On November 30, 2022, Ms. Cordova executed a contract with the Elmwood Park Board of Education for employment as a non-tenured teacher during the 2022-23 school year. Based on the documents provided, I FIND the terms of the contract concluded on June 30, 2023. Although no new contract was signed by both parties for Respondent to return for the 2023-24 school year, the District says that as early as May 2023 before the expiration of the current contract, Ms. Cordova indicated her intent to return by responding yes to a question in a written survey, and she was formally advised the District intended to renew her contract during her annual evaluation conference on May 4, 2023. Under basic principles of contract law, while I FIND this constitutes an offer to enter into a new contract, I ALSO FIND Cordova never accepted the new contract.

Shortly thereafter, upon the Superintendent's recommendation, the Board unanimously voted to reappoint her by Resolution dated May 23, 2023. Despite these expressions of intent to rehire Cordova for the next school year, a new proposed contract was not received by Cordova until early July 2023.

Cordova who was still working for the Board outside the scope of her primary contract as a Summer ESY instructor never signed the new proposed contract a she had reservations about returning for the next school year. The summer program ended on July 27, 2023, and similar to the situation with Chaiken above, I FIND that part-time position was not connected in any way to either Cordova's expired contract or the new contract which remained unsigned and was not due to commence until September 1, 2023.

In her Certification, Cordova says that in June and July 2023 she repeatedly expressed her concerns and reservations to the building principal Sharples which is part of the reason why she failed to sign the new contract. In and of itself, I FIND that under basic contract law, there was no" meeting of the minds" between the parties that Cordova had committed to return for the 2023-24 school year. It was during this time that she began to explore other teaching opportunities. Pursuant to standard practice the underlying Petition which gave rise to this cause of action was signed Certified and Verified by Dr. Iachetti after the attorney for Chaiken and Cordova had put the District on notice that any subsequent action seeking suspension of their respective licenses would be deemed frivolous. Cordova also submitted a Certification by Luis Rojas the Assistant Superintendent of Schools for the Paterson School District which tendered an offer to Cordova in July 2023 after checking to make sure she was not under contract with Elmwood Park or any other district. The Certification, which was also not countered, sets forth the process under which Cordova was hired, and the potential hardship and prejudice to both Paterson and Cordova if the requested suspension was implemented. Among other things, Mr. Rojas represented in his Certification that Paterson would not have hired Ms. Cordova if she was under contract with Elmwood Park, but his vetting process led Paterson officials to the conclusion that Ms. Cordova was not under contract as a non-tenured teacher who had fulfilled her contractual obligations to Elmwood Park at the end of June 2023.

Recognizing that the contract remained unsigned, on August 3, 2023, Cordova received a communication from the District asking her to return the signed contract. I FURTHER FIND this constitutes an acknowledgment by the District that there was no new contract for the 2023-24 school year between the parties. Later that month, Cordova picked up her personal belongings and submitted a formal resignation to the District.

On September 7, 2023, Cordova's attorney Alfred Maurice put the District on notice that any subsequent proceeding seeking to suspend Cordova's license would be deemed overzealous and frivolous and appropriate relief would be sought against the District.

I FIND the District ignored the written notice issued by attorney Maurice, and similar to the Chaiken matter above, filed the within action against Cordova, which I ALSO FIND was brought in bad faith, as it was intended to intimidate a less experienced, on-tenured employee into returning for another year, after she had already fulfilled her obligations to the District, and had made a decision to seek employment elsewhere.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The Elmwood Park Board of Education, by its Superintendent Dr. Anthony Iachetti, seeks relief from the New Jersey Department of Education under its jurisdiction to impose a one-year suspension against both respondents Kamber Chaiken and Evelyn Cordova for their alleged respective failure to comply with the 60-day notice requirements as set forth under the New Jersey teacher tenure law.

In so doing, the Board relies on the language of N.J.S.A. 18A 26-10 which states that " a teaching staff member employed by a board of education who shall, without the consent of the board, cease to perform his duties before the expiration of his employment, shall be deemed unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may, (not shall) upon receiving notice thereof, suspend his certificate for a period not exceeding one year."

As to a teacher's obligations with respect to resignation of employment, N.J.S.A. 18A:8-8 defines Notice of intention to resign as applicable to: Any teaching staff member, under tenure of service (emphasis added) desiring to relinquish his position, shall give the employing board of education at least 60 days written notice of his intention, unless the board shall approve a release on shorter notice and if he fails to give such notice, he shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct and the commissioner may (not shall) suspend his certificate for not more than one year".

Here, it is undisputed that both Chaiken and Cordova, each of whom had only been employed for one year by Elmwood Park, were both non-tenured teachers, whose contracts ended on June 30, 2023. The Board seeks to apply the notice provisions of the tenure law to each of these non-tenured teachers, and also seeks to start the 60-day notice provision at the conclusion of their non-tenured additional service as Summer ESY teachers, even though those positions were part-time and non-contractual.

While important to promoting the integrity of providing consistent and reliable teaching to meet the needs of a district's students, our courts have consistently held that the notice provisions apply to tenured teachers, especially those who leave their positions in the middle of a school year. See: Penns Gove-Carney Point Bd. of Ed. v. Leinen, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 405. See also: Stokes v. Gray Charter School, (2011 WL 13812) (App. Div 2010), wherein the Court ruled that the 60-day notice requirement does not apply to a non-tenured teacher.

Applying the undisputed facts to the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that since both sides have essentially submitted the same relevant documents, I would not learn anything further from a full hearing on the merits, and I THEREFORE CONCLUDE that the case can be decided as a matter of law. I CONCLUDE the District has both misapplied and improperly interpreted that tenure law which it seeks to enforce against two non-tenured teachers. The facts are clear that neither Chaiken nor Cordova had signed a contract to return for a second year starting September 1, 2023. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE there was no mutually signed contract which both teachers and the District agreed upon, therefore under basic principles and concepts of contract law, I CONCLUDE there was no "meeting of the minds" that a new contract existed after June 30, 2023. In order for a contract to be enforceable, a contract must meet several legal requirements. Such criteria include, offer, acceptance, meeting of the minds and performance are some of the critical aspects of contract law. See: Tyler at Frist Street LLC, App. Div. A-2234-20 Decided March 23, 2023. A party bringing a breach of contract claim must demonstrate i) that a contract existed between the parties, ii) that the defendant breached a duty imposed by the contract, iii) the plaintiff performed their obligations under the contract and iv) the plaintiff was damaged as a result of the breach. King v. GNC Franchising, Inc., Civ. No. 04-5125 2007 WL 1521253 (D. N.J. May 23, 2007).

I am unable to CONCLUDE that the District has demonstrated that any of those four elements exist, and/or that there is a mutually signed contract to enforce. While there may have been an offer from the District to both teachers, I CONCLUDE THERE WAS NO ACCEPTANCE by either non-tenured teacher. Accordingly, with the expiration of both Chaiken's and Cordova's first contracts, I CONCLUDE that as non-tenured teachers whose contracts had expired, they had no further obligations to the District, and there was no legitimate basis for the Superintendent to seek this relief against them seeking suspension of their teaching certificates before the Commissioner of Education. Thus, I CONCLUDE the Order to Show Cause and any related Respondent appeal must be Dismissed with prejudice.

Further, I CONCUDE The Stokes decision stands for the proposition that the 60-day notice requirement does not apply to non-tenured teachers. As non-tenured teachers who have completed their first year of service to the District, and who did not sign a new contract, I THEREFORE CONCLUDE the notice provision does not apply to these teachers, and the relief sought by the District asking for a suspension of up to one year of their teaching licenses was an inappropriate and frivolous use of the tenure statute the intent of which is supposed to be utilized in situations where tenured teachers seek to leave employment in the middle of a contract and not after a contract has expired. Thus, I CAN ONLY CONCLUDE that the District's attempt to use the statute and Order to Show Cause mechanism strictly as a penal measure was frivolous, unfair, ill-suited and unprofessional. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Order to Show Cause must and should be DISMISSED with prejudice as should any related District appeal

Finally, having Concluded this proceeding was a frivolous and overzealous use of the tenure statute, and having Further Concluded that on September 7, 2023, attorney Alfred Maurice, counsel for both Respondents Chaiken and Cordova put the District on notice that they should either withdraw the action or it would be considered a frivolous matter, in the event this Decision is adopted by the Commissioner, both Respondents shall have the right to apply for counsel fees in the appropriate forum.

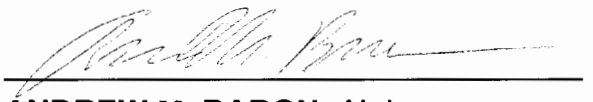
ORDER

I hereby FILE this initial decision DISMISSING THE ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE and any related District appeal with prejudice together with the relief requested therein with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration. Having ORDERED that the underlying action was disingenuous and frivolous, in the event this Decision is adopted by the Commissioner, both respondents shall have the right to apply for counsel fees and costs in the appropriate forum.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 29, 2024
DATE



ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: February 29, 2024

Date E-Mailed to Parties: February 29, 2024

lr

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

None

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner as to Kamber Chaiken:

P-1 Kamber Chaiken Contract dated June 29, 2022
P-2 Board resolution dated May 23, 2023 as to Chaiken
P-3 Proposed Chaiken contract dated June 5, 2023 for 2023-24 school year
P-4 8/1/23 Chaiken email to Dr. Iachetti
P-5 8/4/24 Iachetti email to Chaiken
P-6 8/15/23 Iachetti email to Chaiken
P-7 8/31/23 Chaiken email to Iachetti
P-8 9/1/23 Iachetti email to Chaiken advising of non-release
P-9 8/31/23 Chaiken email to Iachetti
P-10 9/1/23 Iachetti email to Chaiken
P-11 9/14/23 Sharples email to Chaiken

For Petitioner as to Evelyn Cordova:

P-1 Contract dated November 23, 2022
P-2 Board resolution May 23, 2023
P-3 Proposed contract dated June 5, 2023
P-4 8/14/23 Cordova email to Sharples
P-5 8/28/23 Cordova email to Iachetti
P-6 8/31/23 Iachetti letter to Cordova
P-7 9/6/23 Sharples email to Cordova
P-8 9/14/23 Sharples email to Cordova

For Respondent Kamber Chaiken

R-1 Contract dated June 29, 2022
R-2 Proposed unsigned contract dated June 5, 2023
R-3 Chaiken email to Iachetti 8/1/23
R-4 Iachetti email to Chaiken 8/4/23
R-5 Chaiken email to Iachetti 8/31/23
R-6 Iachetti email to Chaiken 9/1/23
R-7 Attorney Maurice letter to Iachetti 9/7/23
R-8 Sharples email to Chaiken 9/14/23
R-9 Chaiken Certification

For Respondent Evelyn Cordova

R-10 Atty Maurice 9/7/23 letter to Sharples
R-11 Unsigned proposed contract dated June 5, 2023
R-12 6/15/23 Iachetti letter to Cordova with postmark
R-13 8/28/23 Cordova email to Iachetti
R-14 Cordova Certification
R-15 Luis Rojas Certification

188-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Christopher Crocco,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Cranford, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner alleged that respondent, Board of Education of the Township of Cranford (Board), is not providing students with the mandatory curriculum in the arts "...set forth by the New Jersey Department of Education". The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition because neither the New Jersey Department of Education nor New Jersey statutes and regulations mandate a specific curriculum for visual and performing arts. Petitioner opposed the motion to dismiss, asserting that there are State-mandated standards and curriculum for music, visual arts, dance, and theater, but provided no evidence of any mandatory curriculum.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: while the State may require district boards of education to align their curriculum to assist students in achieving the skills and knowledge specified in the New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS), there is no mandatory curriculum in Music, Visual Arts, Dance or Theater in New Jersey; instead, school districts are free to design and implement programs in the arts so long as they align with the standards outlined in the NJSLS; and the rules of procedure governing petitions of appeal permit a respondent to submit a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer "on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true or for lack of jurisdiction, failure to prosecute or other good reason." In this case, petitioner has failed to advance a cause of action because there is no State-mandated curriculum in the arts that the Board is required to offer its students, and the ALJ concluded that the petition should be dismissed. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion and dismissed petitioner's appeal.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and determination of the ALJ and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

188-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13740-23
Agency Dkt. No. 305-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Christopher Crocco,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Cranford, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and respondent Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

This matter involves petitioner's claim that the Board is not offering the "mandatory curriculum governing Music, Visual Arts, Dance, and Theater" to its students. The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition, asserting that neither the New Jersey Department of Education (Department) nor New Jersey statutes or regulations mandate a specific curriculum for Visual and Performing Arts. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted the Board's motion upon concluding that petitioner had not advanced a cognizable cause of action because there is no State-mandated curriculum in Visual and Performing Arts that the Board is required to offer. Rather, school districts are free to design and implement their arts curricula so long as they align with the New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS) for Visual and Performing Arts.

In his exceptions, without specifically identifying what the discrepancy is, petitioner now argues that the Board's curriculum does not align with the NJSLS for Visual and Performing Arts. He also asserts that children attending school in the district are not literate in music and fine arts. In reply, the Board reiterates that districts are given the discretion to develop curricula that will enable students to demonstrate the knowledge and skills specified in the NJSLS.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner did not advance a cognizable cause of action in his petition because there is no State-mandated curriculum in Visual and Performing Arts that the Board is required to offer. Although petitioner contends in his exceptions that the Board's curriculum does not align with the NJSLS for Visual and Performing Arts, vague and conclusory allegations unsupported by facts are not sufficient to withstand a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim.

Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss the petition is granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 10, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSING THE PETITION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13740-23
AGENCY DKT. 305-11/23

CHRISTOPHER CROCCO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF CRANFORD, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.

Christopher Crocco, petitioner, pro se

Jennifer Osborne, Esq., for respondent (Cornell, Merlino, McKeever & Osborne, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 22, 2024 Decided: March 4, 2024

BEFORE SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Christopher Crocco (Crocco or petitioner), filed a petition alleging that respondent, Board of Education of the Township of Cranford (the Board or respondent) is not providing students with mandatory curriculum in the arts. The Board filed for dismissal, asserting that petitioner advanced no cause of action, because no such State-mandated curriculum exists.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petitioner filed his petition with the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes on or around November 13, 2023. On of around December 1, 2023, the respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss in lieu of an answer. The Office of Controversies and Disputes subsequently transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on December 5, 2023. The petitioner filed an opposition to the Motion to Dismiss, and the respondent filed a reply, which was received by the undersigned on January 22, 2024.

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Crocco filed a Petition of Appeal specifically alleging that the Board and Superintendent: "have failed to insure [sic] the mandatory curriculum governing Music, Visual Arts, Dance, and Theater. The curriculum must be taught to each grade level K-12. Teachers all across Cranford are not teaching the mandatory curriculum set forth by the New Jersey Department of Education." Pursuant to the Petition of Appeal, Crocco asserts that the Board "should be held accountable and provide the mandatory education for every single K-12 student encompassing Music, Visual Arts, Dance and Theater under the law." He also requests that the Department of Education investigate Cranford's Music and Arts program, and he seeks a "formal plan and timeline" from the Superintendent and Board as to how they will "implement the required changes to bring the curriculum up to date." Moreover, Crocco seeks "in-service and supplemental education" for Board teachers, and an "in-depth audit" of all music and fine arts teachers to hold them individually accountable "for the proper implementation of the state[-]mandated curriculum."

Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss because, it asserts, neither the State of New Jersey Department of Education nor New Jersey statutes and regulations mandate a specific curriculum for visual and performing arts. This is also reflected in a certification signed by the Board's superintendent. The respondent references the New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS), which "specify expectations" in nine academic content areas, including visual and performing arts, and the New Jersey Student Learning Standards - Visual and Performing Arts (NJSLS-VPA). The Department describes the NJSLS as offering "the foundation on which districts build coherent curriculum and plan instruction," and NJSLS-VPA as being "designed to guide the delivery of arts education in the classroom." The Board asserts that while there may be standard-based guideposts in the area of the visual and performing arts, there is no mandated curriculum. The respondent also asserts that the petitioner's requested relief cannot be provided.

Petitioner filed an opposition to the motion to dismiss. He asserts that there are State-mandated standards and curriculum for music, visual arts, dance and theater, but he provided no evidence of any mandatory curriculum. In opposition to the motion, Crocco references at least three legal cases and a regulation, none of which expressly mandate curricula in the arts, as well as guidelines approved by the State Board for music education. He also recounts alleged hearsay statements by Cranford principals in which they agree that the curricula at their schools do not meet State standards for visual and performing arts.

The Board filed a reply in which it repeats its position that there is no mandated specific curriculum for the visual and performing arts in New Jersey, and that the petitioner's arguments are without merit. The Board notes that while New Jersey regulations, including N.J.A.C. 6A:8-1.1, et. seq., specify expectations in nine academic content areas, including Visual and Performing Arts, school districts maintain the discretion to determine the manner in which educational instruction is delivered, referencing N.J.A.C. 6A:8-3.1. It acknowledges that the NJSLS offer a "foundation on which districts build coherent curriculum and plan instruction," but that there is no law requiring a district to teach Visual and Performing Arts in a particular way so long as its curricula enables students to demonstrate the knowledge and skill specified in the NJSLS.

Having considered the papers submitted in support of and in opposition to the Motion to Dismiss, I FIND as FACT that the Petition of Appeal expressly asserts that the Board and its teachers have failed to teach "mandatory curriculum" for Music, Visual Arts, Dance and Theater, and the petitioner seeks accountability for the Board's alleged failure to offer and properly implement State-mandated curriculum. While New Jersey may require district boards of education to align their curriculum to assist students in achieving the skills and knowledge specified in the NJSLS, I FIND that there is no mandatory curriculum in Music, Visual Arts, Dance or Theater in New Jersey. Rather, school districts are free to design and implement programs in the arts so long as they align with standards outlined in the NJSLS.

The rules of procedure governing petitions of appeal filed with the New Jersey State Board of Education permit a respondent to submit a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer "on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true or for lack of jurisdiction, failure to prosecute or other good reason." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g); N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. Here, even accepting the petitioner's allegations, as set forth in the Petition, as true, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action because there is no State-mandated curriculum in the arts that the Board is required to offer its students. Consequently, I CONCLUDE that the Petition for Due Process should be dismissed.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the motion to dismiss filed by the Board of Education of the Township of Cranford is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that the petition be and hereby is DISMISSED without prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

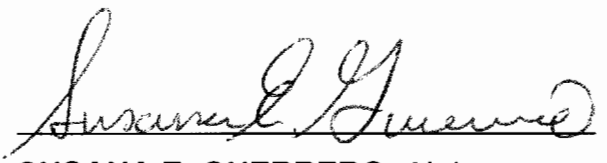
Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

March 4, 2024
DATE



SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: March 5, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties:

jb

189-24R
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00882-24
Agency Dkt. No. 365-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.G., on behalf of minor child, A.G.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the West Essex Regional School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Petitioner challenges a harassment, intimidation, and bullying determination made by the West Essex Regional Board of Education. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) scheduled a telephone conference regarding petitioner's appeal for March 18, 2024. After petitioner failed to appear, a second telephone conference was scheduled for March 26, 2024. Petitioner again failed to appear, and the ALJ dismissed the matter.

Upon review, the Commissioner disagrees with the ALJ that the matter should be dismissed based on petitioner's failure to appear. The Initial Decision indicates that the scheduling notices were sent to the parties via email. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.5(c), scheduling notices must be sent by regular mail unless emergent needs require otherwise. There is no indication in the record that the telephone conferences were emergent. Moreover, while sending scheduling notices via email may be acceptable in many circumstances, such as in cases when all parties or attorneys routinely communicate with the OAL via email, the record here demonstrates that the incorrect email address was used to send notices to petitioner.[1] Given the lack of certainty that petitioner ever received the scheduling notices, the Commissioner finds that dismissal is inappropriate.[2]

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 10, 2024

[1] The Commissioner acknowledges that the ALJ used the email address listed for petitioner on the transmittal form and apologizes for the inconvenience caused by the typographical error on that form. Petitioner's correct email address is reflected elsewhere in the file.

[2] If the scheduling notices were also sent to petitioner via regular mail, the ALJ may clarify that fact on remand.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00882-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 365-12/23

T.G., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.G.
Petitioner,
v.
WEST ESSEX REGIONAL SCHOOL District BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

T.G., parent of A.G., petitioner, pro se

Patrick F. Carrigg, Esq., for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Carrigg, Lang & Casey, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 26, 2024 Decided: April 17, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 17, 2024. Petitioner alleges that her minor son A.G. was the subject of harassment, intimidation, bullying ("HIB") and discrimination by one of his teachers employed by the West Essex District Board of Education ("District"). Petitioner filed this action as an appeal to a determination by the District that the actions of A.G.'s teacher did not constitute HIB.

Notice that a prehearing telephone conference would take place at 2:30 pm on March 18, 2024 was sent via email to petitioner on March 1, 2024. Counsel for the District appeared for the prehearing conference on March 18, 2024 and no one appeared on behalf of petitioner. There was also no communication from petitioner indicating she would not or could not attend. A second prehearing conference was then scheduled for March 26, 2024 and notice was again sent to petitioner via email. Included in this second notice was the following statement:

> NOTICE - You failed to appear at the initial prehearing conference scheduled for March 18, 2024. YOUR FAILURE TO APPEAR AT THIS RESCHEDULED PREHEARING CONFERENCE ON MARCH 26, 2024 AT 2:00 PM MAY RESULT IN THE DISMISSAL OF YOUR APPEAL.

Despite receipt of specific notice that their complaint might be dismissed, petitioner failed to appear for the rescheduled prehearing conference. There has also been no communication from petitioner indicating why she did not appear or if she intended to pursue this appeal.

As a result of petitioner's failure to appear at both scheduled prehearing conferences and failure to provide this tribunal with any reason for her absence, I CONCLUDE that this is no longer a contested case before the OAL.

ORDER

Accordingly, It is ORDERED that this matter be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

William A. Courtney

April 17, 2024

DATE

WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:

J.B.

190-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDE 05711-22
State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 2122-141
Agency Dkt. No. 03-01/24A

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of David Haggerty, State Board of Examiners,
New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Revocation by the State Board of Examiners, dated December 8, 2023

For the Respondent-Appellant, Matthew B. Wieliczo, Esq., and Amy L. Gillette, Esq.

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, David L. Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record and submissions filed in connection with David Haggerty's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board) revoking his Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, standard Teacher of Health and Physical Education certificate, and Principal Certificate of Eligibility. Following the issuance of an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) and a hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that appellant held a license issued by the Ohio Department of Education that was issued in 2013, marked inactive in 2018, and extended through 2021 due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The ALJ further found that appellant submitted a copy of his certificate to a potential employer called Edmentum, showing that it was issued in 2020 and effective through 2025. In response to an inquiry from Edmentum, an administrative professional from the Ohio Department of Education indicated that appellant had not applied in 2020 and that he believed appellant may have altered the dates on the certificate. Thereafter, appellant voluntarily surrendered his Ohio educator credentials. The Board was notified of the surrender, whereupon it issued the OTSC.

The ALJ determined that the issue in this matter was whether appellant surrendering his Ohio license was conduct unbecoming a teacher in New Jersey. The ALJ found that appellant had not admitted to submitting a fraudulent document and Ohio had not adjudicated the allegation that he had altered the dates on his certificate. The ALJ concluded that appellant had not engaged in unbecoming conduct and that revocation of his certificates was not warranted. Accordingly, the ALJ granted appellant's motion for summary decision.

Upon its review, the Board found that the ultimate issue in this matter is whether the act of submitting an altered or inaccurate document for purposes of employment is conduct unbecoming a certificate holder. The Board acknowledged that Ohio did not adjudicate the allegations against appellant and that appellant denies that he acted knowingly or fraudulently in submitting the certificate to Edmentum. Nonetheless, the Board concluded that submitting a bogus, altered, or inaccurate document for the purposes of employment is unbecoming conduct. Accordingly, the Board concluded that appellant had committed unbecoming conduct warranting the revocation of his certificates.

On appeal, appellant argues that the underlying conduct was never substantiated in the context of a tenure arbitration or any other proceeding, nor did they touch on appellant's New Jersey teaching certificates or employment. Appellant indicates that when he was applying for employment with Edmentum, he was no longer in possession of a copy of his teaching certificate, so he contacted a friend and requested a copy that was saved to a spare computer in her possession. Appellant indicates that he submitted the certificate to Edmentum without reviewing it. According to appellant, he voluntarily surrendered his Ohio certificate because he did not need it, having been teaching in New Jersey since 2001. Appellant contends that the Board was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable in determining that its burden of proof had been met based on unsubstantiated allegations from another state agency. Additionally, appellant argues that even if the Commissioner concludes that he committed unbecoming conduct, the penalty of revocation is overly punitive and inconsistent with penalties in other matters. Appellant argues that the Board did not acknowledge his prior good conduct and deprived him of a hearing on the allegations at issue.[1]

Upon review, the Commissioner concludes that the record contains insufficient information to determine whether the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, as appellant asserts. Both parties moved for summary decision before the ALJ. However, the Commissioner concludes that there were disputed issues of material fact regarding how the certificate came to be altered that are critical to the determination in this matter. The issue in this case is not, as the ALJ found, whether appellant surrendering his Ohio license was conduct unbecoming a teacher in New Jersey, but rather whether the underlying action of submitting a certificate to Edmentum that was at best inaccurate and at worst fraudulent was unbecoming conduct, and what the appropriate penalty should be. Appellant has proffered an explanation for the altered certificate, but he has not testified under oath regarding that explanation, nor has an ALJ had the opportunity to listen to his testimony and make a credibility determination.

[1] Appellant also argues that the Board's deadline to adopt, modify, or reject the Initial Decision was December 29, 2023, but the Order of Revocation was not issued until January 2, 2024. Therefore, according to appellant, the Initial Decision should be deemed adopted. The Commissioner rejects appellant's argument, as there is no evidence that the Board acted in bad faith, with inexcusable negligence, or gross indifference. See King v. N.J. Racing Comm'n, 103 N.J. 412 (1986). The record reflects that the Board voted to revoke appellant's certificates on December 8, 2023, in advance of the deadline, and that the decision memorializing the vote was issued only three days after the deadline.

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the State Board of Examiners for further fact-finding consistent with this opinion.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 10, 2024

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
DAVID HAGGERTY	:	ORDER OF REVOVCATION
_____	:	DOCKET NO: 2122-141

At its meeting of March 4, 2022, the State Board of Examiners (Board) reviewed information it received from the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification and the Ohio State Board of Education (Ohio) regarding David Haggerty (Haggerty). Haggerty voluntarily surrendered his Ohio educator certificate after it was alleged that he modified a license to secure employment.

Haggerty currently is the holder of a Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, issued October 2001, a standard Teacher of Health and Physical Education certificate, issued July 2002, and a Principal Certificate of Eligibility, issued March 2016. After reviewing the above information, the Board voted to issue an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) to Haggerty as to why his certificates should not be suspended at its meeting on April 7, 2022.

The Board sent Haggerty the Order to Show Cause by regular and certified mail on April 12, 2022. The Order provided that Haggerty must file an Answer within 30 days. Haggerty answered the Order to Show Cause on May 3, 2022. Because there were material facts in dispute, the Board transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on July 11, 2022 for hearing as a contested case. The matter was heard by Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Kim C. Belin on cross motions for summary decision filed by the parties on April 21, 2023, and fully briefed on June 6, 2023. In the Matter of the Certificates of David Haggerty, Dkt. No. EDE 05711-22 (Initial Decision, August 16, 2023).

After reviewing the evidentiary materials presented by the parties in their respective motions, the ALJ found the relevant facts, that no material facts were in dispute as to whether Haggerty engaged in conduct unbecoming of a teacher and the matter was ripe for summary decision. (Initial Decision, slip op. at p. 2-6, 8). Specifically, the ALJ found that Haggerty held a five-year Multi-Age, Health and Physical Education license, issued by the Ohio Department of Education in 2013, that was marked inactive in 2018, but extended through 2021, due to Covid-19; that the Ohio certificate that Haggerty sent to Edmentum showed an issue date of October 16, 2020, and effective through June 30, 2025; that Edmentum sent an inquiry to the Ohio Office of Educator Licensure seeking to verify the effective dates of Haggerty's teaching credentials; and that an administrative professional with the Ohio Office of Educator Licensure responded that Haggerty had not applied in 2020 and that he believed Haggerty may have altered the issue year and effective years on the Ohio certificate. Id. at 2-3.

Further, the ALJ found that "the Board received notice from the Ohio Department of Education that Haggerty voluntarily surrendered his Ohio educator credentials after it was alleged that he proffered a fraudulent Ohio educator certificate to Edmentum for employment purposes." Id. at 8. The ALJ determined that the issue in this matter was "whether [Haggerty] surrendering his out-of-state license was conduct unbecoming a teacher in New Jersey." Id. at 9. Following a discussion of case law presented on behalf of the board, the ALJ reasoned that each was distinguishable because Haggerty had not admitted to submitting a fraudulent document nor had Ohio adjudicated the allegations that Haggerty had altered the issue and effective dates on his Ohio credential that he submitted to Edmentum. Id. at 9-11. Due to the foregoing, the ALJ found that the Board did not meet its burden to prove that Haggerty's decision to relinquish his Ohio certificates is evidence of unbecoming conduct in New Jersey and concluded revocation of Haggerty's certificates was not warranted. Id. at 11-12. As a result, the ALJ denied the Board's motion for summary decision and granted Haggerty's motion for summary decision. Id. at 12.

The Deputy Attorney General (DAG) representing the Board filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision. The DAG argued that the facts found by the ALJ warrant a finding of unbecoming conduct and a penalty of revocation. In his Exceptions, the DAG recounted the documentary evidence presented that Edmentum had emailed the Ohio Department of Education to request clarification regarding the license Haggerty submitted as part of a job application. (Exceptions, p. 2). Following a review of its records, the Ohio Department of Education discovered that it issued Haggerty an Ohio certificate in 2013, which was marked inactive in 2018, but had been extended through 2021 due to Covid. Id. at 3. And the certificate that Haggerty submitted to Edmentum had the same credential number as the one it issued in 2013, although it had an issue date of October 16, 2020. Ibid. The Ohio Department of Education also discovered that Haggerty submitted an application in July 2021 which was declined because Haggerty held a license that should be properly renewed. Ibid. The DAG noted that the OTSC stated that Haggerty voluntarily surrendered his Ohio educator credential following allegations that he proffered a fraudulent educator credential to Edmentum, and that the nature and level of Haggerty's alleged conduct, and the surrender of his Ohio certificates provides just cause for the consideration of the revocation of his New Jersey certificates. Id. at 6-7. In his responses to discovery requests, Haggerty admitted that his Ohio five-year certificate was issued in 2013 and that the certificate he submitted to Edmentum had an issue date of 2020. Id. at 7.

The DAG had asserted in the motion for summary decision that the "Board has consistently revoked the certificates of teachers who were unable to proffer any explanation for how a falsified document that they admittedly submitted for employment came to be forged or altered, regardless of whether that teacher claimed to have done so inadvertently or unknowingly." Id. at 8-9. However, the ALJ rejected the Board's reliance on IMO the Certificate of William Beltran, Agency Dkt. No. 1011-156 (Sept. 20, 2013), In re Shaffer, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDE) 1, State Bd. Of Educ. (May 2, 1991), and IMO the Certificate of Sandi I. Tannen, Agency Dkt. No. 471-04/98-161 (Sept. 24, 1998) as misplaced because she found these matters "inapposite and factually distinguishable" from the Haggerty matter. Id. at 9.

The DAG argued that the ALJ failed to fully account for evidence presented establishing that Haggerty admitted to submitting a fraudulent teaching certificate when applying for employment at Edmentum. Id. at 11. The DAG recounted the evidence demonstrated that Haggerty admitted that: he was issued his Ohio certificate in 2013, which was extended to June 2021 due to Covid-19; he was never granted an Ohio certificate with an issuance date of October 16, 2020; the certificate Edmentum received from Haggerty had an issue date of October 16, 2020; his July 2021 application for a new Ohio certificate was declined because he held a license that should be properly renewed; and he personally submitted the fraudulent Ohio certificate, with the October 16, 2020 issue date, to Edmentum but denied he did so on purpose and "the reason he did so was because 'he did not review the document' before submitting it, and therefore, he 'was not aware of the dates reflected on the certificate.'" Id. at 12-13. As a result, the DAG maintained that while Haggerty claims he never intended to submit a fraudulent version of his Ohio certificate to Edmentum, the evidence demonstrated that because Haggerty never received a new Ohio certificate following his application in July 2021, he must have been aware that he no longer held a valid Ohio certificate when he submitted his job application to Edmentum in September 2021. Id. at 13. And contrary to the ALJ's conclusion, the DAG emphasized that the Board's authority to revoke or suspend an individual's teaching credentials is not dependent on the determinations of other agencies, i.e. the Ohio Department of Education. Id. at 16-17.

Regarding the ALJ's determination that the case law cited was inapposite, the DAG stressed that in Schaffer and in Tannen, the Board rejected claims of inadvertent error because where no credible explanation is provided as to where they obtained the "bogus certificate" guilty knowledge can be imputed. Id. at 16. Further, the DAG underscored that in IMO Certificate of William Green, Agency Dkt. No. 506-01/99-213 (April 6, 2000), the Board rejected Green's statement as not credible – that he never applied for a job at a district that received an application from him along with fraudulent standard certificate with his name on it – and revoked his certificates reasoning that, pursuant to Shaffer, "Green's inability to explain the existence and submission of the bogus certificate is sufficient to impute culpability." Id. at 18. The DAG stressed that, based on Green, Shaffer and Tannen, the Board should reject the ALJ's conclusion that the DAG failed to demonstrate revocation of Haggerty's certificate was warranted and find that Haggerty's failure to offer any credible explanation for how the bogus Ohio certificate came into existence is sufficient to impute his culpability warranting revocation of his certificates. Id. at 19.

In his Reply Exceptions, Haggerty argued that the Initial Decision should be adopted because the ALJ did not make any judicial errors with the Decision and the Board failed to produce competent and credible evidence sufficient to meet its burdens of proof on the OTSC. (Reply Exceptions, p. 5). Haggerty contends that the DAG, in his exceptions, rehashes and reasserts all of the same arguments presented to and rejected by the ALJ and improperly makes new arguments and cites new legal authority that should be disregarded and not considered. Id. at 1-2. Furthermore, Haggerty argues that the DAG's exceptions should be rejected as there is no legal or factual basis to allow the Board to substitute its opinion and position for the detailed and well-reasoned opinion and Decision of the ALJ. Id. at 2. Haggerty stresses that the evidence detailed in the DAG's exceptions does not establish that he admitted that he altered the issue year and/or effective years. Id.

at 3. Haggerty maintains that the DAG's exceptions propose a finding of fact that Haggerty "must have been aware" that his Ohio certificate was no longer valid when he submitted it in support of a job application to Edmentum and that such an exception is not proper. Id. at 3-4. Finally, in rejecting the DAG's assertion that the record establishes that Haggerty uploaded an altered certificate, Haggerty argues that the ALJ "was clear in determining that the Board could not prove by a preponderance of competent and credible evidence that [Haggerty] engaged in unbecoming conduct that warrants a suspension or revocation[.]" Id. at 4. Consequently, Haggerty contends that the Board should adopt the Initial Decision, granting his motion for summary decision and dismissing the OTSC. Id. at 5.

The Board must now determine whether to adopt, modify or reject the Initial Decision in this matter. At its meeting of October 27, 2023, the Board reviewed the Initial Decision, Exceptions and Reply Exceptions. After full and fair consideration of the Initial Decision and the administrative record, the Board voted to reject the Initial Decision of the ALJ dismissing the OTSC and find unbecoming conduct based on the facts determined by the ALJ, warranting revocation of Haggerty's certificates.

"Teachers ... are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of ... school children. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." Tenure of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. The Board disagrees with the ALJ's legal determination that the issue in this matter is whether Haggerty surrendering his out of state license was conduct unbecoming. (Initial Decision at 9). Rather, the ultimate issue in this matter is whether the act of submitting an altered or inaccurate document for purposes of employment is conduct unbecoming a certificate holder. A finding or admission that the certificate holder altered the document is not necessary in this matter.

As noted above, after assessing the proffered evidence, the ALJ made several findings of fact in this matter. (Initial Decision at 2-6). It is undisputed that Haggerty uploaded an Ohio certificate to Edmentum in furtherance of an employment application. Id. at 6. The certificate received by Edmentum showed an issue date of October 16, 2020 and effective dates of July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2025. Id. at 3. Edmentum sought to verify with the Ohio Office of Educator Licensure (Ohio Office) the effective dates of Haggerty's teaching credentials. Ibid. Haggerty's five-year Multi-Age, Health and Physical Education license was issued in 2013, marked inactive in 2018, but extended through June 30, 2021 due to Covid-19. Id. at 2. The Ohio Office advised Edmentum that Haggerty had not applied in 2020, but had applied for a new certificate in July 2021, which was declined because Haggerty held a license that should be properly renewed. Id. at 3. The Ohio Office found discrepancies between the credential report on the database and the license Edmentum provided from Haggerty. Ibid. As a result, the Ohio Department of Education opened a case to investigate the allegations that Haggerty may have engaged in conduct unbecoming. Ibid. Prior to any determination in that Ohio case, Haggerty voluntarily surrendered his Ohio teaching credentials in lieu of formal disciplinary proceedings. Id. at 3-4.

Based upon the ALJ's factual findings, the Board has determined that Haggerty's actions constitute unbecoming conduct. Edmentum received a certificate that had discrepancies and Haggerty admits he submitted the document to Edmentum. Thus, Haggerty committed unbecoming conduct when he submitted a bogus, altered and/or inaccurate document to Edmentum. The Board acknowledges that the allegations before the Ohio Department of Education were never adjudicated. And that Haggerty denies he submitted the document to Edmentum "on purpose" or acted knowingly or fraudulently in submitting the bogus certificate to Edmentum. However, Haggerty's intent here is irrelevant to the determination of whether his conduct was unbecoming. Submitting a bogus, altered or inaccurate document for the purposes of employment is unbecoming conduct. The Board agrees with the DAG that the appropriate response for such conduct is revocation of his certificates.

Accordingly, on October 27, 2023, the Board voted to reject the Initial Decision dismissing the OTSC, adopt the factual findings in the Initial Decision, find unbecoming conduct warranting the revocation of Haggerty's certificates. On this 8th day of December 2023, the Board formally adopts the factual findings in the initial decision, finds unbecoming conduct warranting the penalty of revocation. It is therefore ORDERED that David Haggerty's Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, standard Teacher of Health and Physical Education certificate, and Principal Certificate of Eligibility are hereby revoked, effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that Haggerty return his certificates to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Recruitment, Certification and Preparation, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within 30 days of the mailing date of this decision.

Rani Singh, Secretary
State Board of Examiners

RS/SMN

Date of Mailing:
via certified and regular mail

Appeals may be made to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38.4.

192-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Alexander Cardillo,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Paterson,
Passaic County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, formerly employed as a nontenured library media specialist with the Board, was non-renewed prior to the 2019-2020 school year due to a reduction in force (RIF). Petitioner discovered in 2022 that the Board had hired another person as a librarian and contended that because of the RIF, he should have been subject to recall based on his seniority. Petitioner asserted that the Board should have offered him the librarian position before it hired another individual. The Board filed a motion to dismiss, contending that petitioner failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted since nontenured employees do not have recall rights under New Jersey law.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: reemployment following a RIF is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12, which by its terms applies only to tenured employees; petitioner's contention that the Paterson Board of Education Policy 3146 includes recall rights for employees terminated as the result a RIF is without merit, as that policy is consistent with state law and affords recall rights and seniority only to tenured staff members; and petitioner does not have a cause of action since neither state law nor board policy provide recall rights to nontenured employees. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for failure to state a claim.

The Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions and adopted the comprehensive Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for failure to state a claim was granted.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

192-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10182-22
Agency Dkt. No. 290-10/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Alexander Cardillo,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Paterson, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner was formerly employed as a nontenured library media specialist with the Board. On May 13, 2019, the Board informed him that his employment would not be renewed due to a reduction in force (RIF). According to petitioner, Board meeting minutes from September 2022 reflect that the Board subsequently hired a librarian. He asserts that because of the RIF in 2019, he should have been subject to recall based upon his seniority and that the Board should have offered him the librarian position before hiring another individual. The Board moved to dismiss the petition on grounds that it failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted because nontenured employees do not have recall rights under New Jersey law.

Upon review, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for failure to state a claim. The ALJ reasoned that "[e]ven accepting all of petitioner's alleged facts as true, the petitioner does not have a cause of action" because "neither state law nor board policy provide recall rights to nontenured employees." Initial Decision, at 9. The ALJ concluded that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12, which addresses reemployment based on seniority after a RIF, is not applicable to nontenured employees. The ALJ further concluded that Board Policy 3146 "is consistent with state law, affording recall rights and seniority only to tenured staff members." Initial Decision, at 10. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for failure to state a claim.

In his exceptions, petitioner argues that the ALJ did not apply the correct standard of review when he dismissed the petition. Petitioner contends that he alleged sufficient facts to support a cause of action which the ALJ should have accepted as true. Petitioner claims that if the action had been permitted to move forward, he would have presented proofs to establish that the Board has previously recalled nontenured faculty after their separation from the district, thereby applying its RIF policy to both tenured and nontenured faculty.[1]

In reply, the Board argues that the Initial Decision should be adopted by the Commissioner. The Board asserts that the ALJ applied the correct standard of review when dismissing the petition for failure to state a claim. It further contends that the ALJ correctly concluded that nontenured staff members whose employment is not renewed do not have recall rights under either state law or Board Policy 3146.

---

[1] Petitioner also contends that the ALJ should have held oral argument on the motion to dismiss the petition because he requested same. However, he was not entitled to oral argument at the OAL. The Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, at N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.2(d), provide that "[a]ll motions in writing shall be decided on the papers unless oral argument is directed by the judge." Thus, "it was within the ALJ's discretion to decide the written motion without oral argument." R.P. v. Bd. of Educ. of Hunterdon Centr. Reg'l High Sch. Dist., Hunterdon Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 188-20 at 4 (Aug. 27, 2020).

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the comprehensive Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. Petitions are subject to dismissal by the Commissioner "on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. This standard also appears in New Jersey Court Rule 4:6-2(e), which permits a motion for judgment on the pleadings for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. See Jonathan Wadley v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., Office of Student Prot., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09223-22, Initial Decision at 4-5 (Mar. 10, 2023), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 110-23 (Apr. 11, 2023) (assessing respondent's motion to dismiss pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10 under the standards used by courts when analyzing Rule 4:6-2 motions). Such motions "must be evaluated in light of the legal sufficiency of the facts alleged" in the petition. Sickles v. Cabot Corp., 379 N.J. Super. 100, 106 (App. Div. 2005) (quoting Donato v. Moldow, 374 N.J. Super. 475, 482 (App. Div. 2005)). While petitioner is not expected to prove his case at the pleadings stage, the petition must contain factual "allegations, which, if proven, would constitute a valid cause of action." Ibid. (quoting Leon v. Rite Aid Corp., 340 N.J. Super. 462, 472 (App. Div. 2001)). Ultimately, a petition must be dismissed for failure to state a claim "if it has failed to articulate a legal basis entitling [petitioner] to relief." Ibid.

The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12, "Reemployment in order of seniority," is not applicable to nontenured employees. "The Legislature's intent is the paramount goal when interpreting a statute, and, generally, the best indicator of that intent is the statutory language." DiProspero v. Penn, 183 N.J. 477, 492 (2005). Statutory language should be read "in context with related provisions so as to give sense to the legislation as a whole." Ibid. Accordingly, it is important to recognize that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12 is codified in Title 18A, Chapter 28 ("Tenure"), Article 3, which is titled "Effect of Reduction of Force Upon Persons Under Tenure." Nontenured employees are not referenced within Chapter 28. Provisions related to employment of nontenured employees are codified within Chapter 27. See, e.g., N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 (mandating requirements for notice of continued employment to nontenured teaching staff members).

Moreover, New Jersey's courts have consistently held that Title 18A, Chapter 28 "does not purport to create employment rights for nontenured employees." Kaprow v. Bd. of Educ. of Berkeley Twp., 131 N.J. 572, 585 (1993) (quoting Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Educ., 221 N.J. Super. 239, 242 (App. Div. 1987)). "[N]ontenured teachers whose contracts are not renewed by reason of a RIF are not entitled to the reemployment rights conferred by Chapter 28." Bednar, 221 N.J. Super. at 242. See Union Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Bd. of Educ. v. Union Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Tchrs. Ass'n, 145 N.J. Super. 435, 437 (App. Div. 1976) ("[N]ontenured teachers whose contracts of employment are not renewed by reason of a reduction in force plainly are denied any reemployment rights whatever . . . ."); Bd. of Educ. of Englewood v. Englewood Tchrs' Ass'n, 150 N.J. Super. 265, 270 (App. Div. 1977) ("The determination not to renew the contract of a nontenured teacher is a discretionary matter for the local board, and where it results from a reduction in force there exists no right of reemployment."). Additionally, "[s]eniority is a by-product of tenure and comes into play only if tenure rights are reduced by way of dismissal or reduction in tangible employment benefits." Carpenito v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Rumson, 322 N.J. Super. 522, 531 (App. Div. 1999). Therefore, employees who have not acquired tenure "have no right to seniority nor to a place on the preferred eligibility list" for purposes of reemployment following a RIF. Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 586.

Notably, petitioner's exceptions neither address the significance of the plain language within Title 18A, Chapter 28, nor related controlling case law. Instead, petitioner relies primarily upon Board Policy 3146 in support of his contentions. With respect to Board Policy 3146, which cites Title 18A, Chapter 28, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that it affords recall rights and seniority only to tenured staff members. Boards of education are not empowered to adopt policies or otherwise act in a manner inconsistent with the laws codified in Title 18. N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c). See Atl. City Educ. Ass'n v. Bd. of Educ. of Atl. City, 299 N.J. Super. 649, 654 (App. Div. 1997) ("A local Board is a creature of the State and may exercise only those powers granted to it by the Legislature either expressly or by necessity or fair implication."). As a matter of law, Board Policy 3146 cannot extend reemployment rights to nontenured faculty as petitioner alleges. See Bednar, 221 N.J. Super. at 242 ("[N]ontenured teachers whose contracts are not renewed by reason of a RIF are not entitled to the reemployment rights conferred by Chapter 28."). Neither the Board nor the Commissioner may "erode[] tenure rights which appear plain on the face of the statute, [and] which . . . can be removed only by the Legislature." Id. at 243. Even assuming the facts alleged by petitioner are true—i.e., that the Board has extended reemployment rights to nontenured staff in the past based upon Board Policy 3146—that fact cannot provide a legal basis for petitioner's claims. Therefore, petitioner has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for failure to state a claim is granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 15, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 16, 2024

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10182-22
AGENCY DKT. 290-10/22

ALEXANDER CARDILLO,

Petitioner,

v.

CITY OF PATERSON BOARD OF EDUCATION,

PASSAIC COUNTY,

Respondent.

Juan C. Fernandez, Esq., for Petitioner (Fernandez Garcia, LLC, attorneys)

Kyle J. Trent, Esq., for Respondents (Apruzzese, McDermott, Mastro & Murphy, PC, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 5, 2024 Decided: April 10, 2024

BEFORE THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, a former nontenured staff member at Paterson Public Schools was let go during a reduction in force and alleges that when the respondent later hired another employee to a similar position, he should have been recalled or offered the job. The matter at issue is whether nontenured staff members at Paterson Public Schools have a recall right following a reduction in force.

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

Alexander Cardillo, the petitioner, was a nontenured library media specialist at Paterson Public Schools. The petitioner was months away from receiving tenure when on May 13, 2019, he was informed that his employment would end on June 30, 2019, due to a reduction in force (RIF). Cardillo asserts that he was the most senior nontenured library media specialist in the District. The petitioner asserts that because of the RIF that occurred in 2019, the District had a callback list based on seniority. He asserts that by January 2023, the District had hired more than 149 teachers from 2022-2023. He asserts that September 2022 Board minutes show the District hired a librarian and did not offer the position to him first. The petitioner asserts that because of the RIF in 2019, he should have been subject to recall and been offered the position before others could have received it. The petitioner asserts that respondent violated law and policy when it did not recall him or offer him the position prior to hiring another individual.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or around October 18, 2022, the petitioner filed a petition with the Department of Education alleging that the Paterson Board of Education violated policy and practice when it did not call him back to work following a reduction in force. On or about November 8, 2022, respondent, the Paterson Board of Education, filed a motion to dismiss the petition in lieu of an answer. On or about November 14, 2022, the Department of Education transmitted the petition as well as the motion to the Office of Administrative Law. A hearing was held on the matter on November 15, 2023, where the filing of an amended petition was discussed. The petitioner filed an amended petition on December 29, 2023. On January 18, 2024, the respondent filed a motion to dismiss the amended petition in lieu of answer. On February 1, 2024, the petitioner filed an opposition to the motion to dismiss the amended petition. And on February 5, the respondent filed a reply.

On or about March 13, 2024, the matter was transferred from the Hon. Elissa Testa to the Honorable Thomas R. Betancourt.

MOTION TO DISMISS

I. Respondent's Arguments for Dismissal

Respondent argues in its motion to dismiss the amended petition that the petitioner has failed to state a claim where relief may be granted. Respondent states that "as a non-tenured former employee whose employment ended contemporaneous to a RIF, Cardillo was and is not entitled to any seniority, recall, or reemployment rights under the law or District Policy." Resp't Mot. to Dismiss 6. Respondent points to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12 and N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1 and says that under the law seniority and reemployment rights only apply to those with tenure. Respondent cites to Lichtman v. Board of Education, 93 N.J. 362, 368 n. 4 (1983) where the New Jersey Supreme Court stated, "Seniority, on the other hand, provides a mechanism for ranking all tenured teaching staff members so that reductions in force and reemployment can be effected in an equitable fashion and in accord with sound educational policies" (signaling to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10 to -12). Respondent points out that the reduction in force laws under New Jersey Statute are titled, "Article 3. Effect of Reduction of Force Upon Persons Under Tenure (§§ 18A:28-9 — 18A:28-14)." Respondent quotes from the Superior Court, Appellate Division, stating, "The determination not to renew the contract of a nontenured teacher is a discretionary matter for the local board, and where it results from a reduction in force there exists no right of reemployment." Board of Education v. Englewood Teachers' Ass'n, 150 N.J. Super. 265, 270 (App. Div. 1977) (signaling to Union County Regional High School Board of Education v. Union County Regional High School Teachers Ass'n, 145 N.J. Super. 435 (App. Div. 1976), certif. den. 74 N.J. 248 (1977)).

The respondent disputes that Paterson Board of Education policy provides the petitioner with any callback rights, explaining that Board Policy 3146 which addresses reduction in force "expressly implements the law and does not extend additional rights . . . " Resp't Mot. to Dismiss 8. Furthermore, respondent states that the policy itself never mentions providing nontenured employees with any type of seniority or recall rights. And furthermore, respondent states that petitioner's deposition testimony exhibits (which come from a superior court case between the same parties) omit the testimony which contradicts the petitioner's assertions, and that the full deposition testimony of respondent's officials shows that nontenured employees do not have seniority or callback rights.

II. Petitioner's Arguments Against Dismissal

Petitioner argues that the undersigned should deny the respondent's motion to dismiss because the Commissioner did not grant the dismissal prior to transmittal. Petitioner cites to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10 to support this argument.[1] Petitioner responds to respondent's arguments for dismissal by stating:

> Despite BOE policy and testimony that non-tenured teachers have rights to be recalled as a result of a Reduction of Force ("RIF"), the BOE argues that such rights do not exist for non-tenured teachers. In support of this assertion, the BOE utilizes extraneous and disputed testimony to attack the veracity of the allegations made by Mr. Cardillo. This is simply impermissible and contrary to the standard of review articulated in Rule 6A:3-1.10 and case law.
>
> [Pet'r Opp'n Mot. 2-3]

[1] N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10 states:

> Dismissal or transfer of petition
>
> At any time prior to transmittal of the pleadings to the OAL, in the Commissioner's discretion or upon motion to dismiss filed in lieu of answer, the Commissioner may dismiss the petition on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true or for lack of jurisdiction, failure to prosecute or other good reason.

Petitioner says "that the BOE is compelled by law to determine and create guidelines for the hiring of all staff (the Amended Petition, ¶ 3), and that law and BOE Policy determine staff hiring and recall rights. (See Amended Petition, ¶¶ 4 and 6)." Pet'r Opp'n Mot. 3. Petitioner says that "testimony from the very top School Administrators – including the school district's own Superintendent – confirm that Policy 3146, the conduct of the RIF, and recall of faculty apply to both tenured and non-tenured staff. (See Shafer T80:1-10, T80:11-18; T81:7-14; Rojas T42:1-19; Moody-Stephens T49:3-15)." Pet'r Opp'n Mot. 6-7. Petitioner claims "that there are sufficient facts at issue regarding non-tenured staff rights and their recall rights when they are subject to a RIF" and that therefore this case should not be dismissed. Pet'r Opp'n Mot. 4-5. The petitioner says that there needs to be a hearing to determine the factual issue of whether nontenured teachers have recall rights. Furthermore, petitioner requests oral argument if the respondent's motion is entertained.

III. Respondent's Reply to Petitioner's Opposition

In response, Respondent points to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g) which states in part regarding motions to dismiss in lieu of answer, "Briefing on such motions shall be in the manner and within the time fixed by the Commissioner, or by the ALJ if the motion is to be briefed following transmittal to the OAL." Respondent says that that this shows the ALJ can rule on a motion to dismiss. Furthermore, respondent points out that the motion to dismiss was filed after transmittal given the filing of the amended petition. Respondent also states that it was within its rights to provide the remaining parts of the deposition testimony petitioner had originally provided, since the remaining parts show petitioner's arguments to be incorrect. To that end, respondent relies on R. 4:16-1(d) which states, "If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require the offering party to introduce any other part which ought in fairness be considered with the part introduced, and any party may offer any other parts." Furthermore, respondent states that any claim from when the reduction in force occurred in 2019 would be time barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i).

Legal Discussion

I. Standards for a Motion to Dismiss

Upon the filing of a petition before the Commissioner of Education, a respondent can file a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g). The Commissioner can grant a motion to dismiss in lieu of answer "on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true or for lack of jurisdiction, failure to prosecute or other good reason." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. "[T]he test for determining the adequacy of a pleading: whether a cause of action is 'suggested' by the facts." Printing-Mart Morristown v. Sharp Electronics Corp., 116 N.J. 739, 746 (citing to Velantzas v. Colgate-Palmolive Co., 109 N.J. 189, 192 (1988)). And the "inquiry is limited to examining the legal sufficiency of the facts alleged on the face of the complaint." Ibid. (citing Rieder v. Department of Transportation, 221 N.J.Super. 547, 552 (App.Div.1987)). Furthermore, "On a motion to dismiss a complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, all facts alleged in the complaint and the legitimate inferences drawn therefrom are deemed admitted." Smith v. Newark, 136 N.J. Super. 107, 112 (1975). (citing Heavner v. Uniroyal, Inc., 63 N.J. 130, 133 (1973); J.H. Becker, Inc. v. Marlboro Tp., 82 N.J. Super. 519, 524 (App. Div. 1964)). When "reviewing a motion under Rule 4:6-2(e), a court may consider documents referred to in the complaint, matters of public record, or documents explicitly relied on in the complaint, without converting the motion to dismiss into one for summary judgment." New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection v. Occidental Chemical Corp., 2012 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 899, *41 (App. Div. 2012) (signaling N.J. Citizen Action, Inc. v. County of Bergen, 391 N.J. Super. 596, 605 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 192 N.J. 597, (2007); New Jersey Sports Productions, Inc. v. Bobby Bostick Promotions, L.L.C., 405 N.J. Super. 173, 178, (Ch. Div. 2007); Acevedo v. Monsignor Donovan High School, 420 F. Supp. 2d 337, 340 (D.N.J. 2006)).

II. Relevant Law

Reemployment following a RIF is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12, which by its terms applies only to tenured employees: "Effect of Reduction of Force Upon Persons Under Tenure (§§ 18A:28-9 — 18A:28-14)." N.J.S.A. § 18A:28-12 states in part:

> Reemployment in order of seniority
>
> If any teaching staff member shall be dismissed as a result of such reduction, such person shall be and remain upon a preferred eligible list in the order of seniority for reemployment whenever a vacancy occurs in a position for which such person shall be qualified and he shall be reemployed by the body causing dismissal, if and when such vacancy occurs and in determining seniority, and in computing length of service for reemployment, full recognition shall be given to previous years of service, and the time of service by any such person in or with the military or naval forces of the United States or of this State . . .
>
> [N.J.S.A. § 18A:28-12]

N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1 provides the "[s]tandards for determining seniority." And under the New Jersey Administrative Code, "Each district board of education or private agency that provides educational services by means of public funds shall determine guidelines for the hiring of all staff." N.J.A.C. § 6A:32-4.1.

Paterson Board of Education Policy 3146 states:

> CONDUCT OF REDUCTION IN FORCE
>
> When teaching staff member positions have been abolished, in accordance with Board Policy No. 3112, the Board of Education will transfer and/or dismiss affected teaching staff members as required by law.
>
> No tenured teaching staff member will be transferred or dismissed in a reduction in force affecting a category of employment in which a nontenured teaching staff member is employed. When two or more nontenured teaching staff members are employed within the category affected by a reduction in force, the nontenured teaching staff member(s) shall be retained in that category who has demonstrated greater competence.

> Tenure and seniority entitlements will govern the transfer and dismissal of tenured teaching staff members affected by a reduction in force, except that, when two or more tenured teaching staff members within the same employment category affected by a reduction in force possess an identical seniority entitlement to that category, the teaching staff member(s) shall be retained in that category who possesses the greater scope of certification.
>
> The Superintendent shall collect and maintain the information requisite to the calculation of each tenured teaching staff member's seniority status. The Superintendent shall develop and maintain district seniority lists and shall recommend dismissals and transfers in a reduction in force in accordance with those lists. No seniority list shall be a public document or published in the absence of a reduction in force or reemployment from a preferred eligible list.
>
> Teaching staff members affected by a reduction in force will be informed of their seniority status and of the effect of the reduction in force on their employment, as promptly as possible after the Board's action to abolish positions. Wherever possible, the Board will give sixty days notice of a pending dismissal. If notice cannot be given a full sixty days before the end of the employee's service, salary in lieu of notice will be given for the remaining notice period beyond the end of service.
>
> N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1; 18A:28-9 et seq.
>
> N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1
>
> Cross reference: Policy Guide Nos. 0166, 3122
>
> Adopted: 31 October 2002
>
> Revised: 19 March 2008
>
> [Paterson Board of Education Policy 3146]

Additionally, Paterson Board of Education Policy Regulation 3146 implements Policy 3146 (see Appendix).

III. Analysis

A. Petitioner's sole claim that he should have been recalled is dismissed

I am not persuaded by respondent's argument that petitioner's claims are time barred. The argument might be meritorious if petitioner was seeking a remedy for the events that occurred in 2019 with the reduction in force. But here, petitioner is asserting that he should have been recalled in 2022 and is not bringing any claim specific to what occurred in 2019. Furthermore, it has not been shown to the undersigned that petitioner filed beyond the permitted 90-day time period of when he knew or should have known regarding another individual being hired instead of him being recalled. Rather, based on the facts as alleged by the petitioner, Board minutes from September 2022 show the hiring of a librarian and the petitioner then filed the following the month. Therefore, the undersigned must examine the relevant law related to recall rights following reduction in force.

Even accepting all of petitioner's alleged facts as true, the petitioner does not have a cause of action. To have a cause of action in regard to not being recalled, law and/or policy would need to provide recall rights for that specific individual. Upon review of the relevant law and policy, it is evident that petitioner did not have any type of recall right following the reduction in force in 2019. Petitioner was a nontenured library media specialist and neither state law nor board policy provide recall rights to nontenured employees.

1. State Law

N.J.S.A. 18A:28-12, which describes reemployment based on seniority after a reduction in force, is not applicable to nontenured employees. It is specifically found in chapter 28 which addresses tenure and within Article 3 which is named, "Effect of Reduction of Force Upon Persons Under Tenure (§§ 18A:28-9 — 18A:28-14)." Nor does N.J.A.C. § 6A:32-5.1, which provides the "[s]tandards for determining seniority," afford recall rights to nontenured staff members. Furthermore, respondent correctly cites to Lichtman v. Board of Education, 93 N.J. 362, 368 n. 4 (1983) where the New Jersey Supreme Court states, "Seniority, on the other hand, provides a mechanism for ranking all tenured teaching staff members so that reductions in force and reemployment can be effected in an equitable fashion and in accord with sound educational policies" (signaling to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10 to -12). Seniority only applies to tenured staff members. As the Superior Court, Appellate Division, states, "The determination not to renew the contract of a nontenured teacher is a discretionary matter for the local board, and where it results from a reduction in force there exists no right of reemployment." Board of Education v. Englewood Teachers' Ass'n, 150 N.J. Super. 265, 270 (App. Div. 1977) (signaling to Union County Regional High School Board of Education v. Union County Regional High School Teachers Ass'n, 145 N.J. Super. 435 (App. Div. 1976), certif. den. 74 N.J. 248 (1977)).

2. Board Policy

A review of the language of Paterson Board of Education Policy 3146 shows that it is consistent with state law, affording recall rights and seniority only to tenured staff members. The first sentence of the policy states, "When teaching staff member positions have been abolished... the Board of Education will transfer and/or dismiss affected teaching staff members as required by law." Thus, at the outset, the reduction in force policy establishes state law as its guiding post. And furthermore, at the bottom of the policy, it references 18A:28-9 et seq. (Effect of Reduction of Force Upon Persons Under Tenure). Also, the policy only references nontenured staff members twice. In the first instance, the policy addresses the situation in which a decision needs to be made between two nontenured staff members. Instead of using seniority - which is connected to recall rights - the policy dictates that "the nontenured teaching staff member(s) shall be retained in that category who has demonstrated greater competence." The only other time the policy references nontenured staff is to show that a tenured employee has priority over a nontenured employee. Regulation 3146 also does not show seniority or recall rights for nontenured employees (see appendix).

Nothing in the deposition testimony of respondent's senior staff members undermines respondent's position that recall rights only apply to tenured staff members. For example, when asked "Do you have an understanding that once an individual is RIF'd from Paterson, there is a policy callback that individual if the position becomes available?" Assistant Superintendent Luis M. Rojas who works in human resources responded, "If they're tenured, yes. If they are nontenured, no." (Trent Cert., Ex. 1, Rojas Dep Transcript 33-14 to -19). When questioned about the language of Policy 3146, he also notes that the policy references the relevant statutes and code. He also stated, "I can only tell you, in practice, what I have done since 2006 has been what I've already testified to." (Trent Cert., Ex. 1, Rojas Dep Transcript 37-22 to -24). And former Superintendent Eileen Shafer said, "Non-tenured don't have seniority." (Trent Cert., Ex. 2 79-17 to -20.). Other questions posed during deposition about specific language in the policy, seem to parse the language out of context and, in any event, do not support a finding that Board policy affords recall rights to nontenured staff.

The undersigned finds that neither state law nor board policy provide for the recall/callback rights of nontenured staff members in Paterson Public Schools.

IV. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the petitioner as a former nontenured staff member does not have recall/callback rights, and therefore does not have a cause of action. The respondent's motion is GRANTED and the case is DISMISSED.

ORDER

The respondent's motion to dismiss the petition is hereby GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 10, 2024
DATE

THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:

bs/db

193-24
SEC Dkt. No. C04-20
OAL Dkt. No. EEC 10952-20
Agency Dkt. No. 9-8/23A

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Shawn Giordano, Lacey Township Board of Education,
Ocean County

This matter involves an appeal of the School Ethics Commission's (SEC) July 25, 2023, determination that appellant – President of the Lacey Township Board of Education (Board) – violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1 (f) of the School Ethics Act (Act) by directing the Board attorney to conduct research on a fellow Board member, Regina C. Discenza. Appellant and Discenza filed ethics complaints against each other, resulting in motion practice. Ultimately, the counts against appellant were reduced to those cited above, as well as N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1 (c), which appellant was found to have not violated. The SEC recommended that appellant be censured for the violation. Having carefully reviewed the SEC's decision and the record in its entirety, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's decision that appellant violated the Act is supported by sufficient, credible evidence, and that appellant failed to establish that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). The Commissioner further finds that the SEC appropriately assessed the penalty of a censure.

The events in question involve the Board election in November 2019. Appellant and Discenza had a historically acrimonious relationship, and Discenza campaigned against appellant. Appellant lost the election. One day later, he instructed the Board attorney to investigate Discenza about potential violations concerning her conduct during the election, including her alleged video endorsement of candidates while wearing her Board of Education badge. The Board attorney completed a memo regarding Discenza's conduct, which was reflected on a legal bill. The Board reviewed and approved the November 2019 legal bill on December 6, 2019, which is when Discenza and one other board member first became aware of the matter. The legal bill had fifteen entries marked "Member Conduct," for which the Board attorney billed 33.9 hours of research, totaling $5,085.

On appeal, appellant argues that he was authorized to contact the Board attorney pursuant to Board Policy 0174, as he was one of three designated contacts who may "request services or advice from contracted legal counsel" as Board President. The other two authorized positions able to seek assistance of legal counsel, according to the Policy, were the Superintendent and the Business Administrator. Appellant submitted certifications from five other Board members, indicating that they each individually contacted him to both discuss the matter and to authorize the research by the Board attorney; however, no quorum was ever reached due to their individual discussions. Appellant argues that any inferences regarding the timing or the topic of the research that may stem from the parties' acrimonious relationship are explained by the certifications of the other five Board members. Appellant also points to the fact that, in a separate proceeding, Ms. Discenza was found to have violated a portion of the School Ethics Act, supporting his argument that his actions were justified.

In opposition, the SEC argues that appellant's long tenure on the Board, years of ethics trainings, and his position as Board President should have made him aware of the potential ethical violations of his actions. The SEC contends that appellant's use of Board resources by contacting the Board attorney immediately after losing the election to request information about Discenza – whom he actively disliked and who had openly campaigned against him – demonstrated bad faith. According to the SEC, the combination of appellant's personal dislike for Discenza, the timing of the request following the election, and appellant's unilateral decision to instruct the Board attorney to investigate without consulting with the full Board, Superintendent, or Business administrator demonstrate that he violated the Act. The SEC argues that this erosion of public trust warrants a censure instead of a reprimand.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) states that "[n]o school official shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family, or others." In determining a violation, the question is not whether a school board member intended to secure an unwarranted benefit for themselves or others, but whether a reasonable person could infer that such was the reason for their conduct. See Friends Retirement Concepts v. Borough of Somerville, Bd. Of Educ., 356 N.J. Super. 203, 214 (Law Div. 2002). Similarly, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), Board members swear to, "...refuse to surrender [their] independent judgment to special interest or partisan political groups or to use the schools for personal gain or the gain of friends."

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), Board members agree that they will "recognize that authority rests with the board of education and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that may compromise the board." In support of this statute, "N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)(5) provide[s] that evidence that a '[board member] made personal promises or took action beyond the scope of his or her duties' shall support a finding that a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) occurred." Persi v. Woska, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 625, *20 (App. Div. Mar. 10, 2017).

The record demonstrates that Discenza actively campaigned against appellant, and they had a history of mutual dislike. Additionally, the timing of the request on the day after appellant lost the election, and the brief time span the appellant had to act until he would no longer be a Board member, support the SEC's conclusions. In light of these facts, the Commissioner finds that it was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable for the SEC to conclude that the public could infer that the appellant requested the research against Discenza to secure an advantage for himself and for his own personal gain. Nor was it arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable for the SEC to conclude that appellant took action that could compromise the Board.

Pursuant to Policy 0174, appellant was authorized to contact the Board attorney regarding legal issues. However, there were other options available to appellant. For example, appellant could have asked the Board to vote on the research request before contacting the Board attorney. Alternatively, appellant could have requested an advisory opinion from the SEC, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 12-31. This free option could have potentially saved the district $5,085, but it may not have achieved results prior to the end of appellant's term. Another option would have been for appellant to file an ethics complaint directly against Discenza, as she did to him, without the use of the Board attorney research and the unnecessary expense to the Board. Instead of availing himself of one of these options, appellant took action that created the appearance to the public that he was using his position for personal gain.

Furthermore, in light of the seriousness of appellant's actions, the Commissioner finds that the penalty of censure is appropriate.

Accordingly, appellant is hereby censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 15, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 16, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
OAL Docket No.: EEC-10952-20
SEC Docket No.: C04-20
Final Decision

I/M/O Shawn Giordano,
Lacey Township Board of Education, Ocean County
Respondent

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed with the School Ethics Commission (Commission) on January 13, 2020, by Regina C. Discenza (Complainant), alleging that Shawn Giordano (Respondent), a member of the Lacey Township Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., when he directed Board counsel to conduct research on another Board member who had campaigned against him in a recent election. More specifically, Complaint asserted that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) (Count 1), as well as N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b) (Count 5 and Count 8), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) (Count 2), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) (Count 3 and Count 6), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) (Count 4, Count 7, and Count 9) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code).[1]

On February 24, 2020, Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer (Motion to Dismiss), and also alleged that the Complaint is frivolous. On March 20, 2020, Complainant filed a response to the Motion to Dismiss and allegation of frivolous filing.

At its meeting on May 19, 2020, the Commission voted to deny the Motion to Dismiss as to the allegations in Counts 1-4, and to grant the Motion to Dismiss as to the allegations in Counts 5-10. The Commission also voted to find the Complaint not frivolous and to deny the request for sanctions. Based on its decision, the Commission voted to direct Respondent to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer) to the allegations in Counts 1-4. On June 1, 2020, Respondent filed an Answer as directed.

At its meeting on July 21, 2020, the Commission voted to find probable cause for the remaining allegations in this matter. Based on its finding of probable cause, the Commission voted to transmit the within matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing, and, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(b),[2] the attorney for the Commission (Petitioner) was charged with prosecuting the allegations in the Complaint which the Commission found probable cause to credit.

---

[1] The Complaint also alleged that Linda A. Downing violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b) (Count 8) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) (Count 9 and Count 10), and Harold "Skip" Peters violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b) (Count 8) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) (Count 9). The alleged violations against Respondent Downing and Peters were dismissed, and as such they are no longer parties in this matter.

[2] This citation refers to the regulation that was in effect at the time of the probable cause determination.

At the OAL, this matter was initially consolidated with a complaint against Discenza (C75-19). Following cross-motions on summary decision, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Order on Partial Summary Decision on February 27, 2023, that resolved the entire case as to Respondent Giordano. As such, the consolidated matters were severed, and the ALJ issued an Initial Decision on April 27, 2023, incorporating the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations of penalty pertaining to Respondent as stated in his February 27, 2023, Order on Partial Summary Judgment. Respondent filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Petitioner did not file a Reply.

At its meeting on June 27, 2023, the Commission considered the full record in this matter. Thereafter, at its meeting on July 25, 2023, the Commission voted to adopt the Initial Decision's findings of fact, legal conclusions that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), and voted to modify the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure.

II. Initial Decision and Order on Partial Summary Decision

The events giving rise to the within matter began on November 6, 2019, the day after the Board election in which Respondent lost his bid for reelection, when Respondent (Board President) "contacted the Board's attorney and requested that he conduct research regarding the conduct of Board member Discenza." Order at 5. The Board reviewed the November 2019 legal bill on December 6, 2019, which is when Complainant first became aware of the request. Ibid. The entire Board voted to ratify it, with the exception of Complainant, who abstained. Id. at 6. The bill had fifteen entries marked "Member Conduct," and the Board attorney billed for 33.90 hours of research, totaling $5,085. Ibid. According to Board policy, the Superintendent, the Business Administrator/Board Secretary, and the Board President have the authority to request services from the Board's counsel. Ibid.

In deciding the cross-motions for summary decision, the ALJ found both parties to the matter agreed there is "substantial negative prior history and continuing mutual disdain" between Respondent and Complainant, and as such, Respondent "violated the public trust" in making his request given the relationship between Respondent and Complainant; the timing and topic of Respondent's request (the day after he lost the election); and that other than seeking ratification of the legal bill, Respondent did not apprise the Board of the request or the results of the research. Id. at 16.

In concluding that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), the ALJ found Respondent "used his official position as Board President, as one of the three individuals authorized to contact the Board's attorney to request legal services and did so to secure an unwarranted advantage for himself against a political rival with whom he had a negative history." Id. at 17. The ALJ further found Respondent "failed to recognize the Board's authority" when he used school resources for personal reasons and failed to seek the Board's approval for his request beyond seeking ratification for the charges, and such "private action, by its very nature, compromises the integrity and accountability of the Board and its proper use of school resources." Ibid. Further, the ALJ explained that Respondent would not have had access to such resources but for his position on the Board. Ibid. However, the ALJ failed to find a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c). Ibid.

With respect to the appropriate penalty for the violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), the ALJ recommended a penalty of reprimand. Id. at 19. The ALJ found that since Respondent no longer serves on the Board, he cannot remove or suspend Respondent. Ibid. The ALJ notes that the violations are not de minimis, but given the totality of the circumstances, a reprimand is appropriate. Ibid.

III. Exceptions

In his exceptions, Respondent argues that summary decision was "premature and prejudicial" to Respondent as it prevented him from calling witnesses to testify on his behalf. Respondent contends the "OAL questionably determined that 'there is some dispute as to whether a board president can request legal services from the board's attorney without the prior formal consent or authorization of the board or the other two individuals authorized by the district to request such services.'" Respondent asserts there is no dispute because Board policy designates the Board President as one of the individuals authorized to request services, but alternatively, a dispute would establish a genuine issue of material fact, resulting in the need for a hearing. Additionally, Respondent argues the Initial Decision "incorporates hearsay" from the Complaint as fact, such as that the Board attorney's research or conclusions were not shared with other members of the Board or that the Superintendent or Board Secretary were not aware of the attorney's research, and Petitioner failed to provide any evidence to support those allegations. Respondent maintains that Petitioner failed to provide evidence of violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) because Respondent was authorized to contact the Board attorney for legal services, and he did so after discussing Complainant's conduct with other Board members. Respondent notes his "concerns were clearly warranted because the research . . . led to an ethics violation against Ms. Discenza and have now been sustained in the [pending] matter."

Respondent further argues that the ALJ's determination that he used his official position "to secure an unwarranted advantage for himself against a political rival" is irreconcilable with the OAL's determination that there was a reasonable basis to request legal research if the basis of that research resulted in ethics charges against Complainant. Respondent reiterates that Board policy did not require an affirmative vote or resolution to request legal services, and he was authorized to contact the Board attorney and was "clearly within his right to request legal research from the Board Attorney on potential unethical conduct of another board member."

Respondent attached certifications to demonstrate that a majority of the Board had discussed the matter and agreed that Respondent should request legal research. As such, Respondent urges the Commission to reverse the Initial Decision, and at the very least, reopen the matter for a hearing on the merits.

Petitioner did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision and/or a reply to Respondent's exceptions.

IV. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission agrees with the ALJ that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f). The Commission is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c). However, the Commission modifies the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) prohibits a board member from using or attempting to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others. The ALJ properly concluded Respondent used his official position as Board President to secure an unwarranted advantage for himself. The parties agreed that Respondent and Complainant had a substantial negative history and mutual disdain for each other. Respondent used his position as an individual authorized to contact the Board's attorney to direct the Board attorney to conduct legal research regarding Complainant's conduct. This was done to gain a personal advantage against Complainant, with whom he had a significant negative history. As a result of Respondent's request, the Board's attorney performed almost 34 hours of research and cost the District's taxpayers over $5,000.00.

The Commission also agrees that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). Under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), a board member must recognize that authority rests with the board and a board member shall not make any personal promises or take any action that may compromise the board. Requesting legal research for personal reasons constitutes private action, or action beyond the scope of Respondent's duties as a Board member. The ALJ appropriately concluded "[t]his private action, by its very nature, compromises the integrity and accountability of the Board and its proper use of school resources."

Additionally, the Commission agrees with the ALJ that Respondent's actions also constitute a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f). Under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) a board member must refuse to surrender independent judgment to special interest or partisan political groups or to use the schools for personal gain or for the gain of friends. Respondent used the school's resources for his own personal gain. Respondent utilized the Board's legal counsel to get information regarding someone he personally disliked, and he would not have had access to those resources absent his position as Board President.

Finally, the Commission finds Respondent's actions did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) as he did not take official action to effectuate policies and plans without consulting those affected, nor did he take action that was unrelated to his duty to: develop the general rules that guide the management of the District; formulate the programs and methods to effectuate the District's goals; or ascertain the value or liability of a policy.

The Commission is not persuaded by Respondent's exceptions. Respondent filed a cross-motion for summary decision, but only because he was not successful, does he now argue that the matter should proceed to a hearing. It is irrelevant that Complainant also faced ethics charges; whether another Board member committed an ethics violation does not justify Respondent's actions. While Respondent argues that he was authorized by Board regulation to seek services from the Board attorney, the Commission notes that his request was beyond the scope of his duties as a Board member as it was motivated by his own personal animus for a political rival. Finally, the certifications Respondent attached to his exceptions are not part of the record; regardless, whether Respondent spoke to other Board members to validate his desire to obtain research about Complainant, it does not change that he made the request for personal reasons which goes beyond the scope of his duties.

While the ALJ recommended a penalty of reprimand for Respondent's violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), the Commission modifies the recommended penalty of reprimand to censure. The Commission agrees with the ALJ that the Respondent's blatant use of Board resources for his own motivations was not de minimis, but finds that considering the facts in the record and the totality of the circumstances, a penalty of censure is justified.

In this regard, the Commission notes that Respondent was elected to the Board in 2013 and remained a Board member until he lost his bid for re-election in 2019. Respondent was on the Board for at least six years and rose to the position of Board President. Given his Board experience and years of ethics trainings, he should have been acutely aware of his ethical obligations under the Act. The Commission also finds the timing of Respondent's violation to be noteworthy. Respondent lost the election, and the very next day used his position as Board President, which he would only hold until January 2020, when his term would end, to seek information about a fellow Board member who campaigned against him. The fact that Respondent contacted the Board attorney immediately after failing to be reelected further demonstrates the bad faith behind Respondent's request. Given the nature of, and relation to, his personal dislike for Complainant, the timing of his request immediately following the election, and that he did it without waiting to discuss it with the Superintendent, Board Secretary and/or the whole Board, the Commission finds such a violation is severe and warrants a censure instead of a reprimand.

IV. Decision

For all of the aforementioned reasons, the Commission adopts the Initial Decision's findings of fact and legal conclusions that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c). However, the Commission modifies the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure for the violations.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 25, 2023

Resolution Adopting Decision in Connection with C04-20

Whereas, at its meeting on July 21, 2020, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) voted to transmit the above-captioned matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing; and

Whereas, on February 27, 2023, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), issued an Order on Partial Summary Decision, which was incorporated into an Initial Decision dated April 3, 2023; and

Whereas, the ALJ found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), and recommended that Respondent be reprimanded; and

Whereas, Respondent filed exceptions to the Initial Decision but Petitioner did not file exceptions and/or a reply to Respondent's exceptions; and

Whereas, at its meeting on June 27, 2023, the Commission reviewed the record in this matter, discussed adopting the ALJ's conclusion that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), and discussed modifying the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 25, 2023, the Commission reviewed and voted to approve the within decision as accurately memorializing its actions/findings from its meeting on June 27, 2023; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, the Commission hereby adopts the within decision.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I hereby certify that this Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its regularly scheduled meeting on July 25, 2023.

Brigid C. Martens

Brigid C. Martens, Acting Director
School Ethics Commission

194-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 2724-23
Agency Dkt. No. 59-3/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.S., on behalf of minor child, L.W.

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Mount Ephraim, Camden County,

Respondent.

On August 7, 2023, a final agency decision was rendered in this matter, wherein the Commissioner found K.S. liable for tuition in the amount of $17,227.00 for a period of ineligible attendance by her minor child, L.W., in the Board's school district during the period from October 1, 2022, through June 15, 2023.

The Board subsequently requested that the Commissioner seek entry of the assessment on the judgment docket of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10. K.S. offered no reasons why the judgment against her should not be so docketed, although given an opportunity by this agency to do so. Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10, Kristina Scallatino is now subject to entry of a judgment by the court in the amount of $17,227.00, which represents the payment ordered at the conclusion of the case before the Commissioner, with interest to accrue as provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 15, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 16, 2024

195-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Finlay,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro-se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE) denying his request for a third extension of time to satisfy the requirements of New Jersey's Alternate Route teacher certification program. Specifically, in 2023, petitioner sought an additional two-year extension of his provisional certificate as a Teacher of Business: Finance/Economics, after having been granted extensions in 2019 and 2021. The SBE filed a motion to dismiss the petition.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner was issued his first provisional certificate in September 2017; the certificate was renewed in 2019; in 2021, petitioner's application for renewal of his provisional certificate was denied; petitioner appealed and was granted a renewal of his provisional certificate based on his specific circumstances; further, petitioner admitted that he has still not completed all of the academic coursework associated with the Alternate Route program, which he entered into more than six years ago. The ALJ concluded that petitioner has already been granted two renewals of his provisional certificate, which is the maximum permitted by law. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the SBE's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

195-24

OAL Dkt. No. 09353-23
Agency Dkt. No. 229-8/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Finlay,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner has already been granted two renewals of his provisional certificate, the maximum permitted by law.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The State Board of Examiners' motion to dismiss is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 15, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 16, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09353-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 229-8/23

ROBERT FINLAY,
Petitioner
v.
NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,
Respondent.

Robert Finlay, pro se

David Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: April 5, 2024 Decided: April 9, 2024

BEFORE: MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Appellant, Robert Finlay appeals the June 29, 2023 denial of his third renewal request of his provisional teaching certificate that had first been issued in 2017, then renewed for two years in July, 2019 and then for an additional year on October 28, 2021.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

In 2017, petitioner, Robert Finlay, was issued a provisional teacher's certificate. That certificate was renewed in July, 2019. During its meeting of October 28, 2021, the New Jersey Board of Examiners renewed his provisional certificate for one year. This decision was ratified on December 16, 2021. In 2023, Mr. Finlay requested another renewal of his provisional certificate. That request was denied, and his appeal of that decision was denied during the meeting of June 29, 2023. That decision was ratified on August 4, 2023.

On August 24, 2023, Mr. Finlay emailed a Petition for Appeal to the State Department of Education's Office of Controversies & Disputes ("OCD"). After supplying proof of service on respondent the following day, on August 29, 2023, that appeal was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") where it was received on September 18, 2023 for a hearing as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

Prior to the matter being forwarded to the OAL, on September 14, 2023, in reply to the filing, the State Board of Examiners filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer.

An initial conference was held on October 3, 2023 at which time, after a detailed discussion of the case, a briefing schedule was set with Mr. Finlay being given until November 8, 2023 to either find an attorney, file opposition to the Motion to Dismiss or withdraw his appeal. Since that telephone conference, Mr. Finlay has not communicated with the Court, nor did he reply to a December 14, 2023 email from respondent requesting that its Motion be considered unopposed.

Having given Mr. Finlay more than sufficient time in which to communicate with the Court and having not heard from him, the record was formally closed on April 5, 2024.

INITIAL FINDINGS OF UNDISPUTED FACT

The following FACTS of the case are not in dispute:

1. In September, 2017, appellant, Robert Finlay was issued a provisional Teacher of Business: Finance/Economics/Law Certificate by the State Board of Examiners in furtherance of his attempt to obtain full certification pursuant to the "Alternate Route" program. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9A-5.1 et seq.

2. Per N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.5(a), in July, 2019, Mr. Finlay's provisional certificate was renewed since he had "not yet completed the requirements for the standard certificate."

3. In 2021, Mr. Finlay applied for another two-year renewal of his certificate. That application was initially denied.

4. Mr. Finlay appealed that denial and at its October 28, 2021 meeting, that appeal was granted by the State Board of Examiners. That decision was formalized in an Order dated December 16, 2021. (Exhibit R-2.)

5. In 2023, appellant applied for a third two-year renewal of his provisional certificate. This application was considered during the Board's June 29, 2023 meeting and was denied by Order dated August 4, 2023. (Exhibit R-1.)

6. That decision was appealed by Mr. Finlay on August 25, 2023. (Exhibit R-3.)

7. To date, Mr. Finlay has yet to complete the requirements for a standard certificate.

APPEAL

In his appeal to the Board, Mr. Finlay wrote:

> The New Jesey (sic) Dept. of Education State Board of Examiners has denied my application for a provisional certificate "he has not demonstrated enough effort or progress towards completion of the required alternate route program in the nearly six years since receiving his initial provisional certificate."

While I have not completed the required course work it isn't from lack of effort. When I originally began pursuing my Teacher of Business: Finance/Economics/Law certificate. I was enrolled through the Rutgers Alternate Route program. After completing Stage II I was informed by the administrators at Brookdale Community College that the Rutgers Alternate Route program was not the recognized alternate route program for this certification. At no point during this process did I have a mentor or anyone to officially guide me through the process. Everything was done by trial and error. And I admit there were many missteps by me during this process but at no point did I stop attempting to complete the process.

I did all I could to become the best teacher I could be. Whenever possible I took additional classes for professional development in order to improve my teaching abilities and expand my knowledge of the materials used for teaching my classes. I immersed myself in the daily life of Bloomfield High. Volunteering to supervise after school activities and coaching multiple sports. I developed a positive rapport with my students. During this time, I continued to receive above average observations from my Principal and Supervisor. I was recommended to be rehired without any hesitation and I was granted tenure on schedule, (which I foolishly assumed couldn't happen if I hadn't completed my alternate route requirements). My Principal and supervisor want me in the building as I complete this process.

Ultimately, I believe teaching is what I am good at and it is what I am supposed to be doing with my life. Teaching young people not just about Personal and Business Finance but teaching them about life. Sharing stories about my mistakes and missteps. Letting them know that if you fall down you get back up and succeed. Perseverence (sic) does payoff! Give me the opportunity to educate. Give me the opportunity to be a positive role model.

I have been in contact with Brookdale Community College and I'm prepared to continue the alternate route process without hesitation or delay.

(Exhibit R-3.)

MOTION

Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss arguing that there is no legal basis to permit another renewal of appellant's provisional certificate and that same is explicitly barred by N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.5 et seq., which provides the Commissioner of Education no discretion in considering the application.

It is argued that the Motion to Dismiss is appropriate here since, per N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10, even if appellant's factual allegations are all found to be true, there is no legal basis for his appeal.

Mr. Finlay has not responded to the Motion. However, he did present argument in his initial appeal which will be reviewed below.

TIMELINE

A more visceral view of Mr. Finlay's provisional certificate history is best demonstrated by the following timeline:

September, 2017 – Issuance of two-year provisional certificate

July, 2019 – Grant of application for a first renewal of provisional certificate

Summer/Fall, 2021 – denial of application for a second renewal of provisional certificate

October 28, 2021 – Grant of application for second renewal of provisional certificate on appeal Spring, 2023 – Denial of application for a third renewal of provisional certificate

June 29, 2023 – Denial of appeal of the denial of the application for a third renewal of provisional certificate

August 25, 2023 – Appeal filed with Board of Examiners

LAW AND ANALYSIS

A Motion to Dismiss filed per N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g) is the functional equivalent of a Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim filed in civil court per R. 4:6-2(e). Graves v. State Operated Sch. Dist. of Newark & Cami Anderson, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2417 (App Div., September 26, 2017). The Court stated the standard for the granting of same:

> When reviewing a Rule 4:6-2(e) motion, a court must determine the adequacy of the pleading and decide whether a cause of action is "suggested" by the facts. Printing Mart-Morristown v. Sharp Elecs. Corp., 116 N.J. 739, 746 (1989) (quoting Velantzas v. Colgate-Palmolive Co., 109 N.J. 189, 192 (1988)). The court must "search[] the complaint in depth and with liberality to ascertain whether the fundament of a cause of action may be gleaned even from an obscure statement of claim, opportunity being given to amend if necessary." Ibid. (quoting Di Cristofaro v. Laurel Grove Mem'l Park, 43 N.J. Super. 244, 252 (App. Div. 1957)).
>
> Id. at *7.

The rules covering the renewal of provisional teaching certificates is N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.5, which reads as follows:

> (a) The school district may recommend a provisional teacher for renewal of the teacher's two-year provisional certificate if the candidate has not yet completed the requirements for the standard certificate within the first two years of employment, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9A-8.7.
>
> 1. A provisional teacher who meets the criteria at (a) above but is not renewed for employment within the same school district following the two-year provisional certificate may seek and accept, under the same endorsement, a position with another school district, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.4(d).

(b) Except as indicated at N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.8, 10, and 11[1], a candidate shall meet the following requirements to be eligible for one renewal of a provisional certificate:

1. Hold a CE or CEAS in the endorsement area required for the teaching assignment;

2. Be employed or accept an offer of employment in a position that requires an instructional certificate;

3. Complete a district mentoring program;

4. Be enrolled in or have completed a CE educator preparation program, if the candidate has a CE; and

5. Be recommended for renewal by the candidate's principal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.6.

(c) The two-year provisional certificate may be renewed twice for a maximum provisional period of six years if the candidate fulfills the renewal requirements at (b) above and one of the following criteria:

1. Holds a CE with a teacher of students with disabilities endorsement, or a CE with a bilingual/bicultural endorsement, and a CE with an endorsement appropriate to the subject or grade level to be taught; or holds a CE with an English as a second language endorsement. The duration of the CE educator preparation program and required coursework for the endorsement(s) also extends beyond the four-year provisional period; or

2. Does not receive from the school district, by July 31 of the fourth year, the annual summative rating as required for a standard certificate, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.4.

(d) A candidate issued a temporary instructional certificate, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.10, shall not be eligible for a renewal of a temporary provisional certificate in the specific endorsement area issued pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.4(f)

[1] None of which apply in this instance.

It should also be noted that per N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.4(c):

> A provisional certificate shall last a maximum of two school years and shall expire on July 31 of the second year regardless of issuance date.

PRIOR ORDERS

December 26, 2021

After the initial denial of Mr. Finlay's second renewal application, he appealed to the State Board of Examiners. This was considered during its meeting of October 28, 2021 and the appeal was granted by Order dated December 16, 2021. The substance of the Order reads as follows;

> Finlay requests that the Board grant him the renewal so that he can finish the alternate route coursework required for standard certification. In his narrative statement to the Board, Finlay stated that when he started the alternate route program, he was required to repeat the pre-professional service course as the course he previously completed was not approved. He further stated that he did not restart the program due to personal and financial issues as well as hesitancy to restart during the COVID-19 pandemic. Finlay further stated that he is now working to complete the program at Brookdale Community College and hopes to be finished by the start of the 2022 school year.
>
> Finlay was present at the Board meeting on October 28, 2021. The Board asked Finlay when he anticipated completing the alternate route coursework and he stated he would be finished by the end of this school year in June 2022.
>
> After full consideration of Finlay's submission, the Board finds that his demonstrated progress towards completing the alternate route program despite the challenges he faced warrants the renewal of his provisional certificate for one year. As Finlay anticipates completing the program in June 2022, this will give him ample time to do so.

> The Board's finding is limited to this particular set of facts and circumstances and is intended as a one-time only, limited issuance of the additional provisional. The Board reserves all rights and maintains all discretion regarding future requests for issuance of an additional provisional certificate beyond the express limitations in regulation(s).
>
> [Exhibit R-2.] (Emphasis in original)

August 4, 2023

At or about the time of the expiration of the one-year extension, Mr. Finlay applied for another renewal of his provisional certificate. This application was considered by the Board during its meeting of June 29, 2023 and was formally denied by Order dated August 4, 2023. The substance of the Order reads as follows;

> Finlay was present at the meeting on June 29, 2023, but the Board had no questions of him.
>
> In December, 2021, the Board granted Finlay an additional provisional renewal beyond the limits in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.5(c) because he needed time to complete the alternate route program and he anticipated completing the program in 2022. In his current request, Finlay requests an additional provisional renewal as he still has not completed the alternate route program. He admits that he procrastinated in restarting the program and offers no explanation why he was unable to complete the program within the anticipated time frame he gave to the Board when he was granted his last provisional renewal.
>
> The Board notes that Finlay was initially granted a provisional certificate in September, 2017. The Board finds that Finlay has exceeded the limits on issuance of a provisional certificate and he has not demonstrated enough effort or progress towards completion of the required alternate route program in the nearly six years since receiving his initial provisional certificate. As such, another renewal of his provisional certificate is unjustified.
>
> [Exhibit R-1.]

As detailed above, Mr. Finlay has already been granted two renewals of his provisional certificate, which, per N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.5, is the maximum permitted by law. Further, his provisional certificate has covered six school years (2017-18, 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23), also the maximum permitted by the Code. In its December 16, 2021 Order, the Board granted him a one-year extension of his provisional certificate. Interpreting the Order in light of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.4(c), Mr. Finlay's renewed certificate was now valid through July 31, 2023, which would "give him ample time" to complete his required alternate route educational program. (Exhibit R-2.)

However, he did not complete that program and in June, 2023, he returned to the Board having had his application for a third renewal of his provisional certificate denied. This time, the Board found that he had "exceeded the limits on issuance of a provisional certificate and he has not demonstrated enough effort or progress towards completion of the required alternate route program in the nearly six years since receiving his initial provisional certificate." (Exhibit R-1.)

There is next to no case law concerning this issue. However, it was addressed in Cash v. New Jersey Dept. of Educ.; OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01325-23 (Initial Decision, July 18, 2023). In Cash, the appellant alleged that he was misinformed by his district employer regarding the necessity for completing various requirements to obtain full certification under the same alternate route program under which Mr. Finlay is seeking certification. His initial provisional certification was issued in August, 2018. After being granted an initial extension through August, 2022, his application for a second extension was denied by the Board the following month.

The Court found that despite Mr. Cash's accomplishments and the fact that he had completed many of the requirements to obtain a full certificate, he simply did not meet the requirements for a second extension. It was noted that neither the judge nor the Board "have the discretion to consider the totality of the circumstances to extend/renew his status." Id. at 5. This decision was affirmed by the Board in Cash v. New Jersey Dept. of Educ., 2023 N.J. Agen. LEXIS 422 (August 22, 2023).

Here, the factual scenario facing Mr. Finlay is even less favorable than that facing appellant in Cash, Whether he was qualified for the second extension or not, Mr. Cash at least had a viable administrative pathway to obtain it. Here, Mr. Finlay has already exhausted both of the options afforded by the Code. I agree with respondent's counsel that given the limitations on the number and duration of the extensions, even if Mr. Finlay had demonstrated good cause for an extension (and, frankly, he has not), as noted in Cash, there is "(no) discretion to consider the totality of the circumstances to extend/review his status."

Given the above, I FIND that Mr. Finlay is ineligible for a third extension of his provisional certificate. Ultimately, I CONCLUDE that given the respondent's decision to deny appellant's request for the third extension was appropriate and that no facts have been presented to demonstrate that it was unreasonable, arbitrary or capricious.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's Motion to Dismiss be and is hereby GRANTED and;

It is further ORDERED that Mr. Finlay's appeal be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B 10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 9, 2024
DATE

MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 9, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 9, 2024
sej

196-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Patricia Wilson,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Paterson,
Passaic County,
Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, a non-tenured special education teacher, challenged the respondent Board's termination of her employment following notice of her dismissal on November 20, 2023. Petitioner disputed the basis for her discharge and maintained that the District defamed her character by terminating her absent notice of improper conduct or intention to end her employment in advance of her termination. Petitioner transmitted her petition of appeal on Saturday, March 2, 2024, and the petition was filed with the New Jersey Department of Education's Office of Controversies and Disputes on Monday, March 4, 2024. The Board filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer on grounds that petitioner's appeal was filed out of time.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(d), a petitioner must file an appeal no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the contested case; in this matter, petitioner acknowledged she received notice of the Board's termination decision on November 20, 2023, when she was escorted from the building; that action left no doubt about the Board's employment determination; the ninety-day limitation period for the filing of an appeal flows from that notice and expired on February 21, 2024; petitioner's appeal was filed on March 4, 2024 and was indisputably late; and the circumstances of this case do not warrant relaxation of the 90-day rule. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. In so doing, the Commissioner noted that, to the extent that petitioner may have filed a grievance, it does not toll the 90-day limitations period. Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss was granted and petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

196-24
OAL Dkt. No. 04145-24
Agency Dkt. No. 51-3/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Patricia Wilson,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Paterson,
Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by the petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner was employed by the Paterson Board of Education (Board) as a special education teacher pursuant to a contract covering the time period from September 18, 2023, through June 30, 2024. Petitioner's last day of work was November 20, 2024, when she was informed by her principal that she was being terminated and was escorted from the building by school personnel. Petitioner appealed via a petition of appeal emailed on March 2, 2024, which was a Saturday; it was filed by the Office of Controversies and Disputes on March 4, 2024.

Following the Board's motion to dismiss, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that petitioner's appeal was due by February 21, 2024 – 90 days after her termination on November 20, 2024. The ALJ found that petitioner did not provide any excuse for her untimely filing or any basis for relaxation of the 90-day rule. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss.

In her exceptions, petitioner argues that it was unfair for the ALJ to dismiss her appeal after giving her two separate hearing dates. Petitioner contends that she was not given clear direction by the PEA[1] and thought that the PEA would take further action on her behalf. Petitioner also indicates that she believes she "performed with the 90-day time at the grievance level though unknowingly."

In reply, the Board argues that petitioner had a full opportunity to respond to the Board's motion to dismiss and did not identify any procedural impropriety by the ALJ. The Board further contends that petitioner has failed to provide any explanation or excuse for her failure to timely file her petition and urges the Commissioner to adopt the Initial Decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition of appeal was untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3. Petitioner unquestionably had notice of her termination on November 20, 2023, when she was informed of it in person and escorted from the school building. The 90-day limitations period expired on February 21, 204, and the petition was not filed until March 4, 2024. It is petitioner's obligation to comply with the filing requirements, not her union's. Furthermore, to the extent that petitioner may have filed a grievance, it does not toll the 90-day limitations period. Giannetta v. Bd. of Educ. of Egg Harbor, Commissioner Decision 147-05 (April 25, 2005); Kenny v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Moonachie, EDU 9284-17, Initial Decision (Aug. 17, 2017), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 286-17 (Sept. 27, 2017). Petitioner has made no demonstration of circumstances that would warrant the relaxation of the timely filing requirement. Finally, the Commissioner finds that petitioner was afforded the opportunity to respond to the Board's motion to dismiss, and that her opposition was considered by the ALJ in issuing the Initial Decision, such that petitioner's argument regarding any "unfairness" is unavailing.

[1] This acronym appears to refer to the Paterson teachers' union.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board's motion to dismiss is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 15, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 16, 2024

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04145-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 51-3/24

PATRICIA WILSON,
Petitioner,
v.
CITY OF PATERSON, BOARD OF EDUCATION, PASSAIC COUNTY
Respondent.

Patricia Wilson, appearing pro se

Kyle J. Trent, Esq., for respondent (Apruzze, McDermott, Mastro & Murphy, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: April 8, 2024 Decided: April 10, 2024

BEFORE NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On Saturday, March 2, 2024, petitioner challenged respondent's termination of her employment following notice of her dismissal on November 20, 2023. Is the claim time-barred? Yes. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(d), a petitioner must file an appeal "no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the [case]." Ibid.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

By email dated March 2, 2024, Patricia Wilson filed a Petition with the Commissioner of the Department of Education (Commissioner) contesting the Paterson Public School District's (District or Board) termination of her position as a special education teacher at school number five within the District. Wilson disputes the basis for her discharge and maintains that the District defamed her character by terminating her absent notice of improper conduct or an intention to terminate her job before it did. Further, Wilson disagrees with the principal's leadership and asserts that he was manipulative and micromanaged her.

In response to the petition, the Board filed a Motion to Dismiss in place of an Answer on March 22, 2024, arguing that Wilson filed her petition out of time. The Commissioner opted not to address respondent's motion to dismiss and transmitted this case to the OAL. On March 26, 2023, the OAL filed the contested case under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On April, 1, 2024, this tribunal requested that petitioner submit her opposition to the motion by April 11, 2024. On April 2, 2024, Wilson supplied her opposition. On April 8, 2024, the Board replied, and I closed the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the petition and its supporting documents, I FIND the following as FACT for purposes of this motion only:

The District employed Patricia Wilson as a special education teacher through an employment contract that Wilson executed on September 14, 2023. The District expected Wilson to commence working on September 18, 2023, and end her teaching service on June 30, 2024. The contract did not guarantee employment; either party could terminate the position.

Wilson supplied several letters of recommendation in connection with her application for employment. She has been an educator for more than forty years and has a master's degree in special education and a doctoral degree in psychology.

On October 16, 2023, the District notified Wilson that she had been on unapproved leave since October 4, 2023, and provided Wilson with a blank leave form.

On October 17, 2023, Wilson sought leave under the New Jersey Family Leave and Medical Leave Act from October 5, 2023, through October 17, 2023. The District approved her request.

On November 14, 2023, the District notified Wilson by mail that it terminated Wilson, effective November 15, 2023, for "documented instructional shortcomings witnessed by [Wilson's] principal."

Wilson supplied a note dated November 14, 2023, from a physician's office stating that Wilson could not work until November 20, 2023.

On November 20, 2023, Wilson went to work and spoke with her principal, Dr. Ventura. Dr. Ventura advised Wilson that the District was terminating her employment because "things were not working out" and "her classroom function[ed] better when she was not there." Dr. Ventura also told Wilson that during an official observation of her classroom, "she placed a child in danger." Wilson disputes this assertion and seeks to reverse her termination through this petition.

Wilson's last day of work at the District was November 20, 2023, and school personnel escorted her from the building that day.

From notification of her termination on November 20, 2023, ninety days is February 18, 2024. However, February 18, 2024, is a Saturday, making the next business day February 21, 2024, given the Presidents' Day holiday on February 20, 2024. Yet, Wilson's filing date was March 2, 2024. Notably, March 2, 2024, is a Saturday, and the next business day is March 4, 2024. Still, I FIND that Wilson filed her petition more than ninety days after receiving notification of her job termination.

Although this tribunal allowed Wilson to respond to the motion concerning the untimeliness of her petition, she does not explain or provide any excuse for her untimely filing or circumstances that precluded the prompt filing of her petition. Instead, she only reiterates that her termination requires reversal.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A motion to dismiss under the administrative rule governing education cases, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g), is the functional equivalent of a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim in the New Jersey Superior Court under R. 4:6-2(e). Graves v. State Operated Sch. Dist. of Newark & Cami Anderson, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2417. In ruling on a motion to dismiss,

> The judge considers whether all the evidence together with all legitimate inferences therefrom could sustain a judgment in favor of the party opposing the motion. The judge is not concerned with weight, worth, nature, or extent of the evidence. The judge must accept all the evidence supporting > the party defending against the motion and accord that party the benefit of all inferences that can reasonably and legitimately be deduced therefrom. If reasonable minds could differ, the motion must be denied.

>
> [37 New Jersey Practice, Administrative Law and Practice § 5.19, at 259-60 (Steven Lefelt, Anthony Miragliotta & Patricia Prunty) (2d ed. 2000)];

See also Graves, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2417, at 7 (concluding that a court must determine the adequacy of the pleading and decide whether a cause of action is "suggested" by the facts when reviewing a Rule 4:6-2(e) motion) (internal citations omitted).

Timeliness

Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(d), a party must file an appeal with the Commissioner of Education "no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing." This rule "provides a measure of repose, an essential element in the proper and efficient administration of the school laws," giving school districts the "security of knowing" that an aggrieved party cannot challenge its actions after ninety days. Kaprow v. Board of Educ. of Berkeley Twp., 131 N.J. 572, 582 (1993).

Courts strictly construe and consistently apply the ninety-day limitation period. Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 588-89; Nissman v. Bd. of Educ., 272 N.J. Super 373, 380-81, (App. Div. 1994); Riely v. Bd. of Educ., 173 N.J. Super. 109, 112-14, (App. Div. 1980). This period begins to run when the petitioner "learn[s] from the Local Board the existence of that state of facts that would enable him to file a timely claim." Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 588-89. Indeed, the "notice of a final order, ruling or other action" is "sufficient to inform an individual of some fact that he or she has a right to know and that the communicating party has a duty to communicate." Id. at 587. Notably, a petitioner need not receive official and formal notification that they may have a valid claim to begin the ninety-day period. Id. at 588.

Even accepting Wilson's position that the District improperly terminated her employment, she needed to file a petition challenging that determination timely. Undeniably, Wilson acknowledges she received notice of that decision on November 20, 2023. She was escorted from the building, leaving no doubt about the District's conclusion. The ninety-day limitation flows from that notice and expires on February 21, 2024. Indeed, I found that her petition was indisputably late.

Still, the Commissioner may exercise her authority under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1.6 to relax the application of the 90-day rule "where strict adherence thereto may be deemed inappropriate or unnecessary or may result in injustice." Ibid. Yet, exceptions to the ninety-day rule are only appropriate where compelling circumstances exist to justify the enlargement or relaxation of the time limit. See Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 590; DeMaio v. New Providence Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 449, 453.

Wilson offers no circumstances, let alone compelling ones, to justify her lack of diligence here.

Further, this extraordinary relief is reserved only for situations where the party presents a substantial constitutional issue or a matter of significant public interest beyond concern only to the parties. Portee v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 381, 384; Wise v. Trenton Bd. of Educ., EDU 160-00, Initial Decision (July 25, 2000), adopted, Comm'r Decision (September 11, 2000), aff'd, St. Bd. (January 3, 2001), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/.

Notably, petitioner's claim has only personal significance, making relaxation of the rule even less appropriate. If the Commissioner relaxed the filing timeframe for every harsh result, that action would nullify the rule's salutary public policy of encouraging prompt resolution of disputes. Pacio v. Bd. of Educ. of Lakeland Reg. High

Sch. Dist., 1989 S.L.D. 2060 (Comm'r July 29, 1989). Thus, I CONCLUDE that petitioner does not present exceptional circumstances or a compelling reason that warrant relaxation of the ninety-day rule and that she filed her petition beyond the required time frame.

ORDER

Given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that the Board's motion to dismiss be GRANTED. I further ORDER that the Petition of Appeal be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

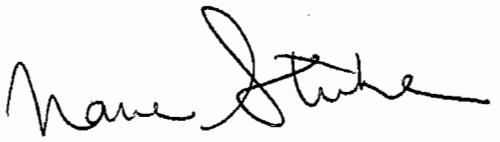
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



April 10, 2024

DATE

NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 10, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 10, 2024

ljb

200-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Jesenia Chester, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County

Synopsis

In this matter on remand, the petitioning Board alleged that respondent – a non-tenured teacher – resigned her position on inadequate notice and sought to suspend her teaching certificate for unprofessional conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Respondent taught kindergarten in a South Brunswick school during the 2021-2022 school year and the Board asserted that her contract was renewed at a Board meeting on May 12, 2022. However, on August 4, 2022, respondent sent the District an email resigning her position effective September 1, 2022 and did not return to her position for the start of the new school year; she asserted that she had never received or signed a contract of employment for the 2022-2023 school year. After a hearing in the Office of Administrative Law, the ALJ concluded that respondent had engaged in unprofessional conduct by failing to give the Board 60 days' notice of her resignation. Following review by the Commissioner of Education, the matter was remanded to the OAL for further fact finding as the record was devoid of information needed to reach a final determination in the case.

On remand, the ALJ found, inter alia, that: the mandated notice requirement set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 is applicable to tenured staff members, but does not apply here given respondent's non-tenured status; the notice requirement for non-tenured individuals is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, which authorizes the suspension of a teaching certificate "for wrongful cessation of performance of duties"; in this situation, respondent resigned after completion of her teaching duties for the 2021-2022 school year and never received or signed a written contract to continue her employment for the 2022-2023 school year; while respondent did sign a written contract for the 2021-2022 school year that included a 60 day notice provision, no such contract existed regarding her employment during the 2022-2023 school year as she never accepted an offer of continued employment in writing; consequently, respondent was not under contract when she submitted her resignation on August 4, 2022, as her 2021-2022 employment contract had expired at the end of June. The evidence on remand failed to demonstrate that respondent is guilty of unprofessional conduct within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 so as to justify the Commissioner's suspension of respondent's certificate. The ALJ concluded that no express contract existed between the parties regarding respondent's employment for the 2022-2023 school year; accordingly, the Board's request to suspend respondent's teaching certificate was denied.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the April 2024 Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. Accordingly, the Order to Show Cause to suspend Jesenia Chester's teaching certificates was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

200-24

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09886-23 (EDU 10542-22 on remand)
Agency Dkt. No. 284-10/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Jesenia Chester, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Respondent Jesenia Chester was previously employed by petitioner, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick (Board), as a nontenured teacher. The Board filed an Order to Show Cause to suspend respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, which provides that "[a]ny teaching staff member employed by a board of education . . . who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may, upon receiving notice thereof, suspend his certificates for a period not exceeding one year." The Order to Show Cause alleged that respondent had committed unprofessional conduct by resigning from her teaching position without providing the Board with sixty days' notice.

In August 2023, upon review of the parties' written submissions, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Initial Decision granting the Order to Show Cause. In September 2023, the Commissioner remanded the matter to the OAL for further fact-finding regarding respondent's acceptance of the Board's offer of employment and, if such acceptance was given, the terms of the employment contract.

In April 2024, the ALJ issued an Initial Decision after remand recommending that the Order to Show Cause be dismissed because: (1) no written contract existed regarding respondent's employment as a teacher for the 2022-2023 school year; (2) respondent never accepted the Board's offer of employment for the 2022-2023 school year in writing; (3) respondent was not under contract when she submitted her resignation on August 4, 2022, as her 2021-2022 employment contract had expired; and (4) the evidence failed to demonstrate that respondent is guilty of unprofessional conduct within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the April 2024 Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. As a nontenured teacher, respondent's notice obligations are established by the terms of her employment contract. In re Suspension of Teaching Certificates of Melissa Van Pelt, Gray Charter Sch., Newark, Essex Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 170-09 at 3 (May 29, 2009), aff'd, 414 N.J. Super. 440 (App. Div. 2010). N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 requires boards of education to provide nontenured teaching staff members with a written offer of a contract for employment, or a written notice that employment will not be offered, on or before May 15 of each year. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12 requires teaching staff members to accept employment offers in writing on or before June 1. If they do not accept the offers in writing, then their employment is not renewed.

Here, the Board did not provide respondent with a written employment contract for the 2022-2023 school year. Moreover, respondent did not accept the Board's offer of employment for the 2022-2023 school year in writing. Because she was not under contract at the time of her resignation, respondent had no notice obligations to the Board. Therefore, respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 as she did not cease to perform her duties before the expiration of her employment term.

Accordingly, the Order to Show Cause to suspend Jesenia Chester's teaching certificates is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 28, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09886-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 284-10/22
(EDU 10542-22 On Remand)

IN RE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF JESENIA CHESTER.

Marie-Lawrence Fabian, Esq., for petitioner Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, attorneys)

Jesenia Chester, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: February 28, 2024 Decided: April 15, 2024

BEFORE JOAN M. BURKE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick (the Board) seeks an order suspending the teaching certificate of respondent, Jesenia Chester (respondent, Ms. Chester), for a period of one year based upon the allegation that she resigned from her teaching position with inadequate notice. At the request of petitioner, the Commissioner of Education issued an Order to Show Cause on October 7, 2022, ordering respondent to show cause why her teaching certificate should not be suspended for unprofessional conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Respondent filed an Answer on November 14, 2022, and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on November 28, 2022, for determination as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The parties requested that the matter be decided in a "summary fashion" without a hearing based on the papers that were submitted.

An Initial Decision was issued by the undersigned on August 2, 2023. (C-1.) On September 14, 2023, the Commissioner issued a decision remanding the case to the OAL for additional fact finding. (C-2.) On December 7, 2023, a status conference was held with the parties, and a scheduling order was made for the submission of briefs. Upon receipt of the briefs, the record closed on February 28, 2024.

ISSUES PRESENTED ON REMAND

The remand decision presents the following issues for adjudication:

1. Does the contract under which the respondent was employed for the 2021–2022 school year contain a sixty-day-notice provision?

2. Is there a written acceptance of the Board's offer of continued employment following the May 12, 2022, Board meeting?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The factual findings of the Initial Decision in EDU 10542-22 are incorporated herein by reference. The petitioner's brief and affidavit of Kimberly Maloy-White, along with the respondent's letter brief submitted, reveal the following additional uncontroverted facts, and I FIND:

On August 26, 2021, the Board entered into an employment contract (contract) with the respondent. (P-A.) The respondent signed the contract on September 25, 2021. (Ibid.) There is a notice paragraph in the contract that states: "It is hereby agreed by the parties hereto that this contract may at any time be terminated by either party to the other 60 days' notice in writing of intension to terminate the same . . . ." (Ibid.)

On or about April 23, 2022, the respondent acknowledged receipt of the Summative Performance Report of Practice Standards (Report). (P-B.) At the end of this Report, it states, "Ms. Chester will develop the Independent Goal in her Professional Development Plan (PDP) for next year in collaboration with her supervisor . . . ." (Ibid.)

On May 13, 2022, the Board notified the respondent in a memorandum that she had been reappointed to the position of teacher at Constable Elementary School. The effective date was September 1, 2022, continuing until June 30, 2023. (See P-C.)

On June 20, 2022, the respondent acknowledged the Teacher/Education Specialist Composite Score Report. (P-D.) In this report, under the paragraph titled Recommendation, it states, "Recommended for continued employment." (Ibid.)

Arguments of the Parties

The petitioner argues that the respondent signed the summative evaluation, which informed her that an offer of employment would be forthcoming. (Pet'r's Br. at 2.) In addition, in the memo dated May 13, 2022, the respondent was informed that she was recommended for continued employment during the 2022–2023 school year. (Ibid.)

The petitioner further alleges that "[t]he memo ends with the following: If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me." (Ibid.) The respondent did not contact the petitioner and did not inform the Board that "she might not return, thereby creating the expectation that she would return to teach the next year." (Pet'r's Br. at 3.) The petitioner further argues that respondent "accepted the renewal contract, but then decided to resign on short notice. To find that Ms. Chester did not accept such employment is to elevate form over substance." (Ibid.)

Respondent argues that petitioner's exhibit D states, "under the heading of reappointment of non-tenured professional personnel," that the contract runs from September 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023. (Resp't's Br. at 2.) Thus, "without signing of a contract, no salary, benefits, classroom designation discussion, I am under the impression that I am not under any contract at the time of placing my resignation on August 4, 2022 and therefore within my rights to resign at any time." (Id. at 2–3.)

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8, a "teaching staff member, under tenure of service, desiring to relinquish his position shall give the employing board of education at least 60 days written notice of his intention, unless the board shall approve of a release on shorter notice and if he fails to give such notice he shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may suspend his certificate for not more than one year." (Emphasis added.) By its express terms, this mandated sixty-day-notice requirement only applies to tenured teaching staff members. Carrelle v. Bloomfield Twp. Bd. of Educ., 2004 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1283 (Feb. 9, 2004). It is undisputed that respondent had been employed by the Board for only one year at the time that she provided notice of her intent not to return to the South Brunswick School District. Accordingly, the mandated notice requirement set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 is not applicable to the present situation given respondent's non-tenured status.

The notice requirement for non-tenured individuals, such as respondent, is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, which authorizes the suspension of a teaching certificate "for wrongful cessation of performance of duties." The statute directs, in pertinent part:

> Any teaching staff member employed by a board of education . . . who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may . . . suspend his certificate for a period not exceeding one year.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 (emphasis added).]

See also N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.9. The underlying purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is "to provide notice to the school so that a suitable replacement can be hired without adversely impacting students." Penns Grove-Carneys Point Bd. of Educ. v. Leinen, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 405, 407.

The Commissioner has recognized that the language of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 "is clear and explicit as to the requisite conditions for a cause of action to arise under its terms, namely, 1) a teaching staff member ceases to perform his [or her] duties before the expiration of the term of his [or her] employment, and 2) the board does not consent to the teaching staff member's action." In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Fesolowich, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 915 (Sept. 14, 2006). The Commissioner has further explained that "[i]t is well-grounded in education law that determination of the sufficiency of a term of notice pursuant to this statute is dictated by the terms of the parties' employment contract and any resignation or termination must be in accordance with the terms of such agreement." In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Van Pelt, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1232 (May 29, 2009), aff'd, 414 N.J. Super. 440 (App. Div. 2010); Carrelle, 2004 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1283 (Feb. 9, 2004). In other words, N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 requires non-tenured teachers to abide by whatever notice provision is contained in their employment contracts.

A non-tenured teacher who violates the notice/termination requirements outlined in his or her contract of employment will generally be found to be guilty of "unprofessional conduct" within the intendment of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, warranting the suspension of the teacher's certificate. See In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Creekmur, 2011 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 624 (Nov. 21, 2011), adopted, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 600 (Jan. 4, 2012); In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Ponti, 2010 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 103 (Feb. 18, 2010), adopted, 2011 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 264 (May 12, 2010), aff'd, 2011 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1105 (App. Div. May 3, 2011); In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Orban, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 296 (May 13, 2009), adopted, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 729 (June 11, 2009); In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Stokes, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 316 (June 2, 2009), adopted, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 655 (July 15, 2009), aff'd, 2010 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1776 (App. Div. July 27, 2010); In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Van Pelt, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 237 (April 14, 2009), adopted, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1232 (May 29, 2009), aff'd, 414 N.J. Super.

440 (App. Div. 2010); Borough of Alpine Bd. of Educ. v. Yuz, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 633 (July 17, 2008), adopted, 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1178 (Sept. 23, 2008).

The above cases, however, are markedly distinguishable from the present matter. In each of those cases, the teacher had executed a contract of employment agreeing to teach for a specified term, resigned before the expiration of his or her contract, and failed to comply with the termination provisions of his or her employment contract. Given these facts, each teacher "cease[d] to perform his [or her] duties before the expiration of the term of his [or her] employment," amounting to "unprofessional conduct," and resulting in the suspension of the teacher's certificate. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10; see In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Walker, 2011 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 526 (Oct. 5, 2011), adopted, 2011 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 874 (Nov. 10, 2011) (holding that the respondent's employment contract created two separate terms of employment, and respondent did not cease to perform her duties before the expiration of the term of her employment in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 by resigning with two weeks' notice during her probationary period).

Also, in In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Carreno, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 226 (May 3, 2012), adopted, Comm'r (June 14, 2012), https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/commissioner/2012/jun/239-12.pdf, the respondent worked for the Bergen County Technical School (BCTS) from September 1, 2009, to June 30, 2010, and she received a salary, pension contributions, and other benefits in the contract of employment she had entered into for the 2009–2010 school year. The respondent had received a contract of employment in early 2010. The term of that contract was for the 2010–2011 school year. The respondent did not sign the contract, and on August 31, 2010, the respondent sent an email thanking the school for the opportunity, but stating that due to personal financial circumstances, she had accepted another position elsewhere. In accepting the respondent's position, the Commissioner stated:

> N.J.S.A. 18A:27-11 explains:
>
> > Should any board of education fail to give to any nontenured teaching staff member either an offer of contract for employment for the next succeeding year or > a notice that such employment will not be offered, all within the time and in the manner provided by this act [i.e., May 15], then said board of education shall be deemed to have offered to that teaching staff member continued employment for the next succeeding school year upon the same terms and conditions but with such increases in salary as may be required by law or policies of the board of education.

>
> [Emphasis added.]

The Commissioner went on to state:

> In other words, a nontenured employee may regard the absence of either a contract renewal letter or a nonrenewal letter as tantamount to an "offer" of employment. However, there is nothing in N.J.S.A. 18A:27-11 that requires the nontenured teacher to accept the offer. In the present case, respondent did not accept the implied offer, and petitioner waited until August to address the issue, i.e., by sending respondent a contract to sign.
>
> The only express statutory deadline for the acceptance—by nontenured teachers—of employment offers can be found in N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12. That statute requires that those nontenured employees who wish to accept employment offered to them on or before May 15, must accept in writing by June 1. It appears undisputed that respondent did not do so. Thus, even acknowledging that the absence of a nonrenewal letter constituted an offer of employment to respondent, the fact remains that she did not timely accept said offer. Petitioner's expectation that she would return to teach in the next school year was consequently unwarranted. Further, in the absence of a contract, respondent was not obligated to give sixty days' notice of her decision not to return.
>
> [Ibid.]

Here the facts are similar to those in Carreno, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 226 (May 3, 2012), adopted, Comm'r (June 14, 2012), https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/commissioner/2012/jun/239-12.pdf, except no contract was sent to the respondent at the time she had submitted her resignation. In fact, in the case at bar, the respondent notified the Board on August 4, 2022, of her resignation. In Carreno, the respondent had received a contract but never signed it and notified the BCTS of her resignation on August 31, 2010, one day before the 2010–2011 school year was set to begin. In the current matter, respondent argues that she was under no contract at the time she submitted her letter of resignation because she did not receive or sign a contract. There is no dispute that she was offered employment. However, the determination of whether respondent provided sufficient notice to the Board pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 "is dictated by the terms of the parties' employment contract, and any resignation or termination must be in accordance with the terms of such agreement." Van Pelt, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1232 at *4 (May 29, 2009). A non-tenured teacher will be deemed guilty of "unprofessional conduct" within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 if the teacher fails to comply with the termination/notice requirements in his or her contract of employment. However, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12:

> If the teaching staff member desires to accept such employment he shall notify the board of education of such acceptance, in writing, on or before June 1, in which event such employment shall continue as provided for herein. In the absence of such notice of acceptance the provisions of this article shall no longer be applicable.

I CONCLUDE that no express contract existed between the parties regarding respondent's employment as a teacher for the 2022–2023 school year. Petitioner did not send a contract to the respondent. The petitioner admitted this would not be done until after their Board meeting on August 25, 2022. The petitioner further acknowledged that because the respondent had submitted a resignation on August 4, 2022, it would be approved at the same Board meeting on August 25, 2022. While there were various notices of employment for the 2022–2023 school year (i.e., Summative Performance Report of Practice Standards, a memorandum dated May 13, 2022, Education Composite Score Report), the record is bereft of evidence that the Board had provided respondent with a written offer or a contract for employment for the 2022–2023 school year that the respondent accepted. See N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10; N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12. Respondent, in her certification in the initial decision, did admit that she may have said, "thank you for the opportunity"; however, there was nothing in writing that indicated that this was said or that this was a written acceptance of the contract. See In re Chester, 2023 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 579 (Aug. 2, 2023). (C-1.) Furthermore, as the Commissioner pointed out in Carreno, https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/commissioner/2012/jun/239-12.pdf, and is applicable in this matter:

> Thus, even acknowledging that the absence of a nonrenewal letter constituted an offer of employment to respondent, the fact remains that she did not timely accept said offer. Petitioner's expectation that she would return to teach in the next school year was consequently unwarranted. Further, in the absence of a contract, respondent was not obligated to give sixty days' notice of her decision not to return.

I CONCLUDE that the respondent did not cease to perform her duties before the expiration of the term of her employment because she tendered her resignation after her 2021–2022 employment contract had expired and before an employment contract existed between the parties for the next school year. I CONCLUDE that the evidence fails to demonstrate that respondent is guilty of unprofessional conduct within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 so as to justify the Commissioner's suspension of her teaching certificate. Although I recognize that the respondent's departure may have placed the Board at a disadvantage of not having a teacher, the statute makes clear that a non-tenured employee's professional obligations are those established by the "term of employment" agreed upon by the parties and not by any intrinsic notion of professionalism. Walker, 2011 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 526 at *13 (Oct. 5, 2001). If the Board wanted to impose a commitment upon the respondent to teach during the 2022–2023 school year, it should have done so by requiring her to take action in writing to either accept or decline a written offer or a contract of employment before August 2022.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the Board's request that the Commissioner suspends the teaching certificate of Jesenia Chester pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is DENIED, and that this matter is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 15, 2024
DATE

JOAN M. BURKE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 15, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 15, 2024

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For Petitioner

None

For Respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner

Petitioner's Brief with the Affidavit of Kimberly Maloy-White, along with Exhibits P-A through P-G

For Respondent

Respondent's Brief

Judge's Exhibits

C-1 Initial Decision, EDU 10542-22

C-2 Commissioner's Decision, EDU 10542-22

201-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Helene Nguessan,
TEAM Academy Charter School, Essex County.

Synopsis

In this matter on remand, petitioner TEAM Academy Charter School (TEAM) sought to suspend respondent's teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, alleging that she resigned from her teaching position without providing sixty days' notice as was required under her employment contract. Following a hearing in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the ALJ issued an Initial Decision in August 2023 concluding that the respondent's certificate should not be suspended based on findings of fact that indicated TEAM had terminated respondent's employment via email dated September 2, 2022, prior to the end of the sixty-day notice period. Following review by the Commissioner of Education, the matter was remanded to the OAL to resolve an evidentiary issue regarding the September 2, 2022, email and to resolve the related factual dispute concerning whether petitioner did in fact terminate respondent's employment on September 2, 2022.

On remand, the ALJ, inter alia, incorporated findings from her August 2023 Initial Decision: respondent was in her third year as a kindergarten teacher with TEAM when she was told she would serve in the position of Kindergarten Grade Level Chair for the following school year; the annual contract she received and signed for the 2022-2023 school year was for the position of kindergarten teacher but did not mention the Grade Level Chair title; the employment contract included a 60 day notice clause; respondent submitted a letter of resignation on August 3, 2022, but – following a conversation with Human Resources – agreed to work through the end of the 60 day notice period in the position of enrichment teacher; however, respondent became frustrated with how she was treated after this change and began having stress-related health issues; on September 2, 2022, respondent went to a doctor who wrote a letter stating that she was experiencing work-related stress and would need additional time off; on the same day, respondent claims she received an email terminating her employment with TEAM; she later received an order to show cause why her teaching certificate should not be suspended for unbecoming conduct for not continuing to teach until the end of the 60 day notice period. On remand, the ALJ clarified that her determination that TEAM had terminated respondent was based on testimony from TEAM's employee relations manager, who confirmed that respondent had been terminated by TEAM on September 2, 2022. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that respondent did not cease to perform her duties before the expiration of the sixty-day notice period and denied TEAM's request to suspend her teaching certificate.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the ALJ that, given the unique circumstances in this case, respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 by failing to report to work through October 3, 2022, as TEAM had terminated her employment on September 2, 2022. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, with modification to disallow the email evidence that was never entered into the record.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

201-24

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4392-24 (EDU 10384-22 on remand)
Agency Dkt. No. 286-10/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Helene Nguessan, TEAM Academy Charter School, Essex County

The record of this matter, the June 1, 2023, hearing transcript, the Initial Decisions of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner, TEAM Academy Charter School, Inc., pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the reply filed by respondent, Helene Nguessan, have been reviewed and considered.

By way of background, petitioner initiated this matter to suspend respondent's teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, alleging that she resigned from her teaching position without providing sixty days' notice as was required under her employment contract. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 provides that "[a]ny teaching staff member employed by a board of education . . . who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may, upon receiving notice thereof, suspend his certificate for a period not exceeding one year."

Following a contested hearing, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Initial Decision on August 25, 2023, wherein she rendered factual findings and concluded that respondent's certificate should not be suspended. The ALJ reasoned that respondent did not cease to perform her duties prior to the expiration of the sixty-day notice period on October 3, 2022, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 because: (1) on September 2, 2022, respondent's doctor determined that she could not return to work due to a stress-related issue; and (2) on that same day, after receiving a note from respondent's doctor, petitioner terminated her employment.

In November 2023, the Commissioner remanded the matter to the OAL to resolve an evidentiary issue regarding a September 2, 2022, email referenced in the ALJ's Initial Decision, and to resolve a related factual dispute concerning whether petitioner terminated respondent's employment on September 2, 2022. The Commissioner directed the ALJ to clarify whether emails dated September 2, 2022, and/or September 20, 2022, were moved into evidence, and whether there was an alternative evidentiary basis for the finding that petitioner terminated respondent on September 2, 2022 (e.g., witness testimony), independent of any emails from petitioner to respondent. At that time, the Commissioner had not yet been provided with a copy of the June 1, 2023, hearing transcript.[1]

In an Initial Decision filed April 10, 2024, in response to the remand, the ALJ clarified that she relied upon hearing testimony from Dana Kerrihard, Employee Relations Manager, to support her conclusion that petitioner terminated respondent's employment on September 2, 2022. However, the ALJ did not provide any clarification regarding the emails. Because those emails were not part of the hearing record, the Commissioner rejects any findings made by the ALJ in her August 25, 2023, Initial Decision with respect to same.

[1] Petitioner provided the Commissioner with a copy of the June 1, 2023, hearing transcript in April 2024.

In their exceptions, petitioner argues that the Commissioner should reject the ALJ's Initial Decisions and takes exception to the following findings of fact made by the ALJ: (1) TEAM Academy "owns KIPP Upper Roseville School (KIRA)"; (2) respondent "did not receive communications" from TEAM administration during her notice period; (3) respondent's "schedule was not set"; (4) respondent had "physical problems" during her notice period; and (5) respondent "received an email from [TEAM] dated September 2, 2022." Petitioner's Exceptions, at 6-16.

Petitioner also takes exception to the ALJ's legal conclusions and asserts they are incorrect because respondent abandoned her teaching position on September 2, 2022, prior to the conclusion of the sixty-day notice period, thereby violating her employment contract and N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Petitioner denies that it terminated respondent and claims that the ALJ mischaracterized Kerrihard's testimony in that regard. Petitioner emphasizes that as of August 30, 2022, respondent had already notified Kerrihard via email that she only intended to work through the end of that week—i.e., until September 2, 2022.

In reply, respondent contends that the ALJ's decisions should be adopted. Citing Kerrihard's testimony, respondent maintains that her employment was terminated by petitioner on September 2, 2022, before the sixty-day notice period expired. Respondent asserts that the doctor's note stating that she could not return to work was admitted into evidence at the OAL hearing without objection from petitioner. Additionally, respondent contends that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction to act against her credentials because "[t]here is no evidence that TEAM is a legally authorized board of education under the statute nor an approved private school for the disabled," and that her May 17, 2022, employment contract is not legally enforceable. Respondent's Reply to Exceptions, pp. 8-10.

As previously stated, the Commissioner agrees with petitioner that any factual findings made by the ALJ in her August 25, 2023, Initial Decision regarding an email dated September 2, 2022, are rejected, as that email is not part of the record. As for the other factual findings disputed by petitioner, the Commissioner finds that they are adequately supported by the record. Kerrihard's hearing testimony reflects that TEAM Academy Charter School is a charter school network which operates schools at multiple locations, one of which is the KIPP Upper Roseville School location where respondent worked (see hearing transcript, pp. 11-12). Respondent testified that due to a change in technology platform, she did not receive certain communications from petitioner (see hearing transcript, pp. 62-63). Respondent further testified that once she took over the enrichment teacher position, "the schedule was not set" (see hearing transcript, p. 63). Respondent also testified that she began having "physical problems" at work and, consequently, visited her primary care doctor (see hearing transcript, p. 69) and respondent's Intake Assessment at Care Plus NJ, marked R-8 in evidence, states: "Client notes symptoms to include back pain, chest pain, racing thoughts, and butterflies in her stomach."

Moreover, upon careful review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 by failing to report to work until October 3, 2022, because petitioner terminated her employment on September 2, 2022. Page 43 of the hearing transcript—specifically, Kerrihard's testimony—fully supports the ALJ's finding in this regard, and the ALJ in no way mischaracterized that testimony which reads:

Q. Okay. Now didn't you, in fact, terminate Ms. Nguessan from her position before the sixty days expired?

A. Correct, we did terminate her employment.

Q. And was effective September 2, 2022; isn't that right?

A. Correct.

Consequently, respondent's employment term ended on September 2, 2022. Therefore, it was not possible for respondent to report to work until October 3, 2022, when the sixty-day notice period at issue would have expired.

Additionally, the Commissioner disagrees with petitioner that "[t]he Remand Decision, if left standing, will send a clear message . . . that the statutory mandate for certified personnel to work through their contractual notice period is unenforceable, since the resigning employee can simply produce a doctor's note from a non-counseling medical professional excusing them from work, even if, as the evidence here demonstrates, the employee exhibited 'minimal' symptoms of anxiety, merely from the stress from violating her contractual notice period." Petitioner's Exceptions, at 2. In this case, petitioner terminated respondent's employment, thereby ending the contractual relationship between the parties prior to the conclusion of the sixty-day notice period. Once the termination occurred, the existence of the doctor's note and its contents became irrelevant. Since petitioner opted to terminate respondent's employment on September 2, 2022, any arguments it now attempts to make regarding the evidentiary competency of the doctor's note and respondent's failure to continue working until the sixty-day notice period ended on October 3, 2022, are moot.

Given the unique facts and circumstances established in this case, the Commissioner cannot find that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 by ceasing to perform her duties in accordance with her employment contract prior to the expiration of her employment term. Accordingly, the Initial Decisions of the OAL are adopted, with modification as explained herein, and the Order to Show Cause to suspend Helene Nguessan's teaching certificate is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 23, 204
Date of Mailing: May 28, 2024

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04392-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 286-10/22

(on remand EDU 10384-23)

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF HELENE NGUESSAN TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY,

---

Thomas O. Johnston, Esq. for Petitioner (The Johnson Law Group, LLC)

Steven V. Schusler, Esq., for Respondent

Record Closed: March 28, 2024 Decided: April 10, 2024

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

Respondent Helene Nguessan opposes the suspension of her teaching certificates for allegedly resigning from the Team Academy Charter School, (TACS or petitioner) without giving sixty days' notice.

This matter was forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law from The Department of Education on November 17, 2022, as a contested matter. The hearing was held on June 1, 2023. Closing briefs were received on July 7, 2023. A reply brief from respondent was received on August 17, 2023, at which time I closed the record. I issued a decision on August 25, 2023. By Order dated November 6, 2023, the matter was remanded to OAL. This matter was received at OAL on March 28, 2024. The New Jersey Commission of Education requested clarification on whether an email dated September 2, 2022 was moved into evidence; was that email intended to describe the September 20, 2022 email; was the September 20, 2022 email moved into evidence and was there an alternative evidentiary basis for my finding that petitioner was terminated on September 2, 2022.

I am incorporating by reference my decision of August 25, 2023, in this matter. Dana Kerrihard was asked:

> Q. Okay, Ms Kerrihard did you have an understanding about why Ms. Nguessan did not complete her sixty days of teaching at your institution?
>
> A. Yes, she submitted this doctor's note. (Tr. Pg. 42 lines 14-17). Ms Kerrihard understood the doctor's note to state Ms. Nguessan was under stress and not cleared to report to work. (Tr. Pg. 42) Ms. Kerrihard did not dispute the doctor's note. Ms. Kerrihard testified that Nguessan was terminated from her position effective September 2, 2022. (Tr. Pg. 43)

Nguessan testified that she gave the September 2, 2022, doctor's letter to HR and Ms. Geffard. (Tr. Pg. 71) She testified that she did not receive any communication from the school until she received an email sent in late September, which stated that she was terminated as of September 2, 2022. (Tr. Pg. 72)

Based on this testimony I concluded that Nguessan was terminated from employment of September 2, 2022, when she had provided a doctor's note stating that she was not cleared to work.

I CONCLUDE Nguessan did not cease to perform her duties before the expiration of the sixty-day notice period because her doctor provided a letter stating that on September 2, 2002, that she could not return to work, and Nguessan was terminated on September 2, 2022.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that TACS request that Nguessan's teaching certificates be suspended is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 10, 2024

DATE

KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 10, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 10, 2024

ljb

WITNESSES

For Petitioner

Dana Kerrihard

For Respondent

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner

P-1 Nguessan Employment Agreement for 2022-2023

R-2 Email dated August 21, 2022 from Nguessan

R-3 Email Response to Nguessan dated August 23, 2022

For Respondent

R-1 Resignation letter related documents.

R-2 Not in Evidence

R-3 Emails

R-4 Doctor's Note Dated September 2, 2022

R-5 Resignation Letter of Nguessan

R—6 Paterson ASCs Teacher Contract

R-7 Nguessan Resume

R-8 Nguessan Medical Records

R-9 Nguessan Contract for 2022-2023 with TACS

R-10 Not in Evidence

R-11 Not in evidence

202-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Arlene Garcia,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner – a school bus driver – appealed the Department's determination to suspend her school bus endorsement for six months pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 et seq. after an incident on December 22, 2022 in which a Franklin Township School District student was left on petitioner's school bus at the end of one of her assigned bus routes. Petitioner did not dispute that a child remained on the bus but contended that the student was never left alone, as she noticed the child as she was proceeding to the bus parking lot. The Department filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, requesting that the motion be converted to a summary decision motion upon transmittal of the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL).

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner admitted that while completing her bus route on December 22, 2022, she noticed that a child remained on the bus after her final stop; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, petitioner had an affirmative duty to visually inspect the school bus at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil had been left on the bus; "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 means when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination, or the last bus stop; in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29, if a school bus driver is found to have left a child on the bus at the end of a route, the driver's school bus endorsement shall be suspended for six months for the first offense. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to the respondent and affirmed the petitioner's six-month suspension for leaving a child on the school bus at the end of a route.

Upon full review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the respondent is entitled to summary decision. Accordingly, the petition was dismissed; respondent was directed to notify the Motor Vehicle Commission of its obligation to suspend petitioner's school bus endorsement pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39, and to notify petitioner's employer that she is ineligible for the period of suspension for continued employment as a school bus driver.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

202-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 05358-23
Agency Dkt. No. 111-4/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Arlene Garcia,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner violated N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 when she failed to conduct a visual inspection of her school bus at the end of her route and, as a result, a child was left on the bus.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is dismissed. Petitioner's "S" endorsement is hereby suspended for six months from the date of this decision. Respondent is directed to notify the Motor Vehicle Commission of its obligation to suspend petitioner's school bus endorsement pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-26 et seq., and to notify petitioner's employer that she is ineligible during the period of suspension for continued employment as a school bus driver.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 28, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05358-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 111-4/23

ARLENE GARCIA,
Petitioner,
v.
NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,
Respondent.

Arlene Garcia, petitioner pro se

David Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: February 28, 2024 Decided: April 11, 2024

BEFORE EDWARD J. DELANOY, JR., Deputy Director and ALAJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Arlene Garcia (Garcia), challenges the suspension of her bus driver "S" endorsement. The six-month suspension is due to petitioner's alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, et seq., in leaving a child on a school bus assigned to her on November 16, 2020. The Office of Student Protection (OSP) determined that this was petitioner's first offense of this kind, and accordingly imposed a penalty of a six-month suspension of her "S" endorsement to operate a school bus.

Petitioner filed her Petition of Appeal with the Department on March 2, 2023. On June 14, 2023, the Department filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10.[1] The matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on June 15, 2023, as a contested case under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Petitioner relied on her statement in the Petition of Appeal. On February 28, 2024, the Department filed its supplemental brief, and on that date the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

On Thursday, December 22, 2022, around 3:30 p.m., Garcia was completing her normal route for Mary School Bus Transportation in the Franklin Township School District. After completing her last stop off Route 27, she proceeded to the bus yard to finish off her day. As she approached the traffic light on Route 27, she made a left-hand turn and went two blocks up when a child stood up, yawning and stretching their arms. She realized that a child was still on the bus. As she approached the bus yard, she parked the bus and immediately called her dispatcher. The dispatcher advised Garcia to remain with the child on the bus while he dispatched another bus driver to transport the child home. Garcia was instructed to write down the address for the other bus driver. Fifteen minutes after Garcia made the phone call, the other bus driver arrived at the bus yard. When the bus driver arrived, he came to the bus Garcia was assigned to and took the student home.

[1] The Department had initially filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer with the Commissioner of Education under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. The Department requested in its motion that once the matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law, the Department's motion be converted to a summary-decision motion under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, as no material facts are in dispute.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The School Bus Safety Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:39-26 to -33, requires that the school-bus driver "shall visually inspect the school bus to which he is assigned at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil has been left on the bus." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28. A violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 results in a mandatory penalty. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29. The statute dictates that "[i]n the event that, after notice and opportunity to be heard, a school bus driver is found to have left a pupil on the school bus at the end of his route, his school bus endorsement shall be: (a) suspended for six months, for a first offense . . . ." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29(a).

The issue in this case is whether the Department established by a preponderance of the credible evidence that Garcia failed to comply with the statutory requirement that the driver "shall visually inspect the school bus to which he is assigned at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil has been left on the bus." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28. Garcia has admitted that she did not visually inspect the bus when she dropped off the children at the last stop before proceeding to the bus lot. However, Garcia did discover the child was on her bus before she reached the bus depot. Therefore, the heart of the instant controversy lies in the interpretation of the "end of transportation route" phrase, which is not defined in the statute.

In Klein v. Department of Education, Criminal History Review Unit, EDU 00852-11, the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) concluded that the "end of the route" as used in N.J.S.A. 18A:39-26 "terminates at the point where all of the children in that group leave the bus . . . and the bus is empty of riders, and before the driver moves on to her next route. At that point, the driver shall inspect the bus for any remaining students." Klein, Comm'r decision (February 21, 2012), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, at 2. The Commissioner explained that

> [t]he record show[ed] that the driver by walking to the back of the bus on that day, turning off the "Child Minder" button, taking the keys out of the ignition, letting the children out, and locking the doors, fulfilled all indicia of "end of the route" activities save one: She did not inspect the bus. Accepting

> [the driver's] argument that the inspection did not have to take place until the bus returned to the depot at the end of the day defies reason and eviscerates the fundamental purpose of the statute – to protect our children and ensure their safety.
>
> [Id. at 2-3.]

In 2015, in Herman v. Department of Education Criminal History Review Unit, EDU 10473-14, Initial Decision (June 23, 2015), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, rev'd, Comm'r (July 30, 2015), <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>, the Commissioner again rejected the argument that the "end of transportation route" means at the end of the workday, once the bus is dropped off at the bus depot lot. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28's requirement of a visual inspection at the end of the route did not apply. The ALJ determined that the route had not ended as long as the bus driver had not left the vicinity of the bus; and that the visual inspection would be performed when she did depart the vicinity of the bus at the bus depot. Herman, Initial Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>. Upon review, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's initial decision. Citing Klein, the Commissioner reiterated that the bus driver violated the School Bus Safety Act when she failed to visually inspect the school bus at the end of her route – that is, following the departure of the students from the bus, and before returning to the depot. Herman, Comm'r Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>, at 5. Concurring with what he described as the "well-reasoned definition" of "end of the transportation route" provided by the Commissioner in Klein, the Commissioner declared the ALJ's rejection of the Commissioner's holding in Klein "undermines the purpose and intent of the School Bus Safety Act." Id. at 7. He explained

> [a]s the Commissioner stated in Klein, "Accepting petitioner's argument that the inspection did not have to take place until the bus returned to the depot at the end of the day defies reason and eviscerates the fundamental purpose of the statute – to protect our children and ensure their safety." Klein, supra, at 2. To hold otherwise would excuse – if not promote – inefficiency (by endorsing needless rides to the bus depot for our students) and place children at unnecessary risk of harm. It is nonsensical to delay visual inspection of the school bus until arrival at the bus depot when, in fact, any heightened safety risk to the children can be avoided > altogether if they are discovered on the bus while still present on school grounds or prior to leaving the route. While it may be true that [the student] was never left unattended, and it is not known from the present record whether he suffered any harm or distress, the visual inspection required by N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 should have occurred prior to departing the [school] at the end of the transportation route – when all of the other children had exited the bus.

>
> [Id. at 7-8.]

In his decision, the Commissioner also cited Vickery v. Department of Education Criminal History Review Unit, EDU 00083-15, Initial Decision (June 2, 2015), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (July 9, 2015), <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>, which he stated "reinforces the Act's requirement that the visual inspection of the school bus should have occurred before departing the [school] at the end of the transportation route – when all of the other children had exited the bus." Herman, Comm'r Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/> at 6.

In Vickery, a school bus driver similarly failed to complete the required visual inspection of the school bus following his departure at the last bus stop on route and consequently found a sixteen-year-old student, who had fallen asleep and failed to exit the bus, at the bus yard. The driver averred he had not violated the Act because he did not leave the child alone on the bus and conducted a visual inspection upon his return to the bus yard, which was the end of his route. The ALJ determined that pursuant to Klein the Act requires that an inspection be conducted when the last child is dropped off during the route, and not after the vehicle has finished its drop-offs and has returned to its garage or depot. Vickery, Initial Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>. On review, the Commissioner adopted the findings and determinations of the ALJ. Vickery, Comm'r Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>.

Following Klein, Herman and Vickery, the Commissioner has consistently held that the "end of the transportation route" means at the end of a student drop-off point. See Arcos v. Dep't of Educ., Crim. Hist. Rev. Unit, EDU 01752-18, Initial Decision, (November 7, 2018), adopted, Comm'r (September 20, 2018),

<http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> ("the end of the transportation route" triggering the school bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 occurs when the driver drops off the children at the assigned destination and not when the bus driver competes all of her assigned routes for the day.); Mitchell v. Dept. of Educ., Office of Student Protection, EDU 04117-21, Initial Decision, (October 18, 2021), adopted, Comm'r (November 29, 2021), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> ("the end of the transportation route" triggering the school bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 occurred when the driver left her bus unattended when she dropped off documents at the transportation center building and not when the bus driver competes all of her assigned routes for the day.); Pedi v. Dept. of Educ., Office of Student Protection, EDU 04317-21, Initial Decision (October 13, 2021), adopted, Comm'r (November 18, 2021), (bus driver violated N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 when she merely conducted a "turnaround view" and not a full visual inspection of the bus after her first student drop off, continued onto her second route, and subsequently found a child from her first route.); and Severe v. Dept. of Educ., Office of Student Protection, EDU 01502-21, Initial Decision (September 19, 2022), 2022 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 794, adopted, Comm'r (October 31, 2022), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (the "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 is when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination, that triggers the school-bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, not when the bus driver competes all of her assigned routes for the day.)

Here, Garcia does not mention in her Petition of Appeal that she did visually inspect the bus. As a result, she found a child on the bus as she was proceeding to the bus parking lot. Garcia needed to visually inspect the bus for children when she dropped the children off at their designated location. And as noted in Klein, it does not matter that she remained with the child until the other bus driver arrived to take the child home.

The statute is unambiguous in its requirement that the driver visually inspect the bus, and Garcia did not do so, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28. Since Garcia failed to do so, she violated N.J.S.A. 18A: 39-28. Because of the safety implication of such a violation, a mandatory penalty exists in the event that the OSP determines that a child was indeed left behind. Garner v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., Crim. Hist. Rev. Unit, 2009 N.J.

AGEN LEXIS 173 (April 3, 2009), adopted, Comm'r (May 1, 2009), https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/. Thus, "[i]n the event that . . . a school bus driver is found to have left a pupil on the school bus . . . , his school bus endorsement shall be: (a) suspended for six months, for a first offense . . . ." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29(a). Here, since Garcia was in clear violation of the statute, the penalty imposed is mandatory, and there is no discretion to impose anything less than a six-month suspension of her "S" endorsement. Where the violation has been established, no circumstances of the event or of the driver may be considered in determining the penalty. Garner, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 173 at *5–6.

I CONCLUDE that as the "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 is when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination, or the last bus stop, that triggers the school-bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, not when the bus driver completes all of her assigned routes for the day. The "end of the transportation route" does not mean at the end of the workday, which would imply the time the bus is dropped off at the bus parking lot.

The Department seeks relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), which provides that summary decision should be rendered "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." This provision mirrors the summary judgment language of R. 4:46-2(c) of the New Jersey Court Rules. The motion judge must "consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Ibid. (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. at 242, 249 (1986)). When the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Ibid. (quoting Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S at 252).

I CONCLUDE that the evidence presented by the parties does not establish any material facts in dispute. Given the limited facts that must be established to support a violation of the duty imposed by the Legislature on a school-bus driver to properly inspect the bus at the end of a route to assure that no child is left on the bus, the arguments offered by the Department amply support summary decision in its favor. And given the mandatory nature of the penalty for a first-time violator of the mandate, the six-month suspension is the only outcome where the violation is proven. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29(a). The Department's motion for summary decision must be GRANTED.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the Department's motion for summary decision is hereby GRANTED, and it is further ORDERED that the petitioner's "S" endorsement shall be suspended for six months.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 11, 2024
DATE

Edward J. Delanoy Jr.
EDWARD J. DELANOY, JR. ALAJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

EJD/cb

203-24R

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

D.D., on behalf of minor children, A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Magnolia, Camden County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that his five minor children were not domiciled within the Borough of Magnolia from November 11, 2023 forward and are therefore not entitled to a free public education in the Magnolia School District for the 2023-2024 school year. In his appeal, petitioner admitted that the family is now living in Gloucester City due to unforeseen problems with their residence in Magnolia but requested that his children be granted an exception to the residency requirement to allow them to complete the school year in Magnolia. The Board filed a motion for summary decision and requested tuition reimbursement for the period of the children's ineligible attendance.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner's family, including minor children A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D., were domiciled within the Borough of Magnolia and attended school within the District at the beginning of the 2023-2024 school year; however, prior to November 11, 2023, the District became aware that petitioner's family had moved from their Magnolia residence; and petitioner admitted that his family now resides in Gloucester City. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that respondent is entitled to summary decision, and ordered that the matter be remanded to the Board for a determination of the total amount of tuition due for the time period when A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. resided outside of the Magnolia school district during the 2023-2024 school.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's finding that petitioner and his children have not resided in Magnolia since at least November 11, 2023, and found that petitioner has not met his burden of proving that he is domiciled within the Magnolia school district; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a) and N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b), the Commissioner may assess tuition for the period of ineligible attendance; in this case, however, the record did not provide sufficient information to accurately determine the amount of tuition owed by petitioner. Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision was granted; petitioner's residency appeal was dismissed; and the matter was remanded to the Office of Administrative Law for further proceedings to develop the factual record so that the tuition amount owed to the Board may be properly calculated, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

203-24R

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01560-24
Agency Dkt. No. 18-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

D.D., on behalf of minor children, A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Magnolia, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

This matter concerns respondent Board of Education's December 20, 2023, determination that D.D. and his children no longer reside in the Borough of Magnolia and its demand for payment of tuition for the period of the children's ineligible attendance at school in the district. Petitioner appealed the Board's residency determination to the Commissioner. The Board filed an answer and counterclaim seeking payment of tuition, and the matter was transmitted to the OAL for further proceedings. Thereafter, the Board moved for summary decision.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioner and his children have not been domiciled within the district since at least November 11, 2023. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision and concluded that the Board was entitled to tuition reimbursement from petitioner. Because the record lacked information regarding the number of days of the children's ineligible attendance, the ALJ recommended that the matter be remanded to the Board for a determination of the total amount of tuition due.

"N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) mandates that public schools are free to any person, [over age five and] under twenty years of age, 'who is domiciled within the school district.'" K.K-M., on behalf of A.W. v. Bd. of Educ. of City of Gloucester City, 463 N.J. Super. 24, 31 (App. Div. 2020). A child's parents "'shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence' to prove domicile in the school district." D.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Princeton Reg'l Sch. Dist., 366 N.J. Super. 269, 273 (App. Div. 2004) (quoting N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2)). Upon review, the Commissioner finds that petitioner has not satisfied his burden of proving that he is domiciled in the district. The record supports the ALJ's finding that petitioner and his children have not resided in Magnolia since at least November 11, 2023.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a), if "petitioner does not sustain the burden of demonstrating the student's right to attend the school district, . . . the Commissioner may assess tuition for the period during which the hearing and decision on appeal were pending, and for up to one year of a student's ineligible attendance in a school district prior to the appeal's filing and including the 21-day period to file an appeal." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) provides that the Commissioner may order tuition "computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance." Because the record lacks information regarding each child's period of ineligible attendance, the Commissioner is unable to assess tuition against petitioner at this time.

Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision is granted, and petitioner's residency appeal is hereby dismissed. The matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings to develop the factual record regarding the number of days of each child's period of ineligible attendance so that the tuition amount owed to the Board may be calculated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 28, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01560-2024
AGENCY DKT. NO. 18-1/24

D.D. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN,
A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D. AND K.D.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF MAGNOLIA, CAMDEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

D.D., on behalf of minor children, A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D., petitioner, pro se

William C. Morlock, Esq., for respondent (Gorman, D'Anella & Morlock, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 15, 2024 Decided: April 18, 2024

BEFORE REBECCA C. LAFFERTY, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, D.D. (petitioner or D.D.), the father of minor children, A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D., appeals the December 19, 2023 determination by the respondent, Board of Education of the Borough of Magnolia, Camden County (respondent or Board), that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were not domiciled within the Borough of Magnolia School District (District) and that tuition reimbursement is required. The respondent alleges that the minor children A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D., were not residing at the address provided by the petitioner within the District and seeks repayment of tuition. At issue is whether A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were entitled to be enrolled in the District for purposes of receiving a thorough and efficient public education free of charge for the 2023-2024 school year, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

By letter, dated December 20, 2023, the respondent notified petitioner that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were ineligible to continue to attend school within the District as they were no longer domiciled in the District. The petitioner filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal on or about January 24, 2024. The respondent filed an Answer and Cross Petition for tuition on February 1, 2024. The Department of Education Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) where it was filed on February 1, 2024, as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

Several telephone conferences were conducted and on March 6, 2024, an email was sent to the parties confirming the briefing schedule for a motion for summary decision. The respondent filed a motion for summary decision on March 13, 2024. Petitioner's opposition to the summary decision motion was due on April 1, 2024, but no opposition was received by the OAL on that date. A follow-up email was sent to the parties on April 2, 2024, and a status conference was held on April 8, 2024, at which time petitioner advised that he wished to submit a response to the respondent's summary decision motion. On April 15, 2024, petitioner submitted an email in opposition to the summary decision motion, and on that same date, counsel for the respondent notified this Tribunal that the respondent would not be filing a reply brief.

FACTUAL DISCUSSIONS AND FINDINGS

The facts are not in dispute, and I FIND:

Petitioner's family including A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were residents of and domiciled within the Borough of Magnolia (Borough) and were attending school within the District at the beginning of the 2023-2024 school year. Prior to November 11, 2023, it came to the attention of the District's administration, that petitioner's family moved from their residence in the Borough. (See Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.) On November 16, 2023, the District sent correspondence to the family addressing the residency issue and requesting that the family confirm their residency status as soon as possible. (See Exhibit B to the Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.) After receiving the request for residency confirmation, Mrs. D. advised the District that the family was living with L.R. within the District. (See Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.) Thereafter, the school principal, Paul Sorrentino, conducted surveillance on three separate occasions and did not observe any of D.D.'s family members at L.R.'s residence at any point in time. (See Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.)

On December 6, 2023, the District sent the family correspondence stating that the school administration was aware that the family was no longer domiciled within the Borough, and the Board would be discussing the issue and voting on removing the children from the school and seeking tuition reimbursement of $95,000 at the December 19, 2023 Board meeting. (See Exhibit C to the Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.)

During the executive session of the December 19, 2023 Board meeting, D.D. admitted that the family was living in Gloucester City where the family had a lease for a residence, which he later disclosed was located at xxx Powell Street, Gloucester City, New Jersey. (See Pro Se Residency Appeal, petitioner's email of April 15, 2024, and the Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.) On December 19, 2023, based on the information presented, including the information provided by D.D. at the Board meeting, the Board unanimously voted to disenroll A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. from the District because the family was no longer domiciled within the District. (See Exhibit D to the Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.) On December 20, 2023, the Board notified D.D. that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were ineligible to continue to attend school within the District as they were no longer domiciled in the District. (See Exhibit E to the Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.)

Additionally, I FIND as fact that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. have not been domiciled within the District since at least November 11, 2023.

I further FIND as fact that the daily per pupil tuition rate for the District for the 2023-2024 school year is $104.39, which equates to a combined daily rate of $521.95 for all five children. (See attached Certification of Paul Sorrentino, Principal.)

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

A motion for summary decision shall be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

A determination whether a genuine issue of material fact exists that precludes summary decision requires the judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Id. (citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986)). When the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. at 252. I CONCLUDE that this matter is ripe for summary decision.

The issue in this appeal is whether A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. had been domiciled in the District during the 2023–2024 school year.

