Administrative law judge was without jurisdiction to compel joinder of third party in school district's placement dispute with parents. B.R. v. Woodbridge Board, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDS) 159.

1:1-16.2 Time of motion

(a) A motion for leave to intervene may be filed at any time after a case is initiated.

(b) If made before a case has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law, a motion for leave to intervene shall be filed with the head of the agency having jurisdiction over the case. The agency head may rule upon the motion to intervene or may reserve decision for action by a judge after the case has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law.

(c) If made after a case has been filed with the Office of Administrative Law, a motion for leave to intervene shall be filed with the judge or, if the case has not yet been assigned to a judge, with the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law.

Amended by R.2007 d.393, effective December 17, 2007.
See: 39 N.J.R. 2393(a), 39 N.J.R. 5201(a).

In (c), inserted "the judge or, if the case has not yet been assigned to a judge, with".

1:1-16.3 Standards for intervention

(a) In ruling upon a motion to intervene, the judge shall take into consideration the nature and extent of the movant's interest in the outcome of the case, whether or not the movant's interest is sufficiently different from that of any party so as to add measurably and constructively to the scope of the case, the prospect of confusion or undue delay arising from the movant's inclusion, and other appropriate matters.

(b) In cases where one of the parties is a State agency authorized by law to represent the public interest in a case, no movant shall be denied intervention solely because the movant's interest may be represented in part by said State agency.

(c) Notwithstanding (a) above, persons statutorily permitted to intervene shall be granted intervention.

1:1-16.5 Alternative treatment of motions to intervene

Every motion for leave to intervene shall be treated, in the alternative, as a motion for permission to participate.

1:1-16.6 Participation; standards for participation

(a) Any person or entity with a significant interest in the outcome of a case may move for permission to participate.

(b) A motion to participate may be made at such time and in such manner as is appropriate for a motion for leave to intervene pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.2. In deciding whether to permit participation, the judge shall consider whether the participant's interest is likely to add constructively to the case without causing undue delay or confusion.

(c) The judge shall determine the nature and extent of participation in the individual case. Participation shall be limited to:

1. The right to argue orally; or
2. The right to file a statement or brief; or
3. The right to file exceptions to the initial decision with the agency head; or
4. All of the above.

Case Notes

The administrative law judge may determine the extent of participation once it is found a participant has a significant stake in the outcome. The Division of ABC granted participant status and allowed to file a brief (citing former N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6(c)). Canal St. Pub v. City of Paterson, 6 N.J.A.R. 221 (1982).

SUBCHAPTER 17. CONSOLIDATION OF TWO OR MORE CASES; MULTIPLE AGENCY JURISDICTION CLAIMS; DETERMINATIONS OF PREDOMINANT INTEREST

1:1-17.1 Motion to consolidate; when decided

(a) As soon as circumstances meriting such action are discovered, an agency head, any party or the judge may move to consolidate a case which has been transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law with any other contested case involving common questions of fact or law between identical parties or between any party to the filed case and any other person, entity or agency.

(b) This rule shall apply to cases:

1. Already filed with the Office of Administrative Law;
2. Commenced in an agency but not yet filed with the Office of Administrative Law; and
3. Commenced in an agency and not required to be filed with the Office of Administrative Law under N.J.S.A. 52:14F-8.
