FOR RESPONDENT

Lateefah Henderson, pro se

BEFORE: Earl R. Pfeffer, Arbitrator

BACKGROUND

In Notice of Tenure Charges of Conduct Unbecoming and Other Just Cause ("Charges"), sworn on July 29, 2022, Roger León, Superintendent of the Board of Education of the City of Newark ("Petitioner" or "the Board"), made allegations against Respondent, Lateefah Henderson, of absenteeism, unbecoming conduct and other just cause upon which the Board requested Respondent's suspension and dismissal, and Respondent was served with same on August 1, 2022. On August 26, 2022, without a response to the Charges having been submitted, Board President Dawn Haynes certified that the Board, at a meeting held on August 25, 2022, considered the Charges and supporting statement of evidence, and determined that probable cause exists to credit the evidence submitted in support of the Charges and that same is sufficient to warrant dismissal or reduction in salary, and directed that the Charges and the Board's Determination be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education.

The Charges thereafter were submitted to the Commissioner of Education on August 29, 2022, and on that same date were again served upon Respondent, as well as her Attorneys. The Board suspended Respondent effective August 30, 2022, for 120 days under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14. Respondent's Answer thereafter, on September 9, 2022, was submitted to the Acting Commissioner through the Department's Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, and on September 12, 2022, the Acting Commissioner found the Charges were sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in salary, subject to determination by an arbitrator of Respondent's defenses and any motions, and same were referred to me for a hearing and decision.

Respondent, in her answer, disputes the Charges, alleging that the allegations of conduct unbecoming or other just cause for her termination are false, unsupported and exaggerated, as well as distortions of the truth, and fail to state of cause of action for which relief may be granted. She further alleges that the District failed to comply with its governing policies and procedures with respect to her work assignments and leave of absence requests. Respondent demands an Order dismissing the Charges in their entirety, reinstating her to active employment and repaying her for all monies lost during the period of her suspension and all other emoluments of employment.

On September 27, 2022, the Prudential Insurance Company, Disability Management Services, completed its review of Respondent's claim for Long Term disability (LTD) benefits and approved her claim effective July 18, 2022. By email to the Board on January 6, 2023, Respondent demanded she be restored to pay status on the 121st day of her suspension, pursuant to New Jersey Rev. Statutes Section 18A:6-14. The Board Responded through its Assistant Superintendent advising Respondent that based upon her inability to work due to her disability, she was not able to be returned to work and, as she had no available sick leave, she would continue to be in unpaid status. She was further advised that upon her submission of medical documentation of her fitness for duty she would be required to report to work pending the outcome of these proceedings.

By letter dated January 19, 2023, Prudential advised the Board that Respondent's LTD claim had been approved beyond the initial 12 months, and that her benefits would continue as long as she met the definition of disability.[1] The Board asserts Respondent's LTD benefits have been awarded at least until July 2024. Respondent has not disputed that assertion, or presented evidence she has submitted to the Board medical documentation of her fitness for duty. In short, according to the record, Respondent remains in no pay status with no expected date on which she will be fit for duty.

Prior to the commencement of hearings, in correspondence

[1] In an email dated January 6, 2023, Assistant Superintendent Yolanda Méndez informed Respondent of the Board's receipt of notice of her application to the State Treasurer of New Jersey for long-term disability benefits demonstrating an inability to work. She was advised her suspension without pay, accordingly, will continue, and instructed, "[i]f and when you are able to return to duty, please submit medical documentation of your fitness for duty, and you will be required to report to work pending the outcome of the tenure charges." Respondent Exhibit 13. There is no record evidence Respondent has submitted medical documentation of her fitness for duty, or otherwise is able to work as a teacher.

dated January 8, 2023, Respondent's counsel advised me that he no longer represented her and that I therefore should communicate with her directly. A previously scheduled Pre-Hearing Conference was convened via Zoom on January 9, 2023, and hearings were scheduled for March 13, 2023, and March 14, 2023. I advised Respondent I would consider a postponement of the hearings if she advised me she was retaining new counsel or was medically incapable of participating in such proceedings. Thereafter, the March 13 and March 14, 2023, hearings were held via Zoom, as was a third hearing on May 23, 2023. In the course of the proceedings the parties each were afforded full opportunity to present evidence and argument in support of their respective positions. Respondent submitted hundreds of pages of documents, which were entered into the hearing record. At the close of the May 23, 2023, hearing, the parties each were afforded opportunity to submit post-hearing briefs by June 23, 2023, and did so. The hearing record closed on July 14, 2023.

The Charges essentially track correspondence to Respondent from the Board regarding her attendance and leave history, including of recitation of the periods of leave granted to her under the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA), 29 U.S.C. §2601 et seq., since May 2021, as well as the Board's denials of her requests for additional leave after her entitlement to FMLA leave had run out. Para. 2 of the Charges references an "Approval Notice" emailed to Respondent by the Board's Human Resources (HR) Office on May 5, 2021, notifying her that her request for FMLA leave for two (2) weeks and two (2) days from April 22, 2021, through May 7, 2021, had been granted, using her available sick days. Board Exhibit A.[2] The notice instructed her she must timely submit a request for an extension of leave with updated medical documentation, if she needed to remain on leave after May 7, 2021, and otherwise she must report to her work location by May 10, 2021, to avoid AWOL charges.

Respondent did, in fact, request an extension of her FMLA, and as alleged in para. 3 of the Charges she was granted additional FMLA leave from May 7, 2021, through June 25, 2021. As recited in a May 14, 2021, email notice from HR, said additional period of leave was designated as seven (7) weeks and one (1) day of FMLA leave. Board Exh. B. The notice advised Respondent she was scheduled to return to work on August 31, 2021 at her work location. She was cautioned that if she failed to report as directed, she might be subject to AWOL charges.

Thereafter, Respondent did report to her work location at the Cleveland Elementary School at the start of the 2021-2022 school year. Respondent Exh. 5. Cleveland's Principal, Yakima

[2] Under the FMLA, 29 U.S.C. §2612(a)(1)(D), an eligible employee is entitled to a total of 12 workweeks of leave during any 12-month period "because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the position of such employee."

Jackson, assigned her to an 8th Grade special education class.[3] Id. At some point during the first month of the school year, Respondent complained that the 8th grade assignment was outside her training. Jackson thereupon checked Respondent's certification, and upon learning Respondent was certified to teach K-6, she transferred Respondent, as a substitute teacher, to a 4th Grade Special Education classroom effective October 12, 2021.[4] Board records indicate that Respondent possessed three (3) standard Certificates during the relevant period under which she was licensed as (1) a Teacher of Students with Disabilities (Standard), (2) an Elementary School Teacher in Grades K-6 (Standard) and (3) a Teacher of Culinary Arts (Standard), all as of 2012. Respondent Exh. 11.

Starting in approximately late October 2021, Respondent sent multiple emails to various persons complaining that she did not possess the training or experience to teach elementary school students. She contends she is qualified "as a Culinary Arts Teacher, Inclusion Teacher and a resource teacher" where lesson plans are provided to her. Respondent Exh. 15. She complained to Jackson and to the Union that being required to teach outside her training and experience was "causing great stress." Id. She asserted that her assignment to her 4th grade class and the teaching demands placed on her constituted "harassment, intimidation and bullying." Id. She stated, "I plan on filing a complaint." Id. In a December 8, 2021, email to Jackson, the Newark Teachers Union and Superintendent León, Respondent wrote:

[3]Jackson's surname at the time was Johnson. Because of her name change, some of the record documents refer to her as Ms. Johnson. To avoid confusion, I refer to her in this Decision as Ms. Jackson.

[4]Respondent submitted documentation, Respondent Exh. 11, indicating that in 2018 she taught a tenth grade language arts/literacy class at Malcolm X Shabazz High School under supervision of Ms. Jackson. In the Formal Observation Report, Jackson determined that Respondent's teaching was "effective." On this record, I do not conclude Jackson's incorrect belief Respondent was licensed to teach an 8th grade class was anything other than a short-lived mistake, which Jackson promptly corrected, rather than a connivance to harass, as Respondent contends. See Respondent Exh. 3; See also Respondent Opening Statement, ¶1.

> I am trying my best to assist the 4th grade LDS classroom. I sent an email in September stating that my training is in career and technical education as a Culinary Arts Teacher. I attended the career and technical education alternate route program. I also received training in Teacher of Students with Disabilities. I took and passed the NJ K-5 praxis exam but I do not have any educational experience nor background training in teaching elementary school students. This new position is causing great stress to me and I live in fear and anxiety of Ms. [Jackson] and her actions. I have reached out to Newark Board of Education Affirmative Actions department concerning Ms. [Jackson's] harassment, intimidation and bullying this year and last year, yet still it continues.

Respondent Exh. 15. Subsequently, she was absent from School on "occasional absences" on December 10 and December 19, 2021, and thereafter from January 19 through January 26, 2022. In connection with prior multiple instances of "occasional absences," Respondent received a disciplinary letter on January

26, 2022. Board Exh. D.[5]

The next day, Respondent was approved for FMLA leave without pay for the period January 27, 2022, through February 14, 2022. In an approval letter sent via email on February 10, 2022, HR Representative Cenobina Patterson advised Respondent her total approved leave of absence "is for two (2) weeks and two (2) days with a scheduled date to return to work on February 15, 2022." Board Exh. E.[6] Patterson's February 10, 2022, email advised Respondent, "[u]pon the employee['s] return, please send an email to confirm so our office can update accordingly. . . All employees returning to work from an FMLA . . . leave of absence, MUST obtain clearance from their physicians indicating diagnosis, and clearance date you expect to return prior to your return to work date. . . . You MUST attach the medical clearance documentation in order to be reinstated." Board Exh. E (emph. in orig.).

As alleged in para. 8 of the Charges, Respondent, on or

[5]Documents referenced in para. 5 and para. 6 of the Charges, memorialize counseling and discipline in connection with Respondent's "occasional absences" on 9/8/2021, 9/16/2021, 9/30/2021, 10/1/2021, 10/14/2021, 10/15/2021, 10/22/2021, 11/17/2021 and 12/02/2021. See Board Exh. C (10/18/2021 notice of 10/20/2021 AIP conference "to discuss your absenteeism and the state standard) and Board Exh. D (1/26/2022 warning letter that "continued absenteeism will result in more harsh disciplinary action being taken against you.") about February 10, 2022, asked for an extension of her FMLA leave until March 15, 2022, which was denied on February 10, 2022, because she had "exhausted" her leave time. Board Exh. F. She was instructed by Patterson, "to maintain your status as an employee you must report back to work on Tuesday, February 15, 2022." Id. (emph. in orig.). She did not return to work on February 15, 2022, as alleged in para. 9 of the Charges.

Nor did she return thereafter, instead requesting, effective February 15, 2022, a "leave of absence without pay," from February 15, 2022 through April 30, 2022, for "medical" reasons. Board Exh. G, Respondent Exh. 14. Respondent asserts she submitted medical documentation in support of her request for the "medical leave" extension. Respondent Exh. 14.

Patterson forwarded Respondent's unpaid medical leave request to Jackson and other Board personnel, including Assistant Superintendent for the East Central Ward, Dr. Shakirah Harrington, on February 16, 2022, with a request to "advise our offices if you approve or deny the personal leave request." Board Exh. H. Jackson responded, "[t]his request is denied due

Under the Board's Leave of Absence Policy, Respondent Exh. 13, "[t]he Board of Education understands that there will be times when an employee will need to take time off from employment. The district further recognizes that in such circumstances, it may be in the best interest of the district and the employee that a leave of absence be considered. Therefore, it is the policy of the district to provide the opportunity to take a leave of absence without regard to the employee's race, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, to the hardship that the teacher's absence will have on our students' learning." Assistant Superintendent Harrington responded, "I am in agreement with that denial." Jackson's and Harrington's respective denials were forwarded to Respondent by email dated February 17, 2022. Board Exh. H.

In response to Respondent's query why her personal leave request was denied, Patterson sent her copies of Jackson's and Dr. Harrington's hardship determinations, and explained to her that "personal leave is only approved if the principal and Assistant Superintendent approved the leave. As you can see below, the leave was denied due to a hardship it will cause the school." Id.; See fn. 7, supra.

At this juncture, the Union interceded. Eugene Liss, General Counsel for the Newark Teachers Union (the "Union") on February 23, 2022, submitted on Respondent's behalf a "Reconsideration Request for Denied Illness Leave" to Patterson, with copies to Scott Carbone, Esq., Director of Labor Relations and Superintendent León. Liss noted the Union's awareness Respondent's leave extension had been "denied due to the hardship marital status, gender identity, religion, liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait. . . . The district will provide leaves of absence based on valid reasons. Where applicable, and in accordance with the law, the district reserves the right to . . . deny the request for leave if the district finds that the employee's absence will cause harm to the educational program and/or operation of the district." (emph. supp.)

that her absence will have on the students' instructional learning per the District of Newark," and requested that the denial "be reconsidered and granted until April 30, 2022, as outlined in the updated report of Joseph LaBelle, MA, LAC, NBCC attached hereto." LaBelle, a psychotherapist at the Montclair Personal Development Center, submitted on Respondent's behalf two letters, on February 14, 2022, and February 23, 2022, which stated "[t]he clinical severity of [Respondent's] diagnoses hinder[s her] from: planning, preparing, and delivering lesson plans, interactions, and instruction in ways that facilitate active learning as well as care to students under her management. . . . [She is] clinically unable to perform her professional [duties]." Respondent Exh. 21.[3]

The hearing record does not indicate whether the Board directly responded to Liss or LaBelle. In any case, Respondent did not return to work from her FMLA leave that expired on February 14, 2022. Jackson, noting the "serious matter" of Respondent's "substantial number of occasional absences" from September 8, 2021, through February 23, 2022, as well as the counseling she received on October 21, 2021, and the warning letter issued on January 26, 2022, sent Respondent a February 24, [3]Respondent redacted a substantial portion of the record copies of LaBelle's letters. Respondent Exh. 21. Her diagnoses are not part of the hearing record, although the symptoms have been described.

2022, notice of her Request for Disciplinary Action, in which she recited the Board's reservation of its right "to take action against you as a result of your absenteeism," including tenure charges, disciplinary action, loss of increment and separation of employment.[9] Board Exh. I. Jackson advised Respondent she was forwarding that notice to Labor Relations for disciplinary action, with a copy to the Union. Id.

The Board subsequently, on April 1, 2022, sent Respondent via certified mail, a notice of Unauthorized Leave of Absence. The April 1, 2022, Notice restated that Respondent's FMLA leave had been exhausted as of February 14, 2022, and noted that she twice had applied for and been denied unpaid leaves of absence following her FMLA leave.

The Notice erroneously asserted that Respondent's absences since January 12, 2022, had been recorded as AWOL,[10] and directed Respondent she "must return to work by or before April 11, 2022 with documentation covering the unauthorized dates of absence." Board Exh. J (emph. in orig.). A letter to Respondent from Jackson dated April 5, 2022, indicated the correct dates of her

[9] As noted, Respondent did not report back to work following the denial of her request for unpaid medical leave effective February 15, 2022, and had been absent from February 15, 2022, through February 23, 2022, when Jackson sent the February 24, 2022, Request for Disciplinary Action. unauthorized absences, which totaled fifty (50) from September 8, 2021, through March 30, 2022. Board Exh. K. Jackson reiterated the previous caution to Respondent that "continued absenteeism will result in a Request for major disciplinary action." Id.[11]

Respondent, in an April 5, 2022, email to the Board's Employee Relations Officer, Jacqueline Chavis, objected to the April 1, 2022, Notice of Unauthorized Leave (Board Exh. J) and the April 5, 2022, warning from Jackson of excessive absenteeism (Board Exh. K). She stated to Chavis:

> Good Day,
> This mental harassment and retaliation is causing me additional emotional distress, pain and suffering.

Respondent Exh. 2. Respondent copied Superintendent León, Jackson, Union Representative Michael Maillaro, Dr. Harrington, Dr. Mendez, and Scott Carbone, Esq., Director of the Board's Office of Labor and Employee Relations, among others. According to Jackson, Respondent did not file a grievance or otherwise provide particulars for her claim of discrimination beyond the apparent assertion that the April 1, 2022, attendance notice and the April 5, 2022, warning letter, with their cautions that [11] In addition to the 25 Absence Occurrences Jackson had listed in her February 24, 2022, Request for Disciplinary Action, Board Exh. I, she noted the following additional 25 Occurrences: 2/24/22, 2/25/22, 2/28/22, 3/1/22, 3/2/22, 3/3/22, 3/4/22, 3/7/22, 3/8/22, 3/9/22, 310/22, 3/11/22, 3/14/22, 3/15/22, 3/16/22, 3/17/22, 3/18/22, 3/21/22, 3/22/22, 3/23/22, 3/24/22, 3/25/22, 3/28/22, 3/29/22 and 3/30/22.

Respondent must return to work or face discipline, alone constituted harassment and retaliation.

Carbone thereafter, on April 11, 2022, offered Respondent a last chance "opportunity to return to work" by April 25, 2022, which referenced her continued absenteeism since February 15, 2022, despite written instructions to return to work that were sent on February 10 2022, and which noted her failure to return by April 11, 2022, despite a clear directive given on April 1, 2022. Board Exh. L. Carbone's April 11, 2022, last-chance notice stated,

> The purpose of this letter is to give you one last opportunity to return to work. You must return to work. You must return to work by April 25, 2022 with documentation covering the unauthorized dates of absence. Failure to return to work will result in disciplinary action being taken against you up to and including termination.

Id., Respondent Exh. 16 (emph. in orig.).

Respondent replied to the April 11, 2022, last-chance letter in an April 12, 2022, email stating, "[p]lease assist me with this matter. I look forward to hearing from you." Respondent Exh. 3. Attached to the email was a 2½ page, single spaced document entitled "Harassment 4.docx." The email and the "Harassment letter" were sent to Chavis, Supt. León, Newark Mayor Baraka, Jackson, Dr. Harrington, Maillaro and Carbone, among others. Id.

The Harassment letter recites many of the contentions

Respondent makes in this proceeding, some of which I highlight: She stated, "I am being bullied, intimidated, harassed and forced into completing 'teacher responsibilities' as stated by Ms. Yakima [Jackson] in which I have no formal teaching instruction or educational training. This harassment has caused me health and anxiety issues." She asserted, "[m]y training is in Teacher of Culinary Arts," and "I have served NPS as a high school Culinary Arts Teacher and Special Education Resource English Teacher." Respondent Exh. 3.

Respondent, in addition, noted her loss in October 2020 of a close family member who also was her 9th grade student, and she stated that her physician advised her at the end of the 2020-2021 school year to take FMLA leave. She complained that during that leave Ms. Jackson and Ms. Lawson, another school administrator, "would contact me concerning teacher responsibilities." She asserted, "I was harassed and bullied by Ms. [Jackson} and Ms. Lawson." She added that she contacted the Board about that matter. Respondent Exh. 3.

The "Harassment" letter further states that Respondent was assigned at the start of the 2021-2022 school year to report to Cleveland Elementary School, where she was told to report to the 8th grade "LCS Special Education classroom," despite not having "any formal teaching instruction or training in teaching elementary school students." According to Respondent, the equipment in the classroom did not work, and essential materials and resources "were not readily available." Respondent Exh. 3.[12] There is no record evidence Respondent filed a grievance in connection with the claims stated in the Harassment Letter.

Moreover, Respondent did not thereafter return to work, although Maillaro had advised her by email on April 5, 2022, "[t]he law only obligates the district to give the 12 weeks of FMLA per year. There is nothing in the [Americans with Disabilities Act] that contradicts that. As I told you before, you need to work with our Employee Assistance Program. Keeping your protections under Chapter 69 would be the most viable option here." Respondent Exh. 16.[13]

Respondent enlisted the support of additional persons who, on her behalf, emphasized to the Board that she was in treatment.

[12]In fact, at the time, Respondent had three (3) certificates: Teacher of Students with Disabilities, Teacher of Culinary Arts, and Elementary School teacher in Grades K-6. Jackson testified she was not aware at the time that Respondent's license did not include 8th grade students. Thus, as acknowledged in Respondent's Harassment letter, Jackson by early October 2021 promptly corrected Respondent's misassignment, first by placing her in 4th and 5th grade special education classrooms as a substitute teacher, starting October 11, 2021, and on October 22, 2021, by naming her the teacher of record for a 4th grade special education class. See Respondent Exh. 3.

[13]Under L.2011, c. 69, a May 9, 2011, amendment to the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act, N.J.A.C. §34:13A-40 et.seq. ("Chapter 69"), the state created certain protections for employees of New Jersey public employers in connection with said employees' receipt of various forms of assistance, including advice and counseling, from their employer's "employee assistance program."

On April 6, 2022, Terry Livorsi a Certified Employee Assistance Professional with Union Workforce Initiative, wrote to the Board's Executive Director of Health Services, Dr. Margaret Leuze, that Respondent "submitted herself to the Newark Education Association EAP on 3/2/22 "in an effort to determine and access the appropriate behavioral health medical treatment." Respondent Exhs. 13 and 14. Livorsi asserted "Chapter 69 PL 2011 protects Ms. Henderson from any further disciplinary actions until a behavior health medical program and appropriate protocols are established for her. It is our shared goal for Ms. Henderson to return to work in a restored capacity." Id. Livorsi stated, "Ms. Henderson fully understands the gravity of the situation and is seeking help in the appropriate fashion," and added, "we estimate that she will be able to return to work as successful contributor to her position within 45-60 days." Id.[14]

On or about April 6, 2022, Tash Duplain, MA, AC, NCC, and Salman Abouzied, respectively a Counselor and a Psychiatric Nurse at The Counseling Center at Clark, New Jersey, wrote Leuze "to inform [her] that Ms. Lateefah Henderson was admitted to our program for a behavioral health medical condition on March 30th, 2022. Ms. Henderson's estimated length of attendance in our program is a minimum of 30 days, which will be re-evaluated on

April 29th, 2022." Respondent Exhs. 13, 16.

Respondent thereafter remained in treatment with LaBelle, Respondent Exh. 12, and continued receiving services from the Counseling Center.[13] Liss remained in contact with her and met with her as late as July 19, 2023. Respondent Exh. 16. Also on July 19, 2022, Maillaro wrote to Carbone:

> Since last September, we have been trying to help a teacher named Lateefah Henderson. Long story short, she was hired into the district via alternate route from her previous life running her own restaurant. She's a culinary arts teacher and has seniority over at least three staff still in that position. Last year, the district moved her into a spot that was an awful fit for her, and she never had any real support from her administrator. She was certified as an elementary teacher because she took the Praxis but had no experience or training as an elementary teacher. The [13] Respondent submitted into evidence, Respondent Exh. 13, an August 10, 2022, follow-up letter from the Counseling Center, this time from Counselor Adil Yurekli, LSW, and Medical Director Gregory Bundt, stating that Respondent, following her March 30, 2022, admission to its "program for a behavioral health medical condition," was re-evaluated on April 28, May 26, July 13 and August 4, 2022, and "[i]t has been determined that Ms. Henderson is recommended to remain in the program and will be re-assessed in 30 days." The Counseling Center subsequently discharged Respondent from its program, effective September 28, 2022. Id. According to the Counseling Center,

> At this time Lateefah is no longer using group and/or services therapeutically. She has reported that she felt as though she is not getting any help from the facility and feeling as though nothing was getting resolved.

Id. (emph. supp.) She was recommended to transition to individual services with LaBelle. Id.

whole situation was awful and resulted in bad evaluations, a withholding of increment, and students not receiving the service they needed because she was forced into a situation that was not the right fit for anyone. She ended up relinquishing her elementary certification to the state in the last week or so.

The district still seems to have opening in culinary arts posted on the district website, and she has seniority over other culinary arts teachers. She has been in the district since 2011 doing culinary arts and later resource and inclusion for special ed students. Isn't there anything that can be done to help make her situation better?

Respondent Exh. 16.

On July 29, 2022, the instant Charges were filed.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Issues Presented

The issues presented in the case are:

1. Has the Board satisfied its burden of substantiating the Tenure Charges it has proffered against Respondent?

2. If so, what discipline, if any, is warranted?

DISCUSSION

Positions of the Parties

The Board asserts the record evidence demonstrates that Respondent, during the 2021-2022 school year was excessively absent and AWOL for several months, and ignored the multiple directives she received from the Board to return to duty.

According to the Board, Respondent knew she was out of leave time when she remained absent in the wake of directives she return to work. As such, the Board contends her unbecoming conduct was intentional and disregarded the educational needs of her students.

Moreover, the Board adds, beyond the fact Respondent was excessively absent and AWOL, and as demonstrated through her testimony and argument, remorseless about the hardship she created for her students, she also demonstrated she is incapable of returning to duty in any teaching capacity. As noted by the Board, she admits to being disabled indefinitely, and in addition has given up her Elementary School Teacher license, Respondent Exh. 16, effectively disqualifying her from being a K-6 Teacher of Students with Disabilities.

Indeed, the Board argues, Respondent did not, and cannot, dispute the allegation she was absent without leave from February 15, 2022, until the end of the 2021-2022 school year. Nor can she overcome the evidence she is not capable of returning to work, despite her insistence it was only the Board's intransigence which kept her from working. The Board stresses that Respondent admitted in her testimony she no longer is licensed to teach elementary students, and further, after the instant charges were served, she applied for and received long-term disability benefits from Prudential. The Board asks that I infer from Respondent's failure to comply with my directive to produce a record of what she told Prudential regarding her capacity to work, that her disability precludes her return to work.

Nor, the Board adds, can Respondent fairly claim she did not know that the consequences of her excessive absenteeism and interminable AWOL would be tenure charges seeking her termination. She was expressly warned that would be the Board's recourse in multiple letters and emails that she admits she received. The Board adds that Respondent offered no evidence to refute Jackson's testimony that Respondent never contacted her or anyone else in Cleveland School administration to explain why she was AWOL.

Moreover, the Board argues, Respondent did not, and cannot, dispute Jackson's testimony that Respondent's excessive absenteeism disrupted the delivery of instruction to her students and disrupted school operations in that other staff members had to be switched from their educational duties to address Respondent's absenteeism.

According to the Board, Respondent's claim she was misassigned to teach an 8th grade class at the beginning of the school year is not justification for her absenteeism and recurring AWOL. For a few weeks early in the school year, Jackson has admitted, Respondent was assigned outside her license, but by early October 2022, she was placed in an elementary class that was within her certification. The Board adds that a technical misidentification of dates in Carbone's April 1, 2022, letter, or in any of Jackson's letters, does not constitute lack of notice to Respondent that she had been absent on fifty (50) occasions, and had been AWOL since February 15, 2022. Those facts were well known to Respondent, the Board argues, and she has failed to demonstrate that she was confused or uncertain about her rights on account of any such minor errors, all of which were ultimately corrected.

Regarding Respondent's contention she is protected under P.L 211, Chapter 69, the Board asserts said provision only protects public employees who obtain services from an "employee assistance program" ("EAP") which is statutorily defined as a program of assistance provided by a public employer or by a provider under contract with a public employer to provide assistance to the employer's employees. The Union Workforce Initiative from which Respondent testified she received employee assistance does not have a contract with the Board, it argues, and therefore Chapter 69 does not apply. In any case, the Board argues, Chapter 69 by its express terms "shall not be construed as preventing the public employer from taking any action which the employer is otherwise authorized to take for workplace misconduct of the employee or poor work performance, even if the misconduct or poor performance is related to a problem for which the employee is obtaining services provided by an employee assistance program."

The Board argues that it has met its burden to prove Respondent's inefficiency, incapacity, and conduct unbecoming by a preponderance of the credible evidence. Indeed, it asserts it has demonstrated Respondent's unbecoming conduct from its showing that her recurring absences and persistent AWOL adversely affected the efficiency and morale at the School and constituted a willful and continued disregard for administrative directives and decisions. Citing In re Truitt 2014 WL 10208983; In re Simon, 2013 WL 363175 at 29. Her misconduct is demonstrated from the fact she was put on notice her conduct was forbidden and yet even then it persisted. See In re Molokwu, 2005 WL 3234798 at 1; In re Richardson, 1998 WL 668704.

The Board acknowledges its responsibility to teachers with medical problems, but insists its overarching responsibility is to the children. Citing In re Tenure Hearing of Randi True, School District of the Twp. Of Willingboro, 2011 N.J.Agen Lexis 354 at 53 (citing In re Green, 1991 S.L.D. 1103). Indeed, the Board argues, excessive absenteeism constitutes valid grounds for the dismissal of a tenured teacher, even where the absences have been excused or caused by legitimate medical or health related issues. Citing Matter of True at 53; State Operated School Dist. of Jersey City v. Pellecchio, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 267, 269-70, aff'd, State Bd., 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 30.

These rulings, the Board argues, are grounded in the recognition that many students who are deprived of their regular classroom teacher frequently experience great difficulty in achieving the maximum benefit of their schooling, and the conclusion therefore, that regular contact of pupils with their assigned, regular teacher is vital to this process. Citing Matter of True at 55. According to the Board, the True decision found that the impact of a teacher's absence is even more severe when special education students are involved. Id.

The Board asks that I follow the analysis of Arbitrator Reilly in Matter of Sch. Dist. of East Orange and Owoh, Agency Docket No. 101-6/21. As here, the Board argues, the elementary school teacher in Matter of Owoh demonstrated a pattern of excessive absenteeism over time and continued to remain absent without authorization. The teacher asserted his absenteeism was on account of a medical condition, but the arbitrator ruled that dismissal nevertheless was justified. He reasoned that "substantiated medical issues . . . do[] not entitle Respondent to an indefinite medical leave." He found that where a teacher's excessive absenteeism included an extended period of unauthorized leave with no projected end date, his misconduct undermined the school district's educational mission and "reached an obvious inflection point." Matter of Owoh at 20.

In reaching his decision to terminate the teacher, the arbitrator used the three-prong test articulated in In re Castro, Docket No. A-4875-10 (App. Div. April 25, 2012), citing In re White, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 157 (1991), under which a school district, when seeking the termination of a tenured teacher for incapacity/excessive absenteeism, must show: (1) it considered the number of days and the particular circumstances of the absences; (2) the impact the absences had on the district; and (3) that an appropriate warning was given. Matter of Owoh at 15.

Here, the Board argues, the three-prong test also was met. Regarding prong 1, the Board observes respondent was absent on numerous occasions (not including FMLA leave) during the 2021-2022 school year prior to February 15, 2022, and was warned about them; and then, from February 15, 2022 until the end of the 2021-2022 school year was AWOL, and remained AWOL despite multiple demands she return to work. With respect to Prong 2, the Board argues Jackson credibly testified about the hardship on the school's students from Respondent's prolonged and recurring absences, and the negative impact her absences had on school operations, including staff morale. The Board stresses that this hardship was clearly explained to Respondent when she asked why her February 15, 2022, extension had been denied.

The Board insists, too, the third prong was met by the multiple communications to Respondent from Human Resources, Labor Relations and Jackson that her absences were excessive, constituted AWOL and would result in discipline, including her termination, if she did not report back to duty. According to the Board, it was clearly stated to Respondent that she was needed back in her classroom.

According to the Board, Respondent has failed to present any defenses or other bases to excuse her excessive AWOL absenteeism. The Board argues that Respondent's objections to her supervision by Jackson, in particular to observations and various instructions which she characterizes as harassment, bullying and intimidation, have nothing to do with these charges, which are not related to her performance as a teacher, or to any classroom incidents which occurred prior to February 15, 2022, the date she was directed to return to work because her leave was exhausted.

The Board observes that Respondent's central defense is her claim she can self-designate herself on extended leave because she has suffered stress and feels harassed by the professional demands placed upon her by Jackson. According to the Board, there is no proper basis to allow Respondent to designate herself on an extended leave of absence without pay, when all of her available leave has been exhausted, because she feels stressed out by her teaching job.

Nor has Respondent raised a recognizable defense by asserting she was in counseling, the Board argues. The Board asserts it does not seek to discipline Respondent for participating in counseling. Rather, she is charged with not coming to work when she had run out of leave. The Board insists there is nothing in Chapter 69 which prohibits its discipline of Respondent for excessive absenteeism and AWOL.

Further, the Board argues, Respondent effectively concedes she is ineligible for the remedy she seeks in this proceeding. She cannot be returned to her position teaching Elementary School Students with Disabilities, as she relinquished her teaching license as an Elementary School Teacher K-6.[16] In addition, she has obtained long-term disability benefits for at least the next two years, and possibly an indefinite period thereafter, according to the Board, which may be inferred, the Board argues, from Respondent's refusal to provide copies of requested documents which it suspects contain her assertion to Prudential she is permanently incapable of coming to school and performing her job. Indeed, the Board asserts Respondent fairly cannot demand in this proceeding an order returning her to work in a position she has claimed, in order to receive long-term

In sum, the Board argues, the record in this case requires Respondent's removal. She is culpable of excessive absenteeism and of being AWOL despite her knowledge that she was needed at her school, that she was out of contractual leave, that she had exhausted her FMLA, and that she had been properly denied for an extended leave without pay due to the hardship it would cause her students and the school. She remained absent despite directives to return to work. She gave up her teaching license in a gambit to force the Board to assign her as a Culinary Arts Teacher when she was needed as a Special Education Teacher. There is no prospect of her returning to teach the very students who need her instruction, as she is no longer qualified to provide that instruction. On top of that, the Board argues, even if she was given a chance to return to work, she is not eligible to do so because she is on long term disability and not fit for duty, and thus the hardship on the students and the school will continue.

According to the Board, its evidence substantiates the proffered charges and the appropriate discipline is Respondent's termination.

Respondent, on the other hand, asserts the tenure charges against her must be dismissed and she should be awarded back pay and reinstatement to her tenured teaching position. According to Respondent, the "[t]enure charges fail to state a cause of action upon which relief may be granted." Respondent's Post-Hearing Brief ("Resp. Br.") at 1. She asserts they "are false in fact, and constitute an exaggeration and distortion of the truth." Id. Specifically, she alleges that "[t]he district failed to comply with its governing policies and procedures with respect to [her] work assignments and leave of absence requests." Id. She contends the Board "has unclean hands because it required [her] to work when [she] was entitled to leave(s) of absence." Id.

Respondent does not deny she was absent on the days referenced in the Charges. Although she makes several arguments in defense of the Charges, her central argument is her contention "my absenteeism was caused by Newark Public Schools, Newark Teachers Union EAP and my illness." Resp. Br. at 4. Thus, she claims, her assignment to teach an 8th grade class in September 2021, which was outside her certification, and her subsequent placement in a 4th grade special education class for which she claims she was unqualified ("I have no formal teaching training or educational training") caused "a medical episode" in or about December 2021. Resp. Br. at 1-2.

Indeed, Respondent asserts that observations and evaluations she received without "support required by statute . . . caused a significant amount of emotional distress and exacerbated my disability." Resp. Br. at 2-3. She contends, "[m]y symptoms were caused by not having the proper training, support, placement and proper leave." Id. at 3.

Respondent stresses that she was hired by the Board in 2011 as a Skilled Trades Teacher. Resp. Br. at 2.[17] She notes that she "completed the New Jersey Alternate Route Career and Technical Education Teacher Preparation Program," which she asserts represented "200 hours of Career and Technical Education Alternate Route Instruction." Id. She states that on September 9, 2021, she asked Human Resources to transfer her back to being a Culinary Arts teacher. Id. The denial by the Board of that request, according to Respondent, constituted "harassment [which] caused [her] health and anxiety issues." Id. So, too, she suffered "emotional distress" from having to teach without "proper training" and from having to endure "harsh" supervisory oversight of the teaching she was required to perform without "support." Id. at 3.

The harassment she received came in multiple forms, she alleges. She "was forced to teach outside [her] certifications by [Jackson]" at a time she was "suffer[ing] the tragic loss of a close family member whom was also my student that year and blamed myself." Resp. Br. at 2. She contends that Jackson "forced [her] to work during [her] FMLA," and that when she "returned to work without a medical clearance and was transferred to an elementary school position" it "aggravated my disability." Id.

Respondent claims that when she "spoke up for the students and [her]self" she became "a subject of First Amendment retaliation," which caused her to "suffer another medical episode in January 2022." Id. She asserts she applied for FMLA leave on or about January 31, 2022, for the period January 27, 2022, through May 15, 2022, which was denied for "arbitrary and capricious" reasons. Id.[11] She contends the Board, in denying her an extension of leave without pay for the period she requested, failed to acknowledge its culpability and the culpability of her school's administration in causing the illness which necessitated her absences. Resp. Br. at 2-3.

According to Respondent, the fundamental bad faith of the Board's Tenure Charges against her is demonstrated by the fact the Charges were brought "while I was trapped in The Counseling Center." Resp. Br. at 4. She asserts she entered the Counseling Center program on the advice of Livorsi and Liss, who advised her to "listen to" Livorsi and remain in The Counseling Center until it discharged her. Resp. Br. at 3. Thus, she argues, she "tried to return back to work in April of 2022" but could not because she was in the Counseling Center on the recommendation of her representatives. Id. I interpret Respondent's argument as an assertion she was protected from these disciplinary charges because she had a proven medical disability.

With respect to the allegations in the Charges Respondent was AWOL and did not report her absences or otherwise communicate the reasons for her absences, she contends she "used the district's electronic reporting process to report [her] attendance." Resp. Br. at 3. She claims that Jackson thereafter acted dishonestly and in bad faith when she "modified the [Board's electronic attendance] system to show [Respondent's] absence until on or about 4/20/22." Id.[11]

Respondent claims she was told by Maillaro to "work with" Livorsi, because "keeping [her] protections under Chapter 69 would be the most viable option." Resp. Br. at 3. She asserts [11]The AESOP record, Respondent Exh. 7, documents Respondent's call-ins to report her absences. In her claim that Jackson "modified" these records, which is not substantiated by hearing evidence, she appears to be referring to an entry of a call-in "sick" for the period February 28, 2022, through April 29, 2022. The Board's time records, Board Exh. M, show Respondent was carried "EST-ExhaustedSick" for the duration of the period. However, after April 29, 2022, there are no entries in the Board's time records, which, according to Jackson, means Respondent had stopped making call-ins. The AESOP record is consistent in showing no call-ins by Respondent from Monday, May 2, 2022, until the close of the 2021-2022 school year at the end of June 2022. Cf. Respondent Exh. 7 and Board Exh. M.

she was told by Livorsi that "[her] job is protected under Chapter 69." Id. She contends the answer filed by her former counsel and union-provided attorney did not provide "correct evidence." Resp. Br. at 4.

Respondent submitted the following summation of her position:

> I maintain that the district has failed to support its tenure charges. The basis of the charge relating to absenteeism - the district failed to comply with its governing policies and procedures with respect to my work assignments and leave of absence requests. The evidence shows I only used 5 weeks of FMLA in the 2020-2021 school year. In the 2021-2022 school year, I was approved for FMLA leave from January 17, 2022, to February 14, 2022 - at which point is only 9 weeks of FMLA leave. And I have already received the harsh discipline of an increment withholding relating to them and it is unfair to then punish me a second time for the very same conduct. Additionally, in regard to Unbecoming Conduct Absent Without Leave, the evidence establishes that my absenteeism was caused by Newark Public Schools, Newark Teachers Union EAP and my illness. The evidence establishes that I submitted myself to the Newark Teachers Union on 3/2/22. I was admitted to The Counseling Center on 3/30/22 until 9/22.

Resp. Br. at 4.

Respondent accordingly requests an order dismissing the Tenure Charges in their entirety, and for back pay of all monies lost during the period of her suspension and all other emoluments of employment. Resp. Br. at 5.

Opinion

Excessive absenteeism may constitute incapacity, unbecoming conduct or just cause sufficient to warrant dismissal. Matter of Owoh at 154, citing In re Castro, Docket No. A-4875 (App. Div. April 25, 2012), and Matter of Pellecchio. Moreover, excessive absenteeism may constitute valid grounds for the dismissal of a tenured teacher even where the absences are excused or caused by legitimate medical or health related reasons. Matter of Tenure Hearing of Grace Folger, School District of City of Orange, Commissioner Decision No. 147-00, Agency Docket No. 163-6/99 (2000) at 85-86. See also Matter of Pellecchio at 269-70; Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Jerome Kacprowicz, State Operated School District of the City of Jersey City, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 152, aff'd, State Bd., 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 604, aff'd, App. Div., 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 105. These principles are well-settled.

Absences may be deemed excessive and a basis for discipline even if, as here, the teacher asserts the illness which caused her incapacity to work was work-related. "It is by now axiomatic that action can be taken against a tenured individual for excessive absenteeism even if such were the result of a work-related illness or injury." In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Sonia Velez, School District of Hudson County, County Schools of Technology, Agency Dkt No. 54-2/05 (April 27, 2006), citing In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Grace Folger,

School District of the City of Orange, Essex County, decided by the Commissioner May 15, 2000 ("From the student' point of view, it does not matter whether their teacher is absent for an excessive amount of time due to work related injuries, approved leaves of absence, legitimate medical excuses or illegitimate excuses").

Based upon my careful review of the hearing evidence, I find that Respondent was AWOL from February 15, 2022, until the close of the 2021-2022 school year, as alleged in the charges, and that her four and one-half (4½) month continuous absence from performing her teaching duties constituted chronic and excessive absenteeism. She is culpable of the misconduct alleged in Charges One and Two, and she thereby engaged in conduct unbecoming.

In reaching this determination, I make no finding regarding Respondent's medical diagnosis, save for her assertion the symptoms of her illness precluded her from coming to her work location and performing her teaching duties. Respondent claims her supervision by Jackson constituted "harassment, intimidation and bullying." Respondent's Sworn Testimony at ¶¶43, 48, 57, 59. She asserts her classroom assignments were difficult and stressful. Id. at ¶32. She has submitted into the hearing record a portion of a "To Whom It May Concern" letter prepared by LaBelle on February 14, 2022, which states, "[t]he clinical severity of [Respondent's] diagnoses hinder [her] from: planning, preparing, and delivering lesson plans, interactions, and instructions in ways that facilitate active learning as well as care to students under her management. . . [She is] clinically unable to perform her professional [duties]." Respondent Exh. 21. She presented no information to the Board regarding when her symptoms might abate and thereby enable her return to perform teaching duties.[20]

A school district is not required to endure the hardship of a teacher's excessive AWOL absences, particularly where, as here, the duration of a continuous absence is indefinite, and credible evidence demonstrates hardship on students, negative impact on school operations and damage to the morale of staff who must take on added responsibilities of covering the absent teacher's classes. Indeed, Respondent has not refuted the Board's good faith determination in February 2022 that her absences had been and would continue to be harmful, especially to her special education students.

Notwithstanding LaBelle's assertions regarding impairment of Respondent's "major life activities" and the nature of her disability, Respondent Exh. 21, it remains that her status under the ADA is not before me. LaBelle, moreover, did not testify in this proceeding, and none of his written opinions were sworn or subject to cross examination by Board counsel. Indeed, there is no record basis for me to deem him qualified to assess the impact of Respondent's absences on her students, or competent to draw his conclusion that the Board had an obligation to "cooperat[e] with [Respondent's] needs." Id.

[20]Record evidence indicates Respondent was awarded Long Term Disability benefits on or about September 27, 2022, Board Exh. N, Respondent Exh. 23, approximately two (2) months after service of these Charges. According to record documents, the effective date of her disability coverage was July 18, 2022, which was several weeks after the time period covered by the Charges.

What is before me, quite simply, is Respondent's absence from her teaching duties the entire period from February 15, 2022, until the close of the 2021-2022 school year. This four-plus month period of absence was without leave. It was continuous. Initial assessments from LaBelle and from The Counseling Center that her leave would be for a possibly finite period, with an "expected time for remission of symptoms [in] two and a half months," Respondent Exh. 21, proved to be false, and without Respondent calling LaBelle to testify, I will not presume he would agree that the Board's decision to proffer these Charges after Respondent remained absent for four and one-half (4½) without any communication from her indicating an intention to return to work was "uncooperative," to use his term.

In none of Respondent's evidence, either in her testimony or in the hundreds of pages of documents she submitted into this record, is there any information to refute, or even merely to cast doubt upon, the Board's determination Respondent's extended, continuous absence past February 15, 2022, would "cause harm to the educational program and/or operation of the district." See Board Policy on Leave of Absence, Respondent Exh. 13 and fn. 6, supra. Jackson explained she would not approve the extension "due to the hardship that the teacher's absence will have on our students' instruction/learning," and, as noted, Dr. Harrington concurred.

To the extent Respondent is arguing LaBelle's assessment of her entitlement to a leave outweighs the Board's determination of hardship, I reject that contention. Respondent has presented no authority for her proposition that the school must subordinate the students' needs and the operational hardship of a teacher's persistent and excessive AWOL absences to that teacher's claimed need for medical leave beyond the time off granted under statute (12 weeks over 12 months under the FMLA) and contract (3½ weeks of sick and personal leave per school year). The decision to extend a teacher unpaid leave is for the Board, and I find no record basis to conclude the Board's decision in this case against extending Respondent's leave past February 15, 2022, was not based on proper factors or was not made in good faith.

Moreover, Respondent's characterization of the Board's actions as discriminatory and in violation of law is unsubstantiated. She contends she improperly was granted only nine and one-half (9½) weeks of FMLA leave during the relevant 12 month period, but my review of the record indicates she received the full 12 weeks to which she was entitled. The correspondence which Respondent contends constituted harassment consisted of letters that fairly and accurately tracked her attendance, and alerted her to the Board's concerns about her mounting absence occurrences and warning her of the consequences she should expect if she did not improve. These are the very communications the Board is required to initiate in order to help a teacher avoid discipline.

Thus, Respondent was cautioned about her occasional absences starting on October 18, 2021, which was relatively early in the school year. Board Exh. C. Nevertheless, by November 29, 2021, she had exhausted her personal leave for the entire school year (5 days), and by December 10, 2021, had exhausted all of her sick leave (12 days). Board Exh. M. When the Board properly and fairly communicated to her its concern about her absenteeism and fairly put her on notice she faced potential discipline, Respondent experienced the Board's appropriate and required efforts to caution her as bullying and harassment. It is not surprising, therefore, that she has deemed every adverse consequence of her poor attendance to be a targeted attack and evidence of bad faith.

Her allegations are unjustified, however. She knew she had no more FMLA leave after February 14, 2022. She admits that on or about January 27, 2022, she asked for leave until April 30, 2022, but was told her statutory maximum would be reached on February 14th. Board Exh. G. Further, after Respondent was cautioned on February 10, 2022, "you must report back to work on Tuesday, February 15, 2022," Board Exh. F (emph. in orig.), she remained out, and did so without ever contacting Jackson or anyone else in the Cleveland School administration who was expecting her return. Jackson credibly testified Respondent's continuing absences caused disruption. Each day she was out placed "strain" on Jackson's ability to run the school, because the Principal had to assign coverage by other staff members who then could not perform their own previously scheduled tasks. As an example, Jackson explained she frequently had to pull teachers from parent conferences in order to ensure coverage of Respondent's classes.

Jackson described truthfully I find, how Respondent's absences directly impacted her special education students. They did not have their regular teacher, which is something children rely on for consistency. Indeed, the regular teacher knows the curriculum and knows the circumstances of each student, and with that knowledge prepares the lesson plans. In contrast, substitute teachers often do not fully understand the curriculum, are not involved in creating the lesson plans and in many cases are simply not qualified, especially in special education. Jackson's determination, sustained by Dr. Harrington, that there would be hardship on students and the school's operations if Respondent remained out on extended leave past February 14, 2022, was grounded in her experience, sound professional judgment and good faith assessment of the educational needs of the Respondent's students. Neither Respondent, nor her therapist, LaBelle, were empowered to overrule Jackson's assessment.

Respondent, moreover, quick to blame others for her excessive AWOL absenteeism, ignores the multiple opportunities the Board gave her to return to work before bringing disciplinary charges. I discern from the hearing record that the Board did not accelerate discipline as it might have done if that had been the end-goal that Respondent surmises. Rather, the Board was not quick to act and, rather, even extended Respondent's deadline as it implored her to return to work.

Indeed, notwithstanding Carbone's warning to Respondent in his April 1, 2022, Notice, Board Exh. J, that her "[f]ailure to return to work by or before April 11, 2022 . . . will result in disciplinary action being taken against you up to and including termination," determined, when she did not return by that date, to give her still another chance. Board Exh. L. After noting Respondent's continued AWOL status at the April 11th deadline, and her failure to heed his previous warning she must return to work by that date or face disciplinary action, he told her that "[t]he purpose of this letter is to give you one last opportunity to return to work." Id. And he than even allowed her two (2) additional weeks, until April 25, 2022, to do so. Id. Respondent, however, did not return to work. Rather, she remained AWOL through the end of the school year, two (2) months past the extension of time Carbone had given her.

Respondent, rather than accepting Carbone's April 2022 correspondence as an opportunity to return to work and avoid the consequences of her excessive AWOL absences since February 15, 2022, deemed the Board's letters encouraging her return to work, simply because they contained the required warnings of the negative consequences she would face if she remained AWOL, to be "mental harassment and retaliation." Respondent Exh. 16. She asserted that Carbone's April 1, 2022, Notice, Board Exh. J, and Jackson's April 5, 2022, letter cautioning her about the consequences of her "continued absenteeism," Board Exh. K, had caused her "additional emotional distress, pain and suffering." Respondent Exh. 16.

Respondent's defense against these Charges amounts to a claim the Board's attendance requirements for effective and consistent pedagogy take a back seat to her personal circumstances, even after she exhausted all of the leave to which she was entitled under law and contract. Thus, Livorsi, on Respondent's behalf, wrote to Leuze on April 6, 2022, that, "Chapter 69, PL 2011 protects Ms. Henderson from any further disciplinary actions." Respondent Exh. 16. Livorsi presumed the right, again on Respondent's behalf, unilaterally to set the terms for her attendance. The Counseling Center, also on April 6, 2022, wrote to Leuze that Respondent will be re-evaluated on April 29, 2022, but offered no estimate of when she might return to work. Id.[21] Respondent has offered no legal authority to support her claim that the symptoms and illness she contends were caused by Jackson's purportedly overzealous supervision exempted her from regular attendance and permitted her indefinite unapproved absences. Without reference to any decisional, statutory or regulatory law, save for her blanket assertion she is covered under P.L. 2011, Chapter 69, she insists she was protected from disciplinary action, notwithstanding uniform rulings that excessive absenteeism may constitute valid grounds for the dismissal of a tenured teacher even where the absences are excused or caused by legitimate medical or health related reasons. Matter of Folger at 85-86; Matter of Pellecchio at 269-70. In Matter of Folger at 85, the Commissioner deemed [21]The Counseling Center subsequently re-evaluated Respondent on April 28, May 26, July 13 and August 8, 2022, and each time recommended she remain in its program an additional 30 days, Respondent Exh. 13, until it made a decision to discharge her on September 28, 2022, after she reported she was "not getting any help from the facility and feeling as though nothing was getting resolved." Respondent Exh. 24.

"meritless [the] argument that, by definition, excessive absenteeism must mean absences in excess of what is justified by medical verification." As noted, that principle holds even where the absences are due to work-related injuries. Matter of Velez at 4. It gains traction where, as here, the absences are without leave.

My review of Chapter 69, N.J.A.C. 34:13A-42, persuades me Respondent's reliance on it is misplaced. It reads,

> No public employer shall take any action against an employee of the employer, including termination, because the employee or a dependent of the employee has obtained counseling, referrals or other services from an employee assistance program or has obtained treatment or other services from any program to which the employee assistance program refers the employee . . . unless the employee was referred by the employer to the employee assistance program due to issues related to job performance and fails to make a good faith effort to comply with the recommendations made by the employee assistance program. The provisions of [Chapter 69] shall not be construed as preventing the public employer from taking any action which the employer is otherwise authorized to take for workplace misconduct of the employee or poor work performance, even if the misconduct or poor performance is related to a problem for which the employee is obtaining services provided by an employee assistance program or other program to which the employee assistance program refers the employee.

Respondent Exh. 16. Respondent contends the charges against her and the Board's efforts to discipline her for excessive AWOL absences are violations of this law.

I do not concur. The Board's Charges against Respondent are unrelated to counseling, treatment or other services she has obtained from an employee assistance program, or from any other entity. The basis for the charges and for the discipline the Board seeks to impose is Respondent's continued, unremitting absence from work without leave for more than four (4) months, from February 15, 2022, until the end of June 2022. There is nothing in the language of Chapter 69 which bars a public employer from requiring acceptable attendance and from disciplining employees who are excessively AWOL.

Nor does Chapter 69 evince an intention by its drafters to subordinate a school board's need for a teacher's regular attendance to that teacher's demand for unpaid medical leave after her entitlements are exhausted. Where, as here, a teacher's AWOL absenteeism has been persistent, continuous and unremitting for the final four and one-half (4½) months of the school year, without any clear communication from the teacher of a date on which the teacher will return, and for the final two and one-half (2½) months, without any communication at all, I find that tenure charges seeking that teacher's dismissal is an appropriate consequence, and one that fairly could be expected after multiple warnings.

In fact, the language of Chapter 69 expressly authorizes the Board to impose disciplinary action for workplace misconduct or poor work performance, which plainly includes excessive AWOL absenteeism, even if the absenteeism and the failure to report to work is related to a problem for which Respondent is obtaining counseling or therapeutic services from an EAP. I further note, as the Board points out, that the service providers from whom Respondent has obtained her counseling and therapy do not fall within the definition of an "employee assistance program" covered by Chapter 69.[22]

Nor do I accept Respondent's claim that her objections to her supervision by Jackson, however unfair or belittling that supervision might have felt, entitled her simply to not come to work for the balance of the school year after her contractual and FMLA leave entitlements were exhausted and her requests for additional leave were denied.[23] Such a ruling, I find,

[22]Respondent has presented no case law which demonstrates that Chapter 69, C. 34:13A-42, recited above, has been enforced to preclude discipline of a public employee culpable of excessive and persistent AWOL absenteeism. Nor has she presented evidence that this is the proper forum in which to assert a violation of her Chapter 69 rights.

[23]I observe there is no evidence of a grievance filed in connection with Respondent's contention Jackson's supervision was abusive or otherwise improper. So, too, notwithstanding Respondent's statement to Jackson in a December 1, 2021, email that "I plan on filing a complaint" of "harassment, intimidation and bullying," Respondent Exh. 15, and her assertion to Jackson and Maillaro on December 8, 2021, "I have reached out to Newark Board of Education Affirmative Action department concerning Ms. [Jackson]'s harassment, intimidation and bullying this year and last year," Id., and her representation to Patterson on January 6, 2023, Resp. Exh. 13, that a refusal by the Board to give her a leave of absence when her FMLA "run[s] out," will be a violation of the ADA, the record in this proceeding is devoid of evidence any related claims or complaints have been filed, investigated and adjudicated in a forum of appropriate jurisdiction. I fairly conclude therefore that there is no proper basis for me to potentially might handicap a district's or a school administrator's ability to supervise staff and otherwise run a school.

As noted above, the relevant case law holds that excessive absenteeism may constitute valid grounds for the dismissal of a tenured teacher even where the absences are caused by legitimate medical or health related reasons, Matter of Pellecchio at 269-70, and even if the teacher asserts the illness which caused her incapacity to work was work-related. Matter of Velez at 3, Matter of Folger at 85-86. There is no record basis to doubt the sincerity of Respondent's belief she was harassed and bullied by Jackson, or to discount her claim she suffered stress and trauma from Jackson's supervision or from the Board's notices imploring her to return to work. Where, however, as here, Respondent has no available leave entitlements, and her AWOL absenteeism has been excessive, and the Board has determined in good faith her continued absence from school will impose a hardship on students and the educational program, and she nevertheless remained AWOL despite multiple warnings and a second last chance to return to work, she fairly now faces disciplinary charges alleging conduct conclude Jackson and/or the Board unlawfully created conditions under which Respondent was unable to work, which is what Respondent asserts in her post-hearing brief. Resp. Br. at 3, 4 (she contends her disability and illness "were caused by not having the proper training, support, placement and proper leave," and therefore "[her] absenteeism was caused by Newark Public Schools, Newark Teachers Union EAP and [her] illness").

unbecoming, for which I find she is culpable. To rule otherwise would risk eviscerating the Board's ability to regulate attendance by teachers who are resentful of their assignments and of the methods and demands of their supervisor's oversight.

Turning to penalty, I observe that the Commissioner of Education has established a three-part test for determining if dismissal is the appropriate penalty for a tenured teacher charged with excessive absenteeism, and this test continues to be the appropriate guide. As set forth in Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Lena White, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 157, 161 (1991), the record must establish that the Board considered (1) the particular circumstances of Respondent's absences and not merely the number of absences; (2) the impact that her absences had on the continuity of instruction during the period of time the absences occurred, not merely after the fact, and (3) that there shall have been some warning given to Respondent that her supervisors were dissatisfied with her absenteeism. See Matter of Owoh at 15.

My review of the hearing record persuades me that the Board did consider: not only the number of Respondent's absences, but also the fact her absences were without leave, that her AWOL was chronic and continuous, on every school day, unabated, for more than four (4) months, and further, that she did not adhere to the Board's letters directing her return to work, that the multiple representations from her counselor and therapist which advised the Board to expect she would be able to return to work by April 30, 2023, Respondent Exh. 21, and then by early June 2022, Respondent Exh. 16, were not accurate, and that Respondent never explained why she did not return after either date, or offer when she would return.

The hearing record additionally shows that the Board considered the impact that Respondent's absences had on the continuity of instruction during the period of time the absences occurred, not merely after the fact. When Respondent requested an extension of her FMLA leave past February 14, 2022, for a period of time she initially placed as ending April 30, 2022, she was told the extension of leave was denied "due to a hardship it will cause the school." Board Exhs. G, H. Under Board policy, File Code 4150/4250, Respondent Exh. 13, the Board considered Respondent's request, and then, again following said Policy, it asked Respondent's Principal, Ms. Jackson, and the Assistant Superintendent, Dr. Harrington, to determine if the requested extension would cause harm. Jackson determined, as discussed above, that Respondent's continuing absence created "hardship . . on our students' instruction/learning," and Dr. Harrington agreed. Board Exh. H. Respondent has presented no evidence or argument disputing the reasonableness of those determinations or the propriety of the Board's reliance upon them. Nor did she present hearing evidence refuting Jackson's testimony regarding the specific hardship on the school's ability to cover the instruction of Respondent's special education students during her prolonged and unremitting AWOL absence.

The hearing record is also clear on the fact the Board considered that Respondent was told, and was aware, that her supervisors were dissatisfied with her absenteeism. Prior to being AWOL, she was counseled and warned about the importance to her students and their education of her regular attendance, and the Board's dissatisfaction with her attendance record. Board Exhs. C and D. On February 24, 2022, approximately 10 days after she commenced being AWOL, she was again advised in unmistakable terms the Board's determination her recurring and numerous absences were "a serious matter" which might result in disciplinary action and separation from employment. Board Exh. I. Subsequent letters and notices the Board sent Respondent on April 1, 2022, April 5, 2022 and April 11, 2022, placed her squarely on notice that her "continued absenteeism," which had been recorded as AWOL since February 15, 2022, will result in disciplinary action including termination if she did not return to work. Board Exhs. J, K, L.

Faced with these Charges, and the evidence presented in support of them in this proceeding, Respondent has nevertheless demonstrated no apparent understanding of the hardship caused by her excessive AWOL absenteeism from February 15, 2022, through the end of June 2022. She insists her absences were justified. She blames her supervisors and administrators, refusing even to acknowledge the importance to her students and the school of her regular attendance. Her answer to the Board's hardship of having a special education teacher fail to appear at school for months and months is for the Board to assign her back to being a Culinary Arts Teacher. Indeed, in an effective attempt to dictate the terms under which her demand for relief should be granted, she relinquished the license which permits her to work as an Elementary School Teacher. Respondent essentially has communicated, "I don't have the skills to be an Elementary School Special Education teacher, and now the Board cannot compel me to perform that work because I have relinquished my Elementary School Teacher's License;" and, "the Principal's efforts to supervise me within my former certification constituted bullying and harassment which gave me a valid reason to not come to school;" and, "I am prepared to provide regular attendance when I am assigned back to being a Culinary Arts Teacher." As I read the record and evaluate Respondent's exhibits, testimony and arguments, her reassignment to a Culinary Arts classroom is an outcome she seeks. The Education Law does not entitle her to take extended unapproved leave until she obtains the assignment she wants.

In sum, I find Respondent is culpable for the misconduct alleged in Charges 1 and 2 of the Charges, and with respect to the allegations in Charge 3, I find her dismissal as a Tenured Teacher for the Newark Board of Education is justified and appropriate.

AWARD

1. Charge One: of Unbecoming Conduct - Absent Without Leave is substantiated the therefore sustained.

2. Charge Two: of Unbecoming Conduct - Chronic and Excessive Absenteeism is substantiated and therefore sustained.

3. Charge Three: of Just Cause for Dismissal is substantiated and therefore sustained.

4. For the substantiated charges, Respondent's dismissal from her position as a Tenured Teacher for the Board of Education of the City of Newark is justified and appropriate.

BEFORE SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ:

Petitioner filed an appeal with the Department of Education (Department) on or about August 25, 2023. The Department transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on August 25, 2023, and scheduled for oral argument on August 30, 2023. At the oral argument, the petitioner withdrew the emergent application, but the due process remained pending. Following several telephone conferences, the parties requested a settlement conference. On November 28, 2023, Evelyn Marose, ALJ (Ret., on recall) conducted a settlement conference, during which the parties reached an amicable resolution. On December 1, 2023, counsel for respondent submitted the attached Settlement Agreement, along with correspondence from the Board approving the settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of the consent order and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the consent order as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The consent order fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

WHEREAS, B.I., is a kindergarten student assigned to Tuscan Elementary School for the 2023-24 school year; and

WHEREAS, B.I., was among a number of Montrose students not included in the initial kindergarten assignment lottery for placement for the 2023-24 school year; and

WHEREAS, K.I. o/b/o B.I., was the only family to initiate a claim before the Commissioner of Education, under OAL DOCKET NO. EDU 08139-23, regarding placement based upon lack of inclusion in the initial kindergarten assignment lottery for the 2023-24 school year; and

WHEREAS, more than 90 days have passed since the assignment of all students not included in the initial kindergarten assignment lottery such that the time for such claims (excluding OAL DOCKET NO. EDU 08139-23) has statutorily passed; and

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE (the "Agreement") is made and entered into by and between K.I. o/b/o B.I., for themselves and their heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives and assigns (collectively referred to as " K.I. o/b/o B.I."); and SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION ("SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL"). K.I. o/b/o B.I. and SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL are collectively referred to as "the Parties."

1. K.I. o/b/o B.I.'s General Release of All Claims. In consideration of the provisions of this Agreement, K.I. o/b/o B.I. and their heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives and assigns (collectively referred to as "Releasor") hereby knowingly and voluntarily releases and forever discharges SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL, as well as its affiliates, parent or controlling entities, members, agents, insurers, reinsurers, representatives, attorneys, supervisors, employees, successors, and assigns (collectively referred to as "Released Parties") from any and all suits, causes of action, complaints, charges, obligations, demands, or claims of any kind, including those relating to the placement of B.I. with the SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL, whether in law or in equity, direct or indirect, known or unknown, as raised, or could have been raised, (hereinafter "Claims"), which Releasor ever had or now has against Released Parties regarding placement of B.I. for the 2023-24 school year, exclusive of a claim for breach of this Agreement. This General Release specifically includes, but is not limited to:

a. Any and all Claims arising from, involving, or relating to the subject matter of the claims brought in Court at OAL DOCKET NO. EDU 08139-23;

b. any and all Claims for attorneys' fees and costs.

2. Consideration. The Parties agree that they will seek signatures of the Settlement on this document within Seven (7) days and the Settlement will be presented to the Board for approval to occur at the regular meeting after receipt of the signed Release.

The Board agrees to include N.I., Petitioner's second child, in the kindergarten lottery for placement under the Intentional Integration Initiative for the 2024-25 school year, and to provide non-confidential or non-exempt documents or supporting information relating to that placement. Petitioner will have the option to accept N.I.'s placement and if accepted, B.I. shall be placed at that school as well for the 2024-25 school year and all other children in the family will be placed based upon sibling priority protocol using N.I.'s placement. If Petitioner does not accept N.I.'s school placement, N.I. shall be placed Tuscan Elementary School based upon the sibling priority protocol and all other children will also be assigned to Tuscan Elementary School based upon the sibling priority protocol.

If the Board adopts and implements a SES transfer protocol, which it has not as yet, the Board agrees that B.I. will be ranked at the top of the waitlist for transfer to Delia Bolden Elementary School.

3. K.I. o/b/o B.I.'s Acknowledgment. K.I. o/b/o B.I. understands that the General Release of Claims set forth in Paragraph 1 extends to all of the aforementioned claims and potential claims against Released Parties which arose on or before the effective date of this Agreement, whether now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, and that this General Release of Claims constitutes an essential term of this Agreement. This General Release of Claims shall not, however, preclude K.I. o/b/o B.I. from bringing any action to enforce this Agreement if the Released Parties fail to provide the consideration set forth in Paragraph 2.

4. Acknowledgment of Consideration. K.I. o/b/o B.I. acknowledges that, in return for executing this Agreement, they are receiving the consideration described in Paragraph 2 for which they are not otherwise entitled. K.I. o/b/o B.I. agrees they are not entitled to any other consideration or payment of any kind from the Released Parties.

5. No Admission of Liability. Neither the execution of this Agreement by the Released Parties, nor the terms hereof, constitute an admission by the Released Parties, or by any principal, director, officer agent, employee or representative of the Released Parties, of liability with respect to any possible claim that was or could have been made by K.I. o/b/o B.I. By entering into this Agreement, the Released Parties do not admit, and expressly deny, that they have violated any contract, rule, law, statute or regulation, including, but not limited to, any federal, state or local law, statute, or regulation relating to employment or employment discrimination or retaliation, or that their actions were unwarranted, unjustified, discriminatory, retaliatory, or otherwise unlawful in any way.

6. Non-Interference and Non-Disparagement. The Parties mutually agree not to disparage or defame the other related to the circumstances of this lawsuit.

7. Agreement to Refrain from Filing Any Further Claims. K.I. o/b/o B.I. represents that they have not filed any lawsuit or initiated on their behalf any proceeding against SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL or any of the Releasees that is not being withdrawn as a part of this settlement. K.I. o/b/o B.I. also agrees not to bring any lawsuit or initiate any proceeding against SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL or any of the Releasees in any court or agency for any claim waived in any paragraph of this Agreement, and agrees, further, not to assist anyone else to do so on their behalf, to the maximum extent possible under applicable law.

8. Voluntary Execution. K.I. o/b/o B.I. certifies that they have read and/or had the opportunity to have the terms of this Agreement explained to him by his counsel, above mentioned, and further acknowledges that they have entered into and executed this Agreement freely and voluntarily after complete consideration and understanding of all facts and legal claims and the provisions of this Agreement.

9. Governing Law and Forum Selection. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to conflict of law principles. Any disputes relating to this Agreement shall be resolved exclusively by a state court in the State of New Jersey.

10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any prior agreements or understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. The Parties acknowledge that in signing this Agreement they do not rely upon and have not relied upon any representation or statement made by any of the Parties or their agents with respect to the subject matter, basis or effect of this Agreement, other than those specifically stated in this written Agreement.

11. Legally Binding. The terms of this Agreement contained herein are contractual, and not a mere recital. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties hereto and upon their heirs, administrators, representatives, executors and assigns. K.I. o/b/o B.I. expressly warrants that they have not transferred to any person or entity any rights, causes of action or claims released in this Agreement.

12. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms or provisions shall not be affected, and such term or provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to make it enforceable.

13. Amendments. Neither this Agreement nor any term hereof may be orally changed, waived, discharged, or terminated, and may be amended only by a written agreement between the Parties.

14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered, including by telecopy or email, shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Photographic (including Adobe Acrobat formatted or other PDF documents) and/or facsimile copies of such signed counterparts may be used in lieu of the originals for any purpose.

15. Court Approval. This Agreement shall be approved consistent with the Administrative Regulations requiring Court approval of such an agreement involving a minor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have caused this Agreement to be executed.

Agency Dkt. No. 293-10/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the School Nurse Certificate of Amy Camp, Board of Education of the Township of Greenwich, Gloucester County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on October 23, 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Board of Education of the Township of Greenwich) upon respondent (Amy Camp), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her school nurse certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law. By notice dated October 26, 2023, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days.

No answer having yet been received, on November 15, 2023, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice – via email – directing that she must file an answer within ten days. The notice advised that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e), failure to answer would cause each allegation in petitioner's papers to be deemed admitted and might result in summary decision by the Commissioner. Additionally, on November 28, 2023, the Office sent respondent another final notice – via email, certified mail, and regular mail to her last known addresses in New Jersey and Virginia – again directing that she file an answer within ten days and that failure to answer would cause each allegation to be deemed admitted and might result in summary decision by the Commissioner. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent initially entered into a contract to work as a full-time school nurse for the 2018-2019 school year, and her employment was renewed each subsequent school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; and on September 15, 2023, respondent sent correspondence to petitioner indicating that she was resigning, effective September 22, 2023, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's school nurse certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's school nurse certificate is suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

Agency Dkt. No. 313-11/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Lauren Newman, Board of Education of the Northern Burlington Regional School District, Burlington County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on November 22, 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Northern Burlington County Regional School District Board of Education) upon respondent (Lauren Newman), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

In response to the Order to Show Cause, respondent emailed the Office of Controversies and Disputes to provide mitigating factors that she wished the Commissioner to consider in making her decision, including that she gave notice in the summer to avoid affecting students or colleagues during the school year; her efforts in leaving resources for her successor and the district; and the fact that the district still has not hired a replacement 126 days after her resignation, such that providing an extra 24 days' notice likely would not have made a difference. However, petitioner indicated that she did not wish to engage in the administrative dispute resolution process.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent entered into a contract to work as a teacher for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; and on July 31, 2023, respondent sent correspondence to petitioner indicating that she was resigning, effective August 4, 2023, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Karen Haynes Blake, People's Preparatory Charter School,
Essex County.

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) finding that respondent violated the School Ethics Act for failure to timely file Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements ("Disclosure Statements") in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of censure. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Jeanne Stifelman,
Randolph Township Board of Education,
Morris County,

Synopsis

This matter arose from a complaint alleging that the respondent, a member of the Randolph Township Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act) when she failed to disclose on her 2019 Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statement that she and her husband had received monetary payments through a settlement agreement with the Board. The payments under the settlement agreement constituted tuition reimbursement for their child's special education out of district placement. Following a hearing in the Office of Administrative Law, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that, based on prior case law, a "reasonable member of the public" would not believe that their trust was violated because a parent kept their child's special education record confidential, and concluded that respondent had not violated the Act. Accordingly, the ALJ dismissed the complaint with prejudice.

Upon review, the School Ethics Commission (SEC) adopted the ALJ's findings of fact but rejected the ALJ's legal conclusions, finding instead that the respondent did violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 (c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26. However, recognizing the sensitive nature of the information at issue and the respondent's well-intended motive to protect her child, the SEC recommended that no penalty be imposed in this case.

The matter was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination of the appropriate penalty. Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the SEC that no penalty should be imposed upon respondent in this case.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Jeanne Stifelman,
Randolph Township Board of Education,
Morris County.

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the November 28, 2023 decision of the School Ethics Commission (Commission). The Commission found that respondent Jeanne Stifelman, a member of the Randolph Township Board of Education (Board), violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26 of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members. The Commission recommended that no penalty be imposed for the violation. The Commission's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). Respondent neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the Commission's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Commission that no penalty should be imposed upon respondent.

SEC Docket No.: C37-21
Final Decision

I/M/O Jeanne Stifelman,
Randolph Township Board of Education, Morris County,
Respondent

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed on August 9, 2021, by Layne Broyles (Complainant Broyles), Maria Ricupero (Complainant Ricupero), Eliza Schleifstein (Complainant Schleifstein), and Gerlando Termini (Complainant Termini) (collectively referred to as Complainants), alleging that Jeanne Stifelman (Respondent), a member of the Randolph Township Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. More specifically, the Complaint avers that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26 for failing to include monetary payments she received in a settlement with the Board on her 2019 Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statement (Disclosure Statement).

At its meeting on December 14, 2021, and after reviewing Respondent's Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer (Motion to Dismiss) and allegation of frivolous filing, and Complainants' response thereto, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) adopted a decision denying the Motion to Dismiss in its entirety and directing Respondent to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer), which she did on January 4, 2022.

Thereafter, at its meeting on February 25, 2022, the Commission voted to find probable cause for the alleged violations of the Act in the Complaint. Based on its finding of probable cause, the Commission voted to transmit the within matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing and, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(b),[1] the attorney for the Commission (Petitioner) was charged with prosecuting the allegations in the Complaint.

Following cross-motions for Summary Decision at the OAL, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), issued an Initial Decision on August 17, 2023. Petitioner filed exceptions to the Initial Decision, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and Respondent filed a reply thereto.

At its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission considered the full record in this matter. Thereafter, at its meeting on November 28, 2023, the Commission voted to adopt the ALJ's findings of fact but reject the ALJ's legal conclusions. Instead, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, but recommended that a penalty should not be imposed.

II. Initial Decision

Respondent and her husband entered into a settlement agreement (Settlement) with the Board in 2018, which included tuition reimbursement for their child's out of district placement. Initial Decision at 2.

After previously serving on the Board from 2009 to 2012, Respondent was appointed to the Board in April 2019 to fill a vacancy. Ibid. Respondent filed her 2019 Disclosure Statement on or about June 5, 2019, and answered "Not Applicable," for Section III, question 2, which directs individuals to "[l]ist the name and address of each source of fees/honorariums or gifts/reimbursements or prepaid expenses having an aggregate amount exceeding $250 from any single source, excluding relatives, received by you or an immediate family member." Ibid. The question further reminds individuals to "[b]e sure to list any reimbursement you received from the district or charter school for things such as conference attendance, tuition/dues reimbursement, personal appearances, speeches, or writing." Ibid. Respondent's 2019 Disclosure Statement did not disclose the payments she was receiving from the Settlement. Ibid.

The ALJ explains the 2019 Disclosure Statement reflects the finances from the preceding calendar year, 2018. Id. at 7. While Petitioner argues Respondent knew of her 2018 tuition reimbursement payments at the time she filed her 2019 Disclosure Statement, and she should have disclosed them, Respondent contends that this particular Settlement reflects "educational placement and reimbursement of 'out-of-pocket expenses that the school district should have paid all along and would have borne in the first instance had it developed a proper IEP.'" Ibid.

The ALJ finds that In the Matter of Lorraine Dunckley, Denville Bd. of Education, SEC Dkt. No. C37-01 (July 23, 2002) (Dunckley), the Commission excused a board member who was the parent of a child with special needs from disclosing receipt of tuition reimbursements pursuant to a settlement agreement on her Disclosure Statement. Initial Decision at 7-8. The ALJ maintains that the "purpose of disclosing sources of income or reimbursements outside of one's regular" employment is to prevent the school official from "receiving unwarranted benefit," not to prevent a child from receiving a "(belatedly) free and appropriate public education under the law." Id. at 8. Therefore, based on Dunckley, the ALJ in the present matter concludes a "reasonable member of the public" would not believe that their trust is being violated because a parent kept their child's special education record confidential. Ibid. The ALJ also concludes Petitioner has failed to demonstrate that Respondent violated the Act, and therefore, orders the Complaint to be dismissed with prejudice. Id. at 8-9.

III. Exceptions

Petitioner's Exceptions

In its exceptions, Petitioner argues the ALJ "incorrectly found that tuition reimbursement payments are not required to be disclosed" under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26; therefore, the Initial Decision should be rejected. Petitioner contends it is undisputed that Respondent did not include the tuition reimbursement on her 2019 Disclosure Statement and that in 2018 Respondent received seven separate check registers from the Board. However, despite these acknowledgments, Respondent did not disclose the payments. Per Petitioner, the statute must be interpreted by looking at the plain language and the statute "must be afforded 'ordinary meaning and significance.'" In this case, Petitioner maintains Respondent was required to disclose the payments, which were reimbursements that had an aggregate value over $250. Moreover, Petitioner notes a finding that "the payments [Respondent] received do not fall within N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26(a)(1) or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26(a)(3) would go against the clear legislative intent of preserving the public trust." Petitioner notes the ALJ correctly found, "it is immaterial whether [Respondent] believed that she was not required to disclose the tuition reimbursement." Petitioner further notes if Respondent was uncertain whether she should report the reimbursement, "there were several options available to her for consultation" that Respondent did not use. Therefore, Petitioner maintains Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26.

For the same reasons noted above, Petitioner asserts the ALJ erred in determining that a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c) was not established. Petitioner further asserts Respondent knew about the payments because she was receiving them, and in turn, was aware of the payments at the time she completed her Disclosure Statement. Petitioner notes the Commission has "definitively rejected the position that any form of intent is needed to prove a violation of any provision of the Act." Moreover, Petitioner argues "omitting material information required under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 defeats the purpose of the disclosure forms, which is to allow the public access to information to ensure that school officials do not violate the public trust." Petitioner maintains the ALJ's determination that "payments stemming from tuition reimbursement of special education disputes are not required to be disclosed" is flawed. Per Petitioner, "there are no listed exceptions to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, or elsewhere in the [Act]" and Dunckley does not address this issue. Petitioner further maintains the ALJ's determination that the "public's trust is [not] being violated by a parent keeping their child's special education records confidential" is unsupported. Moreover, the Disclosure Statement does not require the disclosure of confidential student records, nor does it require that Respondent divulge the contents of the settlement agreement or the reason why she is receiving the reimbursement. Petitioner maintains Respondent merely had to disclose receipt of a reimbursement.

As to the ALJ's reliance on Dunckley, Petitioner notes there is "no such finding" in the case that payments resulting from tuition reimbursement of special education disputes are not required to be disclosed. Additionally, Petitioner contends that the ALJ's suggestion that because Dunckley received a reprimand for the actions described in that decision, Respondent should not receive a penalty at all, is off the mark. Petitioner argues, on the contrary, the penalty in Dunckley, was a censure.

Petitioner contends Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, the ALJ's decision should be rejected, and a penalty of censure should be imposed.

Respondent's Exceptions

Respondent initially argues that Petitioner reiterates "the arguments expressed in its original brief which were rejected by the" ALJ instead of directly responding to the ALJ's findings, and therefore, should not be considered. Respondent contends Petitioner's argument that Respondent could have included the reimbursement on her Disclosure Statement without revealing the confidential matter involving her child, "is belied by the documents upon which he relies." According to Respondent, that claim "is debunked" because the Complaint was based "upon the dogged efforts of a political rival after discovering that [Respondent] and her husband's names were inadvertently (and improperly) not redacted from a check register from the" Board and this led Complainant to believe that this "must have been due to their [child's] out of district placement especially as [Respondent] was not a Board [m]ember when those checks were issued." Respondent notes that requiring school officials to denote a payment for special education services that would be published for the public to see would likely deter individuals who have a child with special needs from running for a seat on the Board.

Respondent maintains the ALJ correctly found that she did not violate the Act by keeping the reimbursement for her child's out of district placement confidential. Respondent further maintains the ALJ's decision should be affirmed, the Commission should uphold the determination that Respondent did not violate the Act, and a penalty should not be imposed.

IV. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission adopts the ALJ's findings of fact, rejects the ALJ's legal conclusions, finds that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, but recommends that a penalty not be imposed.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26(a)(3), school officials are required to annually file a Disclosure Statement with the Commission, which includes the "source of gifts, reimbursements or prepaid expenses having an aggregate value of $250 from any single source excluding relatives, received by the school official or a member of his immediate family during the preceding calendar year." A school official who files a Disclosure Statement "containing information which the school official knows to be false" shall be subject to a penalty of reprimand, censure, suspension, or removal, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c).

The 2019 Disclosure Statement specified that filers should "[b]e sure to list any reimbursement received from the district or charter school for things such as conference attendance, tuition/dues reimbursement, personal appearances, speeches, or writing." (emphasis added). While it is undisputed that Respondent received reimbursement from the Board in 2018 related to her child's out of district placement, she did not include this on her 2019 Disclosure Statement.

When interpreting a statute, the goal is to discern the legislative intent, which can be gleaned from the plain meaning of the language. Board of Education of the City of Sea Isle City v. Kennedy, 196 N.J. 1, 12 (2008). N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26(a)(3) unambiguously requires the disclosure of the source of reimbursements. The payments that Respondent received from the Board reflected reimbursement for money spent on her child's educational placement, and were therefore required to be disclosed. While the Commission is sensitive to Respondent's argument that special education matters are confidential, the Commission notes that the disclosure form does not require disclosure of the amount of reimbursement or the purpose of payment. By listing the Board as a response to Section III, question 2 on her 2019 Disclosure Statement, Respondent would only be indicating that the Board was a source of either a gift, a reimbursement or a prepaid expense having an aggregate value of $250 during the preceding calendar year. Such a response would not reveal the reason for the reimbursement, nor that Respondent entered into a settlement with the Board. To the contrary, board members often list boards of education as the source of gifts or reimbursement, given the frequency that boards of education pay for board members to attend conferences or events, or for their membership dues to board member organizations.

The Commission finds the ALJ's reliance on Dunckley is misplaced. The respondent in Dunckley was censured for not disclosing the source of prepaid expenses for her conference attendance, and for voting on a bill list that included a reimbursement to her and her husband and for voting on a tuition payment to the school where her husband was employed. Dunckley, SEC Dkt. No. C37-01, at 7. Dunckley does not address whether tuition reimbursements for out of district placements need to be disclosed on Disclosure Statements. While it appears the respondent in Dunckley received reimbursement for the cost of her child's tuition, the case addressed her vote to approve the board's payment of those funds, and not whether she disclosed the payments on her Disclosure Statement. Id. at 6-7. In Dunckley, the respondent's violation involving failure to disclose information on her Disclosure Statement stemmed from her attendance at a conference, and not from reimbursement for her child's tuition. Id. at 5-6. As such, Dunckley is not applicable to the present matter, and the Commission finds that Respondent violated the Act by failing to disclose reimbursement that she received from the Board.

Despite the Commission's determination that Respondent violated the Act, the Commission recognizes the sensitive nature of the information at issue and Respondent's well-intended motive to protect her child. As such, the Commission recommends that a penalty not be imposed on Respondent.

V. Decision

For the aforementioned reasons, the Commission adopts the ALJ's findings of fact, rejects the legal conclusions, finds that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, but recommends that a penalty not be imposed.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

LAURA M. LOGIUDICE, ESQ

FOR THE RESPONDENT:
JOSEPH A. GARCIA, ESQ.

Pursuant to NJSA 18A:6-16, as amended by P.L. 2012, c.26 ("TEACHNJ"), the tenure charges brought by the Montague Township Board of Education ("the Board", "the District" or "Petitioner") against Timothy Capone ("Capone" or "Respondent") were referred to me by the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes for a hearing and Decision on September 21, 2022. Hearings were conducted via Zoom on January 20, January 25, February 17, February 22, February 23, June 13, June 15, August 7, August 14, and August 18, 2023.

At the hearing, the parties had full and fair opportunity to examine and cross-examine witnesses, introduce documentary evidence and make argument in support of their respective positions. The hearings were transcribed. The parties submitted written closing statements which were received on September 15, 2023, whereupon the record was closed. All evidence arguments, whether referenced or not, were fully considered in the issuance of this Opinion and Award.[1]

THE CHARGES

Sworn Tenure Charges were brought against Respondent, Timothy Capone, on August 31, 2022. Because the charging document is approximately 32 pages consisting of 147 paragraphs, I have summarized them. A full and complete copy of the sworn tenure charges are attached to the Opinion and Award.

The following is a summary of the charging document:

Count 1: Unbecoming Conduct and Other Just Cause; Inappropriate and Unprofessional Conduct Towards Staff, which includes allegations of leading through fear, targeting staff, conducting Reductions in Force, verbal and emotional abusive, providing low evaluations to those staff not favored by Respondent.

Count 2: Neglect of Duty; Failure to maintain the school facilities and address known health and safety concerns.

[1] At the close of the District's case, Respondent filed a motion to dismiss. I denied the motion at the time as being premature. The arguments made in the motion have been incorporated into the Respondent's closing arguments.

Count 3: Neglect of Duty and other Just Cause; Interference with Educational Continuity of District Students, which includes allegations of changing teacher assignments frequently;

Count 4: Unbecoming Conduct and other Inappropriate Conduct Toward District Parents;

Count 5: Neglect of Duty and other Just Cause; failure to ensure sufficient staff and misappropriation of staff;

Count 6: Unbecoming conduct and other Just Cause; including abuse of power; and Count 7: Neglect of Duty, including failing to attend school regularly and failing to assist.

BACKGROUND

Respondent was hired on July 1, 2017, as the Chief School Administrator (CSA) for the Montague Township School District. His employment was governed by a Contract of Employment negotiated between him and the Board. Respondent's first Contract of Employment was executed on July 1, 2017, with a three-year term. The Board renegotiated a five-year contract of employment prior to the end of Respondent's first contract. That agreement was to be in effect for the period July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2025.

The contract of employment sets forth the CSA's job duties and incorporates the job description for the position into the Agreement.

The contract of employment sets forth not only the job duties of the CSA but a requirement to evaluate the CSA annually in writing and that the evaluation must represent a majority of the Board. [Id.] The contract requires the Board to "describe in writing, and in reasonable detail the specific requirements for improvement in all instances where the Board deems the CSA's performance to be unsatisfactory." [Id.] The contract provides the CSA the ability to respond in writing to the evaluation, as well.

Article VI of the contract of employment deals with termination of the agreement. Relevant to this proceeding, Section E provides:

> The Superintendent shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation during the term of this contract, except as authorized by paragraphs B&C supra and N.J.S.A. 18A:17-20.2 provided, however that the board shall have the authority to relieve the Superintendent of the performance of his duties in accordance with NJSA 18A:27-9 so long as it continues to pay his salary and benefits for the duration of the term. The parties understand that any early termination must comply with the provisions of P.L. 2007, c.53, the school district accountability act.

In April 2021, the school board placed Respondent on paid administrative leave pending investigation. The exact reasons for the placing him on administrative leave were not made clear through testimony at the hearing. The Board engaged the law firm of Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri, Jacobs, LLC to investigate various allegations of misconduct. A Confidential Investigation Report (Report) was completed by the firm on April 22, 2022. The report was comprised of 180 pages and included interviews with 20 members or former members of staff in addition to the Respondent.

The investigators found insufficient evidence to establish Respondent unlawfully discriminated against, retaliated, harassed, or subjected the following individuals to a hostile work environment: Chandler Howard, Nancy Wright, Aimee Nittolo, Darrell Stewart, Anna Dawson, Brenten Runne, Denise Bellini, Rachel Van Gorden, Rebecca Lehmkuhl, Jennifer Battikha, Michelle Visco, Leslie Coolong, Juliet Myers, Dawn Marion, Lina Willeford, Danielle Christmann, Lorie Jeskey, or Krista Mikulski.

However, the investigators found the evidence presented was sufficient to establish that Respondent "unlawfully harassed James Andriac and subjected him to a hostile work environment." [Id. at 179] It further determined the evidence presented was insufficient to establish that Respondent unlawfully discriminated against or retaliated against James Andriac.

The investigators found and recommended "the evidence presented was sufficient to establish that Respondent failed to discharge the obligations of his position as the District's

Chief School Administrator, as provided under the Board Policy 2131. [Id. at 180]

As a result, the District issued Sworn Tenure Charges that were issued by the Township alleging unbecoming conduct and neglect of duty.

Positions of the Parties

Position of the Board

The Board argues Respondent engaged in conduct unbecoming a Chief School Administrator and Constituting other just cause for removal such that counts 1, 4 and 6 must be sustained. It contends the concept of conduct unbecoming is an "elastic one" as defined by the courts. It asserts conduct unbecoming is generally defined as conduct "which adversely affects the morale or efficiency of the [department]' or 'has a tendency to destroy public respect for [government] employees and confidence in the operation of [public] services.'" [citing In re Young, 202 NJ 50, 66 (2010)]. The District maintains the credible record evidence shows Respondent engaged in consistent inappropriate and unprofessional conduct towards his subordinate staff members, particularly those who disagreed with his decisions.

The District argues the record evidence establishes Count One, which includes allegations Respondent led through fear, targeted staff, conducted reductions in force, engaged in verbal and emotional abuse, and provided low evaluations to those staff not favored by him. Specifically, the District cites Respondent's treatment of teacher Dawn Marion, who had over 20 years of service with the District. It notes the record evidence establishes Marion publicly complained during a May 7, 2019, school board meeting about the teacher reductions, leaks in her classroom ceiling, and a toxic school culture. [J-1, 2019 School Board Meeting Notes] It notes, Marion expressed her belief to the Board that Respondent would retaliate against her for remarks.

The District argues the record evidence demonstrates Respondent, indeed, retaliated against Marion after she spoke at the School Board meeting. It contends the record evidence shows only one week later, Respondent advised Marion by letter that her March 2019 sick leave request was being denied for lack of proper documentation. It contends the leave related to her son, who had serious mental health issues and the letter shows Respondent was aware of the reasons for the leave. [D-11] In addition, on May 20, 2019, Respondent suspended Marion and required her to submit to a psychological fitness for duty examination based on a comment she made when he denied her permission for leave. [D-11] Marion acknowledged saying words to the effect that if her leave was not approved she would stick her finger down her throat to make herself sick. The District notes that Marion advised Respondent she was not serious about the comment and, indeed, was found fit for duty. [Id.]

The District contends Respondent continued his targeting of Marion by then taking disciplinary action against her on September 13, 2019, regarding the same events that he had already suspended her for and had already sent her for and examination for cause. [Id.] The District notes that after this, Marion was the subject of repeated disciplinary actions, which led to her leaving the district. It argues it is highly suspect that Marion, a teacher with over 20 years of experience, suddenly had five disciplinary actions in such a short period of time. It contends Respondent's testimony that his review of her sick leave records was coincidence is simply not credible her record as a teacher had been exemplary prior to this time.

In addition to Marion, the District argues the witness testimony also established Respondent had a list of long serving staff members he did not like and wished to leave the school. The District maintains he achieved his objective through instituting a dual certification requirement for all teachers, which led to Reductions in Force (RIF) for those teachers who did not obtain a dual certification. It contends the dual certification requirement was a mechanism to rid the school of tenured staff and replace them with non-tenured employees who he would be able exercise more control over.

According to the District, Respondent's subterfuge is demonstrated by the fact that none of the witnesses who testified had any awareness of the dual certification requirement or had seen anything in writing regarding the alleged dual certification policy. It notes that of the 18 teachers he targeted, only two remained in the District.

The District further cites the testimony of James Andriac, who at the time was the Director of Student Services, in addition to being a teacher. It notes Mr. Andriac testified Respondent directed him to provide false evaluation ratings for teachers he disliked, such as the Mr. and Mrs. Nittolo. Likewise, he was instructed to give inflated ratings to Respondent's favorite staff members, such as Daniele LaStarza. The District maintains Mr. Andriac's testimony is highly reliable since he testified that he understands the potential risk he is under for acknowledging such conduct.

Likewise, the District asserts, the record evidence showed Respondent used social gatherings to divide staff into favored and non-favored groups. It contends numerous witnesses testified that he invited only some members of staff to happy hours either at a local pub or his home. Moreover, it notes, he pressured certain staff members to attend. It avers Ms. Howard testified that when she was not able to attend one of the dates, Respondent applied social pressure on her which made her believe attendance was mandatory.

The District further agues Respondent also targeted Mr. Andriac to control and humiliate him. It contends Respondent subjected Andriac to supervisory controls he did not place on other members of staff, such as making Andriac sign in and out of the building daily and maintaining a log to account for his time and activities during the day. It notes that numerous witnesses knew of this treatment and respondent's contention that the log was a means of working with Andriac to improve his productivity is belied by the fact that Respondent never reviewed these records with him.

Moreover, the District argues the record evidence shows Respondent engaged in inappropriate communication with members of staff such as Andriac, teacher Rachel Van Gorden, and social worker Daniel La Starza. It contends the screenshots of various group texts show Respondent referred to Andriac as "Nancy", "Mary" and other derogatory terms. It argues Respondent's encouraged others to disparage Andriac, as demonstrated by various texts making fun of Andriac including one having a bird soil him a man's head (in reference to something that happened to him) and wearing rumpled clothing. It contends Ms. Van Gordon, a relatively new teacher, testified she felt like the texts were meant to "haze" Mr. Andriac.

With respect to Count Four, the District argues the record evidence demonstrates Respondent engaged in unbecoming conduct and unprofessional conduct and inappropriate conduct toward district parents. The District argues a key component of Respondent's job responsibilities was to promote communication and supportive relationships within the community. Yet, it contends, the record evidence shows Respondent had a Facebook page, titled Timothy Capone, CSA where he would publicly post inflammatory comments and engage in argument with District parents. It notes a July 30, 2020, post singling out parents Holstein and Guida as spreading disinformation; an August 11, 2020, post singling out Ms. Guida as misleading; September 26, 2020, post regarding grant writing. It notes Respondent comments were inflammatory and nasty.

In addition, the District maintains the record evidence showed Respondent even directed staff to take negative actions toward the students of parents who expressed disagreement with him. It notes Ms. Van Gorden testified Respondent advised her not to provide a permission form to a student for soccer because he did not want to deal with the student's parent and pressured her not to select student DB for a leadership position in the agricultural program because he did not like the parent.

The District contends MEA President Runne also testified that he was pulled out of his work activities at times to discuss the PTA elections and that Respondent publicly accused one candidate of stealing from her former PTA in another district.

The District contends it has established Count Six, (Unbecoming conduct and other Just Cause) by his abuse of authority to benefit himself. Specifically, it cites the testimony of Ms. Howard, Ms. Van Gorden, Mr. Runne, and Ms. Lehmkuhl that Respondent made them call into school board meetings to say positive things about Respondent and his activities. All felt pressure to do so and suffered petty slights such as Respondent not speaking to them, or changing their assignment for a period of time, if they did not.

The District argues the record evidence establishes Respondent failed to discharge his duties as alleged in Counts 2, 3, 5, and 7. According to the District, neglect of duty means Respondent failed to perform specific functions of his job. With respect to Count 2, which deals with Respondent's failure to maintain the school's facilities, the District contends the record evidence shows Respondent failed to ensure mundane duties such as sweeping and cleaning were performed to more serious structural issues as failing to take action to attempt to replace the leaking roof. The District cites numerous emails from teachers in the record reporting a failure to have clean classrooms, leaks, and other problems.

The District notes that Darrel Stewart, former facilities manager testified he believed the most pressing issue facing the physical plant was replacing the roof and that money spent elsewhere should have gone to that priority. The District acknowledges Respondent tried to get a referendum passed by the school board to replace the roof. It contends Respondent failed to be more proactive when the referendum was not passed.

The District contends the record evidence shows Respondent attempted to pass his responsibilities for the physical plant to Mr. Andriac who testified his job description did not include such responsibilities.

With respect to Count Three, the District argues the record evidence shows Respondent's neglect of duty by inappropriately reassigning staff thereby interfering with their continuity with students. The District cites the testimony of both Mr. Runne and Ms. Lehmkuhl that their assignments were changed frequently. It notes Runne testified that he had 7-8 changes during a single year. Likewise, Lehmkuhl testified that during she was unaware of her assignment for the 2019-2020 school year until two weeks before school started. She testified she was advised she would be teaching math, but only two days before the school year began, she was reassigned to teach math and science. She testified that within the two years she taught in the district, she was reassigned 7-10 times. The District notes Danielle La Starza corroborated that teacher assignments changed frequently.

The District asserts these changes were especially pernicious because they were often perceived by the staff as punitive. It notes Ms. Howard testified that soon after she refused to call into a Board meeting, she was reassigned from Kindergarten to Middle School Special Education. It notes Mr. Andriac confirmed the timing of these events.

The lack of staffing, it contends, was underscored by Mr. Andriac's testimony that he was often forced to search for any able body to cover classes.

In addition, the District argues Respondent's misappropriation of staff was demonstrated by his constant pulling interventionists from their assignments to discuss the political issues he was concerned with regarding the school board. The district maintains the record evidence shows Respondent's actions caused the teachers to feel ill-equipped to carry out their duties.

With respect to Count Seven, the District argues the record evidence shows Respondent lack of regular presence in the building and failure to respond to staff concerns constitutes neglect of duty. It contends both Andriac and Runne testified Respondent was frequently out of the building. In fact, Andriac testified on at least one occasion he knew Respondent was hunting during the school day on his parent's property. Andriac, it notes, also testified that on one occasion he was called in from a sick day because there was no administrator in the building.

The District maintains that Respondent's neglect of duty and conduct unbecoming constitute just cause for termination. It argues the factors to be considered in such judgments include, the nature and gravity of the offense, premeditation and aggravating factors, present attitude, and the impact of the conduct. It cites several decisions under the NJ Teach to support this contention.

Here, the District argues, as Chief School Administrator, Respondent is subject to a higher standard than all other employees in the school and is required to act with the utmost integrity, good judgment, and self-restraint. [citing, Witmer NO. 493-07 (Comm'r Decision Dec. 24, 20070]. It notes the Commissioner's decision was upheld by the appellate division which cited the requirement of a CSA to be act with honesty, integrity, good judgment, and fairness.

The District maintains the record evidence shows Respondent failed to meet these standards by abusing his authority, stifling all dissent, publicly humiliating staff, parents, and school board members with whom he disagreed. It notes he engaged in targeting employees he disliked or disagreed with to either get them to leave employment or punish them.

Finally, it asserts his neglect of duty, either for personal gain or negligence all constitute reasons to terminate his employment.

The District contends the record evidence shows Respondent's actions were willful and purposeful. While it acknowledges he had no prior discipline or counseling, it avers former Board President Plotsky acknowledged that most of the issues that arose as part of the confidential investigation were not known to the Board at the time. Finally, the Board maintains Respondent's present attitude that his actions were justified or attempting to shift blame to others indicates that corrective action would be fruitless.

Position of Respondent

Respondent argues District has failed to establish just cause to terminate Respondent. It contends Respondent's contract of employment provides he may only be terminated for incapacity, inefficiency, unbecoming conduct and other just cause pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10(b). It argues the District has brought "groundless" tenure charges against Respondent because there was no other way it could legally remove him without paying out the full five-years of his employment contract.

Respondent argues the District has taken a "kitchen sink" approach to the charges and has even attempted to add allegations during the hearing. It contends the way the charges are written made it difficult for Respondent to "discern the totality of what the Board is alleging" which violates the Tenure statute which requires that charges "shall be stated with specificity as to the action or behavior underlying the charges. The Union notes the District has not cited any rules, law, or policy other than Respondent's job description which it alleges his conduct violated, nor has it established Respondent did anything inconsistent with the goals and objectives of the Board.

Respondent contends the accusations are, for the most part, merely complaints made by disgruntled employees based on beliefs, not evidence. It notes none of these complaints was ever raised until after Respondent was placed on leave. Respondent contends the District has failed to comply with Respondent's Contract of Employment, as it never provided Respondent with notice never received proper notice. It also notes, the Board has further failed to produce documents that should have been in its possession, such as evaluations and instead attempted to shift the burden to Respondent to provide documentation.

Respondent argues most of the actions cited in the charges deal with policies and actions Respondent made with the support and authorization of the school board and there is no evidence Respondent did anything inconsistent with their goals and objectives. It contends Respondent treated all employees with respect and improved the school district for the better of students and the community.

With respect to the specific allegations, Respondent makes the following arguments:

Schedules, RIFS, Dual Certifications and Substitutes

Respondent asserts the above policies were undertaken when he began in the district to address specific issues the District was facing. Respondent contends, in 2017, teachers have unequal schedules with respect to teaching time and preparation periods. Some teachers had multiple prep periods and taught less than the contractual school day, while others had much more demanding schedules.

In addition, Respondent noted that although the school district is relatively small, it had large influxes of students entering the District and large numbers of families leaving the District at various times of year. Respondent instituted, with the Board's approval, a requirement for teachers to be dual certified to have more flexibility to reassign teachers and to provide coverage for substitutes.

Respondent acknowledges a handful of teachers were subject to a RIF because of non-compliance but maintains this cannot be the basis of discipline. It notes former Board President Glen Plotsky testified that everyone was aware of the dual certification requirement and that no one was non-renewed in the first year if they were not able to obtain the certification. Respondent's inability to produce documentation to show employees were placed on notice should not be held against him, Respondent argues. In its motion to dismiss, Respondent noted the lack of notice regarding his removal from duties, coupled with the length of time in charging him, all make it impossible for Respondent to have in his possession such material.

As to the District's reduction in the use of hired substitutes, Respondent argues it was a budgetary decision to try to meet staffing needs though coverage rather than hiring outside substitute teachers to cover absences. Respondent argues the testimony that some teachers believed he did not use subs to hide what was happening in the District from the community are mere allegations. Respondent notes Plotsky testified the school board was aware of and agreed with Respondent's decision to not only require dual certifications, but also to use available staff for coverage was a cost saving measure approved by the Board.

Building Maintenance and Repairs

Respondent maintains the record evidence shows there were numerous issues with the physical plant when he arrived at the district. These included the need for a new roof, removal of underground oil tanks, a new heating system as well as other repair issues. Respondent contends there is no dispute he attempted to obtain funding to accomplish these important projects. However, there is no dispute the school board did not approve the referendum.

Notwithstanding the rejection of the referendum, Respondent notes the Board headed by Mr. Plotsky increased the school reserved from approximately $69,000 to $2,000,000, which allowed Respondent to fund major repairs on the roof, removal of the oil tanks and installation of a new heating system. Respondent notes he was able to hire Darrell Steward through the maintenance budget to assist in repairing the roof and perform custodial and maintenance duties and received positive ratings for his performance in this area.

Respondent contends he addressed cleanliness issues in the school by hiring an outside service to clean overnight and establishing a job called "bustodians" to be bus drivers and custodians, to allow for needed services within the District's budget.

Respondent contends complaints regarding cleanliness or leaks had been addressed. It notes the only grievance filed about cleanliness was not pursued by the Union.

Respondent argues that allegations regarding IEPS, Grade Skipping and Student KB were never either directly or indirectly included in the Tenure charges and therefore, should not be considered. Likewise, it notes that allegations regarding improper teacher certification and the suggestion that Danielle LaStarza did not have sufficient credits to receive a master's degree plus 15 credits were also not included in the tenure charges and must, according to the statute, be dismissed.

Miscellaneous

Respondent groups numerous allegations into miscellaneous claims. Respondent argues the claim by Ms. Lehmkuhl that he did not allow her to take maternity leave or provide her with a place to pump her breast milk are unfounded, but also never part of the Tenure charges.

Respondent contends Ms. Christmann's allegations regarding his use of the all-call system were also not included in the tenure charges and should not be considered. Moreover, Respondent maintains the record evidence shows that when the Board changed the policy for how the all-call system may be used, Respondent never violated the policy.

Respondent denies rating any staff member untruthfully. As to the allegations made by Mr. Andriac, Respondent notes Andriac acknowledged Mrs. Nitollo was not the best teacher. Likewise, Andriac testified he had never reviewed a social worker prior to reviewing Ms. LaStarza. Respondent advising him to give her 4's across the board because she was great is not an improper use of authority.

Respondent maintains there is no evidence he engaged in misconduct by inviting staff to happy hours or other social occasions. Respondent argues the evidence showed many of the engagements happened organically or by word of mouth and there is no evidence of any misconduct involved.

Retaliation, Intimidation, Discrimination

Respondent contends the allegations he retaliated, intimidated, or discriminated against any staff member have no merit. Respondent acknowledged that during the relevant period, he was friendly outside of work with staff members Andriac, LaStarza, Runne, Van Gorden, and others. Respondent contends the evidence of joking between them is just that, teasing among friends. Respondent argues no one complained about any communication until well after Respondent was placed on leave and interrogated by the Board's attorney.

Respondent argues the testimony from Andriac, Van Gorden and Runne that Andriac was teased relentlessly must be placed in context. Respondent maintains Andriac's testimony that he was emotionally harmed by Respondent's bullying is not credible.

Respondent contends Andriac sent many sexually explicit text messages to the group chats between these individuals and memes "flipping off" Respondent and others. Respondent contends Andriac's testimony that he sent a message to LaStarza to "eat a bag of dicks" was in response to a message LaStarza had sent to him about an LGBT conference, the suggestion being he is gay. However, when looked at in its full context, it is clear his "bag of dicks" message was in response to LaStarza teasing about his use of font he used in a report.

Likewise, Respondent argues Andriac was also shown to have been the instigator of inappropriate comments dealing with allegations that LaStarza sent a text that she did not want to play with his balls. Respondent notes the entire chain shows it was Andriac who began the text chain by asking LaStarza to read a book titled "Do you want to play with my balls" for the Goodnight Montague Bears program which started during Covid. Likewise, Respondent argues his testimony that he was being made fun of by jokes about bird poop and wrinkled clothes is also not credible since he texted a meme of himself a cross between a bird and a pig and posted with a smiling face for a photo of his soleless shoe.

Respondent argues Ms. Van Gorden's testimony about being uncomfortable with the communications in group texts is belied by the texts she sent on these days.

Respondent argues a review of the text messages submitted into evidence shows it was not credible for any of the participants to claim they were uncomfortable or discriminated against, apart from the recipients of Andriac's messages. It notes Van Gorden, Runne, LaStarza and Respondent all sent good natured messages, whereas Runne regularly responded with sexually explicit and crude text messages. In fact, Respondent notes, neither Andriac nor Van Gorden claimed to be the victim of any discrimination when they were questioned during the investigation.

Respondent argues that the allegations he called Andriac "Nancy", or a "little girl" is evidence Respondent was questioning Andriac's manhood or sexuality has no merit. Respondent cites Mr. Runne's testimony that Andriac was referred to as "Nancy" in reference to Nancy Wright who was perceived as someone who complained a lot.

Respondent contends his text that said Mary Andriac was due to auto correct and not him calling Andriac a girl or sissy. Respondent argues when the messages are reviewed, it makes no sense he would refer to Andriac as "Mary", as alleged. The preceding text messages related to wrinkled clothes and when he typed "not nice Mr. Andriac" it autocorrected to Mary.

Respondent argues that while some of the text exchanges may not have been appropriate for the workplace, he stresses the "chat" was among a group of friends and not work related. He notes there is no evidence of him engaging in inappropriate texting.

Moreover, Respondent avers, the record evidence shows he addressed inappropriate communication that occurred in the workplace. Respondent testified that he sought the guidance of the Board's attorney to understand his obligations to address conduct amongst friends and family outside the school. He was advised, he testified, that he was only responsible for workplace conduct. He testified following this advice; he largely ignored these messages.

Respondent notes he never formally disciplined Andriac but, instead, coached him regarding his conduct. Respondent contends he began a file separate from Respondent's personnel file only for the purpose of compiling notes for his evaluation. Respondent maintains the school has failed to keep this file, and thus the lack of documentation should not be held against Respondent. Respondent maintains he also moved Mr. Nitollo from the area Ms. LaStarza worked when he learned about sexually harassing behavior from Nitollo. He noted Nitollo was non-renewed after review with the Board's attorney.

As to the allegations regarding Ms. Marion, Respondent contends he relied on the advice of Board counsel placing Marion on leave and examination for cause. It notes the investigation report itself concluded there was no evidence of retaliation against Marion.

Respondent contends the record evidence demonstrates the changes he made regarding teacher schedules, reductions in force dual certifications and using current teachers for substitution coverage were all policies undertaken in conjunction with the school board to address issues in the school and, thus, cannot constitute unbecoming conduct or neglect of duty.

Respondent notes that when he began in the District, many teachers were not working full schedules, while others were working more hours. Respondent contends Former School Board President Plotsky corroborated his testimony. Respondent contends he evened out prep periods for staff to correct the disparity and to ensure all teachers worked their contractual hours.

Similarly, Respondent proposed to the Board a policy to require teachers to obtain dual certifications to allow the District the flexibility to reassign staff according to the needs of its student population. Respondent argues the record evidence demonstrates the student population varied substantially during the year as there might be a large influx or students or many students leaving the district.

Respondent notes Former Board President Plotsky testified that the Board approved this plan and the need for a reduction in force for those teachers who did not meet the dual certification requirement. Respondent contends there is no evidence the requirement was not shared with the staff. In fact, it notes, Plotsky testified no one was non-renewed in the first year of the policy.

Likewise, Respondent argues, Respondent's reduced use of substitute teachers is not grounds for discipline. It notes the policy was a means to reduce costs for the district. Respondent contends the allegation that he did so to prevent parents from seeing what was happening in the school is based on nothing more than speculation from a witness. It notes the savings were part of the plan to reduce costs to ensure proper allocation of money for capital repairs and programs.

IEPs, Grade Skipping and Student KB

Respondent argues the testimony by various witness about IEPs, grade skipping, and student KB were not part of the sworn tenure charges and must be dismissed. Moreover, it argues the record evidence is insufficient to establish misconduct.

Decision

After carefully considering the entire record before me, including my assessment of witness credibility and the probative value of evidence, I find the District has established just cause for termination. My reasons follow.

Respondent has been charged with seven counts of misconduct under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10(b), identified by the District as conduct unbecoming and other just cause and neglect of duty. Respondent is employed pursuant to a contract of employment. While the contract has a provision containing various mechanisms for terminating the Agreement, for purposes of this case, the contract provides that the superintendent shall not be dismissed except as authorized by pursuant to NJSA 18A:17-20.2. NJSA 18A:17-20.2 provides for the termination of a superintendent for inefficiency, incapacity or conduct unbecoming or other just cause.

As a threshold matter, I note Respondent asserts the charges against him are a pre-text for the newly elected school board to terminate Respondent's contract of employment early. Respondent argues only eight months after he signed a new contract, he was suddenly placed on administrative leave and then one year later was subject to tenure charges. Respondent maintains the investigation that took place after he was placed on leave (without proper notice under the law or his employment contract) was an attempt to dig up reasons to justify the Board's action.

After careful review, I do not find sufficient basis to dismiss the charges solely as a pretext. While I note the District did not specifically provide an explanation for the impetus of placing respondent on leave, my review of the investigation report convinces me that there was information obtained in April 2021 that indicated Respondent may have engaged in inappropriate conduct which would have warranted placing him on administrative leave to investigate. (J-5) I note the investigation did not result in any findings regarding the incident. However, as can happen during an investigation, information was obtained that led the Board to consider other charges, which are the subject of this proceeding. Certainly, the investigation took a substantial amount of time. However, the Respondent has received his salary and benefits in accordance with his contract of employment during this time.

Turning to the charges, I concur with Respondent that the charges have been drafted in a manner that makes them difficult to address specifically because many of the paragraphs of the charging document contain assertions or statements that are not in fact "specifications." For example, paragraph 27, which states "There was a clear line drawn between staff members that Mr. Capone did not like and those that he did, as evidenced by the obvious distinction in the treatment each group of staff members received." In addressing these charges, I have attempted to assure that I address the specific allegations at issue and will refer to the paragraph numbers where appropriate.

I further note that I allowed the District great latitude in presenting its case, which included testimony which that was not initially clear whether it related to the sworn tenure charges. Given how many specifications were contained in the charges and how broadly they were written I allowed the testimony with the ruling that I would determine if it were relevant to the charges as written. However, after careful review, I find that many of the issues witnesses testified about, such as Ms. Marion, Ms. Lehmkuhl, and others testified about matters that were not included in the sworn tenure charges. Because the statute requires the charges to state with specificity the allegations, my findings do not address allegations that are not found the sworn tenure charges. As I noted in the hearing, to the extent that any such testimony relates to credibility, or other facts at issue, I have considered it and refer to where relevant.

While I do not find the charges were a pretext, I note that many of the charges relate to policies or issues that were either approved by the school board, known to it at the time they occurred, or should have been known to it at the time because the board has oversight responsibilities. Under the terms of Respondent's Contract of Employment, the school board must evaluate the Superintendent annually, in writing and the evaluation must represent a majority of the Board. The criteria for evaluation are those agreed by the Board and Superintendent prior to the evaluation. Determinations by the Board that the Superintendent's performance is unsatisfactory in any manner must be described in writing with reasonable detail with specific recommendations for improvement. The Superintendent in turn is provided the right to respond in writing to the evaluation. (Respondent Exhibit 18). Thus, where issues were known, approved, or should have been known and were not addressed by the Board, I cannot find they constitute unbecoming conduct or neglect of duty. In essence, many of the allegations relate to inefficiency, for which evidence of counseling or corrective actions be provided.

In this regard, I find insufficient record support to sustain Count Two of the charges. Count Two (Neglect of Duty) alleges Respondent failed to maintain school facilities or address known health and safety concerns. Specifically, allegations 47, 48, and 49 involve allegations that Respondent failed to replace the school's roof and HVAC system. While the District cites testimony from teachers that there were leaks in their classroom and that Director of Maintenance told him a new roof was needed, I do not find these opinions substantiate the specifications.

Replacing the roof and HVAC system are major capital projects which require extensive funding and must be approved by the school board. It is undisputed that Respondent attempted to obtain approval through a referendum to fund these projects. The school board rejected the referendum.

Notwithstanding the lack of direct funding, former Board President Plotsky testified the reserve funds in the budget were increased to two million dollars which enabled tackling some of the major issues regarding the building. According to Plotsky, the District's priority was removal of underground oil tanks, because they threatened the District's ability to be insured. Funds were also used to install a new HVAC system and repair the roof using a plastic sealant to repair most leaks. According to Plotsky, Respondent received an excellent rating for these actions.

The testimony from other staff members that they believed the construction of new administrative office suite is evidence that Respondent allowed continued disrepair and evidently did not address the problem is not substantiated. Certainly, staff members may have opinions on how the school dollars are spent. However, the remodeling was not done covertly. There is no evidence Respondent exceeded his authority by making these changes or that they somehow impacted the overall maintenance of the school.

As to the issues of cleanliness and maintenance, I do not find evidence of Neglect of Duty constituting just cause for termination. The record evidence shows that complaints about specific classrooms being dirty were addressed, for the most part, by the custodial department. The charges allege that teachers believed there was mold in the building. In fact, the record evidence shows teacher Dawn Marion filed a complaint with the NJ Department of Occupational Health and Safety. The Complaint closed by the Department with a finding that any issues that existed had been addressed. There was no record evidence presented that mold was actually present in any part of the school.

While there were pictures submitted into the record of dirty filters and some issues regarding leaks, these photos are undated, and they do not provide sufficient evidence of neglect of duty.

Finally, as to the complaint alleging that Respondent had gotten rid of the custodial staff, the record evidence shows these reductions were made with the approval by the school board. (See, J-9; School Board Minutes May 7, 2019) The record evidence establishes Respondent in fact hired Darrel Stewart to direct maintenance, contracted with an outside cleaning service for overnight cleaning and instituted a new position called "bustodians" who served as custodians and bus drivers to meet the budgetary needs of the District. While the District provided no evidence of annual evaluations, former board President testified he retained the draft ratings he prepared for Respondent and this realignment of the custodial staffing was considered one of Respondent's accomplishments for the 2019-2020 school year.

Likewise, I find insufficient record support to sustain Count Three. Count Three alleges Neglect of Duty and Other Just Cause: Interference with Educational Continuity and District Students. Specifically, the District focused on frequent reassignment of staff members in between and during the school year. I note at the outset that it is not clear this allegation states a claim for misconduct. While the record evidence establishes a number of teachers had their assignments changed, this is not unheard of in a school setting. The record evidence showed there were various changes in enrollment in the District, in addition to COVID having an impact on the school. There was no evidence that continuity of instruction or a negative impact on the students occurred. More importantly, this is a managerial issue the school board should have been aware of in its oversight role. There is no evidence this was a surprise to the school board. To the extent the Board believed it constituted poor management, it was obligated to evaluate Respondent or at least put him on notice that this was an issue and let him know their expectations.

While there was testimony regarding some teachers' belief that they were transferred for punitive reasons, the record evidence is insufficient record evidence to substantiate those beliefs.

Count Five alleges Respondent engaged in Neglect of Duty and Other Just Cause by failing to ensure sufficient staff and misappropriation of staff. Specifically, it alleges that staff expressed their concerns during the investigation that Respondent failed to adequately hire and fill all necessary positions, including the hiring of substitute teachers. (J-1). After carefully considering the record evidence, I do not find these allegations constitute either neglect of duty or other just cause.

Plotsky testified the school board knew and approved Respondent's idea to require teachers to be dually certified to meet the challenges of changing enrollment and lessen the need to hire substitute teachers. Specifically, the idea was to use available staff as substitutes. Thus, clearly this was an issue of supervision by the Board. There is no evidence from the District that Respondent was in any way provided different guidance or that he received any feedback to the way he managed these needs.

To the extent that teachers believed their licensure was somehow in jeopardy or their contractual school day being violated, there is no evidence of any grievances being brought. On its own, I do not find these allegations can form the basis of misconduct charges, given the decision to use available teachers was approved by the then school board.

Finally, I find Count Seven must also be dismissed as the record evidence fails to establish misconduct. Count Seven alleges Lack of Regular Attendance in the School Building a Failure to Respondent to requests for assistance. The District has not established a specific requirement regarding Respondent's attendance. Nor, given the allegations made during the investigation, did they attempt to do any further investigation regarding Mr. Andriac's claims that Respondent was hunting on his parent's property on certain occasions. I note to some extent the idea that Respondent was never present, as paragraphs 137 and 137 allege, seems to conflict with testimony regarding Respondent's interactions with staff members Andriac and Runne.

While I credit Mr. Andriac regarding an occasion when he was called from home because Respondent was not present, this one instance is not sufficient to establish Respondent was not present in violation of any standard of conduct.

Likewise, Paragraph 140 of the charges Respondent regularly left the school with the District's former social worker to conduct residency checks during the day for multiple hours. The record evidence establishes Respondent instituted a policy of requiring residence checks to be conducted by two staff members and he acknowledged he performed these duties with Mr. LaStarza. Whether this was an efficient use of time is not within my authority. By itself, I do not find the allegation constitutes misconduct because the District has not provided evidence that he was not allowed to do so or that the time it took impaired his ability to complete his duties. As this is an issue of performance, without evidence of any standard being in place, counseling, or observation, I do not find, under these circumstances, it forms the basis for termination.

Turning to Count One, which alleges Unbecoming Conduct and other just cause by Respondent engaging in inappropriate and unprofessional conduct towards staff, I find record evidence to support specifications 29(iii) and (iv), and 30. The remaining allegations are dismissed for similar reasons to the previous counts.

The District maintains Respondent led the District though fear, divisiveness, retaliation, and favoritism. To that end, Specification 29.iii alleges Respondent treated staff negatively by refusing to speak or interact with specific staff members who did not support him. I credit Mr. Stewart's testimony that when he and Respondent disagreed about issues relating to maintenance of the school, Respondent would stop speaking to him for a day or two.

This form of negative treatment was not limited to Mr. Stewart. Ms. Batthika, Ms. Howard and Mr. Andriac all testified that Respondent would stop speaking to them when they had certain types of disagreements. I found the testimony of these witnesses credible, as they detailed the issues involved, and their fears of reprisal.

Respondent's behavior was unprofessional. As the leader of the school, Respondent must be able to communicate with staff and by making it clear to staff that disagreements lead to him stopping communication thwarts the communication necessary to run a school. This issue is distinct from the charges that were dismissed because the school board would not be expected to be aware of this conduct. Respondent is not supervised on a daily basis and staff members would be unlikely to raise this issue outside the school.

Likewise, I find sufficient record evidence to establish Respondent engaged in verbally and emotionally demeaning conduct towards specific staff members as alleged in Specification 29. iv. The credible record evidence establishes Respondent referred to Mr. Andriac as "Nancy" and "little girl". These references were made in front of other members of staff and in text message exchange involving other staff members. Teacher Rachel Van Gorden testified that she interpreted Respondent's remarks and actions toward Mr. Andriac as hazing.

Respondent's contention that calling Mr. Andriac "Nancy" was a reference to another teacher known for complaining rather than an attack on Andriac's manhood is of no moment. I credit Mr. Runne's testimony that Mr. Andriac was often the butt of jokes and that he was called Nancy because he complained a lot. Regardless of whether the terms were meant to mock his manhood or a way to call him a complainer, I find it constitutes verbally and emotionally demeaning action, especially as it was done in public. In fact, Mr. Andriac testified he felt belittled by these actions.

I do not find sufficient record support to find Respondent targeted staff by changing work assignments or giving them harder classes as alleged in 29.i. While the record evidence demonstrates certain staff members had their schedules changed, there is insufficient record evidence to establish these changes were not for educational or valid managerial reasons.[2]

The allegations in 29.ii regarding reductions in force are also dismissed for similar reasons. The school board approved the reductions in force and had an opportunity to review the requirements for positions.

As to 29.v, while I credit Mr. Andriac's belief that he was instructed to provide certain staff members lower evaluation scores, I do not find his testimony sufficient to determine he was advised to falsify the rating as claimed. Mr. Capone acknowledged being consulted on Mr. Nittolo's rating and, in fact, Mr. Runne also testified Mr. Nittolo was "not the best teacher."

I also dismiss Specification 31, which alleges Respondent imposed additional requirements regarding Andriac's work such as making him log his daily activities. While the record evidence establishes Respondent imposed this requirement on Mr. Andriac, Respondent testified he did this for a month because Mr. Andriac was not using his time efficiently and was not completing tasks. Mr. Andriac acknowledged Respondent told him the requirement was to make him more efficient. Given that Mr. Andriac had administrative duties, I cannot find this requirement was treating him differently as other teachers did not have similar duties.

[2] The District presented testimony from former teacher Dawn Marion regarding disciplinary actions taken against her after she complained about Respondent's leadership before a school board meeting. While I note the timing of her complaints to the school board and the personnel actions against her raise questions regarding Respondent's motivations, Count One does not contain any specifications relating to these allegations.

Turning to Count Four, the District alleges Respondent engaged in inappropriate conduct towards parents in the district constituting unbecoming conduct and other just cause. I credit Ms. Van Gorden's testimony that after receiving a request from a parent to resend a permission slip for her son to participate in soccer, she was advised by Respondent to wait until after the deadline causing the child to miss approximately one month of the program. She testified Respondent told her in effect the parent was a pain in the ass.

I also credit Ms. Van Gorden that Respondent advised her not to appoint a student as an officer to the Future Farmers of America Organization because the student's parent did support the program. I find no reason for her to have fabricated this testimony or misunderstood.

The record evidence establishes Respondent made the comments in his Facebook page toward parents as alleged, and accused one parent seeking a leadership position on the PTA of stealing from her former PTA. However, these were all actions taken well before Respondent was placed on administrative leave and even before he entered a new contract of employment. The school board was aware of these comments and had an obligation to counsel, discipline or at least set forth a standard of conduct regarding these issues. It did not and, therefore, I do not find they constitute actionable behavior under the specific facts of this case.

Finally, as to Count Six, I find the credible record evidence establishes Respondent engaged in unbecoming conduct by abusing his position and authority. Specifications 121, 123, 124, 125 126 all relate to Respondent requesting teachers to call into school board meetings to say positive things about Respondent and the programs within the school. I credit Ms. Van Gorden, Mr. Andriac, Ms. Lehmkuhl and Ms. Howard that they felt pressure from Respondent to do so. Mr. Andriac testified "the script" was always the same; about how great it is to work for Capone. Likewise, Ms. Van Gorden testified Respondent requested her to call into to meeting with suggestions that her program or position could be cut if she did not do so.

Mr. Andriac testified when he did not do as requested, he found his name removed from the District's website. He also testified that he had witnessed what happened to teachers like Dawn Marion after they complained. He testified he feared being shunned or having continual disciplinary actions against him.

Former School Board President Plotsky acknowledged that it would not be appropriate for a school administrator to request staff to speak positively on his behalf. I do not credit Respondent that he only wanted staff to be able to develop and express their positive feelings. The witnesses testified credibly they felt pushed and believed Respondent would be displeased with them if they did not comply.

In addition, I find credible record evidence to support specifications 127 and 128 alleging Respondent asked staff members to create a Facebook page for the purposes of posting information regarding school board candidates Holstein and Bogle. Ms. Van Gorden, Mr. Runne, and Mr. Andriac testified Respondent spoke to them during the school day about doing this. Mr. Runne testified that although he did not agree to do so, he saw that a Facebook page was created that provided the messaging requested by Respondent.

In addition, I credit Mr. Andriac that Respondent tasked him during the school day to assist him in canvassing the community to find potential candidates to run against Ms. Holstein and Ms. Bogle. Mr. Andriac testified Respondent provided him with a list of voters and asked him to call them regarding the upcoming Board election.

Respondent's contention that he made the request to Andriac as a friend to find candidates to run is misconduct misses the point. Respondent was Mr. Andriac's boss. It is not unreasonable for Mr. Andriac to assume the request was an order that would have some form of repercussion if he did not do as requested.

Having found Respondent guilty of Count One, specifications 29. iii, and iv, specification 30, Count Four, specifications 85, 86, and 87, and Count Six, specifications 120, 123, 124, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130 and 131, I turn to the issue of penalty.

The credible record evidence shows Respondent's misconduct constitutes just cause for discharge. Respondent's actions were not isolated moments instances poor judgement. Rather, they were willful actions that destroyed the trust and respect necessary for continued employment. Respondent did not merely make a stray comment about a parent to a teacher. Rather, he directed an inexperienced teacher to thwart student engagement in enrichment activities, based on his personal dislike of the parents. Not only did this negatively impact the student but demonstrated highly inappropriate behavior to the teacher and communicated to her that treatment of students should be linked to how the superintendent feels about their parents.

Likewise, Respondent's engagement with teachers in school board elections was not an inadvertent lapse of judgement. He attempted to have the teachers create a Facebook page under a false name for his political purposes in relation to the school board. His belittlement or petty punishments also created an atmosphere of fear of retaliation.

Certainly, the school board failed in many ways to exercise oversight over Respondent. Where it has charged Respondent with misconduct in areas it had a duty to provide counseling or guidance, I have dismissed those allegations. However, my decision relates only to the specific instances of proven misconduct, which Respondent should have understood the consequences of his actions. These instances are sufficiently serious to warrant termination, even without prior discipline or documented poor performance. Respondent, as the Superintendent is not subject to daily oversight. He must be entrusted to lead with the trust and respect of the school community. Given his actions, and his failure to demonstrate any reflection or remorse, I find that corrective action would be futile and inappropriate in this case.

As a result, I make the following

AWARD

1. The District has proven Count One, specification 29.iii, and iv, specification 30, Count Four, specifications 85, 86, and 87, and Count Six, specifications 120, 123, 124, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130 and 131.
2. The remainder of the Counts and specifications are dismissed.
3. The District has demonstrated just cause for discharge.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the Borough of Kinnelon, Morris County, Petitioner,

v.

Karen D'Amico,

Respondent.

In this matter, the Kinnelon Board of Education (Board) contended that respondent Karen D'Amico had a direct or indirect interest in a substantial financial claim against the Board in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and was therefore disqualified from serving as a Board member. The Commissioner previously found that respondent had a claim for monetary relief against the Board that precluded her continued service as a board member. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Kinnelon, Morris Co. v. Karen D'Amico, Commissioner Decision No. 58-22 (April 1, 2022). Respondent appealed, and the Appellate Division of the Superior Court found that because respondent had not filed a due process request for tuition reimbursement, the line that would require disqualification from the Board had not been crossed. Accordingly, the Appellate Division reversed and remanded the matter to the Commissioner.

Following the remand, respondent notified the Commissioner that her term on the Board was expiring in December 2023 and that this matter was therefore moot.

Upon review, the Commissioner concludes that this matter is moot due to the expiration of respondent's term on the Board. Accordingly, no further proceedings are necessary, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF KINNELON, MORRIS COUNTY,

Petitioner,

v.

KAREN D'AMICO,

Respondent.

Jarrid H. Kantor, Esq., for petitioner (Antonelli Kantor, attorneys)

Hillary D. Freeman, Esq., for respondent (Freeman Law Offices, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 8, 2022 Decided: February 18, 2022

BEFORE KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Kinnelon Board of Education (Board or KBOE) requests, inter alia, that the Commissioner of Education construe the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and determine and declare that Board Member Karen D'Amico has "a direct or indirect interest in a substantial financial claim" against the Board and is disqualified from serving as a member of the Board as a result of said financial claims, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about April 13, 2021, the Board filed with the New Jersey Department of Education an amended Verified Petition for a Declaratory Ruling Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1 (Verified Petition).[1] On or about May 4, 2021, respondent filed an answer to the Verified Petition, which includes an affirmative defense that the Verified Petition "fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted against Respondent."

By letter dated June 1, 2021, the Acting Commissioner of Education notified the parties as follows:

> I have reviewed the petition for declaratory ruling in the above-captioned matter, together with the respondent's answer. Upon such review I have determined to exercise my discretion to decline the request pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-8 and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a)1, and instead direct that the matter shall proceed as a petition of appeal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 et seq.
> Accordingly, petitioner's request for a declaratory ruling is declined and this matter shall be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law.

The Department of Education (Department) transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) where it was filed on June 11, 2021. The transmittal noted that [1] Per Mr. Kantor's April 12, 2021, letter to the Department of Education, it was amended to incorporate additional redactions and to remove the Board's request for attorneys' fees.

"Petitioner filed motion for summary decision following filing of answer (hard copy to follow due to size)," but the hard copy of the motion was not transmitted. On June 30, 2021, petitioner submitted a copy of the motion directly to the OAL, consisting of a statement of material facts and brief. On July 29, 2021, respondent filed a response/cross-motion for summary decision, consisting of a brief. Petitioner filed a reply letter brief on August 20, 2021. On August 25, 2021, petitioner supplemented its filing with a letter and attachment. On August 26, 2021, respondent replied thereto by way of an email.

An Initial Decision–Summary Decision denying petitioner's cross-motion for summary decision, granting respondent's cross-motion for summary decision, and dismissing the petition was issued on October 19, 2021. The Commissioner's Final Decision, dated December 2, 2021, remanded the matter to the OAL "for further fact-finding regarding the current state of the dispute between the parties identified in the August 13, 2021 10-day letter sent by respondent to the Board."

On February 8, 2022, the parties submitted a joint stipulation of facts, dated February 7, 2022, and waived submission of briefs.

JOINT STIPULATION OF FACTS

The parties' joint stipulation of facts states as follows:

> That, in connection with Respondent's "10-Day" Letter to the Kinnelon Board of Education dated August 13, 2021, as referenced the Commissioner's Final Decision dated December 2, 2021, that respondent Karen D'Amico has unilaterally placed S.D. in a private school.
> The Parties further stipulate and agree to forego of any further briefs and/or submissions with the Office of Administrative Law on remand of this matter.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

This matter was transmitted to the OAL by the Department of Education Office of Controversies and Disputes, not the School Ethics Commission, and the statute at issue is N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, which states:

> No member of any board of education shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract with or claim against the board, nor, in the case of local and regional school districts, shall he hold office as mayor or as a member of the governing body of a municipality, nor, in the case of county special services school districts and county vocational school districts, shall he hold office as a member of the governing body of a county.

Thus, the pivotal issue is whether D'Amico, indisputably a Board member, was in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 by being interested directly or indirectly in any claim against the Board[2].

The Commissioner's Final Decision, dated December 2, 2021, remanded the matter to the OAL "for further fact-finding regarding the current state of the dispute between the parties identified in the August 13, 2021 10-day letter[3] sent by respondent to the Board." In this regard, the Final Decision stated, in pertinent part:

> The Commissioner is unable to conclude, based on the current record, whether there is currently a substantial conflict between the parties. The 10-day letter indicates that respondent will unilaterally place her child in a private school if the matter is not resolved, but there is no further information regarding whether a resolution occurred. If a resolution did occur, then the dispute may not be substantial enough to warrant respondent's removal from the board. If a resolution did not occur, and respondent followed through with the unilateral placement, respondent has a claim for monetary relief against the Board that precludes her continued service as a board member.

[2] Per Respondent's attorney, D'Amico has been removed from the Board.
[3] The Verified Petition was filed in April 2021, months before the 10-day letter was sent.

However, even though D'Amico unilaterally placed her child in a private school and despite the fact that the Final Decision states that the "Commissioner has previously held that a Notice of Tort Claim filed against a board of education constitutes a claim," for the reasons that follow, my decision on the merits remains unchanged.

It is the public policy of the State of New Jersey that public entities are only liable for their negligence within the limitations of N.J.S.A. 59:1-1 et seq., the "New Jersey Tort Claims Act." Regarding the time for presentation of a claim against a public entity, N.J.S.A. 59:8-8 (emphasis added) states, in pertinent part:

> A claim relating to a cause of action for death or for injury or damage to person or to property shall be presented as provided in this chapter not later than the 90th day after accrual of the cause of action. After the expiration of six months from the date notice of claim is received, the claimant may file suit in an appropriate court of law. The claimant shall be forever barred from recovering against a public entity or public employee if:
> a. The claimant failed to file the claim with the public entity within 90 days of accrual of the claim except as otherwise provided in N.J.S.A. 59:8-9; or > b. Two years have elapsed since the accrual of the claim; or > c. The claimant or the claimant's authorized representative entered into a settlement agreement with respect to the claim.

A claim against a public entity must be presented by the claimant or by a person acting on his behalf and must include: (a) the name and post office address of the claimant; (b) the post-office address to which the person presenting the claim desires notices to be sent; (c) the date, place and other circumstances of the occurrence or transaction which gave rise to the claim asserted; (d) a general description of the injury, damage or loss incurred so far as it may be known at the time of presentation of the claim; (e) the name or names of the public entity, employee or employees causing the injury, damage or loss, if known; and (f) the amount claimed as of the date of presentation of the claim, including the estimated amount of any prospective injury, damage, or loss, insofar as it may be known at the time of the presentation of the claim, together with the basis of computation of the amount claimed. N.J.S.A. 59:8-4.

Thus, a notice of tort claim against a public entity is not the equivalent of a 10-day letter. Pursuant to 20 U.S.C. § 1412(a)(10)(C)(i), and subject to 20 U.S.C. § 1412(a)(10)(A), a board of education is not required to pay for the cost of education, including special education and related services, of a child with a disability at a private school if the board of education made free, appropriate public education (FAPE) available to the child and the parents elected to place the child in such private school. See also N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.10(a). However, if the parents enrolled the child in a private school without the consent of or referral by the board of education, an administrative law judge may require the agency to reimburse the parents for the cost of that enrollment if the administrative law judge finds that the board of education has not made FAPE available to the child in a timely manner prior to that enrollment. 20 U.S.C. § 1412(a)(10)(C)(ii); see also N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.10(b). The parents must provide notice to the board of education of their concerns and intent to enroll their child in a nonpublic school at public expense. N.J.A.C. 6A:2.10(c). Reimbursement may be reduced or denied for the reasons set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:2.10(d), which include "If, at least 10 business days (including any holidays that occur on a business day) prior to the removal of the student from the public school, the parents did not give written notice to the district board of education of their concerns or intent to enroll their child in a nonpublic school." N.J.A.C. 6A:2.10(d).

Unlike a 10-day letter, which is a notice of concerns or intent to enroll in a private school to avoid reduction or denial of reimbursement for the private school in the event a due process petition alleging a denial of a FAPE is ever filed, a notice of tort claim is a "claim" against a public entity, the entirety of which–including the specifics of the transaction which gave rise to the claim, a general description of the injury, damage or loss incurred and a computation of the amount claimed–must be filed within ninety days, or the claimant is barred from filing suit in an appropriate court of law.

All children with disabilities have the right to a FAPE and parents of a child with disabilities may file a claim against the board of education if the child was denied a FAPE. Further, if the child was denied a FAPE there are various other bases for financial claims for which no 10-day letter is required. Thus, to disqualify a parent of a student with disabilities from the board of education based upon N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 only[4], in the absence of a pending due process petition alleging a denial of FAPE and claim for reimbursement, would essentially disqualify any parent of a child with disabilities from being a board of education member, as the parent always has the right to file a due process petition.

For the reasons set forth hereinabove and in the Initial Decision, dated October 19, 2021, incorporated herein by reference, I CONCLUDE that the 10-day letter is not a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2, and further CONCLUDE that petitioner's motion should be denied, respondent's cross-motion should be granted, and the Verified Petition should be dismissed.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the petitioner's motion for summary decision is DENIED, the respondent's cross-motion for summary decision is GRANTED, and the Verified Petition is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of [4] Although petitioner argued "a disqualifying conflict of interest under the School Ethics Act ("SEA"), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2," this statute does not fall under the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 to -34, and the matter was transmitted to the OAL by the Department of Education Office of Controversies and Disputes, not the School Ethics Commission. Accordingly, this decision is limited to violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 and no determination is made as to conflict of interest or ethics.

Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Marilyn Roman and Sudhan Thomas, Jersey City Board of Education, Hudson County.

This matter involves an appeal of the School Ethics Commission's (Commission) January 25, 2022 decision that appellants Marilyn Roman and Sudhan Thomas, members of the Jersey City Board of Education (Board), violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act (Act) by approving a settlement agreement that resolved litigation filed against them individually. The Commissioner previously affirmed the Commission's decision and the penalty of a reprimand. In the Matter of Marilyn Roman and Sudhan Thomas, Jersey City Bd. of Educ., Hudson Co., Commissioner Decision No. 105-22SEC (May 19, 2022). Appellants appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court, which affirmed the Commissioner's finding that appellants had violated the Act, reversed the imposition of the penalty of a reprimand, and remanded the matter to the Commissioner with a direction to vacate the penalty.

Accordingly, the penalty of reprimand previously imposed on appellants is hereby vacated.

Marilyn Roman and Sudhan Thomas,
Jersey City Board of Education, Hudson County,
Respondent

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from a Complaint that was filed on June 15, 2020, by Matthew Schapiro (Complainant), alleging that Marilyn Roman and Sudhan Thomas (Respondents), members of the Jersey City Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. More specifically, the Complaint alleges that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code).

At its meeting on September 29, 2020, and after reviewing Respondents' Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer (Motion to Dismiss), along with Complainant's response thereto, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) voted to deny Respondents' Motion to Dismiss in its entirety and directed Respondents to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer). On October 17, 2020, Respondents filed an Answer as directed.

At its meeting on December 22, 2020, the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegations that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). Based on its findings of probable cause, the Commission transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a plenary hearing on January 24, 2021, and, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(b), the attorney for the Commission (Petitioner) was charged with prosecuting the allegations in the Complaint which the Commission found probable cause to credit.