Public schools are required to provide a free education to individuals between the ages of five and twenty years in certain circumstances, including individuals who are domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1) provides: "A student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district." See also P.B.K. ex rel. minor child E.Y. v. Bd. of Educ. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super. 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001). Thus, a child would routinely attend school in the district where his or her parents live. The petitioner has the burden of proof in a determination of residency eligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). When a child is found to be ineligible to attend a school in its district, a school board is entitled to recover tuition from the parent or guardian of the child found ineligible to attend within the district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2).

A review of the record and undisputed facts reveals that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. have not been domiciled within the District while attending school there since at least November 11, 2023. Petitioner advised the Board at the December Board meeting that his family had been residing in Gloucester City due to unforeseen circumstances causing them to leave their residence in the Borough. Petitioner argues in his opposition to this motion that he understands that his children are not permitted to attend District schools if they no longer reside in the District, but he seeks an exception to allow them to finish the school year in the District. Thus, it is clear that petitioner's family is now domiciled outside of the District in Gloucester City, this fact having been confirmed by the petitioner. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the respondent is entitled to summary decision that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were not entitled to attend school in the District and receive a free public education there pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) since at least November 11, 2023.

I further CONCLUDE that because A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. were not entitled to receive a free public education in the District since at least November 11, 2023, the respondent is entitled to tuition reimbursement from petitioner. The daily per pupil tuition rate for the District for the 2023-2024 school year is $104.39, which equates to a combined daily rate of $521.95 for all five children. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that respondent is entitled to summary decision on its Cross Petition for tuition reimbursement from petitioner for the cost of providing an education to A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. at the daily per pupil tuition rate for the 2023-2024 school year of $104.39, which equates to a combined daily rate of $521.95, beginning from the date that it is determined that the family began residing outside of the District until the date that A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. are disenrolled in the District.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED and petitioner's appeal is hereby DISMISSED.

It is further ORDERED that the matter be remanded to respondent for a determination of the total amount of tuition due for the time period in question when A.D., J.D., K.D., J.D., and K.D. resided outside of the Magnolia Township school district during the 2023-2024 school.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Rebecca C. Lafferty

April 18, 2024
DATE

REBECCA C. LAFFERTY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

RCL/tat

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

Email opposing respondent's motion for summary decision, dated April 15, 2024

For respondent

Notice of Motion for Summary Decision; Respondent's Statement of Material Facts in Support of Motion for Summary Decision; Respondent's Brief in Support of Motion for Summary Decision; and Certification of Paul Sorrentino on Behalf of Respondent/Cross-Petitioner with attached Exhibits A – E

Correspondence from respondent's counsel, dated April 15, 2024

204-24
OAL Dkt. No. 03535-24
Agency Dkt. No. 20-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Frederick Thorworth,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner appeals the January 4, 2024 decision of the New Jersey Department of Education's (NJDOE) Office of Student Protection (OSP), disqualifying him from employment in schools under the supervision of the NJDOE. Petitioner's criminal history records showed three convictions: 1) possession of marijuana in Ohio in 1971;[1] 2) sixth-degree possession of a dangerous drug in New York in 1972;[2] and 3) seventh-degree possession of a controlled substance in New York in 1973.[3]

[1] The criminal history search results do not list a specific Ohio statute for this offense. The information provided by petitioner demonstrates that this offense involved a nominal amount of marijuana.

[2] The criminal history search results list the offense under New York Penal Law §220.05. New York no longer has a sixth-degree possession offense. Pursuant to New York Penal Law §220.06, fifth-degree possession is based on

Following the OSP's motion to dismiss, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 requires disqualification for offenses involving the possession of controlled dangerous substances, which includes marijuana. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the OSP's motion to dismiss.

Upon review, the Commissioner rejects the Initial Decision. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 requires a disqualification for a conviction in another state when it is for a crime or offense "substantially equivalent" to a disqualifying crime or offense under New Jersey law. The Commissioner has previously concluded that criminal history background checks "must be reviewed and effectuated based on the standards of the law then in effect." Joseph V. Cidoni v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Camden, Camden Co., and N.J. Dep't of Educ., Commissioner Decision No. 82-06 (Feb. 27, 2006); see also Eduardo Nunez v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., Commissioner Decision No. 192-05 (May 26, 2005). Therefore, the Commissioner must determine whether there is currently a New Jersey crime or offense substantially equivalent to the Ohio and New York offenses of which petitioner was convicted. The Commissioner concludes that there is not. Following the enactment of L. 2021, c. 19 in 2021, individuals in possession of small amounts of marijuana, such as those at issue in petitioner's convictions, are no longer charged with crimes in New Jersey.

---

possession of one-half ounce or more. Accordingly, the Commissioner concludes that the amount of marijuana involved in petitioner's 1972 conviction was less than one-half ounce.

[3] The criminal history search results list the offense under New York Penal Law §220.03. This provision lists no weight requirement; however, as it is a lesser offense than fifth-degree possession of one-half ounce or more, the Commissioner concludes that the amount of marijuana involved in petitioner's 1973 conviction was less than one-half ounce.

Accordingly, the relief requested in the petition of appeal is granted. The decision of the OSP disqualifying the petitioner from employment in schools under the supervision of the NJDOE is hereby vacated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 28, 2024

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03535-24
AGENCY DKT.NO. 20-1/24

FREDERICK THROWORTH,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,

Respondent.

F.T., petitioner, pro se

David Kalisky, Esq. for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 10, 2024 Decided: April 17, 2024

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

This motion to dismiss in lieu of answer was brought by New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection (NJDOE) in the above-mentioned matter on or about March 8, 2024. Petitioner, Frederick Throworth (Throworth) filed a reply on March 28, 2024. NJDOE supplemented its motion on April 10, 2024

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Throworth applied for the position of teacher's aide in the Sussex-Wantage Regional School District. On or about January 24, 2024, NJDOE notified Throworth that based on his background check showing three convictions for marijuana related offenses in 1971, 1972 and 1973, he was permanently disqualified from serving in any position, paid or unpaid with any education institution under the supervision of the Department of Education. On September 9, 1971, Throworth was convicted in Columbus, Ohio of possession of marijuana. He received a thirty-day suspended sentence. On December 11, 1972, Throworth was convicted of criminal possession of controlled substances seventh degree, marijuana, in Fallsburg, New York. He received a conditional discharge. Throworth was convicted of criminal possession of a controlled dangerous substance, marijuana, seventh degree in Southampton, New York on December 11, 1973. He was sentenced to ninety days incarceration.

Throworth does not deny that he was convicted of these offenses. However, as to the Columbus Ohio 1971 conviction, he stated that he pled guilty due to his attorneys advise. Regarding the 1972 Fallsburg conviction Throworth states that he was in jail for six days and evidently pled guilty. As to the South Hampton Conviction Throworth states that marijuana was found near him after he was at a party and the police arrived.

All of these convictions are from fifty years ago. Since that time Throworth has not been arrested, he has been married for forty-eight years and has two adult daughters. He worked as an optician for thirty years. The Christine Leaders Institute granted Thorworth the title of officiant ordination for ministry issued on March 16, 2017. He has a Certificate of Authority from the State of New Jersey for the Guitar Shop, which was issued on June 8, 1999.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g) provides:

> Nothing in this section precludes the filing of a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer to a petition, provided that such motion is filed within the time allotted for the filing of an answer. Briefing on such motions shall be in the manner and within the time fixed by the Commissioner, or by the ALJ if the motion is to be briefed following transmittal to the OAL.

N.J.A.C. 6a:3-1.10 provides:

> At any time prior to transmittal of the pleadings to the OAL, in the Commissioner's discretion or upon motion to dismiss filed in lieu of answer, the Commissioner may dismiss the petition on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true or for lack of jurisdiction, failure to prosecute or other good reason.
>
> On a motion made pursuant to R. 4:6-2(e) "the inquiry is confined to a consideration of the legal sufficiency of the alleged facts apparent on the face of the challenged claim." P. & J. Auto Body v. Miller, 72 N.J. Super. 207, 211 (App.Div.1962). The court may not consider anything other than whether the complaint states a cognizable cause of action. Ibid. For this purpose, "all facts alleged in the complaint and legitimate inferences drawn therefrom are deemed admitted." Smith v. City of Newark, 136 N.J. Super. 107, 112 (App.Div.1975). See also Heavner v. Uniroyal, Inc., 63 N.J. 130, 133 (1973); Polk v. Schwartz, 166 N.J. Super. 292, 299 (App.Div.1979). A complaint should not be dismissed under this rule where a cause of action is suggested by the facts and a theory of actionability may be articulated by way of amendment. Muniz v. United Hsps. Med. Ctr. Pres. Hsp., 153 N.J. Super. 79, 82-83 (App.Div.1977). However, a dismissal is mandated where the factual allegations are palpably insufficient to support a claim upon which relief can be granted. Reider v. State Department of Transportation 221 N.J. Super. 547,522 (App.Div. 1987)

A party must have standing to have the "ability or entitlement to maintain an action before the court." In re Baby T., 160 N.J. 332, 340 (N.J.,1999). Standing is "a threshold justiciability determination whether the litigant is entitled to initiate and maintain an action before a court or other tribunal." In re Six Month Extension of N.J.A.C. 5:91-1 et seq., 372 N.J. Super 61, 85 (App. Div. 2004).

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 (b) provides:

> A facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education and board of education which cares for, or is involved in the education of children under the age of 18 shall not employ for pay or contract for the paid services of any teaching staff member or substitute teacher, teacher aide, child study team member, school physician, school nurse, custodian, school maintenance worker, cafeteria worker, school law enforcement officer, school secretary or clerical worker or any other person serving in a position which involves regular contact with pupils unless the employer has first determined consistent with the requirements and standards of this act, that no criminal history record information exists on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Identification Division, or the State Bureau of Identification which would disqualify that individual from being employed or utilized in such capacity or position. An individual employed by a board of education or a school bus contractor holding a contract with a board of education, in the capacity of a school bus driver, shall be required to meet the criminal history record requirements pursuant to section 6 of P.L.1989, c.104 (C.18A:39-19.1). A facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education and board of education which cares for or is involved in the education of children under the age of 18 may require criminal history record checks for individuals who, on an unpaid voluntary basis, provide services that involve regular contact with pupils. In the case of school districts involved in a sending-receiving relationship, the decision to require criminal history record checks for volunteers shall be made jointly by the boards of education of the sending and receiving districts.
> An individual, except as provided in subsection g. of this section, shall be permanently disqualified from employment or service under this act if the individual's criminal history record check reveals a record of conviction for any crime of the first or second degree; or
>
> b. An offense involving the manufacture, transportation, sale, possession, distribution or habitual use of a "controlled dangerous substance" as defined in the "Comprehensive Drug Reform Act of 1987," N.J.S.2C:35-1 et al. or "drug paraphernalia" as defined pursuant to N.J.S.2C:36-1 et seq.; or

N.J.S.A. 2C: 35-2 defines controlled dangerous substance as:

> "Controlled dangerous substance" means a drug, substance, or immediate precursor in Schedules I through V, marijuana and hashish as defined in this section, any substance the distribution of which is specifically prohibited in N.J.S.2C:35-3, in section 3 of P.L.1997, c.194 (C.2C:35-5.2), in section 5 of P.L.1997, c.194 (C.2C:35-5.3), in section 2 of P.L.2011, c.120 (C.2C:35-5.3a), or in section 2 of P.L.2013, c.35 (C.2C:35-5.3b), > and any drug or substance which, when ingested, is metabolized or otherwise becomes a controlled dangerous substance in the human body. When any statute refers to controlled dangerous substances, or to a specific controlled dangerous substance, it shall also be deemed to refer to any drug or substance which, when ingested, is metabolized or otherwise becomes a controlled dangerous substance or the specific controlled dangerous substance, and to any substance that is an immediate precursor of a controlled dangerous substance or the specific controlled dangerous substance. The term shall not include distilled spirits, wine, malt beverages, as those terms are defined or used in R.S.33:1-1 et seq., tobacco and tobacco products, or cannabis and cannabis as defined in section 3 of P.L.2021, c.16 (C.24:6I-33). The term, wherever it appears in any law or administrative regulation of this State, shall include controlled substance analogs.

Marijuana is defined as:

> Marijuana" means all parts of the plant Cannabis sativa L., whether growing or not; the seeds thereof, and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the plant or its seeds, except those containing resin extracted from the plant. "Marijuana" shall not mean: hemp and hemp products cultivated, handled, processed, transported, or sold pursuant to the "New Jersey Hemp Farming Act," P.L.2019, c.238 (C.4:28-6 et al.); or cannabis as defined in section 3 of P.L.2021, c.16 (C.24:6I-33) which is cultivated and produced for use in a cannabis item, as defined in that section, in accordance with the "New Jersey Cannabis Regulatory, Enforcement Assistance, and Marketplace Modernization Act," P.L.2021, c.16 (C.24:6I-31 et al.).

Prior to the 1998 amendment to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 there was a provision had a provision stating that:

> Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act if the individual has affirmatively demonstrated to the Commissioner of Education clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. In determining whether an individual has affirmatively demonstrated rehabilitation, the following factors shall be considered:
>
> (1) The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
>
> (2) The nature and seriousness of the offense;
>
> (3) The circumstances under which the offense occurred;

(4) The date of the offense;

(5) The age of the individual when the offense was committed;

(6) Whether the offense was an isolated or repeated incident;

(7) Any social conditions which may have contributed to the offense;

(8) Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have had the individual under their supervision WITHOUT AN OPPORTUNITY TO appeal CHALLENGE THE ACCURACY OF THE DISQUALIFYING CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD

The 1998 amendment deleted this portion of the statute. The statute does not have a rehabilitation component. In the Matter of Otto Krupp Teaching Certificates EDU 5196-03 Final Decision. Although Throworth' s last conviction was in 1973, all of his convictions were for possession of marijuana. N.J.S.A. 2C: 35-2 includes marijuana as a controlled dangerous substance., even though marijuana has been de criminalized.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d) provides:

For the purposes of this section, a conviction exists if the individual has at any time been convicted under the laws of this State or under any similar statutes of the United States or any other state for a substantially equivalent crime or other offense.

Throworth's convictions were in Ohio and New York for possession of marijuana. I CONCLUDE N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 (b) applies in this matter because Throworth was convicted of possession of marijuana offenses in 1971, 1972 and 1973.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's request for the petition to be dismissed is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 17, 2024

DATE

KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 17, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 17, 2024

ljb

207-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lisa Yourman,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn, Bergen County, and Robert Barbarulo, Respondents.

AND

Lisa Yourman,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn, Bergen County, and Elyss Frenkel, Respondents.

Synopsis

Petitioner initiated this consolidated matter in August 2020 via two petitions of appeal challenging the respondent Board's approval of the purchase of a vehicle for use by the superintendent of the Fair Lawn Public School District (District). Petitioner alleged that respondents Ronald Barbarulo and Elyss Frenkel, then President and Vice President of the Board, violated certain school laws and regulations in connection with providing the superintendent with a new SUV for his personal use, absent approval of the full Board at a public meeting. The Board contended that the petition is moot as the superintendent relinquished the vehicle and is no longer employed by the District. The two petitions were consolidated in 2023 after unsuccessful settlement negotiations between the parties; cross motions for summary decision were then filed by the parties.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: most of petitioner's complaints dealt with the past purchase and assignment of a vehicle to the superintendent, along with alleged past infractions of the recordkeeping required by N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.11 and -6.12; since the former superintendent and business administrator are no longer employed in the District, the appeal is now moot. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter, but reminded the Board that it must comply with all aspects of N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12 in the future.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

207-24

OAL Dkt. Nos. EDU 00251-21, 00252-21 (consolidated)
Agency Dkt. Nos. 186-8/20, 187-8/20

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lisa Yourman,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn, Bergen County, and Ronald Barbarulo, Respondents.

AND

Lisa Yourman,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn, Bergen County, and Elyss Frenkel,

Respondents.

The record of this consolidated matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

In August 2020, petitioner initiated this consolidated matter via the filing of two petitions of appeal with the Office of Controversies and Disputes. The petitions alleged that respondents Ronald Barbarulo and Elyss Frenkel, then President and Vice President of the Fair Lawn Board of Education, violated certain school laws and regulations in connection with providing Board Superintendent Nicholas Norcia with a new Ford Explorer SUV valued at $29,979.70 for his personal use absent approval of the full Board at a public meeting.

In particular, petitioner alleged that respondents violated N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12(b), (b)(1), and (h) ("District board of education vehicle assignment and use policy"); N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-3.1(a) and (e)(14) ("Review of employment contracts for superintendents, assistant superintendents, and school business administrators"); N.J.S.A. 18A:7-8(j) (Executive County Superintendent approval of board employment contracts); and N.J.S.A. 18A:19-4 (Audit of claims against boards of education). She further alleged that respondents violated the Code of Ethics for School Board Members, specifically N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).

The Board moved to dismiss the petitions for lack of jurisdiction, asserting that the School Ethics Commission was the proper venue to adjudicate the matters against Barbarulo and Frenkel. In addition, the Board argued that petitioner failed to name the Board of Education—an indispensable party—as a respondent in each action. Before the matter was transmitted to the OAL, petitioner filed a reply to the Board's motion along with a proposed amended petition wherein she removed the allegations pertaining to the Code of Ethics for School Board Members. She also added two new respondents, Board Superintendent Nicholas Norcia, and Business Administrator Brooke Bartley. In the proposed amended petition, petitioner alleged that respondents violated N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12(b), (b)(1), (b)(2), (e), and (h) and requested the following relief:

1) Mr. Norcia should reimburse the district for the full amount the Fair Lawn Board of Education paid for the SUV vehicle and take personal ownership.

2) Ms. Bartley should reimburse the District for the cost of insuring the vehicle during the time period the Fair Lawn Board of Education owned the vehicle.

3) In addition, going forward, the District should approve all vehicle purchases and all purchases over $10,000 at open public meetings before they take possession of the purchase.

4) In addition to the regular audits required by Law that is done yearly, there should be a mandated two-year audit (July 1, 2018-June 30, 2020) by the County Superintendent's office and/or by the Office of Fiscal Accountability and Compliance and continue this process for the next 5 school calendar years.

[Amended Petition, p. 7.]

Thereafter, the Board filed correspondence with the Office of Controversies and Disputes objecting to petitioner's attempt to amend the petitions without seeking leave to do so pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.7(a). The Board expressed that it did not consent to the amendments and maintained that the petitions should be dismissed. Without adjudicating the Board's motion to dismiss, the Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the matters to the OAL and added the Board to the caption.[1]

In August 2023, following an extended period of discovery and settlement negotiations between the parties, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted the Board's motion to consolidate the two related matters. The parties cross-moved for summary decision.[2] In sum,

[1] The Board did not object to being named as a respondent in either matter. See Respondent's Letter Brief in Support of Cross-Motion for Summary Decision/Dismissal dated August 25, 2023, at 10 ("Although the Board has not formally been joined as a party, the Office of Controversies and Disputes appropriately added the Board of Education as a named respondent in transmitting the controversy to the OAL.").

[2] It does not appear that the Board's initial motion to dismiss the petition was ever ruled upon by the ALJ.

petitioner argued that respondents failed to comply with N.J.A.C. 6A:23A fiscal regulations and its own Board policy and regulation 7650 in connection with the purchase and permissible use of the SUV assigned to Norcia. Specifically, she claimed that the Board did not approve the purchase or assignment of the vehicle to Norcia at a public meeting until after she filed an ethics complaint, despite the fact that he had already been using the vehicle for months; that Norcia misused the vehicle for personal travel; that Norcia did not maintain accurate mileage logs; and that the regulations only allow for a sedan to be purchased, not an SUV.

In response, the Board argued that the consolidated matter should be dismissed as moot because Norcia ceased using the vehicle effective July 27, 2021, and neither he nor Bartley are working in the district any longer. It further argued that the matter should be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. However, the Board acknowledged that: (1) it assigned the SUV to Norcia on March 16, 2020; (2) "A public vote was never taken to provide the Superintendent a car benefit"; (3) "A public vote was not taken in March 2020 to approve the purchase of the vehicle, but was later placed on the public agenda and approved on November 19, 2020"; and (4) it produced mileage logs it possessed for Norcia's use of the vehicle covering the time periods from July 17, 2020 to September 25, 2020 and April 20, 2021 to June 12, 2021. Respondent's Letter Brief in Support of Cross-Motion for Summary Decision/Dismissal dated August 25, 2023, at 3-4.

As explained in an Initial Decision issued April 18, 2024, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision on mootness grounds, denied petitioner's motion for summary decision, and dismissed the consolidated matter. Referring to the relief petitioner requested in her proposed amended petition, the ALJ reasoned that because Norcia ceased all use of the vehicle in question effective July 27, 2021, and because Norcia and Bartley were no longer employed by the district, "no relief can be granted" as to Norcia and Bartley individually "and, thus, the matter is no longer actionable." Initial Decision, at 4. As for petitioner's requests for relief against the Board concerning advanced approval of purchases over $10,000 and for additional audits to take place, the ALJ reasoned that "any corrective action sought to be imposed upon or against the Board, itself, is not available relief for the petitioner, as the undersigned does not have the authority to impose any such change in Board procedure or practice under N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.11 and -6.12, respectively." Ibid. The ALJ did not specifically address petitioner's allegations regarding the involvement of Barbarulo or Frenkel.

In her exceptions, petitioner argues that the ALJ failed to adequately address all remedies she requested in her initial filing, including that Barbarulo and Frenkel be publicly censured. She further contends that the ALJ failed to acknowledge the involvement of Barbarulo and Frenkel, and failed to address her claims regarding Norcia's falsification of government records. She also asserts that the Initial Decision "sets a troubling precedent by seemingly allowing business administrators, superintendents, and/or board members to allocate taxpayer funds in contravention of the law without facing any consequences, provided they simply leave their positions," petitioner's exceptions, at 1, and reiterates the arguments she asserted before the ALJ that were considered and rejected.

In reply, the Board argues that the ALJ's Initial Decision granting its motion for summary decision on mootness grounds should be adopted. It asserts that petitioner's arguments regarding the conduct of former Board members are not properly before the Commissioner because jurisdiction over these allegations lies with the School Ethics Commission. As for her claims regarding the Board's past noncompliance with fiscal accountability regulations at N.J.A.C. 6A:23A, the Board emphasizes that it ratified the purchase of the vehicle in November 2020, Norcia surrendered the vehicle in July 2021, and both he and Bartley are no longer employed in the district. Accordingly, the Board maintains that there is no longer any relief that could be granted by the Commissioner, other than a declaratory ruling admonishing the Board to comply with the regulations in the future. The Board also argues that petitioner's remaining exceptions simply restate the arguments expressed in her submissions to the ALJ that were already considered.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the ALJ's Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. At the outset, a procedural issue must be addressed. Although petitioner never formally moved to amend her original petition, she submitted a proposed amended petition in response to the Board's motion to dismiss. Because the ALJ's Initial Decision references the relief sought in the proposed amended petition and the newly named respondents (Norcia and Bartley), it appears that the ALJ allowed petitioner to amend her pleadings pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2. In her amended petition, petitioner removed the allegations pertaining to the Code of Ethics for School Board Members in recognition of the fact that those allegations fell within the jurisdiction of the School Ethics Commission. Accordingly, the Commissioner finds that the ALJ did not err by failing to adequately address allegations contained in her initial petitions against Barbarulo and Frenkel. Her request that they be publicly censured is for the School Ethics Commission to determine.

As for petitioner's assertion that the ALJ should have addressed her claims regarding Norcia's falsification of mileage and travel logs for the vehicle, the ALJ correctly determined that the regulation upon which petitioner relies—N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12—does not allow the Commissioner to provide the remedy petitioner is seeking, i.e., for Norcia to reimburse the district for the cost of the vehicle. Thus, even assuming Norcia failed to maintain accurate vehicle use logs in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12(e), the remedy petitioner seeks against Norcia personally is unavailable. Similarly, even assuming as petitioner alleges that Barbarulo, Frenkel and Bartley were involved with the purchase of the SUV and assignment of same to Norcia, the remedies petitioner seeks against them personally are unavailable under N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12. Finally, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the remedies petitioner seeks against the Board—i.e., advanced approval of all purchases over $10,000 at a public meeting and additional audits—are likewise unavailable under the regulatory scheme upon which petitioner relies. That said, the Commissioner reminds the Board that, going forward, it must comply with all aspects of N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.12, District board of education vehicle assignment and use policy, in a timely manner.

Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision is granted, petitioner's motion for summary decision is denied, and the consolidated matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 31, 2024

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION

LISA YOURMAN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOROUGH OF FAIR LAWN BOARD OF EDUCATION, BERGEN COUNTY, AND RONALD BARBARULO, Respondents.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00251-21
AGENCY DKT. NO. 186-08/20

(CONSOLIDATED)

LISA YOURMAN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOROUGH OF FAIR LAWN BOARD OF EDUCATION, BERGEN COUNTY, AND ELYSS FRENKEL, Respondents.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00252-21
AGENCY DKT. NO. 187-08/20

Lisa Yourman, petitioner, pro se

Paul H. Green, Esq., for respondents (Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 18, 2024 Decided: April 18, 2024

BEFORE JUDE-ANTHONY TISCORNIA, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Lisa Yourman (Yourman) challenges the Fair Lawn Board of Education's (Board's) approval of a personal vehicle for the superintendent of the Fair Lawn Public School District (District). On motion, the Board argues that the petition is moot, as the superintendent relinquished the vehicle and both the superintendent and the Board's business administrator subsequently sought employment at another district.

ISSUE

Is the petition moot? Yes. The matter should be dismissed.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Yourman filed two separate petitions with the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education (Department/Agency) on August 31, 2020. One petition was docketed by the Agency as 186-08/20 and transmitted as a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on December 15, 2020, and thereafter docketed as EDU 00251-21. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. This matter was captioned on the OAL transmittal as "Lisa Yourman v. Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn, Bergen County, and Ronald Barbarulo." The other petition was docketed by the Agency as 187-08/20 and transmitted as a contested case to the OAL, where it was filed on December 15, 2020, and thereafter docketed as EDU 00252-21. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. This second matter was captioned on the OAL transmittal as "Lisa Yourman v. Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn, Bergen County, and Elyss Frenkel." Both matters essentially alleged the same facts, and differed only in that each named a different individual Board member in the caption.

The matters were assigned to the undersigned in January 2021. From the outset, Yourman made repeated discovery demands for copies of mileage and maintenance logs for the subject vehicle from the District, to which the District continually maintained that all such records that were available to the District had been provided to Yourman. Aside from this discovery issue, both parties expressed a willingness to settle both matters from the outset. After approximately one year of negotiations, a draft settlement agreement was circulated, but never consummated. Continued attempts were made to make minor alterations to the language to make the document amenable to the parties, but no amicable resolution could be achieved.

On August 25, 2023, Yourman moved for summary decision. The Board responded with opposition to same, along with a cross-motion for summary decision, on October 16, 2023. On December 7, 2023, the parties notified the undersigned that they wished to file a motion for consolidation to be considered prior to consideration of the motion for summary decision. The Board sent a motion to consolidate the two matters, which was received by the undersigned on March 14, 2024. On Friday, March 15, 2024, Yourman asked the undersigned if she could have until Monday, March 18, 2024, to respond to the motion to consolidate. On March 18, 2024, the undersigned received via e-mail from Yourman copies of the original complaints she filed and the transmittals she received from the Department, along with corresponding e-mails regarding the filings, and minutes from a School Ethics Commission meeting, dated January 26, 2021.

MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE

While each transmittal names a separate individual board member in the caption, each petition also names the Board as a whole. Thus, I FIND that the identities of the parties in each of the matters are duplicative to the extent that consolidation is warranted. As the underlying petitions each seem to allege the same facts, and seek essentially the same remedy, I FIND that the nature of all the questions of fact and law are the same. Further, to the extent that common questions of fact and law are involved, I FIND that it would be proper, in the interest of saving time and expense, and in preventing duplication and inconsistency of outcome, to consolidate the two matters. Based on the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that consolidation of EDU 00251-21 and EDU 00252-21 is warranted under N.J.A.C. 1:1-17.3, and the matters are, hereby, CONSOLIDATED.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The petitioner alleges that that the Board should not have provided a vehicle, in this case a Ford sport utility vehicle, for the superintendent's use. The complaints filed essentially seek the following relief: 1) that the superintendent (Norcia) reimburse the school district for any period in which he used the vehicle; 2) that the business administrator (Bartley) reimburse the school district for the cost of insuring the vehicle in question; 3) that protocols be put in place so that any purchase over $10,000 in the future only be approved during a public meeting of the Board (not in closed session); and 4) that regular audits of the superintendent's office be done by the Office of Fiscal Accountability. Thus, the prayer for relief purports to be grounded in school ethics law, generally, along with fiscal accountability/recordkeeping regulations, N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.11 et seq. Petitioner seeks penalties to be imposed against both the superintendent and the business administrator individually (numbers 1 and 2), as well as corrective action to be imposed against the Board going forward (numbers 3 and 4). It should be noted that there is a separate school ethics complaint, currently pending before the School Ethics Commission, that is not affected by this decision.

Regarding any relief sought against Norcia or Bartley individually, both Norcia and Bartley cease to be employed by the District, and Norcia ceased all use of the subject vehicle effective July 27, 2021. As the bulk of petitioner's complaints deal with the past purchase and assignment of a vehicle to Norcia, along with alleged past infractions of the recordkeeping required by N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.11 and -6.12, and since both Norcia and Bartley are no longer employed in the District, I CONCLUDE that the appeal is moot, as no relief can be granted, and, thus, the matter is no longer actionable. I FURTHER CONCLUDE that any corrective action sought to be imposed upon or against the Board, itself, is not available relief for the petitioner, as the undersigned does not have the authority to impose any such change in Board procedure or practice under N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-6.11 and -6.12, respectively.

An action is considered moot when it no longer presents a justiciable controversy, and the conflict between the parties has become merely hypothetical. In re Conroy, 190 N.J. Super. 453, 458 (App. Div. 1983). The doctrine of mootness has utility in the administrative setting if no effective relief can be granted in a case. In re Tenure Hearing of Mujica, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 168 (March 15, 2006), adopted, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 660 (April 25, 2006) (stating also that the commissioner of the Department of Education will not decide moot cases).

The most common use of the mootness doctrine occurs in cases where changed circumstances render the relief sought impossible to grant. W. Morris Reg'l Bd. of Educ. v. A.M. & K.H., 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 686 (Nov. 30, 2005). As noted above, neither Norcia nor Bartley is currently employed with the District, and, thus, I CONCLUDE that the circumstances have changed so as to render the relief sought by petitioner impossible to grant.

It is well-settled law in New Jersey that cases that have become moot prior to adjudication are no longer actionable. See Mujica, 2006 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 168, at *10 (citing Coviello v. Bd. of Educ. of Fair Lawn, 1993 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1402 (March 22, 1993)). Based on the foregoing, and barring any authority which enables the undersigned to alter the Board's purchasing procedures going forward, I CONCLUDE that the matter at bar is no longer actionable.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's motion for summary decision should be denied, and the Board's cross-motion for summary decision dismissing the petition should be granted.

ORDER

It is, hereby, ORDERED that respondent Board's motion for summary decision is GRANTED, and petitioner Lisa Yourman's petition is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 18, 2024
DATE

JUDE-ANTHONY TISCORNIA, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 4/18/24

Date Mailed to Parties: 4/18/24

id

208-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Stephanie Bradberry,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro-se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE) denying her application for a standard administrative certificate with a supervisor endorsement. The SBE based its decision upon petitioner's failure to satisfy N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii, which requires six graduate-level semester-hour credits in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development. Petitioner maintained that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable, and was inconsistent with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii, contending that she is "more than qualified" with many years in academia as well as experience since 2004 with "writing or contributing to curriculum [sic], founding and owning two educational businesses, and [a] Doctoral candidacy in Education: Curriculum and Teaching." The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner disagreed with the Board's assessment that her proffered alternative education and experience is not equivalent to her three-credit deficiency in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development; the Board argued that petitioner "failed to proffer any evidence demonstrating that the Board's decision was not consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions;" petitioner urged the Board to consider five alternative courses to cure her three-credit deficiency in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development, but two of those courses had already been applied to satisfy six of the twelve credits required under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii; the three remaining proffered courses focused on teaching methods, strategies, and lesson planning, rather than curriculum development and/or instructional staff supervision. The ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to prove that the Board's decision was contrary to the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions; further, petitioner's proffered experience from the summer of 2005, involving a "contribution" to the development of a ninth-grade curriculum, was not equivalent to a broad-based curriculum development design course which focuses on the entire philosophical, historical, and pedagogical perspectives of creating curricula from kindergarten through twelfth grade. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

208-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02459-23
Agency Dkt. No. 253-9/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Stephanie Bradberry,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the New Jersey State Board of Examiners' (Board) decision denying petitioner's application for a standard administrative certificate with a supervisory endorsement was consistent with N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 31, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02459-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 253-9/22

STEPHANIE BRADBERRY,
Petitioner,
v.
NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,
Respondent.

Stephanie Bradberry, petitioner, pro se

Colin G. Klika, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: March 4, 2024 Decided: April 18, 2024

BEFORE SARAH H. SURGENT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Stephanie Bradberry (Bradberry) appeals from respondent New Jersey Department of Education (DOE), State Board of Examiners' (Board) denial of her application for a standard administrative certificate with a supervisor endorsement (Supervisor Certificate), based upon Bradberry's failure to satisfy N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii, which requires, in relevant part, six graduate-level semester-hour credits in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development. Bradberry maintains that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable, and that it was inconsistent with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii, "because she is more than qualified with [twenty] years in academia, experience since 2004 with writing or contributing to curriculum [sic], founding and owning two educational businesses, and [a] Doctoral candidacy in Education: Curriculum and Teaching." (Pb at 1, 4, 8-9).[1]

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about August 9, 2021, Bradberry submitted her application for a Supervisor Certificate to the DOE. (P-1). By notice dated December 8, 2021, the Board denied Bradberry's application on the basis that she lacked "[t]hree graduate elective credits in instructional staff supervision AND/OR curriculum design and development." (P-2). On March 29, 2022, Bradberry requested a credentials review, (P-3), and the Board again denied the Supervisor Certificate on June 30, 2022, concluding that Bradberry failed to "establish a one-to-one correspondence between her work experience and the licensure deficiency." (R-1 at 3). On September 13, 2022, Bradberry filed a pro se petition of appeal, which was transmitted to and filed at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on March 20, 2023, to be heard as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq. and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 et seq.

After several telephonic status conferences, the parties indicated that each of them would be moving for summary decision. Bradberry filed her motion for summary decision on October 27, 2023. (Pb). The Board filed its opposition and cross-motion for summary decision on December 8, 2023. (Rb). Oral arguments were held in person on March 1, 2024. On March 4, 2024, Bradberry's electronic submission of her exhibits table of contents was received, and the record closed.

[1] Bradberry also asserted civil rights claims alleging "harassment, racism, and discrimination," and sought damages for alleged lost employment opportunities, as well as damages for alleged physical and emotional distress. (Pb at 1, 5, 10–11). She withdrew those claims on the record at the March 1, 2024 hearing.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

These salient points are not in dispute. I therefore FIND the following FACTS.

The above procedural history is incorporated herein by reference. In its June 30, 2022 denial of the Supervisor Certificate after Bradberry's credentials review, the Board found, in relevant part, the following:

> Bradberry has satisfied the requirements toward certification except for three graduate level elective credits in general principles of instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development. She was present at the Board's meeting on May 19, 2022. The Board had no questions for her.
>
> Bradberry requested the Board consider certain coursework taken at Northcentral University as demonstrating alternative education and/or experience that satisfies her deficiency. Specifically, Bradberry asked the Board to consider the following courses:
>
> - CT7000 Developing Instructional Strategies and Curriculum
> - CT7002 Identifying and Maximizing Teaching/Learning Styles
> - CT7003 Teaching and Learning Foundations
> - CT7005 Literacy: Focus on Curriculum
> - CT7006 Multiple Intelligences
>
> The Board was advised by the Office of Recruitment, Preparation and Certification that CT7000 and CT7005 were already used to satisfy 6 of the 12 credits required pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)(2)(ii). Thus, these two courses cannot also satisfy her deficiency. Upon review of the syllabi and course descriptions for the remaining three courses, the Board finds that for each the focus was on teaching methods and strategies as well as models for lesson planning to address the need for differentiated instruction as opposed to > concepts of curriculum development or instructional staff supervision.

>
> Bradberry also states that she has developed curricula, programs and courses since 2004. The Board notes that her resume includes experience as a tutor, paraprofessional, and teacher at the elementary and secondary levels as well as an adjunct professor at the collegiate level. However, the only specific experience in curriculum development and/or staff supervision she provided documentation to support was for the summer of 2005, when she contributed to the 9th grade curriculum development at Northern Burlington County Regional High School. The Board finds that her limited work experience in curriculum development does not meet the breadth and level of what is required of a supervisor and is not equivalent to the knowledge she would gain from the course she is lacking. Thus, The Board finds Bradberry did not establish a one-to-one correspondence between her work experience and the license deficiency.
>
> [R-1 (emphasis added).]

The description for CT7000, a three-credit course entitled Developing Instructional Strategies and Curriculum, which the Board already credited, states:

> In this course, students will contrast and analyze instructional strategies based on a framework of architectural principles. Students will integrate and implement curriculum theories and models that include differentiated instruction and the infusion of technology. Curriculum standards, requirements, issues, and trends will be evaluated for the production and promotion of recommendations for effective change.
>
> [R-2 at 9.]

The description for CT7002, a three-credit course entitled Identifying and Maximizing Learning/Teaching Styles, states:

> The skillful use of learning and teaching styles requires familiarity with style models. CT7002 offers the doctoral student opportunities for the analysis and assessment of the interactions at play within learning/teaching styles and brain-based strategies and applications. The doctoral student will become familiar with his or her own style and teaching models that engage diverse learners. From that awareness, planning > can include how to investigate and evaluate the responsible use of styles and strategies within effective teaching models, plus the synthesis, application, an assessment of models within diverse learning contexts. The doctoral student will integrate insights for maximizing styles, teaching strategies, and assessments within a plan for developing best practices and continuing professional development.

>
> [R-2 at 10.]

The description for CT7003, a three-credit course entitled Teaching and Learning Foundations, states:

> The foundations of teaching and learning can be viewed from several perspectives. Doctoral students will analyze the influence of emotional, social, and cultural contexts and evaluate those influences to make effective decisions that support school structures, which enable student learning. Topics include: learning theories and instructional models, effective teaching practices, multiple intelligences, and metacognition.
>
> [R-2 at 11.]

The description for CT7005, a three-credit course entitled Literacy: Focus on Curriculum, which the Board already credited, states:

> This class offers doctoral students opportunities to investigate and assess the issues and research related to literacy development and literacy curriculum development. Students will analyze principles and strategies that foster literacy development in the early grades and apply learning to classroom curriculum and instruction. Theory, activities, and summative assessments aid the doctoral student in the evaluation of literacy based learning and performance. Literacy achievement and best literacy teaching strategies are planned and implemented.
>
> [R-2 at 12.]

The description for CT7006, a three-credit course entitled Multiple Intelligences, states:

> In this course, students will be introduced to Dr. Howard Gardner's theory of multiple intelligent intelligences (MI), and will evaluate how to differentiate curriculum to maximize its benefits for students. Students will analyze the options for evaluating and revising assessment methods and tools to include MI theory in curriculum development. In addition, specific intelligences will be evaluated for their contributions to personal and professional development.
>
> [R-2 at 13.]

Bradberry's resume indicates, under "Educational Consulting Experience," that she was a "Developer" at Northern Burlington County Regional High School in New Jersey during the summer of 2005, when she "[c]ontributed to 9th grade curriculum development." (R-2 at 19). In that vein, Bradberry tendered for the Board's consideration an August 9, 2010 letter of recommendation "for supervisory and managerial levels in education," authored by the former Director of Curriculum and Instruction for the Humanities at that school, stating that Bradberry "was a fabulous contributor" to the development of an interdisciplinary curriculum that summer. (R-2 at 14–15).

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Bradberry maintains that her motion for summary decision should be granted because the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable, and is inconsistent with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii. In short, she disagrees with the Board's assessment that her proffered alternative education and experience is not equivalent to her three-credit deficiency in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development. The Board argues that Bradberry's motion should be denied and that its cross-motion for summary decision should be granted because Bradberry "failed to proffer any evidence demonstrating that the Board's decision was not consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions."

I.

A summary decision "may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). That rule is substantially similar to the summary judgment rule embodied in the New Jersey Court Rules. See R. 4:46-2; Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954).

In Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co., 142 N.J. 520 (1995), the New Jersey Supreme Court addressed the appropriate test to be employed in determining the motion:

> [A] determination whether there exists a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The "judge's function is not . . . to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial."
>
> [Id. at 540 (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 250 (1986)).]

In evaluating the merits of the motion, "[a]ll inferences of doubt are drawn against the movant and in favor of the opponent of the motion." Judson, 17 N.J. at 75. However, "[w]hen a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

Having reviewed the parties' submissions and heard their oral arguments, I CONCLUDE that no genuine issues of material fact exist which require a plenary hearing to determine whether Bradberry's application for a Supervisor Certificate was appropriately denied. This matter is therefore ripe for summary decision.

II.

The Board consists of the DOE Commissioner, ex officio, one DOE assistant commissioner, two presidents of State colleges, one county superintendent, one superintendent of a Type I school district, one superintendent of a Type II school district, one high school principal, one elementary school principal, one school business administrator, one librarian employed by the State or a political subdivision thereof, and four teaching staff members other than a superintendent, principal, school business administrator, or librarian. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-34. The Board is entrusted, inter alia, with issuing appropriate certificates to teach or to administer, direct, or supervise the teaching, instruction, or educational guidance of pupils in public schools operated by boards of education, and such other certificates as it is authorized to issue by law based upon certified scholastic records or examinations, or both. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38.

When an initial application to the Board for a certificate is denied, an applicant may appeal that decision to the Board and provide evidence of alternative education and/or experience which the applicant considers to be equivalent to cure the noted deficiencies. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(b). Bradberry carries the burden to prove by a preponderance of the credible evidence that she is entitled to a Supervisor Certificate by presenting the information necessary to establish a "one-to-one correspondence of experience/alternate education to cure her alleged licensing deficiency. McQuilken v. State Bd. of Exam'rs, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8375-11, Initial Decision (Dec. 13, 2011), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal, adopted, Comm'r (Jan. 27, 2021).

The Commissioner may review the Board's decision to determine whether it is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. Walder v. State Bd. of Exam'rs, Comm'r Decision No. 503-14 (Dec. 29, 2014), 2014 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1259, *4-*5. When the Board's denial of a request for the issuance of a certificate is challenged, the Commissioner is not required to give deference to the Board, but instead determines whether its decision was legally appropriate. Id. at *4. Contrary to Bradberry's assertion, the arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable standard of review is inapposite to the Commissioner's review of the Board's determination. Ibid.; Travisano v. Dep't of Educ., State Bd. of Exam'rs, 2022 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 471.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6 currently provides:

(a) To be eligible for the standard administrative certificate with a supervisor endorsement, a candidate shall:

1. Hold a master's or higher degree from an accredited college or university; [and]

2. Successfully complete one of the following:

i. A Commissioner-approved college curriculum that specifically prepares the candidate for the endorsement; [or]

ii. Twelve graduate-level semester-hour credits, including the following:

(1) Three credits in general principles of instructional staff supervision in preschool through grade 12;

(2) Three credits in general principles of curriculum design and development for preschool through grade 12; and

(3) Six elective credits in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development; or

iii. A Commissioner-approved training program that is implemented by a Commissioner-approved provider and specifically prepares the candidate for the endorsement; and

3. Hold a standard New Jersey instructional or educational services certificate, or its out-of-State equivalent, and complete three years of successful, full-time teaching and/or educational services experience. Teaching and/or educational services experience completed in a New Jersey school district shall have been under an appropriate New Jersey certificate.

[N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6 (eff. May 1, 2023) (emphasis added).]

Prior to an amendment effective May 1, 2023, the relevant provision of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii separated the above section (a)ii.3 into two separate required components: "(3) Three elective credits in curriculum design and development; and (4) Three elective credits in in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development." N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii.(3) and (4) (2022) (emphasis added). Thus, at the time of its June 30, 2022 decision, the Board essentially found that Bradberry had satisfied the required "[t]hree elective credits in curriculum design and development," N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)ii.(3) (2022) (emphasis added), but that she had not satisfied the required additional "[t]hree elective credits in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development," N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.6(a)ii.(4) (2022) (emphasis added).

As noted in my above factual findings, Bradberry urged the Board to consider five alternative courses to cure her three-credit deficiency in instructional staff supervision and/or curriculum design and development. (R-1 at 2). Of those, the Board determined that two of the proffered courses, CT7000 and CT7005, had already been applied to satisfy six of the twelve credits required by 6A:9B-12.6(a)2.ii, and that the three remaining proffered courses, CT7002, CT7003, and CT7006, focused upon teaching methods, strategies, and lesson planning, rather than curriculum development and/or instructional staff supervision. (R-1 at 2). The Board also found that although Bradberry's resume included experience as a tutor, paraprofessional, and teacher at various education levels, the only documented specific experience in curriculum development and/or staff supervision provided by Bradberry demonstrated that Bradberry's limited work experience in curriculum development during the summer of 2005 did not meet the breadth and level of what is required of a supervisor and was not equivalent to the content knowledge she would have gained from the requisite three credit hours she was lacking. Id. at 2-3.

In light of the applicable law and my findings of fact, I agree with the Board's assessment of Bradberry's proffered alternative education and experience, and I CONCLUDE that Bradberry failed to prove by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the Board's decision was contrary to the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. The one-page excerpts of syllabi Bradberry provided to the Board for CT7002, Identifying and Maximizing Learning/Teaching Styles, CT7003, Teaching and Learning Foundations, and CT 7006, Multiple Intelligences, clearly indicate that the courses were focused on their title descriptions, rather than on any curriculum development or instructional staff supervision. (R-2 at 10–11, 13). Moreover, Bradberry's summer of 2005 "contribution" to a ninth-grade curriculum development is by no means the equivalent of a broad-based design curriculum development course which focuses on the entire philosophical, historical, and pedagogical perspectives of creating curricula from kindergarten through twelfth grade and evaluating different school settings from elementary to high school and urban versus rural settings. See, e.g., Numczyk v. Dep't of Educ., State Bd. Of Exam'rs, Initial Decision, EDU 15422-19, at 6–8, aff'd as modified, Final Decision, 242-9/19 (May 18, 2022). I therefore CONCLUDE that Bradberry's motion must be denied, and the Board's motion must be granted.

ORDER

It is therefore ORDERED that the Board's motion for summary decision is hereby GRANTED and its denial of a Supervisor Certificate is hereby AFFIRMED; and it is further ORDERED that Bradberry's motion for summary decision is hereby DENIED and her petition is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the Judge and to the other parties.

April 18, 2024
DATE

Sarah H. Surgent
SARAH H. SURGENT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 18, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 18, 2024

SHS/nn

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

Pb Petitioner's Brief in Support of Motion, received October 27, 2023

P-1 Email to Craig Eskow

P-2 Evaluation of Credentials-Supervisor

P-3 Review for Standard Supervisory Certificate

P-4 Individual Credentials Review Presentations

P-5 Acknowledgement (Petition)

P-6 Board's Switch in Representation and Request for Extension to File Answer

P-7 Respondent Refusal to Answer Petitioner's Request for Explanation and Proof

P-8 Board Acknowledges Two Letters of Recommendation Included by Petitioner for Review

P-9 Three Letters of Recommendation, Resume and Professional Development

P-10 Transmittal to OAL

P-11 Request for Update on Case

P-12 Requesting Update for Docket 253-9/22

P-13 Update Sent to Incorrect Email Address

P-14 Minute Clinic and Better Help Services

P-15A Petitioner's First Set of Answers to Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents

P-15B Approved School Leadership Programs, Petitioner's Transcript, Courses and Programs Approved by Commissioner, Singh Testimony, NCU Course Syllabus Details, Three Letters of Recommendation, Resume and Professional Development

P-15C Course Descriptions for ED7020, RSH9101E, RSH9102E, RSH9103QLE, RSH9104E, CMP9200E, DIS9321E

P-16 Respondent's Responses to Petitioner's First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents

P-17 Requirements for Supervisor Certificate
P-18 Miller v. State Board of Examiners Synopsis
P-19 Credential Review: Supervisor Certificate
P-20 Directions for Submission of Credential Review Packet
P-21 Preparation of Documentation
P-22 Respondent's Affirmative Defenses
P-23 New Jersey State Policy Prohibiting Discrimination in The Workplace
P-24 Average Salary for Curriculum Supervisor, Salaries for Assistant Superintendents in Mercer County
P-25 Significant EEOC Race/Color Cases (Covering Private and Federal Sectors)
P-26 Nimczyk v. New Jersey State Board of Examiners Written Feedback
P-27 New Jersey Department of Education State Board of Examiners Decision
P-28 Offered Positions and Potential Positions
P-29 Proof of Fibromyalgia and Medication Allergies
P-30 Email Sent to Incorrect Address
P-31 Proof of Attachments Originally Sent to Mr. Klika

For respondent

Rb Respondent's Brief in Support of Motion and Opposing Petitioner's Motion, received December 8, 2023
R-1 Board's June 30, 2022 decision
R-2 Bradberry's letter and exhibits to Board, dated April 6, 2022

209-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03614-23
Agency Dkt. No. 78-3/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

N.L., on behalf of minor child, A.L.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Hunterdon Central Regional High School District, Hunterdon County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the hearing transcript, and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner has not demonstrated that respondent's decisions to suspend her child from school for five days on January 19, 2023, and for ten days on February 7, 2023, were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 31, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03614-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 78-3/23

N.L. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD A.L.,
Petitioner,
v.
HUNTERDON CENTRAL REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

RECORD SEALED

N.L., petitioner, pro se

Alicia D'Anella, Esq., for respondent (Parker McCay, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 13, 2024 Decided: April 26, 2024

BEFORE JOAN M. BURKE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, N.L on behalf of A.L., challenged a five-day out-of-school suspension and a ten-day out-of-school suspension imposed by the respondent, Hunterdon Central Regional High School District Board of Education (Board), and further seeks to remove them from A.L.'s record.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about February 23, 2023, the petitioner filed a pro se Petition of Appeal with the Department of Education requesting removal of a five-day suspension that occurred on January 19, 2023, and a ten-day suspension that occurred on February 7, 2023. On April 25, 2023, respondent filed an Answer with the Department of Education. The Department of Education transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law on April 27, 2023, for hearing as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23. After a series of status conferences, the matter was scheduled for a hearing on December 13, 2023. During the course of the hearing the parties requested that the matter and the record be sealed. I entered a sealing order in this matter on April 26, 2024. The parties agreed to closing summations after the transcripts were received. The closing summations were received on March 13, 2024, and the record was closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Testimony

Jessica Long (Ms. Long) is currently employed by the Hunterdon Central Regional High School District. She is a vice principal (VP) for the class of 2025. She has held this VP position since June 2020. Prior to taking this position, she had worked for the high school from 2003 to May 31, 2020, as an English teacher. In her role as VP, she oversees discipline and attendance and manages the behavior of the students. Ms. Long helps with emergencies, and often works with counselors to determine why there are attendance and/or recurring discipline issues.

Ms. Long first met A.L. in September of his freshman year in high school. A.L. is in the class of 2025. On January 19, 2023, there was a reentry[1] meeting after A.L. was suspended for substance abuse. As the VP she is responsible for overseeing the reentry meetings. Because this was the second offense committed by A.L., and the school uses a system of progressive discipline, Ms. Long invited the principal, Mr. Edward Brandt (Principal Brandt), to the reentry meeting. The principal usually handles disciplinary matters after a third incident. According to Ms. Long, Principal Brandt usually attends the second reentry meeting to let the student know what would happen next in terms of discipline. Others attending the meeting included A.L., the parent, N.L., and Ms. Buckelew, the student assistant counselor (SAC). Ms. Long testified that she usually has a checklist during these meetings. This checklist goes over what was completed, what brought the student there, and what happens next. Principal Brandt would speak as to the consequences and support if there is a third offense.

[1] A reentry meeting is a meeting held after a suspension to assess the student's readiness to return to school, as well as to review any outstanding needs still required to be completed by the student. Tr. at 12:1–12.

The meeting was turned over to Principal Brandt, who started to discuss students with substance issues. While Principal Brandt was speaking, A.L. said to Mr. Brandt, "How do you know I have a substance issue? You can't judge a book by its cover, you don't know me." Tr. at 16:2–4. Ms. Long said Principal Brandt responded, "well, I do know two chapters of the book," referring to A.L.'s two violations. A.L. got up and said either "Forget this, I am leaving," or "Fuck this, I am leaving." Tr. at 16:15–17. He then ran out of the room. Ms. Sweet, the guidance counselor, went after him, followed by Ms. Long. According to Ms. Long, Ms. Sweet has a good relationship with A.L. As Ms. Long followed them, she noticed that they had stopped, and that Ms. Sweet was speaking to A.L. Ms. Long stayed back about fifteen feet to allow Ms. Sweet the chance to, and see if Ms. Sweet were able to, deescalate the situation. A.L. became loud and left the building where they were located.

There are two buildings that are linked together, and A.L. could enter his classroom from a door on the outside of one of the buildings. Ms. Long testified that she radioed down to security and other staff members to not let A.L. into his class because they were in a reentry meeting, and he was not cleared to return to class. Ms. Long was also concerned that he would leave the school, as he has eloped in the past. She was also concerned for his safety. However, A.L. went into the parking lot and stood by a car, which Ms. Long later learned was his mom's car. Ms. Long also radioed Principal Brandt to let him know what was happening, as he was still in the room with N.L. and Ms. Buckelew, the SAC.

Ms. Long went and spoke with A.L and said, "I know you are upset, let's just go back there, let's check off these boxes, and let's just get you back to class." Tr. at 21:10–12. Ms. Long said A.L. started to curse at her. He said, "What are you retarded? Do you really think I'm going to go back into that room? I am not doing it. You're such a cunt . . .." Tr. at 21:13–9. She returned to the room where the meeting was and told N.L. that she thought she should go home, and she proceeded to debrief Principal Brandt. A.L. was disciplined for that incident with a five-day out-of-school suspension.

On February 7, 2023, Ms. Long received a text from Ms. Buckelew stating that A.L. was escalating. The incident arose from an issue with his Spanish teacher, Mr. Saks, during his fourth-block class. At the time, Ms. Long was not sure what had happened. A.L. had gone into two counseling offices that day. According to Ms. Long, by the time she found out what was happening A.L. was in the second counseling office.

Ms. Long testified that A.L. is in their Aspire program. This program is for students who struggle with behavioral and emotional issues. It is a small group of children that is involved in this program. It is built specifically for students who do not need out-of-district placement but struggle with the mainstream population. Ms. Long spoke with Mr. Saks, who told her that A.L. got upset because he told him to put away his phone. She then went to the house office to investigate and went into her office, which adjoins Ms. Sweet's office. She overheard A.L. speaking in a loud voice; it was not clear what he was saying, but it was clear that he used the "F word" several times. He was loud, and he escalated. A.L. then burst from the office, and at that time she realized he was telling his mother what had happened while Ms. Buckelew was present. Ms. Long then followed A.L. He was not responding verbally, and she did not want him to leave. It was the last fifteen minutes of the school day. Ms. Long asked him if she could walk him to the bus and he did not object, so she did. After the incident she debriefed Principal Brandt, who requested that the teacher write a note as to what happened. R-2.

Ms. Long testified that the Aspire class has two main classrooms that adjoin each other through a door. Outside of each classroom there is a bathroom. Previously, they had found that if class were not going on in one of the rooms, a student might wander into the empty classroom if he did not feel like doing work. The team had recently discussed how to handle the students wandering into the empty classroom. On February 7, 2023, A.L. did not want to return to class, and Mr. Saks told him to return to the classroom. A.L. got upset, and requested a walk, as this sometimes deescalates A.L. After A.L. returned, he plugged in his phone. He was told that if he were not going to complete the work, he would not be able to use his phone any longer. A.L. proceeded to use colorful language that included some "F-bombs." A.L. left the room, and Mr. Saks followed him to make sure he did not elope or go to the mid-campus, where counseling is located.

According to Ms. Long, A.L. used "fuck" numerous times when speaking to Mr. Saks. This occasion led to another discipline being issued against him because he refused to comply with his work and cursed at Mr. Saks, as well as Ms. Sweet. He refused to respond to a verbal command and was openly defiant.

Ms. Long identified A.L.'s 504 Plan (R-4). Under "Accommodations" it states:

> Allow A.L. to use his coping strategies providing breaks to see a counselor/SAC as needed. Please call ahead to inform the house/health office staff and make sure someone is available to help the student.
>
> - Extended time on assignments(1.5x) provided student is communicating w/teachers and making progress or is absent.
>
> - Consideration should be given to tardies due to the diagnosis.
>
> [R-4.]

A.L. was suspended. Based on having two suspensions and other issues with A.L. in such a short time, the team decided that they needed to come up with a plan that would keep him from being out of school. Ms. Buckelew, Ms. Sweet, and his parent came up with an intervention plan. See R-5. The intervention plan was formulated to provide support, while at the same time holding him responsible and accountable for his actions. Since this plan went into effect, A.L.'s behavior has improved.

Edward C. Brandt (Principal Brandt) has been the principal of Hunterdon Central High School since September 1, 2021. Prior to that he was the dean of students, and prior to that he was the acting principal. He was mathematics supervisor between 2006 and 2019. As the principal his main job is to oversee the well-being of the students and faculty. He currently oversees the vice principals, the dean of students, and the supervisor of athletics. He does not handle low-tiered discipline, but is aware of infractions leading to discipline, as they are reported to him. Principal Brandt is usually brought into the reentry meetings of a second offense since he takes the lead when it is a third offense. He gets involved, however, when there is a serious enough offense. Tr. at 82:12–13.

Principal Brandt became aware of A.L. sometime in the fall of 2022 when there was a threat made towards the dean of students. Tr. at 83:2–6. The first time he formally met A.L. was on January 19, 2023, at the reentry meeting. He knew of him informally, as A.L. was part of the Aspire program when it started, and at the time Principal Brandt was the supervisor for the Aspire curriculum. Tr. at 84:7–17.

He was in the reentry meeting with Ms. Long on January 19, 2023, along with the counselor, parent, and student. Principal Brandt testified that he was there to talk about due process, and what would happen if there were a third offense. A third offense is considered grounds for "chronic offender" status as per the school's Code of Conduct. Tr. at 86:2–3. During the reentry meeting, there were discussions regarding what had occurred, the consequences, the resources, what was effective and not effective, and whether they needed to come up with a better plan for the student.

As Principal Brandt was talking about due process, A.L. said, "You can't judge a book by its cover." Because this was A.L.'s second offense, Principal Brandt's response was, "I think we know two chapters now," and he hoped to further state, "hoping to have better next chapters ahead." Tr. at 87:16–20. Principal Brandt testified that his response was working off the metaphor that A.L. had used. A.L. then got very upset and emotional and said something like, "Fuck this," "I'm not sitting here for this fucking bullshit," while getting up and leaving. Tr. at 89:1–8. Ms. Sweet followed him. Principal Brandt got up to follow him, but Ms. Buckelew told him, "he is upset with you," and that he should just stay back. Tr. at 89:10–17. Principal Brandt stayed back with N.L. He testified that he had a small conversation with N.L. and did apologize, saying that he had not known that what he said would upset A.L.

After it was determined that the reentry meeting was not going to continue, he followed up with Ms. Long, and said that they would respond to the abusive language and willful disobedience with a five-day suspension. January 19, 2023, would be the first day of the suspension. Tr. at 92:1–5. Later that day, he reminded Ms. Long that another screening on the reentry was necessary. According to Principal Brandt, part of the reentry for substance violation is another substance screening with the school nurse. Tr. at 92:19–21.

A.L.'s "Conduct History" was reviewed. R-1. The history reflects that on January 19, 2023, there was an entry titled DIS/DEF, which means disobedience and defiance. There was also an entry titled OSS, which means out-of-school suspension. Ibid. Based on the January 19, 2023, incident, A.L. received a five-day out-of-school suspension. Tr. at 95:18–19. Principal Brandt identified the school's regulation that implements the student disciplinary policy. R-3. The regulation is also in the student handbook. This is given to all students and parents and is also on the school's website. The school operates under a system of progressive discipline. There are consequences for various infractions. Typically, the discipline increases from the second to the third infraction and beyond. Tr. at 98:15–17. Three or more offenses earn one "chronic offender" status. A.L.'s conduct resulting in discipline began on October 14, 2022, with offensive language to staff members. The first discipline for abusive language is one to three extended detentions, which is a three-hour Wednesday-afternoon detention, and two referrals to an SAC, which is the support portion of the discipline. Tr. at 100:3–11. Notification of law enforcement occurs sometimes if the abusive language is bias related. R-3. A second offense would extend to one to three days OSS, notification to a police officer, and then three meetings with an SAC. Then there is the chronic-offender status when there is a third offense.

If there is insubordination, the first offense receives a discipline of one to two extended detentions, and then it goes to two or three extended detentions, and if there is a third offense, there is a mandatory meeting with the principal and possibly OSS. Tr. at 101:6–10. Willful disobedience occurs when a staff member or administrator gives a directive and it is not followed. Tr. at 101:16–21. Chronic offenders become subject to Level 4 Discipline. With Level 4, the student is subject to a disciplinary action of five to ten out-of-school suspensions, notification of law enforcement, and possible recommendation for expulsion. Tr. at 103:11–14. On October 14, 2022, A.L. had a one-hour after-school detention for "abusive language." This was his first offense. On October 17, 2022, he was again disciplined for use of abusive language, and the penalty was one after-school detention plus a written apology. Tr. at 107:7–20. Another violation was recorded on November 1, 2022. This was the third violation and was recorded as "insubordination," which falls under Level 2 Discipline, but now A.L. had become a "chronic offender." Tr. at 108:1–5. A.L.'s conduct on January 19, 2023, subjected A.L. to Level 4 Discipline. Tr. at 109:7–8. This incident in January was recorded as "disobedient/defiant." Tr. at 109:20–23.

On February 7, 2023, Principal Brandt became aware of an incident that occurred during block four, which is from 12:35 p.m. to 2:03 p.m. Tr. at 112:4. Under the accommodation portion of A.L.'s 504 Plan, breaks are provided to allow A.L. to use his coping strategies by seeing a counselor/SAC as needed. Tr. at 115:9–11. Principal Brandt was debriefed by Ms. Long about this incident. The discipline imposed for the February 7 incident was based on A.L.'s disruption in the class and abusive language, disruption in the hall, disruption in the office area, and cursing at the teacher. Tr. at 116:13–24. All the events of that day led to a ten-day out-of-school suspension. The ten-day suspension follows the trajectory of progressive discipline. The previous incident in January fell on the lower end of Level 4. The February incident is also categorized under Level 4 Discipline, under chronic-offender status, resulting in a ten-day out-of-school suspension. Tr. at 120:17–22.

A behavioral intervention plan (Plan) was designed for A.L., which was put in place after the February 7, 2023, incident. It was drafted by Ms. Buckelew. As part of the Plan, the "student will be subject to the school and class discipline policies and procedures." Tr. at 123:7–8. The reason for the Plan was also because A.L.'s behavior was escalating. So, the Plan was to try to put something in place that garners a commitment from the family, the student, and the counseling program.

N.L. testified that her son was an emotionally charged and anxious child who was provoked in two circumstances by comments that he was not able to handle. Tr. at 141:19–23. N.L. believed that if A.L. had not been provoked, he would not have responded the way he did. . A.L. has "generalized anxiety." R-4. She testified that other methods should have been used to deescalate the situation. N.L. testified that the way A.L. was spoken to on January 19, 2023, resulted in how he responded. She believed that in regard to the February incident, Mr. Saks left out a few things. For example, Mr. Saks said in front of the class, "Fine, you're not going to do work, just go to counseling like you always do." Tr. at 143:15–16. In addition, when A.L. left the room, Mr. Saks followed him to the counseling office. According to N.L., A.L. laughed because he could not believe what was happening to him. Mr. Saks responded, "I will have the last laugh," to which A.L. responded, "Fuck you." Tr. at 143:22–25.

N.L. believes in progressive discipline, but believes suspending an anxious child makes him more isolated. N.L. said that she was not aware of the issue that stemmed from February 7, 2023, which dealt with A.L. being told to put his phone away. N.L. posits that the February incident would not have "blown up" if it had been handled differently. Tr. at 144:10–13. As to the January incident, N.L. said that while A.L. cursed, she did not "think any of it would happen if the teachers and administrators had made different choices." Tr. at 144:14–16. She argues that, as she read on a website, emotionally charged children are unable to follow discipline. The petitioner presented no other testimony or witness.

Based on the testimony and evidentiary record, I FIND the following to be the FACTS of the case:

1. A.L. is a student in the Aspire program at Hunterdon Central Regional High School and is in the class of 2025. He is eligible under Section 504 as a student with an impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. A.L. has "generalized anxiety." R-4. Accommodations were provided to him under a 504 Accommodation Plan. Ibid.

2. Edward Brandt is the principal of Hunterdon Central Regional High School, and Jessica Long is the vice principal. Resp't's Br. at 2.

3. On January 19, 2023, there was a reentry meeting conducted with A.L. The reentry meeting is to determine the student's readiness to return to school. The principal, the vice principal, the SAC, Ms. Sweet, A.L., and his mother were all in attendance. Tr. at 13:18–21.

4. Principal Brandt usually attends a reentry meeting after the second offense of a substance violation, because he handles the next step after the second violation for substance abuse.

5. During the reentry meeting, while Principal Brandt was discussing what would happen next if there were another violation, A.L. asked him how he knew he had a substance violation and told him that he should not judge a book by its cover. Principal Brandt responded that he did know two chapters of the book, referring to A.L.'s two prior substance violations. A.L. said something to the effect of "F this, I am leaving," and bolted from the room. A.L. did not return to the meeting. The staff, including the SAC, Ms. Sweet, and Ms. Long, were all engaged in trying to get him back into the reentry meeting while at the same time coordinating with security to not let him into a class, as he was not cleared to return to school. Vice Principal Long found him in the parking lot, where she asked him to return to the meeting, to which he responded, "What are you retarded? Do you really think I'm going to go back into that room? I am not doing it. You're such a cunt . . .."

6. Under the District's Regulation 5600, Student Discipline Code of Conduct, A.L.'s behavior on January 29, 2024, falls under Level 2 Discipline. It was A.L.'s third offense, and he was deemed a "chronic offender." R-3.

7. On February 7, 2023, A.L. was involved in an incident with his teacher, Mr. Saks. In an email written to Principal Brandt, Mr. Saks states:

> I informed him that if he was not going to complete the work, he wasn't going to be able to use his phone anymore. He then proceeded to pack and leave and continued using obscene language to show his disgust. As he was leaving, I let him know if this is going to be an everyday occurrence, he could stay in mid-campus for the next class.
>
> [R-2.]

8. On February 7, 2023, Vice Principal Long wrote a discipline referral, which states:

> Student refused to comply with work in his study hall arrangement (b3); student cursed (fuck) at Spanish teacher for asking him to put phone away, then left room without permission. Student went to SAC councelor [sic], she brought him to house office and student continued screaming and cursing about the Spanish situation to the councelor [sic] . . .
>
> [R-1.]

9. A.L.'s conduct on February 7, 2023, was his fourth offense. R-1.

10. The District practices progressive discipline.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The issue is whether the District's suspension of A.L. for a five-day out-of-school suspension on January 19, 2023, and a ten-day out-of-school suspension on February 7, 2023, were appropriate and should be upheld.

Local boards of education are charged with protecting the health and welfare of the students entrusted to their care, and with ensuring that a thorough and efficient education is provided every day to every student in an environment that is safe, orderly, and free from disruption. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2 establishes the authority of local boards to impose discipline and provides that "[a]ny pupil who is guilty of continued and willful disobedience, or of open defiance of the authority of any teacher or person having authority over him, . . . shall be liable to punishment and to suspension or expulsion from school."

The imposition of discipline on students is considered within the discretionary powers of the school board, and the decision of a local board as to the appropriate penalty to be imposed upon a student for a disciplinary infraction should not be disturbed, absent evidence that the board's action was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. J.D. and E.D. ex rel. B.D. v. Bd. of Educ. of Toms River Reg'l Sch. Dist., 1997 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 521 (Nov. 19, 1997), adopted, Comm'r (Feb. 17, 1998), https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/commissioner/1998/66-98.pdf, adopted, 1998 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 835 (July 1, 1998).

In matters involving the exercise of a local board of education's discretion, the scope of the commissioner's review is "not to substitute his judgment for that of those who made the evaluation but to determine whether they had a reasonable basis for their conclusions." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 296 (App. Div. 1960). "Where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Therefore, petitioner must demonstrate much more than simply a difference of opinion over the action taken by respondent. In order to satisfy the arbitrary and capricious standard, petitioner must prove that respondent acted in either bad faith or in disregard to the circumstances.

Here, A.L. was suspended for five days on January 19, 2023, at a reentry meeting, based on his conduct and use of profanity. At the reentry meeting, he said, "Fuck this," and ran out of the meeting. When asked by Ms. Long to return to the reentry meeting, his response, according to Ms. Long, was:

> What are you retarded? Do you really think I'm going to go back into that room? I'm not doing it. You're such a cunt, I can't believe you would want to make me do this. Are you > deaf, are you dumb, are you blind, can't you see I can't do this? I don't want to do this and I'm never going to do it.

>
> [Tr. at 21:14–19.]

Based on the Board's Code of Conduct, students who engaged in three or more offenses of Abusive Language and/or Insubordination, are considered chronic offenders, and subject to Level 4 discipline. Resp't's Br. at 4. Level 4 discipline provides for out-of-school suspensions of five to ten days. The incident on January 19, 2023, was A.L.'s third offense. On February 7, 2023, A.L. was suspended for ten days based on his conduct, which began with Mr. Saks, his Spanish teacher, and ended with Ms. Long. A.L. was asked to put his phone away during class; disrupted class; left the class without permission, requiring staff to follow him; refused to listen when he was told to stop; and went to the house office, where he was heard by Ms. Long using abusive language (the "F word" multiple times) and disrupting the students that were there for counseling. This incident was the fourth offense by A.L. Petitioner argues that both incidents followed statements made by authority figures that triggered A.L. "to say things or act in a way that otherwise [he] would not have." Pet'r's Br.

A balancing must be undertaken, with the knowledge that the Board is required to maintain discipline in its schools. Further, the Board's discretionary powers must be given deference, as long as the Board did not act in an arbitrary, unreasonable, or capricious manner. I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has not shown that the Board's impositions of five-day and ten-day out-of-school suspensions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Based on the foregoing facts and the applicable law, I CONCLUDE that the Board's imposition of a five-day out-of-school suspension for A.L.'s violation of its policy on January 19, 2023, and the imposition of a ten-day out-of-school suspension for A.L.'s violation of its policy on February 7, 2023, should be AFFIRMED.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the relief requested by petitioner is DENIED.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 26, 2024
DATE

JOAN M. BURKE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner:

N.L.

For respondent:

Jessica Long

Edward Brandt

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

Closing submission letter

For respondent:

R-1 A.L.'s Conduct Report

R-2 Email, February 7, 2023

R-3 Hunterdon Central Regional High School Code of Conduct

R-4 A.L.'s 504 Accommodation Plan, December 15, 2022

R-5 A.L.'s Behavior Plan on Reentry, February 24, 2023

Respondent's closing brief

210-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Jayanthi Ramaswamy,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Englewood, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, a non-tenured chemistry teacher employed by the respondent Board from the 2019-2020 through 2022-2023 school years, did not receive a renewal contract at the end of her third year of teaching with the school district. Petitioner contended that she had positive performance evaluations and had been recommended for renewal by the school principal and the Acting Superintendent. The Board filed a motion for summary decision, arguing that: petitioner was non-renewed because of lack of engagement with the students she taught; that she had received proper notice that she was not going to be renewed at the end of the 2022-2023 school year and failed to request public discussion of her employment at a board meeting; petitioner also failed to request a Donaldson hearing after the Board's unanimous vote to non-renew her contract. The Board filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; boards of education have great latitude in making determinations regarding the renewal of a non-tenured teacher's contract; the Board in this matter complied with the statutory notice requirements for non-renewals; petitioner's personnel records supported the Board's stated reason for petitioner's non-renewal; petitioner failed to prove discrimination on the part of the Board; and further failed to prove that the Board's actions were arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion, and adopted the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law as the final decision in this matter. The Board's motion for summary decision was granted, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

210-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08534-23
Agency Dkt. No. 215-8/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Jayanthi Ramaswamy,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Englewood, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner, a non-tenured chemistry teacher, challenges the decision of the Englewood Board of Education (Board) not to renew her contract. Following the Board's motion for summary decision, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioner received Rice[1] notices on April 27 and May 3, 2023, informing her that her employment would be discussed by the Board at an upcoming meeting. The Board voted unanimously not to renew petitioner's employment on

[1] An employee is entitled to advance notice when a board of education intends to discuss in closed session a personnel matter that could adversely affect the employee. Rice v. Union County Reg'l High Sch. Bd. of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64, 73 (App. Div. 1977).

[2] A Donaldson hearing is the colloquial name for the informal appearance before the Board in which a teaching staff member may discuss the statement of reasons for non-renewal and attempt to persuade the Board to renew the staff member's contract. Donaldson v. Bd. of Educ. of N. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974).

May 11, 2023, but petitioner did not request a Donaldson hearing.[2] The Board provided petitioner with a Statement of Reasons on May 26, 2023, indicating that the reason for her non-renewal was lack of communication[3] with students.

The ALJ denied petitioner's motion to compel discovery, noting: 1) that petitioner did not formally request discovery from the Board; 2) the Board provided its executive session minutes in response to petitioner's Open Public Records Act request for them; and 3) while petitioner also requested notes from the executive session, no such notes existed. The ALJ found that petitioner did not prove that any discrimination occurred or identify how the Board's actions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The ALJ further found that petitioner's personnel records supported the Board's stated reason for petitioner's non-renewal. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision.

In her exceptions, petitioner argues that she was not required to make a formal discovery request. Petitioner argues that she repeatedly requested the reason for her non-renewal and received nothing from the Board; she indicates that the minutes of the Board meeting do not include the reason for the non-renewal, and the Board has not produced any documents stating the justification for its decision. Petitioner contends that she cannot effectively challenge the non-renewal without knowing the reasons for it.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the Board is entitled to summary decision. A board of education's non-renewal decision is afforded discretion and will only be overturned if it is arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, or if it violates constitutional or legislatively conferred rights. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1; Dore v. Bedminster Twp. Bd. of Educ., 185 *N.J. Super.*447, 456 (App. Div. 1982). Despite petitioner's exceptions to the contrary, the Board provided a justification for petitioner's non-renewal in its May 26, 2023 Statement of Reasons, consistent with its obligations under N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.2. The Board further explained its position in subsequent correspondence to petitioner, indicating that "her particular area of weakness, despite overall positive evaluations, was at odds with the Board's goals in improving the educational quality within the district." June 7, 2023 letter, attached as Exhibit D to the petition of appeal. Petitioner's dispute appears to arise from the fact that she received positive performance evaluations, was recommended for renewal by the Acting Superintendent, and was allegedly never told that she needed to improve her student engagement skills. However, the fact that the Board made a different decision than the district's administration does not make its decision arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

[3] The term used in the Statement of Reasons is "engagement," rather than communication.

The Commissioner further concludes that the ALJ properly denied petitioner's motion to compel discovery. The record is clear that the Board has provided the minutes from its executive session and that notes from the executive session do not exist.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 31, 2024

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08534-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 215-8/23

JAYANTHI RAMASWAMY,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Evan L. Goldman, Esq., and Kelly A. Smith, Esq., appearing for petitioner (Goldman, Davis, Krumholz, and Dillon, attorneys)

R. Scott Eveland, Esq., appearing for respondent (Inglesino Taylor, attorneys)

Record closed: January 16, 2024 Decided: April 22, 2024

BEFORE JOSEPH A. ASCIONE, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The respondent, Englewood City Board of Education (Englewood), hired the petitioner, Jayanthi Ramaswamy, for the 2019–2020 school year as a teacher of chemistry. She continued in the employ of Englewood from year to year through the 2022–2023 school year. Petitioner received Rice[1] notices on April 27, and May 3, 2023, informing her that her contract would be considered by the respondent. Petitioner did not avail herself of her rights under the Rice notice. On May 11, 2023, her annual contract was not renewed. Petitioner did not request a Donaldson[2] hearing subsequent to learning of the failure to renew the contract. On or about May 19, 2023, counsel for petitioner requested a Statement of Reasons. On or about May 26, 2023, counsel for respondent responded to that request. On August 4, 2023, the petition in this matter was filed with the Commissioner of Education. On August 30, 2023, the New Jersey State Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13; N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2. On November 2, 2023, the respondent moved for summary decision dismissing the petition. The petitioner opposed said motion after obtaining consent to extend her time to respond to December 19, 2023. Petitioner also moved for discovery seeking the "executive session notes" of the May 11, 2023, executive session. The executive-session minutes had already been requested by an Open Public Records Act (OPRA) request and supplied on July 25, 2023. No discovery request was formally made, nor included with the application for discovery. Counsel for respondent represents that no such "executive session notes" exist. The record on the application for summary disposition closed on January 16, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Petitioner, an untenured teacher, did not receive a renewal contract after her fourth year of service to Englewood. The Board of Education provided petitioner with a Rice notice prior to the agenda and regular meeting on May 11, 2023. Ramaswamy did not request a public discussion. The determination not to renew was made by unanimous vote, in executive session, at the May 11 meeting. Ramaswamy did not request a Donaldson hearing after the adverse vote. Counsel for Englewood provided the reason for non-renewal in a timely fashion, on request of counsel for Ramaswamy. The reason, lack of communication with students. An OPRA request was made for the minutes of the executive session, which were provided. Counsel for Ramaswamy requested executive-session notes, but the existence of such notes has been denied by counsel for Englewood. Englewood also maintains that if any notes existed, they are part of the deliberative process and are exempt from any discovery. Ramaswamy's petition does not allege any denial of a constitutional right. Englewood acknowledges that the principal and superintendent submitted Ramaswamy for renewal of contract. Ramaswamy's relief sought is an appeal of her denial of tenure/renewal, and a hearing to determine the validity of the Board's decision to deny her tenure.

[1] Rice v. Union Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Bd. of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64 (1977), certif. denied, 76 N.J. 238 (1978).
[2] Donaldson v. Bd. of Educ. of N. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974).

LEGAL DISCUSSION

Summary decision, or as it is known in judicial matters, summary judgment, is a well-recognized procedure for resolving cases in which the facts that are crucial to the determination of the matters at issue are not actually in dispute and the application to that set of material facts of the applicable law and standard of proof lead to a determination of the case without the necessity of a hearing at which evidence and testimony need be taken. The procedure is equally applicable in judicial and executive-branch administrative cases. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. The standards for deciding motions for summary decision are contained in Judson v. People's Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74–75 (1954). The Supreme Court later elaborated on the motion and its standard in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995). Under the Brill standard, as in Judson, a motion for summary decision may only be granted where there is no "genuine issue" of "material fact." The determination as to whether genuine issues of material fact exist is made after a "discriminating search" of the record, consisting as it may of affidavits, certifications, documentary exhibits, and any other evidence filed by the movant and any such evidence filed in response to the motion, with all reasonable inferences arising from the evidence being accorded to the opponent of the motion. In order to defeat the motion, the opposing party must establish the existence of "genuine" issues of material fact. The facts upon which the party opposing the motion relies to defeat the motion must be something more than "facts which are immaterial or of an insubstantial nature, a mere scintilla, 'fanciful, frivolous, gauzy or merely suspicious' . . . ." Judson, 17 N.J. at 75 (citations omitted). The Brill decision focuses on the analytical procedure for determining whether a purported issue of material fact is "genuine" or is of an "insubstantial nature." Brill, 142 N.J. at 530. Brill concludes that the same analytical process used to decide motions for a directed verdict is used to resolve summary-decision motions. "[T]he essence of the inquiry in each is the same: 'whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law.'" Id. at 536 (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 251–52 (1986)). In searching the proffered evidence to decide the motion, the judge must be guided by the applicable substantive evidentiary standard of proof, that is, the "burden of persuasion" that would apply at trial on the merits, whether that is the preponderance-of-the-evidence standard or the clear-and-convincing-evidence standard. If a careful review under this standard establishes that no reasonable fact finder could resolve the disputed facts in favor of the party opposing the motion, then the uncontradicted facts thus established can be examined in the light of the applicable substantive law to determine whether or not the movant is clearly entitled to judgment as a matter of law. However, where the proofs in the record are such that "reasonable minds could differ" as to the material facts, then the motion must be denied, and a full evidentiary hearing held. Id. at 535.

In this case, Ramaswamy disputes the validity of the Board's decision to deny her tenure. The challenging party bears the burden of proving that the agency action was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable by the preponderance of the credible evidence. J.P. & M.P. v. Bd. of Educ. of S. Brunswick, Middlesex Cnty., 2002 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 952 at *10-12 (Dec. 17, 2002); New Jersey Soc'y for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals v. New Jersey Dep't of Agric., 196 N.J. 366, 385 (2008); In re Freshwater Wetlands Prot. Act Rules, 180 N.J. 415, 432 (2004); New Jersey State League of Municipalities v. Dep't of Cmty. Affairs, 158 N.J. 211, 222 (1999); In re the 1999–2000 Abbott v. Burke Implementing Regulations, 348 N.J. Super. 382, 395 (App. Div. 2002). An action is determined to be arbitrary and capricious based on four inquiries: 1) was the action in violation of the State or Federal Constitution; 2) did it violate any express or implied legislative policies; 3) does the record contain substantial evidence to support the findings on which the agency based its action; and, 4) when applying the legislative policies to the facts, did the agency clearly err in reaching a conclusion that couldn't reasonably have been made on a showing of the relevant factors? Brady v. Bd. of Review, 152 N.J. 197, 210–11 (1997); see also In re Proposed Quest Acad. Charter Sch. of Montclair Founders Grp., 216 N.J. 370, 385–86 (2013).

Here, Ramaswamy did not take advantage of a Rice or Donaldson hearing, allegedly relying on the recommendation of the principal and superintendent. Rice and Donaldson hearings are intended to afford the teacher the opportunity to present her position as to why she should be renewed. Instead, petitioner comes to this tribunal with a petition limited to the review of the actions of the Board, with no presentation of any claim of discrimination or violations of constitutional or legislative policy. The petition is not even verified by Ramaswamy. Ramaswamy's counsel claimed at the initial conference that the minutes of the meeting were not provided, when in fact they had been. Counsel was unsatisfied with the pro-forma minutes. Apparently, he was seeking further explanation of the determination, which was provided, but was still not acceptable to counsel. Counsel was fishing for something to provide him with a case, but did not zealously represent his client by formally requesting the limited discovery provided in this tribunal. Instead, he requested additional time to respond to the summary-decision motion and cross-moved seeking discovery, which was never specifically demanded, and refused to accept Englewood's counsel's representation that such additional documentation did not exist.

Englewood's counsel, on the other hand, relied on Dore v. Board of Education of Bedminster, Somerset County, 185 N.J. Super. 447 (App. Div. 1982), a case that predates the 1995 legislation, N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b), which provides,

> A board of education shall renew the employment contract of a certificated or non-certificated officer or employee only upon the recommendation of the chief school administrator and by a recorded roll call majority vote of the full membership of the board. The board shall not withhold its approval for arbitrary and capricious reasons. A nontenured officer or employee who is not recommended for renewal by the chief school administrator shall be deemed nonrenewed. Prior to notifying the officer or employee of the nonrenewal, the chief school administrator shall notify the board of the > recommendation not to renew the officer's or employee's contract and the reasons for the recommendation. An officer or employee whose employment contract is not renewed shall have the right to a written statement of reasons for nonrenewal pursuant to section 2 of P.L.1975, c.132 (C.18A:27-3.2) and to an informal appearance before the board. The purpose of the appearance shall be to permit the staff member to convince the members of the board to offer reemployment. The chief school administrator shall notify the officer or employee of the nonrenewal pursuant, where applicable, to the provisions of section 1 of P.L.1971, c.436 (C.18A:27-10).

Englewood's counsel also relies on Truncellito v. Board of Education of Lyndhurst, Bergen County, 2019 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 643 (Sept. 18, 2019), rev'd, 2019 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1093 (Dec. 3, 2019), rev'd and remanded, 2022 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 92 (App. Div. Jan. 24, 2022). Accordingly, the reversal does not support the position of Englewood.

This tribunal recognizes that the Department of Education's position is that there is great latitude in a board's determination regarding the renewal of a teacher's contract. This tribunal relies on the positions stated by the Department of Education in the Truncellito matter, despite the reversal by the Appellate Division. This tribunal also relies on Hubbard v. Springfield Board of Education, 80 Fed. Appx. 757 (3d Cir. 2003). The Hubbard case deals with a claim of discrimination. It places the burden of proof on the party claiming the discrimination. Here, Ramaswamy has not satisfied the burden of proof that any discrimination occurred. Nor has Ramaswamy identified where the actions of Englewood are arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Englewood provided the reasons for the non-renewal. The personnel records appearing in the District's papers, support the deficiency Englewood relied upon. There are areas of Ramaswamy's performance where there was only partial competency. Ramaswamy's principal's own recommendation acknowledged the deficiency. One would think Ramaswamy would have appeared to present why the deficiencies should not result in denial of her renewal.

CONCLUSIONS

After reviewing the papers and arguments of petitioner and respondent and considering the documents and certifications submitted,

I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the Department has acted unreasonably, arbitrarily, or capriciously in the denial of the renewal of Ramaswamy's contract for school year 2023–2024.

I further CONCLUDE that the petitioner's motion to compel discovery was never formally made, and it appears the requested discovery is non existent.

I further CONCLUDE that the Board of Education has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the Board is entitled to prevail in its application for summary decision.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that petitioner's request for a review of the actions of Englewood is DENIED.

It is further hereby ORDERED, that petitioner's undocumented motion to compel discovery is DENIED.

It is further hereby ORDERED that respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 22, 2024
DATE

JOSEPH A. ASCIONE, ALJ (Ret., on recall)

Date Received at Agency: April 22, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 22, 2024

APPENDIX

LIST OF EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

P-1 Answering and Moving papers on Cross motion 5 pages double sided

P-2 Reply papers – 4 pages

For Respondent:

R-1 Moving papers – 17 pages plus exhibits A-J

R-2 Reply papers – 13 pages plus exhibits A-D

R-3 Correspondence of January 3, 2024

211-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10546-23
Agency Dkt. No. 226-8/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.W., on behalf of minor children, K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W., III,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Lawnside, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 31, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10546-23

AGENCY DKT. NO. 226-8/23

A.W., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN,
K.W., T.B., A.W. and M.W., III,
Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF LAWNSIDE, CAMDEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Courtney Boyle-Wisinski, Esq., for petitioner A.W. (South Jersey Legal Services, Inc., attorneys)

Bryant L. Horsley, Jr., Esq., for respondent (Souder, Shabazz & Woodbridge Law Group, LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 1, 2024 Decided: May 6, 2024

BEFORE NICOLE MINUTOLI, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties, however, have settled this case without the need for a hearing. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I ORDER that the parties comply with the terms of their settlement agreement.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 6, 2024
DATE

NICOLE MINUTOLI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 7, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: May 7, 2024

NM/mph

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

BY AND BETWEEN

LAWNSIDE CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION

AND

A.W. O/B/O MINORS: K.W., T.B., A.W., M.W. III

1. PARTIES / DEFINITIONS

Under this Settlement Agreement and General Release ("Agreement"), "District" or "Board" means Lawnside Board of Education, located at 426 East Charleston Avenue, Lawnside, New Jersey 08045.

"A.W." means the Petitioner who filed the Petition.

"K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III" are A.W.'s four minor children who currently attend Lawnside Public Schools.

"Parties" means the Board and A.W. on behalf of minor children: K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III.

"Petition" means the petition filed under A.W. o/b/o minor children, K.W., T.B., A.W. and M.W. III v. Borough of Lawnside Board of Education, Camden County; OAL Docket. No. EDU 10546-2023S; Agency Ref. No. 226-8/23.

2. PURPOSE

The Parties are entering into this Agreement with the intent to amicably resolve the residency dispute and dispute over whether A.W.'s four minor children are entitled to attend the District free of charge.

3. CONSIDERATION

For the consideration set forth in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties intend to be legally bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4. ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL FREE OF CHARGE FOR REMAINDER OF 2023-2024 SCHOOL YEAR

For the remainder of the 2023-2024 school year, which ends June 30, 2024, the Board agrees to allow K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III to attend school within the District without payment of tuition.

5. ENROLLMENT OF K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III AFTER JUNE 30, 2024, PROHIBITED / EXCEPTIONS

A.W. agrees that K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III shall not be enrolled in the District after June 30, 2024. A.W. agrees to not seek enrollment of K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III after June 30, 2024. A.W. agrees to not solicit, encourage, or enter into any verbal or written agreement with another person for the purposes of enrolling K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III in the District. However, District agrees that should A.W. secure permanent housing within the District after June 30, 2024 that they will abide by N.J.A.C. 6A:22 and register the students provided that A.W. offers proof of residency sufficient to establish that A.W. has, in fact, secured housing within the District.

6. NO PARTICIPATION IN SUMMER PROGRAMS

K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III shall not participate in, nor be eligible to participate in, any of the District's summer programs.

7. REFRAIN FROM SEEKING TUITION / RESULT OF BREACH

In addition to removal from the District, the Board is seeking full payment of tuition for K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III for school years' 2022-2023 and 2023-2024. The Board will refrain from seeking collection of the tuition on the condition that this Agreement is fully executed and A.W. does not breach the Agreement. Should A.W. breach the Agreement and not remove the students from the District by June 30, 2024, then A.W. shall be financially responsible for immediate full payment of tuition.

8. REFRAIN FROM SEEKING REMOVAL OF STUDENTS / RESULT OF BREACH

In addition to seeking payment of tuition for school years' 2022-2023 and 2023-2024, the Board was seeking the immediate removal of K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III. The Board will refrain from seeking removal of the students on the condition that this Agreement is fully executed and A.W. does not breach the Agreement. Should A.W. breach the Agreement, then K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III shall be immediately removed from the District.

9. REFRAIN FROM SEEKING CRIMINAL CHARGES / RESULT OF BREACH

The Board has reserved its right to press criminal charges for residency fraud and submit the matter to the prosecutor's office. The Board will refrain from pressing criminal charges and submitting the matter to the prosecutor's office on the condition that this Agreement is fully executed and A.W. does not breach the Agreement. Should A.W. breach the Agreement, then the Board may exercise its rights to press criminal charges and submit the matter to the prosecutor's office.

10. CUSTODIAL PARENT WARRANTY / EFFECT OF ANOTHER DECISION-MAKER SEEKING TO ENROLL STUDENTS IN THE DISTRICT

A.W. represents and warrants that she is the custodial parent of K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III., with the ability to make educational decisions on their behalf. Should another parent or guardian seek to fraudulently exert educational decision-making authority over K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III, and seek to enroll one, some, or all four children in the District, then: a) this Agreement shall be terminated; b) A.W. shall immediately pay the tuition for K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III, for school years 2022-2023 and 2023-2024; and c) K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III, shall be immediately removed from the District.

11. WARRANTY THAT FOUR CHILDREN WERE NEVER HOMELESS WHILE ENROLLED IN DISTRICT SCHOOLS

For the purposes of this section, "homeless" refers to the term "homeless" as defined under the McKinney Vento Act, Title 18A New Jersey Statutes, and Title 6A of the New Jersey Administrative Code.

A.W. represents and warrants that K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III., have never been homeless at any time during their attendance or enrollment at the District.

12. GENERAL RELEASE

In consideration of all benefits, A.W. hereby fully and forever generally releases, waives, and discharges District from any and all liability and claims related to and/or arising out of A.W.'s engagement with the District as a parent or on behalf of her four minor children: K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III. This general release includes, but is not limited to, a full release, waiver, and discharge from any and all past, present, or future claims for: homelessness, McKinney-Vento Act, residency, domicile, bussing and transportation, home instruction, attendance at school free of charge, discrimination, harassment, intentional and/or negligent infliction of emotional distress, defamation, libel, slander, personal injury, tort, lost wages, and any other economic and/or non-economic damages or losses whatsoever. This section hereby fully and forever releases, waives, and/or discharges District from all foreseeable and unforeseeable claims that A.W. is or is not aware of resulting or arising from any occurrence leading up to the latest date that this Agreement is signed by the three signatories on the signature page.

13. COVENANT NOT TO SUE

A.W. shall be forever barred and shall never file, charge, claim, sue, or cause or permit to be filed any civil, criminal, or administrative action, suit, or legal proceeding against the District that is directly related to any residency issue resolved herein. A.W. shall not file, charge, claim, sue, or cause or permit to be filed any civil, criminal, or administrative action, suit, or legal proceeding against the District that is directly or indirectly related to A.W. or her four minor children: K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III specifically with regard to the residency issue herein. Should any person, organization, or other entity file, charge, claim, sue, or cause or permit to be filed any such any civil, criminal, or administrative action, suit, or legal proceeding with regard to the residency issue herein, A.W. will not seek or accept any relief, personal or on behalf of her four minor children, therefrom.

14. CLAIMS NOT RELEASED

This Agreement impacts and effects only the residency and tuition dispute between the Parties. It shall have no bearing whatsoever on any pending complaint or charge against either party the other has. This Agreement also shall be without prejudice to A.W.'s ability to seek services related to an IEP or 504 plan.

15. PROMPT WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION

Immediately upon the signing of the Agreement by A.W., A.W. shall immediately file a dismissal of the Petition with the Office of Administrative Law and New Jersey Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes.

16. PROPER DECORUM REQUIRED / EFFECT OF NON-CORDIAL BEHAVIOR

All parties shall act with proper and professional decorum at all times while on Board property, and District events, and toward one another. Neither party shall engage in or encourage others to, harass, intimidate, curse, or act unprofessionally toward the other.

17. NO ADMISSION OF ERRONEOUS DETERMINATION
Entering into this Agreement shall in no way tacitly or expressly suggest that the Board's determination that A.W.'s four minor children are not entitled to a free public education in the District, and therefore must be removed and pay tuition, was erroneous, nor shall it suggest that the District's determination was correct.

18. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF BENEFITS / MATERIALITY OF TERMS & CONDITIONS
Each Party understands that the promises and covenants in each section and paragraph of this Agreement are material and significant, whereby the neither party would have entered into this Agreement but for the mutual Agreement to all terms and conditions.

19. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
The Parties acknowledge that District resides in Camden County, New Jersey. New Jersey law shall govern this Agreement. Other than the local, state, administrative agencies, and federal courts, or administrative tribunals in New Jersey, no other court or tribunal shall have jurisdiction over this matter.

20. COMPLETE AGREEMENT
The Parties are not aware of any other express or implied agreements, promises, representations, or warranties between the Parties except as stated in this document. This Agreement embodies the entire Agreement and understanding between the Parties, and shall supersede all express or implied agreements related to the subject matter of this Agreement.

21. HEADINGS
The headings in this Agreement are for convenience and reference only, and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning of this Agreement or its provisions.

22. MODIFICATIONS AND AMENDMENTS
This Agreement may not be modified unless the Parties agree in writing.

23. COUNTERPARTS
This Agreement may be executed in more than one counterpart, and each counterpart shall be considered an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same.

24. SAVINGS CLAUSE
If a specific section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, phrase, word, or other clause within this Agreement is declared to be illegal, against public policy, void, or ineffective, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by the declaration, and shall remain valid, in full force and effect.

25. INDIVIDUALS BOUND
This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit or detriment of the Parties, and their respective parents, guardians, educational decision-makers, heirs, executors, administrators, personal or legal representatives, successors and/or assigns.

[SIGNATURES ON NEXT PAGE]

BY SIGNING BELOW, both Parties represent and warrant that:

1. They have thoroughly read and fully understands this Agreement;

2. Both parties are aware that of their right to seek independent legal counsel before signing the Agreement;

3. Both parties have had ample time and resources to fully consider and contemplate the past, present, and future consequences of signing this Agreement;

4. The signing of this Agreement is voluntary and made on both parties own free will, being of sober and sound mind, and is not the result of fraud, duress, coercion, or undue influence; and

5. Both Parties agree that the signatures of all persons below create a contract that is legally binding on the Parties to this Agreement.

PETITIONER

By: Antoinette Warren (Apr 9, 2024 09:42 EDT) Dated: Apr 9, 2024

A.W. o/b/o four minor children:
K.W., T.B., A.W., and M.W. III

LAWNSIDE BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: Sabrina R. Forrest Dated: April 11, 2024

Sabrina Forrest
Board President

By: Dated: April 11, 2024

Dr. Ronn Johnson
Superintendent

Settlement Agreement Board approved on April 11, 2024

LAWNSIDE SCHOOL DISTRICT
BOARD OF EDUCATION
426 Charleston Avenue
Lawnside, New Jersey 08045

RONN H. JOHNSON, ED. D.
SUPERINTENDENT
856-546-4850
FAX:856-310-0901
ronnjohnson@lawnside.k12.nj.us

KAREN WILLIS
BUSINESS ADMINISTRATOR
856-547-2585
FAX: 856-547-3865
kwillis@lawnside.k12.nj.us

CERTIFIED MINUTE EXTRACT OF THE LAWNSIDE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the Borough of Lawnside, in the County of Camden, New Jersey, convened a public meeting on April 11, 2024, at 7:00 PM, in the conference room of the school located at 426 Charleston Avenue, Lawnside, New Jersey.

The following members of the Board were present:
Chanelle Arterbridge; Ferin Catlet; Sabrina Forrest; Michael Harper; Fatimah Hayes; Bridgett Kittles; Darlene Still

The following member(s) of the Board were absent:
Nana Cauthorne

Motion
The motion to approve the following resolution was made by Michael Harper, and seconded by Bridgett Kittles:

> AUTHORIZATION TO APPROVED THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT in A.W. o/b/o MINOR CHILDREN, K.W., T.B., A.W. and M.W. III v. BOROUGH OF LAWNSIDE BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAMDEN COUNTY; OAL Docket No. EDU 10546-2023S; Agency Ref. No. 226-8/23
>
> WHEREAS, the Board issued a residency determination and demand to pay tuition to A.W., and A.W. thereafter filed a petition of appeal of that residency determination with the Commissioner of Education, under A.W. o/b/o minor children, K.W., T.B., A.W. and M.W. III v. Borough of Lawnside Board of Education, Camden County; OAL Docket. No. EDU 10546-2023S; Agency Ref. No. 226-8/23; and
>
> WHEREAS, the parties negotiated a settlement agreement through their attorneys; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board hereby approves the settlement agreement in A.W. o/b/o minor children, K.W., T.B., A.W. and M.W. III v. Borough of Lawnside Board of Education, Camden County; OAL Docket. No. EDU 10546-2023S; Agency Ref. No. 226-8/23.

Roll Call Vote

Forrest - Yes	Hayes - Yes	Harper - Yes	Catlett - Yes
Cauthorne - Absent	Arterbridge - Yes	Kittles - Yes	Still - Yes

Motion Result Passed

I, KAREN WILLIS, School Business Administrator/Board Secretary of the Board of Education of the Borough of Lawnside, County of Camden, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that the foregoing extract from the minutes of the meeting of the Lawnside Board of Education duly called and held on April 11, 2024, has been compared by me with the original minutes as officially recorded in my office in the minute book of said Lawnside Board of Education, and is a true, complete representation of said original minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matter referred to in said extract, and in witness I have hereunto set my signature and affixed the corporate seal of the Lawnside Board of Education this April 29, 2024.

Karen Willis April 29, 2024

Karen Willis
School Business Administrator / Board Secretary

212-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.H. and B.H., on behalf of minor child, J.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Jefferson, Morris County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners challenged the determination of the respondent Board that their son, a fifth grade student during the 2022-2023 school year, committed an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB), pursuant to the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq, against a female classmate when he placed his hands in her lap. Petitioners contended that their son did not fully understand his conduct because he suffers from behavioral dysregulation and other disabilities. They sought to set aside the Board's decision and have the HIB finding removed from J.H.'s school record.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: an action by a board of education is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be undermined unless it can be shown that the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; under the Act, an HIB finding requires the demonstration of three elements: 1) the conduct must be reasonably perceived as motivated by any actual or perceived enumerated characteristic or other distinguishing characteristic, 2) the behavior must substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school, and 3) the conduct must satisfy one of the three criteria enumerated in the Act regarding the effect of the conduct; in this case, the incident undeniably took place on school grounds as it was recorded on a video camera in the school hallway; the female victim could reasonably perceive J.H.'s actions, i.e. touching the area of her "private parts", to be motivated by her gender; the victim reported being scared and uncomfortable because of J.H.'s physical contact; she was reluctant to attend school the next day and requested to be excused from a group activity, which interfered with her rights and education; there is no doubt that a reasonable person should know that touching a student in a private area would result in emotional harm or insult, and J.H.'s reactions upon observing his conduct on video demonstrated that he recognized the nature of his behavior, as he apologized. The ALJ concluded that the Board's HIB conclusion had a rational basis and that evidentiary support existed to support its conclusion. Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision was granted and the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in rendering its HIB determination in this case. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

212-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00642-24
Agency Dkt. No. 344-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.H. and B.H., on behalf of minor child, J.H.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Jefferson, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concludes that petitioners failed to demonstrate that respondent Board of Education's determination that J.H. committed an act of harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. Respondent's motion for summary decision is granted and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: May 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: May 31, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under *N.J.Ct.R.*2 :4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00642-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 344-12/23

E.H. AND B.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF JEFFERSON, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondent.

E.H. and B.H., petitioners appearing pro se

Patrick Carrigg, Esq. for Respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Carrigg, Lang & Casey, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 18, 2024 Decided: April 22, 2024

BEFORE: NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners challenge a determination that J.H., their minor child, engaged in Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying (HIB) against a female classmate on June 19, 2023, when he placed his hands in her lap twice. Should the HIB conclusion stand, even though J.H. suffers from behavioral dysregulation and other disabilities? Yes. Students with disabilities remain subject to HIB prohibitions, and a Board of Education's decision will stand unless it is arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 18, 2023, E.H. and B.H. filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) challenging the Jefferson Board of Education's (Board) HIB determination against J.H. Petitioners largely dispute that J.H. knew that his behavior could harm the other student given his disabilities and maintain that the Board never explained what it considered to be the victim's perceived distinguishing characteristic. Further, petitioners contend that J.H. did not target the victim because she was female and that J.H.'s disabilities prevent him from forming the necessary intent to support an act of HIB. Thus, petitioners seek to set aside the Board's decision and remove the HIB finding from J.H.'s record.

On January 9, 2024, the Board answered the petition denying the petitioners' allegations, maintaining it followed all required procedures and that its decision met the HIB criteria. The Board requests that this tribunal and the Commissioner uphold the Board's HIB determination.

The Department of Education (DOE) transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to-15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to-13, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On January 9, 2024, the OAL received and filed the transmittal.

On March 18, 2024, the Board filed a motion for a summary decision as the parties did not dispute the events of June 19, 2023. Petitioners filed no response. On April 17, 2024, the Board submitted the video of the June 19, 2023, event. On that date, I closed the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Viewing the facts in the most favorable light to the non-movants, I FIND the following as FACT after considering the sufficiency of the documents:

In June 2023, J.H. attended Jefferson Township's (Jefferson) Arthur Stanlick Elementary School as a fifth-grade student. On June 19, 2023, J.H. was ten years old and under a 504 plan to accommodate the following disabling conditions: (1) attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD); (2) Central auditory processing disorder, (3) autism, and (4) sensory processing disorder. In an assessment in July 2023, Jefferson also noted that J.H. suffered from childhood emotional disorder and disruptive mood dysregulation disorder. The Board does not dispute that J.H. has disabilities, is classified, or that J.H.'s disabilities may have impacted his ability to fully appreciate his conduct.

On June 19, 2023, J.H. attended school. At drop-off, B.H. alerted the school's principal and his teachers that J.H. was exhibiting mood swings and sensory dysregulation because of a medication issue. J.H. had behavioral problems during the day.

At dismissal, J.H. sat on the school's hallway floor, waiting to be picked up. A female student sat next to him in the hallway. Soon after, J.H. placed his hands in her lap twice, touching her private area. Jefferson supplies a forty-seven-second video of these events. In the upper left part of the video, J.H. is sitting cross-legged on the blue carpet on the floor, facing the camera. At the twelve-second mark, a girl with brown hair and a tan backpack walks over and sits next to J.H. at the fourteen-second point, with her back facing the camera. Between the seventeen and twenty-second points in the video, J.H. reaches his right hand over her leg into her lap area twice. Immediately after, the girl moves slightly away from J.H. on his right and turns her back to him.

Jefferson's anti-bullying specialist, Gina Santini, investigated the incident and interviewed the alleged victim and J.H. On the day of the incident, Santini interviewed the alleged victim, who was crying and relayed that someone touched her "private part" twice while next to her. The alleged victim told Santini that she tried to tell an adult but was not sure what to do, reporting that she was scared and uncomfortable. Someone observed the incident and reported it, leading to Santini's investigation. Notably, petitioners do not dispute J.H.'s actions.

The female student was reluctant to attend school the next day, and her parent asked the principal to excuse her from a group activity.

On June 21, 2023, Santini interviewed J.H. Initially, J.H. did not recall his actions but acknowledged that he touched the girl after seeing the video. J.H. apologized after realizing that he did, expressing remorse and a desire to make things right.

On July 18, 2023, Jefferson completed its HIB investigation, concluding that a gender-based physical contact HIB was confirmed. Jefferson previously reported the incident to the police department, which concluded that no crime occurred, and that the administration could address the behavior. The incident report highlights that J.H.'s actions made the victim fearful of physical or emotional harm.

On that same date, the principal notified petitioners of the school's HIB determination, and the school reported its findings to the Board.

J.H.'s discipline for the HIB action was student counseling and a one-day suspension.

On August 24, 2023, the Board wrote to petitioners advising that it affirmed its conclusion that J.H. committed an act of HIB.

Subsequently, J.H.'s parents requested a hearing and appeared before the Board on September 18, 2023. They maintain that their son did not fully understand his conduct because of his disabilities and blame the school for not appropriately addressing his behavioral problems. Still, the only issue before this tribunal is whether the Board's HIB determination should stand.

Yet, on September 20, 2023, the Board confirmed that J.H.'s actions constituted an act of HIB that caused emotional harm to the victim, leading to a substantial disruption to the school and the victim's rights. This appeal followed.

J.H.'s parents maintain that the HIB finding caused significant distress to J.H., a student already struggling with the school environment, and urging compassion for his circumstances. They placed J.H. in therapy to help him self-reflect and have a better understanding of his disabilities.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Legislature designed the Anti-Bullying Rights Act (ABRA), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 to -37, "to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises." N.J.S.A.18A:37-13.1(f). Each school district must adopt a policy that prohibits HIB and provides "a procedure for prompt investigation of reports of violations and complaints." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6).

Under the ABRA, "harassment, intimidation or bullying" (HIB) is defined as:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;

> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14]

Thus, a HIB finding requires demonstrating three elements, assuming the alleged incident or incidents occurs on school property, at a school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3. First, the conduct must be reasonably perceived as motivated by any actual or perceived enumerated characteristic or other distinguishing characteristic, and second, the conduct must substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school. The third element requires satisfaction of one of the three criteria enumerated in the Act regarding the effect of the conduct. Wehbeh v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Verona, Essex County, EDU 10981-18, Initial Decision (December 29, 2019), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal, rejected and remanded Comm'r Decision No. 51-20 (February 4, 2020), 2020 N.J. AGEN. LEXIS 50.

When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness that will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). To overcome that presumption, the petitioner must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the board "acted in either bad faith or in disregard to the circumstances." T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., EDU 2780-07 (February 6, 2008), aff'd, Comm'r (April 25, 2013) (citing Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966)). In other words, the burden is a heavy one. Indeed, the Commissioner recognizes that Boards should "have the discretion to operate their schools in a manner that best serves their unique communities," the Commissioner will not interfere with that discretion concerning HIB matters unless the Board acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably. G.H. & E.H. o/b/o K.H. v. Franklin Lakes Bd. of Educ., EDU 13204-13 (Feb. 24, 2014), aff'd, Comm'r (Apr. 10, 2014), n.4. Further, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration[,]" the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the Board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't. of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

Still, the Board's factual determinations require such deference only when supported by substantial credible evidence, e.g., having a rational basis. Quinlan v. Board of Ed. of North Bergen Tp., 73 N.J. Super. 40 (App. Div. 1962); Schinck v. Board of Ed. of Westwood Consol. School Dist., 60 N.J. Super. 448 (App. Div. 1960). Additionally, the reviewing tribunal may reject the findings of fact if the evidentiary record does not support them. In re Suspension of License of Silberman, 169 N.J. Super. 243, 255-56 (App. Div. 1979), aff'd, 84 N.J. 303 (1980).

Undeniably, the incident took place on school grounds and is subject to the HIB statutory directives. Regarding the first element, the statute defines HIB is an action "that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. Here, the statute requires an analysis of the victim's perception of the actor's motivation and whether that perception is reasonable. Yet, an analysis of the actual motivation of the actor is not required. Webbeh, at *8. Here, I CONCLUDE it was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable for the Board to conclude that the female victim could reasonably consider J.H.'s actions, touching her "private part" area, motivated by her gender.

The second element is similarly clear because the victim reported being scared and uncomfortable because of J.H.'s physical contact. She was also reluctant to attend school the next day and requested she be excused from a group activity, interfering with her rights and education. The incident was limited, but the victim was crying during her interview with Santini, reported being scared, and was afraid of returning to school. Further, the victim did not report the incident due to fear, but another individual alerted the school after observing the interaction.

In D.D.K. o/b/o D.K v. Board of Education of the Township of Readington, Hunterdon County, EDU 07682-15 (October 6, 2016), adopted, Comm'r Decision (November 11, 2016), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/, the Commissioner discussed those situations where the Board's HIB determination satisfied the second prong, explaining that:

> [C]onduct has been determined to substantially disrupt the orderly operation of the school when students are so upset or embarrassed that they are "not fully available for learning. " G.H. and E.H. on behalf of K.H. v. Board of Education of the Borough of Franklin Lakes, Bergen County, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13204-13, decided February 24, 2014, adopted Commissioner Decision No. 157-14, April 10, 2014. Additionally, when other students are "so affected" by behavior that they report it, the orderly operation of the school may be substantially disrupted. T.R. and T.R. on behalf of E.R. v. Bridgewater-Raritan Regional Board of Education, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10208-13, decided September 25, 2014, adopted Commissioner Decision No. 450-14, November 10, 2014.
>
> Id.

Thus, I CONCLUDE that the Board satisfied the second requirement necessary to conclude that J.H. committed a HIB.

The third element under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14(a) requires a conclusion that the HIB act is one that "a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student," "has the effect of insulting or demeaning a student," or "creates a hostile educational environment." In Wehbeh, the Commissioner highlighted that "none of these criteria require the actor to have actual knowledge of the effect that their actions will have, or to specifically intend to bring about that effect." Id. Further, any one of the three criteria satisfies the third element. Here, the Board found that J.H.'s actions made the victim fearful of school. While the Board accepts thar J.H. did not fully appreciate his actions or intend to harm the victim, J.H.'s disabilities do not excuse his inappropriate actions. Every student is bound by the District's HIB policy, and the District is required to investigate HIB complaints and enforce its HIB policies. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6).

Although petitioners feel the school, aware of J.H.'s struggles, could have done more to help J.H. avoid such behavior, that does not change what J.H. did, even if J.H.'s actions were careless. In other words, there is no doubt that a reasonable person should know that touching a student in a private area would result in emotional harm or insult.

Notably, once J.H. observed his conduct on video, he apologized, recognizing the nature of his behavior. Hence, I CONCLUDE the Board was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable in reaching the conclusion that the third prong of the HIB analysis was met.

Notably, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7(a)2 requires that the consequences stemming from a HIB reflect the nature of the actions and the perpetrator's disabilities, if any. Here, the discipline imposed was only a one day suspension and counseling. While the HIB report could arguably better reflect J.H.'s disabilities, the Board certainly considered J.H.'s circumstances raised by his parents at the hearing.

Here, petitioners present no credible evidence that the Board acted arbitrarily or that its decision was unreasonable. I appreciate that petitioners wish to protect their son from a determination with which they disagree and took laudable steps to help their son better understand his disabilities. Still, I found that the Board's HIB conclusion had a rational basis and that evidentiary support existed to support its conclusion. Thus, I CONCLUDE that the Board's decision that J.H. committed a HIB should stand.

ORDER

Given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that the Board's motion for summary decision be GRANTED and DISMISS the petitioners' appeal.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 22, 2024

DATE

NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 22, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: April 22, 2024

ljb

APPENDIX

Submssions Considered

For Petitioner

Petition

For Respondent

Motion, brief, and supporting certification with exhibits
Video and certification

221-24E
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07247-24
Agency Dkt. No. 167-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

K.F.-M., on behalf of minor child, P.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Branchburg, Somerset County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter and the Initial Decision Denying Emergent Relief have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the portion of the Initial Decision denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted, for the reasons stated therein.

The ALJ noted that there are no other issues to be decided on the underlying petition and dismissed the petition. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, parties may file exceptions to an Initial Decision within 13 days. Accordingly, the Commissioner's decision herein is limited to the issue of emergent relief. Following the filing of any exceptions from the parties, or the expiration of the time period without any exceptions being filed, the Commissioner will issue a final agency decision in the usual course.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 10, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION DENYING EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 07247-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 167-5/24

K.F.M., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD P.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BRANCHBURG,

Respondent.

K.F.M., o/b/o P.F., petitioner, pro se

David B. Rubin, Esquire, for respondent

Record Closed: June 3, 2024 Decided: June 4, 2024

BEFORE DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, K.F.M., on behalf of P.F., moves for emergent relief, appealing that P.F. be permitted to attend the 8th grade school dance on June 8, 2024, and walk for graduation on June 18, 2024. Respondent, the Township of Branchburg Board of Education, declines and presents safety concerns.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a verified petition and request for emergent relief with the Commissioner of the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes (DOE). On May 29, 2024, DOE transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case seeking emergent relief. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The hearing was held on June 3, 2024, and the record closed that day.

The request for emergent relief is now ripe for adjudication.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Petitioner articulated that on October 11, 2023, Mr. Tylin, P.F.'s math teacher, placed a trashcan to her face in front of the class and addressed her in front of her peers as a spoiled brat and spoiled Jersey girl and told her how she is not in the hood. Despite his apology and being told he was joking, this incident set an unfortunate tone for further inappropriate behavior.

On November 29–30, 2023, during health class, students were asked to close their computers. P.F.'s computer was open, as she was logging off. Ms. McGirl, who is the health teacher, walked over to P.F. and slammed the computer shut with P.F.'s hands inside. While her hands were still inside, Ms. McGirl snatched the computer away. Ms. McGirl then physically yanked P.F. by the arm to pull her from her chair to leave the class. P.F. turned and told her "If you touch me that way again, I will punch you in the face." She walked to the office to explain what transpired and was sent to the nurse to have her hands and arm checked. K.F.M. received a call from the school notifying her that P.F. was in the nurse's office being checked, as her hands were smashed, and she was forcibly yanked from her chair by her teacher. When asked if K.F.M. could speak to the teacher, she was told that she could not for the teachers' safety. K.F.M. didn't quite understand that response because P.F. had never been hostile or aggressive in speech or action. Shortly after, she received a phone call from the vice principal, Mr. Derflinger, stating that they had to write an HIB against P.F. because her remarks were threatening to the teacher, and she also received a in school suspension. For this incident, K.F.M. did file a police report in Branchburg, as it was an assault, to document the event. This was not the first time Ms. McGirl has shown aggression towards P.F. and even K.F.M. in conversation.

P.F. was not removed from the class but was isolated by Ms. McGirl during class time. She would pull any students who would sit next to or talk to P.F. Because of the number of reoccurring incidents with Branchburg Central Middle and because a few of the other African American parents were having similar issues with staff and even some students calling the children "ns," referring to them as "monkeys," and making it a point to tell them they won't have the same opportunities, K.F.M. began to pay closer attention to the discipline and reasoning when presented with problems that were concerning P.F. Her first encounter with acting principal Steffner was on January 11, 2024.

January 11, 2024, Ms. Steffner, school principal, informed K.F.M. that P.F. was on the list for retention, adding to the growing concerns about her academic standing, which was alarming because after reading both the student handbook and the code of conduct, P.F. didn't meet any of the qualifications. K.F.M. and P.F.'s grandmother met with Ms. Steffner, where she said P.F. wasn't on a retention list and then in front of the superintendent said she never mentioned a retention list to K.F.M. K.F.M. was a bit confused, as Ms. Steffner had spoken with not just K.F.M., but her husband also. This incident "drew more red flags," and K.F.M. began to get more frequent calls about P.F. from Ms. Steffner that were bothersome.

On January 29, 2024, Ms. Steffner and K.F.M. had an in-person meeting for the first time, and she started the meeting with the incident that happened on November 29, 2023, with Ms. McGirl. She stated that she was alarmed by what she read concerning P.F. and how it was unacceptable to threaten a teacher. K.F.M. was confused because at that time, Ms. Steffner was not the acting principal. P.F. then began to be reprimanded for everything. K.F.M. was notified that there were mass emails sent to every teacher in the school to look out for her, if they saw her in the hall to stop her, find out where she was going or where she should be, and send her there or to the office for a conduct (disciplinary form). The teacher (Ms. Jordan) who mentioned the emails also shared with P.F. that the reason she is not liked by the adults in the building is because they can't take her strong personality. All of these were red flags for K.F.M.

On January 22, 2024, P.F. received conduct emails for being late to class due to a misunderstanding with the resource teacher, Ms. Jordan, resulting in two after-school detentions. P.F. was on a list for one teacher's class but was told she was supposed to be somewhere else. On January 23, 2024, P.F. received another conduct report for being late to class, despite confirmation from the nurse about P.F.'s legitimate health concern. P.F. was in the nurse's office with a runny stomach. On January 24, 2024, P.F. received a conduct report for having her computer open during a Spanish class, with the teacher's reaction appearing disproportionate. On January 25, 2024, P.F. received another conduct report from the same Spanish teacher, raising questions about the consistency and fairness of disciplinary actions. On January 25, 2024, K.F.M. received an email regarding academic dishonesty from the science teacher, Ms. Furnari, which was later proven unfounded but contributed to the overall distress. During P.F.'s music class, the teacher gave them free time, and P.F. asked if she could complete a science worksheet. The music teacher told her, yes. There were other students in her class who were also unaware they had to complete the back of the worksheet, so they all began to work on it. The music teacher, Ms. Devita, sent an email to the science teacher saying that P.F. was copying another student's work, and K.F.M. received the email explaining she was cheating, but it was an ungraded assignment (busy work for students). She wanted students to complete it alone. After speaking to P.F., she of course said she wasn't cheating and that she in fact had not even completed the page, just what she and K.F.M. had done at home the night before. When this was shown, to everybody's amazement, it was a misunderstanding and proven unfounded. Again, K.F.M. was confused because the educator Ms. Devita, who claimed to have seen her cheating, never once said anything to her while in class; she just sent the email to her coworker. On January 29, 2024, on this day as listed above, K.F.M. was actually in the building meeting with Principal Steffner. P.F. and her friends were walking to their science class, where Ms.

Furnari is the teacher, and as they walked to the class and got closer to the door, the teacher stopped her to ask if she had everything she needed. They responded yes, the bell rang, and Ms. Furnari said, "sorry you guys are late" and closed the door. Despite providing evidence that she was indeed close enough to have a brief conversation with the teacher, P.F. received an unexcused tardy for a class, highlighting potential communication issues within the school.

On January 30, 2024, K.F.M. received a phone call from Ms. Steffner suggesting K.F.M.'s involvement in P.F.'s request to leave school early, reflecting a lack of accurate communication. Ms. Steffner called K.F.M. and told her that P.F. told her that K.F.M. called her, and during this alleged phone conversation, K.F.M. told her to come home because she had to go to class. K.F.M. had never spoken to P.F., but did indeed have class, so she was confused. Upon P.F.'s arrival home from school, K.F.M. asked if what Ms. Steffner reported was true. P.F. explained she didn't say what Ms. Steffner claimed, but she was overwhelmed and really wanted to come home, so she asked Ms. Steffner if she could make up the detention (which she receives for every conduct). K.F.M. spoke to Ms. Steffner, and she then said that P.F. made it seem like she spoke to her because she asked if she could make up the detention another day because her mom had class. Now normally, K.F.M. picks P.F. up from school because it saves her from an hour-long bus ride and gives her some extra time to complete homework assignments. If K.F.M. is unable because of school, her husband will go. Ms. Steffner then said that P.F. had double detention for dishonesty. She said P.F. lied to her and made it seem like K.F.M. called her and told her to come home. But K.F.M. didn't understand, nor did K.F.M. want to send the wrong message with what she was being punished for, so K.F.M. told Ms. Steffner that P.F. would not be serving detention for something that was assumed on her end and that K.F.M. didn't like that she lied to her and said P.F. told her she called. Ms. Steffner began to yell that if P.F. did not serve her detentions, that she would suspend her from school and if K.F.M. didn't comply, she would have her removed from the school altogether before hanging up.

On January 31, 2024, Ms. Steffner shared screenshots suggesting academic dishonesty, creating confusion and seemingly escalating the situation from January 25th unnecessarily.

In February 2024, during math class, Mr. Tylin walked up to P.F., snapping his fingers in her face and asking why she doesn't do that. P.F. responded, because she "just don't." Mr. Tylin continued and said, "but why you don't do that? She gave him the same response. Mr. Tylin went on to say, "I didn't like you before but now I have a reason." He continued with, get mad. "I like it when you're mad, I like to make P.F. mad, I like to see her roll her eyes." P.F. repeatedly asked to be excused from class to go to the office. Mr. Tylin refused, and P.F. walked out and went to the office, where she explained what was happening, and the supporting teacher explained that "Mr. Tylin was being very inappropriate and that he seemed a little off," but she wanted P.F. to relax and go to the office after class. K.F.M. didn't understand how P.F. could even function in the classroom after this happened and all that was said to her in front of her peers. P.F. was issued a warning for walking out of the class. Ms. Steffner said she is to stay in class until it's over and get a pass to come to the office for incidents such as this. She is not to leave class in conflict; she is to wait until the class is over.

On February 9, 2024, K.F.M. met with both Ms. Steffner and superintendent Dr. Chase, who seemed to be very understanding of all of her discomforts with P.F. and how she felt she was being targeted by the acting principal, Ms. Steffner, and some of the staff. That nothing was being done when P.F. was wrongfully accused, reprimanded, and harshly punished for things that other students got passes on. K.F.M. explained that the books on suicide and the conversations about how the white students feel about Newark and Irvington, a place where the majority is the minority, were inappropriate and made her daughter uncomfortable to listen to. Students say that criminals, unclean people, poor people live in these places, and they feel unsafe, how it's dirty and run down. She assured K.F.M. that they would speak to the teachers, that the town was changing, and they had a lot of work to do. P.F. has also reported to the guidance counselor, Ms. Nelson, that she has been called "nr" by some of the same students, and nothing was done. P.F. was also spoken to by an educator (Ms. Kepner) who said to her she already has a tally against her because of the color of her skin and that she won't get away with what the other students get away with because of that. The teacher felt it was best if P.F. just laid low and kept her head down.

On February 22, 2024, the family received a call from Ms. Steffner, notifying that P.F. was being issued an in-school suspension for leaving the class without a pass. Both P.F. and K.F.M. were confused, as class didn't start until 8:07 a.m., and it wasn't even 8:00 a.m. yet. Initially, Ms. Steffner said it was because she was late, but P.F.'s bus arrived at school early at 7:45 a.m. She took her things to her first period class to be prepared when classes started and went to her resource teacher's classroom. K.F.M. spoke to the superintendent, who reiterated what Ms. Steffner said: that P.F. left the class and didn't have a pass, so that behavior warranted an in-school suspension. She then went on to say that P.F. was being disrespectful to a teacher by the name of Ms. Gatti, whom P.F. has shared on numerous occasions that she can be a bit touchy, and on this day, with getting in trouble first thing in the morning and not understanding why, P.F. didn't like that she kept rubbing her arms, shoulders, and neck. She also wasn't feeling too great and was later picked up from school with a fever of 104 (reported by the nurse). She also received documented medical care that day.

On March 1, 2024, P.F. was suspended from school for cutting class and theft. K.F.M. received a call that P.F. received a pass from her technology teacher to leave class and that she and another student met up and walked the halls until they were outside of a teacher's class where student pencil cases and supplies were left outside. K.F.M. was made aware that the incident happened on February 21, 2024. They received an anonymous tip from a student and teacher who reported that there were two black girls going through the pencil cases in the hall, so they checked the cameras and saw P.F. going in another student's pencil case. After investigation, they found that P.F. had permission from the student to take lead for a pencil out of the pencil case but said it is against school policy to go in another student's belongings. There is also a record that P.F. got the pass from her teacher whose class she allegedly cut to go to the nurse. The nurse called K.F.M. on February 21, 2024, and asked if she could give P.F. Tylenol for a headache. K.F.M. had the understanding that by law, when medication is administered, the child is watched while taking the medication and is monitored a little while after to make sure there are no reactions.

Once P.F. left the nurse's office, she ran into her classmate, which isn't uncommon, and before going back to class, she went to get the lead she asked her friend for that morning and reported back to class. K.F.M. was told she received the suspension for cutting and theft because she didn't go straight back to class, so it was considered a cut despite the pass, and despite having consent to go in her friend's pencil case, it's against school policy to do so.

On March 7,2024, K.F.M. had a meeting with principal Steffner, vice principal Derflinger, two of the school counselors, one being Ms. Nelson, and the teacher who reported P.F. was stealing. They wanted to set up a behavioral plan along with each of her teachers (even the ones who don't like her) because she is insubordinate and blatantly defiant among many others, all words used by principal Steffner. After K.F.M. shared her concerns and how the suspension was not warranted as P.F. hadn't broken any rules according to their student handbook and code of conduct, there was complete silence, as if amazed she had read it in its entirety. K.F.M. explained she felt at this point that P.F. was being targeted, and it was made plausible when mass emails were sent out about her and teachers felt the need to watch her so closely that she was publicly ostracized and verbally and physically attacked, and that had become her norm when walking the halls at Branchburg Central Middle School. Since starting at Branchburg Middle, she had never seen such a drastic change in her daughter's behavior as to always be on guard, and at times, defeated. She even got so overwhelmed with school and the adjustment to the culture of the school, with not many students who look like her in her classes and them so freely being able to call her a nigger or a monkey with no penalty, that she took a handful of Tylenol with the intent to not only stop the headaches she always having now, but to go to sleep and never wake up. It has been affirmed by teachers that "she is not liked and is targeted because of her personality and because of the color of her skin" (their words). It had gotten so bad that P.F. was coming home every day with a headache and was in the nurse's office every other day complaining of headaches, where the nurse administered medicine. With no resolve, and to save her daughter from being a partaker in the abuse of power from the authorities at Branchburg Middle School, K.F.M. removed her, and she is now being homeschooled for the remainder of the year. At this point, it is the safest option, as K.F.M. does not feel P.F. is protected while in school.

The petition is for P.F. to attend the 8th grade prom and graduation. P.F. entered the education system with boundless enthusiasm, eager to learn and excel. Her early years in school were marked by academic promise and a thirst for knowledge. However, P.F.'s journey turned dark when she became the target of discrimination. It began subtly, with biased remarks and microaggressions from classmates and even some educators. P.F. found herself marginalized and isolated, her confidence eroded by the constant reminders of her perceived differences. Each incident that K.F.M. has shared highlights a pattern of unfair treatment and prejudice against P.F., causing significant distress and harm to her well-being. The cumulative effect of the nine incidents in one month cannot be overstated, causing immense stress and isolation. The behavior exhibited by the staff at Branchburg Central Middle School created an intimidating and hostile environment for P.F., further exacerbating her distress. Even in the face of such blatant discrimination and harassment, the school failed to take appropriate action. Several meetings were held with no change; K.F.M.'s only recourse was to disenroll P.F. from school to protect her physical and mental health.

Closing the chapter of middle school is a big deal, and though P.F. faced many challenges to get through the school year, she maintained her grades to participate in her 8th grade festivities. P.F. should be given the opportunity to attend her 8th grade dance and graduate with her peers. P.F. has endured enough and deserves some relief.

Respondents claim that P.F. is a fourteen-year-old 8th grade student who no longer attends school in the Branchburg School District. P.F. was unilaterally disenrolled from the district by her parent on or about March 7, 2024. During the 2023–2024 school year, there were forty-one (41) incidents of various forms of inappropriate behavior reported by sixteen (16) different staff members involving P.F. Of the forty-one violations of the code of conduct, she received consequences ten times—the remaining thirty-one infractions involved conversations with counselors or administration. Additionally, there are several other infractions that have not been captured here and did not result in disciplinary outcomes, as respondent was trying to build a relationship with the student. These incidents illustrated a consistent pattern of non-compliance, disrespect, and disruption in the school environment.

On October 5, 2023, at 11:13 a.m., Mr. Tylin, a teacher, reported that P.F. was asked multiple times to spit out her gum, but she refused. Instead, she continued chewing gum while denying having any, demonstrating a failure to comply and being disrespectful. The recommended action was for P.F. to take a few minutes to reset before returning to class. On October 11, 2023, at 11:04 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. used profanity in class, telling the teacher to "eat her dick." This behavior was categorized as inappropriate language, disruptive, work avoidance, and disrespectful. The action taken was to have P.F. remain in the office for the period, with work sent down for her to complete, and she was assigned two lunch detentions.

On October 16, 2023, at 8:31 a.m., Ms. Furnari, another teacher, reported that substitute Victoria Nguyen noted P.F.'s disrespect during her instruction. P.F. talked to a friend during Mrs. Nguyen's instruction and responded dismissively to the substitute's request to pay attention. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, work avoidance, and disrespect. The recommended action was for P.F. to be sent back to class after speaking to someone.

On October 18, 2023, at 8:55 a.m., Ms. Valinoti, another teacher, reported that P.F. refused to start her Social Studies assignment, choosing instead to check emails and work on Science Gizmo. Despite verbal prompts and GoGuardian chats, she softly refused redirection and continued working on other assignments. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and work avoidance. The recommended action was for P.F. to be sent back to class after speaking to someone.

On October 26, 2023, at 3:04 p.m., Mr. Wright, another teacher, reported that P.F. used foul language in class. This behavior was categorized as inappropriate language. The action taken was to have P.F. remain in the office for the period, with work sent down for her to complete. On November 21, 2023, at 9:03 a.m., Ms. Valinoti reported that P.F. was eating Twizzlers in class and lied about the quantity she had. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, disruptive, and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers. On November 22, 2023, at 7:42 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was in the bathroom for approximately seventeen minutes on November 21, cutting class. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers and herself.

On November 22, 2023, at 7:44 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was in the bathroom for approximately ten minutes on November 13, cutting class. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers and herself. Also on November 22, 2023, at 7:46 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that on November 14, P.F. left to go to the nurse's bathroom and did not return within a reasonable time. She was found hanging out with a friend in a different bathroom. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers and herself. On November 27, 2023, at 10:28 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was out of the classroom for more than ten minutes, cutting class. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The recommended action was for P.F. to be sent back to class after speaking to someone, with a focus on respecting teachers and herself.

On November 28, 2023, at 8:16 a.m., Vicki Brody, another teacher, reported that P.F. refused to take her new assigned seat after the entire class was given new seating assignments. P.F. voiced her refusal to the entire class and was told to either take her new seat or go to the office. She chose to leave for the office. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disruptive. The recommended action was for P.F. to take a few minutes to reset before returning to class. Also on November 28, 2023, at 11:49 a.m., Debbie Glick, another teacher, reported that she caught P.F. at her locker with a lollipop in her mouth. When asked what she had in her mouth, P.F. ignored the question and walked away. After being followed and asked again, she responded with "a stick" and then ran into Mr. Tylin's classroom. This incident was not the first time she had been told not to have candy in the halls. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect to teachers.

On November 29, 2023, at 3:10 p.m., Ms. Maloney, another teacher, reported that P.F. was off task during an activity and given an alternate task, which she tore up and refused to complete. She later asked to go to the bathroom and returned with her backpack and jacket, suggesting she went to her locker instead. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 1, 2023, Ms. McGirl, another teacher, reported that P.F. got upset at a teacher and told her that "If you weren't a teacher, I would punch you in the face." The behavior was categorized as disrespectful to a staff member. The student was assigned an in-school suspension that was served on December 4, 2023.

On December 6, 2023, at 2:45 p.m., Ms. Maloney reported that P.F. appeared to be speaking negatively about another student's appearance. When asked about it, she told the teacher to mind their own business, mimicked the teacher, and then left the class to see Ms. Nelson despite being told to wait. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, disruptive, and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers and respect to each other.

On December 8, 2023, at 10:52 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. came to class on time and was praised for making up her homework but left the classroom without notice when the bell rang. She returned only after being called back and was unaccounted for five minutes. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply, student not being where they need to be, and disruptive. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 13, 2023, at 10:25 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. disappeared after the bell without checking in. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not being where they need to be. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers and accountability.

On December 14, 2023, at 8:25 a.m., Ms. Brody reported that after two verbal prompts and two GoGuardian messages, including a code word, P.F. refused to put her food back in her locker, hiding a bag of food under her hoodie. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disruptive. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on following school rules.

On December 14, 2023, at 8:28 a.m., Ms. Brody reported that P.F. refused to go to the office, claiming her food was put away, but this was not confirmed. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disruptive. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 15, 2023, at 3:16 p.m., Ms. Villanova reported that P.F., along with other students, was seen hanging out at a locker and meandering down the hallway during class. Despite being told to get to class, they ignored the instruction and continued strolling outside the gym. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply, student not being where they need to be, disrespectful, and physical/disrespectful towards school property. The behavioral focus was on respect to the school and its rules.

On December 19, 2023, at 2:15 p.m., Ms. Valinoti reported that P.F. entered a classroom to give a gift to another student and disrupted the class. She refused to leave when asked. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 20, 2023, at 8:49 a.m., Ms. Brody reported that P.F. left for the bathroom at 8:32 a.m. but had not returned by 8:47 a.m. She was reported to be hanging out in the 7th grade hall during her Social Studies class. This behavior was categorized as a failure to comply. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways.

On December 21, 2023, at 10:29 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. cut class by hanging out in the hallway, visiting the nurse, and then going to the office to avoid attending her class. The previous day, she had received a 5/50 on quiz. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be and work avoidance. The behavioral focus was on respect for teachers and self.

On December 21, 2023, at 11:02 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. was not where she needed to be, which showed a lack of accountability. She asked to go to the bathroom and ended up in another room. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On January 8, 2024, at 8:56 a.m., Ms. Valinoti and Ms. Brody reported that P.F. had done no work for the entire class period, despite several redirections. She was talking to other students, using foul language, and disrupting classmates. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, inappropriate language, disruptive, and work avoidance. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On January 8, 2024, at 11:43 a.m., Ms. Pereira, another teacher, reported that P.F. did not show up to resource class and was missing for twelve minutes. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not where they need to be. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on cutting class.

On January 17, 2024, at 8:36 p.m., Ms. Gatti, an instructional aide, reported repeated defiance of instructions by P.F. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply. The behavioral focus was on respect for each other.

On January 22, 2024, at 9:54 a.m., Ms. Furnari and Ms. Brody reported that P.F. and another student were over five minutes late to class without a pass, claiming they were in the bathroom. Both students left their first period early as well. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect to teachers.

On January 22, 2024, at 12:20 p.m., Ms. Pereira reported that P.F. did not report to her assigned resource class, was missing for over ten minutes, and falsely claimed she was pulled to another resource list. She argued and refused to follow directions, showing disrespect and work avoidance. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, student not where they need to be, and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. P.F. was assigned two (2) after-school detentions on January 23 and 25, 2024.

On January 23, 2024, Ms. McGirl reported that P.F. had arrived to her class late and was considered absent. She was assigned an after-school detention on January 3, 2024. On January 24, 2024, at 2:25 p.m., Ms. Maloney reported that P.F. refused to hand over her Chromebook when asked and was working on a project instead of listening to a presentation. This behavior was categorized as a failure to comply. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. She was assigned an after-school detention on February 1, 2024.

On January 25, 2024, at 9:06 a.m., Ms. Gatti reported that P.F. openly defied instructions and did not report to her scheduled class. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On January 25, 2024, at 9:52 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was caught copying another student's science packet for the third time. This behavior was categorized as cheating/academic integrity. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers and each other. P.F. was assigned a lunch detention on January 26, 2024.

On January 30, 2024, at 11:26 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. asked to go to the office in the middle of class, did not accept the answer to wait until the end, and walked out of class. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, technology misuse/electronics, student not where they need to be, disruptive, and disrespectful. The recommended action was for P.F. to take a few minutes to reset before returning to class. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. P.F. conferenced with the principal.

On February 7, 2024, at 3:20 p.m., Ms. Volpe reported that P.F. was observed pushing and shoving another student during dismissal, creating a potential safety hazard. This behavior was categorized as disruptive. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways. P.F. conferenced with the principal.

On February 9, 2024, at 10:36 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. left for the bathroom at 10:13 a.m. and did not return, missing an entire lab session. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect for teachers and self. P.F. was assigned lunch detention on February 9, 2024.

On February 22, 2024, at 8:25 a.m., Ms. Maloney reported that P.F. was found in the World Language hallway going through another student's locker without a pass and without communicating her reason for being there. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways.

On February 22, 2024, at 9:35 a.m., Mr. Wright reported that P.F. was in another student's locker in the 7th grade wing while she should have been in her first period class in the 8th grade wing. This behavior was categorized as cutting class. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect for each other. (This may be two write-ups for the same situation since the student has gym first period—Mr. Wright wrote her up for the cut since she was supposed to be with him, and Ms. Maloney witnessed it and wrote it up because she was in someone else's locker.)

On February 23, 2024, at 8:24 a.m., Ms. Valinoti and Ms. Brody reported that P.F. left homeroom to talk to a friend and then went to Ms. Jordan's room despite being told to return to homeroom. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. P.F. was assigned in-school suspension on February 23, 2024.

On February 29, 2024, at 8:25 a.m., Mr. Updegrove reported that P.F. was walking down the hallway eating from a bag of goldfish crackers and responded disrespectfully when asked why she was eating in the hallway. This behavior was categorized as disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect to teachers. P.F. was assigned a lunch detention on March 1, 2024.

On March 1, 2024, a student reported property missing. Camera footage verifies that P.F. went into the student's belongings and stole items. Additionally, P.F. was wandering hallways prior to this incident. P.F. was suspended from March 4 to March 6, 2024, spanning three days, due to theft and cutting class.

On or about March 7, 2024, a re-entry meeting was held with Mr. Derflinger, vice principal; Ms. Volpe, 8th-grade team leader; Ms. Nelson, counselor (attending virtually); and Mr. Harris, school psychologist. During this meeting, respondent offered a variety of strategies, including, among other things, regular check-ins with P.F.'s counselor, Ms. Nelson, counseling sessions with Ms. Ryan, MSW, LCSW, EdS, LMFT, who is the district's Mental Health & Well-Being Social Worker, and access to the school's behaviorist to determine methods that could help P.F. be more successful. When respondent asked the parent for her thoughts on the plan and whether she had any other suggestions, she abruptly stated that she would be homeschooling P.F. for the remainder of the school year. She was given the necessary paperwork and signed her child out of school. The parent completed the appropriate paperwork and disenrolled P.F. from the district shortly thereafter.

P.F. is ineligible to participate in the 8th grade prom and graduation, as she was disenrolled from the district several months ago. Unfortunately, based on the course of conduct set forth above and the likelihood that her presence at these events would be disruptive, it is unlikely that P.F. would have been allowed the privilege of attending the 8th grade dance and graduation even if she were still enrolled in the district. (Policy & Regulation 5541.)

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The regulations governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education . . . [,] the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

At a hearing for emergent relief, petitioner must show that they satisfy the following four standards:

> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
>
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
>
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
>
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) (citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)).]

The petitioner must prove each of these standards by clear and convincing evidence. Garden State Equality v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013). Arguably, the standard is a high threshold to meet, and I will address each prong separately.

1. Irreparable harm

As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in Crowe, "[o]ne principle is that a preliminary injunction should not issue except when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden Horse R.R. Co., 29 N.J. Eq. 299, 303 (E. & A. 1878)). Indeed, the purpose of emergent relief is to "prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case." Ibid. (quoting Thompson ex rel. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders v. Paterson, 9 N.J. Eq. 624, 625 (Sup. Ct. 1854).)

"Irreparable harm is shown when money damages cannot adequately compensate plaintiff's injuries." Hornstine v. Twp. of Moorestown, 263 F. Supp. 2d 887, 911 (D.N.J. 2003) (citing Sampson v. Murray, 415 U.S. 61, 90 (1974)). "More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated." Cont'l Grp., Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (3d Cir. 1980). "The requisite for injunctive relief has been characterized as a 'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury' . . . or a 'presently existing actual threat; [an injunction] may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by the common law.'" Ibid. (citations omitted).

Here, with respect to the first prong, despite the fact that K.F.M. testified that they "don't care about the dance," P.F. will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted. If she does not attend either event, that opportunity will be lost forever.

Petitioner sustains her burden to show by clear and convincing evidence that P.F. will suffer irreparable harm. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has shown irreparable harm.

2. Settled Legal Right

However, as explained to the petitioner, there is a difference between emergent and important. I understand that the requests here are important; however, they are not emergent. Emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–05). While it is understood that P.F. will receive her diploma, the legal right underlying petitioner's claim is well settled. That is, case law establishes that attendance at a graduation ceremony is a privilege and not a right. See I.K. v. West Windsor-Plainsboro School District, 97 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 639; M.P. v. Hackettstown Board of Education, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDS) 210. Therefore, because she has no legal right to attend the ceremony, she cannot satisfy that prong of the test. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not shown a legal right underlying this claim.

3. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

Petitioner has not demonstrated that she is likely to succeed on the merits of the underlying claim. Under this emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115–16 (E. & A. 1930)).

This typically "'involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case' based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182–83 (App. Div. 2012) (quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App. Div. 2006)).

Because I have found that petitioner has not shown a legal right underlying this claim, it logically follows that there is not a likelihood of success on the merits. The number of incidents allegedly perpetrated by P.F. that warranted discipline was exorbitant. Petitioner's claim is that there is a "cultural difference." Petitioner has not provided any clear and convincing evidence or legal authority showing that they have a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits, and I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not shown a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits.

4. Balancing the Equities

The fourth and final emergent relief standard involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J. Eq. 506, 515 (Ch. 1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J. Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)).

The only evidence presented here regarding relative hardship to the parties pertains to the fact that P.F. will not walk at graduation nor attend her dance. However, that was dealt with in the above analysis.

I CONCLUDE that the Board will suffer greater harm should emergent relief be granted than the student if the requested relief is not granted.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that petitioner failed to meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the petitioner's application for emergent relief be and hereby is DENIED. From representations made by counsel for the parties during prehearing conferences, I understand that there are no other issues to be decided on the underlying petition, and accordingly, the petition is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

June 4, 2024
DATE

DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

DJB/onl

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner

K.F.M.

For respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

Request for emergent relief dated May 24, 2024

For respondent

Opposition dated May 31, 2024

222-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Sherry Marcus,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Upper Deerfield, Cumberland County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner – formerly a non-tenured instructional aide in the respondent Board's school district – filed an appeal with the Commissioner that was dated August 23, 2022, though not received until September 1, 2022, challenging the non-renewal of her employment for the 2022-2023 school year. Petitioner had been employed by the Board as a non-tenured instructional aide under annual contracts for a number of years. The Board filed a motion for summary decision, which was opposed by the petitioner.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner was employed by the district as a part-time instructional aide for the 2021–2022 school year, and had been employed for a number of years prior; her position was non-certificated and nontenured, and was a yearly position which required annual renewal; on April 20, 2022, the district superintendent issued a Rice notice to petitioner, providing formal notification that the Board was considering the possibility of non-renewal of her contract; subsequently, a letter dated May 10, 2022, was sent to petitioner, advising that her employment contract would not be renewed for the 2022-2023 school year; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), the filing of an appeal to the Commissioner must be done within ninety days from the date of the nonrenewal notice, and nothing tolls the ninety-day time limit; here, petitioner's appeal was due no later than August 12, 2022, but was not filed with the Office of Controversies and Disputes until September 1, 2022; the petition was therefore late filed; and petitioner's argument that the 90-day rule should be relaxed based upon her belief that the nonrenewal notice was "void" is without merit. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to the Board, and dismissed the petition.

Upon comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner, inter alia, adopted the ALJ's factual findings and conclusion that the petition was untimely filed. Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision was granted, and the petition of appeal was dismissed as untimely.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

222-24
OAL Dkt. No. 09462-22
Agency Dkt. No. 226-9/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Sherry Marcus,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Upper Deerfield, Cumberland County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and respondent Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

The threshold procedural issue in this case is whether the petition should be dismissed pursuant to the 90-day rule, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Kaprow v. Bd. of Educ. of Berkeley Twp., 131 N.J. 572, 582 (1993). Petitioner was previously employed as a nontenured part-time instructional aide with respondent's district. Respondent sent petitioner a letter dated May 10, 2022, advising her that her employment contract would not be renewed for the 2022-2023 school year. On May 14, 2022, petitioner requested a written statement of reasons for the nonrenewal of her contract. On June 10, 2022, the Board Superintendent provided petitioner with a written statement of reasons. Petitioner appealed the nonrenewal decision to the Commissioner of Education. According to an acknowledgment notice in the case file, her petition – dated August 23, 2022 – was received by the Office of Controversies and Disputes on September 1, 2022.

After the matter was transmitted to the OAL, respondent filed a motion for summary decision. Petitioner filed opposition. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) requested supplemental briefs regarding whether the petition was filed in compliance with the 90-day rule, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Following review of all written submissions and oral argument, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision upon concluding that the petition was untimely filed. The ALJ reasoned that because petitioner received the May 10, 2022, nonrenewal letter sometime between May 10 and May 14, 2022, the petition should have been filed no later than August 12, 2022 (ninety days from May 14, 2022). Additionally, the ALJ considered and rejected petitioner's argument that the 90-day rule should be relaxed based upon her belief that the nonrenewal notice was "void" because: (1) the Board violated the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 to -21, on April 26, 2022, when it prevented her from discussing her employment status during the public portion of the board meeting despite her prior written request regarding same; and (2) the Board violated Rice v. Union County Regional High School Board of Education, 155 N.J. Super. 64, 73 (App. Div. 1977), as it never provided her with a Rice notice for the special board meeting held on May 9, 2022, at which, she contends, the Board must have taken action regarding her employment.

In her exceptions, petitioner does not challenge the ALJ's factual findings. Rather, she disputes the ALJ's legal conclusions and reiterates arguments that were previously considered and rejected. She contends that the 90-day rule should be relaxed because of the Board's violation of OPMA and its failure to provide her with a Rice notice for the May 9, 2022, special board meeting. In response, the Board maintains that the 90-day rule should not be relaxed under the circumstances as the ALJ correctly concluded that petitioner's contentions regarding the Board's violations of OPMA and Rice notice requirements are unsupported by law.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the ALJ's factual findings and conclusion that the petition was untimely filed. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) mandates that petitions shall be filed "no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final . . . action by the district board of education." The 90-day limitation period "represents a fair and reasonably necessary requirement for the proper and efficient resolution of disputes under the school laws." Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 582. It "provides a measure of repose" and "gives school districts the security of knowing that administrative decisions regarding the operation of the school cannot be challenged after ninety days." Ibid.

Here, the ALJ correctly concluded that the 90-day limitation period began when petitioner received the May 10, 2022, nonrenewal letter. Salazar-Linden v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Holmdel, Monmouth Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 99-08 (March 3, 2008), at 5-6, aff'd, 2009 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2713 * (App. Div. Oct. 28, 2009). It is undisputed that petitioner received the May 10, 2022, nonrenewal letter by May 14, 2022. Therefore, she had a meaningful opportunity to file her petition by August 12, 2022. The mandatory filing deadline is not subject to change based upon a petitioner's legal strategy, as that would defeat the measure of repose to which school districts are entitled. See Nissman v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Long Beach Island, Ocean Cnty., 272 N.J. Super. 373, 382 (App. Div. 1994) (affirming State Board decision to dismiss petition as time barred and explaining that while petitioner may have opted not to file a petition sooner for tactical reasons, the Board "was entitled to know within 90 days of its action whether its [decision] was going to be challenged"). Consequently, petitioner's belief that the May 10, 2022, nonrenewal letter was void based upon the Board's violation of OPMA and Rice notice requirements—even assuming these contentions had merit—does not constitute "unusual and compelling circumstances" warranting relaxation of the mandatory 90-day filing deadline.[1] Id. at 591. Moreover, petitioner has not demonstrated that this matter implicates a novel constitutional issue or a compelling public interest.

Accordingly, respondent's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed as untimely.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 12, 2024

[1] To the extent that the ALJ rendered conclusions regarding the merits of petitioner's contentions that the Board violated OPMA or Rice notice requirements, the Commissioner declines to adopt those conclusions because it is unnecessary to do so in light of the petition's procedural defect.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09462-22

AGENCY REF NO. 226-9/22

SHERRY MARCUS,

Petitioner,

v.

TOWNSHIP OF UPPER DEERFIELD SCHOOL DISTRICT,

Respondent.

Kevin McCann, Esq., for petitioner (Chance & McCann, LLC, attorneys)

Amy Houck-Elco, Esq., for respondent; Carl Taylor, Esq., on the briefs (Cooper Levenson, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 10, 2024 Decided: April 29, 2024

BEFORE ELAINE B. FRICK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Respondent, Township of Upper Deerfield School District (the District), did not renew petitioner's annual contract as a nontenured part-time aide for the 2022–2023 school year. Petitioner appealed the District's action. The District filed a motion for summary decision, asserting that as a matter of law, summary decision shall be entered affirming the District's nonrenewal of petitioner's contract. Petitioner contends the motion should be denied as there are genuine issues of material facts regarding the District's actions in its nonrenewal of her contract.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The District's superintendent issued a letter on May 10, 2022, to petitioner, advising her that her contract would not be renewed. Petitioner submitted her appeal request to the Commissioner of the Department of Education (DOE) on August 23, 2022. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on October 19, 2022, where it was filed to be heard as a contested matter. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 14B-15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 14F-13.

Telephonic conferences were conducted with counsel for the parties. Respondent requested to submit a summary decision motion and a briefing schedule was set. The parties submitted their motion filings and briefs. Oral argument on the motion was scheduled for November 29, 2023. On that date, before oral argument was to be heard, the undersigned ALJ sua sponte raised the procedural issue regarding the ninety-day appeal filing requirement of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). The parties agreed to adjourn the oral argument and submit supplemental briefs on the ninety-day appeal issue. Oral argument was rescheduled.

Respondent submitted its supplemental letter brief. Petitioner's supplemental brief was not submitted as scheduled. Prior to the next scheduled oral argument date, respondent's then counsel of record left the law firm, and counsel assigned to take over the file requested to adjourn the oral argument, to which petitioner's counsel consented. The attorneys requested a telephonic conference to reset the motion scheduling. During the telephonic conference, petitioner's request for a new date for the submission of their supplemental brief, with consent of respondent, was granted. The parties further confirmed a mutually agreeable date for oral argument, which was scheduled. Petitioner's supplemental submission on the motion was filed thereafter. Oral argument was heard via Zoom audio/video technology on April 10, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The following facts were confirmed as uncontested by the parties, or otherwise deemed to be factual from the written submissions and argument of counsel. I thus FIND as FACTS:

Sherry Marcus was an employee of the District as a part-time instructional aide for the 2021–2022 school year. The position was non-certificated and nontenured. It is an annual position, requiring annual renewal.

Marcus was first hired as a part-time instructional aide by the District for the 2008–2009 school year. She asked on an annual basis to renew her contract. Her contract was not renewed after the end of the 2010 school year. She was hired again as a part-time instructional aide in November 2011, and was so employed through the end of the 2021–2022 school year.

The superintendent of the District, Dr. Peter Koza, issued a letter to Marcus on April 20, 2022, which the parties confirm is commonly known as a Rice notice, which is referencing the case Rice v. Union Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Bd. of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64, 73 (App. Div. 1977) (pursuant to the rights afforded under the Open Public Meetings Act, reasonable advance notice is to be provided to an employee of an upcoming public meeting if their rights might be adversely affected at the meeting, and the employee is provided the opportunity to request a public discussion).

The Rice notice stated:

> This letter is to notify you that there will be a discussion regarding your employment in the Upper Deerfield Township school District. If it is determined that a non-renewal is necessary in the best interest of the district, you will be notified of such decision. Therefore, accept this communication as formal notification that there will be a discussion regarding your employment status in our district. Notification will be provided to you with respect to the outcome of the discussion.

> You have the right to request that the Board conduct any discussions that may affect your employment in open session at the next Board meeting on Tuesday, April 26, 2022 at 7:00 PM in the Woodruff School Library. Please notify Mrs. Lisa D'Imperio at the Woodruff School or Dr. Frank Badessa at the Board Office by noon on Monday, April 25, 2022 if you plan on attending the meeting and having this discussion in the public forum.
>
> (Koza letter, April 20, 2022, attached to the District's Statement of Material Facts, Exhibit C.)

Marcus sent an email to the school representative on April 20, 2022, indicating that she would be attending the board meeting and would like any discussions pertaining to her employment to be done in open session. (Marcus email, April 20, 2022, attached to Petitioner's Response to Respondent's Statement of Material Facts and Counter Statement of Material Facts, Exhibit B.)

Marcus attended the Board of Education (BOE) meeting on April 26, 2022. She contends she was prevented from discussing her employment status at the meeting as she had requested, which she asserts is a violation of the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b)(8). She claims that when a BOE member asked about the nonrenewal, the meeting was moved to a closed session.

The BOE meeting minutes of April 26, 2022, were attached as Exhibit C to Petitioner's Response to Respondent's Statement of Material Facts and Counter Statement of Material Facts. The minutes confirm that motions were approved to table the issuance of notices of continuation of employment for the 2022–2023 school year to multiple staff members, such as nontenured professional staff, noninstructional staff, secretaries, computer technicians, crossing guards, etc. (BOE meeting minutes of April 26, 2022, at 1–6.) Marcus' name was not on the agenda.

Under the heading "Public Participation" of the meeting minutes, the following appears:

> Sherry Marcus questioned Dr. Koza and the Board as to why she was not being renewed for the 2022-2023 school year? Barb Ostberg also question [sic] them as well? Dr. Koza stated they are not meeting the performance standards of the Board.
>
> (BOE Minutes of April 26, 2022, at 9, punctuation original.)

Petitioner contends that there was no discussion at the meeting about her nonrenewal. She claims that Superintendent Koza did not make a statement about her performance, as the meeting minutes indicate.

A BOE special meeting was held on May 9, 2022. Marcus did not receive a Rice notice regarding the meeting.

The day after that BOE meeting, Superintendent Koza issued a letter on May 10, 2022, which stated:

> Please be advised that at the May 9, 2022 Special Meeting of the Upper Deerfield Township Board of Education, your name was not included among those individuals for renewal. Prior to the April 26, 2022 Board of Education meeting you were notified in a meeting and via a letter that it was possible your position would be non-renewal [sic]. At this time I am formally notifying you that you will not be renewed for the 2022-2023 school year.
>
> (Superintendent Koza letter, May 10, 2022, to Marcus regarding nonrenewal, attached as Exhibit D to District's initial motion submission.)

Marcus issued an email to Superintendent Koza on May 14, 2022, requesting a written statement of reason for the nonrenewal of her contract for the 2022–2023 school year. (Marcus letter May 14, 2022, attached as Exhibit E to petitioner's response to statement of facts.) A few weeks thereafter, Marcus' attorney, Kevin P. McCann, issued a letter on May 31, 2022, to Superintendent Koza, indicating "Sherry Marcus accepts you[r] offer for reemployment for the 2022-2023 school year." (Kevin P. McCann, Esq., letter May 31, 2022, attached as Exhibit E to the District's initial motion submission.) The letter outlined that Marcus had received the Rice notice for the April 26, 2022, BOE meeting, that her request to discuss the matter in open session had been "improperly denied" and tabled, and that the BOE had gone into executive session. McCann's letter further indicated that Marcus did not receive Rice notice for the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting, at which time "action of employment was taken" and Superintendent Koza issued his May 10, 2022, letter to Marcus. McCann further indicated that due to the superintendent's failure to comply with Rice requirements and failure to comply with the statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4, et seq, the superintendent's action in issuing the May 10, 2022, letter was invalid. McCann requested that the superintendent forward a reemployment contract for Marcus for the 2022–2023 school year. (McCann letter, May 31, 2022.)

