

By The Numbers: One Year Since Sandy

$5.67 billion (more than)	Total federal assistance to New Jersey
$226 million	Sandy Supplemental Social Services Block Grant (SSBG) funds to help the most vulnerable recover
$16.1 million	Hurricane Sandy New Jersey Relief Fund grants awarded to 81 organizations
1.6 million (more than)	Pounds of food distributed in the aftermath of the storm
261,000 (more than)	People who contacted FEMA for help or information
127,046	Housing inspections completed
52,000	Emails, letters and telephone calls handled by our Office of Constituent Relations
29,000 (approximately)	Households that have received or in the process of receiving Sandy assistance
4,100 (more than)	Homeowners initially approved for the Reconstruction, Rehabilitation, Elevation and Mitigation (RREM) Program
548	FEMA specialists on the ground within the first 48 hours of the storm
507	Voluntary agencies involved in the recovery
272	Homeowners in the process of moving out of flood-prone areas through the voluntary buyout program
E.O. 140	Signed to expedite dune construction to protect countless homes and businesses along the Shore
127	Shelters opened
108	Businesses approved for nearly $6 million in Stronger NJ Business programs
100 (nearly)	Percentage of the state's beaches that were open this summer

99

Percentage of New Jersey schools that were open within three weeks of Sandy

98

Percentage of state-regulated private insurance claims that have been settled

92

Percentage of checks either in-hand or on the way to eligible applicants of the Homeowner Resettlement Program

60-plus

Mobile events to assistance Sandy victims on the ground

17

Community Block Development Grant programs launched during the last six months