At the OAL, the matter was assigned to the Honorable Nanci G. Stokes, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ Stokes). On February 18, 2021, ALJ Stokes conducted telephone conferences in which the parties "agreed that the material facts were largely undisputed, and a motion for summary decision could be appropriate." Initial Decision at 2. On August 3, 2021, Respondents Roman and Thomas filed their motion for summary decision, and on August 10, 2021, the Commission filed its opposition and a cross-motion for summary decision. Id. at 3. On August 26, 2021, Respondents Roman and Thomas filed a response to the cross-motion. Id. On September 6, 2021, Respondents Roman and Thomas filed their reply, and on September 16, 2021, the Commission submitted its reply. Id. On October 18, 2021, at the ALJ's request, Respondents filed a revised stipulation of facts and then ALJ Stokes closed the record. Id.

On October 22, 2021, ALJ Stokes issued an Initial Decision detailing her findings of fact and legal conclusions. The Commission acknowledged receipt of ALJ Stokes' Initial Decision on the date it was issued (October 22, 2021); therefore, the forty-five (45) day statutory period for the Commission to issue a Final Decision was December 6, 2021. Prior to December 6, 2021, the Commission requested a forty-five (45) day extension of time to issue its decision so as to allow the Commission, which only meets monthly, the opportunity to receive and review the full record, including the parties' Exceptions (if any). Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8, and for good cause shown, the Commission was granted an extension until January 20, 2022. Prior to January 20, 2022, the Commission requested and, for good cause shown, was granted a second extension to January 30, 2022, to allow the Commission to adopt its decision at its regularly scheduled meeting on January 25, 2022.

On October 26, 2021, Respondents filed Exceptions to ALJ Stokes' Initial Decision. On November 18, 2021, Petitioner filed Exceptions, and filed a response to Respondents' Exceptions.

At its meeting on December 14, 2021, the Commission considered the full record in this matter, including the filed Exceptions and the filed reply. Thereafter, and at its meeting on January 25, 2022, the Commission voted to adopt the findings of fact from ALJ Stokes' Initial Decision; to adopt the legal conclusion that, based on the admissible evidence, there is sufficient credible evidence to establish a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the Code; and to adopt the recommended penalty of reprimand.

II. Initial Decision

In the Initial Decision, ALJ Stokes offered the following findings of fact as stipulated by the parties:

- As of January 2019, Respondents were members of the Board.
- On January 30, 2020, Jersey City Superintendent of Schools Marcia Lyles (Superintendent Lyles) commenced an action in the U.S. District Court for NJ, accusing the Board and its members of colluding with the Jersey City Education Association (JCEA) to place her unlawfully on administrative leave. Also joined as defendants were the JCEA, and Respondents 'both individually and as a member of" the Board.
- Superintendent Lyles also commenced separate administrative action before the Commissioner of Education on April 18, 2019. This petition alleged that the Board and Respondent Thomas colluded with the JCEA to have Superintendent Lyles placed on leave. Respondent Roman was not joined as a party to that proceeding.
- Respondents were afforded indemnification and legal counsel at the Board's expense. Respondent Thomas was also afforded indemnification and legal counsel at the Board's expense in the administrative case. In all proceedings the Board, and Respondents were represented by Genova Burns LLC.

- On August 20, 2019, all claims against Respondent Thomas in the administrative proceeding before the Commissioner of Education were dismissed for lack of jurisdiction by order of Thomas Betancourt, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ Betancourt).
- On November 7, 2019, the Board voted to approve a written agreement settling both the federal court and administrative proceedings. Respondents were both present and voted in favor of approving the settlement.
- Respondents consulted with Board Counsel, Michael Gross, Esq. before voting on the settlement, and he "explicitly advised" Respondents that there was no ethical impediment to their voting on the matter or signing the settlement agreement.

Initial Decision at 3-4.

After outlining the stipulation of facts, ALJ Stokes presents her conclusions of law. Regarding the motions for Summary Decision, ALJ Stokes asserts that a genuine issue as to the material facts does not exist and the only issues presented are whether Respondents' votes for approval and execution of the settlement agreement violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and if so, any appropriate sanction. ALJ Stokes further asserts a genuine issue does not exist that Respondents served as Board members, they both voted to approve a settlement of federal litigation against the Board and themselves on November 7, 2019, that they signed the settlement agreement, and that the settlement agreement resolved an administrative claim against the Board and Respondent Thomas. However, an order dismissed the claims against Respondent Thomas, concluding that Superintendent Lyles did not present her case to the agency with jurisdiction. Board counsel advised Respondents that there was no ethical impediment that would preclude their involvement in the settlement. Therefore, ALJ Stokes concluded that this case was ripe for summary decision.

As to the School Ethics Act, ALJ Stokes asserts the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegations that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), which "prohibits a school official's actions where such involvement might reasonably be expected to impair their judgement or if benefit is conferred upon the school official or their family members." ALJ Stokes notes Respondents argued that Superintendent Lyles "named them individually in name only and that the only relief sought was against the Board." ALJ Stokes cites, In re Petition for Review of Opinion 552 of Advisory Committee on Professional Ethics, 102 N.J. 194 (1986) (Opinion) and notes that "opinion explains the difference between an action based on 'official-capacity' or action involving 'personal-capacity' and the real party in interest." Initial Decision at 9. With that in mind, ALJ Stokes maintains the lawsuit against the Board and Respondents individually and the administrative action against the Board and Respondent Thomas are "official capacity" actions. Id.

ALJ Stokes further explains, "the Court's decision does not address whether the official's action regarding the litigation or its resolution can create an ethical conflict for the official." Id. at 10. ALJ Stokes notes that Superintendent Lyles' complaint "alleged specific actions improperly taken by [Respondents] for which the Board was vicariously responsible" and the administrative case "asserted [Respondent] Thomas colluded with the JCEA to place [Superintendent] Lyles on administrative leave." Id. Citing In Re Kilmurray, ALJ Stokes maintains, "Regardless, whether the claims against [Respondents] are in their official capacity, which the government entity will be held ultimately responsible financially, the review of a government official's actions regarding such legal matters is from the perspective of a reasonable person." *Id. (*citing In re Kilmurray, Lacey Township Board of Education, Ocean County, C12-94 Comm'n Decision (April 15, 1998), https://www.state.nj.us/education/legal/ethics/index.html).

According to ALJ Stokes, the Commission "argues that the facts here are nearly identical to those in [In re Gonzalez] and warrant the same conclusion," which is that Respondents "voted to approve the settlement agreement and signed it" and, therefore, violated the Act. Id. (citing In re Gonazalez, EEC19282-1, Initial Decision, (Sept. 11, 2018), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/search.html, aff'd, C08-15, Comm'n Decision (Nov. 27, 2018), https://www.state.nj.us/education/legal/ethics/index.html). Id. at 11. However, Respondents argue, "their circumstances are distinct from those" noted in Gonzalez because the petitioners in Gonzalez gained a personal benefit when they dismissed the ethics charges against them where the Board was not the real party in interest." Id. ALJ Stokes maintains "a review of [Superintendent] Lyles' complaint and administrative petitions demonstrates she alleged improper official actions taken by [Respondent] Thomas in both cases and [Respondent] Roman in the lawsuit" and, therefore, their "interest in resolving these claims is one not fully shared with the public." Id. at 11-12.

ALJ Stokes also finds it noteworthy that Respondents "acted upon the advice of counsel and rely upon counsel's determination that no ethical impediment precluded their voting upon or executing the settlement agreement." Id. at 12. ALJ Stokes asserts, "reliance on advice of counsel only serves as a defense to a penalty." Id. (citations omitted). ALJ Stokes further maintains that Board counsel advised Respondents "before the vote, and counsel was well aware of the allegations against [Respondents] in both actions"; Respondents "voiced their concerns that they were named individually in" the matters; Board counsel was experienced and was responsible for "ethically guiding" Board members; Board counsel's recommendation was to "vote upon and execute the settlement agreement" without restrictions; Board counsel certified that the Board "indemnified" Respondents in the Superintendent Lyles' cases "as the matter sought redress from the Board"; and Board counsel believed that Respondents did not secure a personal benefit in resolving those matters and that an ethical problem did not exist. Id. at 13. Therefore, ALJ Stokes concludes Respondents evidenced sensitivity to the issue of potential conflict in seeking counsel's advice and that it was reasonable to rely upon such advice.

ALJ Stokes further notes that because of Superintendent Lyles' alleged unethical conduct of Respondents in the lawsuit and the administrative action that was resolved by the agreement, ALJ Stokes concludes that a public member could justifiably believe that their objectivity was impaired when voting upon and executing the settlement. ALJ Stokes asserts the terms of the settlement agreement "was a bargained-for-exchange where the interests of all parties, including those of" Respondents, was served. Id. at 14. Therefore, ALJ Stokes further concludes that Respondents acted in their official capacity in a matter where they had personal involvement and received a benefit in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c).

Regarding the Code violation, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), ALJ Stokes maintains the Commission's "probable cause determination asserts that because [Respondents] had personal involvement in the litigation that this suggests 'action' beyond the scope of their duties as board members." Id. at 15. However, the Commission "routinely agrees that those 'board members, who are acting in their capacity as board members, and not as private citizens, do not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).'" Id. ALJ Stokes cites several previous cases and asserts "there is no evidence that [Respondent] Thomas or [Respondent] Roman acted outside their official capacities in voting upon or executing the settlement agreement or that the Board did not authorize [Respondent] Thomas or [Respondent] Roman to act concerning the agreement." Id. at 16. According to ALJ Stokes, the vote occurred at a public meeting and "no conduct asserted suggests [Respondent] Thomas or [Respondent] Roman made promises to anyone concerning these acts." Id. Therefore, ALJ Stokes concludes that neither Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in their official actions as Board members voting to approve and executing a settlement resolving the litigation.

As to the penalty, ALJ Stokes maintains that Respondents "seek to rely upon the defense that they acted under the advice of counsel to avoid any penalty, even if [the ALJ] conclude[s] violations occurred." Id. at 17. ALJ Stokes notes Respondent Thomas is no longer a Board member and, therefore, the maximum penalty that he could receive would be a censure. ALJ Stokes reiterates Respondents' "reasonable reliance on the advice of counsel mitigates the penalty here." Id. at 17-19 (citations omitted). Therefore, ALJ Stokes concludes the appropriate penalty for Respondents is reprimand.

In summary, ALJ Stokes orders, based on the stipulation of facts and conclusions of law, that Complainant's motion for summary decision is partially granted as to Respondents violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and that Respondents' motion for summary decision is partially granted as to Respondents' lack of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). ALJ Stokes further orders that Respondents receive a reprimand for their respective violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c).

III. Exceptions

Respondents' Exceptions

In their Exceptions, which were filed on October 26, 2021, Respondents argue they were "never at risk of any financial exposure due to the [D]istrict's legal obligation to indemnify them," and unlike the Respondents in Gonzalez, Respondents Thomas and Roman did not secure a personal benefit unique to them. Respondents disagree with ALJ Stokes' finding that because Respondents "received a release of any claims and a promise of confidentiality, a reasonable person would conclude there was enough of a personal benefit to implicate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c)." Respondents argue the "release was as to claims that [R]espondents were fully indemnified for, and the promise of confidentiality was no more valuable to Respondents than any of the other Board members who voted to approve the settlement and had an interest as Board members in bringing this litigation to an end." Respondents further argue "a reasonable person" knowing that Respondents did not have a personal stake "in the outcome of the proceedings would not assume they were unethically feathering their own nest by voting to approve this settlement."

Next, Respondents "agree that school board members should not be able to hide behind legal advice that they know, or reasonably should know, is questionable." However, Respondents assert that did not happen here. Respondents reassert they "relied in good faith on the advice of an experienced school board attorney regarding a technical legal question, where the Commission had not issued any precedent squarely on point." Respondents note that if the Commission still finds, notwithstanding Respondents' good faith reliance on legal advice, that Respondents should not have voted on the settlement, a penalty should still not be imposed. Respondents maintain that the Commission should "take the opportunity to educate the school community on what it views as the proper interpretation of the rule at issue, provide clear guidance prospectively, and refrain from imposing discipline."

Petitioner's Exceptions and Reply to Respondents' Exceptions

In Respondents' Exceptions, which were filed on November 18, 2021, Petitioner (Commission) initially notes that they agree with ALJ Stokes' decision that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), but "takes exception to the conclusion that Respondents did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and, therefore, recommends that the Initial Decision be modified. More specifically, Petitioner asserts ALJ Stokes "correctly determined" Respondents' approval and execution of the settlement agreement violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), because Superintendent Lyles agreed not to sue Respondents "in exchange for her resignation and monetary consideration." Furthermore, Superintendent Lyles agreed to "dismiss the administrative action and federal lawsuit and to never disclose any of the circumstances leading to the agreement." Petitioner contends ALJ Stokes concluded, based on the settlement agreement that a "public member could justifiably believe that [R]espondents' objectivity was impaired when voting to approve that settlement agreement – which served the interests of all parties involved – and therefore, [R]espondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c)." However, according to Petitioner, ALJ Stokes "incorrectly determined" that Complainant did not demonstrate that Respondents "made promises to anyone concerning these acts." Petitioner notes that ALJ Stokes "failed to consider that [R]espondents' actions to execute the settlement agreement had the potential to compromise the Board" and, therefore, Petitioner argues that the ALJ's determination that Respondents did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), is "incorrect[]."

Petitioner argues that ALJ Stokes' conclusion that Respondents did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), "must be rejected, and her decision modified to reflect a violation of the Code" because Respondents did not deny "the undisputed facts of this matter" and they "entered into a settlement agreement that released claims made against them as individuals." Petitioner further argues when Respondents voted to approve the settlement agreement at a public Board meeting, "and did so without Board approval," Respondents "acted beyond the scope of their duties that compromised the [B]oard." Petitioner cites I/M/O Lorenzo Richardson, Jersey City Bd. of Educ., Hudson Cty., 2021 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 30 (Jan. 26, 2021), and notes that similarly, Respondents "acted beyond the scope of their duties, and compromised the Board, by resolving a legal action, by entering into a settlement agreement, by signing the agreement with their individual names, and by voting to approve that settlement agreement at a Board meeting – all of which was done despite a clear conflict of interest." Therefore, Petitioner asserts Respondents violated the Code and the Initial Decision should be modified to reflect this violation.

As to a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and Respondents' exceptions, Petitioner asserts ALJ Stokes' "reasoning ... is in line with the law, and the ALJ's conclusion is not erroneous." Petitioner reaffirms the settlement was "a bargained-for-exchange agreement that served the interest of [R]espondents." Petitioner argues, "Regardless of whether [R]espondents faced direct financial liability from the administrative or federal actions, [R]espondents engaged in conduct that served their interests not shared in common with other members of the public" and, therefore, ALJ Stokes did not "err in her conclusion" that Respondents "acted in a manner where they had personal involvement and received a benefit in violation of the Act." Furthermore, according to Petitioner, Respondents' argument that their "good faith reliance on legal advice was a valid defense and justifies no disciplinary action against them" is also incorrect. Petitioner notes ALJ Stokes' conclusion that Respondents' reliance on legal advice "does not insulate an official from a finding that a violation occurred, but it acts as a defense to a penalty for that violation" is correct and as for the penalty, Petitioner further notes ALJ Stokes "correctly assessed the penalty of reprimand ... ." Therefore, Petitioner reasserts the Initial Decision should be "adopted in part as to a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and rejected in part and modified to reflect a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e)."

IV. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission adopts ALJ Stokes' findings of fact, and adopts the legal conclusion that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). In finding a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when Respondents voted to approve a written agreement settling proceedings in which Respondents were parties, ALJ Stokes properly concluded that Respondents acted in their official capacity in a matter where they had a personal involvement and received a benefit. The Commission holds that ALJ Stokes correctly determined that Respondents' approval and execution of the settlement agreement violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). The Commission further concurs that Respondents did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). Respondents neither acted outside their official capacities nor made promises to anyone in connection with voting upon or executing the settlement agreement at issue.

V. Decision

The Commission adopts ALJ Stokes' Initial Decision finding that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), but did not violate N.J.S.A. 12-24.1(e).

VI. Penalty

In recommending the penalty, ALJ Stokes notes that Respondent Thomas is no longer a Board member and, therefore, the maximum penalty that he could receive would be a censure. ALJ Stokes further highlights Respondents' reasonable reliance on the advice of counsel. Based on the above, the Commission adopts the recommended penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner for review of the Commission's recommended sanctions. Parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's findings of violations of the Act; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction and an appeal of the Commission's findings of violations of the Act.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanctions of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's findings of violations may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended sanctions to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's findings of violations must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4, et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanctions will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the findings of violations on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's brief on appeal.

Ms. Batista: Good evening. Kindly be advised that the Parties are in the process of actually executing the settlement agreement. I received the agreement today from Mr. Oxfeld, which has been signed by the Petitioner. In turn, I have

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

Clifton EA Grievance # 2023-01

and

Clifton EA and Clifton BOE, PERC Docket No. CO-2023-151

Clifton EA and Clifton BOE, Agency Ref. No. 53-3/23, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03573-23

The Clifton Board of Education (the "District") and the Clifton Education Association ("Association") have voluntarily resolved all three (3) disputed matters regarding the Bomb Threat Procedures and enter into the following Stipulation of Settlement, which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them in full and the complete settlement of all outstanding issues as detailed below.

WHEREAS, on or about February 27, 2023, the Association filed a grievance against the District regarding the December 22, 2022 Bomb Threat Procedures, which was filed as CEA Grievance 2023-01; and

WHEREAS, on or about March 8, 2023, the Association filed an Unfair Practice Charge ("UPC") against the District regarding the December 22, 2022 Bomb Threat Procedures, which was docketed with the Public Employment Relations Commission ("PERC") as CO-2023-151; and

WHEREAS, on or about March 8, 2023, the Association filed a Petition of Appeal against the District regarding the December 22, 2022 Bomb Threat Procedures with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, which was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, and docketed as Agency Ref. No. 53-3/23 and OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03573-23; and

WHEREAS, the Parties intend to adopt, by way of compromise and accord, an amicable global resolution of CEA Grievance 2023-01, CO-2023-151, and Agency Ref. No. 53-3/23/OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03573-23; and

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound, the Parties mutually agree as follows:

(a) The District agrees to immediately revise the Bomb Threat Procedures communicated on December 22, 2022, by deleting the portion of the procedure that referred to "Mobilize Internal Search/Response Teams." In making said revision, the District agrees that Association members will not be deployed to conduct bomb searches either inside or outside the building.

(b) The Association agrees that while in an active bomb threat is deemed to be a "shelter in place," the District may properly direct Association members assigned to classrooms, offices, auditoriums, gymnasiums, and/or bathrooms to visually scan the area the staff member is located in at the time.

(c) The revised Bomb Threat Procedures is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

(d) Except as set forth in (a) above, nothing herein shall be deemed to preclude the District from exercising its managerial prerogative to adopt any future modification(s) to Bomb Threat Procedures, provided any impact on terms and conditions of employment will be negotiated prior to the implementation of any such modification. Unless otherwise mandated by law, the Parties agree that any future modification will be consistent with (a) and (b) above.

(e) The Association agrees to immediately dismiss and/or withdraw with prejudice the three pending matters— CEA Grievance 2023-01, CO-2023-151, and Agency Ref. No. 53-3/23/OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03573-23.

(f) This Agreement is a result of a voluntary compromise. It is expressly understood and agreed that nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be construed as, nor shall be represented by any party, their attorneys or their agents to be, as an admission or determination of liability by the District, or its agents, employees or members, as to the validity of any claims asserted in the three actions.

(g) This Agreement sets forth the complete understanding and entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings between the Parties.

(h) This Agreement may not be modified, altered, changed, discharged, terminated or waived except upon express written consent of the parties wherein specific reference is made to this Agreement. It is agreed that there are no other understandings or agreements (either written or oral) which would have any impact upon the present Action.

(i) This agreement shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other District employees.

(j) The Parties certify that they have had the opportunity to discuss this Agreement with counsel. They are fully satisfied with the services of their counsel with respect to both this Agreement and they enter into this Agreement knowingly, willingly and without any coercion or improper inducements.

(k) Each signatory represents that she or he is a Party or has been duly authorized by a Party to sign on that Party's behalf and that, in the case of the District, all procedural formalities attendant to the execution of this Agreement have been satisfied. The signatory for the District further covenants that he or she is duly empowered by the District to sign this Agreement and that there is no legal reason which prevents or will prevent the District from completely performing its obligations under this agreement.

(l) This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

(m) The Parties agree that this agreement may be signed in counterparts and that facsimiles of signatures will have the same force and effect as original signatures.

(n) This Stipulation of Settlement is subject to the formal approval of the Board of Education of the Clifton Public Schools.

Final Decision

J.S., on behalf of minor child,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

The petition in this matter is one of several that were filed in late 2022, challenging the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education's (Board) decision to deny bus transportation to certain students. Among other things, the petitioners alleged that their children would be required to walk on hazardous routes to and from school and/or that they lived more than two miles from school and therefore met the requirements to receive transportation under the Board's remote bussing policy. In September 2023, the Board revised their transportation policies, designated additional hazardous routes, and passed a resolution approving funding to provide transportation for preschool and elementary school students if they lived 1.25 or more miles from their assigned schools. In light of these changes, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the issues raised in the appeals had been rendered moot.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that this matter is now moot.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this case, and the petition is dismissed.

Rita Barone, Esq., for respondent (Flanagan, Barone & O'Brien, attorneys)

Record Closed: September 22, 2023 Decided: December 18, 2023

BEFORE WILLIAM COURTNEY, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") on January 10, 2023, for emergent relief pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13. On January 21, 2023, the parties entered into an interim Settlement Agreement whereby respondent South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education ("Board") agreed to provide bussing services to petitioner's child and petitioner agreed to place the Petition of Appeal on the OAL's inactive list. The parties further agreed that the Interim Agreement would remain in effect until June 30, 2023 (the end of the 2022/2023 school year). The settlement resulted in an Order of Inactivity dated February 22, 2023.

On September 22, 2023, the Board advised this tribunal that it had revised the Board's transportation policies and also designated additional hazardous routes. The Board also passed a resolution approving funding to provide transportation for pre-school students and elementary school students if they lived 1.25 miles or more from their assigned schools.

Given the approval of these policy changes and approval of the transportation funding along with the Board's transportation of students that live 1.25 miles or more from their assigned schools, I FIND that the issues raised in this appeal have been rendered moot.

I, therefore, CONCLUDE that this matter is no longer a contested case before the OAL.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that this matter be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." Final Decision

P.Z., on behalf of minor child,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

The petition in this matter is one of several that were filed in late 2022, challenging the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education's (Board) decision to deny bus transportation to certain students. Among other things, the petitioners alleged that their children would be required to walk on hazardous routes to and from school and/or that they lived more than two miles from school and therefore met the requirements to receive transportation under the Board's remote bussing policy. In September 2023, the Board revised their transportation policies, designated additional hazardous routes, and passed a resolution approving funding to provide transportation for preschool and elementary school students if they lived 1.25 or more miles from their assigned schools. In light of these changes, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the issues raised in the appeals had been rendered moot.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that this matter is now moot.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this case, and the petition is dismissed.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

E.H., on behalf of minor child,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the South Orange-Maplewood School District, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

The petition in this matter is one of several that were filed in late 2022, challenging the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education's (Board) decision to deny bus transportation to certain students. Among other things, the petitioners alleged that their children would be required to walk on hazardous routes to and from school and/or that they lived more than two miles from school and therefore met the requirements to receive transportation under the Board's remote bussing policy. In September 2023, the Board revised their transportation policies, designated additional hazardous routes, and passed a resolution approving funding to provide transportation for preschool and elementary school students if they lived 1.25 or more miles from their assigned schools. In light of these changes, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the issues raised in the appeals had been rendered moot.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that this matter is now moot.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this case, and the petition is dismissed.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the City of Salem,
Salem County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Bordentown Regional School District, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, the Board of Education of the City of Salem (Salem), challenged the homelessness determination regarding the "M" family for the 2020-2021 school year issued by the Burlington County Interim Executive County Superintendent (IECS) in March 2021, arguing that the "M" children should not have been deemed homeless for that period of time. Further, Salem argued that, should the homelessness determination be upheld, its tuition responsibility should be credited by respondent, the Bordentown Regional School District (Bordentown), for the amount of Application for State School Aid (ASSA) funds Salem should have received, (but did not apply for) from the State for educating the homeless "M" students. Bordentown contended that the homelessness determination should be upheld and that it should receive payment from Salem for the cost of the "M" children's tuition, transportation, and educational costs consistent with the homelessness determination. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the "M" family lived in Salem until July 2018, when they became homeless; they resided at a motel in Salem until July 2019, when the mother and children moved to her parent's home in the Bordentown school district, where the children were registered for the 2019-2020 school year; in February 2020, the family moved to transitional housing in Mount Holly, where they remained for the 2020-2021 school year; at issue here is financial responsibility for the "M" children's education during for 2020-2021; the determination by the IECS that the family continued to be homeless for the 2020-2021 school year was appropriate, and Salem was the district of residence for that school year; thus, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12.1, Salem is fiscally responsible for the four "M" children's tuition and transportation costs for 2020-2021 from the first day of the school year until February 26, 2021, when fiscal responsibility shifted to the State. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to Bordentown; Salem is responsible to pay Bordentown for educating the "M" students for 2020-2021, through the date fiscal responsibility shifted to the State; if in fact respondent sought and received any ASSA funds for the "M" children for the 2020-2021 school year, then the amount of ASSA funding respondent actually received for the "M" children should be credited toward the tuition costs petitioner owes respondent.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, dismissed the petition, and ordered Salem to pay respondent the tuition and costs for the "M" children for 2020-2021, from the first day of school until February 26, 2021, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:38-19.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the City of Salem,
Salem County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Bordentown Regional School District, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Upon careful examination, the Commissioner adopts the comprehensive Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein. In summary, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the homelessness determination rendered March 10, 2021, by the Interim Executive County Superintendent (IECS) regarding the "M" family for the 2020-2021 school year was appropriate. The Commissioner also agrees that petitioner's school district is the school district of residence for the "M" family for the 2020-2021 school year. Consequently, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12.1, petitioner is fiscally responsible for each of the four "M" children's tuition and transportation costs for the 2020-2021 school year from the first day of the school year until February 26, 2021, at which time the State of New Jersey assumed fiscal responsibility.

Additionally, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that respondent shall not be required to credit petitioner for Application for State School Aid (ASSA) funding for the 2020-2021 school year that petitioner could have received for the "M" children had it applied for same. That said, while the record fails to establish that respondent sought or received ASSA funding for the "M" children for the 2020-2021 school year, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that if in fact respondent sought and received any such funds for the "M" children for the 2020-2021 school year, then the amount of ASSA funding respondent actually received for the "M" children shall be credited toward the tuition costs petitioner owes respondent.

Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed. Per N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12.1 and N.J.S.A. 18A:38-19, petitioner shall pay respondent the tuition and transportation costs for the four "M" children that accrued for the 2020-2021 school year from the first day of the school year until February 26, 2021.

CITY OF SALEM BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Corey E. Ahart, Esq., for petitioner (Corey E. Ahart, Esquire, Attorney at Law)

Seth N. Broder, Esq., for respondent (Broder Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: November 27, 2023 Decided: December 15, 2023

BEFORE ELAINE B. FRICK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The parties have each submitted summary decision motions, asserting there are no material facts in dispute, and that the matter can be determined as a matter of law. Petitioner, City of Salem Board of Education (Salem) challenges the homelessness determination by the Interim Executive County Superintendent (IECS) of Burlington County, issued on March 10, 2021, regarding a family with four students, for the 2020-2021 school year. Salem alternatively contends that if the homeless determination is upheld, that its tuition responsibility for the portion of the 2020-2021 school year should be credited by respondent, Bordentown Regional School District (Bordentown) for the amount of Application for State School Aid (ASSA) funds Salem should have received from the State for the students. Bordentown asserts it is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law, upholding the IECS homeless determination and it should be paid by Salem for the cost of tuition, transportation, and educational costs, consistent with the IECS's determination for a portion of the 2020-2021 school year, until the date the State assumes fiscal responsibility for the students. Bordentown opposes Salem's contention that it must be responsible to provide a credit to Salem for the ASSA funds Salem could have received for the students for the 2020-2021 school year.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 10, 2021, correspondence was issued by Raymond Marini, Interim Executive County Superintendent (IECS), Burlington County, which rendered a determination of homelessness for the "M"[1] family for the 2020-2021 school year. It was also determined that Salem continued to be the school district of residence, with continuing fiscal responsibility for tuition, through February 26, 2021, at which time the State of New Jersey would become responsible for tuition. Salem submitted a petition of appeal to the Department of Education (DOE). The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) where it was filed on December 14, 2021, to be heard as a contested matter. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 14B-15 and 14F-1 to 14F-13.

Multiple telephonic conferences were conducted with the parties. The parties made continuing efforts to resolve the matter. Ultimately, each sought to file a summary decision motion, asserting that the facts are not in dispute and the matter is solely a legal issue determination. Extensions for submissions were granted and additional submissions were sought and received. Oral argument was heard via Zoom on July 13, 2023. The record closed upon final review of submissions and argument on November 27, 2023.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The parties agreed upon the following undisputed statement of material facts, and I thus FIND as FACTS the following:

1. Bordentown Regional School District Board of Education ("Bordentown") has a principal place of business located at 318 Ward Avenue, Bordentown, New Jersey 08505.

2. Salem City Board of Education ("Salem") has a principal place of business located at 205 Walnut Street, Suite 408, Salem, New Jersey 08079.

3. Bordentown seeks partial payment/tuition for the 2020-2021 school year from Salem for four (4) students that attend and have attended school in Bordentown since September of 2019.

4. The mother and four (4) children lived in Salem City up through July of 2019, when they were evicted and then moved to the Motor Lodge in Salem City. The mother and four (4) children then moved to a relatives' home located at 16 Hogback Road, Trenton, New Jersey 08620, which was/is within the Bordentown Regional School District.

5. The four (4) children registered for school in Bordentown for the 2019-2020 school year while living at the 16 Hogback Road address as of July 2019.

6. The family then moved from 16 Hogback Road into transitional housing in Mount Holly, New Jersey located at 126 Cherry Street, #3, on or around February 25, 2020.

7. The family was placed there by the Board of Social Services and have lived there since February of 2020.

8. The mother and four (4) students in question did not reside in Salem for any portion of the 2019-2020 school year while attending school in Bordentown.

9. By letter, dated May 11, 2020, Bordentown requested of the Interim Executive County Superintendent of the Burlington County Office, New Jersey Department of Education, an initial determination of homelessness pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.7, regarding the four (4) students whom were attending Bordentown's school district despite being homeless and living in transitional housing in Mount Holly, New Jersey.

10. By letter, dated July 1, 2020, Daryl Minus-Vincent, the Interim Executive County Superintendent of Burlington County, determined the four (4) students, and their mother, were in fact homeless pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2 and that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(a), Salem was the school district of residence and financially responsible for the four (4) students.

11. It was determined that the four (4) children have never been domiciled in another jurisdiction and Salem City must reimburse Bordentown the cost of tuition and transportation for the 2019-2020 school year.

12. The Defendant, Salem, had ninety (90) days to appeal the determination for the 2019-2020 school year. No appeal was filed by Salem.

13. Bordentown then on December 7, 2020, filed a lawsuit, pursuant to R. 4:67-6, seeking reimbursement for the cost of tuition and transportation from Salem. The matter was assigned to Judge Harrington in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Burlington County.

14. It was during that litigation that Judge Harrington required Salem to submit a request for homelessness to the Executive County Superintendent for the 2020-2021 school year.

15. That determination request was filed on or about February 12, 2021.

16. A Consent Order dated November 29, 2021, was entered into between the parties whereby it was settled and agreed that Salem would pay Bordentown tuition for the 2019-2020 school year, with credits given to Salem for money received by Bordentown from the State for the four (4) children's Application for State School Aid ("ASSA").

17. Salem paid Bordentown the 2019-2020 tuition less the payments received from the credits for the "ASSA.". The 2019-2020 school year tuition issue was settled.

18. The four (4) children again registered to attend Bordentown schools for the 2020-2021 school year.

19. At the time of the registration in Bordentown for the 2020-2021 school year, the family was still living at the Mount Holly address.

20. A request for Determination of Domicile and Homelessness, or Non-Homelessness, was filed with the Interim Executive County Superintendent on February 9, 2021, as per the direction of Judge Harrington.

21. The Executive Superintendent, in a ruling dated March 10, 2021, found that Salem is responsible for tuition per N.J.S.A. 6A:17-2.8(a) for the four (4) children, but only through February 26, 2021, at which time the State of New Jersey takes over responsibility.

22. There was nothing in the determination regarding any credits due Salem per the "ASSA" or any other credits.

23. Salem filed a timely appeal to this determination and is now pending in the Office of Administrative Law related to the 2020-2021 school year.

(Stipulated Statement of Material Facts.)

The following additional facts were gleaned from the written submissions of the parties or otherwise affirmed during oral argument, which I FIND as FURTHER FACTS:

The "M" family, which included the four students, was evicted from their residence in Salem in or about June or July 2018. The family moved into a local motor lodge/motel after the eviction, which was also located in Salem. They resided there for approximately one year, until July 2019, when the mother and four children moved into the mother's parents' home, located on Hogback Road, within the Bordentown school district. The mother later explained that they moved from the motor lodge due to a domestic violence situation and were "doubled up" at her parents' home.

The children were registered in the Bordentown school for the 2019-2020 school year. The children's grandparents' address on Hogback Road was used as their residential address. The grandmother authored a handwritten note on August 15, 2019, indicating that her daughter and her four children were living with them at the Hogback Road address "until further notice." (Exhibit C, attachment "A" of Bordentown's Brief in support of Summary Decision Motion.) Bordentown did not know at the time of registration of the children for the 2019-2020 school year, that their living situation was considered temporary due to the homeless status of the family.

Bordentown learned on February 27, 2020, by a letter from People First Emergency Shelter Housing Program, that "M" family, with the four children, had been placed in a transitional housing facility in Mt. Holly on February 25, 2020. The placement was through a social services agency. (Exhibit H, Bordentown's supplemental brief.)

When Bordentown learned about the placement of the children at the transitional housing location in Mt. Holly, the school's homeless liaison, Tina Zack, took immediate action the next day and spoke to the mother and completed a McKinney Vento identification form. The mother confirmed the family's last permanent address was in Salem, where they had resided for nine years until they were evicted in approximately June or July 2018, and the family went to live in the local motor lodge/motel in Salem. They lived there for approximately one year, until July 2019, when the mother and children moved due to domestic violence and moved in with the mother's parents at Hogback Road.

The children were registered in the Bordentown school district because the Hogback Road home was within the Bordentown district. The mother and four children lived at the Hogback Road home for six- and one-half months, until February 2020, when the mother's parents kicked her out of the house, and she was forced to leave with the children due to verbal abuse from her father. (Supplemental Residency Information form, Exhibit C, attachment D, Brief by Bordentown.) The mother explained that they were thus forced out of that temporary housing situation and placed at the Mt. Holly transitional housing location. The "M" family continued to reside at the transitional housing location for more than a year, beyond February 2021.

Bordentown's liaison, Kent, communicated with the homeless liaison for the Salem City School District, John Bacon, and informed him of the family's situation. The two liaisons engaged in further communications, with Bordentown asserting that Salem should be the responsible district of residence. Salem asserted that the Hogback Road residence should be deemed the address of record, given that Bordentown accepted the students and registered them in that school for the 2019-2020 school year. The two districts continued to communicate and assert their positions on the matter, regarding which district should be responsible for the tuition for the children.

Bordentown filed for Application for State School Aid (ASSA) for the four students, regarding the 2019-2020 school year. Bordentown received ASSA funds for the 2019-2020 school year from the state.

As of May 11, 2020, Bordentown requested an initial homelessness determination from the Interim Executive County Superintendent, Daryl Minus-Vincent (IECS Minus-Vincent.). (Exhibit "A" Bordentown's Brief.) On July 1, 2020, IECS Minus-Vincent issued his determination that the "M" family met the criteria for homelessness outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2, and since the family never resided anywhere besides Salem for more than one year and was never domiciled in another jurisdiction, Salem was the school district of residence and financially responsible for the four students for the 2019-2020 school year. (Exhibit B, Bordentown's brief.) Salem did not appeal the determination. Salem asserted in its supplemental brief that the appeal was not filed due to a technical malware attack.

Communications between Bordentown and Salem about the status of the students continued, regarding the 2020-2021 school year. As of October 23, 2020, Salem's homelessness liaison sent an email to the Bordentown liaison regarding the students' status and whether Bordentown was claiming the students on its ASSA application for the 2020-2021 school year. (Exhibit M, Bordentown's supplemental brief.) On October 26, 2020, Bordentown's liaison responded, providing information that the district where the children last resided before becoming homeless is the children's district of residence, which would be Salem, and Salem would report the students as being sent to Bordentown. (Exhibit M, Bordentown's supplemental brief.) The Bordentown liaison followed up with an email to the ASSA email address, and received a reply that she was correct in identifying Salem to be the district of residence for the students, for ASSA purposes, and Salem having a sending/receiving relationship with Bordentown, where the children were attending school. This confirming email information was forwarded to the Salem liaison. (Exhibit M, Bordentown's supplemental brief.)

Bordentown sought reimbursement for the cost of the tuition for the students from Salem, for the 2019-2020 school year, by filing a lawsuit in Superior Court. During that litigation, the Superior Court Judge required Salem to submit a request for homelessness to the IECS for the 2020-2021 school year. That request was filed by Salem on or about February 9, 2021. (Exhibit D Bordentown's brief.) On March 10, 2021, IECS Raymond Marini, issued his determination that the family continued to meet the criteria of homelessness for the 2020-2021 school year, which would render Salem as the district with the continuing financial responsibility. However, pursuant to 6A:17-2.8(c), after one year, the financial responsibility would shift from Salem to the State, as of February 26, 2021. (Exhibit F Bordentown's brief.) Salem's appeal of that homelessness determination is at issue here.

Invoices issued from Bordentown to Salem in August of 2021, seeking payment of tuition for the 2020-2021 school year for the "M" family students. (Exhibit K and L, Bordentown's supplement brief.)

The parties entered into a Consent Order in the Superior Court litigation, confirming that Salem would pay the 2019-2020 tuition for the students to Bordentown, with credit given to Salem for the ASSA funds Bordentown had received from the state. (Exhibit E Bordentown's brief.) The Consent Order was entered by a Superior Court Judge on November 29, 2021.

Salem's appeal in the instant matter of the homelessness determination made by IECS Marini on March 10, 2021, was transmitted from the DOE to the OAL, and filed at the OAL on December 14, 2021.

Arguments of the parties

Salem argues that there are two simple issues: first, the students should not have been deemed homeless for the 2020-2021 school year, but if they are so deemed homeless, and Salem is required to pay the partial tuition for the 2020-2021 school year according to IECS's decision, Salem must be credited by Bordentown for the ASSA funds, per student, per the law, as stated in N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(a) and (b). Salem claims it could not list the four students on its ASSA application because the students were registered in Bordentown for the 2019-2020 school year, and thus Bordentown reimbursed Salem for that year. Since the students again registered in Bordentown for the 2020-2021 school year, Bordentown should have offered reimbursement again to Salem.

It was asserted in Salem's response to Bordentown's supplemental submission that the "M" family "was not really homeless when the 2019-2020 school year began" since the family had moved in with relatives who resided in Bordentown district. They were not really homeless until they were placed in transitional housing in February 2020.

Since the homelessness was "backdated" to September of 2019, Salem contends that the transitional housing must be backdated in this instance. Salem does recognize that the 2019-2020 homelessness determination is not at issue here, yet has made arguments essentially contesting that determination, in its efforts to argue against the homeless determination made for the 2020-2021 school year, which is the determination at issue.

Salem asserts that Bordentown cannot argue that since they did not submit for the ASSA funds, they do not have to credit Salem for any tuition. Rather, Bordentown was aware of the homelessness determination yet allowed the students to register in its district for the 2020-2021 school year. It had an affirmative duty to have declined such registration and to direct the students to register in Salem. That would have enabled Salem to apply for the ASSA funding.

Salem thus seeks the entry of summary decision finding Bordentown responsible to pay the 2020-2021 school year tuition for the four students since they accepted the students into their school, which Salem contends would deem the students' placement as permanent. However, if the IECS's decision of March 10, 2021, is upheld, Salem shall be entitled to receive reimbursement from Bordentown, for the ASSA funds for the four students for the 2020-2021 school year, whether Bordentown received the funds or not.

Bordentown contends that the homelessness determination made by the IECS was correct and should be affirmed. Salem's obligation to pay tuition for the four students through the 2020-2021 school year continued, pursuant to the regulations. The family continued to reside in the transitional housing facility in Mt. Holly. Salem thus continued to be financially responsible as the district of residence, as had been confirmed previously for the 2019-2020 school year by the prior IECS, which determination was not appealed by Salem. Bordentown cannot be held accountable to reimburse Salem for ASSA funds, since Salem knew of the family's status and should have applied within the required time frame, for the ASSA funding. Bordentown thus asserts that summary decision should be granted, with affirmation of the IECS homeless determination of March 10, 2021, and Salem shall pay Bordentown for the partial tuition and transportation costs of the students.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

In an administrative law matter, a "party may move for summary decision upon all or any of the substantive issues in a contested case." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). The motion "shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits" and the decision "may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). The non-moving party will prevail if they "set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Id.

This standard is also set forth in New Jersey Court Rule 4:46-2, regarding a motion for summary judgment, which is substantially equivalent to an administrative law summary decision motion. In Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995), the New Jersey Supreme Court stated that a motion judge determining whether a genuine issue of material fact exists is to consider "whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party."

"The 'judge's function is not . . . to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial.'" Brill at 540, citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986). "An evidentiary hearing is mandated only when the proposed administrative action is based on disputed adjudicatory facts." In re Farmers' Mutual Fire Assurance Association of New Jersey, 256 N.J. Super. 607, 618 (App. Div. 1992).

A federal law, known as the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 11341, et seq., requires states to provide homeless children with access to free public education, as available to all other students. The McKinney-Vento requirements are addressed in the New Jersey Administrative Code, including the financial responsibilities of school districts and the State, for the cost of educating homeless students.

A "homeless child" is a "child or youth who lacks a fixed, regular, and adequate residence." N.J.A.C. 6A:17-1.2. The regulations state that a child is homeless when they reside in any "publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living accommodations" and specifies such places to be hotels or motels, congregate shelters, or transitional housing. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a)1. The regulations provide that a child is homeless if they reside in "the residence of relatives or friends" when done "out of necessity because his or her family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own." N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a)3. There is no time limit on homelessness. A child will continue to be homeless until they have a fixed, regular, and adequate primary nighttime residence. M.O'K. and S.O'K. o/b/o K.O'K., A.O'K. and C.O'K. v. Board of Education of the Borough of Cresskill, Bergen County and Board of Education of the Borough of Little Ferry, Bergen County, EDU 14830-13, Comm'r Final Agency Decision (August 12, 2014).

The regulations define the "school district of residence" for a homeless child as "the school district in which the parent or guardian of a homeless child resided prior to becoming homeless." N.J.A.C. 6A:17-1.2. This term is synonymous with "school district of origin" referenced in the McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act. Id. The school district of residence for a homeless child shall be responsible for, among other things, paying the cost of tuition when the child attends school in another school district, and providing transportation for the child to get to school. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(a)2-3.

Here, Salem is asserting that the family should not have been considered homeless since they resided for six months with other family members in the Bordentown district and then moved to transitional housing placement in Mt. Holly. This is contrary to the first homeless determination made in the matter for the 2019-2020, which was unchallenged by Salem. The IECS here determined, consistent with the regulations, that the "M" family continued to be homeless after they were evicted from their Salem residence, then resided to a motel in Salem, then moved in with family members as a temporary resolution due to domestic violence, then were placed in transitional housing in Mt. Holly by a service agency. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2(a). The housing circumstances are undisputed. The family continued to lack fixed, regular, and primary housing, from the time of their eviction from their Salem home and were placed by the social service agency into transitional housing. I thus CONCLUDE that the IECS determination that this was a homeless family and homeless students for the 2020-2021 school year was appropriate.

Regarding the cost of tuition for homeless students, the regulations provide:

> When the homeless child or youth is enrolled in a school district other than the school district of residence, the school district of residence shall pay to the school district of enrollment the tuition costs pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-19, until the parent establishes a permanent residence or is deemed domiciled in another jurisdiction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1d. At that time, the school district of residence or the school district in which the parent has been deemed domiciled shall pay tuition to the school district of enrollment.
> N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(a).

In this matter, Salem was deemed to be the district of residence for the students. This was determined in the first homelessness determination for the 2019-2020 school year, by IECS Minus-Vincent. Salem did not appeal that determination. Although it asserts it was prevented from filing due to a malware attack, there is nothing else in the record to support that is reason why they did not appeal, nor has it been demonstrated there was any effort made to appeal out of time.

The IECS determination in the matter at hand was rendered for the 2020-2021 school year. The family was in the same position as it was when the 2019-2020 school year determination was made. The family was evicted from their Salem residence in 2018, then moved into a motel in Salem, where they resided for approximately one year, then moved in with family in the Bordentown district, due to domestic violence. That was a temporary move for the family, as they were doubled up and eventually had to be placed in transitional housing in Mt. Holly due to verbal domestic abuse. These facts are unchallenged. The family continued to reside in Mt. Holly through the time they again enrolled in Bordentown for the 2020-2021 school year. They were still residing in the transitional housing at the time of the March 10, 2021, homelessness determination. Hence, the IECS determined that Salem was the continuing school district of residence for the 2020-2021 school year. I CONCLUDE that the determination of Salem being the school district of residence was appropriate; it was consistent with the regulations; and it was consistent with the prior unchallenged determination by the IECS for the 2019-2020 school year, when the circumstances remained unchanged as to the family's homelessness circumstances.

There is state funding available for the school district of residence for a homeless family's students, through the ASSA program.

> The school district of residence shall list the child on its annual Application for State School Aid (ASSA) pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-33 until the parent establishes a permanent residence or is deemed domiciled in another jurisdiction pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1.d. At that time, the school district of residence or the school district in which the parent has been deemed domiciled shall list the student on its ASSA.
> N.J.A.C. 6A:17.28(b).

The State is required to assume fiscal responsibility for homeless students' tuition under circumstances identified in N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(c). Such responsibility shifts to the State when students have resided in a transitional housing facility, in a school district other than the school district of residence, for more than a year. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(c)3.

Here, the IECS determined that as of February 26, 2021, fiscal responsible for the students shifted from Salem to the State pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(c)3, since the family resided in the transitional housing, in another school district, for more than a year. Neither party disputes that determination. I thus CONCLUDE that the IECS determination that the State must assume financial responsibility for the students as of February 26, 2021, in the midst of the 2020-2021 school year was appropriate.

Salem has been found to be the district of residence for the students and deemed responsible for the cost of the students for a portion of the 2020-2021 school year. Since Salem was the school district of residence, it should have listed the children on its annual ASSA, since the parent had not established a permanent residence. Salem did not do so. Salem contends that Bordentown acted inappropriately by enrolling the students again for the 2020-2021 school year and should have directed them to enroll in Salem.

Moreover, Salem argues it was not given a definitive answer from Bordentown as to whether it should be filing for ASSA funds until sometime in November 2020. Since Bordentown did not file for ASSA funds, and failed to advise Salem to do so, Salem further asserts that Bordentown should be held accountable and reimburse Salem for the ASSA funds for the four students, or otherwise credit Salem for such funds.

Salem recognizes that if the IECS decision is upheld regarding homelessness, it will be is responsible to pay to Bordentown for having educated the students, through the date of February 26, 2021, when the State is required to assume responsibility due to the family having resided in transitional housing for one year as of then. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.8(c)3. Bordentown argues that Salem was on notice about the circumstances of the family; knew that Bordentown had re-registered the students; and Salem knew or should have known that it could apply for the ASSA funds for the students for the 2020-2021 school year. Bordentown disclaims any responsibility for Salem having failed to apply for ASSA funds for this family.

I have concluded that the IECS determination was correct in identifying Salem as the district of residence. Salem had the ability to submit the family under its ASSA application for the 2020-2021. There is no reason, or support under the regulations, that Bordentown must be required to reimburse or credit Salem for the ASSA funds Salem could have received. The districts resolved the issue for the 2019-2020 school year in that manner because Bordentown had received ASSA funds for the family. That agreement did not bind the districts to do so for the 2020-2021 school year. I CONCLUDE that Bordentown shall not be required to credit Salem for the amount of ASSA funding Salem could have, or should have received, had it applied for same for this family. However, if Bordentown did list the family on its ASSA application for the 2020-2021 school year and received any such funds, the amount Bordentown actually received for the family shall be credited towards the tuition Salem must pay for the portion of the 2020-2021 school year. Bordentown would not be entitled to retain ASSA funding it actually received for the students in question, if it did receive such funds for the 2020-2021 school year, and then get tuition payment from Salem, which would be a double dip.

As a matter of law, there are no material facts in dispute as asserted by the parties, and this summary decision may be rendered. I CONCLUDE that the determination by the IECS that the family continued to be deemed homeless for the 2020-2021 school year was appropriate. I CONCLUDE that the determination by the IECS that Salem was the district of residence for the 2020-2021 school year, and thus fiscally responsible for the cost of educating the students was appropriate. I CONCLUDE that the determination by the IECS that the fiscal responsibility for the education of the students as of February 26, 2021, shifted to the State was appropriate. I CONCLUDE that Salem is responsible to pay to Bordentown the cost of Bordentown having educated the students for the partial school year of 2020-2021, through the date fiscal responsibility shifts to the State. I CONCLUDE Salem is not entitled to relief of holding Bordentown accountable for Salem having failed to apply for ASSA funding and that Bordentown must credit Salem's tuition responsibility for what it should have received in ASSA funding. I CONCLUDE the only circumstance where Bordentown would be required to credit Salem for ASSA funding for the 2020-2021 school year is if Bordentown did list the family on its ASSA application for that year and did actually receive such funding.

I CONCLUDE that summary decision in GRANTED in favor of Bordentown, and the IECS determination of March 10, 2021, was appropriate. I CONCLUDE the relief sought through summary decision by Salem is DENIED. I CONCLUDE Salem is thus fiscally responsible for the portion of the 2020-2021 school year for the education of the four students in question by Bordentown. I CONCLUDE that Bordentown is not required to credit Salem for ASSA funds Salem could have applied for and received for the students for the 2020-2021 school year. I CONCLUDE the only situation where Bordentown would be required to credit Salem towards the cost of tuition is if Bordentown did apply for ASSA funds for the students for the 2020-2021 school year AND actually received and retained such funds for the students for the 2020-2021 school year.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that summary decision in favor of Bordentown is GRANTED, consistent with the conclusions above. It is ORDERED that the relief sought by Salem through summary decision is DENIED, consistent with the conclusions above.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of Daniel L. DeJesus, State Board of Examiners,
New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Revocation by the State Board of Examiners, May 14, 2020

For the Respondent-Appellant, Antonio J. Toto, Esq.

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, David Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record and papers filed in connection with Daniel DeJesus's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board), dated May 14, 2020, revoking his Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, Teacher of Health and Physical Education, and Supervisor certificates.

On June 28, 2019, the Board issued an Order to Show Cause regarding the revocation of appellant's certificates upon learning that, in July 2018, he was indicted on charges of third-degree burglary, theft by unlawful taking, and fencing. The charges arose from an incident during which he entered the victim's residence without permission, stole a gold necklace valued at $3,000, and sold it to a third party. In January 2019, appellant entered the pretrial intervention (PTI) program for a period of twenty-four months. As a condition of entry to PTI program, he pled guilty to third-degree burglary and the court entered an Order of Postponement.

Thereafter, the Department of Education's Criminal History Review Unit (CHRU), now known as the Office of Student Protection (OSP), notified the Board that, due to appellant's third-degree burglary "conviction," he was disqualified from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1.[1]

The Board twice mailed the Order to Show Cause to appellant, via certified and regular mail, on July 2, 2019, and again on September 17, 2019, directing him to file an answer admitting or denying the facts set forth in it within 30 days. Having received no response, the Board, via letter dated November 18, 2019, advised him that the allegations set forth in the Order to Show Cause were deemed admitted. The Board invited him to file a written submission within 30 days, to appear in person to give testimony, and advised that if no written response was received, it would consider the matter on the record currently before it. He failed to respond to the letter. Via letter dated February 10, 2020, the Board advised appellant that the matter was scheduled for consideration on February 28, 2020, and provided him with the meeting time and location. At its meeting on that date, the Board voted to revoke appellant's certificates.

On May 14, 2020, the Board voted to adopt its formal written decision and ordered the revocation of appellant's certificates. In its decision, the Board concluded that no material facts were in dispute since appellant never denied that he engaged in the conduct alleged in the Order to Show Cause, nor did he deny that he pled guilty to third-degree burglary. Accordingly, the Board summarily found, based upon the record before it, that respondent had engaged in unbecoming conduct. Next, the Board considered whether his "conviction" and employment

[1] As will be discussed in more detail herein, the record on appeal does not contain a judgment of conviction. The Department's decision to permanently disqualify appellant from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, issued January 28, 2019, is not presently before the Commissioner for review.

disqualification constituted just cause to act against his certificates. The Board found that his "conviction" demonstrated behavior that fell far short of a role model for students. Furthermore, the Board reasoned that since he was statutorily barred from employment in public schools, he should not be permitted to retain his certificates or hold himself out as a teacher. In the end, the Board concluded that the only appropriate sanction was revocation of his certificates.

On June 9, 2023, more than three years after the Board issued its written decision and Order of Revocation, appellant's counsel filed an appeal with the Commissioner claiming that appellant never received any decision or order from the Board revoking his certificates. In his letter brief, which did not comport with the filing requirements set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.8, he contends that his certificates should be reinstated because: (1) he successfully completed his PTI program without incident; (2) the "condition of P.T.I. did not state that he was banned from teaching or that he had to revoke [sic] his teaching license"; and (3) the underlying conduct did not involve children, occur on school property, or during school hours.

In its opposition brief, the Board contends that appellant's appeal is untimely and should be dismissed on that basis. Additionally, the Board contends that its determination to revoke appellant's certificates should be affirmed by the Commissioner because it was reasonable and sufficiently supported by the record. In particular, the Board emphasizes that appellant's successful completion of the PTI program does not preclude it from revoking his certificates, nor does the fact that the underlying unbecoming conduct did not involve children, school property, or occur during school hours.

In reviewing appeals from decisions of the State Board of Examiners, the Commissioner may not substitute her judgment for that of the Board so long as the appellant received due process and the Board's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record. The Commissioner's role in reviewing appeals is constrained by N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a), which specifies that "the Commissioner shall ascertain whether the decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and shall not disturb the decision unless the appellant has demonstrated that the State Board of Examiners . . . acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law."

Initially, the Commissioner finds that the appeal was untimely and can be dismissed on that basis. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.2(a), "Appeals of final State Board of Examiners decisions shall be filed within 30 days of the filing date of the decision being appealed." The instant appeal was filed more than 3 years after the Board issued its decision and Order of Revocation. Appellant has not offered any explanation, by way of certification, as to why he waited until June 2023 to appeal a decision that was issued in May 2020. Although the Commissioner may, in her discretion, relax certain rules if adherence to same would result in an injustice, appellant has not provided any basis for concluding that the filing deadline should be relaxed in this case.

Even assuming the appeal was timely filed, the Commissioner finds that the Board's decision to revoke appellant's certificates is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and is consistent with precedent given the nature and extent of the underlying conduct, which is undisputed and clearly constitutes conduct unbecoming an educator. "[T]eachers . . . are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of . . . school children . . . . This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. Teachers "hold positions demanding public trust, and in such positions, they teach, inform, and mold habits and attitudes, and influence the opinion of their pupils." In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Tordo, 1974 S.L.D. 97, 98-99.

The Board may revoke or suspend the certification of any certificate holder on the basis of demonstrated inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming a teacher, or other just cause. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4. "Conduct unbecoming" is an "elastic" concept that includes "conduct which adversely affects the morale or efficiency" of the public entity or "which has a tendency to destroy public respect for [public] employees and confidence in the operation of [public] services." In re Emmons, 63 N.J. Super. 136, 140 (App. Div. 1960). Accord Bound Brook Bd. of Educ. v. Ciripompa, 228 N.J. 4, 13 (2017). A finding of unbecoming conduct "may be based merely upon the violation of the implicit standard of good behavior which devolves upon one who stands in the public eye as an upholder of that which is morally and legally correct." Bound Brook Bd. of Educ., 228 N.J. at 14 (quoting Karins v. City of Atlantic City, 152 N.J. 532, 555 (1998)). Additionally, unfitness to hold a position in a school system may be demonstrated through just one incident, "if sufficiently flagrant." Redcay v. State Bd. of Educ., 130 N.J.L. 369, 371 (1943), aff'd, 131 N.J.L. 326 (E & A 1944).

Here, appellant's unbecoming conduct is undisputed and demonstrates both a lack of integrity and a serious lapse in judgment. The record shows that, once confronted by police, he admitted that he stole a gold necklace from a private residence he entered without permission and sold the necklace to an unknown person he encountered on the streets of Perth Amboy. His actions demonstrate that he is ill-suited to be a role model for students. Moreover, the Board has previously revoked certificates in matters where certificate holders admitted having committed single incidents of theft or fraud, regardless of their successful completion of PTI or the existence of criminal charges or convictions. See, e.g., In the Matter of the Certificates of Diana H. Park, State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 1415-260 (March 3, 2016) (revocation of certificates following admission that certificate holder stole funds from a school association, notwithstanding her successful completion of PTI, payment of restitution, and demonstrated remorse); In the Matter of the Certificate of David Toler, State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 669-02/02, OAL Dkt. No. EDE 5946-02, Initial Decision (August 13, 2004), Final Decision (October 28, 2004) (revocation of certificates following admission that certificate holder participated in a scheme to defraud the State Health Benefits Program, notwithstanding his successful completion of PTI and payment of restitution); In the Matter of the Certificates of William McMeekan, Commissioner Decision No. 109-16A (March 22, 2016) (affirming revocation of certificates following certificate holder's admission that he removed a computer from school property without permission that was later retrieved from his home by police).

Appellant's contentions to the contrary are unavailing. As discussed above, successful completion of a PTI program does not prevent the Board from acting against the appellant's certificates on the basis of proven unbecoming conduct. In the Matter of the Certificates of Mary Purcell, State Board of Examiners, Commissioner Decision No. 73-17A (March 9, 2017), at 4. Nor does the fact that appellant's conditions of PTI did not disqualify him from teaching or require him to surrender his teaching certificates. The PTI proceedings are separate and apart from those initiated by the Board pursuant to its statutory authority to revoke teaching certificates for just cause. See N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38 (authorizing Board to revoke certificates "under rules and regulations prescribed by the State board"); N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4 (explaining that the Board may revoke or suspend certificates on the basis of conduct unbecoming a teacher, among other reasons). Furthermore, it is well-established that "[w]hether or not the incident was connected to appellant's teaching profession is of no moment; disciplinary action may still be taken for conduct that occurs entirely outside of school or involves people entirely unrelated to school operations." In the Matter of the Certificates of Mary Purcell, State Board of Examiners, at 4.

However, the Commissioner wishes to clarify that the Board should not have based any aspect of its decision on a criminal "conviction" for third-degree burglary since the record lacks evidence of the court's entry of a judgment of conviction. A guilty plea taken in connection with admission to the PTI program does not automatically result in the entry of a judgment of conviction. "Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:43-13(b), a guilty plea entered as a condition of admission to PTI 'shall be held in an inactive status pending termination of the supervisory treatment,' under subsection (d) (successful completion of the program, resulting in dismissal of the charges) or (e) (dismissal from the program, thereby reactivating the charges)." State v. Lavrik, 472 N.J. Super. 192, 215-16 (App. Div. 2022). "Therefore, the guilty plea has no force or effect, unless PTI is violated. It is neither a judgment of conviction nor an adjudication. If a defendant successfully completes the program, the charges are dismissed." Id. at 216 (quoting Attorney General, Uniform Guidelines on the Pretrial Intervention Program at 7 (March 1, 2016) (Directive 2016-2)); see also R. 3:28-7(b) (addressing the available dispositions following conclusion of PTI term). Despite the Board's error in this regard, the Commissioner finds that the sufficient, credible, evidence of appellant's unbecoming conduct in the record provides ample support for the Board's decision to revoke appellant's certificates—even in the absence of a criminal conviction.

In closing, because the Board's decision is supported by sufficient, credible evidence, and appellant has failed to establish that it was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law, the Commissioner has no grounds to disturb it. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). Accordingly, the decision of the State Board of Examiners revoking appellant's certificates is affirmed.[2]

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
DANIEL L. DEJESUS	:	ORDER OF REVOCATION
_____	:	DOCKET NO: 1819-180

At its meeting of May 17, 2019, the State Board of Examiners (Board) reviewed information regarding Daniel L. DeJesus. In July 2018, DeJesus was indicted on charges of Burglary (3rd degree), Theft by Unlawful Taking (3rd degree) and Fencing (3rd degree). DeJesus had entered the victim's residence without permission and stole a necklace valued at $3000, which he later fenced. On January 25, 2019, DeJesus received an Order of Postponement and entered a Pre-Trial Intervention (PTI) program for a period of 24 months after he pled guilty to Burglary (3rd degree). The Office of Student Protection (OSP), formerly the Criminal History Review Unit, notified the Board that, as a result of his conviction, DeJesus is disqualified from public employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. DeJesus holds a Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, Teacher of Health and Physical Education, and Supervisor certificates.

DeJesus did not challenge the accuracy of his criminal history record before the Commissioner of Education. Upon review of the above information, the Board voted at its meeting June 28, 2019 to issue DeJesus an Order to Show Cause as to why his certificates should not be revoked.

After obtaining a correct address for DeJesus, the Board sent him the Order to Show Cause by regular and certified mail on September 17, 2019. The Order provided that DeJesus had 30 days to respond. The certified mail card was returned unclaimed and the regular mail was not returned. DeJesus did not respond.

Thereafter, on October 31, 2019, the Board sent DeJesus another notice by certified and regular mail providing him an additional 15 days to respond to the Order to Show Cause. The certified mail copy was returned as "Unclaimed" and the regular mail copy was not returned. DeJesus did not file a response.

Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(e), on November 18, 2019, the Board sent DeJesus a hearing notice by regular and certified mail. The notice explained that the allegations in the Order to Show Cause were deemed to be admitted as a result of his failure to file an Answer. Thus, DeJesus was offered an opportunity to submit written arguments on the issue of whether the conduct addressed in the Order to Show Cause constituted conduct unbecoming a certificate holder, as well as arguments with regard to the appropriate sanction in the event that the Board found just cause to take action against his certificates. It also explained that, upon review of the charges against him and the legal arguments tendered in his defense, the Board would determine if his offense warranted action against his certificates. Thereupon, the Board would also determine the appropriate sanction, if any. DeJesus was also offered the opportunity to appear before the Board to provide testimony on the sanction issue. The certified mail card was returned "unclaimed" and the regular mail copy was not returned. Once again, DeJesus did not file a response.

The threshold issue before the Board in this matter is whether DeJesus' conviction and subsequent disqualification constitute conduct unbecoming a certificate holder or other just cause. Since DeJesus failed to respond to the Order to Show Cause, the allegations therein are deemed admitted. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(c). Consequently, at its meeting of February 28, 2020, the Board considered only the allegations in the Order to Show Cause and the information received and considered by the Board. The Board concluded that no material facts related to DeJesus' offense were in dispute since he never denied that he engaged in the conduct alleged and had been convicted and therefore determined that summary decision was appropriate in this matter. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(h). After reviewing the allegations, the Board found that DeJesus engaged in unbecoming conduct.

The Board must now determine whether DeJesus' conviction and resulting disqualification, as set forth in the Order to Show Cause, represent just cause to act against his credential pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4. The Board finds that they do.

In enacting the Criminal History Review statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. in 1986, the Legislature sought to protect public school pupils from contact with individuals whom it deemed were not proper examples for them. Individuals convicted of crimes such as Burglary fall squarely within this category. The strong legislative policy statement is also in accord with the Commissioner's long-standing belief that teachers must serve as role models for their students. "Teachers... are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of ... school children. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." Tenure of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. Moreover, unfitness to hold a position in a school system may be shown by one incident, if sufficiently flagrant. Redcay v. State Bd. of Educ., 130 N.J.L. 369, 371 (1943), aff'd, 131 N.J.L. 326 (E & A 1944). In this instance, DeJesus's conviction for Burglary (3rd degree) demonstrates behavior that falls far short of a role model.

The strong policy statement on the part of the Legislature set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(b) also offers guidance to the Board as to the appropriate sanction in this matter. An individual whose offense is so great that he or she is barred from service in public schools should not be permitted to retain the certificate that authorizes such service. Nor should a person who has been disqualified from teaching in a public school be permitted to continue to hold himself out as a teacher. Thus, because the Legislature and the Commissioner consider DeJesus' offense so significant, the Board believes that the only appropriate sanction in this case is the revocation of his certificate.

Accordingly, on February 28, 2020, the Board voted to revoke Daniel L. DeJesus's Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, Teacher of Health and Physical Education, and Supervisor certificates. On this 14th day of May 2020, the Board voted to adopt its formal written decision and it is therefore ORDERED that the revocation of DeJesus's certificate be effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that DeJesus return his certificates to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Certification and Induction, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within 30 days of the mailing date of this decision.

Re: In the Matter of Simone Patterson, Greenwich Township Board of Education, Warren County, SEC Dkt. No. D08-23, Agency Dkt. No. 284-10/23, Commissioner Decision No. 347-23SEC

Dear Parties:

I have reviewed the materials filed in connection with respondent Simone Patterson's motion for reconsideration of the Commissioner's November 20, 2023 decision, removing respondent as a member of the Greenwich Township Board of Education ("Board) for failure to timely file the Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements ("Disclosure Statements") required under the School Ethics Act.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.15(b)(2), a motion for reconsideration shall be determined based upon the following:

i. claim(s) of mistake, provided, however, that disagreement with the outcome of a decision, or with the analysis upon which it is based, shall not constitute "mistake" for purposes of this section;
ii. newly discovered evidence likely to alter the outcome of a matter, where such evidence could not have been previously discovered by due diligence;
iii. newly ascertained misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party, where such
iv. misrepresentation could not have been previously known; or
v. reversal of a prior judgment on which the present matter is based.

Upon review of the parties' submissions, I find that appellant has failed to meet this standard. Respondent indicates that her Disclosure Statements were initially rejected but were resubmitted on October 18, 2023, the day after the School Ethics Commission (SEC) issued its decision. However, the Commissioner notes that the Disclosure Statements are unsigned and remain incomplete. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3(e), a board member who fails to complete and file the Disclosure Statements as of the date the Commissioner has issued a final decision shall be removed. Accordingly, respondent's removal is appropriate.

Respondent's request for reconsideration of the Commissioner's November 20, 2023 decision is hereby DENIED. Respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

Sincerely,

Angelica Allen-McMillan, Ed.D.

Final Decision

J.S., on behalf of minor child, J.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Cherry Hill, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the audio recording of the OAL hearing have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6.

Additionally, the Commissioner notes the ALJ's finding that, based upon representations made by counsel for both parties during prehearing conferences, there are no other issues to be decided and the petition should be dismissed.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein. Having received no objections, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

Record Closed: December 21, 2023 Decided: December 22, 2023

BEFORE KIMBERLEY M. WILSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, J.S. (J.S. parent) on behalf of J.S., a minor child (J.S. child or J.S. student), moves for emergent relief, seeking permission to return to Carusi Middle School (CMS), a school within respondent Board of Education of the Township of Cherry Hill, Camden County (the Board or the District) with safety protections in place to allow her to continue her education. The Board denies that it has prevented J.S. child from attending school and that CMS is not safe for J.S. child to attend school.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or around December 11, 2023, J.S. parent filed a verified petition and request for emergent relief with the Commissioner of the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes (DOE). On December 13, 2023, DOE transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case seeking emergent relief. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. On December 19, 2023, the Board provided the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) a brief and certification in response to J.S. parent's request for emergent relief. The ALJ attempted to resolve the matter with the parties during status conferences on December 19, 2023, and December 20, 2023. The hearing was held on December 21, 2023, and the record closed that day.

The request for emergent relief is now ripe for adjudication.

The following FACTS are not in dispute, and so I FIND:

1. J.S. student is a student at CMS. (Pet. ¶ 1.)

2. J.S. student has an Individualized Education Program (IEP), which provides speech therapy only. (IEP at 1.)

3. On or around September 27, 2023, J.S. student's parents emailed J.S. student's teachers, indicating that J.S. student has an autism spectrum disorder. (Certification of Neil Burti, Principal (Burti Cert.) ¶ 3.) J.S. student is not classified for autism spectrum disorder. (Ibid.)

4. On or around October 23, 2023, J.S. student's parents emailed Steve Delaney (Delaney), CMS guidance counselor, that another CMS student (Student X[1]) told J.S. student multiple times that Student X likes J.S. student romantically, but J.S. student rejected Student X. J.S. parent advised J.S. student not to speak to Student X anymore. (Id. ¶ 4.) According to J.S. student's parents, Student X has said "she would starve herself just to be with [J.S. student]." (Ibid.) Student X "is harassing our daughter and it may seem like a simple crush for anyone on the outside looking in, however, we have to consider that [J.S. student] is autistic. "We realized that pulling [Student X] to the office and notifying her parents may be all you can do & at this point in time we feel it is a must. . . . It is disruptive to [J.S. student's] time there at [CMS]." (Ibid.)

5. On or around October 23, 2023, Delaney interviewed J.S. student based on her parents' email. (Id. ¶ 5.) With Constance Spencer (Spencer)[2], Delaney interviewed Student X, who was told not to approach J.S. student. (Ibid.)

6. On or around October 23, 2023, Delaney emailed J.S. student's parents, indicating that the situation had been addressed. (Id. ¶ 6.)

7. On or around October 26, 2023, J.S. parent emailed Delaney expressing concerns about J.S. student's safety at CMS and Student X's potential for retaliating against J.S. student. (Id. ¶ 7.) J.S. parent requested that the District change Student X's schedule, as J.S. and Student X had four core classes together. (Ibid.) J.S. parent reiterated that they advised J.S. student to distance herself from Student X. (Ibid.)

[1] The other student is referred to as Student X to maintain her confidentiality, as she is not a party to this matter.

[2] Spencer is CMS's anti-bullying specialist.

8. Delaney emailed J.S. student's parents to arrange a telephone call. (Ibid.)

9. On or around October 30, 2023, Delaney called J.S. student's parents. (Id. ¶ 8.) During that telephone call, J.S. student's parents again requested that the District change Student X's schedule. (Ibid.) Delaney offered to change J.S. student's schedule instead. (Ibid.) J.S. student's parents refused this offer, indicating that in their mind, J.S. student was a victim. (Ibid.)

10. On or around November 28, 2023, J.S. student reported to Delaney that Student X kissed her twice at CMS on November 20, 2023, and November 27, 2023. (Id. ¶ 9.)

11. Student X denied kissing J.S. student. (Id. ¶ 10.) Both students provided written statements, and the District notified parents for both students. (Ibid.)

12. On or around November 29, 2023, J.S. student's parents met with the CMS campus police officer to complete a police report. (Id. ¶ 11.) J.S. student's parents also scheduled a meeting with Delaney and Dr. Julia Benavides (Benavides) for November 30, 2023. (Ibid.)

13. On or around November 30, 2023, J.S. student's parents sent an email to the District, cancelling the meeting with Delaney and Benavides. (Id. ¶ 12.)

14. On or around November 30, 2023, J.S. student's parents completed a HIB[3] 338 form and delivered it to CMS. (Id. ¶ 13.) Burti emailed the District's anti-bullying specialist[4] to advise of the HIB form. (Ibid.) The HIB investigation is pending because of the police complaint and investigation. (Ibid.)

15. On or around December 8, 2023, the District changed Student X's schedule based on a request from Student X. (Id. ¶ 17.)

[3] "HIB," is an acronym for harassment, intimidation and bullying under the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act. See N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

[4] It is not clear from the record whether Spencer is also the District's anti-bullying specialist.

16. On or around December 11, 2023, Benavides left a voicemail message for J.S. student's parent to inquire about J.S. student's well-being and when she would be returning to school. (Id. ¶ 18.) Benavides also attempted to reschedule the November 30, 2023 meeting. (Ibid.)

17. J.S. student has not attended school since November 29, 2023, when J.S. parent removed J.S. child from CMS for her safety and protection. (Pet. ¶ 2.)

18. In the petition, J.S. parent seeks the following relief: (i) J.S. student is permitted to return to CMS with safety protections in place to continue her free and appropriate public education; (ii) legal fees awarded to J.S. parent's counsel; and (iii) any other relief deemed equitable and just. (Pet. 2.)

Testimony

The following is not a summary of all testimony but an encapsulation of the testimony relevant to whether emergent relief is appropriate here.

For petitioner

J.S. parent is J.S. student's father. J.S. student is twelve years old and in the sixth grade. J.S. student last attended an elementary school in the District, where she had one teacher and one class. In middle school, J.S. student has to change classes. J.S. parent said that J.S. student is adjusting fairly well to middle school, even though she has missed her school bus home because she was in the wrong area of the school and sat in the wrong class once.

Around October 2023, J.S. parent learned that Student X was sending J.S. student love letters, wanting to have a relationship with J.S. student. According to J.S. parent, Student X told J.S. student and J.S. student's friends that Student X dreamed that she and J.S. student were having sex. According to J.S. parent, J.S. student rejected Student X fourteen times. Student X also told J.S. student that she wanted to die or kill anyone so that J.S. student would be with her. J.S. parent found these statements concerning, because J.S. student should not have had to tell Student X fourteen times that J.S. student did not want a relationship with her.

J.S. parent noted that J.S. student's autism is such that J.S. student has difficulty expressing her emotions. J.S. student is always happy and almost child-like. J.S. parent indicated that he did not know Student X or Student X's parents, but he was concerned that Student X would not leave J.S. student alone.

On or around November 28, 2023, J.S. student's mother received a call from Constance Spencer, the anti-bullying specialist at CMS, who relayed that Student X pulled J.S. student into the bathroom and kissed her. J.S. student did not tell her parents about this conduct; J.S. student's friends advised her to report the conduct to CMS. J.S. student's parents were scared, because in their mind, Student X's behavior was a sexual assault[5] and her behavior towards J.S. student seemed to be progressing. Spencer told J.S. student's parents that they could come to CMS the following day and file a complaint and that Spencer would assist them with filing that complaint. J.S. parent later testified that the District did not give them information about the HIB process and that J.S. student's parents had to research this process.

J.S. student's parents completed a HIB form and submitted it to the District, and they also called the local police to initiate an investigation. They filed a report with CMS campus police and were told the report would be filed with the Cherry Hill Police Department.

[5] From the evidence presented in the record, the conduct at issue does not appear to rise to the definition of sexual assault pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:14-2, as there is no evidence of sexual penetration or sexual contact with a victim less than thirteen years old and the actor is four years older than the victim. In addition, sexual contact is defined as the intentional touching of a victim's intimate parts for the purpose of degrading or humiliating the victim or sexually arousing or sexually gratifying the actor. N.J.S.A. 2C:14-1(d). A person's intimate parts are sexual organs, genital area, anal area, inner thigh, groin, buttock or breast of a person. N.J.S.A. 2C:14-1(e). There was no evidence presented that Student X touched J.S. student's intimate parts when she allegedly kissed J.S. student.

The police report has been submitted to the County prosecutor's office, and J.S. student's parents are waiting to learn whether Student X will be charged with any criminal offenses. J.S. student's parents did not reschedule the November 30, 2023 meeting with the District, because they were seeking legal representation at that time.

The District has never told J.S. student's parents that J.S. student could not attend CMS. J.S. parent did not know that Student X denied kissing J.S. student, and he also did not know that Student X's schedule had been changed at her request. J.S. parent has never met Student X and does not know her or her mindset.

J.S. parent described an unprofessional interaction that he had with Spencer. According to J.S. parent, Spencer refused to talk to him or his wife about the incident, and J.S. parent said that Spencer was dismissive. J.S. student's parents asked Spencer questions about Student X, and Spencer would not answer those questions. Spencer asked J.S. parent how many times J.S. student went to the bathroom each day, and she offered to allow J.S. student to use the nurse's bathroom. J.S. student has not been interviewed by Spencer as part of the HIB investigation, as J.S. student's parents do not believe that she is qualified to conduct such an interview.

J.S. student's parents pulled J.S. student from CMS because they were concerned for J.S. student's safety. They are concerned about what other things Student X has planned for J.S. student. J.S. student's parents want J.S. student to return to school and want CMS to keep J.S. student and Student X separated. J.S. student has been keeping up with her schoolwork through Google classroom; she has not been receiving the speech supports set forth in her IEP.

The relief that J.S. parent seeks is to have J.S. student free from Student X's predatory behavior and separate the students, because CMS will not do so.

For respondent

Benavides is an assistant principal at CMS, in charge of the sixth and eighth grades. There are 900 students at CMS, about 300 in the sixth grade. She has over twenty years of educational experience, including over seven years as an assistant principal. Benavides is familiar with J.S. student and the incident giving rise to the motion for emergent relief.

Benavides testified that CMS students are not trained on HIB but are told to consult their guidance counsellor if they are experiencing problems. She described students in the sixth grade as a curious age, where students are unsure about changing classes and meeting new friends. Teachers typically have to guide students with making better choices when they have made mistakes.

Benavides described J.S. student's allegations as a disputed event, because local police are investigating, which puts the HIB investigation on hold until a decision is made about any criminal charges. The decision to pause the HIB investigation came from the Cherry Hill campus police.

Benavides believes that CMS has offered a safe environment for J.S. student since November 30, 2023.

Additional Factual Findings

It is the obligation of the fact finder to weigh the credibility of the witnesses before making a decision. Credibility is the value that a fact finder gives to a witness' testimony. Credibility is best described as that quality of testimony or evidence that makes it worthy of belief. "Testimony to be believed must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness but must be credible in itself. It must be such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." In re Estate of Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 522 (1950). To assess credibility, the fact finder should consider the witness' interest in the outcome, motive, or bias. "A trier of fact may reject testimony because it is inherently incredible, or because it is inconsistent with other testimony or with common experience, or because it is overborne by other testimony." Congleton v. Pura-Tex Stone Corp., 53 N.J. Super. 282, 287 (App. Div. 1958).

Having had the opportunity to hear and view both of the witnesses during their testimony, I accept the testimony of J.S. parent and Benavides as credible. They both testified consistently and forthrightly about J.S. student and the incident involving Student X. Accordingly, I FIND the following additional FACTS:

1. J.S. student did not tell her parents about the instances where Student X allegedly kissed her; J.S. student's friends advised her to report the conduct to CMS.

2. J.S. student's parents completed a HIB form and submitted it to the District, and they also called the local police to initiate an investigation. They filed a report with CMS campus police and were told the report would be filed with the Cherry Hill Police Department.

3. The police report has been submitted to the County prosecutor's office, and J.S. student's parents are waiting to learn whether Student X will be charged with any criminal offenses.

4. J.S. student's parents did not reschedule the November 30, 2023 meeting with the District, because they were seeking legal representation at that time.

5. The District has never told J.S. student's parents that J.S. student could not attend CMS.

6. J.S. parent did not know that Student X denied kissing J.S. student, and he also did not know that Student X's schedule had been changed at her request.

7. J.S. parent has never met Student X and does not know her or her mindset.

8. Spencer asked J.S. parent how many times J.S. student went to the bathroom each day, and she offered to allow J.S. student to use the nurse's bathroom.

9. Because local police are investigating the incident between J.S. student and Student X, the HIB investigation is on hold until a decision is made about any criminal charges. The decision to pause the HIB investigation came from the Cherry Hill campus police.

10. J.S. student's parents pulled J.S. student from CMS because they were concerned for J.S. student's safety.

11. J.S. student's parents want J.S. student to return to school and want CMS to keep J.S. student and Student X separated.

12. J.S. student has been keeping up with her schoolwork through Google classroom; she has not been receiving the speech supports set forth in her IEP.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The regulations governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner of Education provide that "[w]here the subject matter of the controversy is a particular course of action by a district board of education . . . [,] the petitioner may include with the petition of appeal, a separate motion for emergent relief or a stay of that action pending the Commissioner's final decision in the contested case." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(a). The regulations further provide that the Commissioner may "[t]ransmit the motion to the OAL for immediate hearing on the motion." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(c)(3).

At a hearing for emergent relief, the petitioner must show that they satisfy the following four standards:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;

3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

[N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) (citing Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982)).]

The petitioner must prove each of these standards by clear and convincing evidence. Garden State Equality v. Dow, 216 N.J. 314, 320 (2013). Arguably, the standard is a high threshold to meet, and I will address each prong separately.

1. Irreparable harm

As the New Jersey Supreme Court explained in Crowe, "[o]ne principle is that a preliminary injunction should not issue except when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132 [citing Citizens Coach Co. v. Camden Horse R.R. Co., 29 N.J. Eq. 299, 303 (E. & A. 1878)]. Indeed, the purpose of emergent relief is to "prevent some threatening, irreparable mischief, which should be averted until opportunity is afforded for a full and deliberate investigation of the case." Ibid. [quoting Thompson ex rel. Bd. of Chosen Freeholders v. Paterson, 9 N.J. Eq. 624, 625 (Sup. Ct. 1854)].

"Irreparable harm is shown when money damages cannot adequately compensate plaintiff's injuries." Hornstine v. Twp. of Moorestown, 263 F. Supp. 2d 887, 911 (D.N.J. 2003) (citing Sampson v. Murray, 415 U.S. 61, 90 (1974)). "More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated." Cont'l Grp., Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (3d Cir. 1980). "The requisite for injunctive relief has been characterized as a clear showing of immediate irreparable injury . . . or a presently existing actual threat; [an injunction] may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by the common law." Ibid.

J.S. parent has not provided clear and convincing evidence of any immediate irreparable injury to J.S. student. Whether Student X will approach and potentially harass J.S. student in the future is speculative, and while, as a parent, I understand J.S. parent's concern that J.S. student may be harassed again, there is no tangible evidence in the record indicating the same. J.S. parent admitted that he does not know Student X and has never met her. There is no evidence in this record of any communication between J.S. student and Student X since J.S. student reported to CMS that Student X allegedly kissed her. Student X's schedule has been changed, potentially minimizing her opportunity to harass J.S. student. There is no present, actual threat here, just J.S. parent's fear of a future incident between J.S. student and Student X.

Counsel for J.S. parent argues that J.S. student's missed educational time constitutes immediate irreparably injury. "There can be no reasonable argument that a person classified in special education needs daily supervision and instruction. Each day is important as the student progresses during the limited school year. Every day [J.S. student] misses sets her back in her progress towards successfully completing and fulfilling her IEP." Pl. Br. 2. First, it is important to note that considerations under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 20 U.S.C. § 1401, are not at play here. The issue at hand, as J.S. parent raised them, do not pertain to J.S. student's IEP; it is simply whether the District has addressed the safety concerns that J.S. student's parents have raised.[6]

Second, and more importantly, the District has not barred or prevented J.S. student from attending CMS. J.S. student's parents have unilaterally decided to keep J.S. student from attending CMS, and even when the District attempted to contact J.S. student's parents on December 11, 2023, to discuss issues, J.S. student's parents were already seeking legal counsel, rather than responding to the District. Counsel for J.S. parent argues J.S. student is constructively being prevented from attending CMS; I note there is no legal authority, whether statute, case law or regulation, supporting this argument. Pl.

[6] J.S. parent has sought legal fees and other equitable relief in the petition. Because this is not an IDEA matter, those requests for relief are denied.

Br. 2. The lack of legal authority underpinning this argument merely underscores its specious nature.

Finally, J.S. parent testified that J.S. student is keeping up with her schoolwork through Google classroom. While Google classroom is not a complete substitute for an in-person classroom experience, J.S. student has not missed out on her education in its entirety.

J.S. parent has not sustained his burden to show by clear and convincing evidence that J.S. student has suffered irreparable harm. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that J.S. parent has not shown that J.S. student suffered irreparable harm.

2. Settled Legal Right.

Next, emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 (citing Citizens Coach Co., 29 N.J. Eq. at 304–05). As noted previously, J.S. parent wants for J.S. student to return to CMS and wants CMS to keep J.S. student and Student X separated.

Here, what exactly happened between J.S. student and Student X in November 2023 is not settled. The parties are awaiting a decision from the County prosecutor's office on whether criminal charges will be brought against Student X based upon a police investigation. The HIB investigation to determine whether J.S. student was subjected to harassment, intimidation and bullying has been placed on hold until any charging decisions have been made. Any decisions on whether J.S. student and Student X should be separated while attending CMS will have to wait until decisions on whether Student X will be charged with any criminal charges and the outcome of the HIB investigation. Counsel for J.S. student has cited to no legal authority indicating that the District could or should have handled this situation differently and provided no proof, let alone clear and convincing evidence, that it has a right to the relief it seeks. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that J.S. parent has not shown a legal right underlying his claim.

3. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

J.S. parent has not demonstrated that he is likely to succeed on the merits of the underlying claim. Under this emergent relief prong, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133 [citing Ideal Laundry Co. v. Gugliemone, 107 N.J. Eq. 108, 115–16 (E. & A. 1930)]. This typically "'involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182–83 (App. Div. 2012) [quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App. Div. 2006)].

Because I have found that J.S. parent has not shown a legal right underlying his claim, it logically follows that there is not a likelihood of success on the merits. J.S. parent has not provided any clear and convincing evidence or legal argument showing that he is likely to prevail against the District.

Counsel for J.S. parent argues, "[J.S. parent] has the likelihood of prevailing on the merits as [CMS] has demonstrated little if any interest addressing the needs of non-white students and students with disabilities." Pl. Br. 2. The facts in the record show otherwise. The District responded to concerns J.S. student's parents raised in October 2023, and the parties believed that those concerns had been resolved. Once J.S. student reported the alleged incident with Student X in November 2023, the District attempted to work with J.S. student's parents, which included an anticipated meeting with Benavides on November 30, 2023. J.S. student's parents canceled that meeting and never rescheduled, even after Benavides contacted J.S. student's parents on December 11, 2023. There is no evidence in this record supporting this argument that the District treated J.S. student differently because she is non-white or disabled.

Counsel for J.S. parent has not provided any clear and convincing evidence or legal authority showing that J.S. parent has a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits, and I CONCLUDE that J.S. parent has not shown a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits.

4. Balancing the Equities

The fourth and final emergent relief standard involves "the relative hardship to the parties in granting or denying relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 134 [citing Isolantite Inc. v. United Elect. Radio & Mach. Workers, 130 N.J. Eq. 506, 515 (Ch. 1941), mod. on other grounds, 132 N.J. Eq. 613 (E. & A. 1942)].

The only evidence presented here regarding relative hardship to the parties pertains to J.S. student, who has missed school solely based on her parents' decision to keep her from attending CMS since November 29, 2023. Despite the argument that she has been constructively suspended from CMS, an argument that lacks a legal foundation, there is no hardship to J.S. student in denying emergent relief. J.S. student may return to CMS at any time to continue her education.

Requiring the District to grant the emergent relief that J.S. parent seeks, namely ensuring that J.S. student and Student X remain separate, imposes greater harm on the District than it does J.S. student. Again, it is important to note that there is a pending charging decision regarding Student X's conduct, along with a HIB investigation. These decisions should be made and investigations completed before the District determines what, if any, remedial steps should be taken. Requiring a District to ensure that students remain separate when charging decisions have not been made and an HIB investigation is not completed is burdensome on the District.

I CONCLUDE that the Board will suffer greater harm should emergent relief be granted than J.S. student if the requested relief is not granted.

J.S. parent's dissatisfaction with the status of this process is not a basis for emergent relief. J.S. student's parents began this process, seeking criminal charges against Student X, and they will have to wait until the process is completed before the District can determine whether Student X's alleged conduct constituted harassment, intimidation and bullying. Once that HIB investigation is completed, then the District can determine whether separating J.S student and Student X is appropriate and to what degree they will be separated, among any other remedial measures the District deems appropriate.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has failed to meet all of the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the petitioner's application for emergent relief be and hereby is DENIED. From representations made by counsel for the parties during prehearing conferences, I understand that there are no other issues to be decided on the underlying petition, and accordingly, the petition is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Final Decision

Thordis Mazza,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of Atlantic County Vocational School District, Atlantic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 2 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement. Further, with respect to paragraph 9 of the Agreement, the parties are reminded that the Board must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. in regard to information concerning this matter, notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Record Closed: December 28, 2023 Decided: December 29, 2023

BEFORE TAMA B. HUGHES, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on October 2, 2020, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-8.2, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

[1] In addition to the Board of Education of the Atlantic County Vocational School District, the petition named Philip Guenther, Superintendent; Joseph Potkay, Principal; Sarah Meyers, Assistant Principal, and Jamie Burrows, Supervisor individually. The parties subsequently entered into a Stipulation of Dismissal against the individual respondents.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have executed a settlement agreement, which is attached hereto.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement, and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures and the attached Board meeting minutes approving the settlement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE ("Agreement," "Settlement" and/or "Release") is being entered into among and between THORDIS MAZZA ("Mazza" or "Releasor") and BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SPECIAL SERVICES SCHOOL DISTRICT AND THE VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE COUNTY OF ATLANTIC ("BSSSD") (collectively "Releasees"). Mazza and BSSSD shall be collectively referred to herein as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, by way of employment contract Mazza was employed by BSSSD; and

WHEREAS, Mazza's employment with BSSSD continues to the present; and

WHEREAS, Mazza initiated litigation against BSSSD, alleging, amongst other things, violation of the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, and Law Against Discrimination, in a lawsuit captioned Thordis Mazza v. Board of Education of the Special Services School District and the Vocational School District of the County of Atlantic, in the Superior Court, Middlesex Vicinage, New Jersey, Docket No.: ATL – 1297 – 21 (hereinafter referred to as "The Lawsuit"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties wishing to resolve The Lawsuit initiated by Mazza in the interest of the public without the need for further litigation, and all of Mazza's claims and potential claims against Releasees, hereby stipulate to settle same, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein; and

WHEREAS, the meaning, effect and terms of this Agreement have been fully explained to Mazza, who understands that this Agreement settles, bars, and waives any and all claims that he could possibly have against BSSSD as of the date of this Agreement as set forth herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, agreements and representations contained herein, the legal sufficiency of which is acknowledged by the Parties, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Settlement. Mazza agrees, upon execution of the within Settlement Agreement and General Release by the Parties, that she will voluntarily dismiss The Lawsuit with prejudice.

2. Consideration for Release of Claims. Within thirty (30) days of Board approval of this Agreement, BSSSD, or its agent, shall remit payment in the total sum of $30,000.00 (thirty thousand dollars) in full payment for this Release, as follows:

(a) A payment to Mazza and her attorney David R. Castellani, Esq. in the amount of $30,000.00, payable to "The Trust Account of David Castellani, Esq.," from which no taxes or withholdings will be held. This payment is subject to 1099 tax treatment. The insurance carrier will issue an IRS Form 1099 to Mazza for the payment referred to in this Subparagraph.

It is expressly understood and agreed by the Parties that Releasees do not represent or guarantee that payroll, wage or other income taxes should not be paid on the proceeds of the settlement. Releasor agrees to indemnify and hold Releasees, Releasees' counsel and Releasor's counsel harmless for any withholding taxes owed by Releasor resulting from the receipt of the settlement payment, as well as for any interest and penalties assessed against and/or paid by Releasor to any governmental tax entity by virtue of an adjudication by that entity reclassifying all or any portion of this settlement amount as a wage rather than a non-wage payment.

3. Benefits. This Release does not waive Releasor's vested rights under any applicable retirement plans, including but not limited to, pension benefits.

4. No Admissions. The Parties agree that this Settlement, including BSSSD's approval of the same, does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing by either party.

5. Mazza's General Release of Claims. In consideration for Releasees' promises and representations made herein, Mazza, individually and on behalf of her heirs, representatives, immediate family members (including but not limited to his spouse and children), agents, successors and assigns, hereby releases Releasees, its parents, board members, subsidiaries, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, affiliates, predecessors, successors, assigns, heirs, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with any of them (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all charges, complaints, claims, liabilities, obligations, promises, agreements, controversies, damages, actions, causes of action, suits, rights, demands, costs, losses, debts and expenses, and from any claims of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, which Mazza now has, claims to have, owns, holds or which Mazza at any time heretofore had, held, or claimed to have based on events occurring through the date of execution of this Agreement, to the fullest extent allowed by law. This Release includes, without limitation, claims arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (save for claims related to vested benefits, which are exempted from this release), the Equal Pay Act, the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Act, as well as any other federal, state, local, or municipal statute, ordinance or regulation that prohibits improper discrimination, harassment or retaliation in the workplace or otherwise relates to or regulates employment relationships. In addition, this Release extends to and covers claims for tortious conduct or breach of express or implied contract, including wrongful discharge, breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, negligence, misrepresentation, fraud, detrimental reliance, promissory estoppel, defamation, invasion of privacy, breach of laws governing safety in the workplace, loss of consortium, or any claims under federal, state, and local statutory and common law relating in any manner whatsoever to Mazza's employment with BSSSD. Mazza represents and warrants that she has not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed or otherwise disposed of any claim, demand or cause of action, including any claim for attorney's fees, against the Released Parties that relate to the matters stated above.

6. Liens. It is further understood that as a condition of this settlement, all claims and/or liens, past, current and/or future arising out of this Settlement or asserted against the proceeds of this Settlement are to be satisfied by Releasor and/or his attorney(s), including but not limited to any Child Support Judgment liens, Medicare or Medicaid claims and/or liens, Worker's Compensation claims and/or liens, Social Security claims and/or liens, hospital/healthcare insurer claims and/or liens, physician or attorney claims and/or liens, or any of the statutory, equitable, common law or judgment claims and/or liens, including but not limited to claims based on subrogation or any other legal or equitable theory. Releasor therefore agrees, upon prompt presentation of any such claims and/or liens, to defend Releasees against any such claims and/or liens, and to indemnify and hold Releasees harmless against any judgment entered against Releasees based on such claims and/or liens, including the payment of any fines, charges and attorney's fees incurred as a result of any such lien. Failure to satisfy any such lien shall be considered a breach of this Agreement and Releasor agrees to pay all costs, interest and attorney's fees relative to any such lien.

7. Public Interest Served. The within Settlement will serve the public interest, eliminating additional litigation costs and expenditure of resources.

8. No Other Legal Action by Mazza. Mazza confirms that, other than The Lawsuit described on page 1 of this Agreement, he does not have any charge, complaint or action pending in any forum or form against any of the Released Parties as of the date of hereof. Further, Mazza covenants and agrees not to bring any charge, complaint, action, suit, or administrative proceeding in any forum before any federal, state, or local administrative agency or in any federal, state or local court against any of the Released Parties for any actions that could or did arise or accrue prior to and including the date of this Agreement. This covenant extends to, but is not limited to, proceedings to negate, modify or reform this Agreement, though nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit Mazza from instituting legal action for the sole purpose of enforcing Releasees' obligations to him under this Agreement. Further, nothing in this paragraph is designed to interfere with or limit Mazza's protected rights to file a charge with or participate in an investigation by or proceeding before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any similar state or local commission that investigates and enforces anti-discrimination laws. Nonetheless, Mazza understands that, by signing this Agreement, he waives any rights he may have to recover money or other relief in any lawsuit or proceeding he brings, or that is brought on his behalf, by any agency or third party against any of the Released Parties based on events arising out of or relating to his employment with BSSSD through the date of this Agreement. Except where otherwise permitted under this paragraph, Mazza agrees that any action she may file against any of the Released Parties based on events that transpired on or before the effective date hereof shall be dismissed with prejudice upon presentation of this Agreement.

9. Confidentiality. Mazza shall keep this Agreement and all of its terms, amounts, and the facts giving rise hereto completely confidential in accordance with existing law and shall not hereafter disclose any information concerning this Agreement or its subject matter or terms to any person other than ~~his~~ her spouse, attorney or accountants, or as otherwise required by law.

Although the Parties may have agreed to keep this settlement and underlying facts confidential, such a provision in an agreement is unenforceable against the employer if the employee publicly reveals sufficient details of the claim so that the employer is reasonably identifiable.

10. Non-Disparagement. Mazza agrees that to the extent permitted by law, including but not limited to, N.J.S.A. 10:5-12.8., not to make, publicly or privately, through any media or medium (including, without limitation, comments on social media networking sites), any disparaging or derogatory remarks or otherwise make statements that could injure the business or reputation of any of the Released Parties Mazza and Releasees agree not to defame or disparage the other with respect to any matter arising out of the employment relationship or The Lawsuit in the past and in the future.

11. Acknowledgement and Right to Revoke. By his signature below, Mazza acknowledges that, in addition to all other claims outlined in Paragraph 5, she is knowingly and voluntarily waiving and releasing any rights ~~he~~ she may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"). By her signature below, Mazza also acknowledges that the consideration given for the waiver and Release is in addition to anything of value to which ~~he~~ she was already entitled. By her signature below, Mazza further acknowledges that ~~he~~ she has been advised by this writing, as required by the Older Workers' Benefit Protection Act, that: (a) ~~his~~ her waiver and Release does not apply to any rights or claims that may arise after the effective date of this Agreement; (b) ~~he~~ she should consult with an attorney prior to executing this Agreement; (c) ~~he~~ she has twenty-one (21) days to consider this Agreement (although ~~he~~ she may by ~~his~~ her own choice execute this Agreement earlier); (d) ~~he~~ she has seven (7) days following the execution of this Agreement to revoke the Agreement; and (e) this Agreement shall not be effective until the date upon which the revocation period has expired.

12. Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between Mazza and Releasees. All other prior agreements between the Parties are hereby terminated and shall have no other force or effect. Mazza acknowledges and agrees that Releasees have not made any promises to ~~him~~ her other than those set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement may be modified only upon an express written agreement between the Parties. The language of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any of the Parties.

13. Assent to Terms. The Parties hereby acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of their rights and obligations and that they were fully informed of the implications of this Agreement by their respective attorneys, if any, and they do so without duress, of their own free will and volition.

14. Disputes. The validity, performance, construction, and effect of this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of the United States and the State of New Jersey. The Superior Court of New Jersey shall retain jurisdiction to implement and enforce the Agreement and its terms.

15. Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement, whether in whole or in part, shall not in any way affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision contained herein.

16. Counterparts; Exchange by Electronic Means. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which shall be taken together as the entire agreement of the Parties hereto. This Agreement may also be exchanged by the Parties via electronic mail for the purposes of securing signatures and will be fully enforceable as an original document.

MAZZA ACKNOWLEDGES THAT SHE HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT, UNDERSTANDS IT AND IS ENTERING INTO IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY AND NOT AS A RESULT OF ANY PRESSURE, COERCION OR DURESS.

MAZZA AGREES THAT SHE HAS HAD A REASONABLE AND SUFFICIENT TIME AND OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH COUNSEL, AND THAT HE HAS FULLY DISCUSSED AND REVIEWED THE TERMS CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT WITH COUNSEL PRIOR TO EXECUTING IT, OR HAS FREELY CHOSEN NOT TO DO SO.

MAZZA FURTHER UNDERSTANDS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A GENERAL RELEASE OF CLAIMS AS TO ALL RELEASED PARTIES, AND THAT THIS AGREEMENT SETTLES, BARS, AND WAIVES ANY AND ALL CLAIMS THAT HE HAS OR COULD POSSIBLY HAVE AGAINST THE RELEASED PARTIES THROUGH THE DATE OF THIS AGREEMENT AS SET FORTH HEREIN.

BEFORE DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ:

These matters were transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein. This Settlement Agreement resolves all disputes.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and general release.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

DAVID J. WRONKO, Petitioner, v. ASBURY PARK BOARD OF EDUCATION, MONMOUTH COUNTY, Respondent.	:	NEW JERSEY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW Agency Ref. No. 275-10/22 OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10008-2022S SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement is entered into by and between the Petitioner, David J. Wronko ("Petitioner" or "Mr. Wronko") and the Respondent, Asbury Park Board of Education ("Respondent" or "Board"), both of whom are collectively referred to as the "Parties".

WHEREAS, Petitioner commenced employment with Respondent in the position of Teacher on or about September 1, 2004; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner holds a standard instructional certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners, with endorsements as an Elementary School Teacher (K-8) and Social Studies Teacher, which he has held at all times pertinent; and

WHEREAS, at a Board meeting held on April 27, 2022, Respondent voted to withhold Petitioner's salary increment for the 2022-2023 school year; and

WHEREAS, effective June 30, 2022, Petitioner's position was abolished and his employment terminated by Respondent as part of a reduction in force ("RIF"); and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal against Respondent on October 12, 2022, and amended said Petition on March 13, 2023, challenging his termination and the Board's failure to recall him to a Teacher of pre-K position or a social studies position as a violation of his tenure rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 et seq.; N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5; N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10 et seq.; and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, the Parties, through their respective counsel, have engaged in the exchange of discovery and in settlement negotiations throughout this matter; and

WHEREAS, at a Board meeting held on January 26, 2023, Respondent reappointed Petitioner to a position as a Teacher at Asbury Park High School, effective March 1, 2023, at Step 16MA of the 2021-2022 Salary Guide, and

WHEREAS, on February 27, 2023, Respondent agreed to settle several grievances arising from the withholding of several employees' salary increments for the 2022-2023 school year, pursuant to which settlement agreement ("February Increment Settlement") those employees' salaries will be restored effective September 1, 2023 to the Step of the Salary Guide where they would have been placed had their increments not been withheld; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner and Respondent, upon consultation with their respective counsel, have independently concluded that it is in their respective best interests to settle and resolve this dispute, with each party to bear their own counsel fees, costs and disbursements; and

NOW THEREFORE, it is agreed by and between the Parties hereto as follows:

1. This Agreement is not and shall not in any way be considered or construed as an admission of wrongdoing and/or liability by Respondent of any kind, including, but not limited to discrimination, retaliation, tortious conduct, or of any violation of any laws, common laws, or federal, State, and local laws, statutes or regulations, or of any employment policies, Board policies, Board regulations, standard operating procedures, practices, contracts, or agreements, or of any alleged duties owed by Respondent, or of any unlawful or wrongful acts whatsoever by Respondent. Respondent wholly denies wrongdoing of any kind. The Parties understand and agree that this settlement is the compromise of disputed claims, and that all payments made by the Respondent and/or Respondent's insurance carrier on behalf of Respondent are not to be construed as an admission of liability on the part of any party or parties hereby released, and that Respondent wholly denies any and all liability whatsoever and intends merely to avoid litigation and buy the peace. Accordingly, this Agreement shall not be used as an admission by any party in any proceedings; however, this Agreement may be introduced in any proceedings to enforce the terms and conditions of the Agreement and/or used by any Party in connection with any proceeding and/or other enforcement or other action by or before any local, State, or federal agency and/or other like entity.

2. Respondent hereby acknowledges that Petitioner acquired tenure as a Teacher on or about September 1, 2007, and is entitled to and shall receive full seniority credit from his initial date of hire (September 1, 2004) with Respondent, including but not limited to the six-month period between September 1, 2022 and March 1, 2023;

3. Respondent agrees to pay to Petitioner the gross amount of $15,000.00, subject to standard and ordinary payroll taxes and deductions. This $15,000.00 payment amount will be provided through the School Alliance Insurance Fund in the form of a check made payable to the "Asbury Park Board of Education" within thirty (30) days of approval of this Agreement by the Commissioner of Education. Upon receipt of this check, Respondent will then issue Petitioner the gross amount of $15,000.00, subject to standard and ordinary payroll taxes and deductions. Respondent shall make such payment within thirty (30) days of its receipt of the $15,000.00 payment from the School Alliance Insurance Fund.

4. The foregoing payment(s) to by the Carrier to the Respondent shall only be made upon the acceptance, approval and ratification of this Agreement by the Respondent and subsequent to Carrier(s)'s receipt of a fully executed and notarized copy of this Agreement, a clear child support search report for Petitioner and completed W-9 form for Petitioner. If Respondent has not already done so, it shall promptly reinstate all accrued sick days and personal days which Petitioner had at the time of the termination of his employment on June 30, 2019.

5. It is further understood and agreed that as a condition of this settlement, all claims and/or liens, past, current and/or future arising out of this settlement or asserted against the proceeds of this settlement are to be satisfied solely and entirely by Petitioner, including but not limited to any Medicare or Medicaid claims and/or liens, Worker's Compensation claims and/or liens, Social Security claims and/or liens, hospital/healthcare insurer claims and/or liens, physician claims and/or liens, attorney claims and/or liens, and/or any of the statutory, equitable, common law and/or judgment claims and/or liens, including but not limited to claim based on subrogation or any other legal or equitable theory.

6. Petitioner shall receive full seniority credit for the 2022-2023 school year.

7. Petitioner represents and warrants that neither Respondent nor Respondent's attorneys provided any advice regarding the taxability and/or the pension implications of the settlement amounts paid pursuant to this Agreement. Exclusive of all applicable payroll taxes and deductions, which Respondent shall deduct from the $15,000.00 settlement proceeds to Petitioner, Petitioner acknowledges and agrees that he is solely responsible for the payment of any and all federal, State and local taxes, and pension contributions, which may be due from the settlement sum, in the event that it is determined that any taxes are owed based on the taxation laws in effect on the date of execution of this Agreement or become due at any time in the future because of a change to the laws governing the taxation of such settlement proceeds.

8. Respondent will provide Petitioner, who is similarly situated to those teachers covered by the February Increment Settlement, the benefit thereof such that his salary increment will be restored and his salary will be placed at Step 18+MA of the 2023-2024 Salary Guide effective for the 2023-2024 school year.

9. This Agreement shall be subject to ratification by the Asbury Park Board of Education and is without prejudice to any party if the terms are not ratified, Petitioner is not bound by this Agreement until it has been ratified by the Asbury Park Board of Education.

10. Subject to the terms of this Settlement Agreement and the approval thereof by the Commissioner of Education, the Petition of Appeal presently pending before the Office of Administrative Law and Commissioner of Education, shall be deemed dismissed with prejudice.

11. In consideration for the payment and promises described in this Agreement, Petitioner fully releases and forever discharges Respondent, including but not limited to its officers, administrators and employees, collectively and individually, of and from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, back pay, front pay, contracts, agreements, promises, charges, judgments, grievances, obligations, rights, demands, debts, physical injuries, pain, suffering, emotional distress, compensatory damages, punitive damages, attorneys' fees, expenses, costs, losses, liabilities, damages, or accountings of whatever nature, whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, asserted or unasserted, in law or equity, contract or tort or otherwise (herein collectively designated "Claims"), up to and including the date on which the Respondent ratifies this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all Claims of harassment, hostile work environment, failure to conduct employment-related investigation(s), infliction of emotional distress, improper termination, discrimination, retaliation, and any and all tort Claims or contract Claims for general damages, and any and all Claims arising under, made, regarding, or involving: any federal, State, or local laws or under the common law; violations of any federal, State, or local fair employment practices or civil rights laws, statutes, regulations and/or ordinances; Pierce claims; Claims for personal injury; the Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and 1871, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1981; the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, including Title VII; the Civil Rights Act of 1991 and all subsequent amendments; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; federal anti-discrimination laws; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; the District's policies, regulations, standard operating procedures, practices, collective bargaining agreements, contracts, benefits, or understandings; any Claims arising out of any relationship, including employment relationship, between or among Petitioner and Respondent predating the effective date of this Agreement; and all Claims for employment, reemployment, or reinstatement of employment to the District; any and all grievances or demands for mediation and/or arbitration; any and all or Claims or demands under the District's policies and procedures; and any and all Claims asserted, or which could have been asserted by Petitioner, including any Claims against any current or former officers, employees, agents, elected and/or appointed representatives of the District. Petitioner hereby specifically waives, releases, and gives up all Claims and rights, as described in the preceding paragraphs, whether now known or unknown, which he has or may have against Respondent, based on any fact, act, event, or omission, whether now known or unknown, occurring before the date on which the Respondent ratifies this Agreement. Petitioner understands that he is waiving, releasing, and giving up all Claims and rights that he knows about and all Claims and rights that he may not know about; except for, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, claims which cannot be released solely by private agreement. This waiver and release shall not apply to any claims that may arise or have arisen under the Worker's Compensation or the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund laws.

12. This Agreement contains all the terms of the Parties' agreement and cannot be modified or changed unless the Parties agree to do so in writing.

13. The Parties agree that they have been represented by counsel and enter into this Agreement voluntarily. Neither party admits any wrongdoing whatsoever by executing this document.

14. The Parties agree that neither party is responsible for the payment of the other party's counsel fees in connection with this matter.

15. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey, except where federal law controls. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared or determined by any Court to be illegal or invalid, the validity of the remaining parts, terms, and/or provisions shall not be affected thereby and said illegal or invalid part, term, or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement or may be modified as necessary.

16. This Agreement sets forth the entire Agreement among the Parties and fully supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, written or oral, among the Parties pertaining to its subject matter. The Parties agree that this Agreement may not be modified, altered, or changed except by a written agreement and/or addendum signed by the Parties.

17. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts. However, this Agreement will not be binding among the Parties until it has been executed and delivered by and among the Parties.

18. Petitioner understands that pursuant to the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act of 1990, he is entitled to consult with an attorney and that he will have twenty-one (21) days within which to fully consider this Agreement. Petitioner shall have seven (7) days following his signing of this Agreement to revoke this Agreement, and he agrees and understands that a revocation of this Agreement shall be submitted to Respondent in writing within this seven (7) day revocation period. Petitioner may not waive this seven (7) day revocation period, but he may waive the twenty-one (21) period within which to consider the Agreement.

DAVID WRONKO ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NO PHYSICAL OR MENTAL PROBLEM, CONDITION, OR IMPAIRMENT OF ANY KIND, WHICH HAS INTERFERED WITH HIS ABILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE MEANING OF THIS AGREEMENT AND ITS TERMS.

DAVID WRONKO FURTHER REPRESENTS THAT IN SIGNING THIS RELEASE, HE DOES NOT RELY UPON ANY PROMISES OR REPRESENTATIONS MADE BY ANYONE OTHER THAN THOSE PROMISES AND REPRESENTATIONS SPECIFICALLY STATED HEREIN.

Mr. Wronko further warrants, represents, and agrees that in signing this Agreement, he does so with full knowledge of any and all rights which he may have with respect to Respondent and the instant matter.

Thomas O. Johnston, Esq. on behalf of petitioner

Jacklyn Torres, pro se, respondent

Record Closed: January 9, 2024 Decided: January 10, 2024

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Team Academy Charter School (petitioner) sought to suspend Jacklyn Torres's (respondent) teaching certificate. Petitioner's appeal was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on June 6, 2023, for hearing as a contested case. A telephone prehearing was conducted, and a hearing was scheduled for January 8, 2024. On January 9, 2024, petitioner's counsel submitted a Settlement Agreement with a cover letter requesting that the matter be dismissed. The cover letter and agreement are attached hereto for reference.

I CONCLUDE that this matter is no longer a contested case before the Office of Administrative Law. It is therefore ORDERED that this matter be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This settlement agreement ("Agreement") made by and between

TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, INC.
(Hereinafter referred to as "TEAM")

AND

JACKLYN TORRES
(Hereinafter referred to as "Ms. Torres")

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Ms. Torres was employed by TEAM, pursuant to an Employment Agreement; and

WHEREAS, TEAM filed an Order to Show Cause with the Office of Controversies and Disputes within the State of New Jersey, Department of Education, docketed as EDU 0503Y-23N; and

WHEREAS, ~~on or about November 15, 2023~~, the aforesaid case was transferred to the State of New Jersey, Office of Administrative Law, Docket No. EDU 12956-2023; and Agency Ref. No. 8Y-3123

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into a settlement for any and all claims arising from Ms. Torres's separation of her employment with TEAM;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises hereinafter set forth, the parties desire to enter into this Agreement as follows:

1. EXECUTION DATE. As used in this Agreement, the "Execution Date" shall mean the date as of which the Agreement is fully executed.

2. CONSIDERATTION. In consideration of the release described in Section 3 below, Ms. Torres agrees to not enter into employment with any public school or private school for the disabled through one year from the Executiion Date. Upon receipt of the fully executed Agreement, TEAM's counsel will file a request with the Office of Administrative Law that the the matter be dismissed, in accordance with this Settlement Agreement.

3. RELEASE. In consideration for the agreement described in Section 2 above, the parties hereby mutually release each other and any of their predecessors, successors, parents, agents, affiliates or subsidiary entities, and its or their present or former officers, directors, agents, including KIPP New Jersey, Board of Trustees, representatives, employees, attorneys, committees, trustees, fiduciaries, trusts and their respective successors and assigns, heirs, executors and personal or legal representatives (hereinafter collectively referred to, together with TEAM, as the "Parties") from any and all claims or causes of action they may have or claim to have against another party arising out of or related to Ms. Torres's employment with TEAM. The claims released include, but are not limited to:

a. all statutory claims, including but not limited to claims arising under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (as amended), the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act (as amended), the New Jersey Family Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code (as amended), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as amended), the Rehabilitation Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (as amended), the Fair Labor Standards Act (as amended), the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994, the National Labor Relations Act (as amended), the Federal Warn Act (as amended), the New Jersey Millville Dallas Airmotive Plan Job Loss Notification Act (as amended), the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the Occupational Safety and Health Act (as amended), the Equal Pay Act (as amended), the New Jersey Minimum Wage Law (as amended), the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law (as amended), Equal Pay Law for New Jersey (as amended), the New Jersey Worker Health and Safety Act (as amended), the Labor Management Relations Act (as amended) and State Education Laws, N.J.S.A. 18A et seq.;

b. all claims arising under the United States or New Jersey Constitutions;

c. all claims arising under any Executive Order or derived from or based upon any State or Federal regulations;

d. all common law claims, including but not limited to any and all rights to discovery, claims for wrongful discharge, constructive discharge, violation of public policy, breach of an express or implied contract, breach of an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation, conspiracy, tortious interference with contract or prospective economic advantage, promissory estoppel, equitable estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, detrimental reliance, retaliation, and negligence;

e. all claims for any compensation including commissions, back wages, front pay, punitive damages, pay increases, bonuses or awards, fringe benefits, disability benefits, severance benefits, reinstatement, retroactive seniority, pension benefits, contributions to retirement plans, or any other form of economic loss;

f. all claims for personal injury, including physical injury, mental anguish, emotional distress, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, damage to name or reputation, interest, liquidated damages, and punitive damages; and

g. all claims for costs, interest, and attorneys' fees;

4. NON-ADMISSION OF LIABILITY. This Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by either party of any of the acts or omissions alleged, or which could have been alleged against the other party. The Parties specifically deny any liability whatsoever for any damages, injuries or other claims made by either party against the other party.

5. AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE. Each party mutually represents that they have not, and agrees will not, file any lawsuit or claim against the other based on any events, whether known or unknown, occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any events related to, arising out of, or in connection with, Ms. Torres's employment with TEAM, or the termination of such employment, in any court or tribunal of the United States, New Jersey, or any other state, city, county, or locality. Parties expressly represent that they have not filed a lawsuit or claim or initiated any other administrative proceeding other than as noted herein, and further promise not to initiate a lawsuit or to bring any other claim pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 arising out of or in any way related to Ms. Torres's employment by TEAM. Ms. Torres also acknowledges and agrees that while this release does not preclude her from filing a charge with the Public Employment Relations Commission, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a similar state or local agency, or from participating in any investigation or proceeding with such an agency, she will not personally recover monies, and expressly waives the right to recover such monies, for any complaint or charge filed against TEAM with any federal, state or local board, agency or court.

6. NON-DISPARAGEMENT. The Parties agree that they will not at any time, from the time of signing this Agreement, through any medium, either orally or in writing, including but not limited to, electronic mail, television or radio, computer networks or internet bulletin boards, blogs, social media, such as META (formerly known as Facebook), LinkedIn, or X Corp (formerly known as Twitter), or any other form of communication, disparage, defame, impugn, damage or assail the reputation of the other party, but rather shall act in good faith to refrain from any conduct or communication which might reasonably be expected to cause the recipient of a communication to question the business condition, integrity, competence, good character or professionalism of the other party.

7. CONSIDERATION. Ms. Torres acknowledges that the only consideration she has received for signing this Agreement is that set forth herein. No other promise, inducement, threat, agreement or understanding of any kind or description has been made with her or to her to cause her to enter into this Agreement.

8. SEVERABILITY. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and cannot be modified to be enforceable, excluding the general release language set forth in Section 3, such provision shall immediately become null and void, leaving the remainder of this Agreement in full force and effect. If the general release language in Section 3 is found to be illegal or unenforceable, Ms. Torres and TEAM agree to execute a binding replacement release.

9. CONSTRUCTION. The Parties and their representatives, if any, have participated fully in the review of this Agreement. Any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not apply in interpreting this Agreement. The language in this Agreement shall be interpreted as to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party.

10. AMENDMENT. This Agreement may only be amended by a writing signed by all of the Parties to this Agreement.

11. AGREEMENT ENTERED VOLUNTARILY. Ms. Torres acknowledges that she:

a. has carefully read and fully understands all of the terms of this Agreement;

b. understands that by signing this Agreement, she is waiving her rights under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. § 621, et seq., as well as all rights to all claims described in Section 2 of this Agreement, and that she is not waiving any rights after the date that this Agreement is signed;

c. knowingly and voluntarily agrees to all of the terms set forth in this Agreement;

d. knowingly and voluntarily intends to be legally bound by this Agreement;

e. is receiving consideration in addition to anything of value to which she is already entitled;

f. is hereby advised to consult with an attorney prior to the signing of this Agreement; and

g. has not been coerced, threatened, or intimidated in any way into signing this Agreement.

13. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and fully supersedes any and all prior contracts or agreements between the Parties pertaining to compensation or severance, and it likewise fully supersedes any and all other conflicting agreements or understandings between the Parties.

14. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed, including execution by electronic signature (e.g. pdf or tif file), in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and which shall collectively be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

BEFORE ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on July 3, 2023 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A hearing was scheduled for January 22, 2024 but was adjourned because the parties advised the undersigned that they agreed to settle the matter. The executed Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of agreement was forwarded to the OAL on January 5, 2024 and is attached hereto.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement, and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

AGENCY REF. NO.: 160-6/23

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, G.S. is a student residing within the Belleville School District (hereinafter referred to as "the District"), a public school district operated by the Belleville Board of Education (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") and E.G. (hereinafter referred to as "Petitioner") is the parent of G.S.; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal (hereinafter referred to as "the Petition") with the Commissioner of Education on or about June 8, 2023, challenging the decision issued by the Board on April 24, 2023, regarding a harassment, intimidation, and bullying ("HIB") matter involving G.S.; and

WHEREAS, the Petition was assigned Agency Reference Number 160-6/23; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner of Education transmitted the Petition to the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") for a hearing, and the Petition was then assigned OAL Docket Number EDU 05869-2023 N; and

WHEREAS, the Board maintains that it has at all times acted appropriately with regard to the HIB determination regarding G.S. as well as the application of the Board's

Code of Student Conduct to G.S., and fully complied with any and all obligations, requirements, and procedural timelines pursuant to State and federal statutes and regulations, as applicable; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner and the Board are desirous of resolving the issues and have reached an amicable resolution thereby avoiding the time and expense associated with further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth herein, the undersigned agree as follows:

1. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Board shall not submit, send, provide a copy of, or otherwise disseminate any of G.S.'s student records relating to the HIB matter, or any information contained within said records, to any college, university, or other post-secondary institution at any time. The Board also shall not disclose any of G.S.'s student records relating to the HIB matter, or any information contained within said records, in response to any civil subpoena, unless the Board receives written parental consent for such disclosure. Notwithstanding this Agreement, Petitioner understands and agrees that the Board is obligated to comply and will comply with the requirements of State and federal law and regulation regarding confidentiality of and access to student records, including, but not limited to, N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.5(e).

2. In the event of any transfer by G.S. from the District to another public school district, the parties agree that the District will provide the receiving district with a copy of G.S.'s student records regarding disciplinary actions taken by the District as to G.S., including, but not limited to, short-term and long-term suspensions, regardless of whether the action was imposed due to a HIB matter. The parties further understand and agree that a copy of the "HIB 338 Form" relating to G.S. will be provided to any receiving district which G.S. may transfer into after moving out of the District, but only if such "HIB 338 Form" relates to any disciplinary action taken by the District as to G.S. However, except as specifically stated above, the parties expressly agree that no other HIB records relating to G.S. will be provided to any receiving district at any time, including, but not limited to, HIB investigation reports, incident reports, witness statements, correspondence, and/or notice(s) issued by the District to G.S.'s parent(s) or guardian(s).

3. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Board agrees that the Board's HIB determination regarding G.S. issued on April 24, 2023 shall not have any impact on G.S.'s eligibility for or ability to fully participate in any extracurricular activities available to G.S. within the District, or in any honors classes available to G.S. within the District.

4. The Board will not disclose any of G.S.'s student records relating to the HIB matter, or any information contained within said records, to any teaching staff member, guidance counselor, coach, or school district administrator, except insofar as such disclosure is necessary in order to allow access to such records by "certified school district personnel who are assigned educational responsibility" for G.S., pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.5(e)(4), or insofar as such disclosure is made with written parental consent.

5. Each party shall be fully responsible for their own fees, costs and expenses incurred to date in all respects. This includes, but shall not be limited to, attorney's fees, expert fees, evaluation costs, transportation costs, and/or any other costs related to this matter, whether disclosed or undisclosed to the other party.

6. The terms of this Agreement represent the compromise of disputed claims between the parties. This Agreement shall not be treated as an admission on the part of the Board that it has not offered G.S. an appropriate education at any time, or failed to meet its obligations with respect to G.S. pursuant to State and/or federal law, or that either party has failed to act in accordance with any laws, statutes, regulations and/or codes.

7. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey and may not be altered, amended, modified, superseded, canceled or terminated except by an express written agreement duly executed by all of the parties or their attorneys on their behalf, which makes specific reference to this Agreement.

8. Upon its full execution, this Agreement shall be sent to the Office of Administrative Law to be incorporated into an Initial Decision approving same.

9. Each party with respect to the other party hereby waives all past, present and potential claims regarding G.S.'s education up to and including the date on which this Agreement is fully executed by the parties. It is expressly understood and further agreed that neither party is considered a "prevailing party" for any purposes. It is further expressly understood that this Agreement does not require either party to waive any claim related to the enforcement of this Agreement, including any attorney's fees that may be incurred as part of such enforcement claim(s) as may be allowable by law.

10. Petitioner agrees, certifies, acknowledges, and represents: (a) that she has had an opportunity to consult with an attorney of her choice and at her expense, prior to signing this Agreement; (b) that she has had adequate time and opportunity to thorough read and review and, and has read and reviewed, all of the terms and sections of this Agreement; and (c) that she and the Board do not waive any rights or claims that may arise after the effective date of this Agreement.

11. The undersigned understand and agree that they fully understand and consent to the terms set forth herein. The undersigned further agree and acknowledge that the drafting and negotiation of this Agreement have been participated in by the undersigned and their respective counsel and, for all purposes, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted jointly by each of the parties. No ambiguity shall be resolved against any party based upon authorship.

12. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be held in strictest confidence by all parties and shall not be publicized or disclosed in any manner whatsoever, except that: (a) either party may disclose this Agreement in confidence to their attorneys, accountants, auditors, tax preparers; (b) the Board may disclose this Agreement as necessary or required by law and as required by any other mandated/regulatory reporting or disclosure requirements; and (c) the parties may disclose this Agreement insofar as such disclosure many be necessary to enforce its terms or as otherwise required by law such as to explain or enforce same with a government agency or court of law.

13. The parties agree to cooperate fully and execute any and all supplementary documents and to take all additional actions which may be necessary or appropriate to obtain the full force and effect of the basic terms and interest of this Agreement.

14. Petitioner's signature below represents her agreement to the terms stated herein on behalf of herself and on behalf of G.S. The Parties further understand that the Board's representative named below has been duly authorized to execute this Agreement on the Board's behalf. This Agreement and may be signed by the parties in counterparts on separate copies of the Agreement, and all signature pages shall be incorporated into the Agreement as if all the signatures are affixed on one (1) page.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year set forth below.

Final Decision

Michael Fidler,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Eastern Camden County Regional School District, Camden County, William J. McGroarty, III, and Robert Cloutier, Respondents.

Synopsis

Petitioner, whose daughters attended Eastern Camden Regional High School and played on the Eastern Girls Soccer Team (Team) at the time of the events at issue here, filed an amended petition seeking declaratory relief pursuant to what he alleged was respondent's conversion of funds intended as donations to benefit the Team in contravention of N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-16.12(b). Respondent McGroarty served as head coach of the Team and was also a teacher at the high school, and at times solicited donations from petitioner and others through various fundraising efforts on behalf of the Team. In 2021, petitioner submitted the first of several Open Public Records Act requests to confirm that donations solicited by McGroarty were being managed properly. The responses led petitioner to believe that McGroarty was inappropriately depositing the funds into a personal bank account instead of one maintained by the high school or board. McGroarty filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, contending that petitioner's attempt to compel disciplinary action against him under the guise of a request for declaratory relief was procedurally improper. McGroarty further contended that petitioner lacked standing. Petitioner opposed the motion to dismiss and sought to amend his petition for a second time, explaining that his second amended petition would separate, into different counts, the declaratory relief he sought from the consequential relief he sought.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a), a request for a declaratory ruling may not seek consequential relief, and each of petitioner's requests for relief were clearly consequential in nature and exceeded what was permitted by the rule; the amended petition was procedurally defective and should be dismissed; petitioner failed to provide valid legal support for his motion to amend, and the amendment he sought failed to comport with limitations on the amendment of pleadings set forth at N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2(a) or in relevant case law. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion and dismissed petitioner's appeal with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and determination of the ALJ and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

Final Decision

Michael Fidler,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Eastern Camden County Regional School District, Camden County, William J. McGroarty, III, and Robert Cloutier, Respondents.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the reply thereto of respondent William J. McGroarty, III, (McGroarty) have been reviewed and considered.[1]

This matter arises from an amended petition of appeal filed May 17, 2022, with the Department of Education's Office of Controversies and Disputes. By way of background, petitioner has two daughters who attended Eastern Camden Regional High School (ECRHS) in respondent Board's school district when the petition was filed, and they played on the girls' soccer team. Petitioner made numerous financial donations to the team. Respondent McGroarty coached the girls' soccer team at ECRHS and taught at the school. Respondent Cloutier was the Board's Superintendent.[2]

In the amended petition, petitioner alleged that McGroarty was mishandling donations he collected for the girls' soccer team by, among other things, depositing the funds into a personal bank account. Petitioner further alleged that he notified Cloutier about the issue and that an internal investigation ensued. However, according to petitioner, McGroarty was neither reprimanded nor suffered any other consequences for his misconduct and continued to coach and teach at ECRHS.

Unsatisfied with the outcome of the investigation, petitioner's amended petition specifically sought "declaratory relief from the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.A.D.C. [sic] 6A:3-2.1 in an appropriate Order as follows":

> A. Directing the High School and the Board to engage a neutral third party, preferably a certified public accountant, to thoroughly investigate McGroarty's handling of student activity funds to determine the full extent of his misconduct, which currently remains unknown;
> B. Determining and declaring that, based on the evidence adduced thus far, McGroarty violated N.J.A.D.C. [sic] 6A:23A-16.12(b) and Policy No. 6660 by opening and maintaining an unauthorized Account that McGroarty used to deposit and disburse monies directly related to the Team and McGroarty's personal camps;
> C. Advising Cloutier to submit tenure charges to the Board to determine "whether there is probable cause to credit the evidence in support of the charges and whether such charges, if credited, are sufficient to warrant a dismissal or reduction of salary" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11;

[2] While this matter was pending at the OAL, petitioner's daughters transferred to a different high school outside of respondent Board's district and McGroarty retired from his teaching position. However, according to petitioner, McGroarty is still coaching the girls' soccer team.

D. Determining and Declaring that Fidler shall file tenure charges with the Board, in the event that Cloutier is unwilling to do so within twenty (20) days of the Commissioner's Order; and,

E. Providing for such additional relief as the Commissioner deems reasonable.

The Board and Cloutier filed an answer. McGroarty filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of answer, contending that petitioner's attempt to compel disciplinary action against him under the guise of a request for declaratory relief was procedurally improper. McGroarty also contended that petitioner lacked standing. The matter was transmitted to the OAL for further proceedings. Petitioner filed opposition to McGroarty's motion to dismiss and sought leave to amend his petition for a second time. Petitioner explained that his second amended petition would separate, into different counts, the declaratory relief he sought from the consequential relief he sought.

Following briefing, oral argument, and consideration of post-argument correspondence, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted McGroarty's motion to dismiss the amended petition and denied petitioner's request to amend his petition for a second time. The ALJ found that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a), a request for a declaratory ruling may not seek consequential relief, and that each of petitioner's requests for relief were clearly consequential in nature and exceeded what was permitted by the rule. Therefore, the ALJ concluded that the amended petition was procedurally defective and should be dismissed.

Additionally, the ALJ found and concluded that petitioner failed to provide valid legal support for his motion to amend, and that the amendment he sought did not comport with limitations on the amendment of pleadings set forth at N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2(a) or in relevant case law. The ALJ reasoned that petitioner's request to expand the terms of his current petition neither simplified nor clarified the issues. Instead, the ALJ determined that petitioner's proposed amendment sought "to cure vulnerabilities of his first amended petition highlighted by respondent's motion to dismiss" and that "[t]his exceeds the purpose for which motions to amend are normally treat[ed] with liberality and a light touch." Initial Decision, at 11.[3]

In his exceptions, which petitioner expressly limited to the ALJ's denial of his motion for leave to amend, petitioner asserts that the ALJ abused his discretion by denying the motion. He asks the Commissioner to reject the Initial Decision, grant petitioner's motion for leave to amend, and reinstate petitioner's appeal. Petitioner states that he sought leave to amend to avoid any argument that he failed to comply with the technical requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a)(1). He asserts that New Jersey courts liberally permit amendments to pleadings to secure a determination of cases on their merits so long as the amendments would not violate a rule of law, prejudice a non-moving party, or be futile. He claims that the proposed amendment neither violated a rule of law nor prejudiced respondents and therefore should have been permitted.

In reply, McGroarty asserts that the ALJ appropriately denied petitioner's request to amend the petition for a second time as the request was improper and futile not only for the reasons expressed in the Initial Decision, but also because the disenrollment of petitioner's daughters from the district rendered his requests for relief moot and negated his standing to bring the action. Additionally, McGroarty claims that the Commissioner now lacks jurisdiction to adjudicate the controversy since petitioner disenrolled his daughters from the district. McGroarty also contends that granting the request to amend would clearly prejudice him because it would force him to defend against baseless claims. Accordingly, McGroarty asks the Commissioner to adopt the ALJ's Initial Decision in its entirety.

[3] Regarding the substance of petitioner's requests for relief, the ALJ found that N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-16.12(b), by its plain language, applies to boards of education and not teaching staff members or coaches such as McGroarty. Furthermore, the ALJ found that petitioner could not compel the Board to file tenure charges against McGroarty as the filing of tenure charges by boards of education is governed by specific procedures set forth in the Tenure Employees Hearing Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 to -18.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's findings and conclusion that a request for a declaratory ruling may not seek consequential relief, and that each of petitioner's requests for relief were clearly consequential in nature and exceeded what was permitted by the rule. See N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a)(1) ("A request for a declaratory ruling shall reflect adverse positions on the statute or rule in question by the parties in interest, may not seek consequential relief beyond a declaration as to the meaning of the statute or rule, and may not be based on underlying facts that are future, contingent, uncertain, or disputed."). Therefore, petitioner's amended petition was procedurally defective.

Additionally, the Commissioner finds and concludes that the ALJ did not abuse his discretion when he denied petitioner's motion to amend the petition for a second time. N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2(a) provides that "[u]nless precluded by law or constitutional principle, pleadings may be freely amended when, in the judge's discretion, an amendment would be in the interest of efficiency, expediency and the avoidance of over-technical pleading requirements and would not create undue prejudice." Here, the ALJ found, and the Commissioner agrees, that amending the petition for a second time was not in the interest of efficiency or expediency as the amendment would neither simplify nor clarify the issues. Instead, the petitioner sought to expand the scope of his petition and cure deficiencies highlighted by McGroarty's motion to dismiss. The Commissioner further finds that to allow petitioner to attempt to cure deficiencies in his petition only after those deficiencies were brought to his attention by McGroarty in a motion to dismiss would prejudice McGroarty.

Moreover, the Commissioner finds that the amendment proposed by petitioner—i.e., to separate his requests for declaratory relief and consequential relief into two separate counts within a single petition—would not have cured the procedural defects which resulted in the ALJ's recommendation to dismiss the petition. Granting the motion to amend would be futile because the regulations do not permit a petitioner to seek both declaratory relief and consequential relief in a single petition. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(a) provides that "[t]o initiate a contested case for the Commissioner's determination of a controversy or dispute arising under the school laws, a petitioner shall prepare a petition of appeal conforming to the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.4 . . . ." In contrast, petitions for declaratory ruling must conform to the requirements set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.2, which differ from the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.4. Petitioner's proposed hybrid petition is neither contemplated nor allowed under the controlling regulations. For these reasons, the ALJ did not abuse his discretion by denying petitioner's motion to amend.

Accordingly, McGroarty's motion to dismiss the petition is granted, petitioner's request to amend the petition for a second time is denied, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner in this matter by way of amended petition seeks declaratory relief pursuant to what he alleges is respondent's conversion of funds intended as donations to benefit the Eastern Girls Soccer Team in contravention of N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-16.12(b). Respondent McGroarty filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of answer on June 1, 2022. The matter was fully briefed by counsel for the parties and oral argument was held on October 14, 2022. Post argument correspondence on the motion was exchanged and the record on motion closed on February 21, 2023.

The relief sought by petitioner is a declaratory ruling:

> A. Directing the High School and the Board to engage a neutral third party, preferably a certified public accountant, to thoroughly investigate McGroarty's handling of student activity funds to determine the full extent of his misconduct, which currently remains unknown;
> B. In moving to dismiss, respondent argues that the amended petition must be dismissed because petitioner lacks standing and because petitioner's attempt to compel disciplinary action against Mr. McGroarty under the guise of a request for declaratory relief is improper. In opposition, petitioner argues that he has set forth a valid basis upon which the commissioner can grant request for declaratory relief and that he has standing.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Although the motion at hand can be decided largely on procedural grounds, in the interest of context a summation of relevant facts alleged by petitioner follows.

Petitioner is an adult whose daughters attended Eastern Camden Regional High School at the time of the events described and were members of the High School Girls Soccer Team. Respondent McGroarty served as the head coach of the team and was also a teacher at the high school. McGroarty at times solicited donations from petitioner and others through various fundraising efforts on behalf of the team.

In November of 2021, petitioner submitted the first of several Open Public Records Act ("OPRA") requests to the high school and the board to confirm that the donations solicited by McGroarty were being handled properly. The responses led petitioner to believe that McGroarty was inappropriately depositing the funds into a personal bank account instead of one maintained by the high school or board.

On or about December 7, 2021, petitioner sent a letter to the District's superintendent, Robert Cloutier, requesting a meeting to discuss petitioner's concerns. Such meeting occurred on January 6, 2022. Cloutier indicated that he would assign an internal investigative team to look into the matter. A follow-up meeting was held with petitioner on January 31, 2022, to provide an update and during which petitioner identified additional issues he felt needed to be addressed, which he summarized in a letter a few days later, on February 2, 2022. A report was issued on February 3, 2022, by the committee which appeared to confirm petitioner's assertions but did not identify any consequence for respondent McGroarty. Petitioner expressed his dissatisfaction in a February 16, 2022, letter.

After no further action, to his knowledge, was taken by the Board, petitioner sought relief from the Commissioner to direct the high school and the board to conduct a further investigation into McGroarty's alleged misconduct, and that they hold McGroarty accountable for same, specifically, by way of a declaratory order:

> A. Directing the High School and the Board to engage a neutral third party, preferably a certified public accountant, to thoroughly investigate McGroarty's handling of student activity funds to determine the full extent of his misconduct, which currently remains unknown;
> B. Determining and declaring that, based on the evidence adduced thus far, McGroarty violated N.J.A.C. 6A:23A16.12(b) and Policy No. 6660 by opening and maintaining an unauthorized Account that McGroarty used to deposit and disburse monies directly related to the Team and McGroarty's personal camps;
> C. Advising Cloutier to submit tenure charges to the Board to determine "whether there is probable cause to credit the evidence in support of the charges and whether such charges, if credited, are sufficient to warrant a dismissal or reduction of salary" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11;
>
> D. Determining and Declaring that Fidler shall file tenure charges with the Board, in the event that Cloutier is unwilling to do so within twenty (20) days of the Commissioner's Order; and,
> E. Providing for such additional relief as the Commissioner deems reasonable.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), summary decision is appropriate if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. Summary decision is "substantially the same" as a motion for summary judgment under Rule 4:46-2. Contini v. Bd. of Educ., 286 N.J. Super. 106, 121, (App. Div. 1995), certif. denied, 145 N.J. 372 (1996). The court must first determine "whether the competent evidential material presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). If there is no genuine issue of material fact, the court must decide whether the agency's application of the law was correct. Contini, 286 N.J. Super. 106, 122. In administrative proceedings, as in the courts, it is "the movant's burden to exclude any reasonable doubt as to the existence of any genuine issue of material fact." Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J 67, 74 (1954). Thus, "[a]ll inferences of doubt are drawn against the movant in favor of the opponent of the motion. the papers supporting the motion are closely scrutinized and the opposing papers indulgently treated." Id. at 75.

The New Jersey Supreme Court in Brill, 142 N.J 520, 539-40 (1995), requires the nonmovant to raise a factual issue substantial enough to sustain a reasonable conclusion in the nonmovant's favor if a hearing were held. If the evidence, along with reasonable inferences, could sustain a judgment in favor of the nonmovant the motion must be denied.

The Commissioner of Education "has primary jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies arising under the school laws." Bower v. Bd. Educ. of East Orange, 149 N.J. 416, 420 (1997); see N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. However, "[w]here the controversy does not arise under the school laws, it is outside the Commissioner's jurisdiction even though it may pertain to school personnel." Bd. of Educ. of East Brunswick v. Twp. Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 102 (1966).

