruitment, hiring and training of department personnel, preparing the departmental budget, evaluating teacher performance, and supervising departmental personnel.

7. In approximately October 1993, the position of elementary school principal became available at the Board's Cooper Elementary School. Early in December 1993 this position was filled by a non-tenured individual qualified for the position.

8. In early November 1993, a middle school vice principal position became available at the Board's Carl Sandburg Middle School. The position was filled at a November 16, 1993 Board of Education meeting by a tenured teacher qualified for the position.

9. In late November or early December 1993, an elementary school principal at the Board's Shirra School announced his retirement effective December 31, 1993. Shortly after the announcement, the position was filled by a tenured teacher qualified for the position.

10. The job description for middle school vice principal (fully set forth in Exhibit C of the stipulation of facts) includes disciplining students, assisting in observing and evaluating teacher performance, and assisting the principal in preparing the annual budget.

11. The job description for elementary school principal (fully set forth in Exhibit B of the stipulation of facts) includes developing an instructional program with staff input, supervising and evaluating staff members, and assisting in screening, hiring and assigning staff members.

12. Petitioner has the master's degree, administrative certificate and five years of teaching experience required of elementary school principals and middle school vice principals.

ISSUE AND ANALYSIS

Neither party challenges any facts material to a determination of the motion for summary decision, and both assert entitlement to a decision as a matter of law; accordingly, the case is ripe for summary decision. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5; Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 73-75 (1954).

The specific question to be decided in this matter is whether petitioner is entitled to appointment to the position of principal of the Cooper Elementary School, which requires the possession of an administrative certificate, by reason of his having achieved tenure in a different position also requiring the possession of an administrative certificate. For the reasons that follow, I am of the opinion that he is so entitled.

This case turns on the decision of the New Jersey Supreme Court in Dennery v. Passaic County Reg. H.S. Dist. #1 Bd. of Educ., 131 N.J. 626 (1993), and specifically on the following language from that opinion (at 634):

An educator who has attained tenure by virtue of the requisite service in a specific position will have tenure with respect to all positions under the particular certificate. Tenure under any one endorsement entitles an educator to tenure under all endorsements obtained under his or her certificate. . . .²

² Educators in New Jersey must possess a professional certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38; N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2. There are three such certificates, each corresponding to a major area of educational responsibilities: (1) instructional, (2) educational services, and (3) administrative. Dennery, supra, 131 N.J. at 629; N.J.A.C. 6:11-2.3.

Thus, an educator with tenure in any endorsement that he or she possesses can, in effect, extend or transfer that tenure to other endorsements that are subsumed under the same certificate.

[Citations omitted.]

This language clearly applies to petitioner. If taken literally, it is dispositive, validating petitioner's claim to the position filled by respondent with a non-tenured person.

Respondent, however, argues that this language should not be taken literally, relying on the case of Ellicott v. Frankford Tp. Bd. of Educ., 1990 S.L.D. 1714 (footnote five³), aff'd, 251 N.J. Super. 342 (App. Div. 1991), and on a line of decisions at the administrative level, declaring that tenure rights attach to the positions specifically named in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 and that a person must actually serve the requisite three years in one of those positions in order to obtain tenure therein. See, e.g., Schienholz v. Ewing Tp. Bd. of Educ., 1990 S.L.D. 1809, 1812 (“tenure is achieved in and tenure protection attaches to the position of ‘principal.’”); Schaefer v. Lakewood Tp. Bd. of Educ., 93 N.J.A.R.2d. (Vol. 4B) 741 (Education); Halpern v. Delran Tp. Bd. of Educ., 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (Vol. 4B) 22 (Education); Skowronski v. Jackson Tp. Bd. of Educ., 94 N.J.A.R.2d (Vol. 4B) 208 (Education); Miller v. New Providence Bd. of Educ., 1987 S.L.D. 23, 43-44; DeCarlo v. South Plainfield Boro. Bd. of Educ., 1988 S.L.D. 1796; Di Simoni v. Passaic Co. Reg. H.S. Dist. #1 Bd. of Educ., 1990 S.L.D. 1249, 1261, aff'd, 1990 S.L.D. 2540, 2541; and Kish v. Elmwood Park Boro. Bd. of Educ., 92 N.J.A.R.2d (Vol. 4) 134 (Education), aff'd, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (Vol. 4) 367 (Education).

The answer to this argument is threefold: (1) the Ellicott case and most of the other tenure decisions cited by respondent were decided before Dennery; (2) the “separately tenurable” distinction made by the Commissioner and the State Board of Education finds little or no support in either statute or regulation⁴; and (3) the Supreme Court in Dennerly was clearly well aware of the complexity of and confusion arising from the teacher tenure law and some of the decisions thereunder, but the Court lent no sanction to and expressed no approval of the “separately tenurable” distinction made by the Commissioner and the State Board of Education.

Respondent also argues that the language of the Supreme Court was simply dicta, since it was not necessary to the Court’s decision and therefore should not be given stare decisis effect. Beirne v. Gangemi, 74 N.J. Super. 557, 572 (App. Div. 1962). A close reading of the opinion in Dennerly, however, reveals that the Court intended to deal squarely with the broad question of whether and under what circumstances tenure can be extended. Recognizing the confusion that existed, the Court sought to clarify this area of school law. Dennerly, supra, 131 N.J. at 635. Thus, I am of the opinion that the language used was carefully considered and chosen.

Nevertheless, assuming, arguendo, that the aforesaid language is dicta, it is, at the very least, highly persuasive. Where more recent decisions of the Supreme Court plainly undermine the authority of a prior decision although not squarely and explicitly overruling it, a lower court will usually decide subsequent cases in a manner consistent with the new pronouncement of the higher court. State v. Ciuffini, 164 N.J. Super. 145, 152 (App. Div. 1978); Juliano and Sons v. Chevron, U.S.A., 250 N.J. Super. 148, 157 (App. Div. 1991); Burrell v. Quaranta, 259 N.J. Super. 243, 252 (App. Div. 1992).

Respondent further relies on the principle that great deference should be granted to an administrative agency (here the Commissioner and the State Board of Education) that has “peculiar competence” in applying the statutes and regulations which it is charged with implementing. In re Amendment of N.J.A.C. 8:31B-3.31, 119 N.J. 531, 543 (1990). However, although courts generally consider with deference the interpretation of a statute by the agency charged with enforcing it, the construction of statutes is a judicial function, not an executive function, and a court is in no way bound by an agency's interpretation thereof. Service Armament Co. v. Hyland, 70 N.J. 550, 561 (1976); Petrucelli v. Board of Trustees, 211 N.J. Super. 280, 289 (App. Div. 1986).

⁴ N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 provides that “[T]he services of all teaching staff members, including all teachers, principals other than administrative principals, assistant principals, vice principals. . . and such other employees as are in positions which require them to hold appropriate certificates issued by the board of examiners. . . shall be under tenure. . . .” The statute is silent about the extension of tenure rights from one position to another and about the rights of tenured employees vis-a-vis non-tenured employees. Further, I am aware of no regulation stating that tenure in any position can be achieved only by serving the requisite three years in that position. The Commissioner or the State Board of Education may wish to implement a policy of “separately tenurable,” but they must comply with the rulemaking requirements of the New Jersey Administrative Procedure Act in order to do so. See Metromedia, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 97 N.J. 313 (1984).

Finally, it is important to recognize that the Tenure Act is remedial in purpose and should be liberally construed to achieve its beneficial intent of affording security to educators. Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 63, 74 (1982); Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Educ. 221 N.J. Super. 239, 241 (App. Div. 1987); and Capodilupo v. West Orange Tp. Bd. of Educ., 218 N.J. Super. 510, 515 (App. Div. 1987). I must assume that the Supreme Court in Dennery intended that its language be interpreted liberally, not restrictively or grudgingly, thus entitling this petitioner, under this set of facts, to prevail.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

For the reasons expressed above, I CONCLUDE that petitioner should have been appointed to the position of principal of the Cooper Elementary School in December 1993; that as soon as practical he should be appointed to that position; and that he should receive the difference in salary between his present position and that position from December 1993 until his actual instatement therein. It is so ORDERED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

G. MICHAEL NELSON, :
 PETITIONER, :
 V. : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
 BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN- : DECISION
 SHIP OF OLD BRIDGE, MIDDLESEX :
 COUNTY, :
 RESPONDENT. :
 _____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The Board's exceptions and petitioner's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

The Board's exceptions assert that the ALJ erred in determining that the within petitioner may use his tenure as a department chairperson/supervisor to claim an entitlement to a principal position, a position in which this petitioner has never served. Citing Ellicott, supra, 1990 S.L.D. at 1719-20, it maintains that

By virtue of its separate listing in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, tenure in the position of principal is obtained in that specific position  and a person who has not satisfied all of the prerequisites for tenure as a principal has no tenure right to that position. Id., 1990 S.L.D. at 1720 n.5.  This is to be distinguished from tenure obtained in positions not separately listed in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5.
 (Board's Exceptions, at p. 8)

The Board contends that the initial decision reverses long-settled tenure principles established by the Commissioner and the State Board in this specific area. (See Skowronski, supra; Halpern, supra; Schaefer, supra; Kish, supra.) The Board additionally urges that the ALJ's reliance on the Supreme Court's decision in Dennery, supra, was misplaced in that the court in that matter was not faced with the issue presented herein, i.e., Dennery did not address the separately tenurable positions specifically listed in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, or whether tenure may be properly transferred among endorsements to the administrative certificate. Further, it asserts, in actuality Dennery is fully consistent with the Board's position in that it "reaffirms the requirement that tenure accrues only upon actual service in the tenurable position, Dennery, supra, 131 N.J. at 638-39, as opposed to experience in a different position under a different endorsement." (Board's Exceptions, at pp. 13-14)

In conclusion, the Board argues that since petitioner did not acquire tenure in the separately tenurable position of principal, he has no superior claim to such position, and the Board was fully justified in filling this position with another nontenured individual who, it believed, would more appropriately fill the position. As such, it urges the Commissioner to reject the initial decision and direct summary decision for the Board.

In response, petitioner argues that the ALJ correctly determined that Dennery, supra, which provides "tenure under any one endorsement entitles an educator to tenure under all endorsements obtained under his/her certificate" (Id., at 634) controls this matter. He asserts that under Dennery "since Petitioner has earned [tenure] under his supervisor/administrator certificate as the vocational chairperson, the tenure he has earned in that position is transferable or extendable to the principal and vice-principal positions which have become available in the Old Bridge district and to which Petitioner claims entitlement." (Petitioner's Reply Exceptions, at p. 3) Petitioner further contends that subsequent Commissioner decisions relied upon by the Board in support of its argument that petitioner is ineligible for the positions he seeks, in particular Ellicott, supra, are totally irrelevant as these decisions have been overruled by Dennery.

Petitioner next maintains that, even assuming, arguendo, that Ellicott applied in this matter, the portion of this decision relied upon by the Board is based upon a tortured reading of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, which is clearly contrary to the plain meaning of the statutory language and, therefore, inconsistent with legislative intent. He contends

In Ellicott, the State Board of Education incorrectly asserts that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 sets forth which positions are separately tenurable and which positions permit an educator to extend tenure earned under one endorsement to a single certificate to other endorsements under the same certificate. This distinction is simply not present anywhere in the language of the relevant statute. See ALJ Initial Decision at 5-6. The statute merely states which positions are tenure eligible. To construe the statute any other way is clearly contrary to the plain language in the statute. (emphasis in text)

(Petitioner's Reply Exceptions, at pp. 4-5)

Petitioner contends that the ALJ's initial decision must be affirmed by the Commissioner in that it is clear that Dennery allows him to extend his tenure under his supervisory endorsement to his principal endorsement.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner rejects the ALJ's conclusion that, based on the decision of the New Jersey Supreme Court in Dennery, supra, the within petitioner is entitled to the position of principal by virtue of his having achieved tenure in a supervisory position under an administrative certificate. Rather, the Commissioner finds and determines that, consistent with the statutory framework and decisional law in this area, because supervisors and principals are separately tenurable positions pursuant to statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, petitioner acquired tenure as a supervisor not a principal, notwithstanding the fact that he also held a principal's endorsement. As such, petitioner has no claim to the position of principal. Additionally, it is herein noted that a determination to the contrary would lead to ludicrous conclusions detrimental to sound educational policy. Further, for the reasons detailed below, the Commissioner finds the outcome in this matter to be unaltered by the court's decision in Dennery.

Initially, as recognized by the ALJ, numerous Commissioner and State Board decisions have consistently interpreted N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 as a provision which sets forth the requirements for attaining tenure and the positions in which tenure may be attained, (see Ellicott, supra; Schienholz, supra; Schaefer, supra; Halpern, supra; Skowronski, supra; Miller, supra; De Carlo, supra; Di Simoni, supra; Kish, supra), finding such conclusion compelled by the statutory scheme and express language of this provision. (See Capodilupo v. West Orange Township Board of Education, decided by the State Board of Education September 3, 1986, slip op. at 7, aff'd 218 N.J. Super. 510 (App. Div. 1987), certif. den. 109 N.J. 514 (1987); also see Schienholtz, supra.) As explained by the State Board in Ellicott, supra:

Tenure is created by a statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1 et seq., which should be liberally construed to further its beneficial purpose of affording security to teaching staff who meet its standard of length of service. Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Ed., 90 N.J. 63 74 (1982). Under the statutory scheme, tenure is achieved in a particular "position." The "position" in which tenure is achieved is initially limited by the certificate that the teaching staff member must hold in order to fulfill the statutory prerequisite of qualification for employment. Capodilupo v. West Orange Bd. of Ed., decided by the State Board of Education, September 3, 1986, slip op. at 7, aff'd. 218 N.J. Super. 510 (App. Div. 1987), certif. den., 109 N.J. 514 (1987). Further definition of the "position" in which tenure is achieved is provided by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, which, by specifying that service as a teacher, principal, assistant principal, vice principal, superintendent, assistant superintendent and school nurse shall be under tenure if other statutory prerequisites are met, defines, for individuals serving in these capacities, the scope of the "position" in which tenure is achieved and to which tenure protection attaches. (Ellicott, at 1716)

As such, in one of these separately tenurable positions specifically enumerated by statute, tenure can accrue in such position only as a result of actual work experience in the position.

Additionally, the Commissioner has determined that sound educational policy also compels such an interpretation in that

To hold otherwise would result in anomalous circumstance of assistant principals having tenure rights to principal positions and principals having tenure rights to assistant superintendencies. (Schaefer, at 744)

The Commissioner dismisses as being without merit the contention that the court in Dennery, supra, overturns this long-established precedent of tenure law. It is noted that the case before the court in Dennery dealt with a guidance counselor who possessed an educational services and an administrative certificate who was attempting to transfer tenure achieved under her educational services certificate to her administrative certificate, thereby claiming entitlement to a position of class supervisor which required both certificates. In this matter, the Dennery court reversed the finding of the Appellate Division (which had reversed the determination of the Commissioner and the State Board), and determined that tenure rights were not transferable across certificates. The Commissioner finds that the Dennery court did not address the separately tenurable positions specifically enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5, nor did it consider whether tenure could be transferred across endorsements to the administrative certificate at issue herein, as an examination of these was unnecessary in the case before it. (See Halpern, supra; Skowronski, supra.) It is also noted with great interest that the general broad statements made by the Dennery court, relied on by the ALJ and the petitioner in the instant matter with respect to the extent of tenure protection and its relationship to the certificate required for the position, are expressly built on a line of prior Commissioner, State Board and court decisions that specifically maintained the concept of separately tenurable positions. (See Dennery, supra, at 634.) Consequently, the Commissioner finds and determines that there is no indication in any reasonable reading of Dennery that the Supreme Court intended to reverse prior holdings in this area. (See again, Halpern, supra; Skowronski, supra.) To the contrary, the Commissioner notes the Dennery court's strong assertion with respect to the deference which should be afforded to decisions of the Commissioner and the State Board.

The Legislature intended that the State Board "promulgate specifications concerning the categories of 'certification'" and that courts not intervene "unless the State Board's decision is palpably arbitrary."  The delegation of regulatory and administrative responsibility over tenure to the State Board is based on the complexity and specialized nature of the subject of teacher tenure. Our courts have long recognized the importance of allowing the State Board to devise requirements governing both students and teaching staff.

(Dennery, at 636-37)

In light of the above, the Commissioner finds and determines that because petitioner has not acquired tenure in the separately tenurable position of principal, he has no superior claim to such position over the nontenured individual selected by the Board to fill the position.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law is reversed, summary decision is hereby granted to the Board, and the instant Petition of Appeal is dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MENT OF MICHAEL C. BENJAMIN. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, May 12, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Michael C. Benjamin, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Pamela B. Katten, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Michael Benjamin (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a security guard in the Camden school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. revealed that he had been convicted of distribution of a controlled dangerous substance, cocaine, in 1988. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated May 12, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,¹ stating that:

You have submitted letters indicating your current good standing and dedication to your work, as well as your successful completion of the Intensive Supervision Program in November 1992. However, I also note that, contrary to instructions provided in your letter of disqualification from the Office of Criminal History Review, you have failed to provide a detailed account of the circumstances pertaining to your arrest and conviction; you merely state that you were in the wrong place at the wrong time. Moreover, most of the letters submitted on your behalf are not notarized, as required when submitting an appeal based on rehabilitation.

Deputy Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 1.

The petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education. The parties subsequently submitted an executed order consenting to a remand to the Commissioner for a hearing on the issue of rehabilitation.²

However, we find the record in this matter to be such that, given our authority as the ultimate administrative decision-maker and fact-finder in school matters, In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Tyler, 236 N.J. Super. 478, 485 (App. Div. 1989), certif. den., 121 N.J. 615 (1990); Dore v. Bedminster Tp. Bd. of Ed., 185 N.J. Super. 447, 452 (App. Div. 1982), we need not remand for determination of the substantive issues raised. Our review of the record has eliminated any question that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in this matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:

1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
4. The date of the offense;
5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

(Emphasis added.)

The only arrest and conviction revealed by petitioner's criminal history review involved the distribution of cocaine in 1988. His submissions to the Commissioner include a letter from an officer in the Intensive Supervision Program of the Administrative Office of the Courts who indicates that petitioner was under the supervision of that program beginning in August 1990 and was successfully discharged therefrom in November 1992. During that period, he showed signs of rehabilitation and no signs of substance abuse. He also received a certificate of excellence in December 1990 for his participation in a group therapy program. Petitioner's supervisor at a janitorial firm recommends him, praising petitioner as "always willing to learn and do his work properly." Moreover, since his arrest, petitioner has successfully completed courses in nursing and security at an evening vocational school.³ There have been no further arrests.

While the gravity of petitioner's offense is apparent, examination of the circumstances indicates that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Petitioner's only arrest occurred in 1988, at a time when he indicates he was living in a drug infested area, and given the uncontradicted evidence that petitioner submitted for the record, including his successful subsequent efforts to acquire vocational training, the recommendation of a supervisor and the fact that he showed no evidence of substance abuse while under court supervision following his conviction, we conclude that petitioner has convincingly demonstrated his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Moreover, as required by that provision, we have considered the "nature and responsibility" of the position petitioner held within the public school system. In this respect, we stress that petitioner was disqualified from employment as a school security guard, which does not include responsibility for the instruction of students.

We note, in addition, that while N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) includes "the circumstances under which the offense occurred" as a factor to be considered in determining whether an individual has demonstrated rehabilitation, that statute does not require submission of a statement detailing the circumstances leading to an arrest and conviction, as the Deputy Commissioner indicates.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed herein, we find that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). We therefore reverse the decision of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from service in the schools of New Jersey.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF CHRISTOPHER M. HENDERSON. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, May 12, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Christopher M. Henderson, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General
(Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Christopher M. Henderson (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a security guard in the Camden school district, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. revealed that he had been convicted of distribution of a controlled dangerous substance, cocaine, in 1992. Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

In a letter decision dated May 12, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification.¹ The Deputy Commissioner indicated that,

¹ We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

Nov. 1, 1995

although petitioner had made significant progress in his rehabilitation, the disqualifying offense was recent and of a serious nature.

The petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.²

After a thorough review of the record, we reverse the determination of the Deputy Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from school employment, subject, however, to a determination that no further criminal history record information pertaining to petitioner exists on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"). While we conclude on the basis of the record before us that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation, we note that the record does not include the results of a criminal history review conducted by the FBI. See N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Consequently, in the absence of such information, we are compelled to remand this matter to the Commissioner for the limited purpose of determining whether the FBI has any criminal history information pertaining to petitioner which is not revealed in the record.³

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides, in pertinent part:

e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

³ We note in so doing that there is nothing in the record that indicates the presence of any additional convictions.

1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
4. The date of the offense;
5. The age of the individual when the offense was committed;
6. Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;
7. Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;
8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision.

(Emphasis added.)

The only arrest revealed by petitioner's criminal history review involved the distribution of cocaine in February 1992, for which petitioner was subsequently convicted and received a fine and two years probation. The terms of such probation included unannounced urine monitoring. His submissions to the Commissioner include an order for early termination of his probation in June 1993, which indicates that petitioner had complied with all the conditions of his probation, had remained drug-free during that period and had maintained a stable residence and employment. The letters of reference include a recommendation from the assistant principal at Camden High School, in which petitioner had been employed prior to his disqualification, who praises him as "conscientious, diligent and dedicated....He was always willing to do a little 'extra' when needed. I strongly feel that Mr. Henderson is and will continue to be an asset to any organization. I highly support him and sure [sic] he will continue to succeed as a productive, upstanding member of society.”

The chief security officer for the Camden Board of Education also recommends petitioner, indicating that he “has had very good attendance, no tardiness and no absence” and had proven to be a “valuable asset to Camden High School,” never refusing tasks and handling situations involving staff or students in a “professional and mature manner....He became an important part of the security team and has been of value to the school since his employment.”⁴ The record further reveals that petitioner successfully completed an evening vocational course for security personnel on June 14, 1995.⁵ There have been no further arrests.

While the gravity of petitioner’s offense is apparent, examination of the circumstances indicates that further penalization of this individual is neither a just result nor warranted under the terms of the statute. Petitioner’s only arrest occurred in February 1992, and given the uncontradicted evidence that petitioner submitted for the record, including his successful efforts thereafter to acquire vocational training, the recommendation of his supervisors and the fact that he showed no evidence of substance abuse during the year he was on probation, we conclude that petitioner has demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Moreover, as required by that provision, we have considered the “nature and responsibility” of the position petitioner held within the public school system. In respect, we stress that petitioner was disqualified from employment as a school security guard, which does not include responsibility for the instruction of students.

⁴ We note that such recommendation was submitted by petitioner subsequent to the decision of the Deputy Commissioner in this matter.

⁵ We note that petitioner completed this course subsequent to the decision of the Deputy Commissioner in this matter.

Again, however, the record does not include a criminal record review by the FBI. Consequently, we remand this matter to the Commissioner and reverse the Deputy Commissioner's decision contingent only upon a determination by the Commissioner on remand that there are no additional convictions revealed by an FBI criminal record review.

In the event that there are additional convictions revealed by the FBI record review, we direct the Commissioner to conduct a hearing in order to provide the petitioner with an adequate opportunity to establish a record in support of his contention that he has satisfied the statutory standard for rehabilitation. Given the circumstances, we direct that such hearing and a final determination by the Commissioner be rendered on an expedited basis, and that such determination considers all pertinent circumstances under the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, including "any evidence of rehabilitation." See Wolffbrandt v. New Jersey State Department of Education, decided by the State Board, July 1, 1992.

Under the circumstances, we stay petitioner's disqualification from service in the schools of New Jersey, pending a final determination on remand by the Commissioner in accordance with our decision herein.

We retain jurisdiction.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT :
OF CHRISTOPHER M. HENDERSON. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, May 12, 1995

Remanded by the State Board of Education, November 1, 1995

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, November 21, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Christopher M. Henderson, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General
(Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On November 1, 1995, we reversed the decision of the Deputy Commissioner of Education upholding petitioner's disqualification from employment in the State's schools pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, subject only to a determination on remand that no further criminal history record information pertaining to petitioner existed on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"). We concluded on the basis of the record before us, which did not include the results of a criminal history review conducted by the FBI, that petitioner had demonstrated clear and convincing evidence of his rehabilitation. Accordingly, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner for the limited purpose of determining whether the FBI had any criminal history information pertaining to petitioner which was not revealed in the record. We retained jurisdiction.

2/7/96

In accordance with the terms of our remand, the Deputy Commissioner inquired as to whether the FBI had any information on petitioner.¹ On November 21, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner, indicating that no additional convictions had been revealed by the FBI record review, concluded that petitioner was qualified for school employment. Pursuant to our retention of jurisdiction, the Commissioner transmitted the file back to us on November 27.

After a review of the record, we are satisfied that the Commissioner fully complied with the terms of the State Board's remand. Thus, pursuant to the Deputy Commissioner's decision, petitioner is qualified for school employment, and we dismiss the appeal.

Donald C. Addison, Jr., Wendel E. Daniels and Thomas P. McGough abstained.

BEFORE ROBERT S. MILLER, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on April 6, 1994, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 through -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a stipulation of settlement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

The parties in this appeal have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and enter into the following settlement which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between the appellant and respondent:

1. The appellant withdraws his appeal and request for a hearing.

2. The respondent agrees to appoint petitioner to the position of Administrator of Athletics effective January 1, 1995. The Administrator of Athletics or Athletics Director position will require the holder to maintain a valid supervisory endorsement to the administrative certificate and not a principal endorsement.

3. Mr. Nester will be credited with seniority in the aforementioned position retroactive to July 1, 1994.

4. For the period January 1, 1995 through June 30, 1995, petitioner will be paid at an annual salary rate of $76,467.00.

5. The position of Administrator of Athletics or Athletic Director will be a twelve month position.

6. After June 30, 1995, petitioner's salary level may be negotiated by the respondent and petitioner or petitioner's collective representative.

7. Except as noted above, the petitioner waives all claims against the respondent with regard to this matter, including any award of back pay or other monetary relief.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :

MENT OF ROMUL R. RISCO. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, June 8, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Romul R. Risco, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On June 8, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education affirmed the determination of the Department's Office of Criminal History Review disqualifying Romul R. Risco (hereinafter "petitioner") from school employment as a teacher following a criminal history check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.¹ The Deputy Commissioner determined that petitioner had failed to demonstrate his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

On June 23, 1995, the petitioner filed a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education.² Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), petitioner's brief in support of the appeal was due by July 13, 1995, 20 days after the appeal was filed. Petitioner, however, failed to file a brief by that date. By letter dated July 17 from the Counsel to the State Board, petitioner was notified of his failure to file a brief in support of the appeal and advised that this matter was being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of his failure to perfect the appeal. Given his pro se status, petitioner was again notified in a letter dated September 12 of his failure to file. He was thereupon given until October 5 to file a written explanation as to why he should not be disqualified from school employment. Petitioner has still failed to file an appeal brief or written explanation. Nor has he at any time requested an extension of time for such filing or provided any explanation for the delay.

The State Board of Education therefore dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

² The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

Record Closed: December 26, 1994

Decided: January 20, 1995

BEFORE DIANA C. SUKOVICH, ALJ

On September 8, 1993, John Tilli (petitioner) filed a petition with the State Department of Education (Department) contesting the withholding of an increment by the Fair Lawn Board of Education (respondent). Respondent filed an answer by letter dated September 23, 1993. The case was transmitted by the Department to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13.

Conferences were conducted throughout the proceedings. Hearings initially scheduled to commence in June and, subsequently, in August 1994, were adjourned at petitioner's request with respondent's consent. Hearings were thereafter scheduled to commence on October 12, 1994. The parties appeared on that date and conferred. Petitioner's counsel represented that petitioner intended to withdraw his hearing request and that a letter of withdrawal would subsequently be filed.

A letter of withdrawal was not filed, and this judge inquired regarding the status of the matter by letters dated November 24, 1994 and December 19, 1994. The latter letter advised petitioner's counsel that if a letter of withdrawal were not received within seven days, I would issue an initial decision dismissing the petition and requested that counsel contact the OAL if another conference were requested in the interim. A letter of withdrawal was not filed, and no replies were received to the December 19, 1994 letter. The record is therefore deemed to have closed on December 26, 1994.

When there is a reasonable failure to comply with any order of a judge, the presiding judge may take appropriate case-related action, including dismissal of an application. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4.

I FIND that petitioner has failed to diligently prosecute this matter and to comply with directives contained in the December 19, 1994 letter. I CONCLUDE that the petition should be dismissed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14.

It is hereby ORDERED that the petition filed by petitioner with the Department on September 8, 1993 be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, former teacher of preschool handicapped children, alleged Board's denial of tenure was motivated by sex discrimination (her pregnancy).

Following review of extensive documentary evidence and testimony, the ALJ concluded that petitioner's pregnancy was not a factor in the denial of tenure. ALJ found that the Board's reasons for denial of tenure were advanced in good faith and showed the Board's dissatisfaction with petitioner. There was no basis for concluding that petitioner was the victim of unlawful discrimination. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

Record Closed: October 31, 1994

Decided: January 27, 1995*

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

This matter commenced on September 14, 1993, when Margaret E. Daly (hereinafter petitioner) filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education in which she alleged that the Board of Education of the Township of Winslow (hereinafter respondent) had failed to offer her a tenure contract because of her pregnancy in violation of various federal and state statutory and regulatory provisions. An answer on behalf of respondent was filed on October 18, 1993, wherein respondent denied each of the allegations of sex discrimination. On October 22, 1993 the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

* Extensions of time for issuing the initial decision were requested and granted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c).

A prehearing conference was conducted on January 24, 1994, at which time the following were identified as issues for determination at hearing:

1. Were the reasons given by respondent for petitioner's nonrenewal a pretext for sex discrimination (pregnancy)?
2. If the answer to the foregoing question is yes, what are the appropriate remedies?

An amended petition alleging a violation of the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1 to 42, was filed on March 1, 1994. Hearing dates which had been scheduled for May 2, 3, 4, 10 and 11, 1994 were adjourned at petitioner's request, and the matter was rescheduled and commenced on September 26, 1994. The hearing continued on September 27 and September 28 and concluded on September 29, 1994. Following the conclusion of testimony, the record remained open for the receipt of written submissions. Petitioner had filed a trial brief on the first day of hearing. Respondent's written post-hearing submission was received on October 25, 1994. By letter received October 31, 1994, petitioner advised that no reply memorandum would be forthcoming, whereupon the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Some of the facts relevant to a determination of the within matter are not in dispute and I therefore find the following as uncontested facts.

Petitioner, who holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education and Special Education and a Masters Degree in Early Childhood Special Education, had six years of teaching experience when she was hired by respondent. She commenced employment in respondent's district as a teacher of preschool handicapped children in September 1990. During the 1990-91 school year, she received four performance evaluation reports, one following a classroom observation by the building principal, William T. Dennison, and the other three following classroom observations by Assistant Superintendent, Patricia Hoey, whose responsibilities included supervising special education in the district. Petitioner also received a Teacher Annual Written Performance Report in June 1991. Petitioner's teaching contract was renewed for the 1991-92 school year and she was again assigned to teach preschool, handicapped children. During the 1991-92 school year she received three formal performance evaluation reports and an annual performance report in May 1992. Her contract was again renewed for the 1992-93 school year; during that year her classroom performance as a teacher of preschool handicapped students was formally observed on three occasions, followed by the issuance of written performance evaluation reports. On each Classroom Observation Report petitioner's skills were evaluated on a ranking scale of "excellent", "good", "fair" or "unsatisfactory" for personal qualities, professional qualities, professional competence, instructional competence and management. On each report there were forty different assessments made including subcategories and there were various explanatory comments. The ratings petitioner received were primarily "good", with a fair number of "excellent" ratings. During 1990-91 she received eight "fair" ratings and during 1992-93 she received four "fair" ratings. She never received an "unsatisfactory" rating.

On or about January 20, 1993, petitioner performed a home pregnancy test and determined that she was pregnant. At her first visit to the obstetrician's on March 10, 1993, she was given an estimated due date of mid-October; this due date was apparently based upon misinformation, however, and the estimated date of arrival was later recalculated to be mid-September. Petitioner's son, her second child, was born on September 16, 1993.

On January 21, 1993, Ms. Hoey went to petitioner's classroom for the purposes of conducting a formal observation and evaluation. When Ms. Hoey arrived, petitioner was not in her classroom and Ms. Hoey did not observe her in the hallway. Petitioner did arrive after a few minutes and Ms. Hoey conducted the evaluation; however, the evaluation report was destroyed on February 19, 1993 at the recommendation of the teacher's union building representative because the written report and the post-observation conference did not take place within the time period specified in the negotiated agreement.

On February 3, 1993,* just before classes commenced, one of the kindergarten teachers, Joan Pedrick, collapsed in her classroom and petitioner, along with another teacher, MaryAnn Pestone, left the building to escort Ms. Pedrick home. The following day, February 4, 1993, Ms. Hoey approached petitioner to question her concerning why she had left her class the morning before. Petitioner advised Ms. Hoey that she had believed that Mr. Dennison, the school principal, had given her permission to assist Ms. Pestone in taking Ms. Pedrick home and that she would not have left the building and put her job in jeopardy if she had not believed that she had permission. The contents of the remainder of that discussion are in dispute. Ms. Hoey issued a written reprimand to petitioner, dated February 8, 1993 which read as follows:

As we discussed last week (2/3/93), I wish to reiterate with you that your primary responsibility is to provide direct services to your children in your classroom.

When I entered the mods the morning of 2/3/93 at the time of arrival of the preschool children, you were down the hall speaking with a kindergarten teacher. This again is reflective of your lack of professional responsibility. It is your responsibility to be in your classroom with your children.

After our discussion the morning of 2/3/93, I discussed the situation with Mr. Dennison, who informed me he did not give you permission to leave the building the morning of 2/3/93.

As we discussed, you left the school premises to escort a fellow teacher who was ill home. This was done, without administrative permission and while your children were present for instruction. Your class was left with a non-certified teacher

* The record is not entirely clear concerning the date of this incident; it may have been February 2, 1993 as some of the documents indicate.

assistant in charge. This is a clear violation of your professional responsibilities.

If such an incident would occur again, be assured that additional action will be taken.

A letter dated February 16, 1993 from petitioner to Ms. Hoey explained petitioner's version of the events which occurred and requested that the situation be reviewed and that the February 8, 1993 letter of reprimand be removed from her personnel file. Mr. Dennison did conduct an investigation by questioning all those involved in his office, following which he sent petitioner a note stating that he had not given her permission to leave the building that day.

On March 12, 1993, Ms. Hoey met with petitioner to discuss her classroom observation of petitioner's performance on March 3, 1993. On this written evaluation, which is part of P-2C in evidence, Ms. Hoey rated petitioner's performance as "Good", with four exceptions. Under Personal Qualities: Reacts rationally - Ms. Hoey rated petitioner as "Fair" and made the following written comments:

Mrs. Daly is in her third year as teacher of the preschool handicapped class. Overall, she has demonstrated the health and energy to meet this responsibility. Mrs. Daly, however, acts impulsively and this results in diminished services to her children. During this observation period, on two occasions the observer entered the classroom and Mrs. Daly was not at her teaching assignment. This is of concern. Although teacher assistants are in preschool, it is the professional responsibility of the teacher to be in the classroom.

Under Professional Competence: Supports and implements authorized policies and procedures - Ms. Hoey also rated petitioner as "Fair" and made the following written comments:

Mrs. Daly generally demonstrates the competence needed for her professional responsibilities. However, on 2/3/93 Mrs. Daly left the school building without administrative permission when her students were present. This certainly is a violation of authorized policies and procedures. Mrs. Daly has been sent by administration to a professional workshop this year to broaden her knowledge of Preschool Handicapped Curricula.

Under Management she judged petitioner's performance as "Fair" in two categories: Establishes class routines and Implements a management schedule for optimum teacher/pupil time on tasks - and made the following written comments:

One of the most crucial aspects of management is the time management and organizational plan of a teacher's day to assure the meeting of the IEP's of the children. Your daily lesson plans show six separate activity times, i.e. Job Time, Circle Time, Tactile, Language, Quiet and Gross Motor. Snack is the last activity of the day. You need to review your time allotment for these activities to assure that the goals and objectives can be met. It is especially important to be conscious of the children's individual speech schedules and be sure that they are in the room when the therapist comes. Her schedule is very tight and it is important that the children are served.

During the post-observation conference, Ms. Hoey advised petitioner that she had doubts about recommending her for a tenure contract. Petitioner transmitted her own written comments on the evaluation of March 3, 1993 to Ms. Hoey by cover letter, dated March 15, 1993. The cover letter indicated that petitioner was surprised and upset by Ms. Hoey's comments concerning her tenure contract. The letter outlined petitioner's contributions to the preschool program and concluded:

I think I am trying to say is that I don't think it is fair to base your recent evaluation and future recommendations on the situation that occurred on 2/3/93. The letter or reprimand you wrote and placed in my personal file was quite sufficient, I believe. I have offered my explanation of the events that took place on the morning, and I believe that my future in Preschool should not be solely based upon that particular situation.

I hope that you will take all of the positive things I have done for the program into consideration when making your decisions about next year.

Enclosed you will find a copy of my comments about your most recent evaluation. Would you please attach it to the copy in my personal file.

On or before March 30, 1993, Ms. Hoey advised Mr. Dennison, the building principal, that it was her intention to recommend petitioner for nonrenewal. Mr. Dennison, by letter dated March 30, 1993, advised Dr. Galasso, the Superintendent of Schools, that he supported Ms. Hoey's recommendations for nonrenewal of petitioner's contract for the 1993-94 school year. By letter dated March 31, 1993 and hand-delivered to petitioner, Dr. Galasso advised petitioner that the Board of Education on Monday, April 5, 1993 would determine whether her services as a teacher would be terminated effective June 30, 1993. That same afternoon, March 31, 1993, petitioner placed a telephone call to Ms. Hoey to discuss her situation. When she spoke to Ms. Hoey she indicated that Ms. Hoey's decision would have devastating effects on her and her family, that her husband was in and out of work, and that she was the primary support for her family. She also told Ms. Hoey that she needed the medical benefits which came with the job because she was pregnant and that she feared she would not be able to find another job because of her condition. The rest of the particulars of that conversation are in dispute and will be discussed hereinafter.

On April 2, 1993, petitioner spoke with Dr. Galasso concerning her desire to address the Board of Education on April 5, 1993. Dr. Galasso wrote a memo to his file memorializing the contents of that conversation. The April 2, 1993 memo stated:

On Friday at noon, I returned a telephone call to Margaret Daly. She was inquiring about the potential of having her employment status being discussed in a public meeting. I informed her that she could do that as long as she provided us with a written statement asking to do that. At that time, she also indicated that this is a very trying time for her because she informed me that she was also pregnant. This office has no prior knowledge of her pregnancy prior to that day. Mrs. Daly was also told that as a resident, she could speak at the public meeting prior to the action and after the action was taken - that would be her choice. The only requirement would be to give her name and address.

Mrs. Daly brought a note requesting permission to have her employment status discussed in public and she notified us of the fact that she did want to speak at the public portions of the meeting. That letter was dropped off in the early AM of April 5th.

On April 5, 1993, Ms. Hoey articulated for the Board of Education her reasons for recommending denial of tenure to petitioner. Petitioner also spoke to the Board of Education and advised all of them that evening that she was pregnant. A number of parents then spoke on petitioner's behalf. By recorded roll call vote the Board voted not to renew petitioner's contract for the 1993-94 school year. Thereafter petitioner solicited and received from several parents written letters of support for her to use at her "Donaldson"* hearing. Those letters were marked as part of the record as P-2D in evidence. The manner in which petitioner solicited these letters is in dispute and will be discussed hereinafter.

By letter dated May 11, 1993, respondent provided petitioner with the list of written reasons for nonrenewal which petitioner had requested pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.2.

At the regular meeting of the Winslow Township Board of Education on April 5, 1993, your teaching contract was terminated by a recorded majority roll call vote. The action was based on insufficient professional growth to be awarded a tenure contract.

Specifically there was observed insufficient professional growth in the following areas:

Personal Qualities

- Reacts rationally
- Voice, tone and manner

Professional Competence

- Supports and implements authorized policies and procedures

* Donaldson v. Bd. of Ed. of No. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974).

Management

- Establishes class routines
- Implements a management schedule for optimum teacher/pupil time on task
- Organizational planning of a program to assure adherence to Individualized Educational Program needs

These reasons are provided in accordance with Title 18A:27-3.2.

Petitioner's "Donaldson" hearing took place on June 14, 1993, following which respondent declined to reconsider its previous nonrenewal action. Petitioner's teaching position was posted and Janice Hauser, who is certified by the New Jersey Department of Education as a teacher of the handicapped and who had previously functioned as a long-term substitute in respondent's preschool handicapped program was selected to fill the vacancy caused by petitioner's nonrenewal. Ms. Hauser's application for employment indicated that she had received her Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education in 1973. Her written evaluations as a long term substitute for 1992-93 were equally divided between "good" and "excellent" ratings, and written comments were uniformly positive. This concludes the recitation of uncontested facts.

Petitioner testified that on the morning of February 3, 1993, MaryAnn Pestone and Barbara Grimmie had gone to speak with Mr. Dennison who was on bus duty to obtain permission from him to leave the building to take Joan Pedrick home. Petitioner testified that Ms. Pedrick had specifically asked that she be permitted to accompany her, and Barbara Grimmie had advised petitioner when she and Ms. Pestone returned from their conversation with Mr. Dennison that Mr. Dennison had given petitioner permission to do so. Petitioner further testified that when she discussed the incident with Ms. Hoey the next day, she had specifically said to Ms. Hoey that she did have permission from the principal and that she had further stated something to the effect, "I would not put my job in jeopardy considering the condition I am in." According to petitioner, Ms. Hoey then asked her what she meant, and she advised Ms. Hoey that she was pregnant. She also testified that she had shared the news of her pregnancy during the first week in February with Jennifer Entrikan, her teaching assistant, and with Irene Detweiller, a teacher's aide assigned to her classroom. According to petitioner it was roughly around the same time when she advised the kindergarten teacher's, Joan Pedrick, MaryAnn Pestone and Barbara Grimmie.

When Ms. Entrikan testified she indicated that it was her recollection that petitioner had advised her about the pregnancy on or about Valentine's Day 1993. Ms. Entrikan testified that she remembered this because petitioner had given her a Valentine's present at the same time. Ms. Entrikan did not recall if petitioner had asked her to keep the news a secret, but she did not hear anyone else discuss it during February. Dr. Galasso testified that the first he learned of petitioner's pregnancy was when petitioner had advised him of the fact during the telephone conversation on April 2, 1993. Two staff members testified that they had learned of petitioner's pregnancy when petitioner put a stork and her due date on her door as part of a door decorating contest in April 1993. Mr. Dennison testified that he was unaware of the pregnancy until late March or early April. None of the other witnesses had any specific recollection concerning when they had learned of petitioner's pregnancy.

Ms. Hoey testified that the first time she had heard about petitioner's pregnancy was during the telephone call on March 31, 1993, at which time she had asked petitioner whether other people knew about the pregnancy and petitioner had told her that she had not told people because she did not want it known, that she was 3 1/2 months pregnant, and that she was due in October. Ms. Hoey produced a hand-written "Note to File", dated 3/31/93 summarizing the conversation between petitioner and herself. Also attached to this note were the actual notes she took during the telephone conversation, she said. Those notes contain words and phrases, notably, "Jeopardize my career" and "I knew I was pregnant that day".

Ms. Hoey further testified that she had also made notes during the April 5, 1993 telephone conversation she had with petitioner. One of these notes states "Indicated - someone told her I knew she was pregnant I asked who - she wouldn't say. I ended the conversation with a strong reinstatement that I did not know and she was the one who told me the other night 3/31." Ms. Hoey also produced hand-written notes which she testified she had made over the weekend between April 2 and April 5 in preparation for her Board of Education presentation concerning petitioner's tenure contract - as well as the full handwritten text of the comments which she had read verbatim to the Board at the public meeting on April 5, 1993. Those comments provided:

After a careful review of Margaret Daly's performance over the past three years, I am unable to recommend her to the Board of Education for her tenure contract.

Given the weight and significance of a tenure contract, I cannot in my professional capacity recommend a teacher when I have doubts and concerns with their performance.

This recommendation comes after much deliberation and careful thought. It is my professional opinion, after fifteen years in the area of supervision in Special Education, that Mrs. Daly has not made sufficient growth to meet the criteria for a tenured contract within the Special Education Department in Winslow Township.