Superintendent Koza issued a letter response on June 10, 2022, to Marcus' email request of May 14, 2022, for a statement of written reasons for nonrenewal of her contract. The superintendent's letter indicated:

> I did not recommend your renewal, as I believe you are not the right fit in your position at the district. Among other reasons, as an educator, your responsibility is to adhere to policies and procedures, protect student interest, and work to educate students in a healthy environment. In general you failed to demonstrate skills and performance sufficient to warrant a recommendation that you be renewed.
>
> The items listed above resulted in the decision to non-renew your employment contract.
>
> You have ten days from the date of this letter to notify me in writing whether you are requesting an informal hearing before the Board to permit you to convince the Board to offer you reemployment. Be advised that should you request an informal hearing it will be scheduled within thirty (30) days.
>
> (Superintendent's letter, June 10, 2022, attached as Exhibit F to the District's initial motion submission.])

The "informal hearing before the Board" is commonly referred to as a Donaldson hearing, referring to the case Donaldson v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of North Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974) (an informal hearing before a BOE shall be conducted, if timely requested, for a nontenured teaching professional to present information to convince the BOE to offer reemployment rather than nonrenewal of their contract). Such a hearing must be requested by the individual within ten days of the issuance of a statement of reasons by the chief school administrator as to why a nontenured teaching staff member's contract was not renewed.

On the same date when the superintendent issued his letter of reasons for nonrenewal to Marcus, counsel for the District issued a letter to Marcus' attorney, McCann, in response to McCann's letter of May 31, 2022, wherein McCann indicated Marcus was accepting the superintendent's offer of reemployment for the 2022–2023 school year. (The District's counsel's letter, June 10, 2022, attached at Exhibit G of the District's initial motion submission.) Counsel for the District stated in their letter that Marcus "does not have a contract for employment for the 2022-2023 school year. Your client was non-renewed by the Superintendent." (District's counsel's letter, June 10, 2022.) Further, counsel for the District indicated that under the law, Marcus was not required to receive Rice notice for the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting because Marcus' name was not on the agenda. There was no action to be taken. The letter further indicated that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10, the superintendent exercised his statutory authority to provide a nontenured teacher with notification of nonrenewal, which authority does not require BOE approval. (District's counsel's letter, June 10, 2022.)

The District's counsel noted that upon receipt of a nonrenewal notice, a nontenured teacher may request a statement of reasons within fifteen days of the notice, which Marcus had done. The written reasons response from the superintendent must be issued within thirty days of receipt of the request for reasons. The District confirmed that the superintendent's letter of reasons of June 10, 2022, was within thirty days of Marcus' request email of May 14, 2022. (District's counsel's letter, June 10, 2022.)

Marcus' attorney issued a letter to Superintendent Koza thereafter on June 13, 2022. The letter stated:

> It seems to me that you are way out of time to schedule a Donaldson hearing. We will be filing a Petition with > Commissioner. The letter that you are addressing to my client was supposed to be done before May 15, 2022, not June 10, 2022, when it was received. Thank you[,] we will copy you with position to commissioner.

>
> (McCann's letter of June 13, 2022, attached at Exhibit I to petitioner's response to statement of facts.)

Marcus did not request a Donaldson hearing. Marcus submitted a petition for reinstatement/renewal of her position of employment to the Commissioner of the DOE on August 23, 2022.

The District asserts that this matter is ripe for summary decision. Petitioner was timely notified of nonrenewal prior to May 15. When she asked for a statement of reasons for nonrenewal, the superintendent properly complied by issuing his June 10, 2022, letter within a thirty-day timeframe from petitioner's request for the reasons. Petitioner could have sought a Donaldson hearing but did not do so. Instead, petitioner chose to submit a petition to the DOE. Her petition was untimely, as it was submitted more than ninety days from the date of her receipt of the nonrenewal letter of May 10, 2022.

Even if the petition were considered timely filed, the District contends there is no basis for petitioner to claim that a Rice notice violation occurred and invalidated the issuance of the nonrenewal letter. The District asserts that it went beyond what is statutorily required by the superintendent having issued the Rice notice regarding the April 26, 2022, BOE meeting. The BOE tabled the issue of renewals of employment contracts. The District acknowledges there was no discussion in the open session by the BOE about nonrenewal of petitioner's contract. It argues that there is no statutory right for a nontenured employee to be heard by the BOE, or to have their employment status discussed at a BOE meeting, prior to the issuance of a nonrenewal notice by the superintendent. The statute empowers the superintendent to issue the nonrenewal notice prior to May 15. There is no requirement that the superintendent must gain the "approval" of the BOE before the superintendent issues their determination.

The District indicates that there was no obligation to issue a Rice notice for the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting. Marcus' name did not appear on the agenda, so there would be no discussion regarding her nonrenewal. Again, the authority rests with the superintendent to issue a nonrenewal letter by May 15, and the superintendent is not required to obtain approval from the BOE before issuing a nonrenewal letter. The superintendent's letter of May 10, 2022, satisfied the statutory requirement to notify petitioner by May 15, 2022. Petitioner timely requested reasons for her nonrenewal, which were timely furnished by the superintendent in his June 10, 2022, letter. The asserted reasons were sufficient, as there is no statutory nor case law requirement that a detailed listing or explanation of reasons is required.

Petitioner had the opportunity thereafter to request a Donaldson hearing, or to have an informal hearing before the BOE to convince them of reasons why she should be renewed. She never requested a Donaldson hearing. The District asserts she cannot now claim that there was a violation of her Rice rights or that she did not have the opportunity to appear before the BOE. Under such circumstances, the District contends that summary decision should be entered, since there is no factual dispute regarding the District's compliance with the notification requirements for the nonrenewal of a nontenured employee's contract. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.2.

Petitioner asserts that summary decision should be denied. She contends that the BOE improperly tabled the issue of her employment status. Her recollection of the April 26, 2022, BOE meeting differs from the meeting minutes, where it is noted that the superintendent commented about her performance. She contends this is a genuine issue of material fact in dispute, as she asserts there was no discussion and that her OPMA rights were violated by the BOE opting not to discuss her employment. Moreover, she was never provided Rice notice of the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting, at which time the list of staff members to be renewed was ratified. Petitioner acknowledges that her name was not on the agenda. However, she argues that does not circumvent the Rice notice requirement since the exclusion of her name from the list of staff who were to be renewed meant that she was an employee whose contract was not going to be renewed. This is a violation of Rice notice requirements, and a violation of her right to request to have her employment discussed in open session.

Petitioner further contends that the May 10, 2022, letter of nonrenewal by Superintendent Koza was improper, having been issued the day after the BOE meeting. This demonstrates that there had to have been some discussion about her nonrenewal by the BOE members, which petitioner asserts may have happened in executive session at the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting.

Marcus contends there are deficiencies in the superintendent's letter of reasons for nonrenewal. The June 10, 2022, deficiencies letter was sparse and incomplete, without details or context as to what skills or performance petitioner failed to demonstrate. The reasons provided further do not align with her annual evaluation report. (Evaluation report dated June 14, 2022, for 2021–2022 school year.) She received all satisfactory ratings for effectiveness and attitude. Comments for Marcus indicated that she provides instructional support in the academic setting, fulfills her responsibilities as a Basic Skills Intervention aide, assists the teachers, and has provided coverage for the teachers. This discrepancy demonstrates that there is a dispute as to whether the superintendent properly satisfied his requirement to provide a statement of reasons for nonrenewal, and thus summary decision must be denied.

Petitioner thus contends that there are genuine issues of material fact in dispute to warrant denial of the District's summary decision request.

Petitioner asserts that the issue of filing her petition in ninety days, since the May 10, 2022, letter of nonrenewal is void on its face due to her OPMA rights having been violated, should be dismissed. Her right to be heard at the April 26, 2022, BOE meeting was denied, and she thereafter never received notice of the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting. Recognizing that the letter of nonrenewal would be void on its face, her attorney transmitted a letter of acceptance of continuing her contract of employment. Petitioner asserts that letter was not responded to by the District, so the ninety-day limitation for filing has yet to be tolled.

Petitioner acknowledges that she received the June 10, 2022, letter of reasons for nonrenewal. Since that could be considered a response to her counsel's May 31, 2022, letter of acceptance of a position of employment, the ninety-day clock would run from petitioner's receipt of the June 10, 2022, letter. If that date is applied, then the petition submitted to the Commissioner on August 23, 2022, was within the ninety-day time limit.

Petitioner further asserts that the New Jersey Administrative Code provides for a relaxation of the rules in such circumstances, to consider the June 10, 2022, letter as the date from which the ninety days should toll. Petitioner asserts that N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16 gives the Commissioner of the DOE authority to relax or dispense with the rules in determining controversies and disputes under the school laws, in situations where strict adherence may be inappropriate, unnecessary, or result in injustice. The ninety days should be relaxed here since petitioner was denied her OPMA rights on April 26, 2022, she never received Rice notification for the May 9, 2022, meeting, and her belief that the May 10, 2022, letter of nonrenewal was void on its face was reasonable. Thus, petitioner's appeal should not be dismissed for having been filed more than ninety days after the "voided" May 10, 2022, letter of nonrenewal and within ninety days of the June 10, 2022, letter of reasons for nonrenewal.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

In an administrative law matter, a "party may move for summary decision upon all or any of the substantive issues in a contested case." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). The motion "shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). The judge may grant the motion "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." Ibid. The non-moving party will prevail if they "set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid.

The law surrounding the nonrenewal of nontenured teachers is established by both statute and case law. The pertinent statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10, provides that "[o]n or before May 15 in each year, each nontenured teaching staff member continuously employed by a board of education since the preceding September 30 shall receive either (a) A written offer of a contract for employment . . ., or (b) A written notice from the chief school administrator that such employment will not be offered." Ibid. The primary purpose of the statute is to provide nontenured teaching staff with timely notice when their contract is not being renewed so that they can look for other employment. See Wachstein v. Burlington Cnty. Bd. of Educ., 1976 S.L.D. 928, 931.

The chief school administrator, here the superintendent, is required to issue the nonrenewal letter to a nontenured teaching staff member before May 15, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10. A nontenured teacher who is not recommended for renewal by the chief school administrator is deemed nonrenewed. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b). Prior to notifying the employee of their nonrenewal, the superintendent shall notify the BOE of the recommendation not to renew the contract and the reasons for the recommendation. Ibid. An employee whose contract is not renewed shall have the right to receive a written statement of reasons for nonrenewal and thereafter request a Donaldson hearing. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b).

The employee's request for a written statement of reasons for nonrenewal must be made by the employee within fifteen days of their receipt of the nonrenewal letter. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.2. The response shall be given to the teaching staff member "in writing within 30 days after the receipt of such request." N.J.S.A. 18A:27-3.2.

The employee has the right to a Donaldson hearing, which is an informal appearance before the BOE, to permit the employee "to convince the members of the board to offer reemployment." N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b); see N.J.A.C. 6A:10-9.1(c). The Donaldson hearing must be requested within ten days of the employee's receipt of the written reasons for nonrenewal. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-9.1(a). Once requested, the Donaldson hearing must occur within thirty calendar days thereafter. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-9.1(b).

The BOE is required to notify a nontenured teaching staff member of its final determination regarding nonrenewal only when the teacher has requested and participated in the informal Donaldson hearing. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-9.1(i); Donaldson v. Bd. of Educ. N. Wildwood, 65 N.J. 236 (1974). The BOE is not required to notify the teacher of nonrenewal if the employee never requested the Donaldson hearing. Thus, if a Donaldson hearing is not requested, once the employee has received the notice of nonrenewal from the superintendent, as a matter of law, the employee's contract is deemed nonrenewed.

Although the controlling statute of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 requires affirmative action from the chief school administrator to notify nontenured teaching staff members of nonrenewal, it does not require the BOE to resolve or ratify a nonrenewal at a public meeting in advance of the issuance of the superintendent's nonrenewal letter. Welch v. Bd. of Educ., 159 N.J. Super. 29 (App. Div. 1978). Thus, regardless of whether an employee who received a nonrenewal letter requested a Donaldson hearing or not, the BOE is never required to take formal action to accept or reject the chief school administrator's determination of nonrenewal. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10.

The nonrenewed member may seek an appeal of the determination of nonrenewal by submitting a petition for relief with the Commissioner of the DOE, asserting a controversy has arisen under the school laws. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(a); 6A:3-1.3(d). The petition must be filed "no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). The ninety-day time frame in a dispute of the nonrenewal of a nontenured teaching staff member begins to run from the date the employee receives the notice of nonrenewal.

The New Jersey Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), N.J.S.A. 10:4-1 to 4-21, imposes certain notice and other requirements with which a BOE must comply. Under the OPMA, the public has a right to advance notice of governmental meetings where public business is discussed. N.J.S.A. 10:4-9. The regulation specifies that "[a] public body may exclude the public only from that portion of a meeting at which the public body discusses any . . . matter involving the employment" of a public employee "unless all the individual employees or appointees whose rights could be adversely affected request in writing that the matter or matters be discussed at a public meeting." N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b)(8).

In the matter of Rice v. Union Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Bd. Of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64 (App. Div. 1977), the Appellate Division held that:

> [t]he plain implication of the personnel exception to the New Jersey Open Public Meetings Act is that if all employees whose rights could be adversely affected decide to request a public hearing, they can only exercise that statutory right and request a public hearing if they have reasonable advance notice so as to enable them to (1) make a decision on whether they desire a public discussion and (2) prepare and present an appropriate request in writing.
>
> (Rice, 155 N.J. Super. at 73.)

Thus, "when 'all individual employees . . . whose rights could be adversely affected request in writing that the matter or matters be discussed at a public meeting,' the governing body may not opt to shut its doors." Kean Federation of Teachers v. Morell, 233 N.J. 566, 584–5 (2018) (quoting N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b)(8)). However, "[t]he OPMA does not contain a requirement about the robustness of the discussion that must take place on a topic." Id. at 588.

Where any action taken by a public body at a meeting does not conform with the provisions of OPMA, a potential remedy is the voiding of the action taken by the public body. There is no remedy if the public body "took no action that could be voided." McGovern v. Rutgers, 211 N.J. 94, 112 (2012).

Here, it must be determined whether the District will prevail on its motion for summary decision, seeking to dismiss Marcus' petition for relief as a matter of law. The first contention is whether Marcus adhered to the ninety-day period for the filing of an appeal with the Commissioner. The May 10, 2022, notice of nonrenewal from the superintendent to Marcus is straightforward and plainly notifies Marcus that she will not be renewed for the 2022–2023 school year. There are no conditions, nor ambiguity in the letter for Marcus to dispute.

Marcus does assert that the nonrenewal notice was voided when her Rice rights were violated by the BOE not having an open public discussion regarding her employment at the April 26, 2022, BOE meeting. She further contends the May 10, 2022, nonrenewal letter was voided by the District having failed to provide to her Rice notice for the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting, where she asserts there must have been some discussion by the BOE either at the meeting or sometime prior, regarding her nonrenewal. The District contends that the issuance of the Rice notice for the BOE meeting of April 26, 2022, did not trigger an absolute requirement that Marcus' employment status would be discussed at the meeting. It further contends that it is not statutorily required to provide Rice notice if Marcus' name was not on the agenda. She was not on the agenda for the May 9, 2022, BOE meeting. Only those getting renewed were listed on that agenda. Marcus asserts that the absence of her name on the agenda was a trigger that she would be nonrenewed, and thus possible discussion would be had, and must have occurred, so her Rice notice requirements were violated, and thus the May 10, 2022, nonrenewal notice was voided.

The statute governing the nonrenewal notice requirement, N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10, does not trigger the need for a Rice notice to be issued to the nontenured teaching staff member if they are not going to be renewed. The statute places the authority to issue the renewal or nonrenewal notice in the hands of the chief administrative officer, which is the superintendent here. The statute does not require petitioner to have the opportunity to discuss her nonrenewal status in advance of receipt of the notice. The superintendent is required to advise the BOE in advance of the issuance of the nonrenewal notice to the employee. N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(b). This again does not trigger a Rice notice requirement. There is no requirement that the BOE must formally approve or disapprove of the superintendent's determination in advance of the issuance of the nonrenewal letter. The only requirement for a BOE "discussion" to be had on the issue is where the nonrenewed employee has requested a statement of reasons for nonrenewal in a timely manner, and thereafter timely requests a Donaldson hearing. The Donaldson hearing is not an adversarial proceeding. It is the employee's opportunity to assert their reasons to convince the BOE to consider renewal of the employee's contract. If no action is taken by the BOE to change the nonrenewal, the employee's next form of recourse is to initiate a petition with the Commissioner, which must be done within ninety days from the date of the nonrenewal notice. Nothing tolls the ninety-day time limit.

Marcus' assertion that the nonrenewal notice was voided is not supported by the plain reading of the statutes, regulations, and the case law. The notice was issued in advance of the statutory deadline of May 15. I CONCLUDE the nonrenewal notice dated May 10, 2022, was properly issued, in unambiguous and unconditional form. I CONCLUDE that petitioner received the notice sometime between May 10, 2022, and May 14, 2022, which is the date petitioner requested her statement of reasons for nonrenewal. Considering the latest date of May 14, 2022, and counting ninety days thereafter, Marcus was required to submit a petition to the Commissioner by August 12, 2022. The petition was submitted on August 23, 2022. I thus CONCLUDE that the petition was not timely filed, and this matter shall be DISMISSED.

Consideration has been given to Marcus' contention that there should be a relaxation of the rules, given her belief that the May 10, 2022, letter was voided, and rather that the June 10, 2022, letter of reasons for nonrenewal should be deemed the controlling date to trigger the ninety-day time frame. Marcus further contends that this relaxation should further be considered, given that she notified the District she was accepting reemployment, as per the May 31, 2022, letter from her counsel, since the May 10, 2022, letter would have been voided and the BOE was not in compliance with issuing nonrenewal by May 15. Her reemployment should have thus occurred since the statute requires reemployment for the year if the District failed to issue an intended nonrenewal letter by May 15, 2022.

These arguments rely upon the acceptance that a Rice notice requirement was violated. As addressed above, there is no Rice requirement. Marcus has not raised a genuine issue to require an evidentiary hearing by asserting that the BOE possibly discussed her employment in closed or executive session, in violation of OPMA. The fact that the BOE had issued notice for the April 26, 2022, meeting does not trigger a mandate to have a discussion. Nor is the statute somehow overridden by Rice and OPMA if there was no discussion had where the Rice notice had been issued. There is no "robustness" requirement for discussions to be had under the OPMA, and even if the Board somehow violated the OPMA, the Board took no action on Marcus' employment at the April 26th meeting; thus, there is no Board action that could be voided as a result of any OPMA violation. Just as there was no requirement for Marcus to receive a Rice notice in advance of the April 26, 2022, BOE meeting, there was no requirement for Marcus to receive a Rice notice in advance of the May 9, 2022, meeting.

Marcus promptly acted to request a notice of reasons for nonrenewal, which was issued to her in a timely manner. The purpose of the statement of reasons is to disclose any "correctible deficiencies" in a teacher's performance that may help to aid them in obtaining and maintaining future positions in teaching employment. Donaldson, 65 N.J. at 245. Although a BOE should provide a nonrenewed teacher with the true reasons for its decision, if it fails to do so, there is "no authority to impose a penalty for a board's failure to provide accurate reasons unless it is established that the real reasons for the board's action are in violation of constitutional or legislatively conferred rights." Sheridan v. Bd. of Educ., EDU 08068-03, Initial Decision (October 18, 2004), modified, Commissioner Final Agency Decision (December 1, 2004) https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/. "Absent constitutional constraints or legislation affecting the tenure rights of teachers, local boards of education have an almost complete right to terminate the services of a teacher who has no tenure and is regarded as undesirable by the local board." Dore v. Bd. of Educ., 185 N.J. Super. 447, 456 (App. Div. 1982). The BOE may decline to follow the superintendent's recommendation for renewal, but "may not do so arbitrarily and capriciously." Jackson Twp. Bd. of Educ. v. Jackson Educ. Ass'n ex rel Scelba, 334 N.J. Super. 162, 168 (App. Div. 2000).

Reasons for nonrenewal that are vague do not override a board's broad discretion in deciding whether to retain nontenured teachers. See, Sheridan and Guerriero v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Glen Rock, State Board of Education (February 5, 1986), aff'd, No. A-3316-85T6 (App. Div. 1986). Even when a teacher has received satisfactory evaluations, a board has no obligation to renew a nontenured teacher's employment. See, Bd. of Educ. v. Wyckoff Educ. Ass'n, 168 N.J. Super. 497 (1979).

Marcus' contention that the letter of reasons for nonrenewal was vague and contrary to her annual evaluation does not present a genuine issue of material fact to be determined at an evidentiary hearing. The letter stated she was not a good fit and "failed to demonstrate skills and performance sufficient to warrant a recommendation that [she] be renewed." The letter also alludes to her responsibility as a teacher to "adhere to policies and procedures," but does not provide any more description as to what that means. In Marcus' final evaluation, her performance was graded as satisfactory, but did note recommendations for improvement regarding her attendance and compilation of data to provide to teachers to assist them. As established in Wyckoff and Sheridan, satisfactory evaluations and vague statements of reasons do not override the virtually unlimited discretion that a BOE has in deciding whether or not to renew nontenured teaching staff. Considering this fact in the light most favorable to Marcus that the letter provided a vague explanation is of no consequence because Marcus has not alleged that the statement of reasons was pretextual and that the Board nonrenewed her for an unconstitutional or illegal reason. Thus, Marcus' contention regarding the vagueness of the letter of reasons further does not support her request for a relaxation of the rules to consider her petition to have been timely filed.

Marcus was advised in the letter of reasons that she had the right to request an informal hearing, being a Donaldson hearing, within ten days of receipt of the June 10, 2022, letter of reasons. Marcus did not request a Donaldson hearing, and instead opted to file her petition. She was not mandated to have a Donaldson hearing before opting to file the petition, as the District suggested in its motion submission that Marcus failed to exhaust her administrative remedies. However, she was required to have the petition filed with the Commissioner of the DOE within ninety days of the notice of nonrenewal.

The case law pertaining to adherence to the ninety-day time limit for filing does not provide for a relaxation of the rules for untimely filing. The language of the statute setting the ninety-day time frame to file a petition is mandatory. If a petitioner spends part of that time period attempting to resolve the matter in other ways, it does not provide justification to toll or extend the ninety-day limit. Pacio v Bd. of Educ. of Lakeland Reg'l High Sch. Dist., 1989 S.L.D. 2060. Likewise here, petitioner's assertions that her belief that the nonrenewal letter was void and that she took other efforts to assert her objection under Rice and OPMA violations did not toll the ninety-day time frame or otherwise require a relaxation of the rules.

Taking into consideration Marcus' arguments for relaxation of the rules in the light most favorable to her, there still is no genuine issue of material fact presented to mandate an evidentiary hearing on the matter, nor any compelling reason to relax the rules. Hence,

I CONCLUDE that summary decision should be entered in favor of the District, and the matter shall be DISMISSED.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED and this matter shall be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 29, 2024
DATE

ELAINE B. FRICK, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

EBF/sg/jm

APPENDIX

May 1, 2023, Motion for Summary Decision filed by respondent

June 1, 2023, Opposition to the motion filed by petitioner

June 9, 2023, Reply brief to opposition filed by respondent

November 29, 2023, Supplemental brief on ninety-day-rule issue by respondent

March 11, 2024, Supplemental brief on ninety-day-rule issue by petitioner

223-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11367-23 (EDU 00264-23 On Remand)
Agency Dkt. No. 373-12/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Corey Gallagher,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Byram, Sussex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 12, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11367-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 373-12/22

COREY GALLAGHER,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BYRAM, SUSSEX COUNTY, Respondents.

REMAND OF
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 00264-23

Randi Doner April, Esq. for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, attorneys)

Paul E. Griggs, Esq. for respondent (Cornell, Merlino & Osborne, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 2, 2024 Decided: May 8, 2024

BEFORE JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

The New Jersey Department of Education transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case on October 26, 2023, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On October 6, 2023, The Acting Commissioner of Education remanded the matter for factual findings regarding the dates on which Petitioner Gallagher attended Lenape Valley practices; and the dates for which the Board withheld Petitioner's pay for attending Lenape Valley practices, but which, according to Petitioner he should have been paid because he did not attend Lenape Valley practices on those dates.

The parties have settled this matter and have filed a Stipulation of Settlement and Resolution setting forth the terms of their settlement.

Having reviewed the Stipulation of Settlement and Resolution, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by the signatures of the parties and/or their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that the stipulation of settlement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the stipulation of settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

John P. Scollo

May 8, 2024
DATE

JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: MAY 10, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: MAY 10, 2024
db

Batista, Diana [OAL]

From: Paul Griggs <pgriggs@cmmolaw.com>
Sent: Thursday, May 2, 2024 4:16 PM
To: Batista, Diana [OAL]
Cc: Randi April
Subject: [EXTERNAL] FW: Settlement Agreement on Gallagher v. BOE Byram
Attachments: Corey Gallagher Signed Settlement April 2024.pdf

Hi Diana,
See attached.
Paul

Paul E. Griggs, Esq.
Cornell, Merlino & Osborne, LLC
1136 Route 22, Suite 204
Mountainside, New Jersey 07092
(P) 908.481.5010 | (F) 908.264.2045
pgriggs@cmmolaw.com
www.cmolaw.com

From: Batista, Diana [OAL] <Diana.Batista@oal.nj.gov>
Sent: Thursday, May 2, 2024 3:46 PM
To: Paul Griggs <pgriggs@cmmolaw.com>
Cc: Randi April <RApril@oxfeldcohen.com>
Subject: RE: Settlement Agreement on Gallagher v. BOE Byram Importance: High

Since this matter was remanded by the Agency, the caption on the Settlement Agreement must reflect the new remanded OAL Dkt. No.:

Kindly resend the caption with the correct OAL Dkt. No.

It should read: OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11367-23
Remand of OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00264-23.

Thank you.

CORNELL, MERLINO & OSBORNE, LLC
238 St. Paul Street
Westfield, New Jersey 07090
Office: (908) 481-5000
Fax: (908) 264-2045
Attorneys for Respondent, Township of Byram Board of Education

COREY GALLAGHER,	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Petitioner,
	OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11367-23
v.	REMAND OF OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00264-23
	AGENCY DOCKET NO. 373-12/22
TOWNSHIP OF BYRAM BOARD OF EDUCATION
	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
Respondent.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made on March 4, 2025, by and between the Board of Education of the Township of Byram, Sussex County ("Board") and Corey Gallagher ("Petitioner")

WHEREAS, the Board previously determined that Petitioner's absences on November 21, 2022, November 22, 2022, November 23, 2022, November 28, 2022, November 29, 2022, November 30, 2023, December 1, 2022, December 2, 2022, December 5, 2022, and December 6, 2022, were unexcused and in violation of Board policy, and as a result docked Petitioner's pay 10 days; and

WHEREAS, in response to the Board docking Petitioner's pay for 10 days, Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") on December 20, 2022; and

WHEREAS, on January 9, 2023, the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law and assigned to the Honorable John P. Scollo, A.L.J.; and

WHEREAS, in an Initial Decision Summary Decision dated July 11, 2023, Judge Scollo determined "that Byram BOE was justified in withholding ten days of Gallagher's wages in order to recoup the monies which Gallagher had already received from the Byram BOE" and dismissed the Petition; and

WHEREAS, the Initial Decision was filed with the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.3; and

WHEREAS, in her Final Decision dated October 6, 2023, the Acting Commissioner upheld the Board's action docking Petitioner's pay as not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable however, remanded the matter to the Judge Scollo for "factual findings regarding the dates on which petitioner attended Lenape Valley practice to address exceptions filed by Petitioner indicating "that the district withheld petitioner's salary for two days that he did not attend practice, noting the Board may not withhold pay on days which Petitioner did not appear at practice; and

WHEREAS, the parties have reached an agreement to resolve and settle the matter with the Board returning to Petition two days pay that was previously docked.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. The Board shall refund and pay the Petitioner two days pay previously docked within thirty (30) days from the date that the matter and Judge Scollo's approval of the Settlement Agreement is approved by the Commissioner of Education.
2. The parties have entered into this Settlement Agreement to avoid the expense and inconvenience of another hearing or any other proceeding regarding the docking of Petitioner's salary.
3. In consideration of the settlement of this matter, Petitioner shall release the Board from any and all claims, rights and liability, including but not limited to any and all claims for attorneys' fees, compensatory education, money damages, civil liability, or any other equitable or legal relief through the date of the execution of this Settlement Agreement.
4. This Agreement contains the entire Agreement and understanding between the parties and constitutes a full and final Agreement on any and all issues.
5. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.
6. If, during the term of this Agreement, a specific clause of the Agreement is determined to be illegal or in violation of any Federal or State law, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect.

7. The parties have entered into this Agreement freely and voluntarily with a full understanding of their rights and the contents of this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that they had the opportunity to consult with legal counsel or a representative of their choice and that they reviewed the Agreement in detail with their counsel or representative and fully understand its requirements and limitations.

8. This Agreement may not be altered, amended or modified except by writing, signed and duly authorized by all parties.

9. This Agreement is subject to ratification by the Board.

ON BEHALF OF COREY GALLAGHER:

Corey Gallagher

Date: 3/4/2024

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BYRAM:

Julie Lucente, Board President

Date: 4-17-24

224-24R

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.T., on behalf of minor child, L.B.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Burlington, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that her minor grandchild, L.B., was not entitled to a free public education in the Burlington School District. L.B. had been attending school in Edgewater Park, where she is domiciled with her mother. However, on September 7, 2023, the family sought to enroll L.B. in the Burlington School District based on an application for admission as an affidavit student; in the application, petitioner stated in the "Explanation of Hardship" section that L.B. had been experiencing bullying at her school in Edgewater Park and the family wanted her to attend school in Burlington for her safety. The Board rejected the petitioner's application, determining that "family economic hardship was not demonstrated" as required under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1; the Board subsequently filed a motion for summary decision and sought tuition reimbursement for the period of L.B.'s ineligible attendance in Burlington Schools at a daily rate of $180.16.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a), public school is free to a minor who is domiciled within the school district; New Jersey has consistently held that the domicile of the child follows the domicile of the parent; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2, the Commissioner may assess tuition when a child does not have a right to attend the school district; petitioner bears the burden of proof in a determination of residency ineligibility; here, petitioner failed to appear at the pre-hearing conference scheduled in this matter, and failed to respond to the motion for summary decision. The ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that her grandchild, L.B., was entitled to attend school in Burlington as an "affidavit student" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1; therefore, L.B. was not entitled to a free public education in Burlington schools during the 2023-2024 school year. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to the Board, dismissed the petition, and ordered petitioner to pay the Board tuition at the rate of $180.16/day for each day of L.B.'s ineligible attendance in Burlington schools.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions but noted that the record lacks the detail necessary to calculate the tuition owed to the Board. Accordingly, the matter was remanded to the OAL for further proceedings to develop the record regarding the number of days of L.B.'s ineligible attendance so that the tuition amount owed to the Board may be calculated.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

224-24R
OAL Dkt. No. 12774-23
Agency Dkt. No. 288-10/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.T., on behalf of minor child, L.B.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Burlington, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that her grandchild, L.B., was entitled to attend school in Burlington as an "affidavit student" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that L.B. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the district during that time.

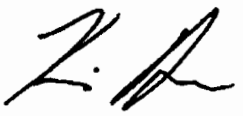
Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which the minor child was ineligible to attend school in the district. Tuition is "computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b. The ALJ found that the tuition rate is $180.16 per day, based on the certification of the district's Superintendent, and the Commissioner concurs with this finding. However, the record lacks information regarding the number of days of ineligible attendance, such that the Commissioner is unable to assess tuition against petitioner at this time.

Accordingly, the respondent's motion for summary decision is granted, and petitioner's residency appeal is hereby dismissed. This matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings to develop the factual record regarding the number of days of L.B.'s ineligible attendance so that the tuition amount owed to the Board may be calculated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]



ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 12, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12774-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 288-10/23

A.T. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD L.B.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BURLINGTON, BURLINGTON COUNTY,
Respondent.

A.T., petitioner, pro se

Alicia D'Anella, Esq., for respondent (Parker McCay, P.A, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 27, 2024 Decided: May 8, 2024

BEFORE JOAN M. BURKE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A.T on behalf of minor child L.B. challenges the residency determination by respondent, the Board of Education of the City of Burlington (Board). Under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a), public schools shall be free to a minor who is domiciled within the school district. The Board filed a motion for summary decision. The Board also seeks reimbursement for the period of ineligibility that L.B. attended school in the district.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On September 28, 2023, the respondent notified petitioner A.T. that L.B. was not entitled to a free education in the City of Burlington Public School District (District) because "family hardship" was not demonstrated. On October 18, 2023, A.T. appealed the District's decision. On November 13, 2023, the respondent filed an answer and a notice of motion for summary decision.

On November 16, 2023, the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the Office of Administrative Law, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing.

On December 5, 2023, I was assigned this case for a hearing. On January 9, 2024, the matter was scheduled for a pre-hearing conference. The petitioner failed to appear. The matter was rescheduled to January 29, 2024. At that time a status conference was held and a motion schedule was set for the response to respondent's motion. The petitioner had until February 29, 2024, to respond, and respondent's reply was due on March 7, 2024. There was no response from the petitioner. On March 27, 2024, an email was sent regarding the responses that were due. Again, no response was received from the petitioner. The record closed on March 27, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the documents submitted in support of the motion for summary decision and the due-process petition, I FIND the following as FACT:

1. Petitioner, A.T., is the grandmother of L.B. and is domiciled in the city of Burlington, New Jersey. (Affidavit Student, Part 1—Sworn Statement of Resident.)

2. John Russell is the superintendent of the City of Burlington Public School District. (Russell Certif. paragraph 1.)

3. On September 7, 2023, L.B.'s family sought to enroll her in the District as an "affidavit student." (Russell Certif. paragraph 2.)

4. A completed affidavit was received from L.B.'s family on September 25, 2023, and was provided to the vice principal, Nick Rancani. (Russell Certif. paragraph 4.)

5. A.M. is the mother of L.B. She lives in Edgewater Park, New Jersey. (See Affidavit of Student, Part 2—Application for Admission.) In A.M.'s affidavit, under the section titled "Explanation of Hardship," she wrote the following: "At her other school she was being bullied by a male student and [L.B.] didn't want to attend back and all family member[s] didn't want her to go back to that school do [sic] to her safety." Ibid.

6. On September 28, 2023, A.T. was notified by Vice Principal Rancani that L.B. was not entitled to a free education in the City of Burlington Public School District because "family economic hardship was not demonstrated." (District Letter.) The District determined that the petitioner's explanation of hardship did not meet the definition under N.J.S.A. 18:A:38-1. (Russell Certif. paragraph 7.)

7. The District's tuition rate for students in L.B.'s age range is $180.16 per day for an annual rate of $19,468. (Russell Certif. paragraph 10.)

8. The petitioner appealed the decision on October 18, 2023. (Pro Se Residency Appeal.)

9. The petitioner failed to respond to the motion for summary decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A party may move for summary decision upon any or all of the substantive issues in a contested case. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and may be served with supporting affidavits. "The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

In this case, no genuine issue of any material fact exists, and the Board is entitled to prevail as a matter of law for the reasons stated below.

Public school shall be free to a minor who is domiciled within the school district, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); New Jersey has consistently held that the domicile of the child follows the domicile of the parent, Shim v. Rutgers, 191 N.J. 374, 399 (2007); and if a student does not have a right to attend the school district, the commissioner of the Department of Education may assess tuition, N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2. Petitioner has the burden of proof in a determination of residency ineligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1.

In this case, L.B. is domiciled in Edgewater, NJ, with her mother, A.M. Because of "bullying" she was experiencing at the school in Edgewater the family sought to enroll L.B. in the District as an "affidavit student." As part of the "Application for Admission," completed by the legal parent, there is an "explanation of hardship" requirement that the parent/guardian must complete.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 provides, in pertinent part:

> Any person who is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and is supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child, upon filing by such other person with the secretary of the board of education of the district, if so required by the board, a sworn statement that he is domiciled within the district and is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school > requirements and that he intends so to keep and support the child gratuitously for a longer time than merely through the school term, and a copy of his lease if a tenant, or a sworn statement by his landlord acknowledging his tenancy if residing as a tenant without a written lease, and upon filing by the child's parent or guardian with the secretary of the board of education a sworn statement that he is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship and that the child is not residing with the resident of the district solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district. The statement shall be accompanied by documentation to support the validity of the sworn statements, information from or about which shall be supplied only to the board and only to the extent that it directly pertains to the support or nonsupport of the child. If in the judgment of the board of education the evidence does not support the validity of the claim by the resident, the board may deny admission to the child.

Here, L.B.'s mother's explanation of hardship was, "[a]t her other school she was being bullied by a male student and [L.B.] didn't want to attend back and all family member[s] didn't want her to go back to that school do [sic] to her safety." See Affidavit of Student, Part 2—Application for Admission. This, the respondent argues, does not fit within the hardship criteria to be accepted as a student in the District. I agree. I CONCLUDE that there was no sworn statement that A.M. is not capable of supporting or providing care for L.B. due to a family or economic hardship pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. I further CONCLUDE that L.B. is residing with the resident of the District solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that A.T. owes the respondent $180.16 per day for the period of ineligibility that L.B. attended the City of Burlington public schools pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the petition is DENIED based upon petitioner's failure to meet her burden of proof that the District acted arbitrarily or capriciously in disputing L.B.'s entitlement to a free education in the City of Burlington Public School District.

It is further ORDERED that the Board of Education of the City of Burlington is entitled to tuition reimbursement from petitioner in an amount based on the per-diem rate of $180.16 for each day L.B. attended while ineligible.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 8, 2024
DATE

JOAN M. BURKE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

Pro Se Residency Appeal

For Respondent:

Respondent's Answer, Motion for Summary Decision, Brief with Certification of John Russell, Superintendent, City of Burlington Public Schools, with supporting documents

225-24

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04724-24
Agency Dkt. No. 318-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.E., on behalf of minor child, J.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Morris Hills Regional School District,
Morris County.

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 7 of the Agreement includes a confidentiality clause. The parties are reminded that the Board must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. in regard to information concerning this matter, notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

The Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 12, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04724-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 318-11/23

K.E. ON BEHALF OF THE MINOR CHILD J.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

MORRIS HILLS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondent.

Laura A. Siclari, Esq., for petitioner (Santomassimo Davis, LLP, attorneys)

Andrew W. Li, Esq., for respondent (Comegno Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: April 30, 2024 Decided: May 3, 2024

BEFORE R. TALI EPSTEIN, ALJ:

On or about November 21, 2023, petitioner K.E. on behalf of minor child J.R. filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education challenging the residency determination by respondent Board of Education of the Morris Hills Regional School District (Morris). The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the caption K.E. on behalf of minor children J.R. and J.C. v. Board of Education of the Township of Denville and Morris Hills Regional School District, Morris County, where it was filed for determination as a contested case under OAL Docket No. EDU 14258-23. On or about December 15, 2023, Morris filed an Answer to the Petition of Appeal and Counter-Petition, which included a request for tuition and transportation costs.

By order dated April 15, 2024, and with the parties' agreement, the undersigned bifurcated the matter so that petitioner's claim regarding the minor child J.R. (and Morris's Counter-Petition) could proceed separately from petitioner's claim regarding the minor child J.C. (and the counterclaim asserted by the Board of Education of the Township of Denville). The bifurcation order directed that the matter against Morris Hills, involving the minor child J.R., proceed under the caption K.E. on behalf of the minor child J.R. v. Morris Hills Regional School District, Morris County, with OAL docket number EDU 04724-24, and the matter against Denville, involving the minor child J.C., proceed under the caption K.E. on behalf of the minor child J.C. v. Board of Education of the Township of Denville, with OAL docket number EDU 14258-23.

During the course of prehearing proceedings and following extensive settlement negotiations, petitioner and Morris advised the tribunal that they had reached a settlement of their dispute. Attached hereto is the executed Settlement Agreement and General Release between petitioner and Morris and the April 29, 2024 Board Certification approving same.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 3, 2024
DATE

R. TALI EPSTEIN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: MAY 10, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: MAY 10, 2024
cc

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

COMEGNO LAW GROUP, P.C.
521 Pleasant Valley Avenue
Moorestown, New Jersey 08057
(856) 234-4114
(856) 234-4262 Fax
Attorneys for the Morris Hills Regional District Board of Education
BY: ANDREW W. LI, ESQUIRE

K.E. o/b/o minor children J.R. and J.C., Petitioners, v. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DENVILLE and BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MORRIS HILLS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY, Respondents.	STATE OF NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DOCKET NO. EDU-04724-24 AGENCY REFERENCE NO.: 318-11/23 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND STIPULATED CONSENT JUDGMENT

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND STIPULATED CONSENT JUDGMENT (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") is entered into by and between K.E., individually and on behalf of their child, J.R. (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Petitioner") and the Morris Hills Regional School District Board of Education (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") to resolve and settle all outstanding student residency claims and related disputed issues as follows:

RECITALS

WHEREAS, a Notice of Final Ineligibility was sent to K.E. advising that J.R. had been determined by the Board to be ineligible to receive a free public education from the Board and was to be removed from enrollment because J.R. is not a resident of the Morris Hills Regional School District (hereinafter referred to as the "School District"); and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal (hereinafter referred to as the "Residency Appeal"), captioned as K.E. on behalf of minor children, J.R. and J.C. v. Board of Education of the Township of Denville and the Board of Education of the Morris Hills Regional School District, Morris County, OAL Docket No. EDU-14258-2023N, Agency Ref. No. 318-11/23, which disputes the ineligibility determination and removal; and

WHEREAS, the Board filed an Answer to the Pro Se Residency Appeal with a Counter-Petition seeking tuition and the costs of transportation associated with J.R.'s attendance in the School District while ineligible (hereinafter referred to as the "Counter-Petition"); and

WHEREAS, as the Residency Appeal and Counter-Petition has proceeded through litigation, the Petitioner and the Board (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties"), through their respective counsel, have engaged in thorough and extensive discussion and negotiations to resolve their disagreement; and

WHEREAS, the Parties, after the opportunity for consultation with and between their respective legal counsel and following said discussion and negotiations, desire to fully, efficiently, and amicably resolve all aspects of their dispute and to memorialize the further relation between the Parties by entering into this Agreement so as to avoid the uncertainty, expenditure of time and resources, and the incurring of costs and expenses associated with further proceedings and/or litigation; and

WHEREAS, neither of the Parties admits or acknowledges, either explicitly or implicitly, any misconduct, wrongdoing, and/or liability, but through and by this Agreement are taking this action solely as a matter of a business judgment and at the recommendation of their respective legal counsel; and

WHEREAS, the Parties, in view of the above recitals and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Parties, enter into this Agreement to outline their agreement, release claims, and express the full and complete terms of same; NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE:

1. Settlement – Tuition and Transportation: The Parties understand and agree that J.R. will continue to be enrolled in the Morris Hills Regional School District, as a tuition-paying student, for the remainder of the 2023-2024 school year. In consideration of and in exchange for J.R.'s continued enrollment, Petitioner agrees and shall pay tuition in the total amount of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) (hereinafter referred to as the "Tuition"). to the Morris Hills Regional School District Board of Education. The total amount of Tuition shall be payable in equal installment payments of two hundred eight dollars and thirty-three cents ($208.33) over a twenty-four (24) month period (hereinafter referred to as the "Tuition Payment Period"). All payments shall be made to the Board by personal or certified check from the Petitioner made payable to the Morris Hills Regional School District Board of Education. The Tuition Payment Period shall begin on the first day of the month following the Commissioner of Education's approval of the Agreement, with each successive Tuition payment to also be made on the first day of the month for the remaining Tuition Payment Period.

a. The Parties agree and understand that the Tuition referred to above reflects a reduction by the Board of the overall tuition and transportation costs owed for J.R.'s enrollment, and that this Agreement is contingent on Petitioner's timely payment of the first installment and each subsequent installment payment during the Tuition Payment Period. As such, in the event that the Board does not receive any Tuition payment in full by the close of business of the date when that payment is due, the Petitioner will be provided with written notice and have the opportunity to "cure" the default within ten (10) calendar days of the date of such notice.
b. The Parties further agree and understand that if the default is not cured within the allotted time period, Petitioner shall owe the Board the full amount of tuition and transportation costs incurred by the Board for J.R. attending its schools since April 25, 2023.
    i. The Parties agree and understand that the Board shall then submit an ex parte certification to the Superior Court of New Jersey with notice to Petitioner, setting forth her failure to pay in accordance with the terms set forth herein, with a consent judgment to be entered by the Court in favor of the Morris Hills Regional School District Board of Education (hereinafter referred to as the "Consent Judgment") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.
    ii. The Consent Judgment shall be for the full amount of tuition and transportation costs incurred by the Morris Hills Regional School District Board of Education since April 25, 2023, the period when the parties agree that Petitioner and J.R. have been domiciled in Springfield, New Jersey, which shall be forty-seven thousand, seven hundred seventy six dollars and ninety cents ($47,776.90), less the amount of any Tuition payments made by Petitioner and received by the Board in accordance with this Agreement.
    iii. Petitioner waives all rights to contest entry of the Consent Judgment.
c. The Parties agree and authorize their respective attorneys to execute the Consent Judgment on their behalf. Petitioner's attorney shall execute and deliver the signed Consent Judgment to the Board's Attorney within ten (10) days of Petitioner executing this Agreement. Petitioner understands and agrees that this is a condition of this Agreement.
d. The original fully executed Consent Judgement shall be maintained with the Board's Attorney and shall not be filed with the Superior Court until and unless required to effectuate the payment of the tuition, and only after Petitioner was provided with notice of her default and provided with time to cure any such default, as specified herein.
e. This Consent Judgment may be signed and dated in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and such counterparts shall together be one and the same Consent Judgment.
f. No delay or omission on the part of the Board in exercising any right under this Agreement will operate as a waiver of that right or of any other right under this Agreement.

2. Transportation: The Parties understand and agree that the Board shall in no way be responsible and shall have no obligation to provide J.R. with transportation as of April 15, 2024, even if the Commissioner of Education has not yet approved the Agreement. The Parties further understand and agree that, effective April 15, 2024, Petitioner is solely responsible for J.R.'s transportation to and from school, including but not limited to school-related activities and events, even if the Commissioner of Education has not yet approved the Agreement.
3. Status as Student: The Parties understand and agree that, as a result of this Agreement, J.R. may continue attending the public schools of the Morris Hills Regional School District through June 30, 2024 and attend graduation. J.R.'s ability to attend graduation and/or to participate in other school-related activities is contingent upon and subject to the Code of Student Conduct, the Student Handbook, and the Board's policies and regulations governing student expectations, conduct and behavior. The Parties understand and agree that J.R.'s continued enrollment in the Morris Hills Regional School District is only due to the Parties entering into and complying with the terms of this Agreement and that it is the intention of the Parties that J.R. will cease to be a student of the School District upon matriculation and/or graduation from Morris Hills Regional School District and/or the end of the 2023-2024 school year, whichever shall come first. The Parties further understand and agree that J.R. shall not be deemed and/or considered a student for whom the Board bears and/or owes any responsibility to provide a free public education, special education, and/or related services, including but not limited to compensatory education/services, occupational and/or physical therapy, speech/language services, counseling, and/or transportation, even if J.R. withdraws and/or does not graduate from the Morris Hills Regional School District by the end of the 2023-2024 school year.
4. Prevailing Parties and Attorney's Fees: Neither Party will be considered to be a "prevailing party" in this matter for any purpose, and each Party shall be responsible, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, for payment of their own attorney's fees, expert costs, and any other costs and/or expenses incurred in connection with this matter and/or with the development of this Agreement.
5. Withdrawal, Waiver and General Release: As and in consideration for this Agreement, Petitioner understands and agrees that the pending Pre Se Residency Appeal shall be deemed as resolved upon approval of this Agreement by the Commissioner of Education. The Parties also understand and agree that the Board shall not be considered or determined to have denied J.R. a free public education, special education, and/or any related services, including but not limited to compensatory education/services, occupational and/or physical therapy, speech/language services, counseling, and/or transportation, nor shall the Board be considered or determined to have discriminated or otherwise acted or failed to act in any wrongful manner towards to Petitioner, either individually or jointly. As such, Petitioner, individually and on behalf of J.R., hereby forever and fully waives and releases the Board from any and all such claims that have accrued as of the date of this Agreement and/or which the Petitioner, either individually or jointly, have, had, and/or may have against the Board related to any federal, state, or local laws, regulations, and/or causes of action arising from and/or related to the claims asserted in the Pro Se Residency Appeal. Petitioner agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Board, its current and former members, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, successors, attorneys, assigns, and affiliates, against and from any and all claims, liabilities, demands, causes of action, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, damages, indemnities, and obligations of every kind and nature, in law, equity, or otherwise, known and unknown, suspected or unsuspected, disclosed or undisclosed, related to such action(s). The Parties further understand and agree that, in the event that the Board is required to defend any such action(s), the Board shall be permitted to hire counsel of its own choice at the sole cost of Petitioner. Nothing set forth in this provision shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties that may arise after the date of this Agreement. Nothing set forth in this provision shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

6. Tax/Lien Liability: The Board makes no representations or warranties regarding the taxability of any portion of the Tuition payments referenced above. The Petitioner agrees to assume full liability for any applicable state, federal, and/or local taxes and/or liens of any sort that may be required by law to be paid with respect to any portion of this Agreement. In the event the Internal Revenue Service, the New Jersey Division of Revenue, and/or any taxing authority and/or party holding lien may assess the Board with any taxes or penalties arising from the Tuition payments, Petitioner agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Board, and Petitioner shall be fully responsible for any such taxes, liens, and/or penalties.
7. Confidentiality and Non-Disparagement: Each of the Petitioners, individually and jointly, including J.R., understands and agrees that this Agreement, including its terms, must remain confidential to the full extent allowed by law as a material term of this Agreement. As such, the Parties further understand and agree that the terms and existence of this Agreement are and shall remain confidential to the extent permitted by law and shall not be disclosed by any of the Petitioners, individually and/or jointly, to any other individual or entity, other than counsel, financial professional and/or services provider, without the written consent of the other Party, unless enforcement of this Agreement is sought by the non-breaching Party in a court of law. None of the Parties shall engage in disparaging and/or negative comments or statements regarding any other Party and/or their conduct, with regard to the claims covered by this Agreement, this Agreement and/or the terms thereof, and/or the settlement process for this Agreement, in any forum or media, including, but not limited to, any and all social media statements or posts of any kind on any platform, website or application such as, but not limited to, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, Twitter, or any other platform(s), website(s) or application(s).
8. Authority to Sign: The Parties understand and agree that that they respectively have the authority and ability to enter into this Agreement, and further understand and agree that this Agreement is binding on the Parties, individually and/or jointly.
9. Board Approval: Petitioners understand and agree that, following the execution of this Agreement by Petitioners, this Agreement is subject to approval by the Board at next regularly scheduled meeting following receipt of a copy of the Agreement signed by Petitioner. If so approved, a fully executed copy of this Agreement and accompanying Board resolution shall be provided to the Court and Petitioner within ten (10) calendar days of such approval.

10. Review of Agreement: The Parties acknowledge that they have read and understand the terms of this Agreement, have had an opportunity to have had the Agreement reviewed by their respective legal counsel (if they so choose), are satisfied with the advice of such counsel, and that they are entering into this Agreement knowingly, freely, voluntarily, without coercion, and not under the influence of anything or anyone.
11. Interpretation of Agreement: This Agreement shall be interpreted, enforced, and governed under the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to that jurisdiction's choice-of-law doctrines. The language of all parts of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the Parties. The Parties understand and agree that that this Agreement is the product of mutual draftsmanship and any rule or law requiring that it be construed against the drafter shall not apply.
12. Entire Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior written or oral and all contemporaneous oral agreements, understandings, and negotiations. This Agreement may only be amended in writing by way of a document signed by all Parties.
13. Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed in one (1) or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered a single and the same and shall become effective when one (1) or more counterparts have been signed by each Party. It is understood and agreed that the Parties need not sign the same counterpart, and this Agreement shall be fully valid, legally binding, and enforceable whether executed in a single document or in such counterparts.

INTENDING TO BE legally bound hereby and IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto hereby execute this Settlement Agreement and General Release as witnessed by their signatures below.

PETITIONERS

K.E.., individually and on behalf of J.R.

Date:

RESPONDENT

Board President
MORRIS HILLS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

Date:

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF THE PUBLIC MEETING OF
THE MORRIS HILLS REGIONAL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION
ROCKAWAY, MORRIS COUNTY, NJ AS RECORD IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTES

The Board of Education of Morris Hills Regional District, in the County of Morris, New Jersey, convened in regular session on Monday, April 29, 2024, at 7:00 p.m. in the Morris Hills Regional District Board of Education, Board Conference Room, 50 Knoll Drive, Rockaway, NJ 07866.

ATTENDANCE ROLL CALL

William Serafin, President	Present
Michael Wieczerzak, Vice President	Present
Michael Bertram	Present
Robert Crocetti, Jr.	Present
Christie D'Asti	Present
Barbara C. Levy	Present
William Maher	Absent
Patrick Napolitano	Present
Theresa Yeager	Present

SECTION

B- Finance

RESOLUTION #

4

MOTION OFFERED BY:

Mr. Crocetti, Chairperson

SECONDED BY:

Mr. Wieczerzak

RESOLUTION ADOPTED: Approval of a settlement agreement regarding residency pertaining to student 20241257 on file in the Business Office.

ADOPTION ROLL CALL

Ayes William Serafin, President, Michael Wieczerzak, Vice President, Michael Bertram, Robert Crocetti, Jr., Christie D'Asti, Barbara C. Levy, Patrick Napolitano, and Theresa Yeager.

Nays N/A Abstain N/A

CERTIFICATE: I, GAIL M. LIBBY, Board Secretary of the Morris Hills Regional District Board of Education, in the County of Morris, State of New Jersey, HEREBY CERTIFY that the preceding annexed extract from the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Education of said district duly called and held on APRIL 29, 2024, has been compared by me with with the original minutes as officially recorded and is an accurate and complete copy thereof and of the whole of said original minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matter referred to in said extract. IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Board of Education on this 29th day of APRIL 2024.

Gail M. Libby
Board Secretary

Robinson, Denishia [OAL]

From: Carty, Cecile [OAL]
Sent: Friday, May 10, 2024 4:22 PM
To: Robinson, Denishia [OAL]
Subject: RE: EDU 4724-24 SETTLEMENT

Hi Denishia,

No pages are missing, the pages are just numbered incorrectly. That is how the original document was received.

Cecile Carty
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Ave, 7th Floor
Newark, NJ 07102
Tel: (973) 681-6295

Judicial Support Specialist to:
R. Tali Epstein, ALJ (973) 648-6015
Joseph Ascione, ALJ (Ret., on call) (973) 681-6269

From: Robinson, Denishia [OAL] <Denishia.Robinson@oal.nj.gov>
Sent: Friday, May 10, 2024 4:08 PM
To: Carty, Cecile [OAL] <Cecile.Carty@oal.nj.gov>
Subject: EDU 4724-24 SETTLEMENT

HI LINDA,

THE SETTLEMENT PAGES MISSING 7 TO 9
CAN YOU E-MAIL THOSE TO ME SO I CAN CLOSE OUT THIS CASE.

THANKS!!

226-24E
OAL Dkt. No. 05711-24
Agency Dkt. No. 61-3/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order On Emergent Relief

Philip Brady,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons stated therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 10, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 12, 2024

BEFORE THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF KEARNEY SCHOOL DISTRICT/ COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of Tenure Charges

between

Kearney School District, Bergen County,

Petitioner,

and

Rossana Allen Markarian, Retired Teacher,

Respondent.

Agency Docket No. 319-11/23

MOTION TO DISMISS

Dr. Andrée Y. McKissick
Arbitrator

APPEARANCES:

For the Petitioner:

Dennis McKeever, Esquire
Cornell, Merlino, McKeever & Osborne, LLC
238 St. Paul Street
Westfield, New Jersey 08879

For the Respondent:

Evan L. Goldman, Esquire
Goldman Davis Krumholz & Dillon, P.C.
Three University Plaza, Suite 400
Hackensack, New Jersey 07601

MOTION TO DISMISS SUBMITTED: March 21, 2024
OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO DISMISS: May 16, 2024
REPLY TO OPPOSITION: May 30, 2024

DECISION:

This Motion to Dismiss is granted. Correspondingly, the tenure charges must be dismissed due to its mootness because of a valid settlement agreement and a subsequent resignation of the Respondent, certified by the School District.

DATE OF DECISION: June 12, 2024

BEFORE THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF KEARNEY SCHOOL DISTRICT/ COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of Tenure Charges

between

Kearney School District, Bergen County,

Petitioner,

and

Rossana Allen Markarian, Retired Teacher,

Respondent.

Agency Docket No. 319-11/23

MOTION TO DISMISS

Dr. Andrée Y. McKissick
Arbitrator

APPEARANCES:

For the Petitioner:

Dennis McKeever, Esquire
Cornell, Merlino, McKeever & Osborne, LLC
238 St. Paul Street
Westfield, New Jersey 08879

For the Respondent:

Evan L. Goldman, Esquire
Goldman Davis Krumholz & Dillon, P.C.
Three University Plaza, Suite 400
Hackensack, New Jersey 07601

MOTION TO DISMISS SUBMITTED: March 21, 2024
OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO DISMISS: May 16, 2024
REPLY TO OPPOSITION: May 30, 2024

DECISION:

This Motion to Dismiss is granted. Correspondingly, the tenure charges must be dismissed due to its mootness because of a valid settlement agreement and a subsequent resignation of the Respondent, certified by the School District.

DATE OF DECISION: June 12, 2024

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On August 10, 2023, Respondent, Rossana Allen Markarian, submitted a letter of resignation with the effective date of January 1, 2024 from Kearney School District, Bergen County (see Petitioner's Exhibits III and IV). On September 29, 2023, Respondent Markarian filed an Amended Complaint against the Town of Kearney School District for religious discrimination in violation of the New Jersey law against discrimination. On October 26, 2023, the School District submitted a Certificate of Service and Final Salary Form to New Jersey, confirming the Respondent's resignation. The record reflects that nonetheless on November 12, 2023, the Town of Kearney School District brought tenure charges against the Respondent.

ISSUES

(A) Whether or not the Kearney School District had a right to bring tenure charges against a teacher who has resigned?

(B) Whether or not such resignation renders the tenure charges moot and should be dismissed?

PERTINENT PROVISIONS

N.J.A.C. 6A:3, Controversies and Disputes

6A:3-5.6 Withdrawal, settlement, or mooting of tenure charges

(a) Once tenure charges are certified to the Commissioner, they may be withdrawn or settled only with approval. Any proposed withdrawal or settlement, whether submitted to the Commissioner or to the arbitrator, shall address the following standards established by the State Board of Education in the matter entitled In re Cardonick, State Board decision of April 6, 1983 (1990 School Law Decisions (S.L.D.) 842, 846):

1. Accompaniment by documentation as to the nature of the charges;

2. Explication of the circumstances justifying settlement or withdrawal;
3. Consent of both the charged and charging parties;
4. Indication the charged party entered into the agreement with a full understanding of the charged party's rights;
5. A showing the agreement is in the public interest; and
6. If the charged party is a teaching staff member, a showing the teaching staff member has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners for possible suspension or revocation of certificate.

POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES

It is the position of the Kearney School District, Bergen County (hereinafter called "Petitioner") that when Rossana Allen Markarian (hereinafter called "Respondent") was negotiating a settlement with the Petitioner that she never mentioned that she had a pending civil discrimination lawsuit against the Petitioner. Thus, the Petitioner asserts that the Respondent negotiated her settlement in bad faith. Moreover, the Petitioner also asserts that the Respondent deliberately omitted advising the Petitioner of this pending lawsuit to the detriment of the Petitioner. Hence, the Petitioner further argues that she should not now be rewarded by a dismissal of the tenure charges.

In addition, the Petitioner maintains that it had no notice of this lawsuit. Moreover, the Petitioner's offer of settlement to her was premised on what it now knows was a lie of omission. Therefore, the Petitioner reasons that the Respondent failed to negotiate in good faith, violated the implied covenant of fair dealing and actively misled the Petitioner with regard to this situation. Correspondingly, the Petitioner urges the Arbitrator that the Respondent should not be rewarded for her willful and wanton misbehavior by allowing the tenure charges filed against her to be dismissed.

In response to the Respondent that these tenured charges are moot due to her prior resignation, the Petitioner vehemently disagrees. That is, the Respondent explains that she did not unilaterally resign when she filed a lawsuit that she had been terminated. Moreover, the Petitioner argues that this view is too narrow and fails to take into consideration the numerous issues surrounding a tenure charge.

In addition, the Petitioner also asserts that to allow the Respondent to continue to teach elsewhere would be against public policy and the public interest. In sum, the Petitioner argues that she takes no responsibility for her actions, but instead blames everyone else. Based on the foregoing, the Petitioner urges the Arbitrator to allow it to pursue these tenure charges against the Respondent.

On the other hand, it is the Respondent's view that this dispute is moot because her resignation was accepted prior to the activation of the current tenure charges. That is, the Respondent asserts, these charges are in retaliation for her pending civil suit against the Petitioner for religious discrimination. It is important to note, the Respondent asserts, that the Petitioner had the opportunity to insert an operative provision into the prior settlement agreement, making her resignation contingent upon her forbearance of filing a civil lawsuit. However, the Respondent points out that the Petitioner forgot to include such a provision. As such, the Respondent maintains, that the Petitioner is now estopped from retroactively inserting such a clause by requesting this remedy of allowing tenure charges to prevail against the Respondent.

In addition, the Respondent also rebuts the allegation and argument that she violated the covenant of fair dealing and good faith as the Petitioner alleges. In response to the Petitioner that she has a duty to disclose that she filed a civil lawsuit, the Respondent vehemently disagrees. Instead, the Respondent further asserts that it is the Petitioner who has the duty to be vigilant and current with pertinent information of such a relevant and pending lawsuit, not her. Based upon the foregoing, the Respondent requests that this Motion to Dismiss these tenure charges be granted.

FINDINGS AND DISCUSSION

After a careful review of the record in its entirety and having had an opportunity to weigh and evaluate the positions of the Parties and pertinent case law, this Arbitrator finds that this Motion to Dismiss should be granted for the following reasons.

First, the transcript of the settlement specifically states the following regarding the agreement:

> One [you will] save your license; two [this will] let you retire without any consequence whatsoever; three, [this will] restore your increment and; four, [this agreement will] let you go on and teach anywhere else you want to go, but you're going to be leaving Kearney (see Petitioner's Exhibit II).

This agreement was consummated and submitted by the Respondent's letter of resignation on August 10, 2023, but later became effective on January 1, 2024 from the Kearney School Board of Education (see Petitioner's Exhibits III and IV). The record reflects on October 26, 2023, the School District submitted a Certificate of Service and Final Salary Form to New Jersey, confirming the Respondent's resignation.

Clearly, the substance of this agreement constitutes a quid pro quo transactional arrangement. Here, the Respondent agrees to resign, and the Petitioner willingly gives her in return the usage of her license, monetary relief through her increment and allows her to continue to teach "anywhere else" but not "Kearney." This is a mutual agreement, not a unilateral resignation.

Second, on September 29, 2023, the Respondent filed an amended complaint against the Town of Kearney School District for religious discrimination in violation of the New Jersey law of discrimination. Subsequently, the Petitioner brought tenure charges against the Respondent on November 12, 2023.

The Petitioner now argues that the Respondent failed to mention this pending civil matter during the settlement discussion to the detriment of the Petitioner. Thus, the Petitioner further argues that such actions by the Respondent was in bad faith and violated the implied covenant of fair dealing. However, this Arbitrator disagrees with this assessment.

The prevailing case law supports this Arbitrator's conclusion that the Respondent has no duty to disclose to the Petitioner that she filed a civil lawsuit. The Estate of Fischer, N.J. Super. 2011 WL 2314353 App. Div. 2011 (Respondent's Exhibit B) correctly notes that due to their "adversarial relationship," as opposed to a fiduciary relationship, that the Petitioner is on "notice to conduct [one's] due diligence" of a pertinent pending lawsuit (also see on this issue, United Jersey Bank and Kensey, 306 N.J. Super. 540, 551 (1997).

Third, as to the breach of the Respondent's duty of good faith and fair dealing, the Respondent resigned as agreed to by the quid pro quo arrangement in the valid settlement agreement (see Restatement (Second) of Contracts §205 (1981). That is, the Respondent did not destroy or injure the right of the Petitioner to receive the fruits of the contract.

Fourth, the real issue is that the Petitioner omitted to include a pertinent provision in its agreement with the Respondent by prohibiting her ability to pursue past or future civil claims. This omission took away the Petitioner's possibly viable claim against the Respondent.

In the Respondent's Certification, she states as follows describing the terms of the settlement agreement:

> 6. At no time was there ever any discussion about me not being able to file a civil lawsuit if I retired. The entire negotiation was limited to the potential tenure charges and how they could be avoided.

In light of the Petitioner's lack of inclusion of such a provision demanding forbearance, the Respondent's analysis prevails. Correspondingly, due to the Petitioner's omission, the Petitioner now seeks to retaliate with these tenure charges after accepting the Respondent's valid resignation.

Fifth, based upon the foregoing, this is a non-justiciable dispute. All of the issues raised are academic or hypothetical because the Respondent has resigned. Moreover, she is no longer teaching anywhere. Thus, this Arbitrator finds that this dispute is moot. The leading case on this issue is: In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Louis Melillo, School District of the City of Elizabeth, Union County, OAL DICT NO EDU 11969-13; Agency Rep. No: 363-10/14, State of New Jersey, Office of Administrative Law, June 19, 2014.

In response to the Petitioner's argument that the public exception applies and is an exception to the mootness doctrine, this Arbitrator disagrees. That is, that particular exception has a very high standard requiring "great public importance," as such is not applicable to our instant case (see Nini v. Mercer County College, 202 N.J. 98, 2010; compare this with the instant case of the Respondent with the dissimilarities of the criminal due process proceedings as exhibited by State v. Bell, 241 N.J. 552 (2020), as the Petitioner argues). Based on the foregoing, the Respondent must prevail.

DECISION

This Motion to Dismiss is granted. Correspondingly, the tenure charges must be dismissed due to its mootness because of a valid settlement agreement and a subsequent resignation of the Respondent, certified by the School District.

AFFIRMATION

I, Dr. Andrée McKissick, do hereby affirm that I am the individual who executed this instrument, which is my Decision for this Motion to Dismiss.

DATE OF AWARD: June 12, 2024

Dr. Andrée McKissick

ARBITRATOR

C:\PERM PANEL\NJ Teacher Tenure Panel\Motion to Dismiss (Markarian v. Kearney School Distr) June 12,2024.docx

229-24E
OAL Dkt. No. 13237-23
Agency Dkt. No. 298-10/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

N.H., on behalf of minor child, S.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Kingsway Regional School District, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed.

Following an altercation in March 2023 at Kingsway Regional High School (KRHS), the Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education (Board) imposed a long-term suspension on petitioner's child, S.A. Petitioner appealed. The Board moved to dismiss on the grounds that the petition was untimely, and the ALJ denied the motion. The Board sought interlocutory review, and the Commissioner denied the request. In doing so, the Commissioner noted that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3(d), the Board is required to conduct a review of a long-term suspension at each Board meeting following its original vote, until the student is returned to the general education program. N.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Kingsway Regional School District, Gloucester Co., Commissioner Decision No. 178-24 (May 3, 2024). Following the Commissioner's decision, petitioner sought emergent relief in the form of S.A.'s immediate return to school without any further conditions or restrictions. Petitioner subsequently added a request to participate in the Naval Junior Reserve Office Training Corps (NJROTC) cadet program at KRHS and to sit for senior portraits on June 20-21, 2024.

In response to the motion for emergent relief, the Board submitted a certification from the district's Superintendent, Dr. James Lavender, explaining that the Board reviewed S.A.'s suspension during its May 16, 2024 meeting and determined that S.A.'s suspension should continue until the conditions imposed for her return had been met; minutes of the Board's executive session indicate that S.A.'s return to school is contingent on the completion of a child study team (CST) evaluation. The Board also indicated that it was satisfied that S.A. was being appropriately educated.

Regarding petitioner's request to have S.A. immediately returned to school, the ALJ concluded that petitioner had failed to meet the standard for emergent relief enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6. Specifically, the ALJ acknowledged that the denial of a student's ability to attend school may constitute irreparable harm, but found that, given the length of the suspension, reentering school during the final two weeks of the school year was not conducive to minimizing harm, particularly when S.A. is doing well in her current academic environment. Regarding petitioner's request to participate in the NJROTC program, the ALJ concluded that petitioner had not demonstrated an immediate need, because all dates listed in the program materials had passed.

Despite his conclusion that petitioner had not demonstrated irreparable harm on the issues of S.A.'s return to school and participation in NJROTC, the ALJ also engaged in some analysis regarding the remaining Crowe factors. Regarding S.A.'s underlying claim on her right to return to school, the ALJ indicated that delaying S.A.'s readmittance because of the refusal to undergo a CST evaluation was "questionable" and magnified by the Board's prior non-compliance with the administrative requirements regarding long term-suspensions. Id. at 12. The ALJ also noted that the Board's submissions consisted of "conclusory determinations, thinly presented" and lacked specific facts, explanations, or references. Ibid. Further, the ALJ stated, "That is not to say that S.A. is unable to establish that she is entitled to return to KRHS or participate in NJROTC. If her request had occurred other than the end of the academic year or, as it relates to NJROTC, dates which were 'of the essence,' this examination [of S.A.'s right to her underlying claim] may be much more thorough and the result may differ." Id. at 13.

Regarding petitioner's request to sit for senior portraits on June 20-21, 2024, the ALJ granted petitioner's request for emergent relief. The ALJ found that senior portraits are an important life event and requiring S.A. to wait until make-up dates that might be available in the fall presents an unnecessary risk, such that petitioner had demonstrated irreparable harm. The ALJ further found that even if he accepted the Board's argument regarding the need for a CST evaluation, "in no way would it explain the Board's refusal to allow S.A. to sit for her senior portraits." Ibid. The ALJ concluded that petitioner had also demonstrated a right underlying her claim, a likelihood of success on the merits, and that the equities were in her favor.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has met the requirements for emergent relief regarding her request to sit for senior portraits on June 20-21, for the reasons thoroughly detailed in the ALJ's Order.

The Commissioner disagrees with the ALJ on the issue of S.A.'s return to school and concludes that petitioner has met the requirements for emergent relief. The ALJ's conclusion turned primarily on the fact that there is limited time left in the school year and his concern that returning S.A. to school at this point would do more harm than good. However, case law is clear that a child suffers irreparable harm when she is "deprived of an education for even a brief period of time." K.C. and S.C., o/b.o minor child, K.C. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Englewood Cliffs, Bergen Co., EDU 01883-11 (Mar 2, 2011), adopted, Commissioner Decision 117E (Mar. 18, 2011). S.A.'s inability to attend school during the remainder of the school year therefore constitutes irreparable harm.

The Commissioner further concludes that that the issue of S.A.'s attendance at school in September is sufficiently immediate to meet the criteria for irreparable harm. As of the time of oral argument on May 28, 2024, no hearing dates had been set. The ALJ requested that counsel provide a list of witnesses and their availability for hearing dates in June and July, and further indicated his commitment to resolve this matter expeditiously. While the Commissioner commends the ALJ's efforts, it is unlikely that this matter will be resolved by the beginning of the 2024-2025 school year in September, given that the ALJ and the Commissioner are each permitted 45 days, plus potential extensions, to issue their decisions. Emergent relief is therefore necessary to ensure that S.A. does not experience the irreparable harm that would result if she were unable to attend school in September.

Turning to the issue of likelihood of success on the merits, the Commissioner notes that matters involving long-term suspensions must address both the merits of the suspension based on the student's conduct as well as the procedures used by the Board in implementing the suspension. Counsel for the Board represented to the ALJ during oral argument that although the Superintendent was originally insisting on a risk assessment as a condition of S.A.'s return to school, he is no longer insisting on a risk assessment because one has been performed. A January 16, 2024 risk/threat assessment performed by Ingrid Parker, M.A., LPC, LBS concludes that S.A. "does not present as a danger to herself or others." Certification of Sara Zuba, Esq. in Support of Petitioner's Motion for Emergent Relief (May 20, 2024), Exhibit B.

However, the Superintendent and Board are still requiring a CST evaluation as a condition of S.A.'s return to school. The question of whether S.A. should undergo a CST evaluation is within the jurisdiction of the Department of Education's Office of Special Education (OSE), not the Commissioner. N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.7. However, it can be appropriate for the Commissioner to exercise jurisdiction, despite the involvement of special education regulations, when a matter contains underlying claims regarding rights and responsibilities under the school laws. See Long Beach Island Educ. Ass'n v. Bd. of Educ. of the Long Beach Island Consolidated Sch. Dist., Commissioner Decision No. 330-09 (decided Oct. 13, 2009).

While petitioner has allegedly refused to consent to a CST evaluation, there are clear procedures in place for a board of education to follow in this type of situation. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.7(b), a board of education may request a due process hearing when it is unable to obtain the required consent to conduct an evaluation. If the Board is concerned that S.A. should be receiving special education or related services, it has the option of requesting a due process hearing. There is no indication in the record that it has availed itself of that option, instead apparently choosing to use the disciplinary proceedings to attempt to obtain petitioner's consent. Those efforts have clearly failed, given the passage of 15 months since the original suspension. Accordingly, in the absence of petitioner's consent, if the Board wishes to proceed with a CST evaluation, it must pursue the procedures available to it under N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.7(b) or any other applicable special education statute or regulation.[1]

The Commissioner concludes that the Board's refusal to return S.A. to school based on petitioner's lack of consent to a CST evaluation, when there are clear legal pathways for them to pursue an evaluation even in the absence of consent, is arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable conduct. Therefore, petitioner has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits with regard to the Board's conditions for S.A.'s return to school. Furthermore, the Commissioner concludes that S.A.'s rights not to be the object of arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable action by the Board and to receive a free and appropriate public education are well-settled, such that petitioner also meets this prong of the standard for emergent relief. See, e.g., K.C. and S.C. o/b/o minor child K.C. v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Englewood Cliffs, Bergen Co., Commissioner Decision No. 117-11 (Mar. 18, 2011).

Finally, the Commissioner concludes that the equities favor petitioner. Even assuming that all allegations regarding S.A.'s conduct are true, the fact remains that S.A. has now been out of school for over a year, and the harm to S.A. has already been considerable. Moreover, the threat/risk assessment indicates that S.A. is not a danger to herself or others. Therefore, S.A.'s interest in returning to school outweighs the Board's interest in continuing to exclude her.

[1] The Commissioner is exercising jurisdiction regarding this issue only to the extent of determining that the Board must pursue a CST evaluation through the appropriate special education procedures rather than as a condition of S.A.'s return to school following her suspension. The Commissioner makes no determination regarding whether a CST evaluation is appropriate and leaves all substantive issues regarding the evaluation and any other areas of special education law to the jurisdiction of OSE.

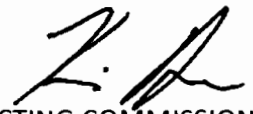
Accordingly, petitioner's motion for emergent relief is granted. S.A. shall immediately be returned to school, permitted to sit for senior portraits, permitted to participate in any other programs or activities associated with her attendance in school, and entitled to receive all communications regarding school or related programs or activities in the same manner as any other student.

This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.



ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 14, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 14, 2024

230-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01780-23
Agency Dkt. No. 46-2/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.M., on behalf of minor children, J.M. and M.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 14, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 18, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01780-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 46-2/23

T.M. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN J.M. AND M.M., Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.

T.M., petitioner, pro se

Brian J. Kane, Esq., for respondent (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 15, 2024 Decided: May 15, 2024

BEFORE MARGARET M. MONACO, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have settled this case, and their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I ORDER that the parties comply with the terms of their settlement agreement.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 15, 2024
DATE

Margaret M. Monaco
MARGARET M. MONACO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: MAY 15, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: MAY 15, 2024

jb

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE, (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement"), is made this 15th day of May, 2024, by and between the Tashay McCall (hereinafter, also referred to as "Petitioner"), who currently resides at 9-15 Fabyan Pl, Newark, New Jersey 07108 and the Elizabeth Board of Education (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Board"), with its principal offices located at 500 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208.

WHEREAS, Petitioner enrolled her minor children J.M. and M.M., as students in the Elizabeth Public School District for the 2022-2023 school year; and

WHEREAS, the Board determined that the above minor children were ineligible to attend the schools of the Elizabeth Public School District due to domicile outside of Elizabeth; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner commenced an action against the Board appealing its residency determination in a matter entitled T.M. on behalf of minor children, J.M. and M.M. v. City of Elizabeth Board of Education, OAL Docket No. EDU 01780-23, Agency Ref. No.: 46-2/23, (hereinafter referred to as the "Petition"); and

WHEREAS, the Board filed a Counterclaim to the Petition against Petitioner for tuition reimbursement for J.M. and M.M.'s ineligible attendance in the Elizabeth School District; and

WHEREAS, the Petitioner and the Board (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Parties") having reached a negotiated agreement to fully, and finally, settle all claims among them, including those asserted in the Petition and Counterclaim; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and undertaking said forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

1. Consideration. In settlement of this matter, Petitioner will pay the Board the amount of $2,400.00, which represents the alleged tuition due and owing for the alleged ineligible attendance of minor children J.M. and M.M. in the Elizabeth School District for the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 school years. Petitioner shall send the above amount in the following payment structure: $200.00 per month from the Petitioner made payable to the Elizabeth Board of Education sent to 31 Parker Rd, Elizabeth NJ 07208 attn: Heather Savage-Ford. All Parties agree payment shall be made monthly starting June 1st and be due every 1st until full repayment. ~~These payments will be made payable to the Elizabeth Board of Education and shall either be sent to counsel for the~~ Respondent: Brian J. Kane, LaCorte, ~~Bundy, Varady & Kinsella 989~~ Bonnel ~~Court, Union, NJ~~ 07083 or directly to the ~~Respondent: Attn: Bud Kennedy, Elizabeth~~ Board of ~~Education, 500 N Broad~~ Street, Elizabeth, ~~NJ 07208.~~ BTK TM

In the event that Petitioner fails to abide by the terms outlined in this agreement, the Petitioner shall be in default of this agreement, and the parties agree that a judgment shall be entered and docketed in the Superior Court of New Jersey in favor of the Respondent for the alleged unpaid tuition in the amount of $2,400.00 less any payments made prior to the date of default.

2. Attendance of J.M. and M.M. at Elizabeth Public School District. Petitioner shall unenroll the minor children J.M. and M.M. from the Respondent's school district at the conclusion of the 2023-2024 school year, on June 24, 2024. (See 2023-2024 School Calendar attached hereto as Exhibit A). J.M. and M.M.'s final day of school within the Respondent's district shall be June 24, 2024, upon which all necessary transfer paperwork will be completed so that J.M. and M.M. shall begin the 2024-2025 school year outside of the Respondent's district. Petitioner shall not be permitted to attempt to re-enroll the minor child A.K. within the Respondent's school district. So long as the Petition unenrolls students J.M. and M.M. on June 24, 2024, the Respondent shall not seek a judgment for the alleged tuition calculated above.

3. Waiver and Release of Claims. In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the payments set forth in Paragraph 1 above, Petitioner hereby releases and forever discharges the Board, in its official and personal capacities, and its related or affiliated entities, and its past, present and future officers, directors, attorneys, employees, owners, insurers, and their respective successors and assigns (collectively "Releasees"), jointly and severally, from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind (collectively "Claims"), known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, which Petitioner, her heirs, agents, executors, successors or assigns ever had, now have or hereafter may have against Releasees arising out of any matter, occurrence, omission, or event existing or occurring prior to Petitioner's execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation: any and all causes of action suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

4. Stipulation. Simultaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Petitioner and counsel for the Board shall execute a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice with regard to the Petition and the Board's Counterclaim in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

5. Counterparts; Entire Agreement; No Oral Modification. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall comprise the entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, written or oral, expressed or implied. No other promises, agreements or amendments, or any separate agreement relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be binding or shall modify this Agreement unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties hereto.

6. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

7. No Admission of Liability. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing by either party to this agreement. Rather, this Agreement is being offered for the sole purpose of settling cooperatively and amicably any and all possible disputes between the parties.

8. Severability. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to violate any law or shall be interpreted to violate any law. If any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement or the application thereof is construed to be overbroad and/or unenforceable, then the court making such determination shall have the authority to narrow the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph as necessary to make it enforceable and the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph shall then be enforceable in its/their narrowed form. Moreover, each paragraph or part or subpart of each paragraph in this Agreement is independent of and severable (separate) from each other. In the event that any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement is determined to be legally invalid or unenforceable by a court and is not modified by a court to be enforceable, the affected paragraph or part or subpart of such paragraph shall be stricken from the Agreement, and the remaining paragraphs or parts or subparts of such paragraphs of this Agreement shall remain in full, force and effect.

9. Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not intended, and shall not be construed, to modify, define, limit, or expand the intent of the parties as expressed in this Agreement, and they shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

10. Interpretation. This Agreement shall be construed without aid of any canon or rule of law requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing this Agreement or any provision thereof to be drafted.

11. Contingency. It is agreed and understood by all Parties hereto that this Agreement is contingent upon each of the Parties fulfilling all of their respective duties, obligations, and/or promises as stated herein.

12. Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes any, and all, prior agreements, or understandings between the parties. By executing this Agreement, Petitioner represents and acknowledges, that she does not rely, and has not relied, upon any representation, or statement, not set forth in this Agreement made by Respondent, or their Counsel, with regard to the subject matter, basis, or effect of this Agreement. or otherwise.

13. Assent to Terms. The parties have negotiated the terms of this Agreement. Petitioner's signature below indicates that she was given the opportunity to fully review this Agreement, that the Petitioner has read and understood the provisions, and that she has executed it voluntarily with full knowledge of the significance of all provisions. Ms. Tashay McCall hereby acknowledges that she enters into this agreement with a full understanding of her rights and that she was fully informed of the implications of this Agreement, and does so without duress, of her own free will and volition.

STATEMENT BY PETITIONER

The Respondent has advised me, in writing through the Agreement, to carefully read, and fully understand, the provisions of the Agreement, the acceptance, and sufficiency, of which I acknowledge. I have had sufficient time, and opportunity, to consult with Counsel of choice prior to executing the document, and I intend to be legally bound by its terms. I further so execute the Agreement in a knowing, and voluntary, manner with the full knowledge that I am waiving any and all rights, or claims, I may have to later challenge the sufficiency, scope, or terms of the Agreement and have, again, done so after consultation with my Counsel. I understand that I may revoke my signature within seven (7) days following my signing, I understand that my rights under the Agreement are contingent on my signing the Agreement, and not revoking my signature on said document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures and/or seals of the parties or their duly authorized representatives have been set forth on the dates indicated below:

Tashay McCall

TASHAY MCCALL

Dated: 5/15/24

Brian J. Kane. Esq., Counsel for Respondent
Elizabeth Board of Education

Date: 5/15/2024

EXHIBIT A

ELIZABETH PUBLIC SCHOOLS
2023-2024 SCHOOL CALENDAR

Revised March 28, 2024

JULY
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
~~3~~	~~4~~	5	6	7
10	11	12	13	14
17	18	19	20	21
24	25	26	27	28
31

AUGUST
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
	1	2	3	4
7	8	9	10	11
14	15	16	17	18
21	22	23	24	25
28	29	30	31

SEPTEMBER (18/15)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
				~~1~~
~~4~~	5	6	7	8
11	12	13	14	15
18	19	20	21	22
~~25~~	26	27	28	29

OCTOBER (21/21)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
2	3	4	5	6
~~9~~	10	11	12	13
16	17	18	19	20
23	24	25	26	27
30	31

NOVEMBER (17/17)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
		1	2	3
6	~~7~~	8	~~9~~	~~10~~
13	14	15	16	17
20	21	~~22~~	~~23~~	~~24~~
27	28	29	30

DECEMBER (16/16)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
				1
~~4~~	5	6	7	8
11	12	13	14	15
18	19	20	21	22
~~25~~	~~26~~	~~27~~	~~28~~	~~29~~

7/3-4/23	Mon, Tue	Independence Day Observance – Schools and District Closed
8/31/23	Thu	Schools Open for 10 Month Administrators, New Student Registration
9/1/23	Fri	Labor Day Weekend – Schools and District Closed
9/4/23	Mon	Labor Day – Schools and District Closed
9/5/23	Tue	Schools Open for Team Members
9/6-7/23	Wed, Thu	Professional Development Days for Team Members
9/8/23	Fri	Schools Open for Students
9/25/23	Mon	Yom Kippur – Schools and District Closed
10/9/23	Mon	Columbus Day Observance – Schools and District Closed
11/7/23	Tue	Schools Closed – Election Day
11/9-10/23	Thu, Fri	NJEA Convention and Veterans Day – Schools & District Closed
11/22/23	Wed	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m. for Thanksgiving Recess
11/23-24/23	Thu, Fri	Thanksgiving Recess – Schools and District Closed
12/4/23	Mon	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m. for Professional Development
12/25-29/23	Mon through Fri	Christmas Recess – Schools and District Closed
1/1/24	Mon	New Year's Day Observance – Schools and District Closed
1/2/24	Tue	School Reopen
1/15/24	Mon	Observance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday – Schools and District Closed
1/19/24	Fri	Schools and District Closed – Snow Day
1/29/24	Mon	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m. for Professional Development
2/8/24	Thu	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m. for Parent Teacher Conferences
2/13/24	Tue	Schools and District Closed – Snow Day
2/19/24	Mon	President's Day – Schools and District Closed
3/11/24	Mon	Schools Close 12:15 p.m. for Professional Development
3/29/24	Fri	Easter Recess – Schools and District Closed
4/1/24	Mon	Easter Recess – Schools and District Closed
4/2-5/24	Tues through Fri	Easter Recess – Schools Closed
4/8/24	Mon	Schools Reopen
4/10/24	Wed	Schools and District Closed for Eid-al-Fitr
5/27/24	Mon	Memorial Day – Schools and District Closed
6/4/24	Tue	Schools Closed – Primary Election Day
6/21/24	Fri	Juneteenth – Schools and District Closed
6/24/24	Mon	Schools Close at 12:15 for Students and Team Members
6/25/24	Tue	Schools Close for 10-Month Administrators

Key

~~X~~	Schools Closed	~~X~~	Schools and District Closed
\	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m.	(xx/xx)	Teachers/Students Total Days Per Month

This calendar provides for 181 team member days, 180 student days, and 2 Professional Development Days.

In the event that schools must close for inclement weather, etc , days will be made up commencing with June 25, 2024 with an additional day added to the calendar for each day missed through June 28, 2024 to fulfill the legal requirement of 180 days of school attendance for the regular school year If additional days are needed beyond June 28, 2024 days will come from Easter Recess commencing with April 5, 2024 and working backward from the end of that week

Administrative offices will remain open until 4 30 p m daily except Fridays during summer hours. On Wed., November 22, 2023 all schools will close at 12:15 p m for Thanksgiving Recess administrative offices will be open regular hours and all 12 month employees and all secretaries, security personnel, and custodians will follow their regular schedules

JANUARY (20/20)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
~~1~~	2	3	4	5
8	9	10	11	12
~~15~~	16	17	18	~~19~~
22	23	24	25	26
~~29~~	30	31

FEBRUARY (19/19)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FR
			1	2
5	6	7	~~8~~	9
12	~~13~~	14	15	16
~~19~~	20	21	22	23
26	27	28	29

MARCH (20/20)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
				1
4	5	6	7	8
~~11~~	12	13	14	15
18	19	20	21	22
25	26	27	28	~~29~~

APRIL (16/16)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
~~1~~	~~2~~	~~3~~	~~4~~	~~5~~
8	9	~~10~~	11	12
15	16	17	18	19
22	23	24	25	26
29	30

MAY (22/22)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
		1	2	3
6	7	8	9	10
13	14	15	16	17
20	21	22	23	24
~~27~~	28	29	30	31

JUNE (14/14)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
3	~~4~~	5	6	7
10	11	12	13	14
17	18	19	20	~~21~~
~~24~~	~~25~~	~~26~~	~~27~~	~~28~~

EXHIBIT B

Brian J. Kane, Esq.
N.J. Attorney I.D. # 333912021
LA CORTE, BUNDY, VARADY & KINSELLA
989 Bonnel Court
Union, NJ 07083
(908) 810-0500
Attorneys for Defendant Board of Education
of the City of Elizabeth, Union County

T.M. on behalf of minor children, J.M. and M.M., Petitioner, v. Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County Respondent.

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY

OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU-1780-23
AGENCY DOCKET NO.: 46-2/23

STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

The matter in difference in the above-entitled action having been amicably adjusted by and between the Petitioner, T.M. on behalf of minor children J.M. and M.M., and Respondent Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by the undersigned that the same be and is hereby dismissed with prejudice, without costs.

All parties to this action further agree that this stipulation may be executed in counterparts and that photocopies and/or facsimile copies of this stipulation shall be deemed original signatures for the purposes of this stipulation.

STIPULATED:

Tashay McCall, pro se petitioner
Dated: 05/15/24

LA CORTE, BUNDY, VARADY & KINSELLA

Brian J. Kane, Esq., attorney for Respondent
Dated: 5/15/2024

231-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Raisah Thomas,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner challenged the determination of the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection (DOE), permanently disqualifying her from employment in schools under the supervision of the Department of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.2 after a criminal history background check revealed that in 2009, petitioner pled guilty in United States District Court, Newark, to a misdemeanor crime of "Possession of Stolen Bank Checks" in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b) and 18 U.S.C. § 2. Petitioner contended that her 2009 plea was to a "low-level misdemeanor" and that this does not meet the standard of being a disqualifying crime. The DOE filed a motion to dismiss, arguing that since petitioner did not challenge the fact that she was convicted of the crime, the only issue for determination is whether that crime was "substantially equivalent" to one of the disqualifying offenses enumerated under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Petitioner failed to respond to the motion.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner has failed to appear for hearings related to this case despite proper notice; petitioner was convicted of a theft-related federal misdemeanor in 2010; the statute under which she was convicted, 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b), is "substantially equivalent" to N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3; her conviction would have qualified as a third-degree indictable offense under New Jersey law, N.J.S.A. 2C:20-2(b)(2)(a); and under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq., a third-degree theft conviction covered by N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3 disqualifies petitioner from employment in "a facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education." The ALJ concluded that the DOE's decision to disqualify petitioner from employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, et seq. was appropriate and that no facts have been presented to demonstrate that it was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the respondent's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioner's criminal history disqualifies her from employment in schools under the supervision of the DOE. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

231-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00914-23
Agency Dkt. No. 306-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Raisah Thomas,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner is disqualified from employment in schools under the supervision of the Department of Education.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Respondent's motion to dismiss is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 14, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 18, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00914-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 306-11/23

RAISAH THOMAS,
Petitioner,
v.
NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,
Respondent.

Raisah Thomas, petitioner, pro se

Kevin F. Milton, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: May 16, 2024 Decided: May 17, 2024

BEFORE MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Raisah Thomas appeals the September 19, 2023, decision of respondent New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection, to disqualify her, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.2, "from serving in any position, paid or unpaid, with any education institution under the supervision of the Department of Education."

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Raisah Thomas was issued a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing with a K–6 Elementary School Teacher Endorsement on May 1, 2005. She was issued her standard teaching certificate in 2007 with the same endorsement, which she currently holds. On September 19, 2023, petitioner was notified by the Office of Student Protection (OSP) that based on findings made during a criminal background check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.2, she was "permanently disqualified from serving in any position, paid or unpaid, with any education institution under the supervision of the Department of Education."

On November 13, 2023, Ms. Thomas emailed a Petition for Appeal to the State Department of Education's Office of Controversies and Disputes. After supplying proof of service on respondent on November 22, 2023, the appeal was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was received on December 19, 2023, for a hearing as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On December 18, 2023, prior to the matter being forwarded to the OAL, respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer.

An initial conference was scheduled for March 26, 2024, at which time petitioner failed to appear. Nonetheless, a briefing schedule was set, with Ms. Thomas being given until May 6, 2024 to file opposition to the Motion to Dismiss, and respondent until May 16, 2024 to serve a reply brief.

Having given Ms. Thomas more than sufficient time in which to communicate with the OAL and having not heard from her, the record formally closed on May 16, 2024.

INITIAL FINDINGS OF UNDISPUTED FACT

The following FACTS of the case are not in dispute:

1. On or about May 1, 2005, Raisah Thomas was issued a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing Teacher of K–6 Elementary School by the State Board of Examiners. A standard certificate was issued in 2007 and on June 1, 2014, that certificate was renewed. (C-A.)

2. On September 19, 2023, a criminal background investigation, including a fingerprint check, revealed that on November 16, 2009, Ms. Thomas had pled guilty in the United States District Court, Newark, to the misdemeanor offense of "Possession of Stolen Bank Checks" in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b) & 18 U.S.C. § 2. Ms. Thomas was sent a disqualification letter at that time. (R-A.)

3. The specific allegations against petitioner are detailed in an August 25, 2008, criminal complaint. (R-B.)

4. When she received the disqualification letter, Ms. Thomas was employed as a "Teacher 3" at Northern State Prison in Newark, New Jersey.

5. On March 18, 2010, Ms. Thomas was sentenced to one year of probation, assessed a fee and ordered to pay $1,000 in restitution to the victim. A Judgment of Conviction was entered by the Hon. Joel A. Pisano that day. (R-C.)

6. Ms. Thomas has not received a pardon for the conviction, nor has it been expunged.[1]

[1] In fact, only certain low-level drug offenses are eligible for expungement in the federal system. 18 U.S.C. § 3607(a).

MOTION

The respondent argued that the motion to dismiss is appropriate here since, per N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10, even if petitioner's factual allegations are all found to be true, there is no legal basis for her appeal.

More specifically, respondent argues that since Ms. Thomas is not challenging the fact that she was convicted of the crime alleged, the only issue to be decided is a legal one: whether that crime (a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b) and 18 U.S.C. § 2) is a "substantially equivalent crime" to disqualifying New Jersey criminal statute N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Respondent posits that petitioner's federal conviction is "substantially equivalent" to theft by unlawful taking, a violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3(a). When the amount in dispute is over $500 but less than $75,000, that is a crime of the third degree,[2] which, per N.J.A.C. 18A:6-7.1(c)(2), is a crime for which conviction would disqualify her from employment in "a facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education."

Ms. Thomas has not responded to the motion. However, she did present an argument in her initial appeal which will be reviewed below.

APPEAL

In her appeal to the Board, Ms. Thomas wrote:

> I have been a working professional and productive for over 16 years under my Standard Education license without blemish, and to now take that away from [me] would be a major detriment to me as well as my family. I was awarded my Standard teaching license after the said offense in 2007, and to take it back after a 16 year clean slate is the reason why I am contesting this.
>
> In the written communication from the Office of Student Protection the investigator was not specific as to what was the disqualifying offense. It was rather ambiguous. I do not have an extensive criminal history. I have a low degree > misdemeanor, that allowed me to continue working and for the State of NJ. To my knowledge, my record does not reflect any violent offenses, nor does my misdemeanor fall into any of the categories of the first or second degree offense listed in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.2, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-4.13 or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2. My offense did not deal with child abuse, or drug offenses. I did not serve any jail time. Additionally, under the laws of the state, 10 years or more without any offenses added to my record, should qualify me for some type of clean slate expungement of my record.

[2] N.J.S.A. 2C:20-2(b)(2)(a).

>
> [A-A.]

THE CRIMINAL ALLEGATIONS

On August 25, 2008, an FBI agent swore out a criminal complaint against petitioner alleging, in essence, that from November, 2007 through April, 2008, she possessed and used checks stolen during a bank robbery. (R-B.)

The complaint alleged that on October 12, 2007, an armed robbery was committed at a Bank of America branch in Edison, New Jersey. Included in the haul were American Express Travelers Cheques and Gift Cheques. Following the robbery, a cooperating witness informed the FBI that in November, 2007, Ms. Thomas and her husband approached him and offered him $50 to store a pouch with the words "Bank of America" printed on it which contained gift checks. He agreed.

On April 13, 2008, Ms. Thomas retrieved some of the checks and gave two of them to the cooperating witness as compensation for storing them. Then, both the witness and the petitioner went shopping utilizing the checks. The following day, Ms. Thomas allegedly negotiated at least twenty of the checks at a credit union in Rahway.

On April 18, 2008, the FBI executed a search warrant at petitioner's home, at which time she admitted that she knew that the checks were stolen, that she had taken the pouch containing the checks to the witness's home and had asked the witness to store it. The witness turned the bag over to the FBI and it was found to contain American Express Gift Cheques and Traveler's Cheques in excess of $10,000. (R-B.)

CRIMINAL LAWS

Ms. Thomas was initially charged with violations of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(c) and 18 U.S.C. § 2. Ultimately, however, she pled guilty to 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b)[3] and 18 U.S.C. § 2.

Those statutes read as follows:

> 18 U.S.C. § 2113 (bank robbery and incidental crimes)
>
> (b) Whoever takes and carries away, with intent to steal or purloin, any property or money or any other thing of value exceeding $1,000 belonging to, or in the care, custody, control, management, or possession of any bank, credit union, or any savings and loan association, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; or
>
> Whoever takes and carries away, with intent to steal or purloin, any property or money or any other thing of value not exceeding $1,000 belonging to, or in the care, custody, control, management, or possession of any bank, credit union, or any savings and loan association, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.
>
> 18 U.S.C. § 2 (principals)
>
> (a) Whoever commits an offense against the United States or aids, abets, counsels, commands, induces or procures its commission, is punishable as a principal.
>
> (b) Whoever willfully causes an act to be done which if directly performed by him or another would be an offense against the United States, is punishable as a principal.

Ms. Thomas was sentenced to one year of probation, assessed a $25 fee and ordered to pay $1,000 in restitution to Bank of America. (R-C.)

[3] 18 U.S.C. § 2113(c) merely dictates the same penalties for the "taker" and the "storer".

Respondent argues that the federal statutes above are "substantially equivalent" to N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3(a), which reads:

> N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3. Theft by unlawful taking or disposition > a. Movable property. A person is guilty of theft if he unlawfully takes, or exercises unlawful control over, movable property of another with purpose to deprive him thereof.
>

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:20-2(b)(2)(a), "theft constitutes a crime of the third degree if: (a) The amount involved exceeds $500 but is less than $75,000."

LAW AND ANALYSIS

A motion to dismiss filed per N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g) is the functional equivalent of a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim filed in civil court per R. 4:6-2(e). Graves v. State Operated Sch. Dist. of Newark, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2417 (App Div. Sept. 26, 2017). The court stated the standard for the granting of same:

> When reviewing a Rule 4:6-2(e) motion, a court must determine the adequacy of the pleading and decide whether a cause of action is "suggested" by the facts. Printing Mart-Morristown v. Sharp Elecs. Corp., 116 N.J. 739, 746 (1989) (quoting Velantzas v. Colgate-Palmolive Co., 109 N.J. 189, 192 (1988)). The court must "search[] the complaint in depth and with liberality to ascertain whether the fundament of a cause of action may be gleaned even from an obscure statement of claim, opportunity being given to amend if necessary." Ibid. (quoting Di Cristofaro v. Laurel Grove Mem'l Park, 43 N.J. Super. 244, 252 (App. Div. 1957)).
>
> [Id. at *8.]

The law cited by the respondent in support of its decision is N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, which reads in pertinent part:

> A facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education and board of education which cares for, or is involved in the education of children under the age of 18 shall not employ for pay or > contract for the paid services of any teaching staff member . . . unless the employer has first determined consistent with the requirements and standards of this act, that no criminal history record information exists on file . . . which would disqualify that individual from being employed or utilized in such capacity or position. . . .

>
> An individual, except as provided in subsection g. of this section, shall be permanently disqualified from employment or service under this act if the individual's criminal history record check reveals a record of conviction for any crime of the first or second degree; or
>
> . . . .
>
> c.
>
> . . . .
>
> (2) A crime as set forth in chapter 39 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, a third degree crime as set forth in chapter 20 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, or a crime as listed below:
>
> . . . .
>
> d. For the purposes of this section, a conviction exists if the individual has at any time been convicted under the laws of this State or under any similar statutes of the United States or any other state for a substantially equivalent crime or other offense.
>
> e. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, an individual shall not be disqualified from employment or service under this act on the basis of any conviction disclosed by a criminal record check performed pursuant to this act without an opportunity to challenge the accuracy of the disqualifying criminal history record.
>
> . . . .
>
> g. This section shall first apply to criminal history record checks conducted on or after the effective date of P.L. 1998, c. 31 (C.18A:6-7.1c et al.) . . . .

As noted above, respondent argues that, per N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d), the charges to which Ms. Thomas pled guilty to in 2009 are "substantially equivalent" to New Jersey's statute covering "[t]heft by unlawful taking or disposition," N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3. In her appeal, Ms. Thomas argues that her 2009 plea was to a "low-level misdemeanor" and that this does not meet the standard of being a disqualifying crime.

First, a little background. As is well established, New Jersey does not follow the classic "misdemeanor—felony" language employed in the federal system and by many states. Rather, New Jersey offenses generally follow the "disorderly persons—indictable" verbiage. For the purposes of simplicity, the terminology is roughly equivalent. However, for legal purposes, it is not.

In the federal system, sentencing classifications are dictated by 18 U.S.C. § 1559. This code provision separates felonies into five classes and misdemeanors into three classes; these are a single class of infractions (the lowest-level offense). For the highest-grade misdemeanor, the maximum prison sentence is, in essence, six to twelve months. Given that the maximum sentence for 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b) is "imprisonment by not more than one year," it is by definition a Class A misdemeanor.

In New Jersey, indictable offenses are separated into four "degrees," with fourth-degree offenses being the least severe. N.J.S.A. 2C:43-1. There are two classifications of disorderly persons offenses, petty disorderly and disorderly, as well as simply "offenses," such as ordinance violations. For "DPs," maximum sentences are dictated by N.J.S.A. 2C:43-8: DPs carry a maximum jail sentence of six months, while the maximum for "PDPs" is thirty days.

However, while the length of the potential penalty is certainly interesting, it has become clear that it is the language of the statutes and how New Jersey treats the crime that is more important in determining how the out-of-jurisdiction offense is viewed.

There is limited case law concerning this issue. However, it was most recently addressed directly in Bazerman v. New Jersey Department of Education, 2023 N.J. Agen. LEXIS 439 (August 29, 2023). There, the petitioner was convicted in New York of "official misconduct," which is a Class A misdemeanor. However, in New Jersey, "official misconduct" is a second-degree indictable crime. The basic allegation was that in his employment as a police officer, Mr. Bazerman was authorized to purchase equipment related to surveillance and wiretap activities and would then receive reimbursement for same. However, he was unable to account for the equipment for which he had received reimbursement. He was thereafter charged with official misconduct, pled guilty and was barred from future public employment and paid restitution of over $5,000, but did not serve any jail time and the conviction was later expunged.

Respondent argued that the New York official-misconduct offense was substantially equivalent to New Jersey's and because in New Jersey it is a second-degree crime, Bazerman was automatically disqualified. Among other issues, the Commissioner found that the ALJ had "erroneously focused his analysis on the penalties that courts may impose at sentencing for each offense instead of the nearly identical statutory language defining the elements of each offense." Id. at *3.

The Commissioner emphasized the similarities of the statutory language and noted that a plain-language reading is how the similarity issue should be approached. Id. at *6 (citing In re Ridgefield Park Bd. of Educ., 244 N.J. 1, 18 (2020)). The Commissioner also cited to Kelly v. New Jersey State Department of Education, Criminal History Review Unit, Commissioner Decision No. 396-18R (Dec. 18, 2018), https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/commissioner/2018/dec/396-18R.pdf, where the focus "centered around the statutory elements of each crime and not their degree or the penalties associated with them." Id. at *7.

In a somewhat similar case involving an unsuccessful applicant for a security officer position, Bugge v. New Jersey State Police, 2018 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2514 (App. Div. Nov. 15, 2018), Bugge had previously pled guilty to a "general violation of civil service law" in New York, a misdemeanor. However, the respondent deemed that violation to be "the equivalent of a fourth-degree crime in New Jersey." Id. at *2.

The ALJ had upheld respondent's denial and that was affirmed in the final agency decision, with the Commissioner noting that the conviction in New York, while a misdemeanor there, was, per N.J.S.A. 11A:10-2, a fourth-degree crime in New Jersey, which is the substantive equivalent of a felony, not a misdemeanor. Id. at *5; see also Medica v. New Jersey State Police, 2020 N.J. Agen. LEXIS 602 (June 5, 2020).

Here, respondent's disqualification decision was based on N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(2), which covers a wide variety of third-degree theft-related offenses. (N.J.S.A. 2C:20 et seq.)[4] It is argued here that the only difference between third-degree theft by unlawful taking in New Jersey (N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3) and the federal bank-robbery statute (18 U.S.C. § 2113) is that the New Jersey statute is not specifically directed to banks.[5] In the relatively rare New Jersey cases involving the theft of money from banks, the appropriate charges have been found to be second-degree robbery (N.J.S.A. 2C:15-1(a)(2)) and third-degree theft (N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3(a)). See State v. Williams, 244 N.J. 592, 601 (2021); State v. King, 215 N.J. Super. 504, 508 (App. Div. 1987).

I agree with respondent. In comparing the language of the two relevant statutes, the second part of the federal statute is clearly the "substantial equivalent" of New Jersey's theft by unlawful taking statute. Both have essentially identical mens rea requirements and require specific amounts of property/money to be stolen (and there is no question that those minimums have been met).

I further agree with respondent's argument that the passage of time since the offense does not impact the disqualification law's effect. As was detailed in In re Tenure Hearing of John Socrates, 2011 N.J. Agen. LEXIS 591 (June 24, 2011), in 1998, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 was amended to remove extensive verbiage permitting an individual to demonstrate rehabilitation by clear and convincing evidence in order to maintain employment. That language was replaced with the current language which only provides the individual with the opportunity to challenge the accuracy of the information discovered in the background check. Id. at *3.[6]

---

[4] It also covers weapons-related offenses (N.J.S.A. 2C:39 et seq.).

[5] In fact, New Jersey does not have specific bank robbery-related statutes. Rather, these crimes are covered by N.J.S.A. 2C:15-1 et seq. (robbery) and N.J.S.A. 2C:20 et seq. (theft). Most bank robberies are actually covered by federal law due to the involvement of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

[6] 1998 N.J.S.N. 851 (enacted June 30, 1998).

While I am not completely unsympathetic to petitioner's argument that a substantial period of time has elapsed since her conviction, her offense falls directly within the scope of the disqualification statute and the Legislature explicitly removed the rehabilitation "exception" from the plain language of the statute.

Given the above, I FIND the following:

a. That Ms. Thomas was convicted of a theft-related federal misdemeanor in 2010.

b. That the statute under which she was convicted, 18 U.S.C. § 2113(b), is "substantially equivalent" to N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3.

c. That given the dollar value of the theft, her conviction would have qualified as a third-degree indictable offense under New Jersey law. See N.J.S.A. 2C:20-2(b)(2)(a).

d. That per N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq., a third-degree theft conviction covered by N.J.S.A. 2C:20-3 disqualifies Ms. Thomas from employment in "a facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education."

Ultimately, I CONCLUDE that the respondent's decision to disqualify petitioner from employment pursuant to the dictates of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, et seq. was appropriate and that no facts have been presented to demonstrate that it was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's Motion to Dismiss be and is hereby GRANTED and;

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Ms. Thomas's appeal be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

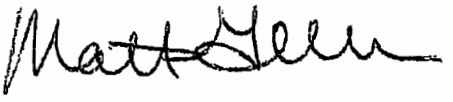
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B 10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



May 17, 2024
DATE

MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 17, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: May 17, 2024
sej

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For Court:

C-A Petitioner's certificate status

For petitioner:

A-A Appeal (November 13, 2023)

For respondent:

R-A Disqualification letter from DOE/OSP to petitioner (September 19, 2023) with background check

R-B Criminal Complaint with attachments (August 25, 2008)

R-C Judgment of Conviction (March 18, 2010)

232-24
OAL Dkt. No. 12759-23
Agency Dkt. No. 307-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Highland Park Board of Education,
Middlesex County,

Petitioner,

v.

Deana Frayne,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 have been reviewed and considered. Respondent did not file a reply to petitioner's exceptions.

Respondent Deana Frayne was terminated from her teaching position by the Highland Park Board of Education (Board) in 2015. In 2016, Frayne filed a complaint in Superior Court, alleging in part that the termination had violated her due process rights because she was tenured and the Board had not filed tenure charges. The Hon. Travis L. Francis, A.J.S.C., dismissed the question of tenure and transferred the matter to the Commissioner for a determination as to whether Frayne earned tenure and, if so, to address her related claims. The Commissioner dismissed the matter because Frayne's claims regarding her termination were untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Deana Frayne v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Highland Park, Middlesex

July 13, 2015 that the Board did not consider her to be a tenured employee, and by August 23, 2015, that the Board was terminating her without filing tenure charges. However, Frayne took no action within 90 days, and instead waited nearly a year to file suit in Superior Court. Based on Frayne's failure to timely assert her tenure rights, the ALJ concluded that Frayne was not a tenured teacher when she was terminated.

Initially, the Commissioner notes that, contrary to the argument that Frayne made in Superior Court, it is irrelevant that the May 5, 2014 Board meeting minutes were not a part of the record in the prior matter before the Commissioner. The 90-day limitations period established by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) applies to challenges to any action of a board of education, and it applies equally to challenges made by non-tenured and tenured teachers. Any and all claims related to Frayne's termination – including any claim that the Board should have filed tenure charges rather than proceeding with the type of termination used for non-tenured teachers – were required to be filed with the Commissioner within 90 days.

The record is clear that Frayne believed at the time of her termination that she was tenured, even though she allegedly did not have a copy of the meeting minutes. That belief is sufficient for her to have filed a petition of appeal within 90 days of her termination, but she did not do so. Moreover, even if the Commissioner were to accept that Frayne's later "discovery" of the meeting minutes would restart the limitations period, the record is also clear that Frayne was aware of the meeting minutes at least as of March 18, 2022, when discovery in the Superior Court matter concluded. Yet Frayne still failed to take any action before the Commissioner within 90 days of that "discovery."

Any claims related to her termination that Frayne may have, which are within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, remain untimely. The addition of the meeting minutes to the record does not change the fact that Frayne knew – by July 20, 2015, at the very latest – that she was being terminated without the filing tenure charges by Board. The 90-day limitation period therefore began to run no later than that date and expired on October 19, 2015. The filing of a separate action, in a separate court, a year after her termination cannot absolve Frayne of her obligation to file any claims against the Board that are within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner within 90 days. The timeliness of a complaint under the Superior Court rules, in and of itself, has no bearing upon the timeliness of a petition under the Department of Education's regulations. A.S., o/b/o minor child, P.P. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Pinelands Regional Sch. Dist., Ocean Cty., Commissioner Decision No. 411-09 (December 16, 2009). The purpose of the time limitation is, in part, to serve as a measure of repose through which a board of education can be secure, after the 90 days have elapsed, that its decisions will not be challenged before the Commissioner. See, e.g., Kaprow v. Bd. of Educ. of Berkeley Twp., 131 N.J. 572, 587 (1993). This requirement cannot be circumvented by the later Superior Court filing. Frayne's failure to timely file any claims related to her tenure with the Commissioner should – on its own – result in summary decision in favor of the Board.

Nonetheless, in the interest of bringing this long-running matter to a close, the Commissioner has determined to address the question of Frayne's tenure on its merits and concludes that Frayne was not tenured at the time of her termination. The record reflects that Frayne was employed by the Board from March 2009 until her termination in June 2015. However, she served as a maternity leave replacement for much of that time, which is not counted toward the acquisition of tenure. N.J.S.A. 18A:16-1.1. Frayne was employed as a full-time tenure-track teacher during the 2012-2013, 2013-2014, and 2014-2015 school years.[1] On June 24 or 25, 2015, the superintendent presented Frayne with a separation agreement and told her that she was not tenured. The Board issued a Rice[2] notice to petitioner and, on July 20, 2015, formally rescinded its prior action with respect to Frayne's employment contract and its statement of tenure, and terminated Frayne, effective August 23, 2015.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a), an individual can only achieve tenure if they serve for the requisite period of time, which can be achieved in three different ways. First, tenure may be acquired when the teacher is employed for three consecutive calendar years, or any shorter period fixed by the employing board. Ibid. Frayne was not employed in a tenure-track position for three consecutive calendar years, because her tenure-track position that commenced in September 2012 was terminated prior to September 2015. Furthermore, there is no evidence that the Board established, by policy or by contract, a shorter period for its teachers to acquire tenure. Second, tenure may be acquired when the teacher is employed for three consecutive academic years, together with employment at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year. Ibid. Frayne does not meet this requirement, because although she was employed for the three consecutive academic years of 2012-2013, 2013-2014, and 2014-2015, she was not employed at the beginning of the 2015-2016 academic year. Finally, tenure may be acquired when the teacher is employed for the equivalent of more than three academic years within a period of any four consecutive academic years. Ibid. Frayne does not meet this requirement, because she was not employed in a tenure-track position during the 2011-2012 school year. Even if the Commissioner accepted that Frayne's employment during the 2010-2011 school year was tenure-eligible, it was not in a period of four consecutive academic years with her later three years of service. The Commissioner therefore concludes that Frayne did not meet the statutory requirements regarding the length of her employment and was not tenured at the time of her termination.

---

[1] Frayne served as a maternity leave replacement from March 2009 through June 2010. The record is unclear regarding petitioner's status during the 2010-2011 school year. The Board indicated in its motion for summary decision, and the ALJ indicated in the Initial Decision, both that 1) Frayne worked as a regular tenure track teacher during the 2010-2011 school year and 2) Frayne was appointed as a maternity replacement, non-tenure track for the period form October 18, 2010 to June 30, 2011. Both of these statements cannot be true. The allegation that Frayne was a tenure track teacher during the 2010-2011 school year comes only from Frayne's deposition testimony and is not supported by any documentation. However, the record includes Board meeting minutes from August 30, 2010, documenting Frayne's appointment as a maternity leave replacement. Accordingly, the Commissioner concludes that Frayne was a maternity leave replacement during the 2010-2011 school year, and therefore her employment during that time does not count towards the acquisition of tenure. However, even if Frayne was a tenure-track employee during the 2010-2011 school year, the Commissioner's conclusion remains the same, for the reasons stated below.

[2] An employee is entitled to advance notice when a board of education intends to discuss in closed session a personnel matter that could adversely affect the employee. Rice v. Union County Reg'l High Sch. Bd. of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64, 73 (App. Div. 1977).

In her Superior Court proceedings, incorporated into the OAL proceedings pursuant to Judge Rivas' Order, Frayne appears to have argued that the Board should be equitably estopped from denying that she had tenure because the May 5, 2014 meeting minutes state that she was approved for tenure. The Commissioner rejects this argument. The doctrine of equitable estoppel is "rarely invoked against a governmental entity." Middletown Twp. Policeman's Benevolent Ass'n Local No. 124 v. Twp. of Middletown, 162 N.J. 361, 367 (2000) (internal quotations and citations omitted). Additionally, "a governmental entity cannot be estopped from refusing to take an action that it was never authorized to take under the law – even if it had mistakenly agreed to that action." Meyers v. State Health Benefits Comm'n, 256 N.J. 94, 101

(Dec. 14, 2023). Here, the Board had no authority to declare Frayne tenured prior to her completion of the required period of service as detailed in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a). Furthermore, as the Appellate Division noted in Frayne's prior matter, "the Board's conduct during the summer of 2015 . . . was clear that it intended to remove [Frayne] from employment." As such, Frayne had "not shown evidence of detrimental reliance; consequently, her equitable estoppel argument fails." Frayne, supra, 2021 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS at *9. For these reasons, Frayne cannot be tenured by equitable estoppel.

Accordingly, the Commissioner concludes that Frayne was not tenured at the time of her termination.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 14, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 18, 2024

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12759-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 307-11/23

HIGHLAND PARK BOARD OF EDUCATION,
MIDDLESEX COUNTY,
Petitioner,
v.
DEANA FRAYNE,
Respondent.

Eric L. Harrison, Esq., appearing for petitioner (Methfessel & Werbel, attorneys)

Deana Frayne, respondent pro se, did not appear or participate[1]

Record Closed: April 1, 2024 Decided: May 14, 2024

BEFORE SUSAN M. SCAROLA, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On November 16, 2023, the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes (Department), transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to an order of the Hon. Alberto Rivas, J.S.C., "for a determination as to whether [1] See procedural history.

the respondent [Deana Frayne] was tenured at the time of her termination."[2] The Department also noted that "The Superior Court has requested that Ms. Frayne's Superior Court exhibits be considered. If [the respondent] does not appear, the Highland Park Board of Education (BOE), as petitioner, may present ex parte proofs and receive an initial decision on the merits as provided in N.J.A.C. 6A:1-14.4(d)."[3]

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Following the receipt of the transmittal at the OAL, on December 8, 2023, the respondent emailed and asked that the matter be withdrawn from the OAL. She was advised by letter dated January 9, 2024, that she could not, as she was not the petitioner.

A pre-hearing telephone conference was scheduled for January 18, 2024. The respondent failed to appear. The petitioner advised that it would be filing a motion for summary decision and did so on February 2, 2024.

The respondent was given until March 4, 2024, to respond to the motion but no response was received at the OAL.

A telephone conference was scheduled for April 1, 2024 to set a date for oral argument. Notice was provided to respondent by regular and certified mail. On April 1, 2024, the petitioner appeared for the conference, but the respondent did not. To date, no responses or exhibits have been received from the respondent.

The following background and procedural history leading to this transmittal is taken from the petitioner's motion for summary decision.[4]

1. On June 20, 2016, respondent filed a civil Complaint against Petitioner, asserting the following claims: a. (1) violation of respondent's due process rights under the New Jersey State Constitution, State statutes, and the New Jersey Civil Rights Act

[2] N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.
[3] Presumably, the Department meant to reference N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d).
[4] Exhibits attached to the motion are noted.

("NJCRA") (Counts One and Two); b. (2) violation of the Conscientious Employee Protection Act ("CEPA") (Count Three); c. (3) breach of contract (Count Four); and d. (4) detrimental reliance (Count Five). (See Harrison Cert., Exhibit A.)

2. Respondent worked as a first-grade teacher for the Highland Park Board of Education (the "Board"). She was terminated due to: (1) excessive absenteeism; (2) poor classroom performance; and (3) unprofessional communication with a parent in the course of a phone conversation in which she berated a parent for complaining about her many absences.

3. In her Complaint, respondent asserts, inter alia, that her due process and contractual rights were violated when the Board summarily terminated her. (Id. at Exhibit A.)

4. On November 18, 2016, Judge Travis Francis of New Jersey Superior Court entered an Order transferring the Complaint to the Commissioner of Education for a determination as to whether respondent earned tenure and, if she was tenured, to adjudicate all due process claims directly relevant to respondent's tenured status; the Order stayed all other claims pending the Commissioner's determination of respondent's tenure status. (See Harrison Cert., Exhibit B.)

5. The Commissioner transmitted the case to the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law, where on June 26, 2018, Hon. Jeff S. Masin, ALJ, issued an initial decision, which was later adopted as a final decision by the Commissioner, finding that: a. respondent knew "at the very latest by July 20, 2015, that the Board terminated her without invoking the process necessary to remove tenure and was treating her as one without tenure protection"; b. respondent failed to file her petition with the Commissioner in a timely manner as it was filed outside the ninety day deadline required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(a) and (l); c. "there is no basis here for invoking the limited exceptions to the otherwise strictly enforced limitation"; d. application of the doctrine of equitable estoppel is not warranted; and e. because respondent failed to file her petition with the Commissioner in a timely manner, her tenure claim was dismissed. (See Harrison Cert., Exhibit C.)

6. The respondent appealed the Commissioner's determination that she was time-barred from asserting that she had been tenured. On June 16, 2021, the Appellate Division affirmed the Commissioner's decision. Frayne v. Bd. of Educ. of Highland Park, No. A-0268-18 (App. Div. June 16, 2021), https://www.njcourts.gov/system/files/court-opinions/2021/a0268-18.pdf.

7. The respondent's remaining claims then proceeded in Superior Court.

8. Following the close of discovery, Petitioners filed a motion for summary judgment on April 1, 2022.

9. On May 3, 2022, respondent's former counsel, Ronald J. Wronko, filed a cross-motion for partial summary judgment and an opposition to Defendants' motion for summary judgment.

10. On May 27, 2022, the Superior Court denied both motions and directed that the question of tenure be returned to the Commissioner for an adjudication on the merits, notwithstanding the Commissioner's prior determination that the Respondent was time-barred from seeking relief based on her alleged tenured status. (See Harrison Cert., Exhibit D.)

11. Judge Rivas further stayed the civil matter until the issue of tenure was resolved by the Commissioner, specifically stating as follows: "The sole issue to be presented to the Commissioner is whether [Respondent] was a tenured teacher at the time of her termination." (Ibid.) The Court clarified that "[t]he Commissioner shall not be concerned with what procedure was undertaken to terminate [Respondent], but simply whether her status was that of a tenured or non-tenured teacher when she was terminated in 2015." (Ibid.)

12. In its decision, the Court held that because the Commissioner did not previously have access to the May 5, 2014, Board meeting minutes, the Commissioner never was able to address whether respondent was a tenured teacher at the time of her termination before issuing its June 26, 2018, Order. As such, Judge Rivas found that notwithstanding the Commissioner's determination that the respondent was time-barred from arguing that she was tenured, the Commissioner nevertheless should render a decision on whether the respondent was tenured at the time of her termination in light of the May 5, 2014, Board meeting minutes. (Ibid.)

13. Once the Commissioner received the matter, the Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted it to the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for an administrative law judge ("ALJ") to make an initial decision and recommendation, before rendering a final decision on the issue.

14. On October 7, 2022, against the petitioner's position, respondent "withdrew" the matter from the OAL, in contravention of Judge Rivas' May 27, 2022, Order.

15. Further activity ensued in Superior Court. On May 24, 2023, Judge Rivas entered an order providing the following relief: a. The respondent must either file an appeal of the May 24, 2023, Order or comply with its provisions; b. The stay previously entered by the Court remains in effect; c. The Court will submit the following question to Acting Commissioner of Education Angelica Allen-McMillan[5]: Was Deana Frayne a tenured teacher when she was terminated by the Highland Park Board of Education on or about June 23, 2015?; d. The respondent must file all the documents she believes support her position within the time frame specified by the Commissioner, who must accept and review said documents; e. Because the question set forth above involves an issue as to which documents were not previously presented to the Commissioner, the doctrine of res judicata, collateral estoppel, or issue preclusion will not apply or prevent a determination of the submitted question; and, f. The Superior Court will submit this order and statement of reasons to the Commissioner. (See Harrison Cert., Exhibit F.)

16. On June 30, 2023, respondent filed a letter with the Superior Court requesting a case management conference because counsel for the Board had emailed the director of the Office of Controversies and Disputes within the Department of Education to follow up on whether this Court's May 24, 2023 Order had been received. The Respondent accused the Board of "having ex-parte communications with the OAL" even though she was copied on the email to the director of the Office of Controversies and Disputes and "rerouting [the May 24, 2023] Order to the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes."

[5] The present Acting Commissioner is Kevin Dehmer.

17. On July 3, 2023, the respondent filed a letter with the Court to share an email the attorney for the petitioner had written to her explaining the judicial process and interaction between the Commissioner, the Office of Controversies and Disputes, and the OAL to prevent further delays in this litigation and in which the respondent once again was implored to consult with an attorney.

18. On July 11, 2023, respondent filed a letter with the Court to advise that she "removed all correspondence from Defendants to Jennifer Simons in the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes," and to request "a Case Management Conference because the Commissioner did not refer this matter to the OAL or get in touch with her" pursuant to the May 24, 2023 Order.

19. On July 11, 2023, the Superior Court issued a memo in response to the parties' most recent correspondence, directing all parties to participate in the OAL proceedings. It also declined to schedule any other case management conferences.

20. On July 12, 2023, despite the pending stay of the matter and Judge Rivas's explicit instructions to participate in all OAL proceedings set forth in his July 11, 2023 memo, the respondent filed a letter with the Superior Court and asked for the record to include a new copy of her fully executed contract "prior to any further action being taken in this case" because the one submitted by her former counsel had been allegedly "doctored."

21. That same day, Judge Rivas entered an order providing the following relief: a. directing the respondent to comply with the requirements of the OAL with respect to scheduling and filing of materials; b. continuing the stay of the Superior Court matter until the OAL determines the question of respondent's tenure status; and, c. advising that if she fails to comply with this Court's order, it may result in dismissal of this matter.

22. On July 14, 2023, the respondent filed a motion for reconsideration of the Court's July 12, 2023 Order.

23. On July 17, 2023, the Court issued another memo in response to respondent's July 14, 2023, motion. Judge Rivas once again explained to the Respondent that the Commissioner, who has primary jurisdiction to determine tenure and due process issues, retains the authority to personally handle the adjudication of the case or refer it for a hearing before the OAL and, in this case, the Commissioner has elected to refer the case to the OAL for a determination. Judge Rivas also advised respondent that if she refuses to abide by the July 12, 2023 Order, she can appeal it with the Appellate Division or the Court will dismiss the Superior Court matter.

24. On August 12, 2023, respondent filed a motion for "judicial notice and sanctions," which petitioners opposed.

25. On September 8, 2023, the Court denied respondent's motion for "judicial notice and sanctions." In response, on September 10, 2023, the respondent requested a statement of reasons for the denial.

26. That same day, respondent withdrew the matter from the OAL, in contravention of Judge Rivas' July 12, 2023 Order.

27. On September 24, 2023, the respondent filed a motion to enter "default judgment." Respondent's motion was ultimately denied.

28. On October 12, 2023, petitioners filed a cross-motion to dismiss the Superior Court Complaint with prejudice for failure to comply with Court orders. On November 6, 2023, Judge Rivas entered an Order denying the motion "until both parties comply with the Order of May 24, 2023."

29. On November 16, 2023, the matter was transmitted to the OAL by the Commissioner "for a determination as to whether the respondent Frayne was tenured at the time of her termination." The transmittal also ordered that the respondent's exhibits to Superior Court be considered, and that if the respondent does not appear, the petitioner Highland Park Board of Education may present ex parte proofs and receive an Initial Decision on the merits.[6]

To date the respondent has not complied with the Orders of the Superior Court to cooperate in the proceedings at the OAL: she has provided no materials or exhibits to review, nor has she participated in any telephone conferences. Accordingly, I accept the above as FACT.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The following background and the factual discussion leading to the respondent's termination are taken from the petitioner's motion for summary decision.[7]

1. Respondent Deana Frayne was a teacher for the Highland Park Board of Education (the "Board") at Irving Elementary School from March 2009 until her termination in June 2015. (See Harrison Cert., Exhibit A, ¶ 1 and Exhibit H; Tr. at 11:17–21.)

2. Respondent served as a maternity-leave replacement (non-tenure track) teacher from March 2009 until the end of the 2009–2010 school year. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 11:24–12:18.)

3. She worked as a full-time regular tenure track teacher during the 2010–2011 school year. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 12:19–13:4.)

4. On August 30, 2010, the Board appointed respondent as a full-time maternity replacement (non-tenure track) teacher from October 18, 2010, to March 25, 2011. (Id. at Exhibit I.)

---

[6] The May 24, 2023, and July 12, 2023, orders of Judge Rivas provide that [the respondent] must comply with the Commissioner and/or the OAL with respect to scheduling and filing of materials in order to have the question of her tenure addressed." The November 6, 2023, order again orders her to comply with the May 24, 2023, order.

[7] Exhibits attached to the motion are again noted.

5. On March 7, 2011, the Board approved respondent as a full-time maternity replacement (non-tenure track) first grade teacher, effective from October 19, 2010, to June 30, 2011. (Id. at Exhibit J.)

6. During the 2011–2012 school year, respondent filled a (non-tenure track) maternity leave position due to budget cuts. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at13:10–18.)

7. Respondent worked as a full-time regular tenure track teacher during the 2012–2013, 2013–2014, and 2014–2015 school years. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 15:16–16:14.)

8. At the time of respondent's termination, Israel Soto served as the interim superintendent ("Superintendent Soto") and Kelly Wysoczanski ("Principal Wysoczanski") served as the principal of Irving Primary School. (Id. at Exhibit K, nos. 26 and 33.)

9. On May 5, 2014, the Board publicly appointed respondent to continue as a teacher during the 2014–2015 school year, describing her as tenured. (Id. at Exhibit P.)

Facts relating to the June 25, 2015, Meeting with Superintendent Soto—Respondent's Termination and Express Notice that She Was Not Tenured.

10. On June 25, 2015, Superintendent Soto presented respondent with a "separation agreement" in the presence of the union president Kimberly Crane and a union representative. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 51:23–52:13.)

11. Respondent claimed that Superintendent Soto did not tell her why he was firing her, told her that she had 24 hours to sign the separation agreement, and told her that she was not tenured. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 52:24–53:3.)

12. Ms. Crane, the president of the respondent's bargaining unit, told [the respondent] that she agreed with Dr. Soto that she was not tenured. Ms. Crane recommended that the respondent sign the agreement. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 53:8–12.) Ms. Crane also suggested that respondent speak with Nancy Grbelja from the New Jersey Education Association ("NJEA"). (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 53:13–22.)

13. Dr. Soto also mailed respondent a letter on June 25, 2015, to serve as her "sixty (60) days[']notice that [her] employment with the Highland Park Board of Education will be terminated effective August 23, 2015." (Id. at Exhibit L.)

14. The letter stated as a basis for the termination that respondent's "attendance, classroom, performance and overall behavior over the past several years has been exceedingly poor." (Ibid.)

15. The letter also referenced an "incident that had occurred on or about May 12, 2015, wherein [respondent] unilaterally contacted a parent who [she] learned had complained about [her] behavior to [the] school's administration, questioned the parent as to the reason behind their complaint, made the parent feel uncomfortable and inexplicably tape recorded the conversation without notifying the parent of same." (Ibid.)

16. Dr. Soto pointed out that respondent's "conduct violate[d] Board Policy 3281, Inappropriate Staff Conduct, amongst others, as well as the expectations this administration has for the conduct of its staff." (Ibid.)

17. The following day, respondent met with Nancy Grbelja of the NJEA and expressed the view that she had acquired tenure during the 2014–2015 school year and her reappointment on May 15, 2015, for the 2015–2016 school year. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 54:1–9.)

18. Ms. Grbelja advised the respondent that she could not assist her, as she did not agree that she had acquired tenure. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 54:3–17.)

19. Ultimately, Superintendent Soto recommended respondent's termination. (Id. at Exhibit M; Tr. at 42:21–23.)

20. On July 13, 2015, the District issued respondent a Rice notice[8] alerting her to the fact that the District would be discussing her employment in executive session during the July 20, 2015, Board meeting. (Id. at Exhibit H; Tr. at 57:6–11; Exhibit N.)

21. Upon learning of the repsondent's contention that she was tenured, Dr. Soto initiated an investigation and determined that the Board's description of her as tenured in its meeting minutes was premature; in fact, she was not tenured. (Id. at Exhibit M; Tr. at 95:1–96:17.)

22. As a result of this investigation, on July 20, 2015, the Board formally rescinded the prior statement of tenure. (Id. at Exhibit O.)

The Board voted 9-0 to terminate the respondent on August 23, 2015.

In addition, no evidence was presented that the respondent appeared at the school in September at the start of the school year, under the belief that she had tenure.

The above is accepted as FACT.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

I. Standards for summary decision

Under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules (UAPR), N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, "[a] party may move for summary decision upon all or any of the substantive issues in a contested case." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). Such motion "shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits" and "[t]he decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). When the motion "is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must [do so] by responding affidavit set[ting] forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid.

[8] Rice v. Union Cty. Reg'l High Sch. Bd. of Educ., 155 N.J. Super. 64 (App. Div.1977).

II. Was the respondent a tenured teacher when she was terminated by the Highland Park Board of Education on or about June 23, 2015?

The Highland Park Board of Education hired respondent to serve as a non-tenure-track first-grade maternity-leave replacement for the 2008–2009 school year. The Board continued respondent's employment in the non-tenure-track role for the 2009–2010, 2010–2011, and 2011–2012 school years. Thereafter, the Board employed respondent as a tenure-track first-grade teacher for the 2012–2013, 2013–2014, and 2014–2015 school years.

N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a) provides the requirements for a teacher to obtain tenure:

> The services of all teaching staff members employed prior to the effective date of P.L.2012, c.26 (C.18A:6-117 et al.) in the positions of teacher, . . . and such other employees as are in positions which require them to hold appropriate certificates issued by the board of examiners, serving in any school district or under any board of education, excepting those who are not the holders of proper certificates in full force and effect and school business administrators shared by two or more school districts, shall be under tenure during good behavior and efficiency and they shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming such a teaching staff member or other just cause and then only in the manner prescribed by subarticle B of article 2 of chapter 6 of this Title, after employment in such district or by such board for:
>
> > (1) Three consecutive calendar years, or any shorter period which may be fixed by the employing board for such purpose; or
> >
> > (2) Three consecutive academic years, together with employment at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year; or

> (3) The equivalent of more than three academic years within a period of any four consecutive academic years.

N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 provides:

> On or before May 15 in each year, each nontenured teaching staff member continuously employed by a board of education since the preceding September 30 shall receive either:
>
> a. A written offer of a contract for employment from the board of education for the next succeeding year providing for at least the same terms and conditions of employment but with such increases in salary as may be required by law or policies of the board of education, or > b. A written notice from the chief school administrator that such employment will not be offered.
>

In the event such contract or notice is not forthcoming by May 15, N.J.S.A. 18A:27-11 provides:

> Should any board of education fail to give to any nontenure teaching staff member either an offer of contract for employment for the next succeeding year or a notice that such employment will not be offered, all within the time and in the manner provided by this act, then said board of education shall be deemed to have offered to that teaching staff member continued employment for the next succeeding school year upon the same terms and conditions but with such increases in salary as may be required by law or policies of the board of education.

Here, although the respondent did receive a contract of renewal by May 15, the Board shortly thereafter determined to take action against her and she became aware of the Board's position that she would not obtain tenure. As the Appellate Division succinctly summarized the facts in its June 16, 2021, decision:

> On May 5, 2015, plaintiff signed a contract with the Board to continue as a tenure track first grade teacher for the 2015–2016 school year. On June 25, 2015, before commencement > of the 2015–2016 school year, the Board served plaintiff with a letter advising her that her employment would be terminated effective August 23, 2015.

>
> In the letter, the Board asserted plaintiff's attendance, classroom performance, and overall behavior over the past several years had been exceedingly poor. The letter also cited a parent-teacher incident where plaintiff recorded a conversation between her and a parent without that parent's consent. The letter was plaintiff's second written notice of unsatisfactory performance within thirty days.[1]
>
> In addition to the Board's June 25, 2015 letter to plaintiff, the Board also presented plaintiff a proposed "Agreement and Mutual Release," dated June 24, 2015, which offered plaintiff continuing health benefits and sixty days' worth of salary in exchange for her waiving the sixty-day termination notice period, accepting termination, and releasing any potential claims against the Board. The first page of this proposed agreement contained this relevant language:
>
> > WHEREAS Ms. Frayne is not a tenured employee of the Board pursuant to the requirements for acquiring the same as set forth in the "Teacher Effectiveness and Accountability for Children of New Jersey Act."
> >
> > [(emphasis added).]
>
> Plaintiff declined to execute the proposed agreement. Next, on July 13, 2015, the Board served plaintiff a letter advising that, "pursuant to the requirements of N.J.S.A. 10:4-12(b)(8),2 on Monday, July 20, 2015, the Board will discuss a personnel matter which could affect your employment in this school district." The Board met publicly on August 23, 2015, and in a unanimous 9-0 vote, terminated plaintiff's employment.
>
> [1] The June 25, 2015 letter references a May 27, 2015 letter the Board sent to plaintiff. The May 27, 2015 letter advised plaintiff that the Board was considering disciplinary action against plaintiff for reasons including but not limited to "excessive absenteeism."
>
> [Frayne v. Bd. of Educ. of Highland Park, No. A-0268-18 (App. Div. June 16, 2021), https://www.njcourts.gov/system/files/court-opinions/2021/a0268-18.pdf.]

The respondent would have had the expectation that she had acquired tenure by the action of the Board on May 5, 2015, when she signed the contract proffered by the Board, and that, as a result, she would be considered tenured when that contract went into effect. However, shortly thereafter by letter of May 27 the respondent was put on notice that the Board did not consider her tenured, and that it was contemplating disciplinary proceedings against her. The Board then provided notice of its intentions to terminate the respondent in correspondence to her dated June 25 and July 13, 2015.

Because the respondent was aware of pending adverse action by the Board as soon as June 23, or July 13, 2015, at the latest, any tenure rights she may have acquired by signing her contract had to be asserted by her by the filing of an appeal within ninety days or they would be lost.

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) provides:

> The petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing. This rule shall not apply in instances where a specific statute, regulation, or court order provides for a period of limitation shorter than 90 days for the filing of a particular type of appeal.

The ninety-day rule is neither a procedural nicety nor discretionary. The Appellate Division wrote:

> The ninety-day rule has been strictly construed by the courts and consistently applied. See Nissman v Bd. of Educ., 272 N.J. Super. 373, 380–81 (App. Div. 1994); Kaprow v. Bd. of Educ., 131 N.J. 572, 588–89 (1993); Riely v. Bd. of Educ., 173 N.J. Super. 109, 112–14 (App. Div. 1980). This period begins to run when the petitioner "learn[s] from the Local Board the existence of that state of facts that would enable him to file a timely claim." Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 588–89. A petitioner need not receive official and formal notification that he or she may have a valid claim. Id. at 588.
>
> [Frayne v. Bd. of Educ. of Highland Park, No. A-0268-18 (App. Div. June 16, 2021), https://www.njcourts.gov/system/files/court-opinions/2021/a0268-18.pdf.]

The plaintiff in Kaprow argued that his due process rights were violated by the time limitation set forth in the administrative code, but the Court, quoting Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982), noted:

> The State may erect reasonable procedural requirements for triggering the right to an adjudication, be they statutes of limitations, or, in an appropriate case, filing fees. * * * What the Fourteenth Amendment does require, however, is "an opportunity . . . granted at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner," Armstrong v. Manzo, 380 U.S. 545, 552 [85 S.Ct. 1187, 1191, 14 L.Ed.2d 62] (1985), "for [a] hearing appropriate to the nature of the case." Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 313 [70 S.Ct. 652, 657, 94 L.Ed. 865] (1950).
>
> [Id. at 437, 102 S.Ct. at 1158–59, 71 L.Ed.2d at 279 (some citations omitted).]

> N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c) did not deprive Kaprow of his due-process rights. The ninety-day limitation period afforded Kaprow a meaningful opportunity to file his petition. In addition, the ninety-day limitation period represents a reasonable procedural requirement. It provides finality in education matters. Furthermore, the limitations period has withstood tangential review from this Court. See North Plainfield Educ. Ass'n v. Board of Educ., 96 N.J. 587, 476 A.2d 1245 (1984).
>
> [Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 588–89.]

Here, the respondent knew that the Board was contemplating disciplinary action against her within days of signing the "contract," and again by June 25, 2015. By July 13, 2015, she definitely knew that the Board did not consider her to be a tenured employee. And by the vote of the Board on August 23, 2015, the respondent knew that the Board had terminated her. Yet, the respondent took no action to protect her status as a "tenured" teacher as required by the code. She filed no appeal to the Commissioner within ninety days of knowing her tenure status was not recognized, nor did she ever file any appeal of the Board's action with the Commissioner. Rather, she waited almost one year and then filed suit in Superior Court. The question of tenure cannot be looked at in a vacuum, or as a snapshot on the day a contract is executed. It is a right that must be asserted in the face of adverse action such as occurred here, or it is lost. The ninety-day rule is an integral part of the respondent's claim to tenure and was ignored by her.

Applying the law to the facts, I CONCLUDE that the respondent was not a tenured teacher when she was terminated by the Highland Park Board of Education on or about June 23, 2015. While she may have "acquired" tenure as a result of executing a contract on May 5, 2015, the respondent's inchoate right of tenure needed to be asserted by her by the filing of an appeal with the Commissioner within ninety days of becoming aware of the Board's adverse action against her, which was known as early as May 27 and definitely by June 25, 2015. She failed to do so, and, as a result, any rights she may have had to tenure were extinguished.

ORDER

I hereby ORDER that the respondent was not a tenured teacher when she was terminated by the Highland Park Board of Education on or about June 23, 2015.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 14, 2024
DATE

Susan Scarola
SUSAN M. SCAROLA, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

SMS/kl

233-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00400-24
Agency Dkt. No. 366-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Ariel LaForest, Board of Trustees of the TEAM Academy Charter School, Essex County.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that Paragraph 9 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement. Further, with respect to Paragraph 6 of the Agreement, the Board is reminded that it must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq., notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement consistent with applicable public records law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 14, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 18, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00400-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 366-12/23

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF ARIEL LAFOREST, BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY.

Thomas O. Johnston, Esq., for petitioner, Team Academy Charter School, Inc.

Arthur Lessler, Esq., for respondent, Ariel LaForest (Lessler & Lessler, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 8, 2024 Decided: May 15, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on August 8, 2022 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A hearing was scheduled for June 11, 2024 but was adjourned because the parties advised the undersigned that they agreed to settle the matter. The executed Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of agreement was forwarded to the OAL on May 8, 2024 and is attached hereto.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement, and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

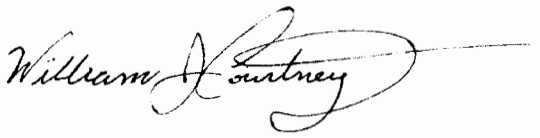
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.



May 15, 2024

DATE

WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Mailed to Parties:

db

234-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Natalie Jimenez,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner challenged the determination of the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection (DOE), to permanently disqualify her from employment in a public school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 after a criminal history background check revealed that in January 2003, she was convicted of destruction of property at a value greater than $1,000 under Virginia law, an offense that is substantially equivalent to the disqualifying New Jersey crime of criminal mischief, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-3(a)(1). The Department filed a motion to dismiss; petitioner failed to file a response.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: a fingerprint search conducted as part of petitioner's background check revealed that on January 7, 2003, the Virginia Beach Circuit Court convicted petitioner of a felony charge of destruction of property at a value greater than $1,000; she was sentenced to one year of probation and was required to pay restitution and fees under Va. Code Ann. §18.2-137; N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) provides petitioner the opportunity to challenge her conviction's accuracy or claim an error in the disqualifying criminal record; in this case, petitioner does not dispute the accuracy of her criminal conviction or claim any error in her criminal record, but rather presents arguments in support of mitigation; petitioner asked the DOE to overturn her disqualification from employment because her conviction occurred twenty years ago, she has since transformed her life, and there have not been any other incidents since 2003; however, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 permanently bars from employment with the DOE individuals who have been convicted "under the laws of this State or under any similar statutes of the United States or any other state for a substantially equivalent crime or other offense" enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d). The ALJ concluded that petitioner is permanently barred from employment in New Jersey public schools; accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioner's criminal history disqualifies her from working in a public school. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

234-24
OAL Dkt. No. 02105-24
Agency Dkt. No. 5-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Natalie Jimenez,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner is permanently disqualified from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 because she was convicted of destruction of property at a value greater than $1,000 under Virginia law, an offense that is substantially equivalent to the disqualifying New Jersey crime of criminal mischief, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-3(a)(1). The Commissioner notes that petitioner has not disputed the accuracy of her criminal record.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 14, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 18, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02105-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 5-1/24

NATALIE JIMENEZ,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,

Respondent.

Natalie Jimenez, petitioner, appearing pro se

David L. Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent, New Jersey Department of Education, Board of Examiners (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: April 11, 2024 Decided: May 13, 2024

BEFORE MAMTA PATEL, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Natalie Jimenez, applied for an administrative assistant position with the Southampton Township School District, but a background check revealed that Jimenez was convicted of a crime in Virginia, which is substantially equivalent to the crime of criminal mischief in New Jersey. Is Jimenez precluded from employment? Yes. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 disqualifies from employment with a school district an individual who has been convicted of, among other crimes, criminal mischief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 8, 2023, the Department of Education (DOE) sent Jimenez a letter stating that she was "permanently disqualified" from employment with any educational institution under the supervision of the DOE, such as the Southampton school district. (R-1B.) The letter further stated that Jimenez could file an appeal challenging the "accuracy" of her criminal conviction. Ibid. On December 22, 2023, Jimenez filed a Pro Se Petition of Appeal with supporting documentation challenging her disqualification with the DOE. (P-1.) On February 6, 2024, the DOE filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer. (R-1.) On February 14, 2024, the DOE transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On March 12, 2024, I held a telephone conference with the parties, during which Jimenez acknowledged receipt of the DOE's Motion to Dismiss and indicated her intent to submit a response. Jimenez was given until April 1, 2024, to submit her response, and DOE was given until April 11, 2024, to submit a reply. To date, Jimenez has not filed a response to the DOE's Motion to Dismiss.

On April 11, 2024, I closed the record, and the information provided as of that date was considered for this decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the evidence before me, I FIND the following as FACT:

1. Jimenez applied for an administrative assistant position with the Southampton school district, a public school in New Jersey. (R-1A.)

2. By statute, any person applying for employment with or to volunteer at a public school in New Jersey must submit to a background check. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

3. On or about December 6, 2023, Jimenez submitted her fingerprints as part of the background check. (R-1A.)

4. The DOE ran a fingerprint search through the New Jersey State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.2. (R-1A; R-1B.)

5. The fingerprint search revealed that on January 7, 2003, the Virginia Beach Circuit Court convicted Jimenez of a felony charge of destruction of property at a value greater than $1,000, sentenced her to one year of probation, and required restitution and fees under Va. Code Ann. §18.2-137. (R-1C.)

6. On December 8, 2023, the Office of Student Protection notified Jimenez by letter that she was "permanently disqualified from serving in any position, paid or unpaid, with any educational institution under the supervision of the Department of Education . . . ." (R-1B.)

7. The December 8, 2023, letter also advised Jimenez that she had fourteen days from the date of the notice to "challenge the accuracy" of her criminal-history record. The letter further instructed her to "submit documentation from the respective courts to support [her] claim of an error in the criminal record." (R-1B.)

8. On December 22, 2023, following N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1 to -1.17, Jimenez filed a petition of appeal, which included a personal statement and several reference letters from friends, employers, and not-for-profit organizations. (P-1.)

9. In her personal statement, Jimenez states that when she was twenty-one years old and living in Virginia Beach, while under the influence of alcohol and in a moment of frustration with her neighbors, she keyed their cars and slashed their tires. Jimenez states that she regrets her actions and has since learned better coping skills. She is employed and attaining her bachelor's degree in social work and psychology, a current member of the National Society of Leadership and Success, and on the dean's list and honor roll multiple times. Jimenez also advises that she is a devout Christian, wife, and mother of five children. (P-1.)

10. Jimenez does not challenge the criminal history report.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Motion-to-Dismiss Standard

In deciding a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim, the legal standard to be applied is whether the moving party is entitled to relief as a matter of law because the basis of a cause of action cannot be gleaned from the complaint even after an in depth and liberal search. Printing Mart-Morristown v. Sharp Elecs. Corp., 116 N.J. 739, 746(1989).

Jimenez's Disqualification from Employment

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e) provides Jimenez the opportunity to challenge her conviction's accuracy or claim an error in the disqualifying criminal record. Here, Jimenez does not dispute the accuracy of her criminal conviction or claim an error with her criminal record, but rather presents arguments in support of mitigation. (P-1.) Jimenez seeks the DOE to overturn her disqualification from employment because her conviction occurred twenty years ago, she has since transformed her life, and there have not been any other incidents since 2003. (P-1.)

Although Jimenez's conviction occurred in 2003, the Act specifically states that "a conviction exists if the individual has at any time been convicted." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d) (emphasis added).

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 permanently bars from employment with the DOE an individual who has been convicted "under the laws of this State or under any similar statutes of the United States or any other state for a substantially equivalent crime or other offense" the crimes enumerated in the statute. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d) (emphasis added).

In 2003, Jimenez was convicted under Va. Code Ann. §18.2-137, Injuring, etc., any property, monument, etc., which states in relevant part:

> B. If any person who is not the owner of [any property, real or personal, not his own] intentionally [breaks down, destroys, defaces, damages], he is guilty of (ii) a Class 6 felony if the value of or damage to the property, memorial or monument is $1,000 or more.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.1 provides:

> A facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education and board of education, which cares for, or is involved in the education of children under the age of 18 shall not employ for pay or contract for the paid services of any teaching staff member

> . . . unless the employer has first determined consistent with the requirements and standards of this act, that no criminal history record information exists on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Identification Division, or the State Bureau of Identification, which would disqualify that individual from being employed or utilized in such a capacity or position . . . .
>
> An individual, except as provided in subsection g. of this section, shall be permanently disqualified from employment or service under this act if the individual's criminal history record check reveals a record of conviction for any crime of the first or second degree; or
>
> . . . .
>
> c. (2) A crime as set forth in chapter 39 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, a third-degree crime as set forth in chapter 20 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, or a crime as listed below:
>
> . . . .
>
> Criminal mischief N.J.S.2C:17-3[.]
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 (emphasis added).]

New Jersey law does not distinguish crimes as either felonies or misdemeanors but rather by degree, i.e., first through fourth; thus, New Jersey defines criminal mischief as:

> a. Offense defined. A person is guilty of criminal mischief if he:
>
> (1) Purposely or knowingly damages tangible property of another or damages tangible property of another recklessly or negligently . . . .
>
> b. Grading.
>
> . . . .
>
> (2) Criminal mischief is a crime of the fourth degree if the actor causes pecuniary loss in excess of $500.00 but less than $2000.00.

[N.J.S.A. 2C:17-3.]

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the substantial equivalent of Va. Code Ann. §18.2-137 is N.J.S.A. 2C:17-3(a)(1), criminal mischief that caused damage greater than $1,000, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-3(b)(2), which disqualifies Jimenez from employment.[1]

Since N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 does not provide for consideration of any mitigating factors I further CONCLUDE that Jimenez is disqualified from employment with Southampton.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, I ORDER that Jiminez is DISQUALIFIED from employment from Southampton, DOE's Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, and Jimenez's Petition of Appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

[1] The DOE's Motion to Dismiss cites to "[a] crime involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property[.]" N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(1). However, as discussed above, I believe Jimenez's Virginia conviction is most comparable to a violation of criminal mischief under applicable New Jersey law.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 13, 2024
DATE

MAMTA PATEL, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 13, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: May 13, 2024

MP/dw

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

P-1, Letter of Appeal with supporting documentation

For respondent:

R-1A through R-1C, Motion to Dismiss with attached exhibits

235-24R
State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 1920-110
OAL Dkt. No. EDE-1212-2020
Agency Dkt. No. 10-12/22A

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of Theresa Guerriere, State Board of Examiners,
New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Revocation by the State Board of Examiners, December 9, 2022

For the Respondent-Appellant, Oded Weinstock, Esq.

For the Petitioner-Respondent, State Board of Examiners, Sadia Ahsanuddin, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

This matter is remanded to the State Board of Examiners for further proceedings consistent with the Appellate Division's decision in I/M/O the Certificates of Theresa Guerriere, State Board of Examiners, N.J. Dep't of Education, 2024 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1189 (App. Div. June 13, 2024).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 17, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 18, 2024

236-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Walden,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of North Bergen, Hudson County, and New Jersey Department of Education, Hudson County Office of Education, Respondents.

Synopsis

Petitioner, a homeowner and taxpayer in North Bergen, objected to the continued placement of trailers on Green Acres parkland to provide accommodations for preschool students in the Township of North Bergen. Petitioner is an active user of Braddock Park, a portion of which has been used since 2001 to house the North Bergen Preschool Program in trailers. Since petitioner moved to North Bergen in or about 2013, he has filed complaints with the Township, Hudson County, the North Bergen Board of Education (BOE), the NJ Department of Education (NJDOE), and the NJ Department of Environmental Protection (NJDEP), all related to the preschool program's use of allegedly unsafe trailers in the park. Petitioner seeks, inter alia, to have NJDOE rescind its approval of the use of the temporary classroom units and requests that NJDOE officials meet with the BOE to expedite movement of the preschool program to North Bergen's elementary schools as called for in the District's long-range plan. The respondents filed motions for summary decision, arguing that the matter was filed out of time and failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted by the Commissioner. These motions were denied, and the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) requested that the parties submit legal arguments on the jurisdiction and standing of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) to address the issues raised in the petition.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the OAL is without jurisdiction to address this matter at this time, especially in the absence of action by the NJDEP; petitioner lacks standing to commence this action against the NJDOE; the matter is not ripe for resolution without the determination of the NJDEP on the application for diversion of the Green Acres parkland; the New Jersey Constitution requires this matter to proceed in Superior Court; the Commissioner of Education does not have jurisdiction to hear this matter because, though a board of education is involved, the controversy does not arise solely under the school laws; the primary issue here is the diversion of Green Acre parkland; because this issue does not implicate the NJDOE's special expertise, the matter must be dismissed so that it may be decided in the appropriate forum. Accordingly, the ALJ dismissed the petition for lack of jurisdiction.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL with modification to note that the petitioner in this matter has failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted by the Commissioner. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

236-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03856-23
Agency Dkt. No. 5-1/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Walden,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township
North Bergen, Hudson County, and
New Jersey Department of Education,
Hudson County Office of Education,

Respondents.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, as modified. The Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner lacks sufficient interest in the outcome of this matter to establish standing as he will not be affected by it in a direct and meaningful way. Cantatore v. Bd. of Educ. of Carlstadt-East Rutherford Reg'l High Sch. Dist., Bergen Cnty., OAL Dkt. No. 05498-22, Initial Decision at 7-9, adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 153-23 (May 25, 2023).

The Commissioner further finds and concludes that, even assuming petitioner had established standing, the four specific remedies he seeks in his petition are not available to him under the school laws and regulations upon which he relies. While the Commissioner has jurisdiction to hear disputes arising under school laws and regulations, in this instance petitioner has failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted by the Commissioner. See Cardillo v. Bd. of Educ. of Paterson, Passaic Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 192-24 (May 15, 2024) (holding that a petition must be dismissed for failure to state a claim "if it has failed to articulate a legal basis entitling [petitioner] to relief").

Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed for the reasons stated herein.[1]

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 24, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 26, 2024

[1] As it is unnecessary to do so, the Commissioner declines to adopt the ALJ's conclusions that the New Jersey Constitution and judicial efficiency require this matter to proceed, if at all, in the Superior Court, and that the matter is not ripe for resolution.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSING PETITION FOR LACK OF STANDING AND JURISDICTION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03856-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 5-1/23

ROBERT WALDEN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTH BERGEN, HUDSON COUNTY, AND NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, HUDSON COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION
Respondents.