"To exercise jurisdiction over a dispute, an administrative agency must have specific legislative authority." Dolan v. Centuolo, nos. A-2470-10T4, A-2710-10T4, at *11 (App. Div. July 9, 2012), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/> (citing Archway Programs, Inc. v. Pemberton Twp. Bd. of Educ., 352 N.J. Super. 420, 426 (App. Div. 2002)). Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the Commissioner of Education > shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, without cost to the parties, all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws, excepting those governing higher education, or under the rules of the State board or of the commissioner . . .

> [N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 (emphasis added).]

"Our courts have long recognized the sweep of the Commissioner's reviewing powers . . . ". Bd. of Educ. of E. Brunswick v. Twp. Council of E. Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 101 (1966). However, "the sweep of the Department's interest and the Commissioner's jurisdiction does not extend to all matters involving boards of education." Archway, 352 N.J. Super. at 424-25. "Where the controversy does not arise under the school laws, it is outside the Commissioner's jurisdiction even though it may pertain to school personnel." E. Brunswick, 48 N.J. at 102.

In bringing the present motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer, respondent argues that the relief sought by petitioner is unavailable as petitioner seeks a declaratory ruling and does not meet the essential criteria to obtain such a decision from the Commissioner.

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a) provides that:

> any interested person(s) may petition the Commissioner for a declaratory ruling with respect to rights, responsibilities, and status arising from any statute or rule within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner. The determination to entertain such petitions for declaratory ruling shall be within the sole discretion of the Commissioner. If such request is granted, the matter shall proceed in accordance with this chapter as they pertain to petitions. A declaratory ruling shall be binding upon the Commissioner and all parties to the proceedings on the specific statement of facts set forth therein.

However, this section is qualified by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a)1, which provides that "[a] request for a declaratory ruling shall reflect adverse positions on the statute or rule in question by the parties in interest, may not seek consequential relief beyond a declaration as to the meaning of the statute or rule, and may not be based on underlying facts that are future, contingent, uncertain, or disputed."

It is undisputed, and I FIND, that petitioner's amended petition seeks an order:

> A. Directing the High School and the Board to engage a neutral third party, preferably a certified public accountant, to thoroughly investigate McGroarty's handling of student activity funds to determine the full extent of his misconduct, which currently remains unknown;
> B. Determining and declaring that, based on the evidence adduced thus far, McGroarty violated N.J.A.C. 6A: 23A16.12(b) and Policy No. 6660 by opening and maintaining an unauthorized Account that McGroarty used to deposit and disburse monies directly related to the Team and McGroarty's personal camps;
> C. Advising Cloutier to submit tenure charges to the Board to determine "whether there is probable cause to credit the evidence in support of the charges and whether such charges, if credited, are sufficient to warrant a dismissal or reduction of salary" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11;
>
> D. Determining and Declaring that Fidler shall file tenure charges with the Board, in the event that Cloutier is unwilling to do so within twenty (20) days of the Commissioner's Order; and,
> E. Providing for such additional relief as the Commissioner deems reasonable.

As also noted above, a request for a declaratory ruling may not seek consequential relief beyond a declaration as to the meaning of a statute or rule. Here, clearly, each aspect of the relief sought for the declaratory ruling is consequential in nature and goes beyond seeking a declaration as to the meaning of the statute. The petitioner seeks an order forcing the board to engage a party to conduct an investigation and to declare that respondent McGroarty violated policy and regulation. The petitioner further seeks that the order advises the superintendent of the district to bring tenure charges against respondent McGroarty, and in the absence of such action to permit petitioner to do so.

Each of these requests is clearly consequential in nature, and clearly goes beyond what is contemplated by the rules governing declaratory relief. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the request for declaratory relief is inappropriate and that the amended petition must be DISMISSED.

Furthermore, petitioner is seeking a declaration that McGroarty violated N.J.A.C. 6A: 23A16.12(b) seems to be misplaced. That regulation provides that:

> Each district board of education and charter school board of trustees shall maintain student activity funds in an interest-bearing account separate from all other funds of the district board of education or charter school board of trustees. The district board of education or charter school board of trustees shall disburse interest on this account(s) to each student activity fund in proportion to the balances on deposit for each activity.

By its plain language, this regulation places responsibility upon a board of education, requiring that they maintain the account in question. I FIND, pursuant to the arguments asserted and the petition filed, that the relief sought is premised upon a violation of this regulation by McGroarty. While it is no stretch to conclude that failure to utilize the account in question may not be appropriate action for an employee or teaching staff member to undertake, it is not for the teaching staff member to maintain the account; the regulation itself does not apply to teaching staff members; and, declaring that the regulation has been violated is not the appropriate way to address what is alleged. It may provide context for what is alleged but the responsibility it identifies is placed upon the Board.

N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-1.1 establishes the scope and purpose of Chapter 23 of Title 6A of the New Jersey Administrative Code. It states that:

> (a) The purpose of this chapter is to assure the financial accountability of district boards of education through enhanced State monitoring, oversight, and authority, and to ensure each district board of education adopts an annual budget that provides adequate resources to meet the State Constitution's mandate for a thorough and efficient system of free public schools for all children. This chapter sets forth the roles of the Commissioner of Education and the executive county superintendent in overseeing district board of education budgeting and expenditures. The chapter also > establishes mechanisms to ensure the efficient expenditure of budgeted funds in a manner consistent with a school district's approved annual budget.

> (b) Pursuant to this chapter, the Commissioner delegates to the executive county superintendent powers, tasks, and duties that further support efficiency of school district operation pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-43 et seq., and that complement the powers, tasks, and duties set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:7-1 et seq.

The chapter by its own language governs the roles of the Commissioner and the executive county superintendent and lays out procedures to be followed by boards in assuring its goals. It does not create a code of conduct to be followed by or grounds for a cause of action against teaching staff members. Accordingly, I again CONCLUDE that petitioner's amended petition must be DISMISSED.

Additionally, a tenured school district employee may only be dismissed or reduced in compensation for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or other just cause, and then only after a hearing before the Commissioner of Education following the filing of written charges signed by the person making the charges. N.J.S.A.18A:6-10(b). The person filing such charges "may or may not be a member . . . of a board of education." Ibid.

The Tenure Employees' Hearing Law provides specific procedures for filing tenure charges. Charges must be filed in writing with the secretary of the board, along with a written statement of evidence executed under oath. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11; N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1(b). The charges must be stated with specificity. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1(b)(1). The board of education must provide the affected employees with copies of the charge and statement of evidence, and they must be given an opportunity to respond. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11; N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1(b). After considering the charge in a private meeting, the board must determine whether there is probable cause to credit the evidence in support of the charge, and if the charge is sufficient to warrant dismissal or a reduction in salary. Ibid. If the board determines that probable cause exists to support the charge, which, if credited, is sufficient to warrant dismissal or a reduction in salary, then the charge is forwarded to the commissioner with a certificate of tenure charges. Ibid.

However, if the board does not certify the tenure charges within forty-five days after receipt of the written charge, the charge shall be dismissed "and no further proceeding or action shall be taken thereon." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-13.

A party may appeal to the Commissioner to review a board's determination not to certify tenure charges. See, e.g., Manalapan-Englishtown Educ. Ass'n v. Bd. of Educ., 187 N.J. Super. 426 (App. Div. 1981); Carteret Educ. Ass'n v. Bd. of Educ. of Carteret, EDU 2677-07, Initial Decision, (February 14, 2008), adopted, Comm'r, (March 31, 2008) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. The Commissioner is limited to determining whether the board answered these questions in making its decision: first, whether there is probable cause sufficient to credit the evidence in support of the charge, and second, whether the charge, if credited, is sufficient to warrant dismissal or a reduction of salary. Manalapan-Englishtown, supra 187 N.J. Super. at 429. The board of education's action is entitled to a presumption of correctness and is not subject to change unless the Commissioner determines that it acted in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner. Carteret, supra (citing Bey v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 288, 291).

In Galante, the petitioner, a teacher and high school football coach, appealed the Board's decision to not certify tenure charges filed against a high school principal. Galante v. Bd. of Educ. of North Arlington, EDU 1149-06, Final Decision, (August 21, 2008) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. The ALJ directed the Board to certify tenure charges to the Commissioner, on grounds that the Board failed to meet the two-part Manalapan standard for consideration of tenure charges. The Commissioner agreed with the ALJ that the Board offered no support for its conclusory statements that petitioner's charges were not creditable and did not rise to the level warranting discipline. However, the Commissioner remanded to the Board on grounds that the ALJ substituted her judgment for that of the Board. The Commissioner ordered the Board to undertake the necessary investigations and deliberations to articulate the basis for its decision.

In the present matter, petitioner is asking the commissioner to forego procedure and to substitute petitioner's own judgment for that of the Board, or, more specifically, to impose his will upon it – a request which clearly exceeds the role of an individual seeking to bring tenure charges or challenging a board's decision; that of an ALJ; and, potentially, even that of the Commissioner. Petitioner is clearly dissatisfied with the District's handling of his allegation and is asking the Commissioner to adopt and prescribe a specific set of preferred outcomes, which clearly exceed the contemplation of the law. That is not to say there isn't an appropriate way to assert his grievance, as described above – there is. But this is not it. While asking that an investigation be conducted, he also presumes the outcome of that investigation and seeks the filing of charges. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that for this additional reason, the amended petition must be DISMISSED.

Finally, petitioner also now seeks leave to file an additional amended petition. Motions to amend are to be granted when they "would be in the interest of efficiency, expediency and the avoidance of over-technical pleading requirements and would not create undue prejudice," citing N.J.A.C. 1:1-6.2(a).

There are general limitations on amending pleadings, especially when the amendment raised new or additional matters not set forth in the original petition. In A.D. and S.F. o/b/o P.F. v. Mine Hill Twp. Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDS 7465-07 (2007), the ALJ ruled that additional claims made in an amendment request were not proper, as the "second pleading constitute[d] an expansion" of the matter already filed. See also K.D. o/b/o E.D. v. Marlboro Twp. Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDS 17946-18 (June 10, 2020).

In the present matter, not only have issues not been simplified or clarified, it appears that petitioner actually seeks to expand the terms of his current petition. Or rather seeks to cure vulnerabilities of his first amended petition highlighted by respondent's motion to dismiss. This exceeds the purpose for which motions to amend are normally treaty with liberality and a light touch.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to provide valid legal support for his Motion to Amend, and that such amendment does not comport with the statutory and caselaw limitations on amendments. I further CONCLUDE that respondent's Motion to again amend his petition must be DENIED.

None of this is to say that allegations regarding inappropriate handling of finances in the school context are to be taken lightly – they are not. Nor is it to say that such allegations could not appropriately form the basis of a tenure charge – they could. And a party may challenge the handling or lack thereof by a board in addressing such a claim. However, there are procedures and avenues by which to do so, and they simply have not been followed in the present matter.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that respondent's motion to dismiss is GRANTED and petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED with prejudice. It is further ORDERED that petitioner's motion to further amend his petition is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Stephanie Florio,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

Synopsis

In this matter on remand, pro-se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE) that she had not met the requirements for issuance of a Reading Specialist Certificate because she failed to complete the required three credit hours in a supervised practicum in reading. Petitioner argued that her alternative education and experience satisfied a one-to-one correspondence to the missing credits, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.13(b). The SBE did not accept petitioner's alternative education and experience, finding that petitioner did not establish a compelling one-to-one correspondence with the Reading Specialist certification requirements. The Commissioner rejected an Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law in November 2022 and remanded the matter to the OAL for reconsideration under the correct standard of review, which is whether the SBE's decision was consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:3.

On remand, the ALJ found, inter alia, that: N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13, which sets forth criteria for a reading specialist certification, does not define "Supervised practicum in reading"; the burden of proof is upon the petitioner to establish that the SBE's decision did not comport with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions; petitioner submitted her work in a course entitled "Assessment and Remediation of Severe Reading Disabilities" (SPED 609) as the course meeting the supervised reading practicum requirement for a reading specialist certification; SPED 609 is a three credit course which in fact does contain a supervised reading practicum; while the SBE acknowledged that the course petitioner submitted to fulfill the practicum requirement did have a practicum component, the course was rejected because "the focus in the school setting was limited to one type of reading problem and a specific methodology, rather than covering a broad array of methods, strategies and techniques in the correction of reading problems"; however, the SBE did not, prior to issuing its decision, specify by rule amendment, or other writing, what the supervised reading practicum requirement actually was. The ALJ concluded that the SBE's decision in this matter was not consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions, as the SBE expanded "supervised reading practicum" from what is stated in the governing rule. Accordingly, the SBE's denial of petitioner's Reading Specialist Certificate was reversed.

Upon review, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that: while the SBE contended that the practicum must involve a broad array of topics related to reading disabilities, the applicable regulation contains no such requirement, and a regulation must be construed according to its plain reading. Accordingly, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Stephanie Florio,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education,
State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (Board) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and petitioner's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

In this matter, petitioner challenges the Board's denial of her application for a Reading Specialist Certificate. The Board denied petitioner's application because she did not satisfy three credit hours in a supervised practicum in reading. Petitioner argued that her alternative education and experience satisfied a one-to-one correspondence to the missing credits, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(b). Following a hearing, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that petitioner had met her burden of proof to demonstrate that her completion of a course entitled "Assessment and Remediation of Severe Reading Disabilities" (SPED 609) met the requirement of a supervised reading practicum and that the Board's decision denying her application was not consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions.

In its exceptions, the Board argues that petitioner did not provide sufficient evidence to demonstrate that her alternate education or experience demonstrated a one-to-one correspondence to the missing coursework as required by N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12. According to the Board, if the ALJ believed there was a question regarding the interpretation of what "supervised reading practicum" means, the ALJ should have engaged in an analysis of the principles of statutory construction. The Board contends that merely proffering a course that had a practicum component does not automatically mean that petitioner has met the requirements for the Reading Specialist Certificate. The Board argues that the SPED 609 course was limited to only one specific type of reading difficulty and one specific methodology, rather than a course focused on a broad array of methods, strategies, and techniques in the correction of reading problems. Accordingly, the Board urges the Commissioner to reject the Initial Decision and dismiss the petition of appeal.

In reply, petitioner argues that the ALJ correctly found that the SPED 609 course included a supervised practicum in reading and that she has therefore met the requirements for a Reading Specialist Certificate.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has demonstrated that her completion of the SPED 609 course meets the requirement of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13(b)(2)(iv) for a supervised practicum in reading. The course syllabus for SPED 609 specifically states:

> Students will be required to develop an intervention plan based upon the results of their assessment and to deliver that remediation in the practicum placement.

> The focus of the remediation portion of the course will be structured sequential multi-sensory reading program interventions, Orton Gillingham based, to address phonemic awareness development, decoding skills, word recognition.

Clearly, the SPED 609 course includes a reading practicum. While the Board contends that the practicum must involve a broad array of topics related to reading disabilities, the applicable regulation contains no such requirement, and a regulation must be construed according to its plain reading.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board's denial of petitioner's application for a Reading Specialist Certificate is reversed.

Record Closed: September 18, 2023 Decided: November 15, 2023

BEFORE THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Stephanie Florio, applied for a Reading Specialist Certification. The State Board of Examiners (Board) determined that Petitioner satisfied all requirements, except for a one-to-one correspondence between alternative education and experience presented and the practicum requirement.

Petitioner appealed that decision to the Office of Controversies and Disputes. The matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case, where it was filed on August 8, 2022, under Docket No. EDU 06851-22. In this matter Respondent filed a motion to dismiss, which was granted by the undersigned by Order dated November 15, 2022.

The Acting Commissioner of Education remanded the matter to the undersigned as noted in her Final Decision dated December 14, 2022. In said Final Decision the Acting Commissioner noted that the undersigned applied the incorrect standard of review for an appeal filed under N.J.A.C. 6A:-3. The correct standard of review is whether a decision is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions.

The remanded matter was filed with the OAL on January 18, 2023, under Docket No. EDU 00609-23.

A prehearing conference on the remanded matter was held on January 31, 2023, and a prehearing Order was entered on the same date.

Respondent had filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer in the prior matter. Accordingly, Respondent filed its Answer on February 1, 2023.

A hearing on the remanded matter was held on July 5, 2023. The parties were afforded the opportunity to submit post hearing briefs. Each party filed their respective post hearing briefs on September 18, 2023, whereupon the record closed.

ISSUE

Whether Board's denial is supported by the evidence and is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. The board, in its decision of April 7, 2022, determined that Petitioner failed to meet the practicum requirement for a reading specialist certificate.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT TESTIMONY

Stephanie Florio, Petitioner, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

She is a teacher employed by the Randolph Board of Education. She teaches reading and writing.

She is a graduate of The College of New Jersey (TCNJ) and holds a Bachelor's degree in Education, a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Master's degree in Psychology.

In 2017 she decided to apply for a reading specialist certificate.

Ms. Florio then reviewed the State Board of Examiners' decision on her application for a reading specialist certificate. (J-2) She noted the requirements for such a certificate. At the time of making her application she believed that her education met the criteria. The application was denied and she appealed to the Board of Examiners. The application was denied as the practicum she participated in did not meet requirements. The decision, J-2, did not list specifics as to the reading practicum.

She participated in a course at TCNJ which had supervised practicum in reading. She had inquired of the Board as to the criteria for the reading practicum. She never received a response.

Referring back to J-2 she reviewed a letter from TCNJ outlining course descriptions and was presented to the Board.

Ms. Florio then described a practicum as a practical application under the supervision of a professor based on the skill taught in the classroom. The class she took had a reading practicum.

CROSS EXAMINATION

The classes she taught were in her capacity as either an English Language Arts teacher or a special education teacher.

The first class she taught was strictly teaching reading and writing.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION

English Language Arts is synonymous to reading and writing. The terms are interchangeable.

BY THE ALJ

The partial denial by the Board was for the reading practicum. The practicum did not meet the requirements of the Department.

Rani Singh testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

She is employed as the Director of the Office of Recruitment, Prep and Certification at the New Jersey Department of Education (DOE). She has been employed at DOE for twenty-one years. Prior to that she was a teacher. She taught biology and elementary. She never taught reading. She does not hold a reading specialist certification. She does not hold a degree in education. She was an alternate route teacher.

Ms. Singh then reviewed J-1: Respondent's Responses to Petitioner's First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents. She signed on behalf of DOE. She provided the responses. She provided no response to the question asking to name all persons who have knowledge of facts relating to the within matter.

She also provided no response to the question asking to set forth all facts relied upon in denying Ms. Florio's application. The answer just refers to the Board's written decision.

The response to question 22 refers to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13 in response to a question for the criteria for supervised practicum in reading relating to a reading specialist endorsement. The response to Question 23, asking for detail in the content of supervised practicum in reading relating to reading specialist endorsement, was "see interrogatory 22".

No details were provided.

Ms. Singh was asked to review J-2, which were the documents she produced in response to Petitioner's request for production of documents. She reviewed N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13 and stated that is the sole criteria for a reading specialist certification.

She was present at the telephone conference where the Board heard Ms. Florio's appeal. She is the Board secretary.

She confirmed that 6A:9B-14.13 merely states "supervised practicum in reading".

Nothing was provided that provides any detail or insight into what a reading practicum must contain.

Ms. Singh then read into the record the description of SPED 609 found in J-2, page NJDOE 0011. She then reviewed page DOE 0097 of J-2, and confirmed that the course is for the assessment and remediation of reading disabilities for students who have special needs. This was submitted to the Board by Ms. Florio.

THERE WAS NO CROSS EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR RESPONDENT.

MS. SINGH WAS CALLED AS RESPONDENT'S WITNESS

DIRECT EXAMANTION OF MS. SINGH AS RESPONDENT'S WITNESS

Ms. Singh described the duties of her office. She described the steps for requesting certificate or an endorsement. After an application is received an examiner reviews it. The examiner reviews all supporting documentation provided.

If an applicant had not completed an approved program the examiner does a course by course review to make sure it meets the criteria that's listed in Code. This is what occurred with Ms. Florio's application.

Ms. Singh then described what occurs after a denial and the appeal process to the Board.

She then described the role of someone with a reading specialist certification.

She then reviewed what Ms. Florio submitted as alternative education experience in support of her application.

Ms. Singh then reviewed the various courses submitted and opined that they did not contain a supervised practicum. When asked this question as to SPED 609 she stated "There's no practicum component here." When directed by the undersigned, Ms. Singh read the following part of the course description:

> "Students will be required to develop an intervention plan based upon the results of their assessment and to deliver that remediation in the practicum placement. The focus of the remediation portion of the course will be structured sequential multi-sensory reading program interventions, Orton Gillingham based, to address phonemic awareness development, decoding skills, word recognition."

When asked by the undersigned if this means there is a practicum element to the course, Ms. Singh replied she was not sure.

Ms. Singh then described the types of reading difficulties and methodologies a reading specialist needs to be familiar with.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Ms. Singh again reviewed N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13 and noted it does not say a reading practicum must cover all grade levels. She could not answer how a three hour course could cover all grade levels.

CREDIBILITY

When witnesses present conflicting testimonies, it is the duty of the trier of fact to weigh each witness's credibility and make a factual finding. In other words, credibility is the value a fact finder assigns to the testimony of a witness, and it incorporates the overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, consistency, and how it comports with other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718 (9th Cir. 1963); see Polk, supra, 90 N.J. 550. Credibility findings "are often influenced by matters such as observations of the character and demeanor of witnesses and common human experience that are not transmitted by the record." State v. Locurto, 157 N.J. 463 (1999). A fact finder is expected to base decisions of credibility on his or her common sense, intuition, or experience. Barnes v. United States, 412 U.S. 837, 93 S. Ct. 2357, 37 L. Ed. 2d 380 (1973).

The finder of fact is not bound to believe the testimony of any witness, and credibility does not automatically rest astride the party with more witnesses. In re Perrone, 5 N.J. 514 (1950). Testimony may be disbelieved, but may not be disregarded at an administrative proceeding. Middletown Twp. v. Murdoch, 73 N.J. Super. 511 (App. Div. 1962). Credible testimony must not only proceed from the mouth of credible witnesses but must be credible in itself. Spagnuolo v. Bonnet, 16 N.J. 546 (1954).

When facts are contested, the trier of fact must assess and weigh the credibility of the witnesses for purposes of making factual findings. Credibility is the value that a finder of fact gives to a witness's testimony. It requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, its internal consistency, and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (8th Cir. 1963).

I had difficulty with Ms. Singh's testimony. I was particularly concerned with her response to the question about SPED 609 where she stated, "There's no practicum component here." Clearly the course description identifies a practicum component. She either answered the question not knowing what the course description stated, or misrepresented what the course description stated. Either way, the response renders her testimony in this regard not credible. Ms. Singh was proffered by the Board to support their denial of Ms. Florio's application. It is important to note that the denial was based solely on the Board's position that she lacked three credit hours in reading practicum.

JOINT STIPULATION OF FACTS

1. Appellant applied to the NJDOE for a reading specialist certificate in 2017.

2. On August 6, 2021 the NJDOE determined that Appellant had met the requirements of a Master's Degree and had completed 2 years of teaching experience, but advised that Appellant would need to complete an additional 12 graduate semester-hour credits to include "Reading Foundations," "Diagnosis of Reading Problems", "Correction of Reading Problems" and a "Supervised Practicum in Reading".

3. After further submissions to and review by the NJDOE, on September 28, 2021, the NJDOE re-evaluated Appellant's application and advised that Appellant would need to complete an additional 6 graduate semester-hour credits to include "Reading Foundations" and a "Supervised Practicum in Reading".

4. Thereafter, Appellant appealed the decision of the NJDOE examiner to the State Board of Examiners and requested that the Board consider alternative education and experience to substitute as equivalent to her semester-hour credits deficiency.

5. After review and consideration of this information, the Board determined that the alternative education and experience Appellant provided was sufficient to satisfy the foundations requirement. However, the Board determined that Appellant failed to meet the practicum requirement and Appellant's application was denied on April 7, 2022.

6. On July 1, 2022, Appellant filed a petition of appeal of the Board's decision with the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes.

7. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law and following a motion to dismiss filed on behalf of Respondent, the court dismissed the Appellant's petition.

8. On December 14, 2022, the Acting Commissioner of the State of New Jersey determined that the Administrative Law Judge applied a standard of whether or not the Board's denial was "arbitrary, capricious , or unreasonable" in denying the petition when the appropriate standard was whether "the Boards' decision is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions" and remanded the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for further proceedings.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I FIND the following FACTS, in addition to the Stipulated Facts:

1. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13, which sets forth criteria for a reading specialist certification does not define "Supervised practicum in reading".

2. Petitioner submitted her course work in SPED 609 as the course meeting the "supervised reading practicum requirement" for a reading specialist certification. (J-2, Bates NJDOE 0011 and NJDOE 0097-00100)

3. SPED 609 is a three credit course. (J-2, Bates NJDOE 0011)

4. The Board, in its decision of April 7, 2022, stated: "However, the Board finds she did not provide compelling evidence of a one-to-one correspondence between the remaining requirement of a supervised reading practicum and the alternative experience and education she presented." The Board went on to explain what this practicum should entail. (J-7, Bates NJDOE 0114)

5. The Board noted that the course Petitioner submitted for the practicum requirement, Assessment and Remediation of Severe Reading Disabilities, did have a practicum component "but the focus in the school setting was limited to one type of reading problem and a specific methodology, rather than covering a broad array of methods, strategies and techniques in the correction of reading problems." (J-7, Bates NJDOE 0114)

6. The Board did not, prior to issuing its decision, specify by rule amendment, or other writing, what the supervised reading practicum requirement was.

7. SPED 609 contains a supervised reading practicum. (J-2, Bates NJDOE 0097)

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

All teaching staff members in the state's public schools must hold a valid certificate before serving in any role in which they "teach, administer, direct or supervise the teaching, instruction, or educational guidance" of students. N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38 and N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2.7, the Board promulgated regulations for the required certification of persons employed in a public school district. Under those regulations, the Board issues three categories of educational certificates: instructional, administrative, and educational services. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.2(a). Endorsements for an educational services certificate include staff members such as a school psychologist or a school social worker. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.5, -14.9. These endorsements "coincide with the educational subjects or positions that share common attributes and thus are grouped under a particular certificate." Dennery v. Bd. of Educ., 131 N.J. 626, 633 (1993). Accordingly, a person can work in the particular field based upon the endorsement(s) enumerated on the certificate.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13 states:

> (a) The reading specialist endorsement authorizes the holder to serve as a reading specialist in preschool through grade 12. A reading specialist conducts in-service training of teachers and administrators; coordinates instruction for students or groups of students having difficulty learning to read; diagnoses the nature and cause of a student's difficulty in learning to read; plans developmental programs in reading for all students; recommends methods and materials to be used in the school district reading program; and contributes to the evaluation of the reading achievement of students.
> (b) A candidate for this endorsement shall have completed a master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university, two years of successful teaching experience, and one of the following:

1. A Department-approved graduate-degree program in reading; or
2. A program of graduate studies of 30 semester-hour credits consisting of the following:

    i. Reading foundations;

    ii. Diagnosis of reading problems;

    iii. Correction of reading problems;

    iv. Supervised practicum in reading; and

    v. Study in at least three of the following areas: children's or adolescent literature; measurement; organization of reading programs; psychology; staff supervision; linguistics; special education; research; and foundations of education.

> (c) An emergency certificate may be issued to a candidate who has obtained the following:

1. A master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university;
2. Two years of successful teaching experience; and
3. Completion of 12 graduate credits in the areas listed in (b)2 above.

While the Board cannot waive the requirements, it can consider alternative education or experience if Petitioner demonstrates, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that the alternative education or experience is the one-to-one equivalent with the statutory requirements. Hutchinson v. New Jersey State Board of Examiners, EDU16373-12, Initial Decision (April 5, 2013), aff'd, Commissioner (May 15, 2013).

The Board determined that Petitioner satisfied the requirements for RSC, except for six of the thirty semester hours, including study in reading foundations and supervised practicum in reading. Petitioner requested the Board consider alternate education and/or experience equivalent to the deficiency noted herein. Upon review of what Petitioner supplied, the Board found Petitioner satisfied the required study in the area of reading foundations. It did not find that Petitioner satisfied the requirement of supervised reading practicum. Accordingly, the Board denied the application as to the three remaining credits in a supervised practicum in ready.

The standard to apply in this matter is whether the Board's decision is consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. See Jessica Walder v. St. Bd. of Exam'rs, Commissioner's Decision No. 503-14, dated December 29, 2014.

The burden of proof is upon the petitioner to establish the Board's decision did not comport with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. McQuilken v. St. Bd. of Exam'rs, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8375-11, Initial Decision (Dec. 13, 2011), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collection/oal, adopted Comm'r (January 27, 2012) (citing Farrar v. St. Bd. of Exam'rs, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13768-08, Initial Decision (Sept. 9, 2009), adopted Comm'r (July 26, 2010). http//njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal).

Petitioner presented the Board with the course she took, SPED 609, which contained a supervised reading practicum. The Board, in its decision, determined that this course did not meet the requirement as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13. However, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13 does not define what the supervised reading practicum should encompass. Nothing, apparently, defines what this encompasses. The Board set forth what it believes the supervised reading practicum should be. However, nowhere is that defined in the regulation.

The Board is duly authorized to make rules regarding matters over which it has jurisdiction. N.J.S.A. 18A:4-15 states: The state board shall make and enforce, and may alter and repeal, rules for its own government and for implementing and carrying out the school laws of this state under which it has jurisdiction. In adopting N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.13 it failed to define "supervised reading practicum". Its decision, which does define "supervised reading practicum" is not the governing rule in the matter at hand. Accordingly, the Board's decision is not consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions, as the Board expanded "supervised reading practicum" from what is stated in the governing rule. In effect, the Board made a rule expanding on the requirement without resort to the rule making procedure set forth in the Administrative Procedures Act. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq.

I CONCLUDE that Petitioner has shouldered her burden of proof and that the Board of Examiners' decision is not supported by credible evidence, nor consistent with the applicable statutory and regulatory provisions.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the Board's denial of the RSC, as set forth in its Decision dated April 7, 2022, should be REVERSED.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the Board's denial of the RSC, as set forth in its Decision dated April 7, 2022, is REVERSED; and,

It is further ORDERED that the Board issue Reading Specialist Certificate (RSC) to Petitioner.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Salvatore Piarulli,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Garwood, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

In this case filed June 6, 2023, petitioner – a member of the Garwood Board of Education (Garwood or Garwood BOE) – sought indemnification from respondent for attorney fees and costs which he incurred in relation to a contested case, Board of Education of the Borough of Garwood, Union County v. Salvatore Piarulli, EDU 01176-23, filed February 7, 2023, wherein Garwood sought a ruling that petitioner was disqualified from serving on the Garwood BOE because he had filed a Notice of Tort Claim against Garwood and thereby incurred a conflict of interest. The tort claim followed a vote by Garwood to remove petitioner as its Sending District Representative (SDR) to the Clark Board of Education and included a demand for $10 million dollars in damages based on an allegation that he was slandered and libeled as the result of his removal as SDR. In the instant matter, petitioner sought legal fees and costs of $22,874.60 as indemnity pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20, as well as interest and additional costs and fees as permitted by law, all related to his tort claim against the Garwood BOE. Garwood filed a motion to dismiss, contending that the petition failed to advance a cause of action that demonstrated entitlement to indemnification under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner's position that he is entitled to indemnification pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 for expenditure of money for his attorney fees and costs because he was primarily acting in the public interest when he filed his Notice of Tort Claim and when he was "defending" himself in the course of executing his Board duties when Garwood filed suit to disqualify him as a member is without merit; N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 only obligates a board of education to defray costs incurred by a member when he or she is defending against a lawsuit or action brought by others for an act or omission undertaken in the course of performing his or her official duties as a Board member; petitioner's filing of his tort claim initiated an action against the Garwood BOE; and petitioner's tort claim advanced a cause of action for his own monetary benefit, which was in conflict with his duties as a Board member. The ALJ concluded that petitioner is not entitled to be indemnified for his attorneys' fees and costs based on N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 or on any other basis. Accordingly, the ALJ dismissed the petition with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioner is not entitled to indemnification from the Garwood BOE. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed with prejudice.

Record Closed: September 14, 2023 Decided: December 21, 2023

BEFORE: JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In EDU 05656-23, the parties are the Garwood Board of Education (hereinafter, "Garwood", the "BOE", or "Garwood BOE") and Salvatore Piarulli (hereinafter "Piarulli"), a member. In his Petition, filed on June 6, 2023 with the Commissioner of Education, Piarulli seeks indemnification from Garwood BOE for attorneys' fees and costs, which he incurred in the matter of EDU 01176-23. On June 23, 2023, Garwood BOE filed it Motion to Dismiss this Petition. On June 26, 2023, the Commissioner transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on June 26, 2023 as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 13 and assigned Docket Number EDU 05656-23.

Piarulli's June 6, 2023 Petition is in one count (Indemnification) specifically seeking the following relief: (1) legal fees and costs of $22,874.60 as indemnity, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20; (2) interest as allowed by law; (3) reasonable legal fees and cost for this Petition; and (4) such other further and reasonable relief as may be permitted by law. In its June 23, 2023 Motion to Dismiss, the BOE seeks: (1) an Order Dismissing the June 6, 2023 Petition with Prejudice, arguing that Piarulli's Petition fails to advance a cause of action demonstrating entitlement to indemnification under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20; (2) reasonable attorney fees and costs of suit; and (3) such other relief as may be appropriate.

History of EDU 01176-23

The Department of Education's Office of Controversies and Disputes, on February 7, 2023 transmitted a matter filed by Garwood BOE to the Office of Administrative Law. It was filed on February 7, 2023 as a contested case. It was captioned Board of Education of the Borough of Garwood, Union County v. Salvatore Piarulli and it was given OAL Docket Number EDU 01176-23. In EDU 01176-23, Garwood BOE sought a ruling that Piarulli was disqualified from serving on the BOE because he filed a Notice of Tort Claim against the BOE on January 11, 2023 and thereby incurred a conflict of interest. On February 9, 2023, EDU 01176-23 was assigned to John P. Scollo, ALJ. During a teleconference held before Judge Scollo on February 13, 2023, the parties mutually agreed as follows: Piarulli withdrew his January 11, 2023 Notice of Tort Claim in exchange for the BOE withdrawing its February 7, 2023 petition in EDU 01176-23. As a result of the February 13, 2023 teleconference, Judge Scollo issued a February 14, 2023 Letter Order.

History of EDU 01274-23

On January 24, 2023, Piarulli filed a Petition to the Commissioner of Education seeking to reverse Garwood BOE's October 18, 2022 vote to remove him as Garwood's Sending District Representative and seeking other relief. On February 8, 2023, the Commissioner transmitted this Petition to the Office of Administrative Law where it was filed on February 8, 2023 and given OAL Docket Number EDU 01274-23. On February 9, 2023, EDU 01274-23 was assigned to Judge Scollo. On February 10, 2023, Garwood BOE filed a Motion to Dismiss Piarulli's January 21, 2023 Petition.

As noted above, on February 9, 2023 EDU 01176-23 and EDU 01274-23 were both assigned to John P. Scollo, ALJ. As noted above, during the February 13, 2023 teleconference, EDU 01176-23 and Piarulli's January 11, 2023 Notice of Tort Claim were mutually withdrawn.

In EDU 01274-23, Judge Scollo granted the BOE's Motion to Dismiss, ruling that the Petition which Piarulli filed with the Commissioner of Education on January 24, 2023 was filed beyond the 90-day time limit allowed by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3 and therefore was time-barred. Judge Scollo also ruled that Garwood BOE had the authority to appoint or to remove any board member to / from the position of Sending District Representative, and therefore its vote on October 18, 2022 to replace Piarulli as SDR was done within its authority under N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(d).

The History of EDU 05656-23

The matter presently before the Tribunal is EDU 05656-23. On June 6, 2023, Piarulli filed a Petition with the Commissioner of Education seeking to be indemnified by Garwood BOE for attorneys' fees and costs, which he incurred in the matter of EDU 01176-23. Garwood BOE filed a Motion to Dismiss on June 23, 2023. The Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on June 26, 2023. The matter was captioned Salvatore Piarulli v. Board of Education of the Borough of Garwood, Union County and given OAL Docket Number EDU 05656-23.

This writing is Judge Scollo's Initial Decision on Piarulli's claim for indemnification and for other claims presented in EDU 05656-23.

ANALYSIS OF THE PARTIES' ARGUMENTS

Piarulli's Position

It is Piarulli's position that he is entitled to indemnification from Garwood BOE pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 for the expenditure of money for his attorneys' fees and costs because he was primarily acting in the public interest when he filed his Notice of Tort Claim on January 11, 2023 and when he was "defending" himself in the course of executing his Board duties when the BOE filed EDU 01176-23.

Piarulli urges us to read Judge Ciarrocca's February 2, 2023 Order. Judge Ciarrocca's February 2, 2023 Order dissolved the temporary restraints put in place by Judge Walsh's January 20, 2023 Order and dismissed Garwood's Complaint without prejudice in order for the Commissioner of Education to administratively decide the merits of the matter. Piarulli argues that Judge Ciarrocca's February 2, 2023 Order means that he was a prevailing party and thus is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20.

Piarulli also argues that the mutual dismissal entered into by the parties on February 13, 2023 during the teleconference with Judge Scollo should be considered as "concluded in Mr. Piarulli's favor", this entitling him to recover attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20.

Garwood BOE's Position

The essence of Garwood BOE's argument is that Piarulli, under N.J.S.A.18A:12-20, is not entitled to indemnification for bringing a personal causation against the Board on which he serves. Rather, a Board member is only entitled to seek indemnification in circumstances where he is defending himself against a lawsuit or other action which arises out of his actions performed or omissions made while in the course of the performance of his duties as a Board member.

Aside from the explicit wording of N.J.S.A.18A:12-20, Garwood BOE reasons that the purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20's indemnification provisions is found in the statement accompanying the initial adoption of the statute. Garwood quotes from the statement as follows:

> "The purpose of this bill is the give protection to every person holding office, position or employment under the jurisdiction of the board of education from financial loss arising from alleged negligence or other act or happening in the discharge of his duties and within the scope of his employment."

Garwood argues that in the above-quoted section, the word "protection" clearly refers to indemnification for the defense of an action brought against a Board member. Garwood argues that the word "protection" clearly does not refer to not indemnification being afforded to a Board member brought for initiating an action against his own Board.

Garwood also argues that indemnification is only available, under N.J.S.A.18A:12-20, when a Board member has been sued or otherwise brought into an action when the actions for which he has been sued arise out of or in the course of the performance of his duties as a member of the Board. Garwood BOE argues that the filing of a Notice of Tort Claim in which Piarulli sought money damages was not an action that could in any way be classified as something that arose out of and in the course of the performance of his duties as a member of the Board. That is to say, he was not acting in his official capacity as a member of the Board. Quite to the contrary, by filing the Notice of Claim, he created a conflict of interest under N.J.S.A.18A:12-2 by becoming interested in a claim for money damages against the Board. Moreover, his contesting of the BOE's Petition (EDU 01176-23) was in furtherance of his own claim for money damages and not in furtherance of his duties as a Board member.

Issues of Fact

The factual analysis of the parties' positions in this matter requires an exposition (in the form of questions) of the factual issues presented. Some of the factual questions presented in this matter are as follows:

(1) Is there a fee-shifting statute available to Piarulli, which (a) permits an award of attorneys' fees and costs for Piarulli's filing of a Notice of Tort Claim against Garwood BOE; (b) which permits an award of attorneys' fees and costs for defending against Garwood BOE's Petition filed under EDU 01176-23; and, (c) which permits an award of attorneys' fees and costs for bringing this present action filed under EDU 05656-23 against Garwood BOE?

(2) Is there a court rule available to Pirulli, which permits an award of attorneys' fees and costs for the same set of questions presented in sections (a), (b) and (c) of Question One?

(3) Is there a Common Law exception involving a fiduciary's breach of his fiduciary duties available to Piarulli, which permits an award of attorneys' fees and costs for the same set of questions presented in sections (a), (b) and (c) of Question One?

(4) Is there a contract between Piarulli and Garwood BOE, which permits an award of attorneys' fees and costs for the same set of questions presented in sections (a), (b) and (c) of Question One?

The answers to these and other questions are set forth below in the Tribunal's FINDINGS OF FACT.

Chronology of Background Information

The chronology set forth below is taken from Judge Scollo's Initial Decision dated July 24, 2023 in the matter of EDU 01274-23. It is not a verbatim account, but it sets forth events, which the Tribunal deemed particularly significant. The Tribunal included this chronology herein to help the reader understand the background of this matter.

November, 2021 and January, 2022

Piarulli was elected to the Garwood BOE in the November, 2021 election. He was sworn-in in January, 2022. At the BOE's reorganization meeting, the BOE appointed him as Garwood's Sending District Representative to the BOE of Clark pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-8.1 and 8.2. Clark is where Garwood sends its high school students. Garwood will be referred to as a "sending district" and Clark will be referred to as a "receiving district".

October 18, 2022

On October 18, 2022, Garwood BOE voted in favor of a resolution to replace Piarulli as its SDR to the Clark BOE with another board member. Piarulli contends that this was the result of defamatory statements and retaliation by the BOE's president, whom he claims is a "political rival".

It should be noted that N.J.A.C.. 6A:3-1.3 (i) sets forth a 90-day time limit for the filing of a Petition with the Office of the Commissioner of Education, wherein a Petitioner seeks relief from an action taken by a board of education. Thus, if Piarulli wanted to contest the BOE's October 18, 2022 action that removed him from the position of SDR, the 90-day limit for filing a Petition, as measured from October 18, 2022, would expire on January 16, 2023.

January 11, 2023

On January 11, 2023, Piarulli filed a Notice of Tort Claim in which he sought monetary and non-monetary relief from Garwood BOE.

January 16, 2023, January 20, 2023 and January 24, 2023

January 16, 2023 marked ninety days from the date (October 18, 2022) that the Garwood BOE voted to replace Piarulli as the SDR to the Clark BOE.

On January 20, 2023, the Garwood BOE filed a Verified Complaint and Order to Show Cause in the Superior Court seeking to prevent Piarulli from serving on the Garwood BOE in any capacity, i.e., to remove Piarulli from membership on the Garwood BOE. The BOE's reason for filing these papers was that Piarulli's filing of the Notice of Tort Claim on January 11, 2023 put him into a conflict of interest with his BOE obligations and thus mandated either his resignation from the BOE or his removal from the BOE pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 is entitled "Inconsistent Interests or Office Prohibited". It encompasses situations where a board member may have a conflict of interest. Garwood BOE contends that it was required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 to take immediate action. Both sides agree that the text of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 states that no member of a Board of Education may serve or continue to serve on a BOE if he has a direct or indirect interest in a claim against the BOE. Thus, Garwood BOE contends that Piarulli refused to resign and that its filing of the January 20, 2023 Verified Complaint and Order to Show Cause was a necessity required by the law and was not a tortious act.

On January 20, 2023, Judge Thomas Walsh granted the BOE's application for relief, issuing a Temporary Restraining Order against Piarulli, with the provision that Piarulli could move to vacate the restraints on two days' notice.

On January 24, 2023, Piarulli filed his Petition with the Commissioner in which he sought to overturn the resolution of October 18, 2022. January 24th was eight days beyond January 16th. This was later transmitted to the OAL and assigned Docket Number EDU 01274-23.

Piarulli admitted that he filed the Notice of Tort Claim on January 11, 2023 in which he sought non-monetary relief and money damages from the BOE. While Piarulli admitted that his $10,000,000 claim does indeed say that he seeks monetary compensation from Garwood BOE, he claimed that the $10,000,000 figure was a mere placeholder on a form and that his primary reason for filing the Notice of Claim was to protect the public's interest in having its duly-elected BOE member continue to serve in a capacity to which he was appointed by the BOE (i.e., serving as the BOE's SDR).

On January 24, 2023, Piarulli, in addition to filing a Petition with the Commissioner of Education, undertook another action. Responding to Garwood BOE's Verified Complaint and Order to Show Cause, Piarulli filed his own Verified Complaint and Order to Show Cause in Superior Court, Union County, Chancery Division alleging that the BOE's actions were illegal; seeking to vacate the January 20, 2023 Temporary Restraining Order issued by Judge Walsh; and seeking a dismissal of Garwood's Verified Complaint.

February 2, 2023

On February 2, 2023, Mark P. Ciarrocca,, P.J. Cv., Union County Superior Court, observing that neither N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 nor N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2 state that the Commissioner of Education has the exclusive jurisdiction [to decide the controversy], decided that an administrative remedy was nevertheless available. Judge Ciarrocca therefore dissolved the temporary restraints set forth in Judge Walsh's January 20, 2023 Order and dismissed Garwood BOE's Verified Complaint without prejudice, so that the Commissioner of Education would review and decide the matter pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A-6-9.

As noted above, the matter (EDU 01274-23) was transmitted to the OAL and was ultimately decided in Judge Scollo's Initial Decision dated July 24, 2023.

The above-stated timeline of events and the recitation of certain facts is consistent with the parties' prior submissions.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having considered the arguments of the parties, set forth above, as well as the background of this matter, I hereby make the following FINDINGS OF FACT.

From a plain reading of Judge Ciarrocca's February 2, 2023 Order, I FIND that he merely dissolved the temporary restraints contained in Judge Walsh's January 20, 2023 Order, and I FIND that he merely dismissed Garwood's Complaint without prejudice so that the merits of the Complaint could be decided administratively by the Commissioner of Education. I FIND that the rulings contained in Judge Ciarocca's February 2, 2023 Order do not state that the matter has been "concluded in Piarulli's favor". I FIND that the rulings do not declare Piarulli to be "the prevailing party", nor do they characterize Piarulli as "winning" or "prevailing" in the matter.

I FIND that that during the February 13, 2023 teleconference the parties mutually agreed that in exchange for Piarulli's withdrawal of his January 11, 2023 Notice of Tort Claim, Garwood BOE dismissed its February 7, 2023 Petition filed under OAL Docket Number EDU 01176-23. I FIND that during the February 13, 2023 teleconference, neither Piarulli nor Garwood BOE made any reservation of rights to continue to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs from each other. I FIND that the parties' mutual exchange, Piarulli's withdrawal of his Notice of Tort Claim in exchange for the BOE's dismissal of EDU 01176-23, was the parties' complete and final expression of their desire to end all issues related to the filing of the Notice of Tort Claim and the filing of EDU 01176-23.

From a reading of the applicable statute, I FIND that N.J.S.A.18A:12-20 only obligates a Board of Education to defray all costs incurred by a member when he is defending himself against a lawsuit or action brought against him by others for an act he does or for an omission he makes while he is in the course of the performance of his duties as a Board member. I FIND that when Piarulli filed his Notice of Tort Claim he initiated an action that was against the BOE. I further FIND that Piarulli's filing of a Notice of Tort Claim was not an action undertaken in his own defense as a member of the Board who was acting in furtherance of the performance of his duties as a Board member. I further FIND that when Piarulli filed his Notice of Tort Claim, he was advancing a cause of action for his own monetary benefit, which, under N.J.S.A.18A:12-2 was in conflict with his duties as a Board member. I further FIND that when Piarulli contested Garwood BOE's Petition (filed under Docket Number EDU 01176-23), he was not defending against an action initiated by others against him as a member of the Board acting in the course of the performance of his duties, but instead was acting in furtherance of his own claim against Garwood BOE.

Having considered the above-stated Questions One through Four, I make the following Findings of Fact. I have found that since Piarulli was not defending an action initiated by others against him as a board member acting in the furtherance of the performance of his duties as a Board member, N.J.S.A 18A:12-20 does not afford Piarulli a right to seek indemnification from Garwood BOE in this matter. I FIND that there was no fee-shifting statute applicable under the circumstances presented. I FIND that the filing of a Notice of Tort Claim does not give rise to an enforceable claim for an award of attorney fees by virtue of any Court Rule. I FIND that there was no breach of any fiduciary duty under the circumstances presented for which attorneys' fees and / or costs could be sought. I FIND that there was no contract between Piarulli and Garwood BOE that provided for the recovery of attorney fees for breach thereof.

APPLICABLE LAW

Indemnity of Members of Boards of Education Against Cost of Defense of Civil and Criminal Action

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 governs the indemnification of board of education members against the expenses and costs of their defense when lawsuits or other legal proceedings are brought against them in their capacity as board members acting in the course of their duties.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 states:

> Whenever a civil, administrative, criminal, or quasi-criminal action or other legal proceeding has been or shall be brought against any person for any act or omission arising out of and in the course of the performance of his duties as a member of a board of education, and in the case or a criminal or quasi-criminal action such action results in final disposition in favor of such person, the board of education shall defray all costs of defending such action, including reasonable counsel fees and expenses, together with costs of appeal, if any, and shall save harmless and protect such person from any financial loss resulting therefrom. Indemnification for exemplary or punitive damages shall not be mandated and shall be governed by the standards and procedures set forth in N.J.S.A. 59:10-4. Any board of education may arrange for > and maintain appropriate insurance to cover all such damages, losses and expenses.

The Law of Compromise and Settlement

The settlement of lawsuits, as a policy matter, ranks high. Nolan v. Lee Ho, 120 N.J. 465, 472 (1990). Generally, a settlement agreement is governed by principles of contract law. Thompson v. City of Atlantic City, 190 N.J. 359 (2007). Purported ambiguities in in a settlement agreement must be construed against the party that drafted the agreement. Linan-Faye Construction Co., Inc. v. Housing Authority of the City of Camden, 995 F. Supp. 520 (U.S. District Court of New Jersey, 1998).

In ascertaining the meaning and scope of a settlement agreement, it is appropriate for a court to consider that courts do not rewrite contracts in order to provide a better bargain for the parties than that which was contained in their writing. Grow Company, Inc. v. Chokshi, 403 N.J. Super. 443 (App. Div. 2008), citing Christfano v. N.J. Mfgrs. Ins. Co., 361 N.J. Super. 228, 237 (App. Div. 2003).

An agreement to settle a lawsuit, voluntarily entered, is binding upon the parties, whether or not made in the presence of the court, and even in the absence of a writing. Green v. John H. Lewis & Co., 436 F. 2d 389 (U.S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, 1970).

An oral agreement between counsel, to settle a personal injury case for $10,000, was enforceable, where the parties and their counsel did not think that agreeing to an amount was merely an intermediate step which had no legal efficacy until settlement papers were executed. Williams v. Vito, 365 N.J. Super. 225 (Law Div. 2003).

Regardless of a party's subjective intent, his outward manifestation of his intent to be bound by signing a settlement agreement could not be undone, in the absence of fraud, mistake, duress, or some other contract defense. Nevets C.M., Inc. v. Nissho Iwai American Corp., 726 F. Supp. 525, Affirmed, Appeal of Nevets, C.M. , Inc. 899 F.2d 1218.

Where the parties agree upon the essential terms of a settlement, so that the mechanics can be "fleshed out" in writing to be thereafter executed, the settlement will be enforced notwithstanding the fact that the writing does not materialize due to a party's later reneging. Lahue v. Pio Costa, 263 N.J. Super. 575 (App. Div. 1993); certification denied 134 N.J. 477 (1993).

Courts will not ordinarily inquire into the adequacy or inadequacy of the consideration underlying a compromise settlement which was fairly and deliberately made. And only where the inadequacy of the consideration is grossly shocking to the conscience of the court will the court interfere with a settlement agreement which was voluntarily executed by the parties. Pascarella v. Bruck, 190 N.J. Super. 118 (App. Div. 1983); certification denied, 94 N.J. 600 (1983).

There is a clear public policy in New Jersey favoring settlement of litigation, and only where there is fraud, or other compelling circumstances will a court refuse to honor a settlement agreement. Herrera v. Township of South Orange Village, 270 N.J. Super. 417 (App. Div. 1993); certification denied, 136 N.J. 28 (1993). A settlement agreement can be set aside if it was achieved through coercion, deception, fraud, undue pressure, or unseemly conduct, or if one party was not competent to voluntarily consent thereto. Peskin v. Peskin, 271 N.J. Super. 261 (App. Div. 1994); certification denied, 137 N.J. 165 (1994). A party seeking to vacate a settlement based on fraud must prove the following: (1) that there was a material misrepresentation, (2) which was made with knowledge of the falsity and with the intent that the misrepresentation be relied on, and (3) that there was actual reliance upon the misrepresentation to the party's detriment.

The Law Governing Recoupment of Attorney Fees

Under the "American Rule", which is followed in New Jersey, litigants must bear the cost of their own attorneys' fees. Counsel fee awards, as exceptions to the American Rule, fall under four general categories:

(1) those granted pursuant to a fee-shifting statute;

(2) those allowed by court rule;

(3) a tightly circumscribed common law exception in settings involving breaches of fiduciary duties; and

(4) those granted through a contractual agreement.

In Gannett Satellite Information, LLC v. Township of Neptune, A-63 September Term 2021, 085719, the New Jersey Supreme Court declared, "[T]he American Rule remains in force."

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

I CONCLUDE that when Piarulli filed his Notice of Claim he was not protecting any of the public's rights. I CONCLUDE that when Piarulli filed his Notice of Claim he asserted a monetary claim for his own benefit.

Having found that during the February 13, 2023 teleconference the parties mutually agreed that in exchange for Piarulli's withdrawal of his January 11, 2023 Notice of Tort Claim, Garwood BOE dismissed its February 7, 2023 Petition filed under OAL Docket Number EDU 01176-23; and having found that during the February 13, 2023 teleconference, neither Piarulli nor Garwood BOE made any reservation of rights to continue to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs from each other; and having found that the parties' mutual exchange (Piarulli's withdrawal of his Notice of Tort Claim in exchange for the BOE's dismissal of EDU 01176-23) was the parties' complete and final expression of their desire to end all issues related to the filing of the Notice of Tort Claim and the filing of EDU 01176-23, I CONCLUDE that the parties there and then mutually relinquished their rights to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs from each other.

I have found that Judge Ciarrocca's February 2, 2023 Order, merely dissolved the temporary restraints contained in Judge Walsh's January 20, 2023 Order, and merely dismissed Garwood's Complaint without prejudice so that the merits of the Complaint could be decided administratively by the Commissioner of Education. I have found that the rulings contained in Judge Ciarrocca's February 2, 2023 Order do not declare Piarulli as "winning" or "prevailing" in the matter. I have found that Piarulli is not entitled to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20. I have found that Piarulli is not entitled to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs based on a fee-shifting statute. I have found that Piarulli is not entitled to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs based on any court rule. I have found that Piarulli is not entitled to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs due to the breach of a fiduciary's duty. I have found that Piarulli is not entitled to seek attorneys' fees and / or costs based on a contract. I therefore CONCLUDE that since none of the above-referenced exceptions to the American Rule apply in this matter, the American Rule will not allow Piarulli to recover attorneys' fees (and / or costs of suit) in this matter.

Having found that N.J.S.A.18A:12-20 only obligates a Board of Education to defray costs incurred by a member when he is defending himself against a lawsuit or action brought against him by others for an act he does or for an omission he makes while he was in the course of the performance of his duties as a Board member, and having found that Piarulli's filing of his Notice of Tort Claim and subsequent contesting of Garwood BOE's Petition (EDU 01176-23) were not actions that were done in the course of the performance of Piarulli's duties as a Board member, I CONCLUDE that Piarulli is not entitled to be indemnified for his attorneys' fees and / or costs based on N.J.S.A. 18A:12-20 or on any other basis.

ORDER

Pursuant to the foregoing conclusions, it is hereby ORDERED that the Petition filed by Piarulli on June 6, 2023 is hereby DISMISSED with prejudice; and it is further ORDERED that this ORDER shall be served upon the parties via email and said parties shall acknowledge receipt of said ORDER within seven (7) days.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

P.P.P., on behalf of minor child, E.E.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth,
Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that his minor child, E.E.P., was not entitled to a free public education in Elizabeth schools during the period between May 5, 2023 and June 5, 2023, contending that he and E.E.P. resided at an apartment on Fulton Street in Elizabeth. The Board contended that E.E.P. was domiciled in Hillside, New Jersey during this period. The Board sought tuition reimbursement for the period of E.E.P.'s alleged ineligible attendance in Elizabeth schools.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: E.E.P. was disenrolled from the Elizabeth School District (Elizabeth) in June 2023; P.P.P. failed to appear at a prehearing conference in October 2023; during a second prehearing conference in November 2023, petitioner disconnected from the call prior to conclusion of the conference; petitioner then failed to appear at the hearing in December 2023; the respondent Board has shown by a preponderance of evidence that neither E.E.P.'s mother, R.V., nor his father, P.P.P., reside in Elizabeth; and petitioner failed to provide any evidence to the contrary; and N.J.S.A. 18A38-1(b)(1) provides that when the evidence does not support a claim of residency, the resident shall be assessed tuition for the period of ineligible attendance. The ALJ concluded that petitioner owes the Board tuition reimbursement in the amount of $1,997.40, representing twenty days of ineligible attendance by E.E.P. in Elizabeth schools.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter and dismissed the petition. Petitioner was ordered to reimburse the Board in the amount of $1,997.40.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

P.P.P., on behalf of minor child, E.E.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner failed to sustain his burden of establishing that he and his minor child, E.E.P., were domiciled in Elizabeth (the District) between May 5, 2023 and June 5, 2023. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that E.E.P. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the District during that time.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioners for the time period during which E.E.P. was ineligible to attend school in the District. Therefore, the Elizabeth Board of Education (Board) is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $1,997.40 for the period from May 5, 2023 through June 5, 2023. [1]

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $1,997.40 for tuition costs incurred from May 5, 2023 through June 5, 2023 when E.E.P. was ineligible to attend school in the District. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

[1] This amount is based on the per diem tuition rate of $99.87 listed in the District's Final Notice of Ineligibility (Exhibit R-4) and the District's 2022-2023 school calendar (Exhibit R-8), which reflects 20 days of school between May 5, 2023 and June 5, 2023.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

P.P.P., petitioner, pro se

Brian Kane, Esq., for respondent (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 19, 2023 Decided: December 21, 2023

BEFORE PATRICE E. HOBBS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, P.P.P. challenges the determination by the Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County (BOE or respondent) that the minor child E.E.P. does not reside in Elizabeth pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and for reimbursement of tuition for E.E.P. Should public school be free to petitioner and his children in Elizabeth while they lived in Hillside? No. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a), public school shall be free to a minor who is domiciled within the school district, and petitioner and his family meet no exception to this law.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

In June 2023, E.E.P. was disenrolled from the Elizabeth School District. On September 11, 2023, P.P.P. filed his appeal with the Commissioner of Education. On September 22, 2023, this matter was transmitted from the New Jersey State Department of Education to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to-15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to-13. A prehearing conference was held on October 16, 2023. P.P.P. did not appear. A second prehearing conference was held on November 8, 2023. Prior to conclusion of the prehearing conference, P.P.P. disconnected from the call. P.P.P. did not appear for the hearing. The hearing took place on December 19, 2023. The record closed on December 19, 2023.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the credible testimonial and documentary evidence, I FIND the following uncontroverted FACTS:

1. R.V. is the mother of E.E.P. and she enrolled E.E.P. at JVJ STEM Academy in Elizabeth, New Jersey. (R-1.)
2. R.V. is also the mother of A.P. (year of birth 2013). A.P. is not enrolled in any Elizabeth Public School.
3. P.P.P. was not listed on the school demographic profile. (R-1.)
4. During the 2022-2023 school year, E.E.P. had 400 absences from his class. (R-2.)
5. As a result of the unusually large number of absences, the BOE requested that R.V. provide the BOE with proof of domiciliary within the district. (R-3.)
6. There was no response from R.V.

7. The BOE engaged Mr. Buteau, an investigator, who went to the Cross Avenue address. Mr. Buteau spoke with the landlord who stated she did not know R.V. or E.E.P.
8. Since the BOE had no proof of residency, the BOE notified R.V. that E.E.P. was ineligible for school within the district. (R-4.)
9. Mr. Buteau spoke with R.V. who confirmed that she resided in Hillside, New Jersey.
10. Mr. Buteau verified that R.V. resides in Hillside, New Jersey through a background check that includes public and private records.
11. R.V. provided no explanation for the numerous absences from school.
12. The BOE formally disenrolled E.E.P. from the school district on June 5, 2023.
13. On September 11, 2023, P.P.P. filed an appeal of the residency determination, and included a certified letter from Mr. Franco, an Anchor Benefit Application, and an Elizabeth Public Library card as proof that P.P.P. resides at Fulton Street in Elizabeth. (R-7.)
14. The certified letter from Mr. Franco states that he rents a Fulton Street apartment to P.P.P.
15. The BOE Residency Verification Form lists multiple documents that would be acceptable as proof of residency and requires a showing of only five documents. P.P.P. not only failed to provide five items for proof of residency as required by the BOE, but also failed to provide any of the items listed on the Residency Verification Form. (R-7.)
16. Mr. Buteau went to the Fulton Street address and spoke with the tenants at that address who had no knowledge of P.P.P. or E.E.P.
17. Mr. Buteau verified that the owner of the Fulton Street address is Ms. Virgina Scott.
18. E.E.P. was ineligible for education at the Elizabeth BOE from May 5, 2023, through June 5, 2023, or twenty school days.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

At issue in this case is whether E.E.P resides within the Elizabeth Board of Education School District. Any child between the ages of five and twenty years old is entitled to free public education in the district in which he is a resident. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a). A student is a resident of a school district if his parent or guardian has a permanent home in the district such that "the parent or guardian intends to return to it when absent and has no present intent of moving from it, notwithstanding the existence of homes or residences elsewhere." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1). A student may attend school in a district in which he is a non-resident, with or without payment of tuition, at the discretion of the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-3(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-2.2.

Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). The domicile of an unemancipated child is that of his or her parent, custodian, or guardian. P.B.K. o/b/o minor child E.Y. v. Board of Ed. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super. 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001).

Where a local board determines that a child is not properly domiciled in its district, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2) provides a right of appeal to the parents as follows:

> The parent or guardian may contest the Board's decision before the Commissioner within 21 days of the date of the decision and shall be entitled to an expedited hearing before the Commissioner and shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this section.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). In the case at hand, P.P.P. contested the BOE's decision that E.E.P. was not properly domiciled in the School District. The BOE has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that neither R.V. nor P.P.P. reside in Elizabeth. P.P.P. did not provide any evidence to the contrary.

Based on the facts above, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner and the minor child, E.E.P. were not domiciled in the Elizabeth Board of Education School District in the 2022-2023 school year.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) provides that when the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, the resident shall be assessed tuition:

> Tuition shall be computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance and shall be collected in the manner in which orders of the commissioner are enforced.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1). Since the evidence does not support the claims of the petitioner, the BOE is therefore authorized to assess tuition upon the petitioner as required under the law. The BOE has provided the per student daily rate as $99.87 and the number of days of ineligible attendance for E.E.P. as twenty. The total amount of tuition reimbursement owed to the BOE is $1997.40. Based on the above facts and legal principles cited above, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner owes the respondent the tuition for out-of-district students for the entire 2022-23 school year.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the petitioner owes the respondent the cost of tuition for out-of-district student, E.E.P. for his attendance at the JVJ Stem Academy in the amount of $1997.40.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Marquis Garnett,
Chesilhurst Board of Education,
Camden County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner, noting that respondent was previously the subject of an Order to Show Cause and received a suspension for failing to timely complete the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

Docket No.: T03-23
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Marquis Garnett,
Chesilhurst Board of Education, Camden County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Marquis Garnett (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Chesilhurst Board of Education, located in Camden County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 19, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, he failed to complete training as required. Additionally, the Commission notes Respondent was previously issued a suspension for failing to complete his mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion (T16-21).

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons forth above, and given that Respondent was previously the subject of an OTSC in which he received a suspension for failing to complete his mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon adoption by the Commissioner of Education.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Taylor Klenk, Somerdale Park Board of Education,
Camden County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that she has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

In the OTSC that was served on the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Somerdale Park Board of Education, located in Camden County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 19, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising her that the Commission required completion of the training by November 17, 2023 to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Lori Perloff, West Wildwood Board of Education,
Cape May County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a sixty-day suspension, noting that respondent was previously the subject of an Order to Show Cause for failing to timely complete the required training. The SEC advises that respondent did complete the required training on December 24, 2023. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law.

Accordingly, respondent is suspended from the Board for sixty days for violating the School Ethics Act.

Docket No.: T07-23
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Lori Perloff,
West Wildwood Board of Education, Cape May County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Lori Perloff (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the West Wildwood Board of Education, located in Cape May County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 4 training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 19, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising her that the Commission required completion of the training by November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required. Additionally, the Commission notes Respondent was previously issued a reprimand for failing to complete her mandatory training requirement in a timely fashion (T29-16).

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, given that Respondent was previously the subject of an OTSC in which she received a reprimand, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a sixty (60) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Douglas Walker,
Alexandria Township Board of Education,
Hunterdon County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a penalty of censure. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 24, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Jill Ireland, High Point Regional School District Board of Education, Sussex County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. The SEC advises that respondent completed the required training on December 29, 2023. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is suspended from the Board for 30 days for violating the School Ethics Act.

Docket No.: T19-23
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Jill Ireland,
High Point Regional School District Board of Education, Sussex County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Jill Ireland (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the High Point Regional School District Board of Education, located in Sussex County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 1 training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 24, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Michael Bohr, Lenape Valley Regional High School District Board of Education, Sussex County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that he has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq. However, subsequent to the issuance of its decision, the SEC advised the Commissioner that respondent is no longer a member of the Lenape Valley Regional High School District Board of Education (Board).

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. However, as respondent is no longer a member of the Board, respondent is hereby censured for violating the School Ethics Act.

Docket No.: T21-23
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Michael Bohr,
Lenape Valley Regional High School District Board of Education, Sussex County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Michael Bohr (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Lenape Valley Regional High School District Board of Education, located in Sussex County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 1 training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 24, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Courtney Malefyt,
Sussex Wantage Regional School District
Board of Education, Sussex County.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that she has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Courtney Malefyt (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Sussex Wantage Regional School District Board of Education, located in Sussex County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 24, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 by failing to timely complete the required board member training. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC recommended a sanction of removal effective upon the adoption of the decision by the Commissioner. Alternatively, if respondent completed the required training before the issuance of the Commissioner's final decision and notified the SEC accordingly, the SEC recommended a sanction of a thirty-day suspension. To date, respondent has not notified the SEC that she has completed the required training. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Accordingly, respondent is removed from the Board for violating the School Ethics Act.

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Dajshia Gibson (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Lawnside Board of Education, located in Camden County. As a result of her position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 19, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by

November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the Commission issues its decision, but before the Commissioner issues a final decision, receives a suspension for 30 days." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(c). However, "the Commission will recommend this penalty only if the board member or the trustee provides to the [NJSBA] and the Commission written notice before the Commissioner issues a final decision." Ibid. If the board member or trustee fails to complete training as of the date the Commissioner issues its final decision, the Commission will recommend removal of the board member or trustee from his or her position. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(d).

For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of the Commissioner of Education's decision, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of successful completion of the training requirement.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner
Docket No.: T04-23

Whereas, Dajshia Gibson (Respondent) is a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a board member, Respondent is required to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to complete her training program by December 31, 2022; and

Whereas, at its meeting on November 28, 2023, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by December 31, 2022, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by December 31, 2022, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1; and

Whereas, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

Whereas, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be within forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of this decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon issuance of a final decision by the Commissioner of Education, provided the board member or trustee provides written notice of the successful completion of the training requirement; and

Whereas, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.T., on behalf of minor children,
K.T. and P.T,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Sparta, Sussex County,

Respondent.

On October 28, 2021, a final agency decision was rendered in this matter, wherein the Commissioner found petitioner A.T. liable for tuition in the amount of $35,363.44 for the time during the 2019-2020 school year during which petitioner's minor children were ineligible to attend school in the Sparta Township school district. The Sparta Township Board of Education (Board) subsequently requested that the Commissioner seek entry of the assessment on the judgment docket of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10.

Petitioner objected to the request, arguing that the minor children are "handicapped and their handicap was not accommodated," stating that "a civil action will be filed on behalf" of the children, and requesting that a judgment not be entered at this time. However, there is no indication that an action is currently pending. Moreover, the Commissioner's decision assessing tuition has been upheld by the Appellate Division and the New Jersey Supreme Court, such that there is no question that petitioners owe tuition to the Board. A.T., on behalf of minor children K.T. and P.T. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Sparta, Sussex Co., 2023 N.J Super. Unpub. LEXIS 437 (App. Div. Mar. 24, 2023), cert. denied Nov. 14, 2023. Furthermore, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 3A:11.1(b)(1), objections to a request for a judgment to be recorded "may not dispute the fact that monies are owed or the amount of such monies as reflected in the final order of assessment, but shall be limited to claims of error in the amount of judgment sought, for example, because payments have been made that the letter of request does not reflect." Petitioner does not contend that she has paid the Board any portion of the amount assessed against her.

Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10, Annette Tarnawski is now subject to entry of a judgment by the court in the amount of $35,363.44, which represents the payment ordered by the Commissioner, with interest to accrue as provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

AGENCY DKT. NO. 2-1/21

A.T. ON BEHALF OF K.T. AND P.T.,

v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPARTA, SUSSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

George T. Daggett, Esq., for petitioner A.T. o/b/o K.T. and P.T. (Law Offices of George T. Daggett, attorneys)

Marc H. Zitomer, Esq., for respondent Board of Education of the Township of Sparta (Schenck, Price Smith & King, attorneys)

Record Closed: July 23, 2021 Decided: August 5, 2021

BEFORE GAIL M. COOKSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner A.T. filed and perfected a Petition of Appeal with the Department of Education on or about January 6, 2021, from the determination of the Board of Education ("District" or "Board") of the Township of Sparta ("Sparta") dated November 20, 2020, that she and her family are not domiciled in the Sparta and that her children cannot continue to attend its schools. The Board answered the petition and filed a counterclaim demanding tuition repayment for the period since January 3, 2020. On or about January 11, 2021, petitioner filed a Request for Emergent Relief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Department of Education Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the Petition and a Request for Emergent Relief to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on or about January 12, 2021. The matter was assigned to the undersigned for oral argument on the emergency request, which was held through Zoom technology, consistent with the OAL Covid-19 Emergency provisions, on January 15, 2021. A determination on the emergent application was filed on January 19, 2021, wherein I concluded that the emergent relief must be granted but subject to the potential continued accrual of tuition reimbursement.

The plenary hearing was held through Zoom technology, consistent with the OAL Covid-19 Emergency provisions, on June 25, 2021. Post-hearing submissions were permitted and the record closed on July 23, 2021, with their receipt.

JOINT STIPULATION OF FACTS

The parties submitted a Joint Stipulation of Facts setting forth:

1. The Sparta Township Board of Education ("Board" or "District") is a pre-K to 12 school district located in Sussex County, New Jersey.

2. A.T. ("petitioner") is the parent of two children who are pertinent to this matter, K.T. and P.T. (collectively, "children").

3. K.T. is in the first grade and is a child entitled to special education as diagnosed on the autism spectrum.

4. P.T. is in preschool. He has a heart condition, but he has not been designated as a child in need of special education.[1]

5. From 2017 until June of 2019, petitioner, her spouse, and her children lived at [xx] Main Street in Garfield, New Jersey. E.K. is the owner of the home and is petitioner's mother.

6. On or about June 28, 2018, Paul Lanaris of N.J. Best HOME INSPECTIONS conducted an inspection of the residence at [xxx] West Mountain Road in Sparta Township, New Jersey ("Sparta Home") for petitioner's spouse, K.T. ("spouse"). Inspector Lanaris noted material defects in the home. See Exhibit A for a copy of the inspection report.

7. On or about August 27, 2018, petitioner's spouse purchased the Sparta Home. See Exhibit B, August 27, 2018 Deed of Sale.

8. On September 18, 2019, petitioner e-mailed the District's Superintendent of Schools at the time, Dr. Michael Rossi, to inquire as to whether her children could attend the District's schools free of charge until construction was completed at the Sparta Home. Petitioner stated that, "construction [would] be done by January and [petitioner's family would] no longer be staying [with their] family but in [their] home by then." See Exhibit C, September 18, 2019 e-mail.

9. On September 19, 2019, Dr. Rossi transmitted two nearly identical letters to petitioner in response to her correspondence, wherein he notified her that the children were granted permission to attend the District's schools free of charge, but that if the family did not move into Sparta Township by January 3, 2020, tuition would be charged, per Board policy. Dr. Rossi's letters stated the following, in pertinent parts:

> I am pleased to inform you that permission is granted with the understanding that you will provide transportation until you actually move into Sparta. [...]

[1] This stipulation is herein revised to correct the identification of the proper student, as addressed at the hearing.

> In the event you are not able to move by January 3, 2020, tuition will be charged. According to our current Board Policy, children are eligible to attend Sparta Schools if there is a signed contract to buy, build, or rent a residence within our district for a period not to exceed 120 days previous to the anticipated date of residency without tuition charges. If the Sparta residence is not established by the end of the period of free attendance, tuition shall be required for the remainder of the time until residency is established. Since your son will start school while not residing in Sparta on September 3, 2019, tuition would commence on January 3, 2020 and continue until the time you move.
> [See Exhibit D, September 19, 2019 letters.]

10. The Board Policy that Dr. Rossi referred to was Policy 5111, "Eligibility of Resident/Nonresident Students (M)", which states, in pertinent part:

> A nonresident student otherwise eligible for attendance whose parent or guardian anticipates school district residency and has entered a contract to buy, build, or rent a residence in this school district may be enrolled 120 days without payment of tuition for a period of time not greater than 120 days prior to the anticipated date of residency. If any such student does not become a resident of the school district within 120 days after admission to school, tuition will be charged for attendance commencing the beginning of the 121st day and until such time as the student becomes a resident or withdraws from school.
> [See Exhibit E, Board Policy 5111.]

12. On November 3, 2020, the District Acting Superintendent of Schools at the time, Patrick McQueeney, wrote to petitioner and her spouse to inquire as to where they were domiciled at that time. He stated as follows:

> As you know, Superintendent Rossi granted your children permission to continue attending school in the Sparta School District on a tuition-free basis until January 3, 2020 conditioned on you moving into the home at [xxx] West Mountain Road, Sparta, New Jersey. It has come to my attention that you are still not domiciled at that address. Upon > receipt of this letter, please provide proof of your family's current domicile status. I await your timely response.

> [See Exhibit F, November 3, 2020 letter.]

13. Petitioner did not respond to Mr. McQueeney's November 3, 2020 letter.

14. The District's Director of District Operations, Michael Gregory, conducted a residency investigation to investigate whether the family was living at the Sparta Home. Mr. Gregory determined that no one was living at the Sparta Home. He concluded as follows in his November 13, 2020 investigation report, which included various photographs of the home:

> I went to the residence on Friday, November 13, 2020 and found no one at the residence. The front door was boarded up, the in-ground pool appeared to not have been utilized this past season, and construction materials limiting access to the back porch. Photos of this visit are attached.
> [See Exhibit G, November 13, 2020 Investigation Report with attached photographs.]

15. On or about November 13, 2020, Board Counsel transmitted a letter to petitioner and her spouse to notify them that the Board would be holding a residency hearing to determine her children's enrollment status on November 19, 2020, and that she was permitted to present a statement or other evidence. See Exhibit H, November 13, 2020 letter.

16. Petitioner elected not to attend, but rather, chose to submit a position statement through her Counsel on or about November 16, 2020. See Exhibit I, Position Statement.

17. At the November 19, 2020 Board residency hearing, the Board found that the children were not domiciled within the District during the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years and assessed them tuition for the period of January 3, 2020 to the present. Board Counsel transmitted a letter to petitioner and her spouse the following day, November 20, 2020, to inform them of the Board's decision. See Exhibit J, November 20, 2020 correspondence with tuition spreadsheet and Resolution for the residence hearing.

18. On January 3, 2021, petitioner e-mailed District Attendance Secretary Jennifer Sullivan to withdraw P.T. from the District for the remainder of the school year. Petitioner stated that P.T. would be receiving home instruction, and she attached an executed student withdrawal form to her e-mail. See Exhibit K, January 3, 2021 e-mail and attached student withdrawal form.

19. Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the Office of Controversies and Disputes on January 6, 2021, and perfected same on January 8, 2021, appealing the Board's decision.

20. Petitioner filed an Application for Emergent Relief on January 11, 2021.

21. On January 19, 2021, the Honorable Gail M. Cookson, ALJ, granted petitioner's request for emergent relief, but with conditions. Judge Cookson concluded the Emergent Relief Order by stating "that petitioner's application for emergent relief must be granted, but conditioned upon the continued accrual of non-residential per diem charges pending the hearing on the merits." See Exhibit L, January 19, 2021 Emergent Relief Order.

22. In or around March of 2021, petitioner claimed, for the first time, that she and her children were homeless.

23. On or about March 22, 2021, the District's Homeless Liaison, Laura Trent, met with petitioner to discuss petitioner's homelessness claim.

24. On or about March 23, 2021, Ms. Trent made her determination that petitioner and her children were not homeless. She advised petitioner that she was permitted to enroll her children in the District, but per Judge Cookson's Emergent Relief Order, petitioner would be responsible for back-tuition should the Court find that she was not domiciled in Sparta Township. In a letter to petitioner, Ms. Trent stated as follows, in pertinent part:

> It is our position that you are not homeless in Sparta, N.J. As you stated, you have chosen to live with friends and family in > Oak Ridge while the renovations are being completed on your Sparta home. This does not render you homeless. Importantly, the Administrative Law Judge concluded in your application for emergent relief application that you are not currently domiciled in Sparta and, by the admission of your attorney during oral argument, you have never occupied the Sparta home. Notwithstanding, you may enroll them in the Sparta School District, per the Judge's Order, but you will be responsible for back-tuition should the Judge conclude that you are not domiciled in Sparta.

> [See Exhibit M, Laura Trent's March 23, 2021 letter.]

25. Upon learning of petitioner's disagreement with her determination, Ms. Trent wrote to the Sussex County Executive County Superintendent of Schools, Gayle Carrick, Ed.D., on or about April 1, 2021, to notify Dr. Carrick of the issue. Counsel for both the Board and for petitioner sent follow-up letters to Dr. Carrick regarding same on or about April 5, 2021. See Exhibit N, Ms. Trent's April 1, 2021 letter (without attached exhibits).

26. On or about April 20, 2021, Dr. Carrick acknowledged receipt of the issue and directed the parties to Judge Cookson's Emergent Relief Order, via a letter that she transmitted to Board Counsel with a copy to petitioner's Counsel:

> I am acknowledging receipt of your correspondence dated April 5, 2021 regarding the T[.]/Sparta dispute and a determination of homeless. I direct you to the Order of Emergent Relief issued by ALJ Gail M. Cookson in this matter. Have a good day.
> [See Exhibit O, April 20, 2021 letter.

27. From April of 2021 until present, petitioner, her spouse, and her children have been living at [xx] Main Street in Garfield, New Jersey.

28. The children are not currently enrolled in the District.

It is also undisputed that prior to their residency application in Sparta but during the period both before and after purchase of the house in Sparta, the children attended preschool in Garfield, with the older son attending there during both the 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 school years. [Exhibit R-1, ¶¶ 118-119.]

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Based upon the testimony of the witnesses and the documentary evidence presented, and with the opportunity to assess the credibility of the witnesses, I FIND the following:

A.T. testified that she and her family lived with her parents in Garfield prior to the purchase of the Sparta home. Her parents had a single-family house but it had a mother-daughter layout such that there was a separate kitchen etc. Petitioner stated that they moved into the Sparta home from June 22, 2019, through July 13, 2019, and intended to stay thereafter. She notified the Superintendent that she wanted to register the children in the Sparta schools. The office of the Superintendent forwarded the District's residency policy and explained that the family would be allowed to obtain a free public education in Sparta for the children for 120 days as the maximum allowed for a period of renovation. Petitioner questioned why the family was not entitled to regular residency attendance if they were living with family during just kitchen renovations. [P-1.] Her spouse was going to do the repairs himself for which they had obtained a permit. At that time, petitioner found the municipal offices to be very friendly and was actually able to procure a part-time job for herself in the building department.

Petitioner described the setting inside the house and the utilities they relied upon, such as hot spots rather than internet service. They all stayed in one bedroom to be able to comfort and supervise over the young children. P.T., who is autistic, has trouble sleeping and wanders, as well as places objects in his mouth. Petitioner became concerned with the potential hazards to him in the kitchen. In addition, it was determined that there was a rat infestation in the insulation, with other renovation issues much worse than they anticipated. As a result of these factors, they felt they had to leave the house while more extensive work was undertaken.

The family returned to petitioner's parents' home in Garfield but by then, her brother, who paid the real estate taxes for their parents, had moved into the self-contained apartment. Petitioner explained at the hearing that that meant that she, her spouse and the children shared just a regular bedroom. Because the house was crowded and her parents were getting too old to handle all of them living there, petitioner moved her family to a friend's home in Oak Ridge sometime in the fall of 2020 until April 2021, when they moved back to Garfield.

By January 2021, petitioner had dis-enrolled the children from Sparta because of the potential tuition claim. It appears that P.T. was in a private home-based ABA program for children on the autism spectrum. It was then that she was advised to consult the homeless liaison for Sparta.

Petitioner was questioned on cross-examination as to the discrepancy in the dates of their occupancy of the Sparta home in various documents. [R-4.] She also described more fully the furniture they moved in to include a bed, couches, boxes placed in the basement. They did not move in a dining room table but used a table left by the sellers. The District queried her extensively on the Inspection Report they procured prior to the closing (R-2), with emphasis on the numerous safety concerns that seemed to have been highlighted therein. Petitioner said her husband, who is an electrician for a public utility company, made some changes and also considered the panel old but functional.

Petitioner admitted that there was no functioning air conditioning when they were there for those weeks in late June and early July. Notwithstanding that her younger son has a congenital heart condition, she insisted that this was not a problem because they spent time outside and in the pool. She did confirm that there were roof and gutter leaks and no railings on the stairs, although the walls provided support. Petitioner asserted that they anticipate being able to move back into the home this summer, with an architect meeting with them the week following this hearing. On these stipulated facts and the petitioner's own testimony, following the purchase of the house, it was not made habitable, and I so FIND.

Patrick McQueeney testified for the Board. He is the Assistant Superintendent and explained briefly how the tuition calculations were made. [R-5.]

With the exception of the controverted three weeks in July 2019, it has been stipulated that petitioner's family lived in Garfield from 2017 through October 2020, and from April 2021 to the present. There is no dispute that they were living in neither Sparta nor Garfield between October 2020 and April 2021. Accordingly, the only possible period of physical occupation in the Sparta home is the summer of 2019. It is also not disputed that petitioner's family did not seek to enroll their young children into Sparta schools until a year after the purchase of the house, which interval was simply because of their ages. Further, during the period both before and after purchase of the house in Sparta, the children attended preschool in Garfield, with the older son attending there during both the 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 school years. [Exhibit R-1, ¶¶ 118-119.]

With respect to the three weeks referenced herein,[2] I must make credibility determinations with regard to these potentially material facts. A credibility determination requires an overall assessment of the witness' story in light of its rationality, internal consistency and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Daiichi Pharm. Co. v. Apotex, Inc., 441 F. Supp. 2d 672 (D.N.J. 2006). After carefully considering the testimonial and documentary evidence presented, and having had the opportunity to listen to the testimony and observe the demeanor of the witnesses, I am convinced that petitioner's testimony was not credible.

Petitioner's testimony did not hang together or make sense in light of many factors, not the least of which were her son's heart condition, the lack of any air conditioning, the minimal amount of the utility bills during and after the alleged period of occupation, and the absence of supporting testimony from other members of her family. To the extent that there are undated photos of the family purportedly at the house only demonstrates some short visit, and I so FIND. In addition, I noted on the emergent application that the pleadings did not assert that petitioner had ever lived in her Sparta house and counsel conceded as much during that oral argument. To the extent that the family slept in the house for some unknown but likely only a few nights, I FIND that it was a contrived and manipulated setting in an attempt to buttress the residency application they were then engaged in making to the District.

As set forth above, there was testimony that the family lived in Garfield with petitioner's parents from 2017 through at least June 2019 in the lower-level apartment. That is to say, they lived there both before and after purchasing the Sparta house in August 2018, and the children attended preschool in that district. There was no testimony that they moved there out of necessity, nor is there any evidence in the record as to where they lived prior thereto. Based upon all these facts, I further FIND that the Sparta house cannot be a factual predicate for having to live with petitioner's parents.

These findings are further supported by the lack of the usual documentary indicia of residence and occupancy, such as utility bills, pay stubs, insurance, construction invoices. I concur with the District that the lack of production of this common evidence by the petitioner generates, at the very least, a rebuttable presumption that their production would not have helped her case.[3] Petitioner carries the burden of proving her domicile in Sparta for eligibility for free public education there and her lack of documentary or buttressing testimonial proof weighs against her case. See State by Comm'r of Transp. v. Council in Div. of Res. Dev., etc., 60 N.J. 199, 202 (1972)(litigant's failure to produce may be inferred to have been prompted by a conscious appreciation that the evidence would or might be hurtful to his position), citing Interchemical Corp. v. Uncas Printing & Fishing Co., 39 N.J. Super. 318, 328 (App. Div. 1956).

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The District claims that petitioner cannot establish domicile in Sparta because the family has never lived in the still-uninhabitable house, had not established it as their residence or domicile prior to registration of her children, and certainly was not living there as of January 3, 2020, when the 120-day grace period expired. It further argues that granting petitioner residency on this record would turn residency regulations on their head, to the effect that such a ruling would mean that anyone could purchase an uninhabitable home in a school district and thereafter assert residency and/or homelessness without ever having truly living in the district. The District also contested any claim of homelessness herein.

[3] Insofar as there has been no demonstration of bad faith or destruction, nor is this a jury trial, a formal sanction of an "adverse inference" is not appropriate, nor has it been sought. See, e.g., Bozic v. City of Wash., 912 F. Supp. 2d 257 (W.D. Pa. 2012).

Petitioner argues that she and the family established their domicile in Sparta prior to registering the children in the District and that they intend to return to the home once renovations are completed. As such, and because they had to move from that residence, petitioner argues that they are currently homeless and that Sparta is the district of origin that must provide a free public education to their children under the homelessness regulations.[4]

The right to a thorough and free education in the district of one's New Jersey domicile is well settled. A.M.S. ex rel. A.D.S. v. Bd. of Educ. of City of Margate, 409 N.J. Super. 149, 160-61 (App. Div. 2009). Therein, the court stated:

> N.J.A.C. 6A:22-2.1(b) requires school districts to adopt written policies and procedures related to student residency and to incorporate Department of Education (DOE) regulations pertaining to student residency into each district's policies and procedures. Moreover, in doing so, "a district board of education shall construe the provisions" of DOE regulations governing student residency "liberally so as to effectuate the right of students to a free public education." Ibid.

The Legislature has provided that local boards of education are responsible for the education of school-age children who are domiciled within their respective district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. Narrow exceptions to the domicile rule are also provided when, among other things, the parent or guardian is a temporary resident of a district, N.J.S.A.

[4] Initially, petitioner was pro se when she appealed to the Department. After counsel entered his appearance and after the emergency hearing, he asserted the claim of homelessness; although petitioner also testified that she received that advice from a private party as well. In light of my determination herein, I need not reach the issue of whether this was timely asserted.

18A-38-1(d), or a parent moves between districts as a result of homelessness. N.J.S.A. 18A-38-1(f). In any event, a child's district of residence is generally determined based upon the district of residence of the child's parent or guardian. See, e.g., N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12; N.J.S.A. 18A-38-1.

Generally, eligibility under the education laws and regulations is framed as, in relevant part:

> A student is eligible to attend a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district. . . A student is domiciled in the school district when his or her parent or guardian resides within the school district on an all-year-round basis for one year or more, notwithstanding the existence of a domicile elsewhere.
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(4) (as amended 2013)(emphasis added).]

It should be noted that the regulations had provided at the time of earlier decisions, e.g., K.L. v. Bd. of Educ., No. A-5671-07T1, 2010 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 11, at *9 (Super. Ct. App. Div. Jan. 4, 2010):

> A student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is living with a parent . . . whose permanent home is located within the school district. A home is permanent when the parent or guardian intends to return to it when absent and has no present intent of moving from it, notwithstanding the existence of homes or residences elsewhere.

Petitioner has asserted that she and her family intend to return to this home and had no intent to move from it but did so out of necessity. Yet, as we see, this regulation as amended no longer encompasses the concept of "intent." 45 N.J.R. 1209(a) (May 20, 2013). Moreover, the concept of "returning" to a home one never truly lived in, as supported by the findings of fact above, I CONCLUDE negates petitioner's assertion of intent.

According to N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(c), "[t]he district of residence for children whose parent . . . temporarily moves from one school district to another as the result of being homeless shall be the district in which the parent . . . last resided prior to becoming homeless." The district of residence shall be responsible for the education of a homeless child for as long as the parent remains homeless. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.4(a) and (c). In addition, "[e]nrollment in the school district of [residence] . . . shall continue for the duration of homelessness, including . . . for the remainder of the academic year if the homeless child becomes permanently housed during the academic year." N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.6(h).

Before we can even reach the issue of whether Sparta is the district of domicile of the children, sometimes referred to as the "district of origin,"[5] we must examine whether the facts even support a finding of "homelessness."

> (a) A district board of education shall determine that a child is homeless for purposes of this subchapter when he or she resides in any of the following:
> * * *
> 3. The residence of relatives or friends with whom the homeless child is temporarily residing out of necessity because the family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own; or
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3 (emphasis added).]

It is clear that the determination of "necessity" here is fact sensitive, on which issue petitioner has the burden of proof. Hawthorne BOE v. Prospect Park BOE and Dept. of Educ., OAL DKT. NO. EDU 16270-13, Final Agency Decision (May 12, 2014) http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. In Hawthorne, the Department held:

> Upon full consideration, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's determination that the A. family was not homeless within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12c and N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3. The Commissioner explicitly rejects respondents' assertion that the impetus for the A. family's departure from the Hawthorne apartment is immaterial. To the contrary, the [5] "District of residence" is also referred to as "district of origin." See N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2.

> Commissioner finds that an inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the A. family's move is essential to the homelessness determination.
> A "homeless child" is one who lacks a fixed, regular and adequate residence. N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.2. Not every child residing temporarily with a relative is "homeless." Rather, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:17-2.3(a)3, such a child is homeless when he or she resides in "[t]he residence of relatives or friends with whom the homeless child is temporarily residing out of necessity because the family lacks a regular or permanent residence of its own." An examination of the conditions that precipitated the family's relocation is critical to ascertaining whether the living arrangement arose "out of necessity," and whether the family is without access to a "regular or permanent residence of its own."
> In the instant matter, the ALJ specifically found that the A. family was not forced out of their Hawthorne apartment, that N.A. was up to date on her rent, and that there was no evidence that she was unable to pay rent going forward. The ALJ further found that N.A. voluntarily abandoned her Hawthorne home and temporarily relocated the A. family to her parent's home in Prospect Park as part of fulfilling her plan to move to Florida.

As was true in Hawthorne, there is no evidence that petitioner's family was a victim of an abrupt change of circumstances. They chose to purchase a home in need of major repairs and renovations while they were already living in Garfield with her parents. Further, they did not move into the home after purchasing it. There was no crisis of immediacy. This situation is not that of a homeless family. See, e.g., J.G. and D.G. v. Bd. of Educ. of Point Pleasant, EDU 4688-10, Initial Decision (September 23, 2010), adopted, Comm'r (December 27, 2010), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. The family's circumstances here are clearly distinguishable from cases where a family becomes transient due to an emergency. See, e.g., S.J. o/b/o V.J. v. Bd. of Educ. of S. Orange-Maplewood, EDU 5656-07, Initial Decision (January 22, 2008), adopted, Comm'r (March 3, 2008), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (family evicted from apartment and then drifted around while living in a beauty salon, with a friend, and with child's grandmother in an attic); A.B. v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., EDU13330-09, Initial Decision (January 25, 2010), adopted, Comm'r (April 13, 2010), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/> (single mother evicted after losing full-time job and thereafter alternated between apartments of several friends).

In combination with my factual findings on the uninhabitability of the Sparta house, I CONCLUDE that their purchase of said house during the period of domicile in Garfield cannot be used to bootstrap either a temporary relocation away from Sparta or homelessness. The home construction has apparently continued, on but mostly off, without completion, for the three years since it was purchased by petitioner and her husband. In fact, only after the hearing was petitioner meeting with an architect to draw up the needed structural renovations. This is not the case of temporary relocation away from one's abode due to fire, storms or other natural disasters; rather, petitioner and her spouse purchased an unsafe and largely uninhabitable house, as evidenced by the fact that they did not live in after the closing in August 2018 and until they were trying to register their children in school.

Except for some unknown and unverifiable number of days in the summer of 2019, and a few months with a friend in Oak Ridge, petitioner, spouse and children have clearly been domiciled in Garfield from 2017 to the present. On the basis of the above-referenced facts and legal authority, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has never been domiciled in Sparta and is not now homeless, from Sparta or, for that matter, anywhere else. When and if petitioner establishes that the family is genuinely living in the Sparta house, with a Certificate of Occupancy, they shall then and only then be entitled to register their children in the Sparta school district.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that petitioner's appeal from the Sparta Township Board of Education residency determination is and the same is hereby DENIED and the determination of the Sparta Township Board of Education on residency and homelessness is UPHELD.

It is further ORDERED that the counterclaim of the Sparta Township Board of Education for tuition reimbursement in the amount of $35,363.44 is GRANTED to the extent of only the days when the children attended its schools after January 3, 2020, or the period of ineligibility.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Final Decision

S.B., on behalf of minor child, E.B.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Trustees of the Kipp Cooper Norcross Academy, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

The petitioner filed a pro se appeal challenging the discipline imposed by the respondent Board of Trustees upon his minor child in regard to an incident that occurred in January 2023 at Kipp Cooper Norcross Academy. The matter was transmitted to the OAL for a hearing in May 2023. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) scheduled three pre-conference hearings in this case, none of which were attended by the petitioner despite having received appropriate notice of each hearing date. Subsequently, petitioner communicated to the ALJ's assistant that he wanted no further involvement in his child's affairs. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that the matter must be dismissed with prejudice, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, for petitioner's failure to appear three times for a court proceeding without explanation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition must be dismissed. Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

BEFORE KIM C. BELIN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner S.B., on behalf of his minor child, E.B., challenged the discipline imposed by the KIPP Cooper Norcross Academy (KIPP or respondent).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL DISCUSSION

On May 22, 2023, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A prehearing conference call was scheduled for August 15, 2023. Notice was sent out to all the parties, however, no one appeared for the conference call. Counsel for the respondent notified the undersigned by email on August 15, 2023, stating that he did not have the conference call on his calendar and requesting a new date and time.

Another conference call was scheduled for September 21, 2023. Notice of that conference call was sent to the petitioner and respondent on August 22, 2023. However, the petitioner failed to appear. A third conference call was scheduled for January 4, 2024, with notice of the conference call sent on October 18, 2023. However, the petitioner failed to appear for the scheduled conference call. Respondent's counsel attempted to contact the petitioner during the scheduled conference call, however, no one answered the phone. The petitioner told the undersigned's judicial assistant that he did not want any further involvement in his daughter's affairs.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a),

> If, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge shall . . . direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c).

This matter was scheduled for three telephone conferences. Petitioner and the respondent were given notice of all telephone conferences. All telephone status conference notices contained the following language:

> Failure to dial in for the telephone conference, will result in the file being returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate action which may include imposition of the proposed penalty or granting the relief requested by the other party.

The petitioner did not participate in the August 15, 2023, September 21, 2023, or January 4, 2024, telephone status conferences and did not contact the OAL to explain why he was unable to do so.

CONCLUSION

To date, the petitioner has not provided a request for an adjournment of the January 4, 2024, telephone conference or an explanation for his nonappearance for the same. Neither has this office received notice of legal representation on behalf of the petitioner. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to appear and abandoned his appeal.

For the above reasons, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has abandoned his request for a hearing in this matter and has forfeited his right to further contest the actions complained of. Accordingly, this matter should be dismissed with prejudice for lack of prosecution and failure to appear.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the petitioner's appeal be DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, and I DIRECT the Clerk to return the matter to the agency for appropriate disposition.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." Board of Education of the Township of Springfield, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), granting the respondent Board's motion to dismiss, have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

The petitioner filed a pro se appeal challenging the Board's determination that her minor child, M.D., was not the victim of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB). The matter was transmitted to the OAL for a hearing regarding the merits of the Board's HIB decision. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) scheduled three pre-conference hearings in this case, none of which were attended by the petitioner despite having received appropriate notice of each hearing date. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that the matter must be dismissed with prejudice, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4, for petitioner's failure to appear three times for a court proceeding without any explanation and for failure to provide the required written reply to the Board's motion to dismiss.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD, UNION COUNTY,

R.C. on behalf of M.D., petitioner pro se

Jaclyn M. Morgese, Esq. (Cornell, Merlino, McKeever & Osborne, attorneys, for respondent)

Record Closed: January 8, 2024 Decided: January 8, 2024

BEFORE ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner R.C. (Petitioner) appealed a finding by respondent that an act or acts of HIP toward M.D. did not occur. According to the initial HIN 338 HIB reporting form filed by petitioner, on February 17, 2020, an accusation was made about M.D. that she "to carry a gun at the school, writing threating (sic) message on the message board of the school. Student report on Instagram, snapshot and text messages that my daughter has a list of people she wants to kill," that classmates always made fun of the way she was dressed and "give her names 'prostitute'". On April 25, 2023, respondent notified R.C. that the Springfield Board of Education (BOE) affirmed the Superintendent's decision that an act of HIB did not occur. On June 23, 2023, R.C. on behalf of M.D. filed a pro se Petition of Appeal of said decision with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education. On August 14, 2023, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14f 1 to 13. On December 20, 2023, respondent filed a Notice of Motion, with a certification of mailing to petitioner, with supporting affidavit, exhibits and legal brief, to Dismiss the Appeal alleging R.C.'s nonparticipation in the proceedings since the matter was filed, leading up to and culminating with R.C.'s failure to appear for a telephone Prehearing Conference December 14, 2023. For the reasons which follow, I grant the respondent's Motion to Dismiss.

FACTS

All of the following facts are supported by respondent's unopposed motion certification and exhibits. Respondent's Answer to the Petition of Appeal and affirmative Defenses, dated July 27, 2023 (Exhibit C) note that petitioner's appeal did not make specific allegations but was a general appeal, and thus the Answer was also general. On August 22, 2023, in order to quickly learn more of the case, petitioner and respondent were notified via email that the undersigned (me/the court) would like to hold a prehearing conference via telephone on any one of five specified dates and times between August 29, 2023, and September 22, 2023. Counsel for respondent replied the same day that she was available on all of those five dates and times for the prehearing. (Exhibit E) However, no reply was made by R.C. or anyone on her behalf. Accordingly, my assistant asked again on September 14, 2023, that, the other proposed times for the conference having passed, or having become unavailable that the September 22, 2023, date was still available for a conference and to respond "ASAP" (Exhibit F).

Instead of responding to my assistant, on September 20, 2023, Rumana Hussain (R. Hussain), an assistant for Attorney Paul Fernandez, advised respondent's attorney that he represented R.C. and M.D. that Mr. Fernandez wanted to prepare for the September 22 conferenced and asked respondent's attorney what the case was about (Exhibit G). On the same date, the petitioner's counsel (Ms. Morgese) advised my assistant of Mr. Fernandez's involvement. On the following date, September 21, 2023, at 8:56 a.m., my assistant wrote to R, Hussain, who had been communicating for him with Ms. Morgese, and asked that counsel for R.C. send to her a letter of representation in this OAL matter, and to confirm their presence at the conference the next day. However, neither Ms. Hussain nor anyone else from Mr. Fernandez's involvement replied. Accordingly, the Prehearing had to be cancelled/adjourned. On September 28, 2023, my assistant again wrote to R. Hussain, again asking his office to send a letter of representation and confirm a new date for a prehearing conference. (Exhibit H)

On October 10, 2023, Mr. Fernandez's office was again advised by my assistant that I wanted to hold the prehearing conference at specific times on either October 17 or October 20, 2023, and to please reply. While Ms. Morgese replied that she was available on both dates and times, no reply was received by Mr. Fernandez. (Exhibit I). Morgese Certification, paragraph 22.

On November 28, 2023, Ms. Morgese wrote to the Court to inquire as to reschedule the prehearing conference as the respondent was interested in moving the case. On December 7, 2023, having noted the previous attempts to schedule R.C., through her attorney Mr. Fernandez, my assistant wrote to him noting the previous lack of response and asking for an immediate reply by confirming his representation in this matter and his availability for a prehearing conference. Mr. Fernandez replied the same day: "My apologies. My firm declined to take the matter and [R.C.] was advised to attend all hearings." (Exhibit K) On December 7, 2023, at 3:38 p.m., my assistant wrote to R.C. quoting my words:

> Ms. [R.C.] has been unresponsive to prior attempts by the Court to schedule a Prehearing, on September 22, 2023, October 11, and other dates in which we insured of her availability of that of a chosen attorney. We learned for certain > today that an attorney for [R.C.] was never retained. Please be advised that a prehearing will be held by telephone on December 14 at 10:30 a.m. If [R.C.] is not responsive and/or does not attend with no good explanation provided before that time. her Due Process request will be dismissed.

> (Exhibit L).

On the same day, my assistant sent by regular mail a notice of the conference to R.C. including the conference call in information (Court 's Exhibit A).

On December 14, 2023, at approximately 10:30 a.m. the Prehearing conference was set to begin with, at that time only myself and Ms. Morgese on the line. With Ms. Morgese listening on the conference line, I called R.C. at the phone number provided in the Service list given to the OAL in the transmittal by the Commissioner. When a person answered the phone, I identified myself what I was calling about, and asked for R.C. In response, this individual hung up the phone. Morgese Certification, paragraphs 33-36.

LAW

If "after appropriate notice," neither a party or representative of that party should fail to appear "at any proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or judge" and after one day having received no explanation for the nonappearance, the Court may return the matter to the agency for appropriate disposition. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4. Additionally, "a. For unreasonable failure to comply with any order of a judge or requirements of this chapter, the judge May 1. Dismiss or grant the motion or application" N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14

Here, respondent has filed with correct Notice and in compliance with the OAL's regulations a motion to dismiss with prejudice the petitioner's appeal. Respondent's motion was filed December 20, 2023. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.2 (b), the Petitioner had ten days to file a response. Accordingly, the petitioner's response was due December 30, 2023. Not surprisingly, given R.C.'s palpable lack of interest, there has been no reply and so the motion is unopposed. Out of an abundance of caution, I have chosen to hold my decision until ten business days after the filing of the motion. Again, unsurprisingly, there has been no response from this petitioner, who brazenly has not only missed three court appearances, never retained a representative for her, never communicated in any manner with the court nor had a representative do so over nearly half a year, and who the evidence suggests, after failing to call in to the conference call, actually hung up the phone on a judge who, in one final effort to get her to cooperate on the third scheduled conference date attempted to call her. Even if the motion were not unopposed, I can hardly imagine what can be said to justify this conduct worthy of strong sanction. There is no question that the matter should be dismissed and with prejudice.

ORDER

Based upon all of the foregoing, I FIND that this matter should be and is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, for petitioner's willful noncompliance with the requirements of the Rules of the OAL, specifically for three times failing to appear for a court proceeding without any explanation, and for failure to provide the required written reply to a motion to dismiss.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.M., on behalf of minor child, B.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District, Passaic County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that he and his minor child, B.M., were not domiciled in the respondent Board's school district (District) and that B.M. was therefore not entitled to a free public education in the District during the 2023-2024 school year. The Board contended that no residency verification was ever received from B.M.'s family to show that he was entitled to attend school in the District, despite multiple requests to B.M.'s mother to provide necessary documentation over the course of the 2022-2023 school year. The within petition was filed by B.M.'s father in August 2023, prior to the start of the 2023-2024 school year. Petitioner subsequently failed to appear for two pre-hearing telephone conferences and also failed to appear at the hearing in this matter.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner has abandoned his appeal by failure to appear at all scheduled conferences and the hearing; petitioner failed to demonstrate that he and B.M. were domiciled in the respondent Board's school district as of September 7, 2023; a student who is domiciled in the District may attend Manchester Regional but may also attend Passaic County Technical Institute ("PCTI"); if the student attends PCTI, the Board must pay the student's tuition; petitioner's son, B.M., was such a student; as petitioner has offered no proof of residency in the District, tuition reimbursement for B.M's attendance at PCTI is owed to the Board. Accordingly, the ALJ awarded the Board tuition in the amount of $5,250.45, based on eighty-seven school days of ineligible attendance between September 7, 2023 and the date of the Initial Decision on January 8, 2024, at a daily tuition rate of $60.35. The petition was dismissed with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter but corrected an error in the number of school days for which tuition reimbursement is due to the Board. Accordingly, the petitioner was directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $4,646.95 for the period from September 7, 2023 through January 8, 2023, plus $60.35 for each school day from January 9, 2024 through the date of the within final decision. Further, the Commissioner ordered B.M. to be disenrolled from the District and ordered that the Board is no longer obligated to pay B.M.'s tuition for PCTI. The petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.M., on behalf of minor child, B.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by the Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District Board of Education (Board) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 have been reviewed and considered. Petitioner did not file exceptions or a reply to the Board's exceptions.

This matter arises from the Board's determination that petitioner and his minor child, B.M., were not domiciled in the Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District (District) and that B.M. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the District. Following petitioner's failure to appear for two telephone conferences and a hearing, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioner had abandoned his appeal. The ALJ further found that petitioner had not demonstrated that he and B.M. were domiciled in the District as of September 7, 2023. Accordingly, the ALJ awarded the Board tuition reimbursement in the amount of $5,250.45, based on eighty-seven school days of ineligible attendance between September 7, 2023 and the date of the decision on January 8, 2024,[1] at a daily tuition rate of $60.35.[2]

In its exceptions, the Board requested that the Commissioner modify the tuition reimbursement calculation to include the period between the Initial Decision and the Commissioner's final decision. The Board further requested that the Commissioner determine that B.M. has been disenrolled and that the Board no longer has the obligation to pay for B.M. to attend Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) after his disenrollment.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner abandoned his appeal and failed to sustain his burden of establishing that he and B.M. were domiciled in the District as of September 7, 2023. The Commissioner concludes that B.M. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the District during that time.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioners for the time period during which B.M. was ineligible to attend school in the District. Although the ALJ indicated that there were eighty-seven school days between September 7, 2023 and January 8, 2024, an independent review of the District's 2023-2024 calendar demonstrates that there have only been seventy-seven school days during that period.[3] Therefore, the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $4,646.95 for the period from

[1] It appears that the ALJ may have determined the number of days of ineligible attendance based on testimony; however, a transcript was not provided to the Commissioner. The record does not contain a copy of the school's calendar.

[2] The daily tuition rate is calculated as 1/180th of the annual tuition rate of $10,864.00 reflected in the Board's contract with PCTI (Exhibit R-13).

September 7, 2023 through January 8, 2024, as well as $60.35 for each school day from January 9, 2024 through the date of the Commissioner's final decision.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter, as modified herein. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $4,646.95 for the period from September 7, 2023 through January 8, 2023, plus $60.35 for each school day from January 9, 2024 through the date of the Commissioner's final decision. B.M. is hereby disenrolled from the District, and the Board no longer has an obligation to pay B.M.'s tuition for PCTI. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

L.M. ON BEHALF OF B.M.,

v.
PASSAIC COUNTY MANCHESTER REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION, PASSAIC COUNTY,
Respondent.

No appearance by L.M., petitioner, pro se

Rodney T. Hara, Esq., for respondent (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 11, 2023 Decided: January 8, 2024

BEFORE DANIEL J. BROWN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, parent of minor child B.M., challenges respondent's residency determination. In its counterclaim, respondent seeks reimbursement of tuition from petitioner, asserting that petitioner did not establish that B.M. was domiciled within the school district during the 2023–2024 school year. In a residency appeal, the parent has the burden of proof to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent's minor child was domiciled in the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). Has petitioner shown by a preponderance of the evidence that B.M was domiciled in the school district? No. Petitioner has provided no testimony or documentary evidence to show that B.M. was domiciled in the school district.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 13, 2023, respondent determined that petitioner did not demonstrate that his child, B.M., was domiciled in the district. On July 20, 2023, petitioner filed a residency appeal on behalf of his child and, on /august 18, 2023, respondent filed an answer. On August 21, 2023, the New Jersey State Department of Education transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

Petitioner failed to participate in scheduled telephone conferences which were held on September 22, 2023, and October 18, 2023 despite being notified of those telephone conferences by email and regular mail. On October 19, 2023, the parties were notified by email and regular mail that a peremptory hearing date was scheduled for December 11, 2023. As the petitioner did not appear for the hearing, an ex parte hearing took place at the OAL in Newark, New Jersey on that date. Respondent presented testimony and exhibits, and the record was closed on December 11, 2023.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having reviewed and considered the testimony and, the documentary evidence presented at the hearing, I FIND the following FACTS in this matter:

Petitioner did not appear for the hearing despite being afforded proper notice of the hearing date by email and regular mail. There is no indication that petitioner did not receive notice of the hearing. Petitioner never called or wrote to the OAL explaining his failure to appear for the hearing or to request an adjournment. I therefore FIND that petitioner has abandoned his appeal.

Respondent is a regional public school district consisting of one high school, Manchester Regional High School, which serves students from Haledon, North Haledon and Prospect Park. A student who is domiciled in respondent's school district may attend Manchester Regional but may also attend Passaic County Technical Institute ("PCTI"). If the student attends PCTI, respondent must pay the student's tuition. The board of education for the school district passed a resolution requiring annual verification of residency for high school students who were determined to be eligible to attend Manchester High School but attended PCTI instead. Petitioner's son was such a student.

On September 26, 2022, Gary Lubisco, Jr., the superintendent of Manchester Regional High School, sent B.M.'s mother a letter requesting residency verification for B.M. to be provided no later than September 30, 2022. There was no response by B.M.'s mother to that request. On November 16, 2022, Mr. Lubisco sent a second request to B.M.'s mother seeking verification of B.M.'s residency. Again, there was no response by B.M.'s mother to that request. On January 30, 2023, Mr. Lubisco sent a letter to B.M.'s mother seeking to obtain verification of B.M.'s residency. Again, B.M.'s mother failed to provide any residency information or respond in any way to Mr. Lubisco. On February 1, 2023, Mr. Lubisco sent another letter to B.M.'s mother seeking verification of B.M.'s residency. Again, B.M.'s mother failed to respond to that request. On March 28, 2023, Mr. Lubisco sent a letter to B.M.'s mother informing her that B.M. was not eligible to have respondent continue to pay his tuition at PCTI based upon the lack of verification of B.M.'s address. The letter gave B.M.'s mother until April 21, 2023, to provide verification of B.M.'s residency. The letter also informed B.M.'s mother that there would be a hearing regarding B.M.'s residency before respondent on April 27, 2023. Because B.M.'s mother failed to provide the requested information, Mr. Lubisco resent his March 28th letter to B.M.'s mother on April 5, 2023 and April 18, 2023. B.M.'s mother failed to respond to Mr. Lubisco's April 5th or April 18th letters. On April 24, 2023, respondent sent B.M.'s mother a letter entitled "Summary for Board Hearing". That letter stated that B.M. was not eligible to have respondent continue to pay his tuition at PCTI based upon his mother's failure to provide verification of B.M.'s residency. Respondent's letter also informed B.M.'s mother that there would be a hearing before the respondent on April 27, 2023 and that proof of residency for B.M. could be provided prior to or at the hearing.

At the hearing, respondent determined that it was not established that B.M. lived in the district. At the next Board meeting, on July 13, 2023, respondent voted to disenroll B.M. from the district based on the failure of B.M.'s mother to provide the requested verification of B.M's residency. On July 14, 2023, the Board's secretary sent B.M.'s mother a letter advising that B.M. was not entitled to a tuition-free education in the district or at PCTI since it was not established at the hearing that B.M. was domiciled in the district. B.M.'s mother was also informed that tuition would be assessed upon her for each day that B.M. attended Manchester Regional or PCTI when he was ineligible for a tuition-free education in the district. The letter further advised that the estimated annual cost of tuition was $10,864 and that respondent would continue to pay B.M.'s tuition while any appeal of the respondent's decision was pending.

Petitioner filed the instant appeal challenging the Board's decision. B.M. continues to attend PCTI during this school year and respondent has continued to pay his tuition during the pendency of his appeal. Petitioner has failed to present any evidence that his son was ever domiciled in any of the towns within the regional school district despite being given notice and an opportunity to do so. As no evidence has been presented that B.M. was domiciled in the school district during this school year, respondent seeks tuition reimbursement for B.M's attendance at PCTI for this school year. Respondent's school year started on September 7, 2023. Respondent's daily tuition rate is $60.35. Eighty-seven school days, excluding holidays, have elapsed from the start of the school year to the date of issuance of this decision. The amount of tuition due to the respondent as of the date of this decision is $5,250.45.

Any child between the ages of five and twenty years old is entitled to a free public education in the district in which he is a resident. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a). A student is a resident of a school district if his parent or guardian has a permanent home in the district such that "the parent or guardian intends to return to it when absent and has no present intent of moving from it, notwithstanding the existence of homes or residences elsewhere." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1).

Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent he has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). The domicile of an unemancipated child is that of his or her parent, custodian or guardian. P.B.K. o/b/o minor child E.Y. v. Board of Ed. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001). Where the local board determines that a child is not properly domiciled in its district, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2) provides a right of appeal to the parents.

N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a) authorizes the Commissioner of Education to assess tuition for non-resident students. It states:

> If in the judgement of the Commissioner the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, he shall assess the resident tuition for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the school district. Tuition shall be computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance and shall be collected in the manner in which orders of the Commissioner are enforced.

On appeal, the petitioner has the burden of proof to show by a preponderance of the evidence that their minor child was domiciled in the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). Here, the petitioner has failed to appear for the scheduled hearing, without explanation, and as a result, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has abandoned his appeal and the petition should be dismissed.

Based upon the facts adduced at the hearing and the exhibits introduced by respondent, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not demonstrated that B.M. is domiciled in the school district. I also CONCLUDE that respondent is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $5,250.45.

ORDER

I ORDER that the petitioner's residency appeal is DISMISSED with prejudice. I further ORDER that respondent's counterclaim seeking tuition reimbursement in the amount of $5,250.45 is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Final Decision

D.S., on behalf of minor children, E.K.-S. and S.K.-S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Westampton, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner alleged a violation of the McKinney-Vento Act (Act) after the respondent Board denied her request to provide busing for her two children after the family became homeless. The family lives in transitional housing located within two miles of the children's school. Under district policy, no busing is required or provided for families living within a two-mile radius of the school. The petitioner filed an appeal and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed for hearing as a contested case on October 18, 2023, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 3. The Board filed a motion to dismiss pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner and her children are homeless and reside in transitional housing located less than two miles from Holly Hills School, where the children are enrolled; petitioner contends that the transitional housing is "remote" but does not allege that it is further than two miles from the school or that the route to school is dangerous; there is no allegation that other students in the same geographic area are provided busing, nor are there are any other grounds entitling the children to services that are not provided to other similarly situated students in the district; petitioner cites the Act which requires the district to provide the same services for non-homeless children, but there is no allegation that any non-homeless children who reside within two miles of the school are receiving bus services. The ALJ concluded that petitioner does not have a right to busing under the McKinney-Vento Act; accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioner's children are not entitled to receive bus transportation to and from school. Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss was granted, and the petition of appeal was dismissed.

BEFORE SARAH G. CROWLEY, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, D.S. on behalf of her minor children, E.K-S. and S.K.-S. brings this action against the respondent, Westampton Township Board of Education (Board or District) alleging a violation of the McKinney-Vento Act by failing to provide busing for her children after the family became homeless. It is undisputed that the family lives within two miles of the designated school for the children, and thus, under district policy no bussing is required or provided. The petitioner filed a due process complaint and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed for hearing as a contested case on October 18, 2023, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to 3. The Board filed a motion to dismiss pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10 on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true. Opposition was filed by the petitioner and a reply filed by the Board, and the record closed on November 28, 2023.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Based on the documents and certifications filed in this matter, I FIND the following as FACTS:

1. The petitioner and her children are homeless.
2. The petitioner and her children, ages five and seven, reside in transitional housing in Westhampton Township.
3. The children attend Holly Hills School, which is less than two miles from the transitional housing.
4. The petitioner seeks transportation on the grounds that the transitional housing is "remote."
5. There are no allegations that the housing is not within two miles or that the route to school is dangerous.
6. There is no allegation that other children in this same geographic area are provided bussing.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The respondent seeks dismissal on the basis that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10. It is undisputed that the petitioner resides within two miles of the school and there is no allegation that the route is dangerous or there are any other grounds entitling the children to services that are not provided to other similarly situated students in the district.

Under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Improvement Act of 2001, 42 U.S.C. § 11431 et seq., state educational agencies must ensure that each homeless child and youth has equal access to the same public education as every other child and youth. The protections offered to homeless students and their parents under the federal McKinney-Vento Act and New Jersey's corresponding State law represent an exception to otherwise applicable residency rules. In contrast to the basic premise that students must change schools when they leave a school district, the laws protecting homeless students generally allow parents the choice to keep their children enrolled in their original school district if the parents relocate to another school district as the result of being homeless. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(f); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.2(d). The district of residence for children whose parents temporarily move from one school district to another as the result of being homeless shall be the district in which the parent or guardian last resided prior to becoming homeless. N.J.S.A. 18A:7B-12(c).

In this case, the children have remained in their home district in transitional housing that is within two miles of the school. The petitioner states that the location is remote, but does not allege the route is dangerous. No further elaboration or argument is provided by the petitioner's in support of their due process petition seeking busing to school. The petitioner cites the Act which requires the district to provide the same services for non-homeless children. However, there is no allegation that any non-homeless children who reside within two miles of the school are receiving bus services. The goal of the McKinney-Vento Act is to remove barriers inherent in homelessness and the district is required, consistent with that goal, to provide comparable services offered to other students in the district. The children in this case live within two miles of the school, and no children living in this area or others within two miles of the school are provided bussing.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner does not have a right to bussing under the McKinney-Vento Act, and the petition is hereby DISMISSED.

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons, I ORDER that the motion of respondent Westhampton Township Board of Education is GRANTED, and the petition is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. v.

Board of Education of the Township of Montville, Morris County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner S.G. challenged the determination of the respondent, Board of Education of the Township of Montville (Board), regarding a Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (HIB) complaint filed on behalf of her daughter, B.H., who had been a member of the Montville High School cheerleading team during the 2022-2023 school year. The petition expressed general complaints about supposed misconduct by other team members and their parents and made allegations that B.H. was excluded by team members during a trip to a cheer competition; further, the petition requested that the cheerleading coach be fired for allowing such behavior. The Board determined that petitioner's allegations did not constitute HIB. As B.H. had turned eighteen and was no longer a minor when petitioner appealed the Board's decision, the petition of appeal form included a signed statement from B.H. that she gave petitioner full authorization to represent her in this matter. The Board filed a motion to dismiss.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the handwritten note on the appeal form was not dated or notarized; the note was not sufficient to transfer B.H.'s rights to her mother; even if an adjournment had been permitted to allow B.H. to provide additional documentation regarding her authorization, the petition did not show that the cheerleading coach committed an act of HIB against B.H. as none of the allegations met the legal standards of the HIB statute; for a finding of HIB, the alleged behavior must reasonably be perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic, and must have substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of students; further, one of the three criteria regarding the effect of the conduct, as enumerated in the Act, must also be satisfied. The ALJ concluded that the factual allegations in the petition were insufficient to support a claim upon which relief could be granted. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the petition must be dismissed. In so determining, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that in the absence of any distinguishing characteristic, any conduct by the coach did not meet the definition of HIB, and therefore the Board's decision was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, Board's motion to dismiss was granted. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.G., on behalf of B.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Montville, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the reply thereto by the Montville Township Board of Education (Board), have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioner's daughter, B.H., was a member of the Montville Township High School cheerleading team when she was a senior during the 2022-2023 school year. In June of 2023, petitioner filed a harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) complaint alleging – in addition to general complaints about alleged misconduct by other team members and their parents – that B.H. was excluded by team members during a trip to a competition and requesting that the cheerleading coach be fired for allowing such behavior. The Board determined that there was no act of HIB committed against B.H. When petitioner appealed, because B.H. was eighteen years old and no longer a minor, the petition of appeal form included a signed statement from B.H. that she gave petitioner full authorization to represent her in this matter.

Following the Board's motion to dismiss, the Administrative Law Judge concluded that the handwritten note on the petition was not sufficient to transfer B.H.'s rights to S.G. Additionally, the ALJ found that even if an adjournment had been permitted to allow B.H. to provide additional documentation regarding her authorization, the petition does not show that the cheerleading coach committed an act of HIB against B.H. The ALJ found that the petition did not allege that the coach's actions: would reasonably be perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic; substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of students; had the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property; had the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or created a hostile education environment.

In her exceptions, petitioner repeats the allegations in her petition that the coach engaged in abusive behavior or condoned such behavior committed by the parents of other cheerleading team members. Petitioner also indicates that B.H. is willing to provide a notarized statement authorizing petitioner to proceed with the case, and that B.H. wants to be heard.

In reply, the Board argues that the Initial Decision was correct and should be adopted.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition must be dismissed. When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). Furthermore, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration[,]" and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't. of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

The Act defines HIB as follows:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L. 2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
> N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

Therefore, a finding of HIB requires three elements. First, the conduct must be reasonably perceived as being motivated by any actual or perceived enumerated characteristic or other distinguishing characteristic and, second, the conduct must substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school.[1] The third condition requires that one of the three criteria enumerated in the Act, regarding the effect of the conduct, must also be satisfied. Wehbeh v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Verona, Essex County, Commissioner Decision No. 51-20 (decided February 4, 2020).

[1] The conduct must also take place on school property, at a school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3.

Petitioner does not identify any distinguishing characteristic of B.H. that she believes motivated, or could reasonably be perceived to have motivated, the cheerleading coach's actions. In the absence of any distinguishing characteristic, any conduct by the coach does not meet the definition of HIB, and therefore the Board's decision was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.[2]

Although the Commissioner concludes that dismissal is appropriate because petitioner has failed to demonstrate that an act of HIB occurred, in light of petitioner's exceptions, the Commissioner finds that clarification regarding the issue of standing is appropriate. Here, petitioner included a signed statement from B.H. on her petition of appeal, whereby B.H. authorized petitioner to represent her in this matter. This statement was sufficient for the Office of Controversies and Disputes to accept the petition for filing and to transmit the matter to the OAL. However, such a determination does not preclude the ALJ from finding that a petitioner lacks standing to pursue the matter further, as occurred here.

Additionally, the Commissioner notes that there are circumstances under which a parent may pursue a petition of appeal on behalf of an adult child even though the parent lacks standing to pursue the matter on their own behalf. For example, in I.C.W., on behalf of minor child, J.W. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Mountain Lakes, Morris County, Commissioner Decision No. 432-11 (decided Oct. 14, 2011), the petitioner, I.C.W., submitted a signed statement from his adult child, J.W., similar to the one at issue here. The ALJ afforded J.W. the option of filing a Certificate of Substitution or appearing before the ALJ to demonstrate that J.W. wished to have his parent proceed on his behalf. However, J.W. did not exercise either option, and the matter was dismissed. Here, petitioner requested an adjournment to allow B.H. to provide additional documentation regarding her authorization. The ALJ correctly concluded that an adjournment was unnecessary because even if B.H. provided the proper document to allow petitioner to proceed on her behalf, there was no evidence of an act of HIB, for the reasons described above.

[2] Additionally, to the extent that petitioner's allegations relate to a meeting that occurred in June 2022, any claims related to that incident are untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), which requires petitions to be filed no later than 90 days from the order, ruling, or other action that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing.

Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12591-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 286-10/23

S.G. ON BEHALF OF B.H.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MONTVILLE, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

S.G., petitioner, pro se

Stephen J. Edelstein, Esq. for respondent (Weiner Law Group, LLP)

Record Closed: December 1, 2023 Decided: December 8, 2023

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

On November 7, 2023 the Board of Education of the Township of Montville (Board or respondent) filed a Motion to Dismiss in lieu of its answer to the petition filed by petitioner S.G. on behalf of her daughter B.H. On November 14, 2023, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law. On November 16, 2023, an email was sent to the parties stating that pursuant to the rule, petitioner's response was due on November 17, 2023, however, additional time would be allowed for petitioner to respond.

Petitioner filed opposition to the motion on December 1, 2023. Petitioner, S.G. requested the motion be adjourned to allow her daughter, B.H., to sign a consent transferring B.H. rights to proceed in this matter to her. I have declined to grant the adjournment.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

B.H. is over the age of eighteen. On the appeal form is a note written by B.H, which states that she authorizes her mother to represent her. This note is signed but not dated or notarized. When B.H. was in Montville High School, she was a member of the cheer team. S.G. states that in June 2022, she and four other senior mothers of the cheer team met. This meeting was arranged by the Coach Gentile and held in front of the cheer team. During the meeting while they were discussing a fund raiser, three of the senior mothers yelled at S.G. that no one wanted to fundraise, and they were not going to listen to her. According to S.G., these three mothers also began to lie. After this meeting these mothers continued to scream at S.G. B.H. came home crying and had an anxiety attack.

S.G was given the Code of Conduct from R.B. and told that if the conduct between S.G. and three other mothers continues, they would not be allowed to watch the students perform at the high school games.

The cheer team was going to the Nationals competition in Florida. Initially S.G. did not sign the permission slip. Gentile told some of the other mothers this. Gentile told B.H. in her office that S.G. had not signed the permission slip. S.G. told the coach that since the three other senior mothers destroyed the fundraiser, those mothers could pay for B.H. to go to the Nationals, then she would sign the permission slip. Apparently, this matter was resolved and B.H. went to the Nationals with the cheer team.

One of the mothers who had previously screamed at S.G. was preparing the event. Once they were on the plane, three senior members of the cheer program sat together and B.H. sat with the juniors and sophomores in the back of the plane. Gentile did not require B.H. to sit with the other seniors. While at the Nationals, one of the senior mothers attacked S.G. on social media.

S.G. asked coach Gentile to act against the other senior mothers. Coach Gentile did not act.

On May 22, 2023, S.G. met with the school to discuss bullying and abuse on the cheer team. On May 23, 2023, S.G requested a harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB) investigation into the cheer coach and staff. The investigator wanted to meet with B.H. but S.G. stated they could only meet with B.H. if she was present. The meeting took place on June 6, 2023. B.H. stated that she felt excluded by not sitting with the other seniors on the flight to the Nationals in Florida. She also stated that Gentile did not do anything to make her feel uncomfortable. The Board found that the allegations in the investigation report did not constitute an HIB violation.

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g) provides:

> Nothing in this section precludes the filing of a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer to a petition, provided that such motion is filed within the time allotted for the filing of an answer. Briefing on such motions shall be in the manner and within the time fixed by the Commissioner, or by the ALJ if the motion is to be briefed following transmittal to the OAL.

N.J.A.C. 6a:3-1.10 provides:

> At any time prior to transmittal of the pleadings to the OAL, in the Commissioner's discretion or upon motion to dismiss filed in lieu of answer, the Commissioner may dismiss the petition on the grounds that the petitioner has advanced no cause of action even if the petitioner's factual allegations are accepted as true or for lack of jurisdiction, failure to prosecute or other good reason.

On a motion made pursuant to R. 4:6-2(e) "the inquiry is confined to a consideration of the legal sufficiency of the alleged facts apparent on the face of the challenged claim." P. & J. Auto Body v. Miller, 72 N.J. Super. 207, 211 (App.Div.1962). The court may not consider anything other than whether the complaint states a cognizable cause of action. Ibid. For this purpose, "all facts alleged in the complaint and legitimate inferences drawn therefrom are deemed admitted." Smith v. City of Newark, 136 N.J. Super. 107, 112 (App.Div.1975). See also Heavner v. Uniroyal, Inc., 63 N.J. 130, 133 (1973); Polk v. Schwartz, 166 N.J. Super. 292, 299 (App.Div.1979). A complaint should not be dismissed under this rule where a cause of action is suggested by the facts and a theory of actionability may be articulated by way of amendment. Muniz v. United Hsps. Med. Ctr. Pres. Hsp., 153 N.J. Super. 79, 82-83 (App.Div.1977). However, a dismissal is mandated where the factual allegations are palpably insufficient to support a claim upon which relief can be granted. Reider v. State Department of Transportation 221 N.J. Super. 547,522 (App. Div. 1987)

> A party must have standing to have the "ability or entitlement to maintain an action before the court." In re Baby T., 160 N.J. 332, 340 (N.J.,1999). Standing is "a threshold justiciability determination whether the litigant is entitled to initiate and maintain an action before a court or other tribunal." In re Six Month Extension of N.J.A.C. 5:91-1 et seq., 372 N.J. Super 61, 85 (App. Div. 2004).

In this matter B.H. is an adult. A handwritten note written on a page of the appeal notice that is not dated or notarized is not enough to transfer from B.H.'s rights to S.G. in this matter.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 defines harassment, intimidation or bullying as:

> "Harassment, intimidation or bullying" means any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:

> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

Here, the petition did not allege that any action of Gentile would be reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic. There was no distinguishing characteristic of B.H. noted in the petition.

The petition did not allege that Gentile's actions substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property, has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or create a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

S.G. wanted Gentile to reprimand the three senior mothers that she had problems with. B.H. stated that Gentile never made her feel uncomfortable.

S.G. requested an adjournment for B.H. to sign an authorization for S.G. to proceed for her. I decline to grant the adjournment because even if B.H. signed the proper document to allow S.G. to proceed on her behalf, the petition does not show that an HIB was committed against B.H. by Gentile.

I CONCLUDE that the factual allegations of the complaint are palpably insufficient to support a claim upon which relief can be granted.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the request for the petition to be dismissed be and is hereby GRANTED.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, Ingrid Fullerton filed a pro se Petition of Appeal, dated October 18, 2022, challenging her termination of employment with the Respondent District, and seeking Emergent Relief. The Office of Controversies and Disputes in the New Jersey Department of Education (DOE) transferred the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on October 19, 2022, bearing docket number EDU 09468-22.

Respondent filed a motion to dismiss as the petition did not address any New Jersey School laws. Accordingly, the Commissioner lacked jurisdiction and the matter was dismissed by the undersigned by Initial Decision dated January 5, 2023.

The matter was remanded by the Acting Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education pursuant to a Decision dated March 30, 2023, wherein the Acting Commissioner stated "Upon review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge that the petition did not reference any New Jersey school laws, and the Commissioner therefore lacks jurisdiction over the claims alleged in the petition. Nevertheless, affording latitude to the petitioner as a pro se litigant, the Commissioner found the matter should be remanded for consideration of petitioner's argument under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-30.1."

The remanded matter was filed at the OAL on August 1, 2023, under docket number EDU 06866-23.

The parties advised via email that they would be filing cross motions for summary decision. Accordingly, a briefing schedule was set.

Petitioner filed her motion on September 2, 2023. Respondent filed their motion on September 14, 2023. Respondent filed a reply brief on October 5, 2023, and a sur reply brief on October 13, 2023. Petitioner filed a reply brief on October 6, 2023.

Thereafter, the parties agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement and Release outlining the terms of the settlement, which is attached hereto and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and terms of the settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.S.A. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

This Global Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Ingrid Fullerton ("Petitioner") and the East Newark Board of Education ("Board" or "Respondent"), having principal offices at 501 North Third Street, East Newark, NJ 07029 (the Board and Petitioner are collectively referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Petitioner was employed as a Teacher for the Board during the 2022-2023 school year; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner's last day of employment with the Board of Education was September 22, 2023; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner began employment with a different school district on or about November 1, 2022; and

WHEREAS, a dispute arose regarding the employment between Petitioner and the Board and the amount of notice that was required to sever the employment relationship between Petitioner and the Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education to resolve such dispute; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have conferred with each other and have reached an amicable resolution that each has determined is in their respective best interest, without the need to spend further time and resources in proceeding to an administrative hearing.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and other good and sufficient consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties now desire to memorialize the terms of their terms and conditions agreement in writing, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Education, as follows:

1. The Board of Education will amend its resolution to reflect that Petitioner resigned effective September 23, 2022 and that the Board of Education accepted Petitioner's resignation on that effective date.
2. The Board of Education will pay Petitioner a settlement sum in the amount of Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00) within thirty (30) days of the Commissioner of Education's approval of this Agreement.
3. Petitioner's private email address will be accessible to the Board Secretary, current Board President and Superintendent/Principal so that she may communicate with respect to her employment records, as needed.
4. The Board of Education authorizes Petitioner to attend the 8th grade graduation ceremony for the class of 2024, contingent on the terms of this Agreement being upheld by all parties.
5. In consideration of the terms of this Agreement, Petitioner and the Board hereby waives, releases and indemnifies each other, including each other's respective agents, representatives, members, employees and volunteers, from all possible claims, that have or may have accrued against the other and which arose out of and/or relate to the parties' employment relationship, status and/or cessation of the employment relationship. This Mutual Release includes, but is not limited to, claims arising under the New Jersey school laws, New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1866, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 ("ADEA"), the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act ("OWBPA"), the federal Equal Pay Act, the New Jersey Wage & Hour Law, the United States Constitution, the New Jersey State Constitution, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act, the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, New Jersey Family Leave Act, the New Jersey Earned Sick Leave Law, the Equal Pay Law, the Equal Rights Act, any other federal, state or local law or ordinances, and/or any common law claims under tort, contract (including any collective bargaining agreement she was subject to or part of) or any other theories now or hereafter recognized.

6. The Release recited in Paragraph 5 shall include any and all claims which Ms. Fullerton and the Board may have at the time of the execution of this Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release for any type of damages cognizable under any of the laws referenced herein, including, but not limited to, any and all claims for wages, compensatory damages, punitive damages, and/or attorneys' fees. Specifically excluded from the Release are Ms. Fullerton's rights, upon cessation of employment with the Board to obtain continued medical coverage at her own expense as authorized by the Consolidated Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1986 (COBRA), unless specifically modified herein; any rights she may have arising under the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund ("TPAF") and related statutes and regulations; any rights she may have for indemnification by the Board pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 and 6.1; and any rights she may have under the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law, N.J.S.A. 34:15-1, et seq. Nothing in this Release or Indemnification set forth in Paragraph 5 shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

7. The Release does not preclude Ms. Fullerton or the Board from suing for enforcement or for a violation of this Settlement Agreement. With respect to any inquiries from the Department of Labor concerning Ms. Fullerton's reason for separation, the Board will respond truthfully that her resignation was in settlement of an issue related to her employment, the details of which shall remain confidential to the greatest extent permitted by law. The Board's Secretary or Superintendent shall clearly indicate that the employment separation was the result of mutual agreement for convenience. Should a subsequent employer or potential employer contact the Superintendent or Board Secretary regarding Ms. Fullerton's employment with the Board, solely the dates of her employment, position held, and, if inquired, the fact that she resigned will be provided.

8. Ms. Fullerton understands that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit her from filing a charge with, or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by, the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), or with any other Federal, State or local court or agency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Ms. Fullerton hereby waives any and all rights to recover any and all damages from the Board, which includes its officers, members, employees, volunteers and agents, including, but not limited to, monetary damages and attorney's fees in any charge, complaint or lawsuit filed by her based on events occurring which arose or existed prior to and through September 23, 2023 as related to her employment with the Board.

9. Petitioner acknowledges that she has had the opportunity to review this Agreement in detail with an Attorney. Petitioner fully understand its requirements and limitations. Petitioner hereby states that she is signing this Agreement voluntarily, of her own free will, and not under duress or coercion of any kind.
10. This Agreement shall be construed fairly according to the plain language of its terms and not for or against any party hereto.
11. All parties are bound by this Agreement and each of its provisions. Anyone who succeeds their rights and responsibilities, such as their successors and assigns are also bound. This Agreement is made for the benefit of all parties hereto and all who succeed to their rights and responsibilities, and expressly includes their officials, representatives, employees, agents, attorneys, successors or assigns.
12. This Agreement is to be kept confidential by both parties to the maximum extent permitted by Law.
13. This Agreement represents the entire Agreement between the Parties and will not be modified in whole or in part except by a mutual subsequent written and signed agreement.
14. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey. The Parties agree that the courts of the State or District Court of New Jersey shall be the sole forum in which any legal action concerning or relating to this Agreement shall be brought.

15. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable by any court or regulatory authority having jurisdiction thereof, such ruling will not affect the validity of this Agreement; the remaining provisions shall continue to be in full force and effect.

16. This Agreement may be executed in one or more original, emailed or telecopied counterparts, all of which together shall be one instrument, and all of which shall be considered duplicate originals.

17. This Agreement is conditioned upon and subject to the review and approval of an Administrative Law Judge, Commissioner of Education and the East Newark Board of Education.

The parties hereby acknowledge their agreement to the terms set forth above by signing below.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Nakeisha Moore, Team Academy Charter School, Essex County

The record of this matter, the proposed Settlement Agreement and General Release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner notes that paragraph 1 of the Agreement references actions that preceded the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement. Further, with respect to paragraph 6 of the Agreement, the parties are reminded that the Board must comply with the requirements of New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq. in regard to information concerning this matter, notwithstanding any agreement the parties may have between themselves to keep the terms of their settlement confidential.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the terms of the Agreement. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATES OF NAKEISHA MOORE, TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY.

Thomas Johnston, Esq., for petitioner (The Johnston Law Firm, LLC, attorneys) for Team Academy Charter School

Steven V. Schuster, Esq., for respondent Nakeisha Moore

Record Closed: January 16, 2024 Decided: January 22, 2024

BEFORE JUDE-ANTHONY TISCORNIA, ALJ:

On January 25, 2023, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case.

The parties have agreed to an amicable resolution of the matter and submitted the attached Settlement Agreement via email on January 16, 2024.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND as follows:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the parties comply with the settlement terms, and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the proceedings in this matter be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This settlement agreement and general release ("Agreement") made by and between

TEAM Academy Charter School
(Hereinafter referred to as "TEAM")

AND

Nakeisha Moore
(Hereinafter referred to as "Moore")

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, TEAM is duly organized as a public charter school under the laws of the State of New Jersey, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, the parties have previously agreed to an Employment Agreement for the position of teacher during 2022-2023 school year; and

WHEREAS, Moore concluded her duties as teacher on September 6, 2022; and

WHEREAS, TEAM filed a petition with the Department of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 ("Petition"); and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to amicably resolve the Petition without further dispute between the parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises hereinafter set forth, the parties desire to enter into the within Settlement Agreement and General Release (the "Agreement") as follows:

1. Payment and Benefits. In consideration for the promises made by TEAM, Moore shall pay to TEAM ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00 USD) in equal installments of one thousand twenty-eight dollars and fifty-seven cents ($1,428.58 USD) over seven consecutive months on or before the 15th day of each month, commencing in December 2023. These monies shall be deposited into her counsel Steven Schuster's attorney trust account, and TEAM's counsel, Thomas Johnston, shall be notified via email within five business days of each deposit. No other monies shall be due TEAM. TEAM agrees that to the extent that any federal, state or local taxes may be or become due or payable as a result of the above payments, TEAM shall be solely responsible for paying such taxes. If Moore fails to make any deposit within five business days of the 15th day of each month, she shall be in material breach of this Agreement and agrees to an immediate six-month suspension of her teacher certification issued by the New Jersey Department of Education, and monies already paid to the attorney escrow account shall be forfeited by Moore and transmitted to TEAM within fourteen (14) days. Moore further consents to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education to enforce such suspension, as a dispute that arises under the New Jersey school laws.