Areas of concern center on:

- 1) Mrs. Daly's ability to consistently implement a program which addresses the developmental needs of the children according to their IEP objectives.
 - (a) in other words planning activities and implementing them in light of the modifications needed by the children.

This concern/need was noted to Mrs. Daly in her PIP - 6/10/91, 5/18/92

- also comments were made in this area in her evaluations dated: 11/13/90, 4/2/91, 10/3/91, 3/3/93

- B) Organization: i.e. - Time allotment for activities/class routines/pupil time on task/smooth transition. Comments in this area were noted in evaluations: 10/3/91, 2/28/92, 3/3/93

Also noted in PIP - 6/10/91, 5/18/92

- C) One of the important roles in a Special Ed Class is for the teacher to act as (esp. language model) a model for the T.A.'s in the room. and for the children. Comments were noted in this area: 11/13/90, 1/23/90, 4/2/91, 2/28/92

- D) Adherence to school policies and procedures.
1. - on two occasions this school year the obs. entered Mrs. Daly's preschool classroom and Mrs. Daly was not present.
 - in the first case she was down the hall - kindergarten teachers
 - the second incident the observer was in the classroom for a time observing the children before she returned.
 - (For the BOE's information, it is my opinion that the PSH teachers have more than ample time between classes (50 min. per day) and there is no reason why communications with other teachers or sharing material could not occur during that time)
 2. On another occasion this school year Mrs. Daly left the school premises to take an ill kindergarten teacher home without administrative permission while her children were present.

This is documented in the file by a signed memo from Mr. Dennison.

In summary -

I wish to restate - this recommendation is based on a thorough review of three years performance.

As noted in Mrs. Daly's evaluation - she has demonstrated a degree of growth. However - Given the weight and significance of tenure - and the long term meaning of this act. - I cannot recommend Mrs. Daly since it is my professional opinion that she has not made sufficient/consistent growth in the areas mentioned to warrant a tenured position in the Special Education Dept. in Winslow Township.

In response to a question from the undersigned Ms. Hoey testified that her recommendation for nonrenewal had been a fairly easy one to make prior to March 31, 1993; however, after petitioner had advised her of the pregnancy she had struggled with her previous decision but had finally determined that her professional opinion concerning petitioner's performance had to prevail over any feelings of empathy with petitioner's situation and her need for employment, she said.

She further testified that pregnancy was always a non-issue in recommending teachers for contract renewal. On three occasions in the past she had recommended pregnant teachers for their tenure year contract, and two other pregnant teachers who were not yet eligible for tenure also had their contracts for the next year renewed upon her recommendation. On cross-examination she indicated that one of the pregnant teachers that she had recommended for tenure had not returned after her maternity leave; one had asked for additional leave time. When she was asked why she recommended against tenure for petitioner after she had given her so many "goods" and "excellents", she responded that "good" means "O.K." and excellent means "you're where I want you to be", and that petitioner had not satisfied her criteria for where she wanted a permanent employee to be. She testified that for her to recommend a person for tenure the ratings must be predominantly "excellent." She indicated that she had recommended nonrenewal of others with evaluation ratings similar to or better than petitioner's.

Mr. Dennison, the school principal, testified that with respect to employment recommendations for teachers of special education, he always defers to Ms. Hoey; special education is her area of expertise, not his, he testified. Accordingly, his role in this particular recommendation was very limited, he said.

Dr. Galasso testified that he relies upon the recommendations of his administrators and his function is simply to pass along the recommendations to the board.

With respect to the contested facts, I FIND that Ms. Hoey first learned of petitioner's pregnancy during her telephone conversation with petitioner on March 31, 1993. Ms. Hoey was a candid, sincere and credible witness and the documentary exhibits which were prepared at or about the time of the incidents corroborate her version of the events. Notably, there is no mention of the pregnancy in petitioner's letter to Ms. Hoey, dated February 16, 1993. There is likewise no mention of the pregnancy in her letter to Ms. Hoey of March 18, 1993. Ms. Hoey's notes of her conversation with petitioner on March 31, 1993 and April 5, 1993 do not recite any comments by petitioner that she had told Ms. Hoey about the pregnancy in February. In fact, the comments noted in the March 31, 1993 notes stating that petitioner had said about February 3, "I knew I was pregnant that day”, and in the April 5, 1993 memo, stating that petitioner had indicated during the conversation that “someone” told her that Ms. Hoey knew she was pregnant, support the opposite conclusion.

Listed among Ms. Hoey’s concerns both in the notes she prepared over the weekend between April 2, and April 5 and also in her verbatim comments to the Board of Education was the incident of February 3, 1993 for which petitioner was reprimanded. In response to a question from the undersigned concerning what weight was given to that incident in her determination to recommend nonrenewal for petitioner, Ms. Hoey responded that even if the facts were different from what she had believed them to be, it would be irrelevant to her ultimate conclusion. I had asked this specific question because even after hearing all of the witnesses, I have my doubts concerning what actually happened on the morning of February 3, 1993. The other kindergarten teachers who were involved in the incident, Ms. Pestone, Ms. Grimmie and Ms. Pedrick, did not testify in the within proceedings, and Mr. Dennison’s testimony regarding the incident was not particularly specific or persuasive. In view of Ms. Hoey’s credible testimony that the absence of this particular incident from her list of concerns would make no difference in her ultimate recommendation, I conclude that it is not necessary to determine exactly what the facts were in connection with the February 3, 1993 incident.

With respect to the question of how petitioner solicited letters of support from the parents, petitioner testified that although she had written R-11 in evidence, a letter addressed, “Dear Parents,” dated April 19, 1993, that she had not in fact sent the letter home with the children but rather had telephoned certain parents to ask for their support. Ms. Entrikan, however, testified that it was her responsibility to put any papers which were to go home with the children into their folders and that she personally had placed R-11 in the children’s folders, so she was fairly certain that letter had gone home with the children. Dr. Galasso had testified that in his opinion, children should not be involved in adult issues and that if the letter had gone home with the children and responses were sent back with the children, he would consider it unprofessional. He indicated that during a meeting he called to determine how the letter had been distributed, petitioner had denied that she sent it home and he had merely accepted what she said rather than to continue to make an issue out of it. He further testified that the issue of the letter going home was not a reason for petitioner's nonrenewal, obviously, since it came after the nonrenewal vote, but that the letter writing incident had solidified his determination to support the recommendations of his administrators and ask the Board to affirm their decision after the Donaldson hearing in June of 1993. With respect to this issue, although it does not appear to be of major significance, I CONCLUDE that petitioner was less than candid in her testimony that she never sent the letter home. It certainly appears from the testimony of Ms. Entriakan and from the fact that the April 19, 1993 letter came into the hands of the administration somehow, without petitioner having given it to them, that the letter had been distributed.

Finally, although the board members certainly knew before they voted on April 5, 1993, that petitioner was pregnant because she told them so that evening, there is no evidence from which to conclude that respondent's determination was based upon anything other than their Assistant Superintendent's comments and recommendation to them. Ms. Hoey testified that the board had never rejected her recommendations and the May 11, 1993 letter from respondent to petitioner sets forth the same reasons for nonrenewal Ms. Hoey read on April 5, 1993. Accordingly, I FIND that respondent's actions were based upon Ms. Hoey's recommendations.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

Absent constitutional constraints or legislation affecting the tenure rights of teachers, local boards of education have an almost complete right to terminate the services of a teacher who has no tenure and is regarded as undesirable by the local board. Dore v. Bedminster Township Board of Education, 185 N.J. Super. 447, 456 (App. Div. 1982). The New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (LAD) is one such legislative pronouncement which circumscribes the breadth of the board's discretionary authority by establishing a list of proscribed reasons for nonrenewal. Under N.J.S.A. 10:5-12a, it is unlawful for "an employer, because of the . . . sex . . . of any individual . . . to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to discharge . . . from employment such individual or to discriminate against such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment . . ." Unquestionably, discrimination because of pregnancy is discrimination on the basis of sex. Castellano v. Linden Board of Education, 79 N.J. 407 (1979), Gilchrist v. Haddonfield Board of Education, 155 N.J. Super. 358 (App. Div. 1978). Brenda Esher v. Brad's Red Tavern, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (CRT)45. The burden of proof in this matter is upon petitioner to establish that her pregnancy was "a determinative factor" in the decision-making process to deny her tenure. Slohoda v. U.P.S., 207 N.J. Super. 145, 154-155 (App. Div. 1986), certif. denied 104 N.J. 400 (1986).

At the end of petitioner's case in chief in this matter, I denied respondent's motion to dismiss for failure to state a prima facie case. At the time of her nonrenewal, petitioner was pregnant; she was performing her job at a level which, based upon her written evaluations, was at least satisfactory; she was discharged from her employment; and finally, she was replaced by a worker who was not pregnant and was probably not likely to be; although Ms. Hauser's age cannot be determined with any specificity from the facts in the record, her employment application indicates that she graduated from college in 1973 which would most probably make her forty-something in 1993 at the time she was hired to replace petitioner. See Peper v. Princeton University Board of Trustees, 77 N.J. 55 (1978) and Goodman v. London Metals Exchange, Inc., 86 N.J. 19 (1981). Any more detailed discussion of whether petitioner established a prima facie case is unnecessary once respondent has articulated its asserted, legitimate nondiscriminatory reasons for the employment action. U. S. Postal Service Board of Governors v. Aikens, 460 U.S. 711, 75 L.Ed.2d 403, 410 (1983). The task of the finder of fact at that point is to "decide which party's explanation of the employer's motivation it believes." Id. at 411. Petitioner can prevail either directly by persuading the judge that a discriminatory reason most likely motivated the employer or indirectly by showing that the employer's proffered explanation is unworthy of credence. Texas Department of Community Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248, 67 L.Ed.2d 207, 217 (1981). The determination that a prima facie case had been established herein shifted the burden of moving forward with the evidence to respondent, but petitioner retains the burden to persuade by a preponderance of the evidence that unlawful discrimination has occurred. Aikens, supra, at 410, quoting Burdine.

Since I have found as a matter of fact in the within proceedings that respondent's determination to deny tenure to petitioner was based upon the recommendation of Patricia Hoey and since I have determined as a matter of fact that Patricia Hoey was unaware of petitioner's pregnancy at the time she made her initial recommendation for nonrenewal, petitioner cannot prevail in this matter. Petitioner has argued that her evaluations were exemplary until she announced her pregnancy. A review of the extensive documentary evidence in this matter in conjunction with Ms. Hoey's credible testimony reveals, however, that comments critical of petitioner's performance had been made in her written evaluations throughout the years, notwithstanding that petitioner's performance in general was satisfactory and continued to be satisfactory throughout the course of her employment. A board of education is not required to offer a tenure contract to a teacher whose evaluations have been satisfactory or even to a teacher whose evaluations have been "good" or "excellent." "The board's determination not to grant tenure need not be grounded on unsatisfactory classroom or professional performance for there are many unrelated but nonetheless equally valid reasons why a board, having had the benefits of observation during a probationary period, may conclude that tenure should not be granted." Donaldson v. Bd. of Ed. of No. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236, 241 (1974).

The function of the Commissioner of Education in reviewing the reasons articulated by a board of education in support of its discretionary decision is not to assess whether respondent's decision was wise or whether the reasons were good or even adequate. The Commissioner need determine only whether the reasons given were advanced in good faith, i.e., they were not willfully false or a pretext for some unlawful, arbitrary or capricious motivation. In the present matter I am satisfied that the reasons articulated by Ms. Hoey in her statement to the board of education and adopted by the board of education and issued to petitioner in the letter of May 11, 1993 were the genuine reasons for their dissatisfaction with petitioner. I CONCLUDE that not only was petitioner's pregnancy not "a determinative factor" but it was not a factor at all. Ms. Hoey's testimony in this regard was very convincing, especially when she indicated, in response to a question from the undersigned, that after she found out about petitioner's pregnancy, she considered whether she should change her recommendation out of empathy for petitioner's financial situation and her need for medical benefits. Ms. Hoey's determination that the pregnancy should not be a factor in the decision at all, either for or against renewal of her contract, was the correct decision, the one compelled both by law and by professional standards. Petitioner's argument that the three teachers discussed by Ms. Hoey who had been granted tenure contracts while they were pregnant had created administrative and personnel headaches for respondent either by not returning to their jobs or by asking for additional leave, thereby causing Ms. Hoey to recommend against petitioner in order to avoid further personnel headaches, is not very persuasive when examined in the context of an entire school system where most of the employees are female and vacancies, either temporary or permanent, due to maternity/disability leaves, are commonplace. There is absolutely no basis for concluding that petitioner was the victim of unlawful discrimination. For all of the foregoing reasons, it is hereby ORDERED that the amended petition filed with the Commissioner is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

 _____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

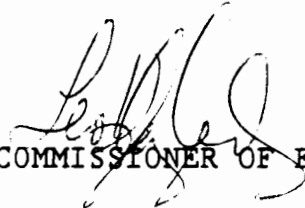

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that there is no basis for concluding that petitioner was the victim of unlawful discrimination or that the Board's action in not renewing her employment contract was otherwise arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the Office of Administrative Law is adopted as the final decision in this matter for the reasons clearly articulated in the initial decision and the instant Petition of Appeal is dismissed, with prejudice.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MENT OF GEORGE CAMPBELL, JR. : DECISION
_____ :

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, February 7, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, George Campbell, Jr., pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Nancy Kaplen, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

On July 13, 1995, George Campbell, Jr. (hereinafter "appellant") filed a notice of appeal to the State Board of Education from a letter decision of the Deputy Commissioner dated February 7, 1995, which upheld his disqualification from school employment as a bus driver after a criminal history review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 revealed a conviction for possession of cocaine with intent to distribute.¹ By letter dated July 24, appellant was notified that his appeal had been due within 30 days of the decision from which he was appealing and that this matter was being referred to our Legal Committee for consideration of the effect of his failure to file

¹ We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws..." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

Oct. 5, 1995

timely notice. Appellant was given until August 12 to file any materials necessary to clarify the circumstances of his late filing. He, however, has failed to file a clarification or to otherwise respond to that letter.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28, appeals to the State Board must be taken "within 30 days after the decision appealed from is filed." The State Board may not grant extensions. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.5(a). In contrast to the period for filing petitions to the Commissioner of Education, see N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2; N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.15, the time limit within which an appeal must be taken to the State Board is statutory, and, given the jurisdictional nature of the statutory time limit, the State Board lacks the authority to extend it. Mount Pleasant-Blythedale Union Free School District v. New Jersey Department of Education, Docket #A-2180-89T1, slip op. at 5 (App. Div. 1990).

We conclude that the statutory filing requirement with which the appellant failed to comply is of such significance that we dismiss the appeal. In Yorke v. Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, decided by the State Board of Education, July 6, 1988, aff'd, Docket #A-5912-87T1 (App. Div. 1989), the Court upheld the dismissal of an appeal by the State Board where it found that the notice of appeal had been filed one day late by appellant's counsel who alleged that he had misread or misunderstood the applicable regulations. The Court added that even if the statute could be construed to permit enlargement of the time for filing an appeal, the appellant therein had failed to establish good cause.

In this case, the Deputy Commissioner's decision was rendered on February 7, 1995 and mailed to the parties on that date. Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4, the decision appealed from was deemed filed on February 10. Therefore, as mandated by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28, see N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.3(a); N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(a), as computed under N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.4(b), the appellant was required to file his notice of appeal to the State Board on or before March 13, 1995. The appellant's notice of appeal was dated June 30, 1995 and filed on July 13.

Even if N.J.S.A. 18A:6-28 can be construed to provide us with the authority to enlarge the time limit for filing an appeal, we find no substantive basis to warrant doing so in this particular instance. Appellant has failed to provide an explanation for his late filing or to otherwise respond to our request for clarification of the circumstances surrounding that filing.

Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal in this matter for failure to file notice thereof within the statutory time limit as computed under the applicable regulations.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, tenured teaching staff member, contested Board's action in withholding her employment and adjustment increments for the 1993-94 school year for alleged unsatisfactory performance.

In light of testimony and exhibits, ALJ concluded that Board properly withheld petitioner's increments, finding that petitioner failed to properly supervise her students, failed to implement procedures to prevent theft in the student-run retail store, and disregarded administrative directives. Petition was dismissed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

BEFORE MARIE P. SIMONELLI, A.L.J.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Rita Urbanski (Ms. Urbanski), appeals the decision of respondent Union County Vocational Technical School (the Vocational School) to withhold her 1993-94 salary employment increment and adjustment increment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14. The Vocational School based its decision on Ms. Urbanski's teaching performance during the 1992-93 school year.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On May 6, 1994, Ms. Urbanski filed a Petition of Appeal. The Vocational School filed an Answer to Appeal on June 2, 1994. The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on June 10, 1994 for a hearing as a contested case.

The OAL held a hearing on November 29 and 30, 1994. The record closed on December 14, 1994 after the submission of all post-hearing Briefs.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having heard the witnesses and reviewed the Exhibits, I FIND the following FACTS:

Ms. Urbanski began working at the Vocational School in 1988. She presently is a tenured teacher (J-1: Stipulation of Facts, No. 1). During the 1991-92, 1992-93 and 1993-94 school years, Ms. Urbanski was the Retail Store Instructor (J-1, No. 2).

Ms. Urbanski supervised a student-run retail store where students could purchase various items. During the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years, the store had cash receipts of between $20 and $50 per day. As part of the retail curriculum, Ms. Urbanski instructed the students in her class on how to handle cash transactions accurately and on how to detect shoplifting (R-5: Outline For Retail/Clerical Curriculum, Unit VIII).

Prior to September 24, 1991, Ms. Urbanski had two cash registers in the store. She also had assigned a student to answer the telephone in her office located inside the store. At the end of each day, Ms. Urbanski and her students would count the money from the sales that day. She would leave $33 in one cash register and $10 in the other. Ms. Urbanski would then place the remaining money into a cash box, she would lock the cash box and place it into a filing cabinet located in her office, she would lock the filing cabinet and then she would lock her office. Once a week, Ms. Urbanski brought the money to the Special Needs Office for deposit.

On September 24, 1991, a theft of $73 occurred at the store. Ms. Urbanski reported the theft to the Principal, Carol A. Hopper (Ms. Hopper). After this theft, Ms. Urbanski no longer allowed students in her office for any reason. In addition, on Ms. Hopper's instruction, Ms. Urbanski eliminated one of the cash registers.

On October 3, 1991, a theft of $80 occurred at the store. Ms. Urbanski claimed that she saw a certain student steal the money. The student denied taking the money. The Vocational School's Social Worker, Evelyn Jeffrey (Ms. Jeffrey) searched the student and found no money on her. The police were called and they did not search the student because they decided that Ms. Jeffrey had done a thorough search.

By Memorandum, dated October 7, 1991, Ms. Hopper instructed Ms. Urbanski to institute the following procedures to avoid future thefts:

1. The office and file cabinets must be locked at all times.
2. Students are to be closely supervised both near the money and the merchandise.
3. You were to order a new locking cash box for your change and bills.
4. You were to arrange for ongoing inservice for your students regarding the consequences of theft.

(P-6: Memorandum, dated October 7, 1991, from Ms. Hopper to Ms. Urbanski). Thereafter, Ms. Urbanski met with her students, she got a new locking cash box, she had the police come to talk to her students, she did a lesson on shoplifting and she cut articles out of the newspaper about employee theft.

On February 13, 1992, the Interim Business Administrator, Paul E. Griggs (Mr. Griggs), directed all members of the staff at the Vocational School that, in order to provide maximum security, cash receipts "must be received and counted by the business office on a daily basis." (R-2: Memorandum, dated February 13, 1992, from Mr. Griggs to Members of the Staff) (Emphasis supplied). Ms. Urbanski did not interpret this directive to mean that she had to make daily deposits.

On February 14, 1992, a theft of $50 occurred at the store. On February 21, 1992, Ms. Hopper instructed Ms. Urbanski to implement additional procedures to avoid future thefts, some of which were:

2. There should never be more than twenty dollars in the cash register at any given time.
3. Any amount which exceeds twenty should be placed in a locking cash box. This should then be brought to the office for safekeeping.
6. The room should be rearranged so that the cash register is not out in the open and accessible to theft by a customer. All money should be transacted at one and only one register. The register should be in clear view of the teacher.
8. Students in your class should be provided the opportunity to participate in educational programs which reflect real life consequences for theft. There are programs similar to the "Scared Straight" program which are provided by the prosecutor's office. As a teacher, you could arrange to have your class participate in these programs.

(P-7: Memorandum, dated February 21, 1992, from Ms. Hopper to Ms. Urbanski). Thereafter, Ms. Urbanski implemented some of the procedures. Among other things, she did not rearrange the store and she did not have her students participate in programs similar to "Scared Straight."

On April 21, 1992, Ms. Hopper instructed all staff that, "Effective Monday, April 27, 1992, all money which is collected in the school will be deposited at the Business Office by the teacher or their designee". (R-3: Memorandum, dated April 21, 1992, from Ms. Hopper to All Staff). Despite Mr. Griggs' directive that deposits should be made in the Business Office on a daily basis (R-2), Ms. Urbanski also did not interpret Ms. Hopper's instruction to mean that she had to make daily deposits.

On Thursday, February 11, 1993, Ms. Urbanski fell in the store. The next day, which was a Friday, she reported to school, but she left early because she was in pain as a result of being injured in the fall the prior day. She had over $400 in cash in the store at the time and she locked it in the cash box. She claimed that she placed the cash box into the filing cabinet in her office and locked the filing cabinet. She then locked the office and left the Vocational School without telling anyone about the cash. She also did not ask anyone to help her with the cash despite the fact that other staff members had substituted or assisted her at the store in the past and she could have called one of them for help.

At the time Ms. Urbanski left the Vocational School, she knew that it would be closed on Monday and Tuesday, February 15 and 16, 1993, for the holidays and that the cash would be left in the store over a long weekend. In addition, due to her injury, she was out of work until February 22, 1993. During this time, she never notified anyone at the Vocational School that she had left the cash in the store.

During Ms. Urbanski's absence, the Pre-Vocational Instructor, Daniel Feldman (Mr. Feldman), substituted for her. When Ms. Urbanski returned on February 22, 1993, she did not check the money. The next day, she counted the money and discovered the theft of $397.68. She reported the theft to the Assistant Principal and the police were called.

There are five other departments in the Vocational School that deal with cash receipts. They are Horticulture, Foods, Food Service, Baking and Shop Service. None of these departments had any thefts of cash. In addition, the Instructor of Foods, Vesta Winston, testified that she made deposits on a daily basis and that she had cash receipts of between $250 and $300 per day. The Horticulture Instructor, Bonnie Baldasare, testified that the procedures for depositing cash receipts changed when Mr. Griggs came to the Vocational School. He instructed the staff to make daily deposits of any cash receipts over $20. She did not make daily deposits because she did not have cash receipts of over $20.

The Superintendent, Vito A. Gagliardi, Ed.D. (Dr. Gagliardi), met with Ms. Urbanski on April 22, 1993. He questioned Ms. Urbanski about why she had not complied with Mr. Griggs' directive and Ms. Hopper's instructions. Ms. Urbanski responded that she did not receive any memorandum or directive instructing her to make daily deposits. Dr. Gagliardi suggested to Ms. Urbanski that, even without a directive, with the history of thefts in the store (four in seventeen months and three in one school year), it would have been prudent for her to bring the money to the Business Office for safekeeping on a daily basis. (See also: R-10: Letter, dated April 26, 1993, from Dr. Gagliardi to Ms. Urbanski.)

Dr. Gagliardi found Ms. Urbanski's response to be unacceptable. He, thus, recommended to the Board of Education of the Vocational School (the Board) that it withhold her salary increment and adjustment increment for the 1993-94 school year. On August 5, 1993, the Board voted to withhold Ms. Urbanski's salary increment and adjustment increment for the 1993-94 school year (J-1, No. 7). The Board found that Ms. Urbanski failed to properly supervise students, she failed to implement procedures to prevent theft and she disregarded administrative authority by refusing to comply with instructions and directives given to her by Mr. Griggs and Ms. Hopper (R-8: Resolution).

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:29-13, the Board has the power to give annual increments. An award of an annual increment is not a matter of statutory right. Rather, N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 permits the Board to withhold an increment "for inefficiency or other good cause." An annual increment "is in the nature of a reward for meritorious service" and is "subject to annual evaluation of teacher performance." North Plainfield Education Association v. Board of Education, 96 N.J. 587, 593-594 (1984).

The Board has the statutory authority to establish the criteria by which it evaluates the performance of a teacher. The Board's determination that a teacher has not satisfactorily performed and is, thus, not entitled to an annual increment will not be overturned unless it is found to be arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives. Kopera v. West Orange Board of Education, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). There must be a reasonable basis for the Board's conclusion. Id. at 295. It is Ms. Urbanski's burden of proving unreasonableness. Id. at 297.

In the present case, the Board determined that Ms. Urbanski would not receive an annual increment for the 1993-94 school year because she failed to follow directives and instructions. The facts in this case support that determination. Ms. Urbanski had received several directives and instructions. Although she followed some of them, she clearly did not follow the directive that she should not keep cash in the retail store. Mr. Griggs' Memorandum, dated February 13, 1992 (R-2), was crystal clear. Cash receipts were to be deposited at the Business Office on a daily basis. It is inconceivable that Ms. Urbanski or anyone one else could have interpreted this directive any other way. Ms. Hopper's Memorandum, dated February 21, 1992 (P-7), also was crystal clear. Ms. Urbanski was to bring any cash receipt in excess of $20 to the office for safekeeping.

In violation of the clear directives given to her, Ms. Urbanski left in excess of $400 in the retail store. She left it knowing that it would be there over a long weekend. While it is understandable that Ms. Urbanski may have left the Vocational School in great haste because she was in pain from the injury she sustained, it is inexcusable that she never contacted anyone at the Vocational School during her absence to assure that the money was safe. It was of no value that Ms. Urbanski may have locked the money in a cash box, then locked the cash box in a cabinet in her office and then locked the office. The money never should have been left in the retail store at all. The theft of this money occurred because of Ms. Urbanski's failure to follow directives that Mr. Griggs and Ms. Hopper gave her.

By reason of the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the Board properly withheld Ms. Urbanski's salary increment and adjustment increment for the 1993-94 school year. I further conclude that Ms. Urbanski has not proved that the Board's decision was arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motive.

ORDER

Therefore, I ORDER that the Board's decision to withhold Ms. Urbanski's salary increment and adjustment increment for the 1993-94 school year be and hereby is AFFIRMED, Ms. Urbanski's appeal be and hereby is DENIED and this matter be and hereby is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

 _____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Petitioner's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto were timely filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner's exceptions are essentially a verbatim recitation of her post-hearing summation submitted to the Administrative Law Judge presenting her version of testimony elicited at the OAL hearing which she contends establishes that the Board's action in withholding her employment increment was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. Petitioner maintains that the ALJ herein "virtually ignored two days of testimony in issuing her ruling" (Petitioner's Exceptions, at p. 22) and, therefore, urges the Commissioner to overturn the ALJ's decision and restore her increment.

In reply, the Board argues:

After a two (2) day extensive hearing in which testimony was heard regarding both sides of the increment withholding issue in which twenty-four (24) exhibits were submitted into evidence and written legal arguments were considered in the form of Summations, Judge Simonelli correctly found that Respondent properly withheld Petitioner's salary and adjustment increments for the 1993-94 school year.

(Board's Reply Exceptions, at p. 7)

The Board, therefore, urges adoption of the initial decision.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record of this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ for the reasons expressed by her in the initial decision. With respect to the exceptions of petitioner, the Commissioner notes that without a review of the transcripts of this matter, which were not a part of the record before him, it is not possible to consider petitioner's claims with respect to proffered testimony. However, it is clear that the existing record provides no cause to challenge any of the determinations or credibility assessments made by the ALJ.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the within Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

The decision of the Commissioner of Education dismissing petitioner's challenge to the Board's action in withholding her salary increments for the 1993-94 school year is affirmed, as clarified herein. After reviewing the record before us,¹ we agree that petitioner has failed to demonstrate that the Board's action was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Although, we disagree with the ALJ's finding, which the Commissioner adopted, that memos received by the petitioner in 1992 were "crystal clear" in directing her to bring cash receipts from the student-run retail store she supervised to the school's business office on a daily basis for safekeeping, a review of the record indicates that the Board's action herein was predicated on petitioner's performance, rather than insubordination. In that context, it is undisputed that, despite several cash thefts from the store and the resultant concerns conveyed to petitioner by the school's principal, petitioner continued to leave daily cash receipts in her office, resulting in an additional loss of nearly $400 in February 1993.

We also deny petitioner's motion to supplement the record on appeal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.9. Petitioner has not demonstrated that the documents with which she seeks to supplement the record are material to assessing the propriety of the Board's action in withholding her increment.

DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, May 19, 1995

For the Petitioners-Appellants, Martin R. Pachman, P.C. (Robin T. McMahon, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

This is an appeal from a determination by the Commissioner of Education to reject the application of eight school districts to establish a jointure commission pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 through N.J.S.A. 18A:46-27.

On November 7, 1994, the petitioning school districts requested approval by an application filed with the Bergen County Superintendent, accompanied by resolutions adopted by each district board. The eight districts had been obtaining services through an informal consortium of school districts, but, as stated in their application, had been led to seek the creation of a consortium because of the demand for more efficient services and greater responsiveness.

By letter of May 19, 1995, the Commissioner informed the petitioning districts that he supported their intent to provide consolidation of services in the area of special education in order to provide more effective and efficient programs. However, as expressed by the Commissioner in his letter, he determined that:

I cannot approve the request to establish another governance structure in order to bring about the establishment of effective and cost-efficient programs. This decision is based upon the existence of the South Bergen Jointure Commission, which I believe can be expanded without adding an additional governance structure and duplicating central office administrative positions.

The Commissioner advised the districts that he was requesting the coordinating county superintendent and the county superintendent to meet with their representatives and representatives of the South Bergen Jointure Commission to determine if an expansion would be advisable. The Commissioner's final determination was embodied in a letter on July 6, 1995, from Assistant Commissioner Peter B. Contini stating that "the decision made by Commissioner Klagholz in his letter of May 19, 1995, regarding the establishment of the North Jersey Jointure Commission, has not changed."

All eight districts have appealed the Commissioner's determination, requesting that the State Board set aside the Commissioner's decision and approve the formation of the North Jersey Jointure Commission. They assert that the county superintendent and the coordinating county superintendent explored the possibility of expanding the South Bergen Jointure Commission and determined that this was not a feasible option. They contend that the Commissioner therefore lacked any basis to refuse to reconsider his original denial of their application and that his determination constituted an abuse of his discretion.

We have reviewed this appeal carefully on the basis of the Commissioner's decision and the materials relating to that decision which were provided to us on behalf of the Commissioner. Although the Assistant Commissioner's letter of July 6, 1995, does not express a rationale for the Commissioner's determination, the Commissioner's letter of May 19, 1995, indicates that denial of the application was grounded in the feasibility of expanding the South Bergen Jointure Commssion to include the petitioning districts. In that the materials that were provided on behalf of the Commissioner do not include any documentation relating to the efforts of the county superintendent and the coordinating county superintendent to explore expansion of the South Bergen Jointure Commission or any conclusions they may have reached, we are unable to evaluate the substance of this appeal.

We therefore remand this matter to the Commissioner in order for him to provide the basis for his final determination and the record upon which he arrived at his decision. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.8. We retain jurisdiction and defer our final resolution of this appeal pending completion of proceedings before the Commissioner pursuant to this remand.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

This matter involves an appeal from a determination by the Commissioner of Education to reject the application of eight school districts to establish a jointure commission pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 through N.J.S.A. 18A:46-27.

On November 7, 1994, the petitioning school districts requested approval by an application filed with the Bergen County Superintendent, accompanied by resolutions adopted by each district board. The eight districts had been obtaining services through an informal consortium of school districts, but, as stated in their application, had been led to seek the creation of a consortium because of the demand for more efficient services and greater responsiveness.

8/7/96

By letter of May 19, 1995, the Commissioner informed the petitioning districts that he supported their intent to provide consolidation of services in the area of special education in order to provide more effective and efficient programs. However, as expressed by the Commissioner in his letter, he determined that:

I cannot approve the request to establish another governance structure in order to bring about the establishment of effective and cost-efficient programs. This decision is based upon the existence of the South Bergen Jointure Commission, which I believe can be expanded without adding an additional governance structure and duplicating central office administrative positions.

The Commissioner advised the districts that he was requesting the coordinating county superintendent and the county superintendent to meet with their representatives and representatives of the South Bergen Jointure Commission to determine if an expansion would be advisable. The Commissioner's final determination was embodied in a letter on July 6, 1995, from Assistant Commissioner Peter B. Contini stating that "the decision made by Commissioner Klagholz in his letter of May 19, 1995, regarding the establishment of the North Jersey Jointure Commission, has not changed."

All eight districts appealed the Commissioner's determination.

After reviewing the Commissioner's decision and the materials that had been provided to us on his behalf, we found that it was necessary for the Commissioner to provide us with the basis for his final determination and the record upon which he had arrived at his decision in order for us to be able to evaluate the substance of the appeal. Therefore, by decision of February 7, 1996, we retained jurisdiction over this matter, but remanded it to the Commissioner for that purpose.

By motion filed with the State Board on May 9, 1996, the petitioning districts sought an order requiring the Commissioner to comply with our decision and requested that we decide this matter on an expedited basis.

The Commissioner responded to our remand with a memorandum transmitted to us on May 21, 1996. In that memorandum, the Commissioner stated that his determination to deny the application to form a new jointure commission was based entirely on the application which had been submitted to him and rested solely on his conclusion that he could not approve the establishment of another governance structure.

By letter of May 24, 1996, the Commissioner sought dismissal of the motion on the grounds that it was moot because he had complied with the remand.

The petitioning districts counter that the motion is not moot because the Commissioner did not fully comply with the terms of our remand, contending that such compliance required him to provide documentation relating to the efforts of the county superintendent and the coordinating county superintendent to explore the expansion of the South Bergen Jointure Commission.

Regardless of whether or not the petitioning districts ultimately prevail on the merits of their appeal, we find that the Commissioner has complied with the terms of our remand and that their motion to compel compliance is therefore moot. By his memorandum of May 21, 1996, the Commissioner settled that his determination to deny the application by the petitioning districts to form a jointure commission was based solely on the application which they had submitted to him and that his decision was based on his belief that it was not necessary to create another governance structure in order for them to achieve their goal, rather than on the existence of the South Bergen Jointure Commission. In that the Commissioner's memorandum clarifies that he did not consider any efforts by the coordinating county superintendent and the county superintendent to explore other alternatives in arriving at his decision, documentation relating to such efforts was outside the record before the Commissioner. Hence, the Commissioner did not fail to comply with the terms of our remand by not including such documentation in the materials he transmitted to the State Board pursuant to our remand. That being the case, the State Board of Education denies the motion of the petitioning districts to compel compliance and directs that briefing on the merits of this appeal proceed. Accordingly, the petitioning districts are directed to file a brief in support of their appeal, based on the record as now established by the Commissioner, within twenty days of this decision.

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney General (Peter Verniero, Attorney General of New Jersey)

This matter is before us for consideration of the substance of an appeal by eight school districts (hereinafter "petitioning districts") from a determination of the Commissioner of Education to reject their application to establish a jointure commission pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 through N.J.S.A. 18A:46-27.

The petitioning districts filed their application with the Bergen County Superintendent on November 7, 1994. They had been obtaining services through an informal consortium of school districts, but, as stated in their application, were led to seek the creation of a formal consortium because of the demand for more efficient services and greater responsiveness.

By letter of May 19, 1995, the Commissioner informed the petitioning districts that he supported their intent to provide consolidation of services in the area of special education in order to provide more effective and efficient programs. However, as expressed in his letter, the Commissioner found that:

I cannot approve the request to establish another governance structure in order to bring about the establishment of effective and cost-efficient programs. This decision is based upon the existence of the South Bergen Jointure Commission, which I believe can be expanded without adding an additional governance structure and duplicating central office administrative positions....

I trust you fully understand why the request to form the North Jersey Jointure Commission cannot be approved until these other options are explored fully.

In his letter, the Commissioner also advised the districts that he was requesting the coordinating county superintendent and the county superintendent to meet with their representatives and representatives of the South Bergen Jointure Commission to determine if an expansion of that jointure commission would be advisable. The Commissioner's final determination was embodied in a letter on July 6, 1995, from Assistant Commissioner Peter B. Contini stating that "the decision made by Commissioner Klagholz in his letter of May 19, 1995, regarding the establishment of the North Jersey Jointure Commission, has not changed."

All eight districts appealed the Commissioner's determination, requesting that the State Board set aside the Commissioner's decision and approve the formation of the North Jersey Jointure Commission.

As set forth in our decision of February 7, 1996, when we initially reviewed the appeal, we found that the Assistant Commissioner's letter of July 6, 1995 did not express a rationale for the Commissioner's determination. We, however, concluded that the Commissioner's letter of May 19, 1995 indicated that his denial of the application was grounded in the feasibility of expanding the South Bergen Jointure Commission to include the petitioning districts. In that the Commissioner had not provided us with any documentation relating to the efforts of the county superintendent and the coordinating county superintendent to explore expansion of the South Bergen Jointure Commission or any conclusions they may have reached, we were unable to evaluate the substance of the appeal. Therefore, although we retained jurisdiction, we remanded the matter to the Commissioner so that he could provide us with the basis for his final determination and the record upon which it had been based.

The Commissioner responded to our remand with a memorandum transmitted to the State Board on May 21, 1996. In that memorandum, the Commissioner stated that his determination to deny the application to form a new jointure commission was based entirely on the application submitted to him and rested solely on his conclusion that he could not approve the establishment of another governance structure.

In the interim, the petitioning districts filed a motion with the State Board to compel the Commissioner to comply with the terms of our remand. In deciding that motion, we found that the Commissioner's memorandum of May 21, 1996 settled that his determination to deny the application by the petitioning districts to form a jointure commission had been based solely on the application which they had submitted and that his decision was based on the belief that it was not necessary to create another governance structure in order for them to achieve their goal. That being the case, we denied the motion and directed briefing on the merits of the appeal.

The petitioning districts argue that the Commissioner's decision to deny their application is arbitrary given the facts set forth in the application. They contend that these facts show that it would be more efficient and economical to provide special education and related services through the proposed jointure commission. They further argue that enactment of N.J.S.A. 18A:7E-7 through -9 has increased the need for such a commission because penalties may be imposed on them for administrative costs if they continue their informal arrangement. They maintain that their proposal to establish a jointure commission satisfies the requirements of Chapter 46 of Title 18A and that the statutory scheme therefore requires the Commissioner to approve the proposal.

The petitioning districts also maintain that the Commissioner's belief that governance structures currently exist to enable the petitioning districts to comply with Chapter 46 is implicit in his decision. They claim that the Commissioner therefore abused his discretion in failing to approve their application after Department of Education officials had determined that expansion of the South Bergen Jointure Commission was not feasible.

In addition, the petitioning districts filed a motion to supplement the record with three documents prepared by Dr. Anthony Scalzo, the former Bergen County Superintendent, and Dr. Sharon Clover, the Coordinating County Superintendent. The petitioning districts argue that these documents confirm that Dr. Scalzo and Dr. Clover had recommended that the Commissioner approve their application to form a jointure commission and that under the relevant case law, consideration of such documents is required.

In response, the Commissioner urges that these documents are not relevant to the issues before the State Board. However, he does not oppose the motion. Nor does he dispute that there is a great need throughout the state for the consolidation of services. Rather, the Commissioner maintains that given the extraordinarily high number of school governance structures already in existence in New Jersey, he could not approve the establishment of a new structure with its attendant administrative costs. The Commissioner supports this view by pointing to the fact that the districts' proposal indicates their intention to hire a superintendent and board secretary.

Initially, we grant the motion to supplement the record in this matter with the documents prepared by Dr. Scalzo and Dr. Clover. As set forth in their motion, those documents include: 1) A memo to Dr. Peter Contini from Dr. Sharon Clover of January 17, 1995, 2) A fax message to Dr. Peter Contini from Dr. Sharon Clover of June 1, 1995, and 3) A letter to Dr. Sharon Clover from Dr. Anthony Scalzo of June 1, 1995.

However, after carefully reviewing all of the materials that have been submitted in the course these proceedings, we conclude that we must once again remand this matter to the Commissioner.

N.J.S.A. 18A:46-14 mandates that programs required by N.J.S.A. 18A:46-1 et seq. (Classes and Facilities for Handicapped Children) must be provided through one of the mechanisms listed in that statute. One such mechanism is a jointure commission program. N.J.S.A. 18A:46-25, in turn, provides that:

When two or more boards of education determine to carry out jointly by agreement the duties imposed upon them in regard to the education and training of handicapped pupils the said boards may, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state board, and with the approval of the commissioner by the adoption of similar resolution establish a jointure commission for the purpose of providing such services.

Our rules relating to the provision of special education programs are codified at N.J.A.C. 6:28-1.1 et seq. While the provisions of that chapter do not specify criteria for approval of the establishment of a jointure commission, N.J.A.C. 6:28-7.1 and -7.2 delineate requirements for programs provided by such entities and specify the approval procedures required for establishing such programs. The purpose of these regulatory provisions is to ensure that all pupils with educational disabilities have an appropriate free public education available to them in accordance with the standards of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. 1400 et. seq., as well as to ensure the evaluation of the effectiveness of the education of these pupils and to assist public and private agencies providing educational services to the pupils. N.J.A.C. 6:28-1.1.

Viewed from this perspective, the Commissioner's conclusory determinations fail to reflect that he properly considered the application of the petitioning districts to provide special education programs and services through a jointure commission. Rather, the Commissioner's determinations convey only that he does not favor the creation of "an additional governance structure" with the "attendant administrative costs." Nowhere does the Commissioner make a factually-supported, reasoned statement reflecting consideration of the districts' current obligations to provide special education services and the costs attending those obligations.

Nor may the Commissioner disregard the recommendations made by his staff during the application process. Those recommendations were prepared at his direction. His failure to consider them highlights how critical it is that the Commissioner provide some explanation of the reasoning by which he reached his conclusion to deny the application and the factual basis for such conclusion. In re Valley Hospital, 240 N.J. Super. 301 (App. Div. 1990), certif. denied, 126 N.J. 318 (1991).

In sum, we remand this matter for reconsideration by the Commissioner. Such reconsideration should include all relevant information, including the recommendations of the County Superintendent and Coordinating County Superintendent.¹ The Commissioner should then reconsider this matter in the context of our agency's policy favoring the regionalization of educational programs and services as it applies to the districts involved and to the various options available to accomplish their objectives. Finally, the Commissioner's final determination should provide the assurance that our State will continue to fulfill its obligations with respect to the provision of an appropriate free public education to the disabled students in the petitioning districts. Upon receipt of the Commissioner's findings and conclusions, we will determine whether any further proceedings are necessary. We retain jurisdiction.

February 5, 1997

Date of mailing FEB 07 1997

Additionally, by letter of February 3, 1997, counsel for the petitioning districts advised us that the petitioning districts obtained an order from Superior Court on January 30 directing the Commissioner to release Dr. Contini's memorandum by February 18, 1997. This does not, however, alter the scope of the motion which is before us. Furthermore, in view of our determination today, as well as the Superior Court's decision, it is more appropriate at this point that the Commissioner consider such requests.

This matter came before the State Board of Education for consideration of the substance of an appeal by eight school districts (hereinafter "petitioning districts") from a determination of the Commissioner of Education to reject their application to establish a jointure commission pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:46-24 through N.J.S.A. 18A:46-27. By decision of February 5, 1997, we remanded this matter to the Commissioner for reconsideration with the direction that such reconsideration should include all relevant information, including the recommendations that had been made by the County Superintendent and the Coordinating County Superintendent, and that he then reexamine this matter in the context of our agency's policy favoring the regionalization of educational programs and services as it applied to the districts involved.

By a memorandum dated May 30, 1997 directed to the superintendents of the eight petitioning districts, Dr. Peter B. Contini, who was then Assistant Commissioner for the Division of Field Services, indicated that the school districts of Bogota, Cliffside Park and Englewood Cliffs were no longer interested in participating as member districts of the proposed jointure commission. He advised the districts that the Commissioner would take no action in the matter unless a revised application was submitted to him reflecting the current proposed members and the services they wished to provide.

By letter dated September 24, 1997, we notified counsel for the parties that the State Board had been provided with a copy of the memorandum and that our Legal Committee would be recommending that the State Board dismiss the appeal. Thereafter, by letter dated November 12, 1997, we notified the superintendents of the eight petitioning districts, as well as their counsel, that the State Board of Education would decide whether to dismiss this matter at its next public meeting.