Renée Steinhagen, Esq., for petitioner (New Jersey Appleseed Public Interest Law Center of New Jersey, attorneys)

Kevin Hanly, Esq., for respondent Board of Education of the Township of North Bergen, Hudson County (Kevin Hanly, Esq., attorney)

Amna T. Toor, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent New Jersey Department of Education (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: March 25, 2024 Decided: May 29, 2024

BEFORE JOSEPH A. ASCIONE, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter involves petitioner Robert Walden's objection to the continued placement of trailers on Green Acres parkland to provide accommodations for preschool students in the Township of North Bergen. Petitioner is a homeowner, taxpayer, and voter in North Bergen. (Walden Cert. at ¶¶ 1, 20.) He is an active user of Braddock Park, a portion of which has been diverted to house the North Bergen Preschool Program in trailers. (Id. at ¶ 2.) The placement of the trailers dates back to 2001. Petitioner moved to North Bergen in or about 2013. Petitioner has filed several complaints with the Township, Hudson County, the North Bergen BOE, the State DOE, and the Department of Environmental Protection, about the preschool program's use of allegedly unsafe trailers in the park. (Id. at ¶ 7.) He has written several editorials about the alleged unsafe nature of the trailers, some of which were published. (Id. at ¶ 10.) He alleged in his certification, "Around 2021, I organized a group of local residents into the 'Save Braddock Park—Safe Schools' committee, an unincorporated member organization, dedicating [sic] to advocating for the removal of the trailers from Braddock Park and the proper integration of the preschool program into the Township's elementary schools and/or in a new facility." (Id. at ¶ 11.) Petitioner also runs a Facebook page for this group. (Id. at ¶ 13.)

Petitioner's reliefs sought are as follows:

> 1. Petitioner requests that the NJ DOE rescind its current approval and not grant further approvals to North Bergen to operate its old and unsafe Preschool [Temporary Classroom Units] based on the violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:26-3.13(g).
>
> 2. Petitioner requests that officials of NJ DOE meet with [the North Bergen] BOE to find a way to place all of North Bergen's preschoolers into the District's elementary schools > as North Bergen stated it would do, in its 2018 Long Range Facilities Plan. . . .

>
> 3. Petitioner requests NJ DOE to discipline . . . an employee of the NJ DOE Hudson County.
>
> 4. Petitioner requests NJ DOE to discipline . . . an employee of the North Bergen BOE.

Petitioner seeks a factual finding that North Bergen cannot house a temporary educational facility for more than five years. Petitioner's primary objection is the diversion of parkland, specifically Braddock Park, for the use of temporary educational facilities for prekindergarten students. The New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection is not a party to this matter. Petitioner is not an employee of the North Bergen Board of Education, nor does he have a student attending pre-kindergarten at the complained-of facilities, nor is he a parent or guardian of any student in the North Bergen school district.

On May 2, 2023, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Specifically, the forwarding document states, "Petitioner challenges Respondent's [sic] actions regarding the use of temporary classroom units."

Motions were originally filed by respondents for summary disposition based upon the action being out of time and failure to advance a cause of action. Those motions were denied in a letter order of August 29, 2023. The matter was assigned to the undersigned on November 14, 2023. Upon review of the petition, motions, and prior order, on January 5, 2024, the undersigned requested that the parties submit legal arguments on the jurisdiction and standing of the Office of Administrative Law to address the issues raised in this petition. Those submissions were made by February 29, 2024.

FACTS

The parties submitted their positions. The following facts are not disputed among the parties. Accordingly, I FIND AS FACT the following:

1. The initial trailers were installed sometime in 2001 on lands leased to the North Bergen Board of Education from the County of Hudson, known as Bruin Stadium, in Braddock Park.

2. Mr. Walden, the petitioner, is a resident of North Bergen, New Jersey. When he moved to North Bergen in 2013, the trailers were already in place.

3. The petitioner is not a parent or guardian of any child attending school in North Bergen.

4. The petitioner is not an employee of the North Bergen Board of Education.

5. The petitioner is not attending the complained-of facilities himself.

6. The petitioner alleges his damages to be his use and enjoyment of Braddock Park.

7. The petitioner alleges that his damages are the potential injuries to which the students who attend the facilities may be subject.

8. The petitioner seeks to have the Commissioner of Education discipline the superintendents of the North Bergen Board of Education and the Hudson County Board of Education for violations of N.J.A.C. 6A:26-3.13(g) and N.J.A.C. 6A:26-8.1.

9. North Bergen and the Hudson County Board of Education have a pending application for a diversion of Green Acres parkland for the continued use of the trailer facilities.

10. Whether the diversion is granted or not, the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection is an interested party in the resolution of this matter.

11. The petitioner has not distinguished himself from being a mere intermeddler or merely an interloper in the deliberative processes of the North Bergen and Hudson County boards of education.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

"To exercise jurisdiction over a dispute, an administrative agency must have specific legislative authority." Dolan v. Centuolo, Nos. A-2470-10T4, A-2710-10T4, at *11 (App. Div. July 9, 2012), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/appellate/a2710-10.opn.html (citing Archway Programs, Inc. v. Pemberton Twp. Bd. of Educ., 352 N.J. Super. 420, 426 (App. Div. 2002)). Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the Commissioner of Education > shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, without cost to the parties, all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws, excepting those governing higher education, or under the rules of the State board or of the commissioner.

>
> [Emphasis added.]

"Our courts have long recognized the sweep of the Commissioner's reviewing powers . . . ." Bd. of Educ. of E. Brunswick v. Twp. Council of E. Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 101 (1966). However, "the sweep of the Department's interest and the Commissioner's jurisdiction does not extend to all matters involving boards of education." Archway, 352 N.J. Super. at 424–25. "Where the controversy does not arise under the school laws, it is outside the Commissioner's jurisdiction even though it may pertain to school personnel." E. Brunswick, 48 N.J. at 102.

Although the matter involves a municipal and a county board of education, the dispute also involves the diversion of Green Acres parkland. The pending application for a diversion by the respondents makes the matter not ripe for a separate resolution.

Petitioner argues that the Commissioner has jurisdiction over the matter because "[t]he within dispute is a case in controversy arising under the school laws, (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 et seq.)." Pet'r's Br. at 8. However, petitioner ignores the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:26-8.1(v), which contemplate that temporary facilities may continue for more than an initial term and extensions. Petitioner also fails to address the absence of the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection in this matter. The denial of the application for diversion or its granting has a significant bearing on the respondents' future actions. That issue does not implicate the Department of Education's special expertise. It is for this reason that the matter should be decided in Superior Court, where it was originally filed.

The jurisdictional concept of standing requires that "a particular litigant must have sufficient interest in the subject of the litigation so that a genuine clash between opposing viewpoints will be presented." U.K. & G.K. ex rel. D.K. v. Clifton Bd. of Educ., 1992 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 5134, *8–9 (Oct. 14, 1992) (citing Kenwood v. Montclair Bd. of Educ., EDU 8858-81, initial decision (Apr. 23, 1982), adopted, Comm'r (June 14, 1982)), aff'd, Comm'r (Nov. 20, 1992). To establish standing, a litigant must show 1) that he has "a sufficient stake in the outcome of the proceedings," and 2) that his position is "truly adverse to the opposing party." Id. at *10 (citing Home Builders League of So. Jersey v. Berlin Twp., 81 N.J. 127, 132 (1979)). New Jersey courts and administrative agencies have been generous when recognizing standing and have liberally allowed individuals even with only "tangential interest to assert a claim." Id. at 9. Nevertheless, courts have declined to entertain proceedings brought by parties "'who are mere intermeddlers' or 'merely interlopers or strangers to the dispute.'" Ibid. (citing Crescent Park Tenants Ass'n v. Reality Equities Corp., 58 N.J. 98, 107 (1971)).

Restrictions on standing also apply to those who initiate administrative proceedings before the Commissioner. For such proceedings, the Commissioner has clarified through regulation as well as case law that only an "interested person," one who "will be substantially, specifically, and directly affected by the outcome of [the] controversy," may initiate such proceedings. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2; Bedminster Educ. Ass'n v. Bedminster Twp. Bd. of Educ., EDU 6720-05, final decision (June 16, 2006), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/final/edu6720-05.pdf; U.K. & G.K., 1992 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 5134 at *10–11.[1] Consequently, petitioners must show that they will "be affected by the outcome in a direct and meaningful way" before they may proceed in a contested case. U.K. & G.K., 1992 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 5134 at *11; see also Kenwood.

Petitioners have lacked standing when challenging the disciplinary action imposed on a student whom the petitioner did not have custody of (but was a student who harmed the child of the petitioner), U.K. & G.K.; the quality of education received by students in a school the petitioner's child no longer attended, Lobis v. Maple Shade Bd. of Educ., EDU 3630-79, initial decision (June 11, 1980), adopted, Comm'r (Aug. 11, 1980), aff'd, St. Bd. (Nov. 5, 1980); a high school attendance policy after the petitioner's child graduated, G.G. v. New Providence Bd. of Educ., 1975 S.L.D. 502; or when the petitioner had no children in the district public schools, Kenwood. However, petitioners have been determined "interested" when challenging the validity of board actions in the hiring of a superintendent in a district where they pay taxes and where their children attend the public schools, Salette v. Randolph Twp. Bd. of Educ., EDU 2126-83, initial decision (Nov. 28, 1983), adopted, Comm'r (Jan. 1, 1984).

Taxpayers do have standing to bring suit in several instances. See Loigman v. Twp. Comm. of Middletown, 297 N.J. Super. 287, 296 (App. Div. 1997) (discussing instances where a taxpayer does have standing). However, a taxpayer does not have standing to compel expenditures of public funds, as such would "cripple the government's ability to function properly." Ibid. A "taxpayer lacks standing for what on the state or county government level would be the equivalent of an executive branch responsibility." Id. at 298.

---

[1] The term "interested person" is defined at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2 but is not used in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3 with regard to who may initiate a contested case. However, the term is used in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1 with regard to who may petition for a declaratory ruling. Although the term appears in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1 and not N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2, the term has been applied to determine whether a person has standing in a dispute and controversy under the education laws as far back as 1979. See Ricciardelli v. Kittrels, EDU 1894-79, initial decision (Sept. 26, 1979), adopted, Comm'r (Nov. 16. 1979) (ruling that non-taxpayer with no child in district schools had no standing to bring dispute over validity and legality of board's action because it did not meet definition of "interested person"). This application has been continued until the present day, as revealed in the cases cited throughout this discussion. See also McKenna & MacMurren v. Bd. of Educ. of the Andover Reg'l High Sch. Dist., 2011 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 648, n.7.

Here, petitioner has failed to demonstrate that he will be "substantially, specifically, and directly affected by the outcome of [this] controversy." See N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2. He does not have children in this preschool program. He is not specifically affected by the trailers being present in Braddock Park, as all parkgoers and taxpayers are affected by their presence. The only interest petitioner has demonstrated in the instant case is that this is a social issue he cares about and that he is a taxpayer in North Bergen. This is not enough to amount to standing.

It is commendable that petitioner is attempting to obtain "remedial action on behalf of the North Bergen public, including its predominantly low-income, minority pre-school children." Pet'r's Br. at n.1. However, "the ability of taxpayers to challenge governmental action is not unlimited. Taxpayers may not assert the constitutional rights of another. . . . There must be a substantial likelihood the plaintiff will experience some harm if the court returns an unfavorable decision." Loigman, 297 N.J. Super. at 295. Without the threat of some harm that is specific to petitioner, rather than harm that faces the entirety of the North Bergen public, petitioner has no stake in the outcome of the proceedings. As such, petitioner cannot initiate the proceeding in the instant matter, as he is not an interested party.

Petitioner argues that respondent has violated several provisions, including N.J.A.C. 7:36-25.2[2] (an environmental regulation under the Green Acres Program), as well as N.J.A.C. 6A:26-8.1[3] and N.J.A.C. 6A:26-3.13(g),[4] sections of the Educational Facilities and Construction Financing Act (EFCFA).

---

[2] "[A] local government unit shall not divert to a use other than recreation and conservation purposes or dispose of any funded or unfunded parkland unless the local government unit obtains prior approval from the Commissioner and the State House Commission in accordance with N.J.A.C. 7:36-26. The diversion or disposal of funded or unfunded parkland by a local government unit without the approval of the Commissioner and the State House Commission is void and of no legal effect." N.J.A.C. 7:36-25.2(a). This allegation will not be further considered, as respondents North Bergen Board of Education and NJ Department of Education do not have any relation to or authority around environmental issues."

[3] This provision outlines that temporary classroom units (TCUs) must be annually inspected. It also outlines what conditions must be met for these TCUs to be used. N.J.A.C. 6A:26-8.1.

[4] "A temporary facility may be approved by the Division for a term of two years, with three annual renewals if the school district, or the Development Authority on behalf of the school district, demonstrates satisfactory progress toward the provision of permanent facilities. No such approval shall remain in effect or be eligible for renewal unless the executive county superintendent determines in consultation with the Division and upon inspection of the temporary facility that:

1. The temporary facility meets the educational—adequacy and temporary—facility standards

The EFCFA was "adopted to ensure that the educational facilities in the State are safe, healthy, and educationally adequate to support the delivery of the thorough and efficient education to which all students are entitled." N.J.A.C. 6A:26-1.1. It is important to note that "powers expressly granted to an administrative agency should be liberally construed so that the agency can fulfill the Legislature's purpose, and that an agency's express authority is augmented by such incidental authority as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to effectuate the expressly delegated authority." Bd. of Educ. of Upper Freehold Reg'l Sch. Dist. v. State Health Benefits Com'n, 314 N.J. Super. 486, 492 (App. Div. 1998) (quoting In re Solid Waste Utility Customer Lists, 106 N.J. 508, 516 (1987) (citations omitted)).

Respondents argue that the OAL does not have jurisdiction over the instant case.

The Office of Administrative Law (OAL) acquires jurisdiction over a matter under the EFCFA "only after it has been determined to be a contested case by an agency head and has been filed with the [OAL] or as otherwise authorized by law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.2(a). The case has been transmitted to the OAL, so at issue is only whether this case is a "contested case."

A contested case refers to "an adversary proceeding . . . in which the legal rights, duties, obligations, privileges, benefits or other legal relations of specific parties are required by constitutional right or by statute to be determined by an agency by decisions, determinations, or orders, addressed to them or disposing of their interests, after opportunity for an agency hearing." N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1; see also N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2. Contested cases "are not informational nor intended to provide a forum for the expression of public sentiment on proposed agency action or broad policy issues affecting entire industries or large, undefined classes of people." N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1. To as specified in this chapter;

---

2. The school district or approved private school for the disabled demonstrates through the LRFP or other plan, in the case of the approved private school for the disabled, that students housed in the temporary facility will be housed in permanent school facilities; and
3. The temporary facility meets N.J.A.C. 5:23 requirements for a certificate of occupancy for "E" (educational) group use."

[N.J.A.C. 6A:26-3.13(g).]

determine if a dispute is a contested case, three questions must be answered affirmatively. "First, is a hearing required by statute or constitutional provision; second, will the hearing result in an adjudication concerning rights, duties, obligations, privileges, benefits or other legal relations; and third, does the hearing involve specific parties rather than a large segment of the public?" Upper Freehold Reg'l Sch. Dist., 314 N.J. Super. at 494 (citation omitted).

The answer to the first question is unclear, but likely in the negative. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.11, "[u]pon the filing of the petition and answer(s) in a contested case, where the Commissioner does not determine to dismiss the matter . . . , the Commissioner may either retain the matter for hearing directly and individually . . . or transmit the matter for hearing before the OAL." Thus, a hearing is required if certain requirements are met, including if the case is a contested case. However, to determine if a case is a contested case, one of the determinative questions is whether a hearing is required. This is a circular analysis.

The answer to the second question is clearly in the affirmative. Respondent North Bergen Board of Education is currently using trailers, "temporary classroom units" (TCUs) to house their preschool program. See Resp't's Br. at 2. A hearing leading to the determination as to whether respondent has violated N.J.A.C. 6A:26-3.13(g) by using TCUs will impact the duties and obligations of respondent to provide permanent classrooms.

The answer to the third question is in the negative. Respondent North Bergen and Board of Education and Hudson County are specific parties, and their rights and obligations would be determined by the outcome of this proceeding. However, petitioner states in his brief that he is seeking "remedial action on behalf of the North Bergen public, including its predominantly low-income, minority pre-school children." Pet'r's. Br. at n.1. Compelling respondent Board of Education to act would not confer benefits onto petitioner, but rather the North Bergen public at large. This is not a specific party.

As one of these questions was not answered in the affirmative, the OAL does not have jurisdiction over this matter.

The absence of a decision by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection on the respondents' application for a diversion makes the matter not ripe for action at this time. The New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection is an indispensable party to the within action to resolve all of the issues raised by the petitioner.

Petitioner argues that the New Jersey Constitution, article VI, section 5 paragraph 4, provides, "Prerogative writs are superseded and, in lieu thereof, review, hearing and relief shall be afforded in the Superior Court, on terms and in the manner provided by rules of the Supreme Court . . . ." Yet, petitioner filed a complaint with the Department of Education, arguing that exhaustion of administrative remedies will be required. Petitioner fails to recognize the limited jurisdiction of the Office of Administrative Law; it is up to a Superior Court judge to direct the resolution of this matter, allowing for the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection to conclude its determination and then direct any necessary fact finding by the Department of Education if necessary.

The initial placement of the facilities may have proceeded without applying for a diversion under the Green Acres program. The diversion application has been made and is pending with the Department of Environmental Protection. If the diversion is granted, permanent facilities can be built at the present location. If the Department of Environmental Protection denies the diversion, then the Township of North Bergen will be compelled to relocate the temporary facilities. The actions of the petitioner are expenses the taxpayers of North Bergen and the County, with no foreseeable resolution pending the resolution of the Department of Environmental Protection. There is no question that a citizen cannot compel the discipline of civil service employees. This tribunal sees no wrongdoing.

CONCLUSION

I CONCLUDE that the Office of Administrative Law is without jurisdiction to address this matter at this time, especially in the absence of action by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection.

I CONCLUDE that the petitioner lacks standing to commence this action with the Department of Education.

I CONCLUDE that the matter is not ripe for resolution without the determination of the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection on the application for a diversion of the Green Acres parkland.

I CONCLUDE that the New Jersey Constitution requires that this action proceed in the Superior Court.

I CONCLUDE that in the interest of judicial efficiency this matter should be prosecuted, if at all, in the Superior Court.

I CONCLUDE that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear this dispute. Although the matter involves a board of education, the controversy does not arise only under the school laws. Rather, the primary issue is the diversion of Green Acres parkland. Because this does not implicate the Department of Education's special expertise, the matter must be dismissed so that it may be decided in the appropriate forum.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the petition be DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

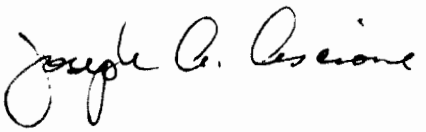
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



May 29, 2024
DATE

JOSEPH A. ASCIONE, ALJ (Ret., on recall)

Date Received at Agency: May 29, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: May 29, 2024

/jaa/cc/mph

APPENDIX

LIST OF EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

P-1 Petitioner's Letter Brief, dated 2/29/2024

P-2 Certification of Counsel with exhibits A-F, dated 2/29/2024

P-3 Certification of Robert Walden with exhibits A-B, dated 2/29/2024

For Respondents:

RNB-1 Certification of George Solter with exhibits1-2, dated 2/27/2024

RNB-2 Memorandum of Law, dated 2/28/2024

R-NJDOE-1 New Jersey Department of Education Letter Brief, dated 3/1/2024

237-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03380-23
Agency Dkt. No. 85-3/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Mellk Cridge, LLC,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Woodbridge, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Release and Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 1 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 24, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 26, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

FINAL DECISION
APPROVING SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03380-2023
AGENCY DKT. NO. 85-3/23

MELLK CRIDGE, LLC,
Petitioners,
v.
WOODBRIDGE TOWNSHIP
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
MIDDLESEX COUNTY
Respondent.

Arnold M. Mellk, Esq., petitioner (Mellk Cridge, LLC, attorney)

Rita F. Barone, Esq. for respondent Woodbridge Township Board of Education (Flanagan Barone & O'Brien, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 23, 2024 Decided: May 24, 2024

BEFORE JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on April 21, 2023, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Release and Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein. This Release and Settlement Agreement resolves all disputes.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by petitioner's signature on the attached Release and Settlement Agreement and the attached resolution of respondent Board of Education.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

.

May 24, 2024
DATE

Judith Lieberman
JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 5/24/2024

Date Mailed to Parties: 5/24/2024

JL/mg
Attachment

RELEASE AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, MELLK CRIDGE LLC, having an address at 211 Blackwell Road, Pennington, NJ ("Releasor") is a New Jersey Law firm; and

WHEREAS, Yguence Jean-Baptiste ("Mr. Baptiste") was a School Bus Driver employed by the Woodbridge Township School District Board of Education, Atlantic County, New Jersey (hereinafter the "Board"); and

WHEREAS, Mr. Baptiste was charged with the motor vehicle offense of Careless Driving in the matter of State v. Yguence Jean-Baptiste, Ticket No. 58 979, which ticket issued from the Woodbridge Township Municipal Court (the "Complaint"); and

WHEREAS, The Releasor appeared and defended Mr. Baptiste in connection with the Complaint; and

WHEREAS, the Complaint against Mr. Baptiste was ultimately dismissed; and;

WHEREAS, Releasor has demanded that the Board pay to Releasor the costs and fees associated with Mr. Baptiste 's defense pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1; and has filed a Petition with the Commissioner of Education captioned MELLK CRIDGE LLC v. Woodbridge Township School District Board of Education, Department of Education Agency Docket No. 251-9/22; OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09083-22 314-11/23 (the "Petition") in furtherance of said claim; and,

WHEREAS, in order to avoid expense, expenditure of time, and the uncertainty of litigation, and without admitting any liability whatsoever, both Releasor and the Board wish to fully and finally settle all claims that Releasor may have against the Board, including its predecessors, successors, assigns, and its former and current members, officers, directors, representatives, employees, agents, insurers, and indemnitors, individually, collectively and in their official and individual capacities (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Releasees") arising from this matter;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual agreements, conditions and covenants contained in this document, and for other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which both parties acknowledge, the Board, and Releasor agree as follows:

1: Upon its receipt of this Agreement, fully executed by Releasor, The Board shall issue payment to Releasor, by way of check payable to MELLK CRIDGE LLC, in the amount of Three Thousand Six Hundred and Twenty-Seven Dollars and Thirty-Six Cents ($3,627.36).

2: Upon receipt of the payment set forth in paragraph 1 above, Releasor, on its behalf and on behalf of its behalf of its partners, shareholders, members, officers, directors, employees, representatives, administrators, successors, successors in interest, and assigns, hereby, freely and unconditionally, waives, releases and forever discharges Releasees from all possible claims, complaints, liabilities, promises, obligations, demands, agreements, damages, debts, dues, sums of money, covenants, and lawsuits, whether presently known or unknown, which may have arisen from the beginning of time through the date of Releasor's signature on this Agreement with respect to the aforesaid costs and fees associated with the defense of Mr. Baptiste in connection with the Complaint. Upon receipt of the payment set forth in paragraph 1 above, Releasor shall further file a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice as to the Petition with the Commissioner of Education and/or State of New Jersey, Office of Administrative Law, and/or take the action necessary to effectuate the dismissal of same.

3: The signatory below hereby declares and represents that that he is duly authorized and empowered to make this Release; that he has never been declared incompetent by any court or administrative agency; that no representation respecting the nature and extent of any injuries, disabilities, damages, legal liability or financial responsibility made by any representative, attorney, agent or employee of Releasees has induced Releasor to make this settlement; that in determining the sum it has accepted, Releasor has taken into account not only the ascertained injuries, but also unknown and/or unanticipated injuries, disabilities, losses and damages to which it recognizes and agrees this Release shall also apply.

4: It is understood that the parties hereby released admit no liability of any sort, for injury, loss or damage of any kind, incident, act, casualty or event. It is further recognized and understood that this Release constitutes the good faith compromise of disputed claims, and is made in good faith to terminate any further controversy respecting all claims for damages that Releasor may have heretofore asserted or might hereafter assert because of any incidents, acts, casualties, or events, described or alluded to hereinabove.

5: Releasor also covenants and agrees that:

a: This Release may be pleaded as a defense to any action or other proceeding which may be brought or instituted against Releasees in breach hereof.

b: This release will serve to discharge all claims made or claims which could have been made by or on behalf of Mr. Baptiste with respect to the costs and fees which are the subject matter of this Release. Releasor represents that to the best of its knowledge, information, and belief, Mr. Baptiste did not receive legal services from anyone other than Releasor in connection with the defense of the Complaint, and has no claim for any legal fees, other than those sought by Releasor, in connection with the defense of the Complaint. Releasor will hold harmless and indemnify Releasees from and for any and all actions, causes of action, damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in defense of or in settlement of all actions, causes of action, suit or suits, or demands, third-party or otherwise, which may be brought or made against said Releasees arising out of the matters discharged and released hereby.

6: Releasor agrees and understands that Releasor is solely responsible for any and all tax obligations resulting from payments made pursuant to this Release, if any, including, but not limited to, all reporting and payment obligations which may arise from the payment of the settlement consideration. Releasor further agrees that it will indemnify Releasees from any liability resulting or arising from non-payment of any such tax obligations.

7: This Release contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and the terms of this Release and Settlement Agreement are contractual and not a mere recital.

RELEASOR FURTHER STATES that the undersigned has carefully read the foregoing Release and Settlement Agreement and knows the contents hereof, and signs the same as his own voluntary free act.

SIGNED AND DATED this 24th day of April, 2024

MELLK CRIDGE LLC

By: Arnold M. Mellk, Esq.
Managing Partner

WITNESSETH:

Edward A. Cridge, Esq.
NJ Attorney Identification Number 026462006

The Finance and Insurance Committee, on recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools and the Business Administrator/Board Secretary, presented the following:

14. That the Board of Education approve the Settlement Agreement in the matter entitled Mellk Cridge, LLC v. Woodbridge Township Board of Education, Agency Reference Claim No. 22GL00719S, and resolve the dispute in the amount of $3,500.00.

* *

I, Brian Wolferman, Business Administrator and Secretary of the Board of Education, Township of Woodbridge, hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and exact copy of the Resolution approved at the Board of Education meeting held April 25, 2024.

Brian Wolferman
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

nl

May 1, 2024

238-24
State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 1617-209
Agency Dkt. No. 4-2/24A

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Application for Certification After Revocation of Karen A. Bobb, State Board of Examiners, New Jersey Department of Education.

Order Denying Certification After Revocation, dated January 19, 2024

Respondent-Appellant, appearing pro se

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, Sadia Ahsannudin, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record and submissions filed in connection with Karen A. Bobb's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board), dated January 19, 2024, denying her application for certification after revocation.

In denying Bobb's application, the Board concluded that she had not provided evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct which led to the revocation of her substitute credential in 2018. It determined that documentation substantiating expungement of her criminal conviction alone was insufficient to demonstrate rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b), and that nothing had changed other than the passage of time.[1]

[1] Although the Board's order repeatedly references a prior "conviction for child abuse" which led to the revocation of Bobb's substitute credential and her permanent disqualification from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, the record contains no evidence of said conviction. See In the Matter of the Certificates of Daniel L. DeJesus, State Board of Examiners, Commissioner Decision No. 58-24 (January 22, 2024), at 7 ("A guilty plea taken

On appeal, Bobb asserts that she does not abuse children and that her decision to leave her minor son at home unsupervised was not made lightly. She describes the circumstances surrounding the incident, which included difficulty registering her son for school. She further asserts that she completed all court mandated parent training programs and weekly probation meetings, and that her son was returned to her custody. In response, the Board contends that Bobb has presented new information to the Commissioner relevant to rehabilitation that she did not provide to the Board. Therefore, the Board argues that Bobb's statements regarding rehabilitation should not be considered because they are outside the record. Moreover, the Board emphasizes that Bobb has not presented it with any objective evidence of rehabilitation.

"[A] decision by the Board denying an application for a certificate is not entitled to the arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable standard of review that is afforded to appeals filed under N.J.A.C. 6A:4, challenging a decision of the Board revoking or suspending a certificate." Jaroslaw Nimczyk v. New Jersey Department of Education, State Board of Examiners, Commissioner Decision No. 98-22 (May 16, 2022), at 2. Instead, "the appropriate standard of review . . . is whether the decision is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions." Id. at 2-3. The Board cannot issue a new certificate or credential to an applicant whose certificate or credential was revoked unless the applicant satisfies the requirements set forth at in connection with admission to the PTI [pretrial intervention] program does not automatically result in the entry of a judgment of conviction."). The Board's Order to Show Cause, issued November 1, 2017, indicates that Bobb received an Order of Postponement on October 20, 2017, in connection with the underlying criminal matter and was admitted into the PTI program for a period of 24 months. As a reminder, a guilty plea entered as a condition of admission to PTI "has no force or effect, unless PTI is violated. It is neither a judgment of conviction nor an adjudication." State v. Lavrik, 472 N.J. Super. 192, 216 (App. Div. 2022). The Expungement Order provided to the Board by appellant, filed in Hudson County Superior Court in February 2021, expunged all records related to "Arrest/custody on the charge of violating N.J.S.A. 9:6-1 on October 14, 2016" and all records concerning subsequent criminal proceedings regarding the charge.

---

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b)(3) requires that an applicant supply "evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct, incompetence, or other cause for the revocation." The applicant bears the burden of demonstrating, by a preponderance of evidence, that the Board improperly denied the application for certification after revocation. Harriman v. New Jersey Department of Education, State Board of Examiners, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02542-21 (January 29, 2024), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 129-24 (March 11, 2024).

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that Bobb failed to demonstrate, by a preponderance of evidence, that the Board improperly denied her application for certification after revocation. The record before the Board did not contain sufficient evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct—i.e., leaving her minor son at home unsupervised—which resulted in the revocation of her certificate. Although Bobb references evidence of rehabilitation in her submission to the Commissioner that could potentially satisfy the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, including completion of all court mandated parent training programs and weekly probation meetings, she failed to provide the Board with documentation to support these claims. Thus, the Board's decision to deny Bobb's application for certification after revocation—based upon the record it had before it as of January 19, 2024—is consistent with applicable regulatory provisions.

Accordingly, the Commissioner is constrained to dismiss this matter without prejudice. Bobb may reapply to the Board for certification after revocation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9 and submit objective evidence of rehabilitation for the Board's consideration, including but not limited to documentation regarding successful completion of court mandated parent training programs, completion of the PTI program, attendance at weekly probation meetings, and compliance with all conditions imposed by the court. As the Board previously suggested to Bobb, she may also wish to include a letter or statement accompanying any documentation she provides which further addresses her rehabilitation efforts.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 24, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 26, 2024

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE APPLICATION FOR	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
CERTIFICATION AFTER	:	DECISION
REVOCATION	:	DOCKET NO. 1617-209
OF	:
KAREN A. BOBB	:
_____	:

On September 21, 2018, the State Board of Examiners (Board) voted to revoke Karen A. Bobb's teaching certificate as a result of her conviction for Child Abuse and resulting disqualification from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 to -7.3. Bobb previously held a substitute credential.

Bobb is now seeking certification after revocation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. In support of her application, Bobb sent a few emails to the Board and submitted a Final Order of Expungement, dated February 23, 2021.

On October 17, 2023, Bobb communicated that she wanted to re-apply for her substitute credential. The Board provided Bobb with a copy of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, the regulation governing the filing of an application for certification after revocation. Further, the Board stated that an application to the Board should include detailed reasons why the Board should grant a request to apply for a new certificate. On October 19, 2023, Bobb wrote that she would like the opportunity to apply for a new substitute certificate and that all matters relating to her previous conviction were satisfied with the help of her attorney. She attached the Final Order of Expungement to her correspondence. On October 20, 2023, The Board acknowledged receipt of the expungement information, advised Bobb that the matter would be presented to the State Board of Examiners for review at an upcoming meeting, and suggested Bobb may want to submit a letter or statement to the Board to accompany the documentation she provided. On November 21, 2023, Bobb stated that the matter that caused her revocation had been satisfied accordingly. She also indicated that her participation in the PTI program was sufficient for the offense.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, which governs applications for certification after revocation, provides:

> (a) A certificate that has been revoked for any of the grounds set forth in this chapter shall not be reinstated. An individual who has had a certificate revoked may file an application for a new certificate with the Board of Examiners.
>
> (b) The Board of Examiners shall not issue a new certificate to a candidate whose certificate(s) has been revoked unless the following conditions are met:
>
> 1. The candidate shall satisfy all criteria for the issuance of the certificate that are in effect at the time of the application for the new certificate;
>
> 2. At least four years shall have passed since the effective date of the revocation of the previous certificate(s);
>
> 3. The candidate provided evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct, incompetence, or other cause for the revocation;
>
> 4. If the revocation was due to the conviction of a crime that is not disqualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq., the candidate has submitted evidence that he or she has been fully rehabilitated in accordance with N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-2 and that issuing a certificate to the candidate would not be detrimental to the public welfare;
>
> 5. The candidate shall have complied with all conditions imposed by the revocation order; and
>
> 6. If the revocation arose from a criminal matter involving the candidate, the candidate provided evidence that he or she has satisfied any condition imposed by the court, probation, plea bargain agreement or any other entity.
>
> (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (b) above, the Board of Examiners shall not issue a new certificate to any candidate who is:

> 1. Ordered to forfeit certification as part of a settlement in a tenure or criminal proceeding;
>
> 2. Barred from teaching again in the State of New Jersey by order of a court of competent jurisdiction;
>
> 3. Ordered to forfeit certification as part of a plea bargain;
>
> 4. Ordered to forfeit certification as a condition for entrance into a pre-trial intervention program as set forth in Rule 3.28 of the New Jersey Court Rules;
>
> 5. Ordered to forfeit certification pursuant to a sentence imposed in a criminal proceeding;
>
> 6. Barred from teaching for any reason; or
>
> 7. Relinquishing his or her certificate pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.10.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9.]

Of relevance to Bobb's current application is subsection (b)3, which provides that the Board shall not issue a certificate to an individual after revocation when that candidate has not provided evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct, incompetence, or other cause for the revocation. Nothing in the record before us convinces the Board that Bobb has met her burden of proving rehabilitation. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, Bobb must provide information to this tribunal as to the circumstances leading to the revocation of her prior certificate and demonstrate rehabilitation that warrants the issuance of a new one.

After a thorough review of Bobb's submission, the Board determines that she has not adequately demonstrated rehabilitation. Bob has provided documentation substantiating the expungement of her criminal conviction. However, that evidence alone is insufficient to demonstrate the necessary rehabilitation as expungement cannot adequately mitigate her deplorable conduct many years ago. Bobb has not provided any objective indicia of rehabilitation regarding her guilty plea to child abuse resulting in disqualification from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 to -7.3.

Clearly, Bobb cannot lay claim to being a role model for students. Importantly, the egregiousness of a conviction for child abuse cannot be overlooked or easily excused, especially when no evidence of rehabilitation has been demonstrated. Nothing has changed since the incident other than the passage of time. The Board revoked Bobb's certificate based on the finding of unbecoming conduct relating to a conviction of child abuse and resulting disqualification from public school employment. She was not fit to teach in New Jersey when her certificate was revoked in 2018 and she has not proven otherwise now. Absent a demonstration of compliance with the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b), the Board finds no basis upon which to overturn that determination.

Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, on December 8th, 2023, the Board voted to deny Karen A. Bobb's application for certification after revocation. On this 19th day of January 2024 the Board voted to adopt its formal written decision and it is therefore ORDERED that the application of Karen A. Bobb for certification after revocation is denied.

Rani Singh, Secretary
State Board of Examiners

RS/LF
Date of Mailing:
via certified and regular mail

Appeals may be made to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.

239-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Curcio,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, a former employee of the respondent Board, filed a petition requesting that the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education provide him with full indemnification in a lawsuit filed against him in Superior Court. The Board has retained an attorney, who filed an answer to the lawsuit on the Board's and petitioner's behalf, but there have yet to be any other proceedings in the Superior Court case. The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition, which was opposed by the petitioner.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner was employed by the Board from August 1974 to August 2003, and served as the Director of Athletics and Student Activities from January 1984 until his retirement from the District; in 2023, a lawsuit was filed in Superior Court alleging that between 1982 and 1986, two former students were sexually abused by a track coach who worked under the supervision of the petitioner when he served as Director of Athletics for the school district; the lawsuit alleges that petitioner negligently supervised the track coach, thereby enabling the abusive conduct to occur; N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 addresses indemnification for school employees, holding that a board of education must defray all costs for any civil action brought against an employee for any act or omission arising out of the performance of the duties of the employee's position; here, it is not yet possible to know whether petitioner was acting within the scope of his duties as more than 40 years have elapsed since the alleged incidents occurred, and there has been no discovery or hearing to date; the Board has already provided petitioner with a defense in this matter, and he has suffered no harm, and is not likely to suffer any harm in the future as long as the Board maintains the status quo. The ALJ concluded that petitioner's request for full indemnification is not yet ripe for determination, and the Board is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law. Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss was granted without prejudice, and the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

239-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04142-24
Agency Dkt. No. 40-2/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Curcio,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the issue of petitioner's entitlement to indemnification is not ripe for review, because the facts have yet to be developed and it is not possible at this stage in the proceedings to determine whether petitioner was acting within the scope of his employment. While Azzaro v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Trenton, 477 N.J. Super. 427 (App. Div. 2023), requires an employee to provide notice to the board of education that he is seeking indemnification within a reasonable time after the initiation of an action against him, it does not require that the Commissioner decide the question of entitlement to indemnification prior to the conclusion of the action filed against the employee.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 24, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 26, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04142-24

AGENCY DKT. NO. 40-2/24

ROBERT CURCIO,

Petitioner,

v.

SOUTH ORANGE MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Vito Gagliardi, Esq., for petitioner (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C., attorneys)

Patrick Carrigg, Esq., for respondent (Lenox Law Firm, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 14, 2024 Decided: May 22, 2024

BEFORE ANDREA PERRY VILLANI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Robert Curcio, former school employee, asks the South Orange Maplewood Board of Education (Board) to indemnify him in a lawsuit. The Board retained an attorney and filed an answer on his behalf, but there have been no other proceedings in the case. Is Curcio's request for full indemnification ripe for determination? No. A case is not ripe when there's no hardship to the parties and the issues are not yet fit for judicial review. K. Hovnanian Cos. of N. Cent. Jersey, Inc. v. N.J. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 379 N.J. Super. 1, 9 (App. Div. 2005).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 26, 2024, Curcio filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education seeking an order requiring the Board to indemnify him under N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.

On March 20, 2024, the Board filed a Motion to Dismiss.

On March 22, 2024, the Department of Education transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On March 28, 2024, Curcio filed Opposition to the Motion to Dismiss, and on April 10, 2024, the Board filed a Reply to Curcio's Opposition.

On April 15, 2024, I held a prehearing telephone conference. Counsel agreed that no material facts are in dispute, and that I should render a decision as a matter of law.

On May 14, 2024, counsel submitted a Joint Statement of Material Facts, and I closed the record.

FINDINGS OF FACTS

Counsel submitted a Joint Statement of Material Facts as follows and, as such, I FIND as FACT:

1. Respondent South Orange Maplewood Board of Education (Board) is established under the laws of the State of New Jersey and is the governing body of the South Orange Maplewood School District.

2. The Board supervises, controls, and regulates each of the public schools located within the District, including Columbia High School (CHS).

3. Curcio was the former Director of Athletics and Student Activities at the District.

4. Curcio was employed by the Board from August 1974 to August 2003.

5. Curcio served as the Director of Athletics and Student Activities from January 1984 until his retirement from the District.

6. On July 24, 2023, an individual identified only as "Jane Doe" filed suit against the District, the former principal of CHS, and a former CHS teacher and track coach named Leonard Klepack (Defendant Klepack) in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Mercer County, Law Division, Civil Part under docket number MER-L-1412-23 (Superior Court Action). (J-1.)

7. In the Superior Court Action, Jane Doe alleged that Defendant Klepack abused her from 1982 to 1986 while he was her track coach. (J-1.)

8. On November 6, 2023, a First Amended Complaint was filed in the Superior Court Action with leave of the Superior Court. (J-2.)

9. The First Amended Complaint added a second plaintiff (Plaintiff Two) to the Superior Court Action and re-designated Jane Doe as "Plaintiff One." (J-2.)

10. The First Amended Complaint also named Curcio as a defendant in the Superior Court Action. (J-2.)

11. The First Amended Complaint alleges that Curcio "negligently supervised Defendant Klepack and lacked or failed to comply with rules, policies, guidelines or regulations which enabled Defendant Klepack to sexually abuse Plaintiff One." (J-2.)

12. The First Amended Complaint further alleges that Curcio "failed to supervise Defendant Klepack in school and when he took Plaintiff Two to track meets and competitions alone" and "exercised no oversight or supervision of Defendant Klepack and failed to request or require permission or authorization by Plaintiff Two's parents to allow Plaintiff Two to travel to track meets alone with Defendant Klepack." (J-2.)

13. The First Amended Complaint also alleges that Curcio "lacked or failed to comply with policies, rules, guidelines or regulations when Defendant Klepack took Plaintiff Two to multiple track events and sexually abused her in motels and hotels." (J-2.)

14. The First Amended Complaint in the Superior Court Action alleges that Curcio negligently supervised Defendant Klepack. (J-2.)

15. On December 4, 2023, Curcio's counsel wrote to counsel for the Board demanding that the Board provide Curcio with full indemnity pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6. (J-3.)

16. On December 11, 2023, the New Jersey Schools Insurance Group (NJSIG) issued a coverage and reservation of rights letter and agreed to provide the District and Curcio with a defense in the Superior Court Action. (J-4.)

17. The NJSIG letter disclaimed coverage for any claims by Plaintiff One occurring prior to July 1, 1985 because the policies it issued only covered the period from July 1, 1985 to July 1, 1988. (J-4.)

18. Furthermore, the NJSIG letter disclaimed coverage for any claims by Plaintiff Two occurring after July 1, 1988 for the same reason. (J-4.)

19. On December 19, 2023, the District's insurance carrier, Chubb, issued a Coverage and Reservation of Rights letter and agreed to provide the District and Curcio with a defense in the Superior Court Action. (J-5.)

20. Chubb expressly disclaimed coverage of any claims asserted by Plaintiff Two because her alleged injuries occurred outside the policy's coverage period. (J-5.)

21. Chubb also determined that "the 1986-1987 INA Policy would likewise not apply to Plaintiff Two's claims of negligent supervision against Curcio." (J-5.)

22. Chubb further determined that, notwithstanding its decision to provide a defense to Curcio, it "may nevertheless owe no indemnification to Curcio under the 1986-1987 INA Policy." (J-5.)

23. On December 28, 2023, the undersigned counsel for Curcio again wrote to counsel for the Board demanding that the Board provide full indemnity, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6, irrespective of whether insurance coverage was available (J-6). Neither the Board nor any attorney acting on its behalf responded to this letter or the prior letter.

24. On January 9, 2024, the law firm of Anderson & Shah, LLC filed an Answer to the First Amended Complaint on behalf of the District and Curcio in the Superior Court Action. (J-7.)

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Summary decision may be rendered if the papers and discovery, which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). Even where a hearing is required by statute, a court or agency may dispense with the hearing and render summary decision if no dispute as to any material fact exists. See Contini v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 286 N.J. Super. 106, 120 (App. Div. 1995) (quoting In re Farmers' Mut. Fire Assurance Ass'n of N.J., 256 N.J. Super. 607, 618 (App. Div. 1992) ("[a]n evidentiary hearing is mandated only when the proposed administrative action is based on disputed adjudicatory facts")).

In this case, summary decision is appropriate because no genuine issue of material fact exists. Indeed, the parties agree on the most important fact: the Board is already providing Curcio with a defense in the lawsuit filed against him. This key fact establishes that there has been no harm to Curcio in the case thus far. Therefore, the question of whether Curcio is entitled to "full indemnity," including a "commitment [by the Board] to defend him in the future" (J-8, p.4, emphasis added), is not yet ripe for determination, and the Board is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law.

The ripeness doctrine is rooted in prudential limitations on the exercise of judicial authority. Murphy v. New Milford Zoning Comm'n, 402 F.3d 342, 347 (2d Cir. 2005). The general inquiry is whether the court would benefit from deferring initial review until the claims presented for resolution have arisen in "a more concrete and final form." Ibid. The doctrine's "basic rationale is to prevent the courts, through avoidance of premature adjudication, from entangling themselves in abstract disagreements." Ibid. A case's ripeness depends on two factors: (1) the fitness of issues for judicial review and (2) the hardship to the parties if judicial review is withheld at this time. K. Hovnanian Cos. of N. Cent. Jersey, Inc. v. N.J. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 379 N.J. Super. 1, 9 (App. Div. 2005) (quoting 966 Video, Inc. v. Mayor & Tp. Comm. of Hazlet Tp., 299 N.J. Super. 501, 515-16 (Law Div. 1995)).

Most importantly, Curcio's request for full indemnification is not yet ripe for review because the Board has already provided him with a defense in the lawsuit filed against him and, consequently, he has suffered no hardship under factor two of the ripeness test. As set forth above, it is undisputed that: the Board retained an attorney through their insurance carriers; the attorney filed an answer to the complaint on Curcio's behalf; and the Board's attorney continues to represent Curcio. Curcio has suffered no harm, and he is likely to suffer no harm in the future as long as the Board maintains the status quo.

Curcio's claim for full indemnification also fails factor one of the ripeness test because it is not fit for judicial review at this time. In determining whether an issue is fit for judicial review, we consider whether review would require additional factual development. 966 Video, Inc., 299 N.J. Super. at 516. In this situation, proper judicial review requires additional factual development around one very important question: whether Curcio was acting within the scope of his employment when he committed the acts alleged in the complaint. Indeed, New Jersey law is clear that this is the crucial determination that must be made on an indemnification claim.

N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 is the statute that addresses indemnification for school employees. N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 holds, in pertinent part, that a board of education must defray all costs for any civil action that has been brought against a board employee for any act or omission arising out of the performance of the duties of such employment. The New Jersey Supreme Court has further stated that "[t]he only question to be answered when a school board employee seeks civil indemnification under N.J.S.A. 18A:16–6 is whether the employee was acting within the scope of his or her employment duties." L.A. v. Bd. of Educ. of Trenton, 221 N.J. 192, 205-6 (2015).

In this case, we do not yet know whether Curcio was acting within the scope of his employment during the incidents alleged in the complaint. The plaintiffs added Curcio to their lawsuit a mere six months ago. There have been no court proceedings. There has been no discovery. The alleged incidents occurred about forty years ago, back in the 1980s. As a result, few facts are known at this time, but more will likely emerge in discovery. It is possible that those facts will reveal Curcio was not acting within the scope of his employment and is not entitled to indemnification.

Also, it is not possible to gather and have a hearing on those facts at the present time. Many of the relevant facts are known only to the plaintiffs in the Superior Court Action. For instance, of particular importance to the plaintiffs' case against Curcio will be the observations of witnesses (e.g. school staff, coaches, other students, etc.) who have first-hand knowledge of Curcio's relationship and interactions with Defendant Klepack. While the Board may have some knowledge of who those potential witnesses are, the plaintiffs in the lawsuit are in the best position to identify who was present at the alleged incidents. But, again, we do not have the plaintiffs' evidence as there has not been any discovery or court proceedings in the Superior Court Action. As such, it would be highly impractical, if not impossible, to have a hearing at this time.

The most recent reported decision on the issue of indemnification for a school employee supports the notion that a hearing at this early stage of litigation would be premature. See Azzaro v. Bd. of Educ. of City of Trenton, 477 N.J. Super. 427 (App. Div.

2023). In Azzaro, the Appellate Division held that an employee must provide a school board with reasonable notice after the initiation of a proceeding that she is seeking indemnification. Id. at 2. However, that does not mean that a school board must fully indemnify an employee immediately at the start of the proceeding. Azzaro further held that, even though N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 suggests a board's obligation to provide a defense arises when the action is instituted, "a board may initially deny defense costs" and "will ultimately be responsible for reasonable legal fees if it is later determined that the employee was, in fact, working within the scope of their employment." Id. at 10, 16-17 (emphasis added).

Likewise, in this case, it should later be determined – when more facts are available – if Curcio was, in fact, working within the scope of his employment. It should also be emphasized that, although Azzaro contemplates, "a board may initially deny defense costs," the Board in this case has not denied Curcio defense costs. Thus, he has suffered no harm. For all of the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that Curcio's request for full indemnification is not yet ripe for determination, and the Board is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law.

ORDER

Given my Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, I ORDER that the Board's Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, and that the petitioner's petition of appeal is DISMISSED, WITHOUT PREJUDICE, subject to petitioner's right to re-file when the issue of indemnification is ripe for adjudication.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who is authorized by law to make a final decision in this case. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 22, 2024

DATE

ANDREA PERRY VILLANI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency May 22, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: May 22, 2024
sej

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For Petitioner:

None

For Respondent:

None

EXHIBITS

Joint

J-1 July 24, 2023 Complaint

J-2 November 6, 2023 First Amended Complaint

J-3 Curcio's December 4, 2023 Letter

J-4 NJSIG's December 11, 2023 Letter

J-5 Chubb's December 19, 2023 Letter

J-6 Curcio's December 28, 2023 Letter

J-7 January 9, 2024 Answer to First Amended Complaint

J-8 Curcio's February 26, 2024 Verified Petition of Appeal

J-9 Board's March 20, 2024 Motion to Dismiss, Curcio's March 28, 2024 Opposition, and Board's April 10, 2024 Reply

For Petitioner:

None

For Respondent:

None

240-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04131-24
Agency Dkt. No. 76-3/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.G., on behalf of minor child, L.G.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of West Milford, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: June 24, 2024
Date of Mailing: June 26, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04131-24
AGENCY REF. NO. 76-3/24

A.G. ON BEHALF OF L.G.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WEST MILFORD, PASSAIC COUNTY,

Respondent.

A.G., parent of L.G., petitioner, pro se

Andrew Brown, Esq., for respondent (Scarinci Hollenbeck, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 16, 2024 Decided: May 16, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties, however, have settled this case without the need for a hearing. Their settlement agreement and board resolution is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

William A Courtney

May 16, 2024
DATE

WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: MAY 17, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: MAY 17, 2024

db

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

BETWEEN

THE WEST MILFORD BOARD OF EDUCATION

AND

A.G. ON BEHALF OF L.G.

Whereas, A.G. is the parent of L.G. who is a student at West Milford High School ("WMHS") and is subject to all of the rules and regulations applicable to students of the West Milford Board of Education ("BOE"); and

Whereas, on or about December 14, 2023, L.G. was accused of vaping in a restroom at WMHS; and

Whereas, pursuant to Board Policies 5530 and 5533, N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-1 et seq. and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-4.1 et seq., L.G. was suspended from school and required to undergo a medical examination, including a drug screen; and

Whereas, A.G. submitted a doctor's note ("Note") stating only that L.G. was able to return to school, and

Whereas, that Note failed to meet the requirements of the policies, statutes, and/or codes, cited above, and

Whereas, the Board offered numerous opportunities for A.G. to comply with the medical examination requirement pursuant to those policies, statutes, and/or codes,

Whereas, L.G. was kept out of school beginning on February 26, 2024, by the Board based on A.G.'s failure to comply, and

Whereas, L.G. was as a result placed on home instruction pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-10.2; and

Whereas, A.G. filed an emergent application with the Commissioner of Education, docketed as EDU 04131-2024; for emergent relief seeking L.G.'s immediate return to school; and

Whereas, the Parties held a hearing before the Honorable Willam Courtney, ALJ, on April 1, 2024; and

Whereas, during the hearing the Board and A.G. reached a voluntary agreement resolving all matters;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Board and A.G. agree as follows:

1. L.G. shall return to WMHS on April 8, 2024, with the same rights, obligations, and privileges as any other student.

2. The Interim Superintendent agrees to discuss the possibility of L.G. trying out for and/or joining WMHS's baseball team with WMHS Athletic Director and Head Baseball Coach, with the decision ultimately resting with the WMHS Athletic Director and Head Baseball Coach.

3. For a period of one year from the date of this Agreement, should L.G. be found in possession of any vaping device and/or substance listed in N.J.S.A. 2C:35-2, A.G. agrees to consent to L.G.'s medical examination and drug test as set forth in the Board policies.

4. This Agreement shall not be construed to mean that L.G. admits to having used or been under the influence of any substance listed in N.J.S.A. 2C:35-2.

5. A.G. agrees to withdraw with prejudice all matters related to docket EDU 04131-2024.

6. This Agreement shall not be construed to mean the Board's policies are inconsistent with the law or violative of L.G.'s rights, nor shall this Agreement be construed to mean the Board acquiesces to A.G.'s failure to consent to L.G.'s medical examination.

7. A.G. waives any other claims he may have arising out of the issues identified in the above referenced matters currently before the Commissioner of Education.

8. This Agreement does not establish any sort of precedent and may not be relied upon in any future matters involving these issues.

For the Board:

Date: 4/4/2024

A.G. o/b/o L.G.:

Date: 4/3/2024

WEST MILFORD TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION
Office of the Business Administrator/Board Secretary

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WEST MILFORD, PASSAIC COUNTY, NEW JERSEY, AS RECORDED IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTE BOOK

The Board of Education of the Township of West Milford in the County of Passaic, New Jersey, convened in public session on Thursday, April 4, 2024, at 7:15 p.m., in the West Milford High School Upper Media Center.

The following members of the Board of Education were present: Mrs. Racano, Mrs. Marquard, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. Jurgensen, Mrs. Romeo, Mrs. Van Dyk, and Mrs. Lockwood.

The following members of the Board of Education were absent: Mr. Cytowicz and Mr. Lippe.

Motion by Mrs. Dwyer, seconded by Mrs. Van Dyk, to approve the following agenda item:

The recommendation of the Interim Superintendent to approve the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Board of Education accepts the Settlement Agreement between the West Milford Township Board of Education and the parent of student ID #70431; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board President and the Board Secretary is authorized to sign the agreement on behalf of the Board.

ROLL CALL:

TRUSTEE	VOTE	TRUSTEE	VOTE	TRUSTEE	VOTE
Mrs. Dwyer	Yes	Mrs. Racano	Yes	Mrs. Van Dyk	Yes
Mr. Cytowicz	Absent	Mrs. Romeo	No	Mrs. Marquard	Yes
Mrs. Jurgensen	No	Mr. Lippe	Absent	Mrs. Lockwood	Yes

The MOTION PASSED.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)
)ss
COUNTY OF PASSAIC)

I, William Scholts, Business Administrator/Board Secretary, of the Township of West Milford, in the County of Passaic, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that the foregoing extract from the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Education of said district duly called and held on April 4, 2024, has been compared by me with the original minutes as officially recorded in my office in the minute book of said West Milford Township Board of Education and is a true, complete copy thereof and of the whole of said original minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matter referred to in said extract. I witness I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Board of Education this 9th day of April, 2024.

Board Seal

William Scholts
Board Secretary/Business Administrator

241-24

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of

BEN SHOER

and

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Agency Docket No.: 241-7/24

AWARD OF ARBITRATOR

The undersigned Arbitrator, having been appointed by the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey pursuant to the TeachNJ Act and having been duly sworn, and having duly considered the proofs and allegations offered by the parties, AWARDS as follows:

The undersigned was duly designated as Impartial Arbitrator for the purpose of adjudicating the tenure charges filed by the New Jersey Department of Children and Families against Respondent Ben Shoer pursuant to the TEACHNJ Act, NJSA 18A: 6-16, as amended by P.L. 2012, c. 26. These charges alleged that Respondent repeatedly engaged in inefficient teaching and engaged in conduct unbecoming a tenured teaching staff member and other cause requiring his dismissal. The Department of Children and Families introduced documentary evidence setting forth in detail the basis for the charges in the instant case. The Respondent disputed the validity of the tenure charges. Shortly before the first of two hearings scheduled in December 2024 the parties entered into a Settlement Agreement resolving their dispute.

The terms and conditions of this voluntary resolution were reduced to a Settlement Agreement and Release that was executed by Respondent and an authorized representative of the New Jersey Department of Children and Families on December 2, 2024.

The Settlement Agreement and Release was submitted to the Arbitrator for examination and approval. After duly considering the nature of the tenure charges, the Respondent's record of service to the Department of Children and Families, and the advantages and factors cited by the parties as the basis underlying their voluntary settlement, I hereby find the terms and conditions contained in the Settlement Agreement and Release between the Department of Children and Families and Ben Shoer dated December 2, 2024 each of whom has been advised by independent legal counsel, to be reasonable, consistent with the terms and intent of the TEACHNJ statute and applicable regulations, and in the best interest of both the parties and the public.

The Settlement Agreement and Release resolved all issues and allegations of inefficiency and misconduct, including the charge of conduct unbecoming a public school employee. Consequently, I accept the settlement as proposed by the parties in the Settlement Agreement and Release executed by the parties, and hereby issue this Award of Arbitrator incorporating the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Release, effective December 2, 2024.

Princeton, New Jersey
December 5, 2024

Daniel F. Brent, Arbitrator

State of New Jersey
County of Mercer

On this 5th day of December 2024 before me personally came and appeared Daniel F. Brent, to me known and known to me to be the individual described in the foregoing instrument, and he acknowledged to me that he executed the same.

Jessica V. Zakhari

JESSICA V. ZAKHARI
COMM # 50220656
NOTARY PUBLIC
EXP. 04/04/2029
NEW JERSEY

252-24
State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 1920-179
Agency Dkt. No. 5-2/24A

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of Sharonda Allen, State Board of Examiners,
New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Suspension by the State Board of Examiners, January 19, 2024

For the Respondent-Appellant, Sanford R. Oxfeld, Oxfeld Cohen, P.C.

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, David L. Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record and papers filed in connection with appellant Sharonda Allen's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board), dated January 19, 2024, suspending her Teacher of Elementary School Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of Elementary School Certificate, Teacher of Social Studies Certificate, and Supervisor Certificate, for one year. Appellant was a tenured special education teacher at the East Orange Board of Education. East Orange certified tenure charges against appellant and, following an arbitration, the Arbitrator sustained Count Eight, determined that appellant was guilty of insubordination and unbecoming conduct, and recommended that she be terminated from her teaching position.

In Count Eight, East Orange alleged that Allen jeopardized the safety of a student, S.B., by disclosing the student's full name to another student with the intent to have the student harassed, intimidated, or bullied, as retaliation for her suspension. The Arbitrator found that it was undisputed that appellant disclosed S.B.'s full name to another student. The Arbitrator also found that, following the disclosure, S.B.'s mother feared for S.B.'s safety and requested that the student be transferred to another school. The Arbitrator further found that appellant intended to intimidate S.B. and defied directives not to discuss the matter involving S.B. with parents or students. The Arbitrator rejected appellant's claim that it was necessary for her to disclose S.B.'s full name so that students could report the fact that S.B. lied about a 2018 incident which resulted in appellant's suspension and transfer as incredible. Ultimately, the Arbitrator concluded that appellant should be terminated from her teaching position and found that she had not expressed any remorse for her actions.

Subsequently, the matter was referred to the Board to determine whether appellant's conduct warranted action against her certificates. The Board concluded that the doctrine of collateral estoppel required it to accept the facts found in the tenure hearing by the Arbitrator and that those facts provided just cause to suspend appellant's certificates. In weighing whether to revoke or suspend appellant's certificates, the Board determined that appellant's conduct indicated a serious lapse in judgment. However, the Board acknowledged that the incident was an isolated event. The Board also considered mitigating evidence presented by appellant, including successes during her fifteen-year teaching career, awards and honors she received, and her continued dedication to the community. Accordingly, the Board found that revocation was not appropriate and instead ordered that appellant's certificates be suspended for one year.

On appeal, appellant argues that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, and not supported by sufficient credible evidence and that the imposition of a one-year suspension of her certificates was therefore excessive under the circumstances. Appellant claims primarily that the Board did not give appropriate weight to certifications she submitted to provide "additional context" regarding the unbecoming conduct. While she concedes that she made a mistake, she emphasizes that no harm resulted from the unbecoming conduct, and that it did not result in a harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) investigation by the district or a report to the Department of Children and Families' Institutional Abuse Investigation Unit (IAIU).

In reviewing appeals from decisions of the State Board of Examiners, the Commissioner may not substitute his judgment for that of the Board so long as the appellant received due process and the Board's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record. The Commissioner's role in reviewing appeals is constrained by N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a), which specifies that "the Commissioner shall ascertain whether the decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and shall not disturb the decision unless the appellant has demonstrated that the State Board of Examiners . . . acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law." See Morison v. Willingboro Bd. of Educ., 478 N.J. Super. 229, 238 (App. Div. 2024) (citing N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a)).

After a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the record contains sufficient credible evidence to support the Board's determination that appellant engaged in unbecoming conduct and that a one-year suspension is the appropriate penalty. As the Board correctly concluded, the doctrine of collateral estoppel precludes appellant from relitigating the issue of unbecoming conduct, as appellant—who was represented by counsel—had a full and fair opportunity to contest this finding during the tenure proceeding. Moreover, appellant unsuccessfully challenged the Arbitrator's decision in the Appellate Division, and that court concluded that there was sufficient credible evidence in the record to support the Arbitrator's factual findings pertaining to Count Eight. Allen v. E. Orange Bd. of Educ., 2022 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 174 at *12-13 (App. Div. Feb. 4, 2022), certif. denied, 252 N.J. 371 (2022). The Commissioner finds no basis to dispute the Arbitrator's findings, particularly when the Appellate Division has affirmed such findings. Furthermore, the Board's Order reflects that it fully considered appellant's certifications and her claims that the unbecoming conduct did not result in HIB or IAIU investigations. Appellant has not provided any legal authority to support her contention that the Board somehow erred by not giving the certifications more weight in its analysis.

Regarding her suspension, appellant contends that the penalty for her unbecoming conduct should be limited to the loss of her employment with the district and should not affect her ability to teach elsewhere. However, the Appellate Division has affirmed the Board's ability to revoke or suspend certificates pursuant to a separate regulatory action even after arbitrated tenure proceedings result in the imposition of sanctions or penalties. Morison, 478 N.J. Super. at 245-51. Appellant also argues that her conduct was much less serious than that of other teachers whose certificates were suspended and contends that there is no justification for a one-year suspension of her certificates. But her reliance on In the Matter of the Certificates of Vincent Ajayi, Agency Dkt. No. 1617-121, State Board of Examiners Order of Suspension (March 1, 2018) and In the Matter of the Certificates of Darnell Coleman, Agency Dkt. No. 1011-178, State Board of Examiners Order of Suspension (May 16, 2013) is misplaced.

In both Ajayi and Coleman, the respondents committed unbecoming conduct by engaging in physical altercations with students. The Board suspended Ajayi's certificates for 18 months and suspended Coleman's certificates for two years. Neither Ajayi nor Coleman support appellant's contention that a one-year suspension of her certificates—under entirely different factual circumstances—was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. A physical altercation is not a prerequisite to a suspension of one's certificates, and the fact that appellant did not engage in a physical altercation with a student does not require the Commissioner to conclude that a one-year suspension of her certificates is unreasonable. Moreover, the Board has previously suspended certificates in matters involving teachers who exercised poor judgment by engaging in inappropriate discussions with students. See, e.g., In re Certificates of Zantow, Agency Dkt. No. 0607-126, State Bd.

of Exam'rs Order of Suspension at 5 (July 28, 2008) (imposing one-year suspension of certificates); In re Certificates of Skerbetz, Agency Dkt. No. 0405-315 State Bd. of Exam'rs Order of Suspension at 5-6 (February 22, 2007) (imposing one-year suspension of certificates).

Finally, appellant suggests that if a penalty is warranted, a more appropriate consequence would be a censure or reprimand. This contention is likewise unavailing, as the Board's regulations expressly permit revocation or suspension of certificates; they do not empower the Board to issue censures or reprimands. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4; Morison, 478 N.J. Super. at 237. There is nothing in the record to suggest that the Board's decision to suspend appellant's certificates for one year was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the decision of the State Board of Examiners suspending appellant's certificates for one year is affirmed.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 1, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 3, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATE OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
SHARONDA ALLEN	:	ORDER OF SUSPENSION
_____	:	DOCKET NO: 1920-179

At its meeting of May 14, 2020, the State Board of Examiners (Board) reviewed a decision forwarded by the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) that had dismissed Sharonda Allen from her tenured position as a special education teacher with the East Orange Board of Education (East Orange). In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Sharonda Allen, Dkt. No. 140-6/19 (Arbitrator's Decision, December 27, 2019). Allen currently holds a Teacher of Elementary School Certificate of Eligibility, issued in April 2001; a Teacher Elementary School certificate, issued in October 2002; a Teacher of Social Studies certificate, issued in December 2003; and a Supervisor certificate, issued in April 2014.

East Orange certified tenure charges against Allen alleging unbecoming conduct and other just cause. Ibid. East Orange alleged, in counts one through seven, that Allen failed to perform required duties and responsibilities, displayed unprofessional and inappropriate behavior in her interactions with students, and insubordinate behavior in her interactions with supervisors. Ibid. In count eight, East Orange alleged that Allen jeopardized the safety of a student, S.B., by releasing the name of that student with the intent to have him harassed, intimidated, or bullied. Ibid. The Arbitrator concluded that East Orange had proven that Allen was guilty of unbecoming conduct. Ibid.

In his decision, dated December 27, 2019 (which is incorporated herein by reference), the Arbitrator found that East Orange had proven the allegations in count eight of the tenure charges and dismissed Allen from her tenured employment. Id. at p. 36. There was no dispute that Allen had clearly identified the full name of student S.B. to a separate student, P.S. Id. at p. 32. Allen's communication was purportedly sent via a social media private messaging platform and then student P.S. more widely disseminated S.B.'s full name, resulting in fear for S.B.'s safety and S.B.'s mother requesting a transfer for S.B. Ibid.

The Arbitrator determined that Allen's claim and testimony, that disclosure of S.B.'s name was necessary so that students could report the fact that S.B. lied about a separate December 5, 2018 incident which resulted in Allen's suspension and transfer, was incredible. Id. at p. 33. Allen was intimately involved in the December 5, 2018 incident and she should have grieved her two-week suspension and "not provide a post-hoc rationalization for disclosing S.B.'s name in th[e tenure] proceeding." Ibid. Although Allen argued that there was no evidence that she intended to harass, intimidate or bully S.B., there was testimony that students approached S.B. after his name was released and S.B. was subsequently transferred to a different school. Id. at p. 33-34. The Arbitrator found that Allen "intended to put undue pressure on S.B., a ninth grade student[,] and the have S.B. intimidated." Id. at p. 34.

The Arbitrator concluded, based on aspects of the record that were "extraordinarily troubling," that termination was necessary. Id. at p. 35. One of the aspects highlighted by the arbitrator was that Allen did not express any remorse for her actions. Ibid. Allen filed suit, with the New Jersey Superior Court, seeking to vacate the arbitration result. The trial court dismissed her complaint. Sharonda Allen v. East rand Board of Education, Essex County, Dkt. No. C-000052-20. On appeal, the New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division, in a decision dated February 4, 2022, affirmed the award of termination. Sharonda Allen v. East Orange Board of Education, Essex County, Dkt. No. A-3995-19 (App. Div. February 4, 2022), cert. denied (December 6, 2022). In so doing, the court noted that the "record shows that [Allen] demonstrated conduct which would permit a factfinder to conclude that she was unfit to perform the duties of a schoolteacher." Id. at p. 16.

Upon review of the above information, the Board voted at its meeting of May 14, 2020 to issue Allen an Order to Show Cause as to why her certificates should not be revoked. The Board sent Allen the Order to Show Cause by regular and certified mail on July 1, 2020. The Order to Show Cause provided that Allen must file an Answer within 30 days. On July 20, 2020, Allen requested the Order to Show Cause be held in abeyance pending the outcome of an appeal of the Arbitration Decision. The Board granted Allen's request on July 29, 2020. Allen filed an Answer to the Order to Show Cause on February 15, 2023.

In her Answer, Allen admitted that tenure charges had been brought against her, that the Arbitrator concluded that Allen should be terminated, and that she was dismissed from her employment based on the one count of the tenure charges that the Arbitrator sustained. (Answer, ¶¶ 2, 6, 7). Allen stated that the Arbitrator's Decision dismissed seven of the eight counts contained in the tenure charges. (Answer, ¶ 4). Allen denied that she engaged in unbecoming conduct and argued she was not given the opportunity to defend against certain allegations during the tenure hearing. (Answer, ¶¶ 6, 7). Allen also denied there was just cause to revoke her certificates. (Answer, ¶ 8).

Thereafter, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(e), on March 27, 2023, the Board sent Allen a hearing notice by regular and certified mail. The notice explained that it appeared that no material facts were in dispute. Thus, Allen was offered an opportunity to submit written arguments on the issue of whether the conduct addressed in the Order to Show Cause constituted conduct unbecoming a certificate holder, as well as arguments with regard to the appropriate sanction in the event that the Board found just cause to take action against his certificate. Allen was also offered the opportunity to appear before the Board to provide testimony on the sanction issue. Allen filed a response on June 16, 2023.

In that response, Allen claimed that the conduct for which she was found guilty of by the arbitrator, releasing S.B.'s name to student P.S. with the intent to have S.B. harassed, intimidated, or bullied, does not warrant revocation or suspension of her certificates. (Hearing Response, p. 2, 12). She acknowledges that she cannot challenge the arbitrator's factual findings in this forum. Id. at 12. She states she "deeply regrets releasing S.B.'s name to another student in the midst of her employment issues with [East Orange]." Id. at 2. She offers two certifications, one by herself and one by student P.S., to provide an explanation and to add context to the situation. Ibid. Student P.S. certifies that he had no malintent towards S.B. and was only trying to help Allen regain her position at the high school. Ibid. Allen certified that she had been unfairly transferred away from her students at the high school and was desperate to find a way back. Id. at 2-3. She claims that there is no evidence that releasing S.B.'s name resulted in any harm to anyone, including S.B. Id. at 3. She reiterates that she made a mistake and regrets her mistake in judgment. Ibid. She recognizes that the proper action would have been to decline student P.S.'s request and handle it through more appropriate channels. Id. at 23. She states she was never criminally charged, nor was she ever the subject of a harassment, intimidation, and bullying ("HIB") complaint or an Institutional Abuse Investigation Unit ("IAIU") investigation. Ibid. She claims that, based on the totality of the circumstances, there is no just cause to take action against her certificates. Id. at 15.

As to mitigation, Allen claims she has already suffered the loss of her tenured employment and the effects that accompany that significant penalty. Id. at 2. She claims that her conduct here relates only to her employment with East Orange and does not reflect on her fitness to function as a teacher in general. Id. at 17. Further, Allen offers the successes in her teaching career; her continued commitment to, and involvement in, the community; and her receipt of various awards and honors. Id. at 3-5. For example, Allen notes that subsequent to her termination from East Orange, she established Operation Grow, Inc., an organization serving thousands of people each year that assists with fulfillment of community service graduation requirements of students, as well as college and career preparation and workforce development and readiness. Id. at 10-11. She also states she is the co-chair of the New Jersey Chapter of Climate Reality and involved in numerous local civic activities. Id. at 11. Allen asked that the Board find no just cause exists to take action against her certificates based on the totality of the circumstances. Id. at 24. She also asked to appear before the Board.

The threshold issue before the Board in this matter is whether Allen's conduct constitutes conduct unbecoming a certificate holder. At its meeting of December 8, 2023, the Board considered the allegations in the Order to Show Cause as well as Allen's Answer and Hearing Response. The Board determined that collateral estoppel applied as to the facts found in the tenure hearing and therefore no material facts related to Allen's offense were in dispute. See In the Matter of the Certificates of Richard Barnes-Bey, Dkt. No. 1314-194 (Bd. Of Examiners September 17, 2015) (Collateral estoppel applies to facts established in a prior tenure hearing for Board revocation proceedings). Thus, the Board determined that summary decision was appropriate in this matter. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(h).

The Board must now determine whether Allen's conduct, as set forth in the Order to Show Cause, represents just cause to act against his certificate pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4. The Board finds that it does.

The Board may revoke or suspend the certification of any certificate holder on the basis of demonstrated inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming a teacher or other just cause. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4. "Teachers... are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of ... school children. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." Tenure of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. Moreover, unfitness to hold a position in a school system may be shown by one incident, if sufficiently flagrant. Redcay v. State Bd. of Educ., 130 N.J.L. 369, 371 (1943), aff'd, 131 N.J.L. 326 (E & A 1944). Allen's conduct in jeopardizing the safety of a student by releasing the student's name to another student with the intent to have the student harassed, intimidated, bullied or worse, as retaliation for an employment decision made by East Orange is behavior that indicates a serious lapse in judgment warranting action on her certificates. However, because it was an isolated event, and given the mitigating evidence presented by Allen, namely her successes in her fifteen-year teaching career, the awards and honors she received, and her continued dedication to the education community, the Board believes that only suspension is warranted here. The Board therefore concludes that the appropriate response to Allen's conduct is a one-year suspension of her certificates.

Accordingly, on December 8, 2023, the Board voted to suspend Sharonda Allen's Teacher of Elementary School Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher Elementary School certificate, Teacher of Social Studies certificate, and Supervisor certificate, for a period of one year, effective immediately. On this 19th day of January 2024, the Board voted to adopt its formal written decision and it is therefore ORDERED that the suspension of Sharonda Allen's certificates be effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that Allen return her certificates to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Certification and Induction, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within 30 days of the mailing date of this decision.

Rani Singh, Secretary
State Board of Examiners

RS/LF
Date of Mailing:
Appeals may be made to the Commissioner of Education pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38.4.

253-24
OAL Dkt. No. 04631-24
Agency Dkt. No. 49-3/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.C., on behalf of minor child, D.C.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Black Horse Pike, Regional School District, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), have been reviewed and considered. In this case, the petitioner filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal, requesting that her son, D.C., be allowed to finish high school at Black Horse Pike Regional High School. On April 4, 2024, the Board of Education (Board) for Black Horse Pike Regional School District (District) filed an Answer and Counterclaim requesting tuition costs. The Board alleged that L.C. and her son were residing in Maple Shade, which is not a sending area of the District. Thereafter, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioner failed to appear for both telephone conferences scheduled in this matter despite having received appropriate notice of same. Accordingly, the ALJ determined that petitioner had abandoned her appeal and returned the file to the Office of Controversies and Disputes pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a). Further, the ALJ noted that the respondent Board had elected to waive its right to assess tuition against L.C. and accepted the dismissal of petitioner's residency appeal as the appropriate relief in this case.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's determination that petitioner abandoned her appeal by failing to participate in the hearings scheduled in this matter; further, petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that she was domiciled within the Black Horse Pike Regional School District when she sought to enroll her son in respondent's high school.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 1, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 3, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

DISMISSAL

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04631-2024

AGENCY DKT. NO. 49-3/24

L.C. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, D.C.,

Petitioner,

v.

BLACK HORSE PIKE REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAMDEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

L.C., on behalf of minor child, D.C, petitioner, pro se

Daniel H. Long, Esq., for respondent (Wade, Long, Wood & Long, LLC., attorneys)

Record Closed: May 22, 2024 Decided: May 23, 2024

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and 1:1-14.4(a) this tribunal is directing the Clerk to return the case to the transmitting agency for the reasons stated below:

On February 29, 2024, L.C., on behalf of her son, D.C, filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal requesting that D.C. be allowed to finish high school at Black Horse Pike Regional High School. On April 4, 2024, the Board of Education (Board) for Black Horse Pike Regional School District (District) filed an Answer and Counterclaim requesting tuition costs. The Board alleged that L.C. and her son were residing in Maple Shade, which is not a sending area of the District.

The Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted the appeal to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) to be heard as a contested case.

On April 18, 2024, the case was assigned to me. I held the initial telephone conference on May 7, 2024. Only Daniel H. Long, Esq, appeared on behalf of the Board. I scheduled a second telephone conference for May 22, 2024. The notice to the parties contained the following language: "If you do not participate in the telephone conference, the file will be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate action which may include imposition of the proposed penalty or granting the relief requested by the other party." On May 22, 2024, only Mr. Long, on behalf of the Board, appeared for the telephone conference.

I have had no contact from L.C. since the matter was transmitted.

In the Answer and Counterclaim, the Board was seeking tuition and costs. At the telephone conference on May 22, 2024, Mr. Long represented that if this appeal was dismissed, the Board would waive its request for tuition from petitioner.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4:

(a) If, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge shall, unless proceeding pursuant to (d) below, direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c).

(b) If the nonappearing party submits an explanation in writing, a copy must be served on all other parties and the other parties shall be given an opportunity to respond.

(c) If the judge receives an explanation:

1. If the judge concludes that there was good cause for the failure to appear, the judge shall reschedule the matter for hearing; or

2. If the judge concludes that there was no good cause for the failure to appear, the judge may refuse to reschedule the matter and shall issue an initial decision explaining the basis for that conclusion, or may reschedule the matter and, at his or her discretion, order any of the following:

i. The payment by the delinquent representative or party of costs in such amount as the judge shall fix, to the State of New Jersey or the aggrieved person;

ii. The payment by the delinquent representative or party of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, to an aggrieved representative or party; or

iii. Such other case-related action as the judge deems appropriate.

> (d) If the appearing party requires an initial decision on the merits, the party shall ask the judge for permission to present ex parte proofs. If no explanation for the failure to appear is received, and the circumstances require a decision on the merits, the judge may enter an initial decision on the merits based on the ex parte proofs, provided the failure to appear is memorialized in the decision.

I CONCLUDE that L.C. was provided with appropriate notices of scheduled proceedings, namely telephonic prehearing status conferences for May 7, 2024, and May 22, 2024.

I CONCLUDE that L.C. has abandoned this appeal by her failure to participate. A plain reading of N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a), therefore, requires that the matter now be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition. See also N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b).

The petitioner's abandonment of her appeal did not extinguish respondent's claim for tuition and costs. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) provides that when the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, the resident shall be assessed tuition. In this matter, respondent elected to waive its right to assess tuition against L.C. and accept the dismissal of petitioner's residency appeal as the appropriate relief.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that the clerk return the case to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c), dismissing the residency appeal.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

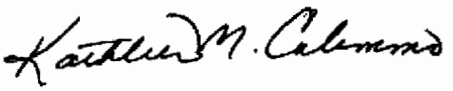
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



May 23, 2024
DATE

KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

KMC/tat

254-24
OAL Dkt. No. 04633-24
Agency Dkt. No. 50-3/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

D.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Black Horse Pike, Regional School District, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), have been reviewed and considered. In this case, the petitioner filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal, requesting that she be allowed to finish high school at Black Horse Pike Regional High School. On April 2, 2024, the Board of Education (Board) for Black Horse Pike Regional School District (District) filed an Answer and Counterclaim requesting tuition costs. The Board alleged that D.F. was residing in Maple Shade, which is not a sending area of the District. Thereafter, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioner failed to appear for both telephone conferences scheduled in this matter despite having received appropriate notice of same. Accordingly, the ALJ determined that petitioner had abandoned her appeal and returned the file to the Office of Controversies and Disputes pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a). Further, the ALJ noted that the respondent Board had elected to waive its right to assess tuition against D.F. and accepted the dismissal of petitioner's residency appeal as the appropriate relief in this case.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's determination that petitioner abandoned her appeal by failing to participate in the hearings scheduled in this matter; further, petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that she was domiciled within the Black Horse Pike Regional School District when she sought to finish high school in the District.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 1, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 3, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

DISMISSAL

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04633-2024

AGENCY DKT. NO. 5003/24

D.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

BLACK HORSE PIKE REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAMDEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

D.F., petitioner pro se

Daniel H. Long, Esq., for respondent (Wade, Long, Wood & Long, LLC., attorneys)

Record Closed: May 22, 2024 Decided: May 23, 2024

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and 1:1-14.4(a) this tribunal is directing the Clerk to return the case to the transmitting agency for the reasons stated below:

On February 29, 2024, D.F. filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal requesting that she be allowed to finish high school at Black Horse Pike Regional High School. On April 2, 2024, the Board of Education (Board) for Black Horse Pike Regional School District (District) filed an Answer and Counterclaim requesting tuition costs. The Board alleged that D.F. was residing in Maple Shade, which is not a sending area of the District.

The Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted the appeal to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) to be heard as a contested case.

On April 18, 2024, the case was assigned to me. I held the initial telephone conference on May 7, 2024. Only Daniel H. Long, Esq, appeared on behalf of the Board. I scheduled a second telephone conference for May 22, 2024. The notice to the parties contained the following language: "If you do not participate in the telephone conference, the file will be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate action which may include imposition of the proposed penalty or granting the relief requested by the other party." On May 22, 2024, only Mr. Long, on behalf of the Board, appeared for the telephone conference.

I have had no contact from D.F. since the matter was transmitted.

In the Answer and Counterclaim, the Board was seeking tuition and costs. At the telephone conference on May 22, 2024, Mr. Long represented that if this appeal was dismissed, the Board would waive its request for tuition from petitioner.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4:

(a) If, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge shall, unless proceeding pursuant to (d) below, direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c).

(b) If the nonappearing party submits an explanation in writing, a copy must be served on all other parties and the other parties shall be given an opportunity to respond.

(c) If the judge receives an explanation:

1. If the judge concludes that there was good cause for the failure to appear, the judge shall reschedule the matter for hearing; or

2. If the judge concludes that there was no good cause for the failure to appear, the judge may refuse to reschedule the matter and shall issue an initial decision explaining the basis for that conclusion, or may reschedule the matter and, at his or her discretion, order any of the following:

   i. The payment by the delinquent representative or party of costs in such amount as the judge shall fix, to the State of New Jersey or the aggrieved person;

   ii. The payment by the delinquent representative or party of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, to an aggrieved representative or party; or

   iii. Such other case-related action as the judge deems appropriate.

> (d) If the appearing party requires an initial decision on the merits, the party shall ask the judge for permission to present ex parte proofs. If no explanation for the failure to appear is received, and the circumstances require a decision on the merits, the judge may enter an initial decision on the merits based on the ex parte proofs, provided the failure to appear is memorialized in the decision.

I CONCLUDE that D.F. was provided with appropriate notices of scheduled proceedings, namely telephonic prehearing status conferences for May 7, 2024, and May 22, 2024.

I CONCLUDE that D.F. has abandoned this appeal by her failure to participate. A plain reading of N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a), therefore, requires that the matter now be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition. See also N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b).

The petitioner's abandonment of her appeal did not extinguish respondent's claim for tuition and costs. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) provides that when the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, the resident shall be assessed tuition. In this matter, respondent elected to waive its right to assess tuition against D.F. and accept the dismissal of petitioner's residency appeal as the appropriate relief.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that the clerk return the case to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c), dismissing the residency appeal.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

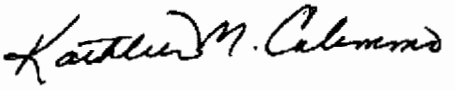
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



May 23, 2024
DATE

KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

KMC/tat

255-24E
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 06654-24
Agency Dkt. No. 146-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

Regina Robinson,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Jersey City, Hudson County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of the hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons stated therein. Furthermore, as the parties advised the Administrative Law Judge that no other issues remain once the emergent relief matter is resolved, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED. [1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 1, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 3, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER ON MOTION
FOR EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06654-24
AGENCY DKT. 146-5/24

REGINA ROBINSON,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,
Respondent.

Stephen J. Edelstein, Esq., for petitioner (Weiner Law Group, LLP, attorneys)

Adam S. Herman, Esq., for respondent (Adams, Lattiboudere, Croot, & Herman, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 29, 2024 Decided: May 30, 2024

BEFORE DANIEL J. BROWN, ALJ:

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner has been the tenured Business Administrator of the Jersey City Public School District. On June 30, 2022, petitioner filed a civil complaint in the New Jersey Superior Court against respondent (the Board). That complaint alleges discrimination based upon petitioner's race and sex, hostile work environment and retaliation for the exercise of protected rights and whistle-blower activity under docket number HUD-L-2155-22. On April 25, 2024, written tenure charges and a written statement under oath in support of those charges were filed with the secretary of the Board and served upon petitioner. The tenure charges include forty-two counts and are based upon two independent audits for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2022. The tenure charges allege that petitioner is guilty of unbecoming conduct, misconduct, neglect, and other just cause. On May 10, 2024, petitioner filed a statement of position with supporting evidence to the Board Secretary. On May 14, 2024, the Board certified the tenure charges to the New Jersey Commissioner of Education and suspended petitioner without pay for 120 days in accordance with the New Jersey Tenure Employees Hearing Law ("TEHL").

On May 16, 2024, petitioner filed a petition of appeal and motion for emergent relief against the Board with the Commissioner of Education. Specifically, petitioner maintains that the tenure charges and suspension without pay for 120 days should be held in abeyance pending the resolution of the Superior Court case pending in Hudson County and the appeal of the tenure charges pending against petitioner.

On May 17, 2024, the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as to the resolution of petitioner's motion for emergency relief. On May 20, 2024, the matter was assigned to me.

On May 21, 2024, I conducted a telephone status conference. Petitioner moved for an adjournment of the hearing date scheduled for May 25, 2024, with respondent's consent. That adjournment request was granted. The hearing date was rescheduled to May 28, 2024. On May 21, 2024, I received the Board's submission.

In the Board's response, the Board highlights that petitioner cannot meet the standard for emergent relief and that the Board acted with statutory authority under TEHL in the filing of tenure charges against petitioner.

On May 28, 2024, oral argument was conducted. Petitioner requested that the record remain open to allow for further written submissions until May 29, 2024. That request was granted. Petitioner submitted a supplemental response on May 28, 2024. On May 29, 2024, the record was closed.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the Commissioner's jurisdiction is defined, and is limited to "controversies and disputes arising under the school laws." In Dunellen Bd. of Educ. v. Dunellen Ed. Assoc., 64 N.J. 17, 23 (1973), the New Jersey Supreme Court concluded that "the Legislature enacted provisions entrusting school supervision and management to local school boards . . . subject to the supervisory control [of] . . . the State Commissioner of Education."

The regulations governing such disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education or any other party subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) sets forth the standards governing motions for emergent relief and instructs that:

> A motion for a stay or emergent relief shall be accompanied by a letter memorandum or brief which shall address the following standards to be met for granting such relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):
>
> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;

> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b).]

Indeed, the moving party must demonstrate each element "clearly and convincingly." Waste Management of N.J. v. Union County Utilities Authority, 399 N.J. Super. 508, 520 (App. Div. 2008). Emergent relief is designed "to 'prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case.'" Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 (citation omitted).

Irreparable harm

Harm is generally considered irreparable if monetary damages cannot adequately redress it. Id. at 132-33. In other words, irreparable harm is described as "'substantial injury to a material degree coupled with the inadequacy of money damages.'" Judice's Sunshine Pontiac, Inc. v. General Motors Corp., 418 F. Supp. 1212, 1218 (D.N.J. 1976) (citation omitted). A claimant must demonstrate more than a risk of irreparable harm. Continental Group, Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F. 2d 351, 359 (D.N.J. 1980). The requisite for injunctive relief requires a "'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury,'" or a "'presently existing actual threat; (an injunction) may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by common law.'" Ibid.
(citation omitted).

Petitioner submits that irreparable harm is clear. Specifically, petitioner maintains that the Board's action of suspending her without pay for 120 days will prevent her from being able to properly prosecute her pending civil case or defend herself against the tenure charges brought against her by the Board.

In response, the Board argues that N.J.S.A.18A:6-14, part of the Tenure Employees Hearing Laws, N.J.S.A.18A:6-10 – 18.1, allows for a suspension with or without pay after the Board has issued tenure charges. As the Board suspended petitioner for 120 days without pay after it deliberated in executive session and determined there was probable cause to certify the tenure charges to the New Jersey Department of Education, it complied with the TEHL.

In this case, the pending tenure charges, and petitioner's suspension without pay will not cause irreparable harm to petitioner. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14, the time-period that petitioner will be without pay is limited to 120 days unless the tenure charges are sustained by the arbitrator. If the tenure charges are dismissed, at any stage of the process, petitioner shall be reinstated immediately with full pay from the first day of her suspension, thereby making petitioner financially whole. Additionally, as petitioner is claiming harm only in the form of the loss of her salary, the harm is not irreparable as it can be redressed adequately by monetary damages. Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132-133). Moreover, the harm that is complained of by petitioner is neither substantial nor immediate. Petitioner can only speculate that the loss of her salary for 120 days will prevent her from prosecuting her civil case and disputing the tenure charges.

Settled Legal Right

Emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden H. R. Co., 29 N.J.Eq. 299, 304-305 (E & A 1878)).

Each school district is obligated to provide a thorough and efficient education system to all children residing in its school district. N.J. Const. art. VIII, § 4, ¶ 1; N.J.S.A. 18A:33-1. To carry out this policy, local boards of education have discretionary authority under N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1C. The boards adopt rules for the management of the district's public schools and act in a manner to ensure the lawful and proper conduct of the district's public schools. Yet, statutory requirements also apply to actions by a school district or a board of education.

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11, if a tenure charge is filed with the school board, the board reviews it and the accompanying statement of supporting evidence, and any written statement submitted by the employee. The board then determines whether probable cause exists for the charge, and that the charge, if credited, sufficiently warrants a dismissal or reduction in pay. After the board certifies its probable cause determination, the Board forwards its determination to the Commissioner of Education. Once tenure charges are filed, the employee is entitled to a copy of the charges and supporting statement of evidence and a copy of the board's determination of probable cause. Ibid. After certification of the charge, the board may suspend the employee with or without pay under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14.

Here, the question of whether petitioner is entitled to a stay of the pending tenure charges and the suspension without pay is unsettled. However, the question of petitioner has been afforded procedural protections under the TEHL is settled. The Board has complied with and acted under the authority of the TEHL in the filing of the tenure charges and suspending petitioner without pay for 120 days. At this point, a stay of tenure charges and the suspension without pay is neither necessary, appropriate, nor reasonable. The next appropriate step is for the Commissioner to determine whether the charges are sufficient to warrant petitioner's termination, after providing petitioner an opportunity to file a written response to the charges. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-16. If the Commissioner disagrees with the Board's determination, he should dismiss the charges. However, if the Commissioner determines that the charges are sufficient to warrant petitioner's dismissal, the matter should be transmitted immediately to an arbitrator for further proceedings. Ibid.

Likelihood of Success on the Merits

Under the third emergent relief standard, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, supra, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115-16 (E. & A. 1930)). This requirement if often implicitly tied to whether the right to the underlying claim is settled.

A presumption of lawfulness and good faith applies to a board of education's actions. In challenges to board actions, the challenger bears the burden of proving that such acts were unlawful, arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Schuster v. Bd. of Educ.

Montgomery Twp., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 670, 676 (citing Schnick v. Westwood Ed. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 448 (App. Div. 1960), and Quinlan v. Bd. of Educ. of North Bergen Twp., 73 N.J. Super. 40 (App. Div. 1962).

The "arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable" standard of review imposes a heavy burden on challengers of board actions, and "means having no rational basis." Piccoli v. Ed. of Educ. of Ramapo Indian Hills Regional School District, OAL DKT. EDU 1839-98 (January 22, 1999) (citing Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dent. of Envir. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

Here, petitioner fails to meet this burden. Petitioner has not shown the procedural safeguards of the Tenured Employee Hearing Law have not been followed. Petitioner has not demonstrated that the Board did not have the authority to file tenure charges or suspend petitioner without pay for 120 days. Petitioner has not shown that the Board's actions had no rational basis. In fact, it is demonstrably clear that the Board's actions had a rational basis. The Board's filing of tenure charges came after the competition of two independent audits. Petitioner's tenure charges and her continued suspension without pay were based upon facts of which petitioner is aware. Petitioner has been served with the charges by the Board and has filed a written response with the Board. Petitioner has been provided with a certification from the superintendent of the Jersey City School district which summarizes the events that led to the filing of tenure charges by the Board. Petitioner alleges that the charges filed by the Board were not based on the results of two independent audits but were retaliatory in nature. Petitioner has provided no evidence to support this allegation. This allegation does not warrant a stay of the tenure charges or the suspension in pay. Petitioner is free to present evidence to an arbitrator, if the matter is transmitted to an arbitrator, that the tenure charges are retaliatory or otherwise insufficient.

Balancing of the Equities

Lastly, petitioner fails to meet the fourth emergent relief standard, which involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J.Eq. 506, 515 (Ch.1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J.Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)). To satisfy this standard, petitioner must demonstrate that she will suffer more significant harm than the Board if this tribunal does not grant the requested relief. If emergent relief is denied, petitioner will continue to serve a suspension without pay that is limited to a maximum of 120 days. Petitioner will be free to raise relevant defenses to the merits of the tenure charges before an arbitrator if the matter is transferred to an arbitrator. Any suspension may carry the risk of rumors or speculation concerning the suspended employee, but a suspension without pay is permitted by the Tenured Employee Hearing Law and is limited by that statute to a maximum of 120 days.

However, if emergent relief is granted, the Board will be forced to stay tenure charges that allege that petitioner failed to perform her duties as the District's School Business Administrator and that are based on the findings of 2 independent financial audits. Similarly, it would immediately restore petitioner to paid status pending the resolution of two separate and unrelated cases. Thus, the equities favor the Board.

Based on the above discussion, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's request is neither reasonable nor appropriate. I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to establish the existence of irreparable harm, that petitioner's request for emergent relief does not rely upon settled law, that petitioner is not likely to prevail on the merits, and that the equities do not favor petitioner. Thus, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's request for emergent relief does not meet requirements under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and must be DENIED.

ORDER

Therefore, I ORDER that petitioner's request for emergency relief be and is hereby DENIED. The parties have advised me that no other issues remain once the emergent relief matter is resolved.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 30, 2024
DATE

Daniel J. Brown
DANIEL J. BROWN, ALJ

Date Mailed to Parties: May 30, 2024

dr

256-24E
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07255-24
Agency Dkt. No. 158-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

L.M., on behalf of minor child, J.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Town of Hackettstown, Warren County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of the hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons stated therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 1, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 3, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER DENYING
EMERGENCY RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU-07255-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 158/5-24

L.M. ON BEHALF OF R.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

HACKETTSTOWN BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

L.M., petitioner, pro se

Caitlin W. Lundquist, Esq., for respondent (Busch Law Group, LLC, attorneys)

BEFORE ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioning parent challenges a decision by school officials with Hackettstown High School that son J.M. should be assessed an out of school five-day suspension by the Hackettstown High School Assistant Principal as a result of an alleged bias incident which happened during JM's chemistry lab. The in class conversation that gave rise to the alleged incident had nothing to do with the subject matter of the class both students were in.

Not fully before me yet but still pending a hearing before the District Board of Education scheduled for June 12th is an appeal of a related determination that JM's conduct also gave rise to a harassment, bullying and intimidation (HIB) incident against the other student who complained of bias against her. Since both penalties are related, I am retaining jurisdiction.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about May 24, 2024, petitioner filed a Petition and Motion for emergent relief, seeking to overturn a decision by the Assistant Principal of Hackettstown High School, suspending JM from attending school for five days as a result of an alleged bias incident which occurred during a chemistry lab on May 13, 2024. She also seeks to overturn a determination by the school that as a result of his comment, JM also committed a HIB (harassment, intimidation and bullying) violation against AA, a fellow student who is African American.

Prior to the filing, J.M. served the five-day suspension which went into effect immediately following the alleged incident without giving J.M. or his parents the right to pursue an appeal before higher ranking school personnel. The District's position relying on the school Code of Conduct is that for any suspension less than ten days, there is no requirement or mechanism for an internal appeal prior to serving the penalty.

The Department of Education transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the office, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, and the rules of procedure established by the Department of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. Jurisdiction is conferred under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. The case was filed at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 24, 2024.

Following an informal conference on May 30th, oral argument was initially heard on June 3rd, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The Petition of Appeal alleges, inter alia, that an incident occurred in school on May 13, 2024, wherein, according to school officials, JM allegedly made an inappropriate remark to a fellow student during chemistry lab. The conversation between the two students had nothing to do with the subject matter of the class, and the teacher of the class did not hear the alleged remark and/or the entire conversation. Though the District deemed the term "chicken bone" a remark of a racist nature, little or nothing is referenced in the District's report issued against J.M. concerning on alleged ongoing pattern of disruptive and disrespectful in class conduct by the other student, A.A. who was offended by JM's remark.

The report issued by the school limits the remark to the use of the work "chicken bone" but says nothing about the entire conversation precipitated by the other student A.A. concerning her strong beliefs that the monetary system in this country was essentially useless and should be done away with which led J.M. to question what should be used in its place, suggesting a series of alternate non-monetary objects including "chicken bones." A critical part of what led L.M. to file this application is the fact that there is no mention of the context in which the words were used, nor is there any statement from the teacher in the classroom, who it is undisputed did not hear the conversation or the remarks. The District admits in imposing the discipline against J.M., it relied solely on A.A. and some of the other students in the class, at least one of whom apparently admitted he either did not hear the remark or did not recall it.

The word "chicken bone" which may have been heard out of context is what led A.A. to complain that she was the victim of a bias incident, and led the school to suspend J.M. and initiate a HIB (harassment, intimidation and bullying) charge against J.M. (LM on behalf of J.M. has an appeal of that finding before the District Board of Education of June 12th, although the HIB finding was also transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law as part of this emergent proceeding, so though I am not sure if the matter is ripe yet until the Board hears the case on June 12th, I am retaining jurisdiction of the Bias suspension and the HIB part of the case as well.).

My jurisdiction at this early stage of the case is limited to whether or not petitioner has met her burden on J.M.'s behalf that emergent relief under the four prong criteria of Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J.126 (1982).

In support of her request for relief, essentially seeking to remove both the bias suspension and the HIB determination from J.M.'s record, L.M. has submitted a detailed eight-page Statement of Facts surrounding the entire incident, as well as several other items including screenshots of emails and other communications, including JM's statement and the police report.

Respondent denies most of the petitioner's factual statements and relies on the Certification of Kyle Sosnovik, the principal of Hackettstown High School. Also submitted was the school's Code of Conduct and HIB policy.

LEGAL STANDARD

Where authorized by law and where irreparable harm will result without an expedited decision granting or prohibiting some action or relief connected with a contested case, emergency relief pending a final decision on the whole contested case may be ordered upon the application of a party. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6(a). With respect to school laws in particular, the Commissioner has jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies and disputes arising under school laws, except higher education, or under the rules of the State board or of the Commissioner. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Where the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education or any other party subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case. N.J.S.A. 6A:3-1.6(a). A motion for a stay or emergent relief must be accompanied by a letter memorandum or brief which must address the following standards to be met for granting such relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;

3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

N.J.S.A. 6A:3-1.6(b)

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In petitioner's initial emergent basis statement, petitioner contends that emergent relief is required because:

> J.M. will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted based on the attached documents. He will have this suspension and HIB determination on his record as he continues through high school and applies for jobs, awards and ultimately college admission. He is also suffering from the fact that all trust and accountability in the school administration and teachers is now nonexistent, and the suspension and related actions have caused significant damage to his reputation with fellow students as well. In today's social media age, the alleged incident and related penalty has circulated throughout the Hackettstown school community.
>
> Respondent's opposition to the emergent application states essentially that petitioner has not met the criteria for emergent relief, including but not limited to the argument that at this stage there is no irreparable harm, and the equities do not balance in petitioner's favor at this stage of the proceedings. Respondent further states that even if there is some merit to petitioner's contentions, since there are so many facts in dispute, the matter cannot be decided without a full plenary hearing on the merits.

While having a bias complaint and a related HIB determination on a high school student's record is certainly understandable concern that conceivably gives rise to irreparable harm if upheld, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have failed to establish the immediate nature of said irreparable harm warranting emergent relief, since J.M. is not yet applying to another private high school or college, or for school awards or jobs that might be impacted by having this on his high school record, nor is it interfering with his graduation which is still some time away. There is ample time at a full plenary hearing to determine whether the actions of school officials were inappropriate and excessive under the circumstances.

In order to prevail on an application for emergent relief, a petitioner must meet all four conjunctive prongs set forth in Crowe. Since, petitioners have failed to establish irreparable harm, as well as the likelihood of success on the merits. I FURTHER CONCLUDE that while I have concerns about whether school officials may have "rushed to judgment" without completing a more thorough investigation, or considering lesser means of discipline if any discipline needed to be imposed, in addition to petitioner's stated concern there may be bias against her family due to a history between them and the district prior to this alleged incident, the application for emergent relief should be DENIED, since balancing the equities of the parties at this early juncture is at "equipoise" until a full plenary hearing is conducted and I am unable to determine at this stage which side would prevail on the merits without a full plenary hearing including sworn testimony.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the petitioners' application for emergent relief is DENIED, at this time, but I RETAIN JURISDICTION subject to a full plenary hearing over the entire matter, including the HIB determination, once that part of the case has been acted upon by either the District Board of Education, the Commissioner of Education or both entities.

This Order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

June 5, 2024
DATE

ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency June 5, 2024

Date E-Mailed to Parties: June 5, 2024

lr

257-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07247-24
Agency Dkt. No. 167-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.F.-M., on behalf of minor child, P.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Branchburg, Somerset County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that this matter should be dismissed because petitioner indicated that no issues remain to be addressed following the resolution of her motion for emergent relief.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 1, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 3, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION DENYING EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 07247-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 167-5/24

K.F.M., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD P.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BRANCHBURG,

Respondent.

K.F.M., o/b/o P.F., petitioner, pro se

David B. Rubin, Esquire, for respondent

Record Closed: June 3, 2024 Decided: June 4, 2024

BEFORE DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, K.F.M., on behalf of P.F., moves for emergent relief, appealing that P.F. be permitted to attend the 8th grade school dance on June 8, 2024, and walk for graduation on June 18, 2024. Respondent, the Township of Branchburg Board of Education, declines and presents safety concerns.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a verified petition and request for emergent relief with the Commissioner of the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes (DOE). On May 29, 2024, DOE transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case seeking emergent relief. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The hearing was held on June 3, 2024, and the record closed that day.

The request for emergent relief is now ripe for adjudication.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Petitioner articulated that on October 11, 2023, Mr. Tylin, P.F.'s math teacher, placed a trashcan to her face in front of the class and addressed her in front of her peers as a spoiled brat and spoiled Jersey girl and told her how she is not in the hood. Despite his apology and being told he was joking, this incident set an unfortunate tone for further inappropriate behavior.

On November 29–30, 2023, during health class, students were asked to close their computers. P.F.'s computer was open, as she was logging off. Ms. McGirl, who is the health teacher, walked over to P.F. and slammed the computer shut with P.F.'s hands inside. While her hands were still inside, Ms. McGirl snatched the computer away. Ms. McGirl then physically yanked P.F. by the arm to pull her from her chair to leave the class. P.F. turned and told her "If you touch me that way again, I will punch you in the face." She walked to the office to explain what transpired and was sent to the nurse to have her hands and arm checked. K.F.M. received a call from the school notifying her that P.F. was in the nurse's office being checked, as her hands were smashed, and she was forcibly yanked from her chair by her teacher. When asked if K.F.M. could speak to the teacher, she was told that she could not for the teachers' safety. K.F.M. didn't quite understand that response because P.F. had never been hostile or aggressive in speech or action. Shortly after, she received a phone call from the vice principal, Mr. Derflinger, stating that they had to write an HIB against P.F. because her remarks were threatening to the teacher, and she also received a in school suspension. For this incident, K.F.M. did file a police report in Branchburg, as it was an assault, to document the event. This was not the first time Ms. McGirl has shown aggression towards P.F. and even K.F.M. in conversation.

P.F. was not removed from the class but was isolated by Ms. McGirl during class time. She would pull any students who would sit next to or talk to P.F. Because of the number of reoccurring incidents with Branchburg Central Middle and because a few of the other African American parents were having similar issues with staff and even some students calling the children "ns," referring to them as "monkeys," and making it a point to tell them they won't have the same opportunities, K.F.M. began to pay closer attention to the discipline and reasoning when presented with problems that were concerning P.F. Her first encounter with acting principal Steffner was on January 11, 2024.

January 11, 2024, Ms. Steffner, school principal, informed K.F.M. that P.F. was on the list for retention, adding to the growing concerns about her academic standing, which was alarming because after reading both the student handbook and the code of conduct, P.F. didn't meet any of the qualifications. K.F.M. and P.F.'s grandmother met with Ms. Steffner, where she said P.F. wasn't on a retention list and then in front of the superintendent said she never mentioned a retention list to K.F.M. K.F.M. was a bit confused, as Ms. Steffner had spoken with not just K.F.M., but her husband also. This incident "drew more red flags," and K.F.M. began to get more frequent calls about P.F. from Ms. Steffner that were bothersome.

On January 29, 2024, Ms. Steffner and K.F.M. had an in-person meeting for the first time, and she started the meeting with the incident that happened on November 29, 2023, with Ms. McGirl. She stated that she was alarmed by what she read concerning P.F. and how it was unacceptable to threaten a teacher. K.F.M. was confused because at that time, Ms. Steffner was not the acting principal. P.F. then began to be reprimanded for everything. K.F.M. was notified that there were mass emails sent to every teacher in the school to look out for her, if they saw her in the hall to stop her, find out where she was going or where she should be, and send her there or to the office for a conduct (disciplinary form). The teacher (Ms. Jordan) who mentioned the emails also shared with P.F. that the reason she is not liked by the adults in the building is because they can't take her strong personality. All of these were red flags for K.F.M.

On January 22, 2024, P.F. received conduct emails for being late to class due to a misunderstanding with the resource teacher, Ms. Jordan, resulting in two after-school detentions. P.F. was on a list for one teacher's class but was told she was supposed to be somewhere else. On January 23, 2024, P.F. received another conduct report for being late to class, despite confirmation from the nurse about P.F.'s legitimate health concern. P.F. was in the nurse's office with a runny stomach. On January 24, 2024, P.F. received a conduct report for having her computer open during a Spanish class, with the teacher's reaction appearing disproportionate. On January 25, 2024, P.F. received another conduct report from the same Spanish teacher, raising questions about the consistency and fairness of disciplinary actions. On January 25, 2024, K.F.M. received an email regarding academic dishonesty from the science teacher, Ms. Furnari, which was later proven unfounded but contributed to the overall distress. During P.F.'s music class, the teacher gave them free time, and P.F. asked if she could complete a science worksheet. The music teacher told her, yes. There were other students in her class who were also unaware they had to complete the back of the worksheet, so they all began to work on it. The music teacher, Ms. Devita, sent an email to the science teacher saying that P.F. was copying another student's work, and K.F.M. received the email explaining she was cheating, but it was an ungraded assignment (busy work for students). She wanted students to complete it alone. After speaking to P.F., she of course said she wasn't cheating and that she in fact had not even completed the page, just what she and K.F.M. had done at home the night before. When this was shown, to everybody's amazement, it was a misunderstanding and proven unfounded. Again, K.F.M. was confused because the educator Ms. Devita, who claimed to have seen her cheating, never once said anything to her while in class; she just sent the email to her coworker. On January 29, 2024, on this day as listed above, K.F.M. was actually in the building meeting with Principal Steffner. P.F. and her friends were walking to their science class, where Ms.

Furnari is the teacher, and as they walked to the class and got closer to the door, the teacher stopped her to ask if she had everything she needed. They responded yes, the bell rang, and Ms. Furnari said, "sorry you guys are late" and closed the door. Despite providing evidence that she was indeed close enough to have a brief conversation with the teacher, P.F. received an unexcused tardy for a class, highlighting potential communication issues within the school.

On January 30, 2024, K.F.M. received a phone call from Ms. Steffner suggesting K.F.M.'s involvement in P.F.'s request to leave school early, reflecting a lack of accurate communication. Ms. Steffner called K.F.M. and told her that P.F. told her that K.F.M. called her, and during this alleged phone conversation, K.F.M. told her to come home because she had to go to class. K.F.M. had never spoken to P.F., but did indeed have class, so she was confused. Upon P.F.'s arrival home from school, K.F.M. asked if what Ms. Steffner reported was true. P.F. explained she didn't say what Ms. Steffner claimed, but she was overwhelmed and really wanted to come home, so she asked Ms. Steffner if she could make up the detention (which she receives for every conduct). K.F.M. spoke to Ms. Steffner, and she then said that P.F. made it seem like she spoke to her because she asked if she could make up the detention another day because her mom had class. Now normally, K.F.M. picks P.F. up from school because it saves her from an hour-long bus ride and gives her some extra time to complete homework assignments. If K.F.M. is unable because of school, her husband will go. Ms. Steffner then said that P.F. had double detention for dishonesty. She said P.F. lied to her and made it seem like K.F.M. called her and told her to come home. But K.F.M. didn't understand, nor did K.F.M. want to send the wrong message with what she was being punished for, so K.F.M. told Ms. Steffner that P.F. would not be serving detention for something that was assumed on her end and that K.F.M. didn't like that she lied to her and said P.F. told her she called. Ms. Steffner began to yell that if P.F. did not serve her detentions, that she would suspend her from school and if K.F.M. didn't comply, she would have her removed from the school altogether before hanging up.

On January 31, 2024, Ms. Steffner shared screenshots suggesting academic dishonesty, creating confusion and seemingly escalating the situation from January 25th unnecessarily.

In February 2024, during math class, Mr. Tylin walked up to P.F., snapping his fingers in her face and asking why she doesn't do that. P.F. responded, because she "just don't." Mr. Tylin continued and said, "but why you don't do that? She gave him the same response. Mr. Tylin went on to say, "I didn't like you before but now I have a reason." He continued with, get mad. "I like it when you're mad, I like to make P.F. mad, I like to see her roll her eyes." P.F. repeatedly asked to be excused from class to go to the office. Mr. Tylin refused, and P.F. walked out and went to the office, where she explained what was happening, and the supporting teacher explained that "Mr. Tylin was being very inappropriate and that he seemed a little off," but she wanted P.F. to relax and go to the office after class. K.F.M. didn't understand how P.F. could even function in the classroom after this happened and all that was said to her in front of her peers. P.F. was issued a warning for walking out of the class. Ms. Steffner said she is to stay in class until it's over and get a pass to come to the office for incidents such as this. She is not to leave class in conflict; she is to wait until the class is over.

On February 9, 2024, K.F.M. met with both Ms. Steffner and superintendent Dr. Chase, who seemed to be very understanding of all of her discomforts with P.F. and how she felt she was being targeted by the acting principal, Ms. Steffner, and some of the staff. That nothing was being done when P.F. was wrongfully accused, reprimanded, and harshly punished for things that other students got passes on. K.F.M. explained that the books on suicide and the conversations about how the white students feel about Newark and Irvington, a place where the majority is the minority, were inappropriate and made her daughter uncomfortable to listen to. Students say that criminals, unclean people, poor people live in these places, and they feel unsafe, how it's dirty and run down. She assured K.F.M. that they would speak to the teachers, that the town was changing, and they had a lot of work to do. P.F. has also reported to the guidance counselor, Ms. Nelson, that she has been called "nr" by some of the same students, and nothing was done. P.F. was also spoken to by an educator (Ms. Kepner) who said to her she already has a tally against her because of the color of her skin and that she won't get away with what the other students get away with because of that. The teacher felt it was best if P.F. just laid low and kept her head down.

On February 22, 2024, the family received a call from Ms. Steffner, notifying that P.F. was being issued an in-school suspension for leaving the class without a pass. Both P.F. and K.F.M. were confused, as class didn't start until 8:07 a.m., and it wasn't even 8:00 a.m. yet. Initially, Ms. Steffner said it was because she was late, but P.F.'s bus arrived at school early at 7:45 a.m. She took her things to her first period class to be prepared when classes started and went to her resource teacher's classroom. K.F.M. spoke to the superintendent, who reiterated what Ms. Steffner said: that P.F. left the class and didn't have a pass, so that behavior warranted an in-school suspension. She then went on to say that P.F. was being disrespectful to a teacher by the name of Ms. Gatti, whom P.F. has shared on numerous occasions that she can be a bit touchy, and on this day, with getting in trouble first thing in the morning and not understanding why, P.F. didn't like that she kept rubbing her arms, shoulders, and neck. She also wasn't feeling too great and was later picked up from school with a fever of 104 (reported by the nurse). She also received documented medical care that day.

On March 1, 2024, P.F. was suspended from school for cutting class and theft. K.F.M. received a call that P.F. received a pass from her technology teacher to leave class and that she and another student met up and walked the halls until they were outside of a teacher's class where student pencil cases and supplies were left outside. K.F.M. was made aware that the incident happened on February 21, 2024. They received an anonymous tip from a student and teacher who reported that there were two black girls going through the pencil cases in the hall, so they checked the cameras and saw P.F. going in another student's pencil case. After investigation, they found that P.F. had permission from the student to take lead for a pencil out of the pencil case but said it is against school policy to go in another student's belongings. There is also a record that P.F. got the pass from her teacher whose class she allegedly cut to go to the nurse. The nurse called K.F.M. on February 21, 2024, and asked if she could give P.F. Tylenol for a headache. K.F.M. had the understanding that by law, when medication is administered, the child is watched while taking the medication and is monitored a little while after to make sure there are no reactions.

Once P.F. left the nurse's office, she ran into her classmate, which isn't uncommon, and before going back to class, she went to get the lead she asked her friend for that morning and reported back to class. K.F.M. was told she received the suspension for cutting and theft because she didn't go straight back to class, so it was considered a cut despite the pass, and despite having consent to go in her friend's pencil case, it's against school policy to do so.

On March 7,2024, K.F.M. had a meeting with principal Steffner, vice principal Derflinger, two of the school counselors, one being Ms. Nelson, and the teacher who reported P.F. was stealing. They wanted to set up a behavioral plan along with each of her teachers (even the ones who don't like her) because she is insubordinate and blatantly defiant among many others, all words used by principal Steffner. After K.F.M. shared her concerns and how the suspension was not warranted as P.F. hadn't broken any rules according to their student handbook and code of conduct, there was complete silence, as if amazed she had read it in its entirety. K.F.M. explained she felt at this point that P.F. was being targeted, and it was made plausible when mass emails were sent out about her and teachers felt the need to watch her so closely that she was publicly ostracized and verbally and physically attacked, and that had become her norm when walking the halls at Branchburg Central Middle School. Since starting at Branchburg Middle, she had never seen such a drastic change in her daughter's behavior as to always be on guard, and at times, defeated. She even got so overwhelmed with school and the adjustment to the culture of the school, with not many students who look like her in her classes and them so freely being able to call her a nigger or a monkey with no penalty, that she took a handful of Tylenol with the intent to not only stop the headaches she always having now, but to go to sleep and never wake up. It has been affirmed by teachers that "she is not liked and is targeted because of her personality and because of the color of her skin" (their words). It had gotten so bad that P.F. was coming home every day with a headache and was in the nurse's office every other day complaining of headaches, where the nurse administered medicine. With no resolve, and to save her daughter from being a partaker in the abuse of power from the authorities at Branchburg Middle School, K.F.M. removed her, and she is now being homeschooled for the remainder of the year. At this point, it is the safest option, as K.F.M. does not feel P.F. is protected while in school.

The petition is for P.F. to attend the 8th grade prom and graduation. P.F. entered the education system with boundless enthusiasm, eager to learn and excel. Her early years in school were marked by academic promise and a thirst for knowledge. However, P.F.'s journey turned dark when she became the target of discrimination. It began subtly, with biased remarks and microaggressions from classmates and even some educators. P.F. found herself marginalized and isolated, her confidence eroded by the constant reminders of her perceived differences. Each incident that K.F.M. has shared highlights a pattern of unfair treatment and prejudice against P.F., causing significant distress and harm to her well-being. The cumulative effect of the nine incidents in one month cannot be overstated, causing immense stress and isolation. The behavior exhibited by the staff at Branchburg Central Middle School created an intimidating and hostile environment for P.F., further exacerbating her distress. Even in the face of such blatant discrimination and harassment, the school failed to take appropriate action. Several meetings were held with no change; K.F.M.'s only recourse was to disenroll P.F. from school to protect her physical and mental health.

Closing the chapter of middle school is a big deal, and though P.F. faced many challenges to get through the school year, she maintained her grades to participate in her 8th grade festivities. P.F. should be given the opportunity to attend her 8th grade dance and graduate with her peers. P.F. has endured enough and deserves some relief.

Respondents claim that P.F. is a fourteen-year-old 8th grade student who no longer attends school in the Branchburg School District. P.F. was unilaterally disenrolled from the district by her parent on or about March 7, 2024. During the 2023–2024 school year, there were forty-one (41) incidents of various forms of inappropriate behavior reported by sixteen (16) different staff members involving P.F. Of the forty-one violations of the code of conduct, she received consequences ten times—the remaining thirty-one infractions involved conversations with counselors or administration. Additionally, there are several other infractions that have not been captured here and did not result in disciplinary outcomes, as respondent was trying to build a relationship with the student. These incidents illustrated a consistent pattern of non-compliance, disrespect, and disruption in the school environment.

On October 5, 2023, at 11:13 a.m., Mr. Tylin, a teacher, reported that P.F. was asked multiple times to spit out her gum, but she refused. Instead, she continued chewing gum while denying having any, demonstrating a failure to comply and being disrespectful. The recommended action was for P.F. to take a few minutes to reset before returning to class. On October 11, 2023, at 11:04 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. used profanity in class, telling the teacher to "eat her dick." This behavior was categorized as inappropriate language, disruptive, work avoidance, and disrespectful. The action taken was to have P.F. remain in the office for the period, with work sent down for her to complete, and she was assigned two lunch detentions.

On October 16, 2023, at 8:31 a.m., Ms. Furnari, another teacher, reported that substitute Victoria Nguyen noted P.F.'s disrespect during her instruction. P.F. talked to a friend during Mrs. Nguyen's instruction and responded dismissively to the substitute's request to pay attention. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, work avoidance, and disrespect. The recommended action was for P.F. to be sent back to class after speaking to someone.

On October 18, 2023, at 8:55 a.m., Ms. Valinoti, another teacher, reported that P.F. refused to start her Social Studies assignment, choosing instead to check emails and work on Science Gizmo. Despite verbal prompts and GoGuardian chats, she softly refused redirection and continued working on other assignments. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and work avoidance. The recommended action was for P.F. to be sent back to class after speaking to someone.

On October 26, 2023, at 3:04 p.m., Mr. Wright, another teacher, reported that P.F. used foul language in class. This behavior was categorized as inappropriate language. The action taken was to have P.F. remain in the office for the period, with work sent down for her to complete. On November 21, 2023, at 9:03 a.m., Ms. Valinoti reported that P.F. was eating Twizzlers in class and lied about the quantity she had. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, disruptive, and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers. On November 22, 2023, at 7:42 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was in the bathroom for approximately seventeen minutes on November 21, cutting class. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers and herself.

On November 22, 2023, at 7:44 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was in the bathroom for approximately ten minutes on November 13, cutting class. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers and herself. Also on November 22, 2023, at 7:46 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that on November 14, P.F. left to go to the nurse's bathroom and did not return within a reasonable time. She was found hanging out with a friend in a different bathroom. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respecting teachers and herself. On November 27, 2023, at 10:28 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was out of the classroom for more than ten minutes, cutting class. This behavior was categorized as a student not being where they need to be. The recommended action was for P.F. to be sent back to class after speaking to someone, with a focus on respecting teachers and herself.

On November 28, 2023, at 8:16 a.m., Vicki Brody, another teacher, reported that P.F. refused to take her new assigned seat after the entire class was given new seating assignments. P.F. voiced her refusal to the entire class and was told to either take her new seat or go to the office. She chose to leave for the office. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disruptive. The recommended action was for P.F. to take a few minutes to reset before returning to class. Also on November 28, 2023, at 11:49 a.m., Debbie Glick, another teacher, reported that she caught P.F. at her locker with a lollipop in her mouth. When asked what she had in her mouth, P.F. ignored the question and walked away. After being followed and asked again, she responded with "a stick" and then ran into Mr. Tylin's classroom. This incident was not the first time she had been told not to have candy in the halls. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect to teachers.

On November 29, 2023, at 3:10 p.m., Ms. Maloney, another teacher, reported that P.F. was off task during an activity and given an alternate task, which she tore up and refused to complete. She later asked to go to the bathroom and returned with her backpack and jacket, suggesting she went to her locker instead. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 1, 2023, Ms. McGirl, another teacher, reported that P.F. got upset at a teacher and told her that "If you weren't a teacher, I would punch you in the face." The behavior was categorized as disrespectful to a staff member. The student was assigned an in-school suspension that was served on December 4, 2023.

On December 6, 2023, at 2:45 p.m., Ms. Maloney reported that P.F. appeared to be speaking negatively about another student's appearance. When asked about it, she told the teacher to mind their own business, mimicked the teacher, and then left the class to see Ms. Nelson despite being told to wait. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, disruptive, and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers and respect to each other.

On December 8, 2023, at 10:52 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. came to class on time and was praised for making up her homework but left the classroom without notice when the bell rang. She returned only after being called back and was unaccounted for five minutes. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply, student not being where they need to be, and disruptive. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 13, 2023, at 10:25 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. disappeared after the bell without checking in. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not being where they need to be. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers and accountability.

On December 14, 2023, at 8:25 a.m., Ms. Brody reported that after two verbal prompts and two GoGuardian messages, including a code word, P.F. refused to put her food back in her locker, hiding a bag of food under her hoodie. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disruptive. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on following school rules.

On December 14, 2023, at 8:28 a.m., Ms. Brody reported that P.F. refused to go to the office, claiming her food was put away, but this was not confirmed. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disruptive. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 15, 2023, at 3:16 p.m., Ms. Villanova reported that P.F., along with other students, was seen hanging out at a locker and meandering down the hallway during class. Despite being told to get to class, they ignored the instruction and continued strolling outside the gym. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply, student not being where they need to be, disrespectful, and physical/disrespectful towards school property. The behavioral focus was on respect to the school and its rules.

On December 19, 2023, at 2:15 p.m., Ms. Valinoti reported that P.F. entered a classroom to give a gift to another student and disrupted the class. She refused to leave when asked. The behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not being where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On December 20, 2023, at 8:49 a.m., Ms. Brody reported that P.F. left for the bathroom at 8:32 a.m. but had not returned by 8:47 a.m. She was reported to be hanging out in the 7th grade hall during her Social Studies class. This behavior was categorized as a failure to comply. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways.

On December 21, 2023, at 10:29 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. cut class by hanging out in the hallway, visiting the nurse, and then going to the office to avoid attending her class. The previous day, she had received a 5/50 on quiz. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be and work avoidance. The behavioral focus was on respect for teachers and self.

On December 21, 2023, at 11:02 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. was not where she needed to be, which showed a lack of accountability. She asked to go to the bathroom and ended up in another room. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On January 8, 2024, at 8:56 a.m., Ms. Valinoti and Ms. Brody reported that P.F. had done no work for the entire class period, despite several redirections. She was talking to other students, using foul language, and disrupting classmates. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, inappropriate language, disruptive, and work avoidance. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On January 8, 2024, at 11:43 a.m., Ms. Pereira, another teacher, reported that P.F. did not show up to resource class and was missing for twelve minutes. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and student not where they need to be. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on cutting class.

On January 17, 2024, at 8:36 p.m., Ms. Gatti, an instructional aide, reported repeated defiance of instructions by P.F. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply. The behavioral focus was on respect for each other.

On January 22, 2024, at 9:54 a.m., Ms. Furnari and Ms. Brody reported that P.F. and another student were over five minutes late to class without a pass, claiming they were in the bathroom. Both students left their first period early as well. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect to teachers.

On January 22, 2024, at 12:20 p.m., Ms. Pereira reported that P.F. did not report to her assigned resource class, was missing for over ten minutes, and falsely claimed she was pulled to another resource list. She argued and refused to follow directions, showing disrespect and work avoidance. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, student not where they need to be, and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. P.F. was assigned two (2) after-school detentions on January 23 and 25, 2024.

On January 23, 2024, Ms. McGirl reported that P.F. had arrived to her class late and was considered absent. She was assigned an after-school detention on January 3, 2024. On January 24, 2024, at 2:25 p.m., Ms. Maloney reported that P.F. refused to hand over her Chromebook when asked and was working on a project instead of listening to a presentation. This behavior was categorized as a failure to comply. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. She was assigned an after-school detention on February 1, 2024.

On January 25, 2024, at 9:06 a.m., Ms. Gatti reported that P.F. openly defied instructions and did not report to her scheduled class. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply and disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers.

On January 25, 2024, at 9:52 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. was caught copying another student's science packet for the third time. This behavior was categorized as cheating/academic integrity. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers and each other. P.F. was assigned a lunch detention on January 26, 2024.

On January 30, 2024, at 11:26 a.m., Mr. Tylin reported that P.F. asked to go to the office in the middle of class, did not accept the answer to wait until the end, and walked out of class. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply, technology misuse/electronics, student not where they need to be, disruptive, and disrespectful. The recommended action was for P.F. to take a few minutes to reset before returning to class. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. P.F. conferenced with the principal.

On February 7, 2024, at 3:20 p.m., Ms. Volpe reported that P.F. was observed pushing and shoving another student during dismissal, creating a potential safety hazard. This behavior was categorized as disruptive. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways. P.F. conferenced with the principal.

On February 9, 2024, at 10:36 a.m., Ms. Furnari reported that P.F. left for the bathroom at 10:13 a.m. and did not return, missing an entire lab session. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect for teachers and self. P.F. was assigned lunch detention on February 9, 2024.

On February 22, 2024, at 8:25 a.m., Ms. Maloney reported that P.F. was found in the World Language hallway going through another student's locker without a pass and without communicating her reason for being there. This behavior was categorized as student not where they need to be. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways.

On February 22, 2024, at 9:35 a.m., Mr. Wright reported that P.F. was in another student's locker in the 7th grade wing while she should have been in her first period class in the 8th grade wing. This behavior was categorized as cutting class. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect for each other. (This may be two write-ups for the same situation since the student has gym first period—Mr. Wright wrote her up for the cut since she was supposed to be with him, and Ms. Maloney witnessed it and wrote it up because she was in someone else's locker.)

On February 23, 2024, at 8:24 a.m., Ms. Valinoti and Ms. Brody reported that P.F. left homeroom to talk to a friend and then went to Ms. Jordan's room despite being told to return to homeroom. This behavior was categorized as failure to comply. The recommended action was to send the student back to class after speaking to someone. The behavioral focus was on respect to teachers. P.F. was assigned in-school suspension on February 23, 2024.

On February 29, 2024, at 8:25 a.m., Mr. Updegrove reported that P.F. was walking down the hallway eating from a bag of goldfish crackers and responded disrespectfully when asked why she was eating in the hallway. This behavior was categorized as disrespectful. The behavioral focus was on respect in the hallways and respect to teachers. P.F. was assigned a lunch detention on March 1, 2024.

On March 1, 2024, a student reported property missing. Camera footage verifies that P.F. went into the student's belongings and stole items. Additionally, P.F. was wandering hallways prior to this incident. P.F. was suspended from March 4 to March 6, 2024, spanning three days, due to theft and cutting class.

On or about March 7, 2024, a re-entry meeting was held with Mr. Derflinger, vice principal; Ms. Volpe, 8th-grade team leader; Ms. Nelson, counselor (attending virtually); and Mr. Harris, school psychologist. During this meeting, respondent offered a variety of strategies, including, among other things, regular check-ins with P.F.'s counselor, Ms. Nelson, counseling sessions with Ms. Ryan, MSW, LCSW, EdS, LMFT, who is the district's Mental Health & Well-Being Social Worker, and access to the school's behaviorist to determine methods that could help P.F. be more successful. When respondent asked the parent for her thoughts on the plan and whether she had any other suggestions, she abruptly stated that she would be homeschooling P.F. for the remainder of the school year. She was given the necessary paperwork and signed her child out of school. The parent completed the appropriate paperwork and disenrolled P.F. from the district shortly thereafter.

P.F. is ineligible to participate in the 8th grade prom and graduation, as she was disenrolled from the district several months ago. Unfortunately, based on the course of conduct set forth above and the likelihood that her presence at these events would be disruptive, it is unlikely that P.F. would have been allowed the privilege of attending the 8th grade dance and graduation even if she were still enrolled in the district. (Policy & Regulation 5541.)

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The regulations governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education . . . [,] the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

At a hearing for emergent relief, petitioner must show that they satisfy the following four standards:

> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
>
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
>
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
>
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) (citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)).]

The petitioner must prove each of these standards by clear and convincing evidence. Garden State Equality v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013). Arguably, the standard is a high threshold to meet, and I will address each prong separately.

1. Irreparable harm

As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in Crowe, "[o]ne principle is that a preliminary injunction should not issue except when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden Horse R.R. Co., 29 N.J. Eq. 299, 303 (E. & A. 1878)). Indeed, the purpose of emergent relief is to "prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case." Ibid. (quoting Thompson ex rel. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders v. Paterson, 9 N.J. Eq. 624, 625 (Sup. Ct. 1854).)

"Irreparable harm is shown when money damages cannot adequately compensate plaintiff's injuries." Hornstine v. Twp. of Moorestown, 263 F. Supp. 2d 887, 911 (D.N.J. 2003) (citing Sampson v. Murray, 415 U.S. 61, 90 (1974)). "More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated." Cont'l Grp., Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (3d Cir. 1980). "The requisite for injunctive relief has been characterized as a 'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury' . . . or a 'presently existing actual threat; [an injunction] may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by the common law.'" Ibid. (citations omitted).

Here, with respect to the first prong, despite the fact that K.F.M. testified that they "don't care about the dance," P.F. will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted. If she does not attend either event, that opportunity will be lost forever.

Petitioner sustains her burden to show by clear and convincing evidence that P.F. will suffer irreparable harm. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has shown irreparable harm.

2. Settled Legal Right

However, as explained to the petitioner, there is a difference between emergent and important. I understand that the requests here are important; however, they are not emergent. Emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–05). While it is understood that P.F. will receive her diploma, the legal right underlying petitioner's claim is well settled. That is, case law establishes that attendance at a graduation ceremony is a privilege and not a right. See I.K. v. West Windsor-Plainsboro School District, 97 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 639; M.P. v. Hackettstown Board of Education, 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDS) 210. Therefore, because she has no legal right to attend the ceremony, she cannot satisfy that prong of the test. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not shown a legal right underlying this claim.

3. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

Petitioner has not demonstrated that she is likely to succeed on the merits of the underlying claim. Under this emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115–16 (E. & A. 1930)).

This typically "'involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case' based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182–83 (App. Div. 2012) (quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App. Div. 2006)).

Because I have found that petitioner has not shown a legal right underlying this claim, it logically follows that there is not a likelihood of success on the merits. The number of incidents allegedly perpetrated by P.F. that warranted discipline was exorbitant. Petitioner's claim is that there is a "cultural difference." Petitioner has not provided any clear and convincing evidence or legal authority showing that they have a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits, and I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not shown a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits.

4. Balancing the Equities

The fourth and final emergent relief standard involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J. Eq. 506, 515 (Ch. 1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J. Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)).

The only evidence presented here regarding relative hardship to the parties pertains to the fact that P.F. will not walk at graduation nor attend her dance. However, that was dealt with in the above analysis.

I CONCLUDE that the Board will suffer greater harm should emergent relief be granted than the student if the requested relief is not granted.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that petitioner failed to meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the petitioner's application for emergent relief be and hereby is DENIED. From representations made by counsel for the parties during prehearing conferences, I understand that there are no other issues to be decided on the underlying petition, and accordingly, the petition is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

June 4, 2024
DATE

DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

DJB/onl

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner

K.F.M.

For respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

Request for emergent relief dated May 24, 2024

For respondent

Opposition dated May 31, 2024

260-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 0188-124 (EDU 04075-22 on remand)
Agency Dkt. No. 94-4/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hainesport, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, which was transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 and includes an advisement of petitioner's failure to appear at the scheduled OAL hearing on May 17, 2024 has been reviewed. Petitioner did not file an explanation for the failure to appear, notwithstanding the opportunity to do so. Accordingly, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case before the Commissioner and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 11, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 12, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

261-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11412-22
Agency Dkt. No. 305-11/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Jeffrey Moultrie,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by respondent New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection (OSP) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and petitioner's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

In September 2022, Seashore Transportation hired petitioner as school bus driver for both public and private schools. A fingerprint check conducted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(a) revealed that, in 1978, petitioner was convicted of second-degree attempted robbery in New York State. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1(a) provides that school bus drivers "shall be permanently disqualified from employment or service if the individual's criminal history record reveals a record of conviction for which public school employment candidates are disqualified pursuant to section 1 of P.L. 1986, c. 116 (C.18A:6-7.1)." Under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(1) and (4), an attempted robbery conviction permanently disqualifies a person from public school employment.[1]

Accordingly, via email and letter dated October 18, 2022, OSP informed petitioner that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1, he was "permanently disqualified from school employment, or service as a school board member or trustee of a charter school under the supervision of the Department of Education, or employment with a contracted service provider under contract with said school or educational facility." The letter further provided that OSP would direct the Motor Vehicle Commission to revoke petitioner's bus endorsement unless he filed a challenge to the accuracy of his criminal record within 14 days.

Petitioner appealed OSP's decision and the matter was transmitted to the OAL for a contested case hearing. At no point did petitioner deny the existence of the conviction or the fact that attempted robbery was a permanently disqualifying crime under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Rather, petitioner argued that the Rehabilitated Convicted Offenders Act (RCOA), N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1 to -16, supersedes N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and that, therefore, he should not be disqualified because he can prove that he has been rehabilitated since the 1978 conviction. In opposition to petitioner's appeal, OSP maintained that petitioner's permanent disqualification was mandatory under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 irrespective of any evidence of rehabilitation.

When it enacted the RCOA in 1968, the Legislature "declared that the public interest is advanced 'by removing impediments and restrictions upon [convicted offenders'] ability to obtain employment.'" N.J. Tpk. Auth. v. Local 196, I.F.P.T.E., 190 N.J. 283, 301 (2007) (quoting

---

[1] N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d) provides that out-of-state convictions for crimes that are substantially equivalent to New Jersey disqualifying crimes will permanently disqualify the offender from public school employment.

N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1). In this matter, petitioner specifically relies upon N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1 and -2 of the RCOA. N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1, the RCOA's preamble, states in pertinent part that "the Legislature finds and declares that notwithstanding the contrary provisions of any law or rule or regulation issued pursuant to law, a person shall not be disqualified or discriminated against by any licensing authority because of any conviction from a crime . . . unless the conviction relates adversely to the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business for which the license or certificate is sought." (emphasis added). N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-2 provides that, "[i]n determining that a conviction for a crime relates adversely to the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business, the licensing authority shall explain in writing how the following factors, or any other factors, relate to the license or certificate sought," and those factors include:

> a. The nature and duties of the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business, a license or certificate for which the person is applying;
>
> b. Nature and seriousness of the crime;
>
> c. Circumstances under which the crime occurred;
>
> d. Date of the crime;
>
> e. Age of the person when the crime was committed;
>
> f. Whether the crime was an isolated or repeated incident;
>
> g. Social conditions which may have contributed to the crime;
>
> h. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release > programs, or the recommendation of persons who have or have had the applicant under their supervision.[2]

At the hearing, petitioner credibly testified regarding his arrest, which occurred when he was eighteen years old, and the surrounding circumstances; his early release from parole; his service in the United States Army, including multiple medals he received while serving, and his honorable discharge; and subsequent employment with Amtrak and the United States Postal Service, where he also received various awards and commendations for his work performance, as well as work driving for an ambulance service. Petitioner's employer, the owner and operator of Seashore Transportation, credibly testified that he kept petitioner on staff as a mechanic after OSP disqualified him. He added that petitioner is an excellent employee and that he needs bus drivers.

In response, OSP maintained that petitioner's permanent disqualification was mandatory under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. In support of its position, OSP emphasized that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1—enacted in 1986, decades after the RCOA—initially contained language similar to the RCOA that permitted employment applicants convicted of disqualifying offenses to provide clear and convincing evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the Department to consider. See L. 1986, c. 116, § 1. However, in 1998, the Legislature amended N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, expanded the list of disqualifying offenses, and deleted the provision in the law that had permitted applicants to provide evidence of rehabilitation. L. 1998, c. 31, § 5. See also David Kelly v. N.J. Dep't of Educ.,

---

[2] Although the RCOA was expanded in 2007 to provide that, under certain conditions, a certificate may be issued by a court, Parole Board or other supervising authority pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7 and -8 that would presumptively demonstrate a qualified offender's "rehabilitation for purposes of seeking public employment," In re Carluccio, 426 N.J. Super. 15, 28 (App. Div. 2012), petitioner concedes that he lacks such a certificate.

Crim. Hist. Rev. Unit, Commissioner Decision No. 344-14 (Aug. 21, 2014) (explaining that "the Legislature has repeatedly amended" N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, "broadening the scope of disqualifying offenses and precluding evidence of rehabilitation, to provide greater protection for children from those it deemed a danger to them").

OSP argued that because N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 was amended more recently and is specific to employment in public schools, the Legislature must have intended for it to govern in this situation over the RCOA. OSP also relied upon In the Matter of the Denial of the Issuance of a Teaching Certificate to Otto Krupp, Commissioner Decision No. 255-04 (June 24, 2004), wherein the Commissioner found "no conflict or tension" between the RCOA and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Krupp, at 19. In Krupp, the Commissioner explained that by amending N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 in 1998, the Legislature "proclaimed that a conviction for a first or second degree crime was inimical to employment in the public schools" and determined that "an individual's conviction for certain crimes . . . relates adversely to employment in the public school system of New Jersey" as contemplated by N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1. Id. at 19-21. Consequently, once the 1998 amendments took effect, OSP was not required to consider evidence of rehabilitation under the RCOA before permanently disqualifying said individuals from public school employment.

Ultimately, the ALJ agreed with petitioner. In particular, the ALJ concluded that the RCOA applied, that petitioner offered credible evidence of rehabilitation under the RCOA, and that OSP "failed to establish that petitioner's 1978 conviction relates adversely to the license being sought." Initial Decision, at 12. Without analyzing the significance of the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, the ALJ concluded that "the Legislature reopened the doors to employment in the public schools for certain rehabilitated offenders, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, including N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1, when it enacted RCOA." Initial Decision, at 11. Accordingly, the ALJ reversed OSP's determination that petitioner was permanently disqualified from public school employment.

OSP takes exception to: (1) the ALJ's determination that petitioner presented evidence of rehabilitation pursuant to the RCOA that must be considered; and (2) the ALJ's legal conclusion that respondent is precluded from fulfilling its mandatory statutory obligation under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 to permanently disqualify petitioner from employment as a public school bus driver because the RCOA supersedes N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. In reply, petitioner argues that the ALJ's decision is correct and should be adopted by the Commissioner for the reasons he asserted before the ALJ. He reiterates that he has clearly shown that he has been rehabilitated pursuant to the RCOA since his conviction many years ago.

Upon careful review, the Commissioner adopts the ALJ's uncontested factual findings and credibility determinations as expressed in the Initial Decision but rejects the ALJ's legal conclusions. The Commissioner holds that the ALJ erroneously reversed OSP's permanent disqualification of petitioner from employment as a public school bus driver based upon a flawed analysis of the RCOA and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Specifically, the ALJ overlooked a prior Commissioner decision, Krupp, which directly addresses the relationship between the two statutory schemes and the significance of the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. The ALJ also failed to apply well-established principles of statutory interpretation. The Commissioner concurs with OSP that petitioner's permanent disqualification from employment as a public school bus driver was mandatory under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 notwithstanding evidence of rehabilitation offered pursuant to the RCOA.

This conclusion is consistent with Krupp. As noted, in Krupp, the Commissioner held that "[b]ecause the . . . 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 [were] specifically predicated on the Legislature's belief that an individual's conviction for certain crimes . . . relates adversely to employment in the public school system of New Jersey, disqualification or discrimination against such an individual . . . is specifically exempted from the dictates of the RCOA by that provision's [N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1's] clear language as a consequence of the relationship between the offense and the certification being sought." Krupp, at 21. The Commissioner finds and concludes that the ALJ erroneously distinguished Krupp on the basis that in that matter, the applicant did not provide sufficient proof of rehabilitation whereas petitioner in this case did so. By distinguishing Krupp on its facts, the ALJ bypassed the significance of the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, as well as the fact that the Commissioner's interpretation of those amendments as explained in Krupp is entitled to deference because the "agency's expertise and superior knowledge of a particular field" is implicated. Greenwood v. State Police Training Ctr., 127 N.J. 500, 513 (1992).

Furthermore, well-established principles of statutory interpretation support the need to consider the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 as part of the legal analysis in this matter. See State v. Gomes, 253 N.J. 6, 28 (2023) (holding that when determining "the intended overall meaning of the texts of multiple statutes that were adopted at different times," it is "the most recent statutory enactment [that] ordinarily supersedes, or at least qualifies or illuminates, language that was adopted in earlier statutes"). Additionally, "a more specific statutory provision" such as N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, which expressly addresses employment in public schools, "usually controls over a more general one," such as the RCOA. Ibid. To conclude as the ALJ did that the RCOA, specifically N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-2, controls in this matter would render the Legislature's 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 inoperative and meaningless, thereby violating another important principle of statutory interpretation. See Innes v. Innes, 117 N.J. 496, 509 (1990) (holding that one must "avoid constructions that render any part of a statute inoperative, superfluous, or meaningless").

Moreover, when considering the significance of the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, it is important to acknowledge that the Legislature is presumed to be "aware of its own enactments." Headen v. Jersey City Bd. of Educ., 212 N.J. 437, 449 (2012). When it removed the rehabilitation language from N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 in 1998 and determined instead that convictions for certain crimes would permanently disqualify applicants from public school employment, the Legislature was aware of the RCOA. It nonetheless determined that convictions for certain enumerated crimes were so adverse to public school employment—in environments where student safety is at stake—that evidence of an offender's rehabilitation should not be considered. As the Commissioner explained in Krupp:

> [T]he Legislature in enacting the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 proclaimed that a conviction for a first or second degree crime was inimical to employment in the public schools. When these amendments were drafted, the Legislature declared that the interest and safety of school children in the State of New Jersey must prevail. Indeed, one of the sponsors of the amendments declared, "We are entrusting these people with our children's safety. The risk that these people have not been rehabilitated is a gamble that we are not willing to take."
>
> [Krupp, at 21.]

Accordingly, the Commissioner holds that petitioner shall remain permanently disqualified from employment as a public school bus driver pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. However, as petitioner's employer testified that he hired petitioner as a school bus driver for both public and private schools, OSP shall direct the Motor Vehicle Commission to restore petitioner's school bus endorsement for purposes of employment as a nonpublic school bus driver as he is not disqualified from operating a school bus for a nonpublic school. See Scott Baron v. N.J Dep't of Educ., Off. of Student Prot., Commissioner Decision No. 95-20 (March 13, 2020) (holding that "N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 applies only to bus drivers employed by public schools or other educational entities under the supervision of the Department of Education").

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 11, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 12, 2024

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11412-22
AGENCY DKT. NO. 305-11/22

JEFFREY MOULTRIE,
Petitioner,
v.
NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,
Respondent.

Martin J. Arbus, Esq, for petitioner, (Arbus, Maybruch & Goode, LLC, attorneys)

David L. Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: April 18, 2024 Decided: May 29, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM T. COOPER III, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Jeffrey Moultrie (petitioner), appeals the determination by respondent, Department of Education, Office of Student Protection (respondent or OSP), that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, he is permanently disqualified from employment as a public-school bus driver and any other public-school employment because of his 1978 conviction in New York for second-degree robbery. Petitioner does not dispute the accuracy of his criminal history record or that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 requires his disqualification. Petitioner argues that the Rehabilitated Convicted Offenders Act (RCOA), N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1 to -16, supersedes N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, and that due to his rehabilitation, he should not be disqualified.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On October 18, 2022, the OSP issued a notice disqualifying petitioner from working at any educational institution under the supervision of the Department of Education.

On November 11, 2022, the petitioner timely appealed respondent's disqualification determination to the Commissioner of Education, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. On December 18, 2022, respondent filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer.

The matter, including the motion, was transmitted as a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on December 21, 2022. N.J.S.A. 52:14 B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14 F-1 to -13.

On October 6, 2023, an Order denying respondent's motion to dismiss was entered.

A hearing was conducted on January 23, 2024. The record remained open for the parties to submit written summations, which were submitted on February 26, 2024.

Clarification from the parties concerning the difference between a private school and public-school bus operator was requested, and the responses were received on April 18, 2024. The record closed on that date.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Testimony

Jeffrey Moultrie

The petitioner testified in support of his application and candidly admitted to the actions that led to his arrest on September 18, 1978. Petitioner grew up in the South Bronx in what he characterized as a bad neighborhood. On the day of his arrest, he was eighteen years and one month, hanging out with his friends. The group began to "hassle" a gentleman who walked by, and the New York City Police Department's Anti-Crime Unit appeared on the scene and arrested the entire group. There were no weapons involved, but because of his age, the petitioner was charged with attempted robbery in the second degree, a crime that exposed him to a total of twelve years of incarceration. He was represented by a public defender who recommended he accept a plea bargain wherein the state would recommend a four-year sentence. The petitioner agreed, and on November 22, 1978, he was sentenced to a maximum of four years of incarceration. The petitioner served two years and was released. During his period of incarceration, the petitioner earned his General Education Degree (GED).

A condition of his parole was to "find and maintain gainful employment throughout his parole term," and he was able to comply with this condition with the assistance of the Neighborhood Work Project for convicted offenders. An additional condition of his parole included regular drug testing, which was not an issue as he did not use illegal drugs. The petitioner was successfully released early from his parole.

In 1982, the petitioner was accepted to the University of Syracuse (Syracuse), where he also played football. Unfortunately, the petitioner could not afford to stay in Syracuse and left the school in 1984. The petitioner maintained employment from 1984 to 1987, at which time he joined the United States Army (Army). While in the Army, the petitioner was trained as a "Light Wheel Vehicle Mechanic" and as a "Food Service Specialist." During his training, the petitioner was stationed at Fort Knox in Kentucky, Fort Sill in Oklahoma, and Fort Lee in Virginia. The petitioner was deployed in 1990 to Germany and then to Saudi Arabia, where he participated in the Desert Shield campaign. The petitioner was returned to Fort Drum in New York State, where he was released from the armed service. The petitioner rose to the rank of sergeant and received an "Honorable Discharge" on January 8, 1995. The petitioner's discharge noted that he had earned the "Army Achievement Medal," "Army Service Medal," "National Defense Service Medal," "Overseas Service Ribbon," "Mechanic Badge," "Army Good Conduct Medal," and "Expert Badge Rifle and Hand Grenade."

Upon his honorable discharge, the petitioner relocated to the Bronx, N.Y. where he worked several jobs, including as a driver for a local cab service and as an attendant at a local gas station. In 1997, he was able to secure employment with Amtrak as a coach attendant. Petitioner's employment with Amtrak led to employment with the United States Postal Service (USPS). As a USPS employee, the petitioner received a "Spot Award" and "Certificate of Appreciation" in recognition of his outstanding ability and quality performance of duty on January 8, 2007, and again on March 5, 2010, petitioner received a letter of appreciation for reporting to work during the blizzard that occurred February 26, 2010.

The petitioner left USPS for employment that had better wages and benefits. He obtained his Commercial Driver License (CDL) in the State of New York and was employed by the Richmond County Ambulance Service located in Staten Island, N.Y.

The petitioner is married and has five children, four boys and one girl, and his family moved to Perth Amboy, New Jersey, where he obtained employment with Seashore Transportation (Seashore). The petitioner passed the New Jersey CDL test but was unable to obtain passenger endorsement due to his 1978 criminal conviction.

John Villapiano

John Villapiano (Villapiano) is the owner and operator of Seashore. He testified that he hired the petitioner in September 2022 to be a school bus driver for both public and private schools. When the petitioner was disqualified, Villapiano provided the petitioner an opportunity to work in the "garage" as a mechanic. He explained that the petitioner does an excellent job keeping the bus fleet running. However, Villapiano advised that what he really needs is a bus driver because finding people qualified to operate a school bus has become very difficult. Villapiano further testified that the petitioner is an excellent employee, is punctual, and has had no problems at all while working for Seashore.

FINDINGS

For testimony to be believed, it must not only come from the mouth of a credible witness, but it also must be credible. It must elicit evidence that is from such common experience and observation that it can be approved as proper under the circumstances. See Spagnuolo v. Bonnet, 16 N.J. 546 (1954); Gallo v. Gallo, 66 N.J. Super. 1 (App. Div. 1961). A credibility determination requires an overall assessment of the witnesses' story in light of its rationality or internal consistency and the manner in which it "hangs together" with other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). Also, "the interest, motive, bias, or prejudice of a witness may affect his credibility and justify the [trier of fact], whose province it is to pass upon the credibility of an interested witness, in disbelieving his testimony." State v. Salimone, 19 N.J. Super. 600, 608 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 10 N.J. 316 (1952) (citation omitted).

A trier of fact may reject testimony because it is inherently incredible, or because it is inconsistent with other testimony or with common experience, or because it is overborne by other testimony. Congleton v. Pura-Tex Stone Corp.,53 N.J. Super 282, 287 (App. Div. 1958).

There was no indication that either the petitioner or Villapiano had any interest, motive or bias that would affect their testimony. As such, I accept both witnesses as credible.

The respondent did not dispute any of the testimony provided or object to any of the evidence submitted by the petitioner, nor did any witnesses testify on behalf of OSP.

Based upon the testimony heard and documents entered in evidence, I FIND the following as FACT:

1. The petitioner was originally hired by Seashore as a bus driver for both public and private schools in the Monmouth and Ocean County areas. The petitioner applied for a CDL with P (Passenger) and S (School Bus) endorsements necessary to operate a school bus for Seashore. As required, the petitioner submitted his fingerprints as part of the background check.

2. The fingerprint search revealed that the petitioner had a 1978 criminal conviction out of the State of New York for second-degree robbery.

3. The petitioner does not challenge the accuracy of his criminal history record or the fact that his criminal convictions would disqualify him under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.

4. Based upon his criminal history, the petitioner was notified that he was "permanently disqualified" from serving in any position, paid or unpaid, with any educational institution under the supervision of the Department of Education, or any contracted service provider under contract with any "school or educational facility." The notice does not differentiate between public and private schools.

5. On September 18, 1978, when the petitioner was a resident of Bronx, New York, he was arrested and charged with robbery. Petitioner readily admits to this conviction but explained that he did not participate in the robbery and was instead attempting to prevent younger individuals from attempting to rob an older gentleman. Unfortunately, because he was eighteen years old, he was charged as an adult with robbery. The petitioner was represented by a public defender and was advised that if he did not accept a plea agreement, he would face up to twelve years of incarceration. The petitioner accepted the plea agreement, pleaded guilty to robbery, and on November 22, 1978, was sentenced to four years of incarceration. The petitioner served less than two years of his four-year sentence and was released on parole in April 1980. While he served his time in prison, the petitioner earned his GED and had no issues during his two years of parole.

6. Upon his release and the termination of his parole, the petitioner attended Syracuse University, where he played football. Unfortunately, after two years, the petitioner was unable to afford tuition, and as a result, he returned to his parents' home in the Bronx.

7. In 1985, the petitioner entered military service with the United States Army (Army). The petitioner served two four-year enlistments, achieving the rank of sergeant. While in the service, the petitioner received numerous accommodations, including a National Defense Service Medal and a good conduct medal. The petitioner served during Operation Desert Storm as a mechanic, repairing military vehicles during combat operations. The petitioner was "Honorably Discharged" from the Army on January 8, 1995.

8. Upon his discharge, the petitioner maintained gainful employment, which included working for Amtrak, the United States Postal Service (USPS), and Richmond County (Staten Island) Ambulance service.

9. The petitioner is married and has five children. His family moved to New Jersey, and the petitioner was hired by Seashore as a bus driver. The petitioner passed the NJ State CDL driving test but was permanently banned based upon his criminal conviction from forty-five years ago.

10. The petitioner's forty-five-year-old 1978 criminal conviction is petitioner's only criminal violation.

11. Seashore provides bus services to both public and private schools. The position of OSP is that because Seashore holds contracts with boards of education under the Department's authority, the petitioner's inability to meet the criminal history record requirements under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1 precludes petitioner from working as a school bus driver.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The issue here is whether the respondent's determination to permanently disqualify petitioner from employment as a public-school bus driver was appropriate.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides that if a prospective public school bus driver's criminal history background check reveals a disqualifying second-degree attempted robbery conviction, that person is permanently disqualified from school employment. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 provides in relevant part as follows:

> A facility, center, school, or school system under the supervision of the Department of Education and board of education which cares for, or is involved in the education of children under the age of 18 shall not employ for pay or contract for the paid services of any . . . person serving in a position which involves regular contact with pupils unless the employer has first determined consistent with the requirements and standards of this act, that no criminal history record information exists on file . . . which would disqualify that individual from being employed or utilized in such capacity or position. An individual employed by a board of education or a school bus contractor holding a contract with a board of education, in the capacity of a school bus driver, shall be required to meet the criminal history record requirements
>
> . . . .
>
> An individual, except as provided in subsection g. of this section, shall be permanently disqualified from employment or service under this act if the individual's criminal history record check reveals a record of conviction for any crime of the first or second degree; or
>
> . . . .
>
> c.
>
> (1) A crime involving the use of force or the threat of force to or upon a person or property including, but not limited to, robbery, aggravated assault, stalking, kidnapping, arson, manslaughter and murder[.]
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 (emphasis added).]

Further, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 mandates that the criminal convictions that would result in such disqualification include, but are not limited to, "a record of conviction for any crime of the . . . second degree; or . . . [a] crime involving the use of force or threat of force to or upon a person or property including, but not limited to, robbery[.]" N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(c)(1) (emphasis added). This statute also provides that "for purposes of this section, a conviction exists if the individual has at any time been convicted under the laws of this State or under any similar statutes of the United States or any other state for a substantially equivalent crime or other offense." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(d). Finally, under the disqualification law, a prospective employee is afforded "an opportunity to challenge the accuracy of the disqualifying criminal history record." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(e). Here, there is no dispute that the petitioner has a 1978 criminal conviction in the State of New York for second-degree robbery. Based upon this conviction, the respondent maintains that the decision to disqualify the petitioner is mandatory.

Petitioner counters that RCOA allows the employment in public schools for certain rehabilitated offenders, notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, including N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, noting:

> The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest to assist the rehabilitation of convicted offenders by removing impediments and restrictions upon their ability to obtain employment or to participate in vocational or educational rehabilitation programs based solely upon the existence of a criminal record.
>
> Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that notwithstanding the contrary provisions of any law or rule or regulation issued pursuant to law, a person shall not be disqualified or discriminated against by any licensing authority because of any conviction for a crime, unless N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2 is applicable or unless the conviction relates adversely to the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business for which the license or certificate is sought.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-1.]

N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-2 provides:

> Notwithstanding the contrary provisions of any law or rule or regulation issued pursuant to law, no State, county or municipal department, board, officer or agency, hereinafter referred to as "licensing authority" authorized to pass upon the qualifications of any applicant for a license or certificate of authority or qualification to engage in the practice of a profession or business or for admission to an examination to qualify for such a license or certificate may disqualify or discriminate against an applicant for a license or certificate or an application for admission to a qualifying examination on the grounds that the applicant has been convicted of a crime, or adjudged a disorderly person, except that a licensing authority may disqualify or discriminate against an applicant for a license or certificate if N.J.S.A. 2C:51-2 or any disqualifying criminal activity set forth in subsection a. of section 7 of P.L.2009, c.53 (C.17:11C-57) is applicable, or if a conviction for a crime relates adversely to the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business for which the license or certificate is sought. In determining that a conviction for a crime relates adversely to the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business, the licensing authority shall explain in writing how the following factors, or any other factors, relate to the license or certificate sought:
>
> a. The nature and duties of the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business, a license or certificate for which the person is applying;
> b. Nature and seriousness of the crime;
> c. Circumstances under which the crime occurred;
> d. Date of the crime;
> e. Age of the person when the crime was committed;
> f. Whether the crime was an isolated or repeated incident;
> g. Social conditions which may have contributed to the crime;
> h. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, counseling or psychiatric treatment received, acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have or have had the applicant under their supervision.

In this matter, the OSP did not detail how the enumerated factors related to the bus license sought by petitioner. Rather, it was argued that, "[b]ecause the enactment of the 1998 amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 is specifically predicated on the Legislature's belief that an individual's conviction for certain crimes, including [robbery], relates adversely to employment in the public school system of New Jersey, disqualification or discrimination against such an individual who has applied for [public school employment] is specifically exempted from the dictates of the RCOA by that provision's clear language as a consequence of the relationship between the offense and [the employment] being sought." In re Krupp, EDU 05196-03, Final Decision (October 6, 2004), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal.

However, the Legislature reopened the doors to employment in the public schools for certain rehabilitated offenders, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, including N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:39-19.1, when it enacted RCOA.