2. Mutual Release. In consideration for the payments described in Section 1 above, and TEAM's voluntarily dismissal of the Petition, and other consideration herein, the parties release each other of obligations from or arising out of Moore's employment and any and all claims or causes of action they may have or claim to have against the other, known or unknown. Moore releases TEAM and any of its predecessors, successors, parents, affiliated or subsidiary entities, including KIPP New Jersey, Inc. and KIPP TEAM and Family, Inc., and its present or former officers, directors, agents, Board of Trustees members, representatives, employees, attorneys, committees, trustees, fiduciaries, trusts and their respective successors and assigns, heirs, executors and personal or legal representatives (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Releasees") from any and all claims or causes of action she may have or claim to have, known or unknown, against the Releasees arising out of or related to her employment with TEAM or her separation therefrom. The claims released include, but are not limited to:

a. all statutory claims, including but not limited to claims arising under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (as amended), the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act (as amended), the New Jersey Family Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code (as amended), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as amended), the Rehabilitation Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (as amended), the Fair Labor Standards Act (as amended), the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994, the National Labor Relations Act (as amended), the Federal Warn Act (as amended), the New Jersey Millville Dallas Airmotive Plan Job Loss Notification Act (as amended), the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the Occupational Safety and Health Act (as amended), the Equal Pay Act (as amended), the New Jersey Minimum Wage Law (as amended), the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law (as amended), Equal Pay Law for New Jersey (as amended), the New Jersey Worker Health and Safety Act (as amended), Charter School Program Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-1 et seq., the New Jersey School Laws, N.J.S.A. 18A et seq., and the Labor Management Relations Act (as amended);

b. all claims arising under the United States or New Jersey Constitutions;

c. all claims arising under any Executive Order or derived from or based upon any state or federal regulations;

d. all common law claims, including but not limited to any and all rights to discovery, claims for wrongful discharge, constructive discharge, violation of public policy, breach of an express or implied contract, breach of an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation, conspiracy, tortious interference with contract or prospective economic advantage, promissory estoppel, equitable estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, detrimental reliance, retaliation, and negligence;

e. all claims for any compensation including commissions, back wages, front pay, punitive damages, pay increases, bonuses or awards, fringe benefits, disability benefits, severance benefits, reinstatement, retroactive seniority, pension benefits, contributions to retirement plans, or any other form of economic loss;

f. all claims for personal injury, including physical injury, mental anguish, emotional distress, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, damage to name or reputation, interest, liquidated damages, and punitive damages; and

g. all claims for costs, interest, and attorneys' fees.

TEAM likewise releases any and all claims it may have against Moore, including, but not limited to, claims under the above laws, regulations, executor orders and rules, including claims under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.

3. Non-Admission of Liability. Nothing contained in Section 2 is intended by a party, nor shall be construed: (i) to waive or release any future claim against the other arising after the date this Agreement is signed by the parties; or (ii) to limit a party's right to enforce the terms of this Agreement. TEAM understands that Moore's offer of payments described in Section 1 above does not constitute an admission by Moore that she has violated any statute, regulation or ordinance or any other legal obligation that she may owe to TEAM with respect to any aspect of her employment with TEAM or her separation therefrom.

4. Agreement Not to Sue. Each party represents that they have not, agrees that they will not, file any lawsuit or claim against the Releasees or Moore based on any events, whether known or unknown, occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any events related to, arising out of, or in connection with, Moore's employment with TEAM, or the separation therefrom, in any court, administrative agency or tribunal of the United States, New Jersey, or any other state, city, county, or locality. Moore also acknowledges and agrees that while this release does not preclude her from filing a charge with the National Labor Relations Board, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a similar state or local agency, or from participating in any investigation or proceeding with such an agency, she will not personally recover monies, and expressly waives the right to recover such monies, for any complaint or charge filed against the Releasees with any federal, state or local board, agency or court.

5. Confidential Information. Any prior agreements between Moore and TEAM that impose confidentiality and/or nondisclosure obligations upon her shall remain in force and effect. In addition, from and after the Effective Date of this Agreement, Moore agrees not to divulge or use to the detriment of TEAM, her benefit, or the benefit of any other person, any confidential information related to TEAM ("Confidential Information"). Moore shall immediately deliver to TEAM all school memoranda, books, papers, letters and other data and all copies thereof, whether or not such materials contain Confidential Information, in her possession or control. Confidential Information does not include information which (i) has become publicly known and/or made generally available through no wrongful act of Moore, or (ii) has been rightfully received by Moore from a third party who is authorized to make such disclosure.

6. Confidentiality of Agreement. The parties agree to maintain in confidence and not to disclose the terms of this Agreement, except as mandated by law and as in furtherance of dismissal of the Petition. It shall not be considered a breach of the obligation of confidentiality for Moore to make disclosure of this Agreement to her immediate family (who shall first be expressly advised of and bound by the same requirement of confidentiality), or to make disclosure of this Agreement or the underlying events in order to obtain private and confidential legal, tax, or financial advice, or to respond to any inquiry from any governmental entity or agency regarding a tax filing. The parties represent that no unauthorized disclosures concerning the terms of this Agreement were made prior to signing the Agreement.

Any breach by Moore or TEAM of the obligations set forth in this Section and Section 5 of this Agreement shall be considered a material breach of this Agreement. Moore and TEAM both acknowledge and agree that, in the event of such a breach or threatened breach, TEAM and Moore, in addition to any other rights and remedies they may have, including monetary damages, shall be entitled to obtain appropriate injunctive relief and shall further be entitled to recover their reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred in seeking relief for any such breach or threatened breach.

7. Non-Disparagement. The parties agree that they will not criticize, denigrate, or disparage each other as set forth herein. To that end, each party will not make any comments or statements to the press, TEAM's current or former employees, students, parents or any individual or entity with whom TEAM has a business relationship, or any other person if such comment or statement could be likely to adversely affect the conduct of the other party, or any of the plans, employment prospect, or reputation of the other party. To the extent the parties are legally required to disclose to a governmental entity or other third party the reason(s) for Moore's separation from TEAM, the parties shall provide only her dates of employment and positions held. Moore should direct any inquiries to the Executive Director of TEAM. By agreeing to this provision, TEAM is not accepting liability for statements made by current or former employees or trustees made outside the scope of employment or duties. If either Party breaches this provision, it shall be a material breach of this Agreement and this provision shall no longer apply to the non-breaching party.

8. Attorney Review. Moore agrees that she has had the opportunity to review this Agreement with an attorney, that TEAM recommends that she review this Agreement with an attorney, and that she fully understands the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

9. Severability. Should any provision of this Agreement be declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and cannot be modified to be enforceable, excluding the general release language set forth in Sections 2 and 4, such provision shall immediately become null and void, leaving the remainder of this Agreement in full force and effect. If the general release language in Sections 2 and 4 is found to be illegal or unenforceable, Moore and TEAM agree to execute a binding replacement release.

10. Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of New Jersey, and the Superior Court of New Jersey shall have jurisdiction over, and be the proper venue for, any disputes arising out of this Agreement.

11. Construction. The parties and their counsel have participated fully in the review of this Agreement. Any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not apply in interpreting this Agreement. The language in this Agreement shall be interpreted as to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party.

12. Successors. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys, heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

13. Amendment. This Agreement may only be amended by a writing signed by all parties to this Agreement.

14. Agreement Entered Voluntarily. This Agreement is executed voluntarily and without any duress or undue influence on the part or behalf of the parties hereto, with the full intent of releasing all claims. Moore acknowledges that:

a. She has read this Agreement and it has been explained to her in full;

b. She has not relied upon any representation or statement, written or oral, not set forth in this Agreement;

c. She has been represented in the preparation, negotiation, and execution of this Agreement by legal counsel of her own choice or that she has voluntarily declined to seek such counsel;

d. She understands the terms and consequences of this Agreement and of the releases it contains;

e. She is fully aware of the legal and binding effect of this Agreement;

f. She is completely satisfied that the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and acceptable; and

g. To the extent she has retained counsel, that she is satisfied with her respective counsel and believes her counsel has effectively represented her independent interests.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and, except set forth in the first sentence of Section 5 of this Agreement, fully supersedes any and all prior contracts or agreements between the parties pertaining to compensation or severance, and it likewise fully supersedes any and all other conflicting agreements or understandings between the parties. Moore acknowledges that the only consideration she has received for signing this Agreement is that set forth herein. No other promise, inducement, threat, agreement or understanding of any kind or description has been made with her or to her to cause her to enter into this Agreement.

16. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed and delivered in any number of counterparts, each of which, when so executed and delivered, shall constitute an original, fully enforceable counterpart for all purposes, and such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

17. Notice. Notice between the parties shall be in writing and directed as follows:

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.G.F., on behalf of minor child, A.J.G.F.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Mountain Lakes, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), granting the respondent Board's motion to dismiss, have been reviewed and considered.

The petitioner filed a pro se appeal challenging three separate Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (HIB) determinations made by the respondent Board in regard to petitioner's minor child. The matter was transmitted to the OAL as a contested case in May 2023. Following several pre-hearing telephone conferences, a hearing was set for January 18, 2024. Thereafter, on October 20, 2023, the Board filed a motion to compel the petitioner to respond to interrogatories as she had not provided a written response to discovery requests and failed to file an opposition to the respondent's motion. On December 5, 2023, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted the Board's motion and ordered the petitioner to provide written responses to the interrogatories by December 11, 2023. After petitioner failed to respond to the discovery request, the Board filed a motion to dismiss the appeal.

The ALJ determined that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14, the petition must be dismissed, as the petitioner: failed to provide discovery in accordance with the December 5, 2023 Order; failed to oppose the motion to dismiss; failed to appear for a January 5, 2024 conference call; failed to comply with discovery rules; and failed to offer a reasonable explanation as to why she failed to provide discovery, respond to the motions, or appear for the scheduled conference call. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition must be dismissed. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

A.G.F., petitioner, pro se

Sean Fogarty, Esq., for respondent (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 5, 2024 Decided: January 17, 2024

BEFORE SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter involves an appeal by the petitioner of three separate Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying (HIB) determinations made by the Mountain Lakes Board of Education (Board). The Board filed a motion seeking the dismissal of this matter due to the petitioner's failure to provide discovery and to comply with a prior Order directing petitioner to provide discovery by a date certain.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT

Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education, and the Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed as a contested case on May 31, 2023. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

An initial prehearing conference was held on July 11, 2023, and the parties participated in several conference calls thereafter. A Prehearing Order was entered on October 17, 2023, scheduling a hearing for January 18, 2024.

On October 20, 2023, the Board filed a motion seeking an order compelling the petitioner to respond to interrogatories.[1] Petitioner had not provided a written response to the discovery requests, and did not file an opposition to the respondent's motion. On December 5, 2023, I granted the respondent's motion, and ordered that the petitioner provide written responses to the Request for Admissions by December 11, 2023.

The petitioner never responded to the respondent's discovery requests. On December 21, 2023, the Board filed a motion to dismiss the petitioner's appeal for failing to provide discovery and comply with the December 5, 2023 Order directing petitioner to provide discovery by December 11, 2023. Petitioner did not file an opposition by January 2, 2024, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.2. I subsequently scheduled a telephone conference for January 5, 2024 to address the motion and the outstanding discovery. Board counsel appeared for the conference, but the petitioner did not. I FIND that the petitioner failed to provide the Board with the requested discovery, failed to comply with the December 5, 2023 Order compelling discovery, and that the petitioner never filed an opposition to the respondent's motion. Petitioner also never provided an explanation as to why she failed to appear for the January 5, 2024 telephone conference.

1 Respondent had served a first set of Interrogatories on petitioner on July 19, 2023, which were due by August 3, 2023. Respondent requested a conference to address discovery. A conference was held with the parties in August 2023, at which time the respondent agreed to revise and condense the Interrogatories, and petitioner was instructed to respond to these revised discovery requests within fifteen days of receipt. On or around September 12, 2023, respondent serviced revised Interrogatories together with a Request for Admissions. During a September 26, 2023 conference, I extended the time for petitioner to answer discovery. During an October 12, 2023 conference, petitioner acknowledged receiving the discovery requests but indicated that she would not be responding to the requests. Respondent subsequently filed the motion to compel discovery.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4(c) requires a party to provide requested discovery "[n]o later than 15 days from receipt of a notice requesting discovery." N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.4(e) also requires that all discovery should be completed no later than ten days before the hearing. Petitioner failed to respond in writing to the Board's discovery demands within fifteen days, and she failed to provide this discovery at least ten days prior to the hearing.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.14 authorizes a judge to dismiss a matter and take other appropriate action for an "unreasonable failure to comply with any order of a judge" or for failing to comply with the court rules. Petitioner unreasonably failed to comply with the discovery order and the court rules after being given extensions to provide the requested discovery, and after the Board simplified and streamlined its requests as directed.

Given that the petitioner failed to provide discovery in accordance with the December 5, 2023 Order; failed to oppose the motion to dismiss; failed to appear for the January 5, 2024 conference; failed to comply with the aforementioned discovery rules; and failed to offer a reasonable explanation as to why she has failed to provide discovery, respond to the motions, or appear for the scheduled conference call, I CONCLUDE that dismissal of the Petition is appropriate, and that the Board's motion should be granted.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the respondent's motion to dismiss is GRANTED and that the Petition be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

BEFORE ROBERT D. HERMAN, ALJ:

The Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education (DOE) Controversies and Disputes transmitted petitioner's appeal to the Office of Administrative Law on June 20, 2023, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement of this administrative action and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein. This Settlement Agreement resolves all disputes.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement, and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached Settlement Agreement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms. I ORDER that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

A.F., Parent, obo R.F. Petitioner(s), v. Board of Education of the Township of Washington, Gloucester County Respondent(s).	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY Agency # 122-5/22 EDU 05553-2023S SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and General Release, ("Agreement"), is entered into this 12th day of ~~November~~ December 2023 by and between the Petitioners, Amanda Fanelli obo R.F and Brian Fanelli. and Respondent, Washington Township Board of Education, et al. (hereinafter "Petitioner", "Brian Fanelli", "Respondent" and collectively "Parties"); and

WHEREAS, the Petitioners challenged a residency decision made by the Respondent; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have agreed to settle all of the claims in this matter in an amicable way, and therefore, after negotiations, have agreed to enter into this Settlement Agreement and Release in order to formalize their compromise, which will fully and finally resolve this matter; and

WHEREAS, the Respondent does not admit liability or any wrongdoing of any kind. but is entering into this Settlement Agreement and Release solely as a matter of business judgment. and

WHEREAS, having negotiated in good faith, the Parties enter into this Settlement Agreement and Release in order to reach a compromise to fully and finally resolve their dispute in this matter, and hereby agree as follows;

1. Release from All Claims:

The execution of this Agreement will constitute the full release by the Parties of all claims known and unknown that they ever had or may have against one another arising up to and including the date of the execution of this Agreement, including all claims that were alleged in the Petition of Appeal bearing Docket No. EDU 05553-2023S, any and all claims that could have been alleged in the Petition of Appeal concerning R.F.'s enrollment as a student within the Washington Township Board of Education School District as well as any and all claims for money damages in any form as well as any claim for attorneys' fees.

2. Consideration:

In consideration for this Settlement Agreement and Release, the Petitioners, Amanda Fanelli obo R.F. and Brian Fanelli will pay the Respondent $2,249.04 representing tuition for R.F.'s attendance at the Washington Township Board of Education schools from April 2023 - June of 2023. This payment shall be made monthly in the amount of $187.42. The first payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of Board Approval of this Agreement, which approval is expected on November 28, 2023. Monthly payments shall be made until such time as full payment of the total sum noted herein has been paid to the Respondent. Payment shall be made to the Washington Township Board of Education's business office by the 5th day of each month after the initial payment is made within thirty (30) days of Board Approval of this Agreement. In the event that any payment is late, the Respondent's business office will send a letter within 20 days to Amanda Fanelli and Brian Fanelli via regular and certified mail. If the default in payment is not cured within ten (10) days thereafter, the Respondent shall immediately move to enforce the Settlement Agreement and seek Judgement as set forth in paragraph 14 below.

3. Full and Final Settlement:

This Settlement Agreement and Release represents a full and final settlement of the dispute between the Parties. The Parties expressly acknowledge and agree that the settlement payment is for all of the claimed damages, including, but not limited to, compensatory damages, attorneys' fees, litigation costs and/or expenses incurred by and/or on behalf of Respondent with respect to R.F.'s attendance at the Washington Township Board of Education School District, this litigation, and any and all other claims, cross-claims and/or counterclaims which Petitioners and Brian Fanelli or Respondent, asserted and/or could have asserted including those which are not specifically mentioned in this Settlement Agreement and Release, except for any such claims as may be necessary to seek enforcement of the terms of this Settlement Agreement and Release. This means that Petitioners, Brian Fanelli and Respondent release any and all claims they asserted and/or could have asserted against each other in this or any other forum arising out of the facts and circumstances set forth in the Petition of Appeal by executing this Settlement Agreement and Release.

4. General Release:

(a) Release of Claims by Petitioners, Amanda Fanelli obo R.F. and Brian Fanelli Against Respondent:

In consideration for the making of this Agreement and for R.F.'s enrollment and attendance at the Washington Township Board of Education Schools, and for other benefits realized by the Parties under this Agreement, Petitioner, Amanda Fanelli, Brian Fanelli, both individually, and on behalf of R.F., their heirs, administrators, beneficiaries, assigns, executors, and attorneys, knowingly, voluntarily and unconditionally releases and forever discharges the Respondent, its agents, officers, directors, board members, employees, representatives, parents, subsidiaries, subcontractors and contractors and assigns, both jointly and individually, in both their personal and official capacities of and from all manner of action(s), cause(s) of action, and suit(s), including but not limited to, any claims, debts, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, claims for counsel fees, interest, expenses and costs, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, benefits, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands of any nature whatsoever, in law or in equity, civil or criminal, vested or contingent, which she has ever had, now has or assert, or which she or her relatives, heirs, executors, representatives, assigns or administrators hereafter can, shall or may have or may assert, for, upon or by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever to the date hereof, it being the intention herein of Petitioners and Brian Fanelli to release Respondent from any and all claims of any and every nature, including attorneys' fees, up to the date of the Agreement, unrestricted in any way by the nature of the claim, including, though not by way of limitation, all matters which were asserted or could have been asserted in all actions or claims identified above or any matter arising out of R.F.'s enrollment in the Washington Township Board of Education Schools, and any other state or federal statutory, constitutional, or common law claims. This release includes, but is not limited to, any and all rights, causes of actions, claims or demands of any kind through the date of this release and further includes any alleged injuries or damages suffered at any time after the date of this release by reason of the continued effects of any such acts which occurred on or before the date of this release including any claims to attorneys' fees.

(b) Release of Claims by the Respondent Against Petitioners and Brian Fanelli

It is hereby understood and agreed that the Respondent, for and in consideration of the payment of tuition by Petitioners and Brian Fanelli, and the release of all claims, and/or other consideration set forth herein, do hereby irrevocably and unconditionally release Petitioners and Brian Fanelli of and from all manner of action(s), cause(s) of action, and suit(s) which were or could have been brought in the present litigation or as a result of this litigation.

5. Voluntary Withdrawal of Petition of Appeal:

The Petitioners shall execute and file a letter with the Office of Administrative Law directed to the Honorable Robert Herman, J.S.C., dismissing this matter with Prejudice after Board Approval of this Settlement Agreement and Release.

6. Non-Assignment:

By executing this Settlement Agreement and Release, the Parties expressly certify, acknowledge, and represent that they have not assigned to any third party any right or claim that any party has, may have or believes that the party has or may have against each other. The Parties further certify that they have no other charges, claims and/or complaints of any kind pending against each other, and further covenant and certify that they will not file or cause to be filed any charge, claim or complaint of any kind against each other seeking civil and/or criminal sanctions, personal recovery and/or injunctive relief based upon any facts leading up to the date of the signing of this Settlement Agreement and Release. The Parties certify that they have not assigned any claims and will not file any claims based upon any facts leading up to the date of the signing of this Settlement Agreement and Release.

7. No Admission of Liability:

(a) Respondent expressly denies liability for any and all of the Petitioners and Brian Fanelli's claims, whether known or unknown, alleged in the Petition of Appeal. It is understood and agreed between the Petitioners, Brian Fanelli and Respondent that this Agreement will not be construed at any time or for any purpose as an admission by the Respondent of any act or omission alleged by Petitioners or Brian Fanelli or any acts or omissions that could have been alleged by Petitioners or Brian Fanelli, or any liability or responsibility for any wrongdoing of any kind;

(b) The Parties expressly agree that none of them shall be considered to be a "prevailing party" as a result of this Agreement; and

(c) The Parties further agree that this Agreement shall not be offered, used or considered as evidence in any proceeding of any type, except to the extent necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement. The Parties further agree and understand that they shall not provide a copy of this Agreement to any person, other than their attorneys, except if compelled to do so by legal process.

8. Attorneys' Fees:

The Parties, and their counsel, expressly waive and release each other from any and all claims for attorneys' fees and costs, including, but not limited to, claims for attorneys' fees and costs allowed under any Federal, State and/or local law, statute, regulation and/or ordinance.

9. Binding Agreement:

This Settlement Agreement and Release shall be binding on the Petitioners and Brian Fanelli and any and all of her respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns, and to Respondent, their present or former departments, elected and appointed officials, officers, directors, agents, administrators, board members, attorneys, representatives, past and present employees, and any and all of its respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns.

10. Covenant Not to Sue:

The Parties covenant that no other claim shall at any time hereinafter be filed against any party relating to any event or matter that was or could have been raised in the Petition of Appeal or a related lawsuit.

11. Confidentiality of Agreement:

The Parties agrees that, going forward, the amounts and fact of the payments described herein, any and all consideration provided herein, any and all discussions, communications and correspondence leading to this Agreement, which could give rise to an inference as to the Parties involved shall be kept confidential, to the extent permitted by law. It is the Parties' understanding, agreement and expectation that this confidentiality provision shall apply to the fullest extent permissible by law, and shall preclude the Petitioners and Brian Fanelli, their agents or representatives, from voluntarily or otherwise testifying at or participating in any proceeding, hearing, trial or preparation for hearing or trial, concerning the matters covered by this confidentiality provision, unless compelled to do so by law or by court order. The sole consideration for this confidentiality provision is the mutuality of the obligations of the Parties with respect thereto.

The Petitioners and Brian Fanelli also acknowledge that this settlement is being made with a public entity and is subject to disclosure, notwithstanding this confidentiality clause, in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-6, et. seq.; Open Public Records

Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1, et. seq.; any and all Federal or New Jersey statutes or regulations governing public entity meetings and disclosures including all case law interpreting same.

12. Language:

The language of this Settlement Agreement and Release has been negotiated and is a product of the draftsmanship of all of the Parties, and shall, in all cases, be construed as a whole according to its objective and fair meaning and shall not be interpreted in favor of or against any party. Not by way of limiting the foregoing, the interpretation of any provision (in part or in whole) of this Settlement Agreement and Release shall not, in any manner, be interpreted against the drafter.

13. Entire Agreement:

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Petitioners, Brian Fanelli and the Respondent with respect to the Petition of Appeal and supersedes all prior written or oral agreements, statements, offers or understandings between the Parties. The Parties acknowledge that they are not relying on any other representations, warranties, agreements or undertakings other than those expressly contained herein. This Agreement shall not be amended, modified or revised except by a written instrument duly signed by all of the Parties hereto, or their respective successors or assigns. No oral statement of any person shall in any manner or degree, modify the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

14. Controlling Law and Venue and In the Event of Default of Payment:

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey. To the extent that Petitioners or Brian Fanelli defaults on any payment required by this Agreement to be made to Respondent, the Parties agree that the remaining moneys owed shall be converted to a Consent Judgement and that Respondent may seek to enforce the provisions of this Agreement, and/or seek Collection of the Consent Judgement amount within the Superior Court of New Jersey, Camden County Vicinage, which Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Agreement and/or over any proceedings pertaining to collection of Consent Judgement amount by Respondent from Petitioners and Brian Fanelli.

15. Severability:

If any provision of this Agreement is declared invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, and if such provision cannot be modified to be enforceable to any extent or in any application, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless survive and continue in full force and effect.

16. Counterparts:

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same.

17. Authority to Sign:

Respondent hereby represents and warrants that the individual signing this Agreement on its behalf has the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement on the respective Respondent's behalf. Respondent further warrants that it approved this Agreement in a manner permitted by law for approval of such documents.

BY SIGNING THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE THE PARTIES SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THAT:

A. THEY HAVE READ IT;

B. THEY UNDERSTAND IT AND KNOW THAT THEY ARE GIVING UP IMPORTANT LEGAL RIGHTS;

C. THEY AGREE WITH EVERYTHING IN IT AND TO ABIDE BY THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT;

D. THEY HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY CONCERNING THIS AGREEMENT PRIOR TO EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT;

E. THEY HAVE SIGNED THIS AGREEMENT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY.

Final Decision

R.G., on behalf of minor child, F.G.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Gloucester, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), dismissing the petitioner's appeal for failure to appear at five scheduled appearance before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), have been reviewed and considered.

The petitioner filed a pro se appeal challenging the Board's determination that R.G. and her child were not domiciled within the respondent Board's school district, and that F.G. should accordingly be disenrolled and tuition assessed for the period of F.G.'s ineligible attendance in Gloucester Township schools. The matter was transmitted to the OAL and filed as a contested case on July 6, 2023. Petitioner failed to appear at five pre-hearing conferences despite having received appropriate notice of each conference date. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that the matter must be dismissed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 for petitioner's failure to appear.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition must be dismissed. Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05923-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 171-6/23

R.G. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD F.G., Petitioner,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF GLOUCESTER BOARD OF EDUCATION, CAMDEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

R.G., petitioner, pro se

Daniel H. Long, Esq., for respondent (Wade, Long, Wood & Long, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 9, 2024 Decided: January 22, 2024

BEFORE NICOLE T. MINUTOLI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, R.G. on behalf of her minor child F.G., appeals the determination of the respondent, the Township of Gloucester Board of Education (Board or District), that F.G. is not domiciled in its district, should be disenrolled, and assessing all back tuition charges for the days of illegal attendance.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed an appeal with the Department of Education (Department) on June 21, 2023. The Board filed an answer on July 5, 2023. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where on July 6, 2023, it was filed as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A prehearing telephone conference was scheduled for July 24, 2023, but R.G. failed to appear. She also failed to appear for a subsequent conference but appeared for the August 30, 2023, conference, during which the parties agreed that F.G. is now domiciled within the District. Respondent stated that it would not pursue tuition costs for the time period F.G. was not domiciled within the District and R.G. agreed to withdraw the appeal. The withdrawal was not received and R.G. failed to appear for the October 12, 2023, conference call.

On October 13, 2023, notice was sent to the parties of a telephone conference on November 29, 2023, through regular mail and email. A dial-in number was provided. The notice stated in bold and highlighted print:

> If you do not participate in the prehearing conference, the file will be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate action which may include imposition of the proposed penalty or granting the relief requested by the other party.

R.G. failed to appear for the November 29, 2023, telephone conference. R.G. failed to notify my office in advance or to request an adjournment. During the call, respondent stated that he continued to attempt to contact R.G. to obtain a letter of withdrawal, without response.

On November 30, 2023, notice was sent to the parties of a telephone conference on January 5, 2024, through regular mail and email. A dial-in number was provided. R.G. failed to appear for the January 5, 2024, telephone conference. R.G. failed to notify my office in advance or to request an adjournment. During the call, respondent stated that

F.G. is currently domiciled within the District and is therefore entitled to a free appropriate public education (FAPE) within the Gloucester Township School District. Respondent confirmed that it will not be pursuing tuition costs for the time period F.G. was not domiciled within the District.

APPLICABLE LAW

N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) provides that if, after appropriate notice, a party does not appear in any proceeding scheduled by a judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge may direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition.[1]

CONCLUSION

Because the petitioner has failed to appear for five scheduled appearances before me without providing good cause for her failure to participate, I CONCLUDE that the appeal filed by the petitioner must be dismissed.

ORDER

Based upon the above, I ORDER that the petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of [1] R.G. attended one scheduled conference call, where she stated, and the District confirmed, that F.G. is now domiciled within the District and is therefore entitled to a FAPE from the Gloucester Township School District; the residency appeal has been entirely resolved and is moot.

Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Re: Friends of TEAM Charter Schools, Inc. v. Board of Education of the City of Newark, Essex County, Agency Dkt. No. 55-4/21, Commissioner Decision No. 357-23

Dear Parties:

I have reviewed the materials filed in connection with petitioner's Motion for Reconsideration of the Commissioner's final decision issued December 5, 2023.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.15(b)(2), a motion for reconsideration shall be considered based upon the following:

i. Claim(s) of mistake, provided, however, that disagreement with the outcome of a decision, or with the analysis upon which it is based, shall not constitute "mistake" for purposes of this section;

ii. Newly discovered evidence likely to alter the outcome of a matter, where such evidence could not have been previously discovered by due diligence;

iii. Newly ascertained misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party, where such misrepresentation could not have been previously known; or

iv. Reversal of a prior judgment on which the present matter is based.

Upon review and consideration, I find that petitioner has failed to satisfy any of the factors set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.15(b)(2).

Initially, petitioner's submission expresses disagreement with the outcome of one aspect of the decision and the analysis upon which it is based. Specifically, petitioner disagrees with the Commissioner's reliance upon a document in evidence to support the analysis, claiming that reliance upon same resulted in a mistaken factual finding that the Board intends to demolish the existing facility. Petitioner further claims that this mistaken factual finding led to an erroneous legal conclusion regarding the applicability of N.J.A.C. 6A:26-7.3(a).

Apart from the fact that the issue raised by petitioner is beyond the scope of the remand, petitioner's claim of mistake is undermined by the fact that petitioner's June 2, 2022 "Statement of Undisputed Facts" cites the document at issue—which petitioner supplied to the ALJ as Exhibit M in support of its motion for summary decision—and confirms that the document described the "Proposed Scope of Work" for "former Maple Avenue School" as "[w]hole building demolition." In its exceptions to the Initial Decision dated October 2, 2023, petitioner again cites and describes Exhibit M on pages 11-12, consistent with its Statement of Undisputed Facts. In any event, petitioner's disagreement with the Commissioner's reliance upon Exhibit M and petitioner's own "Statement of Undisputed Facts" in connection with the analysis is not a sufficient basis for reconsideration.

Furthermore, petitioner's claim that deposition testimony and a certification contained in the record constitutes "newly discovered evidence likely to alter the outcome of the matter" lacks merit. The deposition testimony and certification were already considered by both the ALJ and the Commissioner.

Accordingly, the Motion for Reconsideration is hereby DENIED.

Sincerely,

Christopher Huber
Acting Commissioner of Education

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Kelly Stern,
Board of Trustees of People's Achieve
Community Charter School, Inc., Essex County

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on October 31 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Board of Trustees of People's Achieve Community Charter School, Inc.) upon respondent (Kelly Stern), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

By notice dated December 6, 2023, sent to respondent via email, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed her to answer within 20 days. No answer having yet been received, on January 9, 2024, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice via email, regular mail, and certified mail directing her to file an answer within ten days if she wished to contest the suspension of her certificates. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: on April 7, 2023, respondent executed an employment contract with petitioner for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon thirty days' written notice, except that if notice was given in July, August, or September, the commencement of the notice period would be October 1, 2023, with an expiration date of November 1, 2023; and, on August 15, 2023, respondent sent an email to petitioner indicating that she was resigning, thereby providing less than the required thirty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential she may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

Agency Dkt. No. 331-12/23

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Alexandra Braun, Board of Education of the Borough of Ridgefield, Bergen County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on December 4, 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Board of Education of the Borough of Ridgefield) upon respondent (Alexandra Braun), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

By notice dated December 14, 2023, sent to respondent via regular mail, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days. No answer having yet been received, on January 8, 2024, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice via email directing her to file an answer within ten days if she wished to contest the suspension of her certificates. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent holds an instructional provisional certificate with a teacher of students with disabilities endorsement, and an instructional provisional certificate with an elementary school teacher Grades K-6 endorsement; respondent executed an employment contract with petitioner dated August 1, 2023, for the term September 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; respondent commenced her employment with petitioner on September 1, 2023; and, on October 10, 2023, respondent sent an email to petitioner indicating that she was resigning effective immediately for personal reasons, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner. Respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential she may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Luke Masella, Board of Education of the Township of Franklin, Somerset County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on December 7, 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Board of Education of the Township of Franklin) upon respondent (Luke Masella), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending his teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

By notice dated December 14, 2023, sent to respondent via regular mail, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days. No answer having yet been received, on January 9, 2024, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice via regular and certified mail, directing him to file an answer within ten days if he wished to contest the suspension of his certificates. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: on May 31, 2023, respondent accepted petitioner's offer of employment for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; on August 1, 2023, respondent sent an email to petitioner indicating that he was resigning, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential he may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Alexa Ziler, Board of Education of the Township of Franklin, Somerset County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on December 7, 2023, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Board of Education of the Township of Franklin) upon respondent (Alexa Ziler), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

By notice dated December 14, 2023, sent to respondent via email, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days. No answer having yet been received, on January 9, 2024, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice via email, regular mail, and certified mail, directing her to file an answer within ten days if she wished to contest the suspension of her certificates. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent accepted petitioner's offer of employment for the 2023-2024 school year; the respondent provided petitioner with the right to terminate her employment upon sixty days' written notice; on September 11, 2023, respondent sent an email to petitioner indicating that she was resigning, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential she may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

BEFORE WILLIAM COOPER, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on December 30, 2022, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On January 24, 2024, the parties filed a fully executed Settlement Agreement in this matter. The Agreement is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

THIS IS CERTIFIED TO BE A TRUE AND COMPARED COPY OF A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE EDISON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION ON NOVEMBER 21, 2023.

SECRETARY

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into effective as of the 21 day of November, 2023 ("the Effective Date"), by and between LYDIA ROCA ("Roca") and the EDISON BOARD OF EDUCATION (the "Board").

WHEREAS, the Board is a body public and corporate, organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 which is entrusted with maintaining and governing the public schools of the Township of Edison School District;

WHEREAS, the Board has its administrative offices located at 312 Pierson Avenue Edison, New Jersey 08837;

WHEREAS, Roca is a former employee of the Board;

WHEREAS, Roca filed a Petition with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, captioned Lydia Roca v. Edison Twp. Board of Education, OAL Docket No. EDU-00084-2023 S, Agency Docket No. 311-11/22, asserting that the Board unlawfully terminated her employment; and, Roca filed a Complaint in the New Jersey Superior Court captioned Lydia Roca v. Edison Twp. Board of Education, Dkt. No. MID-L-005909-22, asserting that the Board breached her employment contract (hereinafter "the Actions");

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all outstanding matters between them pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound hereby and in consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Settlement Terms

Roca and the Board agree that the Board shall pay, as back pay minus mitigation, the gross amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($50,000.00), in full satisfaction of all claims in the Actions for compensatory damages known or unknown, asserted or unasserted including, but not limited to, claims for legal or equitable relief, reinstatement, back or front pay, lost benefits, and contract claims. This sum shall be paid within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the Commissioner of Education approves this Agreement as follows:

a. In the form of a check made payable to Roca.

b. Any employer-side payroll taxes and/or penalties relating thereto, if any, are the sole responsibility of the Board.

c. The gross amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($50,000) constitutes full back pay minus mitigation due to Roca for the time period September 15, 2022 through June 30, 2023.

2. Stipulation of Dismissal

Roca and the Board agree that by executing this Agreement, it (and a Board resolution) shall be submitted to the Administrative Law Judge for issuance of an Initial Decision approving the settlement. If the settlement is approved by both the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education, Roca's pending Petition will be dismissed with prejudice and Roca's Superior Court Complaint will be withdrawn with prejudice.

3. Assent to Terms

Roca and the Board hereby acknowledge that they entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of their rights and that they were fully informed of the implications of this Agreement. Roca has reviewed this Agreement with Albert J. Leonardo, Esq., and Richard A. Friedman, Esq. and acknowledges she is satisfied with the quality of the services received. The parties enter into this Agreement without duress and of their own free will and volition and acknowledge that they were given a full and fair opportunity to fully consider this Agreement. This Agreement must be formally approved by the Board and this Agreement will be deemed null and void without said approval. All reasonable efforts will be made to timely obtain approval from the Board.

4. No Admission of Liability

Roca and the Board acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is a compromise and neither this Agreement, nor any consideration provided pursuant to this Agreement, shall be taken or construed to be an admission or concession by Roca or the Board of any kind with respect to any fact, liability, or fault whatsoever.

It is expressly understood that the arrangement herein is predicated exclusively upon the special circumstances of this matter and shall not be construed to represent any policy or procedure of the Board.

5. Non-Disparagement

Each party to this agreement agrees not to disparage or make or solicit any comments, statements, or the like to the media, the public or to others that may be considered derogatory or detrimental to the good name or business reputation of the other.

6. Successors and Assignees

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, assignees, heirs, officers, employees, officials and agents.

7. Amendment; Severability; No Waiver

This Agreement shall not be amended, changed or modified except in a writing signed by all parties. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. If it is determined by a court or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction that a specific clause of this Agreement is illegal or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect unless doing so would destroy the essential nature of this Agreement. Any failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of such provision or of any other provision.

8. No Further Consideration

Roca and the Board each expressly acknowledge and represent that neither party will seek nor be entitled to any further consideration from the other in connection with this Agreement other than the consideration as detailed herein.

9. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matters herein, and supersedes and integrates any and all prior representations, negotiations, discussions, understandings and agreements, whether oral or written. Each party acknowledges that neither the other party, nor any agent or attorney of the other party, has made any promise, representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, not contained in this Agreement to induce it to execute this Agreement.

10. Counterparts

This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and shall be binding as if all Parties executed the original thereof. A facsimile or electronically-transmitted signature shall have the same effect as an original signature.

11. Law Governing

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE, (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement"), is made this 2nd day of February, 2024, by and between the Petitioner Tyneequa Gonzalez (hereinafter, also referred to as "Petitioner"), who currently resides at 50 David Street, Old Bridge, New Jersey 08857-1719 and the Elizabeth Board of Education (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Board"), with its principal offices located at 500 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208.

WHEREAS, Petitioner enrolled her minor child, A.G., as a student in the Elizabeth Public School District for the 2022-2023 school year; and

WHEREAS, the Board determined that the minor child A.G. was ineligible to attend the schools of the Elizabeth Public School District due to domicile outside of Elizabeth; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner commenced an action against the Board appealing its residency determination in a matter entitled, T.G .on behalf of minor child, A.G. v. City of Elizabeth Board of Education, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04438-23, Agency Ref. No.: 245131-5/23, (hereinafter referred to as the "Petition"); and

WHEREAS, the Board filed a Counterclaim to the Petition against Petitioner for tuition reimbursement for A.G.'s ineligible attendance in the Elizabeth School District; and

WHEREAS, the Petitioner and the Board (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Parties") having reached a negotiated agreement to fully, and finally, the issue of residency and tuition reimbursement only, as asserted by the Petition and Counterclaim; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and undertaking said forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

1. Consideration. In settlement of this matter, Petitioner will pay the Board the amount of $3,660.93, which represents the alleged tuition due and owing for her minor child A.G.'s alleged ineligible attendance in the Elizabeth School District for the 2022-2023 school year. Petitioner shall make out a check made payable to the Elizabeth Board of Education. The Petitioner shall pay the above amount in one (1) payment within thirty (30) days of the date of the approval of this agreement by the Commissioner of the Department of Education for the State of New Jersey.

In the event that Petitioner fails to make any of the payments described above, the Petitioner shall be in default of this agreement, and the parties agree that judgment shall be entered and docketed in the Superior Court of New Jersey in favor of the Respondent for the balance of $3,660.93 less any payments made prior to the date of default.

Each party agrees to bear its own attorneys fees and costs regarding this Agreement.

2. Attendance of A.G. at Elizabeth Public School District. Petitioner unenrolled the minor child A.G. from the Respondent school district on September 5, 2023 prior to the 2023-2024 school year. A.G. shall not be permitted to attend school in the Elizabeth Public Schools.

3. Scope of Agreement. The parties hereto agree that this Agreement resolves only the Petitioner's appeal of the Respondent's residency determination that minor child A.G. was not a resident of the Respondent's school district, as well as the Respondent's counterclaim for tuition reimbursement for periods of alleged ineligible attendance by A.G. in Respondent's school district during the 2022-2023 school year; and this agreement does not prohibit the Respondent from pursuing any other causes of action available under any applicable law. Each party waives the right to make a claim for costs and expenses regarding the residency appeal EDU-04438-23.

4. Waiver and Release of Claims. In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the payments set forth in Paragraph 1 above, Petitioner hereby releases and forever discharges the Board, in its official and personal capacities, and its related or affiliated entities, and its past, present and future officers, directors, attorneys, employees, owners, insurers, and their respective successors and assigns (collectively "Releasees"), jointly and severally, from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind (collectively "Claims"), known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, which Petitioner, her heirs, agents, executors, successors or assigns ever had, now have or hereafter may have against Releasees arising out of any matter, occurrence, omission, or event existing or occurring prior to Petitioner's execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation: any and all causes of action suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the payments set forth in Paragraph 1 above, Respondent hereby releases and forever discharges the Petitioner, in her personal capacity, from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, regarding tuition reimbursement for 2022-2023 school year. Respondent explicitly does not waive nor release the Petitioner from any and all other causes of action, suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, employment codes of conduct, disciplinary procedures, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

5. Stipulation. Simultaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Petitioner and counsel for the Board Parties shall execute a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice with regard to the Petition and the Board's Counterclaim in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6. Counterparts; Entire Agreement; No Oral Modification. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall comprise the entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, written or oral, expressed or implied. No other promises, agreements or amendments, or any separate agreement relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be binding or shall modify this Agreement unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties hereto.

7. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

8. No Admission of Liability. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing by either party to this agreement. Rather, this Agreement is being offered for the sole purpose of settling cooperatively and amicably the above residency determination appeal.

9. Severability. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to violate any law or shall be interpreted to violate any law. If any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement or the application thereof is construed to be overbroad and/or unenforceable, then the court making such determination shall have the authority to narrow the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph as necessary to make it enforceable and the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph shall then be enforceable in its/their narrowed form. Moreover, each paragraph or part or subpart of each paragraph in this Agreement is independent of and severable (separate) from each other. In the event that any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement is determined to be legally invalid or unenforceable by a court and is not modified by a court to be enforceable, the affected paragraph or part or subpart of such paragraph shall be stricken from the Agreement, and the remaining paragraphs or parts or subparts of such paragraphs of this Agreement shall remain in full, force and effect.

10. Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not intended, and shall not be construed, to modify, define, limit, or expand the intent of the parties as expressed in this Agreement, and they shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

11. Interpretation. This Agreement shall be construed without aid of any canon or rule of law requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing this Agreement or any provision thereof to be drafted.

12. Contingency. It is agreed and understood by all Parties hereto that this Agreement is contingent upon each of the Parties fulfilling all of their respective duties, obligations, and/or promises as stated herein.

13. Entire Agreement. By executing this Agreement, Petitioner represents and acknowledges, that she does not rely, and has not relied, upon any representation, or statement, not set forth in this Agreement made by Respondent, or their Counsel, with regard to the subject matter, basis, or effect of this Agreement, or otherwise. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes any, and all, prior agreements, or understandings between the parties.

14. Assent to Terms. On October 3, 2023, Petitioner formally discharged Ellen Walsh, Esq. as her attorney and notified the Court that she would be proceeding pro se. Thereafter, the Petitioner and Respondent negotiated the terms of this Agreement. Petitioner's signature below indicates that she was given the opportunity to review this Agreement with an attorney, that Petitioner has read and understood the provisions, and that she has executed it voluntarily with full knowledge of the significance of all provisions. Ms. Tyneequa Gonzalez hereby acknowledges that she enters into this agreement with a full understanding of her rights and that she was fully informed of the implications of this Agreement, and does so without duress, of her own free will and volition.

STATEMENT BY PETITIONER

The Respondent has advised me, in writing through the Agreement, to consult with Counsel prior to executing the Agreement. I have carefully read, and fully understand, the provisions of the Agreement, the acceptance, and sufficiency, of which I acknowledge. I have had sufficient time, and opportunity, to consult with Counsel of choice prior to executing the document, and I intend to be legally bound by its terms. I further so execute the Agreement in a knowing, and voluntary, manner with the full knowledge that I am waiving any and all rights, or claims, I may have to later challenge the sufficiency, scope, or terms of the Agreement and have, again, done so after consultation with my Counsel. I understand that I may revoke my signature within seven (7) days following my signing, I understand that my rights under the Agreement are contingent on my signing the Agreement, and not revoking my signature on said document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures and/or seals of the parties or their duly authorized representatives have been set forth on the dates indicated below:

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner sought reversal of the final decision of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) denying his request for a waiver of the Eight Semester Rule – which limits a student's eligibility for high school athletics to eight consecutive semesters following his entrance into the 9th grade – to allow T.M. to participate in sports during his senior year at Hillsborough High School (Hillsborough). T.M. played on the freshman basketball team at Franklin High School during the 2019-2020 school year as a ninth grader, prior to his family becoming homeless in January 2020. T.M. completed that year remotely from various locations, often with sporadic internet service, because of COVID-19 protocols then in effect. His grades fell during this period, though his lowest grade was an 89 (eighty-nine). During the 2020-2021 school year, T.M.'s family decided to keep him home from school because they were concerned about his family's health if he attended in person and afraid his academics would suffer if he attended school virtually. In June 2021, T.M.'s family found stable housing, and he began attending Hillsborough as a sophomore for the 2021-2022 school year; he played on the varsity basketball team for both his sophomore and junior years, averaging seven points per game. In August 2023, petitioner filed an Eligibility Waiver Request with the NJSIAA requesting a waiver of the strict application of the Eight Semester Rule to enable T.M. to compete in basketball during his senior year. The request was denied, as NJSIAA found that T.M. did not meet the standards for granting a waiver of the Eight Semester Rule. Petitioner then appealed the decision to the NJSIAA's Eligibility Appeals Committee, which also determined not to grant the waiver, concluding, inter alia, that T.M.'s voluntary decision not to attend school for the 2020-2021 school year was "effectively an academic redshirt" and that granting him a waiver would give him an opportunity – a fifth year of eligibility – that other students do not get.

Upon careful review and consideration, the Commissioner upheld the NJSIAA's decision and dismissed the petition. In so doing, the Commissioner – who may not substitute his judgment for that of the NJSIAA on appeal – noted that the NJSIAA's decision to deny the request for waiver was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, and petitioner was afforded the due process to which he is entitled.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association,

Respondent.

For Petitioner, Gracia Montilus, Esq.

For Respondent, Alexis C. Smith, Esq.

This case involves an appeal of a decision of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) denying petitioner T.M.'s request for a waiver of the Eight Semester Rule to allow him to participate in sports during his senior year at Hillsborough High School (Hillsborough).

Athletic competition in New Jersey's public schools is overseen by respondent, NJSIAA, a voluntary, non-profit organization which promulgates the rules and regulations governing high school athletics. See B.C. v. Cumberland Reg. Sch. Dist., 220 N.J. Super. 214, 234 (App. Div. 1987). Article V, Section J of NJSIAA's Bylaws, Rules and Regulations restricts a student's eligibility to play sports to four years. Specifically, the provision known as the Eight Semester Rule provides that, "[n]o student shall be eligible for high school athletics after the expiration of eight consecutive semesters following his or her entrance into the 9th grade. A student becomes ineligible for high school athletics when the class in which he/she was originally enrolled has graduated." The NJSIAA Guidelines set forth the reasons for the Eight Semester Rule in the NJSIAA Handbook:

> This rule is intended to prohibit "red shirting," and is also aimed at preventing athletically gifted pupils who are not meeting academic standards from replacing other students who are maintaining their academic standards but who might not have the same athletic prowess. The rule is also aimed at maintaining a uniform progression among all member schools within a four-year cycle and equalizing competition within these schools.

In appropriate cases, the NJSIAA may grant a waiver of the eligibility rules if the overall objectives of the association and its member schools are not undermined by the proposed waiver. The Eight Semester Rule can be waived when a student proves that he or she cannot comply with the rule due to circumstances beyond his or her control.

The material facts in this case do not appear to be in dispute. T.M. began high school at Franklin High School (Franklin) in Franklin, New Jersey during the 2019-2020 school year; he played on the freshman basketball team. In January 2020, T.M and his family were evicted from their home and stayed with family and friends in various locations. T.M. attended school remotely during the spring of 2020 due to the Covid-19 pandemic. T.M. had inconsistent access to the internet and struggled academically. However, T.M. passed all of his courses and his lowest grade was an 89 (eighty-nine). T.M.'s family decided to keep him home from school during the 2020-2021 school year because they were concerned about his family's health if he attended school in person and his academics if he attended school virtually. In June 2021, T.M.'s family found stable housing, and he began attending Hillsborough as a sophomore for the 2021-2022 school year; he played on the varsity basketball team for his sophomore and junior years.

Because T.M. has already had four years of athletic eligibility, on August 25, 2023, an Eligibility Waiver Request was filed by the petitioner with the NJSIAA, requesting a waiver from the strict application of the Eight Semester Rule so that T.M. can participate in basketball during his senior year. On September 26, 2023, the NJSIAA Eligibility Committee voted 6-0 to deny the waiver request, finding that T.M. did not meet the standards for granting a waiver of the Eight Semester Rule.

Thereafter, the petitioner appealed the decision of the Eligibility Committee to the Eligibility Appeals Committee (EAC). Following a hearing on October 24, 2023, at which sworn testimony was taken from T.M. and his father, the EAC denied the request for a waiver of the Eight Semester Rule. The EAC determined that the family's choice for T.M. not to attend school during the 2020-2021 school year was voluntary and not compelled by circumstances beyond their control. Although T.M. expressed concerns that his grades would drop with remote learning, the EAC found that he passed all his courses with above-average grades during his remote learning period in the spring of 2020. The EAC also noted that remote or hybrid instruction was common in 2020-2021 and does not distinguish T.M. from other students across the State who learned remotely during the pandemic. Furthermore, although T.M. indicated that he had unreliable internet access, his sister was able to take college classes remotely in the fall of 2020, and T.M. did not re-enroll in school in January 2021 when the family regained reliable internet access. The EAC concluded that T.M.'s voluntary decision not to attend school for the 2020-2021 school year was "effectively an academic redshirt" and granting him a waiver would give him an opportunity – a fifth year of eligibility – that other students do not get. The EAC found that T.M's participation as a fifth-year senior would provide Hillsborough an athletic advantage because he would be a starter for a competitive team who averaged seven points per game last season. Finally, the EAC concluded that allowing T.M. a fifth year of eligibility would be unfair to other students because there are a limited number of positions available on the varsity basketball team and if T.M. made the team, he would displace another student who only had four years of eligibility.

On December 21, 2023, the petitioner filed an appeal with the Commissioner of Education challenging the decision of the NJSIAA. On December 28, 2023, the NJSIAA filed its answer to the petition. On January 24, 2024, the petitioner filed his brief in support of the requested relief and on February 5, 2024, the NJSIAA filed its reply brief.

In his brief, the petitioner argues that the Eight Semester Rule was created to ensure that a student with poor grades who was ineligible to play because of poor academic standing would not be granted another year to play high school sports; however, T.M. has a 3.4 GPA. Additionally, T.M. argues that the circumstances of his family becoming homeless, together with the Covid-19 pandemic, were beyond his control.

In reply, the NJSIAA asserts that it provided the petitioner with due process, noting that this case was heard by two NJSIAA committees, both of which unanimously denied the request for a waiver of the Eight Semester Rule. The NJSIAA stresses that the Eight Semester Rule is designed to ensure that all students have an equal opportunity to play high school sports and limits that opportunity to four consecutive years starting when a student first enters high school. The NJSIAA argues that the family's decision for T.M. not to attend school during the 2020-2021 school year was entirely voluntary, noting that both T.M. and his father indicated in their testimony that the reason they did not want T.M. to attend school remotely was because he did not want to risk having bad grades. Accordingly, the NJSIAA maintains that the petitioner's ineligibility is not due to circumstances beyond his control, but instead constitutes "academic red shirting" and that any waiver would contradict the intent of the Eight Semester Rule. Additionally, the NJSIAA argues that Hillsborough would receive an advantage if T.M. were granted a waiver. The NJSIAA notes that T.M. is six feet, five inches tall (6'5"), would be a starter on a competitive team, and averaged seven points per game last season. According to the NJSIAA, T.M.'s participation would displace another student who only had four years of eligibility for high school sports.

Upon careful review and consideration, the Commissioner determines to uphold the decision of the NJSIAA and dismiss the petitioner's appeal. As explained above, the NJSIAA is a voluntary association of public and nonpublic schools, organized – pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:11-3 – to oversee athletics for its member schools in accordance with a constitution, bylaws, rules, and regulations approved by the Commissioner of Education and adopted annually by member schools, for which they become school policy enforceable by the NJSIAA. Hillsborough is a member of the NJSIAA.

It is well-established that the Commissioner's scope of review in matters involving NJSIAA decisions, including determinations made by the EAC, is appellate in nature. N.J.S.A. 18A:11-3; Board of Education of the City of Camden v. NJSIAA, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 182, 188. That is, the Commissioner may not overturn an action by the NJSIAA in applying its rules, absent a demonstration by the petitioner that it applied such rules in a patently arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-7.5(a)(2); B.C. v. Cumberland Regional School District, 220 N.J. Super. 214, 231-232 (App. Div. 1987); Kopera v. West Orange Board of Education, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 297 (App. Div. 1960). Nor may the Commissioner substitute his own judgment for that of the NJSIAA, where due process has been provided and where there is sufficient credible evidence in the record as a whole to serve as a basis for the decision reached by the NJSIAA. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-7.5(a)(1); Dam Jin Koh and Hong Jun Kim v. NJSIAA, 1987 S.L.D. 259.

Additionally, the New Jersey courts have spoken as to the narrow scope of "arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable" in the context of challenges such as petitioners:

> In the law, "arbitrary" and "capricious" means having no rational basis.  Arbitrary and capricious action of administrative bodies means willful and unreasoning action, without consideration and in disregard of circumstances. Where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached. (citations omitted) Bayshore Sew. Co. v. Dep't of Envt. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

Petitioners seeking to overturn decisions of the NJSIAA therefore bear a heavy burden, and – considering the record of this matter in light of the prescribed standard of review – the Commissioner cannot find that petitioner herein has met his burden so as to entitle him to prevail on appeal.

More specifically, considering its duty to ensure fairness and integrity in athletic competition statewide, the Commissioner cannot find that the NJSIAA applied its rules in a patently arbitrary or unreasonable manner. T.M. has already had the opportunity to participate in four years of high school athletics – including the year when his family chose not to have him attend school – as envisioned by the eligibility rules. Moreover, the Commissioner is in accord with the NJSIAA's finding that the family's decision to have T.M. not attend school during the 2020-2021 school year was voluntary and does not amount to circumstances beyond their control. The record demonstrates that, despite the Covid-19 pandemic, T.M. earned good grades during the period of remote instruction in the spring of 2020, but his family chose to have him skip school during the following year for their own reasons. The Commissioner finds that the record supports the NJSIAA's conclusions that T.M.'s participation would affect the ability of another student to play basketball and would give Hillsborough an athletic advantage. Finally, the NJSIAA's conclusion that the circumstances in this case are effectively "red shirting" is not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the Commissioner – having found that the petitioner was afforded the due process to which he was entitled and that the NJSIAA's decision denying the request for waiver was neither arbitrary nor unreasonable – upholds the NJSIAA's decision and dismisses the petition of appeal.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of S.J., Englewood Cliffs Board of Education,
Bergen County

This matter involves an appeal of the School Ethics Commission's (SEC) August 22, 2023, determination that appellant – a member of the Englewood Cliffs Board of Education (Board) – violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the School Ethics Act (Act) by attending multiple executive sessions at which the Board discussed a matter involving a member of appellant's immediate family (Matter).[1] The SEC recommended that appellant be censured for the violation. Having carefully reviewed the SEC's decision and the record in its entirety, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's decision that appellant violated the Act is supported by sufficient, credible evidence, and that appellant failed to establish that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). However, the Commissioner concludes that the appropriate penalty is a reprimand.

Appellant attended four executive session meetings where the Matter was discussed. According to appellant's certification, she was informed prior to the first meeting that the Matter would be discussed in executive session. Upon learning this information, she consulted with the Superintendent, Dr. Jennifer Brower, as to whether or not she should attend. The Superintendent indicated that she had consulted with Board counsel, who had advised that appellant was not required to leave the room because the discussion would not include the names of the individuals at issue. Appellant attended every executive session where the Matter was discussed, with the exception of the last meeting. At that meeting, Board counsel asked appellant to recuse herself from executive session, which she did. The Board voted to dismiss the Matter in its public session later in the meeting. However, prior to a written determination being issued to the parties involved in the Matter, appellant's husband sent an email to the Board enclosing additional information, causing the Matter to be reopened. Despite this new information, the Matter was later dismissed for a second time.

[1] During the proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law, the parties entered into a Consent Order sealing the record. While the Commissioner's decisions are public and therefore this decision cannot be under seal, the Commissioner finds that it is appropriate to protect the subject matter that the parties agreed was confidential. Accordingly, the details of the underlying matter discussed by the Board during the executive sessions will not be discussed herein.

In her appeal to the Commissioner, appellant argues that the Matter was dismissed by the Board, such that she received no advantage from her presence in the executive sessions, nor did she influence Board members or district personnel in her favor. According to appellant, her husband, of his own accord, sent correspondence to the Board presenting additional information resulting from the Board's public vote dismissing the Matter. Appellant contends that the appearance of impropriety alone is not sufficient to justify the finding that she violated the Act. Finally, appellant argues that if she is found to have violated the Act, her actions were de minimus and no penalty is warranted, particularly given her defense that she relied on the advice of Board counsel that she could remain in the executive session as long as she did not vote or participate in any discussions. In the alternative, appellant urges the Commissioner to issue the lower penalty of a reprimand.

In opposition, the SEC argues that the Act does not require that a board member succeed in securing unwarranted benefits, but only that she attempt to do so, and the fact that the Board dismissed the Matter is inconsequential; an attempt to secure an advantage can reasonably be inferred from her presence alone. According to the SEC, appellant's spouse's correspondence specifically responded to the reasoning behind the Board's dismissal of the matter, which was only presented in executive session. The SEC contends that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a) explicitly requires Board members to avoid conduct "which creates a justifiable impression among the public that [its] trust is being violated." Finally, the SEC argues that appellant's defense regarding the advice of counsel is unsubstantiated, and a penalty of censure is appropriate.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's determination that appellant is in violation of the Act is supported by sufficient credible evidence, and appellant has not established that the SEC's decision is arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) prohibits a board member from using or attempting to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others. "The determination of whether a particular interest is sufficient to disqualify a board member is necessarily factual in nature and depends upon the circumstances in each case... Absent controlling authority, the decision in issue is dictated by a practical feel for the situation.... An actual conflict of interest is not the decisive factor, nor is 'whether the public servant succumbs to the temptation,' but rather whether there is a potential for conflict." Friends Retirement Concepts v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Somerville, 356 N.J. Super. 203, 214 (internal citations omitted).

N.J.S.A 18A:12-24.1 (e) states that the Board member "will recognize that authority rests with the boards of education and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that will compromise the board." See also Messner v. Gray, 2016 N.J. Super. Unpub. Lexis 703 (App. Div. Mar. 31, 2016). In Messner, a board member taped part of an executive session and shared it with her attorney. The SEC found this action violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1 (e) because Gray "took private action, or action that was outside the scope of her duties as a Board member when she intended to and did disclose the deliberations to two other third parties who would not otherwise have been privy to the Board's deliberations." Id. at *7. The SEC further concluded that Gray's action was of "such a nature that it had the potential to compromise the Board." Id. at *5. The Appellate Division agreed that Gray had violated the Act, concluding that "Gray's decision to further her own, purely private purposes had the potential to, and did, compromise the Board's ability to conduct its business in a lawfully convened executive session." Id. at *11.

During executive session on September 4, 2019, the Board discussed the merits of the Matter, and the Board attorney stated that there was insufficient evidence to support the claim made by appellant's family member. Later that evening, appellant's spouse sent an email to the Superintendent disagreeing with the Board's findings. The next day, prior to receiving the Board's written determination, appellant's spouse presented "new information" that resulted in the Matter being reopened at the next Board meeting. Appellant argues that the Matter was dismissed in public session at the September 4, 2019 board meeting, which alone triggered the email from her husband indicating his opposition to the determination, and that he volunteered information of his own accord. Appellant states in her certification that she never requested that the Matter be reopened or that her husband send an email in an effort to have the case reopened or secure a favorable outcome. However, appellant's certification does not specifically assert that she kept details of the executive session confidential, and the new information that her husband provided to the Superintendent responded to the findings that were discussed in executive session, which were not available to the other individuals involved in the Matter. Such conduct indicates that appellant's presence in executive session compromised the Board's confidentiality and secured an unwarranted advantage for appellant's family, regardless of the ultimate outcome of the Matter. The Commissioner therefore affirms the SEC's conclusion that appellant violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1 (e).

Considering the evidence before it, the SEC imposed a penalty of censure. However, the Commissioner concludes that due to appellant's reliance on the advice of counsel, the penalty of reprimand is more appropriate. The Appellate Division has previously addressed charges of ethical violations by public officials acting on advice of counsel. In re Zisa, 385 N.J. Super. 188 (App. Div. 2006). The mayor in question in Zisa relied on the advice of counsel regarding his personal involvement in a real estate deal involving the municipality he represented. In examining the facts, the Appellate Division considered four prerequisites for an advice of counsel defense:

> 1. That the approval or advice was received prior to the action being taken.
> 2. That the individual who offered the advice or approval relied upon possessed authority or responsibility with regard to ethical issues.
> 3. That the individual seeking advice or approval made a full disclosure of all pertinent facts and circumstances.
> 4. That the individual complies with the advice received, including any restrictions it might contain.

Id. at 198-199 (internal citations omitted). See also In the Matter of Marilyn Roman and Sudhan Thomas, and Jersey City Bd. of Educ., Hudson Co., slip op. at 12 (App. Div. Dec. 21, 2023).

Here, appellant has met all four prerequisites: appellant sought approval from the Superintendent prior to attending the meeting; the Superintendent advised that she had spoken to counsel and that appellant could attend but not vote; the Superintendent and the Board attorney were aware that appellant's family member was involved in the Matter; and appellant complied with the request to leave the fourth meeting when asked. Therefore, the Commissioner concludes that appellant's reliance on the advice of Board counsel is a valid defense in this matter. The Commissioner concludes that a penalty is nonetheless warranted, given that petitioner's actions resulted in an informational advantage concerning the details of the Matter, including the rationale behind the Board's decision, which was not afforded to the other participants in the Matter. Therefore, in light of the seriousness of appellant's actions, as mitigated by the advice of defense counsel, the Commissioner finds that in this instance, the penalty of reprimand is appropriate.

Accordingly, appellant is hereby reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

Respondent

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed with the School Ethics Commission (Commission) on February 18, 2020,[1] by Edmond Duda (Complainant), a member of the Englewood Cliffs Board of Education (Board), alleging that S.J. (Respondent), also a member and President of the Board, violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., when she attended multiple executive sessions while the Board discussed a matter involving a member of her immediate family. More specifically, the Complaint alleges that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a) in Counts 1-4, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) in Counts 1-4, as well as N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code) in Counts 3-4.

On March 11, 2020, Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer (Motion to Dismiss), and also alleged that the Complaint is frivolous. On June 22, 2020, Complainant filed a response to the Motion to Dismiss and allegation of frivolous filing. As part of his response to the Motion to Dismiss and allegation of frivolous filing, Complainant voluntarily withdrew the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a) in Counts 1-4.

At its meeting on August 25, 2020, the Commission voted to adopt a decision accepting the voluntary withdrawal of the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a) in Counts 1-4; finding that the remaining allegations in the Complaint were timely filed; denying the Motion to Dismiss as to all other allegations; finding the Complaint not frivolous; denying Respondent's request for sanctions; and directing Respondent to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer).

Following the adoption of the Decision on the Motion to Dismiss, Respondent submitted a request for the Commission to reconsider its decision. After review of the submissions filed by both Respondent and Complainant, the Commission denied Respondent's request at its meeting on September 29, 2020. Respondent then filed an Answer on October 13, 2020, as directed.

Thereafter, at its meeting on November 24, 2020, the Commission voted to find probable cause for all of the remaining allegations in this Complaint. Based on its finding of probable cause, the Commission voted to transmit the within matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing and, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(b),[2] the attorney for the Commission (Petitioner) was charged with prosecuting the remaining allegations in the Complaint.

At the OAL, the parties entered into a Consent Order to Seal the matter on November 10, 2021. Following Petitioner's motion for summary decision, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Initial Decision on April 19, 2023. Both Petitioner and Respondent filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

At its meeting on July 25, 2023, the Commission considered the full record in this matter. Thereafter, at its meeting on August 22, 2023, the Commission voted to adopt the Initial Decision's findings of fact, legal conclusions that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) in Counts 1-4 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Counts 3-4, and voted to modify the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure.

II. Consent Order to Seal

On November 10, 2021, the ALJ entered a Consent Order to Seal (Consent Order). In the Consent Order, the parties agreed upon, and the ALJ ordered:

1. The Clerk of the OAL is hereby directed to change the caption in this matter to "In the Matter of S.J."

2. All records produced or utilized in this matter, whether between the parties or to or from the [OAL], shall be done so under seal and marked "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

3. Any requests to non-parties or communications with non-parties, must not disclose the existence of the confidential underlying matter/issues unless there is an independent basis to know that those non-parties are already aware of the confidential underlying matters and Respondent's connection to same, and also provided that any such parties agree, in writing, that they understand and agree to be bound by the confidentiality provisions in this Order.

4. This matter shall be sealed until such a time that the parties mutually agree in writing that it may be unsealed, and the Office of Administrative Law enters an order unsealing the matter.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.1(c), when sealing a record, the ALJ "must specify the consequences of such an order to all material in the case file including any evidence, the stenographic notes or audiotapes and the initial decision. The treatment of testimony or exhibits shall be on such terms as are appropriate to balance public and private rights or interests and to preserve the record for purposes of review. The judge shall also indicate what safeguards shall be imposed upon the preparation and disclosure of any transcript of the proceedings." With the entry of the Consent Order, the ALJ did not provide the required specificity as to which aspects of the record would be sealed or the necessary analysis balancing the public and private rights or interests.

However, in reviewing the language of the Consent Order, the Commission finds that the scope of the Consent Order applies to "[a]ll records produced or utilized in this matter," and therefore, does not apply to its decision. Moreover, the recommended penalty in this matter is a censure, which is inherently public, and therefore, the decision cannot be under seal. As such, the within Final Decision of the Commission will be a public decision. The Commission nevertheless aims to protect the subject matter that the parties agreed was confidential. In doing so, the Commission recognizes the public and private interests and rights at stake in this case. Accordingly, even though the Commission's decision is public, the Commission's decision does not discuss the details of the underlying matter before the Board that supported the Complaint.

III. Initial Decision

Prior to executive session at the Board meeting on August 12, 2019, Respondent was informed that a matter involving an immediate family member would be discussed in executive session. Initial Decision at 2. According to Respondent, she discussed the matter with the Superintendent and in turn, Respondent stated the Superintendent had spoken with Board counsel, who also according to Respondent, indicated that Respondent could attend the executive session, but could not vote on the matter. Ibid. The other Board members were not aware that the discussion during executive session involved a member of Respondent's family. Ibid.

Prior to the September 4, 2019, Board meeting, Respondent was notified that the matter involving her family member would again be discussed in executive session. Ibid. During executive session, Board counsel discussed the details of the matter and stated there was insufficient evidence to support the action. Ibid. While Respondent abstained from voting on the matter, the Board voted 8-0-1, to dismiss the matter. Ibid. Later that evening, before receiving a copy of the Board's decision, Respondent's spouse emailed the Superintendent indicating that he disagreed with the findings and sent a follow-up email the next day providing "new information" to the Superintendent. Id. at 2-3.

Prior to the October 7, 2019, Board meeting, Respondent spoke with Englewood Cliffs School District (District) personnel regarding the matter, and at the Board meeting, the personnel indicated that the matter would be reopened due to new information. Id. at 3. Notably, the school officials who were presenting knew the identity of the individual involved and the relationship to Respondent.

The matter was discussed again at the November 4, 2019, Board meeting. During executive session, Board counsel asked Respondent to leave the meeting, and she complied, which first alerted Board members to Respondent's personal connection to the matter being discussed. Ibid. Again, the Board voted to dismiss the matter involving Respondent's family member. Ibid.

The ALJ concluded Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) as there is a "clear appearance of impropriety" in this matter because Respondent was present in multiple executive sessions when a matter involving an immediate family member was discussed and her presence during those meetings creates a "justifiable impression among the public that trust is being violated." Id. at 4-5. The ALJ recommended the penalty of reprimand for the violations, as Respondent indicated she was told by the Superintendent that Board counsel said she could be present in executive session if she did not vote, and then when she was asked to leave the November 4, 2019, meeting, she did. Id. at 6.

IV. Exceptions

Petitioner's Exceptions

In its exceptions, Petitioner agrees with the ALJ's conclusion that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), but takes exception to the recommended penalty of reprimand and asserts that a censure is the more appropriate penalty in this matter.

Petitioner argues, Board members are not "insulated from blame" simply because they relied on advice from counsel, as the Commission has previously refused to accept such a defense in cases without evidence that the board member ever actually requested legal advice. Here, Petitioner contends there is "nothing in the record" to support that Respondent was told by Board counsel that she could be present in the meeting while a matter involving a member of her family was discussed, nor that Board counsel was aware that the subject involved was a member of Respondent's family. Petitioner avers as an "experienced Board member and former practicing attorney," Respondent should have "directly confirm[ed]" the information with Board counsel. As such, Petitioner maintains the Commission should reject the reliance on advice of counsel as a mitigating factor when determining the appropriate penalty for Respondent's violations.

Petitioner further argues that before a copy of the Board's decision on the matter involving Respondent's family member was memorialized, Respondent's spouse contacted the Superintendent indicating he disagreed with the findings, and then sent the Superintendent "new information." Petitioner asserts based on these events, neither Respondent's purported reliance on the advice of counsel or that she recused herself at the last Board meeting after Board counsel asked her to leave, are "sufficient to negate or mitigate the offensiveness of her proven conduct between those meetings, which, standing alone, warrant a penalty of censure." The new information that Respondent's spouse provided to the Superintendent "directly responded to the findings that were discussed in executive session," which were not available to the other individuals who were involved, and which also indicated that Respondent shared confidential information. Additionally, as to the October 7, 2019, meeting, Respondent knew the District personnel, who were presenting the new information, were aware that the matter involved Respondent's relative, and therefore, "it would have been reasonable for [the District personnel] to feel threatened by the silent presence of [Respondent]," because their "continued employment ... depended on the Board's approval."

Petitioner contends "there is overwhelming circumstantial evidence that [Respondent] communicated privileged Board information to a third party for that third party's benefit in a matter before the Board" and Respondent failed to recuse herself from the Board meeting in which District administrators discussed a matter involving her family member, and therefore, the mitigating factors that the ALJ relies on are insufficient to defeat that Respondent should be censured for her conduct.

Respondent's Exceptions

In her Exceptions, Respondent argues the ALJ incorrectly concluded that Respondent "voted" on a matter involving a family member. Respondent maintains she never voted on any matter related to a family member, and the ALJ's decision is "unsound, contrary to the evidence and cannot be taken as true, and this matter should be sent back to the [OAL] for development of the factual record at a hearing."[3]

Respondent contends that the ALJ made numerous contradictory statements in the Initial Decision. Despite the ALJ's finding that "the circumstances could reasonably be interpreted to show that [Respondent] had the likely capacity to tempt the official to depart from his sworn public duty," the ALJ concluded that none of the Board members were aware that Respondent's family member was involved. Respondent deems it noteworthy that the Board did not rule in favor of Respondent's family member, and therefore, there was "no way that [Respondent] could have tempted the Board members into voting in a manner that was favorable to her when none of them" were aware of the relationship.

Respondent further points out that the ALJ made contradictory findings when she concluded that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), but went on to conclude that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) in Counts 1-4 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Counts 3 and 4.[4] Per Respondent, "the fact that the ALJ's initial decision is riddled with inconsistent statements, especially as it relates to the ALJ's decision, is concerning to say the least."

Furthermore, Respondent argues the ALJ "misapplied the law" as she did not engage in any private action beyond the scope of her duties. On the contrary, Respondent reaffirms that as soon as she became aware that the matter involving her relative was going to be discussed she "immediately informed" the Superintendent, who then told Respondent that Board counsel said she could be present but could not vote or participate. Respondent claims she would never have attended the meeting if it were not for the Superintendent's insistence, and therefore, the ALJ erred in finding that Respondent took private action.

[3] The Commission notes, while page 1 of the Initial Decision indicates that Petitioner asserts that Respondent violated the Act by "voting" on a matter involving a family member, the remainder of the decision only references Respondent's presence in executive session. The Commission finds the inclusion of the word "voting" was in error.

[4] The Commission notes the word "not" appears to be a typographical error. When the decision is read as a whole, the ALJ clearly intended to write that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).

Respondent claims the ALJ failed to give the appropriate weight to the "advice of counsel defense" as the Initial Decision lacked analysis or a conclusion as to why the defense was inapplicable." Additionally, Respondent contends that summary decision is inappropriate as discovery is incomplete. According to Respondent, Petitioner "is delinquent in its discovery responses and therefore, is not entitled to summary decision." Finally, Respondent asserts that the Commission must uphold the ALJ's Consent Order sealing the records in this matter in any future proceedings and the matter must remain sealed.

V. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission agrees with the ALJ that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) in Counts 1-4 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Counts 3-4. However, the Commission modifies the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) prohibits a board member from using or attempting to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others. By remaining in executive session while the Board discussed a confidential matter involving an immediate family member, Respondent used her official position as Board President to secure the unwarranted advantage of hearing the Board's private discussion regarding her family member during executive session. Respondent learned information about the matter to which members of the public and other individuals involved in the matter were not privy. The second Board meeting (September 4, 2019) exemplifies this advantage. At that meeting, in executive session, the Board discussed the merits of the matter involving Respondent's family member and during those discussions the Board attorney stated there was insufficient evidence to support Respondent's family's action. Despite the Board discussing Respondent's family member's matter in executive session, Respondent remained in executive session and heard the Board's confidential discussion. That night in public session, the Board then voted to dismiss the action brought by Respondent's family. However, the Board did not provide its written decision during public session. Later that evening, Respondent's spouse, who was not in the executive session and who had not yet received the Board's written decision, sent an email to the Superintendent disagreeing with the Board's findings – findings which were not yet disclosed to him. The following day, Respondent's spouse presented "new information" that then resulted in the matter being reopened at the next Board meeting. Respondent's presence in executive session, while the Board discussed her family's action and her spouse's subsequent communication to the Superintendent, prior to the Superintendent revealing the reasons for the Board's action, demonstrates that Respondent's presence in the executive session secured an unwarranted advantage for her family. Moreover, as noted above, the Board attorney stated in executive session that there was insufficient evidence to pursue Respondent's family's action and the next day, Respondent's spouse provided "new information" to support the matter. Based on the above, the Commission concludes that Respondent's failure to leave the executive session while the Board discussed her family's matter presented her with an advantage not otherwise available to the public or other individuals who were involved in the action.

Additionally, District personnel presented information regarding the confidential matter involving Respondent's immediate family member during the executive session of the Board's October 7, 2019, meeting. Again, Respondent was the Board President at the time, and Respondent's presence within the executive session had the potential to influence the District personnel's presentation regarding Respondent's family's action, which provided Respondent with an unwarranted privilege not available to members of the public or the other individuals who were involved in the action. As such, the Commission finds Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) in Counts 1-4 when she remained in executive session on three occasions and on a fourth occasion, until she was asked to leave, while the Board discussed a personal matter involving her family.

Furthermore, under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), a board member must recognize that authority rests with the board and a board member shall not make any personal promises or take any action that may compromise the board. As a Board member and President, Respondent was required to remove herself from confidential discussions involving her family member. Her failure to do so constitutes action beyond the scope of her duty as a Board member. Respondent attended the executive session at the October 7, 2019, Board meeting while District personnel reopened a matter involving her family member based on new information that her spouse provided. At the time, District personnel were aware of the relationship between Respondent and the subject matter of their presentation, so Respondent's presence at that meeting had the potential to intimidate or sway the presenters. As such, Respondent's presence at executive session during discussions involving a matter in which she had a conflict, by its nature, had the potential to compromise the Board and the integrity of the matter. Similarly, when Respondent attended the executive session at the November 4, 2019, Board meeting (until she was asked to leave), this again had the potential to compromise the Board given her direct personal conflict. As such, the Commission finds Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Counts 3-4.

The Commission disagrees with Respondent's argument that she did not violate the Act because she relied upon the advice of the Board attorney. Board members are not "insulated from blame" when they rely on the advice of counsel, and instead are "responsible for their own actions," with a duty to act "prudently and cautiously." Cheng v. Rodas, West New York Board of Education, Commissioner's Decision No. 22-17ASEC (January 20, 2017), at 6. At the outset, it is relevant to note that Respondent did not ask for the advice of counsel; instead, Respondent relied upon the advice of the Superintendent, who said that she had spoken to the Board attorney. Moreover, the record demonstrates that Respondent formerly practiced as an attorney. Also, Respondent was Board President and has undergone Board member ethics training. Thus, Respondent should have known that it was a conflict to remain in executive session while a matter in which she had a personal interest was discussed. However, at the very least, she should have taken efforts to confirm the advice with Board counsel. Respondent is responsible for her own actions and there is no question that she should have acted cautiously and removed herself from executive session when she learned that a matter in which she had a personal interest would be discussed.

Moreover, Respondent's argument that the ALJ's grant of summary decision should be rejected because of outstanding discovery is not persuasive. First, Respondent fails to articulate what discovery is outstanding and necessary in this case. Likewise, Respondent fails to explain how that discovery would present issues of fact requiring a hearing in this matter. Lastly, a claim of incomplete discovery will not defeat a motion for summary decision if the additional discovery will not patently alter the outcome of the case. Cf. Wellington v. Est. of Wellington, 359 N.J. Super. 484, 496 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 177 N.J. 493 (2003) (in discussing a motion for summary judgment, the court found discovery was not needed as it would not affect the outcome). Here, the Commission is satisfied the undisputed facts support violations of the Act and the Code and, as a result, additional discovery would not affect the outcome of this case.

While the ALJ recommended a penalty of reprimand for Respondent's violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), the Commission modifies the recommended penalty of reprimand to censure. Respondent should have known that she was not permitted to listen to confidential discussions about a matter in which she had a direct conflict. It should be obvious to any Board member who has ever undergone ethics training that a matter involving an immediate family member is a conflict and Board members cannot be present for confidential discussions in those matters for which they have a conflict. Respondent remained in executive session discussions not once, but on three occasions and on a fourth occasion until she was directly asked to leave. Additionally, given that the same night that Respondent witnessed executive session discussions, her spouse contacted the Superintendent regarding findings that had not been made public and then sought to provide new information, the evidence of impropriety is glaring. As such, the Commission finds that a penalty of censure is warranted in this matter.

The Commission disagrees with the ALJ that Respondent's purported reliance on counsel is a mitigating circumstance to justify the decreased penalty of reprimand. As explained, Respondent did not request legal guidance from the attorney. As a former attorney herself, there is no excuse for not confirming with counsel. Additionally, the fact that the other Board members were not aware that the matter involved Respondent's family member does not excuse Respondent's behavior, nor is it a mitigating circumstance. Regardless of what other Board members knew, Respondent heard the Board discuss confidential information regarding her family member that she was not entitled to hear. Moreover, the District personnel who presented information on the matter were aware of Respondent's connection to the matter, especially since Respondent spoke to them prior to the meeting, and as such there is no question that Respondent's presence was improper.

The Commission has previously issued a penalty of censure for a violation of both N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). In IMO Sanford Student, Evesham Township Board of Education, Burlington County, OAL Dkt. No. EEC 2590-10, Agency Dkt. No. C40-09, Initial Decision (January 12, 2012), adopted School Ethics Commission (February 28, 2012), prior to the board formally voting to approve Beneficial Bank to provide banking services, the respondent contacted TD Bank and invited it to submit additional information that was outside the scope of the original request for proposal. The Commission found that the respondent's actions violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and warranted a penalty of censure, which was adopted by the Commissioner of Education. Sanford Student, Commissioner's Decision No. 138-12SEC (April 16, 2012). Similar to how the respondent in Sanford Student sought to secure an advantage for TD Bank, which then presented additional information in the hope of changing the board's decision, here, following Respondent's presence during private executive session discussions, Respondent's spouse contacted the Superintendent with new information, which resulted in reopening a matter which had already been decided by the Board. As the respondent in Sanford Student was censured for his violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), a penalty of censure is also justified in this matter.

VI. Decision

For all of the aforementioned reasons, the Commission adopts the Initial Decision's findings of fact and legal conclusions that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) in Counts 1-4 and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Counts 3-4. However, the Commission modifies the recommended penalty of reprimand in favor of censure for the violations.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Tyrone Jon Tarver,

Complainant,

v.

Jeffrey Wingfield, Orange Board of Education, Essex County,

Respondent.

This matter involves an appeal of a School Ethics Commission (Commission) decision issued October 17, 2023, determining that respondent/appellant Jeffrey Wingfield, a member of the City of Orange Board of Education, violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and (g) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code) by disseminating allegedly confidential email content regarding a Board matter to three non-Board members—the City Mayor, a City Attorney, and a City Councilwoman. Having carefully reviewed the Commission's decision and the record in its entirety, the Commissioner finds that the Commission's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence, and that respondent failed to establish that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). The Commissioner further finds that the penalty of a reprimand was appropriate.

The emails at issue pertained to a time-sensitive facilities request by NFL Films to produce a television show at Bell Stadium, the Orange High School football facility, featuring two well-known former NFL players. NFL Films submitted the facilities request form to the district on September 30, 2020, and wanted to tape the show on October 5, 2020; however, the next regularly scheduled Board meeting was not until October 13, 2020. Therefore, the Board could not formally vote to approve the facilities request until after the filming was tentatively scheduled to take place. Consequently, the Board Superintendent emailed complainant, the Board President, on October 1, 2020, regarding the facilities request and asked him to advise whether the Board would "allow retroactive approval."

That same day, October 1, 2020, complainant forwarded the Board Superintendent's email to the Board members. This email explained to the Board members, among other things, that: (1) the facilities request form was submitted the day before, "well after our deadline to consider" a facilities request; (2) the Board attorney had already reviewed and approved related paperwork "for our consideration," including a Hold Harmless Agreement; and (3) NFL Films had agreed to make a $5,000 donation to the district, but needed to know by the next morning whether the Board anticipated approving the request. Complainant asked Board members to reply before the end of the evening only if they anticipated voting against the facilities request at their upcoming October 13, 2020, meeting. Later that evening, respondent copied and pasted complainant's email to the Board, sent it to the City Mayor, a City Attorney, and a City Councilwoman, and wrote: "I HAVE COPIED AND PASTED FROM MY BOARD EMAIL TO YOU . . . You should know the following."

The next day, October 2, 2020, the Board Superintendent forwarded an email to the Board Members from the district's athletics director. The email contained a message that the athletics director received from an NFL Films location scout sometime on October 1, 2020, confirming that the district would receive the $5,000 donation and thanking him for making the event possible. When forwarding this email to the Board Members, the Board Superintendent added his thanks to the Board members for their efforts. Respondent copied and pasted the contents of that email and sent it to the City Attorney later that evening.

In the end, none of the Board members objected to the facilities request on the evening of October 1, 2020, in response to complainant's email. The filming took place as planned on October 5, 2020, without incident, and the Board retroactively approved the facilities request at its meeting on October 13, 2020.

Subsequently, complainant filed a complaint with the Commission alleging, among other things, that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), (e) and (g) of the Code by copying and pasting the emails at issue and sending the content to the three non-Board members.[1] The Commission found probable cause to credit the allegations and transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a contested hearing. After complainant presented his case-in-chief, counsel for respondent requested leave to file a motion for a directed verdict, which the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) permitted but treated as a motion for summary decision.

[1] Because they are not challenged on appeal, the other allegations in the complaint that were dismissed by the Commission on June 28, 2022, are not discussed herein.

Upon review of the motion papers and complainant's opposition thereto, the ALJ concluded that summary decision was appropriate because none of the material facts were in dispute. Critically, the ALJ found as fact that respondent did indeed copy and paste the content of the two Board emails at issue and shared the content with the City Mayor, a City Attorney, and a City Councilwoman. The ALJ reasoned, however, that the email content was not confidential. Ultimately, the ALJ concluded that complainant had not demonstrated by a preponderance of evidence that respondent's actions violated the Code; accordingly, the ALJ granted respondent's motion for summary decision, and dismissed the complaint. The parties did not file exceptions.

Thereafter, the Commission adopted the ALJ's conclusion that respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c). However, the Commission rejected the ALJ's conclusion that respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and (g) and instead found that respondent did violate subsections (e) and (g). The Commission recommended the sanction of a reprimand for those violations.

Regarding the violation of subsection (e), which states that a Board member "will recognize that authority rests with the board of education and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that may compromise the board," the Commission found that respondent acted beyond the scope of his duties as a Board member by sending the content of the Board emails to non-Board members, and that said action had the potential to compromise the Board. Specifically, the Commission determined that respondent disseminated information he learned about solely through his position on the Board that had not yet been voted upon and revealed inner communications of the Board. Regarding the violation of subsection (g), which states in relevant part that a Board member "will hold confidential all matters pertaining to the schools which, if disclosed, would needlessly injure individuals or the schools," the Commission found that by sending the content of the Board emails to non-Board members, respondent took action to disclose information regarding the facilities request that was not public as the Board had not yet voted on the request.

On appeal, respondent does not deny that he shared the content of the two Board emails pertaining to the facilities request with the non-Board members. However, he maintains that he neither violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) nor (g). Initially, he argues that the Commission's finding that his actions had the potential to compromise the Board is unsupported by the record. He maintains that the content of the Board emails was not confidential. Furthermore, he asserts that the terms of the deal with NFL Films were settled before he forwarded the information to the non-Board members—that is, the information he disclosed was not deliberative. He also claims that the Commission's finding that the event had not been publicized is an assumption that is unsupported by the record.

In adjudicating appeals from decisions of the Commission, the Commissioner must "ascertain whether the decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and shall not disturb the decision unless the appellant has demonstrated that [the Commission] acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law." N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). The Commissioner finds that the Commission's determination that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record, and that respondent has not demonstrated that it was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law.

Beginning with subsection (e), "[f]actual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) shall include evidence that the respondent . . . took action beyond the scope of [his] duties such that, by its nature, had the potential to compromise the district board of education . . . ." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)(5). Sufficient, credible evidence in the record establishes that respondent unilaterally and independently took private action beyond the scope of his duties as a Board member when he disseminated the email content about the facilities request to the non-Board members. See Persi v. Woksa, 2017 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 625, *7 (App. Div. Mar. 10, 2017) (finding that action taken by a board member that is beyond the scope of his authority and duties as a board member meets the definition of "private action" and is sufficient to demonstrate a violation of the Code). Respondent's actions had the potential to compromise the Board in numerous ways. For instance, the City officials could have attempted to prevent the event from taking place, thereby jeopardizing the donation promised to the district. Alternatively, the City officials could have shared information about the event with other members of the public, which could have attracted a large crowd at Bell Stadium during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic and/or caused NFL Films to reconsider its location for the show.

As for subsection (g), "[f]actual evidence of a violation of the confidentiality provision of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) shall include evidence that the respondent[] took action to make public, reveal, or disclose information . . . that was otherwise confidential in accordance with policies, procedures, or practices." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)(7). Again, it is undisputed that respondent disclosed the email content to three non-Board members. Furthermore, the Commissioner has previously held that pre-decisional, deliberative material in Board emails is confidential. Lynch v. Skowronski, East Greenwich Township Board of Education, Gloucester County, Commissioner Decision No. 284-20SEC (December 15, 2020), at 3-4; see Skowronski v. Board of Education of the Township of East Greenwich, 2024 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 69, *18-19 (App. Div. January 16, 2024) (citing with approval, in a related indemnification matter, the Commissioner's decision in Lynch regarding the confidentiality of pre-decisional, deliberative material in Board emails that contain "tentative thoughts, suggestions and questions [that] are part and parcel of the Board's overall deliberative process").

The October 1, 2020, email from complainant to the Board members regarding the facilities request is pre-decisional, deliberative, and therefore confidential under Lynch. It is pre-decisional in that, as of the writing of the email, it was not yet settled whether the Board would retroactively approve the facilities request. Indeed, complainant asked Board members to reply if they anticipated voting against the facilities request because NFL Films needed confirmation of their anticipated approval by the following morning. Additionally, complainant informed the Board members that the Board attorney had reviewed and approved related paperwork "for our consideration."

The clear intent of the October 1, 2020, email was to invite the Board members to deliberate, i.e., to consider their position regarding the facilities request. Had any of the Board members expressed an objection to the request that evening, the event might not have gone forward. Moreover, the fact that non-Board members, including the district athletics director and the NFL Films location scout, participated in negotiations regarding the event does not alter the Commissioner's conclusion that, under Lynch, the October 1, 2020, email that respondent shared was confidential. The email contained "tentative thoughts, suggestions and questions [that] are part and parcel of the Board's overall deliberative process." Skowronski, at *18-19 (quoting Lynch, at 4).

Additionally, respondent's disclosure of the October 1, 2020, email to the Board members needlessly injured the schools. Exposing the Board's internal decision-making practices to the public negatively impacts the Board's ability to deliberate about the important issues before it with candor and honesty. Lynch, at 4. The Commissioner has previously held that "[t]his factor alone is sufficient to demonstrate the requisite injury" under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g). Ibid. Thus, by sharing the content of the October 1, 2020, email with the non-Board members, respondent exposed the Board's pre-decisional, deliberative process regarding the facilities request and caused needless injury to the schools in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g).

Respondent further contends that if the Commissioner does not rule in his favor and instead agrees with the Commission that he violated the Code, then the matter should be remanded to the OAL to continue the contested hearing because respondent has not yet presented his case. The Commissioner disagrees. With the ALJ's permission, respondent opted to forgo the opportunity to finish the contested hearing and instead proceeded via motion for summary decision after complainant presented his case. Respondent argued to the ALJ that no genuine issues of material fact existed. If no genuine issues of material fact exist, then a hearing is unnecessary. See Frank v. Ivy Club, 120 N.J. 73, 98 (1990) ("[W]here no disputed issues of material fact exist, an administrative agency need not hold an evidential hearing in a contested case."). Whether respondent took private action that compromised the Board, and whether the email content he shared with non-Board members is confidential, are not factual questions. They are legal questions.

Finally, the Commissioner concurs with the Commission regarding the sanction imposed. In Lynch, at 4-5, the Commission issued a reprimand for a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) when a board member inadvertently disclosed a Board email to a member of the public. Here, the disclosure was intentional. Furthermore, respondent violated both N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g). On balance, as noted by the Commission, the two emails disclosed pertained to a one-time event which fortunately took place without incident or disruption. For these reasons, a reprimand—the least severe penalty—is appropriate and reasonable under the circumstances.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby reprimanded as a school board member found to have violated the Code.

SEC Docket No.: C98-21
Final Decision

Tyrone Jon Tarver,
Complainant

v.

Jeffrey Wingfield,
Orange Board of Education, Essex County,
Respondent

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed on December 24, 2021, by Tyrone Jon Tarver (Complainant), alleging that Jeffrey Wingfield (Respondent), a member of the Orange Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. More specifically, the Complaint avers that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code) in Counts 1-51.

At its meeting on June 28, 2022, and after reviewing Respondent's Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer (Motion to Dismiss) and allegation of frivolous filing, and Complainant's response thereto, the Commission adopted a decision at its meeting on June 28, 2022, finding that the Complaint was timely filed, granting the Motion to Dismiss as to the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) in Counts 1-45 (including those already voluntarily withdrawn by Complainant), and denying the Motion to Dismiss as to the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) in Counts 46-51. The Commission also adopted a decision finding the Complaint not frivolous and denying Respondent's request for sanctions. Based on its decision, the Commission also directed Respondent to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer) as to the remaining allegations in the Complaint (Counts 46-51), and to transmit the above-captioned matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) following receipt of the Answer, which he filed on July 18, 2022.

At the OAL, a hearing was held on January 30, 2023. Following the conclusion of Complainant's case-in-chief, Respondent requested leave to file a motion for Summary Decision, which the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted. Thereafter, Respondent filed a motion for Summary Decision and the ALJ issued an Initial Decision on August 1, 2023. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

At its meeting on September 26, 2023, the Commission considered the full record in this matter. Thereafter, at its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission voted to modify the Initial Decision by adopting the Initial Decision's conclusion that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) but modifying the Initial Decision to find Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g). The Commission also voted to recommend a penalty of reprimand.

II. Initial Decision

This matter stems from a National Football League (NFL) initiative to film a show at Bell Stadium. On October 1, 2020, the Superintendent sent Complainant (Board President) an email regarding a "facilities request form" that NFL Films submitted and inquiring whether the Board will allow for retroactive approval. Initial Decision at 3. On the same date, Complainant forwarded the Superintendent's email to the Board and indicated:

> A facilities request form was submitted, but only yesterday, which is well after our deadline to consider a Facilities Request. In addition, a Hold Harmless Agreement, and other paperwork, were reviewed by Atty. Kleen, and she approved all of the paperwork for our consideration.
>
> A $5,000 donation to the district was also agreed upon by NFL Films.
> . . . NFL needs to know of our anticipated approval no later than tomorrow morning.
>
> Please do not reply to this email with "Yes" or "Absolutely" or any positive comments. I am doing my best to avoid this becoming a meeting via email.
>
> Please only reply if you anticipate voting "NO" for this retroactive Facilities Request Resolution during our October 13 Board Meeting. But I need any "NO" replies before the end of this evening.
> [Id. at 3-4.]

Also on the same date, Respondent copied and pasted Complainant's email and sent it to officials for the Township of Orange (Township), including the Mayor, counsel, and a Councilwoman, and added the text "I HAVE COPIED AND PASTED FROM MY BOARD EMAIL TO YOU . . . You should know the following." Id. at 4. At some point that day, the NFL Films location scout sent an email to the Board's Athletic Director to confirm the donation amount and thank him for the opportunity to use the stadium, which the Superintendent forwarded to the Board the following morning. Id. at 4-5. Respondent copied and pasted the email chain and sent it to the Township attorney. Id at 5. The NFL completed filming on October 5, 2020, and the Board retroactively approved the request on October 13, 2020. Ibid.

Respondent argues the content of the emails shared was not confidential because the information in the email was "public and not deliberated," and the Board had already decided on the date, location, hold harmless agreement and donation amount by October 1, 2020. Id. at 9-10. Complainant counters that the emails were not public, the matter was still under deliberation as of October 1, 2020, and the matter should have remained confidential until the Board voted on October 13, 2020. Id. at 9. Additionally, according to Complainant, Respondent's actions put the "public safety in 'jeopardy,'" as the Board was not publicizing the event due to COVID restrictions, and this could have negatively impacted the Board. Ibid.

As to the allegations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), the ALJ asserts Complainant did not present any evidence other than his own testimony that Respondent's actions jeopardized the safety of the public or may have caused unwanted public reaction. Id. at 13. Therefore, the ALJ concludes violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) have not been established. Ibid.

Regarding a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), the ALJ contends the issue remains whether the information contained in the email that Respondent forwarded was (1) public, and (2) if not, whether the information contained in the email was deliberative. Id. at 14. According to the ALJ, the record reveals that the emails Respondent forwarded disclose that the parties negotiating the "facilities request form" were the NFL and the Athletic Director (not a Board member). Per the ALJ, as the negotiations for the "facilities request form" were not confined to the capacities of the Board, they were not confidential. Id. at 14-15. Moreover, the ALJ contends the information that was in the shared email was not confidential because it was not being deliberated by the time Respondent forwarded it to the Mayor, counsel and the Councilwoman on October 1. Id. at 15. The ALJ asserts the donation price, hold harmless agreement, and location for the request were already agreed upon, and the facts show the only thing needed was the Board's "anticipated approval" by October 2. Id. at 17. Therefore, the ALJ concludes the Board's "negotiative process" concerning the approval for the NFL filming was finalized on October 1, 2020, which was before the time Respondent forwarded the email from the Superintendent, so the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) should be dismissed. Id. at 17-18.

III. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission agrees with the ALJ that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), but finds Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g). As such, the Commission modifies the Initial Decision and recommends a penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), board members must confine board action to "policy making, planning, and appraisal" and "frame policies and plans only after the board has consulted those who will be affected by them." The Commission finds Respondent's actions in copying and pasting from his Board email, while inappropriate, does not constitute Board action to effectuate policies and plans without consulting those affected by such policies and plans. As Complainant did not meet his burden of establishing that Respondent sought to effectuate policy, the Commission finds a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) has not been established.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), a board member must recognize that authority rests with the board and a board member shall not make any personal promises or take any action that may compromise the board. The ALJ found that Respondent did send the emails to the Township officials. Initial Decision at 4, n.3. In copying and pasting from his Board email and sending the information to Township officials, Respondent took action beyond the scope of his duties as a Board member that had the potential to compromise the Board. See Arthur Jacobs v. Raymond Delbury, Sussex Wantage Regional Board of Education, C44-07 (November 25, 2008) (finding a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) when a board member posted an email sent to the board "word for word" on an internet chat room and bulletin board). The scheduled filming had not been publicized, and Respondent took it upon himself to spread information that he learned about solely because of his position as a Board member. Revealing the inner communications of the Board is not only inappropriate but, by its nature, has the potential to compromise the Board. Accordingly, the Commission finds Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).

As set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), Board members must "hold confidential all matters pertaining to the schools which, if disclosed, would needlessly injure individuals or the schools." Establishing a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), "shall include evidence that the respondent(s) took action to make public, reveal, or disclose information that was not public under any laws, regulations, or court orders of this State, or information that was otherwise confidential in accordance with policies, procedures, or practices." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)(7). The Commission finds by copying and pasting from his Board email, Respondent took action to make public, reveal or disclose information that was not public. Contrary to the ALJ's conclusion, the Commission finds the matter was not public when Respondent shared the Board correspondence. The October 1 email makes clear that the Board had not yet voted on the matter as it provides Board members the opportunity to indicate whether they "anticipate" voting against the "retroactive" facilities request. The NFL filming did not occur until October 5, 2020, and the Board did not officially vote on the matter until October 13, 2020. Initial Decision at 5. Moreover, Complainant sent the email at 5:39 p.m. on October 1 and asked the Board members to reply if they intended to vote "no" by the end of the evening. Respondent then forwarded the October 1 email at 9:20 p.m. that same evening to the Township officials, followed by a sending a second email to Township officials on October 2 that had been sent to the Board from the Superintendent. The testimony cited by the ALJ shows that Board members could have weighed in on the proposal until the time the filming occurred on October 5. Initial Decision at 6-7. The fact that no further negotiations occurred does not mean that Respondent did not disclose information that was still being considered by the Board.

Contrary to the ALJ's conclusion, the Commission finds James Lynch v. Michael Skowronski, East Greenwich Township Board of Education, Commissioner's Decision No. 284-20SEC (December 15, 2020) instructive in this matter. There, the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) found a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) when a board member inadvertently shared an email with a parent, which discussed Board business. The Commissioner noted that the email contained deliberative material because it contained "tentative thoughts, suggestions, and questions," which are all part of the deliberative process. Id. at 3-4. The Commissioner also found that the disclosure of such deliberative material needlessly injures the schools. Id. at 4. Here, Respondent intentionally shared Complainant's email proposing how to handle the approval of the NFL filming with Township officials mere hours after receiving it. Certainly, Complainant's email could fall under the realm of deliberative material as Complainant made a suggestion to the Board as to the Board's action, and when Respondent shared the email, it was not clear whether the Board agreed or disagreed with the proposed plan. As such, the Commission finds Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g).

With respect to the violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), the Commission finds a penalty of reprimand is appropriate. Copying and pasting directly from the Board email and sending its non-public contents to public officials is not a de minimis action. See Lynch, supra, (issuing a penalty of reprimand for a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) when a board member inadvertently disclosed a Board email to a member of the public); Jacobs, supra (recommending a penalty of censure for violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) resulting from the posting of a board email on NJ.com, when the respondent had previously been censured for ethics violations). Respondent's actions not only revealed Board communications regarding a suggested Board action, but also made public an event that had not yet been publicized. However, given that the disclosure was limited to two emails about a one-time event, the Commission recommends a penalty of reprimand for the violation.

IV. Decision

For the aforementioned reasons, the Commission modifies the Initial Decision of the OAL. Specifically, the Commission adopts the Initial Decision's conclusion that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c). However, the Commission modifies the Initial Decision to find Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) and recommends a penalty of reprimand for the violation.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.G., on behalf of minor child, D.G.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the West Morris Regional High School District, Morris County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner L.G. sought permission to have her son, D.G., a junior at West Morris Central High School, register for IB-HL Calculus/Analysis 3 for the 2023-2024 school year. "IB" in the course name stands for "International Baccalaureate." Both the respondent Board's Program of Studies and the International Baccalaureate Organization mandate that IB/HL Calculus 3 be offered solely to students in Grade Twelve (12) who have satisfied the necessary prerequisites. Petitioner alleged that the Board's refusal to permit D.G. to register for the class was based on his age and therefore in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2). A hearing in the matter was held on September 28, 2023 and the record closed thereafter on December 22, 2023.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: school board decisions are entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; where board actions are challenged, the petitioner bears the burden of proof to show that the Board's actions were unlawful, arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; in matters involving the exercise of a local board of education's discretion, the Commissioner's role is not to substitute his judgment for that of the board, but to determine whether there was a reasonable basis for the board's conclusions; here, petitioner's reliance on N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2) to support her argument that the Board discriminated against D.G. based on his age when they denied his requested placement in IB-HL Calculus/Analysis 3 as a junior is without merit; the Board provided a rational basis for its policy to limit enrollment in IB/HL Calc 3 to twelfth (12^{th}) grade students only; D.G. was entitled to take the course in the 2023-2024 school year, but D.G. and his family chose to enroll in "senior option" for this year, effectively negating his ability to enroll in the desired math course. The ALJ concluded that the Board's actions were not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the petitioner's appeal was denied.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, for the reasons stated therein. The petition was dismissed.

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the West Morris Regional High School District, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the West Morris Regional High School District Board of Education's decision to deny D.G. the opportunity to enroll in IB-HL Calculus/Analysis 3 – a course limited to twelfth-grade students – as an eleventh-grade student was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable and does not violate N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2).

Accordingly, the OAL decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03332-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 52-3/23

L.G. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, D.G.,
Petitioner,
v
WEST MORRIS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

L.G., petitioner, pro se

Danielle A. Panizzi, Esq., for respondent, (Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri & Jacobs, LLC)

Record Closed: December 22, 2023 Decided: January 22, 2024

BEFORE ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, L.G., seeks to have the West Morris Regional High School District, Board of Education, Morris County ("BOE", "WMRHSD" or "respondent") permit her son D.G. to register for the next Calculus class in his pathway for the 2023-2024 school year; in particular, IB/HL Calculus/Analysis 3 (also referred to as "IB/HL Calculus III and IB/HL Calc III"). Petitioner alleges that the BOE's refusal to permit D.G. to register for the class is based on his age and thus, is in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2). "IB stands for International Baccalaureate".

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about February 26, 2023, petitioner L.G. on behalf of her son, D.G. filed a pro se Petition with the New Jersey Department of Education ("NJDOE") Office of Controversies and Disputes seeking that the respondent should allow D.G. to register for the next math class in his pathway IB/HL Calculus/Analysis 3, for the 2023-2024 school year, recognizing that D.G. has completed the prerequisite course and has teacher recommendation to move on to IB/HL Calculus/Analysis 3 for the 2023-2024 school year, and WMRHSD should recognize that prohibiting any general education student from registering for a class due to age is a violation of New Jersey Administrative Code 6A:7-1.7(b)(2). Respondent filed an Answer to the Petition on April 12, 2023. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") on April 13, 2023. A hearing was conducted on September 28, 2023. Post-hearing summation briefs were submitted by the parties and the record was closed based on the last submission date of December 22,2023.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the testimonial and documentary evidence presented at the hearing, the following facts are undisputed and thus, I FIND:

The District's principal place of business is 10 South Four Bridges Road Chester, New Jersey 07930. Petitioner L.G., on behalf of minor child D.G., resides at 186 Old Turnpike Road, Port Murray, New Jersey 07865. D.G. is currently sixteen (16) years old and is an eleventh (11^{th}) grade student at West Morris Central High School. During his ninth (9^{th}) grade year in the 2021-2022 school year, D.G. successfully completed Geometry Honors and Algebra II Honors at West Morris Central High School. D.G. also completed College Calculus I through the County College of Morris Challenger Program. He successfully passed an Accuplacer examination allowing him to skip Pre-Calculus Honors following the completion of the College Calculus I course. Accordingly, D.G. was placed in B.C. Calculus for the 2022-2023 school year and successfully completed the course. Because both the District Program of Studies and the International Baccalaureate Organization mandates that IB/HL Calculus III is offered to Grade Twelve (12) students only, the District denied D.G.'s request to enroll in the course as a Grade Eleven (11) student. D.G.'s decision to enroll in the District's "senior option" track is at his sole discretion. (Emphasis Added).

L.G. is D.G.'s mother and testified on her son's behalf. D.G. is currently a junior at WMRHSD. L.G. is a science teacher in the District. She testified with respect to D.G.'s academic trajectory in math courses at Central. Specifically, D.G. completed Geometry Honors and Algebra II Honors in ninth (9^{th}) grade. He also completed College Calculus I in ninth (9^{th}) grade via enrollment through the County College of Morris Challenger Program. Due to his mastery of these subjects, the District permitted D.G. to skip Pre-Calculus Honors after he successfully passed an end-of-course test.

Accordingly, D.G. took BC Calculus in tenth (10^{th}) grade for the 2022-2023 school year. D.G. completed the course with a 98% average. L.G. testified that D.G. would like to become a quantum physicist. She further testified that the most competitive universities expect their applicants to have completed the highest level of course work in their school districts with respect to physics and mathematics. Because the highest level of mathematics that the District offers with respect to mathematics is IB/HL Calculus III, she requested that D.G. be placed in that course for his eleventh (11^{th}) grade year. She testified that the District did not accept her request because the District offers IB/HL Calc III to Grade 12 students only. She testified that she disagreed with the District's decision to deny D.G.'s enrollment in the course, especially because he completed BC Calculus already, which is the prerequisite course for IB/HL Calc III. In her opinion, IB/HL Calc III should be offered to any general education student who has successfully completed the requisites, and "age should not matter." (Emphasis added). She testified that D.G. will be participating in "senior option" for the 2024-2025 school year, which means that he will be attending four (4) classes in the morning at Central and attending County College of Morris in the afternoons and evenings. She testified that because he is exercising this option, he will not have room in his high school schedule to take a math class in twelfth (12th) grade. L.G. testified that this has "set up a hardship situation" because he will not be able to be an "ideal candidate" for ivy league schools without taking IB/HL Calc III. (Emphasis added). It is important to note that it is D.G.'s choice to participate in the senior option route; and at no time did the District advise or instruct D.G. to do so.

L.G. also testified that because D.G. is not a student in the IB program, the IB rules requiring that the IB/HL Calc III examination be taken in a student's twelfth (12th) grade year should not apply to D.G. She testified that the District's limits on remote links for students to take classes virtually in only specific circumstances are "age" and "socioeconomic" discrimination. L.G. testified that the fact that the IB/HL Calc III course is offered in-person at Mendham High School, the other District high school and not Central is a form of discrimination biased against those of us who cannot afford to reside in the more affluent zones of the District.

L.G. further conceded and stipulated to the fact that there is a difference between a "grade restriction" with respect to academic course offerings and an "age restriction." (Emphasis added). She confirmed that D.G. is sixteen years old, and the District has never relayed to her that he cannot take IB/HL Calc III due to the fact that he is sixteen- but rather because he is in Grade 11. She further admitted that she understood different grade levels encompass children of all different ages. For example, a 12th grade class can consist of ages from 16 through 19.

Additionally, with respect to D.G.'s courses and exercising his "senior option," L.G. testified that the District did not tell her specifically that D.G. would not be able to take IB/HL Calc III during his twelfth (12th) grade year, but rather, D.G. chose other classes aside from Calc III for his four District courses. She testified that if D.G. chose to take Calc III, it would eliminate another course selection that he wanted to take. (1Tr. 39:1-25). Specifically, she stated:

> You're right that was our choice that the four classes that we have potentially picked definitely was our choice, right. And we chose not to pick the Calculus III for senior year.

(1Tr. 39:11-19). (Emphasis added).

The undersigned followed the District's cross-examination with several follow-up questions for purposes of clarification and completeness of the record.

> Q. Okay. So, the only reason why you're now seeking for your son to be in this AB Calculus III class which is only offered for 12th grades, while you're now seeking it for the 11th grade is because you've chose and your son has chosen to do the senior option, correct?
>
> A. Correct, yes. It sets up a hardship to where he can't get into it his 12th grade year.
>
> Q. Well, it's only a hardship because you chose a different pathway for your son, correct?
>
> A. Oh, I see. I see, okay.
>
> Q. Yes?
>
> A. Yes.

(1Tr. 43: 1-16).

Melissa Heike testified on behalf of the respondent. On July 1, 2023, Heike was appointed and continues to be employed as the District's Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction. Before being appointed as the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, Heike was employed as the District's Supervisor of Mathematics, Assistant Principal, and Supervisor of Curriculum, Instruction, and Evaluation. Throughout these roles, Heike has had continued oversight of the District's Math Department. As Math Supervisor, she was responsible for overseeing the mathematics curriculum and creating the District's Program of Studies, among other roles. As Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, she oversees curriculum, professional development, and evaluation of all of the District's departments and teachers. She is a certified teacher of Mathematics, and has a New Jersey State Supervisor's Certificate, New Jersey State Principal's Certificate, and a provisional certificate for Chief School Administrator.

Heike testified that D.G. is currently a junior at West Morris Central High School for the 2023-2024 school year. Because the District is a regional high school district, the District has two high schools - Central and Mendham. Heike first became familiar with D.G. in November of 2021 of his freshman year when a guidance counselor reached out to her with respect to D.G.'s math placement. At the time, D.G. was an "incredibly bright student" enrolled in Geometry Honors and Algebra II Honors. (Emphasis added). L.G. had reached out to the District requesting that D.G. be placed in BC Calculus for his tenth (10^{th}) grade year. (1Tr. 51:1-18). The District permitted D.G. to take the required Accuplacer Assessment to test out of pre-calculus for tenth (10^{th}) grade. He achieved the required score and was accordingly placed into Advanced Placement Calculus BC for tenth (10^{th}) grade. Heike testified that the College Board, which governs Advance Placement ("AP") classes, does not have a grade restriction for the course. So, D.G. was able to take the class as a sophomore.

Heike next spoke with L.G. in December 2022 of D.G.'s sophomore year. Heike advised L.G. that because IB/HL Calc III is only offered to twelfth (12^{th}) grade students, the next appropriate course for D.G. would be placement in AP Statistics. She testified that because IB/HL Calc III is an International Baccalaureate class, the International Baccalaureate Organization mandates that the course be taken in the student's senior year. She testified that the Grade 12 Restriction has nothing to do with age, but it is rather defined by the number of credits a student has accumulated and their anticipated graduation year. She testified that pursuant to the West Morris Program of Studies, students must have completed BC Calculus first and are planning to take the IB exam in HL math. (R-2). Heike testified that IB/HL Calc III has been limited to Grade 12 students in the Program of Studies since the 2020-2021 school year when it was first offered. (R1 through R-5). She testified that because IB/HL Calc III is a higher-level course, it is completed in a two (2) year sequence. She testified that the 2019-2020 school year was the first year the IB/HL Calc III course appeared in the Program of Studies - when D.G. was in the seventh (7th) grade. She testified that at that time, D.G. was not even on the path for taking the IB/HL Calc III course, so he was not affected by the Grade 12 restriction.

Heike further testified that in February of 2023 of D.G.'s tenth (10th) grade year, L.G. reached out to Assistant Superintendent Ed Braun, and other District personnel including Heike and former Superintendent of Schools Michael Ben-David again respect to D.G.'s math placement for his junior year via e-mail. (P-7). She discussed that the members of the District's Administration determined through a three-pronged approach if D.G. could take the class remotely via the course offered at Central High School during his junior year. The District first assessed whether D.G. needed the course as a graduation requirement. D.G. had already completed his math requirements. The District then assessed whether IB/HL Calc III was a program requirement that he could not fulfill at Central Highschool. Since D.G. is not in the IB program, this reasoning did not apply. Finally, the District assessed whether D.G. had exhausted all of his course options available in person: he did not - as he had not yet taken AP statistics. She testified that absolutely none of the District's reasoning for D.G.'s math placement had to do with his age. He has always had and continues to have, the option to take the course in twelfth (12th) grade. She testified that D.G. would be able to take the class virtually during twelfth (12th) grade because he would then have exhausted all of his course offerings in math.

Heike testified that with respect to D.G.'s decision to exercise his "senior option" for twelfth (12th) grade, there may be scheduling concerns that he would need to prioritize which classes are important to him to take - since you can only take four (4) classes within the District. She testified that she has seen scenarios where students must choose between courses that are scheduled during the same time period.

It is necessary for me to assess and weigh the credibility of the witnesses for the purposes of making factual findings as to the disputed facts. Credibility is the value that a finder of the facts gives to a witness's testimony. It requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, internal consistency, and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. Unites States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). "Testimony to be believed must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness but must be credible in itself," in that "[i]t must be such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." In re Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 522 (1950). A trier of fact may reject testimony as "inherently incredible," and may also reject testimony when "it is inconsistent with other testimony or with common experience" or it is "overborne" by the testimony of other witnesses. Congleton v. Pura-Tex Stone Corp., 53 N.J. Super. 282, 287 (App. Div. 1958). Similarly, "[t]he interests, motive, bias or prejudice of a witness may affect his credibility and justify the [trier of fact], whose province it is to pass upon the credibility of an interested witness, in disbelieving his testimony." State v. Salimone, 19 N.J. Super. 600, 608 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 10 N.J. 316 (1952) (citation omitted). The choice of rejecting the testimony of a witness, in whole or in part, rests with the trier and finder of the facts, and must simply be a reasonable one. Renan Realty Corp. v. Dep't of Cmty. Affairs, 182 N.J. Super. 415, 421 (App. Div. 1981).

In evaluating the testimony and evidence, I found L.G. and Heike to be forthright and credible witnesses. They both gave detailed, candid, and sincere testimony regarding their knowledge of the issue, and which I accept as FACT.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

In general, a board of education's actions are entitled to a presumption of lawfulness and good faith... Where board actions are challenged, the challenger bears the burden of proving that such actions were unlawful, arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Schuster v. Bd. of Educ. Montgomery Twp., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 670, 676 (citing Schnick v. Westwood Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 448 (App. Div. 1960, and Quinlan v. North Bergen Bd. of Educ., 73 N.J. Super. 40, 46 (App. Div. 1962)). This standard has been defined by the New Jersey courts as follows:

> In the law, arbitrary and capricious means having no rational basis. ... Arbitrary and capricious action of administrative bodies means willful and unreasoning action, without consideration and in disregard of circumstances. Where > there is no room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached . . . Moreover, the court should not substitute its judgement for that of an administrative or legislative body if there is substantial evidence to support the ruling. [Piccoli v. Bd. of Educ. of Ramapo Indian Hills Regional School District, OAL Dkt. EDU 1839-98 (January 22, 1999 (citing, Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dept. of Envir. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974) (emphasis added).

Absent a clear showing of abuse of discretion, the Commissioner will not substitute his own judgment for that of the Board of Education. Massaro v. Bd. of Educ of the Borough of Bergenfield, 1965 S.L.D. 84, 85 In Kopera v. Bd. of Educ. of West Orange, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960the Appellate Division stated the well-established rule that action of the local board [of education] which lies within the area of its discretionary powers may not be upset unless patently without rational basis or induced by improper motives. See also, G.M. v. Roselle Park Borough Bd. of Educ., 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 107, 109 (where the Commissioner adopted the decision of the ALJ when in a challenge to board action, the ALJ stated, it is the management prerogative of boards of education that will not be usurped or assumed by the Commissioner of Education absent a definitive showing of bad faith or arbitrary actions taken in bad faith without a rational basis.)

As long as the record reflects a rational basis for the action, as well as an absence of bad faith, the board's action shall be upheld. See Red Bank Teachers Ass'n v. Bd. of Educ. of Red Bank, OAL Dkt. EDU 5328-80 (April 30, 1981) adopted Comm. Ed. (June 15, 1981 (where the ALJ upheld a board's approval of a new Mastery Learning curriculum as a valid exercise of managerial prerogative that was rationally determined.); G.M., 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 107 (where the ALJ found the board's decision to change geographic boundaries for kindergarten pupil placement, with a goal of evenly distributing the pupils at different schools within the district, to be a reasonable exercise of authority).

To support her claims that the District somehow discriminated against D.G. with respect to his math placement, Petitioner relies on N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2) which provides, in pertinent part:

> Each district board of education shall ensure the school district's curriculum and instruction are aligned to the New Jersey Student Learning Standards. The district board of education also shall ensure its curriculum and instruction address the elimination of discrimination by narrowing the achievement gap, by providing equity in educational programs, and by providing opportunities for students to interact positively with others regardless of race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, gender, religion, disability, or socioeconomic status, by:
> ... 2. Ensuring courses shall not be offered separately on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation gender, religion, disability, or socioeconomic status.

N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2).

Although petitioner claims that the District's decisions with respect to D.G.'s math placement constitute "age discrimination," the District provided sound, rational bases at hearing to support its choice to limit IB/HL Calc III to twelfth (12th) grade students in its Program of Studies. Indeed, Heike testified that the District must adhere to the protocols and regulations of the International Baccalaureate Organization, which mandates that IB/HL Calc III be taken in a student's senior year. Most importantly, the petitioner conceded and stipulated to the fact that there is a difference between a "grade restriction" with respect to academic course offerings and an "age restriction". Indeed, D.G. is sixteen (16) years old, and the District has never relayed to the petitioner that he cannot take IB/HL Calc III due to the fact that he is sixteen. Rather, he simply must wait - just as every other student in the District irrespective of their age- to complete the course during his twelfth (12th) grade year. To wit, both petitioner herself and Heike testified that the District has never communicated that D.G. is prohibited from taking the course due to his age. Moreover, the petitioner's claims that D.G. was thwarted from his pathway to take the course during his eleventh (11th) grade year is without merit.

Heike testified that the 2019-2020 school year was the first year the IB/HL Calc III course appeared in the Program of Studies - when D.G. was in the seventh (7th) grade - well before D.G. was on the path to taking IB/HL Calc III.

Heike's testimony further demonstrated the District's rational basis for denying petitioner's request for D.G. to enroll in IB/HL Calc III during his junior year. Through her testimony, Heike explained that although D.G. attends West Morris Central High School, D.G. IB/HL Calc III is offered virtually at West Morris Mendham High School. Aside from the fact that IB/HL Calc III is limited to twelfth (12th) grade students, the District used a three-pronged approach to reason that: 1) there was no imminent need for D.G. to be enrolled in the course for junior year as he has already completed his math requirements; 2) D.G. is not enrolled in the IB program - and thus, he was not required to be enrolled in course at Central to meet IB program requirements; and 3) D.G. had not exhausted all of his in-person math requirements, as he did not yet take AP Statistics. Petitioner's "age discrimination" claims are baseless in fact. Moreover, she unfairly presumes that the District's exercise of its legitimate managerial prerogatives is prejudicial. Although petitioner claims that the District's decision to limit IB/HL Calc III to twelfth (12th) grade students poses a hardship to D.G. because he will only be able to take four (4) courses in-person at the District next year, it is of no moment to the District that D.G. decided to enroll in "senior option" for the 2023-2024 school year. It is not disputed that West Morris is an extremely competitive school district, and many students are faced with difficult decisions with respect to course scheduling and prioritizing certain classes to appeal to universities as they move forward in their respective academic careers.

I CONCLUDE that petitioner failed to present evidence that the District acted in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.7(b)(2) with respect to D.G.'s math placement. The District's determination to limit the course to Grade Twelve (12) students and thereby deny D.G.'s enrollment in the course for his Grade Eleven (11) year is not arbitrary, unreasonable, or capricious. D.G. may take the course in the 2023-2024 school year.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that petitioner's appeal is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." Final Decision

Atlantic City Education Association and Kelley Williams,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Atlantic City, Atlantic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), dismissing the petitioners' appeal for petitioner Williams' failure to appear at a scheduled ZOOM hearing before the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) on January 25, 2024, have been reviewed and considered.

Petitioners, the Atlantic City Education Association and Kelley Williams, alleged that respondent, the Atlantic City Board of Education (BOE), violated Williams' tenure rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-2 by terminating her employment pursuant to a reduction in force which occurred on June 30, 2015. The petition of appeal in this matter was filed with the Commissioner in August 2015 and transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case in September 2015.

After a lengthy delay and lack of participation by petitioner Kelley Williams, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) scheduled the matter for a Zoom hearing on January 25, 2024. Williams was properly notified of the hearing multiple times. None of the regular mailings to her were returned as undeliverable by the United States Post Office. The appeal has been pending for approximately seven years and Williams has had only sporadic contact with her attorney during the pendency of this matter.

The ALJ concluded that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a), the petitioner has abandoned her appeal by failing to participate in the hearing scheduled for January 25, 2024. Accordingly, the ALJ determined that the matter should be dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition must be dismissed. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners, the Atlantic City Education Association and Kelley Williams, allege respondent, the Atlantic City Board of Education (BOE), violated Ms. Williams' tenure rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-2 by terminating her employment pursuant to a reduction in force which occurred on June 30, 2015. At issue is whether Ms. Williams' tenure rights were violated.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arose with the filing of a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) on August 5, 2015. The BOE filed its answer on September 4, 2015. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case on September 9, 2015.

On December 23, 2019, Administrative Law Judge John S. Kennedy issued a Letter Order denying respondent's Motion for Summary Decision. After Judge Kennedy's appointment to the Judiciary of the Superior Court, the matter was assigned to me on or about July 29, 2021.

After conducting numerous telephone conferences with the attorneys and giving multiply opportunities to Ms. Williams to participate, I scheduled the matter for a hearing, via Zoom platform, on January 25, 2024. Ms. Williams failed to appear.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

I FIND the following as FACTS:

After a lengthy delay and lack of participation by petitioner, Kelley Williams, this matter was scheduled for a Zoom hearing on January 25, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. Petitioner was notified of the hearing by her attorney, Mr. Sokolowski, by regular mail, dated November 29, 2023. On November 30, 2023, Mr. Sokolowski provided her with instructions on how to join the Zoom proceeding. In his correspondence, Mr. Sokolowski advised Ms. Williams that her appeal would be dismissed if she failed to participate in the hearing.

At the hearing, Mr. Sokoloski advised me that he is satisfied that his contact information for Ms. Williams is correct. Over the course of the last four years, Mr. Sokolski has had telephone conversations with Ms. Williams about the information he needed to proceed with her appeal. Mr. Sokolski represented that Ms. Williams understood her obligations.

On January 24, 2024, Mr. Sokolowski sent an email notification to Ms. Williams reminding her to appear at today's hearing. Ms. Williams failed to respond and failed to appear.

None of the regular mailings to Ms. Williams were returned as undeliverable by the United States Post Office. This appeal has been pending for approximately seven years and Ms. Williams has only made sporadic contact with her attorney, Mr. Sokolowski.

Ms. Williams has abandoned her appeal by failing to participate in the hearing scheduled for January 25, 2024, without good cause.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a),

> If, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceeding scheduled by the Clerk or judge, the judge shall hold the matter for one day before taking any action. If the judge does not receive an explanation for the nonappearance within one day, the judge shall, . . . direct the Clerk to return the matter to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c).

This matter was scheduled for a hearing via Zoom on January 25, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. Petitioner was given notice of the hearing date and time by her attorney. Petitioner did not appear for the Zoom hearing.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that despite receiving appropriate notice, Ms. Williams failed to appear at the hearing scheduled for January 25, 2024. Therefore, the matter should be dismissed as the petitioner has abandoned her appeal.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the Clerk return this matter to the Commissioner of the Department of Education for appropriate disposition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-3.3(b) and (c).

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Decision

Richeall Kennedy,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Passaic Valley Regional High School District No. 1, Passaic County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner – a tenured science teacher employed since 2005 by the respondent Board's school district – challenged the Board's reduction in her salary as a violation of her tenure rights under N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. The Board initially contended that the appeal should be dismissed as it is strictly a contractual matter that is pending in other forums. After jurisdiction was decided in favor of the petitioner, the parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts in dispute here, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the petitioner has been employed under tenure by the Board since 2005; during the entire 2020-2021 school year, the petitioner was approved to be absent from work for legitimate Covid-related reasons; as a result of her absence she was not advanced to the next step on the district's salary guide upon her return to work in 2021-2022; the issue herein stems from the Board's adoption of a new Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), with associated salary guide, covering 2022-2024; the new guide reduced the salary for petitioner's salary step; petitioner alleged under N.J.S.A. 18A-25 et. seq. that the Board impermissibly reduced her compensation in violation of the tenure laws by paying her the reduced salary step included in the 2022-2024 salary guide. The ALJ concluded that petitioner's tenure rights were violated when the Board reduced her salary upon her return to work in 2021-2022, which is prohibited by the tenure laws. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision in favor of petitioner and denied the Board's motion for summary decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion, and adopted the Initial Decision as the final decision is this matter. The Commissioner directed the Board to immediately restore petitioner's salary to her October 2021 level of $114,251, and to compensate petitioner for the difference between the reduced salary she has received under the new salary guide since November 2021 and her prior salary.

Board of Education of the Passaic Valley Regional High School District No. 1, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the respondent Board unlawfully reduced petitioner's salary in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. See Cohen v. Board of Education of the Borough of South River, Middlesex County, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 242 (Comm'r Jan. 28, 1994) (holding that N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 prohibit boards of education from placing an employee at a step on a new salary guide which reduces their salary from its previous level).

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner's motion for summary decision is granted, and the Board's motion for summary decision is hereby denied. The Board is directed to immediately restore petitioner's salary to her October 2021 level of $114,251, and to compensate petitioner for the difference between the reduced salary she has received under the new salary guide since November 2021 and her prior salary.

BEFORE ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, a science teacher with the Passaic Valley Regional High School (Respondent or District), brings this appeal challenging a reduction in salary as a violation of her tenure rights. Respondent contends the appeal should be dismissed as it is strictly a contractual matter, which is pending in the form of a grievance filed with the Public Employees Retirement Commission and in a separate action pending in Superior Court.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Petitioner is employed by respondent as a Science teacher. The District says during the 2020-2021 school year, the petitioner did not report to work. As a result, the District says petitioner failed to advance herself on the salary guide for the 2021-2022 school year.

According to the District, under Article 15 of the 2018-2021 Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Passaic Valley Education Association, of which petitioner was a member, and the District, that provision states: "for purposes of advancement on the salary guide and years of service to the District, a member must work nine consecutive weeks in order to earn sufficient credits for that year.

Under this criteria, the District contends that petitioner did not earn the necessary credits to advance on the salary guide. As such, it was petitioner herself, and not the District who failed to advance herself on the salary guide.

The District says that the old CBA expired in June 2021, resulting in a new three-year agreement being implemented for the 2022-2024 school years. At the start of the new 2021 school year, all employees were paid under the old salary guide because the new guide had not yet been established. Once the new guide was finalized and approved by the Board, all employees received retroactive pay to make them whole for any difference in salary from the old agreement to the new agreement.

The Board says that petitioner did receive her longevity pay that was due as of September. However, since petitioner did not advance another step up the guide, presumably because she missed almost a full year away from teaching, she was paid the salary under the new guide at the step where she remained. What causes the dispute here is that the salary was less than the salary for the same step under the old guide.

The Board continued its prior argument that this matter is a contractual dispute that should be heard and decided in a different venue other than the Office of Administrative Law. They contend that because the petitioner filed a grievance and requested the appointment of a panel of arbitrators with the Public Employees Retirement Commission, her grievance should be decided in that forum.

Petitioner argues that the issue of whether her tenure rights were violated should be considered separate and apart from her contractual grievance before PERC. She argues that the reduction in salary that was imposed on her is not permissible as a matter of law, and specifically is a violation of the tenure laws. For the reasons set forth herein, while seemingly unintentional, the net effect of keeping petitioner at the same grade under the new agreement had the net result of a forced salary reduction. Accordingly, I agree that petitioner's salary was wrongfully reduced as a matter of law and constitutes a violation of her tenure rights.

UNDISPUTED FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner Richeall Kennedy was hired as a science teacher with the Passaic Valley School District in 2005.
2. Petitioner has tenure with the District.
3. Petitioner is a member of the Passaic Valley Education Association which is the sole entity designated with negotiating rights on behalf of petitioner and her fellow union members.
4. An agreement which petitioner was party to was in effect from July 30, 2018 until June 30, 2021.
5. During the 2020-21 school year, petitioner did not work any day during that period of time as a teacher. At that time, her earned annual base salary was $112,367.00.
6. In June 2021, the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the District and petitioner's union expired, and following negotiations, the parties entered into a new contract for the years 2021-24 on October 26, 2021. Since a new salary guide was not yet approved at the beginning of the school year, all employees including petitioner were initially paid under the expiring salary guide.

7. In November 2021, it is undisputed that respondent reduced petitioner's annual base salary under the new Collective Bargaining Agreement from $114,251.00 to $107,770.00

8. No tenure charges were filed against petitioner.

9. Petitioner stayed at Step 19 under the new salary guide.

10. Petitioner was subsequently paid $111,190.00 for the 2022-23 school year and was due to earn $112,904.00 for the 2023-24 school year.

11. Upon returning to school for the next school year after a year away for legitimate reasons, petitioner was not eligible to advance to the next step under the new salary guide due to the fact that she had not worked for nine consecutive weeks during the previous school year.

12. As a result of the lower salary from when the old agreement expired and the new agreement was implemented, I FIND without placing blame or determining fault, the resulting salary reduction, was a violation of petitioner's tenure rights, the net effect is that she was penalized for not actively teaching while a new agreement was negotiated and implemented, and I further FIND, as such, she is entitled to retroactive pay and reinstatement to the appropriate salary level under the Collective Bargaining Agreement Step Guide.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Among other things, the Board previously argued in an earlier Motion that pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.10, a petition may be dismissed if no valid cause of action is advanced with the pleadings, and the Office of Administrative Law does not have jurisdiction over the claim.

The Board argued that the nature of petitioner's claim is contractual and is already pending in the form of a PERC filing. Finally, with a claim pending in another forum, the Board argued that the "entire controversy" doctrine bars arguing the same matter in two forums at the same time.

Essentially, the Board argued that PERC has primary jurisdiction over the dispute, and once that aspect of the case is completed, there is nothing left for the OAL to review.

The issue of jurisdiction was previously decided in favor of petitioner, and the matter proceeded with both sides submitting briefs leading to a determination by way of summary disposition on the papers.

Petitioner brings this claim alleging under N.J.S.A. 18A-25 et. seq. that the Board impermissibly reduced her compensation in violation of the tenure laws, which is an entirely separate claim from the grievance filed before PERC.

N.J.S.A. 18A-6-10 provides than "no person shall be dismissed or reduced in compensation, (emphasis added), if he or she shall be under tenure of office, position or employment during good behavior and efficiency...except for inefficiency, incapacity unbecoming conduct or other just cause, and then only after a hearing held by the Commissioner or their designee... (Emphasis added). Thus, the petitioner argues that the issue of whether the Board violated her tenure rights is a genuine disputed fact constituting a valid cause of action, separate and apart from the PERC grievance.

The existence of a compensation provision in a collective bargaining agreement does not abrogate the protections of the tenure statute nor remove the matter from the Commissioner or OAL's jurisdiction. See: Laufenberg v. Ramapo Indian Hills Reg'l High School Dist., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5576-90, Agency Dkt. No. 207-6/90 (Dec. 12, 1991).

The purpose of Teacher Tenure Laws is to "aid in the establishment of a competent and efficient school system by affording teachers a measure of security in the ranks they hold after years of service." Carpenito v. Rumson Bd. of Ed., 322 N.J. Super. 522, (App. Div. 1999). It is well-settled that a teacher in a tenured position may not have his or her salary reduced except under the procedures set forth in the tenure statute. Harris v. Bd. of Educ. Pemberton Twp. 1039-1949 S.L.D. 164 (Comm'r Dec. 1938).

N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 specifies that teaching staff members who meet the statutory standards for the acquisition of tenure "shall be under tenure during good behavior an efficiency and they shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation, except for inefficiency, incapacity or conduct unbecoming such a teaching staff member or for other just cause."

Petitioner correctly points out that there is also a distinction between a collective bargaining action, which is brought by the member's association as a contractual claim, and a tenure violation action, which is brought by the individual. See Hoffman v. Bd. of Ed. of Hillsborough, 1996 N.J. AGEN. LEXIS 740 EDU 678-96 22-1/96 Initial Decision (Aug. 9, 1996) adopted by Commr. of Educ. (June 24, 1996).

A board of education does not have legal authority to reduce the salary of a tenured teacher once the salary has been established. In fact, tenured teachers may not have their compensation reduced, even under the terms of a Collective Bargaining Agreement. See, Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Educ. 90 N.J. 63 (1982).

For some time, the Commissioner of Education has stood for the precedent that similar to the facts of this case, the terms of negotiated Collective Bargaining Agreement cannot override tenure law protections against reductions in salary. (Emphasis added). In a case which essentially mirrors the within dispute between Ms. Kennedy and Passaic Valley, a board placed a teacher on a different step under a newly ratified Collective Bargaining Agreement which effectively reduced that teacher's salary by $6,000. The Commissioner ruled that this reduction was a violation of the teacher's tenure rights. Cohen v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of South River., 1994 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 74 (Final Agency Decision January 28, 1994). See also: Stockton v. Bd. of Ed. of the City of Trenton, 210 J.J. Super 150. (App. Div. 1986). And see: Schalango-Schirm v. Kearny Bd. of Educ. 1998 N.J. AGEN. LEXIS 356 adopted Comm'r 1998 N.J. AGEN. LEXIS 1064, (Aug. 6, 1998, affirmed, State Bd. of Educ. 1998 N.J. AGEN. LEXIS (Dec. 2, 1998), which also stands for the principle that a tenured teacher's salary may not be reduced even if a new Collective Bargaining Agreement is adopted which changes the levels of pay at various steps on the guide. Using firm language which clearly makes salary reduction for tenured teachers a prohibited practice, the Commissioner in the Schalango-Schirman case opined that "once a salary is established tenure rules apply to it and render it beyond recall.

In support of its position that petitioner's new reduced salary did not constitute a tenure violation, the District cites several cases, each of which involves teachers who relied upon their tenure rights to challenge a resulting salary reduction.

First, the District argues that most cases of a similar nature involve a clerical error or mistake where a teacher received a lower salary than they were entitled to. See Stockton v. Trenton Bd. of Educ. 1987 S.L.D. 512 and Rivers v. Mercer County Vo. Tech. School Bd. of Ed. EDU 1368-83, Initial Decision (November 30, 1983) aff'd Comm'r (January 17, 1984). In seeking to distinguish those cases from that of petitioner, the Board argues that it did not set petitioner's new salary, it was done by petitioner's Union ratifying a new contract, thus her Union and not the Board was responsible for the reduced salary, and there was no mistake involved for the Board to correct.

Since the Board was a party to the Collective Bargaining Agreement, and a majority of its members had to vote to approve the contract, I CONCLUDE that this argument, that petitioner was somehow responsible for the reduction defies logic and cannot be sustained.

In more of an effort to distinguish petitioner's case from the reality of other caselaw, and the tenure laws which prohibit a reduction, the board relies on Anson v. Bridgeton Bd. of Ed. 1972 S.L.D. 638 (Comm'r Dec. 5) which stands for the proposition that tenured teachers acquire vested rights to the salaries established for them by the Board's adoption of their salary placement, and they cannot be deprived of such a right by a subsequent action of the Board. Because the Teacher' Union in Anson, established the salary step guide, and the Board simply approved it, the Board was precluded from adopting a subsequent resolution to modify that teacher's salary. See also, Docherty v. West Paterson Bd. of Ed. 1967 S.L.D. 297 (Comm'r Oct. 23) preventing a Board from correcting a mistake by subsequent resolution regarding a teacher's placement on the salary guide. Again here, the Board attempts to justify the end result by simply stating it had not initiated tenure charges against petitioner, so she has to live with the end result, even though both the Union and the Board approved the new salary step guide. I CONCLUDE that argument simply does not make sense, as petitioner was a tenured teacher who was approved to be away from her teaching duties for a full year, only to return under a new Collective Bargaining Agreement where the Step she returned to was reduced by several thousand dollars from her prior salary. I further CONCLUDE that what amounts to an indirect penalty for not working the minimum nine weeks in the prior year, and forcing her to return at a reduced salary, even with her longevity in the District is a violation of her tenure rights that cannot be sustained.