We have received no response to either correspondence from any of the districts which had been among the original applicants. Consequently, we dismiss the appeal.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal with Motion for Emergent Relief filed by the Board of Education on March 1, 1995. In its petition, the Board seeks a declaration that respondent, who filed a facially valid nominating petition in order to be placed on the ballot as a candidate for a seat on the Board at the annual school election, is disqualified from such candidacy by reason of a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. The Board seeks a directive that respondent either cure the disqualifying conflict or withdraw from candidacy prior to the printing of ballots for the election.

Upon review of the Board's papers, the Commissioner determines that they are inappropriately filed at the present time.* It has now been established that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 cannot be read to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests from

*Given the law controlling its outcome as cited above, the Commissioner has decided this matter without answer from respondent. He has done so in the belief that respondent is not prejudiced by such action, and that prompt disposition of the question of respondent's continued candidacy is in the best interest of both the parties and the public. Therefore, even assuming, arguendo, that respondent does in fact have an inconsistent interest that would act as a bar to Board membership, that interest does not preclude him from appearing on the ballot as a candidate and divesting himself of the inconsistent interest prior to commencement of his term of office if elected.

Accordingly, the instant Petition and Motion are dismissed without prejudice to the Board's right to bring its claim anew should respondent be elected, but not divested of the alleged conflict under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, on which the Commissioner expressly makes no ruling herein.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

NEW JERSEY STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

DECISION

RESPONDENT.

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, June 29, 1995

For the Appellant, Arthur Stein & Associates (Arthur Stein, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Respondent, Nancy Kaplen, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

This matter was initiated by a notice of appeal filed with the State Board of Education on July 28, 1995, by the Board of Education of the Township of Lacey. The Lacey Board sought to appeal the contents of a letter dated June 29, 1995, from the Commissioner of Education to several members of the New Jersey Legislature. The Commissioner's letter was in response to a letter written to him on June 15, 1995, by Senator Leonard Connors and Assemblymen Jeffrey Moran and Christopher Connors concerning an adjustment that had been made to the Lacey Board's 1994-95 debt service aid.

On August 7, 1995, the Lacey Board was notified that the matter was being referred to the Legal Committee for consideration of whether the Commissioner's letter constituted an appealable decision pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.1. In the correspondence resulting from this notification, the Lacey Board confirmed that in addition to its Notice of Appeal to the State Board, it had also challenged the action described in the Commissioner's letter by filing a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.

Upon examination of the contents of the Commissioner's letter of June 29, 1995, we find that this letter does not constitute an appealable decision. The letter does not represent a determination of the issues by the Commissioner, but merely provides members of the New Jersey Legislature with an explanation relating to actions that had been taken by staff within the Department of Education. Such a letter does not embody a final decision appealable to the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-27; N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.1

Further, the actions which the Lacey Board seeks to appeal to us are currently the subject of litigation initiated by the Lacey Board's Petition of Appeal to the Commissioner. That being the case, appeal to the State Board of Education is premature.

We therefore dismiss the appeal.¹

Date of mailing OCT 10 1995

¹ We note that dismissal of this appeal in no way affects the Lacey Board's right to appeal a final decision of the Commissioner rendered as a result of the petition now pending before him.

For the Board, Martin F. Pflieger, Esq. (McOmber & McOmber)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal with Motion for Emergent Relief filed by the Board of Education on March 1, 1995. In its petition, the Board seeks a declaration that respondent, who filed a facially valid nominating petition in order to be placed on the ballot as a candidate for a seat on the Board at the annual school election, is disqualified from such candidacy by reason of a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. The Board seeks a directive that respondent either cure the disqualifying conflict or withdraw from candidacy prior to the printing of ballots for the election.

Upon review of the Board's papers, the Commissioner determines that they are inappropriately filed at the present time.* It has now been established that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 cannot be read to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests from being candidates for board membership. Wayne W. Thomas, Acting Board Secretary, Board of Education of the Township of Willingboro, Burlington County v. Charlene J. Edwards, decided by the State Board of Education November 3, 1993. Therefore, even assuming, arguendo, that respondent does in fact have an inconsistent interest that would act as a bar to Board membership, that interest does not preclude her from appearing on the ballot as a candidate and divesting herself of the inconsistent interest prior to commencement of her term of office if elected.

*Given the law controlling its outcome as cited above, the Commissioner has decided this matter without answer from respondent. He has done so in the belief that respondent is not prejudiced by such action, and that prompt disposition of the question of respondent's continued candidacy is in the best interest of both the parties and the public. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.15.

Accordingly, the instant Petition and Motion are dismissed without prejudice to the Board's right to bring its claim anew should respondent be elected, but not divested of the alleged conflict under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, on which the Commissioner expressly makes no ruling herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE REVOCATION :
OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF :
CALVIN J. WILLIAMS, JR., BY THE : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS. : DECISION ON MOTIONS
_____ :

Decided by the State Board of Examiners, May 15, 1995

For the Petitioner-Respondent, David Earle Powers, Deputy Attorney General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Bucceri & Pincus (Sheldon H. Pincus, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Participant, Laddey, Clark, Coffin & Ryan (Thomas N. Ryan, Esq., of Counsel) and Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler (Nathanya G. Simon, Esq. of Counsel).¹

This matter was initiated by a petition filed by the Fredon Township Board of Education with the State Board of Examiners pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6(a)3, alleging that respondent Calvin Williams had submitted fraudulent information when he applied for certification to be a School Administrator. The State Board of Examiners issued an Order to Show Cause and, upon determining that the matter was a contested

¹ After all of the motions in this matter were filed, Schwartz, Simon, Edelstein, Celso & Kessler entered an appearance as co-counsel for participant Fredon Board in order to file an answer to respondent's motion seeking affirmative relief from the Fredon Board.

OCT. 5, 1995

case, it referred the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as required by N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6(b).

Following the hearing, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that respondent had acted "neglectfully" in making his application for School Administrator's certification, Initial Decision, at 17, but that the State Board of Examiners had failed to prove that respondent had committed fraud in applying for the certificate. Id. She recommended revocation of the School Administrator's certification for which respondent was not eligible, but concluded that there had been no showing of unbecoming conduct that would warrant revoking respondent's instructional and principal/supervisory certifications.

Noting that it had not been provided with transcripts of the hearing, the State Board of Examiners adopted the ALJ's findings both that respondent had acted negligently in applying for certification as a School Administrator and that there had been no showing of unbecoming conduct warranting revocation of respondent's other certificates. However, the State Board of Examiners found that respondent's negligence called for suspending his other certificates for two years.

Respondent appealed the suspension of his instructional and principal/supervisory certifications to the State Board of Education. He also sought a stay of the State Board of Examiners' determination from that Board.

The State Board of Examiners held a special meeting on August 16, 1995, at which time it determined to stay its decision. It also voted to seek a remand of the matter from the State Board of Education in order to review the entire record, including the transcript of the OAL hearing, which had in fact been provided, but which the Board of Examiners had failed to include in the case file it had maintained.

By a motion filed by the Deputy Attorney General responsible for advising the State Board of Examiners in its decision-making capacity, the State Board of Examiners has requested that we remand the matter.

Respondent Williams opposes this request and urges that the State Board of Education proceed with its consideration of the appeal. Respondent argues that by expanding the scope of the case so as to consider conduct which the ALJ found to be negligent rather than fraudulent, the State Board of Examiners has evidenced its bias. He contends that, therefore, the State Board of Examiners should not be permitted to serve as the prosecutor, judge and jury in this case. Respondent further urges that the only issue involved in this appeal is one of law and that remanding the matter will delay justice.

Participant Fredon Board of Education has filed a statement supporting the Board of Examiner's request that we remand the matter. At the same time, the Fredon Board seeks leave to appeal to the State Board of Education from the stay that has been granted by the State Board of Examiners.

Respondent opposes the Fredon Board's motion for leave to appeal and seeks additional relief from the State Board of Education in the form of an order directing his reinstatement by the Fredon Board.

The Fredon Board, in turn, opposes the grant of such relief, arguing that the State Board is without jurisdiction to grant it. It further argues that to reinstate respondent would disrupt the District's educational program and pose a threat to the safety and welfare of students, other personnel, school property and the school climate.

Initially, we grant the request of the State Board of Examiners that we remand this matter. Because it is charged with both issuing certificates to teach and revoking them when necessary under rules prescribed by the State Board of Education, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38, the Board of Examiners is the appropriate body to assess in the first instance whether the circumstances as established by the complete record in this case warrant such action. In this respect, we stress that the decision to be made is whether respondent should be precluded from being employed not just by the Fredon Board, but by any school district in the state. Hence, the responsibility with which the Board of Examiners is charged is a significant one, and it is imperative that its decision be based on careful consideration of all the evidence relating to this question. E.g., In the Matter of the Revocation of the Teaching Certificates of John Ahern, decided by the State Board, August 7, 1987 (subsequent history omitted).

We recognize that as respondent has pointed out, there is an increased danger of arbitrariness when, as here, prosecutorial and adjudicative functions are concentrated in the same body. E.g., In the Matter of Petition for Review of Opinion No. 583 of the Advisory Committee on Professional Ethics, 107 N.J. 230, 236-238 (1987); General Motors Corp. v. Blair, 129 N.J. Super. 412 (App. Div. 1974). However, respondent has not presented us with evidence of actual bias on the part of the Board of Examiners in this case so as to convince us that it should be precluded from considering the matter on the basis of the complete record. In the Matter of Petition for Review of Opinion No. 583, supra, at 236; Del Tufo v. J.N., 268 N.J. Super. 291, 300

(App Div. 1993). In this regard, we stress that there has been no hint that the Board of Examiners was aware that the record before it was incomplete when it first considered the matter.

We deny participant's motion for leave to appeal the stay granted by the Board of Examiners. As a participant, the Fredon Board does not have the standing to appeal the action taken by the Board of Examiners. Board of Education of the City of Salem v. City Council of the City of Salem, decided by the State Board, April 4, 1990. As reflected by the applicable regulations, in contrast to intervenors, participants do not have either the obligations or the rights of a party. Rather, the role of participant is an extremely limited one, and a participant may only present oral or written arguments on the claims made by parties. N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.6(c). To permit the Fredon Board to transform the very limited role of a participant so as to be able to shape the course of these proceedings would be entirely inappropriate. Moreover, it would be entirely inconsistent with our determination to remand the matter to the State Board of Examiners were we to set aside the stay which that body has granted.

We turn now to the affirmative relief which respondent is seeking. Quite simply, given that the Board of Examiners has stayed the suspension of respondent's certifications, the Fredon Board has no basis to terminate his employment. Respondent is a tenured teacher in the district and in the absence of tenure charges under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, the Fredon Board is contravening the education laws by failing to reinstate him. We reject the Fredon Board's assertions that respondent's reinstatement would cause serious disruption to its educational program or that respondent poses a "potential threat to the continued safety of the School District's students, personnel, property and school climate....” Certification of Efthimia Christie, September 15, 1995, at #13 and #14. Nothing in the record in this matter in any way suggests that this is the case, and the Fredon Board has presented no evidence to support such a conclusion other than the statements we have quoted from the certification submitted by the District’s Superintendent. These concerns can not justify the Fredon Board’s conduct in failing to conform to the clear requirements of the education law once the State Board of Examiners acted on August 16 to stay its decision. Nor does the “stress attendant to this litigation” justify keeping respondent “off of School District premises” until a “final administrative resolution” is achieved. Certification, at #14.

Given the clarity of the education laws, it should not be necessary for us to act affirmatively to assure that the Fredon Board knows what its responsibilities are. However, there is no question that we have the jurisdiction to do so. E.g., N.J.S.A. 18A:4-10. Given the failure of the Fredon Board to act consistently with its clear legal obligations, we have no hesitation in directing that the participant Fredon Board of Education conform with the requirements of the education laws by reinstating respondent to his tenured position as of August 16, 1995, when the Board of Examiners acted to stay its decision to suspend his teaching certification.

12/4/96

The underlying facts giving rise to this case can be summarized as follows. In 1979, the Board of Education of the Township of Fredon (hereinafter "participant" or "Fredon Board") appointed Calvin J. Williams, Jr. (hereinafter "respondent"), a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Fredon Board since 1972, to a part-time Administrative Assistant position to assist the superintendent of schools. In 1984, the Board revised the title of that position to Assistant to the Superintendent and adopted a new job description which required an administrative certificate. Respondent served in such position from the 1979-80 school year through 1985-86, while also continuing to perform his teaching duties. Respondent received his principal/supervisor certification in October 1984.

On October 10, 1990, respondent applied to the Office of Teacher Certification ("OTC" or "Licensing") for certification as a school administrator. OTC subsequently issued that certification to respondent in June 1991.

The Fredon Board thereafter filed a petition with the State Board of Examiners, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6(a)3, alleging that respondent had submitted fraudulent information regarding his administrative experience when he applied for such endorsement. The Board of Examiners issued an order to show cause and, upon determining that the matter was a contested case, referred it to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for hearing.

On April 10, 1995, following the hearing, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") found that respondent had been "neglectful" in not reviewing the regulatory requirements for certification as a school administrator before he submitted his application, but that the State Board of Examiners had failed to demonstrate that respondent had committed fraud in applying for such certification or had willfully intended to violate the law. The ALJ found that respondent had mistakenly concluded that he was qualified to receive a school administrator's endorsement by virtue of his employment as an assistant to the superintendent of schools for six years. Moreover, the ALJ observed that if the Office of Teacher Certification had examined the relevant dates more closely, it would have ascertained at the initial application stage that respondent did not have the requisite experience for a school administrator's certificate since he only had two years of administrative experience under his administrative certificate. Since respondent did not satisfy the administrative requirements for certification as a school administrator, the ALJ recommended revocation of his school administrator's endorsement. However, she concluded that there had been no showing of unbecoming conduct that would warrant revoking respondent's instructional and principal/supervisor certificates.

On May 15, 1995, the State Board of Examiners, noting that it had not been provided with transcripts of the OAL hearing, adopted the ALJ's findings that respondent had acted neglectfully in applying for certification as a school administrator and that there had been no showing of unbecoming conduct warranting revocation of respondent's instructional and principal/supervisor certificates. However, the Board of Examiners concluded that respondent's negligence in failing to familiarize himself with the requirements for a school administrator's endorsement called for the suspension of his instructional and principal/supervisor certificates for a period of two years.² The Board of Examiners reasoned:

² The parties stipulated that respondent held the following certification, in addition to the school administrator's endorsement: Teacher of physical education, teacher of biological sciences, elementary school teacher and principal/supervisor.

The professional conduct of a "seasoned educator" mandates the highest degree of responsibility in applying for a certificate. Negligence in such circumstances is, therefore, unprofessional. Failure to adhere to the highest standards of professionalism demanded of teachers both reflects poorly on the applicant whose negligence caused him to receive a certificate for which he was clearly ineligible and at the same time harms the integrity of the teacher certification system. Licensing assures the public that each certificate holder is properly qualified for the position and any certificate obtained with fraudulent documents demeans the value of all certificates. The ALJ's finding of negligence in the circumstances herein, therefore, constitutes conduct unbecoming the certificate holder and, as such, requires a sanction.

State Board of Examiners' Decision, slip op. at 5.

Respondent appealed that determination to the State Board of Education, and also sought a stay thereof from the Board of Examiners.

On August 16, 1995, the Board of Examiners determined to stay its decision of May 15. It also voted to seek a remand of this matter from the State Board of Education in order to review the entire record, including the transcripts of the OAL hearing, which it inadvertently had failed to include in its case file.

On October 5, 1995, we granted the Board of Examiners' request to remand this matter, observing that the Board of Examiners was the appropriate body to determine in the first instance whether the circumstances, as established by the complete record in this case, warranted any action against respondent's certificates. We denied the Fredon Board's motion for leave to appeal the stay granted by the Board of Examiners, finding that the Fredon Board, as a participant in this case, did not have the standing to appeal the action taken by the Board of Examiners. We also granted respondent's request that the Fredon Board reinstate him to his tenured position as of August 16, 1995, when the Board of Examiners acted to stay its decision to suspend his instructional and principal/supervisor certificates.

On December 2, 1995, the Superior Court, Chancery Division, upon application by the respondent, directed the Fredon Board to immediately implement the State Board of Education's decision of October 5, 1995 and reinstate respondent to a teaching position within the scope of his certificates.

On December 14, 1995, the Board of Examiners vacated its stay and adopted the recommendation of the ALJ that respondent's school administrator certification be revoked but that his instructional and principal/supervisor certificates not be revoked. However, upon review of the transcripts, the Board of Examiners rejected the ALJ's conclusion that respondent's conduct was negligent, finding instead that respondent had "participated in a deliberate pattern of activity designed to mislead Licensing as to his qualification for a School Administrator certificate, which constitutes conduct unbecoming a certificate holder." State Board of Examiners' Decision on Remand, slip op. at 7. The Board of Examiners found that respondent, in applying for such certification, had submitted "half-truths and misinformation, which, taken as a whole, caused Licensing to be misled regarding his eligibility for certification." Id. at 4. Accordingly, the Board of Examiners directed that respondent's instructional and principal/supervisor certificates be suspended for two years.

Respondent filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education from the determination of the Board of Examiners to suspend his instructional and principal/supervisor certificates.³ He also filed a motion with the Board of Examiners seeking a stay of its decision of December 14, 1995.

On February 29, 1996, the Board of Examiners denied respondent's motion for a stay. Respondent thereupon sought a stay from the State Board of Education.

On May 1, 1996, we granted respondent's motion and stayed the determination of the Board of Examiners to suspend respondent's certificates for two years.

After an exhaustive review of the record, we reverse the determination of the Board of Examiners to suspend respondent's instructional and principal/supervisor certificates. We agree with the ALJ that the Board of Examiners has failed to demonstrate that respondent committed fraud in attempting to secure a school administrator's endorsement. Nor does the record establish that he intended to mislead the Office of Teacher Certification into issuing that endorsement.

In October 1990, when respondent applied for a school administrator's endorsement, the pertinent certification regulation, then codified in N.J.A.C. 6:11-10-7, required, in relevant part, that an applicant demonstrate:

Successful completion of three years of educational administrative or supervisory experience, under a New Jersey administrative or supervisory endorsement or its equivalent, when spending at least half time in administrative or supervisory duties.

That regulation authorized waiving one year of such experience if the applicant held a doctorate in educational administration. It also provided that one year of internship in a program approved by the Commissioner could be submitted towards the fulfillment of the experience requirement.

³ We note that respondent does not challenge the determination of the State Board of Examiners to revoke his school administrator's certification.

It is undisputed herein that respondent did not have three years of administrative experience under an administrative or supervisory endorsement since he had not received his principal/supervisor certification until October 1984 and had only served as the Assistant to the Superintendent through the 1985-86 school year.

In determining that respondent had deliberately misled OTC as to his qualifications, the Board of Examiners focused on two letters written by Richard A. Walter (hereinafter "Walter"), the Fredon Township Superintendent of Schools, which respondent had submitted to the OTC in support of his application. In a letter dated October 10, 1990, which respondent apparently submitted with his application, Walter wrote:

This is to certify that Mr. Calvin J. Williams, Jr. has been an outstanding science teacher for over eighteen years. During this tenure he has also served as my assistant administrator for six years.

As the Assistant to the Superintendent, Mr. Williams has fulfilled the responsibilities found on the "ASSISTANT TO THE SUPERINTENDENT" job description which is attached.

I would heartily endorse Mr. Williams for any administrative position as he is a very capable and knowledgeable individual.

Exhibit P-3, in evidence.

Following review of respondent's application, an OTC examiner found it necessary to request clarifying information as to "the exact years in which this applicant served as an assistant administrator." By letter dated March 12, 1991, Walter responded:

Mr. Williams has informed me that in order to complete your evaluation of his application for administrative certification you will need an original letter detailing the exact years in which he served as my assistant administrator.

Mr. Calvin J. Williams, Jr. served as my Administrative Assistant from school year 1979-80 through school year 1985-86.

I hope this letter supplies the necessary information.

Exhibit P-4, in evidence.

Our review of the record herein indicates that the information provided by Walter was an accurate representation of the time frame during which respondent had served as his assistant. While it is true that Walter's letters do not detail the specific period during which respondent had served in such capacity under an administrative certificate, the record is devoid of any evidence that would demonstrate a deliberate effort or specific intent by respondent to deceive OTC in order to circumvent the certification regulations. In the absence of any such evidence, we decline to infer a deceptive intent. Nor does the record support the Board of Examiners' finding that respondent provided "inaccurate documentation," State Board of Examiner's decision on remand, slip op. at 6, or that respondent was "plainly aware that the documents he submitted to OTC were not wholly accurate." Id.

Indeed, contrary to the Board of Examiners' finding, the record shows that the Office of Teacher Certification was not misled by either respondent's application or Walter's supporting letters. Rather, the record reveals that even after receipt of Walter's letters, OTC was aware of the fact that respondent did not have three years of administrative experience under an administrative or supervisory certification.

Ida B. Graham, who was the assistant director of the Office of Teacher Certification at the time respondent applied for school administrator certification, was called as a witness on behalf of the Board of Examiners and testified, based on her review of the record in this case,⁴ that an OTC examiner had determined that respondent had only two years of the required experience under an administrative or supervisory endorsement and would be eligible for school administrator certification only after he presented one additional year of experience. Tr. 11/29/94, at 22. Graham agreed that the determination to issue the endorsement was made not on the basis of anything submitted by respondent, but, rather, as the result of OTC having made a determination to issue the certification under these circumstances. Id. at 19-20.

Graham testified as to a memorandum dated May 29, 1991, after the submission of Walter's letters, from Dr. Bernard Andrews, then the Sussex County superintendent, to Dr. Celeste Rorro, then the director of the Office of Teacher Certification, requesting, "per our telephone discussion," that Dr. Rorro "review the enclosed information...to determine if [respondent] qualifies for the additional year needed for School Administrator certification." Exhibit R-26, in evidence. In a handwritten note dated June 3, 1991 at the top of that memorandum, Dr. Rorro indicated: "3 years administrative experience -- OK." Id. The record does not indicate what information Dr. Andrews had enclosed with his memorandum, and Graham did not know what had been provided. Tr. 11/29/94, at 23-26. A school administrator's endorsement was thereafter issued to respondent.

Neither Dr. Andrews nor Dr. Rorro were called as witnesses by the Board of Examiners to explain the basis for Dr. Rorro's determination to approve three years of pertinent experience, and Graham could not offer an explanation. She indicated, however, that, based on her review of the file, she had found no indication of a deliberate fraud undertaken by respondent in securing the school administrator's endorsement. Id. at 19.

We note that neither Graham nor the only other witness called by the Board of Examiners, the current superintendent of the Fredon district who was employed in another school district at the time of the relevant events herein, had any involvement in or personal knowledge of the events surrounding the issuance of the school administrator's endorsement to respondent. Moreover, while the letters written by Walter did not detail the period of respondent's employment which was under an administrative certificate, OTC's own records would have shown that respondent did not receive his principal/supervisor certification until October 1984.⁵ Tr. 11/29/94, at 18-19.

Furthermore, although the Board of Examiners stressed that respondent "had never kept track of the time that he was allegedly performing these [administrative] functions," State Board of Examiners decision on remand, slip op. at 4-5, there is no indication in the record that respondent ever represented to OTC that he had spent at least half of his time in administrative duties as required by the certification regulations then in effect. Given the documentation submitted by respondent, OTC should either have requested the necessary information or rejected his application.

We also reject the Board of Examiners' finding that Walter's submission of his October 10, 1990 and March 12, 1991 letters on school stationery supports a "pattern of deception surrounding respondent's application." State Board of Examiners' Decision on Remand, slip op. at 5. Although he was on paid sick leave subsequent to June 1990, Walter did not officially retire from his position as the superintendent of schools in Fredon until October 1991, and there is no indication in the record that the stationery utilized by Walter for those letters was any different than the stationery being used by the district during that period. Under these circumstances, we find nothing devious or deceptive in Walter's actions. Moreover, it is undisputed that Walter was the superintendent at the time of respondent's service as the assistant administrator.

Nor do we place undue significance on the fact that respondent had not performed every duty listed on the job description while serving as the Assistant to the Superintendent. Walter's letter of October 10, 1990 simply indicated that respondent had "fulfilled the responsibilities" found on that job description, and it was uncontradicted on the record that respondent had served under that job description and performed the majority of the duties shown thereon. Those duties included acting in the place of the superintendent during his absence by: supervising the implementation of laws, regulations and policies; making rules and giving instruction to school employees and students to implement Board policy; and supervising all school employees. The testimony also showed that respondent had assisted in supervising the planning, implementation and evaluation of all school programs and activities, served as director of all student testing and acted as the first step in the chain of command between the public, school staff and the superintendent. Tr. 11/30/94, at 23-26, 80. The fact that respondent did not perform each and every individual function outlined on the job description does not provide evidence of a deceptive intent.

Nor can we accept the Board of Examiners' contention in its decision that the Initial Decision in this matter "reflects the ALJ's belief that the information respondent provided to Licensing was fraudulent." State Board of Examiners' Decision on Remand, slip op. at 5. To the contrary, the ALJ expressly concluded that respondent's conduct was "not a deliberate and willful intent to violate the law." Initial Decision, slip op. at 19.

Thus, for the reasons expressed herein, we find that the State Board of Examiners has failed to demonstrate a deliberate effort by respondent to mislead the Office of Teacher Certification into issuing him a school administrator's endorsement for which he was not qualified. Indeed, we are unable to determine on the basis of the record before us why and under what circumstances the former director of OTC decided to approve three years of administrative experience under an administrative or supervisory endorsement when an OTC examiner had determined that respondent did not have the required experience. Indeed, our review of the record supports Graham's conclusion that respondent's application failed to document the experience required by the regulations then in effect. The fact that a determination was made by the former director of OTC to issue a school administrator's endorsement to respondent under these circumstances does not evidence misconduct or a deceptive intent by respondent. If he had, indeed, participated in a deliberate scheme designed to deceive OTC into issuing him such an endorsement, we agree with the ALJ that it has not been established on this record.

Nor, under the circumstances presented herein, do we find respondent's "neglectful" conduct in failing to familiarize himself with the requirements for a school administrator's endorsement before applying for such certification to warrant suspension of his other administrative and instructional certificates. While it is indisputable that respondent should have taken more care in applying for a school administrator's certification, we find nothing in the school laws or implementing regulations that would justify suspending the other certificates held by an applicant, even a "seasoned educator," for failure to appreciate the certification requirements before submitting an application, in the absence of fraud, intentional submission of false information or a deliberate intent to mislead OTC. The fact that respondent's application in this particular instance was approved by OTC does not, under the record before us, transform his actions into unbecoming conduct.

Consequently, we agree with the ALJ that the record does not justify either the revocation or suspension of respondent's other administrative and instructional certificates. We therefore reverse the determination of the State Board of Examiners to suspend those certificates for two years.

Attorney exceptions are noted.

For Petitioner, Thomas J. Madigan, Pro Se

For the Board, Allan P. Dzwilewski, Esq. (Green & Dzwilewski)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal filed on February 28, 1995, by Thomas J. Madigan. Madigan had attempted to file a nominating petition seeking to be placed on the ballot at the annual school election for a seat on the Board of Education, but his petition was rejected by the respondent Board Secretary on grounds that Madigan was not qualified for Board membership due to an impermissible conflict of interest under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. On March 3, 1995, respondents filed an Answer together with a crossclaim seeking a declaration that petitioner is disqualified from candidacy because he failed to cure the alleged conflict on or before the date nominating petitions were due to be filed.

Upon review of this matter, the Commissioner determines that Madigan's name must be placed on the ballot, there being no allegation of defect in his nominating papers or qualification for office other than the Board's contention of conflict of interest under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. It is now well established that the statutory scheme cannot be construed to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests, as opposed to individuals who do not meet the qualification standards of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1, from being candidates for board membership. Wayne W. Thomas, Acting Board Secretary, Board of Education of the Township of Willingboro, Burlington County v. Charlene J. Edwards, decided by the State Board of Education November 3, 1993. Therefore, even assuming, arguendo, that Madigan does in fact have an inconsistent interest that would act as a bar to Board membership, that interest does not preclude him from appearing on the ballot as a candidate and divesting himself of the inconsistent interest prior to commencement of his term of office if elected.

Accordingly, petitioner has prevailed in his claim and the Commissioner directs that his name be placed on the ballot as if his nominating petition had been accepted at the time of filing. The Commissioner concurrently dismisses the Board's crossclaim without prejudice to the Board's right to bring such claim anew should Madigan be elected, but not divested of the alleged conflict under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, on which the Commissioner expressly makes no ruling herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CAP WAIVER :
APPEAL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCA- :

TOWN, MONMOUTH COUNTY. :
_____ :

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
DECISION

Decided by the Commissioner of Education, June 30, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Kalac, Newman, Lavender & Campbell
(Peter P. Kalac, Esq., of Counsel)

For the Township Committee, Dowd & Reilly (John T. Lane, Jr., Esq., of Counsel)

This is an appeal from a decision of the Commissioner of Education which directed that a total of $64,586,822 be raised in local tax levy to support the general fund for the Middletown school district for the 1995-96 school year. By this appeal to the State Board of Education, the Board of Education of the Township Middletown (hereinafter "Board") is seeking an additional $1,204,500 in local tax levy.

The Board originally proposed to the voters a general fund tax levy for 1995-96 for education purposes totalling $67,691,322. $62,006,242 of that amount was proposed to the voters pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-33 and represented the District's maximum permissible budget as determined under N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(a) ("base budget"). The remaining $5,685,080 was presented to the voters as a cap waiver request as provided for by N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f). $250,000 of this represented amounts which the County Superintendent had designated as not necessary for a thorough and efficient education.

Both questions failed. Since the base budget proposed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-33 had been defeated, the Township Committee was then required by N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 to determine the amount for each item appearing in that budget that was necessary for a thorough and efficient education. With the intercession of the County Superintendent, the Township Committee and the Board reached an agreement to reduce $1,750,000 from items in the base budget while increasing the amounts budgeted for maintenance and construction services by that same amount. This agreement was reached with the understanding that the Board would seek from the Commissioner an additional $3,685,080.

On this basis, the Township Committee, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37, certified an amount totalling $62,006,242 as necessary for a thorough and efficient education. At the same time, it resolved to support an appeal by the Board to the Commissioner to obtain another $3,685,080.

In reviewing the Board's appeal, the Commissioner found on the basis of the documentation provided by the Board and his assessment of the Board's financial condition as of June 23, 1995, that further reallocations could be made from the Board's base budget without jeopardizing its ability to provide a thorough and efficient education. He concluded that some of the items included in the Board's cap waiver proposal could be funded by such reallocation, thereby reducing the amount of additional funds which the Board would require for 1995-96. Hence, after determining that the resulting budget was sufficient to allow the District to address those of its facilities deficiencies which needed immediate attention, the Commissioner granted only part of the relief the Board was seeking.

The Board then appealed to the State Board seeking the additional amount. The sole argument offered by the Board in support of its appeal is that when the County Superintendent approved the District's budget in March 1995, he determined that the Board needed $5,435,080 beyond its maximum permissible budget in order to provide a thorough and efficient education and that to award it less than half that amount, as had the Commissioner in his decision, means that the ...Constitutional concept of a thorough and efficient education in New Jersey is a meaningless proposition, or, in the alternative the decision of the Commissioner of Education is patently wrong...

Brief on Behalf of Petitioner, August 10, 1995, at 4-5.

We reject this argument and for the reasons that follow dismiss the appeal.

Initially, we stress that this is not an appeal pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 from reductions made by a governing body to a proposed education budget after it was defeated by the voters. Rather, while the Board here agreed to a base budget in the amount certified by the Township Committee pursuant to that statute, it is seeking by this appeal additional amounts beyond the total certified by the Township Committee and above the District's maximum permissible budget.

This is not the first time we have been asked to direct an increase in an education budget beyond a district's maximum permissible budget. In our decision in Board of Education of the Borough of Edgewater v. Mayor and Council of the Borough of Edgewater, decided by the State Board, July 6, 1994, we recognized that the limitations of N.J.S.A. 18A:7D-28(f) in no way altered the constitutional obligation of either the Commissioner or of the State Board of Education to insure that the budget of a local school district is sufficient to provide a thorough and efficient education.

However, as we emphasized,

...the power to direct such increase may properly be exercised only where an increase is necessary to enable the district to provide a thorough and efficient education. [In re Upper Freehold Reg'l School Dist., 86 N.J. 265 (1981).] Further, any increase must be limited to those amounts the district needs in order to provide a thorough and efficient education. Id. ...

Edgewater, supra, slip op. at 15, quoting Board of Education of the Borough of Rutherford v. Mayor and Council of Rutherford, decided by the State Board, July 7, 1993, slip op. at 5-6.

In Edgewater, we made it abundantly clear that the circumstances that would warrant directing an increase in a district's education budget beyond its statutory limitation where the voters have defeated a proposal to do so are extremely limited. In doing so, we pointed to Upper Freehold, supra, which presented an analogous situation.

It is evident from an examination of Upper Freehold that the kind of circumstances that must be present to justify exercising the Commissioner's power by compelling a district's taxpayers to raise additional monies are rarely presented. In that case, the New Jersey Supreme Court affirmed an order of the Commissioner and State Board to direct a local school district to issue bonds for a capital project after voters had rejected several referenda to finance the project. The roof of the district's high school had deteriorated to the point where dripping water had to be collected in 55 gallon drums placed throughout the school and students had to navigate puddles stretching for hundreds of feet. Sagging roof planks created the danger that tiles or pieces of concrete would fall from the ceiling. Despite the obvious safety hazards, the district's voters twice rejected bond issues to repair the roof. The board therein then sought emergency funding from the Commissioner to fund the repairs. Even then, the Commissioner did not provide the funds. Instead he referred the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for evidentiary hearings, and it was the facts established by those hearings which provided the basis for the order to issue bonds ultimately affirmed by the Court.

In light of the paucity of support the Board in this matter has provided to support its claim to the relief it is seeking, we are compelled once again to reiterate that we will exercise the power to direct an increase such as involved here only where it is necessary to enable the district to provide a thorough and efficient education. Furthermore, as we have previously held, we will direct such an increase only in circumstances where it has been established that the district's base budget does not include the minimal amount needed to provide a constitutionally adequate education. Edgewater, supra; Rutherford, supra; Board of Education of the Borough of Lincoln Park v. Borough Council of the Borough of Lincoln Park, decided by the State Board, December 2, 1992.

Before we can even consider directing an increase beyond that amount, a district board must demonstrate to our satisfaction that every item in its budget and the specific amount budgeted to support each of those amounts is essential in order for it to provide a thorough and efficient education to its students. Then it must establish that the additional amounts are necessary in order for the board to provide its students with a constitutionally adequate education.

In this case, the Commissioner determined that this district could provide a thorough and efficient education without raising the additional monies the Board is seeking. The fact that this is a lesser amount than the total originally approved by the County Superintendent is of no moment. As we held in Edgewater, while the Commissioner is entitled to rely on his county superintendents when fulfilling his responsibilities to review the education budgets proposed by district boards, such reliance may not be absolute. Where a district board seeks administrative review to increase its budget beyond the amount established by the governing body following voter defeat, the record must provide sufficient factual support for the level of funding sought before the Commissioner can direct such increase.

Edgewater, supra, slip op. at 23.

In this case, the Commissioner assessed the documentation provided to him and determined that the Board could meet its constitutional obligations with a local levy totalling $64,586,822. The Board has not demonstrated to us that the budget resulting from the Commissioner's decision is not adequate. As reflected in the Commissioner's decision, the reallocations that have been made permit the Board to undertake the maintenance projects which it must commence at this point. Moreover, despite the Board's assertions, the record does not indicate that there is any risk that the Board will be forced to compromise the quality of its education program to do so. Rather, the level of funding should be more than adequate to enable the Board to proceed to systematically address its facilities deficiencies while maintaining its educational program. In this respect we note that the District's Superintendent has attested that the District expects to present a sizable bond referendum to the voters within the next school year to resolve its facilities problems. Affidavit of Peter Merluzzi, May 23, 1995. This is the proper course under the circumstances reflected in the record before us.

In that the Board has made no showing that it requires additional money at this juncture in order to fulfill the constitutional mandate, we deny it the relief it is seeking on appeal.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
 HEARING OF DAVID ISAAC, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
 STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT : DECISION OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY. :

SYNOPSIS

Board certified tenure charges of neglect of duty, excessive absenteeism and insubordination against respondent custodian.

Based upon his poor work performance, his failure to comply with employment policies of the district, his early departures and failure to report to work, the ALJ concluded that respondent was guilty of neglect of duty and excessive absenteeism. (ALJ concluded he was not guilty of insubordination.) Moreover, since respondent was notified repeatedly that his attendance and performance were unacceptable over a period of at least three years and he received verbal and written warnings and a three-day suspension, in addition to having his increment withheld twice, the ALJ concluded that the only appropriate penalty was to remove him from his position. ALJ ordered respondent removed from his position as custodian.

Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the record supported sufficient cause to terminate respondent from his position as custodian based upon his neglect of duty and excessive absenteeism. Commissioner ordered dismissal as of date of his decision.

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8378-94

AGENCY DKT. NO. 336-8/94

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE
HEARING OF DAVID ISAAC,
STATE OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT
OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY,

Gregory G. Johnson, Esq., for petitioner

Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., for respondent (Bucceri & Pincus, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 10, 1995

Decided: February 2, 1995

BEFORE EDITH KLINGER, ALJ:

On August 10, 1994, petitioner, the State Operated School District of Paterson (District), certified tenure charges against respondent, David Isaac, to the Commissioner of Education. Respondent filed his answer on August 23, 1994, and on August 30, 1994, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to - 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to - 13.

A prehearing conference was held on October 25, 1994, at which time it was determined that the following issues were to be resolved at hearing:

1. Was respondent guilty of neglect of duty between July 1991 and June 1994?
2. Was respondent excessively absent between July 1992 and June 1994?
3. Was respondent insubordinate between July 1992 and June 1994 because of his failure to be present at work?
4. Was respondent insubordinate between July 1991 and May 1994 for failing to call in absences as required and failing to heed verbal and written warnings concerning these absences?
5. If so, what penalty, if any, is appropriate?
6. Is respondent being discharged because of a handicap in violation of N.J.S.A. 10:5-4.1?

The hearing was scheduled for January 10, 1995. It was held and the record closed on that date. David Isaac did not appear and his attorney elected to proceed without him.

STIPULATION OF FACTS

The parties stipulated to the following facts:

- A. The District hired the respondent as a custodian on November 23, 1981. He was assigned to Eastside High School.
- B. On or about May 1, 1988, respondent received a copy of the district policy on work rules written by Louis Milone, Supervisor of Custodial Services.

The district policy provides, in relevant part:

1. When absent or late you must notify the school immediately.
 2. When absent three consecutive days or more, a doctor's note is required upon your return to work.
 3. ...
 4. Excessive absenteeism and tardiness will not be tolerated.
 5. You are required to work the hours assigned to you. Leaving the building early is strictly prohibited.
 6. If you must leave the building, permission must be obtained from the Principal or Vice-Principal.
 7. ...
 8. The daily workload assigned to you must be completed in its entirety.
 9. ...
 10. ...
 11. ...
 12. During the summer months and holidays you are required to be at work, the building is to remain open as usual. Leaving early at these times is strictly prohibited.
 13. ...
 14. ...
- C. During the 1991-92 school year, Isaac was assigned to Public School No. 24. On or about May 1, 1992, Principal Harold Simon issued an evaluation to the respondent.
- D. On May 1, 1992, and May 7, 1992, respondent received written memos from Supervisor Milone.
- E. On June 15, 1992, the State District Superintendent, Dr. Laval S. Wilson, acted to with hold the respondent's salary increment for the 1992-93 school year.
- F. On July 21, 1992, Supervisor Milone recommended the respondent's termination.
- G. On November 2, 1993, and December 1993, the respondent received written memos from Principal George Hirschberg, Public School No. 10.

- H. On March 28, 1994, Dr. Wilson acted to suspend the respondent for three days.
- I. On April 27, 1994, Dr. Wilson acted to withhold the respondent's salary for the 1994-95 school year.
- J. On June 2, 1994, Principal Hirschberg recommended respondent's termination.
- K. During the 1992-93 and 1993-94 school years, respondent was absent on numerous days.

REVIEW OF TESTIMONY

Respondent received his last good evaluation on July 16, 1990.

Harold Simon, now retired as principal of Public School No. 24, testified that Isaac was assigned to his school during the school years from 1979-80 through 1991-92. He supervised Isaac through the chief custodian, Garry Mott.

On September 24, 1991, Simon wrote a memo to Milone recommending that Isaac and another custodian, Freddie Bethea, be given final warnings before removal. They did not complete their workloads and when they did they were careless. Simon reported complaints from teachers that classrooms were not cleaned or cleaned poorly. A fifth grade teacher related to Simon that garbage containing food from a class Thanksgiving feast was left in her classroom, which was Isaac's responsibility, over the Thanksgiving recess. It smelled very badly when the class returned after the holiday. She also complained that she had to sweep her own classroom on November 27, 1991, because Isaac failed to clean it.

Simon wrote a memo to Isaac on April 14, 1992, that the first floor bathrooms which were Isaac's responsibility were filthy and had not even been touched. "You did not even flush the toilet."

On May 1, 1992, Simon evaluated Isaac and found his work to be of unsatisfactory quality. His cooperation with his coworkers was also unsatisfactory. His initiative, completion of assigned tasks and attendance were somewhere between unacceptable and unsatisfactory. He was only found satisfactory in his punctuality and his attitude toward criticism. Simon's written commentary on the evaluation states that Isaac's work habits were so poor that all other aspects of his evaluation were irrelevant. Simon added, "On 4/30/92 he came to work and did absolutely nothing. On 5/1/92 we found his entire workload undone." Isaac had been absent thirteen days as of May 1, 1992.

According to Simon, Isaac had been reported for poor performance on several occasions prior to this evaluation. He was also written up after the evaluation. Simon said that Isaac was permitted fifteen absences a year. The thirteen mentioned in his evaluation were less than the number he actually took. He did not provide medical excuses for his absences nor were any requested.

On May 1, 1992, Isaac was warned in writing by Milone that he left the building on April 30, 1992, without completing his assignment. His scheduled hours were from 3:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.. The security company notified Milone that the building was secured at 6:59 p.m., when Isaac left early. Milone scheduled a conference with Isaac for May 7, 1992. Isaac signed the notice indicating that he received it and returned it to Milone at the time of the scheduled conference.

On the scheduled day, Milone recorded the substance of the conference, attended by himself, Simon, Mott and Isaac, in a memo. Isaac was told that his increment would be withheld for the reasons stated in the notice of May 1. He was further warned that his lack of responsibility was having an adverse effect upon the rest of the staff and the students and he was expected to improve his performance immediately. Isaac agreed to improve. After the conference, he signed the memo acknowledging that the conference had taken place.

Following the conference, Simon met Isaac in the hall and told him that he could not continue failing to complete his work. He testified that respondent's performance never improved.

Mott testified that Isaac did good work at times and at other times did exactly as he pleased. Even when Mott warned him that Simon was coming in to inspect his work he did not do a good job. Mott's major concern was that the children have clean bathrooms. He was also worried that the Board of Health might take action against the school if the bathrooms were dirty. He said that it was very unusual for him to receive complaints from teachers that their classrooms were not cleaned.

On May 21, 1992, Isaac left the building at 6:15 p.m. and did not return to complete his shift. During the week of June 1, his shift was from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Mott reported to Milone that all of Isaac's work was completed satisfactorily.

On June 6, 1992, Isaac notified the custodian's secretary that he was going to the doctor. He came to work one hour late, left the building for lunch at 1:00 p.m. and did not return until 4:00 p.m.

On June 10, Mott inspected and found that Isaac had done none of his work except to remove the garbage. On June 22, Mott told Milone that Isaac did not return to work after lunch on June 15. On June 17, Isaac did not clean the front entrance, or sweep the staircase or first floor corridor. Simon noted that his performance continued to be unsatisfactory. On June 25, Mott found that Isaac had not swept any of the classrooms, cleaned the front entrance and the staircase, swept the corridor or removed discarded material from a hallway. Simon asked Milone to deal with this "intolerable situation" immediately. Isaac picked up his paycheck on June 25, left the building, and, as of July 2, he had not returned to work. Simon recommended to Milone that respondent be terminated immediately. On July 14, Isaac returned from lunch half an hour late with no explanation. On the following day he reported to work but did nothing and was charged with half a day's absence. On July 21, he came in at 12:45 p.m., stayed five minutes and went home.