Thus, RCOA permits a licensing authority to disqualify or discriminate against an applicant for a license or certificate if that applicant has a conviction for a crime that "relates adversely to the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business for which the license or certificate is sought." In determining whether a conviction for a crime so relates, the licensing authority is required to detail how specific factors relate to the license or certificate sought. These factors include but are not limited to; a.) Nature and duties of the occupation, trade, vocation, profession or business, a license or certificate for which the person is applying; b.) Nature and seriousness of the crime; c.) Circumstances under which the crime occurred; d.) Date of the crime; e.) Age of the person when the crime was committed; f.) Whether the crime was an isolated or repeated incident; g.) Social conditions which may have contributed to the crime; and h.) Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct in prison or in the community, schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of persons who have or have had the applicant under their supervision. See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-2.

Respondent's reliance upon In re Krupp is misplaced, as that case is factually distinguishable from the present matter. Krupp was a former mathematics teacher who was seeking reinstatement of his teaching certificate after serving twenty-three years in prison for a conviction of first-degree murder. Krupp, who was recently released from prison prior to applying to renew his teaching certificate, was unable to provide sufficient proof that he had been rehabilitated. Here, the credible evidence establishes that the petitioner has been rehabilitated; the disqualifying crime occurred forty-five years ago when the petitioner had just turned eighteen years old; the petitioner has led a law-abiding lifestyle since his release from prison; subsequently attended Syracuse University; then served in the United States Army from 1987 to 1995 (including service in the Desert Storm campaign), achieving an honorable discharge in 1995; and since his honorable discharge, petitioner has maintained gainful employment, which includes, among others, employment at Amtrak, the United States Postal Service, and Richmond County Ambulance Services. Further, the petitioner is married and has five children. Lastly, his employer describes him as an excellent employee. In short, the petitioner is the ideal example of why RCOA was enacted.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the credible evidence establishes that the petitioner has been rehabilitated. I further CONCLUDE that respondent has failed to establish that petitioner's 1978 conviction relates adversely to the license being sought.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, the determination by respondent Department of Education, Office of Student Protections that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, the petitioner is permanently disqualified from employment as a public-school bus driver and any other public-school employment, is hereby REVERSED. The OSP shall notify the Motor Vehicle Commission to issue the petitioner a school bus driver license.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

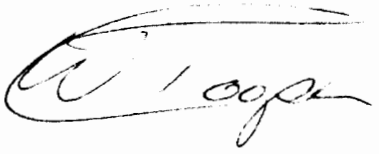
Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



May 29, 2024
DATE

WILLIAM T. COOPER, III, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 29, 2024

Date E-Mailed to Parties: May 29, 2024

WTC/sg

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner

Jeffrey Moultrie

John Villapiano

For respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

P-1 Certificate of Discharge from United States Army 1/8/95.

P-2 United States Postal Service 3/5/10 letter of accommodation.

P-3 United States Postal Service 1/8/07 certificate of appreciation.

P-4 Supreme Court of New York certificate of disposition. Dated 12/7/05.

For respondent

None

#262-24

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

TAHESHA L. WAY
Lt. Governor

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

KEVIN DEHMER
Acting Commissioner

July 11, 2024

Christopher J. Dasti, Esq.
Dasti & Staiger
310 Lacey Road
P.O. Box 779
Forked River, NJ 08731

David L. Kalisky, DAG
25 Market Street
P.O. Box 112
Trenton, NJ 08625

Re: In the Matter of Shawn Giordano, Lacey Township Board of Education, Ocean County, Agency Dkt. No. 9-8/23A, Commissioner Decision No. 193-24

Dear Counsel:

The motion for a stay of the Commissioner's decision in the above-captioned matter, submitted by appellant Shawn Giordano on June 8, 2024, has been reviewed.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), a motion for stay is considered an extraordinary remedy that may only be issued upon a finding that appellant has met each prong of the four-pronged standard for the granting of interim relief set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). Thus, a stay may be granted where necessary to prevent irreparable harm, where the legal right underlying the movant's claim is settled, where there is a likelihood of success on the merits, and where the relative hardship to the moving party favors granting such relief. Id. at 132-134.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that appellant has failed to meet the standard required for a stay of the May 15, 2024 decision. Most notably, appellant has failed to establish that the legal right underlying his claim is settled or that he is likely to succeed on the merits. In the May 15, 2024 decision, the Commissioner determined that it was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable for the School Ethics Commission to conclude that appellant requested the services of the Lacey Board of Education's attorney to conduct research regarding another Board member to secure an advantage for himself and for his own personal gain. On these issues, appellant's motion papers reiterate arguments that were fully considered – and rejected – by the Commissioner in the May 15, 2024 decision.

In light of the fact that all of the Crowe prongs must be met in order for a stay to be granted, it is not necessary to analyze the remaining factors. Accordingly, appellant's request for a stay of the May 15, 2024 decision is hereby DENIED.

Sincerely,

Kevin Dehmer
Acting Commissioner

KD/JS
c: State Law Library

262-24L

263-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04701-23
Agency Dkt. No. 115-4/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robin S. Alexander,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Trustees of the Paterson Charter School for Science Technology, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Release and Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraphs 1.1 and 1.2 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 11, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 12, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04701-23
AGENCY DKT NO. 115-4/23

ROBIN S. ALEXANDER,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PATERSON CHARTER SCHOOL FOR SCIENCE TECHNOLOGY, PASSAIC COUNTY,
Respondents.

Analiese W. Smith, Esq. on behalf of petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, P.C.)

Hope Blackburn, Esq. and Jennifer Lear, Esq. on behalf of respondent (Bush Law Group)

Record Closed: June 12, 2024 Decided: June 14, 2024

BEFORE NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ:

This case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 30, 2023, for resolution as a contested case under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13. On July 18, 2023, I conducted a telephone prehearing. Several conference calls were conducted thereafter, the last one being April 22, 2024. On June 12, 2024 the fully executed Settlement Agreement and Board Resolution was received, which is attached hereto for reference.

Having reviewed the contents of the attached Settlement Agreement and General Release, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement, as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this settlement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the stipulation should be approved. I approve of the settlement and, therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

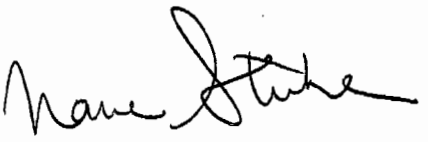
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.



June 14, 2024

DATE

NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: June 14, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: June 14, 2024

ljb

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into on April 17th, 2024 (the "Effective Date") and is between Robin S. Alexander ("Alexander"), residing at 126 Route 46 East, Apartment 27B, Lodi, New Jersey 07644 and the Paterson Charter School for Science & Technology Board of Trustees, Passaic County (the "Board" or the "PCSST"), located at 196 West Railway Avenue, Paterson, New Jersey 07503 (together "the Parties").

Background

(A) Alexander is a 10-month secretary who has been employed with the PCSST since November 1, 2015, has been tenured since November 1, 2020, and is a Paterson Charter Education Association ("PCEA") member;

(B) the PCSST employs PCEA members, including but not limited to school secretaries;

(C) the PCSST and PCEA are bound by a collective bargaining agreement ("CBA"); and,

(D) the Parties desire to resolve a dispute that occurred on or about June 15, 2022 regarding the setting of Alexander's salary for the 2022-2023 school year and thereafter;

Therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Agreement.

1.1 Appointment of Robin S. Alexander as a 12-month PCSST Secretary.

(A) Appointment. Effective no later than July 1, 2024, the PCSST Board of Trustees shall appoint Robin S. Alexander as a 12-month School Secretary.

(B) Compensation. Effective no later than July 1, 2024, Alexander's salary shall be set at Step 15 of the 2024-2025 School Year salary guide for 12-month secretaries in the amount of $48,657.

(C) Subsequent Compensation. As with all other 12-month secretaries, Alexander's 12-month secretarial salary shall be paid in accordance with the Parties' collective bargaining agreement.

(D) Right to Refile. If the PCSST does not fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, Alexander reserves the right to refile this matter with the Office of Administrative Law or elsewhere.

1.2 Back-Pay Payment from March 2023 to Present.

(A) No later than Friday, April 26, 2024, the PCSST shall pay Alexander back-pay for the red-circled amount of $46,264 from the first pay period in March 2023 through present (excluding July and August 2022 and July and August 2023) for a total of $3,000.00.

1.3 Withdrawal of OAL Docket Number EDU 04701-2023N.

(A) Withdrawal. Within ten days of the execution of this Agreement, Alexander shall withdraw Docket Number EDU 04701-2023N from the Office of Administrative Law.

(B) Release of Claims. Unless Subsections 1.1, 1.2, or any of subsections 2 through 6 are violated, Alexander shall release all claims related to this Agreement and shall waive the right to pursue all claims related to this Agreement in the future. Furthermore, Alexander acknowledges that by executing this Agreement, Alexander no longer has any claim for back-pay, interest, or any other emoluments from March 2023 to present and that she shall continue at her present salary until the effective date of her appointment as a 12-month secretary.

2. Non-Precedent-Setting Agreement. This Agreement constitutes solely a settlement agreement between the Parties and shall not be used as a precedent-setting agreement between the PCSST and any other PCEA member.

3. Non-Admission of Liability. This Agreement shall not be construed as Alexander, PCEA, or the PCSST's admission of any underlying allegation or of the parties' liability.

4. Indemnification. If the PCSST violates this Agreement in any way, the PCSST shall pay, in addition to all other remedies allowed by law or this Agreement, all of Alexander's costs and expenses incurred as a result of such violation, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

5. Consultation with Attorney. Each party has consulted an attorney with respect to this Agreement and has reviewed with their attorney all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement prior to execution.

6. Miscellaneous.

6.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with reference to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements either written or oral in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement.

6.2 Governing Law, Jurisdiction, and Venue. This Agreement is subject to New Jersey law, and any disputes must be submitted to the Courts and administrative agencies of the state of New Jersey.

6.3 Modification. This Agreement cannot be modified except in writing, signed by the Parties.

6.4 No Construction Against Drafting Party. Each Party expressly recognizes that no legal or other presumptions exist against the Party drafting this Agreement concerning its construction, interpretation, or otherwise accrue to the benefit of any Party to this Agreement, and each Party expressly waives the right to assert such a presumption in any proceedings or disputes connected with, arising out of, or involving this Agreement.

6.5 Severability. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared or determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the legality, validity, and enforceability of the remaining parts, terms, or provisions shall not be affected and said illegal, unenforceable, or invalid part, term, or provision shall be deemed not part of this Agreement.

6.6 Incorporation by Reference. The PCSST Charter, as well as the PCSST and PCEA's collective bargaining agreement, are incorporated by reference.

Accepted and agreed by the Parties.

ROBIN S. ALEXANDER

Signed: _____

Printed: Robin S. Alexander

Title: Secretary

Date: 5/21/2024

PCSST BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Signed: _____

Printed: Matt A. Anar

Title: School Business Administrator/Board Secretary

Date: 05/13/2024

_____

Notary Public of the State of New Jersey

Paterson Charter School for Science & Technology
Est. 2002

Central Office
196 W. Railway Ave. Paterson, NJ 07503
(973) 750-4401
www.pcsst.org

RESOLUTION OF MEETING

Resolution # SR24-56 04/25/2024

Paterson Charter School for Science and Technology
196 W. Railway Avenue
Paterson, NJ 07503

Subject of Resolution: Settlement in the matter of Ms. Alexander

Approval of the settlement in the matter of Ms. Alexander v. Paterson Charter School for Science and Technology Board of Trustees, Docket Number EDU 04701-2023N, in accordance with the agreement on file in the Office of the School Business Administrator.

Motion made by: Mrs. Garcia-Rodriguez Seconded by: Mrs. Smith

Trustee	Vote	Trustee	Vote
Mr. Turkileri	Yes	Mr. Koroglu	Absent
Mrs. Garcia-Rodriguez	Yes	Mr. DeJesus	Yes
Mr. Kutlu	Yes	Mrs. Smith	Yes
Mrs. Arik-Copur	Yes

I, SBA/Board Secretary, hereby certify that the foregoing resolution is a true copy of a motion duly adopted by a majority of a quorum of this Board of Trustees, as indicated above.

Signature: _____
Matt A. Anar, SBA/Board Secretary

Date of Board Meeting: 04/17/2024

264-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07454-24
Agency Dkt. No. 172-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

F.M. and A.M., on behalf of minor child, A.M.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Clinton-Glen Gardner School District, Hunterdon County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that this matter should be dismissed because no issues remain to be addressed following the resolution of the motion for emergent relief.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 11, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 12, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION DENYING EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 07454-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 172-5/24

F.M. AND A.M., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD A.M., Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF CLINTON-GLEN GARDNER SCHOOL DISTRICT,
Respondent.

F.M. and A.M., o/b/o A.M., petitioners, pro se

Marc Mucciolo, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: June 6, 2024 Decided: June 7, 2024

BEFORE MICHAEL R. STANZIONE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners, F.M. and A.M., on behalf of A.M., filed an emergent petition for an order permitting A.M. to walk in his eighth-grade graduation on June 14, 2024. Respondent, Clinton-Glen Gardner School District, determined that A.M. could not walk in the graduation ceremony due to safety concerns.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a verified petition and request for emergent relief with the Commissioner of the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes (DOE). On June 3, 2024, DOE transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case seeking emergent relief. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The hearing was held on June 6, 2024, and the record closed that day.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

A.M. is a fourteen-year-old eighth-grade student at Clinton Public School (CPS) within the Clinton-Glen Gardner School District (District). A.M. has a Section 504 plan due to a diagnosis of ADHD. R-2. A 504 Plan in New Jersey is designed to allow a disabled student to participate fully in the educational environment.

A.M. has engaged in disruptive and inappropriate behavior requiring significant discipline. Respondent articulated that it would rely on the certification of Dr. Seth Cohen, superintendent and principal of Clinton Public School, in opposition to petitioners' application for emergent relief.

Dr. Cohen's certification lists the following disciplinary incidents and harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) findings that took place throughout the school year:

- On September 7, 2023, A.M. broke his Chromebook. A.M. stated it was "kinda on purpose." A.M. was shadowboxing and punched the Chromebook screen.

- On September 11, 2023, two of A.M.'s teachers raised concerns about behavior in class; especially concerning student safety, including impulsive behaviors, shadowboxing, blurting out, and grabbing friends in headlocks and other mixed martial arts (MMA) moves.

- On September 13, 2023, A.M. twice put a chokehold on another student and got out of his seat to shadowbox during instruction.

- On September 14, 2023, A.M.'s teacher, Mr. Adase, reported that "within twenty seconds of entering the classroom, A.M. put his hands on another student in a headlock or half nelson fashion, followed by a light kick to the other student's leg. Mr. Adase immediately sent A.M. to the office. Upon A.M.'s return (about 30 min later) he was able to complete the class notes, participate, and start working on his homework independently."

- On September 22, 2023, A.M. and another student repeatedly threw a peer's water bottle in the air multiple times, resulting in a damaged and broken water bottle.

- On October 6, 2023, A.M. wrapped his hands around a peer's neck and then continued to shadow-box.

- On October 18, 2023, A.M. put a peer in a headlock during recess.

- On October 24, 2023, Mrs. Ruch sent A.M. to the main office. First, A.M. threw two pieces of candy corn at student E.H. Then, he stuck candy corn up his nose.

- On November 29, 2023, Mr. Adase called Mr. Stanbro and asked for A.M. to finish his social studies work in Mr. Stanbro's office after numerous disruptions and class distractions. A.M. was yelling things out, throwing things, moving around, and running into furniture.

- On December 8, 2023, A.M. asked to go to the bathroom, and Mr. Viotto noticed his phone in his pocket. Mr. Viotto asked A.M. to give it to him, and he did.

- On December 15, 2023, Mr. Adase reported the following to Dr. Cohen: "I wanted to bring to your attention that A.M. has been very disruptive in class, and I feel it is impact[ing] the other students[']' ability to learn and focus. In addition, he is choosing to do little to no work in class. In the past, I was able to send him to the library with support staff and he was able to get some work accomplished. However, at present, this is not an option. To date, I've reduced his workload, modified assignments, tried several seating arrangements, provided extended breaks, allowed plenty of class time to work on homework, provided praise, and positive reinforcement. I'm reaching out for solutions, as I don't see the situation improving."

- On January 2, 2024, A.M. said the "F-word" loudly and was given a recess detention.

- On January 8, 2024, A.M. had his cell phone out during study hall. Mr. Decker confiscated it and returned it at the end of the day.

- On January 9, 2024, A.M. fell asleep twice during English language arts (ELA) and was unable to engage in class activities. He was sent to the nurse. Instead of going straight to the nurse, he wandered the halls. Mrs. Rizzi needed to leave class to find him and escort him to the nurse. The nurse sent him back within minutes.

- On January 17, 2024, Mr. Decker spoke with A.M. in homeroom about his use of inappropriate language, which referred to a male body part. In study hall, he used the same word again. Mr. Decker spoke with A.M. again and asked him to be respectful of the people in the class. Mr. Decker told A.M. that he would impose lunch detention if he heard A.M. use the word again.

- On January 23, 2024, A.M. asked to go to the restroom during class, and Mr. Viotto noticed his cell phone in his pocket. Mr. Viotto asked A.M. to give him the cell phone, and A.M. complied. At the end of class, A.M. asked if he could have it back and promised to put it in his locker. Mr. Viotto declined and took it down to the main office.

- On January 24, 2024, the 8th grade team raised numerous concerns from the prior week regarding a pattern of A.M.'s disruptive and distracting behavior: excessive calling out, physicality among peers like shadow-boxing and pretend fighting (teachers report that the other students are uncomfortable with the headlocks and similar actions but fear speaking up), physical actions around the classroom (intentionally running into and knocking over desks/chairs), crawling on the floor, throwing things at peers, not doing his work, taking belongings from peers, inappropriate language, ignoring teacher directions, and aggressive behavior towards both males/females while walking in the halls. As a result, administration, counselors, and teachers collaborated on a plan to offer additional modifications and provide structured breaks three times per day.

- On January 26, 2024, A.M. was told not to kick basketballs and not to throw balls in the direction of other students. He continued to do so after Mr. Stanbro asked him not to and Mrs. McVerry asked him not to. Continued to play after the bell and was told multiple times recess was over.

- On January 31, 2024, A.M. returned from Mr. Stanbro's office at 2:10. He was given instructions to continue to read the short story he selected and note two dystopian characteristics. A.M. said he didn't remember anything that Mr. Stanbro had said to him. This was the second time he returned saying that. He said he couldn't read the story or find two dystopian characteristics even after prompting. He put his head down and slept the remainder of the period.

- Also on January 31, 2024, A.M. answered about six questions on IXL, then put his head down and slept for thirty minutes.

- On February 5, 2024, A.M. was disruptive in several classes. When asked to work on his classwork, he told Dr. Cohen that he would do it at home so he could use Photomath to get the answers. His teacher asked him several times to please work on his assignment. He kept laughing and trying to engage other students. In addition, A.M. was asked to try and remain more focused on his academics. The poor behavior continued, and he was removed from class and given an after-school detention. Finally, AM kept talking over his teacher during a lesson with little regard for his actions.

- On February 8, 2024, one of A.M.'s teachers asked him to read his independent novel. He refused. He took his cell phone out. Mrs. Rizzi took it and then the teacher gave it to Mr. Stanbro. Because his behavior was poor, his teacher asked him to sit in the office.

- On February 9, 2024, a teacher reached out to the administrator for support regarding a pattern of distracting and disruptive behaviors.

- On February 14, 2024, A.M. was found to be in possession of a marijuana vape in school. He was sent for testing and tested positive.

- On February 23, 2024, A.M. had his cell phone out during class. His teacher took it and gave it to the main office for him to pick up after school.

- On February 5, 2024, during health class, A.M. pushed another classmate out of their chair and across the floor. His teacher brought him into the hallway to ask what happened and if that student said anything to him to cause that response. A.M. said they didn't say anything. His teacher issued a lunch detention.

- On March 7, 2024, A.M. was asked to leave the room with another student and Dr. Brenner to work in a small group setting, as he was not able to accomplish anything in the large group setting. He became combative and flipped his desk over. Dr. Brenner was going to take him to the office, and he refused to go. She explained the situation to Dr. Cohen, and Mr. Merrigan called the classroom and asked the teacher to send A.M. down. After his teacher asked him several times to go to the office, he finally left the room. He came back about seven minutes later, at which time Mr. Stanbro came to get him, as he never went to the office.

- On March 12, 2024, two teachers reported that over the last few weeks, they have observed A.M. taking food from others' lunches, particularly 7th graders. Both teachers asked A.M. to stop. A.M. has responded "No, it's fine" and "I'm allowed to." None of the students gave permission for A.M. to take their food.

- On March 14, 2024, Mrs. Lauricella reported that A.M. held a ruler to his crotch, turned towards peers and said, "Mine is longer than this ruler." This resulted in a Student-Administration discussion and warning about appropriate comments. A.M.'s response was "Mrs. Lauricella told me I get two passes (warnings) so that's one of them."

- On March 15, 2024, A.M. shot a rubber band across the room that nearly hit the teacher. He followed it up by slapping his hand against his stomach and making farting noises. He was sent to Mr. Stanbro's office. In addition, A.M. was not doing his artwork; he was out of his seat frequently; touched other students; crawled on the floor and meowed; and tried to leave the classroom without permission. A lunch detention was assigned after several verbal warnings.

- On March 18, 2024, A.M. barely completed any classwork. At one point, he was on the floor sliding around on his stomach. Also, during class, A.M. was sending photos of a rapper to the media center's printer without permission. This was not part of any work assigned that day.

- On March 22, 2024, A.M. finished his test and was told to work on his diagnostic. While the other students were working on their test, A.M. yelled out "Skibidi Toilet." Mr. Merrigan sent him to the office with his Chromebook to work on IXL.

- On April 8, 2024, A.M. was involved in the harassment of a peer, E.H., that involved derogatory terms which were recorded and shared via social media. A.M. admitted to CPS staff that the voice in the background of the video was his. The two students pictured in the video confirmed A.M. was present and contributed to the video. A.M. said in the video, "Fuck [E.H.], Fuck [E.H.], SKANK, SKANK, SKANK." A.M. received a two-day out-of-school suspension on April 12 and April 15, 2024. This incident was also investigated and found to be HIB.

- On April 11, 2024, during lunch, A.M. made physical threats towards a peer, including saying "I'm going to get you," "I'm going to beat you up," and "I'm going to come to your house." These were overheard by two teachers. The teachers also observed A.M. aggressively stepping towards the peer and flexing, which seemed intimidating. A.M. also told a teacher that he asked the peer to punch him and to "give me a reason because I handle my own business." A.M. stated that this was all "joking around." A.M. also stated he gave the peer a fist bump "to show him we're good." A.M. was given an administrative warning and was told that joking about threats is not allowed and will be handled as serious threats in the future.

- On April 26, 2024, A.M. had another vape device and admitted it was his. His parent was called to pick him up. A.M. punched the walls while leaving the building.

- On May 2, 2024, during a suspension reentry meeting with the parent, CPS recommended referring A.M. to the child study team, and the parent did not agree.

- On May 3, 2024, several students confirmed that A.M. called E.H. "whore" and "skank" while in the hallway. A.M. admitted to this, but claimed he was speaking about a different person. Upon A.M.'s return from his suspension on April 12 and 15, 2024, Mr. Stanbro clearly communicated to A.M. that retaliation would not be permitted and that derogatory terms such as hoe, skank, etc. were code of conduct violations. Additionally, A.M. turned and shouted "Fuck up" directed at E.H. while exiting his homeroom. After homeroom, A.M. entered Spanish class. As reported by a staff member, "I did not hear what was said in the hall, but when A.M. walked into class he said 'Something smells in here' and it was directed at E.H." E.H. also reported that A.M. told her to shut up and called her a skank again.

- Dr. Kastner and Mr. Stanbro met with A.M. After Dr. Kastner asked for clarification, A.M. shouted, punched the table, then punched the wall behind his chair. A.M. then left Dr. Kastner's office despite attempts to calm and de-escalate him. A.M. ignored administrative directions to remain in the office and kept walking. Mr. Stanbro walked with A.M. through the halls with Officer Testa and Dr. Kastner following. Mr. Stanbro attempted multiple times to de-escalate as A.M. continued shouting. During this, A.M. saw E.H.'s older sister, who initially turned towards them coming out of CST, then quickly redirected to go the opposite way. A.M. said out loud "Yeah, she better walk the other way." A.M. was still visibly frustrated, but Mr. Stanbro did get him to return to Dr. Kastner's office and then to his own office. After discussion, A.M. seemed calm. A.M. was permitted to go to social studies with the understanding that Mr. Stanbro and Dr. Kastner would address the comments later. After further understanding of events, Mr. Stanbro attempted to clarify the order of events with A.M. in his office. A.M. became upset again, punched his Chromebook, then left Mr. Stanbro's office without permission again. A.M.'s dad was called to pick him up. A HIB investigation was opened regarding this incident, and it was determined to be founded.

- On May 6, 2024, in the hallway, A.M. called E.H. "fat." One student confirmed that A.M. said this and that when E.H. responded by calling him ugly, A.M. responded to her by saying "you're fuckin' fat." This was overheard by a staff member in the hall as well. A.M. was brought to the main office to avoid any additional issues and to keep E.H. safe. Work was provided by teachers to A.M. while in the office, and lunch was also provided. A.M. left the office several times without permission and would not respond to directives. A.M.'s parents were emailed to pick him up from school. As a result of this conduct, A.M. received a four-day out-of-school suspension followed by home instruction pending a CST evaluation.

- On May 8, 2024, E.H.'s parent reported the following: "Last night I picked E. up from her friend's house in Clinton. We go through town to get to Rt 31. As we were driving through on Halstead Street, we see A.M. with a group of friends, he sees E.H. and starts jumping up and down, as we pass he flips us off and yells 'Skank!'"

- Since these incidents, the parents of E.H. reach out on a regular basis to inquire about A.M.'s attendance at school events, due to the significant concerns they have about E.H. being around A.M. in any capacity.

- On May 16, 2024, the parents of A.M. were requested to sign a release of records to North Hunterdon High School and alternate program but refused.

- As a result of these incidents, the CPS administrative team placed A.M. on home instruction for the last few weeks of the school year. This decision was not taken lightly but was necessary to ensure the safety of other students and ensure that A.M. would continue to be educated.

- Often, A.M.'s emotional state dictates his level of compliance and participation daily. When he becomes frustrated, A.M. will simply walk away and not communicate with his teachers. A.M. requires a significant level of accommodations, such as frequent breaks as reinforcement as well as to meet his need for constant movement. A.M. is a bright young man, but his behavior and noncompliance interfere with his ability to participate in his current educational setting without a significant level of support, accommodations, and modifications. R-2.

- As a result of A.M.'s increasingly inappropriate, disruptive, and aggressive behaviors, including the two HIB findings against him and his specific targeting of student E.H., CPS made the administration decision, based upon the totality of A.M.'s conduct, to revoke the privilege of A.M. attending end-of-the-year 8th grade activities. These activities included the 8th grade breakfast and BBQ, prom, overnight class trip, and graduation.

- CPS's decision stems from the administration's responsibility to ensure the safety of the District's students, including E.H., and not simply to discipline A.M.

- CPS respectfully submits that due to A.M.'s increasing and unmanageable behaviors, and specific targeting of student E.H., he should not be permitted to attend graduation. A.M.'s past behavior raises legitimate concerns about the likelihood of disruption at this event should he be permitted to attend.

Certification of Dr. Seth Cohen. R-2.

Petitioners testified that A.M. has been painted in a bad light by CPS and Dr. Cohen. A.M. has never been involved in a fight or an altercation, despite the assertions previously made by the respondent. As parents, they feel that A.M. should be acknowledged at graduation for his hard work and dedication throughout the school year. Closing the chapter of middle school is a big deal, and though A.M. faced many challenges to get through the school year, he maintained his grades. They believe that the school has mishandled A.M. and built a case against him just to exclude him from end of the year activities.

Petitioners did not dispute the facts offered by the Board. They did testify that there were incidents the board "left out." On March 19, 2024, Dr. Cohen falsely accused A.M. of being under the influence of alcohol, when in fact he was experiencing spring allergies. Dr. Cohen has admitted to closely monitoring A.M. and has exhibited a pattern of bias and mistreatment towards him, attempting to manipulate A.M. into causing trouble to build a case against him. Petitioners cited an October 11, 2023, incident involving a school aide, David Henry, who dragged A.M. across the school corridor. In February 2023, A.M. was falsely accused of attacking a teacher. During a June 2023, Board meeting, the minor child A.M. and his mother F.M. shared A.M.'s side of the story with respect to one of the incidents that involved E.H. Dr. Cohen became volatile towards A.M

and F.M. He did not like the questions A.M. and F.M. asked or the answers his staff was providing. Dr. Cohen rose from his seat, slammed the desk, and screamed, "no more questions and no more answers," pointing the finger at this staff. He turned to F.M. and A.M. and asked them to leave immediately, as they had exceeded their fifteen minutes of allowed time. Petitioners asserted that these incidents demonstrate a clear pattern of mistreatment, discrimination, and harassment towards A.M. by CPS. Such behavior violates A.M.'s rights as a student and undermines the integrity and fairness of the educational environment at CPS.

Petitioners do not believe A.M.'s ADHD is a learning disability, and they further assert that the school is not equipped to handle him. Petitioners rejected the school trying to place A.M. in an individualized educational plan (IEP) because they want him to "figure it out on his own." They believe that CPS has tirelessly tried to put A.M. "in a box" and back on an IEP.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The regulations governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education . . . [,] the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

At a hearing for emergent relief, petitioner must show that they satisfy the following four standards:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;

3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) (citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)).]

The petitioner must prove each of these standards by clear and convincing evidence. Garden State Equality v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013). The standard is a high threshold to meet, and I will address each prong separately.

1. Irreparable harm

As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in Crowe, "[o]ne principle is that a preliminary injunction should not issue except when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden Horse R.R. Co., 29 N.J. Eq. 299, 303 (E. & A. 1878)). Indeed, the purpose of emergent relief is to "prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case." Ibid. (quoting Thompson ex rel. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders v. Paterson, 9 N.J. Eq. 624, 625 (Sup. Ct. 1854).)

"Irreparable harm is shown when money damages cannot adequately compensate plaintiff's injuries." Hornstine v. Twp. of Moorestown, 263 F. Supp. 2d 887, 911 (D.N.J. 2003) (citing Sampson v. Murray, 415 U.S. 61, 90 (1974)). "More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated." Cont'l Grp., Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (3d Cir. 1980). "The requisite for injunctive relief has been characterized as a 'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury' . . . or a 'presently existing actual threat; [an injunction] may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by the common law.'" Ibid. (citations omitted).

Here, with respect to the first prong, A.M. will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted. If he does not attend graduation, that opportunity will be lost forever.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have met their burden of proof with respect to this prong.

2. Settled Legal Right

However, there is a difference between emergent and important. I understand that the requests here are important; however, they are not emergent. Emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–05). Case law establishes that attendance at a graduation ceremony is a privilege and not a right. See I.K. v. West Windsor-Plainsboro School District, 97 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 639; M.P. v. Hackettstown Bd. of Educ., 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDS) 210. Therefore, because he has no legal right to attend the ceremony, he cannot satisfy that prong of the test. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have not shown a legal right underlying this claim.

3. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

Petitioners have not demonstrated that they are likely to succeed on the merits of the underlying claim. Under this emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115–16 (E. & A. 1930)). This typically "'involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case' based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182–83 (App. Div. 2012) (quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App. Div. 2006)).

Because I have found that petitioners have not shown a legal right underlying this claim, it logically follows that there is not a likelihood of success on the merits. The number of incidents that resulted in discipline of A.M. is exorbitant. Although petitioners claim that the school is building a case against them, they have not provided any clear and convincing evidence or legal authority showing that they have a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits. I therefore CONCLUDE that petitioners have not shown a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits.

4. Balancing the Equities

The fourth and final emergent relief standard involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J. Eq. 506, 515 (Ch. 1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J. Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)).

The only evidence presented here regarding relative hardship to the parties pertains to the fact that A.M. will not walk at graduation. However, that was dealt with in the above analysis.

I CONCLUDE that the Board will suffer greater harm should emergent relief be granted than the student if the requested relief is not granted.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that petitioners failed to meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the petitioners' application for emergent relief be and hereby is DENIED. I understand that there are no other issues to be decided on the underlying petition, and accordingly, the petition is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

June 7, 2024
DATE

MICHAEL STANZIONE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner

F.M.

A.M.

For respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

P-1 Request for emergent relief dated May 30, 2024

For respondent

R-1 Opposition dated June 5, 2024

R-2 Certification of Dr. Seth Cohen dated June 5, 2024

274-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 14293-23
Agency Dkt. No. 311-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Hillsborough Education Association,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hillsborough, Somerset County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 18, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 24, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 14293-23
AGENCY REF. NO. 311-11/23

HILLSBOROUGH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HILLSBOROUGH, SOMERSET COUNTY,
Respondent.

Richard A. Friedman, Esq., for petitioner (Zazzali, P.C., attorneys)

Stephen R. Fogarty, Esq., for respondent (Fogarty and Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 13, 2024 Decided: June 18, 2024

BEFORE DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties, however, have settled this case without the need for a hearing. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I ORDER that the parties comply with the terms of their settlement agreement.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

June 18, 2024
DATE

DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 6/19/2024

Date Mailed to Parties: 6/19/2024

DJB/onl

FOGARTY & HARA, ESQS.
21-00 Route 208 South
Fair Lawn, New Jersey 07410
(201) 791-3340
(201) 791-3432 Telecopier
Attorneys for Respondent,
Hillsborough Township Board of Education
Our File No.: 77/1853

HILLSBOROUGH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION Petitioner, v. HILLSBOROUGH TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, SOMERSET COUNTY Respondent.	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION Agency Ref. No.: 3411-11/23 OAL Dkt. No.: EDS 14293-23 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE is made and entered into as of this 30th day of May, 2024 by, among, and between the Hillsborough Education Association ("Association" or "Petitioner") and the Hillsborough Township Board of Education, board members, trustees, directors, officers, and attorneys ("Board" or "Respondent").

WHEREAS, on or about November 17, 2023, the Association filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education

("Commissioner") alleging inter alia that Board Regulation 1641.02, "Sick Leave," (incorrectly cited as Board Policy 1641.02) is in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:30-4 (e), as far as the policy requires employees to provide a physician's certificate for claims of sick leave of less than three consecutive days; and

WHEREAS, on or about December 7, 2023, the Board filed an Answer to the Petition of Appeal and Separate Defenses, denying that Board Regulation 1641.02 violates N.J.S.A. 18A:30-4 (e), or any other provision of N.J.S.A. 18A:30-1 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, the matter was transmitted by the Commissioner as a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law where it was assigned to Administrative Law Judge Dean J. Buono; and

WHEREAS, a prehearing conference with Administrative Law Judge Buono took place on or about February 29, 2024; and

WHEREAS, on or about March 11, 2024 and April 29, 2024, status conferences were conducted by Administrative Law Judge Buono; and

WHEREAS, the parties find it to be in their best interests to resolve their dispute based on the terms set forth herein, thereby avoiding the inconvenience and expense associated with litigation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants, understandings and agreements contained in this Settlement Agreement and Release ("Agreement"), it is hereby agreed by and between the Board and the Association as follows:

1. Settlement Terms. The Board will not require a physician's certificate to be filed with the Secretary of the Board in order to obtain sick leave in cases of sick leave claimed for less than three (3) consecutive days for a purpose permitted pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:30-1, unless there is a reasonable basis to suspect there is an abuse of sick leave.

2. No Further Action. Except as provided by Paragraph 1 above, the parties acknowledge that this settlement resolves any and all claims that were brought or could have been brought against the Board related to the subject matter of this contested case and the Association shall voluntarily dismiss this Petition of Appeal, bearing OAL Docket No.: EDU 14293-2023 and Agency Ref. No.: 3411-11/23 with prejudice.

3. No Admission. This Agreement and compliance with this Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by any party of any liability whatsoever with respect to any matter, as it is made solely to avoid the inconvenience and cost of further litigation.

4. No Reliance. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no representations, warranties, covenants, or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein. Each party acknowledges that they are not relying upon any oral statements, representations, promises, or expectations which are not expressly set forth in this Agreement, which alone fully and completely expresses all agreements between the parties.

5. Full Understanding. The parties acknowledge that they are entering into this Agreement of their own accord and without any undue influence, coercion, or pressure of any kind; that all the provisions of this Agreement, as well as all questions pertinent thereto, have been fully and satisfactorily explained to them; that they have given due consideration to such provisions and questions, and understand them clearly; that the provisions embodied in this Agreement are in all respects acceptable to them and that they, therefore, accept these provisions in full and final satisfaction of all claims and demands which have been raised or which could have been raised in any litigation.

6. Representation. All parties acknowledge that they have consulted with (or had the opportunity to consult with) an attorney of their own choosing prior to signing this Agreement, and that they sign this Agreement as their own voluntary act and deed and fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein.

7. Non-Severability and Reformation. All terms of this Agreement are deemed material. In the event that any portion of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the Parties agree, in advance, to reform the Agreement in good faith to provide each Party with the full benefit of the settlement memorialized by the Agreement to the extent permitted by law. Should such reformation not be possible, if any of the provisions contained in this Agreement are held illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall not remain in full force and effect (the Agreement shall be voided).

8. Modifications and/or Waivers. A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective and enforceable only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement. The failure of any party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature or of a continuation of an existing default.

9. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to its choice of law principles.

10. Ratification. This Agreement is subject to ratification by the Board and is without prejudice to any party if the terms are not agreed upon. Upon ratification, a true copy of the Board minutes or resolution approving this Agreement will be attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A.

11. Section Headings. Section headings are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, which, when taken together, shall constitute but a single document when executed by all parties. This Agreement shall not be effective until such time as it has been duly authorized and executed by all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year set forth.

WITNESS:

Gerald M Eckert

GERALD ECKERT
Business Administrator/
Board Secretary

DATED: 5/31/24

WITNESS: Nancy Barbiero

Nancy Barbiero

DATED: 5/30/2024

HILLSBOROUGH TOWNSHIP
BOARD OF EDUCATION

BY: _____

PAUL MARINI
Board President

DATED: 5/31/24

Henry Goodnite

HILLSBOROUGH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

BY: _____

DATED: 5/30/24

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED by the Hillsborough Township Board of Education ("the Board") that the terms, stipulations, and conditions as established in the Settlement Agreement and Release between the Board and the Hillsborough Education Association are hereby adopted and approved by the Board. The Board President and Business Administrator/Board Secretary are hereby authorized and directed to execute the Settlement Agreement and Release, and any other documents necessary to effectuate the settlement.

ROLL CALL VOTE:

AYES: 9

NAYS: 0

ABSTENTIONS: 0

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the within Resolution was adopted by the Hillsborough Township Board of Education by a majority vote at its duly authorized meeting on June 10, 2024.

Gerald M. Eckert
School Business Administrator/
Board Secretary

DATED: June 11, 2024

275-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01364-24
Agency Dkt. No. 364-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

I.D., on behalf of minor child, I.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Burlington, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that minor child I.R. was entitled to attend school in Burlington pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that I.R. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the district during that time.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 18, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 24, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01364-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 364-12/24

I.D. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD I.R.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BURLINGTON, BURLINGTON COUNTY,

Respondent.

I.D., appearing pro se

Alicia D'Anella, Esq., for respondent (Gorman, D'Anella & Morlok, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 3, 2024 Decided: June 14, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM T. COOPER III, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner I.D. ("petitioner") filed an appeal with the Department of Education from the determination of the Board of Education of the City of Burlington ("Board") that her niece, I.R., was only residing with I.D. for purposes of attending school, and petitioner failed to demonstrate economic or family hardship and/or that I.R.'s parents C.A. and A.A. were incapable of supporting her, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 4, 2023, the Board issued a final Notice of Ineligibility to I.D. stating that her niece I.R. was ineligible to attend school within the district. The petitioner filed a notice of appeal on or about December 21, 2023. The Board filed an answer and motion for summary decision and requested that the Commissioner dismiss the appeal and assess petitioner the cost of tuition.

The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case on January 26, 2024. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A status conference was conducted on March 14, 2024, and the petitioner was afforded an opportunity to provide a response to the motion for summary decision by April 12, 2024. No response or opposition to the motion was received from the petitioner.

A hearing on the motion was scheduled for May 3, 2024. The petitioner failed to appear at the hearing. All notices for the hearing were served properly by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL). No mailings were returned or unsuccessfully delivered. The OAL did not receive any contact from the petitioner while this matter was pending.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The material facts were uncontroverted, and I FIND as FACT the following:

I.R. previously attended Burlington City High School through the end of the 2022–2023 school year, which was her junior (eleventh-grade) year. I.R.'s parents, C.A. and A.A., moved out of the City of Burlington Public School District ("district") during the 2022–2023 school year, after purchasing a home in Marlton, New Jersey. As a result, I.R. was transferred to Cherokee High School for the 2023–2024 school year. Prior to her transfer,

I.R.'s parents requested permission for her to remain in the district through the 2023–2024 school year. This request was denied.

Families are allowed to enroll students in the district due to economic or family hardship pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, and on or about November 28, 2023, I.D., who is I.R.'s aunt and resides within the district, sought to enroll her niece I.R. in the district under the provisions of that statute. An application for families seeking to enroll students in the district due to economic or family hardship was forwarded to I.D. The completed affidavits were submitted on or about December 1, 2023.

In the affidavits, under the section titled "Explanation of Hardship," I.R.'s mother, C.A., provided the following explanation:

> [I.R.] is having a hard time adapting to the new school. She's being depressed, doesn't leave the room, crying all day, claiming her life is ruined ever since we moved, as she doesn't want to graduate with students and teachers that she doesn't know and the students in the new school isn't being opened [sic] to include her.

On December 4, 2023, I.R.'s family was notified that I.R.'s enrollment had been denied and the family was provided with a Notice of Ineligibility and information on how petitioners may appeal to the Commissioner of Education. The district concluded that I.R. was only residing with I.D. for purposes of attending school, and petitioner failed to demonstrate economic or family hardship as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and/or that I.R.'s parents were incapable of supporting her.

The daily tuition rate for a student in the district during the 2023–2024 school year is $114.19 per day.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Summary Decision

At any time concurrent with or after the filing of an answer, but prior to transmittal of a matter to the Office of Administrative Law, any party may apply for summary decision by way of a motion with proof of service on each other party. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.12. A contested case can be summarily disposed of before a plenary hearing in instances where the undisputed material facts, as developed on motion or otherwise, indicate that a particular disposition is required as a matter of law. See In re Robros Recycling Corp., 226 N.J. Super. 343, 350 (App. Div. 1988). When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, to prevail, an adverse party must, by responding affidavit, set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue that can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

Here, the petitioner was afforded an opportunity but failed to respond to the motion filed on or before April 12, 2024. Petitioner also failed to appear for the scheduled motion hearing on May 3, 2024.

I CONCLUDE that the material facts are undisputed and, as such, this matter is ripe for summary decision.

Issues

There are two issues here: 1. Did petitioner demonstrate economic or family hardship as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and/or that I.R.'s parents were incapable of supporting her? 2. Was the determination by the Board that I.R. is not entitled to a free education in the City of Burlington Public School District arbitrary and capricious?

Analysis

Public schools are required to provide a free education to individuals between the ages of five and twenty years in certain circumstances, including individuals who are domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). The domicile of an unemancipated child is the domicile of the parent, custodian, or guardian. P.B.K. ex rel. minor child E.Y. v. Bd. of Educ. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super. 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001). Thus, a child would routinely attend school in the district where his or her parents live.

Here, I.R. previously attended Burlington City High School through the end of the 2022–2023 school year, which was her junior (eleventh-grade) year. I.R.'s parents, C.A. and A.A., moved out of the district during the 2022–2023 school year after purchasing a home in Marlton, New Jersey. The district concluded that I.R. was not entitled to a free education in the City of Burlington Public School District because petitioner was unable to demonstrate either an economic or family hardship or that C.A. and A.A. are unable to provide care and support to I.R. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 requires that the parent or guardian of a child file a sworn statement with the secretary of the board of education attesting that the parent or guardian is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship, and that the child is not residing with the resident of the district solely for the purpose of receiving a free public education within the district. With respect to meeting the threshold for establishing hardship, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) requires that parents not only show a "hardship," but also show that they are incapable of providing support or care to the child because of that hardship. As set forth below, neither hardship nor inability to care for I.R. has been demonstrated.

I.R.'s mother, C.A., submitted a sworn statement in support of I.R.'s enrollment as an "affidavit student" that demonstrates only that I.R. is unhappy at having to transfer to a new school due to her parents' relocation. Specifically, C.A. attests that I.R. is "claiming her life is ruined" and "doesn't want to graduate with students and teachers that she doesn't know." While I.R.'s unhappiness and disappointment are perfectly understandable, a student's displeasure does not meet the legal threshold for family or economic hardship. Further, even if I.R.'s unhappiness constituted a hardship, the affidavit is lacking any information regarding C.A. and A.A.'s capability to provide care or support to I.R. The statute requires the parent to provide "a sworn statement that he is not capable of supporting or providing care for the child due to a family or economic hardship," not merely that a hardship may exist. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b); see also J.B. ex rel. R.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of Ocean, SB# 26-97 (Sept. 3, 1997), http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/sboe/1997/jb3.pdf.

Applying the law to the facts and circumstances, I CONCLUDE that I.R. is not entitled to free public education in the respondent's district. I CONCLUDE that the petitioners have failed to satisfy their burden of proof that C.A. and A.A. are incapable of providing care and support to I.R. or that the family is facing an economic hardship. I CONCLUDE that the respondent did not act in an arbitrary and capricious manner in denying enrollment to I.R. I CONCLUDE that summary decision in favor of respondent is appropriate.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED. Petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

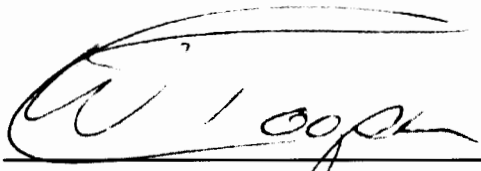
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



June 14, 2024
DATE

WILLIAM T. COOPER III, ALJ.

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date E-Mailed to Parties: _____

WTC/am

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioners

None

For Respondent

None

Exhibits

For Petitioners

None

For Respondent

R-1 Motion for Summary Decision and supporting Affidavit

276-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01411-24
Agency Dkt. No. 13-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.B., on behalf of minor child, A.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Release and Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 2 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 18, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 24, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01411-24

AGENCY DKT. NO. 13-1/24

E.B., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY,

Respondent.

E.B. on behalf of minor child, A.R., petitioner, pro se

Brian J. Kane, Esq., for respondent (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 14, 2024 Decided: June 17, 2024

BEFORE ANDREA PERRY-VILLANI, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on January 26, 2024 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A hearing was scheduled for April 18, 2024 and during that time, the parties agreed to settle the matter. The executed Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of agreement was forwarded to the OAL on June 14, 2024 and is attached hereto.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of 1:1-19.1 and that settlement should be approved. Accordingly, I approve the settlement and ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Andrea Perry-Villani

June 17, 2024
DATE

ANDREA PERRY-VILLANI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 6-18-24

Date Mailed to Parties: 6-18-24

sej

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE, (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement"), is made this 14 day of June, 2024, by and between the Erica Baez (hereinafter, also referred to as "Petitioner"), who currently resides at 160 Hillside Avenue, Hillside, New Jersey 07205 and the Elizabeth Board of Education (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Board"), with its principal offices located at 500 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208.

WHEREAS, Petitioner enrolled her minor child A.R., as a student in the Elizabeth Public School District for the 2023-2024 school year; and

WHEREAS, the Board determined that the minor child A.R. was ineligible to attend the schools of the Elizabeth Public School District due to domicile outside of Elizabeth; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner commenced an action against the Board appealing its residency determination in a matter entitled E.B. on behalf of minor child, A.R. v. City of Elizabeth Board of Education, OAL Docket No. EDU 01411-24, Agency Ref. No.: 13-1/24, (hereinafter referred to as the "Petition"); and

WHEREAS, the Board filed a Counterclaim to the Petition against Petitioner for tuition reimbursement for A.R.'s ineligible attendance in the Elizabeth School District; and

WHEREAS, the Petitioner and the Board (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Parties") having reached a negotiated agreement to fully, and finally, settle all claims among them, including those asserted in the Petition and Counterclaim; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and undertaking said forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

1. Consideration. In settlement of this matter, the Respondent Elizabeth Board of Education hereby agrees to waive their counterclaim for tuition reimbursement for the period of allegedly ineligible attendance. The Elizabeth Board of Education originally sought tuition at the per diem rate of $99.75 which was calculated pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6. The period of alleged ineligible attendance was from the date of the final notice of ineligibility, January 3, 2024, until the date on which the matter was resolved. (See January 3, 2024, Notice of Final Ineligibility attached hereto as Exhibit A). On April 12, 2024, counsel for the Board notified the Office of Administrative Law that the above matter has been resolved. Therefore, the period of alleged ineligible attendance was sixty-two (62) days. (See 2023-2024 School Calendar attached hereto as Exhibit B). When the per diem rate of $99.75 is applied to the sixty-two (62) school days, the total amount of alleged tuition waived is $6,184.50.

In the event that Petitioner fails to abide by the terms outlined in Paragraph 2 below, the Petitioner shall be in default of this agreement, and the parties agree that a judgment shall be entered and docketed in the Superior Court of New Jersey in favor of the Respondent for the alleged unpaid tuition of six-thousand, one hundred, eighty-four dollars and fifty cents, $6,184.50.

2. Attendance of M.M. at Elizabeth Public School District. Petitioner shall unenroll the minor child A.R. from the Respondent's school district at the conclusion of the 2023-2024 school year on June 24, 2024. (See 2023-2024 School Calendar attached hereto as Exhibit B). A.R.'s final day of school shall be June 24, 2024, upon which all necessary transfer paperwork will be completed so that A.R. shall begin the 2024-2025 school year outside of the Respondent's district. Petitioner shall not be permitted to attempt to re-enroll the minor child A.R. within the Respondent's school district. So long as the Petition unenrolls student A.R. on June 24, 2024, the Respondent shall not seek a judgment for the alleged tuition calculated in Paragraph 1 above.

3. Waiver and Release of Claims. In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the waiver payments set forth in Paragraph 1 above, Petitioner hereby releases and forever discharges the Board, in its official and personal capacities, and its related or affiliated entities, and its past, present and future officers, directors, attorneys, employees, owners, insurers, and their respective successors and assigns (collectively "Releasees"), jointly and severally, from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind (collectively "Claims"), known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, which Petitioner, her heirs, agents, executors, successors or assigns ever had, now have or hereafter may have against Releasees arising out of any matter, occurrence, omission, or event existing or occurring prior to Petitioner's execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation: any and all causes of action suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the Petitioner's actions set forth in Paragraph 2 above, Respondent hereby releases and forever discharges the Petitioner from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, regarding tuition reimbursement for 2023-2024 school year. Respondent waives and releases the Petitioner from any and all other causes of action, suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

4. Stipulation. Simultaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Petitioner and counsel for the Board shall execute a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice with regard to the Petition and the Board's Counterclaim in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C.

5. Counterparts; Entire Agreement; No Oral Modification. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall comprise the entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, written or oral, expressed or implied. No other promises, agreements or amendments, or any separate agreement relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be binding or shall modify this Agreement unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties hereto.

6. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

7. No Admission of Liability. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing by either party to this agreement. Rather, this Agreement is being offered for the sole purpose of settling cooperatively and amicably any and all possible disputes between the parties.

8. Severability. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to violate any law or shall be interpreted to violate any law. If any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement or the application thereof is construed to be overbroad and/or unenforceable, then the court making such determination shall have the authority to narrow the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph as necessary to make it enforceable and the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph shall then be enforceable in its/their narrowed form. Moreover, each paragraph or part or subpart of each paragraph in this Agreement is independent of and severable (separate) from each other. In the event that any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement is determined to be legally invalid or unenforceable by a court and is not modified by a court to be enforceable, the affected paragraph or part or subpart of such paragraph shall be stricken from the Agreement, and the remaining paragraphs or parts or subparts of such paragraphs of this Agreement shall remain in full, force and effect.

9. Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not intended, and shall not be construed, to modify, define, limit, or expand the intent of the parties as expressed in this Agreement, and they shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

10. Interpretation. This Agreement shall be construed without aid of any canon or rule of law requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing this Agreement or any provision thereof to be drafted.

11. Contingency. It is agreed and understood by all Parties hereto that this Agreement is contingent upon each of the Parties fulfilling all of their respective duties, obligations, and/or promises as stated herein.

12. Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes any, and all, prior agreements, or understandings between the parties. By executing this Agreement, Petitioner represents and acknowledges, that she does not rely, and has not relied, upon any representation, or statement, not set forth in this Agreement made by Respondent, or their Counsel, with regard to the subject matter, basis, or effect of this Agreement, or otherwise.

13. Assent to Terms. The parties have negotiated the terms of this Agreement. Petitioner's signature below indicates that she was given the opportunity to fully review this Agreement, that the Petitioner has read and understood the provisions, and that she has executed it voluntarily with full knowledge of the significance of all provisions. Ms. Erica Baez hereby acknowledges that she enters into this agreement with a full understanding of her rights and that she was fully informed of the implications of this Agreement, and does so without duress, of her own free will and volition.

STATEMENT BY PETITIONER

The Respondent has advised me, in writing through the Agreement, to carefully read, and fully understand, the provisions of the Agreement, the acceptance, and sufficiency, of which I acknowledge. I have had sufficient time, and opportunity, to consult with Counsel of choice prior to executing the document, and I intend to be legally bound by its terms. I further so execute the Agreement in a knowing, and voluntary, manner with the full knowledge that I am waiving any and all rights, or claims, I may have to later challenge the sufficiency, scope, or terms of the Agreement and have, again, done so after consultation with my Counsel. I understand that I may revoke my signature within seven (7) days following my signing, I understand that my rights under the Agreement are contingent on my signing the Agreement, and not revoking my signature on said document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures and/or seals of the parties or their duly authorized representatives have been set forth on the dates indicated below:

Erica Baez

ERICA BAEZ

Dated: 6 13 2024

Brian Kane

Brian J. Kane, Esq.
Attorney for Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education
Date: 04/18/2024

EXHIBIT A

ELIZABETH PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Every child, Achieving Excellence

Olga Hugelmeyer
Superintendent of Schools

Heather Savage-Ford
Deputy Counsel

Vito Mazza
Associate Counsel

January 3, 2024

Erica Baez
160 Hillside Ave.
Hillside, NJ 07205

Re: NOTICE OF FINAL INELIGIBILITY
Student Name: Aubree Lee Rivera
Student ID#: 311177

Dear parent:

We have carefully reviewed the application for enrollment of Aubree Lee Rivera in the Elizabeth School District, as well as all information submitted in support of the application, and have determined that Aubree Lee Rivera is ineligible to attend the schools of the district.

We have made this determination based on the following:

YOUR DOMICILE/RESIDENCY IS NOT IN THE DISTRICT. OUR INVESTIGATION REVEALS THAT YOU RESIDE OUTSIDE OF ELIZABETH.

If you believe the district's determination is in error, you have the right to appeal it to the Commissioner of Education within 21 days of the date of this notice. Aubree Lee Rivera will be permitted to attend school during this period, and to continue in attendance while the appeal is pending before the Commissioner. However, if no appeal is filed by the 21st day following the date of this notice Aubree Lee Rivera will be removed from school, you will be asked to indicate where they will be educated (see below) and we may assess your tuition at the per diem rate of $99.75 (rate calculated pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6) for each day Aubree Lee Rivera attended school during this period. Information on how to appeal to the Commissioner is included with this letter.

Legal Department

31 Parker Road, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208 Ph: 908.436.5006 Fx: 908.436.5041
Email: varonaes@epsld.org Website: www.epsnj.org

Please be aware that, if you appeal to the Commissioner but abandon your appeal through withdrawal, failure to prosecute or any means other than settlement with the district and/or Aubree Lee Rivera is found not to be entitled to free education in the district, you may be assessed tuition for any period of Aubree Lee Rivera's ineligible attendance, including the initial 21-day filing period and the period during which the appeal was pending before the Commissioner. The Commissioner assesses such tuition, which will be calculated at the approximate rate of $20,000 per year (rate calculated pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6), through an order enforceable against you in Superior Court.

If you do not intend to appeal the district's determination, please advise Investigator William Buteau as soon as possible, but in no event later than 21 days from the date of this notice, so that Aubree Lee Rivera's removal can be effectuated promptly and arrangements can be made for his education elsewhere. State statute on compulsory education requires you to ensure that any student who is between the ages of 6 and 16 is enrolled in a public or private school or received instruction elsewhere than at a school. Therefore, unless you indicate to us by returning the form below that Aubree Lee Rivera will be receiving an education, we will contact the school district of your actual domicile or residence, or the Department of Children and Families (DCF), Aubree Lee Rivera's name, and your name and address, in order to ensure compliance with the law.

If you have any questions about this notice, please call Investigator Willian Buteau at (908) 436-5006 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. to the Legal Department: 31 Parker Road, Elizabeth, NJ 07208. We anticipate hearing from you regarding Aubree Lee Rivera's removal and education elsewhere, or your intent to appeal the Board's determination of ineligibility to the Commissioner of Education.

Sincerely yours,

William Buteau

William Buteau
Investigator

Attachments: Appeal Form with Instruction Sheet
Statement of Compliance with Compulsory Education Law

Legal Department

31 Parker Road, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208 Ph: 908.436.5006 Fx: 908.436.5041
Email: varonaes@epsld.org Website: www.epsnj.org

EXHIBIT B

ELIZABETH PUBLIC SCHOOLS
2023-2024 SCHOOL CALENDAR

Revised March 28, 2024

JULY
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
~~3~~	~~4~~	5	6	7
10	11	12	13	14
17	18	19	20	21
24	25	26	27	28
31

AUGUST
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
	1	2	3	4
7	8	9	10	11
14	15	16	17	18
21	22	23	24	25
28	29	30	31

SEPTEMBER (18/15)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
				~~1~~
~~4~~	5	6	7	8
11	12	13	14	15
18	19	20	21	22
~~25~~	26	27	28	29

OCTOBER (21/21)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
2	3	4	5	6
~~9~~	10	11	12	13
16	17	18	19	20
23	24	25	26	27
30	31

NOVEMBER (17/17)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
		1	2	3
6	~~7~~	8	~~9~~	~~10~~
13	14	15	16	17
20	21	~~22~~	~~23~~	~~24~~
27	28	29	30

DECEMBER (16/16)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
				1
~~4~~	5	6	7	8
11	12	13	14	15
18	19	20	21	22
~~25~~	~~26~~	~~27~~	~~28~~	~~29~~

7/3-4/23	Mon, Tue	Independence Day Observance – Schools and District Closed
8/31/23	Thu	Schools Open for 10 Month Administrators, New Student Registration
9/1/23	Fri	Labor Day Weekend – Schools and District Closed
9/4/23	Mon	Labor Day – Schools and District Closed
9/5/23	Tue	Schools Open for Team Members
9/6-7/23	Wed, Thu	Professional Development Days for Team Members
9/8/23	Fri	Schools Open for Students
9/25/23	Mon	Yom Kippur – Schools and District Closed
10/9/23	Mon	Columbus Day Observance – Schools and District Closed
11/7/23	Tue	Schools Closed – Election Day
11/9-10/23	Thu, Fri	NJEA Convention and Veterans Day – Schools & District Closed
11/22/23	Wed	Schools Close at 12 15 p.m. for Thanksgiving Recess
11/23-24/23	Thu, Fri	Thanksgiving Recess – Schools and District Closed
12/4/23	Mon	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m. for Professional Development
12/25-29/23	Mon through Fri	Christmas Recess – Schools and District Closed
1/1/24	Mon	New Year's Day Observance – Schools and District Closed
1/2/24	Tue	School Reopen
1/15/24	Mon	Observance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday – Schools and District Closed
1/19/24	Fri	Schools and District Closed – Snow Day
1/29/24	Mon	Schools Close at 12 15 p.m. for Professional Development
2/8/24	Thu	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m. for Parent Teacher Conferences
2/13/24	Tue	Schools and District Closed – Snow Day
2/19/24	Mon	President's Day – Schools and District Closed
3/11/24	Mon	Schools Close 12:15 p.m. for Professional Development
3/29/24	Fri	Easter Recess – Schools and District Closed
4/1/24	Mon	Easter Recess – Schools and District Closed
4/2-5/24	Tues through Fri	Easter Recess – Schools Closed
4/8/24	Mon	Schools Reopen
4/10/24	Wed	Schools and District Closed for Eid-al-Fitr
5/27/24	Mon	Memorial Day – Schools and District Closed
6/4/24	Tue	Schools Closed – Primary Election Day
6/21/24	Fri	Juneteenth – Schools and District Closed
6/24/24	Mon	Schools Close at 12 15 for Students and Team Members
6/25/24	Tue	Schools Close for 10-Month Administrators

Key

	Schools Closed		Schools and District Closed
	Schools Close at 12:15 p.m.	(xx/xx)	Teachers/Students Total Days Per Month

This calendar provides for 181 team member days, 180 student days, and 2 Professional Development Days

In the event that schools must close for inclement weather, etc , days will be made up commencing with June 25 2024 with an additional day added to the calendar for each day missed through June 28, 2024 to fulfill the legal requirement of 180 days of school attendance for the regular school year If additional days are needed beyond June 28, 2024 days will come from Easter Recess commencing with April 5, 2024 and working backward from the end of that week

Administrative offices will remain open until 4 30 p.m daily except Fridays during summer hours On Wed , November 22, 2023 all schools will close at 12 15 p m for Thanksgiving Recess. administrative offices will be open regular hours and all 12 month employees and all secretaries, security personnel, and custodians will follow their regular schedules

JANUARY (20/20)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
~~1~~	2	3	4	5
8	9	10	11	12
~~15~~	16	17	18	~~19~~
22	23	24	25	26
~~29~~	30	31

FEBRUARY (19/19)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
			1	2
5	6	7	~~8~~	9
12	~~13~~	14	15	16
~~19~~	20	21	22	23
26	27	28	29

MARCH (20/20)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
				1
4	5	6	7	8
~~11~~	12	13	14	15
18	19	20	21	22
25	26	27	28	~~29~~

APRIL (16/16)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
~~1~~	~~2~~	~~3~~	~~4~~	~~5~~
8	9	~~10~~	11	12
15	16	17	18	19
22	23	24	25	26
29	30

MAY (22/22)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
		1	2	3
6	7	8	9	10
13	14	15	16	17
20	21	22	23	24
~~27~~	28	29	30	31

JUNE (14/14)
MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI
3	~~4~~	5	6	7
10	11	12	13	14
17	18	19	20	~~21~~
~~24~~	~~25~~	~~26~~	~~27~~	~~28~~

EXHIBIT C

Brian J. Kane, Esq.
N.J. Attorney I.D. # 333912021
LA CORTE, BUNDY, VARADY & KINSELLA
989 Bonnel Court
Union, NJ 07083
(908) 810-0500
Attorneys for Defendant Board of Education
of the City of Elizabeth, Union County

E.B. on behalf of minor child, A.R., Petitioner, v. Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY AGENCY DOCKET NO.: 13-1/24 OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU-01411-24 STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

The matter in difference in the above-entitled action having been amicably adjusted by and between the Petitioner, E.B. on behalf of minor child A.R., and Respondent Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by the undersigned that the same be and is hereby dismissed with prejudice, without costs.

All parties to this action further agree that this stipulation may be executed in counterparts and that photocopies and/or facsimile copies of this stipulation shall be deemed original signatures for the purposes of this stipulation.

STIPULATED:

Erica Baez

Erica Baez, pro se petitioner
160 Hillside Ave,
Hillside, New Jersey 07205
Dated: 06/13/2024

LA CORTE, BUNDY, VARADY & KINSELLA
Attorneys for Respondent, Elizabeth Board of Education

/s/ Brian Kane

Brian J. Kane, Esq.
989 Bonnel Court
Union, New Jersey 07083
Dated: 04/18/2024

277-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02295-24
Agency Dkt. No. 25-2/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.W., on behalf of minor child, K.B.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that she and her minor child, K.B., were domiciled in Elizabeth (the District) between January 26, 2024, and May 17, 2024. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that K.B. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the District during that time.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b), the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which K.B. was ineligible to attend school in the District. Therefore, respondent, Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth (Board) is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $6,974 for the period from January 26, 2024, to May 17, 2024.[1]

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $6,974 for tuition costs incurred from January 26, 2024, to May 17, 2024, when K.B. was ineligible to attend school in the District. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 18, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 24, 2024

[1] This amount is based on the per diem tuition rate of $99.63 per day listed in the District's Final Notice of Ineligibility (Exhibit R-4) and the District's 2023-2024 School Year Calendar (Exhibit R-12), which reflects 70 school days between January 26, 2024, and May 17, 2024.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02295-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 25-2/24

S.W. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD K.B.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH,

Respondent.

S.W., petitioner, pro se

Brian Kane, Esq., for respondent, (La Corte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 16, 2024 Decided: June 20, 2024

BEFORE ANDREA PERRY VILLANI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

K.B. is a minor child and student who attends high school in Elizabeth, New Jersey, though her mother, S.W., rents an apartment for the family in Linden, New Jersey. Is K.B. entitled to a free public school education in Elizabeth? No. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2), a free public education is not available to a child whose parent is domiciled outside of the district.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On January 26, 2024, the Board issued a Notice of Final Ineligibility regarding minor child, K.B.'s, attendance at Elizabeth Public Schools.

On February 1, 2024, S.W. filed her pro se Residency Appeal on K.B.'s behalf.

On February 14, 2024, the Board filed an Answer and Counterclaim.

On February 20, 2024, the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On March 11, 2024, I conducted the first Prehearing Conference. During that conference, the Board stated its position that S.W. and K.B. live in Linden, New Jersey, not Elizabeth. S.W. stated that she would like time to consider hiring an attorney. I granted her request and allowed her thirty days.

On April 15, 2024, I conducted the second Prehearing Conference and issued a Prehearing Order. The Prehearing Order set the hearing date for May 16, 2024, and among other things, it directed the parties to exchange their witness lists ten days before the hearing.

On May 16, 2024, I conducted the hearing and closed the record.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS OF FACT

S.W., mother of K.B., is married with five children. K.B. is the oldest. She is fifteen years old and in tenth grade at Dwyer High School in Elizabeth, New Jersey. S.W.'s other four children are all younger than K.B. and attend public school in Linden, New Jersey.

Back in 2019, S.W. moved her family from New Jersey to Philipsburg, PA. The family remained there for about two years until they moved to Hampton, VA during the Covid-19 pandemic. They remained in Virginia until 2023, when S.W. and her husband experienced marital problems. In or about April 2023, S.W. sent K.B. back to New Jersey to live with S.W.'s sister, K.W., in Elizabeth. K.B. did not attend school for about one month. K.B. was eventually enrolled in public school in Elizabeth at Dwyer High School on May 8, 2023. (R-1.)

S.W. moved back to New Jersey about a month after K.B. She estimates that was in May 2023. S.W. states that she moved in with K.B. at K.W.'s Elizabeth residence. At some point that summer, S.W.'s husband and the other four children moved back to New Jersey from Virginia. During that time, S.W. was the sole breadwinner for the family, working as a Respiratory Support Technician.

On July 15, 2023, S.W. entered into a one-year lease for an apartment in Linden, NJ. The term of the lease agreement is from August 1, 2023 to July 31, 2024. Paragraph six of the lease states that the household members are S.W. and her children. S.W.'s signature appears on the lease. (R-7.)

S.W. states that she leased the apartment for her husband and her four youngest children (K.B.'s siblings). She claims that when she and her husband had marital problems in Virginia, they decided to separate, and her four youngest children chose to live with their father. S.W. further claims that her husband was not working at the time, so he was not able lease an apartment on his own.

The name that appears on the Linden lease is clearly S.W.'s, except that she used her married name with the initials "S.R." (R-7.) She opened a Xfinity Account for the Linden home under her married name. (R-8.) She also had a bank account with TD Bank under her married name at the Linden address, as she received mail from TD Bank at the Linden address. (R-9.)

However, when S.W. registered K.B. for school in Elizabeth, she used her maiden name, "S.W." (P-1.) She also used her maiden name on the 6-C Affidavit, which stated that she and K.B. "are in full-time residence [at K.W.'s home in Elizabeth]...for the period of April 2023 through Dec. 2023" (P-1); but, as noted above, S.W. did not come back to New Jersey until May 2023 (per her testimony), and she leased an apartment in August 2023 (R-7).

Then, in December 2023, S.W. signed a Residency Affidavit stating that she "is the renter of the property located...in the City of Linden." (R-10.) S.W. states that she signed this Affidavit so her sister, K.W., could enroll her children in Linden schools, after K.W.'s son had a bad experience in Elizabeth schools and didn't feel safe there.

Despite the Linden Residency Affidavit, lease, cable bill, and TD bank account, S.W. maintains that she does not live in Linden. She states that she and her husband are still separated, and that she has been staying at K.W.'s home in Elizabeth since she returned to New Jersey in May of last year. S.W. further states that only her husband and four younger children live at the Linden home. S.W. and her husband have no written separation agreement and S.W.'s husband did not testify.[1]

S.W. did not provide any photos of her living or sleeping space at K.W.'s home in Elizabeth. She did provide several photos of K.B.'s alleged sleeping accommodation in Elizabeth. (P-3.) The photos indicate that K.B. may have a bed at K.W.'s home, as there are some female articles of clothing that appear in the photos. (K.W.'s children are all boys.) There is also women's deodorant on the dresser; but, there is men's deodorant next to it on the dresser as well.

[1] S.W.'s husband was listed as a possible witness in the Prehearing Order. However, the Prehearing Order also required the parties to exchange witness lists at least ten days prior to the hearing. It was during this exchange of information that S.W. informed opposing counsel that her husband would not be testifying on her behalf and, accordingly, he did not appear at the hearing.

While it is possible that K.B. sleeps at K.W.'s home in Elizabeth, and that she is there before and after school since she attends school close by, it is unclear how often she sleeps there. To answer this question, the Board provided location data for K.B.'s school-issued laptop computer. (R-6.) The data indicates that, from September 27, 2023 to March 8, 2024, K.B.'s laptop was turned on at K.W.'s Elizabeth home on only five days: October 27, 2023, January 8, 2024, January 25, 2024, January 29, 2024, and February 23, 2024. (R-6.)

By contrast, during this same time period, K.B.'s laptop was turned on at the Linden home on sixty-four different days. (R-6.) Those days were:

Saturday September 30, 2023
Sunday October 8, 2023
Monday October 9, 2023
Wednesday October 11, 2023
Sunday October 15, 2023
Tuesday October 17, 2023
Friday October 20, 2023
Sunday October 22, 2023
Monday October 23, 2023
Tuesday October 24, 2023
Tuesday October 31, 2023
Wednesday November 1, 2023
Thursday November 2, 2023
Sunday November 5, 2023
Monday November 6, 2023
Thursday November 16, 2023
Friday November 17, 2023
Saturday November 18, 2023
Sunday November 19, 2023
Monday November 20, 2023
Tuesday November 21, 2023
Sunday December 3, 2023
Tuesday December 5, 2023
Tuesday December 12, 2023
Wednesday December 13, 2023
Thursday December 14, 2023
Friday December 15, 2023
Saturday December 16, 2023
Wednesday January 10, 2024
Saturday January 20, 2024
Sunday January 21, 2024
Monday January 22, 2024
Tuesday January 23, 2024
Tuesday January 30, 2024

Wednesday January 31, 2024
Thursday February 1, 2024
Friday February 2, 2024
Saturday February 3, 2024
Sunday February 4, 2024
Monday February 5, 2024
Tuesday February 6, 2024
Thursday February 8, 2024
Friday February 9, 2024
Saturday February 10, 2024
Sunday February 11, 2024
Tuesday February 13, 2024
Saturday February 17, 2024
Monday February 18, 2024
Monday February 19, 2024
Tuesday February 20, 2024
Wednesday February 21, 2024
Thursday February 22, 2024
Friday February 23, 2024
Saturday February 24, 2024
Sunday February 25, 2024
Wednesday February 28, 2024
Thursday February 29, 2024
Friday March 1, 2024
Saturday March 2, 2024
Sunday March 3, 2024
Monday March 4, 2024
Wednesday March 6, 2024
Thursday March 7, 2024
Friday March 8, 2024

As shown, the last time K.B.'s laptop was detected in Linden was March 8, 2024. Three days later, March 11, 2024, was the day of the first Prehearing Conference in this matter. It was at this time the Board stated its position that K.B. lives in Linden, not Elizabeth. Thereafter, K.B.'s laptop was never turned on at the Linden home again; and, for the next month, from March 12, 2024 to April 13, 2024, K.B.'s laptop was turned on at the Elizabeth home ten times: March 12, 2024, March 13, 2024, March 15, 2024, March 22, 2024, March 23, 2024, March 25, 2024, March 27, 2024, March 29, 2024, April 9, 2024, and April 13, 2024.[2] (R-6.)

[2] For this same time period (March to April 2024), S.W. presented security video footage of K.B. entering and exiting K.W.'s home. (P-4.) Counsel for the Board objected to moving the videos into evidence based on the lack of time and date stamp. However, I FIND that K.W. sufficiently authenticated the videos in her testimony and reliably identified the videos as taken on March 23, 2024, March 26, 2024, March 27, 2024, March 28, 2024, April 9, 2024, and April 12, 2024. Nevertheless, I FIND that the videos are of little probative value as they only cover a three-week period after this case commenced.

S.W. explains that K.B. goes to the Linden home to visit her father and siblings, but she still maintains that K.B. does not live there. However, the sheer volume of location data from the laptop at the Linden home – compared to the lack of data at the Elizabeth home – during the time leading up to the start of this case, says otherwise.

Given this discussion of facts, I FIND that S.W. has not met her burden to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that she currently lives in the City of Elizabeth. See, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). Indeed, I FIND that the preponderance of the evidence including, but not limited to, the laptop data (R-6), the Linden lease (R-7), Linden mail in S.W.'s name (R-8, R-9), and Linden Residency Affidavit (R-10), demonstrates that both S.W. and K.B. live in Linden, New Jersey.

I also FIND that the Board has requested tuition reimbursement for seventy school days: from January 26, 2024, the date of the Notice of Final Ineligibility, to May 17, 2024, the date the record closed. (R-12.) I further FIND that, at the rate of $99.63 per day, the total amount of tuition requested is $6,974.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Any child between the ages of five and twenty years old is entitled to a free public education in the district where he or she resides. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a). However, if a board of education finds that the parent or guardian of a child who is attending school in the district is not domiciled within the district, the board may pursue removal of the child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). Where a local board of education seeks removal of a child from the school, the parent may appeal to the Commissioner of Education. Id. In the proceeding before the Commissioner, the parent has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child meets the eligibility requirements for a free education. Id.

In this case, I CONCLUDE that the parent, S.W., has not proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child, K.B., meets the eligibility requirement for a free education in Elizabeth, New Jersey. More specifically, S.W. did not prove by a preponderance of the evidence that she is domiciled in Elizabeth.[3] Rather, the preponderance of the evidence demonstrates that S.W. is domiciled in Linden, New Jersey. Therefore, K.B. is entitled to a free public education in Linden, but not Elizabeth.

If the evidence does not support the parent's claim, the Commissioner shall assess the parent tuition for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the schools of the district. Id. However, "[n]othing...shall preclude an equitable determination, by the district board of education or the Commissioner, that, when the particular circumstances of a matter so warrant, tuition shall not be assessed for all or part of any period of a student's ineligible attendance in the school district." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.3(b).

In this case, I CONCLUDE that the Board is entitled to tuition due to K.B.'s ineligible attendance at Dwyer High School in Elizabeth. I further CONCLUDE that the Board made an appropriate equitable determination to assess tuition only from the Notice of Final Ineligibility to the date the record closed. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the Board is entitled to reimbursement of tuition for seventy school days in the amount of $6,974, as requested.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that S.W.'s residency appeal is DENIED, and the Board's request for $6,974 in tuition reimbursement is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

[3] As noted above, S.W. also did not prove by a preponderance of the evidence that K.B. is domiciled in Elizabeth. However, even if S.W. did prove that K.B. lives in Elizabeth with her aunt, K.W., she would not be entitled to a free education there. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.2(a), a student is eligible to attend the school where he or she is kept in the home of a relative, but only if that person is supporting the student without remuneration as if the student were his or her own child. S.W. did not present any evidence on this point. Finally, K.B. also does not meet the definition of a homeless child under N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a)(3): "...a child or youth is homeless when the child or youth resides in any of the following...[t]he residence of relatives or friends where the homeless child or youth resides out of necessity because the child's or youth's family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own." As of August 1, 2023, K.B.'s family did have a regular, permanent residence of its own in Linden, New Jersey.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

June 20, 2024
DATE

ANDREA PERRY VILLANI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: June 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: June 20, 2024

sej

APPENDIX

WITNESSES:

For Petitioner:

S.W., pro se

K.W.

For Respondent:

William Buteau, Investigator

EXHIBITS:

For Petitioner:

P-1 Residency Appeal and Verification

P-2 Bank Statements and Invoices

P-3 Photographs

P-4 Videos

For Respondent:

R-1 Powerschool Records

R-2 Investigation Report

R-3 Notice of Initial Determination

R-4 Notice of Final Ineligibility

R-5 Investigator's Photographs

R-6 Laptop Location Data

R-7 S.W.'s Lease Agreement

R-8 S.W.'s Xfinity Cable Bill

R-9 S.W.'s Mail (TD Bank)

R-10 Affidavit of Residency

R-11 Memorandum of Enrollment

R-12 Elizabeth Academic Calendar

278-24

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of Tenure Charges

PINELANDS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION, OCEAN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

Petitioner,

-and-

SHARI SAKS,

Respondent.

AGENCY DOCKET NO.: 294-10/23

OPINION AND AWARD

BEFORE: RUTH MOSCOVITCH, Arbitrator

Appearances:

For the Petitioner:

Kasi Marie Gifford
William Donio
Cooper Levenson, PA
1125 Atlantic Avenue, Third Floor
Atlantic City, NJ 08401

For the Respondent:

Edward A. Cridge, Esq.
Mellk Cridge, LLC
211 Blackwell Road
Pennington, New Jersey 08534

This matter comes before me on tenure charges brought under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 and N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, et seq., by Petitioner Pinelands Regional School District Board of Education (the "District) against Respondent Shari Saks. The tenure charges at issue here were certified to the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes by the District on or about October 16, 2023. I was appointed the arbitrator to adjudicate this matter on December 20, 2023.

In this proceeding, I heard testimony from ten witnesses over 5 days. On April 8, 10, May 10, and 14, 2024, I conducted in person hearings at the offices of Cooper

Levenson, PA in Atlantic City, New Jersey. On May 23, 2024 I heard testimony via a Zoom platform. Both sides were represented by counsel and were afforded the opportunity to call witnesses, present evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses offered by the opposing party. The District presented the testimony of Superintendent Melissa McCooley, Principal Troy Henderson, Janel Gonzalez, Director of school-based youth services at the District, one current student and one former student in its case-in-chief. Respondent testified in her own behalf. The District then present the testimony of two additional current students in rebuttal, and Respondent presented the testimony of two additional witnesses in surrebuttal. All witnesses were sworn. The District placed 27 exhibits into evidence, and Respondent placed 25 exhibits into evidence. A court reporter produced a transcript of the proceedings that was made available to the parties and to me. The parties submitted post-hearing briefs prior to July 1, 2024.

TENURE CHARGES

PETITIONER'S STATEMENT OF CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS REGARDING THE EMPLOYMENT OF SHARI SAKS, A TENURED FACULTY MEMBER WITHIN THE EMPLOY OF THE PINELANDS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Pinelands Regional School District Board of Education (the "Board" or the "District") is a body politic and corporate in the State of New Jersey, legally designated as a local educational agency, and charged with the responsibility of operating a Junior High School for grades 7-8 and a High School for grades 9-12 serving the communities of Bass River, Eagleswood, Little Egg Harbor, and Tuckerton, and providing a thorough and efficient education for students from these communities. The Board, in discharging its obligations, and pursuant to Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes, is authorized and required by New Jersey law, New Jersey Department of Education rules and regulations and Board Policy, Rules, and Regulations to oversee and supervise Staff and Students of the Board's Schools. Pursuant to such authority, the Board brings forth and files the within Tenure Charges with the Commissioner of Education (the "Commissioner") against Respondent, Shari Saks as follows:

CHARGE 1:

SHARI SAKS, is a tenured teaching staff member originally employed by the Pinelands Regional School District Board on September 2, 2004 as a Temporary Leave Replacement English Language Ails Teacher. She was hired as a full time English Language Arts Teacher in September of 2005. Ms. Saks has engaged in unbecoming conduct pursuant to New Jersey Law, New Jersey Department of Education rules and regulations, and Board Policy, Rules, and Regulations, as follows:

SPECIFICATION 1: On January 18, 2022 a "student concern" was presented to Principal Troy Henderson by Janel Gonzalez, Director of SBYS (district youth services). This email contained a statement from an MSW student intern (Brittany White) who wrote in relevant part that: "[Student K.] reports that Ms. Saks showed her naked pictures of a significant other that Ms. Saks is 'talking to' between classes at school in her classroom ...To my knowledge there were no other students present at the time [student] was shown these pictures and the incident only lasted a few minutes since it was between classes. [Student] also reported that Ms. Saks showed [student] 'inappropriate conversations' between Ms. Saks and an individual she is intimate with and explained to [student] she [Ms. Saks] is pansexual so there were [sic.] conversations between her [Ms. Saks] and men and women." Student K. was a ninth grader at the time of this incident. (See attached January 18, 2022 email from Director Gonzalez to Principal Henderson.)

SPECIFICATION 2: On January 19, 2022 the student (K.), a ninth grader, and her mother were recorded by Principal Troy Henderson (see attached) as part of a phone call investigating these allegations. The student's mother confirmed she was aware of the incident involving Ms. Saks and the inappropriate pictures and conversations. She stated her daughter thought it was "inappropriate" and that it "made her [daughter] feel uncomfortable." This student advised her mother she was "provided a couple of inappropriate photos of a young female that [Ms. Saks] knows outside of school." She also indicated that Ms. Saks had referred to other female students as "sluts" and "whores" for the way they dressed while at school. She stated: "A line was crossed and it was inappropriate." Student K. confirmed she was shown nude photos by Ms. Saks as well as inappropriate text messages of a sexual nature. She stated this occurred while at the school, and that other students were present when this occurred as well. She stated the nudity was full body of a young women/co-worker at a banquet catering. The student indicated the text messages were also inappropriate as they were the "conversation after the photos were sent...the way [Ms. Saks] was responding to the photos " She advised that certain older students would often be present in Ms. Saks's classroom who should not be there, some of whom were present when this occurred. Notably, at one point during this discussion, the student referred to Ms. Saks as "Shari, " [Ms. Saks's first name] while describing the incidents, which also occurred in the presence of another 9th grade student, G. (See attached audio/audio transcript of January 19, 2022 telephone conference.)

SPECIFICATION 3: On January 19, 2022, during a telephone conference between Principal Henderson and another 9th grade student (G., along with her mother), that student also confirmed that she was present when these incidents occurred and that she too was shown inappropriate photos of the naked girl by Ms. Saks. (See Principal Troy Henderson's Notes/attached audio/audio transcript of January 19, 2022 telephone conference.)

SPECIFICATION 4: Both of these students indicated they would cooperate with the school or any authorities, but would prefer to limit involvement if necessary given fear of its impacting their reputation at school or in the greater community.

SPECIFICATION 5: On January 19, 2022 Ms. Saks was notified via letter from Superintendent McCooley that she was suspended with pay, effective immediately "due to allegations of inappropriate conduct. " (See attached January 19, 2022 Letter from Superintendent McCooley to Ms. Saks.)

SPECIFICATION 6: On January 19, 2022 the school contacted the Ocean County Prosecutor's office regarding this incident, as well as the Division of Institutional Abuse to self-report. The Ocean County Prosecutor's Office indicated it would begin an investigation into this matter.

SPECIFICATION 7: On June 21,2022 Ms. Saks was provided with a due process hearing regarding the allegation of the showing of inappropriate photos and texts to ninth graders and following additional investigation. Those present at this meeting included Association President Reid, Superintendent McCooley, Assistant Superintendent Frasca, and Ms. Saks. When asked how the students knew she was or had been in a romantic relationship with a junior high teacher, Ms. Saks responded: "We are told to make connections with kids... " She admitted to having many non-students come to her class, arguing it was necessary and appropriate as a "safe space, " and that many students study better while in her classroom than in others. Ms. Saks declined to address the specific allegations of her showing nude photos to certain 9'h grade students aside from saying: "I have no idea what you're talking about. " (See attached audio/audio transcript of June 21, 2022 Meeting.)

SPECIFICATION 8: During further investigation into this matter by the school, one of the students (K.) stated that Ms. Saks "Showed us a picture of a woman in a bikini showing her pierced nipples, " and another student (G. G.) stated that the photos were of "A naked wom[an] with her legs apart revealing her breast and vagina. " (See attached.)

SPECIFICATION 9: On October 5, 2022 Ms. Saks was provided with notice that she had been placed on income withholding consistent with N.J.S.A. 18A:29-14 (See attached October 5, 2022 Letter of Income Withholding.)

SPECIFICATION 10: The District took immediate steps to remove Ms. Saks from her position, and she has been placed on administrative leave with pay since that time. (See attached Letter re Administrative Leave.)

SPECIFICATION 11: For the 2022-2023 school year assignments, it was determined that Ms. Saks must remain on leave/suspended as the Board believed she had "lost public trust," and that she could not even be placed in an area where she would not work directly with any students (See attached communication.) As the 2023-2024 school year commences, she remains on such leave.

SPECIFICATION 12: N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.11 requires that the Department of Children and Families, Institutional Abuse Investigation Unit (IAIU) investigate allegations of child abuse and neglect occurring in various out-of-home settings.

SPECIFICATION 13: N.J.A.C. 6A: 16-11.1 Applies to this charge. (See Charge 1 where this section of the Code is set forth at length).

SPECIFICATION 14: The IAIU findings noted that the "sexual abuse/sexual abuse-sexual exploitation " allegations were "not established" but that "some information indicates that the child was harmed or placed at risk of harm." (See attached February 21, 2023 Report.)

SPECIFICATION 15: This matter was determined by the IAIU before the new allegations of 'grooming,' outlined in Charge 1 were brought to the District's attention, giving rise both collectively and individually to the necessity of these tenure charges.

SPECIFICATION 16: District Policy #3159 ("Teaching Staff Member/School District Reporting Responsibilities") applies to this charge. (See Charge 2 where this policy is set forth at length, and attached Policy #3159).

SPECIFICATION 17: District Policy #3281 ("Inappropriate Staff Conduct") applies to this charge. (See Charge 2 where this policy is set forth at length, and attached Policy #3281).

SPECIFICATION 18: District Policy #3144 ("Certification of Tenure Charges") applies to this charge. (See Charge 2 where this policy is set forth at length, and attached Policy #3144).

SPECIFICATION 19: District Policy #5751 ("Sexual Harassment") applies to this charge. This policy provides, in relevant part:

> The Board of Education will not tolerate sexual harassment of pupils by school employees, other pupils, or third parties. Sexual harassment of pupils is a form of prohibited sex discrimination. School district staff will investigate and resolve allegations of sexual harassment of pupils engaged in by school employees, other pupils (peers), or third parties... (See attached Policy #5751.)

SPECIFICATION 20: The standards have thus been met to proceed with tenure charges for unbecoming conduct against teacher Shari Saks for having inappropriate communications with multiple minor students including engaging in sexual conversations, inquiring about the students' sexual relationships, and sharing nude photos with minor children K. and G.

CHARGE 2:

Shari Saks, a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Board has acted in a manner unbecoming pursuant to New Jersey Law, New Jersey Department of Education rules and regulations and Board Policy, Rules, and Regulations, as follows:

SPECIFICATION 1: The above specifications and recitals of law, code, and district policy for Charge 1 are incorporated herein as if set forth in their entirety.

SPECIFICATION 2: It has recently come to the District's Attention that SHARI SAKS, a tenured teaching staff member, engaged in what may reasonably be considered inappropriate 'grooming' behavior with a former Pinelands Regional School Distinct student (Isabelle Boyer) who stated she had known Ms. Saks dating back to 7th grade. Although this relationship apparently only culminated in a physical relationship once the student reached eighteen years of age and was a first-year student in college, in an interview with school Superintendent Dr. Melissa McCooley, this former student advised that looking back on her relationship with Shari Saks, she realized it was inappropriate commencing from the time she was in junior high school and at all times thereafter. This former student stated specifically that: "She would, like, take me places, and do things...She like, took me to New York and took me to a show... " She confirmed this occurred while she was still a minor in high school and that others had mentioned to her the term "grooming" regarding this relationship and a lack of appropriate boundaries by an adult/school staff member. She stated that though she thought Ms. Saks "had bad boundaries," she [Ms. Saks] "didn't try anything" until she was 18 and when she had recently graduated from high school. She also stated that before her physical encounter with Ms. Saks, her former teacher had pulled up a bunch "nude photos " of herself and her ex-wife and showed them to her. She stated she was eighteen or nineteen years old at the time of this physical encounter. She indicated they had both been drinking alcohol that evening, though she had not consumed alcohol at Ms. Saks's house, only beforehand. She stated: "I don't think it's right what she did with me [as a student] at all...I probably never would have put Shari in a bad position until I started to hear that other students were saying stuff... " She also stated she would speak to the authorities or sign a witness statement about her experiences with Ms. Saks. (See April 3, 2023 Audio/Audio Transcript Interview with former student, See attached Certification of Mr. Hand.)

SPECIFICATION 3: Some of the activities the student now deems as 'grooming,' and which all occurred prior to her turning eighteen years of age or graduating from high school include: frequent telephonic, text, and email communications, spending time with Ms. Saks outside of normal school hours while at the school, and spending time with Ms. Saks outside of normal school hours outside of the school setting, including Ms. Saks taking this then minor student on a personal trip to New York City while the student, all of which is against district policy. (See April 3, 2023 Audio/Audio Transcript Interview with former student, School Policy #3281),

SPECIFICATION 4: This matter has been turned over to the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office, which is continuing to investigate, and should also be turned over, along with the other misconduct allegations contained herein to the State Board of Examiners regarding suspension or termination of Ms. Saks's educational certifications. Regardless of the ultimate criminal disposition of this matter, the below policies and laws demonstrate that Ms. Saks engaged in these and other inappropriate grooming-type behaviors with this then student and acted inappropriately in a similar manner with other current students, which is all the more concerning regarding the nude photos she allegedly showed ninth grade students (K. and G.), as specifically outlined in Charge 1.

SPECIFICATION 5: This matter came to the school's attention after Ms. Saks had already been placed on administrative leave for alleged inappropriate behavior toward students/minor children, and Ms. Saks has remained on paid administrative leave pending an investigation since January 19, 2022. (See January 19, 2022 Letter of Notice re Administrative Leave.)

SPECIFICATION 6: Board Policy #3159 ("Teaching Staff Member/School District Reporting Responsibilities") provides in relevant part that:

> The Board of Education and all certificate holders shall adhere to the reporting requirements outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.3 and N.J.S.A. 18A:16-1.3...The Superintendent shall notify the New Jersey State Board of Examiners when: 1. Tenured teaching staff members who are accused of criminal offenses or unbecoming conduct resign or retire from their positions; 2. Nontenured teaching staff member, including substitute teachers, who are accused of criminal offenses or unbecoming conduct resign, retire, or are removed from their positions. 3. A certificate holder fails to maintain any license, certificate, or authorization that is mandated pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B for the holder to serve in a position. 4. The Superintendent becomes aware that a certificate holder has been convicted of a crime or criminal offense while in the district's employ; or 5. The Superintendent has received a report from the Department of Children and Families substantiating allegations of abuse or neglect, or establishing "concerns" regarding a certificated teaching staff member...In accordance with N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.14, any person failing to report an act of child abuse, having reasonable cause to believe that an act of child abuse has been committed, may be deemed a disorderly person. (See attached Policy #3159.)

SPECIFICATION 7: Board Policy #3281 ("Inappropriate Staff Conduct") provides in relevant part that:

> The Board of Education recognizes its responsibility to protect the health, safety, and welfare of all pupils within this school district. Furthermore, the Board recognizes there exists a professional responsibility for all school staff to protect a pupil's health, safety, and welfare. The Board strongly believes that school staff members have the public's trust and confidence to protect the well-being of all pupils attending the school district. In support of this Board's strong commitment to the public trust and confidence of school staff, the Board of Education holds all school staff to the highest level of professional responsibility in their conduct with all pupils. Inappropriate conduct and conduct unbecoming a school staff member will not be tolerated in this school district. The Board recognizes and appreciates the staff-pupil relationship that exists in a school district's educational environment. This Policy has been developed and adopted by the Board to provide guidance and direction to avoid actual and/or the appearance of inappropriate staff conduct and conduct unbecoming a school staff member toward pupils.
>
> School staff's conduct in completing their professional responsibilities shall be appropriate at all times. School staff shall not make inappropriate comments to pupils or about pupils and shall not engage in inappropriate language or expression in the presence of pupils. School staff shall not engage in inappropriate conduct toward or with pupils. School staff shall not engage or seek to be in the presence of a pupil beyond the staff member's professional responsibilities. School staff shall not provide transportation to a pupil in their private vehicle or permit a pupil into their private vehicle unless there is an emergency or a special circumstance that has been approved in advance by the Building Principal/immediate supervisor and the parent/legal guardian.
>
> Inappropriate conduct by a school staff member outside their professional responsibilities may be considered conduct unbecoming a staff member. Therefore, school staff members are advised to be concerned with such conduct which may include, but is not limited to, communications and/or publications using e-mails, text-messaging, social networking sites, or any other medium that is directed and/or available to pupils or for public display.
>
> A school staff member is always expected to maintain a professional relationship with pupils and school staff members shall protect the health, safety and welfare of school pupils. A staff member's conduct will be held to the professional standards established by the New Jersey State Board of Education and the New Jersey Commissioner of Education. Inappropriate conduct or conduct unbecoming a staff member may also include conduct not specifically listed in this Policy, but conduct determined by the New Jersey State Board of Education, the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, an arbitration process, and/or appropriate courts to be inappropriate or conduct unbecoming a school staff member... (See attached #3281.)

SPECIFICATION 8: N.J.A.C. 6A: 16-11.1 provides, in relevant part that:

(a) The district board of education shall develop and adopt policies and procedures for school district employees, volunteers, or interns to provide for the early detection of missing, abused, or neglected children through notification of, reporting to, and cooperation with appropriate law enforcement and child welfare authorities pursuant to N.J.S.A. I8A: 36-25 and 25.2, N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.10, and 6A:22-4.1(d)...

SPECIFICATION 9: The decision to seek these tenure charges is based upon the District's concern about its students' health, safety, and welfare. After being RICED on many occasions, Ms. Saks's inappropriate behavior as a teaching staff member has been discussed at numerous Board of Education executive session meetings. Although the Board did not want to continue paying Ms. Saks, they were extremely uncomfortable allowing her to work with our students. The Board continues to be adamant about keeping Ms. Saks out of the classrooms and the school, as they are charged with providing students with a healthy and safe learning environment. As noted in the additional charges herein, such concerns are not limited to only one student or one isolated incident, although each of the charges herein should be sufficient in and of themselves to successfully proceed with tenure charges for unbecoming conduct.

SPECIFICATION 10: Board Policy No. 3144 ("Certification of Tenure Charges") provides in relevant part that:

Tenure charges may be instituted against a tenured staff member of the district in accordance with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1 et seq. In all instances of the filing and certification of tenure charges, except charges filed against a teacher, Principal, Assistant Principal, or Vice Principal for reasons of inefficiency pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.3, the procedures and timelines outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1(b) shall be observed. In the event the tenure charges are charges of inefficiency pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.3, except in the case of Principals, Assistant Principals, and Vice Principals in school districts under full State intervention, where procedures are governed by the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-45 and such rules as may be promulgated to implement it, the procedures and timelines outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5,1(c) shall be observed...

An individual against whom tenure charges are certified shall file a written response to the charges in accordance with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.3 et seq. The Commissioner shall determine whether such charge(s) are sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in salary in accordance with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.5. Any withdrawal, settlement, or mooting of tenure charges shall be in accordance with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6. (See attached Policy #3144.)

SPECIFICATION 11: The standards have thus been met to proceed with tenure charges for unbecoming conduct against teacher Shari Saks for engaging in inappropriate communications with a student and for 'grooming' that student while a minor prior to culminating a physical relationship with them upon their reaching the age of eighteen and graduating from high school, a relationship with origins the student herself now deems both inappropriate and abusive.

CHARGE 3:

SHARI SAKS, a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Board engaged in additional unbecoming conduct pursuant to New Jersey Law, New Jersey Department of Education rules and regulations and Board Policy, Rules, and Regulations, as follows:

SPECIFICATION 1: The above specifications and recitals of law, code, and district policy for Charges 1 and 2 are incorporated herein as if set forth in their entirety.

SPECIFICATION 2: In another, unrelated incident, Ms. Saks was investigated and found responsible for a confirmed HIB (Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying) act against current students. Specifically, during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, and specifically in February of 2021, pictures of minor students being unmasked at lunch were sent to Ms. Saks by a colleague, and those photographs later ended up on a disparaging social media page meant to embarrass people not wearing masks in public places. Ms. Saks admitted to forwarding these pictures of students to individual(s) outside the school, though denied she was responsible for uploading them to the Maskholes: Make Them Infamous[1] ("Maskholes") Facebook page, of which she was a member. (See attached photos; 'Maskholes' Facebook Page, and HIB investigation/determination.)

SPECIFICATION 3: Screenshots of the Maskholes Facebook page show that parents were upset about photos being used of minors while at school, and one poster even called out Ms. Saks specifically. (See attached 'Maskholes Facebook Page Comments.)

SPECIFICATION 4: This incident caused negative implications for students, parents, and the district as a whole, including the Violation of policies #3211 ("Code of Ethics"), #3281 ("Inappropriate Staff Conduct"), #5512 ("Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying"), and #9120 ("Public Information Program"). (See attached Policies #3211, #3281, #5512, and #9120.)

---

[1] The Maskholes: Make them Infamous Facebook Page was created on January 31, 2021 and its "about" section states in relevant part: "Post pics and vids of maskholes. Time to stick together and stop these people from not wearing masks so we can beat Covid."

SPECIFICATION 5: Accordingly, and consistent with the above policies, Ms. Saks did not follow the chain of command regarding students at lunch without masks during the Covid-19 pandemic. Instead, Ms. Saks shared the pictures with third parties outside the school, thus violating four separate district policies, as outlined below, Ms. Saks thus failed to follow proper protocols or to inform the administration of any valid concerns she might have had. (See attached Policies #3211, #3281, #5512, and #9120.)

SPECIFICATION 6: The parents of the students disseminated on the "Maskholes" Facebook page were uniformly upset, particularly as the photos were taken during the school day, were taken of at least five separate minors, and were taken at a time the students were eating lunch (on February 9, 2021) and thus were not required to wear masks consistent with then in place State healthcare Directives; though clearly a photo should not have been taken of minor students while at school, disseminated to non-school employees, and posted on the internet without permission even if such directives were not being followed. (See attached photos; 'Maskholes Page' Policies #3211, #3281, #5512, #9120; Communications from Families and their Attorney(s).)

SPECIFICATION 7: At least one of the parents of the involved students hired a law firm who sued or threatened to sue the District over this matter. Specifically, on February 17, 2021 an allegation of cyberbullying was sent to Superintendent McCooley on behalf of one of the minors in the posted photo. (See Attached February 17, 2021 Allegation of Cyberbullying.)

SPECIFICATION 8: On May 6, 2021 an attorney for one of the families filed a Tort Claim notice with the school concerning this matter (see attached). The tort Claim sought damages for negligent infliction of emotional distress, intentional infliction of emotional distress, false light, libel/slander, defamation, improper publication of private facts, tortious invasion of privacy, negligence, and negligent supervision and sited to a "very negative impact" on the student's education. (See Attached May 6, 2021 Tort Claim Notice.)

SPECIFICATION 9: At least one of the parents of the parents of the involved students contacted local law enforcement over this matter. (See attached Emails.)

SPECIFICATION 10: Several of the parents of the minor students involved in this matter called or emailed administration to complain. (See attached Emails.)

SPECIFICATION 11: The minor children involved in this matter indicated, throughout the HIB investigation, that they were concerned and upset by what occurred. As one student stated (See Student Interview #13624756, HIB Presentation) "At first I was very like upset and kind of mad about it because like I am under age, I'm only 15 and I was just eating lunch, like a simple normal thing everyday and my photos in the group chat and school is supposed to be like a safe *space for kids and you know at first I thought like maybe it was a student ...*it kind of like makes me feel like unsafe... "

SPECIFICATION 12: Also in February 2021, a photograph of the district's Educational Facilities manager was also uploaded to the "Maskholes" Facebook page, which was apparently created to shame those who were not wearing masks during the pandemic. The individual who took that photograph (Ms. Dorothy Gleason) admitted to sharing it with colleagues but denied sharing it with the administrator of the Maskholes Facebook group. It is unclear how this occurred.

SPECIFICATION 13: The individual who admitted to taking the photos (Mrs. Patricia Fraley, high school teacher) stated she only disseminated the photos to two "union rep employees, " one of whom was Shari Saks and the other was Mrs. Allison Laurence. Mrs. Laurence admitted to receiving the photo but denied sharing it with anyone else. Ms. Saks admitted to forwarding the matter to others, but stated she could not remember whom. Ms. Saks also stated she regularly deleted her texts and therefore could not confirm which individual or individuals she disseminated these photos to. Ms. Saks stated she had "no idea" how the photos got onto the Maskholes Facebook page. She also specifically stated: "The only thing I wrote [on that page] that was inappropriate was calling (a colleague) a fucking idiot." She again stated she did share the photos with others, but she did not remember with whom, though it was not the individual who actually posted them onto the Maskholes Facebook page. Ms. Saks was requested to provide a written statement of the incident but failed to do so. (See the February 12, 2021 attached audio/audio transcript detailing the investigation. Pinelands Regional Educational Association representation was present for Ms. Saks and the other school employees being investigated at that time. See also the attached HIB documents, investigation records, and notes.)

SPECIFICATION 14: As a result of the investigation, the District found evidence that Ms. Saks and another colleague (Fraley) "committed an act. of harassment, intimidation, or bullying, " consistent with N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. Ms. Saks was required to follow up with the Superintendent, to attend voluntary confidential counseling, and to receive additional training on school policies 3211 ("Code of Ethics,"), 3281 ("Inappropriate Staff Conduct,"), 5512 ("Harassment, Intimidation, Bullying," and 9120 ("Public Information Program"). (See attached letter of March 18, 2021 to Ms. Saks from Superintendent McCooley. See also March 30,2021 official reprimand letter re conduct unbecoming of a teaching staff member.)

SPECIFICATION 15: On March 17, 2021 Ms. Saks was provided with Due Process and provided with steps to be taken after being found responsible for a

HIB violation. During that meeting, Ms. Saks stated she did not wish to say anything and was provided a letter for the HIB. (See attached audio/audio transcript; Pinelands Regional Educational Association representation was present for this meeting.)

SPECIFICATION 16: Three of the involved students expressed emotional harm from the incident, and one student did not return to school after the photo was posted on February 9, 2021 and has not returned since. (See attached.)

SPECIFICATION 17: Ms. Saks engaged in a separate social media page displaying a picture of other Pinelands' school employees meeting and, during the school day commented on that page: "fucking idiots ...Yet the teachers get blamed for the school closing. I'm so over all of this," thus violating the "Shall not knowingly make false or malicious statements about a colleague," section of policy #3211, "Code of Ethics." (See attached "Maskholes" Page Comments by Ms. Saks.)

SPECIFICATION 18: District Policy #3144 ("Certification of Tenure Charges") applies to this charge. (See Charge 2 where this policy is set forth at length, and attached Policy #3144).

SPECIFICATION 19: The standards have thus been met to proceed with tenure charges for causing a disruption to the education of the students involved and to the educational environment as a whole and to failing to protect the confidentiality of the minor children involved by taking their photos and disseminating them to third parties who placed them on the internet on a Facebook page dedicated to shaming those who do not wear masks.

SPECIFICATION 20: District Policy #3211 ("Code of Ethics") provides, in relevant part:

> The Board of Education endorses the code of ethics for professional educators published by the National Education Association.
>
> Preamble
>
> The educator, believing in the worth and dignity of each human being, recognizes the supreme importance of the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, and the nature of democratic principles. Essential to these goals is the protection of freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal educational opportunity for all. The educator accepts the responsibility to adhere to the highest ethical standards.
>
> The educator recognizes the magnitude of the responsibility inherent in the teaching process. The desire for the respect and confidence of one's colleagues, of students, of parent(s) or legal guardian(s), and of the members of the community provides the incentive to attain and maintain the highest possible degree of ethical conduct. The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession indicates the aspiration of all educators and provides standards by which to judge conduct...

In fulfillment of the obligation to the student, the educator-

1) Shall not unreasonably restrain the student from independent action in the pursuit of learning.

2) Shall not unreasonably deny the student access to varying points of view.

3) Shall not deliberately suppress or distort subject matter relevant to the student's progress.

4) Shall make reasonable effort to protect the student from conditions harmful to learning or to health and safety.

5) Shall not intentionally expose the student to embarrassment or disparagement.

6) Shall not on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, national origin, marital status, political or religious beliefs, family, social or cultural background, or sexual orientation, unfairly—

a. Exclude any student from participation in any program

b. Deny benefits to any student

c. Grant any advantage to any student

7. Shall not use professional relationships with students for private advantage.

8. Shall not disclose information about students obtained in the course of professional service, unless disclosure serves a compelling professional purpose or is required by law...

(See attached Policy #3211.)

SPECIFICATION 21: District Policy #3281 ("Inappropriate Staff Conduct") applies to this charge. (See Charge 2 where this policy is set forth at length, and attached Policy #3281).

SPECIFICATION 22: District Policy #5512 ("Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying") provides, in relevant part:

> The Board of Education prohibits acts of harassment, intimidation, or bullying of a student. A safe and civil environment in school is necessary for students to learn and achieve high academic standards. Harassment, intimidation, or bullying, like other disruptive or violent behaviors, is conduct that disrupts both a student's ability to learn and a school's ability to educate its students in a safe and disciplined environment. Harassment, intimidation, or bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior that may involve a real or perceived power imbalance. Since students learn by example, school administrators, faculty, staff and volunteers should be commended for demonstrating appropriate behavior, treating others with civility and respect, and refusing to tolerate harassment, intimidation, or bullying...
> (See attached Policy #5512.)

SPECIFICATION 23: Board Policy #9120 ("Public Relations Program") provides, in relevant part:

> The Board of Education believes all reasonable means should be employed to keep the community served by the school district informed on matters of importance regarding district programs, finances, personnel, policies, and operations.
>
> The Board will determine which of its official actions have sufficient community impact and interest to warrant special release; the Board alone will release to the news media information about those matters of importance. The Board President may release information regarding Board actions of lesser importance as they have been recorded in the minutes of the Board meetings and upon the request of media representatives. The release of all other publications, photographs, and documents depicting the accomplishments of the pupils and staff of the district shall be approved by the Superintendent of Schools or designee.
>
> The school district will not release or publish photographs or release other personal identifying information of an individual district pupil without the prior written permission of the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) or from the adult pupil. Written permission slips for such release from each parent(s) or legal guardian(s) or adult pupil will be obtained by the Principal or designee for the pupils in their school building or by the Program Administrator for pupils in programs where a Principal is not assigned. These written permission forms shall be maintained by the Principal or Program Administrator. Group photographs may be released by the district without permission, but in no event will an individual pupil in a group photograph be identified by name and/or by other personal identifier without written permission from the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) or adult pupil...

(See attached 9210.)

SPECIFICATION 24: The standards have thus been met to proceed with tenure charges for unbecoming conduct against teacher Shari Saks for engaging or assisting in the dissemination of minors to third-party websites absent their permission, potentially defaming such students and/or invading their privacy.

CHARGE 4:

SHARI SAKS, a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Board engaged in additional unbecoming conduct pursuant to New Jersey Law, New Jersey Department of Education rules and regulations and Board Policy, Rules, and Regulations, as follows:

SPECIFICATION 1: The above specifications and recitals of law, code, and district policy for Charges 1, 2, and 3 are incorporated herein as if set forth in their entirety.

SPECIFICATION 2: Ms. Saks also invited the Ocean County Prosecutor's office staff into the high school on May II, 2021 without first notifying the school Principal, as required per policy #9150 ("School Visitors"). (See attached May 11, 2021 Email of Principal Henderson and Response; Policy #9150.)

SPECIFICATION 3: On May 11, 2021, High School Principal Troy Henderson wrote an email to Ms. Saks (attached) stating, in relevant part: "Did you coordinate to have the Ocean County Prosecutor s Office come to the school today? Can you please let me know the purpose of their visit and what is happening with our students? None of the administrators were aware. Who approved this? " Notably, this occurred shortly after the Maskholes issue and the pending HIB violation were filed against Ms. Saks by the District. That same day, Ms. Saks responded in relevant part via email (see attached) "Michael Colwell and Paul Whitehead from the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office wound up coming to the high school on extremely short notice to help three students technologically prep for a discussion panel that they will be participating in on Thursday evening at 5pm with Congressman Andy Kimm... " (See attached May 11, 2021 email from Principal Henderson to Ms. Saks.)

SPECIFICATION 4: On May 11, 2023 Principal Henderson advised Ms. Saks via email (see attached) that "inviting outside visitors without prior approval is a violation of [District] Policy 9150. Any future plans to invite anyone in the school or to speak with our students virtually must have prior approval." (See attached May 11, 2021 email from Principal Henderson to Ms. Saks.)

SPECIFICATION 5: District Policy #9150 ("School Visitors") provides:

> The Board of Education welcomes and encourages visits to school by parent(s) or legal guardian(s), other adult residents of the community, and interested educators. In order for the educational program to continue undisturbed when visitors are present and to prevent the intrusion of disruptive persons into the schools, the Board directs the enforcement of rules governing school visits.

The Superintendent and Building Principal each possess the authority to prohibit the entry of any person into a school of this district or to expel any person from the school when there is reason to believe the presence of such person would be inimical to the good order of the school. If such a person refuses to leave the school grounds or creates a disturbance, the Principal is authorized to request from the local law enforcement agency whatever assistance is required to remove the individual.

Visitors shall be required to register their presence in the school. No staff member shall transact business with or permit the continuing presence in the school of a visitor who has not been duly registered.

No visitor may confer with a pupil in school without the approval of the Principal; any such conference may take place only in the presence of a teaching staff member and/or administrator

The Superintendent shall develop regulations that will protect pupils and employees of the district from disruption to the educational program and the efficient conduct of their assigned tasks. (See attached Policy #9150.)

SPECIFICATION 6: The standards have thus been met to proceed with tenure charges for unbecoming conduct against teacher Shari Saks for violating District Policy by inviting third parties onto school grounds absent permission or prior notice.

CHARGE 5:

SHARI SAKS, a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Board engaged in additional unbecoming conduct pursuant to New Jersey Law, New Jersey Department of Education rules and regulations and Board Policy, Rules, and Regulations, as follows:

SPECIFICATION 1: The above specifications and recitals of law, code, and district policy for Charges 1, 2, 3, and 4 are incorporated herein as if set forth in their entirety.

SPECIFICATION 2: Ms. Saks failed to attend a mandatory faculty meeting on June 15, 2021. Ms. Saks responded on June 16, 2021 that she was upset the "Cat Eye" position was taken from her in the District and that she was "extremely distraught and had an extremely difficult time remaining composed throughout the remainder of the school day. " She stated that: "I spent the rest of the school day fighting back tears. I then contacted my therapist and my doctor to make appointments for [that day] after school. I tried to mentally prepare myself to attend the faculty meeting but knowing that I would be in the presence of people that do not believe in me. do not support me, and are taking away the responsibilities that I hold the most dear to me upset me so much that I came home and continued to struggle to be okay," (See June 16, 2021 email of Ms. Saks to Principal Henderson.) Thereafter, Mr. Henderson responded via email (see attached) stating that her explanation was unacceptable and that if she was unable to fulfill her job responsibilities she should have asked to take a personal day or otherwise informed her supervisor. Ms. Saks was directed to make up the time but failed to follow up in a timely fashion (see attached emails of July 12, 2021).

SPECIFICATION 3: As demonstrated by the attached December 21, 2021 email from Principal Henderson, it then came to the administration's attention that Ms. Saks was "telling students [she] was not in school Monday and Tuesday because another teacher reported [her] as suicidal."

SPECIFICATION 4: Ms. Saks obtained a letter from a behavioral health center stating she had been screened and was cleared to return to work.

SPECIFICATION 5: On January 5, 2022 Principal Henderson documented by way of letter to Ms. Saks (see attached January 5, 2022 Letter) the incident of December 21, 2021 and describing a meeting of December 22, 2021 with Ms. Saks, Principal Henderson, Director Erin Lichtenwalner, and Association President Reid. It was memorialized that during this meeting Ms. Saks stated: "I had some parents contact me that I am friends with and I told them the truth, which was I was kicked out of school for three days because I made an offhand comment that people usually say that was totally misinterpreted." The letter further confirmed that "several students were interviewed and confirmed that [Ms. Saks] told them [Ms. Saks] was not in school for two days because [Ms. Saks] reported [as] suicidal " Principal Henderson's letter references District Policy #3281 and concludes: "It is inappropriate to discuss personal matters of this nature with your students or their parents ...Please refer to [District] Policy 3281, in which you are in direct violation of and refrain from engaging students or parents in conversations beyond your professional responsibilities." (Attached to this letter was [District] Policy 3281, Inappropriate Staff Conduct, attached)

SPECIFICATION 6: On February 10, 2022 Ms. Saks wrote a note during a work meeting, that she later classified as being humorous, which merely stated: "I'm trying not to take a bunch of pills right now." (See attached February 10, 2022 note of Ms. Saks. See attached Certification of Mr. Hand.)

SPECIFICATION 7: The standards have thus been met to proceed with tenure charges for unbecoming conduct against teacher Shari Saks for engaging in inappropriate and alarming communications with students, parents, and fellow staff.

ISSUE PRESENTED

Whether the Board has demonstrated by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the Respondent has engaged in conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member. If so, what shall be the penalty?

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Prior to the hearing in this matter, I reviewed and ruled on several significant motions. Of particular note, Respondent raised three issues:

1. Production of IAIU File. Respondent asked me to issue an Order compelling production of the investigative file prepared by the new Jersey Department of Children and Families, Institutional Abuse Investigation Unit (IAIU) regarding the allegations in Charge I. I issued that Order on January 26, 2024 and received the file on March 5, 2024. Thereafter, I shared the file with counsel for both parties subject to my protective order that respects and safeguards the identity of minor, student witnesses. During the hearing, I limited the use of interviews found in those files to those related to the testimony of witnesses who appeared before me.

2. Barring testimony of undisclosed witnesses. Respondent filed with me on March 8, 2024 a Motion In Limine to bar the testimony of witnesses who were not timely disclosed. The parties briefed this matter, and I issued my ruling on March 22, 2024. I denied the motion in part: I permitted all witnesses who had been identified and named by the District in its various filings; any other witnesses the District wished to call would be allowed to testify only for impeachment purposes.

3. Barring testimony regarding Charge 3 – "Maskholes." Charge 3 concerns allegations that Respondent violated District policies by disclosing photos of students without their knowledge or consent on a Facebook page about compliance with Covid 19 masking protocols. The parties made me aware that these charges had already resulted in discipline against Respondent in the form of denial of wage increments and is currently the subject of extensive litigation in various forums. Accordingly, I barred any testimony regarding this Charge, and I informed the parties that I will not make any findings regarding the sufficiency of proofs on Charge 3. However, I did not strike the Charge, since it might be relevant to the issue of penalty if other charges are sustained.

The hearing in this matter, then, was limited to proofs regarding four charges against Respondent; this decision will likewise be limited to those charges:

Charge 1 – that Respondent showed naked pictures and inappropriate text messages of a sexual nature to a minor student, and had inappropriate conversations regarding her own sexuality and private life; and that she referred to female students as "sluts" and "whores" for the way they dressed;

Charge 2 – that Respondent had an inappropriate relationship with a minor student that culminated in a physical relationship once the student reached the age of eighteen;

Charge 4 – that Respondent invited third parties onto school grounds without prior permission; and

Charge 5 – that Respondent failed to attend a mandatory faculty meeting, and that she discussed with students that she had suicidal thoughts and was considering self-harm.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The School District. These tenure charges were brought against Respondent, a tenured high school English teacher, employed by Pinelands Regional School District Board of Education, Ocean County (the District). Relevant to this proceeding, the District operates a Junior High or Middle School and a High School, both located in Little Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey.

Respondent. Respondent grew up in the community serviced by the District. She attended the District's middle and high schools before attending Stockton College where she earned a bachelor's degree in literature. (Tr. 3 at 4-5)[2] Ultimately, she became a teacher with a certificate to teach English for grades 7 through 12. (Tr. 3 at 6) Respondent began her teaching career as a substitute teacher in 2004, became full-time in the District in 2004, and was certified in 2005. She has been continuously employed by the District since 2005. She taught 7th grade English at the middle school from 2005 until 2019 and then moved to the High School, where she taught 3 levels of English classes: Honors, college prep, and skills (a lower level) as well as the Gifted and Talented program (GATE). (Tr. 3 at 8)

In addition to her teaching responsibilities, Respondent was active in the school in a number of ways. She developed a program called "Bridging the Gap" to help students transition from the middle grades to high school. She also served as an advisor and coach to cross-curriculum and extra-curricular activities, including the High School's P.R.I.D.E. day, where students participated in community service and fundraising. She was an advisor to the English club, created and advised a dance club, and was advisor to the Gay Straight Alliance student group. (Tr. 3 at 9, 96) She also coached cheerleading and girls' volleyball, and both of those teams under her leadership went to state. And she worked on the high school's career day. (Tr. 3 at 9) Respondent received positive evaluations each year from 2005 through 2021 and was repeatedly commended for her energy, creativity and dedication to the student community. (R. Ex. 1-15)

[2] I refer to the transcripts for the five days of testimony as Tr. 1, Tr. 2, etc.

In addition to living in the District as a member of the community, Respondent has a son who attended the District middle school and high school and was friends with a number of Respondent's students.

All three current student witnesses[3] acknowledged that they like Respondent and think she was a good teacher. (G. Tr. 1 at 101, ; S. Tr. 4 at 23; J. Tr. 4 at 87)

Sharing nude photo with students.

Student G., currently in her junior year in high school, testified that during her freshman year, she had Respondent for English honors. (Tr. 1 at 62) She and some of her friends would "hang out" in Respondent's classroom during another period: when Respondent did not have a class; she would allow students, both freshmen and upperclassmen to stay in her room, where they would do homework, eat lunch or talk with friends. G. said she would, at times, ask for a pass from her geometry teacher, Mr. Reid, particularly if she had already finished her math homework. She would then go down to Respondent's classroom and hang out with her friends. (Tr. 1 at 62-3) G. testified that during those periods, Respondent would usually sit at her desk looking at her phone or talking to the students. (Tr. 1 at 68)

On one particular day in the middle of the 2021-22 school year – before spring break or Christmas break – G. and her friend K. were in Respondent's classroom. She testified to the following:

> [Respondent] was talking about her female coworker and in the past she had talked about how her female coworker had made passes at her and flirted with > her, and she would tell [K] and I about that. And then one day she said that her female coworker sent her nude photos, and I only saw one photo. It was a photo of the woman's breasts and her nipples were pierced and she was laying in bed.

[3] I refer to each of the students by using initials – one if there is no duplicate – and two where there is a duplication.

(Tr. 1 at 66, 149, 155) Respondent said this coworker didn't care that Respondent was already in a relationship, she still wanted to "hook up" with her. (Tr. 1 at 149)

G. testified that she and K. had been seated in front of Respondent's desk. For some reason, which G. does not recall, they walked up to Respondent's desk. Respondent told them that she was going to show them something. G. "thought it was messages from the coworker," but then Respondent asked if they wanted to see a photo. G. did not reply, but K. said, "yes."

> And then she flipped her phone for us to see it, and we saw a nude photograph of her coworker, and you could see it was her breasts and her nipples were pierced.

(Tr. 1 at 69)

G. said that Respondent was laughing while she showed the girls the photo. (Tr. 1 at 150) G. didn't know how to react. She said something like, "That was f-ing nasty" or "f-ing disgusting" and walked out of the room. (Tr. 1 at 70, 150) She did not report the incident to anyone at the time, although she did tell another friend, and she discussed the incident with K. (Tr. 1 at 125-6)

K. did not testify in this proceeding. However, there was evidence that she reported the matter in January 2022 to a social work intern named Brittany White, whom she was seeing as part of the school-based youth services program. Immediately after K. had spoken to her, the intern brought the matter to her supervisor, Janel Gonzales, Director of the school-based youth services program. Ms. Gonzalez is a licensed social worker with a master's degree in school counseling. She did testify in this proceeding.

Ms. Gonzalez testified that she and Ms. White notified Troy Henderson, the High School principal and the school's guidance counselor that same day. (Tr. 1 at 29) Mr. Henderson in turn reported the matter to District superintendent, Dr. Melissa McCooley. (Tr. 2 at 54)

Mr. Henderson testified that he called G. the following day; G. was not at school, so he called her home and spoke first to her and then to her mother. (Tr. 2 at 63) He recorded the conversation, and the recording was played during the hearing. A professional transcription of the recording was prepared after the hearing by the court reporter. (P. Ex. 24) G. told Mr. Henderson what she testified to in this proceeding:

> [Respondent] was talking about how this girl has been -- from her work has been like bugging her recently, and won't leave her alone, and she was saying that she sent, like explicit photos of herself and she showed them to myself and another classmate."

(Tr. 2 at 78, P. Ex. 24 at 3) G. told Mr. Henderson that Respondent shared just one photo along with text messages; G. did not read the texts. (P. 24 T 4-5) Principal Henderson spoke to G.'s mother and ascertained that the mother had overheard her daughter's conversation with him. (Tr. 2 at 78, P. 24 at 8-9)

Student J. testified. She is currently a Senior in the High School. She had Respondent as her English teacher in 9th grade. (Tr. 4 at 57) She was in the habit during the 2021-22 school year of going to Respondent's classroom to eat lunch, along with some of her friends. Often, G. and K. would be there as well. (Tr. 4 at 58) She recalled Respondent talking about a female co-worker who Respondent was physically attracted to, because she was "hot," but that Respondent would never be sexually involved with her because of her young age. (Tr. 4 at 65)

J. also recalled that Respondent asked some of the students who were gathered in her classroom about how to take a screen shot to save nude photos that someone sent her over Snapchat without the sender knowing she had taken the screen shot. (Tr. 4 at 65-6, 93) J. testified that she remembers G. getting up to look at something on Respondent's phone. (Tr. 4 at 67)

Respondent testified. She acknowledged that students would come into her room, sometimes to do their homework, "because they were able to concentrate better in my room," and sometimes to eat their lunch or to engage in peer tutoring. (Tr. 3 at 15-6) As long as students asked and had a pass from the teachers in their other classes, she would allow them to be in her room:

> I did what I could to make m[y classroom] feel safe for the students that were in there and that wanted to come in there when they felt they needed to go in there.

(Tr. 4 at 14) She testified that G. and K. were two of the students who asked and who she allowed to come to her classroom. (Tr. 4 at 18-20)

She testified unequivocally that the incident testified to by G. did not occur. (Tr. 3 at 42-3) She could not recall any time that she showed a picture on her phone to any student. (Tr. 3 at 43)

Commenting on personal relationships.

In addition to the conversations between Respondent and students described above, there was testimony about times when Respondent discussed with students aspects of her own intimate and relationship life and those of the students.

G. testified that she heard Respondent tell K. that her relationship with another student she was dating would not work out and they would break up in a month or so. (Tr. 1 at 73). She also testified that Respondent told her she should date her son. (Tr. 1 at 73)

J. testified that once when she was hanging out in Respondent's classroom, Respondent commented that she should "have gotten together" with S., one of her female friends. S. responded, that would be like getting with her own sister. At the time J. was getting ready to date one of her male classmates, who was present and heard these comments. (Tr. 4 at 60, 90). S. likewise testified that Respondent suggested, in front of other students, that she and J. should start dating. (Tr. 4 at 12-3)

J. testified additionally that one time Respondent talked with the students about how she was involved with a fellow teacher in an "open relationship." (Tr. 4 at 69, 71) Respondent explained that an open relationship was one in which each of the parties could bring other people in and it wouldn't be cheating, as long as the other partner agreed. All of the students knew that Respondent was in a relationship with another teacher, Mr. Steelman – and maybe once, Respondent showed the students photos a something they had done together. (Tr. 4 at 72) S. confirmed that she heard Respondent talk with students in her room about her "open relationship" and what that meant. (Tr. 4 at 14)

Respondent was asked in this hearing about whether she discussed her personal or dating life with students. She replied,

> I didn't just randomly start speaking about my dating life or anything like that. If a kid said, "I saw you out with Mr. Steelman," who is a teacher that I'm in a relationship with, "Are you guys dating," I would say, "Yeah, sure, let's go back to what we're doing...It wasn't like a focused topic of conversation, no."

(Tr. 3 at 90)

Respondent further testified that she never openly spoke about her own sexuality, but when students asked her questions – which usually was during meetings of the Gay Straight Alliance Club, which she advised – she would do her best to respond: "I would try to clarify that people can choose whatever they want to be, as long as they're not hurting anybody else and they're happy with what they choose to be or who they are...." (Tr. 3 at 99) In her due process interview with Superintendent McCooley, Respondent was asked how students would know about her personal life. She responded:

> We're told to make connections with kids, so students find things out and talk to us. Plus, again, you guys know I have a ninth grader [E.], so these kids are friends with my kid. So they're in and out of my house; E. is in and out of their houses. Kids talk. It's not necessarily specifically relayed from me."

(P. Ex. 27, p. 4) Respondent repeated this in her testimony:

> Again, we were told to make connections with students. The kids would ask us questions. We would share—I would tell them minor, little things every once in a while. They knew I had more than one job. I mean most teachers do.

(Tr. 3 at 123)

Respondent was also asked if she ever talked to students about their dating lives. She responded that if students were to ask her an appropriate question, "I would do my best to answer them or lead them, like, in the correct area that they should go in...." (Tr. 3 at 92)

Commenting on female students' attire.[4]

G. testified to two times Respondent commented about the way G. was dressed that made her uncomfortable. The first was when G. was wearing red leggings. She testified that Respondent commented they were too tight and "accentuate my body," and "hug it, like tightly" and, "how would I know if I had 'camel toe'[5]?" (Tr. 1 at 75, 151) G. said that at least two other girls, J., K., and one boy, I., were in the vicinity and heard

---

[4] There was some testimony and argument regarding comments Respondent allegedly made about a male student's socio-economic status. Because those comments are not part of the tenure charges, I do not address them in the Facts or Discussion sections of this Decision.

[5] G. explained in the hearing that this expression refers to clothing that slides up and shows the outline of someone's vagina. (Tr. 2 at 77)

Respondent's comment. Students J. and I. told Respondent that they were just pants and there was no issue with what G. was wearing. (Tr. 1 at 153)

The other comment was when G. was wearing a sweater and jeans, with the sweater, "tucked in a little so you could see a little bit of my stomach." According to G. Respondent told her, it made her "come off, like, whorish." (Tr. 1 at 77) She recalls that her friend, I., was present; he told Respondent that "it's just an outfit. It didn't give off any whorish vibes." G. said that Respondent's reaction was she "just laughed." (Tr. 1 at 132)

Principal Henderson testified that during his conversation with G. and her mother, G's mother told him that Respondent had "belittled" her daughter because she wore tights to school, "and she just made her feel really bad." The mother characterized the comment as "something really nasty, something that is inappropriate for a teacher, and she said it in front of all the kids...the entire class." (Tr. 2 at 65-6, P. 24 at 9-10)

J. testified that one time toward the end of her freshman year, when it was hot outside, she had biked to school in shorts and a tank top and walked into class late. J. commented that it was cold in the classroom, and Respondent said, "Well, you're half naked." The whole class looked at J. and she felt uncomfortable. (Tr. 4 at 73) S. also remembered this incident and testified to it. (Tr. 3 at 47)

J. also remembered and testified to being present when Respondent made a comment about how G. was dressed. G. was wearing a low-cut shirt, and she was more developed than some of the other girl students. A male student, I., was also there. Respondent asked him, "Do you see a problem with G.'s outfit?" I. said, no and G. "kind of just, you know ... shrugged," and Respondent said, "Of course you don't, you're a boy." (Tr. 4 at 75)

Respondent denied that she had used the term "whorish." (Tr. 3 at 380 She went on to emphasize:

> I am very staunch in my beliefs that women should be building up other women and girls and females. We don't need to call each other names like whore or whorish or anything along those lines. I don't use words like that So I would never say that she looked whorish or anything like that. So, no, I did not make that comment."

(Id.) Respondent also strongly denied ever using the term "camel toe;" she would never use such a term because it's "disgusting." (Tr. 4 at 39-40)

Respondent testified that she never commented on a female's clothing. She did not feel comfortable doing that. (Tr. 3 at 100) She would, however, occasionally comment on how male students were dressed: "If their pants were low, I would tell them to pull their pants up, yes." (If.)

"Grooming" a student for future sexual interactions.

Former student, I.B. testified to her interactions with Respondent, both while a student and after she graduated. She has known Respondent since she was in 7th grade. Although she was never assigned to Respondent's class, she audited for a while because her English teacher thought she would benefit from being exposed to more advanced classes. (Tr. 1 at 172) I.B. also knew Respondent because her mother was good friends with a number of teachers at the school. Her family would gather for social events with Respondent's family, and I.B. would go for trips to the beach or to Six Flags with Respondent. (Tr. 1 at 172-3, 176) Her parents were aware of these outings and were okay with them. (Tr. 1 at 218) I.B. also babysat for Respondent's son. (Tr. 1 at 173)

When I.B. was a high school student, she was active in the Gay Straight Alliance student group, where Respondent was an advisor. That was the height of I.B.'s interactions with Respondent in the school building. (Tr. 1 at 175)

During her sophomore year, I.B. entered a contest and won two free tickets to a Broadway show. The tickets had to be used that day. At the time her parents were away on vacation, so I.B. texted Respondent and told her the exciting news. Respondent offered to take her to the show. I.B. did not recall whether Respondent brought her son and her then wife to the city with them. (Tr. 1 at 179) I.B.'s parents gave permission for her to go to the city with Respondent. (Tr. 1 at 219)

I.B. went into the military after she finished high school and, at some point, returned to her home community. She grew close to Respondent and confided to her that she was sexually attracted to women. Respondent was "the only queer adult I knew." (Tr. 1 at 189) In approximately December of 2020, I.B. was at Respondent's house and expressed to her that she wanted to be with a woman, but that had never happened. I.B. testified that Respondent opened her computer and showed her pornography and photos of her and her ex-wife and ex-girlfriend. A few days, later, I.B. went over to Respondent's house to bring her a birthday present. I.B. had been drinking a little bit before; Respondent did not serve her alcohol. They ended up having a sexual encounter. (Tr. 1 at 194, P. Ex. 26, at p. 7-8)

A month or so later, I.B. was struggling emotionally and reached out to a family friend, Christina Calello, a social worker in the military, to seek advice. I.B. came out to Ms. Calello about her sexuality and told her about the encounter with Respondent. Ms. Calello reported the incident to the District; Dr. McCooley followed up and reached out and spoke to I.B. Dr. McCooley testified about their conversation, which she had recorded; a professional transcription of that interview was introduced into evidence as P. Ex. 26.

Respondent was asked about her interactions with I.B. after I.B. graduated from high school. Respondent testified that she never showed I.B. pictures of her ex-wife, or ex-girlfriend or any nude photos. (Tr. 3 at 120) The intimate sexual encounter testified to by I.B. did not occur. (Tr. 3 at 121) It never happened. (Tr. 3 at 129) Respondent does recall that I.B. wished her a happy birthday in 2022 and one year gave her as a birthday gift a book of quotations. (Tr. 3 at 121) Respondent testified that she was the first person I.B. came out to. (Id.)

Inviting outsiders into the high school without notice or approval.

Principal Henderson testified that he learned on May 11, 2021 that Respondent invited guest speakers to the school. Specifically, Respondent invited members of the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office to come into the school to meet with students, without notifying the administration or obtaining prior approval. (Tr. 2 at 21-24, P. Ex. 12)

Respondent acknowledged that she had arranged for the members of the Prosecutor's office to come to the high school to help students prepare for a presentation. Respondent had planned this event with another staff person, Sue Raylman, who had been the one to set her up with the Prosecutor's office; Respondent assumed that Ms. Raylman had informed the administration. (Tr. 3 at 87, P. Ex. 12) Ms. Raylman did not testify in this proceeding.

Failing to attend a mandatory faculty meeting.

Principal Henderson testified that Respondent failed to attend a mandatory faculty meeting on June 15, 2021. Principal Henderson sent an email to Respondent and others who had missed the meeting. (Tr. 2 at 27, P. Ex. 12) Respondent wrote back, explaining that she was upset because the administration took away her position assisting students with "The Cat Eye," a school Facebook page. (Tr. 2 at 30-31) Respondent received a stipend for this work and enjoyed it very much. (Tr. 3 at 74)

In this hearing, Respondent confirmed that she had missed the meeting. She testified that as a coach she had missed meetings before, but never had to let the principal know. "I thought if I found out what happened, I'd be okay which I did...I didn't leave the building, I stayed in my classroom." (Tr. 3 at 74-5)

Telling students about threats of suicide.

In December 2021, Respondent was in her classroom, at around 6:45 a.m. She had bought a new lamp for her room:

> I was setting it up and plugging it in, and I blew the power in my classroom, and I started to freak out because I was scared to get in trouble, because I was already dealing with every else... I started to run around and try to find a maintenance person...As I was running out of my classroom, I passed a colleague, Jen Suralik, and she asked me if I was okay, and I said, just literally offhand, never was suicidal, 'I could just swallow a bottle of pills right now," just like running, because I was stressed. Never wanted to hurt myself or anything."

(Tr. 3 at 47-8) Evidently Ms. Suralik reported the comment, because the administration called Respondent in for a meeting at the end of the day and required her to get a mental health evaluation, which she did within a few days. Respondent testified that she never made any statement referencing self-harm or suicide in front of students. (Tr. 3 at 48-9)

Principal Henderson testified that a parent called him to say that Respondent had told the students she was out of school for two days because a teacher had reported her as being suicidal. (Tr. 2 at 43) Principal Henderson testified that he also spoke to more than one student, one at a time, and, although he made no notes of his conversations with the students, he followed up by calling Respondent in for a meeting. (Tr. 2 at 45-6) Present was another administrator and the Union president. Principal Henderson memorialized that meeting in a letter to Respondent dated January 5, 2022. He wrote:

> During the meeting you stated 'I had some parents contact me that I am friends with and I told them the truth which was I was kicked out of school for three days because I made an off-hand comment that people usually say that was totally misinterpreted.' You also stated during the meeting 'I spoke to friends of mine that are parents within the community.'

(P. Ex. 17)

Student witness J. testified that when she was in Respondent's first period English class, Respondent told the class that she had attempted or thought about suicide in the past. (Tr. 4 at 78-79, 105)

POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES

The District argues that it has met its burden to prove the tenure charges by a preponderance of the credible evidence in that:

1. The District has proven the specifications of Charge 1: three current students, who were competent witnesses, testified truthfully and provided evidence of significant inappropriate conduct including making comments regarding topics such as sex, sexuality, nude photographs, students' dating relationships, students' personal appearances and suicide; the comments caused the students to feel uncomfortable and embarrassed and violated District policies; Respondent denied all of these charges, but her blanket denial is not credible, and she offered no evidence to prove bias or a motivation to lie on the part of the student witnesses;

2. One former student, testified credibly and truthfully about her relationship with Respondent, which began when she met Respondent in the school setting and culminated in a sexual relationship after that student had graduated and was an adult;

the evidence showed that Respondent blurred the lines with the students in her classroom, and that Respondent was ultimately looking for a sexual relationship with this student and likely with others;

3. It is Respondent's word against the word of four intelligent mature, smart, brave and genuine students who voluntarily put themselves through the stress of testifying; Respondent herself conceded that she knows of no reason for any of the four to lie; the students testified that some of them were better friends with one another at different times or simply knew one another – there is absolutely no evidence that these students joined forces to conspire against Respondent;

4. The District has proven that Respondent does not maintain the boundaries necessary when teaching young adults and does not take accountability for her actions; the District has demonstrated a pattern of blurring the lines, which created and will continue to open the door for more egregious conduct in the future if Respondent is not removed from her teaching position;

5. There can be no question that Respondent's proven actions constitute conduct unbecoming including: showing nude photos to students in a classroom setting; discussing Respondent's personal and sexual relationships; embarrassing and making students uncomfortable by demeaning their personal appearance; and discussing students' personal dating relationships in front of others; further, the fact that Respondent's conduct led to her having sex with a former student students elevates the concerns about her conduct to ones that absolutely warrant dismissal;

6. The District has proven the specifications of Charge 2 regarding former student I.B.; the evidence establishes that Respondent used her position as a teacher in the District to draw I.B. close to her when she was still a student, and used that closeness to have a sexual relationship after I.B. had graduated and reached legal maturity; Respondent denied the sexual relationship, but admitted her closeness to I.B.; I.B. was a credible witness, with no reason to lie; the proven allegations are consistent with Respondent's lack of boundaries with students and constitute conduct unbecoming, warranting discharge;

7. The District has proven the specifications of Charge 4, that Respondent invited outsiders into the high school without reporting their visit or obtaining approval; indeed, Respondent admits that this occurred, excusing herself only by stating that she believed another teacher who participated in the planning of the event, had notified school authorities; while in itself, not a serious matter and not grounds for discharge, it is proven and fits within a pattern of Respondent's cavalier attitude toward District policies and procedures;

8. The District has proven the specifications of Charge 5, particularly the specifications that Respondent spoke about her own ideas of suicide loosely and with other individuals, and that students learned of this, all of which is conduct unbecoming; indeed, Respondent admits that she made joking remarks to a fellow teacher about self-harm, and that she told friends who were associated with the school that was the reason she was prevented from appearing at school for a few days; the testimony of Student J., while not about the particular incident charged, corroborates that in the past Respondent did talk loosely with students about her own ideas of suicide; this is all conduct unbecoming.

For all these reasons, the tenure charges should be sustained. Discharge is appropriate in this case in that Respondent has demonstrated a serious and repeated lack of respect for the boundaries that should exist between the private lives of teachers and their students; this has caused harm to students and will continue to expose them to harm if Respondent is allowed to return to the classroom. Further, the reputation of the District if it allows Respondent to return to the classroom will be jeopardized.

On the other hand, Respondent argues that the District has not proven the charges against Respondent by a preponderance of the credible evidence; further, facts established on this record do not warrant Respondent's termination from her tenured teaching position:

1. The present charges were brought by the District in transparent retaliation against Respondent for her involvement in the "Maskholes" controversy in February 2021, which was included in the present action as Charge 3; was the basis of an increment withholding; and is the subject of 7 pending challenges in various forums; while the Arbitrator did not allow the parties to relitigate the matter in this proceeding, this incident should also be excluded from any consideration at the penalty phase, if there is one;

2. With respect to Charge One, the District has failed to prove the charge by a preponderance of competent, credible evidence:

   a. The District's investigation, undertaken only by Principal Henderson, was grossly deficient; the District needlessly waited for months to interview any further witnesses after the initial report, including waiting six months to interview Respondent; the delay in its investigation cannot be excused by a claim that it was waiting for law enforcement to charge Respondent, since, among other things, it knew by early February 2022 that she would not be facing criminal charges; it failed to interview other students or check the school's attendance logs or security cameras to confirm or refute the testimony of the two principal accusers or to preserve critical evidence;

b. To the extent the charges were premised on the IAIU investigation, they are legally insufficient, since the terms of that investigation explicitly state that the Respondent has not been afforded the opportunity to challenge the results of the report and the report cannot be an independent basis for taking action against the person identified therein; this limitation is required not only by the terms of the IAIU report, but by federal judicial holdings;

c. The Board's witnesses and evidence were inconsistent and incredible:

   i. With respect to the "nude photograph incident," the student witnesses testified at various times that it took place: when only one student was present and when many students were present; during 1st period, 7th period and 5th periods; that only G and K saw the photos and that K did not but another student did; that only one photo was shown or more than one; class schedules of the student witnesses confirm that the tale told by the students was not credible;

   ii. With respect to the "nasty comments," again the student witnesses testified at various times that no such comments were made; that different students were present who could not have been, based on their class schedules; and that they occurred during different periods;

d. By contrast, Respondent's denial was consistent, candid, and credible:

   i. Her testimony was supported by the fact that students would not have come into her room when she was teaching and by the logistical improbabilities offered by the students' differing class schedules;

ii. Respondent was candid that she was forthcoming with students about benign aspects of her personal life, including who she was dating, that she had a second job, and that she was a queer female; it is not conduct unbecoming for a teacher to be open about their sexual identity;

iii. Respondent was forthcoming also in her acknowledgement that she knew of no reason why the students would be antagonistic toward her;

iv. Respondent's current partner testified credibly that they do not have an 'open' relationship, thus corroborating her testimony;

e. The rebuttal testimony of two additional students must be disregarded:

i. They introduced new allegations that are beyond the scope of the allegations in the Tenure Charges and consequently cannot be the basis for imposing discipline;

ii. Their testimony is not credible because they omitted these very allegations during their IAIU interviews, and their explanations for having done so and only coming up with their stories now strain credulity; their denial that they talked to one another about their testimony is contradicted by the coincidence that they testified to identical incidents; the only explanation for their testimony is that they were influenced by District leaders, including the principal and superintendent, with whom they met prior to testifying; they colluded with the District leadership and one another;

3. With respect to Charge 2, the District failed to prove that Respondent engaged in conduct unbecoming with IB:

a. All of the testimony about the interactions between IB and Respondent while IB was a student show there was no "grooming:"

i. IB's family was friendly with Respondent and the two families socialized together; IB babysat for Respondent's son;

ii. IB's family was aware and approved of IB's trips with Respondent, including the time Respondent took IB to the city so that she could see the show for which she had won tickets;

iii. There are no allegations, let alone proof, of any inappropriate sexual or other relationship during IB's school years;

b. The alleged sexual interaction between IB and Respondent occurred after IB had graduated, gone into the army and was an adult; it cannot be the basis for a charge of conduct unbecoming;

4. With respect to Charge 3, the "Maskholes" charge, as noted above, the Arbitrator has excluded this charge from consideration, and it should not be considered at all, including with regard to penalty;

5. With respect to Charge 4, there is no dispute that Respondent, along with another teacher, invited members of the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office Staff to the High School to meet with students in order to prepare them for a panel discussion; while this conduct may have violated the letter of the school's policy about getting permission before bringing visitors into the school, this incident does not constitute conduct unbecoming; in fact Respondent was recognized by the Prosecutor's office for her efforts on behalf of the students; Superintendent McCooley testified that no other staff has ever been disciplined for violating this policy;

6. With respect to Charge 5,

a. Respondent admits that she missed a faculty meeting; at the time, she explained to her principal the circumstances behind her absence, and she followed through, as he directed, to make up that meeting; this conduct does not rise to the level of conduct becoming a tenured teacher;

b. Respondent explained the circumstances leading to her saying, jokingly, to another teacher that she could "just swallow a bottle of pills right now:"

i. there was no evidence that any student heard that remark; no students were present; indeed, the District failed to put forth a residuum of competent, non-hearsay evidence in connection with the allegations in this Charge; there was only hearsay reported by Principal Henderson;

ii. the testimony of Student J. regarding Respondent's alleged discussion of suicide in a class must be disregarding because it is vague and unspecific; further, it relates to an alleged incident that may have occurred years ago, at an entirely different time and place than the incident included in the charges and does not prove those charges;

iii. further, Respondent complied with the District's directive and obtained clearance from her therapist, to return to work;

iv. Respondent's therapist testified on sur-rebuttal and verified that she has never heard Respondent say or report anything about self-harm or suicide, thus contradicting the one student witness who claimed that Respondent did talk with students about multiple suicide attempts.

7. Respondent has an excellent record of twenty years as a teacher for the District; she has received outstanding evaluations and observations; she has been active and a positive force in the school by sponsoring student events and initiating programs and clubs that support students; her students all testified that she was a good teacher;

8. Termination would almost certainly be a death knell for Respondent's career as a teacher; teachers who engaged in much more egregious conduct have been allowed to continue teaching, in some cases after undergoing significant professional development; Respondent did not engage in grave or irredeemable misconduct and clearly does not fall into the category of one for whom termination is appropriate;

For all these reasons, the Board's tenure charges should be dismissed.

DISCUSSION

Both parties were ably represented by counsel in this proceeding and had full opportunity to present evidence and make arguments in support of their respective positions. In the preparation of this Opinion and Award, I have carefully considered the testimonial and documentary evidence, the legal authorities cited, and the positions and arguments set forth by the parties, whether referenced or not. For the reasons set forth below, I find the District has proven the conduct alleged in Charge I. That conduct was egregious, unprofessional and constituted conduct unbecoming a tenured teacher. For that proven charge alone, removal from her position and loss of tenure is the appropriate penalty.

With regard to Charge 2, the District has proven some of its allegations, though not all. This charge involves alleged misconduct over a period of years, culminating in conduct that occurred after the student involved had graduated and become an adult. I discuss this charge and its ramifications for Respondent below.

As to Charges 4 and 5, while many of the events alleged occurred, I find the District has failed to prove misconduct; certainly, those events do not constitute grounds for terminating Respondent's employment.

Finally, as noted above, I decline to consider Charge 3, since Respondent has already been punished for this alleged misconduct, and the matter is the subject of ongoing litigation. I also decline to consider Charge 3 with regard to the issue of penalty.

Charge 1

I find that the weight of credible evidence supports a finding that Respondent did, in fact, show one or more students at least one photo on her phone of a woman's bare breasts, while the students were in her classroom, although not during formal lesson time. Further, I find Respondent told students that the woman involved was pursuing a romantic or sexual relationship with her. Such conduct is completely inappropriate for a teacher: it violates the District's rules as well as the behavioral norms expected of our teaching faculty.

Respondent insists that this event never took place. But I find student G. was more credible than Respondent. Not only was she a credible witness, but also the student's testimony was supported by a considerable body of evidence, including (1) the testimony of Principal Henderson and the transcription of his interview with her over the telephone, while her mother was with her; (2) the conversations student K. had with Brittany White and Principal Henderson; and (3) the testimony of another student who heard Respondent asking students how she might download a naked photo sent to her without letting the sender know about it. Respondent herself testified that she is unaware of any animosity the student witnesses might bear toward her, or any other motivation for student G. to fabricate such a story. Even without the testimony of the student K. who originally reported Respondent's conduct, this is sufficient to sustain the allegations of Charge 1.

It is clear that Respondent tried hard to relate to her students; to make them feel comfortable as they navigated the often-fraught experiences of adolescence and high school. Respondent told her superintendent, "We're told to make connections with kids." And in many ways, Respondent was very successful in making connections. The four students who testified all said they felt comfortable in her presence; three of the four liked to hang out in Respondent's classroom with their friends. But it is one thing to make connections with students and quite another to share details about one's private, sexual and dating life. That is not appropriate. Nor is it appropriate is to share one's interest in learning how to download nude photos. And less appropriate still is sharing nude photos one has received. Respondent crossed the line with her students when she engaged in such activity.

I also find that Respondent made degrading remarks to female students about their appearance in front of other students. Both G. and J. testified to being the subject of such comments and they also witnessed belittling comments to other students. Again, Respondent denied ever making degrading comments about female students, insisting that she is opposed to any conduct that belittles or embarrasses young women. However, the students' testimony was credible and corroborated by their interviews with school authorities. I credit the students' testimony.

Respondent urges me to discount the students' testimony – particularly that of J. and S. -- because there are inconsistencies between what they told the IAIU investigators and what they testified to in the hearing. However, it is not uncommon for witnesses – even adults -- to have inconsistencies in what they tell authority figures at different times. In this case, the students were at different stages of their high school experience when they were questioned and I do not find the inconsistencies surprising or troublesome. In any case, there were other factors that supported the veracity of their testimony before me. Both J. and S. were candid when they did not remember particular details, and J. explained her thinking when she was younger of wanting to spare Respondent from more trouble. I found both J. and S. to be competent witnesses, and their testimony was appropriate as part of the District's rebuttal case. There is no evidence that they colluded with one another or with District officials to invent negative testimony against Respondent, and I reject that supposition.

Respondent also urges me to consider student classroom schedules as impeaching the credibility of the student witnesses: they could not have been with Respondent at the times and places and with the other students identified. But it is clear to me that these students and their friends were in and out of Respondent's classroom at different times of the day. I find it entirely credible that they would remember witnessing or being themselves the target of particular negative comments without remembering exactly when that happened or who else was present. Their testimony taken as a whole painted a picture of Respondent's classroom as a space where students came to hang out; there Respondent interacted with them in ways that were both appropriate and supportive and inappropriate and negative.

The remarks attributed to Respondent, including saying one female student looked "whorish" and another looked "naked," were inappropriate, particularly when said in front of other students. Equally inappropriate was Respondent's use of the term "camel toe" to a female student in front of other students. By embarrassing and disparaging students in front of their peers, Respondent engaged in conduct unbecoming.

Respondent also urges me to find Charge 1 not sustained because of the duration and inadequacy of the District's investigation and because the District improperly relied on the IAIU's investigation. But I find the District acted within the scope of its discretion to bring this matter first to law enforcement and to state investigators before proceeding on its own. In good faith, the District, through Principal Henderson and Superintendent McCooley, interviewed key students and spoke with state administrative and law enforcement personnel. While the administrators were aware that the IAIU conducted interviews, it did not rely upon those interviews, and the District moved ahead on its own to bring these charges when official efforts were unresponsive. The proofs presented to me in this hearing, particularly the in-person testimony of student witnesses, were sufficient in themselves to sustain the charges.

Charge 2

Student I.B. testified credibly about the relationship she had with Respondent. It developed initially because her parents were good friends with I.B. and the two families socialized with one another, participating in such activities as going to the beach and to Six Flags. I find nothing inappropriate about the relationship as it developed over the years. One of the allegations against Respondent is that she took I.B. to the city to see a show. But, as I.B. testified, this was not an act of "grooming" and was in no way inappropriate: I.B. won show tickets in a lottery; her parents were away; and so Respondent took her to the city to see the show. I.B.'s parents were aware of this trip and approved it. This, too, was not an act of "grooming."

I credit I.B.'s testimony that she felt comfortable discussing her feelings about her own sexual identity with Respondent, largely stemming from their bond when Respondent was the faculty advisor and I.B. was a member of the Gay Straight Alliance. And I credit I.B.'s testimony that she turned to Respondent after she had reached maturity and had questions and wanted to explore her sexuality; Respondent was a gay adult whom I.B. knew and trusted. Respondent denies that she ever shared pornography with I.B. or had any sexual encounter with her. However, I.B. was the more credible of the two of them, and her testimony was corroborated by Superintendent McCooley' recorded interview of her.

While the evidence does not establish that Respondent "groomed" I.B. or otherwise acted inappropriately when I.B. was a student and a minor, yet it is also clear that Respondent's role as faculty advisor to the GSA gave her a unique position of trust with I.B. This trust I believe she violated by engaging with I.B. sexually when the former student was over 18. To that extent, I believe Respondent violated District rules and engaged in conduct unbecoming a teacher.

Respondent urged me in her Motion for Partial Dismissal of charges to dismiss Charge 2 because there was no evidence of any inappropriate interactions between Respondent and I.B. while I.B. was a student: the alleged sexual interactions took place between two consenting adults and thus could not be conduct unbecoming. As I discuss above, I agree that the relationship between Respondent and I.B. did not grow solely out of their teacher/student roles: I.B.'s family promoted a friendship with Respondent and her family. And I agree that Respondent did not engage in any impropriety with I.B. while she was a student. Nevertheless, I.B. turned to Respondent with questions about her own sexuality because she knew I.B. to be a "queer adult" and came to trust her through their roles as sponsor and participant in the Gay Straight Alliance. But for that history, I find it hard to believe that I.B. would have confided in Respondent as she did. Respondent took advantage of the trust she had earned as teacher/sponsor with a younger, more impressionable student when she subsequently engaged in sexual activity; that activity I find to be conduct unbecoming.

Charge 4

While there is no dispute that Respondent, along with another teacher, invited members of the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office Staff to the High School to meet with students in order to prepare them for a panel discussion, there is nothing in this behavior that remotely amounts to conduct unbecoming. Yes, it was a technical violation of school policy, but there are at least three reasons why I find against the District as to these charges.

First, Respondent testified credibly that she planned the event that brought outside prosecutors into the school with another teacher. The District did not rebut that testimony; evidently it made no effort to talk to the other teacher. Second, the Respondent testified credibly, and, again, without contradiction, that the event was very successful and highly beneficial to District students. Respondent received accolades from the public prosecutor's office for this event. Consideration should be given to Respondent for facilitating this positive type of event. Third, there is no evidence that any other staff member has been penalized for violating this rule. Indeed, there is no evidence that the other teacher who participated with Respondent in planning and carrying out the event was ever talked to, much less penalized. I find the District has failed to prove this charge.

Charge 5

Charge 5 consists of two unrelated sets of allegations. The first has to do with Respondent missing a mandatory faculty meeting. As with the allegations in Charge 4, there is no dispute that Respondent did, in fact, miss a mandatory faculty meeting. However, I find the District has failed to prove that this instance amounted to conduct unbecoming. Respondent testified, credibly and without contradiction, that she has missed faculty meetings before when, for example, she was coaching a school team, without any ramifications. She also testified, credibly and without contradiction, that she obeyed the dictates of her principal and "made up" the meeting by conferring with the appropriate person in the administration. This had been sufficient previously and the District presented no evidence as to why it was insufficient in this instance. Finally, the District's witnesses admitted that no other staff person has ever been brought up on tenure charges – or otherwise penalized -- for missing a faculty meeting. Thus, I must rule against the District on this set of allegations.

The second set of allegations has to do with Respondent allegedly telling students that she had been prevented from returning to school because of a suicide threat. I find the District has failed to prove these allegations as well. First, while Respondent admitted that she made an offhand comment to a colleague about "swallowing a whole bottle of pills," her testimony was both credible and uncontradicted, that this was not done in front of students. In fact, Respondent did not admit to any discussion of suicide or suicidal thoughts with students. The only evidence the District produced in support of this set of allegations was based on hearsay, and as Respondent points out in her Motion for Partial Dismissal of Charges, under the residuum rule, this evidence is insufficient since the District produced no evidence that was not hearsay in support of its charges. Nor are these allegations rescued by the vague testimony of Student J. that at some point, years ago, she thinks Respondent mentioned suicide in her English class. That testimony was unspecific, and, in any case, completely unrelated to the allegations in Charge 5. The District must prove the allegations as written.

Penalty

Respondent urges me to consider a penalty less than termination in this case. Termination will almost certainly end Respondent's career as a teacher, a career that she loves and has done with distinction, energy and creativity for almost 20 years. Respondent argues that other teachers, found guilty of more egregious misconduct than is alleged here, have been allowed to continue in their profession, sometimes with guidance from professional development.

While I am mindful of the many accolades for her teaching from both the administration and her students, I must concur with the District. The allegations as proven by the District show a troubling lack of appreciation for the boundaries that high school teachers must respect for the well-being of their students. It is one thing to make students comfortable and to create an atmosphere where they can relax and feel safe. It is quite another to bring up and share with students one's own dating and sexual relationships. And, it should go without saying that sharing nude photos of a potential partner with students is beyond the pale. Likewise, talking to students about their personal appearance and potential dating partners, particularly in front of other students, can obviously cause embarrassment at the least and possibly pain to those students. High school students are at a stage in their development where all of these topics are fraught – teachers are expected and, indeed, required to treat their students with dignity and delicacy to help them come through these years with healthy self-esteem.