Here, the petitioner alleges that her tenure rights were violated when she returned to work with a lower salary under the new Collective Bargaining Agreement as a result of remaining on the same Step level. It is undisputed that she was absent from teaching for a full year for a variety of reasons, all of which were justified, including but not limited to her own medical leave, and her need to stay home with her child while their school remained closed due to Covid protocols. There is no indication that by remaining home and away from teaching for a full year, she was ever deemed insubordinate by the District, and/or that the District ever contemplated bringing disciplinary or tenure charges against her. While part of her claim may be decided later from a contractual standpoint under a PERC grievance, it is difficult to determine to reach any conclusion other than the reduction in salary upon her return to work was a violation of her tenure rights, which is prohibited by law.

Accordingly, pursuant to Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995) I CONCLUDE with no genuine issues of material fact remaining, that petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision should be GRANTED, and the District's Cross-Motion for Summary Disposition should be DENIED.

ORDER

Summary Disposition is hereby GRANTED in favor of petitioner. Respondent's Motion for Summary Disposition is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Final Decision

In the Matter of Caren Freyer, Roseville Community Charter School,
Essex County

This matter involves an appeal of the School Ethics Commission's (SEC) October 17, 2023 determination that appellant, Caren Freyer – a member of the Roseville Community Charter School Board of Trustees (Board) – violated the School Ethics Act (Act) by failing to timely file complete Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements (Disclosure Statements) in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1. The Commission recommended a penalty of censure, finding that a school official who completes the disclosure statements after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause, but before the Commission issues its decision, shall receive a censure, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3(c). Having carefully reviewed the SEC's decision and the record in its entirety, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's decision that appellant violated the Act is supported by sufficient, credible evidence, and that the appellant failed to establish that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). The Commissioner further finds that the recommended penalty of censure is appropriate.

In her appeal to the Commissioner, appellant argues that despite several attempts, she was unable to complete her Disclosure Statements in the SEC's online system. Appellant stated that her failed attempts to submit the Disclosure Statements were due to issues with the system starting in February; however, she includes no dates evidencing these failed attempts, nor any additional supporting documentation explaining the lengthy delay. According to her certification, several months later – at the beginning of the summer of 2023 – appellant contacted the SEC to obtain a hard copy of the Disclosure Statement form via express mail. Appellant executed and sent the document back; however, her certification failed to state when this occurred. This attempt to sign and submit a hard copy of the document was rejected on August 17, 2023. The Disclosure Statements were ultimately completed on appellant's third attempt, on September 27, 2023, one day after the Order to Show Cause was issued by the SEC. Appellant also cited the extensive demands of her employment as a reason for her delay in timely completing the Disclosure Statements.

In opposition, the Commission argues that appellant received multiple reminders from the Commission that her filing was incomplete and required completion or an Order to Show Cause would be issued. The Commission sent reminders on the following dates: July 31, 2023; August 30, 2023; September 6, 2023; and September 11, 2023. An Order to Show Cause was subsequently issued on September 26, 2023. Nonetheless, appellant did not complete the Disclosure Statements until after the issuance of the Order to Show Cause, nearly five months after the Disclosure Statements were originally due.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's determination that appellant is in violation of the Act is supported by sufficient credible evidence, and the appellant has failed to establish that the SEC's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. Appellant was required to complete her Disclosure Statements by April 30, 2023. See N.J.A.C 6A:28-3.1. Appellant was ultimately able to correctly file her Disclosure Statements after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause. However, at that point, the Disclosure Statements were significantly out of time. Further, at the time of the filing, appellant provided no reason or explanation as to why the Disclosure Statements were untimely. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3 (c) specifically states, "Unless good cause is shown . . ., the Commission shall recommend that a school official who completes the disclosure statements after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause, but before the Commission issues its decision, receives a censure." Therefore, with respect to the appropriate penalty, the Commissioner concurs with the SEC that a censure in this case is appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

Before the School Ethics Commission
Docket No.: D02-23
Decision for Failure to File Complete Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements

---

I/M/O Caren Freyer,
Roseville Community Charter School, Essex County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) at its meeting on September 26, 2023, directing Respondent, a "school official" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find her in violation of the Act for failing to file complete Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements (Disclosure Statements) as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1.

In the OTSC that was served on September 26, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. By virtue of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, the breadth of the Act was expanded to include charter school trustees and administrators.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1(a), all school officials must file, on forms prescribed by the Commission, Disclosure Statements with their local board secretaries or charter school designees, and must do so on or before April 30th of each year. In addition, all newly elected board members or board members appointed to fill vacancies, newly appointed members of a board of trustees of a charter school, and administrators appointed to fill a vacancy must file their Disclosure Statements within thirty (30) days of appointment or taking office. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1(c), N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1(d), N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1(e), and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1(f).

When it is determined that a school official's otherwise timely filed Disclosure Statements are incorrect or incomplete, the filing shall be returned to the school official, and she shall have twenty (20) days from receipt of the returned filing to correct and/or complete the Disclosure Statements, and to resubmit them to the local board secretary or charter school designee. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.4(a), N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.4(b). At the expiration of twenty (20) days, or upon receipt of a filing which continues to fail to provide the information required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, the Commission shall issue an Order to Show Cause, directing the school official to show cause as to why the Commission should not impose a sanction. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.4(c). If the school official fails to submit a response within twenty (20) days, or if the school official fails to properly file, "the Commission may regard the school official's incomplete filing as a failure to file, and the Commission shall proceed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.4(d). As set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3(a), failure to timely file the required Disclosure Statements "shall constitute a violation of the Act, and may result in the reprimand, censure, suspension, or removal of a school official."

With the above in mind, Respondent is a returning school official and, therefore, was required to file complete Disclosure Statements by April 30, 2023. Although Respondent filed Disclosure Statements on August 11, 2023, her filing was rejected. Even though Respondent received reminders as further detailed below, Respondent failed to file complete Disclosure Statements.

More specifically, throughout the months of July through September, the Commission's staff sent repeated messages to the Charter School Lead advising that Respondent had not yet filed complete Disclosure Statements. The electronic correspondence to the Charter School Lead further advised that if Respondent failed to file complete Disclosure Statements, the Commission had the authority to issue an OTSC, find Respondent in violation of the Act, and recommend a penalty up to and including removal for non-compliance.

In addition, by electronic correspondence dated July 31, 2023, August 30, 2023, September 6, 2023, and September 11, 2023, Respondent was reminded that she did not file complete Disclosure Statements. Respondent was further advised that continued failure to file complete Disclosure Statements would result in the Commission issuing an OTSC, and recommending a penalty, up to and including removal.

When Respondent failed to file complete Disclosure Statements as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on September 26, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her Disclosure Statements on September 27, 2023, but did not dispute that her filing was untimely, or otherwise submit anything explaining why a penalty should not be imposed.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

Based on the record as set forth above, and at its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1 because she did not file complete Disclosure Statements. Although Respondent ultimately completed her Disclosure Statements, the filing was several months late, and submitted only after multiple reminders were sent reiterating her statutory obligation to file Disclosure Statements.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed on the school official. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a school official who completes the disclosure statements after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause, but before the Commission issues its decision, receives a censure." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.3(c). For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended penalty of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's brief on appeal.

Resolution Adopting Decision for Failure to File Complete Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements
Docket No.: D02-23

Whereas, Respondent is a "school official," as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act); and

Whereas, as a school official, Respondent was required to file Personal/Relative and Financial Disclosure Statements (Disclosure Statements) by April 30, 2023; and

Whereas, Respondent failed to file complete Disclosure Statements within the statutorily required timeframe; and

Whereas, at its meeting on September 26, 2023, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause why she failed to file complete Disclosure Statements as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1; and

Whereas, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her Disclosure Statements, but did not dispute that her filing was untimely, or otherwise submit anything explaining why a penalty should not be imposed.

Whereas, at its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26, and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-3.1 by failing to file complete Disclosure Statements; and

Whereas, at its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure; and

Whereas, at its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Final Decision

D.H., on behalf of O.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Gloucester, Camden County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner challenged the determination of the respondent Board that three aggressive incidents against her son, O.H., by a classmate did not constitute harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) under District Policy 5512 and New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. O.H. was a fourth-grade student at the time of the events in question, wherein he was the victim of three separate unprovoked incidents by the same child, a classified student with recognized impulse control difficulties. The Board determined that petitioner's allegations did not constitute HIB, as a finding of HIB requires that the conduct be reasonably perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic, and no such motivation was found during the HIB investigation in this case. A hearing in the matter was held in the Office of Administrative Law on October 5, 2023.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the decision of a board acting within the scope of its authority is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be overturned unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable; further, the action of a board which lies within the area of its discretionary powers may not be upset unless patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives; in this case, none of petitioner's allegations met the legal standards of the HIB statute; for a finding of HIB, the alleged behavior must reasonably be perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic of the victim, a critical element that is missing in this case; although petitioner believes that the HIB policy must be revised to protect all students, nevertheless, a finding of HIB requires that the conduct be reasonably perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic, and no such motivation or distinguishing characteristic was identified here. The ALJ concluded that the Board's determination that the three incidents in question did not constitute harassment, intimidation, or bullying was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Gloucester Township Board of Education's determination in this matter was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

Record Closed: December 12, 2023 Decided: January 24, 2024

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, D.H., challenged the decision of the respondent, the Board of Education of the Township of Gloucester (Board), that the three incidents against her son, O.H., by a classmate did not constitute harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) under District Policy 5512 as defined in the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On May 23, 2023, petitioner filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes. On June 20, 2023, respondent filed its answer. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on June 22, 2023, to proceed as a contested matter under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23.

The hearing was held on October 5, 2023. The record closed on December 12, 2023, after receipt of the parties' post-hearing submissions.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Having heard the testimony presented at the hearing, and having reviewed the documentary evidence, I FIND:

O.H. was a fourth-grade student at Chews Elementary School. On January 9, 2023, O.H. was the victim of three separate unprovoked incidents by the same student, A.A. The incidents were consistently described as follows:

The first incident occurred at the start of the school day. O.H. was in line when A.A. ran towards him and slapped him on his cheek. A.A.'s explanation was that he thought O.H. and another student were fighting, so he tried to break up the fight. O.H. and the other classmate admitted to "playing around" while in line. (R-2.)

The second incident occurred after recess. During recess, a group of boys, including A.A. and O.H., were playing cops and robbers. When the bell rang, ending recess, A.A. claimed he wanted to "finish the game and get another point." (R-2.) A.A. saw O.H. bending down to tie his shoe, so he ran to him and grabbed him by twisting his neck.

The third incident occurred at the lunch table. A.A. thought O.H. and his friends were talking about him. In response, A.A. stated to the group, "I'm going to kill you, you, and you." (R-2.)

On the day of the incidents, the vice principal called D.H. to report what happened to her son, O.H. On January 10, 2023, O.H.'s parents met with the vice principal to discuss the incidents. D.H. was not satisfied with the school's response to the incidents, so she filed a report requesting a HIB investigation into the matter. (R-2.) The investigation was assigned to Raylene Aita, the anti-bullying specialist (ABS) at Chews. Ms. Aita is also a school counselor.

As part of her investigation, Ms. Aita interviewed O.H., two other student witnesses, and A.A. (R-2.) After conducting her investigation, Ms. Aita determined that the events happened as described above. A.A. did not deny his actions. Based on the descriptions received from O.H. and the other witnesses, and considering A.A.'s explanations for his behavior, Ms. Aita determined that A.A. did not target O.H. based on any actual or perceived characteristics of O.H. identified under HIB. (R-2.)

Based on her experience, knowledge, and training, Ms. Aita determined that A.A. acted impulsively and with a misunderstanding of social cues and situations. Ms. Aita explained that A.A. thought he was breaking up a fight that he perceived as real. Likewise, his actions at recess and his verbal threat were based on an impulsive reaction to perceived events. He wanted to continue playing so he jumped on O.H. to gain another point. A.A. thought O.H. and his friends were talking negatively about him, so he threatened them. A.A.'s actions were clearly not appropriate. His aggression and threatening language violated the school's code of conduct, for which A.A. was appropriately disciplined.

Ms. Aita further explained that A.A. is a classified student under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, with known struggles with impulse control.

The testimony of Ms. Aita was not controverted. She expressed a clear knowledge of her role as the ABS. Moreover, Ms. Aita has been a counselor for Glassboro schools for over twenty years. She expressed her familiarity with the students and was confident that the students were comfortable in speaking with her during the interviews. Based on the consistency of the events as stated in her investigation report, her clear understanding of her role in a HIB investigation, and her knowledge of what constitutes a HIB violation, I accept the testimony of Ms. Aita as credible. She provided a reasonable, plausible, and sound justification why A.A.'s actions against O.H. based on the facts and circumstances did not constitute HIB.

During their initial meeting on January 10, 2023, O.H.'s parents believed that the threats against their son were downplayed by the school administration. They did not accept that the discipline imposed on A.A. reflected the magnitude of what had occurred. They also felt that these three incidents directed at their son on the same day showed that A.A. had targeted O.H. A.A. did not act impulsively towards any other student, just O.H. Therefore, under their interpretation of the plain meaning of bullying, harassment, and intimidation, they felt that O.H. was targeted and should be afforded protection under HIB. I accepted the testimony of D.H. and S.H. as being motivated by their love and concern for the safety and well-being of their son. Their testimony was both sincere and heartfelt. While petitioner expressed her dissatisfaction with the statutory language, respondent and this tribunal are required to follow the definition of HIB provided in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

It was the intent of the Legislature in enacting the "Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act" to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1, -13.2.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 and District Policy 5512 define harassment, intimidation, or bullying in pertinent part as anything that could be "reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic" that "takes place on school property" and "substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students" and that:

> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>

O.H.'s parents believed that the focus of Glassboro's administration, their ABS, and the Board on an actual or a perceived characteristic was too restrictive, and this focus failed to consider the impact on their son, who was the target of the aggression. As explained by Ms. Aita, the ABS, there was no distinguishing characteristic that motivated the inappropriate behavior. Ms. Aita reasonably determined that A.A.'s impulsivity and failure to understand social situations caused his misbehavior towards O.H. The Board's finding that no HIB occurred because there was no distinguishing characteristic does not diminish what happened to O.H. The Appellate Division in K.L. v. Evesham Township Board of Education, 423 N.J. Super. 337, 350–51 (App. Div. 2011), succinctly stated:

> The statutory definition of "bullying" does not include all violent or aggressive conduct against a student. The definition, both before and after adoption of the 2010 Anti-Bullying Act, refers to conduct that is "reasonably perceived as being motivated" by a "distinguishing characteristic" of the victim, such as, "race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory [disability]." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. The statute has not limited "distinguishing characteristic" to those specifically enumerated, but it has consistently required such a perceived motivation.
> Thus, harmful or demeaning conduct motivated only by another reason, for example, a dispute about relationships or personal belongings, or aggressive conduct without > identifiable motivation, does not come within the statutory definition of bullying.

Thus, an incident may be physically, psychologically, or socially harmful, but still not meet the HIB criteria.

Petitioner argued that A.A.'s motivation for singling out her son was not known or developed through the investigation. She contended there was no valid reason for A.A. to slap, put his hands on, or threaten to kill O.H. While the petitioner did not accept the response that A.A. misunderstood social situations and reacted impulsively due to his disability as a sufficient explanation for his aggression against her son, the investigation did not reveal any other motive, or a distinguishing characteristic as legally required for a HIB violation. Petitioner questioned why the perception of O.H. was not considered. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, the required element is "how the actor's motivation is perceived and whether that perception is reasonable." Wehbeh v. Bd. of Educ. of Verona, 2020 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 50 (Feb. 4, 2020), at *8. To determine whether the perception is reasonable, "the alleged victim [need not] correctly assess the actor's motivation, as such a requirement would convert the analysis from one about reasonably perceived motivation to one about actual motivation and would inappropriately place the burden on the alleged victim to divine the intent of the actor." Ibid., n.3. The HIB investigation by Ms. Aita reasonably showed that A.A.'s behavior on January 9, 2023, towards O.H. was not motivated by any distinguishing characteristics of O.H.

After hearing D.H.'s appeal, the Board voted to affirm the decision that the conduct by A.A. did not meet the definition of HIB. Petitioner presented her arguments to the Board but was dismayed when none of the Board members had any questions for her about the incidents.

The decision of a board acting within the scope of its authority is "entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be upset unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable." Thomas v. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965). Similarly, the action of a board "which lies within the area of its discretionary powers may not be upset unless patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). The petitioner contended that the Board did not fully explore all aspects of her arguments and did not provide a detailed basis for its decision. Petitioner believes that the HIB policy must be revised to protect all students; nevertheless, a finding of HIB requires that the conduct be reasonably perceived as being motivated by an actual or perceived characteristic. No such motivation or distinguishing characteristic or difference has been identified.

In view of the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the Board's determination that these three incidents did not constitute harassment, intimidation, or bullying was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." Final Decision

A.N., on behalf of minor children, S.R. and K.W.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, which was transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 and includes an advisement of petitioner's failure to appear at the scheduled OAL hearing on January 25, 2024, has been reviewed. Petitioner did not file an explanation for her failure to appear, notwithstanding the opportunity to do so. Accordingly, petitioner's residency appeal is hereby dismissed, and the Board's determination that petitioner's minor children were not entitled to a free public education in Elizabeth remains in effect.

However, the Elizabeth Board of Education (Board) filed exceptions, arguing that the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) should have heard and considered the Board's position regarding its counterclaim against petitioner for tuition reimbursement, instead of dismissing it with the residency appeal.

Upon review, the Commissioner concludes that the Board was entitled to provide ex parte proofs once petitioner failed to appear for the hearing and was also entitled to an initial decision on the merits of its counterclaim. See N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d). Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which the minor children were ineligible to attend school in the district. The statute provides that the Commissioner may order tuition "computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b. In the absence of any factual findings by the ALJ regarding these issues, the Commissioner is unable to complete the necessary calculations.

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings to develop the factual record regarding the number of days of ineligible attendance and the per diem cost of tuition.

Re: Board of Education of the Borough of Manasquan, Monmouth County v. New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association and State-Operated School District of Camden City, Camden County, Agency Dkt. No. 59-3/24

Dear Counsel:

The petition of appeal and motion for emergent relief submitted by the Manasquan Board of Education (Manasquan) on March 7, 2024, and respondents' replies thereto, have been reviewed. Manasquan alleges that during a basketball game between Manasquan and Camden on March 5, 2024, New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) officials made an erroneous call that a basket at the end of the game was made after time expired, resulting in Manasquan losing the game. Manasquan protested the determination to the NJSIAA, which denied the appeal, and now seeks to have the officials' call and the NJSIAA's determination overturned by the Commissioner.

Upon careful consideration of this matter and granting every inference to Manasquan for purposes of this proceeding, the Commissioner is unable to grant the relief requested.

Article VII, Section 1 of the NJSIAA's bylaws states:

> Protests based upon an official's judgement or misinterpretation (misapplication) of the playing rules will not be honored.
> CL 2: "Protests based upon an official's judgement or misinterpretation (misapplication) of the playing rules will not be honored" does not preclude a League or Conference from addressing same; however, the NJSIAA will not honor such protests for non-conference games/meets, neither will the NJSIAA hear appeals to a League or Conference decision based upon an official's judgement or misinterpretation (misapplication) of the playing rules.

Further, under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-7.1(c), the Commissioner shall decline to hear an appeal of a "determination of the NJSIAA in an area that is expressly designated as not appealable by the NJSIAA constitution, bylaws or rules and regulations as adopted by member schools pursuant to law."

The Commissioner cannot find that the officials' decision regarding the basket was anything other than a judgment call, and the NJSIAA rules clearly state that once an official has made a judgement call, no appeals will be honored. Even if the officials' decision was not correct, under the clear and explicit bylaws of the NJSIAA, it is not reviewable. The NJSIAA's bylaws are adopted as controlling policy by boards of education when they elect to join the NJSIAA, which is a fully voluntary organization. N.J.S.A. 18A:11-13. Therefore, Manasquan – and every other member district – is aware that game officials will make judgment calls and applications of rule which cannot be challenged on the basis of error, and that there is no allowance for exception, even in the case of those errors which are deemed egregious by the affected party. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Hazlet, Monmouth Co. v. NJSIAA, Commissioner Decision No. 399-94E (decided Dec. 3, 1999).

Accordingly, the Commissioner finds that the officials' decision is not reviewable, and the NJSIAA's determination not to honor Manasquan's protest was consistent with its own bylaws. The motion for emergent relief is denied, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

Sincerely,

Kevin Dehmer
Acting Commissioner

Final Decision

Kevin Harriman,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

Synopsis

In this matter, pro-se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent New Jersey State Board of Examiners (SBE) that respondent improperly denied his application for certification after revocation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. Petitioner previously held a Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate, and a Teacher of Driver Education Certificate. In December 2015, the SBE voted to revoke Harriman's teaching certificates as a result of his dismissal from his tenured position with the Elmwood Park School District (Elmwood Park) due to unbecoming conduct. A hearing regarding petitioner's appeal was held on August 16, 2023.

On appeal, the ALJ found, inter alia, that: the legal issue here is whether petitioner has demonstrated rehabilitation from unbecoming conduct, incompetence, or other cause for the revocation of his teaching certificates since 2015, as required pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b)(3); petitioner bears the burden to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the SBE improperly denied his application for certification after revocation; petitioner has not satisfied this requirement as he has failed to show that he has been rehabilitated for the unbecoming conduct that led to the revocation of his teaching certificates, and in fact continues to deny the conduct and shift blame to former coworkers; further, petitioner's submissions in these proceedings prove that he has intentionally withheld information from current and prospective employers regarding the revocation of his teaching certificates; petitioner has continuously failed to acknowledge that his actions led to the revocation of his teaching certificates, a key component of rehabilitation; and petitioner's failure to demonstrate rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct is underscored by the fact that he still believes that his certificates were wrongfully revoked, and does not believe that he engaged in conduct unbecoming at all. For these reasons, the ALJ concluded that the Board's decision denying petitioner's application for certification after revocation must be affirmed.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter, for the reasons stated therein. Accordingly, the petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein. The Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner failed to demonstrate that respondent improperly denied his application for certification after revocation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. Specifically, petitioner has not satisfied the regulatory requirements as he failed to provide evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct which resulted in the revocation of his certificates and, in fact, continues to deny that he committed unbecoming conduct or needs rehabilitation.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Kevin Harriman, appeals the decision by respondent, New Jersey Department of Education, State Board of Examiners denying his application for certification after revocation under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner Kevin Harriman (Harriman) previously held a Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate, and a Teacher of Driver Education Certificate.

On December 10, 2015, the New Jersey Department of Education, State Board of Examiners (the Board) voted to revoke Harriman's teaching certificates as a result of his dismissal from his tenured position with the Elmwood Park School District (Elmwood Park) due to unbecoming conduct, which included conduct that was deceptive and untruthful; inappropriate, defiant and insubordinate conduct; failure to follow administrative directives; failure to enroll in anger management classes; and disregard of corrective action plans. [1]

On April 23, 2020, Harriman applied for certification after revocation under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. (R-1). On June 26, 2020, the Board denied Harriman's application because it determined that Harriman had failed to satisfy the regulatory criteria set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9 to receive new certificates. (R-2).

On August 18, 2020, Harriman filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner), appealing the June 2020 Board's denial of his application (R-3). Because the petition included information that was not presented to the Board at the time of its decision, the Board requested, with Harriman's consent, that the matter be remanded to the Board to consider the new information along with the information presented at the time of the Board's June 26, 2020 decision. Ibid. In light of that request, the August

[1] See, In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Kevin Harriman, Docket No. 50-3/12 (Comm'r decision, Oct. 12, 2012), affirmed, In re Harriman, No. A-1386-12T3 (App. Div. March 12, 2014).

2020 petition was marked "withdrawn", and the matter was closed by the Office of Controversies and Disputes. Ibid.

On October 29, 2020, the Board again considered Harriman's April 23, 2020, application for certification with all the information he submitted with his petition of appeal to the Commissioner, which included two letters from mental health professionals, as well as various letters of recommendation and references. Id.

On December 10, 2020, after reviewing the additional information provided by Harriman, the Board found no basis to overturn its initial determination of June 2020, and issued a decision which again denied Harriman's application for certification after revocation. Ibid. at pp. 5-6.

On January 15, 2021, Harriman filed a notice of appeal of the Board's December 10, 2020, decision with the Office of Controversies and Disputes . On February 4, 2021, the Board filed its answer. After submission of the Board's answer, Harriman filed a brief in support of his notice of appeal, and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case, where it was filed on February 23, 2021.

An initial telephone status conference was held on April 7, 2021, and several status conference calls were held thereafter through July 13, 2023. Pre Hearing Orders were then issued on June 28, 2021, March 31, 2022, June 27, 2022, December 20, 2022, and April 18, 2023.

An in person hearing was held on August 16, 2023. Request was made to obtain a hearing transcript and submit post-hearing submissions. On or about October 19, 2023, the post-hearing summations were submitted. The record closed on January 19, 2024.

ISSUE

The legal issue is whether Harriman has demonstrated rehabilitation from unbecoming conduct, incompetence, or other cause for the revocation of his teaching certificates since October 2015, as required pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Except for the ultimate finding of whether or not Harriman has established sufficient rehabilitation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, the facts are largely undisputed. The hearing in this matter was held on August 16, 2023. At the hearing, Harriman testified, and Rani Singh (Singh), Secretary of the Board, testified on behalf of the Board. The following is a summary of their respective testimony, which I FIND as FACT herein:

Testimony of Rani Singh

Singh is the Director of the Office of Certification within the New Jersey Department of Education, and the Secretary of the Board of Examiners. As director of the Office of Certification, Singh is responsible for all certifications issued to public school educators in the State. In her role as secretary for the Board, Singh is tasked with ensuring that all rules, regulations, and policies are met when the Board reviews matters, and must ensure that there is a quorum at every meeting.

Singh testified that on April 23, 2020, Harriman filed an application for certification after revocation. She explained that under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, an individual who has had any certificate revoked may apply for certification again. But in order to be eligible for new certificates the applicants must meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, including making a demonstration that they satisfy the criteria for issuance of the certificate that are in effect at the time of the application; that at least four years have passed since the date of the revocation of the certificate(s); and showing evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct or other cause for the revocation.

Singh testified as to the content of Harriman's application for certification after revocation. (R-1). Singh testified that Harriman claimed in his application that he meets all the criteria for issuance of the new certificates and he stated that he does not have a criminal background; that he continued teaching over the last seven years in two schools; that he has lost six consecutive coaching positions due to people Googling his name; that he was harassed, intimidated, and bullied; that no crime was committed; and that there was no rehabilitation needed because he did not engage in conduct unbecoming of a teacher. Id.

Singh testified that after reviewing Harriman's submission, the Board denied Harriman's application for certification after revocation on June 26, 2020. (R-2). Singh explained that in reaching its decision, the Board found that Harriman failed to provide or show evidence of rehabilitation for his unbecoming conduct because he continues to deny the behavior that was found to have occurred and stated in his application that he does not need rehabilitation.

Singh testified that Harriman then filed a petition with the Commissioner, appealing the Board's June 26, 2020 decision. (R-3). Singh explained that since Harriman's petition included additional information and new evidence that was not submitted with his April 23, 2020 application, the Board requested that the matter be remanded back to the Board to consider the new information. Id. Singh stated that the Commissioner returned the matter to the Board. Singh testified that the additional information Harriman had provided included an undated letter from Dr. Igor Gefter, a psychiatrist, and a letter from Dr. A. Nanjiani, dated July 23, 2020, and various letters of recommendation dated from 2013, 2016, and 2018.

Singh testified that after the Board considered these additional documents, on December 10, 2020, the Board again issued a decision denying Harriman's application for certification after revocation. In reaching its decision, Singh explained that that the Board did not give much weight to the letter submitted by Dr. Gefter because it was undated, and it just referenced a conversation with Harriman and an evaluation that was done but provided no information or evidence about the nature or results of the evaluation. With respect to the letter by Dr. Nanjiani, Singh testified that the letter was drafted three months after Harriman's initial application and the contents of the letter focused more on what would be beneficial for Harriman as opposed to addressing the underlying conduct that led to his certificates being revoked and how he has rehabilitated from that conduct.

Singh further testified that the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate evidence of rehabilitation for the conduct that resulted in the revocation of the applicant's certificates. Singh testified that every case is different, and the Board does not specify to an applicant they "type" of rehabilitation required to demonstrate compliance with the regulation. T160:25 – T161:1-19.

Testimony of Kevin Harriman

Harriman did not present direct testimony. All of his testimony was in response to cross-examination questions by the Board. Harriman testified that he submitted an application for certification after revocation (application) dated April 23, 2020 (R-1). Harriman testified regarding the contents of his application.

Regarding the answer contained in paragraph 2 of the application (R-1), Harriman read the same into the record:

> Yes. Four miserable years have passed since the illegal revocation took place December 15th to December 19th. Luckily none of my two current principals knew I was revoked during that time or you would have cost me another two teaching positions. They had no reason to research me, but I did lose six consecutive coaching positions to date by the school districts who did have to Google my name to background check a new coach.
> [T172:1-172:17]

When asked on cross-examination why he stated in his application that "it was an illegal revocation?", Harriman responds:

> A. Because it was done by arbitrarily and capricious by Mr. Higgins. Because if it was don with bias as you treated nobody else the way you treated me.
> Q. Sorry, sir. Just to clarify who is you?
> A. You and the Board.
> Q. You as in the Board?
> A. The board has never treated anybody in past precedent cases which are listed on line, thousands of decision that I've read, you've never treated anybody like that. Okay. So that's with bias, that you're deliberately trying to hurt me.
> [171:19-173:6]

Harriman further stated that the Board's decision is "way out of [its] statute of limitations;" that they "voted without a quorum;" and that the revocation of his teaching certificates was a "wrongful revocation without a doubt." (T173:2-15).

Harriman testified that as part of his application there was no requirement for his rehabilitation as he has "never done anything unbecoming of a teacher ever," and that "[a]ll charges and storylines are fictitious and compulsive lying [sic]." (T173:22-25 – T174:1-9). Regarding this point, Harriman testified:

> This is the God's honest truth. Mr. Sabor [sic] was simply jealous of the elementary gym teacher. You can't make this stuff up. He was the evil one . . . He was removed from his principal position in the spring of 2018 due to sexual harassment of his female teachers. Someone called me from Elmwood Park and told me about this, a teacher. When he went back to Tomko to see how he could get rid of me back then, Tomko pre-mediated and orchestrated a plan for he and Mrs. Alison Jackter to harass, intimidate and bully me by writing me up over frivolous things any time I went to their school. My third principal, Dominic Silla because I worked for all three schools at the same time, he refused to get involved in the entire team by telling Tomko to his face, leave me out of that, I never had a problem with Kevin. Mr. Silla is also my mentor for my masters degree, so Tomko knew that it would not be able to be justified to > use him, so he gave directives to two of three, Sabor [sic] and Jackter to do this to me[.][2]

> [T174:9-25 - T175:1-3].

Harriman responded in the affirmative that he did not engage in "unbecoming conduct and that there was no rehabilitation needed as a result" and that he still believed that he did not engage in unbecoming conduct. (175:16-176:5). Finally, in defense of the Board's decision that he did not provide the Board with proof of rehabilitation, Harriman stated that "..I needed to be told what type of rehabilitation needless to say. (T191:4-6).

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The New Jersey Legislature has designated the Board as the body responsible for the issuance and revocation of appropriate certificates to teach or to administer, as well as the direction or supervision of the teaching, instruction or educational guidance of students in public schools. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38. A certificate that has been revoked cannot be reinstated, but an individual may file an application for a new certificate with the Board. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9 (governing applications for certification after revocation), which provides in part:

> (a) A certificate that has been revoked for any of the grounds set forth in this chapter shall not be reinstated. An individual who has had a certificate revoked may file an application for a new certificate with the Board of Examiners.

The Board cannot issue a new certificate to an individual whose certificate(s) has been revoked unless they meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b) (setting forth the conditions that must be met for issuance of a new certificate). N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(c) (setting forth the circumstances when the Board cannot issue a new certificate). The most relevant provision herein is N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b)(3), which requires that an applicant provide "evidence demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct, incompetence, or other cause for the revocation."

[2] In his application for certification after revocation, Harriman states that he was "harassed, intimidated and bullied by the now Superintendent in the Belleville School District, the notorious Richard D. Tomko, Gilbert Ave School principal, the late David A. Saper and Gantner Ave School Allison Jackter in Elmwood Park." See R-1.

When a petitioner challenges a finding by the Board denying a request for the issuance of a certificate, the Board's decision may be reviewed to determine "whether the decision is consistent with applicable statutory and regulatory provisions." Jessica Walder v. St. Bd. of Exam'rs, Commissioner's Decision No. 503-14, dated December 29, 2014 (noting that in making this determination, the Commissioner is not mandated to give deference to her staff); see Jaroslaw Nimczyk v. St. Bd. Of Exam'rs, Comm'r Decision No. 98-22 (May 16, 2022) (citing Br. of Trust. Of the Passaic Cty. Elks Cerebral Palsy Cntr. V. Office of Fiscal Account. and Compliance, Comm'r Decision No. 334-14 (Aug. 14, 2014)); see N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1.3(b)(1) (providing that appeals of decisions of the Board denying issuance of a certificate shall proceed as contested cases in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3). Consequently, a determination is required to determine if the Board's decision was legally appropriate. Ibid.

Here, it is Harriman's burden to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Board improperly denied his application for certification after revocation. See McQuilken v. St. Bd. of Exam'rs, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8375-11, Initial Decision (Dec. 13, 2011), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/html/initial/edu8375-11_1.html, adopted Comm'r (January 27, 2012) (citing Farrar v. St. Bd. of Exam'rs, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13768-08, Initial Decision (Sept. 9, 2009), adopted, Comm'r (July 26, 2010) (finding that the "petitioner carries the burden of demonstrating by a preponderance of the credible evidence that she is entitled to the endorsement she seeks")). I CONCLUDE that Harriman has not satisfied this requirement as he cannot carry this burden because he has not met the requirements needed for the issuance of a certificate under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9.

Specifically, the record shows that Harriman has failed to show that he has been rehabilitated for the unbecoming conduct that led to the revocation of his teaching certificates, as required under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9(b)(3). For example, in his April 23, 2020 application, (R-1) Harriman claimed that he satisfies all criteria for issuance of new certificates; yet he also stated four years have passed since the "illegal revocation" and that "there was no rehabilitation needed as [he] NEVER did ANYTHING unbecoming of a teacher EVER." See R-1 (emphasis in original); (172:9-25; T173:22-25 – T174:1-9).

Furthermore, Harriman stated that he was harassed, intimidated and bullied by various personnel from Elmwood Park. Ibid. As a result of Harriman's responses in his application, that he did not need to provide evidence of rehabilitation because he did not feel that he engaged in unbecoming conduct, the Board denied his application for certification after revocation on June 26, 2020 (R-2). In reaching its decision, the Board found that Harriman had not provided any proof of rehabilitation and instead continues to deny the conduct and shift the blame to other coworkers. Ibid. I agree.

There is also the concerning proof provided herein and to the Board that Harriman has intentionally withheld information from his current and prospective employment of the revocation of his certificates. This conduct is completely opposed to the concept that Harriman has been rehabilitated, when he admits that he fails to disclose factual information that his certificates are revoked.

The record shows that after Harriman submitted new information that was not provided to the Board at the time of its first decision, the Board once again reviewed his application for certification in light of the additional material (R-3 and R-4), but the Board ultimately found the additional documentation, including letters from mental health professionals and other various reference letters, to be inconsistent with the statements made by Harriman in his April 23, 2020 application (R-4, at p. 5). Even if Harriman believes his certificates were wrongfully revoked, does not demonstrate behavior of someone that has been rehabilitated.

Harriman's testimony in this matter further illustrates that he has not accepted responsibility for his actions, and that he instead continues to place blame on others. For example, Harriman testified that various personnel from the Elmwood Park district lied and/or created fictitious storylines. In particular, he testified they were "simply jealous of the elementary gym teacher," and that they had "pre-meditated and orchestrated a plan" to "harass, intimidate, and bully" him by writing him up for "frivolous things." (T174:9-25 - T175:1-3). Harriman further testified that he believes that his certificates were "illegally revoked", without providing proof. (T172:9-25). Harriman still continues to believe that he has not engaged in conduct unbecoming of a teacher. Simply put, these are not the statements of someone who has even accepted responsibility for their own actions, let alone ones consistent with having been rehabilitated.

I CONCLUDE that Harriman has not met the requirements needed for issuance of a new certificate under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9, as he has continuously failed to acknowledge that his actions led to the revocation of his teaching certificates, a key component of rehabilitation. In addition, I CONCLUDE that Harriman's failure in demonstrating rehabilitation for the unbecoming conduct is underscored by the fact that he still believes that his certificates were wrongfully revoked, and he does not believe that he engaged in conduct unbecoming at all.

Consequently, I CONCLUDE that Harriman has failed to meet his burden to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the Board improperly denied his application for certification after revocation under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.9. For the forging reasons, I CONCLUDE that the Board's decision denying Harriman's application is AFFIRMED.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the decision by the New Jersey Department of Education, State Board of Examiners of December 10, 2020, denying Kevin Harriman's application for certification after revocation is AFFIRMED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and Release ("the Agreement") is entered into effective as of the 23 day of January, 2024 ("the Effective Date"), by and between JAYMARK BAILEY, Sr. ("Bailey") and the TOWNSHIP OF UNION BOARD OF EDUCATION (the "Board").

WHEREAS, the Board is a body public and corporate, organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 which is entrusted with maintain and governing the public schools of the Township of Union School District (the "District");

WHEREAS, the Board has its administrative offices located at 2369 Morris Avenue, Union, New Jersey 07083;

WHEREAS, Bailey, currently residing at 476 Crawford Avenue, Union, New Jersey 07083, is the parent of minor child J.B.;

WHEREAS, J.B. is a student currently enrolled in the District;

WHEREAS, the Board determined on November 22, 2022 that J.B was not domiciled in the Township of Union, therefore not entitled to a free public education in the District pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1; and

WHEREAS, Bailey filed an appeal with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, captioned J.B. o/b/o minor child, J.B. v. Twp. of Union BOE, Union County, OAL Docket No. EDU-00802-2023 N, Agency Docket No. 1-12/23 (the "Appeal"), challenging the Board's determination; and,

WHEREAS, the parties desire to resolve and settle all outstanding matters between them pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound hereby and in consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Settlement Terms

Bailey and the Board agree that Bailey shall pay to the Board tuition in the gross amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($2500.00), representing tuition owed to the Board for J.B.'s attendance at District schools while ineligible, in full satisfaction of all claims the Board has against Bailey for same. The first installment shall be paid within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the Commissioner of Education approves this Agreement as follows:

Bailey shall make five payments to the Board in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($500) each via cashiers checks made payable to:

Township of Union Board of Education

2369 Morris Avenue,

Union, New Jersey, 07083

The first installment shall be due and owing to the Board no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the Commissioner of Education approves this Agreement. Each subsequent payment shall be paid by Bailey to the Board within thirty (30) days of the previous payment, until Bailey has paid the Board Two-Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and no cents ($2500).

2. Consent to Judgment

In the event that Bailey fails to make any of the Five-Hundred Dollar ($500) installments to the Board in accordance with the process set forth above, Bailey hereby consents to the full amount of tuition owed for the period of time which J.B. attended District schools while ineligible, in the amount of Five Thousand and Ninety-Nine Dollars and no cents ($5099.00), to be reduced to a judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction.

3. Stipulation of Dismissal

Bailey and the Board agree that by executing this Agreement, it (and a Board resolution) shall be submitted to the Administrative Law Judge for issuance of an Initial Decision approving the settlement. If the settlement is approved by both the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner of Education, Bailey's pending Appeal will be dismissed with prejudice.

4. Release

Upon the fulfillment by Bailey of the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Bailey, his heirs and assigns hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive, release and forever discharge any and all claims or rights, whether known or unknown, which they have or may have against the Board, personally and officially, individually and collectively, its past and present Board members, all officers and administrators, its attorneys, agents and employees, as well as their successors, and assigns, including, but not limited to any and all claims for attorneys' fees, any claims for emotional distress or pain and suffering, and all claims arising under any federal, state or local ordinance, regulation or law including, but not limited to, the Reconstruction Era Civil Rights Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, § 1983, et seq. ("Civil Rights Act"); the Civil Rights Act of 1991, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a, et seq. ("CRA of 1991"); the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 10:6-1, et seq.; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1, et seq. ("LAD"); any common law claim and any and all other claims, that could be initiated in any venue, for harassment, discrimination or retaliation of any kind, breach of promise, misrepresentation, negligence, fraud, estoppel, defamation, violation of public policy, or any other tort, contractual or quasi-contractual claim, up to the date of this Agreement. Bailey expressly understands and acknowledges that it is possible that unknown losses or claims exist or that present losses may have been underestimated in amount or severity. Bailey expressly accepts and assumes the risk of such unknown or underestimated losses or claims and acknowledges and agrees that the benefits to be provided to him pursuant to this Agreement fully compensate him for such risks.

Upon receipt of the aforementioned tuition payment, the Board, its past and present Board members, all officers and administrators, its attorneys, agents and employees, as well as their successors, and assigns hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive, release and forever discharge any and all claims or rights, whether known or unknown, which they have or may have against the Bailey up to the date of execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to any and all claims for attorneys' fees, any claims for emotional distress or pain and suffering, and all claims arising under any federal, state or local ordinance, regulation or law including, but not limited to, the Reconstruction Era Civil Rights Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, § 1983, et seq. ("Civil Rights Act"); the Civil Rights Act of 1991, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a, et seq. ("CRA of 1991"); the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 10:6-1, et seq.; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1, et seq. ("LAD"); any common law claim and any and all other claims, that could be initiated in any venue, for harassment, discrimination or retaliation of any kind, breach of promise, misrepresentation, negligence, fraud, estoppel, defamation, violation of public policy, or any other tort, contractual or quasi-contractual claim, up to the date of this Agreement. The Board expressly understands and acknowledges that it is possible that unknown losses or claims exist or that present losses may have been underestimated in amount or severity. The Board expressly accepts and assumes the risk of such unknown or underestimated losses or claims and acknowledges and agrees that the benefits to be provided to it pursuant to this Agreement fully compensate it for such risks.

5. Assent to Terms

Bailey and the Board hereby acknowledge that they entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of their rights and that they were fully informed of the implications of this Agreement. Bailey has been offered the opportunity to review this Agreement with an attorney. The parties enter into this Agreement without duress and of their own free will and volition and acknowledge that they were given a full and fair opportunity to fully consider this Agreement. This Agreement must be formally approved by the Board and this Agreement will be deemed null and void without said approval. All reasonable efforts will be made to timely obtain approval from the Board.

6. No Admission of Liability

This Agreement does not in any way constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing by either party with respect to the events giving rise to the Appeal.

It is expressly understood that the arrangement herein is predicated exclusively upon the special circumstances of this matter and shall not be construed to represent any policy or procedure of the Board.

7. Successors and Assignees

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, assignees, heirs, officers, employees, officials and agents.

8. Amendment; Severability; No Waiver

This Agreement shall not be amended, changed or modified except in a writing signed by all parties. The provisions of this Agreement are severable. If it is determined by a court or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction that a specific clause of this Agreement is illegal or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect unless doing so would destroy the essential nature of this Agreement. Any failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of such provision or of any other provision.

9. Confidentiality:

Bailey and the Board agree that the terms and conditions of this settlement and the claims upon which it was based shall remain confidential insofar as permitted by law. The Parties agree to not discuss this case or settlement with third Parties. This prohibition shall include, but shall not be limited to, verbal communications, email or text message communications, writing a letter to the editor of any publication, posting of any comments or communication on any website, weblog, or "blog" online internet forum, or in any chat room including but not limited to any social media outlets. In the event that any individual makes an inquiry to either Party regarding the litigation, the Party shall only indicate that the matter has been amicably resolved. The Parties understand and agree that this paragraph is a material provision of this Agreement and that any breach of this paragraph shall be a material breach of this Agreement, and that each party would be irreparably harmed by violation of this provision and the Parties would be entitled to all remedies at law and in equity as a result of the breach of this Paragraph, including an award of attorneys fees to the prevailing party should the breach be deemed willful by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

10. Non-Disparagement

Each party to this agreement agrees not to disparage or make or solicit any comments, statements, or the like to the media, the public or to others that may be considered derogatory or detrimental to the good name or business reputation of the other.

11. No Further Consideration

Bailey and the Board each expressly acknowledge and represent that neither party will seek nor be entitled to any further consideration from the other in connection with this Agreement other than the consideration as detailed herein.

12. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matters herein, and supersedes and integrates any and all prior representations, negotiations, discussions, understandings and agreements, whether oral or written. Each party acknowledges that neither the other party, nor any agent or attorney of the other party, has made any promise, representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, not contained in this Agreement to induce it to execute this Agreement.

13. Construction

The terms of this Agreement are not to be construed against any one party but are to be construed as if all parties prepared it equally.

14. Counterparts

This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and shall be binding as if all Parties executed the original thereof. A facsimile or electronically-transmitted signature shall have the same effect as an original signature.

15. Law Governing

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

R.R., on behalf of minor child, A.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Ramsey, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner disputed the respondent Board's finding that his son, A.R., committed an act of harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) against a fellow student pursuant to New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.2 et seq (the Act). After an investigation by the school's anti-bullying specialist (ABS), the Board determined that A.R. had committed an act of HIB against an African-American classmate when he told her during recess that she is Black, and "black is bad", which caused the victim to become visibly upset; she cried and told several friends that A.R. had made "racist" comments to her. The petitioner contended that his son told the victim, "you smell" and "you're bad," and that if A.R. did say anything racist toward the victim, he didn't mean to. A hearing in the matter was held in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on November 17, 2023.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: an action by a board of education is entitled to a presumption of correctness unless it is proven to be arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; under the Act, "harassment, intimidation, or bullying" is broadly defined as any gesture, any written, verbal, or physical act, or any electronic communication that is reasonably perceived as motivated by any actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical, or sensory disability, that takes place on school property and substantially disrupts the orderly operation of the school; in the instant case, the testimony of the ABS regarding the HIB investigation was credible; it was reasonable and rational for the ABS to have found the victim's explanation more consistent with the evidence collected during the investigation; the petitioner was sincere in his testimony and steadfastly denied that his son ever said "you're Black" and "black is bad" to the victim, maintaining that the victim simply misheard what was said; nevertheless, the ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to meet his burden of demonstrating that the Board acted arbitrarily when it determined that A.R. committed an act of HIB as defined at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 within the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 to 37. Accordingly, the ALJ dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in rendering its HIB determination. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

Final Decision

R.R., on behalf of minor child, A.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Ramsey, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the hearing transcript, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have been reviewed and considered. The Board did not file a reply to petitioner's exceptions.

This matter involves the Board's determination that petitioner's son, A.R., committed an act of harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) when he told an African-American classmate during recess that she is Black, and "black is bad." Immediately thereafter, the victim became visibly upset, cried, and told several friends that A.R. had made "racist" comments to her. During the HIB investigation conducted by the school's anti-bullying specialist (ABS), A.R. maintained that he told the victim, "you smell" and "you're bad" and further stated that "if he happened to say something racist" to the victim, "he didn't mean to." Upon completion of the investigation, the ABS concluded that A.R. had made racially motivated, insulting, or demeaning comments to the victim which created a hostile educational environment, and the Board upheld the ABS's findings and conclusions. Petitioner now appeals the Board's determination.

During the contested hearing at the OAL, the ABS and petitioner testified. The ALJ found that the ABS testified credibly regarding the HIB investigation. The ALJ further found that, upon considering both the victim and A.R.'s version of the interaction, it was reasonable and rational for the ABS to have found the victim's explanation more consistent with the other evidence collected during the investigation. For his part, petitioner steadfastly denied that his son ever said, "you're Black" and "black is bad" to the victim. He maintained that his son said, "you smell" and "you're bad" to the victim and that the victim simply misheard what was said. Ultimately, the ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to meet his heavy burden of demonstrating that the Board acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably when it determined that A.R. committed an act of HIB as defined at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 within the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 to -37.

In his exceptions, petitioner argues—as he did before the ALJ—that his son never said, "you're Black" and "black is bad" and that the victim simply misheard what his son said. He contends that the record lacks substantial credible evidence to establish that his son committed an act of HIB. He emphasizes that none of the other students interviewed by the ABS heard his son say, "you're Black" or "black is bad" and that the victim's emotional reaction is not sufficient evidence of bullying. He also contends that the victim's statements to her friends about what A.R. said were inconsistent, though she repeatedly referenced A.R.'s use of the word "black." Additionally, petitioner points to the fact that the victim told one friend that she did not hear the full sentence that A.R. spoke to her. Petitioner's exceptions did not address the ALJ's findings and conclusions regarding the specific statutory requirements codified at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, which must be met to sustain a HIB finding; his exceptions state that his "disagreement with the [ALJ] is not about the law or the facts, it is about logic."

When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. Bd. of Educ. of W. Orange, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). Furthermore, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration," and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't of Env't Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Regarding HIB determinations, this standard has been explained as requiring a petitioner to "demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it." G.H. and E.H. o/b/o K.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Franklin Lakes, Bergen Cnty., EDU 13204-13 (Initial Decision Feb. 24, 2014), adopted Commissioner Decision No. 157-14 (Apr. 10, 2014).

Upon careful review of the entire record, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision of the ALJ as the final decision in this matter. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner failed to satisfy his heavy burden of demonstrating that the Board acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably when it determined that A.R. committed an act of HIB as defined at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. Petitioner has not shown that the Board's HIB determination was arbitrary, without rational basis, or induced by improper motives. Nor has petitioner demonstrated that the Board acted in bad faith or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it. As detailed by the ALJ in the Initial Decision, the experienced ABS conducted a thorough, non-biased investigation of the HIB allegation during which she considered all relevant circumstances including, but not limited to, A.R.'s version of events and the victim's acknowledgment that she did not hear the full sentence that A.R. spoke to her:

> Undeniably, [the ABS] agrees that the event presents a difficult 'he-said-she-said' situation, which can be the case in HIB investigations. However, in making her HIB determination, [the ABS] found the victim to be more persuasive in her version of the incident than A.R. At no time during the investigation did A.R. assert that the victim misheard him. Still, her HIB report confirms that A.R. maintained that he said something different than the victim stated. [The ABS] acknowledges that witnesses reported that the victim was unclear about the whole sentence A.R. said and that others did not overhear what A.R. said. In other words, she considered those factors in her analysis.
> Ultimately, [the ABS] believed the victim more than A.R. [The ABS] highlighted what swayed her. Initially, the victim was consistent when she immediately told her peers that A.R. commented about her skin color, which upset her, and she cried. Indeed, the victim immediately reported to her friends that A.R. said something like "black is bad" and that he was being "rude" and "racist." She was sufficiently distressed to report the incident to her parents that day. [The ABS] analyzed the victim's demeanor and significant emotional response when describing the incident to her [during the] interview, which [the ABS] found genuine. Her experience with school-aged children was a reluctance to tattletale. Indeed, the victim expressed worry that her classmates would get in trouble and be upset with her over the incident.

The Commissioner disagrees with petitioner that the records lacks substantial credible evidence to support the Board's HIB determination. Substantial evidence has been defined as "such evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion." In re

Pub. Serv. Elec. & Gas Co., 35 N.J. 358, 376 (1961) (quoting In re Hackensack Water Co., 41 N.J. Super. 408, 418 (App. Div. 1956)). The term has also been defined as "evidence furnishing a reasonable basis for the agency's action." McGowan v. N.J. State Parole Bd., 347 N.J. Super. 544, 562 (App. Div. 2002).

Here, the Commissioner finds that the record—including the documents in evidence as well as the credible testimony of the ABS—contains substantial credible evidence providing a reasonable basis to support the Board's HIB determination. As emphasized by petitioner in his exceptions, the evidence may leave room for two opinions. However, that is an insufficient reason for the Commissioner to overturn the Board's decision so long as the Board has not acted dishonestly or in bad faith. Bayshore Sewerage Co., 122 N.J. Super. at 199. The Commissioner finds no reason to substitute his judgment for that of the Board. The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination—for the reasons thoroughly explained in the Initial Decision—that all requisite elements of the statutory definition of HIB, codified at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, were satisfied in this case.

Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03078-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 61-3/23

R.R. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD A.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF RAMSEY, BERGEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

R.R., petitioner appearing pro se

Eric L. Harrison, Esq. for Respondent (Methfessel & Werbel, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 4, 2024 Decided: January 29, 2024

BEFORE: NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

R.R. challenges a determination that A.R. engaged in Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying (HIB) against an African-American fifth-grade classmate by telling her that "Black is bad." Should the HIB conclusion stand, even though the victim did not hear A.R.'s complete comment and A.R. denied saying it? Yes. A Board of Education's decision will stand if it is not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 8, 2023, R.R. filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) on behalf of his son A.R. challenging the Ramsey Board of Education's (Board) HIB determination against A.R. R.R. largely disputes that the Board based its determination on inadequate evidence and seeks to set aside the Board's decision.

On March 27, 2023, the Board answered the petition denying the petitioner's allegations, maintaining it followed all required procedures and requesting that this tribunal and the Commissioner uphold the Board's HIB determination.

The Department of Education (DOE) transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to-15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to-13, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On April 10, 2023, the OAL received and filed the transmittal.

On August 4, 2023, the R.R. and the Board filed cross-motions for summary decision. On August 24, 2023, the parties filed responses to the motions. On September 11, 2023, I denied the motions, finding that disputed material facts existed concerning the evidence the investigator relied upon in making her HIB determination and how the event caused a substantial disruption in the school's operations or the rights of other students.

On November 17, 2023, I held the hearing and allowed the parties to present post-hearing summations. The parties submitted their summations on January 4, 2024, and I closed the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The parties present a stipulation of facts and exhibits, which I incorporate, and I FIND the following as FACT after considering the sufficiency of the documents and weighing the credibility of the witnesses:

In October 2022, A.R. was a fifth-grade student at John Y. Dater School (Dater) in Ramsey, New Jersey. A.R. had no trouble at school or acted racially insensitively before events on October 20, 2022.

On October 20, 2022, the alleged victim's parents emailed the school stating that A.R. told their daughter that she is "black and black is bad" multiple times during recess.

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15, the Board issued Policy #5512 concerning HIB, which essentially mirrors the State HIB law and the process a school must follow when investigating HIB claims. See Exhibit R-1.

The school's anti-bullying specialist, Ann Fishman, investigated the complaint and testified at the hearing.

In evaluating the evidence, a trier of fact must assess and weigh the credibility of the witnesses to make factual findings as to the disputed facts. Credibility contemplates an overall assessment of a witness's story considering its rationality, internal consistency, and the "manner in which it hangs together" with other evidence. Carbo v. U.S., 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). A fact-finder must base credibility determinations on their common sense, intuition, and experience. Barnes v. U.S., 412 U.S. 837 (1973).

Based on those principles, I FIND that Ms. Fishman credibly testified on behalf of the Board. She was straightforward in her testimony about the steps she took to investigate the playground incident and why she concluded that A.R. committed a HIB against his classmate. She showed no hostility or bias towards A.R. in her recount of the investigation or her responses to questions by R.R. at the hearing.

As the anti-bullying specialist at Dater for eleven years, Ms. Fishman was responsible for implementing the HIB law, investigating any reports of HIB, and drafting reports of her investigations. In that role, Ms. Fishman receives annual HIB training, including making credibility determinations about the students that she interviews during an investigation. Ms. Fishman also served as the school counselor for twelve years. In other words, Ms. Fishman has considerable experience with children and investigating HIB claims.

To investigate the alleged HIB, Ms. Fishman spoke to A.R., the victim, and five students on the playground during the incident. Ms. Fishman determined that the five student witnesses she interviewed on October 21, 2022, gave credible statements in response to open-ended questions, to which the students responded without hesitation. The investigation forms indicate that the incident occurred on the playground when the alleged victim attempted to interrupt a game where other students were kicking around a soccer ball. None of the five witnesses overheard the interaction between A.R. and the victim.

Specifically, Witness One stated that the alleged victim stated that A.R. "was being rude to her and racist." The alleged victim wanted to give the ball to another student, her crush. The alleged victim told Witness One that when she tried to get the ball, A.R. said "black, black" to her. Witness One then confronted A.R. and told him that comment was "pretty rude." A.R. replied that he didn't make a racist comment.

Witness Two told Ms. Fishman that the alleged victim was playing the big red ball game, and she left the game crying. The alleged victim told witness two that A.R. said something rude, like "black, black." Witness Two also confronted A.R., and A.R. denied saying anything racist. Instead, A.R. responded, "What did I say?" and reported that, "I just told her that she stinks." Witness Two confirmed that A.R. asked the alleged victim what he said that was racist, and the alleged victim replied, "You know what you said."

Witness Three reported seeing the alleged victim join the game and get the ball. After the game, the alleged victim said, "A.R. was being racist." The alleged victim acknowledged that she did not hear A.R.'s entire sentence, but she heard "something like black people are bad" or "black, black."

Witness Four was playing the game with A.R. and other students. He said the alleged victim joined them and tried to get the ball. The alleged victim stated that A.R. said something racist. At the end of recess, A.R. noted that "all he said to her was you smell." Witness Four also reported that the alleged victim looked upset at the end of recess.

Similarly, Witness Five was also playing the game with the ball. He was passing the soccer ball to another student, and the alleged victim took the ball and ran away with it. A.R. went to get it back. At the end of recess, the alleged victim was crying. Witness Five stated that he spoke with A.R., and A.R. told him that the alleged victim said that A.R. said something bad to her. However, A.R. wouldn't tell Witness Five what "the bad thing was" that he said.

During her interview on October 25, 2022, the victim reported that A.R. said, "black, black is bad." Further, the victim reported that A.R. had made fun of her previously. The victim also told Ms. Fishman that after recess, she "felt off" the rest of the day but did not leave school. The victim's interview about the incident reflects that A.R. made only one comment to her, not that he repeated the statement as her parents reported. Indeed, Ms. Fishman concluded that A.R. only made one comment during the interaction.

Still, A.R. denied making a racial comment to the victim, stating that he said, "You smell," and four days later indicated he also said, "You're bad." A.R. acknowledged that he was annoyed that she interfered with the game. When confronted by others on the playground after the incident, A.R. responded by asking, "What did I say that was racist?" and told Ms. Fishman that he did not understand how telling someone that they stink was racist. A.R. reported asking the alleged victim the same question, who responded, "You know what you said."

R.R. testified at the hearing on behalf of A.R., but A.R. did not. R.R. was sincere in his testimony but relied on what his son told him happened. Further, R.R. perceives Ms. Fishman's investigation as an unfair assessment that lacks sufficient evidence, especially given the victim's report that she did not hear A.R.'s complete sentence. Still, R.R. does not dispute that the alleged victim was upset or hurt by what she believed his son said to her or that an incident occurred between A.R. and the alleged victim. To be sure, if the alleged victim believed A.R. said the words she accused him of uttering, it would flow that she would be upset. Instead, R.R. maintains that the evidence does not support that A.R. said what the alleged victim thinks she heard on a busy playground. In other words, the victim misheard A.R. R.R. highlights that A.R. denied saying it, the alleged victim acknowledged she did not fully hear A.R.'s comment, and no one else heard his conversation. Thus, R.R. questions the lack of evidence Ms. Fishman and the Board relied upon in concluding that A.R. committed a HIB.

R.R. highlights that his wife complained of bullying against A.R. that the school did not investigate. Yet, a different incident or failure to investigate is not an issue in this case.

Undeniably, Ms. Fishman agrees that the event presents a difficult "he-said-she-said" situation, which can be the case in HIB investigations. However, in making her HIB determination, Ms. Fishman found the victim to be more persuasive in her version of the incident than A.R. At no time during the investigation did A.R. assert that the victim misheard him. Still, her HIB report confirms that A.R. maintained that he said something different than the victim stated. Ms. Fishman acknowledges that witnesses reported that the victim was unclear about the whole sentence A.R. said and that others did not overhear what A.R. said. In other words, she considered those factors in her analysis.

Ultimately, Ms. Fishman believed the victim more than A.R. Ms. Fishman highlighted what swayed her. Initially, the victim was consistent when she immediately told her peers that A.R. commented about her skin color, which upset her, and she cried. Indeed, the victim immediately reported to her friends that A.R. said something like "black is bad" and that he was being "rude" and "racist." She was sufficiently distressed to report the incident to her parents that day. Ms. Fishman analyzed the victim's demeanor and significant emotional response when describing the incident to her at the October 25, 2022, interview, which Ms. Fishman found genuine. Her experience with school-aged children was a reluctance to tattletale. Indeed, the victim expressed worry that her classmates would get in trouble and be upset with her over the incident.

On October 26, 2022, Ms. Fishman and the school principal, Courtney Rejent, met with R.R. to discuss the incident. R.R. expressed his concerns about the lack of a standard or evidence to support the fact that A.R. committed an act of HIB.

On October 31, 2022, Ms. Fishman submitted her final report to the Principal, who provided it to the Superintendent.

The final HIB report found that A.R.'s HIB behavior was a single "insulting and demeaning comment," resulting in "insulting and demeaning" the victim and "create[d] a hostile education environment." Further, the report considered the incident as "racially, sexually, or religiously motivated." The report further states that "[t]his report and investigation findings must be submitted to the Principal within ten school days" of receiving a written notice of a HIB incident. The report attached the witness, victim, and target investigation reports but offered no further explanation of how Ms. Fishman determined that A.R. committed an act of HIB. Yet, Ms. Fishman explained her reliance on these investigative statements in making her determination and her experience in assessing credibility.

Notably, Ms. Fishman did not report that A.R.'s alleged comment caused a "substantial disruption or interference with orderly operations of the school or the rights of others." Instead, Ms. Fishman determined that the interaction between the victim and A.R. created a hostile educational environment for the victim and that the utterance of a statement that related to the color of the victim's skin created a hostile educational environment sufficient to constitute a HIB.

A.R.'s discipline for the HIB act was a parent conference, in-school counseling, and two lunch detentions.

In sum, I FIND that Ms. Fishman considered A.R.'s version of the interaction before arriving at her HIB conclusion but found that the victim's explanation was more consistent with the evidence. Indeed, I FIND that Ms. Fishman explained what she reasonably relied upon in making her decision and that evidence exists to support her determination.

The Board of Education reviewed the HIB report and affirmed the decision that a HIB occurred. Subsequently, A.R.'s parents appeared before the Board on December 6, 2022, appealing the decision.

On December 21, 2022, the Board wrote to R.R., advising that the Board affirmed the conclusion that A.R. committed an act of HIB. This appeal followed.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Legislature designed the Anti-Bullying Rights Act (ABRA), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 to -37, "to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises." N.J.S.A.18A:37-13.1(f). Each school district must adopt a policy that prohibits HIB and provides "a procedure for prompt investigation of reports of violations and complaints." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6).

Under the ABRA, "harassment, intimidation or bullying" (HIB) is defined as:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or > pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

Thus, a HIB finding requires demonstrating three elements, assuming the alleged incident or incidents occurs on school property, at a school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3. First, the conduct must be reasonably perceived as motivated by any actual or perceived enumerated characteristic or other distinguishing characteristic, and second, the conduct must substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school. The third condition is that one of the three criteria enumerated in the Act regarding the effect of the conduct must also be satisfied. Wehbeh v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Verona, Essex County, EDU 10981-18, Initial Decision (December 29, 2019), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal, rejected and remanded Comm'r Decision No. 51-20 (February 4, 2020), 2020 N.J. Agen. Lexis. 50.

When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness that will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). To overcome that presumption, the petitioner must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the board "acted in either bad faith or in disregard to the circumstances." T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., EDU 2780-07 (February 6, 2008), aff'd, Comm'r (April 25, 2013) (citing Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966)). In other words, the burden is a heavy one. Indeed, the Commissioner recognizes that Boards should "have the discretion to operate their schools in a manner that best serves their unique communities," the Commissioner will not interfere with that discretion concerning HIB matters unless the Board acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably. G.H. & E.H. o/b/o K.H. v. Franklin Lakes Bd. of Educ., EDU 13204-13 (Feb. 24, 2014), aff'd, Comm'r (Apr. 10, 2014), n.4. Further, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration[,]" the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the Board. Bayshore

Sewerage Co. v. Dep't. of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

Still, the Board's factual determinations require such deference only when supported by substantial credible evidence, e.g., having a rational basis. Quinlan v. Board of Ed. of North Bergen Tp., 73 N.J. Super. 40 (App. Div. 1962); Schinck v. Board of Ed. of Westwood Consol. School Dist., 60 N.J. Super. 448 (App. Div. 1960). Additionally, the reviewing tribunal may reject the findings of fact if the evidentiary record does not support them. In re Suspension of License of Silberman, 169 N.J. Super. 243, 255-56 (App. Div. 1979), aff'd, 84 N.J. 303 (1980).

Undeniably, the incident took place on school grounds and is subject to the HIB statutory directives. Regarding the first element, the statute defines HIB is an action "that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. Here, the statute requires an analysis of the victim's perception of the actor's motivation and whether that perception is reasonable. Yet, an analysis of the actual motivation of the actor is not required. Webbeh, at *8. Here, I CONCLUDE it was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable for the Board to conclude that a reasonable person would consider A.R.'s comment using the term "black," directed at an African-American victim, was racially motivated.

The second element is arguably less clear because the HIB report did not state that the incident created a "substantial interruption in the ordinary operation of the school or in the disruption of the victim's education or the rights of other students." However, the school maintains that A.R.'s conduct not only created a hostile educational environment for the victim, but to its students, meeting this prong of the statutory analysis. The incident was a limited one-time comment and did not begin a series of events at the school. However, the victim was crying at the time and "felt off" the rest of the day. Other students became involved after the unsettling incident took place in response to the victim's distress. In D.D.K. o/b/o D.K v. Board of Education of the Township of Readington, Hunterdon County, EDU 07682-15 (October 6, 2016), adopted, Comm'r Decision (November 11, 2016), https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/, the Commissioner discussed those situations where the Board's HIB determination satisfied the second prong, explaining that:

> [C]onduct has been determined to substantially disrupt the orderly operation of the school when students are so upset or embarrassed that they are "not fully available for learning. " G.H. and E.H. on behalf of K.H. v. Board of Education of the Borough of Franklin Lakes, Bergen County, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13204-13, decided February 24, 2014, adopted Commissioner Decision No. 157-14, April 10, 2014. Additionally, when other students are "so affected" by behavior that they report it, the orderly operation of the school may be substantially disrupted. T.R. and T.R. on behalf of E.R. v. Bridgewater-Raritan Regional Board of Education, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10208-13, decided September 25, 2014, adopted Commissioner Decision No. 450-14, November 10, 2014.
> Id.

Thus, I CONCLUDE that the Board satisfied the second requirement necessary to conclude that A.R. committed a HIB.

The third element under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14(a) requires a conclusion that the HIB act is one that "a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student," "has the effect of insulting or demeaning a student," or "creates a hostile educational environment." In Wehbeh, the Commissioner highlighted that "none of these criteria require the actor to have actual knowledge of the effect that their actions will have, or to specifically intend to bring about that effect." Id. Further, any one of the three criteria satisfies the third element. Here, the Board found that A.R.'s comments demeaned and insulted the victim and created a hostile environment. There is no doubt that a reasonable person should know that a racist comment would result in emotional harm or insult. Hence, I CONCLUDE the Board was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable in reaching that conclusion, meeting the third prong of the analysis.

Here, R.R. presented no credible evidence that the Board acted arbitrarily or that its decision did not have a rational basis. I am mindful of R.R.'s strong desire to protect his son from harm and determinations with which he disagrees. Still, I found that the Board's HIB conclusion had a rational basis and that evidentiary support existed to support its conclusion. Thus, I CONCLUDE that the Board's decision that A.R. committed a HIB should stand.

ORDER

Given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that the petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lisa Cerchio,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Regional School District, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

In this matter, petitioner – a high school gymnastics coach formerly employed by the respondent, Board of Education of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Regional School District (Board) – challenged the determination of the Board that she had committed an act of harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB) when – during an awards banquet – petitioner singled out A.J., a tenth-grade member of the gymnastics practice team, for not returning her gymnastics leotard in a timely fashion. The matter was the subject of a contested hearing at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), after which the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) made findings of fact and legal conclusions and issued an Initial Decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the statutory elements of a HIB violation are set forth in the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14; the testimony of Board administration and staff members who conducted the HIB investigation in this matter was based on "hearsay" evidence, to such a degree that the Board's entire case was built solely on hearsay evidence; hearsay statements collected during the Board's HIB investigation cannot serve as the basis upon which to decide any "finding of ultimate fact in this matter"; furthermore, the Board's HIB team asked irrelevant questions and failed to thoroughly interview petitioner about details of how she transferred the leotard to A.J. at the awards banquet; the HIB team should not have considered general derogatory comments from those interviewed about petitioner's personality, coaching style, and character because those comments were not relevant to the HIB allegation and "tainted the decision-making process"; further, such comments provided "a compelling reason to reverse the substantiation of the HIB charge"; and the undisputed testimony and evidence presented by the petitioner was highly credible. Accordingly, the ALJ held that petitioner's conduct did not meet the statutory definition of HIB and recommended that the petition of appeal be granted.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL with modification. The Commissioner, inter alia, rejected the ALJ's criticism of the Board's HIB investigation, finding that it was thorough and properly included eyewitness accounts of what occurred at the awards banquet. However, because the record is devoid of evidence to establish that petitioner's conduct substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, the Commissioner found that the Board's HIB determination was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as modified herein, and the petition was granted.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lisa Cerchio,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Regional School District, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by the respondent Board pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have been reviewed and considered. Petitioner did not file a reply.

This matter involves the Board's determination that petitioner, a high school gymnastics coach formerly employed by the Board, committed an act of harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) when she singled out A.J., a tenth-grade member of the gymnastics practice team, during an awards banquet for not returning her gymnastics leotard in a timely fashion. Initial Decision at 28. Following a contested hearing at the OAL, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) rendered findings of fact and legal conclusions. After discrediting both the Board's HIB investigation and the testimony of Board witnesses regarding the investigation, the ALJ held that hearsay statements obtained during the Board's HIB investigation from A.J., petitioner, and other witnesses could not be used "to decide any finding of ultimate fact in this matter." Id. at 50. Relying solely on testimony and evidence presented by petitioner, the ALJ held that petitioner's conduct did not meet the statutory definition of HIB and recommended that her petition of appeal be granted. Id. at 50-51.

When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. Bd. of Educ. of W. Orange, 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). Furthermore, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration[,]" and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't of Env't Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Regarding HIB determinations, this standard has been explained as requiring a petitioner to "demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it." G.H. and E.H. o/b/o K.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Franklin Lakes, Bergen Cty., EDU 13204-13 (Initial Decision Feb. 24, 2014), adopted Commissioner Decision No. 157-14 (Apr. 10, 2014).

In its exceptions, the Board asserts that the ALJ erred when he found that petitioner did not commit an act of HIB because he failed to apply the applicable legal standard for adjudication of HIB matters or even cite the appropriate standard of review in the Initial Decision. Additionally, the Board argues that the ALJ inappropriately applied the hearsay and residuum rules to analyze and discredit the Board's HIB investigation. The Board maintains that there is nothing improper about the Board's consideration of hearsay during its HIB investigation. Furthermore, the Board emphasizes that the ALJ substituted his own judgment for that of the Board in contravention of law, as evidenced by his criticism of how the Board conducted its investigation and questioned witnesses.

Upon careful review of the record in its entirety, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision, with modification. As will be explained herein, the Commissioner concurs with the Board that the ALJ inappropriately discredited the Board's investigation and the testimony of its witnesses and substituted his judgment for that of the Board. The Commissioner agrees with the Board that there is nothing improper about the Board's consideration of hearsay during its HIB investigation. Nevertheless, the Commissioner holds that it was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable for the Board to have concluded that petitioner committed an act of HIB because the evidence in the record fails to establish that petitioner's conduct—even assuming it occurred exactly as determined by the Board—substantially disrupted or interfered with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school as is required by N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.[1]

The 16-page HIB Incident Report reflects that during its investigation, the Board interviewed A.J., petitioner, four gymnastics team members, and Assistant Gymnastics Coach Tara Bozetarnik—all of whom witnessed the incident at the awards banquet. A.J. said that petitioner "went on and on about the leos" and how they were supposed to be dropped off at her house and that "one student did not" follow instructions. Exhibit R-1, at 3. Then, according to A.J., petitioner stated: "...that being said, A.J. come get your leo." Ibid. A.J. said that the incident regarding the leotard was "very uncomfortable for [her] and [her teammates]" and that her reaction was, "Oh my god, I can't believe [petitioner] did that." Ibid. Four other team members confirmed that petitioner "called out" A.J. "in front of everyone" regarding the leotard and agreed that it was an embarrassing moment. Id. at 5, 7-9. Bozetarnik said that petitioner took the leotard out "and threw it" at A.J. "in the middle of [petitioner's] speech." Id. at 11.

A.J. also disclosed to investigators how petitioner reassigned her, and a few other athletes, from the junior varsity team to the practice team that season. Id. at 3. A.J. disagreed with her placement on the practice team; petitioner claimed that A.J. had "more to work on" but did not provide her with specifics. Ibid. A.J. expressed her belief that petitioner is "rude" and "not nice" and "picks favorites" among the athletes, particularly those who train at a certain private gymnastics facility. Ibid. Four other team members, plus Bozetarnik, said that petitioner favored certain gymnasts, including the varsity gymnasts as well as those who trained at a certain private gymnastics facility. Id. at 5, 7-11. A.J. acknowledged that during the awards banquet, petitioner gave her a certificate. Id. at 4. A.J. added that she "was going to quit [the team] anyway" before the leotard incident because she "didn't like the team environment." Ibid.

During her interview, petitioner explained that one gymnast, A.J., did not follow protocol regarding the return of the leotards at the end of the season. Id. at 12. Petitioner said that A.J. "had over two weeks" to return her leotard to a box on petitioner's front porch. Ibid. From there, petitioner planned to return the leotards to the high school athletic director, who had advised her that he needed them by a certain date. Ibid. The day after petitioner had returned the leotards to the high school, A.J.'s leotard was belatedly dropped off at petitioner's front porch. Ibid. Petitioner sent A.J. text messages asking her to pick it up and bring it to the high school herself. Ibid. Since A.J. did not retrieve the leotard from her porch, petitioner brought it to the awards banquet. Ibid. Per petitioner, at the end of the banquet when everyone was leaving and getting their jackets, she walked over to where A.J. was seated, gave her the leotard, and told her to bring it to the athletic office. Ibid.

At the contested case hearing, the following witnesses testified: petitioner; Megan Whitney, an acquaintance of petitioner; Superintendent Dr. Joan Mast; Assistant Principal Brooke Esposito; and Assistant Principal and Athletic Director Ryan Miller.[2]

The ALJ found that petitioner testified credibly. According to the Initial Decision, petitioner explained that Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School has one of the largest high school gymnastics programs in the state. She testified that she, Bozetarnik, and Miller divided the twenty-eight gymnasts into three levels: varsity, junior varsity, and practice teams. They utilized the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletics Association (NJSIAA) Handbook to compose a rubric of objective criteria to rank each gymnast and considered the points earned by each gymnast during competitions. Petitioner added that gymnasts on the practice team were given multiple opportunities to compete at the junior varsity level during the 2019 season. Per petitioner, A.J. was afforded eight opportunities to compete at the junior varsity level but only availed herself of two of these opportunities.

Regarding the awards banquet, petitioner testified that she called each gymnast up to the front of the room and presented her with a certificate or award. She stated that when she called A.J. up to receive her certificate, they hugged, and she "praised A.J. for working hard during the season, for doing work with her peers to make them better gymnasts, and for being a good gymnastic dancer." Initial Decision at 29. Petitioner acknowledged that A.J. was the only person to whom she returned a leotard at the banquet. Whitney, whom the ALJ found to be credible, corroborated petitioner's version of events. She testified that after petitioner's remarks had concluded and the guests were getting up to leave, petitioner picked up a leotard and said to one of the gymnasts: "Oh, by the way, you need to return this to the school or to the athletic office." Id. at 31. According to Whitney, petitioner handed the leotard to the gymnast, who was seated.

Mast, Esposito, and Miller testified on behalf of the Board. None of them attended the awards banquet. However, Mast completed the HIB Incident Report upon learning of the HIB allegations from A.J.'s mother, and Esposito and Ryan conducted the interviews during the HIB investigation. Mast testified that when she initially completed the HIB Incident Report, the distinguishing characteristic that motivated the act of HIB was listed as "not determined." Id. at 27. Mast assigned Esposito and Miller to conduct the HIB investigation and ultimately adopted their factual findings and conclusions. She explained that, at the conclusion of their investigation, Esposito and Miller changed the distinguishing characteristic from "not determined" to "lack of athletic ability." Ibid.

During her testimony, Esposito summarized the content of the interviews that she documented in the HIB Incident Report. Miller testified that he agreed with Esposito's summaries of each interview. He explained that he told petitioner that he needed the leotards returned by a certain date to send them to a vendor for refurbishing. He further testified that he believed petitioner's conduct regarding the return of the leotard to A.J. at the awards banquet was motivated by A.J.'s "lack of athletic ability." Id. at 26. He explained that after conducting the interviews of A.J. and other gymnasts, he "ascertained 'a very strong divide' between who was perceived as better, Varsity, and who was perceived [as] lower, JV and Practice Squad." Ibid. He testified that he identified "an issue within the program of treating athletes who had more athletic skill differently than athletes who did not." Id. at 26-27.

The ALJ discredited the testimony of Mast, Esposito and Miller regarding the interviews conducted during the HIB investigation as "hearsay" and determined that the Board's "case is built only on hearsay evidence." Id. at 36-37, 50. Significantly, the ALJ held that "the hearsay statements" collected during the Board's HIB investigation "cannot be used to decide any finding of ultimate fact in this matter." Id. at 50.

On the other hand, the ALJ found petitioner's account of the leotard exchange (corroborated by Whitney) to be credible, i.e., that "after the banquet guests' attention was no longer on [petitioner], she approached A.J. with the leotard in her hand, leaned over a few seated students, told A.J. to . . . bring the leotard to Mr. Miller's office, and handed the leotard to A.J., who took it from [her] hand." Id. at 35. The ALJ found as fact that petitioner spoke to A.J. "in a normal conversational voice, not in a raised voice" and that "the manner in which [petitioner] returned the leotard to A.J. was not in a way (in terms of volume or sight) that could have attracted the attention of people who were more than an arm's length distance away." Ibid. Citing petitioner's "unrefuted" testimony, the ALJ disagreed that A.J. was "singled out" by petitioner to humiliate or intimidate her. Id. at 36. The ALJ further found that petitioner publicly recognized A.J.'s "gymnastic prowess" at the awards banquet, thereby negating any possibility that petitioner's conduct was motivated by A.J.'s lack of athletic ability. Ibid.

Furthermore, the ALJ criticized various aspects of the Board's HIB investigation, finding that Esposito and Miller asked irrelevant questions and failed to thoroughly interview petitioner about the manner of the leotard transfer. Id. at 32-39. The ALJ also faulted Esposito and Miller for considering general derogatory comments from those interviewed about petitioner's personality, coaching style, and character because those comments were not relevant to the HIB allegation. Ibid. Moreover, the ALJ reasoned that their consideration of these comments "tainted the decision-making process" and provided "a compelling reason to reverse the substantiation of the HIB charge." Id. at 48.

In the end, the ALJ concluded that petitioner's conduct did not satisfy the statutory definition of HIB set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. Specifically, the ALJ determined that the evidence failed to establish that petitioner's conduct: (1) could have been reasonably perceived as being motivated by any distinguishing characteristic possessed by A.J., including an alleged lack of gymnastics ability; or that (2) a reasonable person would have known or should have known that the conduct would have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student, insulting or demeaning a student, or creating a hostile educational environment for the student. Id. at 49-50.

At the outset, the Commissioner holds that the ALJ's discrediting of the Board's investigation, including the witness statements it obtained via interviews, and the testimony of Mast, Esposito, and Ryan based upon hearsay concerns, was erroneous. The Commissioner therefore declines to adopt the ALJ's findings and conclusions in that regard, which appear on pages 32 through 34, 36 through 39, and 47 through 50 of the Initial Decision. The ALJ improperly substituted his own judgment for that of the Board when he scrutinized the procedures used by district staff during the investigation and discredited relevant evidence presented by the Board.

The Act neither instructs boards how they must question those interviewed during HIB investigations nor defines acceptable sources of information for boards to consider when investigating HIB allegations. Specifically, the Act does not prohibit board reliance upon hearsay evidence. See L.K. and T.K., on behalf of minor child, A.K. v. Board of Education of the Township of Mansfield, Burlington County, Commissioner Decision No. 318-21 (Dec. 9, 2021) at 5, aff'd, 2023 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 1788 (App. Div. Oct. 17. 2023). Moreover, the ALJ's finding that the board's investigation was somehow tainted by its consideration of negative comments made by those interviewed about petitioner is speculative and has no basis in law.

In this case, district staff conducted a thorough HIB investigation and interviewed A.J., petitioner, and several eyewitnesses. All individuals interviewed had firsthand knowledge of the leotard incident as they were present at the awards banquet when it occurred. It was entirely reasonable for the Board to consider and evaluate these eyewitness accounts of what happened, alongside the statements from A.J. and petitioner, in rendering a HIB determination. By concluding that the district's investigation was flawed, the ALJ wrote requirements into the Act that the Legislature did not include and erroneously allowed that conclusion to influence the outcome of this matter. For these reasons, the Commissioner rejects the ALJ's finding on page 50 of the Initial Decision that petitioner's testimony and evidence was "unrefuted." See Hayes v. Gulli, 175 N.J. Super. 294, 301 (Ch. Div. 1980) (holding that an ALJ's "recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law must be based upon a complete and fair review of all the relevant evidence").

That said, because the record is devoid of evidence to establish that petitioner's conduct—even assuming it occurred exactly as the Board determined it to have occurred—substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students as is required by N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, the Commissioner holds that the Board's HIB determination is arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable. Thus, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ's recommendation to grant the petition of appeal, but for reasons other than those expressed in the Initial Decision.

The Act defines HIB as:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L. 2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the > student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

> [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.]

In sum, a finding of HIB requires three elements under the Act. First, the conduct must be reasonably perceived as being motivated by any actual or perceived characteristic expressly identified in the statute, or by any other distinguishing characteristic. Second, the conduct must substantially disrupt or interfere with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school. Third, one of the three conditions set forth in subsections (a), (b), and (c) must be satisfied. Wehbeh v. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Verona, Essex Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 510-20 (Feb. 4, 2020).

The Board made no findings in its HIB Incident Report regarding the second element, i.e., a substantial disruption or interference with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school. Yet, in its exceptions, the Board claims that petitioner's actions regarding the leotard at the awards banquet caused A.J. to suffer emotional harm which "substantially interfered with A.J.'s rights to safely and comfortably attend school, focus on learning, and participate in school activities and events with her peers, receiving the educational, social, and emotional benefits offered by the District's programs unobstructed by the emotional impact and distraction of acts of HIB committed by her gymnastics coach." Exceptions, at 13. However, the record fails to support this conclusory assertion.

Even assuming that the first element under the Act is satisfied, the Commissioner finds that nothing in the record indicates that A.J. was unable to comfortably attend school, focus on learning, and participate in school activities and events with her peers following the incident regarding the leotard. While A.J. was understandably embarrassed by what occurred, no substantial disruption or interference with her rights, the rights of other students, or the orderly operation of the school followed. There is no evidence in the record to suggest that the isolated incident involving the leotard carried over to subsequent school days or team events.

In conclusion, because the record fails to establish that petitioner's conduct as alleged by A.J. substantially disrupted or interfered with the rights of other students or the orderly operation of the school, the second element under the Act is not satisfied. Therefore, the Commissioner holds that petitioner's actions at the awards banquet regarding the leotard—while clearly inappropriate and unprofessional—did not constitute a HIB violation under the Act.[3] Consequently, it is unnecessary to analyze whether one of the three conditions set forth in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 was satisfied.

Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby granted. The Board is directed to remove any references to the HIB investigation and findings from petitioner's personnel file.[4]

IT IS SO ORDERED.[5]

Date of Decision: March 15, 2024
Date of Mailing: March 20, 2024

[3] The Commissioner in no way condones petitioner's conduct or minimizes A.J.'s feelings regarding the incident. Petitioner demonstrated poor judgment in bringing the leotard to the awards banquet and singling out A.J. to make a point in front of others on an evening meant to celebrate the athletes.

[4] If the incident is included in petitioner's personnel file for other reasons, such as violations of Board policies other than its HIB policy, this decision does not extend to those references. The only issue before the Commissioner is the HIB finding.

[5] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1. Under N.J.Ct.R. 2:4-1(b), a notice of appeal must be filed with the Appellate Division within 45 days from the date of mailing of this decision.

Record Closed: December 26, 2023 Decided: December 29, 2023

BEFORE: JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter arises out of allegations brought under N.J.S.A. 18A: 37-14, the "Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act" (hereinafter, the "statute"). Appellant, Lisa Cerchio (hereinafter "Cerchio"), filed for a Fair Hearing seeking to reverse the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education's affirmance of the School Superintendent's determination that Cerchio engaged in an act of HIB on December 16, 2019. The Respondent-BOE seeks an affirmance of the HIB determination.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The determination of the HIB investigators and Superintendent Joan Mast, Ph.D. (Dr. Mast) was delivered to the BOE on January 23, 2020. In that determination, Dr. Mast concluded that Lisa Cerchio engaged in a single act of HIB against A.J., a female student athlete, on December 16, 2019 at a school-related athetic Awards Banquet. The BOE held a hearing on February 20, 2020 and on that same date voted to affirm its prior action, i.e., affirming Superintendent Mast's determination. The Appellant filed her Petition of Appeal to the Commissioner of Education on May 19, 2020. The Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law on June 10, 2020, where it was filed on June 17, 2020 as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1, et seq. and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 et seq.

An initial telephone conference was held on August 20, 2020 and a Pre-Hearing Order was issued on August 20, 2020. In that Order the parties were directed to conduct discovery and to engage in telephone status conferences. On April 14, 2021, Attorney Silvestro filed a Motion for Summary Decision in favor of his client, the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education; and on the same date, Attorney Kaplow filed a Cross-Motion for Summary Decision in favor of his client, Lisa Cerchio. Additional papers were filed on May 4, 2021. The Tribunal denied both motions on September 9, 2021.

In the months following the September 9, 2021 Order Denying Summary Decision, the hearing dates were established and settlement talks took place, specifically following a Tribunal-sponsored Zoom conference on February 7, 2022. On February 7, 2022, the parties agreed to submit new Summary Decision Motions focusing on the following issues: (1) whether "lack of athletic ability" is a distinguishing characteristic under the Anti-Bullying Statute; (2) whether "[Student's] lack of ability (or lesser ability to her peers)" is a distinguishing characteristic under the Anti-Bullying Statute; and (3) whether the response "Not Determined" on the initial HIB Incident Report form dated December 18, 2019 is a significant factor in establishing or not establishing the charge of HIB. Appellant Cerchio filed her Motion for Summary Decision on February 7, 2022 and the Respondent BOE filed its Cross-Motion for Summary Decision on the same date. Both sides filed Opposition papers on March 9, 2022. The Respondent filed a Reply on March 14, 2022. The Petitioner did not file a Reply but filed a Sur-Reply on March 16, 2022. On March 18, 2022, the Respondent filed its own Sur-Reply.

Since the parties did not adequately address certain questions posed by the Tribunal in its February 8, 2022 correspondence (regarding the identification of certain documents), the Tribunal subsequently asked both counsel on April 1, 2022 to clarify matters by answering said questions. On April 1 and 4, 2022 both counsel submitted their responses to the Tribunal's questions.

The Motion and Cross-Motion were supported by Certifications and attachments. Both sides submitted their arguments regarding legal principles in light of the evidence and their interpretations of the existing case law.

The Tribunal asked both counsel to address the following legal issues: (A) whether "lack of athletic ability" is a distinguishing characteristic under the Anti-Bullying Statute; (B) whether "[Student's] lack of ability (or lesser ability to her peers)" is a distinguishing characteristic under the Anti-Bullying Statute; and (C) whether the response "Not Determined" on a certain document (i.e., (page 2 of the Incident Report Form signed by Dr. Mast on December 18, 2019) was a significant factor in establishing or not establishing the charge of HIB.

The Tribunal asked counsel, for purposes of this set of motions, to refrain from arguing facts and to solely address the legal issues set forth above. While the attorneys did argue their interpretations of existing case law regarding these legal issues, their arguments involved factual distinctions between the cited cases and the case at bar, and they also argued facts peculiar to the case at bar.

The BOE maintained that the HIB investigation, the determination of the School Superintendent and the subsequent February 20, 2020 BOE hearing were conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in the statute. Having examined the factual evidence derived from witnesses and documents and having demonstrated that the existing case law encompasses "lack of athletic ability" and "[Student's] lack of ability (or lesser ability to her peers)" as distinguishing characteristics cognizable under the statute, the BOE reached a determination that Cerchio engaged in an act of HIB. (This argument assumed that the BOE heard all relevant testimony, which presented a fact question.) The BOE maintained that whether the categories of "lack of athletic ability" and "[Student's] lack of ability (or lesser ability to her peers)" were no longer issues, Cerchio's only recourse was to bear her burden to somehow demonstrate that the BOE's decision was arbitrary and capricious.

Cerchio argued that the statute recognizes several traditional suspect classifications as distinguishing characteristics (e.g. race, religion, gender, etcetera) and recognizes that the statute is to be interpreted broadly. Despite the BOE's citation of C.C. o/b/o S.C. v. Jefferson Twp. Bd. of Educ., EDU-10872-2014, Initial Decision (April 6, 2015), adopted, Comm'r (May 12, 2015), where Judge Jesse Strauss, A.L.J. found "sports proficiency" to be within the meaning of the statute, Cerchio argued that there is no basis for including "lack of athletic ability" or "lesser ability" than one's peers to be a valid categorization of distinguishing characteristics under the statute. Moreover, Cerchio pointed to what she claimed was a total lack of any evidence that she ever stated or categorized A.J. as a person who was "lacking athletic ability" or as a person who had "less ability" than her peers. (This latter point, of course, was a fact question.)

Cerchio noted that on December 18, 2009 (one day after the first phone call from A.J.'s mother (M.J.) complaining that A.J. was a victim of HIB), in the section of the Incident Report Form where the actual or perceived characteristics were to be identified,

Dr. Mast checked a blank box on the Incident Report Form and wrote "Not Determined". Cerchio argued that when Dr. Mast checked this box and typed-in the words "Not Determined", it could only be interpreted as an admission that the School District had no idea of how or why Cerchio could have violated the HIB statute. The BOE's position was that the entry of "Not Determined" simply reflected that the matter was still under consideration. (This presented questions of fact and of law.) Ryan Miller and Brooke Esposito (the HIB Investigators) amended the Incident Report Form by adding the words "lack of athletic ability" to the category "Other Distinguishing Characteristic". The final version of the Incident Report Form was signed by Ryan Miller and Brooke Esposito (the HIB Investigator) and by Dr. David Heisey (School Principal) on January 13, 2020. It was signed by Dr. Mast (Superintendent) on January 23, 2020, the date on which she submitted the final version of the Incident Report Form to the BOE.

Cerchio argued that on the day (February 20, 2020) of its vote to affirm Dr. Mast's January 23, 2020 determination that Cerchio engaged in an act of HIB, the BOE refused to hear the testimony of witnesses who would have testified favorably on her behalf and that this worked against her interests. (This presented fact questions.)

I found that there were unresolved issues of material fact, and therefore, on April 19, 2022, I denied both the motion and the cross-motion for summary decision.

The matter was heard on the following dates: October 7, 12, 13, 14, and 17, 2022.

This writing is the undersigned's Initial Decision.

ANALYSIS OF FACTUAL ISSUES

The following is not intended to be a verbatim recitation of the content of documents, the testimony of witnesses, or of the arguments presented. Rather it is a summary of the contents of documents which I found particularly relevant, a summary of the testimony of witnesses, and a summary of allegations and facts used to support arguments, which I found significant and helpful to my understanding of the matter.

Summary and Analysis of the Exhibits Presented by Respondent and Appellant Respondent's Exhibits

R-1

The following is taken from the summary of the testimony of Dr. Joan Mast, infra. and an examination of R-1 itself. The HIB Incident Report Form dated 12/18/2019 contains the initial information reported on December 17, 2019 by M.J. (A.J.'s mother) to Superintendent Dr. Joan Mast. On December 18, 2019, Dr. Mast, as the person who first learned of the alleged incident of HIB from A.J.'s mother (M.J.), wrote an Incident Report Form and submitted it to High School Principal David Heisey on December 19, 2019. There is no indication on the form or in any of the testimony that Dr. Mast verbally reported the alleged December 16, 2019 incident of HIB to the principal on December 17 or 18, 2019. Dr. Mast stated in the Incident Report Form that the perceived characteristic that motivated the act of HIB was "Not Determined". The HIB Incident Report Form was subsequently amended by the HIB investigators, Athletic Director Ryan Miller ("Miller") and Assistant Principal Brooke Esposito (Esposito") on 1/13/2020.

According to her testimony, on December 18, 2019, Dr. Mast spoke with Assistant Principal Brooke Esposito and Athletic Director Ryan Miller and assigned them to conduct an HIB Investigation. According to the Incident Report Form (R-1), on December 19, 2019, Principal Heisey assigned a case number and asked the Anti-Bullying Specialists to start an HIB investigation.

Dr. Mast testified that Mr. Miller and Ms. Esposito decided to interview the following people: A.J. (the alleged victim of HIB); K.P.; K.G.; T.S.; E.G.; Tara Bozetarnik; and Lisa Cerchio. These people were interviewed between December 18, 2019 and December 20, 2019, except for Lisa Cerchio, who was interviewed on January 13, 2020. They did not interview anyone else. The HIB Incident Report Form was subsequently amended by the HIB investigators, Athletic Director Ryan Miller ("Miller") and Assistant Principal Brooke Esposito (Esposito") on January 13, 2020. Besides adding additional information from the interviews, Miller and Esposito, on January 13, 2020, changed the "perceived characteristic" box from "Not Determined" to "lack of athletic ability".

A summary of each interview conducted by Brooke Esposito and Ryan Miller follows:

Interview of A.J. (a Tenth Grader)

A.J.'s interview consisted of eight paragraphs. A.J. mentions the leotard in the second, third and eighth paragraphs. A.J. claimed that at the Awards Banquet Cerchio "went 'on and on' about the leotards"; that "everyone had to return the leotards to Cerchio's house, but one student did not"; that Cerchio "went on about that"; and that Cerchio said, "That being said, A.J., come get your leotard." A.J.'s interview contains her statement, "After I took the leotard, I was like, 'Oh my god, I can't believe she did that.'" A.J. further stated that her friend, S.K., and S.K.'s mother also said that they couldn't believe that Cerchio "did that". (Neither S.K. nor S.K.'s mother were interviewed.) A.J. further stated that Tara Bozetarnik (Assistant Coach) also said that it was inappropriate. A.J. stated that Cerchio gave her the leotard and told her to bring it back to the high school.

In the first paragraph of her interview, A.J. complained that in October, 2018, "some girls" started a rumor about her (i.e., A.J.). A.J. went on to say that Cerchio "didn't try to quiet it, but instead talked to all of the team members and asked them about it." A.J. went on to say that Cerchio "didn't listen to my side of the story"; and "didn't listen to anything I said"; and that Cerchio "interviewed everyone and then believed the other girl (T.S.)." A.J. stated that because of this incident she "felt very targeted."

A.J. mentioned the Awards Banquet in the second and seventh paragraphs of her interview. The content of the second paragraph has been set forth above. In the seventh paragraph, A.J. stated that Cerchio called A.J. up to accept a certificate, which was something that surprised A.J. Then A.J. went on to say that when Cerchio called her up to receive her certificate, Cerchio "didn't say anything bad about me."

A.J. stated that Cerchio was "harassing the team captains" because she emailed them saying that "someone" had left a leotard. A.J. noted that the leotard had her name on it and so Cerchio should have known to whom it belonged. A.J. claimed that she was not included on an email sent by Cerchio instructing the team members that if they returned their leotards late, they would have to bring them to Ryan Miller's office.

In the fourth, fifth and sixth paragraphs of A.J.'s interview, A.J. complained that Cerchio "picks favorites" (i.e., she favors certain members of the team whom she likes) and is mean to those whom she does not like (like team members K.P. and K.G.). A.J. stated that Cerchio likes team members who work-out at a gym called Sergeants and dislikes those who work-out at the YMCA. In the sixth paragraph, apparently in response to a question about Cerchio texting team members, A.J. specifically stated, "It is common for coaches to text individuals" and explained that Cerchio does so because she does not work at the school.

In the fifth paragraph of A.J.'s interview, A.J. complained that Cerchio "never gave me the chance to compete". A.J. stated that after she was moved down from the Junior Varsity Team to the Practice Team, she met with Cerchio to say that she did not agree with Cerchio's decision. A.J. recalled that Cerchio's explanation was "I think you have more to work on", but A.J.'s statement gave no further specifics about their conversation. A.J. admitted that there were several people besides her who had been moved down from Junior Varsity to the Practice Team. A.J. stated that she suffered a back injury and went on to complain that Cerchio "wasn't understanding" about it.

Interview of K.P. (a Twelfth Grader)

K.P.'s interview consists of four paragraphs. K.P. mentions the banquet, the leotard, and Cerchio's statements about the return of the leotards in the first paragraph of her interview; and she briefly mentions her account of reactions to Cerchio's statement in the second paragraph of her interview.

In the first paragraph, K.P. says that Cerchio stated that all but one of the team members returned their leotards. K.P. claims that "she" (presumably she means A.J.) was "called-out" in front of "everyone". K.P. does not state that Cerchio identified A.J. as the person who did not return her leotard. K.P.'s statement also does not reference the timing of Cerchio's statement (during her address to the assembled parents while the banquet was ongoing, or at the end of the banquet while people were getting ready to leave).

In the second paragraph, K.P. immediately stated her own unequivocal dislike of Cerchio. K.P. stated that she did not get along with Cerchio. She gave her opinion that Cerchio is "mean" and that "everything out of her mouth is mean." K.P. re-focused her interview on her own subjective experiences with Cerchio, accusing Cerchio of calling her and K.G. "cancer to the team" and accusing Cerchio of encouraging her and K.G. to quit the team.

In the third paragraph (the longest in the notes of her interview), K.P. says nothing about A.J., the banquet, the return of the leotard, or Cerchio's conduct. Instead, she focuses on Cerchio's supposed unexplainable dislike of K.P. and K.G. (despite K.P.'s claim that they were "two of the best people on the team"). K.P. stated that because she and K.G. did not like Cerchio, they quit the team during their 11th grade, but nonetheless returned in their 12th grade. K.P. stated that everyone complained about Cerchio to the Assistant Coach (Tara Bozetarnik), whom she described as "great".

The Fourth paragraph seems to be a quotation, but it is not attributed to anyone. It is simply impossible to understand or interpret.

Interview of K.G. (a Twelfth Grader)

K.G.'s interview consists of five paragraphs. K.G. mentioned the Awards Banquet only in the first and second paragraphs and mentioned the process for returning the leotards only in the second paragraph. The third, fourth and fifth paragraphs contain no information about the dinner or the return of the leotards.

In the first paragraph, K.G. recounted how Cerchio called each team member's name one at a time for each of them to come forward while she recognized each of them for what each girl had brought to the team.

In the second paragraph, K.G. stated her recollection of the return of the leotards. K.G. recalled that, while thanking the parents (apparently at the end of the evening), Cerchio "... said loudly, 'A.J., here is your leotard. I've been waiting for you to come and get it and bring it to Mr. Miller'". K.G. also stated in paragraph two that Cerchio texted the team captains asking them to send a group chat out advising that someone brought her leotard late and needed to get it and bring it (to the school) herself.

In the third paragraph, K.G. described her relationship with Cerchio and her interactions with her since 9th grade. In regard to the frequency of competing in meets, K.G. stated that in 9th grade and 10th grade Cerchio gave her a lot of opportunities to compete. K.G. did not mention how often she competed in 11th grade and 12th grade, but indicated that because the team had numerous "good" freshman members, she did not compete as much in her 12th grade as she did previously.

In the third paragraph, K.G. also spoke about the relationship and interactions that she and her mother had with Cerchio. K.G. plainly stated, "I strongly dislike her (i.e., Cerchio)." She stated that she and her mother avoid Cerchio and only speak with Tara Bozetarnik, the Assistant Coach. K.G. explained that she believes that Cerchio is "condescending" and "thinks that she is above everyone". K.G. stated that in her sophomore year (10th grade), "I gave her (Cerchio) attitude and a hard time."

In the fourth paragraph, K.G. spoke about her belief that Cerchio treats people differently based on their level of talent or experience. (This was apparently in response to a question about favoritism and the creation of three levels of teams, Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Practice.) K.G. stated, "It's me and K.P. she (Cerchio) doesn't really like." K.G. then expressed her opinion that Cerchio treated the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Practice people "like separate teams" and that Cerchio left the Junior Varsity and Practice team members to be handled by Tara Bozetarnik. In regard to differential treatment by Cerchio of girls who were members of the Sergeants versus the YMCA (two outside gymnastics clubs), K.G. explained, "It's not true that she (Cerchio) makes them go to Sergeants." K.G. further explained that girls who attended Sergeants (herself included) had more fun. However, K.G. expressed her opinion that "[t]hey (the girls who attended the YMCA) may have been treated differently, but not as good."

In the fifth paragraph, K.G. gave her opinion about Assistant Coach, Tara Bozetarnik. K.G. said that she would have quit the team if she were not the Assistant Coach. K.G. described Bozetarnik as "a genuinely nice person" and "a good addition", who on one occasion "did a compliment circle" during which she and team members recognized girls who don't usually get recognition. The last statement attributed to K.G. on the interview form concerned her account of an event where the Town's mayor planned to recognize the gymnastics team. K.G. explained that she heard from two team members that Tara Bozetarnik had told them that Cerchio, before the event, texted her telling her not to attend the event.

Interview of T.S. (a Tenth Grader)

The interview of T.S. contains four paragraphs. The first and second paragraphs contain general information, including T.S's. information about the Awards Banquet and the return of the leotards. The first and third paragraphs contain information from T.S. about her interactions with Cerchio. The fourth paragraph contains T.S's. opinion about favoritism.

In the first paragraph T.S. stated that she was nervous about what Cerchio was going to say about her at the Awards Banquet. T.S. gives no indication about why she was anxious. She does not indicate whether she was concerned about being recognized for her good performances or whether she was concerned that Cerchio might say something derogatory about her. Her statement is simply not clear on this point. In the first paragraph, T.S. spoke about "the way things ended" at the close of her freshman year (ninth grade). (Apparently, T.S. was referring either to Cerchio's investigation of whether A.J. body-shamed T.S. or she was referring to an event when Cerchio counselled her for having performed an unauthorized and dangerous gymnastic move.) In the second paragraph of her interview, T.S. stated that Cerchio was talking to the dinner attendees about the fact that the team members had been given a certain amount of time to return their leotards and mentioned that she (Cerchio) had made telephone calls at night concerning the return of the leotards. T.S. stated that during this portion of her speech, Cerchio asked A.J. to come get her leotard.

In the first and third paragraphs of her interview, T.S. explained more about the unauthorized gymnastic move she had performed, which Cerchio had discouraged her from performing. T.S. also said that she is more comfortable dealing with Tara Bozetarnik than Lia Cerchio. T.S. also said that as a freshman she won the MVP plaque, that she loved gymnastics, and that she loved being with her teammates.

In the fourth paragraph of her interview, T.S. expressed her opinion (apparently in response to a question about favoritism) that there is some favoritism, but she never felt it. Finally, T.S. said that someone named S.__. won the MVP. However, T.S. expressed her opinion that another team member named C.__. also received votes for the MVP award. When Cerchio announced that S.__. had won the MVP award by a unanimous vote, T.S. disagreed and told the interviewer that this was not the truth.

Interview of E.G. (a twelfth grader)

The interview of E.G. consists of nine paragraphs. The only information provided by E.G. about the Awards Banquet is in the first paragraph. The only information about Cerchio's return of the leotard to A.J. is in the second paragraph. Paragraphs three through nine contain information and opinions not relevant to the issue of the time, place or manner of the return of A.J.'s leotard.

In the first paragraph of her interview, E.G. says that Cerchio called upon each and every girl on the team to come forward to receive recognition and that she said nice things about each of them.

In the second paragraph, E.G. says that when the seniors or the captains were standing, Cerchio reached into her bag and said to A.J., "[T]his is for you", and threw the leotard at A.J. (apparently in front of everyone at the Awards Banquet). E.G. also said that there had been "bad blood" between Cerchio and A.J. in the past.

In paragraphs three through nine, E.G. mentioned: that Tara Bozetarnik told the team members that Cerchio had told her that she was excluded from a town meeting (apparently the day of the Mayor's recognition of the team); that there was an incident during A.J.'s freshman year (Ninth Grade) involving A.J. and T.S., which E.G. believed was mishandled by Cerchio; that K.P. and K.G. intentionally did things to get Cerchio mad and that Cerchio seemingly retaliated by placing them on the Junior Varsity team when they were seniors; that Cerchio made J.V. and Practice Squad members observe the Varsity practice, but only worked with the Varsity; that Cerchio excluded the Practice Squad from attending non-home (i.e., "away") meets claiming falsely that there was no room for them on the team bus; and, that Cerchio was spiteful to the J.V. and Practice Squad members by giving team tee-shirts only to the Varsity.

Interview of Tara Bozetarnik (Assistant Coach)

The interview of Tara Bozetarnik consists of five paragraphs. Tara Bozetarnik mentions the Awards Banquet and the return of the leotard in paragraphs one and three of her interview. In the first paragraph, Bozetarnik said that during the Awards Banquet Cerchio was making a speech about the members of the team, but then shifted to the topic of the return of the leotards. Cerchio asked a rhetorical question to the parents (banquet guests) about the number of times that she emailed them about the return of the leotards. Bozetarnik then said that Cerchio took the leotard out and threw it at A.J. Bozetarnik said that she looked at A.J.'s face after this happened and felt terrible for her. Bozetarnik related how she later called A.J. and offered her kind words. Bozetarnik said that this was Cerchio's personality and offered her opinion that she did not believe that Cerchio did it with any premeditation. In the third paragraph, Bozetarnik stated that Cerchio "put me down at the banquet". She did not specify what Cerchio said or did that constituted "putting her down". Bozetarnik added that she considered that part of her job was "to pick up the underdogs, the kids who were labelled". She did not specify what she meant by "underdogs" or identify which kids had been "labelled" or by whom they had been "labelled". Bozetarnik said that A.J. was "an underdog".

In the second paragraph, Bozetarnik said that Cerchio "told me not to go [to the Town Mayor's recognition]"and "that I didn't need to be there." Bozetarnik stated that team members had texted her asking why she was not present at the Town's Mayor's recognition event and she felt bad because she was not there. Bozetarnik stated that Cerchio referred to the Town recognition event in her speech at the Awards Banquet.

In the fourth and fifth paragraphs, Bozetarnik said that Cerchio "has favorites", namely those athletes who perform well and are "at the top". Bozetarnik stated that Cerchio "parents" (i.e., raises her own children) the same way, saying, "Her kids have to be the best."

Interview of Lisa Cerchio (The alleged perpetrator of HIB)

Lisa Cerchio's interview consists of four paragraphs. In paragraphs one, two and three Cerchio mentions the banquet, the process for the return of the leotards, and A.J. In the fourth paragraph, apparently in response to a questions inquiring why she (Cerchio) did not return the leotard to the school, she simply responded that, "It wasn't a matter of "utmost importance" and "[A.J.] did not follow the right protocol for returning [the leotard]".

In paragraphs one, two, and three, Cerchio recounted the evening of the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet for the interviewers. Apparently in response to the questions she was asked, she focused particularly on the issue of the returning of the leotard. Cerchio explained that Ryan Miller, the Athletic Director, had told her that the leotards had to be returned by a certain date. (During her testimony, Cerchio explained that Miller needed to send the leotards for re-furbishing by a certain upcoming date and needed them soon.) Cerchio stated that her job made it inconvenient for the girls to drop the leotards off at her home after the end of her workday. Cerchio explained that she sent group texts to the team captains for them to tell the team members to drop off their leotards in a box on the porch of her house. She explained that the girls had over two weeks to comply with the drop-off request. In her last group text, she told the girls that 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday was the last time for dropping the leotards to her house and that if the leotards were not there by 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, then the girls would have to drop the leotards off at the school. Cerchio said that she took the leotards she had and dropped them off at the school at 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday. However, A.J. or her mother returned her leotard after she had already dropped off the leotards at the school. Therefore, Cerchio sent two messages to A.J. instructing her to come to her house, pick up the leotard, and deliver it to Mr. Miller. Since neither A.J. nor her mother picked up the leotard, Cerchio brought it to the banquet. (Cerchio's in-court testimony was that Mr. Miller told her to bring the leotard to the Awards Banquet to give it to A.J.)

In the second paragraph of her interview, Cerchio stated that she brought the leotard to the Awards Banquet. By 6:30 p.m. Cerchio had not seen A.J. Cerchio said that she spoke from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. talking about the season and recognizing all the student athletes. She recalled that she spoke the highest she could about anyone on the team. At the end of her speech, Cerchio recalled that she had forgotten to thank the parents. She thanked the parents and apologized to anyone whom she had to text about returning leotards on short notice. She added that the girls had had a lot of notice about returning the leotards. Her speech was finished and the parents were already in the process of getting up to leave. She then remembered that she had the leotard in her coaching bag. She told the interviewer that she took the leotard out of her coaching bag and walked it over to where A.J. was sitting with fellow team members and told her to bring it to the Athletic Office. (During her testimony, Cerchio stated that the location where she had been speaking to the parents was in the front of the room and was about six to ten feet from where A.J. was sitting with her friends. She testified that there was no raised platform or "stage". Cerchio testified that when she spoke to the gathering of parents, she had to speak in a higher voice to address the entire room. However, when she walked over to A.J. and told her to bring the leotard to Mr. Miller's office, she did so in a normal conversational voice, (i.e., a lower volume than when she spoke to the assembled parents) since she was only an arm's length away from A.J.)

According to the interviewer (Bates Stamp R0012 and R0013) Cerchio said that her intent was to give A.J. the leotard, not to harass her. (During her in-court testimony, Cerchio stated that she leaned-over several students and handed the leotard to A.J. instructing her to bring it to Mr. Miller's office. She also mentioned that Ryan Miller told her to bring the remaining leotard to the Awards Banquet.)

These are the Interrogatories sent to Cerchio by the Respondent and Cerchio's answers to same. The notable responses made by Cerchio include the following information:

(1) In response to Interrogatory Questions 3, 4 and 5, Cerchio denied that she ever harassed or otherwise bullied A.J. in any way at any time. Cerchio added that she walked over to A.J., leaned over several seated girls and handed the leotard to A.J. while instructing her to return the leotard to the office of Mr. Ryan Miller (the Athletic Director), who would be expecting it.

(2) In response to Interrogatory Question 6, inquiring about what evidence or facts the BOE failed to investigate or failed to consider during the HIB investigation, Cerchio responded that the BOE did not give certain persons who were present at the BOE's meeting the opportunity to provide factual information to the BOE, which would have demonstrated that Cerchio was not guilty of an HIB violation.

Moreover, Cerchio claimed that Athletic Director Ryan Miller knew that there were witnesses who were biased against her, yet he hand-picked these witnesses to be interviewed by the HIB investigators. The nature of the bias was that these witnesses had previously been disciplined by Cerchio. Cerchio had disciplined one of these people arising out of a prior incident wherein A.J. had allegedly body-shamed an African-American student. Cerchio claimed that and that the report of same was in Miller's possession, yet he never mentioned the report to the HIB investigators. Cerchio claims that the report would have revealed to the HIB investigators the bias that some of these witnesses had against her. Cerchio explained the counselling of T.S. for performing a dangerous move.

Moreover, Cerchio claimed that the husband of Assistant Coach Tara Bozetarnak told Mr. Cerchio that Tara Bozetarnak claimed that she had been mis-quoted in her statement to the BOE's Investigators and that Tara Bozetarnik wanted to withdraw or correct that statement.

(3) In response to Interrogatory Question 7, inquiring into whether the BOE violated any procedural requirements of the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, Cerchio responded that she was not formally notified of the HIB allegations (arising out of the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet) against her until January 7, 2020, which violated the time deadlines provided in the Act.

(4) In response to Interrogatory Question 8, inquiring into what "close relationships' existed between the "HIB accuser" and certain BOE members and / or Administrators, Cerchio responded in several ways. Cerchio stated that during the investigation, while she was being interviewed by Esposito and Miller, she asked about the specific acts of HIB of which she was being accused. Cerchio stated that Esposito responded with a litany of facts (including allegations that Cerchio threw the leotard at A.J. while they were on a stage in front of the parents and that Cerchio continually berated A.J. in front of everyone for not returning her leotard as directed). Cerchio noted that there was no stage and that these facts as recited by Esposito were not true and, more importantly, were not noted in any of the interviews of the witnesses. Cerchio noted that this means that Esposito must have learned of these allegations outside of the investigative process.

Esposito is an Assistant Principal and HIB Specialist (an Investigator of the HIB alleged to have occurred herein). Cerchio alleges that Esposito's secretary is named Jill Rebuth and that Ms. Rebuth is the Aunt and Godmother of A.J. It appears that Cerchio believes that this close working relationship between Esposito and Rebuth may have been an improper source of information, which may have improperly affected the investigation process.

Cerchio alleges that Ryan Miller, should have, but never did reveal to his fellow HIB Investigator that he ordered Cerchio to return the leotard to A.J. at the Awards Banquet.

Cerchio alleges that Tanya Williams was present during the HIB investigation and took part in discussions related to the charge of HIB. Mandy (A.J.'s mother) initiated the HIB charges when she called Principal Joan Mast on December 18, 2019. Cerchio believes that Tanya Williams should have recused herself from any participation in the HIB process because she is a close personal friend of Mandy (A.J.'s mother).

(5) In response to Interrogatory Question 9, inquiring into what contacts Ms. Cerchio, her husband or her attorney had with any witnesses who were interviewed during or after the HIB investigation was conducted, Cerchio responded with the names of people who were present at the Awards Banquet and who saw what transpired at the Awards Banquet, but who were never interviewed by the HIB

Investigators. Cerchio alleges that if these witnesses had been interviewed by the HIB Investigators, each of these witnesses would have exonerated her.

R-6

R-6 begins with an email dated December 19,2019 at 11:06:58 p.m. sent by the Team Parent, Ellen Zimmerman to Lisa Cerchio. The email contains the draft of a letter, which Zimmerman intended to send to Athletic Director Ryan Miller as a testimonial to Lisa Cerchio. Zimmerman later sent the letter to Miller. The details of the letter are discussed in the summary of Lisa Cerchip's testimony, particularly in the discussion of Attorney Silvestro's cross-examination of Lisa Cerchio. The remainer of R-6 is a series of emails transmitting a copy of the December 19, 2019 email among several people on October 12, 2022, on October 13, 2022, and on October 14, 2022.

Summary and Analysis of the Testimony of the Various Witnesses at the Hearing
Summary of the Testimony of Brooke Esposito

Assistant Principal Brook Esposito (Esposito) was one of two people chosen by Superintendent Joan Mast on December 18, 2019 to serve as an HIB Investigator in the matter of Lisa Cerchio. She stated that she had conducted approximately 100 HIB investigations before conducting the Cerchio investigation.

Esposito and Athletic Director Ryan Miller conducted interviews of A.J., K.P., K.G. T.S., E.G., Tara Bozetarnik (Assistant Gymnastics Coach) and Lisa Cerchio (Gymnastic Coach and the Target of the HIB Investigation). Each interviewee was questioned separately and Esposito wrote a separate report for each of them. Esposito stated that her method was to pose a general question to the interviewee that did not direct the interviewee's attention to any one topic. Each initial question was something like "Did anything unusual occur during the season?" Esposito stated that as she and Miller questioned the interviewees, she rapidly typed what they stated, trying to obtain their exact responses, but admitted that she had to "go back and clean it up".

The first interview conducted was that of the alleged victim, A.J. Esposito stated that when conducting an HIB investigation, she always starts with an interview of the alleged victim. When asked the initial general question, A.J. immediately started talking about the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet, particularly focusing on the end of Cerchio's speech to the assembled banquet guests. A.J. focused on Cerchio going 'on and on' about the fact that some girls returned their leotards in a timely manner, but one girl did not. She went on to say that Cerchio then looked at her and said, "A.J., here is your leotard", in front of everyone, which made A.J. feel embarrassed. A.J. went on to tell Esposito that Cerchio "picks favorites" and "didn't give her a chance to compete". Esposito stated that A.J. mentioned a few names of gymnasts, and that she and Miller decided to interview these people.

The second interview was that of K.P. Esposito stated that she wanted to interview K.P. because A.J. indicated that K.P.'s experiences with Cerchio were similar to hers. Starting again with a general question, K.P. responded by saying that Cerchio spoke to the assembled guests at the banquet about how all the team members returned their leotards except one girl. K.P. stated that Cerchio immediately called for A.J. to come forward to receive her leotard. K.P. then offered her personal opinions about Cerchio, which included her statement that she did not get along with Cerchio; that everything that comes out of Cerchio's mouth was mean; that Cerchio continually asked her if she was quitting the team; and that Cerchio called her a "cancer" to the team. Esposito testified that A.J.'s and K.P.'s information was important because it indicated that Cerchio's behavior made these girls feel that they were not part of the team.

The third interview was that of K.G. Esposito stated that K.G. was interviewed because she was mentioned by A.J. and K.P. Starting with the same type of general question, K.G. responded by focusing on Cerchio's texting the team captains regarding the return of the leotards warning that if they were brought to her late the girl would have to return them to the school themselves. K.G. said that at the Awards Banquet Cerchio said in front of everyone in a loud voice to A.J., "Here's your leo. I've been waiting for you to come get it and bring it to Mr. Miller." In response to a question from the BOE's counsel, Mr. Silvestro about whether Esposito thought A.J., K.P. ad K.G. were being truthful to her, Esposito responded that she had no reason to suspect that they were being less than honest and she also stated that their accounts of the evening of December 16th were the same (i.e., consistent).

Esposito quoted K.G. as saying, "It's me and K.P. she (Cerchio) doesn't like." Esposito also quoted K.G. as saying, "She (Cerchio) doesn't pay attention [to the] J.V. or Practice [teams]" and "She treated us like a separate team." Esposito testified that "it wasn't until this student [K.G.] that I realized that there was such a staunch difference between JV and Varsity." She added, "[T]his student spoke to how there was the group that got all the attention ... but then the JV kids were kind of left to Tara."

The fourth interview was that of T.S. Esposito stated that T.S. was interviewed because A.J. referenced her as the person with whom she had a conflict during the 2018 season. Esposito reasoned that T.S. should be interviewed because she was not one of A.J.'s friends and because A.J. felt that the incident between her and T.S. may have been part of the origins of A.J.'s difficulties with Cerchio.

Starting with the same type of general question, T.S. responded by talking about her attendance at the Awards Banquet. T.S. said that she was nervous about attending the banquet because Cerchio was going to speak. T.S. then shifted her testimony to talk about Cerchio's alleged favoritism towards the girls who attended the gym named Sargent's over those who attended the YMCA. However, T.S. concluded that although there may have been favoritism, she never experienced it.

The fifth interview was that of E.G., a team captain. Esposito stated that she wanted to interview a captain since captains were selected by Cerchio and because she believed that a captain would be unbiased. Starting with the same type of general question (whether there was anything out of the ordinary during the 2019 season) Esposito reported that E.G. went directly to the topic of the return of the leotards and how Cerchio took the leotard out of her bag and threw it at A.J. Esposito followed-up by relating that E.G. said the Cerchio "holds grudges"; that she thinks that Cerchio, as an adult leader, had acted inappropriately; that Cerchio segregated the teams more than necessary; and that at practices Cerchio only paid attention to the Varsity, leaving the J.V. and Practice Team members to think that they didn't belong there.

The sixth interview was that of Tara Bozetarnik. In this interview, Esposito did not start with a general question, but rather questioned Bozetarnik about what she heard and saw at the Awards Banuet. Esposito reported that Bozetarnik responded by saying that Cerchio was talking about individual kids, but then shifted her speech to the subject of the return of the leotards. Esposito reported that Bozetarnik related that a girl returned her leotard late leaving, it on her porch; that Cerchio texted the girl several times; and then Cerchio asked the assembled parents, "How many times did I email you?", after which Cerchio picked up the leotard and threw it at A.J. Bozetarnik told Esposito that A.J. was embarrassed by what Cerchio did and that Bozetarnik, feeling sorry for A.J., told A.J. afterwards that she was "beautiful" and that she "mattered". Esposito reported that Bozetarnik commented that this event was due to Cerchio's personality, but she did not think the throwing of the leotard was premeditated. Esposito reported that Bozetarnik also explained that Cerchio's personality was such that she favors those at the top and that "winning is everything". Esposito reported that gave an example of favoritism was when Cerchio would let T.S. get away with bad conduct because T.S. was a very good gymnast and was Cerchio's favorite for a time. Esposito reported that Bozetarnik also volunteered information about how Cerchio raises her children saying, "Her (Cerchio's) kids have to be the best." Esposito reported that Bozetarnik claimed that Cerchio "put me down at the banquet" (but did not say what, in particular, Cerchio had said or done to diminish Bozetarnik). Esposito reported that Bozetarnik believed her role with the team was "to pick up the underdogs, the kids who were labelled" and she described A.J. as "an underdog".

The seventh interview was that of Lisa Cerchio, the person accused of the HIB violation. Esposito's report starts with Cerchio stating that there was a gymnast who had not returned her leotard for two weeks. Esposito reported that Cerchio explained that Mr. Miller had set a due date for the return of the leotards, which she tried to implement by sending texts to the girls through the captains and by her own efforts. Esposito reported that Cerchio said that when the girl's mother returned it, she returned it after the deadline. Despite additional texts to the girl, the girl still failed to pick it up and bring it to the Athletic Office. Espositio reported that Cerchio brought the leotard to the Awards Banquet.

Esposito's report then shifts to Cerchio's account of the Awards Banquet. She reports that Cerchio described how she spoke to the assembled parents from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., calling upon each girl on the team to be recognized and praising the achievements of each girl. Esposito then reported that Cerchio stated that at the end of her speech, as people were getting up from their seats ready to leave, she realized that she had not thanked the parents for their help during the season., So Cerchio began speaking again giving her thanks to the parents and also apologizing for the fact that she had sent them so many emails about the need to return the leotards. She added that the girls had a lot of notice about the need to return the leotards. Esposito reported that in Cerchio's account of the return of the leotard to A.J., Cerchio said, "I walked over to where the gymnast was sitting and told her to bring it to the Athletic Office" and that Cerchio told her. "My intent was to get her the leotard – not to harass her." In addition, Esposito reported that Cerchio described the circumstances of the venue at the time she transferred the leotard to A.J. as, "People were moving and getting their jackets." The last entry of Esposito's report is where Esposito reported that she asked Cerchio why she did not return the leotard to the high school herself. Esposito reported that Cerchio's response was that the return of the leotard was not of utmost importance and also that A.J. had not followed the right protocol for returning it.

Summary of the Testimony of Ryan Miller

Ryan Miller testified that he is an Assistant Principal and the high school's Athletic Director, and he has supervisory responsibilities over the school's coaches. He testified that he, along with Assistant Principal Brooke Esposito, were assigned by Superintendent Joan Mast to conduct the HIB investigation of Lisa Cerchio regarding the occurrence at the December 16, 2023 Awards Banquet. He testified that neither he nor Ms. Esposito attended the Awards Banquet.

Miller testified that Esposito wrote the Interview Report Summaries for each interviewee and then he reviewed and signed them agreeing with their content. Miller signed them on January 13, 2020 and testified that between January 13, 2020 and the day of his court testimony he did not acquire any knowledge that would change his belief regarding the accuracy of the interviewees' statements.

Among the statements of the interviewees that Miller agreed with were the following:

E.G.'s statement that Cerchio made the teams (Varsity, Junior Varsity and Practice) "more segregated" than they needed to be during practices and concerning bus rides to "away" meets. In regard to the accusation that Cerchio held back the distribution of team tank tops from the J.V. and Practice teams and only gave them to the Varsity, Miller clarified that it was he, not Cerchio, who had ordered fewer tank tops than required. Miller admitted that that he told Cerchio to only distribute the tank tops to the Varsity. He confirmed that afterwards, additional tank tops arrived. When asked if he had any knowledge about whether Cerchio distributed the later-acquired tank tops, he responded that he did not know the answer to that question. On cross-examination, Miller stated that he never discussed the subject of the tank tops with Cerchio when she was interviewed.

Another statement of an interviewees that Miller agreed with was Tara Bozetarnik's statement that Cerchio told her not to attend an event where part of the festivities included recognition of the SP-F High School gymnastics team by the Mayor and Town Council. On cross-examination, Miller stated that he never discussed this accusation with Cerchio.

Miller made another statement wherein he stated that he considered it intimidating for a coach (Cerchio) to ask her team members to return their leotards to her front porch and to later text them, when all leotards had not yet been returned, to return them as requested. Miller admitted that he told Cerchio that he needed the leotards by a certain date in order to send them to a vendor for re-furbishing.

During his direct testimony, Miller testified that he believed that Cerchio's conduct regarding her public return of the leotard to A.J. (which he emphasized was "a single incident") was motivated by A.J.'s "lack of athletic ability". He explained that after hearing the interviewees, he ascertained "a very strong divide between who was perceived as better, Varsity, and who was perceived [as] lower, JV and Practice Squad." He added, "[I]t became very apparent that there was an issue within the program of treating athletes who had more athletic skill differently than athletes who did not." Miller admitted that neither he nor Esposito bothered to question Cerchio on the issue of whether A.J. "lacked" athletic ability. They did not question Cerchio about their perception of a "strong divide" among the teams, about favoritism, and about how the division of the team into three levels (which Miller, Bozetarnik and Cerchio all previously agreed was the right thing to do) might have had unintended results.

During his re-cross-examination testimony, Ryan Miller stated that A.J. suggested that K.P. and K.G. had relevant information about the alleged HIB, and so, he and Esposito decided to interview them.

Summary of the Testimony of Dr. Joan Mast

Dr. Joan Mast, Superintendent of Schools, testified as follows. She filled-out an HIB Incident Report Form dated December 18,2019. It includes the initial information reported to her on December 17, 2019 by M.J. (A.J.'s mother) regarding her allegations of HIB that occurred at the Awards Banquet of December 16, 2019. On December 18, 2019, Dr. Mast, as the person who first learned of the alleged incident of HIB from A.J.'s mother (M.J.), wrote an Incident Report Form and submitted it to High School Principal David Heisey on December 19, 2019. There is no indication on the form or in any of the testimony that Dr. Mast verbally reported the alleged December 16, 2019 incident of HIB to the principal on December 17 or 18, 2019. Dr. Mast stated in the Incident Report Form that the perceived characteristic that motivated the act of HIB was "Not Determined".

Dr. Mast testified that on December 18, 2019, she spoke with Assistant Principal Brooke Esposito and Athletic Director Ryan Miller and assigned them to conduct an HIB Investigation. According to the Incident Report Form (R-1), on December 19, 2019, Principal Heisey assigned a case number and asked the Anti-Bullying Specialists to start an HIB investigation. The HIB investigators made findings of fact after they interviewed several people and they changed the distinguishing characteristic from "not determined" to "lack of athletic ability".

Based only upon her reading of the content of the interviews conducted by Mr. Miller and Ms. Esposito, Dr. Mast adopted the factual findings and conclusions made by Mr. Miller and Ms. Esposito. Those findings of fact and conclusions included the following:

(1) that Cerchio held onto A.J.'s leotard for three weeks and used the opportunity of the banquet to single-out A.J. in front of all the people present to publicly intimidate and humiliate her for not returning her team leotard in a timely fashion;

(2) that Cerchio "dropped" the leotard "at" A.J.;

(3) that A.J. reasonably perceived that Cerchio's motivation for doing so was to highlight a distinguishing characteristic of A.J, namely her "lack of athletic ability";

(4) that Cerchio sent "harassing" texts to A.J.;

(5) that Cerchio knew or should have known that by publicly calling attention to A.J.'s failure to return her leotard she would emotionally harm (i.e., embarrass) A.J.; and

(6) that the best description of the HIB behavior was that it was "Intimidating Conduct".

Summary of the Testimony of Lisa Cerchio

During Cerchio's testimony, Cerchio testified that Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School has one of the largest gymnastics programs in New Jersey and that it was one of the first programs to have a Junior Varsity Team in addition to the Varsity team. This contributed to the decision by her, Assistant Coach Boztarnik, and Athletic Director Ryan Miller to break the 28 girls down to three levels, Varsity, Junior Varsity and Practice Teams. Cerchio testified that she and Tara Bozetarnik used the NJSIAA Handbook to come up with objective criteria (and composed a rubric) to rank each girl involved with Gymnastics for the purpose of placing them on the Varsity, Junior Varsity and Practice Teams. The gymnasts themselves filled-out paperwork using the rubric that was based on NJSIAA criteria. The coaches also totalled the points which each girl earned during competitions. The coaches decided the team on which each girl would be placed and met with each girl to explain the placements. Cerchio testified that A.J. came to her to question why she went down from the Junior Varsity Team to the Practice Team. They discussed the rubric and A.J. said, "Okay". Cerchio testified that during the course of the 2019 season, girls on the Practice Team were given the opportunity to compete on the Junior Varsity level. Cerchio testified that A.J. was afforded eight opportunities to compete on the Junior Varsity level, but A.J. decided to avail herself of only two of these Junior Varsity opportunities.

During her testimony, Cerchio described the events of the Awards Banquet. She called each athlete up to the front of the room where she was standing and she told the guests about each girl's accomplishments during the just-concluded season. Cerchio then presented each girl with a certificate or an award. In response to particular questioning about A.J., Cerchio recalled that when A.J. came forward to the front of the room, they hugged. Cerchio praised A.J. for working hard during the season, for doing work with her peers to make them better gymnasts, and for being a good gymnastic dancer. She then presented A.J. with her certificate.

Cerchio testified that Ryan Miller told her that there was a deadline for return of the leotards because they had to be refurbished. Cerchio discussed with Miller the fact that A.J. had not responded to her communications to come to her house to retrieve her leotard and to bring it to Miller's office herself. Around November 27, 2019, Miller told Cerchio to bring the leotard to the Awards Banquet and to give it to A.J. there. Cerchio testified that she followed Miller's directive to bring the leotard to the banquet. During her testimony, Cerchio agreed that Miller did not tell her to give the leotard to A.J. in front of the banquet guests, but only to return it to her at the banquet.

Cerchio testified that's she received a telephone call from Miller on December 19, during which he generally stated that a parent had called the school complaining about the return of a leotard at the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet, but he did not say anything about the filing of an HIB complaint or that Cerchio was the target of an HIB complaint. Cerchio testified that when Miller told her that she was entitled to have a union representative present, she wondered whether an HIB charge might be possible. Cerchio testified that she suspected that the complaint involved A.J. because A.J. was the only person to whom she returned a leotard at the banquet.

Cerchio testified that after speaking with Mr. Miller, she placed a telephone call to the Team Parent, Ellen Zimmerman, asking her if she noticed anything unusual occurring on the evening of the Awards Banquet as it was coming to a close. Cerchio testified that Zimmerman said that she did not notice anything unusual. As they discussed Miller's call, they suspected that M.J. and A.J. might be upset about the return of the leotard at the banquet. Cerchio testified that Ellen Zimmerman drafted a letter to Miller praising Cerchio for the successful gymnastics season and expressing concern that someone was upset about the return of a leotard at the Awards Banquet. Upon Attorney Silvestro's cross-examination, Cerchio, at first, denied that she had seen such a letter. However, during the cross-examination process it was convincingly demonstrated that Ellen Zimmerman sent a draft of the letter to Cerchio late on the evening of December 19, 2019. Cerchio was forced to admit that she had indeed seen the letter, but she explained that she had forgotten that she had seen it.

Summary of the Testimony of Megan Whitney

Attorney Kaplow called Megan Whitney (Whitney) to the stand to testify on behalf of Lisa Cerchio in regard to the HIB charge brought against her. Whitney testified that she is an acquaintance of Lisa Cerchio and that this came about because her daughter was a part of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School gymnastics team three years earlier, when she was a freshman. Whitney testified that she attended the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet at the Darby Road Restaurant and was present throughout the entire event. She received emails from a man named Frank Manilla and also spoke with Cerchio about showing support for her. She learned that bullying charges had been brought against Cerchio arising out of the banquet and, wanting to show support for Cerchio, she attended the February 20, 2020 BOE meeting along with about half a dozen other parents. She recalled that after the definition of HIB was presented to the parents, a group statement was made from the parents to the BOE which was favorable to Cerchio. At that meeting, she stated that she had not seen any actions by Cerchio that would be considered bullying under the definition.

Whitney testified that on the evening of December 16, 2019, she saw and heard Cerchio speak about the gymnasts individually and saw her make presentations to them for their accomplishments during the season. She testified that Cerchio spoke positively about each girl, that the girls presented her with flowers, and that she did not hear or see anything negative that evening. Specifically, she recalled that after Cerchio's remarks were concluded and the attendees were getting up to leave, she heard and saw Cerchio put down her flowers and picked up a leotard. Cerchio said. "Oh, by the way you need to return this to the school or to the athletic office" to one of the gymnasts. Upon questioning from the judge, Whitney described what she saw and heard in finer detail, saying that she recalled that the girls were taking photographs of themselves, that she was in the process of standing up and that she saw Cerchio lean over and hand the leotard to a girl who was seated. The girl accepted it from Cerchio's hand. Whitney did not know the identity of the girl who received the leotard. Whitney indicated that she was in close enough proximity to see and hear the entire transfer. That was all that Whitney recalled about the subject of leotards. On cross-examination, the only probing question was about whether or not Whitney had ever received formal training on the subject of the HIB Statute, to which she replied that she had not.

FINDINGS OF FACT

A.J.'s statement that "it is common for coaches to text individuals", is in contrast to Brook Esposito's statement that it is against Board Policy for school staff to text individual students. A.J.'s statement indicates, and I so FIND, that the Board should have been aware of the fact that it was a common practice for coaches and students to be texting one another about the athletic programs of the school. I FIND that the texting by Cerchio (who did not work at the high school aside from her coaching duties) to the team members about the return of the leotards, was in furtherance of the deadline for the return of the leotards set by Athletic Director Ryan Miller.

In her statement to the interviewers, A.J. complained about (1) how Cerchio "picks favorites" and "likes" the girls who attend the Sergeant's gym and "dislikes" those who attend the YMCA (i.e., that Cerchio shows favoritism); (2) how Cerchio "never gave me a chance to compete" and (3) that Cerchio unfairly moved her down from the Junior Varsity Team to the Practice Team. Cerchio addressed these accusations during her testimony. I FIND that A.J. was afforded eight opportunities during the 2019 season to compete on the Junior Varsity level, but decided to avail herself of only two of these eight opportunities.

In regard to A.J.'s complaint about being treated unfairly by Cerchio in regard to the October, 2018 investigation of the "body-shaming incident between A.J. and T.S., A.J. accused Cerchio of "not listening to her side of the story", of ultimately "believing the other girl (T.S.)", and of feeling "very targeted". Cerchio addressed this during her testimony. During Cerchio's testimony, Cerchio testified that she investigated a body-shaming incident during which A.J. allegedly targeted the team's only African-American member, T.S., and that she questioned all team members in order to arrive at the truth about the incident. Cerchio testified that ultimately there were no HIB charges filed against A.J. and that Athletic Director Ryan Miller ended the incident by "sweeping it under the rug." I FIND that the alleged October, 2018 body-shaming incident and investigation of same by Cerchio provides background information about Cerchio's awareness of, and handling of, possible HIB matters and provides background information indicating that A.J. had a retaliatory motive to accuse Cerchio of an HIB offense. However, I FIND that the October, 2018 incident does not directly provide information about whether Cerchio committed an act of HIB on December 16, 2019.

I FIND that most of the statements made by A.J. during her interview were general complaints. The only statement made by A.J. during her interview which was relevant to the HIB charge are found in the second paragraph of her interview. In essence, A.J. accused Cerchio of publicly calling upon her to take her leotard and return it to Mr. Miller in order to embarrass her.

I FIND that in K.P.'s interview does not sound like a personal account of what she perceived with her own senses. K.P. report that A.". was "called out", but does not state by whom, or in what manner; nor does she state any of the words used against A.J. Moreover, K.P.'s statements lack time references. I FIND that K.P. gives no information about the transfer of the leotard or about Cerchio's actions at the Awards Banquet that can be useful in determining whether an act of HIB occurred. I FIND that most of the content of K.P.'s statement to the interviewers is vitriol against Cerchio.

K.G. stated her feelings about Cerchio when she, in no uncertain terms, told the interviewer, "I really strongly dislike her". K.G. admitted that she intentionally sought to annoy Cerchio starting in the tenth grade saying, "I gave her attitude and a hard time." K.G.'s feelings about Cerchio apparently still persist since she stated to the interviewer in the present tense, "I have a problem respecting someone who doesn't respect me" and that she and her mother only talk to Tara Bozetarnik, not Cerchio. K.G. also accused Cerchio of intentionally excluding Tara Bozetarnik from a Town recognition event based solely on a hearsay accusation whereby Bozetarnick allegedly told E.G. and __.D. that Cerchio texted Bozetarnik instructing her not to attend the Town recognition event. I FIND, aside from her statement that Cerchio threw the leotard at A.J. in front of people, K.G.'s interview did not contain information that is relevant to the inquiry about the pending HIB charges against Cerchio. Instead, K.G.'s interview revealed that she strongly dislikes Cerchio and believes that Cerchio dislikes her and K.P. I FIND that the interview of K.G. demonstrated that she is prejudiced against Cerchio and therefore her testimony about Cerchio should have been evaluated in light of that prejudice. However, I FIND that Esposito accepted K.G.'s testimony without question and I FIND that this biased testimony affected Esposito's determination of an ultimate issue of fact.