On July 21, 1992, Milone requested that tenure charges be filed against respondent.

Isaac was transferred to Public School No. 10 at the end of the 1991-92 school year. His increment was withheld for the 1992-93 school year.

George Hirschberg, the principal of school No. 10 evaluated Isaac for the 1992-93 school year. He found respondent's use of his knowledge of cleaning materials, his completion of assigned tasks, the quality of his work, his work habits and his attendance to be less than satisfactory. He warned Isaac that he had to improve but did not recommend that his increment be withheld for the following year. Isaac had been absent twenty-two days as of March 24, 1993.

Hirschberg also supervised Isaac for the 1993-94 school year. He reported to Milone that Isaac picked up his paycheck on October 15, 1993, but did not report for his scheduled work that afternoon. He requested that Milone consider removing Isaac from his position immediately. On October 18, Isaac was healthy when he reported to work, but saw that there was a substitute working and decided to call in sick. On May 16, 1994, he failed to clean two rows of the auditorium and cleaned two other rows poorly.

On November 2, 1993, Isaac was told that he had not cleaned the main office properly and he was directed to reclean the bathroom. On December 6, he was again told that he had not cleaned the main office and he was advised to hand in his resignation if he could not perform his job properly.

On March 28, 1994, he was suspended for three days for leaving the worksite early without permission.

Joseph Vacca, night assistant supervisor of custodial services, scheduled a conference on May 26, 1994 with Isaac on his poor performance.

In March 1994, Isaac was evaluated. He was rated either less than satisfactory or unsuccessful in all but two aspects of his job performance. His personal appearance and his rapport with his co-workers were commendable. His evaluation as to his cleaning skills and his overall evaluation were "very poor." He had been absent for seventeen and one half days as of the date of the evaluation. Isaac commented that the evaluation was "not fair."

Isaac's increment was withheld for the 1994-95 school year because his work habits and attendance were unsatisfactory.

On June 2, 1994, Hirschberg requested that tenure charges be filed against respondent. He reported that Isaac had been absent thirty-four and a half days and suspended for three days during that school year. He was absent for six consecutive working days between September 7 and September 14, 1993 without a doctor's note. He was absent for three consecutive working days between October 6 and October 8, 1993 without a doctor's note. He was absent for three consecutive working days between October 18 and October 20, 1993 without a doctor's note.

Hirschberg was aware the Isaac had been hospitalized occasionally during the school year but was never told the reason. He was never told that Isaac had any physical limitations. There were no days excused for worker's compensation. Hirschberg testified that he received a doctor's note on June 2 excusing Isaac from work until June 6. He explained that Isaac's absence record was taken from the sign-in sheets. By contract, employees are required to sign in when they report to work. The district's computer records do not contain all of the days on which respondent did not sign in and Hirschberg said that the sign-in sheets are more accurate.

Only one other doctor's note was introduced into evidence by respondent. It excuses him from work between December 27, 1992 and January 4, 1993.

No evidence was offered to support the suggestion that Isaac failed to report to work or carry out his duties because of a handicap.

Since Isaac failed to appear at hearing, I FIND the evidence of the District to be credible and uncontroverted. Consequently, I FIND the testimony set forth above as fact in this matter.

DISCUSSION OF LAW AND CONCLUSIONS

I CONCLUDE that respondent repeatedly violated several district policies of which he had notice:

I CONCLUDE that he was absent at least three times in September and October 1993 for more than three consecutive working days without a doctor's note.

I CONCLUDE that he is guilty of excessive absenteeism in that he failed to carry out his job assignments because of his early departures as well as his failures to report for work.

I CONCLUDE that he failed to work the hours assigned to him and left the building without permission.

I CONCLUDE that he consistently failed to complete the daily workload assigned to him.

Based upon his poor work performance and his failures to comply with the employment policies of the district, I CONCLUDE that respondent was guilty of neglect of duty between July 1991 and June 1994.

I CONCLUDE that he was excessively absent between July 1992 and June 1994. His absences were for the most part unexplained and severely affected the level of cleanliness which the school was able to maintain.

I CONCLUDE that respondent is not guilty of insubordination because of his failure to be present at work or to call in his absences. There is no evidence that he violated, refused or failed to carry out a direct order of a supervisor to call in or come to work. Eddy v. Department of Transportation, 208 N.J. Sup. 156, 159 (App. Div. 1986). The substance of this alleged offense is already encompassed within the district's charge of excessive absenteeism. Isaac might be guilty of insubordination for failing to carry out his job assignments but he is not charged with this violation.

PENALTY

N.J.A.C. 4A:2-2.3 provides that an employee may be subject to major discipline for neglect of duty and/or excessive absenteeism. Major discipline includes removal. N.J.A.C. 4A:2-2.2(a)1.

In order to determine the appropriate penalty to be imposed, it is necessary to examine Isaac's employment record. This shows that he was notified repeatedly that his attendance and performance were unacceptable over a period of at least three years. His increment was withheld twice. He received verbal and written warnings and a three day suspension. In spite of these actions by the district, his performance continued to deteriorate. He made no effort to do anything to help to save his employment. I CONCLUDE that there is no appropriate penalty other than to remove Isaac from his position.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that respondent, David Isaac, be removed from his position as custodian in the State-Operated School District of Paterson.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF DAVID ISAAC, : COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT : DECISION OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY. :
_____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with, and accepts as his own, the findings of fact, credibility determinations and conclusions of the Office of Administrative Law in this case. Further, the Commissioner determines that the record fully supports sufficient cause to terminate respondent from his position as custodian based upon his neglect of duty and excessive absenteeism.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed in the initial decision, respondent is dismissed from his tenured position with the State-operated School District of the City of Paterson as of the date of this decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning candidate for seat on Board sought declaration that respondent Board and Board Secretary erred in rejecting his nominating petition on grounds that petitioner was disqualified from such candidacy by reason of a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and employment as a deputy fire chief contrary to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-3. Matter was transferred from Superior Court, where stay of further election proceedings had been ordered pending determination by the Commissioner.

Commissioner found statutes cannot be read to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests or employment from being candidates for board membership. (Thomas State Board Decision) Commissioner directed Board to place petitioner's name on ballot and dissolved stay of election proceedings, noting that the Board may bring its claim anew if respondent is elected but has not divested himself of the alleged inconsistent interests prior to commencement of his term of office.

For Petitioner, James C. Heimlich, Esq.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on March 6, 1995, by way of an Order of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Union County, transferring the matter to the Commissioner for determination as a controversy arising under the school laws. Petitioner had attempted to file a nominating petition seeking to be placed on the ballot at the annual school election for a seat on the Board of Education, but had been rejected by the respondent Board Secretary on grounds that he was not qualified for candidacy due to an impermissible conflict of interest under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and employment as Deputy Fire Chief contrary to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-3. On March 2, 1995, the Honorable Edward W. Beglin, Jr., A.J.S.C. issued an order temporarily restraining the Board from any further action relating to election of Board members pending determination of this matter by the Commissioner.

Upon review of the papers filed by petitioner,* it is clear that he is entitled to prevail as a matter of law, there being no allegation of defect in petitioner's nominating papers or qualification for office other than the Board's contention of conflict of interest under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and inconsistent employment under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-3. It is now well established that the statutory scheme cannot be construed to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests, as opposed to individuals who do not meet the qualification standards of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1, from being candidates for board membership. Wayne W. Thomas, Acting Board Secretary, Board of Education of the Township of Willingboro, Burlington County v. Charlene J. Edwards, decided by the State Board of Education November 3, 1993. Therefore, even assuming, arguendo, that petitioner does in fact have an inconsistent interest or inconsistent employment that would act as a bar to Board membership, that interest does not preclude him from appearing on the ballot as a candidate and divesting himself of the inconsistent interest prior to commencement of his term of office if elected.

Accordingly, petitioner has prevailed in his claim and the Commissioner directs that his name be placed on the ballot as if his nominating petition had been accepted at the time of its attempted filing. The stay issued by Judge Beglin is hereby dissolved, and preparations for the election are to proceed in the normal manner.

*Given the law controlling its outcome, the Commissioner has decided this matter without answer from the Board, in the belief that prompt disposition of the question of petitioner's continued candidacy is in the best interest of both the parties and the public. N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.15.

The Commissioner notes, however, that there is nothing to prevent the Board, should it deem appropriate, from bringing its allegations to the Commissioner for adjudication should petitioner be elected, but not divested of the alleged inconsistencies under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-3, on which the Commissioner expressly makes no ruling herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning unsuccessful bidder for maintenance contract alleged Board's award of contracts was based on preferential treatment and that successful bidder did not meet specifications.

ALJ granted summary decision in favor of respondents, dismissing the complaint. ALJ found that there was no demonstration of any material allegation of fact to support allegations of unlawful collusion beyond conjecture; petitioner lacked standing to challenge the award; there was no basis for relief by judgment of compensatory or punitive damages under N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-46; and there was no basis for any other relief as the contract in question had already been fully performed.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

Record Closed: January 18, 1995

Decided: January 30, 1995

BEFORE JAMES A. OSPENSON, ALJ:

The Board of Education of the Town of West New York, Hudson County, advertised on July 3, 1993 an invitation for bids to furnish labor, materials and equipment necessary for cleaning, maintenance and preservation of school buildings in the district. Two bids were received and opened on July 13, 1993, one from petitioner Expert Building Maintenance and one from Maverick Building Service. Maverick Building Service being lower bidder, the Board awarded it the contract for school year 1993-94. Alleging unlawful collusion between the Board through actions of its secretary/business administrator and the successful bidder, Expert Building Maintenance and its sole owner Donald Sinclair filed suit against the Board and Maverick Building Service in Superior Court of New Jersey, Hudson County, on August 4, 1993, demanding judgment invalidating the bidding process, setting aside award of the contract to Maverick, ordering rebid of all contracts, and granting Expert Building Maintenance and its owner compensatory and punitive damages. The Board and Maverick filed answers denying illegality or liability, asserting nonrecoverability of damages under N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-46, and challenging petitioners' standing to bring suit. A superior court judge denied petitioners' request for temporary restraints on August 17, 1993 and entered an order requiring respondents to show cause why preliminary injunction should not be issued restraining and enjoining the Board from awarding a contract for performance of the school maintenance services to Maverick, returnable September 24, 1993. Before then, however, petitioners withdrew their request for preliminary injunction. On May 2, 1994, a superior court judge ordered the matter transferred for adjudication to the Commissioner of the Department of Education, under R. 1:13-4(a). The Commissioner transmitted it to the Office of Administrative Law on August 19, 1994 for hearing and determination as a contested case in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 et seq.

On November 10, 1994 the Board filed a motion for summary decision dismissing the complaint pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. Annexed to the motion were Exhibits R-1 through 10. Maverick joined the motion to dismiss. On notice to the parties, the matter came on for argument on January 13, 1995. Responding to motions, petitioners filed no answering certifications of fact or affidavits to challenge factual assertions supporting the motions. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) provides:

The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits. The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. If the adverse party does not so respond, a summary decision, if appropriate, shall be entered. . .

The parties declared that all discovery had been found complete. Motions to dismiss the complaint, therefore, were ripe for determination. It was represented the building maintenance contract for the school year 1993-94 had been fully performed by Maverick, contract for the succeeding school year 1994-95 having been extended by the Board without new bids, based on satisfactory prior performance, as allowed under N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-42.

DISCUSSION

Motions to dismiss raise only questions of law in respect of Counts II and III of the complaint. Count III alleges the West New York Board failed to comply with N.J.S.A. 40A:11-23 and its time frames between publishing and advertising for bids and the opening date on which bids were taken. Filing procedures here are governed not by the local Public Contracts Law in Title 40 but by the Public School Contract Law in N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-1 et seq. Count III, therefore, is defective as a matter of law. In Count II, petitioners, neither of whom is a taxpayer of the school district, challenge Maverick's failing "properly to comply with the specification by not inspecting the various premises that would require cleaning and maintenance work within the district. . ." Undisputedly not the lowest responsible bidder, Expert has no standing to challenge the result since the assertion is essentially an attack on specifications and fulfillment thereof by a rival bidder. See, Waszen v. City of Atlantic City, 1 N.J. 272, 276 (1949):

Since [plaintiffs] were the unsuccessful bidders they therefore have no standing to challenge the award of the contract to a rival bidder. . . The rationale of such a holding is that one cannot endeavor to take advantage of a contract to be awarded under illegal specifications and then, when unsuccessful, seek to have the contract set aside. . .

Certification of a principal officer of Maverick, moreover, not challenged by petitioners on the motion, denied their allegation the contract premises were not inspected before bid. Exhibit R-7 at 2 and 3.

Count I of the complaint, which seeks damages, alleged unlawful collusive conduct "to limit competition" and to procure "an unfair advantage in the public bidding" through a close friendship between Board secretary/business administrator and the brother of an owner of Maverick. Deposition testimony of Donald W. Sinclair, owner of Expert, in R-2, demonstrated Sinclair had no direct knowledge of any actual collusion nor anything but a perceived "special relationship." Allegations of collusion are insupportable through him as a matter of law. Nothing within his personal knowledge was exposed in discovery that could be said to be competent to support an unlawfully collusive relationship. R-2; R-10. All three counts of the complaint are subject to dismissal to the extent relief sought in each is that of compensatory and punitive damages. N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-46 provides:

No action for damages shall lie against the State Board, any state official, or any board of education or any of its officers because of any action taken by virtue of the provisions of this chapter.

Summary judgment is an appropriate remedy where no genuine issue of material fact remains in a case and where, as a result, only questions of law remain for determination on undisputed facts. The remedy is especially appropriate where all discovery has been completed and where available discoverable evidence nevertheless demonstrates what can and what cannot be proven. Summary judgment in the courts and here under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5 is a procedure favored in the interest of judicial economy. In Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954), the Supreme Court said:

[Summary judgment] is designed to provide a prompt, businesslike and inexpensive method of disposing of any cause which a discriminating search of the merits in the pleadings, depositions and admissions on file, together with the affidavits submitted on the motion, clearly shows not to present any genuine issue of material fact requiring disposition at a trial. . .

If the opposing parties offer . . . only facts which are immaterial or of an insubstantial nature, a mere scintilla, . . . fanciful, frivolous, gauzy or merely suspicious, he will not be heard to complain if the court grants summary judgment, taking as true the statement of uncontradicted facts in the papers relied upon by the moving party, such papers themselves not otherwise showing the existence of an issue of material fact. Id. at 74-75.

CONCLUSION

Having reviewed pleadings, submissions, certifications, documentation and memoranda of law, having heard arguments of the parties, and noting petitioners have not filed certifications or affidavits establishing any material fact remains in dispute, I CONCLUDE (1) that the complaint should be dismissed because there has not been demonstrated any material allegation of fact to support allegations of unlawful collusion beyond conjecture, suspicion or opinion; (2) that Expert Building Maintenance and its individual owner, Donald J. Sinclair, being unsuccessful higher bidder for the school maintenance contract of West New York Board of Education, lack standing to challenge award of the contract to Maverick Building Service, lowest bidder; (3) that there is no basis for relief by judgment of compensatory or punitive damages under N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-46; and (4) that there is no basis for any other form of relief, the contract for 1993-94 having been fully performed by low bidder and injunctive relief herein having heretofore been foresworn.

Motions of West New York Board of Education and Maverick Building Service for summary decision in their favor dismissing the complaint are GRANTED. Judgment is ENTERED accordingly.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

The record of this matter and the initial decision in the form of summary judgment by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record of this matter, the Commissioner adopts as his own the conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge that the complaint herein is ripe for dismissal where its allegation of unlawful collusion rests on mere conjecture, where Expert Building Maintenance and its individual owner lack standing to challenge the contract awarded to Maverick Building Service, where the contract in question has already been fully performed, and where there exists no basis for relief in damages under pertinent statute (N.J.S.A. 18A:18A-46).

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law dismissing the complaint is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE REVOCATION :

LINDA PEDRICK BY THE STATE BOARD : DECISION ON MOTIONS

Decided by the State Board of Examiners, February 23, 1995

Decision on motion by the State Board of Examiners, September 14, 1995

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Selikoff & Cohen (Stephen R. Cohen, Esq., of Counsel)

This matter is before us today for disposition of two motions: a motion to supplement the record made by the State Board of Examiners and a motion for a stay of the Board's decision made by Linda Pedrick (hereinafter "respondent"), who has appealed the decision of the State Board of Examiners to the State Board of Education.

The underlying case was initiated on February 28, 1991, when the Board of Examiners issued an order to show cause as to why respondent's certificates should not be revoked or suspended. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to the Administrative

Dec. 6, 1995

Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq., and a hearing was conducted before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) in April 1994.

Following the hearing, the ALJ issued his Initial Decision, concluding that respondent's conduct did not warrant revoking or suspending her certificates. That decision was received by the State Board of Examiners on January 3, 1995.

The Board of Examiners acted on the ALJ's Initial Decision at its meeting on February 23, 1995, rejecting his determination and suspending respondent's certificates for a period of two years.

The Board of Examiners mailed its decision to respondent on July 10, 1995, and respondent appealed to the State Board of Education.

As stated, respondent is seeking a stay of the Board of Examiners' decision pending our decision on the merits of her appeal. It is her position that a stay is warranted because the terms of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10 of the Administrative Procedure Act provide that if an agency does not act within 45 days of receiving an Initial Decision, the ALJ's decision shall be deemed the final decision and the Board of Examiners in this case failed to act within the requisite time period.

The Board of Examiners seeks to supplement the record with the certification of the Assistant Director of the Department of Education's Office of Licensing and Academic Credentials delineating the circumstances of the Board of Examiners' actions. It is the Board of Examiners' position that "an accurate picture of the events that transpired regarding the issuance of the Board's decision" is necessary so that the State Board of Education can decide "the legal question posed by respondent regarding the status of the Board's decision." Board of Examiners' letter brief of September 28, 1995.

After reviewing the arguments of counsel, we grant both respondent's motion for a stay and the Board of Examiners' motion to supplement the record. We also direct that the parties now submit briefs as to the effect of the Board's failure to act on the ALJ's decision within 45 days of its receipt of that decision. We stay briefing of the other issues involved in this appeal until resolution of those questions relating to the 45-day rule. Respondent's brief shall be due within twenty days from the date of this decision, and the Board of Examiners shall file its responsive brief within twenty days thereafter.

Decided by the State Board of Examiners, February 23, 1995

Decision on motion by the State Board of Examiners, September 14, 1995

Decisions on motions by the State Board of Education, December 6, 1995

For the Petitioner-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

For the Respondent-Appellant, Selikoff & Cohen (Stephen R. Cohen, Esq., of Counsel)

This case was initiated on February 28, 1991, when the Board of Examiners issued an order to show cause as to why respondent's certificates should not be revoked or suspended. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq., and a hearing was conducted before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) in April 1994.

Following the hearing, the ALJ issued his initial decision, concluding that respondent's conduct did not warrant revoking or suspending her certificates. That decision was received by the State Board of Examiners on January 3, 1995.

6/5/96

The Board of Examiners acted on the ALJ's initial decision at its meeting on February 23, 1995, rejecting his determination and suspending respondent's certificates for a period of two years.

The Board of Examiners mailed its decision to respondent on July 10, 1995, and respondent appealed to the State Board of Education.

Respondent also sought a stay of the Board of Examiners' decision pending our decision on the merits of her appeal. It was her position that a stay was warranted because the terms of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10 of the Administrative Procedure Act provide that if an agency does not act within 45 days of receiving an initial decision, the ALJ's decision shall be deemed the final decision, and that the Board of Examiners had failed to act within the requisite time period in this case.

The Board of Examiners then moved to supplement the record with the certification of the Assistant Director of the Department of Education's Office of Licensing and Academic Credentials delineating the circumstances of the Board of Examiners' actions.

On December 6, 1995, we granted both respondent's motion for a stay of the Board of Examiners' decision and the Board of Examiners' motion to supplement the record on appeal. We also directed the parties to submit briefs as to the effect of the Board's failure to act on the ALJ's decision within 45 days of receipt of the decision. Both parties complied with that directive.

Respondent argues that the plain language of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) and binding precedent of the New Jersey Supreme Court mandate that the failure of the Board of Examiners to act on the ALJ's decision within 45 days must result in the initial decision being “deemed approved.” She contends that none of the excuses offered by the Board of Examiners have any merit and that the inadvertence of an inexperienced employee can not justify extending the 45 day period after it has expired. Respondent further argues that, in any event, the Board of Examiners’ decision can not withstand appellate scrutiny because the Board of Examiners did not issue its written findings of fact and conclusions of law until nearly five months after it acted to reject the ALJ’s initial decision.

In response, the Board of Examiners first urges that we ignore respondent’s arguments relating to the fact that the Board did not issue its written decision until nearly five months after its February 23 action rejecting the ALJ’s determination. It also urges that we disregard the documents relating to the inquiry respondent’s counsel made to the Board in order to ascertain the circumstances of the Board’s action. It argues that the Board of Examiners’ delay was caused by an inadvertent error made by an inexperienced staff person and that application of the “deemed adopted” provision of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) in these circumstances would impede the public interest. It contends that it was not the Board of Examiners which failed to take action, but a Department of Education employee over which the Board of Examiners had no authority or control because the Board of Examiners is not part of the Department of Education. As expressed in its brief, the Board of Examiners argues that:

In this matter there was “an exceptional and excusable lapse” in conforming with the time limitations. In balancing the competing considerations of the APA, the integrity of the hearing process versus the right of the agency to carry out its responsibilities, it is obvious that the balance must shift to the agency’s right to decide a matter of public interest without being thwarted by an inexperienced individual's inadvertent error.

Board of Examiners' brief, at 10-11.

We have reviewed the arguments of the parties and the applicable law with utmost care. We agree with the Board of Examiners that the responsibility with which the Legislature has entrusted it is an important one. However, because of the importance of that responsibility and for the reasons that follow, we conclude that, under the circumstances presented to us, the ALJ's initial decision must be deemed to have been adopted by the Board of Examiners.

N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) provides in pertinent part that:

A recommended...decision...shall be filed...with the agency in such form that it may be adopted as the decision in the case and delivered or mailed to the parties of record with an indication of the date of receipt by the agency head....The head of the agency...shall adopt, reject or modify the recommended...decision no later than 45 days after receipt of such recommendations. Unless the head of the agency rejects or modifies the report within such period, the decision of the administrative law judge shall be deemed adopted as the final decision of the head of the agency.

Although the State Board of Education is the head of the State Department of Education, N.J.S.A. 18A:4-1, the Board of Examiners is the "head of the agency" in this context for purposes of assessing compliance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c). Winston v. Bd. of Ed. of South Plainfield, 125 N.J. Super. 131, 137-39 (App. Div. 1973), aff'd, 64 N.J. 582 (1974). However, we reject as entirely without merit the Board of Examiners' assertion that it is not part of the Department of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-34 (all members of the Board of Examiners are appointed by the Commissioner of Education with the approval of the State Board); N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38 (Board of Examiners shall issue and may revoke certificates subject to rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board). Hence, we also reject the Board of Examiners' contention that it can not be held responsible for its failure to act within the statutory time period because that failure was the result of a mistake made by an employee of the Department of Education.

We recognize that the automatic approval mechanism of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) should be applied with caution. E.g., King v. New Jersey Racing Comm'n., 103 N.J. 412 (1986). We also recognize that there have been cases where an ALJ's initial decision has not been deemed adopted despite the agency's failure to properly discharge its decision-making responsibilities. King v. New Jersey Racing Comm'n., supra; DiMaria v. Board of Trustees of Pub. Employees' Retirement System, 225 N.J. Super. 341 (App. Div. 1988), certif. denied, 113 N.J. 638 (1988). However, in contrast to the case now before us, the agencies involved in those cases took some action within the statutory time period notwithstanding that their action was procedurally defective. Mastro v. Retirement System, 266 N.J. Super. 445, 451 (App. Div. 1993).

In this case, the Board of Examiners did not take any action at all within the time allowed by N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c). Since the Board of Examiners received the ALJ's initial decision on January 3, 1995, it was required to adopt, reject, or modify that decision by February 18, 1995. It neither did so by that date nor sought to obtain an extension of time in which to act as provided for by the rules. N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8 (time limits for issuing a final decision may be extended for good cause if requested from the Director of the Office of Administrative Law by the day on which the time period is to expire). Instead, it waited until February 23 to summarily reject the ALJ's determination and did not even acknowledge that its decision was untimely until respondent appealed to us. Furthermore, although not determinative of our decision, the Board of Examiners then failed to actually issue its decision until nearly five months after it acted. See DiMaria v. Bd. of Trustees of P.E.R.S., supra. Under these circumstances, we conclude that the statute's objective to encourage prompt consideration and disposition of contested cases is best served by holding that the ALJ's initial decision was automatically adopted by the Board of Examiners in this instance. Mastro v. Retirement System, supra.

We reject the Board of Examiners' contention that this result is contrary to the public interest. In this respect, we stress that our conclusion would not have precluded us from reviewing the ALJ's decision if we had found that determination to be manifestly erroneous. See Mastro v. Retirement System, supra, at 452; DiMaria v. Bd of Trustees of P.E.R.S., supra, at 348, n. 2. This, however, was not the case here. While the ALJ's initial decision found that respondent had acted improperly and had "participate[d] in an activity which was violative of the public trust," initial decision, at 23, he found that her conduct did not warrant revoking her certification. This conclusion was based on his findings that respondent's role in events occurring in 1987 in the Department of Education's Division of Vocational Education, which culminated in several criminal indictments, had been peripheral and that, to the extent that she had participated, she had merely been following the dictates of her superiors. He also found that her conduct was the result of naiveté rather than criminal intent. The ALJ grounded his conclusion in respondent's unblemished record in education, together with the years of successful service she had contributed, as well as her impeccable reputation among her peers and supervisors. The Board of Examiners disagreed with the ALJ's assessment of respondent's conduct to the extent that it concluded that her conduct warranted suspending her certification for two years. It did not, however, reject the ALJ's findings of fact. These facts provided a reasonable basis for the ALJ's conclusion that no action against her certification should be taken, and we are not aware of any mandate in law that would dictate a different result. Mastro v. Retirement System, supra. Nor does consideration of the arguments made on behalf of the Board of Examiners in its exceptions to our Legal Committee's Report convince us that the ALJ's determination of this matter was manifestly erroneous. We therefore do not find it to be against the public interest to permit the ALJ's initial decision to be the final agency decision in this case.

Wendel E. Daniels abstained.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LIVINGSTON, ESSEX COUNTY

Petitioner,

v.

HANK and DOLLY LUWISCH,

Respondents.

Vito A. Gagliardi, Jr., Esq., attorney for petitioner (Riker, Danzig, Scherer, Hyland & Perretti, attorneys)

Hank and Dolly Luwisch, respondents, pro se

Record Closed: January 13, 1995

Decided: February 6, 1995

BEFORE RALPH J. TOLOMEO, A.L.J.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, the Board of Education of the Township of Livingston, Essex County (Board) seeks reimbursement of tuition for K. L. and J. L., children of Hank and Dolly Luwisch, which it alleges were not domiciled in the district for a period of time, namely October 1, 1990 through January 18, 1991.

By letter dated February 19, 1991, petitioner, the Livingston Board of Education (Board) filed with the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey a verified petition alleging that respondents owed a tuition responsibility for their two children to the Livingston Board of Education for the period October 1, 1990 through January 18, 1991.

Under date of April 24, 1991, respondents filed an answer to the petition with the Commissioner of Education which was filed as received on May 20, 1991 by the Office of the Commissioner of Education. Thereafter, on August 26, 1991, the matter was forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case.

The matter was assigned to the undersigned on October 28, 1991. By letter dated May 31, 1992, the parties were advised that a telephonic prehearing conference would be conducted on Friday, June 5, 1992.

On the scheduled prehearing conference date, a telephonic prehearing conference was conducted and the matter scheduled for hearing therefrom for August 27, 1992. By letter dated July 21, 1992, Barry W. Howowitz, Esq. entered his appearance on behalf of respondents in this matter.

As a result of a request for discovery, the scheduled hearing date was adjourned.

Thereafter, on July 28, 1992, the Board, through counsel, filed a notice of motion for summary judgment with accompanying brief and affidavits.

A telephone conference was conducted with counsel for the parties on August 26, 1992 wherein petitioner was to provide to counsel for respondents instances involving students, of which the petitioner was aware, who attended the Livingston Public Schools between 1985 and 1990 whose family, although not residing in the Township, owned property on which a home was being constructed or renovated during the time they were attending school, and what action was taken by the petitioner regarding tuition; and instances involving students, of which the petitioner was aware, who attended Livingston Public Schools between 1985 and 1990 who resided with persons ~~not~~ not their parents or legal guardians within the Township during the time that they were attending school, and what action was taken by the petitioner regarding tuition.

It was ordered that the information be provided to respondents on or about September 25, 1992. Thereafter, counsel for respondents would have four weeks from the date such information was received to respond to the Board's motion for summary judgment.

Thereafter, the Board provided the information requested to respondents. Respondent's counsel sought additional information in terms of the identity of the individuals listed; however, no motion was ever brought by respondents' counsel regarding the same. Additionally, no response to the Board's motion for summary judgment was filed by counsel for respondents.

Thereafter, the matter was scheduled for hearing on August 30, 1994. However, at the request of respondents, the matter was adjourned.

The matter was rescheduled for settlement conference on January 4, 1995. The day prior to the conference, counsel for respondents requested an adjournment and, when the request was denied, counsel advised that respondents would appear at the conference without counsel, representing their own interests.

On Wednesday, January 4, 1995, the Luwischs appeared and represented for the record that they were no longer represented by Barry Horowitz, Esq. and were proceeding pro se.

During the course of the settlement conference on January 4, 1995, the Luwischs renewed their request for the identity of the individuals whose circumstances, but not identities, were provided to respondents in discovery. This request was denied. Additionally, the Luwischs sought to respond to petitioner's allegations, but were advised that counsel who had represented them in this matter had not filed an answer to petitioner's notice of motion for summary judgment within the prescribed time. Therefore, the request to offer evidence was denied.

At the conclusion of the settlement conference, the parties requested that the record remain open as to the pending motion for summary judgment to afford an opportunity to resolve the matter. By letter dated January 12, 1995, counsel for petitioner advised that the matter could not be resolved. This correspondence was received on January 13, 1995, on which date the record in this matter closed.

DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REGARDING THE BOARD'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Respondents, Hank and Dolly Luwisch, informed the Livingston Board of Education that they would be residing in a home in Livingston, New Jersey, in the fall of 1990. As such, their children, K.L. and J.L., were enrolled in and attended the Burnet Hill School of the Township of Livingston school system commencing September 1990. It appears from the facts presented that the Luwischs took title to the property on February 2, 1988, and were domiciled and resided in Staten Island, New York. The Luwischs did not become "residents" of the Township of Livingston until mid-January 1991, specifically January 18, 1991. The Board has sought payment from the Luwischs for the tuition period from October 1990 through January 18, 1991, in the amount of $5,614.03, the amount for two students attending school for that period of time.

The Board of Education of Livingston had in effect a policy number 5118 entitled "Tuition Students".

The policy states:

1. The Board shall not, as a general policy, accept non-resident pupils.

2. The Board shall not charge tuition for a period of 30 calendar days for pupils who attend classes in a Livingston public school and whose parents or guardians will be taking title to a home in Livingston; after this free tuition period of 30 calendar days, tuition shall be charged based on the specified annual rate set by the Board. Such a non-resident tuition student will not be permitted to register for the succeeding year.

- ...

4. All non-resident pupils shall be charged tuition at a specified rate set by the Board.

- ...

8. Other exceptions, such as hardship cases, will be reviewed and resolved by the Superintendent.

When billed, the Luwischs refused to pay the tuition bill, stating:

We fully agree that the monies for our children's education should be appropriated to Burnet Hill. However, our position is that as taxpayers within the Township of Livingston, the responsibility should [be] incurred by said Township.

In September of 1990, we submitted a paid tax bill to the Board of Education upon enrollment of J. and K. We assumed as taxpayers that tuition was appropriately applied. Under the circumstances, we feel we are being doubly taxed based on the levy of tuition fees in conjunction with taxes. We feel the Board of Education should request those tuition fees from the Township of Livingston for this period of time. (Letter from Jand and Dolly Luwisch, February 10, 1991).

The Luwischs further submitted that they had "every intention" of being in their Livingston home by September, but were prevented from doing so by construction problems. (See letter answer from Hank and Dolly Luwisch to John Ellis, Commissioner of Education, April 24, 1991). Respondents believed it was in the best interests of their children to enroll them in the Livingston school and commute to New Jersey from Staten Island every day until they could "officially" move into their house.

The Board of Education argues that there is no genuine issue of material fact raised in that respondents did not "reside" in the Township during the period in question and, as such, the Board is entitled to summary decision when its tuition claim is a matter of law.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 provides:

Attendance at school free of charge. Public school shall be free to the following persons over five and under twenty years of age:

- (a) Any person who is domiciled within the school district.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-3 provides:

Attendance at school by non-residents. Any person not resident in the school district, if eligible except for non-residence, may be admitted to the schools of the district with the consent of the Board of Education upon such terms and with or without payment of tuition, as the Board may prescribe.

The above authorizes the Board to promulgate policy such as its policy number 5118.

The terms "domicile" and "residence" are not interchangeable. Domicile is defined as the place where a man has his true, fixed and permanent home and principal establishment and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. The permanent residence of a person, or the place to which he intends to return, even though he may actually reside elsewhere. A person may have more than one residence, but only one domicile. The legal domicile of a person is important since it, rather than the actual residence, often controls the jurisdiction of the taxing authorities and determines where a person may exercise the privilege of voting and other legal rights and privileges. The established, fixed, permanent or ordinary dwelling place or place of residence of a person as distinguished from a place to which business or pleasure may temporarily call him. Blacks' Law Dictionary, 435 5th Ed. (1979).

Conversely, residence is defined as

A personal presence at some place of abode with no present intention of definite and early removal and with purpose to remain for an undetermined period, not infrequently, but not necessarily combined with design to stay permanently. . . . Residence implies something more than mere physical presence and something less than domicile. Blacks' Law Dictionary, id. at 1176.

Therefore, residence simply requires bodily presence as an inhabitant in a given place, while domicile requires bodily presence in that place and also an intention to make it one's domicile.

In this matter, it is clear from the facts, to which there is no dispute, that the Luwischs resided in Staten Island, New York. They purchased a property in Livingston in 1988 and enrolled their children in the Livingston school system in September 1990, with the understanding that they would be residents within the Township within 30 days of their children's enrollment. By their own admission, this did not occur. Accordingly, there is no dispute as to the facts in their matter, and, pursuant to the statutory scheme cited above and the Board policy as enacted under its policy number 5118, the Board must prevail as a matter of law.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the Board's motion for summary judgment for tuition expense for the children of Hank and Dolly Luwisch, K.L. and J.L., for the period October 1, 1990 through January 18, 1991, in the amount of $5,614.03, be GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that the appeal of respondents be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Exceptions were untimely filed by respondents pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Therefore, these exceptions and the replies thereto were not considered by the Commissioner.

Upon careful and independent review of the record of this matter, the Commissioner adopts as his own the determination of the Office of Administrative Law granting summary judgment to the Board. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that, inasmuch as there is no dispute that respondents were not domiciled in Livingston Township until January 18, 1991, yet their children, K.L. and J.L., were enrolled in the district as of September 1990, respondents are obligated to the Board for tuition payments from October 1, 1990, when the 30-day grace period provided by Board policy expired, through January 18, 1991, when respondents became residents of Livingston Township.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law ordering payment of tuition in the amount of $5,614.03 is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF ELAINE M. NEWMAN. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, July 28, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Elaine M. Newman, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Arlene G. Lutz, Deputy Attorney
General (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The State Board of Education affirms the decision of the Deputy Commissioner of Education upholding petitioner's disqualification from employment as a substitute teacher following a criminal history record review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. That record review revealed that petitioner had been charged with simple possession of marijuana in South Carolina in August 1993, and that she subsequently had been convicted and forfeited her bond when she did not appear for her hearing. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), petitioner had the burden of affirmatively demonstrating clear and convincing evidence of her rehabilitation.

Notwithstanding petitioner's assertion that she had not been aware of the marijuana discovered in her boyfriend's car, in which she had been a passenger, her evidence submitted to the Commissioner was limited to a report she had prepared in college dealing with cocaine and pregnancy and letters of recommendation from close family members and her pastor. Moreover, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e), we have considered the "nature and responsibility" of the position from which petitioner was disqualified. In this respect, we stress that employment as a substitute teacher includes responsibility for the care, supervision and instruction of students.

Consequently, we agree that petitioner has failed to demonstrate her rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

Russell A. Breese, petitioner, pro se

Marlene Zuberan, Deputy Attorney General, on behalf of respondent (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: January 6, 1995

Decided: February 6, 1995

BEFORE SOLOMON A. METZGER, ALJ:

This matter arises out of petitioner's claim that his tenure rights were violated in contravention of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 through -13. The matter has been submitted on cross-motions for summary decision.

The questions presented are whether petitioner's claim is time barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2 and, if not, whether there has been a violation of his tenure rights.

The facts are undisputed. Petitioner is a teacher who has been employed by respondent at Mountainview Youth Correctional Facility since June 1970. Petitioner held a ten-month position from the time he was hired until he applied for and received a twelve-month position commencing on June 26, 1993. Prior to the new placement petitioner earned $39,670.71 annually; thereafter, his salary increased to $45,910.92. However, petitioner's daily rate of pay decreased from $182.81 to $175.80.

On July 23, 1993, petitioner filed two grievances seeking to redress this daily rate differential. Grievance hearings were held on August 5, 1993, and the assigned hearing officer issued decisions on November 5, and December 22, 1993, finding that both claims fell outside the scope of the grievance procedure. He indicated that petitioner could appeal to the Department of Personnel. Petitioner did so on December 15, 1993, and on February 1, 1994, the deputy director of classification and compensation informed him that the state compensation plan established the differential for ten- and twelve-month titles, that his union subscribed to the plan and that his salary is calculated on an annual basis, not as a daily rate. The deputy director concluded that the salary differential was properly determined in accordance with applicable rules. On March 1, 1994, petitioner wrote to the Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, seeking to file a complaint and was instructed on March 11, 1994, as to the proper procedure. His petition was filed on May 5, 1994. This is the substance of the record.

Respondent argues initially that petitioner's claim is time barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c), because claims must be filed no later than ninety days after receiving notice of the final order, ruling or other action complained of. I agree. The ninety-day period of limitations begins to run when a party knows or should know of an adverse agency action. Kaprow v. Board of Educ. of Berkeley Tp., 131 N.J. 572, 586-89 (1993). At the latest, petitioner knew that his daily rate of pay had decreased when he filed grievances contesting this fact on July 23, 1993. His petition was not filed until May of 1994. Petitioner argues that as a pro se party he was not aware of this procedural requirement and should not be held to it. There is nothing in the rule, however, or in the cases to support this contention. In Kaprow, the petitioner, apparently acting on his own, exchanged correspondence with counsel for the school board over a lengthy period and as a result did not file a timely claim. The Court did not find this compelling See also Board of Educ. of Bernards Tp. v. Bernards Tp. Educ. Ass'n, 79 N.J. 311, 326-27 n.4 (1979), where the Court ruled that a teacher who proceeds first to advisory arbitration is not relieved of compliance with the ninety-day rule.

Petitioner argues also that he was misled by the hearing officer into believing that his appeal was to the Department of Personnel. The correspondence does not support this contention. The hearing officer addressed himself exclusively to the grievances filed by petitioner and his letters of November 5, and December 22, 1993, correctly indicate that these issues were reviewable before the Department of Personnel. He makes no global assessment of petitioner's potential claims and there is no indication that the hearing officer was even aware of petitioner's tenure argument.

Should there be some disagreement with my conclusion that this claim is time barred, I also think that it is without merit. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 protects persons under tenure from improper or arbitrary reductions in compensation. These cases generally arise when an employer takes some initiative to which the employee objects. Here, petitioner sought out this twelve-month position, received the attendant salary increase, and now seeks remediation because his daily pay differential is unfavorable. Even if there were something to the argument that petitioner's salary has been reduced by this one method of calculation, he asked for the position and the tenure laws do not protect him from himself. Moreover, he does not even indicate that he has made a bad bargain that he would now undo. Rather, he wants the Commissioner of the Department of Education to improve upon his salary increase.

If petitioner had been coerced into exchanging positions, we might next inquire whether the state compensation plan properly remunerates his increased effort from the perspective of the tenure laws. It is possible to envision circumstances in which an employee forced into such an exchange and given little additional reward could properly claim an erosion in the value of his position. If the question were to be reached here, it might demand an additional affidavit or testimony to explain the considerations that go into salary conversions for ten- and twelve-month employees. I believe, however, that summary decision is appropriate for the reasons already stated and that respondent need not be put to further effort.

Based on the foregoing, it is my conclusion that petitioner's claim is time barred and that it is substantively without merit. Respondent's motion for summary decision is granted.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon careful and independent review of the record of this matter, the Commissioner adopts as his own the conclusion of the Office of Administrative Law that petitioner's claim is time barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) since petitioner had notice of his per diem rate of pay when he filed grievances contesting same on July 23, 1993, but failed to file a Petition of Appeal before the Commissioner until May 4, 1994. Moreover, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition itself is without merit and, consequently, this matter is ripe for summary decision.

Accordingly, the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law granting summary decision to the respondent is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Record Closed: February 3, 1995

Decided: February 8, 1995

BEFORE MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on December 13, 1994, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a stipulation indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The parties in this appeal have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters between them and enter into the following settlement, which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between the parties:

1. Petitioner consents to the dismissal of his Petition with prejudice.
2. In consideration thereof, Respondent will pay Petitioner the sum of $3,200.00 in satisfaction of his claims against Respondent, including Petitioner's claim for payment for additional vacation days under his contract of employment.
3. The parties agree that the dismissal of the Petition shall also serve as a release of Respondent and its employees and agents by Petitioner as to all claims that have been made or that could have been made as a result of Petitioner's employment agreement with Respondent and Petitioner's separation from employment by Respondent.

4. This settlement is contingent upon and will only become effective when it is approved by the Board of Education of the Borough of New Providence and the Commissioner of Education.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties. It is noted that subsequent to the issuance of the initial decision in this matter, the Commissioner received a memorandum from the Administrative Law Judge advising that his decision herein was meant to apply to both docket numbers of this consolidated matter, rather than just EDU 9846-93 as indicated in his initial decision.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record of this matter, the Commissioner cannot concur with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ that this matter should be dismissed as a consequence of Apgar's declining to prosecute his appeal. As noted above, this is a consolidated matter. Although Apgar's failure to prosecute is ample justification for dismissal of his petition, the record does not clearly reflect the basis for dismissal of the tenure charges involved herein.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the ALJ is rejected and this matter is hereby remanded to OAL for supplementation of the record with respect to the basis for dismissal of tenure charges against Laurence Apgar.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALIFI- :
CATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOYMENT : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF WILLIAM R. PALUMBO. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, January 24, 1995

Decided by the Assistant Commissioner of Education, August 7, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Feintuch, Porwich & Feintuch (Philip Feintuch, Esq., of Counsel)

William R. Palumbo (hereinafter "petitioner"), who was employed as a teacher in the Hudson County Area Vocational Technical Schools, was disqualified by the Office of Criminal History Review of the Department of Education from continued employment in the State's schools when a fingerprint search conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 revealed that he had been convicted in June 1991 on a federal charge of conspiracy to distribute more than 1,000 pounds of marijuana, arising from his involvement in a marijuana importation and distribution operation in the mid-1980's.¹ Petitioner sought to overturn his disqualification on the basis of rehabilitation.

¹ We note that a 1989 conviction on charges of tax evasion and conspiracy to distribute marijuana, arising from the same events, was subsequently vacated on appeal on the grounds that the indictment against petitioner had been obtained solely on the basis of immunized information received from him.

2/7/96

In a letter decision dated January 24, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner of Education upheld the disqualification,² concluding that petitioner had not demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

By letter dated February 8, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner notified petitioner that the appeal was being reopened in order to clarify information in his criminal history record.