Three current students testified before me about a variety of incidents over more than one school year, where Respondent failed to honor those boundaries. Their testimony was supported by the report given by student K., who did not testify but whose conversations with District administrators brought these matters to their attention. From these sources, it is clear that Respondent not only discussed her own personal dating life with students, but also shared with them her interest in nude photos. And she talked to students about their personal appearance and social relationships in ways that embarrassed or humiliated them. The testimony of former student I.B. adds a further dimension to this picture: I.B. grew to trust and confide in Respondent in large measure because Respondent advised the Gay Straight Alliance. Respondent subsequently abused that trust and confidence by engaging in a sexual relationship which confused and troubled I.B.

These are serious allegations. I find discharge to be the appropriate penalty for the conduct charged and proven by the District.

AWARD

For the foregoing reasons, I find with respect to the tenure charges:

Charges One and Two. I find that Respondent violated District policies and engaged in conduct unbecoming as alleged in Charge One and Two. Those charges are sustained.

Charges Four and Five. I find that Respondent did not violate District policies or engage in conduct unbecoming as alleged in Charges Four and Five. Those charges are not sustained.

I sustain the District's decision to discharge Respondent.

Ruth Moscovitch, Arbitrator

Date: July 25, 2024

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

On July 25, 2024, RUTH MOSCOVITCH, whom I know, came before me and acknowledged that she executed the foregoing as and for her Opinion and Award in the above-captioned matter.

TAREK M ELBARKATAWY
NOTARY PUBLIC-STATE OF NEW YORK
No. 01EL6413650
Qualified in New York County
My Commission Expires 02-01-2025

Notary Public
My Commission expires

279-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10181-22
Agency Dkt. No. 294-11/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.S. and J.S., on behalf of minor child, L.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Hasbrouck Heights, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 26, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 31, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10181-22
AGENCY DKT. NO. 294-11/22

A.S. AND J.S. ON BEHALF MINOR CHILD, L.S., Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF HASBROUCK HEIGHTS, BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondents.

Larry Katz, Esq. for petitioners

Eric Harrison, Esq., for respondent (Methfessel and Werbel, P.C., attorneys)

Jessika Kleen, Esq., co-counsel for respondent (Machado Law Group, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 14, 2024 Decided: June 19, 2024

BEFORE JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

The New Jersey Department of Education transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case on November 15, 2022, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have settled this matter and have filed a General Release and Settlement setting forth the terms of their settlement.

Having reviewed the General Release and Settlement, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by the signatures of the parties and/or their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that the stipulation of settlement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the stipulation of settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

John P Scollo

June 19, 2024

DATE

JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: June 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: June 20, 2024

db

Batista, Diana [OAL]

From:	Jessika Kleen <jkleen@machadolawgroup.com>
Sent:	Friday, June 14, 2024 11:53 AM
To:	Larry Katz; Batista, Diana [OAL]; Katharine A. Rubin; Christina Michelson; Eric Harrison; Raina M. Pitts
Cc:	Anisa K. Ali
Subject:	[EXTERNAL] RE: EDU 10181-22 A.S. AND J.S. O/B/O L.S. VS. HASBROUCK HEIGHTS BOE (Lento 1907)
Attachments:	LS executed settlement.pdf

Attached please find the fully executed settlement agreement.

Jessika Kleen, Esq.
Partner
Machado Law Group
One Cleveland Place
Springfield, New Jersey 07081
jkleen@machadolawgroup.com
Phone: 973-232-5291
FAX: 973-232-6261

From: Larry Katz <lakatz@lentolawgroup.com>
Sent: Friday, June 14, 2024 10:01 AM
To: Batista, Diana [OAL] <Diana.Batista@oal.nj.gov>; Katharine A. Rubin <rubin@methwerb.com>; Christina Michelson <michelson@methwerb.com>; Eric Harrison <harrison@methwerb.com>; Jessika Kleen <jkleen@machadolawgroup.com>; Raina M. Pitts <Pitts@methwerb.com>
Cc: Anisa K. Ali <ali@methwerb.com>
Subject: RE: EDU 10181-22 A.S. AND J.S. O/B/O L.S. VS. HASBROUCK HEIGHTS BOE (Lento 1907)

CAUTION: This email originated from outside of the organization. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognize the sender and know the content is safe.

Your Honor:

I apologize for not also responding. Mr. Harrison is accurate. The Release language has been resolved and a signed Release has been returned to MR. Harrison.

Respectfully,

Larry Katz

GENERAL RELEASE AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS GENERAL RELEASE AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT (hereinafter referred to as the "Release") is made by Releasors A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR (hereinafter referred to as "A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR" or "Releasor" (includes themselves and their legal representatives and agents), for the benefit of the HASBROUCK HEIGHTS BOARD OF EDUCATION, its Elected Officials, Agents, Employees and Representatives and FRANK D'AMICO, JOSEPH MASTROPIETRO, DAWN JOHNSON, and DR. MATTHEW HELFANT (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the BOARD OF EDUCATION" including its administrators, officers, agents and employees) for the following purposes and with reference to the following background.

BACKGROUND

A. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR filed a complaint with the United States District Court for New Jersey; Civil Action No. 1:23-cv-21200 claiming constitutional and common law violations; and

B. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, OAL Docket No. EDU 10181-22 claiming violations of the Anti-bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. §18A:37-14, and common law violations; and

C. The BOARD OF EDUCATION has denied, and continues to deny, any and all liability for all the claims alleged by A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR and deny that the BOARD OF EDUCATION violated any laws or engaged in any unlawful or wrongful conduct, or discriminated or retaliated against

A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR or deprived them of any of their rights in any manner; and

C. The Parties desire to make a full and final settlement of any and all of A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR's claims and potential claims against the BOARD OF EDUCATION, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, based on any facts, events, acts or omissions, whether now known or unknown, occurring on or before the effective date of this Release, without any judicial, administrative, or arbitral resolution of them and without any admission with respect to any issues presented or capable of being presented.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, and intending to be legally bound, the undersigned parties agree as follows:

1. Non-Admission. This Release is not, and shall not in any way be considered or construed as, an admission by the BOARD OF EDUCATION of any tortious conduct, or of any violation of any law, common law, or federal, state or local statute or regulation, or of any alleged duty owed by the BOARD OF EDUCATION to A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR, or of any unlawful or wrongful acts whatsoever by the BOARD OF EDUCATION. The payment hereunder is made solely to avoid the inconvenience and cost of litigation and to resolve completely all of A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR's claims against the BOARD OF EDUCATION, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, as more fully detailed in Paragraph 9, below.

2. Cooperation. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR and the Board of Education agree to cooperate fully in connection with any steps required to be taken as part of their obligations under this Release.

3. Withdrawal and Dismissal of Lawsuit and Promise Not to Sue A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR understands that this Release extinguishes any claims or potential claims as to the HASBROUCK HEIGHTS BOARD OF EDUCATION, FRANK D'AMICO, JOSEPH MASTROPIETRO, DAWN JOHNSON, and DR. MATTHEW HELFANT, and agrees not to file, revive any claims, or open a lawsuit in any way. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR further agrees not to file any other Charges with any state or federal agency against the BOARD OF EDUCATION and/or any of its current or former elected officials, employees, agents or administrators. This paragraph is limited to incidents occurring before the date the agreement is signed.

A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR further agrees that neither they, nor any person, organization, agency, or other entity on their behalf, will file, charge, claim or sue, or cause to be filed, charged, claimed or sued, any lawsuit, legal proceeding, action, or claim of any nature with any court or agency (including any action for damages, attorneys fees, injunction, declaratory, monetary, equitable or other relief) against the BOARD OF EDUCATION, based on any matter, fact or event occurring prior to the effective date of this Release, whether now known or unknown, or involving any continuing effects of any acts or practices which may have arisen or occurred prior to the effective date of this Release, whether now known or unknown.

A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR understands and agrees that they will not be considered a prevailing party under any statute, common law, or otherwise as a result of this Release.

4. Payments And Other Consideration. In exchange for the promises, Releases, and legal releases stated herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the Board's insurance carrier will make payments totaling One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) to A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR, who acknowledge that the monies will be distributed in accordance with a Court Order and in compliance with New Jersey Court Directive #09-08 regarding "Friendly Settlement." The effective date of this Release shall be the latest of the dates upon which the BOARD OF EDUCATION receives A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR's signed and notarized General Release and Settlement Agreement; W-9 form; a child support search report from their attorney and the Court Order for the Friendly Settlement is filed. BOARD OF EDUCATION does further agree to reverse any HIB findings made against L.S., to fully expunge L.S.'s educational and other records of those HIB findings, and to provide written assurance, on letterhead from counsel, to A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR'S COUNSEL, that the reversals and expungements have been accomplished. This will be done within 60 days after the Court Order for the Friendly Settlement is filed.

5. It is agreed and understood by the Parties that all monies paid as part of this settlement are for non-economic damages and that no monies are paid for loss of income, wage loss, and any other economic damage.

6. Non-Disparagement. The Parties understand and agree that they will not engage in any activity or make any statement – written, oral, electronic or otherwise – that may disparage or reflect negatively on each other, their agents, employees, officials, officers, board members, directors or employees or which would otherwise encourage any adverse action against either Party.

7. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure. Except as otherwise required by law, the terms of the Agreement are strictly confidential. The Parties agree that they shall not disclose to any third party (other than tax advisors and retained counsel) any details regarding the settlement of this matter or the Agreement except as required by law and/or in connection with an action to challenge or enforce the Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that should they disclose the terms of this Agreement to any other third party other than third parties to whom they are expressly permitted by this paragraph or required by law to disclose its terms, they take full responsibility for any breach of confidentiality by such third party, including but not limited to, their spouses, significant others, family members, or any other individual who disclosed any provision of this Agreement through any information received from that Party, and that a breach of the Agreement by such an individual shall constitute a breach of agreement by the Party herself or itself. The facts, amounts, circumstances and documents underlying this resolution shall not be disclosed or admissible in any litigation or proceeding in any forum for any purpose other than to enforce or challenge the terms and conditions of the Agreement, except as otherwise required by law, court order or legal process. Neither the Parties, nor their representatives, shall communicate with the media or members of the media regarding the terms of the Agreement. If contacted by any media source, the Parties agree that their statement will be limited to: "The matter has been resolved." No party to the Agreement, or a party's representative, shall take any steps to place any information concerning this Agreement or the allegations contained in this Action on any form of social media, or on the Internet in any manner. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent Releasors from informing L.S.'s medical or emotional/psychological providers that the HIB investigation ultimately found that L.S. did not commit a HIB.

8. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR's Tax Indemnification. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR agrees to indemnify and hold the BOARD OF EDUCATION harmless from any and all federal, state, and local tax liabilities, deficiencies, levies, interest, and penalties that may be assessed as a result of not withholding income and payroll taxes on the monies paid pursuant to this Release if they fail to properly pay any taxes to which their settlement may be subject.

9. Full and Complete Settlement. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR agrees that the payment described in paragraph 4 will be received by A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR in full and complete settlement, as more fully detailed in paragraph 9, below, of all known or unknown claims, asserted or unasserted, of A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR allegedly arising out of any and all conduct or actions of the BOARD OF EDUCATION and/or relationship with the BOARD OF EDUCATION, as more fully detailed in Paragraph 9, below.

10. General Release and Waiver of all Claims. In consideration for the payment and promises described in paragraph 4, and elsewhere in this Agreement, A.S.

AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR fully releases and forever discharges the BOARD OF EDUCATION, FRANK D'AMICO, JOSEPH MASTROPIETRO, DAWN JOHNSON, and DR. MATTHEW HELFANT, and all of the BOARD OF EDUCATION's former or current elected officials, directors, officers, administrators, trustees, shareholders, agents, supervisors, employees, attorneys, legal representatives, servants, insurers, any and all benefit plans, and successors and assigns, and each of them (herein collectively "the BOARD OF EDUCATION" and/or "Released Parties") of and from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, back pay, front pay, contracts, agreements, compensation, pay, promises, charges, judgments, grievances, obligations, rights, demands, debts, sums of money, salaries, wages, benefits, physical injury, pain, suffering, emotional distress, compensatory damages, punitive damages, attorneys' fees, expenses, costs, losses liabilities, damages, or accountings of whatever nature, whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, asserted or unasserted, in law or equity, contract or tort or otherwise (herein collectively designated "Claim" or "Claims"), through the effective date of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all Claims of race, gender, sex, age and national origin discrimination, retaliation, and any and all tort Claims or contract Claims or Claims for general damages, and any and all Claims arising under, made, regarding, or involving: any federal, state or local laws or under the common law; violations of any federal, state or local fair employment practices or civil rights laws or ordinances; Claims for personal injury, defamation, wrongful conduct, or wrongful discharge; the Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and 1871, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1981; 42 U.S.C. §1983, as amended; the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, including Title VII; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended; the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; Executive Order 11246; the federal Family and Medical Leave Act; state Family and Medical Leave Acts; Claims alleging retaliation under the Worker's Compensation Act; the Unemployment Compensation Law; the National Labor Relations Act, as amended; any and all state wage payment and collection laws; the Anti-bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. §18A:37-14, Pickering's policies, practices, collective bargaining agreements, contracts, benefits or understandings; any Claims arising out of any relationship or duty, between or among, A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR and the Released Parties predating the effective date of this Agreement; any and all grievances, or demands for mediation or arbitration, or Claims or demands under the BOARD OF EDUCATION's policies and procedures; and any and all Claims asserted, or which could have been asserted, in a state or Federal court Lawsuit referenced above, including any Claims against any current or former agents or employees of the BOARD OF EDUCATION .

A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR hereby specifically waives, releases and gives up all Claims and rights, as described in the preceding paragraph, whether now known or unknown, which they have or may have, against the BOARD OF EDUCATION and the Released Parties, based on any fact, act, event, or omission, whether now known or unknown, occurring before the Effective Date of this Agreement. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR understands that they are waiving, releasing and giving up all Claims and rights that they know about and all Claims and rights that they may not know about. This release does not apply to Claims based on facts occurring after the Effective Date of this Agreement.

11. Liens. It is further understood that as a condition of this settlement, all claims and/or liens, past, current and/or future arising out of this settlement or asserted against the proceeds of this settlement are to be satisfied by A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR (herein "Releasor") and/or their Attorneys, including but not limited to any Medicare or Medicaid claims and/or liens, Worker's Compensation claims and/or liens, Social Security claims and/or liens, hospital/healthcare insurer claims and/or liens, physician or attorney claims and/or liens, or any of the statutory, equitable, common law or judgment claims and/or liens, including but not limited to claim based on subrogation or any other legal or equitable theory. Releasor therefore agrees, upon prompt presentation of any such claims and/or liens, to defend the Release Parties against any such claims and/or liens, and to indemnify and hold the Released Parties harmless against any judgment entered against the Released Parties based on such claims and/or liens, including the payment of any fines, charges and attorneys fees incurred as a result of any such lien. Failure to satisfy any such lien shall be considered a breach of this Agreement and Releasor and their Attorneys agree to pay all costs, interest and attorneys fees relative to any such lien.

12. Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses. Each party shall be responsible solely for its or their own attorneys' fees, costs and expenses. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR specifically waives all claims to attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses from the BOARD OF EDUCATION including all claims for reimbursement to the BOARD OF EDUCATION or their attorneys, agents, or family members, of any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses they have incurred or paid, or which were paid on their behalf.

13. Applicable Law and Severability. This Release shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of New Jersey, except where federal law controls. Should any provision of this Release be declared or determined by any Court to be illegal or invalid, the validity of the remaining parts, terms or provisions shall not be affected thereby and said illegal or invalid part, term, or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Release.

14. Entire Release. This Release sets forth the entire Release between the parties and fully supersedes any and all prior Releases or understandings between the parties.

15. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR's Certification. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR agrees, certifies, acknowledges, and represents: (a) that they have been and is hereby advised in writing to consult with an attorney of their choice and at their expense, prior to signing this Release; (b) that they have had adequate time and opportunity to review and discuss, and has reviewed and discussed, all of the terms and sections of this Release thoroughly with their attorney; (c) that their attorney has explained this entire Release to him; (d) that they do not waive any rights or claims that may arise after the date this Release becomes effective; (e) that they shall have and was given at least twenty-one (21) days to consider the terms and conditions of this Relcase before signing it; (f) that their waiver of Claims and this General Release shall not become effective until the effective date of this Release.

If A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR decides to sign this Release before the expiration of the 21-day period, A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR specifically acknowledges that they have had sufficient time and opportunity to review and understand the terms of this Release and specifically waives and gives up any rights for additional time or opportunity to review it.

A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR FURTHER CERTIFIES, ACKNOWLEDGES, AND REPRESENTS THAT THEY ARE ABLE TO READ AND UNDERSTAND ENGLISH, THAT THEY UNDERSTAND ALL OF THE PROVISIONS HEREIN, WITH THE ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE OF THEIR ATTORNEY, AND THAT THEY MAKE THIS RELEASE KNOWLINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THEY HAVE NO PHYSICAL OR MENTAL PROBLEM, CONDITION, OR IMPAIRMENT OF ANY KIND WHICH HAS INTERFERED WITH THEIR ABILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE MEANING OF THIS RELEASE OR ITS TERMS. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR FURTHER REPESENTS THAT IN SIGNING THIS RELEASE, THEY DO NOT RELY ON ANY PROMISES OR REPRESENTATIONS MADE BY ANYONE OTHER THAN THOSE STATED SPECIFICALLY HEREIN.

16. Full Knowledge. A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR further warrants, represents, and agrees that in signing this Release, they do so with full knowledge of any and all rights which they may have with respect to the BOARD OF EDUCATION and other Released Parties, or the Lawsuit.

17. Headings. The headings of the paragraphs in this Release are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of, or limit the scope or intent of, any of the provisions of this Release.

18. Effective Date. The effective date of this Release shall be the latest of the dates upon which the BOARD OF EDUCATION receives A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR's signed and notarized General Release and Settlement Agreement; W-9 form; a child support search report from their attorney, and the Court Order for the Friendly Settlement is filed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound, A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR has executed this Release as of the dates set forth below.

By: A.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR

By _____ (Signature)

Annmarie Stewart
(Type or Print Name)

Dated: 6/11/24

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF Bergen :

I CERTIFY that on June 11, 2024, A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person (or if more than one, each person):

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and

(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as his or her act and deed.

6/11/2024
(Notary Public) Carlos Mercado (Raised seal)

CARLOS S MERCADO-ALVARADO
Commission # 50214654
Notary Public, State of New Jersey
My Commission Expires
October 08, 2028

By: J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR

By _____ (Signature)

JOHN STAVASH Dated: 6/11/24
(Type or Print Name)

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF Bergen :

I CERTIFY that on June 11, 2024, A.S. AND J.S. AS PARENTS AND O/B/O L.S., A MINOR personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person (or if more than one, each person):

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and

(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as his or her act and deed.

6/11/2024
(Notary Public) Carlos Mercado (Raised seal)

CARLOS S MERCADO-ALVARADO
Commission # 50214654
Notary Public, State of New Jersey
My Commission Expires
October 08, 2028

Hasbrouck Heights Board of Education

Lori Citron
Board President

Dated:

280-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03895-23
Agency Dkt. No. 38-2/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

Board of Education of the Borough of Bloomsbury, Hunterdon County, Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Town of Phillipsburg, Warren County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement Agreement and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the Agreement to the extent that it indicates that respondent Phillipsburg Board of Education (Phillipsburg) will not contest the Bloomsbury Board of Education's (Bloomsbury) petition to sever Bloomsbury's sending-receiving relationship with Phillipsburg and to form a new sending-receiving relationship with the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District Board of Education. The Commissioner further approves the return of the case from the OAL to the agency, as it is no longer a contested case.

However, to the extent that the Agreement includes substantive terms regarding the severance of the current sending-receiving relationship and institution of a new sending-receiving relationship – such as effective dates, the eligibility of Bloomsbury students to continue to attend school in Phillipsburg, and the payment of tuition – the Commissioner is unable to approve such terms at this time. When a request for the severance of a sending-receiving relationship is uncontested, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1(b) requires the parties to engage in specific procedures, including, but not limited to, a public comment period and the submission of the parties' reply to any comments. Upon the review of the record, the Commissioner must determine whether severance of the relationship is appropriate in light of the criteria listed in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13.

By correspondence dated July 3, 2024, the Office of Controversies and Disputes directed the parties to announce a public comment period at their next public meetings. Following the close of the comment period and the submission of the parties' replies to any comments, the Commissioner will determine whether the request for severance will be granted under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13 and any other applicable law. Any issues related to the severance of the existing sending-receiving relationship are reserved until that time.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 26, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 31, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03895-23
AGY. DKT. NO. 38-2/23

BOROUGH OF BLOOMSBURY BOARD OF EDUCATION, HUNTERDON COUNTY, Petitioner,
vs.
TOWN OF PHILLIPSBURG BOARD OF EDUCATION, WARREN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Vito A. Gagliardi, Jr., Esq. for petitioner (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C., attorneys)

Elizabeth H. Marcon, Esq., for respondent (Florio, Perrucci Steinhardt, Cappelli, Tipton & Taylor, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 17, 2024 Closed: June 20, 2024

BEFORE THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner Board seeks termination of the send/receive agreement with respondent Board.

Petitioner filed Verified Petition of appeal with the Office of Controversies and Disputes in the New Jersey Department of Education on February 14, 2023.

Respondent filed its Answer on May 1, 2023.

The matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on May 4, 2023, as a contested case.

A prehearing conference was held on June 1, 2023, and a Prehearing Order was entered on the same date.

A Consent Order Regarding Prehearing Deadlines was entered on January 3, 2024.

Respondent Board filed the following pre-hearing motions:

1. Motion for Summary Decision dated April 9, 2024;
2. Motion in Limine to Preclude Prejudicial Testimony dated April 15, 2024;
3. Motion in Limine to Preclude Cumulative Testimony.

Petitioner Board filed the following pre-hearing motions:

1. Motion in Limine to Strike Proposed Expert Report and Testimony;
2. Motion in Limine to Preclude testimony of Mark Magyar;
3. Motion in Limine to Strike Segments of Expert Report and Preclude Testimony.

All of the above noted motions were addressed on the record during the fist day hearing, May 10, 2024, and disposed of as follows: All of respondent's motions were denied for the reasons set forth on the record by the undersigned.

Petitioner's Motion in Limine to Strike Segments of respondent's expert report and preclude certain testimony regarding the proposed expert report was granted for the reasons set forth on the record. The remaining motions filed by petitioner were denied, except for the Motion to Preclude testimony of Mark Magyar, as that motion was rendered moot as respondent indicated that Mr. Magyar would not be called to testify.

The matter proceeded to hearing on May 15, 2024, whereupon the parties advised the undersigned they would utilize most of the hearing date to engage in settlement discussions. The undersigned was notified that the matter was settled in principle.

Counsel for the parties have advised via emails that their respective Boards have approved the agreement.

The undersigned received a fully executed settlement agreement on June 17, 2024, which is attached hereto. I have reviewed the settlement agreement and find that it fully comports with the law and regulations pertaining to send/receive districts. It is attached hereto as OAL-1. Accordingly, the matter should be returned to the Commissioner of the Department of Education for further proceedings in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that above referenced matter is hereby being returned to the Commissioner of the Department of Education for further proceedings in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

June 20, 2024

DATE

THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: June 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: June 20, 2024

Db

OAL-1

AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into by and between the Bloomsbury Board of Education, with its principal office located at 20 Main Street, Bloomsbury, New Jersey 08804 ("Bloomsbury"), and the Phillipsburg Board of Education, with its principal office located at 50 Sargent Avenue, Phillipsburg, New Jersey 08865 ("Phillipsburg") (collectively referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Bloomsbury filed a Petition with the Commissioner of Education on or about February 14, 2023 to terminate its current sending-receiving relationship with Phillipsburg ("Petition"); and

WHEREAS, Phillipsburg filed an Answer to the Petition on or about May 1, 2024; and

WHEREAS, the matter, titled Bloomsbury Board of Education v. Phillipsburg Board of Education, Administrative Law Division, Agency Docket No. EDU-03895-23 ("OAL action"), was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to amicably resolve their differences and avoid the uncertainty and expense of legal action, thereby allowing the Petition to proceed uncontested,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and obligations set forth in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Phillipsburg will agree not to contest Bloomsbury's Petition to sever its existing sending-receiving relationship with Phillipsburg and form a new sending-receiving relationship with the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District Board of Education, as provided by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1.

2. As of September 2025, students from Bloomsbury who completed the 8th grade and therefore would be eligible to enroll in the 9th Grade, will attend North Hunterdon High School or any such other schools as may be arranged by Bloomsbury. All Bloomsbury students eligible to enroll in grades 10, 11, and 12 as of September 2025 shall continue to attend school at Phillipsburg High School until their graduation. Bloomsbury shall pay Phillipsburg a tuition rate per student at the Prevailing Rate (prevailing rate is defined as the rate being charged to all sending districts.)

3. The Parties acknowledge that Bloomsbury will seek to become a constituent member of the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District as provided by law.

Furthermore, the parties agree that this Agreement is not contingent upon Bloomsbury becoming a constituent member of the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District, nor shall its terms be otherwise impacted should Bloomsbury not become a constituent member of the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District.

4. This proposed settlement shall be subject to review and approval by the Hon. Thomas Betancourt, A.L.J. and subject to review and approval by the Commissioner of Education. Upon approval by the Commissioner of Education, this settlement will constitute full and final settlement of the litigation entitled Bloomsbury Board of Education v. Phillipsburg Board of Education, Agency Docket No. EDU-03895-23 ("OAL action"). The Parties agree that, pending approval of the settlement, further litigation of the OAL action is stayed. Upon approval of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education, the Parties will execute and file a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice as to the OAL action.

5. The withdrawal of Phillipsburg's objection to Bloomsbury's Petition, dated February 14, 2023, is contingent upon approval by the Commissioner of Education of this settlement. In the event that this settlement is not approved by the Commissioner of Education, Phillipsburg's objection to the Petition will remain in effect and the Parties will complete the litigation of the OAL action before the Hon. Thomas Betancourt, A.L.J., from the point where it was stayed pending approval of the settlement.

6. Bloomsbury and Phillipsburg agree to open the public comment period, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1, and formally announce the following:

> On or about February 14, 2023, the Bloomsbury Board of Education filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education seeking to terminate its current sending-receiving for its high school students with the Phillipsburg Board of Education and enter into a new sending-receiving relationship with the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District Board of Education to educate Bloomsbury's students in grades 9-12, and thereafter seek to become a constituent member of the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School District through the regionalization process as provided by law.
>
> The record for public comment will be open for twenty days from today. Comments should be addressed to the Commissioner of Education, c/o Director, Office of Controversies and Disputes, New Jersey Department of Education, 100 River View Plaza, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. Comments shall not exceed 10 pages in length, shall be served on all parties to the case, shall include proof of such service when filed with the Commissioner, and shall specifically address the following statutory standard for the Commissioner's review of applications for change in designation, allocation, or apportionment: "Comments shall address the question of whether the proposed change in designation, allocation, or apportionment will result in a substantial negative impact in any of the affected school districts in one or more of the following areas: educational and financial implications; quality of education received by students; and racial composition of the student populations." Comments must be served on the Commissioner of Education as set forth above, the Bloomsbury Board of Education and the Phillipsburg Board of Education, in person or by mail in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2 and 1.3.

7. Phillipsburg agrees that it shall not oppose, hinder, or in any way obstruct any effort by Bloomsbury to terminate its existing sending-receiving relationship with Phillipsburg and create a new sending-receiving relationship with the North Hunterdon-Voorhees Regional High School Board of Education, consistent with the terms set forth herein. This includes, but is not limited to, submitting any comments or documents to the Commissioner of Education, that otherwise oppose or hinder Bloomsbury's efforts to terminate its existing sending-receiving relationship, or otherwise encouraging members of its community or others communities to submit comments in opposition to Bloomsbury's efforts.

8. All provisions of the Sending-Receiving Agreement between the Parties shall remain in full force and effect except as modified by this Settlement. This Agreement will become effective as of the last date on which it was approved by the Parties.

9. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any of its provisions shall be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, this Agreement shall be construed as if not containing those provisions and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly. On a determination that any term or provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible. In the event the Parties are unable to reach an agreement, the court may modify this Agreement to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

10. This Agreement, and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of New Jersey, without regard to any conflicts of laws principles that would require the laws of any other jurisdiction to apply.

11. Unless specifically provided herein, this Agreement contains all of the understandings and representations between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, discussions, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, regarding such subject matter. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified unless the amendment or modification is agreed to in writing and signed by both Parties. No waiver by any Party of any breach by any other Party of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by any other party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provision or condition, nor shall the failure of or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement operate as a waiver to preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power, or privilege.

12. This Agreement is subject to approval by the respective Boards before taking effect. The Parties to this Agreement hereby confirm that the signatories are respectively authorized to bind them hereto and execute this Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

PORZIO
Bromberg & Newman

MORRISTOWN, NJ • NEW YORK, NY • OCEAN CITY, NJ • PHILADELPHIA, PA
SAN JUAN, PR • TRENTON, NJ • WESTBOROUGH, MA • WILMINGTON, DE

VITO A. GAGLIARDI, JR.
MEMBER, NJ BAR
CERTIFIED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF
NEW JERSEY AS A CIVIL TRIAL ATTORNEY
DIRECT DIAL NO.: 973-889-4151
E-MAIL ADDRESS: VAGAGLIARDI@PBNLAW.COM

June 17, 2024

VIA ELECTRONIC MAIL

Honorable Thomas Betancourt, A.L.J.
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Re: Bloomsbury Board of Education v. Phillipsburg Board of Education
OAL Docket No.: EDU-03895-23

Dear Judge Betancourt:

As Your Honor is aware, we are counsel to the Bloomsbury Board of Education in the above-referenced matter. As a follow up to our June 5 correspondence, we enclose for Your Honor's approval a fully signed settlement agreement to Your Honor for approval. We respectfully request that Your Honor issue an Order approving that the settlement agreement has transformed this case into an uncontested matter, and forwarding same to the Commissioner of Education in order for further proceedings to be undertaken by the parties pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1.

We appreciate Your Honor's kind attention and courtesies in this matter.

Respectfully,

Vito A. Gagliardi, Jr.

VAG/jac Encl.
cc: Brian Tipton, Esq.
Douglas Steinhardt, Esq.
Elizabeth Marcon, Esq.,

PORZIO, BROMBERG & NEWMAN, P.C.
100 Southgate Parkway
Morristown, NJ 07962-1997
(973) 538-4006
Attorneys for Petitioner Bloomsbury Board of Education

Bloomsbury Board of Education, Petitioner, v. Phillipsburg Board of Education, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION AGENCY NO. DOCKET NO. EDU 03895-23 CONSENT ORDER REGARDING PREHEARING DEADLINES

This matter, having come before the Court upon the joint request of all parties seeking an Order outlining the prehearing deadlines, and the Court having considered the submissions of the parties, and for good cause shown,

IT IS on this 3RD day of January 2024,

ORDERED, that the following prehearing discovery schedule will be in place in the above matter:

- December 29,2023: Deadline for parties to exchange expert reports;
- April 4, 2024: Deadline for parties to exchange witness lists;
- April 8, 2024: Deadline for parties to exchange exhibit lists and proposed exhibits:
- April 15, 2024: Deadline to file all prehearing motions, including but not limited to prehearing briefs and motions in limine;
- May 1, 2024: Deadline to file opposition to prehearing motions, including but not limited to prehearing briefs and motions in limine; and
- May 7, 2024: Deadline for submission of joint exhibit list.

Honorable Thomas Betancourt, A.L.J.

281-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Mark Hoyt,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Union,
Union County,
Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner has been employed in respondent Board's school district since 2007. From 2016 until 2019, he served as principal at Battle Hill Elementary School. In July 2019, petitioner was appointed as Interim Principal of Union High School, and the Board approved payment of an $8,000 stipend associated with the high school position. In September 2022, petitioner received notice that the Board intended to discuss the terms and conditions of his employment at a meeting scheduled for September 13, 2022. On that date, the Board conducted its meeting and elected to appoint a new high school principal, transfer petitioner to an elementary school, and eliminate the stipend payment associated with petitioner's former interim position at Union High School. Thereafter, on July 18, 2023, petitioner filed the within petition challenging the Board's removal of the $8,000 stipend he had previously received. The Board counter claimed for summary decision and sought to have the petition dismissed with prejudice.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(d), a petitioner must file an appeal no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the contested case; here, the removal of petitioner's stipend took place at a September 2022 meeting for which petitioner received a Rice notice; although the notice was lengthy, the papers did inform petitioner that the stipend would be discussed on September 2022; notes from that meeting became publicly available on November 22, 2022, and reflected the Board's decision to remove the stipend from petitioner's salary. Thereafter, the decrease was reflected in petitioner's income statements. Petitioner, however, failed to file his challenge to the Board's action until July 18, 2023. Accordingly, ALJ dismissed petitioner's motion for summary decision, and granted the Board's motion for summary decision with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision was granted and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

281-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08533-23
Agency Dkt. No. 190-7/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Mark Hoyt,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Union, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner failed to file the petition of appeal within the time period required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Additionally, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner failed to demonstrate that the case presents a substantial constitutional issue or matter of significant public import that would justify relaxation of the 90-day filing requirement.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, respondent's cross-motion for summary decision is granted, petitioner's motion for summary decision is denied, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed as untimely.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 26, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 31, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08533-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 190-7/23

MARK HOYT,

Petitioner,

v.

TOWNSHIP OF UNION
BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,

Respondent.

Andrew L. Schwartz, Esq., for petitioner (Schwartz Law Group, LLC, attorneys)

Christopher J. Buggy, Esq., for respondent (Taylor Law Group, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 8, 2024 Decided: June 28, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 18, 2023, petitioner Mark Hoyt, who is currently the Principal of the Hannah Caldwell Elementary School initiated this action which challenges the removal by respondent Township of Union Board of Education ("Board") of an annual $8,000.00 stipend he had been receiving while he was Principal of Union High School. The matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law on August 30, 2023. Upon completion of discovery, cross motions for summary decision were filed.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In this matter, Petitioner seeks a summary decision finding that an $8,000 stipend he received as part of his compensation from 2019-2022 was improperly removed thereafter in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. The Board seeks an order granting summary decision in its favor and dismissing the Petition with prejudice.

ISSUES PRESENTED

There are two issues presented in the cross motions for summary decision: (1) is the action time-barred by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3, and (2) was the reduction of Petitioner's salary in violation of the tenure statute N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Petitioner began employment with the District of Union Township Public Schools on or about January 1, 2007. From 2016 until 2019, Petitioner served as the principal for Battle Hill Elementary School. On July 16, 2019, the Board approved Petitioner's appointment as the interim Principal of Union High School. The Board also approved payment of an $8,000 stipend associated with the Union High School principal position.

On September 9, 2022, Petitioner was served with a Rice notice advising him that the Board intended to discuss the terms and conditions of his employment at a meeting on September 13, 2022. The notice was extensive but did contain information regarding the stipend.

On September 13, 2022, the Board conducted its meeting electing to appoint a new principal, transfer petitioner to an elementary school, and eliminate the stipend payment associated with petitioner's Union High School position. The minutes from September 13 meeting were approved at a second public meeting in November 2022. Thereafter, the reduction of the stipend was reflected in petitioner's paychecks. Petitioner did not initiate this action challenging the reduction in his compensation until July 18, 2023.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), a summary decision "may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." This rule is substantially similar to the summary judgment rule embodied in the New Jersey Court Rules, R. 4:46-2. See Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954). In connection therewith, all inferences of doubt are drawn against the movant and in favor of the party against whom the motion is directed. Id. at 75. In Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co., 142 N.J. 520 (1995), the New Jersey Supreme Court addressed the appropriate test to be employed in determining the motion:

> [A] determination whether there exists a 'genuine issue' of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact-finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The 'judge's function is not . . . to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial'.
>
> [Brill, supra, 142 N.J. at 540 (citations omitted).]

After a thorough review of the submissions of the parties, I FIND that there are no disputes as to any material fact and for the reasons set forth below, I grant respondent's motion for summary decision and dismiss the petition filed by Mr. Hoyt for failing to file said petition within the time period required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i).

As respondent highlights in its motion for summary decision, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), provides that petitioners must "file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing." In general, the 90-day rule is strictly construed unless the case presents a substantial constitutional issue or a matter of significant public import. Kenny v. Board of Education of the Borough of Moonachie, Bergen County, EDU 09284-14, initial decision, (Aug. 17, 2017), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/html/initial/edu09284-17_1.html.

The seminal case on what constitutes adequate notice for the purpose of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) is Kaprow v. Board of Education of Berkeley Township, 131 N.J. 572 (1993). There, the New Jersey Supreme Court held that even though the petitioner's notice was "unofficial and informal," it was still sufficient to apprise the petitioner of the "state of facts that would enable him to file a timely claim," and therefore the 90-day limitation tolled. Id. at 588-89.

Here, the removal of petitioner's stipend took place at a September 2022 meeting for which petitioner received a Rice notice. Although admittedly a long notice, the papers did inform petitioner that the stipend would be discussed at the meeting. On November 22, 2022, the notes from said meeting became publicly available and reflected the Board's decision to remove the stipend from petitioner's salary. Thereafter, the decrease was reflected in petitioner's income statements. Petitioner, however, did not file his Petition challenging the reduction in salary until July 18, 2023.

Petitioner argues that the only mention of the stipend was "buried" within the Rice notice, and it was not clear from his pay checks that the stipend had been removed. As a result, Petitioner concludes, he never received adequate notice to begin tolling the 90-day limitation.

Under Kaprow, petitioner's argument fails. Even though petitioner never received a document dedicated solely to informing him the stipend had been removed, it is reasonable to conclude that he was aware, or should have been aware, of the state of facts giving rise to his cause of action well before July 18, 2023. Between the Rice notice, the public minutes, and the fact that his monthly salary was actually decreased, petitioner should have known the stipend had been removed by the end of 2022. His failure to bring this action for another seven months clearly puts this case outside of the 90-day limitation period.

Petitioner cites Stockton v. Board of Education, 210 N.J. Super. 150 (App. Div. 1986), in arguing that the petition is not untimely. However, Stockton is distinguishable from the facts at hand. There, the Court held that "receipt of a salary check for less of an increase than one anticipates cannot provide notice that a decision has been made to correct an error allegedly made three years before." Id. at 157. Here, the reduction in Petitioner's paycheck over many months is only part of the Board's argument for proper notice. There was also a Rice notice and the publication of public minutes, making Stockton inapposite.

In petitioner's main argument for summary decision, he relies on N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 ("Tenure Law") which states tenured teaching staff "shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming such a teaching staff member." Here, there is no allegation of inefficiency, incapacity or conduct unbecoming. Rather, the issue raised by petitioner is whether removal of a "stipend" qualifies as a "[reduc[tion] in compensation" which is prohibited under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. Petitioner's reliance on the Tenure Law, however, cannot salvage an untimely petition from dismissal. See Nissman V. Bd. of Educ., Twp. of Long Beach Island, 272 N.J. Super. 373, 381(App. Div. 1994) and Scheffler v. Bd. of Trs. Charter Sch. For Tec., 2023 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 534 (rejecting petitioner's argument that the Tenure Law superseded the 90-day time limit to file a petition); see also Salazar-Linden, 2009 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2713(rejecting argument that the 90-day time limit undermines tenure rights).[1]

For the reasons stated, I FIND that petitioner failed to file his petition challenging his claimed reduction in salary within the required 90-day deadline set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) . I Further FIND that petitioner has failed to provide any credible evidence that the case presents a substantial constitutional issue or is a matter of significant public import that would justify relaxation of strict 90-day filing requirement or that the Tenure Law negates its application. I, therefor, CONCLUDE that petitioner's motion for summary decision must be denied and respondent's motion for summary decision must be granted.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that:

1. Petitioners motion for summary decision is DENIED; and
2. Respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED.

This decision resolves all outstanding issues before this tribunal.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

---

[1] While R. 1:36-3 precludes a court's consideration of unpublished decisions, the OAL is not a court. See 37 New Jersey Practice, Administrative Law and Practice s.250, at Supp. p. 89, (Steven L. LeFelt) (1995) (noting that the U.A.P.R. contains no restrictions on the use of unreported Appellate Division cases and that "any authority by a court, even if contained within an unreported case, should be carefully considered by ALJs."). Further, this tribunal is unaware of any contrary authority to the case cited.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

June 28, 2024

DATE

WILLIAM J. COURTNEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

db

List of Moving Papers

Petitioner's Submissions Considered

1. Petitioner's November 14, 2023 Brief in Support of Motion for Summary Decision with Exhibits 1-18.

2. Petitioner's January 5, 2024 Brief in Further Support of Petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision and In Opposition to Respondent's Cross-Motion with Exhibits 19, 20 & 21.

Respondent's Submissions Considered

December 18, 2023 Certification of Christopher J. Buggy with attached Exhibits 1-13.

282-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01882-24
Agency Dkt. No. 330-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Alyssa Hollick, Board of Education of the Township of North Hanover, Burlington County.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 26, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 29, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01882-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 330-12/23

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF ALYSSA HOLLICK, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTH HANOVER, BURLINGTON COUNTY.

Arsen Zartarian, Esq., for appellant, (Cleary Giacobbe Alfieri & Jacobs, LLC, attorneys)

Alyssa Hollick, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: June 20, 2024 Decided: June 20, 2024

BEFORE GAURI SHIRALI SHAH, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties, however, have settled this case without the need for a hearing. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is made voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I ORDER that the parties comply with the terms of their settlement agreement.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

June 20, 2024
DATE

GAURI SHIRALI SHAH, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: June 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: June 20, 2024

GSS/kl

APPENDIX

EXHIBIT

Jointly submitted:

J-1 Settlement Agreement

Arsen Zartarian, Esq. (ID No. 029951990)
CLEARY GIACOBBE ALFIERI & JACOBS, LLC
169 Ramapo Valley Road
Upper Level, Suite 105
Oakland, New Jersey 07436
Telephone: 973-845-6700
Facsimile: 201-644-7601
Attorneys for Petitioner, North Hanover Board of Education

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF ALYSSA HOLLICK, NORTH HANOVER BOARD OF EDUCATION, BURLINGTON COUNTY.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT Agency Ref No. 330-12/23 OAL Docket No. EDU-01882-2024S

WHEREAS, on or about November 28, 2023, this matter was initiated by Order to Show Cause filed by North Hanover Board of Education ("Board"), seeking the suspension of the teaching certificate of Alyssa Hollick (Ms. Hollick") for a period of one year pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-19, for cessation of her duties before the term of her employment contract;

WHEREAS, the parties exchanged discovery and a plenary hearing date was scheduled for May 30, 2024;

WHEREAS, the parties have agreed to amicably resolve their differences and have determined that a settlement is in their best interest;

NOW THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. Ms. Hollick agrees to accept the a one-year suspension of her teaching license, retroactive to October 15, 2023.

2. Ms. Hollick hereby releases the Board, its past and present Board Members, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns, from all actions, suits, claims and demands in law or equity, resulting from anything which has happened up until now, including but not limited to, any matter, cause or claims relating in any way to her employment relationship or the cessation of her employment relationship with the Board, including, but not limited to, any claims arising under the New Jersey School Laws, New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1866, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 ("ADEA"), the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act ("OWBPA"), the federal Equal Pay Act, the New Jersey Wage Payment Law, the United States Constitution, the New Jersey State Constitution, the federal Americans With Disabilities Act, the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, New Jersey Family Leave Act, the Equal Pay Law, the Equal Rights Act, any other federal, state or local law or ordinances, and/or any common law claims under tort, contract (including any collective bargaining agreement he is subject to or part of) or any other theories now or hereafter recognized, and any rights she may have under her collective bargaining agreement regarding benefit payouts, as applicable.

3. Ms. Hollick agrees that she is entering into this Settlement Agreement voluntarily, without coercion, and of her own free will.

NORTH HANOVER BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: _____

Dated: 6/3/24

ALYSSA HOLLICK

By: _____

Dated: 05/29/24

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01882-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 330-12/23

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF ALYSSA HOLLICK, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTH HANOVER, BURLINGTON COUNTY.

Arsen Zartarian, Esq., for appellant, (Cleary Giacobbe Alfieri & Jacobs, LLC, attorneys)

Alyssa Hollick, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: June 20, 2024 Decided: June 20, 2024

BEFORE GAURI SHIRALI SHAH, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties, however, have settled this case without the need for a hearing. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is made voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I ORDER that the parties comply with the terms of their settlement agreement.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

June 20, 2024
DATE

GAURI SHIRALI SHAH, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: June 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: June 20, 2024

GSS/kl

APPENDIX

EXHIBIT

Jointly submitted:

J-1 Settlement Agreement

Arsen Zartarian, Esq. (ID No. 029951990)
CLEARY GIACOBBE ALFIERI & JACOBS, LLC
169 Ramapo Valley Road
Upper Level, Suite 105
Oakland, New Jersey 07436
Telephone: 973-845-6700
Facsimile: 201-644-7601
Attorneys for Petitioner, North Hanover Board of Education

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF ALYSSA HOLLICK, NORTH HANOVER BOARD OF EDUCATION, BURLINGTON COUNTY.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT Agency Ref No. 330-12/23 OAL Docket No. EDU-01882-2024S

WHEREAS, on or about November 28, 2023, this matter was initiated by Order to Show Cause filed by North Hanover Board of Education ("Board"), seeking the suspension of the teaching certificate of Alyssa Hollick (Ms. Hollick") for a period of one year pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-19, for cessation of her duties before the term of her employment contract;

WHEREAS, the parties exchanged discovery and a plenary hearing date was scheduled for May 30, 2024;

WHEREAS, the parties have agreed to amicably resolve their differences and have determined that a settlement is in their best interest;

NOW THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. Ms. Hollick agrees to accept the a one-year suspension of her teaching license, retroactive to October 15, 2023.

2. Ms. Hollick hereby releases the Board, its past and present Board Members, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns, from all actions, suits, claims and demands in law or equity, resulting from anything which has happened up until now, including but not limited to, any matter, cause or claims relating in any way to her employment relationship or the cessation of her employment relationship with the Board, including, but not limited to, any claims arising under the New Jersey School Laws, New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1866, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 ("ADEA"), the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act ("OWBPA"), the federal Equal Pay Act, the New Jersey Wage Payment Law, the United States Constitution, the New Jersey State Constitution, the federal Americans With Disabilities Act, the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, New Jersey Family Leave Act, the Equal Pay Law, the Equal Rights Act, any other federal, state or local law or ordinances, and/or any common law claims under tort, contract (including any collective bargaining agreement he is subject to or part of) or any other theories now or hereafter recognized, and any rights she may have under her collective bargaining agreement regarding benefit payouts, as applicable.

3. Ms. Hollick agrees that she is entering into this Settlement Agreement voluntarily, without coercion, and of her own free will.

NORTH HANOVER BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: _____

Dated: 6/3/24

ALYSSA HOLLICK

By: _____

Dated: 05/29/24

283-24SEC

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lisa J. Guzik,

Complainant,

v.

Ryan Campbell, Mantua Township Board of Education, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Complainant alleged that respondent Ryan Campbell, a member of the Mantua Township Board of Education (Board), violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., when he called her employer, identified himself as a Board member, and complained about her actions during Board meetings. As the respondent failed to submit a Written Statement and/or Statement of Reasons, the allegations in the Complaint were undisputed. Accordingly, following a full review of the matter, the School Ethics Commission (SEC) determined that the respondent's actions violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members and recommended a penalty of censure.

The case was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination of the appropriate penalty in this matter. Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the penalty recommendation of the SEC. Accordingly, the respondent shall be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

283-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. C45-23
Agency Dkt. No. 198-6/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lisa J. Guzik,

Complainant,

v.

Ryan Campbell, Mantua Township Board of Education, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the June 17, 2024 decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC). The SEC found that respondent Ryan Campbell, a member of the Mantua Township Board of Education (Board), violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the School Ethics Act. The SEC recommended a penalty of censure for the violation. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). Respondent neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the SEC's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's actions in contacting complainant's supervisor, representing himself as a member of the Board, and complaining about actions complainant took as a private citizen at a Board meeting.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 26, 2024
Date of Mailing: July 31, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: C45-23
Final Decision
Summary Disposition

Lisa J. Guzik,
Complainant

v.

Ryan Campbell,
Mantua Township Board of Education, Gloucester County,
Respondent

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed with the School Ethics Commission (Commission) on April 19, 2023, by Lisa J. Guzik (Complainant), alleging that Ryan Campbell (Respondent), a member of the Mantua Township Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. More specifically, the Complaint avers that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code).

When Respondent failed to file a Written Statement, the Commission, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-7.3(b), issued a notice, dated May 16, 2023, and again on June 21, 2023, informing Respondent that he had 10 additional days to file a Written Statement or each allegation in the Complaint would be deemed admitted, and the Commission may decide the matter on a summary basis. Despite these notices, Respondent did not file a Written Statement.

At its meeting on January 23, 2024, the Commission considered the filings, and at its meeting on February 27, 2024, the Commission adopted a decision finding that there are sufficient facts and circumstances pled in the Complaint[1] to lead a reasonable person to believe that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) was violated as set forth in the Complaint. Additionally, the Commission voted to decide the above-captioned matter by summary decision, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.8(c), and directed Respondent to file a statement setting forth the reasons (Statement of Reasons) he should not be found in violation of the Act. Respondent was advised that if he disputes any of the facts determined by the Commission to be both material and undisputed, he should set forth the facts with which he disagrees, and why they are material to the case. Finally, Respondent was advised that the Commission may then make a determination of a violation on a summary basis.

---

[1] As Respondent did not file a Written Statement, the Commission's review of this matter was limited solely to the Complaint.

The Commission sent a notice on April 2, 2024, when Respondent failed to file a Statement of Reasons, and then again on April 23, 2024, informing Respondent that if he failed to file a Statement of Reasons within 10 days, the matter would be decided on a summary basis without his Statement of Reasons. Despite these notices, Respondent did not file a Statement of Reasons.

Consequently, at its meeting on May 21, 2024, the Commission reviewed the record in this matter and, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, adopted a decision finding that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and recommending a penalty of censure for Respondent's violation of the Act.

II. Summary of the Pleadings

The Complaint

Complainant asserts that on April 4, 2023, Respondent contacted the principal of the school where Complainant works and that during the conversation with the principal, Respondent identified himself as a Board member. Complainant contends that Respondent informed the principal that Complainant "personally attack[s] him" at Board meetings and he believes the "attacks began because of his opposition to gender neutral bathrooms." Complainant attached an email to the Complaint that appears to be from her supervisor, stating:

> I received a message from a Ryan Campbell to give him a call. I did call him back . . . and [he] wanted to inform me that:
>
> - He is a school board member in Mantua.
> - Ms. Guzik personally attacks him at the [B]oard meetings with unfounded claims.
> - He is preparing to sue Ms. Guzik over her unfounded claims.
> - He believes the attacks began because of his opposition to gender neutral bathrooms.
>
> I did express my concern over the purpose of the call and this matter is not a School or District related matter. It was an unusual phone call from someone claiming to be Ryan Campbell.

Complainant asserts that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) because "[h]is actions were an attempt to silence [Complainant's] speaking out at the . . . Board meetings" and Respondent "identified himself as a school board member in a private matter for his own perceived personal gain," which questions the "integrity and authority" of the Board.

III. Findings of Fact

Based on its thorough and independent review of the record, the Commission finds the following facts to be undisputed:

1. Respondent was a Board member in the Mantua Township School District (District). Complaint at page 1.

2. Complainant works at a school and reports to a principal. Complaint at page 1.

3. On April 4, 2023, Respondent called the principal of the school where Respondent works and asserted that Respondent "personally attack[s] him" at Board meetings and that he believed that the "attacks began because of his opposition to gender neutral bathrooms." Complaint at page 1.

4. Complainant received an email from the principal of the school where she works, stating:

> I received a message from a Ryan Campbell to give him a call. I did call him back . . . and [he] wanted to inform me that:
>
> - He is a school board member in Mantua.
> - Ms. Guzik personally attacks him at the [B]oard meetings with unfounded claims.
> - He is preparing to sue Ms. Guzik over her unfounded claims.
> - He believes the attacks began because of his opposition to gender neutral bathrooms.
>
> I did express my concern over the purpose of the call and this matter is not a School or District related matter. It was an unusual phone call from someone claiming to be Ryan Campbell.

Complaint at page 1; Exhibit to Complaint.

IV. Analysis and Conclusions of Law

Complainant argues that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he called her employer, identified himself as a Board member, and complained about her actions during Board meetings. This provision of the Code states:

> e. I will recognize that authority rests with the board of education and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that may compromise the board.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.8(a)(3), factual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) shall include evidence that Respondent made personal promises or took action beyond the scope of his duties such that, by its nature, had the potential to compromise the board.

Respondent failed to submit a Written Statement and/or Statement of Reasons, and as such, the allegations in the Complaint are undisputed.

With the above in mind, the Commission finds that Respondent acted beyond the scope of his duties as a Board member when he called Complainant's supervisor, represented himself as a member of the Board, and complained about actions that she took as a private citizen at a Board meeting. Respondent's behavior certainly has the potential to compromise the Board, as it undermines the integrity of the Board for its members to attempt to silence members of the public and/or encourage them not to attend future Board meetings by calling their employers in an apparent attempt to get them into trouble in the workplace. Accordingly, and based on the undisputed evidence as set forth herein, the Commission finds Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he called Complainant's employer regarding "attacks" she made at a Board meeting.

V. Recommended Penalty

Having found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), the Commission is authorized to recommend to the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) an appropriate penalty, which may range from reprimand to removal. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c).

In its review, the Commission finds that censure is the most appropriate penalty. In reaching this determination, the Commission finds that, based on the record, Respondent deliberately used his position as a Board member to intimidate Complainant because she had a different opinion on the issue of gender neutral bathrooms and spoke publicly at Board meetings. Whether Respondent believed that he was being attacked, he acted inappropriately by contacting a constituent's supervisor regarding action taken in a personal capacity at a Board meeting and which has no bearing on her employment.

VI. Decision

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner impose a penalty of censure for the violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of a violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated in the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: June 17, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision in Connection with C45-23

Whereas, at its meeting on May 21, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) considered the entirety of the record in this matter; and

Whereas, at its meeting on May 21, 2024, the Commission discussed finding a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e); and

Whereas, at its meeting on May 21, 2024, the Commission discussed recommending a penalty of censure for the violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e); and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the Commission reviewed and voted to approve the within decision as accurately memorializing its actions/findings from its meeting on May 21, 2024; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of its decision herein.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I hereby certify that the Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

284-24
OAL Dkt. No. 01780-23
Agency Dkt. No. 46-2/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.M., on behalf of minor children, J.M. and M.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth,
Union County,

Respondent.

By settlement agreement dated May 15, 2024, petitioner T.M. agreed to pay the Elizabeth Board of Education (Board) $2,400 for tuition owed for the ineligible attendance of J.M. and M.M. in the Elizabeth school district during the 2022-2023 school year.

Following respondents' failure to comply with the terms of the settlement, the Board requested that the Commissioner seek entry of the assessment on the judgment docket of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10. T.M. offered no reasons why the judgment against her should not be so docketed, although given an opportunity by this agency to do so. Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10, Tashay McCall is now subject to entry of a judgment by the court in the amount of $2,400, which represents the payment agreed to by the petitioner, with interest to accrue as provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 29, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 1, 2024

285-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04369-23
Agency Dkt. No. 91-4/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

C.S., on behalf of minor children, M.S. and Z.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Mount Ephraim, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement and Mutual Release Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 4 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement. Further, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 12 of the Agreement includes a confidentiality clause. The parties are reminded that the Board must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. in regard to information concerning this matter, notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 29, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 1, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04369-2023
AGENCY DKT. NO. 91-4/23

C.S., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, M.S. AND Z.S.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOROUGH OF MOUNT EPHRIAM BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAMDEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

Joseph Basso, Esq. for petitioners (Law Office of Joseph Basso, attorneys)

Michael A. Pattanite, Jr., Esq. for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Cooley, Lang & Casey, Counselors at Law, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 24, 2024 Decided: June 26, 2024

BEFORE CARL V. BUCK, III. ALJ:

On May 16, 2024, the Commissioner of the Department of Education transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

A copy of their settlement agreement is attached to this decision. Having reviewed the terms of the settlement agreement, I FIND that the parties have entered into their settlement voluntarily, as evidenced by their signatures, the signatures of their representatives, or both on the agreement.

Moreover, I CONCLUDE that the settlement agreement is consistent with the law, is fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties, and is otherwise consistent with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Therefore, given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that the parties comply with the terms of their settlement, and that these proceedings are now closed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this case. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

June 26, 2024
DATE

CARL V. BUCK III, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 7/2/2024

Date Mailed to Parties: 7/2/2024

/tat

SETTLEMENT & MUTUAL RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Settlement and Mutual Release Agreement ("Agreement" "is made on this day of May _____, 2024 by and among the BOROUGH OF MOUNT EPHIRAIM BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAMDEN CO. (hereinafter "Board") and C.S. (hereinafter "Respondent") on behalf of the minors M.S and Z.S., in reference to OAL Docket No.: EDU 04369-2023S and Agency Ref. No. 91-4/23.

NOW THEREFORE the undersigned parties hereby agree as follows:

1. This agreement and release of claims relates to the Board's determination that the Respondent, minors, M.S and Z.S., were ineligible to attend Borough of Mount Ephraim School District free of charge.

2. As fully set forth in the Petition filed before the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law, docketed as EDU 04369-2023S and Agency Ref. No. 91-4/23 tuition is owed from March 20, 2023, through June 15, 2023, the time that M.S. and Z.S attended the Borough of Mount Ephraim Board of Education while ineligible.

3. The Board has agreed to accept the amount of $2,000.00 to resolve the claim for both students.

4. The Respondent has agreed to pay the sum of $2,000.00, over four (4) months through equal $500.00 payments beginning on July 1, 2024, and ending on October 1, 2024.

5. The Respondent agrees that the payment will be received by the Board by the 1st of each month.

6. The payment will be made to: Borough of Mount Ephraim Board of Education, c/o Christopher Eberly, Business Administrator, 125 S Black Horse Pike, Mount Ephraim, NJ 08059.

7. The Respondent acknowledges that the full amount sought in the Petition before the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law is $10647.60. The cost of $16812.00 per pupil divided by 180 school days generates the per pupil per diem value of $93.40, $93.40 multiplied by 57 school days from March 20th to June 15th equals $5,323.80. The total for two students will be $10647.60. The Board is accepting a reduced amount by the Respondent's agreement to strict adherence to the terms of payment as set forth above.

8. If Respondent defaults, and does not perform any of the conditions set forth above, Respondent consents to the entry of judgment for the entire amount of $10647.60 less any payments made, and to include all attorney's fees expended in connection with the collection efforts necessitated by the default plus statutory prejudgment and post judgment interest.

9. The Board waives any and all rights to seek back tuition or any other payments from Respondent arising from his minor children, M.S and Z.S.'s attendance in the District. More specifically, but not by limitation, the parties mutually agree to RELEASE, WAIVE AND FOREVER DISCHARGE each other from any and all claims and causes of action, in law or in equity, whether known or unknown, whether asserted or unasserted, contingent or otherwise, arising from or relating directly or indirectly to M.S and Z.S.'s attendance within the District from the period of time specifically stated within the enrollment in District, including but not limited to: (a) compensatory education; (b) reimbursement of any medical, behavioral, or education evaluations; (c) transportation; (d) any claim of improper placement, supervision, monitoring and/or implementation of educational programming; and/or (e) attorney fees and expert witness fees. By way of further illustration, this mutual Release and Waiver also includes, but is not limited to, any claim concerning and/or alleging a denial of FAPE, discrimination, state or federal constitutional rights violations, state or federal civil rights violations, monetary damages, pain and suffering& personal injury, property damage reimbursement, prevailing party status, attorney's fees and costs, and expert fees, claims or causes of action arising under state or federal statutes, regulations, or common law, including but not limited to the New Jersey statutes and regulations pertaining to special education (inclusive of N.J.A.C. 6A:46-1 et seq. and NJ.A.C. 6A:14 et seq.), the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, 10:5-1 et seq., the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1400 et seq., Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. §701 et seq., the American with Disabilities Act. 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., the New Jersey Constitution, the United States Constitution, and the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. §1983, §1985, and §1988.

10. This Agreement constitutes the full and complete agreement of the parties and may not be changed or modified absent mutual agreement of the parties. This Agreement is binding upon the parties and their respective heirs, assigns or successors in interest.

11. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with New Jersey law.

12. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be kept strictly confidential and will not be disclosed to any individual that is not acting directly on behalf of any party. In the event the Agreement is required to be disclosed in any litigation, including an action to enforce the Agreement, the party or parties involved shall make every effort to have it disclosed to the court in camera and subject to an appropriate protective order maintaining the confidentiality of the Agreement to the fullest extent possible.

13. The parties hereby verify, affirm and represent that they understand the contents of this Agreement and are entering into it voluntarily and with a full understanding of its meaning.

Chelsea Sparaco

C.S., o/b/o M.S. and Z.S.

6/10/24

Holly Marone
Board President for the Mount Ephraim Board of Education

MT. EPHRAIM PUBLIC SCHOOLS

125 S. Black Horse Pike Mt. Ephraim, NJ 08059 Phone: 856-931-7807
www.mtephraimschools.com

Mt. Ephraim Board of Education Meeting Held June 10, 2024

On a motion by Patricia Blaylock Seconded by Michael Casey to please approve item (i) the residency settlement agreement.

Ayes: Michelle Cannaday, Michael Casey, Brian Cavallaro, Lindsay Idler, Kristen Marrone, Johnathan Maxson, Patricia Blaylock, Holly Marrone
Nays: None
Abstentions: None
Recused: None

I, Christopher Eberly, Business Administrator/Board Secretary of the Board of Education of the Borough of Mt. Ephraim in the County of Camden, New Jersey. HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Board of Education duly called and held on June 10, 2024 has been compared by me with the original minutes as officially recorded in my office in the Minute Book of the Board of Education and is a true, complete and correct copy thereof and of the whole of the original minutes so far as they relate to the subject matters referred to in the extract.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of the Board of Education this 24th day of June 2024.

Christopher Eberly, Business Administrator/Board Secretary

[SEAL]

286-24
Agency Dkt. No. 121-4/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Padraic Finnegan, Board of Education of the Borough of Essex Fells, Essex County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on April 30, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Essex Fells Board of Education) upon respondent (Padraic Finnegan), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending his teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

On July 3, 2024, respondent emailed the Office of Controversies and Disputes and stated that he agreed to the suspension of his teaching certificate for not more than one year.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent entered into a contract to work as a teacher for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; and on March 28, 2024, respondent delivered correspondence to the district's Superintendent indicating that he was resigning, effective April 19, 2024, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential he may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 29, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 1, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

287-24
Agency Dkt. No. 155-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Devin Grenard, Board of Education of Hanover Park Regional High School District, Morris County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on May 21, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Hanover Park Regional Board of Education) upon respondent (Devin Grenard), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending his teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

By notice dated June 3, 2024, sent to respondent via regular mail, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days. No answer having yet been received, on July 3, 2024, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice via regular and certified mail, directing him to file an answer within ten days if he wished to contest the suspension of his certificates. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent entered into a contract to work as a teacher for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; and on March 4, 2024, respondent emailed a resignation notice to the district, effective March 8, 2024, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential he may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: July 29, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 1, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

296-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08069-23
Agency Dkt. No. 191-7/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.C.R., on behalf of minor child, I.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Toms River Regional School District, Ocean County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(iv), respondent cannot be compelled to provide transportation, or the cost thereof, for I.R. between petitioner's out-of-district residence in Barnegat Township and the Toms River Regional School District. See M.L.P. v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Bloomfield, Essex Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 498-08A at 10 (Dec. 29, 2008) ("[T]o the extent a child lives in one district but attends school in another pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a), the child's entitlement to transportation is expressly limited to transportation to the residence of the parent or guardian who is domiciled in [the] district[.]").

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 7, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08069-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 191-7/23

T.C.R., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, I.R.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOMS RIVER REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT,
OCEAN COUNTY,
Respondent.

T.C.R., petitioner, pro se

William Burns, Esq., for respondent (Hartman Duff, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 3, 2024 Decided: July 9, 2024

BEFORE DEIRDRE HARTMAN-ZOHLMAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, T.C.R., seeks payment of transportation costs on behalf of her minor child, I.R. The issue presented is whether the respondent, the Board of Education of the Toms River Regional School District (Board), bears any obligation to provide transportation, or the cost thereof, to I.R. from her mother's home in Barnegat Township. I find that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1, the respondent does not have any obligation to transport I.R. from outside of the school district.[1]

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 6, 2023, petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal ("appeal") seeking to require the Board to transport I.R. from Toms River schools to Barnegat Township and to pay for such transportation retroactive to 2016.

On August 23, 2023, the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13 and N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15. In lieu of filing an answer to the petition, the Board filed a motion to dismiss. Status conferences were held in this matter on December 19, 2023, February 27, 2024, and March 20, 2024. On April 16, 2024, petitioner filed a response in opposition to respondent's motion. On June 3, 2024, respondent submitted a reply to petitioner's opposition. The record was closed on June 3, 2024.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

I FIND the following FACTS to be uncontested:

1. T.C.R. and her former husband, R.R., are the parents of I.R. (R-B.)

2. T.C.R. and R.R. are parties to a Final Judgment of Divorce and Property Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") dated May 16, 2016. (R-B.)

3. The Agreement states in pertinent part:

[1] As of February 2024, I.R. resides in District with R.R. during school, and thus the issue of transportation to and from Barnegat is moot as of such date.

> It is anticipated Wife will be relocating from the marital residence. She shall be permitted to relocate with the children within a 30 minute driving distance from the marital home. . .. Pending the agreement of the parties as to which school district shall be utilized, the children shall continue to be enrolled in the Toms River School District. . .. Neither party may modify the school enrollment of the children without the other parent's consent or a court order.
>
> [R-B, Final Judgment of Divorce at 10.]

4. On July 6, 2023, T.C.R. filed this appeal. (R-A.)

5. T.C.R. has resided in Barnegat since 2016. (R-A.)

6. R.R. has resided in Toms River Township since at least 2016. (R-B.)

7. I.R. has attended school in the Toms River School District since at least 2016. (R-A.)

8. T.C.R. and R.R. have joint legal custody of I.R. and share parenting time. (R-B.)

9. Toms River School District has at all relevant times provided transportation for I.R. to and from school and R.R.'s residence in Toms River.

10. Toms River School District has never provided transportation for I.R. outside of the District, nor has it provided any funding for transportation costs outside of the District for I.R. (R-A.)

11. A consent order in the Superior Court matrimonial case between I.R.'s parents, dated December 20, 2016, states that the District shall provide busing for I.R. from the District to Barnegat. The only parties to this action were I.R.'s parents. The District was not a party to the matter. (A-A.)

LEGAL DISCUSSION

"Specific pleading requirements are governed by the agency with subject matter jurisdiction over the case." N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.1(a). The rules require that a "petition shall include . . . a statement of the specific allegation(s) and essential facts supporting the specific allegation(s) that have given rise to a dispute pursuant to the school laws." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.4(a). When deficient and inadequate petitions are presented to the Commissioner, at any time prior to transmittal of the pleadings to the OAL—in the Commissioner's discretion or upon motion to dismiss filed in lieu of answer—the Commissioner may dismiss the petition on the grounds that the petitioner has not advanced any cause of action, even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true. See N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. Thus, the principles that govern a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim under R. 4:6-2(e) apply equally to a motion to dismiss for failure to advance a cause of action under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10.

In deciding a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted under R. 4:6-2(e), "the inquiry is confined to a consideration of the legal sufficiency of the alleged facts apparent on the face of the challenged claim." Rieder v. State, Dep't of Transp., 221 N.J. Super. 547, 552 (App. Div. 1987) (citation omitted). The court may not consider anything beyond whether the complaint states a cognizable cause of action. Ibid. For purposes of determining the motion, the court must "assume the facts as asserted by [petitioners] are true and give [them] the benefit of all inferences that may be drawn in [their] favor." Velantzas v. Colgate-Palmolive Co., 109 N.J. 189, 192 (1988). If the factual allegations are "palpably insufficient to support a claim upon which relief can be granted," the court must dismiss the complaint. Rieder, 221 N.J. Super. at 552.

The New Jersey Administrative Code delineates how enrollment in school districts is determined. Specifically, N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1 provides:

> (a) A student is eligible to attend a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district.
>
> > 1. A student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district.
> >
> > > i. When a student's parents or guardians are domiciled within different school districts and there is no court order or written agreement between the parents designating the school district of attendance, the student's domicile is the school district of the parent or guardian with whom the student lives for the majority of the school year. This subparagraph shall apply regardless of which parent has legal custody.

[N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a) (emphasis added).]

In the instant matter, I.R. is the child of a parent domiciled in Toms River. R.R., the father of I.R., who shares joint custody, resides in the District. Additionally, I.R.'s parents are domiciled in different districts and there is a written agreement between the parents designating Toms River School District as I.R.'s school district. To change the Agreement, petitioner's avenue of relief is through consent of R.R. or to seek to amendment of the Agreement by application to the Superior Court.

Petitioner seeks relief by way of out-of-district transportation from Toms River schools to and from Barnegat Township. The New Jersey Administrative Code prohibits the relief requested. Specifically, N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(iv) states:

> No school district shall be required to provide transportation for a student who resides outside the school district for all or part of the school year unless transportation is based upon the home of the parent or guardian domiciled within the school district or otherwise required by law.

The regulation explicitly states that a district is not required to provide transportation for a student residing outside the district, unless based upon the home of the parent within the district or as required by law. The District provides transportation to I.R. within the Toms River School District to and from I.R.'s father's home. There is no law requiring the District to provide transportation or transportation costs to I.R. from her mother's home in Barnegat. I.R.'s mother provided a consent order arising from the parents' divorce proceeding stating that the District shall provide busing for I.R. from the District to Barnegat. However, the District was not a party to that action. Without notice to be heard or consent by the District, the parents of I.R. cannot compel the District to provide out-of-district transportation and the District cannot be bound by same. There is no basis to require the District to provide transportation for I.R. between the District and Barnegat, or to pay the cost thereof. Thus, based on the foregoing analysis, petitioner's complaint should be dismissed for failure to state a cause of action.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that no genuine issue of material fact exists as to whether respondent has an obligation to provide out-of-district transportation to I.R. The regulation clearly supports the conclusion that petitioner is not entitled to out-of-district transportation.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's motion to dismiss be and is hereby GRANTED and;

It is FURTHER ORDERED that T.C.R.'s petition be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 9, 2024
DATE

DEIRDRE HARTMAN-ZOHLMAN, ALJ

Date Mailed to Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

DHZ/jm

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

Exhibits attached to petitioner's response to respondent's Motion to Dismiss:

- A-A Superior Court Order in related matrimonial matter, dated 12/20/2016
- A-B Email texts, dated January 2017
- A-C Print-out of Venmo payments, dated 2023

For respondent

Exhibits attached to respondent's Motion to Dismiss:

- R-A Petitioner's Appeal
- R-B Final Judgment of Divorce and Property Settlement Agreement
- R-C August 4, 2023, letter from R.R.'s attorney in related matrimonial matter

297-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11042-23
Agency Dkt. No. 251-9/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.C.L., on behalf of minor children, C.C. and V.C.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Bordentown Regional School District, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner has demonstrated, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that she, C.C., and V.C. are domiciled at an in-district address in Bordentown. Accordingly, the children are eligible to receive a free public education in the Bordentown Regional School District pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a), and respondent is not entitled to reimbursement for the cost of the children's tuition.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted, and the petition of appeal is hereby granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 7, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT NO. EDU 11042-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 251-9/23

T.C.L. ON BEHALF OF C.C. AND V.C.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
BORDENTOWN REGIONAL SCHOOL
DISTRICT, BURLINGTON COUNTY,
Respondent.

Samuel M. Watson, Esq, for petitioner (South Jersey Legal Services, Inc., attorneys)

Cameron R. Morgan, Esq., for respondent (Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri, Jacobs, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: May 20, 2024 Decided: July 5, 2024

BEFORE MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner T.C.L. on behalf of her minor children, C.C. and V.C., appeals the decision of respondent, Bordentown Regional School District, Board of Education

(Board), that C.C. and V.C. were not eligible to attend school within the Bordentown Regional School District (District), for the school year pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, and its accompanying regulations, N.J.A.C. 6A:1-1.1 et. seq., for the school year. The Board contends that C.C. and V.C. are not eligible to attend school in the District because they live in a home not domiciled in the Bordentown Regional School District. The District requests that tuition be assessed for each of the two children for the period of ineligible attendance at the approved per-pupil tuition rate.[1]

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Board retained McNelis Investigative Services, Inc. to conduct a residency investigation. The Board introduced a Surveillance Report (report), prepared by Vanessa Bekarciak, who was not present to testify regarding the investigation. (R-1.) The report indicates that surveillance of petitioners took place on June 1, 2, and 7, 2023. Thereafter, the District issued a Final Notice of Ineligibility Due to Non-Residency in the District, dated August 29, 2023, to T.C.L., stating that C.C. and V.C. are not eligible to attend school in the District because:

> The district was provided with information showing that you and your two sons, C.C. and V.C. are no longer residing at your former address within the District, located at Bradford. Surveillance was subsequently conducted resulting in an Investigation Report which documented through eyewitness accounts, as well as video and photographic evidence, your husband transporting V.C. and C.C. back and forth between your current home at Coachman, within the Florence Township School District, and their bus stop in proximity to your previous address in the District, at Bradford.
>
> [P-5.]

On September 15, 2023, T.C.L. filed a pro se petition with the Office of Controversies and Disputes of the New Jersey Department of Education. The matter was transmitted on October 18, 2023, to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and filed as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Prehearing conferences were held, and after the parties completed discovery and confirmed witnesses, the hearing took place on April 9, 2024. The record closed on May 20, 2024.

[1] After petitioner purchased the Coachman home with S.L., who was her fiancé at that time, the District challenged petitioner's residency in 2022. The Board voted to withdraw the notice of ineligibility, and C.C. and V.C. remained enrolled at the District. (P-1, P-3, and P-4.)

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The issue in dispute is whether the petitioner and her two minor children reside in a three-bedroom apartment on Bradford Street located in the geographic area served by District during the school year or whether they live outside of the District geographic area and owe the amount of tuition to respondent for the school year.

The following is a summary of the testimonial and documentary evidence that I found relevant to the above issues.

Petitioner has leased a three-bedroom apartment on Bradford Street in Bordentown (Bradford) since January 1, 2010. Her adult daughter and two minor children are named on the lease as residents. Petitioner introduced a newly signed lease, dated January 1, 2024, to December 2024, and introduced portions of the prior year leases from January 1, 2010, including for the years 2022–2023. (P-20 and P-17.) Rental receipt payments for June 2023 through September 2023 were also provided. (P-8.)

Petitioner testified that in the spring of 2022, petitioner's then fiancé, S.L., decided to buy a home located on Coachman Drive in Bordentown (Coachman). Petitioner is a co-owner and signed the mortgage. Petitioner planned to move into the home with C.C. and V.C. full time and lived there during the summer of 2022. When petitioner began to update the family's transportation information with the District, she learned that the home is located in the Florence Township school district even though the home is located in Bordentown and has a Bordentown address and zip code. Petitioner decided that switching schools would negatively impact C.C.'s and V.C.'s education, so she decided that she would return full time to the Bradford apartment with the children, and S.L. would remain in the Coachman home. Petitioner submits that her living arrangement is consistent with District policy, which states:

> The requirements to attend schools in the Bordentown Regional School District require children to be domiciled in the school district with parents/guardians. This means they must live and sleep in a legal residence of the sending district for the majority of the week.
>
> [P-18]

T.C.L. stated that the family spends an occasional weekday night with S.L. at Coachman, and many weekend nights. However, a majority of their belongings remain in Bradford, where they sleep the majority of time.

T.C.L. testified that the surveillance documented in the report introduced by the District, which was taken over a three-day period during two school weeks on June 1, 2, and 7, 2023, does not show that the children live at the Coachman home or leave for school from that home. Petitioner points out the first day of surveillance begins with V.C. at the Coachman address on a school morning. Then the video shows V.C. returning to Bradford, exiting the apartment with another child and walking to the bus stop. On the second day of surveillance, V.C. is observed leaving Coachman, returning to Bradford, and sitting in a stairwell at the residence with another child. V.C. then walked to the bus stop with two other children. On June 7, 2023, S.L. and V.C. are observed exiting the Coachman property, where they were followed, to Bradford, where V.C. was dropped off. V.C. was then observed walking to the bus stop with another child. Surveillance was resumed in the afternoon at Coachman, but no activity was observed for the remainder of that day. The investigative report, which describes V.C. being picked up from the bus by T.C.L. one afternoon and returning to Coachman, and C.C. being picked up from the bus two afternoons and brought back to the Coachman address, does not document the minor children sleeping at the Coachman home on those nights. T.C.L. noted that when C.C. was picked up from the bus on June 2, he would have stayed overnight because that was a Friday night.

Petitioner urges that the surveillance demonstrates that C.C. and petitioner slept at the Bradford apartment each night, and the report does not view T.C.L. at the Coachman property at any time. Petitioner put forward that the part in the investigative report which shows a white car that the investigator concluded was associated with T.C.L. at the house on each of the three days does not indicate that she stayed at the Coachman home. Petitioner states that car is a family car registered in both her name and S.L.'s name for their two adult children, and on most workdays, she carpools to work. She introduced work emails from June 7, 2023, to demonstrate that on the same day the car was viewed at the Coachman home, she was at work. (P-19.)

Petitioner's New Jersey driver's license reflects the Bradford home.

S.L., petitioner's husband, testified it was likely he would be seen picking the children up from their bus stop after school to take the children to the Coachman property because he is responsible for after-school care. It is also not unusual for the children to stay with him for dinner and any sports activity because he participates with them in that activity and then transports them back to the Bradford home. S.L. acknowledged that V.C. stayed with him for a few nights in June 2022 to help him work through a difficult time he was having in school, but the children do not routinely sleep at the Coachman home during the school week.

J.J., a neighbor at the Bradford location, testified that she has been neighbors with petitioner, C.C., and V.C. at Bradford since her son started kindergarten, about eight years ago. J.J. recalled that petitioner told her that she and S.L. had bought a new home and planned to move. Sometime later, petitioner told her that she and the children would remain living in Bradford because she learned that the Coachman home was located outside of the District. J.J. continues to see the boys around the apartment complex as much as she did before petitioner bought the home, and her son and petitioner's children still play together for the same amount of time as they did before the other home was purchased. J.J. has recently been inside the petitioner's apartment, and it still looks the same as it did over the last years.

It is undisputed that petitioner signed a current lease for Bradford, and her children's names are on the lease as residents. Petitioner submitted a signed letter from the property manager stating that she, C.C., and V.C. live at Bradford; rent payments, payroll statements, and W-2 statements from T.C.L.'s job that all reflect the Bradford address; and an AT&T bill and C.C. and V.C.'s "Virtual Wallet Student Spend Statement," which also reflect the Bradford address. (P-7, P-11, P-12, P-13, P-14, P-15, and P-16.)[2]

Respondent did not present witnesses to testify on its behalf, including the investigator who prepared the surveillance report. This report was introduced and contains observations recorded on June 1, 2, and 7, 2023. (R-1.)[3]

A credibility determination requires an overall assessment of the witness' story in light of its rationality, internal consistency and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). A fact finder "is free to weigh the evidence and to reject the testimony of a witness even though not contradicted when it is contrary to circumstances given in evidence or contains inherent improbabilities or contradictions which alone or in connection with other circumstances in evidence excite suspicion as to its truth." In re Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 521-22 (1950); see D'Amato by McPherson v. D'Amato, 305 N.J. Super. 109, 115 (App. Div. 1997).

Having had an opportunity to observe the demeanor of the witnesses, I FIND them to be credible. Petitioner testified clearly and directly as to her unique circumstances, and her testimony is consistent with the surveillance. S.L.'s testimony was also clear and responsive to the observations in the surveillance showing him transporting the children, and his explanation that he is responsible for the children's after-school care is believable. Neighbor J.J. also testified in a believable manner about her observations of the children in and around the Bradford apartment complex and inside the apartment.

---

[2] Petitioner also introduced a notarized affidavit from a neighbor C.M.H. at Bradford, dated February 21, 2024. This document was not accepted into evidence, as it is outside the scope of this appeal.

[3] Respondent also introduced an unsigned, undated letter that was incomplete and determined to be hearsay. This document was not accepted into evidence. Respondent also entered a one-page letter signed by Investigator William R. Moore, describing the content of surveillance taken mid-year of the year following the school year at issue. Mr. Moore was also present to testify. The testimony and introduction of after acquired evidence containing surveillance taken mid-year of the next school year is outside the scope of the due process petition period of ineligibility and was not accepted.

The fact that the surveillance report submitted in the form of written documents is hearsay provides no basis for its exclusion in this forum. Hearsay evidence is admissible, N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(a). Ultimately, if evidence or testimony is found to be hearsay, it will be accorded whatever weight the judge deems appropriate taking into account the nature, character, and scope of the evidence, and generally, its reliability. In the final analysis of the administrative case, the residuum rule must be satisfied. This rule states there must be some legally competent evidence to support each ultimate finding of fact relative to the issues before the court. N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5; see also Weston v. State, 60 N.J. 36, 51 (1972). Here, the evidence was used reasonably to provide the respondent with an opportunity to cross-examine the petitioner. However, it is not disputed that the District's only proffered evidence is hearsay; its author did not appear to present testimony as to the investigation or the content of the report, thereby limiting its reliability.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The issue is whether petitioner and her minor children are domiciled in the District at the Bradford home for the school year for purposes of receiving a thorough and efficient public education free of charge pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. If not, whether the respondent's request for tuition reimbursement for the school year should be granted.

Public schools are free to persons over five and under twenty years of age who are domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a), which sets forth the right of a student to a free public education, states in pertinent part:

> Public schools shall be free to the following persons over five and under twenty years of age:
>
> a. Any person who is domiciled within the school district[.]

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1), a student is eligible to attend a school within a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district, and a student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district.

> "Domicile" is defined as "the place where [a person] has his [or her] true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has an intention of returning." T.B.W. ex rel. A.W. v. Bd. of Ed. of the Township of Belleville, Essex County, 1998 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 122, Agency Dkt. No. 159-5/96, 1998 WL 668678 (N.J. Adm. June 18, 1998). As the court noted in Collins v. Yancey, 55 N.J. Super. 514, 520–21, 151 A.2d 68 (Law Div. 1959), a person may have several residences or places of abode, but only one domicile at a time. Id.
>
> [D.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Princeton Reg'l Sch. Dist., 366 N.J. Super. 269, 273–74 (App. Div. 2004).] [In re Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374 (Law Div. 1991), aff'd, 311 N.J. Super. 589 (App. Div. 1998), cert. denied, 157 N.J. 541 (1998), cert. denied, 526 U.S. 1051 (1999).]

A child's domicile is normally that of his or her parents. Somerville Bd. v. Manville Bd., 332 N.J. Super. 6, 12 (App. Div. 2000), aff'd, 167 N.J. 55 (2001). The acts, statements, and conduct of the individual, as viewed in light of all circumstances, determine a person's true intent. Collins v. Yancey, 55 N.J. Super. 514, 521 (Law Div. 1959). A choice of domicile by a person, irrespective of his motive, will be honored "provided there are sufficient objective indicia, by way of proofs, supporting the actual existence of that domicile." In re Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374 (Law Div. 1991).

If a school district finds that the parent or guardian of a child who is attending school in the district is not domiciled in the district, the superintendent or administrative principal may apply to the board of education for the removal of the child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). The parent or guardian is entitled to a hearing before the board, and if, in the judgment of the board, the parent or guardian is not domiciled within the district, the board may order the transfer or removal of the child from school. Ibid. The parent or guardian may contest the board's decision before the Commissioner within twenty-one days of the date of the decision and is entitled to a hearing. Ibid.

In challenging the findings of a board regarding a child's eligibility to attend school in the district, parents have the burden of establishing that their domicile is in the school district by a preponderance of the evidence. Y.E. ex rel. E.E. v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of the City of Newark, No. A-6009-06T3 (App. Div. 2008); N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). A student is a resident of a school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian[4] whose domicile is located within the school district. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1).

When a person arguably has more than one residence, there are factors to consider in determining his or her domicile: the physical characteristics of each place; the time spent and the things done in each place; the other persons found there; the person's mental attitude towards each place; and whether or not there was an intention, when absent, to return to that address. Mercadante v. City of Paterson, 111 N.J. Super. 35, 39–40 (Ch. Div. 1970), aff'd, 58 N.J. 112 (1971).

It is undisputed that petitioner has been renting an apartment located in the geographic area of the District for fourteen years. After she married, petitioner and her husband purchased a home in 2022 in the same town and then later learned that the home was not located in the geographic area of the District. It is also undisputed that the District's sole evidence was the surveillance that never viewed T.C.L. at the Coachman home. Instead, the surveillance that viewed T.C.L. was at the Bradford apartment with C.C. supports petitioner's testimony. In addition, petitioner presented documentary evidence that includes the usual documentary indicia of residence and occupancy, such as pay stubs, current and past leases, student accounts, credit card statements, phone bills, and petitioner's current driver's license, which create a nexus between the family's day-to-day living at the Bradford address.

Accordingly, the investigative report indicating that C.C. and V.C. were seen over the course of a few days at the Coachman home during the 180 required school days, is insufficient to determine that petitioner, and her children, C.C., and V.C. are domiciled outside of the geographic area of the District.

The District stated in their closing statements that the evidence demonstrates that the children being "shuffled" back and forth from the Coachman home to the Bradford home near the bus stop, and testimony on behalf of petitioner stating that the children return to Bradford after an evening of sports with their stepfather at Coachman strains credibility. The information used for the basis of the District's disbelief is not sufficient to refute the witnesses' sworn testimony and evidence to remove the children from the District school. Moreover, this disbelief does not refute the plausible reasons that children would travel to the Coachman home for after-school care and, on occasion, stay with their stepfather on a school night.

[4] The record contains insufficient evidence to determine whether S.L. is considered a guardian to his stepchildren.

Based on N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1) and the analysis in In re Unanue, the Bradford address is where petitioner returned to on a daily basis, and where petitioner remained domicile with her C.C. and V.C. As unemancipated children, C.C. and V.C. are domiciled with their parent, T.C.L., the petitioner. Somerville Bd. of Educ. v. Manville Bd. of Educ., 332 N.J. Super. 6, 12 (App. Div. 2000).

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has demonstrated by a preponderance of the credible evidence that she and her children, C.C. and V.C., are domiciled at the Bradford home in Bordentown for the school year and are eligible to receive a free public school education in the Bordentown Regional School District, and respondent is not entitled to reimbursement for the cost of tuition.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that respondent's determination that petitioner's children, C.C. and V.C., were ineligible for a free public education in the Bordentown Regional School District for the school year is hereby REVERSED.

Petitioner's appeal is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 5, 2024
DATE

MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

MAB/nn/lam

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner

T.C.L.

S.L.

J.J.

For respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

P-1 Email to Controversies and Disputes with initial submission

P-2 Pro se residency appeal

P-3 Initial notice of ineligibility due to non-residency in the District, dated August 24, 2022

P-4 Withdrawal of Initial notice of ineligibility due to non-residency in the District, dated September 16, 2022

P-5 Initial notice of ineligibility due to non-residency in the District, dated August 7, 2023

P-6 Final notice of ineligibility due to non-residency in the District, dated August 29, 2023

P-7 Letter from property manager of Bradford Pointe Apartments, dated August 23, 2023

P-8 Rental payment receipts from June 2023 through September 2023

P-9 Email from school district, dated January 4, 2023

P-10 Email from petitioner to school district with copy of pertinent pages of petitioner's 2023 Bradford Pointe lease

P-11 Petitioner's earning statements for various months from December 2022 through September 2023

P-12 Petitioner's 2022 W-2 and earnings summary

P-13 Petitioner's AT&T cell phone statement, dated September 2023

P-14 PNC Bank Virtual Wallet Student Spend statement for V.C. for June 2023 through July 2023

P-15 PNC Bank Virtual Wallet Student Spend statement for C.C. for July 2023 through August 2023

P-16 American Express Delta Sky Miles Gold Card statement, dated September 2023

P-17 Pertinent pages of various of petitioner's prior year rental leases from Bradford Pointe

P-18 Screenshot from District's website

P-19 Petitioner's work emails from June 7, 2023

P-20 Entire rental lease for Bradford Pointe for January to December 2024

P-21 Notarized affidavit from neighbor, Charlotte Marie Holden, dated February 21, 2024

For respondent

R-1 Investigative report, dated June 1, 2 & 7, 2023

R-2 Answer to Student Residency Petition

298-24L

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

TAHESHA L. WAY
Lt. Governor

KEVIN DEHMER
Acting Commissioner

August 6, 2024

Robert M. Tosti, Esq.
475 Wall Street
Princeton, NJ 08540

Sadia Ahsanuddin, Deputy Attorney General
Division of Law
R.J. Hughes Justice Complex
25 Market Street, P.O. Box 112
Trenton, NJ 08625-0112

Re: In the Matter of the Certificates of Gina Cinotti, State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 1718-226, Commissioner Appeal Dkt. No. 9-6/24A

Dear Counsel:

I have reviewed the materials filed in connection with appellant Gina Cinotti's Motion to Stay the decision of the State Board of Examiners (Board) suspending her certificates for one year.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-3.3(a), a motion to stay a Board determination pending resolution of an appeal filed with the Commissioner must first be made to the Board. Here, appellant sought a stay from the Board that was denied on July 12, 2024. Thereafter, appellant was entitled to seek a stay from the Commissioner in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:4-3.1. Appellant filed the instant motion with the Commissioner on July 15, 2024.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(b), a motion for stay is considered an extraordinary remedy that may only be granted upon a finding that appellant has satisfied each prong of the four-pronged standard set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). Thus, a stay may be granted where necessary to prevent irreparable harm, where the legal right underlying the movant's claim is settled, where there is a likelihood of success on the merits and where the relative hardship to the moving party favors granting such relief. Id. at 132-34.

The moving party must prove each of the four prongs "by clear and convincing evidence." Garden State Equality v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013).

Upon review of the parties' submissions, I find that appellant has failed to meet this exacting standard. Although appellant argues that she will suffer irreparable harm due to an inability to work while her certificates are suspended, and that she "has a strong case since the ALJ found no cause to suspend or revoke her certificates based upon the conduct demonstrated at the hearing," she has failed to demonstrate that the legal right underlying her claim is settled. Appellant's underlying claim that she did not engage in unbecoming conduct warranting a suspension of her certificates is intensely fact sensitive and must be viewed in light of various precedents related to the conduct of teachers. For this reason, the Commissioner cannot conclude that appellant has demonstrated that the legal right underlying her claim is settled.

Because all four prongs of the Crowe standard must be proven for a stay to be granted, it is not necessary to analyze the remaining three prongs. Accordingly, appellant's request for a stay of the Board's June 27, 2024, Order of Suspension is hereby DENIED.

Sincerely,

Kevin Dehmer
Acting Commissioner

KD/JS
c: State Board of Examiners

299-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.H., on behalf of minor child, K.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Village of Ridgefield Park, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that she and her minor child, K.H., are no longer domiciled in the Village of Ridgefield Park and that K.H. is therefore no longer entitled to a free public education in Ridgefield Park Schools. The Board contended that E.H. and K.H. have moved to Ridgefield, which is a different school district. The Board filed a motion for summary decision; no tuition reimbursement was sought for the period of K.H.'s ineligible attendance in Ridgefield Park schools.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue here, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the respondent district held a residency appeal hearing on February 21, 2024; its decision, finding that petitioner and her daughter no longer resided within the district, was issued on February 22, 2024; the petitioner did not dispute that she has relocated; the family in this matter suffered a tragic loss that occurred soon after the Board issued the within residency decision; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.3(a), tuition may be assessed for the period of a student's ineligible enrollment; however, nothing in the chapter precludes an equitable determination, by the district board of education or the Commissioner, that, when the particular circumstances of a matter so warrant, tuition shall not be assessed; here, the respondent Board submitted no information as to tuition; therefore, no determination as to tuition can be made. The ALJ concluded that petitioner's residency appeal must be dismissed with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter and dismissed the petition for the reasons expressed therein. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

299-24
OAL Dkt. No. 05122-24
Agency Dkt. No. 62-3/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.H., on behalf of minor child, K.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Village of Ridgefield Park, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner and her minor child, K.H., were not domiciled in Ridgefield Park as of February 2024. The Commissioner further concludes that K.H. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the Ridgefield Park School District during that time.[1]

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 7, 2024

[1] The respondent did not seek reimbursement of tuition for the period of K.H.'s ineligible attendance.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05122-24
AGY. DKT. NO. 62-3/24

E.H. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD K.H.,
Petitioner,
vs.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE VILLAGE OF RIDGEFIELD PARK, BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

E.H., on behalf of K.H., petitioner, pro se

David L. Disler, Esq., for respondent (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: July 1, 2024 Decided: July 1, 2024

BEFORE THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner appeals the Final Notice of Determination of Ineligibility by Respondent school district, dated February 22, 2024, wherein Respondent determined that the minor child was ineligible to attend school in Respondent school district.

Petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal with the Office of Controversies and Disputes in the New Jersey Department of Education on March 11, 2024.

Respondent filed its Answer via letter from its counsel, dated April 2, 2024.

The matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on April 15, 2024, as a contested case.

A prehearing conference Order was held on May 1, 2024, and a Prehearing Order was entered on May 2, 2024.

The matter was listed for a hearing on June 12, 2024, but was adjourned to permit respondent to file a motion for summary decision. Said motion was received on May 13, 2024. Petitioner did not submit a reply to said motion. The matter was scheduled for oral argument on July 1, 2024, should either party request the same. Neither party did so.

ISSUE

Is the minor child eligible to attend school in the Village of Ridgefield Park school district.

I FIND the following undisputed FACTS:

At the time of the filing of the residency appeal K.H. was a senior attending Ridgefield Park High School. (see residency appeal)

The respondent Board had determined that petitioner and K.H. no longer resided in the Village of Ridgefield Park and had relocated to Ridgefield, New Jersey, which is a different school district. (See residency appeal and answer)

Petitioner filed a residency appeal with the respondent Board. Said appeal was heard on February 21, 2024. The Board's Final Notice Determination of Ineligibility, dated February 22, 2024, found that petitioner and her daughter did not reside in the Village of Ridgefield Park and not entitled to a free education in said district. (see residency appeal and answer)

On March 3, 2024, petitioner and her family suffered a terrible tragedy when K.H.'s older sister committed suicide. (See residency appeal)

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

A motion for summary decision may be granted if the papers and discovery presented, as well as any affidavits which may have been filed with the application, show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). If the motion is sufficiently supported, the non-moving party must demonstrate by affidavit that there is a genuine issue of fact which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding, in order to prevail in such an application. Ibid. These provisions mirror the summary judgment language of R. 4:46-2(c) of the New Jersey Court Rules.

The motion judge must "consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party . . . , are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 523 (1995). And even if the non-moving party comes forward with some evidence, this forum must grant summary decision if the evidence is "so one-sided that [the moving party] must prevail as a matter of law." Id. at 536 (citation omitted).

The material facts, as noted above, are entirely undisputed and the matter is ripe for summary decision.

Any child between the ages of five and twenty years old is entitled to a free public education in the district in which he is a resident. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a). A student is a resident of a school district if his parent or guardian has a permanent home in the district such that "the parent or guardian intends to return to it when absent and has no present intent of moving from it, notwithstanding the existence of homes or residences elsewhere." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1). A student may attend school in a district in which he is a non-resident, with or without payment of tuition, at the discretion of the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-3(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-2.2.

If a school district discovers that a non-resident child is attending one of its schools, the district may act to remove the child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-4.3. If so, the chief school administrator must first issue a notice of ineligibility. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-4.2, -4.3. The notice shall inform the parent of the right to a hearing before the school district and the right to appeal the school district's decision to the Commissioner of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-5.1. The notice shall also inform the parent whether the district's policy allows for continued attendance, with or without tuition, for students who move out of the district during the course of the school year. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-4.2(b)(7)(i). If, on appeal to the Commissioner, the parent fails to demonstrate his child's entitlement to attend the schools of the district, the parent may be liable for tuition for any period of ineligible attendance. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-4.2; N.J.A.C.6A:22-6.2, -6.3.

In the instant matter the respondent district held a residency appeal hearing on February 21, 2024, and issued its decision on February 22, 2024, finding that petitioner and her daughter no longer resided within the district. Petitioner does not dispute that she has relocated.

According to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.3(a), "[t]uition assessed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be calculated on a per student basis for the period of a student's ineligible enrollment, by applicable grade/program category and consistent with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:23-3.1. The individual student's record of daily attendance shall not impact on such calculation." However, "[n]othing in this chapter shall preclude an equitable determination, by the district board of education or the Commissioner, that, when the particular circumstances of a matter so warrant, tuition shall not be assessed for all or part of any period of a student's ineligible attendance in the school district." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.3(b).

The respondent submitted no information as to tuition. Accordingly, no determination as to tuition can be made.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that Petitioner's residency appeal is DISMISSED, with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 1, 2024
DATE

THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:

db

APPENDIX

List of Moving Papers

For Petitioner:

None

For Respondent:

Notice of Motion for Summary Decision
Letter brief in support of motion

Pleadings:

Residency Appeal
Answer

300-24E
OAL Dkt. No. 08675-24
Agency Dkt. No. 98-4/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision on Emergent Relief

Board of Trustees of the College Achieve Greater Asbury Park Charter School, Monmouth County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Asbury Park, Monmouth County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the Initial Decision on Emergent Relief of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has demonstrated entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6. Accordingly, the recommended Initial Decision of the OAL granting petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted.

For purposes of procedural clarification, the Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the petition of appeal and petitioner's first motion for emergent relief to the OAL on April 15, 2024, under Agency Dkt. No. 98-4/24; these were docketed by the OAL under OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04777-24. Petitioner's second motion for emergent relief – the motion at issue in this decision – was transmitted to the OAL on June 26, 2024, again under Agency Dkt. No. 98-4/24; the OAL docketed the second motion as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08675-25, as captioned above. In the Initial Decision, the ALJ indicated that the parties advised that no other issues remained in OAL Dkt No. EDU 08675-24 once the motion for emergent relief was resolved. Accordingly, following the decision herein, OAL Dkt No. EDU 08675-24 is no longer pending. However, Agency Dkt. No. 98-4/24 remains pending, with the proceedings at the OAL to occur under OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04777-24.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 7, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION GRANTING EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08675-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 98-4/24

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE COLLEGE ACHIEVE GREATER ASBURY PARK CHARTER SCHOOL, MONMOUTH COUNTY, Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ASBURY PARK, MONMOUTH COUNTY,
Respondent.

Thomas O. Johnston, Esq. and Jaryda A. Gonzalez, Esq., for petitioner (Johnston Law Firm, LLC, attorneys)

Eric L. Harrison, Esq., for respondent (Methfessel & Werbel, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: July 15, 2024 Decided: July 16, 2024

BEFORE KIMBERLEY M. WILSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Board of Trustees of the College Achieve Greater Asbury Park Charter School, Monmouth County (Charter School) brings this second motion for emergent relief against respondent Board of Education of the City of Asbury Park, Monmouth County (Board or District), seeking an order requiring the Board to immediately remit payments owed to the Charter School pursuant to New Jersey Department of Education (DOE) payment schedules.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or around March 20, 2024, the Charter School filed a petition with the Commissioner of the DOE, requesting the Commissioner to direct the State Treasurer to remit payments that the District owed the Charter School to it and deduct those amounts from the District's state aid. On or around April 12, 2024, the Charter School filed its first motion for emergent relief, letter brief, and certifications with exhibits (first motion) with the Commissioner of the DOE, Office of Controversies and Disputes, seeking an order directing the Board to remit payment to the Charter School immediately pursuant to the DOE's payment schedule. On or around April 15, 2024, the DOE transmitted the first motion to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case seeking emergent relief.

On or around April 16, 2024, the Board submitted a written response to the first motion, including a certification and a letter brief. After a status conference on April 17, 2024, to determine whether the parties could resolve their differences amicably, on April 18, 2024, the parties presented oral argument on the first motion. The parties were permitted to provide supplemental information to the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) by April 19, 2024.

On April 19, 2024, counsel for the Charter School advised that on or around April 18, 2024, the Board had remitted payment to the Charter School for the funds the Board owed the Charter School. Pursuant to an Order Denying Emergent Relief dated April 19, 2024, the Charter School's motion was dismissed as moot.

On or around June 20, 2024, the Charter School filed a second motion for emergent relief, again seeking an order directing the Board to remit payment to the Charter School immediately pursuant to the DOE payment schedule (second motion).[1] On or around June 26, 2024, the DOE transmitted the second motion to OAL as a contested case seeking emergent relief. On June 28, 2024, OAL scheduled oral argument on the second motion for July 15, 2024.[2]

On or around July 1, 2024, the Board submitted written opposition to the second motion, which included updated exhibits to a certification and a letter brief. On or around July 11, 2024, the Charter School filed its reply papers, including a letter brief and updated certification. After July 11, 2024, counsel continued to exchange documents with the ALJ regarding the status of any payments to the Charter School.

Oral argument was held on July 15, 2024, and the record remained open to allow the Charter School to provide supplemental submissions. The record closed on July 15, 2024.

The request for emergent relief is now ripe for adjudication.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

I FIND the following as FACT, as it is undisputed:

1. Pursuant to a DOE Division of Finance and Business Services Office of School Finance FY 2023–24 District Payment Schedule dated December 20, 2023, the Board was scheduled to make the following payments to the Charter School based on the Charter School's October 15, 2023, enrollment:

[1] For the second motion, the Charter School relied upon certifications and other information presented to OAL for the first motion.

[2] July 15, 2024, was the first date that the ALJ had available on her calendar after the second motion was filed to address both oral argument and the disposition of the second motion.

Scheduled payment date	Payment amount
July 15, 2023	$208,813
August 15, 2023	$208,813
September 8, 2023	$169,796
September 15, 2023	$208,813
September 22, 2023	$169,796
October 8, 2023	$169,796
October 15, 2023	$208,813
October 22, 2023	$169,796
November 8, 2023	$169,796
November 15, 2023	$208,813
November 22, 2023	$169,796
December 8, 2023	$169,796
December 15, 2023	$208,813
December 22, 2023	$169,796
January 8, 2024	$136,973
January 15, 2024	$159,272
January 22, 2024	$136,973
February 8, 2024	$136,973
February 15, 2024	$159,272
February 22, 2024	$136,973
March 8, 2024	$136,973
March 15, 2024	$159,272
March 22, 2024	$136,973
April 8, 2024	$136,973
April 15, 2024	$159,272
April 22, 2024	$136,973
May 8, 2024	$136,973
May 15, 2024	$159,272
May 22, 2024	$136,973
June 8, 2024	$136,973

June 15, 2024	$159,272
June 22, 2024	$136,971

[Nicholas Puleio Cert. Ex. A.]

2. As of June 20, 2024, the Board failed to submit payment to the Charter School beginning with the May 2024 payments. Supp. Nicholas Puleio Cert.¶ 2. The Board owed the Charter School $751,247. Ibid. If the Board did not submit payment to the Charter School by June 30, 2024, the Charter School would end its school year with a deficit of $273,509 and would not have funds to satisfy its financial obligations. Id. ¶ 4, 5.

3. As discussed in a letter dated June 28, 2024, from David Shafter (Shafter), State Monitor for the District, to Kenneth E. Saunders, President of the Board, Shafter overrode the Board's failure to approve payments to the Charter School at its April 25, 2024, meeting and directed the District to pay the Charter School $709,772. Thomas O. Johnston Cert. dated July 11, 2024, Ex. D.

4. Pursuant to an email from Shafter dated July 12, 2024, to counsel for the Board, Shafter indicated that the District paid the Charter School the total amount due for the 2023–2024 school year.

5. During oral argument, counsel for the Charter School indicated that if it did not receive payment from the Board for the students in the District attending the Charter School, the Charter School would not be able to satisfy its debts, potentially leading the Charter School to lose teachers and students. If this were allowed to occur, the Board would succeed in shutting down the Charter School.

6. In a DOE Office of School Finance FY 2024–25 District Payment Schedule dated June 28, 2024, the Board is to remit payments of $277,996 to the Charter School on July 15, 2024, and August 15, 2024. Micah Bender Cert. Ex. A.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The regulations governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education . . . , the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

At a hearing for emergent relief, the petitioner must show that it satisfies the following four standards:

> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
>
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
>
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
>
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) (citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)).]

The petitioner must prove each of these standards by clear and convincing evidence. Garden State Equal. v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013). Arguably, these standards are a high threshold to meet, and I will address each one separately.

1. Irreparable Harm

As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in Crowe, "[o]ne principle is that a preliminary injunction should not issue except when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." 90 N.J. at 132 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden Horse R.R. Co., 29 N.J. Eq. 299, 303 (E. & A. 1878)). Indeed, the purpose of emergent relief is to "prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case." Ibid. (quoting Thompson ex rel. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders v. Paterson, 9 N.J. Eq. 624, 625 (Sup. Ct. 1854)).

The threshold standard for irreparable harm in education is showing that once something is lost, it cannot be regained. M.L. ex rel. S.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Ewing, EDU 04949-09, Initial Decision (June 15, 2009), modified, Acting Comm'r (June 15, 2009), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/. While the Board has remitted payment to the Charter School for the 2023–2024 fiscal year, the Board is required to make payments to the Charter School beginning on July 15, 2024, the first payment which is presently due and owed. For the reasons discussed below, the Charter School has shown that it will be irreparably harmed if emergent relief were not granted.

The Board has remitted payment to the Charter School for the remainder of the 2023–2024 fiscal year, which, at first blush, appears as though the relief that the Charter School seeks is moot. Courts may decide cases that are otherwise moot when they present issues of "significant public importance or . . . stem from a controversy 'capable of repetition, yet evading review' because of the short duration of any single plaintiff's interest." Finkel v. Twp. Cmte. of Twp. of Hopewell, 434 N.J.Super. 303, 315–316 (App. Div. 2013) (citing In re Conroy, 190 N.J. Super. 453, 459 (App. Div.), rev. on other grounds, 98 N.J. 321 (1983)).

The Charter School has had to file two emergent motions within the past three months for the Board to remit payments owed under the payment schedule for the 2023–2024 fiscal year; based on past pattern and practice, it is likely that the Board will continue to refuse to remit payments to the Charter School for the 2024–2025 fiscal year pursuant to the June 28, 2024 payment schedule, and the Board will still owe the Charter School that money, creating a future fiscal crisis for the Charter School. For these reasons, a determination on the second motion is not moot and is appropriate.

The Charter School has presented sufficient, uncontroverted evidence that the viability of the Charter School is at stake when it does not receive the State-mandated funding from the Board. The Charter School relies on funding from the Board so that the Charter School remains solvent. From the evidence presented, whether the Charter School remains a going concern depends on whether the Board makes the required payments. When the Board fails to remit payment under the relevant payment schedule, the Charter School is unable to pay its bills and is at risk of closing. This is irreparable harm, and I CONCLUDE that the Charter School has sufficiently proven this prong.

2. Settled Legal Right

Next, emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–05).

The legal right for the Board to remit payment to the Charter School is clearly established. A district board of education's obligation is discussed in N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-15.3(g) as follows:

> A district board of education shall process payment(s) and payment adjustments to a charter school during the school year as follows:
>
> 1. The district of residence and non-resident school district(s) shall initiate payments to the charter school based on projected enrollment, as set forth in this section.
>
> 2. The school district of residence and non-resident school district(s) shall pay directly to a charter school the local share per pupil at the charter school rate, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-12b, in 12 equal installments starting July 15 and thereafter on the 15th of each month.
>
> [Emphasis added.]

From the plain language of the regulation, the Board is required to make payments to the Charter School on the fifteenth day each month beginning in July. This is a mandatory, rather than optional, obligation. See Quereshi v. Cintas Corp., 413 N.J. Super. 492, 498 (App. Div. 2010) (stating, "[t]he use of the word 'shall' ordinarily denotes action that is mandatory, unless the context suggests otherwise."); see also A.B. v. Div. of Med. Assistance and Health Servs., 407 N.J. Super. 330, 340 (App. Div. 2009) (stating, "[a] rule of an administrative agency is subject to the same canons of construction as a statute.")

Based on the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the Board's obligation to make payments to the Charter School is a clearly-established legal right, and therefore, the Charter School has shown a legal right underlying the second motion.

3. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

The Charter School has demonstrated that it is likely to succeed on the merits of the underlying claim. Under this emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115–16 (E. & A. 1930)). This typically "'involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182–83 (App. Div. 2012) (quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App. Div. 2006)).

As discussed further in Section 2, above, the Board must remit payment to the Charter School based on projected enrollment on the fifteenth of each month, beginning in July. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-15.3(g)(1), (2). This is the Board's obligation. It is not a discretionary action, and the Board has presented no evidence or information to the contrary. The Board's argument pertains to verifying the residences of certain Charter School students so that the Board is certain that its payments to the Charter School are accurate. This issue, however, is the basis of two other matters pending before the OAL, and importantly, only pertains to the amount to be paid, rather than the requirement to make payment to the Charter School. In other words, the accuracy of the payments can be determined; the Charter School, however, must receive payment from the Board as required by N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-15.3(g).

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Charter School has shown a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits.

4. Balancing the Equities

The fourth and final emergent relief standard involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J. Eq. 506, 515 (Ch. 1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J. Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)].

The Charter School has repeatedly affirmed its need for funding from the Board, indicating that without these funds, the Charter School would not be able to satisfy its debts, causing financial instability that could lead to the loss of teachers and students. On its face, this is a great hardship, as the financial instability could mean that the Charter School would be shut down. I also note that this is the second time in three months that the Charter School has had to seek emergent relief from OAL for the Board's failure to remit payments to it.

The applicable law here is clear, and I CONCLUDE that the Charter School will suffer greater harm should emergent relief not be granted than the Board if the requested relief is not granted.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the Charter School has met all of the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

While the Board's argument about its need to verify the residency of certain Charter School students is not determinative here, it is an ongoing issue, and the parties have repeatedly requested DOE assistance in resolving it. I would request that the DOE intercede so this financial issue does not continue into future fiscal years. The Board has an interest in ensuring that its funds are paid and distributed correctly just as the Charter School has a right to receive payment from the Board as mandated by State regulation.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the Charter School's second motion for emergent relief be and hereby is GRANTED. The Board shall remit all payments due to the Charter School in the amounts and by the dates set forth on the FY 2024–25 District Payment Schedule dated June 28, 2024, as the DOE may subsequently amend.

I also request that the DOE intercede and assist the parties with the Charter School students' residency issue so that the Board can receive the necessary assurances that the payments it will be remitting to the Charter School are a more accurate reflection of Asbury Park domiciled students who are attending the Charter School.

Finally, counsel has advised that no other issues remain after this emergent relief matter is resolved.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 16, 2024
DATE

KIMBERLEY M. WILSON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

KMW/dw

306-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Jessica Fava-Cutrona,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner challenged the respondent New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE) determination to deny her application for a Principal Certificate of Eligibility (Principal CE). The SBE based its decision upon petitioner's failure to satisfy N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4), which requires that she "[c]omplete five years of successful educational experience under a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-state certificate." Petitioner was employed from 2007 through September 2023 at a non-public parochial school where she held the positions of teacher, vice principal, and principal. However, because she never held a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-state certificate, the educational experience she obtained while working at the non-public school failed to satisfy the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4). Petitioner asserted that her prior teaching experience, if fully reviewed, does meet the teaching experience standard, had it occurred under a provisional certificate. She also asserted that a full review of her teaching experience would show that she meets the requirements for the issuance of a Principal CE under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4). The SBE filed a motion to dismiss, contending that it cannot waive certification requirements.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner failed to meet her burden of demonstrating, by a preponderance of evidence, that she is entitled to the Principal CE; in fact, petitioner admitted that she does not meet the regulatory requirements as written; petitioner's arguments regarding the comparability of her work experience at the non-public school to the five years of experience required under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4) was without merit, as was her contention that certification requirements are a technicality that can be overlooked. The ALJ concluded that the SBE cannot waive certification requirements and therefore its decision to deny petitioner's application for a Principal CE was reasonable and consistent with governing regulations. Accordingly, the SBE's motion to dismiss was granted.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. In so doing, the Commissioner noted that the SBE's decision to deny her application for a Principal CE was reasonable, appropriate, and consistent with regulatory requirement; further, petitioner is not at liberty to rewrite the SBE's certification requirements, and neither is the SBE at liberty to waive them. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

306-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09743-23
Agency Dkt. No. 225-8/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Jessica Fava-Cutrona,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record in this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner challenges the Board's August 4, 2023, denial of her application for a Principal Certificate of Eligibility (Principal CE). She presently holds a Teacher of English Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing. Petitioner worked at a non-public parochial school from 2007 until September 2023, where she held the positions of teacher, vice principal, and principal. She now seeks to work as a principal in a public school, which requires a Principal CE.

It is undisputed that petitioner meets all but one of the requirements for issuance of a Principal CE, specifically N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4), which requires that she "[c]omplete five years of successful educational experience under a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-state certificate." Because petitioner has never held a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-state certificate, her educational experience obtained while working at the non-public school failed to satisfy that requirement. Consequently, the Board denied her application for a Principal CE.

In response to petitioner's appeal of the Board's decision, the Board filed a motion to dismiss, asserting primarily that it cannot waive certification requirements. N.J.A.C. 6A:5-1.3(a)(1)(i). Petitioner filed opposition, and the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) heard oral argument on the motion. As detailed in the Initial Decision, the ALJ found that petitioner failed to meet her burden of demonstrating, by a preponderance of evidence, that she is entitled to the Principal CE. Indeed, the ALJ found that petitioner admits that she does not meet the regulatory requirements as written.

In addition, the ALJ rejected petitioner's argument that her work experience at the non-public school was comparable to the five years of experience required under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4) and should, in essence, be substituted for same—even though she did not hold a provisional or standard certificate during that time as required by the regulation. The ALJ also rejected petitioner's contentions that certification requirements are a mere technicality that can be overlooked, and that she received disparate treatment from the Board as compared to out-of-state applicants. Ultimately, the ALJ found that the Board cannot waive certification requirements and that, therefore, its decision to deny petitioner's application for a Principal CE was reasonable and consistent with governing regulations. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition of appeal.

In her exceptions, petitioner reiterates the arguments she made below that were already considered and rejected by the ALJ, i.e., that: (1) the Board "failed to look past the technicality of whether she held the provisional certification during the time that she obtained the necessary years of teaching experience"; and (2) she received disparate treatment from the Board in that "the Board afforded her less consideration than out-of-state applicants." Exceptions at 7-8. Petitioner additionally asserts, without citing any legal authority for same, that her Teacher of English Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing "further supports [her] application that she has met her teaching experience requirement for issuance of a Principal CE." Id. at 8.

In response, the Board argues that the Commissioner should adopt the ALJ's Initial Decision because the ALJ correctly concluded that the Board's determination was consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. The Board also asserts that petitioner's exceptions restate the same arguments already rejected by the ALJ and emphasizes that petitioner's mere disagreement with the outcome does not advance a cause of action.

Petitions are subject to dismissal by the Commissioner "on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. This standard also appears in New Jersey Court Rule 4:6-2(e), which permits a motion for judgment on the pleadings for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. See Wadley v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., Office of Student Prot., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09223-22, Initial Decision at 4-5 (Mar. 10, 2023), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 110-23 (Apr. 1, 2023) (assessing respondent's motion to dismiss pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10 under the standards used by courts when analyzing Rule 4:6-2 motions). The petition must contain factual "allegations, which, if proven, would constitute a valid cause of action." Sickles v. Cabot Corp., 379 N.J. Super. 100, 106 (App. Div. 2005) (quoting Leon v. Rite Aid Corp., 340 N.J. Super. 462, 472 (App. Div. 2001)). Ultimately, a petition must be dismissed for failure to state a claim "if it has failed to articulate a legal basis entitling [petitioner] to relief." Ibid.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38, the Legislature entrusted the Board with issuance of appropriate certificates to teachers, administrators, and other certificated staff. Petitioner bears the burden of proving, by a preponderance of evidence, that she satisfies the statutory and regulatory requirements for issuance of a certificate. In re Polk License Revocation, 90 N.J. 550, 561 n.1 (1982);

McQuilken v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., State Bd. of Exam'rs, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8375-11 (Initial Decision at 7), Commissioner Decision No. 34-12 (Jan. 27, 2012). "[A] decision by the Board denying an application for a certificate is not entitled to the arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable standard of review that is afforded to appeals filed under N.J.A.C. 6A:4, challenging a decision of the Board revoking or suspending a certificate." Nimczyk v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., State Bd. of Exam'rs, Commissioner Decision No. 98-22 (May 16, 2022), at 2. Instead, "the appropriate standard of review . . . is whether the decision is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions." Id. at 2-3.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ. Even assuming the facts as alleged by petitioner are true, she has failed to articulate a legal basis for the relief she seeks. Because it is uncontested that petitioner does not possess "five years of successful educational experience under a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-state certificate" as is required by N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4), the Board's decision to deny her application for a Principal CE was reasonable, appropriate, and consistent with regulatory requirements. Petitioner is not at liberty to rewrite the Board's certification requirements, and the Board is not at liberty to waive them. See Hutchinson v. New Jersey State Board of Examiners, OAL Dkt. No EDU 16373-12, Initial Decision (April 5, 2013), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 177-13 (May 15, 2013) (holding that the Board is not at liberty to waive applicable regulatory requirements when deciding whether to issue certificates and endorsements).

Petitioner's exceptions lack merit. As explained above, the Board is simply not permitted "to look past the technicality" of the regulatory requirement found at N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4). Furthermore, petitioner's contention that the Board gave less consideration to petitioner's application than it would have given an out-of-state applicant is speculative at best. Moreover, her assertion that her Teacher of English Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing supports her position that she has met her teaching experience requirement for issuance of a Principal CE is unsupported by the relevant regulations. As stated, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4) mandates that the requisite five years of successful education experience be obtained "under a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-state certificate." A Teacher of English Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing is neither a valid provisional nor a standard New Jersey certificate. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1 (distinguishing between a certificate of eligibility, a provisional certificate, and a standard certificate).

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the Board's motion to dismiss the petition of appeal is granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 26, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION GRANTING RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 09743-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 225-8/23

JESSICA FAVA-CUTRONA,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, BOARD OF EXAMINERS,

Respondents.

Daniel E. Dugan, Esq., for petitioner (Stewart Lee Karlin Law Group. P.C., attorneys)

Amna T. Toor, Deputy Attorney General for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 3, 2024 Decided: July 10, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Petitioner Jessica Fava-Cutrona worked at Immaculate Conception High School ("ICHS"), a non-public parochial school, from 2007 through September of 2023 when ICHS closed due to lack of enrollment. While employed at ICHS she served in the positions of teacher, vice principal and principal. Petitioner holds a New Jersey teacher of English certificate of eligibility with advanced standing and obtained a master's degree in education leadership. After ICHS closed petitioner was offered and accepted a leadership position in a public school. She is now seeking to pursue a position as principal in a public school which requires an applicant to possess a Principal Certificate of Eligibility ("Principal CE").

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5 (a)(1)-(4) requires that a candidate seeking a Principal CE must hold a master's degree, complete a 300-hour internship, pass a Department-approved examination, and relevant here, complete "five years of successful educational experience under a valid provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or equivalent out-of-State certificate." Upon review of her application, the Department[1] found that petitioner satisfied the regulatory requirements for obtaining a Principal CE, except for the requirement under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5 (a)(4) that she complete five years of successful educational experience under a valid provisional or standard certificate.

Petitioner's application was denied by the Board on August 4, 2023. In its decision, the Board noted that petitioner's employer was not required to apply for provisional certification for her and provide a pathway to standard certification, which includes participation in a Department-approved mentoring program, a non-public school may still choose to provide a mentoring program pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.9. If petitioner anticipated that she would one day seek a position as the principal in a public school, she could have requested her employer participate in a Department -approved mentoring program and apply for her provisional certification so that she would have completed five years of successful educational experience under a provisional or standard certificate.

[1] The Office of Certification and Induction within the Department of Education initially reviews and evaluates information relating to an applicant's eligibility for certification.

The Board asserted that it cannot waive certification requirements (citing N.J.A.C. 6A:5-1.13(a)(1)(i)), instead informing Ms. Fava-Cutrona that her option for obtaining a Principal CE would be to repeat five years of successful educational experience by seeking employment under her Teacher of English CEAS, securing a provisional certificate, and eventually a standard certificate, to secure five years' experience under a provisional or standard certificate.

Petitioner maintains she is not arguing ignorance of the requirements for the issuance of a Principal CE as the basis for setting forth a viable cause of action as the Board asserts. Instead, as she asserted in her application and on appeal, her prior teaching experience, if fully reviewed, does meet the teaching experience standard had it occurred under a provisional certificate. She also asserts that a full review of her teaching experience would show that she meets the requirements for the issuance of a Principal CE under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4).

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The standards for granting or denying a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim in an administrative proceeding are identical to those governing similar motions in the Superior Court. Compare N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10 with R. 4:6-2(e); See also Sloan v. Klagholtz, 342 N.J. Super. 385, 393-94 (App. Div., 2001).

When reviewing a motion to dismiss pursuant to R. 4:6-2(e), the court's inquiry is "limited to examining the legal sufficiency of the facts alleged on the face of the complaint." Printing Mart - Morristown v. Sharp Electronics Corp., 116 N.J. 739, 746 (1989). the petitioner is required to plead facts and give detail od a cause of action. Once filed , "a complaint may be dismissed for failure to state a claim if it fails to articulate a legal basis entitling plaintiff to relief." Hoffman v. Hampshire Labs, Inc. 405 N.J. Super.105 (App. Div., 2009) quoting Sickles v. Cabot Corp., 379 N.J. Super. 100 (App. Div. 2005).

While a complaint may be entitled to liberal reading, it must allege facts that give rise to to a legal cause of action; mere conclusions cannot suffice. Pressler and Venero, N.J. Court Rules, cmt.1 on R. 4-5-2 (2022) citing Glass v. Suburban Restoration Co., 317 N.J. Super. 574, 582 (App. Div., 1998). Although the standard is a "generous one" for a plaintiff, a pleading will be dismissed if it states no basis for relief and discovery will nor provide one. Green v. Morgan Props., 215 N.J. 431, 451 (2011); Rezem Family Associates, L.P., v. Borough of Millstone, 423 N.J. Super. 103, 113 (App. Div., 2011). A party cannot satisfy its obligation to identify a cognizable claim with conclusory or vague allegations. Delbridge v. Office of the Public Defender, 238 N.J. Super. 288, 314 (App. Div., 1989).

In the case at bar, there is no dispute that the petitioner meets all of the requirements for the Principal CE with the exception of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-2.5(a)(4) which requires that she complete 5 years of successful educational training under a valid provisional or standard certificate. There is also no dispute that petitioner's educational training took place in a parochial school that lacked the required provisional or standard certificate.

The gravamen of petitioner's argument on appeal is that this tribunal should view the education training she received in the non-certified parochial school program as comparable to the training she would have received if she had worked in a school that held the required standard or provisional certificate. In support of this contention, the petitioner points to the Board's finding that the petitioner's years of experience as a teacher and a principal in the non-public school to be noteworthy. The Board did however indicate, that while they were they were sympathetic to her position, they could not waive the certificate requirement.[2]

[2] The Board cited N.J.A.C. 9B-8.9 which sets forth the requirements needed to be met in order for a non - public school to provide a mentoring program for novice teachers.

I agree with respondent's argument that petitioner has failed to proffer any information that was not considered by the Board or any argument as to why the Board's denial application was inconsistent with the governing statutory provisions.

Petitioner points out that she could not have applied for a provisional certificate while she worked at ICHS because it is the choice of the non-public school whether to provide a mentoring program pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.9. She then concludes that because ICHS was not required to apply for a provisional certification and thus provide a pathway to certification, she maintained that the Board, in its decision, improperly shifted that responsibility and makes the denial of petitioner's application arbitrary and capricious. I disagree.

Just because the Board pointed out to petitioner that there was a way for ICHS to obtain the provisional certificate while she worked there and that she always had the option of obtaining her 5 years of experience in a public school setting, I FIND that this observation does not amount to an improper shifting of any burden or responsibility to the petitioner. As respondent correctly asserts, It is the petitioner's burden to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that she is entitled to the certificate she is entitle to the certificate she seeks. McQuilken v. St. Bd. of Examiners, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08375-2011, Initial Decision (Dec. 13, 2011), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/html/initial/edu8375-11_.1html, adopted Comm'r (January 27,2012) citing Farrar v. St. Bd, of Exam'rs OAL Dkt. No EDU 13768-08, Initial Decision (Sept. 9, 2009), adopted, Comm'r (July 26, 2010). Petitioner has not only failed to meet this burden, but she also acknowledges that she does not meet the requirements for a Principal CE. Accordingly, the Board's decision to deny petitioner's application is not, as petitioner maintains, arbitrary and capricious.

I also FIND that compliance with the certification requirements is not, as petitioner suggests, a mere technicality that can be overlooked. The Board cannot waive certification requirements. See N.J.A.C. 6A:5-1.3(a)1(i) (declaring the "[c]ertification requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2 shall not be violated").

Petitioner also challenges the Board's refusal to consider whether her five years of teaching experience at ICHS was equivalent to the teaching experience she would have received had she been working under a provisional or standard certificate. Petitioner maintains that a full review of her teaching experience at ICHS under what she claimed to be the "equivalent of a provisional certificate" satisfies the requirement under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4) that she complete those five years of successful educational experience under a provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or "equivalent out-of-state certificate". Id. [emphasis added]. She also argues that it would be improper to consider the equivalency of an out-of-state applicant's education training and not consider the equivalency of the training she received at a parochial school within New Jersey.

After a full review of the comparison petitioner is making between herself and out-of- state applicants, I FIND her assertions of disparate treatment to be unfounded. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4), if an out-of-state applicant did not obtain their five years of educational experience under an equivalent out-of-state certificate, the five years of experience would not satisfy the regulation's requirement. There has also been no evidence offered to prove New Jersey would independently evaluate whether the out-of-state applicant's five years of teaching experience in a non-certified setting was the equivalent to that received under a standard or provisional New Jersey certificate. New Jersey's willingness to accept the educational experience of an out-of-state applicant takes place under a Principal certification program equivalent to that of New Jersey's is based on the equivalency of the other state's program to that of New Jersey's and is not a case-by-case determination as to whether a non-certified program meets the requirements of a provisional or standard certificate. There has been no credible evidence presented in this case that supports petitioner's assertion that being taught under "the equivalent of a provisional certificate" satisfies the requirement under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(a)(4) that the required educational experience be obtained under a provisional or standard New Jersey certificate or "equivalent out-of-state certificate".

For the reasons set forth above, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to meet her burden to show by the preponderance of the evidence that the Board improperly denied her Principal CE. I further CONCLUDE that the Board's decision to deny petitioner's application was reasonable and consistent with its governing regulations. Because the petitioner has failed to advance a cause of action that the Board's decision was otherwise inconsistent with applicable statutory and/or regulatory provisions, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's appeal should be dismissed.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Respondent's motion to dismiss is GRANTED and this matter is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

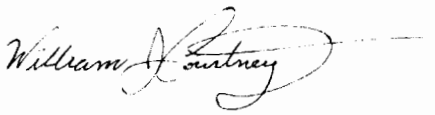
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



July 10, 2024
DATE

WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:

db

APPENDIX

List of Moving Papers

1. August 4, 2023 Decision of the New Jersey Dept. of Educ. Bd. of Examiners Denying petitioner's Application for a Principal CE
2. September 15, 2023 Brief in Support of Respondent's Motion to Dismiss
3. November 26,2023 Brief in Opposition to Motion to Dismiss
4. January 4, 2024 Brief in Reply to Petitioner's Opposition to Motion to Dismiss
5. Oral argument of the parties on Motion to Dismiss April 3, 2024

307-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.P., on behalf of minor child, A.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Burlington, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner challenged the determination of the respondent Board that several interactions between petitioner's daughter, A.P., and a school lunchroom aide did not constitute harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) under New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (the Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. Following an investigation by the school district's anti-bullying specialist into the allegations that A.P. was a victim of HIB, the Board found that the incidents reported did not satisfy the Act's definition of HIB. The District's anti-bullying specialist concluded that there was no HIB but recommended that the lunchroom aide should not interact with A.P. at lunch and recess. Petitioner subsequently filed the within appeal. The Board filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the decision of a board acting within the scope of its authority is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be overturned unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable; further, the action of a board which lies within the area of its discretionary powers may not be upset unless patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives; in this case, petitioner's allegations did not meet the legal standards of the HIB statute; for a finding of HIB, the alleged behavior must reasonably be perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic of the victim, a critical element that is missing in this case; petitioner instead argued that the lunchroom aide targeted A.P. because of an acrimonious relationship between petitioner and the aide, who were long-time acquaintances. The ALJ concluded that the lunchroom aide's actions did not permit a finding of HIB because her behavior was not motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic of A.P. Accordingly, there was no violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 and the Board's actions were not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Summary decision was granted to the Board and the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board's determination in this matter was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

307-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02104-24
Agency Dkt. No. 17-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.P., on behalf of minor child, A.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Burlington, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by the petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have been reviewed and considered. The Board did not file exceptions or reply to petitioner's exceptions.

Petitioner alleged that her child, A.P.,[1] was bullied when, on several separate occasions, a lunch aide made A.P. sit by herself at lunch, miss recess for doing nothing wrong, and cry. Additionally, petitioner alleged that the lunchroom aide singled out A.P. due to the aide's personal history with petitioner. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that the lunchroom aide's actions did not permit a finding of HIB because her behavior was not motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic of A.P.

In her exceptions, petitioner fails to address the ALJ's conclusion that the lunchroom aide's actions were not motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic of A.P. Instead, petitioner argues that there are four different kinds of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB). Petitioner contends that in reaching his decision, the ALJ utilized the incorrect type of HIB, which had been provided by the Board, rather than the type of HIB under which she filed. While petitioner does not define her preferred type of HIB (or the three other types of HIB), she cites to an excerpt from guidance published by the Department of Education that identifies four distinct kinds of bullying behavior.[2] It appears petitioner misunderstands these four behaviors to be separate grounds upon which an individual may file an HIB complaint. Petitioner's preferred type of HIB is likely "psychological," as it is the only bullying behavior highlighted in the excerpt she provides. The guide defines psychological bullying as, "... purposefully keeping people from activities and breaking up friendships and other relationships." Ibid. Lastly, petitioner claims that the lunchroom aide has a history of harassment and cites to a screenshot of the aide's records from a New Jersey Municipal Court Case Search.

[1] Because petitioner and her child share the same initials, petitioner will be referred to herein as "petitioner," and her child will be referred to herein as "A.P."

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the lunch aide's actions do not warrant a finding of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). Furthermore, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration[,]" and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't. of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

---

[2] According to the guidance, "Guidance for Parents on the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (P.L.2010, c.122)," the four types of bullying behavior are verbal, physical, psychological, and electronic. See https://www.nj.gov/education/mksd/docs/HIB%20ParentGuide.pdf (page 10).

The Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (the Act) defines HIB as follows:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L. 2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
>
> N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

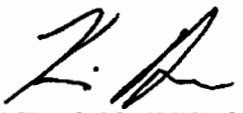
Therefore, a finding of HIB requires three elements.[3] First, the conduct must be reasonably perceived as motivated by any actual or perceived enumerated characteristic or other distinguishing characteristic and, second, the conduct must substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school. The third condition is that one of the three criteria enumerated in the Act regarding the effect of the conduct must also be satisfied. Wehbeh v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Verona, Essex County, Commissioner Decision No. 51-20 (decided February 4, 2020).

[3] The statute also requires that the conduct take place on school property, at a school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3. The parties do not contest that this requirement has been met.

In her exceptions, petitioner misconstrues the legal analysis undertaken when considering HIB matters. Pivotal to the analysis is the first element, an act that is reasonably perceived as being motivated by any actual or perceived characteristic. However, petitioner fails to identify a distinguishing characteristic of A.P. that might have motivated the lunchroom aide's behavior. Further, even if true, the lunch aide targeting A.P. due to the aide's personal history with petitioner, while inappropriate, does not constitute a distinguishing characteristic under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. See K.L. v. Evesham Twp. Bd. of Educ., 423 N.J. Super. 337, 351 ("[H]armful or demeaning conduct motivated only by another reason, for example, a dispute about relationships ... or aggressive conduct without identifiable motivation, does not come within the statutory definition of bullying.") (emphasis added). Absent a distinguishing characteristic, the lunch aide's conduct cannot satisfy the first prong required for a finding of HIB; therefore, the Board's decision was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]



ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 26, 2024

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02104-24
AGENCY REF. NO. 17-1/24

A.P. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.P.,
Petitioner,
v.
CITY OF BURLINGTON
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

A.P. on behalf of minor child, A.P., pro se

Alicia D'Anella, Esq., for respondent (Gorman, D'Anella, and Morlok, LLC, attorneys)

BEFORE MICHAEL R. STANZIONE, ALJ:

Record closed: May 14, 2024 Decided: July 10, 2024

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This case arises from petitioner A.P.'s challenge of the determination by respondent, City of Burlington Board of Education (respondent or Board), that there was no harassment, intimidation or bullying (HIB) during several interactions between petitioner A.P.'s daughter, A.P., and a school lunchroom aide.

Petitioner's daughter is a student in the City of Burlington School District (District). Following an investigation by the District's anti-bullying specialist into the allegation that she was a victim of HIB, the Board found that the incident reported did not satisfy the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act's (ABR) definition of HIB. The District's anti-bullying specialist concluded that there was no HIB. The specialist determined that the only corrective action that should be required was that the lunchroom aide should not interact with the student at lunch and recess.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The HIB investigation concluded on October 20, 2023, and the HIB investigation summary report completed by the anti-bullying specialist was submitted to the superintendent on October 25, 2023. On or about December 11, 2023, petitioner's requested appeal hearing on the investigation determination was held. Following the appeal hearing, the Board affirmed the determination that the incident did not satisfy the ABR definition of HIB. On or about February 14, 2024, petitioner filed an appeal of that determination. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on February 14, 2024, for a hearing as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The Board filed an answer and a motion for summary decision on February 13, 2024, before the matter was transmitted to the OAL. An initial prehearing conference was held on March 12, 2024. On March 14, 2024, petitioner emailed a response to the Board's motion for summary decision. This was followed by a prehearing conference on March 25, 2024. On May 14, 2024, oral argument was held on the motion via Zoom with the consent of the respondent, as the petitioner was unable to travel for an in-person oral argument.

MOTION

Respondent has filed a motion for summary decision, arguing that the undisputed facts demonstrate that the alleged actions by the lunchroom aide do not constitute HIB as defined by the ABR. Specifically, respondent relies on the anti-bullying specialist's finding that the student lacked a defining characteristic to meet the requirements of a finding of HIB.

Petitioner opposes respondent's motion, arguing generally that the actions of the District's lunchroom aide meet the definition of HIB. She argues that her daughter was singled out by the employee because of petitioner's history with the employee.

FINDINGS OF UNDISPUTED FACT

The following FACTS of the case are not in dispute:

1. At all times relevant to this matter, petitioner's daughter was a student attending school in the District.

2. The lunchroom aide had A.P. sit by herself in the cafeteria and sit-out recess. The petitioner and the lunchroom aide have had multiple interactions in their past and they "were not good ones."

3. Respondent's investigation concluded that the alleged conduct was not reasonably perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic of petitioner's child. R-4 at ¶ 3. The report noted that no motivating factor was determined. R-5, Exhibit A, at 4. It stated that the "student was reprimanded for not following school rules. Student was not targeted for any real or perceived characteristics." Id. at 6. The incident, according to the anti-bullying specialist, did not satisfy the definition of HIB. Id. at 7.

4. The anti-bullying specialist found that the lunchroom aide was responding to the student's behavior. R-4 at ¶ 4.

5. Respondent took steps to ensure that the student would not have any future contact with the lunchroom aide Id. at ¶ 5. The lunchroom aide was moved to a different lunch period than A.P.

PARTIES' ARGUMENTS

Petitioner:

Petitioner, through oral argument, alleged that the staff member is "singling out" her daughter. Referencing her personal history with the lunchroom aide, she argues that the staff member unfairly harassed and bullied her daughter because she is petitioner's child. Petitioner asserted that she and the staff member "have never been friends" and queried why the staff member told her daughter that they knew each other. P-2. Prior to these interactions with the lunchroom aide, her daughter always loved school; however, since interacting with the aide, she no longer wants to attend school.

Respondent:

Respondent argues that its motion must be granted because the staff member's conduct was not motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic. R-4 at ¶ 3.

First, the Board concluded in its HIB investigation report that the actions of the lunch aide toward petitioner's child were found to be in direct response to the student's behavior. Id. at 4. Although the incident was not determined by the Board to meet the criteria of HIB, the District took steps to ensure that the student did not have further contact with the accused staff member. Id. at 5.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Summary decision may be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). The OAL summary decision rule is essentially the same as the summary judgment rule under the New Jersey Court Rules, which states:

> The judgment or order sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment or order as a matter of law. An issue of fact is genuine only if, considering the burden of persuasion at trial, the evidence submitted by the parties on the motion, together with all legitimate inferences therefrom favoring the non-moving party, would require submission of the issue to the trier of fact.
>
> [R. 4:46-2(c).]

The New Jersey Supreme Court has modified and clarified the analysis required when considering a motion for summary decision/judgment. In Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995), the Court adopted the summary judgment standard utilized by federal courts:

> Under this new standard, a determination whether there exists a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." [Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986).] . . . If there exists a single, unavoidable resolution of the alleged disputed issue of fact, that issue should be considered insufficient to constitute a "genuine" issue of material fact for purposes of Rule 4:46-2. Liberty Lobby, supra, 477 U.S. at 250, 106 S. Ct. at 2511, 91 L. Ed.

> 2d at 213. The import of our holding is that when the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," Liberty Lobby, supra, 477 U.S. at 252, 106 S. Ct. at 2512, 91 L. Ed. 2d at 214, the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment.

The burden is on the moving party to exclude all reasonable doubt as to the existence of any genuine issue of material fact, and all inferences of doubt are drawn against the moving party and in favor of the non-moving party. Saldana v. DiMedio, 275 N.J. Super. 488, 494 (App. Div. 1994). The critical question, therefore, is "whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require [a hearing] or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Brill, 142 N.J. at 533 (citation omitted). If the non-moving party's evidence is merely colorable or is not significantly probative, summary judgment should not be denied. See Bowles v. City of Camden, 993 F. Supp. 255, 261 (D.N.J. 1998).

All of the material facts in this case are undisputed. The petitioner has not contested any material fact put in front of this tribunal. Petitioner argued only that the legal definition under ABR of what constitutes HIB is not good enough.

The ABR defines harassment, intimidation or bullying as follows:

> any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c. 122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> > a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable > fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;

>
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 (emphasis added).]

The requirement that the conduct is reasonably perceived as being motivated by a distinguishing characteristic is fundamental to the decision. The statutory definition of HIB "does not include all violent or aggressive conduct." K.L. v. Evesham Twp. Bd. of Educ., 423 N.J. Super. 337, 350 (App. Div. 2011).

On October 25, 2023, the HIB investigation report was submitted to the District superintendent. In its summary of findings, the report noted that no motivating factor was determined. R-5, Exhibit A, at 4. It stated that the "student was reprimanded for not following school rules. Student was not targeted for any real or perceived characteristics." Id. at 6. The incident, according to the anti-bullying specialist, did not satisfy the definition of HIB. Id. at 7.

In other words, the petitioner's child, according to the investigation, was not targeted due to race, color, religion, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation, or a mental, physical, or sensory disability, or due to any other distinguishing characteristic. Petitioner corroborated the findings of the investigation, because she asserted in her opposition to the motion for summary decision, during oral argument, and in her pro se petition of appeal that the school staff member targeted her child due to her personal history with the petitioner.

Accordingly, accepting petitioner's version of the facts as accurate and undisputed, I CONCLUDE that the school lunchroom aide's actions were not motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic of student A.B. This does not permit a finding of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

I therefore CONCLUDE that the respondent's motion for summary decision should be granted.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 10, 2024
DATE

MICHAEL R. STANZIONE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

P-1 Pro Se Petition of Appeal

P-2 Response email to respondent's Motion for Summary Decision

For Respondent:

R-1 Filed answer to petition of appeal

R-2 Notice of Motion for Summary Decision

R-3 Brief in support of respondent's Motion for Summary Decision

R-4 Certification of superintendent Dr. John Russell

R-5 Exhibits A and B

308-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Israel Torres,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner – a school bus driver – appealed the Department's determination to suspend his school bus endorsement for six months pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 et seq. after an incident on March 24, 2024, in which an elementary school student remained on petitioner's bus beyond the end of his assigned bus route. Petitioner did not dispute that a sleeping child remained on the bus but contended that the student was never left alone, as he noticed the child while proceeding back to his base location. The Department filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, requesting that the motion be converted to a motion for summary decision upon transmittal of the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL).

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner admitted that after completing his bus route on March 24, 2024, he noticed that a sleeping child remained on the bus; petitioner then located a safe place to stop, notified dispatch of the situation, and returned the child to the George S. Hess Elementary School; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, petitioner had an affirmative duty to visually inspect the school bus at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil had been left on the bus; "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 means when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination, or the last bus stop; in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29, if a school bus driver is found to have left a child on the bus at the end of a route, the driver's school bus endorsement shall be suspended for six months for the first offense. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to the respondent and affirmed the petitioner's six-month suspension for leaving a child on the school bus at the end of a route.

Upon full review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the respondent is entitled to summary decision. Accordingly, the petition was dismissed; respondent was directed to notify the Motor Vehicle Commission of its obligation to suspend petitioner's school bus endorsement pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39, and to notify petitioner's employer that he is ineligible for the period of suspension for continued employment as a school bus driver.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

308-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 05575-24
Agency Dkt. No. 90-4/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Israel Torres,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 is when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, school bus drivers have an affirmative duty to visually inspect the bus at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil remains on the bus. Here, the petitioner did not visually inspect the school bus before departing George L. Hess Elementary School, the end of his transportation route, and as a result a child was left on the bus. Thus, the ALJ correctly concluded that petitioner violated N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed. Petitioner's "S" endorsement is hereby suspended for six months from the date of this decision. Respondent is directed to notify the Motor Vehicle Commission of its obligation to suspend petitioner's school bus endorsement pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-26 et seq., and to notify petitioner's employer that he is ineligible during the period of suspension for continued employment as a school bus driver.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: August 23, 2024
Date of Mailing: August 26, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05575-24

AGENCY DKT. NO. 90-4/24

ISRAEL TORRES,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,

Respondent.

Israel Torres, petitioner pro se

Michael Lombardi, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: June 26, 2024 Decided: July 11, 2024

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Israel Torres (Torres), challenges the suspension of his bus driver "S" endorsement. The Office of Student Protection (OSP) determined that Torres violated N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, et seq., in allegedly leaving a pupil on a school bus assigned to him at the end of his transportation route. As a first offense of this kind, the penalty is a six-month suspension of his "S" endorsement to operate a school bus.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed his Petition of Appeal with the Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes (Department) on April 5, 2024. On April 23, 2024, the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection (OSP) filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10.[1] The matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on April 24, 2024, as a contested case under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The matter was assigned to me on June 4, 2024. I held a telephone conference on June 17, 2024, and set a briefing schedule. Torres submitted his opposition to OSP's motion to dismiss on June 18, 2024. On June 25, 2024, OSP filed a letter brief in reply. On June 26, 2024, Torres filed a statement replying to OSP's reply, which I accepted and considered. The record closed on June 26, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

On March 25, 2024, after departing George L. Hess Elementary School en route to the base location for Sheppard Bus, Torres visually scanned his student mirrors and noticed a sleeping student several rows behind him. After locating a safe place to stop, Torres notified dispatch for his bus company. Dispatch advised him to return to school with the student. Torres never left the student unattended and returned the student to school as instructed.

[1] OSP had initially filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer with the Commissioner under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. Upon transmittal to the OAL, the motion was converted to a summary-decision motion under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The School Bus Safety Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:39-26 to -33, requires that the school-bus driver "shall visually inspect the school bus to which he is assigned at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil has been left on the bus." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28. A violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 results in a mandatory penalty. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29. The statute dictates that "[i]n the event that, after notice and opportunity to be heard, a school bus driver is found to have left a pupil on the school bus at the end of his route, his school bus endorsement shall be: (a) suspended for six months, for a first offense . . . ." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29(a).

The issue in this case is whether the Department established by a preponderance of the credible evidence that Torres failed to comply with the statutory requirement that the driver "shall visually inspect the school bus to which he is assigned at the end of the transportation route to determine that no pupil has been left on the bus." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28. Torres acknowledged in his written statement that he discovered a sleeping student after departing the elementary school when he visually scanned his student mirrors. When Torres discovered the student, he was proceeding to the base location of Sheppard Bus, where he intended to perform the "mandated visual inspection in a safe and timely manner." (Petitioner's Opposition Statement.) Torres discovered the child before he reached his base location and upon notifying dispatch, returned the child to school. Therefore, the heart of the instant controversy lies in the interpretation of the "end of transportation route" phrase, which is not defined in the statute or regulations.

In Klein v. Department of Education, Criminal History Review Unit, EDU 00852-11, the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) concluded that the "end of the route" as used in N.J.S.A. 18A:39-26 "terminates at the point where all of the children in that group leave the bus . . . and the bus is empty of riders, and before the driver moves on to her next route. At that point, the driver shall inspect the bus for any remaining students." Klein, Comm'r decision (February 21, 2012), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, at 2. The Commissioner explained that > [t]he record show[ed] that the driver by walking to the back of the bus on that day, turning off the "Child Minder" button, taking the keys out of the ignition, letting the children out, and locking the doors, fulfilled all indicia of "end of the route" activities save one: She did not inspect the bus. Accepting [the driver's] argument that the inspection did not have to take place until the bus returned to the depot at the end of the day defies reason and eviscerates the fundamental purpose of the statute – to protect our children and ensure their safety.

>
> [Id. at 2-3.]

In 2015, in Herman v. Department of Education Criminal History Review Unit, EDU 10473-14, Initial Decision (June 23, 2015), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, rev'd, Comm'r (July 30, 2015), <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>, the Commissioner again rejected the argument that the "end of transportation route" means at the end of the workday, once the bus is dropped off at the bus depot lot. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28's requirement of a visual inspection at the end of the route did not apply. The ALJ determined that the route had not ended as long as the bus driver had not left the vicinity of the bus; and that the visual inspection would be performed when she did depart the vicinity of the bus at the bus depot. Herman, Initial Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>. Upon review, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's initial decision. Citing Klein, the Commissioner reiterated that the bus driver violated the School Bus Safety Act when she failed to visually inspect the school bus at the end of her route – that is, following the departure of the students from the bus, and before returning to the depot. Herman, Comm'r Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>, at 5. Concurring with what he described as the "well-reasoned definition" of "end of the transportation route" provided by the Commissioner in Klein, the Commissioner declared the ALJ's rejection of the Commissioner's holding in Klein "undermines the purpose and intent of the School Bus Safety Act." Id. at 7. He explained:

> [a]s the Commissioner stated in Klein, "Accepting petitioner's argument that the inspection did not have to take place until the bus returned to the depot at the end of the day defies reason and eviscerates the fundamental purpose of the statute – to protect our children and ensure their safety." Klein, supra, at 2. To hold otherwise would excuse – if not > promote – inefficiency (by endorsing needless rides to the bus depot for our students) and place children at unnecessary risk of harm. It is nonsensical to delay visual inspection of the school bus until arrival at the bus depot when, in fact, any heightened safety risk to the children can be avoided altogether if they are discovered on the bus while still present on school grounds or prior to leaving the route. While it may be true that [the student] was never left unattended, and it is not known from the present record whether he suffered any harm or distress, the visual inspection required by N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 should have occurred prior to departing the [school] at the end of the transportation route – when all of the other children had exited the bus.

>
> [Id. at 7-8.]

In his decision, the Commissioner also cited Vickery v. Department of Education Criminal History Review Unit, EDU 00083-15, Initial Decision (June 2, 2015), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (July 9, 2015), <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>, which he stated "reinforces the Act's requirement that the visual inspection of the school bus should have occurred before departing the [school] at the end of the transportation route – when all of the other children had exited the bus." Herman, Comm'r Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/> at 6.

In Vickery, a school bus driver similarly failed to complete the required visual inspection of the school bus following his departure at the last bus stop on route and consequently found a sixteen-year-old student, who had fallen asleep and failed to exit the bus, at the bus yard. The driver averred he had not violated the Act because he did not leave the child alone on the bus and conducted a visual inspection upon his return to the bus yard, which was the end of his route. The ALJ determined that pursuant to Klein the Act requires that an inspection be conducted when the last child is dropped off during the route, and not after the vehicle has finished its drop-offs and has returned to its garage or depot. Vickery, Initial Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>. On review, the Commissioner adopted the findings and determinations of the ALJ. Vickery, Comm'r Decision, <https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/decisions/>.

Following Klein, Herman and Vickery, the Commissioner has consistently held that the "end of the transportation route" means at the end of a student drop-off point. See Arcos v. Dep't of Educ., Crim. Hist. Rev. Unit, EDU 01752-18, Initial Decision, (November 7, 2018), adopted, Comm'r (September 20, 2018), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> ("the end of the transportation route" triggering the school bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 occurs when the driver drops off the children at the assigned destination and not when the bus driver competes all of her assigned routes for the day.); Pedi v. Dept. of Educ., Office of Student Protection, EDU 04317-21, Initial Decision (October 13, 2021), adopted, Comm'r (November 18, 2021), (bus driver violated N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 when she merely conducted a "turnaround view" and not a full visual inspection of the bus after her first student drop off, continued onto her second route, and subsequently found a child from her first route.); and Severe v. Dept. of Educ., Office of Student Protection, EDU 01502-21, Initial Decision (September 19, 2022), 2022 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 794, adopted, Comm'r (October 31, 2022), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (the "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 is when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination, that triggers the school-bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, not when the bus driver competes all of her assigned routes for the day.)

Here, Torres contends that it was unsafe to pull over on the premises of George L Hess Elementary School and perform a student check. In his opposition, Torres explained the traffic at the designated area for arriving and departing school buses. He explained that "he planned to perform my student check, and post trip inspection upon arrival to base" because that was the safest place to perform those duties. (Opposition Brief.) Torres failed to mention whether he performed a visual inspection of his bus after the students departed and prior to driving away. (emphasis mine.) According to Torres, after he drove off the premises, he noticed the sleeping student while visually scanning his student mirrors. As a result, Torres found a child on the bus as he was proceeding to his base location, having left the school. Regardless of Torres' intentions, visual inspection was required to be performed at the school prior to departure.

The statute requires the driver to visually inspect the bus at the end of his transportation route. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28. There can no longer be any doubt that the end of the transportation route was George L. Hess Elementary School. Herein, there is no dispute to the material fact that Torres discovered the student after leaving the school en route to Sheppard Bus's base location. For that reason, he violated N.J.S.A. 18A: 39-28.

After OSP determines that a child was indeed left behind at the end of the route, a mandatory penalty is imposed due to the safety implications of such a violation. Garner v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., Crim. Hist. Rev. Unit, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 173 (April 3, 2009), adopted, Comm'r (May 1, 2009), https://www.nj.gov/education/legal/. Thus, "[i]n the event that . . . a school bus driver is found to have left a pupil on the school bus . . ., his school bus endorsement shall be: (a) suspended for six months, for a first offense . . . ." N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29(a). Here, since Torres violated the statute, the penalty imposed is mandatory, and there is no discretion to impose anything less than a six-month suspension of his "S" endorsement. Where the violation has been established, no circumstances of the event or of the driver may be considered in determining the penalty. Garner, 2009 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 173 at *5–6.

I CONCLUDE that the "end of the transportation route" under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28 is when the children are dropped off at the assigned destination, that triggers the school-bus driver's affirmative duty to inspect the school bus under N.J.S.A. 18A:39-28, not a safe and convenient location away from the designated route.

The Department seeks relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), which provides that summary decision should be rendered "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." This provision mirrors the summary judgment language of R. 4:46-2(c) of the New Jersey Court Rules. The motion judge must "consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Ibid. (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. at 242, 249 (1986)). When the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Ibid. (quoting Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S at 252).

I CONCLUDE that the evidence presented by the parties does not establish any material facts in dispute. Given the limited facts that must be established to support a violation of the duty imposed by the Legislature on a school-bus driver to properly inspect the bus at the end of a route to assure that no child is left on the bus, the arguments offered by OSP amply support summary decision in its favor. And given the mandatory nature of the penalty for a first-time violator of the mandate, the six-month suspension is the only outcome when the violation is proven. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-29(a). OSP'S motion for summary decision must be GRANTED.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that OSP's motion for summary decision is hereby GRANTED, and it is further ORDERED that the petitioner's "S" endorsement shall be suspended for six months.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING

COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Kathleen M. Calemmo

July 11, 2024 _____

DATE

KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO. ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

KMC/tat

310-24E
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09129-24
Agency Dkt. No. 143-5/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.A., on behalf of minor child, R.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Randolph, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of the hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons stated therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 3, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER
DENYING EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09129-24
AGENCY DKT. 143-5/24

K.A., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, R.M.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RANDOLPH, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

K.A., petitioner, pro se

Marc Zitomer, Esq., for respondent (Schenck, Price, Smith & King, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 16, 2024 Decided: July 18, 2024

BEFORE DANIEL J. BROWN, ALJ:

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner is the parent of R.M. R.M. enrolled at the Center Grove Elementary School (Center Grove) beginning in the 2020-2021 school year as a pre-kindergarten student. R.M. completed kindergarten during the 2020-2021 school year and first grade during the 2022-2023 school year at Center Grove, as well. Petitioner and her family moved to the Ironia section of town in November of 2023. The policy of the respondent

(the Board) provides that pupils shall generally attend the school area of their residence. Despite this, R.M. was allowed to finish his first-grade year at Center Grove. In March of 2024, petitioner made a formal request to Danielle Soldivieri, the Director of Social Services, to allow R.M. to remain at Center Grove for the 2024-2025 school year. Ms. Soldivieri spoke with the school principal at Center Grove, who stated that he spoke with R.M.'s counselor, teacher and school nurse and they were not aware of any concerns regarding R.M.'s attendance at Ironia for the 2024-2025 school year. Ms. Soldivieri denied petitioner's request. Petitioner appealed the denial to the Superintendent of schools who agreed with Ms. Soldivieri's denial.

On July 8, 2024, the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as to the resolution of petitioner's Motion for Emergency Relief. On June 11, 2024, the merits of the underlying petition were transmitted to the OAL and docketed as EDU 08123-24. On July 8, 2024, both matters were assigned to me with the direction that the case concerning the merits was to be addressed once the Motion for Emergent Relief was heard and decided.

On July 8, 2024, and July 11, 2024, I conducted telephone status conferences. On July 11, 2024, I received the Board's submission.

In petitioner's application for emergent relief, petitioner asserts that emergent relief is appropriate in this case. Petitioner places great reliance on the portion of the Board's policy that states "every effort will be made to continue a pupil in the same elementary school once the pupil has been enrolled in the elementary school". Petitioner argues that the Board is not complying with this policy because it has not made every effort or even a good faith effort to allow R.M. to continue to attend Center Grove. Additionally, petitioner highlights that portion of the policy which provides that a pupil may be assigned to a school other than in his attendance area when it is "justified by circumstances and/or is in the best interest of the pupil." Petitioner states that no one is in a better place than R.M.'s parents and doctors to determine what is in R.M.'s best interest and that they agree that staying at Center Grove next year is the best option for R.M. Petitioner also argues that the class size for next year's second grade class is below the preferred class size as determined by the Board so there is clearly room for R.M. to attend Center Grove in the 2024- 2025 school year.