I FIND that the only statement made by T.S. regarding the time, place and manner of Cerchio's return of the leotard to A.J. is found in the second paragraph, where she states that Cerchio, while speaking to the banquet guests, told A.J. to "come get your leotard". I FIND that all the other information from T.S. refers to topics not at issue in this matter. Her information and / or opinions deal with topics not relevant to the disposition of this matter. The inclusion of such irrelevant matter in the interview is not improper, but I FIND that it indicates that Miller and Esposito asked questions about irrelevant topics and I FIND that the witness was concerned with expressing her own feelings about general matters rather than with focusing on supplying information relevant to the issue of whether Cerchio bullied A.J. when the leotard was returned.

I FIND that Paragraphs three through nine contain no information that is relevant to the time, place, or manner of Cerchio's return of the leotard to A.J.

I FIND that E.G.'s information and opinions expressed in paragraphs three to nine are irrelevant to the HIB charge under consideration. The inclusion of such irrelevant matter in the interview is not improper, but I FIND that it indicates that Miller and Esposito asked questions about irrelevant topics and I FIND that the witness was concerned with expressing her own feelings about general matters rather than with focusing on supplying information relevant to the issue of whether Cerchio bullied A.J. when the leotard was returned.

I FIND that Paragraph One is relevant because there, Bozetarnik unequivocally states that Cerchio took the leotard and threw it at A.J. in front of the dinner guests.

I FIND that Paragraphs two, four and five contain no information that is relevant to the time, place, or manner of Cerchio's return of the leotard to A.J.

I FIND that Bozetarnik's information and opinions expressed in paragraphs two, four, and five are irrelevant to the HIB charge under consideration. The inclusion of such irrelevant matter in the interview is not improper, but I FIND it indicates that Miller and Esposito asked questions about irrelevant topics and I FIND that the witness was concerned with expressing her own feelings about general matters rather than with focusing on supplying information relevant to the issue of whether Cerchio bullied A.J.

when the leotard was returned.

Even considering the hearsay accounts of the interviewees (as well as Cerchio's testimony), I FIND that Cerchio's mentioning of the overall return of the leotards by the team members to the banquet guests was brief and that she did not, as A.J. characterized it, "go on and on". I FIND that Mr. Miller had a time limit for returning the leotards (which he had to send for re-furbishing by a certain date) and that he informed Cerchio about the importance of the time limit. I FIND that A.J. did not take responsibility for her failure to follow instructions regarding the time limit for returning her leotard. I FIND that A.J. did not return Cerchio's phone calls regarding her late return of the leotard. I FIND that A.J. knew that her leotard was returned late, but made no effort to retrieve it and take it to the high school Athletic Office (Mr. Miller's Office) herself. I FIND that A.J. made a false statement when she accused Cerchio of "harassing the team captains" about the need to return the leotards. I FIND that A.J. made a false statement when she accused Cerchio of leaving her name off an email that informed the girls that if their leotards were dropped off at her house late, the girls would have to retrieve them and bring the leotards to the school.

I FIND that when Cerchio spoke to the banquet attendees, she spoke in a raised voice (a higher volume than normal, conversations, person-to-person volume). I FIND that after Cerchio finished addressing the gathering of banquet attendees, the attendees' attention shifted to their preparations for leaving the event. I FIND that after the banquet guests' attention was no longer on Cerchio, she approached A.J. with the leotard in her hand, leaned over a few seated students, told A.J. to give bring the leotard to Mr. Miller's office, and handed the leotard to A.J., who took it from Cerchio's hand. I FIND that when Cerchio spoke to A.J., she did so in a normal conversational voice, not in a raised voice. I FIND that the manner in which Cerchio returned the leotard to A.J. was not public, but rather was semi-private, that is to say, personally and at arm's length. I FIND that the manner in which Cerchio returned the leotard to A.J. was not in a way (in terms of volume or sight) that could have attracted the attention of people who were more than an arm's length distance away. I FIND, from the sum total of the statements in the interviews, from the documents submitted in discovery, and from all of the testimony given at the hearing, that the most complete, consistent and credible evidence demonstrates nothing that leads me to believe that Cerchio publicly "singled-out" A.J. at the Awards Banquet in order to humiliate her or to intimidate her, or to diminish her, or to harm her in any way. I FIND that the opposite is true because the unrefuted testimony of Cerchio is that she called A.J. to the front of the room (as she had done with other student gymnasts) to recognize her good work, to praise her, and to give her a certificate; they even hugged. I FIND that Cerchio returned the leotard to A.J. after the conclusion of the event in the least public way possible. I FIND that Cerchio's public recognition of A.J.'s gymnastic prowess and her praise for A.J.'s work with less experienced team members demonstrates that Cerchio did not consider A.J. as "lacking in athletic ability" or as "having less athletic ability than her peers".

I FIND that, in ascertaining matters of fact and in making their conclusions, the HIB interviewers (Brooke Esposito and Ryan Miller), and Dr. Mast relied heavily on the unverified, not-subject-to-cross-examination, statements of A.J., K.P., K.G., T.S., E.G., Tara Bozetarnik, (and M.J., to the extent that Dr. Mast received information from A.J.'s mother). None of the BOE's testifying witnesses, Esposito, Miller, or Mast, were present at the Awards Banquet, where the HIB allegedly took place. The testimony presented to this Tribunal by Esposito, Miller, and Mast regarding the gestures, words, or actions of Cerchio, which supposedly constituted HIB, came not from their own perceptions, but entirely from the accounts related to them by A.J., K.P., K.G., T.S., E.G., Tara Bozetarnik, and Lisa Cerchio. I FIND that the testimony of Esposito, Miller, and Mast about the interviewees' accounts of the process of the return of the leotards before and including the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet was hearsay. While the testimony of Esposito or Miller, regarding their interviewing of Cerchio, is arguably within the "admission" hearsay exception, I FIND that none of the testimony of Esposito or of Miller concerning their interview of Cerchio contains evidence of a violation of the Anti-Bullying Statute by Cerchio in relation to the return of the leotards before or at the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet. I FIND that the testimony of Esposito, Miller, or Mast and the documents received in discovery (i.e., those in evidence) do not contain competent evidence that could support the hearsay statements offered by the BOE to make findings of ultimate facts. I FIND that the BOE's case is built only on hearsay evidence.

I FIND that from her interviews of A.J., K.P,. and K.G., regarding their personal interactions with Cerchio long before the "leotards issue" arose and long before the 12/16/2019 Awards Banquet took place, Esposito decided as a matter of fact that Cerchio's personality, attitudes, and actions made these girls feel that "they were not part of the team".

I FIND that Esposito decided as a matter of fact that Cerchio wrongly "segregated" the athletes and wrongfully paid more attention to some while paying less or no attention to others. I FIND that none of the testimony of AJ., K.P., or K.G. regarding "segregating" the team into Varsity, Junior Varsity, or Practice Teams, or whether Cerchio paid more attention or less attention to these teams proves that Cerchio decided that anyone "lacked athletic ability" and bullied anyone on account of a "lack of athletic ability". When Cerchio and her Assistant Coach (Tara Bozetarnik) made decisions to place various girls on the three levels of teams, they did so using standardized criteria, supplemented by information from the girls themselves, and using the girls' point totals earned from prior competitions, I FIND that none of the girl's testimonies prove that Cerchio considered anyone as "having less athletic ability than her peers" and then bullied anyone on account of "having less athletic ability than one's peers".

Regarding the issue of whether or not Cerchio violated the Anti-Bullying Statute at or before the December 16, 2019 Awards Banquet, I FIND that Brooke Esposito relied heavily on the statements of A.J., K.P., K.G., T.S., E.G., and Tara Bozetarnik and then presented her testimony, which is hearsay, in court.

I FIND that when Miller admitted that he was responsible for ordering fewer tank tops, that he told Cerchio to give the tank tops to the Varsity first, and that did not know if Cerchio distributed the later-acquired tank tops to the J.V. and Practice teams, it demonstrated that he was responsible for the distribution of the tank tops and that the accusation against Cerchio (that she deliberately withheld the tank tops in order to segregate the teams or for some discriminatory motive) was unsupported and false.

I FIND that it is contradictory for Miller to urge Cerchio to tell the girls to return their leotards by a certain date and then, after she takes steps to collect the leotards for him, to accuse Cerchio of intimidating the girls when she was carrying-out his request.

Miller and Esposito failed to question Cerchio about statements and accusations made by the interviewees, such as the accusations of discrimination related to the distribution of the tank tops, the accusation that Cerchio intentionally excluded Bozetarnik from the Town Council's recognition event, an accusation stated by several interviewees that that Cerchio treated groups of athletes differently because she considered some athletes as "lacking" in athletic ability, and an accusation that Cerchio showed "favoritism" to certain athletes. Moreover, after hearing K.G. openly state that she "really disliked" Cerchio, Esposito and Miller failed to question Cerchio about whether she had any recollection of problems with K.G. Had they done so, they might have uncovered information that might possibly reveal K.G.'s bias and perhaps lead them to question K.G.'s veracity. Esposito and Miller testified that the issue of whether Cerchio "threw", "tossed" or "handed" the leotard to A.J. was of secondary importance and they therefore did not question Cerchio about it. They testified that the fact that Cerchio transferred the leotard to A.J. publicly was the primary issue. I FIND that a thorough interview of Cerchio should have included questions about both the manner of the transfer (handing the leotard over, tossing it or throwing it, or throwing it at someone) and whether the transfer was made in public, in semi-public, or in private circumstances. According to Cerchio's testimony, she walked six to ten feet in A.J.'s direction to where she was sitting and in a normal speaking (i.e., not as one would speak before an audience) told her to bring the leotard to Mr. Miller's office as she handed it to her at close range. I FIND that Esposito and Miller would have acquired crucial information about the nature of the transfer, i.e., a friendly hand-off of the leotard versus a rude throwing of the leotard at someone). I FIND that Esposito and Miller would have acquired crucial information about the public / non-public nature of the transfer and of the manner of the transfer had they properly and thoroughly questioned Cerchio. I FIND, from Miller's own testimony during questioning by the Tribunal, that he admitted that he was speculating about Cerchio being "caught up in the moment" and about the manner of how she transferred the leotard. I also FIND that Esposito's and Miller's failure to pose the above-mentioned questions to Cerchio demonstrates that they did not perform their investigation thoroughly. I FIND that the failure to question Cerchio about the interviewees' statements and accusations deprived Cerchio of the opportunity to give her side of the story. I also FIND that Esposito's and Miller's failure to pose these questions to Cerchio strongly indicates that they, with only partial evidence, formed the belief that Cechio created a hostile environment and that this belief led them to reach a hasty conclusion that Cerchio was guilty of the specific HIB accusation made against her regarding the events leading up to and at the Awards Banquet.

I FIND that most of the statements and accusations related by the interviewees to Esposito and Miller were general in nature and did not relate to the specific issue of whether the facts surrounding Cerchio's return of the leotard to A.J. on December 16, 2019 was in any way violative of the Anti-Bullying Statute.

I FIND that Attorney Silvestro's cross-examination exposed that Cerchio knew about Zimmerman's letter on December 19, 2019. I FIND that Zimmerman, with Cerchio's knowledge and consent, were attempting to engaging in pre-emptive damage control in case M.J.'s and A.J.'s grievance were to develop into something more than an angry telephone call to the school's officials. However, it must be remembered that Miller testified that during his December 19th telephone call to Cerchio, he merely told Cerchio that someone had complained about the return of a leotard at the Awards Banquet; and that during that same phone call, he did not mention anything to Cerchio about the filing of an HIB charge against her or about his selection as a member of the HIB investigation panel. Upon hearing Miller mention her right to consult her union representative, Cerchio wondered whether she might be facing an HIB charge, but I FIND that in this regard she only had a mere suspicion and I FIND that Miller did not explicitly say to Cerchio that she could be facing an HIB charge. When Zimmerman sent the aforementioned "damage control letter", Cerchio was had not been explicitly or formally told that she was facing possible or actual HIB charges, and so, I FIND that Cerchio's knowledge of the contents of the letter does not constitute an explicit or implicit admission of having committed an HIB offense. I also FIND that Cerchio's knowledge of the contents of the letter does not suggest in any way that she was on notice that HIB charges were about to be levelled against her based on Miller's limited conversation with her about a telephone call to the school about the return of a leotard and based on her own reasoning that, since A.J. was the only person who received a leotard at the dinner, it must have something to do with her. I FIND that Attorney Silvestro's October 14, 2022 impeachment of Cerchio in regard to her knowledge of Ellen Zimmerman's letter dated December 19, 2019 does not affect the issue of whether Cerchio did or did not commit an act of HIB on December 16, 2019.

I FIND that had Miller told Cerchio on December 19,2019 that he had been selected to take part in an HIB investigation, she would have had the ability to attempt to retrieve the video from the Arby Road Restaurant (which was taped-over every two weeks) to use in her defense.

APPLICABLE LAW

In 2002 the New Jersey Legislature enacted L. 2002, c. 83, this State's first harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB) law. In 2007 the Legislature amended the law L. 2007, c. 129, to cover cyber-bullying. In 2010 the Legislature enacted the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, L. 2010, c. 122, which revised and supplemented the prior laws chiefly to cover incidents that occur off school grounds under special circumstances. The legislature also enacted L. 2012, c.1 which permits a school district to implement bullying prevention and training programs.

Definition of Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (H.I.B.)

The 2010 law refined the definition of H.I.B. to include [bracketed numbers added]:

"[A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any > electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is [1] reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, [2] that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or takes place off school grounds as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3, [3] that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:

>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging a student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or be severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student." [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 (emphasis added).]

Comprehensive regulations promulgated by the Department of Education further assist districts in complying with these statutory requirements. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.9. Local Control of Policy and Required Contents of H.I.B. Policy The anti-bullying law provides that "[e]ach school district shall adopt a policy prohibiting harassment, intimidation and bullying on school property, at a school-sponsored function or on a school bus." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(a). Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b) each school district has "local control over the content of the policy" but the policy must include twelve enumerated components including a definition of harassment, intimidation, and bullying at least as inclusive as the one provided (see above) in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. The twelve required components of the policy are set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15 and are summarized below.

The twelve required components of a policy prohibiting H.I.B. are:

(1) a statement prohibiting H.I.B. of a student;

(2) a definition of H.I.B. no less inclusive than that set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13;

(3) a description of the type of behavior expected from each student;

(4) consequences and appropriate remedial action for a person who commits an act of HIB;

(5) a procedure for reporting an act of H.I.B., including a provision that permits a person to report an act of H.I.B. anonymously;

(6) a procedure for prompt investigation of violations and complaints, which procedure shall at a minimum provide that

[(a) the investigation be initiated within one school day of the report and be completed within ten days of receipt of the written report,

(b) the results of the investigation be reported to the superintendent within two days of completion,

(c) the investigation and reports be reported to the board of education no later than the date of the next board of education meeting,

(d) the parents or guardians of the students who are parties to the investigation be entitled to receive certain information and request a hearing within five days after the results of the investigation are reported to the board,

(e) the board must issue a written decision affirming, rejecting or modifying the superintendent's decision, which can be appealed to the Commissioner of Education, and

(f) a complaint can be filed with the Division on Civil Rights within 180 days of an incident of H.I.B. based on membership in a protected group.][;]

(7) the range of ways in which a school will respond once an incident of H.I.B. is identified, which shall be defined by the principal in conjunction with the school anti-bullying specialist, but shall include an appropriate combination of services that are available within the district such as counselling, support services, intervention services and other programs, as defined by the commissioner. In the event that the necessary programs and services are not available within the district, the district may apply to the Department of Education for a grant from the "Bullying Prevention Fund" established pursuant to [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-28] to support the provision of out-of-district programs and services;

(8) a statement that prohibits reprisal or retaliation against any person who reports an act of H.I.B. and the consequence and appropriate remedial action for a person who engages in reprisal or retaliation;

(9) consequences and appropriate remedial action for a person found to have falsely accused another as a means of retaliation or as a means of H.I.B.;

(10) a statement of how the policy is to be publicized, including notice that the policy applies to participation in school-sponsored functions;

(11) a requirement that a link to the policy be prominently posted on the home page of the school district's website and distributed annually to parents and guardians who have children enrolled in a school in the school district; and

(12) a requirement that the name, school phone number, school address and school email address of the district anti-bullying coordinator be listed on the home page of the school district's website; and that on the home page of each school's website the name, school phone number, school address and school email address of the school anti-bullying specialist and the district anti-bullying coordinator be listed. The information concerning the district anti-bullying coordinator and the school anti-bullying specialists shall also be maintained on the department's website. [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b).]

H.I.B. on School Grounds versus Off School Grounds

In regard to the location of acts of H.I.B. (on school grounds versus off school grounds), the enactment of the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act now requires that each school district's policy "include provisions for appropriate responses to harassment, intimidation or bullying ... that occurs off school grounds, in cases where a school employee is made aware of such actions." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3. A school district's responses to harassment, Intimidation or bullying occurring off school grounds must "be consistent with the board of education's code of student conduct or other provisions of the board's policy on harassment, intimidation, or bullying. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3. Pursuant to the rules [N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.5] governing a board of education's code of student conduct, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.5 (a) states:

> "School authorities have the right to impose a consequence on a student for conduct away from school grounds that is consistent with the district board of education's code of student conduct, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1.
>
> 1. This authority shall be exercised only when it is reasonably necessary for the student's physical or emotional safety, security and well-being or for reasons relating to the safety, security and well-being of other students, staff or school grounds, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:25-2 and 18A:37-2.
>
> 2. This authority shall be exercised only when the conduct which is the subject of the proposed consequence materially and substantially interferes with the requirements of appropriate discipline in the operation of the school.
>
> 3. The consequence pursuant to (a) above shall be handled in accordance with the district board of education's approved code of student conduct, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1, and as appropriate, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.2, 7.3, or 7.4.
>
> (b) School authorities shall respond to harassment, intimidation, > or bullying that occurs off school grounds, pursuant to N.J.S.A.
> 18A:37-14 and 15.3 and N.J.A.C. 6A:16-1.3, 7.1, and 7.7."

Reporting of H.I.B.

In regard to the reporting of alleged H.I.B. incidents and the investigation of same, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-16 (a) forbids a member of a board of education, a school employee, a student or a volunteer from engaging in acts of reprisal, retaliation or false accusation against a victim of H.I.B. or a witness who reports acts of H.I.B.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-16 (b) requires that acts of H.I.B. must be reported and states:

> "A member of a board of education, school employee, Contracted service provider, student or volunteer who has witnessed, or has reliable information that a student has been subject to, harassment, intimidation, or bullying shall report the incident to the appropriate school official designated by the school district's policy, or to any school administrator or safe schools resource officer, who shall immediately initiate the school district's procedures concerning school bullying."

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-16 (c) provides that any school official who promptly complies with the reporting requirement of the law is immune from a cause of action for damages arising from any failure to remedy the reported incident.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-16(d) provides that a school administrator who fails to investigate the allegation of H.I.B. or fails to take sufficient action to minimize or eliminate the HIB may be subject to disciplinary action.

H.I.B. Prevention

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-17(a) schools and school districts are required to annually assess their HIB prevention programs, or approaches and other initiatives so as to create school-wide conditions to prevent and address H.I.B. Grants are available from the Department of Education if needed.

N.J.S.A. 18A-37 (b) obligates school, districts to provide training related to the district's H.I.B. policies to its employees and volunteers emphasizing the importance of the definition of H.I.B. and of the protected categories found in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

N.J.S.A. 18A-37-17 (c) obligates individual schools to include the school district's policies against H.I.B. in its employee training, including full and part-time employees, volunteers and anyone who may have significant contact with students.

Comprehensive regulations promulgated by the Department of Education further assist districts in complying with these statutory requirements. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7.

The Residuum Rule

N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.1 contains the General Rules of Evidence Rules of the OAL. N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.1(c) provides:

> All relevant evidence is admissible except as otherwise provided herein. A judge may, at his or her discretion, exclude any evidence if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the risk that its admission will either:
>
> (1) Necessitate undue consumption of time: or
> (2) Create substantial danger of undue prejudice or confusion.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5 governs the use of hearsay evidence and states the OAL's "residuum rule". N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(a) allows the admission of hearsay and provides as follows:

> Subject to the judge's discretion to exclude evidence under N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.1(c) or a valid claim of privilege, hearsay evidence shall be admissible in the trial of contested cases. Hearsay evidence which is admitted shall be accorded whatever weight the judge deems appropriate taking into account the nature, character and scope of the evidence, the circumstances of its creation and production, and, generally, its reliability. [Italics supplied.]

N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b) provides, however, that hearsay may not be the sole basis for any ultimate finding of fact. N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b) provides:

> Notwithstanding the admissibility of hearsay evidence, some legally competent evidence must exist to support each ultimate finding of fact to an extent sufficient to provide assurances of reliability and to avoid the fact or appearance of arbitrariness.

The text of N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b) prohibits the judge from making an ultimate finding of fact that is based solely on hearsay evidence. To make an ultimate finding of fact, the judge must base that finding of fact on "some legally competent evidence". In the Matter of Tanelli, 194 N.J. Super. 492 (App. Div. 1984), certification denied 99 N.J. 181 (1984). Once some legally competent evidence is presented as the basis for a judge's ultimate finding of fact, then and only then may hearsay evidence be used to support that ultimate finding of fact. CONCLUSIONS

I have found that the October, 2018 body shaming incident does not provide information about whether Cerchio committed an act of HIB on December 16, 2019. To the extent that the HIB investigators relied upon A.J.'s and any other interviewees' statements and accusations against Cerchio referencing the October, 2018 body-shaming incident in connection with Cerchio's supposed disparate treatment of A.J. in 2019, I CONCLUDE that there should have been no reliance on such statements and accusations because they are irrelevant to the question of whether Cerchio committed an act of HIB on December 16, 2019.

I have found that the testimonies of various interviewees disclosed general, personal accusations against Cerchio. Among such generalized accusations against Cerchio were that Cerchio was "mean", showed "favoritism", neglected the J.V. and Practice teams members, excluded Bozetarnik from a Town-sponsored recognition event, and that she demanded high standards of performance from her own children. I have found that these generalized and personal allegations do not indicate whether or not Cerchio committed an act of HIB on December 16, 2019. To the extent that such allegations were entertained by the HIB investigators, and were considered by the HIB investigators in their determination that Cerchio committed an act of HIB on December 16, 2019, I CONCLUDE that reliance on such evidence is inherently suspect, is irrelevant to the question of whether Cerchio committed an act of HIB on December 16, 2019, and should not have been considered in the investigators' and the BOE's sustaining of the HIB charge. I CONCLUDE that the HIB investigators should not have utilized any such statements or accusations in their decision-making process regarding the HIB charges brought against Cerchio because they are general derogatory comments about Cercho's personality, coaching style, and character; because the purpose of these comments is not directed to the gathering of information about the pending HIB charge; and because the comments are not relevant to determining whether there is competent evidence which supports or casts doubt upon the veracity of the HIB charge against Cerchio in the pending case. I further CONCLUDE, that based upon the testimony of the BOE's own witnesses, the statements and accusations referenced above were considered by the HIB investigators and did indeed affect their decision-making process. I further CONCLUDE that the inclusion of the aforementioned statements and accusations tainted the decision-making process, unduly affected the fairness of the decision-making process, and provides not only good cause, but a compelling reason to reverse the substantiation of the HIB charge.

Having found that A.J. availed herself of only two of eight opportunities to compete on the Junior Varsity level during the 2019 season, I CONCLUDE that A.J.'s statement that Cerchio did not give her the chance to compete is not true and I CONCLUDE that her statement that Cerchio's decision-making was based on her having "favorites" is also untrue. I CONCLUDE that Cerchio and Bozetarnik made their decisions regarding the placement of the girls on the Varsity, Junior Varsity or Practice Team levels were made on the basis of accepted standards and objective criteria. I CONCLUDE that A.J. was given a fair opportunity to question her placement on the Practice Team and that Cerchio's response that she needed to do more work reflected a fair evaluation of her skills and was not affected by any bias. I CONCLUDE A.J.'s accusation that Cerchio treated her unfairly was unwarranted.

Having found that the manner of Cerchio's transfer of the leotard to A.J. (including the content of the words stated, the normal volume of her voice, and the handing of the leotard to A.J.) was not public and was not such that it could have attracted undue attention from bystanders, as well as having found many facts that refute the versions of the facts and that refute the accusations presented by the interviewees and the BOE's witnesses, I CONCLUDE that the BOE has failed to present a preponderance of evidence that supports its contention that Cerchio singled-out A.J. in public, humiliated A.J., held A.J. up to ridicule and scorn due to her supposed "lack of athletic ability", or committed any other acts of HIB against A.J. I CONCLUDE that Cerchio's public recognition of A.J.'s athletic prowess, especially her dancing prowess, absolutely refutes the allegation that Cerchio believed that A.J. was "lacking in athletic ability".

I CONCLUDE that there is no evidence in this matter that supports the idea that A.J. lacked athletic ability or that Cerchio believed that A.J. lacked athletic ability. I CONCLUDE that Cerchio and her Assistant Coach, Tara Bozetarnick, with the full knowledge of Ryan Miller, ranked all of the gymnasts in an objective way using the standards set forth in the NJSIAA and with information submitted by the gymnasts themselves. I CONCLUDE that Cerchio and Bozetarnik believed that certain team members had more or less developed athletic ability (as opposed to raw, not-yet developed ability) than others, and fairly assigned them to the Varsity Team, the Junior Varsity Team and the Practice Team. I CONCLUDE that there is no evidence that supports the idea that Cerchio, given the results of the ranking system, used it in a way to improperly decide that A.J. had less raw athletic ability than her peers or less developed athletic ability than her peers. I CONCLUDE that the BOE has failed to present any evidence to demonstrate that the ranking system developed by Cerchio and Bozetarnik was unfair or that it was in any way prejudicial to A.J. I CONCLUDE that there is no evidence that the ranking system that Cerchio and Bozetarnik developed was used by anyone in a way that could possibly be violative of the New Jersey Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act. I CONCLUDE that it is necessary for a coach to fairly assess the talent of his or her athletes and to rank them accordingly based on objective criteria as was done in the matter at hand. I CONCLUDE that the facts, as determined by this Tribunal, do not support the proposition that A.J. reasonably perceived Cerchio's words, gestures, verbal or physical acts, were motivated by any distinguishing characteristic possessed by A.J.

Having considered all of the evidence presented in this matter, and weighing it objectively and carefully, I CONCLUDE that there was nothing in Cerchio's public speech at the Awards Banquet or in her after-banquet private (or at most semi-public) conversation with A.J. at the table where she was sitting at the time of the transfer of the leotard that a reasonable person knew or should have known would have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student; or that that conversation could have the effect of insulting or demeaning a student; or that the conversation could create a hostile educational environment.

Having searched for competent evidence to serve as a basis for considering the hearsay statements offered as evidence to support the BOE's case, I have found no such competent evidence and I therefore must CONCLUDE that the hearsay statements cannot be used to decide any finding of ultimate fact in this matter. Having found that the testimony of Assistant Principal Brook Esposito, the testimony of Athletic Director Ryan Miller, and the testimony of Superintendent Dr. Joan Mast all rely on hearsay evidence, I CONCLUDE that their testimony is insufficient to sustain the substantiation of the HIB charges against Cerchio. Having considered the testimony of Lisa Cerchio and of Megan Whitney as well as the documents submitted in discovery (i.e., those marked in evidence), having found that said testimony has been comprehensive, coherent, and unrefuted and that said evidence is credible, I CONCLUDE that the Petitioner, Lisa Cerchio has presented sufficient evidence and compelling reasons for this Tribunal to reverse the substantiation of the HIB charges brought against her.

I CONCLUDE that the substantiation of the HIB charge against Lisa Cerchio must be, and hereby is, REVERSED.

ORDER

This matter having been considered by the Tribunal, and the Tribunal having considered the testimony of the witnesses, the exhibits in evidence, and having read the arguments of counsel, and for good cause:

It is on this Twenty-Ninth (29th) day of December, 2023,

ORDERED that the substantiation of the HIB charge brought against Lisa Cerchio by the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education is hereby REVERSED. It is further ORDERED that any reference to the substantiation of said HIB charge in the records of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District shall be stricken. And it is further ORDERED that a copy of this Initial Decision shall be immediately sent to the New Jersey Department of Education and to each of the parties herein. And it is further ORDERED that upon receipt of this Initial Decision, counsel for the parties shall acknowledge receipt thereof by email to this Tribunal.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.P., on behalf of minor children, K.P. and K.P..,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hamilton, Mercer County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that his minor child, Ky.P., was not entitled to a free public education in Hamilton schools during the 2022-2023 school year. (This matter pertains solely to Ky.P.; in the within decision, the Commissioner refers to K.P.'s minor children – both of whom share the initials K.P. – as Ky.P. and Ka.P., for purposes of clarity; the Board explained in its March 23, 2023, determination letter that it did not take any action with respect to Ka.P. as he remained eligible to attend school in Hamilton.) The Board contended that Ky.P. did not live with her father in Hamilton, but rather resided in Princeton Township, and demanded payment of tuition in the amount of $4,456.65 for Ky.P.'s ineligible attendance in the district.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: after participating in a prehearing telephone conference on August 1, 2023, petitioner failed to appear at all other scheduled proceedings in this matter; petitioner, Ky.P.'s father, is undisputedly domiciled in Hamilton Township and, therefore, Ky.P. is also domiciled in Hamilton Township; absent sufficient proof that Ky.P. does not live with her father or that he does not have custody, N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1) applies; and the fact that Ky.P. spent a few nights in December 2022 at a non-parental residence in Princeton is of "little weight." The ALJ concluded that Ky.P. was entitled to a free public education in Hamilton Township. Accordingly, petitioner's appeal was granted and the Board's counterclaim for tuition was denied.

Upon review, the Commissioner rejected the Initial Decision of the OAL, finding that: the record is devoid of evidence that the petitioner and Ky.P. are domiciled in Hamilton; petitioner failed to appear at the hearing and did not supply the ALJ with any evidence in support of his appeal; and petitioner failed to satisfy the requisite burden of proof in this case. The Commissioner, therefore, rejected the ALJ's conclusion that Ky.P. is entitled to a free public education in Hamilton as unsupported by the record, and further rejected the ALJ's denial of the Board's counterclaim for tuition. Accordingly, the Commissioner dismissed the petitioner's unprosecuted residency appeal and remanded the matter to the OAL for further proceedings on the counterclaim in order to develop the factual record, i.e., to establish the number of days of Ky.P.'s ineligible attendance and the per diem cost of tuition in the school district during the period of her ineligible attendance.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.P., on behalf of minor children, K.P. and K.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hamilton, Mercer County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by respondent, Hamilton Township Board of Education (Board) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have been reviewed and considered. Petitioner did not file a reply.

This matter concerns the Board's March 23, 2023, determination that Ky.P. does not reside in Hamilton Township and its demand for payment of tuition in the amount of $4,456.65 for Ky.P.'s ineligible attendance at school in the district.[1] On May 17, 2023, petitioner appealed the Board's residency determination to the Commissioner. The Board filed an answer and counterclaim seeking payment of tuition.

[1] Because they share the same initials, in this decision, the Commissioner refers to K.P.'s minor children as Ky.P. and Ka.P for purposes of clarity. In its March 23, 2023, determination letter, the Board explained that it did not take any action with respect to Ka.P. and confirmed that he remained eligible to attend school within the Hamilton Township School District. Therefore, this matter pertains only to Ky.P., despite both children being named in the case caption.

After the matter was transmitted to the OAL, petitioner participated in one prehearing telephone conference on August 1, 2023. He then failed to appear for all subsequent telephone conferences. On November 9, 2023, the OAL sent notice to the parties, via regular mail and email, regarding the January 5, 2024 hearing, to be conducted via Zoom. The notice advised that if the parties failed to appear, the file would be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate action, which could include the granting of the relief requested by the other party.

Petitioner failed to appear for the scheduled hearing on January 5, 2024. The Board appeared and called one witness, Dr. James Altobello, Director of Operations, to testify.[2] The Board determined that Ky.P. resided in Princeton Township with her brother's mother and was therefore ineligible to attend school in the Hamilton Township district. A third-party surveillance company hired by the Board observed Ky.P. at the Princeton Township address on four occasions in December 2022 before school. On January 9, 2024, Board counsel submitted a letter to the ALJ in support of its counterclaim detailing the Board-approved tuition rate for the 2022-2023 school year and the per diem rate. The letter sought reimbursement for 55 days of ineligible attendance by Ky.P. Having received no explanation from petitioner regarding his failure to appear, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) closed the record on January 16, 2024.

In her Initial Decision, the ALJ found, among other things, that it was undisputed that petitioner, Ky.P.'s father, is domiciled in Hamilton Township and that, therefore, Ky.P. is also domiciled in Hamilton Township. The ALJ reasoned that "[i]n the absence of sufficient proof that K[y].P. does not live with her father or that he does not have custody, the relevant Code provision is clear. That K[y].P. spent a few nights in December 2022 at a non-parental residence in Princeton bears little weight in this regard." Initial Decision at 6. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that Ky.P. was entitled to a free public education in Hamilton Township and denied the Board's counterclaim for tuition.

In their exceptions, the Board contends that the Commissioner should reject the Initial Decision because: (1) petitioner failed to appear and presented no evidence regarding his domicile or Ky.P.'s domicile; (2) absent evidence from petitioner, there is no factual basis for the ALJ's reversal of the Board's residency determination or the ALJ's conclusion that both petitioner and Ky.P. are domiciled in Hamilton Township; (3) the ALJ misconstrued the burden of proof, as it is petitioner that must sustain the burden of demonstrating the student's right to attend school in the district; and (4) the district fully complied with its obligation under N.J.A.C. 6A:22-4.2 to determine whether students are eligible to attend school in its district.

"N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) mandates that public schools are free to any person, [over age five and] under twenty years of age, 'who is domiciled within the school district.'" K.K-M., on behalf of A.W. v. Bd. of Educ. of City of Gloucester City, 463 N.J. Super. 24, 31 (App. Div. 2020). A child's parents "'shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence' to prove domicile in the school district." D.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Princeton Reg'l Sch. Dist., 366 N.J. Super. 269, 273 (App. Div. 2004) (quoting N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2)).

Upon review, the Commissioner rejects the Initial Decision in its entirety. In particular, the Commissioner rejects the ALJ's finding that petitioner and Ky.P. are domiciled in Hamilton Township because the record is devoid of evidence to establish those facts. As noted, petitioner failed to appear at the hearing and did not supply the ALJ with any evidence in support of his petition of appeal. Therefore, he did not satisfy the requisite burden of proof. In short, the ALJ assumed facts not in evidence. For these reasons, the Commissioner rejects the ALJ's conclusion that Ky.P. is entitled to a free public education in Hamilton Township as unsupported by the record.

Additionally, the Commissioner rejects the ALJ's denial of the Board's counterclaim. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a) provides that if "petitioner does not sustain the burden of demonstrating the student's right to attend the school district, or the petitioner . . . fails to prosecute [the appeal] . . . the Commissioner may assess tuition for the period during which the hearing and decision on appeal were pending, and for up to one year of a student's ineligible attendance in a school district prior to the appeal's filing and including the 21-day period to file an appeal."

Because petitioner failed to prosecute the appeal, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which Ky.P. was ineligible to attend school in the district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b). The statute provides that the Commissioner may order tuition "computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b). It appears that the ALJ made factual findings regarding the annual per pupil cost and daily tuition rate based upon the letter submitted by Board counsel dated January 9, 2024. However, because the record lacks a certification from the Board verifying the approved tuition rate for the 2022-2023 school year, the per diem cost of tuition, and Ky.P.'s period of ineligible attendance, the Commissioner is unable to assess tuition against petitioner at this time.

Accordingly, petitioner's residency appeal is hereby dismissed, and the Board's determination that Ky.P. was not entitled to a free public education in Hamilton Township remains in effect. This matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings on the counterclaim to develop the factual record regarding the number of days of Ky.P.'s ineligible attendance and the per diem cost of tuition.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04952-23

AGENCY DKT. NO. 137-5/23

K.P. ON BEHALF OF K.P AND K.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

TOWNSHIP OF HAMILTON BOARD OF EDUCATION, MERCER COUNTY,

Respondent.

K.P., petitioner, pro se

Michael Pattanite, Esq., for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Carrigg, Lang & Casey, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 16, 2024 Decided: February 6, 2024

BEFORE NICOLE T. MINUTOLI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner K.P. (petitioner[1]) appeals the determination of respondent, Township of Hamilton Board of Education (Board), that his daughter K.P.[2] is not domiciled in the Township of Hamilton School District (District) and should be disenrolled and assessing back tuition in the amount of $4,456.65 for the days of illegal attendance.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed an appeal with the Department of Education on May 17, 2023. The Board filed an answer on June 5, 2023. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, where on June 5, 2023, it was filed as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A prehearing telephone conference was scheduled for June 20, 2023, but both parties failed to appear.

On July 12, 2023, notice was sent to the parties of the rescheduled conference on August 1, 2023, through email, and both parties appeared for this conference, during which the parties discussed K.P.'s domicile and agreed to appear at a subsequent conference.

On August 7, 2023, notice was sent to the parties of a telephone conference on September 5, 2023, through regular mail and email. A dial-in number was provided.

Petitioner failed to appear for the September 5, 2023, telephone conference. Petitioner failed to notify my office in advance or to request an adjournment. Petitioner then failed to appear for four subsequent telephone conferences.

[1] Petitioner K.P. (father) will hereinafter be referred to as "petitioner"; K.P. (daughter) will be referred to as "K.P."

[2] The pleadings should only have named K.P. daughter. There is no residency issue with K.P. son.

On November 9, 2023, notice was sent to the parties of a hearing, by regular mail and email, on January 5, 2024. The notice stated:

> If you do not attend the hearing, the file will be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate action which may include imposition of the proposed penalty or granting the relief requested by the other party.

On January 5, 2024, the Board appeared for the proof hearing, but petitioner failed to appear and failed to notify my office in advance or to request an adjournment. The Board presented its proofs for its counterclaim and the record remained open for petitioner to explain his nonappearance and for the Board to provided additional information supporting its counterclaim. The Board made its submission on January 9, 2024. When no explanation was received from petitioner regarding his failure to appear, the record closed on January 16, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Based on the testimony of Dr. James Altobello, District director of operations, and the documentary evidence submitted by respondent, I FIND the following as FACTS:

1. Petitioner is a resident of Hamilton Township.

2. Petitioner's daughter, K.P., began attending school in the District in September 2022, as a third-grade general-education school student for the 2022–2023 school year.

3. Thereafter, the respondent received information that K.P. was not residing in Hamilton Township but was residing in Princeton Township.

4. The Board engaged the services of Tri-Shield Security and Protection to conduct an investigation into K.P.'s actual residence.

5. Surveillance was conducted at the Princeton Township address, and after a complete investigation it was determined that K.P. resided at the Princeton Township address with her brother's mother and did not reside in Hamilton Township.

6. On February 6, 2023, a residency hearing was conducted before the Board. Petitioner did not attend the residency hearing or claim that he did not receive notice.

7. On February 22, 2023, the Board determined that K.P was not domiciled in or a resident of the Township of Hamilton, which would have entitled her to attend a school within the District without a tuition obligation for school year 2022–2023.

8. By letter dated March 23, 2023, the Board notified petitioner of its decision that K.P. was ineligible to attend the District schools and of his right to appeal. This letter was sent to petitioner at both the Hamilton Township and Princeton Township addresses, via regular mail and certified mail, return receipt requested.

9. Between March 23, 2023, and June 21, 2023, K.P. attended school in the District for fifty-five days.

10. The annual per-pupil cost for a general-education school student in third grade in the District is $14,586.

11. The District was in session during the 2022–2023 school year for 180 days; the daily tuition rate for a general-education school student is $81.03. The Board assessed K.P. $4,456.65, for fifty-five days of ineligible attendance.

12. K.P. is not registered in the District for the 2023–2024 school year, and did not attend school in the District during the 2023–2024 school year.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

At issue is whether K.P. (daughter) was entitled to a free education under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, which provides that public schools shall be free to persons over five and under twenty years of age who are "domiciled within the school district." See V.R. ex rel A.R. v. Hamburg Bd. of Educ., 2 N.J.A.R. 283, 287 (1980), aff'd, State Bd., 1981 S.L.D. 1533, rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Rabinowitz v. N.J. State Bd. of Educ., 550 F. Supp. 481 (D.N.J. 1982) (New Jersey requires local domicile, as opposed to mere residence, in order for a student to receive a free education).

A person who meets age requirements and is domiciled within a school district may attend its public schools free of charge. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). A person may have many residences but only one domicile. Somerville Bd. of Educ. v. Manville Bd. of Educ., 332 N.J. Super. 6, 12 (App. Div. 2000), aff'd, 167 N.J. 55 (2001). A child's domicile is normally that of his or her parents. Ibid. Therefore, to determine whether K.P. was eligible to attend the Hamilton Township public schools, it is necessary to determine whether one or both of her parents are domiciled in Hamilton.[3]

"[T]he domicile of a person is the place where he has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning, and from which he has no present intention of moving." In re Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374 (Law Div. 1991) (quoting Kurilla v. Roth, 132 N.J.L. 213, 215 (Sup. Ct. 1944), aff'd, 311 N.J. Super. 589 (App. Div. 1998), certif. denied, 157 N.J. 541 (1998), cert. denied, 526 U.S. 1051 (1999).

Eligibility under the education laws and regulations is framed as, in relevant part:

> A student is eligible to attend a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district. . . A student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district.

[3] There was no evidence presented as to the domicile of K.P.'s mother, whether her parents are divorced, and/or whether they entered a custody agreement determining domicile for the purpose of education.

[N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1). Emphasis added.]

It is not disputed that petitioner is domiciled in the District. In the absence of sufficient proof that K.P. does not live with her father or that he does not have custody, the relevant Code provision is clear. That K.P. spent a few nights in December 2022 at a non-parental residence in Princeton bears little weight in this regard.

Accordingly, I FIND that petitioner (K.P.'s father) is domiciled in the Township of Hamilton School District. I further FIND that, for purposes of N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1, K.P. is domiciled in the Township of Hamilton School District. Based on this, I CONCLUDE that K.P. is entitled to a free public education in the Township of Hamilton School District pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1.

DECISION AND ORDER

Based on the foregoing findings of fact and conclusion of law, it is ORDERED that the relief is GRANTED. The decision of the Township of Hamilton School District Board is REVERSED. It is further ORDERED that respondent Hamilton Township Board of Education's counterclaim for tuition reimbursement is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." Final Decision

K.W. and S.W., on behalf of minor child, A.W.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the School District of the Chathams, Morris County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners appealed the decision of the respondent Board that their son, a ninth grader at Chatham High School during the 2022-2023 school year, committed an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB), pursuant to the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq, against a fellow classmate. Petitioners contended, inter alia, that the Board's determination of HIB against their son was arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable; they sought an order reversing the decision and removal of any mention of the HIB finding from A.W.'s school record. A hearing in the matter was held on February 14, 2024 in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL).

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: an action by a board of education is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be undermined unless it can be shown that the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; here, the HIB complaint at issue resulted from A.W.'s posting of the word "NIGERs" to a SnapChat chat group using a Chat Bot artificial intelligence app (AI) that could create words; the chat group consisted of several ninth grade boys, one of whom is black; although A.W. contends that he quickly deleted the post, a few of the other boys screenshot the post, thereby preserving its content; this electronic communication occurred on school property during school hours, disrupted the orderly operation of the school and triggered the HIB investigation; the posting of the word "NIGERs" was an intentional act that could not be accidently generated; A.W. should have known that posting the word "NIGERs" to a group chat where one of the members is black could have the effect of emotionally harming that student or placing him in reasonable fear of harm to his person; and the chat post was insulting and demeaning to the black member of the group. The ALJ concluded that petitioners failed to demonstrate that the Board's determination of HIB was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable in this case. Accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in rendering its HIB determination in this case. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, dated December 8, 2023, challenging the Board's harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) determination.

The Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the contested case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested matter, where it was filed on September 28, 2023.

A prehearing conference was held on October 13 and 17, 2023, and a Prehearing Order was entered on October 17, 2023.

A hearing on the matter was held on February 14, 2024, whereupon the record closed.

ISSUE

Did Respondent err in determining that the minor child A.W. committed an act of HIB within the meaning of the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.2 et seq.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The incident that led to the HIB investigation occurred on April 21, 2023, a Friday. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)
2. A.W. posted the word "NIGERs" to a SnapChat chat group using a Chat Bot artificial intelligence app (AI) that could create words. A.W. used this to create the word "NIGERs" multiple times. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)
3. There are several members of the chat group called the "Nice Fellers". A.W. was a member of this group. S.R., the alleged HIB victim, was also a member. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

4. Other members of this chat group, not A.W., posted the word "NIGGA" and tagged S.R. with the post. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

5. Tagging is when the person you tag is notified of the post so he or she can see it immediately. (Hendersen testimony and S.R. testimony)

6. All posts to SnapChat are deleted within 24 hours. The only way to save a post is to take a screen shot. (Hendersen testimony)

7. The incident was reported by a schoolteacher who overheard S.R. and another member of the chat group talking about what was posted to the chat. (Hendersen testimony)

8. The school's anti bullying specialist, Conner Hendersen, commenced an investigation. He spoke with A.W. on April 21, 2023. He also spoke with S.R. the same date. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

9. Several other members of the chat group were also interviewed that date. They were: C.N., S.D., and S.N. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

10. On the following Monday, April 24, 2023, S.R. was again interviewed and revealed he had spent the weekend with the group chat members and reported they had apologized and said he felt "fine". (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony and S.R. testimony)

11. Also interviewed again on April 24, 2023 were S.D. and S.N. B.R. was interviewed for the first time on this date.

12. All participants in the chat group, other than S.R., offered various explanations as to why they posted the two versions of the N word. No one admitted it was done to target S.R.

13. S.R. told Mr. Hendersen at his April 21, 2023, interview that the use of the N word bothered him. Mr. Hendersen admitted that he did not so state in his HIB report. S.R. confirmed he advised Mr. Hendersen that he stated so during the April 21, 2023 interview. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony and S.R. testimony)

14. S.N., S.D. and B.R. tagged S.R. with the post of the word Nigga. A.W. did not tag S.R. with his post of the word NIGERs. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

15. In order for the AI Chat Bot app to generate a word must enter words which the app will use the first letters of to generate an acronym. The words are not generated by the app without input. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

16. Based on the above, the only logical conclusion is that the words were purposely generated, and not attributable to some accident. This was an intentional act. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

17. Mr. Hendersen concluded in his HIB report that A.W. committed an act of HIB by posting the word NIGERs into the chat group. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

18. After the completion of his initial HIB report, Mr. Hendersen received additional information from petitioners in the form of a screen shot of a message from S.R. to A.W. wherein he used the N word to refer to A.W. (R-2, P-3 and Hendersen testimony)

19. Mr. Hendersen then completed a supplemental report dated May 18, 2023, wherein he concluded that the additional information did not alter his conclusion that an act of HIB was committed by A.W. (R-2, P-3 and Hendersen testimony)

20. S.R. admitted to using the N word in addressing A.W. in a text. He maintained he could use this word as he is black. He further stated A.W. could not use the word as he is white.

21. Petitioners contested that determination and appealed to the Board of Education. A hearing was held on June 5, 2023, and considered the HIB report, a statement by A.W. read into the record by his father and arguments of counsel. The Board upheld the HIB determination. (P-1 and Daquila testimony)

22. There was a second addendum to the HIB report dated June 7, 2023, regarding additional posts to the chat group from April 21, 2023. Those posts do not involve A.W. and were not part of the HIB finding as to him. (R-2 and P-4)

23. This incident involved an electronic communication that occurred on school property during school hours that substantially disrupted and interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students. That disruption was the catalyst for the ABS, Mr. Hendersen, to conduct a HIB investigation. This entailed pulling students out of class to be interviewed. Those students, admittedly the perpetrators of the HIB, should have been in class but for their actions. The disruption continued into the next week as more interviews were required. Other staff such as the teacher who made the initial report were not engaged in their ordinary duties to address this incident. That includes S.R.'s case manager, who had to address his concerns regarding the incident.[i] The incident further disrupted school operations by requiring the Board to conduct a hearing, something but for A.W.'s actions would not have occurred.

24. I find that the posting of the word NIGERs to the group chat was an intentional act as the word could not be accidentally generated. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

25. I find that a reasonable person should know that posting the word NIGERs to a group chat where one of the members is a black, under the circumstances, will have the effect of emotionally harming a student. or placing a student in reasonable fear of emotional harm to his person. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony)

26. I find that it had the effect of insulting or demeaning S.R. (S.R. testimony)

27. I find that it created a hostile educational environment for S.R. by interfering with his education by causing him to lose focus and not be able to concentrate on his studies. (R-1, P-2, Hendersen testimony and S.R. testimony)

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq., is designed "to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1.(f). Under the Act, "harassment, intimidation or bullying" (HIB) is defined as:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 ofP.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.]

Each school district must adopt a policy that prohibits HIB and provides for a prompt response to any alleged HIB incident. N.J.S.A 18A:37-15. Once an alleged HIB incident is reported to the school principal, the principal must initiate an investigation within one school day of the report. N.J.S.A 18A:37-15(b)(6). The investigation shall be conducted by a school anti-bullying specialist, and shall take no longer than ten school days to be completed. The results of the investigation shall then be quickly reported to the superintendent of schools, who may take certain remedial action. The results shall also be reported to the board of education "no later than the date of the board of education meeting next following the completion of the investigation, along with information on any services provided, training established, discipline imposed, or other action taken or recommended by the superintendent." Ibid.

Pursuant to the Act, the parents of the students involved in any alleged HIB incident are entitled to receive information about the nature of the investigation and the result of the investigation. The parents may request a hearing before the board, and the hearing must be held within ten days of the request. Any hearing shall be held in executive session to protect the identity of any students involved. The board may hear from the anti-bullying specialist about the incident, recommendations for discipline or services, and any programs instituted to reduce such incidents. The board must issue a decision at the first meeting after its receipt of the investigation report. The board may affirm, reject, or modify the superintendent's decision. The board's decision may be appealed to the Commissioner of Education.

An action by a board of education "is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be upset unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965). Thus, in order to prevail, those challenging an HIB decision made by a board of education "must demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it." G.H. & E.H. ex rel. K.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Bor. of Franklin Lakes, EDU 13204-13, Initial Decision (February 24, 2014) (citation omitted) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (April 10, 2014). Also, a board's decision may be overturned if its determination violates the legislative policies expressed or implied in the governing act. J.A.H. ex rel. C.H. v. Twp. of Pittsgrove Bd. of Educ., EDU 10826-12, Initial Decision (March 11, 2013) (citing Campbell v. Dep't of Civil Serv., 39 N.J. 556 (1963), 562 (1963)), adopted, Comm'r (April 25, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

There are reported cases in which HIB determinations by boards of education have been both affirmed and overturned. In R.G.B. v. Vill. of Ridgewood Bd. of Educ., EDU 14213-12, Initial Decision (May 15, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (June 24, 2013), the ALJ found that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in determining that a student engaged in HIB when he repeatedly called a female student "fat," "fat ass," and "horse." According to the ALJ, such verbal statements satisfied all of the necessary elements under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. And, in G.H., supra, the ALJ also upheld a Board's finding that a white student who repeatedly called a black student "Kool-Aid" engaged in HIB. The ALJ found that the "use of the word 'kool-aid' was directed at [the other student] because of his race; insulted and demeaned [the other student]; and . . . interfered with [the other student's] education" because "[u]pset and embarrassed children are not fully available for learning." However, in J.A.H., supra, the Board's finding that an incident in which one student stuffed a crumbled piece of paper down the shirt of another student constituted an act of bullying was overturned as arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable because the incident was merely a prank that was part of an ongoing, mutual conflict between the two boys and did not "contain the more serious and aggravating elements either 'expressed or implied' under [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.]" The ALJ found that the incident was not improperly motivated by a distinguishing characteristic and that the facts "only support[ed] a finding of ordinary student conflicts rather than the more serious behavior of bullying."

In the instant matter, there is no question that A.W. posted the word "NIGERs" to a SnapChat group called the NICE FELLERS. This group consisted of A.W., the victim S.W., and several other freshman boys. That act by A.W. was intentional. This was not inadvertent tapping of some buttons. The word could only be generated by prompting the app to do it. Argument that the disruption to the school and to S.R. were only caused by the HIB investigation, and not the act of HIB itself, are completely unconvincing. The only logical conclusion is that it was done intentionally and was directed at S.R. based upon his race; and, that it harmed S.R. and disrupted school functions.

Given the totality of the facts in the instant matter, I cannot conclude that the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in determining that an HIB incident did occur. See In Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965); R.G.B. v. Vill. of Ridgewood Bd. of Educ., EDU 14213-12, Initial Decision (May 15, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (June 24, 2013); and, J.A.H. ex rel. C.H. v. Twp. of Pittsgrove Bd. of Educ., EDU 10826-12, Initial Decision (March 11, 2013) (citing Campbell v. Dep't of Civil Serv., 39 N.J. 556 (1963), 562 (1963)), adopted, Comm'r (April 25, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

While the undersigned may have come to a different conclusion than a finding of HIB, based on the intent of A.W. in making the post to Snap Chat, that does not mean that the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that Petitioners have failed to sustain the burden of establishing that the Board acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably in finding that HIB did occur.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the Petition must be DISMISSED.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that Petitioner's Amended Petition be DISMISSED with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

H.M., on behalf of minor children, R.M. and H.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth,
Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that his minor children, R.M. and H.M., were not entitled to a free public education in Elizabeth schools during the period between May 19, 2023 and September 15, 2023, contending that he and his children resided at an address on Gibbons Street in Elizabeth during this period. The Board contended that the children were domiciled in Linden with their mother. The Board sought tuition reimbursement for the period of R.M. and H.M.'s alleged ineligible attendance in Elizabeth schools.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner filed his pro se residency appeal in September 2023; thereafter, petitioner failed to appear at three scheduled prehearing telephone conferences, two in November 2023 and one in January 2024, despite having received appropriate notice of same; petitioner subsequently failed to appear at an in-person hearing scheduled for February 8, 2024, and has offered no explanation for his failure to appear; nevertheless, the hearing proceeded on an ex parte basis to consider the Board's counterclaim for tuition. The ALJ concluded that petitioner has abandoned his appeal. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered the petition dismissed; further, the ALJ granted the Board's counterclaim for tuition and ordered the petitioner to reimburse the Board in the total amount of $5,981.40 for thirty days of ineligible attendance by R.M. and H.M. during the period in question

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter and dismissed the petition. Petitioner was ordered to reimburse the Board in the total amount of $5,981.40, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

Final Decision

H.M., on behalf of minor children,
R.M. and H.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth,
Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner abandoned his appeal and failed to sustain his burden of establishing that he was domiciled in Elizabeth (District) between May 19, 2023 and September 15, 2023. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that petitioner's minor children were therefore not entitled to a free public education in the District during that time.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which the minor children were ineligible to attend school in the District. Therefore, the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $5,981.40[1]

[1] The tuition reimbursement for R.M. is $2,988.90. This amount is based on the per diem tuition of $99.63 listed in the District's Notice of Final Ineligibility (Exhibit R-7) and 30 days of ineligible attendance as shown on the District's for the period from May 19, 2023 and September 15, 2023, during which time petitioner's minor children were ineligible to attend school in the District.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $5,981.40. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

BEFORE: R. TALI EPSTEIN, ALJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner H.M. is the father of minor children R.M. and H.M.[1] who were students in the Elizabeth Public School District ("District") until they transferred to the Linden

[1] Petitioner shares the same initials (H.M.) as one of the children on behalf of whom he brings this appeal. For the avoidance of confusion, the child H.M. will be referred to herein by initials and the father as "petitioner."

Public School District on September 18, 2023. From May 19, 2023 until September 15, 2023, when they were disenrolled, R.M. and H.M. were not domiciled in the District. Should public school be free for R.M. and H.M. in the District for this period? No. Public school shall be free only to a minor who is domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 27, 2023, the Elizabeth Board of Education ("Board" or "respondent") initially determined that R.M. and H.M. were not domiciled within the District, offered to conduct a residency hearing before the Board, and directed petitioner to present residency proofs to its investigator. Petitioner did not seek a residency hearing. (R-6.)

On May 19, 2023, the Board rendered its final decision, advising petitioner that neither child could attend public schools in the District because their domicile was not in the District. (R-7.) The Board further advised petitioner that he had the right to appeal the District's residency determination within twenty-one days of the May 19, 2023, notice. If he abandoned and/or failed to prosecute his appeal, however, the District could seek per diem tuition reimbursement for the period of the children's ineligible attendance. (Id.) The notice also informed petitioner that if he did not appeal within twenty-one days, R.M. and H.M. would be removed from the District schools. (Id.)

On September 12, 2023, the Board advised petitioner that H.M. and R.M. would be transferred out of the District on September 15, 2023. (R-8.)

On or about September 15, 2023, petitioner completed and submitted a Pro Se Residency Appeal form. (R-9.) On October 24, 2023, the Board filed its answer and counterclaim for tuition reimbursement.[2]

[2] A corrected answer dated November 21, 2023, addressed a typographical error in the "wherefore" clause of the initial pleading.

On October 26, 2023, the Department of Education Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the matter under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL"), N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing as a contested case under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

I scheduled an initial telephone prehearing conference for November 21, 2023. The Board's counsel appeared, but petitioner did not. I rescheduled the initial prehearing conference for November 27, 2023, and again for January 3, 2024, but petitioner failed to appear on both occasions, despite advance notice. On January 3, 2024, I issued a prehearing order to the parties and set the matter for an in-person hearing on January 24, 2024. Due to a scheduling conflict and at respondent's request, the hearing date was adjourned to February 8, 2024, at 9:30 a.m., and petitioner was notified of same. The parties also received a reminder notification of the hearing on February 7, 2024.

On February 8, 2024, I conducted the hearing. Petitioner failed to appear and did not contact the OAL to explain his absence. After waiting thirty minutes, I opened the record at 10:00 a.m. and proceeded ex parte with the Board's counterclaim for tuition reimbursement. I closed the record following the Board's presentation of its proofs.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having reviewed and considered the uncontested testimony of the Board's residency investigator, Timothy Kirk ("Kirk"), and based on the documentary evidence presented at the hearing, I FIND the following FACTS in this matter:

Petitioner did not appear for the hearing, and there is no indication that he did not receive notice of the hearing. Petitioner never called or wrote to the OAL explaining his failures to appear for the prehearing conferences or the hearing. I therefore FIND that petitioner has abandoned his appeal.

The Board's residency investigation of R.M. and H.M.'s domicile began in or about April 2023, when it became aware that the younger child, H.M., was routinely picked up late. School staff reported that H.M. waited after school for an older sibling (who previously transferred to and was attending school in Linden) to pick up H.M. and walk together to Linden, where their mother lived. (R-2.) Petitioner admits that R.M. and H.M.'s mother resides in Linden, but he claims that R.M. and H.M. reside with him at 858 Gibbons Court in Elizabeth (the "Elizabeth address"). (Id.)

Kirk, a former police officer and residency investigator for two and one-half years, conducted the residency investigation. Kirk credibly testified regarding the steps he took to investigate the matter. He reviewed the address information provided by R.M. and H.M.'s parents upon their registration and enrollment in the District schools. (R-1.) Kirk also investigated and surveilled the Elizabeth address provided by petitioner and the Linden residence of R.M. and H.M.'s mother. (R-3, R-11.) Kirk further reviewed records of school-issued laptop location information for R.M. and H.M. (R-4, R-5.) and the purported proofs of residence supplied by petitioner.

Kirk's investigation revealed that the Elizabeth address provided by petitioner is a single-family dwelling that was the subject of multiple residency investigations involving several different families and eleven students, including R.M. and H.M. (R-10.) A background search of petitioner shows the family residence at 1826 Essex Avenue, Apt. 1, in Linden, NJ. (R-3.) Similarly, the laptop location information shows that, outside of school locations, the laptops issued to R.M. and H.M. were turned on in the immediate vicinity of the Linden home address. (R-4, R-5.) Over the ten-month period surveyed (while school was in session), there was no record that either of the laptops was turned on at the Elizabeth address. (Id.)

During the course of Kirk's physical surveillance of the Elizabeth address in April and May 2023, he never observed R.M. or H.M. exiting or returning to that location. Kirk did, however, observe both students exiting the Linden address. Kirk photographed R.M. walking from the Linden address on April 24, 2023, a school morning at approximately 7:30 a.m. (R-11.)

The Board sent petitioner notices of initial determination of ineligibility for H.M. and R.M., both dated April 27, 2023 (the "Initial Notices"). (R-6.) The Initial Notices attached a residency verification form directing petitioner to present specific forms of proof. (Id.) Petitioner neither completed the verification form nor did he supply any proof of residency in Elizabeth. Thereafter, the Board sent notices of final eligibility for H.M. and R.M. to petitioner at the Linden address (the "Final Notices"). (R-7.) Among other things, the Final Notices directed petitioner to contact Mr. Kirk with any questions. (Id.) On May 22, 2023, petitioner met with Mr. Kirk. Petitioner provided some documentation but insufficient proof of residency. By letters dated September 12, 2023, the Board advised petitioner that, in light of his failure to provide proof of residency, H.M. and R.M. "will be transferred out of the Elizabeth School District on September 15, 2023." (R-8.) Petitioner then appealed the Board's determination and submitted several documents with his pro se residency appeal dated September 15, 2023. (R-9.) Petitioner, however, failed to submit the requisite number of proofs required by the Board. Petitioner also failed to submit a lease or other verifiable forms of proof that would establish residency in Elizabeth. (Id.)

The per diem rate for tuition at the Elizabeth school R.M. attended is $99.63. (R-7.) The per diem rate at the Elizabeth school H.M. attended is $99.75. (Id.) May 19, 2023, marked the beginning of the period of ineligible attendance for R.M. and H.M. in the District. Based on the District school calendar, there were twenty-two school days from May 19, 2023, until the end of the 2022-2023 school year. (R-12.) During the 2023-2024 school year, R.M. and H.M.'s period of ineligible attendance ran from the first day of the school year, September 5, 2023, until they were disenrolled on September 15, 2023, amounting to eight school days. (Id.) Applying the per diem rates above, the District seeks tuition reimbursement for R.M. and H.M. for thirty days of ineligible attendance for a total of $5,981.40.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Public school shall be free to a person over five and under twenty years of age who is domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). A student is domiciled in a school district if his parent or guardian has a permanent home in the district such that "the parent or guardian intends to return to it when absent, and has no present intent of moving from it, notwithstanding the existence of homes or residences elsewhere." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1); State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). New Jersey has consistently held that the domicile of the child follows the domicile of the parent. Shim v. Rutgers, 191 N.J. 374, 399 (2007). Establishment of a domicile is an act of volition. Matter of Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 375 (Law Div. 1991). "[A] choice of domicile by a person, irrespective of the motive, will be honored by the court, provided there are sufficient objective indicia, by way of proofs, supporting the actual existence of that domicile." Id. at 376.

N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2 authorizes the Commissioner of Education to assess tuition if a student does not have a right to attend school in the district and/or a residency appeal is abandoned.

Here, petitioner failed to appear for the scheduled hearing, without explanation, and there is no testimony or other evidence challenging the District's residency determination or counterclaim for tuition reimbursement. I, therefore, CONCLUDE that because petitioner abandoned his appeal, it is dismissed. Further, based upon the facts adduced at the hearing, I CONCLUDE that a preponderance of the evidence demonstrates that petitioner, H.M. and R.M. are not domiciled in Elizabeth, nor were they domiciled in the District when Elizabeth commenced its investigation. Thus, I CONCLUDE that the Board is entitled to prevail as a matter of law on its counterclaim for tuition reimbursement in the amount sought.

ORDER

Given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is hereby ORDERED that petitioner's residency appeal is DISMISSED. It is further ORDERED that respondent's counterclaim seeking tuition reimbursement is GRANTED, and petitioner is ORDERED to reimburse respondent the amount of $5,981.40 for the thirty school days of ineligible attendance by H.M. and R.M. in the District prior to their disenrollment on September 15, 2023.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

G.G., on behalf of minor child, M.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth,
Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that her minor child, M.M., was not entitled to a free public education in Elizabeth schools during the period between December 1, 2023 and February 12, 2024, contending that she and her child resided at an address on Bond Street in Elizabeth during this period. The Board contended that M.M. resided in Irvington with her grandmother. The Board sought tuition reimbursement for the period of M.M.'s alleged ineligible attendance in Elizabeth schools.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner filed her pro se residency appeal on December 6, 2023; thereafter, petitioner failed to appear at a scheduled in-person hearing on February 12, 2024; petitioner offered no explanation for her failure to appear; the hearing proceeded on an ex parte basis to consider the Board's counterclaim for tuition. The ALJ concluded that petitioner has abandoned her appeal. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered the petition dismissed; further, the ALJ granted the Board's counterclaim for tuition and ordered the petitioner to reimburse the Board in the amount of $4,483.35 for forty-five days of M.M.'s ineligible attendance during the period from December 1, 2023 to February 12, 2024.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter and dismissed the petition. Petitioner was ordered to reimburse the Board in the amount of $4,483.35, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

Final Decision

G.G., on behalf of minor child, M.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that petitioner abandoned her appeal and failed to sustain her burden of establishing that she was domiciled in Elizabeth (District) between December 1, 2023 and February 12, 2024. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that M.M. was, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the District during that time.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioner for the time period during which the minor child was ineligible to attend school in the District. Therefore, the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $4,483.35[1] for the period from December 1, 2023 and February 12, 2024, during which time M.M. was ineligible to attend school in the District.

[1] This amount is based on the per diem tuition of $99.63 listed in the District's Notice of Final Ineligibility (Exhibit R-8) and 45 days of ineligible attendance as testified to by the District's investigator and shown on the District's 2023-2024 calendar (Exhibit R-12). The Commissioner was not provided with a transcript of the testimony.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $4,483.35. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

Brian J. Kane, Esq, for respondent (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella)

Record Closed: February 12, 2024 Decided: February 14, 2024

BEFORE JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On December 6, 2023, petitioner, G.G., filed a residency appeal on behalf of her child, M.M., grade 12. On January 2, 2024, the City of Elizabeth Board of Education (BOE or respondent) filed an Answer with the State Department of Education (DOE) seeking reimbursement from petitioner for the costs of tuition incurred by the attendance of her minor child in the BOE's school district from December 1, 2023 through February 12, 2024, for a total of forty-five days at the per diem rate of $99.63. The DOE transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 2, 2024, for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The matter was scheduled for an in-person hearing on February 12, 2024. G.G. failed to appear. Notwithstanding, testimony was taken pertaining to the cost of the education provided by the BOE.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Petitioner bears the burden to prove that her child was domiciled in the City of Elizabeth. Failure to sustain that burden leaves in place and affects the findings of BOE at its hearing regarding domicile of the child. Because of the petitioner's failure to appear at the plenary hearing, she fails to prosecute her appeal and there is no basis to consider overturning the finding of BOE.

Timothy Kirk, the district investigator for the district testified on behalf of the BOE in support of its counterclaim for tuition. Kirk was assigned to investigate this matter when the District received a returned mail notice. (R-5) He testified that based upon his investigation, M.M. attended high school in Elizabeth for 45 days from December 1, 2023 to February 12, 2024. (R-2) Kirk testified regarding the results of the investigation supporting the finding that M.M. is not domiciled at the Elizabeth address provided by petitioner, but rather resides with her grandmother in Irvington. Her laptop PINGED to the Irvington address and the school but was never located at the Elizabeth address provided by G.G. G.G. sent a letter to the district on December 6, 2023, referring to a lease that provides the Elizabeth address but never provided the lease. Kirk witnessed M.M. exiting and entering the home in Irvington.

BOE provided certification that the per student tuition rate for the time of the investigation from December 1, 2023 to February 12, 2024 is $4,483.35, the daily cost for the student is at the rate of $99.63. BOE has sustained its burden of proof with respect to its counterclaim for tuition as to M.M. for the forty-five days of attendance at the public schools of BOE.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

The issue in this appeal is whether M.M. was a domiciled student during the forty-five days she attended school in Elizabeth.

Public schools are required to provide a free education to individuals between the ages of five and twenty years in certain circumstances, including individuals who are domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever she is absent, she has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). The domicile of an unemancipated child is the domicile of the parent, custodian, or guardian. P.B.K. o/b/o minor child E.Y. v. Board of Ed. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001). Thus, a child would routinely attend school in the district where his or her parents live.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2) in pertinent part reads as follows:

> The parent or guardian may contest the Board's decision before the Commissioner within 21 days of the date of the decision and shall be entitled to an expedited hearing before the Commissioner and shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this section.

N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(a) requires the withholding of any action for one day "if, after appropriate notice, neither a party nor a representative appears at any proceeding scheduled by the clerk or judge." Thereafter, the matter may be returned to the transmitting agency for appropriate disposition.

The petitioner has failed to appear and to appropriately prosecute the matter brought by her. She has also failed to advise the reason for the nonappearance.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the findings by BOE that the child in question is not domiciled in the City of Elizabeth is in full force and effect.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) reads in pertinent part as follows:

> If in the judgment of the Commissioner the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, he shall assess the resident tuition for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the school district. Tuition shall be computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance and shall be collected in the manner in which orders of the Commissioner are enforced.

BOE's proofs as to ineligibility for attendance and as to the tuition rate are convincing and satisfy its burden of proof for the counterclaim. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that G.G. must pay BOE tuition calculated at the rates previously referenced for her child as to his attendance at BOE's public school during their ineligibility period.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that the petition of the petitioner, G.G, be and is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. It is further ORDERED that G.G. reimburse respondent the total sum of $4,483.35 for tuition costs associated with the attendance of her child M.M. in Elizabeth between December 1, 2023 and February 12, 2024.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Final Decision

Robert Zywicki,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Mount Olive, Morris County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, formerly Superintendent in the Mount Olive School District, challenged the March 2023 actions of the respondent Board, alleging that the Doctrine of Necessity was improperly invoked to certify tenure charges against him. The Board contended that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction in this matter, which should have been filed with the School Ethics Commission (SEC). Petitioner initially sought emergent relief, which was denied by the Commissioner in May 2023; the case was returned to the OAL at that time with a directive to bring the case to closure since the ALJ had issued an order denying emergent relief and dismissing the matter for lack of jurisdiction instead of issuing an Initial Decision as required under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.7.

On remand, the ALJ found, inter alia, that: ethics matters are to be initiated by a complaint filed with the SEC, not with the Commissioner, and the essence of petitioner's allegations is that certain members of the Board acted unethically by invoking the Doctrine of Necessity to manipulate which board members could vote on whether to certify tenure charges against him. The ALJ concluded that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction here and petitioner should have brought this matter before the SEC; since the case has been decided on jurisdictional grounds, there is no need to address the standards for emergent relief. Accordingly, the ALJ dismissed the petition without considering additional submissions from the parties.

Upon review, the Commissioner found that the ALJ advised the parties that they could file written exceptions to the Initial Decision within thirteen days, and neither party has filed exceptions nor otherwise objected to the dismissal of the case. Accordingly, the Commissioner concluded that the petitioner has abandoned the prosecution of his appeal. The petition was dismissed.

Final Decision

Robert Zywicki,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Mount Olive, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

In this matter, petitioner alleged that respondent Board improperly invoked the Doctrine of Necessity to certify tenure charges against him and requested that the Board's vote be vacated. On April 14, 2023, following oral argument on petitioner's motion for emergent relief, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Order denying emergent relief and dismissing the petition for lack of jurisdiction.

On May 25, 2023, the Commissioner rejected the ALJ's Order dismissing the petition. The Commissioner explained that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.7, an ALJ's disposition of a motion which completely concludes a case shall be by Initial Decision. Here, because the ALJ had not issued an Initial Decision, the parties were deprived of the opportunity to file exceptions pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. Consequently, while the Commissioner found that petitioner failed to demonstrate that irreparable harm would occur if the relief sought was not granted and denied his motion for emergent relief, the Commissioner directed that the underlying matter continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deemed necessary to bring it to closure.

On February 20, 2024, without having considered any additional submissions from the parties, the ALJ issued an Initial Decision denying emergent relief, dismissing the petition for lack of jurisdiction, and concluding the matter. The Initial Decision restated the findings and conclusions expressed within the ALJ's April 14, 2023, order. It also advised the parties that they could file written exceptions to the Initial Decision within thirteen days. Because the parties have neither filed exceptions nor otherwise objected to the dismissal, the Commissioner finds that petitioner has abandoned prosecution of the underlying petition of appeal.

Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

BEFORE: JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Robert Zywicki filed a Verified Petition of Appeal and a Motion for Emergent Relief with the Commissioner of Education's Office challenging and seeking to overturn two actions (i.e., votes) of the Mt. Olive Board of Education (hereinafter MOBOE), which took place during the MOBOE's March 13, 2023 meeting. In the first action, the MOBOE voted to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity, and subsequently, in the second action, the MOBOE voted to certify tenure charges against Robert Zywicki, the Superintendent of Schools.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about March 22, 2023, the Petitioner, Robert Zywicki (hereinafter "Zywicki" or the "Superintendent"), through his attorney, Stephen J. Edelstein, filed a Petition of Appeal with an accompanying Motion for Emergent Relief. On March 23, 2023, Attorney Edelstein filed his supporting Brief. On March 23, 2023, the Office of Controversies and Disputes in the Department of Education (hereinafter the "DOE" or the "Commissioner") transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) where it was filed on March 24, 2023 as a contested case. The matter was then assigned to John P. Scollo, ALJ, who ordered the parties to submit Opposition papers, Reply papers, Briefs and supporting materials by March 30, 2023. Oral argument via Zoom was conducted on April 3, 2023 with concerned citizens and a member of the press[1] in attendance.

After the hearing, the judge ordered the attorneys to submit their written summation Briefs by April 5, 2023 with clarifications of their arguments and additional materials.

On May 25, 2023, Acting Commissioner of Education, Angelina Allen-McMillan, Ed.D. sent her Order on Emergent Relief to Judge Scollo stating that his May 14, 2023 Order was an improper way to resolve this matter. She directed Judge Scollo that when dismissing a petition for lack of jurisdiction he should issue an Initial Decision. Therefore, on this date, the undersigned is issuing this Initial Decision which concludes the matter.

[1] The Tribunal welcomes the participation of the press in this matter. While this Judge does not know the parties, their histories, their affiliations, their personal biases or prejudices, or their feelings towards each other, it is evident that these parties have engaged in multiple actions and lawsuits against each other over matters which directly or indirectly affect the schools. The taxpayers will likely bear the costs of these legal matters. The newspaper's thorough and objective investigation, probing into the origins and causes of these multiple actions, would render a great service to the people of Mt. Olive.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION ASCERTAINED FROM THE PARTIES' SUBMISSIONS

In support of Petitioner Zywicki's position, Attorney Edelstein first explained what the Doctrine of Necessity is. He noted at the outset that of the nine people who constituted the MOBOE on March 13, 2023, four of them were conflicted on the issue of voting on tenure charges against Zywicki due to their involvement in pending litigation with Zywicki (who initiated the litigation is not entirely clear to this Tribunal). The four BOE members claimed to be conflicted by Edelstein are: Mr. Antoine Gayles, Mr. Anthony Strillacci, Ms. Elizabeth Ouimet, and Dr. Anthony Giordano. Attorney Edelstein also noted that the Doctrine of Necessity could only be invoked if there were at least five BOE members who were genuinely conflicted. Edelstein claims that enemies of Zywicki (including the above four people and Christopher Zeier and the MOBOE's attorney, Marc Zitomer), improperly and in bad faith manipulated the issue of conflicts in order to bring the number of purportedly "conflicted" BOE members to at least five so that all MOBOE members, including the four previously listed above, would be able to vote on the tenure charges thus making it virtually certain that said charges would be certified. Edelstein argued that if the machinations of Zywicki's "enemies" in manipulating the number of "conflicted" people had not been successful, then there would have still been a quorum (five people) available to vote on the tenure charges and that the effort to certify the tenure charges against Zywicki would have failed. Attorney Roselle argued to the contrary.

ANALYSIS OF THE ARGUMENTS

The following is not a verbatim account of the arguments and documents presented, but rather it encompasses points that the Tribunal found to be most important.

Petitioner's and Respondent's Arguments Regarding Emergent Relief

Attorney Edelstein argued that the MOBOE's improper invocation of the Doctrine of Necessity and its improper certification of tenure charges against Zywicki, and its concomitant suspension of Zywicki's salary and benefits calls for emergent relief. He argued that Zywicki meets the standards (i.e., the four prongs) set forth in Crowe v.

DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982) and thus qualifies for emergent relief. Attorney Roselle argued to the contrary claiming that emergent relief would not be justified and that Zywicki meets none of the criteria for emergent relief as set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). This will be addressed further below.

The Parties' Arguments Regarding Jurisdiction

Both sides agree that the threshold issue before me is the question of whether the OAL has jurisdiction over this matter.

The Parties' jurisdictional arguments with respect to the Commissioner's decision to refer the matter to the OAL

Zywicki's Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief were filed with the Commissioner of Education, who immediately referred the matter to the Office of Administrative Law.

Attorney Edelstein notes that the Commissioner of Education could have dismissed the Petition of Appeal and the Motion if she believed that she lacked jurisdiction. Therefore, he argues that the very fact that the Commissioner referred the matter to the OAL demonstrates that the Commissioner believes she has jurisdiction.

Attorney Roselle, the Respondent's counsel, notes that jurisdiction properly lies with the School Ethics Commission and that the Commissioner of Education's acceptance of Zywicki's papers does not automatically mean that she acknowledged that jurisdiction was proper and was no longer an issue. Attorney Roselle argues that issues dealing with Board member conflicts of interest or the proper invocation of the Doctrine of Necessity belong before the School Ethics Commission. The Respondent relies on previous OAL rulings in Gilliam Gardner v. Board of Education of the City of Hackensack, Bergen County and James Montesano, Patricia Aquino-Lozano and Celso King, Intervenors, OAL Docket No.: EDU 09421-12 (2013) and Castriotta v. Board of Education of the Township of Roxbury, Morris County, OAL Docket No. : EDU 09217-10 (2011), reversed on other grounds, 427 N.J. Super. 592 (App. Div. 2012)

The Parties' jurisdictional arguments with respect to whether this matter arises under the School Laws or under the School Ethics Act (N.J.S.A.18A:12-21, et seq.)

Attorney Edelstein argues that this case contains a valid and important issue which arises under the school laws and therefore jurisdiction belongs to the Commissioner of Education and thus to the OAL. For support, he points to the wide scope of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, where is says:

> The commissioner shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, without cost to the parties, all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws....

That being so, Edelstein argues, the case clearly belongs under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education.

The issue Edelstein refers to is whether or not the MOBOE failed to follow Board Policy 0163, a bylaw, when on March 13, 2023 it allegedly failed to post notice of its intent to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity. Attorney Edelstein maintains that this is a school law issue and therefore it brings this matter into the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education. He concludes that the Board's invocation of the Doctrine of Necessity fails because the Board did not announce (by posting, as required by the bylaw) its intention to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity.

Attorney Edelstein's other argument is that when the Board ignored one of its own bylaws, it was acting beyond the scope of its bylaws when it went ahead with the vote to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity and when it went ahead with the vote on the tenure charges. The bylaw (Board Policy number 0163) covers the invocation of the Doctrine of Necessity and says:

> "When the Board announces the Doctrine of Necessity is being invoked, the details, parameters and / or other pertinent facts of the matter to be voted should be revealed on an agenda for the public meeting in which the matter is to be voted upon."

Edelstein argues that the ignoring of a bylaw raises a school law issue because boards of education must follow procedures set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(for making, amending, or repealing bylaws) if they intend to act outside the bounds of their present bylaws. Attorney Edelstein argues that the Board was only empowered to make, amend or repeal its bylaws by following N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 and that any such changes must appear in the Board's minutes. Edelstein says, "That did not occur" on March 1, 2023.

The Respondent does not concede that the Board acted beyond the scope of its bylaws because it simply did not ignore or set aside the bylaw. Instead, the MOBOE acted within the scope of its bylaws. It concedes that advance posting of its intent to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity did not take place before the March 13, 2023 Board meeting. However, the Respondent argues that no advance posting could possibly be made of its decision to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity because the MOBOE only received advice regarding the invocation of the Doctrine of Necessity from its attorney during the actual Board meeting of March 13, 2023. Moreover, the Board did announce that it was invoking the Doctrine of Necessity during the Board Meeting. The Respondent argues that its action was fully in keeping with the wording of Board Policy 0163 for the following reasons because it did announce its decision to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity at its earliest opportunity to do so at the Board meeting to those in attendance; because the announcement itself constituted the required posting of an agenda;

because there is no requirement in the bylaw for any minimum amount of posting time that must pass before the Board may vote on a matter under the Doctrine of Necessity; and because the very wording of the bylaw allows a posting to be simultaneous with the vote, as demonstrated by the words "for the public meeting in which the matter is to be voted upon.

APPLICABLE LAW

Jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 provides

> The commissioner shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, without costs to the parties, all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws ....

The New Jersey School Ethics Act

The New Jersey School Ethics Act is found at N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 through N.J.S.A. 18A:12-34. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 sets forth prohibited conduct pertaining to all school officials. The Code of Ethics for School Board Members is found therein at N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1. In addition to the requirements of the School Ethics Act, it imposes additional rules governing the conduct of School Board Members. The establishment of the School Ethics Commission is set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-27. The School Ethics Commission's (or "S.E.C.'s") powers and duties are set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-28 and -29. The jurisdiction of the School Ethics Commission is set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29 where the statute says that the S.E.C. accepts complaints alleging a violation of the School Ethics Act or of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members. The S.E.C. then determines whether or not probable cause exists to credit the allegations of the complaint. If the S.E.C. determines that probable cause does not exist, then it shall dismiss the complaint. If the S.E.C. determines that probable cause exists, then it shall refer the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL). Once the OAL hears the matter, the S.E.C. determines by majority vote whether the conduct complained of constitutes a violation of the School Ethics Act (i.e., it decides whether to accept or reject the ALJ's Initial Decision). If the S.E.C. finds that a violation has occurred, it shall, by majority vote, recommend a sanction (reprimand, censure, suspension, or removal) to the Commissioner of Education, who then shall act on the S.E.C.'s recommendation regarding the sanction.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Decision on whether the Commissioner of Education's decision to refer the matter to the OAL manifests a decision on his part that jurisdiction lies with the Commissioner rather than with the School Ethics Commission

While that is true that the Commissioner could have dismissed the Petition of Appeal and the Motion for Emergent Relief if she believed she lacked jurisdiction, the Commissioner was not under any obligation to do so. Her decision to refer the matter to the OAL was proper and, in most cases, the usual course; but her referral does not necessarily decide the question of jurisdiction. To believe otherwise would mean that the issue of determining jurisdiction can never be decided by the OAL. Obviously, that is not true. The parties, in their arguments, have not taken such a position and they have vigorously argued the pros and cons of jurisdiction.

I CONCLUDE that the Commissioner of Education's referral of the matter to the OAL does not manifest a decision on her part that jurisdiction lies with the Commissioner of Education's Office.

Decision as to whether the bylaw's (Board Policy 0163's) requirement for a posting is or is not a school law issue

I have evaluated the arguments of both counsel. Attorney Edelstein's argument is that the Board's alleged ignoring of its own bylaw raises a school law issue because boards of education must follow procedures set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 (for making, amending, or repealing bylaws) if they wish to act outside the bounds of their present bylaws. This, he argues, is a matter of school law. His purpose is to characterize this matter as a school law case. The Respondent's position is that the thrust of Attorney Edelstein's allegations, indeed his entire case, is that the Board "improperly and in bad faith" invoked the Doctrine of Necessity in order to certify tenure charges against Mr. Zywicki. The Respondent argues that Zywicki's allegations are all School Ethics issues, which belong under the jurisdiction of the School Ethics Commission.

The applicable law was stated by Margaret Monaco, ALJ in Clarissa Gilliam Gardner v. Board of Education of the City of Hackensack, Bergen County and James Montesano, Patricia Aquino-Lozano and Celso King, Agency Docket No. 146-5/12 (2013)

> "The Commissioner's jurisdiction is defined by statute and is limited to controversies and disputes arising under the school laws." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Our courts have held that, "[w]here the controversy does not arise under the school laws, it is outside the Commissioner's jurisdiction even though it may pertain to school personnel." Bd. of Educ. Of E. Brunswick v.Twp. Council of E. Brunswick , 48 N.J. 94, 102 (1966). It is recognized that "the sweep of the Department's interest and the Commissioner's jurisdiction does not extend to all matters involving boards of education." Archway Programs, Inc. v. Pemberton Twsp. Bd. of Educ., 352 N.J. Super. 420, 424-425 (App. Div. 2002).

In my analysis, Attorney Edelstein's words tell it all. By his use of the words, "improperly and in bad faith", Attorney Edelstein makes it clear that he is arguing that the members of the MOBOE engaged in unethical conduct. The issue of whether the MOBOE ignored the bylaw is only part and parcel of the larger ethical claims. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the allegation that the MOBOE ignored its bylaw does not transform the matter into a school law case.

Decision Regarding Jurisdiction

The Petitioner, Robert Zywicki, submitted his Petition of Appeal and Motion for Emergent Relief and later submitted his supporting Brief and Exhibits to the Office of Controversies and Disputes in the New Jersey Department of Education. Zywicki did not file his papers with the School Ethics Commission (the "S.E.C.").

While the Commissioner of Education has jurisdiction over "all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws", it is also clear that jurisdiction over School Ethics matters belongs with the School Ethics Commission (i.e., that ethics matters are to be initiated by a complaint filed with the S.E.C., not with the Commissioner, and then the S.E.C. decides the threshold issue of probable cause). Zywicki's allegations are that the MOBOE "improperly and in bad faith" invoked the Doctrine of Necessity in order to "manipulate" the vote on the certification of the tenure charges against him. The essence of Zywicki's allegations (bad faith manipulation of who was or was not "conflicted" in order to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity, and bad faith manipulation of the vote certifying tenure charges) is that certain members of the MOBOE acted unethically and conspired to strip him of his position, his compensation and his family's health benefits. Therefore, by his own words, Zywicki states that the matter presents ethical issues rather than school law issues.

Since it is clear that Zywicki himself has characterized this matter as an ethics matter, it follows that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-28 and 29, jurisdiction lies with the S.E.C. rather that the Commissioner of Education. See Castriotta v. Bd. of Educ. Of Roxbury, EDU-09217-10, Final Decision (May 18, 2011), http://www.nj.gov/education/legal/, rev'd on other grounds, 427 N.J. Super. 592 (App. Div. 2012), where the Commissioner of Education re-affirmed that the "review and adjudication of allegations of Code of Ethics For School Board Members violations is solely within the purview of the School Ethics Commission."

In his filed papers, Zywicki does not raise a valid school law issue; the issues he raises are ethical issues. If this were a matter arising under the school laws, then the Commissioner (and subsequently, at his discretion, the OAL) would have jurisdiction. However, the nature of the allegations, set forth in Zywicki's own words, demonstrates that they are ethical matters and not matters arising under the school laws. As stated above, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-28 and -29 provide that complaints regarding ethical matters fall within the jurisdiction of the S.E.C. rather than the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education. I CONCLUDE that jurisdiction belongs with the S.E.C. and Zywicki should have brought his grievance by way of a Complaint filed with the S.E.C. It follows, and I CONCLUDE that this OAL matter, having been transmitted to the OAL by the Commissioner of Education, who lacked jurisdiction, cannot be maintained, and must be DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction.

Legal Analysis Of The Arguments Concerning The Crowe Factors

Since the matter has been decided on jurisdictional grounds, there is no need for this Tribunal to make an analysis of the Crowe factors.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that Zywicki's Petition of Appeal is DISMISSED and his Motion for Emergent Relief seeking an Order immediately vacating the MOBOE's vote to invoke the Doctrine of Necessity and immediately vacating the MOBOE's certification of the tenure charges brought against Zywicki must be, and hereby is, DENIED; and it is further ORDERED that a copy of this Initial Decision shall be transmitted by email from the OAL to both attorneys, Stephen J. Edelstein and Joseph L. Roselle.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and General Release (the "Agreement") is entered into between L.D. and D.D., individually and on behalf of their son A.D. ("Parents"), and the Toms River Regional School District Board of Education ("TRRS") (TRRS, Parents and A.D. collectively referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, the Parties, following good faith settlement negotiations, are desirous of arriving at an amicable resolution regarding A.D.'s educational program; and

WHEREAS, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties enter into this Agreement to outline their agreement, release claims, and express the full and complete terms of same;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE THAT:

1. Parents hereby consent to TRRS conducting the following evaluations of A.D. at TRRS' sole expense:

- Functional Behavioral Assessment with a TRRS behaviorist; and
- Psychiatric Evaluation with an independent psychiatrist chosen by TRRS.

2. For the Psychiatric Evaluation, Parents will have an opportunity to meet with the independent psychiatrist to express any concerns and share any information which they may have regarding A.D.

3. Written reports from both evaluations will be generated and copies will be provided to Parents.

4. Once both written reports have been received, a meeting of the 504 Committee will be convened with Parents at a mutually convenient time to review the evaluation reports and recommendations and to review and revise A.D.'s 504 Plan and behavior plan accordingly.

5. Parents hereby agree to withdraw the December 2022 request for independent educational evaluations and the Petition of Appeal filed against TRRS, with prejudice.

6. TRRS hereby agrees to withdraw its Due Process Petition to Deny Request for Independent Educational Evaluations filed against Parents, with prejudice.

7. In consideration of the above, the Parties hereby forever and fully waive and release each other from any and all claims under any law, regulation, or legal theory, which have accrued as of the date that this Agreement is fully accepted by Parents on the record before the Honorable Kimberly M. Wilson, A.L.J. Nothing in the release set forth in this Paragraph shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

8. This Agreement is made without any admission of fault or liability by any Party.

9. No Party will be considered to be a "prevailing party" for any purpose, and each Party shall be responsible for its own attorney's fees, expert costs, and any other costs incurred in connection with this matter except as otherwise provided herein.

10. The Parties consent to this Agreement being memorialized into Orders and Decisions issued by the Office of Administrative Law approving this Agreement and closing both matters

11. The Parties agree that the terms of this Agreement shall remain strictly confidential to the fullest extent permitted by law, except that when asked regarding these matters, the Parties shall respond that the matters were resolved to their satisfaction.

12. Parents represent, verify, and affirm to the Board that they have the authority and ability to enter into this Agreement on behalf of A.D. and that it is binding on them and on A.D., and that they have voluntarily entered into this Agreement without duress or undue influence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the dates written below.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

H.P., on behalf of minor child, R.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Tenafly, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner appealed the decision of the respondent Board that her son, a freshman at Tenafly High School during the 2022-2023 school year, committed an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB), pursuant to the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq, against a fellow classmate. The HIB complaint resulted from anti-semitic comments and threats of physical harm made by R.S. during an exchange on Instagram with a Jewish student in January 2023; this exchange followed text exchanges between R.S. and his classmate which included back-and-forth insults regarding the other's perceived soccer skills. R.S. alleged that the Instagram messages were in response to these sarcastic comments made about his soccer abilities. The Board filed a motion for summary decision, which was opposed by the petitioner, who contended that the Board's determination was procedurally deficient as it did not provide an HIB hearing within ten days as required by the Act; further, petitioner argued that R.S. was also a victim of bullying based on the comments made about her son's soccer skills.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue here, and the case is ripe for summary decision; an action by a board of education is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be undermined unless it can be shown that the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; R.S. and the victim knew each other from physical education and other classes; an HIB investigation was initiated by the Board's anti-bullying specialist after the victim met with her guidance counselor to report R.S.'s anti-semitic comments and threats made through a private message on Instagram; and the resulting HIB report concluded that R.S.'s actions met all of the statutory requirements and did constitute an act of HIB. The ALJ concluded that the action of the Board in determining that R.S.'s conduct constituted HIB was not arbitrary, capricious or against the weight of the evidence; further, even though the Board failed to provide a hearing in this matter within 10 days as required under the Act, this failure does not undermine the Board's substantive HIB determination. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner, inter alia, concurred with the ALJ that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in rendering its HIB determination in this case. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

H.P., on behalf of minor child, R.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Tenafly, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the Tenafly Board of Education's (Board) determination that R.S. committed an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ that the Board failed to comply with N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(d) because the hearing requested by petitioner was not held within ten days. The Board is reminded to comply with this provision moving forward. However, the failure to comply is insufficient reason to require the Commissioner to reverse the Board's substantive HIB determination.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

v.
BOROUGH OF TENAFLY BOARD OF EDUCATION, BERGEN COUNTY

Joseph R. Donahue, Esq., on behalf of petitioner H.P. o/b/o R.S. (Joseph R. Donahue, attorneys)

Stephen Fogarty, Esq., for respondent Borough of Tenafly Board of Education (Fogarty and Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 8, 2024 Decided: January 24, 2024

BEFORE GAIL M. COOKSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about July 25, 2023, H.P. (petitioner) filed a Petition of Appeal to the decision of the Borough of Tenafly Board of Education (Board) in which she asserted that the District erred in finding that her son (R.S.) had been the perpetrator of an act(s) of harassment, intimidation or bullying (HIB) in violation of the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (ABBRA), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq., against S.S., a fellow high school student.

The matter was transmitted by the Department of Education to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on August 8, 2023, for plenary hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The matter was assigned to the undersigned thereafter. Accordingly, a telephonic case management conference was convened with the parties on September 7, 2023, to discuss the potential issues in the case, motion practice, and other case management concerns. Additional status conferences were held on October 18 and November 17, 2023. Initially, evidentiary hearing dates were set for December 2023 but those were adjourned when respondent sought leave to file a summary decision motion. Respondent filed a Motion for Summary Decision on the Appeal on or about November 14, 2023. Extensions of briefing deadlines were generously granted to each party. Those motion submissions having been received, the matter is now ripe for decision.

ISSUE PRESENTED ON THE MOTION

Respondent argues that the Board's determination that the conduct petitioner complained of did not constitute harassment, intimidation, or bullying under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable and can be decided at this preliminary stage on the basis that there are no genuine issues of material fact and that the undisputed facts warrant upholding the Board decision. Petitioner opposes the motion to dismiss on the basis that the conclusions of the Board were arrived at in a cursory and faulty manner procedurally; and that substantively, her son should have also been viewed as a victim of bullying.

STANDARD OF REVIEW ON THE MOTION

An action by a board of education "is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be upset unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965). Thus, in order to prevail, those challenging a HIB decision made by a board of education "must demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it." G.H. & E.H. ex rel. K.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Bor. of Franklin Lakes, EDU 13204-13, Initial Decision (February 24, 2014) (citation omitted) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, adopted, Comm'r (April 10, 2014). Also, a board's decision may be overturned if its determination violates the legislative policies expressed or implied in the governing act. J.A.H. ex rel. C.H. v. Twp. of Pittsgrove Bd. of Educ., EDU 10826-12, Initial Decision (March 11, 2013) (citing Campbell v. Dep't of Civil Serv., 39 N.J. 556, 562 (1963)), adopted, Comm'r (April 25, 2013) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

Under the Uniform Administrative Procedure, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, which govern the conduct of contested cases before the OAL, a party may file a motion for summary decision on substantive issues in a contested case. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). The motion "shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). The Administrative Law Judge presiding over the contested case may grant a party's motion "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." Ibid. Accord Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 530 (1995).

UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

1. R.S. and S.S. were both freshman in high school during the 2022-2023 school year. Both were attending Tenafly High School as freshmen that school year. R.S. is a boy from Korea and S.S. is a Jewish girl from Israel. [Brief of Joseph R. Donahue, Esq., at 2.] The two students knew each other from physical education classes, among other school classes and places.

2. On January 9, 2023, the victim came into the Guidance Office to speak with her counselor and reported that R.S. exchanged insulting and threatening comments via Instagram on January 7, 2023. [Certification of James O. Morrison (Morrison Cert.) ¶ 4.] These messages included threats of physical harm. [Morrison Cert. ¶ 4, Exhibit B.]

3. As a result, the District decided to inform a Crisis Team Member who determined R.S. needed a mental health clearance. On January 10, 2023, R.S. was cleared to return back to school as it was determined he was not a danger to himself or others. [Watson Cert. ¶¶ 5-6; Exhibit B.]

4. On or about January 11, 2023, Jessica Lopes, who is the District's Anti-Bullying Specialist, began an investigation to determine the facts and whether an act of HIB had occurred. James Morrison, Principal at the high school, assisted her with parts of the investigation. [Certification of Jessica Lopes (Lopes Cert.) ¶ 5.] Lopes met with the victim to learn more about the Instagram interaction that occurred on January 7, 2023. [Lopes Cert., Ex. B]. The victim reported that R.S. contacted her first through Instagram on January 7, 2023. R.S. messaged, in relevant part, the following to the victim:

> "U literally run lik the people from the holocaust getting chased by Germans"
>
> "ur forehead is big as ur life bout getting injected by germans"
>
> "no wonder y hitler ain't liking u only"
>
> "Monday ill kill u"
>
> "I'll fucking disform ur face"
>
> "and I have the rights to beat ur lil ass up"
>
> "u stupid...I'm going to get physical on u...hit ur face with my shoulder...even worse...my elbow...I can break ur calves since u have skinny ones...and u don't fucking work out"
>
> [Morrison Cert. ¶ 8; Ex. C.]

5. Lopes and Morrison also met with R.S. on or about January 11, 2023. R.S. stated that he had seen the victim like one of his Instagram pictures, so he sent a private message to her. R.S. alleged that his messages were in response to sarcastic comments made about him and his soccer skills. [Morrison Cert. ¶ 9; Exhibit B.]

6. On or about January 19, 2023, after investigating the report, Lopes issued her report finding that R.S.'s actions met all the statutory requirements and did constitute an act of HIB. She found that both the victim and R.S. made unfavorable comments to each other about who was better at soccer; however, R.S. made comments threatening to hurt the victim as well as anti-semitic comments about her religion. Lopes also determined that since the victim said she was "...fearful of her physical/emotional well-being because she felt scared by the subjective comments made about her religion" and "...felt like she was being intimidated, judged and threatened, it created a substantial disruption/interference for her and meets the statutory definition of HIB." [Lopes Cert., Exhibit B.]

7. The Interim Superintendent Bruce Watson reviewed the Investigation Report, his own notes from the interviews, and agreed with Lopes that R.S. was fearful for her emotional and physical wellbeing because of the comments made by R.S., especially the comments made about her religion, and that thus he had violated the HIB policy. He informed R.S.'s parents in writing on January 17, 2023, that after reviewing the interviews and the pertinent evidence obtained by school personnel, R.S. was being charged with violating the HIB policy, and several other district policies. [Watson Cert., Exhibit A; Supplemental Watson Cert., ¶ 5.]

8. R.S. was required to receive counseling and served a very short suspension pending the above-referenced clearance process. [Lopes Cert., Exhibit B.]

9. On February 28, 2023, a second letter was sent to the parents to the same effect. [Certification of Joseph R. Donahue, Esq., (Donahue Cert.), Exhibit B.] Both letters advised petitioner of their procedural rights.

10. On March 3, 2023, petitioner wrote to Watson and requested a hearing on the allegations and charges. [Donahue Cert., Exhibit C.]

11. On March 22, 2023, the District Business Administrator/Board Secretary Victor J. Anaya wrote to petitioner informing them that the Board had affirmed the HIB finding and that petitioner could appeal the decision to the Commissioner of Education. [Donahue Cert., Exhibit D.]

12. On April 5, 2023, counsel for petitioner advised Board counsel in writing of Anaya's notice and also that the Board had failed to provide a hearing consistent with the March 3 request and their rights under ABBRA. [Donahue Cert., Exhibit E.]

13. Within several hours, Board counsel advised that a hearing would be held on April 24, 2023. [Donahue Cert., Exhibit F.]

14. On April 24, 2023, petitioner, her son, and counsel appeared for the hearing. The District did not present witnesses or evidence, but relied upon the investigation report. [Donahue Cert., ¶ 12.]

15. On April 26, 2023, the Board issued its formal notice that the HIB charges were upheld against R.S. [Donahue Cert., Exhibit G.]

16. On July 25, 2023, petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal before the Commissioner of Education. [Watson Cert. ¶ 13.]

17. On August 8, 2023, the Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the record to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL").

Based on these facts presented on the pending motion, and even giving petitioners the benefit of any reasonable inferences that could be drawn from their papers or initial petition, I FIND that petitioner cannot prove that the Board's determination was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

The issue for resolution is whether the Board's finding of HIB was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, in light of the information that the Board possessed when it made its determination. The ABBRA sets forth:

> "Harassment, intimidation or bullying" means any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic > communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:

>
> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

The Anti-Bullying Act mandates that school personnel report in writing to the school principal "all acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying" within two days of witnessing or receiving reliable information regarding any such incident. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(5). The principal or the principal's designee must initiate a prompt investigation of the incident, which must be completed within ten school days of the report to the principal. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(a). The results of the investigation must be reported to the super-intendent and the board of education. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(b) and (c). Within five school days of reporting the results to the board of education, school officials must inform the parents or guardians of students involved about the results of the investigation. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d). The statute does not expressly require disclosure of a written investigative report, notes, or any other designated school records. Rather, the statute provides that the school district must inform parents in writing of "the nature of the investigation, whether the district found evidence of harassment, intimidation, or bullying, or whether discipline was imposed or services provided to address the incident of harassment, intimidation, or bullying." Ibid. See K.L. v. Evesham Twp. Bd. of Educ., 423 N.J. Super. 337, 358 (App. Div. 2011).

At the next meeting following receipt of the HIB report, the board shall issue a decision to affirm, reject, or modify the superintendent's HIB decision. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(e). After receiving the results of an HIB investigation, a parent or guardian may request a hearing before the board of education. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d). Parents of students who are aggrieved by the board of education's determination are then entitled to appeal the board's decision to the Commissioner of Education no later than ninety (90) days after the board issued the decision. Id.

I agree with petitioner that the courts have addressed situations where an act is not considered to be bullying motivated by a "distinguishing characteristic." In L.B.T. ex rel K.T. v. Board of Education of the Freehold Regional School District, EDU 7894-12 (January 24, 2013), adopted, Comm'r (March 7, 2013), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, there was a mutual dispute between two students about their respective roles on the swim team. The judge held that if a victim was targeted because of a dispute between the two people involved - such as a relationship falling apart between former friends, a fight over a piece of property, or some form of personal vendetta of one against another – that conduct would not be based on a "distinguishing characteristic" of the victim and would not be a violation of the statute.

Nevertheless, in this matter there is no question that R.S.'s statements were specifically targeted at the victim's religion. These messages threatened physical harm on the victim with comparisons to Adolph Hitler and the Holocaust. No reasonable person could conclude that these messages were not inherently based on the victim's religion even if earlier communications were sports "trash talk." I CONCLUDE that R.S. escalated the "trash talk" exchanges into hate speech through his chosen words. Students need to learn that words have power.

Moreover, S.S.'s earlier statements or retorts is not a defense to an act of HIB. In W.M. o/b/o J.M. v. Bedminster Twp. Bd. of Ed., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07337-19 Initial Decision (Dec. 15, 2022), adopted, Comm'r (Mar. 7, 2023)

<http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, a student made negative comments about how much the victim weighed and unkind comments about the size of the victim's shoes, but defended that these comments were merely "trash talk" among a group of classmates. The Board's decision was upheld at both the OAL and the Department as not arbitrary or capricious. The Commissioner set forth that "[i]t is irrelevant to the determination in this matter whether [victim] participated in trash-talking or whether [student] was joking; the HIB definition does not consider the accused's intent." Id. at 6. Here, petitioner cannot negate his conduct by belatedly claiming that the victim's retorts subjected him to HIB. He is free to make an independent HIB complaint, but R.S. did not do so. See A.D. o/b/o A.D. v. River Edge Twp. Bd. of Ed., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04748-23, Initial Decision (Sep. 18, 2023), adopted, Comm'r (Oct. 27, 2023), (stating that if petitioner believed that the student was the target of HIB, they should have filed a complaint) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

New Jersey courts have held that "[w]here there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd o.b., 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Likewise, the Commissioner has held that, in order to prevail, petitioner "must demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it." G.H. & E.H. ex rel. K.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of Franklin Lakes, No. EDU 13204-13, Initial Decision (Feb. 24, 2014) (citation omitted), adopted, Comm'r (Apr. 10, 2014) <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

On the basis of the undisputed facts and applicable legal standards, I CONCLUDE that the action of the Board in determining that the conduct constituted harassment, intimidation, or bullying within the meaning of the Anti-Bullying Act was not arbitrary, capricious or against the weight of the evidence, even if I or some other district might have decided it differently.

However, I note that the undisputed facts also establish that the Board did fail to hold a timely hearing in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d), under which "[a] parent or guardian may request a hearing before the board after receiving the information, and the hearing shall be held within 10 days of the request." Petitioner asked for a hearing on March 3, 2023, but the Board did not hold a hearing until April 24, 2023, and only after being reminded that they had failed to respond to the earlier request. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the Board failed to hold a hearing within ten days in accordance with ABBRA.

While the ABBRA does not explicitly provide for remedies upon a successful procedural error within a school board's HIB investigation or decision to the Commissioner, the Commissioner has simply ordered school districts who have violated the ABBRA to comply with the statutory requirements. See, e.g., T.R. & T.R. ex rel. E.R. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Bridgewater-Raritan Reg'l Sch. Dist., EDU 10208-13 Initial Decision (Sept. 25, 2014) adopted, Comm'r (Nov. 10, 2014) (ordering school district that improperly found that a male student who sexually harassed a female student did not commit acts of HIB to also "comply with all reporting and other statutory and regulatory requirements applicable to the substantiation of an incident of HIB"). <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

Thus, while the Board violated the time requirements for a hearing, the Board should be required to comply prospectively and/or to retrain its staff responsible for implementing the ABBRA. See M.D.G. ex rel. C.J. v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Atlantic City, EDU 6450-04, Initial Decision (April 27, 2005), adopted, Comm'r (May 26, 2005) (board may be ordered to comply with the Act by "conducting staff in-service programs with respect to the requirements of the statute in order to assure that all pupils under the Board's supervision and control will be protected from harassment, intimidation or bullying in the future.") <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. I CONCLUDE that it does not undermine the substantive HIB determination.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the motion of respondent Borough of Tenafly Board of Education for a Summary Decision Order on the appeal filed by petitioner H.P. on behalf of R.S. is hereby GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that the respondent Board must hold timely hearings in accordance with the statute and to document to the Bergen County Office of Education the timeliness of the next three of its ABBRA hearings. It is further ORDERED that the Appeal shall be and the same is hereby dismissed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

The Board agrees that while S.B. and any other resident children of H.S. resides at 56 Curtiss Place, Maplewood, NJ 07040 and attend Tuscan Elementary School, the District will provide transportation as stated in the November 28, 2023 Emergent Relief Order. Per the November 28, 2023 Emergent Relief Order, the District must provide busing to and from school absent days involving aftercare.

Should H.S.'s school-age children no longer reside at 56 Curtiss Place or be transferred out of Tuscan Elementary School, the District will reassess its transportation obligation from their new residence or to the new school under the law and Board Policy that exist at that future time.

This decision by the District is based upon H.S. o\b\o S.B.'s circumstances only and would not be precedential for any other resident family whose children attend the District's schools.

3. Acknowledgment of Consideration. H.S. o\b\o S.B. acknowledges that, in return for executing this Agreement, they are receiving the consideration described in Paragraph 2, which they may or may not have received through the pending claim before the Commissioner of Education. H.S. o\b\o S.B. agrees they are not entitled to any other consideration or payment of any kind from the Released Parties relating to the Petition filed under Docket No. EDU 12728-23 and Agency Dkt. No. 291-10/23.

4. No Admission of Liability. Neither the execution of this Agreement by the Released Parties, nor the terms hereof, constitute an admission by the Released Parties, or by any principal, director, officer agent, employee or representative of the Released Parties, of liability with respect to any possible claim that was or could have been made by H.S. o\b\o S.B. By entering into this Agreement, the Released Parties do not admit, and expressly deny, that they have violated any contract, rule, law, statute or regulation, including, but not limited to, any federal, state or local law, statute, or regulation relating to employment or employment discrimination or retaliation, or that their actions were unwarranted, unjustified, discriminatory, retaliatory, or otherwise unlawful in any way.

5. Non-Interference and Non-Disparagement. The Parties mutually agree not to defame the other related to the circumstances of this lawsuit.

6. Agreement to Refrain from Filing Any Further Claims. H.S. o\b\o S.B. represents that they have not filed any lawsuit or initiated on their behalf any proceeding against SOUTH ORANGE-MAPLEWOOD BOARD OF EDUCATION, ET AL or any of the Releasees that is not being withdrawn as a part of this settlement.

7. Voluntary Execution. H.S. o\b\o S.B. certifies that they have read and/or had the opportunity to have the terms of this Agreement explained to him by his counsel, above mentioned, and further acknowledges that they have entered into and executed this Agreement freely and voluntarily after complete consideration and understanding of all facts and legal claims and the provisions of this Agreement.

8. Governing Law and Forum Selection. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to conflict of law principles. Any disputes relating to this Agreement shall be resolved exclusively by a state court in the State of New Jersey.

9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any prior agreements or understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. The Parties acknowledge that in signing this Agreement they do not rely upon and have not relied upon any representation or statement made by any of the Parties or their agents with respect to the subject matter, basis or effect of this Agreement, other than those specifically stated in this written Agreement.

10. Legally Binding. The terms of this Agreement contained herein are contractual, and not a mere recital. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties hereto and upon their heirs, administrators, representatives, executors and assigns. H.S. o\b\o S.B. expressly warrants that they have not transferred to any person or entity any rights, causes of action or claims released in this Agreement.

11. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms or provisions shall not be affected, and such term or provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to make it enforceable.

12. Amendments. Neither this Agreement nor any term hereof may be orally changed, waived, discharged, or terminated, and may be amended only by a written agreement between the Parties.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered, including by telecopy or email, shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Photographic (including Adobe Acrobat formatted or other PDF documents) and/or facsimile copies of such signed counterparts may be used in lieu of the originals for any purpose.

14. Court Approval. This Agreement shall be approved consistent with the Administrative Regulations requiring Court approval of such an agreement involving a minor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have caused this Agreement to be executed.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This settlement agreement ("Agreement") made by and between

TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, INC.
(Hereinafter referred to as "TEAM")

AND

EILEEN DEAN
(Hereinafter referred to as "Ms. Dean")

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Ms. Dean was employed by TEAM, pursuant to an Employment Agreement dated June 6, 2023 and signed June 8, 2023 for the 2023-2024 school year; and

WHEREAS, on or about October 20, 2023, TEAM filed an Order to Show Cause with the Office of Controversies and Disputes within the State of New Jersey, Department of Education docketed as 292-10/23 and titled as In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Eileen Dean, Team Academy Charter Schools, Inc., Essex County; and

WHEREAS, on or about November 15, 2023, the aforesaid case was transferred to the State of New Jersey, Office of Administrative Law, Docket No. EDU 12956-2023; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into a settlement for any and all claims arising from Ms. Dean's employment with TEAM;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises hereinafter set forth, the parties desire to enter into this Agreement as follows:

1. EXECUTION DATE As used in this Agreement, the "Execution Date" shall mean the date as of which the Agreement is fully executed.

2. CONSIDERATION In consideration of the release described in Sections 3 and 8 below, Ms. Dean agrees to not enter into employment with any public school or New Jersey

Department of Education approved private school for the disabled through one year from the Execution Date. Upon receipt of the fully executed Agreement, TEAM's counsel will file a request with the Office of Administrative Law that the the matter be dismissed, in accordance with this Settlement Agreement.

3. RELEASE In consideration for the agreement described in Section 2 above, the parties hereby mutually release each other and any of their predecessors, successors, parents, agents, affiliates or subsidiary entities, and its or their present or former officers, directors, agents, including KIPP New Jersey, Board of Trustees, representatives, employees, attorneys, committees, trustees, fiduciaries, trusts and their respective successors and assigns, heirs, executors and personal or legal representatives (hereinafter collectively referred to, together with TEAM, as the "Parties") from any and all claims or causes of action they may have or claim to have against another party arising out of or related to Ms. Dean's employment with TEAM. The claims released include, but are not limited to:

a. all statutory claims, including but not limited to claims arising under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (as amended), the New Jersey Civil Rights Act, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act (as amended), the New Jersey Family Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code (as amended), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as amended), the Rehabilitation Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (as amended), the Fair Labor Standards Act (as amended), the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994, the National Labor Relations Act (as amended), the Federal Warn Act (as amended), the New Jersey Millville Dallas Airmotive Plan Job Loss Notification Act (as amended), the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the Occupational Safety and Health Act (as amended), the Equal Pay Act (as amended), the New Jersey Minimum Wage Law (as amended), the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law (as amended), Equal Pay Law for New Jersey (as amended), the New Jersey Worker Health and Safety Act (as amended), the Labor Management Relations Act (as amended) and State Education Laws, N.J.S.A. 18A et seq.;

b. all claims arising under the United States or New Jersey Constitutions;

c. all claims arising under any Executive Order or derived from or based upon any State or Federal regulations;

d. all common law claims, including but not limited to any and all rights to discovery, claims for wrongful discharge, constructive discharge, violation of public policy, breach of an express or implied contract, breach of an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation, conspiracy, tortious interference with contract or prospective economic advantage, promissory estoppel, equitable estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, detrimental reliance, retaliation, and negligence;

e. all claims for any compensation including commissions, back wages, front pay, punitive damages, pay increases, bonuses or awards, fringe benefits, disability benefits, severance benefits, reinstatement, retroactive seniority, pension benefits, contributions to retirement plans, or any other form of economic loss;

f. all claims for personal injury, including physical injury, mental anguish, emotional distress, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, damage to name or reputation, interest, liquidated damages, and punitive damages; and

g. all claims for costs, interest, and attorneys' fees;

4. NON-ADMISSION OF LIABILITY This Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by either party of any of the acts or omissions alleged, or which could have been alleged against the other party. The Parties specifically deny any liability whatsoever for any damages, injuries or other claims made by either party against the other party.

5. AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE Each party mutually represents that they have not, and agrees will not, file any lawsuit or claim against the other based on any events, whether known or unknown, occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any events related to, arising out of, or in connection with, Ms. Dean's employment with TEAM, or the termination of such employment, in any court or tribunal of the United States, New Jersey, or any other state, city, county, or locality. Parties expressly represent that they have not filed a lawsuit or claim or initiated any other administrative proceeding other than as noted herein, and further promise not to initiate a lawsuit or to bring any other claim pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 arising out of or in any way related to Ms. Dean's employment by HAM. Ms. Dean also acknowledges and agrees that while this release does not preclude her from filing a charge with the Public Employment Relations Commission, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a similar state or local agency, or from participating in any investigation or proceeding with such an agency, she will not personally recover monies, and expressly waives the right to recover such monies, for any complaint or charge filed against HAM with any federal, state or local board, agency or court.

6. NON-DISPARAGEMENT The Parties agree that they will not at any time from the time of signing this Agreement, through any medium, either orally or in writing, including but not limited to, electronic mail, television or radio, computer networks or internet bulletin boards, blogs, social media, such as META (formerly known as Facebook) LinkedIn, or X Corp (formerly known as Twitter), or any other form of communication, disparage, defame, impugn, damage or assail the reputation of the other party, but rather shall act in good faith to refrain from any conduct or communication which might reasonably be expected to cause the recipient of a communication to question the business condition, integrity, competence, good character or professionalism of the other party.

Notice Regarding Discrimination, Retaliation, or Harassment Claim(s)

Although the parties may have agreed to keep the settlement and underlying facts confidential, such a provision in an agreement is unenforceable against the employer if the employee publicly reveals sufficient details of the claim so that the employer is reasonably identifiable. N.J. Stat. § 10:5-12.8(b).

7. CONSIDERATION Ms. Dean acknowledges that the only consideration she has received for signing this Agreement is that set forth herein. No other promise, inducement, threat, agreement or understanding of any kind or description has been made with her or to her to cause her to enter into this Agreement.

8. REVIEW PERIOD Ms. Dean understands that she has been given a period of twenty-one (21) calendar days to review and consider this Agreement before signing it. Ms. Dean also understands that she is free to use as much of the twenty-one (21) day period as she wishes or considers necessary before deciding to sign the Agreement. Ms. Dean may revoke her signature of the Agreement within seven (7) calendar days of signing it by delivering written notice of revocation to Thomas O. Johnston, Esq., Johnston Law Firm LLC, 151 Forest Street, Suite A, Montclair, New Jersey 07042. If Ms. Dean has not revoked her signature of this Agreement by written notice received within the seven (7) day period, it becomes effective immediately thereafter (the "Effective Date").

9. SEVERABILITY Should any provision of this Agreement be declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and cannot be modified to be enforceable, excluding the general release language set forth in Section 3, such provision shall immediately become null and void, leaving the remainder of this Agreement in full force and effect. If the general release language in Section 3 is found to be illegal or unenforceable, Ms. Dean and [illegible] agree to execute a binding replacement release.

10. CONSTRUCTION The Parties and their representatives, if any, have participated fully in the review of this Agreement. Any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not apply in interpreting this Agreement. The language in this Agreement shall be interpreted as to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party.

11. AMENDMENT This Agreement may only be amended by a writing signed by all of the Parties to this Agreement.

12. AGREEMENT ENTERED VOLUNTARILY Ms. Dean acknowledges that she:

a. has carefully read and fully understands all of the terms of this Agreement;

b. understands that by signing this Agreement, she is waiving her rights under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. § 621, et seq., as well as all rights to all claims described in Section 2 of this Agreement, and that she is not waiving any rights after the date that this Agreement is signed.

c. knowingly and voluntarily agrees to all of the terms set forth in this Agreement;

d. knowingly and voluntarily intends to be legally bound by this Agreement;

e. is receiving consideration in addition to anything of value to which she is already entitled;

f. is hereby advised to consult with an attorney prior to the signing of this Agreement; and

g. has not been coerced, threatened, or intimidated in any way into signing this Agreement.

13. ENTIRE AGREEMENT This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and fully supersedes any and all prior contracts or agreements between the Parties pertaining to compensation or severance, and it likewise fully supersedes any and all other conflicting agreements or understandings between the Parties.

14. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS This Agreement may be executed, including execution by electronic signature (e.g. pdf or tif file), in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and which shall collectively be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Sydney Fox,
Board of Education of the City of South Amboy, Middlesex County.

Synopsis

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 8, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by the petitioner, Board of Education of the City of South Amboy, upon respondent Sydney Fox, requiring her to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law. By notice dated January 22, 2024, the Office of Controversies and Disputes acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days. Respondent was advised that – pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e) – failure to respond would cause each allegation raised by the Board to be deemed admitted and might result in summary decision by the Commissioner. The respondent failed to answer the order, despite ample opportunity to do so.

There being no response to the order to show cause, the Commissioner concluded that the allegations, which respondent has chosen not to deny, may be deemed admitted and justify suspension of respondent's certificate. Accordingly, summary decision was granted to the Board, and respondent's certificate was suspended for a period of one year from the date of the filing of this decision – a copy of which was forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for the purpose of effectuating this order.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Sydney Fox, Board of Education of the City of South Amboy, Middlesex County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 8, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Board of Education of the City of South Amboy) upon respondent (Sydney Fox), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

By notice dated January 22, 2024, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) acknowledged proof that the Order to Show Cause had been served upon respondent and directed respondent to answer within 20 days. No answer having yet been received, on February 12, 2024, the Office sent respondent a second and final notice – via certified and regular mail, and email – directing that she must file an answer within ten days. The notice advised that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e), failure to answer would cause each allegation in petitioner's papers to be deemed admitted and might result in summary decision by the Commissioner. To date, the Office has not received a response from respondent.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: petitioner hired respondent to work as an English teacher for the 2023-2024 school year; on October 12, 2023, respondent sent correspondence indicating that she was resigning to pursue another opportunity and initially offered sixty days' notice but requested an early release if a replacement was found; subsequently, on November 13, 2023, respondent sent correspondence indicating that November 14, 2023, would be her last day of employment and abandoned her teaching position before the sixty-day notice period expired; and, on November 27, 2023, at a Board meeting, petitioner acknowledged respondent's resignation effective November 14, 2023, in violation of her employment contract. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(e) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner. Respondent's teaching certificate, as well as any substitute teaching credential she may hold, is suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Francesca Coté, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County.

Synopsis

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 18, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by the petitioner, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, upon respondent Francesca Coté, requiring her to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law. In response to the Order to Show Cause, respondent emailed the Office of Controversies and Disputes to provide mitigating factors that she wished the Commissioner to consider in making his decision, namely that it was mandatory for her to resign in the time and manner she did due to the impact her employment was having on her mental health. However, respondent indicated that she did not wish to engage in the administrative dispute resolution process.

Upon review, the Commissioner concluded that the allegations, which respondent has chosen not to deny, may be deemed admitted and justify suspension of respondent's certificates. Accordingly, summary decision was granted to the Board, and respondent's certificates were suspended for a period of one year from the date of the filing of this decision – a copy of which was forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for the purpose of effectuating this order.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Francesca Coté, Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on January 18, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (South Brunswick Township Board of Education) upon respondent (Francesca Coté), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending her teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

In response to the Order to Show Cause, respondent emailed the Office of Controversies and Disputes to provide mitigating factors that she wished the Commissioner to consider in making his decision, namely that it was mandatory for her to resign in the time and manner she did due to the impact her employment was having on her mental health. However, respondent indicated that she did not wish to engage in the administrative dispute resolution process.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent entered into a contract to work as a teacher for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; and on October 16, 2023, respondent sent correspondence to petitioner indicating that she was resigning, effective October 20, 2023, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner. Respondent's teaching certificates, along with any substitute teaching credentials she may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

Petitioners,

v.

Angelica Allen-McMillan, Acting Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education; New Jersey State Board of Education; and New Jersey Department of Education, Respondents.

Background and Procedural History

In a 2014 petition filed against the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, the New Jersey Department of Education (Department), and the New Jersey State Board of Education (collectively, "respondents"), petitioners alleged that the Lakewood Township Board of Education (Board or Lakewood) is unable to provide its public school students with a thorough and efficient education (T&E) because it does not receive sufficient funding under the School Funding Reform Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-43 to -70 (SFRA).[1]

Following a hearing, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that Lakewood's public-school students are not receiving T&E, but concluded that petitioners failed to meet their burden of demonstrating that the lack of T&E derives in significant part from the SFRA. The ALJ found that the population boom in Lakewood Township over the past twenty years resulted in a rise in attendance at private schools, totaling almost 30,000 non-public school students compared to approximately 6,000 students who attend Lakewood public schools. This causes a strain on the district financially, as the private school students are entitled to transportation at Lakewood's expense. Further, tens of millions of dollars are spent each year to send students to out-of-district placements.

Nevertheless, the ALJ found that the SFRA is not unconstitutional as applied to Lakewood and that Lakewood has failed to take steps to increase its ability to provide T&E. The ALJ found that although Lakewood had a budget surplus in 2010, it chose not to increase its levy to the cap for several years thereafter, despite being aware of population growth trends. Due to those choices, the district did not generate revenues that could have compounded over the years and was not taxing up to its local fair share. Relatedly, the ALJ found that Lakewood made little effort to exercise statutorily available tools to raise funds.

[1] Petitioners are parents of children who attend Lakewood's public schools. Lakewood and Paul Tractenberg, Esq., joined this matter as participants. Mr. Tractenberg is a Professor of Law Emeritus and Board of Governors Distinguished Service Professor at Rutgers University. He established the Education Law Center, the Institute on Education Law and Policy, and the Center for Diversity and Equality of Education. While Lakewood initially declined to join this matter as a party and joined instead as a participant in 2016, Lakewood subsequently filed a motion to intervene as a party at the start of the hearing in 2018, which was denied.

Additionally, the ALJ explained that although Lakewood's transportation costs have continued to increase annually from $23 million in 2014-15 to $31 million in 2018-19, there is little evidence that Lakewood has done everything possible to reduce those costs. Further, there is no evidence that these rising costs are solely due to the increasing number of nonpublic school students in the district. The ALJ also noted that a large portion of Lakewood's budget is dedicated to special education due to the number of out-of-district placements (specifically, 343 students were placed in private schools for a cost of $33 million in 2018-19), but the record lacks evidence of any steps taken to set up a district-run special education program to save money by educating these students in-district, as the Department has urged. The ALJ also noted that the SFRA provides greatly increased aid for in-district special education, as opposed to out-of-district special education, but found no evidence in the record that Lakewood even tried to avail itself of that option.

The ALJ also reasoned that Lakewood does not offer a comprehensive preschool for three-year-old general education students. The ALJ found no evidence that Lakewood even attempted to receive State financing for a preschool facility to accommodate more at-risk, non-special education children.

Finally, the ALJ added that other legislation outside the SFRA has affected Lakewood financially, such as a tax levy cap on school districts and the annual Appropriations Act.

Following a review of the record, including the ALJ's Initial Decision and the exceptions and replies thereto, the Commissioner issued a decision concluding that petitioners failed to establish the lack of T&E in Lakewood. Alcantara v. Hespe, Commissioner Decision No. 149-21 (July 16, 2021). In doing so, the Commissioner relied upon improving standardized test scores, success in meeting accountability targets, and the wide range of classes and programs offered to students. Nonetheless, the decision recognized that the quality of education in Lakewood could be improved, and therefore ordered the Department to conduct a comprehensive review of Lakewood's organization, structure, and policies to assess its compliance with quality performance indicators and to determine how it could improve its educational program. Id. at 7. As a result of the finding that Lakewood delivered T&E, the Commissioner did not reach the issue of the constitutionality of the SFRA. Alcantara v. Hespe, Commissioner Decision No. 149-21 (July 16, 2021).

Petitioners appealed, and the Appellate Division reversed and remanded the matter with instructions for the Commissioner to consider petitioners' substantive arguments pertaining to the SFRA. Alcantara v. Allen-McMillan, 475 N.J. Super. 58 (App. Div. Mar. 6, 2023).

On May 12, 2023, the Commissioner issued a letter directing the Department to expedite the comprehensive review of the Lakewood school district initially ordered in Alcantara v. Hespe, supra. The Commissioner indicated that the information that comprised the record before the OAL, the Commissioner, and the Appellate Division is now outdated and found that an updated record would assist the Department in identifying the root causes that led to the educational deprivations identified by the Appellate Division.

The Department retained Dr. Kimberly Markus, an education consultant who is also a former New Jersey Commissioner of Education, along with Public Consulting Group LLC, a management consulting firm that focuses on public sector clients, to complete the review. The report, entitled "Comprehensive Review of the Lakewood Public School District" (Comprehensive Report), was filed on March 1, 2024. The Comprehensive Report examined five critical areas deemed relevant as influencing the provision of T&E in Lakewood: governance, curriculum and instruction, special education, finance, and transportation. The report closely evaluated each of these areas and presented a comprehensive analysis of each area's impact on T&E. The report's findings and conclusions are discussed in further detail below.

In response to the Comprehensive Report, petitioners[2] note that it confirms the conclusions of the ALJ and the Appellate Division that Lakewood students are not receiving T&E, and they urge the Department to remedy this denial as expeditiously as possible. According to petitioners, the Comprehensive Report does little to analyze the impact of the SFRA on the quality of education in Lakewood. Therefore, petitioners indicate that they do not feel the need to respond to the details of the report and instead choose to use their response to express their views regarding the final agency decision in this matter.

Petitioners take issue with the Comprehensive Report's framing of the obligation to provide T&E as an obligation of the district, rather than the State. Petitioners argue that the denial of T&E in Lakewood is primarily a function of the less-than-optimal performance of the SFRA and, accordingly, ultimate responsibility should be imposed on the State. Petitioners note that the SFRA has not been fully funded for 15 years, rendering any defense of its constitutionality at a disadvantage.[3] Petitioners further contend that if the SFRA were functioning at an optimal level, it would not have been necessary for the district to receive

[2] A joint response was filed by Mr. Tractenberg and counsel for petitioners. For ease of reference, this decision will use the term "petitioners" when referring to this response, together with the statements and arguments made therein.

[3] Petitioners acknowledge that the Governor's proposed budget for FY2024-25 would fully fund the SFRA if enacted.

$215 million in advance state aid loans since 2015. Petitioners also argue that the Comprehensive Report set an improperly high burden on petitioners by stating that declaring the SFRA unconstitutional would require that the SFRA "be established as the singular cause for the denial of a thorough and efficient education."[4] Finally, petitioners set forth a number of suggestions for remediation, including forgiving the existing advance state aid loan balance, amending the SFRA, or passing separate legislation to provide additional funding to Lakewood.

Lakewood's[5] response identifies alleged factual errors in numerous areas of the Comprehensive Report. Lakewood objects to what it characterizes as the selective use of comments made by stakeholders, as well as to portions of the report dealing with issues which the reviewers allegedly did not discuss with Lakewood's officials. According to Lakewood, the Comprehensive Report makes recommendations without discussion of the cost to the district and fails to analyze whether the recommendations will improve the provision of education to Lakewood students.[6]

Analysis

Upon review of the record, including the ALJ's Initial Decision, exceptions and filings made in response to the Initial Decision, the supplemental information contained in the Comprehensive Report, and the parties' written responses to the Comprehensive Report, the Assistant Commissioner concludes that the SFRA is not the significant cause of Lakewood's

[4] Comprehensive Report at 30.

[5] The filing indicates that it is the response of Superintendent Dr. Laura A. Winters and the Superintendent's Executive Leadership Team, and that it has been reviewed by both a committee of the Board and individual Board members.

[6] The majority of these areas concern portions of the report not relied upon herein and, accordingly, they are not reviewed in detail. To the extent that Lakewood's response does address items discussed herein, the response is detailed in the applicable section of the analysis below.

failure to provide T&E and that therefore, the SFRA is not unconstitutional as applied to Lakewood. "It is well recognized that legislative enactments enjoy a presumption of validity," and when a constitutional challenge is raised, "there is a strong presumption that the statute is constitutional." Abbott ex rel. Abbott v. Burke ("Abbott XX"), 199 N.J. 140, 235 (2009) (internal citations omitted). "Whether a statute passes a constitutional challenge 'as-applied' to any individual school district at any particular time must be determined only in the factual context presented and in light of the circumstances as they appear." Ibid. Here, the constitutionality of the SFRA as applied to Lakewood "turn[s] on proof that [petitioners] suffer educational inequities and these inequities derive, in significant part, from the funding provisions" of the SFRA.[7] Abbott v. Burke ("Abbott I"), 100 N.J. 269, 296 (1985).

The SFRA is a weighted school funding formula through which districts fund their budgets using a combination of local levies and State aid, which includes multiple categories of aid, discussed in more detail below.[8] See N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-43 to -66. According to the legislative findings, the SFRA "should provide State aid for every school district based on the characteristics of the student population and up-to-date measures of the individual district's ability to pay." N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-44(d).

Equalization aid is a wealth-equalized category of State aid to school districts. The amount of equalization aid that a district receives is based, in part, on measures of local fiscal capacity to raise revenue to support the school district. The first component in calculating a [7] Based on this principle, the Acting Commissioner declines to apply the higher standard set forth in the Comprehensive Report – that the SFRA must be the "singular" cause for the educational inequities in Lakewood.

[8] Although each type of aid discussed herein is categorized, these categories are all part of the district's general fund revenue.

district's equalization aid is determining its adequacy budget, which is an estimate of a district's cost of providing educational opportunities to its students that are consistent with State standards and incorporates the characteristics of the student body. The calculation begins with a base per pupil amount, which reflects the cost of educating a student included in the district's resident enrollment in grades kindergarten through five who does not have any additional needs.[9] *N.J.S.A.*18A:7F-51(a). Next, this base per pupil amount is augmented using weights that account for students who are: enrolled in middle school or high school; "at-risk" (meaning that the student lives in a household in which income is no greater than 185 percent of the federal poverty threshold); English language learners; or enrolled in a county vocational school district.[10] Ibid.

The adequacy budget also accounts for the provision of special education services, employing a census-based model that funds special education based on the assumption that a fixed percentage of the district's resident enrollment requires special education services at a specific excess cost. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-51(e).[11] Two-thirds of this cost is added to the district's [9] The base per pupil amount is established by the Educational Adequacy Report (EAR), which is issued by the Governor to the Legislature every three years. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-49; N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-46(b). The 2023 EAR is available at https://www.nj.gov/education/stateaid/2223/EAR2023.pdf (last visited March 13, 2024). For fiscal year (FY) 2023, the base per pupil amount was $12,451. 2023 EAR at 5.

[10] The EAR establishes these weights. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-49. The SFRA also includes a county-level geographic cost adjustment. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-51(a).

[11] The percentage of students requiring special education services is based on the statewide average classification rate established in the EAR. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-51(e). For FY2023, the classification rate was 15.9 percent and the average excess cost was $19,524. 2023 EAR at 11-12.

adequacy budget.[12] Ibid. Finally, the adequacy budget includes an allotment for students who receive speech-only services.[13] Ibid.

The second component of calculating a district's equalization aid is determining its local fair share (LFS), which is an estimate of the amount that a district is able to raise through local taxation to support its education expenditures. This calculation considers two economic factors: the district's equalized property valuation and aggregate income, as determined based on New Jersey gross income tax returns.[14] N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-52(a). If a district's adequacy budget is greater than the LFS, the district's equalization aid equals the difference between the two; if the LFS exceeds the adequacy budget, the district does not receive equalization aid. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-53.

Districts also receive security aid, which includes two components. First, districts receive a flat per pupil amount, multiplied by the district's resident enrollment.[15] N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-56. Second, districts receive a per pupil amount that increases as the percentage of low-income students in the district's resident enrollment increases.[16] Ibid. This per pupil amount is multiplied by the number of low-income students included in the district's resident enrollment. Ibid.

[12] The remaining one third is funded through special education categorical aid, which is dispersed to districts without regard to any measure of a district's wealth. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-55.

[13] For FY2023, the speech-only classification rate was 1.61 percent and the average excess cost was $1,270. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-51(e); 2023 EAR at 11-12.

[14] Each of these factors is multiplied by a Statewide rate, with the products being summed and divided by two; the resulting amount is the LFS. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-52(a).

[15] The FY2023 per pupil amount was $86. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-56; 2023 EAR at 10.

[16] For FY2023, the per pupil amount for the second component increases to a maximum of $519 per pupil once the low-income concentration is equal to or greater than 40 percent. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-56; 2023 EAR at 10.

Districts receive transportation aid for each student for whom the district is required to provide transportation, including nonpublic students. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-57. Districts receive a base amount for each student who does not have any special transportation needs, plus an additional fee per mile between the student's home and school.[17] Ibid. For students who have special transportation needs – such as the need for a wheelchair on the school bus, a one-to-one aide or nurse assigned to the student, or transportation to an extended school year program – districts receive an increased base amount for each student, plus a mileage fee.[18] Ibid.

On top of the transportation aid allocated for each nonpublic student, the State bears additional costs for nonpublic student transportation. For nonpublic school students, districts are subject to a maximum per pupil expenditure.[19] N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1a. As the maximum increases beyond the amount of $710 set for the 2001-2002 school year, the additional cost is borne by the State. Ibid.

Districts that educate students with higher special education costs receive additional funding in the form of extraordinary special education costs aid. This type of aid reimburses school districts for a portion of the costs incurred in educating students with disabilities in various educational settings. Specifically: 1) for students educated in a public school setting with general education peers, districts are reimbursed for 90 percent of the cost of instruction

[17] For FY2023, the base amount is $481.37 per pupil, plus $13.17 per mile. N.J.S.A. 18A:57(b); 2023 EAR at 10.

[18] For FY2023, the base amount is $3,355.31 per pupil, plus $6.40 per mile. N.J.S.A. 18A:57(b); 2023 EAR at 10.

[19] If a district is unable to secure transportation between home and school for an eligible nonpublic school student within this limit, the district can satisfy its statutory obligation to provide transportation by making an aid-in-lieu-of transportation payment to the parent or guardian. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.6. Accordingly, the district's cost to transport a nonpublic student should never exceed the statutory maximum.

and support services that exceed $40,000; 2) for students educated in a public school setting who are in self-contained classrooms, districts are reimbursed for 75% of the cost of instruction and support services that exceed $40,000; and 3) for students educated in a private, out-of-district placement, districts are reimbursed for 75 percent of the tuition costs that exceed $55,000. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-55.

In addition to the above principles, it is important to note that students enrolled in an approved private school for students with disabilities (APSSD) are included in the district's enrollment count for State aid purposes. See N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-45 (including in the definition of "resident enrollment" a pupil who is a resident of the district and is enrolled in a "private school to which the district of residence pays tuition"). Accordingly, for purposes of calculating equalization aid, special education categorical aid, and security aid, a student enrolled in an APSSD is counted on the same basis as a student who attends Lakewood's public schools.[20]

Throughout the proceedings in this matter, petitioners have argued that the SFRA is unconstitutional as applied to Lakewood because it does not take Lakewood's unique demographics into account. Specifically, petitioners cite Lakewood's extraordinary costs in providing transportation and special education services to more than 30,000 nonpublic school students.[21] However, the record demonstrates that Lakewood's own choices and management issues have resulted in the unavailability of funds that could and should have been used to [20] As noted above, the district may also receive extraordinary special education costs aid for students enrolled in APSSDs, based on the criteria set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-55.

[21] As of 2019, Lakewood had approximately 6,000 public school students and more than 30,000 private school students. Initial Decision at 65. Lakewood's response to the Comprehensive Report indicates that Lakewood currently has approximately 5,000 public school students and more than 40,000 nonpublic students. Lakewood Response at 1.

provide T&E to its students. The ALJ found that these issues existed at the time of the Initial Decision; the Comprehensive Report found that the issues persist today.

The SFRA anticipates that both the State and the local district will contribute to the district's budget in amounts determined by the district's relative wealth. Our Supreme Court has long upheld the sharing of financial responsibility for schools between the State and local districts. Robinson v. Cahill, 62 N.J. 473, 510 (1975). Accordingly, the Court has considered a municipality's ability to raise funds to support its portion of school funding to be critical when analyzing the formula's constitutionality. Indeed, when finding previous funding regimes unconstitutional as applied to certain districts, the Supreme Court specifically relied upon those districts' inability to raise revenue due to the lack of a tax base and municipal overburden. Abbott by Abbott v. Burke, 119 N.J. 287, 357 (1990) (finding that municipal overburden "effectively prevents districts" from raising money to support education in special needs districts); see also Robinson v. Cahill, 69 N.J. 449, 465 (1976) (identifying the possibility of an as-applied challenge based upon a "showing of inability at the local level" to contribute sufficient funding). The Court reasoned that, even at full State funding, such districts could not achieve a thorough and efficient education due to the lack of local resources. That is simply not the case for Lakewood, which has chosen not to require its tax base to further support its schools, and suffers from local mismanagement regarding its transportation and special education costs. Nothing in the record supports a finding that Lakewood suffers from municipal overburden to a degree that it cannot raise revenue to support its public schools and reduce the impact of transportation and special education costs.