Following a hearing held on July 14, 1995, an Assistant Commissioner of Education upheld petitioner's disqualification.³ Stressing the serious nature of petitioner's offense and the fact that he was disqualified from service as a teacher, the Assistant Commissioner, considering all evidence presented by petitioner to be true, indicated that:

While Mr. Palumbo initially engaged in the importation of illegal substances without knowledge, in that his company was used as a 'front,' he admittedly acted with knowledge in 1985 that the New Orleans' shipment would contain marijuana, notwithstanding that he felt compelled to do so. Then, after closing his company, he moved to Key West, and did not contact the authorities until he realized that an investigation which was likely to implicate him was underway. Moreover, while these acts occurred ten years ago, they cannot be attributed to immaturity or ignorance, in that Mr. Palumbo was, at the time, a 40 year old man who held a master's degree, and was both an experienced teacher and entrepreneur. Mr. Palumbo's burden to ² We note that N.J.S.A. 18A:4-33 authorizes the Commissioner to "designate an assistant commissioner as deputy commissioner with full power to act in his place and stead during any absence or inability of the commissioner and at such other times as the commissioner may designate." Such authority expressly includes assignment by the Commissioner of the "hearing and determination of controversies and disputes which may arise under the school laws...." N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

³ See, n.2, supra.

establish his rehabilitation, under these circumstances, has not been met.

Assistant Commissioner's Decision, slip op. at 3.

The petitioner filed the instant appeal to the State Board of Education.⁴

After a careful review of the record, including the evidence of rehabilitation submitted by petitioner, we affirm the decision of the Assistant Commissioner essentially for the reasons expressed therein.

We add only that the evidence of rehabilitation presented by petitioner, which includes a letter of recommendation from the principal of the school in which he had been employed prior to his disqualification, does not, under the circumstances, convince us of his rehabilitation under the statutory standard. While the evidence is compelling with regard to petitioner's professional skills and teaching abilities, even prior to the offense at issue,⁵ we find that the record does not sufficiently demonstrate reformation of petitioner's character in the years subsequent to his criminal misconduct. Nor do we find such evidence to be sufficiently related to the particular nature of petitioner's wrongdoing.

As the Assistant Commissioner properly observed, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) requires, inter alia, consideration of the "nature and seriousness of the offense," as well as the "nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold." The gravity of the federal offense for which petitioner was convicted, conspiracy to distribute more than 1,000 pounds of marijuana, is beyond dispute. Moreover, like the Assistant Commissioner, we stress that petitioner was disqualified from employment as a teacher, a position which includes responsibility for the care, supervision and instruction of students. Consequently, he faces a heavy burden in attempting to demonstrate his rehabilitation. Cf. Application of Matthews, 94 N.J. 59 (1983).

⁴ The Office of Criminal History Review was apparently not represented in the proceedings before the Deputy Commissioner. Upon the filing of the appeal, Counsel to the State Board notified the Attorney General's Office that an appeal had been taken in the matter, and transmitted a copy of the record. A Deputy Attorney General was then assigned to appear as attorney of record in the appeal.

⁵ The evidence reveals that petitioner received a meritorious teaching award from the National Council for Geographic Education in 1971.

Thus, while we recognize that ten years have passed since the criminal events which gave rise to these proceedings, we are unable to conclude on the record before us that petitioner has affirmatively demonstrated his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence. We therefore affirm the decision of the Assistant Commissioner disqualifying petitioner from continued employment in the schools of New Jersey.

Donald C. Addison, Jr., Wendel E. Daniels and Thomas P. McGough abstained.

Bonnie J. Green abstained.

Respondent.	:
-----X	:

The petitioner Board of Education of the Township of Old Bridge (the "Board") and the respondent James Percy ("Percy") having conferred with respect to this matter and having mutually agreed upon certain terms by which this matter may be settled, such terms being set forth in this Stipulation of Settlement, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between the Board and Percy as follows:

1. Percy shall immediately retire from the employ of the Board effective as of February 28, 1995. Within 10 days of the execution of this Stipulation of Settlement by the Board and Percy, Percy shall (1) formally notify the Board in writing of his retirement from its employ as of February 28, 1995 and (2) file an application with the Public Employee Retirement System ("PERS") for retirement as of February 28, 1995, which may include disability retirement and such retirement benefits as may be available to Percy from PERS.

2. The Board and Percy agree that the annual salary payable to Percy, the actual salary paid to Percy and the amount of salary retroactively due to Percy over the last three years is as follows:

YEAR	SALARY PAYABLE	SALARY PAID	RETROACTIVE SALARY DUE
1991-1992	$38,000.00	$36,630.00	$1,370.00
1992-1993	39,900.00	36,630.00*	922.50
1993-1994	41,900.00	-0-	-0-
Total Retroactive Salary Due			$2,292.50

*Note: Paid at this rate through September 30, 1992.

Within 15 days of the Board's receipt of the notice of retirement and a copy of the completed and executed retirement application filed with PERS required by Paragraph 1 above, the Board shall pay Percy the sum of $2,292.50 representing the retroactive salary due to Percy as agreed above.

3. The Board and Percy agree that for purposes of his retirement, Percy's salary for the last three years of his employment is as set forth in Paragraph 2 above. The Board shall make whatever retroactive pension contribution payments to PERS are necessary such that Percy's retirement pension is calculated based on the annual salaries set forth above.

4. Within 15 days of the Board's receipt of the notice of retirement and a copy of the completed and executed retirement application filed with PERS required by Paragraph 1, the Board shall, consistent with law and the terms of the collective bargaining agreement which pertains to Percy's employment by the Board, pay to Percy the value of his unused sick, personal, compensatory and vacation days. Should Percy provide the Board with appropriate evidence of any valid election by Percy under the Internal Revenue Code which would permit the Board to properly pay the value of any or all such days to Percy without withholding or deducting taxes from such value, then the Board shall abide by such election and not withhold or deduct taxes from the value of any or all such days.

5. The Board shall continue to maintain and pay the premiums for medical and health insurance coverage for Percy as a retiree from the employ of the Board as required by the collective bargaining agreement pertaining Percy's employment by the Board.

6. Percy hereby waives all rights to continued employment or reemployment by the Board, including but not limited to any and all rights based on tenure and/or seniority and any and all rights to be recalled to employment by the Board or appear on any recall or other list of employees eligible for employment or reemployment by the Board. Percy also hereby waives and releases any and all claims, whether known or unknown, against the Board which arise out of or relate to his employment by the Board, including but not limited to claims for unpaid salary or other employment benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Percy does not waive nor release his currently pending workman's compensation claim against the Board. Similarly, the Board hereby waives and releases any and all claims, whether known or unknown, against Percy which arise out of or relate to his employment by the Board.

7. Throughout the negotiations leading to this Stipulation, Percy has had the counsel of his attorney, Stephen E. Klausner, Esq., and with this counsel, Percy has voluntarily determined to agree with the Board upon the terms set forth in this Stipulation.

WHEREFORE, the Board and Percy set their hands to this Stipulation of Settlement on the dates indicated below.

This matter came before the Commissioner by way of a Petition of Appeal filed on September 27, 1994, seeking tuition reimbursement pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(1), declaration of respondents as disorderly persons under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1c, and attorney's fees.

Petitioner Board operates a kindergarten through eighth grade school district for persons domiciled in the Township of Green Brook, and sends its resident high school students to Watchung Hills Regional High School, paying tuition to said high school based on the number of petitioner's residents who so attend. Petitioner avers that Robert J. Patronick, the father of R.P., the student in question, alleges that R.P. resided with Joan Patronick, R.P.'s grandmother, in Green Brook, during the 1993-94 school year. R.P.'s father, Robert J. Patronick, is divorced from R.P.'s mother and claims that he also resides in Green Brook at Joan Patronick's address. Mr. Patronick has physical custody of R.P. during the school year. There has never been a claim that R.P. was residing gratis with his grandmother, or a claim that R.P. was residing in Green Brook temporarily. After investigation, the Board has determined that R.P. was not properly domiciled in Green Brook in the 1993-94 school year, yet attended the regional high school.

No Answer or other submission has been filed by respondents in the matter, despite three notices to do so, the most recent of which was mailed on December 6, 1994 (return receipt dated December 8, 1994).

The Commissioner has carefully reviewed the arguments of the Board in the matter. In the absence of any response by respondents, the Commissioner hereby deems the facts as pled by the Board as true, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.4(e). Based upon the facts admitted as pled, the Commissioner finds and determines that R.P. was not properly domiciled in petitioner's district in the 1993-94 school year.

The Commissioner, therefore, finds and directs that the Board's prayer for tuition reimbursement, in the amount which it has determined appropriate, for R.P. as a student enrolled in the regional high school district for the 1993-94 school year, is hereby granted.

Finally, the Commissioner rejects petitioner's prayer for a declaration under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1c of respondents as disorderly persons, as said declaration would usurp the jurisdiction of the Municipal Court, and further rejects petitioner's prayer for attorney's fees in this matter, there being no provision for the grant of attorney's fees or costs within the Commissioner's authority. Board of Education of the Pascack Valley Regional High School District v. Kwon, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 897, 898, citing Balsley v. North Hunterdon Board of Education, 117 N.J. 434 (1990)

This matter came before the Commissioner by way of a Petition of Appeal filed on September 27, 1994, seeking tuition reimbursement pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b(2), declaration of respondents as disorderly persons under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1c, and attorney's fees.

Petitioner Board operates a kindergarten through eighth grade school district for persons domiciled in the Township of Green Brook, and sends its resident high school students to Watchung Hills Regional High School, paying tuition to said high school based on the number of petitioner's residents who so attend. Petitioner avers that Susan Dowd, the mother of S.P., the student in question, alleges that S.P. resided with Joan Patronick, S.P.'s grandmother, in Green Brook, during the 1993-94 school year, but Mrs. Dowd refused to sign an affidavit attesting to that fact, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1c. After investigation, the Board has determined that S.P. was not properly domiciled in Green Brook in the 1993-94 school year, yet attended the regional high school.

No Answer or other submission has been filed by respondents in the matter, despite three notices to do so, the most recent of which was mailed on December 6, 1994 (return receipts dated December 8, 1994).

Petitioner sought declaration that respondent candidate for seat on Board was disqualified from such candidacy by reason of a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and School Ethics Act. Petitioner further sought stay of Board's action to place respondent's name on ballot.

Commissioner found statutes cannot be read to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests from being candidates for board membership. (Thomas State Board Decision) Petition was dismissed without prejudice to petitioner's right to bring claim anew if respondent is elected but has not divested herself of alleged conflict prior to commencement of term of office.

For Petitioner, Robert Keratt, Pro Se

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of a Petition of Appeal with Motion for Emergent Relief filed on March 10, 1995. Petitioner seeks a declaration that respondent, who filed a facially valid nominating petition in order to be placed on the ballot as a candidate for a seat on the Board at the annual school election, is disqualified from such candidacy by reason of a conflict of interest prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. (School Ethics Act). He further seeks a stay of the Board's determination to place respondent's name on the ballot notwithstanding his challenge to her candidacy.

Upon review of petitioner's papers, the Commissioner determines that they are inappropriately filed at the present time.* It has now been established that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 cannot be read to disqualify individuals with inconsistent interests from

*Given the law controlling its outcome as cited herein, the Commissioner has decided this matter without answer from respondent. He has done so in the belief that respondent is not prejudiced by such action, and that prompt disposition of the question of respondent's continued candidacy is in the best interest of both the parties and the public. being candidates for board membership. Wayne W. Thomas, Acting Board Secretary, Board of Education of the Township of Willingboro, Burlington County v. Charlene J. Edwards, decided by the State Board of Education November 3, 1993. While the State Board in Thomas did not address the School Ethics Act, as it was not raised in that appeal, the Board's rationale as to application of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 is equally germane to the Ethics Act. Therefore, even assuming, arguendo, that respondent does in fact have an inconsistent interest that would act as a bar to Board membership, that interest does not preclude her from appearing on the ballot as a candidate and divesting herself of the inconsistent interest prior to commencement of her term of office if elected.

Accordingly, the instant Petition and Motion are dismissed without prejudice to petitioner's right to bring his claim anew should respondent be elected, but not divested of the alleged conflicting interest, on which the Commissioner expressly makes no ruling herein.

SYNOPSIS

Board appealed $433,441 of the General Fund tax levy reductions made by governing body following voter rejection of the proposed budget on April 19, 1994.

Upon review of the appeal herein to determine whether Board demonstrated that restoration of specific line-item reductions was necessary in order to provide a thorough and efficient system of education in the district, Commissioner determined to restore $239,009 for a total General Fund tax levy of $17,664,237 for 1994-95 school purposes.

DECISION

Richard K. Sacks, Esq., for Petitioner

Steven Secare, Esq. (Russo, Secare, Ford & Delanoy), for Respondent

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on June 20, 1994, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal by the Manchester Township Board of Education (Board) seeking restoration of $1,039,441 reduced from the school budget by the Mayor and Council of the Township of Manchester (Township) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:22-37 following defeat of the budget at the annual school election on April 19, 1994. At the annual school election the voters rejected the budget question proposing a General Fund Tax Levy of $18,611,032 for the 1994-95 school year. On May 19, 1994, following consultation with the Board as required by law, the Township adopted a resolution certifying the General Fund tax levy of $17,425,138 as sufficient to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education (T & E) in the district. This amount represented a reduction of $1,185,894 from the tax levy proposed by the Board, and was effectuated through cuts in fifteen line items, for the reasons given in Schedule A attached to the resolution (see Exhibit D attached to the July 20, 1994 submission by the Board). By resolution dated June 8, 1994, the Board determined to appeal $1,039,441 of the reduction to the Commissioner of Education.

On December 16, 1994, the Commissioner of Education notified the parties that he intended to take official notice of the Board's 1993-94 year-end audit for the purpose of identifying whether the Board underestimated in its 1994-95 budget the amount of anticipated undesignated surplus. On January 5, 1995, the Commissioner denied the Board's motion to compel the Township to produce the information and supporting reasons and data it relied upon in reducing the Board's budget, or in the alternative to strike the Township's Answer. (See Commissioner of Education Decision dated January 5, 1995.) The Commissioner, further, decided that the weight and sufficiency of the documentation submitted would be determined in light of all evidence submitted upon the closure of the record. On January 17, 1995, the Township submitted its final statement.

Subsequently, on January 25, 1995, the Board amended its petition reducing the amount of its appeal to $433,441 after determining that it had an additional available fund balance in the amount of $606,000 which it determined should be appropriated to the 1994-95 school budget ($500,000 as directed by the Township plus an additional $106,000). The Township filed its Answer to the Amended Petition on January 31, 1995. The board filed its position statement in support of the Amended Petition on February 14, 1995, and a closing statement in support of the Amended Petition of appeal on March 9, 1995, whereupon the record closed.

Consequently, the amounts in dispute in this appeal are as follows:

Tax Levy Proposed by Board	Tax Levy Certified by Township
General Fund $18,611,032	General Fund $17,425,138
Amount of Reduction by Township	Amount of Reduction in Dispute
General Fund $1,185,894	General Fund $433,441

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In rendering judgment on budgetary appeals, the Commissioner notes that the Constitution of the State of New Jersey requires the Legislature to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. The Legislature by way of statutory scheme has delegated responsibility for providing such thorough and efficient system to local boards of education. Additionally, the Legislature pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, 22-14 and 22-37 has authorized the Commissioner of Education to review and decide appeals by boards of education seeking restoration of budgetary reductions imposed by local governing bodies. In reviewing such appeals, the Commissioner must determine whether a district board of education has demonstrated that the amount by which a specific line item reduction imposed by the governing body is necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Board of Education of East Brunswick Township v.

Township Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94 (1966) and Board of Education of Deptford Township v. Mayor and Council of Deptford Township, 116 N.J. 305 (1989).

Mindful, then, of the standards to be applied, the Commissioner makes specific determinations as follows.

COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION

The Township's reductions were effectuated in fifteen current expense line items, ten of which are part of the Amended Petition of Appeal and are set forth below, together with the reason specifically given for each reduction in Schedule A attached to the Township's resolution. Also set forth below are the arguments of the parties for and against restoration by the Commissioner. It should be noted at the outset that the Board, in support of its Amended Petition, submitted documentation for both line items and amounts beyond the scope of the appeal. To the extent line items were introduced which were not part of the Township's line item reductions in Schedule A attached to the Township's resolution dated May 19, 1994, those items will not be addressed herein.

N.J.S.A.18A:22-37.

Salary Accounts

The Township's rationale for each salary account reduction is as follows:

Rationale: The procedure followed in this account was to determine the level of expenditure by the School District for the current school year, 1993-94, and to add to that number a very reasonable increase of 6%. The product of this number resulted in the 1994-95 salary recommendation.

Account No.	Description	Amount
11-120-100-101	Salaries of Teachers Grades 1-5	$109,198

The Board asserts that the Township's reduction was based, in part, upon its erroneous finding that the expenditures for 1993-94 were $2,082,227, when, in actuality the unaudited figure for this line item was $2,427,914. The Board's projected expenditure was based upon no increase in the number of staff from the 1993-94 school year and included substitutes and class coverage. In addition, the number of staff for the 1994-95 school year only provided for an increase of four staff members from the 1992-93 school year.

The Township argues that the amount of its reduction is based upon no increase in staff, but takes the current contractual staff of seventy-two and adds six percent for salary increases. This figure, it asserts, is based upon real expenditure figures of $2,379,261. It alleges that the other figures submitted by the Board are unrealistic in that it asks for a class coverage figure that is five times larger than the prior year. Further, the Board's figures for additional teaching periods are inflated.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Township's determinations are based upon its assertion that the Board actually expended $2,379,261, an amount not established by the record. It is impossible to ascertain upon what basis this figure was determined. The Board has established that the amount requested is necessary to maintain the staffing level as intended by the Township. Consequently, the $109,198 reduction is restored.

----------------	-----------------------------------	-----------

The Board asserts that once again, the reduction of the Township was based upon faulty assumptions concerning the Board's actual expenditures. The account provides for forty-three teaching staff members and represents no staffing increase from the prior year. The increase in the amount of the appropriation by the Board included substitute teachers, coverage of classes, lateral movement on the salary guides and $24,293 for additional basic skills services. In addition, this account provides for teachers assigned to extra duty services for bus duty and the summer development program which is in year two of a three year restructuring project for the Manchester Middle School.

The Township counters that the expenditure for class coverage has increased by over three hundred percent and the summer development program has been added to this line item for the first time. It asserts that no proofs have been submitted to support these line items or to suggest that the reduction will result in the students being deprived of a thorough and efficient education.

Upon review of the record, the Commissioner determines that the Board has submitted information to support, in part, the restoration of this line item. No evidence was presented, however, in support of the basic skills extra teaching period which the Board asserts may be necessary. Consequently, the Commissioner determines that $24,293 is sustained and $62,997 is restored.

11-204-100-101	Salaries of Teachers - Neurologically Impaired	$73,751
----------------	--	----------

The Board asserts that this account provides for thirteen contractual staff members and represents no staff increase from the prior year. The additional funds provide for lateral movement on the salary guide, substitute teachers and services for the Extended School Year Summer Program required by students' IEPs. The account, also, provides for $35,941 for the possibility of additional students requiring services.

The Township asserts that the mere possibility of additional students without any basis in fact or documentation is insufficient reason to increase funding. The enrollment figures, it asserts, do not reflect the need for any additional classes or the need for any additional staffing.

Upon review, the Commissioner determines, again, that the Board has met, in part, its burden. The Township, in making its reduction makes no provision for lateral movement on the salary scale, substitutes or summer salaries. At the same time, the Board presents mere speculation that additional staffing may be needed and has not established that these additions are necessary for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Consequently, the Commissioner orders that $35,941 of the reduction is sustained and $37,810 of the reduction is restored.

11-213-100-101	Resource Room - Teacher Salaries	$ 28,749
----------------	----------------------------------	-----------

The Board argues that these amounts are necessary in order to meet the contractual obligations for this account. It asserts that restoration is essential in order to maintain the 23-member staffing level. Furthermore, additional classifications and evaluations resulted in additional students and modified placements necessitating an increase in positions by 1.5 resource center staff members.

The Township further argues on appeal that it added 6% to a figure of $731,000 actually spent by the Board and asserts that the Board now claims a need for additional staffing despite representations to the contrary. It again asserts elevated year-end expenditures in this account that inflated the Board's figures.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board has not met its burden of showing that the restoration of these monies is essential to the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education, in that no evidence supporting the increase in staff positions was presented. Consequently, the $28,749 reduction is sustained.

11-000-219-104	Salaries - Other Professional Staff	$ 91,069
----------------	-------------------------------------	-----------

The Board asserts that the amounts requested in this line item are essential for providing child study team salaries. Once again, it asserts, the Township has understated the 1993-94 expenditures when arriving at its reductions. This line item is for 14.5 staff members representing no increase in positions from the 1993-94 school year and includes negotiated salary increases, lateral movement on the salary scale and payment for summer referrals and evaluations. The Board asserts that it also includes $58,158 to cover the possible employment of an additional school psychologist and/or social worker to assist at-risk students in pre-referral intervention and early intervention services and additional occupational and/or physical therapy services in order to accommodate individual students' IEPs.

The Township asserts that the Board has, again, attempted to factor in "possible" staffing increases that "may" be needed to support a request for an increase. It alleges that there is no proof that the increase is necessary for a thorough and efficient system of education.

Upon review, the Commissioner determines that the Board has met its burden of establishing the necessity for these amounts except for the possible staffing increases. While these services may be worthwhile, no evidence was presented to support the necessity to add them in order to provide for a thorough and efficient system of education. Consequently, $58,158 of the reduction is sustained and $32,911 of the reduction is restored.

----------------	-------------------------------------	-----------

The board asserts that the account provides funds for the positions of Director of Curriculum and the Director of Special Services, both of which were in place during the 1993-94 school year and have existed for many years. In addition, this line item provides funds for staff development projects including a five year plan in the areas of critical and higher order thinking skills. The reduction by the Township, it asserts, significantly impacts the district's ability to provide instructional improvement services through meaningful staff development as required by the monitoring guidelines and sound educational practices.

The Township counters that this reduction was agreed to by the Board in a meeting with representatives of the governing body.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that N.J.A.C. 6:24-7.3(d) provides the mechanism for submitting to him any agreement or narrowing of the issues to him for his consideration in budget appeals. As this was not done, the Commissioner is unable to determine that an agreement was reached as to this line item reduction. Nevertheless, the Commissioner determines that the Board has not established that the restoration sought is essential for the provision of a thorough and efficient system of education. Consequently, the $33,311 reduction is sustained.

Other Undistributed Expenditure Accounts

The Township's rationale for each of the remaining undistributed expenditure accounts is as follows:

Rationale: The procedure followed in arriving at a recommendation in this account is as follows: A determination was made of the estimated level of expenditure by the School District in the 1993-94 school year and once that was determined, a reasonable increase was added which would permit the School District to operate in a thorough and efficient manner in the 1994-95 school year.

----------------	-----------	-----------

The Board argues that the Township's reduction removes all funds to replace worn or lost textbooks district-wide. The current textbooks, it asserts, are outdated and new books need to be purchased in order to remain current. Planned purchases are for the adoption of a new math series in grades 1-5, which will align the curriculum with the NCTM standards and replace the current elementary math series which is more than ten years old. Planned purchases are also necessary for social studies, foreign language and algebra.

The Township asserts that this line-item reduction was originally agreed to by the Board of Education. In addition, the Township asserts that its analysis of the Board's expenditures for 1993-94 showed "after the fact spending" that was not needed for that school year. This, it asserts, is indicated by the fact that in May and June of 1994 amounts were spent for books which could not possibly have been used in the last two months of the year.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that providing for up-to-date math books is an essential component of a thorough and efficient system of education. Accordingly, the $18,532 reduction is restored.

11-000-270-600	Student Transportation Services	$ 26,174
	Supplies and Materials

The Board asserts that these funds are necessary in order for it to provide for repair and replacement parts for its fleet of 50 vehicles. Seventy-five percent of the maintenance costs, it alleges, are for repair and maintenance of its 33 diesel buses, 25 of which the Board asserts are out of the warranty period and require a high degree of maintenance. In addition, it is the Board's position that the Township utilized the wrong figures when calculating 1993-94 expenditures, understating that amount by $57,211. This erroneous calculation, it asserts, resulted in an actual decrease in the amount allocated for the 1994-95 school year of $3,868.

In its August 5, 1994, submission the Township asserts that the Board averaged approximately $11,700 per month for this line item, but the Board spent $44,447 in the last two months, thereby driving the expenditure graph unequally upward. The Township explains that it used the figure of $120,350 and added $12,476 to arrive at its reduction, which it asserts is more than sufficient to support this line item.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that although the Township states that it determined the average monthly expenditure to be $11,700 it appears to have based its calculations on only ten months' expenditures and made no provision for expenditures for repairs to be conducted over the summer months. In so doing the Township, while intending to arrive at a figure that was an increase from the 1993-94 school year actually arrived at a figure that was lower than the expenditures for both the 1992-93 and 1993-94 school years. Consequently, the Commissioner determines that the $26,174 reduction is restored.

----------------	------------------------------------	----------

The Board asserts that the full amount is required to meet present anticipated annual obligations. The Board has stated that, as of December 30, 1994, the balance in all telephone accounts was $163.05. It asserts that the figure originally budgeted was a reduction of $6,500 from 1993-94 and represented the most recent three-year average of actual telephone expense.

The Township argues that again the Board has unexplained year-end expenditures greatly elevating the accounts. It is the Township's position that the taxpayers should not be penalized for any excess expenditures that have not been clearly defined.

Upon review, the Commissioner determines that while the need for appropriate communications is essential, the Board has not established the need for the amounts asserted for the provision of a thorough and efficient education. Consequently, the $13,890 reduction is sustained.

11-000-260-420	Operation and Maintenance of Plant Cleaning, Repair & Maintenance	$ 57,477
----------------	--	-----------

The Board asserts that in 1993-94, as a result of the unexpected severity of the winter, non-contractual work in this account was frozen in order to generate savings to cover anticipated increased energy costs. For the 1994-95 school year, the Board asserts, it determined to use an independent contractor for maintenance and repair services. A contract was bid and awarded in the amount of $82,800. This contract permitted the Board to eliminate three full-time maintenance staff positions, resulting in savings of approximately $150,000 in salaries and benefits. The Board, further, asserts that the Township underestimated the actual 1993-94 expenditures by $26,730. As a consequence of this reduction, the physical plant will deteriorate and the district will not be able to maintain contracted services in accordance with the terms of its written agreement and its five-year management plan, and for district maintenance and repair in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6:22-7.1.

The Township argues that the $57,477 reduction was based upon actual expenditures of $343,000 with an approximate fourteen percent increase.

Upon review, the Commissioner determines that the amount is necessary for the board to meet its contractual obligations. Consequently, the $57,477 reduction is restored.

In summary, the Commissioner directs restoration or sustaining of the Township's $433,441 line-item reductions in dispute in this amended appeal, as set forth below. In addition, the commissioner has offset the amount of the restoration by $106,000, representing the amount already appropriated by the Board from its surplus over and above the $500,000 originally directed by the Township and accepted by the Board, as confirmed by the Board's letter dated March 9, 1995. Finally, upon review of the 1994-95 year-end audit the Commissioner determines that no further allocation from surplus is possible.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning citizens appealed determination of Board to place two one-year unexpired terms, arising from resignations announced on February 22, 1995, but not effective until April 14, 1995, and April 15, 1995, respectively, on the ballot at the annual school election to be held on April 18, 1995.

Commissioner held that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-15 controls in this matter. Therefore, the Board may not place these seats on the ballot, but must make appointments within 65 days of occurrence of the vacancies for terms to extend through the organization meeting following the 1996 annual school election, at which election the seats will appear on the ballot for regular three-year terms.

For Petitioners, Edward Basaman, Esq.

For Respondents, Richard K. Sacks, Esq.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on March 10, 1995 by way of a Petition for Declaratory Judgment with Motion for Emergent Relief, wherein petitioners sought to enjoin respondents ("the Board") from placing two unexpired terms on the ballot at the April 1995 annual school election, based on a contention that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-15 requires these terms to be filled by appointment of the Board rather than by election, and due to a claim that insufficient time was provided for the proper conduct of pre-election procedures.

Responses were filed by the Board, as well as by four of the six candidates for the terms at issue, all of whom were served with the petition and accorded an opportunity to respond. A response was also filed by the Deputy Attorney General on behalf of the Ocean County Superintendent of Schools, who was named as a respondent in the petition and motion.*

*Candidates' responses were filed pro se; Geraldine Callahan, DAG (Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General) filed on behalf of the County Superintendent.

Initially, the Commissioner finds that the County Superintendent is not a proper party to the action herein, as she had no role in the action complained of, nor would she have any role in the appointment process sought, should petitioners prevail, unless the Board fails to make such appointments within 65 days of the vacancies at issue. Therefore, the Commissioner severs the County Superintendent from the appeal.

Turning to the merits of this matter, the central operative facts are not in dispute and are as follows: On or about February 22, 1995, at approximately 10:30 p.m., the Board at a public meeting received and accepted the intended resignations of two board members, effective April 14, 1995 and April 15, 1995, respectively. At the Board meeting, upon questioning as to how these vacancies would be filled, no response was forthcoming from the Board. The following day, February 23, 1995, information was provided by the Board to the press and in response to direct citizen inquiry to the effect that the two vacancies would be filled by special election for two unexpired one-year terms, such election to be held at the same time as the annual school election. On that same date, at 4:00 p.m., the statutory deadline passed for filing of nominating petitions for seats on the Board of Education to be on the ballot on April 18, 1995.

Petitioners contend that, as a matter of law, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-15 controls in this matter, and that the statute clearly provides for vacancies arising within the time frames operative herein to be filled by Board appointment. They further contend that the circumstances surrounding this matter have given rise to a situation where 1) the general public did not have adequate opportunity to consider running for, or to obtain completed nominating petitions for, the unexpired terms; and 2) the only persons aware of the open seats were those who were either closely connected with the newspapers notified by the Board or directly informed by Board "insiders" or persons who happened to be in attendance at the Board meeting of February 22.

The Board disputes petitioners' factual contentions as to the effect of its actions, claiming that the public has a full panoply of six candidates from which to choose for the two unexpired terms, and that for the Commissioner to prevent exercise of such choice thwarts both the will of the people and the intent of law giving voters the right to elect boards of education. The Board further argues that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-15 is not applicable to this matter, and that it does not, in any event, prohibit the election at issue.

Of the four responding candidates, two essentially agree with petitioners' position, both as a matter of law and in terms of the purported effect of the Board's actions. Two others, however, urge acceptance of the Board's position, contending that the democratic process would be best served by election rather than appointment, and that petitioners' objections to the Board's actions are rooted in a dislike of certain individual candidates rather than an interest in proper application of the law. They further request, should the Commissioner rule that the seats at issue will not be on the ballot, that they be permitted to run as candidates for the three-year seats, as was their original intent before learning of the one-year openings and altering their actions accordingly. (One candidate amended his three-year petition to seek an unexpired term prior to the deadline for filing nominating petitions; the other chose not to turn in a duly completed three-year petition, instead substituting a newly obtained and completed one-year petition.)

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that this matter is clearly controlled by operation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-15, which governs the filling of all types of vacancies on boards of education.

That statute provides:

18A:12-15. Vacancies. Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled as follows:

a. By the county superintendent, if the vacancy is caused by the absence of candidates for election to the school board or by the removal of a member because of lack of qualifications, or is not filled within 65 days following its occurrence;

b. By the county superintendent, to a number sufficient to make up a quorum of the board if, by reason of vacancies, a quorum is lacking;

c. By special election, if in the annual school election two or more candidates qualified by law for membership on the school board receive an equal number of votes. Such special election shall be held only upon recount and certification by the Commissioner of such election result, shall be restricted to such candidates, shall be held within 60 days of the annual school election, and shall be conducted in accordance with procedures for annual and special school elections set forth in chapter 14 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes. The vacancy shall be filled by the county superintendent if in such special election two or more candidates qualified by law for membership on the school board receive an equal number of votes;

d. By special election if there is a failure to elect a member at the annual school election due to improper election procedures. Such special election shall be restricted to those persons who were candidates at such annual school election, shall be held within 60 days of such annual school election, and shall be conducted in accordance with procedures for annual and special school elections set forth in chapter 14 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes;

e. By the Commissioner if there is a failure to elect a member at the annual school election due to improper campaign practices; or

f. By the board in all other cases.

Each member so appointed shall serve until the organizational meeting following the next annual election unless he is appointed to fill a vacancy occurring within 60 days immediately preceding such election to fill a term extending beyond such election, in which case he shall serve until the organizational meeting following the second annual election next succeeding the occurrence of the vacancy, and any vacancy for the remainder of the term shall be filled at the annual election or the second annual election next succeeding the occurrence of the vacancy as the case may be.

In the fact pattern operative herein, one vacancy will occur on April 14, 1995 and the other on April 15, 1995, by the express terms of the letters of resignation submitted to the Board on February 22, 1995, by Board members who have been, and will remain, seated up to that time; both vacancies are undisputedly for terms due to be on the ballot as regular three-year terms at the 1996 annual school election. The vacancies arising from these resignations do not fall within the parameters of (a) through (e) above; therefore, they are governed by (f), which provides for appointment by the board of education in all other cases. As appointments, they further fall under the provisions above setting forth the precise length of terms for vacancies occurring within 60 days of the annual school election. Thus, there can be no conclusion but that the vacancies at issue are to be filled, as a matter of law, by appointment of the Board of Education within 65 days of their occurrence, for terms to extend through the organizational meeting following the 1996 annual school election, at which election these seats will appear on the ballot as regular three-year terms. While the Board might believe that this result is less responsive to the electorate than the route it proposed to take, the fact remains that the Board is not at liberty to disregard an established statutory scheme, or to subvert the intent of the law by attempting to cast its actions in a way that would place them outside the law's purview. The Commissioner cannot permit such a result, nor would he find it advisable in any event, as the law as it stands inherently seeks to avoid problems of precisely the type underlying the present matter.

As to the request from certain of the affected candidates that they be permitted, in the event the unexpired terms were removed from the ballot, to run for three-year seats in view of the circumstances herein and in view of their detrimental reliance on respondents' instructions and position in this matter, the Commissioner holds that, in the absence of express legislative authority, he cannot alter statutory rules for the conduct of school elections, including rules governing deadlines for filing of nominating petitions. Therefore, a request to permit, for reasons of equity, addition of candidates for three-year seats at this late date is beyond the scope of relief within the Commissioner's ability to grant.

Accordingly, the Commissioner declares that the two unexpired terms at issue in this matter may not be placed on the ballot by the Manchester Township Board of Education for the election to be held on April 18, 1995, and that appointments to the vacancies in question are to be made by the Board within 65 days of their occurrence on April 14, 1995 and April 15, 1995, respectively, consistent with the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-15.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DISQUALI- :
FICATION FROM SCHOOL EMPLOY- : STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
MENT OF MICHAEL J. LAZORKO. : DECISION

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, August 18, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Michael J. Lazorko, pro se

On August 18, 1995, the Deputy Commissioner issued a decision in this case holding that appellant Michael J. Lazorko was disqualified from school employment pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.1 et seq. and that he had not demonstrated sufficient rehabilitation to alter that result.¹

By notice filed on August 30, 1995, appellant appealed the Deputy Commissioner's decision to the State Board of Education.

Counsel for the State Board of Education acknowledged receipt of Appellant's notice on September 19, 1995, advising him that his arguments in support of his appeal were due on or before October 11, 1995. He was at that time also provided with a copy of the regulations governing appeals to the State Board, and was instructed to contact the State Board's Administrator of Appeals if he had any questions.

By letter of October 12, 1995, Counsel for the State Board notified appellant that no brief had been filed to support his appeal and that the matter was being referred to the State Board's Legal Committee.

By letter of November 2, 1995, appellant was again advised that the matter was being referred to the Legal Committee and that this might result in dismissal of his appeal. Again, appellant was directed to call the State Board's Administrator of Appeals if he had any questions.

As described above, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.11(a), appellant's brief in support of his appeal was due on October 11, 1995. Appellant did not file a brief by that date and despite the numerous opportunities provided him to rectify this failure, has not filed an appeal brief. Nor has he at any time requested an extension or provided any explanation for his failure to file a brief.

The State Board of Education therefore dismisses the appeal in this matter for failure to perfect the appeal. N.J.A.C. 6:2-1.12(a).

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
 HEARING OF CARL A. HESS, III, :
 SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
 OF PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS, MORRIS : DECISION
 COUNTY. :
 _____ :

SYNOPSIS

Board certified tenure charges of unbecoming conduct against guidance counselor for alleged inappropriate comments to, and communications with, female students.

Having examined the testimony and evidence in this matter, the ALJ found there was no question that respondent engaged in the alleged unbecoming conduct and that even though he argues he now realizes that his conduct was wrong and inappropriate and that it would not happen again, the issue was whether his actions and conduct justify the penalty of dismissal. ALJ found that his conduct was so violative of his responsibilities as a teacher that his removal from his position was the appropriate action to be taken. ALJ ordered respondent removed from his position as a teaching staff member.

In light of the record, including transcripts of four days of hearings, the Commissioner concurred with the decision of the ALJ. Commissioner ordered respondent terminated from his position and directed the matter be transmitted to State Board of Examiners for appropriate action.

Record Closed: June 2, 1993

Decided: February 14, 1995

BEFORE JOSEPH F. MARTONE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter involves charges of unbecoming conduct filed against a tenured guidance counselor based on inappropriate comments to and communications with female students. The charges were certified by the Board of Education of the school district on March 31, 1992, and the matter was transmitted by the Commissioner of the Department of Education to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 13, 1992, for hearing as a contested case. The matter was assigned to administrative law judge (ALJ) Joseph F. Martone on June 1, 1992, and a telephone prehearing conference was scheduled for July 21, 1992. A telephone prehearing conference was held on that date and a prehearing order, settling the procedures to be followed in this matter, was entered on July 24, 1992. Hearing dates were scheduled for December 7, 8 and 9, 1992.

Hearings were held on December 7 and 8, 1992. However, the hearing scheduled for December 9, 1992, was adjourned to an undetermined future date in order to afford to petitioner the opportunity to call additional witnesses concerning prior alleged incidents which were not the subject of the instant charges for the purpose of challenging respondent's credibility, and to afford to respondent an opportunity for discovery concerning this proposed testimony.

The hearing of this matter was eventually rescheduled for April 2, 8, and 14, 1993. The testimony was concluded on April 8, 1993. At the conclusion of the hearing, the record remained open at the request of the parties in order to afford them the opportunity to submit written closing arguments. Post-hearing briefs were submitted on May 10, 1993, and reply briefs were submitted on May 24, 1993. Supplemental letters addressing a recent decision of the Commissioner of the Department of Education in a similar matter were submitted by petitioner on May 26, 1993, and by respondent on June 2, 1993.

Because the ALJ had been transferred from the Newark office to the Trenton Office of the OAL the file for this matter was mistakenly misplaced and, through inadvertence, no action was taken by the ALJ to close the record and to issue an initial decision. An extension of time to file the initial decision until February 21, 1995 was approved by the Commissioner of the Department of Education and the Director of the OAL on February 14, 1995.

TENURE CHARGES

In order to properly determine whether respondent is guilty of the tenure charges in this matter, it is necessary to review the specific charges filed against him. The Tenure Charge is set forth in a written statement of Ruth Krawitz, petitioner's Superintendent of Schools, dated March 9, 1992 (Exhibit P-2), and it charges respondent, a tenured teaching staff member employed at the district's Parsippany-Hills High School, with conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member in as much as he wrote a letter expressing inappropriate personal feelings and emotions to a student, and he made other inappropriate comments to another student after having being reprimanded the previous year for engaging in inappropriate physical contact with a student. Attached to the Tenure Charge is a Statement of Facts in affidavit form signed by Ruth Krawitz in which she deposes and says that she is the superintendent of schools and respondent is a tenured teaching staff member who is guidance counselor at the Parsipanny Hills High School. She further asserts that on March 22, 1991, respondent inappropriately kissed a student and that this incident, which triggered a Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) investigation resulted in a letter of reprimand being placed in respondent's permanent record. She indicates that in signing the letter of reprimand, respondent acknowledged that he understood that "[w]ithin the counseling environment, only the highest standards of behavior will be accepted," and that "[f]ailure to adhere to these standards could result in serious disciplinary consequences." Superintendent Krawitz further asserts that on Thursday, February 27, 1992, the distraught mother of a sophomore student gave to the school principal a letter that respondent had written and given to her daughter who, in turn, had passed it onto her mother. She characterizes the letter as a "love letter" which expresses completely inappropriate feelings and emotions. Superintendent Krawitz goes on to assert that during the investigation of this matter, another sophomore student related that on a particular day when she was wearing what she described as a fairly tight skirt, respondent told her that she looked really good in the skirt and that she should come back to see him the next time she wore it. The same student also reported an "inappropriate comment" made by respondent with reference to her receipt of a Valentine's day "carnation-gram" from him. The student reported that when she told respondent that her older sisters, who had also been students at the school, had joked with her about the fact that they had never received similar Valentine's day greetings from respondent, he responded by saying that she should tell her sisters that this was because "the youngest girl in the family has the best buns." Superintendent Krawitz expressed the belief that the above described behavior constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member.

It is not disputed that respondent received notice of the charges (Exhibit P-3) and that on March 31, 1992, the Board of Education of Parsipanny-Troy Hill Township certified the charges pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11 (Exhibit P-4).

ISSUES TO BE RESOLVED

The prehearing order entered in this matter on July 24, 1992 sets forth the following issues which are to be resolved as a result of this hearing. These issues are:

1. Whether respondent engaged in the alleged conduct giving rise to these charges?
2. Whether the alleged conduct set forth in the tenure charges constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member?
3. If respondents found guilty of the tenure charges, whether just cause exists for his removal or for the imposition of some other penalty?

It should be noted that paragraph 14a of the prehearing order provides that the attorneys for the parties agreed that the identity of any witnesses in this matter who are students who have not yet attained the age of majority shall be protected from disclosure. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the transcripts, exhibits and the statement of facts supporting the tenure charges against respondent shall be redacted and amended by deleting therefrom the names of those students under age 18, and that at the hearing any student witnesses who have not yet attained the age of majority shall be referred to by initials only and shall not otherwise be publicly identified.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The testimony of the various witnesses in this matter may be summarized as follows:

Eugene Vasile, the Director of Personnel and Employee Relations with the school district testified that he has varied responsibilities dealing with personnel as well as employee staff discipline. He indicated that he represents the superintendent in various aspects of discipline. He testified that in February 1992 he received a call from Tony Sciaino, Principal of Parsipanny Hills High School, concerning certain allegations being made against respondent. Mr. Sciaino advised Mr. Vasile that the parent of one of the students reported that her daughter had received a letter written to her by respondent. After reviewing the letter he and Mr. Sciaino met with the school superintendent and subsequently arranged for a meeting with respondent and others on the morning of February 28, 1992. Present at that meeting was Mr. Vasile, Mr. Sciaino, the Superintendent, Ms. Maggio who is Director of Guidance, respondent, Mr. Capsauris who was President of the Teachers' Association, and Mr. Neumiller who was the grievance chairperson for the Association. Mr. Vasile testified that at that meeting he reminded respondent that at about one year before there was an incident in which a letter of reprimand had been placed in his file. Mr. Vasile then asked respondent if he recognized the letter (Exhibit P-1) given to him by the mother of the student to whom it had been given by respondent. Respondent admitted that he recognized the letter and that he had written it. Respondent also indicated that the letter had been delivered to a student in the district whose name is C.O.

Mr. Vasile testified that the matter was investigated further and that on Tuesday of the next week, Mr. Sciaino came by his office with Mrs. O., the mother of C.O. Mrs. O. alerted Mr. Vasile and Mr. Sciaino to another situation involving C.F., a friend of C.O. C.F. had told C.O. and her mother that respondent made a remark which was considered to be inappropriate, having to do with C.F.'s having the best "buns" of her and her sisters in that family. However, Mrs. O. was concerned that C.F.'s parents be informed before C.F. was questioned about this matter. As a result of further investigation, Mr. Vasile indicate that it was decided to file tenure charges against respondent, and this was accomplished in March 1992 (Exhibits P-2, P-3 and P-4).

Mr. Vasile testified that the incident in 1991 that resulted in the disciplinary action against respondent had to do with an allegation that respondent inappropriately kissed a student at the conclusion of a counseling session. The student reported this incidence to a teacher who then brought this to the attention of Principal Sciaino. DYFS was also notified concerning this incident, but their records are confidential and unavailable in this proceeding. The substance of the allegation was that respondent met with a female student in his office. During the meeting a conversation was begun concerning lip gloss being worn by the student and about it being kissable and what it tasted like. At the conclusion of the session, respondent kissed the student on the lips. After he was questioned, respondent admitted the incident and wrote a letter of apology to the school principal (Exhibit P-8). The Board of Education directed that a letter of reprimand be placed in respondent's file. The letter of reprimand dated June 17, 1991 (attachment to P-2), contained the Board's concern and indicated that a violation of this type of behavior would be dealt with very seriously if it were to concur again. Mr. Vasile indicated that respondent did not deny that the conduct that was reported by the student in the prior matter had actually taken place.