In the Board's response, the Board asserts that petitioner cannot and does not meet the standard for emergent relief. Additionally, the Board asserts that the petitioner's reliance on the portion of the Board's policy that provides that "every effort will be made to continue a pupil in the same elementary school once the pupil has been enrolled in the elementary school" is misplaced. The Board argues that the proper and routine interpretation of this rule is that the rule applies if a pupil moves during a school year that has already started and applies only during that school year. The Board argues that it cannot allow R.M. to remain at Center Grove for the remainder of his elementary education due to fluctuations in enrollment and to avoid the slippery slope that it would create for pupils in similar circumstances to R.M. Additionally, the Board states that petitioner was aware of the Board's determination that R.M. is to attend Ironia for the upcoming school year since March 25, 2024. The Board argues that the delay in the petitioner's filing of the instant application for emergent relief demonstrates that the relief that petitioner seeks is not emergent.

Oral argument on the Motion for Emergent Relief was scheduled for July 15, 2024. Petitioner moved for an adjournment of that hearing date. That adjournment request was granted. The hearing date was rescheduled to July 16, 2024.

On July 16, oral argument was conducted and completed. The record was closed on that date.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the Commissioner's jurisdiction is defined, and is limited to "controversies and disputes arising under the school laws." In Dunellen Bd. of Educ. v. Dunellen Ed. Assoc., 64 N.J. 17, 23 (1973), the New Jersey Supreme Court concluded that "the Legislature enacted provisions entrusting school supervision and management to local school boards . . . subject to the supervisory control [of] . . . the State Commissioner of Education."

The regulations governing such disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education or any other party subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) sets forth the standards governing motions for emergent relief and instructs that:

> A motion for a stay or emergent relief shall be accompanied by a letter memorandum or brief which shall address the following standards to be met for granting such relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):
>
> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
>
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
>
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim;
>
> and
>
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b).]

Indeed, the moving party must demonstrate each element "clearly and convincingly." Waste Management of N.J. v. Union County Utilities Authority, 399 N.J. Super. 508, 520 (App. Div. 2008). Emergent relief is designed "to 'prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until an opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case.'" Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 (citation omitted).

IRREPARABLE HARM:

Harm is generally considered irreparable if monetary damages cannot adequately redress it. Id. at 132-33. In other words, irreparable harm is described as "'substantial injury to a material degree coupled with the inadequacy of money damages.'" Judice's Sunshine Pontiac, Inc. v. General Motors Corp., 418 F. Supp. 1212, 1218 (D.N.J. 1976) (citation omitted). A claimant must demonstrate more than a risk of irreparable harm. Continental Group, Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F. 2d 351, 359 (D.N.J. 1980). The requisite for injunctive relief requires a "'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury,'" or a "'presently existing actual threat; (an injunction) may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by common law.'" Ibid.
(citation omitted).

Petitioner submits that irreparable harm is clear. Specifically, petitioner asserts that she is concerned that a change in schools for the 2024-2025 school year will cause R.M. to feel anxious because he will have no friends and will not see adults who are familiar to him. Additionally, petitioner argues that the longer R.M. goes through the summer without knowing if he is going to be able to attend Center Grove in the fall, the less R.M. will be able to mentally prepare himself and combat his anxiety.

In response, the Board argues that petitioner has not satisfied her burden of proof regarding irreparable harm by clear and convincing evidence. Specifically, the Board argues that the possible harm to R.M. that was highlighted by petitioner is not substantial or immediate. Lastly, the Board argues that petitioner has known of the Board's decision to deny her request since March of 2024 and petitioner's delay in bringing this application for emergency relief shows that the harm that petitioner complains of is not irreparable.

I agree with the Board's argument that petitioner has not satisfied her burden as to irreparable harm. Emergent relief "should not be entered except when necessary to prevent substantial, immediate and irreparable harm. "Subcarrier Communications, Inc. v. Day, 299 N.J. Super. 634, 638 (App. Div. 1997).

The harm noted by petitioner is not immediate. Petitioner asserts that R.M. will feel anxious about attending a new school. However, R.M.is not currently attending this school. Petitioner may ultimately be correct in her belief that R.M. will feel anxious about attending a new school. However, at this point, this claim of possible harm is speculative and is in no way immediate. Therefore, petitioner has not met her burden as to irreparable harm.

SETTLED LEGAL RIGHT:

Emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden H. R. Co., 29 N.J.Eq. 299, 304-305 (E & A 1878)).

Each school district is obligated to provide a thorough and efficient education system to all children residing in its school district. N.J. Const. art. VIII, § 4, ¶ 1; N.J.S.A. 18A:33-1. To carry out this policy, local boards of education have discretionary authority under N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1C. The boards adopt rules for the management of the district's public schools and act in a manner to ensure the lawful and proper conduct of the district's public schools. This Board cites the applicable policy which states that "every effort will be made to continue a pupil in the same elementary school once the pupil has been enrolled in the elementary school" and how that policy has been interpreted to apply to a student who has moved during a school year. The Board's interpretation of their rule is reasonable and entitled to deference.

In addressing her burden of proof, petitioner states that she isn't sure what a settled legal right means, but she feels she has met her burden of proof because any resident of Randolph can legally attend a school in the district, in line with district policy, as a taxpayer living in Randolph. In response, the Board states that petitioner has not met her burden of proof because petitioner cites no statute, regulation or case which supports her position. I agree.

Therefore, petitioner has not met her burden as to showing that her claim presents a settled legal right.

LIKELIHOOD OF SUCCESS ON THE MERITS:

Under the third emergent relief standard, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, supra, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115-16 (E. & A. 1930)). This requirement is often implicitly tied to whether the right to the underlying claim is settled.

A presumption of lawfulness and good faith applies to a board of education's actions. In challenges to board actions, the challenger bears the burden of proving that such acts were unlawful, arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Schuster v. Bd. of Educ. Montgomery Twp., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 670, 676 (citing Schnick v. Westwood Ed. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 448 (App. Div. 1960), and Quinlan v. Bd. of Educ. of North Bergen Twp., 73 N.J. Super. 40 (App. Div. 1962).

The "arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable" standard of review imposes a heavy burden on challengers of board actions, and "means having no rational basis." Piccoli v. Ed. of Educ. of Ramapo Indian Hills Regional School District, OAL DKT. EDU 1839-98 (January 22, 1999) (citing Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dent. of Envir. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

In support of her argument, petitioner cites the portion of the Board's policy that states "every effort will be made to continue a pupil in the same elementary school once the pupil has been enrolled in the elementary school". Petitioner argues that the Board is not complying with this policy because it has not made every effort to allow R.M. to continue to attend Center Grove. Additionally, petitioner highlights that portion of the policy which provides that a pupil may be assigned to a school other than in his attendance area when it is "justified by circumstances and/or is in the best interest of the pupil." Petitioner states that the best interest of R.M. is to remain at Center Grove for the 2024-2024 school year because R.M.'s parents and doctors believe that is the case.

Petitioner has not met her burden as to this test. Petitioner has not shown that the Board's interpretation that the policy that "every effort will be made to continue a pupil in the same elementary school once the pupil has been enrolled in the elementary school" applies to students who move after a school year begins and applies only to that school year has no rational basis. In fact, it is demonstrably clear that the Board's interpretation of this policy has a rational basis. If the Board's interpretation isn't afforded the deference to which it is entitled, the Board will lose the ability to address fluctuations in enrollment and to enforce that portion of the policy that provides that pupils shall generally attend the school area of their residence.

BALANCING OF THE EQUITIES:

Lastly, petitioner fails to meet the fourth emergent relief standard, which involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J.Eq. 506, 515 (Ch.1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J.Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)). To satisfy this standard, petitioner must demonstrate that she will suffer more significant harm than the Board if this tribunal does not grant the requested relief. Petitioner argues that R.M. will suffer a hardship if he is made to unexpectedly change schools in the middle of his elemenatary education. This change in schools is not unexpected. Petitioner was notified by the Board as to the denial of her request to have R.M. remain at Center Grove for the 2024-2025 school year in March of 2024. Additionally, in support of her argument, petitioner cites potential impacts to R.M.'s potential mental health and well-being. This is a speculative assertion, at best. As a result, petitioner has not satisfied her burden as to this standard.

Based on the above discussion, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's request is neither reasonable nor appropriate. I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to establish the existence of irreparable harm, that petitioner's request for emergent relief does not rely upon settled law, that petitioner is not likely to prevail on the merits, and that the equities do not favor petitioner. Thus, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's request for emergent relief does not meet the requirements under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and must be DENIED.

ORDER

Therefore, I ORDER that petitioner's request for emergency relief be and is hereby DENIED.

There are no more issues to decide as to this application for emergency relief. A scheduling order has been entered to address the merits of the underlying petition docketed under EDU 08123-24.

This Order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the Commissioner of Education, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision on the application for emergent relief shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five (45) days following the entry of this Order. If the Commissioner of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this Order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 18, 2024
DATE

Daniel J. Brown
DANIEL BROWN, ALJ

Date Mailed to Parties: July 18, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: July 18, 2024

sej

311-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T01-24
Agency Dkt. No. 228-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Mark Winterbottom,
Mullica Township Board of Education,
Atlantic County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension, noting that respondent was previously the subject of an Order to Show Cause for failing to timely complete the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is suspended from the Board for thirty days for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T01-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Mark Winterbottom,
Mullica Township Board of Education, Atlantic County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Mark Winterbottom (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Mullica Township Board of Education, located in Atlantic County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 4 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including a targeted e-mail message on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated April 29, 2024, and May 22, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement on July 3, 2024, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC. Importantly, Respondent did not deny that he did not complete training in a timely fashion.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required. Additionally, the Commission notes Respondent was previously issued a reprimand for failing to complete his mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion (T07-21).

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

Given that Respondent was previously the subject of an OTSC, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of 30-day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon adoption by the Commissioner of Education.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T01-24

Whereas, Mark Winterbottom (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete his training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC that did not dispute that he did not complete training in a timely fashion; and

Whereas, Respondent was previously issued a reprimand for failing to complete his mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of 30-day Suspension on Respondent because he was previously the subject of an OTSC; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

312-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T02-24
Agency Dkt. No. 229-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Eric Montano,
Englewood City Board of Education,
Bergen County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that he has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to *N.J.A.C.*6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T02-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Eric Montano,
Englewood City Board of Education, Bergen County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Eric Montano (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Englewood City Board of Education, located in Bergen County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 3 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 21, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T02-24

Whereas, Eric Montano (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete his training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

313-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T03-24
Agency Dkt. No. 230-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Carol Bitzberger,
Bass River Board of Education,
Burlington County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that she has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T03-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Carol Bitzberger,
Bass River Board of Education, Burlington County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Carol Bitzberger (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Bass River Board of Education, located in Burlington County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 3 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 6, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T03-24

Whereas, Carol Bitzberger (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on Jume 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

314-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T04-24
Agency Dkt. No. 231-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Scott Pycik,
Edgewater Park Board of Education,
Burlington County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that he has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq. However, subsequent to the issuance of its decision, the SEC received notice that respondent is no longer a member of the Edgewater Park Board of Education (Board) and advised the Commissioner accordingly.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that a penalty of censure is appropriate for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. If respondent had not already resigned from the Board, the Commissioner would order his removal, as recommended by the SEC. However, as respondent is no longer a member of the Board, respondent is hereby censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T04-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Scott Pycik,
Edgewater Park Board of Education, Burlington County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Scott Pycik (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Edgewater Park Board of Education, located in Burlington County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 3 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 6, 2024, May 22, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T04-24

Whereas, Scott Pycik (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete his training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

315-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T06-24
Agency Dkt. No. 232-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Chuck Palmucci,
New Hanover Township Board of Education,
Burlington County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. Following the issuance of its decision, the SEC received notice that respondent had completed training on June 17, 2024, and advised the Commissioner accordingly. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner finds that a penalty of censure is appropriate for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. *N.J.A.C.*6A:28-4.3(b) provides that a board member who completes training after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause (OTSC), but before the SEC issues its decision, receives a censure. Here, respondent completed the training on the same day the OTSC was issued. The record does not include time stamps showing the time the training was completed or the time the OTSC was sent to respondent. However, because the SEC did not receive notice from respondent that he had completed the training by the June 13, 2024 deadline that the SEC set in multiple communications to respondent, the SEC issued the OTSC on June 17, 2024; the Commissioner therefore deems respondent to have completed training after the issuance of the OTSC. Accordingly, respondent is censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T06-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Chuck Palmucci,
New Hanover Township Board of Education, Burlington County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Chuck Palmucci (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the New Hanover Township Board of Education, located in Burlington County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 1 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 21, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T06-24

Whereas, Chuck Palmucci (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete his training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on June 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on June 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on June 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on June 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

316-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T09-24
Agency Dkt. No. 234-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Tyesha Scott,
Paulsboro Board of Education,
Gloucester County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that she has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T09-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Tyesha Scott,
Paulsboro Board of Education, Gloucester County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Tyesha Scott (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Paulsboro Board of Education, located in Gloucester County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 3 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 7, 2024, May 22, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner Docket No.: T09-24

Whereas, Tyesha Scott (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

317-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T10-24
Agency Dkt. No. 235-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Anthony Remy,
Asbury Park Board of Education,
Monmouth County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. The SEC noted that respondent had previously been reprimanded for failing to timely complete mandatory training, as well as suspended for failing to timely file disclosure statements. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that he has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T10-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Anthony Remy,
Asbury Park Board of Education, Monmouth County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Anthony Remy (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Asbury Park Board of Education, located in Monmouth County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 3 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including a targeted e-mail message on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 8, 2024, May 22, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required. Additionally, Respondent was previously issued a reprimand for failing to timely complete his mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion (T28-21), as well as a 60-day suspension for failing to timely file his 2023 Disclosure Statements (D06-23).

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

Given that Respondent was previously the subject of two OTSC, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T10-24

Whereas, Anthony Remy (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete his training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, Respondent was previously issued a reprimand for failing to timely complete his mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion, as well as a 60-day suspension for failing to timely file his 2023 Disclosure Statements; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education because he was previously the subject of two OTSC; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

318-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T11-24
Agency Dkt. No. 236-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Kathie Lavin,
Freehold Regional Board of Education,
Monmouth County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a penalty of censure. Respondent has not instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq. but has filed exceptions to the recommended penalty.

In her exceptions, respondent argues that she had completed the required training by June 11, 2024, prior to the June 13, 2024 deadline set by the SEC in its correspondence to her. Respondent includes copies of three emails, which appear to be automatically generated by the Instructure training system, stating that three different assignments had been graded, with time stamps in the early morning on June 11, 2024. Respondent contends that, unbeknownst to her at the time, she had inadvertently failed to hit a required button at the end of the virtual course to allow it to be closed out and for notification to be provided to the New Jersey School Board Association (NJSBA), which offers the training programs. Respondent indicates that she only learned of the omission on July 3, 2024, through an email exchange between the SEC and the NJSBA, in which the NJSBA confirmed that respondent completed the training but did not hit the submit button at the end. Respondent therefore urges the Commissioner to reject the recommended penalty of a censure.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. While respondent argues that she completed the training on June 11, 2023 – prior to the SEC's deadline – the record reflects that the NJSBA confirmed that respondent completed the training on June 18, 2024 – after the OTSC was issued. The Commissioner therefore concludes that respondent completed the training after the OTSC was issued. The Commissioner further concludes that N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(b) applies and that, unless good cause is shown, a censure is the appropriate penalty.

Respondent's citation to cases in which the SEC reprimanded board members who experienced technical difficulties are not persuasive, as those cases pre-date the passage of N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(b). Previously, the School Ethics Act did not set a baseline penalty for failure to timely complete training, but the SEC and the Commissioner routinely reprimanded board members who completed the training after the SEC issued the OTSC but before it issued its decision. See, e.g., In the Matter of Annette Beasley, Irvington Board of Education, Essex County, Commissioner Decision No. 223-21SEC, decided October 13, 2021; In the Matter of Marcos Garciga, Cliffside Park Board of Education, Bergen County, Commissioner Decision No. 224-21SEC, decided October 13, 2021; In the Matter of Gary Yedman, Seaside Park Board of Education, Ocean County, Commissioner Decision No. 230-21SEC, decided October 13, 2021. Therefore, the penalty of a reprimand for the board members who experienced technical difficulties, such as those in the cases cited by respondent, was the same as the penalty imposed on board members who provided other reasons – or no reason – for their late completion.

In other words, the technical difficulties did not impact the penalty imposed. Here, respondent does not appear to have experienced technical difficulties, as there is no suggestion that she was unable to access the training system. Nonetheless, even accepting respondent's circumstances as a technical difficulty, the Commissioner concludes that it does not constitute good cause for her late completion of the training.

Accordingly, respondent is censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T11-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Kathie Lavin,
Freehold Regional Board of Education, Monmouth County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Kathie Lavin (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Freehold Regional Board of Education, located in Monmouth County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 4 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 8, 2024, May 21, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC that did not dispute that she did not complete training in a timely fashion.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause, but before the Commission issues its decision, receives a censure." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(b).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T11-24

Whereas, Kathie Lavin (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC that did not dispute that she did not complete training in a timely fashion;

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure on Respondent; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

319-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T12-24
Agency Dkt. No. 237-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Toni Ann Alfano,
Tinton Falls Board of Education,
Monmouth County

The record of this matter, the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC), and the exceptions filed by respondent have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a penalty of censure. Respondent has not instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq. but has filed exceptions to the recommended penalty.

In her exceptions, respondent indicates that she takes her duties seriously and takes full responsibility for not completing the training in a timely manner. She promises to be more mindful of her actions and responsibilities moving forward.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. While the Commissioner appreciates that respondent has taken responsibility for her failure and has indicated she will be more mindful in the future, the Commissioner does not find these statements to constitute good cause to warrant a deviation from the SEC's recommendation or the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(b). Accordingly, respondent is censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T12-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Toni Ann Alfano,
Tinton Falls Board of Education, Monmouth County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Toni Ann Alfano (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Tinton Falls Board of Education, located in Monmouth County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 8, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC. Importantly, Respondent did not deny that she did not complete training in a timely fashion.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause, but before the Commission issues its decision, receives a censure." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(b).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T12-24

Whereas, Toni Ann Alfano (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC that did not dispute that she did not complete training in a timely fashion; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure on Respondent; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted
by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting
on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

320-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T13-24
Agency Dkt. No. 238-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Teena Patel,
Tinton Falls Board of Education,
Monmouth County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that he has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T13-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Teena Patel,
Tinton Falls Board of Education, Monmouth County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Teena Patel (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Tinton Falls Board of Education, located in Monmouth County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 4 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 8, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T13-24

Whereas, Teena Patel (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

321-24SEC
SEC Dkt. No. T16-24
Agency Dkt. No. 239-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Gisselle Bond,
Roselle Board of Education,
Union County

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that he has completed the required training. Respondent has not instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq. but has filed exceptions to the recommended penalty.

In her exceptions, respondent indicates that all correspondence regarding this matter was sent to her personal email address, rather than her Board email address, and, as such, she was unaware of any issue until the SEC issued its decision on July 23, 2024. Respondent argues that she completed her Governance III training in October 2023, but the proof of the completed courses was never uploaded by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA), which offers the training programs.[1] Respondent also contends that she completed the substantive portions of the Governance II training online, but mistakenly did not finish the signature section.[2] Respondent includes copies of what appear to be automated emails from the NJSBA on July 29 and 30, 2024, which confirm that she completed the trainings, as well as a copy of her transcript showing the courses as being completed on July 29 and 30, 2024. Respondent urges the Commissioner to reduce her penalty from a removal or suspension to a reprimand or warning.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Initially, the Commissioner finds petitioner's argument that she did not see any notices about this matter unavailing. The record reflects that the SEC sent all emails regarding the training requirement, as well as the OTSC, to the same email address to which it sent the July 23, 2024 decision, which respondent clearly received. This email address is also the one that respondent used to forward the NJSBA's automated emails to her attorney, as demonstrated by Exhibit C to her exceptions, on August 1, 2024. As the email address used by the SEC was correct and active, there is no reason that respondent should not have received the SEC's emails, and the fact that respondent apparently overlooked them is not sufficient reason to reduce her penalty.

While respondent argues that she completed the training prior to the SEC's deadline, the record reflects that the NJSBA did not confirm that the training was completed until July 29 and 30, 2024 – after the SEC issued its decision. The Commissioner therefore concludes that respondent

[1] Respondent does not provide any documentation regarding her attendance at an October 2023 Governance III course.

[2] Respondent's certification does not indicate the date on which she allegedly competed the online Governance II course.

completed the training after the SEC issued its decision and, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c), a 30-day suspension is the appropriate penalty.

Accordingly, respondent is suspended from the Board for 30 days for violating the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 5, 2024

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: T16-24
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Gisselle Bond,
Roselle Board of Education, Union County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, directing Gisselle Bond (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on June 17, 2024, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Roselle Board of Education, located in Union County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by December 31, 2023.

On or about May 7, 2024, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2023, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on January 4, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 19 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated May 8, 2024, May 21, 2024, and June 5, 2024, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by June 13, 2024, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its special meeting on June 17, 2024.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2023, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of June 13, 2024, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on June 17, 2024. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: July 23, 2024

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T16-24

Whereas, Gisselle Bond (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2023; and

Whereas, at its special meeting on June 17, 2024, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2023, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2023, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on July 23, 2024, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on July 23, 2024.

Brigid C. Martens, Director
School Ethics Commission

324-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11568-19
Agency Dkt. No. 171-7/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Richard Derkacs,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Essex County Schools of Technology, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 5, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 6, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11568-19

AGENCY DKT. NO. 171-7/19

RICHARD DERKACS,

Petitioner,

v.

ESSEX COUNTY SCHOOLS OF TECHNOLOGY, BOARD OF EDUCATION, ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Kathleen Naprstek Cerisano, Esq., for petitioner, (Zazzali, Fagella, Nowak, Kleinbaum & Friedman, attorneys)

M. Murphy Durkin, Esq., for respondent (Durkin & Durkin, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 17, 2024 Decided: July 18, 2024

BEFORE DANIELLE PASQUALE, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on August 22, 2019 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release indicating the terms thereof. A copy of the Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 18, 2024
DATE

DANIELLE PASQUALE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: July ~~18~~ 30 2024

E-Mailed to Parties: July 18, 2024

Attachment
/lr

Kathleen Naprstek Cerisano, Esq.
Attorney ID # 006441992
ZAZZALI P.C.
570 Broad Street, Suite 1402
Newark, New Jersey 07102
p. (973) 623-1822
f. (973) 623-2209
kcerisano@zazzali-law.com
Attorneys for Petitioner Richard Derkacs

RICHARD DERKACS, Petitioner, v. ESSEX COUNTY SCHOOLS OF TECHNOLOGY BOARD OF EDUCATION, ESSEX COUNTY, Respondent.	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11568-2019 AGENCY DKT. NO. 171-7/19 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and General Release ("Settlement Agreement") is entered into by and between Petitioner Richard Derkacs ("Petitioner" or "Mr. Derkacs") and Respondent Essex County Vocational Technical Schools Board of Education, improperly identified as Essex County Schools of Technology Board of Education ("Respondent" or "District"), both of whom are collectively referred to as "the Parties."

WHEREAS Petitioner Richard Derkacs ("Mr. Derkacs") commenced employment as a teacher with Respondent Essex County Vocational Technical Schools Board of Education ("District") in September 2008 and served as a full-time teacher with the District through the 2018-2019 school year teaching classes in its Science program and its Culinary Arts Food Management program; and

WHEREAS in June 2019 Respondent authorized the reduction and reassignment of Petitioner from a full-time teaching position to a part-time (.2) teaching position for the 2019-

2020 school year in connection with the proposed elimination of the Culinary Arts Food Management Program; and

WHEREAS Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal challenging the violation of his tenure and seniority rights by Respondent's decision to reduce his full-time teaching position to a .2 teaching position during the 2019-2020 school year; and

WHEREAS in May 2020 Respondent thereafter authorized the termination of Petitioner's employment in connection with a reduction in force to eliminate the position of Teacher of Earth Science; and

WHEREAS Respondent recalled Petitioner to employment in a full-time teaching position on or about September 1, 2023 for the 2023-2024 school year, and Petitioner continues in that position; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner and Respondent, upon consultation with their respective counsel, have independently concluded that it is in their respective best interests to settle and resolve this dispute, with each party to bear their own counsel fees, costs and disbursements;

NOW THEREFORE, it is agreed by and between the Parties hereto as follows:

1. Respondent agrees to pay to Petitioner the gross amount of $11,720.62, subject to standard and ordinary payroll deductions, which is the back pay of $88,730.00 Petitioner should have received for the 2020-2021 school year less monies Petitioner received from unemployment benefits and other sources during that time period.

2. Respondent agrees to pay to Petitioner the gross amount of $91,316.00, subject to standard and ordinary payroll deductions, which is the back pay Petitioner should have received for the 2021-2022 school year.

3. Respondent agrees to pay to Petitioner the gross amount of $93,506.00, subject to standard and ordinary payroll deductions, which is the back pay Petitioner should have received for the 2022-2023 school year.

4. Respondent shall be liable to the Division of Pensions and Benefits and/or Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund (TPAF) for the payment of Respondent's share, if any, of pension contributions for the back pay for the 2020-2021, 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 school years, as set forth in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 above. Petitioner shall be liable for the employee's or member's share of pension contributions to TPAF, and these pension contributions shall be deducted from the back pay payments due to Petitioner, as set forth in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 above.

5. The Parties understand that Respondent cannot assure that Petitioner will receive pension credit or any amount of a specific pension credit because that determination must be made by the Division of Pensions and/or the Board of Trustees of the TPAF. Respondent agrees to take all reasonable actions to assist Petitioner in acquiring pension credit for the back pay for the 2020-2021, 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 school years.

6. If Respondent has not already done so, it shall promptly reinstate all accrued sick days which Petitioner had at the time of the termination of his employment effective June 30, 2020.

7. Along with receiving fully seniority credit for the 2020-2021, 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 school years, Petitioner is also be entitled to 15 sick days for each of the three (3) school years; Respondent shall ensure that those forty-five (45) sick days are added to any accrued sick days held by Petitioner at the time of the termination of his employment.

8. With the seniority credit for the 2020-2021, 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 school years, Petitioner is also entitled to longevity for completing fifteen (15) years of service with the District and is entitled to a longevity payment of $1,603.00 for the current school year (2023-2024. This payment shall be made by Respondent to Petitioner within thirty (30) days of approval of the terms and conditions of this settlement, if said payment has not already been incorporated into Petitioner's pay.

9. Petitioner shall withdraw the Petition of Appeal presently pending before the Office of Administrative Law and Commissioner of Education, with prejudice, when his counsel receives notice and documentation that Respondent has approved the terms and conditions of this settlement and executed same.

10. Respondent shall make payment to Petitioner of the back pay award of $196,542.62, less the pension and other payroll deductions set forth above, within thirty (30) days after the Division of Pensions and/or the Board of Trustees of the TPAF advise the Respondent of the amount due for back pension contributions.

11. Respondent shall also make payment to Petitioner of the sum of $2,473.00, subject to standard and ordinary payroll deductions, as compensation for teaching a 7th period class from September 1, 2019 to November 22, 2019 (62 days @$39.89 per day). This was the subject of a grievance and settlement negotiations between the parties prior to the termination of Petitioner's employment in June 2020. This payment shall be made by Respondent to Petitioner within thirty (30) days after the Division of Pensions and/or the Board of Trustees of the TPAF advise the Respondent of the amount due for back pension contributions.

12. This Settlement Agreement resolves any and all claims by Petitioner arising from Respondent's reduction and termination of his employment, effective June 30, 2019, and regarding Petitioner's allegation that Respondent acted unlawfully in terminating his employment and/or in failing to retain Petitioner in a full-time teaching position.

13. The Parties hereto agree that this Settlement Agreement may not be modified, altered, or changed except by written agreement signed by the Parties hereto. In the event, however, that this Agreement requires some modification to facilitate its acceptance by TPAF and its approval by the Commissioner of Education, the Parties agree to make such modification in a timely fashion to effectuate the intent of the Parties as to this Agreement. The Parties further acknowledge that this constitutes the entire agreement between them, superseding all prior written and oral agreements. If any provision of this Settlement Agreement is held to be invalid, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

14. By signing this Settlement Agreement, the Parties certify that they have had the opportunity to discuss this Agreement with counsel. They are fully satisfied with the services of their counsel with respect to both this Settlement Agreement and all other aspects of this case and they enter into this Settlement Agreement knowingly, willingly, and without any coercion or improper inducements.

15. The Parties agree that this Settlement Agreement may be signed in counterparts and that facsimiles of signatures will have the same force and effect as original signatures.

16. This Settlement Agreement is subject to the approval of the NJ Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education and shall not be binding until said approvals are received.

17. By entering into this Settlement Agreement, each party releases and discharges the other with respect to all claims or rights that either party may have against the other for anything which has happened up until the date that this Settlement Agreement is executed by all parties. This includes without limitation, any and all actions, claims and liabilities of whatsoever kind or character, in law or equity, now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, directly or indirectly related to the Petitioner's employment with the Respondent. It specifically includes without limitation, all claims which the Petitioner may have regarding Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 ("COBRA"), 29 U.S.C. §1161 et seq., withholding of increment, discrimination on any basis, any federal or state civil rights law, claims under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §2000(e) et seq. as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1981 through 1988, the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., of 1990, the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:501 et seq., the Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. §2601 et seq., the New Jersey Family Medical Leave Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1, et seq., and any other federal or state civil rights claims, including claims of age discrimination and other rights and claims arising under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act and the Older Workers' Benefits Protection Act, rights under any collective bargaining agreement, disability payments, sick leave, salary or any other matter pertaining to her employment, any claims arising under common law, including but not limited to, theories of tort or contract (express or implied), assault, battery, defamation, discrimination, negligent supervision, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, negligent hire/retention/supervision, tortious interference with an economic or prospective advantage, wrongful termination, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, or a violation of public policy.

18. This Agreement is not an admission by any of the Parties and/or any of their agents, employees or representatives of any wrongdoing or liability and is being entered into solely for the purpose of economic expediency. There are no prevailing parties in this matter. The Settlement Sum is inclusive of attorneys' fees and costs. The Respondent is not obligated to pay any monies in excess of the settlement sum set forth herein.

19. The Parties have not relied upon any representations, promises, or agreements of any kind made to them in connection with this Settlement Agreement, except for those set forth in this Settlement Agreement.

20. This Settlement Agreement is made, entered into, and executed in the State of New Jersey, and shall in all respects be interpreted, enforced and governed under the law of the State of New Jersey.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year written below.

Richard Derkacs

Dated: 06/14/2024

Richard Derkacs

ZAZZALI P.C.
Attorneys for Petitioner

Dated: 6/14/2024

By: Kathleen Naprstek Cerisano, Esq.

Essex County Vocational Technical Schools Board of Education

By:

Dated: 6/24/2024

DURKIN & DURKIN, LLC
Attorneys for Respondent

Dated: 6/20/24

By: M. Murphy Durkin, Esq.

Essex County Vocational Technical Schools
BOARD OF EDUCATION

REV. EDWIN D. LEAHY, O.S.B.
PRESIDENT

ADRIANNE DAVIS
VICE PRESIDENT

MEMBERS

REGINALD BLEDSOE
SALVATORE CARNOVALE
JENNIFER M. CARRILLO-PEREZ
LEESANDRA MEDINA
DR. CHRIS T. PERNELL

DR. JAMES M. PEDERSEN
SUPERINTENDENT

BERNETTA DAVIS
BUSINESS ADMINISTRATOR

LORI TANNER
BOARD SECRETARY

M. MURPHY DURKIN, ESQ
BOARD ATTORNEY

Extract From The Minutes Of A Meeting Of The Essex County Schools of Technology Board of Education
As Recorded In The Official Minute Book

The Board of Education of the Essex County Schools of Technology Schools District in the County of Essex, New Jersey convened for the Regular Board Meeting on June 10, 2024 at the LeRoy Smith, Jr. Public Safety Building, 60 Nelson Place, 14th Floor, Sheila Oliver Conference Room, Newark, NJ 07102. The members of the Board of Education present and absent at the time of this action were:

Present: Mr. Reginald Bledsoe, Mr. Salvatore Carnovale, Ms. LeeSandra Medina, Dr. Chris T. Pernell

Absent: Ms. Jennifer Carrillo-Perez, Ms. Adrianne Davis, Rev. Edwin D. Leahy, O.S.B.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF ESSEX

I, Lori Tanner, Board Secretary of the Board of Education in the County of Essex, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that the following extract from the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Education duly called and held on the date indicated has been compared by me with the original minutes as officially recorded in my office in the Minutes Book of said Essex County Vocational Technical Schools District; and is a true, complete copy thereof and of the whole of said original minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matter referred to in said extract in witness I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Essex County Vocational Technical Schools District.

Resolution #24-636: Authorization for the District to Enter into a Settlement Agreement and Release with regard to a case captioned Richard Derkacs v. Essex County Schools of Technology Board of Education, Essex County, OAL Docket No. EDU-11568-2019 for the sum of $199,015.62, Local Funds

WHEREAS, on or about July 17, 2019, Richard Derkacs ("Mr. Derkacs") filed an action captioned Richard Derkacs v. Essex County Schools of Technology Board of Education, Essex County with the Office of Administrative Law under docket no. EDU-11568-2019 alleging in part that his employment with the District was improperly terminated in furtherance of a reduction in force. The District thereafter filed the appropriate responsive pleadings to same; and

WHEREAS, during the pendency of the above referenced action, Mr. Derkacs's employment was reinstated with the District. Additionally, there have been numerous settlement discussions by and between the District and Mr. Derkacs, through his attorney, Kathleen Naprstek Cerisano, Esq. of Zazzali P.C., with regard to settlement. These discussions have resulted in Mr. Derkacs agreeing to accept the sum of $199,015.62, subject to standard and ordinary payroll deductions, in full satisfaction of all claims. M. Murphy Durkin, Board Counsel, has further discussed this matter with the Superintendent of Schools who hereby recommends to the Board that they authorize the involved Settlement Agreement and Release; and

WHEREAS, Bernetta Davis, Business Administrator, hereby represents to the Board that there are sufficient funds within the District's Local Funds to fully fund the settlement and that said payment will not adversely affect the financial stability of the District; now

On the motion of Ms. Medina, seconded by Dr. Pernell, BE IT RESOLVED, that upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, the Board hereby authorizes the District to enter into a Settlement Agreement and Release with regard to the case captioned Richard Derkacs v. Essex County Schools of Technology Board of Education, Essex County under Office of Administrative Law docket no. EDU-11568-2019 in the sum of $199,015.62, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement and Release, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as if fully set forth; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Dr. James Pedersen, Superintendent of Schools, and/or Bernetta Davis, Business Administrator, are hereby authorized by the Board to execute the Settlement Agreement and Release as referenced above.

Yeas: Mr. Bledsoe, Mr. Carnovale, Ms. Medina, Dr. Pernell, Ms. Davis, Fr. Leahy
Nays: None
Absent: Ms. Perez, Ms. Davis, Fr. Leahy

Lori Tanner
Board Secretary

July 16, 2024
Date

325-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

N.H., on behalf of minor child, S.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Kingsway Regional School District, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner appealed the long-term suspension imposed by the respondent Board upon her daughter, S.A., for her alleged participation in an altercation in the cafeteria at Kingsway Regional High School on March 6, 2023. Petitioner contended that the Board, inter alia, failed to follow applicable statutes and regulations when imposing a long-term suspension upon S.A., rendering its decision arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable. Petitioner sought to reverse the suspension and to compel the Board to expunge any reference to a long-term suspension from S.A.'s student record; petitioner further sought an order compelling the Board to allow S.A. to return to the general education setting immediately.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: following a lengthy period of discussions, discovery, and motion practice, the respondent Board submitted a letter dated July 18, 2024, voluntarily withdrawing its answer and separate defenses to the petition; as such, the facts set forth in N.H.'s verified petition are uncontested. The ALJ concluded that justice, fairness in administration, and simplicity require that, consistent with the spirit of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3, the facts outlined in petitioner's complaint be adopted and incorporated by reference. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered that S.A.'s long-term suspension be reversed; that S.A. be returned to the general education setting at Kingsway without restriction; that S.A.'s disciplinary record be amended to reflect a lesser violation of Kingsway's code of conduct; that all references to the improperly imposed long-term suspension be removed from S.A.'s student records and that such records be amended to reflect the initial short term suspension of eight days; and that S.A.'s attendance records reflect that from March 17, 2023 to June 14, 2024, S.A. received home instruction, without reference to any suspension.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader and has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

325-24
OAL Dkt. No. 13237-23
Agency Dkt. No. 298-10/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

N.H., on behalf of minor child, S.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Kingsway Regional School District, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that, following the Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education's (Board) withdrawal of its opposition to the petition of appeal, the facts outlined in the petition should be adopted. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's orders regarding the relief to be granted to petitioner, as comprehensively outlined in the Initial Decision. Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 5, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 6, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13237-23

AGENCY DKT. NO. 298-10/23

N.H. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, S.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

KINGSWAY REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION, GLOUCESTER COUNTY

Respondent.

Sarah E. Zuba, Esq., for petitioner N.H., on behalf of minor child, S.A. (Reisman, Carolla, Gran & Zuba, LLP, attorneys)

Stephen J. Edelstein, Esq., for respondent Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education, Gloucester County (Weiner Law Group, LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 18, 2024 Decided: July 31, 2024

BEFORE ROBERT D. HERMAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, N.H., on behalf of her daughter, S.A., filed a verified petition seeking various relief from respondent, the Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education, Gloucester County (Board). The Board withdrew its answer and separate defenses during the litigation. The issues presented are: (1) what to do when the respondent in a Department of Education matter withdraws its answer and separate defenses; and (2) what relief, if any, may be granted.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 6, 2023, S.A. was involved in an altercation at Kingsway Regional High School (KRHS). On March 7, 2023, disciplinary action was initiated against S.A., resulting in an eight-day out-of-school suspension. N.H. sought appeal of the infraction level and suspension imposed on S.A. On March 16, 2023, the superintendent, Dr. James Lavender, sought to increase the out-of-school suspension from eight days to indefinite.

On July 27, 2023, a disciplinary hearing was conducted before the Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education. At the conclusion of the hearing, the Board voted to uphold the infraction level and discipline recommended by Dr. Lavender. This was formalized in an undated Board resolution. On September 8, 2023, N.H. received a letter from the Board dated August 3, 2023, and a copy of the Board's resolution upholding the infraction level and discipline imposed.

On October 31, 2023, petitioner filed her verified petition with the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education (Commissioner). On November 20, 2023, the Board filed an Answer to Petition of Appeal and Separate Defenses. On November 22, 2023, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23.

On December 26, 2023, petitioner filed her first motion for emergent relief. Following extensive discussions between counsel, the motion for emergent relief was withdrawn on January 18, 2024. After attempts at resolution proved unsuccessful, a final prehearing conference was conducted on February 14, 2024.

On March 1, 2024, the Board filed a motion for summary decision based upon the alleged failure to file an appeal within ninety days of notification of the disciplinary final order pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). An order denying the Board's motion for summary decision was entered on April 16, 2024. On April 23, 2024, the Board applied to the Commissioner seeking interlocutory review and reversal of the April 16, 2024, order denying its motion for summary decision.

On May 3, 2024, in a four-page decision, the Commissioner denied the Board's request for interlocutory review. D.O.E. Order 178-24 (May 3, 2024). In the decision, the Commissioner explained the Board's obligations pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3(c), N.J:A.C. 6A:16-7.3(d), and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3(e). Further, and while S.A.'s suspension is ongoing, the Commissioner required the Board to make determinations pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3(d) at its next scheduled meeting and at every scheduled Board meeting thereafter. Id. at 3–4.

Following the matter's return to the OAL, settlement discussions again commenced but, as before, failed to bear fruit. On May 20, 2024, petitioner filed a second emergent motion seeking to "[r]everse the Board's determination following the July 27, 2023 hearing to continue S.A.'s suspension; and . . . [o]rder the Board to allow S.A. to return to the general education setting without any further conditions or restrictions immediately."[1] On May 21, 2024, petitioner's motion seeking emergent relief was transmitted to the OAL for determination.

Also on May 21, 2024, the Board provided its opposition to petitioner's motion for emergent relief. The Board supplemented its opposition by way of certification from Dr. Lavender on May 23, 2024.

On May 24, 2024, in advance of oral argument, the administrative law judge (ALJ) sent counsel a letter with six questions for consideration and response. The Board provided a written response on May 25, 2024, and petitioner provided a written response the day thereafter.

[1] Petitioner's Motion for Emergent Relief, May 20, 2024, at 2.

On May 28, 2024, extensive oral argument was conducted. Following oral argument, the record remained open for the Board to submit a copy of the May 27, 2024, executive session "meeting minutes" and for petitioner to provide supplemental submissions involving extracurricular activities at KRHS. On May 30, 2024, the Board provided the meeting minutes. Also on May 30, 2024, petitioner provided supplemental submissions relating to the Naval Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (NJROTC) cadet program at KRHS and S.A.'s request to partake in "senior portraits," which were scheduled at KRHS on June 20, 2024, and June 21, 2024.

On May 31, 2024, the OAL sent an email to the Board's counsel. First, the email asked if the Board consented to petitioner sitting for her senior portraits. Second, the email asked the Board if it considered anything additional, in greater depth, or with greater detail than what is contained in the May 27, 2024, summary in its May 16, 2024, Executive or Public Session(s).

In a response dated Friday, May 31, 2024, the Board advised that it did not consent to petitioner sitting for her senior portraits. After close of business on the same day, the Board emailed a response to the second query, advising that its considerations were reflected in Dr. Lavender's May 23, 2024, certification, which was previously submitted and of which a courtesy copy was provided with the response.

The Board's after-hours email of May 31, 2024, was reviewed by me on Monday, June 3, 2024. Following review and in an order dated June 4, 2024, petitioner's emergent relief was granted in part and denied in part.

By decision dated June 14, 2024, the Commissioner affirmed in part (senior portraits) and reversed in part (Commissioner then granting immediate reentry into KRHS and NJROTC) my order of June 4, 2024.

Following receipt of the Commissioner's June 14, 2024, decision, discussions were held between the ALJ and counsel. Ultimately, these discussions culminated in the Board withdrawing its Answer to Petition of Appeal and Separate Defenses. On July 18, 2024, the Board expressly withdrew its opposition to petitioner's verified petition.

FACTS

Following extensive discussions, discovery, motion practice, and upon receipt of the July 18, 2024, correspondence from the Board, and after a colloquy between the parties and myself, I FIND that respondent, Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education, by way of letter dated July 18, 2024, which is attached to this initial decision, knowingly and voluntarily withdrew its answer and separate defenses to petitioner's Verified Petition of Appeal. I FURTHER FIND, for the reasons set forth herein, that the facts set forth in petitioner's verified petition are uncontested, and for purposes of this initial decision, true. As such, the statements of fact set forth in petitioner's Verified Petition of Appeal, to wit, paragraphs 1–34, are hereby incorporated by reference.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The Board's withdrawal of its answer and separate defenses during the course of litigation presents a rather unusual issue for consideration. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a), a respondent in Department of Education matters is required to "serve an answer upon the petitioner within 20 days after receipt of the petition, unless a shorter period is required by statute, regulation, or court order, or directed by the Commissioner due to the emergent nature of a matter." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a). Where a respondent fails to answer such petition timely, notice is sent to petitioner advising that, "unless an answer is filed within 10 days of the receipt of said notice, each count in the petition shall be deemed admitted and the Commissioner may decide the matter on a summary basis." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e). The opposite of this, where a respondent knowingly and voluntarily withdraws its answer, is not covered.

Essentially, there are four potential ways to go about this. The first is to return the matter to the agency for want of jurisdiction. See generally N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3 (Return of Transmitted Cases) (withdrawal of answer not listed). This is economical but not particularly responsive to the situation. The second is to consider this an uncontested matter. In itself, this fits within the ambit of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e) where each count is deemed admitted. However, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e) involves those matters filed with the Department of Education and where jurisdiction is not yet conveyed to the OAL. Third, the matter could be treated as one for summary disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). Though arguably no motion was filed, the administrative rules "may be relaxed or disregarded if the judge determines that adherence would result in unfairness or injustice." N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(b). Fourth, and perhaps most importantly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(a), the procedural rules "shall be construed to achieve just results, simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay." N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(a). Together, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(a) (construction of administrative rules) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(b) (focus on fairness and justice) are a potent combination.

It is now late July, and summer recess enters its final month. September, and with it the beginning of the new school year, will be here quickly. There is no reason to wait; there is no reason to delay. The fourth option, noted above, includes a combination of the prior three and makes the most sense in this circumstance. It is time.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that justice, fairness in administration, and, equally important, simplicity—both individually and collectively—require that the facts outlined in petitioner's verified complaint are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference. This is consistent with the spirit of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3. Based on this, petitioner's requests for relief should be, and will be, granted.

ORDER

As a result of respondent's withdrawal of its opposition to petitioner's verified complaint, I ORDER that the following relief be granted based upon the relief sought in the Verified Petition of Appeal:

1. The Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education's determination to continue S.A.'s suspension on or about July 27, 2023, shall be and hereby is REVERSED.

2. S.A. shall be returned to the general education setting at Kingsway Regional High School forthwith, along with all rights of participation, privileges, and abilities associated therewith, without restriction.

3. In paragraph 32 of her verified petition, petitioner submits that the disciplinary charge of Tier IV.A. Assault, as set forth in the Kingsway Regional High School 2022–2023 Student Handbook, is unsupported and that any such finding by the Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education was "arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable in light of the offense." Petitioner sought, in her demand for relief, at paragraph (d), "such other relief as is necessary and proper and within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner." Pursuant to this demand for relief, I FURTHER ORDER that petitioner's disciplinary/school record(s) be amended to reflect a violation of "Tier III.I. Incitement to Fight," a "Misdemeanor" violation, which includes "verbal or electronic threats and/or battery (unwanted physical contact)," for and relating to the March 6, 2023, altercation.

4. Pursuant to petitioner's demand for relief, at paragraph (b) of petitioner's verified petition, I FURTHER ORDER that references to the long-term suspension improperly imposed in this matter be removed from petitioner's disciplinary/school record(s) and that such records are amended to reflect the initial short-term suspension of eight days.

5. Pursuant to petitioner's demand for relief, at paragraph (b) and paragraph (d) of petitioner's verified petition, I FURTHER ORDER that petitioner's school attendance record reflect, from March 17, 2023, through June 14, 2024, inclusive, that petitioner received "home instruction" without reference to any suspension or reference to any action or inaction by Kingsway Regional High School, including its administration, by the Kingsway Regional School District administration, or by the Kingsway Regional School District Board of Education.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 31, 2024
DATE

ROBERT D. HERMAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:

RDH/sw/dc

LIST OF EXHIBITS

Petitioner's October 31, 2023, Verified Petition of Appeal (7 pages)

Respondent's July 18, 2024, letter to the ALJ (1 page)

326-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 14295-23
Agency Dkt. No. 322-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

D.R. and S.P., on behalf of minor child, A.R.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 5, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 6, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
APPROVING SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 14295-23
AGENCY REF. NO. 322-11/23

D.R. AND S.P. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD A.R.,
Petitioner,

v.

TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH BRUNSWICK
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

Michelle M. Schott, Esq., for petitioner (Flanagan Barone & O'Brien, LLC, attorneys)

Kerri A. Wright, Esq., for respondents (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, PC, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 12, 2024 Decided: July 18, 2024

BEFORE JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have agreed to settle this case and have entered into an agreement. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntary, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties in this case.

I ORDER that the settlement agreement is APPROVED, that its terms are INCORPORATED into this decision, and that this case is CONCLUDED.

I FILE my decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration. This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who is empowered by law to make a final decision in this case. If the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not so act within 45 days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision becomes a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 18, 2024
DATE

JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: July 23, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: July 23, 2024

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

BETWEEN THE

SOUTH BRUNSWICK BOARD OF EDUCATION

AND

D.R. and S.P. o/b/o A.R.

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE ("the Agreement") is between the South Brunswick Board of Education ("the Board") and D.R. and S.P. ("Parents"), the parents and legal guardians of A.R. acting on behalf of A.R. (collectively, "the Parties").

WHEREAS, Parents filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education which is docketed as EDU 14295-2023, in regards to the Board's decision to discipline A.R., which said discipline was placed in the student's records; and

WHEREAS, a dispute arose between the Parties and in order to avoid the expense and uncertainty of litigation, the Parties agreed to enter into the within Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have negotiated the terms of settlement, in order to resolve this matter without the need for further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties agree to be bound as follows:

1. The District will expunge the disciplinary action at issue, including detentions and the suspension and remove any and all documentation related to the action, from A.R.'s student's records, within 10 days of full execution of this Agreement.

2. The District agrees that the allegation of conduct which gave way to the disciplinary action that is the basis for the Complaint in the above matter shall not be considered should an adverse disciplinary action be contemplated or taken by the District against A.R. based on acts of A.R. in the future that warrant discipline.

3. The Parents agree to withdraw their pending Petition of Appeal in reliance upon this Agreement and Release.

4. The Parents, on their own behalf and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, on behalf of A.R., hereby irrevocably and unconditionally releases and forever discharge the South Brunswick Board of Education, any and all related entities, its past or present board members, attorneys, agents, representatives, and employees from any and all claims or causes of action they may have or claim to have against the Board, its past or present board members, attorneys, agents, representatives, and employees both past and present, known and unknown, foreseen and unforeseen, at law or in equity, or which could be asserted on his behalf by any person, government authority, or entity, resulting from or relating to any act or omission of any kind occurring on or before the date of this Agreement, including any claims as against the Board, any and all related entities, its past or present board members, attorneys, agents, representatives, and employees; arising out of or relating in any way to the issues in the Petition of Appeal.

5. The Parties agree that they fully understand and consent to the terms set forth herein. Specifically, both Parties have consulted with and/or have had the opportunity to consult with their respective attorneys regarding the terms of this Agreement and, to the extent that the Parties are represented by counsel, they are satisfied with the legal services that they have received with respect to same. The Parties further acknowledge that this Agreement is the result of negotiations between represented Parties and that it shall not be interpreted as having been written solely by either party and that neither party shall be entitled to any deference in the interpretation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

6. Parent's signature below represents their agreement to the terms stated herein on behalf of themselves and their minor child, A.R.

7. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

8. In the event that any term and/or provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable by any court, tribunal and/or governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, such ruling shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the terms in this Agreement, which shall continue to be in full force and effect.

9. The undersigned represent that they each have the requisite authority to sign this Agreement on behalf of the respective party.

10. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the Parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

[Remainder of Page Intentionally Left Blank]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto set their hands to this Agreement as follows:

Dinesh Kumar Rout
D.R. a/b/o A.R.

Date: 07/02/2024

S.P. o/b/o A.R.

Date: 07/02/2024

SOUTH BRUNSWICK
BOARD OF EDUCATION

Scott Feder, Superintendent of Schools

Date: 7/8/24

327-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 14294-23
Agency Dkt. No. 327-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

P.P., on behalf of minor child, V.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 5, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 6, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
APPROVING SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 14294-23
AGENCY REF. NO. 327-11/23

P.P. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD V.P.,
Petitioner,

v.

TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH BRUNSWICK
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

Michelle Schott, Esq., for petitioner (Flanagan Barone & O'Brien, LLC, attorneys)

Bradley R. Flynn, Esq., for petitioner (Montgomery Law, PLLC, attorneys)

Kerri A. Wright, Esq., for respondents (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, PC, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 12, 2024 Decided: July 18, 2024

BEFORE JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have agreed to settle this case and have entered into an agreement. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntary, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties in this case.

I ORDER that the settlement agreement is APPROVED, that its terms are INCORPORATED into this decision, and that this case is CONCLUDED.

I FILE my decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration. This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who is empowered by law to make a final decision in this case. If the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not so act within 45 days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision becomes a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 18, 2024
DATE

JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: July 23, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: July 23 2024

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

BETWEEN THE

SOUTH BRUNSWICK BOARD OF EDUCATION

AND

P.P. o/b/o V.P.

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE ("the Agreement") is between the South Brunswick Board of Education ("the Board") and P.P. ("Parent"), the parent and legal guardian of V.P. acting on behalf of V.P. (collectively, "the Parties").

WHEREAS, Parent filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education which is docketed as EDU 14294-2023, in regards to the Board's decision to discipline V.P., which said discipline was placed in the student's records; and

WHEREAS, a dispute arose between the Parties and in order to avoid the expense and uncertainty of litigation, the Parties agreed to enter into the within Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have negotiated the terms of settlement, in order to resolve this matter without the need for further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties agree to be bound as follows:

1. The District will expunge the disciplinary action at issue, including detentions and the suspension and remove any and all documentation related to the action, from V.P.'s student's records, within 10 days of full execution of this Agreement.

2. The District agrees that the allegation of conduct which gave way to the disciplinary action that is the basis for the Complaint in the above matter shall not be considered should an adverse disciplinary action be contemplated or taken by the District against V.P. based on acts of V.P. in the future that warrant discipline.

Doc ID: 2e313a7b9a14f17f92d169f7d856fdf82bbed36b

3. The Parent agrees to withdraw their pending Petition of Appeal with prejudice.

4. The Parent, on their own behalf and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, on behalf of V.P., hereby irrevocably and unconditionally releases and forever discharges the South Brunswick Board of Education, any and all related entities, its past or present board members, attorneys, agents, representatives, and employees from any and all claims or causes of action they may have or claim to have against the Board, its past or present board members, attorneys, agents, representatives, and employees both past and present, known and unknown, foreseen and unforeseen, at law or in equity, or which could be asserted on his behalf by any person, government authority, or entity, resulting from or relating to any act or omission of any kind occurring on or before the date of this Agreement, including any claims as against the Board, any and all related entities, its past or present board members, attorneys, agents, representatives, and employees; arising out of or relating in any way to the issues in the Petition of Appeal.

5. The Parties agree that they fully understand and consent to the terms set forth herein. Specifically, both Parties have consulted with and/or have had the opportunity to consult with their respective attorneys regarding the terms of this Agreement and, to the extent that the Parties are represented by counsel, they are satisfied with the legal services that they have received with respect to same. The Parties further acknowledge that this Agreement is the result of negotiations between represented Parties and that it shall not be interpreted as having been written solely by either party and that neither party shall be entitled to any deference in the interpretation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

6. Parent's signature below represents their agreement to the terms stated herein on behalf of themselves and their minor child, V.P.

Doc ID: 2e313a7b9a14f17f92d169f7d856fdf82bbed36b

7. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

8. In the event that any term and/or provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable by any court, tribunal and/or governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, such ruling shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the terms in this Agreement, which shall continue to be in full force and effect.

9. The undersigned represent that they each have the requisite authority to sign this Agreement on behalf of the respective party.

10. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the Parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

[Remainder of Page Intentionally Left Blank]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto set their hands to this Agreement as follows:

P.P. o/b/o V.P.

7750583

Date: 07 / 01 / 2024

SOUTH BRUNSWICK
BOARD OF EDUCATION

Lisa M. Rodgers

Lisa Rodgers, President

Date 7/8/24

7750583

Doc ID: 2e313a7b9a14f17f92d169f7d856fdf82bbed36b

328-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 05664-24
Agency Dkt. No. 92-4/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

B.P., on behalf of minor child, A.L.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Morris, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement and Mutual Release Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 3 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement. Further, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 7 of the Agreement includes a confidentiality clause. The parties are reminded that the Board must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. in regard to information concerning this matter, notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 5, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 6, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05664-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 92-4/24

B.P. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.L.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MORRIS, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

B.P., petitioner, pro se

Melanie D. Lipomanis, Esq., for respondent (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: July 24, 2024 Decided: July 25, 2024

BEFORE R. TALI EPSTEIN, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have settled this case and have entered into an agreement. Their settlement agreement and the certified resolution of the Morris Township Board of Education approving same are attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their settlement agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntarily, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties.

I ORDER that the settlement agreement is APPROVED, that its terms are INCORPORATED into this decision, and that this case is CONCLUDED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 25, 2024
DATE

R. TALI EPSTEIN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____
cc

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This settlement agreement ("Agreement") made
by and between

Morris School District Board of Education ("Board")

AND

Ms. B.P. o/b/o A.L.,

WHEREAS, the Board is duly organized as a public school district under the laws of the State of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, "residency" for purposes of statutory eligibility to be enrolled in a public school district is defined as where a parent and child live and sleep full-time; and

WHEREAS, following the District's investigation which included residential surveillance and a home inspection, the Board determined that Ms. P. and A.L. do not reside at 114 Franklin Street, Apartment 8B2, Morristown, New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that A.L. is no longer entitled to a free education within the District pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Ms. P. appealed to the Commissioner of Education to overrule the Board's residency decision, and the District intends to seek an award of tuition from Ms. P. for January 1, 2024 through the last date of A.L.'s attendance in a District school in that pending proceeding; and

WHEREAS, in order to avoid the time and expense of further litigation of this matter before the Commissioner of Education, the Parties agreed to enter into a settlement agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises hereinafter set forth, the Board and Ms. P. (collectively "Parties" and each individually a "Party") desire to enter into the within Agreement as follows:

1. 2023-2024 School Year: A. L. shall be permitted to remain in the District for the remainder of the 2023-2024 school year.

2. Tuition Abeyance: Conditioned upon the fulfilment of the terms of this Agreement, the Board agrees not to seek an award of tuition for A.L. for attending school in the District as a non-resident student, from January 1, 2024 through June 30, 2024 school year.

3. 2024-2025 School Year: Following the completion of the 2023-2024 school year, the Parties agree that A.L. shall be removed from the District's enrollment and enrolled in the school district where the student then resides no later than June 30, 2024 for the start of the 2024-2025 school year. Ms. P. shall provide the District with proof of enrollment in the resident district no later than July 15, 2024. The Parties further agree and acknowledge that the Board shall have no further financial obligation toward A.L.'s education, and Ms. P. shall not attempt to re-enroll A.L. in the District unless and until Ms. P. and A.L. become actual and observable full-time residents within the Morris School District.

4. Withdrawal and Release. In exchange for the consideration set forth herein, including, but not limited to the Board permitting A.L. to complete the 2023-2024 school year and holding its collection of tuition for A.L.'s attendance from January 1, 2024 through June 30, 2024, in abeyance subject to the terms of this Agreement, Ms. P. releases and gives up any and all claims and rights she may have against the Board for any damages or injuries to A.L. in connection with A.L.'s education, including any claim for compensatory education, compensatory damages, punitive damages, or any damages or injuries to A.L., arising out of alleged acts or omissions, whether known or unknown, that have taken place through the date of this Agreement. As used in this Agreement, the term "Board" means: the Morris School District Board of Education, its current or former elected or appointed officials, administrators, employees, attorneys, agents, servants, representatives, predecessors and successors, insurance carriers, and all other persons or entities for whom any of the above have been or may be legally responsible. Ms. P. specifically releases the following claims as to the Board:

a. Any and all civil and administrative claims and rights she may have against the Board for any damages or injuries, including any civil claim for compensatory damages, punitive damages, or any damages or injuries to A.L. arising out of the residency/domicile or education of the minor child A.L. during the time period he attended school in the District, whether known or unknown, that have taken place through the date of this Agreement; and

b. Any and all claims that could have been brought in any civil or administrative venue that Ms. P. could assert now, or in the future, resulting from any action or failure to act occurring prior to the time of this Agreement, under any provision of any law, common or statutory, of the United States, New Jersey or any other state, city, county, or locality, including but not limited to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1400 et seq.; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. § 794; Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12132; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:1-2; and N.J.A.C. 6A:14-1 et seq.; and

c. Any and all available claims for attorney's fees and expert costs, and any other fees and costs, under any law or regulation.

5. Agreement Not to Sue. Ms. P. agrees not to file any lawsuit or claim against the Board, based on any events, whether known or unknown, occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, in any court or tribunal of the United States, New Jersey or any other state, city, county, or locality, for any claims released in this Agreement.

6. Indemnification and Hold Harmless. Ms. P. agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Board and its representatives, insurers, third party administrators and attorneys from any claims arising up to the date this Agreement is duly executed, including, but not limited to, the following: (A) Any claim that may be brought by Ms. P. during and at any time subsequent to the term of this Agreement that challenges A.L.'s residency and/or domicile in the District; (B) Any claim that may be brought by Ms. P. during and at any time subsequent to the term of this Agreement, alleging a denial of FAPE under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20

U.S.C. § 1400 et seq. and its implementing regulations while this Agreement is in effect; (C) Any claims that may be brought by Ms. P. during and at any time subsequent to the term of this Agreement alleging a violation of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. § 794; (D) Any claims that may be brought by Ms. P. during and at any time subsequent to the term of this Agreement alleging a violation of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12132; and (E) Any claims that may be brought by Ms. P. during and at any time subsequent to the term of this Agreement alleging a violation of the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:1-2.

7. Confidentiality. Ms. P. specifically acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement was reached without any admission by the Board of any of the acts or omissions alleged or those that could have been alleged. Ms. P. agrees that they will keep the terms of this Agreement confidential, to the extent permitted by law. Ms. P. acknowledges that this confidentiality requirement is a material term to this Agreement.

8. Board Remedy for Breach of Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that under the terms of this Agreement, the Board has agreed to hold its demand and collection efforts for tuition payment in abeyance for the period A.L. attended a district school as a non-resident from January 1, 2024 through present. In the event Ms. P. does not abide by the terms of this Agreement and enrolls A. L. as a student in the 2024-2025 school year, and A.L. is subsequently found to be a non-resident of the District, as defined in this Agreement, the District will not be bound by this term, and specifically preserves its right to demand and seek collection remedies for all tuition owed for the 2023-2024 and 2024-2025 periods in which A.L. attended a District school as a non-resident.

9. No Precedent. The Parties agree that this Agreement may not be used to establish precedent in any future proceeding of any type whatsoever involving the Board and that it shall be inadmissible in any such proceeding, other than a proceeding to enforce or prove the existence of same.

10. Who is Bound. The Parties and their agents are bound by this Agreement. Those who succeed to their rights and responsibilities, such as heirs, the executors of their estate, or their personal or legal representatives, are also bound.

11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the sole and the entire agreement between Ms. P. and the Board, and fully supersedes any and all prior agreements and understandings between Ms. P. and the Board pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement. Ms. P. represents and acknowledges that she has not relied upon any representation or statement by the Board, or its counsel or representatives, with regard to the subject matter of this Agreement, which is not set forth in this Agreement. No other promises or agreements shall be binding unless in writing, signed by Ms. P. and the Board, and expressly stated to be a modification of this Agreement.

12. Waiver. No waiver by either Party of any term or condition of this Agreement shall be deemed or construed to constitute a waiver of any other term or condition or any subsequent breach, whether of the same or a different provision of this Agreement. Neither party may waive any of its rights or any obligations of the other party or any provision of this Agreement except by an instrument in writing signed by that party.

13. Assignment. Neither party may transfer or assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other, and any such transfer or assignment or attempt thereat shall be null and void.

14. Section Headings. Section headings are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

15. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, which, taken together, shall constitute but one instrument. It is not necessary that all parties sign all or any one of the counterparts, but each party must sign at least one counterpart for the Agreement to be effective.

16. Board Approval. This Agreement is subject to Board approval before taking effect.

17. Signatures.

BY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT MS. P. STATES THAT:

A. SHE HAS READ IT;

B. SHE AGREES WITH EVERYTHING IN IT;

C. SHE HAS BEEN ADVISED TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY PRIOR TO EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT AND HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO DO SO;

D. SHE HAS SIGNED THIS AGREEMENT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY.

Ms. P.

Dated: July 11, 2024

Morris School
District Board of Education

By: Katie Cole, Board President

Anthony LoFranco,
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

Dated: 7/22/24

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF MORRIS SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY, NEW JERSEY, AS RECORDED IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTE BOOK.

The Board of Education of Morris School District, in the County of Morris, New Jersey, convened in Regular Session on Monday, July 22, 2024, at 6:30 p.m. at Morristown High School Learning Commons, 50 Early Street, Morristown, NJ 07960.

The following members of the Board of Education were present: Mrs. Katie Cole, Mrs. Meredith Davidson, Ms. Lucia Galdi, Mr. Cary Lloyd, Ms. Linda K. Murphy, Mrs. Susan Pedalino, and Mrs. Melissa Spiotta.

The following Resolution was offered by Mrs. Davidson, seconded by Mrs. Spiotta and adopted by the Board of Education by the following roll call vote:

Roll Call:
AYES:	Ms. Galdi, Mr. Lloyd, Ms. Murphy, Mrs. Pedalino, Mrs. Spiotta, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Cole
NOES:	None
ABSTAIN:	None
ABSENT:	Dr. Rodriguez, Mr. Smith, Ms. Wall

POLICY

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

Motion #3 that, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent, the Board of Education approve a Stipulation of Settlement resolving a dispute pertaining to student #704223 which is on file in the office of the Business Administrator.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)
)ss
COUNTY OF MORRIS)

I, Anthony Lo Franco, Business Administrator/Board Secretary of Morris School District, in the County of Morris, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that the foregoing Extract from the Minutes of the Meeting of the Board of Education of said district, duly called and held on Monday, July 22, 2024 compared by me with the original Minutes as officially recorded in my office in the Minute Book of said Morris School District Board of Education, and is a true complete copy thereof and of the whole of said original Minutes so far as the same relate to the subject matter referred to in said Extract.

In witness, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Board of Education this 24th day of July, 2024.

(Seal)

Business Administrator/Board Secretary

329-24R+
OAL Dkt. No. 09628-20
Agency Dkt. No. 199-9/20

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

G.W. and K.W., on behalf of M.W.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Ringwood, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by the petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Ringwood Board of Education's (Board) reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioners filed an appeal of the Board's determination that their child, M.W., was not the victim of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB). Petitioners were initially represented by counsel, who was subsequently permitted to withdraw. M.W.'s father, G.W., took over handling the case, but notified the OAL in February 2024 that M.W.'s mother, K.W., would be handling the case going forward.

On April 3, 2024, the Board requested the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) approval to file a motion to dismiss. On April 9, 2024, the ALJ denied the request but granted permission for the Board to file a motion for summary decision. On April 17, 2024, K.W. sent two emails to the OAL to advise that she did not have a copy of any filings in the case prior to April 8, 2022, and requested information on how she could obtain a copy. The record does not contain any response from the OAL to K.W.'s emails.

The Board filed its second motion for summary decision on April 30, 2024. On June 10, 2024, K.W. again emailed the OAL, indicating that she did not have a copy of the motion or any of the case filings, and requesting copies. The OAL responded to indicate that K.W.'s request should be made directly to the Department of Education (DOE). Also on June 10, 2024, counsel for the Board emailed the OAL to provide proof that she had sent the motion for summary decision to K.W. by both email and mail. On June 14, 2024, the ALJ wrote to the parties stating that petitioners had prior legal counsel who should have given the file to them, and that a request for the file should have been directed to the former attorney. The ALJ set a deadline of June 20, 2024 for petitioners to respond to the Board's motion for summary decision.

When petitioners did not file a response to the motion for summary decision, the ALJ considered the motion unopposed. The ALJ found that the record was devoid of evidence supporting any of the elements of a charge of HIB.[1] As such, the ALJ concluded that there were no unresolved issues of material fact that would necessitate a plenary hearing, and that the Board's HIB determination should be affirmed.

In her exceptions, K.W. argues that she was denied access to the OAL case file and was therefore unable to respond to the Board's motion for summary decision. Petitioner requests that

[1] The Board concedes that M.W. reasonably perceived that the alleged perpetrator's conduct was motived by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic. The Board also concedes that the conduct occurred on school grounds. Respondent's Brief in Support of Motion for Summary Decision, p. 6.

the Commissioner order the OAL to provide her with a copy of the case file, as well as the opportunity to respond to the motion for summary decision after she receives the file.[2]

In response, the Board argues that its attorney sent the entirety of the discovery in this matter to K.W. on April 18, 2024. The Board also notes that K.W. could have sought a copy of the file from her former attorney, or from the DOE, as directed by the ALJ. As such, the Board urges the Commissioner to reject K.W.'s argument that she did not have access to the case file. Finally, the Board contends that there is no evidence that the incident at issue caused a substantial disruption to M.W. or the orderly operations of the district, and therefore its finding that there was no act of HIB should be affirmed.

Upon review, the Commissioner rejects the Initial Decision. Notwithstanding the fact that K.W. was provided with a copy of the discovery and the second motion for summary decision by the Board's attorney, she did not have access to the complete case file. In particular, the petition, answer, first motion for summary decision and briefs and exhibits related thereto, and the ALJ's Order denying that motion would have been critical to petitioner in responding to the second motion for summary decision.

The OAL referred K.W. to the DOE for a copy of her case file. The DOE did not receive any request from K.R, and although it would have provided all documents that it had in its possession in response to such a request, as K.W. correctly points out in her exceptions, the DOE would not have had access to the entire case file at that time. As of June 10, 2024, the DOE was only in possession of the filings submitted prior to the transmittal of the case to the OAL. Notably, the DOE did not have,

[2] K.W. also filed a document that she characterized as a motion seeking an Order that the DOE email her a copy of the record.

and could not have provided to K.W., the pleadings related to the Board's first motion for summary decision, or the ALJ's December 16, 2021 Order denying that motion.

The ALJ also indicated that K.W. could obtain a copy of the file from her former counsel. While this may be true, even if she had requested a copy of the file in this way, her former counsel would not have a complete copy of the file either, having withdrawn as counsel in 2022, well before K.W. made her request.

Given the unique circumstances of this matter, the Commissioner accepts K.W.'s argument that without a copy of the complete case file, she was unable to respond to the motion for summary decision. Accordingly, the Commissioner disagrees with the ALJ that the motion should have been considered unopposed and concludes that this matter must be remanded to the OAL so that the motion may be properly litigated. The Commissioner notes that, on the same date that this decision is mailed to the parties, the Office of Controversies and Disputes will provide a complete copy of the record in this matter to K.W. If K.W. still fails to respond to the motion for summary decision within 20 days, or any extension of that due date that the ALJ may grant, the motion may then be considered unopposed. If K.W. responds, the motion should be decided in the usual course.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is rejected. This matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 09628-20

G.W. AND K.W. ON BEHALF OF M.W.,
Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF RINGWOOD, PASSAIC COUNTY,
Respondent.

K.R., and G.W., parents of M.W., petitioner, pro se

Jessika Kleen, Esq., for respondent (Machado Law Group, attorneys)

Record Closed: June 20, 2024 Decided: June 27, 2024

BEFORE: JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners, G.W. and K.W., parents of M.W., filed for a Fair Hearing following the Ringwood Board of Education's (a/k/a the District's) determination that HIB charges brought against Joan Bredin ("Bredin"), M.W.'s teacher, did not support a finding of HIB conduct. In the Motion at bar, the Respondent seeks Summary Decision ordering the dismissal of the Petitioner's appeal.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about December 6, 2019, Joan Bredin provided a reading assignment, a three-page story titled "An Engine Without Brakes" to M.W., then a sixth grade special education student, who had been diagnosed as Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder ("ADHD").

On December 13, 2019, G.W. and K.W. (a/k/a K.R.), M/W.'s parents, learned about the assignment and made an HIB complaint. Anti-Bullying Specialist, Eric R. Erler (the "Investigator") investigated the allegations of the complaint by interviewing Bredin and a paraprofessional (a teacher's aide) who worked in the same classroom with M.W. G.W. and K.W. did not give consent for M.W. to be interviewed and so he was not interviewed. On January 8, 2020, Erler filed his HIB Investigation Narrative in which he concluded that the incident (i.e., the circumstances surrounding the assignment of the story to M.W. by Bredin) did not meet the criteria for HIB. On February 24, 2020, the Ringwood Board of Education voted to adopt the Investigator's conclusion. On May 14, 2020, counsel for G.W. and K.W. sent a letter in lieu of the appearance of G.W. and K.W. in furtherance of their appeal of the District's determination. On May 27, 2020, the HIB/Discipline Appeal Committee met. On June 1, 2020, the Board of Education voted to take no further action, thus affirming its February 24, 2020 decision to adopt the Investigator's conclusion that the criteria for HIB had not been met. On September 14, 2020, G.W. and K.W. filed a Petition of Appeal from the Board of Education's June 1, 2020 decision with the Commissioner of Education. On September 21, 2020, the Board of Education filed its Answer to the Appeal. A hearing was scheduled for April 28 and 30, 2021. In March, 2021 the two sides filed their respective motions for summary decision. Settlement discussions ensued without resolution of the matter. Subsequently, Opposition papers, Replies, and various supporting papers were submitted. On December 16, 2021 both motions were denied. On June 7, 2022, the Honorable JoAnn Candido, ALJ entered an Order Granting the motion of Robert Thurston, Esq. to be relieved as counsel for Petitioners. Subsequently, in light of related civil litigation pending in Federal District Court, the matter was held in abeyance. In September, 2023 counsel for Respondent inquired of Judge Scollo about the status of this matter and whether this matter would be given a trial date. In response, Judge Scollo requested a status report from the parties regarding the state of the related civil litigation. On February 22, 2024, Respondent's counsel supplied a status report and requested leave to file a Motion to Dismiss EDU 09628-20. Judge Scollo denied leave to file a Motion to Dismiss but granted leave for Respondent to file a Motion for Summary Decision. Counsel for Respondent filed a Motion for Summary Decision on April 30, 2024 chiefly citing as its bases the failure of the Petitioners to set forth evidence that the student (M.W.) was harmed, or that the alleged incident substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of the allegedly targeted student or of other students.

On April 8, 2024, the Tribunal sent correspondence to both sides granting leave to the Respondent, Ringwood BOE to file a Motion for Summary Decision and stating that UAPR 1:1-12.5 required the party opposing a Motion for Summary Decision to submit Opposition papers within twenty (20) days. As noted above, Respondent Ringwood BOE filed its motion for summary decision on April 30, 2024. Therefore, Petitioners' Opposition papers were due on May 20, 2024. On June 10, 2024, K.R. (the mother of M.W. and formerly known as "K.W.") inquired with Judge Scollo's secretary, Diana Batista, about how to obtain papers from her file. K.R. claimed that she did not have a copy of Ringwood BOE's Summary Decision Motion; that she did not have her case filings; and that she wanted leave from the Tribunal to allow her fourteen (14) days from the date of her receipt of the Motion to file Opposition papers. Ms. Batista directed K.R. to contact the Department of Education for copies of her papers. On June 10, 2024, Attorney Kleen (counsel for the Ringwood BOE) sent emails enclosing proof that she served the Motion for Summary Decision upon the petitioners on April 30, 2024, including a copy of the envelope in which the Motion was contained. On June 14, 2024, in response to K.R.'s June 10, 2024 correspondence, Judge Scollo wrote to the parties stating that the Petitioners had prior legal counsel who should have given the file to the Petitioners when his representation of the Petitioners concluded and from whom a copy of the file should be obtainable. Referencing his April 8, 2024 letter, Judge Scollo noted that the Opposition papers were due on May 20th and were now twenty-five (25) days overdue. Nonetheless, Judge Scollo granted the Petitioners until Thursday, June 20, 2024 at 12:30 p.m. to submit their Opposition papers. The Petitioners did not submit their Opposition papers by the 12:30 p.m. deadline on Thursday, June 20, 2024 and said Opposition papers were not submitted by the Tribunal's close of business at 4:30 p.m. on June 20, 2024. Therefore, the Motion was deemed to be unopposed.

ANALYSIS OF LEGAL AND FACTUAL ISSUES

Analysis of the Parties' Respective Positions

The Petitioners' claim has been that the assigning of the story to M.W. was inherently outrageous and the evidence of its outrageous nature is so one-sided that only possible conclusion is that it constitutes bullying. Therefore, argue the Petitioners, the School District's determination that Ms. Bredin's action was not an act of HIB (bullying) is erroneous. The Tribunal notes that Petitioners' accusation is not rooted in established facts.

The Ringwood BOE's position is that the investigation team found that Ms. Bredin's rationale for assigning the story to M.W. was free from any kind of improper motive and, applying all HIB criteria, concluded that Ms. Bredin's actions did not constitute an act of HIB. The BOE maintains that the HIB investigation and the conclusion reached by the Anti-Bullying Specialist and the subsequent February 24, 2020 BOE vote adopting the conclusion of the Anti-Bullying Specialist were conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, commonly referred to as "The Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act" and were therefore conducted properly. The Ringwood BOE's Motion is supported by Certifications and attachments.

Findings of Fact

Ringwood BOE's Motion for Summary Decision was filed on April 30, 2024. Under UAPR 1:1-12.5 a party has twenty days to file Opposition papers to his adversary's Motion for Summary Decision. I FIND that the Motion for Summary Decision was duly served by the Machado Law Firm upon the Petitioners as evidenced by Attorney Kleen's statement and by her submission of a copy of the envelope bearing the postmark of April 30, 2024. I FIND that the Petitioners did not file Opposition papers within the twenty-day period allowed for the filing of Opposition papers under UAPR 1:1-12.5. Although the Tribunal granted the Petitioners additional time (to Thursday, June 20, 20024 by 12:30 p.m.) to submit their Opposition papers, I FIND that no such papers were received by the Tribunal by 12:30 p.m. or even by the close of business at 4:30 p.m. on June 30, 2024.

I FIND that G.W. and K.W. did not allow the HIB investigators to interview M.W. I FIND that had M.W. been interviewed by the HIB investigators, then the investigators, the parents and this Tribunal would likely have obtained essential factual evidence regarding whether M.W. reasonably perceived that Ms. Bredin's assigning of the article to him was motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic or by a distinguishing characteristic of M.W. I FIND that had the HIB investigators been allowed to interview M.W., it would have enabled the investigators to explore whether or not M.W. was adversely affected by the assignment of the article, whether the assignment substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school, and whether the assignment adversely affected the rights of other students. I FIND that the parties were afforded sufficient time to conduct discovery. I FIND that the record before me is devoid of the types of factual evidence that is necessary to support any of the elements of a charge of HIB.

APPLICABLE LAW

The Standard for Summary Decision

A Motion for Summary Decision may be granted if the papers and discovery presented, as well as, any affidavits which may have been filed with the application, show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). If the Motion is sufficiently supported, the non-moving party must demonstrate by affidavit that there is a genuine issue of fact which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding, in order to prevail in such an application. Ibid. These provisions mirror the summary judgment language of R. 4:46-2(c). See Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954) and Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995).

The HIB Statute

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 defines "Harassment, intimidation or bullying" as, any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic Communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is:

> [1] reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic,
>
> [2] that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or takes place off school grounds as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3, [3] that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. A reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging a student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property; or

b. Has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or be severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student."

Board of Education's HIB Decisions Are Afforded Presumption of Validity

The decision of a local board of education should not be disturbed absent a finding that the action below was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., EDU 2780-07, Initial Decision (February 6, 2008), (citing Thomas Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966)). In an appeal of a District's finding, with respect to an HIB investigation, the burden of proving "unreasonableness" of Board action is on Petitioners. G.M. v. Roselle Park Borough Bd. of Educ., 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 107, 109. Courts have held that "[w]here there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). "Thus in order to prevail, the petitioner must demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it." T.B.M., see also, W.C.L. and A.L. ex rel L.L. v. Tenafly Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 3223-12 (2013).

Motion Practice Before the Tribunal

Under the OAL's Uniform Administrative Rules of Procedure (UAPR), a party wishing to oppose his adversary's Motion for Summary Decision must file written Opposition papers within twenty days of the filing of the Motion. UAPR 1:1-12.5.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Having found that the Petitioners did not submit Opposition papers to the Ringwood BOE's Motion for Summary Decision, I CONCLUDE that said Motion for Summary Decision is unopposed.

Having found that there is no evidence before me that would tend to support any of the elements of a charge of HIB, I CONCLUDE that the Petitioners have failed to raise any unresolved issues of material fact that would necessitate a plenary hearing.

I CONCLUDE that the Petitioners have failed to overcome their burden of demonstrating that the decision of the BOE in regard to the HIB charges against Ms. Bredin was tainted by bad faith or that the decision of the BOE was made in utter disregard of the circumstances before it. I further CONCLUDE that the determination of the BOE that Ms. Bredin did not commit an act of HIB should be and hereby is AFFIRMED.

CONCLUSION

For all of the above reasons, I CONCLUDE that Respondent Ringwood BOE's Motion for Summary decision should be and hereby is GRANTED.

ORDER

This matter having been brought before the Tribunal by counsel for the Respondent Ringwood BOE seeking Summary Decision, and the Tribunal having considered the submissions, and for good cause:

It is on this twenty-first (27^{h}) day of June, 2024,

ORDERED that the Respondent Ringwood BOE's Motion for Summary Decision is hereby GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED that the Tribunal's Order Granting Summary Decision in favor of the Ringwood BOE shall be immediately sent to the parties and / or their counsel by email; and it is further ORDERED that both sides shall immediately acknowledge receipt of this ORDER by email.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

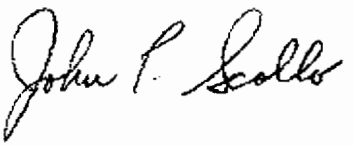
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



June 27, 2024

DATE

JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

db

LIST OF MOVING PAPERS

Respondent's Motion for Summary Decision

Copy of April 30, 2024 Envelope from Attorney Kleen to Petitioners 330-24

OAL Dkt. No. 00188-22
Agency Dkt. No. 222-11/21

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Andrew Policastro,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Tenafly, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the August 14, 2024 Order of Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Margaret M. Monaco, respondent Tenafly Board of Education's (Board) request for interlocutory review, and petitioner's objection and response thereto have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner filed a complaint with the Board, alleging that Tenafly High School principal James Morrison and vice principal Richard Suchanski disregarded attendance policies at Tenafly High School in 2020 and 2021, and requested that the Board, via the New Jersey Department of Education, suspend their licenses for one year. The Board denied the request, and petitioner appealed. The petition indicates that the relief he is requesting is to "[s]uspend for 1 year the administrative licenses of [Morrison and Suchanski] for inefficiency (a tenure level offense)."

The Board filed a motion for summary decision, arguing that its relaxation of attendance polices during the Covid-19 pandemic did not violate federal or State law or Board policy. The Board further contended that even assuming petitioner's allegations were true, he cannot compel the Board to discipline or certify tenure charges against its employees.[1] The ALJ denied the Board's motion, concluding that the evidence at this juncture is insufficient to dispose of the matter via summary decision, and that a proper weighing requires a full development of the facts at an evidentiary hearing.

The Board requested interlocutory review of the ALJ's Order, reiterating the arguments made in its motion for summary decision. Petitioner objected to the request.

Upon review, the Commissioner concludes that the Board is entitled to summary decision. Even if there are disputed issues of fact regarding the Board's attendance policies and the administrators' implementation of those policies,[2] those disputes do not alter the conclusion that, as a matter of law, petitioner is not entitled to the relief he seeks. The specific relief that petitioner seeks is a one-year suspension of Morrison and Suchanski's licenses. The suspension of an administrator's certificate (or "license") is an action solely within the authority of the State Board of Examiners, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.5. The Commissioner has previously determined that an individual may not compel the revocation of a teacher's certificate and dismissed a petition of appeal seeking that relief. C.S., o/b/o minor child, I.S. v. Rikki Frischman, Commissioner Decision 32-23, decided Feb. 2, 2023. Similarly, the Commissioner concludes that here, petitioner may not compel the suspension of Morrison and Suchanski's certificates. While petitioner, in his objection, attempts to distinguish C.S. on procedural grounds, the Commissioner

[1] The Board also sought summary decision on the grounds that petitioner had not complied with certain procedural requirements. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that this portion of the Board's motion should be denied, for the reasons detailed in the ALJ's Order.

[2] The Commissioner does not reach any conclusions regarding the merits of petitioner's allegations, as it is unnecessary to do so.

concludes that the petition in this matter seeks the same relief as the petition in C.S., and that it fails for the same reason.

Petitioner has also characterized this matter as an appeal of the Board's denial of his request that the Board file tenure charges against Morrison and Suchanski for inefficiency. Initially, the Commissioner notes that even if the Board had filed tenure charges against the administrators, and those charges had been sustained by an arbitrator, the result would not have been a suspension of their certificates. An action to suspend an administrator's certificates by the Board of Examiners is a completely separate process from tenure charges filed by a board of education. See Morison v. Willingboro Bd. of Educ., 478 N.J. Super. 229 (App. Div. 2024); I/M/O the Certificates of Nicholas Cilento, State Bd. of Examiners, N.J. Dept. of Educ., 2024 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1342 (App. Div. Jun. 26, 2024). Accordingly, even if the Commissioner were to determine that the Board should have filed tenure charges against Morrison and Suchanski, that determination would not result in the relief petitioner requests and, therefore, his petition must fail as a matter of law.

Moreover, while the filing of tenure charges is not the relief specified in the petition of appeal, giving petitioner leeway because he is pro se, the Commissioner will also address the issue of whether the Board should have filed tenure charges. Tenured employees are protected against dismissal or reduction in compensation by New Jersey's tenure laws. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1 et seq. Petitioner requested that the Board file tenure charges against Morrison and Suchanski for inefficiency. Inefficiency charges are based on the employee's evaluations and require specific numbers of consecutive ineffective or partially effective ratings. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.3. Petitioner has not provided any evidence that Morrison or Suchanski received evaluations that would warrant inefficiency charges. Absent such evaluations, the Board would be without authority to pursue inefficiency charges, and the Commissioner concludes that petitioner cannot compel the Board to do something that it lacks the authority to do.[3]

Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

[3] Alternatively, and again giving petitioner leeway, if the petitioner were requesting that the Board file tenure charges against Morrison and Suchanski for reasons other than inefficiency, his claim still fails as a matter of law. Tenure charges may only be commenced through a written charge, accompanied by a written statement of evidence under oath to support the charge. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11. Even if the Commissioner accepted that an individual could file such a charge, petitioner failed to do so.

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

331-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.C. and S.C., on behalf of minor children, C.C. and K.C.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth,
Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner challenged a decision by the Elizabeth School District finding that his two minor children improperly attended school within the District for several months while they resided with him outside the District. Petitioner contended that he and his wife, S.C., owned two homes, one in Elizabeth and the other in Newark. In early 2023, petitioner and his wife separated, and S.C. remained in Elizabeth while E.C. moved to the Newark house. Because S.C. traveled frequently to her home country of Ecuador, E.C. acted as the primary custodial parent during her absences. Eventually E.C. moved the children to the Newark house temporarily, always intending to move them back to Elizabeth with their mother. The District sought to impose a penalty pursuant to statute at the rate of $99.63 per day per child while they lived outside the District.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: N.J.S.A. 6A:22-1 et. seq. governs student residency requirements within certain school districts; in order to be eligible to attend public school within a municipality, students must be domiciled within the town where the school is located; there are several exceptions to the statutory requirement requiring residency within the district, including Family Crisis and being the child of divorced or separated parents; based on the petitioner's undisputed testimony, and taking into account the limited nature of the residency investigation conducted by the school district, petitioner's children fell into the categories of both Family Crisis and separation, and as such were entitled to continue to attend the Elizabeth Public Schools during the entirety of the 2022-2023 school year pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(i). Accordingly, the ALJ granted petitioners' appeal and reversed the district's determination regarding tuition owed for the period when the children were temporarily residing outside of Elizabeth.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioners' minor children were entitled to attend school in the Elizabeth school district during the entirety of the 2022-2023 school year pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(i). Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, the petitioners' appeal was granted, and the Board's counterclaim for tuition was denied.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

331-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03974-23
Agency Dkt. No. 100-4/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.C. and S.C., on behalf of minor children, C.C. and K.C.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioners' minor children were entitled to attend school in the Elizabeth school district during the entirety of the 2022-2023 school year pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(i).

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby granted. Respondent Board's counterclaim for tuition reimbursement is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03974-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 100-4/23

E.C. AND S.C. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN C.C. AND K.C.,

Petitioners,

v.

CITY OF ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,

Respondent.

E.C., petitioner, pro se

Brian Kane, Esq., for respondent (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

David M., Interpreter

Record closed: June 13, 2024 Date of Decision: July 25, 2024

BEFORE ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioning parent challenges a decision by the Elizabeth School District finding that his two minor children improperly attended school within the District for several months while they resided with him outside the District. The District further seeks to impose a significant penalty pursuant to statute at the rate of $99.63 per day per child while they were living outside the District.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about March 13, 2023, the Elizabeth School district sent final Notices of Ineligibility for petitioner's two minor children C.C. and K.C. to remain students within the District due to a change of Domicile.

Petitioner sought an internal appeal within District and was denied.

Pursuant to statute, the District allowed both children to remain as students pending the outcome of a formal appeal before the Office of Administrative Law.

The Department of Education transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the office, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, and the rules of procedure established by the Department of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. Jurisdiction is conferred under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. The case was filed at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 8, 2023.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

According to petitioner, he and his wife, from whom he is separated, own two homes, one in Elizabeth and another in Newark.

Like many couples who separate, no formal written agreement was created, but the couple separated in early January 2023. At that time, petitioner moved into the Newark residence.

Petitioner testified that his wife often traveled to her home country of Ecuador, leaving him to care for the couple's children. Though at first, he visited them often, the children often expressed disappointment when he had to leave and so they asked if they could reside with him. At all times relevant herein, petitioner's wife, (the mother of the children) remained a resident of Elizabeth.

Out of respect for his wife's desire to live separately, petitioner stated that he allowed the children to move in with him in Newark for the balance of the 2023 school year, and he arranged to transport them to Elizabeth. Since he was out of work due to an injury he suffered at a jobsite, he was able to provide transportation for them to and from Newark, which he does not deny became the children's temporary home. He did indicate however, that it was never the intention to have the children permanently reside in Newark, and in fact at the time of the final date of hearing, petitioner had moved back into the Elizabeth where he and his wife reside in separate bedrooms. (The Newark property has since been rented out.)

Testifying for Elizabeth was William Buteau ("Mr. Buteau"), who serves as a school investigator.

Prior to assuming his duties with the District, Mr. Buteau worked as a police officer with the Elizabeth Police Department.

According to Mr. Buteau, on or about March 1, 2023, a secretary from the District contacted him and requested an investigation be opened against petitioner and his two children. Apparently, the referral came from the District's IT Department, which noted a series of "pings' from the children's laptop computers that were coming from outside the geographic boundaries of the District. (To further support its case against petitioner, the District presented eight pages of documents from certain dates in March, April and May 2023 showing the "pings" from outside Elizabeth). It should be noted that though Mr. Buteau testified to the ping record, the documents were not certified nor did an IT expert testify concerning ho computer use is tracked.)

Mr. Buteau went on to say that he also reached the conclusion that the children were not eligible to attend school in Elizabeth because on one occasion he parked his vehicle outside petitioner's other residence in Newark, where he observed petitioner put the children in his car and drive away on a school day. (Mr. Buteau admits that part of the way from Newark to Elizabeth, he lost track of the vehicle, and he did not attempt to trace or follow petitioner or his children again.)

When asked if he did any further investigation such as parking outside the school to see if petitioner picked the children up to take them to Newark, he indicated that due to a heavy caseload, he did not take time to see where the children went after school.

Finally, Mr. Buteau was asked whether he had any interactions directly with petitioner, and/or attempted to interview him. Other than one short interaction when petitioner came to school to explain his domestic situation, he did not pursue anything further with petitioner.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. At all times relevant herein, petitioner and his wife were residents of the City of Elizabeth.
2. At the start of the 2022-23 school year, both of petitioner's children, C.C. and K.C. were enrolled as students in the district.
3. Some time at the beginning of 2023, petitioner and his wife separated, with petitioner moving to a home they owned in the City of Newark.
4. Petitioner commenced visiting his children as often as he could, and when his wife made trips to Ecuador, petitioner acted as the primary custodial parent.
5. Some time in early March 2023, both children expressed to petitioner that they missed him and wanted to see him more.
6. Believing at the time that it was better for he and his wife to remain apart, petitioner arranged for both children to temporarily move into the Newark home with him.
7. Since he was out of work due to a job injury, petitioner was able to transport the children to school each day.

8. Petitioner does not deny that the children were residing with him in Newark temporarily.
9. Though this temporary arrangement remained in effect for the balance of the 2023 school year, since he did not want to harm his children's' education, within the first months of the 2023-24 school year, petitioner moved back to Ellizabeth residing in the same home as his wife, though they created separate areas and slept in separate bedrooms.
10. At all times relevant herein, petitioner wife, (to whom he was still married) and the mother of the children still resided in Elizabeth.

LEGAL STANDARD AND CONCLUSIONS

N.J.S.A. 6A:22-1 et. seq. governs student residency requirements within a certain school district. In order to be eligible to attend public school within a municipality, students must be domiciled within the town where the schools are located, unless the District itself has an agreement with a neighboring district for its residents to attend school outside the district.

N.J.S.A. 6A:22-6.2 allows for a student who has moved outside the district to remain a student within the contested district provided an appeal has been filed. However, the district can still pursue tuition reimbursement from the parents of the student for the period of time in question once the appeal is completed.

There are several exceptions to the statutory requirement requiring residency within the district, one of which is "Family Crisis." Another exception is being the child of divorced or separated parents.

Based on the petitioner's undisputed testimony, compared against the limited nature of the investigation conducted by the Elizabeth investigator, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's children fell into both categories of "Family Crisis" and Separation, and as such were entitled to continue to attend the Elizabeth Schools from March 2023 through October 2023 when the first day of appeal started.

I FURTHER CONCLUDE that since for the sake of the children, after a few months, petitioner moved back to Elizabeth on a permanent basis, no tuition should be assessed against petitioner while the appeal was pending in good faith.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the petitioners' circumstances fall within the "Family Crisis" and Separation exceptions to the residency statue. Accordingly, the appeal is GRANTED and the determination seeking tuition payments for attending school while temporarily domiciled out-of-District is REVERSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 25, 2024
DATE

ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: July 25, 2024

Date E-Mailed to Parties: July 25, 2024

lr

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioners:

E.C.

For Respondent:

William Buteau

Exhibits

Petitioner:

P-1 Miscellaneous submissions concerning children's certificates and progress in schools and medical information as well as letter from petitioner explaining domestic separation from mother of children

Respondent:

P-1 Investigator's Memorandum

P-2 Demographic information for C.C. and K.C.

P-3 EBOE laptop tracking for K.C.

P-4 EBOE laptop tracking for C.C.

P-5 Notice of Initial Determination

P-6 Final notice of ineligibility C.C.

P-7 Final notice of ineligibility K.C.

P-8 Petitioner's submissions

P-9 EBOE 22-23 school calendar

P-10 EBOE 23-24 school calendar

332-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Stephanie Beal, Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, Middlesex County.

Synopsis

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on October 12, 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by the petitioner, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, upon respondent Stephanie Beal, requiring her to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law. Petitioner initially participated in two pre-hearing telephone conferences in the matter before advising that she no longer wished to contest the suspension of her teaching certificate.

Upon review, the Commissioner concluded that the allegations, which respondent has chosen not to deny, may be deemed admitted and justify suspension of respondent's certificates. Accordingly, summary decision was granted to the Board, and respondent's certificates were suspended for a period of one year from the date of the filing of this decision – a copy of which was forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for the purpose of effectuating this order.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

332-24
OAL Dkt. No. 12782-23
Agency Dkt. No. 258-9/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Stephanie Beal, Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, Middlesex County

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that respondent's resignation from employment with no notice justifies suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Respondent's teaching certificates are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12782-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 258-9/23

TOWNSHIP OF PISCATAWAY BOARD OF EDUCATION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, Petitioner,
v.
STEPHANIE BEAL,
Respondent.

David B. Rubin, Esq., for petitioner

Stephanie Beal, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: June 18, 2024 Decided: July 31, 2024

BEFORE MICHAEL R. STANZIONE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Township of Piscataway Board of Education (Board), seeks the suspension of respondent's teaching certificate for one year for failing to comply with the requirement that she continue her employment during a sixty-day-notice period pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Respondent filed an order to show cause and affidavit on October 12, 2023. The Board filed an answer on November 15, 2023. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, where on November 16, 2023, it was filed as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A prehearing telephone conference was scheduled for December 21, 2023, and both parties appeared and agreed to schedule another conference. A prehearing telephone conference was scheduled for February 28, 2024; both parties appeared and agreed to schedule another conference to permit them time to work on discovery. A prehearing telephone conference was scheduled for March 26, 2024. Prior to the conference, respondent emailed the OAL to advise that she no longer contested the suspension of her teaching certificate and did not intend to participate in further discussions about this matter. Respondent failed to appear for the March 26, 2024, telephone conference. A Zoom conference was scheduled for April 23, 2024, but respondent failed to appear. A hearing was scheduled to be conducted via Zoom on June 14, 2024; respondent again failed to appear. The Board presented its proof, and the record remained open for respondent to explain her non-appearance and for the Board to provide additional information. When no explanation was received from respondent regarding her failure to appear, the record closed on June 18, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Based on the presentation and submission of evidence by petitioner, I FIND the following as FACTS:

1. Respondent was hired by the Board and began her employment as a teacher on October 3, 2022.

2. Her employment contract required sixty days' advance notice of any resignation.

3. On August 14, 2023, respondent submitted her resignation effective immediately and indicated that she would not return to work for the upcoming 2023–2024 school year.

4. The first day for her to report for the 2023–2024 school year was September 5, 2023. R-2 at 3.

5. The Board reminded respondent of the requirement to continue her employment for the sixty-day notice period. On August 29, 2023, respondent acknowledged receipt of this information via email. R-2 at 1.

6. In her August 29, 2023, email, respondent confirmed that she did not intend to work during the sixty-day-notice period and that she understood the Board could act against her teaching certificate. Id.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, applicable to non-tenured certificated staff, states in pertinent part: "Any teaching staff member employed by a board of education . . . who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may . . . suspend his certificate for a period not exceeding one year." See also N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.8. The purpose of the statute is "to provide notice to the school so that a suitable replacement can be hired without adversely impacting students." Penns Grove-Carneys Point Bd. of Educ. v. Leinen, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 405, 407.

As the Commissioner has recognized, N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 "is clear and explicit as to the requisite conditions for a cause of action to arise under its terms, namely, 1) a teaching staff member ceases to perform his [or her] duties before the expiration of the term of his [or her] employment, and 2) the board does not consent to the teaching staff member's action." In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Fesolowich, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11608-05, Comm'r (September 14, 2006). Non-tenured teachers who violate the notice requirements in their employment contracts will generally be found guilty of "unprofessional conduct" under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, warranting suspension of their teaching certificate. See In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Creekmur, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4041-11, Initial Decision (November 21, 2011), adopted, Comm'r (January 4, 2012).

The Commissioner of Education has established a one-year suspension as the presumptive consequence for failing to fulfill the required notice-of-resignation requirement. "Generally, the Commissioner has imposed the full one-year suspension of a teaching certificate for leaving a district without adequate notice. . . . . In rare circumstances in which the Commissioner has seen fit to lessen the suspension period, it was for compelling reasons." (Citation omitted.) Board of Educ. of Borough of Alpine v. Leonid Yuz, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 1116-06, Initial Decision (July 17, 2008), adopted, Comm'r (September 23, 2008). See also Penns Grove-Carneys Point Bd. of Educ. v. Leinen, observing that "[m]ost cases have resulted in the suspension of any and all teaching certificates for the maximum, one-year permitted if the Commissioner finds the teacher guilty of violating N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10."

These principles were applied in the In re Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Schvamberg, EDU 09828-13, adopted, Comm'r (March 5, 2014), involving another non-tenured teacher in the Piscataway School District who received a one-year suspension of her certificate for failing to honor her sixty-day notice obligation. In that case, when respondent accepted employment with the school district, she knew that personal issues would likely affect her ability to serve out her contract term yet failed to advise the district.

Here, respondent by submitting her resignation on August 14, 2023, did not give the requisite sixty-day notice. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that respondent failed to give sixty-day notice to the Board that she was terminating her employment, and thus she violated N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Respondent's teaching certificate shall be suspended for one year.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing findings of fact and conclusion of law, it is ORDERED that the decision of the Township of Piscataway Board of Education is AFFIRMED. It is further ORDERED that respondent's teaching certificate will be suspended for one year.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

July 31, 2024
DATE

Michael R. Stanzione
MICHAEL R. STANZIONE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner:

None

For respondent:

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

R-1 Certification of Colleen Pongratz

R-2 Emails attached to the Certification of Colleen Pongratz

For respondent:

None

333-24E
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09936-24
Agency Dkt. No. 227-7/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

Mercy Transportation, Inc.,

Petitioner,

v.

Educational Services Commission of New Jersey,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons stated therein. This matter shall continue at the Office of Administrative Law with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER ON EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09936-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 227-7/24

MERCY TRANSPORTATION, INC.,
Petitioner,
v.
EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COMMISSION OF NEW JERSEY
Respondent.

Kevin W. Weber, Esq. and Julia E. Browning, Esq. for petitioner (Gibbons, PC, attorneys)

Caitlin W. Lundquist, Esq., for respondent (Busch Law Group, attorneys)

BEFORE MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ:

Petitioner Mercy Transportation, Inc. (Mercy), a school bus transportation company who had been contracted with Educational Services Commission of New Jersey (ESCNJ), seeks emergent relief in the form of an order enjoining respondent from implementing the terms of the July 8, 2024, resolution disqualifying Mercy from future bidding from May 30, 2024 for a period of three years based on "prior negative experience" prior to providing Mercy with the opportunity to be heard before the ESCNJ, contrary to the principles of due process that allow for a bidder to be afforded a hearing before potential disqualification.

The respondent, in opposition, contends that Mercy was properly notified and it cannot meet the criteria for emergent relief.

The Department of Education (DOE) transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on July 24, 2024, and scheduled for oral argument on July 31, 2024. A conference call was held on July 29, 2024, wherein the petitioner's attorney requested to schedule oral argument for July 30, 2024 to accommodate scheduling conflicts. Accordingly, all counsel agreed to reschedule the oral argument for July 30, 2024, on which day oral argument was conducted.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Mercy has been providing school bus transportation in central New Jersey since 2003. ESCNJ offers educational and business services to a number of school districts. ESCNJ is responsible for the coordination of transportation services statewide to approximately 14,000 students and 700 transportation routes. ESCNJ has contracted Mercy to provide student transportation services for multiple routes in Middlesex County since 2003. Mercy has approximately eighty employees. For the 2023–2024 school year, Mercy had eleven open transportation contracts with ESCNJ, consisting of sixty-four different routes, serviced by fifty-five buses and sixty-five employees. ESCNJ has never reported any prior negative experiences with the quality of transportation services that Mercy provided during those school years.

Mercy acknowledges that there was an incident on the MK59 open contact route on May 6, 2024. On that date, two children were not dropped off at school and neither the bus driver nor the bus aide discovered the children on the bus until a couple of hours after drop-off. In addition, video on the bus was not working at the time of the incident.

Thereafter, by letter dated May 30, 2024, Mercy was notified by Chris Sarate, respondent's cooperative transportation coordinator of its disqualification from bidding for three years. The letter states:

> As per [N.J.S.A.] 18A:39-11.3, the Board Members of the Educational Services Commission of New Jersey, by resolution will disqualify the bidder Mercy transportation for a defined period of three years for "prior negative experience at the June 7, 2024, Board meeting.

ESCNJ's letter specified that Mercy was being disqualified due to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-11.3.b(2):

> "the bidder defaulted on a transportation contract thereby requiring the board of education to utilize services of another contractor to complete the contract" and stated that "Mercy Transportation may no longer bid or quote on any routes, trips or athletics until a period of three years has been completed"... Mercy was also fined $5,000.
>
> [Pet. Ex. 2]

On June 5, 2024 Mercy received another disqualification letter from ESCNJ stating:

> As per [N.J.S.A.] 18A:39-11.3, the Board Members of the Educational Services Commission of New Jersey by resolution, will disqualify the bidder, Mercy Transportation for a defined period of three years for "prior negative experience" at the June 7, 2024 Board Meeting.
>
> Mercy was informed that ESCNJ may be pursuant to [N.J.S.A.] 18A:39-11.3 [a] disqualif[ied] . . . bidder who would otherwise be determined to be the lowest responsible bidder for a pupil transportation contract, if the board of education finds that it has had prior negative experience with the bidder. The disqualification shall be for a reasonable defined period of time which shall not exceed three years.
>
> This letter rejected Mercy for routes VP59-Fall FY25 from May 15, 2024 bid for prior negative experience. Mercy Transportation may no longer bid or quote on any routes, trips or athletics for the FY25 school year. This will include > the 6/19/24 bid as FY25 routes are the only routes available and until a period of three years has been completed starting from July 1, 202[4] until July 1, 2027, which is the start of the new school year, FY25.

After receiving the May 30, 2024 disqualification letter, Mercy also received cancellation notices for every single contract that Mercy entered into with ESCNJ.

On June 4, 2024, routes S459 and S772 were cancelled. Pet. Ex. 4 and 5. On June 27, 2024, ESCNJ placed a resolution to disqualify Mercy on its Executive Committee agenda and voted to approve the disqualification on July 8, 2024. The approved disqualification includes disqualification from bidding or quoting on any routes, trips or athletics for any defined period of three years from July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2027 for prior negative experiences as per Title 18A:39-11.3.

Mercy was never notified of the executive session to vote on the July 7, 2024 resolution until it issued an Open Public Records Act (OPRA) and received records that included the resolution that was signed at a meeting held on July 7, 2024, without any notification to Mercy.

By letter dated June 5, 2024, Mercy was notified that ESCNJ would review a resolution to disqualify it for a three-year period at its June 7, 2024 meeting and it has been rejected for route, VP59-Fall FY25 from May 15, 2024 bid for prior negative experience and could no longer bid or quote on any routes, trips or athletics for FY25 year.

The respondent asserts that Mercy will be unable to demonstrate the necessary criteria for emergent relief as it cannot demonstrate that it will prevail on the merits. The respondent maintains that it provided proper notification to Mercy of the impending resolution to cancel the contracts and bid on future contracts, and its argument seeking a showing of due process violations is without merit.

The respondent sets forth that Mercy breached its contractual obligations when it failed to comply with the regulations governing the operation of pupil transportation and nothing in the bid specifications requires a hearing prior to invoking the cancellation terms set forth in the contract. In that regard, if a contractor fails to comply with its contract terms it will result in the assessment of a penalty. Here, respondent sets forth that Mercy failed to inspect the vehicle at the conclusion of the route. The contract provides failure to inspect the vehicle at the conclusion of each route resulting in a student remaining on the vehicle will result in a $5,000 penalty and loss of route. Pet. Ex. 1. In addition, Mercy failed to ensure the proper operation of its surveillance system to record audio and visual activities while the bus is in service. As a result, Mercy was unable to provide a recording of the May 6, 2024 incident when two preschool age students were left completely unattended and without adult supervision on the bus for approximately four hours. Respondent sets forth numerous other incidents that they believe occurred during the 2023–2024 school year also supported its determination that petitioner should be disqualified from bidding or quoting on any routes or trips for athletics for a defined period of three years due to "prior negative experiences" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-11.3. Mercy contends that its first notification of these new claims was on July 29, 2024 in the respondent's response to the emergent relief. These new claims were not set forth in the violation notices and it has no further information on their merits.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6, provides in pertinent part that where the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education or any other party subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case.

As set forth in N.J.A.C. 1:6A-12.1(e), N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) and N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.7(s), an application for emergent relief will be granted only if it meets the following four requirements:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled;

3. The petitioner have a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

See also N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6(b), citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), which echoes the regulatory standard for this extraordinary relief. It is well established that a moving party has the burden of proving each of the four elements of emergent relief.

Turning to the first criteria, it is well settled that relief should not be granted except "when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 126. In this regard, harm is generally considered irreparable if it cannot be adequately redressed by monetary damages. Id. at 132–33. Moreover, the harm must be substantial and immediate. Judice's Sunshine Pontiac, Inc. v. Gen. Motors Corp., 418 F. Supp. 1212, 1218 (D.N.J. 1976) (citation omitted). More than the risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated. Continental Group, Inc. v. Amoco Chems. Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (D.N.J. 1980). The requisite for injunctive relief is a "clear showing of immediate irreparable injury," or a "'presently existing actual threat; (an injunction) may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by common law.'" Ibid. (citation omitted.)

Petitioner sets forth that its due process rights were blatantly disregarded when a resolution to disqualify them from bidding on July 8, 2024 for three years by failing to provide them with an opportunity to be heard. Due process has encompassed the elements of notice and an opportunity to be heard. The U.S. Supreme Court has identified three critical elements of due process, which it described as flexible and dependent on the situation: (1) the private interests affected by official action; (2) the risk of depriving those interests through the procedures used; and (3) the interest of the government. Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 334–35 (1976).

In the instant matter, Mercy argues that it has been unlawfully deprived of its right to conduct business when respondent disqualified them from future bidding that could result in financial harm and tarnish its reputation. While it appears that there are some discrepancies in ESCNJ's notifications to Mercy, these future claims of harm can be addressed in a plenary hearing.

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that Mercy has not demonstrated it will suffer irreparable harm if the requested emergent relief is not granted.

Although all four standards for emergent relief must be met, the three remaining prongs of the standards for emergent relief will be addressed.

The second criteria, emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying petitioners' claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–305. Here, the legal right underlying Mercy's claim is not settled. Although ESCNJ may have violated Mercy's due process that allows a bidder to be afforded a hearing, its legal rights underlying its claims are not settled

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioner did not demonstrate that the legal rights to enjoin ESCNJ from disqualifying them from future bidding are settled.

Under the third emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115-16 (E&A 1930)). Here, the likelihood of petitioner's success on the merits of whether ESCNJ had adequate reason under the contract to disqualify petitioner from future bidding, is unclear.

For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have not demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits.

The final requirement relates to the equities and interests of the parties. Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134. Here, Mercy claims that it has suffered irreparable harm by the premature cancellation of multiple contracts and the rejection form the VP59 route for which it had been selected as the successful bidder and any future renewed contracts. However, here again, these claims will be addressed at a plenary hearing. Furthermore, the potential harm in paralyzing the commission's ability to plan for school transportation needs, and the need to safely transport school students outweighs Mercy's interest and must be ensured during this intermediary period of time.

I CONCLUDE that Mercy would not suffer greater harm than the ESCNJ if the requested emergent relief is not granted. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner did not satisfy all four requirements for emergent relief.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's request for emergent relief be DENIED.

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons set forth above, it is hereby ORDERED that petitioners' request for emergent relief is DENIED.

This order on application for emergency relief shall remain in effect until the issuance of the decision on the merits in this matter.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

July 31, 2024
DATE

MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ

MAB/nn
c: Clerk OAL-T

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

Brief

For respondent

Brief

334-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02740-24
Agency Dkt. No. 363-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Johanna Rivera-Caban,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, which was transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 and includes an advisement of petitioner's failure to appear at a scheduled telephone conference on July 18, 2024 has been reviewed. Petitioner did not file an explanation for the failure to appear, notwithstanding the opportunity to do so. Accordingly, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case before the Commissioner and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

335-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 06907-24 (EDU 00882-24 on remand)
Agency Dkt. No. 365-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.G., on behalf of minor child, A.G.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the West Essex Regional School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner's failure to appear for multiple telephone conferences or to respond to respondent's motion to dismiss demonstrates that petitioner has abandoned her appeal.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 06907-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 365-12/23

T.G., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.G.,
Petitioner,
v.
WEST ESSEX REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Respondent.

ON REMAND
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 00882-24

T.G., parent of A.G., petitioner, pro se

Patrick F. Carrigg, Esq., for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Carrigg, Lang & Casey, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 31, 2024 Decided: August 2, 2024

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter was originally transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 17, 2024. Petitioner alleges that her minor son A.G. was the subject of harassment, intimidation, bullying ("HIB") and discrimination by one of his teachers employed by the West Essex District Board of Education ("District"). Petitioner filed this action as an appeal to a determination by the District that the actions of A.G.'s teacher did not constitute HIB.

Notice that a prehearing telephone conference would take place at 2:30 pm on March 18, 2024 was sent via email and regular mail to petitioner on March 1, 2024. Counsel for the District appeared for the prehearing conference on March 18, 2024 and no one appeared on behalf of petitioner. There was also no communication from petitioner indicating she would not or could not attend. A second prehearing conference was then scheduled for March 26, 2024 and notice was again sent to petitioner via email and regular mail. Included in this second notice was the following statement:

> NOTICE - You failed to appear at the initial prehearing conference scheduled for March 18, 2024. YOUR FAILURE TO APPEAR AT THIS RESCHEDULED PREHEARING CONFERENCE ON MARCH 26, 2024 AT 2:00 PM MAY RESULT IN THE DISMISSAL OF YOUR APPEAL.

Despite receipt of specific notice that her complaint might be dismissed, petitioner failed to appear for the rescheduled prehearing conference. There was also no communication from petitioner indicating why she did not appear or if she intended to pursue this appeal.

As a result of petitioner's failure to appear at both scheduled prehearing conferences and failure to provide this tribunal with any reason for her absence, this tribunal issued an Initial Decision on April 17, 2024 ordering that the case be dismissed. That Initial decision was filed with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration on April 17, 2024 and on May 10, 2024 the matter was remanded to the Office of Administrative Law for further proceedings.

REASON FOR REMAND

In its May 10, 2024 Final Decision, the Commissioner indicated the decision to remand was made for two reasons. The first reason was that the Initial Decision indicated the scheduling notices were sent to parties via email and not regular mail as required by N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.5(c).[1] The second reason was that the email address used for the notice was incorrect due to a typographical error on the transmittal form.

PROCEEDINGS OF REMAND

On June 3, 2024, this tribunal issued a Notice of Telephone Prehearing Conference that was to take place on June 20, 2024 at 2:30 pm. The Notice was sent to the parties via regular mail in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-9.5(c) and via email. As was the case at the two prior conferences on March 18, 2024 and March 26, 2024, counsel for respondent West Essex Board of Education appeared at the June 20, 2024 prehearing conference and the petitioner failed to appear. Petitioner did not communicate with the court to provide a reason for her non-appearance.

In an effort to provide petitioner with one final opportunity to participate in the appeal she chose to file, a new notice was sent to the parties via regular mail and email on June 20, 2024 setting a new prehearing conference date of July 9, 2024. As was the case on the three prior prehearing conference dates, respondent appeared, and the petitioner failed to appear. Petitioner also failed to offer any reason for her non-appearance. On July 16, 2024, respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Prosecution. In accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.2(b), any opposition to respondents' motion was due on July 26, 2024. As of the date of this Initial decision, August 2, 2024 petitioner has filed no opposition to respondent's motion and has not sought any extension of time to submit any opposition. Accordingly, respondent's motion to dismiss is unopposed.

[1] As indicated above, the scheduling notices sent to the parties on March 1, 2024 and March 26, 2024 were indeed sent via email and regular mail.

LEGAL ANALYISIS

Since this matter was remanded, petitioner has failed to appear at both, properly noticed, prehearing conferences. If a party does not appear at any scheduled proceeding before the OAL, after appropriate notice, the ALJ is required to hold the matter for one day before taking any action. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a). If no explanation for the part's nonappearance is provided withing one day, "the ALJ shall direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c)." N.A.J.C. 1:1-14.4(a). Absent exigent circumstances, a petitioner's failure to prosecute the matter should result in its dismissal. N.O. v. Board of Education of Bridgewater-Raritan School District, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 746 (1996); R.J. v. Board of Education of the Lower Camden County Regional School District, 97 N.J.A.R. 2d (Edu) 155 (1996).

The petitioner has failed to appear for any of proceedings in this case for which she was properly noticed. Petitioner has also failed to provide any explanation for her failure to participate in the scheduled proceedings. Accordingly, I FIND and CONCLUDE that the petition of appeal has been abandoned and that the Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law should return the matter to the Department of Education for appropriate disposition. I further FIND and CONCLUDE for the reasons set forth above, that respondent's Motion to Dismiss petitioner's appeal for lack of prosecution should be granted.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above,

It is on this 2nd day of August, 2024 ORDERED that:

1. Respondent's Motion to Dismiss petitioner's appeal for Lack of Prosecution is GRANTED; and

2. The Clerk of the Office of Administrative Law return this matter to the Department of Education for appropriate disposition.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

August 2, 2024

DATE

WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: August 2, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: August 2, 2024

db

336-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04881-24
Agency Dkt. No. 85-4/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.C., on behalf of minor child, K.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Gloucester, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, which was transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 and includes an advisement of petitioner's failure to appear at a scheduled conference on June 3, 2024, has been reviewed. Petitioner did not file an explanation for the failure to appear. Accordingly, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case before the Commissioner and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 6, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 9, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER OF RESCISSION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04881-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 85-4/24

L.C. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, K.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF GLOUCESTER, CAMDEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

L.C., petitioner, pro se

Daniel H. Long, Esq., for respondent (Wade, Long, Wood & Long, LLC, attorneys)

BEFORE KIMBERLEY M. WILSON, ALJ:

Petitioner, L.C., on behalf of minor child, K.R., appeals the decision of respondent, the Board of Education of the Township of Gloucester, Camden County (District or Board), finding that K.R. resided within the Maple Shade Public School District, not the District. The Board filed a counterclaim against L.C., seeking tuition and costs for the time that K.R. attended the District schools but resided in the Maple Shade Public School District.

On or around April 2, 2024, L.C. requested a fair hearing. The New Jersey Department of Education (Department) transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed as a contested case on April 11, 2024. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On April 22, 2024, the OAL sent the parties a notice of telephone prehearing, scheduling an initial conference for May 3, 2024, at 3:30 p.m. This notice was sent to the parties via email. L.C. did not appear for the May 3, 2024, initial conference; counsel for the District did appear.

By letter dated May 6, 2024, I requested that L.C. provide me with a written response with the reason for her failure to appear for the May 3, 2024, status conference by the close of business on May 20, 2024, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4. I also stated that if I did not hear from L.C. by the close of business on May 20, 2024, I would return the file as an uncontested matter to our clerk's office, who would then return the matter to the Department for the appropriate disposition.

I did not receive any response from L.C. by May 20, 2024, and prepared a Letter Order dated May 22, 2024, indicating that I would be returning this file to our clerk's office, who would then return it to the Department. The Letter Order was sent to the parties via email and regular mail.

On or around May 22, 2024, I received the following email from L.C.:

> I was Never sent an invitation for any pre trial or whatever the correct term would be no phone call or anything Not even for my son who's in BHP. The notice I received was letter stating I missed something and the date wasn't even correct. How can a person miss a hearing if the hearing date was never passed or present at the time of delivery
> I need phone calls not emails . . . please . . . .

On or around May 23, 2024, I sent L.C. the following response via email:

Dear L.C.:

I hope this email finds you well. I have received your email dated May 22, 2024, in response to my Letter Order. When you send an email or letter to my office, please make sure that you are including Daniel H. Long, counsel for the Board of Education, on your email or letter. I have copied Mr. Long on this email so that he is aware of your correspondence and my response.

To reiterate the history of this case, on April 22, 2024, at 2:29 p.m. by email, our office sent you and Mr. Long a Notice of Telephone Prehearing that scheduled a telephone prehearing conference for Friday, May 3, 2024, at 3:30 p.m. A copy of that notice is attached. I have a copy of the April 22, 2024, email sent to you with the Notice of Telephone Prehearing, and our office sent that April 22, 2024, email to the same email address that you used for the email below.

You did not appear for the telephone prehearing conference on Friday, May 3, 2024, at 3:30 p.m. Mr. Long appeared for the telephone prehearing conference.

On Tuesday, May 7, 2024, our office sent you a letter dated May 6, 2024, by email and regular mail, asking you to provide a written response for your failure to appear for the Friday, May 3, 2024, status conference by May 20, 2024. Again, my May 6, 2024, letter was sent to the same email address that you used for the email below. I did not receive a response from you by May 20, 2024, and therefore, I issued the Letter Order dated May 22, 2024, advising that I was returning the file back to the New Jersey Department of Education because the matter was not contested. In response, I received the below email from you.

Please understand that our office does not call parties regarding prehearing conferences and hearing dates, as it is not permitted in the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1, et seq.

I am scheduling a hearing for Monday, June 3, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. via Zoom so that we [may] discuss whether this matter should still be sent to the New Jersey Department of Education as an uncontested case. Our office will send separate notice of this hearing to you and Mr. Long by email and regular mail.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please let me know.

Very truly yours,

Kimberley M. Wilson
Administrative Law Judge
New Jersey Office of Administrative Law

On May 23, 2024, the OAL sent the parties a Notice of Status Conference, scheduling a Zoom hearing for June 3, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. I did not receive an email, telephone call, or any other communication from L.C. indicating that she was not available on June 3, 2024, for the status conference.

On June 3, 2024, at 9:30 a.m., I appeared on Zoom for the status conference. Counsel for the District appeared for the June 3, 2024, status conference; L.C. did not. Since the June 3, 2024, status conference, I have not heard from L.C. regarding her failure to appear for either the May 3, 2024, status conference or the June 3, 2024, status conference. During this conference, counsel for the Board indicated on the record that the Board was withdrawing its counterclaim, seeking tuition reimbursement from L.C.

On June 11, 2024, I issued a second Letter Order, setting forth the procedural history and indicating that for L.C.'s failure to appear at the June 3, 2024, status conference, I was returning the file to our clerk's office as an uncontested case.

On or around June 25, 2024, I issued a third Letter Order, setting forth the procedural history for this matter, and advising that the matter was no longer contested and would be returned to the clerk's office.

On or around June 26, 2024, counsel for the Board affirmed in writing that the Board withdrew its counterclaim against L.C., seeking tuition reimbursement from L.C.

On further consideration, N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) does not require any type of order, Letter Order or otherwise, from the OAL when a party fails to appear for a proceeding. Accordingly, I am rescinding the May 22, 2024, Letter Order; the June 11, 2024, Letter Order; and the June 25, 2024, Letter Order.

This order may be reviewed by the COMMISSIONER of the DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, either upon interlocutory review pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10 or at the end of the contested case, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6.

June 28, 02024

DATE

KIMBERLEY M. WILSON, ALJ

Mailed to Parties: June 28, 2024

KMW/dw/jm
c: Clerk OAL-T

339-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02750-23
Agency Dkt. No. 55-3/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.K. and M.K., on behalf of minor child, M.K.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Nutley, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and Release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 7 of the Agreement includes a confidentiality clause. The parties are reminded that the Board must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq., in regard to information concerning this matter, notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement consistent with applicable public records law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 16, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 18, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02750-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 55-3/23

L.K. AND M.K. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, M.K.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NUTLEY, ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondents.

L.K. and M.K. on behalf of minor child. M.K., petitioners pro se

Jaclyn S. D'Armenio, Esq., (Inglesino and Taylor, attorneys) for respondents

Record Closed: August 12, 2024 Decided: August 19, 2024

BEFORE ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI, ALJ:

On March 24, 2023, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case.

The parties have agreed to an amicable resolution of the matter and submitted the attached Settlement Agreement and the Board's Resolution via e-mail on August 12, 2024.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND as follows:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the parties comply with the settlement terms, and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the proceedings in this matter be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

August 19, 2024

DATE

Ernest M. Bongiovanni

ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI., ALJ

Date Received at Agency: August 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: August 20, 2024

id

INGLESINO | TAYLOR, LLC
R. Scott Eveland, Esq. (Attorney Id. No. 028451990)
600 Parsippany Road
Parsippany, New Jersey 07054
(973) 947-7111
Attorneys for Respondent, Nutley Board of Education

L.K. and M.K., on behalf of minor child, M.K Petitioners, v NUTLEY BOARD OF EDUCATION, ESSEX COUNTY Respondent.	STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION CONTROVERSIES & DISPUTES OAL DOCKET #: EDU 2750-23 AGENCY DKT. NO. 55-3/23 SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and General Release (the "Agreement") is entered into this 23rd day of July 2024 MK LK, by and between the Nutley Board of Education (the "Board" or "Respondent"), with offices located at 371 Franklin Ave, Nutley, NJ 07110, (hereinafter referred to as the "District"), and L.K. and M.K. o/b/o M.K. who are domiciled in Nutley, NJ (hereinafter referred to as the "Parents") (each a Party and collectively the "Parties.").

WHEREAS, M.K. is a fourteen (14 15 MK LK) year old student residing within the District, operated by the Board;

WHEREAS, on or about November 1, 2022, an allegation of Harassment Intimidation and Bullying ("HIB") was reported to the District in accordance with the Anti Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq.;

X.L. D.Z.

WHEREAS, the reported HIB was assigned by the District an incident case number of #237463_NHS_11022022

WHEREAS, an investigation of the reported HIB was commenced by the Anti-Bullying Specialist for the High School ("ABS") on or about November 2, 2022;

WHEREAS, upon completion of her investigation, on or about November 4, 2022, the ABS determined the HIB was founded and issued an investigative report;

WHEREAS, this finding was reported to and affirmed by the Superintendent;

WHEREAS, on or about November 7, 2022, Parents were advised of the investigative findings of the ABS and determination of the Superintendent;

WHEREAS, on or about November 8, 2022, Parents requested an appeal of the HIB determination to the Board;

WHEREAS, with consent of the Parents, on November 29, 2022, the Board held an appeal hearing for the HIB determination;

WHEREAS, on December 5, 2022, the Board provided a written post hearing determination to the Parents, affirming the superintendent determination that the incident constituted an incident of HIB (the "Board's Decision");

WHEREAS, the Parents filed a Petition of Appeal of the Board's Decision before the Commissioner of Education of New Jersey Office of Controversies and Disputes (hereinafter referred to as the "Parents' Petition") on or about March 3, 2023, asserting, that the Board's Decision was arbitrary capricious and unreasonable due to both factual errors and errors in the HIB procedure;

WHEREAS, the Parents' Petition was assigned Agency Dkt. No. 55-3/23 and OAL Docket No. EDU 2750-23;

WHEREAS, the Parent's Petition was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on or about March 24, 2023, and assigned to the Honorable Ernest M. Bongiovanni, A.L.J.; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are desirous of resolving the issues in dispute and have reached an amicable resolution thereby avoiding the time and expense associated with further litigation,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Expungement of the Student Record. The Parties agree that any reference to the HIB or to the Board's Decision shall be expunged from the student record of M.K.

2. Payment of Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party shall bear their own attorneys' fees, costs, expert witness fees, and/or other for the entirety of any matter or matters related to the subject matter of this Agreement.

3. Withdrawal of Parent's Petition The terms of this Agreement represent the compromise and resolution of disputed claims between the Parties. Parents shall immediately withdraw Parent's Petition through the date of this Agreement.

4. Non-Admission of Liability. This Agreement shall not constitute, be interpreted, construed, or used as evidence of any admission of fact, law, responsibility, or liability on the part of any party.

5. Submission for Final Decision. The Parties agree to submit this Agreement to an Administrative Law Judge for approval in full settlement of all issues pertaining to this matter. If approved, this Agreement shall be incorporated into a Final Decision by an Administrative Law Judge. Nothing contained herein shall be interpreted as preventing the Parties from filing a lawsuit to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

6. Board Approval and Ratification. This Agreement is subject to ratification by the Board and is without prejudice to any party if the terms are not agreed upon. The representatives of the Board shall recommend the terms of this Agreement to the Board for approval. Every effort shall be made for this matter to be reviewed by the Nutley Board of Education at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

7. Confidentiality. The terms of this Agreement shall be held in strictest confidence by all Parties and shall not be publicized or disclosed in any manner whatsoever, except as may be required by law. The Parties agree that M.K.'s statement that he does not have any HIB charge or finding on his student record is not a breach of this confidentiality provision.

8. Indemnification. For any other complaints related to the subject matters encompassed in the Parent's Petition, the Parents agree jointly and severally, to indemnify and hold harmless the Board, its officers, employees, administrators, and/or agents for any claim, complaint, suit, demand, cost, expense or legal fee, penalty, loss or judgment (collectively, "liability") or any challenge successful or unsuccessful, brought by anyone on behalf of M.K. and in any judicial or administrative court, tribunal or other forum, through the date of this Agreement.

9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the Parties hereto and shall supersede any prior agreements between the Parties with respect to its subject matter. Further, there are no representations, warranties, covenants, or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein. Each party acknowledges and agrees that they are not relying upon any oral statements, representations, promises or expectations which are not expressly and explicitly set forth in this Agreement, which alone fully and completely expresses all agreements between the Parties.

10. Miscellaneous.

a. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

b. The undersigned represent that they have the requisite authority to sign this Agreement on behalf of the respective party.

c. The Parties may execute this Agreement in counterparts, each of which is deemed an original and all of which only constitute one (1) original.

d. A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective and enforceable, only if made in writing, signed, and duly authorized by all Parties and executed with the same formality as the Agreement.

e. The terms and conditions set forth herein shall be deemed severable. If any clause or provision contained herein shall be held unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall not affect the validity of any other clause or provision, all of which shall continue in full force and effect.

f. The Parties recognize that each had the opportunity to be represented by legal counsel and that they sign this within Agreement as their own voluntary act and deed, and that they understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein.

11. Accord and Satisfaction. The Parties acknowledge that they are entering into this Agreement of their own accord and without any undue influence, coercion or pressure of any kind; that all the provisions of this Agreement, as well as all questions pertinent thereto, have been fully and satisfactorily explained to them; that they have given due consideration to such provisions and questions and understand them clearly; that the provisions of this Agreement are in all respects acceptable to them and that they, therefore, accept these provisions in full and final satisfaction of all claims and demands which have been raised or which could have been raised in any litigation related to M.K. up until the date of this Agreement and related to all subject matters encompassed in this Agreement.

[SIGNATURES APPEAR ON THE FOLLOWING PAGE]

[SIGNATURES PAGE]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year set forth:

For the Petitioners:

L.K. o/b/o M.K.

M.K. o/b/o M.K.

Salvatore Ferraro, Board President

Dated: 7/23/24

~~Dave DiPisa, Board Secretary~~ Kat Baca Secretary

Dated: 7/23/24

Nutley Public Schools

Kent Bania
Superintendent
371 Franklin Avenue 2nd Fl
Nutley, New Jersey 07110
973-661-8796
kbania@nutleyschools.org

RESOLUTION

August 5, 2024

APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Board of Education approves a settlement agreement regarding student 6815885389. A copy of the settlement agreement is on file in the Board of Education Office

Sincerely,

Kent Bania
Superintendent

340-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02923-23
Agency Dkt. No. 338-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Maria Perez-Ruiz,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Fairview, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 16, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 18, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02923-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 338-12/23

MARIA PEREZ-RUIZ,
Petitioner,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF FAIRVIEW
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Albert J. Leonardo, Esq. for petitioner (Zazzali P.C., attorneys)

Mary C. McDonnell, Esq., for respondent (Pfund McDonnell, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: August 12, 2024 Decided: August 12, 2024

BEFORE JULIO C. MOREJON, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have agreed to settle this case and have entered into an agreement. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntary, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties in this case.

I ORDER that the settlement agreement is APPROVED, that its terms are INCORPORATED into this decision, and that this case is CONCLUDED.

I FILE my decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration. This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who is empowered by law to make a final decision in this case. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not so act within 45 days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision becomes a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

August 12, 2024
DATE

Julio Morejon
JULIO C. MOREJON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: August 12, 2024

Date E-Mailed to Parties: August 12, 2024

lr

Reyes, Elisa [OAL]

From: Mary McDonnell <mmcdonnell@pfundmcdonnell.com>
Sent: Thursday, August 8, 2024 1:22 PM
To: Reyes, Elisa [OAL]; Albert J. Leonardo
Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: EDU 02923-2024 Maria Perez-Ruiz v. Board of Education of the Township of Fairview, Bergen Co. (before Judge Morejon)
Attachments: Resolution 8-7-2024 - Signed.pdf; Settlement Agreement - Signed.pdf

Good afternoon-
Attached please find the executed settlement agreement and Resolution related to the above referenced matter.

Please advise if you require any additional information.

Thank you, Mary

Mary C. McDonnell, Esq.

PFUND MCDONNELL, P.C.
139 Prospect Street
2nd Floor
Ridgewood, NJ 07450
Phone: (201) 857-5040
Fax: (201) 857-5041
www.pfundmcdonnell.com

From: Reyes, Elisa [OAL] <Elisa.Reyes@oal.nj.gov>
Sent: Thursday, August 8, 2024 11:04 AM
To: Albert J. Leonardo <aleonardo@zazzali-law.com>; Mary McDonnell <mmcdonnell@pfundmcdonnell.com>
Subject: RE: EDU 02923-2024 Maria Perez-Ruiz v. Board of Education of the Township of Fairview, Bergen Co. (before Judge Morejon)

Yes, once received and reviewed, Judge Morejon will issue his initial decision settlement.

Elisa Reyes
Judicial Support Specialist to the:
Honorable Danielle Pasquale 973-648-6025
Honorable Andrew M. Baron 973-648-6022
Honorable Julio C. Morejon 973-648-6087
fax. 973-648-2358
e-mail: elisa.reyes@oal.nj.gov

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This email message and all attachments transmitted with it may contain State of New Jersey legally privileged and confidential information intended solely for the use of the addressee only. If the reader of this message is not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any reading, dissemination, distribution, copying, or other use of this message or its attachment is prohibited. If you have received this message in error, please notify the sender immediately and delete this message.*

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into effective as of the ____ day of _____, 2024 ("the Effective Date"), by and between MARIA PEREZ-RUIZ ("Perez-Ruiz") and the FAIRVIEW BOARD OF EDUCATION (the "Board").

WHEREAS, the Board is a body public and corporate, organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 which is entrusted with maintaining and governing the public schools of the Fairview School District;

WHEREAS, the Board has its administrative offices located at 130 Hamilton Avenue Fairview, New Jersey 07022;

WHEREAS, Perez-Ruiz is a former employee of the Board;

WHEREAS, Perez-Ruiz filed a Petition with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, captioned Maria Perez-Ruiz v. Fairview Board of Education, Bergen County, OAL Docket No. EDU-02923-2024 N, Agency Docket No. 338-12/23, asserting that the Board unlawfully terminated her employment; (hereinafter "the Action");

WHEREAS, the Board has denied any unlawful action on its part;

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all outstanding matters between them pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound hereby and in consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Settlement Terms

Perez-Ruiz and the Board agree that the Board shall pay, as back pay minus mitigation, the gross amount of Five Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($5,000.00), minus usual and customary withholdings, including FICA, State and Federal taxes, pension contributions, and other legally required deductions, in full satisfaction of all claims in the Action for compensatory damages known or unknown, asserted or unasserted including, but not limited to, claims for legal or equitable relief, reinstatement, back or front pay, lost benefits, and contract claims as of the date of the execution of this agreement. This sum shall be paid within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the Commissioner of Education approves this Agreement as follows:

a. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($5,000.00), less usual and customary withholdings, including FICA, State and Federal taxes, pension contributions, and other legally required deductions in the form of a check made payable to Perez-Ruiz.

b. Any employer-side payroll taxes and/or penalties relating thereto, if any, are the sole responsibility of the Board.

c. The gross amount of Five Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($5,000) constitutes full back pay minus mitigation due to Perez-Ruiz for the time period October 5, 2023, through December 4, 2023.

d. In consideration of the above, Perez-Ruiz hereby releases, acquits and forever discharges the Board, its current and former members, officers, directors, servants, employees, agents, successors, attorneys, assigns and affiliates, of and from any and all issues, causes of action, claims, liabilities, demands, indemnities, which have accrued regarding Perez-Ruiz's employment or termination by the Board and the Fairview Public School District, as of the date of the execution of this agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all damages (whether compensatory, incidental, punitive or otherwise), experts' fee or costs, excluding any claims that cannot be waived by law.

2. Stipulation of Dismissal

Perez-Ruiz and the Board agree that by executing this Agreement, it (and a Board resolution) shall be submitted to the Administrative Law Judge for issuance of an Initial Decision approving the settlement. If the settlement is approved by both the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education, Perez-Ruiz's pending Petition will be dismissed with prejudice.

3. Assent to Terms

Perez-Ruiz and the Board hereby acknowledge that they entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of their rights and that they were fully informed of the implications of this Agreement. Perez-Ruiz has reviewed this Agreement with Albert J. Leonardo, Esq. and acknowledges she is satisfied with the quality of the services received. The parties enter into this Agreement without duress and of their own free will and volition and acknowledge that they were given a full and fair opportunity to fully consider this Agreement. This Agreement must be formally approved by the Board and this Agreement will be deemed null and void without said approval. All reasonable efforts will be made to timely obtain approval from the Board.

4. No Admission of Liability

Perez-Ruiz and the Board acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is a compromise and neither this Agreement, nor any consideration provided pursuant to this Agreement, is, nor shall be taken or construed to be, an admission or concession by Perez-Ruiz or the Board of any kind with respect to any fact, liability, or fault whatsoever.

It is expressly understood that the arrangement herein is predicated exclusively upon the special circumstances of this matter and shall not be construed to represent any policy or procedure of the Board, nor the interpretation of any terms contained in any agreement between the Board and the Fairview Education Association.

5. Non-Disparagement

Each party to this agreement agrees not to disparage or make or solicit any comments, statements, or the like to the media, the public or to others that may be considered derogatory or detrimental to the good name or business reputation of the other, related to the circumstances of this action only.

6. Successors and Assignees

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, assignees, heirs, officers, employees, officials and agents.

7. Amendment; Severability; No Waiver

This Agreement shall not be amended, changed or modified except in a writing signed by all parties. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. If it is determined by a court or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction that a specific clause of this Agreement is illegal or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect unless doing so would destroy the essential nature of this Agreement. Any failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of such provision or of any other provision.

8. No Further Consideration

Perez-Ruiz and the Board each expressly acknowledge and represent that neither party will seek nor be entitled to any further consideration from the other in connection with this Agreement other than the consideration as detailed herein.

9. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matters herein, and supersedes and integrates any and all prior representations, negotiations, discussions, understandings and agreements, whether oral or written. Each party acknowledges that neither the other party, nor any agent or attorney of the other party, has made any promise, representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, not contained in this Agreement to induce it to execute this Agreement.

10. Counterparts

This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and shall be binding as if all Parties executed the original thereof. A facsimile or electronically-transmitted signature shall have the same effect as an original signature.

11. Law Governing

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Confidentiality

The terms of this Agreement shall be held in strictest confidence by all parties and shall not be publicized or disclosed in any manner whatsoever, except that: (a) either party may disclose this Agreement in confidence to their attorneys, accountants, auditors, immediate family members, union representatives, and tax preparers; (b) the Board may disclose this Agreement as necessary to fulfill its obligation under the Open Public Records Act, as well as all other standard or legally required reporting or disclosure requirements; and (c) as necessary with regard to any proceeding for the enforcement of this Agreement or as required by law.

[Remainder of Page Left Intentionally Blank]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this agreement consisting of this and four (4) preceding pages on the dates set forth below

Witness

Maria Perez-Ruiz

Dated 01/15/2024

Dated 07/15/2024

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)

ss:

COUNTY OF Bergen)

I certify that on July 15, 2024, Maria Perez-Ruiz personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that she

(a) is named in and personally signed this document, and
(b) signed this document as her voluntary act and deed

CARLA NOLAZCO
Notary Public, State of New Jersey
Comm. # 50003703
My Commission Expires 07/23/2028

Notary Public Signature

FAIRVIEW BOARD OF EDUCATION

Attest

By: Angelo D'Arminio Jr., President

Rita Juliano, Board Secretary

Dated

Dated

RESOLUTION

BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOROUGH OF FAIRVIEW
COUNTY OF BERGEN, STATE OF NEW JERSEY

Meeting of August 7, 2024

WHEREAS, Maria Perez-Ruiz (Perez-Ruiz), a former employee of the Fairview School District (District), alleged a violation, misinterpretation, or misapplication of the District's agreement with the Fairview Education Association, the policy of the Fairview Board of Education, law, or administrative decision concerning the effective date of her resignation; and;

WHEREAS, Perez-Ruiz filed a grievance with her principal; and

WHEREAS, the principal denied the applicant's grievance; and

WHEREAS, Perez-Ruiz filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education-New Jersey Office of Administrative Law (OAL); and

WHEREAS, Perez-Ruiz sought monetary damages; and

WHEREAS, certain negotiations took place between the District and Perez-Ruiz through their respective legal counsel; and

WHEREAS, considering the vagaries of litigation and the cost of same, the parties seek to enter into a written settlement agreement, which encompasses the terms of the settlement of the OAL action (Settlement Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the terms of the Settlement Agreement are in the best interests of the District;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Education of the Borough of Fairview as follows:

1. The Settlement Agreement with Perez-Ruiz be and hereby is approved, and the Board President and Board Secretary be and hereby are authorized and directed to execute same on behalf of the District.

2. The Business Administrator is authorized and directed to issue such checks and to make such payments as required by the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that I am the secretary to the Fairview Board of Education. I further certify that the foregoing resolution has been duly adopted by the Board and such resolution is in full force and effect as of the date first written above.

Rita Juliano, Board Secretary

341-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 01613-24
Agency Dkt. No. 10-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Shaira Rose Cruz, Board of Trustees of the Empowerment Academy Charter School, Hudson County.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that Paragraph 2 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement. Further, with respect to Paragraph 7, "Confidentiality of Agreement", the Board is reminded that it must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq., notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement consistent with applicable public records law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 16, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 18, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01613-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 10-1/24

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE EMPOWERMENT ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, INC., HUDSON COUNTY, Petitioner,
v.
IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF SHAIRA ROSE CRUZ,
Respondent.

Thomas O. Johnston, Esq., for petitioner (Johnson Law Firm, LLC, attorney)

Shaira Rose Cruz, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: August 19, 2024 Decided: August 19, 2024

BEFORE MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have agreed to settle this case and have entered into an agreement. Their settlement agreement is attached to this decision.

Having reviewed the terms of their agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntary, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties in this case.

I ORDER that the settlement agreement is APPROVED, that its terms are INCORPORATED into this decision, and that this case is CONCLUDED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Matt Miller

August 19, 2024
DATE

MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: August 20, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: August 20, 2024

sej

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This settlement agreement ("Agreement") made
by and between

EMPOWERMENT ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, INC.
(Hereinafter referred to as "EMPOWERMENT")

AND

SHAIRA ROSE CRUZ
(Hereinafter referred to as "Ms. Cruz")

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Ms. Cruz was employed by EMPOWERMENT, pursuant to an Employment Agreement, dated June 22, 2023 for the 2023-2024 school year; and

WHEREAS, on or about January 12, 2024, EMPOWERMENT filed an Order to Show Cause with the Office of Controversies and Disputes within the State of New Jersey, Department of Education, docketed as 10-1/24 and titled as, In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Shaira Rose Cruz, Board of Trustees of the Empowerment Academy Charter School, Inc., Hudson County; and

WHEREAS, on or about February 1, 2024, the aforesaid case was transferred to the State of New Jersey, Office of Administrative Law, Docket No. EDU 01613-2024N; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into a settlement for any and all claims arising from Ms. Cruz's abandonment of her employment with EMPOWERMENT;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises hereinafter set forth, the parties desire to enter into this Agreement as follows:

1. EXECUTION DATE. As used in this Agreement, the "Execution Date" shall mean the date as of which the Agreement is fully executed.

2. CONSIDERATION. In consideration of the release described in Section 3 below, Ms. Cruz agrees to not enter into employment with any public school, including any charter school, private school for the disabled, or any other position requiring a teacher certification, through one year from the Execution Date. Upon receipt of the fully executed Agreement, EMPOWERMENT's counsel will file a request with the Office of Administrative Law that the matter be dismissed, in accordance with this Settlement Agreement. If Ms. Cruz violates her agreement herein by accepting employment, which is prohibited hereunder, prior to the one-year expiration date of this Agreement, she shall be in material breach of this Agreement and agrees to an immediate one-year suspension of her teaching certification issued by the New Jersey Department of Education. Ms. Cruz further consents to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education to enforce such suspension, as a dispute that arises under the New Jersey school laws.

3. RELEASE. In consideration for the agreement described in Section 2 above, the parties hereby mutually release each other and any of their predecessors, successors, parents, agents, affiliates or subsidiary entities, and its or their present or former officers, directors, agents, including EMPOWERMENT'S Board of Trustees, representatives, employees, attorneys, committees, trustees, fiduciaries, trusts and their respective successors and assigns, heirs, executors and personal or legal representatives (hereinafter collectively referred to, together with EMPOWERMENT, as the "Parties") from any and all claims or causes of action they may have or claim to have against another party arising out of or related to Ms. Cruz's employment with EMPOWERMENT. The claims released include, but are not limited to:

a. all statutory claims, including but not limited to claims arising under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (as amended), the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act (as amended), the New Jersey Family Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code (as amended), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as amended), the

Rehabilitation Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (as amended), the Fair Labor Standards Act (as amended), the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994, the National Labor Relations Act (as amended), the Federal Warn Act (as amended), the New Jersey Millville Dallas Airmotive Plan Job Loss Notification Act (as amended), the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the Occupational Safety and Health Act (as amended), the Equal Pay Act (as amended), the New Jersey Minimum Wage Law (as amended), the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law (as amended), Equal Pay Law for New Jersey (as amended), the New Jersey Worker Health and Safety Act (as amended), the Labor Management Relations Act (as amended) and State Education Laws, N.J.S.A. 18A et seq.;

b. all claims arising under the United States or New Jersey Constitutions;

c. all claims arising under any Executive Order or derived from or based upon any State or Federal regulations;

d. all common law claims, including but not limited to any and all rights to discovery, claims for wrongful discharge, constructive discharge, violation of public policy, breach of an express or implied contract, breach of an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation, conspiracy, tortious interference with contract or prospective economic advantage, promissory estoppel, equitable estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, detrimental reliance, retaliation, and negligence;

e. all claims for any compensation including commissions, back wages, front pay, punitive damages, pay increases, bonuses or awards, fringe benefits, disability benefits, severance benefits, reinstatement, retroactive seniority, pension benefits, contributions to retirement plans, or any other form of economic loss;

f. all claims for personal injury, including physical injury, mental anguish, emotional distress, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, damage to name or reputation, interest, liquidated damages, and punitive damages; and

g. all claims for costs, interest, and attorneys' fees.

Ms. Cruz understands that she has been given a period of twenty-one (21) calendar days to review and consider this Agreement before signing it. Ms. Cruz also understands that she is free to use as much of the twenty-one (21) day period as she wishes or considers necessary before deciding to sign the Agreement. Ms. Cruz may revoke her signature of the Agreement within seven (7) calendar days of signing it by delivering written notice of revocation to Thomas Johnston, Esq., 151 Forest Street, Suite A, Montclair, New Jersey 07042. If Ms. Cruz has not revoked her signature of this Agreement by written notice received within the seven (7) day period, it becomes effective immediately thereafter (the "Effective Date").

4. NON-ADMISSION OF LIABILITY. This Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by either party of any of the acts or omissions alleged, or which could have been alleged against the other party. The Parties specifically deny any liability whatsoever for any damages, injuries or other claims made by either party against the other party.

5. AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE. Each party mutually represents that they have not, and agrees will not, file any lawsuit or claim against the other based on any events, whether known or unknown, occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any events related to, arising out of, or in connection with, Ms. Cruz's employment with EMPOWERMENT, or the termination of such employment, in any court or tribunal of the United States, New Jersey, or any other state, city, county, or locality. Parties expressly represent that they have not filed a lawsuit or claim or initiated any other administrative proceeding other than as noted herein, and further promise not to initiate a lawsuit or to bring any other claim pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 arising out of or in any way related to Ms. Cruz's employment by EMPOWERMENT. Ms. Cruz also acknowledges and agrees that while this release does not preclude her from filing a charge with the Public Employment Relations Commission, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a similar state or local agency, or from participating in any investigation or proceeding with such an agency, she will not personally recover monies, and expressly waives the right to recover such monies, for any complaint or charge filed against EMPOWERMENT with any federal, state or local board, agency or court.

6. NON-DISPARAGEMENT. The Parties agree that they will not at any time, from the time of signing this Agreement, through any medium, either orally or in writing, including but not limited to, electronic mail, television or radio, computer networks or internet bulletin boards, blogs, social media, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, or X (formerly Twitter), or any other form of communication, disparage, defame, impugn, damage or assail the reputation of the other party, but rather shall act in good faith to refrain from any conduct or communication which might reasonably be expected to cause the recipient of a communication to question the business condition, integrity, competence, good character or professionalism of the other party.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY OF AGREEMENT. The Parties agree to maintain in confidence and not to disclose the terms of this Agreement except that Ms. Cruz may disclose this agreement to her immediate family and professional tax advisor, unless otherwise required by law.

8. CONSIDERATION. Ms. Cruz acknowledges that the only consideration she has received for signing this Agreement is that set forth herein. No other promise, inducement, threat, agreement or understanding of any kind or description has been made with her or to her to cause her to enter into this Agreement.

9. SEVERABILITY. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and cannot be modified to be enforceable, excluding the general release language set forth in Section 3, such provision shall immediately become null and void, leaving the remainder of this Agreement in full force and effect. If the general release language in Section 3 is found to be illegal or unenforceable, Ms. Cruz and EMPOWERMENT agree to execute a binding replacement release.

10. CONSTRUCTION. The Parties and their representatives have participated fully in the review of this Agreement. Any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not apply in interpreting this Agreement. The language in this Agreement shall be interpreted as to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party.

11. AMENDMENT. This Agreement may only be amended by a writing signed by all of the Parties to this Agreement.

12. AGREEMENT ENTERED VOLUNTARILY. Ms. Cruz acknowledges that she:

a. has carefully read and fully understands all of the terms of this Agreement;

b. understands that by signing this Agreement, she is waiving her rights under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. § 621, et seq., as well as all rights to all claims described in Section 2 of this Agreement, and that she is not waiving any rights after the date that this Agreement is signed;

c. knowingly and voluntarily agrees to all of the terms set forth in this Agreement;

d. knowingly and voluntarily intends to be legally bound by this Agreement;

e. is receiving consideration in addition to anything of value to which she is already entitled;

f. is hereby advised to consult with an attorney prior to the signing of this Agreement; and

g. has not been coerced, threatened, or intimidated in any way into signing this Agreement.

13. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and fully supersedes any and all prior contracts or agreements between the Parties pertaining to compensation or severance, and it likewise fully supersedes any and all other conflicting agreements or understandings between the Parties.

14. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed, including execution by electronic signature (e.g. pdf or tif file), in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and which shall collectively be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

Ms. Shaira Rose Cruz

Date: 7/30/2024

For Empowerment Academy Charter School, Inc.

Name: Angelo Thanos

Title: Director of Education

Date: 7-26

342-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02199-24
Agency Dkt. No. 23-1/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Ashley Loiodice, Board of Education of the Borough of Brielle, Monmouth County.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1. Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 16, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 18, 2024

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
APPROVING SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02199-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 23-1/24

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATES OF ASHLEY LOIODICE, BOROUGH OF BRIELLE, BOARD OF EDUCATION, MONMOUTH COUNTY.

Cherie L. Adams, Esq., for petitioner, Borough of Brielle, Board of Education, Monmouth County (Adams, Lattiboudere, Croot & Herman, attorneys)

Ashley Loiodice, respondent, pro se

Record Closed: August 14, 2024 Decided: August 16, 2024

BEFORE SARAH H. SURGENT, ALJ:

This contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6. The parties have agreed to settle this case and have entered into an agreement, which was placed on the record on August 14, 2024, and is attached hereto. (J-1).

Having reviewed the terms of the agreement, I have determined that the settlement is voluntary, consistent with the law, and fully dispositive of all issues in controversy between the parties in this matter.

I therefore ORDER that the settlement agreement is APPROVED, that its terms are INCORPORATED herein, and that this matter is CONCLUDED.

I FILE my decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration. This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who is empowered by law to make a final decision in this case. If the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not act within 45 days, and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

August 16, 2024
DATE

Sarah H. Surgent
SARAH H. SURGENT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: August 19, 2024

Date Mailed to Parties: August 19, 2024

SHS/nn

ADAMS LATTIBOUDERE CROOT & HERMAN, LLC
555 Route 1 South, Suite 240
Iselin, NJ 08830
(973) 6437000
Attorneys for Petitioner Brielle Board of Education

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF ASHLEY LOIODICE (GAHR, MAIDEN NAME) -and- BRIELLE BOARD OF EDUCATION	OAL Docket No.: EDU 02199-2024 S Agency Ref. No.: 23-1/24 AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the Brielle Board of Education ("Board" or "District") is a local education agency; and

WHEREAS, Ashley Loiodice (Gahr, maiden name) ("Respondent") executed an employment contract with the District for the 2023-2024 school year on or about May 31, 2023; and

WHEREAS, Respondent was employed as a Fourth Grade Teacher at Brielle Elementary School for the 2023-2024 year; and,

WHEREAS, on November 20, 2023, Respondent submitted a letter of resignation to the Superintendent of the Brielle School District, noting December 21, 2023, as her last day; and

WHEREAS, on November 21, 2023, the Superintendent advised Respondent of the contractual 60-day notice requirement; and,

WHEREAS, Respondent nonetheless abandoned her position and did not return to the District after December 21, 2023; and

WHEREAS, Respondent's abandonment of her position has caused Brielle students to suffer a disruption in their learning and academic programs; and

WHEREAS, on January 25, 2024, the District filed a request for an Order to Show Cause, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-3.1, and to suspend Respondent's teaching certificate for one (1) year in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and18A:28-9; and

J-1

WHEREAS, in consideration of the District not proceeding with its request for a license suspension of one calendar year, Loiodice and the District wish to set forth the conditions of their agreement pursuant to the terms set forth below;

NOW THEREFORE, on their own behalf, Loiodice and the District hereby agree to the following items:

1. Ashley Loiodice agrees to accept a license suspension of her teaching certificate from July 25, 2024 through January 25, 2025.

2. Ashley Loiodice acknowledges she is due no compensation from the District and hereby also waives any claims she might have against the District through the date of the agreement, including in connection with this order to show cause.

3. The District agrees to accept this suspension through January 25, 2025 in resolution of the above proceeding and shall not proceed further with its request for a license suspension of one (1) full calendar year.

The parties hereby acknowledge their agreement to the terms set forth above by signing below.

BRIELLE BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: _____ Date: 7/25/2024

Ashley Loiodice
Ashley Loiodice

7/23/2024
Date

343-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08877-21
Agency Dkt. No. 173-9/21

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the Lower Cape May Regional High School District, Cape May County, Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of School Finance,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decisions of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) issued January 30, 2023, and August 5, 2024, the exceptions filed by petitioner, Board of Education of the Lower Cape May Regional High School District (Board) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the reply thereto filed by the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of School Finance (OSF) have been reviewed and considered.

At issue is the Board's challenge to OSF's March 31, 2020, and December 31, 2020, determinations that the Lower Cape May Regional High School District was the district of residence for then minor child K.C. for the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years and was therefore financially responsible for K.C.'s education when K.C. was placed at residential State facilities or group homes during those years.

K.C. is the child of J.C., biological father, and C.B., biological mother. According to the record, K.C. lived with her maternal grandmother, L.T., in Lower Cape May until February 2019. It is not known from the record whether L.T. ever obtained legal custody of K.C., as there are no court orders in the record to indicate same, and L.T. did not participate in the proceedings at the OAL. It is also not known from the record where K.C.'s parents were residing in February 2019.

In February 2019, the Department of Children and Families (DCF), Division of Child Protection and Permanency (DCPP) placed K.C. in a residential placement. It is not known from the record whether the Superior Court of New Jersey initially awarded legal custody of K.C. to DCPP in February 2019 when she was placed in a residential facility, or at some point thereafter. But as of October 2, 2019, according to a court order in the record filed under docket number FN-05-89-12, the Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Cape May County, continued custody, care and supervision of K.C. with DCPP.[1]

On October 21, 2019, the Superior Court transferred legal custody of K.C. from DCPP to K.C.'s father, J.C., but continued physical custody with K.C.'s current placement, Spring House/Legacy Treatment Home. This court order indicates that J.C. was living in Sussex County at that time. On or about December 5, 2019, J.C. enrolled K.C. at High Point Regional High School in Sussex, New Jersey. However, the apparent plan to discharge K.C. to J.C.'s home fell through, as he subsequently told DCPP that he was not willing to care for K.C. Consequently, on December 11, 2019, the Superior Court awarded legal custody to DCPP once again, and K.C. was placed at Legacy Treatment Services. K.C. remained at said placement until July 21, 2020, when DCPP placed her at East Mountain Youth Lodge/Carrier Clinic. She attended school there from September 6, 2020, until April 19, 2021.