As the ALJ found, Lakewood's decision to not maintain adequate local fair share contributed to the district's current fiscal problems. Initial Decision at 96-97. Lakewood had a $5 million surplus in 2010. Initial Decision at 65. Lakewood chose not to raise its tax levy to the cap from 2011-2014, despite the fact that the community's non-public school population was rapidly increasing. Initial Decision at 96-97. From 2014 to 2018, Lakewood was not taxing up to its LFS and lost not only the increased revenue from those years, but the compounding value as well. Id. at 60, 71, 97. Over fiscal years 2015 through 2018, Lakewood raised $31.5 million less than it would have had it taxed at its LFS level. Id. at 71. Furthermore, Lakewood chose not to avail itself of opportunities to present voters with a referendum to increase the school tax levy, as permitted by N.J.S.A. 18A:22-40 and N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-39, in any year except 2016.[22] Id. at 97-98. As a consequence of all of these decisions, Lakewood's school-tax rate was below the state average and below other districts. Id. at 52; Cf. Abbott, 119 N.J. at 355 (noting that special needs districts lacked resources but already had higher-than-average school tax rates and local tax levies). Lakewood only tried on one occasion in 2016 to raise additional money to help with transportation costs, which was unsuccessful. The Acting Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's supported finding that Lakewood failed to take advantage of opportunities under the funding scheme to ameliorate its financial difficulties. Id. at 97. The SFRA cannot be solely blamed for the substantial loss of revenue attributable to Lakewood's tax-related choices.

Additionally, the SFRA is not the only legislation that affects a district's finances. N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-38 – which is not a provision of the SFRA – places a cap on the district's tax levy, limiting the district's ability to raise revenue. With the tax levy comprising a sizable portion of a district's funding, any restriction on the amount of the levy has financial consequences, separate and apart from the amount of State aid the district receives under the SFRA. The annual Appropriations Act also affects the amount of money districts receive through the SFRA. From FY2010 through the enactment of P.L.2018, c.67, State aid was not allocated pursuant to the provisions of the SFRA. Instead, State aid was calculated based on provisions included in the State budget, with underlying funding policy changing every year. While petitioners assert that this fact contributes to their conclusion that the SFRA is unconstitutional, the Assistant Commissioner concludes that the opposite is true. Lakewood was not fully funded according to the provisions of the SFRA; therefore, even if Lakewood's funding levels had contributed to the denial of T&E during those years, the SFRA could not have been the cause.

The record also demonstrates severe deficiencies in Lakewood's fiscal management, including its failure to keep track of expenditures, records, and data and questionable spending practices. For example, testimony demonstrated that there were no purchase orders in place for students sent to out-of-district placements. Initial Decision at 36. The district did not keep an accurate position control roster reconciled with the names of staff. Ibid. An auditor from the Office of Legislative Services testified that an audit of Lakewood found financial transactions that were not consistent with government auditing standards, a lack of control environment leading to a lack of stability, lax reconciliation procedures, a lack of supporting documentation, Board approvals of contracts without review, and other questionable expenses. Id. at 54-44. The audit also noted that, in terms of special education costs, there was a lack of proper approval, tuition documentation, and attendance records for students placed in unapproved nonpublic schools. Id. at 76. The New Jersey State Aid Audit Unit determined that poor record-keeping resulted in Lakewood incorrectly reporting hundreds of students on its Application for State School Aid (ASSA). Id. at 57.

Attention to administrative and financial detail remains an issue in Lakewood. There were significant data discrepancy and reporting issues related to special education State Performance Plan indicators and categorization of students by placement type. Comprehensive Report at 5. A financial audit noted that there are significant deficiencies in Lakewood's vendor management controls, payroll processing controls, financial close controls, and governance and IT cycle controls. Id. at 6. The Comprehensive Report found that the Board is not approving vendors before payment is issued, as required. Id. at 10. The transportation review noted that many nonpublic students do not have a student identification number in the District Report of Transported Resident Students (DRTRS), presenting a risk that students might be counted and funded in multiple counties. Id. at 20. A spot-check of transportation documents revealed several that listed the Township of Branchburg rather than the Lakewood Public School District as the contracting unit, which "could indicate a systemic lack of legal, procurement, and financial review and oversight of bid documents." Id. at 21.

The pervasive errors and questionable practices in Lakewood's record-keeping result in the inefficient use of funds.[23] If the Board is not properly vetting its vendors and only approving payments after services have been rendered, there is a risk that the district is overcharged. This practice is of even greater concern when paying for students' out-of-district placements or for special education services in nonpublic schools; the necessity of documenting tens of millions of dollars for those expenses, and thereby ensuring that all payments are proper, should be paramount. Furthermore, when students are incorrectly categorized or omitted from the rolls, Lakewood may be losing out on State aid for those students.

The record further reflects that transportation and special education costs accounted for more than half of the district's budget in 2017-2018. Initial Decision at 65. The financial impact of these areas was no surprise to the district. Through a Needs Assessment issued by the Department in 2009, when Lakewood was still running a surplus, the Department recommended that Lakewood take steps to reign in transportation and special education costs. Initial Decision at 74. This was followed by a 2014 Audit that made similar recommendations and observed the inevitable population trends. Id. at 75. Lakewood has not taken reasonable steps to control its special education and transportation costs despite receiving advice to do so for over a decade. Initial Decision at 77. In the 2009 Needs Assessment, the DOE noted that courtesy busing was contributing to the district's financial strain. Id. at 99. While the district no longer provides courtesy busing at its own expense, that practice was not stopped until 2016. Id. at 100. The cost of courtesy busing services – totaling $4 million for the 2008-2009 school year,[24] and presumably similar for the other years in which it was provided – drained resources from the district that could have been used to provide T&E. The 2014 Audit observed that Lakewood used gendered buses and that tiering bell times could save $6.7 million. Initial Decision at 75-76. At the OAL hearing, multiple experts, including one testifying on behalf of petitioners, stated that transportation costs could be reduced if route sharing were increased, but it's unclear if any such initiatives have been explored. Id. at 10-12; 55-56. The ALJ found that Lakewood admitted it could stagger their school schedules to greatly reduce transportation costs, but noted that the record was unclear on whether such staggering had ever occurred. Id. at 100.

In terms of current transportation practices, the Comprehensive Report indicates that there is not sufficient separation between Lakewood as a contracting agency and the Lakewood Student Transportation Authority (LSTA) as a vendor. Comprehensive Report at 6. Additionally, the review notes that a single employee may have been employed full time by both Lakewood and the LSTA, creating "potential for procurement issues, diminished incentive to return saved funds to Lakewood, and potential for conflicts in contract oversight of the LSTA as a vendor," in addition to the duplication of salary. Id. at 20. Furthermore, there are potential opportunities to lower prices by bidding tiered routes as packages rather than individually. Id. at 6. The Report notes that some buses run four to eight routes a day at a cost of over $200,000 per bus, and finds extreme examples of the same bus being used for multiple routes. Id. at 145, 153. It also observes that for students transported by the district rather than the LSTA, buses run less full and costs per student are higher. Id. at 152.

Although the Commissioner acknowledges that Lakewood's demographics result in higher nonpublic transportation costs than in other districts, when the SFRA is fully funded, the majority of nonpublic transportation costs are supported by the State through a combination of the transportation aid for each nonpublic student and the State's assumption of the portion of the cost that exceeds $710. By way of example, testimony indicated that Lakewood paid $1,000 for each bused student in FY2018. Initial Decision at 21. Under the SFRA, that year

Lakewood would have received a minimum of $466 for each nonpublic student who was required to be transported.[25] With the State bearing the cost in excess of $710, that leaves $244 per nonpublic student that must be covered by the district's tax levy (the $710 local share per student reduced by the $466 State aid payment per student); for 30,000 nonpublic students, the total would be approximately $7.3 million. This cost is certainly substantial, but with an anticipated tax levy of $96.9 million for FY2018,[26] Lakewood would have $89.6 million remaining in its levy to use – in combination with other categories of State aid it received – to provide T&E to its students.

The 2009 Needs Assessment also recommended that Lakewood develop strategies to educate more of its special education students in-district, which would both save money and result in a greater allocation of extraordinary special education costs aid, which is structured to provide more aid for students who are educated in the district than for those in private placements. Initial Decision at 99-100. However, the ALJ concluded that petitioners had failed to demonstrate that Lakewood had taken steps to save money in this manner. Ibid. Furthermore, the ALJ concluded that even if none of the 343 students sent to out-of-district placements in the 2018-2019 school year (at a cost of $33 million) could have been educated in-district, Lakewood could have applied for additional aid based on an usually high rate of low-incidence disabilities.[27] Id. at 101. Petitioners did not present any evidence that Lakewood availed itself of this opportunity. Ibid. Nor had Lakewood applied for facilities funding to increase its ability to serve special education students in-district, despite the fact that Lakewood's Superintendent testified that a barrier to providing in-district special education services was a lack of space. Id. at 17, 99-100.

[25] The base and mileage amounts are established by the EAR every three years and adjusted by the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for the following two years. N.J.S.A. 18A:57(b). For FY2017, the base amount was $442.18 per pupil, plus $12.10 per mile. 2023 EAR at 10. Because districts are required by N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1 to provide transportation to elementary students who reside more than two miles from school, the minimum transportation aid that the district would receive under the SFRA for each student was $466.31 ($442.18 + $12.10 + $12.10). This amount would have been slightly higher in FY2018 due to the CPI adjustment. The amount would also increase for any student who lived more than two miles from school, or for students with special transportation needs. However, for purposes of clarity, the lowest possible figure – the base amount from FY2017 – is used in this example.

The Comprehensive Report undermines the Lakewood's Superintendent's claim that so many out-of-district placements are necessary because of insufficient space within the District.[28] Initial Decision at 17. The Report notes that Lakewood has made substantial investments in state-of-the-art related therapy equipment but is underutilizing those resources because of the number of students with disabilities who are not educated in the public-school buildings. Comprehensive Report at 5. As the Comprehensive Report observes, "For students with disabilities to improve their academic achievement and reduce the achievement gap with their nondisabled peers, they need to be included in the core curriculum and receive evidence-based interventions . . . throughout a continuum of special education services which are provided in the Least Restrictive Environment (LRE), where, to the maximum extent appropriate, a student with a disability is educated with peers who are not disabled." Id. at 15. Notably, Lakewood has not met targets related to LRE and has been found to be significantly disproportionate with regard to white students being placed in separate settings.[29] Id. at 14. The Comprehensive Report concludes that there is room in most of the buildings in the district to provide special education services. Id. at 26.

Lakewood's response to the Comprehensive Report indicates that because nonpublic students are not entitled to receive individualized services with respect to disabilities, students with significant disabilities typically leave nonpublic schools to enroll in Lakewood's public school system. Lakewood then becomes responsible for providing the intensive assistance that these students need, including the obligation of finding out-of-district placements at increased costs. Lakewood response at 1. Although Lakewood correctly notes that it is responsible for these students once they have enrolled in the district, as the Comprehensive Report concluded, creating special education programming in-district "could be a huge cost saver in the long run and best for students." Id. at 26. The Assistant Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's finding that the record contains "scant evidence of the district's efforts to educate more of these children in-district, which could save Lakewood substantial sums and result in more aid." Initial Decision at 101.

Conclusion

As stated by the Appellate Division, "the State has a continuing obligation to 'keep SFRA operating at its optimal level.'" Alcantara v. Allen-McMillan, supra, 475 N.J. Super. at 71 (quoting Abbott XX, supra, 199 N.J. at 146). However, this principle does not give districts a [29] Lakewood's response to the Comprehensive Report takes issue with the disproportionality finding, arguing that the Department's data does not take into account the total population of Lakewood students. Lakewood response at 25. However, that argument has previously been rejected by the Appellate Division. See Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of Lakewood v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., No. A-0709-21, 2023 *N.J. blank check to spend money unwisely at the expense of the State's taxpayers. In light of Lakewood's tax-related choices that decreased revenue, the significant deficiencies in Lakewood's spending practices, and Lakewood's failure to control its transportation and special education costs, the Assistant Commissioner concludes that Lakewood's failure to provide T&E to its students does not derive, in significant part, from the provisions of the SFRA.

Accordingly, the petition of appeal's claim regarding the constitutionality of the SFRA as applied to Lakewood is hereby denied.

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Jacob Petrik,
Board of Education of the City of Gloucester,
Camden County.

Synopsis

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on February 5, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by the petitioner, Board of Education of the City of Gloucester, upon respondent Jacob Petrick, requiring him to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending his teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law. In response to the Order to Show Cause, respondent emailed the Office of Controversies and Disputes on March 15, 2024, indicating that he did not wish to challenge the Order to Show Cause.

Upon review, the Commissioner concluded that the allegations, which respondent has chosen not to deny, may be deemed admitted and justify suspension of respondent's certificates. Accordingly, summary decision was granted to the Board, and respondent's certificates were suspended for a period of one year from the date of the filing of this decision – a copy of which was forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for the purpose of effectuating this order.

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Jacob Petrik,
Board of Education of the City of Gloucester,
Camden County.

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on February 5, 2024, by way of an Order to Show Cause served by petitioner (Gloucester City Board of Education) upon respondent (Jacob Petrik), requiring respondent to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending his teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8 for resigning without giving the notice required by law.

On March 14, 2024, respondent emailed the Office of Controversies and Disputes and stated that he does not wish to challenge the Order to Show Cause.

The petition and supporting exhibits submitted by petitioner in this matter indicate that: respondent entered into a contract to work as a teacher for the 2023-2024 school year; the contract provides that it can be terminated by the employee upon sixty days' written notice; and on January 11, 2024, respondent sent correspondence to petitioner indicating that he was resigning, effective February 2, 2024, thereby providing less than the required sixty days' notice. The respondent has not denied these allegations; therefore, the Commissioner deems such allegations to be admitted pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) and further deems them sufficient to justify suspension of respondent's teaching certificates pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.S.A. 18A:28-8.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to petitioner, and respondent's teaching certificates, as well as any substitute teaching credential he may hold, are suspended for a period of one year from the filing date of this decision, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the State Board of Examiners for implementation of the suspension.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Yesenia Camilo, School District of the Town of West New York, Hudson County.

Synopsis

Petitioning Board filed tenure charges of unbecoming conduct against respondent, a tenured teacher, and sought to terminate her employment with the district. The charges outline ongoing attendance issues going back to the 2019-2020 school year; most recently, the respondent has been absent from her teaching position since the beginning of the 2023-2024 school year. To date, no reply to the tenure charges has been received from or on behalf of the respondent.

The Commissioner concluded that the allegations – which respondent has chosen not to deny – may be deemed admitted and are sufficient to warrant termination of the respondent from her tenured position. Accordingly, the Commissioner granted summary decision to the petitioner, dismissed the respondent from her tenured teaching position in petitioner's school district, and forwarded a copy of this decision to the State Board of Examiners for action against respondent's certificate(s) as that body deems appropriate.

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Yesenia Camilo, School District of the Town of West New York, Hudson County.

For the Petitioner, Craig B. Novak, Esq.

No appearance by or on behalf of Respondent, Yesenia Camilo

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on February 15, 2024, through tenure charges of unbecoming conduct certified by Clara Herrera, Superintendent of the West New York School District ("District"), together with supporting evidence against respondent, Yesenia Camilo, a tenured teaching staff member in the District's employ. The District provided respondent with written notice of such certification at the respondent's current known address, via email and certified mail.

On February 20, 2024, the Commissioner directed the respondent via email and regular mail to file an answer to the charges. This communication provided notice to respondent that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.3 and 6A:3-5.4, an individual against whom tenure charges are certified "shall have 15 days from the day such charges are filed with the Commissioner to file a written response to the charges with the Commissioner," and that failure to answer within the prescribed period would – absent granting of an extension for good cause shown – result in the charges being deemed admitted. A second notice was sent to the respondent on March 6, 2024. No reply to the tenure charges was received from or on behalf of the respondent.

The certified tenure charges and statement of supporting evidence filed by the District in this matter indicate that the respondent was employed by the District as a tenured teacher. The charges indicate that the respondent has not appeared for work for the 2023-2024 school year, failing to notify the District regarding her absences on all but two dates or to provide a physician's note once she had more than three consecutive absences, as required by District policy. The respondent had accrued 83 absences at the time the tenure charges were filed, 54 of which exceeded her contractual paid time off.

Deeming the allegations to be admitted and noting that the respondent has failed to respond to the charges certified against her, the Commissioner finds that the District's charge of unbecoming conduct has been proven and warrants the respondent's dismissal. Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to the District, and the respondent is dismissed from her tenured position with the West New York School District. This matter will be transmitted to the State Board of Examiners for action against respondent's certificate(s) as that body deems appropriate.

v.

Lisa Moyer, Allamuchy Township Board of Education, Warren County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Complainants alleged, inter alia, that respondent Lisa Moyer, a member of the Allamuchy Township Board of Education (Board), violated several sections of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., when she used her Board position to attempt to reverse a harassment, intimidation, and bullying determination made by the Board against her child. Following a full review of the matter, the School Ethics Commission (SEC) determined that the respondent's actions violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members and recommended a penalty of reprimand.

The case was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination of the appropriate penalty in this matter. Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the penalty recommendation of the SEC. Accordingly, the respondent shall be reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

Lisa Moyer, Allamuchy Township Board of Education, Warren County,

Respondent.

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the February 27, 2024 decision of the School Ethics Commission (Commission). The Commission found that respondent Lisa Moyer, a member of the Allamuchy Township Board of Education (Board), violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the School Ethics Act. The Commission recommended a penalty of reprimand for the violation. The Commission's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). Respondent neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the Commission's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the Commission for respondent's actions in using her Board position to attempt to reverse a harassment, intimidation, and bullying determination made by the Board against respondent's child.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed on March 13, 2022,[1] by Lisa Strutin (Complainant Strutin), Mary Renaud, Craig Green, Abigail Christmann, Harriett Gaddy, and Stephen Bienko (collectively, Complainants) alleging that Lisa A. Moyer (Respondent), a member of the Allamuchy Township Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. More specifically, the Complaint avers that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) (in Count 3), as well as N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code) (in Counts 1-3, Count 5, and Counts 7-8), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b) of the Code (in Count 1 and Count 7), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) of the Code (in Count 1, Count 3, and Counts 5-6), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) of the Code (in Count 1, Count 6, and Counts 9-10), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) of the Code (in Count 1, Counts 4-6, and Counts 9-10), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) of the Code (in Count 7, and Counts 9-10), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) of the Code (in Counts 1-2), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) of the Code (in Counts 1-2, Count 4, Counts 8-9, and Count 11).

On May 23, 2022, the Commission voted to place this matter in abeyance, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-32. Following resolution of the conflicting matter on or about September 6, 2022, the instant ethics case proceeded.

At its special meeting on October 17, 2022, and after reviewing Respondent's Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer (Motion to Dismiss) and allegation of frivolous filing, as well as Complainants' response thereto, the Commission voted to grant the Motion to Dismiss as to the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a) in Count 1 and as to Counts 2-11 (in their entirety);

[1] On March 13, 2022, Complainants filed a deficient Complaint; however, on March 24, 2022, Complainants cured all defects and filed an Amended Complaint that was deemed compliant with the requirements detailed in N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.3.

but deny the Motion to Dismiss as to Count 1 (excluding the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a)). The Commission voted to find the Complaint not frivolous, and to deny Respondent's request for sanctions. Based on its decision, the Commission also directed Respondent to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer) as to the remaining allegations (N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in Count 1). In light of the fact that the only remaining allegations involved violations of the Code, the Commission voted to transmit the above-captioned matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) following receipt of the Answer, which the Commission received on December 1, 2022.

At the OAL, a hearing was held on June 22, 2023, and July 24, 2023. Thereafter, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Initial Decision on December 22, 2023, finding that Respondent violated the remaining allegations in Count 1 of the Complaint, and recommended that only the "minimum monetary penalty" be imposed."[2] The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

At its meeting on January 23, 2024, the Commission considered the full record in this matter. Thereafter, at its special meeting on February 27, 2024, the Commission voted to modify the Initial Decision, finding that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Count 1, but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in Count 1. The Commission also voted to recommend a penalty of reprimand.

II. Initial Decision

This matter involves allegations that Respondent and her spouse were involved in "ongoing efforts to negotiate with the District Administration to reverse a determination that their child had committed a [Harassment Intimidation and Bullying (HIB)] violation, as well as a Code of Conduct violation, which became part of [their child's] school record." Initial Decision at 2.

Prior to the Board's reorganization meeting on January 4, 2022, Respondent's child had been "deemed liable for a Code of Conduct violation for an incident that occurred in District." Id. at 6. The Superintendent testified that she denied Respondent's request to have the Code of Conduct violation removed, and she also denied the request to have the matter brought before the full Board. Id. at 4. Nevertheless, Respondent communicated directly with the Superintendent several times "seeking her direct intervention and a reversal of the finding" against her child. Id. at 6. The Superintendent testified that Respondent "pressed on to the point of threatening her, saying . . . in the presence of others that 'she could not stand her' and that the Board 'needed to hold her accountable.'" Id. at 4. The Superintendent felt threatened by the tone of Respondent's accusations and retained counsel. Id. at 4, 6.

[2] Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), the Commission may recommend penalties including the reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of a school official, but does not have the authority to issue monetary penalties.

In addition, Respondent also sent an email regarding the topic to each Board member, and did not indicate that she was doing so as a parent and not as a Board member. Id. at 6. Furthermore, Board counsel testified that he received emails from Respondent regarding her child, which "is not standard protocol since usually [B]oard member inquiries go through [a]dministration first." Id. at 4. The email stated, among other things, "No offense . . . but my legal counsel runs rings around you and your firm . . . Besides the obvious that I am a client there is also a moral obligation that a normal person would naturally feel after hearing what happened to a child. But because your client is devoid of any of those natural feelings we are now all in the mess that we are finding ourselves in." Exhibit P-8.

Respondent's husband raised the subject of their child's punishment at the same Board meeting, during public session, and sought clarification on the Board policy related to the subject. Initial Decision at 6. Respondent and her spouse continued their advocacy for their child directly with the administration and the Board until they secured private counsel some time after the January 4, meeting. Ibid. Respondent and her spouse filed suit against the Board, which was ultimately resolved. Ibid. Respondent testified that "everything she did was to advocate on behalf of her [child] who she feels was being unfairly treated." Id. at 5.

Based on the testimony of six witnesses, including Complainant Strutin and Respondent, the ALJ finds "there is clear evidence of personality conflicts and disputes over [B]oard policy between a majority of the members of the Board and Respondent which explains in part why the Complaint was filed by multiple [Complainants]." Id. at 7. The ALJ further finds Respondent acted inappropriately at the meeting on January 4, by communicating directly with the Superintendent, as well as sending an email about the situation to the entire Board, even if the email was sent as a parent and not as a Board member. Ibid. The ALJ also finds there were at least two other Board members who shared concerns during the public meeting related to Respondent's conduct at the meeting, and that despite warnings, Respondent's spouse still discussed the matter in public. Ibid. Finally, the ALJ finds sending a letter to the entire Board without indicating in which role it was being sent, parent or Board member, is a violation of the Act. Ibid.

The ALJ concludes Complainants have met their burden as to Count 1, namely that Respondent violated the alleged provisions of the Code. Id. at 11. The ALJ further concludes Respondent's actions were self-serving in nature and she would secure a personal benefit if the Code of Conduct violation were changed. Ibid. According to the ALJ, Respondent's conduct "constitutes bad judgment in violation of the School Ethics training she received and is obligated to follow by circulating an email to the entire Board, by communicating directly with the Superintendent about a private matter, by not stopping or cautioning her husband from bringing a private confidential matter into an open forum, and by not recusing herself or stepping aside when her husband went forward with his presentation to the entire [B]oard during the January 4, meeting." Ibid.

The ALJ asserts that although he finds that the remaining allegations in the Complaint have been sustained, "by way of mitigation, due to the emotional nature of the incident involving her [child] . . . Respondent felt that she was acting in [the child's] best interests and was simply unable to separate the two roles" of parent and Board member. Id. at 7. The ALJ notes that "this is an unfortunate situation where Respondent and her spouse got carried away in what they thought was zealous advocacy for their [child], which was compounded by Respondent's refusal to adhere to instructions from [B]oard counsel and other members of the Board." Id. at 8. Therefore, and although Respondent violated the alleged violations of the Code, the ALJ recommends that only the "minimum monetary penalty" should be imposed against her. Ibid.

III. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission finds that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Count 1, but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in Count 1. Accordingly, the Commission recommends a penalty of reprimand for the violations.

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b), board members must make decisions "in terms of the educational welfare of children" and "seek to develop and maintain public schools that meet the individual needs of all children regardless of their ability, race, creed, sex or social standing." The Commission finds that Respondent's attempts to advocate for her child, including any contact made to the Superintendent, Board members, or Board counsel, while it may have been inappropriate or a violation of the Act, it does not establish that Respondent made a decision contrary to the educational welfare of children, or that she took deliberate action to obstruct the programs and policies designed to meet the individual needs of all children, regardless of their ability, race, color, creed, or social standing. Respondent's behaviors stemmed from an attempt to advocate for her child, not contrary to the needs of all children, which does not arise to a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b).

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), board members must confine board action to "policy making, planning, and appraisal" and "frame policies and plans only after the board has consulted those who will be affected by them." The Commission finds that Respondent used her position as a Board member to contact Board counsel to further her personal agenda regarding her child's disciplinary record. A non-Board member parent would not have the ability or opportunity to reach out directly to Board counsel, and as such, Respondent's actions in doing so for personal reasons stemmed from her Board membership and is action unrelated to her duties as a Board member, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c).

Under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), board members must not "administer the schools," but instead "see that they are well run." The Commission finds that Respondent's direct communication, on multiple occasions, with the Superintendent to seek "direct intervention and a reversal of the finding" against her child, was a direct order to school personnel to alter her child's disciplinary record. By contacting individual members of the Board and Board counsel, in addition to the Superintendent, to lobby for a change to her child's disciplinary record, Respondent became involved in the functions that are the responsibility of school personnel. Although it was a highly emotional situation for Respondent, she attempted to administer the schools by insisting that the Superintendent remove her child's Code of Conduct violation and/or bring the matter to the full Board, and by pressing the issue with individual Board members and Board counsel, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d).

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), a board member must "recognize that authority rests with the board" and a board member shall not make any "personal promises nor take any private action that may compromise the board." The Commission finds that Respondent's efforts to persuade individual Board members and Board counsel to advocate for her personal agenda, namely the reversal of her child's Code of Conduct and HIB violations, was action beyond the scope of her duties as a Board member. Although parents may contact the Superintendent regarding their children, Respondent was only able to contact individual Board members and Board counsel regarding her child's disciplinary record due to her Board member status. Such action has the potential to compromise the Board as she was attempting to influence Board members to overturn a decision regarding her child that the chief school administrator made. Additionally, when Board counsel receives emails, counsel may charge the Board for the time spent reading and/or responding to communications stemming from matters involving the Board, so Respondent's email to Board counsel for a personal matter may cost the Board money. As such, Respondent's actions went beyond the scope of her duties, and by its nature, that action had the potential to compromise the Board, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).

As set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), board members must "hold confidential all matters pertaining to the schools which, if disclosed, would needlessly injure individuals or the schools" and in all other matters, board members must "provide accurate information and . . . interpret to the staff the aspirations of the community for its school." The Commission finds that Respondent's discussion of her child's matter in public does not amount to disclosing confidential information. It does not appear that Respondent disclosed any information that she learned through her position on the Board, but rather she discussed information involving her own child that she learned as a parent. As such, Respondent's advocacy for her child does not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g).

According to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), Board members must support and protect school personnel in the proper performance of their duties. Respondent's contact and tension with the Superintendent stemmed from the sensitive and emotionally charged topic of disciplinary action involving her child. As such, the Commission finds her communications were not deliberate action that resulted in undermining, opposing, compromising, or harming school personnel in the proper performance of their duties, and therefore, did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i).

With respect to a penalty, the Commission finds that a reprimand is appropriate. The Commission understands the need for a parent to advocate on behalf of her child and recognizes that Respondent was highly emotional given her concerns surrounding what she felt was an incorrect outcome that would have a lasting impact on her child's disciplinary record. However, the Commission notes that in doing so, a school official must adhere to the Act. Given Respondent's violations of the Code, balanced with the unique mitigating circumstances present in this matter, the Commission recommends a penalty of reprimand.

IV. Decision

For the aforementioned reasons, the Commission modifies the Initial Decision of the OAL and finds that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) in Count 1, but did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in Count 1. Additionally, the Commission recommends a penalty of reprimand for the violations.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

Biruthan Ganaganayagam,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed.[1] Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that petitioner has demonstrated entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to the standards enunciated in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6. Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL granting petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted, with modification as explained herein.

The Commissioner wishes to clarify that while the ALJ appears to have assumed that a conditional discharge under New York law has the same effect as a conditional discharge under New Jersey law, a review of the relevant statutes suggests otherwise. The plain language of New York's conditional discharge statute, N.Y.P.L. § 65.05, indicates that a conviction occurs prior to [1] The Order was received by the agency on March 27, 2024. On April 3, 2024, the ALJ issued a revised decision, which was captioned as an Initial Decision and informed the parties of the opportunity to file exceptions. The Commissioner has determined that the issue of emergent relief will be addressed herein, and a final agency decision addressing the merits of the underlying petition will be forthcoming in the usual course, following the review of the exceptions filed by respondent and any reply thereto that petitioner may file. No information or arguments contained in the exceptions filed by respondent were considered in reaching the decision herein regarding emergent relief.

imposition of a conditional discharge sentence. Cf. N.J.S.A. 2C:36A-1 (providing that a conditional discharge for certain eligible drug offenses need not result in the entry of a judgment of conviction). Moreover, nothing in the New York statute's plain language implies that the conviction is automatically nullified upon completion of the conditional discharge sentence. Furthermore, relevant New York case law suggests that the underlying conviction remains intact. See generally People v. Seaberg, 74 N.Y.2d 1, 6, 11-12 (N.Y. App. Div. 2d Dep't 1988), aff'd, 541 N.E.2d 1022 (N.Y. 1989) (holding that agreement wherein the defendant received a sentence of conditional discharge in exchange for his right to appeal the underlying judgment of conviction was valid). And while N.Y.P.L. § 160.60 provides, by operation of law, that an arrest and prosecution are nullified if a criminal action is terminated "against a person in favor of such person" pursuant to the parameters of N.Y.P.L. § 160.50(3), N.Y.P.L. § 160.50(3) does not include a conviction and sentence of conditional discharge among the enumerated circumstances which constitute termination of a criminal action "in favor of such person."

That said, even assuming petitioner's 2006 Class A misdemeanor conviction, pursuant to N.Y.P.L. § 165.40, of fifth-degree criminal possession of stolen property remains on his criminal record, he has nevertheless satisfied each of the Crowe factors and is entitled to emergent relief. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ, for the reasons stated in the Order, that petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted, and that petitioner will suffer greater harm on balance than respondent if the requested relief is not granted. Regarding whether the legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled, and whether petitioner has a likelihood of success on the merits, the Commissioner's analysis differs from that of the ALJ, as explained next, because the ALJ presumed that the New York conviction was a nullity in the absence of adequate legal support for said conclusion.

The controlling statute regarding the permanent disqualification of individuals from public school employment is N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1, which provides that an individual shall be permanently disqualified if his criminal record check reveals a conviction for one of the New Jersey crimes identified in the statute or if he was convicted under a similar statute in another state "for a substantially equivalent crime or other offense." At respondent's request, petitioner requested police records related to the conviction but was informed in writing that the police department did not retain the records beyond the requisite seven-year retention period. The limited record provided to the Commissioner on emergent relief lacks sufficient evidence to support a determination that petitioner was convicted under a similar New York statute of a crime that is substantially equivalent to a New Jersey disqualifying crime enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Absent such a determination, it was unlawful for respondent to permanently disqualify petitioner from public school employment. Consequently, based upon the limited record as presently comprised, the Commissioner holds that the legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled, and that petitioner has a likelihood of success on the merits.

The recommended Order of the OAL granting petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted, as modified. During the pendency of these proceedings, petitioner shall not be disqualified from public school employment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

BIRUTHAN GANAGANAYAGAM,

v.

NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
OFFICE OF STUDENT PROTECTION,

Respondent.

Biruthan Ganaganayagam, pro se

David Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General, for Respondent, (New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection, Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

BEFORE DANIELLE PASQUALE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, a newly-hired teacher of the Newark City Board of Education (The "Petitioner" or "Mr. Ganaganayagam") requests emergent and final relief from the New Jersey Department of Education's, Office of Student Protection's ("NJDOE" or "OSP") disqualification from his employment with the Newark City Board of Education at the North Star Academy Charter School and OSP's subsequent denial of the Petitioner's request to rescind their termination of his employment due to an arrest found during his background check.

The case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for emergent relief on March 21, 2024 and assigned to me that day. I then conferenced the case on March 22, 2024 in an attempt to identify the issues and possibly resolve the matter. I heard the oral argument on March 26, 2024 via Zoom as the parties could not reach a resolution.

As the facts surrounding the timeline are largely undisputed, they will be discussed and found as FACT. Petitioner had a charge in New York that resulted in a Conditional Discharge. Accordingly, I took Judicial Notice that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:36A-1 Conditional Discharge is available for certain first offenses. When that supervisory period after the sentence of conditional discharge is entered, (as there is no plea of guilt, factual basis, admission, or elocution required) "upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions of supervisory treatment the court shall terminate the supervisory treatment and dismiss the proceedings against him. Termination of supervisory treatment and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes or disqualifications, or disabilities if any imposed by law upon conviction of a crime or disorderly personas offense but shall be reported by the clerk of the court to the State Bureau of Identification criminal history record information files. As such, and because there is no affidavit or proof to the contrary, I FIND as fact that the New York charge lodged against the petitioner when he was eighteen (18) (almost twenty years ago) resolved in a conditional discharge.

Petitioner submitted a detailed and thorough verified Petition of Appeal for Emergent Relief addressing each of the Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 NJ 126 (1986) factors as will be outlined below. Petitioner moved here from New York for his job at the Charter School in Newark and taught as a teacher in New York for seven (7) years prior where he passed a background check. Petitioner worked at the Charter school for ten (10) days before this note from the investigator of OSP inquired as the "amount" involved in his charge in New York which might bring the New Jersey equivalent charge up to a third degree. I noted that there was no written argument submitted or affidavit offered by the Deputy Attorney General (DAG) disputing a resolution other than a conditional discharge which, as I note above, shall not be considered a conviction and I so FIND that there is no conviction here upon which can be considered here for the disqualification.

The Petitioner cooperated with the OSP investigator as per his verified appeal and is undisputed by the DAG. The DAG has not submitted opposition in this matter. The DAG presented the proofs that the Petitioner sent in good faith to the OSP investigator. In fact, these documents that shall not be considered, shall only be mentioned as the OSP wanted Petitioner to reveal the amount in question. The only thing he could show is that it was under a $1,000 and New Jersey's equivalent criminal code would require a showing of over $500. The Petitioner is the only verified documentation and attestation I have that he cannot put a number on the amount in question. In fact, when I found out that we were discussing a matter that resulted in a Conditional Discharge I instructed any discussion regarding the matter to cease in accordance with law as it is not a conviction, not an admission of guilt and improper for the Petitioner to comment on even though he was cooperative and certified that he did not know the amount in the paperwork prior to my being assigned the file, and thus I so FIND.

Without a brief, affidavit or any supporting caselaw to the contrary, Respondent argues that the "conviction" in New York from 2005 should equal a third-degree crime in New Jersey. However, as noted above, Respondent's argument is that this supposes that he can even refer to that incident. There is no dispute that there is no plea, no factual basis and no elocution was given regarding the circumstances surrounding that incident. Further, the DAG did not cite any law that requires that any of these assumptions or speculations apply specifically to Petitioner's termination or disqualification. Notably, the DAG was not aware that Petitioner was appealing a disqualification or termination, but rather that he was appealing the investigation itself, which is not the case. At oral argument the DAG was made aware when Petitioner sent him the e-mail disqualifying him from employment at the Charter School in Newark after the OSP notified them to do so. The Respondent has not presented any affidavits or certified exhibits of the allegation that the arrest amounted in anything other than a conditional discharge which is as a matter of law, a legal nullity and not up for discussion, and thus I so FIND.

Petitioner's representation of the alleged irreparable harm to him and his family is clear. He moved to New Jersey for his job. He is counting on his health insurance as his wife is pregnant and going through many pre-natal appointments. In addition, if the facts or allegations of a conviction that does not exist and a resulting disqualification from employment at the Charter School get out, it would be harmful to his reputation in the education community and certainly amongst his co-workers. This could also have an effect on any future employment and thus I so FIND. In addition, if he does not win this emergent appeal, his boss who is attempting to hold the position open now will have to fill the position. This information is attached to the petitioner's verified petition, was in his sworn testimony at oral argument and it remains unopposed as the DAG could not dispute same and did not submit any paperwork to the contrary; as such I FIND it as FACT.

It should be noted that I have reviewed all corresponding certifications and documentation from both sides in this matter and discussed the matter at length in an attempt to resolve the matter. It should be noted that the DAG did not submit any written documentation other than to forward emails he received that were already forwarded to him and the OSP investigator by the petitioner regarding the 2005 charge (which was a conditional discharge and thus not a conviction). He did not submit an affidavit from the investigator or any potential witnesses discussing the charge from 2005 or any of the details. The DAG did not brief a legal argument as to why the laws surrounding conditional discharge as a legal nullity should not apply under the circumstances. The document regarding any details is hearsay and I FIND that the Petitioner's arguments against the OSP's disqualification hold up against the reason cited for his termination.

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and 1:1-12.6, emergency relief may be granted "where authorized by law and where irreparable harm will result without an expedited decision granting or prohibiting some action or relief connected with a contested case . . . ." My determination in this matter is further governed by the standard for emergent relief set forth by our Supreme Court in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 NJ 126 (1986), as follows:

> The judge may order emergency relief ... if the judge determines from the proofs that:
>
> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted.
> 2. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled.
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of success on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the relief is not granted.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The issue before me is whether, based on the largely undisputed facts and procedural history before me, the criteria for the granting of emergency relief has been met for me to reinstate the petitioner to the Newark City Public Schools after a disqualification where Petitioner has no conviction and thus the OSP cannot prove that the disqualification was appropriate. The applicable regulation incorporates the well-established standard for injunctive relief set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):

> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6]

With respect to the first prong, I FIND that petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not provided. It is undisputed that Petitioner moved to New Jersey after teaching in New York for seven (7) years. He never had a blemish on his employment record in New York and moved to New Jersey for the position at the Newark Charter School which is a coveted position. He cooperated with the investigation in a timely manner and checked off "arrest" on his background investigation which he did not have to do. Regardless, he cooperated and provided the documents regarding an arrest for a charge that he received conditional discharge for which as defined above is not a conviction and thus a legal nullity. To that end, this case is somewhat unique in that I am not required to do a comparability analysis of a New York crime to a New Jersey crime as when it resolves in a Conditional Discharge; I am required by law not to consider it a crime; and thus, it becomes almost impossible for the OSP to provide further proof for Petitioner's disqualification as I cannot consider it under these circumstances, and thus I so FIND. In short, I find that Petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if he is disqualified from his employment with the Newark Charter Schools for the reasons cited above. I also FIND that any substantive discussion of the alleged conviction in this case would also cause him irreparable harm to his reputation and cause speculation and possibly affect his chances of finding future employment. I also FIND that if this disqualification is not undone, that the Newark Charter school will find a replacement thereby costing him this position.

I have reviewed the second and third prongs of Crowe together because the merits and rights are intertwined here. Petitioner has the burden on this application with respect to proving that this forum is likely to reverse the determination of OSP in keeping with the opinion of NJDOE and their legal obligation under the NJ regulations to provide a safe education to residents. To that end, Petitioner's rights are well-settled. In fact, as Respondent notes, there is no statutory or regulatory authority that permits Petitioner to opt out of this requirement. As such, I acknowledge that the NJDOE and OSP are merely reporting what they find and doing their job. However, the DAG has not submitted any sworn documentation or any legal arguments upon which he argues any of the merits other than the existence of a "crime" without a proved amount and without a potential witness for trial. As a result of the DAG's lack of evidence or legal arguments, Petitioner clearly meets the second and third prongs. The law is clearly settled, and there is a strong likelihood of his prevailing on the merits of his underlying claim and thus I so FIND.

On the last prong, I FIND that there is demonstrated irreparable harm to the Petitioner as he will not only suffer economic harm but also reputational harm and loss of medical coverage while his wife is pregnant. In addition, he left his last job and moved to New Jersey for his role at the Newark Charter School. That harm certainly outweighs OSP's as there is no right or requirement to disqualify a teacher in New Jersey based upon the lack of a conviction we are discussing here. To that end, I agree with Petitioner that his disqualification of employment was unlawful. In fact, as there was no brief or legal argument to the contrary, I am persuaded that there is no other way for the Petitioner to get relief and he was entirely cooperative, and thus I so FIND.

In balancing these interests, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has satisfied his burden of proof as to all of the Crowe factors with regard to his desire to overturn his disqualification from his employment at the Newark Charter School and that as a result, the interests clearly weigh in favor of granting the relief sought herein as all four prongs are needed to meet the Petitioner's burden, and have been met accordingly.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the emergent application for relief of the petitioner is hereby GRANTED and this resolves the case as no further issues remain.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." WHEREAS, an investigation, which named L.L. (hereinafter referred to as the "Pupil"), was conducted and the Board affirmed the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, thereby substantiating a finding of HIB; and

WHEREAS, there is a dispute between the Petitioners and Respondent (hereinafter Petitioners and Respondent shall be collectively referred to as the "Parties"); and

WHEREAS, on or about January 26, 2023, Petitioners filed a Complaint with the Commissioner of Education; and

WHEREAS, on or about February 12, 2023, Respondent filed an Answer with the Commissioner in response to the Complaint; and

WHEREAS, on or about February 26, 2024, the Parties participated in a settlement conference with the Honorable Barry E. Moscowitz, Acting Director & Chief A.L.J.; and

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties having a desire to settle the above matter in an amicable way, hereby agree as follows:

1. The Parties agree that all Cranford Public School District records associated with this matter, which are in the possession and control of the District/Board, shall be removed from the student records of Pupil.

2. The Parties further agree that all documents, including written or electronic/digital, relating to the HIB incident and the District's investigation shall be modified to permanently redact the Pupil's name, initials, Student ID, and State ID from such documents. The Parties acknowledge that once all documents related to the HIB incident, including but not limited to the HIB investigation report, are modified to permanently redact the Pupil's name, initials, Student ID, and State ID from all such documents, those documents will no longer be considered a student record for the pupil. Further, all documents, including written or digital/electronic, relating to the HIB incident and the District's investigation, which are currently included in the Pupil's student records, shall be removed in their entirety from the record and a written confirmation to that effect shall be sent to Petitioners within five (5) days following the ratification of this Agreement by the Board with written notice to counsel.

3. The Parties have reached this compromise to avoid the expense, inconvenience, and potential acrimony of an administrative law hearing under the school laws. The Parties specifically disclaim any liability to each other. The Parties' entry into this Agreement shall not constitute nor shall it be interpreted as an admission of wrongdoing or guilt, or liability in any manner on either of the Parties' part. Any such obligation or liability on either Party's part is expressly denied. The Parties have all entered into this Agreement solely to compromise disputed claims.

4. In consideration of the settlement of the captioned matter, Petitioners, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Pupil, a minor, and the District/Board forever waive their right to take any action against each other regarding this matter.

5. In consideration of the settlement of the captioned matter, Petitioners, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Pupil, a minor, and the District/Board shall mutually release and forever discharge each other, its/their officers, employees, administrators, agents and servants from any and all past, present, or future claims, whether known or unknown to Petitioners, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Pupil, a minor, arising out of the alleged HIB incident that was the subject of this litigation, including but not limited to any and all claims for attorney's fees, money damages, civil liability, or any other equitable or legal relief.

6. In the event that Petitioners, on their own behalf and on behalf of the Pupil, a minor, or the District/Board or any member, employee or authorized agent or representative of the Parties breaches or violates any provision of this Agreement, then in that event the Parties reserve the right to bring a claim before a tribunal of competent jurisdiction to enforce their rights under this Agreement.

7. Each party shall be responsible for its own attorney's fees and costs associated with this matter.

8. This Agreement contains the entire Agreement and understanding between all Parties and constitutes a full and final agreement and settlement on any and all issues.

9. Any dispute arising out of the breach of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

10. If, during the term of this Agreement, a specific clause of the Agreement is determined to be illegal or in violation of any Federal or State law, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect.

11. The Parties have entered into this Agreement freely and voluntarily with a full understanding of their rights and the contents of this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that they had the opportunity to consult with legal counsel or a representative of their choice and that they reviewed the Agreement in detail with their counsel or representative and fully understand its requirements and limitations.

13. This Agreement shall remain confidential to the maximum extent permitted by law and the Parties shall not disclose its form or contents to any third parties.

14. This Agreement shall be construed as if it were drafted by both Parties contemporaneously.

15. This Agreement is subject to ratification by the Cranford Township Board of Education.

16. Upon the signing of this Agreement by all parties, Petitioners shall withdraw its Petition of Appeal (Docket No. EDU 01476-22) without prejudice. Upon ratification by the Board, Petitioners shall withdraw its Petition of Appeal with prejudice.

17. The Parties stipulate and agree the email and/or fax signatures on this Settlement Agreement shall have the same affect as an original signature.

18. This Agreement shall be incorporated into an Order by the Honorable Barry E. Moscowitz, Acting Director & Chief A.L.J.

BEFORE MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on November 29, 2023 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A hearing was scheduled for February 23, 2024 and during that time, the parties agreed to settle the matter. The executed Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of agreement was forwarded to the OAL on March 12, 2024 and is attached hereto.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of 1:1-19.1 and that settlement should be approved. Accordingly, I approve the settlement and ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE, (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement"), is made this 11 day of March 2024, by and between the Bethzaida Chaparro (hereinafter, also referred to as "Petitioner"), who currently resides at 70 Westfield Avenue, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208 and the Elizabeth Board of Education (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Board"), with its principal offices located at 500 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208.

WHEREAS, Petitioner enrolled her minor child M.M., as a student in the Elizabeth Public School District for the 2023-2024 school year; and

WHEREAS, the Board determined that the minor child M.M. was ineligible to attend the schools of the Elizabeth Public School District due to domicile outside of Elizabeth; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner commenced an action against the Board appealing its residency determination in a matter entitled B.C. on behalf of minor child, M.M. v. City of Elizabeth Board of Education, OAL Docket No. EDU 13281-2023N, Agency Ref. No.: 312-11/23, (hereinafter referred to as the "Petition"); and

WHEREAS, the Board filed a Counterclaim to the Petition against Petitioner for tuition reimbursement for M.M.'s ineligible attendance in the Elizabeth School District; and

WHEREAS, the Petitioner and the Board (hereinafter, also referred to as the "Parties") having reached a negotiated agreement to fully, and finally, settle all claims among them, including those asserted in the Petition and Counterclaim; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and undertaking said forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

1. Consideration. In settlement of this matter, Petitioner will pay the Board the amount of three-thousand, one hundred, ninety-two dollars and no cents, $3,192.00, which represents the alleged tuition due and owing for her minor child M.M.'s alleged ineligible attendance in the Elizabeth School District for the 2023-2024 school year. Petitioner shall send three (3) payments of one-thousand, sixty-four dollars and no cents, $1,064.00, in the form of personal checks made payable to the Elizabeth Board of Education. These checks shall be sent to the Respondent's principal place of business, 500 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208. The first payment shall be due not later than thirty (30) days after the date of the approval of this agreement by the Commissioner of the Department of Education for the State of New Jersey. The second and third payments shall each be made no later than thirty (30) days thereafter and sixty (60) days thereafter.

In the event that Petitioner fails to make any of the payments described above, the Petitioner shall be in default of this agreement, and the parties agree that judgment shall be entered and docketed in the Superior Court of New Jersey in favor of the Respondent for the balance of three-thousand, one hundred, ninety-two dollars and no cents, $3,192.00, less any payments made prior to the date of default.

2. Attendance of M.M. at Elizabeth Public School District. Petitioner unenrolled the minor child M.M. from the Respondent's school district on February 23, 2024. M.M. shall not be permitted to attend school in the Elizabeth Public Schools. Petitioner shall not be permitted to attempt to re-enroll the minor child M.M. unless the Petitioner submits adequate proofs that the child is domiciled in Elizabeth, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, et. seq., and so long as Petitioner follows the proper enrollment procedures.

3. Housing of Ms. Francisca Camacho. Pursuant to this agreement, the Respondent and its investigators agree to not deliberately proceed with any action that may negatively affect the housing and domicile of Petitioner's mother, Ms. Francisca Camacho, who resides at 70 Westfield Avenue, Elizabeth, New Jersey, 07208. The Respondent and its investigators shall not actively participate in any investigation or process regarding Ms. Camacho's domicile at 70 Westfield Avenue, Elizabeth, New Jersey, 07208 unless compelled to by Court Order.

4. Waiver and Release of Claims. In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the payments set forth in Paragraph 1 above, Petitioner hereby releases and forever discharges the Board, in its official and personal capacities, and its related or affiliated entities, and its past, present and future officers, directors, attorneys, employees, owners, insurers, and their respective successors and assigns (collectively "Releasees"), jointly and severally, from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind (collectively "Claims"), known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, which Petitioner, her heirs, agents, executors, successors or assigns ever had, now have or hereafter may have against Releasees arising out of any matter, occurrence, omission, or event existing or occurring prior to Petitioner's execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation: any and all causes of action suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

In settlement of this matter and in consideration of the payments set forth in Paragraph 1 above, Respondent hereby releases and forever discharges the Petitioner from any and all actions, complaints, causes of action, lawsuits or claims of any kind, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, regarding tuition reimbursement for 2023-2024 school year. Respondent waives and releases the Petitioner from any and all other causes of action, suits, debts, dues, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, obligations, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, executions, claims and demands, whether arising in contract or tort, vested or contingent, whether known or unknown, direct or indirect, existing or not existing, by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever, in law or at equity from the beginning of time to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

5. Stipulation. Simultaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Petitioner and counsel for the Board shall execute a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice with regard to the Petition and the Board's Counterclaim in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6. Counterparts; Entire Agreement; No Oral Modification. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall comprise the entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, written or oral, expressed or implied. No other promises, agreements or amendments, or any separate agreement relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be binding or shall modify this Agreement unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties hereto.

7. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

8. No Admission of Liability. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing by either party to this agreement. Rather, this Agreement is being offered for the sole purpose of settling cooperatively and amicably any and all possible disputes between the parties.

9. Severability. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to violate any law or shall be interpreted to violate any law. If any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement or the application thereof is construed to be overbroad and/or unenforceable, then the court making such determination shall have the authority to narrow the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph as necessary to make it enforceable and the paragraph or part or subpart of the paragraph shall then be enforceable in its/their narrowed form. Moreover, each paragraph or part or subpart of each paragraph in this Agreement is independent of and severable (separate) from each other. In the event that any paragraph or part or subpart of any paragraph in this Agreement is determined to be legally invalid or unenforceable by a court and is not modified by a court to be enforceable, the affected paragraph or part or subpart of such paragraph shall be stricken from the Agreement, and the remaining paragraphs or parts or subparts of such paragraphs of this Agreement shall remain in full, force and effect.

10. Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not intended, and shall not be construed, to modify, define, limit, or expand the intent of the parties as expressed in this Agreement, and they shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

11. Interpretation. This Agreement shall be construed without aid of any canon or rule of law requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing this Agreement or any provision thereof to be drafted.

12. Contingency. It is agreed and understood by all Parties hereto that this Agreement is contingent upon each of the Parties fulfilling all of their respective duties, obligations, and/or promises as stated herein.

13. Entire Agreement. By executing this Agreement, Petitioner represents and acknowledges, that she does not rely, and has not relied, upon any representation, or statement, not set forth in this Agreement made by Respondent, or their Counsel, with regard to the subject matter, basis, or effect of this Agreement, or otherwise. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes any, and all, prior agreements, or understandings between the parties.

14. Assent to Terms. On February 23, 2024, the parties negotiated the terms of this Agreement at the Office of Administrative Law. Petitioner's signature below indicates that she was given the opportunity to review this Agreement with an attorney, that the Petitioner has read and understood the provisions, and that she has executed it voluntarily with full knowledge of the significance of all provisions. Ms. Bethzaida Chaparro hereby acknowledges that she enters into this agreement with a full understanding of her rights and that she was fully informed of the implications of this Agreement, and does so without duress, of her own free will and volition.

STATEMENT BY PETITIONER

The Respondent has advised me, in writing through the Agreement, to consult with Counsel prior to executing the Agreement. I have carefully read, and fully understand, the provisions of the Agreement, the acceptance, and sufficiency, of which I acknowledge. I have had sufficient time, and opportunity, to consult with Counsel of choice prior to executing the document, and I intend to be legally bound by its terms. I further so execute the Agreement in a knowing, and voluntary, manner with the full knowledge that I am waiving any and all rights, or claims, I may have to later challenge the sufficiency, scope, or terms of the Agreement and have, again, done so after consultation with my Counsel. I understand that I may revoke my signature within seven (7) days following my signing, I understand that my rights under the Agreement are contingent on my signing the Agreement, and not revoking my signature on said document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures and/or seals of the parties or their duly authorized representatives have been set forth on the dates indicated below:

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the School Nurse Non-Instructional Emergency Certificate of Lydia Mokaya, North Hudson Academy, Hudson County.

Synopsis

Petitioner sought to suspend the School Nurse, Non-Instructional Emergency Certificate of the respondent for resigning on inadequate notice, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Respondent filed an answer to an Order to Show Cause in January 2019, and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing. The hearing was held remotely via Zoom on January 29, 2021, and an Initial Decision was subsequently issued by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) on March 15, 2024.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: North Hudson Academy (North Hudson) is a private school for the disabled; respondent was initially hired by the petitioner as a paraprofessional and thereafter attended nursing school; she was offered the position of school nurse for the 2018-2019 school year under an emergency certificate, and was allowed to work a 30 hour week instead of the usual full time schedule of 35 hours/week; petitioner became concerned that her part time nursing schedule was not adequate to cover the medical needs of the students at North Hudson and discussed this with the school director on September 11, 2018; at this meeting, the school director told respondent that if she found a full-time school nurse to replace her, he would hire them; respondent then sought and found a replacement for her position; respondent tendered a letter of resignation on September 28, 2018, stating that she would work through December 21, 2018; and her replacement assumed the position of school nurse in January 2019. As N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.8, the regulation governing suspension of certificates for failure to give notice of intention to resign, provides an exception for employees who resign with consent of the school administration, the ALJ concluded that North Hudson Academy failed to sustain its burden of proof that the respondent is guilty of unprofessional conduct under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.8; accordingly, the Order to Show Cause seeking a finding that respondent was guilty of unprofessional conduct was denied.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioner, North Hudson Academy, has not demonstrated by a preponderance of the credible evidence that respondent committed unprofessional conduct warranting suspension of her certificate under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the Order to Show Cause was denied.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the School Nurse Non-Instructional Emergency Certificate of Lydiah Mokaya, North Hudson Academy, Hudson County.

The record of this matter, the hearing transcript, and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, and for the reasons thoroughly detailed in the Initial Decision, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner, North Hudson Academy, has not demonstrated by a preponderance of the credible evidence that respondent committed unprofessional conduct warranting suspension of her certificate under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.[1]

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the Order to Show Cause is hereby denied.

IN THE MATTER OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE(S) OF LYDIA MOKAYA, NORTH HUDSON ACADEMY, HUDSON CO.

TJ Legg, Esq., for petitioner, North Hudson Academy, (The Legg Law Firm, LLC, attorneys)

Eldridge Hawkins, Sr., Esq., for respondent, Lydia Mokaya

Record Closed: February 20, 2024 Decided: March 15, 2024

BEFORE JULIO C. MOREJON, ALJ:

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

Petitioner, North Hudson Academy seeks to suspend the School Nurse, Non-Instructional Emergency Certificate of respondent, Lydia Mokaya for resigning on inadequate notice, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On January 14, 2019, petitioner, the North Hudson Academy (North Hudson Academy), filed with the Commissioner of the State of New Jersey, Department of Education (Commissioner of Education) , an Order to Show Cause and Affidavit of Dennis P. McCarthy, Director of North Hudson Academy, seeking to suspend the School Nurse, Non-Instructional Emergency Certificate (certificate) of respondent, Lydia Mokaya (Mokaya) for unprofessional conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.

On January 23, 2019, the Commissioner of Education entered the Order to Show Cause and instructed North Hudson Academy to serve the same on Mokaya in order to initiate proceedings before the Commissioner of Education. Mokaya was served and on February 19, 2019, Mokaya filed her answer.

On February 25, 2019, the Commissioner of Education transmitted the underlying case to the Office of Administrative Law for an evidentiary hearing. On March 26, 2019, an initial status telephone conference was held, and a Prehearing Order was entered therein. On September 3, 2019, a Notice of Substitution of Attorney was submitted to the undersigned, wherein the Academy's legal counsel, Gregory Mgrditchian, Esq., of the law firm of DeGrado Halkovich, LLC, was substituted by TL Legg, Esq., of the law firm of Legg Law Firm, LLC.

An evidentiary hearing was held via zoom on January 29, 2021. The parties requested the record to remain open to obtain hearing transcripts and submit post-hearing written summations. Following the hearing, telephone status conferences were held on May 3, 2021, June 3, 2021, and September 27, 2021, regarding the status of the hearing transcripts, and submission of the post hearing briefs. Written summations were filed by petitioner on December 21, 2021, and respondent on July 25, 2022.

The record remained open to allow for a review of the hearing exhibits, transcript, and summations, and the same closed on February 20, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

In the evidentiary hearing, North Hudson Academy called Mokaya to testify and also presented testimony from Robert Federer, Esq., and Dennis McCarthy, Director of the North Hudson Academy. Mokaya also testified on her own behalf. I FIND all of the witnesses in this matter credible and their testimony to be truthful, and where appropriate, to be corroborated by the documentary evidence submitted herein.

Having considered the testimony of Lydia Mokaya, Robert Feder, Esq., and Dr. Dennis McCarthy, and the following documentary evidence entered into the record: as to North Hudson Academy, exhibit P-2; and as to Mokaya exhibits R 1 through R5, and R8 through R11, I make the following FINDINGS of FACT:

North Hudson Academy is a private non-profit corporation providing education to the disabled, in North Bergen, New Jersey.[1] Mokaya was originally hired by North Hudson Academy as a para profession. Thereafter, she attended nursing school. On June 5, 2018, Mokaya entered into an employment contact with North Hudson Academy for the school year 2018-2019, as a School Nurse, holding a School Nurse Non-Instructional Emergency Certificate (R-1). The "school year" is defined from when classes begin in September through the end of the school year in June. (Id.) Although her title was that of a "non-instructional" school nurse, North Hudson Academy listed her as a "teaching staff member" because she had been a para professional at the school prior to being hired as the school nurse. (Transcript: 245: 3-13).

The School Nurse position was a full-time position, of thirty-five hours per week. At the time she signed the employment contract, Mokaya intended to work for the full term of the agreement. However, Mokaya was unable to work the full-time schedule required because she worked at night and North Hudson Academy allowed her to work about thirty (30) hours per week. Mokaya acknowledged the terms of the employment contract requiring her to work a full school year and the consequences for her not doing the same. (R-1, Section 6.3, and Memorandum dated June 1, 2018).

Mokaya was concerned that because some of the students who attended North Hudson Academy required medical attention, and she could not work the full-time hours, the school would be best served by a full-time School Nurse. On September 11, 2018, Mokaya had a conversation with Dr. Dennis McCarthy (Dr. McCarthy), where she expressed her concern that North Hudson Academy needed a full-time School Nurse to attend to some of the student's medical needs. Dr. McCarthy told her to "find me a full-time nurse and I'll hire them." (Transcript 54:22-55:10). Mokaya believed that if she could find a full-time School Nurse she could leave her employment at North Hudson Academy. (Id.)

[1] It was represented by Dr. Dennis McCarthy, Director of North Hudson Academy that the school is approved by the Commissioner of Education as a private non-profit school providing education to the disabled.

On September 28, 2018, Mokaya tendered a letter of resignation to Dr. McCarthy, effective December 21, 2018. (R-9). As per her discussion with Dr. McCarthy, Mokaya sought a replacement for the School Nurse position, for when she was to leave. Mokaya knew someone called "Sabrina" and told her about the upcoming opening at North Hudson Academy due to her pending resignation in December 2018. (R-10). Sabrina applied, was interviewed, and hired by North Hudson Academy as School Nurse, and commenced her employment as School Nurse in January 2019, after Mokaya left. After satisfying North Hudson Academy's sixty-day probationary period for new hires, Sabrina remained School Nurse at North Hudson Academy through the end of the school year in June 2019. Sabrina did not seek to renew her contract with North Hudson Academy after the school year.

On December 7, 2019, Dr. McCarthy prepared a Memorandum addressed to Mokaya, referencing her "Employment Resignation" (R-3). The Memorandum contained the following language:

> You have informed the school administration that you have decided that your last day of work attendance will be December 21, 2018.
>
> It is understood that you will professionally and satisfactorily perform all current duties as a School Nurse through 3:15PM Friday, 12/21/18, including the successful transition of information and support to staff who may be assuming your duties.
>
> Finally, you are responsible for the satisfactory completion (and review with the Indicated staff member) of the following prior to 3:15PM 12/21/18:
>
> [listed obligations are not included herein]

> Please be advised that your final pay check cannot be release if the obligations above ae not satisfactorily met by your last day of work.

Mokaya completed all of the required obligations contained in the Memorandum and her last day of employment as School Nurse at North Hudson Academy was December 21, 2018, which was the last day of classes. She was paid her final pay check said date. (R-10A).

North Hudson Academy affirmed that the employment contract (R-1) prepared by its counsel, Robert Feder, Esq., (Feder), was revised by Dr. McCarthy as to the terms applicable to for the school year in question (2018-2019) (R-3). Feder also affirmed that the employment contract did not have a breach of contract provision or early termination provision. (Transcript: 125:19-22). Feder further confirmed that the decision to file the Order to Show Cause in this matter was made by Dr. McCarthy and did not include the Board of Trustee's vote. (Transcript: 153: 19-25 and 154: 1:5). Feder further confirmed that the purpose of proceeding with the underlying Order to Show Cause against Mokaya was "among other things is the [sic] discouraging people to breach their contracts and the detrimental affect it has on the school and its student population." (Transcript: 155:19-24).

Dr. McCarthy testified that North Hudson Academy undertook the within action against Mokaya because he believed she was guilty of "unprofessional conduct" because she left her employment before the end of her one-year term. (Transcript: 190:5-25). When asked on direct examination to explain the December 7, 2018 memorandum (R-3), Dr. McCarthy stated that the memorandum contained the items Mokaya needed to complete before she left her employment after December 2018. (Transcript: 202:23-24; 203: 1-25). Dr. McCarthy testified that Mokaya's decision to leave her employment prior the end of the term was a "breach" of the employment contract and that he never intended or communicated to Mokaya that she was being let out of her contract prior to its term. (Transcript: 209:2-12).

On cross-examination, Dr. McCarthy denied requesting a replacement nurse from Mokaya and denied agreeing to the same, despite one being provided and hired by the school. (Transcript: 221: 4-12). Dr. McCarthy confirmed that the primary reason the underlying action was filed was because Mokaya left prior to the end of her employment contract and the school needed "consistency" of a nurse for the school year. (Transcript: 227: 1-7). In cross-examination, Dr. McCarthy admitted that he knew a replacement for Mokaya had been hired, but he did not know at the time if she would be a "qualified" replacement. (Transcript: 276:9-13). Dr. McCarthy confirmed that Sabrina was a qualified replacement, as she remained through the end of the school year. (Transcript: 281: 18-23).

Dr. McCarthy testified that after June 2019, Sabrina left and North Hudson Academy contracted a nursing service company, which did not always provide the same nursing personnel during the school year. (Transcript: 240: 6-20). Dr. McCarthy confirmed that with the exception of one employee who left during their sixty-day probationary period, all prior staff who left North Hudson Academy before the end of their contract term were brought up on charges before the State Department of Education. (Transcript: 285:3-7). Dr. McCarthy further stated that the decision to commence the within action against Mokaya was done strictly for school policy reason and not with any malice toward Mokaya.(Transcript: 286:10-14). North Hudson Academy affirmed that it did not suffer any monetary damages due to Mokaya leaving her employment prior to the contract term. (Transcript: 297: 17-26).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 provides that ("[A]ny teaching staff member employed by a board of education . . . who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct . . ." In order to sustain the charge of unprofessional conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. § 18A:26-10, the petitioner must demonstrate that respondent: 1) was a teaching staff member employed by a board of education who; 2) ceased to perform her duties before the expiration of the term of her employment; 3) without consent of the board. The underlying purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is "to protect pupils from the disruption caused by '[s]taff members who leave before the expiration of their contracts.'" Ibid. (citation omitted.)

In the present matter, the record reflects that the only required criteria in dispute is whether North Hudson Academy gave "consent" for Mokaya's departure prior to the expiration of her employment agreement. Mokaya's employment contract with North Hudson Academy does not provide an early termination provision. However, the employment contract does provide at paragraph 6.3 that an employee who leaves prior to the end of the school year, will be responsible for any "damages" the school incurs and will also be "assumed guilty" of unprofessional conduct "as per N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.9" (R-1). The cited regulation is now known as N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.8, suspension of certificates for failure to give notice of intention to resign, and provides:

> (a) A teaching staff member employed by a district board of education who ceases, without the district board of education's consent, to perform the teaching staff member's duties prior to the expiration of the term of employment shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct.
> (b) Upon receiving notice of the fact, the Commissioner may suspend the certificate for a period not to exceed one year pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10.
> (c) Appeal of the Commissioner's decisions pursuant to this section shall be in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:4.

The Commissioner of Education has held that the central purpose of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is "to provide notice to the school so that a suitable replacement can be hired without adversely impacting students." Penns Grove-Carney's Point Board of Education v. Leinen, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 405, 407.

The operative word in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.8 for a teaching staff member not to be found guilty of unprofessional conduct is that the school gave "consent" to their departure prior to the term of their employment agreement. The testimony of both Mokaya and Dr. McCarthy show that North Hudson Academy was aware as early as September 18, 2018, that Mokaya would be leaving the school prior to end of her contract term. Said testimony and that of Feder, further reveals that the school did not sustain any "damages" as Mokaya produced Sabrina as her replacement, who remained as school nurse through the school year. Moreover, the record reveals that Mokaya completed all of her assigned tasks prior to her departure in January 2019 (R-3). The only reason this action was commenced by North Hudson Academy was because Dr. McCarthy felt that the time of Mokaya's departure he did not have a "qualified" replacement in Sabrina.

Dr. McCarthy's testimony that Mokaya's early departure would be disruptive to the school is contradicted by the record which shows: 1)Mokaya provided four-months' notice of her departure; 2) nurse replacement was in place prior to Mokaya's departure and 3) the replacement nurse remained employed through the end of the school year.

For these reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioner, North Hudson Academy has not sustained its burden of proof by a preponderance of the credible evidence that Mokaya is guilty of unprofessional conduct under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.8. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the Order to Show Cause seeking a finding that Mokaya is guilty of unprofessional conduct under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 is DENIED.

ORDER

The charge of unprofessional conduct against respondent Lydia Mokaya is hereby DENIED.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Kerry Anne Mastrofilipo,
Lodi Board of Education, Bergen County

This matter involves an appeal of the School Ethics Commission's (SEC) November 28, 2023, determination that appellant – a former member of the Lodi Board of Education (Board) – violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and (c) of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 to -34, by attending an executive session convened remotely on September 14, 2021, during which the Board discussed two candidates for appointment to an open Board seat, one of whom was appellant's husband.[1] The SEC recommended that appellant be censured for the violation. Having carefully reviewed the SEC's decision and the record in its entirety, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's decision that appellant violated the Act is supported by sufficient, credible evidence, and that appellant failed to establish that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). Additionally, the Commissioner concludes that the penalty is appropriate.

By way of background, when enacting the Act, the Legislature declared that "it is essential that the conduct of members of local boards of education . . . hold the respect and confidence of the people. These board members . . . must avoid conduct which is in violation of their public trust or which creates a justifiable impression among the public that such trust is being violated." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a). "The determination of whether a particular interest is sufficient to disqualify a board member is necessarily factual in nature[,] . . . depends upon the circumstances in each case" and "is dictated by a practical feel for the situation." Friends Retirement Concepts v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Somerville, 356 N.J. Super. 203, 214 (Law Div. 2002).

The inquiry "will always be whether the circumstances could reasonably be interpreted to show that they had the likely capacity to tempt the official to depart from his sworn public duty." Ibid. "An actual conflict of interest is not the decisive factor" in determining whether the Act has been violated, "nor is 'whether the public servant succumbs to the temptation,' but rather whether there is a potential for conflict." Id. at 214-15 (quoting Griggs v. Borough of Princeton, 33 N.J. 207, 219 (1960)). Moreover, "[a] conflicting interest arises when the public official has an interest not shared in common with the other members of the public." Id. at 215 (quoting Wyzykowski v. Rizas, 132 N.J. 509, 524 (1993)).

At issue here are N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and (c) of the Act. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) prohibits a board member from using or attempting to use "his official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for himself, members of his immediate family or others," and N.J.S.A 18A:12-24(c) prohibits a board member from acting "in his official capacity in any matter where he or a member of his immediate family has a personal involvement that is or creates some benefit to the school official or member of his immediate family."

The relevant facts are uncontested. Appellant served as a Board member from January 2019 through January 2022. On September 14, 2021, once the Board became aware of appellant's intent to resign, it held a special meeting to interview candidates for the Board vacancy. Before the meeting, Board counsel advised appellant that she should not vote on the candidates because her husband was a candidate. The Board interviewed the candidates during public session, held remotely, which appellant attended. After the interviews, the Board discussed the candidates in a remote executive session that same evening. The Superintendent emailed appellant the executive session meeting link, thereby enabling her to log on from her computer, and he admitted her into the executive session.

When the executive session began, the Board attorney asked appellant if she had received an email sent to her during the public portion of the meeting. She responded no. The Board attorney then asked appellant to look over the email. The email contained a link to the New Jersey Department of Education's web page with the statutory language of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24. Using her cell phone, appellant clicked the link in the email and spent about fifteen minutes reading the statute. During this time, she removed her earpiece and was neither listening to the executive session nor looking at her computer screen. She did not speak during executive session and was alone in the room the entire time. She did not disclose any information discussed in the executive session to her husband.

Appellant denies that she was ever told she should not attend the executive session, or that she should not have remained logged in. After the Board adjourned the executive session, appellant emailed Board counsel and asked whether she should abstain from voting on both candidates during the second public session. Board counsel replied, "I would suggest you 'recuse' on both." During the second public session, appellant recused herself from voting on the candidates as per Board counsel's advice. Appellant's husband was not selected to fill the open seat.

In her appeal to the Commissioner, appellant argues that: (1) the SEC's determination that she was present for confidential discussions during executive session was erroneous and arbitrary, and usurped the ALJ's authority to make legal conclusions based upon the evidence; (2) the SEC should not be permitted to substitute its own judgment for that of the ALJ, who recommended that the SEC find no violations occurred, particularly where the SEC failed to meet its burden of production or burden of proof; (3) the SEC should not be permitted to impose broader ethical constraints on board members than those determined by the Legislature by interpreting the Act's plain language in an overbroad manner; (4) the SEC's determination regarding the applicability of the "advice of counsel" defense is devoid of the requisite legal analysis; and (5) if a violation is found, it should be deemed de minimis with no penalty attached.

In opposition, the SEC argues that its findings and conclusions regarding appellant's violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and (c) are reasonable and sufficiently supported by the record. The SEC asserts that appellant was undeniably present, albeit remotely, for the executive session on September 14, 2021, and her claim that her remote login and lack of active participation in that session exonerates her from a violation of the Act is without merit. The SEC also contends that, contrary to appellant's position, is it irrelevant under the Act that she did not actually secure a benefit for her husband; her presence created a justifiable impression among the public that she was attempting to use her official position to benefit her husband, which violates the Act. The SEC denies that it overbroadly interpreted the Act and performed de facto rulemaking. It maintains that it considered and rejected appellant's advice of counsel defense, and that its penalty determination was appropriate.

In adjudicating appeals from decisions of the SEC, the Commissioner must "ascertain whether the decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and shall not disturb the decision unless the appellant has demonstrated that [the Commission] acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law." N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a). Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the SEC's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence, and that appellant has not established that the SEC acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law.

Here, appellant had an interest not shared with other members of the public, namely, the Board was considering her husband's candidacy for a Board seat while she was still a Board member herself. Her official position as a Board member allowed her to access the remote executive session link. This privilege or advantage was not extended to the other candidate's spouse. She acted in her official capacity when she logged on to executive session. In so doing, she was aware that the Board would be deliberating regarding the candidates—one of whom was a member of her immediate family. Furthermore, appellant's presence in executive session reasonably created a justifiable impression among the public that she was attempting to secure an unwarranted privilege or advantage for her husband by influencing the Board's deliberations. Even if she did not verbally attempt to influence the Board deliberations, her presence during executive session violated the public trust as it had the potential to influence the deliberations and create a benefit for her husband.

Appellant's insistence that she was neither physically present nor an active participant in executive session is unavailing, as is her claim that her husband did not actually benefit because he was not selected. The Act does not require that a board member successfully secure an unwarranted benefit for a violation to have occurred. Moreover, even if appellant did not discuss the confidential Board deliberations with her husband, her presence during executive session created a potential for conflict in that regard wherein he could have benefited.

Additionally, appellant's claims that the Board's executive session deliberations were somehow not confidential because the candidate interviews took place in public session is meritless. See Gannett Satellite Information Network, Inc. v. Bd. of Educ. of Borough of Manville, 201 N.J. Super. 65, 69 (Law Div. 1984) (holding that board of education "could exclude the public from its deliberations on the qualifications of the various candidates" under consideration for appointment to a board vacancy created by a departing board member so long as the board did not exclude the public from the entire process). Despite appellant's assertion to the contrary, nothing in Board Policy 0143 allows the public to "witness any deliberations" if the candidates are interviewed in public session as was the case here. The language cited by appellant applies only when interviews are conducted in executive session because, as explained in Gannett, the public cannot be excluded from the entire process. Ibid.

As for appellant's contention that the SEC should not be permitted to substitute its own judgment for that of the ALJ, who found that no violations of the Act occurred, it lacks merit because the Initial Decision of an ALJ is a recommendation to the agency. See N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) (explaining that the ALJ's decision is "[a] recommended report and decision which contains recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law"). The Act mandates that the SEC, not the ALJ, "[u]pon completion of the [OAL] hearing, . . . by majority vote, shall determine whether the conduct complained of constitutes a violation of th[e] act, or . . . whether the complaint should be dismissed." N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). "If a violation is found, the commission shall, by majority vote, recommend to the commissioner the reprimand, censure, suspension, or removal" of the school official or board member found to have violated the Act. Ibid.

In this case, the SEC adopted the ALJ's factual findings but disagreed with the ALJ's conclusion that no violation occurred. That is entirely permissible under the Act. Furthermore, contrary to appellant's claim, the SEC was not required to present witness testimony during the OAL hearing to sustain its burden of production or burden of proof. Neither the Administrative Procedure Act nor the OAL rules preclude reliance upon documentary evidence alone—which in this case included an affidavit from appellant admitting that she was present for the executive session meeting at issue.

Because appellant has not established that the SEC acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law, the Commissioner affirms the SEC's conclusion that appellant violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and rejects appellant's contention that the SEC interpreted the Act overbroadly and engaged in de facto rulemaking.

Regarding the recommended penalty, appellant seeks to rely on an "advice of counsel" defense to either avoid or mitigate the imposition of a penalty for her violation of the Act. The Appellate Division has previously addressed charges of ethical violations by public officials acting on advice of counsel. In re Zisa, 385 N.J. Super. 188, 198-99 (App. Div. 2006). The mayor in Zisa relied on the advice of counsel, which he affirmatively sought, when voting on a matter. Specifically, Zisa "contacted the City attorney . . . and inquired whether he had a conflict of interest that would preclude him from voting" and was advised that he "did not have . . . a conflict of interest." Id. at 193. When ethics charges were brought against him regarding his vote, Zisa sought to rely upon the advice of counsel defense.

In examining the facts before it, the Appellate Division considered four prerequisites for an advice of counsel defense:

> 1. That the approval or advice was received prior to the action being taken.
>
> 2. That the individual who offered the advice or approval relied upon possessed authority or responsibility with regard to ethical issues.
>
> 3. That the individual seeking advice or approval made a full disclosure of all pertinent facts and circumstances.
> 4. That the individual complies with the advice received, including any restrictions it might contain.

Id. at 198-199. See also In re Roman, 2023 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2379, at *14 (App. Div. Dec. 21, 2023) ("The application of the advice of counsel defense requires a fact-sensitive analysis to determine if the four prerequisites to an advice of counsel defense were met.") (citing Zisa, 385 N.J. Super. at 199). The Appellate Division emphasized in its analysis that it was uncontested that Zisa "had in fact asked [counsel] for his advice on the issue" prior to voting. Zisa, 385 N.J. Super. at 197-98.

Here, the Commissioner finds that the evidence in the record fails to establish that appellant has satisfied any of the four Zisa prerequisites. The third prerequisite makes clear that the individual seeking to invoke the advice of counsel defense must have affirmatively sought "advice or approval." Id. at 199. This case is readily distinguishable from Zisa and Roman because appellant never sought advice about whether to attend executive session. Consequently, she did not receive advice on that issue prior to logging on, and therefore could not have relied on that advice. Appellant cannot successfully invoke the advice of counsel defense by claiming that no one advised her not to attend executive session when she never sought advice on that issue in the first place. Therefore, having considered the Zisa prerequisites in connection with the facts established herein, the Commissioner concludes that appellant's reliance on the advice of Board counsel is not a valid defense in this matter.

Finally, the Commissioner rejects appellant's assertion that any violation of the Act should be deemed de minimis. The penalty of censure in this case is commensurate with those recommended by the SEC and affirmed by the Commissioner in similar matters and takes into account appellant's responsibility to avoid all conduct which violates the public's trust. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a); see, e.g., In re Brogan, Commissioner Decision No. 79-22SEC (April 14, 2022) (board member censured for violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) in connection with attendance at executive session during discussions about a matter in which she had a personal involvement).

Accordingly, appellant is hereby censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

SEC Docket No.: C87-21
Final Decision

I/M/O Kerry Anne Mastrofilipo,
Lodi Board of Education, Bergen County,
Respondent

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter arises from a Complaint that was filed on November 29, 2021, by Nancy Cardone (Complainant), alleging that Kerry Anne Mastrofilipo (Respondent), a member of the Lodi Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. More specifically, the Complaint avers that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) in Count 1, and violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code) in Count 2 when she attended executive session while her husband's candidacy for the Board was discussed.

At its meeting on April 26, 2022, and after reviewing Respondent's Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of an Answer (Motion to Dismiss) and allegation of frivolous filing, and Complainant's response thereto, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) adopted a decision granting the Motion to Dismiss as to the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a) in Count 2; denying the Motion to Dismiss as to all other allegations; and finding the Complaint not frivolous and denying Respondent's request for sanctions. Based on its decision, the Commission also directed Respondent to file an Answer to Complaint (Answer) as to the remaining allegations, which she did on May 13, 2022.

Thereafter, at its meeting on July 26, 2022, the Commission voted to find probable cause to credit the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) in Count 1, but not to find probable cause to credit the purported violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) in Count 2. Based on its finding of probable cause, the Commission voted to transmit the within matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing and, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(b),[1] the attorney for the Commission (Petitioner) was charged with prosecuting the allegations in the Complaint.

Following a hearing at the OAL, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Initial Decision on August 16, 2023, concluding Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and ordering the dismissal of the matter. Petitioner filed exceptions to the Initial Decision, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and Respondent filed a reply thereto.

[1] This citation refers to the regulation that was in effect at the time of the probable cause determination.

At its meeting on October 17, 2023, the Commission considered the full record in this matter. Thereafter, at its meeting on November 28, 2023, the Commission voted to adopt the ALJ's findings of fact but reject the ALJ's legal conclusions, and instead the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and recommended that a penalty of censure be imposed.

II. Initial Decision

According to Respondent's testimony, she served as a Board member from January 2019 through January 2022, and decided to resign from the Board due to "family obligations." Initial Decision at 3. On September 14, 2021, the Board held a special meeting to interview candidates for Respondent's open seat, and according to Respondent, prior to the meeting Board counsel advised her "she should not vote on any of the candidates because her husband was one of the candidates." Ibid. Respondent maintains she was not advised that she could not attend the remote meeting. Ibid. Respondent further maintains she and her husband were in separate rooms of the house and using separate computers. Id. at 4. Per Respondent, her husband was having technical issues logging in to the public meeting, and despite a Board member suggesting Respondent and her spouse share a computer (and no one objected to that suggestion), Respondent and her husband decided to switch computers for the interview so they would not be in the same room. Ibid.

Respondent contends that during the interviews, Complainant was friendly and smiling during the first interview; however, she "rolled her eyes, yelled" and "repeatedly interrupted" Respondent's husband during his interview. Ibid. After the interviews were complete, the Board went into executive session, including Respondent. Ibid. Respondent further contends at the start of executive session, Board counsel asked Respondent if she received an email he sent, and Respondent said she did not. Ibid. Board counsel advised Respondent to review the email, and she found that at 6:40 p.m., which was during public session, Board counsel sent an email to the Superintendent, which was forwarded to Respondent at 6:48 p.m. Id. The email contained a link to the New Jersey Department of Education webpage, which contained the "entire language" of the Act. Id. at 5. Respondent maintains that she removed her ear bud, read the information on the website, "did not listen to what anyone else was saying" in executive session "because she was busy reading the information in the link," did not participate in any discussion during executive session, and did not discuss any of the executive session with her husband. Ibid. Subsequently, Respondent emailed Board counsel to ask whether she should abstain from voting on the candidates and Board counsel advised that she should "recuse on both." Ibid. The ALJ notes that Respondent testified "consistently and credibly." Id. at 6.

Based on the testimony and evidence, the ALJ finds Respondent was present for both the public meeting and executive session on September 14, 2021. Ibid. The ALJ further finds Respondent was not advised by Board counsel or any other individual not to attend the virtual meeting. Ibid.

The ALJ asserts that Petitioner did not offer any evidence nor testimony to support that Respondent used her Board status to obtain any unwarranted privileges, advantages, or employment for herself, her husband or anyone else, and therefore, the ALJ concludes that Petitioner failed to show that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). The ALJ further concludes that Petitioner did not provide any evidence or testimony that Respondent's "objectivity and/or independence of judgment was impaired," and therefore, failed to demonstrate that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and consequently, the ALJ dismissed the Complaint.

III. Exceptions

Petitioner's Exceptions

Petitioner takes exception to the Initial Decision, specifically that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Petitioner avers that the Initial Decision should be rejected because the ALJ "incorrectly applied a standard of success that is not required by the statutory language," and therefore, the ALJ "ignored both the law and the Commission's plain language instructions." Petitioner's Exceptions at 6. According to Petitioner, when the Commission issued its probable cause notice, it properly explained that even if Respondent did not "actively participate" in the issue related to the candidates, which included her husband, "mere presence in executive session could have (and may have), without more," violated the Act because it could have a "chilling effect (intentional or otherwise) on the discussion and selection process … ." Id. at 7. According to Petitioner, despite this standard, the ALJ concluded that although Respondent was present, Petitioner also needed to demonstrate that "she succeeded in securing a benefit for herself or her husband in order to establish a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b)," which per Petitioner "is based upon a flawed legal premise that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) requires a showing of success." Id. at 8.

Moreover, it has been previously established that "as long as it can be reasonably assumed that a board member's conduct was undertaken in an attempt to secure unwarranted privileges for themselves or others, the board member's intentions behind such conduct are immaterial to finding" a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). Id. at 10. Furthermore, Petitioner maintains "in determining whether a board member's particular interest in a matter is sufficient to disqualify them from even being present during discussions of that matter, our courts have concluded that '[t]he question will always be whether the circumstances could reasonably be interpreted to show that they had the likely capacity to tempt the official to depart from his sworn public duty.'" Id. at 10-11. Therefore, Petitioner asserts the Commission has found that if a board member has any level of involvement in a matter affecting the interests of a family member employed by the district, it "'will, among other things, always create a justifiable impression among the public' that the board member used or attempted to use their official position to secure an unwarranted privilege or advantage for their family member." Id. at 11-12. Petitioner asserts that because the ALJ correctly found that Respondent was present for the entirety of the September 14, 2021, executive session while the board discussed and deliberated over the candidates, one of whom was her husband, any reasonable member of the public could infer that she used her official position to gain access to a private platform in order to persuade the other Board members to support her husband's candidacy, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

In addition, in reaching the conclusion that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), Petitioner also maintains that the ALJ "incorrectly applied a standard of actual impairment of objectivity that is not required by the statutory language" and the ALJ "once again ignored both the law and the Commission's plain language instructions." Id. at 14. Petitioner argues the Commission "properly explained" in its probable cause notice that because "there is certainly value, and an advantage, in one['s] spouse being present for the discussion and decision-making process of a matter when their own spouse is being considered," Respondent's "mere presence" during the executive session on September 14, 2021, is enough to establish a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Ibid. Petitioner further argues the ALJ's conclusion "stems from the incorrect premise that N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) requires a showing that" Respondent's "objectivity and/or independence of judgment was impaired." Ibid.

Of importance, Petitioner notes the Commission has previously found that "where a board member's immediate family member is seeking employment with the district, the expectation of such a conflict is especially reasonable since any questions about the qualification of the board member's family member can be seen by that board member as a personal attack." Id. at 17. Petitioner asserts it has been established that Respondent was present during the September 14 meeting, when her husband's candidacy was discussed, and Respondent admitted that she "viewed [] Complainant's questioning of her husband's qualifications during his public interview to be a personal attack on him." Id. at 18. Petitioner notes the minutes from that meeting would demonstrate that Respondent did not recuse herself from the executive session and was present during the Board's private deliberation. In essence, Respondent "created circumstances that might reasonably be expected to impair her objectivity or independence of judgment, thus 'creating a justifiable impression among the public that their trust is being violated,'" and as such the ALJ erred in finding that Respondent did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Id. at 19.

Turning to a penalty, Petitioner argues Respondent cannot assert inexperience or lack of legal advice as mitigating factors. According to Petitioner, Respondent was a Board member for nearly three years at the time and Respondent did not request legal advice nor did Board counsel provide her with incorrect legal advice. Petitioner maintains that ultimately, it was Respondent's duty to ensure that she was aware of the Commission's previously issued advice related to her ethical and statutory obligations. Per Petitioner, Respondent chose to "shirk" her obligations and purposely chose to attend a meeting in which her husband's candidacy was going to be discussed. Therefore, based on Respondent's presence during the executive session and because it could be seen as using her official position to gain access to the Board's private deliberation so that she could try to pressure the non-conflicted Board members into selecting her husband for that vacant seat, and securing an unwarranted privilege for him, Petitioner recommends the Commission impose a penalty of censure.

Respondent's Reply to Petitioner's Exceptions

Respondent argues the Commission's probable cause notice indicates a violation may be supported if Respondent was present in executive session "despite Board counsel's advice to the contrary." Respondent's Reply Exceptions at 1. Respondent asserts it was undisputed that Board counsel only advised that she should not vote on a candidate, that neither Board counsel nor anyone else advised Respondent not to log in to executive session, that the Superintendent sent Respondent the meeting link and then admitted Respondent into the meeting, and that once logged in, Board counsel discussed an email that he sent her and still did not advise her to log out of the meeting. Therefore, Respondent contends the ALJ accurately determined "the element of the issue as framed by the [Commission] was not satisfied." Id. at 2. Respondent further contends Petitioner's exceptions "fail to address the fact that the [Commission's] framing of the issue in this case required a demonstration that Respondent acted 'despite Board counsel's advice to the contrary.'" Ibid.

Respondent asserts that despite Petitioner's argument that the Commission has determined "physical attendance and participation in executive session meetings may constitute a violation of the Act," it should be noted that "there is no legal authority declaring that a Board member may have violated the Act under the unique circumstances presented in this case." Ibid. Respondent reiterates, in this matter, Respondent was admitted to the meeting remotely, by the Superintendent and spent the entirety of the meeting focused elsewhere (reading the email from Board counsel) and these circumstances "present an issue of first impression never before discussed in case law." Id. at 3. Therefore, Respondent maintains the ALJ "appropriately exercised his discretion to consider the fact that Respondent's remote 'presence' in the executive session did not impair anyone's objectivity nor did it benefit Respondent or her husband." Ibid. Moreover, Petitioner's argument ignores Board Policy 0143, which confirms the "non-confidential nature of the Board's discussion about the candidates ... and negates any argument that, by merely logging in ... Respondent may have made other Board members too uncomfortable to express their opinions." Ibid. Finally, Respondent maintains Petitioner did not present any witnesses or evidence at the hearing to support the assertion that Respondent violated the Act.

For these reasons, Respondent contends the Commission should adopt the ALJ's decision or, at the very most, the Commission should find that any violation was de minimis and should not issue a penalty.

IV. Analysis

Upon a careful, thorough, and independent review of the record, the Commission adopts the ALJ's findings of fact, rejects the ALJ's legal conclusions, finds that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and recommends that a penalty of censure be imposed.

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) prohibits a school official from using or attempting to use her official position to secure unwarranted privileges, advantages or employment for herself, members of her immediate family or others. By attending executive session while the Board discussed her husband's potential appointment to the Board, Respondent used her official position as a Board member to secure the unwarranted advantage of hearing the Board's private deliberations regarding her family member during executive session. The spouse or other immediate family members of the other candidate for the Board were not permitted to attend executive session and hear the private discussions, so Respondent was only present due to her Board member status. Additionally, Respondent's mere presence in executive session may have resulted in a chilling effect on the discussion and selection process that ensued by the other non-conflicted members of the Board. See I/M/O S.J., Englewood Cliffs Board of Education, Docket No. C09-20 (August 22, 2023) (finding a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) when the respondent remained in executive session while the Board discussed a personal matter involving her family member because she was present for confidential discussions to which members of the public and other individuals involved in the matter were not privy). Accordingly, the Commission finds Respondent's attendance in executive session while the Board discussed the potential appointment of her husband to the Board, provided her with an "unwarranted privilege" or "advantage" that other members of the public, including the other candidates' family members, were not afforded, and therefore, violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) prohibits a school official from acting in her official capacity in a matter where she, or a member of her immediate family, has a direct or indirect financial involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair her objectivity, or in a matter where she has a personal involvement that created some benefit to her, a member of her immediate family, or others. Respondent acted in her official capacity as a board member when she attended executive session on September 14, 2021, while her husband's candidacy for a position on the Board was being discussed. Respondent had a personal involvement in the matter as the discussions involved her husband's potential appointment to the Board, and her presence created a benefit to her and/or her spouse as she witnessed the deliberations and selection process and had the opportunity to influence or affect the discussion or possibly chill the comments and opinions of the other non-conflicted Board members. See I/M/O Shiela Brogan, Ridgewood Board of Education, Docket No. C71-20 (February 25, 2022) at 7 (finding a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when Brogan remained in executive session while litigation in which she had a personal interest was discussed, and noting "[b]y merely being physically present in executive session, Respondent directly impacted, whether deliberately or otherwise, the ability of the non-conflicted Board members and Board counsel to engage in a candid conversation about the litigation"); see also I/M/O Michael Kilmurray, Lacey Township Board of Education, Docket No. C12-94 (February 24, 1998), at 3. (stating, "[w]hen a school official has a conflict of interest of which the public is aware, and that school official goes behind closed doors when that item is discussed, the situation creates a justifiable impression among the public that their trust is being violated"). As such, the Commission finds Respondent's decision to attend executive session when her husband's potential appointment to the Board was going to be discussed violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c).

The Commission disagrees with Respondent's argument that she did not violate the Act because she relied upon the advice of the Board attorney, who she contends only advised her not to vote on the Board candidates and did not advise her not to attend executive session. Board members are not "insulated from blame" when they rely on the advice of counsel, and are "responsible for their own actions," with a duty to act "prudently and cautiously." Cheng v. Rodas, West New York Board of Education, Commissioner's Decision No. 22-17ASEC (January 20, 2017), at 6. It is relevant to note that it does not appear that Respondent specifically asked for the advice of counsel regarding attendance in executive session; instead, she appears to rely on the absence of advice telling her not to attend executive session as an implicit approval to do so. Additionally, Respondent had been a Board member for nearly three years, and was required to undergo Board member ethics training during that time. Thus, Respondent should have known that it was a conflict to remain in executive session while a matter in which she has a personal interest was discussed.

With respect to a penalty, the Commission recommends a penalty of censure for the violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Respondent should have known that she was not permitted to attend executive session while a matter in which she had a direct conflict – one involving an immediate family member – was being discussed. The Commission has previously issued a penalty of censure for violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and/or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) in similar matters involving a board member's attendance at executive session while a matter involving a personal interest was discussed. See S.J., Docket No. C09-20 (recommending a penalty of censure for violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when a board member remained in executive session on at least three occasions while a matter involving a personal family member was discussed); I/M/O Shiela Brogan, Docket No. C71-20, penalty adopted, Commissioner's Decision No. 79-22SEC (April 14, 2022) (recommending a penalty of censure for a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) in connection with Brogan's attendance in an executive session during discussions regarding a legal matter in which she had a personal involvement); I/M/O James Morgan, Ridgewood Board of Education, Docket No. C68-20 (February 25, 2022), penalty adopted, Commissioner's Decision No. 78-22SEC (April 14, 2022) (recommending a penalty of censure for violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) in connection with public comments that Morgan made regarding litigation filed by a fellow Board member and his failure to recuse himself from executive session discussing the litigation in which he had an interest in the outcome). Accordingly, the Commission recommends that Respondent be censured for violating N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c).

V. Decision

For the aforementioned reasons, the Commission adopts the ALJ's findings of fact, but rejects the ALJ's legal conclusions, finds that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), and recommends that a penalty of censure be imposed.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. The parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction," as well as to (ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov). A copy must also be sent to the Commission (school.ethics@doe.nj.gov) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

T.D., on behalf of minor child, S.D.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Morris County Vocational School District, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, and for the reasons thoroughly detailed in the Initial Decision, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge that the Board's decision to return S.D. to his public school district following multiple significant and disruptive disciplinary infractions was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Respondent's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

T.D. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD S.D.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF MORRIS COUNTY VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

T.D., petitioner, appearing pro se.

Carolyn R. Chaudry, Esq. appearing on behalf of respondent (Chaudry Law, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 7, 2024 Decided: March 14, 2024

BEFORE NANCI G. STOKES, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Following several conduct infractions, the Morris County Vocational School District (District or Board) placed S.D. on a behavioral contract. Despite this, S.D. continued to misbehave, violating the contract, leading to his transfer from his vocational school, Morris County School of Technology (MCST), to his local high school. Is S.D. entitled to return to MCST? No. A vocational district may return a student for misconduct and that decision stands unless it is arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On September 18, 2023, T.D, filed a petition seeking emergent relief returning S.D. to MCST and challenging the Board's decision to return S.D. to his local high school.

On September 20, 2023, the Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes, transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case for hearing as a contested case and resolution of petitioner's motion for emergency relief under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the OAL, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

On September 29, 2023, I denied petitioner's application for emergent relief, which the Commissioner upheld on October 27, 2023.

On December 4, 2023, I issued an Order to Seal at petitioner's request to better protect his son's privacy, which I granted with the Board's consent.

At a pre-hearing conference on December 14, 2023, the Board requested leave to file a summary judgment motion, maintaining that the material facts were not in dispute. I granted leave and set a motion schedule.

On February 2, 2024, the Board filed its motion, and on February 22, 2024, petitioner responded. On March 7, 2024, the Board replied, and I closed the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The material facts are undisputed as to the events leading to S.D.'s return to his local high school or the differences between the educational program at MCST and Jefferson. The District supplies the Certifications of Scott Moffit, Superintendent; Mark Menadier, Principal; and Athena Borzeka, Director of Student Services and Special Education, with multiple exhibits addressing S.D.'s return to Jefferson Township High School (Jefferson). T.D. also supplied materials regarding his emergent application and asks that I consider those documents.

MCST is a vocational public high school in Denville Township, Morris County, operating as part of the District. The District provides choice schools that are admissions-based, and no student has a right to attend a choice school. Students who apply and MCST accepts must maintain an adequate level of academic performance, adhere to the student code of conduct, and consistently attend its program to remain in any career-technical program in the District.

S.D., a fourteen-year-old when T.D. filed the petition, now attends Jefferson within his domicile. That school district provides college preparation classes, including Advanced Principles in Computer Sciences. Computer science principles are part of the tenth-grade curriculum at MCST. S.D. was accepted into Jefferson's honors program, STEM Academy, focusing on science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. STEM Academy provides different Computer Information Systems (CIS) courses than S.D. received at MCST. Still, S.D. attends Jefferson without cost and will not lose credit for any semester. If successful, he can complete his education at the public high school, receive a diploma from that school, and even earn college credits.

T.D. supplies U.S. News' high school rankings to show that MCST's program is rated higher than that of Jefferson based on its students' performance on state-required tests, graduation, and college preparation. Further, S.D. is interested in a CIS career that T.D. maintains MCST can better serve.

By February 1, 2023, the District placed S.D. on a behavioral contract due to his accumulation of code of conduct violations, including substantiated harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) charges for racist comments made by him and other students. (Exhibit 5.) Specifically, S.D. incurred four infractions since school began. S.D. served a two-day suspension for the HIB, and the District required that S.D. undergo counseling and complete restorative justice protocol.

The contract explains that S.D.'s behavior did not comply with the MCST Student Handbook standards. To improve his standing at MCST, the District expected S.D. to demonstrate respect for all MCST community members and refrain from disparaging behaviors. Further, the District required S.D. to contribute to a positive educational environment and adhere to the Internet usage agreement. The contract explains that violating the code of conduct again could result in additional disciplinary action, including the "review of continued participation as a student at MCST." (Exhibit 6.) S.D.'s parents signed and returned the contract after they met with S.D.'s principal to discuss S.D.'s actions. In other words, S.D. and his parents were on notice that S.D.'s behavior was a problem and that if it did not improve, further discipline could follow.

Yet, after the contract began, S.D. engaged in subsequent acts of academic dishonesty, demeaning, and disruptive classroom conduct, loitering in a hall rather than going to class. MCST's principal met with S.D. following these incidents and advised T.D., S.D.'s father, of the misconduct.

Further, on May 31, 2023, the District substantiated another HIB charge against S.D. and advised T.D. In other words, S.D. did not remedy his behavior while attending MCST as expected under the behavioral contract. (Exhibit 12.)

Commencing in April 2023, the District provided S.D. with a 504 Plan for ADHD and misophonia after learning of his diagnosis in March 2023. As part of the HIB investigations, the Director of Special Services, who investigated the HIB charges against S.D., considered his disabilities, including the possible Opposition Defiant Disorder (ODD) diagnosis, even without a physician's diagnosis. The Director also serves as the District's 504 Plan and Anti-Bullying Coordinator. Specifically, she reviewed S.D.'s 504 plan and concluded that S.D.'s disabilities were not the primary cause of his making racist comments, inappropriate sexual gestures, and severe lack of academic integrity. Instead, the District determined that S.D. understood right from wrong and received counseling on the seriousness of inappropriate racial comments.[1]

On June 5, 2023, the District suspended S.D. for the last ten days of school for his behavior and advised T.D. it was returning S.D. to his local public school district. That day, the District notified T.D. of his rights concerning the 504 Plan.

In sum, S.D. committed seventeen infractions before the decision to return him to Jefferson. (Exhibit 1.) Indeed, the District substantiated two HIB claims against S.D., including making inappropriate sexual gestures behind his teacher's back, and counseled S.D. on significant instances of academic dishonesty along with demeaning, lewd, and disruptive classroom conduct.

S.D.'s parents appealed the administration's decision to the Superintendent. Under the "Return to District Policy," District Policy 5114.1, the school's principal and the Superintendent met with T.D. and S.D. on June 15, 2023, to discuss the circumstances leading up to the decision to return S.D. to his resident school district. (Exhibit 21.) During that meeting, the Superintendent noted that the school investigated each incident, and S.D. did not deny his actions. In response, T.D. maintained that other students engaged in similar conduct. Yet, the Superintendent highlighted his focus on S.D.'s repeated inappropriate actions.

On June 21, 2023, the Superintendent upheld the determination to return S.D. to Jefferson. The Superintendent identified numerous verified incidents of S.D.'s misconduct and its disruption and compromise to the educational environment at MCST. This decision coincided with the end of the school year.

[1] Given the end of the school year, the District conducted a manifestation meeting later, agreeing that his behavior was not a manifestation of his disabilities, including the newly asserted diagnosis of opposition defiant disorder.

S.D.'s parents appealed to the Board, which upheld the determination to return S.D. to his home school following the Board hearing on August 8, 2023. T.D. suggests the Board's closed session with MCST's Principal and Superintendent was inappropriate.

Notably, when S.D. returned to his local high school, the District marked S.D. as a transfer and withdrawal from its rolls, not an expulsion.

S.D. and his parents do not dispute S.D.'s inappropriate behavior leading to his transfer to Jefferson and did not contest the HIB determinations. Instead, T.D. asserts that the District did not follow its procedures in addressing S.D.'s behavioral issues, which could have prevented future events and kept him at MCST. Specifically, T.D. suggests that District Policy 5131.2 (HIB Policy) requires remedial measures to correct and avoid problem behavior. (Exhibit 24.) Indeed, the HIB Policy explains that the District should design consequences and remediation stemming from a student's commission of a HIB to correct the behavior, prevent another occurrence, protect the victim, and address systematic problems. Multiple remedial measures are available to the District, including student counseling, treatment, parent conferences, behavioral or child study team assessments, and behavioral management plans. Yet, the HIB policy does not mandate the type of remediation. (Exhibit 24.)

Even if the District could have done more, like ordering a behavioral or child study team assessment, it had the discretion to address S.D.'s inappropriate behavior as it did under the HIB Policy. Further, the HIB Policy notes that responses to HIB incidents should align with the code of conduct, and consequences can run from admonishment to expulsion.

In this case, MCST employed various remedial measures, even if not to T.D.'s satisfaction. It counseled S.D., met with his parents more than once, placed him on a behavioral contract, and involved S.D. in restorative justice counseling. (Exhibits 5 and 6.)

T.D. also notes that the District did not provide S.D. with the required educational instruction within five days of the suspension. Yet, this case does not delve into the school's conduct after MCST determined to return S.D. to Jefferson. Instead, the focus is MCST's determination to withdraw S.D. from its rolls as a choice school and return S.D. to his local high school.

Further, T.D. questions the completeness of the District's investigation of events involving S.D., citing S.D.'s recent diagnosis of ODD and incitement by others as the root cause of S.D.'s misconduct. Notably, MCST's February 2023 HIB determination found multiple students at fault, not just S.D. Further, S.D.'s parents only provided a psychiatrist evaluation diagnosing S.D. with ODD after the District's determination to return S.D. to his local public school. Undeniably, S.D. apologized for his behaviors.

T.D. also argues that the District did not investigate other HIB incidents directed toward S.D., which T.D. reported on June 15, 2023, after the administration's decision concerning S.D.'s return to his local high school. T.D. maintains that S.D. reacted poorly to others, which T.D. attributes too much of S.D.'s misconduct. While T.D. may have a right to challenge any District decision regarding a subsequent HIB complaint, that dispute is not before this tribunal.

T.D. highlights that S.D. is doing better this year and has taken steps to improve his behavior, including counseling and completing his Sunday school studies and the CAP program through the Denville Police Department. Thus, T.D. suggests his son's behavior last year should be considered a "one-off" that did not warrant his transfer to Jefferson.

The District similarly supplies documents concerning S.D.'s conduct at Jefferson during the 2023-2024 school year, after the events in question, to support its decision.

However, this decision does not involve S.D.'s conduct at Jefferson after his return or his efforts to address his misbehavior once leaving MCST. Thus, I do not consider that evidence here. While I appreciate T.D.'s desire to showcase his son's improvement and community commitment, this occurred after S.D. left MCST. However, this decision focuses on the propriety of the District's determination regarding S.D.'s withdrawal from MCST and transfer back to Jefferson.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Summary Decision Standard

A party may move for summary decision upon all or any substantive issues in a contested case. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). The motion shall be served with briefs, with or without affidavits. When the filed papers and discovery and any affidavits show that no genuine issue of material fact exists and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law, the judge may grant the motion. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). When such a motion is made and supported, an adverse party, to prevail, must submit an affidavit setting forth specific facts showing that a genuine issue of material fact exists that can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. Ibid.

To determine whether a genuine issue of material fact exists that precludes summary judgment, the motion judge must consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to demonstrate that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The "judge's function is not to . . . weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Id.

When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, the burden shifts to the adverse party to set forth, by affidavit, specific facts showing there is a genuine issue resolvable only by an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). Given this burden shift, a party opposing a summary-judgment motion "who offers no substantial or material facts in opposition to the motion cannot complain if the court takes as true the uncontradicted facts in the movant's papers." Burlington Cnty. Welfare Bd. v. Stanley, 214 N.J. Super. 615, 622 (App. Div. 1987). Failure of the opponent to make such a showing entitles the moving party to summary judgment. Brill, 142 N.J. at 529.

Even though a statute calls for a "hearing," where a motion for summary decision is made and the objector submits no evidence to demonstrate that a genuine issue of material fact exists, the motion procedure constitutes the hearing, and no trial-type hearing is necessary. Contini v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 286 N.J. Super. 106, 120–21 (App. Div. 1995), certif. denied, 145 N.J. 372 (1996).

Further, when the non-movant comes forward with some evidence, the court still must grant summary judgment if the evidence is "so one-sided that [the movant] must prevail as a matter of law." Ibid. at 536 (citation omitted). If the non-moving party's evidence is "merely colorable or is not significantly probative," the judge should not deny summary judgment. Bowles v. City of Camden, 993 F. Supp. 255, 261 (D.N.J. 1998). Indeed, courts recognize that liberalizing the summary judgment standard allows disposition of more cases sooner because we live in "a time of great increase in litigation and one in which many meritless cases are filed." Brill, 142 N.J. at 539 (citation omitted).

In this case, no genuine issue as to the material facts exists, and the only question presented is whether the District acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably in returning S.D. to Jefferson. More pointedly, no genuine issue exists that S.D. committed multiple acts of misconduct, including a substantiated HIB, leading to the District's employment of a behavioral contract to guide S.D.'s conduct. Yet, no party disputes that S.D. continued to misbehave despite that contract, counseling, and meetings to discuss his behavior. Ultimately, the District sustained a subsequent HIB against S.D. and found him to lack academic integrity, causing the District to return S.D. to Jefferson. Undeniably, the District allowed T.D. and S.D. to discuss and dispute its determination. Since these facts are clear and undisputed, I CONCLUDE that this case is ripe for summary decision.

Return to District

Local boards of education adopt rules for the management of the district's public schools and act to ensure the lawful and proper conduct of the district's public schools. The local school district of Jefferson Township is responsible for student tuition and transportation to a vocational school district like the District here. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:54-7, vocational school districts can receive pupils who applied for admission to and accepted for attendance at any county vocational school district school. The board of education of a county vocational school district then has control over admitted students, including the power to suspend and expel pupils from school. N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20(g).

The right to education is not without certain restrictions. Pupils must submit to the authority of their teachers; they must pursue their prescribed courses of study and comply with the rules established to govern the schools. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-1. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-2, a school district may expel or suspend a student for good cause. Good cause includes, in relevant part, continued and willful disobedience, open defiance of authority, taking the personal property of another, or harassment, intimidation, or bullying. School districts must develop a student code of conduct, establishing standards, policies, and procedures for positive student development and behavioral expectations. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.5.

Significantly, vocational school districts have an alternative process for unsuccessful students called the "Return to Resident School District" (District Policy 5114.1 here). This process is distinguishable from expulsion because students do not experience a discontinuance of educational services. Instead, the vocational school district transfers them back to their local school for re-enrollment, which again becomes responsible for providing the student with educational services like all other students in its local school district.

Under District Policy 5114.1, "a student may be returned to their sending district when a pattern or single significant incident of unacceptable conduct results in discipline, excessive absenteeism, or poor academic performance." Ibid. The Superintendent must predicate his determination to return to the district "upon the safety of the student and staff population, the security and integrity of district equipment and software, and the reasonable likelihood of the student to profit academically from the school program."

Further, the District will return students with behavioral contracts whose behavior does not adequately improve to their resident school district. Specifically, a Superintendent faced with student misconduct may issue the actor "a behavioral contract which will guide [their] continued enrollment. Breach of this contract will result in the student's return to the resident school district." Id.

District Policy 5114.1 also considers the timing of a student's return to district, if possible. In many cases, "dismissal will be timed to coincide with the end of the marking period. However, the administration reserves the right to immediately return a student to [their] resident district." Id.

Students in public educational institutions facing severe disciplinary measures such as suspension or expulsion have the right to due process of law. R.R. v. Bd. of Ed., Shore Reg. H.S., 109 N.J. Super. 337, 346-47 (Ch. Div. 1970). The fundamental requirements of due process of law are notice and hearing. Id. at 349, (quoting from Dixon v. Alabama State Board of Education, 294 F.2d 150 (5th Cir. 1961), cert. denied, 368 U.S. 930, (1961)).

District Policy 5114.1 explains the due process provided to parents and students when facing a student's return to their resident school district, including a meeting about the student's inappropriate behavior where the student can explain the reasons for their behavior, notice of an administrative determination, and the ability to disagree and appeal to the Board. Undeniably, S.D. and his parents received notice and attended several meetings before requesting and appearing at a Board hearing to address their appeal. See N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3(c).

Although T.D. suggests the Board's closed session to vote on S.D.'s discipline should not have included school administrators. However, when the Board votes on a student's suspension, it must review the case in consultation with school administrators. NJ.A.C. 6A:16-7.3. Still, that a school district may expel or suspend a student for good cause is settled in the Board's favor.

S.D. has no right to return to a choice school, even though it may have higher academic rankings, without demonstrating that the District improperly returned S.D. to Jefferson. T.D. suggests the District did not follow its disciplinary or return to local school procedures, but I CONCLUDE that a preponderance of the evidence exists to demonstrate that it did. Indeed, I found that the District employed remediation measures permitted under its policies. Yet, after the behavioral contract was in place following the first HIB substantiation, the District substantiated another HIB charge against S.D., among numerous other code of conduct violations. Further, District Policy 5114.1 and the behavioral contract placed S.D. and his parents on notice that a return to his local school district could occur if S.D. did not improve his conduct. The principal informed S.D.'s parents of S.D.'s continuing misconduct as it occurred and held several meetings to discuss S.D.'s actions.

When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness that will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). To overcome that presumption, the petitioner must prove that the board "acted in either bad faith or in disregard to the circumstances." T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., EDU 2780-07 (February 6, 2008), aff'd, Comm'r (April 25, 2013) (citing Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966)). Furthermore, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration [,]" and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't. of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199 (Ch.

Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). In other words, petitioner's burden is a heavy one.

Still, the Board's factual determinations require such deference only when supported by substantial credible evidence, e.g., having a rational basis. Quinlan v. Board of Ed. of North Bergen Tp., 73 N.J. Super. 40 (App. Div. 1962); Schinck v. Board of Ed. of Westwood Consol. School Dist., 60 N.J. Super. 448 (App. Div. 1960). Additionally, the reviewing tribunal may reject the findings of fact if the evidentiary record does not support them. In re Suspension of License of Silberman, 169 N.J. Super. 243, 255-56 (App. Div. 1979), aff'd, 84 N.J. 303 (1980).

While petitioner may be dissatisfied with the District's actions in addressing S.D.'s behaviors, he presents insufficient evidence to show that the District acted improperly, arbitrarily, or unreasonably. To the contrary, I CONCLUDE that the District reasonably attempted to remediate S.D.'s behavior, provided a rational basis to support its conclusion, and afforded T.D. and S.D. with notice and opportunity to discuss S.D.'s continuing misconduct and challenge the District's determination. The behavioral contract's terms were clear. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the District is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law.

ORDER

Given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that the District be GRANTED summary decision, and that the petitioners' appeal be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of Vincent Cinquina, State Board of Examiners,
New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Revocation by the State Board of Examiners, dated December 8, 2023

Respondent-Appellant, appearing pro se

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, David L. Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record and submissions filed in connection with Vincent Cinquina's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board), dated December 8, 2023, revoking his Teacher of General Business Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of Elementary Grades K-8 Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of Students with Disabilities Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of General Business Standard Certificate, Teacher of Elementary Grades K-8 Standard Certificate, and Teacher of Students with Disabilities Standard Certificate.

In revoking appellant's certificates, the Board determined that no material facts were in dispute. It reasoned that appellant's "acts of failing to remedy a situation where students were using an offensive and inappropriate group label, allowing students to engage in a game o[f] truth or dare during which students kissed and touched each other inappropriately, and disrupting a class by calling law enforcement because he was upset that the Principal was conducting an evaluation constitute conduct unbecoming a teacher as they clearly indicate a repeated lack of the necessary self-restraint and controlled behavior expected in an educator."

Appeals of Board decisions revoking certificates must be submitted to the Commissioner per N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38.4, and in accordance with the rules at N.J.A.C. 6A:4. Those rules provide, in relevant part, that "[a]ppeals of final State Board of Examiners decisions shall be filed within 30 days of the filing date of the decision being appealed." N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.2(a). The record reflects that the Board issued its Order of Revocation to appellant on December 8, 2023, via certified mail, regular mail, and email. The Office of Controversies and Disputes received appellant's appeal on January 23, 2024—two weeks after the 30-day filing deadline had passed.

Appellant has not established any unusual or compelling circumstances that would, in the interest of justice, warrant relaxation of the 30-day filing deadline for appeals of final State Board of Examiners decisions. Therefore, the Commissioner holds that the appeal must be dismissed as untimely. Furthermore, because the Board's decision is supported by sufficient, credible evidence in the record, and appellant has failed to establish that the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law, the Commissioner has no grounds to disturb it. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a).

Accordingly, appellant's appeal of the Board's December 8, 2023, Order of Revocation is dismissed as untimely.[1]

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
VINCENT CINQUINA	:	ORDER OF REVOCATION
_____	:	DOCKET NO: 1920-191

At its meeting of June 26, 2020, the State Board of Examiners (Board) reviewed the Arbitration decision in In the Matter of the Tenure Charges Against Vincent Cinquina. The Perth Amboy Board of Education (Perth Amboy) certified tenure charges against Vincent Cinquina (Cinquina) for inefficiency, unbecoming conduct, incapacity, and other just cause for allegedly, among other things, permitting students to play a game of truth or dare in class. The dares consisted of kissing someone or hugging someone, licking the floor, and running through the hall screaming. On March 31, 2020, the Arbitrator found that Perth Amboy demonstrated the truthfulness of the charges and dismissed Cinquina from his tenured employment.

Cinquina currently holds a Teacher of General Business Certificate of Eligibility issued July 2004; a Teacher of Elementary Grades K-8 Certificate of Eligibility issued September 2005; a Teacher of Students with Disabilities Certificate of Eligibility issued September 2005; a standard Teacher of General Business certificate issued August 2007; a standard Teacher of Elementary Grades K-8 certificate, issued August 2007; and a standard Teacher of Students with Disabilities certificate, issued August 2009. Upon review of the above information, at its July 30, 2020 meeting, the Board voted to issue Cinquina an Order to Show Cause as to why his certificates should not be revoked.

The Board sent Cinquina the Order to Show Cause by regular and certified mail on August 12, 2020. Cinquina filed an Answer on or about May 8, 2022. Based upon the answer, there are no material facts in dispute. Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(e), the Board sent Cinquina a hearing notice by regular and certified mail on September 7, 2023. The notice explained that there were no material facts in dispute and offered Cinquina an opportunity to submit written arguments on the issue of whether the conduct addressed in the Order to Show Cause provided just cause to take action against his certificates as well as arguments with regard to the appropriate sanction in the event that the Board determined to take action against his certificates. It also explained that upon review of the charges against him and the legal arguments tendered in his defense, the Board would determine his conduct warranted action against his certificates. Thereupon, the Board would also determine the appropriate sanction, if any. Cinquina was also offered the opportunity to appear before the Board to provide testimony on the sanction issue. Cinquina did not file a written submission with the Board. However, he appeared before the Board at its meeting on September 21, 2023. During his testimony before the Board, Cinquina challenged the fairness and accuracy of the tenure arbitration, but he did not specifically deny the conduct alleged in the Order to Show Cause. He also stated that he had no plans to return to the teaching profession.

The threshold issue before the Board in this matter is whether Cinquina's conduct constitutes conduct unbecoming a certificate holder or other just cause. At its meeting of October 27, 2023, the Board considered the allegations in the Order to Show Cause as well as Cinquina's testimony during his appearance before the Board. The Board determined that no material facts related to Cinquina's offense were in dispute since he never denied that he engaged in the alleged conduct. Thus, the Board determined that summary decision was appropriate in this matter. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.6(h).

The Board must now determine whether Cinquina's conduct, as set forth in the Order to Show Cause, provides just cause to act against his certificates pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4. The Board finds that it does.

The Board may revoke or suspend the certification of any certificate holder on the basis of demonstrated inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming a teacher or other just cause. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4. Educators must be held to a particularly "high standard of conduct because of the influence they exercise over the students." State Bd. of Exam'rs v. Charlton, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDE) 18, 21; see also In re Tyler, 13 N.J.A.R. 297, 308. Teachers are "professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of . . . school children. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." Tenure of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. "That school authorities have the right and the duty to screen the officials, teachers, and employees as to their fitness to maintain the integrity of the schools as part of ordered society, cannot be doubted." In re Grossman, 127 N.J. Super. 13, 30 (App. Div. 1974) (citation omitted). Moreover, unfitness to hold a position in a school system may be shown by one incident, if sufficiently flagrant. Redcay v. State Bd. of Educ., 130 N.J.L. 369, 371 (1943), aff'd, 131 N.J.L. 326 (E & A 1944).

Cinquina's acts of failing to remedy a situation where students were using an offensive and inappropriate group label, allowing students to engage in a game or truth or dare during which students kissed and touched each other inappropriately, and disrupting a class by calling law enforcement because he was upset that the Principal was conducting an evaluation constitute conduct unbecoming a teacher as they clearly indicate a repeated lack of the necessary self-restraint and controlled behavior expected in an educator.

Accordingly, on October 27, 2023, the Board voted to revoke Vincent Cinquina's certificates. On this 8th day of December 2023, the Board voted to adopt its formal written decision and it is therefore ORDERED that Vincent Cinquina's certificates are hereby REVOKED, effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that Cinquina return his paper certificates, if applicable, to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Certification and Induction, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within 30 days of the mailing date of this decision.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of Randi Drogin, State Board of Examiners,
New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Suspension by the State Board of Examiners, dated September 21, 2023

For the Respondent-Appellant, Sanford Oxfeld, Esq. and Samuel Wenocur, Esq. (Oxfeld Cohen)

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, Sydney Finkelstein and Sadia Ahsanuddin, Deputy Attorneys General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record, hearing transcripts, and papers filed in connection with Randi Drogin's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board), dated September 21, 2023, suspending her Teacher of Art Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of Art Standard Certificate, and Supervisor Certificate for a period of six months.

On December 13, 2019, the Board issued an Order to Show Cause regarding the suspension of appellant's certificates, which she opposed. Following a contested hearing, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that while employed at Bayonne during the 2018-2019 school year, appellant involved herself in the personal lives of her students and gave them advice on personal matters; expressed suicidal thoughts to students, faculty, and staff; and had conversations with students about her own mental health issues. Additionally, the ALJ found that appellant pried into the subjects of one student's mental health and sexuality, which ultimately resulted in a no-contact agreement implemented by school officials between appellant and that student. The ALJ also found that after one of appellant's students broke up with his girlfriend, who then threatened suicide, appellant offered personal advice to the student instead of reporting the incident to the district to ensure that the student received help.

When analyzing whether appellant's conduct warranted a suspension of her certificates, the ALJ considered that appellant suffered from mental and emotional stressors during the 2018-2019 school year that likely contributed to her conduct, and further found that her mental health issues were being improperly treated during that time. The ALJ reasoned that appellant did not intend to harm or negatively affect her students, but rather involved herself too deeply into their personal lives. In the end, the ALJ concluded that the Board failed to show, by a preponderance of credible evidence, that appellant's certificates should be suspended.

Upon considering appellant's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto, the Board adopted the ALJ's findings of fact, determined that those facts constituted unbecoming conduct, and imposed a six-month suspension of appellant's certificates. The Board considered, as did the ALJ, that appellant was suffering from mental health issues when the unbecoming conduct in Bayonne occurred. However, the Board disagreed with the ALJ that this negated or excused her unbecoming conduct. Instead, the Board considered appellant's mental health issues as a mitigating factor when determining that a six-month suspension was an appropriate penalty.

On appeal, appellant maintains that no action should be taken against her certificates. Initially, she asserts that the Board should have dismissed the exceptions filed by the Deputy Attorney General (DAG) on procedural grounds under N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(b)(1). In addition, appellant contends that the Board's decision is arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable because: (1) the Board did not afford proper deference to the ALJ's Initial Decision, as required under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10; (2) the ALJ's factual findings do not support the Board's determination of unbecoming conduct; and (3) mitigating factors, including appellant's lack of intent to cause harm and misdiagnosis of her mental health condition during the 2018-19 school year, support dismissal of the Order to Show Cause rather than a suspension of appellant's certificates.

In reviewing appeals from decisions of the State Board of Examiners, the Commissioner may not substitute his judgment for that of the Board so long as the appellant received due process and the Board's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record. The Commissioner's role in reviewing appeals is constrained by N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a), which specifies that "the Commissioner shall ascertain whether the decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and shall not disturb the decision unless the appellant has demonstrated that the State Board of Examiners . . . acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law."

Initially, the record reflects that appellant received due process throughout the proceedings, and she does not contend otherwise. Next, the Commissioner finds that the sufficient credible evidence in the record supports the Board's determination that a six-month suspension of appellant's certificates is warranted given the nature and extent of her proven unbecoming conduct. Notably, appellant does not dispute the ALJ's factual findings regarding the inappropriate interactions that occurred between her, her students, and staff members during the 2018-2019 school year. Rather, she disputes the legal characterization of said conduct as unbecoming conduct sufficient to warrant suspension of her certificates.

"Conduct unbecoming" is an "elastic" concept that includes "conduct which adversely affects the morale or efficiency" of the public entity or "which has a tendency to destroy public respect for [public] employees and confidence in the operation of [public] services." In re Emmons, 63 N.J. Super. 136, 140 (App. Div. 1960). Accord Bound Brook Bd. of Educ. v. Ciripompa, 228 N.J. 4, 13 (2017). A finding of unbecoming conduct "may be based merely upon the violation of the implicit standard of good behavior which devolves upon one who stands in the public eye as an upholder of that which is morally and legally correct." Bound Brook Bd. of Educ., 228 N.J. at 14 (quoting Karins v. City of Atlantic City, 152 N.J. 532, 555 (1998)).

It is well-established that "[t]eachers . . . are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of . . . school children . . . . This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." In re Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321. Teachers "hold positions demanding public trust, and in such positions they teach, inform, and mold habits and attitudes, and influence the opinion of their pupils." In re Tordo, 1974 S.L.D. 97, 98-99. They are held to an especially "high standard of conduct because of the influence they exercise over the students." State Bd. of Exam'rs v. Charlton, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDE) 18, 21.

Appellant repeatedly failed to exercise the self-restraint required of a teacher when she made inappropriate disclosures to students regarding her own personal life, and inappropriately pried into her students' personal lives. "The line between teacher and friend should be rigorously enforced." In re Certificates of Zantow, OAL Dkt. No. EDE 459-07, Agency Dkt. No. 0607-126, Initial Decision at 22 (Feb. 29, 2008), State Bd. of Exam'rs Order of Suspension at 5 (July 28, 2008). Appellant crossed that line. Her sincere desire to help her students with personal issues does not excuse her conduct. By failing to exercise the self-restraint required of an educator on several occasions during the 2018-2019 school year and exercising poor judgment in her interaction with students, appellant committed unbecoming conduct.

Turning to appellant's contentions on appeal, her argument regarding the exceptions filed by the DAG lacks merit. The DAG's exceptions comported with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(b)(1), as they sufficiently specified in the first paragraph that exception was taken to the ALJ's legal conclusion that appellant's proven conduct neither constituted unbecoming conduct nor warranted any penalty against her certificates.

Furthermore, contrary to appellant's contention, the Board did not violate N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10 when it adopted the ALJ's findings of fact and credibility determinations but disagreed with the ALJ's legal conclusions. Per N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c), the ALJ's decision is "[a] recommended report and decision which contains recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law," and the ALJ's legal conclusions may be rejected by the agency so long as the agency "state[s] clearly the reasons for doing so." Here, the Board's decision adequately explained why it disagreed with the ALJ's legal conclusions and instead decided that the facts as found by the ALJ supported a finding of unbecoming conduct and suspension of appellant's certificates. The Legislature granted the Board, not the ALJ, with the authority to revoke or suspend an educator's certificates. Morison v. Willingboro Bd. of Educ., ____ N.J. Super. ____ (App. Div. Mar. 28, 2024) (slip op. at 5-7) (citing N.J.S.A. 18A:6-38 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4(a)).

Moreover, appellant's claim that her lack of intent to harm her students should eliminate the need for the suspension of her certificates is unsupported by law. Nothing in the controlling statutes, regulations, or relevant case law supports the conclusion that an intent to harm students must be proven before the Board may suspend or revoke certificates. See Morison, slip op. at 6 ("[T]he Board of Examiners 'may revoke or suspend the certificate(s) of any certificate holder on the basis of demonstrated inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming a teacher, or other just cause.'" (quoting N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.4(a))).

In addition, the Board appropriately considered the fact that appellant's mental health issues contributed to her unbecoming conduct when imposing a six-month suspension of her certificates instead of a more severe sanction. In other cases involving teachers who made inappropriate comments to students, the Board has imposed a one-year suspension. See, e.g., In re Certificates of Zantow, Agency Dkt. No. 0607-126, State Bd. of Exam'rs Order of Suspension at 5 (July 28, 2008) (imposing one-year suspension of certificates when teacher made inappropriate comments to students); In re Certificates of Skerbetz, Agency Dkt. No. 0405-315, State Bd. of Exam'rs Order of Suspension at 5-6 (Mar. 2, 2007) (imposing one-year suspension of certificates when teacher engaged in inappropriate conversations with students).

As for the cases cited by appellant in her briefs, they are readily distinguishable from the present matter. None of them support the conclusion that any aspect of the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law. The fact that other individuals achieved dismissal of the Board's Order to Show Cause under entirely different circumstances is neither persuasive nor dispositive. For instance, In the Matter of the Certificates of Ralph Schiavo, Agency Dkt. No. 0304-289, State Board of Examiners Order of Dismissal (May 10, 2006), involved an isolated incident wherein a teacher accidentally bumped heads with a student and made a single inappropriate comment for which he promptly apologized. In the Matter of the Certificate of Sandra Kearney, Agency Dkt. No. 0304-106, State Board of Examiners Order of Dismissal (Sept. 25, 2003), involved an isolated incident wherein a teacher accidentally hit a student in the face after she experienced an injury and reacted to the pain by swinging her arm. In the Matter of the Certificates of V.R., Agency Dkt. No. 0304-193, State Board of Examiners Order of Dismissal (Dec. 2, 2009), involved an isolated incident wherein a teacher, who was taking pain medication for an acute injury, accidentally injured a student's hand in the classroom door.

The facts in Schiavo, Kearney, and V.R. bear no resemblance to what occurred here. Appellant's proven conduct in this case was not accidental. Because the Board's decision is supported by sufficient, credible evidence, and appellant has failed to establish that it was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law, the Commissioner has no grounds to disturb the decision. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a).

Accordingly, the decision of the State Board of Examiners suspending appellant's certificates for six months is affirmed.[1]

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
RANDI DROGIN	:	DOCKET NO. 1920-117
		SUSPENSION PROCEEDING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

1. Randi Drogin is the holder of Teacher of Art Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of Art, and Supervisor certificates.
2. The Bayonne Public School District (Bayonne) provided information to the State Board of Examiners (Board) regarding Drogin.
3. Drogin was a Bayonne teacher who resigned from her position after she allegedly engaged in inappropriate conduct including sharing personal information with students and seeking personal information from students.
4. Bayonne prepared Tenure Charges against Drogin prior to her resignation. The charges were not filed but are incorporated herein by reference.
5. On or about December 8, 2017, Drogin became so emotionally upset, anxious, and overwhelmed that she had to be removed from her classes for the day. Drogin was allegedly upset because she had to make 80 banners as a result of her responsibilities as graphic arts teacher. She refused to go with EMTs and was driven home by Bayonne staff.
5. As a result of the incident indicated in paragraph 4, during the 2018-2019 school year Drogin was assigned to teach Art I and Art II. Drogin was unhappy and disappointed in the new assignment and shared those feelings with other staff members.
6. Drogin complained about having a specific student in her class and had a meeting with administration about complaints relating to her teaching assignment(s). Drogin was counseled by administration on classroom management and handling behavior issues, inappropriate use of social media, and discussing other staff members with students.

7. Drogin allegedly made comments to students and staff regarding suicide. She stated that she wanted to drive her car into a pole and/or otherwise kill herself. She broke down in tears with a coworker and as a result of concerning comments she was sent for a psychiatric evaluation. Students also alleged she discussed these suicidal ideations with them.

8. Drogin also allegedly made comments regarding her political beliefs in front of students. She asked students personal questions regarding their sexuality, she would act erratically during homeroom, scream at students for no reason, throw pens on her desk, disparage other teachers in front of students or to students, and spoke to students about her rape. Drogin was also investigated by Bayonne for Harassment Intimidation and Bullying (HIB). Although HIB was not found, her conduct was found to be unprofessional, unbecoming and inappropriate.

9. The Board finds that the level and nature of Drogin's conduct provides just cause for consideration of the suspension of her certificates.

10. Pursuant to the Board's vote, it is therefore on this 13th day of December 2019 ORDERED that Randi Drogin show cause why all certificates and credentials she holds as of the final adjudication of this matter should not be suspended.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

C.S., on behalf of minor child, C.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Bridgewater-Raritan Regional School District, Somerset County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner challenged the decision of the respondent Board to conduct a code of conduct investigation rather than a harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) investigation into allegations that students teased her minor son, C.S., by referring to him as a "school shooter" – a taunt that had been repeatedly directed at C.S. after he was suspended for violating the school's code of conduct when he brought a nerf gun to school. The Board contended that its decision to conduct code of conduct investigations into C.S.'s complaints was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Petitioner argued that the Board ignored its statutory obligation under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq. by not acknowledging C.S.'s distinguishing characteristic and investigating his HIB claims. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue here, and the case is ripe for summary decision; an action by a board of education is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be undermined unless it can be shown that the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; in the present matter, the name-calling at issue was not based upon any distinguishing characteristic of C.S. as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq. or in case law; the facts in the record do not substantiate that C.S.'s decision to bring a nerf gun to school was related to any mental disability or that the students taunting him as a result of his poor choice were making such a connection; as the Board did not find that the taunting C.S. experienced was based upon any distinguishing characteristic, its decision to investigate the incidents under the school's Code of Student Conduct was appropriate. The ALJ concluded that petitioner has failed to prove that the Board's determination was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the comments made to petitioner's child were not based on a distinguishing characteristic; further, the school district's decision to address the matter under its Code of Conduct rather than as acts of harassment, intimidation, and bullying was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board's motion for summary decision was granted, and the petition was dismissed.

Final Decision

C.S., on behalf of minor child, C.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Bridgewater-Raritan Regional School District, Somerset County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the comments made to petitioner's child were not based on a distinguishing characteristic. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ that the school district's decision to address the matter under its Code of Conduct rather than as acts of harassment, intimidation, and bullying was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Respondent's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

BEFORE KIM C. BELIN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, C.S., parent of minor child, C.S., challenges respondent, Board of Education of Bridgewater-Raritan Regional School District's decision to conduct a code of conduct investigation rather than a harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) investigation into allegations that students teased C.S. by referring to him as a "school shooter."

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 19, 2023, petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal challenging respondent's decision not to conduct a formal HIB investigation during the 2022-2023 school year. Respondent filed an Answer on May 30, 2023. The Department of Education (DOE) transmitted this matter as a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") where it was filed on May 31, 2023. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A pre-hearing conference call was held on August 14, 2023, where an evidentiary hearing was scheduled for November 6, 2023. On October 4, 2023, respondent filed a motion for summary decision. On October 24, 2023, petitioners filed a cross-motion for summary decision. The November 6, 2023, hearing was converted to a conference call at the parties' request. Marc Mucciolo, Esq., replaced Mr. Silvestro as the respondent's counsel. The parties discussed the possibility of settlement and requested additional time to generate and circulate an agreement. Accordingly, a status conference call was held on November 15, 2023, where the parties reached a tentative settlement agreement. A conference call scheduled for November 30, 2023, was adjourned at the parties' request, and on February 5, 2024, the parties indicated that they both wished to proceed with their respective motions.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The following FACTS are undisputed and I, therefore FIND:

1. For the 2022-2023 school year, C.S. attended middle school in the respondent's district and was a seventh-grade student. He was not a classified student under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 20 U.S.C. §1400 et seq.

2. During the 2021-2022 school year, C.S. brought a nerf gun to school and received a forty-five day suspension from school in accordance with the respondent's Code of Student Conduct. (Respondent's Motion for Summary Decision (RMSD), ¶¶4 and 5.)

3. During the 2022-2023 school year, at least one other student referred to C.S. as a "school shooter" based upon the incident from the previous year where he brought in the nerf gun to school. (RMSD, ¶6.)

4. On January 31, 2023, the petitioner filed seven separate HIB complaint forms with the principal of the Middle School. Six of those complaints referred to instances in which C.S. was called a "school shooter," while the seventh referenced an incident in which C.S. was allegedly targeted due to being Jewish. (RMSD, ¶7.)

5. Three incidents were reported on September 6, 2022. (Petition ¶9.)

6. In the first incident, the petitioner reported that a student stated to C.S. in LAL[1] class: "I'm going to beat you up, you better watch out school shooter. You're such a loser. Everyone hates you." (Petition, ¶9a.)

[1] Language arts literacy.

7. In the second incident, the petitioner reported that a student stated to C.S.: "You're a b*tch, I'm going to beat the sh out of [you]. Loser, go kill yourself." This student frequently called C.S. a school shooter when they left science class. (Petition ¶9b.)

8. In the third incident, the petitioner reported that three other students randomly throughout the day called C.S. a school shooter and said: "you're a b*tch, I'm going to f you up. Eww looked [sic] its C.S., the school shooter, he has a gun, he's going to shoot everyone, you don't belong here loser, everyone hates you go kill yourself." (Petition, ¶9c.)

9. In the fourth complaint, dated September 20, 2022, the petitioner reported that C.S. was referenced by students as the "kid who brought a gun to school, asked why he was in school, told to kill himself, and that that [sic] they've heard he has the list of people he's going to shoot, that others should watch out he's got a gun and that he is going to get his a kicked." (Petition ¶9d.)

10. In the fifth incident that was reported in a complaint also dated September 20, 2022, three additional students "harass him about being a school shooter, called [sic] him a piece of garbage. They told everyone I smoke weed and vape. Had [his] locker searched." (Petition, ¶9e.) On the bus, C.S. was poked in the back with a "broomstick or other device." Ibid.

11. In the final incident, reported on January 5, 2020, after lunch, three additional students yelled: "watch out! That kid's got a gun" referring to C.S. (Petition, ¶9f.)

12. Respondent investigated the incidents and determined that six of them in which C.S. was referred to as "school shooter" or words of similar effect were not instances of HIB but were violations of the respondent's Code of Student Conduct. (RMSD, ¶15.)

13. The respondent disciplined the students involved. (RMSD, ¶16.)

14. The respondent determined that none of the six incidents reported by the petitioner identified a real or perceived distinguishing characteristic that was the basis for targeting C.S. (RMSD, ¶17.)

15. The respondent notified the petitioner via email on or about February 3, 2023, of the respondent's determination that the school would not conduct HIB investigations regarding the allegations because the complaints did not "meet the criteria for HIB as there is no distinguishing characteristic." (RMSD, ¶¶18 and 20.)

16. The petitioner filed a petition on or about April 19, 2023, appealing the respondent's decision not to investigate the six incidents as HIB. (RMSD, ¶19.)

Respondent's Motion

Respondent filed a motion for summary decision contending that C.S. made a poor and immature decision to bring a nerf gun to school, however, this decision was not a distinguishing characteristic of C.S. as a person that would trigger an HIB investigation. The decision not to conduct HIB investigations was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable and therefore, need not be reversed.

Petitioner's Cross Motion

Petitioner argues that the respondent acted arbitrarily, capriciously, and unreasonably by ignoring its statutory obligation under HIB to acknowledge C.S.'s distinguishing characteristic and investigate his HIB claims.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

A motion for summary decision may be granted if the papers and discovery presented, as well as any affidavits which may have been filed with the application, show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). If the motion is sufficiently supported, the non-moving party must demonstrate by affidavit that there is a genuine issue of fact which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding in order to prevail in such an application. Ibid. These provisions mirror the summary judgment language of R. 4:46-2(c) of the New Jersey Court Rules.

The motion judge must "consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party . . . are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party." Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 523 (1995). Even if the non-moving party comes forward with some evidence, this forum must grant summary decision if the evidence is "so one-sided that [the moving party] must prevail as a matter of law." Id. at 536.

The Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq., is designed "to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1(f). Under the Act, "harassment, intimidation or bullying" (HIB) is defined as:

> [A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or > interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:

> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.
>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.]