Mr. Vasile also identified a Performance Evaluation Report dated May 30, 1991 (Exhibit P-5) in which, under the heading Performance Area Needing Improvement/Development it is stated, "Mr. Hess must understand and respect the appropriate boundaries that are inherent in a counselor/counselee relationship. In interacting with students, the crossing of such boundaries is always unacceptable."

On cross-examination, Mr. Vasile admitted that the Performance Evaluation report of May 30, 1991, recommended that respondent receive his annual increment for the following year.

The next witness to testify was Anthony J. Sciaino, Principal of Parsipanny Hill High School. Mr. Sciaino testified that he received a phone call from the mother of C.O. indicating that she was very upset about a letter that she had been given by her daughter and which her daughter told her she had received from respondent. He asked the mother to bring in the letter which she did. He then spoke to Mr. Vasile, and met with the superintendent concerning this letter (Exhibit P-1). Mr. Sciaino testified that his reaction to the letter was that it was an inappropriate type of letter for a staff member to write to a student. As a result he felt that it was necessary to investigate the matter further. Mr. Sciaino testified to a meeting held the next day with various individuals including respondent and his representatives. Mr. Vasile showed the letter (Exhibit P-1) to respondent and respondent indicated that he had written the letter and that he had given the letter to a student, C.O.

Mr. Sciaino testified that C.O.'s mother called him again a few days later indicating that she had information concerning C.F., a friend of C.O., who indicated that an incident had occurred to her involving respondent and that she was uncomfortable with it.

Mr. Sciaino testified that he then contacted the mother of C.F. and he requested and was given permission to speak with C.F. concerning this. He then met with C.O. and her mother and with C.F. C.F. advised Mr. Sciaino that when she was in a conference with respondent he had talked to her about the fact that she had the best "buns" of all the other girls in her family. Mr. Sciaino then reported the results of this meeting to Mr. Vasile.

Mr. Sciaino then testified as to his involvement in the prior 1991 kissing incident involving J.C. He indicated that J.C. had gone to respondent for some college information and that during the course of that counseling session, she was applying lip gloss or chap stick to her lips. Respondent stated that he wondered what it tasted like and at the end of the conference he leaned over and kissed J.C. on the lips. When respondent was confronted at a meeting concerning this allegation, he admitted that he had, indeed, kissed J.C. After this meeting, respondent returned and gave a letter of apology to Mr. Sciaino (Exhibit P-8). Mr. Sciaino identified a policy of the Board of Education concerning inappropriate interaction between faculty members and pupils (Exhibit P-9).

Mr. Sciaino testified that as a result of respondent's conduct with respect to J.C., disciplinary action was taken in the form of a letter of reprimand being placed in his file. In addition, respondent's performance evaluation for the school year 1990-91 (Exhibit P-5) was issued containing the comment concerning the unacceptability of crossing boundaries in interacting with students.

On cross-examination, Mr. Sciaino testified that when he met with C.F. and she reported respondent's statement that she had the best "buns" in her family, she indicated that she was uncomfortable with his remarks. He also indicated that C.O. told him that respondent paid her a lot of attention when she worked in the school store, and that respondent dropped by frequently. C.O. also told him that when she received the letter from respondent that she brought it home and showed it to her mother. She also indicated that there had been an exchange of Valentine greetings between her and respondent which students and teachers as well as students and students exchange with each other.

It should be noted that at this posture of the case, petitioner sought to produce testimony and other evidence of two alleged prior incidents of inappropriate conduct on the part of respondent which the ALJ ruled was irrelevant and would not be accepted in this matter if it had not been the basis of formal charges resulting in an adjudication of guilt, or it was not admitted by respondent. However, the ALJ further ruled that since credibility is always an issue, that if respondent is questioned concerning these prior incidents and he denies their occurrence, petitioner will be given the opportunity to present evidence of such incidents for the limited purpose of challenging respondent's credibility.

In his defense, respondent produced the depositions of C.F. (Exhibit R-1) and of C.O. (Exhibit R-2). The deposition of C.F. (Exhibit R-1), in summary, indicates that she knows respondent, that he was her older sisters' guidance counselor starting in 1980 and that he has been a friend of the family. She indicated that respondent was not her guidance counselor but that she got along well with him because she knew who he was and that she could go to him if she needed to talk to someone other than her regular guidance counselor. C.F. testified that around February 1992, respondent made comments to her in the hallway about how she was dressed. She explained that respondent had sent her a carnation-gram for Valentine's day and that when her sisters found out they asked her to ask respondent why they never got one. C.F. indicated that when she asked the respondent this question he just said, "you can tell them that the youngest has the best buns in the family".

C.F. testified in the deposition that when she received the carnation-gram she did not think anything of it and it did not bother her in any way. She also indicated that she did not think that respondent meant anything by his statement to her about having the best "buns" and that he did not mean it in any suggestive way.

C.F. also testified in the deposition that an incident occurred when respondent commented about how she was dressed. She indicated that on March 4, 1992, because she was an officer in the Future Business Leaders of American and was to attend a meeting of that organization, she was dressed in a skirt. She described her outfit as a tight green skirt and a green long-sleeved shirt to match and she indicated that it was dressy for school. Respondent noticed how she was dressed and he stated to her that the next time she wore that outfit he expected a personal visit in his office. She indicated that she did not feel upset by this comment, that she felt that it was funny and that she did not think that he meant it "pervertedly".

C.F. testified in the deposition that these incidents came up because on a particular day she had gone to C.O.'s house and C.O. showed her a poem that respondent had written to her and that C.O.'s mother was upset about it. C.O.'s mother asked if respondent ever said anything to her, and it was at this point that C.F. told her about these incidents.

The deposition of C.O. (Exhibit R-2), in summary, indicates that she was age 16 when her deposition was taken in October 1992. She explained that her contact with respondent was in connection with an essay contest. Her guidance counselor advised her to get information concerning the contest from respondent. She indicated that subsequently she and respondent would say hello and were friendly. She also indicated that he was aware that she liked poetry. She identified a greeting card (attached to deposition as Exhibit R-1) and related the circumstances leading to the purchase of the card by her and her giving it to respondent. She indicated that she worked in the school store and that she always picked out cards to send to her friends from camp. On a particular occasion when she was looking at cards, respondent walked into the store and said to her "you're picking out a great card for me". As a result she had sent him the card just to be friendly. C.O. indicated that she sent the card to respondent prior to Valentine's Day.

C.O. testified in her deposition that around Valentine's Day respondent told her that he was sending her a carnation-gram and so she sent him one back because she did not want to be rude and feel awkward. She indicated that she believes that she wrote something like a poem in the carnation-gram. Following this, respondent saw C.O. and stated that he liked her poem and that he writes poetry too and he would write her a poem too. C.O. then received the letter (Exhibit P-1) from respondent. C.O. indicated that while she was working at the school store respondent came in and said that he has something for her and that she should come to his office. When she went to his office he handed her a letter. She read it sometime after respondent had given it to her. C.O. testified that she saw the respondent the next day and she said thank you to him. She indicated that she was very uncomfortable and that when she saw him the rest of the day she would go the other way. She stated that she was uncomfortable because, from knowing poetry, she understands that poetry is supposed to send a message and that it is telling a story or that it tells you something, and that she was confused as to what he was trying to tell her in the poem. She further indicated that it was something that she could see her boyfriend writing to her.

C.O. testified that because she was very uncomfortable with what the respondent had written in the letter she showed it to her mother.

Respondent Carl A. Hess, III, testified in this matter. He was first employed in June 1965 and has been continuously employed by petitioner since then. At first he was a substitute teacher and then he was an elementary physical education teacher. He subsequently became a guidance counselor at Parsipanny Hills High School in September 1981. In September 1987 he was appointed to be the Director of the Guidance Department at Parsipanny High School, and he held this position for a year. Eventually he requested a transfer back to Parsipanny Hills High School for the school-year 1989-90.

Respondent testified that he has a bachelor of science degree in education with a concentration in English and history and a minor in physical education, and a master's degree in counseling from Montclair State College. He has certificates in school administration and director of student personnel services. He has certifications issued by the New Jersey State Board of Examiners as a teacher of English, social studies and physical education, director of guidance and secondary school administrator and a guidance counselor.

Respondent testified that he had occasion to meet with a student, J.C. In J.C.'s junior year she was in the process of starting a search for colleges. Respondent indicated that he recalled the incident on a certain occasion when he kissed her. He indicated that J.C. was scheduled to come in for a computer printout. Respondent testified that he was really happy with J.C.'s success and that he just jumped up and gave her a kiss aimed at her cheek as a "happiness thing". Obviously, the kiss landed on her lips, but he did not intend it to land on her lips. He described the kiss as an exclamation of happiness and joy for J.C. because of things coming together for her. He indicated that there did not seem to be any shock or dismay on the part of J.C. and that she thanked him for the computer information.

The following Monday, J.C.'s mother called him and asked what had happened. He testified that he recounted his explanation of the incident to her and that he apologized to her if it had made J.C. feel uncomfortable because that was not his intention. He apologized again to her because it is not the type of behavior that should occur. He got the impression that J.C.'s mother was satisfied with the explanation and the matter was concluded. However, Mr. Sciaino called respondent down to his office that same day and respondent was questioned as to this incident. Respondent recalls describing the incident as he previously indicated. He also identified a note he wrote to Mr. Sciaino (Exhibit P-8) because the mention of a DYFS investigation and the penalties involved shook him up.

Respondent testified that at this meeting, he was reminded of the proper behavior of a school employee. As a result of this incident, respondent considered getting some counseling as to why he had done this. Respondent also acknowledged receiving the letter of reprimand (attached to Exhibit P-2), dated June 7, 1991.

Respondent indicated that as a result of that incident he had one or two sessions with his priest, who is a licensed counselor, and who indicated to him that he felt respondent realized that he had made a mistake. Respondent described himself as having a style which is very friendly and open and very effusive with his students. He indicated that when a student does well and succeeds he becomes really happy for them and pumps his fists or shakes their hand, or does other things. As a result of this incident, he avoided physical contact with students and avoided going to the prom that year. He also indicated that he really backed off and tried to pull himself back from any open displays of affection to the students.

Respondent testified that he knows a student, C.O. and that she was an applicant for a Leadership Foundation award. Respondent identified a card that C.O. had sent to him (attached to Exhibit R-2). He indicated that he received this prior to writing a letter to C.O. (Exhibit P-1) and that he received the card just prior to Christmas. He testified that he just thanked C.O. for the card as a nice gesture. Respondent testified that he wrote the letter to C.O. (Exhibit P-1) while he was home recuperating from foot surgery. He indicated that because of the surgery he was taking Tylenol with codeine every four hours (Exhibit R-3).

Respondent explained the circumstances giving rise to his writing of the letter. He indicated that the school has a carnation-gram for Valentine's Day where students and faculty will give a flower to each other as a gesture of friendship. He indicated that there were no restrictions on a staff member participating in this activity. C.O. had sent him a carnation-gram with a nice poem. He recalled that a couple of the lines of the poem were that "if smiles were stars in the sky, I would have a handful of stars in my hand at all times". He also recalled that there were two or three other lines. He stated that it was a nice poem that made him feel nice and appreciated.

Respondent testified that he ran into C.O. in the school store and thanked her for the carnation-gram. He also said to her that he did not realize that she wrote poetry and that he also writes poetry but no one knows. He then told her that over the vacation he would write something to her. As a result he wrote the letter. He gave the letter to C.O. several days later in the school store. He indicated that between the time he wrote the letter and he gave it to C.O. he did not review it again.

Respondent testified that after he gave her the letter, he saw her just once again in the school store and she thanked him.

On February 28, 1992, Mr. Sciaino called him at home and requested that he attend a meeting the following morning in the superintendent's office. At that meeting he was asked whether he had given C.O. the letter and he responded that it was his.

Respondent also testified that he knows C.F. and that he has a long family history with C.F.'s family and that all of the six children in the family had been his counselees. Respondent testified that on one occasion he saw C.F. in the hallway and she asked him why she got a carnation-gram and none of her sisters ever received one. He stated that he stopped to think for a second and that he knew it was going to "bust the chops" at the kids at home because he had a good relationship with the family, and they could kid around a lot. As a result he said to C.F. that the reason he gave her a carnation-gram was "because I think you have the best brains in the family". He indicated that he did not honestly remember saying "buns". He also indicated that C.F. did not register any discomfort at his response because she knew that he was kidding her.

Respondent then described an incident involving C.O. which occurred just after Christmas vacation. He indicated that he was walking down the hall by the main office when C.O. ran up to him and said that she had not seen him since before vacation and she gave him a hug in front of the school office door. He indicated that he "damn near died" when this happened and that it really shook him up.

Respondent testified that as a result of these charges being brought against him he has been in counseling every since on a weekly basis with Family Services of Morristown. He meets regularly with a therapist and a psychiatrist and as a result it has made him rethink why he interacts so personally with his students and how to handle different situations. He also stated that his attendance at these counseling sessions has been a beneficial to him and that he intends to continue them.

On cross-examination, respondent indicated that he had surgery on his foot performed on an out-patient basis and received a prescription of Tylenol with codeine, which he was taking every four hours. He indicated that it was on the day of surgery that he wrote the letter to C.O. (Exhibit P-1). He indicated that he had taken two, possibly three, Tylenol with codeine tablets containing 30 mg. of codeine. He indicated that at the time he wrote the letter he was tired but was not dizzy or nauseated. Respondent also admitted that at the time he delivered the letter to C.O. several days later he had not taken any of the Tylenol with codeine tablets. He also indicated that he did not go back over and reflect upon the letter from the time he wrote it until the time he delivered it to C.O. He indicted that prior to giving the letter to C.O. he did not consider that it was inappropriate conduct in any way.

On cross-examination respondent indicated that at the time he wrote the letter the only thing going through in his mind was that he had said earlier to C.O. that he would write something for her over vacation demonstrating his way of writing. He also indicated that he did not consider it to be inappropriate behavior to send C.O. a carnation-gram because it has been appropriate behavior for teachers and students to do this in the past. He also said that he did not sit down with C.O. and say anything to her to the affect that her hugging him in public was inappropriate. He felt that there was no need to do that because there would not be any problem or any future contact.

Respondent testified that he went to counseling with his priest after the letter of reprimand involving J.S. and it was then that he realized that his way of expressing joy for his students in the form of a hug would be inappropriate, and that he would have to act differently. Respondent testified that he did change his conduct because when honors and awards were received by students there were no longer any hugs but a large hand shake. There were also no kisses in any way.

Respondent was questioned regarding his kissing of J.C. He indicated that he does not recall asking her whether her lip gloss tasted good or telling her that it tasted good after the kiss. Respondent also testified that in his comment to C.F. as to why she was the only one in her family to get a carnation-gram, that C.F. misunderstood him and that he did not use the "buns", but used the word "brains".

Respondent indicated that immediately after hearing about his suspension in this matter, he concluded that his letter to C.O. was inappropriate. He indicated that C.O. was probably age 15 at the time. In response to the question whether the letter was written to C.O. with the intention to have sexual relations with her, he replied absolutely not. He indicated that his only purpose was to say thank you because C.O. gave him a card, and to show her how he could write.

The next witness called for respondent was Dr. Jen Chrobok, a psychiatric consultant employed by Family Services of Morris County. Dr. Chrobok testified to his educational background and training in the practice of psychiatry and indicated that he has been certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology as a diplomate, indicating that he is a specialist in the field of psychiatry. He was accepted as an expert witness in the field of psychiatry.

Dr. Chrobok testified that he evaluated respondent to determine whether a psychiatric disorder was present and to help in the treatment process. Ms. Donna Byrne is the therapist assigned to work with respondent.

Dr. Chrobok testified as to respondent's discussion with him concerning respondent's realization that his behavior was not only inappropriate, but that he used poor judgment and crossed boundaries as a teacher and guidance counselor that he should not have. He described feelings of guilt and shame. However, while he did not find that there was a psychotic disorder or some serious psychiatric disorder, he did find that respondent was emotionally detached.

Dr. Chrobok testified that he diagnosed respondent as having an adjustment disorder with mixed emotional features. The mixed emotional features were depression and anxiety. With regard to treatment or prognosis, Dr. Chrobok felt that respondent demonstrated a greater insight into his behavior, an awareness that what he had done was inappropriate, and that he used poor judgment and crossed boundaries which he should not have. He felt that respondent should continue to examine his behavior and to learn from it the limitations of interaction with young students.

Dr. Chrobok testified that on his second visit with respondent, respondent was definitely learning and becoming aware that what he had done was terribly wrong, and that he had caused pain and suffering not only to his family but to other people as well. Based on his examination of respondent and his findings, he expressed the opinion that the possibility of respondent acting again as he did previously is unlikely.

On cross-examination Dr. Chrobok, in examining the letter the respondent wrote to C.O., stated that he thinks its contents show the writer's feelings about this person. He indicated that respondent experienced thoughts, fantasies and feelings, and the unfortunate thing is that he stepped out and did something about them such as writing a letter and giving it to a person. Dr. Chrobok further indicated that if there was a long history of misconduct of this type, that respondent probably should not be a teacher. On further questioning about respondent's letter to C.O., Dr. Chrobok indicated that respondent was expressing the intensity of his feelings and that he wanted C.O. to respond, but that he could not make the deduction that respondent was actually interested in being sexually involved with C.O. In his cross-examination, Dr. Chrobok indicated that respondent told him that he had made inappropriate comments concerning C.F.

Donna Byrne also testified for respondent. She is a social worker employed as a senior clinician by Family Services of Morris County. She has a master's degree in social work and has post-masters training in which she specialized in individual therapy. Ms. Byrne was accepted as an expert based on her specialized training and experience in the field of social work and therapy of individuals.

Ms. Byrne testified that when respondent first came to her there was much of confusion and bewilderment on his part as to what had happened and why respondent had done the complained of acts. She indicated that she has met with respondent pretty consistently every week since May 1992. She testified that there confusion on respondent's part because it was hard for him to understand the severity of what he had done because his behavior was fairly commonplace.

In questioning Ms. Byrne concerning the letter written to C.O., she recalled that respondent stated that he did not really understand what he wrote, and that C.O. had asked him for the sample his writing. He indicated that C.O. had handed him several notes herself and that they had talked quite a bit about traveling out west. He indicated that the letter was a sample of his writing. Ms. Byrne remembers being struck by how much respondent did not understand about what was written, but otherwise he was candid with her. He did not feel that it his conduct was a romantic or sexual coming on to this young woman and he denied having such feelings for her. Ms Byrne stated that, eventually, respondent gained insight into the problem and became increasingly depressed, sad and shameful, and aware of the inappropriateness of his conduct and how this type of behavior could be misunderstood.

On cross-examination Ms. Byrne indicated that she was not aware that C.O. was not a counselee of the respondent and that he had no professional relationship with her. She further admitted that when she first saw the letter there was no question in her mind of the inappropriateness of this language being given by a guidance counselor to a 15-year-old student. She indicated that the respondent failed to see this because he was on medication and his judgment was very clouded. He also expressed his desire to provide the student with something that he had written. She indicated that the medication may have had some role in the inappropriateness of respondent's action.

When Ms. Byrne was questioned as to why it should now be believed that respondent will not engage in this inappropriate conduct, she indicated that after the therapy he has insight into some of the possible reasons for his behavior. She also indicated that the second infraction was not similar to the first in that it did not involve a physical touching.

Pursuant to the ALJ's prior ruling, petitioner was permitted to recall respondent for additional cross-examination with respect to prior alleged incidents of inappropriate behavior for the purpose of testing and challenging respondent's credibility. Respondent was questioned concerning his familiarity with a former student named Dana Perkins who, at the time of the hearing, was age 22 (Exhibit P-11). He indicated that in the 1985-86 school year Ms. Perkins was an independent study student working in the nurse's office for Ms. August. Respondent admitted to visiting Ms. Perkins in the nurse's office, but indicated this occurred very seldom. Respondent indicated that he asked Ms. August if it might be possible to have Dana Perkins change her work assignment to the guidance office because Ms. Perkins would have liked to have done so. He also acknowledged that he may have issued a pass to Ms. Perkins at one time or another. He admitted that Ms. Perkins was not one of his advisees.

Respondent denied ever asking either Ms. Perkins or any female student to go out to lunch with him. He indicated that he did not recall speaking to Mr. Packin, the School Principal, concerning his desire to have Ms. Perkins work for him in the guidance office.

When questioned about alleged inappropriate touching of Ms. Perkins, respondent stated that in the 1985-86 school year he indicated that there may have been a hug which occurred somewhere but that would be the "max", and that would be it. He denied kissing Ms. Perkins but indicated that he may have hugged her. He also indicated that he may have said that she looked nice.

Respondent also acknowledged knowing a student named Lois Fishbach who graduated in 1986 and stated that Lois and her sister were both his advisees at Parsippany Hills High School. He indicated that Lois had an interest in forestry but denied that he took her out to see what a forest ranger might do and denied that he took her to the Tourn, a park which is located in Boonton. He denied that he took Lois anywhere and that he lunged at her and attempted to kiss her while he was in the car with her.

On redirect examination respondent testified that it was his recollection that Ms. Perkins asked him if she could work in the guidance office. He admitted that there were one or two occasions when he may have issued a pass to Ms. Perkins, but denied that he knew that she was taking the pass and leaving the school. Respondent also denied ever taking Ms. Perkins or any other student out to lunch. Respondent also denied the allegations of Ms Perkins in the memorandum from Ms. August to Mr. Vasile that respondent was having sex with friends of Ms Perkins' older sister. Respondent also denied that Mr. Packin had disciplined him behind closed doors concerning these incidents.

With regard to Lois Fishbach, respondent indicated that he had lengthy discussions with her about her career options but denied that he ever would take a student out of the building. He indicated that even if he wanted to do so, a permission note from the parents and contact with the principal would be required.

In continuation of respondent's defense, Bernard Packin was called as a witness. He retired from teaching in 1988 and is presently living in California. His last position was as principal of Parsipanny-Hill High School. He indicated that in the school year 1985-86 he evaluated respondent.

Mr. Packin testified that he met regularly with the guidance staff and counseled the guidance counselors with respect to teacher-student interactions. He recalls that there were always personal relations that were a problem and that independent study was another problem. He also indicated that many times when students had problems in their personal relations at home they would confide in the guidance counselor, who would then report these circumstances to him. He also indicated that physical contact between the counselor and student, including hugging, did occur.

Mr. Packin testified that he had no recollection of being contacted by Dana Perkins, Lois Fishbach, or their parents in the 1985-86 school year. He also did not recall speaking with respondent in January 1986 concerning allegations that had been raised against him by these students. Mr. Packin also indicated that he did not recall Ms. August ever coming to him and complaining about respondent's interaction with students.

On cross-examination Mr. Packin reiterated that he does not recall the allegations reported against respondent involving Dana Perkins and Lois Fishbach.

Respondent next called Jane W. Runte who was employed as a school counselor and guidance director by petitioner. She indicated that she was respondent's supervisor and she evaluated his performance. Ms. Runte testified that on several occasions, Bani August registered comments about respondent. She indicated that at one point, another counselor advised her of concern that respondent was too effusive with his students. She pursued this by further interviews and spent several days observing respondent, and she saw nothing that she would consider any problem. During this investigation, she went to Bani August who reported that she concurred with this concern. However, Ms August provided no details. She indicated that the name of the other counselor that registered concerns about respondent's conduct was Rita Maggio.

After further investigating these comments, Ms. Runte indicated that she reported back to Dr. Perlett. Dr. Perlett was the Assistant Superintendent and her supervisor. She indicated that she never saw respondent hugging or kissing students. She testified that respondent's reputation in the school district in terms of honesty and integrity is stellar and that he is an effective counselor.

On cross-examination Ms. Runte indicated that during the period of time she observed respondent his position in terms of familiarity with pupils was significantly different than that at Parsipanny Hills High School where he had been a guidance counselor with every day interaction with specific students. Ms. Runte was also asked to review the letter written by respondent to C.O. (Exhibit P-1) and she indicated that she thought it inappropriate and also poor poetry. When Ms. Runte was cross-examined concerning the incident involving Dana Perkins, she testified that, knowing the name of the student and what the student was like, she would discount the student's story completely. She indicated that the student would make up stories about the teachers. However, this is what other people told her and she did not personally observe any of that type of behavior on the part of Ms. Perkins. The witness also volunteered that there was another counselor involved in a situation in 1981 and 1982 where several students asked to be changed to another counselor because they did not like being in the office alone with him. On

She also stated that when he was talking to her he started to touch her fanny and that he would rub her fanny when he would talk to her. Ms. August indicated that she advised Ms. Perkins that she could go to the administration. She also advised Ms. Perkins that she was not in trouble. Ms. Perkins stated that she would let Ms. August go to the school's administration and that she would stop by later to find out what was going on. Shortly thereafter, Phyllis Madsen walked in and was upset, and she told her a similar story involving respondent concerning another student. at that point both she and Ms. Madsen went to see Mr. Packin. Because Mr. Packin was not present, they spoke to Dr. Perlett and he indicated that he would take care of it.

Ms. August indicated that on a particular day following this, she walked by the principal's office. The principal's door was closed and Principal Packin was talking and he was angry. She then went to the principal's secretary and to give her certain unrelated papers and said "Hess?" to which the secretary responded "Yes". She assumed that respondent was being reprimanded. Later that day, Principal Packin contacted Ms. August and stated that what she had told Perlett had been taken care of and not to worry about it.

Ms. August testified that previously she had seen respondent kissing students but heard no rumors. She also recounted that Mr. Slimowitz said to her that respondent's kissing students would get him into trouble.

On cross-examination Ms. August indicated that she observed respondent coming in to the nurse's office two or three times a week during the first period flirting with Ms. Perkins and she continually interrupted his conversation with Ms Perkins, continually gave Ms. Perkins something to do to bring her out of her office, and did other things to break it up. She indicated that in September of that school year she told respondent that she found his interactions and comments towards Dana Perkins to be inappropriate. She indicated that in response to the phone call from Mr. Packin concerning the request to transfer Ms. Perkins to the guidance office, that she explained that Dana is her most valuable worker and that respondent tried to get her to give him Dana several times. She indicated that respondent's flirting with Ms Perkins ceased immediately after the phone call about the change in the work assignment. Ms. August indicated that when Mr. Packin contacted her about Ms Perkins working in guidance that she did not report to him that occasion, Mr. Packin said not to press charges and that he would take care of it. She also indicated that she filed a grievance in 1981 when this other counselor grabbed her by the neck and threatened her for talking about him. The other counselor was allowed to continue working until he retired about two years later.

Respondent next called David Slimowitz as a witness. He is a guidance counselor employed at the Parsipanny-Hills High School. He has known respondent since around 1980 or 1981. He indicated that as a counselor, respondent has a very good reputation as hard working, conscientious and always willing to help students. He also indicated that he found respondent to be truthful. He testified that he has never seen respondent engage in any inappropriate or unprofessional actions towards students and that he has never observed him hug or kiss any student. On cross-examination Mr. Slimowitz testified that he has had contact with respondent on a daily basis for 12 years and that they are colleagues but not friends.

Petitioner called Phyllis Madsen as a rebuttal witness. She is coordinator of business education, a position she held during the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years. She indicated that she knows a former student named Lois Fishbach. She indicated that one day Lois asked if she could speak to her after class. Lois indicated that she wanted to be a forest ranger and she had mentioned it to her guidance counselor, respondent herein. Respondent indicated that it would be a good idea to go to the Tourn and see a forest ranger in action. Ms. Fishbach then reported that respondent drove her to the Tourn and lunged at her to kiss her, and Lois asked at that point to be taken back, and he returned her to school. She indicated that Ms. Fishbach had refused to tell her parents or anyone else about this incident. Eventually Ms. Madsen told Bani August about it. She indicated that she spoke to Ms. August because Ms. August mentioned that a student that was having a problem with respondent. They then reported the incident to Dr. Perlett at which time Ms. Madsen told him about the report of Lois Fishbach and Ms. August reported the incident involving Dana Perkins. She indicated that subsequently they were told by Mr. Packin that the matter had been taken care of.

On cross-examination Ms. Madsen indicated that she has since spoken to Lois Fishbach and that she did not want to become involved. She indicated that these events occurred in or about January 1986 and that the incident involving Louis Fishbach occurred in October or November 1985. Ms. Madsen also admitted that up until the point where Ms. Fishbach mentioned this incident to her she had heard prior rumors about respondent. She admitted that in contrast to the prior deposition she gave to respondent attorney, her discussion with Bani August as to what Lois Fishbach told her was not reported to Ms. August immediately. She also indicated that when she spoke to Lois Fishbach, she was told that she did not want to become involved in this matter, that it was over and in the past and she did not want to relive it. She indicated that after they reported this to Dr. Perlett he said that he would take care of it. She never heard anything from Dr. Perlett or from Principal Packin. On redirect she indicated that there is no confusion that Lois Fishbach spoke to her and that Lois was upset about the incident involving respondent.

Petitioner then called Eugenie F. "Bani" August. She indicated that she has been school nurse at Parsippany Hills High School since 1983. She indicated that she is familiar with respondent and has a good working relationship with him. She testified that an independent study program has been in operation at the high school since 1986 and that two students every period would work in the nurse's office. Dana Perkins worked for her in the 1986-87 school year during the first period. Very early in that school year, respondent would stop by frequently, three or four times a week, and talk to Ms. Perkins. She then indicated that respondent asked if he could have Ms. Perkins work for him and she subsequently received a phone call from Mr. Packin because respondent was in his office making this request. However, Ms. Perkins had told Ms. August that she did not want to work for respondent because she had heard rumors about him. As a result, Ms. August reported to Mr. Packin that she would not agree to allow Ms. Perkins to change her assignment and work for respondent. After the phone call from Mr. Packin she did no longer saw respondent in her office.

Ms. August testified that several months later, in approximately January 1987, Ms. Perkins came into her office and closed the door and said that she was in trouble and scared, and she did not know what to do. She told Ms. August that respondent was very friendly to her and had started giving her passes so that she could cut classes, and that she had cut quite a few classes. She indicated that respondent had asked her out to lunch and she was very concerned that now she would have to pay him back. Ms Perkins indicated that if she did not she was afraid that he would go to her teachers and tell them that she had been cutting school and she would lose credit.

She also stated that when he was talking to her he started to touch her fanny and that he would rub her fanny when he would talk to her. Ms. August indicated that she advised Ms. Perkins that she could go to the administration. She also advised Ms. Perkins that she was not in trouble. Ms. Perkins stated that she would let Ms. August go to the school's administration and that she would stop by later to find out what was going on. Shortly thereafter, Phyllis Madsen walked in and was upset, and she told her a similar story involving respondent concerning another student. At that point both she and Ms. Madsen went to see Mr. Packin. Because Mr. Packin was not present, they spoke to Dr. Perlett and he indicated that he would take care of it.

Ms. August indicated that on a particular day following this, she walked by the principal's office. The principal's door was closed and Principal Packin was talking and he was angry. She then went to the principal's secretary and to give her certain unrelated papers and said "Hess?" to which the secretary responded "Yes". She assumed that respondent was being reprimanded. Later that day, Principal Packin contacted Ms. August and stated that what she had told Perlett had been taken care of and not to worry about it.

Ms. August testified that previously she had seen respondent kissing students but heard no rumors. She also recounted that Mr. Slimowitz said to her that respondent's kissing students would get him into trouble.

On cross-examination Ms. August indicated that she observed respondent coming in to the nurse's office two or three times a week during the first period flirting with Ms. Perkins and she continually interrupted his conversation with Ms Perkins, continually gave Ms. Perkins something to do to bring her out of her office, and did other things to break it up. She indicated that in September of that school year she told respondent that she found his interactions and comments towards Dana Perkins to be inappropriate. She indicated that in response to the phone call from Mr. Packin concerning the request to transfer Ms. Perkins to the guidance office, that she explained that Dana is her most valuable worker and that respondent tried to get her to give him Dana several times. She indicated that respondent's flirting with Ms Perkins ceased immediately after the phone call about the change in the work assignment. Ms. August indicated that when Mr. Packin contacted her about Ms Perkins working in guidance that she did not report to him any of the information that Ms Perkins had told her about respondent's interactions with her sister and other prior students.

Robert A. Perlett was called by petitioner and testified that he is assistant superintendent. He was formerly an assistant principal at Parsippany Hills High School where he worked with respondent, Ms. August and Ms. Madsen. He reported that there came a time when Ms. Madsen and Ms. August came to him to discuss incidents which had been reported to them concerning respondent. Ms. August reported to him that a student had been touched inappropriately by respondent. He then stated that he would talk to Mr. Packin about the matter, and he did so. He vaguely remembers reporting to Mr. Packin that one student had been touched on the buttocks and another had been kissed by respondent. He indicated that Mr. Packin nodded his head and he took that to mean that Mr. Packin would take care of it.

Dr. Perlett also indicated that Jane Runte was one of his subordinates as Director of Guidance. He recalls at one point that Ms. Runte informally discussed with him some allegation that had been made against respondent concerning inappropriate conduct. He also indicated that he had no input into the June 1988 evaluation of respondent but that he does recall discussing with Ms. Runte problems of performance by respondent.

On cross-examination Dr. Perlett indicated that what he recalled of his meeting with Ms. August and Ms. Madsen is the attitude and visually memory of the meeting, but he does not recall the specifics. He indicated that he did not observe respondent kissing any students, hugging them or taking any students' hands. He also indicated that no student or parent ever came forward complaining about respondent.

Respondent next submitted into evidence the deposition of Dana C. Perkins which was taken on January 28, 1993 (Exhibit P-11). Attorney for respondent pointed out that as the trier of fact, the ALJ would not be given an opportunity to observe Ms. Perkins for purposes of determining demeanor and credibility and asked that the deposition be given the weight which may be deemed appropriate. The essence of the deposition of Dana C. Perkins is that she would go to see her guidance counselor frequently because she was having family problems. However, because her guidance counselor was busy with other students, she would speak with respondent.

On one occasion in her sophomore year she needed a pass and respondent offered to give it to her. She indicated that respondent made it apparent and known to her that if she ever needed a pass he would be willing to give her one. She recalled getting a pass from him to cut gym and leave the school premises, and recalled other occasions when he gave her a pass. She refused to divulge the name of a girlfriend who was with her on this occasion. She indicated that this occurred three or four times.

In her deposition, Ms. Perkins also testified to an incident which occurred during the first semester of her sophomore year. On that occasion respondent said that Ms. Perkins "had a great body" and he also commented that she looked good in spandex. She also indicated that respondent pinched her "behind". She indicated that she might have said "hi" to him and that he made the comment about her body after he touched her. She testified that this occurred simultaneously. She indicated that this made her feel very uncomfortable, nervous, angry and humiliated. She testified that she spoke to Ms. August on that same date and that Ms. August wanted to report this to Mr. Packin, the school principal. Ms. August tried to encourage her to speak with someone about this, but she did not want to get involved. Ms. Perkins also testified as to rumors and other allegations involving respondent but this testimony was not corroborated and is given no weight because of the lack of specifics. Ms. Perkins also testified that she told some friends of hers about this incident but refused to divulge the names of these friends. She recalled telling Ms. August that she was afraid of Mr. Hess because she felt that because he had given her passes he would want some form of pay back.

Anthony J. Sciaino was recalled as a rebuttal witness. Mr. Sciaino testified that he is presently principal of Parsipanny Hills High School and he was previously a guidance counselor there until 1984. He then left but returned in 1986 as vice-principal of Parsipanny High School and became principal at Parsipanny-Hills High School in 1988. He indicated that while he was a guidance counselor he observed respondent's interaction with students and described respondent as often-times engaged in conduct that he would consider uncomfortable with female students involving hugging, kissing and flirtations. He recalls that on at least one occasion, he mentioned to respondent that he thought that this conduct was something that should not be engaged in. He also indicated that when respondent applied for a transfer to return to Parsipanny Hills High School where he was the principal, he discussed with respondent rumors about respondent and his reputation and advised respondent that it was not something that would be accepted at Parsipanny Hills High School. Respondent assured him that this would not occur and everything would be fine.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

State statutes grant teachers in New Jersey the right to tenure, Zimmerman v. Newark Board of Education, 38 N.J. 65, 70-72 (1962) certif. den. 371 U.S. 956, 83 S. Ct. 508, 9L.Ed.2d (1963). The tenure statute prevents school boards from abusing their superior bargaining power over teachers in contract negotiations. Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. Of Ed. 90 N.J. 63, 73 (1982). It protects teachers from dismissal for "unfounded, flimsy or political reasons." Zimmerman v. Newark Board of Education, 38 N.J. at 71.

Tenure is designed to aid in the establishment of "a competent and efficient school system" by affording to teachers a measure of security in the ranks they hold after years of service. Viemeister v. Prospect Park Bd. of Educ., 5 N.J. Super. 215, 218 (App. Div. 1949). Toward that end, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 provides that no tenured teacher shall be dismissed or reduced compensation "except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct or other just cause." Additional procedural safeguards, including the right to a list of charges, a sworn statement of evidence and an impartial hearing, are written into the law.

It has long been held that unfitness to remain a teacher may be shown by a single incident, if sufficiently flagrant, but it is best evidenced by a series of incidents. In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404 (App. Div. 196)P; Redcay v. State Bd. Of Ed., 130 N.J.L. 369, 371 (Sup. Ct.) aff'd. 131 N.J.L. 326 (E&A 1944). In determining the appropriateness of a teacher's conduct, the Commissioner of Education has often stressed ". . . that those persons who enter the teaching profession exercise a significant influence upon those they teach and . . . must exercise a high degree of exemplary behavior." In re Tyler, 13 N.J.A.R. 297.

While teachers are sensitive to the same emotional stresses as all other persons, their particular relationship to children imposes upon them a special responsibility for exemplary restraint and mature self-control. In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Thomas Appleby, 1969 S.L.D. 159, 173, aff'd. State Board, 1970 S.L.D. 448.

Because of the position of public trust in which their profession places them, teachers in the public school system are held to certain prescribed standards of behavior. These standards were best expressed by the Commissioner in In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Jacques L. Sammons, School District of Black Horse Pike Regional, Camden County, 1972 S.L.D. 302, as follows:

[T]eachers . . . are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of tens of thousands of school children with the hope that this trust will result in the maximum educational growth and development of each individual child. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment . . . those who teach do so by choice, and in this respect the teaching profession is more than a simple job; it is a calling.

Id. at 321.

These standards were reiterated by the Commissioner in In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Ernest Tordo, School District of the Township of Jackson, Ocean County, 1974 S.L.D. 97, where it was said:

Teachers are public employees who hold positions demanding public trust, and in such positions they teach, inform and mold habits and attitudes, and influence the opinions of their pupils. Pupils learn, therefore, not only what they are taught by their teachers, but what they see, hear, experience, and learn about their teacher. When a teacher . . . violates the public trust placed in him, he must expect dismissal or other severe penalty as set by the Commissioner.

Id. At 98-99.

Where a teacher is found guilty of violating the public trust, factors to be considered in assessing penalty include the nature and gravity of the offense; any extenuating or aggravating circumstances; and the effect on the maintenance of discipline and the proper administration of the school system. In re Fulcomer, 93 N.J. Super. 404, 420-422 (App. Div. 1967). Courts recognize that a single instance of misconduct, if sufficiently flagrant, is enough to justify removal of an unfit teacher. Redcay v. St. Bd. Of Educ. 130 N.J.L. 369 (Sup. Ct. 1943), aff'd 131 N.J.L. 326 (E & A 1944).

At the commencement of this proceeding, attorney for respondent indicated that respondent did not dispute that he wrote a letter to C.O. and that, in hindsight, the letter was inappropriate. The position of respondent is that as a result of this matter being brought to his attention, he has become ashamed and embarrassed for himself and his family, and has engaged in therapy sessions and now realizes that his conduct was inappropriate and wrong. He further asserts that, a result of this realization, this type of conduct will not reoccur.

Specifically with regard to his conduct, respondent indicated that in a prior incident involving a student, J.C., because he was very happy for J.C.'s success, he spontaneously jumped up and gave her a kiss aimed at her cheek, as a "happiness thing". He did not intend this kiss to land on her lips, but it accidentally did. He subsequently apologized for this incident and received a letter of reprimand. He was reminded in very strong terms of the proper behavior of a school employee in interacting with students. He indicated that as a result of this incident he avoided physical contact with students and any open displays of affection.

Respondent further asserts that his motive in writing the letter-poem to C.O. (Exhibit P-1), were innocent. Both he and his therapist expressed the opinion that because respondent was taking medication when he wrote the poem his judgment was clouded. However, respondent admitted delivering the letter-poem to the student several days later. Respondent testified that he wrote the letter-poem to the student as a gesture of friendship because she had sent him a card and a Valentine's Day greeting containing a poem. He also indicated that he merely wished to display his talents as a poet.

Respondent denies that he said anything inappropriate to another student who inquired as to why she received a Valentine greeting and her older sisters did not when they had also been his counselees. Respondent testified that his response to her was because she had the best "brains" in the family. Respondent further testified that he did not honestly remember saying "buns" instead of brains. On the other hand, the student, in her deposition, testified without hesitation that respondent indicated that she had the best "buns" in the family.

It should be noted respondent did not deny that on March 4, 1992, he stated to a female student who was wearing a tight skirt that the next time she wore that outfit he expected a personal visit in his office. The student testified that she felt this comment was funny and she did not think that respondent meant it in a perverted manner.

Respondent produced a psychiatric expert and a therapist who expressed the opinion that respondent did not originally realize that his conduct was improper, but he now realizes that his actions were inappropriate. Respondent described himself as being very effusive, friendly and open, and he appears to indicate that this was the cause of his difficulties.

As a result of my examination of the testimony and evidence in this matter, there is no question that respondent engaged in the alleged conduct giving rise to these charges, and I so FIND. However, respondent appears to be arguing that because he was not aware at the time he committed these acts that they were inappropriate or improper, therefore, he is not guilty of the charge of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. However, a close examination of respondent's acts do not support his assertions.

Respondent's letter to C.O. (Exhibit P-1) addressed as it was to a 15-year-old female student, is more on its face than merely a display of poetry. It is a question by respondent whether this student has the same feelings as those of respondent that are clearly expressed in the letter. It questions whether this young female student has similar feelings or whether she believes that respondent is "crazy". It inquires whether these feelings cross over years, ages, propriety, social acceptance and morality. By this letter-poem respondent is telling this young female student that she brings out words and feelings in him that are vast, soaring and beautiful and he inquires whether he has the right to have such feelings and thoughts. He indicates that she has an answer to these questions and that he will respect her thoughts and feelings. He finally indicates that these words are for her eyes, heart, soul and mind only.

After my initial examination of respondent's letter to C.O., I became concerned that my analysis of its contents may have been too harsh in assessing the intention of the author. However, my opinions concerning this letter were confirmed by several of the witnesses in this matter. In particular, Dr. Chrobok, questioned concerning the letter, stated that he thinks its content show the writer's feelings about the young female student. He indicated that respondent experienced thoughts, feelings and fantasies, and the unfortunate thing is that the respondent stepped out and did something about them by writing the letter and giving it to the student. He indicated that respondent was expressing the intensity of his feeling sand that he wanted the student to respond. Dr. Chrobok could not make the deduction that respondent was actually interested in being sexually involved with C.O.

Respondent's therapist, Donna Byrne also admitted on cross-examination that when she first saw the letter there was no question in her mind of the inappropriateness of the language of the letter being given by a guidance counselor to a 15-year-old female student.

As a result of questioning respondent on cross-examination concerning prior incidents, petitioner submitted the deposition of a former student who asserted that in the 1984-85 school year, respondent asked her lunch and she indicated that she was concerned that respondent would be looking for a "repayment" for respondent giving her permission slips to cut classes. The same student further testified that on another occasion respondent grabbed her buttocks and told her that she had a great body and looked great in spandex. The school nurse, "Bani" August testified that respondent frequently visited this student while she was working in the nurse's office. On the other hand, respondent denies these assertions and indicated that he seldom visited the student in the nurse's office. Petitioner also submitted the testimony of another teacher Phyllis Madsen who indicated that another former student repeated to her that respondent drove her to a park and lunged at the student in an attempt to kiss her. There is some indication that respondent was privately reprimanded by the school principal concerning these incidents which were reported to the principal. However, the principal, Mr. Packin, testified that he has no recollection of the reporting to him of these incidents, or of any reprimand of respondent.