[1] "FN" child protection proceedings in Superior Court are initiated by DCPP's filing of a verified complaint and order to show cause for custody, care and supervision or care and supervision of the subject child or children. See, e.g., N.J. Div. of Youth & Fam. Servs. v. W.F., 434 N.J. Super. 288, 291 (App. Div. 2014). Because the record in this matter does not contain the verified complaint or order to show cause, it is not known when the litigation commenced, or when DCPP was first awarded custody of K.C.

When children are placed in residential State facilities or group homes by agencies such as DCF, "local school districts remain financially responsible for their educational services" pursuant to the State Facilities Education Act of 1979, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-1 to -13 (the Act). Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Highland Park v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13316-14, Initial Decision at 10 (Nov. 30, 2015), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 14-16 (Jan. 15, 2016). Accordingly, the Act provides that "[f]or each State-placed child who is resident in a district and in a State facility on the last school day prior to October 16 of the prebudget year, and for each district-placed child who is resident in a district and in a State facility on the last school day prior to October 16 of the budget year, the Commissioner of Education shall deduct from the State aid payable to that district an amount equal to the approved per pupil cost established pursuant to [N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-24]." N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-2.

To determine where financial responsibility rests, the Commissioner is responsible for identifying the district of residence for children in residential placements pursuant to the Act, which states that "[t]he district of residence for children who are in residential State facilities, or who have been placed by State agencies in group homes . . . shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to h[er] most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency."[2] N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b). The Act further provides that "[i]f the district of residence cannot be determined according to the criteria contained herein . . . the State shall assume fiscal responsibility for the tuition of the child." N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(d). See, e.g., Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Buena v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 288 (1995) (holding that the child's district of residence could not be determined when adoptive parents surrendered their parental rights and were no longer child's parents or guardians as a matter of law).

"Residence" as utilized within Title 18A "means domicile, unless a temporary residence is indicated." N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1. "[T]he domicile of the child follows that of the parent or guardian having legal custody over him or her." L.D.M. v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of W. Orange, Commissioner Decision No. 151-01, at 3 (2001). See also Mansfield Twp. Bd. of Educ. v. State Bd. of Educ., 101 N.J.L. 474, 479 (Sup. Ct. 1925) (holding that persons other than parents having "legal control" over children are "those to whose care and custody children are committed by operation of law" and "have the legal status of parent or guardian"). "For purposes of determining domicile and [2] The related regulations offer additional guidance, including that "[t]he 'present district of residence' of a child in a residential State facility, defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-45 . . . means the New Jersey district of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the last school day prior to October 16." N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2(a)(1). "The 'present district of residence' of a child placed by a State agency in a group home . . . means the New Jersey District of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the date of the child's most recent placement by the State agency." N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2(a)(2). "In subsequent school years spent in the educational placement made by a State agency, the child's 'present district of residence' shall be determined in the same manner as for a child in a residential State facility as set forth in (a)1 above." Ibid. "If the State becomes the child's legal guardian after the date of the child's initial placement by a State agency, the State will assume financial responsibility for the child's education costs in subsequent school years." N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2(a)(3).

---

entitlement to a public education, the Commissioner can find no distinction in the case law between 'guardianship' and 'custody.'" V.S.-L. v. Bd. of Educ. of City of Garfield, Commissioner Decision No. 281-07, at 8 (July 9, 2007). Both terms "clearly signify positions of authority created to allow legal control of another human being who, because of age, physical or mental condition, cannot take responsibility for him or herself." Ibid.

Based upon information received from DCF that K.C. had lived with L.T., a resident of Lower Cape May, since August 2014, and immediately prior to her placement at a residential facility by DCPP in February 2019, OSF determined that the Lower Cape May Regional High School District was K.C.'s district of residence for the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years.[3] Following receipt of the Board's petition of appeal, the Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the matter to the OAL. Ultimately, following an extended period of motion practice and discovery, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted OSF's motions for summary decision upon concluding that Lower Cape May Regional High School District was K.C.'s district of residence for both the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years.

Specifically, the ALJ found and concluded that Lower Cape May Regional High School District was K.C.'s district of residence for the 2019-2020 school year because "[i]t is undisputed that K.C. resided with her grandmother prior to her placement at a State residential facility in [3] When identifying the proper district of residence pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(b), the Commissioner is permitted to rely upon "the address submitted by . . . the Department of Children and Families . . . on forms prepared by the Department of Education" and need not conduct his own investigation. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2(b). However, a board of education may contest OSF's district of residence determination and provide additional information for OSF to consider. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2. If OSF declines to issue a redetermination, a board of education may commence proceedings before the Commissioner and "bears the burden of proving that the . . . [district of residence] determination was arbitrary, capricious or without reason." Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Delaware v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., Commissioner Decision No. 177-06S, at 12 (May 10, 2006).

February 2019. Respondent correctly states that on October 15, 2019, L.T., K.C.'s grandmother had legal custody of K.C. who resided within the boundaries of the petitioner's school district." January 30, 2023, Initial Decision at 8. Regarding the 2020-2021 school year, the ALJ likewise concluded that Lower Cape May Regional High School District was K.C.'s district of residence "because K.C. resided with her grandmother prior to placement by the DCF." August 5, 2024, Initial Decision, at 12.

In their exceptions, the Board contends that the ALJ incorrectly assumed that L.T. was K.C.'s legal guardian absent a court order indicating same, and erroneously conflated physical custody with legal custody. In its reply exceptions, OSF maintains that L.T. did have legal custody of K.C. and claims that a court order from August 2014 transferring legal custody of K.C. to L.T. in fact exists, although said order was not part of the record before the ALJ. Reply Exceptions, at 16.

Absent a court order or credible testimony from L.T., the ALJ's finding that L.T. had legal custody of K.C. prior to her February 2019 placement by DCPP is unsupported by the record. Even if L.T. assumed physical custody of K.C. at some point prior to February 2019, that fact does not automatically make L.T. the legal guardian or legal custodian of K.C. without a court order. For purposes of identifying K.C.'s district of residence for the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years, it is critical to know who had legal custody of K.C. during those years. Consequently, the Commissioner has determined that a remand to the OAL is necessary to determine whether L.T., at any point in time, obtained legal custody of K.C. via a court order. See L.D.M., at 3 ("[T]he domicile of the child follows that of the parent or guardian having legal custody over him or her.") (emphasis added).

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings consistent with this decision. Upon remand, all custody orders involving K.C. should be entered into the record, so that the ALJ may make findings of fact as to when L.T. obtained legal custody of K.C., and when DCPP obtained legal custody of K.C.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 17, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 18, 2024

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08877-21
AGENCY DKT. NO. 173-9/21

LOWER CAPE MAY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAPE MAY COUNTY, Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, OFFICE OF SCHOOL FINANCE,

Respondent.

Brett E. J. Gorman, Esq., appearing for petitioner (Parker McCay, P.A., attorneys)

Sadia Ahsanuddin, Deputy Attorney General, appearing for respondent (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Record closed: May 31, 2024 Decided: August 5, 2024

BEFORE KIM C. BELIN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Board of Education of the Lower Cape May Regional High School District, Cape May County (petitioner/Board) challenges the determination of the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of School Finance (respondent/OSF) that the petitioner is the district of residence of the minor child, K.C., for the 2019–20 and 2020–21 school years and thus is responsible for her educational costs during those school years.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 31, 2020, the OSF determined that the petitioner was the responsible school district for K.C.'s educational costs for the 2019–20 school year. On September 10, 2021, the petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal,[1] and the matter was transmitted as a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on October 27, 2021. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On October 25, 2021, respondent filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g). Petitioner submitted a response on November 4, 2021, and on February 2, 2022, the Hon. Jeffrey R. Wilson denied the motion. On or about August 11, 2022, Judge Wilson was appointed to the Superior Court of New Jersey, and the case was reassigned to the undersigned.

On August 22, 2022, the respondent filed a motion for partial summary decision, and the petitioner filed a motion for summary decision. On September 16, 2022, the East Mountain School (EMS) filed a motion to intervene. On September 20, 2022, the petitioner filed its opposition to respondent's motion for partial summary decision, and the respondent filed its opposition to the petitioner's motion for summary decision.

[1] N.J.A.C. 6A:23-19.2(d) mandates that appeals must be filed within thirty days of the final notice that a child was determined to be a resident of the district. The petitioner's appeal was filed beyond the thirty-day requirement because it relied upon the OSF's advice not to file an appeal because J.C. had assumed custody and transferred K.C. to another school district. (PMSD, Exhibit 13, DOE 11.)

On September 27, 2022,[2] the petitioner filed its opposition to the EMS's motion to intervene. The respondent did not submit a response to the motion to intervene. The respondent was granted a one-week extension to file its reply brief, which was submitted on October 4, 2022.

On October 27, 2022, the undersigned denied EMS's motion to intervene but granted EMS participation status. Oral argument on the motions for summary decision and partial summary decision was held on December 19, 2022. On January 30, 2023, the undersigned denied the petitioner's motion for summary decision and granted the respondent's motion for partial summary decision, finding that the petitioner was the district of residence for the 2019–20 school year. However, there remained an issue of material fact regarding K.C.'s residence after July 1, 2020, for the 2020–21 school year.

On April 19, 2023, the undersigned signed a protective order for an in-camera review of K.C.'s records from the Division of Children and Families (DCF). The parties obtained the records from the DCF regarding K.C.'s residency after July 1, 2020. Based on that previously undisclosed discovery, the parties filed cross-motions for summary decision on April 9, 2024. The parties were granted extensions to submit their oppositions and replies. The respondent filed its opposition and reply to the petitioner's motion for summary decision on May 20, 2024, and the petitioner filed its reply on May 31, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The following FACTS are undisputed, and I therefore FIND:

1. K.C. was a minor child of J.C., her biological father, and C.B., her biological mother. C.B. did not have physical or legal custody of K.C. during the period relevant to this controversy.

[2] Petitioner filed a letter dated September 30, 2022, opposing the motion to intervene and requesting the opportunity to submit a more detailed response. A letter brief dated September 27, 2022, was submitted.

2. K.C. was diagnosed with bipolar disorder, depression, post-traumatic stress disorder, anxiety, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, self-injurious behavior and suicidal ideations. (Petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision (PMSD), Exhibit 10.)

3. In a letter dated December 31, 2020, the OSF determined that the petitioner was the district of residence for K.C. for the 2020-21 school year. (PMSD, Exhibit 2.)

4. K.C. resided with her maternal grandmother, L.T., in Lower Cape May until February 2019, when the Division of Children and Families (DCF) placed K.C. in a residential placement. (Id.)

5. In an Order dated October 2, 2019, the Hon. M. Susan Sheppard, P.J.F.P., continued physical custody with the DCF. The Order scheduled a discharge planning conference for October 9, 2019, to facilitate discharging K.C. to her father's custody upon consent of counsel. A compliance review was scheduled for October 21, 2019. (PMSD, Exhibit 3.)

6. On October 21, 2019, Judge Sheppard transferred legal custody of K.C. to her father, J.C., but continued physical custody with K.C.'s then current placement, Spring House/Legacy Treatment Home. L.T. was terminated from the litigation. A compliance review was scheduled for November 13, 2019. (PMSD, Exhibit 4.)

7. J.C. authorized the release of K.C.'s pupil records to High Point Regional High School on October 21, 2019. (Respondent's Opposing Brief, Exhibit A, P003-004.)

8. Physical and legal custody for K.C. remained unchanged at the compliance review held on November 13, 2019. Another compliance review was scheduled for December 11, 2019. (PMSD, Exhibit 5.)

9. According to the DCF Contact Sheet, Mariah Berger, the new DCF caseworker for K.C., wrote on December 2, 2019, that she contacted High Point Regional to inquire about the delay in enrolling K.C. On December 5, 2019, High Point Regional staff responded that J.C. came to the school on November 27, 2019, to complete the paperwork but was unable to do so because the school closed early; the school reopened on December 2, 2019, however, a severe snowstorm caused power outages, and the school was closed. The High Point Regional staff person stated that they were reviewing K.C.'s file and would reach out to J.C. and were also requesting pupil records from the petitioner. (PMSD, Exhibit 9.)

10. Mariah Berger also drafted summary notes stating that on December 5, 2019, she contacted J.C., who stated that there was no longer an option for K.C. to live with him and that Ms. Berger was no longer welcome in his home. (Id.)

11. On December 11, 2019, Judge Sheppard ordered physical custody to remain with DCF at Spring House "until successful completion of the program." The Order did not specify K.C.'s legal custody. (PMSD, Exhibit 6.) The Judge further ordered:

> [T]he court is not currently requiring J.C. to comply with services based on his current position that he is not willing to care for K.C. and for other reasons stated on the record. Monmouth Regional School District, which covers Spring House, shall be considered the home school district for K.C. for school/homebound instruction purposes. The court determines that the removal of the child(ren) K.C. is necessary to avoid ongoing risk to the life, safety or health of the child(ren). Continuation of residence in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the child(ren) because J.C. strongly indicates that he is not willing to care for K.C. She cannot be maintained safely in his home. She has . . . health issues that need to be addressed in her current placement at Spring House and for the other reasons stated on the record and other due cause existing. (Ibid.)

12. On December 11, 2019, K.C. was placed at Legacy Treatment Services. (PMSD, Exhibit 8.)

13. In a letter dated December 11, 2019, DCP&P caseworker Mariah Berger and supervisor Cynthia Ginnetti notified J.C. that K.C. had been placed in an out-of-home placement and was in DCP&P's custody, and as such, K.C.'s new school placement was Monmouth Regional High School. J.C. was given five business days to challenge this placement. This letter listed Lower Cape May Regional School District as the "District of Residence" and Monmouth Regional School District as the "Resource Home District." The rationale given for this placement was:

> The distance of the out of home placement to your child's present school – [K.C.] is placed in a Legacy Treatment Solutions Program located in Monmouth County, NJ. Monmouth Regional High School is the district that is closest in proximity to [K.C.]'s placement. (Ibid.)

14. Mss. Berger and Ginnetti sent separate letters to the Monmouth Regional School District and High Point Regional School District dated December 12, 2019, stating that K.C. was in DCP&P's custody at Spring House-Legacy Treatment Solutions and the new school placement was Monmouth Regional High School. In both letters, High Point Regional School District was listed as "District of Residence," and Monmouth Regional School District was listed as "Resource Home District." (Ibid.)

15. In separate letters dated January 22, 2020, caseworker Berger and supervisor Reneta Angelastro notified Monmouth Regional High School and Lower Cape May Regional High School that K.C. was in DCP&P's custody at Spring House-Legacy Treatment Services and was to be enrolled in the Monmouth Regional School District. In these letters, Lower Cape May Regional was listed as the "District of Residence," and Monmouth Regional School District was listed as the "Resource Home District." (Ibid.)

16. On or about January 2020, K.C. was transferred from Legacy Treatment to Bridgeton Intermediate;[3] however, K.C. signed herself out against medical advice. K.C. returned to Legacy Treatment. (PMSD, Exhibit 9.)

17. On or about July 2020, K.C. was discharged from Legacy Treatment and was a patient at the Monmouth Medical Center Adolescent Psychiatric Unit, where she remained until July 31, 2020. (Id.)

18. On July 31, 2020, K.C. was placed by DCF in East Mountain Youth Lodge at Carrier Clinic. (Respondent's Opposition to the Petitioner's MSD, Exhibit A at P020 and PMSD, Exhibit 12.)

19. On or about September 11, 2020, Ms. Ginnetti wrote in her summary that J.C. expressed a desire to terminate his parental rights. (PMSD, Exhibit 10.)

20. Mariah Berger noted in her summary dated September 17, 2020, that J.C. had been arrested on August 19, 2020, and remained incarcerated on new charges and for violating his parole. (Respondent's MSD, Exhibit E.)

21. In an email dated April 9, 2021, the OSE notified the petitioner that K.C. never resided with her father but remained in her out-of-district placement, and thus, K.C.'s grandmother was the last residence for K.C. prior to placement, making the petitioner responsible for K.C.'s educational costs. (Respondent's Opposition to Petitioner's MSD, P015-016.)

22. In an email dated May 20, 2021, the respondent stated that whether a child is registered in the family's school district is irrelevant in determining which school district is responsible for the child's educational costs. The controlling criteria for assigning financial responsibility for the child's education were where the child's parent/guardian resided on the date of the child's placement and whether the placement was authorized by a State agency. (Respondent's Opposition to Petitioner's MSD, P024.)

[3] Inspira Behavioral Health Child Inpatient Center Bridgeton.

23. K.C. became a resident of East Mountain Youth Lodge on July 31, 2020, and attended classes from September 6, 2020, until April 19, 2021.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

A motion for summary decision may be granted if the papers and discovery presented, as well as any affidavits which may have been filed with the application, show that there is no genuine issue of material fact, and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). If the motion is sufficiently supported, the non-moving party must demonstrate by affidavit that there is a genuine issue of fact, which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding, to prevail in such an application. Ibid. These provisions mirror the summary judgment language of R. 4:46-2(c) of the New Jersey Court Rules.

The motion judge must "consider whether competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party . . . are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 523 (1995). And even if the non-moving party comes forward with some evidence, this forum must grant summary decision if the evidence is "so one-sided that [the moving party] must prevail as a matter of law." Id. at 536. I CONCLUDE that this matter is ripe for summary decision and that the respondent is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

The petitioner herein challenges the respondent's determination that the petitioner is the district of residence responsible for K.C.'s educational costs for the 2020-21 school year pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12; N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2; and N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.3(a)6. The petitioner contends that there is no factual dispute that the DCF, a State agency, became K.C.'s legal guardian on or about February 11, 2019. In addition, the petitioner asserts that this tribunal should reconsider its earlier decision dated January 30, 2023, finding the petitioner financially responsible for K.C.'s educational costs for the 2019–20 school year in light of new evidence released by the DCF because of a protective order. The petitioner contends that the new evidence affirms that K.C. did not reside with her grandmother, L.T., on October 15, 2019, and thus, the petitioner was not financially responsible for K.C.'s educational costs for the 2019–20 school year.

Conversely, the respondent herein contends that there is no factual dispute that Lower Cape May was the district of residence for the 2020–21 school year because the last place K.C. resided prior to her placement in a residential placement by DCF was with her grandmother, who lived within the boundaries of the Lower Cape May school district. The new evidence released by DCF revealed that K.C. never resided with her father but remained in the State's physical custody despite the court order granting the father legal custody on October 21, 2019. Thus, the respondent contends that the petitioner is responsible for K.C.'s educational costs for the 2020–21 school year pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23-19.2(a)1. In addition, the respondent asserts that it is improper for the petitioner to include a request for reconsideration of a prior Initial Decision within a summary decision motion. The respondent contends that the proper vehicle was to file for interlocutory review or a motion for reconsideration.

N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)1 states that "a student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district." Students placed in State residential facilities, however, are governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12, which is at the heart of this controversy and provides:

> For school funding purposes, the Commissioner of Education shall determine district of residence as follows: . . .
>
> b. The district of residence for children who are in residential State facilities, or who have been placed by State agencies in group homes, skill development homes, private schools or out-of-State facilities, shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency.

Accordingly, the school district financially responsible for the educational costs of a child placed in a State facility is determined by the residence of the parent/guardian with whom the child last resided prior to the State placement. Corresponding regulations provide:

> The district of residence for school funding purposes shall be determined according to the following criteria:
>
> 1. The "present district of residence" of a child in a residential State facility, defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-45 and referred to in the first paragraph of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12.b, means the New Jersey district of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the last school day prior to October 16.
>
> 2. The "present district of residence" of a child placed by a State agency in a group home, skill development home, approved private school for students with disabilities or out-of-State facility, also referred to in N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12.b means the New Jersey district of residence of the child's parent(s) or guardian(s) as of the date of the child's most recent placement by the State agency. In subsequent school years spent in the educational placement made by a State agency, the child's "present district of residence" shall be determined in the same manner as for a child in a residential State facility as set forth in (a)1 above.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-19.2 (a)1 & 2.]

This regulation specifically identifies October 16 as the annual cutoff date because local school districts are required to file annual reports with the Commissioner of Education detailing pupil enrollment data, including, for example, the number of pupils enrolled by grade, the number of students receiving special education services, the number of pupils in state facilities, county vocational schools, and students receiving home instruction. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33. This data seeks "to correlate the 'district of residence' assignment of financial responsibility with an accurate determination of where a student is included, each academic year, for State-aid reporting purposes." Bd. of Ed. of the Borough of Highland Park, v. N.J. Dept. of Ed., et al., 2015 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 578, *13, (Nov. 30, 2015).

Thus, the critical question for this matter is where did K.C. reside on October 15, 2020? Based upon the factual record, it is undisputed that K.C. resided at East Mountain Youth Lodge, which is a residential treatment facility.[4] Accordingly, N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12b mandates that the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom K.C. lived prior to her most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency is determinative.

The challenge here is that J.C. was given legal custody of K.C. on October 21, 2019, and subsequent court orders are silent regarding legal custody. Physical custody specifically continued with the State agency, the DCF. The plain reading of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12b mandates that the district of residence is where the student lived with the parent or guardian prior to admission to a State facility. The factual record affirms that K.C. never lived with her father but rather remained in various State facilities, and thus, the last place of domicile with a parent or guardian was with K.C.'s grandmother in Lower Cape May.

The petitioner contends, however, that not only did the DCF have physical custody, but the DCF was K.C.'s legal guardian because it is undisputed that the DCF had physical custody of K.C. since December 11, 2019. However, the petitioner failed to present evidence to support the claim that the DCF was indeed K.C.'s legal guardian. Guardianship is "established by the order of a court of competent jurisdiction," and parental rights must be terminated. N.J.S.A. 30:4C-2; N.J.S.A. 30:4C-15(c) and (f) (a petition to terminate parental rights must be filed "if it appears that the best interests of any child under the care or custody of the [DCF] require that [the child] be placed under guardianship.") The respondent correctly asserts that the petitioner failed to produce a court order awarding legal guardianship and/or a court order terminating parental rights.[5] Simply put, there are no indicia of legal guardianship by the DCF.

---

[4] https://www.hackensackmeridianhealth.org/en/locations/east-mountain-youth-lodge

[5] Respondent submitted the certification of Mariah Eaves in support of its contention that no parental rights were terminated and thus the State never became K.C.'s legal guardian. However, this certification was not part of the original motion and therefore is rejected as evidence with probative value.

According to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(d), the State will only assume financial responsibility for a child's educational costs if one of three situations exists, namely, if the district of residence cannot be determined, if the statutory criteria identifies a district of residence outside of the State, or if the child has resided in a domestic violence shelter, homeless shelter, or transitional living facility located outside of the district of residence for more than one year. None of these conditions apply in the present controversy. Moreover, following the petitioner's logic would result in the DCF being financially responsible for the educational costs of every student it placed in a State facility. There is no evidence to support such a far-reaching and potentially costly proposition. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that there is insufficient proof that DCF assumed financial responsibility for K.C. for the 2020-21 school year. I further CONCLUDE that the petitioner was K.C.'s present district of residence for this school year because K.C. resided with her grandmother prior to placement by the DCF.

2019-20 School Year

The petitioner asked this tribunal to reverse the decision dated January 30, 2023, because the new evidence revealed that the respondent was always K.C.'s legal guardian. (PMSD, at 7.) This request is denied for two reasons. First, the petitioner failed to provide evidence to substantiate that the State was the legal guardian, which is the basis for the request. N.J.S.A. 30:4C-11 grants the DCF the discretion to "accept and provide care or custody as the circumstances of the child may require" when "the safety or welfare of the child will be endangered unless proper care or custody is provided. . ." However, guardianship requires court action, which is not present in this case.

Second, the request is procedurally flawed. The Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules prohibit motions to reconsider an initial decision. N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.5(a). The only avenue to seek a change to the January 30, 2023, decision is for the petitioner to file a motion with the agency head to reopen the hearing pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.5(b) or seek interlocutory review pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE the Initial Decision dated January 30, 2023, will not be disturbed.

CONCLUSION

The respondent's determination regarding "district of residence" is entitled to a presumption of correctness. Bd. of Educ. of South River v. Dept of Educ., 2002 NJ AGEN LEXIS 228 (April 12, 2000). When a local school board contests a district of residence determination made by the Department of Education, the local board bears the burden of proving that the determination was an error. Bd. of Educ. of Bradley Beach v. Dept of Educ., 2000 NJ AGEN LEXIS 938 (July 3, 2000). Having carefully reviewed the record, I FIND there are no material facts in dispute and that the respondent is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. The record reflects that there are no disputed issues of material fact remaining as to where K.C. resided after July 1, 2020, and who had custody of her after December 11, 2019. Viewing the facts of each motion as I must, in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, I CONCLUDE that there is no basis for the petitioner's claim that the respondent erred in determining that the petitioner was the district of residence for 2020-21; since there is no factual dispute sufficient to justify an evidentiary hearing, summary decision in favor of the respondent is appropriate.

ORDER

I hereby ORDER that the petitioner's motion for summary decision is DENIED, and respondent's motion for summary decision is GRANTED. No other proceedings are required.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

August 5, 2024
DATE

Kim C. Belin
KIM C. BELIN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

KCB/am

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

- Motion for Summary Decision with certification and exhibits, dated April 9, 2024
- Response Letter Brief in opposition to the respondent's Motion for Partial Summary Decision, dated May 13, 2024
- Reply Letter Brief in further support of the petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision, dated May 31, 2024

For respondent

- Motion for Summary Decision with certification and exhibits, dated April 9, 2024
- Response Letter Brief in opposition to the petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision, dated May 20, 2024
- Reply Letter Brief in further opposition to the petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision, dated May 20, 2024

344-24

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

TAHESHA L. WAY
Lt. Governor

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

CHRISTOPHER HUBER
Acting Commissioner

September 17, 2024

Kaleasha Miles
407 Davenport Avenue
Hainesport, NJ 08036

Audra A. Pondish, Esq.
Adams Lattiboudere Croot & Herman, LLC
555 Route 1 South, Suite 240
Iselin, NJ 08830

Re: K.M. v. Board of Education of the Township of Hainesport, Burlington County, Agency Dkt. No. 94-4/22, Commissioner Decision No. 260-24

Dear Parties:

I have reviewed the materials filed in connection with petitioner's Motion for Reconsideration of the Commissioner's final decision issued July 11, 2023, dismissing the petition based on petitioner's failure to appear for a scheduled hearing.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.15(b)(2), a motion for reconsideration shall be considered based upon the following:

i. Claim(s) of mistake, provided, however, that disagreement with the outcome of a decision, or with the analysis upon which it is based, shall not constitute "mistake" for purposes of this section;

ii. Newly discovered evidence likely to alter the outcome of a matter, where such evidence could not have been previously discovered by due diligence;

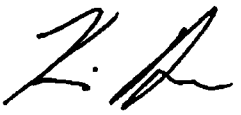
iii. Newly ascertained misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party, where such misrepresentation could not have been previously known; or

iv. Reversal of a prior judgment on which the present matter is based.

Upon review and consideration, I find that petitioner has failed to satisfy any of the factors set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.15(b)(2). Petitioner's submission indicates that she did not receive any notices to appear. However, the record reflects that the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) used the same email address to send petitioner the notice of appearance that the Department of Education used to send her the July 11, 2024 Commissioner decision. Petitioner clearly received a copy of that decision, and she used the same email address to file her motion for reconsideration. The record further reflects that the OAL used the same mailing address for petitioner that she provided in her motion for reconsideration. As such, petitioner's argument that she did not receive the notice of appearance is not credible.

Accordingly, the Motion for Reconsideration is hereby denied.

Sincerely,



Kevin Dehmer
Acting Commissioner

KD/JS
c: Clerk, Office of Administrative Law

344-24L

New Jersey Is An Equal Opportunity Employer • Printed on Recycled and Recyclable Paper

345-24

IN THE MATER OF TENURE BETWEEN

Joyce Nicole DiGiso

-And-

MANALAPAN-ENGLISHT0WN REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

Agency DKT. NO 125-5/24

Arbitrator: Kinard Lang

Hearing Dates: None

Parties: Manalapan-Englishtown Regional School District Board of Education – Bruce W. Padula, Esq.

Joyce Nicole DiGiso – Stephen B. Hunter, Esq.

ISSUE: Is the Settlement Agreement emanating from the parties' independent negotiations, and finally ratified by the Board of Education on August 20, 2024, in conformance with the standards established in the matter entitled in re Cardonick, State Board decision of April 6, 1983 (1990 School Law Decisions (S.L.D.) 842, 846) ??

The Settlement Agreement and the parties' documentary evidence and arguments in this matter have been appraised in light of the Cardonick Standards. I find no facial divergence from the cited Standards sufficient to withhold submission of the Settlement Agreement to the Commissioner of Education for review.

Kinard Lang, Arbitrator/Mediator - September 16, 2024

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE (the "Agreement") is entered into this 20th day of August, 2024, by and between the MANALAPAN-ENGLISHTOWN REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION (the "Board") and JOYCE NICOLE DIGISO ("DiGiso") (collectively referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, DiGiso is employed as a tenured teacher by the Board; and

WHEREAS, on May 1, 2024, the Board certified sworn tenure charges against DiGiso to the New Jersey Commissioner of Education; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to reach a full and final resolution of the tenure charges without the expense of additional litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises of the Parties to this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. TERMS.

a. The Board shall withdraw the tenure charges (New Jersey Department of Education Agency Dkt. No. 125-5/24) filed with the Commissioner of Education against DiGiso with prejudice and take all steps necessary to obtain Commissioner approval of such withdrawal.

b. The Board agrees not to withhold DiGiso's salary increment for the 2024-2025 school year. In lieu of said increment withholding, DiGiso agrees that the Board shall not provide compensation to her (unpaid suspension) for the time period between May 1, 2024 and June 30, 2024, although the Board agrees that all deductions, including TPAF contributions, healthcare insurance premium deductions, and the like shall be paid on DiGiso's behalf for said time period.

c. The Board shall provide DiGiso with Standards and/or Guidelines for Improvement and DiGiso hereby acknowledges and agrees that she shall conform her work conduct and performance to the standards and guidelines dictated by the Board. DiGiso further acknowledges and agrees that, should she fail to meet the legitimate standards and guidelines dictated by the Board, she shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including removal from employment.

d. DiGiso shall provide a certification from her healthcare provider to the Board, who shall certify to DiGiso's fitness to perform the duties of her role as a tenured teacher of the Board. DiGiso agrees and acknowledges that she shall bear all costs incurred in connection with any such examination and/or certification.

e. The Parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement is entered into with the understanding that it is without precedent and shall not be referred to in any other case or matter between the Board and any other employee of the Board.

f. Neither party to this Agreement is entitled to any other relief not specifically provided for herein.

g. Except as may otherwise be explicitly provided herein, this Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by any party or representative, or as a violation of any federal or state law, provision of the parties' collective negotiations agreement, administrative code, Board policy or regulation, and/or violation of any public policy.

2. COMPLETE RELEASE AND COVENANT NOT TO SUE.

In consideration of the Agreement hereinabove, DiGiso, her heirs, assigns, and agents (hereinafter collectively referred to as "DiGiso") agrees to and hereby releases and gives up any and all claims and rights which she may have against the Board, including its former and current employees, elected officials, representatives, agents, and attorneys and covenants not to sue the Board for anything that has happened arising out of DiGiso's employment relationship with the Board. This releases all claims, including those of which DiGiso is currently unaware, and those not expressly mentioned herein, up until and through the effective date of this Agreement. DiGiso further covenants that she voluntarily enters into this Agreement, and certifies that she has not been threatened or coerced into signing this Agreement, on the terms which follow:

a. DiGiso hereby releases, waives, and discharges the Board, its affiliated departments, and its officers, members, administrators, participants, trustees, agents, attorneys, employees, successors and assigns (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Releasees") from each and every claim, demand, cause of action, obligation, damage, complaint, or action or writ of any kind, nature, character, or description, known or unknown, that DiGiso had, now has, or may in the future have against the Releasees on account of or arising out of any matter or thing that has happened, developed, or occurred prior to the date of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, DiGiso's employment with the Board. This Complete Release includes, but is not limited to, any claim, demand, cause of action, obligation, claim for damages of any kind, complaint, expense, compensation, demand for arbitration, grievance, or action or writ of any kind, nature, character, or description arising out of or under Federal, State, or municipal statute or ordinance and any other law (whether such be common law, decisional law, or statutory law), rule, regulation, executive order or guideline, or any and all claims for attorney's fees and costs arising from the above acts, including, but not limited to:

i. Any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of or under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (NJLAD) which, among other things, prohibits discrimination in employment on the basis of an individual's race, creed, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, familial status, handicap, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait or liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

ii. Any federal claim, cause of action demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII) or the Civil Rights Act of 1991, as amended, which, among other things, prohibit discrimination in employment on account of a person's race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

iii. Any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended (ADEA), which among other things, prohibits discrimination in employment on account of a person's age.

iv. Any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), which, among other things, prohibits discrimination in employment on account of a person's disability or handicap.

v. Any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) which, among other things, entitles an employee to take reasonable leave for medical reasons for the birth or adoption of a child, and for the care of a child, spouse or parent who has a serious health condition and any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of under the New Jersey Family Leave Act (NJFLA).

vi. Any claim, cause of action demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, which among other things, prohibits discrimination in employment by Federal contractors against individuals with disabilities.

vii. Any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA), which among other things, regulates pension and welfare plans and prohibits interference with individual rights protected under that statute.

viii. Any claim, cause of action, demand or complaint arising out of or under the Federal Older Workers Benefit Protection Act (OWBPA) which, among other things, amends provisions of ADEA and prohibits discrimination in employment and employment benefits on account of a person's age.

b. DiGiso represents and warrants that there are no pending lawsuits, charges, grievances or other claims of any nature whatsoever by her against the Board and/or the Releasees in any state or federal court, agency or other administrative body on account of or arising out of her employment with the Board. DiGiso understands that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit her from filing a charge with, or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by, the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), or with any other Federal, State or local court or agency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, DiGiso hereby waives any and all rights to recover monetary damages in any charge, complaint, or lawsuit filed by her or by anyone else on her behalf based on events occurring which arose or existed on or before the date on which this Agreement is fully executed.

c. If either party violates any of the terms of this Settlement Agreement General Release, the violating party agrees to pay all costs and expenses of enforcement, including reasonable attorney's fees.

3. NON-DISPARAGEMENT. DiGiso agrees that she will not make any statement(s) that has, have, or can be expected to have the effect of disparaging the Board or any of its employees. Likewise, the Board and its administrators will not make any statement(s) that has, have, or can be expected to have the effect of disparaging DiGiso.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY. All parties shall not disclose, either directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, any information regarding the existence of the terms or contents of this Settlement Agreement and General Release, to any third party, person or organization, including but not limited to, any governmental agency, members of the press and media, present and former officers, commissioners, employees and agents of the Board and other members of the public. This paragraph shall not preclude the parties from discussing the existence or terms of this Agreement to governmental authorities who require such information by subpoena duly issued by a court or agency within competent jurisdiction. Additionally, this paragraph shall not preclude the parties from providing copies of this Agreement pursuant to an order and/or request of the New Jersey Government Records Council (including but not limited to a valid request pursuant to the Open Public Records Act), New Jersey Division of Pensions and Benefits, or Supreme Court. It shall not be considered a breach of her obligation of confidentiality for DiGiso to make disclosure of the terms of the Agreement to her attorney(s), immediate family members (who shall be expressly advised of, and also be bound by, the same requirement of confidentiality), or accountants in order to obtain private and confidential legal, tax, or financial advice. DiGiso may reveal information concerning this Agreement as legally required to her tax accountants and financial advisors and to comply with State and Federal laws with respect to the reporting of income. Although the Parties agree to keep the Agreement and underlying facts confidential, this provision is unenforceable against the Board if DiGiso reveals settlement and claim details in such a way that the Board is reasonably identifiable

5. CONSULTATION WITH ATTORNEY AND/OR UNION REPRESENTATIVE. DiGiso affirms that she has had the opportunity to consult with her attorney and/or union representative with respect to this Agreement and has reviewed with her attorney and/or union representative all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement prior to executing this Agreement. Further, DiGiso hereby acknowledges that she is satisfied with the consultation and advice of her attorney and/or union representative.

6. COMPLETE AGREEMENT. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between DiGiso and the Board, and each of them, with respect to the subject matter, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings and/or dealings whether written or otherwise with respect to the same subject matter. There is no agreement on the part of the Board to do anything other than what is expressly stated in this Agreement. It is understood between and among all parties hereto that the terms of this Agreement shall not have any precedential effect or constitute binding practice.

7. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Agreement shall become effective upon the date on which all parties to the Agreement have executed same.

8. MODIFICATION. No modification or amendment of this Agreement will be enforceable unless it is in writing and signed by the Board and DiGiso.

9. SEVERABILITY. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared or determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity, and enforceability of the remaining parts, terms, or provisions shall not be affected thereby and said illegal, unenforceable or invalid part, term, or provision shall be deemed not part of this Agreement.

10. ATTESTATION. DiGiso represents and warrants that she has carefully read each and every provision of this Agreement and that she fully understands all of the terms and conditions contained in each provision of this Agreement. DiGiso represents and warrants that she enters into this Agreement voluntarily, of her own free will, without any pressure or coercion from any person or entity, including, but not limited to, the Board.

11. REVOCATION. DiGiso may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after the date this Agreement is signed by DiGiso. This revocation must take the form of written notice by DiGiso that she intends to revoke this Agreement. This revocation must be provided directly to the Board, c/o Bruce W. Padula, Esq., Cleary Giacobbe Alfieri Jacobs, LLC, 955 State Route 34, Suite 200, Matawan, New Jersey 07747. This seven (7) day revocation period may not be waived by DiGiso.

12. REASONABLE TIME PERIOD. DiGiso affirms and agrees that she has been given a reasonable period of time of at least twenty-one (21) days within which to review and consider this Agreement prior to executing same, but that she may waive this twenty-one (21) day period by signing this Agreement.

13. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement shall in all respects be interpreted, enforced, and governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

14. PRECATORY PHRASES. The precatory phrases ("whereas clauses") are not mere recitals, but are specifically agreed to by the parties hereto and are incorporated by reference herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound hereby, I, Joyce Nicole DiGiso, executed the foregoing Settlement Agreement and General Release this 22nd day of August, 2024.

JOYCE NICOLE DIGISO

MANALAPAN-ENGLISHTOWN REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Dr. Nicole Santora, Ed.D

Veronica Wolf

Superintendent

Dated: 9/6/24

School Business Administrator

Dated: 9/6/24

Signed settlement page

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound hereby, I, Joyce Nicole DiGiso, executed the foregoing Settlement Agreement and General Release this 22 day of August, 2024.

JOYCE NICOLE DIGISO

MANALAPAN-ENGLISHTOWN REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Dr. Nicole Santora, Ed.D

Superintendent

Dated: _____

Veronica Wolf

School Business Administrator

Dated: _____

Signed settlement page

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound hereby, I, Joyce Nicole DiGiso, executed the foregoing Settlement Agreement and General Release this 22 day of August, 2024.

JOYCE NICOLE DIGISO

MANALAPAN-ENGLISHTOWN REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Dr. Nicole Santora, Ed.D

Superintendent

Dated: _____

Veronica Wolf

School Business Administrator

Dated: _____

357-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13639-23
Agency Dkt. No. 276-10/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Robert Lawless,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Bridgeton, Cumberland County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by petitioner Robert Lawless pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have been reviewed and considered. Respondent, Board of Education of the City of Bridgeton (Board), did not file a reply.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6, petitioner seeks reimbursement of counsel fees and costs from the Board associated with the successful defense of an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued against him by the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE). In September 2017, after the Board served him with tenure charges, petitioner agreed to resign from employment with the Board. The Board accepted petitioner's resignation and did not certify the tenure charges it had contemplated bringing against him. In January 2018, the Board notified SBE of petitioner's resignation. In September 2018, SBE issued an OTSC against petitioner seeking to revoke his teaching certificates due to allegations of unbecoming conduct. Petitioner retained counsel to defend against the OTSC. Ultimately, SBE vacated the OTSC on June 29, 2023, and took no action against petitioner's certificates. Petitioner was notified of same via letter dated July 5, 2023.

On October 13, 2023, petitioner initiated the instant matter via the filing of a petition of appeal with the Office of Controversies and Disputes. The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition, which was appropriately treated as a motion for summary decision by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) at the OAL. K.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Kinnelon, Commissioner Decision No. 315-08, at 4 (July 23, 2008). Petitioner filed a cross-motion for summary decision. Upon review, the ALJ concluded that the matter was ripe for summary decision.

The ALJ found as fact that the filing of the petition on October 13, 2023, was the first time that petitioner put the Board on notice that he was seeking indemnification for counsel fees and costs associated with the OTSC pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6, and that said notice did not occur "until five years of legal bills had accumulated." Initial Decision, at 13. Applying the Appellate Division's recent holding in Azzaro v. Board of Education of the City of Trenton, 477 N.J. Super. 427 (App. Div. 2023), the ALJ concluded that petitioner's delay in notifying the Board was "not reasonable in that [he] should have put respondent on notice at the inception of the administrative charges brought against him by the SBE in September, 2018." Initial Decision, at 13. Thus, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision, denied petitioner's cross-motion for summary decision, and dismissed the petition.

In his exceptions, although he neither contests the ALJ's factual findings nor distinguishes Azzaro, petitioner takes issue with the ALJ's conclusion that waiting five years to put the Board on notice of his indemnification request was unreasonable. He asserts that the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 does not require notice to be given to the Board at the outset of the administrative proceedings. He argues that other statutes, such as N.J.S.A. 59:10A-1 pertaining to the Attorney General's duty to defend State employees, expressly require persons seeking a defense to make a "request" for same. In other words, had the Legislature intended to include a notice provision within N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6, it would have done so via the statute's plain language. Finally, petitioner claims that the Board does not have a policy concerning when notice must be given regarding indemnification requests.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein. The Commissioner agrees with the ALJ that Azzaro is directly applicable to the present matter. In Azzaro, the Appellate Division expressly rejected the argument raised in petitioner's exceptions that because N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 does not contain a notice requirement, petitioners were under no obligation to demand a defense and indemnification from the Board at the inception of the OTSC proceedings. Azzaro, 477 N.J. Super. at 434. The court reasoned that "although N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 does not specifically address when a party must request defense costs and indemnification from a school board, the statute suggests a board's obligation arises when the action is instituted," stating in relevant part, "[w]henever any civil or administrative action . . . has been or shall be brought . . . the board shall defray all costs of defending such action . . . ." Id. at 437. Ultimately, the court held that petitioners had "an obligation to advise the Board they sought defense costs within a reasonable period of time after the OSC was filed" and that "[w]hat constitutes a reasonable time may be a fact-specific inquiry." Id. at 440.

In this case, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that waiting five years after the OTSC was issued to advise the Board of petitioner's request for indemnification was unreasonable under the circumstances. The SBE issued the OTSC against petitioner in September 2018 and vacated the OTSC on June 29, 2023. Still, petitioner failed to notify the Board of his indemnification request until the instant petition was filed in October 2023. Petitioner fails to provide any explanation as to why he declined to notify the Board at the inception of the OTSC proceedings or when he retained counsel, other than arguing that neither the controlling statute nor Board policy required him to do so. Given the court's holding in Azzaro, petitioner's exceptions are unavailing.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: September 30, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13639-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 276-10/23

ROBERT LAWLESS,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BRIDGETON, CUMBERLAND COUNTY,
Respondent.

Dean R. Wittman, Esq., for petitioner (Zeller & Wieliczko, LLP, attorneys)

Albert K. Marmero, Esq., for respondent (Marmero Law LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 8, 2024 Decided: August 16, 2024

BEFORE CATHERINE A. TUOHY, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Robert Lawless, seeks reimbursement of counsel fees and costs against respondent, City of Bridgeton Board of Education (Board) associated with the successful defense of an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued to Lawless by the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On October 13, 2023, petitioner filed a Verified Petition dated September 27, 2023, seeking an order directing Respondent to pay petitioner's reasonable counsel fees in the amount of $133,422.50 and costs in the amount of $3,263.58 incurred in the successful defense of an OTSC issued by the SBE on September 21, 2018, in which it directed Lawless to show cause why his teaching certificates should not be suspended or revoked as a result of tenure charges filed against him by the respondent board.

By letter, dated July 5, 2023, the SBE advised that at its meeting of June 29, 2023, it voted to vacate the OTSC and that therefore, there was no pending action against petitioner and his certificates were valid and in good standing. On October 13, 2023, petitioner filed his petition seeking reimbursement for counsel fees and costs against respondent. On November 30, 2023, respondent filed a Notice of Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer to Petition and Brief in Support of Motion to Dismiss with attached Exhibits A, B and C.

The matter was transmitted from the Department of Education Office of Controversies and Disputes to the OAL as a contested matter, where it was filed on December 1, 2023.

On April 29, 2024, petitioner filed a Notice of Cross-Motion for Summary Decision, Certification of Counsel, Statement of Material Facts and Brief in support of Petitioner's Cross-Motion, with attached Exhibits A through M.

On May 24, 2024, respondent filed a Brief in Opposition to Petitioner's Cross-Motion and in further Reply to its Motion to Dismiss.

Oral argument was conducted on July 8, 2024, and the motion record closed at that time.

FACTUAL DISCUSSIONS AND FINDINGS

Respondent's Arguments

Petitioner's legal costs and expenses were incurred in defending an OTSC brought by the SBE and not the respondent. Petitioner no longer worked for respondent and indemnification can only be sought by employees of the Board. Petitioner had not been an employee of respondent for more than a year when the OTSC was filed by the SBE. On August 30, 2017, respondent served sworn tenure charges on petitioner for allegations of violations of various district policies including inappropriate conduct, inappropriate restraints, and improper reporting of restraints that were used. Although petitioner will argue that a subsequent investigation by the State found that the allegations were unfounded, that has no bearing on whether district policies were violated. The state has different standards and what might not be considered institutional abuse by the state standards, could still be a violation of respondent's policies which could result in disciplinary action. Just because the state did not find that institutional abuse occurred does not mean the conduct did not rise to a violation of district policy. Also, there can be no indemnification when a disciplinary proceeding has been brought against the employee by the board. The tenure charges were never heard and no certification or vote by the board occurred as petitioner resigned his position to work elsewhere. There was no formal determination of the merits of the charges and petitioner opted to resign. Petitioner had every right to challenge the tenure charges, but he decided to resign.

Respondent did not certify the tenure charges against petitioner, as he found employment elsewhere and there was an agreement reached between the parties that petitioner would resign, and respondent would waive the sixty-day notice provision to allow him to resign and take the new position. The Board never voted on the tenure charges and accepted petitioner's resignation at its September 29, 2017, meeting.

Pursuant to the notification provisions set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.3, respondent's superintendent did send a letter to the SBE dated January 24, 2018, advising them that petitioner submitted his letter of resignation on September 29, 2017, effective September 30, 2017, while he was on administrative leave with pay, while the respondent conducted an investigation into his conduct which lead to the filing and serving of Sworn Tenure Charges against him. (Exhibit B, Respondent's motion to Dismiss.) Although the tenure charges against petitioner were outlined in the letter, they were not attached. The parties agreed that sometime later, the SBE requested a copy from the respondent, and a copy was provided to the SBE by respondent.

Respondent argues that its involvement ended at that point and that the SBE on its own initiative filed an OTSC a year later, on September 21, 2018, seeking to revoke petitioner's teaching certificates. Respondent was not a party to that action.

By letter, dated July 5, 2023, the SBE advised petitioner that at its meeting of June 29, 2023, it voted to vacate the OTSC and that therefore, there was no pending action against petitioner and his certificates were valid and in good standing. There never was never any adjudication of the allegations raised in the tenure charges.

Petitioner would argue that the charges brought by respondent were false and defamatory and he is therefore owed indemnification for having to defend the OTSC brought by the SBE.

Indemnification is only required for conduct falling within the employment duties of the school board employee and the allegations of inappropriate conduct do not fall within the employment duties of the petitioner.

Typically, what happens in these cases is the employee would request indemnification from the district; the district usually has insurance coverage, and the matter would be forwarded to the insurance carrier; the employee would select an attorney of their choosing; the attorney would submit a fee schedule to the insurance company, who would approve, deny or modify the fee schedule. Invoices would then be submitted to the district on a regular basis for approval; and then the insurer would have a maximum level they would contribute towards the indemnification. Once the maximum level was reached, the district would then kick in and pay for the rest of the indemnification. None of that occurred in this case. Instead, the district is faced with a six-figure invoice in a matter it was not involved in and had no notice of and that arose from disciplinary charges which the district had brought in the past. The district had no opportunity to vet the attorney or approve the fee structure or run it through insurance.

Furthermore, the fees and costs sought were not paid out of pocket by petitioner and therefore he is not entitled to reimbursement for same.

There also was no proof of the reasonableness of the fees submitted.

Petitioner did not make a claim for indemnification for attorney's fees and costs until he filed this petition on October 13, 2023. The OTSC was filed in 2018 a year after his 2017 resignation.

Therefore, respondent argues the petition should be dismissed.

Petitioner's Argument

The only issue to be determined when a school board employee seeks civil indemnification under N.J.S.A. 18A-16-6 is whether the employee was acting within the scope of his employment duties. Mr. Lawless was a special education teacher with respondent when all of these allegations occurred. He was acting in the scope of his employment as a special education teacher. The allegations against Mr. Lawless were unfounded by the state institutional abuse unit. Mr. Lawless was never disciplined for anything. After four institutional abuse investigations had been brought against Mr. Lawless that were unfounded, the superintendent decided that he must be some bad actor and therefore brought sworn charges against him. The superintendent goes to great length and certifies to facts that did not occur but were allegations that the district's own internal investigation uncovered were false and that the children were lying and making up stories. Mr. Lawless knew the charges to be false, but it was not until after the OTSC was filed and discovery produced that petitioner obtained all of the interviews of various people confirming that the incidents did not occur and that the children were lying to get Mr. Lawless fired. The district knew this because their own employees were saying this. The superintendent knew it was false yet swore to the charges.

Mr. Lawless had been accused four times of doing things he did not do, and then when served with tenure charges, he decided he no longer wanted to work for respondent because of the things he was being accused of. He did not feel that he was being properly supported by the district, so he started applying for other positions. When the tenure charges came in, he found out another district wanted him. He decided he did not want to work any longer for respondent with their constant accusations and lack of support and decided to accept employment with another district. Mr. Lawless did not admit to any wrongdoing or that any of the allegations were true. Mr. Lawless said that the allegations were all false. But rather than going through the process, knowing the respondent did not support him, he resigned and moved on.

Petitioner is not seeking any indemnification for the tenure charges being filed. The time Mr. Wittman's firm is billing as set forth in Exhibit "M" is time spent following the SBE's filing of the OTSC against petitioner. The SBE only knows what they were told. They were told Mr. Lawless resigned, and tenure charges were pending against him and the substance of those charges. Eventually they were provided with the actual charges themselves. Respondent knew what was going on. They were getting subpoenas from Mr. Wittman's office for records and witnesses' testimony. The procedure referenced by respondent's counsel for indemnification is not in writing or set forth in any Board policy. Mr. Lawless went to his union and asked for an attorney, and they gave him one. Mr. Wittman's firm has been paid, but Mr. Lawless still has the right of indemnification against the responsible party, which is respondent.

As set forth in exhibit "M" there is a breakdown as to what has been paid at the NJEA rate and what is owed, based on Mr. Wittman's firm's billing. He has been paid $74,840.45 and what he is claiming is $133,422.50 in counsel fees and $3,263.58 in costs, based on Greene v. Board of Education of the Township of Irvington, Essex County, 2014 WL 12844631 (OAL Docket No. EDU 4-04772-12), citing Salaam v. Board pf Education of the Township of Irvington, Essex County, 2014 WL 503950 (App. Div. 2014). Mr. Lawless had to have an attorney represent him and is entitled to indemnification. Petitioner is not seeking indemnification for the defense of disciplinary charges brought against him by the respondent. He is seeking indemnification for the defense of the OTSC brought against him by the SBE occasioned by the wrongdoing of respondent who knew the charges were unfounded.

N.J.S.A. 18A-6 states that no one can be held harmless in a disciplinary proceeding instituted against him by the Board. That is not what happened here. The OTSC was brought by the SBE and not the Board. That is what the statute is supposed to protect. The fact that petitioner no longer was an employee of respondent does not matter. He was an employee of respondent when the allegations arose.

Dr. Thomasina Jones Superintendent signed the charges and put the wheels in motion. The statute does not state that there must be an adjudication of the charges. What happened was that the SBE could not prove their case and that is why the OTSC was vacated, which should not prejudice Mr. Lawless who had to defend himself and this went on for five years. The withdrawal of the OTSC is a determination in Mr. Lawless's favor. Respondent created the monster by saying all these things happened when they did not, but this is not a claim for malicious prosecution.

The only issue is whether Mr. Lawless was acting in the scope of his employment when these things occurred.

The Azzaro case is distinguishable from this case in that there was a finding that twelve years was too long. This case only took five years. The Board had no notice in that case which is different from this case. Also, the Board instituted the charges in this case by the superintendent signing the charges and not in that case. It would be unreasonable to require Mr. Lawless to go to respondent and ask for a defense when they were the cause of his problems.

Although the parties raised various factual issues concerning the circumstances surrounding the underlying tenure charges, both stipulated that this matter was ripe for summary disposition.

The following facts are not in dispute and I FIND as follows:

Petitioner is a certified teacher by the N.J. Department of Education and commenced employment with the respondent in the fall of 2008 as a special education teacher and later attained tenure in that position.

On August 30, 2017, respondent issued sworn tenure charges against petitioner for conduct unbecoming and other just cause.

Respondent did not certify the tenure charges against petitioner, as he found employment elsewhere and there was an agreement reached between the parties that petitioner would resign, and respondent would waive the sixty-day notice provision to allow him to resign and take the new position.

The Board never voted on the tenure charges and accepted petitioner's resignation at its September 29, 2017, meeting.

Pursuant to the notification provisions set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.3, respondent's superintendent did send a letter to the SBE dated January 24, 2018, advising them that petitioner submitted his letter of resignation on September 29, 2017, effective September 30, 2017, while he was on administrative leave with pay, while the respondent conducted an investigation into his conduct which lead to the filing and serving of Sworn Tenure Charges against him. (Exhibit B, Respondent's motion to Dismiss.) Although the tenure charges against petitioner were outlined in the letter, they were not attached. The parties agreed that sometime later, the SBE requested a copy of the tenure charges from the respondent, which respondent did provide.

On September 21, 2018, the SBE, on its own initiative, issued an OTSC to petitioner seeking to revoke petitioner's teaching certificates, based on the previous tenure charges.

Respondent was not a party to that action.

Petitioner did not request respondent to provide him with a defense or indemnification as to the SBE's charges when they were filed against him on September 21, 2018.

Petitioner retained counsel and incurred legal fees in the amount of $133,422.50 and costs in the amount of $3,263.58 from October 1, 2018, to June 30, 2023. (Certification of petitioner's counsel, Exhibit M.)

By letter, dated July 5, 2023, the SBE advised that at its meeting of June 29, 2023, it voted to vacate the OTSC and that therefore, there was no pending action against petitioner and his certificates were valid and in good standing.

On October 13, 2023, petitioner filed his Verified Petition dated September 27, 2023, seeking reimbursement for counsel fees and costs against respondent incurred in defense of the SBE's OTSC to suspend or revoke his teaching certificates.

The filing of this petition on October 13, 2023, was the first time petitioner put respondent on notice that he was seeking indemnification for his legal fees and costs associated with his defense of the SBE's OTSC against him filed on September 21, 2018.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Both parties seek relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, which provides that summary decision should be rendered "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." Our regulation mirrors R. 4:46-2(c) which provides that "the judgment or order sought shall be rendered if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment or order as a matter of law."

A determination whether a genuine issue of material fact exists that precludes summary decision requires the judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the allegedly disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. Our courts have long held that "if the opposing party offers . . . only facts which are immaterial or of an insubstantial nature, a mere scintilla, 'fanciful frivolous, gauzy or merely suspicious,' he will not be heard to complain if the court grants summary judgment." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995) (citing Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co., 17 N.J. 67, 75 (1954)).

The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Brill, 142 N.J. at 540 (citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 242, 249, 106 S. Ct. 2505, 2511, 91 L. Ed. 2d 202, 213 (1986)). When the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. at 251-2, 106 S. Ct. at 2512, 91 L. Ed. 2d at 214.

I CONCLUDE that this matter is ripe for summary decision since there are no issues of material fact in dispute and that respondent is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law as set forth below.

"Under the civil indemnification statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6, a board of education employee may be indemnified for attorney's fees and costs incurred defending civil actions arising out of an act or omission that took place in the course and scope of employment duties." L.A. v. Board of Education, City of Trenton of Mercer County, 221 N.J. 192, 201-202 (2015).

N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 provides:

> Whenever any civil or administrative action or other legal proceeding has been or shall be brought against any person holding any office, position or employment under the jurisdiction of any board of education, including any student > teacher or person assigned to other professional pre-teaching field experience, for any act or omission arising out of and in the course of the performance of the duties of such office, position, employment or student teaching or other assignment to professional field experience, the board shall defray all costs of defending such action, including reasonable counsel fees and expenses, together with costs of appeal, if any, and shall save harmless and protect such person from any financial loss resulting therefrom; provided that

>
> a. no employee shall be entitled to be held harmless or have his defense costs defrayed in a disciplinary proceeding instituted against him by the board or when the employee is appealing an action taken by the board; and
>
> b. indemnification for exemplary or punitive damages shall not be mandated and shall be governed by the standards and procedures set forth in N.J.S. 59:10-4.
>
> Any board of education may arrange for and maintain appropriate insurance to cover all such damages, losses and expenses.

In Bower v. Bd. of Educ., 149 N.J. 416 (1997), the Supreme Court addressed the statutory prerequisite. It held that the statute requires "mere proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the act on which the charges are predicated arose out of and in the course of performance of the duties of employment." Id. at 434.

N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 is in contrast to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, the statute that provides for indemnification of education employees charged with criminal or quasi-criminal actions. It provides:

> Should any criminal or quasi-criminal action be instituted against any such person for any such act or omission and should such proceeding be dismissed or result in a final disposition in favor of such person, the board of education shall reimburse him for the cost of defending such proceeding, including reasonable counsel fees and expenses of the original hearing or trial and all appeals. No employee shall be entitled to be held harmless or have his defense costs defrayed as a result of a criminal or quasi> criminal complaint filed against the employee by or on behalf of the board of education.

>
> Any board of education may arrange for and maintain appropriate insurance to cover all such damages, losses and expenses.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1(emphasis added).]

In Edison v. Mezzacca, 147 N.J. Super. 9 (App. Div. 1977), the Appellate Division held that an employee seeking indemnification "does not have the absolute right to counsel of his own choosing at municipal expense." Id. at 14. The Appellate Division specifically noted that a right to absolute reimbursement was provided for only when the municipality's obligation was conditional on the outcome of the litigation. Ibid. However, there was no right of reimbursement when "the obligation to provide for the defense arose at the inception of the proceeding and was independent of the outcome of the proceeding." Id. at 15.

In this case, petitioner's right to indemnification is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6, which contains no requirement that the employee be successful in the litigation to be indemnified. The relevant language in N.J.S.A. 18:16-6 can be contrasted with N.J.S.A. 18A16-6.1, which provides for indemnification in criminal actions only when the proceedings are dismissed or result in a final disposition favorable to the employee. Here, there is no dispute that SBE proceedings are an administrative action, not a criminal action. Therefore, although petitioner's claim arises out of a different indemnification statute than the one at issue in Edison, it nonetheless bears the same characteristics, in that it arose at the inception of the proceedings and was independent of the outcome of the proceedings.

In Azzaro v. Bd. of Educ. of Trenton, 477 N.J. Super. 427 (App. Div. 2023) the Court concluded that N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 does not allow school board employees to wait until the final disposition of a civil or administrative action filed against them before seeking defense costs and indemnification from a school board. The employee must provide the school board with reasonable notice after the initiation of the proceeding, unlike the procedure set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A16-6.1, which provides that an employee cannot seek reimbursement of defense costs and indemnification until the conclusion of a criminal or quasi criminal action.

In this case, petitioner failed to notify the respondent of his request for indemnification until five years of legal bills had accumulated. Those bills were generated by a law firm which the respondent had no input in choosing. Although in Azzaro petitioner waited twelve years before seeking indemnification which the court found was not reasonable, likewise, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's waiting five years in this case to put respondent on notice it was seeking indemnification pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 was also not reasonable in that petitioner should have put respondent on notice at the inception of the administrative charges brought against him by the SBE in September, 2018.

ORDER

For the reasons stated above, it is hereby ORDERED that respondents motion for summary decision is hereby GRANTED. Petitioner's motion for summary decision is DENIED and petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

August 16, 2024
DATE

CATHERINE A TUOHY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

CAT/gd

APPENDIX

BRIEFS

For petitioner

- Petitioner's Notice of Cross-Motion for Summary Decision, Certification of Counsel, Statement of Material Facts and Brief in support of petitioner's cross-motion, with attached Exhibits A through M, dated April 29, 2024

For respondent

- Respondent Bridgeton BOE's November 30, 2023, Notice of Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer to Petition and Brief in Support of Motion to Dismiss with attached Exhibits A, B and C
- Respondent's May 24, 2024, Brief in Opposition to Petitioner's Cross-Motion for Summary Decision and Reply in further Support of its Motion to Dismiss

358-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

C.T. and P.T., on behalf of minor child, E.T.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Lenape Valley Regional High School District, Sussex County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners challenged a decision to deny their daughter, E.T., admission into the respondent Board's chapter of the National Honor Society (NHS) and sought to reverse the denial decision such that E.T. could be inducted into the NHS. E.T. subsequently graduated from respondent's high school in June 2024. The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: E.T. applied for admission to Lenape Regional High School's NHS chapter in her junior year; membership in the NHS is conferred upon students who meet "four pillars of membership": scholarship, leadership, service, and character; to meet the admission criteria, students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.75, must perform community service without compensation, must show leadership through resourcefulness and problem solving, and must establish good character through honesty, reliability, and working cooperatively with others; an applicant must meet the applicable standards for entry into the NHS; admission to NHS is not automatic and cannot be considered a right; in a February 2023 letter to E.T. from the NHS applications committee chair, E.T. was denied admission to NHS because the committee had found that she needed to demonstrate further development in the area of character; the letter encouraged E.T. to reapply for NHS membership in her senior year; E.T. did not reapply and graduated in June 2024; the Commissioner has previously recognized that NHS admissions criteria are matters to be determined locally by each school district; and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the school district unless there is a showing that the district's actions were arbitrary, unreasonable or capricious. The ALJ concluded that the Board's actions were not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable; further, the petition fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss was granted.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions, noting that E.T. is no longer eligible for induction into the National Honor Society since she has already graduated from high school. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, for the reasons stated therein. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

358-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04131-23
Agency Dkt. No. 103-4/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

C.T. and P.T., on behalf of minor child, E.T.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Lenape Valley Regional High School District, Sussex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

In this matter, petitioners challenge the denial of E.T.'s admission to respondent Board of Education's (Board) local chapter of the National Honor Society (NHS). They seek reversal of that decision and request that E.T. be inducted into the NHS. The Board filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, which was granted by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ).

Student admission to the local chapter of the NHS is a matter of "local determination for each school district, and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the school district except where the District's actions are arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable." P.V. v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Verona, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03920-22, Initial Decision at 6 (May 23, 2022), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 168-22 (July 8, 2022). See J.B.A. v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Bernardsville, 1981 S.L.D. 330 (discussing the Commissioner's jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes concerning admission to the NHS), adopted, Comm'r., 1981 S.L.D. 338.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition of appeal must be dismissed. Even assuming petitioners could establish that the Board's decision not to induct E.T. into the NHS was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, the relief sought—E.T.'s induction into the NHS—cannot be granted by the Commissioner given the present circumstances. Article II, Section 3 of the NHS Constitution of Lenape Valley Regional High School states that "[t]o be eligible for selection to this chapter, students must be members of the junior or senior class." The record reflects that E.T. graduated from high school in June 2024. Consequently, she is no longer eligible for induction into the NHS.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: October 2, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04131-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 103-4/23

C.T. AND P.T. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, E.T.,
Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE LENAPE VALLEY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, SUSSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

Damiano Fracasso, Esq., for petitioners

Jacob K. Mintun Esq., Senior Attorney (Comegno Law Group, attorneys.) for respondent

BEFORE ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner's parents (C.T. and P.T./petitioners) challenge the denial of their child E.T.'s admission to the National Honor Society (NHS). The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, on May 10, 2023. Respondent (Lenape High School/BOE) filed a Motion to Dismiss in lieu of an Answer.

Briefs and Certifications in support of same and in opposition thereto were received and on argument before me was heard on January 31, 2024, and the record closed. I now grant the Motion to Dismiss the petition.

MOTION UNDER CONSIDERATION

Petitioners claim that E.T. was wrongfully denied admission to the National Honor Society. Respondent moves for dismissal claiming several reasons why petitioners are barred from its claim. First, it claims the BOE has no authority to overrule a final decision concerning membership in the NHS. Second, it claims that although there is a BOE policy (Policy # 133) and Regulation (Regulation # 540) which mention appeals to the National Honor Society, neither grants the right of a student or parent to appeal a final decision by the NHS or its appeals committee. Finally, the controversy does not involve school disciplinary processes nor a statutory or constitutional right of a student to become a member in the NHS.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The respondent is a comprehensive high school serving three municipalities located in one of two counties in Morris and Sussex, (Certification provided by Michael A. Rossi, Jr, PHD, Superintendent of Lenape Valley Regional High School, hereinafter "Rossi Cert.") It "established and actively maintains a chapter of the National Honor Society (NHS)." (Rossi Cert. para. 3.) Applicant students must meet four "pillars of membership"-scholarship, service, leadership and character. Academically students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.75 and are further evaluated on academic credentials. For service, students have to make contributions without compensation, such as by community service. Leadership is established by the student being "resourceful, good problem solvers and idea contributors." The character standard is met by students who "work cooperatively and demonstrate high standards of honesty and reliability." (Rossi Cert. Paras 4 and 5).

E.T. applied for admission to the NHS in her junior year at the high school. On February 13, 2023, the NHS through its applications committee leader, Colby Bird, wrote to E.T. and informed her that she was not accepted to the Lenape Valley Regional High School Chapter of the NHS. The letter said the NHS Faculty Council made this decision and had found, during its review process. that E.T. needed "further development in the area of character." The letter encouraged E.T. to reapply in her senior year. (Attachment to Petition to the NJ State BOE, page P007). Soon thereafter, P.T. wrote to Colby Bird and asked for further explanation, specifically about the character criterion. Ms. Bird explained the NHS decision and how it concluded E.T. met just three of the four pillars. Regarding the fourth, the character criterion, she advised the Faculty Council in assessing E.T., relied on a survey of teachers and staff. Of the eleven who responded to the survey, six of them advised they found E.T.'s character to be below average or average among other students at the high school. She noted concerns of E.T.'s lack of independence in completing tasks, and her lack of sociability with teachers and students. Ms. Bird's reply dated February 17, 2023, welcomed an appeal of the Faculty's Council's decision.

E.T.'s parents appealed the decision to the appeals Committee of the NHS Lenape Valley Regional High School Chapter. On February 24, 2023, Committee members met with P.T., C.T. and E.T. to allow both parents and the student to advocate for her admission. The Superintendent Dr. Rossi certified, per his March 9, 2023, letter to the parents, that during this appeals process E.T. "engaged in very little self-advocacy." (P 0011) The process, stated Dr. Rossi, seemed driven by the parents' frustration, rather than E.T.'s desire to be admitted." Further during the process, the Committee attempted to explore E.T.' leadership capacities, noting there were "multiple pathways to NHS membership." However, E.T.'s parents decided that the Committee's inquiries were "inappropriate" and made E.T. leave the room.

The parents then brought the present action against the High School. I find that the above stated facts were either not refuted or not reasonably refuted. Further, I find they are the only germane material facts.

.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The OAL has addressed a student's claims of rights involving membership to the NHS once before, although in the context of an application for emergent relief. In that case, P.V. o/b/o T.S. v Township of Verona, OAL No. 03920-22 (decided May 22, 2022), the Honorable Julio C. Morejon determined the petitioner had failed to site any precedent for holding that there exists an "underlying legal right to admission to the [NHS]. To the contrary, the Commissioner of Education has recognized admissions criteria to the [NHS] are matters of local determination for each school district...[.] " Thus except upon a showing the District's actions are arbitrary, unreasonable or capricious, the Commissioner will not substitute its judgement for the District's. Consequently, "an applicant must meet the applicable standards for entry into the [NHS] and that admission is not so 'automatic' as to be considered a 'right'" P.V.,supra at page 6, citing J.B.A. and A.M.A. v. Bernardsville Board of Education, 4 N.J.A.R. at 152.

Although a Motion to dismiss often is narrowly focused on such threshold issues of lack of subject matter jurisdiction, lack of personal jurisdiction or improper venue, in practice the OAL regularly applies the Motion for Summary Decision standard to Motions to Dismiss. In turn, the motion for summary decision is based on the rules and practice regarding New Jersey Superior Court Rules governing summary judgement. It is particularly appropriate to note that under summary judgment standards, a Petition should be dismissed when it states no basis for relief and discovery would not yield one. R. 4:6-2 (c), See Energy Rec. v. Dept. of Environmental Protection, 320 N.J. Super 59, 64 (App. Div. 1999), aff'd 170 426 (2001) (emphasis supplied.) Further, dismissal is mandated when "the factual allegations are palpably insufficient to support a claim upon which relief can be granted." Rieder v. State of NJ Dept. of Transportation, 221 N.J. Super 547, 552 (App. Div. 1987). As noted by Judge Morejon, a board of education's actions are entitled to a presumption of lawfulness and good faith. Thus, in challenges to a Board's actions, the challenger bears the burden to prove such acts were unlawful, arbitrary capricious or unreasonable. P.V. supra at page 6 citing Schuster v Bd. of Educ. Montgomery Twp, 96 N.J.A.R. 2D (edu) 670, 676, citing Schnick v Westwood Bd. Of Educ. 60 N.J. Super 448 (App. Div. 1960) and Quinlan v Bd. Of Educ of North Bergen Twp., 73 N.J. Super 40 (App. Div. 1962)

If there is no genuine issue as to any material fact, a moving party is entitled to prevail on a motion for summary disposition as a matter of law. R. 4:46-2. Brill v. The Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The judge weighs the evidence as though a motion for directed verdict were before him, and "apply the same evidentiary standard of proof -by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence -that would apply on a trial on the merits. Brill, at 533. The purpose of summary decision is to avoid unnecessary hearings and their concomitant burden on public resources. Under the Brill standard, a fact-finding hearing should be avoided "when the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Id.

In the present matter, the respondent seeks a Dismissal because it is unrefuted, or not reasonably refuted, that a) the only "right" to appeal a NHS membership decision is if the local chapter creates an appeal process b) in this case, the local chapter followed the appeals process per its charter c) the local chapter appeals process by the District's NHS appeals committee is intended to be unappealable and thus final and such a provision violates no law.

Petitioners argue that the NHS standards, even the three pillars which petitioner met, are "arbitrary" (Petitioners Responding Statement of Material facts, Pargrapsh 6, 7 and 8.) Regarding the one pillar she did not meet, according to the NHS local chapter and the Appeals Committee, petitioner simply denies the allegation that E.T. did not meet the character pillar standard and says, "Petitioner cannot prove a negative."

Petitioners' argument is contradictory and impossible to grant relief upon. . First, petitioners argue that the standards are arbitrary, then says she did meet the standard, but that she shouldn't have to prove it. First, if the NHS standards are "arbitrary," why does anyone, including the petitioners wish to join it?. Consequently, what is being denied to petitioners or any other applicant for membership if the membership's standards are completely arbitrary? Further, even if the NHS was not a separate entity from the District of Lenape BOE and not entitled to freely set its own standards of admission, independent from the Lenape BOE, a school District has its own broad authority to set academic standards as well as standards for extracurricular activities, which include grading or rewarding good conduct or behavior,, i.e. "character." Thus, in subjects ranging from selection for "making" the Senior football team, to competing in the Chess Club, the Districts have the broad discretion to set their own standards. Thus the only issue here is whether E.T. met the NHS standards. Regarding those standards, the only specific dispute regards the character pillar of the student applicant, at least as compared to other applicants for membership. But petitioner, instead of providing proofs in this motion that E.T. indeed met or exceeded the character standard, petitioner instead argues, apparently, that she doesn't have to prove that; rather, it is claimed E.T. was treated unfairly because the character standards should not be imposed on her owing to her having a recognized disability.

E.T. argues that she has the disabling conditions of Anxiety and ADHD, according to Section 504/ADA Accommodations. (Exhibit B Petitioners' Opposition). As precious little has been offered to show what that has to do with the issue of membership in the NHS or the local chapter's actions, I shall try to address what I think the petitioner is trying to get at

Even if the standards of character, as determined by the Appeals Committee or the local Chapter disproportionately weigh on a student's "immutable characteristics" (Petitioners also argued, without any proof, that the NHS decision was motivated by Anti-Catholicism-although Catholicism or any other religious membership is not an "immutable characteristic,") if we were to follow the petitioners' line of reasoning all school programs designed to recognize achievement would be subject to innumerable hypothetical attacks by parents that the standards are unfair as applied to their child, e.g. their height was considered in determining whether he or she wouldn't be a good candidate for the basketball team, or an asthmatic condition inhibited the child from long distance running or making the swimming team. That does not make those standards, i.e. ability to play basketball better because of being tall, or greater lung capacity being a factor making one a better swimmer or long-distance runner arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable nor is it evidential of invidious discrimination. Nor would it implicate an arbitrary unreasonable or capricious course of conduct by the BOE, if the BOE, as the local chapter and appeals committee clearly did so here, provided they follow their own policy or policies. Besides that, there was no proof submitted that the committee's determination or the appeals determination evidenced bias or a disproportionate burden to E.T. because of E.T.'s Anxiety of ADHD.

Although petitioners' proofs were not presented as they should be by certification or affidavit, and although nothing further was submitted as to her disability other than the 504, that plan shows the recommended accommodations by the school for E.T. such as "If grades are not posting in Genesis within 24 hours, teachers are to email parent and student," the 504 does not even suggest that the school, much less the NHS local chapter has to accommodate "lower than average or average" character achievement. Indeed, there is no claim in the petition that there is any violation of the 504 plan or of any IEP, if there even is one (no proof was offered). Thus, the District's accommodations for E.T. is not properly before me. No evidence suggests that a student suffering from Anxiety of ADHD cannot possibly meet the character pillar of membership. Further, the Court will not indulge in speculating further as to whether the appeals Committee's decision was correct where the complaining party argues petitioner need prove nothing. Rather the complete opposite is true; the burden is entirely on the petitioners.

If judges were permitted to engraft their own beliefs by making determinations to second guess the decision making of committees to establish standards for membership into honorary societies, there would be no end to judicial meddling into what is entirely beyond their scope and permitted areas of their function. There would be no end to litigation by parents whose children by those who have strong credentials for membership in the NHS, if their "standards" were permitted to supplant the Committee or the Committee of appeals, with their own less informed, and more likely to be biased opinions of their child's abilities and qualities.

I agree also with that the petition fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. For all the above reasons, therefore, I CONCLUDE that the motion to dismiss of respondent should be and is GRANTED and the matter DISMISSED.

ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, the motion to Dismiss filed by the respondent, is hereby GRANTED and that the petitioners' demand for relief be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

.

August 23, 2024
DATE

Ernest M. Bongiovanni
ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 8/23/24

Mailed to Parties: 8/23/24

id

359-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Magdoulen A. Sawires,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

On June 4, 2024, petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Elizabeth Board of Education (Board) denying the renewal of her employment contract for the 2022-2023 school year. Petitioner had been employed as a non-tenured teacher by the Board for six months, from January 3, 2022 to June 30, 2022. The Board filed a motion to dismiss for failure to timely file the petition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i).

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: it is undisputed that petitioner received a notice of non-renewal on or about May 13, 2022; more than two years later, the petitioner filed the within appeal seeking the reversal of the Board's decision not to renew her contract, as well as compensation and reinstatement to employment; in her opposition to the Board's motion to dismiss, petitioner conceded that she did not appeal the Board's non-renewal action but instead filed an action in Superior Court which was dismissed; only after her appeal of that dismissal was denied did petitioner file this appeal; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) and existing caselaw, the 90-day rule began to run when petitioner received notice of her non-renewal on or about May 13, 2022; and neither the filing of her complaint with the Superior Court nor her appeal with the Appellate Division tolls the ninety-day timeline imposed by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion and adopted the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law as the final decision in this matter. In so doing, the Commissioner determined that there was no compelling constitutional reason in this case to warrant the relaxation of the 90-day rule. The Board's motion was granted, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

359-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 08315-24
Agency Dkt. No. 176-6/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Magdoulen A. Sawires,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and respondent's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

The threshold procedural issue in this case is whether the petition should be dismissed pursuant to the 90-day rule, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Kaprow v. Bd. of Educ. of Berkeley Twp., 131 N.J. 572, 582 (1993). Petitioner challenges respondent's decision not to renew her employment contract for the 2022-2023 school year. She received a notice of nonrenewal from respondent on May 13, 2022, and last worked for respondent as a nontenured teacher in late June 2022. She filed her petition of appeal on June 4, 2024, more than two years after having received the notice of nonrenewal.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) and existing case law, her petition was untimely filed because the time to appeal began to run when petitioner received notice of the nonrenewal on May 13, 2022. The ALJ further concluded that neither the filing of a lawsuit in the Superior Court nor an appeal to the Appellate Division tolls the 90-day time period to file a petition. The ALJ also concluded that even assuming petitioner did not fully understand that she was no longer employed by respondent until September 2022 (although this new contention is contradicted by the allegations contained in her petition) and that was the date from which the filing period began, the petition she filed in June 2024 is nonetheless untimely.

In her exceptions, petitioner does not challenge the ALJ's factual findings. Rather, she reiterates the arguments she made before the ALJ and appears to assert that because she filed her petition within sixty days of having received an Appellate Division decision directing her to do so,[1] the merits of her case should be considered. However, she does not cite any legal authority to support her position.

In its reply, respondent asserts that petitioner's exceptions are procedurally defective as they do not specify what facts or legal conclusions that petitioner takes exception to. Respondent claims that petitioner's exceptions merely reiterate the arguments that were already considered by the ALJ.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's factual findings and conclusion that the petition was untimely filed. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) mandates that petitions shall be filed "no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final . . . action by the district board of education." The 90-day limitation period "represents a fair and reasonably-necessary requirement for the proper and efficient resolution of disputes under the school laws." Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 582. It "provides a measure of repose" and "gives school districts the security of knowing that administrative decisions regarding the operation of the school cannot be challenged after ninety days." Ibid.

[1] While the Appellate Division's decision indicated that petitioner failed to exhaust her administrative remedies through the Department of Education, it did not direct petitioner to file a petition with the Commissioner or suggest in any way that such a petition would be timely. Sawires v. Elizabeth Bd. of Educ., 2024 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1006 (App. Div. June 3, 2024).

Here, the ALJ correctly concluded that the 90-day limitation period began when petitioner received the May 13, 2022, nonrenewal letter. Salazar-Linden v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Holmdel, Monmouth Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 99-08 at 5-6 (March 3, 2008), aff'd, 2009 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2713 * (App. Div. Oct. 28, 2009); Jordan v. Bd. of Educ. of N. Hunterdon-Voorhees Reg'l High Sch. Dist., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11825-14, Initial Decision at 8-9 (March 2, 2015), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 162-15 (May 20, 2015), aff'd, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1865 * (App. Div. July 21, 2017). It is undisputed that petitioner received the nonrenewal letter on May 13, 2022. Therefore, she had a meaningful opportunity to file her petition within the mandatory 90-day timeframe. The filing deadline is not subject to change based upon a petitioner's legal strategy or a decision to pursue lawsuits in a different forum; that would defeat the measure of repose to which school districts are entitled. See, generally, Nissman v. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Long Beach Island, Ocean Cnty., 272 N.J. Super. 373, 382 (App. Div. 1994) (affirming State Board decision to dismiss petition as time barred and explaining that while petitioner may have opted not to file a petition sooner for tactical reasons, the board "was entitled to know within 90 days of its action whether its [decision] was going to be challenged").

"While the Commissioner has the discretion to relax the [90-day] rule . . . this extraordinary relief has been reserved only for those situations where a substantial constitutional issue is presented or where a matter of significant public interest is involved, beyond that of concern only to the parties." Smith v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of City of Paterson, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 06076-14, Initial Decision at 6 (Nov. 6, 2014), adopted, Commissioner Decision No. 491-14 (Dec. 18, 2014). Here, petitioner's claims are specific to her personal employment relationship with respondent. Thus, the Commissioner holds that a relaxation of the ninety-day rule is unwarranted in this case.

Accordingly, respondent's motion to dismiss is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: October 2, 2024

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSING THE PETITION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08315-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 176-6/24

MAGDOULEN A. SAWIRES,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.

Magdoulen A. Sawires, petitioner, pro se

Brian J. Kane, Esq., for respondent (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 23, 2024 Decided: August 28, 2024

BEFORE SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Magdoulen Sawires (Petitioner or Sawires) appealed the determination by respondent Elizabeth Board of Education (Board) denying the renewal of her employment contract. The Board moves to dismiss the Petition because it was untimely filed.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education, and the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed as a contested case on June 14, 2024 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

An initial prehearing conference was held on July 10, 2024, at which time the Board requested, and was granted, leave to file a Motion to Dismiss. On July 17, 2024, the Board filed its motion.[1] On July 18, 2024, the petitioner opposed the motion, and the Board filed a reply to the opposition on or around July 23, 2024. On July 23, 2024, the petitioner submitted a sur-reply which was unauthorized, and not considered.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Upon reviewing Sawires's Petition, and the parties' submissions, I FIND the following as FACT:

Sawires was a non-tenured employee of the Board from approximately January 3, 2022 until approximately June 30, 2022.

On May 13, 2022, Sawires received from the Board a Notice of Non-Renewal, informing her that her employment contract with the Board would not be renewed for the 2022–2023 school year. She last worked for the Board in late June 2022.

Sawires filed this Petition with the Department of Education on June 4, 2024. In her Petition, Sawires suggests that despite receiving the Notice of Non-Renewal, she sought to resign from the position but was told by at least one District representative not to resign, to file for unemployment, and that if the District did not find an alternative placement for her for the following school year, she would be terminated due to a reduction in force. She also seems to allege in her Petition that the District improperly failed to have her sign any document relating to her separation from the District in late June 2022. All the claims raised in the Petition relate directly to the Board's decision not to renew Sawires' employment contract for the 2022-2023 school year.

[1] While the Board technically filed a "Motion for Summary Decision," I considered this application a Motion to Dismiss since that is what was discussed at the prehearing conference, and because I only considered the pleadings in deciding this Motion.

The Petition seeks: the reversal of the Board's decision not to renew her contract; compensation; and reinstatement of her work for "wrongful discharge due to inadequate training and failure to communicate expectations." Sawires asserts in the Petition that the District violated "labor and education laws by failing to provide a rationale for her discharge."

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The Board filed a motion seeking the dismissal of the Petition because Sawires filed this Petition well beyond the ninety-day limitation period provided by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). The Board asserts that Sawires received a notice of non-renewal on May 13, 2022, as she states in her Petition, and that since she failed to file this appeal within ninety days of her receipt of the Board's notice, her Petition must be dismissed.

In her opposition to the Board's motion, Sawires asserts that she did not know that she "got discharged" until September 2022, although she also asserts that she was informed by the school's vice principal in June 2022 that she was being laid off. She also asserts that she was wrongfully terminated on June 26, 2022, and that the Board wrongfully denied her mentorship and a hearing relating to the non-renewal. In her opposition to the motion, Sawires concedes that she did not appeal the Board's action in 2022, but that in 2023 she filed an action in Superior Court, which was dismissed. She appealed the dismissal, and, in early June 2024, the Appellate Division denied her appeal.

Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), a "petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, which is the subject of the requested contested case hearing." The ninety-day period for filing a petition is to be strictly construed and those claims that are not filed in a timely manner are precluded from review. Raymond v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of River Edge, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 203, aff'd, 94 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 431.

Here, it is undisputed that Sawires received a notice of non-renewal on or about May 13, 2022. This is reflected in the Petition. Although her Petition and opposition to the Board's motion suggests that Sawires may have been confused whether she was non-renewed, laid-off or terminated, and while she asserts that she was wrongfully terminated or laid-off without having had the benefit of mentorship support or a formal hearing at the District, it is clear and undisputed that she was made aware in May 2022 that she would no longer be employed by the Board, and that the last time she worked for the Board was in late June 2022. I CONCLUDE that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) and existing caselaw, the ninety-day rule began to run when Sawires received notice of the non-renewal on or about May 13, 2022. Neither the filing of Sawires's complaint with the Superior Court of New Jersey nor her appeal with the Appellate Division tolls the ninety-day timeline imposed by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Sawires filed her Petition about two years after she received notice of non-renewal, well beyond the ninety-day limitation period.

Moreover, while Sawires's opposition to the motion seems to also, confusingly, assert that she did not become aware that she was "discharged" by the Board until September 2022 (an assertion that is inconsistent with her Petition), any potential claim that she could have asserted concerning Board action that she became aware of in September 2022, would also be time-barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:1.3-1.3(i).

Consequently, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's claims, as set forth in her Petition, are time-barred pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), and that the Petition should be dismissed in its entirety.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the respondent's Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, and that the Petition of Appeal is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

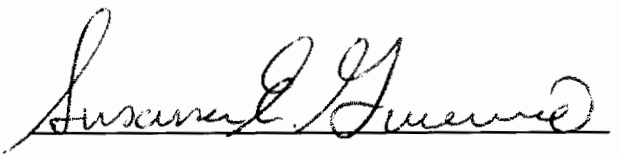
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

August 28, 2024
DATE



SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

jb

360-24
OAL Dkt. No. 11093-24
Agency Dkt. No. 254-8/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

D.D. and J.D., on behalf of minor child, D.D.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Deptford, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of the hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Accordingly, the recommended Order denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons stated therein. As the parties represented to the ALJ that no issues remain to be resolved, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED. [1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: September 30, 2024
Date of Mailing: October 2, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER DENYING
EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11093-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 254-8/24

D.D. AND J.D., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD D.D.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF TOWNSHIP OF DEPTFORD,

Respondent.

D.D. and J.D. on behalf of D.D., petitioners, pro se

John Carleton, Esq., for respondent (Marmero Law, LLC, attorneys)

BEFORE MICHAEL R. STANZIONE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners are challenging an expulsion of D.D. from a before- and after-school care program. The petitioners must satisfy the well-established standard for injunctive relief established by Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). The criteria for the granting of emergency relief has not been met for me to reinstate the minor child D.D. to the Spartan Care before- and after-school program.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioners filed a verified petition and request for emergent relief with the Commissioner of the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes (DOE). On August 8, 2024, the DOE transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on August 13, 2024, as a contested case seeking emergent relief. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The hearing was scheduled to be conducted on August 16, 2024. During a pre-hearing teleconference on August 15, 2024, both parties requested that the case be adjourned until August 19, 2024. The hearing took place on August 19, 2024, and the record closed that day.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The following is undisputed. I therefore FIND as FACT:

1. D.D. is a rising fourth-grade student at Lake Track Elementary School within the Township of Deptford School District (District).

2. D.D. was enrolled in the school's before- and after-care program (Spartan Care) for approximately three years.

3. Spartan Care is a tuition-based before- and after-care program that is offered through the District's website.

4. During his third-grade school year, while in Spartan Care on April 29, 2024, D.D. bit and scratched one of the staff members.

5. On April 30, 2024, D.D. was told by Spartan Care director Danielle Mills he could not come back to Spartan Care for the rest of the week.

6. On May 1, 2024, Spartan Care advised petitioner, Mr. D.,[1] that D.D. could not come back to Spartan Care for the remainder of the school year.

7. On July 25, 2024, Spartan Care advised Mr. D. that D.D. could not come back to Spartan Care for the upcoming school year and that he was permanently expelled.

8. D.D.'s parents are separated and do not reside in the same home, and they share custody of D.D.

9. The Spartan Care parent handbook has an expulsion policy that lists excessive biting as a basis for expulsion. R-A.

10. The handbook also cites as immediate cause for expulsion, "The child is at risk of causing serious injury to other children or himself/herself." Ibid.

Testimony

For petitioners

J.D., D.D.'s mother, was afraid that, should her child not be allowed back into the Spartan Care program, her job security would be jeopardized, and she may become unemployed. Her job will not allow her to work from home or adjust her schedule to provide childcare. There are no family members who can watch D.D., and there are no private programs that provide transportation to and from Deptford schools. Transportation would be needed, as both parents work, and neither is able to drop off and pick up D.D. at school on time. The Spartan Care program is the only option that works for the family.

D.D., the child's father, is an educator. Once the school year begins, he cannot transport D.D., his child, to and from school. His school schedule is too close to when his son must be at school, and it is impossible to make it work. He needs the before care so he can drop his son off and go to his job. The after care allows him to finish his work and pick his son up.

[1] Because petitioner and D.D. have the same initials, petitioner is referred to here as Mr. D. (or Ms. D).

Both parents stated that full-time private childcare is not an option as they are not able to afford it. They also believe that D.D.'s previous discipline record shows that this is a one-time incident that would never happen again.

Additional Findings

J.D. provided testimony that was mostly uncorroborated. She did not provide any evidence or exhibits to corroborate any of her assertions. I am unable to credit her account.

D.D. also provided uncorroborated testimony. For that reason, I am unable to credit his account.

Based upon the testimonial and documentary evidence, and having considered the credibility of the witnesses, I FIND as FACT that the expulsion will affect the work schedules of petitioner's parents. I FIND as FACT that there is no way of knowing if D.D. will repeat the behavior that led to his expulsion.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The regulations governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education . . . [,] the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

At a hearing for emergent relief, petitioners must show that they satisfy the following four standards:

> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
>
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
>
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
>
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) (citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)).]

The petitioners must prove each of these standards by clear and convincing evidence. Garden State Equality v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013). The standard is a high threshold to meet, and I will address each prong separately.

1. Irreparable harm

As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in Crowe, "[o]ne principle is that a preliminary injunction should not issue except when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 (citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden Horse R.R. Co., 29 N.J. Eq. 299, 303 (E. & A. 1878)). Indeed, the purpose of emergent relief is to "prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case." Ibid. (quoting Thompson ex rel. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders v. Paterson, 9 N.J. Eq. 624, 625 (Sup. Ct. 1854).)

"Irreparable harm is shown when money damages cannot adequately compensate plaintiff's injuries." Hornstine v. Twp. of Moorestown, 263 F. Supp. 2d 887, 911 (D.N.J. 2003) (citing Sampson v. Murray, 415 U.S. 61, 90 (1974)). "More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated." Cont'l Grp., Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (3d Cir. 1980). "The requisite for injunctive relief has been characterized as a 'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury' . . . or a 'presently existing actual threat; [an injunction] may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by the common law.'" Ibid. (citations omitted).

Here, with respect to the first prong, D.D. will not suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted. The harm to the petitioners in this case is not immediate. Petitioners argued that it is possible their employment would be threatened by D.D.'s expulsion from Spartan Care. There is no showing of immediate irreparable injury or a presently existing actual threat.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have not met their burden of proof with respect to this prong.

2. Settled Legal Right

Emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–05). The petitioners have not provided any testimony or evidence that they have a legal right to their requested relief. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioners have not shown a settled legal right underlying this claim.

3. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

Petitioners have not demonstrated that they are likely to succeed on the merits of the underlying claim. Under this emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115–16 (E. & A. 1930)). This typically "'involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case' based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182–83 (App. Div. 2012) (quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App. Div. 2006)).

Because I have found that petitioners have not shown a legal right underlying this claim, it logically follows that there is not a likelihood of success on the merits. The underlying incident that resulted in the expulsion of D.D. is serious in nature. Although petitioners claim that this is a one-time incident that will never happen again, they have not provided any clear and convincing evidence or legal authority showing that they have a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits. I therefore CONCLUDE that petitioners have not shown a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits.

4. Balancing the Equities

The fourth and final emergent relief standard involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 (citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J. Eq. 506, 515 (Ch. 1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J. Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)).

The only evidence presented here regarding relative hardship to the parties pertains to the fact that petitioner's parents may lose their employment. While dealt with in the above analysis, it is important to note that it is speculation. D.D. was removed from the Spartan Care program on April 29, 2024, and finished the school year on June 14, 2024. In that time, petitioners maintained their employment and continue working in their current positions. In comparison, the Spartan Care program has an interest in enforcing their student behavioral policies, especially in cases where they deem that the child is at risk of causing serious injury or exhibits excessive biting.

I CONCLUDE that the Board will suffer greater harm should emergent relief be granted than the student if the requested relief is not granted.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that petitioners failed to meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the emergent application for relief of the petitioners is hereby DENIED, and this resolves the case, as the parties have advised me that no further issues remain once the emergent relief matter is resolved.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

August 20, 2024 _____ Michael R. Stanzione

DATE MICHAEL STANZIONE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

MS/mg

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner

J.D.

D.D.

For respondent

None

EXHIBITS

For petitioner

P-1 Request for emergent relief dated August 5, 2024

For respondent

R-A Spartan Care Parent Handbook

361-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.J., on behalf of minor child, A.J.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Springfield, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner challenged the action of the respondent Board removing her daughter, A.J., from the Springfield Public School District (Board or District). The District contended that A.J. became ineligible for a free education in Springfield beginning May 1, 2023 through the end of the 2023-2024 school year, subsequent to the family's relocation to an address in Plainfield. Petitioner asserted that her last permanent residence was an apartment in Springfield and that she had intended to live with her husband in a multi-unit Plainfield house that they had purchased, but never did because she discovered her husband had been unfaithful. In the aftermath of the marital breakup, petitioner claimed she was living house to house without a permanent residence and was therefore homeless. The Board sought tuition reimbursement for the period of A.J.'s alleged ineligible attendance in the Springfield school.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioner bears the burden of proof that A.J. is eligible for a free education in Springfield; although petitioner argues that she is homeless, more than a year passed prior to the District's residency investigation and petitioner never notified the District that A.J. was "homeless"; per N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a)(3), a child is homeless if she resides in the residency of relatives or friends "out of necessity because the child's family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own", which is not the case in this matter as A.J.'s family did not and does not lack a residence; A.J.'s eligibility to attend school in Springfield is attached to petitioner's domicile. The ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that she and her minor child, A.J., were domiciled in Springfield for the remainder of the 2022-2023 school year, and for the 2023-2024 school year. Accordingly, the ALJ further concluded that petitioner owes the Board tuition reimbursement in the amount of $17,594.64 for the period of A.J.'s ineligible attendance in the District.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter with modification to the total amount of tuition owed to the Board. Petitioner was ordered to reimburse the Board in the amount of $17,422.08, which reflects the correct number of days A.J. attended school in the District during the period of her ineligibility. Accordingly, the petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

361-24
OAL Dkt. No. 06840-24
Agency Dkt. No. 106-4/24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.J., on behalf of minor child, A.J.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Springfield, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

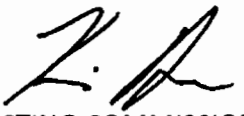
Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner failed to sustain her burden of establishing that she and her minor child, A.J.,[1] were domiciled in Springfield (the District) for the portion of the 2022-2023 school year beginning on May 1, 2023, and for the 2023-2024 school year. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ that A.J. was not homeless during this period, for the reasons outlined in the Initial Decision. Accordingly, the Commissioner agrees that A.J. was not eligible to receive a free education in the District during that time.

[1] Because petitioner and her child share the same initials, petitioner will be referred to herein as "petitioner," and her child will be referred to herein as "A.J."

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b), the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which the minor child was ineligible to attend school in the District. Upon review, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ that the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement for the 2022-2023 school year commencing on May 1, 2023, and for the 2023-2024 school year. However, the Commissioner finds that the tuition calculation for that period is $17,422.08. The Attendance Detail for A.J. for 2022-2023 shows 31 days of ineligible attendance ($83.79 per day for 31 days, totaling $2,597.49). The Attendance Detail for A.J. for 2023-2024 shows 167 days of ineligible attendance ($88.77 per day 167 days, totaling $14,824.59).

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as modified with respect to the final tuition calculation. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]



ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: October 4, 2024
Date of Mailing: October 7, 2024

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06840-24
AGENCY DKT. NO. 106-4/24

A.J. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.J.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.

A.J., petitioner, pro se

Athina Lekas Cornell, Esq., for respondent (Methfessel & Werbel, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: August 14, 2024 Decided: August 23, 2024

BEFORE KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner A.J. (Mom) challenges the action of the Board of Education of the Township of Springfield (Board) removing her daughter, A.J., from the Springfield Public Schools District (Springfield District). A.J. was not eligible for a free education in Springfield District because she was neither domiciled in nor homeless from Springfield.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

By notice of initial determination of ineligibility, dated February 12, 2024, Springfield District notified Mom and A.J. (Dad) that it had come to the Board's attention that A.J. was not domiciled in Springfield, New Jersey and no longer entitled to a free education within the Springfield District. (R-1B.) By letter dated March 8, 2024, Springfield District notified Mom and Dad that after the Board conducted a hearing, it appeared that A.J. is domiciled in Plainfield, New Jersey, and that the Board would take a formal vote seeking the removal of A.J. from Springfield District at its March 18, 2024, meeting. (R-1G.) By letter dated March 28, 2024, the Board's attorney notified Mom and Dad that the Board found that A.J. was not domiciled in Springfield and should be immediately withdrawn and that Mom and Dad owed tuition in the amount of $14,201.70 for the period of May 2023–March 2024. (R-1H.)

On April 18, 2024, Mom filed a Pro Se Petition of Appeal, dated April 17, 2024, with the Department of Education.[1] On May 7, 2024, the Board filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of answer.[2] On May 10, 2024, the Department transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the office, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, and the rules of procedure established by the Department of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. Jurisdiction is conferred under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.

---

[1] Dad did not file an appeal.

[2] Due to applicable case law and the proximity of the dates, it was determined during the prehearing conference that the matter would proceed to a hearing rather than proceed on the motion to dismiss.

The hearing was held on July 10, 2024. The Board submitted its post-hearing brief and certification on July 19, 2024; petitioner submitted her post-hearing letter and documents on July 26, 2024; and the Board submitted a supplemental certification on August 14, 2024, on which date the record closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Mom testified on behalf of petitioner. Rachel Goldberg (Superintendent), Michelle Calas (School Business Administrator/Board Secretary) and James Post (Investigator) testified on behalf of the respondent.

Preliminary Facts

After due consideration of the testimonial and documentary evidence presented at the hearing and having had the opportunity to observe the demeanor of the witnesses and assess their credibility, I FIND the following preliminary facts:

Mom and Dad have a daughter, A.J., born in July 2019. Per a lease dated October 9, 2021, Mom and Dad leased an apartment at 46 First Street,[3] Springfield, New Jersey, for a term of one year, from November 1, 2021, through October 31, 2022 (Springfield Lease). (P-7.)

On April 8, 2022, Mom purchased 766 Second Street,[4] Plainfield, New Jersey. A mortgage, dated April 8, 2022, reflects that borrower "[Mom], Unmarried" owes the lender $588,318, plus interest, for 766 Second Street, Plainfield. (R-1D.) Apartment leases for 766 Second Street, Plainfield, all reflect Mom as landlord and further reflect that Unit 1 was rented from December 1, 2022, through November 30, 2023, for $2,700 per month, that Unit 2 was rented from December 1, 2022, through November 30, 2023, for $1,800 per month, and that Unit 3 was rented from January 1, 2023, through

[3] A fictitious address is used for privacy.
[4] A fictitious address is used for privacy.

December 31, 2023, for $1,400 per month. (P-3; P-4; P-5.) Total rent is $5,900 per month.

An addendum to the Springfield Lease, dated September 23, 2022 (Springfield Lease Addendum), reflects that the landlord agreed to extend the term of occupancy for "6 months" from October 1, 2022,[5] through April 30, 2023. (P-8.)

On November 15, 2022, Dad and M.P., as tenants in common, purchased 667 Third Street, Plainfield, New Jersey[6] from a limited liability company. (R-1D.)

For the 2022–2023 and 2023–2024 school years, A.J. attended a full-day preschool program at the Edward V. Walton School in Springfield. (R-2.) A Student Information Sheet completed by Mom reflects A.J.'s address as 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield, New Jersey.[7] (R-1C.) 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield, was the address of Mom's mother and stepfather. Mom's mother passed away in March 2023. An expired driver's license for Mom reflects an issue date of March 2019, an expiration date of April 2023, and an address of 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield. A current driver's license for Mom reflects an issue date of March 2023, an expiration date of April 2027, and an address of 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield.

Mom and Dad were married in January 2023. (R-4.)

A deed dated July 11, 2023, reflects that the grantors, "[Dad], whose address is 667 Third Street, Plainfield, New Jersey 07060 and [M.P.], whose address is . . . Newark, New Jersey" conveyed ownership of 667 Third Street, Plainfield, to "[Dad] and [Mom], married to each other, whose address is [667 Third Street], Plainfield, New Jersey 07060," for consideration of $1. (R-1E.) The "record and return to" address on the July 11, 2023, deed is as follows: [Dad], 667 Third Street, Plainfield, New Jersey 07060. (R-1D.) A mortgage, dated July 11, 2023, reflects the borrower as "[Dad] and [Mom], Husband and Wife, currently residing at [667 Third Street], Plainfield, New [5] It is observed that the Springfield Lease term was November 1, 2021, through October 31, 2022, and that October 1, 2022, through April 30, 2023, would be seven months.

[6] A fictitious address is used for privacy.
[7] A fictitious address is used for privacy.

Jersey" and that each borrower who signed the note owes the lender $530,387, plus interest, for 667 Third Street, Plainfield. (R-1F.) The note, dated July 11, 2023, is initialed by Mom and Dad but signed only by Dad. (P-9.)

On January 24, 2024, Mom signed a Marriage Settlement Agreement, which reflects Mom's address, beneath her signature, as 667 Third Street, Plainfield. The Marriage Settlement Agreement also reflects Dad's address as 667 Third Street, Plainfield. Additionally, the Marriage Settlement Agreement reflects, inter alia, the following: that Mom and Dad separated on October 1, 2023; that Mom and Dad maintain joint legal custody of A.J.; and that Mom has sole physical custody of A.J. (R-4; R-4A.) With respect to the division of assets, the Settlement Agreement reflects, in pertinent part, the following:

> a. Marital Home. The parties agree the marital home will be sold and proceeds will be divided in the following percentages after payment of any mortgage and sales costs:
>
> 50% to [Mom] 50% to [Dad]
>
> b. Additional Real Property.
>
> [Mom] will receive the following real property:
>
> [766 Second Street] which is legally described as Investment Property
>
> [Mom] agrees to buy out [Dad] interest in the investment property once the primary residence is sold. The buyout will be determined by appraising the house, and [Mom] will pay 50% of the equity, minus commission, taxes and fees.
>
> c. Other Assets. After the sale of the principal residence, both parties shall collaborate to settle the outstanding loan on the car, and upon full payment, the title shall be transferred to [Mom].
>
> [R-4A.]

The Marriage Settlement Agreement was filed in Superior Court on January 25, 2024.

It was discovered that paperwork submitted to the school reflected A.J.'s address as Plainfield. On January 25, 2024, Springfield District residency investigator James Post commenced a residency investigation. Dad's vehicle is a gray sport utility vehicle (SUV). (R-2.) Mom's vehicle is a white Range Rover. (R-2.) Post's investigation report, dated February 3, 2024, concluded that the family did not reside in Springfield. (R-2.)

By notice of initial determination of ineligibility, dated February 12, 2024, Rachel Goldberg, Springfield District Superintendent, notified Mom and Dad via certified mail, at 667 Third Street, Plainfield, that it had come to the Board's attention that A.J. was not domiciled in Springfield and was no longer entitled to a free education within the Springfield District. (R-1B.)

By letter dated March 8, 2024, Michelle Calas, Springfield District School Business Administrator/Board Secretary, notified Mom and Dad at 667 Third Street, Plainfield, that after the Board conducted a hearing, it appeared that A.J. is domiciled in Plainfield and that the Board would take a formal vote seeking removal of A.J. from Springfield District at its March 18, 2024, meeting. (R-1G.) A resolution reflects that the Board found that A.J. was not domiciled in Springfield and should be immediately withdrawn and that Mom and Dad owed tuition in the amount of $14,201.70 for the period of May 2023–March 2024. (R-1H.) By letter dated March 28, 2024, the Board's attorney notified Mom and Dad, at 667 Third Street, Plainfield, of the foregoing Board resolution.

On April 8, 2024, Post commenced a follow-up residency investigation because Mom had advised Springfield District that she and A.J. would be residing at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, New Jersey[8] during the school week. Post's follow-up investigation report, dated May 27, 2024, concluded that the family did not reside in Springfield and were not staying at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield. (R-3.)

[8] A fictitious address is used for privacy.

On April 18, 2024, petitioner filed a Pro Se Petition of Appeal, dated April 17, 2024 (Petition), with attachments, with the Department of Education. The Petition reflects petitioner's address as 11 Fifth Street, Springfield. Included with the Petition was a notarized letter from S.D., stating as follows:

> [Mom] and [A.J.] resided with myself, [S.D.] and my wife at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, NJ 07081 for the months of May 1, 2023, until July 31, 2023.
>
> After July 31, 2023, [A.J.] and [Mom] stayed with us 4 days a week (the exact day of the week switched throughout this time period) while [A.J.] attended school up until the end of February 2024.
>
> My wife and I agreed to let [A.J.] and [Mom] to stay with us permanently beginning March 12, 2024 until [Mom] is able to find a new residence.

Also included with the Petition was a letter from Mom, dated April 9, 2024, as follows:

> I resided in Springfield at [46 First Street] and my lease was up April 30, 2023.
>
> I resided on [11 Fifth Street], Springfield, NJ with my godmother and godfather ([S.D.]).
>
> In July I was anticipating on moving, [Dad] took a mortgage on the house in Plainfield, [667 Third Street], Plainfield, NJ. Since we were currently married, I had to sign the mortgage documents as well. My name is not currently on the mortgage but my name is on the deed.
>
> I anticipated on moving in with [Dad] until I discovered he committed adultery. At this point [Dad] moved into the home by himself. In my divorce paperwork it actually notated the date he committed adultery but I didn't find out until the end of July. As [Dad] proceeded to move to [667 Third Street] we began doing therapy sessions and made several attempts to try and reconcile while I was out of the house. When I filled out my divorce paperwork and it asked for physical separation I notated October 2023 since this is when we decided to give up. I also noted this date to make sure if the house was sold I would be able to receive proceeds from the sale of the house.

At this time I also owned a multi-family, [766 Second Street], which I've owned since April 8, 2022. My lease started in Springfield at [46 First Street] November 2022. I was residing in Springfield while owning this house. My tenants signed a lease which didn't expire until November 2023, December 2023 and January 2024. I never renewed their lease because my husband, [Dad] and I are going through a divorce and trying to decide what we will do with the house. The units are still currently occupied and rented out.

The school board also mentioned when I filled out contact information I provided my mother's address, [12 Fourth Street], Plainfield NJ. This address has always been my mailing address which I explained to the school when I filled it out. When my daughter [A.J.] first attended the school, I provided them with my license which shows this same address and at the time my current address was [46 First Street]. I have attached a copy of my old license and new to show you I've never changed my address on license or as my mailing address.

When the RI did the investigation, unfortunately they chose the days her father picks [A.J.] up to follow him. [Dad] and I have an arrangement, he picks [A.J.] up from school Mondays and Wednesday's if he doesn't have to work overtime and drops her off to me by 8PM on those days. He also keeps her every other weekend. Due to [Dad's] work schedule, he is unable to have residential custody of [A.J.]. He works late and sometimes works weekends. He has to be to work at 6:00am in Secaucus, NJ and most days during the week he doesn't get off until 7:30pm. Before care and after care isn't available at those times, hence we agreed I will have residential custody of [A.J.]. The 2 days he was followed was on his days to pick her up, one which he returned her to me that evening and the other date was a Friday which it was his weekend to keep her.

The board asked me to send my divorce paperwork to show the anticipation of the sale of [667 Third Street], Plainfield, NJ and I offered to show them I had residential custody. I agreed to show them all the information that was relevant to this case and they tried to dissect the information they were able to see and made a determination but their conclusion was incorrect.

> They pointed out [Dad] and I have joint legal custody, this is because in the state of NJ it is almost impossible to have sole custody but we have joint custody in regards to making decisions. I will provide the copy of the settlement agreement which is in regards to this case.
>
> They also stated my agreement stated the document indicated that residence of the child shall not be changed but that wasn't the complete statement. It stated the residence couldn't be changed without notifying [Dad]. [Dad] is fully aware I have been staying in a few places with [A.J.]. I can have him write a letter if needed.
>
> After the investigation and the hearing, my godparents agreed to allow me to reside in Springfield fully until I am able to find a place for [A.J.] and I. I submitted a notarized letter to the school.
>
> The school agreed to allow [A.J.] to stay until June 21, 2024 but they are trying to charge me tuition because they are saying I wasn't domiciled in Springfield. I would like to appeal the decision for them charging me past tuition when my last permanent residence was in Springfield, NJ and for the entire school year I was staying from place to place because I didn't have a permanent residence. I stayed in Springfield, Edison, Piscataway and Plainfield since July. During the school year (September–February) I stayed in Springfield mostly during the week but I also spent a few nights in Edison, NJ, Piscataway, NJ, and Plainfield, NJ.

Finally, also included with the Petition was a letter from Mom, dated April 18, 2024, as follows:

> I just wanted to address, I haven't been able to find an apartment yet because now I am no longer a two parent household. I am unable to afford a two bedroom apartment in areas with a good school district. [A.J.] came into Edward Walton School with special needs. She had a speech delay and was receiving services to assist with her delay. Education is very important to me so the school district where I will reside makes a difference. When I anticipated on moving into my marital home, we were going to be able to afford private school because we had both our incomes. Since I never went forward with moving in the house it caused me to go from place to place with my child. I am currently in a lottery for an apartment in Springfield, NJ and I > am actively looking. I expressed to Springfield Board of Education I didn't have a permanent residence and was living in different towns they didn't offer any resources or services.

The 2022–2023 per pupil cost for preschool was $15,082, and the 2023–2024 per pupil cost for preschool was $15,979.

Testimony

Rachel Goldberg

Mom left Springfield in April 2023, and there was no claim of or communication about displacement prior to the start of the residency investigation. Typically, in the event of a displacement, the families immediately make the Springfield District aware, and there is a very clear protocol that is followed in Springfield District. Mom's conversation with her about displacement was not until May 13, 2024. It is incumbent on a family to communicate a displacement to the Springfield District with some level of immediacy. There was no evidence that Mom was displaced from Springfield—rather it appears she was displaced from Plainfield. There was no claim of homelessness as of February 26, 2024, and it is the position of the Springfield District that even if Mom is homeless, she is homeless from Plainfield.

Michelle Calas

The Board allowed Mom additional time to submit documentation of domicile in Springfield. Mom provided a redacted portion of a marriage settlement agreement, but it does not reflect her domicile or residence in Springfield. She is not aware of any conversation between Mom and a Board member. She went back and forth with Mom about the marriage settlement agreement because there was no evidence of domicile in Springfield and the Board needed evidence linking A.J. to Springfield. Mom's last known permanent residence was her marital residence.

James Post

On Thursday, January 25, 2024, at 12:00 p.m., he went to 667 Third Street, Plainfield, but did not see Mom's Range Rover. He then went to 46 First Street, Springfield, where the apartment complex leasing manager advised him that the family had moved out in April 2023. Mom picked A.J. up from school at 4:20 p.m. He followed but lost sight of them. He returned to 667 Third Street, Plainfield and remained until 6:00 p.m. but never saw them, and there were no vehicles in the driveway. On Friday, January 26, 2024, A.J.'s grandmother and a male driver picked A.J. up from school at 4:55 p.m. in a Dodge Ram pickup. He followed them to a restaurant and then to 667 Third Street, Plainfield, where they entered the residence. On January 29, 2024, at 6:30 a.m., he went to 667 Third Street, Plainfield. Dad's SUV was in the driveway. He left shortly after 9:00 a.m. because school staff advised that A.J. had arrived on time, so it appeared she had slept elsewhere. That afternoon, Dad picked A.J. up in the SUV. He followed them to McDonald's and then to 667 Third Street, Plainfield. He went to 667 Third Street, Plainfield, on Wednesday, January 31, 2024,[9] and Dad's SUV was in the driveway, but he did not see anyone. School staff advised that A.J. had arrived on time, so it appeared she had slept elsewhere. A.J.'s aunt picked her up from school. He followed them to 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, where they pulled into the driveway for a few minutes, then went to McDonald's and then to 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield. Thereafter, he went to 667 Third Street, Plainfield, but did not see A.J. get dropped off there. On Friday, February 2, 2024, and on the morning of Saturday, February 3, 2024, he went to 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield, and 667 Third Street, Plainfield, but did not see Mom's Range Rover at either address. Dad's SUV was parked in the driveway on both occasions.

On Monday, April 8, 2024, Dad picked A.J. up from school in the SUV at 4:45 p.m. He followed them but lost sight of them in Piscataway, near Stelton Road. On Thursday, April 11, 2024, Dad picked A.J. up from school at 3:50 p.m. and dropped her off at 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield, to Mom, whose Range Rover was parked at the curb. A.J. and Mom entered the home and then left a few minutes later in Mom's Range [9] His report reflects that he returned "the next day," so it is not clear if the date is accurate.

Rover. He followed them through Plainfield but lost sight of them. On Thursday, April 11, 2024, he monitored 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, from 8:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. but never saw Mom's Range Rover. On Wednesday, April 17, 2024, he monitored 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, from 6:30 a.m. until 8:45 a.m. The aunt's vehicle was parked in the driveway, but he never saw Mom's Range Rover. He left 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, and drove to the school, where he was advised that Mom had just dropped A.J. off, so they could not have slept at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, the night before. He returned to 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, after leaving the school, but he did not see Mom's Range Rover. On Wednesday, April 24, 2024, he monitored 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, from 6:30 a.m. until 8:45 a.m., but there was no sign of Mom or A.J. He went to the school and observed Mom dropping A.J. off, so they could not have stayed at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, the night before. He monitored 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, on Thursday, May 2, 2024, and Thursday, May 9, 2024, from 7:30 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. Both times the aunt's car was parked in the driveway, but there was no sign of A.J., Mom or the Range Rover. He observed 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, on Tuesday, May 14, 2024, from 6:30 a.m. until 8:45 a.m. The aunt's vehicle was parked in the driveway, but there was no sign of A.J. or Mom. He went to the school and observed Mom dropping A.J. off, so they could not have stayed at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, the night before. He followed Mom to 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, where she parked behind the aunt's vehicle in the driveway and then entered the residence. He went to 11 Fifth Street, Springfield, on Wednesday, May 22, 2024, at 6:30 a.m. and observed the aunt's vehicle in the driveway. Mom's Range Rover was not there, but at approximately 8:25 a.m., A.J. and the aunt emerged from the home and drove to the school.

Mom

12 Fourth Street, Plainfield, was her childhood home and was owned by her mother and stepfather. Her stepfather and maternal grandfather presently live at that address. She keeps that address on her driver's license, and it is her mailing address. She put that address on the Student Information Sheet because it says, "How may I reach you"—for how the school could get in touch with A.J., not for where A.J. lives. She is a realtor and does a lot of business in Plainfield. Her business address is in Plainfield. The investment property apartments were and still are rented, so she could not have resided there. She stayed with her godparents at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield from May 1, 2023, until the end of the school year. Dad did not stay there—he stayed at 667 Third Street, Plainfield. When she signed the 667 Third Street, Plainfield mortgage, she was planning to move into the marital home that she helped build and create, but she did not move in because, in July 2023, she was informed that Dad was cheating on her.

She told the Board that she was waiting to sell until spring or summer because she could get more money for the marital home in warmer weather and that she was living from house to house without a permanent residence. She still has no permanent residence. She is looking for low-income apartments but has not been accepted yet. She will probably have to wait until the divorce is finalized because she is not sure what is going to happen with the investment property and marital residence. She hired a lawyer a few weeks ago because she and Dad cannot come to an agreement. At the February 26, 2024, meeting and via email, she asked the Springfield District to provide her with information regarding being homeless. She asked for assistance and emailed Calas because she had no fixed, adequate residence. Nobody reached out to her, and Calas said it depends on the outcome of this case. She emailed the District in March 2024 about being displaced, and she went to the office and said she was displaced from 46 First Street, Springfield, and did not have a permanent residence.

She and Dad have an agreement that Dad picks A.J. up from school on Mondays and Wednesdays if he does not have to work overtime. Dad resides at 667 Third Street, Plainfield. She submitted screenshots of her gym entries. A.J. has swim lessons every Thursday at 6:20 p.m. Sometimes she picks A.J. up early for gymnastics at 5:00 p.m. and then swim lessons at 6:20 p.m. at Life Time gym in Bridgewater, New Jersey. After swim lessons, A.J. does the open swim, showers, and gets dressed at the gym, and then they get something to eat, so they do not get home until 10:30 p.m. on Thursdays. On Mondays and Wednesdays, Dad takes A.J. to Kumon on Shelton Road in Piscataway, New Jersey, for tutoring, and then drops A.J. off to her at 8:00 p.m. She could have left the house with A.J. prior to 6:45 a.m. and then dropped her off at school. On January 30, 2024, she rushed her stepfather, who has cancer, to the hospital. She goes to 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield almost every day because she helps cook for her stepfather and grandfather. She might leave before 6:45 a.m. because some mornings she takes her stepfather to the doctor for treatment. She has had a lot of responsibilities since her mother passed away. Her godmother ("aunt") and godfather reside at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield. She is allowed to stay there every day during the week during the school year. Post did not stay long enough to see her at 11 Fifth Street, Springfield.

She looked up her rights and what works in her favor, and there is no clear answer for what she is going through. She has never stated that her current residence is in Springfield. The Springfield apartment was her last permanent residence—her domicile—from which she was displaced. Since then, she has moved from place to place, staying with friends and family until she figures out her divorce. She submitted shipping confirmations for other places she has stayed and shipped things to. She is not on house arrest. She does not have to stay at her godfather's house every single day of the week. She can stay out on her birthday. She is allowed to stay there every day during the week during the school year. There is no way she would enroll A.J. in a Plainfield public school. She would only reside in Plainfield if she was in a two-parent home and could afford private school. When living in Plainfield, they had a two-income household, so A.J. was going to be put into private school. Wherever she resides now, it must be in a good school district because she cannot afford private school anymore.

The Marriage Settlement Agreement does not specify who resides where or reflect where she would be staying with A.J. because she does not have a permanent address. She and A.J. are displaced, and Dad is in the marital home. She has no right to go into the marital home. Recently, Dad called the police on her at the marital home and said she was not allowed in because she does not live there. She created the Marriage Settlement Agreement document, and some things are not correct, like October 1, 2023. She entered the wrong dates. It does not make sense that the Marriage Settlement Agreement reflects the 667 Third Street, Plainfield address in January 2024, but also that she physically separated in October 2023. She is not an attorney and answered to the best of her knowledge. The Marriage Settlement Agreement has been amended and filed with the court. They are waiting to see the mediator and judge, but there are no dates yet. The marital residence cannot be sold because she and Dad cannot settle, and now they have hired attorneys to determine what will happen with both properties. Neither property has been listed for sale.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Public schools are free to persons over five[10] and under twenty years of age who are domiciled within the school district or whose parent moves from one school district to another school district as a result of being homeless and whose district of residence is determined pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) and (f). No child under the age of five years shall be admitted to any public school, except as may be provided pursuant to law for children of such age. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-5. See N.J.S.A. 18A:44-1. The rules in N.J.A.C. 6A:22 were adopted to implement N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) through (e). N.J.A.C. 6A:22-1.1(a).

If the school district finds that the parent of a child who is attending the schools of the district is not domiciled within the district, the superintendent or administrative principal may apply to the board of education for the removal of the child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). The parent is entitled to a hearing before the board, and, if in the judgment of the board, the parent is not domiciled within the district, the board may order the transfer or removal of the child from school. Ibid. The parent may contest the board's decision before the Commissioner of Education within twenty-one days of the date of the decision and is entitled to an expedited hearing. Ibid. The parent has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in the statute. Ibid. Where the evidence does not support the claims of the parent, the Commissioner is authorized to assess tuition prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the schools of the district, and tuition is computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per-pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance. Ibid.

[10] The board of education of any district may establish a preschool school or department in any school under its control and shall admit to such preschool school or department any child who is under the age at which children are admitted to other schools or classes in such district. N.J.S.A. 18A:44-1.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1), a student is eligible to attend a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district, and a student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent whose domicile is located within the school district. When a student's parents are domiciled within different school districts and there is no court order or written agreement between the parents designating the school district of attendance, the student's domicile is the school district of the parent with whom the student lives for the majority of the school year—regardless of which parent has legal custody. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(i). When a student's physical custody is shared on an equal-time, alternating week/month or other similar basis so the student is not living with one parent for a majority of the school year and there is no court order or written agreement between the parents designating the school district of attendance, the student's domicile is the present domicile of the parent with whom the student resided on the last school day prior to the October 16 preceding the application date. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(ii). When a student resided with both parents, or with neither parent, on the last school day prior to the preceding October 16, the student's domicile is that of the parent with whom the parents indicate the student will be residing on the last school day prior to the ensuing October 16. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(ii)(1). When the parents do not designate or cannot agree upon the student's likely residence as of that date, or if on that date the student is not residing with the parent previously indicated, the student shall attend school in the school district of domicile of the parent with whom the student actually lives as of the last school day prior to October 16. Ibid. A student is domiciled in the school district when his or her parent resides within the school district on an all-year-round basis for one year or more, notwithstanding the existence of a domicile elsewhere. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(4).

> "Domicile" is defined as "the place where [a person] has his [or her] true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has an intention of returning." T.B.W. ex rel. A.W. v. Bd. of Ed. of the Twp. of Belleville, Essex Cnty., 1998 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 122, Agency Dkt. No. 159-5/96, 1998 WL 668678 (N.J. Adm. June 18, 1998). As the court noted in Collins v. Yancey, 55 N.J. Super. 514, 520–21, 151 A.2d 68 (Law Div. 1959), a person may have several residences or places of abode, but only one domicile at a time. Id.

[D.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Princeton Reg'l Sch. Dist., 366 N.J. Super. 269, 273–74 (App. Div. 2004).]

A student is eligible to attend the school district pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d)[11] if the student's parent temporarily resides within the school district and elects to have the student attend the school district of temporary residence, notwithstanding the existence of a domicile elsewhere. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.2(c). When required by the district board of education, the parent shall demonstrate that the temporary residence is not solely for the purposes of the student attending the school district of temporary residence. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.2(c)(1). When one of a student's parents temporarily resides in a school district while the other is domiciled or temporarily resides elsewhere, eligibility to attend school shall be determined in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1)(i). N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.2(c)(2). However, no student shall be eligible to attend school based upon a parent's temporary residence in a school district unless the parent demonstrates, if required by the district board of education, that the temporary residence is not solely for purposes of a student's attending the school district. Ibid.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a student over five[12] and under 20 years of age, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, is eligible to attend school in the school district if the student's parent moves to another district as a result of being homeless, subject to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2 (Education of Homeless Children). N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.2(d). Other than by reference to the applicable statutes and rules, N.J.A.C. 6A:22 does not address attendance at school by persons qualifying under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(f), which provides for attendance by homeless students and is implemented through N.J.A.C. 6A:17, Education of Homeless Children. Ibid. N.J.A.C. 6A:17 ensures that homeless children are provided a thorough and efficient education. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-1.1. "Homeless child" means a child who lacks a fixed, regular, and adequate [11] Any person whose parent or guardian, even though not domiciled within the district, is residing temporarily therein, but any person who has had or shall have his all-year-round dwelling place within the district for one year or longer shall be deemed to be domiciled within the district for the purposes of this section. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d).

[12] See footnote 10.

residence, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12[13] and N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-1.1.2. "School district of residence" for a homeless child means the school district in which the parent of a homeless child resided prior to becoming homeless. Ibid. It may not be the school district in which the student currently resides. Ibid. This term is synonymous with "school district of origin" referenced in the McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act. Ibid. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2 applies to district boards of education providing general education services to students in preschool through grade 12 and special education services to students ages three through 21. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.1. Nothing in N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2 limits the educational rights of homeless children or school district responsibilities under Subtitle VII-B of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. §§ 11431 et seq.). Ibid.

The district board of education for the school district of residence shall determine that a child is homeless for purposes of N.J.A.C. 6A:17 when the child resides in any of the following:

1. A publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living accommodations, including:

    i. Hotels or motels;
    ii. Congregate shelters, including domestic violence and runaway shelters;
    iii. Transitional housing; and
    iv. Homes for adolescent mothers;

2. A public or private place not designated for, or ordinarily used as, a regular sleeping accommodation, including:

    i. Cars or other vehicles, including mobile homes;
    ii. Tents or other temporary shelters;
    iii. Parks;
    iv. Abandoned buildings;
    iv. Bus or train stations; or [13] The district of residence for children whose parent or guardian temporarily moves from one school district to another as the result of being homeless shall be the district in which the parent or guardian last resided prior to becoming homeless. N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(c). For the purpose of this amendatory and supplementary act, "homeless" shall mean an individual who temporarily lacks a fixed, regular and adequate residence. Ibid.

v. Temporary shelters provided to migrant workers and their children on farm sites;

3. The residence of relatives or friends where the homeless child or youth resides out of necessity because the child's or youth's family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own; or

4. Substandard housing.

[N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a).]

The school district of residence for a homeless child shall be responsible for the education of the child and shall: (1) determine the school district in which the child shall be enrolled after consulting with the parent pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.5; (2) pay the cost of tuition pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-19 when the child attends school in another school district; and (3) provide for transportation for the child pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:27-6.2. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(a). The determination of a homeless child's school district of residence shall be made by the chief school administrator of the school district of residence, or the chief school administrator's designee, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.4, based upon information received from the parent, a shelter provider, another school district, or an involved agency. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(b). The district identified in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 as the school district of residence for a homeless child shall be the school district of residence until the parent establishes a permanent residence. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(c). Financial responsibility will remain with the homeless child's school district of residence until the family is deemed domiciled in another jurisdiction, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d). Ibid.

Mom argues that during the period in question she "experienced severe emotional and psychosocial stressors, including homelessness," and that her "defense wasn't that [she] was currently domiciled in Springfield rather [she] was last domiciled in Springfield." Mom further argues that she was going through a divorce and was homeless, and because she did not have a permanent home, she has been residing with relatives or friends since May 1, 2023.

Petitioner has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that A.J. is eligible for a free education in Springfield. Although Mom now argues she is homeless, more than a year had passed prior to the residency investigation, and neither parent ever notified the Springfield District that A.J. was "homeless." Per N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a)(3), a child is homeless if the child resides in the residence of relatives or friends "out of necessity because the child's family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own." That is not the case here. A.J.'s family did not and does not lack a residence. Mom owns the three-family investment property[14] at 766 Second Street, Plainfield, and Mom and Dad own the "marital home"[15] at 667 Third Street, Plainfield. The leases on Mom's investment property in Plainfield expired in November 2023 and December 2023, and there is no evidence that there was any attempt by Mom to owner-occupy a unit; Mom testified that neither the investment property nor the marital home has been listed for sale. Mom's testimony that she and Dad entered into a marriage settlement agreement whereby only Dad may remain in the marital residence, is extremely troubling as it purposefully renders their child homeless—and this is not a situation where Dad is absent, as he has repeatedly been observed picking A.J. up from school, and she has been observed entering the marital residence. Further, there is no evidence of any emergent relief application in connection with the divorce because of the alleged homelessness of Mom and A.J. Under the circumstances, I CONCLUDE that A.J. is not homeless for McKinney-Vento or residency purposes. Therefore, A.J.'s eligibility to attend school in Springfield turns upon domicile.

Mom has presented no credible documentation of domicile in Springfield beyond April 30, 2023, when the Springfield Lease expired. It is observed that the Springfield apartment was leased by both Mom and Dad in October 2021, and the September 2022 addendum extending the lease was also signed by both Mom and Dad. Thus, it appears that Mom and A.J. had been living with Dad since at least November 2021; Mom and Dad were married in January 2023; and Mom testified that she was not aware of Dad's infidelity until July 2023—the end of July 2023, according to Mom's April 9, 2024, letter. There is no explanation for why Mom and A.J. would have been living with Mom's godparents in Springfield in May, June and July 2023, as stated in the letter from [14] Referred to as such in the Marriage Settlement Agreement.

[15] Referred to as such in the Marriage Settlement Agreement.

Mom's godfather, or until the end of the 2022-2023 school year as testified to by Mom, rather than with Dad in Plainfield—especially after ownership was transferred to Mom on July 11, 2023—except for the purpose of making A.J. eligible for a free education in Springfield. Mom has made it clear that she would never enroll A.J. in Plainfield public schools and that it had been her intention to enroll A.J. in private school while living in Plainfield as a two-parent household. However, the fact that her current divorce may have resulted in an inability to afford private school does not negate her domicile in Plainfield. Further, the Marriage Settlement Agreement—drafted by Mom—reflects that Mom resided at 667 Third Street, Plainfield until October 2023, as that was the date of separation, and under Mom's signature it reflects her address as 667 Third Street, Plainfield—despite Mom's claims that she always uses 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield as her address. Mom also received—whether in person or from Dad—the letters from the Springfield District addressed to 667 Third Street, Plainfield.

Mom's investment property is in Plainfield, and the marital home is also in Plainfield. Mom's driver's license and the Student Information Sheet reflect a Plainfield address. Although Mom argues that she has always used her childhood address of 12 Fourth Street, Plainfield as her address, she did not use that address on her Marriage Settlement Agreement—even after claiming she had no permanent address. Mom's testimony and documents are in conflict, improbable under the circumstances, and do not support domicile in Springfield. Further, as already noted, Mom argues that her "defense wasn't that [she] was currently domiciled in Springfield rather [she] was last domiciled in Springfield." As noted above, Mom's argument that she and A.J. are homeless is unpersuasive, and the record reflects that A.J. has not been domiciled in Springfield since May 1, 2023. Thus, even if Mom and A.J. were homeless, they would be homeless from the marital residence in Plainfield. I therefore CONCLUDE that petitioner has not satisfied her burden to prove by a preponderance of the credible evidence that she was domiciled in Springfield after April 30, 2023.

In sum, CONCLUDE that A.J. was ineligible for a free education in the Springfield District for the remainder of the 2022-2023 school year, commencing on May 1, 2023, and was ineligible for a free education in the Springfield District for the 2023-2024 school year. As such, I further CONCLUDE that the parents owe tuition to the Springfield Board in the total amount of $17,594.64 for A.J.'s period of ineligible attendance[16] during the 2022-2023 school year and 2023-2024 school year, calculated as follows: the per pupil tuition for preschool for 2022-2023 was $15,082, which is $83.79 per diem, times 32 days of ineligible attendance (per the Supplemental Certification), for a total of $2,681.28; and the per pupil tuition for preschool for 2023-2024 was $15,979, which is $88.77 per diem, times 168[17] days of ineligible attendance (per the Supplemental Certification), for a total of $14,913.36. Finally, I CONCLUDE that A.J. should be disenrolled from the Springfield District.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that petitioner's Pro Se Petition of Appeal be and hereby is DISMISSED. It is further ORDERED that the parents pay to the Board tuition in the amount of $17,594.64 for the period of ineligible attendance of A.J. in the Springfield District during the 2022-2023 school year and 2023-2024 school year and that A.J. is hereby disenrolled from the Springfield District.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Acting Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

[16] The Supplemental Certification appears to only have utilized days on which A.J. was present in school rather than school days during the period of ineligible attendance.

[17] Since the student was ineligible for the 2023-2024 school year, the total tuition would be $15,979, but the Supplemental Certification alleges only 168 days of ineligible attendance, and therefore that is the number utilized in the calculation of tuition owed.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the ACTING COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Kelly J Kirk

August 23, 2024

DATE

KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:

am

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

A.J. (Mom)

For Respondent:

Rachel Goldberg

Michelle Calas

James Post

Exhibits

For Petitioner:

P-1 April 9, 2024, Letter

P-2 April 17, 2024, Notarized Letter

P-3 Unit 1 Lease

P-4 Unit 2 Lease

P-5 Unit 3 Lease

P-6 Mailings/Time Stamp Documents

P-7 Lease Agreement, 46 First Street, Springfield

P-8 Addendum to Lease Agreement, 46 First Street, Springfield

P-9 Note, dated July 11, 2023

For Respondent:

R-1A (Not in Evidence)

R-1B February 12, 2024, Letter (Notice of Initial Determination of Ineligibility)

R-1C Student Information Sheet

R-1D Mortgage (Partial), 766 Second Street, Plainfield

R-1E Deed (Partial), 667 Third Street, Plainfield

R-1F Mortgage (Partial), 667 Third Street, Plainfield

R-1G March 8, 2024, Letter

R-1H Board Resolution

R-1I (Not in Evidence)

R-2 Residency Investigation, dated February 3, 2024

R-3 Residency Investigation, dated May 27, 2024

R-4 Marriage Settlement Agreement (Redacted, Pages 1-10)

R-4A Marriage Settlement Agreement (Pages 2, 3, and 4 of 10)

R-5 Certification of Michelle Calas, dated July 18, 2024

R-5A Supplemental Certification of Michelle Calas, dated August 13, 2024

362-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07830-24
Agency Dkt. No. 162-7/20

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

D.S., on behalf of minor child, M.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hamilton, Mercer County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, which was transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 and includes an advisement of petitioner's failure to appear at a scheduled conference on June 3, 2024, has been reviewed. Petitioner did not file an explanation for the failure to appear. Accordingly, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case before the Commissioner and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: October 8, 2024
Date of Mailing: October 9, 2024

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

363-24

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the Borough of Bound Brook, Somerset County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, Middlesex County, and A.S., on behalf of minor children, J.D.O. and A.D.O.,

Respondents.

Synopsis

Petitioning Board challenged a homelessness determination made by the Somerset County Executive Superintendent of Schools on November 26, 2021, regarding respondent parent, A.S. Bound Brook alleged that the respondent Board is responsible for the education costs of A.S.'s minor children J.D.O. and A.D.O., and that the children cannot continue to attend school in Piscataway at Bound Brooks's expense. The petitioner alleges that A.S. was never homeless; has had a permanent and fixed residence in Bound Brook; and that her children should be attending school within the Bound Brook school district. Piscataway contended that the children were and remain homeless such that Bound Brook is responsible for the cost of their education in Piscataway. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue and the matter is ripe for summary decision; in 2018, A.S. rented a room in a private home in Piscataway and established domicile there; thereafter, the children attended Piscataway schools as resident students; in October 2019 the family was forced to leave Piscataway suddenly after A.D.O. was physically abused by an unrelated adult in the home; A.S. then rented an unheated attic space in a shared house in Bound Brook where she and the children slept on a mattress on the floor; the children continued to attend school in Piscataway; the family lived in the attic until March 2021 when they moved in with A.S.'s mother, who had rented a three bedroom single family home in Bound Brook; A.S. and A.D.O. have continually lived with A.S.'s mother in Bound Brook since March 2021 (J.D.O. graduated from high school in 2021 and has since moved out). The ALJ concluded that A.S. and her children were homeless as of October 31, 2019 when they moved to a temporary, substandard living situation in Bound Brook out of necessity; A.S.'s move in March 2021 to a shared house with her mother became her fixed and regular residence as of March 2022; and, beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, the children should have been enrolled in the Bound Brook school district.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the factual findings of the ALJ, but rejected her conclusion regarding when the family established a fixed, permanent residence in Bound Brook and the time period for which Bound Brook was responsible for the children's tuition and transportation costs. Bound Brook was directed to assume financial responsibility for the children's education in Piscataway from November 1, 2020, to February 28 2021; and A.S. must immediately enroll A.D.O. in the Bound Brook school district.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

363-24
OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02006-22
Agency Dkt. No. 23-2/22

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the Borough of Bound Brook, Somerset County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway, Middlesex County, and A.S., on behalf of minor children, J.D.O. and A.D.O.,

Respondents.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner (Bound Brook) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and respondent Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway's (Piscataway) reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

Bound Brook challenges a homelessness and school district fiscal responsibility determination regarding J.D.O. and A.D.O., the children of respondent A.S., rendered by the Somerset County Executive County Superintendent (ECS) on November 26, 2021. The relevant facts are uncontested. In 2018, A.S. and her children moved to Piscataway. A.S. rented a room within a single-family home for $500 per month. The children attended school in Piscataway. On or about October 31, 2019, for A.D.O.'s protection, the family relocated suddenly after A.D.O. disclosed that she was physically abused by an unrelated adult in the home. A.S. began renting an attic in a home in Bound Brook for $500 per month. The attic lacked heat and internet access, and the family slept on a mattress for several months until a social worker provided them with two beds. A.S. fell behind on her rent payments. The children continued to attend school in Piscataway.

In March 2021, A.S.'s mother, who had been living alone in a single room in Bound Brook, leased a three-bedroom, one-bathroom, two-floor single-family home in Bound Brook for $1600 per month. Although only A.S.'s mother signed the lease, which ran from March 1, 2021, to February 28, 2022, A.S. and her children are listed as tenants on the lease. A.S. reported that they all moved into the new residence together. The home has heat, electricity, and running water. A.S. shares a bedroom and a queen-sized bed with A.D.O., while A.S.'s son had his own bedroom until he moved out of the home upon graduation from Piscataway High School in June 2021. A.S. gives her mother $400 per month toward the rent and pays $79 monthly for internet service.

While A.S. expressed that she would prefer to live in Piscataway, she acknowledges that rental rates exceed what she can afford, and she has not applied for housing there. Between 2018 and August 2022, she worked at various taverns and restaurants earning minimal income, and she lacked employment for several months in 2020 during the COVID-19 pandemic. In August 2022, she began working as a housekeeper at a senior living facility in Somerset earning $16 per hour. A.S. and A.D.O. have continuously resided in the Bound Brook home with A.S.'s mother, even after the initial lease expired.

Bound Brook sought a determination from the ECS regarding homelessness and school district fiscal responsibility for J.D.O. and A.D.O. Upon consideration of information then available about the family, the ECS determined that: (1) the family became homeless on October 31, 2019, and has continued to live in a "doubled-up" arrangement with a family member in Bound Brook; (2) Piscataway, the school district of origin, is responsible for the children's tuition and transportation costs for the period of October 31, 2019, to October 31, 2020 pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.4(c); (3) Bound Brook is responsible for the children's tuition and transportation costs for the period of October 31, 2020, to present, per N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d), as the family's temporary domicile is now in Bound Brook and the family remains homeless; and (4) A.D.O. may remain enrolled in the Piscataway School District pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.5 per A.S.'s wishes until such time as the family finds fixed, permanent housing in another school district.[1]

Bound Brook appealed the ECS's determination to the Commissioner of Education via the Office of Controversies and Disputes, which transmitted the matter to the OAL. Bound Brook and Piscataway filed cross-motions for summary decision. Bound Brook contended that A.S. is not and was never homeless as defined by law, and that when she moved to Bound Brook in 2019, the children were not entitled to continue attending school in Piscataway indefinitely and should have instead enrolled in Bound Brook schools. Bound Brook further contended that it is not financially responsible for transporting or educating the children in Piscataway. Piscataway contended that A.S. was and remains homeless and that Bound Brook has been and remains financially responsible for the children's education in Piscataway since October 31, 2020.

[1] Because J.D.O. graduated from Piscataway High School in June 2021, any financial responsibility for his tuition and transportation ended at that time.

The ALJ concluded that A.S. and the children were homeless as of October 31, 2019, when they moved to Bound Brook out of necessity, as the living conditions were substandard at best and the housing arrangement was clearly not a permanent situation. The ALJ reasoned that living in an attic, with less than adequate bedding and utilities, cannot be considered a fixed and permanent residence. Regarding the move in March 2021, the ALJ concluded that while A.S. may have intended for this living arrangement with her mother to be temporary until her finances improved, it became A.S.'s fixed, regular and adequate residence as of March 2022. The ALJ further concluded that, "[a]ccordingly, A.S. can be considered to have established a fixed residence at the New Hampshire Lane address no later than the end of the school year in June 2022 and should no longer be considered homeless." Initial Decision, at 14. The ALJ also concluded that, beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, the children should be enrolled in the Bound Brook school district.

Regarding the parties' financial responsibility for the children's education, the ALJ concluded that Bound Brook was responsible for tuition and transportation expenses for the children while they attended Piscataway schools "from October 2019 to June 2021 as they remained homeless without a fixed and permanent residence." Ibid. The ALJ further concluded that "Bound Brook BOE was responsible for the younger child's education in Piscataway schools from September 2021 until June 2022 (school year 2021-2022) when A.S.'s residence had become her fixed and permanent abode." Ibid. The ALJ reasoned that "[i]t seems appropriate to conclude that the residence had become permanent for A.S. by the end of the school term as she did not seek to relocate during the summer of 2022." Ibid., n. 9. Finally, the ALJ concluded that

"[e]ffective September 2022 . . . A.D.O. should have been enrolled in the Bound Brook school district and attended school in Bound Brook at Bound Brook's expense." Ibid.

In their exceptions, Bound Brook argues that the ALJ erred in finding that the family remained homeless for one year even after they moved in with A.S.'s mother in March 2021 until March 2022. They contend that N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d) should not have factored into the homelessness determination regarding the family's status in March 2021, and that the record supports the conclusion that the family had a fixed, regular and adequate residence beginning in March 2021 at the latest. As such, they request that the Initial Decision be modified to reflect that A.S. and her children ceased being homeless in March 2021, and that Bound Brook's financial responsibility for the children's tuition and transportation in Piscataway ended during the 2020-2021 school year.

In response, Piscataway argues that the ALJ correctly found that A.S. and her children remained homeless after March 2021, and at least through June 2022. They emphasize that the totality of the circumstances must be considered, including that A.S. moved in with her mother in March 2021 out of necessity, as she could not afford to move back to Piscataway, and that A.S. and her daughter share a bedroom and sleep in the same bed. They also note that A.S. was not a signatory to the lease and thus did not have a legally enforceable right to remain in the home. Moreover, they assert that A.S.'s contribution toward the rent and expenses is not dispositive.

Upon review, and as explained fully herein, the Commissioner adopts the ALJ's factual findings but rejects the ALJ's legal conclusions regarding: (1) when the family's homelessness status ended, i.e., when they established a fixed and permanent residence in Bound Brook; and

(2) the time period for which Bound Brook was financially responsible for the children's tuition and transportation costs.

Under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, homeless children are defined as "individuals who lack a fixed, regular and adequate nighttime residence," which includes "children and youths who are sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason." 42 U.S.C.A. § 11434a(2). Similarly, under state law, homeless children are defined as "child[ren] or youth who lack[] a fixed, regular and adequate residence pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12 and N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2," which includes children living in the "residence of relatives or friends where the homeless child resides out of necessity because the child's or youth's family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own." N.J.A.C. 6A:17-1.2, N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a)(3). "[D]omicile attaches immediately if a student's dwelling is found to be fixed, regular and adequate." Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Egg Harbor v. Bd. of Educ. of Mainland Reg'l Sch. Dist., Commissioner Decision No. 555-10 (Dec. 30, 2010), at 4 (citing N.J.S.A. 18A:17B-12(c)).

The Commissioner has previously held that homelessness "is best viewed in a continuum." St.-Op. Sch. Dist. of Camden v. C. Ann Volk, Commissioner Decision No. 172-17R (June 20, 2017), at 11. Conducting a homelessness evaluation to determine whether a child's home is considered fixed, regular and adequate requires a fact-specific analysis and "cannot rest upon a simple calculation of the amount of time that children have spent in a particular location or municipality." M. O'K. v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Cresskill, Commissioner Decision No. 325-14 at 3 (August 12, 2014), aff'd, No. A-0828-14T4 (App. Div. Sept. 8, 2016). In conducting such a fact-specific inquiry, the Commissioner must consider the totality of the circumstances, as "[t]he reasons for the children's homelessness, their living conditions, and the resources and intentions of the parents or custodians are relevant." Ibid.

The Commissioner agrees with Bound Brook that the ALJ erred when she concluded that the New Hampshire Lane home did not become A.S.'s fixed, adequate and permanent residence until at least March 2022, or the end of the school year in June 2022 at the latest. "[W]hile a homeless child may be deemed domiciled in a district after residing in that school district temporarily for one year or longer, the family may establish domicile prior to one year. As such, the 'one year rule' [expressed in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d)] will only deem a homeless child to be domiciled within a school district if he or she has not already established a domicile." Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Wood-Ridge v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Bogota, Commissioner Decision No. 290-20 (Dec. 21, 2020), at 12-13.

Here, A.S. and her children were no longer homeless as of March 1, 2021, when they moved to New Hampshire Lane—a fixed, regular, and adequate residence—with A.S.'s mother. Thus, the family was domiciled in Bound Brook as of March 1, 2021, and the children should have been attending school in Bound Brook. Egg Harbor, at 4. A.S. testified at her deposition that she went with her mother to lease the three-bedroom residence at New Hampshire Lane, and she and the children moved in at the same time her mother did. A.S. and her children are listed as tenants on the lease. The record reflects that A.S. and her mother intended to live together with A.S.'s children as a family unit. Moreover, there is no indication that the residence is inadequate; the fact that A.S. and A.D.O. share a queen-sized bed in their bedroom does not make it so. The three-bedroom home has heat, electricity, running water, and A.S. and A.D.O. have access to the kitchen, bathroom, and living areas. A.S. regularly contributes to the rent and internet expenses monthly.

The Commissioner does not find Piscataway's exceptions to be persuasive. The fact that A.S. was falling behind on her rent payments for the attic space does not require the Commissioner to conclude that she moved in with her mother out of necessity. Nothing in the record establishes that the attic space landlord evicted A.S. and her children. Furthermore, the fact that A.S. did not sign the lease for the New Hampshire Lane home and is not directly financially responsible for rent payments to the landlord does not require the Commissioner to conclude that A.S. and the children remain homeless. A.S. and A.D.O. have remained in the New Hampshire Lane home since March 2021 without interruption. They have resided there for an extended period, without any imminent or foreseeable risk of losing their place in the home, and they share the home with A.S.'s mother as a cohesive family unit. Even after A.S. obtained steady employment in August 2022 earning $16 per hour, she and A.D.O. continued living at New Hampshire Lane. While A.S. would prefer to move back to Piscataway, she has not applied for housing there. A.S.'s "intention is insufficient to support a finding of homelessness" when considered in light of the totality of the circumstances. Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of Pennsauken v. Pugh-Bassett, Commissioner Decision No. 122-22 (June 16, 2022), at 7.

Once it is determined whether a child is homeless, the question becomes which district is financially responsible for the child's education. Ordinarily, a student is eligible for a free public education in a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a). A student's domicile is determined by the domicile of his or her parents. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1). When a child becomes homeless, the school district of residence – i.e., the school district in which the child resided before becoming homeless – remains responsible for the cost of the child's education, including when the child is temporarily living and attending school in another school district. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3; N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12. However, when a homeless child lives in a school district for one year or longer – and a new domicile has not been established – the child is "deemed domiciled" in that district for the purposes of determining which district is responsible for the cost of the child's education. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d); N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(c).

The Commissioner's assessment of financial responsibility in this case differs from that of the ALJ. Piscataway was the financially responsible party from October 31, 2019—when the family became homeless—to October 31, 2020, because Piscataway remained the school district of residence at that time per N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(c), as it was the district in which the family last resided prior to becoming homeless. See N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(c) ("Financial responsibility will remain with the homeless child's school district of residence until the family is deemed domiciled in another jurisdiction, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d)."). Although the ALJ erroneously found that Bound Brook was the financially responsible party from October 31, 2019 to October 31, 2020, Piscataway conceded in its summary decision motion that it was the financially responsible party for the children's tuition and transportation during this time period.

In any event, as of November 1, 2020, the family had resided temporarily in Bound Brook for a period of one year and, although they remained homeless, they shall be "deemed domiciled" within the Bound Brook district pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(d) for purposes of allocating financial responsibility for their education. The children were still entitled to attend school in Piscataway because of the family's homeless status under N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(a), as Piscataway remained the school district of residence responsible for their education. However, financial responsibility for the children's tuition and transportation in Piscataway shifted to Bound Brook beginning on November 1, 2021, and ending on February 28, 2021. Thus, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ that Bound Brook was the financially responsible party for the children's education in Piscataway during this time period.

However, on March 1, 2021, the family moved into a fixed, regular, and adequate residence in Bound Brook and were no longer homeless. Since "domicile attaches immediately if a student's dwelling is found to be fixed, regular and adequate," Egg Harbor, at 4, the children were now eligible for a free public education in the Bound Brook school district pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a) and should have enrolled in the Bound Brook schools at that time. Nevertheless, they continued to attend school in Piscataway despite the fact that they were no longer eligible to do so based upon A.S.'s established domicile in Bound Brook. Consequently, the Commissioner holds that Bound Brook cannot be held financially responsible for payment of the children's out-of-district tuition and transportation expenses to Piscataway from March 1, 2021, forward because the family was no longer homeless and had established domicile in Bound Brook. For these reasons, the Commissioner rejects the ALJ's determination that Bound Book remained financially responsible for the children's education in Piscataway until the school year ended in June 2022.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted in part and rejected in part. Piscataway's motion for summary decision is denied. Bound Brook's motion for summary decision is granted. Bound Brook is directed to assume financial responsibility for the children's education in Piscataway from November 1, 2020, to February 28, 2021. A.S. was no longer homeless as of

March 1, 2021. If she has not already, A.S. must immediately enroll A.D.O. in the Bound Brook school district.[2]

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

ACTING COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: October 8, 2024
Date of Mailing: October 9, 2024

[2] An ECS's determination that a child is homeless can be reasonable in light of the evidence available at the time; however, such determination can be overturned based on evidence received during the course of the OAL proceedings. See Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Hawthorne v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Prospect Park, Commissioner Decision No. 196-14 (May 12, 2014). Here, the Commissioner finds that the ECS's determination that A.S. was homeless was reasonable based on the information available at the time, but that decision must nonetheless be overturned based on the evidence presented at the hearing.

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
MOTION FOR SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02006-22
AGENCY DKT. NO. 23-2/22

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF BOUND BROOK, SOMERSET COUNTY, Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PISCATAWAY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, AND A.S. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, J.D.O. AND A.D.O.,
Respondents.

Kyle J. Trent, Esq., appearing for petitioner (Apruzzese, McDermott, Mastro & Murphy, PC, attorneys)

David B. Rubin, Esq., appearing for respondent, Piscataway Board of Education

A.S., on behalf of J.D.O and A.D.O., respondents, pro se[1]

[1] A.S. is the mother of the minor children J.D.O. and A.D.O.

Record Closed: May 31, 2024 Decided: July 15, 2024

BEFORE SUSAN M. SCAROLA, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Board of Education of the Borough of Bound Brook (Bound Brook BOE), challenges the homelessness determination made by the Somerset County Executive Superintendent of Schools (Executive Superintendent) on November 26, 2021, regarding respondent parent, A.S., and alleges that it is the respondent Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway (Piscataway BOE) which is responsible for the education costs of the minor children J.D.O. and A.D.O., and that the children cannot continue to attend school in Piscataway at Bound Brook BOE's expense.[2] The petitioner alleges that A.S. was never homeless, and has had a permanent and fixed abode in Bound Brook and that her children should attend school within its district.[3]

Piscataway BOE contends that the children were and remain homeless such that Bound Brook BOE is responsible for the cost of their education in Piscataway.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

By letter dated November 26, 2021, the Somerset County Executive Superintendent of Schools rendered a determination regarding the residence status of A.S. and assessing fiscal responsibility to Bound Brook BOE for the education of J.D.O. and A.D.O. in Piscataway. An appeal was timely filed and on March 16, 2022, and the contested matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

---

[2] J.D.O. graduated from Piscataway High School in June 2021 and is no longer being educated in Piscataway. A.D.O. is in the eighth grade and continues to attend school in Piscataway.

[3] The Executive Superintendent concluded that: A.S. has been homeless since October 31, 2019, and remains homeless because her residence is not fixed and permanent; Bound Brook is financially responsible for the education of both children for the period since October 31, 2020; and A.D.O. may continue to attend school in the Piscataway School District until the family finds fixed and permanent housing.

On April 3, 2023, an Order was entered compelling the deposition of A.S. because the parties were unable to complete discovery without information that could only be obtained from A.S., who had provided some, but not all, of the requested information regarding her residential status.

On September 28, 2023, Bound Brook BOE filed a motion for summary decision contending that "A.S. is not and was never homeless as defined by the law, and that when she moved to Bound Brook in 2019, the children were not entitled to continue attending school in Piscataway indefinitely and should have instead enrolled in Bound Brook schools."

On October 7, 2023, the respondent Piscataway BOE filed a cross-motion for summary decision seeking "to affirm the Commissioner's determination that Bound Brook has been and remains financially responsible for the students' education in Piscataway since October 31, 2020, and [to dismiss] Bound Brook's appeal."

A response to Piscataway BOE's cross-motion was received from Bound Brook BOE on October 23, 2023 and a reply was received from Piscataway BOE on November 3, 2023. A response to Bound Brook BOE's motion for summary decision was received from Piscataway BOE on October 24, 2023; a reply was received from Bound Brook BOE on November 17, 2023. A.S. filed exhibits on November 30, 2023. A telephone conference was held on February 28, 2024, and the record remained open for any additional information until May 31, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Statement of Undisputed Material Facts[4]:

[4] This statement of undisputed facts is taken from the petitioner's and respondents' briefs and the testimony of A.S. provided at the deposition. The facts are noted for the years in dispute.

2018

1. In 2018, A.S. moved to Piscataway with her son, J.D.O, nineteen years old, and daughter A.D.O., twelve years old.[5] (T:10-11) Her domicile was established there.
2. At that time, A.S. paid $500 per month to live with her two children in one room of a single-family home in Piscataway while also having access to a shared kitchen.
3. While residing in Piscataway, J.D.O. and A.D.O. were enrolled in the Piscataway School District. (T:12)

October 2019

4. In December 2018, while living in Piscataway, A.S. found work as a bartender at The Imperial, a tavern in Bound Brook. (T:15)
5. She earned $6/hour plus tips, making approximately $500/week—sometimes more, sometimes less. (T:16-17).
6. On or about October 31, 2019, A.S. was forced to leave her Piscataway home and relocate to Bound Brook after her daughter was victimized in a serious incident. (T:57-58)
7. After leaving Piscataway, A.S. and her children moved to and lived in the attic of a seven-bedroom, two-bathroom residence at XX West Maple Avenue, Bound Brook, for which she paid $500/month.[6] (T:46-47)
8. A.S. explained to Piscataway school officials that the "emergency" compelled her to leave Piscataway for Bound Brook, and her children were permitted to remain enrolled in Piscataway under the circumstances. (T:56)
9. The attic was "triangular" and "long," and A.S.'s son would "always" bump his head. (T:48)
10. At first, they had no beds and slept on a mattress until several months later when a social worker and the police gave them two beds for the three of them to use. (T:57-58)
11. The attic had electricity but no heat or internet access. (T:50)

[5] The ages are those provided by A.S. at the time of the deposition taken on June 14, 2023.
[6] The exact address is not indicated to protect A.S.'s privacy.

12. After the COVID-19 pandemic shutdown in March 2020, A.S. was no longer able to work at The Imperial, and could not find employment elsewhere because "we couldn't go out." As she testified, "the school in Piscataway would help me a bit with food, my children, ...". I did not have work. We didn't have anything to eat practically. There were many difficult months." (T:18)
13. To survive, A.S. and some friends made and sold empanadas "but it wasn't enough. I couldn't pay rent. I owed a lot of money on rent. The lady was putting me out the home because I wasn't paying rent." (T:18)
14. A.S. received no government assistance during that time. "I applied but I never received a response. Mostly for food." (T:21-22) She also did not apply for unemployment compensation because "I didn't have any social. I didn't have a work permit. I couldn't apply. There wasn't anything." (T:22)
15. Starting in November 2020, A.S. worked at a restaurant in Plainfield for approximately six months.

March 2021