Each school district must adopt a policy that prohibits HIB and provides for a prompt response to any alleged HIB incident. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15. Once an alleged HIB incident is reported to the school principal, the principal must initiate an investigation within one school day of the report. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6). The investigation shall be conducted by a school anti-bullying specialist and shall take no longer than ten school days to be completed. The results of the investigation shall then be quickly reported to the superintendent of schools, who may take certain remedial action. The results shall also be reported to the board of education "no later than the date of the board of education meeting next following the completion of the investigation, along with information on any services provided, training established, discipline imposed, or other action taken or recommended by the superintendent." Ibid.

Pursuant to the Act, the parents of the students involved in any alleged HIB incident are entitled to receive information about the nature of the investigation and the result of the investigation. The parents may request a hearing before the board, and the hearing must be held within ten days of the request. Any hearing shall be held in executive session to protect the identity of any students involved. The board may hear from the anti-bullying specialist about the incident, recommendations for discipline or services, and any programs instituted to reduce such incidents. The board must issue a decision at the first meeting after its receipt of the investigation report. The board may affirm, reject, or modify the superintendent's decision. The board's decision may be appealed to the Commissioner of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(6)(e).

An action by a board of education "is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be upset unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965). The Commissioner will not substitute their judgment for that of a board of education, whose exercise of discretion may not be disturbed unless shown to be "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). Our courts have held that "[w]here there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't of Envtl. Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199–200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Thus, in order to prevail, the petitioner must demonstrate that the Board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it. T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 67 (February 6, 2008) (citing Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966)).

In the present case, the issue for resolution is whether the respondent's decision not to conduct HIB investigations was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable in light of the information the respondent possessed when it made its determination. The petitioner argues that the respondent's decision turned a "blind eye" to the students' perception that C.S. was a school shooter which meets the requirement of a perceived distinguishing characteristic under the Act. (Petitioner's Brief in Support of Motion for Summary Decision, at p.8.) There are reported cases in which HIB determinations by boards of education have been both affirmed and overturned. In R.G.B. v. Vill. of Ridgewood Bd. of Educ., 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 130 (May 15, 2013), adopted, Comm'r, 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 592 (June 24, 2013), the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in determining that a student engaged in HIB when he repeatedly called a female student "fat," "fat ass," and "horse."

According to the ALJ, such verbal statements satisfied all of the necessary elements under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. In G.H. and E.H. ex rel. K.H. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Borough of Franklin Lakes, EDU 13204-13, Initial Decision (February 24, 2014) http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/ collections/oal/, the ALJ also upheld a Board's finding that a white student who repeatedly called a black student "Kool-Aid" engaged in HIB. The ALJ found that the "use of the word 'kool-aid' was directed at [the other student] because of his race; insulted and demeaned [the other student]; and . . . interfered with [the other student's] education" because "[u]pset and embarrassed children are not fully available for learning." These cases involved perceived distinguishing characteristics such as weight, race, gender, and/or physical features.

However, in J.A.H. o/b/o C.H. v. The Twp. of Pittsgrove BOE, 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 58 (March 11, 2013), adopted, Comm'r (April 13, 2013) http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/. the Board's finding that an incident in which one student stuffed a crumpled piece of paper down the shirt of another student constituted an act of bullying was overturned as arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable because the incident was merely a prank that was part of an ongoing, mutual conflict between the two boys and did not "contain the more serious and aggravating elements either 'expressed or implied' under [N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.]" The ALJ in J.A.H. found that the incident was not improperly motivated by a distinguishing characteristic and that the facts "only support[ed] a finding of ordinary student conflicts rather than the more serious behavior of bullying." Ibid.

In addition, In L.B.T. o/b/o. K.T. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Freehold Reg'l Sch. Dist., EDU 07894-12, Initial Decision, (January 24, 2013), adopted, Comm'r (March 7, 2013), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/, the ALJ determined that an act was not considered to be bullying motivated by a "distinguishing characteristic" where there was a mutual dispute between two students about their respective roles on the swim team. The judge held that if a victim was targeted because of a dispute between the two people involved—such as a relationship falling apart between former friends, a fight over a piece of property, or some form of personal vendetta of one against another—that conduct would not be based on a "distinguishing characteristic" of the victim and would not be a violation of the statute.

Here, it is undisputed that during the 2021-2022 school year, C.S. brought an imitation gun to school and served a forty-five day suspension. The following year, students began calling him a "school shooter" and encouraging him to harm himself. The respondent acknowledged that this behavior was inappropriate and violated the Code of Student Conduct, and following an investigation resulted in discipline imposed on the offending students. The statute defines HIB as "any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, . . . that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, . . . or by any other distinguishing characteristic." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 (emphasis added). As respondent points out, the students called C.S. "school shooter" because of his poor choice of bringing in the nerf gun to school. It is indisputable that the students' conduct was wholly inappropriate and hurtful, and discipline was warranted because "cruel words will not be tolerated in a school environment." C.C. o/b/o S.C. v. Bd. of Ed. of Jefferson, 2015 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 251 (April 6, 2015), aff'd Comm'r (May 12, 2015).

However, the name-calling in the present matter was not based upon C.S.'s distinguishing characteristics as defined in the statute or case law. The facts and inferences in the record do not substantiate a negative inference from C.S.'s decision to bring in a nerf gun with his mental facilities or that his fellow students were making such a connection.

The respondent did not find that the comments were based upon C.S.'s race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or mental, physical, or sensory disability, or another distinguishing characteristic. While the petitioner may disagree with the respondent's determination, the petitioner presents no evidence that this determination was made in bad faith or in utter disregard of the extant information. I therefore FIND that the respondent properly investigated the incidents under the Code of Student Conduct.

Accordingly, based on the facts presented on the pending motions, and even giving petitioner the benefit of any reasonable inferences that could be drawn from her papers or initial petition, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has not proven that the respondent's determination was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

ORDER

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." v.

State-Operated School District of the City of Camden, Camden County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner sought documentation showing that his daughter was authorized to attend school outside of the school district in which she resides. Petitioner further sought to have N.M. attend school in Winslow Township where she resides. The respondent Board filed a motion to dismiss, arguing that it provided the entire student record to A.M. in November 2023. The Board further moved to dismiss the remainder of the petition, asserting that the Office of Administrative Law does not have jurisdiction over the issue of N.M.'s school enrollment.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner and C.W., N.M.'s mother, have joint custody of their daughter; petitioner asserted that N.M. attends Yorkship Family in respondent's school district because her mother works at the school; petitioner seeks to have N.M. attend school in Winslow Township where she resides; the Board contends that A.M.'s request for his daughter's student record is moot, as it has previously been released to the petitioner in its entirety; N.M.'s school placement is governed under the joint custody order; petitioner acknowledges that he received some records from the respondent Board but contends that the record was incomplete and inaccurate; however, objections to the content of a school record must be raised in accord with N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7, which has not been occurred in this case; further, the custody agreement between N.M.'s parents expressly identified circumstances that, if changed, could require a review of the appropriate school for N.M., and such review would be before the Superior Court Judge who issued the custody agreement. The ALJ concluded that neither petitioner's claim regarding his daughter's school records nor the issue of what school N.M. should attend are properly before the Office of Administrative Law. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter and dismissed the petition.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner has already been provided with a copy of N.M.'s student records, and that any challenge to the accuracy of those records must be made in accordance with the procedures outlined in N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7, which, to date, petitioner has not complied with. The Commissioner further agrees with the ALJ that the issue of N.M.'s school enrollment is governed by a custody order and any changes must be made by the Family Division of the Superior Court.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08522-23
AGENCY DKT. NO. 205-7/23

A.M. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, N.M., Petitioner,
v.
CITY OF CAMDEN, STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

A.M., petitioner, pro se

Caitlin Pletcher, Esq., for respondent (Florio, Perrucci, Steinhardt, Cappelli, Tipton & Taylor, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 12, 2024 Decided: March 27, 2024

BEFORE JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner A.M. seeks his daughter's school records and documentation showing that his daughter was authorized to attend school outside of the school district in which she resides. He also contends that his daughter is enrolled in a school that is not located in her home school district and seeks to have her attend school in the school district in which she resides.

Respondent, State-Operated School District of the City of Camden, Camden County (respondent or "Camden District"), filed a motion to dismiss in which it argues that petitioner's request for documents is moot because it provided the entire student record. It also moved to dismiss the remainder of the petition because it asserts that the Office of Administrative Law does not have jurisdiction over the issue of the child's school enrollment.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 14, 2023, petitioner filed a petition with the Commissioner of the Department of Education (Commissioner). The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on August 30, 2023. The matter was assigned to me on October 11, 2023. During November 15, 2023, and December 11, 2023, status conferences, the parties discussed the voluntary production of school records to petitioner by respondent. On December 11, 2023, respondent was granted leave to file a motion to dismiss. Its motion was filed December 20, 2023. Petitioner's brief in opposition to the motion was filed on January 24, 2024, and respondent's reply brief was filed on February 8, 2024. Additional information was requested from respondent on March 4, 2024. That information was received on March 12, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The following is undisputed for the purpose of this motion.[1] I therefore FIND the following as FACT:

[1] "Because the matter arises on defendants' motion to dismiss, [the court must] accept as true the facts alleged in the complaint. . . . Plaintiffs are entitled to every reasonable inference in their favor." Craig v. Suburban Cablevision, Inc., 140 N.J. 623, 625–26 (1995) (citations omitted); see also Maeker v. Ross, 219 N.J. 565, 569 (2014).

1. Petitioner's daughter is N.M. Petitioner and N.M.'s mother, C.W., have joint custody of N.M.[2]

2. N.M. attended Yorkship Family School (Yorkship) in the Camden District at the time petitioner filed his petition. R-B ("Pet.") at 1.

3. On October 4, 2023, Hon. Frank C. Testa, J.S.C., Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Family Part, Camden County, issued an Order that addressed issues related to A.M. and C.W.'s custody of N.M. The Order directed, in part, that N.M. "shall remain in her current school if not in conflict with school administration requirements." R-C.

4. N.M. attended Yorkship when Judge Testa issued this Order. R-A.[3]

5. On December 3, 2023, Samantha L. Price, Esq., general counsel and acting chief of staff for the Camden District, sent an email to petitioner in which she wrote that the District previously gave N.M.'s thirty-nine-page student file to A.M. Price wrote that the file included the following documents:

    - Parent/Guardian Emergency Contact forms
    - Parent/Guardian Media Consent Form
    - Student Acceptable Use Policy[4]

[2] Petitioner attached emails to his petition in which he advised the principal of Yorkship Elementary School that he and N.M.'s mother share joint custody and that N.M. resides in the Winslow Township School District. He attached a document labeled "[N.M.] Joint Legal Custody doc.pdf"; however, the document was not included with the petition. The principal confirmed, via email, that N.M. was enrolled as a student at Yorkship School. See Emails of September 8, 2022, 8:00 a.m., and September 15, 2022, 11:11 a.m.

[3] Respondent's Exhibit A includes N.M.'s report cards that document that she attended school there during the 2022–2023 and 2023–2024 school years.

[4] The referenced documents were not included in the exhibit.

6. Price also attached the following documents to the email:

> Non-resident tuition applications submitted for [N.M] to attend school in the District for the 2022–23 and 2023–24 school years. These records are maintained by our business officer, and that is why they were not part of the intital packet of information sent to you by the school couselor, Ms. Sheared.
>
> [Ibid.]

7. Ms. Price asked petitioner to advise if he believed any documents from N.M.'s file were missing. Ibid.

8. On March 11, 2024, Ms. Price certified that she is responsible for overseeing the production of students' records to parents. She also certified that the Camden District provided N.M.'s "full student record" and has not withheld any of N.M.'s records. R-E.

Parties' Arguments

Petitioner asserts in his petition that his daughter attends Yorkship even though she does not reside within its district because his daughter's mother is employed by Yorkship and his daughter's aunt was previously its principal. He further asserts that these relationships are the reason he has not received all his daughter's school records. He seeks to have his daughter attend school in her home district, Winslow Township.

Respondent argues that petitioner's request for production of N.M.'s student file is moot because it has already provided her entire record. In support of this, it cites Ms. Price's December 3, 2023, email. It supplemented the record with Ms. Price's certification, in which she explained that the District produced all records related to N.M.

Respondent also argues that the OAL does not have jurisdiction over petitioner's request that N.M. be permitted to attend school in Winslow Township, as any such relief may be granted by only the Superior Court, Family Division. Respondent asserts that petitioner previously sought this relief from the Superior Court, Family Division. It cites the October 4, 2023, Order issued by Judge Testa as authority for its position.

In response to the motion to dismiss, petitioner contends that Judge Testa's Order is contingent upon satisfaction of school administration requirements and that the school district and State Department of Education are required to "ensure that policies are being adhered to" when a "[n]on-resident student [is] attending a school outside of the district" where she resides. Pet'r's Br. at 1. He seems to argue that N.M.'s mother improperly enrolled N.M. at Yorkship and that school personnel failed to prepare or require the appropriate documentation to permit N.M. to attend school there. He claims that the Camden District has "overlooked" violations of "school administration procedures and policies" because N.M.'s mother's sister, T.T., was the principal of Yorkship.[5] Ibid. He seeks an investigation by the Department of Education "to determine if all school administration policies and procedures have been adhered to in order for . . . [N.M.] to remain in attendance at Yorkship Elementary School as a non-resident student." Id. at 7.

With respect to the production of N.M.'s school records, petitioner acknowledges that on November 21, 2023, the District sent records to him by email. Id. at 2; P-B.[6] He asserts, however, that there were duplicate documents and that the following mandatory records were not included:

- Immunization records.
- Parent guardian emergency contact forms for the 2018–2019, 2020–2021, 2021–2022, and 2023–2024 school years.
- Media consent forms for the same school years.
- Forms or documents that were completed using the Genesis system and stored under the "Forms" and "Documents" tabs of the program.

[5] Petitioner also suggests that there is a conflict of interest due to the familial relationship and "unethical behavior" because a school principal "did not know the specifics of the tuition application" and was not "truthful" about it. Id. at 4–5.

[6] The school counselor sent the documents to petitioner and described them as "cumulative folder records for [N.M.]." Ibid.

- Tuition applications for non-resident students for the 2020–2021 and 2021–2022 school years.
- The August 29, 2022, and November 17, 2023, applications are incomplete because they are not signed and approved by the school business administrator.
- Documentation of the approval of waivers.
- Proof of N.M.'s mother's residence.[7]

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Pursuant to R. 4:6-2,[8] when a motion to dismiss is made based on failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, if "matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment[.]" Summary decision may be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

The standard for granting summary judgment (decision) was discussed by the New Jersey Supreme Court:

> a determination whether there exists a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the [7] Petitioner asserts that "[t]here is a conflict with the addresses provided by [N.M.'s] mother" and seems to contend that she used a false address to show residence within the Camden District. He further seems to allege that the District accepted improper proof of her residence. Id. at 5.

[8] N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3 permits the OAL to look to the court rules for guidance.

> matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial."
>
> [Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995) (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986)).]

R. 4:46-2(c) provides further guidance:

> An issue of fact is genuine only if, considering the burden of persuasion at trial, the evidence submitted by the parties on the motion, together with all legitimate inferences therefrom favoring the non-moving party, would require submission of the issue to the trier of fact.

Student Records

N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19 provides for the promulgation of regulations governing the release of students' records:

> The State Board of Education shall provide by regulation for the creation, maintenance and retention of pupil records and for the security thereof and access thereto, to provide general protection for the right of the pupil to be supplied with necessary information about herself or himself, the right of the parent or guardian and the adult pupil to be supplied with full information about the pupil, except as may be inconsistent with reasonable protection of the persons involved, the right of both pupil and parent or guardian to reasonable privacy as against other persons and the opportunity for the public schools to have the data necessary to provide a thorough and efficient educational system for all pupils.

The corresponding regulation, N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.5, provides, in pertinent part:

> (a) Only authorized organizations, agencies, or persons, as defined in this section, shall have access to student records, including student health records.
>
> . . . .
> (c) Each district board of education shall control access to, disclosure of, and communication regarding information > contained in student health records to assure access only to people permitted by Federal and State statute and regulations or as stated at (e) below.

>
> (d) Access to, and disclosure of, a student health record shall meet the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 20 U.S.C. § 1232g and 34 CFR Part 99.
>
> (e) Organizations, agencies, and persons authorized to access student records shall include only the following:
>
> 1. The student who has the written permission of a parent and the parent of a student under the age of 18, regardless of whether the child resides with the parent, except pursuant to N.J.S.A. 9:2-4;[9]
>
> (g) In complying with this section, district boards of education and charter school and renaissance school project boards of trustees shall adhere to the requirements pursuant to the Open Public Records Act (OPRA), N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq., and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7, parents (and adult students) have the right to examine student records and to challenge those records "on grounds of inaccuracy, irrelevancy, impermissible disclosure, inclusion of improper information, or denial of access to organizations, agencies, and persons." N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7(a). Such challenges may include requests for the "[i]nsertion of additional data, as well as reasonable comments regarding the meaning and/or accuracy of the student record[.]" N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7(a)(2). The regulation sets the procedures for such a challenge, starting with initial communication with the chief school administration, followed by an appeal to the district board of education and then to the Commissioner of the Department of Education. Jurisdiction and ultimate decision-making authority rest with the Commissioner of Education. N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7(b).

[9] Concerning determinations of child custody.

Here, petitioner does not dispute the provision of records; however, he contests the accuracy of the student file and asserts wrongdoing with respect to an alleged failure to prepare certain documents. Objections to the content of the school record must be raised in accord with N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7. For this reason, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's claims about the content of the school record is not properly before the OAL.

School Attendance

N.J.S.A. 2A:34-8 provides that the Superior Court "shall have jurisdiction of all causes of divorce . . . when either party is a bona fide resident of this State. . . . The Superior Court may afford incidental relief as in other cases of an equitable nature and by rule of court may determine the venue of matrimonial and civil union actions." This statute "gives the Superior Court jurisdiction in all causes dealing with divorce, nullity, alimony and maintenance." Tellian v. Healy, 60 N.J. Super. 539, 543 (1960).

Attempts to modify a custody arrangement, whether agreed upon by the parties or ordered by the Superior Court, require "a showing of changed circumstances, with the court determining custody in accordance with the best interests standard of N.J.S.A. 9:2-4." Bisbing v. Bisbing, 230 N.J. 309, 322 (2017). Here, Judge Testa expressly identified a category of circumstances that, if changed, could require a review of the appropriate school for N.M. This issue must thus be brought to Judge Testa. For this reason, I CONCLUDE the OAL does not have jurisdiction over this issue.[10]

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons, I ORDER that respondent's motion to dismiss the petition is GRANTED.

[10] The remainder of petitioner's claims, including claims of conflicts of interest, were not pled in the petition that was transmitted by the Department of Education to the OAL. They are thus not appropriate for disposition here.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Maria Castellitto, School District of the Township of North Bergen, Hudson County.

For the Petitioner, Jason M. Ryglicki, Esq.

No appearance by or on behalf of Respondent, Maria Castellitto

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on March 25, 2024, through tenure charges of unbecoming conduct certified by George Solter, Superintendent of the North Bergen School District ("District"), together with supporting evidence against respondent, Maria Castellitto, a tenured teaching staff member in the District's employ.

The District attempted to serve respondent with written notice of such certification at the respondent's last known address. However, a private investigator employed by the District to effectuate service was unable to locate respondent. The investigator's efforts included surveilling respondent's last known address and attempting to obtain information from other residents of that location; contacting respondent's daughter, who advised that respondent had been missing without contact for the past two years; visiting locations respondent was reported to have frequented; and contacting local police, who advised that they had not had contact with respondent since a welfare check conducted in 2022. The District also served copies of the tenure charges on the president and attorney of the District's teachers' union via regular and certified mail. No reply to the tenure charges was received from or on behalf of the respondent.

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.3 requires that tenure charges and related documents must be served on the respondent. However, that provision does not specify what occurs when a district is unable to effectuate service, so the Commissioner looks to the New Jersey Court Rules for guidance. Pursuant to N.J.Ct.R. 1:5-2, if no address is known for a party, despite diligent effort, the filing of papers with the clerk shall be deemed to satisfy the service requirement. The Commissioner concludes that the District made diligent efforts to effectuate service of the tenure charges upon respondent, and therefore accepts the filing of those charges with the Commissioner, through the Office of Controversies and Disputes, in satisfaction of the service requirement.

The certified tenure charges and statement of supporting evidence filed by the District in this matter indicate that the respondent was employed by the District as a tenured teacher. The charges indicate that following multiple instances of paranoid and troubled behavior, which led to at least two hospitalizations, the District placed respondent on medical leave and sought and was granted an Order compelling respondent to appear for a fitness for duty examination. Bd. of Educ. of the Twp. of North Bergen, Hudson Co. v. Maria Castellitto, Commissioner Decision No. 230-22E (decided Sept. 14, 2022). Respondent failed to appear for the examination and remains on medical leave. During this time, respondent has failed to perform the duties of her job.

Deeming the allegations to be admitted, the Commissioner finds that the District's charge of unbecoming conduct has been proven and warrants the respondent's dismissal. Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to the District, and the respondent is dismissed from her tenured position with the North Bergen School District. This matter will be transmitted to the State Board of Examiners for action against respondent's certificate(s) as that body deems appropriate.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE COLLEGE ACHIEVE GREATER ASBURY PARK CHARTER SCHOOL, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ASBURY PARK, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

Respondent.

Thomas O. Johnston, Esq. and Jaryda A. Gonzalez, Esq. for petitioner (Johnston Law Firm, LLC, attorneys)

Eric L. Harrison, Esq., and Kajal J. Patel, Esq. for respondent (Methfessel & Werbel, P.C., attorneys)

BEFORE KIMBERLEY M. WILSON, ALJ:

On or around March 20, 2024, petitioner Board of Trustees of the College Achieve Greater Asbury Park Charter School, Monmouth County (Charter School) filed a petition with the Commissioner of the Department of Education (DOE), requesting the Commissioner to direct the State Treasurer to remit payments that respondent Board of Education of the City of Asbury Park, Monmouth County (Board) owed the Charter School to it and to deduct those amounts from the district's state aid. On or around April 12, 2024, the Charter School filed a motion for emergent relief, a letter brief, and certifications with exhibits with the Commissioner of the DOE, Office of Controversies and Disputes. On or around April 15, 2024, the DOE transmitted this emergent matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13.

On or around April 16, 2024, the Board submitted a written response to the Charter School's motion for emergent relief. After a status conference on April 17, 2024, to determine whether the parties could resolve their differences amicably, the parties presented oral argument on the emergent motion on April 18, 2024. The record remained open to allow the parties to provide supplemental information to the ALJ on April 19, 2024.

On April 19, 2024, counsel for the Charter School advised that on or around April 18, 2024, the Board had remitted payment to the Charter School for the funds the Board owed the Charter School. Given these developments, I FIND that the issues raised in this motion have been rendered moot. Based on the representations from counsel during oral argument, there are contested issues in the petition that remain for decision. I CONCLUDE that the Charter School's motion is DISMISSED, but the petition is not dismissed.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the Charter School's motion for emergent relief be and hereby is DENIED. I further ORDER that the parties appear for an initial status conference for this matter on June 3, 2024, at 3:30 p.m. Our office will send separate notice of this status conference.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

AGENCY DKT. NO. 318-11/23

K.E. ON BEHALF OF THE MINOR CHILD J.C.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DENVILLE

Respondent.

Laura A. Siclari, Esq., for petitioner (Santomassimo Davis, attorneys)

Frances L. Febres, Esq., for respondent (Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri, Jacobs, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 16, 2024 Decided: April 16, 2024

BEFORE R. TALI EPSTEIN, ALJ:

On or about November 21, 2023, petitioner K.E. on behalf of minor child J.C. filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education challenging the residency determination by respondent Board of Education of the Township of Denville (Denville). The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the caption K.E. on behalf of minor children J.R. and J.C. v. Board of Education of the Township of Denville and Morris Hills Regional School District, Morris County, where it was filed for determination as a contested case under OAL Docket No. EDU 14258-23. On or about January 23, 2024, Denville filed an Answer and Counterclaim to the Petition of Appeal, which included a request for tuition and transportation costs.

During prehearing proceedings, petitioner and Denville advised the tribunal that they had reached an amicable resolution of their dispute. With the consent of the parties, by order dated April 15, 2024, the undersigned bifurcated the matter so that petitioner's claim regarding the minor child J.C. (and Denville's counterclaim) could proceed separately from petitioner's claim regarding the minor child J.R. (and the counterclaim asserted by Morris Hills Regional School District, Morris County). The bifurcation order directed that the matter against Denville, involving the minor child J.C., proceed under the caption K.E. on behalf of the minor child J.C. v. Board of Education of the Township of Denville, with OAL docket number EDU 14258-23, and that the matter against Morris Hills, involving the minor child J.R., proceed under the caption K.E. on behalf of the minor child J.R. v. Morris Hills Regional School District, Morris County, with OAL docket number EDU 04724-24.

Attached hereto is the executed Settlement Agreement and Stipulated Consent Judgment between petitioner and Denville and the certified resolution of the Denville Township Board of Education approving same.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified, or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify, or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION. Exceptions may be filed by email to ControversiesDisputesFilings@doe.nj.gov or by mail to Office of Controversies and Disputes, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500. A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

K.E. o/b/o minor children J.R. and J.C., Petitioner, v. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF DENVILLE and MORRIS HILLS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, Respondents.	STATE OF NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DOCKET NO. EDU 14258-2023 N AGENCY REF. NO. 318-11/23 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND STIPULATED CONSENT JUDGMENT BETWEEN PETITIONER AND DENVILLE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION

This Settlement Agreement and Stipulated Consent Judgment ("Agreement") is entered into by and between K.E., individually and o/b/o minor child, J.C. ("Petitioner") and the Denville Township Board of Education ("Board"), having administrative offices at 1 Saint Mary's Place, Denville, New Jersey 07834 (the Board and Petitioner are collectively referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, for the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 academic years, the minor child, J.C. (hereinafter referred to as the "Child") was enrolled in the Denville Township Public School District ("District"); and

WHEREAS, during the 2023-2024 school year, the school district obtained evidence that Petitioner had been residing and established her domicile in Springfield, New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, following notices to Petitioner and a residency hearing conducted by the Board of Education on October 30, 2023, during which Petitioner appeared and participated, the Denville Township Board of Education found that the Child was not domiciled in Denville, New Jersey but was domiciled instead in Springfield, New Jersey since, at least, April 25, 2023; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed the instant Petition of Appeal to dispute the Child's removal from the District; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Education filed an Answer and Counterclaim to the Petition of Appeal, seeking tuition and transportation associated with J.C.'s ineligible attendance; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have conferred and reached an amicable resolution to the issues between the Parties pertaining to the above-captioned matter, and as stated in the Parties' pleadings; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have each determined that this resolution is their respective best interest, without the need to spend further time and resources in proceeding to an administrative hearing.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and other good and sufficient consideration, and with no admission of liability or wrongdoing, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties now desire to memorialize the terms of their terms and conditions agreement in writing, as follows:

1. Petitioner agrees to pay the Board tuition in the amount of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) over a twenty-four month period beginning the first of the month following the Commissioner of Education's approval of this Settlement Agreement, in 24 equal installment payments of 208.33, with each such payment becoming due as of the 1st of the month in which it applies. For purposes of illustration, if the Commissioner of Education approves this Agreement on April 15, 2024, Petitioner's first tuition payment shall become due on May 1, 2024 and payment must be made by or before May 1, 2024, with each subsequent payment also becoming due on the 1st of each month to follow: June 1st, July 1st, etc.

a. Petitioner agrees that the Settlement Amount, which incorporates a reduction in the overall tuition and transportation costs owed, is contingent on Petitioner's timely payment of the first installment and each installment payment thereafter.

b. Should the Board not receive the first or any subsequent installment payment timely and/or in full by the date when each becomes due, the Petitioner will have the opportunity to "cure" the default in accordance with the terms and procedure set forth herein. Petitioner's failure to comply with the payment requirements shall result in Petitioner owing the Board of Education the full tuition and transportation costs it incurred as a result of J.C. attending its schools since, at least, April 25, 2023, as follows: Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) for the 2022-2023 school year tuition, Ten Thousand Dollars ("$10,000) for the 2023-2024 school year tuition, and transportation costs since April 25, 2023 in the amount of Twenty-Seven Thousand Nine Dollars and Eighty-Six Cents ($27,009.86), for a total owing amount of Thirty-Nine Thousand Nine Dollars and Eighty-Six Cents ($39,009.86).

c. All payments shall be made to the Board by personal or certified check, payable to the Denville Township Board of Education.

2. The Board shall terminate transportation services for J.C. effective April 15, 2024 or the date of the Commissioner of Education's decision approving this Agreement, whichever is later. Petitioner acknowledges that she is solely responsible for getting J.C. to and from schools, including school-related activities and events.

3. J.C. may continue attending the Denville Public Schools through June 30, 2024 and attend graduation.

a. J.C.'s ability to attend graduation and participate in other school-related activities is contingent on her adherence to the code of conduct for students, the student handbook, and Board Policies and Regulations governing student expectations, conduct and behavior.

4. J.C. will not attend the Denville Public Schools following June 30, 2024 unless Petitioner establishes and demonstrates that she and J.C. are domiciled within Denville Township, New Jersey.

5. By executing this Agreement, and without admitting any liability or wrongdoing, Petitioner acknowledges and confirms that, since at least April 25, 2023, she and J.C. were domiciled in Springfield, New Jersey and continues to be domiciled in Springfield, to date. Petitioner further acknowledges and agrees that her domicile in Springfield, New Jersey has provided her and J.C. with, and continues to provide her and J.C. with a fixed, regular and adequate residence since, at least, April 25, 2024, as that term is understood with respect to State and federal student residency and enrollment eligibility criteria under the law, whether Section 18A of the New Jersey Statutes Annotated, the Department of Education Administrative Code, the federal McKinney-Vento Act and/or other State or federal law that applies to students' eligibility to attend public school without payment of tuition or related costs, and which term and application has been explained to Petitioner and J.C. by their attorney.

6. In the event Petitioner fails to pay in accordance with the terms set forth in this Settlement Agreement and Stipulation:

a. Petitioner shall be given thirty (30) days from Notice of Default to cure same;

b. Thereafter, the Board may submit an ex parte certification to the Superior Court of New Jersey with notice to Petitioner, setting forth her failure to pay in accordance with the terms set forth herein with a consent judgment in the Denville Township Board of Education's favor, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "A," for entry by the court (the "Consent Judgment"), and which Consent Judgment the parties authorize their attorneys to execute on their behalf. The Consent Judgment shall be for the tuition and transportation costs incurred by the Denville Township Board of Education since April 25, 2023, the period when the parties agree that Petitioner and J.C. has been domiciled in Springfield, New Jersey, and which costs amount to Thirty-Nine Thousand Nine Dollars and Eighty-Six Cents ($39,009.86), less any payments made by Petitioner to the Board pursuant to Paragraph 1 (above);

i. The original, fully-executed Consent Judgement shall be maintained with the Board's Attorney and shall not be filed with the Superior Court until/unless required to effectuate the payment of the tuition, and only after Petitioner was provided with notice of her default and provided with time to cure any such default, as specified herein.

ii. Petitioner is authorizing her attorney to execute and deliver the signed Consent Judgment to the Board's Attorney within ten (10) days of Petitioner executing this Agreement. Petitioner understands and agrees that this is a condition of the instant Settlement Agreement.

iii. This Consent Judgment may be signed and dated in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and such counterparts shall together be one and the same Consent Judgment.

c. Petitioner waives all rights to contest entry of the Consent Judgment, an unexecuted copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A" to this Agreement. The Consent Judgment may be docketed with the Clerk of the Superior Court of New Jersey; and

d. No delay or omission on the part of the Board in exercising any right under this Stipulation will operate as a waiver of that right or of any other right under this Stipulation.

7. In consideration of the terms of this Agreement, Petitioner hereby waives, releases and indemnifies the Board, its employees, and agents from all possible claims, including claims that may be raised by J.C. and/or 3rd parties with standing, that have or may have been accrued against the Board arising out of events or incidents that relate to the Petition of Appeal in this matter. Nothing in this Release or Indemnification set forth in this Paragraph shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

8. In consideration of the terms of this Agreement, which includes, but is not limited to a significant reduction in the payment of costs associated with J.C.'s attendance and enrollment in the Denville Public Schools as a nonresident student domiciled in Springfield, New Jersey, the Petitioner, on behalf of herself and J.C., and their successors and assigns, hereby holds the Board harmless, indemnifies, and releases and waives all rights and claims that she or

J.C. may have against the Board, which includes the Board's past or present officers, employees, agents and representatives ("Releasees"), which may have arisen or did arise out of and/or could relate to J.C.'s enrollment and attendance at the Denville Public Schools through June 30, 2024, such as, but not limited to claims under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-12 et seq., Individuals with Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA"), 20 U.S.C. § 1400 et seq., Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. § 701, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-1 et seq., N.J.A.C. 6A:14-1.1 et seq., the New Jersey School Laws, the New Jersey State Constitution, any other federal, state or local law or ordinance, and/or any common law claim under tort, contract or any other theory now or hereafter recognized that relate to or arise under laws addressing the public education of students in New Jersey and/or the responsibilities of school boards and school officials to the students attending public schools. The release recited in this paragraph shall include any and all claims which Petitioner and J.C. may have had at the time of the execution of this Separation Agreement and General Release for any type of damages cognizable under any of the laws referenced herein, including, but not limited to, any and all claims for compensatory damages, compensatory services, related services, compensatory education, legal fees and/or expert costs, punitive damages, and/or attorneys' fees.

9. In consideration of Petitioners' release of the Board, and the other good, valuable and sufficient consideration recited herein, the Board releases and gives up any and all claims known and unknown and rights which it may presently have and be aware of against Petitioner and J.C. This release applies to claims resulting from anything which has happened up to now arising from or related to Petitioner's participation in J.C.'s education.

10. Petitioner acknowledges that she has had the opportunity to review this Agreement in detail with her Attorney. Petitioner fully understand its requirements and limitations. Petitioner hereby states that she is signing this Agreement voluntarily, of her own free will, and not under duress or coercion of any kind.

11. The Parties additionally agree that neither will, during the term of this Agreement or beyond, make disparaging statements, in any form, about each other, including the Board's employees, officers, agents and representatives, nor shall either party make statements, in any form, about the other which the party knows or has reason to believe, are false or misleading. Parties understand and agree that the prohibition against disparaging, false and/or misleading comments shall also apply to information set forth in school and student records. Parties recognize this as a material term of the Agreement.

12. Each party shall bear its or his/her own counsel fees incurred in connection with this matter, including any attorney's fees and legal costs. Neither party shall be considered a prevailing party for purposes of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA"), 20 U.S.C. § 1400 et seq., Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. § 794a, N.J.S.A. 18A:46-1 et seq., N.J.A.C. 6A:14-1.1 et seq., New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-12 et seq., the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. 12101 set seq., or any other statute, regulation, or other legal authority providing for the reimbursement of attorney's fees and costs. The Petitioner waives, on behalf of herself and J.C., the right to pursue an award of attorney's fees and costs under any of these fee-shifting statutes for all claims settled by this Agreement.

13. This Agreement shall be construed fairly according to the plain language of its terms and not for or against any party hereto.

14. All parties are bound by this Agreement and each of its provisions. Anyone who succeeds their rights and responsibilities, such as their successors and assigns are also bound.

This Agreement is made for the benefit of all parties hereto and all who succeed to their rights and responsibilities, and expressly includes their officials, representatives, employees, agents, attorneys, successors or assigns.

15. This Agreement is to be kept confidential by both parties to the maximum extent permitted by Law.

16. This Agreement represents the entire Agreement between the Parties and will not be modified in whole or in part except by a mutual subsequent written and signed agreement.

17. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey. The Parties agree that the courts of the State or District Court of New Jersey shall be the sole forum in which any legal action concerning or relating to this Agreement shall be brought.

18. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable by any court or regulatory authority having jurisdiction thereof, such ruling will not affect the validity of this Agreement; the remaining provisions shall continue to be in full force and effect.

19. This Agreement may be executed in one or more original, emailed or telecopied counterparts, all of which together shall be one instrument, and all of which shall be considered duplicate originals.

20. By signing this Agreement, the Petitioner and the Board each certify that (a) each has read the Agreement; (b) each has had the opportunity to discuss this Agreement with their respective attorneys; (c) each enters into this Agreement knowingly, willingly, and without coercion or improper inducement; and (d) both parties are satisfied with their legal representation in this matter.

21. This Agreement is conditioned upon and subject to the review and approval of an Administrative Law Judge, and the Denville Township Board of Education.

The parties hereby acknowledge their agreement to the terms set forth above by signing below.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Certificates of Nicole M. Maffucci, State Board of Examiners, New Jersey Department of Education.

Order of Suspension by the State Board of Examiners, dated October 27, 2023

For the Respondent-Appellant, Justin M. Schwam, Esq.

For the Petitioner-Respondent State Board of Examiners, Sadia Ahsanuddin, Deputy Attorney General (Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

The Commissioner has reviewed the record, hearing transcripts, and papers filed in connection with Nicole M. Maffucci's appeal of the Order of the State Board of Examiners (Board), dated October 27, 2023, suspending her Teacher of Elementary K-6 Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, Teacher of Elementary K-6 Standard Certificate, Teacher of Students with Disabilities Certificate of Eligibility, Teacher of Students with Disabilities Standard Certificate, and Supervisor Certificate for a period of one year.

On or about May 13, 2021, the Board issued an Order to Show Cause (OSC) regarding the suspension of appellant's certificates. The OSC alleged that appellant applied for a Principal Certificate in October 2020. After being advised by an examiner at the New Jersey Department of Education (Department) that her Record of Professional Experience (ROPE) form was deficient, appellant allegedly submitted a revised ROPE form to her employer for signature which contained inaccurate information. The OSC further alleged that appellant failed to notify her employer about the alterations she made to the ROPE form and indicated only that it required a signature and submission to the Department.

Although the ROPE form instructions state that the employer must complete Parts B, C, and D, it is uncontested that appellant filled out the ROPE forms herself (except for the employer's signature line). The record reflects that the ROPE form rejected as deficient by the Department's examiner, which was submitted in February 2021, listed her "Successful Professional Experience" in Part B as follows:

Position Held	Name of certificate required for this position	If Teacher, indicate subject taught	Grade Level	Start Date	End Date	Check One: Full-Time | Part-Time (50% or more) (less than 50%)
Special Education Teacher	Teacher of Students with Disabilities	Social Studies	9-12	12/1/14	Current	X

Part C of the February 2021 ROPE form, "Teacher Evaluation," stated that appellant's district evaluated her as a Special Education Teacher in 2016-2017, 2017-2018, 2018-2019, and 2019-2020, rating her as "4 – highly effective" in each school year.

Because appellant did not receive her Teacher of Students with Disabilities Standard Certificate until 2018, the Department's examiner advised appellant that Part B experience prior to 2018 needed to be under her Teacher of Elementary K-6 Standard Certificate and asked whether she had any additional experience under that certificate. This inquiry prompted appellant to prepare a revised ROPE form.

In March 2021, appellant prepared a revised ROPE form listing her "Successful Professional Experience" in Part B as follows:

Position Held	Name of certificate required for this position	If Teacher, indicate subject taught	Grade Level	Start Date	End Date	Check One: Full-Time | Part-Time (50% or more) (less than 50%)
Teacher	Elementary School Teacher K-6	Social Studies	6	12/1/14	6/8/18	X
Teacher	Teacher of Students with Disabilities	Social Studies	9-12	6/8/18	Current	X

Part C of the March 2021 ROPE form, "Teacher Evaluation," stated that appellant's employer evaluated her as a 6th grade Social Studies teacher in 2016-2017 and 2017-2018, rating her as "4 – highly effective." It further stated that appellant's employer evaluated her as a Special Education teacher in 2018-2019 and 2019-2020, rating her as "4 – highly effective."

During the contested hearing at the OAL, appellant admitted, contrary to what the March 2021 ROPE form indicated, that she never taught 6th grade on a full-time basis and was not evaluated by her employer specifically as a 6th grade Social Studies teacher. However, she credibly testified that she taught a group of 6th through 8th grade students during the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 school years in U.S. Government and World Geography classes while also teaching high school Social Studies to grades 9 through 12. She produced copies of schedules from 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 which stated that she taught U.S. Government, among other courses, in 2016-2017 and World Geography, among other courses, in 2017-2018, several days per week. Two district administrators who supervised appellant between 2016 and 2020, whom the ALJ also found to be credible, testified that appellant never taught 6th grade.

Ultimately, the ALJ found that appellant had taught Social Studies classes (U.S. Government and World Geography) to 6th through 8th graders in addition to having taught Social Studies to high school students. The ALJ further found that the "errors" on appellant's March 2021 ROPE form "do not constitute a knowing and willful effort to misrepresent her credentials, but an inadvertent error in compilation of the information in the documentation." Initial Decision, at 16. The ALJ also noted the "lack of oversight by administration and abrogation of administration's responsibility in preparing the forms." Ibid.

Additionally, without expressly stating that appellant had committed unbecoming conduct, the ALJ concluded that a three-month suspension of appellant's certificates was warranted because she "unintentionally submitted inaccurate information in her certificate application." Id. at 19. The ALJ cited appellant's confusion over how to fill out the ROPE form and the fact that she "stated on a form that she teaches sixth grade social studies, and she does in fact teach history courses to sixth graders." Ibid. In the end, the ALJ characterized appellant's actions as "an honest and minor mistake." Ibid.

Upon considering appellant's exceptions and the Board's reply thereto, the Board voted to adopt the ALJ's findings of fact and to find unbecoming conduct based upon those facts. Additionally, the Board voted to modify the Initial Decision to impose a one-year suspension of appellant's certificates effective October 27, 2023. In determining the appropriate sanction, the Board found In the Matter of the Certificates of Calvin J. Williams, Jr., OAL Dkt. No. EDE 3889-94, State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 241 (May 18, 1995), to be instructive. It rejected the ALJ's reasoning that: (1) appellant was a much less "seasoned" teacher than Williams, who had nearly 25 years of teaching experience; and that (2) her misrepresentation was more ambiguous than that in Williams, as Williams submitted documents implying he held a certificate he did not have. The Board concluded that appellant, who began teaching in 2014, was no less of a "seasoned" teacher than Williams. Order of Suspension, at 5. Moreover, the Board emphasized that appellant "misrepresented her experience with regard to the capacity her certifications authorized her to teach." Ibid.

On appeal, appellant maintains that no action should be taken against her certificates. She asserts that the facts as found by the ALJ do not support a finding of unbecoming conduct as she made an honest mistake on a draft ROPE form that was never submitted to the Department in support of her Principal Certificate application. Moreover, even if the facts supported a finding of unbecoming conduct, appellant argues that the Board unreasonably quadrupled the sanction from a three-month suspension to a one-year suspension of her certificates based upon the Williams case, which is distinguishable from the present matter.

In response, the Board argues that its decision was reasonable and supported by sufficient, credible evidence in the record. It emphasizes that appellant misrepresented her teaching experience on the March 8, 2021, ROPE form as she never taught 6th grade on a full-time basis between 2014 and 2018 and admitted same during the contested hearing. In reply, appellant requests that the Board's letter brief be stricken as it was overlength by four pages in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.9(b); the Board ignored rule N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.8(d)(4); the Board failed to include an appendix in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.10(a); and the Board improperly attached exhibits.[1]

[1] The Commissioner denies appellant's request to strike the Board's letter brief. See N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.4(a).

In reviewing appeals from decisions of the State Board of Examiners, the Commissioner may not substitute his judgment for that of the Board so long as the appellant received due process and the Board's decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record. The Commissioner's role in reviewing appeals is constrained by N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a), which specifies that "the Commissioner shall ascertain whether the decision is supported by sufficient credible evidence in the record and shall not disturb the decision unless the appellant has demonstrated that the State Board of Examiners . . . acted in a manner that was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law." The Commissioner finds that sufficient, credible evidence in the record supports the Board's determination that appellant committed unbecoming conduct.

"Conduct unbecoming" is an "elastic" concept that includes "conduct which adversely affects the morale or efficiency" of the public entity or "which has a tendency to destroy public respect for [public] employees and confidence in the operation of [public] services." In re Emmons, 63 N.J. Super. 136, 140 (App. Div. 1960). Accord Bound Brook Bd. of Educ. v. Ciripompa, 228 N.J. 4, 13 (2017). To maintain public confidence in the integrity of the Department's issuance of certificates to school employees, applicants must adhere to the Department's procedures and follow instructions. Here, although the ROPE form instructions state that Parts B, C, and D must be completed by the employer, appellant drafted both the February and March 2021 ROPE forms herself. She should not have done so. Moreover, appellant admitted during the contested hearing that she never taught 6th grade on a full-time basis. And yet, the March 2021 ROPE form she drafted indicates that she taught 6th grade on a full-time basis between December 2014 and June 2018. That is inaccurate. Furthermore, appellant indicated on the March 2021 ROPE form that she was evaluated as a 6th grade Social Studies teacher in 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 and rated as highly effective in that area. That, too, is inaccurate.

Appellant's reliance upon In the Matter of the Certificates of Sally Anne Mesh, OAL Dkt. No. EDE 8424-04 (Initial Decision Jan. 30, 2006), State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 0304-232 (May 10, 2006), is unpersuasive as that matter did not involve an application for a certificate. Mesh's employer questioned her use of "PhD" and EdD" on some Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) after her signature, as its files did not reflect that she held a doctorate degree, and it could not verify that she had obtained same. No evidence was produced at the contested hearing to dispute the authenticity of the doctorate degrees Mesh represented that she held. Thus, her use of "PhD" and "EdD" on IEPs was not proven to be inaccurate, and the Board concluded that the action to suspend or revoke her certificates should be dismissed. Here, appellant admitted that the March 2021 ROPE form she drafted contained inaccurate information and the Board found that her actions in this regard constituted unbecoming conduct. Even if the Commissioner would have decided the matter differently, he is not permitted to substitute his judgment for that of the Board so long as the Board's decision is supported by sufficient, credible evidence. N.J.A.C. 6A:4-4.1(a).

However, the Commissioner concurs with appellant that a one-year suspension of her certificates is unreasonable in light of the mitigating circumstances present in this case and because Williams, upon which the Board primarily relied, is factually distinguishable. Appellant's supervisor directed her to complete the ROPE forms and, as found by the ALJ, abrogated the employer's responsibilities in that regard. Appellant revised the ROPE form following an email exchange with a Department examiner who asked whether she had other teaching experience under her Teacher of Elementary K-6 Standard Certificate. At that point, she recalled that she taught Social Studies to 6th grade students between 2014 and 2018. As the ALJ found, appellant's confusion about whether to include this information on the ROPE form is understandable.

While the March 2021 ROPE form did contain inaccurate information, appellant did not fail to notify her employer about the alterations to the form as alleged in the OSC, nor did she tell her supervisor only that it required a signature and submission to the Department. Appellant was transparent with her supervisor and, when questioned, explained why she added the 6th grade teaching experience to the March 2021 ROPE form. In fact, the record reflects that appellant was clearly confused about how to complete the ROPE form and was engaged in dialogue with both Department staff and her supervisor about how to proceed. Appellant never submitted the March 2021 ROPE form to the Department, and she expressed to her supervisor during their email exchange that she did not expect her to sign it if she believed it to be inaccurate.

In addition, the Board's reliance upon Williams in support of its one-year suspension of appellant's certificates is misplaced. Williams negligently submitted fraudulent information to the Department in pursuit of a School Administrator Certificate, which he ultimately received despite his ineligibility. The documents he submitted to the Department implied that he held a certificate he did not have. Finding that his actions harmed the integrity of the teacher certification system, the Board revoked his School Administrator Certificate and suspended his other certificates for two years. In contrast, here, appellant neither submitted fraudulent information to the Department nor received a Principal Certificate under false pretenses. She did not submit documents to the Department implying that she held a certificate that she did not have. Furthermore, it was unreasonable for the Board to conclude that appellant, who began her teaching career in 2014, is "no less of a 'seasoned' teacher" than Williams, who had nearly 25 years of teaching experience. Order of Suspension, at 5. It is also noted that appellant has never been disciplined as an educator before and was generally regarded as an excellent teacher.

Accordingly, the Commissioner finds that a three-month suspension of appellant's certificates is appropriate given the nature and extent of the unbecoming conduct at issue. The decision of the State Board of Examiners is modified to reduce the sanction imposed for appellant's unbecoming conduct from a one-year suspension, effective October 27, 2023, to a three-month suspension, effective October 27, 2023.[2]

IN THE MATTER OF	:	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF	:	STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
NICOLE M. MAFFUCCI	:	ORDER OF SUSPENSION
_____	:	DOCKET NO: 2021-163

At its meeting of May 13, 2021, the State Board of Examiners (Board) reviewed information it received from the Rutgers Day School (Rutgers) regarding Nicole M. Maffucci (Maffucci).

Maffucci currently is the holder of a Teacher of Elementary K-6 Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, a standard Teacher of Elementary K-6 certificate, a Teacher of Students with Disabilities Certificate of Eligibility, a standard Teacher of Students with Disabilities certificate, and a Supervisor certificate. In October 2020, Maffucci submitted an application for Principal certification to the Board. On May 13, 2021, the Board voted to block Maffucci's application and notified Maffucci on June 29, 2021 of its decision. On May 13, 2021, the Board also voted to issue an Order to Show Cause to Maffucci as to why her certificates should not be revoked or suspended. The Order to Show Cause was served upon Maffucci on June 29, 2021. Maffucci answered the Order to Show Cause on July 27, 2021. The Board transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on August 2, 2021 for hearing as a contested case. The matter was heard before Administrative Law Judge Carl V. Buck, III (ALJ) on May 4, 6, and July 18, 2022. The record closed on April 13, 2023. In the Matter of the Certificates of Nicole M. Maffucci, Dkt. No. EDE 06423-2021 (Initial Decision, June 29, 2023).

After reviewing the testimony and the record, the ALJ found that from 2014 to 2018, Maffucci was employed at the Rutgers Day School teaching special needs grades six to twelve. (Initial Decision, slip op. at p. 15). A substantial portion of Maffucci's schedule was dedicated to teaching a class of sixth through eighth graders social studies courses including U.S. government and world geography. Id. In addition, Maffucci taught basic skills and history courses to high schoolers. Id. Throughout her tenure, respondent has consistently received good performance reviews and has never had a negative issue with either State regulations or the school's rules. Id.

On February 23, 2021, Maffucci applied for social studies and principal certificates. Id. Included in the application was a ROPE form in which respondent listed her experience as a special education teacher from 2016 to 2020. Maffucci's application was returned to her as deficient because, although she performed the same functions from 2016 to 2020, she did not receive her teacher of students with disabilities certificate until 2018. Maffucci thereafter revised the ROPE form and submitted the same to her supervisor on March 8, 2021, noting that she taught social studies to sixth graders from 2014 to 2018. Id. At 16. Maffucci's supervisor refused to sign the new ROPE form and reported the changed form to the Board. Ibid.

The ALJ ultimately found that the lack of oversight by the administration at Rutgers Day School and its abrogation of responsibilities in preparing the forms, Maffucci's errors in those submission do not constitute a knowing and willing to misrepresent her credentials, but an inadvertent error in compilation of the information in the documentation. Id. The ALJ determined that Maffucci unintentionally submitted inaccurate information in her certificate application. Id. At 19. The ALJ concluded that a three-month suspension of Maffucci's certificates was warranted. Id.

The Deputy Attorney General (DAG) representing the Board filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision. The DAG argued that the facts found by the ALJ warrant a finding of unbecoming conduct and that a penalty of suspension longer than the three motions imposed by the ALJ was warranted. DAG Exceptions at pg.1. The DAG noted that Maffucci taught social studies to grades nine through twelve when Maffucci started at Rutgers in 2014 and was evaluated as a special education teacher for grades nine through twelve and this occurred for the 2014-2015, 2015-2016, 2016-2017, and 2017-2018 school years. Id. At 3. As such, Maffucci was not assigned to teach sixth grade in any of those years on a full-time basis and that Maffucci was not evaluated for teaching sixth grade social studies for 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 school years. Ibid. The DAG further noted that Maffucci was evaluated for grades nine through twelve and that she was not evaluated for teaching sixth grade social studies for the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 school years and that it is not possible for an individual to be evaluated as sixth grade teacher and a ninth to twelfth grade teacher simultaneously in the same school year. Id. At 6. The DAG argues that the ALJ's conclusion that it is possible for both ROPE forms to be accurate is in error because there was no evidence in the record to support the finding that Maffucci taught sixth grade for the 2014-2015 and 2015-2016 school years. Id. At 11. As such, the DAG argues, Maffucci's conduct at issue does in fact amount to intentional deceit and that the testimony evidence as a whole establishes that Maffucci is culpable of conduct unbecoming that warrants a suspension for longer than three months. Ibid.

Maffucci filed Exceptions to the Initial Decision. In the exceptions, Maffucci does not challenge the factual findings in the Initial Decision, but takes exception to the imposition of a three month suspension. Maffucci Exceptions at pg.1. Maffucci argues that the ALJ rejected the Board's charge that Maffucci had engaged in conduct unbecoming conduct and as such no penalty is warranted. Id. At 2. Maffucci argues that the ALJ rejected the assertion that Maffucci acted with deceit and that the Board's evaluation of the circumstances was based upon a faulty understanding of the ROPE form and Mafffucci's intent. Id. At 9. Maffucci argues that despite this finding, the ALJ inexplicably recommended a three month suspension for what the ALJ found to be Maffucci's "honest and minor mistake." Id. At 5. Maffucci notes that Respondent was not found to have engaged in any unbecoming or unethical conduct and that the Initial Decision does not contain such a finding. Ibid. Maffucci further notes hat the ALJ relied upon In re Certificate of Calvin J. Williams, Jr., EDE 3889-94, final decision, (October 5, 1995), for the imposition of the suspension. Maffucci argues that reliance upon this case was misplaced, as said case involved an allegation of negligence, while she was accused of fraud, which was not proven. Id. At 6. Maffucci argues that In the Matter of the Certificates of Sally Anne Mesh, OAL Dkt. No. EDE 8424-04, at *5–6 (January 30, 2006), is more applicable to the facts here and should lead to a similar result. Ibid.

Maffucci submitted a response to the DAG's Exceptions. As an initial matter, Maffucci argues that the DAG's exceptions exceeded the brief length as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.17(b). Maffucci Reply to DAG's Exceptions at pg.1. Maffucci notes that the record does not reflect that the DAG did not obtain or request written permission to file the overlength brief and as such it should be stricken. Id. at 1-2. As to the merits, Maffucci argues that the DAG's exceptions do not attack any of the ALJ's material factual findings, but rather utilizes irrelevant issues to attack the ALJ's conclusion that Maffucci testified credibly and that Maffuci's errors on the ROPE form did not arise out of a motivation to deceive anyone. Id. at 2. Further, Maffucci argues that the ALJ's determination is premised on the finding that Maffucci only completed the ROPE forms because the District "abrogated their responsibility" to her has the employer and that this finding was wholly supported by the record and that Maffucci was neither trained or responsible for knowing how to complete a ROPE form. Id. at 3-4. Maffucci argues that a review of the record and the caselaw dealing with certificate holders who simply made documentation errors that were found to be reasonable under the circumstances, and under the principals of fairness, the Board should reject the ALJ's recommended sanction of a three-month suspension and dismiss the Order to Show Cause with prejudice. Id. at 7.

The Board must now determine whether to adopt, modify or reject the Initial Decision in this matter. At its meeting of September 21, 2023, the Board reviewed the Initial Decision, Exceptions and Reply Exceptions. After full and fair consideration of the Decision and the other submissions, the Board voted to adopt the findings of fact contained in the Initial Decision, find unbecoming conduct based on the facts determined by the ALJ and modify the decision to impose a one year suspension of Maffucci's certificates. The Board denies to Maffucci's request that the DAG's exceptions brief be stricken for failure to comply with N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.7(b) and (c). The failure to conform with the procedural requirement was (1) de minis; and (2) Maffucci had the opportunity to reply to the DAG's exceptions and the Board finds that Maffucci did not allege that she any prejudice due to the overlength exceptions brief and as such, the Board finds that Maffucci suffers no prejudice by the Board's consideration of the overlength exceptions brief.

Educators must be held to a particularly "high standard of conduct because of the influence they exercise over the students." State Bd. of Exam'rs v. Charlton, 96 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDE) 18, 21; see also In re Tyler, 13 N.J.A.R. 297, 308. Teachers are "professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of . . . school children. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." Tenure of Sammons, 1972

S.L.D. 302, 321. "That school authorities have the right and the duty to screen the officials, teachers, and employees as to their fitness to maintain the integrity of the schools as part of ordered society, cannot be doubted." In re Grossman, 127 N.J. Super. 13, 30 (App. Div. 1974) (citation omitted).

There is no doubt that the ALJ is in the best position to render credibility determinations in this matter. Accordingly, the Board will defer to those credibility findings. Furthermore, the Board agrees with the ALJ that Maffucci's conduct warrants action against her certificates. The ALJ found the case In re Certificate of Calvin J.Williams, Jr., EDE 3889-94, Final Decision (October 5, 1995) to be instructive in determining the appropriate sanction, but decided that the two-year suspension given to Williams for unintentionally submitting inaccurate information was too harsh in this instance. Id. at 19. In concluding that Maffucci's suspension should be for three months, the ALJ noted that Williams was a "seasoned" teacher of 25 years and submitted documents implying he held a certificate he did not have while Maffucci was a much less "seasoned" teacher and her misrepresentation was more ambiguous. Id. However, the Board disagrees with the ALJ's reasoning regarding an appropriate sanction because Maffucci, who has been teaching since 2014, is arguably no less of a "seasoned" teacher than Williams. Furthermore, though the ALJ characterizes Maffucci's misrepresentation as more ambiguous than Williams', it does not negate that Maffucci misrepresented her experience with regard to the capacity her certifications authorized her to teach.

Accordingly, on September 21, 2023, the Board voted to adopt the adopt the factual findings in the Initial Decision, find unbecoming conduct and modify the penalty to a one-year suspension of Maffucci's certificates. On this 27th day of October 2023, the Board formally adopts the factual findings in the initial decision, finds unbecoming conduct, and modifies as to the penalty. It is therefore ORDERED that Nicole M. Maffucci's Teacher of Elementary K-6 Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing, standard Teacher of Elementary K-6 certificate, Teacher of Students with Disabilities Certificate of Eligibility, standard Teacher of Students with Disabilities certificate, and Supervisor certificate are hereby suspended for one year, effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that Maffucci return her certificates to the Petitioner appealed a May 2, 2023 final decision by the respondent Board which confirmed that acts of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) had been perpetrated against his minor son at Westwood Regional High School on October 4 and October 5, 2022. Petitioner's appeal, which was filed on November 6, 2023, sought financial damages from the Board in addition to the discipline imposed upon the students involved in the HIB incidents. The Board filed a motion to dismiss, contending that the petition was submitted more than 90 days after the issuance of the final decision in this matter and is therefore untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i).

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the timeline of events in this case is effectively undisputed; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16, petitioner's appeal was required to be filed no later than July 31, 2023, which was 90 days from the issuance of the Board's final decision in the HIB matter; however, petitioner's appeal was not filed until November 6, 2023, after his attorney perfected the submission by providing proof of service to the Board; even if the appeal had been marked "FILED" on the date it was received by the Department of Education's Office of Controversies and Disputes, i.e., August 9, 2023, it was still received beyond July 31, 2023; and there is insufficient evidence to demonstrate that the ninety-day deadline as delineated in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16 should be relaxed. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss and ordered the petitioner's appeal dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the petitioner's appeal was untimely filed. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal was dismissed.

Final Decision

R.P., on behalf of minor child, S.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Westwood Regional School District, Bergen County, Jill Mortimer, Frank Connelly, Heather Goffe, Michael Kenduck, Chris Mello, Dan Vivino, Shelley Laforgia, Margaret Montenare, and Andrew Phillips, Respondents.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by the petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto, have been reviewed and considered.[1]

In this matter, petitioner challenges the May 2, 2023 harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) determination made by the Westwood Regional School District Board of Education (Board) regarding HIB actions perpetrated by five Westwood Regional High School students against petitioner's minor child on October 4 and October 5, 2022.

Petitioner, through his attorney, mailed the petition of appeal on July 28, 2023; it was received by the Office of Controversies and Disputes (C&D), which processes petitions on behalf of the Commissioner, on August 9, 2023. That same day, C&D emailed petitioner's attorney to inform him that he must provide proof that the petition was served on the Board and the full names of petitioner and his minor child. No response was received, and a follow-up email was sent by C&D to petitioner's attorney on August 28, 2023, advising petitioner's attorney that the petition would not be processed until C&D received proof of service and the full names of the parties. Again, no response was received, and a formal deficiency notice was emailed and mailed to petitioner's attorney on October 2, 2023. Petitioner's attorney mailed the proof of service and names of the parties on October 27, 2023, and it was received by C&D on November 6, 2023.

Following the Board's motion to dismiss, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that the petition of appeal was untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). The ALJ found that the petition of appeal was due by July 31, which was 90 days after the Board's disclosure of its HIB determination. However, the petition was not received by C&D until August 9. Furthermore, the petition was deficient and, despite being notified of same, petitioner's attorney did nothing to address the deficiency until C&D advised on October 2 that the matter would be automatically closed if proof of service was not provided by October 31. The ALJ noted that petitioner's attorney did not send the proof of service until October 27, and purportedly did so "By Priority Express Mail," although no such service is offered by the United States Postal Service (USPS), and the mailing included no tracking information or proof of delivery. When C&D finally received the proof of service on November 6, 188 days had passed since the Board's determination, and 89 days had passed since petitioner's attorney was first notified of the deficiency in the original filing. The ALJ found that "this was not timely under any interpretation of 'timely submitted'." Initial Decision at 16 (internal citation omitted). Finally, the ALJ concluded that there was no basis to relax the 90-day deadline. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition.

In his exceptions, petitioner argues that mail sent on July 28 should have been received the Department of Education (DOE) by July 31, and that if the DOE did not receive the appeal until after that date, there must have been some sort of delay by the USPS or a backlog at the DOE, for which petitioner should not be held responsible. Petitioner contends that the August 2023 email notices sent by C&D did not provide a deadline to provide proof of service and, when a deadline was ultimately given, petitioner complied with it.

In reply, the Board urges the Commissioner to adopt the Initial Decision in its entirety and to dismiss the petition of appeal as untimely.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petition of appeal was untimely filed. Initially, the record demonstrates that petitioner's original submission was untimely. Although petitioner asserts that his mailing of July 28 should have been received by July 31, the fact remains that the petition must be filed by the due date and filing means "receipt . . . by an appropriate officer of the Department," as provided for in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2. Mailing a petition via regular mail on a Friday, when it must be received by Monday, risks running afoul of the deadline. Petitioner could have availed himself of faster mail services to ensure receipt by July 31, or taken advantage of the recommended option to file by electronic mail, which is permitted by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.2, but he neglected to do so.[2]

[2] Indeed, C&D's website clearly indicates that "it is strongly encouraged that all filings and general correspondence be submitted electronically." See https://www.nj.gov/education/cd/ (last visited April 10, 2024).

Furthermore, petitioner's original submission was deficient, such that even if it had been received by July 3, it would not have been filed on that date. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3 clearly requires that a petitioner must file proof of service along with the petition and supporting materials. In the absence of proof of service, a petition is not "filed." There is no dispute here that petitioner failed to provide proof of service with his original filing.[3] The petition was filed by petitioner's counsel, who should have been well aware of the regulatory requirements; proof of service is not a requirement unique to the DOE or the administrative dispute resolution process. Moreover, petitioner offers no explanation for his failure to respond to communications from C&D regarding the deficiency for almost three months.[4]

The Commissioner rejects petitioner's argument that by failing to list a specific deadline in its communications, C&D was invoking N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16 and was relaxing the rules for proof of service. To the contrary, all communications from C&D indicated that the petition would not be processed until proof of service was received.

Nor is this matter similar to T.R. and T.R. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Bridgewater-Raritan Reg. Sch. Dist., Commissioner Decision No. 269-13 (decided July 22, 2013). In T.R., a deficient petition was received by the DOE within 90 days of the date of the decision at issue, and the DOE notified the petitioners that if the deficiencies were timely corrected, that date would be deemed the filing date of the appeal. Here, the original petition was not received within 90 days of the date of the decision at issue. Furthermore, in this matter, C&D did not indicate to petitioner that timely correction of the deficiency would affect the filing date of the petition.

[3] The original submission also failed to provide petitioner's name and the name of the child on whose behalf the petition was filed, which is required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.4.

[4] The emails were sent to the email address listed on petitioner's attorney's letterhead, and there has been no assertion that the emails were not received.

Additionally, under no circumstances can 89 days from first notice to filing of the proof of service be considered a timely correction. Finally, the petitioners in T.R. were pro se, and therefore were afforded more leeway, while the petition in this matter was filed by an attorney.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[5]

BEFORE MATTHEW G. MILLER, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, R.P., the parent of minor child S.P., has challenged the decision made by the respondent, Westwood Regional School District Board of Education, Bergen County, et al. (respondent or Board), concerning its determination of a harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB) complaint made against non-party students that was brought per N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.2 et seq. (the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On October 4 and 5, 2022, five students at Westwood High School are alleged to have hacked S.P.'s Google Classroom account and posted "slurs based on religion, race, disability, sexual orientation, gender and national origin" directed at multiple individuals and groups. On December 28, 2022, petitioner filed a Notice of Claim[1] with respondent concerning this occurrence (and others) and were advised by letter dated January 6, 2023, that an HIB investigation had been instituted by the District.

On February 1, 2023, the District advised petitioner that an HIB violation had been found and that the following measures had been taken; "Student Counseling, Student Conference, and Parent Conference." On March 1, 2023, petitioner notified respondent "that they were exercising their right to have the claim considered by the Board of Education."

On April 27, 2023, petitioner met with the Board of Education and on May 2, 2023, respondent's Final Decision on the HIB complaint was emailed to R.P. On July 28, 2023, petitioner sent its appeal of the determination to all parties via regular mail. The appeal was marked as "received" by the Department of Education's Office of Controversies and Disputes (OC&D) on August 9, 2023. That same day, OC&D emailed petitioner's counsel and notified him that the petition was deficient. A follow-up email was sent by OC&D to counsel on August 28, 2023. A formal deficiency notice was then sent to counsel by the

[1] Apparently, a claim filed per N.J.S.A. 59:1-1, the New Jersey Tort Claims Act.

Department of Education (DOE) on October 2, 2023. On October 27, 2023, petitioner responded to the October 2, 2023, email, providing the missing documentation and forwarding same "By Priority Express Mail." The appeal was then noted to be filed as of November 6, 2023.

The DOE acknowledged the November 6, 2023, filing of the appeal petition on November 13, 2023, and on December 5, 2023, a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer was filed by respondent. That filing was acknowledged by the DOE on December 6, 2023, and the Department transmitted this matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on December 12, 2023, for a hearing as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On or about December 15, 2023, petitioner filed opposition to the Motion to Dismiss, and submitted additional opposition on January 9, 2024. An initial conference was held on January 18, 2024, and on January 29, 2024, respondent filed a reply brief, at which time the record closed.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The basic facts and nature of the case are not in dispute. S.P. was a student at Westwood High School when on October 4 and October 5, 2022, five students are alleged to have utilized his Student Identification Number to gain control of his Google Classroom account and thereafter posted "hateful speech in [his] name to other students and to S.P.'s teachers, including, but not limited to religious, ethnic, and gender slurs." (Exhibit P-C.)

On December 28, 2022, petitioner reached out to respondent and was advised that an HIB investigation had already been opened per N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.2. Ultimately, the petitioner was advised by letter dated February 1, 2023 that it had been determined the five students had indeed committed acts of HIB and that the remedial actions taken had been "Student Counseling, Student Conference, and Parent Conference." (Exhibit P-A.)

Following the receipt of that letter, petitioner exercised his right per N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d), for a hearing before the Westwood Board of Education. Following that hearing, on May 2, 2023, the District emailed petitioner a letter advising of the Board's final determination to uphold the original finding. The letter also advised petitioner of his right to appeal the decision and the time frame in which to do so. (Exhibit P-B.)

MOTION

Respondent has filed a Motion to Dismiss the appeal of the HIB determination, arguing that petitioner failed to comply with the ninety-day time limit encoded in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) to appeal the actions taken by it concerning the HIB complaint.

If respondent prevails on this motion, it is argued that the merits of the case are never reached and that the appeal must be dismissed.

Petitioner opposes the motion for reasons that will be set forth below and argues that his appeal was timely served.

I emphasize that the decision on this motion should not be interpreted as a reflection that any conclusions have been reached concerning the underlying merit of petitioner's claims.

LEGAL ARGUMENTS

RESPONDENT:

Respondent argues that petitioner failed to comply with the ninety-day time limit encoded in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(e) and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) to appeal the result of the HIB investigation and that per N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(c), this statutory requirement cannot be relaxed or disregarded.

More specifically, it is argued that from May 2, 2023 (the acknowledged day that petitioner was advised of the Board's final decision), it took 188 days, until November 6, 2023, for the appeal to be filed and that petitioner unduly and unjustifiably delayed the filing despite having multiple opportunities to correct the initial deficiency.

Respondent further argues that case law supports its position that a deficient filing does not toll the ninety-day deadline. T.R. ex rel. E.R. v. Bridgewater-Raritan Reg'l Sch. Dist., 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 523 (July 22, 2013); DeMario v. State Bd. of Exam'rs, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 192 (April 17, 2012), aff'd, Comm'r (May 11, 2012).

PETITIONER:

Petitioner argues that his appeal was filed and served on timely basis, "on or before July 31, 2023," and was therefore compliant with the timing dictates of N.J.A.C. 6A:3, et seq.

Petitioner noted:

> On August 9, 2023, the NJDOE acknowledged by email that it had received Petitioners' Petition of Appeal . . . . That email acknowledgment was three months before the date on which Respondents contend that Petitioners filed their Petition of Appeal, i.e., November 6, 2023. Resp. Ltr., second page, first full paragraph. In other words, the District claims that Petitioners did not file their Petition of Appeal until three months after the NJDOE acknowledged that it had received that very petition.

Petitioner claims that by forwarding the appeal to the OAL, the DOE was acknowledging that the appeal was timely filed and cites the same cases as respondent in support of his position.

TIMELINE

Perhaps the best way to understand the issues raised by this motion is to create a timeline from the onset of the events in question to the disclosure of the results of the HIB investigation by the school on February 1, 2023, and through the forwarding of the matter to the OAL. There is no real dispute as to the timeline below.

10/04/22 & 10/05/22—Incident(s) occur.

12/28/23—Filing of "Notice of Claim" by petitioner.

01/06/23—Westwood superintendent confirms investigation has been instituted.

02/01/23—Letter from superintendent to R.P. conveying results of the HIB investigation. (Exhibit P-A.)

LAW AND ANALYSIS

The regulation concerning appeals is N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), which reads as follows:

> Filing and service of petition of appeal - The petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing. This rule shall not apply in instances where a specific statute, regulation, or court order provides for a period of limitation shorter than 90 days for the filing of a particular type of appeal.
> [Emphasis added.]

This rule (along with others in this chapter of the Administrative Code) can be "relaxed or dispensed with by the Commissioner, in the Commissioner's discretion, in any case where a strict adherence thereto may be deemed inappropriate or unnecessary or may result in injustice." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16.

Specifically, as to the filing of HIB appeals, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(e) reads as follows:

> at the next board of education meeting following its receipt of the report pursuant to subparagraph (c) of paragraph (6) of this subsection, the board shall issue a decision, in writing, to affirm, reject, or modify the superintendent's decision. The board's decision may be appealed to the Commissioner of Education, in accordance with the procedures set forth in law and regulation, no later than 90 days after the issuance of the board's decision . . . .
>
> [Emphasis added.]

Further, per N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(c):

> Statutory procedural requirements shall not be relaxed or disregarded except when permitted by the controlling Federal or State statutes.

In the realm of "failure to timely appeal" cases, the complexity of the issues here is more limited than usual. Most importantly, there is no dispute that May 2, 2023, is the date that petitioner received notice of the final determination on the HIB complaint and was further made aware of the ninety-day deadline in which to final an appeal of same.

Further limiting the scope of this decision is petitioner's argument that the deadline was met, not that the ninety-day time limitation should be relaxed.

As a baseline and before delving into the facts of the case, the purposes of the ninety-day limitation were reviewed in the seminal case of Kaprow v. Board of Education of Berkeley Township, 131 N.J. 572 (1993):

> The first is to stimulate litigants to pursue a right of action within a reasonable time so that the opposing party may have a fair opportunity to defend, thus preventing the litigation of stale claims. Ochs v. Federal Ins. Co., 90 N.J. 108, 112, 447 A.2d 163 (1982). The second purpose is "'to penalize dilatoriness and serve as a measure of repose'" by giving security and stability to human affairs. Ibid. (quoting Farrell v. Votator Div., 62 N.J. 111, 115, 299 A.2d 394 (1973)).
>
> > When a plaintiff knows or has reason to know that he has a cause of action against an identifiable defendant and voluntarily sleeps on his rights so long as to permit the customary period of limitations to expire, the pertinent considerations of individual justice as well as the broader considerations of repose, coincide to bar his action. [Farrell, supra, 62 N.J. at 115.]

[6] See also R.H. ex rel. Minor Child v. Bd. of Educ. of Hackettstown, 2022 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 299 (Feb. 17, 2022).

In support of their respective positions, both parties cite the same cases: DeMario and T.R.

DeMario v. State Board of Examiners, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 192, concerned the appeal of a denial of an application for principal and business administrator endorsements. The pro se petitioner had received the respondent's final determination on December 10, 2009, and had filed his appeal on or about March 2, 2010 (day 81). On March 4, 2010, the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes acknowledged receipt of the appeal, but notified DeMario that it was procedurally deficient and listed what needed to be done to make it compliant, which included providing proof of service on each respondent. He was advised that if the deficient materials were "timely submitted," March 2, 2010, would be deemed to be the filing date. DeMario, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 192 at *4–6.

On June 1, 2010, DeMario forwarded an amended petition to the Board which was filed on June 7, 2010, and a motion to dismiss from the respondent followed almost immediately. The matter was then transmitted to the OAL as a contested case. Id. at *1–2.

DeMario argued that he was confused and had multiple communications with the Bureau as to whether he should utilize an attorney but was never told of the time urgency of the supplying of the requested materials. He claimed that because he "was following advice of the Bureau regarding submissions and schedules," the ninety-day rule should have been relaxed. Id. at *9.

The judge held that there was no compelling reason to relax the ninety-day rule. It was determined that the March 4, 2010, letter was clear as to what materials needed to be supplied in order for the appeal to be considered complete and that while the exact meaning of the phrase "timely submitted" was not defined, "the fact is that DeMario did not submit a proper petition of appeal until approximately three months after the applicable ninety-day rule expired. Under any interpretation of 'timely submitted,' DeMario failed to cooperate." Id. at *17.

In T.R., an HIB case, it was found that the petitioners received the final determination from the Board on August 31, 2012, and filed their petition on November 27, 2012 (day 88). They were advised by letter dated November 29, 2012, that the filing was deficient, but that if the materials were "timely submitted, November 27, 2012 will be deemed the filing date." It is undisputed that the additional materials were received by the Board on December 6, 2012. T.R., 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 523 at *3–4.

Comparing the case to DeMario, the Commissioner found that while he had waited three months to correct the petition's deficiencies, T.R. had "cur(ed) the deficiencies in a few days," which was determined to be quickly enough to be considered timely submitted. T.R. at *8. Therefore, he found that "the holding in DeMario . . . is not relevant to a determination of timeliness in the case at bar." Id. at *8–9.

While petitioner claims that the nature of the documentary deficiencies in this case pale in comparison to those in DeMario and T.R., he ignores the timing issue, which clearly does not inure to his benefit. Petitioner tries to distinguish DeMario by noting that DeMario's initial "appeal" was only a "letter purporting to be an Appeal," while here, the appeal was much more detailed and in a more professional format. A similar argument is made concerning T.R.

However, neither of those cases (either in the Initial Decision[7] or Final Decision) mentioned the scope of the appeal deficiencies. Rather, they focused exclusively on how quickly those deficiencies were addressed. In fact, in T.R., they were described as "various deficiencies" and there was no indication that their nature had any impact on the outcome of the case. T.R., 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 523 at *1. In both cases, the petitioners were advised as to what specific issues needed to be addressed and were provided a general timeframe as to how quickly it had to be done for the appeal to be considered "filed" as of the date of receipt. There, as here, the initial appellate filing was not rejected as if it had never been sent. Rather, on all three occasions, the petitioner was told to correct deficiencies and if they did so in a timely manner, the deadline issue would not come into play.

[7] T.R. ex rel. Minor Child, E.R. v. Bd. of Educ. of the Bridgewater-Raritan Reg'l Sch. Dist., Somerset Cnty., 2013 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 116 (June 6, 2013).

It should also be noted that the "relation back" doctrine was explicitly rejected in DeMario, where the Commissioner undertook a detailed analysis of Gringeri v. Board of Education of the Ramapo-Indian Hills Regional High School District, 1988 S.L.D. 158. That case involved a pro se petitioner who filed "a document entitled 'Petition.'" He was advised that the document was insufficient on three separate occasions before finally filing a perfected petition fifty-five days after the original non-compliant filing and 128 days following the Board's final action. The respondent filed a motion for summary decision, which was granted. DeMario, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 192 at *12–17.

The administrative law judge (ALJ) in Gringeri explained:

> While a liberal approach with respect to amendments to petitions is a principle which often is followed, it cannot and should not be used to overcome deficiencies which are patent on their face. Cf., F. Bogart v. Board of Education of East Orange, OAL DKT. EDU 6245-82 (Jan. 26, 1983), aff'd Commissioner of Education (March 14, 1983).

As in Gringeri, the ALJ in DeMario saw no reason to relax the ninety-day rule, and the argument that the late submission "was simply a 'perfected' pleading which relates back to his earlier submissions" was soundly rejected. DeMario, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 192 at *14 (citing Gringeri, 1988 S.L.D. at 166).

As noted above, the ninety-day deadline can be "relaxed or dispensed with by the Commissioner, in the Commissioner's discretion, in any case where a strict adherence thereto may be deemed inappropriate or unnecessary or may result in injustice." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16.

However, in exploring the case law surrounding the relaxation of the ninety-day rule, it becomes very apparent, very quickly, that the courts do not look indulgently on same. Kaprow involved the termination of a tenured assistant superintendent effective

June 30, 1981. After a rather complicated series of events involving RIF[8] rights and the "re-creation" of assistant superintendent positions years later, Kaprow filed a petition with the Commissioner on August 1, 1988, asserting a claim to one of the re-created positions. He amended that petition on December 16, 1988, to assert, for the first time, that the 1981 RIF was improper and had been made in bad faith. Kaprow, 131 N.J. at 576–78.

In the face of a partial victory for Kaprow in the underlying OAL case, the Commissioner dismissed the petition, finding, in part, "that the bad-faith claim was untimely instead of unsupported." That decision was affirmed by the State Board of Education, which found that the August 1, 1988, petition "was time barred by the ninety-day limitations period of N.J.A.C. 6:24-1.2(c)," and the Appellate Division affirmed the Board's decision. Id. at 579.

While no explicit argument has been made that the ninety-day deadline should be extended, a review of the case law would have quashed that assertion in any event. This issue was explored in detail in my case of R.H. ex rel. Minor Child v. Board of Education of the Town of Hackettstown, 2022 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 299 (Feb. 17, 2022), from which this portion of the decision liberally borrows.

There are a multitude of reported court and administrative cases that explore this issue, one of the most cited being Pacio v. Board of Education of Lakeland Regional High School District, 1989 S.L.D. 2060.

In Pacio, a terminated high school teacher filed an action well past the ninety-day deadline. While the case discusses multiple issues,[9] in granting the respondent's motion for summary decision, the ALJ noted the strict standard applied by the Commissioner in relaxing that deadline. It would only happen;

[8] Reduction in force.

[9] Including the "statutory entitlement" argument which is not applicable here. In essence, this argument concerns a request for an exception to the deadline in cases where the petitioner is seeking a denied benefit to which they were statutorily entitled. Kaprow at 584–85; see also Lavin v. Hackensack Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 145 (1982); Polaha v. Buena Reg'l Sch. Dist., 212 N.J. Super. 628 (App. Div. 1986).

> [w]here a substantial constitutional issue was presented, where judicial review is sought of an informal administrative determination, and where a matter of significant public interest is involved.
> [Pacio, 1989 S.L.D. at 2063 (citations omitted); see also Morris-Union Jointure Commission v. Bd. of Educ. of S. River, 92 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 453 (1992); Balwierczak v. Bd. of Educ. of Berkeley Heights, 1999 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 707 (Dec. 16, 1998).]

The bar can also be relaxed "when strict adherence would possibly result in an injustice." Grompone v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of Jersey City, 1999 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 786 (Dec. 20, 1999) at *17, aff'd, 2000 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1634 (February 28, 2000), aff'd, 2000 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1635 (August 2, 2000).

Morris-Union also confirmed that "it is petitioner's burden to show that it will suffer injustice if the 90-day rule is strictly enforced." 92 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) at 471. Further, "the fact that application of the rule may result in the dismissal of a meritorious claim does not warrant relaxation of the rule." K.B. v. Bd. of Educ. of Rancocas Valley Reg. High Sch. Dist., 2002 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 52 (March 1, 2002), at *43–44.

Cases where the rule is relaxed are extremely rare and involve circumstances much different than those presented here, and even then, after the decision in some of these cases, that rule has been tightened. See Bey v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 1993 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 164 (March 5, 1993).

While in Bey the rule was relaxed in a case involving the delinquent filing of an appeal involving the Board's failure to recommended tenure charges against "a teaching staff member who had been accused of misusing, mismanaging, and possibly misappropriating school funds entrusted to him in his capacity as school treasurer,"[10] the judge saw this case as unique since the prior cases discussed in the decision > ha[ve] dealt with an individual concern of the involved petitioner only, such as a refusal to re-employ. None of these > precedents dealt with concerns that could affect a wider spectrum of the public.

> [Bey, 1993 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 164 at *44.]

Other "relaxation" cases involved a student expulsion where a pro se parent's timely appeal was technically deficient (J.N. v. Elizabeth Bd. of Educ., 2005 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 814 (July 8, 2005)) and where illegal conduct was being alleged against the respondent, when that conduct was discovered after the expiration of the ninety days (Eisenberg v. Fort Lee Bd. of Educ., 2008 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 45 (Jan. 9, 2008)).

In analyzing the effectively uncontested timeline of events in this case, I CONCLUDE that there is no real question that the appeal was filed past the ninety-day deadline. In fact, even if the original appeal had not been deficient, I FIND that petitioner had likely already missed the deadline.

Counsel has certified that the original appeal was "served . . . by First Class Mail" Friday, July 28, 2023. (Exhibit P-F.) That is eighty-seven days post-notification. With July 29 & July 30 being a weekend, in order to be timely filed, it HAD to have been received on Monday, July 31, 2023. Instead, it was marked as "received" by OC&D on August 9, 2023 (Day 99). Therefore, irrespective of any deficiencies, it was already late.

Then, when counsel was advised of the deficiencies later that day and then reminded of same on August 28, nothing was done. It was only after the October 2, 2023, Notice of Deficiency was sent that any action was taken and that did not even occur until Friday, October 27, 2023, and even then, when facing automatic dismissal on October 31, 2023, the response was purportedly sent "By Priority Express Mail" with no proof of service or tracking.[11] (Exhibit P-F.)

In its November 13, 2023, letter, the DOE acknowledged receipt of the now-compliant appeal on November 6, 2023. (Exhibit P-G.) This is a full 188 days since petitioner received notice of respondent's final determination and eighty-nine days from when petitioner was first advised of the deficiency in the original filing. As noted in DeMario, this is not timely "[u]nder any interpretation of 'timely submitted.'" DeMario, 2012 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 192 at *17.

Ultimately, I FIND that there is insufficient evidence to demonstrate that the ninety-day deadline as delineated in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16 should be relaxed. While the petitioner sets forth a litany of allegations about and violations by respondent in his appeal, the only issue before the OAL is a very basic one that is limited to a single event (albeit taking place over two days) in which a single person was the victim, which led to a single HIB complaint. Further, the appeal itself is limited to a single issue; the adequacy of the disciplinary actions taken against the perpetrators following the finding that an act of HIB had occurred.

While petitioner's other grievances against respondent may well be justified and encompass conduct that affected more than just S.P., the correct forum to adjudicate same is not in the administrative arena, but rather likely in a trial court. There is simply no broad public interest or grave injustice in and concerning the disciplinary decision by respondent concerning a single HIB complaint and with no constitutional issues having been articulated, there is nothing to justify an extension of the deadline or a denial of respondent's motion.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Given the totality of the evidence, I FIND that petitioner's appeal was not filed until November 6, 2023.

I further FIND even if the appeal had been marked as "FILED" on the date it was received by OC&D (August 9, 2023), it was still received outside of the ninety-day appellate deadline.

I further FIND that even if the August 9, 2023, appeal had been timely, petitioner failed to "timely submit" corrections to the deficiencies it had been advised of that day until November 6, 2023.

I therefore CONCLUDE that petitioner's appeal was filed out of time in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3, and I further CONCLUDE that petitioner has supplied insufficient evidence to demonstrate that the rule should be relaxed per the dictates of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent's motion to dismiss petitioner's appeal be and is hereby GRANTED, and;

It is hereby ORDERED that petitioner's appeal be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Christopher Defilippis, Ringwood Board of Education,
Passaic County.

This matter involves an appeal of the School Ethics Commission's (SEC) December 19, 2023 determination that appellant, Christopher Defilippis – a member of the Ringwood Board of Education (Board) – violated the School Ethics Act (Act) for failure to timely complete board member training in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1. The SEC notified appellant that if he did not complete the training by November 17, 2023, an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) would be issued. The SEC found that appellant completed the training after November 17, 2023 but prior to its December 19, 2023 decision. The SEC recommended a penalty of censure for the violation. Appellant appealed the SEC's determination, challenging both the finding of a violation and the recommended penalty.

In his appeal to the Commissioner, appellant argues that he completed his training before the November 17, 2024 deadline set by the SEC, but that fact was not properly recorded in the system of the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) due to technical difficulties. Respondent further states that he attempted to rectify the error with the NJSBA and provides multiple emails documenting those attempts. Respondent contends that the NJSBA reported inaccurate information to the SEC, stating that respondent completed the training on November 21, 2023 – after the deadline – rather than on or before November 16, 2023 – before the deadline. A screenshot submitted by respondent shows a submission date of November 16, 2023.

In opposition, the SEC argues that its decision was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The SEC notes that although it indicated to appellant that it would issue an OTSC if he did not complete the training by November 17, 2023, the statutory deadline for completion was December 31, 2022. The SEC contends that it is undisputed that appellant did not complete the required training by December 31, 2022. The SEC also argues that appellant's alleged technical difficulties do not provide an excuse when he only attempted to address those issues on November 16, 2024, despite having been warned of the impending OTSC on October 24, 2023. The SEC also disputes appellant's claim that his email exchanges with the NJSBA confirmed that he had completed the training as of November 16, 2023.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner is constrained to remand this matter to the SEC. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.5(a)(i), the SEC must certify the record and provide a copy to the Commissioner. None of the documents provided by appellant in support of his argument that he completed training prior to November 17, 2023, were a part of the record of the proceedings before the SEC. Appellant was aware that the SEC had issued an OTSC, but nonetheless failed to provide the SEC with the screenshot allegedly showing his completion of the training on November 16, 2023, so that it could be fully and fairly considered by the SEC when issuing its decision. The Commissioner cannot conclude that the SEC's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable when it relied on all of the information that it possessed at the time.

However, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.5(c), if it appears that evidence unadduced in the proceedings before the SEC may be material to the issues on appeal, the Commissioner may order, in his own discretion, that the SEC make additional findings of fact. Here, the screenshot allegedly showing that appellant completed the training on November 16, 2023 may be material. Accordingly, the Commissioner remands this matter to the SEC for further consideration, consistent with this opinion. In doing so, the Commissioner does not make any findings or reach any conclusions regarding the accuracy of the screenshot presented by appellant or the effect it may have on the SEC's decision on remand.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Docket No.: T17-23
Decision for Failure to Complete Mandatory Training Requirement in a Timely Manner

---

I/M/O Christopher Defilippis,
Ringwood Board of Education, Passaic County

I. Procedural History

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) that was issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) in connection with the above-captioned matter at its meeting on November 28, 2023, directing Christopher Defilippis (Respondent), a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

In the OTSC that was served on November 28, 2023, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC. Respondent was further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC, and the Commission may take action on a summary basis, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c).

II. Analysis

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and local school administrators. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 require every board member to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA).

Respondent is a member of the Ringwood Board of Education, located in Passaic County. As a result of his position as a board of education member, and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, Respondent is required to complete a mandated training program on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any board member may complete it at any time, from anywhere. According to NJSBA, Respondent was required to complete the Governance II[1] training program by December 31, 2022.

On or about September 19, 2023, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those board of education members who failed to complete mandated training by December 31, 2022, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to that time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages on March 17, 2023, and May 8, 2023, as well as postings in School Board

[1] While NJSBA initially indicated that Respondent did not complete his Governance IV, it was clarified after the issuance of the Order to Show Cause that Respondent was required to complete Governance II by December 31, 2022.

Notes on 12 occasions. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

As a final warning, the Commission's staff sent e-mails to Respondent dated October 24, 2023, and November 15, 2023, advising Respondent that the Commission required completion of the training by November 17, 2023, to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was issued by the Commission at its meeting on November 28, 2023.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by December 31, 2022, and did not complete the training prior to the Commission's final deadline of November 17, 2023, and therefore, the Commission issued an OTSC at its meeting on November 28, 2023. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent notified the Commission on November 29, 2023, that he completed his training requirement on November 21, 2023. Further, Respondent did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by December 31, 2022, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1.

III. Decision/Penalty Recommendation

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on December 19, 2023, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, Respondent failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, it may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-9.11. Specifically, unless good cause is shown or the school official previously has been the subject of an OTSC, "the Commission shall recommend that a board member or trustee who completes training after the issuance of an Order to Show Cause, but before the Commission issues its decision, receives a censure." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.3(b). For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of censure.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." as well as to

( ). A copy must also be sent to the Commission
( ) and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Final Decision

Biruthan Ganaganayagam,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the exceptions filed by respondent pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have been reviewed and considered. Petitioner did not file a reply.

In this matter, petitioner challenges respondent's decision to permanently disqualify him from public school employment pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Petitioner sought emergent relief, which was granted by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) and the Commissioner based upon the limited record available at that time. In the interim, the ALJ issued a revised decision, captioned as an Initial Decision, repeating the findings and conclusions rendered following the hearing on the emergent application and informing the parties of the opportunity to file exceptions.

Respondent submitted new information to the Commissioner with its exceptions in support of its determination that petitioner was convicted in New York of a crime that is substantially equivalent to a New Jersey disqualifying crime enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1. Because this information was not considered by the ALJ during the hearing on the emergent application, the Commissioner finds that a remand to the OAL is necessary to address the merits of the underlying petition. The remand will allow respondent to present its proofs to the ALJ so that pertinent findings of fact and conclusions of law may be rendered.

Accordingly, the matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings.

David Kalisky, Deputy Attorney General, for Respondent, (New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Student Protection, Matthew J. Platkin, Attorney General of New Jersey)

BEFORE DANIELLE PASQUALE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner, a newly-hired teacher of the Newark City Board of Education (The "Petitioner" or "Mr. Ganaganayagam") requests emergent and final relief from the New Jersey Department of Education's, Office of Student Protection's ("NJDOE" or "OSP") disqualification from his employment with the Newark City Board of Education at the North Star Academy Charter School and OSP's subsequent denial of the Petitioner's request to rescind their termination of his employment due to an arrest found during his background check.

The case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for emergent relief on March 21, 2024 and assigned to me that day. I then conferenced the case on March 22, 2024 in an attempt to identify the issues and possibly resolve the matter. I heard the oral argument on March 26, 2024 via Zoom as the parties could not reach a resolution.

As the facts surrounding the timeline are largely undisputed, they will be discussed and found as FACT. Petitioner had a charge in New York that resulted in a Conditional Discharge. Accordingly, I took Judicial Notice that pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2C:36A-1 Conditional Discharge is available for certain first offenses. When that supervisory period after the sentence of conditional discharge is entered, (as there is no plea of guilt, factual basis, admission, or elocution required) "upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions of supervisory treatment the court shall terminate the supervisory treatment and dismiss the proceedings against him. Termination of supervisory treatment and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes or disqualifications, or disabilities if any imposed by law upon conviction of a crime or disorderly personas offense but shall be reported by the clerk of the court to the State Bureau of Identification criminal history record information files. As such, and because there is no affidavit or proof to the contrary, I FIND as fact that the New York charge lodged against the petitioner when he was eighteen (18) (almost twenty years ago) resolved in a conditional discharge.

Petitioner submitted a detailed and thorough verified Petition of Appeal for Emergent Relief addressing each of the Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 NJ 126 (1986) factors as will be outlined below. Petitioner moved here from New York for his job at the Charter School in Newark and taught as a teacher in New York for seven (7) years prior where he passed a background check. Petitioner worked at the Charter school for ten (10) days before this note from the investigator of OSP inquired as the "amount" involved in his charge in New York which might bring the New Jersey equivalent charge up to a third degree. I noted that there was no written argument submitted or affidavit offered by the Deputy Attorney General (DAG) disputing a resolution other than a conditional discharge which, as I note above, shall not be considered a conviction and I so FIND that there is no conviction here upon which can be considered here for the disqualification.

The Petitioner cooperated with the OSP investigator as per his verified appeal and is undisputed by the DAG. The DAG has not submitted opposition in this matter. The DAG presented the proofs that the Petitioner sent in good faith to the OSP investigator. In fact, these documents that shall not be considered, shall only be mentioned as the OSP wanted Petitioner to reveal the amount in question. The only thing he could show is that it was under a $1,000 and New Jersey's equivalent criminal code would require a showing of over $500. The Petitioner is the only verified documentation and attestation I have that he cannot put a number on the amount in question. In fact, when I found out that we were discussing a matter that resulted in a Conditional Discharge I instructed any discussion regarding the matter to cease in accordance with law as it is not a conviction, not an admission of guilt and improper for the Petitioner to comment on even though he was cooperative and certified that he did not know the amount in the paperwork prior to my being assigned the file, and thus I so FIND.

Without a brief, affidavit or any supporting caselaw to the contrary, Respondent argues that the "conviction" in New York from 2005 should equal a third-degree crime in New Jersey. However, as noted above, Respondent's argument is that this supposes that he can even refer to that incident. There is no dispute that there is no plea, no factual basis and no elocution was given regarding the circumstances surrounding that incident. Further, the DAG did not cite any law that requires that any of these assumptions or speculations apply specifically to Petitioner's termination or disqualification. Notably, the DAG was not aware that Petitioner was appealing a disqualification or termination, but rather that he was appealing the investigation itself, which is not the case. At oral argument the DAG was made aware when Petitioner sent him the e-mail disqualifying him from employment at the Charter School in Newark after the OSP notified them to do so. The Respondent has not presented any affidavits or certified exhibits of the allegation that the arrest amounted in anything other than a conditional discharge which is as a matter of law, a legal nullity and not up for discussion, and thus I so FIND.

Petitioner's representation of the alleged irreparable harm to him and his family is clear. He moved to New Jersey for his job. He is counting on his health insurance as his wife is pregnant and going through many pre-natal appointments. In addition, if the facts or allegations of a conviction that does not exist and a resulting disqualification from employment at the Charter School get out, it would be harmful to his reputation in the education community and certainly amongst his co-workers. This could also have an effect on any future employment and thus I so FIND. In addition, if he does not win this emergent appeal, his boss who is attempting to hold the position open now will have to fill the position. This information is attached to the petitioner's verified petition, was in his sworn testimony at oral argument and it remains unopposed as the DAG could not dispute same and did not submit any paperwork to the contrary; as such I FIND it as FACT.

It should be noted that I have reviewed all corresponding certifications and documentation from both sides in this matter and discussed the matter at length in an attempt to resolve the matter. It should be noted that the DAG did not submit any written documentation other than to forward emails he received that were already forwarded to him and the OSP investigator by the petitioner regarding the 2005 charge (which was a conditional discharge and thus not a conviction). He did not submit an affidavit from the investigator or any potential witnesses discussing the charge from 2005 or any of the details. The DAG did not brief a legal argument as to why the laws surrounding conditional discharge as a legal nullity should not apply under the circumstances. The document regarding any details is hearsay and I FIND that the Petitioner's arguments against the OSP's disqualification hold up against the reason cited for his termination.

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and 1:1-12.6, emergency relief may be granted "where authorized by law and where irreparable harm will result without an expedited decision granting or prohibiting some action or relief connected with a contested case . . . ." My determination in this matter is further governed by the standard for emergent relief set forth by our Supreme Court in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 NJ 126 (1986), as follows:

> The judge may order emergency relief ... if the judge determines from the proofs that:
>
> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted.
> 2. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled.
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of success on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the relief is not granted.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The issue before me is whether, based on the largely undisputed facts and procedural history before me, the criteria for the granting of emergency relief has been met for me to reinstate the petitioner to the Newark City Public Schools after a disqualification where Petitioner has no conviction and thus the OSP cannot prove that the disqualification was appropriate. The applicable regulation incorporates the well-established standard for injunctive relief set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):

> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
> 3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6]

With respect to the first prong, I FIND that petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not provided. It is undisputed that Petitioner moved to New Jersey after teaching in New York for seven (7) years. He never had a blemish on his employment record in New York and moved to New Jersey for the position at the Newark Charter School which is a coveted position. He cooperated with the investigation in a timely manner and checked off "arrest" on his background investigation which he did not have to do. Regardless, he cooperated and provided the documents regarding an arrest for a charge that he received conditional discharge for which as defined above is not a conviction and thus a legal nullity. To that end, this case is somewhat unique in that I am not required to do a comparability analysis of a New York crime to a New Jersey crime as when it resolves in a Conditional Discharge; I am required by law not to consider it a crime; and thus, it becomes almost impossible for the OSP to provide further proof for Petitioner's disqualification as I cannot consider it under these circumstances, and thus I so FIND. In short, I find that Petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if he is disqualified from his employment with the Newark Charter Schools for the reasons cited above. I also FIND that any substantive discussion of the alleged conviction in this case would also cause him irreparable harm to his reputation and cause speculation and possibly affect his chances of finding future employment. I also FIND that if this disqualification is not undone, that the Newark Charter school will find a replacement thereby costing him this position.

I have reviewed the second and third prongs of Crowe together because the merits and rights are intertwined here. Petitioner has the burden on this application with respect to proving that this forum is likely to reverse the determination of OSP in keeping with the opinion of NJDOE and their legal obligation under the NJ regulations to provide a safe education to residents. To that end, Petitioner's rights are well-settled. In fact, as Respondent notes, there is no statutory or regulatory authority that permits Petitioner to opt out of this requirement. As such, I acknowledge that the NJDOE and OSP are merely reporting what they find and doing their job. However, the DAG has not submitted any sworn documentation or any legal arguments upon which he argues any of the merits other than the existence of a "crime" without a proved amount and without a potential witness for trial. As a result of the DAG's lack of evidence or legal arguments, Petitioner clearly meets the second and third prongs. The law is clearly settled, and there is a strong likelihood of his prevailing on the merits of his underlying claim and thus I so FIND.

On the last prong, I FIND that there is demonstrated irreparable harm to the Petitioner as he will not only suffer economic harm but also reputational harm and loss of medical coverage while his wife is pregnant. In addition, he left his last job and moved to New Jersey for his role at the Newark Charter School. That harm certainly outweighs OSP's as there is no right or requirement to disqualify a teacher in New Jersey based upon the lack of a conviction we are discussing here. To that end, I agree with Petitioner that his disqualification of employment was unlawful. In fact, as there was no brief or legal argument to the contrary, I am persuaded that there is no other way for the Petitioner to get relief and he was entirely cooperative, and thus I so FIND.

In balancing these interests, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has satisfied his burden of proof as to all of the Crowe factors with regard to his desire to overturn his disqualification from his employment at the Newark Charter School and that as a result, the interests clearly weigh in favor of granting the relief sought herein as all four prongs are needed to meet the Petitioner's burden, and have been met accordingly.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the emergent application for relief of the petitioner is hereby GRANTED and this resolves the case as no further issues remain.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Boonton Education Association and
Robert Davis,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Town of Boonton,
Morris County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

In this matter on remand, originally filed in 2021, petitioners alleged that the respondent Board failed to provide an employee health plan equivalent to the New Jersey Educators Health Plan (NJEHP). Petitioners asserted that because the date of termination for dependent coverage in the Board's health plan differs from that of the NJEHP, the Board failed to fulfill its statutory obligation to provide a NJEHP-equivalent plan to its employees. Specifically, petitioners argued that while the NJEHP extends coverage for dependents until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 26 years old, the Board's plan terminates coverage for dependents at the end of the month in which they turn 26 years old, and that this difference violates N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1) and (2). After the matter was dismissed by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on jurisdictional grounds in October 2021, the Commissioner reversed the decision and remanded to the OAL for supplementation of the record, which lacked the detail necessary for the Commissioner to reach a decision on the merits of whether the Board's health plan is equivalent to the NJEHP. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

On remand, the ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this matter, and the case is ripe for summary decision; based upon the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2 and N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13, the termination date of coverage for dependents described at N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1 is not part of the plan design; therefore, the Board was not required to offer a plan which extends coverage for dependents until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 26 years old in order to comply with N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1) and (2); rather, the Board's plan must comport with the plan design elements listed at N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f) to be deemed an NJEHP-equivalent plan; N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2 does not require that the Board offer an "identical" plan, and it limits "the equivalent of" to "as that plan is described in N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13—which description does not reference dependent age. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's cross-motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1), limits the plan equivalency determination to the plan design elements listed at N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f)—none of which reference dependent age or eligibility for coverage. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Boonton Education Association and
Robert Davis,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Town of Boonton,
Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioners pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, the Board's reply thereto, as well as the reply thereto from participant State Health Benefits Commission, have been reviewed and considered.[1]

Petitioners allege that respondent Board is in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1) and (2) by failing to provide a health plan to its employees that is equivalent to the New Jersey Educators Health Plan (NJEHP). That statute states:

> (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, rule, or regulation to the contrary, beginning January 1, 2021 and for each plan year thereafter, a board of education as an employer providing health care benefits coverage for its employees, and their dependents if any, in accordance with P.L.1979, c.391 (C.18A:16-12 et seq.) shall offer to its employees, and their > dependents if any, the equivalent of the New Jersey Educators Health Plan in the School Employees' Health Benefits Program [SEHBP] as that plan design is described in subsection f. of section 1 of P.L.2020, c.44 (C.52:14-17.46.13).

>
> Beginning January 1, 2022 and for each plan year thereafter, a board of education as an employer providing health care benefits coverage for its employees, and their dependents if any, in accordance with P.L.1979, c.391 (C.18A:16-12 et seq.) shall also offer a plan for its employees, and their dependents if any, that is the equivalent of the Garden State Health Plan in the School Employees' Health Benefits Program. The board shall provide an enrollment period prior to January 1, 2022.
>
> (2) The plans under this section shall be offered by the employer regardless of any collective negotiations agreement between the employer and its employees in effect on the effective date [July 1, 2020] of this act, P.L.2020, c.44, that provides for enrollment in other plans offered by the employer.
>
> No new health care benefits plans, other than those specified in paragraph (1) of this subsection, shall be added by the employer from January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2027 unless the provisions of any collective negotiations agreement entered into before or after the effective date of this act, P.L.2020, c.44, results in additional premium cost reductions. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an employer from offering health care benefits plans that existed prior to the effective date of this act.
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a) (emphasis added).]

Petitioners assert that because the date of termination for dependent coverage in the Board's private plan differs from that of NJEHP, the Board has not fulfilled its statutory obligation to provide a NJEHP-equivalent plan to its employees. While NJEHP extends coverage for dependents until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 26 years old, the Board's plan terminates coverage for dependents at the end of the month in which they turn 26 years old.

The Board maintains that it has offered an NJEHP-equivalent plan in accord with N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f). It asserts that the date of termination of coverage for dependents is an eligibility criterion described in N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1 rather than a part of the plan design mandated by N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13. Title 17, Chapter 9 of the New Jersey Administrative Code, which contains regulations pertaining to the State Health Benefits Program (SHBP), defines "Dependents" in part as "an employee's spouse, eligible domestic or civil union partner and the employee's children through the end of the calendar year in which they reach the age of 26 years." N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1 (emphasis added). However, dependent eligibility is not referenced within N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f), which dictates that "[t]he plan design of the New Jersey Educators Health Plan" must include over twenty specific plan elements listed in the statutory text. Those elements include in-network and out-of-network coverage, out-of-pocket maximums, deductibles, and copayment amounts, and pharmacy coverage, among others.

As the parties agree that the material facts are undisputed, they filed cross-motions for summary decision. The ALJ concluded that petitioners' claim was not supported by the applicable statutes. Specifically, the ALJ reasoned that based upon the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2 and N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13, the termination date of coverage for dependents described at N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1 is not part of the plan design. Therefore, the Board was not required to offer a plan which extends coverage for dependents until the end of the calendar year in which they turn 26 years old in order to comply with N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1) and (2). Rather, the Board's plan must comport with the plan design elements listed at N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f) to be deemed an NJEHP-equivalent plan. Consequently, the ALJ granted the Board's cross-motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition of appeal.

In their exceptions, petitioners acknowledge that N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f) sets forth the plan design for the NJEHP. However, they contend that "the plan design is not the only aspect of the NJEHP plan which must be equivalent," and that the meaning of "equivalent plan . . . extends to the level and type of health care benefits provided." Petitioners' Exceptions, at 3. To conclude otherwise, they assert, leads to an absurd result wherein the Board's plan provides coverage for dependents that differs from the SEHBP's coverage for dependents. Id. at 3-4. They argue that "the Legislature clearly intended that the benefits, not just the plan design, provided in the Board's NJEHP plan be identical to those in the state's NJEHP." Id. at 4. They rely upon the SHBP definition of "Dependents" at N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1, which they claim applies to employees in the SEHBP; a 1982 published Appellate Division opinion issued long before the enactment of Chapter 44; and an unpublished Appellate Division opinion which lacks precedential value. Ultimately, they contend that the ALJ's interpretation of the statutory scheme was unreasonably narrow.[2]

In reply, the Board argues that petitioners "rely on a broad definition of the word 'equivalent,' which has no basis in the statute." Board's Exceptions, at 2. They assert that, pursuant to the plain language of the statutory scheme, "[t]he only aspects of the NJEHP for which the statute specifically requires private plans to match are the specified benefits spelled out in" N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f). Id. at 4-5. Accordingly, the Board contends that the ALJ correctly determined that the equivalency determination is limited by N.J.S.A. 52:14-

[2] Petitioners' contention—raised in a footnote on page 5 of their exceptions—that the Board violated the square corners doctrine was not addressed by the ALJ in the Initial Decision and will not be considered by the Commissioner herein. See Sullivan v. Port Auth. of N.Y. & N.J., 449 N.J. Super. 276, 281 (App. Div. 2017) (holding that legal issues raised in footnotes without adequate briefing will not be considered on appeal).

Similarly, participant SHBC asserts that N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1 is not part of the plan design of the NJEHP. They claim that petitioners' arguments ignore the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1), which expressly limits the Chapter 44 equivalency determination to the point-of-service out-of-pocket costs enumerated in N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f). They disagree with petitioners that benefits offered to employees of non-SEHBP participating local employers must be uniform, in all respects, to the benefits offered by the SEHBP to employees of its participating employers. They contend that if the Legislature had desired equivalency in every respect, then it could have forced all local education employers to participate in the SEHBP, which it did not. They also contend that the statutorily created SEHBP plan design committee, not the SHBC via N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1, has the sole authority to create, modify, or terminate any plan or plan element pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.27(b) and 17.46.3(e).

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter for the reasons stated therein. It is well-settled that a statute's plain language "is typically the best indicator" of the Legislature's intent. Facebook, Inc. v. State, 254 N.J. 329, 353 (2023). The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that, by its plain language, N.J.S.A. 18A:16-13.2(a)(1), limits the plan equivalency determination to the plan design elements listed at N.J.S.A. 52:14-17.46.13(f)—none of which reference dependent age or eligibility for coverage. The SHBP definition of "Dependents" at N.J.A.C. 17:9-3.1 is not a plan design element under this statutory scheme. Petitioners' contention that the Legislature did not intend for this result, or that this result is absurd, is unsupported by the statute's plain language or published case law.

Accordingly, the Board's motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

Final Decision

U.C. and E.C., on behalf of minor child, N.C.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Trustees of the Thomas Edison EnergySmart Charter School, Somerset, County, and Jessica Graf, Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners appealed the results of the respondent charter school's lottery system for selecting 3rd grade students for the 2023-2024 school year and sought a declaratory judgment that the actions and practices of the school and its enrollment coordinator violated New Jersey's charter school laws; further, petitioners demanded that their child, N.C., be admitted to Thomas Edison EnergySmart Charter School (TEECS) as a third-grade student for the 2023–2024 school year.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioners received written notice on February 6, 2023 that their child had not been selected in the 3rd grade lottery and had instead been waitlisted; the February 6, 2023 notice constituted a final order, ruling, or other action of a board of education as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i); therefore, petitioners were required to file their petition of appeal within ninety days of the final notice, i.e., by May 7, 2023, but did not file the petition until August 14, 2023; further, petitioners' arguments regarding alleged illegal actions and practices of TEECS in conducting the 3rd grade lottery were without merit. Accordingly, the ALJ granted TEECS's motion for summary decision and dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the petition was filed more than 90 days after petitioners received notice that N.C. was not selected in the 2023-2024 lottery and was therefore untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i); further, the Commissioner concurred that petitioners failed to provide any legal basis for their argument that respondents' lottery system was unlawful. Accordingly, the respondent's motion for summary decision was granted, and the petition was dismissed.

Board of Trustees of the Thomas Edison EnergySmart Charter School, Somerset County, and Jessica Graf,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed and considered. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the petition of appeal was untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), as it was filed more than 90 days after petitioners received notice that N.C. was not selected in the 2023-2024 lottery.[1] The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ that petitioners failed to provide any legal basis for their argument that respondents' lottery system was unlawful, and that summary judgment in favor of respondents is therefore appropriate.

[1] As such, the Commissioner does not reach the issue of whether petitioners' claim regarding the 2023-2024 school year is moot.

Accordingly, respondents' motion for summary decision is granted, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

BEFORE JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioners, U.C. and E.C. on behalf of minor student, N.C., appeal the results of the respondents' lottery system for selecting students for third grade for the school year 2023--2024 at Thomas Edison EnergySmart Charter School, Somerset County (respondents or TEECS), and seek a declaratory judgment that the actions, conduct, and practices of respondents Graf and TEECS violated the charter school laws of the State of New Jersey, and that minor child N.C. be admitted to the TEECS third-grade program for the 2023–2024 school year.

Petitioners filed a due process petition as well as a motion for emergent relief on August 14, 2023, with the New Jersey Department of Education (DOE), Office of Controversies and Disputes (OCD). These matters were transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where they were filed on August 15, 2023. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. An emergent hearing in this matter took place via Zoom on August 21, 2023, and on August 22, 2023, the motion was denied.

Petitioners filed an Amended Petition on August 29, 2023, and respondents filed the within motion for summary decision in lieu of an Answer. Oral argument was conducted on January 11, 2024, supplemental letter briefs were submitted on January 26, 2024, and the record closed.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the parties' briefs and the testimony offered by the parties and their representatives, I FIND the following to be the undisputed facts:

1. TEECS, a charter school for grades K−12 in Franklin, New Jersey, accepted students from three area school districts: Franklin, North Brunswick and South Brunswick Townships. Each year, more students applied than there was room for, and TEECS implemented an admissions policy using a lottery. Preference was given to students who resided in either Franklin, North Brunswick or South Brunswick Townships, and TEECS entered the names of economically disadvantaged students four times in the lottery to provide a weighted advantage.

2. Petitioners have been residents of Franklin Township, Somerset County, New Jersey since 2022. They were the parents of minor child N.C., an eight-year-old. Petitioners identify racially as "Black African and American." From 2021 through 2023, petitioners applied for and were denied admission for N.C. to attend TEECS. By letter dated February 6, 2023, petitioners were notified that N.C. had not been chosen in the lottery for enrollment in TEECS for 2023–2024, that he would be waitlisted, and that no further correspondence would be forthcoming unless N.C. was later chosen from the waitlist. (The "Notice".) As enrollment was full, a child could only be admitted from the waitlist if a student at TEECS disenrolled.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The issue is whether respondents had proven by a preponderance of the evidence that there was no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that they were entitled to prevail as a matter of law, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 authorizes the Commissioner of Education to consider controversies between a parent and a school board. The OAL is the appropriate venue for hearing an appeal of a school board's findings, and the DOE properly forwarded this matter to the OAL for this matter to be heard.

Summary decision may be granted when the papers and discovery that have been filed show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged, and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). No evidentiary hearing needs to be held if there are no disputed issues of material fact. Frank v. Ivy Club, 120 N.J. 73, 98, cert. denied, 498 U.S. 1073 (1991). "When the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law, the [tribunal] should not hesitate to grant summary [decision]." Della Vella

v. Bureau of Homeowner Protection, OAL Dkt. No. CAF 17020-13, 2014 WL 1383908 (N.J. Adm. 2014) (quoting Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995)).

Further, the non-moving party has the burden "to make an affirmative demonstration . . . that the facts are not as the movant alleges." Spiotta v. William H. Wilson, Inc., 72 N.J. Super. 572, 581 (App. Div. 1962). This requirement, however, does not relieve the moving party from having to initially establish in its moving papers that there was no genuine issue of fact and that they were entitled to prevail as a matter of law. It is the "movant's burden to exclude any reasonable doubt as to the existence of any genuine issue of fact." Conti v. Bd. of Educ., 286 N.J. Super. 106 (App. Div. 1995) (quoting Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954)).

For an adverse party to a motion for summary decision to prevail, they must, by responding affidavit, set forth specific facts showing that there was a genuine issue which could only be addressed in an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

It must be noted that in their oral argument summation brief of January 26, 2024, petitioners requested a second amendment of their original petition, asking this court to issue a stay of TEECS's kindergarten lottery to be conducted on February 3, 2024. On January 31, 2024, petitioners asked this court whether their second amendment to the petition (the stay request) had been granted. However, such a request to amend needed to be filed pursuant to the guidelines of the New Jersey Court Rules and the New Jersey Administrative Code, and not as a comment in the body of a summation brief summarizing the oral argument. Although petitioners are pro se in this matter, petitioner U.C. is a New Jersey attorney and should be familiar with the rules and requirements for motions, pleadings and amendments to pleadings.

Further, and most importantly, this court never approved a first amendment of the petition; the within matter is a motion for summary decision filed by respondents in lieu of an answer to petitioners' attempt to amend their petition a first time.

On January 31, 2024, before this court had addressed petitioners' informal attempt to amend their petition a second time, petitioners copied this court on an email to respondents, in which they stated that in lieu of formal papers, petitioners were notifying respondents that it was their intention on February 1, 2024, to apply to this court for an entry of an order to show cause for an emergent injunction staying TEECS's kindergarten lottery on February 3, 2024. Petitioner attempted to cite to Crowe v. DeGioia factors (the four-prong test for emergent relief) and stated that motion papers would be forthcoming.

This court cannot waive the filing and notice requirements of the New Jersey Rules of Court or the New Jersey Administrative Code in order to accommodate the petitioners. While amendments of initial pleadings may be made by motion, petitioner was attempting a second amendment of a petition for which no first amendment had been granted. Accordingly, this court issued a Letter Order on January 31, 2024, denying petitioners' attempt to informally request a second amendment to their initial pleadings. It must be further noted that petitioners failed to file either an order to show cause or other formal request for injunctive relief with this court, nor did they indicate that this court had the legal authority to unilaterally stay a school board's admissions lottery. This court was never noticed as to whether petitioners filed an order to show cause or other formal request for injunctive relief with the New Jersey Superior Court.

Petitioners also attempted, via their briefs in response to respondents' motion for summary decision, to "reserve" the right to add additional parties to this litigation. This was an attempt to add another child of theirs to their petition, a child who had not been entered into the third-grade TEECS lottery for which they filed their initial pleading. Petitioners cited to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.8, which allows parties to intervene in a matter subject to compliance with the New Jersey Administrative Code. Petitioners have not complied with the New Jersey Administrative Code, nor is this a situation where an outside party sought to intervene in a docketed case; petitioners were attempting to conflate a second child's case with their first child's case, as a means to expedite the formal filing and notice requirements set forth in the New Jersey Rules of Court and the New Jersey Administrative Code. No legal support for a right to add extra litigants in the instant case was supplied by petitioners; no such right was in fact "reserved" by this court, and, again, such a request is subject to the formal legal procedures set forth in the New Jersey Court Rules and New Jersey Administrative Code. No addition of a second case and a second child, I.C., to the within case had ever been granted.

Additionally, even if petitioners had complied with the proper procedural rules and regulations for amending petitions and adding parties, petitioners failed to provide any proof to this court that they had actually entered their kindergarten-aged child I.C. into the February 3, 2024, TEECS kindergarten lottery, and did not advise this court as to the results of any such entry into the kindergarten lottery, and therefore there was no demonstrable negative result or harm to child I.C. from which petitioners could appeal.

To reiterate the language of this court's Letter Order of January 31, 2024, petitioners' informal request for a second amendment to their original petition of appeal, seeking to add a second child (I.C.) as a petitioner and challenge the TEECS 2024–2025 kindergarten lottery, has been DENIED.

I FIND that the relief sought by petitioners, requiring respondents to accept N.C. into their third-grade program for the 2023–2024 school year, is now moot, as the 2023–2024 school year is already well underway and will end before a full due process hearing can be heard and decided in this matter.

Petitioners also requested that the entire TEECS lottery system be nullified by this court, which relief is not currently moot. Towards that end, petitioners claimed two genuine issues of fact for which, they argued, a full due process hearing was warranted. First, petitioners claimed that they had never received notice that N.C. had not been selected in the 2023–2024 TEECS third-grade lottery; therefore, the ninety-day time period for filing their petition never started. Second, petitioner reiterated their primary claim from their original pleadings that TEECS's lottery system was an unlawful selection system.

Regarding the ninety-day filing rule, respondents argued that a petition of appeal before the Commissioner of Education must be brought within ninety days of receipt of "notice of a final order, ruling or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, which is the subject of the contested case hearing." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). Caselaw indicates that this requirement is strictly enforced, only to be relaxed with a showing of exceptional or compelling circumstances. M.N. & E.Y. o/b/o K.N. v. State-Operated Sch. Dist. of Jersey City, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11136-03 (June 17, 2004), aff'd (Comm. Ed. July 21, 2004). In Kaprow v. Bd. of Ed. of Berkeley Tp., 131 N.J. 572, 582 (1993), the New Jersey Supreme Court explained the rationale for strict enforcement of the ninety-day rule as being a means to provide school districts with "a measure of repose, an essential element in the proper and efficient administration of the school laws" and to give "school districts the security of knowing that administrative decisions regarding the operation of the school cannot be challenged after ninety days."

Respondent TEECS's third-grade lottery for the 2023-24 school year was held on February 4, 2023. The lottery was broadcast online in order to provide maximum transparency. The Notice was sent by respondents to petitioners and was dated February 6, 2023. (Petitioner's December 12, 2023, Brief Exhibit B). The Notice was entitled "2023-2024 Lottery Results and Waiting Lists" and was addressed by respondent Jessica Graf to the petitioners, the parents of N.C. The Notice confirmed that petitioners entered N.C. into the third-grade lottery for 2023-2024. The Notice stated in its first sentence that waiting lists can be viewed online and gave the address for petitioners to check N.C.'s status on the waiting list.

It must be noted that petitioners never claimed that they were unaware that N.C. had been waitlisted instead of chosen for TEECS third grade; in fact, petitioner U.C. confirmed through her testimony at oral argument that she was aware that N.C. had been waitlisted instead of being chosen in the TEECS third-grade lottery.

The main paragraph of the Notice explained the waiting list and stated that "[s]tudents on the waiting list are NOT guaranteed enrollment." It explained that the waiting list would be used for the entire 2023-2024 school year and that seats would be filled as they became available. Key to the letter was the bolded statement, "Parents will receive an email if enrollment is being offered."

I CONCLUDE that it was clear from the Notice that N.C. had not been chosen in the third-grade lottery, that he had been added to the waiting list, that this was the last notice petitioners would receive from respondents regarding the 2023–2024 third-grade lottery unless N.C. was later chosen from the waiting list, and that petitioners were aware as of February 6, 2023, that N.C. had been waitlisted instead of chosen in the lottery.

While petitioners seemingly argued that they received no final order because T.C. still could have been selected from the waiting list even after the school year began, this did not comport with a plain reading of either the Notice or the statute. Respondents properly set forth that the Commissioner of Education considered even "informal awareness" of an action by a public body as starting the appeal timeline when a prospective petitioner had "reason to know that he has a cause of action against an identifiable respondent." Mazzeo v. Bd. of Ed. of Tp. of Barnegat, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4561-05, Agency Dkt. No. 151-6/05 (August 18, 2005), aff'd (Comm. Ed. September 29, 2005). Again, petitioners were aware that N.C. had been waitlisted instead of being chosen in the lottery as of February 6, 2023.

I CONCLUDE that the February 6, 2023, Notice from respondents to petitioners served as final notice that N.C. had not been chosen in the third-grade lottery and that, instead, T.C. had been added to the waiting list. I CONCLUDE that the Notice of February 6, 2023, constituted a notice of a final order, ruling or other action by the district board of education, as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), and that therefore petitioners were to have filed their appeal within ninety days of the Notice, that being by May 7, 2023. I CONCLUDE that petitioners failed to file the within petition in a timely manner, having filed their appeal on August 14, 2023, after the May 7, 2023, deadline.

I CONCLUDE that, regarding petitioners' failure to file the within appeal in a timely manner, there is no genuine issue of material fact for which a full hearing is required.

As to petitioners' second argument, even if, arguendo, petitioners had filed this appeal in a timely manner, there was no genuine issue of fact regarding petitioners' claim that respondents' lottery selection system was unlawful.

Petitioners argued that TEECS's lottery system failed to comply with New Jersey law because it failed to apportion seats properly between the three constituent school districts, it failed to consider an applicant's race, and its sibling preference and other policies violate the School Ethics Act. Petitioners did not challenge the waitlist process itself, but essentially argued that if the lottery had been carried out lawfully in the first instance, N.C. would have been enrolled in the TEECS third-grade program, and not waitlisted. In other words, petitioners would not have been concerned that the third-grade lottery system was unlawful if their child had been selected for third grade, but since he was not selected, petitioners thereby challenged the entire lottery system.

N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-8 provides that charter schools may use a "random selection process" to select students if there are more applicants than available seats. Such was the situation in the within matter; respondents employed a lottery system because there were more applications than there were available seats in their third-grade program. On its surface, TEECS's lottery complied with N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-8. However, petitioners argued that the third-grade lottery was unlawful because it used a sibling preference system. However, N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-8(c) states that a "charter school may give enrollment priority to a sibling of a student enrolled in the charter school." The applicable regulation, N.J.A.C. 6A:11-4.5, has identical language. I CONCLUDE that respondents have met their burden of proving by a preponderance of the credible evidence that there was no genuine issue of material fact as to a charter school's ability to conduct an admissions lottery and give priority to siblings.

Petitioners argued that TEECS only selecting twenty-five students during the third-grade lottery and then waitlisting the remainder of the applicants was unlawful but offered no basis for that argument. They vaguely pointed to the School Ethics Act. However, respondents correctly argued that neither the School Ethics Act nor any regulations regarding equality and equity addressed the issue of available seats in charter schools, nor the actual operation of the charter school selection and lottery processes. Even if petitioners had been able to show there was any genuine issue of material fact as to violations of the School Ethics Act, respondents correctly argued that the within matter would have to be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, pointing out that the School Ethics Commission has exclusive jurisdiction over matters arising under the School Ethics Act. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.4; Kubricki v. Pinelands Reg. Sch. Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4612-20; Agency Ref No. 42-2/20 (Dec. 30, 2020); aff'd Comm'r, 42-21 (Feb. 16, 2021) (dismissing a complaint alleging a violation of the School Ethics Act which was filed with the OCD because violations of the School Ethics Act were solely within the jurisdiction of the School Ethics Commission.)

Petitioners also faulted TEECS for not employing "equal apportionment" in its third-grade lottery system. However, respondents correctly argued that petitioners were wrong to conclude that New Jersey law required "equal apportionment"; such a requirement was not in the statute, and the statute cited by petitioners, N.J.A.C. 6A:11-2.1(b)(4), was not applicable to the within scenario. N.J.A.C. 6A:11-4.5 permits a random selection process with a waitlist if the number of applicants exceeds the available number of spots. The lottery regulation does not reference apportionment by district, nor does it provide for a separate waitlist for each constituent district, and therefore petitioners' argument that a separate admissions lottery was legally required for each of the three constituent sending townships was not supported by a plain reading of the applicable regulations. TEECS had advertised its admissions lottery to all three of its sending townships, Franklin, North Brunswick and South Brunswick, and proffered statistics indicating that in fact petitioner's hometown, Franklin Township, was over-represented at TEECS, with 65% of TEECS students coming from that town.

As to petitioners' claim that race should be a factor in setting up a lottery system, petitioners offered no legal grounds for the application of race as a factor in school admissions. They offered statistics from 2015 as to the racial makeup of TEECS but failed to provide any more recent statistics. Respondent TEECS pointed out that it publishes these statistics on its website, but petitioners simply failed to research these numbers and proffer current statistics. Conversely, TEECS offered the most recent statistics available as of the end of the 2022 school year: the three townships served by respondent had a total of 21,112 students. Of these students, 4,328 were African American, equaling 20%. Of the 599 students enrolled at TEECS, 114 were African American, equaling 19%. Therefore, it is undisputed that the percentage of African Americans closely reflected the percentage of African Americans in the three sending townships. Respondent TEECS also pointed out that despite undisputed facts showing that it lawfully executed its third-grade lottery, petitioners sought to have race be a factor in having their child admitted to the TEECS third-grade program, despite a recent (uncited) United States Supreme Court case prohibiting the use of race in admissions.[1]

It is also worth noting that in its 2020 Renewal Summary for respondent TEECS, the DOE gave a score of "Meets Standard" for "Access and Equity," noting that TEECS "demonstrates a commitment to serving and meeting the needs of all students," while providing examples of TEECS's exhaustive outreach efforts to the community. Respondents were right to argue that this certification from DOE negated any argument that TEECS did not have any plan or engage in any efforts to recruit students of diverse backgrounds throughout its constituent-sending districts.

I CONCLUDE that respondents met their burden of proving by a preponderance of the credible evidence that there was no genuine issue of fact in question for which a full due process hearing would be required because respondents have proven that petitioners failed to file the within appeal in a timely manner, and respondent has shown that TEECS acted lawfully in effectuating a lottery admissions system with waitlisting that gave preference to sibling admissions. I CONCLUDE that respondents are entitled to have the within appeal summarily dismissed, and therefore respondents' motion for summary decision is GRANTED.

ORDER

Respondents' motion for summary decision is hereby GRANTED, and the within appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Kamber Chaiken, Board of Education of the Borough of Elmwood Park, Bergen County.

and

In the Matter of Suspension of the Teaching Certificate of Evelyn Cordova, Board of Education of the Borough of Elmwood Park, Bergen County.

Synopsis

These consolidated matters were opened before the Commissioner of Education by way of Orders to Show Cause served by the petitioner, the Elmwood Park Board of Education (Board), upon the respondents, Kamber Chaiken and Evelyn Cordova – formerly non-tenured teachers in the Board's school district – requiring respondents to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending their teaching certificates for unprofessional conduct pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 after they resigned without giving 60 days' notice. Counsel for respondents moved to dismiss the Orders to Show Cause, claiming that respondents' employment contracts expired at the end of the 2022-2023 school year and that they never signed new employment contracts for the 2023-2024 school year. Although the expired contracts contained a 60-day notice provision, respondents maintained that they were not required to provide the Board with 60 days' notice as they resigned after their 2022-2023 employment contracts expired and thus had already fulfilled their contractual obligations to the Board.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: respondents fulfilled their obligations to the Board under their 2022-2023 employment contracts and never signed new employment contracts for the 2023-2024 school year; because respondents were nontenured teachers whose employment contracts expired on June 30, 2023, they were not required to provide 60 days' notice prior to resigning; further, respondents' part-time summer employment with the Board was not connected to their 2022-2023 expired employment contracts or their unsigned 2023-2024 employment contracts. The ALJ concluded that the notice provision does not apply to these teachers, and the relief sought by the District asking for a suspension of up to one year of their teaching licenses was an inappropriate and frivolous use of the tenure statute. Accordingly, the Orders to Show Cause were dismissed with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusion of the ALJ and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter. Accordingly, the Orders to Show Cause were dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Kamber Chaiken, Board of Education of the Borough of Elmwood Park, Bergen County.

And

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Evelyn Cordova, Board of Education of the Borough of Elmwood Park, Bergen County.

The record of this consolidated matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), the exceptions filed by petitioner Elmwood Park Board of Education (Board) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and respondents' replies thereto, have been reviewed and considered.

Respondents were previously employed by the Board as nontenured teachers. The Board filed Orders to Show Cause to suspend respondents' teaching certificates for wrongful cessation of duties in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10, which provides that "[a]ny teaching staff member employed by a board of education . . . who shall, without the consent of the board . . . cease to perform his duties before the expiration of the term of his employment, shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct, and the commissioner may, upon receiving notice thereof, suspend his certificate for a period not exceeding one year."

Counsel for respondents moved to dismiss the Orders to Show Cause, claiming that respondents' employment contracts expired at the end of the 2022-2023 school year and that they never signed new employment contracts for the 2023-2024 school year. Although the expired contracts contained a 60-day notice provision, respondents maintained that they were not required to provide the Board with 60 days' notice as they resigned after their 2022-2023 employment contracts expired and thus had already fulfilled their contractual obligations to the Board.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted respondents' motions to dismiss the Orders to Show Cause upon finding that respondents fulfilled their obligations to the Board under their 2022-2023 employment contracts and never signed new employment contracts for the 2023-2024 school year. The ALJ held that because respondents were nontenured teachers whose employment contracts expired on June 30, 2023, they were not required to provide 60 days' notice prior to resigning. The ALJ also found that respondents' part-time summer employment with the Board was not connected to their 2022-2023 expired employment contracts or their unsigned 2023-2024 employment contracts.

In their exceptions, the Board admits that respondents never signed employment contracts for the 2023-2024 school year. However, the Board maintains that under common law principles, contracts may be formed without executed writings. The Board asserts that the ALJ should have considered its detrimental reliance upon respondents' actions—including their summer employment with the Board—which led the Board to believe that respondents would return to teach full-time for the 2023-2024 school year. Additionally, the Board asserts that the ALJ should have considered the harm that befell the Board due to respondents' failure to provide 60 days' notice when they resigned just prior to the start of the 2023-2024 school year. Furthermore, the Board denies that it is relying upon N.J.S.A. 18A:18-8, which applies to tenured teachers, and denies that it filed the Orders to Show Cause in bad faith. The Board maintains that it is entitled to proceed under N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 to protect vulnerable children and ensure non-disruptive educational programming at the start of a school year.

In reply, respondents argue that the Commissioner should adopt the Initial Decision and dismiss the Orders to Show Cause. They reiterate that their employment contracts expired on June 30, 2023, and that they were not employed under contract thereafter. Because they fulfilled their contractual duties to the Board prior to resigning, they were not required to provide 60 days' notice. Moreover, they contend that common law contract principles are inapplicable where, as here, there are specific statutory requirements governing contracts between nontenured teaching staff members and boards of education.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. As nontenured teachers, respondents' notice obligations are established by the terms of their employment contracts. In re Suspension of Teaching Certificates of Melissa Van Pelt, Gray Charter Sch., Newark, Essex Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 170-09 at 3 (May 29, 2009), aff'd, 414 N.J. Super. 440 (App. Div. 2010). N.J.S.A. 18A:27-10 requires boards of education to provide nontenured teaching staff members with a written offer of a contract for employment, or a written notice that employment will not be offered, on or before May 15 of each year. In re Suspension of Teaching Certificates of Jesenia Chester, Bd. of Educ. of Twp. of S. Brunswick, Middlesex Cnty., Commissioner Decision No. 276-23 at 2-3 (Sept. 14, 2023). N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12 requires employees to accept offers in writing on or before June 1. Id. at 3. If employees do not accept offers in writing, then their employment is not renewed. Ibid. The Commissioner has previously held that "[t]he principles pertaining to implied contracts do not apply when the applicable statute specifically requires acceptances to be in writing." Ibid.

The Board's reliance upon common law contract principles lacks merit as N.J.S.A. 18A:27-12 specifically requires acceptance of employment offers to be in writing. Here, respondents did not accept the Board's offers of employment for the 2023-2024 school year in writing. In fact, the Board concedes that the employment contracts for the 2023-2024 school year were never signed by respondents. Because respondents did not accept the offers of employment in writing, they were not under contract at the time of their resignations and had no notice obligations to the Board. Ibid. Therefore, respondents—who resigned after June 30, 2023—did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 because they did not cease to perform their duties before the expiration of their terms of employment.

Accordingly, the Orders to Show Cause to Suspend the Teaching Certificates of Kamber Chaiken and Evelyn Cordova are hereby dismissed with prejudice.[1]

Record closed: February 1, 2024 Decided: February 29, 2024

BEFORE ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Kamber Chaiken ("Chaiken") and Evelyn Cordova ("Cordova") are former non-tenured teachers with the Elmwood Park School District. On October 16, 2023, they were both served with an Order to Show Cause issued by the Commissioner based on an application filed by the District seeking suspension of their respective licenses due to their alleged failure to report to work at the start of the 2023-24 school year.

On October 27, 2023, motions to dismiss both Orders to Show Cause were respectively filed on behalf of Chaiken and Cordova. Thereafter, the files were transmitted as contested matters to the Office of Administrative Law. On November 7, 2023, counsel for Chaiken and Cordova moved to have the matters consolidated, to which the District gave its consent on November 8, 2023. Opposition to the motions was filed and an oral argument without testimony was heard on February 1, 2024.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS OF FACT AS TO KAMBER CHAIKEN

Most of the facts are undisputed. As such, I make the following FINDINGS OF FACT:

On June 29, 2022, Kamber Chaiken was hired as a non-tenured special education teacher by the Elmwood Park School District pursuant to a contract which commenced on September 1, 2022 ending June 30, 2023. The salary for this position was $52,809.00.

The contract was mutually signed by Chaiken and the president of the Elmwood Park Board of Education.

Based on the documents presented, including Chaiken's Certification, I FIND that Chaiken fulfilled her duties under the contract, and though not obligated to do so, and with no contractual obligation, she agreed to stay on and work separately part time as a member of the of the District's Extended Summer Program staff. I FURTHER FIND that she completed those duties, which were not part of her original contract, at the end of July 2023. I FIND there I nothing in her original contract which she completed, or in the part-time Summer ESY position, that committed her to return to the District for the 2023-24 school year.

A few days prior to the end of the first contract and shortly before the commencement of the summer program, the District tendered a new contract to Chaiken for the 2023-24 school year. Under basic principles of contract law, I FIND this was an offer to enter into a new contract, with new terms, which I FIND was not accepted by Chaiken.

Though the District says Chaiken verbally agreed and made it seem like she would remain with the District, Chaiken never signed the second contract, and formally submitted a resignation to the District following completion of her ESY duties on August 1, 2023. Although she agreed to teach during the 2023 summer ESY program, I ALSO FIND there is no dispute that this position was separate and apart from her primary contract which ended on June 30, 2023.

Following a series of emails with other District officials, on September 1, 2023, the District Superintendent, Dr. Anthony Iachetti informed Chaiken that it was the District's position that since she worked the Summer ESY program, which went past the original June 30th expiration of Chaiken's original contract, the District was imposing the 60 day statutory notice deadline against her, effective August 4, 2023 even though Chaiken had not signed the renewal contract for the coming school year. According to Dr. Iachetti, should Chaiken fail adhere to this timeline, the District would seek a one year suspension of her teaching license. On August 15, 2023, Dr. Iachetti sent Chaiken another communication advising her to report to the school on September 5, 2023 to complete the exiting process, and that he would attempt to release her from any further teaching obligations before September 30, 2023. As a seasoned veteran who had achieved the highest level entrusted to individuals who work in the field of education, I FIND that these were bad faith actions by the Superintendent against a non-tenured teacher who had just completed her first year of work with the District, the outcome of which would have no useful purpose other than to try to intimidate a younger less seasoned employee into returning to the District after they had already decided not to return.

Having accepted a new non-tenured position with another District, Chaiken advised District officials that she would be unable to appear for the final exit meeting.

The communication from Dr. Iachetti was followed by another communication dated September 14, 2023 this time from Danielle Sharples, the principal of the Sixteenth Avenue School where Chaiken had been employed advising her that since she failed to report for work on September 5th in accordance with the unsigned contract, the District would be moving to have her license suspended for up to one year. While District officials including the Superintendent may have been unhappy with Chaiken about her decision not to return for a second untenured year of employment, I FURTHER FIND that does not constitute grounds under the law to abuse the suspension statute against a less experienced employee who had fulfilled all of her obligations to the District in good faith.

On September 7, 2023, attorney Alfred Maurice informed District officials in writing that any subsequent action the District threatened to take against Chaiken's license would be deemed overzealous and frivolous and Chaiken would seek appropriate relief against the District for taking such action.

I FIND the District ignored the notice sent by attorney Maurice, and the within litigation seeking a suspension was commenced against Chaiken by the District on or about October 14, 2023.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS OF FACTS AS TO EVELYN CORDOVA

Similar to the facts which apply to Ms. Chaiken, most of the facts which pertain to Ms. Cordova are also undisputed. As such, I make the following FINDINGS OF FACT:

Respondent Evelyn Cordova is the holder of a standard instructional certificate with endorsements as a teacher of social studies, teacher of students with disabilities and elementary school teacher Grades K-6. She also holds a standard administrative certificate with a supervisor endorsement.