This testimony was part of the record in this matter and was an effort on the part of petitioner to challenge the credibility of respondent. In one significant detail it accomplishes its purpose. Respondent indicated that he seldom visited the student in the nurse's office, and yet Bani August, the school nurse, testified that his visits to the student were frequent, and that she frequently intervened so as to stop respondent from speaking to the student while she was working in the nurse's office.

However, it is my opinion that this case does not involve an issue of credibility. It involves the issue whether respondent's conduct was inappropriate in dealing with female students and, if so, what is the appropriate action to be taken. Respondent would have the ALJ and Commissioner focus on whether respondent realized his conduct was inappropriate, and whether it will happen again, and in this regard, counsel for respondent has made a valiant effort and has made an outstanding presentation. However, as previously indicated, respondent's own conduct and actions reveal that his intentions were far less innocent and far more sinister than he expressed in his testimony. Anyone examining his letter to C.O. cannot help but conclude that it was an invitation to his young female student to return respondent's expression of thoughts and feelings. It is clearly an inquiry addressed to the student as to whether she has the same feelings as respondent. Likewise, respondent's communications with another young female student, C.F., where he indicates on one occasion that she has the best "buns" in the family, and on another occasion tells her that he expects her to come and visit him the next time she wears a particular tight skirt, is not mere innocent banter. The fact that the second student found these comments to be funny and that they were not meant to be perverted does not make them any less so.

Respondent and his attorney have attempted to direct this inquiry so as to lead to the conclusion that respondent now realizes that this conduct was wrong and inappropriate and that it will not happen again. However, as harsh as the result may be to respondent, that is not the issue in this case. The issue is whether the actions and conduct on the part of the respondent justify his removal from a position of public trust and, if not, what other penalty should be imposed.

In Golaine v. Cardinale, 142 N.J. Super. 385 (Law Div. 1976), affirmed 163 N.J. Super 453 (App. Div. 1978), the court discussed when good cause exists for the removal of a public official. In that case, the employee was not a teacher. However, the discussion by the court is useful in giving some guidance in this matter. The court stated that where the dereliction charged is not of such reprehensible character, the determination whether a specific act or omission constitutes cause for removal requires an evaluation of the conduct in terms of its relationship to the nature of the office itself and, in that context, an appraisal of the actual or potential impairment of the public interest which may be expected to result from the conduct in question. The court made the point that the charged dereliction, to constitute good cause for removal, must be itself an act of misfeasance or nonfeasance and an act which, in view of the duties and obligations of the office, substantially disadvantages the public.

It has been often repeated that teachers are entrusted with the care and custody of school children with the hope that this trust will result in educational growth. Teachers hold positions demanding public trust because they teach, inform and mold habits and attitudes, and influence the opinions of their students. Students learn not only what they are taught by teachers, but what they see, hear, experience and learn about their teacher. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior which is unlike other types of employment.

In this matter, respondent, by his actions and conduct, has so clearly and unequivocally violated the public trust and has so clearly and unequivocally failed to carry out the duties and responsibilities of a teacher that cause for removal must be found. It does not matter that respondent's judgment was clouded when the conduct occurred, or that he did not realize the inappropriateness of his conduct, although I FIND that this was clearly not the case. Neither does it matter that this type of conduct will never occur again because respondent now realizes its inappropriateness. The fact remains that the complained of conduct occurred, and that it is the type of conduct that is so contrary to the nature of the position of teacher and so violative of the public trust that respondent's removal as a teacher is necessary.

This decision is not made lightly. Respondent appeared to be a likable and engaging individual who has family responsibilities. I do believe him when he indicates that this type of conduct will not occur in the future. I believe that he now realizes this type of conduct is inappropriate and I believe that he now recognizes that his own self interests demand no repetition of these types of incidents. However, his conduct was so violative of his responsibilities as a teacher that his removal is the appropriate action be taken in this matter.

Based upon the foregoing, I FIND that respondent engaged in the conduct giving rise to these charges. I FIND that the conduct set forth in the tenure charges constitutes conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. I FIND that as a result of respondent being found guilty of these charges that just cause exists for his removal. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the appropriate penalty to be imposed upon respondent is his removal as a teaching staff member for the school district of the Township of Parsipanny-Troy Hills, Morris County, New Jersey.

DECISION AND ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent is found guilty of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member, and that just cause exists for his removal as a teaching staff member. Accordingly, it is further ORDERED that respondent is hereby removed as a teaching staff member for the school district of the Township of Parsipanny-Troy Hills, Morris County, New Jersey.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE :
HEARING OF CARL A. HESS, III, :
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
OF PARSIPPANY-TROY HILLS, MORRIS : DECISION
COUNTY. :
_____ :

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Respondent's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto were timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Respondent's exceptions urge that the penalty recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) is excessively harsh in light of the circumstances of this matter. He continues to assert that he harbored no lascivious intent when he engaged in the behavior at issue herein and only came to realize the inappropriateness of his actions during the course of therapy. He contends that although he exhibited poor judgment in the past, with the recognition he gained in therapy, he poses no threat to the students of the district, and even the ALJ agrees that he will not engage in the inappropriate conduct he is charged with again. He further argues that the recommended penalty fails to consider his 28-year unblemished teaching record prior to the initiation of the within charges. Finally, respondent asserts that "[w]hile his transgression was serious, it was not lecherous, vicious, cruel nor insubordinate. In the instant case a penalty less than dismissal should be imposed." (Respondent's Exceptions, at p. 5)

In response, the Board argues that the penalty recommended by the ALJ in this matter is entirely appropriate. It asserts that the ALJ considered the "extenuating circumstances" which petitioner asserts exist in this matter and determined that they were nothing more than "unconvincing excuses and rationalizations for totally unacceptable behavior." (Board's Reply Exceptions, at pp. 2-3)

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, which includes transcripts of the four days of hearings before the ALJ, the Commissioner determines to affirm the decision of the ALJ for the reasons fully and clearly articulated therein. The Commissioner finds respondent's exception arguments urging mitigation of the ALJ's recommended penalty totally without merit. As aptly stated by the ALJ

In this matter, respondent, by his actions and conduct, has so clearly and unequivocally violated the public trust and has so clearly and unequivocally failed to carry out the duties and responsibilities of a teacher that cause for removal must be found. It does not matter that respondent's judgment was clouded when the conduct occurred, or that he did not realize the inappropriateness of his conduct. Neither does it matter that this type of conduct will never occur again because respondent now realizes its inappropriateness. The fact remains that the complained of conduct occurred, and that it is the type of conduct that is so contrary to the nature of the position of teacher and so violative of the public trust that respondent's removal as a teacher is necessary. (Initial Decision, at p. 31)

Accordingly, the initial decision of the OAL is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein. Respondent is hereby terminated from his tenured position in the School District of the Township of Parsipanny-Troy Hills as of the date of this decision. This matter shall be transmitted to the State Board of Examiners pursuant to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6 for action against respondent's certificate as it deems appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning candidate appealed manner in which Board designated positions of eight candidates remaining after withdrawal of candidate who had drawn first ballot position. Petitioner contended that candidates were entitled to retain position numbers originally drawn, that is, position numbers (2) through (9), notwithstanding that such positions were advanced by one place each on the actual ballot.

Commissioner found no basis in law for petitioner's claim and held that Board acted in accordance with the dictates of N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1 when it advanced the remaining eight candidates into the ballot positions designated as (1) through (8).

For Petitioner, Louis G. Mangieri, Pro Se

For Respondent, Viola S. Lordi, Esq. (Wilentz, Goldman and Spitzer, P.C.)

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on March 14, 1995, through the filing of a Petition of Appeal with Motion for Emergent Relief. Therein, petitioner alleged that respondents ("the Board") erred in the manner in which it handled the names of the remaining eight candidates upon withdrawal of the ninth candidate from the balloting for the annual school election to be held on April 18, 1995.

Responses were filed by the Board, and by the Deputy Attorney General on behalf of the Middlesex County Superintendent of Schools, who was named as a respondent in petitioner's filing.*

Initially, the Commissioner finds that the County Superintendent is not a proper party herein, as she did not take the action complained of, nor would she have had the authority to do so, notwithstanding that the Board may have conferred with her staff prior to making its own determination; neither would she have any role in the relief sought, should petitioner prevail in his claim. Therefore, the County Superintendent is severed from this appeal.

The operative facts in this matter are not in dispute and are as follows: Ballot positions were drawn pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-13 on February 23, 1995, for the nine candidates who filed valid nominating petitions for membership on the Board; these positions were designated as positions (1A) through (9A), consistent with the manner in which position slots are labeled on the ballot, and one candidate was assigned to each position in turn. On February 27, 1995, the candidate who had drawn the first position withdrew his name from consideration pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1. The Board secretary thereupon advanced each of the eight remaining candidates by one ballot position, so that these candidates now held the positions designated as (1A) through (8A).

Petitioner contends that N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1 "does not state that the candidates' numbers on the ballot change, they just move up in position retaining the same numbers." Petitioner further argues that, when a similar situation arose in the district fifteen years ago, the candidates' numbers remained unchanged.

The Board argues that it fully followed the directive of statute; that is, upon withdrawal of the candidate in first position, the Board advanced each of the remaining candidates into the position preceding the position he or she had previously drawn. Moreover, it acted in the manner that made the most practical sense and would cause the least confusion for voters, as they would now be presented with a clear, coherent ballot listing eight candidates in eight sequential slots numbered from 1 to 8.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that the Board has acted properly in this matter and that its actions do not constitute a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:14-12.1 as claimed by petitioner.

The statute reads in pertinent part:

18A:14-12.1. Withdrawal of candidates. Any candidate may withdraw his name as a candidate for election at the annual school election. The name of such candidate shall not be printed on the ballot. The names of any candidates originally designated on the ballot below the name of the withdrawn candidate shall be advanced one place each, respectively, on the ballot. (Emphasis supplied)

In the present instance, the Board's ballot consisted of nine numbered positions, and upon withdrawal of the candidate whose name was drawn for the first position, the remaining eight names were advanced one place each, causing the ninth position to be removed and the remaining names to shift into positions (1A) through (8A). This orderly progression is precisely the result intended by statute. Retaining the fixed numbering of the slots while advancing the names of candidates can in no way be found to be violative of the law; to the contrary, there is no basis whatsoever in the law for the result demanded by petitioner, that there now be eight slots bearing the designations (2A) through (9A) because candidates remain entitled to their originally drawn position numbers regardless of subsequent withdrawals and changes in position. Such a result would, at the very least, be confusing to voters, particularly where breaks in the numbering sequence occur due to the withdrawal of candidates holding positions in the middle of, or scattered throughout the range of, the ballot to be presented to the public.

Accordingly, for the reasons expressed above, the Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief are dismissed. The Commissioner notes petitioner's claim regarding the Board's handling of a similar situation in a prior election and finds that, even accepting petitioner's contention as true, arguendo, the result herein remains unaltered.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Decided by the Deputy Commissioner of Education, October 13, 1995

For the Petitioner-Appellant, Lamar A. Boston, pro se

For the Respondent-Respondent, Michelle Miller, Deputy Attorney General
(Deborah T. Poritz, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The decision of the Deputy Commissioner of Education disqualifying petitioner from school employment following a criminal history review conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein. We note that while the record before us does not include the results of a criminal record check conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, see N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, the criminal history review in the record, conducted by the State Bureau of Investigation, reveals a disqualifying offense under the statute, and we agree with the Deputy Commissioner that petitioner has failed to demonstrate his rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN- : DECISION

SHIP OF BELLEVILLE, ESSEX COUNTY, :

RESPONDENT. :

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning citizen disputed the Board's determination to pay Board president's legal costs in a civil suit brought against him by petitioner. Moreover, petitioner contended Board violated the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA) when it voted to defray such legal expenses in a private rather than a public session.

ALJ concluded that the Board was statutorily authorized to defray the Board president's legal expenses since petitioner's defamation and libel lawsuit against him was based on a comment made by him while acting within the scope of his duties as Board president. Likewise the ALJ concluded that the Board could also underwrite the legal costs associated with the crossclaim and counterclaim. ALJ further concluded that because this matter concerned litigation, the Board was not required to discuss the matter in an open public meeting. ALJ did, however, determine that there was a conflict of interest pursuant to the Rules of Professional Conduct when the opinion authorizing the payment of legal fees was drafted by the district's attorney, whose law firm would defend the Board president in the lawsuit. (RPC 1.7(b)) ALJ denied the Board's motion for summary judgment as to the charge of conflict of interest but granted the motion on all other counts. OK

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own with modification. Petitioner's charge of conflict of interest pursuant to the Rules of Professional Conduct was dismissed for lack of Commissioner jurisdiction. Summary decision was granted to the Board on each of the other charges and the petition was dismissed.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP

OF BELLEVILLE,

Respondent.

Frank Montagna, pro se

Frank Pomaco, Esq., for respondent (Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 15, 1994

Decided: February 14, 1995

BEFORE IRENE JONES, ALJ:

Petitioner Frank Montagna, a resident of the Township of Belleville (Belleville or Township), contests the decision of the Belleville Board of Education (district or BOE) to retain legal counsel to defend its board president in an action commenced in the Superior Court.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13, the Department of Education (DOE) transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as a contested case on July 21, 1994. On August 5, 1994, the DOE transmitted an amendment to the petition. On September 14 and November 14, 1994, petitioner filed second and third amendments to the petition.

A prehearing conference was held on September 14, 1994. Respondent filed a motion for summary judgment on November 17, 1994, and on December 8, 1994, petitioner filed a letter in opposition to the motion.

On December 15, 1994, the undersigned by telephone conference with the parties granted respondent's motion for summary judgment. The instant decision is a written memorialization of the findings articulated in the oral decision.

UNDISPUTED FACTS

On September 30, 1993, Suburban Cablevision aired a panel discussion on its cablevision program "Local Issues Live."¹ The topic presented was the cutback of courtesy busing in the district. The guest panelists were Reverend Lucius Williams, on behalf of the Valley section of Belleville, and Mr. Gabriel Nazziola, the president of the Belleville BOE.² At the outset of the panel discussion the host, Mr. Todd Goodman, advised the viewing public that the discussion would be limited to the issue of the district's cutback of courtesy busing. No other topic would be discussed.

Goodman invited the viewing public to participate in the discussion by phoning in their questions or comments. He reiterated that the topic would be limited to the issue of the cutback of courtesy busing.

¹ "Local Issues Live" is a weekly cablevision show featuring community representatives discussing local political issues.

² Mayor Marina Perna was also scheduled as a guest panelist, but due to other commitments she was not present. She did, however, phone in her comments during the program.

After numerous calls from viewers, petitioner called in and directed his comments to Nazziola. He identified himself as "Frank, vice president," and stated that he had attended the BOE meetings for some twenty years and that Nazziola knew him. Petitioner then charged Nazziola with certain ethical violations regarding his participation in the BOE's negotiations of the teachers' contract. Nazziola has two children who teach in the school district. Thus, petitioner asserted that it was unethical for him to participate in the contract negotiations where salary raises and other benefits were discussed. Petitioner then implied that there was an ethics committee investigation pending.³

In responding to the call, Nazziola identified the petitioner by his surname, "Montagna." Nazziola then stated, "[petitioner is] a sick man, a political antagonist, and lacking in any credibility with me." Exhibit J -1.

On March 22, 1994, petitioner filed a defamation and libel action in the Essex County Superior Court, Law Division, against Nazziola, Suburban Cablevision and Todd Goodman. On or about April 4, 1994, the BOE met in closed session and on the advise of the board attorney, Mr. Frank Pomaco, voted to pay Nazziola's legal expenses. Further, the vote authorized the law firm of Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck to represent Nazziola in the Superior Court action.

ISSUES

The petition raises several issues.⁴

The first issue is whether N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 permits the payment of legal fees to defend a BOE member where the district is not a named party and the cause of ³ Petitioner's comments were cut short by the host, so a full sentence is not expressed in Exhibit J-1.

⁴ Respondent's answer to the petition alleged that the petition was out of time because the event complained of took place in July 1993. However, this issue is not raised in the summary judgment motion and thus is deemed abandoned. In any event, the petition is timely since the cause of action arose not on the date of the incident but on the date that the district voted to defray the board president's legal expenses, April 4, 1994. Petitioner filed the petition with the DOE in May 1994, well within the 90 days allowed by N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2.

action is slander and libel. A collateral issue is whether the BOE can file a crossclaim and counterclaim where it is not a named party to the action.

The second issue is whether N.J.S.A. 10:4-12 exempts from the Open Public Meetings Act a board meeting to discuss payment of Nazziola's legal fees.

The third issue is whether there exists a conflict of interest where the opinion authorizing payment of legal fees was drafted by the BOE attorney, whose law firm will defend the suit in the Superior Court action.

The amendments to the petition also raise several procedural and substantive issues. There is the primary question of whether the amendments are justiciable in this forum. Further, there is the question of whether the amendments are within the scope of the BOE's vote that caused the petitioner to bring the instant action.

The final issue is whether this matter is appropriate for summary judgment.

FINDINGS, DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

It is first necessary to define the scope of this proceeding and this tribunal's jurisdiction. Respondent contends that the petitioner's amendments to the petition are not reviewable because they were filed after it served the responsive pleadings. Petitioner sought neither the leave of the administrative law judge (ALJ) nor the consent of his adversary. R. 4:9-1. Further, the amendments refer to incidents that were not a part of the BOE's April 4, 1994 vote.

This proceeding is limited to the petition and the amendment transmitted by the Department of Education. Any amendment subsequent to transmittal is governed by the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules (UAPR), which set forth the procedural conduct of contested cases before the OAL. See N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. Thus it is the UAPR, not the New Jersey Court Rules, that will determine whether petitioner's amendments are cognizable.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2 provides that unless an amendment is precluded by law or constitutional principle, pleadings may be freely amended when, in the discretion of the ALJ, an amendment would be in the interest of efficiency and expediency and would not create undue prejudice. This regulation, unlike R. 4:9-1, allows a party to freely amend pleadings subject to the limitations contained in the regulation. Inherent in an ALJ's determination to grant amended pleadings is whether the opposing party would be denied due process. Further, the amendment must be within the scope of the petition. Conversely, if the amendment sets forth a new set of facts, it should be denied. A brief review of counts six, seven and eight of the petition is necessary to determine whether petitioner's amendments are reviewable herein.

The first amendment, count six, alleges that in July 1993 Nazziola hurled vicious, scurrilous remarks at petitioner during a trial before the Honorable Leo Yanoff, J.S.C. The second amendment, count seven, alleges that beginning in June 1994 and continuing to the date of the instant filing, Nazziola continued to spread untruths about petitioner throughout the township. The third amendment, count eight, alleges that Nazziola made libelous remarks about petitioner in an article published in the Star Ledger. Further, in a Superior Court action in July 1993, Nazziola insinuated that petitioner was a criminal.

Petitioner's Superior Court complaint is attached to the OAL petition.⁵ In the Superior Court complaint, petitioner alleges that Nazziola slandered and libeled him during the cablevision program. Petitioner also alleges that on September 23, 1993, Nazziola made false and malicious statements about him to Reverend Williams. Further, that on September 28, 1993, Nazziola's false and malicious statements caused Todd Goodman to rescind his invitation to the petitioner to appear as a guest panelist

⁵The last three counts of the complaint alleges action against Goodman and Suburban Cablevision and thus not pertinent to this decision on Local Issues Live. It is these alleged actions that caused the BOE to hire counsel to defend Nazziola in the Superior Court and to defray the legal expenses associated with the defense Petitioner's action herein seeks to enjoin the Board's the April 4, 1994 that defrayed legal expenses arising out of the Superior Court action slander suit. Thus, since the BOE's vote was based on the Superior Court complaint, matters not pleaded in the Superior Court complaint are not a part of this proceeding. Applying N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2 and giving due consideration that petitioner is a pro se litigant, I FIND that the amendments are not cognizable in this proceeding since there was no board action regarding the matters pleaded in the amendments. The amendments further alleges new facts and personal conduct which the Board did not consider in its deliberations and may never consider given their personal nature. Respondent is correct that the amendments relate to incidents that are outside the district's vote that authorized the defrayal of Nazziola's legal expenses. Thus, this tribunal cannot give relief where there is no justiciable controversy.

The jurisdiction of this tribunal is limited to a determination of whether the district could authorize payment of Nazziola's legal fees for an action arising out his appearance on the cablevision program. Thus, this proceeding does not and cannot involve a determination of whether Nazziola slandered petitioner in any of the incidents alleged in the petition and the amendments thereto since there is no subject matter jurisdiction in this tribunal to hear slander and libel actions. Jurisdiction on issues of slander and libel lies exclusively with the Superior Court, where a complaint is now pending.

Assuming arguendo that petitioner sought leave to amend the Superior Court complaint to include the facts alleged in the amendments, it would not provide for efficiency and expediency. Count six and part of count eight allege conduct that took place in a judicial proceeding. It is well established that words uttered by witnesses, attorneys, judges and parties to a judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding are absolutely privileged, even where the statements are made with bad motive or knowledge of falsity. Absolute immunity is designed to encourage those persons involved in a judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding to express themselves freely without fear of retribution. Binkewitz v. Allstate Ins. Co., 222 N.J. Super. 501, 508 (App. Div. 1988). Thus, if petitioner were to amend the Superior Court complaint, respondent would be entitled to summary judgment at the OAL. Thus, any consideration of the amendments herein does not provide for efficiency and expediency. N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2.

The next issue for determination is whether the district could authorize the use of public funds to pay the legal fees of the board president since the district is not a named party in the Superior Court action. Related thereto is whether the district had the authority to pay the legal fees associated with the filing of a counterclaim and crossclaim.

The resolution of this dispute first requires a review of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20, which provides as follows:

Whenever a civil or a criminal action has been or shall be brought against any person for any act or omission arising out of and in the course of the performance of his duties as a member of a board of education, and in the case of a criminal action such action results in final disposition in favor of such person, the board of education shall defray all costs of defending such action, including reasonable counsel fees and expenses, together with costs of appeal, if any, and shall save harmless and protect such person from any financial loss resulting therefrom. Any board of education may arrange for and maintain appropriate insurance to cover all such damages, losses and expenses.

Thus the statute confers on the district the authority to pay the legal expenses of any board member involved in a civil or criminal proceeding so long as the proceeding arises out of an act or failure to act in the course of the performance of the board member's professional duties. In a criminal proceeding, the board member must be exonerated before legal expenses can be paid by the district; in a civil proceeding the statute does not require a vindication.

Courts have generally considered several factors in determining whether the act complained of arose out of and during the course of the performance of an individual's duties as a member of a BOE. One factor is whether the board expressly granted the authority to the member to act. A second factor is whether a majority of the board "informally authorized" the act. A third factor is whether or not the act arose out of and in the course of the performance of the member's duties. Errington v. Mansfield Township Bd. of Educ., 81 N.J. Super. 414 (App. Div. 1963), certif. granted, 41 N.J. 519 (1964), rev'd and remanded for proceedings consistent with opinion, 42 N.J. 320 (1964), modified, 100 N.J. Super. 130, 134, 135-36 (App. Div. 1968).

In this case Nazziola appeared and was introduced on the show as the board president. The sole purpose of the panel was to discuss the district's cutback of courtesy busing. This duty could be carried out by any board member and no express or informal authorization by the board was required. Indeed, there is no obligation or requirement that ministerial functions be preapproved by the BOE. An inherent responsibility of a BOE member is to attend local community events and community forums to discuss board policies and educational issues.

Moreover, while certain duties of the BOE are conferred by statute, the Legislature impliedly conferred local boards with the authority to govern their affairs as required. This implied and apparent authority allows a board member to engage in activities that disseminate information to the public explaining the board's policies and actions. Cobb v. City of Cape May, 113 N.J. Super. 598 (Law Div. 1971). Thus I FIND that Nazziola's appearance on "Local Issues Live" to discuss the Board's cutback of courtesy busing was within the scope of his duties as a member of the BOE.

The next issue requires a determination of whether Nazziola's alleged defamatory statement was made in the scope of Nazziola's duties as president of the BOE. Put differently, did Nazziola cross the line separating acting as a BOE member and acting in a personal manner? Thus, the issue here is not whether Nazziola slandered petitioner, but whether the alleged defamatory statement was made while performing his duties as a member of the BOE.

The general rule is that "to warrant defense at the public expense, when a public official is sued individually for libel, it must be shown that he was performing in good faith a duty of his office or position in furtherance of the work of the board for which he was purportedly acting." Errington, supra, 81 N.J. Super. at 420. However, when a board member is acting pursuant to his duties, it is possible that his actions might be deemed personal if he oversteps the boundaries and acts only in a personal capacity. In such a situation, the district would have no authority to defray that board member's legal expenses. Id. at 418-21. In Cobb, the court held there should be no fine line drawn to distinguish when a public official, acting within the apparent sphere of his duties, is entitled to protection from lawsuits. 113 N.J. Super. at 602.

Based on the facts herein and a review of the videotape (Exhibit J-1), I FIND that Nazziola appeared on the program solely to discuss the district's busing program. This finding is supported by his introduction as the BOE president and the topic of discussion. Moreover, were it not for Nazziola's membership on the Board he would not have been an invited guest panelist. The guest panel was restricted to community representatives such as the mayor, Reverend Williams, and Nazziola on behalf of the BOE. Thus, but for his position on the Board, Nazziola and petitioner would not have engaged in the verbal exchange which is the subject of the civil action. Nazziola had no personal agenda, nor any personal gain to be obtained from his appearance on the show. Cobb, supra, 113 N.J. Super. 598; Matawan Reg. Teachers Ass'n v. Board of Educ. of Matawan-Aberdeen Reg. Sch. Dist., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5163-87 (June 16, 1988), aff'd, Comm'r of Educ. (July 28, 1988).

I CONCLUDE that Nazziola's appearance on the cable television program was in good faith and in furtherance of promoting and discussing board policy on the busing issue. The videotape of the program reveals that during his dialogue with petitioner, Nazziola was acting in his capacity as board president. The statement petitioner alleges is defamatory was made in direct response to petitioner's allegations against and attacks on the school board. Further, at least a portion of the utterance ("political antagonist, and lacking in any credibility") was directed at petitioner's past and present disagreements with BOE policies and practices.⁶ Unlike the facts in Errington, at no time did Nazziola attempt to defend his personal reputation or act in a purely personal manner. I CONCLUDE that petitioner's "defamation and libel lawsuit" against Nazziola is based on a comment made by Nazziola while acting within the scope of his duties as board president. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the school board is entitled to defray Nazziola's legal expenses in defending against this suit. The second issue presented is whether the BOE is entitled to pay the expenses associated with Nazziola's crossclaim and counterclaim in the Superior Court action. The provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 and N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 reveal an express legislative intent that BOE members are to be indemnified against any civil action brought against them in connection with the performance of their duties. The statute confers upon the BOE the express authority to defray legal expenses when appropriate on behalf of the BOE. Petitioner's contention that the statute does not allow the BOE to use public funds to countersue is without merit. This argument, if accepted, could substantially impede an attorney's ability to mount an effective defense for his client, thus stripping the statute of its intent to fully make whole, indemnify and hold harmless a BOE member involved in civil litigation simply because of his position.

N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 gives the local board the general authority to perform all acts and do all things necessary for the lawful and proper conduct of the public schools. When read together, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20, N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 and N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 express a clear legislative intent to allow the BOE to take all necessary and lawful measures to defend a lawsuit against an individual for acts arising out of and during the course of the performance of the individual's duties as a member of the BOE. Absent a clear legislative prohibition, statutes will be accorded their literal and express legislative meaning. The Commissioner addressed this issue in Matawan and sustained the BOE's action of underwriting the legal expenses of a BOE member who brought suit against the teachers' association. Consequently, I CONCLUDE that if the BOE can underwrite the costs associated with the initiation of litigation, it is empowered to underwrite the legal costs associated with the crossclaim and counterclaim herein.

⁶ Again it must be emphasized that no finding is made or intended on the question of whether the utterance defamed the petitioner. However, a discussion of the utterance is necessary to determine whether Nazziola crossed the line between acting in his professional capacity as the board president and acting in a personal manner. See Errington, supra, 81 N.J. Super. at 418.

Petitioner claims that the Board violated the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 to -21, when it "authorized" in closed session the defrayal of Nazziola's legal expenses. Specifically, petitioner alleges that the BOE did not place a resolution on the public agenda. Respondent argues that the exceptions provided in N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b) apply. N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b), in pertinent part, states:

b. A public body may exclude the public only from that portion of a meeting at which the public body discusses:

(7) Any pending or anticipated litigation or contract negotiation other than in subsection b. (4) herein in which the public body is, or may become a party.

Thus, while the Legislature expressly provided that public bodies shall open the meetings to the public (N.J.S.A. 10:4-12[a]), it also recognized that there exist certain sensitive matters which are privileged in nature (attorney-client privilege) and therefore are not proper for public disclosure. The exception, therefore, preserves the attorney-client privilege by recognizing that the discussion could involve litigation strategy which is confidential and thus not proper for public disclosure. However, the statutory exceptions should be strictly construed so as not to defeat the legislative intent. Rice v. Union County Reg. High Sch. Bd. of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64, 70 (App. Div. 1977); Houman v. Pompton Lakes, 155 N.J. Super. 129, 145 (Law Div. 1977); Caldwell v. Lambrou, 161 N.J. Super. 284, 288-89 (Law Div. 1978).

Here, the subject matter of the civil libel action involves a board member who was acting in an official capacity as a representative of the Board. It is immaterial that the BOE is not a named party to the suit because the litigation involves the BOE president. See Matawan, supra, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5163-87; Cobb, supra, 113 N.J. Super. 598. I CONCLUDE that the cited exception to the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b)(7), governs in this matter. Thus, the district was not required by law to discuss this matter in an open public meeting.

Petitioner contends that there is a conflict of interest when the opinion authorizing payment of legal fees was drafted by the district's attorney, whose law firm will defend the board president in the lawsuit.

The Rules of Professional Conduct provide:

A lawyer shall not represent a client if the representation may be materially limited by responsibilities to another client or to a third person or by the lawyer's own interests.

[RPC 1.7(b)]

Further, RPC 1.7(c)(2) prohibits representation when there is but an appearance of impropriety rather than actual conflict. The New Jersey Supreme Court has held that when representation of public bodies is involved, the appearance of impropriety in representing multiple clients assumes an added dimension; positions of public trust call for even more circumspect conduct. In re Opinion No. 415, New Jersey Supreme Court Advisory Comm. on Professional Ethics, 81 N.J. 318, 324 (1979). The district is a public entity. Therefore, the attorneys herein must conform to a higher standard of conduct.

I FIND that Mr. Pomaco, or an attorney in his firm, drafted the opinion advising the district that it could defray the legal expenses of the board president. Thereafter, the district engaged Pomaco and his firm for the Superior Court action. Consequently, Pomaco's opinion in effect authorized payments to his firm. Thus, I FIND and CONCLUDE that a conflict of interest exists which is prohibited by RPC 1.7(b).

I further FIND that under RPC 1.7(c)(2), there is an appearance of impropriety. An appearance of impropriety exists when the situation "would create an appearance of impropriety in the mind of a reasonable and informed citizen." In re Opinion No. 653 of Advisory Comm. on Professional Ethics, 132 N.J. 124, 133 (1993). Pomaco's dual representation creates an appearance of impropriety, since it appears that he is authorizing payments of public funds to himself.

In summary, I CONCLUDE that the BOE is statutorily authorized to defray Nazziola's legal expenses since the petitioner's defamation and libel lawsuit against Nazziola is based on a comment made by him while acting within the scope of his duties as BOE president. Likewise, the BOE is empowered to pay the legal expenses associated with the filing of the crossclaim and counterclaim. I further conclude that the BOE did not violate the Open Public Meetings Act when it voted in private session to defray Nazziola's legal expenses.

It is further concluded that the representation of Nazziola in the Superior Court action by the firm of Gaccione, Pomaco & Beck is a conflict of interest under RPC 1.7(b) and RPC 1.7(c)2.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) summary judgment is appropriate where there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. I FIND and CONCLUDE that no genuine issue as to any material fact exists herein. Rather the issues presented herein are purely issues of law and thus summary judgment is appropriate. I, therefore, grant respondent's motion for summary judgment on Counts one, two, three, and five of the petition. I hereby deny summary judgment on Count four of the petition for the reasons expressed in this decision.

I hereby dismiss the first, second and third amendments since the acts complained of therein were not pleaded in the Superior Court action and thus were not a part of the BOE's April 4, 1994 vote.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must BOE sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. Exceptions submitted by petitioner and the Board were untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, having been filed on March 3, 1995 and March 9, 1995, respectively, in response to an initial decision mailed to the parties on February 16, 1995, and are, therefore, not herein considered.¹

Upon a careful and independent review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), for the reasons articulated by her in the initial decision, with respect to the procedural issues raised herein; the Board's authority to defray its president's legal expenses; its empowerment to pay the legal expenses associated with expenses associated with the filing of a crossclaim and counterclaim; and that the Board did not violate the Open Public Meetings Act when it voted to defray such legal expenses in private rather than public session. The Commissioner does not, however, comment or rule with respect to the ALJ's discussion regarding a challenge to the propriety of legal representation of the Board in another forum under the Rules of Professional Conduct. This issue is not appropriately before the Commissioner as it is outside of his jurisdictional purview and does not affect the adjudication of the educational issues before him.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter as modified above. Petitioner's charge with respect to a conflict of interest violating the Rules of Professional Conduct is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Summary decision is hereby granted to the Board on each of the other charges and the within Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

AND

RECEIVED
ST. JOHNS COUNTY
FEB 10 10 11 AM '95

THIS AGREEMENT is by and between KAREN WHITING and CLAYTON BOARD OF EDUCATION as follows:

1. There is pending before the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law a petition entitled Karen Whiting v. Clayton Board of Education bearing Docket Number EDU-08101-93S, wherein the petitioner seeks various remedies, including a finding of a violation of tenure rights and reinstatement to a full time secretarial or clerical position.
2. The Clayton Board of Education has answered the petition and denied any legal obligation to Karen Whiting in any respect whatsoever.
3. The parties hereto have now agreed to amicably resolve their differences on the following terms and conditions:
 - a. The Clayton Board of Education will pay to Karen Whiting the sum of $11,500 in full and complete settlement of the above litigation, including attorneys fees and costs. No portion of said payment is for back wages or benefits.
 - (1) The $11,500 shall be paid on or before January 31, 1995;
 - b. The parties agree that none of the terms and conditions of this settlement shall be disclosed to any person or source except as such disclosure is required by law or compelled by legal process;
4. Karen Whiting hereby releases and forever discharges, on behalf of herself, her executors, heirs and assigns, the Clayton Board of Education and its members, agents, servants and employees from all claims of whatsoever kind, including all claims arising out of the allegations set forth in the petition described in paragraph 1 above.
5. Karen Whiting, upon receipt of the aforesaid sum of $11,500., shall forthwith dismiss the petition with prejudice.

IN WITNESSETH WHEREOF, the parties have set their hands and seals on this 24th day of January, 1995.

Record Closed: February 14, 1995

Decided: February 22, 1995

BEFORE ELINOR R. REINER, ALJ:

On September 13, 1994, petitioners, tenured principals, filed verified petitions of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, alleging that respondent had illegally reduced their annual salaries by $631, $772 and $631, respectively for the 1993-94 school year. On November 28, 1994, respondent filed answers and counterclaims to the petition alleging that the neglect of each petitioner caused a deficit in the school's 905 account in the amounts deducted from each petitioner's salary. On December 1, 1994, these matters were transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law as contested cases pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

After notice to all parties, these matters were consolidated and a telephone prehearing conference scheduled for March 23, 1995.

As a result of settlement conferences held between the parties, the parties have agreed to the settlements, and the prehearing conference was adjourned.

The parties have agreed to settle these matters and have prepared Orders and Stipulations of Settlement indicating the terms of settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the settlement terms and FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlements as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.
2. The settlements fully dispose of all issues in controversy and are consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that these agreements meet the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlements should be approved. I approve the settlements and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Teacher of Nursing appealed Board's refusal to rescind her resignation and reinstate her to her former position.

ALJ found that following petitioner's tendering of a resignation letter and the Board's accepting of that resignation, the Board had no obligation to reemploy her. She had not resigned under duress or contrary to terms set forth in a negotiated bargaining agreement. The Board had not acted in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner. ALJ denied petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision and dismissed the petition.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

Record Closed: January 11, 1995

Decided: February 15, 1995

BEFORE AUGUST E. THOMAS, ALJ t/a:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed her appeal with the Commissioner of Education contesting the determination of the Board of Education of the Middlesex County Vocational and Technical Schools' (Board's) refusal to rescind her resignation and reinstate her to her former position. The Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

After my telephone conference with the attorneys, petitioner filed a letter brief with her motion for Summary Decision, and respondent filed an answering letter brief. The salient facts are not in dispute and are set forth as follows:

Petitioner, a tenured teacher of nursing employed by the Board, tendered her resignation on October 29, 1993, effective January 4, 1994. Her resignation was predicated on her plan to relocate to Florida. The Board accepted petitioner's resignation on November 1, 1993. However, on December 8, 1993, petitioner delivered the following letter to the Board through its superintendent of schools:

I am asking that you please disregard my recent letter of resignation . . . and consider reinstating my contract. The buyer for my home has reneged and I am now unable to relocate.

I greatly appreciate you and the board for your prompt assistance in this matter.

Petitioner's rescission was denied by the Board on December 9, 1993, and her appeal was filed with the Commissioner on March 2, 1994.

DISCUSSION

Petitioner asserts that her position has not been filled by a full-time, permanent, duly certified teacher of nursing. The Board agrees, stating that the position was filled by substitute teachers and temporary relocation of other teaching staff for the remainder of the 1993-94 school year because of the difficulty in filling the position in the middle of the school year. Nevertheless, the Board contends that petitioner was offered employment beginning in September 1994, and she refused to accept such employment because she was in the process of relocating to Florida. Petitioner does not deny the Board's contention.

The petitioner asserts, however, and the Board denies, that the Board has a long-standing past practice of allowing staff members to rescind resignations that have been accepted by the Board. Petitioner asserts further that the Board's determination not to continue her employment is arbitrary, capricious, in bad faith and in violation of her tenure rights. Therefore, based on all of the above, petitioner seeks a judgment ordering the Board to reinstate her with full back pay, benefits, and other emoluments of her office.

THE LAW

The Board seeks to dismiss this appeal, stating that it was filed out of time pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c), which requires that appeals must be filed with the Commissioner no later than the ninetieth day from the date of receipt of notice of a final order, ruling or other action by the agency.

In my judgment, this matter was timely filed. The final action which triggered this appeal was the Board's determination on December 9, 1993, not to rescind petitioner's resignation. Prior to that action, there was nothing to appeal; consequently, petitioner's appeal filed on March 2, 1994, was within the ninety-day limit set by the above regulation.

Petitioner cites Hall v. Jefferson Bd. of Educ., 125 N.J. 299 (1991), Cutler v. Parsippany-Troy Hills Bd. of Educ., No. A-1464-90T3 (App. Div. Jan. 27, 1992), reversing 1990 S.L.D. 725, and Evaul v. Board of Educ., City of Camden, 35 N.J. 244 (1961), to support her claim to the position from which she resigned. In these decisions, the petitioners were reinstated to positions from which they either resigned or offered to resign. However, a reading of these decisions discloses that each is distinguishable from the present matter.

Hall was a tenured school secretary who advised the Jefferson Township Board of Education of her "intention to retire" at the end of the school year. Her decision was based on the local education association's collective bargaining agreement with the Board, which provided for longevity payments for employees meeting the contractual requirements in the bargaining agreement. When personal problems arose, Hall asked for a two-year extension of her retirement date. She was notified that any extension would be based on her performance during the remainder of that school year. After her supervisor's evaluation was submitted, Hall was advised by the Board that her retirement would become effective at the end of the school year, and she appealed to the Commissioner.

In its review of the case, the Court found that the Board had a consistent past practice of allowing the “acceleration, extension, or rescission of twelve intended retirement dates” from May 1983 through the end of the 1985-86 school year without any conditions being imposed on the employees (Hall, supra, 125 N.J. at 304). Hall was the only employee during that time subjected to a performance evaluation as a condition of being permitted to continue in her tenured position. Additionally, the Court found that there was no provision in the contractual agreement with the education association which provided for any conditions to be imposed for the modification of an intended retirement date. Therefore, the Court found in Hall’s favor.

The Cutler controversy arose because of a provision in the teachers’ collective bargaining agreement which entitled them to receive a terminal leave pay upon retirement based upon their accumulated sick leave. Several teachers were involved and the Parsippany-Troy Hills Board of Education refused to allow rescission of their notices of intention to retire. However, the appellate division concluded as follows:

At each stage of this litigation, plaintiffs have contended that the Board’s acceptance of their conditional notices of intention to retire preserved to them the right to rescind. We are persuaded that as a matter of ordinary contract law plaintiffs are correct. Plaintiffs’ offers could only be accepted in accordance with their terms.

[No. A-1464-90T3 at 5.]

Accordingly, the appellate division found in favor of the plaintiffs.

Florence Evaul was a tenured teacher who asked the Camden Board of Education to rescind her resignation. The Board refused. The Court’s view of the case related to Evaul’s argument that her resignation was invalid because her offer to resign was the product of duress. Evaul had differences with her supervisor and other staff members which culminated in a meeting with the school principal, the school superintendent and the president of the local board of education. That meeting, which lasted about forty minutes, "was heated and acrimonious." Evaul, supra, 35 N.J. at 246. At about 4 p.m. the same day, a Friday, a very distraught Evaul had a meeting with the superintendent and said that she was going to resign. He advised her not to be hasty and told her that she should wait until Monday before making up her mind. Nevertheless, she submitted her resignation. Unbeknownst to Evaul, a special meeting of the Board had been scheduled for that same evening at 8 p.m. Her resignation was presented to the Board and accepted. The Court held that her circumstances were unique in that "[i]t was an extraordinary concatenation of events which resulted in a loss to appellant of her tenure, seniority and pension rights acquired during twenty-five years of service." Id. at 249. The Court ordered her reinstatement.

In the present matter, petitioner tendered an ordinary resignation letter. Therefore, when her resignation was accepted, the Board had no further obligation to re-employ her. Unlike in Hall and Cutler, there was no obligation to petitioner pursuant to terms set forth in a negotiated bargaining agreement. And unlike in Evaul, there was no duress or "extraordinary concatenation of events" which caused her termination. For its own reasons, the Board chose not to re-employ petitioner for the remainder of the 1993-94 school year after it accepted her resignation. Accordingly, there is no relief to which petitioner is entitled.

Therefore, petitioner's motion for Summary Decision is DENIED and the case is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The record of this matter and the initial decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. No exceptions were filed by the parties.

Upon a careful and independent review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusion of the Administrative Law Judge that the Board's refusal to reemploy petitioner for the remainder of the 1993-94 school year after it had accepted her resignation was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable and, therefore, there is no relief to which petitioner is entitled.

Accordingly, petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision is denied and the within Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning taxpayer/parent and Association contested the Board's action to reduce in force its entire professional and non-professional staff.

ALJ concluded that petitioners failed to demonstrate that the mere issuance of RIF notices to the entire teaching staff in April 1994 in any way affected the provision of a thorough and efficient education to the students of the district, in particular because all but four staff members were advised prior to the conclusion of the 1994-95 school year that they would not be affected by the RIF. ALJ found that the Board's actions were not unlawful and did not provide the basis for any relief to the four remaining individual petitioners. Summary Decision dismissing the petition was granted in favor of respondents.

Commissioner adopted findings and determination in the initial decision as his own.

Record Closed: January 9, 1995

Decided: February 23, 1995

BEFORE M. KATHLEEN DUNCAN, ALJ:

This matter commenced on May 16, 1994, when Margaret May, a resident taxpayer and parent of a student in the Milltown Public Schools, and the Milltown Education Association, a labor organization in its own behalf and on behalf of its listed members, filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education seeking a determination declaring void a resolution adopted by respondent Board of Education on recommendation of respondent Boright to reduce in force the entire teaching, custodial, secretarial and clerical staff of the district. An answer was filed on behalf of the respondents on June 22, 1994 and on July 11, 1994 the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A prehearing conference was conducted on October 12, 1994 at which time it was determined that the parties would file cross-motions for summary decision on or before December 15, 1994. It was agreed that replies, if any, would be filed no later than January 9, 1995. With the consent of the undersigned, both parties filed cross-motions on December 20, 1994. A reply on behalf of respondents was filed on December 22, 1994. No reply having been received on behalf of petitioners, the record closed on January 9, 1995.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The facts relevant to a determination of this matter are not in dispute and I therefore FIND the following as uncontested facts.

On or about April 15, 1994, each of the individual association-member petitioners in this case received the following notice:

MILLTOWN SCHOOL DISTRICT

Milltown, New Jersey 08850

Notice to Certificated Staff

April 15, 1994

Dear _____ RE: Non-renewal of Employment

This is to advise you that the Milltown Board of Education voted by a majority of the full membership of the Board that you not be offered a contract for employment for the next academic year, September 1, 1994 to June 30, 1995 if a 10 month employee, or July 1, 1994 or June 30, 1995, if a 12 month employee. This action was officially taken on April 14, 1994.

The reasons for same are as follows:

1. reason of economy
2. reduction in the number of pupils at a given grade level
3. change in administrative or supervisory organization
4. change in educational program

If you desire to appear before the Board and make a presentation in your behalf, please advise the office of the Superintendent of Schools in writing within ten (10) days from your receipt of this letter. The informal appearance will then be scheduled.

If you have a negotiated representative, contact that representative concerning your rights.

Thereafter notices were sent on June 14, 1994 and June 21, 1994 reemploying all individual staff-member petitioners except for the following individuals: Christine Morris (tenured,home economics), Leslie Pruess (tenured, instrumental music), Susan Spyros (tenured,art) and Alice Yucht (tenured,librarian).

The uncontested certification of Walter Boright submitted with respondents' motion for summary decision explains that the district was experiencing budgetary problems affecting the 1994-95 school year and took the actions which it took in mid-April because at that point it was uncertain because of said economic problems what program and staffing needs would be for the following school year and because the negotiated agreement required notice of non-renewal to be given by April 30, each year. As soon as they were able, respondents made determinations concerning programming and staffing needs for 1994-1995 and reemployed all staff members with the exception of the four named individuals whose positions were terminated solely for reasons of economy.

APPLICABLE LAW AND DISCUSSION

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, the rule governing motions for summary decision, provides:

(b) The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits. The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. If the adverse party does not so respond, a summary decision, if appropriate, shall be entered.

The now classic statement of the standards for granting or denying summary judgment set forth in Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954), explains that the procedure is designed to provide a prompt, businesslike and inexpensive method of disposing of any cause which a discriminating search of the merits in the pleadings, depositions and admissions on file, together with the affidavits submitted on the motion, clearly shows not to present any genuine issue of material fact requiring disposition at a trial. In the present matter the parties agree that there are no material facts in dispute, and accordingly, this matter is ripe for summary decision.

N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, the statutory provision governing reductions in force, states:

Nothing in this title or any other law relating to tenure of service shall be held to limit the right of any board of education to reduce the number of teaching staff members, employed in the district whenever, in the judgment of the board, it is advisable to abolish any such positions for reasons of economy or because of reduction in the number of pupils or of change in the administrative or supervisory organization of the district or for other good cause upon compliance with the provisions of this article.

Petitioners argue that respondents' action issuing reduction in force notices to the entire tenured staff with the exception of the superintendent violates their obligations to provide a thorough and efficient education, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, Article VIII, §IV, of the New Jersey Constitution, N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-1 (the Public School Education Act of 1975), N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1d (General mandatory powers and duties of a board of education to do all things necessary for the lawful and proper conduct of the public schools in the district) and N.J.A.C. 6:8-3.2 (requiring staffing of school districts to be based upon the specific instructional needs of pupils in the district and each school within the district). In support of their argument petitioners cite the following comments made by the State Board of Education in Edison Township Education Association v. Edison Township Board of Education, 1984 S.L.D. 1073, aff'd State Board 1984 S.L.D. 1085, aff'd Appellate Division (Docket No. A-2030-84T7, February 11, 1986):

The decision of the Commissioner is affirmed for the reasons expressed therein. Moreover, although the issue of the propriety of the reduction in force itself is not before us in this appeal, the State Board emphasizes the clear responsibility of boards of education to carefully analyze such reductions in accomplishing their legitimate purpose as defined by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9. We further emphasize that the numbers terminated must not impair a school district's ability to fulfill its statutory responsibility to afford its students a thorough and efficient education. See e.g., N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(d); N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-5(c) and (g). A practice of wholesale dismissals involving a significant portion of the teaching staff would violate this statutory duty even where teaching staff members were properly recalled at a later date.

Respondents point out that the comments of the State Board of Education are dicta and that the facts in Edison were entirely different from those herein since in the present matter all but four tenured teaching staff members were notified prior to the conclusion of the current school year that the reduction in force for the following September would not affect them. Respondents correctly point out that this case is moot with respect to all individual staff-member petitioners except for those four tenured teaching staff members who were, in fact, affected by the reduction in force, and with respect to those teaching staff members no factual basis has been offered to support a legal challenge to respondents' decision to terminate these employees for reasons of economy.

Based upon all of the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have failed to demonstrate that the mere issuance of RIF notices to the entire teaching staff in April 1994 in any way affected the provision of a thorough and efficient education to the students of the district. All but four of the individual staff-member petitioners were advised prior to the conclusion of the 1993-94 school year that they would not be affected by the reduction in force for the 1994-95 school year and accordingly, there was no interruption in the provision of their services. In the absence of any factual basis to the contrary, I am unable to conclude that thorough and efficient education in respondents' district was in any way affected by the reduction in force for reasons of economy which affected only four individuals. Respondents' actions herein, although they were probably psychologically upsetting to many staff members, merely provided respondent with two additional months to determine how necessary budgetary constraints could best be handled. The actions were not unlawful and do not provide the basis for any relief to the four remaining individual petitioners. Accordingly, for all of the foregoing reasons Summary Decision dismissing the petition is hereby GRANTED in favor of respondents.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

OF PLAINFIELD, UNION COUNTY, :

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, nontenured elementary teacher, alleged that the Board's decision not to rehire her was motivated by discriminatory motives.

ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to prove that the Board's articulated reasons for not renewing her contract were pretexts. ALJ further concluded that the Board properly exercised its discretionary authority to not reemploy petitioner and that that decision was not motivated by improper racial and religious reasons; rather, it was based on classroom performance and excessive absenteeism. Moreover, ALJ concluded that the Board did not violate her due process rights. In addition, Board properly exercised its authority to terminate petitioner's employment while she was on work-related disability leave by giving her timely notice of nonrenewal. Petition was dismissed.

Upon careful review of the record, including transcripts of proceedings at OAL, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's dismissal of the petition. Commissioner adopted findings and determination in initial decision as his own.

BEFORE MUMTAZ BARI-BROWN ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Marilyn Bruder, a nontenured teacher, was employed by respondent, Plainfield Board of Education ("Board" or "District"). The Board did not renew petitioner's employment contract for the 1993-94 school year. Petitioner alleges that the Board's decision was based on racial and religious discriminatory reasons. Petitioner is white and Jewish. Petitioner seeks reinstatement in the position of a tenured teaching staff member in the Plainfield School district with full back pay and all additional emoluments of employment.

Respondent denies that its decision was based on discriminatory motives. Rather, its decision was based on petitioner's poor performance and absenteeism. Therefore, the decision was a proper exercise of discretionary authority.

Bruder filed a Notice of Appeal from the Board's denial of tenure. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on September 1, 1993, as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52 :14B-1 to-15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Prehearing conferences were held on January 12, and February 1, 1994. On or about February 19, 1994, the Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition for failure to comply with the "90 day rule" set forth in N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2. On June 8, 1994, I denied the Board's motion. For good cause the hearings scheduled for May 3, 4 and 5, 1994, were adjourned to September 12, 22, 23, 28, 29 and October 6, 1994. The parties submitted post hearing briefs and the record closed on November 17, 1994.

The forty-five (45) day statutory period within which to file the initial decision with the Department of Education expired on January 3, 1995. Based on the complexity of the case and the administrative law judge's voluminous case load, an extension of time to complete the initial decision was granted until February 17, 1995. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8.

ISSUES

1. Whether the Board's failure to rehire petitioner was based on religious and racial discrimination.

2. Whether petitioner was the victim of harassment and differential treatment in the workplace.
3. Whether petitioner received timely procedural due process entitlements before being nonrenewed.
4. Whether the Board can terminate petitioner while she was on Workers' Compensation Disability Leave

STIPULATED FACTS

The parties stipulated as follows:

Petitioner, Marilyn Bruder commenced her employment with the Board on January 2, 1991, as an elementary teacher, kindergarten, at the Emerson School. She was given salary credit for 18 years prior experience. Despite an initial recommendation of nonrenewal, which petitioner protested, the Board renewed her employment for the 1991-1992 school year. The next year, she was then assigned to the first grade at the Emerson School. Petitioner was reappointed for the 1992-93 school year, and assigned to the first grade at the Emerson School.

On December 14, 1992, petitioner was injured on school property during the course of her employment. She returned to work from January 8 to 12, 1993, but she has remained out of work since that time.

On March 31, 1993, petitioner was nonrenewed.

An Order entered by the Honorable Philip E. Bolstein declared petitioner temporarily disabled, for workers' compensation purposes, effective December 14, 1992. She remains temporarily disabled, for workers' compensation purposes, to the present. (J-1)

TESTIMONY

Petitioner presented six witnesses and respondent presented nine witnesses. Several witnesses testified about their association with Bruder and school administrators, Eloise Tinley and Doris Williams. Some described their impression of the relationship between Bruder and the school administrators.

Petitioner, Marilyn Bruder is a resident of Springfield, New Jersey. In December 1990, she applied for a teaching position with the Plainfield School District. She previously owned and operated a day care/nursery school in Westfield, New Jersey. Bruder was first interviewed by Tinley, Director of Personnel. Tinley questioned Bruder about her experience in inner city schools and her experience with children of diverse backgrounds. Bruder described Tinley's attitude as "curt." She also concluded that Tinley did not like her and appeared annoyed that she was applying for a position with the District.

Bruder then interviewed with Doris J. Williams, principal of Emerson Elementary School. They discussed Bruder's experiences. Williams appeared very excited about Bruder teaching at Emerson. Bruder informed Williams that if she accepted the position she needed time off to attend her daughter's law school graduation in New Orleans. Also, she was a subpoenaed witness and would be absent to attend a trial. Williams offered Bruder the position of full-time kindergarten teacher. Bruder began teaching at Emerson on January 18, 1991.

Bruder believes that her assignment to the kindergarten classroom was based on discriminatory motives; the room was large but it lacked adequate materials and supplies. Thus, she asked for floor mats for the children to sit on, a water and sand table, blocks, books, and games for the students. Williams responded that Plainfield was a poor district and that there was no money for such supplies. Bruder saw these items in other kindergarten classrooms and concluded that Williams' response was not based on financial reasons. Rather, it was an implied criticism directed at Bruder because she was from a wealthy suburban school district. Bruder also perceived that Williams thought she was "spoiled brat."

Bruder alleged other acts of discrimination and differential treatment. For example, during a meeting Williams stated that, "I think you need to go back where you came from." Bruder interpreted Williams' statement and her other remarks about Springfield as discriminatory. The Township of Springfield, petitioner's residence, has a large middle-upper-class, white and Jewish population.

In another incident, Williams denied Bruder's request to take time off to attend her daughter's graduation. However, Williams granted leave time to an African-American teacher to attend her daughter's graduation in California. Another incident concerned Bruder's request to leave school early on a Jewish holiday so that she could arrive home and prepare a religious meal before sundown. The teachers' work schedule begins at 8:00 a.m. and ends at 3:00 p.m. Williams did not immediately respond and granted her request at 2:45 p.m.

Bruder also alleged several incidents of harassment. In 1991-92, Williams assigned Bruder to teach first grade. Bruder was hired as a full-time kindergarten teacher and had never taught first grade. The first grade classrooms and Williams' office are on the same side of the building. Therefore, Bruder believed that the reason she was reassigned was to allow Williams to keep an eye on her. Bruder accepted the new assignment and again asked for specific teaching supplies. She requested preparation aids for the California Achievement Test ("CAT") which was administered in the spring. Ms. Fern Litwak, the first grade leader, responded that materials were not available. However, when Bruder was absent for several days during an illness, the substitute teacher, Mrs. Roundtree received CAT test supplies from Litwak. The Vice-Principal, Donald Frank did not respond when Bruder asked him why Roundtree was given the supplies and she was not.

Another alleged discriminatory act concerned Bruder's belief that many of her students had emotional and/or physical problems. For instance, one of the students constantly urinated in the classroom and another student regularly fell asleep at the desk and drooled from the mouth. Bruder reported these happenings to the administrators, but nothing was done. She also requested that certain first grade students who had exhibited learning deficiencies receive special tutoring or assistance. She was told that there was no one available to assist the students.

Another incident involved Williams response when Bruder decorated the classroom door. Bruder's students had won a District wide spelling contest. Bruder placed ribbons on the classroom door window to congratulate the students. Bruder knew that two-thirds of the window could not be covered, however, she believed this was a special occasion and that the children should be recognized for their accomplishment. Williams told her to remove the ribbons because it violated school regulations.

On another occasion, during a fire drill, the children appeared frightened by the sound of the fire alarm and were unprepared to respond accordingly. Bruder tripped over several children as she helped them exit the classroom and caused the desk to fall on her. A teacher's aide, Mrs. Carter, helped Bruder from the floor. Thereafter, Carter accompanied Bruder to the hospital and would not leave the examination room while Bruder was being treated by the physician. Carter informed Bruder that she was following school policy. Bruder believed,

Litwak, the first grade leader, responded that materials were not available. However, when Bruder was absent for several days during an illness, the substitute teacher, Mrs. Roundtree received CAT test supplies from Litwak. The Vice-Principal, Donald Frank did not respond when Bruder asked him why Roundtree was given the supplies and she was not.

Another alleged discriminatory act concerned Bruder's belief that many of her students had emotional and/or physical problems. For instance, one of the students constantly urinated in the classroom and another student regularly fell asleep at the desk and drooled from the mouth. Bruder reported these happenings to the administrators, but nothing was done. She also requested that certain first grade students who had exhibited learning deficiencies receive special tutoring or assistance. She was told that there was no one available to assist the students.

Another incident involved Williams response when Bruder decorated the classroom door. Bruder's students had won a District wide spelling contest. Bruder placed ribbons on the classroom door window to congratulate the students. Bruder knew that two-thirds of the window could not be covered, however, she believed this was a special occasion and that the children should be recognized for their accomplishment. Williams told her to remove the ribbons because it violated school regulations.

On another occasion, during a fire drill, the children appeared frightened by the sound of the fire alarm and were unprepared to respond accordingly. Bruder tripped over several children as she helped them exit the classroom and caused the desk to fall on her. A teacher's aide, Mrs. Carter, helped Bruder from the floor. Thereafter, Carter accompanied Bruder to the hospital and would not leave the examination room while Bruder was being treated by the physician. Carter informed Bruder that she was following school policy. Bruder believed, however, that Carter remained in the examination room to see whether she was really hurt from the fall.

Another incident occurred after Bruder addressed the Board about her contract renewal for the following school year. At the meeting, she also informed the Board about the repeated misuse of the bathroom in her classroom. Although regulations prevented students and teachers from using the same bathroom, teachers and other staff members constantly entered her room to use the bathroom. Also, at the end of the day, students from other classrooms used the bathroom to get water to wash the blackboard in their classrooms. She also told the Board that she was denied supplies. Further, she submitted letters from parents who supported her reappointment. The next day, the Vice-Principal, Donald Frank, "stormed" into the classroom and "angrily chastised" her about the statements that she had made before the Board.

Bruder alleged discriminatory treatment when she was denied assistance with classroom windows. The windows were stuck and the custodian opened them only once or twice. Moreover, the windows would not stay open without support, e.g., a book or a piece of wood. Consequently, the classroom had little ventilation and it was often hot and filled with stale air. Bruder offered to donate several window air conditioners to the school; one for her classroom, one for another classroom, and one for the teachers' room. She even offered to pay for the installation and the electric bill. Bruder believed that her offer was declined for discriminatory reasons.

Bruder alleged other incidents of harassment. She planned a field trip for her students, but she was not told about school procedure concerning parental consent. She inadvertently learned that Litwak gave permission forms to another teacher. Thereafter, Bruder hurriedly called the students' parents to obtain their consent for the field trip to the fire station. On another occasion she was denied the use of the copying machine to make copies of lessons when workbooks were not delivered timely.

Eloise Tinley is the Supervisor of Personnel and the Affirmative Action Officer. Tinley was formerly employed in the positions of Supervisor of Nassau County Board of Cooperative Educational Services and Director of Personnel of Pratt Institute, both in New York. She has investigated and handled numerous complaints filed by students and staff alleging discrimination and sexual harassment.

Tinley screens the applicant and then refers the successful candidate to the building administrator or principal for a second interview. All applicants for teaching positions must take a basic skills test in math and language arts. The District instituted this policy in response to the students' poor test scores. Tinley also recommends termination of employees based on their performance evaluations.

Although Bruder refused to take the basic skills test, Tinley interviewed her for the kindergarten teacher position. Tinley perceived an apparent socio-economic difference between Bruder and the students in Plainfield. Thus, she was concerned whether Bruder could relate to the children. Many students lived in dysfunctional homes and were recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). Also, many students lacked exposure to cultural experiences. Some lacked social and moral virtues because they did not have positive role models. In contrast to children from middle-upper class families, these children faced greater obstacles to develop into independent and productive adults. To help the children overcome these barriers, the teacher must be aware of and sensitive to their needs. It was Tinley's job to hire teachers capable of meeting all the needs of the students.

During her interview, Bruder appeared insulted and annoyed that she was asked to take the test. Also, she became defensive to questions about her ability to relate to the children. Tinley believes that Bruder may have also felt uncomfortable being interviewed by an African-American. Tinley candidly described her experiences interviewing predominantly caucasian candidates. For some, it was their first relationship with an African-American in authority. They recognized that Tinley had the ability to control the outcome of the interview and they were uncomfortable with the situation.

Tinley was very impressed with Bruder's preschool experience, but she was mindful that Bruder had been the director of her own school program. Thus, she had reservations whether Bruder could make the transition from giving directions to taking directions. She concluded, however, that Bruder could be a good teacher and should be given the opportunity to demonstrate it.

Several weeks after Bruder began teaching, Tinley questioned Bruder's ability to adjust to the position. For example, Bruder complained that the steps were steep and unsafe and asked an assistant to take her class to the lunchroom. They discussed the matter at a meeting with Bruder and the union representative.

Tinley reviewed Bruder's performance evaluations and concluded that she was an ineffective teacher. At the Board meeting she recommended that Bruder's contract not be renewed. She also conceded making a statement that "this is Plainfield, not Springfield." Her remarks, however were made to rebut Bruder's assertion that in Springfield no one worried about students' test scores. Tinley believed that Bruder was lazy and had not made the transition from being the person in charge to being the one taking directions.

Doris Williams, Principal at Emerson School, has been employed by the Plainfield School District since 1978. She has taught special education students, the Educable Mentally Retarded ("EMR"), she was a resource room instructor and has been the vice-principal and the acting principal. Williams interviewed Bruder for the kindergarten teacher position. They discussed the children's needs and Williams' expectation from the teacher. Williams was excited about Bruder teaching in her school and she recommended that she be hired.

Williams described the kindergarten students assigned to Bruder's class as "energetic" and "ready to learn." Test results disclosed, however, that they had limitations in language stimulation and readiness skills. Although they were not labeled as "special needs" students, they did need more than the students in the regular half-day kindergarten class. Therefore, they were placed into Bruder's full day kindergarten class.

Bruder was formally evaluated in January, March and May 1991. Williams also observed Bruder in the classroom. Based on the formal evaluations and her observations, Williams did not recommend Bruder for reappointment for the 1991-92 school year. The Board, however, voted to renew her contract for another year. Williams reassigned Bruder to the first grade because she believed that Bruder would perform better with first grade students than she had with the kindergarten class.

Williams conceded that she remarked to Bruder that her "culottes" outfit looked like Bermuda shorts. Bruder insisted on a meeting with Williams and the union representative to discuss the dress code. Williams reprimanded Bruder for submitting an incorrect student attendance list, not for wearing culottes to work.

Williams denied withholding materials and supplies from Bruder. The District had materials for the staff, but Bruder never filled out the forms to request the materials. Williams would have ordered supplies had they been requested. Similarly, Bruder did not always follow procedure when she wanted time off for personal or religious reasons. Williams denied using the phrase "you people" or aspersions to refer to Bruder. Williams candidly stated that she did not believe that Bruder hurt herself when she fell.

Thomas Falocco, a teacher employed by the Board for twenty-six years, is the president of the Plainfield Education Association. He accompanied Bruder to several meetings with Williams. At one meeting, Williams expressed that the children in Plainfield did not come from the same socio-economic background as Bruder. Thus, Bruder should be more sensitive to their cultural background. Williams appeared "tight" and antagonistic.

Falocco attended another meeting in Williams' office about Bruder's attire. When Williams criticized Bruder for wearing culottes to school, Bruder charged that she was being singled out among other teachers because she is white and Jewish. Williams apologized for giving her that impression. Notwithstanding her apology, Falocco described Williams' body language as antagonistic, e.g., she rolled her eyes and sucked her teeth. Falocco also described Bruder's culottes as a neat, loose-fitting outfit that fell below her knees. Other female teachers wore short skirts and revealing v-neck blouses. In comparison, Bruder's outfit was conservative and appropriate. Falocco concluded that Bruder was being singled out for minor incidences rather than major incidents such as being five minutes late for school and wanting to leave school early to observe a religious holiday.

Janet Banks, an art teacher employed by the Board since 1988, taught art in the students' regular classroom. She observed the overall condition of the classrooms. Bruder's classroom was different from other classrooms. For example, the other classrooms had carpeting. However, other teachers voluntarily purchased supplies for their classroom. Often, she and Bruder ate their lunch in Bruder's classroom. Banks has never heard Williams make derogatory statements about Bruder. Williams was enthusiastic about hiring Bruder but treated her differently after she requested classroom materials. Banks described the relationship between Bruder and Williams as "rocky."

Banks also believes that Williams intimidated the faculty and that they were eager to please her. Thus, when Bruder fell in the classroom and called for help she could not depend on her coworkers to assist her. Banks conceded that she has had problems with Williams and described her as "mean-spirited." Banks has filed a federal civil rights complaint alleging sexual harassment against Williams.

Donald Frank is the principal of an elementary school in Manville, New Jersey. He was the vice-principal at Emerson School. Frank evaluated Bruder's teaching performance several times. He observed student behavior problems that had not existed with the prior teacher. He and Bruder discussed her concern about the behavior of several children and whether they should be evaluated by the Child Study Team (CST) for special education services. Frank responded that the situation should be investigated and informed Bruder to contact the parents.

Frank rated Bruder's performance as marginal in January 1991 and unsatisfactory in March and May, 1991. Board policy required that an independent evaluation be conducted following the teacher's unsatisfactory rating. Therefore, in January 1992, Anthony Dentino, a math supervisor assigned to another school building, evaluated Bruder and rated her performance satisfactory. Frank evaluated Bruder in November 1991 and March 1992, and rated her satisfactory.

Frank also performed Bruder's annual evaluation summary in her second year of employment. He concluded that she had a pattern of being unprepared to teach the lessons. He identified consistent weaknesses in Bruder's performance. At the end of her second year of employment, Frank recommended that Bruder's contract not be renewed. He believed that Bruder could be an outstanding teacher, but she did not perform to her potential.

Marjorie Cohen and Judy Burgman are retired teachers who were formerly employed by the Board. Cohen was assigned to the classroom next to Bruder. She has never observed Williams act in a discriminatory manner towards any teacher including Bruder. Cohen is Jewish and white. She has received New Year's cards on the Jewish holiday from Williams.

Burgman worked in the District for twenty six years. She has observed Williams interact with her staff daily. Williams provided a warm and congenial atmosphere for the staff. Burgman is white and Jewish and she too, has received cards from Williams for the Jewish New Year.

Kimberly Ann Casey-Bailey and Diane Sylvester testified on rebuttal for petitioner. Bailey is a teacher's assistant at Emerson School. She heard Bruder complain that she was not getting materials and saw her crying in the kindergarten classroom. Bailey has not observed Williams mistreat any employees including Bruder. Sylvester is the New Jersey Educational Association representative. During a Board meeting, Sylvester heard Tinley remark, "this is not Springfield, this is Plainfield." Sylvester interpreted the statement to mean the Jewish population in Springfield. She perceived that statement as a negative connotation and discriminatory. Sylvester has never witnessed Tinley make any discriminatory remarks towards any other person.

FINDINGS OF FACTS

Based on the evidence, I further FIND the following as FACT:

1. The Plainfield School District is a "special needs" district.¹ It contains grades kindergarten through 12 and has 6700 students enrolled in ten elementary schools, one primary special education school, two middle schools and one high school. The majority of students are African-Americans and Latinos with a small number of Caucasians and Asians. The Board employs several hundred employees. The majority of the teachers employed are white.

2. Prior to her employment with the District, Bruder owned and operated the Colonial Hill Learning Center, a day care/nursery school in Westfield, New Jersey, for twenty-three years. She also taught pre-kindergarten, second and third grades and she has implemented a head start program in Long Branch, New Jersey. She has worked for the Roselle school system. Bruder's students were of many ethnic backgrounds.

3. In the 1990-91 school year petitioner received three teacher observations/evaluations and an annual evaluation. She was rated marginal in January 1991, unsatisfactory in March 1991, and unsatisfactory in May 1991. (J-6; J-9; J-12). The annual evaluation commended petitioner's ability to integrate several subjects into one lesson. The evaluator also determined that there was need for improvement in experimenting with the use of motivational tools and in planning programs to meet the individual needs and abilities of students. Additional areas of need for improvement included creating a classroom environment conducive to learning, guiding the learning toward achievement of curriculum goals,

creating a classroom environment conducive to learning, guiding the learning toward achievement of curriculum goals, developing reasonable rules of classroom behavior and procedures, assisting in upholding school rules, supervising behavior for the safety and well being of students, attempting to establish a positive relationship with other primary grade teachers assuming cooperation on their part, adherence to school procedures.

[J-13]

4. On April 29, 1991, the personnel committee notified petitioner that it would recommend that the Board not renew her contract for school year 1991-92. Petitioner appeared at the Board's meeting and persuaded the Board to renew her contract.

5. On June 19, 1991, the Board voted to withhold petitioner's salary increment for the 1991-92 school year for the following reasons: unsatisfactory teaching performance; inability to develop effective and appropriate teaching strategies; ineffective classroom organization and management skills; poor classroom discipline and control. The Board considered the withholding of increment as potential recommendation for termination of employment. (J-15).

6. In the 1991-92 school year, Bruder had three teacher observations/evaluations. She was rated satisfactory in November 1991; January 1992, and March 1992.

7. Petitioner had been absent sixty-six days from the date of her initial employment, January 2, 1991, to March 31, 1993.

8. On March 25, 1993, during Bruder's third year of consecutive employment, the Board served notice that it would discuss her nonrenewal of employment at its meeting on March 31, 1993.

9. On March 31, 1993, petitioner and her attorney addressed the Board about her contract renewal. Also, parents and staff spoke in support of and against petitioner's contract renewal. The Board then voted that it would not renew her contract for the 1993-94 school year. (J-49).

10 On April 5, 1993, the Board notified petitioner that it would not offer her a contract of employment for the 1993-94 school year. (J-34).

11. On April 20, 1993, petitioner requested a written statement of reasons for non-reemployment. (J-35).

12. On April 27, 1993, Eloise Bryant Tinley, supervisor of personnel set forth the following reasons for the recommendation of nonrenewal:

Unsatisfactory teaching performance as evidenced by your;
-failure to establish, implement and maintain a consistent discipline plan
-failure to establish classroom routines and procedures
-poor organizational skills
-ineffective planning and preparation
-unsatisfactory attendance

[J-36]

13. On April 30, 1993, petitioner requested an informal appearance before the Board which was scheduled for June 29, 1993.

14. On May 24, 1993, Bruder filed an appeal before the Commissioner.

15. At the request of petitioner's attorney, the parties agreed to adjourn the June 29, informal appearance before the Board. The informal appearance was not rescheduled.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

I

Petitioner's appeal from the Board's decision not to renew her employment contract includes allegations under the Law Against Discrimination (LAD). The school board has discretion to deny continued employment to its nontenured teachers provided the decision is not based on age, sex, race, religion, handicap, national origin or ethnic background. Gilchrist v. Board of Ed. of Borough of Handdonfield, Camden County, 155 N.J. Super. 358 (App. Div. 1978). The Department of Education has concurrent jurisdiction with the Division of Civil Rights to entertain the complaint. Hinfey v. Matawan Regional Board of Ed., 77 N.J. 514 (1978).

Proof of discriminatory discharge requires the petitioner to establish a prima facie case by showing that she belongs to a protected class, she was qualified for the job, despite her qualifications she was terminated and that employees outside the protected class were more favorably treated. McDonnell-Douglas Corp. v. Green, 411 U.S. 792, 93 S. Ct. 1817, 36 L. Ed. 2d 668 (1973), Goodman v. London metal Exchange, Inc. 86 N.J. 19, 30 (1981). To rebut the presumption of intentional discrimination, the burden of production shifts to the employer who must articulate, not prove, "some legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason" for petitioner's termination. Once the employer has articulated reasons for his decision, it is the employee's burden to prove that the employer's reasons are not true reasons but only pretexts. Texas Department of Community Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248 253-54, 101 S. Ct. 1089, 67 L. Ed. 2d 207 (1981).

Employment discrimination is often difficult to prove. The ultimate issue in a disparate treatment complaint is whether the employer intentionally discriminated against the employee. United States Postal Service Board of Governors v. Aikens, 460 U.S. 711, 103 S. Ct. 1478, 75 L. Ed. 2d 403 (1983). Most disparate treatment cases are determined on whether the employer's reasons are pretextual. Thornbrough v. Columbus and Greenville Railroad Co., 760 F.2d. 633 (3d Cir. 1985). In Thornbrough, the Court stated that:

Often, motivation and intent can only be proved through circumstantial evidence; determination regarding motivation and intent depend on complicated inferences from the evidence and are therefore peculiarly within the province of the factfinder.

[Thornbrough v. Columbus and Greenville Railroad Co., at 641]

I have carefully observed the testimony and demeanor of Bruder, Tinley and Williams. Each appeared confident and strong-minded. I am convinced by their professional experiences and accomplishments that they are dedicated educators. Bruder had been the chief administrator of her own pre-school for many years. She described herself as a “[p]ersuasive, analytical and ambitious professional. . . . Bright, persistent and resourceful team-player, . . . Quietly assertive leader and persuasive negotiator who thrives on pressure. Possesses outstanding communication and excellent interpersonal skills.” J-103. Bruder, Tinley and Williams were authoritative figures and they each had formed opinions on matters concerning how to best educate children. Their opinions on some school matters differed. They also formed perceptions about each other based on how each viewed the other’s conduct. For example, at her job interview Bruder refused to take the basic skills test. Outside her office, Tinley overheard Bruder voice her objections to the secretary and inquired about the commotion. Bruder appeared annoyed. Notwithstanding Board policy, Bruder who had taught for many years questioned Tinley why the requirement applied to her. They continued with the interview and discussed Bruder’s background. Bruder sensed hostility from Tinley. She could not believe that Tinley would recommend her to Williams to hire her.

On the other hand, Bruder believes that Williams was “absolutely thrilled” with her background. She also believes that Williams’ later comments and attitude towards her were discriminatory. Bruder recalled Williams’ remarks, such as: "This is Plainfield, not Springfield. This is a poor, inner-city school. These kids don't have anything...all they have is us...and we're doing the best we can and you're just used to a different kind of school."

Williams' comments were consistent with Tinley's description of the students and her perception of their needs. Many children in the Plainfield school district are economically and socially deprived. They had few cultural experiences and overall, they lacked exposure to music, art and literature. Further, I am persuaded by the testimony that Tinley and Williams were committed to offer the students more than an educational program needed to compete in the labor market. They believed that the children from poor working parents and AFDC families, like children from middle-upper class families, should have the opportunity to participate fully in society and articulate their views on music, art, and literature. They recognized, however, that these children had different needs that must be supplied, in large part by the teacher. When Tinley openly expressed her view on the socio-economic differences between the children from Plainfield and the children from affluent communities, Bruder perceived her attitude as hostile. She also concluded that Tinley did not like her. Williams made similar statements comparing Plainfield with affluent communities such as Springfield. Bruder perceived her attitude as hostile and discriminatory too.

In Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287, 363 (1990), the New Jersey Supreme Court acknowledged the glaring difference between public schools in poor districts and public school in affluent districts. Many school facilities in poor urban districts are poorly maintained and do not provide an environment in which children can learn. In contrast, "most schools in richer suburban districts are newer, cleaner, and safer. They provide an environment conducive to learning. They have sufficient space to accommodate the children's needs now and in the future." Id. at 363. The Court further announced that:

[T]here is solid agreement on the basic proposition that conventional education is totally inadequate to address the special problems of the urban poor. Something quite different is needed, something that deals not only with reading, writing and arithmetic, but the environment that shapes these students' lives and determines their educational needs.

[Abbott v. Burke, supra, 119 N.J. at 372.]

The Court also noted that students in poorer school districts often lack close family ties, community support, and positive role models; support networks readily available to students in richer school districts. Id. at 369.

I am persuaded that Tinley tried to close the disparity by hiring applicants with good teaching skills and certain life skills necessary to relate to the economically and socially deprived children who lived in the Plainfield school district. Indeed, “[p]oorer students need a special supportive educational effort in order to give them a chance to succeed as citizens and workers. Their educational needs are often dramatically different from those of students in affluent districts.” Id. at 302 (1990). Thus, Tinley had a legitimate concern about Bruder’s socio-economic background and whether she would supplement the children’s educational development. Tinley’s interest in Bruder’s ability to relate to the children was not unreasonable or unimportant.

Once hired, the Board had a continuing responsibility to determine if Bruder met its expectations before it granted her tenure. Indeed, the Board had broad discretion to decide who will teach its children. Dore v. Bedminster Township Board of Education, 185 N.J. Super. 447, 452 (App. Div. 1982). That decision may be based on criticisms not contained in formal evaluations pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.1 and N.J.A.C. 6:3-1.19, the implementing regulations. The board may reach its conclusion about a nontenured teacher “on a broad base of input received from a variety of people, including members of the public, parents of students and a board member’s own knowledge of a teacher even if that knowledge is acquired through having a child in the teacher's class." Id. at 454. Observations of the board's employees, the personnel director and the building principal may also be considered. On the matter of tenure, the Board had virtually unlimited discretion to terminate a nontenured teacher.

[A]bsent constitutional constraints or legislation affecting the tenure rights of teachers, local boards of education have an almost complete right to terminate the services of a teacher who has no tenure and is regarded as undesirable by the local board.

[Dore v. Bedminster Township Board of Education, supra, 185 N.J. Super. at 456].

It is within this context that I have evaluated the conduct claimed by Bruder to be discriminatory. Discriminatory conduct must be determined from the totality of the circumstances. The mere use of ethnic slurs in casual conversation is insufficient to constitute discrimination; but a working environment dominated by racial slurs does suffice.

In considering whether there was a hostile work environment, one must not consider individual incidents in isolation, but rather must look at the overall scenario, considering not only the frequency of the offending conduct but also its gravity.

[Dickerson v. State of New Jersey Dept. of Human Services, 767 F. Supp. 605, 615 (D.N.J. 1991)].

Petitioner's witness, Janet Banks conceded that she has never heard Williams make discriminatory statements about Bruder. However, she believed that Williams made statements to "faculty members" about Bruder's fur coat, teaching abilities and that Bruder "did not belong in Plainfield." Under cross examination, she conceded that she did not know if the faculty member heard the statements from Williams or another person. Consequently, Banks' testimony lacks sufficient reliability to impute to Williams the alleged discriminatory statements. I am also mindful that Banks has filed a sexual harassment complaint against Williams. I am persuaded that Banks' testimony is influenced by the litigation pending between the parties.

On the other hand, Cohen and Burgman are former teachers who are no longer under Williams' administration. Neither Cohen or Burgman observed Williams make any discriminatory remarks or aspersions against Bruder; nor were they aware that she made disparaging comments about other employees' race or religion. Current employee, Fern Litwak is white and Jewish. She taught in Plainfield from 1973 to 1979. She returned in 1987. Williams has always accommodated her request to observe religious holidays. She has also observed Williams daily and has not experienced any improper conduct based on discrimination.

I have also considered the disputed testimony about Tinley's statement on March 31, 1993, at the Board meeting. Diane Sylvester is employed by the New Jersey Education Association and has attended many Board meetings. She has also participated in several contract negotiations with Tinley and observed her at many business meetings. Sylvester observed Tinley's and Bruder's presentation regarding Bruder's renewal. Sylvester perceived Tinley's remark, "this is not Springfield; this is Plainfield," as discriminatory because Springfield has a predominately Jewish population. Further, the statement had no relationship to the context of Tinley's presentation. She did not recall, however, whether Bruder spoke about Springfield during her presentation. Sylvester has never witnessed Tinley make any discriminatory remarks towards any other person. Sylvester's familiarity with the Springfield demographics and her observation of the presentation led her to conclude that the statement was directed at Bruder's race and religion.

On the other hand, Tinley maintained that her remarks about the communities of Plainfield and Springfield were in response to Bruder's assertion that "in Springfield no one worried about students' test scores." From the moment that they met, Tinley disclosed her strong reservations about Bruder's ability to relate to the children in Plainfield. Her doubts were based on the notion that the children who attended Bruder's preschool were from middle-upper income families. She also believed that their needs were very different from the educational needs of Plainfield school children from low income families. The difference was a matter of wealth and social environment, not race or religion. Notwithstanding her skepticism and the real or perceived mutual animosity, Tinley referred Bruder to Williams for a second interview.

Sylvester and Tinley each gave straightforward but conflicting testimony. I am persuaded by the evidence that Tinley's statement was directed at Bruder's socio-economic status, not her race and religion.

[T]he term "burden of proof" refers to the "burden of persuasion"... The burden of persuasion entails more than merely producing evidence which would tend to put the court's mind in a state of equilibrium with respect to whether a certain fact exists or not and if, at the close of the evidence, this is the situation, then the decision must go against the party who has the burden of persuasion on the particular issue in question.

[Johnson v. Barton, 251 F. Supp. 474, 476 (W.D. Va 1966).]

Donald Frank presented credible testimony on his method of evaluating teachers. He weighed the teacher's cumulative assessments, not merely the evaluation of one day's performance. He recognized that although some teachers may perform well on one day, this is not reflective of their overall ability. Conversely, the poor performance of a teacher on one day does not necessarily reflect her teaching ability. Thus, Frank made formal and informal observations and he rated the teacher on her cumulative performances.

Bruder began teaching at Emerson in mid-year. Frank observed her performance and rated her once as marginal and twice as unsatisfactory. The following year she was evaluated once by Mr. Dentino and twice by Frank; she received three satisfactory evaluations, with suggestions for improvement. I am persuaded that Frank evaluated Bruder's performance as he did all teachers.

His decisions were based on Bruder's performance in the classroom, not her race or religion.

Bruder was absent 66 days from the day she began working to March 31, 1993. Thus, respondent had legitimate concerns about Bruder's attendance record each year of her employment. (J-31, J-36, J-40, J-41-J-42, J-4). Excessive absenteeism can interfere with the continuity of instruction for students and the efficient operation of schools. Notwithstanding legitimate excuses, high absenteeism is sufficient grounds for disciplinary action in tenure matters. In nontenure cases, "[p]rior absences certainly can be used as a predictor of future patterns of absences which may come forward." Costanzo v Board of Ed. of the City of Rahway, Union County, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d (Vol. 4B) 654, 661 (Dept. of Education).

Based on the whole of the record, I CONCLUDE that petitioner failed to prove that the Board's articulated reasons for not renewing her contract were pretexts. I further CONCLUDE that the Board properly exercised its discretionary authority to not reemploy Bruder, and its decision was not motivated by improper racial and religious reasons. Additionally, I CONCLUDE that petitioner was not subjected to disparate treatment or harassment based on race or religion. I CONCLUDE that the Board's decision for nonrenewal was based on classroom performance and excessive absenteeism.

II

Petitioner alleges that she was denied procedural due process to appear before the Board about the nonrenewal of her contract. On March 19, 1993, Bruder requested permission to speak at the public session of the Board's meeting on March 23, 1993. The meeting was rescheduled to March 31, 1993, and Bruder addressed the Board on that date. On April 5, the Board served Bruder notice of the nonrenewal. On April 15, she request a written statement of reasons for its decision. The Board responded on April 27, 1993. On May 3, 1993, Bruder again requested permission to informally address the Board about her employment. The Board's meeting was scheduled on June 29, 1993, ten days beyond the thirty day time period. Bruder did not appear before the Board because she had filed her petition before the Commissioner.

Petitioner's argument that the Board's failure to timely set the date for her appearance constituted a denial of procedural due process is without merit. N.J.A.C. 6:3-4.2 sets forth the procedure which allows the nontenured teacher to appear before the school board upon receipt of notice of nonreappointment. Informal appearances "shall be scheduled within 30 calendar days from receipt of the board's statement of reasons." N.J.A.C. 6:3-4.2(b). Although the Board failed to respond within 30 days, I reject petitioner's assertion that the procedural deficiency denied her due process. "A lack of strict compliance with the regulation should not necessarily be read to convey an immediate right to be rehired to the petitioner." Costanzo v Board of Ed. of the City of Rahway, Union County, supra, 93 N.J.A.R. 2d at 661. Bruder addressed the Board on March 31 and tried to convince the members to reemploy her. She then requested another meeting after receiving the written reasons for the decision of nonrenewal. Bruder decided not to appear again because she had filed her petition before the Commissioner. Moreover, the proceeding before the OAL served to remedy any defects caused by Bruder's denial to informally appear before the Board on June 29, 1993. See In re Darcy, 114 N.J. Super. 454. (App. Div. 1971).

I CONCLUDE that the Board did not violate petitioner's procedural due process rights.

The final issue is whether the Board can terminate petitioner while she was on workers' compensation disability leave. Petitioner alleges that the Board acted improperly and illegally in failing to renew her contract when she was on workers' compensation disability. Petitioner's relies on Kletzkin v. Bd. of Educ. of the Boro. of Spotswood, 136 N.J. 275 (1994).

Petitioner's reliance on Kletzkin is not supported by the facts. In Kletzkin, the Court held that employment includes periods of sick leave and that a teaching staff member may acquire tenure while on a leave of absence because of a work related injury. Kletzkin began employment in the school district in January 1986. She was reemployed for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years. In November 1988, a work related injury resulted in a leave of absence. Kletzkin acquired tenure on January 14, 1989. On April 11, 1989, three months after she acquired tenure, the board terminated her employment. Thus, the termination violated her tenure rights. Kletzkin at 279.

Bruder began employment on January 2, 1991. The Board renewed her employment for the 1991-1992 and 1992-93 school year. On December 14, 1992, she was awarded an involuntary sick leave after she was injured on school property. On March 31, 1993, petitioner's contract was not renewed. Bruder would have acquired tenure in January 1994. See N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. In Kletzkin the board terminated the petitioner after she acquired tenure, and thus violated her tenure rights. In this matter, the Board terminated Bruder in March 1993, well before she would have acquired tenure in January 1994.

The board has discretionary power and authority to terminate a teacher on disability leave if the board gives timely notice of its decision, and the board's reason is not discriminatory or in retaliation to the teacher's workers' compensation claim. Petitioner's contract was not renewed March 31, 1993. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 provides that on or before May 15 in each year, the board shall give each nontenured staff member written notice that employment for the succeeding year will not be offered. The board's failure to give timely notice of termination shall be deemed to be an offer of continued employment for the succeeding year N.J.S.A. 18A:27-11. Timely notice of termination precludes tenure. See Winston v. State-Operated School District of Jersey City, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d. (Vol. 4B) 44 (Dept. of Education). Here, the Board's notice of termination on March 31, 1993, was timely.

Based on the above, I CONCLUDE that the Board properly exercised its authority to terminate Bruder's employment while she was on a work related disability leave by giving her timely notice of termination on March 31, 1993, and prior to the date she would have acquired tenure in January 1994. I further CONCLUDE for the reasons discussed that the Board's action on March 31, 1993, was not based on improper discriminatory motives.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the petition of Marilyn Bruder be and hereby is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 225 East State Street, CN 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.
